(b) The Board shall cause an investigation to be made whenever a complaint is filed with or by the Board. In any investigation or hearing by the Board, it may require the attendance of witnesses by issuing notices to witnesses and ordering them to appear and testify. The Board may require testimony to be given under oath or affirmation. Such notice to a witness shall be issued at the request of the Board or the accused licensee or the organization whose application for license has been denied. Such notice must be in writing and signed by presiding member of the Board, and shall notify the witness of the time and place to appear. Notice to a witness shall be served on him personally or by mailing same to him by registered mail, return receipt requested. Proof of such may be made by certificate of the person making the same, with return receipt attached when made by registered mail.

If any witness fails or refuses to appear before the Board, such witness shall be compelled by a Judge of any District Court to appear and testify at a hearing before such judge in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in a civil suit in a District Court. Application for such hearing may be filed by any party to such proceedings in any District Court of the County in which such witness resides or may be found. The judge shall fix by order a time and place for such hearing and shall provide for such notice to the Board and the accused or the applicant for a license or certificate which has been denied as he determines proper. If such witness fails to appear or testify he shall be punished as in case of contempt.

(c) As to the licenses of funeral establishments, except when the accused admits a violation and agrees in writing to a judgment of the Board suspending or revoking the license in question or placing the accused on probation, the Board shall have no power or authority to suspend or revoke the license of the accused. However, the Board shall have the right to initiate a civil action in a District Court in the county in which the accused resides for the purpose of seeking a revocation or suspension of such license or probationary action all as hereinafter provided.

If the Board shall be of the opinion that the license of the accused should be revoked or suspended for a period not to exceed three years, and if the accused will accept a decision of the Board to such effect, it shall prepare a formal judgment and submit the same to him; and upon his agreement to its entry, evidenced by memorandum in writing signed and acknowledged by him, the Board shall enter judgment accordingly and the same shall have the force and effect of a judgment of the District Court of the county of the residence of the accused. A copy of the judgment, together with a copy of the complaint, shall be mailed to the clerk of the District Court of the county of residence of the accused for entry in the minutes of the court.

(d) The term "Accusation" or "Complaint" shall embrace all complaints brought before the Board. By the terms "civil suit," "court action" or "formal complaint" is meant the pleading by which disciplinary action is instituted by the Board in a District Court of this state.

The Texas rules of civil procedure shall govern the procedure in all proceedings under Civil Actions (Formal Complaint).

The District Attorney or the County Attorney of the county of residence of the accused licensee as defendant, or the Attorney General or such counsel as the Board may designate shall represent the Board as it shall determine.

The formal complaint shall be the pleading by which the proceeding is instituted. The formal complaint shall be filed in the name of the Texas State Board of Morticians as plaintiff against the accused licensee as defendant and shall set forth the violation with which the defendant is charged. The prayer may be that the defendant "be placed on probation or his (its) license suspended or revoked as the facts shall warrant."

The answer of the defendant to the formal complaint shall either admit or deny each allegation of the petition, except where the defendant is unable to admit or deny the allegation, in which case defendant shall set forth the reasons he (it) cannot admit or deny.

Proceedings under formal complaint shall be entitled to preferred setting at the request of either party.

If the court shall find from the evidence in a case tried without a jury, or from the verdict of the jury, if there be one, that the defendant is guilty of no violation, he shall enter judgment so declaring and dismiss the complaint; but if he shall find the defendant guilty, he shall determine whether the party shall be (a) placed under probation (in which case he shall specify the terms thereof), (b) the license suspended (in which case he shall fix the term of suspension), or (c) the license revoked; and he shall enter judgment accordingly. If the judgment be one finding the defendant guilty as aforesaid, it shall direct transmittal of certified copies of the judgment and complaint to the Secretary of the Board of Morticians; and the latter shall make proper notation on the membership rolls.

At any time after the expiration of one year from the date of final judgment or revocation of a license, such party may petition the District Court of the county of his residence for reinstatement. Notice of such action shall be given to the Secretary of the State Board of Morticians.

The Board shall have the right to institute an action in its own name to enjoin the violation of any of the provisions of this Section. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy recognized by law. The Board shall be represented by counsel designated by it, or, by the Attorney General and/or County and District Attorney of this state.

E. Each funeral establishment shall designate to the Board a funeral director in charge, and such funeral director in charge shall be directly responsible for the funeral directing and embalming business of the licensee. Any change or changes in such designation shall be given to the Board promptly.

F. The Board may issue such rules and regulations as shall comply with and shall effect the intent of the provisions of this Section.

G. Any premises on which funeral directing or embalming is practiced shall be open at all times to inspection by any agent of the Board or by any duly authorized agent of the state or of the municipality in which the premises are located. Each licensed funeral establishment shall be thoroughly inspected at least once each year by an agent of the Board or by an agent of the state or a political subdivision thereof whom the Board has authorized to make inspections on its behalf. A report of this annual inspection shall be filed with the Board.

Rules and regulations

Sec. 5. A. The Board is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable governing the granting, suspension and revocation of licenses as prescribed by the provisions of this Act.

B. Whenever it is provided in this Act that the Board may or shall issue any rules and regulations, such rules and regulations thereunder proposed shall be effective only after due notice and hearing.

Revocation, cancellation or suspension of licenses of funeral directors, embalmers and apprentices

Sec. 6. The State Board of Morticians shall have the right to cancel, revoke, or suspend or place on probation the license of any individual person licensed under this Act as provided by subparagraph H of Section 3 above.

Proceedings under this Section shall be initiated by filing charges with the State Board of Morticians in writing and under oath. Said charges may be made by any person or persons. The President of the State Board of Morticians shall set a time and place for hearing, shall cause a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and place fixed for hearing, to be served on the respondent or his counsel at least ten (10) days prior thereto. When personal service is impossible, or cannot be effected, the Board shall cause to be published once a week for two (2) successive weeks a notice of the hearing in a newspaper published in the county wherein the respondent was last known to reside and shall mail a copy of the charges and of such notice to the respondent at his last known address. When publication of the notice is necessary, the date of hearing shall not be less than ten (10) days after the date of the last publication of the notice. At said hearing the respondent shall have the right to appear either personally or by counsel, or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the Board. The Board shall thereupon determine the charges upon their merits. All charges, complaints, notices, orders, records and publications authorized or required by the terms of this Act shall be privileged.

Any licensed funeral director and/or embalmer whose license has been revoked, suspended or renewal refused, or a person to whom the Board has refused to issue a license under this Act, shall have the right of appeal, from any such decision of the Board to any District Court in the county in which he resides within twenty (20) days from and after the date the said Board announces its final decision. In a suit brought to review orders, decisions, or other acts of the Board, the trial shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in an appeal from a Justice of Peace Court to the County Court. The rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the Court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this section. Upon application, the Board may reissue a license to practice as a funeral director or embalmer to a person whose license has been cancelled or suspended, but such application, in the case of cancellation or revocation, shall not be made prior to one (1) year after the cancellation or revocation, and shall be made in such a manner and form as the Board may require.

The State Board shall have the power to appoint committees from the membership. The duties of any committees appointed from the State Board of Morticians membership may consider such matters pertaining to the enforcement of this Act as shall be referred to such committees, and they shall make recommendations to the State Board of Morticians with respect thereto. The State Board of Morticians shall have the power, and may delegate the said power to any committee, to issue subpoenas, and subpoenas duces tecum, and to compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books, records and documents, to administer oaths, and to take testimony concerning all matters within its jurisdiction. The State Board of Morticians shall not be bound by such rules of evidence or procedure, in the conduct of its proceedings, but the determination shall be founded on sufficient legal evidence to sustain it. The State Board of Morticians shall have the right to institute an action in its own name to enjoin the violation of any of the provisions of this Act. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law. The State Board of Morticians shall be represented by the Attorney General and/or the County or District Attorneys of this state, or counsel designated and empowered by the Board. Before entering any order cancelling, suspending, refusing to renew, or revoking a license to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer, the Board shall hold a hearing in accordance with the procedure as set forth in this Act.

The provisions of this Section shall not apply to funeral establishments or licenses pertaining to funeral establishments.

Acting without license

Sec. 6A. Any person posing as a funeral director, embalmer, or apprentice, holding himself out to the public as a funeral director, embalmer, or apprentice as those terms are defined in this Act, without being properly licensed under this Act shall be guilty of a violation of this Act, and on complaint of the Board may be prosecuted and punished under the provisions of Section 7.

Certificate for foreign students

Sec. 6B. Any citizen of a country other than the United States who has completed a full course of mortuary science at a Board-approved college in Texas, may upon application to the State Board, and after payment of the same examination fee required of others, be given the Board examinations in either embalming, funeral directing or both, and, upon successfully making the minimum grades required of other applicants, may be awarded a "Certificate of Merit" by the Board. Such certificate shall in no manner authorize a holder thereof to practice embalming and/or funeral directing in this state unless the holder is otherwise licensed as an embalmer and/or funeral director under the provisions of this Act.

Penalty

Sec. 7. Any person who practices as a funeral director, embalmer or apprentice in violation of any provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both. Each day of such practice shall constitute a separate offense.

Exemption

Sec. 8. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring that funeral establishments be owned by licensed persons.

Every provision of this Act, every Section and every part of every Section, is hereby declared to be independent and severable insofar as this relation shall be necessary to the validity of this Act. Should any provisions of this Act be held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, for any reason, such holding shall not affect the validity of any remaining provision of this Act, it being the legislative intent that the Act shall stand, notwithstanding the invalidity of any such provision or Section; the fact that any provision, Section, or part of any Section, is void or invalid shall not be held to invalidate any other provision hereof.

"Sec. 3. Conflicts. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are repealed to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 4590—3. Human transplantations and blood transfusions; liability for negligence; cash payment for blood

Declaration of policy

Section 1. The availability of scientific knowledge, skills and materials for the transplantation, injection, transfusion or transfer of human tissue, organs, blood and components thereof is important to the health and welfare of the people of this State. The imposition of legal liability without fault upon the persons and organizations engaged in such scientific procedures inhibits the exercise of sound medical judgment and restricts the availability of important scientific knowledge, skills and materials. It is therefore the public policy of this State to promote the health and welfare of the people by limiting the legal liability arising out of such scientific procedures to instances of negligence.

Limitation of liability

Sec. 2. No physician, surgeon, hospital, blood bank, tissue bank, or other person or entity who donates, obtains, prepares, transplants, injects, transfuses or otherwise transfers, or who assists or participates in obtaining, preparing, transplanting, injecting, transfusing or transferring any tissue, organ, blood or component thereof from one or more human beings, living or dead, to another human being, shall be liable as the result of any such activity, save and except that each such person or entity shall remain liable for his or its own negligence.

Exception

Sec. 3. (a) No blood bank may pay cash for blood. No blood bank may pay a seller for blood by check unless the check is sent to the seller by United States mail not before the expiration of 15 days following the day the blood is taken from the seller.

(b) If a blood bank purchases blood in violation of Subsection (a) of this section and the blood contains harmful substances, the blood bank is not entitled to the immunity provided in this Act.

(c) In any suit brought under the exception in Subsection (b) of this section, the burden shall be on the blood bank to show that the blood was not purchased in violation of Subsection (a) of this section.

(d) "Blood bank" means a blood bank licensed by the Division of Biological Standards of the National Institute of Health, or the American Association of Blood Banks.

Legislative Intent

The Governor filed the following letter with the Secretary of State along with House Concurrent Resolution No. 195, Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 4122, which corrects Senate Bill No. 534 [Chapter 613 enacting this article]:

"Dear Mr. Secretary:

"On June 4, 1971, I signed Senate Bill No. 534. At that time, I was unaware that House Concurrent Resolution No. 195 had been passed by the Legislature directing the Senate Enrolling Room to make certain changes in the bill. House Concurrent Resolution No. 195 evidently was misplaced, inasmuch as it was not received by my office until June 10, 1971.

"Although I have already signed Senate Bill No. 534 into law, I am filing with my signature H.C.R. No. 195 as evidence of the legislative intent embodied in Senate Bill No. 534.

"Sincerely, Preston Smith, Governor of Texas."

House Concurrent Resolution No. 195, which was filed with the Secetary of State on June 14, 1971, reads:

"WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 534 has been passed by both houses and is now in the Senate Enrolling Room, and certain corrections need to be made in the bill; now, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the Enrolling Clerk of the Senate be directed to correct the bill so that all below the enacting clause reads as follows:

"Section 1. Declaration Policy. The availability of scientific knowledge, skills and materials for the transplantation, injection, transfusion or transfer of human tissue, organs, blood and components thereof is important to the health and welfare of the people of this state. The imposition of legal liability without fault, or the determination that the furnishing of human tissue, organs, blood and components thereof is a product as opposed to a service, upon persons and organizations engaged in such scientific procedures inhibits the exercise of sound medical judgment and imposes too rigid a standard of produce liability. It is therefore the public policy of this state to promote the health and welfare of the people by limiting the legal liability arising out of such scientific procedures to instances of negligence.

"Sec. 2. Limitation of Liability. No physician, surgeon, hospital, blood bank, tissue bank, or other person or entity who donates, obtains, prepares, transplants, injects, transfuses or otherwise transfers, or who assists or participates in obtaining, preparing, transplanting, injecting, transfusing or transferring any tissue, organ, blood or component thereof from one or more human beings, living or dead, to another human being, shall not be considered for any purposes as having furnished a product thereby, but performing any of the foregoing shall be considered as having provided a service and the concept of product liability shall never be applied thereto.

"Sec. 3. Declaring an Emergency. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Title of Act:
An Act relating to the liability for damages of persons engaged in the transplantation or transfusion of human tissues and blood and related purposes; prohibiting payment in cash for blood by blood banks; providing penalties; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1985, ch. 613.

[2] Article 3.53.

Art. 3.73. Variable Life Insurance or Annuity Contracts

Segregated portfolios of investments

Section 1. A domestic life insurance company, stock, mutual, or fraternal, may establish one or more segregated portfolios of investments for the purpose of meeting and complying with requirements arising from issuing individual and group life insurance and annuity contracts with variable benefits. Such portfolios of investments shall have such identity as is prescribed by the State Board of Insurance and other appropriate authority.

Separate accounts; establishment

Sec. 2. Domestic life insurance companies writing variable life insurance contracts may establish one or more separate accounts and create such divisions of any separate accounts as are appropriate to its operation. A segregated portfolio of investments established for the purpose of writing variable insurance or annuity contracts may be used in connection with one or more separate accounts, or it may be accounted for as a part of a separate account.

Allocations to separate accounts; valuation of assets; ownership; transfers

Sec. 3. Domestic life insurance companies establishing such separate accounts may allocate thereto amounts (including proceeds applied under optional modes of settlement or under dividend options) to provide for life insurance (and benefits incidental thereto), payable in fixed or variable amounts or both, subject to the following:

(a) The income, gains and losses, realized or unrealized, attributable to a separate account shall be credited to or charged against the account, without regard to the other income, gains or losses of the company.

(b) To the extent of the reserves and other contract liabilities required to be held in the separate account, amounts allocated to any separate account and accumulations thereon may be invested and reinvested in and only in the securities and investments authorized by Parts I and II of Article 3.39 of this Code for any of the funds of a domestic life insurance company, free and clear of any and all limitations and restrictions in such Article 3.39, and in addition thereto in common capital stocks or other equities which are listed on or admitted to trading in a securities exchange located in the United States of America, or which are publicly held and traded in the 'over-the-counter market' as defined by and meeting the standards of the State Board of Insurance and as to which reliable market quotations have been available. None of the assets allocated to any such separate account shall be invested in common stocks of corporations which shall have defaulted in the payment of any debt within five years next preceding such investment. No such company shall invest in excess of the greater of (i) Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or (ii) five per cent (5%) of the assets of any such separate account, or (iii) ten per cent (10%) of the assets of all such separate accounts in securities or common capital stock of any one corporation, except that subject to the approval of the State Board of Insurance all of the assets of a separate account may be invested in the shares of an open-end investment company or companies registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940[1]. The assets and investments of such separate accounts shall not be taken into account in applying the quantitative investment limitations applicable to other investments of the company. In the purchase of common capital stock or other equities, the insurer shall designate to the broker, or to the seller if the purchase is not made through a broker, and to the transfer agent, when necessary, the specific separate account for which the investment is made.

(c) Reserves for benefits guaranteed by variable life insurance contracts shall be maintained in either the general account or in a separate account, subject to requirements of the State Board of Insurance.

(d) Unless otherwise approved by or not contrary to regulations of the State Board of Insurance, assets allocated to a separate account shall be valued (1) at their market value on the date of valuation, or if there is no readily available market, (2) as provided under the terms of the contract or the rules or other written agreement applicable to such separate account and (3) in accordance with the rules or regulations prescribed by appropriate authority; provided, that unless otherwise specified by the State Board of Insurance, the portion, if any, of the assets of such separate account in excess of the reserves and other contract liabilities required to be held in the separate account shall be valued in accordance with the rules otherwise applicable to the company's assets.

(e) Amounts allocated to a separate account in the exercise of the power granted by this Act shall be owned by the company, and the company shall not be, nor hold itself out to be, a trustee with respect to such amounts except under such circumstances as are otherwise provided by this article. If and to the extent so provided under the applicable contracts, that portion of the assets of any such separate account equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities with respect to such account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct. In the event of the insolvency of the company the net assets of each separate variable life insurance account shall be applied to the contractual claims of the owners or beneficiaries of the variable life insurance contracts applicable thereto.

(f) (1) All transfers made into or out of a separate account shall be made only as authorized by the provisions of this Act and shall be by a transfer in cash, except as otherwise provided herein.

(2) No sale, exchange or other transfer of assets may be made by a company between any of its separate accounts or between any other investment account and one or more of its separate accounts unless, in case of a transfer into a separate account, such transfer is made solely to establish the account or to support the operation of the contracts with respect to the separate account to which the transfer is made, and unless such transfer, whether into or from a separate account, is made by a transfer of cash, or by a transfer of securities having a readily determinable market value, provided that such transfer of securities is approved by the State Board of Insurance. The State Board of Insurance may approve other transfers among such accounts if, in its opinion, such transfers would not be inequitable.

(g) To the extent such company deems it necessary to comply with any applicable federal or State laws, such company, with respect to any separate account, including any separate account which is a management investment company or a unit investment trust, may provide for persons having an interest therein appropriate voting and other rights and special procedures for the conduct of the business of such account, including special rights and procedures relating to investment policy, investment advisory services, selection of independent public accountants, and the selection of a committee, the members of which need not be otherwise affiliated with such company, to manage the business of such account.

[1] 15 U.S.C.A. § 80a-1 et seq.

Statement of variable benefits

Sec. 4. Any life insurance contract providing benefits payable in variable amounts delivered or issued for delivery in this State shall contain a statement of the essential features of the procedures to be followed by the insurance company in determining the dollar or unit amount of such variable benefits. Any such life insurance contract under which the benefits vary to reflect investment experience, including a group life insurance contract and any certificate in evidence of variable benefits issued thereunder, shall state that the dollar amount will so vary and shall contain on its first page a statement to the effect that the benefits thereunder are on a variable basis.

Qualification of insurers

Sec. 5. No company shall deliver or issue for delivery within this State variable life insurance contracts unless it is licensed or organized to do a life insurance business in this State, and the State Board of Insurance is satisfied that its condition or method of operation in connection with the issuance of such contracts will not render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this State. In this connection, the State Board of Insurance shall consider among other things:

(a) The history and financial condition of the company;

(b) The character, responsibility and fitness of the officers and directors of the company; and

(c) The law and regulation under which the company is authorized in the state of domicile to issue variable contracts.

If the company is a subsidiary of an admitted life insurance company, or affiliated with such company through common management or ownership, it may be deemed by the State Board of Insurance to have met the provisions of this section if either it or the parent or the affiliated company meets the requirements hereof.

The provisions of this article shall not be construed to prevent a domestic life insurance company from qualifying to do business in another state, and such companies are authorized to do a variable contract business in another state in accordance with the laws of that state, provided that any such business done and any transaction arising therefrom is capable of being identified separately.

No insurer may file a variable life insurance contract for approval by the State Board of Insurance unless it has complied with such advance clearance procedures as may be established by the State Board of Insurance.

Rules and regulations

Sec. 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Board of Insurance shall have sole authority to regulate the issuance and sale of variable life insurance contracts, and to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be appropriate to regulate and to carry out the purposes and provisions of this Act and in augmentation thereof. The State Board of Insurance may make such provision as is necessary to achieve conformity with federal law.

Construction of Act; exceptions; grace provisions; reserve liability

Sec. 7. Except for Paragraphs 2, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12 of Article 3.44, Insurance Code, Article 3.44a, Insurance Code, Paragraph 3 of Article 3.45, Insurance Code, Section 2, Paragraph (1) of Article 3.50, Insurance Code, Article 11.12, Insurance Code, Article 11.13, Insurance Code, and Article 11.14, Insurance Code, and except as otherwise provided in this article, all pertinent provisions of this Code not conflicting with this article shall apply to such separate accounts and contracts relating thereto. The provisions of this article shall be considered and interpreted as being in conjunction with the provisions of Article 3.72 and other applicable statutes except that any conflict or ambiguity arising from such consideration shall be resolved on the basis of provisions in this article. Any individual variable life insurance contract, delivered or issued for delivery in this State, shall contain grace, reinstatement, and nonforfeiture provisions appropriate to such a contract. Any group variable life insurance contract, delivered or issued for delivery in this State, shall contain a grace provision appropriate to such a contract.

The reserve liability for variable contracts shall be established in accordance with actuarial procedures that recognize the variable nature of the benefits provided and any mortality or other contractual guarantees.

Use of account or portfolio

Sec. 8. No separate account or segregated portfolio of investments shall be used for both variable life insurance contracts and variable annuity contracts.

Effective date

Sec. 9. The provisions of this Act shall take effect on September 1, 1971.

Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1792, ch. 529, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 2. This Act is cumulative of and in addition to the authority granted by any other law of this State relating to separate accounts for insurance companies and shall not be deemed to repeal any such laws but all other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

On and after the filing and effective date of such classification of such risks and rates, no such insurer shall issue or renew any such insurance at premium rates which are greater or less than, or different from those approved by the Board as just, reasonable, and adequate for the risks to which they respectively apply, and not confiscatory as to any class of insurance carriers authorized by law to write such insurance.

It is expressly provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, a rate or premium for such insurance in excess of the standard rate or premium that has been promulgated or approved by the Board may be used on any specific risk if (1) a written application is made to the Board naming the insurer and stating the coverage and rate proposed, (2) the person to be insured or person authorized to act in relation to the risk to be insured consents to such rate, (3) the reasons for requiring such excess rate or premium are stated in or attached to the application, (4) the person to be insured or person authorized to act for such person signs the application, and (5) the Board approves the application by order or by stamping; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not be applicable to an automobile owned by an individual or owned jointly by two or more relatives who are residents in the same household provided such automobile is identified and rated by the State Board of Insurance as a private passenger automobile or is a farmer's truck with a low capacity, but this provision of inapplicability to automobiles or a farm truck individually or jointly owned shall not limit current rating practices and exceptions with respect thereto.

Sections 2 and 3 of the act of 1971 provided:

"Sec. 2. "Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict."

SUBCHAPTER C. FIRE INSURANCE AND ALLIED LINES

Art. 5.33. Reducing Hazard

The Board shall have full authority and power to give each city, town, village or locality credit for each and every hazard they may reduce or entirely remove, and also for all added fire fighting equipment, increased police protection, or any other equipment or improvement that has a tendency to reduce the fire hazard of any such city, town, village or locality, and also to give credit for a good fire record made by any city, town, village or locality. Said Board shall also have the power and authority to compel any company to give any or all policy holders credit for any and all hazards said policy holder or holders may reduce or remove. For the purposes of this Article, the installation of a new standard fire hydrant approved by the State Board of Insurance within the required distance of a risk as prescribed by the State Board of Insurance shall constitute a reduction in hazard by the policy holder or holders. Said credit shall be in proportion to such reduction or removal of such hazard and said company or companies shall return to such policy holder or holders such proportional part of the unearned premium charged for such hazard that may be reduced or removed.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3005, ch. 992, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

Art. 21.28—C. Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act

Title

Section 1. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act."

Purpose

Sec. 2. This Act is for the purposes and findings set forth in Section 1 of Article 21.28–A of the Insurance Code and in supplementation thereto by providing funds in addition to assets of impaired insurers for the protection of the holders of "covered claims" as defined herein through payment and through contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or of substitution or otherwise.

Scope

Sec. 3. This Act shall apply to all kinds of insurance written by stock and mutual fire insurance companies, casualty insurance companies and fire and casualty insurance companies licensed to do business in this State; and shall also include all kinds of insurance written by county mutual insurance companies, Lloyd's and reciprocal exchanges licensed to do business in this State; but shall not apply to insurance written by farm mutual insurance companies or title insurance companies or title insurance written by any insurer; and shall not apply to mortgage guaranty insurance companies or mortgage guaranty insurance, nor to ocean marine insurance; and shall not apply to Mexican casualty insurance companies or to policies of insurance issued by Mexican casualty insurance companies.

Construction

Sec. 4. This Act shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose under Section 2 which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation.

Definitions

Sec. 5. As used in this Act
(1) A. "State Board of Insurance" is the State Board of Insurance of this State.
B. "Commissioner" is the Commissioner of Insurance of this State.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(2) "Covered claim" is an unpaid claim of an insured or third party liability claimant which arises out of and is within the coverage and not in excess of the applicable limits of an insurance policy to which this Act applies, issued or assumed (whereby an assumption certificate is issued to the insured) by an insurer licensed to do business in this State, if such insurer becomes an "impaired insurer" after the effective date of this Act and (a) the third party claimant or liability claimant or insured is a resident of this State at the time of the insured event; or (b) the property from which the claim arises is permanently located in this State. "Covered claim" shall also include fifty percent (50%) of unearned premiums but in no event shall a "covered claim" for unearned premiums exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500). Individual "covered claims" shall be limited to Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) and shall not include any amount in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000). "Covered claim" shall not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. "Covered claim" shall not include supplementary payment obligations, including but not limited to adjustment fees and expenses, attorneys fees and expenses, court costs, interest and bond premiums, incurred prior to the determination that an insurer is an "impaired insurer" under this Act.

(3) "Insurer" is stock and mutual fire insurance companies, casualty insurance companies and fire and casualty insurance companies licensed to do business in this State; and also is county mutual insurance companies, Lloyd's and reciprocal exchanges licensed to do business in this State; but shall not include farm mutual insurance companies, title insurance companies, mortgage guaranty insurance companies or Mexican casualty insurance companies.

(4) "Impaired insurer" is (a) an insurer which, after the effective date of this Act, is placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction based on a finding of insolvency, and which has been designated an "impaired insurer" by the Commissioner; or (b) after the effective date of this Act, an insurer placed in conservatorship after it has been deemed by the Commissioner to be insolvent and which has been designated an "impaired insurer" by the Commissioner.

(5) "Payment of covered claims" is actual payment and also is utilization of funds derived from assessments for consummation of contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for covered claims.

(6) "Net direct written premiums" is the gross amount of premiums received from policies of insurance issued in this State to which this Act applies, less return premiums and dividends paid or credited to policyholders. The term does not include premiums for indemnity reinsurance accepted from other licensed insurers, and there shall be no deductions for premiums for indemnity reinsurance ceded to other insurers.

(7) "Lines of business" is policies of insurance falling within one of the three following categories:

1. Workmen's Compensation insurance.
2. Automobile insurance.
3. All other insurance to which this Act applies.

Termination of Policies

Sec. 6. This Act shall apply to covered claims existing prior to the determination that an insurer is an impaired insurer and to covered claims arising within thirty (30) days after the determination of impairment, or before the policy expiration date if less than thirty (30) days after the determination of impairment, or before the insured replaces the policy or effects its cancellation, if he does so within thirty (30) days of the determination of impairment.

Upon the determination by the Commissioner that an insurer is an impaired insurer, the Commissioner shall notify the insureds of the impaired insurer of the determination and of their rights under this Act. Such notification shall be by mail at each insured's last known address, where available, but if sufficient information for notification by mail is not available, notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed in this State shall be sufficient.

Assessments

Sec. 7. Whenever the Commissioner determines that an insurer has become an impaired insurer the receiver appointed in accordance with Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code or the conservator appointed under the authority of Article 21.28–A of the Insurance Code shall promptly estimate the amount of additional funds, by lines of business, needed to supplement the assets of the impaired insurer immediately available to the receiver or the conservator for the purpose of making payment of all covered claims. Thereafter, the Commissioner shall be empowered to make such assessments as may be necessary to produce the additional funds needed to make payment of all covered claims. The Commissioner may make partial assessments as the actual need for additional funds arises for each impaired insurer.

The Commissioner in determining the proportionate amount to be paid by individual insurers under an assessment shall take into consideration the lines of business written by the impaired insurer and shall assess individual insurers in proportion to the ratio that the total net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas by the insurer for such line or lines of business during the next preceding year bears to the total net direct written premium collected by all insurers (except impaired insurers) in the State of Texas for such lines of business. Assessments during a calendar year may be made up to, but not in excess of, two percent (2%) of each insurer's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year in the lines of business written by the impaired insurer. If the maximum assessment in any calendar year does not provide an amount sufficient for payment of covered claims of impaired insurers, assessments may be made in the next and successive calendar years.

Insurers designated as impaired insurers by the Commissioner shall be exempt from assessment from and after the date of such designation and until the Commissioner determines that such insurer is no longer an impaired insurer.

The Commissioner shall designate the impaired insurer for which each assessment or partial assessment is made and it shall be the duty of each insurer to pay the amount of its assessment to the conservator or receiver, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the Commissioner gives notice of the assessment, and assessments may be collected by the conservator or receiver through suits brought for that purpose. Venue for such suits shall lie in Travis County, Texas, and actions to collect such assessments shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. Neither the receiver nor the conservator shall be required to give an appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Funds derived from assessments under the provisions of this Act shall not become assets of the impaired insurer but shall be deemed a special fund loaned to the receiver or the conservator for payment of covered claims, which loan shall be repayable to the extent available from the funds of such impaired insurer, as herein provided.

Penalty for Failure to Pay Assessments

Sec. 8. The Commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact business in this State of any insurer who fails to pay an assessment when due.

Any insurer whose certificate of authority to do business in this State is cancelled or surrendered shall be liable for any unpaid assessments made prior to the date of such cancellation or surrender.

Accounting for and Repayment of Assessments

Sec. 9. Upon receipt from an insurer of payment of an assessment or partial assessment, the receiver or conservator shall provide the insurer with a participation receipt which shall create a liability against the impaired insurer, and the holder of such participation receipt shall be regarded as a general creditor of the impaired insurer; provided, however, that with reference to the remaining balance of any portions of assessments received by the receiver or conservator and not expended in payment of 'covered claims' the holders of such participation receipts shall have preference over other general creditors and shall share pro rata with other holders of participation receipts. The receiver or conservator of any impaired insurer shall adopt accounting procedures reflecting the expenditure and use of all funds received from assessments or partial assessments and shall make a final report of the expenditure and use of such funds to the Commissioner, which final report shall set forth the remaining balance, if any, from the funds collected by assessment. The receiver or conservator shall also make any interim reports concerning such accounting as may be required by the Commissioner. Upon completion of the final report the receiver or conservator shall, as soon thereafter as is practicable, refund pro rata the remaining balance of such assessments to the holders of the participation receipts.

Payment of Covered Claims

Sec. 10. When an insurer has been designated by the Commissioner as an impaired insurer, the receiver or conservator, as the case may be, shall marshal all assets of the impaired insurer, including but not limited to those which are designated as or that constitute reserve assets offsetting reserve liabilities for all liabilities falling within the definition of "covered claim" as defined in this Act. The receiver or conservator shall apply all of such assets to the payment of covered claims, but may utilize funds received from assessments in the payment of claims, pending orderly liquidation or disposition of such assets. When all covered claims have been paid or satisfied by the receiver or conservator, any balance remaining from the liquidation or disposition of such assets shall first be applied in repayment of funds expended from assessments. Such repayments shall be credited as remaining balances and be refunded as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

In addition to authorization to make actual payment of covered claims, the receiver or conservator is specifically authorized to utilize such marshalled assets and funds derived from assessments for the purpose of negotiating and consummating contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for outstanding liabilities of covered claims. This Act shall not be construed to impose restrictions or limitations upon the authority granted or authorized the Commissioner, the conservator or the receiver elsewhere in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this State but shall be construed and authorized for use in conjunction with other portions of the Insurance Code dealing with delinquency proceedings or threatened insolvencies or supervisions or conservatorships.

Approval of Covered Claims

Sec. 11. Covered claims against an impaired insurer placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be processed and acted upon by the receiver or ancillary receiver in the same manner as other claims as provided in Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code and as ordered by the court in which such receivership is pending; provided, however, that funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the receiver and the amount of the assets marshalled by the receiver for payment to holders of covered claims; and provided further, that in ancillary receiverships in this State, funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshalled by the receivers in other states for application to payment of covered claims within this State. Such funds received from assessments shall not be liable for any amount over and above that approved by the receiver for a covered claim and any action brought by the holder of such covered claim appealing from the receiver's action shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the receiver may review his action in approving a covered claim and for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the receivership.

If a conservator is appointed to handle the affairs of an impaired insurer the conservator shall determine whether or not covered claims should or can be provided for in whole or in part by reinsurance, assumption or substitution. Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made the conservator shall give notice of such determination to claimants falling within the class of "covered claims." The conservator shall mail such notice to the latest address reflected in the records of the impaired insurer. If the records of the impaired insurer do not reflect the address of a claimant, the conservator may give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall state the time within which the claimant must file his claim with the conservator, which time shall in no event be less than ninety (90) days from the date of the mailing or publication of such notice. The conservator may require, in whole or in part, that sworn claim forms be filed and may require that additional information or evidence be filed as may be reasonably necessary for the conservator to determine the legality or the amount due under a covered claim. When an impaired insurer has been placed in conservatorship, the funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claim approved by the conservator and the amount of assets marshalled by the conservator for payment to holders of covered claims. Any action brought by the holder of such covered claim against the impaired insurer shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the conservator may review his action in approving a covered claim and may for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the conservatorship.

Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made or upon order of the court to the receiver to give notice for the filing of claims, any person who has a cause of action against an insured of the impaired insurer under a liability insurance policy issued or assumed by such insurer shall (if such cause of action meets the definition of "covered claim") have the right to file a claim with the receiver or the conservator, regardless of the fact that such claim may be contingent, and such claim may be approved as a "covered claim" (1) if it may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured; and (2) if such person shall furnish suitable proof that no further valid claims against such insurer arising out of his cause of action other than those already presented can be made; and (3) if the total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising out of the same act of its insured shall be no greater than its total liability would be were it not in liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation. In the proceedings of considering "covered claims" no judgment against an insured taken after the date of the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as evidence of liability, or of the amount of damages, and no judgment against an insured taken by default or by collusion prior to the commencement of the delinquency proceedings or the appointment of a conservator shall be considered as conclusive evidence either (1) of the liability of such insured to such person upon such cause of action, or (2) of the amount of damages to which such person is therein entitled.

The acceptance of payment from the receiver or conservator by the holder of a covered claim or the acceptance of the benefits of contracts negotiated by the receiver or conservator providing for reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or for substitution shall constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim arising from the occurrence upon which the covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution.

Nonduplication of Recovery

Sec. 12. Any person having a claim against an insurer under any provision in an insurance policy other than a policy of an impaired insurer, which is also a covered claim, shall be required to exhaust first his right under such policy. Any amount payable on a covered claim under this Act shall be reduced by the amount of any recovery under such insurance policy.

Any recovery under this Act shall be reduced by the amount of recovery under any other insurance guaranty act, or its equivalent, in any other state. Any person having a covered claim who is a resident of another state shall not be entitled to payment under this Act unless and until he furnishes adequate sworn proof that he has exhausted any and all rights of recovery that he has in his state of residence and the state of residence of the insured under any insurance guaranty act or its equivalent; provided, however, that any nonresident holder of a covered claim for damage to property with a permanent location in this State shall be entitled to payment of the covered claim without first having exhausted his right of recovery in his state of residence.

Release from Conservatorship or Receivership

Sec. 13. An impaired insurer placed in conservatorship or receivership for which assessments have been made under the provisions of this Act shall not be authorized, upon release from conservatorship or receivership, to issue new or renewal insurance policies until such time as the impaired insurer has repaid in full to each holder of a participation receipt the assessment amount paid by the receipt holder or its assigns; provided, however, the Commissioner may, upon application of the advisory association and after hearing, permit the issuance of new policies in accordance with a plan of operations by the released insurer for repayment of assessments. The Commissioner may, in approving such plan, place such restrictions upon the issuance of new or renewal policies as he deems necessary to the implementation of the plan. The Commissioner shall give ten (10) days notice of such hearing to the insurers to whom the participation receipts were issued for an assessment made for the benefit of the released insurer and the holders of the receipts shall be entitled to appear at and participate in such hearing.

Creation of Advisory Association

Sec. 14. There is created by this Act an advisory association to be known as the "Texas Property and Casualty Advisory Association," herein called the "advisory association" to be composed of eight insurers. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act, the State Board of Insurance shall appoint the insurers who will serve as the initial advisory association. Of the initial advisory association members, two shall be appointed to serve for a one year term of office, two shall be appointed to serve for a two year term of office, two shall be appointed to serve for a three year term of office, and two shall be appointed to serve a four year term of office. Subsequent members of the advisory association shall serve for the term of office as stated above and shall be elected by insurers, subject to the approval of the Commissioner.

The initial members of the advisory association and subsequent members shall be chosen to afford fair representation to all insurers subject to this Act giving due consideration to the various categories of premium income, geographical location and segments of the industry represented in Texas. Vacancies on the advisory association shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as the initial appointments.

The advisory association shall conduct its meetings in Austin, Texas, in the Insurance Building of the State of Texas. Meetings shall be held upon call by the Commissioner or upon written request of a majority of the members. Meetings shall not be open to the public and only members of the advisory association, members of the State Board of Insurance, the Commissioner and persons authorized by the Commissioner shall attend such meetings.

The advisory association shall advise and counsel with the Commissioner upon matters relating to the solvency of insurers. The Commissioner shall call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that an insurer is insolvent or impaired and may call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that a danger of insolvency or impairment of an insurer exists. The advisory association shall, upon majority vote, notify the Commissioner of any information indicating that an insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and request a meeting with the Commissioner. At such meetings the Commissioner may divulge to the advisory association any information in his possession and any records of the State Board of Insurance, including examination reports or preliminary reports from examiners relating to such insurer. The Commissioner may summon officers, directors and employees of an insolvent or impaired insurer (or of an insurer the Commissioner considers to be in danger of insolvency or impairment) to appear before the advisory association for conference or for the taking of testimony. Members of the advisory association shall not reveal information received in such meetings to anyone unless authorized by the Commissioner or the State Board of Insurance or when required as witness in court. Advisory association members shall be subject to the same standard of confidentiality as is imposed upon examiners under Article 1.18 of the Insurance Code, except that no bond shall be required of advisory association members.

The advisory association shall, upon request by the Commissioner, attend hearings before the Commissioner and meet with and advise the Commissioner, the Liquidator or Conservator appointed by the Commissioner, on matters relating to the affairs of an impaired insurer and relating to action that may be taken by the Commissioner, Liquidator or Conservator to best protect the interests of persons holding covered claims against an impaired insurer and relating to the amount and timing of partial assessments and the marshalling of assets and the processing and handling of covered claims.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Reports or recommendations made by the advisory association to the Commissioner, Liquidator or Conservator shall not be considered public documents and there shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action against a member of the advisory association or the advisory association for any report, individual report, recommendation or individual recommendation by the advisory association or members to the Commissioner, Liquidator or Conservator.

Members shall serve without pay but their expenses in attending meetings shall be paid subject to the authorization by the Legislature in its appropriations bills or otherwise, and subject to the rules of the State Board of Insurance. Members shall serve until their successors are appointed.

Any insurer that has an officer, director or employee serving as a member of the advisory association shall not lose the right to negotiate for and enter into contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liability or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for covered claims with the Receiver or Conservator of an impaired insurer. The entering into any such contract shall not be deemed a conflict of interest.

The advisory association or any insurer assessed under this Act shall be an interested party under Section 3(h) of Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code.

The State Board of Insurance shall within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act promulgate reasonable organizational rules for the association which shall set forth, among other things, quorum and attendance requirements for meetings, procedural rules to be followed at association meetings and rules concerning the replacement of members.

Recognition of Assessments in Rates and Premium Tax Offset

Sec. 15. Insurers shall be entitled to recoup assessments up to one percent (1%) of their net direct written premiums from rates promulgated, established or approved by the State Board of Insurance in the next calendar year. The State Board of Insurance in promulgating, establishing or approving rates shall take into account assessments and refunds of assessments made in accordance with this Act and shall include in the formula forming the basis for promulgating, establishing or approving rates sums sufficient to provide for such recoupment.

Unless the State Board of Insurance has determined that all amounts paid by each insurer on assessments on total net direct written premiums have been included in the rates and premiums as provided above, any amounts not so included shall be allowed to such insurer as a credit against its premium tax under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit referred to herein shall be allowed at a rate of twenty percent (20%) per year for five (5) successive years following the date of assessment and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

Immunity

Sec. 16. There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any insurer subject to this Act or its agents or employees, the advisory association or the Commissioner or his representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this Act.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 17. The State Board of Insurance is authorized and directed to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the various purposes and provisions of this Act, and in augmentation thereof.

Appeals

Sec. 18. Any action or ruling of the Commissioner under this Act may be appealed as provided in Article 1.04 of the Insurance Code.

The liability of the appealing insurer for an assessment shall be suspended pending appeal by such insurer contesting the amount or legality of such assessment.

Control Over Conflicts

Sec. 19. The provisions of this Act and the powers and functions authorized by this Act are to be exercised to the end that its purposes are accomplished. This Act is cumulative of existing laws, but in the event of conflict between this Act and any other law relating to the subject matter of this Act or its application, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Unconstitutional Application Prohibited

Sec. 20. This Act and law does not apply to any insurer or other person to whom, under the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Texas, it cannot validly apply.

Severance Clause

Sec. 21. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1362, ch. 360, § 1, eff. May 25, 1971.

Definitions

Sec. 5. As used in this Act

(1) A. "State Board of Insurance" is the State Board of Insurance of this State.

B. "Commissioner" is the Commissioner of Insurance of this State.

(2) "Covered claim" is any policy benefit (including, but not limited to, death, disability, hospitalization, medical, premium deposits, advance premiums, supplemental contracts, cash surrender, loan, nonforfeiture, extended coverage, annuities, and coupon and dividend accumulations) to the owner, beneficiary, assignee, certificate holder, or third party beneficiary, arising from an insurance policy to which this Act applies, issued or assumed by an "insurer" (as defined herein), if such insurer becomes an "impaired insurer" after the effective date of this Act. "Covered claim" shall not include liabilities that are not policy benefits, including but not limited to adjustment fees and expenses, attorneys' fees and expenses, court costs, penalty and bond premiums.

(3) "Insurer" is such mutual assessment companies, local mutual aid associations, local mutual burial associations, Statewide mutual assessment companies and stipulated premium insurance companies, licensed to do business in this State, that voluntarily agree to participate under the provisions of this Act as hereinafter provided.

(4) "Impaired insurer" is (a) an insurer which, after the effective date of this Act, is placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction and which has been determined an "impaired insurer" by the Commissioner; or (b) after the effective date of this Act, an insurer placed in conservatorship after it has been deemed by the Commissioner to be insolvent or its condition such as to render the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to holders of its policies or certificates of insurance and which has been determined an "impaired insurer" by the Commissioner.

(5) "Payment of covered claims" is actual payment and also is utilization of funds derived from assessments for consummation of contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for covered claims; and is also a utilization of future income, from assessments, pledged to retire liens against policies assumed or reinsured under such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution to provide for liabilities.

(6) "Net direct written premiums" is the gross amount of premiums collected on individual life and accident and health policies and certificates of group life and group accident and health insurance issued after the effective date of this Act, less premiums paid for reinsurance ceded, premium refunds, and dividends on said policies and certificates.

(7) "Lines of business" is policies of insurance falling within one of the two following categories:

1. Life Insurance.
2. Health and Accident Insurance.

Termination of Policies

Sec. 6. This Act shall apply to covered claims existing prior to the determination that an insurer is an impaired insurer and to covered claims arising within one hundred eighty (180) days after the determination of impairment, or before the policy expiration date if less than one hundred eighty (180) days after the determination of impairment, or before the insured replaces the policy or effects its cancellation, if he does so within one hundred eighty (180) days of the determination of impairment.

If the receiver or conservator of an impaired insurer has not provided for payment of covered claims of an impaired insurer within one hundred fifty (150) days after such insurer has been determined an "impaired insurer" by the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall notify the insureds of the impaired insurer of their rights under this Act. Such notification shall be by mail at each insured's last known address, where available, but if sufficient information for notification by mail is not available, notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed in this State shall be sufficient.

Assessments

Sec. 7. Whenever the Commissioner determines that an insurer has become an impaired insurer the receiver appointed in accordance with Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code or the conservator appointed under the authority of Article 21.28—A of the Insurance Code shall promptly estimate the amount of additional funds, by lines of business, needed to supplement the assets of the impaired insurer immediately available to the receiver or the conservator for the purpose of making payment of all covered claims. Thereafter, the Commissioner shall be empowered to make such assessments as may be necessary to produce the additional funds needed to make payment of all covered claims. The Commissioner may make partial assessments as the actual need for additional funds arises for each impaired insurer.

The Commissioner in determining the proportionate amount to be paid by individual insurers under an assessment shall take into consideration the lines of business written by the impaired insurer and shall assess individual insurers in proportion to the ratio that the total net direct written premium collected in the State of Texas by the insurer for such line or lines of business during the next preceding year bears to the total net direct written premium collected by all insurers (except impaired insurers) in the State of Texas for such lines of business. Assessments during a calendar year may be made up to, but not in excess of, two percent (2%) of each insurer's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year in the lines of business written by the impaired insurer. If the maximum assessment in any calendar year does not provide an amount sufficient for payment of covered claims of impaired insurers, assessments may be made in the next and successive calendar years.

Insurers designated as impaired insurers by the Commissioner shall be exempt from assessment from and after the date of such designation and until the Commissioner determines that such insurer is no longer an impaired insurer.

The Commissioner shall designate the impaired insurer for which each assessment or partial assessment is made and it shall be the duty of each insurer to pay the amount of its assessment to the conservator or receiver, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the Commissioner gives notice of the assessment, and assessments may be collected by the conservator or receiver through suits brought for that purpose. Venue for such suits shall lie in Travis County, Texas, and actions to collect such assessments shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction over said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. Neither the receiver nor the conservator shall be required to give an appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

Funds derived from assessments under the provisions of this Act shall not become assets of the impaired insurer but shall be deemed a special fund loaned to the receiver or the conservator for payment of covered claims, which loan shall be repayable to the extent available from the funds of such impaired insurer, as herein provided.

Penalty for Failure to Pay Assessments

Sec. 8. The Commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact business in this State of any insurer who fails to pay an assessment when due.

Any insurer whose certificate of authority to do business in this State is cancelled or surrendered shall be liable for any unpaid assessments made prior to the date of such cancellation or surrender.

Accounting for and Repayment of Assessments

Sec. 9. Upon receipt from an insurer of payment of an assessment or partial assessment, the receiver or conservator shall provide the insurer with a participation receipt which shall create a liability against the impaired insurer, and the holder of such participation receipt shall be regarded as a general creditor of the impaired insurer; provided, however, that with reference to the remaining balance of any portions of assessments received by the receiver or conservator and not expended in "payment of covered claims" the holders of such participation receipts shall have preference over other general creditors and shall share pro rata with other holders of participation receipts. The receiver or conservator of any impaired insurer shall adopt accounting procedures reflecting the expenditure and use of all funds received from assessments or partial assessments and shall make a final report of the expenditure and use of such funds to the Commissioner, which final report shall set forth the remaining balance, if any, from the funds collected by assessment. The receiver or conservator shall also make any interim reports concerning such accounting as may be required by the Commissioner. Upon completion of the final report the receiver or conservator shall, as soon thereafter as is practicable, refund pro rata the remaining balance of such assessments to the holders of the participation receipts.

Payment of Covered Claims

Sec. 10. When an insurer has been designated by the Commissioner as an impaired insurer, the receiver or conservator, as the case may be, shall marshal all assets of the impaired insurer, including but not limited to those which are designated as or that constitute reserve assets offsetting reserve liabilities for all liabilities falling within the definition of "covered claim" as defined in this Act. The receiver or conservator shall apply all of such assets to the payment of covered claims, but may utilize funds received from assessments in the payment of covered claims, pending orderly liquidation or disposition of such assets. When all covered claims have been paid or satisfied by the receiver or conservator, any balance remaining from the liquidation or disposition of such assets shall first be applied in repayment of funds expended from assessments. Such repayments shall be credited as remaining balances and be refunded as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

In addition to authorization to make actual payment of covered claims, the receiver or conservator is specifically authorized to utilize such marshaled assets and funds derived from assessments for the purpose of negotiating and consummating contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or contracts of substitution to provide for outstanding liabilities of covered claims. This Act shall not be construed to impose restrictions or limitations upon the authority granted or authorized the Commissioner, the conservator or the receiver elsewhere in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this State but shall be construed and authorized for use in conjunction with other portions of the Insurance Code dealing with delinquency proceedings or threatened insolvencies or supervisions or conservatorships.

Approval of Covered Claims

Sec. 11. Covered claims against an impaired insurer placed in temporary or permanent receivership under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be processed and acted upon by the receiver or ancillary receiver in the same manner as other claims as provided in Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code and as ordered by the court in which such receivership is pending; provided, however, that funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the receiver and the amount of the assets marshaled by the receiver for payment to holders of covered claims; and provided further, that in ancillary receiverships in this State, funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claims approved by the ancillary receiver and the amount of assets marshaled by the receivers in other states for application to payment of covered claims within this State. Such funds received from assessments shall not be liable for any amount over and above that approved by the receiver for a covered claim and any action brought by the holder of such covered claim appealing from the receiver's action shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the receiver may review his action in approving a covered claim and for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the receivership.

If a conservator is appointed to handle the affairs of an impaired insurer the conservator shall determine whether or not covered claims should or can be provided for in whole or in part by reinsurance, assumption or substitution. Upon determination by the conservator that actual payment of covered claims should be made the conservator shall give notice of such determination to claimants falling within the class of "covered claims." The conservator shall mail such notice to the latest address reflected in the records of the impaired insurer. If the records of the impaired insurer do not reflect the address of a claimant, the conservator may give notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall state the time within which the claimant must file his claim with the conservator, which time shall in no event be less than ninety (90) days from the date of the mailing or publication of such notice. The conservator may require, in whole or in part, that sworn claim forms be filed and may require that additional information or evidence be filed as may be reasonably necessary for the conservator to determine the legality or the amount due under a covered claim. When an impaired insurer has been placed in conservatorship, the funds received from assessments shall be liable only for the difference between the amount of the covered claim approved by the conservator and the amount of assets marshaled by the conservator for payment to holders of covered claims. Any action brought by the holder of such covered claim against the impaired insurer shall not increase the liability of such funds; provided, however, that the conservator may review his action in approving a covered claim and may for just cause modify such approval at any time during the pendency of the conservatorship.

The acceptance of payment from the receiver or conservator by the holder of a covered claim or the acceptance of the benefits of contracts negotiated by the receiver or conservator providing for reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or for substitution shall constitute an assignment to the impaired insurer of any cause of action or right of the holder of such covered claim is based. Such assignment shall be to the extent of the amount accepted or the value of the benefits provided by such contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liabilities or substitution.

Nonduplication of Recovery

Sec. 12. Any recovery under this Act shall be reduced by the amount of recovery under any other insurance guaranty act, or its equivalent, in any other state. Any person having a covered claim who is a resident of another state shall not be entitled to payment under this Act unless and until he furnishes adequate sworn proof that he has exhausted any and all rights of recovery that he has in his state of residence and the state of residence of the insured under any insurance guaranty act or its equivalent.

Release from Conservatorship or Receivership

Sec. 13. An impaired insurer placed in conservatorship or receivership for which assessments have been made under the provisions of this Act shall not be authorized, upon release from conservatorship or receivership, to issue new or renewal insurance policies until such time as the impaired insurer has repaid in full to each holder of a participation receipt the assessment amount paid by the receipt holder or its assigns; provided, however, the Commissioner may, upon application of the advisory association and after hearing, permit the issuance of new policies in accordance with a plan of operations by the released insurer for repayment of assessments. The Commissioner may, in approving such plan, place such restrictions upon the issuance of new or renewal policies as he deems necessary to the implementation of the plan. The Commissioner shall give ten (10) days notice of such hearing to the insurers to whom the participation receipts were issued for an assessment made for the benefit of the released insurer and the holders of the receipts shall be entitled to appear at and participate in such hearing.

Creation of Advisory Association

Sec. 14. There is created by this Act an advisory association to be known as the "Texas Life, Health and Accident Guaranty Association," herein called the "advisory association" to be composed of four insurers. Within thirty (30) days after this Act is placed in effect by the election of an adequate number of insurers electing to participate hereunder, the State Board of Insurance shall appoint the insurers who will serve as the initial advisory association. Of the initial advisory association members, two shall be appointed to serve for a one year term of office, and two shall be appointed to serve for a two year term of office. Subsequent members of the advisory association shall serve for the term of office as stated above and shall be elected by insurers, subject to the approval of the Commissioner.

The initial members of the advisory association and subsequent members shall be chosen to afford fair representation to all insurers subject to this Act giving due consideration to the various categories of premium income, geographical location and segments of the industry represented in Texas. Vacancies on the advisory association shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as the initial appointments.

The advisory association shall conduct its meetings in Austin, Texas, in the Insurance Building of the State of Texas. Meetings shall be held upon call by the Commissioner or upon written request of a majority of the members. Meetings shall not be open to the public and only members of the advisory association, members of the State Board of Insurance, the Commissioner and persons authorized by the Commissioner shall attend such meetings.

The advisory association shall advise and counsel with the Commissioner upon matters relating to the solvency of insurers. The Commissioner shall call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that an insurer is insolvent or impaired and may call a meeting of the advisory association when he determines that a danger of insolvency or impairment of an insurer exists. The advisory association shall, upon majority vote, notify the Commissioner of any information indicating that an insurer may be unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations and request a meeting with the Commissioner. At such meetings the Commissioner may divulge to the advisory association any information in his possession and any records of the State Board of Insurance, including examination reports or preliminary reports from examiners relating to such insurer. The Commissioner may summon officers, director and employees of an insolvent or impaired insurer (or of an insurer the Commissioner considers to be in danger of insolvency or impairment) to appear before the advisory association for conference or for the taking of testimony. Members of the advisory association shall not reveal information received in such meetings to anyone unless authorized by the Commissioner or the State Board of Insurance or when required as witness in court. Advisory association members shall be subject to the same standard of confidentiality as is imposed upon examiners under Article 1.18 of the Insurance Code, except that no bond shall be required of advisory association members.

The advisory association shall, upon request by the Commissioner, attend hearings before the Commissioner and meet with and advise the Commissioner, the liquidator or conservator appointed by the Commissioner, on matters relating to the affairs of an impaired insurer and relating to action that may be taken by the Commissioner, liquidator or conservator to best protect the interests of persons holding covered claims against an impaired insurer and relating to the amount and timing of partial assessments and the marshaling of assets and the processing and handling of covered claims.

Reports or recommendations made by the advisory association to the Commissioner, liquidator or conservator shall not be considered public documents and there shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action against a member of the advisory association or the advisory association for any report, individual report, recommendation or individual recommendation by the advisory association or members to the Commissioner, liquidator or conservator.

Members shall serve without pay but their expenses in attending meetings shall be paid subject to the authorization of the Legislature in its appropriations bills or otherwise, and subject to the rules of the State Board of Insurance. Members shall serve until their successors are appointed.

Any insurer that has an officer, director or employee serving as a member of the advisory association shall not lose the right to negotiate for and enter into contracts of reinsurance or assumption of liability or contracts of substitution to provide for liabilities for covered claims with the receiver or conservator of an impaired insurer. The entering into any such contract shall not be deemed a conflict of interest.

The advisory association or any insurer assessed under this Act shall be an interested party under Section 3(h) of Article 21.28 of the Insurance Code.

The State Board of Insurance shall within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act promulgate reasonable organizational rules for the association which shall set forth, among other things, quorum and attendance requirements for meetings, procedural rules to be followed at association meetings and rules concerning the replacement of members.

Recognition of Assessments in Premium Tax Offset

Sec. 15. An insurer shall be entitled to recoup assessments made in any calendar year in excess of one percent (1%) of its net direct written premiums for the previous calendar year as a credit against its premium tax under Article 7064, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The tax credit referred to herein shall be allowed at a rate of twenty percent (20%) per year for five (5) successive years following the date of assessments, and at the option of the insurer may be taken over an additional number of years.

Immunity

Sec. 16. There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any insurer subject to this Act or its agents or employees, the advisory association or the Commissioner or his representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this Act.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 17. The State Board of Insurance is authorized and directed to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the various purposes and provisions of this Act, and in augmentation thereof.

Appeals

Sec. 18. Any action or ruling of the Commissioner under this Act may be appealed as provided in Article 1.04 of the Insurance Code. The liability of the appealing insurer for an assessment shall be suspended pending appeal by such insurer contesting the amount or legality of such assessment.

Election to Participate; Withdrawal

Sec. 19. The provisions of this Act are voluntary only. No Statewide mutual assessment company, local mutual aid association, local mutual burial association, or stipulated premium insurance company shall be covered by the provisions of this Act unless such insurers shall elect to participate under the provisions of this Act. In the event any such Statewide mutual assessment company, local mutual aid association, local mutual burial association, or stipulated premium insurance company shall elect to participate hereunder, it may do so by filing such election in writing upon forms prescribed by the State Board of Insurance and filed with the Commissioner of Insurance; and such election forms shall be signed by the president, secretary, and each director of such electing insurer. Unless and until such written election is so filed, such insurer shall not be obligated under nor receive any benefit from the provisions of this Act. Any such insurer so electing to participate may withdraw from participation under the provisions of this Act provided that a majority of insurers that have elected to participate hereunder consent to such withdrawal. Such election to withdraw shall be upon forms promulgated by the State Board of Insurance and shall be filed with the Commissioner, and such withdrawal shall only be effective two (2) years following the date of such election. Six months prior to the effective date of such withdrawal the withdrawing insurer shall notify all of the holders of its policies or certificates of its withdrawal. Upon filing of election to withdraw an insurer shall cease advertising that its policies are protected under the provisions of this Act.

