1972 SUPPLEMENT

This Supplement to Vernon's Texas Statutes, in two volumes, includes the laws of a general and permanent nature enacted at the Regular and Called Sessions of the 62nd Legislature. The sessions convened and adjourned as follows:

	Convened	Adjourned
Regular Session, 62nd Leg.	Jan. 12, 1971	May 31, 1971
First Called Session, 62nd Leg.	June 1, 1971	June 4, 1971

These volumes supplement the 1948 edition of Vernon's Texas Statutes and the biennial Supplements from 1950 through 1970.

Constitutional amendments, approved by the voters on November 3, 1970 and May 18, 1971, are also included.

To assist the user in readily locating any article or section affected by legislation from 1949 through 1971, a special Table has been prepared and is printed on the colored pages in Volume 1.

Vernon's Texas Statutes 1948 and Supplements are under the same classification and arrangement as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes and Vernon's Texas Codes Annotated. This means that users of this edition may go from any article or section therein to the same article or section in the annotated editions where the complete constructions of the law by the state and federal courts, as well as complete historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, are conveniently available.

The same practical features which have served to popularize the 1948 Edition, such as a complete index, tables, etc., are continued in the Supplements.

The Publisher extends appreciative thanks to the office of the Secretary of State, as well as to other state officials, for guidance and suggestions during the preparation of this work.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

§ 49—d—1. Texas water development bonds; additional issue

Sec. 49-d-1. (a) The Texas Water Development Board shall upon direction of the Texas Water Quality Board, or any successor agency designated by the Legislature, issue additional Texas Water Development Bonds up to an additional aggregate principal amount of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) to provide grants, loans, or any combination of grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature. The Texas Water Quality Board or any successor agency designated by the Legislature may make such grants and loans to political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas, including municipal corporations, river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts, and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59, or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, State agencies, and interstate agencies and compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party, and upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may authorize by general law. The bonds shall be issued for such terms, in such denominations, form and installments, and upon such conditions as the Legislature may authorize.

(b) The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund to be invested and administered as prescribed by law.

(c) The bonds authorized in this Section 49-d-1 and all bonds authorized by Sections 49-c and 49-d of Article III shall bear interest at not more than 6% per annum and mature as the Texas Water Development Board shall prescribe, subject to the limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature.

(d) The Texas Water Development Fund shall be used for the purposes heretofore permitted by, and subject to the limitations in Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1; provided, however, that the financial assistance may be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 subject only to the availability of funds and without regard to the provisions in Section 49-c that such financial assistance shall terminate after December 31, 1982.

(e) Texas Water Development Bonds are secured by the general credit of the State and shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

(f) Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character.

(b) Under Legislative provision, any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, or any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include, towns, villages or municipal corporations, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby, in addition to all other debts, may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory, except that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this Constitution, and levy and collect taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, as the Legislature may authorize, and in such manner as it may authorize the same, for the following purposes to wit:

(1) The improvement of rivers, creeks, and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof, or irrigation thereof, or in aid of such purposes.

(2) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation, drainage or navigation, or in aid thereof.

(3) The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

§ 1–a. Retirement, censure, removal and compensation of justices and judges; state judicial qualifications commission; procedure

Sec. 1—a. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iiii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iiii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iiii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.

B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of, the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution.

As amended Nov. 2, 1965; Nov. 3, 1970.

Amendment adopted in 1970 was proposed by H.J.R.No.30, Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 3237.

Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created.

MODE OF AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION OF THIS STATE

§ 1. Proposed amendments; submission to voters; adoption

Sec. 1. The Legislature, at any regular session, or at any special session when the matter is included within the purposes for which the session is convened, may propose amendments revising the Constitution, to be voted upon by the qualified electors for statewide offices and propositions, as defined in the Constitution and statutes of this State. The date of the elections shall be specified by the Legislature. The proposal for submission must be approved by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House, entered by yeas and nays on the journals.

A brief explanatory statement of the nature of a proposed amendment, together with the date of the election and the wording of the proposition as it is to appear on the ballot, shall be published twice in each newspaper in the State which meets requirements set by the Legislature for the publication of official notices of officers and departments of the state government. The explanatory statement shall be prepared by the Secretary of State and shall be approved by the Attorney General. The Secretary of State shall send a full and complete copy of the proposed amendment or amendments to each county clerk who shall post the same in a public place in the courthouse at least 30 days prior to the election on said amendment. The first notice shall be published not more than 60 days nor less than 50 days before the date of the election, and the second notice shall be published on the same day in the succeeding week. The Legislature shall fix the standards for the rate of charge for the publication, which may not be higher than the newspaper's published national rate for advertising per column inch.

The election shall be held in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Legislature, and the returning officer in each county shall make returns to the Secretary of State of the number of legal votes cast at the election for and against each amendment. If it appears from the returns that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of an amendment, it shall become a part of this Constitution, and proclamation thereof shall be made by the Governor.

A candidate, who fails, shall have the right to apply for an additional examination, subject to the satisfaction of the Board that he continues to meet requirements of (a), (b), and (d) of Section 12 of this Act, and the following additional requirements: (1) if a candidate fails to score a grade of fifty per cent (50%) on any subject in an examination, the Board shall refuse to admit him to write that subject in the next succeeding examination; and (2) if a candidate has made application to write the examination at a session and he fails to submit a paper on any subject for which he is eligible at that session, the Board shall score a grade of less than fifty per cent (50%) for the candidate in that subject. Except for the foregoing requirements, a candidate, who has taken the examination under this Act or any prior Act, shall have the right to any number of reexaminations. The additional requirements specified in (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not apply to a candidate who is registered as a public accountant under Section 11 of the Public Accountancy Act of 1945, as amended.

For each subsequent examination, or reexamination, the fee shall not exceed for each subject for which he is eligible: Thirty Dollars ($30.00) for accounting practice, and Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) for each of theory of accounts, auditing and commercial law, which shall be payable by the applicant at the time of making the application for the subsequent examination or reexamination. Where the applicant fails to be present for the examination and shows to the Board satisfactory reason for such failure, the Board may, in its discretion, refund any fee so paid, and relieve the candidate of the penalty in the second paragraph of this Section relating to the grade of less than fifty per cent (50%).

All fees provided for herein shall be paid to the secretary-treasurer of the Board.

It is further provided, that any applicant who has failed any such examination or examinations shall have a right to demand a copy, certified by the Board, of the questions and the answers thereto made by him upon any such examination, with the grade clearly shown, together with a copy of solutions to such questions; and the Board shall forthwith comply with such demand by delivering by registered mail to such applicant a true copy of the questions and his answers thereto, certified by the Board, together with a copy of solutions to such questions, and the Board may charge such applicant a reasonable fee therefor; and such application by the candidate shall be made within six (6) months after the grades are mailed to said candidate, and not thereafter.

TITLE 3—ADOPTION

Art. 46b—2. Adoption of hard-to-place children; financial assistance

Purpose

Section 1. It is the purpose and intent of the Legislature in enacting this Act to encourage and promote the placement in adoptive homes of children who because of their ethnic background, race, color, language, physical or mental, or emotional or medical handicaps, or age, or because they are a sibling group who should be placed in the same home have become difficult to place in adoptive homes. It is the legislative intent to make available to prospective adoptive parents information concerning the availability of relinquished children, information and assistance in completing the adoption process, and the financial aid which might be required to enable them to adopt an otherwise hard-to-place child. It is the intent of the Legislature to benefit hard-to-place children residing in foster homes at state or county expense by providing the stability and security of permanent homes and, in doing so, achieve a reduction in total state and county expense by reducing costly foster-home care.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Hard-to-place child" is a child who is disadvantaged because of adverse parental background, or a handicapped child, or a child of the age of three years or more.

(2) "Department" means the State Department of Public Welfare.

Administration

Sec. 3. The department shall establish and administer the program to be carried out by any licensed adoption agency or county child care or welfare unit pursuant to this Act. The department shall adopt regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. The department shall keep records necessary to evaluate the program's effectiveness in encouraging and promoting the adoption of hard-to-place children.

Information

Sec. 4. The department, county child care or welfare units, and all adoption agencies shall disseminate information to prospective adoptive families, especially those families of lower income levels and those belonging to disadvantaged groups as to the availability of adoptable hard-to-place children and of the existence of aid to adoptive families under this Act. The county responsible for providing foster care for a child shall provide financial aid to the adoptive family in an amount determined under Section 5 of this Act.

Financial Assistance

Sec. 5. (a) The adoption fees may be waived for all adoptive parents as necessary to provide adoptive families for hard-to-place children.

(b) There may be paid for a period not to exceed three years an amount of financial assistance not more than the amount that would be paid for foster care for the child if the placement for adoption had not taken place. Additional financial assistance may be granted for a period of not more than two years if the adoptive parents have a continuing need as determined by the department, county child care or welfare unit, or designated licensed adoption agency.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) The county responsible for the care of the child in a foster home is responsible for the payment provided for by this section in adoptive placements arranged by the department, county child care or welfare unit, or any licensed adoption agency and in cases in which a child receiving aid to families with dependent children in a foster home is adopted by his foster parents with the approval of the department, county child care or welfare unit, or designated adoption agency.

Federal Funds

Sec. 6. The department shall actively seek, and make maximum use of, federal funds which might be available for the purposes of this Act. All gifts or grants received from private sources for the purposes of this Act shall be used to offset costs incurred under the program established by this Act.

Sec. 15C. Subject to any rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the commissioner, and subject to the approval of the commissioner in each case, the board may provide for the election of all or part of its members from specified geographical areas, which may be referred to as districts. Any such plan, once adopted, may be modified from time to time with the approval of the commissioner. If a geographical representation plan is adopted, only those persons who reside in a district and are entitled to vote in the election may be candidates for member of the board to represent that district; and only those may vote for candidates to represent the district. Subject to these same provisions, applied to the certified organization, geographic representation may be instituted in the referendum and election to establish a commodity producers board. If geographical representation is adopted, all provisions of this Act remain applicable to the extent they may be made applicable.

Sec. 15C added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2403, ch. 754, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Sec. 17A. (a) The board may investigate conditions that relate to the prompt remittance of the assessment by any producer or processor. When it appears that any person has failed to remit to the board the assessment as required by this Act, the board may independently institute proceedings, or request the Attorney General and/or county or district attorney having jurisdiction to institute proceedings in the board's behalf, in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County or in the county in which the violation occurred to recover for the board all money due and owing to the board by virtue of the violation, and for injunctive and other relief as appropriate.

(b) A violation of this Act is grounds for suspension or revocation of any license or permit issued by the commissioner according to the same procedures otherwise provided for suspension or revocation.

(c) The remedies provided by this section are cumulative of other remedies provided by this Act or other law.
Sec. 17A added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2403, ch. 754, § 7, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Adding new territory

Sec. 17B. (a) Producers of an agricultural commodity in an area not within the jurisdiction of a commodity producers board for that commodity may petition for the conduct of a referendum within the area specified in the petition on the issue of whether or not the area shall be included within the jurisdiction of the board. The petition must be submitted to the commissioner at least 105 days before the date of the biennial election of members of the board.

(b) If the commissioner determines that in the area described in the petition there exists among the producers of the commodity an interest in becoming subject to the jurisdiction of the board that is substantial enough to justify a referendum, he may transmit the petition to the board with an order authorizing the board in its discretion to conduct the referendum at its own expense. The petition and order must be transmitted at least 75 days before the date of the biennial election of members of the board.

(c) The board shall give public notice, as hereinafter provided, of the date of the election, which shall be the date of the biennial election of members of the board; the amount and basis of the assessment collected by the board; a description of the manner in which the assessment is collected and the proceeds administered and utilized; and any other proposition the board proposes to include on the ballot as authorized or required by this Act. The notice shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper or newspapers published and distributed, or having general circulation, within the boundaries set forth in the petition, for not less than once a week for three consecutive weeks beginning at least 60 days before the date of the regular biennial election. In addition, direct written notice shall be given to each county agent in any county within the boundaries set forth in the petition, at least 60 days before the date of the regular biennial election.

(d) At any time after the first publication of the notice, any producer of the agricultural commodity in the area set forth in the petition who is qualified to vote at the referendum, if he desires to be a candidate for membership on the board, shall file with the board an application to have his name printed on the ballot to be used at the election. The application must be signed by the candidate and by at least 10 producers of the commodity in that area who are qualified to vote at the election, and must be filed at least 30 days prior to the date of the election. If a geographical representation plan is in effect, this subsection applies only to candidacy for at-large positions and only if the board has one or more at-large positions.

(e) A person is qualified to vote in the referendum if he is, or for at least one production period during the three years preceding the referendum has been, a producer of the particular agricultural commodity within the area described in the petition, the owner of a farm on which the commodity is produced, or his tenant or sharecropper.

(f) The conduct of the election in the area set forth in the petition shall be as prescribed by Section 9 of this Act and by rules promulgated under that section. In addition to the referendum proposition of whether or not the proposed area shall be added to the jurisdiction of the board, the voters qualified to vote in the election are entitled to vote for candidates for membership on the board, but only candidates for at-large positions if a geographical representation plan is in effect, and on any other proposition printed on the ballot for the regular biennial election of the board. The ballots cast in the area set forth in the petition shall be canvassed and the returns reported separately. As to these returns, the board shall perform the functions described by Sections 10 and 11 of this Act with respect to the original election, which govern to the extent applicable, except that the board shall certify whether the referendum proposition was carried or defeated in the area set forth in the petition.

(g) If the referendum proposition was defeated, then the ballots cast in the area set forth in the petition shall not be counted for any other purpose. If the proposition was carried, the returns shall be included in determining the election of directors and any other proposition included on the ballot; and the area set forth in the petition becomes subject to the jurisdiction of the board on the day following the date the result is certified.

Application of act to certain counties

* * * * * * * * * * *

Sec. 17. (b)(1) When any crop or vegetation of value that is susceptible to damage exists in any county exempted by Subsection (a) of this section, which fact shall be determined by the commissioners court of the affected county, evidenced by an appropriate order entered in the minutes of the court, the provisions of this Act relating to appliers and custom appliers shall be in full force and effect in that county immediately upon the entry of said order.

(2) When the commissioners court of any county that has had its exemption removed pursuant to Subdivision (1) of this subsection finds that there is no longer a crop or vegetation of value susceptible to damage in the county, the court may order the exemption created by Subsection (a) of this section to be reinstated, thereby exempting the county from the provisions of this Act relating to appliers and custom appliers.

(3) Before any order shall be entered pursuant to Subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection, there shall be a hearing held to determine whether or not such an order should be issued. The hearing may be held only once each year and only in the month of October, November, or December.

(4) Before any such order shall be entered by a commissioners court, the court shall first give notice of the hearing in at least one newspaper in the county 10 days prior to a hearing on this matter. Any interested person may appeal to the district court to test the reasonableness of the fact-finding of the commissioners court within 20 days from entry of the order, in which case the rules and procedure governing appeals from orders of the Railroad Commission of Texas shall be followed, the "substantial evidence rule" shall apply, and appeals may be taken as in other civil cases.

(5) An order issued by the commissioners court changing the status of the county under the provisions of this section becomes effective on January 1 of the year following the date of the hearing.

(6) If the commissioners court orders a change in the status of the county under this section, it shall notify the Commissioner of Agriculture of the change.

Sec. 17(b) amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1111, ch. 242, § 1, eff. May 17, 1971.

(c)(1) When the commissioners court of a county subject to this Act finds it to be a fact that there is no crop or vegetation of value susceptible to damage in the county, the commissioners court by order may exempt the county from the provisions of this Act relating to appliers and custom appliers. In finding the fact and entering the order, the commissioners court is governed by the requirements set out in Subsection (b) of this section, insofar as they are applicable.

(2) When a county has been exempted from the provisions of this Act relating to appliers and custom appliers by legislation or by order of the commissioner court, a subsequent hearing may be held and an order entered which revokes the exemption permitted in Paragraph (1) of this subsection. In finding the fact that there is a crop or vegetation of value susceptible to damage and entering the order, the commissioners court is governed by the requirements set out in Subsection (b) of this section.

Sec. 3. A. It shall be unlawful for any person to distribute, sell, or offer for sale within this State or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this State through any point outside this State any of the following:

(1) Any economic pesticide which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, or any economic pesticide if any of the claims made for it or any of the directions for its use differ in substance from the representations made in connection with its registration, or if the composition of an economic pesticide differs from its composition as represented in connection with its registration. Provided, that, in the discretion of the Commissioner, a change in the labeling or formula of an economic pesticide may be made within a registration period if the economic pesticide is registered in conformity with the requirements of this Act for other economic pesticides.

(2) Any economic pesticide unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container, and there is affixed to such container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there be one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing:

Provided, that in the case of a tank truck used merely to deliver an economic pesticide to the user when the truck does not remain in the user's hands, an invoice with the required labeling information left with the purchaser at the time of delivery of the economic pesticide is permissible in lieu of a label being affixed to the tank.

(d) The ingredient statement as provided for in Section 2C of this Act.

(e) Numbers or other symbols which would identify the lot and batch number of the manufacture of the contents of the package.

(3) Any economic pesticide which contains any substance or substances in quantities highly toxic to man, determined as provided in Section 5 of this Act, unless the label shall bear, in addition to any other matter required by this Act:

B. It shall be unlawful:

(1) For any person to detach, alter, deface, or destroy, in whole or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this Act or regulations promulgated hereunder, or to add any substance to, or take any substance from, an economic pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this Act;

(2) For any person to use for his own advantage or to reveal, other than to the Commissioner or proper officials or employees of the State or to the courts of this State in response to a subpoena, or to physicians, or in emergencies to pharmacists and other qualified persons, for use in the preparation of antidotes, any information relative to formulas of products acquired by authority of Section 4 of this Act.

(3) For any person to sell custom mixes without the identification of the purchaser and without an ingredient statement attached as required elsewhere in this Act and so labeled as soon as formulated. The labeling shall be marked with indelible pen or stamp only and may be sold only to those persons whose name appears on the container and shall not be placed on the shelf for resale.

(1) All registration fees collected by the Commissioner under this Act shall be paid into the State Treasury by the Commissioner and placed by the State Treasurer in the Special Department of Agriculture Fund, and shall be used only for administrative and enforcement purposes of this Act;

(2) Any registrant who is located outside the State of Texas but who distributes economic pesticides in the State of Texas shall deposit with the Commissioner an instrument in writing appointing a resident agent within this State upon whom service may be had in actions filed by the State or taken by the Commissioner in the administration or enforcement of this Act.

(3) The Commissioner is authorized to cancel all registrations of any registrant who fails to comply with the requirements of this Act.

* * * * * * * * * * *

D. The Commissioner may, after notice and hearing, cancel the registration of, or refuse to register any economic pesticide:

(1) Which has demonstrated serious uncontrollable adverse effects, either within or outside the agricultural environment.

(2) The use of which is of less public value or greater detriment to the environment than the benefits received by its use; or

(3) Which, even when properly used, is detrimental to vegetation, except weeds, to domestic animals, to the public health and safety, or

(4) Concerning which any false or misleading statement is made or implied by the registrant or his agent, either verbally or in writing, or in the form of any advertising literature; or

Enforcement

Sec. 6. A. The Commissioner shall have authority to enter into any building or place owned, controlled or operated by a registrant or dealer where from probable cause it appears that said building or place contains economic pesticides for the purpose of inspection or sampling, and shall have the power to take a sample for official analysis from any package or lot of economic pesticides, including custom mixes, found within this State. The Commissioner shall have the power to issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any economic pesticide which he has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act prohibiting further sale of such economic pesticide until he has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, that in respect to the economic pesticide which has been denied sale as provided in this paragraph, the owner or custodian of such economic pesticide shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the economic pesticide is found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and the discharge of such economic pesticide from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the right of the Commissioner to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

B. In addition to the remedies herein provided, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to institute an action in his own name to enjoin any violation of any provision of this Act.

C. The Commissioner is authorized to contract with State colleges, State agencies or commercial laboratories for examination of economic pesticides provided that such contracts to commercial laboratories are let on a competitive bid basis.

(b) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the methods and practices of structural pest control when it determines that the public's health and welfare necessitates such regulations in order to prevent adverse effects on human life and the environment. The rules and regulations relating to the use of economic poisons shall comply with applicable federal standards governing the use of such substances.

Temporary license

Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), no person shall engage in the business of structural pest control after the effective date of this Act unless he meets the standards set by the board and possesses a valid license issued by the board.

(b) A person who has engaged in the business of structural pest control for a period of two years next preceding the effective date of this Act may apply to the board within 90 days after the effective date of this Act and shall be issued a temporary license which shall be valid for a period not to exceed two years upon payment of the required fee and completion of a temporary licensing form as prescribed by the board without further qualifications or examination. Disposition of fees

Sec. 8. The proceeds from the collection of the fees provided in this Act shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Structural Pest Control Fund, and shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act. Any balance in the special fund at the end of each State fiscal biennium in excess of appropriations out of that fund for the succeeding biennium shall be transferred to the general revenue fund. All money deposited in the Structural Pest Control Fund is hereby appropriated to the board for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act for the fiscal biennium ending August 31, 1973.

Sec. 2A. (a) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any specification, rule or regulation, the State Health Officer shall:

(1) give at least thirty (30) days notice of his intended action. The notice shall include a statement of either the expressed terms or an informative summary of the proposed action, and the time when, the place where, and the manner in which interested persons may present their views thereon. The notice shall be published not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days prior to such intended action in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and in each of the five most populous counties in Texas, according to the latest U. S. Census. In addition, the notice is to be mailed to all persons who have made timely written requests of the agency for advance notice of its specification, rule or regulation making proceedings; provided, however, that failure to mail such notice shall not invalidate any actions taken or specifications, rules or regulations adopted; and

(2) afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. Opportunity for oral argument must be granted if requested by twenty-five persons, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having not less than twenty-five members. The State Health Officer shall consider fully all written and oral submissions respecting the proposed specification, rule or regulation. Upon adoption of a specification, rule or regulation, the State Health Officer, is requested to do so by an interested person either prior to adoption or within thirty (30) days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

(3) If the State Health Officer finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires adoption of a specification, rule or regulation upon fewer than thirty (30) days notice and states in writing his reasons for that find, he may proceed without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that he finds practicable, to adopt an emergency specification, rule or regulation. The specification, rule or regulation may be effective for a period of not longer than one hundred twenty (120) days renewable once for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, but the adoption of an identical specification, rule or regulation under Subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section is not precluded.

