CITIES AND TOWNS—

Page

Home Rule Amendment—Bonds—

A city of 5000 or over governed by a charter adopted pursuant to Section 5, Article 11 of the Constitution, in which said charter is conferred the power to supply the inhabitants thereof with water, may not be organized into a water control and improvement district having for its purpose the supplying of water to the inhabitants of said city, as provided in Section 135, Chapter 25, of the General Laws of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, for the reason that such cities exercise the power mentioned pursuant to constitutional authority 174

COMMISSIONERS COURT—

Highways—Mineral Rights—

The statutes of this State do not authorize commissioners courts to lease public highways for oil, gas or other purposes..... 183

Where rights of way are acquired for public highways in this State, whether by gift, purchase, or condemnation proceedings, the county does not acquire title to such land for any purpose other than that to which it was originally dedicated and, in this instance, an easement for the use and benefit of the public, nor does the county own the mineral rights thereunder..... 183

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—

Debts—Bonds of the University—

The Board of Regents of the University of Texas is without authority to borrow money for University purposes and issue bonds and create an obligation to pay such debt out of future revenues of the University to be collected over a period of as much as fifteen years. The obligation thus attempted to be created would be void and of no effect and could not lawfully be paid since it would be a debt in violation of Section 49 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas. Chapter 175, Acts Thirty-ninth Legislature, is unconstitutional to the extent that it authorizes the creation of such a debt..... 454

Legislature—Expense of Impeachment—

The financing, or underwriting, of the expenses of a session of the House of Representatives for impeachment purposes from private or individual sources is unauthorized and unwarranted as against public policy 211

Mileage and Per Diem of Members Legislature—

Though the question is not entirely free from doubt, and such doubt should be resolved in favor of an act of the Legislature, and accordingly it is held that members of the House of Representatives attending a session of the House convened upon proclamation of the Speaker as provided by statute for the purpose of making an investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment would have valid claims against the State for mileage and per diem, notwithstanding the fact that no previous appropriation had been made for such purpose by the Legislature..... 329

Pardon—

It is beyond the power of the Legislature to enact a statute which would pardon a person convicted upon articles of impeachment by the State Senate; a legislative enactment purporting to cancel, remit, release and discharge disqualifications imposed by a judgment of the State Senate, acting as a court under Article 15 of the State Constitution, is void; the disqualification mentioned in Article 15, State Constitution, is constitutional in its nature and cannot be set aside by statute; Senate Bill No. 252 is unconstitutional 199

Private Property—

Legislature may not restrict right to convey private property, except in the proper exercise of its police powers or the right of eminent domain 188

Public Health—
When related to public health, safety, morals and general welfare the Legislature may authorize municipalities to fix reasonable restrictions governing the location, erection and maintenance of buildings.		193
Special Session of Legislature—
The House of Representatives has power and authority to convene in the manner set forth in the statutes for the purpose of impeaching the head or heads of any State department or for the purpose of making an investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment of the head or heads of any State department, without being convened by the Governor.		283

CORPORATIONS—
Blue Sky Law—
In all cases where capital stock has been or shall be decreased subsequent to the date of August 15, 1923, when the Blue Sky Law became effective, the provisions of said Blue Sky Law must be complied with before offering stock for sale.		227
Educational Purposes—
The term "educational" as applied to corporations organized under subdivision 2 of Article 1302, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, refers to corporations having as their primary object the imparting of knowledge, by giving instruction in some recognized field of study.		222
Where it is apparent from the purpose clause contained in the proposed charter of a corporation that the primary object of its creation is to advertise well known business enterprises, and that the educational benefits to be derived from carrying out such function are purely incidental, the creation of such corporation as an educational undertaking under subdivision 2 of Article 1302, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, is unauthorized.		222
Foreign Corporation—Oil and Gas—Pipe Line—
That Chapter 15, Title 32, refers only to domestic corporations and then only to such corporations as desire to engage under the provisions therein contained in the business of transporting oil and producing oil		218
That a foreign corporation may not be admitted under the provisions of Section 15, Title 32, but a foreign corporation may be admitted under the provisions of subdivision 36, Article 1302, with the privileges accorded to it in Chapter 102 to engage in the pipe line business; and a foreign corporation may be admitted to maintain an oil business under the provision of subdivision 37, Article 1302, but may not be admitted under any law to engage in both businesses		218
No Par Value—
A corporation under Chapter 19A, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, may issue stock of no par value, having no right to vote.		214
A corporation under the provisions of Chapter 19A, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, may issue stock having no par value divided into classes, which classes possess an unequal voting ratio.		214
Non Par Value—
Chapter 77, Acts of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, authorizing the issuance by corporations of shares of stock having no par value does not transgress Section 6, Article 12, of the Constitution, for bidding corporations to issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received.		231
Satisfactory evidence that at least ten per cent of the authorized shares of stock to be issued without nominal or par value has been subscribed and paid for in an amount not less than twenty-five thousand dollars may be furnished by the incorporators or directors, as required by Section 4, through an affidavit executed in the manner and form prescribed by Article 1127, Revised Civil Statutes		231