Effectiveness of Act

Sec. 20. This Act shall not be effective until such date that insurers having combined premium income in the immediately prior calendar year of at least Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) shall elect in writing to participate under the provisions of this Act. Immediately following the receipt of such elections the State Board of Insurance shall enter an order designating those insurers participating under this Act and shall thereafter supplement such order by listing those insurers who subsequently elect to participate and those who subsequently elect to withdraw.

Advertising Procedures

Sec. 21. Within ninety (90) days following the entry of the original Board order as specified in Section 20 of this Act, the State Board of Insurance, following notice and hearing, shall enter an order providing the method, manner, and procedures whereby such participating insurers may advertise that such insurers' policies are protected under the provisions of this Act.

Control Over Conflicts

Sec. 22. The provisions of this Act and the powers and functions authorized by this Act are to be exercised to the end that its purposes are accomplished. This Act is cumulative of existing laws, but in the event of conflict between this Act and any other law relating to the subject matter of this Act or its application, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Unconstitutional Application Prohibited

Sec. 23. This Act and law does not apply to any insurer or other person to whom, under the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Texas, it cannot validly apply.

Severance Clause

Sec. 24. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

SUBCHAPTER E. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 21.39—A. Asset Protection Act

Title

Section 1. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Asset Protection Act.

Purpose

Sec. 2. This Act is for the purpose of requiring insurers to have and maintain unencumbered assets in an amount equal to reserve liabilities; to provide preferential claims against assets in favor of owners, beneficiaries, assignees, certificate holders, or third party beneficiaries of insurance policies; and to prevent the hypothecation or encumbrance of assets in excess of certain amounts without prior written order of the Commissioner of Insurance.

Scope

Sec. 3. This Act shall apply to all of the following types of domestic insurance companies and to all kinds of insurance written by such companies; and where used herein "insurer" shall mean: all domestic stock and mutual life, health and accident, fire, casualty, fire and casualty and title insurance companies, including mutual assessment companies, local mutual aid associations, local mutual burial associations, Statewide mutual assessment companies, stipulated premium insurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, group hospital service insurance companies, county mutual insurance companies, Lloyd's and reciprocal exchanges and mortgage guaranty insurance companies. This Act shall not apply to variable contracts for which separate accounts are required to be maintained and shall not apply to assessment as needed or farm mutual companies nor to insurance coverage written by assessment as needed or farm mutual companies. This Act shall not apply to an insurance company while subject to a conservatorship order issued by the Commissioner of Insurance nor to an insurance company while a court appointed receiver is in charge of its affairs.

arising out of and within the coverage of an insurance policy covered by this Act.

Prohibition of Hypothecation

Sec. 5. Every insurer subject to the provisions of this Act shall at all times have and maintain free and unencumbered assets in an amount equal to its reserve liabilities, and no such insurer shall pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber its assets in an amount in excess of the amount of its capital and surplus; nor shall such insurer pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber more than ten per cent (10%) of its reserve assets as herein defined; provided, however, that the Commissioner of Insurance, upon application made to him, may issue a written order approving the hypothecation or encumbrance of any of the assets of such an insurer in any amount upon a finding that such hypothecation or encumbrance will not adversely affect the solvency of such insurer.

Any such insurer which shall pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber any of its assets shall within ten (10) days thereafter report in writing to the Commissioner of Insurance the amount and identity of the assets so pledged, hypothecated, or encumbered and the terms and conditions of such transaction. In addition, each such insurer shall annually or more often if required by the Commissioner file with the Commissioner a statement sworn to by the chief executive officer of the insurer that (a) title to assets in an amount equal to the reserve liability of the insurer which are not pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered is vested in the insurer, (b) the only assets of the insurer which are pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered are as identified and reported in such sworn statement and no other assets of the insurer are pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered, and (c) the terms and provisions of any such transaction of pledge, hypothecation, or encumbrance are as reported in such sworn statement.

Any person, corporation, association or legal entity which accepts a pledge, hypothecation or encumbrance of any asset of an insurer as security for a debt or other obligation of such insurer not in accordance with the terms and limitations of this Act shall be deemed to have accepted such asset subject to a superior, preferential and automatically perfected lien in favor of claimants; provided, however, that such superior, preferential and automatically perfected lien in favor of claimants shall not apply to assets of an insurance company in conservatorship or receivership if the Commissioner of Insurance, in the conservatorship proceeding, or the court in which the receivership is pending, approves the pledge, hypothecation or encumbrance of such assets.

In the event of involuntary or voluntary liquidation of any insurer subject to this Act, claimants of such insurer shall have a prior and preferential claim against all assets of the insurer except those which have been pledged, hypothecated or encumbered in accordance with the terms and limitations of this Act. All claimants shall have equal status and their prior and preferential claim shall be superior to any claim or cause of action against the insurer by any person, corporation, association or legal entity.

Control Over Conflicts

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act and the powers and functions authorized by this Act are to be exercised to the end that its purposes be accomplished. This Act is cumulative of existing laws, but in the event of conflict between this Act and any other law relating to the subject matter of this Act or its application, the provisions of this Act shall control.

Unconstitutional Application Prohibited

Sec. 7. This Act does not apply to any insurer or other person to whom, under the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Texas, it cannot validly apply.

Severance Clause

Sec. 8. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 21.47. False Statement in Written Instrument; Penalty

Any person who knowingly or wilfully makes, files or uses any instrument in writing required to be made to or filed with the State Board of Insurance or the Insurance Commissioner, either by the Insurance Code or by rule or regulation of the State Board of Insurance, when the instrument in writing contains any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry with regard to any material fact, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years in the State penitentiary, or both.

Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2449, ch. 789, § 2, eff. June 8, 1971.

Art. 21.49. Catastrophe Property Insurance Pool Act

Declaration and Purpose

Section 1. It is hereby declared by the Legislature that an adequate market for windstorm, hail and fire insurance is necessary to the economic welfare of the State of Texas and that without such insurance the orderly growth and development of the State of Texas would be severely impeded. It is therefore the purpose of this Act to provide a method whereby adequate windstorm, hail and fire insurance may be obtained in certain designated portions of the State of Texas.

Name of Act

Sec. 2. This Act shall be known as the "Texas Catastrophe Property Insurance Pool Act."

Definitions

Sec. 3. In this Act, unless the context clearly dictates to the contrary:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Insurance of the State of Texas.

(b) "Association" means the Texas Catastrophe Property Insurance Association as established pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(c) "Plan of Operation" means the plan for providing Texas windstorm and hail insurance in a catastrophe area and Texas fire and explosion insurance in an inadequate fire insurance area which plan has been approved by the Board for operation by the Association pursuant to the provisions of this Act, which plan may, among other things, provide for limits of liability for each structure insured, and/or the corporeal movable property located therein.

(d) "Texas Windstorm and Hail Insurance" means deductible insurance against direct loss to insurable property as a result of windstorm or hail as such terms shall be defined and limited in policies and forms approved by the State Board of Insurance.

(e) "Texas Fire and Explosion Insurance" means insurance against direct loss to insurable property as a result of fire and explosion as such terms shall be defined and limited in policies and forms approved by the State Board of Insurance.

(f) "Insurable Property" means immovable property at fixed locations in a catastrophe area or corporeal movable property located therein (as may be designated in the plan of operation) which property is determined by the Association, pursuant to the criteria specified in the plan of operation to be in an insurable condition against windstorm, hail and/or fire and explosion as appropriate, as determined by normal underwriting standards; provided, however, that insofar as windstorm and hail insurance is concerned, any structure located within the seacoast territory as defined by the State Board of Insurance in the General Basis Schedule, commenced on or after the 30th day following the publication of the plan of operation, not built or continuing in compliance with building specifications set forth in the plan of operation shall not be an insurable risk under the terms of this Act. A structure, or an addition thereto, which is constructed in conformity with plans and specifications that comply with the specifications set forth in the plan of operation at the time construction commences shall not be declared ineligible for windstorm and hail insurance as a result of subsequent changes in the building specifications set forth in the plan of operation. When repair of damage to a structure involves replacement of items covered in the building specifications as set forth in the plan of operation, such repairs must be completed in a manner to comply with such specifications for the structure to continue within the definition of Insurable Property for windstorm and hail insurance. Nothing in this Act shall preclude special rating of individual risks as may be provided in the plan of operation.

(g) "Net Direct Premiums" means gross direct written premiums less return premiums upon canceled contracts (irrespective of reinsurance assumed or ceded) written on property in this State as defined by the Board of Directors of the Association.

(h) "Catastrophe Area" means a city or county in which it may be determined by the Board, after notice of not less than 10 days and a hearing, that windstorm and hail insurance is not reasonably available to a substantial number of owners of insurable property within such city or county, due to such insurable property being located within a city or county subject to unusually frequent and severe damage resulting from windstorms and/or hailstorms. Such designation shall be revoked by the Board if it determines, after notice of not less than 10 days and a hearing, that windstorm and hail insurance in such catastrophe area is no longer reasonably unavailable to a substantial number of owners of insurable property within such designated city or county. If the Association shall determine that windstorm and hail insurance is no longer reasonably unavailable to a substantial number of owners of insurable property in any designated catastrophe area or areas, then the Association may request in writing that the Board revoke the designation of any or all of such catastrophe areas and, after notice of not less than 10 days and a hearing, but within 30 days of such hearing, the Board shall either approve or reject the Association's request and shall, if such request be approved, revoke such designation or designations.

(i) "Inadequate Fire Insurance Area" means a city or county which is, or is within an area, designated as a catastrophe area, as defined in Paragraph (h), above, and in which it may be determined by the Board, after notice of not less than 10 days and a hearing, that fire and explosion insurance is not reasonably available to a substantial number of owners of insurable property within such city or county. Such designation shall be revoked by the Board if it determines, after 10 days' notice and a hearing, that fire and explosion insurance in such inadequate fire insurance area is no longer reasonably unavailable to a substantial number of owners of insurable property within such designated city or county. If the Association shall determine that fire and explosion insurance is no longer reasonably unavailable to a substantial number of owners of insurable property in any designated inadequate fire insurance area or areas, then the Association may request in writing that the Board revoke the designation of any or all such inadequate fire insurance areas, and, after notice of not less than 10 days and a hearing, but within 30 days of such hearing, the Board shall either approve or reject the Association's request and shall, if such request is approved, revoke such designation or designations.

(j) "Insurance" as hereinafter used in this Act shall mean the types of insurance described in Paragraphs (d) and (e) of this Section 3.

Creation of the Texas Catastrophe Property Insurance Association

Sec. 4. (a) The Association which is hereby created shall consist of all property insurers authorized to transact property insurance in this State, except those companies that are prevented by law from writing coverages available through the pool on a Statewide basis. Every such insurer shall be a member of the Association and shall remain a member of the Association so long as the Association is in existence, as a condition of its authority to transact the business of insurance in this State. Any insurer which ceases to be a member of the Association shall remain liable on contracts of insurance entered into during its membership in the Association to the same extent and effect as if its membership in the Association had not been terminated.

(b) The organizational plan of certain types of insurers precludes such insurers from writing insurance coverage for the State of Texas, any city, political subdivision or agency of the State. When insuring property of the State of Texas, any city, political subdivision or agency of the State, the Association shall not cause such policies to be issued in such companies, nor shall such companies be included as reinsurers for any policies of insurance in this category.

Operation of the Texas Catastrophe Property Insurance Association

Sec. 5. (a) The Association shall, pursuant to the provisions of this Act and the plan of operation, and with respect to insurance on insurable property, have the power on behalf of its members to cause to be issued policies of insurance to applicants, to assume reinsurance from its members, and to cede reinsurance to its members and to purchase reinsurance on behalf of its members.

(b) On or before 10 days after the effective date of this Act the Board shall appoint a temporary board of directors of the Association which shall consist of seven representatives of members of the Association, selected so as to fairly represent various classes of member insurers. Such temporary board of directors shall prepare and submit a plan of operation and shall serve until the permanent board of directors shall take office in accordance with said plan of operation.

(c) All members of the Association shall participate in its writings, expenses, profits and losses in the proportion that the net direct premiums (excluding premiums on property of the State of Texas, any city, political subdivision or agency of the State) of such member written in this State during the preceding calendar years bears to the aggregate net direct premiums (excluding premiums on property of the State of Texas, any city, political subdivision or agency of the State) written in this State by all members of the Association, as furnished to the Association by the Board after review of annual statements, other reports and other statistics the Board shall deem necessary to provide the information herein required and which the Board is hereby authorized and empowered to obtain from any member of the Association, provided, however, that a member shall, in accordance with the plan of operation, be entitled to receive credit for similar insurance voluntarily written in the area designated by the Board and its participation in the writings in the Association shall be reduced in accordance with the provisions of the plan of operation. Each member's participation in the Association shall be determined annually in the same manner as the initial determination. Any insurer authorized to write and engaged in writing any insurance, the writing of which required such insurer to be a member of the Association, who becomes authorized to engage in writing such insurance after the effective date of this Act shall become a member of the Association on the 1st day of January immediately following such authorization and the determination of such insurer's participation in the Association shall be made as of the date of such membership in the same manner as for all other members of the Association.

(d) On or before 45 days after the effective date of this Act, the temporary board of directors of the Association shall submit to the Board for review and approval a proposed plan of operation. Such proposed plan shall set forth the number, qualifications, terms of office, and manner of election of the members of the board of directors and shall provide for the efficient, economical, fair, and nondiscriminatory administration of the Association. Such proposed plan may include a preliminary assessment of all members for initial expenses necessary to the commencement of operation, the establishment of necessary facilities, management of the Association, plan for assessment of members to defray losses and expenses, underwriting standards, procedures for the acceptance and cession of reinsurance, procedures for determining the amount of insurance to be provided to specific risks, time limits and procedures for processing applications for insurance, and for such other provisions as may be deemed necessary by the board of directors and the Board to carry out the purposes of this Act. The proposed plan shall be reviewed by the Board and approved, unless it finds that such plan does not properly fulfill the purposes of this Act. In the review of the proposed plan the Board may, in its discretion, consult with the directors of the Association and may seek any further information which it deems necessary for a decision. If the Board approves the proposed plan, it shall certify such approval to the directors and the plan shall become effective 10 days after such certification. If the Board disapproves all or any part of the proposed plan of operation, it shall return the same to the directors with its written statement setting forth the reasons for the disapproval and any recommendations it may wish to make. The directors may alter the plan in accordance with the recommendations of the Board or shall, within 15 days from the date of disapproval, return a new plan to the Board. In the event the Association has not proposed a plan satisfactory to the Board on or before the 14th day of May, 1971, the Board shall certify and adopt a plan under which the Association shall operate.

The Directors of the Association may, subject to the approval of the Board, amend the plan of operation at any time.

In the absence of an appeal, the Association shall adopt amendments to the plan proposed by the Board within 30 days.

Eligibility: Application

Sec. 6. (a) Any person having an insurable interest in insurable property located in an area designated by the Board shall be entitled to apply to the Association for insurance provided for under the plan of operation and for an inspection of the property under such rules and regulations, including an inspection fee, if any, as determined by the Board of Directors of the Association and approved by the State Board of Insurance. The term "insurable interest" as used in this subsection shall be deemed to include any lawful and substantial economic interest in the safety or preservation of property from loss, destruction or pecuniary damage. Application shall be made on behalf of the applicant by a Local Recording Agent and shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Association. The application shall contain a statement as to whether or not the applicant has or will submit the premium in full from personal funds, or if not, to whom a balance is or will be due.

(b) If the Association determines that the property is insurable, the Association, upon payment of the premium, shall cause to be issued a policy of insurance as may be provided in the plan for a term of one year.

In the event an agent or some other person, firm, or corporation shall finance the payment of all or a portion of the premium and there is a balance due for the financing of such premium and such balance, or any installment thereof, is not paid within 10 days after the due date, the agent or other person, firm, or corporation to whom such balance is due may request cancellation of the insurance by returning the policy, with proof that the insured was notified of such return, or by requesting the Association to cancel such insurance by notice mailed to the insured and any others shown in the policy as having an insurable interest in the property. Upon completion of cancellation, the Association shall refund the unearned premium, less any minimum retained premium set forth in the plan of operation, to the person, firm, or corporation to whom the unpaid balance is due. In the event an insured requests cancellation of insurance, the Association shall make refund of such unearned premium payable to the insured and the holder of an unpaid balance. The Local Recording Agent, who submitted the application, shall refund the commission on any unearned premium in the same manner.

(c) Any policy issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act may be renewed annually, upon application therefor, so long as the property continues to meet the definition of "insurable property" set forth in Section 3 of this Act.

(d) Each Association member shall cede to the Association 100 per cent of the fire and windstorm insurance written pursuant to, and on the terms and conditions set forth in, the plan of operation.

Deletion of Coverages From Other Policies

Sec. 7. The Board shall prepare endorsements and forms applicable to the standard policies which it has promulgated providing for the deletion of coverages available through the Association and shall promulgate the applicable reduction of premiums and rates for the use of such endorsements and forms.

Rates, Rating Plans and Rate Rules Applicable

Sec. 8. (a) The Association shall file with the Board every manual of classifications, rules, rates which shall include condition charges, every rating plan, and every modification of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use. Every such filing shall indicate the character and the extent of the coverage contemplated and shall be accompanied by the policies and endorsements forms proposed to be used, which said forms and endorsements may be designed specifically for use by the Association and without regard to other forms filed with, approved by, or promulgated by the Board for use in this State.

(b) For the purpose of making such filing the Association may utilize filings made by licensed rating organizations and it may utilize the loss or expense statistics or recommendations collected and furnished to the Board by an advisory organization authorized under Article 5.73, Insurance Code of Texas.

(c) Any filing made by the Association pursuant hereto shall be submitted to the Board and as soon as reasonably possible after the filing has been made the Board shall, in writing, approve, modify, or disapprove the same; provided that any filing shall be determined approved unless modified or disapproved within 30 days after date of filing.

(d) If at any time the Board finds that a filing so approved no longer meets the requirements of this Act, it may, after a hearing held on not less than 20 days' notice to the Association specifying the matters to be considered at such hearing, issue an order withdrawing its approval thereof. Said order shall specify in what respects the Board finds that such filing no longer meets the requirements of this Act and shall be effective not less than 30 days after its issuance.

(e) All rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Due consideration shall be given to the past and prospective loss experience within and outside the State of hazards for which insurance is made available through the plan of operation, if any, to expenses of operation including acquisition costs, to a reasonable margin for profit and contingencies, and to all other relevant factors, within and outside the State.

(2) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in such risks on the basis of any or all of the factors mentioned in the preceding paragraph. Such rates may include rules for classification of risks insured hereunder and rate modifications thereof. All such provisions, however, as respects rates, classifications, standards and premiums shall be without prejudice to or prohibition of provision by the Association for consent rates on individual risks if the rate and risk are acceptable to the Association and as is similarly provided for, or as is provided for, in Article 5.26(a), Texas Insurance Code, and this provision or exception on consent rates is irrespective of whether or not any such risk would otherwise be subject to or the subject of a provision of rate classification or eligibility.

(3) Rates shall be reasonable, adequate, not unfairly discriminatory, and nonconfiscatory as to any class of insurer.

(4) Commissions paid to agents shall be reasonable, adequate, not unfairly discriminatory and nonconfiscatory.

(f) For the purpose of this Act the applicant under Section 6(a) hereof shall be considered to have consented to the appropriate rates and classifications authorized by this Act irrespective of any and all other rates or classifications.

(g) All premiums written and losses paid under this Act as appropriate shall be included in applicable classifications for general rate making purposes.

Appeals

Sec. 9. Any person insured pursuant to this Act, or his duly authorized representative, or any affected insurer who may be aggrieved by an act, ruling or decision of the Association, may, within 30 days after such act, ruling or decision, appeal to the Board. In the event the Association is aggrieved by the action of the Board with respect to any ruling, order, or determination of the Board, it may, within 30 days after such action, make a written request to the Board for a hearing thereon. The Board shall hear the Association, or the appeal from an act, ruling or decision of the Association, within 30 days after receipt of such request or appeal and shall give not less than 10 days' written notice of the time and place of hearing to the Association making such request or the person, or his duly authorized representative, appealing from the act, ruling or decision of the Association. Within 30 days after such hearing, the Board shall affirm, reverse or modify its previous action or the act, ruling or decision appealed to the Board. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the Board may suspend or postpone the effective date of its previous rule or of the act, ruling or decision appealed to the Board. The Association, or the person aggrieved by any order or decision of the Board may thereafter appeal to the District Court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, in accordance with Article 1.04(f) of the Insurance Code of Texas.

Immunity From Liability

Sec. 10. There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against the Board or any of its staff, the Association or its agents or employees, or against any participating insurer or its agents or employees, for any inspections made under the plan of operation or any statements made in good faith by them in any reports or communications concerning risks submitted to the Association, or at any administrative hearings conducted in connection therewith under the provisions of this Act.

Indemnification

Sec. 11. Each person serving as a director of the Association, each member of the Association, and each officer and employee of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all costs and expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or it in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he or it is made a party by reason of his or its being or having been a director or member of the Association, or an officer or employee of the Association except in relation to matters as to which he or it has been judged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable by reason of misconduct in the performance of his or its duties as a director of the Association or a member or officer or employee of the Association, provided, however, that this indemnification shall in no way indemnify a member of the Association from participating in the writings, expenses, profits, and losses of the Association in the manner set out in this Act. Indemnification hereunder shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such member or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

Annual Report

Sec. 12. The Association shall file in the office of the Board annually a statement which shall summarize the transactions, conditions, operations and affairs of the Association during the preceding year at such times and covering such periods as may be designated by the Board. Such statement shall contain such matters and information as are prescribed by the Board and shall be in such form as is required by it.

Effective Date

Sec. 13. This Act shall become effective from and after passage.

Conflicting Laws

Sec. 14. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 15. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 21.49—1. Insurance Holding Company System Regulatory Act

Findings

Section 1. (a) It is hereby found and declared that it may not be inconsistent with the public interest and the interest of policyholders and shareholders to permit insurers to:

(1) engage in activities which would enable them to make better use of management skills and facilities;

(2) have free access to capital markets which could provide funds for insurers to use in diversification programs;

(3) implement sound tax planning conclusions; and

(4) serve the changing needs of the public and adapt to changing conditions of the social, economic, and political environment, so that insurers are able to compete effectively and to meet the growing public demand for institutions capable of providing a comprehensive range of financial services.

(b) It is further found and declared that the public interest and the interests of policyholders and shareholders are or may be adversely affected when:

(1) control of an insurer is sought by persons who would utilize such control adversely to the interest of policyholders or shareholders;

(2) acquisition of control of an insurer would substantially lessen competition or create a monopoly in the insurance business in this State;

(3) an insurer which is part of a holding company system is caused to enter into transactions or relationships with affiliated companies on terms which are not fair and reasonable; or

(4) an insurer pays dividends to shareholders which jeopardize the financial condition of such insurer.

(c) It is hereby declared that the policies and purposes of this article are to promote the public interest by:

(1) facilitating the achievement of the objectives enumerated in Subsection (a);

(2) requiring disclosure of pertinent information relating to and approval of changes in control of an insurer;

(3) requiring disclosure and approval of material transactions and relationships between the insurer and its affiliates, including certain dividends to shareholders paid by the insurer; and

(4) providing standards governing material transactions between the insurer and its affiliates.

(d) It is further declared that it is desirable to prevent unnecessary multiple and conflicting regulation of insurers. Therefore, this State shall exercise regulatory authority over domestic insurers and, unless otherwise provided in this article, not over non-domestic insurers, with respect to the matters contained herein.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this article, the following terms shall have the respective meanings hereinafter set forth, unless the context shall otherwise require:

(a) Affiliate. An "affiliate" of, or person "affiliated" with, a specific person, is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

(b) Commissioner. The term "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Insurance, his deputies, or the State Board of Insurance, as appropriate.

(c) Control. The term "control," including the terms "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with," means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or non-management services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with or corporate office held by the person. Control shall be presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds irrevocable proxies representing, 10 percent or more of the voting securities or authority of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing made in the manner provided by Section 3(i) that control does not exist in fact. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support such determination, that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect, where a person exercises directly or indirectly either alone or pursuant to an agreement with one or more other persons such a controlling influence over the management or policies of an authorized insurer as to make it necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of the policyholders or stockholders of the insurer that the person be deemed to control the insurer.

(d) Holding Company. The term "holding company" means any person who directly or indirectly controls any insurer.

(e) Controlled Insurer. The term "controlled insurer" means an insurer controlled directly or indirectly by a holding company.

(f) Controlled person. The term "controlled person" means any person, other than a controlled insurer who is controlled directly or indirectly by a holding company.

(g) Insurance Holding Company System. The term "insurance holding company system" consists of two or more affiliated persons, one or more of which is an insurer.

(h) Insurer. The term "insurer" shall include all insurance companies organized or chartered under the laws of this State, or licensed to do business in this State, including capital stock companies, mutual companies, title insurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, local mutual aid associations, Statewide mutual assessment companies, county mutual insurance companies, Lloyds' Plan companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, stipulated premium insurance companies, and group hospital service companies, except that it shall not include agencies, authorities, or instrumentalities of the United States, its possessions and territories, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, or a state or political subdivision of a state.

(i) Person. A "person" is an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, an unincorporated organization, any similar entity or any combination of the foregoing acting in concert, but shall not include any securities broker performing no more than the usual and customary broker's function.

(j) Securityholder. A "securityholder" of a specified person is one who owns any security of such person, including common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and any other security convertible into or evidencing the right to acquire any of the foregoing.

(k) Subsidiary. A "subsidiary" of a specified person is an affiliate controlled by such person directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(l) Voting Security. The term "voting security" shall include any security convertible into or evidencing a right to acquire a voting security.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the following shall not be deemed holding companies: the United States, a state or any political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof, or any corporation which is wholly owned directly or indirectly by one or more of the foregoing.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, this article shall not be applicable to any insurance holding company system in which the insurer, the holding company, if any, the subsidiaries, if any, the affiliates, if any, and each and every other member thereof, if any, is privately owned by not more than five (5) securityholders, each of whom is and must be an individual or a natural person, and the commissioner has found that it is not necessary that such holding company system be regulated under this article or certain provisions of this article and has issued a total or partial exemption certificate to such holding company which shall effect the exemption until revoked by the commissioner.

Registration of insurers

Sec. 3. (a) Registration. Every insurer which is authorized to do business in this State and which is a member of an insurance holding company system shall register with the commissioner, except a foreign or non-domestic insurer subject to disclosure requirements and standards adopted by statute or regulation in the jurisdiction of its domicile which are substantially similar to those contained in this article. Any insurer which is subject to registration under this section shall register within 60 days after the effective date of this article or 15 days after it becomes subject to registration, whichever is later, unless the commissioner for good cause shown extends the time for registration, and then within such extended time. The commissioner may require any authorized insurer which is a member of an insurance holding company system which is not subject to registration under this section to furnish a copy of the registration statement or other information filed by such insurance company with the insurance regulatory authority of its domiciliary jurisdiction.

(b) Information and Form Required. Every insurer subject to registration shall file a registration statement on a form provided by the commissioner, which shall contain current information about:

(1) the identity of every member of the insurance holding company system;

(2) the capital structure, general financial condition, ownership and management of the insurer, its holding company, and the insurer's subsidiaries and, if deemed necessary in the judgment of the commissioner, any of its affiliates;

(3) the following agreements in force, relationships subsisting, and transactions currently outstanding between such insurer and its holding company, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates:

(i) loans, other investments, or purchases, sales or exchanges of securities of any of the affiliates by the insurer or of the insurer by any of its affiliates;

(ii) purchases, sales, or exchanges of assets;

(iii) transactions not in the ordinary course of business;

(iv) guarantees or undertakings for the benefit of an affiliate which result in an actual contingent exposure of the insurer's assets to liability, other than insurance contracts entered into in the ordinary course of the insurer's business;

(v) all management and service contracts and all cost-sharing arrangements, other than cost allocation arrangements based upon generally accepted accounting principles; and

(vi) reinsurance agreements covering one or more lines of insurance of the ceding company;

(4) other matters concerning transactions between registered insurers and any affiliates as may be included from time to time in any registration forms adopted or approved by the commissioner; and

(5) such filing shall include a copy of the charter or articles of incorporation and bylaws of such insurer's holding company and such insurer's subsidiaries and, if deemed necessary in the judgment of the commission, any of its affiliates.

(c) Materiality. No information need be disclosed on the registration statement filed pursuant to Section 3(b), or the amendments thereto pursuant to Section 3(d), if such information is not material for the purposes of this section. Unless the commissioner by rule, regulation, or order provided otherwise, either single transactions or the cumulative total of all transactions involving sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, or investments, which involve either one-half of one percent or less of an insurer's admitted assets, or five percent or less of an insurer's surplus, determined by whichever is the lesser, as of the 31st day of December next preceding, shall not be deemed material for purposes of this section, but any such single transaction or the cumulative total of such transactions in excess of the lesser of such percentages shall be deemed material.

(d) Amendments to Registration Statements. Each registered insurer shall keep current the information required to be disclosed in its registration statement by reporting all material changes or additions on amendment forms provided by the commissioner within 15 days after the end of the month in which it learns of each such change or addition; provided, however, that subject to Subsection (c) of Section 4, each registered insurer shall so report all dividends and other distributions to shareholders within two business days following the declaration thereof; and provided further that any transaction authorized by Section 4(d) hereof need not be reported under this subsection.

(e) Termination of Registration. The commissioner shall terminate the registration of any insurer which demonstrates that it no longer is a member of an insurance holding company system.

(f) Consolidated Filing. The commissioner may require or allow two or more affiliated insurers subject to registration hereunder to file a consolidated registration statement or consolidated reports amending their consolidated registration statement or their individual registration statements.

(g) Alternative Registration. The commissioner may allow an insurer which is authorized to do business in this State and which is part of an insurance holding company system to register on behalf of any affiliated insurer which is required to register under Subsection (a) and to file all information and material required to be filed under this section.

(h) Exemptions. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any insurer, information, or transaction if and to the extent that the commissioner by rule, regulation, or order shall exempt the same from the provisions of this section.

(i) Disclaimer. Any person may file with the commissioner a disclaimer of affiliation with any authorized insurer or such a disclaimer may be filed by such insurer or any member of an insurance holding company system. The disclaimer shall fully disclose all material relationships and bases for affiliation between such person and such insurer as well as the basis for disclaiming such affiliation. After a disclaimer has been filed, the insurer shall be relieved of any duty to register or report under this section which may arise out of the insurer's relationship with such person unless and until the commissioner disallows such a disclaimer. The commissioner shall disallow such a disclaimer only after furnishing all parties in interest with notice and opportunity to be heard and after making specific findings of fact to support such disallowance.

(j) Violations. The failure to file a registration statement or any amendment thereto required by this section within the time specified for such filing shall be a violation of this section.

Transactions within an insurance holding company system

Sec. 4. (a) Transactions with Affiliates. Material transactions by registered insurers with their holding companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates shall be subject to the following standards:

(1) the terms shall be fair and equitable;

(2) charges or fees for services performed shall be reasonable;

(3) the books, accounts, and records of each party shall be so maintained as to clearly and accurately disclose the precise nature and details of the transactions;

(4) expenses incurred and payments received shall be allocated to the insurer on an equitable basis in conformity with customary insurance accounting principles consistently applied; and

(5) the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders following any dividends or distributions to the holding company or shareholder affiliates shall be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.

(b) Adequacy of Surplus. For the purposes of this article, in determining whether an insurer's surplus as regards policyholders is reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, the following factors, among others, shall be considered:

(1) the size of the insurer as measured by its assets, capital and surplus, reserves, premium writings, insurance in force, and other appropriate criteria;

(2) the extent to which the insurer's business is diversified among the several lines of insurance;

(3) the number and size of risks insured in each line of business;

(4) the extent of the geographical dispersion of the insurer's insured risks;

(5) the nature and extent of the insurer's reinsurance program;

(6) the quality, diversification, and liquidity of the insurer's investment portfolio;

(7) the recent past and projected future trend in the size of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders;

(8) the surplus as regards policyholders maintained by other comparable insurers;

(9) the adequacy of the insurer's reserves; and

(10) the quality and liquidity of investments in subsidiaries made pursuant to Section 6. The commissioner may treat any such investment as a nonadmitted or disallowed asset for purposes of determining the adequacy of surplus as regards policyholders whenever in his judgment such investment so warrants.

(c) Dividends and Other Distributions. (1) No insurer subject to registration under Section 3 shall pay any extraordinary dividend or make any other extraordinary distribution to its shareholders until (i) 30 days after the commissioner has received notice of the declaration thereof and has not within such period disapproved such payment, or (ii) the commissioner shall have approved such payment within such 30-day period.

(2) For purposes of this section an extraordinary dividend or distribution includes any dividend or distribution of cash or other property, whose fair market value together with that of other dividends or distributions made within the preceding 12 months exceeds the greater of (i) 10 percent (20 percent if such insurer is a title insurer) of such insurer's surplus as regards policyholders as of the 31st day of December next preceding, or (ii) the net gain from operations of such insurer, if such insurer is a life or title insurer, or the net investment income, if such insurer is not a life or title insurer, for the 12-month period ending the 31st day of December next preceding, but shall not include pro rata distributions of any class of the insurer's own securities.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurer may declare an extraordinary dividend or distribution which is conditional upon the commissioner's approval thereof, and such a declaration shall confer no rights upon shareholders until (i) the commissioner has approved the payment of such dividend or distribution or (ii) the commissioner has not disapproved such payment within the 30-day period referred to above.

(d) Commissioner's Approval Required. (1) The prior written approval of the commissioner shall be required for the following transactions between a domestic insurer and any person in its holding company system: sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, or investments, involving more than either five percent of the insurer's admitted assets or 25 percent of the insurer's surplus, whichever is the lesser, as of the 31st of December next preceding; provided, however, that the commissioner must give his decision of either approval or disapproval within 90 days after notification by the insurer and his failure to so act within such 90 days shall constitute approval of the transaction.

(2) The following transactions between a domestic insurer and any person in its holding company system may not be entered into unless the insurer has notified the commissioner in writing of its intention to enter into any such transaction at least 30 days prior thereto, or such shorter period as he may permit, and he has not disapproved it within such period:

(i) sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, or investments, involving either more than one-half of one percent but less than five percent of the insurer's admitted assets, or more than five percent but less than 25 percent of the insurer's surplus, whichever is the lesser, as of the 31st day of December next preceding;

(ii) reinsurance treaties or agreements;

(iii) rendering of services on a regular or systematic basis; or

(iv) any material transactions, specified by regulation, which the commissioner determines may adversely affect the interests of the insurer's policyholders or stockholders or of the public.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit any transactions which, in the case of a non-controlled insurer, would be otherwise contrary to law.

(4) The commissioner, in reviewing transactions hereunder, shall consider whether the transactions comply with the standards set forth in Subdivision (a) hereof and whether they may adversely affect the interest of policyholders. Any disapproval by the commissioner of any such transactions shall set forth the specific reasons for such disapproval.

(5) The approval of any transaction under this section shall be deemed an amendment under Section 3(d) to an insurer's registration statement without further filing.

Acquisition or retention of control of or merger with domestic insurer

Sec. 5. (a) Filing Requirements. (1) No person other than the issuer shall make a tender offer for or a request or invitation for tenders of, or enter into any agreement to exchange securities for, seek to acquire, or acquire, in the open market or otherwise, any voting security of a domestic insurer if, after the consummation thereof, such person would, directly or indirectly, or by conversion or by exercise of any right to acquire, be in control of such insurer, and no person shall enter into an agreement to merge with or otherwise to acquire control of a domestic insurer unless, at the time any such offer, request, or invitation is made or any such agreement is entered into, or prior to the acquisition of such securities if no offer or agreement is entered into, or prior to the acquisition of such securities if no offer or agreement is involved, such person has filed with the commissioner and has sent to such insurer, and such insurer has sent to its shareholders, a statement containing the information required by this section and such offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition has been approved by the commissioner in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

(2) For purposes of this section a "domestic insurer" shall include any other person controlling a domestic insurer unless such other person is either directly or through its affiliates primarily engaged in business other than the business of insurance.

(b) Content of Statement. The statement to be filed with the commissioner hereunder shall be made under oath or affirmation and shall contain the following information:

(1) the name and address of each person by whom or on whose behalf the merger or other acquisition of control referred to in Subsection (a) is to be effected (hereinafter called 'acquiring party'), and

(i) if such person is an individual, his principal occupation and all offices and positions held during the past five years, and any conviction of crimes other than minor traffic violations during the past 10 years; and

(ii) if such person is not an individual, a report of the nature of its business operations during the past five years or for such lesser period as such person and any predecessors thereof shall have been in existence; an informative description of the business intended to be done by such person and such person's subsidiaries; and a list of all individuals who are or who have been selected to become directors or executive officers of such person, or who perform or will perform functions appropriate to such positions. Such list shall include for each such individual the information required by Paragraph (i) of this subsection;

(2) the source, nature, and amount of the consideration used or to be used in effecting the merger or other acquisition of control, a description of any transaction wherein funds were or are to be obtained for any such purpose, and the identity of persons furnishing such consideration, provided, however, that where a source of such consideration is a loan made in the lender's ordinary course of business, the identity of the lender shall remain confidential, if the person filing such statement so requests;

(3) fully audited financial information as to the earnings and financial condition of each acquiring party for the preceding five fiscal years of each such acquiring party (or for such lesser period as such acquiring party and any predecessors thereof shall have been in existence), and similar unaudited information as of a date not earlier than 90 days prior to the filing of the statement;

(4) any plans or proposals which each acquiring party may have to liquidate such insurer, to sell its assets or merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management;

(5) the number of shares of any security referred to in Subsection (a), which each acquiring party proposes to acquire, and the terms of the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in Subsection (a), and a statement as to the method by which the fairness of the proposal was arrived at;

(6) the amount of each class of any security referred to in Subsection (a) which is beneficially owned or concerning which there is a right to acquire beneficial ownership by each acquiring party;

Subsidiaries of insurers

Sec. 6. Any domestic insurer, either by itself or in cooperation with one or more persons, may organize or acquire one or more subsidiaries, as an investment but only as permitted by the investment provisions of the Insurance Code.

Management of controlled insurers

Sec. 7. (a) Notwithstanding the control of an authorized insurer by any person, the officers and directors of the insurer shall not thereby be relieved of any obligation or liability to which they would otherwise be subject by law, and the insurer shall be managed so as to assure its separate operating identity consistent with this code.

(b) Nothing herein shall preclude an authorized insurer from having or sharing a common management or cooperative or joint use of personnel, property, or services with one or more other persons under arrangements meeting the standards of Paragraph (4) of Section 4(a) hereof.

Prohibition of indirect action

Sec. 8. No holding company or controlled person shall directly or indirectly or through another person do or cause to be done for or on behalf of the controlled insurer any act intended to affect, influence, change, or alter the insurance operations of the insurer which, if done by the insurer acting alone, would violate this code. Provided, however, this section shall not limit or prohibit such holding company or person within the holding company system from doing any type of business that would be normal and natural to such person if it were not within the holding company system so long as such business is conducted on behalf of such person.

Examination

Sec. 9. (a) Power of the Commissioner. Subject to the limitation contained in this section and in addition to the powers which the commissioner has under other articles of this code relating to the examination of insurers, the commissioner shall also have the power to order any insurer registered under Section 3 to produce such records, books, or other information papers in the possession of the insurer, its holding company, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates as shall be necessary to ascertain the financial condition or legality of conduct of such insurer. In the event such insurer fails to comply with such order, every holding company, every controlled person, subsidiary, or affiliate within the insurance holding company system shall be subject to examination by order of the commissioner if he has cause to believe that the operations of such persons may materially affect the operations, management, or financial condition of any controlled insurer within the system and that he is unable to obtain relevant information from such controlled insurer. The grounds relied upon by the commissioner for such examination shall be stated in his order, which order shall be subject to judicial review only at the instance of the person sought to be examined. Such examination shall be confined to matters specified in the order. The cost of such examination shall be assessed against the person examined and no portion thereof shall thereafter be reimbursed to it directly or indirectly by the controlled insurer.

(b) Purpose and Limitation of Examination. The commissioner shall exercise his power under Subsection (a) above only if the examination of the insurer under other sections of this code is inadequate or the interests of the policyholders of such insurer may be adversely affected.

(c) Use of Consultants. The commissioner may retain at the registered insurer's expense such attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff as shall be reasonably necessary to assist in the conduct of the examination under Subsection (a) above. Any persons so retained shall be under the direction and control of the commissioner and shall act in a purely advisory capacity.

(d) Expenses. Each registered insurer complying with the commissioner's order and producing for examination records, books, and papers pursuant to Subsection (a) above shall be liable for and shall pay the expense of such examination in accordance with Article 1.16 of this code.

Confidential treatment

Sec. 10. All information, documents, and copies thereof obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination or investigation made pursuant to Section 9 and all information reported pursuant to Section 3, shall be given confidential treatment and shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be made public by the commissioner or any other person, except to insurance departments of other states, without the prior written consent of the insurer to which it pertains unless the commissioner, after giving the insurer and its affiliates who would be affected thereby notice and opportunity to be heard, determines that the interests of policyholders, shareholders, or the public will be served by the publication thereof, in which event he may publish all or any part thereof in such manner as he may deem appropriate.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 11. The State Board of Insurance may, upon notice and opportunity for all interested persons to be heard, issue such rules, regulations, and orders as shall be consistent with and to carry out the provisions of this article and to govern the conduct of its business and proceedings hereunder. Respecting any other provisions of this article, the board shall not have any power or authority to change the meaning of any provision of this article by rule or regulation or to promulgate any rule or regulation which is in any way contrary to the underlying and fundamental purposes of this article.

Injunctions: prohibitions against against voting securities: sequestration of voting securities

Sec. 12. (a) Injunctions. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has committed or is about to commit a violation of this article or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the State Board of Insurance or by the commissioner hereunder, the commissioner may apply to the district court for Travis County for an order enjoining such insurer or such director, officer, employee, or agent thereof from violating or continuing to violate this article or any such rule, regulation, or order, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interest of the insurer's policyholders, creditors, and shareholders or the public may require.

(b) Voting of Securities; When Prohibited. No security which is the subject of any agreement or arrangement regarding acquisition, or which is acquired or to be acquired in contravention of the provisions of this article or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the State Board of Insurance or the commissioner hereunder may be voted at any shareholders' meeting, or may be counted for quorum purposes, and any action of shareholders requiring the affirmative vote of a percentage of shares may be taken as though such securities were not issued and outstanding; but no action taken at any such meeting shall be invalidated by the voting of such securities, unless the action would materially affect control of the insurer or unless the courts of this State have so ordered. If an insurer or the commissioner has reason to believe that any security of the insurer has been or is about to be acquired in contravention of the provisions of this article or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the State Board of Insurance or the commissioner hereunder, the insurer or the commissioner may apply to the district court for Travis County or to the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business to enjoin any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition made in contravention of Section 5 or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner thereunder to enjoin the voting of any such security so acquired, to void any vote of such security already cast at any meeting of shareholders, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the insurer's policyholders, creditors, and shareholders or the public may require.

(c) Sequestration of Voting Securities. In any case where a person has acquired or is proposing to acquire any voting securities in violation of this article or any rule, regulation or order issued by the State Board of Insurance or the commissioner hereunder the district court for Travis County or the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business may, on such notice as the court deems appropriate, upon the application of the insurer or the commissioner seize or sequester any voting securities of the insurer owned directly or indirectly by such person, and issue such orders with respect thereto as may be appropriate to effectuate the provisions of this article. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, for the purposes of this article the situs of the ownership of the securities of domestic insurers shall be deemed to be in this State.

Criminal proceedings

Sec. 13. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent thereof has committed a wilful violation of this article, the commissioner may cause criminal proceedings to be instituted by the district attorney for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or if such insurer has no such office in the state, then by the district attorney for Travis County against such insurer, or the responsible director, officer, employee, or agent thereof. Any insurer which wilfully violates this article may be fined not more than $10,000. Any individual who wilfully violates this article may be fined not more than $5,000 or, if such wilful violation involves the deliberate perpetration of a fraud upon the commissioner, imprisoned not more than two years or both.

Receivership

Sec. 14. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this article which so impairs the financial condition of a domestic insurer as to threaten its insolvency or make the further transaction of its business hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, shareholders, or the public, then the commissioner may proceed as provided in Articles 21.28 and 21.28–A of this code to take possession of the property of such domestic insurer and to conduct the business thereof.

Revocation, suspension, or non-renewal of insurer's license

Sec. 15. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this article which makes the continued operation of an insurer contrary to the interests of policyholders or the public, the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, determine to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew such insurer's license or authority to do business in this State for such period as he finds is required for the protection of policyholders or the public. Any such determination shall be accompanied by specific findings of fact and conclusion of law.

Rescission, revocation, and reversal of unauthorized transactions

Sec. 16. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has entered into any transaction or act without having first complied with the provisions of this article applicable to such transaction or act, and in violation hereof, the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, determine and order that such transaction or act be set aside, rescinded, revoked, reversed, and rendered void and of no force or effect, so that the parties to such transaction or act shall be returned to the position they would have occupied had not such transaction or act occurred in violation of this article.

Judicial review; mandamus

Sec. 17. (a) Any person aggrieved by any act, determination, rule, regulation, or order or any other action of the commissioner pursuant to this article may appeal therefrom under the procedures provided in Article 1.04 of this code.

'(b) The filing of an appeal pursuant to this section shall stay the application of any such rule, regulation, order, or other action of the commissioner to the appealing party unless the court, after giving such party notice and an opportunity to be heard, determines that such a stay would be detrimental to the interests of policyholders, shareholders, creditors, or the public.

(c) Any person aggrieved by any failure of the commissioner to act or make a determination required by this article may petition the district court for Travis County for a writ in the nature of a mandamus or a peremptory mandamus directing the commissioner to act or make such determination forthwith.

(3) Insurance against financial loss by reason of nonpayment of rent and other sums agreed to be paid under the terms of a written lease for the possession, use or occupancy of real estate, provided the improvement on such real estate is a building or buildings designed to be occupied for industrial or commercial purposes.

(b) "Authorized real estate security" for the purposes of Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subdivision (a) of this section means an amortized note, bond or other evidence of indebtedness, secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument constituting a first lien or charge on real estate; provided:

(1) The real estate loan secured in such manner is one which a bank, savings and loan association, or an insurance company, which is supervised and regulated by a department of this State or an agency of the federal government or an approved seller-servicer of the Federal National Mortgage Association, is authorized to make.

(2) The improvement on such real estate is a building or buildings designed for occupancy as specified by Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subdivision (a) of this section.

(3) The lien on such real estate may be subject and subordinate to the following:

(c) "Contingency reserve" means an additional premium reserve established for the protection of policyholders against the effect of adverse economic cycles or losses.

Qualifications of insurers

Sec. 2. Qualifications for mortgage guaranty insurers shall be as follows:

(1) An insurer, in order to qualify for writing mortgage guaranty insurance, must have the same minimum capital and surplus as that required of a company by Chapter 8, Texas Insurance Code.[1]

(2) A foreign or alien insurer writing mortgage guaranty insurance shall not be eligible for the issuance of a certificate of authority in Texas unless it has demonstrated a satisfactory operating experience in its state of domicile.

(3) A mortgage guaranty insurance insurer which anywhere transacts any class of insurance other than mortgage guaranty insurance is not eligible for the issuance of a certificate of authority to transact mortgage guaranty insurance in this State nor for the renewal thereof.

(4) A mortgage guaranty insurer which anywhere transacts the classes of insurance defined in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subdivision (a) of Section 1 is not eligible for the issuance of a certificate of authority to transact in this State the class of mortgage guaranty insurance defined in Paragraph (1) of Subdivision (a) of Section 1.

Loss reserve; determination

Sec. 4. On such insurance, the case basis method shall be used to determine the loss reserve, which shall include a reserve for claims incurred but not reported.

Contingency reserve; withdrawals; releases to surplus

Sec. 5. In addition to the capital, surplus and reserves specified in Sections 2, 3 and 4 hereof, each mortgage guaranty insurer shall establish a contingency reserve, which shall be reported as a liability in the insurer's financial statements. To provide for and maintain such reserve, the company shall annually contribute to such reserve fifty per cent (50%) of the earned premiums on its mortgage guaranty insurance business. The earned premiums so reserved may be released to the insurer's surplus, annually, after they have been so maintained for 120 months. However, withdrawals may be made from such reserve by the insurer in any given year in which the insurer can demonstrate to the State Board of Insurance that the incurred losses for such year exceed thirty-five per cent (35%) of the corresponding earned premiums for such year. The amount so withdrawn and released for such losses shall reduce any subsequent annual release to surplus from the established contingency reserve by an amount equal to the amount so withdrawn, and any balance in excess of the normal annual release from such reserve shall carry over and be deducted from subsequent annual releases.

Outstanding total liability; limit

Sec. 6. A mortgage guaranty insurer shall not at any time have outstanding a total liability, net of reinsurance, under its aggregate mortgage guaranty insurance policies exceeding 25 times its capital, surplus and contingency reserve, such liability to be computed on the basis of the insurer's liability under its election as provided in Section 7 and such liability for leases to be computed on the basis of the insurer's liability as determined by the State Board of Insurance. In the event that any insurer has outstanding total liability exceeding 25 times its capital, surplus and contingency reserve, it shall cease transacting new mortgage guaranty business until such time as its total liability no longer exceeds 25 times its capital, surplus and contingency reserve.

Real estate liens; coverage against loss for nonpayment of principal, etc.; limit

Sec. 7. A mortgage guaranty insurer shall limit its coverage for the class of insurance defined in Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subdivision (a) of Section 1 to a maximum of twenty per cent (20%) of the entire indebtedness to the insured, or in lieu thereof, a mortgage guaranty insurer may elect to pay the entire indebtedness to the insured and acquire title to the authorized real estate security.

Loans secured by properties in single-housing or contiguous tracts; limit

Sec. 8. A mortgage guaranty insurer shall not insure loans secured by properties in a single housing tract or a contiguous tract in excess of ten per cent (10%) of the insurer's capital, surplus and contingency reserve. In determining the amount of such risk, applicable reinsurance in any assuming insurer authorized to transact mortgage guaranty insurance in this State shall be deducted from the total direct risk insured. "Contiguous," for the purposes of this section, means not separated by more than one-half mile.

Advertising of "insured loans"

Sec. 9. No bank, savings and loan association or insurance company, or an approved seller-servicer of the Federal National Mortgage Association, any of whose authorized real estate securities are insured by a mortgage guaranty insurance company, may state in any brochure, pamphlet, report or any form of advertising that the real estate loans of the bank, savings and loan association, insurance company or an approved seller-servicer of the Federal National Mortgage Association are "insured loans" unless the brochure, pamphlet, report or advertising also clearly states that the loans are insured by private insurers and the names of the private insurers are given and shall not make any such statement at all unless such insurance is by an insurer certificated to write in this State.

Application of other laws

Sec. 10. All the applicable provisions of this Code and of other statutes of this State, except as the same may be in conflict herewith, shall apply to the operation and conduct of mortgage guaranty insurance business.

Provided, that if a license is granted pursuant to an application filed after June 30 of any year, the license fee for the balance of such year shall be Fifty Dollars.

(3) Any fact or condition exists which, if it has existed or had been known to exist at the time of the original application for such license, clearly would have justified the Commissioner in refusing to issue such license.

(b) The hearing shall be held upon twenty days' notice in writing, setting forth the time and place thereof and a concise statement of the facts alleged to warrant suspension or revocation and its effective date shall be set forth in a written order accompanied by findings of fact and a copy thereof shall be forthwith delivered to the licensee. Such order, findings, and the evidence considered by the Commissioner shall be filed with the public records of the Commissioner.

In the course of an examination, the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative shall have free access to the office, place of business, files, safes, and vaults of such licensee, and shall have the right to make copies of any books, accounts, papers, correspondence and records. The Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may, during the course of such examination, administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject pertinent to any matter about which the Commissioner is authorized or required by this Act to consider, investigate, or secure information. Any licensee who fails or refuses to let the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative or any peace officer examine or make copies of such books, or other relevant documents shall thereby be deemed in violation of this Act and such failure or refusal shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of such license. The information obtained in the course of any examination or inspection shall be confidential and privileged, except for use in a criminal investigation or prosecution. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner an amount assessed by the Commissioner to cover the cost of such examinations, not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars in any calendar year, and in the event a licensee hereunder is also licensed to do business under Chapter 3 of the Texas Credit Code, Chapter 3 of Subtitle 2, Chapter 274, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967,[1] in the same place of business licensed hereunder, the aggregate charges for examinations authorized by the

Before making a regulation the Commissioner shall give each licensee at least thirty days' written notice of a public hearing, stating the time and place thereof and the terms or substance of the proposed regulation. At the hearing, any licensee or other person may be heard and may introduce evidence, data, or arguments or place the same on file. The Commissioner, after consideration of all relevant matters presented, shall adopt and promulgate every regulation in written form, stating the date of adoption and date of promulgation. [1] Article 1396—1.01 et seq.

Bonds payable from revenue

Sec. 3. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the State, the issuer or of any other political subdivision or agency of this State or a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them, but such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided therefor from revenues. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the State, the issuer or any political subdivision or agency of the State shall be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from revenues of the particular project or medical project for which they are issued and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State, the issuer or any political subdivision or agency thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds. The issuer shall not be authorized to incur financial obligations which cannot be paid from revenues realized from the lease of a project or medical projects.

Powers of issuers

Sec. 4. (a) In addition to any other powers which it may now have, each issuer shall have without any other authority the following powers:

(1) to acquire, whether by construction, purchase, devise, gift, or lease or any one or more of such methods, one or more medical projects or projects, located within this State, and within or partially within its limits, provided that as to a city, such project or medical project may be situated outside its territorial limits if within its extraterritorial jurisdiction as provided by the Municipal Annexation Act [1];

(2) to lease to a lessee any or all of its projects and medical projects for such rentals and upon such terms and conditions as the governing body may deem advisable and as shall not conflict with the provisions of this Act;

(3) to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of defraying all or part of the cost of acquiring or improving any project or medical project, and to secure the payment of such bonds as provided in this Act;

(4) to sell and convey all or any part of any real or personal property acquired as provided by Subdivision (a) of this section, and make such order respecting the same as may be deemed conducive to the best interest of the issuer. No issuer shall have the power to operate any project as a business or in any manner except as the lessor thereof, nor shall they have any power to acquire any such project, or any part thereof, by the exercise of eminent domain. Land previously acquired by an issuer in the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be sold, leased or otherwise utilized under the provisions of this Act, provided the governing body determines (a) that such use will not interfere with the purpose for which such land was originally acquired or is no longer needed for such purpose, and (b) at least seven years have elapsed since such land was so acquired, and (c) such land was not acquired for park purposes unless such sale or lease of park land has been approved at an election held under authority of Article 1112, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

[1] Article 970a.

Lease agreements; Commission approval; rules and regulations; filing; appeal

Sec. 5. No issuer shall institute proceedings to authorize bonds under the provisions of Section 6(a) or 6(c) until the Commission has given tentative approval to the suggested contents of the lease agreement, and if a lessee is permitted to sublease, the Commission has also tentatively approved the financial responsibility of the ultimate lessee.

The Commission shall prescribe rules and regulations setting forth minimum standards for lease agreements and guidelines with respect to financial responsibilities of the lessee and ultimate lessee, if any, but in no event shall the Commission give final approval to any agreement unless it affirmatively finds the lessee and ultimate lessee have the business experience, financial resources and responsibility to provide reasonable assurance that all bonds and interest thereon to be paid from or by reason of such agreement will be paid as the same become due.

Appeal from any adverse ruling or decision of the Commission under this section may be made by an issuer to the District Court of Travis County. The substantial evidence rule shall apply.

Rules, regulations and guidelines promulgated by the Commission, and amendments thereto, shall be effective only after they have been filed with the Secretary of State.

Issuance of bonds; resolution of intent, publication; protest; election, procedures

Sec. 6. (a) Before issuing any bonds hereunder the governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so, stating the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and the tentative date upon which the governing body proposes to authorize the issuance of such bonds. Such resolution shall be published once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication shall be made not less than 14 days prior to the tentative date fixed in such resolution for the authorization of the bonds. If 10 percent of the qualified electors of the issuer shall file a written protest against the issuance of such bonds on or before the tentative date specified for the authorization of such bonds, then an election on the question of the issuance of such bonds shall be called and held as herein provided.

If no such protest be filed, then such bonds may be issued without an election at any time within a period of two years after the tentative date specified in the resolution; provided, however, the governing body of such issuer, in its discretion, may call an election on such question, in which event it shall not be necessary to publish the notice of its intention to issue bonds.

(b) Where an election is called, notice thereof shall be published once a week for at least two consecutive weeks, in at least one newspaper of general circulation within the territorial limits of the issuer. The first publication of such notice shall be made not less than 14 days prior to the date fixed for such election. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas pertaining to general elections, except as modified by the provisions of this Act. The order calling the election shall specify the date, place or places of holding the election, the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place, and shall provide for clerks as provided in the Election Code. Only qualified property taxpaying electors who own taxable property which has been duly rendered for taxation shall be permitted to vote at such election.

The form of ballot shall be in conformity with Sections 61, 62, and 63, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.05, 6.06, 6.07, Vernon's Texas Election Code), so that ballots provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The issuance of revenue bonds for the (medical project or project)."

Within 10 days after such election is held, or as soon thereafter as possible, the governing body of the issuer shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and in the event such election results are favorable (majority vote) to the proposition such governing body shall so find and declare and shall be (subject to the provisions of Section 5) authorized to proceed with the authorization of bonds.

(c) A series of bonds may be issued for each project or medical project and any of such projects may be combined in a single series of bonds if the governing body, in the exercise of its discretion, deems the same to be in the best interest of the issuer, but each project or medical project shall be considered separately with respect to the provisions of Section 5, 6(a), 6(b) and 6(c).

(d) Bonds shall be issued and delivered within three years of the tentative approval of the Commission, or within three years of the final judgment in any litigation affecting the validity of the bonds or the provision made for their payment, whichever date is later. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Commission from conditioning its approval of the project or medical project upon the completion of the financing thereof within a lesser period of time.

Form of bonds; use of proceeds; interim receipts or temporary bonds; approval and registration

Sec. 7. Each issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution, from time to time, for the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, enlarging or improving a project or medical project, except revenue bonds for a medical project may not be authorized by a district. The principal of and the interest on such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds provided for such payment and from the revenues of the particular project for which such bonds were authorized. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their date, as may be determined by the issuer and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the issuer, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuer prior to the issuance of the bonds.