(4) No specification, rule or regulation hereafter adopted is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with this section. A proceeding to contest any specification, rule or regulation on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of this section must be commenced within two (2) years from the effective date of the specification, rule or regulation.

(5) The State Health Officer may use informal conferences and consultations as means of obtaining the viewpoints and advice of interested persons with respect to contemplated specification, rule or regulation making. The State Health Officer is also authorized to appoint committees of experts or interested persons or representatives of the general public to advise him with respect to contemplated specification, rule or regulation making. The powers of such committees shall be advisory only.

(6) The State Health Officer shall file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of each specification, rule or regulation adopted by him and shall mail a printed copy of each specification, rule or regulation adopted by him to all County and City Health Officers.

(7) Each specification, rule or regulation adopted is effective forty-five (45) days after filing except that: (1) a later date specified in the specification, rule or regulation shall be the effective date; and (2) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions, an emergency specification, rule or regulation becomes effective immediately upon filing, or at a stated date after filing, if the State Health Officer finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(8) Specifications, rules or regulations filed with the Secretary of State shall be made available upon request to any person at prices fixed by the Secretary of State to cover costs of mailing, publication and copying.

Declaratory judgment

Sec. 2C. The validity or applicability of any specification, rule or regulation including emergency specifications, rules or regulations, may be determined in an action for declaratory judgment in the District Court of Travis County, and not elsewhere, if it is alleged that the specification, rule or regulation, its application, or its threatened application interferes with or impairs or threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The State Health Officer shall be made a party to the action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the State Health Officer to pass upon the validity or applicability of the specification, rule or regulation in question.

CHAPTER THREE—INCORPORATION, MERGER, REORGANIZATION, PURCHASE OF ASSETS OF ANOTHER BANK, DISBURSING AGENT, AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF STATE BANKS, AND CONVERSION

Art. 342—305. Application For and Granting of Charters—Approval

A. Applications for a State bank charter shall be granted only upon good and sufficient proof that all of the following conditions presently exist:

(1) A public necessity exists for the proposed bank;

(2) The proposed capital structure is adequate;

(3) The volume of business in the community where such proposed bank is to be established is such as to indicate profitable operation of the proposed bank;

(4) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability and standing to render success of the proposed bank probable; and

(5) The applicants are acting in good faith.

The burden to establish said conditions shall be upon the applicants.

B. Applicants desiring to incorporate a State bank shall file with the Banking Commissioner an application for charter, the proposed Articles of Association, and a written list of information as may tend to establish the above conditions of incorporation, all upon official forms prepared and prescribed by the Commissioner. All persons subscribing to the capital stock of the proposed bank shall sign and verify under oath a statement of such stock subscribed, and which statement shall truly report the number of shares and the amount to be paid in consideration; the names, identity, title and address of any other persons who will be beneficial owners of such stock or otherwise share an interest or ownership in said stock, or who will pay any portion of the consideration; whether said stock is to be pledged as security for any loan; whether a loan has been committed or is intended for the subscription and purchase of said stock, and if so, the name and address of such person or corporation which is intended to loan funds for said purchase; the names of any cosigners, guarantors, partners or other persons liable for the repayment of any loan financing the purchase of such stock. Provided, however, that the verified statement of subscribers to stock shall be confidential and privileged from public disclosure prior to the final determination by the Board of the application for a charter, unless the Board shall find that public disclosure prior to public hearing and final determination of the charter application is necessary to a full development of the factual record. Subject to the above qualification, the list of incorporators and proposed officers and directors who support the application for a charter shall be available to public inspection.

C. Upon the filing of said application the Commissioner may meet and confer with any applicants for charter, examine data submitted in support of the application, and request such further information and data as may be pertinent and necessary. The Commissioner shall require deposit of such charter fees as are required by law and shall proceed to conduct a thorough investigation of the application, the applicants and their personnel, and the charter conditions alleged. The actual expense of such investigation and report shall be paid by the applicants, and the Commissioner may require a deposit in an estimated amount, the balance to be paid in full prior to hearing of the application. Upon the conclusion of the investigation, and based upon the written report of such investigation, the Commissioner shall make his findings and report such findings, together with the investigation report, to the State Banking

Board. The written report of investigation and the findings of the Commissioner shall also be made available to all interested parties at their request, provided that all sources of information contained in the investigation report shall be considered confidential and shall be privileged communications.

D. Upon completion of the investigation and findings the Commissioner shall promptly set the time and place for public hearing of the application for charter, giving the applicants and such other banks in the same trade area reasonable notice thereof. After full and public hearing the Board shall vote and determine whether the necessary conditions set out in Paragraph 1 above have been established. Should the Board, or a majority of the Board, determine all of the said conditions affirmatively, then the application shall be approved; if not, then the application shall be denied. If approved, and when the Commissioner receives satisfactory evidence that the capital has been paid in full in cash, the Commissioner shall deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the Articles of Association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the Articles of Association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the Articles of Association.

Amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 3, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2882, ch. 949, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

CHAPTER FOUR—STOCK, STOCKHOLDERS, BY-LAWS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES

Art. 342—401. Transfer of Stock—Notice to Commissioner

Shares of stock in a state bank shall be personal property and transferable only upon its books, and it shall be the duty of the officers of a state bank to transfer such stock upon its books at the request of the transferee, supported by a transfer in writing or other legally effective transfer.

If title to more than ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares of stock outstanding is transferred, the transferee shall, within fifteen (15) days thereafter, give the Commissioner written notice of the date of the transfer, the number of shares transferred and the consideration therefor, and the names and addresses of the persons or corporations from whom and to whom the stock was transferred. Where the title to the stock so transferred is to be held by the transferee in the capacity of agent or trustee, the transferee shall, within fifteen (15) days after title to the stock is transferred, give the Commissioner written notice of the name and address of each principal or each beneficiary having an interest therein. Information obtained hereunder by the Commissioner shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department, except that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States, and to the best interest of the public divulge such information to any department of the state or national government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

Any transferee who willfully and knowingly fails or refuses to give the Commissioner notice as required by this Article, shall, upon conviction, be fined in an amount not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months, or both. Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1855, ch. 722, § 2, eff. June 18, 1967; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1689, ch. 482, § 1, eff. May 27, 1971.

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342—402. Stockholders' Meetings—Quorum—Voting

The stockholders of each State bank shall hold one regular meeting each year at the time prescribed in its bylaws, and such special meetings as may be deemed necessary after notice as prescribed in the bylaws. At all stockholders' meetings the owners of a majority of the capital stock, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned from time to time without notice to the stockholders. Each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him, which he may cast in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing filed among the records of the bank. Stock owned of record by an estate shall be voted by its executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or personal representative, and stock held in a fiduciary capacity shall be voted by the fiduciary, but stock which is owned or held by the State bank in any such capacity and stock which is acquired by the State bank in any other lawful manner shall not be voted by the bank for any purpose and shall not be included in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders; provided, however, if the voting rights to stock held in trust by a state bank are vested in a person or third party other than the bank, such stock may be voted by such person or third party or their proxy and shall be included in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders. Amended by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 894, ch. 412, § 4, eff. May 30, 1959; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1690, ch. 483, § 1, eff. May 27, 1971.

Art. 342—412. Officers and Directors—Cease and Desist—Removal—Appeal

1. If the Commissioner finds that an officer, director or employee of a State bank, or the State bank itself acting through any authorized person, has committed any of the following violations or practices:

(a) violates the provisions of this Code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(b) refuses to comply with the provisions of this code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(c) wilfully neglects to perform his duties, or commits a breach of trust or of fiduciary duty.

(d) Commits any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the bank's business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency; or

(e) refuses to submit to examination under oath; or

(f) conducts business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or

(g) violates any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the Banking Commissioner or the Banking Department; then in such event the Commissioner shall give notice in writing to such bank and the offending officer, director or employee, stating the particular violations or practices complained of, and the Commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of said bank and lay before them such findings and demand a discontinuance of such violations and practices as have been found.

2. If the Commissioner shall find that an order to cease and desist from such actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within thirty (30) days thereafter the Commissioner may serve on the State bank, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated therein and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from such violations or practices. Said cease and desist order shall be effective instanter if the Commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the bank, its depositors or stockholders; otherwise, said order shall state the effective date, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank or directors shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order shall be final. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, who shall thereafter certify to the Commissioner in writing that each has read and understood the order.

3. If the Commissioner subsequently finds by examination or other credible evidence that the offending officer, director or employee has continued such violations or practices as previously charged and found by the Commissioner, after notice and demand made under Paragraph 1 above, and further finds that removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of such bank and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then the Commissioner may serve such officer, director or employee with an order of removal from office. Said order shall state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty and shall state the effective date of removal, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank, the directors or the person removed shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal shall be effective and final and said person shall thereafter be prohibited from further holding office or employment by, or participating in the affairs of, the said State bank. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of such order and certify to the Commissioner that such person has been removed from office.

4. Upon the timely filing of an appeal the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall set a time and place for hearing such appeal, giving reasonable notice thereof to the appellants. The Banking Section may adopt such rules or procedure as may be necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Appeal from Cease and Desist Order. If the Banking Section finds that appellants have committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner, and further finds that an order to cease and desist from said actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

(b) Appeal from Order of Removal. If the Banking Section finds that appellant has committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner sufficient to justify his removal, and further finds that an order of removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

5. After a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, should a State bank or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of said bank fail or refuse to comply with such an order, then the Commissioner may, upon notice, assess a penalty against said State bank in an amount not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per day for each day the bank is in violation of said order of the Commissioner or the Banking Section of the Finance Commission. Failure to remit any penalty so assessed shall subject the bank to a suit for collection by the Attorney General of Texas to be instituted in the District Court of Travis County, Texas. In addition to the remedy above provided the Attorney General of Texas, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner, may bring suit in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, against any bank in violation of the final orders of the Commissioner or the Banking Section to enjoin the further violation of said orders and the violations and practices charged by the Commissioner as the grounds for such orders.

6. Orders to cease and desist, orders for removal from office, and all copies of notices, correspondence or other records in the Banking Department relating to such orders concerning such violations or unsound practices shall be confidential and shall not be publicized or revealed to the public except in any lawsuit authorized by this Code or by other lawful order or authority.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2872, ch. 946, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

The contract of deposit between a bank and a depositor, whether evidenced by deposit tickets or otherwise shall be deemed a contract in writing within the purview of Article 5527 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. The cause of action on any such depository contract, other than a time deposit, shall not accrue until the bank has denied liability and given the depositor notice thereof. Provided that the delivery to the depositor of a statement of his account or pass book reflecting the balance, or the mailing of a statement of such account (with or without cancelled items) to the depositor at his address as reflected by the books of the bank, shall constitute a denial of any liability on the part of the bank in excess of the balance reflected by such statement or pass book, and notice thereof to the depositor, and, to the extent of any excess over the balance reflected shall accrue the cause of action.

Art. 342—702. Brokered Funds Defined—Reporting—Commissioner's Authority

For the purpose of this article, "brokered funds" are funds accepted by a bank on which a fee in money is paid or agreed to be paid, directly or indirectly, either to the depositor of such funds or a third party by such bank or a third party, in addition to any interest to be paid under the contract of repayment.

In the event that any bank shall accept brokered funds as defined herein, it shall forthwith notify the Commissioner in writing of the acceptance of such funds, the depositor and his address, any loans, if any, made in consideration of or conditioned upon said deposit, and listing the borrower, his address, and any collateral securing said loan, and such other information concerning said deposit and loan as the Commissioner may require and on such forms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner may further require any bank to report such brokered funds and loans as above described, if any, which have been accepted or made previous to the effective date of this Act.

Provided, however, should the Commissioner find from examination or other evidence that a bank is being operated in an unsafe manner, or insolvency of the bank is threatened, or the continued acceptance of brokered funds will threaten the liquidity of the bank, then the Commissioner shall have the authority to act as follows:

(a) to issue an order to cease and desist from further accepting any brokered funds, or otherwise to regulate the amount of such funds which may be accepted or the rate of interest to be paid, and

(b) to issue a written order stating that after the effective date thereof all brokered funds accepted by said bank shall be and are hereby classified as the issuance, sale and negotiation of 'notes, bonds, and other evidence of indebtedness' by the bank as provided in Paragraph (h), Article 1, Chapter III of such Code,[1] and not as deposits received by the bank as provided in Paragraph (a), Article 1, Chapter III of the Banking Code of 1943 as amended.[2] In the event that brokered funds are accepted after issuance of such order, it shall be the duty of said bank to state in the contract of repayment that in the event of liquidation of the issuing bank, the owner and holder of such contract of repayment shall be considered and treated as a common creditor and not as a depositor of the bank, and a cash reserve of ten percent (10%) of the total outstanding brokered funds shall be maintained against such funds, in the same manner as cash reserves are maintained against demand deposits and time deposits.

Provided further, that the Commissioner may exercise any or all of the powers above provided, which shall be cumulative of any other powers and remedies provided elsewhere in this Code.

CHAPTER EIGHT—LIQUIDATION

Art. 342—801a. Supervision of Banks—Conservatorship Proceedings—Review—Procedure

Definition of Terms

Section 1. As used in this article, the following words, terms and phrases include the meanings, significance or application described in this section, except as another meaning is clearly requisite from the purposes or is otherwise clearly indicated by the context:

(a) In respect of a bank, "unsafe condition" shall mean and include, and the conditions to which this article is applicable include, but are not limited to, any one or more of the following circumstances or conditions.

(1) if a bank's capital is impaired, or impairment of capital is threatened, or

(2) if a bank violates the provisions of this code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks, or

(3) if a bank conducts any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the bank's business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency, or

(4) if a bank conducts business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or

(5) if a bank violates any conditions of its charter or any agreement entered with the Banking Commissioner or the Banking Department.

(b) "Exceeded its Powers" shall mean and include, but is not limited to, the following circumstances:

(1) if a bank has refused to permit examination of its books, papers, accounts, records, or affairs by the Banking Commissioner of Texas, his deputy, or duly commissioned examiners, or

(2) if a bank has neglected or refused to observe an order of the Commissioner to make good, within the time prescribed, any impairment of its capital.

(c) "Consent" includes and means a written agreement by the bank to either supervision or conservatorship under this article.

Conditions for Supervision by Commissioner

Sec. 2. If upon examination or at any other time it appears to or is the opinion of the Banking Commissioner that any bank is in an unsafe condition (as defined herein) and its condition is such as to render the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to its depositors and creditors, or if such bank appears to have exceeded its powers (as defined herein) or has failed to comply with the law, or if such bank gives its consent (as defined herein), then the Banking Commissioner shall upon his determination (a) notify the bank of his determination, and (b) furnish to the bank a written list of the Commissioner's requirements to abate his determination, and (c) if the Commissioner makes a further determination to supervise he shall notify the bank that it is under the supervision of the Banking Commissioner and that the Commissioner is invoking the provisions of this article. If placed under supervision such bank shall comply with the lawful requirements of the Banking Commissioner within such time as provided in the notice of the Commissioner, subject however to the provisions of this article. In the event of such bank's failure to comply within such time the Banking Commissioner may appoint a conservator as hereafter provided.

Prohibited Acts During Period of Supervision

Sec. 3. During the period of supervision the Commissioner may appoint a supervisor to supervise such bank and may provide that the bank may not do any of the following things during the period of supervision, without the prior approval of the Commissioner or his supervisor:

(1) Dispose of, convey or encumber any of its assets;
(2) Withdraw any of its bank accounts;
(3) Lend any of its funds;
(4) Invest any of its funds;
(5) Transfer any of its property; or
(6) Incur any debt, obligation or liability.

Conservatorship Proceedings

Sec. 4. After the period of supervision specified by the Commissioner for compliance, if it is determined that such bank has failed to comply with the lawful requirements of the Commissioner, then upon due notice and hearing, or by consent of the bank, the Commissioner may appoint a conservator, who shall immediately take charge of such bank and all of the property, books, records, and effects thereof. The conservator shall conduct the business of the bank and take such steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have necessitated such order, as the Commissioner may direct. During the pendency of conservatorship the conservator shall make such reports to the Commissioner from time to time as may be required by the Commissioner, and shall be empowered to take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of such bank, including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank, and to deal with the same in his own name as conservator, and shall be empowered to file, prosecute, and defend any suit or suits which have been filed or which may thereafter be filed by or against such bank which are deemed by the conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties or any property affected thereby. The Banking Commissioner, or any duly appointed deputy, may be appointed to serve as the conservator. If the Banking Commissioner, however, is satisfied that such bank is not in condition to continue business in the interest of its depositors or creditors, under the conservator as above provided, the Banking Commissioner may proceed with an appropriate remedy provided by any other provision of this Code.

Supervisor's and Conservator's Service Charge

Sec. 5. The cost incident to the supervisor's and conservator's service shall be fixed and determined by the Banking Commissioner and shall be a charge against the assets and funds of the bank to be allowed and paid as the Banking Commissioner may determine.

Review and Stay of Action

Sec. 6. During the period of supervision and during the period of conservatorship, the bank may request the Banking Commissioner or in his absence, the duly appointed deputy for such purpose, to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the supervisor or conservator, specifying wherein the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interests of the bank, and such request shall stay the action specified pending review of such action by the Commissioner or his duly appointed deputy. Any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a supervisor and providing that the bank shall not do certain acts as provided in Section 3 and Section 4 of this article, any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a conservator, and any order by the Commissioner following the review of an action of the supervisor or conservator as hereinabove provided shall be immediately reviewed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission upon the filing of an appeal by the bank. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission may stay the effectiveness of any order appealed from, pending its review of such order. Such appeal shall have precedence over all other business of a different nature pending before the Banking Section of the Finance Commission; and all matters and evidence pertaining to the bank's condition and the subject appeal shall be presented to the Banking Section of the Finance Commission in a closed hearing. Upon hearing the Banking Section shall promptly render a decision which may affirm or terminate the order appealed from, modify the order, continue or discontinue such supervision, conservatorship or other order in connection therewith, or enter such other order as is appropriate and consistent with this article. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall make such other rules and regulations with regard to such appeals and their consideration as it deems advisable. Any bank dissatisfied with any order rendered by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission under this article shall have the right to appeal to the district court in the manner prescribed elsewhere in this Code, which order shall be considered final for the purpose of such appeal.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Venue

Sec. 7. Any suit filed against a bank or its conservator, after the entrance of an order by the Banking Commissioner placing such bank in conservatorship and while such order is in effect, shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere. The conservator appointed hereunder for such bank may file suit in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering any assets or property of such bank including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank.

Duration of Conservatorship

Sec. 8. As respects a conservatorship, the conservator shall serve for such time as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this Act. If rehabilitated, the rehabilitated bank shall be returned to management or new management under such conditions as are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the conditions which occasioned the conservatorship.

Administrative Election of Remedies

Sec. 9. If the Commissioner determines to act under authority of this article, or is directed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission to act under this article, the sequence of his acts and proceedings shall be as set forth herein. However, it is a purpose and substance of this article to authorize administrative discretion—to allow Commissioner and the Banking Section of the Finance Commission administrative discretion in the event of unsound banking operations—and in furtherance of that purpose, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to proceed with regulation either under this article or under any other applicable article or law, or under this law in conjunction with other law, either as such law is now existing or as is hereafter enacted, and it is so provided.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 10. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall be empowered to adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for the augmentation and accomplishment of this Act, including its purposes.

Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 128, ch. 97, subch. VIII, art. 1a added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2877, ch. 948, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1971 act provided:

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 4. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

CHAPTER NINE—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 342—903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purposes of this article "banking house" means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by pneumatic tube or other similar carrier, and (b) in addition, in a county having a population of at least 350,000 according to the last preceding federal census, if authorized in the manner hereinafter provided, not more than one (1) automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within one thousand eight hundred fifty (1,850) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected automobile drive-in facility or by pneumatic tube or other similar carrier. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. The term "automobile drive-in facility" as herein used shall mean a facility offering banking services solely to persons who arrive at such facility in an automobile and remain therein during the transaction of business with the bank.

An automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within one thousand eight hundred fifty (1,850) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom shall be authorized only in the following manner: Written application for authority to operate the same shall be filed with the Commissioner by the bank proposing such facility, which application shall specify the location of the proposed facility. Promptly upon the filing of such written application the Commissioner shall, by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, notify each bank, if any, whose central building is situated within a one (1) mile radius of said proposed facility, hereinafter called the "Interested Banks," of the filing of such application, transmitting with such notice a true copy of said application. If within thirty (30) days following the mailing of such notice no written protest to the operation of the said proposed facility has been filed with the Commissioner by an Interested Bank, or, if there are no Interested Banks, said proposed facility shall thereupon be fully authorized without the necessity of any further action by the applying bank or by the Commissioner. However, if a written protest to the operation of said proposed facility is filed with the Commissioner during said thirty (30) day period by one or more of the Interested Banks, said application shall be promptly considered by the State Banking Board at a public hearing duly called, noticed and held in the same manner as hearings to consider applications for the granting of bank charters, and authorization to operate said proposed facility shall be granted at such hearing unless the State Banking Board shall find that the operation thereof will substantially and adversely affect one or more of the Interested Banks, in which case authorization shall be denied. National banks and private banks doing business in this State shall voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the State Banking

Board, and abide by the determination of the Board as to whether or not permission should be granted to establish and operate an additional drive-in facility authorized under this article, provided that any national bank which does not abide by the determination of the Board shall immediately forfeit all rights it may have under State law to act as reserve depository for any State chartered bank and to act as depository for the public funds of the State and any county, city, municipality, school district or any other political subdivision of the State, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank unless and until the Commissioner certifies to the depositor that said national bank is conducting its business in compliance with the Board's determinations and orders. In addition the Attorney General shall seek an injunction against any violation of the Board's orders under this article by any national bank or private bank. Amended by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 213, ch. 123, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 6, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1352, ch. 358, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342—910. Moratoriums—Emergency Closing of Banks or Bank Operations—Limitations On Liabilities During Emergencies

(a) The Commissioner, with the approval of a majority of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, may proclaim a financial moratorium for and invoke a uniform limitation on withdrawal of deposits of every character from all banks within the State. Any bank refusing to comply with any written proclamation of the Commissioner, signed by a majority of the members of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, shall forfeit its charter, if it is a State chartered bank; or forfeit its right to continue to do business, if it is a private bank; or forfeit any and all rights it may have under State law, if it is a national bank, to act as reserve agent for any State chartered bank and to act as depository of any State, county, municipal or other public funds, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor on order of the Commissioner and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank without the written approval of the Commissioner.