CORPORATIONS—(Continued)

Purpose Clause—

A corporation may not be formed for two or more purposes found in different sections of Article 1302, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925. . . . 221

The Secretary of State should decline to file the charter of a specific corporation, inasmuch as the purpose clause is shown from two subdivisions of said Article 1302. 221

Purpose Clause—

A corporation with the purpose clause as shown, organized under Chapter 83, General Laws of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, may not be licensed to act as the attorney in fact or agent for a Lloyds insurance association, as provided in Chapter 127, General Laws of the Thirty-seventh Legislature. 309

Purpose Clause—

The statement in a proposed charter of a purpose of a corporation organized under Chapter 83 of the Acts of the Thirty-sixth Legislature which recites that it is formed "to accumulate and lend money * * *" states with sufficient specificity the object of its creation in this regard, without mentioning the method by which the money is to be accumulated. 238

DEPOSITORIES—

Independent School District—

It is within the power of a Board of Trustees of the Independent School District of San Antonio to pass upon the propriety of the expenditure of money on hand; and when, acting in the apparent scope of its lawful power, the Board orders the President and Secretary to sign and deliver checks on a given fund, the depository paying such checks is fully protected. 386

EDUCATIONAL—

Liability of Independent School District—

When an independent school district refuses to recognize its liability to the county for its pro rata part of the expense of administering the school affairs of the county, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, as a condition precedent to the district's receiving its share of the Available School Fund, cannot require that such district recognize and pay such liability to the county. 408

ELECTIONS—

Marking of Ballot—

It would violate the law directing voters how to vote a mixed ticket for a voter to scratch the name of a candidate printed in the Democratic column and write in the place of it the name of a candidate printed in the Republican column after marking off all the tickets except the Democratic ticket. But the provisions of the law prescribing the method of marking the ballots are directory and not mandatory, and a vote cast in the manner above described should be counted for all the Democrats so voted for and for the Republican so voted for. 240

EXPRESS COMPANIES—

Motor Trucks—Authority Railroad Commission to Regulate Rates—

Individuals and corporations operating automobile trucks for the carriage of packages, papers, etc., between points within this State having a defined route and definite places of delivery within the communities between which they carry, are doing an express business by railroad or otherwise within Article 3860, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and are subject to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission with reference to rates of carriage. 244

FEES OF OFFICE—

Page

Sheriff—

Where there are a number of cases and the sheriff conveys the prisoners to jail and summons witnesses, he is entitled to mileage only for the number of miles actually traveled and is not entitled to duplicate his mileage so as to receive mileage for many times the number of miles actually traveled..... 248

District Clerk—

The only instance in which a district clerk is authorized to charge a fee for assessing damages is where the same is assessed by him under the direction of the court as provided for by Revised Statutes, Article 1938..... 247

Tax Collector—

Officers are not entitled to fees unless such fees are provided by law. The words "collection of taxes," as used in Article 3872, Texas Complete Statutes of 1920, means to obtain payment of same from the taxpayers, and has no reference to taxes collected by some other authority and turned over to the tax collector..... 251

GAME, FISH AND OYSTER COMMISSION—

Fisherman's Tax—

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is authorized to collect a fisherman's tax as well as dealer's tax on all fish taken and sold from private waters by virtue of Article 10, Chapter 73, General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature. 255

Term and Appointment of Commissioners—

The first appointment to the office of Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in 1895 fixed the beginning of the two-year term, and all subsequent terms begin on that date. An appointment therefore made on February 20, 1923, entitled the appointee to hold the office for the unexpired term only, which began July 30, 1921. The appointee under the appointment of February 20, 1923, is now a holdover 344

HIGHWAYS—

Chauffeur's License—

Owners, operators or chauffeurs of motor vehicles are not, simply as such, required to have a chauffeur's license..... 257

One employed by another to operate the latter's motor vehicle, either for a stipulated sum or for wages or for part of the profits that might arise from the use of the vehicle for hire, whether the car be for pleasure or otherwise, is required to have a chauffeur's license, even though as an incident of such employment or business he operates such motor vehicle in the hauling of passengers or goods 257

Guide-posts—Highway Markers—

The State Highway Commission is not authorized by law to enter into a contract for the erection and maintenance of mileposts, signposts, guide-posts and highway markers on the State highways, under which contract the contractor is granted the exclusive privilege of using such posts and markers for commercial advertising.. 280