The issuer shall determine the form of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within the State. Provision may be made for execution of the bonds and coupons (if any) under the provisions of Chapter 204, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 1961, as amended (Article 717j—1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). In cases where any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the issuer may determine, and provisions may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to the principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. If the duty of such reconversion is imposed on the Trustee in a Trust Agreement the substituted coupon bonds need not be reapproved by the Attorney General of Texas, and they shall remain incontestable. The issuer may sell bonds so the net interest cost (as defined in Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, 1969, as amended, Article 717k—2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) shall not exceed 10 percent per annum and such bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder for cash (not exchanged for property).

The proceeds of the bonds of each issue shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the project or medical project for which issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance or in the trust agreement securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue shall exceed the cost of the project or medical project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds.

Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the issuer may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable or definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the State, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this Act.

Before any issuer may deliver any bonds authorized hereunder to the purchaser thereof, the proceedings authorizing their issuance and securing the bonds shall be presented to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and approval. If the bonds shall have been duly authorized in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State and constitute valid and binding obligations of the Authority, according to their tenor and effect, and proper revenues have been pledged to their payment, he shall approve the bonds. Without such approval the bonds cannot be so issued and delivered to the purchaser. The bonds when approved shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After such approval and registration the bonds shall be incontestable.

Refunding bonds

Sec. 8. An issuer is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, issued on account of a project or medical project, which shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, and, if deemed advisable by the issuer, for the additional purpose of constructing improvements, extensions or enlargements to the project or medical project in connection with which the bonds to be refunded shall have been issued. The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties and obligations of the issuer in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act insofar as the same may be applicable. Within the discretion of the issuer the refunding bonds may be issued in exchange for outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used for the purpose of redeeming outstanding bonds.

Trust agreement as security

Sec. 9. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the issuer and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the State. Any such trust agreement may pledge or assign lease revenues to be received from a lessee or ultimate lessee.

The trust agreement may evidence a pledge of the lease income to be received for the use of any project or medical projects for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable and may provide to create and maintain reserves for such purposes. Any such trust agreement or any resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the issuer, or lessee in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation and insurance of the project or medical project in connection with which such bonds shall have been authorized, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the State which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the issuer. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such provisions as the issuer may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the project or medical project.

Default in payment; enforcement; option to purchase

Sec. 10. Each bond issued under the provisions of this Act shall contain substantially the following language: "No pecuniary obligation is or may be imposed upon the issuer of this bond in the event there is a failure to pay all or part of the principal or interest thereon, except the issuer is obligated to apply rental income it receives from the project (or medical project) to such purposes."

Any agreement between a lessee and ultimate lessee relating to any project shall be for the benefit of the issuer as shall any agreement between the issuer and the lessee. Any such agreement shall contain a provision that, in the event of a default in the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings, mortgage, or instrument such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rents and to apply the revenues from the project in accordance with such resolution, mortgage or instrument.

Any mortgage to secure bonds issued thereunder may also provide that, in the event of a default in the payment thereof or the violation of any agreement contained in the mortgage, the mortgage may be foreclosed and sold under proceedings in equity or in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. Such mortgage may also provide that any trustee under such mortgage or the holder of any of the bonds secured thereby may become the purchaser at any foreclosure sale if the highest bidder therefor.

An issuer may grant a lessee or ultimate lessee an option to purchase all or any part of a project or medical project when all bonds of the issuer delivered to provide such facilities have been paid or provision has been made for their final payment, provided during the time the bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid there is no failure to pay the lease rentals at the time and in the manner as the same become due, provided a payment shall be deemed paid when and as due if no event of default is declared and the payment is made within 15 calendar days of the date it was scheduled to become due. The provisions of this law are procedurally exclusive for authority to convey or grant an option to purchase, and reference to no other law shall be required.

Removal of business from existing facilities

Sec. 11. No issuer may acquire or construct any project or medical project for any individual, firm, partnership, or corporation, or make or permit any lease to any individual, firm, partnership, or corporation where the effect of such lease shall be to remove lessee's business from existing facilities within the State of Texas.

Authority of governing body; conditions of approval

Sec. 12. Except as limited by the provisions of this law or as limited by the rules, regulations and guidelines of the Commission, each governing body shall have full and complete authority with respect to bonds, lease agreements and the provisions thereof.

No bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General until the Commission has given final approval to the lease agreement, nor shall such bonds be approved if any authorizing proceedings or provisions for security and payment of lease payments are not in conformity with this law.

Advertising for contracts; performance bonds; leasing restriction

Sec. 13. All contracts for construction or purchases involving the expenditure of more than $2,000 may be made only after advertising in the manner provided by Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to performance and payment bonds, shall apply to construction contracts let by the issuer.

Bonds shall not be issued to acquire existing facilities for the purpose of again leasing the same to the same industrial concern or one controlled by such industrial concern and it shall be the duty of the Commission to investigate such matters before giving its tentative approval of any project or medical project.

Bonds and profits not taxable; bonds and coupons deemed security

Sec. 14. In carrying out the purposes of this Act, the issuer will be performing an essential public function and any bonds issued by it and their transfer and the issuance therefrom, including any profits made in the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.

Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons (if any) representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed (i) to be a "Security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code (Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967),[1] and shall be exempt securities under the Texas Securities Act. A lease agreement under this Act shall not be a security within the meaning of the Texas Securities Act.

[1] V.T.C.A.Bus. & C. § 8.101 et seq.

Legal and authorized investments; security for deposit of public funds

Sec. 15. Bonds approved by the Attorney General shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for any sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Relocation of highway, etc. at sole expense of political subdivision

Sec. 16. In the event any city, county, navigation district or other political subdivision, in the exercise of the power of relocation, or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipelines, all such necessary relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the city, county, navigation district or other political subdivision. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing the grade of, or alteration of construction to provide comparable replacement, without enhancement, of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Qualification of electors

Sec. 17. The Legislature hereby recognizes there is some confusion as to the proper qualification of electors in the light of recent court decisions. It is the intention of this Act to provide a permitted procedure for an election to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds, but in each instance the authority shall be predicated upon the expression of the will of the majority of those who cast valid ballots at an election called for the purpose. Should the governing body calling an election determine that all qualified electors, including those who own taxable property which has been duly rendered for taxation, should be permitted to vote at an election (by reason of the aforesaid court decisions), nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation upon the power to call and hold an election, provided provision is made for the voting, tabulating, and counting of the ballots of the resident qualified property taxpaying electors who own taxable property which has been duly rendered for taxation separately from those who are qualified electors, and in any election so called a majority vote of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters who own taxable property which has been duly rendered for taxation and a majority vote of the qualified electors, including those who own taxable property which has been duly rendered for taxation, shall be required to sustain the proposition.

Purpose and effectiveness of Act

Sec. 18. It is hereby found, determined and declared:

(a) that the present and prospective health, safety, right to gainful employment and general welfare of the people of this State requires as a public purpose the promotion and development of new and expanded industrial manufacturing, medical and research enterprises;

(b) that community industrial development corporations in Texas have themselves invested substantial funds in successful industrial development projects and experience difficulty in undertaking additional such projects by reason of the partial inadequacy of their own funds or funds potentially available from local subscription sources and by reason of limitations of local financial institutions in providing additional and sufficiently sizable first mortgage loans;

(c) that communities in this State are at a critical disadvantage in competing with communities in other states for the location or expansion of such enterprises by virtue of the availability and prevalent use in all other states of financing and other special incentives, therefore, the issuance of revenue bonds by political subdivisions of the State as hereinafter provided for the promotion of industrial development, employment, public health and research is hereby declared to be in the public interest and a public purpose.

This law shall be effective without the necessity of a constitutional amendment to the full extent permitted by present provisions of the Texas Constitution. With respect to the powers granted herein, any provision of this law which may be effective only as the result of a change in the Texas Constitution shall become effective upon the adoption of the amendment proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 33 in the 62nd Legislature, the Legislature recognizing such constitutional amendment may be required to enable districts to proceed under this law. In no event shall any appropriation be made by the Legislature to pay all or any part of the obligation of any issuer under the provisions of this Act, and any expenses incurred by the Commission shall be paid out of funds appropriated to that agency.

Construction of Act; severability

Sec. 19. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or State constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the issuer shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

(d) "Industrial Development Agency" means a corporation established under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act [1] to promote and encourage industrial development within the State or a designated area of the State whose articles of incorporation provide that upon dissolution or winding up of its corporate affairs any property remaining after payment of debts of the corporation shall be conveyed, transferred, or vest in a city or county or be conveyed to a nonprofit corporation established for similar purposes.

(e) "Project" means the land, buildings, equipment, facilities and improvements (one or more) found by the Commission to be required or suitable for the promotion of industrial development and for use by manufacturing or industrial enterprise, irrespective of whether in existence or required to be acquired or constructed after the making of such finding by the Commission. [1] Article 1396—1.01 et seq.

Loan to agency from Commission; amount, interest, etc.

Sec. 3. When it has been determined by the Commission (upon application of an industrial development agency and hearing thereon) that the establishment of a particular project of such industrial development agency has accomplished or will accomplish the public purposes of this Act, the Commission may contract to loan such industrial development agency an amount not in excess of a percentage of the cost of such project, as established or to be established as hereinafter set forth, subject, however, to the following conditions:

The Commission may contract to loan the industrial development agency an amount not in excess of 40% of the cost of such project if it has determined that the industrial development agency holds funds or property in an amount or value equal to not less than 10% of the cost of the project, which funds or property are then available for and are pledged to be applied to the establishment of such project.

Prior to the making of any loan the Commission shall have determined that the industrial development agency has obtained from other independent and responsible financial sources a firm commitment for all other funds, over and above the loan of the Commission and such funds or property as the industrial development agency may hold necessary for payment of all of the cost of establishing the project, and that the sum of all these funds, together with the machinery and equipment to be provided by the responsible tenant or responsible buyer, is adequate for the completion and operation of the industrial development project.

Any such loan of the Commission shall be for such period of time and shall bear interest at such rate as shall be determined by the Commission and shall be secured by bond or note of the industrial development agency and by mortgages on the project for which such loan was made, such mortgage to be second and subordinate only to the mortgage securing the first lien obligation issued to secure the commitment of funds from the aforesaid independent and responsible sources and used in the financing of the project.

In those instances where a federal agency participates in the financing of a project through a loan or a grant such participation shall be considered an independent and responsible source to the extent of the obligation of the federal agency to so participate under a loan or grant or similar agreement, and in such instance the Commission may accept a bond or note of the industrial agency and a mortgage on the project inferior to all first and second lien obligations, provided (a) the participation of the federal agency exceeds the loan by the Commission and (b) the federal agency's participation is conditioned upon its participation being secured by a lien superior to that of the Commission.

Money loaned by the Commission to the industrial development agencies shall be withdrawn from the Industrial Development Fund and paid over to the industrial development agency in such manner as shall be provided and prescribed by the rules and regulations of the Commission.

All payments of interest on said loans and installments of principal shall be deposited by the Commission as received in the Industrial Development Fund.

Loan application; hearings and examinations

Sec. 4. No loan shall be made by the Commission except upon application by an industrial development agency, (in such form as may be required by the Commission) which shall include the following:

(a) A general description of the industrial development project and a general description of the industrial or manufacturing enterprise for which the project has been or is to be established.

(b) A legal description of all real estate necessary for the project.

(c) Such plans and other documents as may be required to show type, structure and general character of the project.

(d) A general description of the type, classes and number of employees employed or to be employed in the operation of the industrial development project.

(e) Cost or estimates of cost of establishing the project.

(f) A general description and statement of value of any property, real or personal, of the industrial development agency applied or to be applied to the establishment of the project;

(g) A statement of cash funds previously applied, or then held by the industrial development agency which are available for and are to be applied to the establishment of the project;

(h) Evidence of the arrangement made by the industrial development agency for the financing of all cost of the project over and above the participation of the industrial development agency;

(i) Information on the responsible tenant to which the industrial development agency has leased or will lease the project or of the responsible buyer to which the industrial development agency has sold or will sell the project.

(j) A copy of the lease or sales agreement entered into or to be entered into by and between the industrial development agency and its responsible tenant or responsible buyer.

The Commission shall hold such hearings and examinations as to each loan application received as shall be necessary to determine whether the public purposes of this Act will be accomplished by the granting of a loan.

Powers of Commission; staff services

Sec. 5. In addition to other powers conferred upon the Commission by the provisions hereof the Commission through its staff shall:

(a) cooperate with industrial development agencies in their efforts to promote the expansion of industrial, manufacturing and development activity in rural areas;

(b) determine, upon proper application of industrial development agencies, whether the declared public purpose of this Act has been accomplished or will be accomplished by the establishment by such industrial development agencies of an industrial development project in rural areas;

(c) conduct examinations and investigations and hear testimony and take proof, under oath or affirmation, at public hearings, on any matter material for its information and necessary to the determination and designation of rural areas and the establishment of industrial development projects therein;

(d) make, upon proper application of industrial development agencies, loans to such industrial development agencies of money held in the Industrial Development Fund for projects in rural areas and to provide for the repayment and redeposit of such allocation and loans in its manner hereinafter provided;

(e) accept grants from and enter into contracts with any federal agency in the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act;

(f) take title by foreclosure to any project where such acquisition is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the Commission and to pay all costs arising out of such foreclosure and acquisition from moneys held in the Industrial Development Fund and sell, transfer and convey any such project to any responsible buyer; in the event such sale, transfer and conveyance cannot be effected with reasonable promptness, the Commission may, in order to minimize financial losses and sustain employment, lease such projects to a responsible tenant or tenants;

(g) purchase first mortgages and make payments on first mortgages on any industrial development project where such purchase or payment is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the Commission and sell, transfer, convey and assign any such first mortgage. Moneys so used in the purchase of any first mortgages or any payments thereon, shall be withdrawn from the Industrial Development Fund, and any moneys derived from the sale of any first mortgages shall be deposited in the Industrial Development Fund.

The Texas Industrial Commission shall provide staff services for the program herein provided, including liaison between the Commission and industrial development agencies and related organizations, and between the Commission and other agencies of the State whose facilities and services may be useful to the Commission in its work. The Commission may employ counsel, engineering, financial or other consultants as required in the carrying out of its duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Commission may obtain such professional services in cooperation with other State agencies or may retain persons or firms that may or may not be employed full, part-time, or as consultants for other agencies.

The Commission shall have no power at any time to borrow money, incur pecuniary obligations, or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the State of Texas or any of its municipalities or political subdivisions.

Default in payment; enforcement; advertising for contracts; performance bonds; leasing restriction; benefit demonstrated

Sec. 6. When the Commission makes a loan to an industrial development agency, it shall be provided in the instruments evidencing such loan that in the event of default in the payment of the principal of or the interest on such obligation or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings, mortgage, or instrument, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by the appointment of a receiver in equity with power to charge and collect rents and to apply the revenues from the project in accordance with such mortgage or instrument.

In instances where the Commission makes a loan, all contracts for construction of a project involving the expenditure of more than $2,000 may be made only after advertising in the manner provided by Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to performance and payment bonds, shall apply to construction contracts.

No loan shall be made to acquire existing facilities for the purpose of again leasing the same to the same industrial concern or one controlled by such industrial concern.

The Commission shall not approve any loan unless it finds that the benefit to the rural area in which the project is situated will exceed the financial commitment of the Commission and that the approval of the particular project will aid in the alleviation of unemployment within the State or assist in the industrial development of the State and that such project will be of benefit to the State and its taxpayers.

Hearing, notice; rules and regulations, filing; appeal

Sec. 7. In those instances where the Commission is required to make a determination or ruling, the same shall only be made after a public hearing. Notice of such hearing shall be given to the Secretary of State, Austin, Texas, at least 12 hours before the hearing is scheduled to begin but any hearing may be recessed from time to time (without the giving of additional notice) as the regulations of the Commission may provide.

Rules, regulations and guidelines promulgated by the Commission, and amendments thereto, shall be effective only after they have been filed with the Secretary of State.

Appeal from any adverse ruling or decision of the Commission under this section may be made by an issuer to the District Court of Travis County. The substantial evidence rule shall apply.

Purpose of Act

Sec. 8. It is hereby found, determined and declared:

(a) that the present and prospective health, safety, right to gainful employment and general welfare of the people of this State requires as a public purpose the promotion and development of new and expanded industrial and manufacturing enterprises;

(b) that community industrial development corporations in Texas have themselves invested substantial funds in successful industrial development projects and experience difficulty in undertaking additional such projects by reason of the partial inadequacy of their own funds or funds potentially available from local subscription sources and by reason of limitations of local financial institutions in providing additional and sufficiently sizable mortgage loans;

(c) that communities in this State are at a critical disadvantage in competing with communities in other states for the location or expansion of such enterprises by virtue of the availability and prevalent use in all other states of financing and other special incentives; therefore, this Act provides for the promotion of industrial development and employment and is hereby declared to be in the public interest and a public purpose.

Appropriations; special revolving fund

Sec. 9. Funds for the implementation and administration of this Act shall be provided by the General Appropriations Bill.

A special account in the Treasury of the State of Texas to be known as the Rural Industrial Development Fund is hereby created and the amount so appropriated hereby and any subsequent appropriation made by the Legislature for such purpose, as well as such other deposits as principal and interest on loans are repaid shall be deposited in said fund. It is the intent of this Act that the Industrial Development Fund shall operate as a revolving fund whereby all appropriations and payments made thereto may be applied and reapplied to the purposes of this Act. To the extent the constitution requires such funds be appropriated and reappropriated for the aforesaid purpose, such action is hereby taken and such funds are hereby appropriated and reappropriated and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to take the same action in the future to the extent required by the constitution.

Sec. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or State constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the issuer shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

Art. 5221b—1. Benefits

* * * * * * * * * * *

(b) Benefit Amount for Total Unemployment: Each eligible individual who is totally unemployed in any benefit period shall be paid with respect to such benefit period, benefits at the rate of one twenty-fifth (1/25) of his wages received from employment by employers during that quarter in his base period in which wages were highest, provided that:

(1) If such rate is not an even multiple of One Dollar ($1), it shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of One Dollar ($1); and

(2) Such rate shall not be more than Sixty-three Dollars ($63) per benefit period nor less than Fifteen Dollars ($15) per benefit period.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(e) Benefit Wage Credits: "Benefit wage credits" means those wages as defined in this subsection of the Act, which are used in determining an individual's right to benefits. "Wages" as used in this Section shall be as defined in subsection (n) of Section 19 of this Act, except that the four-thousand-two-hundred-dollar limitation on wages as set out in subsection (n) (1) of Section 19 shall not be applicable for the purposes of this Section 3 to remuneration received after December 31, 1971; provided that, for the purposes of this Section 3, wages received by an individual in any calendar year after December 31, 1967, shall include all remuneration from each employer for employment up to the maximum amount of wages as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Section 3121, Chapter 21, Subtitle C, Internal Revenue Code of 1954), as amended, or as it may hereafter be amended; and provided further, that wages which have been used to qualify an individual for regular benefits under this Act or under any other unemployment compensation law shall not be used again to qualify such individual for regular benefits.

If an employer fails to report wages which were paid to a claimant during a base period when requested by the Commission, the Commission may establish wage credits for such claimant for such base period on the basis of the best information which has been obtained by the Commission.

(f) Equal Treatment: Benefits based on services for all employers in employment defined in subsection 19(f) shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions; provided that benefits based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution of higher education shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during the period between two (2) successive academic years, or during a similar period between two (2) regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual has a contract or contracts to perform services in any such capacity for any institution or institutions of higher education for both such academic years or both such terms.

Subsec. (b) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2777, ch. 900, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; Subsec. (e) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2733, ch. 892, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; Subsec. (f) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2733, ch. 892, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Art. 5221b—2a. Prohibitions against denial of benefits

(a) Benefits shall not be denied to an individual because he is in training with the approval of the Commission, nor shall such individual be denied benefits with respect to any benefit period in which he is in training with the approval of the Commission by reason of the application of provisions in this Act relating to availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to apply for, or a refusal to accept, suitable work. Approval of training shall be in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission.

(b) Benefits shall not be denied or reduced to an individual solely because he files a claim in another state (or a contiguous country with which the United States has an agreement with respect to unemployment compensation) or because he resides in another state (or such a contiguous country) at the time he files a claim for unemployment compensation.

Acts 1936, 44th Leg., 3rd C.S. p. 1993, ch. 482, § 4–A, added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2734, ch. 892, § 2, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Such disqualification shall be for not less than one (1) nor more than twenty-five (25) benefit periods following the filing of a valid claim, as determined by the Commission according to the circumstances in each case.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(f) In determining the number of benefit periods during which any individual is entitled to receive benefits in a benefit year, the Commission shall deduct any period of disqualification as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section from the total number of benefit periods during which he would otherwise be entitled to receive benefits except for such disqualification; provided, that in no case shall the number of benefit periods so deducted exceed the number of benefit periods during which the claimant is then eligible to receive benefits except for such disqualification; and provided further, that in no event shall a disqualification imposed under subsection (a) or (c) of this Section result in a total reduction of the claimant's benefit rights in his benefit year.

(g) For the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which the Commission finds that such individual has left his most recent work for the purpose of attending an established educational institution; provided, that this subsection shall not apply during a period in which an individual is in training with the approval of the Commission.

Subsecs. (a), (f), (g) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2734, ch. 892, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

(A) begins with the third (3rd) week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(i) a week for which there is a national 'on' indicator, or

(ii) a week for which there is a State 'on' indicator; and

(B) ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs last:

(i) the third (3rd) week after the first (1st) week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a State "off" indicator, or

(ii) the thirteenth (13th) consecutive week of such period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a State "on" indicator before the fourteenth (14th) week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this State; and Provided further, that no extended benefit period may begin with a week beginning before January 1, 1972.

(2) There is a national "on" indicator for a week if the United States Secretary of Labor determines that, for each of the three (3) most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent (4.5%).

(3) There is a national "off" indicator for a week if the United States Secretary of Labor determines that, for each of the three (3) most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (4.5%).

(4) There is a State "on" indicator for this State for a week if the Commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this Act:

(A) equaled or exceeded one hundred and twenty percent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, and

(B) equaled or exceeded four percent (4%).

(5) There is a State "off" indicator for this State for a week if the Commission determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve (12) weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this Act:

(A) was less than one hundred and twenty percent (120%) of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two (2) calendar years, or

(B) was less than four percent (4%).

(6) "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of paragraphs (4) and (5) of this subsection, means the percentage derived by dividing:

(A) the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this State for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13-consecutive-week period, as determined by the Commission on the basis of the Commission's reports to the United States Secretary of Labor, by

(B) the average monthly employment covered under this Act for the first four (4) of the most recent six (6) completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13-week period.

(7) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this Act or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85 [1]) other than extended benefits.

(8) "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this Section for benefit periods of unemployment in his eligibility period.

(9) "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the benefit periods in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any benefit periods thereafter which begin in such period.

(10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any benefit period of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(A) has received, prior to such benefit period, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this Act or any other state law

(including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such benefit period;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this subparagraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although, as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits, or

(B) had a benefit year that expired prior to such benefit period and has no, or insufficient, wage credits on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such benefit period; and

(C) (i) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act [2] the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 [3], the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965 [4], or such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor, and

(ii) has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law, he is considered an exhaustee.

(11) "State Law" means the unemployment compensation law of any state that is approved by the United States Secretary of Labor under Section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 [5].

(b) Effect of State Law Provisions Relating to Regular Benefits on Claims for, and the Payment of, Extended Benefits: The provisions of this Act, and the rules or regulations of the Commission which apply to claims for, and the payment of, regular benefits shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this Section.

(c) Eligibility Requirements for Extended Benefits: An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any benefit period of unemployment in his eligibility period only if the Commission finds that with respect to such benefit period:

(1) he is an "exhaustee" as defined in subsection (a) (10) of this Section, and

(2) he satisfies the requirements of this Act for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits.

(d) Weekly Extended Benefit Amount: The weekly extended benefit amount payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in his eligibility period shall be an amount equal to the weekly benefit amount payable to him during his applicable benefit year.

(e) Total Extended Benefit Amount: The total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect to his applicable benefit year shall be fifty percent (50%) of the total amount of regular benefits which were payable to him under this Act in his applicable benefit year.

(f) (1) Beginning and termination of extended benefit period: Whenever an extended benefit period is to become effective in this State (or in all states) as a result of a State or a national "on" indicator, or an extended benefit period is to be terminated in this State as a result of State and national 'off' indicators, the Commission shall make a public announcement thereof in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission.

(1) Extended benefits shall be paid from the Unemployment Compensation Fund.

(2) Payments made by the Federal Government for its share of extended benefits shall be deposited into the Unemployment Compensation Fund.

(3) Fifty percent (50%) of the extended benefit payments based on wage credits from a reimbursing employer shall be charged to the account of such employer and reimbursed by such employer in the same manner as regular benefit payments, and such payments shall not be used in determining the replenishment ratio provided for in subsection 7(c) (5) of this Act [6].

(4) Fifty percent (50%) of extended benefit payments based on wage credits from a taxed employer shall be deemed chargebacks and charged to the account of such employer and used in determining the benefit ratio of such employer unless it was determined that chargebacks were not to be made against the account of the employer when regular benefits with respect to an individual were paid. Fifty percent (50%) of extended benefit payments based on wage credits from a taxed employer (whether or not charged to an employer) shall be used in the numerator of the replenishment ratio. Chargebacks resulting from the payment of extended benefits shall be used in the denominator of the replenishment ratio.

(5) When a taxed base period employer is notified of a claim for benefits under subsection 7(c) (2) of this Act [7], such notice shall state that if the claim results in the payment of extended benefits, the maximum potential chargeback may be increased by as much as twenty-five percent (25%). No further notice of potential chargeback regarding extended benefit payments need be given to a taxed base period employer when the extended benefits are paid.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2733, ch. 892, in sections 12 to 14 provided:

"Sec. 12. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, insofar as they do conflict herewith, are hereby repealed but such repeal shall in no way be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights of the State of Texas or of the Texas Employment Commission, which have accrued thereunder, including, without limiting or without being limited thereto, the right to collect contributions, interest, or penalties that have accrued, and the right of prosecution for violation of any provision thereof; nor shall such repeal in any way be construed as forfeiting or waiving the rights of any individual to benefits which accrued thereunder; provided that the Commission's determination of the benefit year, the benefit amount for total unemployment, and the duration of benefits made with respect to an initial claim filed prior to January 1, 1972, shall be effective for the remainder of such benefit year, and provided further, that nothing in this Section shall be construed as preventing Section 6-A of the Act from being effective on and after January 1, 1972.

"Sec. 13. If any word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, subsection or section of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not invalidate any other word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, subsection, or section hereof, and the Legislature hereby expressly declares that it would have passed such remaining words, phrases, sentences, paragraphs, subsections, and sections despite such invalidity.

"Sec. 14. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1972."

Art. 5221b—5. Contributions

* * * * * * * * * * *

(c) Experience rating:

(1) Each employer's contribution rate shall be two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%) until his account has been chargeable with benefits throughout each calendar month of the four (4) consecutive calendar quarters immediately preceding the date as of which such employer's rate is determined. The contribution rate of each employer who has had at last four (4) such calendar quarters of compensation experience shall be determined as provided below; except that the contribution rate of any employing unit which becomes an employer for the first time during the calendar year 1972, other than one which first becomes an employer because of the provisions of subsection 19(f) (2) of this Act [1], shall be one percent (1%) rather than two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%) until such time as his account has been chargeable with benefits for four (4) consecutive calendar quarters and an experience rate is computed for him in accordance with this Act.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(4) The benefit ratio of each employer shall be a percentage equal to the total of his chargebacks for the thirty-six (36) consecutive completed calendar months immediately preceding the date as of which the employer's tax rate is determined divided by his total taxable wages for the same months on which contributions have been paid to the Commission on or before the last day of the month in which the computation date occurs; provided that, in the event the employer has less than three (3) years but at least four (4) calendar quarters of compensation experience throughout which his account has been chargeable with benefits, his benefit ratio shall be a percentage equal to the total of all of his chargebacks for all completed calendar months immediately preceding the date as of which such employer's tax rate is determined divided by his total taxable wages for the same months on which contributions have been paid to the Commission on or before the last day of the month in which the computation date occurs.

(5) The replenishment ratio for a calendar year is a quotient, stated to the nearest hundredth, derived from the following numerator and denominator.

The numerator of the replenishment ratio shall be the total amount of benefits paid from the Unemployment Compensation Fund during the twelve (12) months ending September 30, of the preceding year, that are based on wage credits from taxed employers, less for the same period:

(A) the total amount of refunds of regular benefits that were based on wage credits from taxed employers and fifty percent (50%) of the refunds of extended benefits that were based on wage credits from taxed employers, and

(B) the total amount of regular benefit warrants canceled that were based on wage credits from taxed employers and fifty percent (50%) of the extended benefit warrants canceled that were based on wage credits from taxed employers, and

(C) fifty percent (50%) of the extended benefits paid that were based on wage credits from taxed employers.

The denominator of the replenishment ratio shall be the total amount of chargebacks to the accounts of all taxed employers during the twelve (12) months ending September 30, of the preceding year.

The replenishment ratio for each calendar year shall be determined prior to the due date of the first contribution payment with respect to wages for employment paid in that year and such replenishment ratio thus determined shall not be affected or revised by virtue of any subsequent adjustment of any chargebacks of any employer.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

The Commission is authorized to extend the foregoing table by supplying additional replenishment ratios and by supplying additional employer benefit ratios using the same mathematical principles used in constructing said table.

Provided, that when the amount in the Unemployment Compensation Fund on the October 1 computation date immediately preceding the calendar year for which rates are being computed is in excess of the ceiling hereinafter defined, a reduction in the tax rate shown on the foregoing table, or as it may be extended, by one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) for each Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) or fraction thereof by which the amount in the Unemployment Compensation Fund is in excess of the ceiling shall be granted to each employer entitled to an experience tax rate, provided that no employer shall receive a tax rate reduction greater than two and two-tenths percent (2.2%) under this provision; provided further, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, that no employer shall be permitted to pay contributions at a rate less than one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) and that no employer shall be required to pay contributions at a rate greater than four percent (4%) except as hereinafter provided. When the amount in the Unemployment Compensation Fund on the October 1 computation date immediately preceding the calendar year for which rates are being computed is less than Two Hundred Twenty-five Million Dollars ($225,000,000), an increase in the tax rate by one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) for each Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) or fraction thereof by which the amount in the Unemployment Compensation Fund is less than Two Hundred Twenty-five Million Dollars ($225,000,000) shall be applied to the tax rate of each employer eligible for an experience tax rate, including any employer whose tax rate would otherwise be limited to four percent (4%).

The ceiling for the Unemployment Compensation Fund referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be Three Hundred Five Million Dollars ($305,000,000) for the computation date of October 1, 1972, and shall be increased by Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) to Three Hundred Ten Million Dollars ($310,000,000) for the computation date of October 1, 1973, and shall be increased by Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) for the computation date of each succeeding year until it reaches Three Hundred Twenty-five Million Dollars ($325,000,000) for the computation date of October 1, 1976, and it shall remain at Three Hundred Twenty-five Million Dollars ($325,000,000) for each computation date thereafter.

Art. 5221b—5a. Reimbursements

(a) Reimbursing Employers: Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Section. An employer making payments in accordance with this Section shall be referred to as a "reimbursing employer" and such payments shall be referred to as "reimbursements."

(b) Payments by a Reimbursing Employer: At the end of each calendar quarter the Commission shall bill each reimbursing employer for an amount equal to the amount of the regular benefits plus one-half (½) of the amount of the extended benefits paid during such quarter which are attributable to service in the employ of such employer, and reimbursements shall be paid by the reimbursing employer to the Commission for the fund in accordance with such rules as the Commission may prescribe.

(c) Allocation of Benefit Costs: Each employer that is liable for reimbursements shall pay to the Commission for the fund the amount of the regular benefits plus the amount of one-half (½) of the extended benefits paid which are attributable to service in the employ of such employer. If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by more than one (1) employer and one (1) or more of such employers are liable for reimbursements, the amount payable to the fund by each such employer that is liable for reimbursements shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the following subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (2):

(1) Proportionate Allocation (When Fewer Than All Base Period Employers Are Liable for Reimbursements): If benefits paid to an individual are based on wage credits paid by one (1) or more employers who are liable for reimbursements and on wage credits paid by one (1) or more employers who are liable for contributions, the amount of reimbursement payable by each employer that is liable for reimbursements shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base period wage credits paid to the individual by such employer bears to the total base period wage credits paid to the individual by all of his base period employers.

(2) Proportionate Allocation (When All Base Period Employers Are Liable for Reimbursement): If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two (2) or more employers that are liable for reimbursements, the amount of reimbursement payable by each such employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base period wage credits paid to the individual by such employer bears to the total base period wage credits paid to the individual by all of his base period employers.

(d) Records and Reports: Reimbursing employers shall maintain records and submit reports in accordance with subsection 11(e) of the Act [1] and rules prescribed by the Commission.

(e) Collections: If any reimbursing employer shall fail to pay reimbursements due under this Act on the date on which they are due and payable, as prescribed by the Commission, or if any such employer shall fail to submit records and reports as prescribed by the Commission, such employer shall be subject to the provisions set forth in Section 14 of this Act [2]; provided, that where Section 14 refers to contributions due from employers such Section shall be regarded as also referring to reimbursements due from reimbursing employers.

(f) Waiver of Rights: Reimbursing employers are entitled to the rights and privileges and subject to the duties and responsibilities of all provisions of this Act except the provisions of Section 7 [3]. Section 7 shall be inapplicable to reimbursing employers (except where specifically mentioned therein) and an election to become a reimbursing employer shall constitute a waiver of the rights afforded under Section 7 of the Act.

(g) Continued Liability: All regular benefits paid and one-half (½) of extended benefits paid which are attributable to service in the employ of a reimbursing employer during the period for which he elected reimbursement pursuant to Section 8 [4] shall be reimbursed by the employer even though the employer may no longer be a reimbursing employer when the benefit payments are made.

(h) Group Accounts: Two (2) or more reimbursing employers may file a joint application with the Commission for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employers. Each such application shall identify and authorize a group representative to act as the group's agent for the purpose of this paragraph. Upon approval of the application, the Commission shall establish a group account for such employers effective as of the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the Commission received the application and shall notify the group's representative of the effective date of the account. Such account shall remain in effect for not less than two (2) years and thereafter until terminated at the discretion of the Commission or upon application by the group, and such termination shall be effective only at the beginning of the next calendar year. Upon establishment of the account, each member of the group shall be liable for reimbursements with respect to each calendar quarter in the amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid in such quarter that are attributable to service performed in the employ of all members of the group as the total wages paid for service in employment by such member in such quarter bears to the total wages paid during such quarter for service performed in the employ of all members of the group. Each member of the group shall keep true and accurate employment records and submit such reports as the Commission may require with respect to persons employed by such member. The Commission shall prescribe such rules as may be necessary with respect to the type of records to be kept by and reports to be submitted by groups of employers, applications for the establishment, maintenance and termination of group accounts that are authorized by this paragraph, for addition of new members to, and withdrawal of active members from, such accounts, and for the determination of the amounts of reimbursements that are payable under this paragraph by members of the group and the time and manner of such payments.

(i) Authority to Terminate Elections: If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making reimbursements as provided under this Section, the Commission may terminate such organization's election to make reimbursements as of the beginning of the next taxable year and such termination shall be effective for that and the succeeding taxable year.

(j) Bond: In the discretion of the Commission, any nonprofit organization (or group of such organizations) that elects to become liable for reimbursements may be required to execute and file with the Commission a surety bond approved by the Commission. The amount of such bond shall be determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the Commission. The Commission may require adjustments to be made in a previously filed bond if it deems such action appropriate. Failure by any organization covered by such bond to pay the full amount of reimbursements when due, together with any applicable interest and penalties provided for under this Act, shall render the surety liable on such bond to the extent of the bond, as though the surety was such organization. If any nonprofit organization fails to make bond when directed to do so by the Commission, the Commission may terminate such employer's election to make reimbursements as of the beginning of the next taxable year and such termination shall be effective for that and the succeeding taxable year.

(k) Additional Safeguards: The Commission is authorized to provide such additional safeguards as may be needed to ensure that reimbursing employers pay the reimbursements required under this Section.

(l) Benefit Payments: Benefits based upon wages earned from a reimbursing employer shall be paid from the fund, but such benefits paid and reimbursements for such benefits shall not be used in computing the replenishment ratio provided for in subsection 7(c) (5) of this Act [5].

Art. 5221b—6. Duration of coverage and elections

(a) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this Act within any calendar year shall be subject to this Act during the whole of such calendar year.

(b) (1) A nonprofit organization (or group of organizations) as described in Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 [1] which is exempt from income tax under Section 501(a) of such Code [2] and is subject to this Act may file an election to pay reimbursements as provided in Section 7–A of this Act [3] in lieu of paying contributions as provided in Section 7 of this Act.[4] Such election shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the date notice is mailed to the employer that he is subject to the provisions of this Act. The election will be effective January 1 of the year in which the employer became subject to this Act and such election shall be for a minimum period of two (2) calendar years and cannot be terminated prior to that time, except as provided in subsections 7–A(i) and 7–A(j) of this Act.[5] An election may be withdrawn by a written application by the employer filed with the Commission not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the year with respect to which the employer wishes to change his method of payment. Thereafter, there must again be a minimum of two (2) calendar years and a timely application filed before the method of payment may again be changed.

An election to pay reimbursements in lieu of paying contributions will be terminated at any time coverage is terminated under this Act. An employer whose election has been terminated as the result of termination of coverage shall upon again becoming an employer subject to this Act be given an opportunity to file another election to pay reimbursements in lieu of paying contributions under the same terms and conditions described above.

(2) The State of Texas, a branch or department thereof, or an instrumentality thereof may voluntarily elect (except with respect to a State hospital or a State institution of higher education) coverage as a subject employer for a period of not less than two (2) calendar years and shall for the same period file an election to pay reimbursements for benefits paid as provided in Section 7–A of this Act or to pay contributions as provided in Section 7 of this Act.

(3) A political subdivision of the State of Texas may voluntarily elect coverage for not less than two (2) calendar years and such election may be made with respect to (A) all services performed for the political subdivision, or (B) all services performed for all institutions of higher education and all hospitals operated by the political subdivision, or (C) all services performed for one (1) or more separate parts or divisions of the political subdivision; and, if such election is made, the employer shall pay reimbursements for benefits as provided in Section 7–A of this Act.

(4) All elections under subsections 8(b) (2) and 8(b) (3) of this Act may be terminated after the minimum required period by filing with the Commission a written request for termination not later than thirty (30) days preceding the last day of a calendar year, and such termination shall be effective January 1 of the following year.

(5) Any employing unit other than one to which subsection 8(b) (1), 8(b) (2), or 8(b) (3) of this Act is applicable, not otherwise subject to this Act, may voluntarily elect coverage as an employer subject to this Act for a period of not less than two (2) calendar years and shall with the written approval of such election by the Commission become an employer subject hereto to the same extent as all other employers as of the date stated in such approval.

(6) Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute employment as defined in this Act are performed may file with the Commission a written election that all such services performed by individuals in its employ in one (1) or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all purposes of this Act for not less than two (2) calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the Commission, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to this Act from and after the date stated in such approval and during the period of the election.

(c) (1) No employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this Act except as of the first day of January of any calendar year, and only then if such employer files with the Commission, within the period from January 1 through March 31 of such year, a written application for termination of coverage, and the Commission finds that there were no twenty (20) different days within the preceding calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week, during each of which days such employing unit employed one (1) or more individuals in employment subject to this Act and that said employer did not pay any wages in any quarter of the preceding year in the total amount of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) or more; provided, that, if the employing unit is an employer subject to this Act under subsection 19(f) (3),[6] the phrase 'four (4) or more individuals' shall be substituted for the phrase 'one (1) or more individuals' in this subparagraph; and provided further, that this subsection has no applicability to an employer subject to this Act under subsection 19(f) (6).[7]

(2) Regardless of whether or not an application for termination of coverage has been filed, an employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this Act as of the first day of January of any year if the Commission finds that the employing unit has not had any individuals in employment on any one (1) or more days within the three (3) immediately preceding consecutive calendar years.

(d) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this Act, and which under the provisions of this Section ceases to be an employer subject to this Act, and subsequent to such time again becomes an employer subject to this Act by reason of any of the provisions thereof, shall upon again becoming an employer subject to this Act be considered a new employer without regard to any rights acquired by it during the time that it had theretofore been an employer.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 5221e—1. Migrant labor camps; licensing

Section 1. The following words and phrases shall mean:

(a) Migrant labor camp: One or more buildings or structures, tents, trailers, or vehicles, contiguous or grouped, together with the land appertaining thereto, established, operated, or used as living quarters for fifteen or more seasonal, temporary, or migrant persons, and occupied for more than three days, whether or not rent is paid or reserved in connection with the use or occupancy of such premises.

(b) Person: An individual or group of individuals, association, partnership, or corporation.

(c) Migrant agricultural worker: An individual who is employed in agriculture or performing agricultural labor on a seasonal or temporary basis and residing away from his usual home or residence.

Necessity of license and posting; time limit for existing camps

Sec. 2. No person shall establish, maintain, or operate any migrant labor camp in this state without first obtaining a license therefor from the State Commissioner of Health. Such license shall be posted and kept posted in the migrant labor camp to which it applies at all times during maintenance or operation. Operators of migrant labor camps now in existence shall have 150 days from the date of promulgation of rules and regulations issued under this Act in which to obtain a license; provided, however, the regulations adopted by the State Board of Health under this Act shall not become effective until July, 1971.

Application; fee; temporary permit pending inspection

Sec. 3. Application for a license to establish, operate, or maintain a migrant labor camp shall be made to the State Commissioner of Health on a form and under regulations prescribed by him. The application shall state the location and ownership of the existing or proposed migrant labor camp, the approximate number of persons to be accommodated, the probable periods of use, and any other information the State Board of Health may require. The application shall be accompanied by a license fee which shall be in accordance with the following schedule:

Family Type Housing (Both Sexes)
2 to 10 dwelling units	$20
11 to 30 dwelling units	$35
31 or more dwelling units	$50
Dormitory Type Housing (Single Sex)
24 beds or less	$15
25 beds or more	$20

Upon receipt of the application and fee the person shall be issued a temporary license permitting operation of the camp until such time as an official inspection visit can be made by an authorized representative of the State Commissioner of Health.

License; issuance; nontransferability; expiration; renewal

Sec. 4. After an inspection has been made, if the camp meets the reasonable, minimum standards of construction, sanitation, equipment, and operation required by regulations issued under and in accordance with this Act, the State Commissioner of Health shall issue, in the name of the State Department of Health, the necessary license to operate a migrant labor camp. The license, unless sooner revoked, shall expire one year after the date of issuance unless renewed, and it shall not be transferable. All applications for renewal shall be filed with the State Commissioner of Health not less than 30 days prior to its expiration, on forms furnished by the State Department of Health and accompanied by renewal fee in accordance with the schedule in Section 3 of this Act.

Failure to pass inspection; revalidation of temporary permit for period; re-inspection

Sec. 5. After an inspection has been made, if the camp does not meet the reasonable, minimum standards of construction, sanitation, equipment, and operation required by regulations issued under and in accordance with this Act, the State Commissioner of Health will revalidate the temporary permit for a period not to exceed 6 months, at the discretion of the duly authorized representative who made the inspection, to permit the person sufficient time to prepare the camp to pass inspection. When the person is confident the camp is ready he may request an inspection or wait for the inspection visit that will automatically take place at the termination of the revalidation period.

Suspension or revocation of license; complaint; hearing; procedure; re-application for license

Sec. 6. The State Commissioner of Health is hereby authorized to suspend or revoke a license issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, for violation of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto. The duly authorized representative of the State Commissioner of Health shall have the power to issue a complaint to the State Commissioner of Health for violation of any of the provisions of this Act or any regulations lawfully promulgated by said State Board of Health. Provided further, that the said person, as defined in this Act, is entitled to a fair hearing in the county in which the migrant labor camp is located and to be represented by legal counsel if desired, and shall be given written notice after a reasonable time following the complaint, stating the grounds of complaint, date, time, and place set for hearing. If the State Commissioner of Health finds that the complaint is true, such license may then be suspended or revoked as herein provided. Following revocation, a new application, accompanied by the respective fee, shall be considered by the State Commissioner of Health, if, when, and after the conditions upon which revocation was based have been corrected and evidence of this fact has been furnished. A new license shall then be granted after proper inspection has been made and it is found that the provisions of this Act have been complied with and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder have been satisfied.

Rules and regulations

Sec. 7. The State Board of Health shall make and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be determined to be necessary to protect the health and safety of persons living in migrant labor camps, prescribing standards for living quarters at such camps, including provisions relating to construction of camps, sanitary conditions, water supply, toilets, sewage disposal, refuse and garbage storage, collection, and disposal, light, air, safety, protection from fire hazards, equipment, maintenance and operation of the camp, and such other matters as they may determine to be appropriate or necessary for the protection of the health and safety of occupants. Said Board of Health shall have the authority to modify or repeal any of these rules and regulations as deemed necessary.

Care of facilities by employees and occupants

Sec. 8. Every employee and occupant of a migrant labor camp using the sanitary and other facilities furnished for his convenience shall comply with all applicable rules, regulations, and standards promulgated in accordance with the provisions of this Act for the care and upkeep of such facilities, that the Board of Health has determined to be necessary to protect the health and safety of all employees and occupants.

Inspection; notice; right of entry

Sec. 9. The State Commissioner of Health or his duly authorized representative, after giving notice or having made a reasonable attempt to give notice to the camp operator, may enter and inspect migrant labor camps at reasonable hours and investigate such facts, conditions, and practices or matters as may be necessary or appropriate to determine whether any person has violated any provisions of this Act or whether rules, regulations, and standards of the State Board of Health pertaining hereto are being violated.

Review of commissioner's decisions

Sec. 10. All decisions of the State Commissioner of Health hereunder may be reviewed in the county, or district, court of the county in which such migrant labor camp is located or contemplated.

Violations; penalties; injunction; appeal

Sec. 11. (a) Any person, as defined in this Act, establishing, conducting, maintaining, or operating any migrant labor camp, within the meaning of this Act, without first obtaining a license therefor as provided herein or without having secured renewal of license as provided by this Act or who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, or regulations lawfully promulgated thereunder; and

(b) any employee or occupant who does not use the sanitary facilities furnished for his convenience, or who commits an act of vandalism or misuse of the facilities, or who violates applicable regulations lawfully promulgated within the meaning of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction hereof be subject to a fine of not more than $25; but if the violation is committed after a conviction of such employee or occupant under the provisions of this Act has become final, such person, employee, or occupant shall be subject to imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or a fine of not more than $100, or both imprisonment and fine.

In addition to other remedies, the Commissioner of Health or his designated representative is hereby authorized to apply to the district court for, and such court shall have jurisdiction upon hearing and for good cause shown to grant, a temporary or permanent injunction restraining and enjoining any person, as defined in this Act, employee, or occupant from violating any of the provisions of this Act. Such person, employee, or occupant, so enjoined, shall have the right to appeal such injunction, temporary or permanent, to the Supreme Court of the State of Texas, as in other cases.

Enforcement

Sec. 12. It shall be the duty of the State Commissioner of Health to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Conflicting laws repealed

Sec. 13. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Severability

Sec. 14. If any section, sentence, subdivision, or clause herein shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act.

(d) The board may determine that the standards for mobile homes established by a state or a recognized body or agency or the federal government are at least equal to the Code. If the department finds that such standards are actually enforced then it shall issue a certificate of acceptability for such mobile homes.

(e) The department shall make and enforce rules and regulations reasonably required to effectuate the provisions of this Act and may amend or revoke any rule it makes.

(f) At least 30 days before the adoption or promulgation of any change in or addition to the rules and regulations authorized in Subsection (e) of this section the department shall mail to all manufacturers possessing valid certificates of acceptability a notice including:

(b) The department may establish and require such training programs in the concept, techniques, and inspection of mobile homes for the personnel of local governments, as the department considers necessary.

Sec. 9. [Blank].

(d) All fees shall be paid to the state treasury and placed in a special account for the use of the department in the administration and enforcement of this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 12. (a) Any manufacturer who violates or fails to comply with this Act shall be notified in writing setting forth facts describing the alleged violation and instructed to correct the violation within 60 days. Should the manufacturer fail to make the necessary correction(s) within the specified time, the department may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke any certificate of acceptability if it finds that:

(1) the manufacturer has failed to pay the fees authorized by this Act; or that

(2) the manufacturer, either knowingly or without the exercise of due care to prevent the same, has violated any provision of this Act or any regulation or order lawfully made pursuant to and within the authority of this Act.

(b) The hearing shall be held upon 15 days' notice in writing setting forth the time and place thereof and a concise statement of the facts alleged to sustain the suspension or revocation and its effective date shall be set forth in a written order accompanied by findings of fact and a copy thereof shall be forthwith delivered to the manufacturer. Such order, findings, and the evidence considered by the department shall be filed with the public records of the department.

(c) The department may obtain injunctive relief from any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin the sale or delivery of any mobile home in this state upon an affidavit of the department specifying the manner in which such mobile home does not conform to the requirements of this Act or to the rules and regulations issued by the department pursuant hereto.

(d) Any person who manufacturers, sells, or offers for sale a mobile home in this state in violation of the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200) per day or by confinement not exceeding 30 days, or both.

CHAPTER THREE A—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 5890e. State of emergency; police power; use of militia

Local powers during state of emergency

Sec. 7. Such cities or towns shall have full power and authority to provide by ordinance for the exercise of all powers reasonably necessary to protect the health, security, peace, life and property of the city and its inhabitants, during the period of such civil emergency. Specifically, but not in limitation of said powers which said cities may exercise, said cities may provide by ordinance, after reasonable notice, having due regard to the circumstances and exigencies of the emergency at the time of said notice, given in a newspaper of general circulation or through television or radio serving the affected area or by circulating notice or by posting signs at conspicuous places within the affected area, the following:

(a) Imposition of a general or limited curfew regulating or prohibiting any person or persons from being or remaining, or loitering or congregating on any street, alley, park, public property; or any other place where they have no right or authority to be during said curfew.

(b) Limitation or prohibition of the sale or dispensing of beer, wine, liquor, and any and all other alcoholic beverages.

(c) Limitation or prohibition of the sale or dispensing of gasoline or other liquid flammable or combustible products, dynamite or other explosives, and firearms or ammunition.

(d) Limitation upon or prohibition against the operation of any establishment selling, distributing, dispensing, or giving away any of the items enumerated in Subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c) hereinabove.

(e) Establishment of temporary, emergency housing for persons rendered homeless, or occupants of abodes not fit for human habitation, as a result of such natural disaster or man-made calamity, or for purposes of governmental operations, for not longer than three hundred sixty (360) consecutive days after commencement of such natural disaster or man-made calamity, or until termination of the emergency period by local governing body declaration, whichever first occurs, upon any and all lands to which such cities or towns have right of possession or custody, whether the same shall be deraigned from grantors, donors, or lessors by purchase, dedication, or otherwise, irrespective of local zoning ordinances, rules and regulations, or deed restrictions, effective at the time of or during the establishment of such housing.

(f) Upon finding by the local governing body of substantial disruption of the local (city or community) free, competitive market in the purchase or sale of hereinafter designated classes of goods and services, promulgation of maximum retail prices chargeable or collectible in such cities or towns, for a period of not more than fifteen (15) days or until earlier termination of the subject emergency period by local governing body declaration, whichever first occurs, after the occurrence of a natural disaster or man-made calamity, on the purchase and sale of the following classes of goods and services, in whole or in part:

(1) Groceries, beverages, toilet articles, and ice;

(2) Construction and building materials and supplies, electrical and gas generating and transmission equipment, parts, and accessories;

(3) Charcoal, briquettes, matches, candles, lamp illumination-and heat unit-carbides, dry batteries, light bulbs, flashlights, and hand lanterns;

(4) Hand tools (manual and power), earth-moving equipment and machinery, automotive parts, supplies, and accessories;

(5) Apartment, duplex, multi-family dwelling, rooming house, hotel and motel rentals, insofar as such regulations are not inconsistent with the National Housing Act, as amended, concerning Federally insured housing units;

(6) Gasolines, diesel oils, motor oils, kerosenes, grease, and automotive lubricants;

(7) Restaurant, cafeteria, and boarding-house meals;

(8) Medicines, pharmaceuticals, medical instruments, equipment, and supplies;

(9) Blankets, quilts, bedspreads, bed linens, mattresses, bed springs, bedsteads, towels, and toilet paper.

No rule or regulation promulgated hereunder shall provide any maximum price for an item of goods or services enumerated above which is less than the arithmetically averaged, prevailing retail price for such item as of the date of the occurrence of such natural disaster or man-made calamity. Such prevailing retail price may be determined by statistical sampling as the local governing body may direct. Alternatively, however, the local governing body may set the maximum retail price for any or all items of goods and services enumerated above by declaring, in ordinance, that the price charged by the purveyor of such affected good or service within the jurisdictional limits of the local governing body on the said occurrence-date shall be the maximum retail price lawfully chargeable by the purveyor of such affected good or service. An added special transportation cost for any regulated goods may be permitted by the local governing body.

The local governing body promulgating such price maximums by declaring prevailing prices shall establish an appeals procedure whereby any person dissatisfied with such body's determination of any such price on the occurrence date is promptly afforded a public hearing and shall be permitted to present evidence of such price, be represented by counsel, and have access to all data and computations employed by the governing body in determining such price. Resort to such appeal shall be prerequisite to contest of the validity of such price determination in a court of law.

All district courts having jurisdiction within the county wherein such city or town is situated shall have concurrent jurisdiction of appeals under this Section's provisions for price regulation. The substantial evidence rule shall apply in all such cases. The burden of proof of the invalidity of such price determination shall rest upon the contestant.

In no event shall such city or town, its governing body, officers, employees, or agents be held pecuniarily liable for any losses or damages attributable to its regulation of prices hereunder.

In promulgating maximums hereunder, the declaration by the local governing body that the arithmetically averaged, prevailing price of any item charged on the occurrence-date in such town or city by the purveyors thereof shall be the maximum retail price chargeable by such purveyors for the period of price control shall be deemed sufficient for the invocation of the regulatory power herein provided.

Declaration in this manner, however, shall not preclude subsequent establishment of a higher maximum retail price during the permissible regulatory period or the employment of a method of price calculation different from the method initially employed, so long as such method conforms to the terms of this Act.

(g) In the event of occurrence of a man-made calamity or natural disaster any local governing body whose territorial jurisdiction is affected thereby, under the terms of this Act, may remove, by ordinance or order, on one reading, the operation, in whole or in part, of the competitive bidding requirements of Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, and applicable local law, whether in Charter, ordinance, or order, for a period of not more than ninety (90) days after the calamity or disaster occurrence-date, provided, each such ordinance or order shall be preceded by final passage and approval of an ordinance or order of such local governing body declaring its finding of the existence of a prevalent man-made calamity or natural disaster, pursuant to the terms of this Act. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 6008c. Mineral Interest Pooling Act

Sec. 2. (a) When two or more separately owned tracts of land are embraced within a common reservoir of oil or gas for which the Railroad Commission of Texas (hereinafter called 'Commission') has established the size and shape of proration units, whether by temporary or permanent field rules, and where there are separately owned interests in oil and gas within an existing or proposed proration unit in the common reservoir, and the owners have not agreed to pool their interests, and where at least one of the owners of the right to drill has drilled or has proposed to drill a well on the existing or proposed proration unit to the common reservoir, the Commission, to avoid the drilling of unnecessary wells, or to protect correlative rights, or to prevent waste, shall, on the application to the Commission of the owner of any interest in oil and gas in an existing proration unit or with respect to a proposed unit, the owner of any working interest or any owner of an unleased tract other than a royalty owner, establish a unit and pool all of the interests therein within an area containing the approximate acreage of such proration unit, which unit shall in no event exceed 160 acres for an oil well or 640 acres for a gas well plus 10% tolerance. The applicant shall set forth in detail the nature of voluntary pooling offers made to the owners of the other interests in the proposed unit, and the Commission shall dismiss such application if it finds that a fair and reasonable offer to voluntarily pool has not been made by the applicant. An offer by any owner of a royalty or any other interest in oil or gas within an existing proration unit to share on the same yardstick basis as the other owners within the existing proration unit are then sharing shall be considered a fair and reasonable offer. The Commission shall not require the owner of a mineral interest, the productive acreage of which is equal to or in excess of the standard proration unit for the reservoir, to pool his interest with others, unless requested by the holder of an adjoining mineral interest, the productive acreage of which is smaller than such pattern, who has not been provided a reasonable opportunity to pool voluntarily, in which event the Commission shall pool the smaller tract with adjacent acreage on a fair and reasonable basis and may authorize a larger allowable for such unit if it exceeds the size of the standard proration unit for the reservoir. The Commission shall only pool such acreage which at the time of its order reasonably appears to lie within the productive limits of the reservoir.

Any member may retire upon written application to the State Board of Trustees, setting forth at what time, not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days subsequent to the execution of and filing thereof, he desires to be retired, provided that retirement will be effective only as of the last day of the calendar month, and provided that the said member at the time so specified for his retirement shall have attained the age of sixty (60) years and shall have completed eight (8) or more years of creditable service, provided, however, any member who has completed at least twelve (12) years of creditable service shall be entitled to a service retirement provided such member has attained the age of fifty-five (55).

The Maximum Service Retirement allowance shall be computed at the rate of six per cent (6%) per year of the monthly salary paid to duly elected members of the Legislature of the State of Texas on date of retirement and as such monthly salary may be adjusted from time to time thereafter. The Maximum Service Retirement allowance so computed shall not exceed sixty per cent (60%) of such salary or Nine Hundred Dollars ($900) whichever is the greater of the two.

It is expressly provided that any annuity or allowance payable under the provisions of this Act shall begin with the last day of the month following the effective date of retirement and shall be paid in monthly installments and shall cease with the last day of the month preceding the month in which the beneficiary or person dies who is receiving such an annuity or allowance as provided in this Act.

It is further provided, that the Rate of Benefits scheduled as provided for by this Act shall be applied to all service retirement annuities payable on the effective date of this Act and previously awarded under the laws governing the Employees Retirement System as effective September 1, 1963, or as amended thereafter.

2 Any member who has accumulated a minimum of eight (8) years of creditable service as provided herein and who does not withdraw his account from the Retirement System prior to the attainment of age sixty (60) shall remain an active member and shall be entitled to a service retirement allowance upon attaining age sixty (60).

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

It is further provided, that upon the death of any member, with not less than eight (8) years of creditable service under the provisions of this Act, one-half (½) of the total service retirement allowance provided herein to which such member is entitled or would have been entitled at age sixty (60), or at the time of his death, whichever is later, shall be paid to the surviving spouse at the time of the death of such member, provided, however, that this provision shall not be applicable in the event the member was eligible to select or had selected a Death Benefit Plan for a monthly annuity to be effective in the event of death prior to retirement as provided herein. Occupational Death Benefit provisions of this Act shall also be applicable to Elective State Officials.