(b) 1. Whenever the officers of a bank are of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a bank's offices or particular bank operations, they shall have the authority, in the reasonable and proper exercise of their discretion, to determine not to conduct the particular bank operations or open the bank's offices on any business or banking day or, if having opened, to close such offices or suspend and close the particular bank operations during the continuation of such emergency, even if the Commissioner has not issued a proclamation of emergency. The office or operations so closed shall remain closed until such time as the officers determine that the emergency has ended, and for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen; however, in no case shall such office or operations remain closed for more than 48 consecutive hours, excluding other legal holidays, without receiving the approval of the Commissioner. A bank closing an office or operations pursuant to the authority granted under this article shall give as prompt notice of its action as conditions will permit and by any means available, to the Commissioner.

2. Whenever the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, in this State or in any part or parts of this State, he may, by proclamation, authorize banks located in the affected area or areas to close any part or all of their offices or operations. In addition, if the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a particular bank or banks, or a particular bank operation, but not banks located in the area generally, he may authorize the particular bank or banks so affected, to close or to suspend and close a particular bank operation. The office or bank operation so closed shall remain closed until the Commissioner proclaims that the emergency has ended, or until such earlier time as the officers of the bank determine that the office or bank operation, theretofore closed because of the emergency, should reopen, and, in either event, for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen.

3. "Emergency" means any condition or occurrence which may interfere physically with the conduct of normal business at the offices of a bank or of particular bank operations, or which poses an imminent or existing threat to the safety or security of persons or property, or both. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, an emergency may arise as a result of any one or more of the following: fire; flood; earthquake; hurricane; tornado; wind, rain, or snow storm; labor dispute and strike; power failure; transportation failure; interruption of communication facilities; shortage of fuel, housing, food, transportation or labor; robbery or burglary or attempted robbery or burglary; actual or threatened enemy attack; epidemic or other catastrophe; riot; civil commotion, and other acts of lawlessness or violence, actual or threatened.

4. Any day on which a bank, or any one or more of its operations, is closed during all or any part of its normal banking hours pursuant to the authorization granted under this article shall be, as to such bank or, if not all of its operations are closed, then as to any operations which are closed, a legal holiday for all purposes with respect to any banking business of any character. No liability, or loss of rights of any kind, on the part of any bank, or any director, officer, or employee thereof, shall accrue or result by virtue of any closing authorized by this article.

5. The provisions of this article shall be construed and applied as being in addition to, and not in substitution for or limitation of, any other provision in this Code or other law of this State or of the United States, authorizing the closing of a bank or excusing the delay by a bank in the performance of its duties and obligations because of emergencies or conditions beyond the bank's control, or otherwise.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 881, ch. 113, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342—910a. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Section 1. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second and fourth Mondays in October, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.

Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second and fourth Mondays in October, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates January 1, July 4 or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed, and when such dates fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this State may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday of any week in the year provided:

(a) such day is designated at least fifteen (15) days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the Board of Directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and

(b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the office of the Commissioner of Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the office of the Commissioner of the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this State that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the Board of Directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, issuing cashier's checks, and providing access to safety deposit boxes or to property held in safekeeping by the bank.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

"Sec. 3. Discrimination Prohibited. The provisions of Section 2 of this article shall be completely permissive with each individual bank or trust company in this State, and no bank, trust company, clearing house association, or group of banks or trust companies, shall discriminate against or refuse its services to any bank or trust company or enter into any agreement to discriminate against or refuse its services, either directly or indirectly, to any bank or trust company which may or may not elect to exercise any of the options contained in Section 2 of this article. The provisions of the Antitrust Laws of this State shall be applicable to the provisions of this article, and the Attorney General of Texas shall institute and prosecute any legal proceedings authorized by law to enforce the provisions of this article, including forfeiture of right to do business in Texas for violation of such provisions.

Provided, that in such cases the substantial evidence rule shall apply and govern the trial, as is the common practice in cases of appeal from administrative orders and as construed by the courts of this State. Pending final judgment of the court the order shall remain in effect, unless otherwise stayed or enjoined by the court upon proper application.

Contract purchase procedure

Sec. 8. (a) Notice. Notice inviting bids shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state and at least seven days preceding the last day set for the receipt of bids. The newspaper notice shall include a general description of the articles to be purchased, and shall state where bid blanks and specifications may be secured, and the time and place for opening bids.

(b) Bidders List. The Board shall maintain a bidders list and shall add or delete names from the list by the application and utilization of applicable standards set forth in subsection (e) of this section. In any case, bid invitations shall be sent only to those who have expressed a desire to bid on the particular types of items which are the subject of the bid invitation. Use of the bidders list shall not be confined to contract purchases but it may be used by the Board as it may find desirable in making any purchase.

(c) Bid Deposits. When deemed necessary by the Board bid deposits in amounts to be set by the Board shall be prescribed in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The Board shall establish and maintain records of bid deposits and their disposition with the cooperation of the State Auditor, and upon the award of bids or rejection of all bids, bid deposits shall be returned to unsuccessful bidders making bid deposits. The Board may accept a bid deposit in the form of a blanket bond from any bidder.

(d) Bid Opening Procedure. Bids shall be submitted to the Board sealed and identified as bids on the envelope. Bids shall be opened by the Board at the time and place stated in the public notices and the invitation to bid; provided, the State Auditor or a member of his staff may be present at any bid opening. A tabulation of all bids received shall be available for public inspection under regulations to be established by the Board.

(e) Award of Contract. The Board shall award contracts to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications required by the Board. Complying with the specified time limit for submission of written data, samples or models on or before bid opening time is essential to the materiality of a bid, provided however that the Board shall have the authority to waive this provision if the failure to comply is beyond control of the bidder. In determining who is the lowest and best bidder, in addition to price, the Board shall consider:

(1) The ability, capacity and skill of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service required;

(2) Whether the bidder can perform the contract or provide the service promptly, or within the time required, without delay or interference;

(3) The character, responsibility, integrity, reputation, and experience of the bidder;

(4) The quality of performance of previous contracts or services;

(5) The previous and existing compliance by the bidder with laws relating to the contract or service;

(6) Any previous or existing noncompliance by the bidder with specification requirements relating to time of submission of specified data such as samples, models, drawings, certificates or other information;

(7) The sufficiency of the financial resources and ability of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service;

(8) The quality, availability and adaptability of the supplies, or contractual services, to the particular use required;

(9) The ability of the bidder to provide future maintenance, repair parts, and service for the use of the subject of the contract;

(10) The number and scope of conditions attached to the bid.

(f) Rejection of Bids. If a bid is submitted in which there is a material failure to comply with the specification requirements, such bid shall be rejected and the contract awarded to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications, provided, however, the Board shall in any event have the authority to reject all bids or parts of bids when the interest of the state will be served thereby.

(g) Bid Record. When an award is made a statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

(h) Tie Bids. In case of tie bids, quality and service being equal, the contract shall be awarded under rules and regulations to be adopted by the Board.

(i) Performance Bonds. The Board may require a performance bond before entering a contract in such amount as it finds reasonable and necessary to protect the interests of the state. Any bond required under this subsection shall be conditioned that the bidder will faithfully execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered. Any bond required shall be filed with the Board and recoveries may be had thereon until it is exhausted.

Art. 664—4. Professional Services Procurement Act

Section 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Professional Services Procurement Act."

Sec. 2. For purposes of this Act the term "professional services" shall mean those within the scope of the practice of accounting, architecture, optometry, medicine or professional engineering as defined by the laws of the State of Texas or those performed by any licensed architect, optometrist, physician, surgeon, certified public accountant or professional engineer in connection with his professional employment or practice.

Sec. 3. No state agency, political subdivision, county, municipality, district, authority or publicly-owned utility of the State of Texas shall make any contract for, or engage the professional services of, any licensed physician, optometrist, surgeon, architect, certified public accountant or registered engineer, or any group or association thereof, selected on the basis of competitive bids submitted for such contract or for such services to be performed, but shall select and award such contracts and engage such services on the basis of demonstrated competence and qualifications for the type of professional services to be performed and at fair and reasonable prices, as long as professional fees are consistent with and not higher than the published recommended practices and fees of the various applicable professional associations and do not exceed the maximum provided by any state law.

Sec. 4. Any and all such contracts, agreements or arrangements for professional services negotiated, made or entered into, directly or indirectly, by any agency or department of the State of Texas, county, municipality, political subdivision, district, authority or publicly-owned utility in any way in violation of the provisions of this Act or any part thereof are hereby declared to be void as contrary to the public policy of this State and shall not be given effect or enforced by any Court of this State or by any of its public officers or employees.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 72, ch. 38, eff. March 30, 1971.

Sections 5 to 7 of the act of 1971 read as follows:

"Sec. 5. Nothing in this Act shall affect the validity or binding effect of any valid contracts in existence at the effective date hereof.

"Sec. 6. If any section, sentence, clause or part of this Act is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portion of this Act.

"Sec. 7. Any laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed."

Section 8 of the act of 1971, an emergency provision, provides in part:

"The fact that the selection of certified public accountants, architects, physicians, optometrists, surgeons and professional engineers on the basis of the lowest bid places a premium on incompetence and is the most likely procedure for selecting the least able or qualified and the most incompetent practitioner for the performance of services vitally affecting the health, welfare and safety of the public and that, in spite of repeated expressions of the legislature excepting such professional services from statutes providing for competitive bidding procedures, some public officers continue to apply competitive bidding procedures to the selection of such professional personnel, creates an emergency of the greatest public importance to the health, safety and welfare of the people of Texas * * *".

Title of Act:

An Act to be known as the "Professional Services Procurement Act," relating to and establishing state policies and procedures for the procurement of professional services of architects, optometrists, certified public accountants, physicians, surgeons, and registered engineers, by agencies and departments of the State of Texas, political subdivisions, counties, municipalities, districts, public authorities or publicly-owned utilities; defining terms; declaring public policy; prohibiting contracting for such services by competitive bidding; providing for severability; providing a repealing clause and declaring an emergency. * * * * * * * * * * *

Transfer or sale of surplus and salvage equipment or material

Sec. 6a. (a) When a state agency reports to the Board of Control that it has surplus or salvage equipment or material, the Board shall inform other state agencies of the existence, kind, number, location and condition of the equipment or material and it shall maintain a mailing list, renewable annually, of county purchasing agents or other officers performing similar functions who have asked for information on such surplus or salvage equipment or material as the State may have available.

(b) The county purchasing agent or other officer shall notify the Board of Control within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control if he desires to negotiate for surplus or salvage equipment or material.

(c) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice of the Board of Control, and if the Board of Control determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the Board may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material or equipment to any county which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(d) The Board of Control shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one county expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage material or equipment. The Board may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage material and equipment to counties.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control and no county has expressed a desire to negotiate, or if a county or counties have expressed a desire to negotiate but are unable to negotiate a sale or transfer of the equipment or material within 40 days from the date of the notice from the Board of Control, the Board may offer the equipment or material to the organization known as the Texas Partners of the Alliance, a registered agency with the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, with the approval of the Partners of the Alliance office of the Agency for International Development. The equipment or material shall be offered at its fair market value as determined by mutual agreement between the Board of Control and the Texas Partners of the Alliance.

(f) If the Texas Partners of the Alliance do not accept the offer within 60 days, or if the Board of Control and the Texas Partners of the Alliance cannot agree on the fair market value of the equipment or material, the Board shall sell or dispose of the material as otherwise provided by this Act.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(6) "Rehabilitation Commission" means the Texas Constitution for Rehabilitation.

(7) "handicap" includes any physical or mental condition determined by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission to constitute a substantial vocational disadvantage.

Licensing procedure—first priority to be given to blind

Sec. 3. Upon written notification by an agency in control of state property that a vending facility is desired on the property, or, upon its own initiative, the Commission

* * * * * * * * * * *

(3) allow the Rehabilitation Commission to install a vending facility to be operated by a handicapped person other than a blind individual, according to rules and procedures comparable to those adopted by the Commission pursuant to Section 4 of this Act (interagency agreements for management services and related forms of necessary assistance being hereby expressly authorized), if the Rehabilitation Commission indicates that it is interested in undertaking such activities.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Persons who may be licensed

Sec. 6.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(e) When a vending facility is installed or operated by the Rehabilitation Commission pursuant to Section 7(a), the installation and operation of the facility shall, so far as possible, conform to the provisions of this Act applicable to vending facilities installed by the Commission.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Employment of other handicapped persons in vending facilities

Sec. 7. (a) If the nature of a location for a vending facility on State property is such that the Commission determines a blind person could not properly operate the facility, the Rehabilitation Commission may survey the location to determine if an individual handicapped by a condition other than blindness might be able to operate the facility in a proper manner. The Commission and the Rehabilitation Commission are authorized to develop such procedures and methods of exchanging information as might be necessary to implement the cooperative activities agreed to under this subsection.

(b) If an individual licensed to operate a vending facility on State property requires hired assistance for the proper operation of the vending facility, priority shall be given to the employment of a visually handicapped person who is available and qualified to work as an assistant in the vending facility. If labor requirements are such that another visually handicapped person cannot, in the Commission's determination, successfully perform the labor for which an assistant is desired, or if another qualified visually handicapped person is not available, preference in employment shall be given to an individual handicapped by a disability that is not of a visual nature. If it is determined that a person handicapped by a disability not related to vision cannot successfully perform the labor for which an assistant is desired, or if no qualified person with a disability that is not of a visual nature is available, preference in employment of an assistant shall be given to an individual who is disadvantaged by reason of social, cultural, economic or educational factors.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Competing vending facilities

Sec. 8.

* * * * * * * * * * *

(b) It is the duty of the heads of all State agencies concerned to negotiate and to cooperate in good faith to accomplish the purposes of this Act. This provision applies equally to vending facilities, including vending machines or other coin-operated devices, in competition with a Commission sponsored vending facility on or before the effective date of this Act, vending facilities, including vending machines and other coin-operated devices, which would, if installed, be in competition with an existing Commission sponsored vending facility, and vending facilities, including vending machines or other coin-operated devices, the installation and operation of which in a State building precludes the installation and operation of a vending facility by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission.

(c) When vending machines are located in the same building as is a vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, all commissions from the vending machine are to be received by the blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual. When vending machines and more than one vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual are located in the same building, the assignment of commissions from the vending machines shall be determined by the Commission, with a view toward achieving equity and equality in the incomes of the blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individuals. If the Commission and the Rehabilitation Commission have, pursuant to Section 3 and Section 7(a) of this Act, rejected a location for a vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, the assignment of commissions from vending machines is to be determined by the agency to whom a general permit is issued.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Vending facility equipment and stock

Sec. 10. (a) The Commission may supply a blind vending facility operator with equipment and initial stock necessary for him to begin business.

(b) The Commission shall collect and set aside from the proceeds of the operation of its vending facilities enough money

(1) to insure a sufficient amount of initial stock for the vending facilities it operates and for their proper maintenance;

(2) to defray the costs of supervision and other expenses incidental to the operation of the vending facilities;

(3) to defray other program costs, to the extent not contraindicated by federal statutes applicable to those programs through which the Commission obtains financial support, and to the extent determined by the Commission to be necessary for assuring the fair and equal treatment of all blind persons licensed by the Commission to operate vending facilities on State or other property.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Conformity with federal statutes; training; program improvements

Sec. 11A. (a) The provisions of this Act shall be construed in such manner as to be made as consistent as possible with the requirements of federal programs through which the Commission obtains financial support. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Act and applicable federal requirements, the Commission may, to the extent necessary to preclude questions of conformity and to the extent necessary to secure full and continued benefit of any applicable federal statutes, waive or modify provisions of this Act determined to be contraindicated by federal statutes, federal requirements or final decisions by courts of competent jurisdiction.

(b) In order to provide necessary and proper training to blind persons desiring to be licensed to operate vending facilities, and in order to develop and perfect techniques which will allow blind persons to operate such facilities or related types of small business enterprises more efficiently and more productively, the Commission may establish such locations for training or experimentation as may be determined necessary.

Applicability

* * * * * * * * * * *

(b) No vending facility operated by a blind or otherwise vocationally handicapped individual, nor any vending facility location surveyed by the Commission, is to be closed because of the transfer of State property from one agency to another, the reorganization of a State agency, or the alteration of a State building, unless the closing is agreed to by the Commission or the Rehabilitation Commission.

Sec. 3. This Act shall apply to all building construction projects as herein defined which may be undertaken by the State, with the following exceptions:

(A) All projects constructed by and for the Texas Highway Commission;

(B) All projects constructed by and for State institutions of higher education;

(C) All projects constructed by and for the Texas Department of Corrections;

(D) Pens, sheds and ancillary buildings constructed by and for the Texas Agriculture Department for the processing of livestock prior to export;

(E) Repair and rehabilitation projects of any other using agency, provided all labor for such projects is provided by the regular maintenance forces of the using agency under specific legislative authorization and provided further, that such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and/or drawings.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the Commission from undertaking a project excluded by this section under an interagency agreement originated by the appropriate using agency, and provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as exempting any agency or institution from the requirements of Section 15 of this Act (Compilation of Construction and Maintenance Data).

In addition to the exclusions enumerated in this section, the Commission may, by regulation, exclude repair and rehabilitation projects involving the use of contract labor, provided such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and drawings.

Application of act

* * * * * * * * * * *

(c) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in all buildings leased or rented in whole or in part for use by the state under any lease or rental agreement entered into on or after January 1, 1972. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the power of the state's regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings or facilities leased or rented for use by the state through partial or total use of federal funds. Facilities which are the subject of lease or rental agreements on January 1, 1972, will not be required to meet standards and specifications for the term of the existing lease or rental agreement but must be brought into compliance before a lease or rental agreement is renewed. Where it is determined by the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned that full compliance with any particular standard is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the State Building Commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practical, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard for specification.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Identification for the blind

Sec. 17. Appropriate identification of specific facilities within a building used by the public is essential to the blind. Raised or incised letters or numbers shall be used to identify rooms and offices. Identification shall be placed on the wall, to the right or left of the door, at a height between 4 feet 6 inches and 5 feet 6 inches measured from the floor, and preferably at 5 feet. Doors that are not intended for normal use, and that are dangerous if a blind person were to exit or enter by them, shall be made quickly identifiable to the touch by knurling the door handle or knob.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Responsibilities for enforcement

Sec. 20. (a) The responsibility for administration and enforcement of this Act shall reside primarily in the State Building Commission, but the State Building Commission shall have the assistance of appropriate state rehabilitation agencies in carrying out its responsibilities under this Act. State agencies involved in extending direct services to disabled or handicapped persons are authorized to enter into interagency contracts with the State Building Commission to provide such additional funding as might be required to insure that service objectives and responsibilities of such agencies are achieved through the administration of this Act. In enforcing this Act the State Building Commission shall also receive the assistance of all appropriate elective or appointive state officials. The State Building Commission shall from time to time inform professional organizations and others of this law and its application.

(b) The State Building Commission shall have all necessary powers to require compliance with its rules and regulations and modifications thereof and substitutions therefor, including powers to institute and prosecute proceedings in the District Court to compel such compliance, and shall not be required to pay any entry or filing fee in connection with the institution of such proceedings.

(c) The State Building Commission is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as might reasonably be required to implement and enforce this Act. The State Building Commission, after consultation with state rehabilitation agencies, is also authorized to waive any of the standards and specifications presently set forth in this Act and to substitute in lieu thereof standards or specifications consistent in effect to such standards or specifications as might be adopted by the American Standards Association, Inc. (or its federally-recognized successor in function) subsequent to the effective date of this Act.

(d) All plans and specifications for construction of buildings subject to the provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the State Building

Commission for review and approval prior to bidding and award of contract in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the State Building Commission. Likewise, any substantial modification of approved plans shall be resubmitted to the State Building Commission for review and approval.

(e) The State Building Commission may review plans and specifications, make inspections, and issue certifications that privately owned structures are free of architectural barriers and in compliance with the provisions of this Act. The State Building Commission is authorized to charge a fee, not to exceed $100, for review of plans and specifications, inspection, and certification of each privately owned building or facility.

Art. 695c—2. Protection of children from abuse and neglect; reports; investigation; procedures and remedies; central registry

Purpose

Section 1. The purpose of this Act is to protect children whose physical or mental health and welfare are adversely affected by abuse or neglect and may be further threatened by the conduct of those responsible for their care and protection by providing for the mandatory reporting of suspected cases by any person having cause to believe that such case exists. It is intended that as a result of such reports the protective services of the State shall be brought to bear on the situation in an effort to prevent further abuses, and to safeguard and enhance the welfare of these children. This Act shall be administered and interpreted to provide the greatest possible protection as promptly as possible for such children.

Persons Required to Report

Sec. 2. Any person having cause to believe that a child's physical or mental health or welfare has been or may be further adversely affected by abuse or neglect shall report in accordance with Section 3 of this Act.

Content of Reports and to Whom Made

Sec. 3.

(a) Non-accusatory reports reflecting the reporter's belief that a child has been abused or neglected shall be made to the County Child Welfare Unit, or to the county agency responsible for the protection of juveniles, or to any local or State law enforcement agency.