Roads—Authority of State Highway Commission—

State Highway Commission has authority to let road contracts only out of State Highway Fund..... 276

State Highway Commission has no authority to let county road contracts 276

Counties have authority to make road contracts even on State designated highways, subject, however, to the plans and specifications being approved by the State Highway Engineer. 276

Expense of Legislature—
There would be no authority to issue warrants against the exhausted appropriation made for the contingent expenses of the Thirty-ninth Legislature to cover compensation of members of the House while attending an impeachment session, should it be called by the Speaker	329
Mileage and Per Diem Members of Legislature—
The foregoing applies only to sessions held for actual impeachment purposes or for the purpose of investigation pertaining to an actual contemplated impeachment. There is no lawful authority for the House of Representatives to so convene merely for the purpose of investigation without any actual impeachment being contemplated. The privileges surrounding an authorized session would not exist in connection with a session merely for investigation purposes	329

Non-resident Company—Loans—
A foreign life insurance company formerly doing a life insurance business in Texas, which withdrew from this State at the time of the adoption of the Robertson Law owing no taxes to the State, and which has power under its charter and the laws of the State of its creation to lend its funds in the State of its domicile, may re-enter Texas under Article 4790, Revised Civil Statutes, for the purpose of lending its funds as provided therein.....	287
Texas Agent—Forfeiture of Permit—
The acceptance being the final act consummating the contract, and the car at that time being in Texas, the company is thereby writing insurance on property located in this State, and is violating the resident agent law, if its policies are not issued through a local licensed agent	299
The permit of a foreign insurance company may be forfeited for violating the “resident agent” law.....	299
 LABOR LAWS—
Child Labor—
One of the purposes of a statute forbidding the employment of children in certain places is to protect them from their own immaturity, inexperience and heedlessness.....	317
Purpose—
A statute should be given that construction that will effect its purpose, if this can be done without violating the letter of the act, and if possible to avoid unreasonable and unjust consequences and which comports with the public policy of the State and is controlled as far as can be determined by the legislative intent and purpose	317

- One confined in a State hospital for the insane at the State's expense is not a pensioner under the terms of Article 6227, Revised Statutes, 1925 353

PUBLIC LANDS--

Capitol Syndicate Lands--

- Under Chapter 163, Acts of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, Regular Session, relating to the sale of public free school lands, and particularly Section 5 thereof, the words "shall be sold in whole tracts only * * *" and in quantities not to exceed eight sections to one purchaser." together with the language used in Section 6 thereof, to the effect that land heretofore purchased by one shall be counted against him, refers to surveys; that is, that the amount of land the person was entitled to purchase is to be determined by the number of surveys and not by the quantity in acres. 356

Oil and Gas Permits--

- Chapter 81, Thirty-sixth Legislature, First and Second Called Sessions, provides no method by which a combination of permits authorized by Section 12 thereof once effected can be dissolved. 348
- Two or more permittees grouping their permits as authorized by Section 12 of Chapter 81, Acts Thirty-sixth Legislature, First and Second Called Sessions, thereby enter into a new contract with the State to develop any part of the whole area formed by such combination within eighteen months from the average date of the permits forming such combination, and cannot thereafter by an act of their own dissolve the combination so formed and revert to their former individual permits. 348

PUBLIC WEIGHERS--

Private Weighers--

- The business of private weighing is a legitimate vocation and falls within those ordinary occupations which a citizen is privileged to follow as an inalienable right, subject only to the valid exercise of the police power of the State. 362

Foreclosure Lien—
The State has a separate and distinct lien for each year's taxes and a separate and distinct cause of action arises thereunder for the enforcement of such lien, and when the taxes for each year become delinquent such lien in favor of the State is created independent of any and all other liens acquired by the State for any previous year against the same property on account of actual payment of the taxes, and nothing short of actual payment of the taxes will extinguish the said lien.....	447
Franchise Taxes—
State franchise taxes do not accrue against State banks converting into national banks under the provisions of Article 502, Revised Statutes, 1925, after the date of conversion.....	140
Gross Production—
A claim of the State of Texas for gross receipts tax on crude oil production due under Chapter 45, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, is a lien against the leasehold interest of oil rights whereby such tax accrued, and such leasehold interest or oil rights pass into the hands of a receiver appointed by a State court of competent jurisdiction, and the purchasers from such receiver subject to such lien; and it is the duty of such receiver, for the preservation of the estate, to discharge such lien in preference to other creditors.....	443
Inheritance Tax—
Where a testator has promised another upon a valuable consideration to make a bequest to him, and the will contains no such bequest, but suit is brought against the estate for specific performance of the contract, and the claim is thereafter settled by the executor, the amount paid in settlement is not deductible under the inheritance tax law; for in the contemplation of that law the amount so paid passed by will.....	437