Prior to retirement any contributing member with ten (10) or more years creditable service, and any noncontributing member with twelve (12) or more years creditable service, may select a Death Benefit Plan and designate a nominee to receive a reduced monthly annuity either for life, or for a ten (10) year guaranteed period, to become effective and payable, in lieu of the refund of the member's contributions, to such nominee beginning the month following the death of such member. If the qualified member dies without having made such Death Benefit Plan selection, the surviving spouse may choose the plan in the same manner as if the member had completed the selection and, further provided, that only the surviving spouse may make such a selection and if there is no surviving spouse, then the selection may be made only by the guardian of the dependent minor children and if there be no dependent minor children then the provisions of Paragraph 2, Subsection E of Section 5, pertaining to death benefits shall apply upon death of the member. Application for such plan shall be on forms prescribed by the State Board of Trustees. The reduced benefits shall be computed in the same manner as for a member's service retirement as provided elsewhere in this Act. The ages of the member and the nominee at the date of the member's death shall be used in determining the reduced annuity. The plan selected shall remain in effect until amended or superseded by the member's retirement selection.

3. It is provided herein that for service retirement Elective State Officials shall be eligible to select any of the optional allowance plans as provided for appointive officers and employee members, as set forth in Section 5, Subsection B, Paragraph 3, of this Act.

4. Disability Retirement Benefits for Elective State Officials.

Upon the application of a member or his employer or his legal representative acting in his behalf, any member under age sixty (60), who has eight (8) or more years of creditable service, or if Occupational Disability regardless of age or length of service, may be retired by the State Board of Trustees, not less than thirty (30) and not more than ninety (90) days next following the date of filing such application, provided the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired.

The benefit to be paid by the Retirement System shall be the same as that set forth for service retirement without reduction for reason of age, provided, however, that no optional plan may be selected, and further provided, that should the disabled retired member die before the full amount of contributions standing to his credit shall have been paid, then the remainder of his account shall be paid to the beneficiary of such disabled retired member. It is provided herein that additional provisions after disability retirement applicable for appointive officers and employee members as set forth in Section 5, Subsection C, Paragraphs 4, 5, and 6, will be applicable also to disability retirement for Elective State Officials.

Occupational Disability Benefit shall be based on the member's actual creditable service or eight (8) years, whichever is greater.

E. Return of Accumulated Contributions.

Method of Financing

Sec. 8. A. Effective September 1, 1971, the amount contributed by each member to the Retirement System shall be six per cent (6%) of the annual compensation paid to each member. The amount contributed by the State of Texas to the Retirement System shall not exceed during any one (1) year six per cent (6%) of compensation of all members provided the total amount contributed by the State during any one (1) year shall at least equal the total amount contributed during the same year by all members of the Retirement System; provided further, that all contributions made by the State shall be from and charged to the respective funds appropriated, allocated, and provided to pay the salary or compensation of the member for whose benefit the contribution is made. All of the assets of the Retirement System shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one (1) of five (5) funds; namely, the Employees Saving Fund, the State Accumulation Fund, the Retirement Annuity Reserve Fund, the Interest Fund, and the Expense Fund.

1. The Employees Saving Fund.

The Employees Saving Fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated six per cent (6%) contributions from the compensation of members, including interest earnings. Contributions to and payments from the Employees Saving Fund shall be made as follows:

(a) Beginning on the effective date of this Act, each department of the State shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member on each and every payroll period, six per cent (6%) of his earnable compensation. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the State Board of Trustees may consider the rate of annual compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such payroll period, and it may omit deductions from compensation for any period less than one-half (½) of a full payroll period if an employee was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions, it may modify the deductions required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed one-tenth (1/10) of one per cent (1%) of the annual compensation upon the basis of which such deduction is to be made.

(b) The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided for by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein and shall receipt for his full salary or compensation, and payment of salary or compensation less said deduction, shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, except as to the benefits provided under this Act. The department head of the State shall certify to the State Board of Trustees on each and every payroll, or in such other manner as said Board may prescribe, the amounts to be deducted; and each of said amounts shall be deducted, and when deducted shall be paid into said Employees Saving Fund, and shall be credited to the individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.

(c) Interest on member's contributions shall be credited annually as of August 31, and shall be allowed on the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to the credit of the member at the beginning of the year and shall not be allowed for parts of a year. Following the termination of membership in the Retirement System for those members who have been absent from service more than sixty (60) consecutive months in any period of six (6) consecutive years, the Employees Saving Fund account of such members shall be closed and warrants covering the total accumulated contributions sent to them upon the filing of formal application. Until the time of payment of such accumulated contributions, said members shall receive no interest on the amount due them under this Subsection, and the amount shall be held in a noninterest-bearing account to be set up for such purpose.

(d) Upon the retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the Employees Saving Fund to the Retirement Annuity Reserve Fund.

(b) Thereafter, on or before the first day of November next preceding each Regular Session of the Legislature, the State Board of Trustees shall certify to the Legislative Budget Board and Budget Division of the Governor's office for review the amount necessary to pay the contributions of the State of Texas to the Employees Retirement System for the ensuing biennium. This amount shall equal six per cent (6%) of the total compensation paid members of the Retirement System and shall be included in the budget of the State which the Governor submits to the Legislature. The State Board of Trustees shall certify on or before August 31st of each year to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts and the State Treasurer the estimated amount of contributions to be received from members during the ensuing year.

(c) All moneys hereby allocated and appropriated by the State to the Employees Retirement System shall be paid to the Employees Retirement System in equal monthly installments based upon the annual estimate by the State Board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System of the contributions to be received from the members of said System during said year, provided further, in the event said estimate of the contributions of the members of the System shall vary from the actual amount of the members' contributions during the year, then such adjustment shall be made at the close of each fiscal year as may be required. Each of said monthly installments shall be paid into the State Accumulation Fund in the amount certified by the State Board of Trustees.

Section 4. Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1331, ch. 355, which by sections 1 and 2 amended subsection H of this section and section 3E of this article respectively, provided in section 3: "If any section or subsection of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other sections, subsections or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid section, subsection or application, and to this end the sections, subsections and applications of this Act are declared to be severable."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1354, ch. 359, which by sections 1 to 11 amended subsections A and F of this section and sections 1, 3, 5, 8 and 9 and added section 5–1 of this article, provided in sections 12 and 13:

"Sec. 12. If any section, subsection or clause of this Act is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared that this Act would nevertheless have been passed without such section, subsection or clause so declared unconstitutional.

"Sec. 13. This Act shall become effective September 1, 1971."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2714, ch. 885, which by section 1 added subsection J of this section, provided in sections 2 and 3:

"Sec. 2. The Legislature finds that throughout the State of Texas in those counties in which there is a District Attorney, the County Attorneys have exercised the powers of Assistant District Attorney, even though they have not been so designated by statute as Assistant District Attorneys. The Legislature further finds that by statute the County Attorneys have been given the duty, in the absence of the District Attorney, to represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases under examination or prosecution in their counties. The Legislature further finds that by statute the County Attorneys of the State have been required to act in behalf of the State of Texas in matters of habeas corpus, in the absence of the District Attorney, and that the County Attorneys have been directed by statute to accept felony complaints, and when requested the County Attorneys have been directed to assist the District Attorney in the presentation of matters before a grand jury, and in the trial of felony cases. The Legislature further finds that the County Attorneys have been directed by statute to report to the Attorney General when so requested such information as may be required in relation to criminal matters and the interest of the State. Therefore the Legislature finds and determines that the various County Attorneys of the State are state officials.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

6. "Employee" means any person who is certified by a subdivision as being regularly engaged in the performance of the duties of an elective or appointive office, or of any position of employment with the subdivision, which office or position normally requires actual performance of duty during not less than nine hundred (900) hours a year, and as receiving compensation from the subdivision for the performance of such duties. Upon the terms and conditions set out in Section 11A, the term 'employee' includes any person regularly engaged in the performance of the duties of an elective or appointive State or district office who receives compensation, in addition to that received from the State of Texas, from the county or counties in which he serves, and the person with the approval of the respective subdivision shall be entitled to participate in the System to the extent of any additional compensation received from the participating subdivisions. The term "employee" does not include any person as to any period of service for which he would be eligible to be included in or entitled to receive credit in the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, the Employees Retirement System of Texas, the Texas Municipal Retirement System, or any other pension fund or retirement system supported wholly or partly at public expense, except that nothing in this Act shall be construed as precluding simultaneous coverage of persons under the Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance System or any successor thereto, or the Judicial Retirement System of Texas, and this System, by reason of the same service.

1. Participation of Subdivisions.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(d) Upon the terms and conditions provided in Section 11A, a subdivision which has elected to participate in the System may subsequently elect to include classes of employees not originally included in this Act, but included herein by amendment.

2. Participation of Employees.

The membership of the System shall be composed as follows:

* * * * * * * * * * *

(1) Any person, except by his consent, who on the effective date of participation has a basis of employment with the subdivision which would be violated by the requirement that he become a member; but each such person, being notified that the governing body has determined that the subdivision shall participate in the System, shall be deemed to have consented and elected to become a member of the System, unless prior to the date fixed for participation he shall file with the governing body, written notice of his election not to become a member. Any person so electing not to become a member, may at any time thereafter during his employment by the subdivision and before he becomes 60 years of age, elect to become a member of the System as of the first day of the calendar month following filing by him with the Board and with the governing body, of notice of his wish to become a member; but in such event he shall enter the System without credit or claim of credit for prior service or other service, and shall for purposes of this Act be considered as a person entering the employment of the subdivision for the first time on the date he becomes a member of the System.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(b) Any person not a member of this System, who becomes an employee for the first time of a participating subdivision after the effective date of participation of such subdivision, shall become a member of the System, upon the first day of the month following the date such person becomes an employee, provided he is then under the age of 60 years but any such person who is then 60 years or over shall not be eligible to become a member of this System.

Revenue

Sec. 4.

1. Member deposits.

(a) Each subdivision electing to participate in this System shall designate by order or resolution of its governing body whether the deposits to be made to the System on account of current service of the employees of such subdivision shall be at the rate of four per centum (4%), five per centum (5%), six per centum (6%), or seven per centum (7%) of the current service earnings of such employees. The rate so designated to be effective at and after the date of participation is the 'initial deposit rate' of such subdivision. The governing body of the subdivision may increase the deposit rate of the subdivision after it has been in effect for at least one (1) year. The rate of deposits once fixed by the governing body of a participating subdivision shall not be reduced until it has been in effect at least five (5) years. After a particular deposit rate has been in effect for at least five (5) years, the governing body of the subdivision may decrease the same to one of the other permitted rates of contribution provided that no reduction of a deposit rate shall be permitted, if the result thereof (according to calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board) is to impair the ability of the subdivision to fund within twenty-five (25) years from date of participation all obligations arising from Allocated Prior Service Credits granted by the subdivisions, or, if the subdivision has undertaken to allow increased benefits or additional coverages have been pursuant to Subsection 11 of Section 6, if the proposed reduction would impair the ability of the subdivision to fund all such obligations (including those arising from Allocated Prior Service Credits granted by the subdivision) within twenty-five (25) years from the valuation date on the basis of which valuation the latest increase in benefits or coverage was undertaken by the subdivision.

Any reduction in deposit rate shall be effective only on the anniversary of the participation date or dates of the subdivision, and upon ninety (90) days prior written notice to the Board, and subject to its determination that the proposed reduction will not violate the limitations above set forth.

Creditable service

Sec. 6.

1. (a) Under such rules and regulations as the Board shall adopt, each person who is an employee of a participating subdivision on the effective date of participation of such subdivision and who becomes a member on such effective date shall be entitled to receive credit for "prior service" as defined in this Act. Any person who has been an employee of such a participating subdivision prior to the effective date of participation of such subdivision, but who is not in the service of such subdivision on the effective date of such subdivision's participation, shall be entitled to receive credit for "prior service" as defined in this Act, if he again becomes an employee of such participating subdivision within five (5) years after the effective date of such subdivision's participation and becomes a member as of the date of such reemployment and continues as an employee of such subdivision for a period of five (5) consecutive years.

(b) The governing body of a subdivision may order and direct that each of its employees who is serving in a public hospital, utility or other public facility which the subdivision is operating as successor to, or which the subdivision has otherwise acquired from a county, city or other public corporation or agency of government, shall be awarded and allowed prior service credit for the total number of months prior to date of participation during which such employee was employed in such hospital, utility or other facility during the period of its operation by the said predecessor governmental units or agencies as well as during the period of its operation by the participating subdivision; and in such event, the total period of such employment for which such employee is allowed prior service credit hereunder shall be considered service rendered to the participating subdivision for purposes of this Act.

In event any participating subdivision subsequent to date of participation, by contract, purchase or by legal succession shall acquire and become the operator of a public hospital, utility or other public facility theretofore operated by a county, city or other public corporation, the governing body of the participating subdivision may by order direct that persons who were employed in such hospital, utility or other facility at the time of acquisition of or succession to the same by the participating subdivision, and who enter or did enter employment of the participating subdivision at that time, shall be allowed prior service credit for the total number of months during which such employee was employed in such hospital, utility or other public facility during the period of its operation by the predecessor counties, cities and/or other public corporations.

(c) Prior service credits and Allocated Prior Service Credits derivable therefrom allowable under Subsection 1(b) above shall be calculated in the same manner and be limited by the same factors that are applicable to prior service credits allowed employees of other departments of the participating subdivision for equivalent periods of service.

Sec. 6, subsec. 1 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1050, ch. 213, § 2, eff. May 17, 1971.

11. (a) A participating subdivision may increase benefits theretofore granted, or credits upon which future retirements will be allowed, or may adopt any additional coverage allowed by this Act, in the time and manner, and subject to the conditions set out in this section.

(b) A participating subdivision may provide for increase in such benefits or credits or may adopt additional coverage only after an actuarial valuation (as prescribed by Section 8, Section 4(e)) has been made as of December 31 valuation date which is co-terminal with, or subsequent to, completion of three or more years of participation from and after the later of the following dates, viz:

(1) the original date of participation by the subdivision involved; or

(2) the effective date of the latest preceding increase in benefits, or extension of coverage, allowed by such subdivision under this section.

(c) Any extension of coverage, or increase in benefits, may be made effective only on January 1 of a calendar year, and after the lapse of twelve months from the actuarial valuation date above mentioned.

(d) The increases in credits or benefits and additional coverages which may be adopted and allowed by the subdivision (conditioned that it may provide for funding the same as hereinbelow provided) are one or more of the following:

(1) Increase in Current Service Credits to be allowed thereafter, which may be increased by 20% multiples;

(2) Increase in Current Service Credits theretofore allowed, which may be increased by 20% multiples;

(3) Increase in Current Service Annuities in effect;

(4) Increase in Allocated Prior Service Credits theretofore granted and in effect;

(5) Increase in Prior Service Annuities in effect;

(6) Granting to any of its employees who has accumulated twenty (20) or more years of Creditable Service the right of deferred service retirement, as hereinbelow defined.

The terms "right of deferred service retirement" as used above means the right to remain in service and to file a written selection with the Retirement Board of an optional allowance and designated nominee (as provided in Subsection 3 of Section 7), and in the event the member thereafter dies while in service he shall be considered to have retired effective as of the last day of the calendar month next preceding the month in which death occurs. In event any person eligible for deferred service retirement shall die without having a written selection of optional allowance and designated beneficiary on file with said Board, or whose designated nominee under options one or two is not living at the date of death of the member; such member shall be considered to have elected Option Three retirement, or (at the election of his beneficiary) shall be considered as having been an active member at date of death and the beneficiary may thereby elect to receive the accumulated contributions of the deceased member.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(7) Granting prior service credit for any periods of active service (not in excess of 36 months total), in the armed forces of the United States performed during the time the United States was involved in organized conflict with foreign forces, whether in a formal state of war or police action, to any person who was an employee of such subdivision immediately prior to the beginning of such service in the armed forces, who entered such service without intervening employment and who returned to the employment of the participating subdivision within one hundred eighty (180) days following his discharge from or release from active duty with the armed forces.

(e) No increase in prior service annuities, allocated prior service credits, current service annuities or current service credits theretofore allowed shall be permitted which would produce greater benefits for such completed service than would be provided for current service credits allowable for comparable current and future service.

(f) The amount of the additional required reserves on account of any increase in Current Service Annuities or increase or extension of Current Service Credits shall as of the 31st day of December immediately preceding the effective date of such increase or extension of coverage, be transferred from such subdivision's account in the Subdivision Prior Service Accumulation Fund account to the Current Service Annuity Reserve Fund and Subdivision Current Service Accumulation Fund accounts of such subdivision in the respective required amounts, calculated by the actuary and approved by the Board.

(g) No such proposed increase in benefits or credits, or proposed extension of coverage shall be permitted if the result thereof (on the basis of calculations made by the actuary and approved by the Board) would impair the ability of the subdivision to fund within twenty-five (25) years from date of the December 31 valuation referred to in 11(b) above all obligations including those arising from Allocated Prior Service Credits granted by the subdivision.

(h) No such increase in benefits or credits or proposed extension of coverage shall be permitted unless it is determined and certified by the actuary that at the particular December 31 valuation date referred to in 11(b) above, the allocable prior service credits and prior service annuity obligations of the subdivision then existing before any such increase, would be amortized on or before the 20th anniversary of said particular December 31 valuation date.

(i) No such increase in benefits or credits, or proposed extension of coverage shall be effective unless and until the proposal is approved by the Board as conforming to all of the requirements above.

Sec. 6, subsec. 11 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1050, ch. 213, § 3, eff. May 19, 1971.

12. A member may count as creditable service prior service in the Legislature of Texas if the member deposits in the Employees Savings Fund an amount equal to the current contribution percentage of the subdivision multiplied by the base figure of Four Hundred Dollars ($400) per month for the total number of months he was a member of the Legislature. The subdivision shall make benefit contributions equal to the amount deposited by the member.

7. The assets of the System in excess of the amount of cash required for current operations as determined by the Board, shall be invested and reinvested in the following types of securities:

(a) Interest-bearing bonds or other evidences of indebtedness: of the State of Texas, or of any county, school district, city or other municipal corporation within the State of Texas; of the United States or of any authority or agency of the United States, or any such securities which are guaranteed as to the payment of principal and interest by the United States or by any authority or agency of the United States.

(b) Interest-bearing bonds, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any state, and which obligations are of a company whose stocks are eligible hereunder as investments for the System, or which obligations are rated A or better by one or more nationally recognized rating agencies to be determined by the Board.

In addition to the above listed securities, the Board may invest not exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the total of the assets of the System in preferred stocks and common stocks of companies incorporated within the United States, which have paid dividends on its common stock for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase of such securities and which, except for bank and insurance company stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further that not more than one percent (1%) of the assets of the System shall be invested in stocks issued by any one corporation, nor shall more than five percent (5%) of the voting stock of any one corporation be owned by the System. In making each and all such investments the Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, taking into consideration not only the probable income derivable from such securities but as well the probable safety of the capital investment.

The Board shall have full power to sell, assign, exchange, or trade and transfer any of the securities in which the funds of the System at any time may be invested, and to use or reinvest the proceeds as, in the Board's judgment, the needs of the System require.

Optional coverage of employees receiving supplemental compensation from participating counties

Sec. 11A. 1. The governing body of any participating county which pays compensation from county funds to a person regularly engaged in the performance of the duties of an elective or appointive State or district office in addition to that received from the State of Texas, may by order of the governing body provide that the persons shall be considered employees of the county, and as such eligible for membership in the System to the extent of the compensation paid the person by the county.

2. All persons who on the effective date specified in the order are within the class designated to be included in the System by the order of the governing body of any participating subdivision under this section, shall become members of the System at the effective date specified in the order unless the person executes a waiver of membership in the time and manner prescribed below. Any person thereafter employed for the first time by the subdivision in any covered employment shall become a member of the System at the date of his employment if he is at that date less than fifty-eight (58) years of age.

3. Any person who would become a member of this System by virtue of an order adopted by the governing body of a participating subdivision under this section may elect not to become a member if within thirty (30) days after the effective date specified in the order, he executes and files with the Director of the System a written waiver of membership in such form as the Board may prescribe. Any person who files a waiver of membership may apply for membership in the System as of the first day of any month thereafter, if the person would then be eligible for membership in the System as a beginning employee of the subdivision, and the person may thereupon become a member of the System but without credit for any service antedating the date of membership.

4. Any person who becomes a member of this System pursuant to this section shall not be allowed credit for service from the date of participation of the county to the effective date specified in the order adopted by the governing body pursuant to this section, unless within ninety (90) days after the date so specified:

(a) For all months during which the person performed service as an employee, the member shall pay to this System a sum equal to the deposits which a member of the System drawing the same compensation from the county during the same period was required to make to the System; and

(b) The county within the ninety (90) day period contributes to the System an amount equal to the deposits made by the member under Paragraph (a) of this subsection.

In the event the deposits required under this subsection are made within the time specified, the sum so deposited with the System by the member shall be credited to the member's individual account in the Employees Saving Fund, and the member shall be given current service credit for each month of service from which the deposits derive; and the matching deposits made by the county shall be deposited to its account in the Subdivision Current Service Accumulation Fund.

5. Any person who becomes a member of the System by virtue of this section as an employee of a county which did not operate and maintain a local system (as defined in Section 10, above) prior to the date of participation of the county in this System, and who makes and causes the subdivision to make the deposits in the amounts and within the time prescribed by Subsection 4, above, shall be entitled to receive credit for "prior service" rendered the subdivision, and upon certification of the prior service in the manner provided in Subsection 1 of Section 6, above, shall be allowed an "Allocated Special Prior Service Credit" determined in the same manner and on the same percentage of Maximum Prior Service Credit as was used in determining the Allocated Prior Service Credit of those employees of the subdivision who became members of this System on the date of participation of the subdivision.

6. Any person who becomes a member of the System by virtue of this section as an employee of a county which prior to its participation in this System operated and maintained a "local system" (as defined in Section 10) that was merged into this System pursuant to Section 10 shall not be allowed credit for service rendered the subdivision prior to the effective date of the merger, except upon the following conditions:

(a) The member and the subdivision make the deposits in the amounts and within the time prescribed by Subsection 4, above, to entitle the member to current service credit as provided in Subsection 4; and

(b) For all months during which the person performed service as an employee (as defined in Subsection 6, Section 2) of the subdivision between the time the local system was established and the date of merger, the person shall pay to the State system (within ninety (90) days after the effective date specified in the order of the governing body adopted under this section) a sum equal to the deposits which a member of the local system drawing the same compensation during the same period was required to make to the local system, and the subdivision shall contribute to the State system within said ninety (90) day period an equal amount to match the members' deposits.

In the event the deposits required under this subsection are made within the time specified, the sum so deposited by the member with the State system shall be deposited by it to the credit of the member's individual account in the Employees Saving Fund and shall be treated in the same manner as provided in Subsection 9(a) of Section 10, as to the transfer upon merger of individual deposits of members of the local system; the sum so deposited by the subdivision shall be received and deposited in the subdivision's account in the Prior Service Accumulation Fund in the manner provided in Subsection 9(c) of Section 10; and the member shall receive credit for all service to the subdivision antedating the effective date of merger, and will be given an "Allocated Special Prior Service Credit" determined in the same manner and on the same percentages of Maximum Special Prior Service Credit as was used in determining the Allocated Special Prior Service Credit of employees of the county who became members of the State system at the effective date of the merger.

Sec. 11A added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1781, ch. 522, § 3, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Section 4 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1780, ch. 522, provided: "In the event any section, subsection, or provision of this Act shall be held and adjudged unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such adjudication shall not affect or invalidate any of the other or remaining provisions of this Act."

Art. 6228h. Assumption of pension liabilities of participating subdivision by annexing governmental entity

Section 1. Should any participating subdivision as defined under the provisions of Chapter 127, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended,[1] establishing and regulating the Texas County and District Retirement System, be annexed into, merged with, or in any manner absorbed by a municipality or other governmental entity, such succeeding entity shall assume, provide for and continue all existing pension rights of the employees of such subdivision, and shall further succeed to the rights of such subdivision in the assets of such system.

Sec. 2. The crowded condition of the calendars, and the need for enacting at the earliest time the above amendment, create an emergency and imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended; and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

This pension allowance, set out above based on the current payroll, shall be granted to the man going on the pension fund as well as the man already on the pension. Any member reaching the age of sixty-five (65) years and having served twenty (20) years in either of the departments, and who has not then retired from such departments, may be summoned before the board for the purpose of determining whether or not he should be retired under the provisions of this Act.

The pension allowance set out above, based on the current payroll, shall be granted to the man going on the pension as well as the man already on the pension. The said certificate shall further state that in case of death, or in case where he becomes permanently disabled, he shall be and his beneficiaries shall be entitled to the same awards and rights to participate in the provisions of this Act and any other Act heretofore or hereafter made, as well as any of the provisions of the city charter heretofore or hereafter made, as he would have had before the said board issued his certificate of retirement. Cities of 1,200,000 or more; death or disability from cause other than performance of duties; monthly pension allowance to fireman or beneficiaries; computation; service retirement election; annual adjustments

Sec. 7C. (a) Whenever a person serving as an active fireman duly enrolled in any regularly active fire department and participating in a fund in any city in the State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, which city is now within or may hereafter come within the provisions of this Act, shall die or become disabled from any cause other than a disability acquired in the performance of his duty as a fireman, a monthly pension allowance shall be paid to such fireman or his beneficiaries.

(b) Such monthly pension allowance shall be computed as follows:

(1) If such fireman shall become disabled, he shall be paid a monthly pension allowance equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the average monthly salary of such fireman, plus two and one-half percent (2½%) of such average monthly salary for each full year of service and of participation in a fund, provided, however, that such monthly pension allowance shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of such average monthly salary. The average monthly salary shall be based on the monthly average of such fireman's salary for the highest thirty-six (36) months during his service, or so much thereof as he may have served preceding the date of such retirement.

(2) If such fireman was eligible to be retired under the provisions of Section 6B, he or his beneficiaries may elect to have their monthly pension allowance calculated under that section.

(3) If such fireman shall die and shall leave surviving him both a widow who married such fireman prior to his retirement, and a child or children of such fireman under the age of eighteen (18) years, said Board of Trustees shall order paid to the widow of such fireman, a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half (½) of the amount such fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this subsection; and in addition thereto the Board of Trustees shall order paid to such widow or other person having the care and custody of such child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years a monthly pension allowance, for the use and benefit of such child, or children, equal to the amount hereinabove provided for the widow. If such fireman shall leave no child under the age of eighteen (18) years surviving him or if at any time after the death of such fireman no child is entitled to allowance, then the monthly pension allowance to be paid such widow, shall be equal to the full amount such fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled under Subdivision (1) of this subsection; provided, however, that such allowance to a widow, as herein provided if no child is entitled to allowance, shall not exceed one-half (½) of the maximum base salary for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of such fireman.

(4) If such fireman shall die and if his widow dies after being entitled to her allowance as herein provided, or in the event that there be no widow to receive an allowance, then the amount of the monthly pension allowance to be paid, for use and benefit of the child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, to the person having the care and custody of such child or children shall be computed as follows: an amount equal to one-half (½) of the amount such fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be paid for each of such fireman's children under the age of eighteen (18) years, provided that the total monthly pension allowance provided hereby for children shall not exceed the amount to which such fireman would have been entitled under Subdivision (1) of this subsection, nor shall such allowance for such children exceed one-half (½) of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of such fireman.

(5) If such fireman shall die and only if no widow or child is entitled to an allowance under the provisions of this section, a monthly pension allowance equal to one-half (½) of the amount such fireman would have been entitled to receive, if disabled, under Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be paid to each parent of such deceased fireman upon proof to the Board of Trustees that such parent was dependent upon such fireman immediately prior to the death of such fireman, provided that the total monthly pension allowance provided hereby for parents shall not exceed one-half (½) of the maximum base salary provided for the position of pipeman at the time of the death of such fireman.

(c) Allowance or benefits payable under the provisions of this section for any minor child shall cease when such child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or marries, provided, however, if a fireman who is covered by a provision of this Act dies and leaves a child who is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, that child is entitled to receive any pension allowance to which he is entitled under this Act and is further entitled to continue receiving the allowance so long as he remains totally disabled. If the child is not entitled to a pension allowance under this Act solely because he is over the maximum age at the time of the death of his parent and the child is totally disabled as a result of a physical or mental illness, injury, or retardation, the child is entitled to receive as an allowance that to which he would have been entitled had he been under the maximum age at the time of the death of his parent.

(d) Provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to a fireman or his beneficiaries if such fireman's death or disability results from suicide or attempted suicide before such fireman shall have completed two (2) years of service with the fire department for which he was employed.

(e) The wife of a deceased fireman who had served actively for a period of twenty (20) years or more in a regularly active fire department as defined in Subsection (a), above, shall, insofar as the provisions of this section are concerned, be considered the fireman's widow as long as she is not married, notwithstanding that she may have married and divorced or married after such fireman died and she became a widow. Provided, further, however, a widow covered under this section shall be limited to the pension allowance of the deceased member of this fund, to whom she was last married.

(f) The monthly pension allowance of beneficiaries of deceased firemen who retired after the effective date of this subsection shall have their monthly pension allowances provided for under this section or Section 12A adjusted annually in accordance with the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers as determined by the United States Department of Labor. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be less than the amount granted the beneficiaries upon the death of the member without regard to changes in the consumer price index. The adjusted pension allowance shall never be more than the amount granted the beneficiaries upon the death of the member increased by three percent (3%) annually notwithstanding a greater increase in the consumer price index.

Section 1. The Board of Trustees of any firemen's pension fund in any incorporated city or town in this State may, upon fulfilling requirements hereinafter stated, establish benefit eligibility for a fulltime employee who has been employed for as long as six (6) years, and thereafter becomes disabled or dies from heart or lung disease, based on a presumption that such death or disease was a consequence of his duties as a fireman, if the fireman shall have successfully passed a physical examination prior to the claimed disability or death, or upon entering upon his employment as a fireman, and the examination failed to reveal any evidence of the condition or disease of the lungs, hypertension or heart disease.

Sec. 2. Before any such Board shall adopt as part of its plan for retirement benefits the presumption, together with qualifications, set forth in Section 1 hereof, it shall take the following preliminary step(s):

(a) Obtain an actuarial study showing how the proposed change in benefit eligibility standards will affect the financial condition of the fund.

(b) In the event that such actuarial study shows that inclusion of the proposed change in benefit eligibility standards will not make the fund financially unsound, then said Board shall, within thirty days after receipt of such actuarial study, hold an election in which the active participants contributing to the fund shall vote on the question of whether such benefit eligibility standard should be instituted, said Board being bound by the results of such election.

Contributions to Fund, Deductions from Wages

Sec. 4. There shall be deducted for such Fund from the wages of each fireman and policeman in the employment of such city a sum equal to five per cent (5%) of the total salary excluding overtime pay. Sec. 10. When any duly appointed and enrolled member of the Fire Department or Police Department of the city who is contributing to said Fund, as herein provided, shall become so permanently disabled through injury or disease so as to incapacitate him from the performance of his duties, and shall make written application subject to medical examination for such injury or disease, he shall be retired from the service, if a member in good standing of said Department at the time of retirement, and be entitled to receive from the said fund one-half (½) of the average of his total salary excluding overtime pay based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years. The amount of one-half (½) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay as set out above is the maximum amount of disability pension for total and permanent disability. Disability resulting from injury or disease incurred after the effective date of this Act while engaged in the active military service shall not entitle a member of this Fund to a disability pension.

No child resulting from any marriage subsequent to the date of the retirement of said member shall be entitled to a pension under this Act. In case there are no children, the widow shall receive an amount not to exceed one-half (½) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years. In case there is no widow, the children shall receive one-fourth (¼) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years, except that if the Board determines upon investigation that the eligible child or children is or are destitute then the Board may increase the pension to an amount not exceeding two-fifths (⅖ths) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years. The amount awarded hereunder to any child or children shall be paid by the Board of Trustees to the legal guardian of said child or children. In no instance shall the amount received by the widow, child or children exceed a pension allowance of one-half (½) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years, and in the event of the death of a member who retired upon twenty (20) years service and less than twenty-five (25) years service in no instance shall the amount received by the widow and child or children or the widow alone, exceed a total of two-fifths (⅖ths) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service. A child or children alone in such case shall receive only one-fifth (⅕) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service. A child who is so mentally or physically retarded as to be incapable of its own support to any extent shall, if otherwise qualified, enjoy the rights of children under seventeen (17) years of age regardless of age. Provided, further, that any pension paid hereunder to any mentally or physically retarded child or children shall be reduced to the extent that any of same shall receive any state pension or aid. On the remarriage of the widow, either statutory or common law, or the marriage of any child granted such pension, the pension shall cease. No widow resulting from any marriage subsequent to the date of the retirement of said member shall be entitled to a pension under this Act. The pension rights of qualified widows, children, and dependent parents of deceased members or pensioners who retired or died before the effective date of the 1971 amendment hereto shall be computed on the basis of the base pay of a private in the department as of the date of such retirement or death.

If any member of the Fire or Police Department dies before or after retirement, who was a contributor to said Fund and a member in good standing thereof, and leaves no widow or child, but leaves surviving him a father and/or mother wholly dependent upon him for support, such dependent father and/or mother shall be entitled to receive one-third (⅓rd) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years, to be equally divided between said father and mother, so long as they are wholly dependent. When there is only one (1) dependent, either father or mother, the Board shall grant the surviving dependent one-fourth (¼th) of the average total salary excluding overtime pay of the deceased member based on his five (5) highest paid years of service, or the average for all of his years of service if he has served less than five (5) full years. The Board shall have the authority to make a thorough investigation, determine the facts as to the dependency of the said parties, and each of them, as to how long the same exists and may at any time, upon the request of any beneficiary or any contributor to such Fund, reopen any award made to any of said parties and discontinue such pension as to all or any of them as it may deem proper and the findings of any Board in regard to any matters, as well as to all pensions granted under this Act, shall be final upon all parties seeking a pension until such award of the Trustees shall have been set aside or revoked by a court of competent jurisdiction. The Board shall have the power to make any such investigation into any pension application whatsoever or any pensioner's status on its own initiative. If any member of the Fire and Police Department in active service should die, leaving neither a widow, a child or children, under seventeen (17) years of age, or a retarded child, or dependent father and mother, or one such, the estate of said deceased member of the Fire or Police Department shall be entitled to a burial death benefit payment in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) from said Fund. The Board may change any percentage stipulated in this Act, commensurate with any change in the degree of disability; provided, however, that such percentage shall not, except in the case of discontinuance, be reduced to less than two percent (2%) of the base pay of a private per month for each year he shall have served and contributed a portion of his salary as provided by this Act, based on the current rate of pay at the time of the original granting of any pension, or on a minimum base pay of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per month, whichever is greater, for all those pensioned prior to the effective date of the 1971 amendment hereto, nor

(e) If any person covered under this Act or such person's spouse or a dependent is an officer, agent, financial associate or member of, or owns a substantial interest, directly or beneficially, in any activity which is subject to the jurisdiction of a regulatory agency of this State, a record of such relationship or substantial interest shall be made a matter of public record by filing with the Secretary of State annually by January 31st.

Without lessening the standards set forth above, it is declared that a substantial conflict of interest exists when the investment is in excess of the value of $25,000.00, unless the investment is in a corporation in which the officer or employee owns less than 10% of the voting interest and does not otherwise control the corporation.

(k) No person covered under this Act shall sell goods or services to any business entity which is licensed by or regulated in any manner by the State agency in which such person serves.

(l) No person covered under this Act shall appear in behalf of another before any State Agency in any matter for which he is being compensated at any time when legislation directly affecting such State Agency is pending before the Legislature or any committee of which he is a member, if such member is in a position to influence the outcome of such legislation other than his own vote, provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall not apply to any hearing or proceeding which is adversary in character or on which a record of such hearing or proceeding is made by the agency involved or such appearance is a matter of public record.

TEXAS PROBATE CODE

§ 33. Issuance, Contents, Service, and Return of Citation, Notices, and Writs in Probate Matters

(c) Contents of Citation, Writ, and Notice. Citation and notices issued by the clerk shall be signed and sealed by him, and shall be styled "The State of Texas." Notices required to be given by a personal representative shall be in writing and shall be signed by the representative in his official capacity. All citations and notices shall be directed to the person or persons to be cited or notified, shall be dated, and shall state the style and number of the proceeding, the court in which it is pending, and shall describe generally the nature of the proceeding or matter to which the citation or notice relates. No precept directed to an officer is necessary. A citation or notice shall direct the person or persons cited or notified to appear by filing a written contest or answer, or to perform other acts required of him or them and shall state when and where such appearance or performance is required. No citation or notice shall be held to be defective because it contains a precept directed to an officer authorized to serve it. All writs and other process except citations and notices shall be directed "To any sheriff or constable within the State of Texas," but shall not be held defective because directed to the sheriff or any constable of a specific county if properly served within the named county by such officer.

(d) Where No Specific Form of Notice, Service, or Return is Prescribed, or When Provisions Are Insufficient or Inadequate. In all situations in which this Code requires that notice be given, or that a person be cited, and in which a specific method of giving such notice or of citing such person, or a specific method of service and return of such citation or notice is not given, or an insufficient or inadequate provision appears with respect to any of such matters, or when any interested person so requests, such notice or citation shall be issued, served, and returned in such manner as the court, by written order, shall direct in accordance with this Code and the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall have the same force and effect as if the manner of service and return had been specified in this Code.

(e) Service of Citation or Notice Upon Personal Representatives. Except in instances in which this Code expressly provides another method of service, any notice or citation required to be served upon any personal representative or receiver shall be served by the clerk issuing such citation or notice. The clerk shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail to the attorney of record for the personal representative or receiver, but if there is no attorney of record, to the personal representative or receiver.

(f) Methods of Serving Citations and Notices.

(1) Personal Service. Where it is provided that personal service shall be had with respect to a citation or notice, any such citation or notice must be served upon the attorney of record for the person to be cited. Notwithstanding the requirement of personal service, service may be made upon such attorney by any of the methods hereinafter specified for service upon an attorney. If there is no attorney of record in the proceeding for such person, or if an attempt to make service upon the attorney was unsuccessful, a citation or notice directed to a person within this State must be served by the sheriff or constable upon the person to be cited or notified, in person, by delivering to him a true copy of such citation or notice at least ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of service. Where the person to be cited or notified is absent from the State, or is a nonresident, such citation or notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact. Said citation or notice shall be returnable at least ten (10) days after the date of service, exclusive of the date of service. The return of the person serving the citation or notice shall be endorsed on or attached to same; it shall show the time and place of service, certify that a true copy of the citation or notice was delivered to the person directed to be served, be subscribed and sworn to before some officer authorized by the laws of this State to take affidavits, under the hand and official seal of such officer, and returned to the county clerk who issued same. If in either case such citation or notice is returned with the notation that the person sought to be served, whether within or without this State, cannot be found, the clerk shall issue a new citation or notice directed to the person or persons sought to be served and service shall be by publication.

(2) Posting. When citation or notice is required to be posted, it shall be posted by the sheriff or constable at the courthouse door of the county in which the proceedings are pending, or at the place in or near the courthouse where public notices customarily are posted, for not less than ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of posting. The clerk shall deliver the original and a copy of such citation or notice to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, who shall post said copy as herein prescribed and return the original to the clerk, stating in a written return thereon the time when and the place where he posted such copy. The date of posting shall be the date of service. When posting of notice by a personal representative is authorized or required, the method herein prescribed shall be followed, such notices to be issued in the name of the representative, addressed and delivered to, posted and returned by, the proper officer, and filed with the clerk.

(3) Publication. When a person is to be cited or notified by publication, the citation or notice shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proceedings are pending, and said publication shall be not less than ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of publication. The date of publication which said newspaper bears shall be the date of service. If no newspaper is published, printed, or of general circulation, in the county where citation or notice is to be had, service of such citation or notice shall be by posting.

(4) Mailing.

(A) When any citation or notice is required or permitted to be served by registered or certified mail, other than notices required to be given by personal representatives, the clerk shall issue such citation or notice and shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail. Any notice required to be given by a personal representative by registered or certified mail shall be issued by him, and he shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail. In either case the citation or notice shall be mailed with instructions to deliver to the addressee only, and with return receipt requested. The envelope containing such citation or notice shall be addressed to the attorney of record in the proceeding for the person to be cited or notified, but if there is none, or if returned undelivered, then to the person to be cited or notified. A copy of such citation or notice, together with the certificate of the clerk, or of the personal representative, as the case may be, showing the fact and date of mailing, shall be filed and recorded. If a receipt is returned, it shall be attached to the certificate.

(B) When any citation or notice is required or permitted to be served by ordinary mail, the clerk, or the personal representative when required by statute or by order of the court, shall serve the same by mailing the original to the person to be cited or notified. A copy of such citation or notice, together with a certificate of the person serving the same showing the fact and time of mailing, shall be filed and recorded.

(C) When service is made by mail, the date of mailing shall be the date of service. Service by mail shall be made not less than twenty (20) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of service.

(D) If a citation or notice served by mailing is returned undelivered, a new citation or notice shall be issued, and such citation or notice shall be served by posting.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(i) Proof of Service. Proof of service in all cases requiring notice or citation, whether by publication, posting, mailing, or otherwise, shall be filed before the hearing. Proof of service made by a sheriff or constable shall be made by the return of service. Service made by a private person shall be proved by the affidavit of the person. Proof of service by publication shall be made by the affidavit of the publisher or that of an employee of the publisher, which affidavit shall show the date the issue of the newspaper bore, and have attached to or embodied in it a copy of the published notice or citation. In the case of service by mail, proof shall be made by the certificate of the clerk, or the affidavit of the personal representative or other person making such service, stating the fact and time of mailing. In the case of service by registered or certified mail, the return receipt shall be attached to the certificate, if a receipt has been returned.

(j) Request for Notice. At any time after an application is filed for the purpose of commencing any proceeding in probate, including, but not limited to, a proceeding for the probate of a will, grant of letters testamentary or of administration, determination of heirship, and the grant of letters of guardianship, any person interested in the estate or welfare of a ward, may file with the clerk a request in writing that he be notified of any and all, or of any specifically designated, motions, applications, or pleadings filed by any person, or by any particular persons specifically designated in the request. The fees and costs for such notices shall be borne by the person requesting them, and the clerk may require a deposit to cover the estimated costs of furnishing such person with the notice or notices requested. The clerk shall thereafter send to such person by ordinary mail copies of any of the documents specified in the request. Failure of the clerk to comply with the request shall not invalidate any proceeding.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 967, ch. 173, amending and adding various sections of this Code, provided in section 16: "This Act takes effect January 1, 1972".

§ 34. Service on Attorney

If any attorney shall have entered his appearance of record for any party in any proceeding in probate, all citations and notices required to be served on the party in such proceeding shall be served on the attorney, and such service shall be in lieu of service upon the party for whom the attorney appears. All notices served on attorneys in accordance with this section may be served by registered or certified mail or by delivery to the attorney in person. They may be served by a party to the proceeding or his attorney of record, or by the proper sheriff or constable, or by any other person competent to testify. A written statement by an attorney of record, or the return of the officer, or the affidavit of any other person showing service shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service.

§ 36A. When Power of Attorney not Terminated by Disability

When a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "this power of attorney shall not terminate on disability of the principal" or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the power shall not terminate on his disability, then the powers of the attorney in fact or agent shall be exercisable by him on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incompetence of the principal. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent, pursuant to the power, during any period of disability or incompetence of the principal, shall have the same effect and shall inure to the benefit of and bind the principal as if the principal were not disabled or incompetent. If a guardian shall thereafter be appointed for the principal, the powers of the attorney in fact or agent shall terminate upon the qualification of the guardian, and the attorney in fact or agent shall deliver to the guardian all assets of the estate of the ward in his possession and shall account to the guardian as he would to his principal had the principal himself terminated his powers.
Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 971, ch. 173, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

CHAPTER II—DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION

Sec.

§ 37A. Means of Evidencing Disclaimer or Renunciation of Property or Interest Receivable from a Decedent Under a Will or by Inheritance by a Person Who is Competent

Any person who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent and who intends to effect disclaimer irrevocably of the whole or any part of such property shall evidence same as herein provided. A disclaimer evidenced as provided herein, shall be effective as of the death of decedent and the property subject thereof shall pass as if the person disclaiming had predeceased the decedent unless decedent's will provides otherwise. Failure to comply with the provisions hereof shall render such disclaimer ineffective except as an assignment of such property to those who would have received same had the person attempting the disclaimer died prior to the decedent. The term "property" as used in this section shall include all legal and equitable interests, powers, and property, whether present or future, whether vested or contingent, and whether beneficial or burdensome, in whole or in part. The term "disclaimer" as used in this section shall include "renunciation."
The following shall apply to such disclaimers:

(a) Written Memorandum of Disclaimer and Filing Thereof. In the case of property receivable under a will or by inheritance, the disclaimer shall be evidenced by a written memorandum, acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real estate and filed not later than six months after death of decedent in the probate court in which decedent's will has been probated or in which administration of decedent's estate is pending or which has before it an application for either of same; provided, however, if there has been no will of decedent probated or filed for probate nor any administration or application for administration of decedent's estate within six months of decedent's death, such disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the county of decedent's residence, if decedent be a resident of this state, or in a county in which decedent owned real property at the time of death, if decedent was not a resident of this state, and recorded by such county clerk in the deed records of that county. The time to file and serve a disclaimer may be extended by order entered at the discretion of the probate court having jurisdiction over the estate of the decedent on a petition to such probate court by the person so disclaiming filed before or after the expiration of six months after death showing to the satisfaction of such court reasonable cause for such extension and on notice to such persons and in such manner as the probate court may direct, but in no event may such petition be filed after the expiration of nine months from the death of decedent.

(b) Notice of Disclaimer. In the event that a personal representative of a decedent is qualified and acting, copies of any written memorandum of disclaimer shall be served by registered or certified mail or in such other manner as the probate court may direct: (1) upon any qualified and acting personal representative of decedent or, if none, but application for appointment of such a representative be pending, upon any applicant seeking probate of decedent's will or administration of decedent's estate; and (2) upon all legatees, devisees, beneficiaries and heirs-at-law of decedent other than the person disclaiming whose names and addresses are set forth in the petition for letters testamentary or letters of administration or, if no application be filed, whose names and addresses are known to or are by reasonable inquiry ascertainable by the person disclaiming, but service of such written memorandum shall not be required upon more than four of such persons in any event.

(c) Power of Testator to Provide for Disclaimer. Nothing herein shall prevent a testator from providing in a will for the making of disclaimers by legatees, devisees and beneficiaries and for the disposition of disclaimed property in a manner different from the provisions hereof.

(d) Revocation of Disclaimer. Any disclaimer filed and served under this section may be revoked by the person who has so disclaimed only when permitted by order entered by the probate court having jurisdiction over the estate of the decedent. An application for such revocation shall be made to such probate court on a petition by the disclaiming person, or, if the person having disclaimed has since died or become incompetent, then by the duly appointed and qualified personal representative of such person when so authorized by the court having jurisdiction of the estate of the incompetent or person who has died after such disclaimer. Applicant shall show such probate court reasonable cause for the revocation at a hearing held after notice to such persons and in such manner as the probate court may direct. Any petition for revocation shall be filed within nine months after decedent's death and not thereafter.

(e) Partial Disclaimer. Any person who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent may disclaim such property in whole or in part, and a partial disclaimer or renunciation, in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be effective whether the property so renounced or disclaimed constitutes a portion of a single, aggregate gift or constitutes part or all of a separate, independent gift; provided, however, that a partial disclaimer shall be effective only with respect to property expressly described or referred to by category in such disclaimer, and provided further, that a partial disclaimer of property which is subject to a burdensome interest created by the decedent's will shall not be effective unless such property constitutes a gift which is separate and distinct from undisclaimed gifts.

(f) Disclaimer After Acceptance. No disclaimer shall be effective after the acceptance of the property by the heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary. For the purpose of this section, acceptance shall occur only if the person making such disclaimer has previously taken possession or exercised dominion and control of such property in the capacity of heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary.

Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2954, ch. 979, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

CHAPTER III—DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP

§ 48. Proceedings to Declare Heirship. When and Where Instituted

(a) When a person dies intestate owning or entitled to real or personal property in Texas, and there shall have been no administration in this State upon his estate; or when there has been a will probated in this State or elsewhere, or an administration in this State upon the estate of such decedent, and any real or personal property in this State has been omitted from such will or from such administration, or no final disposition thereof has been made in such administration, the court of the county in which such proceedings were last pending, or in the event no will of such decedent has been admitted to probate in this State, and no administration has been granted in this State upon the estate of such decedent, then the court of the county in which any of the real property belonging to such estate is situated, or if there is no such real estate, then of the county in which any personal property belonging to such estate is found, may determine and declare in the manner hereinafter provided who are the heirs and only heirs of such decedent, and their respective shares and interests, under the laws of this State, in the estate of such decedent, and proceedings therefor shall be known as proceedings to declare heirship.

(b) If an application for determination of heirship is filed within four (4) years from the date of the death of the decedent, the applicant may request that the court determine whether a necessity for administration exists. The court shall hear evidence upon the issue and make a determination thereof in its judgment.

§ 49. Who May Institute Proceedings to Declare Heirship

Such proceedings may be instituted and maintained in any of the instances enumerated above by any person or persons claiming to be the owner of the whole or a part of the estate of such decedent. In such a case an application shall be filed in a proper court stating the name, time, and place of death and the names and residences of the heirs of the decedent, if known to the applicant, and, if the time and place of death or the names and residences of all of the heirs of such decedent be not definitely known to such applicant, then the application shall set forth all of the material facts and circumstances within the knowledge or information of such applicant, as may reasonably tend to show the time and place of death of the decedent, and the names and places of residence of the heirs, and the true share and interest of each applicant, and of each heir, in the estate of such decedent. Such application shall, so far as is known to any of the applicants, contain a general description of all the real property of the decedent and a general description of all the personal property belonging to the estate of the decedent. If any of the foregoing information is not set out in the application, the reason for the omission shall be stated. Such application shall be supported by the affidavit of each applicant to the effect that, insofar as is known to such applicant, all the allegations of such application are true in substance and in fact and that no such material fact or circumstance has, within the affiant's knowledge, been omitted from such application. The unknown heirs of such decedent, all persons who are named in the application as heirs of such decedent, and all persons who are, at the date of the filing of the application, shown by the deed records of the county in which any of the real property described in such application is situated to own any share or interest in any such real property, shall be made parties in such proceeding.

§ 50. Notice

Citation shall be served by registered or certified mail upon all defendants whose names and addresses are known, or whose names and addresses can be learned through the exercise of reasonable diligence, provided that the court may in its discretion require that service of citation shall be made by personal service upon some or all of those named as defendants in the application. Unknown heirs, and known heirs whose addresses cannot be ascertained, shall be served by publication in the county in which the proceedings are commenced, and if the decedent resided in another county, then a citation shall also be published in the county of his last residence.

§ 51. Transfer of Proceeding When Will Probated or Administration Granted

If an administration upon the estate of any such decedent shall be granted in the State, or if the will of such decedent shall be admitted to probate in this State, after the institution of a proceeding to declare heirship, the court in which such proceeding is pending shall, by an order entered of record therein, transfer the cause to the court of the county in which such administration shall have been granted, or such will shall have been probated, and thereupon the clerk of the court in which such proceeding was originally filed shall send to the clerk of the court named in such order, a certified transcript of all pleadings, docket entries, and orders of the court in such cause. The clerk of the court to which such cause shall be transferred shall file the transcript and record the same in the minutes of the court and shall docket such cause, and the same shall thereafter proceed as though originally filed in that court. The court, in its discretion, may consolidate the cause so transferred with the pending proceeding.

§ 53. Evidence; Unknown Parties

(a) The court in its discretion may require all or any part of the evidence admitted in a proceeding to declare heirship to be reduced to writing, and subscribed and sworn to by the witnesses, respectively, and filed in the cause, and recorded in the minutes of the court.

(b) If it appears to the court that there are or may be living heirs whose names or whereabouts are unknown, or that any defendant is a minor or an incompetent, the court may, in its discretion, appoint an attorney to represent the interests of any such persons, but no attorney shall be appointed except when the court finds that such appointment is necessary to protect the interests of the persons for whom the attorney is appointed.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 54. Judgment

The judgment of the court in a proceeding to declare heirship shall declare the names and places of residence of the heirs of the decedent, and their respective shares and interests in the real and personal property of such decedent. If the proof is in any respect deficient, the judgment shall so state.

§ 55. Effect of Judgment

(a) Such judgment shall be a final judgment, and may be appealed or reviewed within the same time limits and in the same manner as may other judgments in probate matters at the instance of any interested person. If any person who is an heir of the decedent is not served with citation by registered or certified mail, or by personal service, he may at any time within four years from the date of such judgment have the same corrected by writ of certiorari or bill of review, or upon proof of actual fraud, after the passage of any length of time, and may recover from the heirs named in the judgment, and those claiming under them who are not bona fide purchasers for value, his just share of the property or its value.

(b) Although such judgment may later be modified, set aside, or nullified, it shall nevertheless be conclusive in any suit between any heir omitted from the judgment and a bona fide purchaser for value who has purchased real or personal property after entry of the judgment without actual notice of the claim of the omitted heir. Similarly, any person who has delivered funds or property of the decedent to the persons declared to be heirs in the judgment, or has engaged in any other transaction with them, in good faith, after entry of such judgment, shall not be liable therefor to any person.

(c) If the court states in its judgment that there is no necessity for administration on the estate, such recital shall constitute authorization to all persons owing any money to the estate of the decedent, or having custody of any property of such estate, or acting as registrar or transfer agent of any evidence of interest, indebtedness, property, or right belonging to the estate, and to persons purchasing from or otherwise dealing with the heirs as determined in the judgment, to pay, deliver, or transfer such property or evidence of property rights to such heirs, or to purchase property from such heirs, without liability to any creditor of the estate or other person. Such heirs shall be entitled to enforce their right to payment, delivery, or transfer by suit. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the rights or remedies of the creditors of the decedent except as provided in this subsection.

§ 59. Requisites of a Will

Every last will and testament, except where otherwise provided by law, shall be in writing and signed by the testator in person or by another person for him by his direction and in his presence, and shall, if not wholly in the handwriting of the testator, be attested by two (2) or more credible witnesses above the age of fourteen (14) years who shall subscribe their names thereto in their own handwriting in the presence of the testator. Such a will or testament may, at the time of its execution or at any subsequent date during the lifetime of the testator and the witnesses, be made self-proved, and the testimony of the witnesses in the probate thereof may be made unnecessary, by the affidavits of the testator and the attesting witnesses, made before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments to deeds of conveyance and to administer oaths under the laws of this State. Provided that nothing shall require an affidavit, acknowledgment or certificate of any testator or testatrix as a prerequisite to self-proof of a will or testament other than the certificate set out below. The affidavits shall be evidenced by a certificate, with official seal affixed, of such officer attached or annexed to such will or testament in form and contents substantially as follows:

CHAPTER V—PROBATE, GRANT OF ADMINISTRATION, AND GUARDIANSHIP

PART 1. ESTATES OF DECEDENTS

§ 72. Proceedings Before Death; Administration in Absence of Direct Evidence of Death; Distribution; Limitation of Liability; Restoration of Estate; Validation of Proceedings

(a) The probate of a will or administration of an estate of a living person shall be void; provided, however, that the court shall have jurisdiction to determine the fact, time and place of death, and where application is made for the grant of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of a person believed to be dead and there is no direct evidence that such person is dead but the death of such person shall be proved by circumstantial evidence to the satisfaction of the court, such letters shall be granted. Distribution of the estate to the persons entitled thereto shall not be made by the personal representative until after the expiration of three (3) years from the date such letters are granted. If in a subsequent action such person shall be proved by direct evidence to have been living at any time subsequent to the date of grant of such letters, neither the personal representative nor anyone who shall deliver said estate or any part thereof to another under orders of the court shall be liable therefor; and provided further, that such person shall be entitled to restoration of said estate or the residue thereof with the rents and profits therefrom, except real or personal property sold by the personal representative or any distributee, his successors or assigns, to bona fide purchasers for value, in which case the right of such person to the restoration shall be limited to the proceeds of such sale or the residue thereof with the increase thereof. In no event shall the bonds of such personal representative be void provided, however, that the surety shall have no liability for any acts of the personal representative which were done in compliance with or approved by an order of the court. Probate proceedings upon estates of persons believed to be dead brought prior to the effective date of this Act and all such probate proceedings then pending, except such probate proceedings contested in any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, are hereby validated insofar as the court's finding of death of such person is concerned.

(b) In any case in which the fact of death must be proved by circumstantial evidence, the court, at the request of any interested person, may direct that citation be issued to the person supposed to be dead, and served upon him by publication and by posting, and by such additional means as the court may by its order direct. After letters testamentary or of administration have been issued, the court may also direct the personal representative to make a search for the person supposed to be dead by notifying law enforcement agencies and public welfare agencies in appropriate locations that such person has disappeared, and may further direct that the applicant engage the services of an investigative agency to make a search for such person. The expenses of search and notices shall be taxed as costs and shall be paid out of the property of the estate.
Amended by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 950, ch. 442, § 1, eff. May 30, 1959; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 975, ch. 173, § 7, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

§ 73. Period for Probate

(a) No will shall be admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator unless it be shown by proof that the party applying for such probate was not in default in failing to present the same for probate within the four years aforesaid; and in no case shall letters testamentary be issued where a will is admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator.

(b) If any person shall purchase real or personal property from the heirs of a decedent more than four years from the date of the death of the decedent, for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the existence of a will, such purchaser shall be held to have good title to the interest which such heir or heirs would have had in the absence of a will, as against the claims of any devisees or legatees under any will which may thereafter be offered for probate.

§ 74. Time to File Application for Letters Testamentary or Administration

All applications for the grant of letters testamentary or of administration upon an estate must be filed within four years after the death of the testator or intestate; provided, that this section shall not apply in any case where administration is necessary in order to receive or recover funds or other property due to the estate of the decedent.

§ 81. Contents of Application for Letters Testamentary

(a) For Probate of a Written Will. A written will shall, if within the control of the applicant, be filed with the application for its probate, and shall remain in the custody of the county clerk unless removed therefrom by order of a proper court. An application for probate of a written will shall state:

(1) The name and domicile of each applicant.

(2) The name, age if known, and domicile of the decedent, and the fact, time, and place of death.

(3) Facts showing that the court has venue.

(4) That the decedent owned real or personal property, or both, describing the same generally, and stating its probable value.

(5) The date of the will, the name and residence of the executor named therein, if any, and if none be named, then the name and residence of the person to whom it is desired that letters be issued, and also the names and residences of the subscribing witnesses, if any.