(b) All reports shall contain the name and address of the child, the name and address of the person responsible for the care of the child, if available, and any other pertinent information.

(c) All reports received by any local or State law enforcement agency shall be referred to the County Child Welfare Unit, or to the county agency responsible for the protection of juveniles.

(d) An oral report shall be made immediately upon learning of the abuse or neglect as prescribed in Subsection (a) of this section, and a written report shall follow within five days to the same agency or department. Anonymous reports, while not encouraged, will be received and acted upon in the same manner as acknowledged reports.

Immunities

Sec. 4. Any person reporting pursuant to this Act shall have immunity from liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. Such immunity shall extend to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report. Persons reporting in bad faith or malice are not protected by this section.

Waiver of Privileges

Sec. 5. Any privilege between husband and wife, or between any professional person, except lawyers, or organization, including but not limited to physicians, ministers, counsellors, hospitals, clinics, day-care centers, and schools, and their clients shall not be grounds for excluding evidence at any proceeding regarding the abuse or neglect of the child or the cause thereof.

Mandate to Receiving Agency

Sec. 6.

(a) The County Child Welfare Unit, or the county agency responsible for the protection of juveniles, shall make a thorough investigation promptly after receiving either the oral or written report. The primary purpose of the investigation shall be the protection of the child.

(b) The investigation shall include the nature, extent, and cause of the abuse or neglect; the identity of the person(s) responsible therefor; the names and conditions of the other children in the home; an evaluation of the parents, or persons responsible for the care of the child, the home environment, and the relationship of the child(ren) to the parents, or persons responsible for their care; and all other pertinent data.

(c) The investigation shall include a visit to the child's home, a physical and psychological or psychiatric examination of all the children in that home, and an interview with the subject child. If admission to the home, school, or any place where the child may be, or permission of the parents or persons responsible for the child(ren)'s care for the physical and psychological or psychiatric examinations cannot be obtained, then the juvenile court, or the district court, upon cause shown, shall order the parents or persons responsible for the care of the children, or the person(s) in charge of any place where the child may be, to allow entrance for the interview, above examinations, and investigation.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) If before the investigation is complete, the opinion of the investigators is that immediate removal is necessary to protect the children from further abuse or neglect, the juvenile court, or district court, upon petition of the investigators and with good cause being shown, shall issue an instanter order for the temporary removal and temporary custody of the children with a suitable agency or persons pending completion of the investigation and final rendition of the case. Said order shall set a date and time for a hearing which shall be within 10 days from the date of said order, on continued temporary custody of the children, and the clerk of the court shall issue citation and notice to the parents, or persons responsible for the care of the children, to show cause why the temporary order should not be continued until the investigation is complete, or a hearing for the permanent custody of the children is held, which shall be within a reasonable time, but not more than 120 days, after completion of the investigation. Said order shall appoint an attorney to represent the interest of the child or children in all hearings which follow. The juvenile court, or district court, shall have jurisdiction to issue any order it deems necessary for the protection and enhancement of the welfare of the children, including but not limited to remedial casework service for parents, or persons responsible for the care of the children, and the subject children.

(e) The county agency responsible for the protection of juveniles, or the County Child Welfare Unit, shall make a complete written report of the investigation together with its recommendations to the juvenile court or the district court, the district attorney, and the appropriate law enforcement agency.

The department may adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section; specifically, such rules shall provide for cooperation with local child service agencies, including but not limited to hospitals, clinics, and schools, and cooperation with other states in exchanging reports to effect a national registration system.

Art. 974d—15. Validation of incorporation, boundary lines, and governmental proceedings; exceptions; cities and towns of 215 to 217

Section 1. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217 according to the last federal census, heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as provided in Article 961, thereof, and which have functioned as incorporated cities or towns since the adoption or attempted adoption of the said provisions of Title 28 either under the aldermanic, commission, or council form of government, are hereby in all respects validated, ratified and confirmed as of the date of such adoption or attempted adoption of the said provisions of Title 28; and the adoption of said provisions of Title 28 shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact the proceedings or findings of the governing bodies of said cities or towns may not have been in compliance with the law.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of such cities and towns and all officers thereof since their incorporation and the adoption or attempted adoption of the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings.

Sec. 3. All cities and towns in Texas having a population of not less than 215 nor more than 217, according to the last federal census, and heretofore incorporated under a special Act of the Legislature and thereafter adopting or attempting to adopt the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, which have extended or attempted to extend the corporate limits of such city or town to include territory, the majority of the inhabitants of said territory qualified to vote for members of the State Legislature having voted in favor of becoming a part of said town or city, are hereby in all respects ratified, validated and confirmed as of the date of such annexation or attempted annexation, as fully and completely as if said action had been taken and happened under legislative authority previously given, and such extension of boundaries and all proceedings had in connection therewith shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other proceedings had in connection with such annexation may not have been in accordance with law nor because of the inclusion in such limits of more territory than is expressly authorized in Article 971, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or by reason of the inclusion in the corporate area of territory other than that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes, provided, however, that the annexed area does not include any area that was validly within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another incorporated city or town at the time of such annexation.

Sec. 4. The validation provisions of this Act shall not apply to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date of this Act which litigation questions the legality of any of the matters which would otherwise be validated by the provisions hereof, if such litigation ultimately results in holdings or holding that the matters questioned thereby are invalid.

Sec. 5. If any part or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the remainder hereof and the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 6. As used in this Act, "the last federal census" means the 1970 census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 945, ch. 157, eff. May 11, 1971.

Section 7 of the 1971 Act, an emergency clause, provided in part: "The fact that certain cities have adopted the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and are presently operating on the basis that the adoption of said provisions of the state law were valid, and the further fact that certain cities have included within their boundary lines additional areas and the residents of said areas have considered themselves to be qualified voters of said cities and have participated in elections in said cities, it is imperative that the Legislature ratify, confirm, and validate said proceedings of said cities and the extension of the boundaries thereof in the inclusion of additional territories therein * * *."

Art. 1011e. Changes

Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a written protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots or land included in such proposed change, or of the lots or land immediately adjoining the same and extending 200 feet therefrom, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the legislative body of such municipality. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.
Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2864, ch. 942, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

Art. 1011g. Board of adjustment

(a) Such local legislative body may provide for the appointment of a Board of Adjustment, and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this Act may provide that the said Board of Adjustment may, in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

(b) The Board of Adjustment shall consist of five (5) members, each to be appointed for a term of two (2) years and removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant. Provided, however, that the governing body of any city may, by charter provision or ordinance, provide for the appointment of four (4) alternate members of the Board of Adjustment who shall serve in the absence of one or more regular members when requested to do so by the mayor or city manager, as the case may be. All cases to be heard by the Board of Adjustment will always be heard by a minimum number of four (4) members. These alternate members, when appointed, shall serve for the same period as the regular members and any vacancies shall be filled in the same manner and shall be subject to removal as the regular members.

(c) The Board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Act. Meetings of the Board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the Board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. The Board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the Board and shall be a public record.

(d) Appeals to the Board of Adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the Board, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the Board of Adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

(e) An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

(f) The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

(g) The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this Act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such Board is required to pass under such ordinance.

3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest, where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done.

(h) In exercising the above-mentioned powers such Board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Act, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from and make such order, requirement, decision or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

(i) The concurring vote of four (4) members of the Board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance, or to effect any variation in such ordinance.

(j) Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten (10) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the Board.

(k) Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten (10) days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the Board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(l) The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

(m) If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

(n) Costs shall not be allowed against the Board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted wih gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

(o) All issues in any proceeding under this Section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2385, ch. 742, § 1, eff. June 8, 1971.

Art. 1011m. Regional Planning Commissions

Definitions

* * * * * * * * * * *

D. "Region," "Area," or "Regional" means a geographic area consisting of a county or two or more adjoining counties which have common problems of transportation, water supply, drainage or land use, similar, common or interrelated forms of urban development or concentration, or special problems of agriculture, forestry, conservation or other matters, or any combination thereof. It is the intention of this Act to permit the greatest possible flexibility among the various participating governmental units to organize and establish Commissions most suitable to the nature of the area problems as they see them.

* * * * * * * * * * *

F. "General purpose governmental unit" means a county or incorporated municipality.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Creation

Sec. 3. (a) Any two or more general purpose governmental units may join in the exercise, performance, and cooperation of planning, powers, duties, and functions as provided by law for any or all such governmental units. When two or more such governmental units agree, by ordinance, resolution, rule, order, or other means, to cooperate in regional planning, they may establish a Regional Planning Commission. But nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the powers of the participating governmental units as provided by existing law. The participating governmental units, by appropriate mutual agreement, may establish a Regional Planning Commission for a region designated in such agreement, provided that such region shall consist of territory under their respective jurisdictions, including extraterritorial jurisdiction.

(b) The geographic boundaries of Commissions established under this Act must be consistent with State Planning Regions or Subregions as delineated by the Governor and subject to review and modification at the end of each State biennium.

Powers

Sec. 4. (a) Under this Act, a Regional Planning Commission shall be a political subdivision of this State, the general purpose of which is to make studies and plans to guide the unified, far-reaching development of the area, to eliminate duplication, and to promote economy and efficiency in the coordinated development of the area. The Commission may make plans for the development of the area which may include recommendations on major thoroughfares, streets, traffic and transportation studies, bridges, airports, parks, recreation sites, school sites, public utilities, land use, water supply, sanitation facilities, drainage, public buildings, population density, open spaces, and other items relating to the effectuation of the general purpose.

(b) The plans and recommendations of the Commission may be adopted in whole or in part by the respective governing bodies of the cooperating governmental units. The Commission may assist the participating governmental units individually or collectively in carrying out plans or recommendations developed by the Commission. The Commission may assist any participating governmental unit individually in the preparation or effectuation of local planning consistent with the general purposes of this Act.

(c) The Commission may contract with one or more of its member governments to perform any service which that government could, by contract, have any private organization without governmental powers perform, provided that such contract imposes no cost or obligation upon any member government not signatory thereto.

(d) A Commission may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of real and personal property. It may employ such staff, and consult with and retain such experts as it deems necessary. It may provide for retirement benefits for its employees by means of a jointly contributory retirement plan with an agency, firm, or corporation authorized to do business in this State. A Commission may participate in the Texas Municipal Retirement System, the State Employees Retirement System or the City, County, and District Retirement System when such established systems by legislation or administrative arrangement make such participation permissible.

(e) Agencies of the State government and of governmental units are authorized to detail or loan employees to a Commission on either a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis as may be mutually agreed by the State agency or governmental unit and the Commission. During the period of loan or detail the person will continue to be an employee of the lending agency or unit for purposes of salary, leave, retirement and other personnel benefits but will work under the direction and supervision of the Commission. A loan or detail made pursuant to this section shall expire at the mutual consent of the loaning or detailing agency or governmental unit and the Commission.

(f) In each State Planning Region or Subregion in which a Commission has been organized, the governing body of each governmental unit within the Region or Subregion, whether or not such unit is a member of the Commission, shall submit to the Commission for review and comment any application for loans or grants-in-aid from agencies of the federal government (for a project for which the federal government at the time is requiring the review and comment of an areawide planning agency) or agencies of the State of Texas before such application is filed with the federal or State government. For federally-aided projects for which an areawide review is required by federal law or regulation, the Commission shall review such application from the standpoint of consistency with regional plans and such other considerations as may be specified in federal or State regulations and shall enter its comments upon the application, returning same to the originating governmental unit.

(g) With respect to other federally-aided projects and to State-aided projects, the Commission shall advise the governmental unit as to whether or not the proposed project for which funds are requested has region wide significance. If it does not have region wide significance, the Commission shall certify that it is not in conflict with the regional plan or policies. If it does have region wide significance, the Commission shall determine whether or not it is in conflict with the regional plan or policies. In making such determination, it may also consider whether the proposed project is properly coordinated with other existing or proposed projects within the region. The Commission shall thereupon record upon the application its views and comments and transmit the application to the originating governmental unit, with a copy to the federal or State agency concerned.

(h) The Governor shall issue guidelines to Commissions and governmental units to carry out the provisions of this Act relating to review and comment procedures.

(i) The Governor and agencies of the State shall provide such technical information and assistance to members of Commissions and their staffs as will increase to the greatest extent feasible the capabilities of such Commissions in discharging the various duties and responsibilities set forth in this Act.

Operations

Sec. 5. The cooperating governmental units may through joint agreement determine the number and qualifications of the governing body of the Commission. The governing body of the Commission shall consist of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66–⅔%) elected officials of general purpose governmental units. The joint agreement may provide for the manner of cooperation and the means and methods of the operation of the Commission. The joint agreement may provide a method for the employment of the staff and consultants, the apportionment of the cost and expenses, and the purchase of property and materials. The joint agreement may allow for the addition of other governmental units to the cooperative arrangement.

Funds

Sec. 6. (a) A Regional Planning Commission is authorized to apply for, contract for, receive and expend for its purposes any funds or grants from any participating governmental unit or from the State of Texas, federal government, or any other source.

(b) The Commission shall have no power to levy any character of tax whatever. The participating governmental units may appropriate funds to the Commission for the cost and expenses required in the performance of its purposes.

(c) A Commission which meets the conditions set forth below shall be annually eligible for a maximum amount of State financial assistance based on the formula: Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) base grant to each certified organization, plus an additional One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per dues paying member county, plus an additional ten cents ($.10) per capita for all population served of dues paying member counties and incorporated municipalities. The minimum amount of annual State financial assistance for which a Commission shall apply shall be Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00).

(d) A Commission to qualify for State financial assistance must have an amount of funds available annually from sources other than federal or state governments equal to or greater than one-half of the State financial assistance amount for which the Commission applies.

(e) In order to be eligible for State financial assistance, a Commission shall comply with the regulations of the agency responsible for administering this Act and shall:

(1) Offer membership in the Commission to all general purpose governments (counties and incorporated municipalities) included in the State Planning Region or Subregion;

(2) Be composed of two or more general purpose governments having a combined population equal to not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total population of the State Planning Region or Subregion, and for purposes of this Act the population of the county shall be the population outside any dues paying member incorporated municipality;

(3) Encompass a geographical area that is economically and geographically interrelated and which forms a logical planning area or region and includes at least one full county;

(4) Be engaged in a comprehensive development planning process.

Interstate Commissions

Sec. 7. With advance approval of the Governor, a Commission including a region or area which is contiguous to an area lying in another state may join with any similar commission or planning agency in such areas to form an interstate Regional Planning Commission or may permit the Commission in the contiguous area to participate in the planning functions of a Commission formed pursuant to this Act, and the funds provided under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act may be commingled with the funds provided by the state governments having jurisdiction over the contiguous areas.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are and shall constitute negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, provided that the bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) Also, each eligible city may pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Sec. 8. Bonds issued pursuant to this Act by an eligible city are payable solely from the revenues, income, receipts, or other resources of the eligible city, as provided in this Act, and such bonds are not tax obligations of the eligible city.

Refunding bonds

Sec. 9. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as may be determined by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they shall be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date. Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded thereby. In the latter case, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery, or in several installment deliveries. Bonds issued at any time by an eligible city also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Cumulative effect of act

Sec. 12. This Act shall be cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 13. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Abolition of certain multi-city conservation and reclamation districts

Sec. 2A(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law or this Act, any conservation and reclamation district created or existing pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas which lies wholly within more than one city, and which, on April 1, 1971, did not lie wholly within more than one city, and which, on said date, was not a party to a contract providing for a federal grant for research and development pursuant to Title 33, Sections 1155(a) (2) and 1155(d) of the United States Code, as amended,[1] and which has provided or is providing fresh water supply, sanitary sewer and drainage services shall be abolished ninety (90) days after the inclusion of all of the territory of said district within said cities, and the physical assets, properties and facilities of the district shall be distributed to said cities and its intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts assumed by said cities in the following manner:

(a) All physical assets, properties and facilities of said district located within the boundaries of each respective city shall, at the date of distribution, belong to said city. The intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district shall be assumed by the cities. That part of the intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district assumed by each city shall be determined by multiplying the total intangible assets, bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations or other debts of the district by a fraction, the numerator of which is the original cost of all physical assets, properties and facilities of said district distributed to the city and the denominator of which is the total original cost of all physical assets, properties and facilities of the district. The term "original cost" as used in this section shall mean the actual cost of construction or acquisition. Operating expenses during construction, interest during construction, organizational expenses, engineering fees, legal fees, fiscal fees and other fees and expenses shall not be considered when determining the original cost of any physical assets, properties or facilities. Each city shall faithfully perform all duties, functions and obligations imposed by law or by contract upon the abolished district and its governing body in regard to any outstanding district bonds, warrants or other obligations payable in whole or in part from the revenues from the operation of the district's properties, assets and facilities; provided, however, that maintenance and operation expenses may be allocated by a city between two or more similar properties, assets and facilities owned and operated by the city in direct proportion to the gross income of each.

(b) All of the physical assets, properties and facilities which serve territory within more than one city shall continue to serve such territory and shall be operated and maintained by the city within which such properties, assets and facilities are located. Said city may make reasonable charges to the other cities served by such assets, properties and facilities for the operation and maintenance of such assets, properties and facilities.

(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the law or this Act, a district defined by Section 2A(1) may be abolished by mutual agreement between all of the cities wherein said district lies. Such agreement need not be approved by the district. The agreement may designate a date or dates, no later than ninety (90) days after the inclusion of all of the territory of said district within said cities, upon which the district shall be abolished. The agreement may provide a method by which the district's properties, assets and facilities shall be taken over by the cities, and the bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other debts of the district shall be assumed by said cities pursuant to such agreement. Said agreement may define those physical assets, properties and facilities of the district which serve territory within more than one city, and may provide a method by which said assets, properties and facilities shall be operated and maintained. An agreement executed pursuant to this section may contain all provisions necessary or proper to the abolition of said district, the distribution of its properties, assets and facilities, and the assumption of its bonded indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, and other debts. Said agreement may bind the parties for as long as fifty (50) years, notwithstanding any provision of the city charters of the respective cities to the contrary.

(3) If a city which has previously annexed territory within a district defined in Section 2A(1) annexes additional territory which lies wholly within such district and obtains the consent of all other cities which have previously annexed territory within said district and which have extraterritorial jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be annexed, then, notwithstanding any contrary provision of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970A, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended), such annexing city need not obtain the consent of any other municipality.

If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision. All of the terms and provisions of this Act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes, powers, rights, functions, and authorities herein set forth."

"Sec. 2. All laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act shall, for any reason, be finally adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or invalid, such final judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word thereof so found unconstitutional or invalid."

CHAPTER FIFTEEN—CONSOLIDATION OF CITIES

Art. 1189. Petition; elections; contests; time limitations

(a) Whenever as many as one hundred (100) qualified voters of each of said cities shall petition the governing body of their respective cities to order an election for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of such cities into one city, said bodies may order an election to be held at the usual voting places in the city on such proposition. If any such petition be signed, however, by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials in any of said cities, next preceding the filing of said petitions, the respective governing bodies receiving such a petition shall order an election to be held on such proposition, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) The election on consolidation shall first be held in the city having the smallest population according to the last preceding Federal Census. When a petition for consolidation has been presented to the governing body of the city having the smallest population, such governing body may, on a petition signed by one hundred (100) qualified voters, order an election for such purpose within forty-five (45) days after the receipt thereof. Upon the presentation of a petition in the city having the smallest population signed by qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for the city officials in such city next preceding the filing thereof, the governing body of the city shall order an election within forty-five (45) days after the filing of the petition. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order.

(c) When the proposition has received a majority vote in favor of consolidation at an election in any city, the larger city or cities where no election has been held, in inverse order of rank in population according to the last preceding Federal Census, may or shall, depending on the number of qualified signatures on the petition presented in each such city, order an election on the same proposition within forty-five (45) days after the election returns have been canvassed in the next smaller city in which a majority have voted in favor of consolidation. Any such election shall be held within not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the election order. If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of the votes in an election held for that purpose in any city, the larger city or cities which have not held an election shall not order an election for consolidation.

(d) If an election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of each larger city which has not held its consolidation election may defer holding the election until the election contest is finally terminated. If no election contest is timely filed in any such election, the governing body of the next larger city may, when acting on a petition filed by one hundred qualified voters, and shall, when acting on a petition filed by voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials, order an election for such purpose.

(e) If the proposition for consolidation fails to receive a majority of votes in favor thereof in an election in any of such cities, no consolidation election involving the same identical cities on the consolidation proposition which is defeated shall be held within two (2) years from the date of the defeat of such proposition in a consolidation election in any such city.

Right to jury trial; selection of jurors

Sec. 13. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense shall be entitled to be tried by a lawful jury of six persons. The municipal judge may set certain days of each week or month for the trial of jury cases. Juries for the court shall be selected as follows: On the adoption of this Act by the governing body of the city and between the 1st and 15th days of August of each year thereafter, the clerk of the municipal court or one of his deputies, and the city clerk, or one of his deputies, shall meet together and select from the list of qualified jurors in the city, the jurors for service in the municipal courts for the ensuing year. The list of jurors shall be taken from the voters registration list of the City of Wichita Falls. The officers shall write the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law residing in the city on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on the cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing the names shall be deposited in a jury wheel to be provided for that purpose by the governing body of the city. The wheel shall be constructed of any durable material, shall be so constructed so as to freely revolve on its axle, and may be equipped with a motor to revolve the wheel so as to thoroughly mix the cards. The wheel shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock. At the drawing no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the next six months and prior to the next drawing date it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of six months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judge may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal court, or the deputy, doing the drawing and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him for that semiannual period and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes endorsed "List No. _____ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19__, for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." The clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or his deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his office under lock and key. When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing the names shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors list No. _____ of the Petit Jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19__, for the Municipal Court of Wichita Falls, Texas." Each envelope shall be retained unopened by the clerk until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled. After the jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk or his deputy and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the six-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $5 for each day and for each fraction of a day he attends the court as a juror and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

Sec. 49. The bonds, within the discretion of the board, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon part or all of the physical properties of the authority, and franchises, easements, leases, and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell such properties for payment of the bonds or interest thereon, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security for the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties, may contain provisions prescribed by the board for the security of the bonds and as preservation of the trust estate, and may make provisions for amendment or modification thereof, and may condition the right to expend authority money or sell authority property upon approval of a registered professional engineer or architect selected as provided therein and may make provisions for investment of funds of the authority. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust or mortgage lien, where one is given, shall be absolute owner of the properties, facilities and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate same.