(6) Whether a child or children born or adopted after the making of such will survived the decedent, and the name of each such survivor, if any.

(7) That such executor or applicant, or other person to whom it is desired that letters be issued, is not disqualified by law from accepting letters.

(8) Whether the decedent was ever divorced, and if so, when and from whom.

The foregoing matters shall be stated and averred in the application to the extent that they are known to the applicant, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained by him, and if any of such matters is not stated or averred in the application, the application shall set forth the reason why such matter is not so stated and averred.

(b) For Probate of Written Will Not Produced. When a written will cannot be produced in court, in addition to the requirements of Subsection (a) hereof, the application shall state:

(1) The reason why such will cannot be produced.

(2) The contents of such will, as far as known.

(3) The date of such will and the executor appointed therein, if any, as far as known.

(4) The name, age, marital status, and address, if known, and the relationship to the decedent, if any, of each devisee, and of each person who would inherit as an heir in the absence of a valid will, and, in cases of partial intestacy, of each heir.

(c) Nuncupative Wills. An application for probate of a nuncupative will shall contain all applicable statements required with respect to written wills in the foregoing subsections and also:

(1) The substance of testamentary words spoken.

(2) The names and residences of the witnesses thereto.

§ 87. Testimony to Be Committed to Writing

All testimony taken in open court upon the hearing of an application to probate a will shall be committed to writing at the time it is taken, and subscribed, and sworn to in open court by the witness or witnesses, and filed by the clerk; provided, however, that in any contested case, the court may, upon agreement of the parties, and in the event of no agreement on its own motion, dismiss this requirement.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 976, ch. 173, § 9, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

PART 2. PROCEDURE PERTAINING TO FOREIGN WILLS

§ 95. Probate of Foreign Will Accomplished by Filing and Recording

(a) Foreign Will May Be Probated. The written will of a testator who was not domiciled in Texas at the time of his death which would affect any real or personal property in this State, may be admitted to probate upon proof that it stands probated or established in any of the United States, its territories, the District of Columbia, or any foreign nation.

(b) Application and Citation.

(1) Will probated in domiciliary jurisdiction. If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, the application need state only that probate is requested on the basis of the authenticated copy of the foreign proceedings in which the will was probated or established. No citation or notice is required.

(2) Will probated in non-domiciliary jurisdiction. If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in any jurisdiction other than the domicile of the testator at the time of his death, the application for its probate shall contain all of the information required in an application for the probate of a domestic will, and shall also set out the name and address of each devisee and each person who will be entitled to a portion of the estate as an heir in the absence of a will. Citations shall be issued and served on each such devisee and heir by registered or certified mail.

(c) Copy of Will and Proceedings To Be Filed. A copy of the will and of the judgment, order, or decree by which it was admitted to probate or otherwise established, attested by the clerk of the court or by such other official as has custody of such will or is in charge of probate records, with the seal of the court affixed, if there is a seal, together with a certificate of the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, shall be filed with the application.

(d) Probate Accomplished by Recording.

(1) Will admitted in domiciliary jurisdiction. If the will has been probated or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, it shall be the ministerial duty of the clerk to record such will and the evidence of its probate or establishment in the minutes of the court. No order of the court is necessary. When so filed and recorded, the will shall be deemed to be admitted to probate, and shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if the original will had been probated by order of the court, subject to contest in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided.

(2) Will admitted in non-domiciliary jurisdiction. If the will has been probated or established in another jurisdiction not the domicile of the testator, its probate in this State may be contested in the same manner as if the testator had been domiciled in this State at the time of his death. If no contest is filed, the clerk shall record such will and the evidence of its probate or establishment in the minutes of the court, and no order of the court shall be necessary. When so filed and recorded, it shall be deemed to be admitted to probate, and shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if the original will had been probated by order of the court, subject to contest in the manner and to the extent hereafter provided.

(e) Effect of Foreign Will on Local Property. If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, such will, when probated as herein provided, shall be effectual to dispose of both real and personal property in this State irrespective of whether such will was executed with the formalities required by this Code.

(f) Protection of Purchasers. When a foreign will has been probated in this State in accordance with the procedure prescribed in this section for a will that has been admitted to probate in the domicile of the testator, and it is later proved in a proceeding brought for that purpose that the foreign jurisdiction in which the will was admitted to probate was not in fact the domicile of the testator, the probate in this State shall be set aside. If any person has purchased property from the personal representative or any legatee or devisee, in good faith and for value, or otherwise dealt with any of them in good faith, prior to the commencement of the proceeding, his title or rights shall not be affected by the fact that the probate in this State is subsequently set aside.

§ 100. Contest of Foreign Wills

(a) Will Admitted in Domiciliary Jurisdiction. A foreign will that has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, and either admitted to probate in this State or filed in the deed records of any county of this State, may be contested by any interested person but only upon the following grounds:

(1) That the foreign proceedings were not authenticated in the manner required for ancillary probate or recording in the deed records.

(2) That the will has been finally rejected for probate in this State in another proceeding.

(3) That the probate of the will has been set aside in the jurisdiction in which the testator died domiciled.

(b) Will Probated in Non-Domiciliary Jurisdiction. A foreign will that has been admitted to probate or established in any jurisdiction other than that of the testator's domicile at the time of his death may be contested on any grounds that are the basis for the contest of a domestic will. If a will has been probated in this State in accordance with the procedure applicable for the probate of a will that has been admitted in the state of domicile, without the service of citation required for a will admitted in another jurisdiction that is not the domicile of the testator, and it is proved that the foreign jurisdiction in which the will was probated was not in fact the domicile of the testator, the probate in this State shall be set aside. If otherwise entitled, the will may be reprobated in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the probate of a will admitted in a non-domiciliary jurisdiction, or it may be admitted to original probate in this State in the same or a subsequent proceeding.

(c) Time and Method. A foreign will that has been admitted to ancillary probate in this State or filed in the deed records in this State may be contested by the same procedures, and within the same time limits, as wills admitted to probate in this State in original proceedings.

§ 102. Effect of Rejection of Will in Domiciliary Proceedings

Final rejection of a will or other testamentary instrument from probate or establishment in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled shall be conclusive in this State, except where the will or other testamentary instrument has been rejected solely for a cause which is not ground for rejection of a will of a testator who died domiciled in this State, in which case the will or testamentary instrument may nevertheless be admitted to probate or continue to be effective in this State.

§ 106. When Foreign Executor to Give Bond

A foreign executor shall not be required to give bond if the will appointing him so provides. If the will does not exempt him from giving bond, the provisions of this Code with respect to the bonds of domestic representatives shall be applicable.

PART 3. ESTATES OF MINORS AND INCOMPETENTS

§ 110. Persons Disqualified to Serve as Guardians

The following persons shall not be appointed guardians:

(a) Minors.

(b) Persons whose conduct is notoriously bad.

(c) Incompetents.

(d) Those who are themselves parties, or whose father or mother is a party to a lawsuit on the result of which the welfare of the person for whom, or for whose estate, a guardian is to be appointed, may depend.

(e) Those who are indebted to the person for whom or for whose estate a guardian is to be appointed, unless they pay the debt prior to the appointment, or who are asserting any claim to any property, real or personal, adverse to the person for whom, or for whose estate, the appointment is sought.

(f) Those who are unable to read and write the English language.

(g) Those who by reason of inexperience or lack of education, or for other good reason, are shown to be incapable of properly and prudently managing and controlling the ward or his estate.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 976, ch. 173, § 9, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

(b) To Non-Resident. Whenever a non-resident minor or whenever a non-resident person duly adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual drunkard, having no legal guardian qualified in this state, is entitled to money in an amount, not exceeding Three Thousand Dollars owing as a result of transactions within this state, the right to which is liquidated and is uncontested in any pending lawsuit in this state, the debtor in this state may pay such money to the guardian of such creditor duly qualified in his domiciliary jurisdiction or to the county clerk of any county in this state in which real property owned by such non-resident person is situated. If such person is not known to own any real property in any county in this state such debtor shall have the right to pay such money to the county clerk of the county of this state in which the debtor resides. In either case, such payment to the clerk shall be for the use and benefit and for the account of such non-resident creditor, and the receipt for such payment signed by the clerk, reciting the name of such creditor and his post-office address, if known, shall be forever binding against such creditor as of the date and to the extent of such payment. Such money so paid to such clerk shall be handled by him in the same manner as above provided for in cases of payments to the clerk for the accounts of residents of this state, and all applicable provisions of Subsection (a) above shall apply to the handling and disposition of money or any increase, dividend, or income herefrom so paid to the clerk for the use, benefit, and account of such non-resident creditor.

PART 4. INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATION

§ 149A. Accounting

(a) Interested Person May Demand Accounting. At any time after the expiration of fifteen months from the date a will appointing an independent executor is admitted to probate, any person interested in the estate may demand an accounting from the independent executor. The independent executor shall thereupon furnish to the person or persons making the demand an exhibit in writing, sworn and subscribed by the independent executor, setting forth in detail:

1. The property belonging to the estate which has come into his hands as executor.
2. The disposition that has been made of such property.
3. The debts that have been paid.
4. The debts and expenses, if any, still owing by the estate.
5. The property of the estate, if any, still remaining in his hands.
6. Such other facts as may be necessary to a full and definite understanding of the exact condition of the estate.
7. Such facts, if any, that show why the administration should not be closed and the estate distributed.

Any other interested person shall, upon demand, be entitled to a copy of any exhibit or accounting that has been made by an independent executor in compliance with this section.

(b) Enforcement of Demand. Should the independent executor not comply with a demand for an accounting authorized by this section within sixty days after receipt of the demand, the person making the demand may compel compliance by a suit in the district court. After a hearing, the court shall enter an order requiring the accounting to be made at such time as it deems proper under the circumstances.

(c) Subsequent Demands. After an initial accounting has been given by an independent executor, any person interested in an estate may demand subsequent periodic accountings at intervals of not less than twelve months, and such subsequent demands may be enforced in the same manner as an initial demand.

(d) Remedies Cumulative. The right to an accounting accorded by this section is cumulative of any other remedies which persons interested in an estate may have against the independent executor thereof.
Added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 980, ch. 173, § 10, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

PART 5. ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY

§ 155. Administration of Community Property

When a husband or wife dies intestate and the community property passes to the survivor, no administration thereon, community or otherwise, shall be necessary.

§ 156. Liability of Community Property for Debts

The community property subject to the sole or joint management, control, and disposition of a spouse during marriage continues to be subject to the liabilities of that spouse upon death. In addition, the interest that the deceased spouse owned in any other nonexempt community property passes to his or her heirs or devisees charged with the debts which were enforceable against such deceased spouse prior to his or her death. In the administration of community estates, the survivor or personal representative shall keep a separate, distinct account of all community debts allowed or paid in the administration and settlement of such estate.

§ 161. Community Administration

Whenever an interest in community property passes to someone other than the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse may qualify as community administrator in the manner hereinafter provided if

(a) The deceased spouse failed to name an executor in his will, or

(b) If the executor named in the will of the deceased spouse is for any reason unable or unwilling to qualify as such, or

(c) If the deceased spouse died intestate.

§ 162. Application for Community Administration

A surviving spouse who desires to qualify as a community administrator shall, within four years after the death of the other spouse, file a written application in the court having venue over the estate of the deceased spouse, stating:

(a) That the other spouse is dead, setting forth the time and place of such death; and

(b) The name and residence of each person to whom an interest in community property has passed by the will of the decedent or by intestacy; and

(c) That there is a community estate between the deceased spouse and the applicant, and the facts that authorize the applicant to be appointed as community administrator; and

(d) That, by virtue of facts set forth in the application, the court has venue over the estate of the deceased spouse; and

(e) If the applicant desires that appraisers be appointed, that not less than one nor more than three appraisers should be appointed to appraise such estate.

§ 163. Appointment of Appraisers

If the appointment of appraisers is requested by the applicant, or by any interested person, the judge shall, without notice or citation, enter an order appointing appraisers to appraise such estate as in other administrations.

§ 164. Inventory, Appraisement, and List of Claims

The surviving spouse, with the assistance of the appraisers, if any be appointed, shall make out a full, fair, and complete inventory, appraisement, and list of claims of the community estate as in other administrations, shall attach thereto a list of all indebtedness owing by said community estate to other parties, giving the amount of each debt and the name of the party or parties to whom it is owing, and his or their post-office address, and shall return same to the court within ninety (90) days after the date of the order appointing appraisers, if any be appointed, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court. If no appraisers be appointed, such return shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date of the application for community administration, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court. In either event, the court may, for good cause shown, require the filing of the inventory and appraisement within a shorter period of time. Such inventory, list of claims, and list of indebtedness of such community estate shall be sworn to by said surviving spouse, and said inventory, appraisement, and list of claims owing said community estate shall be sworn to by said appraisers, if any appraisers have been appointed.

§ 165. Bond of Community Administrator

The community administrator shall at the time the inventory, appraisement, and list of claims are returned, present to the court a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and to be approved by the judge and his successors in a sum as is found by the judge to be adequate under all the circumstances, or a bond with one surety in a sum as is found by the judge to be adequate under all the circumstances, if the surety is an authorized corporate surety. After paying community debts outstanding at the death of the deceased spouse, the qualified community administrator may carry on as statutory trustee for the owners of the community estate, investing and reinvesting the funds of the estate and continuing the operation of community enterprises until the termination of the trust as provided in this Code. The qualified community administrator is not entitled to mortgage community property to secure debts incurred for his individual benefit, or otherwise to appropriate the community estate to his individual benefit; but he may transfer or encumber his individual interest in the community estate.

Neither the survivor nor his bondsmen shall be liable for losses sustained by the estate, except when the survivor has been guilty of gross negligence or bad faith.

(b) When No Community Administrator Has Qualified. When an executor of the estate of a deceased spouse has duly qualified, such executor is authorized to administer, not only the separate property of the deceased spouse, but also the community property which was by law under the management of the deceased spouse during the continuance of the marriage and all of the community property that was by law under the joint control of the spouses during the continuance of the marriage. The surviving spouse, as surviving partner of the marital partnership, is entitled to retain possession and control of all community property which was legally under the sole management of the surviving spouse during the continuance of the marriage and to exercise over that property all the powers elsewhere in this part of this Code authorized to be exercised by the surviving spouse when there is no administration pending on the estate of the deceased spouse. The surviving spouse may by written instrument filed with the clerk waive any right to exercise powers as community survivor, and in such event the executor or administrator of the deceased spouse shall be authorized to administer upon the entire community estate.

Turnpike Authority—Membership

Sec. 3. There is hereby created an authority to be known as the "Texas Turnpike Authority," hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Authority." By and in its name the Authority may sue and be sued, and plead and be impleaded. The Authority is hereby constituted an agency of the State of Texas, and the exercise by the Authority of the powers conferred by this Act in the construction, operation, and maintenance of turnpike projects shall be deemed and held to be an essential governmental function of the State.

The Board of Directors of the Authority (hereinafter in this Act sometimes called the "Board") shall be composed of directors, who shall occupy, respectively, places on the Board to be designated as Places 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12. The Directors who will occupy Places 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Appointed Directors shall serve staggered terms of six (6) years with the terms of one-third of the members expiring on February 15 of each odd-numbered year. Each Director appointed to fill Places 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 shall have been a resident of the State and of the County from which he shall have been appointed for a period of at least one (1) year prior to his appointment.

The members of the Texas State Highway Commission at the time this Act becomes effective are hereby made Directors of said Authority, and if for any reason said Texas State Highway Commission at such time because of vacancies is composed of less than three (3) members, then the person or persons appointed to fill such vacancies are hereby made Directors of said Authority. The Highway Commissioners and their successors in office shall respectively and successively occupy Places 1, 4, and 7 on such Board. Each member of the Texas State Highway Commission shall serve ex officio as a member of the Board of Directors of such Authority. All Directors shall serve until their successors have been duly appointed and qualified, and vacancies in unexpired terms shall be promptly filled by the Governor.

Each member of the Board before entering upon his duties shall take an oath as provided by Section 1 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

The Board shall elect one of the Directors as chairman and another as vice chairman, and shall elect a secretary and treasurer who need not be a member of the Board. Seven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and the vote of a majority of the members present at any meeting shall be necessary for any action taken by the Board. No vacancy in the membership of the Board shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the Board.

Before the issuance of any turnpike revenue bonds under the provisions of this Act, each Director shall execute a surety bond in the penal sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) and the secretary and treasurer shall execute a surety bond in the penal sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), each surety bond to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in the State of Texas as surety and to be approved by the Governor and filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The expense of such bonds shall be paid by the Authority.

Each appointed Director may be removed by the Governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty, but only after reasonable notice and public hearing unless the notice and public hearing are in writing expressly waived.

The members of the Authority shall not be entitled to any additional compensation for their services, but each member shall be reimbursed for his actual expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be payable solely from funds provided under the authority of this Act and no liability or obligation shall be incurred by the Authority hereunder beyond the extent to which moneys shall have been provided under the authority of this Act.

The report to the department of the results of the hearing must include the terms and conditions of such probation. When probation is recommended by the judge or officer presiding at a hearing, the department shall probate the suspension or revocation.

(e) The foregoing provisions shall not relieve the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons, nor shall such provisions protect the driver from the consequences of his reckless disregard for the safety of others.

(f) The provisions of this Act applicable to the drivers of vehicles upon the highways shall apply to the drivers of all vehicles owned or operated by the United States, this State or any county, city, town, district, or any other political subdivision of the State, subject to such specific exceptions as are set forth in this Act with reference to authorized emergency vehicles.

Powers of local authorities

Sec. 27. (a) The provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to prevent local authorities with respect to streets and highways under their jurisdiction and within the reasonable exercise of the police power from—

1. Regulating the stopping, standing or parking of vehicles;

2. Regulating traffic by means of police officers or traffic-control devices;

3. Regulating or prohibiting processions or assemblages on the highways;

4. Designating particular highways as one-way highways and requiring that all vehicles thereon be moved in one specific direction;

5. Regulating the speed of vehicles in public parks;

6. Designating any highway as a through highway and requiring that all vehicles stop or yield before entering or crossing the same, or designating any intersection as a stop intersection or a yield intersection and requiring all vehicles to stop or yield at one or more entrances to such intersection;

7. Regulating the operation of bicycles and requiring the registration and licensing of same, including the requirement of a registration fee;

8. Regulating or prohibiting the turning of vehicles or specified types of vehicles at intersections;

9. Altering the speed limits as authorized herein;

10. Adopting such other traffic regulations as are specifically authorized by this Act.

(b) No local authority shall erect or maintain any stop sign or yield sign or traffic-control device at any location so as to require the traffic on any State highway, including Farm-to-Market or Ranch-to-Market roads, to stop or yield before entering or crossing any intersecting highway unless such signs or devices are erected and maintained by virtue of an agreement entered into between such local authority and the State Highway Department under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 415, Acts of the 46th Legislature, Regular Session.[1]

(c) No ordinance or regulation enacted under Subsection (4), (5), (6), or (9) of Subsection (a) of this section shall be effective until signs giving notice of such local traffic regulations are posted upon or at the

* * * * * * * * * * *

Obedience to and required traffic-control devices

Sec. 32. (a) The driver of any vehicle and the motorman of any streetcar shall obey the instructions of any official traffic-control device applicable thereto placed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, unless otherwise directed by a traffic or police officer, subject to the exceptions granted the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in this Act.

(b) No provision of this Act for which official traffic-control devices are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official device is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. Whenever a particular section does not state that official traffic-control devices are required, such section shall be effective even though no devices are erected or in place.

Sec. 32 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 728, ch. 83, § 13, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Traffic-control signal legend

Sec. 33. Whenever traffic is controlled by traffic-control signals exhibiting different colored lights, or colored lighted arrows, successively one at a time or in combination, only the colors Green, Red and Yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word legend, and said lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

(a) Green indication

1. Vehicular traffic facing a circular green signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right-of-way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such signal is exhibited.

2. Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow signal, shown alone or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow, or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

3. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal, as provided in Section 34, pedestrians facing any green signal, except when the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

(b) Steady yellow indication

1. Vehicular traffic facing a steady yellow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection.

2. Pedestrians facing a steady yellow signal, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in Section 34, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

(c) Steady red indication

1. Vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but, if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown.

2. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in Section 34, pedestrians facing a steady red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

(d) In the event an official traffic-control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of any such sign or marking the stop shall be made at the signal.

(e) The motorman of any streetcar shall obey the above signals as applicable to vehicles.

Sec. 33 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 728, ch. 83, § 14, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Pedestrian control signals

Sec. 34. Whenever special pedestrian control signals exhibiting the words "Walk," "Don't Walk," or "Wait" are in place such signals shall indicate as follows:

(a) Walk. Pedestrians facing such signal may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right-of-way by the drivers of all vehicles.

(b) Don't Walk or Wait. No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of such signal, but any pedestrian who has partially completed his crossing on the "Walk" signal shall proceed to a sidewalk or safety island while the "Don't Walk" or "Wait" signal is showing.

Sec. 34 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 729, ch. 83, § 15, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Flashing signals

Sec. 35. (a) Whenever an illuminated flashing red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

1. Flashing red (stop signal). When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection, and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

2. Flashing yellow (caution signal). When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through an intersection or past such signal only with caution.

(b) This section does not apply at railroad grade crossings. Conduct of drivers of vehicles approaching railroad grade crossings shall be governed by the rules as set forth in Section 86 of this Act.

Sec. 35 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 729, ch. 83, § 16, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Lane-direction-control signals

Sec. 35A. When lane-direction-control signals are placed over the individual lanes of a street or highway, vehicular traffic may travel in any lane over which a green signal is shown, but shall not enter or travel in any lane over which a red signal is shown.

Sec. 35A added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 730, ch. 83, § 17, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Display of unauthorized signs, signals or markings

Sec. 36. (a) No person shall place, maintain or display upon or in view of any highway any unauthorized sign, signal, marking or device which purports to be or is an imitation of or resembles an official traffic-control device or railroad sign or signal, or which attempts to direct the movement of traffic, or which hides from view or interferes with the effectiveness of an official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal.

(b) No person shall place or maintain nor shall any public authority permit upon any highway any traffic sign or signal bearing thereon any commercial advertising.

(c) No person shall place or maintain a flashing light or flashing electric sign of any kind or color within one thousand (1,000) feet of any intersection unless a permit is granted by the State Highway Commission for such flashing light or electric sign.

(d) This section shall not be deemed to prohibit the erection upon private property adjacent to highways of signs giving useful directional information and of a type that cannot be mistaken for official signs.

(e) In addition to being a misdemeanor as set out in Section 143, every such prohibited sign, signal, light or marking is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the authority having jurisdiction over the highway is hereby empowered to remove the same or cause it to be removed without notice.

Investigation of accidents

Sec. 43A. Upon notification of a law enforcement officer by the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person, or total property damage to an apparent extent of Fifty Dollars ($50) or more, the officer may investigate the accident and file any justifiable charges relating thereto without regard to whether the accident occurred on a public street or highway or other public property, on a road owned and controlled by any water control and improvement district, whether or not a fee is charged for the use of the road, or on private property commonly used by the public such as supermarket or shopping center parking lots, parking areas provided by business establishments for the convenience of their customers, clients, or patrons, parking lots owned and operated by the State or any other parking area owned and operated for the convenience of, and commonly used by, the public. It is specifically provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to accidents occurring on privately owned residential parking areas or on privately owned parking lots where a fee is charged for the privilege of parking or storing a motor vehicle.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this State shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

(b) Every person who is convicted of a violation of Subsection (a) of this section shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten (10) days nor more than two (2) years, or by fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment. (b) Any person convicted of homicide by vehicle shall be fined not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) nor more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000), or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than three (3) months nor more than one (1) year, or may be so fined and so imprisoned; provided, however, that such person may be tried only upon indictment by a grand jury and may be tried only in the county where the violation occurred.

ARTICLE VI—DRIVING ON RIGHT SIDE OF ROADWAY; OVERTAKING AND PASSING, ETC.

Drive on right side of roadway—exceptions

Sec. 52. (a) Upon all roadways of sufficient width a vehicle shall be driven upon the right half of the roadway, except as follows:

1. When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction under the rules governing such movement;

2. When an obstruction exists making it necessary to drive to the left of the center of the highway; provided, any person so doing shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles traveling in the proper direction upon the unobstructed portion of the highway within such distance as to constitute an immediate hazard;

3. Upon a roadway divided into three marked lanes for traffic under the rules applicable thereon; or

4. Upon a roadway restricted to one-way traffic.

(b) Upon all roadways any vehicle proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic at the time and place and under the conditions then existing shall be driven in the right-hand lane then available for traffic, or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway.

(c) Upon any roadway having four or more lanes for moving traffic and providing for two-way movement of traffic, no vehicle shall be driven to the left of the center line of the roadway, except when authorized by official traffic-control devices designated certain lanes to the left side of the center of the roadway for use by traffic not otherwise permitted to use such lanes, or except as permitted under Subsection (a) 2 hereof. However, this subsection shall not be construed as prohibiting the crossing of the center line in making a left turn into or out of an alley, private road, or driveway.

Sec. 55. (a) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle only under the following conditions:

1. When the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn;

2. Upon a street or highway with unobstructed pavement not occupied by parked vehicles of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles in each direction;

3. Upon a one-way street, or upon any roadway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, where the roadway is free from obstructions and of sufficient width for two (2) or more lines of moving vehicles.

(b) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. In no event shall such movement be made by driving off the pavement or main traveled portion of the roadway.

Sec. 55 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 732, ch. 83, § 22, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Sec. 56. No vehicle shall be driven to the left side of the center of the roadway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless authorized by the provisions of this Act and unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction or any vehicle overtaken. In every event the overtaking vehicle must return to an authorized lane of travel as soon as practicable and in the event the passing movement involves the use of a lane authorized for vehicles approaching from the opposite direction, before coming within two hundred (200) feet of any approaching vehicle.

Sec. 56 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 732, ch. 83, § 23, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

No-passing zones

Sec. 58. (a) The State Highway Commission on State highways under its jurisdiction, and local authorities on highways under their jurisdiction, are authorized to determine those portions of any highway under their appropriate jurisdiction where overtaking and passing or driving to the left of the roadway would be especially hazardous and may by appropriate signs or marking on the roadway indicate the beginning and end of such zones and when such signs or markings are in place and clearly visible to an ordinarily observant person every driver of a vehicle shall obey the directions thereof.

(b) Where signs or markings are in place to define a no-passing zone as set forth in Subsection (a) no driver shall at any time drive on the left side of the roadway within such no-passing zone or on the left side of any pavement striping designed to mark such no-passing zone throughout its length. Sec. 64. The State Highway Commission may by resolution or order entered in its minutes, and local authorities may by ordinance, with respect to any limited-access or controlled-access roadway under their respective jurisdictions prohibit the use of any such roadway by parades, funeral processions, pedestrians, bicycles, nonmotorized traffic, or by any person operating a motor driven cycle.

The State Highway Commission or the local authority adopting any such prohibitory regulation shall erect and maintain official traffic-control devices on the limited-access or controlled-access highway on which such regulations are applicable and when in place no person shall disobey the restrictions stated on such devices.

ARTICLE VII—TURNING AND STARTING AND SIGNALS ON STOPPING AND TURNING

Required position and method of turning at intersections

Sec. 65. The driver of a vehicle intending to turn at an intersection shall do so as follows:

(a) Right turns. Both the approach for a right turn and a right turn shall be made as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.

(b) Left turns. The driver of a vehicle intending to turn left at any intersection shall approach the intersection in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of such vehicle, and, after entering the intersection, the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection in a lane lawfully available to traffic moving in such direction upon the roadway being entered. Whenever practicable the left turn shall be made in that portion of the intersection to the left of the center of the intersection.

(c) The State Highway Commission and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause official traffic-control devices to be placed within or adjacent to intersections and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when such devices are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such devices.

Sec. 65 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 734, ch. 83, § 29, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Turning on curve or crest of grade prohibited

Sec. 66. No vehicle shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction upon any curve, or upon the approach to or near the crest of a grade, where such vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of any other vehicle approaching from either direction within five hundred (500) feet.

Sec. 66 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 735, ch. 83, § 30, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Turning movements and required signals

Sec. 68. (a) No person shall turn a vehicle at an intersection unless the vehicle is in proper position upon the roadway as required in Section 65, or turn a vehicle to enter a private road or driveway, or otherwise turn a vehicle from a direct course or move right or left upon a roadway unless and until such movement can be made with safety. Except under conditions set out in Section 24(a) no person shall so turn any vehicle without giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(d) The signals provided for in Section 69 of this Act shall be used to indicate an intention to turn, change lanes, or start from a parked position and shall not be flashed on one side only on a parked or disabled vehicle, or flashed as a courtesy or "do pass" signal to operators of other vehicles approaching from the rear.

Sec. 72. The driver of a vehicle intending to turn to the left within an intersection or into an alley, private road, or driveway shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard.

Sec. 72 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 735, ch. 83, § 33, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Vehicle entering stop or yield intersection

Sec. 73. (a) Preferential right-of-way at an intersection may be indicated by stop signs or yield signs as authorized in Subsection (a) of Section 91 of this Act.

(b) Except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic-control signal, every driver of a vehicle approaching a stop intersection indicated by a stop sign shall stop as required by Subsection (b) of Section 91A and after having stopped shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle which has entered the intersection from another highway or which is approaching so closely on said highway as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time when such driver is moving across or within the intersection.

(c) The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall in obedience to such sign slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions and shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another highway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time such driver is moving across or within the intersection. Provided, however, that if such a driver is involved in a collision with a vehicle in the intersection, after driving past a yield sign without stopping, such collision shall be deemed prima facie evidence of his failure to yield right-of-way.

Sec. 73 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 736, ch. 83, § 34, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

ARTICLE XIV—EQUIPMENT

Sec. 108.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(c) The provisions of this Article with respect to equipment on vehicles shall not apply to motorcycles or motor-driven cycles, implements of husbandry, road machinery, road rollers or farm tractors, except as herein made applicable.

(d) The Department is hereby authorized to approve or disapprove equipment, material and lighting devices as referred to in Article XIV, and to issue and enforce regulations not inconsistent with law, establishing standards and specifications for their approval, installation and adjustment when in use on motor vehicles. Such regulations shall correlate with, and, insofar as practicable, conform to the then current standards and specifications of the Society of Automotive Engineers, or in its discretion any other recognized organization which sets standards for such equipment, material and lighting equipment.

(e) The Department is further authorized to establish the procedure which shall be followed when any device is submitted for approval. Any person, firm, or corporation, may submit to the Department any such lamp, device, equipment, or material, required to be approved by the Department, and to make application that the same be tested as to conformity with the requirements of the law and the regulations of the Department. Upon such application being made, the Department shall cause such test to be made as may be necessary to determine whether to approve or disapprove. Each such applicant shall, upon the filing of his application, pay to the Department of Public Safety a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). All such fees shall be paid by the Department into the State Treasury to be deposited in the Operator's and Chauffeur's License Fund. The Department may recognize the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators' certificate of equipment approval or in its discretion a certificate from any other recognized testing organization as evidence that the minimum standards prescribed have been satisfied.

(f) When the Department has reason to believe that an approved device as being sold commercially does not comply with the requirements of this Chapter, the Department may, after giving thirty (30) days previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this State, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the Department shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this Chapter. If said device does not meet the requirements of this Chapter the Department shall give notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this State. If, at the expiration of ninety (90) days after such notice, the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the Department that said approved device as thereafter to be sold meets the requirements of this Chapter, the Department shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor until or unless such device is resubmitted to and retested by an authorized testing agency and is found to meet the requirements of this Chapter, and may require that all said devices sold since the notification following the hearing be replaced with devices that do comply with the requirements of this Chapter. The Department may at the time of the retest purchase in the open market and submit to the testing agency one or more sets of such approved devices and if such device upon such retest fails to meet the requirements of this Chapter, the Department may refuse to renew the certificate of approval of such device.

(g) Any order or act of the Department under the provisions of this section may be subject to review within ten (10) days' notice thereof by appeal to the District Court at the instance of any party in interest and in the county wherein the person aggrieved by such order or act resides, and such Court is hereby vested with jurisdiction. The proceeding on appeal shall be a trial de novo as such term is commonly used and intended in an appeal from the Justice Court to the County Court, and the burden of proof shall be on the Department.

Reflectors required to be mounted on the sides of the vehicle shall reflect the required color of light to the sides, and those mounted on the rear shall reflect a red color to the rear.

(b) Front and rear clearance lamps and identification lamps shall be capable of being seen and distinguished under normal atmospheric conditions at the times lights are required at all distances between five hundred (500) and fifty (50) feet from the front and rear, respectively, of the vehicle.

(c) Side marker lamps shall be capable of being seen and distinguished under normal atmospheric conditions at the times lights are required at all distances between five hundred (500) and fifty (50) feet from the side of the vehicle on which mounted.

The location of said lamp or lamps shall always be such that at least one (1) lamp or combination of lamps meeting the requirements of this section is installed as near as practicable to the side of the vehicle which is closest to passing traffic.

(b) Whenever a vehicle is lawfully parked upon a street or highway during the hours between a half hour after sunset and a half hour before sunrise and in the event there is sufficient light to reveal any persons and vehicles within a distance of one thousand (1,000) feet upon such street or highway, no lights need be displayed upon such parked vehicle.

(c) Whenever a vehicle is parked or stopped upon a roadway or shoulder adjacent thereto, whether attended or unattended, during the hours between a half hour after sunset and a half hour before sunrise and there is insufficient light to reveal any person or object within a distance of one thousand (1,000) feet upon such highway, such vehicle so parked or stopped shall be equipped with and shall display lamps meeting the requirements of Subsection (a).

(b) Whenever the driver of a vehicle approaches an oncoming vehicle within five hundred (500) feet, such driver shall use a distribution of light, or composite beam, so aimed that the glaring rays are not projected into the eyes of the oncoming driver. The lowermost distribution of light, or composite beam, specified in Section 126(b) and Section 139F (f) (2b) shall be deemed to avoid glare at all times, regardless of road contour and loading.

(c) Whenever the driver of a vehicle approaches another vehicle from the rear, within three hundred (300) feet, such driver shall use a distribution of light permissible under this Article other than the uppermost distribution of light specified in Sections 126(a) and 139F(f) (2a).

Single beam road lighting equipment

Sec. 128. Head lamp systems which provide only a single distribution of light shall be permitted on all farm tractors regardless of date of manufacture, and on other motor vehicles manufactured and sold prior to one (1) year after the effective date of this Act in lieu of multiple-beam road-lighting equipment herein specified if the single distribution of light complies with the following requirements and limitations:

1. The head lamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high-intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes, and in no case higher than forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead.

Special restrictions on lamps

* * * * * * * * * * *

(b) No person shall drive or move any vehicle or equipment upon any highway with any lamp or device thereon displaying a red light visible from directly in front of the center thereof. This Section shall not apply to police vehicles or to any vehicle upon which a red light visible from the front is expressly authorized or required by law.

(c) Flashing lights are prohibited except as authorized or required in Sections 122, 124, 125 and 131.

(d) The Department of Public Safety is authorized to adopt standards and specifications applicable to lighting equipment on and special warning devices to be carried by school buses consistent with the provisions of this Article, but supplemental thereto. Such standards and specifications shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform to the specifications then current as approved by the Society of Automotive Engineers.

(e) It shall be unlawful to operate any flashing warning signal light on any school bus except when any said school bus is stopped on a highway for the purpose of permitting school children to board or alight from said school bus.

(f) The Texas Highway Department shall adopt standards and specifications applicable to head lamps, clearance lamps, identification and other lamps on snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment when operated on the highways of this State in lieu of the lamps otherwise required on motor vehicles by this Article. Such standards and specifications may permit the use of flashing lights for purposes of identification on snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment when in service upon the highways. The standards and specifications for lamps referred to in this section shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform with those approved by the American Association of State Highway Officials.

(g) It shall be unlawful to operate any snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment on any highway unless the lamps thereon comply with and are lighted when and as required by the standards and specifications adopted as provided in this section.
Sec. 131(b), (c) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 753, ch. 83, § 74, eff. Aug. 30, 1971; Sec. 131(d)–(g) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 753, ch. 83, § 74, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Brakes

Sec. 132. Every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer and pole trailer, and any combination of such vehicles operating upon a highway within this State shall be equipped with brakes in compliance with the requirements of this Article.

(a) Service brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles, except special mobile equipment which is not designed or used primarily for the transportation of persons or property and only incidentally operated or moved on a highway, shall be equipped with service brakes complying with the performance requirements as required and adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle under all conditions of loading, and on any grade incident to its operation.

(b) Parking brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles shall be equipped with parking brakes adequate to hold the vehicle on any grade on which it is operated, under all conditions of loading, on a surface free from snow, ice, or loose material. The parking brakes shall be capable of being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements by the driver's muscular effort or by spring action or by equivalent means. Their operation may be assisted by the service brakes or other source of power provided that failure of the service brake actuation system or other power assisting mechanism will not prevent the parking brakes from being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements. The parking brakes shall be so designed that when once applied they shall remain applied with the required effectiveness despite exhaustion of any source of energy or leakage of any kind. The same brake drums, brake shoes and lining assemblies, brake shoe anchors and mechanical brake shoe actuation mechanism normally associated with the wheel brake assemblies may be used for both the service brakes and the parking brakes. If the means of applying the parking brakes and the service brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part shall not leave the vehicle without operative brakes.

(c) Brakes on all wheels. Every vehicle shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels except:

1. Trailers, semitrailers, or pole trailers of a gross weight not exceeding three thousand (3,000) pounds, provided that:

a. The total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers shall not exceed forty (40%) percent of the gross weight of the towing vehicle when connected to the trailer or trailers, and

b. The combination of vehicles, consisting of the towing vehicle and its total towed load, is capable of complying with the performance requirements of this Act.

2. Any vehicle being towed in driveaway or towaway operations, provided the combination of vehicles is capable of complying with the performance requirements of this Act.

3. Trucks and truck tractors having three (3) or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that when such vehicles are equipped with at least two (2) steerable axles, the wheels of one (1) steerable axle need not have brakes. However, such trucks and truck tractors must be capable of complying with the performance requirements of this Act.

4. Special mobile equipment as defined in Subsection (a) above.

5. Any farm trailer or farm semitrailer operated or moved temporarily upon the highways when its gross weight does not exceed ten thousand (10,000) pounds and when the speed of such farm trailer or farm semitrailer does not exceed thirty (30) miles per hour and when the vehicle and its operation meet all other requirements for total or partial exemption from registration fees as set forth in Section 2, Chapter 88, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1929, as last amended by Chapter 111, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 6675a—2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The term "gross weight" as used in this subsection shall mean the combined weight of the trailer or semitrailer and the weight of the load actually carried on the highway.

6. Any farm trailer or farm semitrailer operated or moved temporarily upon the highways solely to transport cotton

a. if the gross weight of the trailer or semitrailer is not more than fifteen thousand (15,000) pounds;

b. if the speed of the trailer or semitrailer is not more than thirty (30) miles per hour; and

c. if the trailer or semitrailer is totally or partially exempt from the regular registration fees under Section 2, Chapter 88, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1929, as amended (Article 6675a—2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(d) Automatic trailer brake application upon breakaway. Every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer equipped with air or vacuum actuated brakes and every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer with a gross weight in excess of three thousand (3,000) pounds, shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels and of such character as to be applied automatically and promptly, and remain applied for at least fifteen (15) minutes, upon breakaway from the towing vehicle.

(e) Tractor brakes protected. Every motor vehicle used to tow a trailer, semitrailer or pole trailer equipped with brakes, shall be equipped with means for providing that in case of a breakaway of the towed vehicle, the towing vehicle will be capable of being stopped by the use of its service brakes.

(f) Trailer air reservoirs safeguarded. Air brake systems installed on trailers shall be so designed that the supply reservoir used to provide air for the brakes shall be safeguarded against backflow of air from the reservoir through the supply line.

(g) Two (2) means of emergency brake operation.

1. Air brakes. After January 1, 1972, every towing vehicle, when used to tow another vehicle equipped with air controlled brakes, in other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with two (2) means for emergency application of the trailer brakes. One of these means shall apply the brakes automatically in the event of a reduction of the towing vehicle air supply to a fixed pressure which shall be not lower than twenty (20) pounds per square inch nor higher than forty-five (45) pounds per square inch. The other means shall be a manually controlled device for applying and releasing the brakes, readily operable by a person seated in the driving seat, and its emergency position or method of operation shall be clearly indicated. In no instance may the manual means be so arranged as to permit its use to prevent operation of the automatic means. The automatic and the manual means required by this section may be, but are not required to be, separate.

2. Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1972, every towing vehicle used to tow other vehicles equipped with vacuum brakes, in operations other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall have, in addition to the single control device required by Subsection (h), a second control device which can be used to operate the brakes on towed vehicles in emergencies. The second control shall be independent of brake air, hydraulic, and other pressure, and independent if other controls, unless the braking system be so arranged that failure of the pressure upon which the second control depends will cause the towed vehicle brakes to be applied automatically. The second control is not required to provide modulated braking.

(h) Single control to operate all brakes. After January 1, 1972, every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer and pole trailer, and every combination of such vehicles, equipped with brakes shall have the braking system so arranged that one control device can be used to operate all service brakes. This requirement does not prohibit vehicles from being equipped with an additional control device to be used to operate brakes on the towed vehicles. This regulation does not apply to driveaway or towaway operations unless the brakes on the individual vehicles are designed to be operated by a single control on the towing vehicle.

(i) Reservoir capacity and check valve.

1. Air brakes. Every bus, truck or truck tractor with air operated brakes shall be equipped with at least one (1) reservoir sufficient to insure that, when fully charged to the maximum pressure as regulated by the air compressor governor cut-out setting, a full service brake application may be made without lowering such reservoir pressure by more than twenty (20%) percent. Each reservoir shall be provided with means for readily draining accumulated oil or water.

2. Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1972, every truck with three (3) or more axles equipped with vacuum assistor type brakes and every truck tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum brakes shall be equipped with a reserve capacity or a vacuum reservoir sufficient to insure that, with the reserve capacity or reservoir fully charged and with the engine stopped, a full service brake application may be made without depleting the vacuum supply by more than forty (40%) percent.

3. Reservoir safeguarded. All motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers and pole trailers, when equipped with air or vacuum reservoirs or reserve capacity as required by this section, shall have such reservoirs or reserve capacity so safeguarded by a check valve or equivalent device that in the event of failure or leakage in its connection to the source of compressed air or vacuum, the stored air or vacuum shall not be depleted by the leak or failure.

(j) Warning devices.

1. Air brakes. Every bus, truck or truck tractor using compressed air for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on any towed vehicle, shall be provided with a warning signal, other than a pressure gauge, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the air reservoir pressure of the vehicle is below fifty (50) percent of the air compressor governor cut-out pressure. In addition, each such vehicle shall be equipped with a pressure gauge visible to the driver, which indicates in pounds per square inch the pressure available for braking.

2. Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1972, every truck tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum operated brakes and every truck with three (3) or more axles using vacuum in the operation of its brakes, except those in driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with a warning signal, other than a gauge indicating vacuum, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the vacuum in the vehicle's supply reservoir or reserve capacity is less than eight (8) inches of mercury.

3. Combination of warning devices. When a vehicle required to be equipped with a warning device is equipped with both air and vacuum power for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on a towed vehicle, the warning devices may be, but are not required to be, combined into a single device which will serve both purposes. A gauge or gauges indicating pressure or vacuum shall not be deemed to be an adequate means of satisfying this requirement.

(k) Performance ability of brakes. Every motor vehicle and combination of vehicles, at all times and under all conditions of loading, upon application of the service brake, shall be capable of:

1. Developing a braking force that is not less than the percentage of its gross weight tabulated herein for its classification;

2. Decelerating to a stop from not more than twenty (20) miles per hour at not less than the feet per second per second tabulated herein for its classification, and

3. Stopping from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour in not more than the distance tabulated herein for its classification, such distance to be measured from the point at which movement of the service brake pedal or control begins.

Tests for deceleration and stopping distance shall be made on a substantially level (not to exceed plus or minus one [1] percent grade), dry, smooth, hard surface that is free from loose material.

If the motor vehicle, trailer, semi-trailer, pole trailer or mobile home, registered in this State, is damaged to the apparent extent that it would require repair before passing state inspection, the investigating officer shall remove the inspection certificate from the vehicle windshield and shall give the operator of the vehicle a dated receipt. Within thirty (30) days of the date indicated on the receipt, the vehicle shall be reinspected. The periods of inspection shall be fixed by the Department, provided, however, that at no time shall a certificate of inspection or a receipt for a certificate of inspection be required or demanded as a condition precedent to securing a license plate for any motor vehicle, regardless of any period or periods of inspection as may be fixed by the Department. The Department shall have power to make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, with respect to the periods of inspection.

State appointed inspection stations

Sec. 141. (a) The Department may establish state-appointed inspection stations to carry out the provisions of this Section. Such stations may be located anywhere in the state, and should any be established or appointed, there shall be at least one (1) for each county. The Department is authorized to furnish instructions to, and to supervise official inspection stations and mechanics for inspection of motor vehicles, trailers, semi-trailers, pole trailers, and mobile homes for the proper and safe performance of tires, brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust systems, and exhaust emission systems. The certification of persons to inspect vehicles shall be in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department. Every person desiring to operate as an official inspection station shall file an application for a certificate of appointment with the Department.

The application shall be made upon a form prescribed and furnished by the Department, and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his place of business within the state, and such other information as the Department may require. If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business within the state, a separate application shall be made for each place of business.

If the applicant is an association, the application shall set forth the names and the addresses of the persons constituting the association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof, and any other information prescribed by the Department for purposes of identification. The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner, if a natural person; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached written evidence of his authority.

Only such locations which fulfill the Department's requirements and whose owners or proprietors comply with Department regulations shall qualify and be appointed and issued a certificate. Upon approval of an application, the Department shall issue to the owner a certificate of appointment as an official inspection station for the place of business within the state set forth in the application.

Certificates of appointment shall not be assignable, and shall be valid for the owners in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated therein, and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the place for which issued.

Upon being advised that an application will be approved, the applicant shall provide the bond hereinafter required and a fee of Ten Dollars ($10) which shall constitute the certificate fee until August 31st of the odd-numbered year following the date of appointment. Thereafter, appointments shall be made for two-year periods and the certificate fee for each such period shall be Ten Dollars ($10). All certificate fees shall be placed in a fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund and shall be used by the Department in the administration of this Act.

(b) Every owner of an official inspection station shall be required to furnish a bond payable to the State of Texas in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), to be approved by the Director of the Department, with two or more good and solvent sureties, or one corporate surety qualified by law to make such bond, to indemnify the state against the violation of any of the terms and conditions of this Act. Except where the surety is a corporate surety as herein provided, the bond shall first be submitted to the county judge of the county in which the inspection station is located, who shall make his recommendation to the Director whether the bond be approved or disapproved. Any inspector or any official or employee of any inspection station who shall issue an official certificate of inspection without having made an inspection of the vehicle for which it is issued or who shall knowingly or willfully issue an official inspection certificate for a motor vehicle or vehicles, the tires, brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust system, and exhaust emission system of which are not at the time of such issuance in a good condition and in conformity with the laws of this state shall forfeit said bond to the State of Texas.

Sec. 141(a), (b) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2901, ch. 960, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1973.

(c) Any owner of an official inspection station who by himself, agent, servant, or employee, violates any provision of this Section or requires the repair of any mechanism or equipment other than that set forth in the uniform standards of safety and items to be inspected as established, shall upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200). The Department may for cause, upon notice of an administrative hearing, cancel or suspend the certificate of any inspection station or cancel or suspend the certificate of any person to inspect vehicles and the decision of the Department in respect to the cancellation or suspension of the station license or the cancellation or suspension of the certificate of any person to inspect vehicles, or the refusal to reissue a license to any official inspection station or the refusal to reissue the certificate for any person to inspect vehicles shall be subject to review as provided herein. Any aggrieved party may appeal from the decision of said administrative hearing. The proceedings on appeal shall be a trial de novo, as such term is commonly used and intended in an appeal from the justice court to the county court, and which appeal shall be taken in any district court of the county in which the inspection station is located. At such trial the burden of proof shall always be on the Department and never shifts to the aggrieved party.
Sec. 141(c) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2901, ch. 960, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1973.

(d) The fee for compulsory inspection to be made under this Section shall be Two Dollars ($2.00). Fifty cents (50¢) of each fee shall be paid to the Department and shall be placed in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund for the purpose of paying the expense of the administration of this law. The Department may require each official inspection station to make an advance payment of fifty cents (50¢) for each inspection certificate furnished to it, and the money so received shall be placed in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Fund, and no further payment to the Department shall be required upon issuance of the certificate. If such advance payment has been made, the Department shall refund to the inspection station the amount of fifty cents (50¢) for each unissued certificate which the inspection station returns to the Department in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Department.

If an inspection disclosed the necessity for adjustments, corrections, or repairs to tires, brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust system, and exhaust emission system, such motor vehicle shall be reinspected free of charge after the adjustments, corrections, or repairs have been made. Any such motor vehicle under the terms of this Act, if involved in an accident subsequent to the required inspection, shall return to an inspection station after adequate repairs are made for a second and reinspection procedure.

(e) No certificate of inspection shall be issued by any inspector or inspection station until the tires, brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust system, and exhaust emission system have been inspected and found to be in proper and safe condition and to comply with the laws of this state. A tire may not be found in proper and safe condition unless it is free of fabric breaks and has at least one-sixteenth of an inch of tread at two distinct points. No person shall make, issue, or knowingly use an imitation or counterfeit of an official inspection certificate.

No person shall display or cause or permit to be displayed any inspection certificate knowing the same to be fictitious or issued for another vehicle or issued without the required inspection having been made.

No person shall perform an inspection or issue an inspection certificate without such person first having been certified to do so by the Department.

No person shall drive or move on any highway any motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, pole trailer, mobile home, or combination thereof unless the equipment upon any and every said vehicle is in good working order and adjustment as required in this Act and said vehicle is in such safe mechanical condition as not to endanger the driver or other occupant or any person upon the highway.

Sec. 141(d), (e) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2901, ch. 960, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1973.

Standards of safety; certificates of inspection

Sec. 142. (a) The Department may establish uniform standards of safety as prescribed in Article XIV of this Act wherever applicable with respect to tires, brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust systems, and exhaust emission systems. A tire may not be found in proper and safe condition unless it is free of fabric breaks or if it has, in at least two distinct points, one-sixteenth of an inch of tread or less. Such standards of safety shall be posted in every official inspection station. Every motor vehicle inspected shall be required to conform in all respects to the standards of safety established pursuant to this Section.

(b) The Department shall furnish serially numbered certificates of inspection to inspection stations. Each certificate, when issued, shall bear such information as required by the Department for the type of vehicle that was inspected. The certificate shall be invalid after the end of the twelfth month in which the vehicle was last inspected, approved, and the certificate of inspection issued. A certificate of inspection and approval for any vehicle shall be attached to or produced for such vehicle as the Department may require. A record and report as prescribed by the Department shall be made of every inspection and every certificate so issued. No unused certificates of inspection representing a prior inspection period shall be issued after the beginning of the next ensuing period.

Maximum speeds of vehicles

Sec. 166. (a) No person shall drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable and prudent under the circumstances then existing. Except when a special hazard exists that requires lower speeds for compliance with paragraph (b) of this Section, the limits specified in this Section or established as hereinafter authorized shall be lawful, but any speed in excess of the limits specified in this Section or established as hereinafter authorized shall be prima facie evidence that the speed is not reasonable or prudent and that it is unlawful:

1. Thirty (30) miles per hour in any urban district;

2. Seventy (70) miles per hour during the daytime and sixty-five (65) miles per hour during the nighttime for any passenger car, motorcycle, or motor-driven cycle on any State or Federal numbered highway outside any urban district, including farm-and/or ranch-to-market roads, and sixty (60) miles per hour during the daytime and fifty-five (55) miles per hour during the nighttime for any passenger car, motorcycle, or motor-driven cycle on all other highways outside any urban district;

3. Sixty (60) miles per hour for all other vehicles on any highway outside any urban district;

4. Authority of State Highway Commission to alter maximum speed limits

Sec. 167. (a) Whenever the State Highway Commission shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any prima facie maximum speed limit hereinbefore set forth is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of the highway system, taking into consideration the width and condition of the pavement and other circumstances on such portion of said highway as well as the usual traffic thereon, said State Highway Commission may determine and declare a reasonable and safe prima facie maximum speed limit thereat or thereon, and another reasonable and safe speed when conditions caused by wet or inclement weather require it, by proper order of the Commission entered on its minutes, which limits, when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected, shall be effective at such intersection or other place or part of the highway system at all times or during hours of daylight or darkness, or at such other times as may be determined; provided, however, that said State Highway Commission shall not have the authority to modify or alter the rules established in Paragraph (b) of Section 166, nor to establish a speed limit higher than seventy (70) miles per hour; and provided further that the speed limits for vehicles described in Paragraphs a, b, and c of Subdivision 5 of Subsection (a) of Section 166 shall not be increased.

(b) No person shall drive any vehicle equipped with solid rubber or cushion tires at a speed greater than a maximum of ten (10) miles per hour.

(c) No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure, when such structure is signposted as provided in this section.

(d) The State Highway Commission upon State highways, the Texas Turnpike Authority upon any part of a turnpike constructed and maintained by it, and local authorities on highways under their jurisdiction, may conduct an investigation of any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway, and if it shall thereupon find that such structure cannot with safety to itself withstand vehicles traveling at a speed otherwise permissible under this Act, the Commission, Texas Turnpike Authority, or local authority shall determine and declare the maximum speed of vehicles which such structure can safely withstand, and shall cause or permit suitable signs stating such maximum speed to be erected and maintained before each end of such structure.

(b) The Commissioners Court may establish load limits for any road or bridge, and may authorize the county traffic officer, if one or more such officers have been appointed, or any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, or deputy constable, to weigh vehicles for the purpose of ascertaining whether a vehicle is loaded in excess of the prescribed limit.

Such report, the form of which shall be prescribed by the Department, shall contain information to enable the Department to determine whether the requirements for the deposit of security under Section 5 are inapplicable by reason of the existence of insurance or other exceptions specified in this Act. The Commissioners Court shall classify all public roads in their counties as follows:

4. The Commissioners Court of any county coming under the provisions of this Act shall provide proper plans and specifications of a standard cattle guard to be used on the roads of said county, said plans and specifications to be plainly written, supplemented by such drawings as may be necessary and shall be available to the inspection of the citizenship of such county. The Commissioners Court of any county coming under the provisions of this Act is hereby authorized and empowered to construct cattle guards on the first class, second class, and third class roads of said county and pay for same out of the Road and Bridge Funds of said county when in their judgment they believe the construction of such cattle guards to be to the best interest of the citizens of said county.

CHAPTER SIX—PARTICULAR COUNTIES, LAW RELATING TO

Art. 6812b—1. Counties of 49,400 to 52,000 population; county engineer; duties

County engineer

Section 1. The commissioners court of any county having a population of not less than 49,400 nor more than 52,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may appoint a county engineer, but the selection shall be controlled by considerations of skill and ability for the task. The engineer may be selected at any regular meeting of the commissioners court, or at any special meeting called for that purpose. The engineer selected shall be a Registered Professional Engineer in the State of Texas. The engineer shall hold his office for a period of two years, his term of office expiring concurrently with the terms of other county officers, and he may be removed at the pleasure of the commissioners court. The engineer shall receive a salary to be fixed by the commissioners court not to exceed the amount of the salary paid to the highest county official, to be paid out of the Road and Bridge Fund. The engineer, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take the oath of office prescribed by law, and shall execute a bond in the sum of $15,000 with a good and sufficient surety or sureties thereon, payable to the county judge of the county and successors in office in trust, for the use and the benefit of the Road and Bridge Fund, of the county to be approved by the court, conditioned that such engineer will faithfully and efficiently discharge and perform all of the duties required of him by law and by the orders of said commissioners court and shall faithfully and honestly and in due time account for all of the money, property and materials placed in his custody.

Classification and record of roads

Sec. 2. (a) The county engineer shall, under the direction of the commissioners court, and as soon as practicable, classify all public roads in such county, and such classification when completed, and when approved by the court, shall become a part of the permanent records of roads and bridges of said county. He shall prepare a suitable map of which shall be delineated in appropriate colors the various roads which shall be designated as first, second, and third class roads. The map shall show to which place each road belongs and the nature of its construction. He shall make a complete indexed record of each county road in the county and all bridges. The records shall show when each county road was dedicated to the use of the public, a complete description as to location, measured length, width of right-of-way, character of construction, and terminals of same.

(b) Each road shall be indexed in the record by the same number and name as it is delineated on the map. As new roads are opened and improved, and the existing roads are widened or improved so as to change their class, such facts shall be added to the record of such roads in the "Records of Roads." Such information shall be made available to the public; provided, however that any omission in respect to the above requirement shall not invalidate any contract for the construction or repair of any road or highway in said county, and where such classification, records and indexes have heretofore been prepared there shall be no necessity to repeat the same in the absence of public necessity therefor, but same may be amended, added to or taken from as the facts of public need may demand.

Inventory and appraisal of equipment; disposal and purchase

Sec. 3. The county engineer shall at the end of every 12 months, acting in conjunction with each commissioner of the county, make a complete inventory and appraisement of all tools, machinery, equipment, materials, trucks, cars, and other property owned by the respective commissioners, and transmit the same in written form to the commissioners court and the county auditor, which report shall be kept as a permanent inventory record by the county auditor. When any of said tools, machinery, trucks, cars, and other property becomes unusable, the commissioners court shall enter an order upon the minutes of the court, stating such facts and reason for disposing of such equipment and shall have authority to dispose of same as it deems best. When in its opinion it is necessary to purchase other machinery, supplies, tools, and other equipment and materials, the commissioners court shall enter an order on the minutes showing the necessity therefor. All equipment purchased or acquired as herein specified, shall be shown on the permanent inventory record.

Master plan

Sec. 4. The county engineer shall, when funds are available and when authorized by the commissioners court, to do so, make a careful and thorough study of all roads at that time opened and constructed with a view of determining what new roads and connections of roads should be opened and constructed, as well as what roads should be widened and improved. In making such survey, he should take into consideration the convenience of the traveling public, and especially the convenience of the citizenship of the county, so that each community a part of the county shall have easy and practical connection with the other and the state highway system of roads in the county, thereby furnishing to the citizenship of the county a convenient means of ingress and egress into and out of every city and town, as well as every other community in the county. The roads indicated in such surveys to be opened and constructed, as well as existing roads that are designated to be widened and improved, shall be located and designated with the view of giving the entire county an efficient road system. The commissioners court shall, in selecting roads or new roads, as well as the improvement of existing roads, look to the density of the population and amount of traffic that will normally flow over such roads; such survey when completed by the engineer, and when adopted by the commissioners court at a regular meeting thereof, shall be known as the Master Plan. When such Master Plan has been completed and adopted by the court as it is stipulated, the same shall be made into permanent record form and kept by the county engineer, and after such adoption, all new construction, widening and permanent improvement shall be done in accordance with such Master Plan and with the view of ultimately completing the same, both as to location and character of construction. The construction of said Master Plan shall proceed as the available funds of the county will permit, and each unit of such construction shall be made in accordance with such Master Plan. The order in which the roads or projects in the construction of said Master Plan are constructed shall be determined by the county engineer, with the approval of the commissioners court and in determining the priority of roads or projects, the engineer and court shall take into consideration the necessity and convenience of the public and should give priority to those roads or projects that will result in the greatest service to the greatest number of the citizenship of the county, looking at all times to the entire county as a unit and wholly disregarding precinct lines.

Adoption and amendment of master plan

Sec. 5. The commissioners court shall when said Master Plan is submitted to them for adoption, or if after adoption, an amendment or change thereto shall be deemed advisable, set a date at a regular meeting of commissioners court called for that purpose, and give public notice thereof at least two weeks in advance of such meeting and the purpose thereof, inviting the citizenship of the county to be present to protest any part of said Master Plan and also to make such suggestions as they deem pertinent in connection with same, or any change therein, but the decision of the commissioners court shall become and be final and conclusive as to said Master Plan, and no succeeding commissioners court shall have the power or authority to alter or change or amend any of the provisions thereof except by unanimous vote of the commissioners court. Provided, that where such Master Plan has once been adopted, there shall be no necessity to repeat the same in absence of public necessity thereof, for same may be amended and altered when public necessity therefor is shown, and after notice is given as herein above provided.

Subdivisions

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the county engineer and the commissioners court in each respective precinct to cause the Master Plan to be conformed to the needs and demands of existing and new subdivisions by constructing adequate highways leading from such subdivisions to the county seat. Provided that from and after the passage of this Act, the commissioners court, before approving the plan or plans of any subdivision lying outside the corporate limits of any city, town, or village, as required by Article 6626, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall require such subdivision to enter into a written contract in agreement with the county, then such subdivider or dirt dealer will grade, and gravel all streets and provide all necessary drainage structures within such tract of land so subdivided. Such street improvements and drainage structures shall be in accordance with standard plans and specifications prepared by the county engineer. Such contracts shall be for the benefit of any person or persons, firm or corporation who may thereafter acquire by purchase or otherwise any lot or lots in said addition or subdivision, and the faithful performance of said contract as to the initial improvements of said streets shall be deemed a part of the consideration paid for said lot and be read into the contract of sale of same, and such contract shall be enforceable at the instance, if necessary, of the owner or owners of any lot or lots in a given subdivision, suing singularly or as a group or class. After such initial street improvements have been completed in accordance with such plans, said streets then become and remain a part of the county road system and shall be maintained by the county unless and until included within the corporate limits of a city, town or village capable of maintaining its own streets.

Inspections of plats, subdivision plans and land encompassed; advice to commissioners court and developers

Sec. 7. The county engineer when directed to do so by the commissioners court of the county, shall inspect all plats and plans of subdivisions to be recorded within said county, and make an on-site inspection of the land encompassed within said subdivision and advise the court as to the roads, drainage, sewage, and all aspects of said subdivision and terrain. The county engineer when and if required by the commissioners court, shall affix his signature to said plat along with the county judge and the commissioners court upon any plat approved and accepted by the commissioners court and filed in the county clerk's office. The county engineer will offer advice and suggestions to said developer and commissioners court in order to promote conformity with any and all rules and regulations for subdividing as laid out by the commissioners court.

Inspection of various utility districts within county; map

Sec. 8. The county engineer when directed by the commissioners court shall make such inspections of any and all utility districts, water districts, sewage districts, and any other type district formed within the confines of the county, to ascertain whether or not said districts meet the state and county requirements. The county engineer will keep a map setting out each and every type district created within the county and make it available for public use at any and all times required to do so.

Assistance on county functions

Sec. 9. The county engineer when requested to do so by the commissioners court or by a commissioner shall assist said commissioner in connection with any county road in said county, any drainage problem, public buildings, health and sanitation district, planning commissions, and any other function or service over which the commissioner or commissioners court might have jurisdiction.

Employees

Sec. 10. The commissioners court shall employ all help necessary for the discharge of their public service or for the discharge of the duties of the county engineer. Such employees shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the court, but in all such cases an order shall be passed and entered on the minutes of the court, showing in such case the public necessity for such employment and the amount of compensation to be paid each employee and the fund out of which it is to be paid.

Work records; daily time sheet

Sec. 11. The county engineer shall keep or cause to be kept, in duplicate, a daily time sheet which shall show the amount of time and the character of work performed and the place where the same is performed by himself and each person working for the county engineer, and such other records in connection therewith as the commissioners court and county auditor may require, one copy of which shall be furnished to the county auditor, and one copy shall be retained by the engineer.

County commissioners; duties

Sec. 12. This Act shall in no way diminish, alter or eliminate any of the duties presently handled by the commissioners court or by any individual commissioner. Each member of the commissioners court shall be and he is hereby required to devote all of his time unless prevented by illness to the duties of his office, and shall be in attendance at all sessions of the court.

Cumulative effect; conflict or inconsistency

Sec. 13. The provisions of this Act are and shall be held and construed to be cumulative of all general laws or special laws of this state on the subject treated in this Act when not in conflict or inconsistent herewith, but in case of such conflict or inconsistency in whole or in part, this Act shall control.

Severability

Sec. 14. If any section, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word in this Act shall be held to be unconstitutional, the remaining portions of same shall nevertheless be valid and it is declared that such remaining portions would have been included in this Act though the unconstitutional portion had been omitted.

County engineer; release from position

Sec. 15. If at any time the commissioners court at any time feels that the county engineer position is no further of any necessity or benefit to the county, then said commissioners court has the authority to release said engineer without any obligation to fill said position or vacancy.

If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money.

The Tax Assessor-Collector shall cause to be compiled like records of taxes delinquent due any district for which he collects from tax rolls other than the state and county rolls, and when approved by the governing body of the particular district the cost of same shall be allowed in the manner herein provided. If any Tax Assessor-Collector fails to compile the delinquent tax record, or recompile or supplement as provided for in this Act, all fees, commissions, payments or compensations accruing to him for the collection of delinquent taxes shall be held in abeyance until such delinquent tax record has been compiled; provided, however, should the Commissioners Court and Comptroller of Public Accounts find in any instance the Tax Assessor-Collector was unable to comply with the requirements of this Act relative to compiling delinquent tax records because of the maximum compensation herein fixed, this provision shall not be applicable. If for any reason the Assessor-Collector of Taxes and his regular deputies are unable to perform the duties required by this Act, then such Assessor-Collector shall contract with a competent person or persons to compile, recompile or supplement the delinquent tax record, as the case may be, at a fee not to exceed twenty cents (20¢) per item or written line of the original copy of such record. CHAPTER 6. MOTOR VEHICLE RETAIL SALES AND USE TAX

Art. 6.01 Imposition of Tax

(1) There is hereby levied a tax upon every retail sale of every motor vehicle sold in this State, such tax to be equal to four percent (4%) of the total consideration paid or to be paid for said motor vehicle. In the case of a motor vehicle purchased to be rented or held for rental, the tax is levied on the gross rental receipts of the renting of such motor vehicle at the same rate as that tax levied in Article 20.02 of this title. Provided, however, that where the period for rental is intended to be for more than 31 days, such rental is deemed to be a lease as defined in this Article and the purchaser-lessor must pay the tax on total consideration paid or to be paid for said motor vehicle. The tax on rental receipts shall be collected by the owner from the renter who has exclusive use of the motor vehicle for a period of time and has the right to direct the manner of use of the vehicle, whether exercised or not, for that period. It is unlawful and shall be a misdemeanor for the owner of the rented motor vehicle to advertise that the tax or any part thereof will be absorbed or assumed by the renter.

(2) There is hereby levied a use tax upon every motor vehicle purchased at retail sale outside this State and brought into this State for use upon the public highways by any person, firm or corporation who is a resident of this State or who is domiciled or doing business in this State. The tax imposed by this subsection shall be equal to four percent (4%) of the total consideration paid or to be paid for said vehicle at said retail sale. The tax shall be the obligation of and be paid by the person, firm or corporation operating said motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State.

(6) In the renting of motor vehicles, as that term is defined in this Article, and where the gross rental receipts are subjected to tax in lieu of a tax on the total consideration paid or to be paid for a motor vehicle, the purchaser shall furnish the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes with a resale certificate in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.04 of this Chapter, whereupon the Tax Collector shall accept the motor vehicle for registration or transfer.

(7) Motor vehicles purchased to be rented or to be held for renting must be purchased by an owner for use in a business where the renting of motor vehicles is an established business. Every motor vehicle used in a business which either rents or leases motor vehicles to others, as those terms are defined in this Article, and for consideration, must have paid the tax on total consideration at the time of purchase of those motor vehicles intended for leasing or must be collecting and paying the gross rentals receipts tax on renting those motor vehicles. Any motor vehicle leased in this State and owned by the original manufacturer must be registered in this State and taxed in accordance with the provisions of this Article. If a person engages in both renting and leasing of motor vehicles, he shall keep complete and adequate records, segregating or enabling the segregation of both types of transactions.

(8) When the owner of a motor vehicle changes the status of the motor vehicle from a rental unit to a lease unit, the owner shall so inform the State Comptroller of Public Accounts of such change on a form to be supplied by the Comptroller, and the owner shall then pay the tax on such motor vehicle based on the owner's book value and at the rate provided in this Article.

Secs. (1), (2) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1196, ch. 292, art. 2, § 1, eff. July 1, 1971; Secs. (6) to (8) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1197, ch. 292, art. 2, § 2, eff. July 1, 1971.

Art. 6.03 Title Definitions

(B) Retail Sale. The term 'retail sale' as herein used shall include all sales of motor vehicles except those whereby the purchaser acquires a motor vehicle for the exclusive purpose of resale and not for use and shall not include those operated under and in accordance with the terms of Article 6686, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. The term 'retail sale' also shall include rentals the gross receipts from which are subject to the tax imposed by this Chapter, and purchases used or to be held for in such rentals shall be considered purchases for resale.

(C) Motor Vehicle. The term 'motor vehicle' as herein used shall mean every self-propelled vehicle in or by which any person or property is or may be transported upon a public highway, including trailers and semitrailers, and also including house trailers as such term is defined by the Certificate of Title Act.[1] It shall not mean any device moved only by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks and shall not include farm machinery or farm trailers or road-building machinery or any self-propelled vehicle used exclusively to move any of the three (3) immediately preceding vehicles.

(D) Total Consideration

(3) Any person purchasing motor vehicles for resale at retail who has obtained a certificate of title to a motor vehicle which he uses for personal or business purposes may deduct the fair market value of such vehicle from the 'total consideration' when such person purchases another motor vehicle upon which he obtains a certificate of title as a substitute vehicle for personal or business use and the original vehicle is offered for sale at retail.

(E) Rental or Renting. Those terms as herein used shall mean the agreeing by the owner to give exclusive use of a motor vehicle to another for a consideration and for a period of time not to exceed 31 days under any one agreement.

[1] See Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 1436—1, § 2a.

Art. 6.04 Collection of Taxes

The taxes on total consideration paid or to be paid levied in this Chapter shall be collected by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the county in which any such motor vehicle is first registered or first transferred after such a sale; the Tax Collector shall refuse to accept for registration or for transfer any motor vehicle until the tax thereon is paid or he is furnished with a resale certificate in accordance with Article 6.01(6) of this Chapter.

The taxes on gross rental receipts levied in this Chapter shall be reported and paid to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts in the same manner that the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Taxes of this State are reported and paid by retailers under Chapter 20, Article 20.05. Motor vehicle owners required to collect, report and pay the taxes on gross rental receipts imposed by this Chapter shall register as sellers with the State Comptroller of Public Accounts and obtain from him a Motor Vehicle Retail Seller's Permit in the same manner as required under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax laws of this State, Article 20.031 of this title.

When a tax becomes due on a motor vehicle purchased outside of this State and brought into this State for use upon the highways the person, firm or corporation operating said motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State shall pay the tax imposed by Article 6.01(2) to the Tax Collector of the county in which such motor vehicle is to be registered. The tax shall be paid at the time application is made for registration of said motor vehicle, and the Tax Collector shall refuse to issue the registration license until the tax is paid or he is furnished with a resale certificate in accordance with Article 6.01(6) of this Chapter. Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1198, ch. 292, art. 2, § 7, eff. July 1, 1971.

Art. 6.07 Receipts; Disposition of Collections

The Tax Assessor and Collector shall issue a receipt to the person paying the taxes imposed by this Chapter, making two (2) duplicate copies of the said receipt. The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall prescribe the form of the receipt. On the tenth day of each month, the Tax Assessor and Collector shall forward ninety-five percent (95%) of the money collected from the taxes imposed by this Chapter to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, together with one duplicate copy of each receipt issued by him to persons paying the tax or fee imposed by this Chapter. The Tax Assessor and Collector shall retain one duplicate receipt as a permanent record in his office and shall retain five percent (5%) of the taxes collected as fees of office, or to be paid into the officers' salary fund of the county as provided by General Law.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 892, ch. 121, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

The State Treasurer shall fix the amount of the bond, in an amount equal to one and one-half times the credit in stamps and/or meter settings requested by the distributor and approved by the State Treasurer for the purchase of stamps and/or meter settings during the succeeding month. Any distributor who fails to forward the proper remittance by the due date shall be notified by the State Treasurer within five (5) days after the due date to appear within five (5) days before the Treasurer to show cause why he should not be denied the privilege of ordering stamps as herein provided, and if such distributor shall fail to show good cause, the Treasurer is hereby authorized to discontinue the shipment of stamps or the setting of meters as provided in this Section and to enforce payment of the bond.

Every person, other than a distributing agent, bonded distributor, or common carrier, shall before receiving or accepting delivery of any cigarettes without stamps affixed to evidence the payment of the tax, obtain from the Treasurer the requisite amount or number of stamps necessary to stamp such cigarettes and the possession of any unstamped cigarettes without the possession of the requisite amount or number of stamps shall be prima facie evidence that said cigarettes are possessed for the purpose of making a 'first sale' thereof without stamps and without payment of the tax levied herein.

Every distributor in this State shall cause all cigarettes received by him to have the requisite denominations and amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax as levied herein, within ninety-six (96) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receiving delivery of them.

(a) Upon cigars of all description weighing not more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000), one cent (1¢) for each ten (10) cigars or fraction thereof.

(b) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for not more than three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per one thousand (1,000).

(c) (1) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing no substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, having a factory list price of less than one hundred seventy dollars ($170) per thousand (1,000), twelve dollars ($12) per thousand (1,000).

(2) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing no substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, having a factory list price of one hundred seventy dollars ($170) or more per thousand (1,000), fifteen dollars ($15) per thousand (1,000).

(3) Upon cigars of all description weighing more than three (3) pounds per one thousand (1,000) sold at factory list price exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals for over three and three-tenths cents (3.3¢) each, containing a substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients, fifteen dollars ($15) per thousand (1,000).

(4) All cigars described in this Paragraph (c) are presumed to contain a substantial amount of non-tobacco ingredients unless the report to the Comptroller made for the purpose of establishing the tax upon such cigars is accompanied by an affidavit, by the manufacturer when the manufacturer prepares such report or by both the manufacturer and the distributor, when the distributor prepares such report, stating that specific cigars described in such report contain no sheet wrapper, sheet binder, or sheet filler.

(d) Upon all chewing tobacco and all smoking tobacco including granulated, plug-cut, crimp-cut, ready-rubbed, and other kinds and forms of tobacco prepared in such manner as to be suitable for smoking in a pipe or cigarette: the tax shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the factory list price, exclusive of any trade discount, special discount, or deals. Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1205, ch. 292, art. 6, § 1, eff. July 1, 1971.

Art. 8.04 Report to be Filed with Comptroller

On or before the tenth day of each calendar month every distributor shall file with the Comptroller in Austin, Travis County, Texas, on a form prescribed by the Comptroller, a report covering the preceding month which shall show such information as the Comptroller may require of cigars and tobacco products handled by said distributor during the preceding month including all such products purchased, received, acquired or ordered, all such products sold, distributed, used, lost or otherwise disposed of, all such products on hand at the beginning and end of said month, and such other information pertinent to cigars and tobacco products handled and the taxes due on said products as the Comptroller may require.

The distributor shall, at the time of making said report, pay to the State of Texas at the office of the Comptroller the taxes levied herein upon all cigars and tobacco products sold, used or otherwise disposed of by him during the preceding month, which said tax payment shall be in legal tender or in proper form of money order or exchange made payable to the State Treasurer.

If any distributor shall fail to file such report and pay tax as required by this Chapter, where some shall be due, he shall forfeit five percent (5%) of the amount of tax due as a penalty, and after the first thirty (30) days, he shall forfeit an additional five percent (5%) of such tax. Provided, however, that the penalty shall never be less than One Dollar ($1). Delinquent taxes shall draw interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum beginning sixty (60) days from the date due. Venue for the collection of such penalties by suit shall be in Travis County, Texas.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1206, ch. 292, art. 6, § 2, eff. July 1, 1971.

Art. 9.01 Definitions

* * * * * * * * * * *

(14) "Wholesaler" or "Jobber" shall mean and include any distributor as defined or other person who purchases tax paid motor fuel at wholesale from a duly licensed distributor for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers, or for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers and bulk users.

(15) "Bulk User" shall mean and include any person who purchases tax paid motor fuel for delivery in quantities of twenty-five hundred (2500) gallons or more per delivery into storage facilities maintained by him primarily for delivery of such motor fuel into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

Sec. (7) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2031, ch. 626, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971; Secs. (14), (15) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2031, ch. 626, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Sections 1 to 6 of the 1971 act amended this article, arts. 9.02, 9.07 and 9.13. Sections 7 to 9 thereof provided:

"Sec. 7. Saving Clause. All taxes, penalties and interest incurred and all liens created and bonds executed to secure their payment under any laws repealed or amended by this Act prior to its effective date, are hereby declared to be legal and valid obligations to this State; and any offense committed or any fines or penalties incurred under any laws repealed or amended by this Act prior to its effective date, shall not be affected by the repeal or amendment of any such laws but the punishment of such offenses and recovery of such fines, penalties and interest shall take place as if the laws repealed or amended had remained in force.

"Sec. 8. Severability. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 9. Repealer. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are, so far as such confliction exists, hereby repealed and this Act shall prevail over any conflicting provisions of law."

Art. 9.02 Rate of Tax; Allowance for Handling and Evaporation

(1) There shall be and is hereby levied and imposed (except as hereinafter provided) upon the first sale, distribution, or use of motor fuel in this State an excise tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon or fractional part thereof so sold, distributed, or used in this State. Every distributor who makes a first sale or distribution of motor fuel in this State for any purpose whatsoever shall, at the time of such sale or distribution, collect the said tax from the purchaser or recipient of said motor fuel, in addition to his selling price, and shall report and pay to the State of Texas the taxes collected at the time and in the manner as hereinafter provided. Every such distributor shall also be liable to the State of Texas for the said tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon on each gallon of motor fuel or fractional part thereof used or consumed by him, and shall report and pay said tax as hereinafter provided. In each subsequent sale or distribution of motor fuel upon which the tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon has been collected, the said tax shall be added to the selling price, so that such tax is paid ultimately by the person using or consuming said motor fuel for the purpose of generating power for the propulsion of any motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State.

It is the intent and purpose of this Article to collect the tax levied herein at the source of said motor fuel in Texas or as soon thereafter as the same may be subject to being taxed. No person, however, shall be required to pay a tax on motor fuel brought into this State in a quantity of thirty (30) gallons or less in a fuel tank, with a capacity of not more than thirty (30) gallons, when said fuel is connected with and feeds the carburetor of said motor vehicle and the motor fuel contained therein is used in the operation of said motor vehicle and not otherwise."

(2) The tax on two percent (2%) of the taxable gallons of motor fuel sold or distributed in this State shall be allocated to the persons selling, distributing or handling motor fuel in this State which allocation or allowance shall be deducted by the distributors in the payment to the State of Texas of the taxes herein levied and shall be apportioned among the persons selling, distributing and handling motor fuel in this State as follows:

I. One percent (1%) to the distributor making the first taxable sale or distribution of such motor fuel and paying the tax levied hereunder to the State of Texas for the expense of collecting, accounting for, reporting and remitting the taxes so collected and for keeping records.

II. One-half of one percent (½ of 1%) to wholesalers or jobbers who pay taxes to a distributor on motor fuel purchased for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers or bulk users to cover losses by evaporation, temperature changes in the motor fuel and ordinary handling from the time the motor fuel is acquired tax paid by said wholesalers or jobbers until its sale or distribution and delivery to purchasers.

III. One-half of one percent (½ of 1%) to dealers, or bulk users to cover losses by evaporation, temperature changes in motor fuel or other handling losses from the time the motor fuel is delivered to the storage facilities of said dealers or bulk users until it is sold or delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. If title to motor fuel consigned to a dealer or bulk user remains in the consignor until it is delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the consignor shall be entitled to such allowance or allocation.

In the sale and distribution of motor fuel in this State, if any person performs more than one (1) of the functions or activities of distributor, wholesaler or jobber, dealer or bulk user, he shall be entitled to the apportionment or allowance for each such function or activity, but provided the aggregate allowance shall never exceed the total amount of two percent (2%) authorized herein.

The intent and purpose of the above allowance or allocation to wholesalers or jobbers or dealers and the extension herein of such allowance or allocation to include bulk users, is to fully reimburse persons acting in such capacities for losses sustained by them from evaporation, temperature changes and ordinary handling of motor fuel, and to facilitate the payment of tax refunds without volume adjustments of motor fuel purchased tax paid and thereafter used in other states by distributor-users; and it is expressly provided that the tax shall be computed and paid or collected and paid over to the State on the gross or volumetric gallons of taxable motor fuel sold or distributed to such wholesalers or jobbers, dealers or bulk users, as shown by the Comptroller's measurement certificate issued for the vehicle tank making such deliveries, or as shown by any other measuring device approved by the Comptroller.

Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting volume correction of motor fuel under accepted practices when sold or distributed to or between licensed motor fuel distributors.

Pursuant to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Comptroller, the allocation or allowance hereinabove provided shall be distributed to the persons entitled thereto as follows: (1) Every distributor who makes a first sale or distribution of motor fuel to a wholesaler or jobber, or other distributor, upon which said first sale or distribution the tax is required to be collected and paid over to this State shall, after setting out the tax separately on the manifest as required by this Chapter, deduct one percent (1%) from the amount of such tax and the balance shall be the amount such distributor shall be entitled to collect from such purchaser; and (2) every wholesaler, jobber or distributor who makes a sale, resale, or distribution of motor fuel upon which the tax is required to be collected, to a dealer, consignor, or bulk user of said motor fuel shall, after setting out the tax separately on the manifest as required by this Chapter, deduct one-half of one percent (½ of 1%) from the amount of such tax and the balance shall be the amount such wholesaler or jobber or distributor shall be entitled to collect from such purchaser.

Sec. (1) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1201, ch. 292, art. 5, § 1, eff. July 1, 1971; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1208, ch. 293, § 1, eff. July 1, 1971; Sec. (2) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2031, ch. 626, § 3, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Subsection (1). Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1208, ch. 293, which, by section 1 amended this subsection, provided in sections 7 and 8:

"Sec. 7. This Act takes effect on July 1, 1971, on the condition that it is passed by a vote of at least two-thirds of all members elected to each House as required by Section 39, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas. Otherwise, this Act takes effect on September 1, 1971.

"Sec. 8. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 9.07. Bond

(1) Before any permit shall be issued and before engaging in the first sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel upon which a tax is required to be paid in Texas, every distributor shall execute and file with the Comptroller a good and sufficient surety bond, which shall run concurrently with the permit required of a distributor to be obtained. The said bond shall be signed by said distributor and a good and sufficient surety company or companies authorized to do business in this State, to be approved by the Comptroller, and except as hereinafter provided, in an amount not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) nor more than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) payable to the State of Texas, and conditioned upon the full, complete, and faithful performance by the distributor of all the conditions and requirements imposed upon him by this Chapter, or the rules and regulations of the Comptroller promulgated hereunder, on a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller with the approval of the Attorney General, expressly providing for the performance of said obligations and the remittance and/or payment at Austin, Travis County, Texas, of all taxes collected and required to be collected for the use and benefit of the State, and all other taxes due and accruing upon the use of motor fuel by said distributor, and all costs, penalties, and interest provided in this Chapter, provided, however, that in any event the total of all recoveries under such bond for any and all breaches of its conditions occurring at any time while it remains in force to support a permit, shall not for any calendar year exceed the penal sum named therein; provided further, that any such bond, continuous in form, may be, if sufficient and acceptable to the Comptroller, continued in effect by a renewal certificate, and, if so continued in effect, shall be sufficient to support the issuance of any new permit; and provided further, that the said renewal certificate, as, if and when issued shall have all the force and effect of an original bond for the calendar year for which renewal certificate is issued. The amount of any bond required of any distributor shall be fixed by the Comptroller, and subject to the limitations herein provided, additional bond may be required by the Comptroller at any time an existing bond becomes insufficient, unsatisfactory, or unacceptable. However, the distributor may demand a reduction of his bond after six (6) months from the effective date thereof to a sum to be not more than two (2) times the highest tax said distributor has collected and paid to the State for any month during the preceding six (6) months, or two times the highest tax that could accrue on motor fuel purchased tax free or otherwise held in inventory during any said month, whichever is higher.

Provided, that when a distributor or other person produces, manufactures, refines, or acquires in any other manner any product of petroleum or natural gas for his own use and consumption as motor fuel and not to be sold or distributed, the Comptroller may accept a minimum bond in an amount of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500); said bond to be in the form and substance and conditioned as hereinabove provided.

(4) That in lieu of giving a bond, any distributor may deposit in the Suspense Account of the State Treasury money in the amount of the bond that may be required, which shall never be released until securities are substituted for the same, or a bond executed in lieu thereof, or until the Comptroller has made a complete and thorough investigation and authorized the same to be released; and, provided, in lieu of cash, or bond required by this Article, such distributor may deposit securities with the Comptroller that shall be acceptable to him. Said securities shall be placed in the State Treasury as other securities, and shall be of the same class as the Funds of The University of Texas may be legally invested in; or a distributor in lieu of furnishing a bond as otherwise required may with the written approval of the Comptroller supply an assignment, given either by himself or by others in his behalf, of a Certificate of Deposit, in a Texas bank or savings and loan association or institution, whose accounts necessarily are insured by an agency of the Federal Government, for an amount which is equal to or greater than the amount of bond required for which said deposit or account is being substituted.

When a distributor has filed with the Comptroller a bond in an amount of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) together with a current financial statement which said bond and financial statement when reviewed by the Comptroller are, in his opinion, inadequate to cover certificates of authority to purchase motor fuel tax free in the quantities desired, such distributor may, with the Comptroller's written permission and on forms approved by the Comptroller as security to the State for the additional gallons the distributor desires to purchase tax free, supply the Comptroller with a lien or encumbrance upon real property in favor of the Comptroller executed on a form recordable in the deed records of the county in which such property may be located, by the owner of such real property who may be either the distributor or other person acting in such distributor's behalf.

Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Comptroller from accepting a bond in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) from any distributor who desires to furnish bond in a larger amount for obtaining a certificate of authority for greater quantities in lieu of depositing securities, certificates of deposit, or lien or encumbrance on real property, or in addition to such deposits.

Provided, however, that if, in the opinion of the Comptroller, the cash, securities, certificates of deposit or liens, so deposited shall become insufficient for the purpose for which they were deposited, he shall demand additional cash, securities, certificates of deposit or liens on real property, and upon the failure or refusal of the distributor to supply the additional deposits within ten (10) days after demand, the Comptroller shall cancel the distributor's permit as herein provided. When default of payment of taxes collected upon the sale or distribution of motor fuel and accruing upon the use of motor fuel by said distributor, is made by any distributor who has money and/or securities deposited with the State Treasurer in lieu of a bond as herein provided, suit shall be instituted by the State and after the State has established its debt for delinquent taxes by final judgment of Court, money on deposit in the suspense account shall be withdrawn therefrom and shall be used to pay off and satisfy such judgment; and provided further, if securities, certificates of deposit or liens or encumbrances on real property are on deposit with the State Treasurer or Comptroller, such securities or certificates of deposit shall be sold by the Comptroller and said liens or encumbrances shall be foreclosed and the property sold and the proceeds of sale shall be used in paying off and satisfying said judgment and accrued Court costs and interest. Provided, however, the defaulting distributor may acknowledge in writing the correctness of the State's claim for taxes, costs, and penalties, and may authorize the withdrawal of said money or securities to pay on said claim without having suit filed.

When the Comptroller determines that all taxes, penalties, interest and court costs due by a distributor have been paid to this State, or that the need no longer exists for the securities, certificates of deposit, or liens or encumbrances on real property deposited with the Comptroller, he may issue appropriate release of such securities, deposits or liens.

Provided further, that the cash, securities or certificates of deposit or any unpaid portion thereof, deposited by said distributor in lieu of surety bond, shall not be returned or refunded to any person except the distributor, unless the person claiming any right, title, and interest in and to said funds or securities, shall have declared said right, title, and interest in writing, executed jointly by said distributor and said claimant, under oath, and filed with the Comptroller at the time such deposit was made. Provided further, that suit may be filed against any surety or sureties on any bond furnished by a distributor, without first resorting to or exhausting the assets of said distributor or without making said distributor, as principal obligor in said bond, a party to said suit.

Secs. (1), (4) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2033, ch. 626, §§ 4, 5, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Art. 9.13 Claims for Refunds

(2) Any person (except as hereinafter provided), who shall use motor fuel for the purpose of operating or propelling any stationary gasoline engine, motorboat, aircraft, or tractor used for agricultural purposes, or for any other purpose except in a motor vehicle operated or intended to be operated upon the public highways of this State, and who shall have paid the tax imposed upon said motor fuel by this Chapter, either directly or indirectly, shall, when such person has fully complied with all provisions of this Article and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Comptroller, be entitled to reimbursement of the tax paid by him less any amount allowed distributors, wholesalers or jobbers, retailers or others under the provisions of Article 9.02(2) of this Chapter. Provided, however, no tax refund shall be paid to any person on motor fuel used in any construction or maintenance work which is paid for from any State funds to which motor fuel tax collections are allocated or which is paid jointly from any said State funds and Federal funds, except that when such fuel is used in maintenance of way machines, or other equipment of a railroad, operated upon stationary rails or tracks, then such railroad shall be entitled to a tax refund on such fuels.

Sec. (2) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2035, ch. 626, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Art. 9.25 Enforcement Fund, Allocation of Revenue

Before any diversion or allocation of the motor fuel tax collected under the provisions of this Chapter is made, one per cent (1%) of the gross amount of said tax shall be set aside in the State Treasury in a special fund, subject to the use of the Comptroller in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter, and so much of said proceeds of one per cent (1%) of the motor fuel tax paid monthly as may be needed in such administration and enforcement be and is hereby appropriated for said purpose. Any unexpended portion of said fund so specified shall, at the end of each fiscal year, revert (1) to the Highway Motor Fuel Tax Fund, and (2) to the funds prescribed in Section (6a) of Article 9.13, as provided in this Chapter, in proportion to the amounts originally derived from such respective sources. The same shall then be allocated as provided in Article 9.13 of this Chapter and Section (6a) thereof, and in this Article 9.25, in the proportions above prescribed.

Each month the Comptroller of Public Accounts, after making all deductions for exempt refund purposes and for the funds derived from 'unclaimed refunds' as provided in Article 9.13 of this Chapter, and for the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter, shall allocate and deposit the net remainder of the taxes collected under the provisions of this Chapter, as follows: one-fourth (¼) of such tax shall go to, and be placed to the credit of, the Available Free School Fund; one-half (½) of such tax shall go to and be placed to the credit of the State Highway Fund for the construction and maintenance of the State Road System under existing laws; and from the remaining one-fourth (¼) of such tax the Comptroller shall: (1) place to the credit of the County and Road District Highway Fund an amount determined by the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness and certified by the Board to the Comptroller of Public Accounts prior to August 31st of each year, for the fiscal year beginning September 1st each year, to be required in addition to any and all funds already on hand, for the payment by the Board of the principal, interest and sinking fund requirements for each year, on all bonds, warrants or other legal evidences of indebtedness heretofore issued by counties or defined road districts of this state, which mature on or after January 1, 1933, insofar as amounts of same were issued for and proceeds have been actually expended in the construction of roads that constituted and comprised a part of the system of designated state highways on September 17, 1932, or which subsequent to such date and prior to January 2, 1939, have been designated a part of the System of State Highways and declared by the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness prior to January 2, 1945, to be eligible to participate in the distribution of the moneys in the County and Road District Highway Fund under the provisions of existing laws; (2) for the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1951, and each fiscal year thereafter, the Comptroller shall place to the credit of the fund known as the County and Road District Highway Fund the sum of Seven Million, Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($7,300,000.00), said amount to be provided on the basis of equal monthly payments, payable on the first day of each calendar month, which sum shall be allocated by the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness to all of the counties of Texas not later than September 15th of each year, through the Lateral Road Account, as provided under Subsection (h) of Section 6 of Chapter 324 of the General and Special Laws of the 48th Legislature, Regular Session, 1943, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 319, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947 [1]; and (3) the Comptroller shall place to the credit of the State Highway Fund the remainder of such one-fourth (¼) of such tax, said amount to be provided on the basis of equal monthly payments, payable on the first day of each calendar month, which sum shall be used by the State Highway Department for the construction and improvement of Farm-to-Market Roads having the same general characteristics as the roads eligible for construction under Subsection (4-b) of Article XX of House Bill No. 8, Chapter 184, Acts of the Regular Session of the 47th Legislature, as amended.[2] During any fiscal year, under the terms of Subsection (4-b) of Section 2 of Article XX of House Bill No. 8, Chapter 184, Acts of the Regular Session of the 47th Legislature, as amended, in which there shall be a valid, effective appropriation of Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00) in the Farm-to-Market Road Fund to the State Highway Department for the purpose of constructing Farm-to-Market Roads, the Highway Department may use up to one-half (½) the above remainder for the maintenance of Farm-to-Market Roads.

All receipts due the Available School Fund which are in the Highway Motor Fuel Tax Fund on August 31st of each fiscal year shall be credited to the Available School Fund on August 31st of each fiscal year.

Art. 10.02 Definitions

* * * * * * * * * * *

(7a) "Airport Fixed Base Operator" means any person who purchases diesel fuel in bulk quantities for resale and delivery into fuel supply tanks of aircraft or into any equipment of said person which is not licensed or required to be licensed as a motor vehicle, and who does not use, sell or deliver any diesel fuel on which a tax is required to be collected or paid to this State by this Subchapter.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Art. 10.03 Levy of Tax

(1) There shall be and is hereby levied and imposed (except as hereinafter provided) upon the first sale, distribution, or use of diesel fuel in this State an excise tax of Six and Five-Tenths cents (6.5¢) per gallon, or fractional part thereof so sold, distributed or used in this State. Upon each subsequent sale or distribution of diesel fuel for the propulsion of motor vehicles upon the public highways, on which the tax has been collected, the said tax shall be added to the selling price so that such tax is paid ultimately by the person using or consuming said diesel fuel for the propulsion of motor vehicles upon the public highways of this State.

* * * * * * * * * * *

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(3) Every supplier shall collect and remit the tax, except as hereinafter provided to the contrary, upon each gallon of diesel fuel sold or distributed by him to dealers, users and unlicensed suppliers, and upon each gallon of diesel fuel delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles not operated by him, and shall pay the tax upon each gallon of diesel fuel delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by him. Upon each sale or distribution of diesel fuel to a dealer for resale and delivery into motor vehicles, the tax shall be collected and remitted to this State on the gross or volumetric gallons of diesel fuel delivered to said dealer as shown by the Comptroller's measurement certificate issued for the vehicle tank making such delivery, or as shown by any other measuring device approved by the Comptroller for measuring bulk deliveries of diesel fuel to the storage facilities of dealers or service stations. It is further provided that when diesel fuel is delivered into the storage facilities of dealers or service stations by consignment or otherwise, the tax on the first sale or distribution of said diesel fuel shall be computed and paid to this State by the supplier upon the gross gallons delivered to such storage facilities as shown by the Comptroller's measurement certificate or other measuring device described above.

It is expressly provided, however, that the sale or distribution of diesel fuel may be made without collecting the tax otherwise imposed, (a) when such sales or distributions are made by a licensed supplier to other suppliers holding valid permits, or to bonded users who have secured from the Comptroller and then and there hold valid permits authorizing them to purchase tax free diesel fuel which is predominantly for use off the public highways of this State, or (b) when deliveries are made by a licensed supplier into a storage facility of a service station or of an airport fixed base operator from which diesel fuel or jet fuels will be resold and delivered to purchasers for exclusive non-highway use and not otherwise, and providing that the storage facility of each such service station is maintained separate and apart from facilities servicing fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles and is prominently labeled "NOT FOR HIGHWAY USE" in a manner to be prescribed by the Comptroller, and in plain view of the public to indicate that non-tax paid products are contained therein, or (c) when deliveries are made into fuel supply tanks of railway engines, aircraft, boats, or vehicle refrigeration units powered by separate motors from separate fuel tanks; provided that invoices shall be issued showing the vehicle unit number, highway license number and other information required by Article 10.12 of this Subchapter, or (d) when deliveries of kerosene having a flashpoint not lower than 115 degrees Fahrenheit are made by a licensed supplier into a storage facility maintained and prominently labeled as kerosene by a store or mercantile establishment, or a gasoline retail station which does not handle other diesel fuel, for the storage of said kerosene for resale at retail to purchasers for illuminating, heating, cooking and similar non-highway consumption and not otherwise, or (e) when the purchaser furnishes the seller a signed statement that none of the diesel fuel purchased in this State will be delivered by him or permitted by him to be delivered into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

Except as otherwise prescribed by rule and regulation of the Comptroller, such statement when furnished to a licensed supplier shall remain in effect as long as said licensed supplier continues to sell and distribute diesel fuel to said purchaser, unless the statement is revoked in writing by the purchaser or supplier, or unless notification of a change in the status of the purchaser has been furnished the supplier by the Comptroller.

A taxable use of any part of the diesel fuel purchased pursuant to the above statement shall, in addition to the penal provisions otherwise provided by law, forfeit the right of said person to purchase diesel fuel tax free for a period of one (1) year from the date of the offense. Such person may, however, file claim for refund of the tax paid on any diesel fuel used for non-highway purposes under the refund provisions of Article 10.14 of this Subchapter.

Art. 10.53 Levy of Tax

(3) Every supplier shall collect and remit the tax, except as hereinafter provided to the contrary, upon each gallon of liquefied gas sold or delivered by him and shall pay the tax upon each gallon of liquefied gas delivered by him into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by him. Upon each taxable sale or delivery of liquefied gas to a user or to a dealer or service station for resale and delivery into motor vehicles, the tax shall be collected and remitted to this State on the gross or volumetric gallonage of liquefied gas so sold or delivered without temperature adjustment of the volume so delivered.

It is expressly provided, however, that deliveries of liquefied gas may be made without collecting the tax otherwise imposed under the following circumstances: (a) when bulk sales or deliveries are made by a bonded supplier to other suppliers holding valid permits, or to bonded dealers, bonded users or special farm users who have secured from the Comptroller and then and there hold valid permits authorizing them to purchase liquefied gas tax free, or (b) when such deliveries are made by a bonded supplier into a stationary storage facility of a service station from which liquefied gas will be resold and delivered to purchasers for nonhighway use and not otherwise, providing such storage facility is maintained separate and apart from facilities servicing fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles and is prominently labeled "NOT FOR HIGHWAY USE" in a manner prescribed by the Comptroller and in plain view of the public to indicate that non-tax paid products are contained therein, or (c) when such deliveries are made into separate fuel tanks not connected, or fitted for connection, to the propulsion system of the motor vehicle, on invoices showing the vehicle unit or highway license number and other information required by Article 10.62 of this subchapter, or (d) when such deliveries are made into the fuel supply tanks of farm tractors, or other farm or ranch vehicles designed primarily for nonhighway use, owned or operated by farmers and ranchers when said liquefied gas is used upon the public highway only to propel or move such tractors or vehicles to or from lands owned or operated by or under the control of such farmers or ranchers and located within a ten (10) mile radius of the point which is the customary base of operations of said farmers or ranchers, or (e) when such deliveries are made to a purchaser for exclusive nonhighway use who furnishes the seller a signed statement that none of the liquefied gas purchased or acquired in Texas by him will be delivered by him or permitted by him to be delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles; except as otherwise prescribed by rule and regulation of the Comptroller such statement, when furnished to a licensed supplier, shall be effective as long as said licensed supplier continues to sell and deliver liquefied gas to said purchaser, unless the statement is revoked in writing by the purchaser or supplier, or unless notice in writing of a change in the status of the purchaser is given the supplier by the Comptroller, or (f) when such deliveries are made into the fuel supply tank of any farm motor vehicle displaying a special farm user permit decal issued by the Comptroller as provided in this subchapter.

A taxable use of any part of the liquefied gas purchased tax free pursuant to Subsection (e) above shall, in addition to the penal provisions otherwise provided by law, forfeit the right of the user thereof to purchase liquefied gas tax free for a period of one (1) year from the date of the offense. The Comptroller may, however, issue said person a special nonbonded user's permit, to be effective for the period of the forfeiture authorizing such person to file claim for refund of the tax paid on any liquefied gas used for nonhighway purposes under the refund provisions of Article 10.64 of this subchapter.

(4) Every dealer shall collect the tax, where provided, on each gallon of liquefied gas delivered by him into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, and shall report and pay to this State any tax so collected which has not been paid to a bonded supplier.

(5) Every user except special farm users shall report and pay to this State the tax, at the rate imposed, on each gallon of liquefied gas delivered by him into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, unless said tax has been paid to a supplier or dealer. Every import user shall also report and pay the tax, at the rate imposed, on each gallon of liquefied gas imported into this State in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by him and used in the operation of such motor vehicles upon the public highways of this State. No permit shall be required and no tax shall be paid on liquefied gas imported in the fuel supply tanks of any motor vehicle when said fuel supply tanks, and any additional containers, have an aggregate capacity of not more than thirty (30) gallons, and if said motor vehicle is not operated by said user for hire, or compensation, or for commercial purposes.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(8) In authorizing a special farm user to pay taxes in advance on the basis of one thousand two hundred (1200) gallons per calendar year for the privilege of thereafter purchasing such product tax free without securing another user's permit and performing the functions required of such user, it is expressly provided that if the Comptroller determines that taxes paid in advance for a special farm user's permit are wholly inadequate to compensate for the taxable gallons being used by the permittee on the public highways, he may require such permittee to pay taxes in advance based upon the actual taxable gallonage being so used which if not paid will be cause for revocation of the permit.

(9) No part of this subchapter shall prevent sale and delivery by a supplier or dealer to any person, user, or other consumer of liquefied gas for highway use when such user or consumer shall pay the prescribed tax to such supplier or dealer upon such delivery.

Secs. (3)–(5) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1703, ch. 493, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1971; Sec. (8) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1703, ch. 493, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1971; Sec. (9) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1705, ch. 493, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

Any person who operates one or more pickups or other motor vehicles propelled with liquefied gas within this State with a maximum gross loaded weight of twelve thousand (12,000) pounds or less without then and there holding a valid permit as required by law, or without keeping the invoices and all other records required of him by law shall be prima facie presumed to have consumed one (1) gallon of liquefied gas for every eight (8) miles traveled, and the taxes due this State may be computed on this basis.

eled per gallon of liquefied gas consumed can be determined, shall be prima facie presumed to have consumed not less than one (1) gallon of liquefied gas for every four (4) miles traveled by each such motor vehicle. Any person except persons holding special farm user permits who operates one or more pickups or other motor vehicles propelled with liquefied gas within or into this State with a maximum gross loaded weight of twelve thousand (12,000) pounds or less without keeping the invoices and all other records required of him by law shall be prima facie presumed to have consumed one (1) gallon of liquefied gas for every eight (8) miles traveled, and the taxes due this State shall be computed on this basis. Art. 10.59 Application for Permits

(1) Every person defined herein as a supplier, dealer, carburetor dealer, special farm user, import user or other user shall secure from the Comptroller the kind and class of permit required herein to act in such capacity or to perform such functions. Application shall be filed with the Comptroller for any such permit on a form prescribed by the Comptroller, showing the kind and class of permit desired, and such other information as the Comptroller may require. It is expressly provided, however, that each applicant for a special farm user permit shall file with and as a part of such application and each renewal thereof, information showing for each motor vehicle equipped to use liquefied gas for its propulsion, the make, the motor number or other identification number, and the total mileage recorded on the speedometer of the motor vehicle at the time application is filed, and said information shall be filed with the Comptroller for each and every motor vehicle equipped to use liquefied gas as a fuel which is thereafter purchased or acquired or put into operation by said permit holder.

Art. 10.61 Permits

(1) Upon approval of an application and approval of any bond required, the Comptroller shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing him to engage in the kind of business or other operation or to perform the functions set out in and authorized by the class of permit so issued. The permits shall be issued for each calendar year, or any unexpired part of a year, and shall be effective from the date of issue to the end of such calendar year, unless revoked or suspended for cause, as hereinafter provided. Such permits shall be of the kinds and classifications as set out hereinbelow:

BONDED SUPPLIER PERMITS.

Authorizing persons to engage in business as suppliers of liquefied gas to licensed dealers, users, other suppliers, and to other authorized purchasers of liquefied gas.

NONBONDED DEALER PERMITS.

Authorizing dealers whose purchases of liquefied gas are predominantly for sale and delivery into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles to operate as dealers who pay the tax imposed herein to the supplier of such fuel and claim refund of the tax paid on any liquefied gas thereafter sold for nonhighway use.

BONDED DEALER PERMITS.

Authorizing dealers whose purchases of liquefied gas are predominantly for resale for nonhighway use to purchase liquefied gas tax free from their supplier and to report and pay taxes to this State on the part of such liquefied gas which is delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

NONBONDED USER PERMITS.

Authorizing users whose purchases of liquefied gas are predominantly for delivery by them into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by them, or users whose right to purchase liquefied gas tax free has been forfeited, to pay the tax imposed herein to the supplier and claim refund of the tax paid on any liquefied gas thereafter used by them off the public highways.

BONDED USER PERMITS.

Authorizing users whose purchases of liquefied gas are predominantly for nonhighway use by them to purchase liquefied gas tax free from their suppliers and to report and pay taxes to this State on the part of such liquefied gas which is delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by them.

SPECIAL FARM USER PERMITS.

Authorizing users of liquefied gas for the propulsion of farm motor vehicles on the public highways of this State to elect to pay taxes in advance on one thousand two hundred (1200) gallons of liquefied gas for each and every motor vehicle owned or operated by them and propelled in whole or in part with liquefied gas during the calendar year and thereafter to purchase liquefied gas tax free in lieu of securing a bonded user's permit and filing monthly reports and tax payments, and keeping records other than the annual mileage records provided herein. In the event any additional farm motor vehicles equipped to use liquefied gas as a fuel are placed in operation by a special farm user after the first month of any calendar year, a tax shall become due and payable to this State and is hereby imposed at the tax rate prescribed herein on one-twelfth (1/12) of one thousand two hundred (1200) gallons per motor vehicle so added for each calendar month or fraction thereof remaining in the current calendar year. The Comptroller shall issue special permit decals for each motor vehicle on which taxes have been paid in advance, which shall be affixed on each such motor vehicle as the Comptroller may direct.

BONDED IMPORT-USER PERMITS.

Authorizing users to import or bring liquefied gas into this State in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles owned or operated by them, and to report and pay the tax due thereon to this State, and to claim credit or a refund of the tax paid on liquefied gas which is thereafter used in other states.

CARBURETOR DEALER PERMITS.

Authorizing persons holding such permits to sell, lease, transfer, or make installation of liquefied gas carburetion systems and requiring reports to be filed monthly with the Comptroller showing the date and recipient of each carburetion system sold, leased, transferred or installed on or for use on a farm motor vehicle and such other information as the Comptroller may require.

Nothing herein shall be construed as permitting any tax free sale or delivery of liquefied gas to an import user, or of permitting any sale and delivery of liquefied gas directly into the fuel supply tanks of a motor vehicle without collecting the tax thereon from the purchaser of such liquefied gas, except sales or deliveries into the fuel supply tanks of farm motor vehicles displaying valid special farm user permit decals issued and held pursuant to the provision of this subchapter.

The Comptroller shall determine from the information shown in the application or other investigation the kind and class of permits to be issued.

A supplier may operate under his supplier's permit as a dealer, an import-user, or as a user without securing a separate permit, but he shall be subject to all other conditions, requirements, and liabilities imposed by this subchapter upon a dealer, an import-user, or a user. A licensed dealer may use liquefied gas in motor vehicles owned or operated by him without securing a separate permit as a user, subject to all conditions, requirements and liabilities imposed herein upon a user.

If any farm motor vehicle on which taxes have been paid in advance by a special farm user, for which a permit decal has been issued shall, prior to the end of the calendar year, be destroyed, sold, traded or otherwise disposed of, or for any reason the permittee ceases to be the owner or operator thereof, the permittee shall be required to remove such decal and immediately give notice in writing to the Comptroller of such destruction, sale or other disposition thereof. Failure to remove such permit decals and to notify the Comptroller in writing of said removals as above provided shall be grounds for cancellation of the special farm user permit or for requiring such person to secure a nonbonded user's permit; provided, however, when a motor vehicle upon which the tax has been paid in advance is sold or transferred by one special farm user to another special farm user or to a person who shall qualify for and obtain a special farm user permit, the Comptroller may issue written authority to transfer the decal issued and attached to said motor vehicle and all rights thereunder to the purchasing special farm user in such manner and form as may be required by the Comptroller.

If a farm motor vehicle shall be destroyed or sold or transferred so that it shall no longer qualify for the special farm user permit decal, then in that event the owner or operator shall be entitled to a return of the unused portion of the advance taxes theretofore paid to the Comptroller for that calendar year. The owner or operator shall submit to the Comptroller an affidavit identifying the vehicle, and stating the circumstances entitling him to a refund, the initial date of disuse or conversion, the permit and decal number assigned and all other information reasonably required by the Comptroller. Upon receipt of the affidavit and when satisfied as to the circumstances, the Comptroller shall cause to be refunded to the owner or operator that portion of his tax payment that corresponds to the number of complete months remaining in the calendar year for which the tax has been paid, beginning with the month following the date on which the vehicle was no longer utilized. No refund shall be made if the use of the vehicle ceased within the last month of the calendar year.

All permits shall be posted in a conspicuous place or kept available for inspection at the principal place of business of the owner thereof. Permit holders shall reproduce the permit by photostat or other method and keep a copy on display at each additional place of business or other place of storage from which liquefied gas is sold, delivered or used and in each motor vehicle used by the permit holder to transport liquefied gas purchased by him for resale, distribution or use. Persons holding import-user permits shall reproduce the permit and carry a photocopy thereof with each motor vehicle being operated into or from the State of Texas.
Sec. (1) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1706, ch. 493, § 7, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

Art. 10.62 Records Required

* * * * * * * * * * *

(3) a. Every user except a special farm user shall keep a record of deliveries into his motor vehicles and a complete record of the total gallons of liquefied gas used for other purposes during each month and the purposes for which said liquefied gas was used.

b. A special farm user who has paid taxes in advance on one or more farm motor vehicles shall not be required to issue and keep invoices of each delivery of liquefied gas into the fuel supply tanks of such motor vehicles when proper permit decals are affixed thereto, and shall not be required to keep any other records of liquefied gas purchased and used by him except a record of the total miles traveled by each farm motor vehicle operated by him on which taxes have been paid in advance, from the date the permit decal is issued or assigned to said motor vehicles to the end of the calendar year. Failure to keep such records shall be grounds for cancellation of the special farm user permit.
Sec. 3 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1708, ch. 493, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

Art. 10.63 Tax Payments—Reports

(4) Every user except a special farm user who purchases or acquires liquefied gas tax-free shall, on or before the 25th day of each calendar month, file with the Comptroller upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller an itemized report, made subject to the penalties of Article 1.12, Chapter 1 of this title, accounting for the liquefied gas handled during the preceding month, which report shall show the quantities of liquefied gas purchased or received and the suppliers from whom received, the quantities delivered into the fuel supply tanks or motor vehicles owned or operated by such user, the quantities used off the public highways of this State and the purposes for which used, the quantities lost by fire or other accident or disposed of in any other manner, and the total quantities on hand at the beginning and at the end of the month covered by such report. The Comptroller may in his discretion require schedules from any such user with respect to any purchases, deliveries or uses of liquefied gas. Every such user shall attach legal tender to said report or make proper form of money order or exchange payable to the State Treasurer in the amount of taxes due for the period covered by the report.

Every carburetor dealer who sells, leases or transfers liquefied gas carburetion systems or who installs such systems for use in supplying liquefied gas to propel motor vehicles in this State, shall on or before the 25th day of each calendar month file with the Comptroller upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller a report made subject to the penalties of Article 1.12, Chapter 1 of this title, accounting for every liquefied gas carburetion system sold, leased, transferred, or installed by such carburetor dealer, and showing such other information as the Comptroller may deem necessary in the control of the taxable use of liquefied gas used to propel motor vehicles upon the public highways of this State.

(1) Property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will.

(2) The proceeds of life insurance to the extent of the amount receivable by the executor or administrator as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life, and to the extent of the excess over Forty Thousand ($40,000) Dollars of the amount receivable by all other beneficiaries as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life.

(B) Any transfer made by a grantor, vendor, or donor, whether by deed, grant, sale, or gift, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death and subject to the same tax as herein provided, if such transfer is made within three (3) years prior to the death of the grantor, vendor, or donor, of a material part of his estate, or if the transfer made within such period is in the nature of a final distribution of property and without adequate valuable consideration.

(C) The tax imposed by this Chapter in respect to personal property of nonresidents (other than tangible property having an actual situs in this State) shall not be payable:

(1) if the grantor/or donor at the time of his death was a resident of a state or territory of the United States which, at the time of his death, did not impose a transfer or inheritance tax of any character in respect of personal property of residents of this State (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs in said State); or,

(2) if the laws of the State or territory of the residence of the grantor or donor at the time of his death, contained a reciprocal provision under which nonresidents were exempted from transfer or inheritance taxes of every character in respect to personal property (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs therein) provided the State or territory of residence of such nonresidents allowed a similar exemption to residents of the State or territory of residence of such a grantor or donor. For the purpose of this Chapter the District of Columbia and possessions of the United States shall be considered territories of the United States.

(D) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to residents of those states which have no inheritance tax law.

The 1971 amendatory act, which by sections 1 to 7 amended this article and various other articles of this chapter, provided in section 8: "If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 14.011 Joint Tenancies

(1) Property held in joint tenancy with a right of survivorship in the tenants is subject to the tax imposed by this Chapter on the death of a tenant to the extent of the value of the tenancy:

(A) contributed to the tenancy by the decedent, less any consideration from the other tenants received by, or accruing to the benefit of, the decedent; and

(B) received by the tenancy by gift from a person other than a tenant and attributable to the decedent.

(2) The value of a joint tenancy received by gift from a person other than a tenant is attributable to the tenant for whom the gift was intended by the donor at the time of the gift, or if there is no evidence of the intent of the donor, it is presumed that the gift was to all tenants equally.

(3) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, it is presumed that each tenant contributed to the joint tenancy equally.

Art. 14.08 Divided Estate

If the property passing as aforesaid shall be divided into two or more estates, as an estate for years or for life and a remainder, the tax shall be levied on each estate or interest separately, according to the value of the same at the death of the decedent. The value of estates for years, estates for life, remainders and annuities, shall be determined by their present value. The Comptroller shall adopt by regulation an actuarial table for calculating the present value.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2944, ch. 974, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Art. 14.10 Deductions

The only deductions permissible under this law are the debts due by the estate, funeral expenses, expenses incident to the last illness of the deceased, which shall be due and unpaid at the time of death, all Federal, State, County, and Municipal taxes due at the time of the death of the decedent, attorney's fees and Court costs accruing in connection with the assessing and collecting of the taxes provided for under this Chapter, and an amount equal to a percentage of the value of any property forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States received from any person who dies within ten (10) years prior to the death of the decedent, according to the following schedule:

Time Interval Between the Dates of Death of Present and Prior Decedents	Percentage of the Value of Property Received from a Prior Decedent Allowable as a Deduction from the Gross Estate
Within one year	100%
Within two years	90%
Within three years	80%
Within four years	70%
Within five years	60%
Within six years	50%
Within seven years	40%
Within eight years	30%
Within nine years	20%
Within ten years	10%
After ten years	no deduction

This deduction, however, is to be only in the amount of a percentage of the value of the property upon which an inheritance tax was actually paid and shall not include any legal exemptions claimed by and allowed the heirs or legatees of the estate of the prior decedent. A full statement of facts authorizing deductions must be made in duplicate under oath by the executor, administrator, or trustee, and one copy filed with the county clerk and the other with the Comptroller, before any deductions will be allowed.

Art. 14.11 Value of Property Transferred

(A) The inheritance tax imposed by Article 14.01 shall be imposed upon the actual market value of taxable property transferred, if it has a market value, and in case it has none, then its real value. Any bonds of the United States, saving notes or other obligations which, upon the death of the decedent, constitute a part of his estate, and which may be and are received, by the United States at par and accrued interest, in payment of any estate or inheritance taxes or any other tax liability imposed by the United States shall for Texas inheritance tax purposes be valued in such estate at the amount for which same are used in payment of any such Federal tax liability.

(B) Date of Valuation. Property shall be valued at the time of the death of the decedent, provided that if the personal representative so elects, property may be valued as follows:

(1) In the case of property distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of, within six (6) months after the decedent's death such property shall be valued as of the date of distribution, sale, exchange, or other disposition.

(2) In the case of property not distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of, within six (6) months after the decedent's death, such property shall be valued as of the date six (6) months after the decedent's death.

(3) Any interest or estate which is affected by mere lapse of time shall be included at its value as of the time of death (instead of the later date) with adjustment for any difference in its value as of the later date not due to mere lapse of time.