Provisions of bonds

Sec. 50. In the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds as provided in this Act (including refunding bonds) the board may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, the reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation, contracts and leases, as such board may deem appropriate. The resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such resolutions. The resolutions of the board issuing bonds may contain other provisions and covenants, as the authority's board may determine, not prohibited by the Texas Constitution or by this Act, and said board may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any authority bonds.

Use of bond proceeds

Sec. 51. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, the board may appropriate or set aside an amount for the payment of interest and administrative and operating expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, as may be provided in the bond resolutions, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds.

Sale of bonds

Sec. 52. After the issuance of said bonds, the board shall sell the bonds on the best terms and for the best possible price.

Approval by Attorney General; registration by Comptroller

Sec. 53. All bonds issued by an authority shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with law he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. After the approval and registration of bonds by the comptroller, they shall be incontestable in any court or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. If said bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts or a lease or leases made between the authority and another party or parties (public agencies, cities, or otherwise), a copy of each such contract or lease and of the proceedings authorizing same may or may not be submitted to the attorney general along with the bond records, and, if so submitted, then the approval by the attorney general of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or lease, and thereafter such contract or lease shall be incontestable.

Refunding bonds

Sec. 54. (a) By resolutions adopted by its board, an authority shall have the power and authority to issue bonds to refund all or any part of its outstanding bonds, including matured but unpaid interest coupons. Refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise not more than 40 years from their date and shall bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas. Refunding bonds may be payable from the same source as the bonds being refunded or from other additional sources, shall be approved by the attorney general as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolutions authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds ar payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued before the cancellation of the bonds being refunded provided an amount sufficient to pay the interest and principal on the underlying bonds to their maturity dates, or to their option dates if said bonds have been duly called for payment prior to maturity according to their terms, has been so deposited in the place or places where said underlying bonds are payable, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. The refunding may be accomplished in one or several installment deliveries. Refunding bonds, and the interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be investment securities under the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code and shall be issued as provided in this Act.

(b) In lieu of the method set forth in Subsection (a) of this section, an authority may refund its bonds as provided by the general laws of the State of Texas.

Bonds legal investments; security for funds

Sec. 55. All bonds issued by the authority shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. Authority bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas, and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Paid bonds or coupons

Sec. 56. All authority bonds and interest coupons, or notes and warrants when paid, shall be delivered to the authority or destroyed and evidence of such destruction furnished the board.

Art. 1269j—4.6. Contracts with civic center authorities

Applicability of act

Section 1. This Act shall be applicable to any incorporated city, town, or village (hereinafter "city") of the State of Texas, whether operating under the general laws or under a home-rule charter.

Contracts authorized; purposes

Sec. 2. A city, pursuant to approval by a majority of its governing body, is hereby authorized to enter into a contract or contracts with a civic center authority under which the authority, for the benefit of the contracting city or contracting cities, may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) public improvements within or without the boundaries of such city such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries, or other public buildings and related facilities (either or all), and may establish, acquire, lease as lessee or lessor, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, repair, operate, or maintain (any or all) structures, parking areas, or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances, as may be authorized to the authority by the laws of this state (hereinafter "facilities"), and under which the authority may furnish all or any part of its authorized services and facilities within or without the boundaries of such city to the contracting city or cities. Such contract may be upon such terms and conditions as the city may deem desirable, fair and advantageous, such contract not to exceed 40 years' duration.

Payments by city to authority; sources

Sec. 3. Payments by a city to an authority shall be made, as prescribed in the contract between the city and the authority, from any available funds, including, without limitation of the above, ad valorem taxes; provided, however, that if a city wishes to pledge ad valorem taxes as part or all of the required payments under the contract with an authority, it must follow the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, neither an authority nor the holder of any bonds of the authority shall have the right to demand payment of the city's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation. If the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 4 is followed, payments under the contract may be payable from and constitute solely an obligation against the taxing powers of the city or may be payable both from taxes and from such funds and revenues as may be prescribed in the contract.

After such election and at or prior to the time such city enters into such contract it shall, in accordance with the Texas Constitution, make provision for assessing and collecting annually a sufficient sum to pay such contract and creating a sinking fund of at least two percent thereon. No election is required for the exercise of any power conferred by this Act except for the levy of such tax.

(b) Only electors of the city who are qualified to vote at such elections under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas and the Constitution of the United States shall be entitled to vote at such elections.

Sec. 15. Bonds of an authority shall be authorized by its resolution and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding eight (8) per centum per annum, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium) as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide.

The bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sale held after notice published once at least five (5) days prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city or the county and in a financial newspaper published in the City of New York, New York, provided, however, that such bonds may be sold at not less than par to the Federal Government at private sale without any public advertisement.

Area of operation of county or regional housing authorities

Sec. 23c. The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall include all of the counties for which such regional housing authority is created and established except that portion of the counties which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city. Provided that a county or regional housing authority shall not undertake any housing project or projects within the boundaries of any city unless a resolution shall have been adopted by the governing body of such city (and also by any housing authority which shall have been theretofore established and authorized to exercise its powers in such city) declaring that there is a need for the county or regional housing authority to exercise its powers within such city.

The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall be increased from time to time to include one or more additional counties not already within a regional housing authority (except in such portion or portions of such additional county or counties which lie within the territorial boundaries of any city) if the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of such regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for the inclusion of such additional county or counties in the area of operation of such regional housing authority. Upon the adoption of such resolutions, the county housing authority created for each such additional county shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that such resolutions shall not be adopted if there is a county housing authority created for any such additional county which has any obligations outstanding unless first, all obligees of any such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes, and other obligations of any such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority and the regional housing authority to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes, or other obligations; and second, the commissioners of such county housing authority and the commissioners of such regional housing authority adopt resolutions consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; and provided further that when the above two (2) conditions are complied with and the area of operation of such regional housing authority is increased to include such additional county, as hereinabove provided, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations, and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the clerk of the county where such real property is, provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

The Commissioners Court of each of the counties in the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for the addition of such county or counties to the regional housing authority, if (a) the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties finds that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford and (b) the Commissioners Court of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the Commissioners Court of each such additional county or counties find that the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit to carry out the purposes of this Housing Authorities Law if the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be increased to include such additional county or counties.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of other obligations, a regional housing authority may covenant as to limitations on its right to adopt resolutions relating to the increase of its area of operation.

In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary under this or the preceding Section, the Commissioners Court of a county shall take into consideration the safety and sanitation of dwellings, the light and air space available to the inhabitants of such dwellings, the degree of overcrowding, the size and arrangement of the rooms and the extent to which conditions exist in such dwellings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

No governing body of a county shall adopt any resolution authorized by this or the preceding Section unless a public hearing has first been held. The clerk of such county shall give notice of the time, place, and purpose of the public hearing at least ten days prior to the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper published in such county, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the State and having a general circulation in such county. Upon the date fixed for such public hearing an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents of such county and to all other interested persons.

The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding loans made by such member to the corporation and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

(f) All loans to the corporation by members shall be evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, which shall be freely transferable at all times, and which shall bear interest at a rate of not less than one-quarter of one percent in excess of the rate of interest determined by the board of directors to be the Section 1. [Amends article 1709].

Sec. 2. From and after the effective date of this Act, the County Treasurer in each county of this State shall receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived. Clarification as to moneys and mode and manner of receipt thereof not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) All fees, commissions, funds and moneys belonging to the county shall be turned over to the County Treasurer by the officer who collected them, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 98, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1933, as amended (Article 1656a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The treasurer shall retain the original; the duplicate shall be signed and returned to the clerk and the triplicate signed and returned to the depositor as provided in Article 1657, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. In each county of this State having a County Auditor the County Clerk shall give his copy to the auditor, who then shall enter same upon his books as a check and balance, charging the amounts to the County Treasurer and crediting the same to the depositing party. moneys belonging to the county; clarification as to mode and manner of safekeeping not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) All moneys deposited with the County Treasurer by such officer as collected shall be deposited in the county depository, in a special fund to the credit of such officer as provided in Chapter 98, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1933, as amended (Article 1656a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); any interest accrued therefrom shall benefit the county in accordance with all laws. All such funds so deposited shall be secured by the bond of such depository.

(b) Liability of Treasurer. The County Treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the county funds through failure or negligence of any depository; but nothing in this Act shall release any County Treasurer, for any loss resulting from any official misconduct or negligence on his part, nor from any responsibility for the funds of the county until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, nor for any misappropriation of such funds by him (Article 2557, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended).

(c) The County Treasurer before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall give a bond payable to the County Judge of his county, to be approved by the Commissioners Court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his custody as County Treasurer and render a true account thereof to said court in accordance with Article 1704, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

(d) In counties having auditors, all reports of collections of moneys for the county required to be made to the Commissioners Court shall also be carefully examined and reported on by the auditor as provided in Article 1654, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. He shall at least once in each quarter check the books and examine all reports of the treasurer, in detail, verifying the footings and correctness of same, and shall stamp his approval thereon, or note any difference, errors or discrepancies; he shall carefully examine the quarterly report of the treasurer, of all the disbursements, together with the cancelled warrants which have been paid, and shall verify the same with the register of warrants issued, as shown in the accounts of the auditor.

(e) Furthermore, the auditor, without giving any notice beforehand, shall examine fully into the condition of, or inspect and count the cash in the hands of the treasurer, or in the banks in which he may have placed same for safekeeping, not less than once each quarter and oftener if desired in accordance with Article 1655, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and shall see that all balances to the credit of the various funds are actually on hand in cash and that none of said funds are invested in any manner except as the law may authorize.

Sec. 4. From and after the effective date of this Act the County Treasurer in each county shall disburse all moneys belonging to the county, for whatever purpose they may be claimed, and shall pay and apply the same as required by law. No moneys shall be expended or withdrawn from the county treasury except by checks or warrants drawn on the county treasury, whether such moneys are in a county depository as required by law or not. Clarification of mode and manner of disbursement not inconsistent with existing laws follows:

(a) Claims: The County Treasurer shall enter each claim in a permanent bound register, in the manner provided in Article 1627, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, stating the class, the name of the payee, and the number of the claim. On the face of such claim shall be placed the word "Registered," the date actually registered, and the official signature or approved facsimile of the County Treasurer.

(b) The treasurer shall pay no such claim, nor shall any part thereof be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county, until it has been duly registered, in accordance with the provisions of Article 1625, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. All claims in each class shall be paid in the order in which they are registered.

(c) In counties having a County Auditor, all claims, bills, and accounts against the county must be filed in ample time for the auditor to examine and approve same before the meetings of the Commissioners Court. No claim, bill, or account shall be allowed or paid until it has been examined and approved by the County Auditor as provided in Article 1660, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. Said auditor shall examine the same and stamp his approval thereon.

(d) Warrants: It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer, upon presentation to him of any warrant, check, voucher, or order drawn by the proper authority, if there be funds sufficient for payment thereof on deposit in the account against which such warrant is drawn, to endorse upon the face of such instrument his order to pay same to the payee named therein and to charge the same on his books to the fund upon which it is drawn as provided in Article 2554, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. (g) The only exception to the auditors' countersigning is that of warrants for jury service, as provided in Article 1661, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Section 2 of Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 948, ch. 159 provided: "As used in this Act, 'the last preceding federal census' means the 1970 census or any future decennial federal census. This is despite any legislation that has been or may be enacted during any session of the 62nd Legislature delaying the effectiveness of the 1970 census for general state and local governmental purposes."

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2801, ch. 905, amending this article and various other articles of this chapter, in sections 13, 14, and 16 to 19 provided:

"Sec. 13. After proper alignment of parties, it shall be the duty of the court to equalize the number of peremptory challenges provided under Rule 233, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Annotated, in accordance with the ends of justice so that no party is given an unequal advantage because of the number of peremptory challenges allowed that party.

"Sec. 14. Once a prospective juror has been removed from a jury panel for cause, by peremptory challenge, or for any reason, he shall be immediately dismissed from jury service and shall not be placed on another jury panel until his name is returned to the jury wheel and drawn again as a prospective juror.

"Sec. 16. All statutes, rules of civil procedure, or case laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict.

"Sec. 17. For all counties under 10,000 population not presently using the jury wheel system for selection of jurors, the district judge of the county or of the judicial district of which the county is a part, may determine whether the county should come under the provisions of this law or may choose to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in that county. If the district judge should determine to adopt the jury commissioners system for selection of jurors in a particular county, he must do so by July 15, 1971, otherwise, the county will come under the provisions of this Act. If, pursuant to the passage of this Act, this section is held to be unconstitutional by a court of this State or of the United States, then the jury wheel system for selection of jurors as provided by this Act shall be applicable to all counties of the State.

"Sec. 18. The provisions of this Act shall become effective on July 15, 1971.

"Sec. 19. If any article, section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such invalid portion shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the valid portions of the Act irrespective of the fact that any one or more portions be declared unconstitutional."

Art. 2095. [5152—3] Cards put in wheel; typists and expenses

Said officers shall write the names of all persons on said precinct lists, residing in their respective counties, on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected, except that in counties having a population of one hundred forty thousand (140,000) or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the Commissioners Court shall provide out of the jury fund a sum sufficient for the employment of typists and payment of other expenses. The typists, under the direction, control and supervision of the district clerk, shall type the names and addresses of qualified jurors upon the cards as herein described. The expenses so incurred shall be authorized, reported, paid and accounted for under the same laws, rules and regulations as govern the payment of other expenses of the office of the district clerk in such counties, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a jury wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Commissioners Court of the county. Said wheel shall be constructed of any durable material and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle; and may be equipped with a motor capable of revolving said wheel in such a manner as to thoroughly mix said cards; and shall be kept locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel, and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the sheriff and the other by the district clerk. The sheriff and the clerk shall not open such wheel, nor permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said sheriff and clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place, where the same cannot be tampered with.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2797, ch. 905, § 2, eff. July 15, 1971.

Art. 2096. [5154] Cards drawn from wheel

(a) Not less than 10 days prior to the first day of a term of court, the district clerk or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the district judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for district court, or the clerk of the county court, or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the county judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for the county court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of the jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of those jurors where such judge has so directed to compose as many lists as the term of the district or county courts may require, and shall record the names upon as many lists as the judge shall deem necessary to insure an adequate number of jurors for each session of the court. At such drawing, no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present, except as hereinafter provided. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the names of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. If at any time during the term it appears that the lists already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of the term, additional jurors as are needed may be drawn in the same manner.

(b) Drawing of names observed. Upon the application in writing of any party to any suit pending upon the docket of a court for which a jury is required, said party, or his duly authorized representative, shall have the right to be present and observe the drawing of names from the jury wheel and the placement thereof upon the jury lists for the time period in which his case is set, provided, however, that the identity of the names so drawn and placed upon the lists at such time shall not be made known to such observer.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2800, ch. 905, § 7, eff. July 15, 1971.

Art. 2099. [5157] Cards to be used again

When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, indorsed, "Cards containing the names of jurors on List No. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the _____ day of _____, 19__, for the _____ Court of _____ County," (filling in the blanks properly). Each envelope shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled; and after such jurors so impaneled have served four (4) or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk, or his deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four (4) days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four (4) days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors for the wheel; provided that in any county with a population greater than 100,000 according to the last preceding federal census, the clerk may withhold from the jury wheel all cards so selected, unless ordered by the judge to return such cards to the wheel. If any of the lists drawn for a term of court are not used, the clerk or his deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names on the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the term and return the cards to the wheel.

Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2830, ch. 925, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.

the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with the laws of the State.

In making these regulations the commissioners court shall give reasonable consideration to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the area. However, this Act shall not enable the commissioners court to require the removal or destruction of property existing at the time the commissioners court implements the provisions of this Act, nor may the commissioners court limit or otherwise restrict the right of a landowner acting in his own behalf to construct improvements to be used for agricultural purposes, or otherwise use his land for agricultural purposes. (c) A preliminary report, or proposed order, rule, or regulation of the zoning commission may be amended, supplemented, altered, modified, or rejected by a majority vote of the commissioners court. However, in the event of a protest against any such change, signed by the owners of 20 percent or more either of the lots included in the change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending 200 feet therefrom, or from the street frontage of these opposite lots, the change shall not become effective except upon favorable vote of three-fourths of all the members of the commissioners court. Art. 2784e—15. Maintenance tax for common school districts in counties of 19,500 to 19,680, etc.

Section 1. In all common school districts in this state having a scholastic population, according to the last preceding scholastic census, of 40 or more but less than 200 and an assessed valuation of $100,000 or more but less than $355,000 and located in a county having a population of not less than 19,500 nor more than 19,680 according to the last preceding federal census, the board of trustees may at a regular meeting in the district appoint a tax assessor-collector and a board of equalization for the district, to assess and collect for maintenance purpose a tax not to exceed the state maximum per hundred dollars of assessed valuation, as provided in Subsection (d), Section 20.04, Texas Education Code.

Sec. 2. The board of trustees of each district to which Section 1 of this Act applies and which adopts the provisions of this Act may appoint whatever person it deems qualified to be assessor-collector of taxes, who shall assess the taxable property within the limits of the district within the time and manner provided by existing laws, insofar as they are applicable and collect the taxes. However, the value of the property in the district need not be assessed on the same basis as that used for state and county purposes. He shall receive whatever compensation for his services the board of trustees may allow. The assessor-collector shall give bond, to be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount to be determined by the board of trustees which amount will in the opinion of the board be sufficient to adequately protect the funds of the school district. The bond shall be payable to the president of the board of trustees of the district, approved by the board, and conditioned on the assessor-collector's depositing in the county depository to the credit of the common school district all funds coming into his hands by virtue of his office, and shall also be conditioned on the faithful discharge of his duties. In all matters regarding the assessment and collection of taxes by common school districts adopting the provisions of this Act, the laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes in independent school districts shall govern insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. The board of equalization of a common school district which adopts the provisions of this Act shall be composed of three members appointed by the board of trustees. It shall be composed of legally qualified property taxpaying voters residing in the district and shall have the same power and authority and be subject to the same restrictions that now govern boards of equalization in independent school districts.

Art. 2784g—2. Certificates of indebtedness; issuance by school and junior college districts in counties of 200,000 or more

Authorization; purpose; definition

Section 1. Any school district, including a junior college district, situated in a county containing a population of two hundred thousand or more, according to the last preceding federal census, may issue interest bearing Certificates of Indebtedness for the purpose of (1) providing funds for the erection and equipment of school buildings within the boundaries of the district or (2) refinancing outstanding certificates as herein provided. The term certificates, as used in this Act, shall include all obligations authorized to be issued hereunder and the term shall include interest thereon, unless clearly indicated by the context that another meaning is intended.

Payment of certificates; appropriation and pledge of local school funds; maintenance tax

Sec. 2. The governing body of the district shall make provision for the payment of the certificates issued under the authority of this Act by the appropriation and pledge of local school funds derived and to be derived from maintenance taxes levied and assessed or to be levied and assessed under authority of Section 1, Chapter 304, Acts of the 49th Legislature, 1945, as amended (Article 2784e, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), Chapter 528, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended (Article 2784e—1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), Chapter 273, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, 1953, as amended (Article 2784g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 37, Special Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, 1939, as amended (Article 2815h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or other similar law now in existence or hereinafter enacted which limits the amount of tax which may be levied for maintenance (as distinguished from bond requirements) purposes. Such appropriation and pledge may be (1) in the nature of a continuing irrevocable pledge to apply the first moneys collected or to be collected annually from such tax levy to the payment of the obligations or (2) by the irrevocable present levy and appropriation of such amount of said maintenance tax as required to meet the annual debt service requirements of the obligations, in which event the governing body shall covenant to annually set aside such amount in the annual tax levy, showing the same is a portion of the maintenance tax. The governing body shall annually budget the amount required to pay the debt service requirements (principal and interest) of the obligations which may be scheduled to become due in any fiscal year. Nothing herein shall be construed as permitting the levy of a maintenance tax in excess of the amount approved by the resident qualified property taxpaying voters of the district.

Limits and restrictions

Sec. 3. (a) No district at any one time shall have certificates outstanding and unpaid in principal amount in excess of $250,000.00 unless (1) such excessive amount becomes the obligation of the district by assumption as contemplated by Section 7 or (2) the new certificates are being issued to refund or refinance outstanding obligations as contemplated by Section 5.

(b) The principal amount of certificates which may be authorized at any one time (and the scheduling of their principal maturity) shall be further restricted as hereinafter set forth:

(1) Where assessed valuation more than One Million Dollars and less than Fifteen Million Dollars—the limiting factor is 25 cents.

(2) Where assessed valuation of Fifteen Million Dollars or more but less than Thirty-Five Million—the limiting factor is 15 cents.

(3) Where assessed valuation of Thirty-Five Million Dollars or more—the limiting factor is 5 cents.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) Assessed valuation means the valuation for school district purposes on the tax rolls of the district last approved prior to the authorization of the certificates. Limiting factor for a particular district (as set forth in the foregoing schedule) shall be multiplied by the assessed valuation of the district and the product shall be the maximum amount of debt service requirements on the certificates which may be scheduled to become due in any fiscal year on a cumulative basis. No district which has an assessed valuation less than One Million Dollars may issue certificates under this Act.

Form, denominations and provisions of certificates; maturity and interest rate; sale; deposit of proceeds; certificates as securities

Sec. 4. (a) Certificates authorized to be issued hereunder shall be payable at such times, be in such form and denomination or denominations either in coupon form or registered as to principal and interest, either or both, and may contain such options for redemption prior to the scheduled maturity, and be payable at such place or places and contain such other provisions as the governing body of the district may determine, but in no event shall any certificate mature over a period in excess of 25 years from the date thereof, or bear interest at a rate in excess of 7% per annum.

(b) Except where issued in exchange for certificates outstanding (under the provisions of Section 5), certificates shall be sold for cash at not less than the face or par value (plus accrued interest) and the proceeds applied for the purpose for which the same were issued, provided, however, that all accrued interest and premium received, if any, shall be deposited in the Interest and Sinking Fund established for the payment of such obligations. The cost of issuing the obligations (including attorneys' fees, printing and fiscal fees) may be paid from the proceeds received from the sale thereof, except where such certificates are sold under the provisions of Section 5.

(c) Certificates (including interest thereon whether issued in coupon or registered form) shall be deemed and construed to be a "Security" within the meaning of Article 8, dealing with "Investment Securities" of the Uniform Commercial Code, Chapter 785, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967 [1]; and the provisions shall be applicable thereto from and after their approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

[1] See V.T.C.A. Bus. & C. § 8.101 et seq.

Refunding or refinancing of outstanding certificates

Sec. 5. Each governing body shall be authorized to refund or refinance outstanding certificates by the issuance of new interest bearing certificates within the limitations and conditions provided herein provided any such new certificates shall be issued and delivered in lieu of and upon surrender to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas and the cancellation of the obligations being refunded thereby and the Comptroller shall register the new certificates and deliver them in accordance with the order authorizing their issuance. Said new certificates may be issued and delivered in accordance with the provisions of Article 717k, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Approval of attorney general; registration of certificates; incontestability

Sec. 6. A certified copy of all proceedings relating to the authorization of the certificates shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and if he shall find the same to have been authorized in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he shall execute a certificate or opinion to that effect which shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts who shall register the certificates which shall thereafter be incontestable for any cause.

Indebtedness of issuing district; funds pledged as security for payment; change of boundaries; adjustment or assumption

Sec. 7. Certificates issued under provisions of this Act shall be an indebtedness of the school district issuing them, but the holder thereof shall not have the right to demand payment thereof out of any fund or funds other than those pledged to its payment. In the event the boundary lines of any issuing district are changed while such certificates remain outstanding, such indebtedness shall be adjusted or assumed as provided under general law for the adjustment of bond indebtedness payable from taxation.

Certificates as legal investments and security for deposits

Sec. 8. All certificates issued under this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for any sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Governing bodies of districts

Sec. 9. For the purpose of this Act, the governing body of a common school district shall be the Commissioners Court of the county having administrative jurisdiction. The governing body of an independent school district, a rural high school district or a junior college district shall be its duly elected Board of Trustees, and the governing body of a municipality controlled school district shall be the city or town council or commission. Certificates shall be authorized by order of the governing body of the district.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 10. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws relating to the financing of the cost of erecting and equipping school buildings by school districts, it being the legislative intent that this Act shall be complete authority for the issuance, sale and delivery of certificates by school districts.

Severability

Sec. 11. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the federal or State constitutions and all acts done hereunder shall be done in such manner as may conform thereto whether herein expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the district shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable to such constitutions. If any provision of the Act shall be invalid, such fact shall not affect the validity of any other provision of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

If the board of trustees of an independent school district designated in Section 1 determines that there is a need for a cafeteria system which it can obtain with the help of federal funds and other funds then available and the funds to be procured hereunder, and that the school district is otherwise financially unable out of available funds to obtain complete cafeteria facilities, the board may issue time warrants by appropriate order. The board shall further order the creation of an interest and sinking fund into which there shall be deposited, out of each year's taxes while the warrants are unpaid and in existence, a sufficient amount of money to pay the principal and interest on the warrants as they become due and payable. The warrants shall be payable serially and annually for a period of years not to exceed 10 and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed eight percent per annum, with the option to call any part or all of the warrants for payments on any interest installment or paying date, and may provide for the payment of interest on a quarterly or semiannual basis. The warrants shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees and countersigned by the secretary; provided, however, that their facsimile signatures may be printed or lithographed on any coupon, if any, attached to the warrants. The warrants shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest. Moneys placed in the interest and sinking fund shall be paid out only for the interest and principal requirements on the warrants. The aggregate amount of time warrants that may be outstanding as to unpaid principal shall never exceed $250,000 or one percent of the value on its approved tax roll, whichever is less.

Sec. 3. The interest and principal requirements which shall mature during the district's fiscal year shall be reflected in the district's budget for that fiscal year.

Sec. 4. No warrants authorized to be issued or executed under this Act shall be issued or executed after September 1, 1971.

Sec. 5. Upon the issuance of any warrants provided for in this Act the affidavit of the president and secretary of the board of trustees that the warrants have been issued in conformity with the Act, and the statement on the face of each warrant so issued or executed that they are issued in compliance with and under the authority of this Act, shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the warrants.

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be construed as repealing any laws now in existence authorizing the issuance of interest-bearing time warrants, but this Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws.

5. ADDITIONS AND CONSOLIDATIONS

Art. 2803e. Independent districts in counties of 6,705 to 6,785; consolidation and dissolution

(a) This Act applies to independent school districts, located partly in three or more counties, the supervisory office for those schools being located in counties having a population of not less than 6,705 nor more than 6,785 as shown by and according to the last preceding Federal Census.

(b) Any independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section may subdivide itself according to county lines, except for nine or more square miles of continuous territory in which the school facility is located, and be consolidated with contiguous independent school districts by the procedure established in this Act.

(c) Any independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section that retains nine or more square miles of continuous territory in which the school facility is located may consolidate this portion of the district to any contiguous independent school district where a free accredited public school will be maintained at that facility. The consolidation shall be accomplished as provided in this Act.

(d) Territory in the several counties of any independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section may be consolidated with any contiguous independent school district constituting as a whole one continuous territory.

(e) On the petition of either 20 or a majority of legally qualified voters of any independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section and of each of several contiguous independent school districts constituting as a whole one continuous territory, addressed to the respective county judges of the respective counties in which such districts respectively lie, each county judge shall order an election for the district or districts in his county on the same day, on the issue of consolidation. The Commissioners Courts of the respective counties shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the elections in the district or districts in their respective counties.

(f) If a majority of the votes cast in all elections described in Subsection (e) of this section favors consolidation, the boundaries of the respective school districts shall be reapportioned by the county judges of the respective counties. After the reapportionment, the independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section ceases to include that portion of the district in which the election was held. The indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, of the independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section shall be borne proportionately by the respective contiguous independent school districts according to territory described in Subsection (d) of this section; and the dissolution of the district described in Subsection (a) of this section under the terms of this Act does not relieve any one of the school districts receiving territory from assuming and bearing their pro rata part of the total indebtedness according to territory of the independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(g) All employees of independent school districts described in Subsection (a) of this section shall automatically attain continuing contract status for a minimum of three years forward from the school year consolidation proceedings are initiated and when consolidation is effected, all employees shall be accepted, proportionately by territory received, by the independent school districts described in Subsection (d) of this section, and each such employee may have a choice of at least two districts to be assigned and shall be assigned duties in the same area as performed in the independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section; and such employee shall receive the same salary schedule and fringe benefits as though he were employed in independent school districts described in Subsection (a) of this section; and any contiguous independent school district receiving territory from the independent school district described in Subsection (a) of this section in which the school facility is located shall assign the school ground, administration building, gymnasium, and fire truck storage to a political subdivision of the city or community within which it lies; and shall keep these buildings and its supporting utilities such as the water system in usable repair in future years.

(h) This Act will permit any contiguous independent school district receiving territory from the independent school districts described in Subsection (a) of this section to receive incentive aid payments without regard to the number of scholastics as described in Chapter 361, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963, as amended (Article 2815—4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).[1]

Art. 2815m—4. Election of trustees of certain junior college districts; division into trustee election districts; authorization; adoption of act; elections; terms of office

Adoption of act by trustees

Section 1. In any public junior college district which was originally organized or created as a county junior college district and which contains territory in three (3) or more counties, the governing board of trustees of such public junior college district is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt the provisions of this Act with respect to election of trustees of such public junior college district [1] by resolution passed by a majority vote of all trustees of the district duly entered upon the minutes thereof. Once the provisions of this Act have been adopted such action shall not thereafter be rescinded.

Adoption of act by petition and election; procedures

Sec. 2. In the event the governing board of trustees of any such junior college district shall not have adopted the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of such board of trustees when presented with a petition requesting such action, signed by ten per cent (10%) or more of the qualified electors residing within such public junior college district, to call an election within such junior college district at which there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the public junior college district the proposition whether such public junior college district shall adopt the provisions of this Act with respect to the election of trustees, which election shall be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days thereafter on the first Saturday of some month within such period of time, notice of which election shall be given by publication one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in which said public junior college district has territory not more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to such election. The returns of such election shall be made to such board of trustees, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results thereof. In the event a majority of those voting in such election vote in favor of the proposition to adopt the provisions of this Act, then the board of trustees of such public junior college [1] shall proceed as hereinafter provided in the same manner as though the governing board of trustees of such junior college district had by resolution of the trustees elected to adopt the provisions of this Act. If the provisions of this Act are adopted at such an election such action shall not thereafter be rescinded.

Number of trustees; term of office; staggered elections

Sec. 3. After adoption of the provisions of this Act the governing board of trustees of such public junior college district shall consist of nine (9) trustees, who shall serve basic terms of office of six (6) years, one-third of whom shall be elected at the regular elections held on the first Saturday in April in each even-numbered year as provided in Section 51.072, Texas Education Code, except as herein provided.

Division of district into nine (9) trustee election districts; boundaries; redistricting; assignment of trustee position numbers

Sec. 4. Promptly after the adoption of the provisions of this Act the trustees of the junior college district shall by order duly entered upon the minutes thereof divide said junior college district into nine (9) trustee election districts, each of which shall contain approximately the same area and same number of persons as each other trustee election district. Such order shall clearly define the boundaries of each trustee election district and shall also assign to each trustee election district a different trustee position number from one to nine, which numbers shall be assigned by drawing lots. Thereafter the boundaries of such trustee election districts may be changed by the trustees of the junior college district only to equalize numbers of people in and the area of trustee election districts caused by enlargement of the junior college district or by substantial changes in population.

Certification of establishment of election districts; order of first election; applicability of Education Code

Sec. 5. Within five (5) days after the trustees of any junior college district have established the trustee election districts provided by Section 4 of this Act said trustees shall certify such action to the Commissioners Court of the county in which the principal buildings and administrative offices of such junior college district are located, transmitting therewith copies of all resolutions and orders pertaining to the adoption of the provisions of this Act and proceedings thereunder. At its next meeting following the receipt of such certification the Commissioners Court shall order an election to be held in such junior college district, such election to be held not later than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days thereafter on the first Saturday of some month within said period of time. Except as herein provided said election shall be held as prescribed by Section 51.072 of the Texas Education Code.

Conduct of first election; expenses

Sec. 6. The first election of trustees required by Section 5 of this Act shall be ordered by the Commissioners Court of the county as provided in Section 5 of this Act. Such Commissioners Court shall determine the date of such election, appoint election officials, provide for giving of notices, make provision for ballots and other election supplies, determine location of polling places, and make other necessary preparations, and after such election has been held said Commissioners Court shall canvass the returns and declare the results of such election. Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3072, ch. 1024, repealing this article, enacts Title 3 of the Texas Education Code.

Art. 2815s—2. Annexation of territory by eligible junior college districts; procedures; trustees, election and compensation

Section 1. As used in this Act the term "Eligible Junior College District" is defined as and means any public junior college district which

(a) was originally created as a County Junior College District; and

(b) subsequently has extended its boundaries into three or more counties; and

(c) accepts enrollment of students who reside outside such junior college district but who are residents of the county in which such junior college district is located.

Sec. 2. The governing board of an Eligible Junior College District is authorized to change the boundaries of such junior college district by annexing all of the territory contained in any or all of the counties or any part thereof in which such junior college district is located save and except territory which is already included within the boundaries of another public junior college district.

Sec. 3. Annexations authorized by the provisions of this Act shall be made in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The Eligible Junior College District desiring to change or extend its boundaries by annexing other territory shall file with the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, an application for approval of such proposed annexation by said Board, which shall contain the following:

(1) The amount of tuition paid by students residing in said junior college district during the year in which the election hereinafter provided to authorize the proposed annexation is to be held.

(2) Assurance that free transportation or free dormitory space will be provided for all students who reside in the junior college district.

(3) Assurances that off-campus centers will be established in the county seat in each county in the junior college district except the county in which the junior college is located, with all taxes received from property subject to taxation in the school district in which the county seat is located or 50 percent of tax from the territory taken in in which the off-campus center is located to be used to assist in financing the operation of such center. The above choice must be made by the governing board before any election is called and will not be subject to change.

(4) Proposals for the provision of evening college classes in the off-campus center established under the provisions of the preceding paragraph not to exceed twenty-four semester hours for any one student for work for which credit may be transferred to another institution.

(5) Proposals to provide vocational courses for classes with beginning minimums of eighteen (18) freshmen students or twelve (12) sophomore students.

(6) Proposals to provide vocational courses for eleventh (11th) and twelfth (12th) grades in high school according to the State Plan for Vocational Education.

(7) Proposals for conduct of Adult Basic Education according to the State Plan established by Texas Education Agency.

(8) Proposed names for the enlarged junior college district, the college, and off-campus centers.

(b) If the application of the Eligible Junior College District be approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, the governing board of such junior college district is authorized to order separate elections to be held on the same day, one in the area of the Eligible Junior College District and another in each county in the territory proposed for annexation to the Eligible Junior College District.

Except as herein provided, elections shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code and all resident, qualified electors residing in the territory of the Eligible Junior College District and in the territories proposed to be annexed to such Eligible Junior College District shall be permitted to vote. Proposition to be submitted at such elections shall be whether the territory proposed to be annexed to such Eligible Junior College District shall be so annexed. The governing board of such Eligible Junior College District shall be authorized to determine the date of such elections, the polling place or places within the said junior college district and within each other county, the election officials, and such other matters as may be deemed necessary or advisable by such governing board. Notice of such elections shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the Eligible Junior College District is located and in which such elections are to be held not more than thirty (30) nor less than ten (10) days prior to the election. All expenses of such election shall be paid by such Eligible Junior College District.

(c) After such elections the governing board of such Eligible Junior College District shall receive and canvass the returns of said elections and declare the results thereof. If a majority of the electors voting in the Eligible Junior College District vote in favor of the proposition to annex the territory to such Eligible Junior College District, and if a majority of the electors voting the territory proposed to be annexed to such Eligible Junior College District vote in favor of the proposed annexation, then in such event the governing board of the Eligible Junior College District shall pass an order annexing all of the territory included in the propositions voted on at such elections to the Eligible Junior College District, which order shall be recorded in full in the minutes of said governing board and a certified copy of which shall be filed for record in the Deed Records of each county in which the Eligible Junior College District has territory. When such order has been passed same shall operate to change and extend the boundaries of the Eligible Junior College District to include the annexed territory.

Sec. 4. Any Eligible Junior College District which annexes territory and whose boundaries are changed and extended by such annexation of territory under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be the same junior college district which existed prior to such annexation of territory. Such junior college district shall have title to all of the property belonging to the Eligible Junior College District prior to such annexation of territory, shall possess all rights and privileges belonging to such Eligible Junior College District, and shall be subject to all liabilities of such Eligible Junior College District. The governing board of the Eligible Junior College District shall continue as the governing board of the junior college district as enlarged and extended by such annexation.

Sec. 5. If the Eligible Junior College District prior to the annexation election provided by the terms of this Act elected its trustees under the provisions of any law providing for such election of such trustees from designated election districts within such Eligible Junior College District, then it shall be the duty of the governing board of such junior college district to promptly redistrict the territory of the junior college district as enlarged and extended by such annexations into the requisite number of districts for election of trustees under the provisions of such law providing for election of trustees from election districts, but such redistricting shall not serve or operate to deprive any trustee of his office prior to the end of the term to which he was elected, but at the election of trustees at which a successor to any of such trustees would be elected, then trustees shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of the law under which trustees had previously been elected. In the event that trustees of the Eligible Junior College District had previously been elected at large from such junior college district, then those trustees holding office at the time of such annexation shall continue to hold office until the expiration of their term of office, at which time their successors shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of the law under which trustees had previously been elected or which may thereafter be applicable.

Sec. 6. Members of the governing board of trustees of any public junior college district enlarged by annexation under the provisions of this Act shall be paid Fifteen Dollars ($15) per meeting for the time spent in attending meetings of the governing board of trustees of such public junior college district not to exceed twelve (12) meetings in any one year, and shall in addition be paid the sum of ten cents (10¢) per mile for each mile traveled in going from their homes to the place of such meetings and return, measured by the usual and customary route traveled, not to exceed twelve (12) meetings in any one year.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. Section 14, Texas Election Code (Article 2.06, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

14. Where to vote

Except as permitted in Sections 48a and 50a of this code,[2] all voters shall vote in the election precinct in which they reside.

[2] V.A.T.S. Election Code, arts. 5.16a and 5.18a.

Sec. 2. Section 42a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.10a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

42a. Persons entitled to register

A person is entitled to register as a voter in the precinct in which he has his legal residence (i. e., domicile), as defined in Section 40 of this code, if:

(1) on the date of applying for registration he is a citizen of the United States and is subject to none of the disqualifications, other than nonage, stated in Section 33 of this code [2] ; and

(2) within 30 days after applying for registration he will be 18 years of age or older and will have resided in the State for one year.

[2] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.01.

Sec. 3. Section 43a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.11a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

43a. Period for registration; period for which registration is effective

Subdivision 1. A "voting year" is a period of one year beginning on March 1 of each calendar year. Normally, a registration is effective for three successive voting years, as more fully stated in Subdivisions 2 and 3 of this section, subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code.[2]

Subdivision 2. The first voting year under this law begins on March 1, 1972. An initial registration period under this law begins on October 1, 1971, and continues through January 31, 1972. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 42a of this code [3], a person may register at any time during this period if he has already attained the qualifications required by Section 42a or will attain them before April 1, 1972. A registration during this period becomes effective on March 1, 1972, and continues in effect for the 1972, 1973, and 1974 voting years, subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code. On applications mailed to the registrar on or before January 31 but not received by the registrar until after that date, the registrar shall treat each application as having been made in accordance with Subdivision 3 of this section, with registration to become effective on the 31st day following its receipt.

Subdivision 3. Beginning on February 1 after the close of the registration period provided for in Subdivision 2 of this section, registration shall be conducted at all times that the registrar's office is open for business. A registration on or after that date becomes effective on the 31st day following and is effective for the voting year in which that date falls and the succeeding two voting years, except that a registration on or after the first day of October and more than 30 days before the end of the voting year is effective for the remainder of that voting year and for the succeeding three voting years. Each registration is subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code. A person is deemed to have registered on the date that his application is received by the registrar.

Subdivision 4. This subdivision states an exception to the rule stated in Subdivision 3 of this section in regard to the effective date of a registration. Any person who, at the time of applying for registration, comes within a category of persons eligible to vote by absentee ballot without regular registration through use of the federal post card application for absentee ballot, as provided in Subdivision 2a of Section 37 of this code,[4] or who came within such a category at any time within six months before the date of his application, may register at any time, and the registration becomes effective for voting on the fifth day following issuance of the registration certificate if the registrant is otherwise qualified to vote on that date.

Sec. 4. Section 45a, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.13a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

45a. Mode of applying for registration

Subdivision 1. A person may apply for registration in person or by mail. Each applicant shall submit to the registrar of the county in which he resides a written application which supplies all the information required by Section 45b of this code [2]. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the application form. He may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing voter registration certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods, but the registrar in each county shall accept any application made upon any form prescribed by the Secretary of State which supplies all the necessary information for registration. In addition to other requirements, the application form shall contain the following statement: "I understand that the giving of false information to procure the registration of a voter is a felony." It shall also contain a space for recording the number of the voter's registration certificate.

Subdivision 2. The application shall be signed by the applicant or his agent. However, if the person making the application is unable to sign his name either because of physical disability or illiteracy, he shall affix his mark, if able to do so, which shall be attested by a witness, whose signature and address shall be shown on the application. If a person making the application is physically unable to make a mark, the witness shall so state on the application.

Subdivision 3. When a properly executed application is received by the registrar, he shall make out a registration certificate and shall either deliver the original certificate to the voter or his agent in person or shall mail it to the voter at his permanent address; or if the voter is temporarily living outside the county and requests that the certificate be mailed to the temporary address, the registrar shall mail it to the temporary address. When application is made in person, the registrar may make out and deliver the certificate immediately or he may defer preparation of the certificate until a later time, to be mailed to the voter or held for delivery in person if the applicant so directs. If the certificate is mailed to the voter, the registrar shall mail it in time for the voter to receive it before the date on which it becomes effective for voting.

Subdivision 4. The husband, wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a person entitled to register may act as agent for such person in applying for registration, without the necessity of written authorization therefor, may sign for the applicant, and may receive the registration certificate. However, none of these persons may act as agent unless he is a qualified elector of the county. No person other than those mentioned in this subdivision may act as agent for a person in applying for registration. Except as permitted in this subdivision, a person who wilfully acts as agent for another in applying for registration or in obtaining a registration certificate is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subdivision 5. A registrar of voters who knowingly issues a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant or his lawful agent, or who knowingly mails or delivers a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant or his lawful agent, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.13a.

Sec. 5. Section 45b, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.13b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

45b. Information required on application

An application for a voter registration certificate shall show the following information:

1. The applicant's name, sex, and post-office address (or if living in an incorporated city or town, his street address).

2. A statement of the applicant's age. If the applicant has not attained 21 years of age, the application shall show his date of birth by month, day and year. If the applicant has already attained the age of 21 years, it is sufficient for the applicant to state that he is over that age. In lieu of showing the applicant's age in terms of a number of years, age may be shown by stating the date of birth; and in case that form of statement is called for on the application, it is sufficient for an applicant who has attained 21 years of age to state the year of his birth without giving the month and day, or to state that he was born prior to a certain year which shows him to be over that age.