Secs. (A), (B) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2945, ch. 974, § 4, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

(B) Inventory and Appraisement. Within twenty (20) days after an inventory and appraisement and a list of claims shall have been filed and approved by the County or Probate Court, in the estate of a decedent, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of said Court to furnish the Comptroller a certified copy of the inventory and appraisement and list of claims and a certified copy of the last will and testament or, in the absence of a will, proof of heirship. Said Clerk shall also give the Comptroller any other information which that official may call for in reference to any such estate, such information shall be furnished within ten (10) days after being called for. The Clerk shall be entitled to a fee of One Dollar ($1) for making the reports herein required on each such estate, which shall be taxed against said estate as Court costs, and be accounted for as fees of office.

(C) Final Return. A final tax return must be filed within nine (9) months of the date of death of the decedent giving such information as the Comptroller deems necessary for the enforcement of this Chapter, unless the Comptroller has determined on the basis of the preliminary report that no tax is due. If complete information is not available at the time the final return is due, the Comptroller shall provide for an additional period of time for the filing of a supplementary report.

Art. 14.16 Payment of the Tax

(A) Date Due. The inheritance taxes levied by this Chapter shall be due and payable nine (9) months after the date of death of the decedent, unless such date for the filing of the return and the payment of the tax shall be extended by the Comptroller upon the showing that the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the beneficiaries of the estate, in which event the inheritance taxes levied by this Chapter shall be due and payable on the date specified by the Comptroller in granting any request for extension.

due and payable, unless in each instance it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. Interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum on any tax due shall be added to any tax and penalties imposed by this Chapter that are not paid within nine (9) months from the date of death of the decedent, unless the computed interest would be less than Five Dollars ($5).

"Section 1. The passage of Public Law 91-156 [12 U.S.C.A. § 548] by the Congress of the United States shall not operate to impose or permit the imposition of any additional tax or taxes upon the institutions affected thereby unless:

"(a) The tax or taxes were being imposed prior to January 1, 1971, or

"(b) Such institutions are specifically designated as being subject to such additional tax or taxes other than the limited sales and use tax by an Act of the Legislature passed subsequent to the effective date of Public Law 91-156."

"(b) The exemptions provided by this section have no effect after three years following the effective date of this Act.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

"Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on July 1, 1971, on the condition that it is passed by a vote of at least two-thirds of all members elected to each House as required by Section 39, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas. Otherwise, this Act takes effect on September 1, 1971.

If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 20.021 Method of Collection; Bracket System

(A) Every retailer shall add the sales tax imposed by Article 20.02 of this Chapter to his sale price and when added the tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. It is further specified that where tangible personal property is segregated in contemplation of transfer of title or possession and is thereafter to be transported by common carrier from the seller to the buyer, with the price fixed F.O.B. the seller's place of business, and with transportation charges separately stated, the tax herein imposed shall be computed only upon the basis of the charge for the tangible personal property itself, exclusive of the separately stated and independently fixed transportation charges. When the sale price shall involve a fraction of a dollar, the tax shall be added to the sale price upon the following schedule:

Amount of Sale	Tax
$ .01 to $ .12	No Tax
.13 to .37	$ .01
.38 to .62	.02
.63 to .87	.03
.88 to 1.12	.04

Provided, that for successive brackets for this schedule in this paragraph, the tax shall be computed by multiplying four percent (4%) times the amount of the sale. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) which is less than one half of one cent ($.005) of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) of tax equal to one half of one cent ($.005) or more shall be collected as a whole cent ($.01) of tax.

When several taxable items are purchased together and at the same time, the tax shall be computed on the total amount of the several items less the amount paid for any article or item of tangible personal property specifically exempt under the provisions of Article 20.04 of this Chapter.

The use of tokens or stamps for the purpose of collecting or of enforcing the collection of the tax imposed in this Chapter or for any other purpose in connection with such tax is prohibited.

(2) The taxes imposed by this Chapter shall not apply to the receipts from the sale, lease or rental of, or the storage, use or other consumption in this State of materials and supplies purchased by the owners or operators of ships or vessels operating exclusively in foreign or interstate coastwise commerce, where such materials and supplies are loaded upon the ship or vessel for use or consumption in the maintenance and operation thereof; or to materials and supplies used in the repair of such ships and vessels where such materials and supplies enter into and become a component part of such ships or vessels.

(3) The taxes imposed by this Chapter shall not apply to the receipts from the sale, lease or rental of, or the storage, use or other consumption in this State of drilling equipment used in the exploration for or production of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals when such equipment is built for exclusive use outside the boundaries of the State and is removed forthwith from the State upon completion.

Art. 20.05 Return and Payments

* * * * * * * * * * * *

(B) Method Retailer Is to Use in Computing Tax. The limited sales tax levied under Article 20.02 shall be computed and paid to the Comptroller on the basis of the same percentage rate as is provided in Article 20.02 of this Title, applied to all receipts from the total sales of taxable tangible personal property and taxable services sold by the retailer; provided any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that fifty percent (50%) or more of his receipts from the sale of tangible personal property and taxable services arise from individual transactions where the total sales price is twelve cents (12¢) or less may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed by Article 20.02 of this Chapter. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this Section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the Comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for back taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Chapter.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(J) Commingled Tax and Receipts. Any retailer who establishes an accounting system under which the amount of tax collected pursuant to this Chapter is commingled with the receipts from the sale of taxable items may determine taxable receipts in the following manner:

(1) He shall subtract from his total receipts the receipts from any sales which are specifically exempt from or otherwise excluded from the tax imposed by this Chapter. The remainder shall consist of the receipts from the sale of taxable items plus the tax collected pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) This remainder shall then be divided by 1.04. The answer resulting shall be the taxable gross receipts of the retailer for reporting purposes as prescribed by Section (B) of this Article.

The sole purpose of this Section is to permit the widest possible latitude in the internal accounting system of retailers and to avoid requiring certain retailers to remit to the State a tax computed upon a base which already includes the tax imposed by this Chapter. Nothing herein shall be construed to relieve the retailer of the obligation and duty of collecting the tax in the specific manner prescribed by Article 20.021 of this Chapter.

TITLE 125A—TRUSTS AND TRUSTEES

IN GENERAL

Art. 7425a—2. Employment of banks by fiduciaries as custodians of securities

Section 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition, "fiduciary" means an executor, administrator, trustees of express trusts, including a corporation or a natural person acting as a fiduciary, and a successor or substitute fiduciary, whether designated in a trust instrument or not.

Sec. 2. (A) In the absence of contrary or limiting provisions in the court order or decree appointing a fiduciary, or in a subsequent order or decree, or in the will, deed or other instrument, every fiduciary is authorized to employ any bank incorporated in this state or any national bank located in this state as custodian of any stock or other securities held as a fiduciary, and the cost thereof, except in the case of a corporate fiduciary, shall be a charge upon the estate or trust. The records of such bank shall at all times show the ownership of such stock or other securities. Such stock or other securities shall at all times be kept separate from the assets of such bank and may be kept by such bank

(1) in a manner such that all certificates representing the securities from time to time constituting the assets of a particular estate, trust or other fiduciary account are held separate from those of all other estates, trusts or accounts; or

(2) in a manner such that, without certification as to ownership attached, certificates representing securities of the same class of the same issuer and from time to time constituting assets of particular estates, trusts or other fiduciary accounts are held in bulk, including, to the extent feasible, the merging of certificates of small denomination into one or more certificates of large denomination, provided that a bank when operating under the method of safekeeping security certificates described in this subparagraph (2), shall be subject to such rules and regulations as, in the case of state chartered institutions, the State Finance Commission and, in the case of national banking associations, the Comptroller of the Currency may from time to time issue. Such bank shall on demand by the fiduciary, certify in writing the securities held by it for such estate, trust or fiduciary account.

(B) Every fiduciary is authorized to cause any stock or other securities (hereinafter referred to as "securities") held by any bank, when acting as fiduciary, whether alone or jointly with an individual, with the consent of the individual fiduciary, if any (who is hereby authorized to give such consent), to be registered and held in the name of a nominee of such bank without disclosure of the fiduciary relationship; and, in the case of an individual acting as fiduciary, to direct any bank located in this state to register and hold any securities deposited with such bank in the name of a nominee of such bank. The bank shall not redeliver such securities to the individual fiduciary, who authorized their registration in the name of a nominee of the bank, without first registering the securities in the name of the individual fiduciary, as such. But, any sale of such securities by the bank at the direction of the individual fiduciary shall not be treated as a redelivery. The bank may make any disposition of such securities which is authorized or directed by an order or decree of the court having jurisdiction of the estate or trust. Any such bank shall be liable for any loss occasioned by the acts of its nominee with respect to the securities so registered. The records of the bank shall at all times show the ownership of any such securities and of those held in bearer form. Such securities and those held in bearer form shall at all times be kept separate from the assets of the bank and may be kept by such bank

(1) in a manner such that all certificates representing the securities from time to time constituting the assets of a particular estate, trust or other fiduciary account are held separate from those of all other estates, trusts or accounts; or

Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c), if the distributing corporation gives a stockholder an option to receive a distribution either in cash or in its own shares, the distribution chosen is income.

(e) The trustee may rely upon any statement of the distributing corporation as to any fact relevant under any provision of this Article concerning the source or character of dividends or distributions of corporate assets.

SUBCHAPTER 6. POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICTS

Authority to establish; purpose

Section 6.01. The authority may establish one or more 'Pollution Control Districts' for the purpose of accomplishing any of the powers, purposes, rights, privileges or authority vested in the authority.

Procedure for establishing districts; resolution; public hearing; election

Sec. 6.02. (a) Pollution Control Districts may be established by the procedures contained in this Section.

(1) The board may adopt a resolution calling for the creation of a Pollution Control District, defining the boundaries thereof, estimating the principal amount of and stating the purpose of bonds proposed to be issued by the authority on behalf of the proposed Pollution Control District, declaring that taxes for the payment of the proposed bonded indebtedness shall be levied exclusively upon the taxable property within the proposed Pollution Control District, and fixing a time and place for a public hearing on the matters set out in the resolution; or

(2) The board may adopt a resolution calling for the creation of a Pollution Control District, defining the boundaries thereof, declaring that taxes for the maintenance of the authority and its improvements shall be levied upon the taxable property within the proposed Pollution Control District, and fixing a time and place for a public hearing on the matters set out in the resolution.

(b) The resolutions authorized by Section 6.02. (a) may be adopted simultaneously and simultaneous hearings on proposed bond and maintenance taxes may be held.

(c) The public hearing may be conducted by a quorum of the board of directors, or one or more directors, or one or more employees who may be designated by the board. If someone other than a quorum of the board conducts the hearing, he shall have power to accept evidence and make recommendations upon which the board may act. The board may alter, modify or change any provision of the resolution calling for the creation of the proposed Pollution Control District subsequent to the public hearing; provided, however, that the boundaries of the Pollution Control District may not be enlarged or expanded without further notice as hereinafter provided.

(d) Notice of the public hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the proposed Pollution Control District once not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days prior to the public hearing. To the extent not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, notice of the public hearing shall also comply with Article 6252—17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended.

(e) All public hearings on creation of a Pollution Control District shall be held within the boundaries of the proposed Pollution Control District, and may be held concurrently or in connection with any other public hearing, meeting or proceeding conducted by the board.

(f) Any interested person, including persons residing or owning property within the authority, may appear at the public hearing and present evidence relevant to the matter set forth in the resolution calling for the creation of the proposed Pollution Control District. All persons residing within or owning property within the proposed Pollution Control District shall have the right to appear at the public hearing and present evidence with regard to whether they will receive benefits from the proposed improvements or taxation. Failure to appear at the public hearing shall constitute a waiver of all objections which the absent party might have had to all matters set forth in the resolution calling for the creation of the proposed Pollution Control District.

(g) The board shall review the findings and recommendations resulting from the public hearing, and may adopt a resolution creating the Pollution Control District, stating the purposes for which the Pollution Control District has been created, designating the boundaries of the Pollution Control District, declaring that the indebtedness to be incurred or the cost of services to be rendered by the authority for the benefit of the Pollution Control District shall be payable from taxes levied upon property within the Pollution Control District, finding that the property within the Pollution Control District will benefit from the indebtedness proposed to be incurred or the services proposed to be rendered by the authority on its behalf, and calling for an election within the Pollution Control District to authorize said indebtedness and/or said maintenance tax. Said resolution shall further state the date of the election, the proposition or propositions to be voted on, the location of the polling places, and the names of the officers of the election. Said election may be held in conjunction with a general election or any special election other than a primary election. The provisions of the Texas Election Code shall govern the election unless contrary to any provision of this Act.

(h) The resolution of the board creating a Pollution Control District shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be subject to review by any court except upon the basis of whether the resolution is supported by substantial evidence. Said resolution shall be filed in the deed records of the county or counties wherein the territory within the Pollution Control District is situated. Any action or proceeding wherein the validity of the board's resolution creating a Pollution Control District or of the proceedings relative thereto is contested, questioned or denied, shall be commenced within thirty (30) days from the effective date of the resolution; otherwise, said resolution and all proceedings relative thereto, including the creation of the Pollution Control District, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

Boundaries; annexation proceedings

Sec. 6.03. (a) The boundaries of a Pollution Control District may include any territory within the authority, whether or not the territory contains non-contiguous parcels of land, and whether or not the territory is located within the boundaries of any incorporated city, town, village, or any other governmental entity or political subdivision of the State of Texas. If any portion of the territory of a proposed Pollution Control District falls within the boundaries or within the exclusive extraterritorial jurisdiction of an incorporated city, town or village, the board shall not create said Pollution Control District until it has obtained the consent of said city, town or village. Said consent may contain such conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by the authority and said city, town or village, and shall be evidenced by a duly enacted ordinance of the governing body of said city, town or village.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) Proceedings for the annexation of territory to an existing Pollution Control District may be initiated by a resolution of the board, or by a petition signed by the owners of 50% or more of the value of the land subject to the proceedings, or by a petition signed by a majority of the residents of the land to be annexed. The petition shall, insofar as is practicable, set forth substantially those matters set forth in a resolution calling for the creation of a Pollution Control District, and shall request a public hearing by the board on the matters set out in the petition. The public hearing shall be held in substantial compliance with the provisions set forth herein for a public hearing on creation of a Pollution Control District. If the board determines that the annexation should be accomplished, it may adopt a resolution calling separate elections on the matter of annexation to be held within the existing Pollution Control District and within the land to be annexed. The annexation shall not become final until approved by a majority of the qualified voters within the existing Pollution Control District, and until a majority of the qualified voters within the boundaries of the land to be annexed approve said annexation and elect to allow the land to be annexed to be taxed for maintenance purposes and/or to assume its pro rata share of indebtedness theretofore authorized and/or taxes necessary to support the voted but unissued tax or tax-revenue bonds of the authority which are to be issued on behalf of the existing Pollution Control District, and authorize the board to levy a tax on the property therein for payment for such unissued bonds, when issued. Said elections shall conform to the Texas Election Code, insofar as said Code is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. The board's resolution canvassing the returns of such elections shall redefine the boundaries of the Pollution Control District and shall be recorded in the deed records of the county within which the annexed territory lies.

(c) Proceedings for the addition of territory to an existing Pollution Control District on which less than three (3) qualified voters reside may be initiated by a petition signed by the owner or owners thereof praying that the land described therein be added thereto and become a part thereof. The petition shall, insofar as applicable set forth substantially those matters set forth in a resolution calling for the creation of a Pollution Control District and shall request a public hearing by the board on the matters set out in the petition. The public hearing shall be held in substantial compliance with provisions set forth herein for a public hearing on creation of a Pollution Control District. If the board determines that the addition should be accomplished, it may adopt a resolution adding such land. If taxes or bonds have been authorized within the Pollution Control District prior to the addition of said land, said resolution adding the land shall be temporary and the addition shall not become final until approved by a majority of the qualified voters within the Pollution Control District as it exists after said addition. Such election shall be held as soon as practicable after said addition on the proposition of approving said addition, ratifying the unissued tax or tax-revenue bonds of the authority which are to be issued on behalf of the Pollution Control District, and to authorize the board to levy a tax on the property within the Pollution Control District as enlarged for payment of said unissued bonds when issued and/or for the maintenance of the authority. Such election shall conform to the Texas Election Code so far as such Code is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. The board's resolution canvassing the returns of such election or adding the territory shall redefine the boundaries of the Pollution Control District and shall be recorded in the deed records of the county within which the added territory lies.

Bonds; maintenance tax

Sec. 6.04. (a) If the qualified voters in the elections called pursuant to Section 6.02 and/or Section 6.03 authorize the authority to incur indebtedness for the benefit of a Pollution Control District, the board

CHAPTER THREE—WATER CONTROL AND PRESERVATION DISTRICTS

Art. 7855. Contract: payment

(a) The District shall pay the contract price of such contracts as hereinafter provided:

(b) The directors shall draw a voucher on the District depository for the amount of any payments in favor of the contractor or his assignee. Said vouchers shall be paid out of the Construction and Maintenance Fund. The District will make progress payments monthly as the work proceeds, or at more frequent intervals as determined by the district engineer, on estimates approved by the district engineer. If requested by the district engineer, the contractor shall furnish a breakdown of the total contract price showing the amount included therein for each principal category of the work, in such detail as requested, to provide a basis for determining progress payments. In the preparation of estimates the district engineer, at his discretion, may authorize material delivered on the site and preparatory work done to be taken into consideration. Material delivered to the contractor at locations other than the site may also be taken into consideration (1) if such consideration is specifically authorized by the contract and (2) if the contractor furnishes satisfactory evidence that he has acquired title to such material and that it will be utilized on the work covered by this contract.

(c) In making such progress payments, there shall be retained 10 percent of the estimated amount until final completion and acceptance of the contract work. However, if the directors, at any time after 50 percent of the work has been completed, find that satisfactory progress is being made, they may authorize any of the remaining progress payments to be made in full. Also, whenever the work is substantially complete, the directors, if they consider the amount retained to be in excess of the amount adequate for the protection of the district, at their discretion, may release to the contractor all or a portion of such excess amount. Furthermore, on completion and acceptance of each separate project, public work, or other division of the contract, on which the price is stated separately in the contract, payment may be made therefor without retention of a percentage.

Art. 8280—3.2 Water control improvement districts; exclusion of urban property

Section 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Urban property" means land which has been subdivided into town lots, or town lots and blocks, or small parcels of the same general nature of town lots, or town blocks and lots, designed, intended or suitable for residential or other nonagricultural purposes, as distinguished from farm acreage, including streets, alleys, parkways, parks and railroad property and rights-of-way in such subdivision; whether such subdivision be within or near any established city, town or village, or not; and whether or not a plat or map of such subdivision has been duly filed for record and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such subdivision or any part thereof is situated. Urban property shall not be deemed to include land, which is or has been within one year previous to the date of the hearing hereinafter provided, used for farming or agricultural purposes.

(b) "District" means any water control and improvement district now existing or hereafter created for the principal purpose of, or principally engaged in, furnishing water for the irrigation of agricultural lands and having no outstanding bonded indebtedness owing by such water control and improvement district at the time of the hearing hereinafter provided, or having indebtedness only in connection with a loan from an agency of the United States, provided written consent from an authorized representative of the agency of the United States involved to the proposed exclusion hereunder is on file with the district prior to the time of the hearing hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. Urban property located within the boundaries of a district may be excluded from such district by the Board of Directors after a hearing by the Board of Directors called and held as hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 3. The Board of Directors of a district may by majority vote adopt a resolution calling a hearing to determine whether or not all or any part or parts of any urban property shall be excluded from the district. The resolution adopted by the Board of Directors shall describe the urban property proposed for exclusion by metes and bounds, by lots, blocks and subdivision or by other legal description so as to definitely identify the same, and such resolution shall set forth the purpose of the hearing as well as the date, time and place at which such hearing shall be had.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to cause notice of such hearing to be given by posting a true copy of the resolution referred to in the preceding section at the courthouse door of the county in which such district or any portion thereof is situated, at a location in or near the urban property proposed for exclusion, and also in a conspicuous place in the principal office of the district for at least three (3) weeks before the date of such hearing. The date, time, place and purpose of such hearing shall also be advertised by publishing notice thereof one time in one or more newspapers giving general circulation in the district, such publication to be at least ten (10) days prior to the date of hearing. In the event railroad right-of-way is involved herein, notice shall be given to the railroad company by mailing, first class, a true copy of the same, properly addressed to the offices of the railroad at the address as it appears on the last approved county tax roll.

Sec. 5. If, as a result of such hearing, which may be continued from day to day, and from time to time until all persons entitled to be heard and who appear at said hearing have had an opportunity to be so heard and offer evidence, the said Board of Directors shall determine and find (a) that the owners of a majority in acreage of such urban property do not desire irrigation of the same; or

(b) that such urban property is not used or intended to be used for agricultural purposes; and

(c) that it would be to the best interest of said district and of the urban property proposed to be excluded or any part or parts thereof, that it be excluded from the district, said Board of Directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth such determination and findings and excluding the urban property or such part or parts thereof as to which such determination and findings are made. Should any canals, ditches, pipelines, pumps or other facilities of the district be located upon lands excluded in the resolution of the Board of Directors, such exclusion shall not affect nor interfere with any rights which the district might have to maintain and continue operation of the facilities as located for the purpose of servicing lands remaining in the district. A copy of said resolution excluding urban property from the district certified to and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall be recorded by the district in the Deed Records in the county in which the excluded property is situated as evidence of such exclusion.

Sec. 6. From and after the adoption of a resolution by the Board of Directors excluding urban property the excluded property shall constitute no part of such district and shall have no further liability thereafter to said district for taxes, assessments or other charges of the district, but any taxes, assessments or other charges owing to the district at the time of exclusion shall remain the obligation of the landowner and shall continue to be secured by any and all statutory liens, if any.

(s) to do any and all other acts or things necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers, rights, privileges or functions conferred upon it by this Act or any other Act or law;

Provided, however, that said District shall not be permitted to use for irrigation purposes any water under any law or permits heretofore issued or now held, owned or enjoyed by said District or which may be hereafter acquired from the Colorado River Corporation or any other company or person whomsoever unless expressly authorized by subsequent permits granted to the District by the Board of Water Engineers under authority of law; and said Board of Water Engineers in considering subsequent applications by said District shall at all times consider the needs of the people living within and on the lands lying within the watershed of the Colorado River and its tributaries above the District; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the District from selling, for irrigation purposes within the boundaries of the District, any water impounded by it under authority of law.

Provided further, that in creating and conferring the benefits of this Act on said District, it is declared as an essential part thereof that irrespective of any existing right or rights or permit or permits issued by the Board of Water Engineers of the State of Texas to use the waters of the Colorado River and its tributaries for the generation of hydro-electric power and which rights or permits may be acquired by the District, the impounding and use of the flood waters of the Colorado River and/or its tributaries for the generation of hydro-electric power by the District and/or anyone who may succeed to the rights and privileges conferred upon it by this Act, shall be subject to the rights of any other person, municipal corporation or body politic heretofore impounding or now putting to beneficial use any such waters for the purposes, set forth in Subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of Article 7471 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas as amended by Chapter 128 of the Acts of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas, when such other person, municipal corporation or body politic has heretofore received a permit for such use or uses from the Board of Water Engineers of the State of Texas, or who by law has heretofore been permitted to impound water for the aforesaid purposes, and nothing in this Act shall ever be construed as to require any such municipal corporation or body politic to surrender any such rights to which it may now be entitled to the District and shall not be construed so as to subject to condemnation by said District or any successor or by anyone who may succeed to the rights and privileges conferred upon it by this Act any waters heretofore impounded or to be impounded within or without the District under any law authorizing water to be impounded or under any permits heretofore granted or hereafter granted to a municipal corporation or body politic or any waters heretofore impounded or permitted to be impounded or use without the District under permits heretofore or hereafter granted to any person.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed as depriving any person or municipality of the right to impound the waters of the Colorado River and/or its tributaries for domestic and/or municipal purposes, nor of repealing any law granting such rights to persons and municipalities.

Sec. 3. The powers, rights, privileges and functions of the District shall be exercised by a board of twelve (12) Directors (herein called the "Board"), consisting of at least one (1) Director from each of the counties named in Section 1 of the Lower Colorado River Authority Act, with the exception of Travis County which shall have two (2) Directors. No county, other than Travis, shall have two (2) Directors for a period greater than six (6) consecutive years. All such Directors shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for a term of six (6) years to begin on the 1st of January and end on the 31st of December six years following their appointment; provided that each Director shall be a resident of and freehold property taxpayer of the county from which he is appointed and shall have been such for not less than two (2) years next preceding such appointment. Not more than two (2) of such Directors shall be residents of the same county. No person shall be eligible for such appointment if he has, during the preceding three (3) years before his appointment been employed by an electric power and light company, telephone company, or any other utility company of any kind whatsoever.

At the expiration of the term of any Director, another Director shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Each Director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, and thereafter until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed as in this Act provided. Any Director may be removed by the Governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after at least ten (10) days written notice of the charges against him and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel at public hearing. A vacancy resulting from the death, resignation or removal of any Director shall be filled by the Governor, for the unexpired term of such Director. Each Director shall qualify by taking the official oath of office prescribed by general statute.

Each Director shall receive a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per day for each day spent in attending meetings of the Board, and a like per diem for each day spent in attending to business of the Authority when authorized by resolution of the Board, together with actual expenses incurred in attending such meetings, and in attending to such business of the Authority. It is provided, however, that no Director shall be paid per diem in excess of one hundred and fifty (150) days in any one calendar year.

Seven (7) Directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting and, except as otherwise provided in this Act or in the bylaws, all action may be taken by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors present at any such meeting, except that no contract which involves an amount greater than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or which is to run for a longer period than a year, and no bonds, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness and no amendment of the bylaws shall be valid unless authorized or ratified by the affirmative vote of at least seven (7) Directors.

It is expressly provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the present membership of the Board of Directors of the Lower Colorado River Authority from continuing as such until the expiration of their respective terms of office; and it is the express intent that the present membership of said Board shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms of office.

It is expressly provided that said Board of Directors is a State Board as contemplated by Section 30a of Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas.

If any portion of this Act is held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions hereof shall nevertheless be valid, the same as if the portion or portions held unconstitutional had not been adopted by the Legislature.

Sec. 10. The District shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue bonds from time to time as authorized by this Act, provided that the aggregate principal amount of such bonds outstanding at any one time shall not exceed Three Hundred Million Dollars ($300,000,000.00). Provided, however, that in the event that any outstanding bonds shall be paid at maturity, other than through the application of the proceeds of other bonds or through the issuance of other bonds in exchange therefor; or shall be retired prior to the stated maturity thereof by operation of any sinking fund provided for the bonds so retired and in the proceedings authorizing the same, or from the proceeds of the sale of property, the aggregate principal amount of bonds herein authorized to be outstanding at any one time shall be reduced by the principal amount of the bonds so paid or retired. Any additional amount of bonds must be authorized by an Act of the Legislature. Such bonds (1) shall be sold for cash at public sale to the highest and best bidder, as determined by the Board of Directors with the advice and approval of the Attorney General of Texas, and the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond tables in general use by banks and insurance companies, shall be determined within the discretion of the Board of Directors, or (2) may be issued in exchange for like principal amounts of other obligations of the District, matured or unmatured, or (3) may be sold to the United States of America, or to any agency or corporation created or designated by the United States of America, in exchange for cash equal in amount to the principal amount of the bonds so sold, and the interest cost of the money received therefor, computed to maturity in accordance with standard bond tables in general use by banks and insurance companies, shall be determined within the discretion of the Board of Directors. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in such bank or banks or trust company or trust companies and shall be paid out pursuant to such terms and conditions, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, as may be agreed upon between the District and the purchasers of such bonds. The proceeds of such bonds and any net operating revenues, derived from the sale of electric power or water, which may be available after paying the interest on outstanding bonds and the principal amount of such bonds, and setting aside sufficient funds for working capital, including a reasonable sum for contingencies and setting aside funds for reserves to secure payment of principal of and interest on outstanding bonds, shall be used (1) to build and construct dams within the District, on the Colorado River and its tributaries for the impounding and storage of flood and surface water; (2) to purchase and install in the dams on the Colorado River hydroelectric generators and other related facilities for the generation of hydroelectric power; and (3) for the construction of such additional lines and the purchase and installation of such additional equipment as the Board of Directors of the District may deem necessary or expedient to enable the District to continue to meet the demand for electric power in the area now served by its transmission lines and distribution systems, provided that no steam generating capacity shall be installed by the District, except that the District may acquire, install, construct, and enlarge and make additions to, and operate one or more steam generating plants, the sum of whose aggregate capacity shall not be more than 1,500,000 kilowatts, to be located within the boundaries of either one or more of Colorado, Fayette, Bastrop, Travis, Blanco, Burnet, Llano or San Saba Counties, and to be utilized for the sole purpose of serving the area served by the District's transmission lines and distribution systems on January 1, 1962; and (4) for the purpose of building levees or such other flood control structures between the City of Austin and the mouth of the Colorado River as may be deemed necessary and desirable by the Board of Directors and installing such facilities as may be necessary to supply water for irrigation and other useful purposes within the counties composing the Colorado River District; and (5) in aid of any soil conservation or soil reclamation projects within the District which the Board of Directors may deem to be in the public interest, provided, however, that any such soil conservation or soil reclamation project shall be approved by the Extension Department of Texas A&M University, providing that nothing herein shall be construed as establishing priorities as to the uses of water contrary to the present General Laws of this State or those hereinafter enacted with reference thereto. Any proceeds of bonds sold by the District, and any net operating revenues, as determined by the Board of Directors not needed to carry out the projects set out in Phrases (1), (2), and (3) of the preceding sentence, to the extent not required by an outstanding trust indenture to be used to redeem outstanding bonds, shall be placed in a separate fund to be designated "The Irrigation, Conservation and Reclamation Fund of the District" and used only for carrying out the projects and purposes authorized in Phrases (4) and (5) of the preceding sentence, unless and until otherwise directed by the Legislature of the State of Texas. Such dams as may be built on the tributaries of the Colorado River shall be used for the purpose of impounding and storing flood and surface waters to be used during emergencies created by subnormal rainfall in the drainage basin of the Colorado River watershed. All such bonds shall be authorized by resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors concurred in by at least six (6) of the members thereof, and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rates payable annually or semiannually, be in such denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges as to principal only or as to both principal and interest, and as to exchange of coupon bonds for registered bonds or vice versa, and exchange of bonds of one denomination for bonds of other denominations, be executed in such manner and be payable at such place or places within or without the State of Texas, as such resolution or resolutions may provide. Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds may contain provisions, which shall be part of the contract between the District and the holder thereof from time to time (a) reserving the right to redeem such bonds at such time or times, in such amounts and at such prices, not exceeding one hundred and five per centum (105%) of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest, as may be provided; (b) providing for the setting aside of sinking funds or reserve funds and the regulation and disposition thereof; (c) pledging to secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on such bonds and of the sinking fund or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of such bonds, all or any part of the gross or net revenues thereafter received by the District in respect of the property, real, personal or mixed, to be acquired and/or constructed with such bonds or the proceeds thereof, or all or any part of the gross or net revenues theretofore or thereafter received by the District from whatever source derived; (d) prescribing the purposes to which such bonds or any bonds thereafter to be applied; (e) agreeing to fix and collect rates and charges sufficient to produce revenues adequate to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d), of Section 8 hereof, and prescribing the use and disposition of all revenues; (f) prescribing limitations upon the issuance of additional bonds and upon the agreements which may be made with the purchasers and successive holders thereof; (g) with regard to the construction, extension, improvement, reconstruction, operation, maintenance, and repair of the properties of the District and carrying of insurance upon all or any part of said properties covering loss or damage or loss of use and occupancy resulting from specified risks; (h) fixing the procedure, if any, by which, if the District shall so desire, the terms of any contract with the holders of such bonds may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; (i) for the execution and delivery by the District to a bank or trust company authorized by law to accept trusts, of indentures and agreements for the benefit of the holders of such bonds setting forth any or all of the agreements herein authorized to be made with or for the benefit of the holders of such bonds and such other provisions as may be customary in such indentures or agreements; and (j) such other provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the Board may approve, provided that no agreement, contract or commitment shall ever be made which, under any contingency, could or would result in the Government of the United States or any of its agencies or bureaus claiming the right or privilege of controlling or managing the properties and facilities of the District or the control or disposition of the water of the Colorado River or its tributaries; provided nothing herein shall be construed as limiting or restricting the rights or powers as set out hereinbelow in the event of any default on the part of the District. Nothing herein provided is intended to prohibit compliance with existing Federal Regulations, provided compliance therewith is done upon the advice and approval of the Attorney General of the State of Texas.

Any such resolution and any indenture or agreement entered into pursuant thereto may provide that in the event that:

(a) default shall be made in the payment of the interest on any or all bonds when and as the same shall become due and payable; or

(b) default shall be made in the payment of the principal of any or all bonds when and as the same shall become due and payable, whether at the maturity thereof, by call for redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default shall be made in the performance of any agreement made with the purchasers or successive holders of any bonds, and such default shall have continued such period, if any, as may be prescribed by said resolution in respect thereof, the trustee under the indenture or indentures entered into in respect of the bonds authorized thereby, or, if there shall be no such indenture, a trustee appointed in the manner provided in such resolution or resolutions by the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) in aggregate principal amount of the bonds authorized by such resolution or resolutions at the time outstanding, shall, in his or its own name, but for the equal and proportionate benefit of the holders of all such bonds; and with or without having possession thereof;

(1) by mandamus or other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity, enforce all rights of the holders of such bonds;

(2) bring suit upon such bonds and/or the appurtenant coupons;

(3) by action or suit in equity, require the District to account as if it were the trustee of an express trust for the bondholders;

(4) by action or suit in equity, enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders of such bonds, and/or;

(5) after such notice to the District as such resolution may provide, declare the principal of all of such bonds due and payable, and if all defaults shall have been made good, then with the written consent of the holders of twenty-five per centum (25%) in aggregate principal amount of such bonds at the time outstanding, annul such declaration and its consequences; provided, however, that the holders of more than a majority in principal amounts of the bonds authorized thereby and at the time outstanding, shall by instrument or instruments in writing, delivered to such trustee, have the right to direct and control any and all action taken or to be taken by such trustee under this paragraph. Any such resolution, indenture, or agreement may provide that in any such suit, action or proceeding, any such trustee, whether or not all of such bonds shall have been declared due and payable, and with or without possession of any thereof, shall be entitled as of right to the appointment of a receiver who may enter and take possession of all or any part of the properties of the District and operate and maintain the same and fix, collect and recieve rates and charges sufficient to provide revenues adequate to pay the items set forth in Subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d), of Section 8 hereof and the costs and disbursements of such suit, action or proceeding, and to apply such revenues in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the resolution or resolutions authorizing such bonds. In any suit, action or proceeding by any such trustee, the reasonable fees, counsel fees and expenses of such trustee or the receiver or receivers, if any, shall constitute taxable disbursements and all costs and disbursements allowed by the court shall be a first charge upon any revenues pledged to secure the payment of such bonds. Subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas, the courts of the County of Travis shall have jurisdiction of any suit, action or proceeding by any such trustee on behalf of the bondholders and of all property involved therein. In addition to the powers hereinabove specifically provided for, each such trustee shall have and possess all powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any thereof, or incident to the general representation of the bondholders in the enforcement of their rights.

Before any bonds shall be sold by the District, a certified copy of the proceedings for the issuance thereof, including the form of such bonds, together with any other information which the Attorney General of the State of Texas may require shall be submitted to the Attorney General, and if he shall find that such bonds have been issued in accordance with law he shall approve such bonds and he shall execute a certificate to the effect which shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller of the State of Texas and be recorded in a record kept for that purpose. No bond shall be issued until the same shall have been registered by the Comptroller, who shall so register the same if the Attorney General shall have filed with the Comptroller his certificate approving the bonds and the proceedings for the issuance thereof as hereinabove provided.

All bonds approved by the Attorney General as aforesaid, and registered by the Comptroller as aforesaid and issued in accordance with the proceedings so approved shall be valid and binding obligations on the revenues of the District and shall be incontestable for any cause from and after the time of such registration.

Annually hereafter the State Auditor shall audit the books and accounts of the District in such manner as to enable him to report to the Legislature as to the manner and purpose of the expenditure of all funds of the District. Such audit shall cover the fiscal year from July the first to June the thirtieth, and a report thereof shall be made before the first day of January of each year, a copy of which shall be filed with the Governor of Texas, the Attorney General of Texas, the Lieutenant Governor of Texas and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The State Auditor, after completing such report, shall prepare a detailed statement showing the actual cost of such audit and certifying such account to the Governor of the State of Texas for his approval, and when approved by the Governor, the State Auditor shall deliver an official copy thereof to the Manager of the District, and the District shall forthwith deposit such sum of money with the State Treasurer, which sum shall be placed in the General Fund of the State of Texas. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit an independent audit as required under any bond indenture.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State that the District shall so manage and use its facilities, the water impounded by its dams on the Colorado River or its tributaries and the net operating revenues which may be available, to accomplish as nearly as possible, such of the purposes included in Section 59a, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas as are enumerated in the provisions of this Act, and the District shall market such electric power (as in the opinion of the Board will not be immediately needed by the District) under such contracts and on such conditions as will best enable the District to pay its operating expenses, meet its outstanding financial obligations as they mature, supply the increasing demand for electric power in the area now dependent upon its transmission lines and distribution systems for electric service and assure, as nearly as possible, an adequate supply of water for irrigation and other useful purposes, when and as it may be needed in the various counties comprising the District. When bonds are to be issued to finance in whole or in part water-using facilities, before giving his approval the Attorney General shall be furnished a resolution from the Texas Water Rights Commission certifying that the Authority is possessed of the necessary water right authorizing it to impound or otherwise appropriate the waters to be utilized by the project.

PART I

Art. 8306, sec. 8a. Persons to whom death benefits payable; exemptions; distribution; payments

Sec. 8a. The compensation provided for in the foregoing section of this law shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the surviving husband who has not, for good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned his wife at the time of the injury, and of the wife who has not, at the time of the injury without good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned her husband, and of the minor children, parents and stepmother, without regard to the question of dependency, dependent grandparents, dependent children, dependent grandchildren and dependent brothers and sisters of the deceased employee; and the amount recovered thereunder shall not be liable for the debts of the deceased nor the debts of the beneficiary or beneficiaries and shall be distributed among the beneficiaries as may be entitled to the same as hereinbefore provided, according to the laws of descent and distribution of this State; provided, the right in such beneficiary or beneficiaries to recover compensation for death be determined by the facts that exist at the date of the death of the deceased and that said right be a complete, absolute and vested one. Such compensation shall not pass to the estate of the deceased to be administered upon, but shall be paid directly to said beneficiaries when the same are capable of taking, under the laws of this State, or to their guardian in case of lunacy, infancy or other disqualifying cause; except payments may be made directly to the person having custody of the person of such beneficiary, who shall be entitled to receive and receipt for such payments unless or until the association is notified that a guardian has been appointed, in which event payment shall thereafter be made to such guardian. The compensation provided for in this law shall be paid weekly to the beneficiaries herein specified, subject to the provisions of this law.

Sec. 8a amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1386, ch. 372, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

"Sec. 2. As respects claims for injury sustained prior to the effective date of this Act, no inchoate, vested, matured, existing or other rights, remedies, powers, duties, or authority, either of any employee or legal beneficiary, or of the board, or of the association, or of any other person shall be in any way affected by any of the amendments or repeals herein made to the original law hereby amended or repealed, but all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority shall remain and be in force as under the original law just as if the amendments or repeals hereby adopted had never been made, and to that end it is hereby declared that as respects such injuries occurring prior to the effective date of this Act, said original law is not repealed, but the same is, and shall remain in full force and effect as to all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority; and further this Act insofar as it adopts the law of which it is an amendment is a continuation thereof, and only in other respects a new enactment.

"Sec. 3. If any section, paragraph or provision of this Act be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such holding shall not in any manner affect the remaining sections, paragraphs or provisions of this Act, but the same shall remain in full force and effect.

"Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are expressly repealed to the extent of such conflict."

Art. 8306, sec. 12c. Subsequent injury; Second-Injury Fund

Sec. 12c. If an employee who has suffered a previous injury shall suffer a subsequent injury which results in a condition of incapacity to which both injuries or their effects have contributed, the association shall be liable for all compensation provided by this Act, but said association shall be reimbursed from the "Second Injury Fund" as hereinafter described, to the extent that the previous injury contributes to the combined incapacity.

Sec. 12c amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1257, ch. 316, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

"Sec. 4. As respects claims for injury sustained prior to the effective date of this Act, no inchoate, vested, matured, existing or other rights, remedies, powers, duties, or authority, either of any employee or legal beneficiary, or of the Board, or of the association, or of any other person shall be in any way affected by any of the amendments or repeals herein made to the original law hereby amended or repealed, but all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority shall remain and be in force as under the original law just as if the amendments or repeals hereby adopted had never been made, and to that end it is hereby declared that as respects such injuries occurring prior to the effective date of this Act, said original law is not repealed, but the same is, and shall remain in full force and effect as to all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority; and further, this Act insofar as it adopts the law of which it is an amendment is a continuation thereof, and only in other respects a new enactment.

"Sec. 5. If any section, paragraph or provision of this Act be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such holding shall not in any manner affect the remaining sections, paragraphs or provisions of this Act, but the same shall remain in full force and effect.

"Sec. 6. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are expressly repealed to the extent of such conflict."

Art. 8306, sec. 12c–1. Permanent and total incapacity through loss of or loss of use of, another member or organ

Sec. 12c–1. If an employee who has previously lost, or lost the use of, one hand, one arm, one foot, one leg, or one eye, becomes permanently and totally incapacitated through the loss or loss of use of another member or organ, the association shall be liable for all compensation provided by this Act, not to exceed 401 weeks, but said association shall be reimbursed from the "Second Injury Fund," as hereinafter described, to the extent that its payment exceeds the amount due for the second injury as above set out. In order to qualify for reimbursement from the "Second Injury Fund" under this section, the association must file its claim with the Industrial Accident Board within 180 days following date of injury, together with evidence of its payment of all compensation provided by this Act and of the preexisting permanent physical impairment qualifying the association for such reimbursement. Good cause for late filing as set forth in Section 4(a), Article 8307, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall also apply in such claims for reimbursement. Provided further, if the association makes payment in a lump sum to the injured claimant, the association shall be entitled to reimbursement from the "Second Injury Fund" by lump sum payment.

Sec. 12c–1 amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1257, ch. 316, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.

The Board or court shall deliver the full amount of the workmen's compensation award, including costs for medical services incurred, in the same manner as if the sum had been paid only by the responsible insurer. Thereafter, upon final determination of liability for compensation, whether by agreement, award of the Board or order of the court, the insurer, or insurers found not to be liable shall be entitled to reimbursement for its, or their, proportionate share deposited with the Board or court from the insurer who is determined to be liable for compensation and medical costs incurred.

The provisions of article 295c prohibiting disruption of classes and school activities, enacted by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1145, (H.B.No.186) ch. 258, eff. May 18, 1971, were codified by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3341, ch. 1024, art. 2, § 11, as V.T.C.A. Education Code, § 4.33.

Art. 295d. Maintaining campus order

Identification

Section 1. (a) During periods of disruption, as determined by the chief administrative officer of a state-supported institution of higher education in accordance with the definition set out in Subsection (b) of this section, the chief administrative officer, or an officer or employee of the institution designated by him to maintain order on the campus or facility of the institution, is authorized to require that any person on the campus or facility present evidence of his identification, or if the person is a student or employee of the institution, his student or employee official institutional identification card, or other evidence of his relationship with the institution. If any person refuses or fails upon request to present evidence of his identification, or if the person is a student or employee of the institution, his student or employee official identification card, or other evidence of his relationship with the institution, and if it reasonably appears that any such person has no legitimate reason to be on the campus or facility, any such person may be ejected from the campus or facility.

(b) A period of disruption is any period in which it reasonably appears that there is a threat of destruction to institutional property, injury to human life on the campus or facility, or a threat of the willful disruption of the orderly operation of the campus or facility.

Students and Nonstudents—14-Day Withdrawal of Consent

Sec. 2. (a) During periods of disruption as determined and defined in Section 1 of this Act, the chief administrative officer of a campus or other facility of a state-supported institution of higher education, or an officer or employee of the institution designated by him to maintain order on such campus or facility, may notify a person that consent to remain on the campus or facility under the control of the chief administrative officer has been withdrawn whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of such campus or facility and that his presence on the campus or facility will constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus or facility. In no case shall consent be withdrawn for longer than 14 days from the date on which consent was initially withdrawn. Such notification shall be in accordance with procedures set out in Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) When the chief administrative officer of a campus or other facility of a state-supported institution of higher education, or an officer or employee of the institution designated by him to maintain order on such campus or facility, decides to withdraw consent for any person to remain on the campus or facility, he shall notify that person in writing that consent to remain is withdrawn. Such written notice shall contain all of the following:

(1) that consent to remain on the campus has been withdrawn and the number of days for which consent has been withdrawn, not to exceed 14;

(2) the name and job title of the person withdrawing consent, along with an address where the person withdrawing consent can be contacted during regular working hours;

(3) a brief statement of the activity or activities resulting in the withdrawal of consent; and

(4) notification that the person from whom consent has been withdrawn is entitled to a hearing on such withdrawal not later than three days from the date of receipt by the chief administrative officer of a request for a hearing.

(c) Whenever consent is withdrawn by any authorized officer or employee other than the chief administrative officer, such officer or employee shall within 24 hours submit a written report to the chief administrative officer, unless the authorized officer or employee has reinstated consent for such person to remain on the campus. Such report shall contain all of the following:

(1) the description of the person from whom consent was withdrawn, including, if available, the person's name, address, and phone number; and

(2) a statement of the facts giving rise to the withdrawal of consent.

(d) If the chief administrative officer or, in his absence, a person designated by him for this purpose, upon reviewing the written report described in Subsection (c) of this section, finds that there was reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus or facility, and that his presence on the campus or facility will constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus or facility, he may enter written confirmation upon the report of the action taken by the officer or employee. If the chief administrative officer, or in his absence, the person designated by him, does not confirm the action of the officer or employee within 24 hours after the time that consent was withdrawn, the action of the officer or employee shall be deemed void and of no force or effect, except that any arrest made during such period shall not for this reason be deemed not to have been made for probable cause.

(e) The person from whom consent has been withdrawn may submit a written request for a hearing on the withdrawal to the chief administrative officer within the 14-day period. Such written request shall state the address to which notice of hearing is to be sent. The chief administrative officer shall grant such a hearing not later than three days from the date of receipt of such request and shall immediately mail a written notice of the time, place, and date of such hearing to such person. Such hearing shall be held before a duly designated discipline committee or authorized hearing officer of such institution in accordance with Section 5 of this Act. In no instance shall the person issuing such withdrawal notice or causing it to be issued serve on any committee where the validity of his order of withdrawal is in question.

(f) The chief administrative officer shall reinstate consent whenever he has reason to believe that the presence of the person from whom consent was withdrawn will not constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus or facility.

(g) Any person who has been notified by the chief administrative officer of a campus or facility of a state-supported institution of higher education, or by an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on such campus or facility, that consent to remain on the campus or facility has been withdrawn pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section, who has not had such consent reinstated, and who willfully and knowingly enters or remains upon such campus or facility during the period for which consent has been withdrawn, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is subject to punishment as set out in Section 6 of this Act. This subsection does not apply to any person who enters or remains on such campus or facility for the sole purpose of applying to the chief administrative officer or authorized officer or employee for the reinstatement of consent or for the sole purpose of attending a hearing on the withdrawal.

(h) This section shall not affect the power of the duly constituted authorities of a state-supported institution of higher education to suspend, dismiss, or expel any student or employee at such university or college.

Students and Employees—Barred From Campus During Suspension or Dismissal

Sec. 3. (a) Every student or employee who has been suspended or dismissed from a state-supported institution of higher education after a hearing, in accordance with procedures established by the institution, for disrupting the orderly operation of the campus or facility of such institution, as a condition of such suspension or dismissal, may be denied access to the campus or facility, or both, of the institution for the period of suspension, and in the case of dismissal, for a period not to exceed one year. A person who has been notified by personal service of such suspension or dismissal and condition and who willfully and knowingly enters upon the campus or facility of the institution to which he has been denied access, without the express written permission of the chief administrative officer of the campus or facility, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to punishment as set out in Section 6 of this Act.

(b) Knowledge shall be presumed if personal service has been given as prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section.

This article shall not apply to persons who may possess or distribute obscene matter or participate in conduct otherwise prescribed by this article when such possession, distribution, or conduct occurs in the course of law enforcement activities or in the course of bona fide scientific, educational, or comparable research or study or in the course of employment as a moving picture machine operator, or assistant operator, in a motion picture theater in connection with a motion picture film or show exhibited in said theater if such operator or assistant operator has no financial interest in the motion picture theater wherein he is so employed other than his wages received or owed, or like circumstances of justification where the possession, distribution, or conduct is not limited to the subject matter's appeal to prurient interests.

Search warrant for seizure of obscene material

Sec. 9. (a) An affidavit for a search warrant shall be filed with the magistrate describing the matter sought to be seized in detail. Where practical, the matter alleged to be obscene shall be attached to the affidavit for search warrant so as to afford the magistrate the opportunity to examine such material.

(b) Upon the filing of an affidavit for a search warrant, the magistrate shall determine, by examination of the matter sought to be seized, if attached, by an examination of the affidavit describing the matter, or by such other manner or means that he deems necessary, if probable cause exists for a hearing upon the question of the issuance of a search warrant. If the magistrate determines that probable cause exists for a hearing, he shall issue notice to the person or persons in possession of the matter, setting a time and place for a hearing to determine if a search warrant shall issue.

(c) The hearing on the affidavit for the issuance of a search warrant shall be at such time and upon such reasonable notice given in such manner as the magistrate may direct. The magistrate's order as to notice and hearing shall give the adverse party the right to appear and produce the matter described in the affidavit for a search warrant, but shall not in any manner require him to produce the said matter.

(d) The magistrate shall further have authority to render such orders as reasonable and necessary to protect the court's jurisdiction over the matter described in the affidavit for a search warrant and may issue orders requiring the matter not to be removed from its location as described in the application for a search warrant or to make any change, alteration or destruction of the matter until such time as a hearing has been conducted and the search warrant executed or the request therefor denied.

(e) Any person who has personal knowledge of the magistrate's order concerning the protection of the matter sought to be seized who knowingly disobeys the order and removes, changes, alters, or destroys the matter sought to be seized shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine of not more than $1,000 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both fine and confinement.

(f) At the time of the hearing on the issuance of a search warrant, the magistrate shall hear evidence concerning the obscenity of the matter and shall examine the matter or any copy of the same if produced in court, and shall afford any person in possession of the matter sought to be seized or claiming ownership of the matter an opportunity to be heard as to the obscenity or nonobscenity of the matter. At the close of the hearing the magistrate shall make a determination as to the obscenity or nonobscenity of the matter and shall determine if probable cause exists for the immediate issuance of a search warrant for its seizure.

(g) If the magistrate finds the matter to be obscene and that probable cause exists for the immediate issuance of a search warrant, then he shall issue a search warrant ordering the seizure of the matter described in the affidavit for a search warrant under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas.

(h) In the event that a search warrant is issued and matter alleged to be obscene is seized under the provisions of this section, any person alleged to be in possession of the said matter or claiming ownership of the matter at the time of its possession or seizure may file a notice in writing with the magistrate within 10 days of the date of the seizure alleging that the matter is not obscene and the magistrate shall set a hearing within one day after request therefor, or at such time as the requesting party might agree, and at such hearing evidence may be presented as to the obscenity of the matter seized and at the conclusion of such additional hearing, the magistrate shall make a further determination as to the obscenity or nonobscenity of the matter. If at such hearing the magistrate finds the matter not to be obscene, then it shall be returned to the person or persons from whom it was seized.

(i) When a search warrant is issued under the provisions of this section, only that matter described in the complaint shall be seized by the executing peace officer or officers.

(j) Procedures under this section for the seizure of allegedly obscene matter shall be cumulative of all other lawful means of obtaining evidence as provided by the laws of this State. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the obtaining of alleged obscene matter by purchase or under injunction proceedings as authorized by this Act or by any other statute of the State of Texas.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the surviving spouse or surviving descendant of a holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit qualifies as the successor in interest to the permit as provided in Subsection (b) of this Section, the descendant or surviving spouse may continue to renew the permit by paying a renewal fee equal to the fee the permittee would be required to pay had he lived.

Subsec. (f) added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 699, ch. 65, § 26, eff. April 21, 1971.

Permits shall be of the following classes:

* * * * * * * * * * *

(22) Mixed Beverage Permit. A Mixed Beverage Permit authorizes the holder to sell mixed beverages from unsealed containers, or from sealed containers containing no less than one fluid ounce but not more than two fluid ounces, for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued.

Notwithstanding the limitation set out in this subsection and in Section 20e of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act,[1] a Mixed Beverage Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase wine, beer, and malt liquor in a container of any legal size containing alcohol of not more than twenty-one per centum (21%) by volume from the holder of any permit or license which authorizes the holder thereof to sell same for resale, and the Mixed Beverage Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to sell such wine, beer and malt liquor in a container of any legal size for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued. The annual fee for a Mixed Beverage Permit is Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) for an original permit, One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) for the first annual renewal, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for the second annual renewal, and Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the third annual and each subsequent annual renewal.

(23) Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. (a) The Commission may, in its discretion, issue on a temporary basis a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. The fee for the permit is Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day.

(b) The permit authorizes the sale of mixed beverages for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued and may only be issued to a political party or political association supporting a candidate for public office or a proposed amendment to the State Constitution or other ballot measure, an organization formed for a specific charitable or civic purpose, a fraternal organization in existence for over five years with a regular membership, or a religious organization.

(c) Distilled spirits sold under a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit must be purchased from the holder of a Local Distributor's permit.

(d) All provisions of this Act applicable to a Mixed Beverage Permit also apply to a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit, unless there is a special provision to the contrary.

(e) The requirements which apply to the application and issuance of other permits contained in this Act do not apply to the application and issuance of a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. The Commission may adopt such rules and regulations as it determines to be necessary to implement and administer the provisions of this Section, including, but not limited to, limitations on the number of times during any calendar year a qualified organization may be issued a license provided for by this Section.

(24) Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit. A Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit authorizes the holder to sell mixed beverages on Sunday between the hours of 1 a. m. and 2 a. m. and on any day except Sunday between the hours of 12 midnight and 2 a.m. if the premises covered by the permit are in an area where the sale of mixed beverages during those hours is authorized by this Act. All Sections of this Act which apply to a Mixed Beverage Permit also apply to a Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit. The annual State fee for a Mixed Beverages Late Hours Permit is One Hundred Dollars ($100).

(25) (a) Caterer's Permit. A Caterer's Permit may only be issued to the holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit. It authorizes the Mixed Beverage Permittee to sell mixed beverages on a temporary basis at a place other than the premises for which the Mixed Beverage Permit is issued, but only in an area where the sale of such beverages has been authorized by a local option election.

(b) The provisions of this Act which apply to the application and issuance of other permits do not apply to the application and issuance of a Caterer's Permit. The restrictions and regulations which apply to the sale of mixed beverages on the licensed premises also apply to the sale under the authority of a Caterer's Permit, and any act which is prohibited on the licensed premises is also prohibited when the permittee is operating other than on the licensed premises under a Caterer's Permit. Any act which, if done on the licensed premises would be a ground for cancellation or suspension of the Mixed Beverage Permit, is a ground for cancellation of both the Mixed Beverage Permit and the Caterer's Permit if done when the permittee is operating away from the licensed premises under the authority of a Caterer's Permit.

(c) A Caterer's Permit is auxiliary to the primary Mixed Beverage Permit held by the permittee. All receipts from the sale of mixed beverages under the authority of the Caterer's Permit shall be treated for tax purposes as if they were made under the authority of the primary permit. If the primary permit ceases to be valid for any reason, the Caterer's Permit ceases to be valid. All provisions of this Act applicable to the primary permit not inconsistent with this subsection apply to a Caterer's Permit.

(d) The Commission shall adopt rules and regulations governing the application, issuance, and use of Caterer's Permits.

(e) The annual fee for a Caterer's Permit is Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250).

All fees and payments from temporary members shall be collected in cash or through credit cards approved by the Commission or Administrator. Temporary memberships shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Commission not inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Guests shall be limited to those who accompany a member onto the premises or for whom the member has made prior arrangements with the management of the club. Except as set forth in this section, no guest shall be permitted to pay, by cash or otherwise, for any service of alcoholic beverage, but any such service rendered to a guest by the club must be billed by the club in its regular billing cycle, monthly or otherwise, to the member sponsoring such guest.

These hotel records shall be available for inspection at the request of the Commission. If the club operates under the locker system any such guest shall be served from the locker rented to the manager of the hotel.

The Commission shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection.

Art. 666—20d. Gross receipts tax on mixed beverage and private club permittees; collection and disposition; procedures; violations; penalties; permits restricted

(a) The word "permittee," as used in this section, means a Mixed Beverage Permittee, Late Hour Mixed Beverage Permittee, Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permittee, Private Club Registration Permittee, or a Late Hour Private Club Registration Permittee.

(b) A tax at the rate of ten percent (10%) is imposed on the gross receipts of a permittee from the sale, preparation, or service of mixed beverages, or from the sale, preparation, or service of ice or nonalcoholic beverages which are sold, prepared, or served for the purpose of being mixed with alcoholic beverages and consumed on the premises of the permittee.

(c) Every permittee shall make and keep a record, in a form prescribed by the Commission or Administrator, of all taxable receipts and accumulate the total for each business day. A "business day" for the purpose of this section is the period of time between 3 a. m. one day and 3 a. m. the next day. Permittees, except Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permittees, shall keep a copy of this record, as well as all other records of receipts and disbursements by the permittee, on file on the premises for a period of two years, and the record is open to inspection by any agent of the Commission or by any peace officer at any time. Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permittees shall file a copy of the records for each month with the tax return for that month as prescribed by the Commission.

(d) On or before the fifteenth day of every month every permittee shall file with the Commission a sworn tax return. The return shall be in the form prescribed by the Commission or Administrator and shall include a statement of the total gross taxable receipts during the preceding month and such other information as the Commission or Administrator may require. Tax due for a business day which falls in two different months is allocated to the month during which the business day begins. If any permittee shall fail to file a return as required herein or shall fail to pay to the Commission the tax as imposed herein when said report or payment is due, the permittee shall forfeit five percent (5%) of the amount due as a penalty and after thirty (30) days the penalty shall be increased to ten percent (10%).

(e) (1) The tax due for the preceding month shall accompany the return and shall be in the form of a cashier's check, certified check, or postal money order payable to the State of Texas. The Commission shall deposit these receipts in the State Treasury to the credit of a special clearance fund to be known as the Mixed Beverage Tax Clearance Fund.

(2) The Commission shall keep a record indicating the name of the permittee from which each return is received, the county and the incorporated city or town, if any, in which it is located, and the amount of the tax received. Before the end of the month following each calendar quarter, the Commission shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a report showing the total amount of taxes received during the quarter from permittees outside an incorporated city or town within each county and the total amount received from permittees within each incorporated city or town in each county.