3. If the applicant is under 21 years of age, whether the applicant is or has been married or has had the disabilities of minority removed by court action; and if not, the name and address of the applicant's parents or other person standing in loco parentis.

4. The applicant's occupation. The application form shall also contain a space for the applicant to check the appropriate item of information if he is in active military service or is enrolled as a student in a school, college, or university.

5. A statement that the applicant has resided in the State more than one year, in the county more than six months, and in the city or town (if a resident of an incorporated city or town) more than six months immediately preceding the date of application; or if not a resident for such length of time, a statement of the date on which he became a resident of the State, county, or city, as the case may be.

6. A statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States.

7. If the applicant was registered in any other county of this State within the preceding three years, the name of the county in which he was registered and his last residence address in that county.

8. If the application is made by an agent, a statement of the agent's relationship to the applicant.

The application form shall contain a space for showing the address to which the certificate is to be mailed, if it is to be mailed to a temporary address. It shall also contain a space for showing the election precinct in which the applicant resides, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list the number or name of the precinct or for listing an incorrect number or name where the applicant's correct address is given. It may also contain a space for the applicant's social security number and telephone number, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list these numbers.

Sec. 6. Section 46a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.14a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

46a. Registration certificate forms; information required on certificate

Subdivision 1. Upon receiving the application of a voter who is entitled to register, the registrar shall prepare a voter registration certificate for the voter on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods. The form shall be prepared in duplicate. The original shall be issued to the voter and the duplicate copy shall be retained by the registrar for his use in making up the list of registered voters and in maintaining a numerical record of the certificates issued.

Subdivision 2. The registration certificates for each county shall be serially numbered, beginning with No. 1 for registrations for each voting year, and the numbers shall be preceded by a letter or combination of letters to indicate the voting year, beginning with the letter A and proing shall begin with No. A–1 for the first year, with No. B–1 for the second ceeding in alphabetical order for each new voting year (i. e., the number-year, No. AA–1 for the 27th year, and so on). The date on which the certificate is issued shall be shown on the certificate, but no date indicating the duration of its effectiveness shall be shown.

Subdivision 3. Each certificate shall show the voter's name, age, address, election precinct number, a place for the voter's signature, and the date on which the certificate is issued. The certificate may also show other information which is furnished on the application, at the option of the registrar. It shall contain or be accompanied by a written instruction to the voter that the certificate is to be signed by the voter personally immediately upon receipt, if the voter is able to write his name.

Subdivision 4. At the time he prepares the registration certificate, the registrar shall enter the registration certificate number in the appropriate space on the voter's application for registration.

Subdivision 5. When under any provision of this code the registrar is directed to make a change or correction on a registration certificate, in his discretion he may issue a replacement certificate to the voter instead of making the change or correction on the existing certificate.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.14a.

Sec. 7. Section 47a, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.15a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

47a. Registration record sheets; registration files

Subdivision 1. As soon as practicable after a registration certificate is issued, the registrar shall make up for the voter a registration record sheet, on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State. The record sheet shall bear the same serial number as the registration certificate and shall show the voter's name, permanent residence address, and election precinct number, and optionally the voter's social security number and telephone number. It shall also show the voter's temporary address if one is shown on his application. The form shall contain suitable space for recording change of residence, transfer of registration to another election precinct, a record of the elections at which the voter votes, and information pertinent to cancellation of registration.

Subdivision 2. (a) As they are made up, the registration record sheets shall be filed alphabetically by election precincts in an active registration record file, and they shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive registration record file, which shall be arranged in alphabetical order for the entire county. The registrar shall place into this file the record sheet for each voter whose registration is cancelled. When a registration is cancelled, the registrar shall enter on the record sheet the date of cancellation and the reason. The record sheet shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subdivision 3. (a) The applications on which registration certificates are issued shall be filed alphabetically for the entire county in an active application file and shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive application file, which shall be arranged in alphabetical order for the entire county. The registrar shall place into this file all applications which are rejected. He shall also transfer to the inactive file the application of each voter whose registration is cancelled. The registrar shall enter on the application form the date on which the registration is rejected or the date on which the registration is cancelled before filing an application in the inactive file. The application shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of rejection or cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subdivision 4. (a) After the registrar adds a voter's name to the list of registered voters from the duplicate registration certificate, he shall file the duplicate in an active duplicate registration certificate file. An active file for each voting year shall be maintained in numerical order for the entire county.

(b) When a registration is cancelled, the registrar shall enter the date of cancellation on the duplicate certificate and shall transfer it to an inactive file arranged numerically for each voting year. The duplicate shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subdivision 5. Applications and duplicate registration certificates may be removed from the registrar's office temporarily, under proper safeguards, for use in preparing registration certificates, lists of registered voters, and other registration papers by electronic data processing methods, but they may not be removed for any other purpose. Except as permitted in the preceding sentence, the applications, the duplicate registration certificates, and the registration record sheets shall be kept in the registrar's office at all times in a place and in such a manner as to be properly safeguarded. The files shall be open to public inspection at all times during regular office hours of the registrar, subject to reasonable regulations and to proper safeguards against alteration, mutilation, or removal.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.15a.

Sec. 8. Section 48a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.16a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

48a. Correction of errors on certificates; lost certificates

Subdivision 1. Correction of error. When after issuance of a registration certificate it is discovered that an error has been made in filling out the blanks on the certificate through mistake of the registrar or through mistake of the voter in supplying the information, the voter may present the certificate to the registrar for correction and the registrar shall correct the information on the original certificate and on the registration records on file in his office.

Subdivision 2. Error in election precinct. Except as permitted in Section 50a of this code [2], no person is entitled to vote in a precinct of which he is not a resident and an election officer shall not knowingly permit a voter to do so. However, where a voter is erroneously registered in a precinct in which he does not reside and the election officer permits him to vote without knowing of the erroneous registration, in an election contest a ballot cast in that precinct shall be given effect as to any offices or propositions on which the voter would have been entitled to vote in the precinct in which he resides unless it is proved that the voter intentionally gave false information to procure his registration in the wrong precinct, in which event the ballot is void for all purposes.

If an error in the election precinct has not been corrected on the certificate at the time the voter offers to vote at an election, he may vote in the precinct of his residence, if otherwise qualified, by making and leaving with the presiding judge of the election an affidavit that he is a bona fide resident of that precinct and qualified to vote at that election, and that the error on the certificate was not caused by an intentional misrepresentation on his part.

Subdivision 3. Name omitted from list of registered voters. Where a voter's name is not shown on the precinct list of registered voters but the voter presents his registration certificate showing him to be registered in that precinct, the election officers shall permit him to vote and shall add his name, address, and registration certificate number to the list.

Subdivision 4. Challenge of voter. Where a voter who does not present his registration certificate to the election officers claims to be registered in the precinct where he offers to vote, or claims to be erroneously registered in some other precinct, the presiding judge, if not satisfied as to his right to vote, may refuse to accept him unless he complies with the provisions of this code relative to challenge of a voter at the polling place. Where a voter claiming to be registered in the precinct is accepted, the presiding judge shall add the voter's name and address to the list of registered voters, with the notation that he voted on an affidavit of a lost certificate.

Subdivision 5. Correction of registration records. Within 10 days after the election, the officer to whom the list of registered voters is returned shall notify the registrar of any additions which the election officers made to the list of registered voters. Within the same period, the officer to whom the affidavit of erroneous election precinct is returned shall notify the registrar of the names and other information contained on the affidavits used in the election. The registrar shall take the necessary steps to verify and correct the registration records, including a recall of the original registration certificates for correction where necessary. If the registrar finds that a person who voted is not registered, he shall report the matter to the prosecuting attorney.

Subdivision 6. Replacement of lost certificate. If a voter to whom a registration certificate has been issued presents to the registrar his affidavit that the certificate has been lost or destroyed, the registrar shall issue to the voter a replacement certificate as a single-copy document, showing the same registration number and the same information as shown on the original certificate. The registrar shall make a notation on the face of the certificate showing it to be a replacement. He shall attach the affidavit to the voter's application.

A person who makes an affidavit that a registration certificate has been lost or destroyed, knowing the affidavit to be false, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subdivision 7. Voting on affidavit of lost certificate. Notwithstanding Subdivision 6 of this section, a voter whose registration certificate has been lost or destroyed may vote without obtaining a replacement, upon making and leaving with the election officers an affidavit of loss as provided elsewhere in this code.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.16a.

[2] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.18a.

Sec. 9. The Texas Election Code is amended by adding [1] Section 48b, to read as follows:

48b. Abolition of precinct or alteration of boundary

In the event the precinct in which a registered voter resides is abolished or has its boundary altered, the registrar shall change the voter's registration records to show him to be registered in the proper precinct and shall mail a notice of the change to each voter affected, instructing him to make the change on his registration certificate. If the registrar is unable to determine the proper precinct of a voter from the information on the application, he shall mail a request to the voter for such additional information as will enable him to determine the proper precinct, and until the information is received he shall not place the voter's name on the list of registered voters for any precinct.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.16b.

Sec. 10. Section 50a, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.18a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

50a. Change of residence; cancellation or transfer or registration

Subdivision 1. Change of residence within precinct. A registered voter who changes his place of residence within the election precinct shall give written notice to the registrar of the change of address and present his registration certificate to the registrar. The registrar shall make the necessary change on the certificate and on the registration records in his office and shall return the certificate to the voter. He shall attach the notice to the voter's application, and shall change the address on the list of registered voters when he prepares the next annual list.

Subdivision 2. Change of residence to another precinct within county. A registered voter who changes his residence to another election precinct within the county may vote in the precinct of his former residence, if otherwise qualified, during the first 30 days after the removal, but not thereafter, in any election other than an election which is subject to Section 35 of this code [2]. If he obtains a transfer of his registration to the precinct of his new residence during the 30-day period, he may vote only in the precinct of his new residence after the fourth day following the transfer. He may not vote in the precinct of his new residence before the fifth day following the transfer.

To obtain a transfer of his registration, the voter shall present his registration certificate to the registrar with a written, signed request that his registration be transferred to the precinct of his new residence. Upon receiving a request for transfer, the registrar shall make the necessary changes on the registration certificate and on the registration records in his office and shall return the certificate to the voter. He shall attach the request to the application and shall transfer the registration record sheet to the file for the precinct of the voter's new residence.

Subdivision 3. Change of residence to another county. A registered voter who moves from one county to another within the State must reregister in the county of his new residence in the same manner as an initial registrant. However, during the first six months after removal the voter may vote a limited ballot, as provided in Section 37c of this code [3], by either presenting a current registration certificate issued in the county of his former residence or making an affidavit that it has been lost or misplaced.

Subdivision 4. Notification to registrar in county of former residence. Between March 1, 1972, and February 28, 1975, when the registrar receives an application for registration of a voter who was registered in some other county for any period of time after March 1, 1972, he shall notify the registrar of that county, giving him the voter's name, former residence address, and present residence address. Thereafter, when the registrar receives an application of a voter who was registered in some other county within the preceding three years, he shall notify the registrar of that county. Upon receipt of the notice, the registrar of the county wherein the voter was formerly registered shall cancel the registration in that county.

Subdivision 5. (a) Before March 1, 1972, the registrar in each county shall take the necessary steps to have each postmaster in his county furnish him with the residential change-of-address information service available to election boards and registration commissions under United States Post Office Department regulations. The registrar shall request the information on all residential mail patrons within the county, retroactive to the date which the registrar deems suitable, but not earlier than October 1, 1971, to enable him to correct the registration records on voters who have moved after registering for the voting period which begins on March 1, 1972. He shall request that the information thereafter be furnished on a monthly basis, and from time to time he shall take whatever action is necessary to keep the request for this service in an active status at all times. Immediately after this section takes effect, the Secretary of State shall issue instructions to each registrar on how to proceed to obtain the service.

(b) Except as provided in Paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the registrar and his employees may not use or permit any other person to use the information received from the post office for any purpose other than correcting the registration records and lists of registered voters maintained in his office. A violation of this provision is a misdemeanor.

(c) Where a post office serves patrons living in more than one county, the postmaster and the registrars of the different counties shall agree upon an arrangement for furnishing all the change-of-address cards to one or the other of the registrars or for separating the cards and furnishing them to the several registrars in accordance with a stipulated plan. Within 30 days after a registrar receives the cards from the post office, he shall transcribe the information with respect to each person who resides in a different county onto a form prescribed by the Secretary of State, or shall duplicate or reproduce the information in some other manner agreeable to the postmaster and approved by the Secretary of State, and shall forward it to the registrar of the county in which the person resides. Each registrar shall assemble the necessary data to enable him to determine with reasonable accuracy in which county a person lives from his street address or rural route address. Where the patron was receiving his mail at a post-office box, the registrar receiving the information initially shall check his files to identify the patron as a registered voter insofar as he is able to do so, and shall forward the change-of-address information on all unidentified patrons to the registrar of the other county. He shall also follow this procedure in other doubtful cases.

(d) If a person requesting a permanent change of address is registered as a voter, or where the change of address is requested for an entire family, if any other person having the same surname and address is registered, the registrar shall send a notice to each such person at the address on the registration record and at the new address furnished on the change-of-address form, requesting him to verify his current residence address and informing him of the necessity for changing the registration records if there has been a change in his legal residence. The notice shall state that the voter's registration will be cancelled if the registrar does not receive a reply within 30 days from the date on which the notice is mailed. If the voter replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no reply is received, the registrar shall cancel the registration and shall notify the voter of the cancellation by registered or certified mail at the address given on the change-of-address form with a return receipt requested. The registrar shall reinstate the registration if within 30 days after the cancellation the voter furnishes information showing that he is still eligible for registration in that county. The notice of cancellation shall inform the voter of this right to reinstatement.

(e) Where a postal patron was receiving his mail at a post-office box rather than a street address or a rural route address, the registrar shall undertake to identify the patron as a registered voter by checking the alphabetical precinct or county files for the same or a similar name. Where more than one person of the same or similar name is registered, the registrar shall use his discretion in pursuing his effort to identify the patron.

(f) The Secretary of State shall keep the registrars informed of any changes in postal regulations which affect the procedures for utilizing the change-of-address service as a means for updating the registration records. If a change in postal regulations makes any of the procedures outlined in this subdivision impracticable, the Secretary of State is authorized to devise new procedures and to issue directives putting them into effect, with a view to utilizing the service in the most effective manner to obtain the full benefit of the information furnished.

Subdivision 6. The Secretary of State shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section. However, the registrar may also accept and use forms other than those prescribed by the Secretary of State.

[3] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.05c.

Sec. 11. The Texas Election Code is amended by adding [1] Sections 50b, 50c, and 50d, to read as follows:

50b. Extension or renewal of registration by voting or by request for renewal; cancellation for failure to renew Subdivision 1. Beginning with the elections held during the 1972 voting year, whenever a registered voter votes in a primary or general election for nomination or election of State and county officers, his registration is automatically extended or renewed for the succeeding three voting years unless, prior to the beginning of the first succeeding year, the registration is cancelled under some provision of this code.

Within 30 days after each second (runoff) primary for nomination of State and county officers, the presiding officer of the county committee, board, or other body which is responsible for furnishing supplies for the primary elections of each political party shall deliver to the registrar the lists of registered voters used at the party's general primary and runoff primary in each election precinct in the county, marked to show the names of persons who voted at the election as provided elsewhere in this code. Within 30 days after the date of each general election for State and county officers, the county clerk shall deliver to the registrar the lists of registered voters used at the general election, marked to show the names of persons who voted at the election. From these lists, the registrar shall make a record on the registration record sheets of the voters who voted at these elections and shall extend or renew their registrations for the succeeding three voting years. The registrar shall preserve the lists for a period of four years following the close of the voting year in which the election occurred.

Subdivision 2. Before the first day of January each year, the registrar shall examine the registration records to determine which registrations expire at the end of that voting year. Not earlier than November 15 and not later than January 15, he shall mail to each person whose registration is expiring, at the permanent address shown on the registration record and also at the temporary address if one is shown, a notice that it will be necessary for him to reregister if he wishes to vote at elections to be held on or after the following March 1, but that he may reregister for the succeeding three voting years by returning the notice to the registrar, with his signed statement thereon that he is still a qualified elector of the county, together with any change of address or other information necessary to bring his registration record up-to-date. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form of the notices and request for reregistration referred to in this section.

Subdivision 3. The notice referred to in Subdivision 2 of this section shall be marked with a direction to the postal authorities not to forward it to any other address and to return it to the registrar if the addressee is no longer at that address, with the reason for nondelivery and address correction information to be furnished to the registrar. The registrar may make whatever arrangements with the postal authorities which he deems suitable for handling the payment for the address correction service. When a notice is returned undelivered, with information that the voter has moved to a new address, the registrar shall send the registrant another notice by nonforwardable mail to the new address, if it is within the county, informing him that he may reregister by returning the notice, as stated in Subdivision 2 of this section. If the new address is outside the county, the registrar shall send the registrant another notice by nonforwardable mail to the new address, informing him that his registration will be cancelled unless he furnishes the registrar with information showing that he is still entitled to registration in the county but that he may reregister by returning the notice if he is still entitled to registration in the county.

Subdivision 4. If the registrar receives a request for reregistration on or before the 31st day preceding the beginning of the succeeding voting year, he shall renew the registration effective on March 1 for the succeeding three voting years. On requests received after that date, the reregistration becomes effective on the 31st day after receipt. The registrar shall make a notation of the reregistration on the voter's registration record sheet and shall attach the request to the voter's application.

Subdivision 5. Immediately after the 31st day preceding the end of each voting year, the registrar shall place into a suspense file the applications and registration record sheets of the voters whose registration expires at the end of that year and who have not returned a request for reregistration. Where a request is received after that date, the registrar shall return the application and record sheet to the active file. During the month of January in the following year, the registrar shall close out the suspense file. He shall cancel the registration of each person whose records are in the file and shall send him a notice of the cancellation.

Subdivision 6. Except where reinstatement of a cancelled registration is expressly provided for, a voter whose registration is cancelled must reregister in the same manner as an initial registrant.

50c. Cancellation of registration upon death or judicial determination of disqualification

Subdivision 1. Not later than the 10th day of each month, each local registrar of deaths in this State shall furnish to the registrar of voters of the county of residence of the decedent an abstract of the death certificate of each decedent over the minimum voting age who was a resident of this State at the time of his death. The abstract shall show the name, age, sex, place of residence, and date and place of death of the decedent. Upon receipt of an abstract, the registrar of voters shall determine if the decedent was a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration.

Subdivision 2. Not later than the 10th day of each month, the clerk of each county court or probate court in this State shall furnish to the registrar of voters of the county of residence of the person so adjudged, an abstract of each final judgment adjudging a person over the minimum voting age and resident within this State to be mentally incompetent or to be mentally competent. The abstract shall show the person's name and permanent address and any other available information which will assist in identifying the person in the voter registration files. Upon receipt of an abstract of an adjudgment of mental incompetence, the registrar shall determine if the person is a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration. Upon receipt of an abstract of an adjudgment of mental competence, the registrar shall examine the extant cancelled registration files to ascertain whether the person was previously registered and whether his registration would still be current except for the cancellation upon his being adjudged incompetent, and if so, the registrar shall reinstate the registration.

Subdivision 3. Not later than the 10th day of each month, the clerk of each court having jurisdiction of the trial of felony crimes shall furnish to the registrar an abstract of each unappealed conviction for a felony crime and of each final conviction in appealed cases. The registrar shall determine if the person convicted is a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration.

Subdivision 4. The reports required under Subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 of this section apply to deaths occurring, judgments of mental competency or incompetency entered, and felony convictions returned on and after October 1, 1972. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the forms for the abstracts required by Subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 of this section. The registrar of voters shall keep a supply of the forms on hand and upon request shall furnish blank forms to the officers in his county who are required to use them.

Subdivision 5. Upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment in an election contest proceeding adjudging a registrant not to be a qualified voter, the registrar shall cancel his registration.

Subdivision 6. Whenever a registration is cancelled under Subdivision 2, 3, or 5 of this section, the registrar shall immediately mail a notice of the cancellation to the registrant at the permanent address shown on his registration record and also at the temporary address if one is shown. If subsequent to the cancellation of a registration under any provision of this section it is ascertained that the registration should not have been cancelled, the registrar shall reinstate it.

50d. Change of name

Subdivision 1. A registered voter who changes his name through marriage or judgment of a court shall present his registration certificate to the registrar, with a signed request that his name be changed on the registration records. The registrar shall issue a new certificate to the voter under his new name and shall transfer the duplicate of the old certificate to the inactive file. He shall change the registration record sheet to show the new name and certificate number and shall file it under the new name. He shall attach the request to the voter's application and enter the number of the new certificate on the application, and shall file both documents under the new name. He shall make a notation of the former name on the duplicate certificate and shall delete it from the list of registered voters when he adds the new name.

Subdivision 2. If otherwise qualified, a voter whose name is changed is eligible to vote under the new registration at any election held more than four days after the registrar makes the change on the registration records. He may vote under the former registration at any election held within four days after the new registration, upon making an affidavit that his certificate of registration under the former name has been surrendered to the registrar. The voter shall sign the form for the affidavit of a lost certificate, and the election officer shall add a notation in explanation of the circumstances.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, arts. 5.18b–5.18d.