(3) As soon as possible after receipt of each quarterly report of the Commission, the Comptroller shall issue to each county a warrant drawn on the Mixed Beverage Tax Clearance Fund in the amount of fifteen percent (15%) of receipts from permittees within the county during the quarter, and shall issue to each incorporated city or town a warrant drawn on that fund in the amount of fifteen percent (15%) of receipts from permittees within the incorporated city or town during the quarter, as shown by the Commission's report. The remainder of the receipts for the quarter shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

(f) The Commission shall require of every permittee a bond or bonds executed by the permittee as principal and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this state as surety, and the bond or bonds shall be payable to the State of Texas and conditioned as the Commission may require and approved by the Attorney General as to form. The bond or bonds shall be in an amount which in the judgment of the Commission or Administrator will adequately protect the state, but in no case may the amount of the bond be less than $1,000 or more than $25,000.

(g) It shall be unlawful for any Mixed Beverage Permittee, Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permittee or Private Club or Registration Permittee to possess, or permit any person to possess on the premises, and it shall be unlawful for any Local Distributor's Permittee to knowingly sell, ship, or deliver to such premises any distilled spirits in any container not bearing a serially numbered identification stamp issued by the Commission or such other identification method approved by the Commission. Such identification stamp shall be issued only to holders of Local Distributor's Permits who shall affix such stamps in a manner prescribed by the Commission or Administrator. The Commission or Administrator may, after notice and hearing, suspend for a period of up to 60 days or cancel the permit of any person who violates this subsection.

(h) The Commission shall examine the tax account of each permittee and shall collect any additional taxes due as established through any records or information that is in the Commission's possession or any records or information that is available or may come into the Commission's possession. For the convenience of the Commission in examining tax accounts of Mixed Beverage Permittees and Private Club Permittees, it is hereby required that each such permittee purchase separately and individually for each licensed premises any and all alcoholic beverages to be sold or served on the licensed premises. When additional taxes are established as due based on an examination by the Commission, a penalty equal to ten percent (10%) thereof shall be collected with the additional taxes due. The Commission or Administrator may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the collection and administration of the tax imposed by this section.

(i) No person may fail to keep any record in the manner required by this section, fail to file any return in the manner required by this section, keep a false record, or file a false return. A person who violates this subsection is punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by confinement in the county jail for not more than 30 days or by both. The Commission or Administrator may, after notice and hearing, suspend for a period of up to 60 days, or cancel, the permit of any person it finds to have violated this subsection.

(j) No person may knowingly fail to keep any record in the manner required by this section, fail to file any return in the manner required by this section, keep a false record, or file a false return. A person who violates this subsection is punishable by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000 and by confinement in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than two years. The Commission or Administrator shall cancel the permit of any permittee convicted of violating this subsection or found by the Commission or Administrator, after notice and hearing, to have violated this subsection.

(k) No Mixed Beverage Permit, Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit, or Private Club Registration Permit, may ever be issued to any of the following:

(1) A person whose permit was cancelled because of a violation of Subsection (j) of this section or of Subsection (b), Section 20c, of this Article [1];

(2) A person who held an interest of any kind in a permit that was cancelled because of a violation of Subsection (j) of this section or of Subsection (b), Section 20c, of this Article;

(3) A person who held 50 percent or more of the stock, either in his own name or by any other means, of a corporation whose permit was cancelled because of a violation of Subsection (b), Section 20c, of this Article or Subsection (j) of this section, if the acts on which the cancellation was based occurred while the stock was held;

(4) A corporation if any person holding 50 percent or more of the stock, either in his own name or by any other means, is disqualified from obtaining a permit in his individual capacity because of a violation of Subsection (b), Section 20c, of this Article or Subsection (j) of this section; or

(5) A person residentially domiciled with a person who is barred from obtaining a permit because of a violation of Subsection (j) of this section or of Subsection (b), Section 20c, of this Article.

(l) For the purposes of Subdivisions (3) and (4) of Subsection (k) of this section, a person is treated as holding 50 percent or more of the stock in a corporation if the total amount of stock owned by himself and all persons who are his parents, children, or siblings, or with whom he is residentially domiciled, equals or exceeds 50 percent of the stock in the corporation.

No local distributor may sell distilled spirits to a Mixed Beverage Permittee or a Private Club Permittee in individual containers containing less than one fluid ounce. No local distributor may deliver less than two and four-tenths gallons of distilled spirits in a single shipment.

The Commission or Administrator is authorized to issue Local Distributor's Permits only to holders of Package Store Permits issued under the terms of Section 15(8) of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.[1] A Local Distributor's Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase distilled spirits or liquor from holders of Wholesaler's Permits issued under the terms of Section 15(6) of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act[2] only, and to sell and distribute to Mixed Beverage Permittees or Private Club Permittees such brands of distilled spirits, liquor, and other alcoholic beverages as are for general distribution and are available from the wholesaler to all local distributors. The fee for a Local Distributor's Permit shall be in the amount of Fifty Dollars ($50) and shall be paid in addition to, and under the same conditions as, the fee paid for the holder's Package Store Permit. Any holder or any agent of a holder of a Wholesaler's Permit issued under the terms of Section 15(6) of this Article I may enter the licensed premises of a Mixed Beverage Permittee or a Private Club Permittee for the purpose of determining the brands offered for sale and suggesting or promoting to the extent authorized by Section 17(3) (g) of this Article I,[3] the sale of other brands; provided, however, that no holder and no agent of a holder of a Section 15(6) Wholesaler's Permit shall be authorized to accept a direct order from a Mixed Beverage Permittee other than a direct order for wine or malt liquor.

No holder of a Nonresident Seller's Permit or a Manufacturer's Agent's Permit issued under Section 15–½ of this Article I,[4] shall, unless accompanied by the holder or the agent of a holder of a Wholesaler's Permit, solicit any business, directly or indirectly, from a Mixed Beverage Permittee or a Private Club Permittee.

Where a Mixed Beverage Permittee or a Private Club Permittee is in an area where there are no local distributors, the holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit or a Private Club Permit shall be empowered to purchase alcoholic beverages in the nearest area where local distributors are located and transport same to the premises of the Mixed Beverage Permittee or Club; provided the permittee transporting such alcoholic beverages is also a holder of a Beverage Cartage Permit, and provided that such transporter shall acquire such alcoholic beverages only on the written order from the holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit or officer or manager of the Club and any such alcoholic beverages must be accompanied by a written statement furnished and signed by a local distributor, showing the name and address of the consignee and consignor, the origin and destination of such shipment, and such other information as may be required by the Commission or Administrator; and it shall be the duty of the person in charge of such alcoholic beverages while they are being so transported to exhibit such written statement to any representative of the Commission or any peace officer making demand therefor, and such statement shall be accepted by such representative or officer as prima facie evidence of the lawful right to transport such alcoholic beverages.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

The Commission is hereby authorized to issue a Beverage Cartage Permit to the holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit or a Private Club Permit to transport alcoholic beverages to the licensed premise from the place of purchase. The holder of a Beverage Cartage Permit shall be privileged to transfer alcoholic beverages as herein provided. The annual State fee for a Beverage Cartage Permit shall be Ten Dollars ($10).

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the holder of a Local Distributor's Permit may sell to holders of Mixed Beverage Permits distilled spirits, wine and vinous liquor in containers containing not less than one ounce but not more than two ounces, as well as any other container authorized by the Texas Liquor Control Act. Holders of Wholesaler's Permits may import, sell, offer for sale, or possess for purpose of resale to holders of Local Distributor's Permits, or as permitted in Section 15(21) of this Article I,[5] distilled spirits, wine and vinous liquor in containers containing not less than one ounce but not more than two ounces, as well as any other container authorized by the Texas Liquor Control Act.

Art. 666—21. Fees and taxes

(1) There is hereby levied and imposed on the first sale in addition to the other fees and taxes levied by this Act the following:

(a) A tax of $2.00 per gallon on each gallon of distilled spirits, providing the minimum tax on any package of distilled spirits shall be $0.122 if the package contains one-half pint, and providing further that the minimum tax on any package of distilled spirits shall be $0.05 if the package contains 2 ounces or less. Should packages containing less than ½ pint but more than 2 ounces ever be legalized in Texas, the minimum tax on any such package of distilled spirits shall be $0.122.

(b) A tax of $0.17 on each gallon of vinous liquor that does not contain over 14 percent of alcohol by volume.

(c) A tax of $0.34 on each gallon of vinous liquor containing more than 14 percent of alcohol by volume.

(d) A tax of $0.43 on each gallon of artificially carbonated and natural sparkling vinous liquor.

(e) A tax of $0.165 on each gallon of malt liquor containing alcohol in excess of four percent by weight.

(2) the term "first sale" as used in Article I of this Act shall be construed in compliance with whichever of the following rules is applicable:

(a) As to liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state by the holder of a wholesaler's permit authorizing such importation, the term "first sale" shall mean the first actual sale by the holder of any wholesaler's permit to the holder of any other permit authorizing the retail sale of the beverage to be taxed, or to the holder of a Local Distributor's Permit.

(b) As to any liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, distilled or produced in or brought into this state by any person, groups of persons, or legal entity other than a holder of a permit authorizing importation, the term "first sale" shall mean and include the first sale, possession, distribution, or use in this state of any and all liquor refined, blended, manufactured, imported into, or in any other manner produced or acquired, possessed, or brought into this state.

(c) As to ale and malt liquor, the term "first sale" shall be given the meaning attributed to "first sale" or importation in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.[1]

(3) Any holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of any liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, shall pay the tax or taxes levied thereon by the laws of this state by the reporting system under bond in compliance with the following provisions:

(a) The Commission shall require of each holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, a bond or bonds executed by the permit holder as principal and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this state as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the State of Texas and conditioned as the Commission may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State of Texas against the anticipated tax liability on the principal during any six (6) weeks' period.

(b) The tax on liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state, shall become due and payable and shall be paid by the permit holder on or before the 15th day of the month following the first sale. As to ale and malt liquor, the tax shall become due and payable as provided in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.

(c) The tax shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provision or provisions in Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, and remittance therefor made payable to the State Treasurer shall be due at the office of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission in Austin, Travis County, Texas, on or before the 15th day of the month due less two percent (2%) of the amount due which shall be withheld by the permit holder for the keeping of records, furnishing of bonds, and properly accounting for the remittance of the tax due; provided, however, that no allowance shall be granted or permitted when the tax is delinquent at the time of payment.

(d) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Commission, and remittances therefor made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Commission each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Commission to the State Treasurer for the allocation in conformity with the terms of Section 46, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act.[2]

(e) If any permit holder, in computing and paying the tax due, through oversight, mistake, error or miscalculation, has paid more tax than is legally due, the permit holder who paid such excess tax shall be entitled to a refund thereof, and a claim for such refund may be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Commission or Administrator, and such excess tax shall be refunded to the permit holder who has paid the same, or credit may be allowed on future tax payment. Refunds for overpayment of tax may be made by the Commission from the revenues derived from the collection of the tax before the same has been allocated, and so much of such funds as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

(f) The permit holder shall report to the Commission each receipt of shipment of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, and shall prepare and furnish any such further information and such reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission.

(g) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax owed by a permit holder, a certificate by the Commission or Administrator showing the deficiency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and compliance by the Commission with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(4) It is not intended that the tax levied in Subsection (1) of this Section 21 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be collected on liquor shipped out of this state for consumption outside this state or sold aboard ship for ship's supplies, and the Commission shall provide forms for obtaining exemption from or credit for such taxes and shall provide by rule and regulation for equitable and final disposition of any tax credit brought about by such payment of any such unintended or excess tax.

(5) Unless the liquor is exempted from tax under the terms of Subsection (4) of this Section 21 or unless payment has been or is to be made by a permit holder in conformity with the provisions of Subsection (3) of this Section 21, or unless payment has been or is to be made by the permit holder in conformity with Section 21⅛C, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act [3], the tax levied under Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, shall be paid by affixing a stamp or stamps on each bottle or container of liquor. Said stamps shall be affixed in strict accordance with any rule and regulation promulgated pursuant to this Act. The Commission, however, may, in any situation deemed by it to create an emergency or other circumstance which in its judgment would make it impractical to require the affixing of stamps, by order prescribe special rules for the payment of the tax in the specific situation under consideration.

(6) Every holder of a permit authorizing the wholesaling of liquor, upon receipt of a shipment of liquor for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, shall prepare and furnish such information and reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission. All such permittees authorized to transport liquor beyond the boundaries of this state shall furnish to the Commission duplicate copies of all invoices for the sale of such liquors, within twenty-four (24) hours after such liquors have been removed from their place of business.

(7) Any person, persons, or association who violates any portion of this Section 21 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year.

Art. 666—23. Dry and wet areas; definitions

Whenever the term "dry area" is used in this Act, it shall mean and refer to all counties, justice precincts, incorporated cities or towns wherein the sale of alcoholic beverages had been prohibited by valid local option elections held under the laws of the State in force at the time of taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas in the year 1919. It likewise shall mean and refer to any such areas where sale of such alcoholic beverages shall be prohibited under the terms of this Act.

The term "wet area" shall mean and refer to all other areas of the State.

As to any particular type of alcoholic beverage, each county, justice precinct, incorporated city or town within this State shall be deemed to be a "dry area" unless such political subdivision was a "wet area" at the time Section 20 of Article XVI of the Constitution became effective and has not since said time changed its status, or unless the sale of that particular type of alcoholic beverage has been legalized by local option election in such political subdivision since said time; provided, however, the Commissioners Court of any county of over 500,000 population according to the last federal census, may designate that the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a professional sports stadium, which is used wholly or partly for professional sporting events, having a seating capacity of 40,000 or more, and the land, not to exceed 125 acres, adjacent to such stadium used for the benefit of such stadium (regardless of ownership of such land) and where no registered voters reside, and/or the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a regional airport, shall be wet for purposes of the sale of mixed beverages, only, under this Act; provided further, that such Commissioners Court shall have authority to so declare only in counties where the sale of all alcoholic beverages has been legalized, either throughout the entire county or any portion of

The term "wet area" shall be construed as including in each particular instance only alcoholic beverages of a type or alcoholic beverage not exceeding in alcoholic content that which have been legalized by a valid local option election in the prescribed area, except as otherwise provided above.

The trial courts of this State shall take judicial knowledge of the status of wet and dry areas as herein defined in any criminal prosecution.

An allegation that any county or political subdivision as herein provided is a dry area as to any particular type of alcoholic beverage shall in law be deemed sufficient in any information, complaint, or indictment; provided, however, that a different status of such area may be urged and proved as a defense.

Art. 666—58. Salvaging insured losses

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any person not otherwise permitted or licensed to sell alcoholic beverages but coming into possession of any alcoholic beverages as an insurer or an insurance salvor in the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas by a qualified permittee or licensee may sell such beverages in one lot or parcel to a duly licensed holder of a qualified permit or license without himself qualifying as a permittee or licensee. Provided, however, no alcoholic beverages unfit to be sold for public consumption may be so sold, and provided further, immediately after taking possession of said alcoholic beverages the said insurer or insurance salvor shall register same with the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, furnishing the Commission a detailed listing and exact location of the alcoholic beverages and posting with the Commission a surety bond in such amount as the Administrator may deem adequate to protect the State in relation to taxes due on such alcoholic beverages, if any; provided, the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission shall find same to be salable and provided further, the person making such registration shall remit therewith a registration fee of Ten Dollars, which fee shall permit the sale of only the alcoholic beverages detailed in the said registration.

It is further provided, however, that as to beer, its containers, or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer, or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale:

Upon being notified and furnished a list of any beer possessed and desired to be sold by any insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify a holder of a General or Local Distributor's or Branch Distributor's License who handles the brand of beer and who operates in the county where said beer is located. If the beer is located in a dry area or if no Distributor operates in the county, either the Distributor or Branch Distributor operating nearest said area handling the brand or the Manufacturer brewing said beer shall be notified. The insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission, and the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said beer is in a salable condition. If said beer is determined not to be in a salable condition it shall be immediately destroyed by the Commission. If said beer is determined to be in a salable condition it shall be offered for sale to the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified. If offered to a Distributor or Branch Distributor, it shall be at the Distributor's or Branch Distributor's cost price less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. its place of business, or if offered to a Manufacturer the price shall be the cost price to its nearest Distributor or Branch Distributor, less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. said nearest Distributor's or Branch Distributor's place of business.

Should said Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer not exercise the right to purchase any salable beer or any returnable bottles, containers or packages at their deposit price within ten (10) days, then the insurer or insurance salvor shall proceed to sell same as hereinabove otherwise provided.

Having purchased such beverages in accordance with this article, the purchasing duly licensed permittee or licensee may thereafter handle, possess, transport, sell, or otherwise dispose of beverages so acquired to the same extent and in the same way allowed as to other alcoholic beverages legally acquired by such permittee or licensee.

It is further provided, however, that as to any liquor, its containers or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale.

Upon being notified and furnished a list of liquor that has been possessed and desired to be sold by an insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify only the holder or holders of the Wholesaler's Permit or General Class B or Local Class B Wholesaler's Permit who handle and regularly sell the brand or brands of liquor possessed and who operate in the county where said liquor is located. If the liquor is located in a dry area, only the Wholesalers operating nearest said area handling and regularly selling the brand or brands shall be notified. The Commission and the Wholesaler or Wholesalers and the Nonresident Sellers or their Agents of the brand or brands possessed so notified, and the insurer or insurance salvor shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said liquor is in a salable condition; provided, however, that no Nonresident Seller or Manufacturer's Agent, acting either in this capacity or in any other, shall be authorized to represent any person, persons, or legal entity other than the primary source of supply for the alcoholic beverage involved within the United States. If said liquor is determined not to be in a salable condition, it shall be destroyed immediately by the Commission. If said liquor is determined to be in a salable condition, it shall first be offered for sale to the Wholesaler and the Nonresident Seller of the brand or brands at their cost price, less any State taxes on said liquor if theretofore paid.

Should any Wholesaler of the brand not exercise the right to purchase any salable liquor, containers or packages within ten (10) days, then the Commission shall proceed to sell same at public or private sales as hereinabove otherwise provided.

The term "salable," as used herein, shall mean a finding that the beverage has not been adulterated and is fit for consumption, all tax stamps required by law have been affixed, and the labels are legible as to contents, brand and manufacturer. The salvor may reject any bid made on a part only of the whole salvage.

Art. 726—3. Hazardous substances; labeling; sale

Definitions

Section 1. When used in this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health.

(2) "Person" includes any individual, partnership, corporation or association, or legal representative or agent.

(3) "Commerce" means any and all commerce within the State of Texas and subject to the jurisdiction thereof; and includes the operation of any business or service establishment.

(4) "Hazardous substance" means any substance or mixture of substances which is toxic, corrosive, flammable, an irritant, a strong sensitizer, or generates pressure through decomposition, heat, or other means, if the substance or mixture of substances may cause substantial personal injury or substantial illness during or as a proximate result of any customary or reasonably foreseeable handling or use, including reasonably foreseeable ingestion by children; and any radioactive substance if, with respect to the substance as used in a particular class of article or as packaged, the department finds by regulation that the substance is sufficiently hazardous to require labeling in accordance with the provisions of this Act in order to protect the public health. The term "hazardous substance" does not apply to economic pesticides subject to the State or Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act [1] nor to foods, drugs, and cosmetics subject to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act [2] or to beverages complying with or subject to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act [3], or to the Texas Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act [4], nor to substances intended for use as fuels when stored in containers and used in the heating, cooking or refrigeration system of a private residence, nor does it apply to or include any source material, special nuclear material, or by-product material as defined in the federal Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended,[5] and regulations issued pursuant thereto by the Atomic Energy Commission.

(5) "Toxic" means any substance other than a radioactive substance which has the capacity to produce personal injury or illness to any person through ingestion, inhalation, or absorption through any body surface.

(6) "Highly toxic" means any substance which produces death within 14 days in half or more than half of a group of 10 or more laboratory white rats each weighing between 200 and 300 grams, at a single dose of 50 milligrams or less per kilogram of body weight, when orally administered, or when inhaled continuously for a period of one hour or less at an atmospheric concentration of 200 parts per million by volume or less of gas or vapor or two milligrams per liter by volume or less of mist or dust, if the inhaled concentration is likely to be encountered by any person when the substance is used in any reasonably foreseeable manner; or which produces death within 14 days in half or more than half of a group of 10 or more rabbits tested in a dosage of 200 milligrams or less per kilogram of body weight, when administered by continuous contact with the bare skin for 24 hours or less. However, if the department finds that available data based on human experience indicate results different from those obtained on animals, the human data shall take precedence.

(7) "Corrosive" means any substance which in contact with living tissue will cause destruction of that tissue by chemical action. It does not refer to chemical action on inanimate surfaces.

(8) "Irritant" means any noncorrosive substance which on immediate, prolonged, or repeated contact with normal living tissue will induce a local inflammatory reaction.

(9) "Strong sensitizer" means any substance which will cause on normal living tissue, through an allergic or photodynamic process, a hypersensitivity which becomes evident on reapplication of the same substances. Before designating any substance as a strong sensitizer, the department, upon consideration of the frequency of occurrence and severity of the reaction, shall find that the substance has a significant potential for causing hypersensitivity.

(10) "Flammable" applies to any substance which has a flash point of above 20 degrees to and including 80 degrees Fahrenheit, as determined by the Tagliabue Open Cup Tester. Any substance which has a flash point at or blow 20 degrees Fahrenheit, as determined by the Tagliabue Open Cup Tester shall be designated "extremely flammable." However, the flammability of solids, children's clothing, and of the contents of self-pressurized containers shall be determined by methods found by the department to be generally applicable to these materials or containers, and shall be established by regulations issued by the department.

(11) "Radioactive substance" means a substance which emits ionizing radiation.

(12) "Label" means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon the immediate container of any substance, or in the case of an article which is unpackaged or is not packaged, in an immediate container intended or suitable for delivery to the ultimate consumer, a display of this matter directly on the article involved or on a tag or other suitable material affixed thereto.

(13) "Immediate container" does not include package liners.

(14) "Misbranded hazardous substance" means a hazardous substance (including a toy, or other article intended for use by children, which is a hazardous substance, or which bears or contains a hazardous substance in a manner which is susceptible of access by a child to whom the toy or other article is entrusted, intended or packaged in a form suitable for use in the household or by children), which fails to bear a proper label as required by this Act.

Labeling

Sec. 2. (a) It shall be the responsibility of the department to see that hazardous substances are labeled sufficiently to inform users of dangers involved in the use, storage, or handling of such substances, together with instructions for actions to be followed or avoided and instructions where necessary for proper first aid treatment. The department shall develop labeling instructions consistent with and in conformity with federal requirements.

(b) Any statement required by the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section shall be located prominently and shall be written in the English language in conspicuous and legible type which contrasts in typography, layout, or color with other printed matter on the label. The department may also require any such statement to be written in the Spanish language in addition to the English language.

(c) Any statement required by the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section shall also appear on the outside container or wrapper of any substance, and on any container sold separately and intended for the storage of a hazardous substance, unless the statement is easily legible through the outside container or wrapper, and on all accompanying literature where there are directions for use, written or otherwise.

Banned hazardous substances

Sec. 3. (a) Any article of clothing (other than diapers) intended for the use of children which is not in compliance with flammability standards for such clothing established by the department shall be declared to be a banned hazardous substance by the department. The determination by the department that articles of clothing of a specified range of sizes are intended for the use of a child 14 years or younger shall be conclusive.

(b) Any toy or other article other than clothing intended for use by children, which is a hazardous substance, or which bears or contains a hazardous substance in a manner susceptible of access by a child to whom the toy or other article is entrusted, shall be declared to be a banned hazardous substance by the department.

(c) Any hazardous substance intended, or packaged in a form suitable for, use in a household, which, notwithstanding cautionary labeling required by this Act, is potentially so dangerous or hazardous when present or used in a household, that the protection of the public health and safety can be adequately served only by keeping the substance out of the channels of commerce, shall be declared to be a banned hazardous substance by the department.

(d) Any article subject to the provisions of this Act which cannot be labeled adequately to protect the public health and safety, or which presents an imminent danger to the public health and safety, shall be declared a banned hazardous substance by the department.

(e) The provisions of this section do not apply to any toy or article such as chemical sets which by reason of functional purpose requires the inclusion of a hazardous substance, and which bears labeling which in the judgment of the department gives adequate directions and warnings for safe use, and is intended for use by children who have attained sufficient maturity and may reasonably be expected to read and heed these directions and warnings; nor do the provisions of this section apply to the manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of fireworks of any class.

Examinations and investigations

Sec. 4. (a) In order to enforce the provisions of this Act, any officer, employee, or agent of the department may, upon the presentation of appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent, enter at reasonable times any factory, warehouse, or establishment in which any hazardous substance is manufactured, processed, packaged, or held for introduction into commerce or is held after introduction into commerce, or any vehicle used to transport or hold any hazardous substance in commerce, for the purpose of inspecting within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, such factory, warehouse, establishment or vehicle, and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished materials, and labeling therein.

(b) The officer, employee, or agent may obtain samples of any materials, packaging, and labeling; however, he shall pay or offer to pay the owner, operator, or agent in charge for any sample and shall give a receipt describing the samples obtained.

Rules and regulations; hearings; appeals

Sec. 5. (a) The department may, after public hearing following due notice, issue reasonable rules and regulations necessary for the efficient enforcement of this Act. The rules and regulations shall conform with regulations established pursuant to the federal Hazardous Substances Act [1], where applicable.

(b) If any person affected by any rule or regulation adopted and established by the department should take exception to the adoption and issuance of any rule or regulation, such person may request a hearing before the department, in which event the department shall not enforce such rule or regulation except as hereafter provided. Within thirty days after receipt of such request, the hearing must be held. The complaining person shall be given at least ten days notice of the place, date and time of such hearing. After fair hearing the department shall issue a written order or decision, upholding, amending, extending or reversing the previous action, and stating reasons therefor. If within thirty days of the date of such order or decision, there is no appeal as provided for in Subsection (c) hereof, such rule or regulation shall become effective.

(c) If any person be dissatisfied with an order or decision following a hearing pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section, such person may bring suit against the department to repeal, amend, vacate or set aside such order, decision, rule or regulation, in a District Court of Travis County, Texas. When such suit is filed, the plaintiff may apply for an injunction restraining the department from enforcing its order or decision pending the outcome of the trial on the merits, and the court in its discretion may grant such application for injunction or the court may continue the department's order or decision in effect where the court finds it necessary to protect the public health. Upon a trial on the merits, the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative action, order or decision. All such appeals shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from Justice of the Peace Courts to County Courts.

(3) the receipt in commerce of any misbranded hazardous substance or banned hazardous substance, and the delivery or proffered delivery thereof for pay or otherwise;

(4) the failure to permit entry or inspection, or to provide records as authorized by the provisions of this Act;

(6) the removal or disposal of a detained article or substance in violation of Section 11.

Penalties

Sec. 7. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and may upon conviction be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned for not more than 90 days, or both; but for any offense committed with intent to defraud, or for second and subsequent offenses, the penalty shall be a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, or imprisonment for not more than 180 days, or both.

However, evidence obtained in this manner may not be used in a criminal prosecution of the person from whom it is obtained, and carriers shall not be subject to the other provisions of this Act by reason of their receipt, carriage, holding, or delivery of hazardous substances in their usual course of business.

Art. 802f. Chemical tests for intoxication; implied consent; evidence

Sec. 2. If a person under arrest refuses, upon the request of a law enforcement officer, to submit to a chemical breath test designated by the law enforcement officer as provided in Section 1, none shall be given, but the Texas Department of Public Safety, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the breath test upon the request of the law enforcement officer, shall set the matter for a hearing as provided in Section 22(a), Chapter 173, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended (Article 6687b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), if, upon such hearing the court finds (1) that probable cause existed that such person was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle on the highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor at the time of the arrest by the officer, (2) that the person was placed under arrest by the officer at such time and before offering the person an opportunity to be tested under the provisions of this Act, and (3) that such person refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer, the Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety shall suspend the person's license or permit to drive, or any nonresident operating privilege for the period ordered by the court, but not to exceed one (1) year. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this State, the Texas Department of Public Safety shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period ordered by the court, but not to exceed one (1) year. Provided, however, that should such person be found "not guilty" of the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or if said cause be dismissed, then the Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety shall in no case suspend such person's driver's license; or, in the event that proceedings had been instituted resulting in the suspension of such person's driver's license, then the Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety shall immediately reinstate such license upon notification of such acquittal or dismissal by the county clerk of the county in which the case was pending. Notification to the Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety shall be made by certified mail.

Sec. 3. (a) Upon the trial of any criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle and while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, evidence of the amount of alcohol in the person's blood at the time of the act alleged as shown by chemical analysis of his blood, breath, urine, or any other bodily substance, shall be admissible and if there was at that time 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, it shall be presumed that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(b) Chemical analysis of the person's breath, to be considered valid under the provisions of this section, must be performed according to methods approved by the Texas Department of Public Safety and by an individual possessing a valid certificate issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety for this purpose. The Texas Department of Public Safety is authorized to approve satisfactory techniques or methods, to ascertain the qualifications and competence of individuals to conduct such analysis, and to issue certificates certifying such fact. These certificates shall be subject to termination or revocation, for cause, at the discretion of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

(c) When a person shall submit to a blood test at the request of a law enforcement officer under the provisions of this Act, only a physician, qualified technician, chemist, registered professional nurse, or licensed vocational nurse under the supervision or direction of a licensed physician may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content therein. The sample must be taken by a physician or in a physician's office or hospital licensed by the Texas Department of Health. This limitation shall not apply to the taking of breath specimens. The person drawing blood at the request of a law enforcement officer under the provisions of this Act, or hospital where that person is taken for the purpose of securing the specimen, shall not be held liable for damages arising from the request of the law enforcement officer to take the specimen as provided herein, provided the blood was withdrawn according to recognized medical procedures, and provided further that the foregoing shall not relieve any such person from liability for negligence in the withdrawing of any blood sample. Breath specimens must be taken and analysis made under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Texas Department of Public Safety, and by such persons as the Texas Department of Public Safety has certified to be qualified.

(d) The person tested may, upon request and within a reasonable time not to exceed two hours after the arrest, have a physician, qualified technician, chemist, or registered professional nurse of his own choosing administer a chemical test, or tests, in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test, or tests, taken at the direction of the law enforcement officer.

(e) Upon the request of a person who has submitted to a chemical test, or tests, at the request of a law enforcement officer, full information concerning the test, or tests, shall be made available to him or his attorney.

(f) If for any reason the person's request to have a chemical test for intoxication is refused by the officer or any other person acting for or on behalf of the state, such fact may be introduced into evidence on the trial of such person.

Sec. 3. The width, height, length and weight of each vehicle or combination thereof shall conform to the requirements of Article 827a, Revised Penal Code of Texas, and nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal any other provisions of the statutes other than the necessity to secure a permit from the Texas Highway Department to operate a combination of vehicles hauling pipe or poles.

Sec. 2A. To expedite and facilitate, during the harvesting season, the harvesting and marketing of wheat, oats, rye, barley, grain sorghums, flax, rice, cotton; vegetables in bulk, field crates, or bags, and all other agriculture products, produced in this State, the Department is authorized to issue to a nonresident owner a 30-day temporary registration permit for any truck, truck tractor, trailer or semitrailer to be used in the movement of such farm commodities from the place of production to market, storage or railhead, not more than seventy-five (75) miles distant from such place of production, or to be used in the movement of machinery used to harvest any of the commodities named in this section.

For text of first paragraph as amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 996, ch. 184, § 1, see first paragraph, ante.

To expedite and facilitate, during the harvesting season, the harvesting and movement of farm products produced outside of Texas but marketed or processed in Texas or moved to points in Texas for shipment, the Department is authorized to issue to a nonresident owner a 30-day temporary registration permit for any truck, truck tractor, trailer or semitrailer to be used in the movement of such farm commodities from the point of entry into Texas to market, storage, processing plant, railhead or seaport not more than eighty (80) miles distant from such point of entry into Texas. All mileages and distances referred to herein are State Highway mileages. Before such temporary registration provided for in this paragraph may be issued, the applicant must present satisfactory evidence that such motor vehicle is protected by such insurance and in such amounts as may be described in Section 5 of the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act (Article 6701h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) as it is now written or as it may hereafter be amended, and such policies must be issued by an insurance company or surety company authorized to write Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance in this State; and that such vehicle has been inspected as required under the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways in Texas (Article XV of Article 6701d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) as it is now written or as it may hereafter be amended.

The Department is authorized to prescribe the form of the application and the information to be furnished therein for such temporary registration permits. If the application is granted, the Department shall issue a special distinguishing insignia which must be attached to such vehicle in lieu of the regular Texas Highway registration plates. Such special insignia shall show its expiration date. The temporary registration permit fee shall be one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual Texas registration fee for the vehicle for which the special permit is secured.

The temporary permits herein authorized shall be issued only when the vehicle for which said permit is issued is legally registered in the nonresident owner's home state or country for the current registration year; and said permit will remain valid only so long as the home state or country registration is valid; but in any event the Texas temporary registration permit will expire 30 days from the date of issuance. Not more than three (3) such temporary registration permits may be issued to a nonresident owner during any one (1) vehicle registration year in the State of Texas. A vehicle registered under the terms of this Act may not be operated in Texas after the expiration of the temporary permit unless the nonresident owner secures a second temporary permit as provided above, or unless the nonresident owner registers the vehicle under the appropriate Texas vehicular registration statutes, applicable to residents, for the remainder of the registration year. No such vehicle may be registered with a Texas farm truck license.

Any person who shall transport any of the commodities described in this Act, under a temporary permit provided for herein, to a market, place of storage, processing plant, railhead or seaport, which is a greater distance from the place of production of such commodity in this State, or the point of entry into the State of Texas than is provided for in said temporary permit, or shall follow a route other than that prescribed by the Highway Commission, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25), nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize such nonresident owner or operator to operate or cause to be operated any of such vehicles in this State in violation of Chapter 314, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as amended (Article 911b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) or any of the other laws of this State.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to alter, change, erase, or mutilate, for the purpose of changing the identity, any motor number, serial number, manufacturer's permanent vehicle identification number or derivative number thereof placed on the vehicle, or any part thereof by the manufacturer, or any motor number or serial number assigned by the State Highway Department and placed or caused to be placed on a vehicle as provided by law for the purpose of identification. It shall also be unlawful for any person other than a vehicle manufacturer to stamp or place any motor number or manufacturer's vehicle identification number other than a number assigned by the State Highway Department as provided by law, on any vehicle or any part thereof. Any person violating the provisions of this section commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000, by confinement in jail for not more than 2 years or by both.

(c) (1) A person who possesses, sells or offers for sale a motor vehicle or any part of a motor vehicle that has had the serial number, the motor number, or the manufacturer's permanent identification number removed, changed, or obliterated when he knows the number has been removed, changed or obliterated commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000, by confinement in jail for not more than 2 years, or by both.

(2) It is a defense to prosecution under this subsection, which shall not be submitted to the jury unless evidence is admitted supporting it but which, if raised, must be negated beyond a reasonable doubt, that the person is the rightful or true owner of the motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle that is the subject of the prosecution.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, a person knows the serial number, the motor number, or the manufacturer's permanent vehicle identification number or derivative number thereof has been removed, changed or obliterated on a motor vehicle or a part of a motor vehicle in his possession if he is aware of but consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the number has been removed, changed, or obliterated. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that its disregard constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the defendant's standpoint.

(d) (1) If a person is arrested for possession of a motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle in violation of this section, the arresting officer will take the motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle into his possession.

(2) If the seizure under Subsection (d) (1) is not made pursuant to a search warrant, the arresting officer shall prepare and deliver to a magistrate a written inventory of each motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized.

(3) If the person arrested is charged with an offense under this section, the magistrate may order that any motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized by the arresting officer be delivered to the law enforcement agency that seized it pending disposition of the charges.

(4) If there is no prosecution or conviction for an offense involving the motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized, the magistrate to whom the seizure was reported shall notify in writing the rightful owner, if known, that he is entitled to the motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle upon request to the law enforcement agency holding it.

(5) Upon conviction of any person for a violation of this section, the court shall order that any motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized and impounded in connection with the offense be delivered to the rightful owner or true owner, if known.

(6) If the rightful owner of a vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized under this section is unknown and cannot be determined the court shall, after final disposition of the charges, order it forfeited to the state.

(7) Any person interested in any motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle seized under this section may, at any time, petition the magistrate to whom the seizure was reported to deliver possession of it to him. The magistrate, after notice to the law enforcement agency in possession of it, shall conduct a hearing to determine the petitioner's right to possession of the motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle. If the petitioner proves by a preponderance of the evidence that he has a right to possession, the magistrate shall order it delivered to him.

(f) Any person who has been determined to be the rightful owner of any motor vehicle or part of a motor vehicle that has had the serial number, the motor number or the manufacturer's permanent vehicle identification number or derivative thereof removed, changed or obliterated shall within 30 days of such determination make application to the Texas Highway Department for an assigned vehicle identification number, and the number assigned by the Texas Highway Department shall be die-stamped or otherwise affixed to the motor vehicle or part thereof at the location and in the manner designated by the Texas Highway Department. Each application for an assigned vehicle identification number shall be submitmitted on a form prescribed and furnished by the Texas Highway Department and shall be accompanied by the outstanding negotiable certificate of title covering the vehicle. Art. 1436—3. Abandoned Motor Vehicle Act

Short Title

Section 1. This Article shall be cited as the "Texas Abandoned Motor Vehicle Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Article:

(1) "Police department" means the Texas Department of Public Safety, the police department of any city, town, or municipality, or the sheriff's department in any county.

(2) "Abandoned motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is inoperable and over eight years old and is left unattended on public property for more than 48 hours, or a motor vehicle that has remained illegally on public property for a period of more than 48 hours, or a motor vehicle that has remained on private property without the consent of the owner or person in control of the property for more than 48 hours.

(3) "Demolisher" means any person whose business is to convert a motor vehicle into processed scrap or scrap metal, or otherwise to wreck or dismantle motor vehicles.

(4) "Garagekeeper" shall mean any owner or operator of a parking place or establishment, motor vehicle storage facility, or any establishment for the servicing, repair, or maintenance of motor vehicles.

(5) "Junked vehicle" means any motor vehicle as defined in Section 1 of Article 827a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code, as amended, which is inoperative and which does not have lawfully affixed thereto both an unexpired license plate or plates and a valid motor vehicle safety inspection certificate and which is wrecked; dismantled; partially dismantled; or discarded.

(6) "Storage Facility" means a garage, parking lot, or any type of facility or establishment for the servicing, repairing, storing, or parking of motor vehicles.

(7) "Motor Vehicle" means any motor vehicle subject to registration pursuant to the Texas Certificate of Title Act.

Authority to Take Possession of Abandoned Motor Vehicles

Sec. 3. A police department may take into custody any abandoned motor vehicle found on public or private property. In such connection, a police department may employ its own personnel, equipment, and facilities or hire persons, equipment, and facilities for the purpose of removing, preserving, and storing abandoned motor vehicles.

Notification of Owner and Lien Holders

Sec. 4. (a) A police department which takes into custody an abandoned motor vehicle shall notify within 10 days thereof, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, the last known registered owner of the motor vehicle and all lien holders of record pursuant to the Certificate of Title Act, as amended (Article 1436—1, Vernon's Texas Penal Code) that the vehicle has been taken into custody. The notice shall describe the year, make, model, and serial number of the abandoned motor vehicle; set forth the location of the facility where the motor vehicle is being held, inform the owner and any lien holders of their right to reclaim the motor vehicle within 20 days after the date of the notice upon payment of all towing, preservation, and storage charges resulting from placing the vehicle in custody, and state that the failure of the owner or lien holders to exercise their right to reclaim the vehicle within the time provided shall be deemed a waiver by the owner and all lien holders of all right, title, and interest in the vehicle and their consent to the sale of the abandoned motor vehicle at a public auction.

(b) If the identity of the last registered owner cannot be determined, or if the registration contains no address for the owner; or if it is impossible to determine with reasonable certainty the identity and addresses of all lien holders, notice by one publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the motor vehicle was abandoned shall be sufficient to meet all requirements of notice pursuant to this Article. Such notice by publication can contain multiple listings of abandoned vehicles. Any such notice shall be within the time requirements prescribed for notice by registered or certified mail and shall have the same contents required for a notice by registered or certified mail.

(c) The consequences and effect of failure to reclaim an abandoned motor vehicle shall be as set forth in a valid notice given pursuant to this section.

Auction of Abandoned Motor Vehicles

Sec. 5. If an abandoned motor vehicle has not been reclaimed as provided for in Section 4 of this Article, the police department shall sell the abandoned motor vehicle at a public auction. The purchaser of the motor vehicle shall take title to the motor vehicle free and clear of all liens and claims of ownership, shall receive a sales receipt from the police department and shall be entitled to register the purchased vehicle and receive a certificate of title. From the proceeds of the sale of an abandoned motor vehicle the police department shall reimburse itself for the expenses of the auction, the costs of towing, preserving, and storing the vehicle which resulted from placing the abandoned motor vehicle in custody, and all notice and publication costs incurred pursuant to Section 4 of this Article. Any remainder from the proceeds of a sale shall be held for the owner of the vehicle or entitled lien holder for 90 days, and then shall be deposited in a special fund which shall remain available for the payment of auction, towing, preserving, storage, and all notice and publication costs which result from placing other abandoned vehicles in custody, whenever the proceeds from a sale of such other abandoned motor vehicles are insufficient to meet these expenses and costs.

Garagekeepers and Abandoned Motor Vehicles

Sec. 6. Any motor vehicle left for more than 10 days in a storage facility operated for commercial purposes after notice by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the owner to pick up the vehicle, or for more than 10 days after the period when, pursuant to contract, the vehicle was to remain on the premises of such storage facility, and any motor vehicle left for more than 10 days in such storage facility by someone other than the registered owner or left by a person authorized to have possession of the motor vehicle under a contract of use, service, storage, or repair, shall be deemed an abandoned vehicle, and shall be reported by the garagekeeper to the police department. Any garagekeeper who fails to report the possession of such a vehicle within 10 days after it becomes abandoned within the meaning of this section shall no longer have any claim for servicing, storage, or repair of the vehicle. All abandoned vehicles left in storage facilities shall be taken into custody by the police department and sold in accordance with the procedures set forth in Sections 4 and 5 of this Article unless the motor vehicle is reclaimed and the garagekeeper is paid. The proceeds of the sale shall be first applied to the garagekeeper's charges for servicing, storage, or repair, and any surplus proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with Section 5 of this Article. Except for the termination of claim for service, storage, or repair for failure to report an abandoned motor vehicle, nothing in this section shall be construed to impair any lien of a garagekeeper under the laws of this State, or the right of a lien holder to foreclose.

Disposal to Demolishers

Sec. 7. (a) Any person, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed, may apply to the police department of the jurisdiction in which the vehicle is situated for authority to sell, give away, or dispose of the vehicle to a demolisher.

(b) The application shall set out the name and address of the applicant, the year, make, model, and serial number of the motor vehicle, if ascertainable, together with any other identifying features, and shall contain a concise statement of the facts surrounding the abandonment, or that the title of the motor vehicle is lost or destroyed, or the reasons for the defect of title in the owner. The applicant shall execute an affidavit stating that the facts alleged therein are true and that no material fact has been withheld.

(c) If the police department finds that the application is executed in proper form, and shows that the motor vehicle has been abandoned upon the property of the applicant or if it shows that the motor vehicle is not abandoned but that the applicant appears to be the rightful owner, the police department shall follow the notification procedures set forth in Section 4 of this Article.

(d) If any such abandoned motor vehicle is not reclaimed in accordance with Section 4, the police department shall notify the Texas Highway Department which shall issue the applicant a certificate of authority to sell the motor vehicle to any demolisher for demolition, wrecking or dismantling. The demolisher shall accept such certificate in lieu of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle.

(e) Any persons, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed, may dispose of such motor vehicle to a demolisher without that title and without notification procedures of Section 4 of this Act if the motor vehicle is over 8 years old and has no engine or is otherwise totally inoperable.

Duties of Demolishers

Sec. 8. (a) Any demolisher who purchases or otherwise acquires a motor vehicle for purposes of wrecking, dismantling, or demolition shall not be required to obtain a certificate of title for such motor vehicle in his own name. After the motor vehicle has been demolished, processed, or changed so that it physically is no longer a motor vehicle, the demolisher shall surrender for cancellation the certificate of title or authority. The Texas Highway Department shall issue such forms, rules, and regulations governing the surrender of auction sales receipts and certificates of title as are appropriate. The Certificate of Title Act, as amended (Articles 1436—1 and 1436—2, Vernon's Texas Penal Code) shall govern the cancellation of title of the motor vehicle.

(b) The demolisher shall keep an accurate and complete record of all motor vehicles purchased or received by him in the course of his business. These records shall contain the name and address of the person from whom each such motor vehicle was purchased or received and the date when such purchases or receipts occurred. Such records shall be open for inspection by the Texas Highway Department or any police department at any time during normal business hours. Any record required by this section shall be kept by the demolisher for at least one year after the transaction to which it applies.

Junked Vehicles Declared a Public Nuisance

Sec. 9. Junked vehicles which are located in any place where they are visible from a public place or public right-of-way are detrimental to the safety and welfare of the general public, tending to reduce the value of private property, to invite vandalism, to create fire hazards, to constitute an attractive nuisance creating a hazard to the health and safety of minors, and are detrimental to the economic welfare of the State, by producing urban blight which is adverse to the maintenance and continuing development of the municipalities in the State of Texas, and such vehicles are therefore, declared to be a public nuisance.

City Ordinance for Abating Nuisance

Sec. 10. Any city or town within this State may adopt an ordinance establishing procedures for the abatement and removal of junked vehicles or parts thereof, as public nuisances, from private property or public property; provided, however, that any such ordinance shall contain:

(a) A provision requiring not less than a ten (10) day notice, stating the nature of the public nuisance and that it must be removed and abated within ten (10) days and further that a request for a hearing must be made before expiration of said ten (10) day period, such notice to be mailed, by certified or registered mail with a 5-day return requested, to the owner or the occupant of the premises whereupon such public nuisance exists. If the notice is returned undelivered by the United States Post Office, official action to abate said nuisance shall be continued to a date not less than ten (10) days from the date of such return.

(b) A provision requiring a public hearing prior to the removal of the vehicle or part thereof as a public nuisance, to be held before the governing body of the City or any other board, commission, or official of the City, as designated by the governing body, when such a hearing is requested by the owner or occupant of the premises on which said vehicle is located, within ten (10) days after service of notice to abate the nuisance. Any resolution or order requiring the removal of a vehicle or part thereof shall include a description of the vehicle, and the correct identification number and license number of the vehicle, if available at the site.

(c) A provision that after a vehicle has been removed it shall not be reconstructed or made operable.

(d) A provision requiring notice to be given to the Texas Highway Department within five days after the date of removal identifying the vehicle or part thereof. Said Department shall forthwith cancel the certificate of title to such vehicle pursuant to Article 1436—1, Vernon's Texas Penal Code, as amended.

(e) A provision that the ordinance shall not apply to (1) a vehicle or part thereof which is completely enclosed within a building in a lawful manner where it is not visible from the street or other public or private property or (2) a vehicle or part thereof which is stored or parked in a lawful manner on private property in connection with the business of a licensed vehicle dealer or a junkyard.

(f) A provision for administration of the ordinance by regularly salaried, full-time employees of the city, except that the removal of vehicles or parts thereof from property may be by any other duly authorized person.

Disposal of Junked Vehicles

Sec. 11. Junked vehicles or parts thereof may be disposed of by removal to a scrapyard, demolishers, or any suitable site operated by the City for processing as scrap or salvage, which process shall be consistent with Section 10, subdivision (c) of this Article. A City may operate such a disposal site when its governing body determines that commercial channels of disposition are not available or are inadequate, and it may make final disposition of such vehicles or parts, or the City may transfer such vehicle or parts to another, provided such disposal shall be only as scrap or salvage, consistent with Section 10, subdivision (c) of this Article.

Authority to Enforce

Sec. 12. Any person authorized by the City to administer the provisions of an ordinance of the type authorized by this Article may enter upon private property for the purposes specified in the ordinance to examine vehicles or parts thereof, obtain information as to the identity of vehicles and to remove or cause the removal of a vehicle or parts thereof declared to be a nuisance pursuant to the ordinance. The Municipal Court of any City enacting an ordinance as provided herein, shall have authority to issue all orders necessary to enforce such ordinance.

Effect of Act on Other Statutes

Sec. 13. Nothing in this Article shall affect statutes that permit immediate removal of a vehicle left on public property which constitutes an obstruction to traffic.

Identification number

Sec. 4. (a) The owner of each motorboat requiring numbering by this state shall file an application for number with the department on forms approved by it. The application shall be signed by the owner of the motorboat and shall be accompanied by a fee for which is hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of the application in approved form, the department shall enter the same upon the records of its office and issue to the applicant a certificate of number stating the number awarded to the motorboat and the name and address of the owner. The owner shall paint on or attach to each side of the motorboat or vessel near the bow thereof the identification number, and a validation decal, in such manner as may be prescribed by the department. The number shall read from left to right and shall be of block characters of good proportion of not less than three (3) inches in height. The numbers shall be of a color which will contrast the hull material of the vessel and so maintained as to be clearly visible and legible. The certificate of number shall be pocket size. The form of certificate of number, application form, and manner of renewal shall be prescribed by the department; provided, however, that the certificate of number does not have to physically be on the person of the operator, if prior to trial operator can produce for examination a valid certificate of number. Fees for newly purchased watercraft or other boats not previously operated within this state shall pay the full registration fee.

(b) The numbering pattern to be used shall be divided into parts. The first part shall consist of the Prefix "TX" followed by a combination of exactly four (4) numerals and further followed by a suffix of two (2) letters. The group of numerals appearing between the letters shall be separated from those letters by hyphens or equivalent spaces. All basic numbers of each series shall begin with 1000. TX–1000–AA through TX–9999–AA will be allotted to dealers and manufacturers. TX–1000–AB through TX–9999–ZZ will be allotted to all other boat owners and livery operators.

The letters "G", "I", "O", and "Q" shall be omitted from all letter sequences.

(c) The owner of any vessel or motorboat for which a current certificate of number has been awarded pursuant to any Federal law or a federally approved numbering system of another state shall, if such motorboat, or vessel is operated on the waters of this state in excess of ninety (90) days, make application for a certificate of number in the manner prescribed in this Act for a resident of this state.

(d) The department may award any certificate of number directly or may authorize any person to act as agent for awarding of certificates. In the event that a person accepts authorization he shall execute a faithful performance bond of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) in favor of the State of Texas, and may be assigned a block or blocks of numbers and certificates which upon award, in conformity with this Act and with any rules and regulations of the department, shall be valid as if awarded directly by the department. Such agent shall be entitled to a fee for his services not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the fee for each certificate.

(e) The owner shall furnish the department notice of the transfer of all or any part of his interest other than the creation of a security interest in a motorboat numbered in this state or of the destruction or abandonment of such motorboat, within a reasonable time thereof. In all such cases, the notice shall be accompanied by a surrender of the certificate of number. When the surrender of the certificate is by reason of the motorboat being destroyed or abandoned, the department shall cancel the certificate and enter such fact in the records. The purchaser of a motorboat shall within a reasonable time after acquiring same present evidence of ownership thereof and make application to the department for transfer to him of the certificate of number issued to such motorboat, giving his name, address, and number of the motorboat and shall at the same time pay to the department a fee of One Dollar ($1). Upon receipt of the application and fee the department shall transfer the certificate of number issued for such motorboat to the new owner. Unless such application is made and fee paid within a reasonable time, such motorboat shall be deemed to be without certificate of number, and it shall be unlawful for any person to operate such motorboat until the certificate is issued.

(f) All ownership records of the department made or kept pursuant to this Act shall be public records. Copies of all rules and regulations pursuant to this Act shall be furnished without cost with each certificate of number issued.

(g) Every certificate of number awarded pursuant to this Act shall continue in full force and effect for a period of two (2) years unless sooner terminated or discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(h) Any holder of a certificate of number shall notify the department within a reasonable time if his address no longer conforms to the address appearing on the certificate, and shall, as a part of the notification, include his new address. The department may provide in its regulations for the surrender of the certificate bearing the former address and its replacement with a certificate bearing the new address or for the alteration of the outstanding certificate to show the new address of the holder. Changes of address shall be noted on the records of the department.

(i) In the event that any certificate of number becomes lost, mutilated or illegible, the owner of the motorboat for which the certificate was issued may obtain a duplicate upon application to the department and the payment of a fee of One Dollar ($1).

(j) It shall be unlawful for any person to paint, attach, or otherwise display on either side of the bow of any motorboat any number other than the number awarded to said motorboat or granted reciprocity pursuant to this Act.

(k) It shall be unlawful for any person to deface or alter the certificate of number or number assigned and appearing on the bow of any boat.

(l) An application for the renewal of certificate of number shall be prepared by the department and mailed to each vessel owner within a period consisting of the last ninety (90) days before the expiration date on the certificate of number and the same number will be issued upon renewal. Any application not so received shall be treated in the same manner as an original application.

Ownership

Sec. 5. (a) A certified statement on the application for number shall be the minimum requirement for proof of ownership.

(b) Liens: Liens of all kinds, including reservations or transfers of title to secure debts, or claims, will be disregarded in determining ownership of a vessel.

A lien holder who acquires possession and title by virtue of default in the terms of the lien instrument, or any person who acquires ownership through such action as a lien holder, may apply for a number and shall attach to such application a notarized affidavit of repossession.

(c) Transfers by Operation of Law: Any person who acquires ownership of a vessel by inheritance, devise, or bequest may apply for a certificate of number by attaching a notarized heirship affidavit to his application along with the prescribed fee.

Any person who acquires ownership of a vessel by bankruptcy proceedings, through receivership or by any other involuntary divestiture of ownership, may apply for a certificate of number by attaching a copy of the court order, authorizing such action, to his application together with the prescribed fee.

(d) Cancellation of Certificate and Voiding of Number: A certificate of number may be cancelled and the identification number voided by the Department even though such action occurs before the expiration date on the certificate and such certificate is not surrendered to this Department. Certain causes for cancellation of certificates and voiding of numbers are:

(1) Surrender of certificate for cancellation.

The application shall be signed by the owner of the vessel and shall be accompanied by a fee of One Dollar ($1). Upon receipt of the application in approved form, the Department shall enter the same upon the records of its office and issue to the applicant a serial number.

(c) No person shall wilfully destroy, remove, alter, cover, or deface the manufacturer's serial number, or plate bearing such serial number, or the serial number issued by the Department, on any boat. The possession of a boat with a serial number which has been altered, defaced, mutilated, or removed, is forbidden, and any person who obtains or comes into possession of such a boat is required to file with the Department a sworn statement describing the boat, proving legal ownership and, if known, the reason for the destruction, removal or defacement of the serial number.

Dealer's and manufacturer's number

Sec. 7. (a) Any dealer or manufacturer of motorboats of this state may, instead of securing a certificate of number for each motorboat he may wish to show or demonstrate or test on waters of this State, procure a dealer's and manufacturer's number which shall be attached to any motorboat which he sends temporarily on the waters. The two-year fee for a dealer's and manufacturer's number shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25). Every dealer or manufacturer applying for such a number shall apply on forms provided by the Department. The application shall state that the applicant is a dealer or manufacturer within the meaning of this Act, and the facts stated on the application shall be sworn before an officer authorized to administer oaths. No such number shall be issued until the provisions of this Article have been satisfied.

(b) Each dealer or manufacturer holding a dealer's or manufacturer's number may issue a reasonable temporary facsimile of such number which may be used by any authorized person. A person purchasing a motorboat may use the dealer's number for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days, prior to filing application for number. * * * * * * * * * * *

Procedure at trial

* * * * * * * * * * *

(d) The following rules shall apply upon defendant's being acquitted by reason of the jury's returning a finding that he was insane as of the time of the alleged offense:

(1) If the jury finds the defendant to be insane at the time of trial, and if the jury or the court further finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, and placing him in the custody of the sheriff for transportation to the mental hospital to be confined therein until he becomes sane; provided that if the court enters an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital and if the crime of which the defendant was accused involved an act of physical violence against the person, then the defendant shall be committed to the Rusk State Hospital or to such other state mental hospital designated by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation as having the capability to provide maximum security; and provided further that if the court enters an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital and if the crime of which the defendant was accused did not involve an act of physical violence against the person, then the defendant shall be committed to that state mental hospital designated by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation to serve the county in which the committing court is located. The court shall further order that a transcript of all medical testimony adduced before the jury shall be forthwith prepared by the court reporter and such transcript shall accompany the patient to the mental hospital.

(2) If the jury returns a finding that defendant is sane as of the time of the trial, then the defendant shall be finally discharged.

(3) If there be no jury finding on the issue of present insanity, then the court, if the discharge or going at large of defendant be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, shall order defendant committed to jail or other suitable place pending the prompt initiation and prosecution by the attorney for the state or other person designated by the court of appropriate civil proceedings to determine whether defendant shall be committed to a mental institution, or the court may give defendant into the care of his friends on their giving satisfactory security for his proper care and protection; otherwise, defendant shall be discharged.

(e) Where the jury finds that the defendant is presently insane, but does not find that he was insane at the time of the offense (either because such issue was not submitted or because the jury failed to find on that issue or because it found that he was not insane at such time), the court shall enter a mistrial as to all issues except the issue of present insanity. If the jury finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the proper order so committing him shall be entered by the court; provided that if the court enters an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital the rules set out in Section 2(d) (1) hereof shall be followed in designating the state mental hospital to which the defendant is to be committed.

(f) Evidence. (1) The court may, at its discretion appoint disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant with regard to his present competency to stand trial and as to his sanity, and to testify thereto at any trial or hearing in connection to the accusation against the accused; provided that the court may not order the defendant to a state mental hospital for such examination without the consent of the head of that state mental hospital.

(2) Such appointed experts shall be paid out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed. A state mental hospital which accepts a defendant for examination under Section 2(f) hereof shall be reimbursed out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed for such expenses incurred as are reasonably necessary and incidental to the proper examination of the defendant.

(4) No statement made by the defendant during examination into his competency shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the issue of guilt in any criminal proceeding no matter under what circumstances such examination takes place.

(5) Any party may introduce other competent testimony regarding the defendant's competency.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(i) The head of the state mental hospital to which a person has been committed under the provisions of Sections 2(d) or 2(e) hereof may, with the permission of the committing court, transfer such person to any other state mental hospital or an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or a Veterans' Administration hospital.