Sec. 12. Subsection (1), Section 51a, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.19a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

(1) Before the first day of March each year, the registrar shall prepare for each election precinct of the county a certified list of registered voters who, as of the 31st day before March 1 (as of January 31, 1972, for the list prepared in 1972), are entitled to registration for the voting year in which March 1 falls. Each precinct list shall be prepared in two parts, each arranged alphabetically by the names of the voters and showing each voter's name, age, address, and registration number, and optionally his telephone number. On the first part of the original list shall be shown the names of voters who are qualified to vote in all elections as of March 1. On the second part shall be shown the names of voters who are not yet qualified to vote in all elections as of March 1. This list shall contain four columns, headed as follows:

Not eligible to vote before date shown
U.S. Repre-	State Elections
sentative	Statewide	County	City

For the various types of elections in which the voter is not yet eligible to vote, the registrar shall show the date on which he will become eligible. The registrar shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county during the voting year for which the list is prepared, one set of such lists for all precincts in the county if any election which may be held by such authority is countywide, and one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the particular political subdivision if all elections which may be held by such authority are less than countywide. The registrar shall also furnish to each such authority, not less than 20 days before each election, an updated consolidated list of the voters in each precinct who will have been registered for 30 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list. When a runoff election is held, before the first day of absentee voting in the runoff election the registrar shall prepare a consolidated list of the voters who will have been registered for 30 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list or the supplemental list prepared for the first election. Between the fourth day before the election and election day in each election, he shall furnish a separate list of the voters who transfer their registration more than four days before the election and who are not included in a previous list. The supplemental lists shall be prepared in two parts, in the same form as the original lists. With each supplemental list the registrar shall also furnish a list of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct since preparation of the last set of lists. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies. Prior to the opening of the polls, the presiding judge shall strike from the registration list the names of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.19a, subsec. (1).

Sec. 13. Section 51b, Texas Election Code (Article 5.19b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended[1] to read as follows:

51b. Reimbursement of county by State

Subdivision 1. Before April 1 of each year, the registrar shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a certified statement of the total number of registered voters shown on the precinct registration lists as of March 1 of that year, together with the total number of registration certificates which were issued during the 12-month period ending January 31 of the year in which the statement is submitted.

Subdivision 2. Before June 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant to each county in the aggregate of the following amounts:

(1) 40 cents multiplied by the total number of new certificates, and

(2) 20 cents multiplied by the difference between the total number of registered voters and the total number of new certificates issued, as shown by the certified statement required by Subdivision 1 of this section. However, before issuing a warrant the Comptroller may require additional proof to substantiate the statement.

Subdivision 3. The disbursements prescribed by this section shall be made from the general revenue fund as provided by legislative appropriations. All money received by a county under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be used for defraying expenses of the registrar's office in the registration of voters. None of the money shall be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the registrar as fees in counties where the registrar is compensated on a fee basis.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.19b.

Sec. 14. Section 52a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.20a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

52a. Deputy registrars

Subdivision 1. The registrar may have such number of duly authorized and sworn deputies as he deems necessary to assist in the registration of voters. However, no deputy may be paid for his services except with the approval of the Commissioners Court. An unpaid deputy shall not be required to give a bond in connection with his services.

Subdivision 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the registrar shall establish a sufficient number of registration places throughout the county, and outside the county courthouse, for the convenience of persons desiring to register, to the end that registration may be maintained at a high level.

Subdivision 3. Where the performance of the services is not contrary to some other provision of law, the head of any department of the State government, with the approval of the governing board where one exists, any county officer, and the head of any department of a city, town, or village, with the approval of the municipal governing board, may permit any of the officers and employees under his control to become deputy registrars of voters and to register persons on any premises and facilities under his control during the regular working hours of the deputized officer or employee.

Subdivision 4. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the registrar, in order to promote and encourage voter registrations, shall enlist the support and cooperation of interested citizens and organizations, and shall deputize as registrars qualified citizens in such a way as to cover most effectively every section of the county. The persons so deputized shall be permitted to register voters anywhere within the county and to secure registrations at the places of residence of the persons to be registered, and the registrar shall not deny deputy registrars the right to register voters in accordance with this authorization.

Subdivision 5. No voter registrar shall refuse to deputize any person to register voters because of race, creed, color, or national origin or ancestry. No bona fide resident of the county of good moral character shall be excluded from serving as deputy by the registrar.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.20a.

Sec. 15. Section 53a, Texas Election Code (Article 5.21a, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

53a. Statement of registrations

On or before March 5 of each year, the registrar shall make a statement to the Secretary of State and to the county clerk of the number of registered voters in each precinct as shown by the list of registered voters on March 1. The statement shall become a record of the officer to whom the statement is made.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.21a.

Sec. 16. The Texas Election Code is amended by adding[1] Section 54c, to read as follows:

54c. Penalty for misdemeanor offenses

Unless some other penalty is expressly stated, each offense which is declared to be a misdemeanor by any provision of this chapter is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.22c.

Sec. 17. Section 90, Texas Election Code (Article 8.08, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended [1] to read as follows:

90. Procedure for accepting voter; signature roster

Subdivision 1. An election officer shall receive from the voter his registration certificate, when he presents himself to vote. If the voter has lost or mislaid his certificate or left it at home, he shall make an affidavit of that fact. The election officer shall announce the voter's name in an audible voice and shall ascertain that his name appears on the list of registered voters or shall satisfy himself, in the manner stated in Section 48a of this code [2] , that the voter is a registered voter and is entitled to vote in that precinct. He shall then require the voter to sign the signature roster provided for in Subdivision 3 of this section. If the voter has presented his registration certificate, the election officer shall compare the signature on the roster with the signature on the certificate to see that it is the same. If he finds that the signatures do not correspond, he shall not allow the voter to vote unless the voter complies with the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this code [3] for acceptance of a challenged voter.

Subdivision 2. When a voter is accepted for voting, the election officer shall place a notation on the list of registered voters showing that he has voted and shall enter the voter's name on the poll list. The names on the poll list shall be entered in the same order as the names on the signature roster. The officer shall return the registration certificate to the voter and shall allow him to select his ballot. The voter shall then immediately retire to a voting booth or a place prepared for voting by the election officers, and there prepare his ballot in the manner provided by law.

Subdivision 3. There shall be kept at each polling place a signature roster of persons offering to vote at the election. Each person offering to vote shall sign the roster if he is able to do so. If a voter is unable to sign his name, an election officer shall enter the voter's name on the roster and shall make a notation of whether the voter is unable to sign because of physical disability, blindness, or illiteracy. If a person is rejected for voting after signing the roster, the presiding judge shall make a notation of that fact by the person's name, stating the reason for the rejection. After the election is over, the signature roster shall be returned with the copy of the poll list which is intended for public inspection and shall be preserved under the same rules as the poll list.

93. Delivery of ballot

Subdivision 1. After all defectively printed ballots have been removed, the presiding judge shall cause his signature to be placed on the back of each ballot to be used at the election. Subdivision 2. After the signature of the presiding judge is placed on the back of the ballots, one of the election officers shall thoroughly disarrange and mix the ballots so that they no longer are in consecutive numbered sequence or in any sequence of arithmetic or geometric progression, and then place the ballots face down in a stack or stacks from which each voter shall be allowed to take his own ballot without the number being known to or written down in any manner by an election officer.

Sec. 19. Section 37, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended by adding [1] Subdivision 2c, to read as follows:

Subdivision 2c. Comparison of signatures. Before furnishing a ballot to an absentee voter who presents his registration certificate with his application, the clerk shall compare the signature on the application with the signature on the certificate. If he finds that the signatures do not correspond, he shall not furnish a ballot to the voter unless the voter complies with the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this code [2] for acceptance of a challenged voter. In each instance, both on applications made by mail as well as those made by personal appearance, the clerk shall inform the voter of the ground of the challenge and the procedure necessary to enable the voter to obtain a ballot. Where application is by mail, the clerk shall mail a notice to the voter on the same day that the comparison is made.

At the head of the signature roster for each primary election there shall be printed the following statement: 'I swear that I have not voted at a primary election or participated in a convention of any other political party during this voting year.' The presiding judge or another election officer designated by him shall place each voter under oath and require him to swear to this statement before he signs the roster. The presiding judge shall issue to each voter in a general primary election, and to each voter in a second primary election who requests it, a certificate in the following form:

Each precinct chairman is authorized to administer the oath required by this subsection. Within 10 days after the precinct convention, he shall arrange the affidavits in alphabetical order and deliver them to the county clerk. If he receives an affidavit after the date of the precinct convention, he shall deliver it to the county clerk within 10 days after he receives it. The county clerk shall keep the affidavits on file in alphabetical order within each precinct for a period of two years after the end of the voting year in which they are filed. The county clerk shall maintain a separate file for each political party.

(6) A certificate issued by the presiding election judge, the county clerk, or the precinct chairman as provided in this section shall serve as evidence that the person whose name appears on the certificate is affiliated with the party designated on the certificate and is therefore eligible to participate in that party's conventions.

Sec. 21. Sections 44a and 44b, Texas Election Code (Articles 5.12a and 5.12b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), are suspended.[1] Section 55, Texas Election Code (Article 5.23, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is repealed.[2]

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, arts. 5.12a, 5.12b, suspended.
[2] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.23, repealed.

Sec. 22.[1] Effective dates of sections. (a) Immediately upon the effective date of this Act, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, and 16 take effect for registration to vote at elections held on and after March 1, 1972, to continue in effect as stated in Section 23 of this Act. The law as it exists before the amendments made by these sections continues in effect for registration to vote at elections held before March 1, 1972.

(b) Sections 1, 8, 10, 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21 take effect on March 1, 1972.

(c) Section 13 takes effect on the effective date of this Act.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.11a note.

Sec. 23.[1] Contingent permanency of sections. (a) Sections 1 through 20 of this Act are enacted as a temporary law, to expire if neither of the contingencies stated in Subsection (b) of this section occurs, whereupon the law as it existed before the effective date of this Act, with the modifications made in Section 24, again becomes operative until otherwise provided by the Legislature. However, Sections 1 through 20 become permanent law upon the occurrence of either of the two contingencies stated in Subsection (b), and simultaneously Sections 44a and 44b, Texas Election Code (Articles 5.12a and 5.12b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), are repealed.

(b) Sections 1 through 20 become permanent:

(1) if the final judgment in the case styled Jimmy F. Beare, et al, v. Preston Smith, as Governor of the State of Texas, et al, Civil Action No. 70–C–42, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division, holds in effect that the provision in Article VI, Section 2 of the Constitution of Texas which requires annual voter registration violates the Constitution of the United States; or

(2) if a constitutional amendment deleting the requirement for annual registration is submitted by the 62nd Legislature and is adopted by the qualified voters of this State.

Not later than 15 days after the judgment in Beare v. Smith becomes final, the Attorney General shall certify the holding to the Governor and the Secretary of State. If a certification is made that the holding in the case does not invalidate the provision in Section VI, Section 2, and the certification antedates an election submitting a constitutional amendment deleting the provision, the Governor shall await the outcome of the election and shall then issue a proclamation declaring whether Sections 1 through 20 of this Act expire or become permanent; otherwise, he shall issue the proclamation immediately upon receipt of the certification from the Attorney General. If these sections do not befome permanent, they expire on the date of the Governor's proclamation, and the former law, as modified by Section 24 of this Act, again becomes operative on that date.

[1] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 5.11a note.

Sec. 24. This section takes effect only if Sections 1 through 20 of this Act expire, as conditioned in Section 23. Upon the effective date of this section, simultaneously with the expiration of those sections, Sections 43a and 51b, Texas Election Code, as amended (Articles 5.11a and 5.19b, Vernon's Texas Election Code), are amended [1] to read as follows:

43a. Period for registration; period for which registration is effective

Subdivision 1. As used in this code, a "voting year" is a period of one year beginning on March 1 of each calendar year. The regular period for registration for each voting year is from the first day of October through the 31st day of January preceding the beginning of the voting year. Registration during this period entitles the registrant, if otherwise qualified, to vote at elections held at any time during the voting year for which he is registered. Registration for a voting year shall also be conducted at all other times, beginning with the first day of March, except during the last 30 days of the voting year. A person who registers after the beginning of the voting year is not entitled to vote until the expiration of 30 days after registration.

Subdivision 2. All uncancelled registration certificates issued for voting at elections held on or after March 1, 1972, are valid for the remainder of the voting year in which this amendment takes effect. If the amendment takes effect during the month of October, November, December, January, or February, they are also valid for the succeeding voting year.

51b. Reimbursement of county by state

Subdivision 1. Before April 1 of each year, the registrar shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a certified statement of the total number of voters registered under this code during the 12-month period ending January 31 of the year in which the statement is submitted.

Subdivision 2. Before June 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant to each county in the amount of 40 cents multiplied by the total number of voters registered as shown by the certified statement required by Subdivision 1 of this section. However, the Comptroller may, before issuing a warrant, require satisfactory proof of the number of voters registered in the county during the 12-month period mentioned in Subdivision 1.

Subdivision 3. The disbursements prescribed by this section shall be made from the general revenue fund as provided by legislative appropriations. All money received by a county under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be used for defraying expenses of the registrar's office in the registration of voters. None of the money shall be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the registrar as fees in counties where the registrar is compensated on a fee basis.

Sec. 25. On the effective date of this Act, Section 40, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 5.08, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended by adding [1] Subsection (m), to read as follows:

(m) The residence of a person under 21 years of age who is not married or has not been married or has not had the disabilities of minority removed through a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction is at the place of residence of the parent or parents, or other person standing in loco parentis, having custody of the minor. Sec. 26.[1] If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"I am not financially able to pay the filing fee required to file for the office set forth in the attached application. In lieu therefor I submit the following petition signed by 10% of the number of votes cast for the _____ (Democratic, Republican, etc.) Party's candidate for Governor in the last preceding General Election in the territory in which I am running."

Art. 13.08. Expenses of primary; assessment of candidates; exception of article 13.08c; reassessment; supplemental contributions and volunteer services

Contingent and temporary amendment

(1) On or before the second Monday in February preceding each general primary election, the county committee shall carefully estimate the cost of printing the official ballots, renting polling places where same may be found necessary, providing and distributing all necessary poll books, blank stationery and voting booths required, compensation of election officers and clerks, and all other necessary expenses of holding the general primary and second primary in such county. On the second Monday in February, the committee shall meet and apportion such cost in such manner as in their judgment is just and equitable among the various candidates for nomination for district, county, and precinct offices who did not file with their application a supporting petition of voters as provided in Section 186c of this code,[1] except the offices of Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals and member of the State Board of Education. Where a district office covers more than one county, the assessment of such candidate by the county shall be not more than a sum which is the quotient of the amount which he would be assessed if he represented only one county determined by the formula used to assess county candidates, when divided by the number of counties in his district. In making the assessment upon any candidate the committee shall give due consideration to the importance, emolument, and term of office for which the nomination is to be made. The committee may not assess any candidate an amount in excess of four percent of the total compensation payable for the particular term of office (full or partial) which he is seeking. Within 24 hours after adjournment of the meeting, the chairman shall mail to each person against whom an assessment is made a notice stating the amount of the expenses apportioned to him and informing him that on or before the fourth Monday in February he must pay to the chairman the difference between the amount apportioned to him and the amount of the deposit which accompanied the application which he filed with the chairman. No such person's name shall be placed on the ballot unless he complies with these requirements within the prescribed time. The notices shall be sent to the candidates by registered or certified mail, and the chairman shall obtain a receipt for each letter, postmarked by the post office at which the letter is mailed, as evidence of the mailing, and shall preserve the receipts for a period of three months.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an assessment shall not be made against a candidate who has filed with his application a petition of voters as provided in Section 186c of this code.[1]

[1] Article 13.08c.

(6) In conducting the primary elections, the committee is authorized to utilize volunteer unpaid services of election judges and clerks, to accept gratuities of other services and other things of value, and to use funds derived from contributions, fund-raising events, and other lawful sources by way of supplementing the funds derived from assessments levied under this section.

(7) If, after the committee has made the assessments authorized by Subsection (1) of this section, a court of competent jurisdiction declares the assessments to be invalid, the committee may reassess the candidates in an effort to bring the amounts within the court's delineation of permissible limits. In the event of a reassessment, the committee shall fix the date by which the new assessments must be paid, which date shall be at least 10 days after the date of the meeting at which the reassessment is made. Within 24 hours after adjournment of the meeting, the chairman shall give notice, in the manner required for notice of the original assessment, to each candidate who has not paid the original assessment. Within 30 days after the date of the meeting, the county chairman shall refund to each candidate who paid the original assessment the difference between the amount of the original assessment and the new assessment.

Art. 13.08c. Petition of voters in lieu of payment of assessment or fee

Contingent and Temporary Enactment

(a) Notwithstanding any provision in Section 185a,[1] Section 186,[2] Section 190,[3] Section 190a,[4] Section 193,[5] or any other section of this code, a candidate for any public office who files with his application for a place on the ballot in the general primary election a petition which complies with this section is not required to pay the deposit, assessment, or fee required by any other section of this code. The petition must accompany the application and be filed at the same time that the application is filed. Where a candidate for a district office is required to file an application with more than one county chairman, he shall file the petition with the county chairman in the county of his residence and shall attach to the petition the name and address of each other county chairman with whom an application is filed. He shall attach to the application which is filed with each other chairman a statement that the petition has been filed, giving the name and address of the chairman with whom it is filed. The chairman with whom the petition is filed shall certify to each other county chairman in the district whether the petition complies with the requirements of this section. Where the filing deadline for the office is on or before the fourth Monday in February, the chairman shall make the certification not later than the second Monday in March. Where the filing deadline is after the fourth Monday in February, he shall make the certification within 15 days after the deadline or by the 25th day before the general primary, whichever is earlier.

(b) A petition which is filed in lieu of the payments required by other sections of this code must be signed by qualified voters eligible to vote for the office for which the candidate is running, equal in number to at least 10 percent of the entire vote cast for that party's candidate for governor in the last preceding general election in the territory (state, district, county, or precinct, as the case may be) in which the candidate is running. Where a candidate is running in a district or precinct which has been created or the boundaries of which have been changed since the last general election, he may request the secretary of state in the case of a district office, and the county judge of the county in which the precinct is situated in the case of a precinct office, to make an estimate in advance of the filing deadline of the number of votes cast for that party's candidate for governor within that territory at the last general election, and upon receiving such a request the officer shall make the estimate and notify the candidate and each chairman with whom the candidate files an application. The estimate shall be used as the official basis for computing the number of signatures required on the petition. If an advance estimate is not requested, the chairman with whom the petition is filed shall make the estimate before he acts on the sufficiency of the petition. In every instance, the candidate may challenge the accuracy of the estimate, and if he is dissatisfied with the final decision of the officer he may appeal the decision to any district court in the territory involved. The decision of the district court is final.

(c) The application of a candidate who files a petition under this section must be executed by the candidate personally, and the provision in Section 190 which permits the filing of an application signed by 25 qualified voters is not available to a candidate who files a petition under this section.

(d) The petition shall show in bold print on each page the following: 'PETITION IN LIEU OF FILING FEE TO PLACE THE NAME OF ———— ON THE PRIMARY BALLOT OF ————PARTY FOR THE OFFICE OF ————. PLEASE READ ALL TERMS CAREFULLY,' and the following information with respect to each person signing it: his address, the number of his voter registration certificate for the voting year in which the election is held and also the county of issuance if different from the county in which he resides at the time of signing, and the date of signing.

(e) No petition may contain the name of more than one candidate. No person may sign the petition of more than one candidate for the same office, and if any person signs the application of more than one candidate for the same office, the signature is void as to all such petitions. However, a person may withdraw and annul his signature by delivering to the candidate and to the chairman with whom the petition is filed (or is to be filed, if not then filed), his written request, signed and duly acknowledged by him, that his signature be cancelled and annulled. The request must be delivered not later than five days before the last day for filing the petition. Upon such withdrawal, the person is free to sign the petition of another candidate for the same office in the same party's primary, but the withdrawal does not have the effect of relieving the candidate of his ineligibility to affiliate with some other political party during the voting year in which the election is held. The candidate from whose petition a signature is withdrawn may file additional signatures to replace the withdrawn signature at any time before the filing deadline, but signatures filed after the date of the candidate's application which may be counted toward the required number shall not exceed the number of withdrawn signatures.

(f) To each person who signs a petition there shall be administered the following oath, which shall be reduced to writing and made a part of each page of the petition: "I know the contents of this petition. I am a qualified voter eligible to vote in the forthcoming primary election of the ———— Party for the office for which ———— is a candidate. I have not signed the petition of any other candidate for this office or I have withdrawn my signature for any other candidate in the manner provided by law, and I have not signed the petition of a candidate who is running for any office in the primary of any other party. I understand that by signing this petition I became ineligible to affiliate with any other party or to participate in the primary elections, conventions, or other party affairs of any other party during the voting year in which this election is held."

(g) After a person has signed the petition of a candidate, the person's signature is void as to the petition of any candidate who is running in the primary election of any other party. He also becomes ineligible to affiliate with any other party during the voting year in which the election is held. If he participates or attempts to participate in the primary election or convention of any other party during that voting year, he is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000.

(h) A petition may not be circulated for signatures earlier than 90 days preceding the deadline for filing the petition. Any signature obtained on or before the 91st day preceding the deadline is void. The officer who administers the oath required by Subsection (f) of this section shall verify that the correct date of signing is shown on the petition.

(i) The secretary of state shall prescribe a form for the petition. However, a candidate may use any other form which complies with the requirements of this section.

Subdivision 2. The Secretary of State shall preserve all information received under the provisions of Subdivision 1 of this section as public records of his office, either in the form in which the information is reported to him or in the form of a tabulated statement prepared by him from the reports received from the county chairman, for a period of 10 years, after which time he may transfer the records to the records management division of the State Library for further retention for a period of 20 years. Art. 13.43b. Party rules

Subdivision 1. On a date no later than 30 days prior to the first precinct convention to be held in 1972, each political party with a Statewide organization which made any nomination for the 1970 general election or plans to make any nomination for the 1972 general election shall file with the Secretary of State a set of specific, detailed, and written party rules for the conduct of its conventions, executive meetings, and any other party meetings.

Subd. 2. The rules shall state, or adopt by reference, the rules of parliamentary procedure which govern the conduct of the party's conventions and meetings from the precinct level through the State level, including rules on quorums, methods by which votes shall be cast and counted, the operation of committees, the appointment and duties of convention committees, presentation of delegate nominations, presentation of resolutions and other matters for consideration by a convention, and the method of selecting presidential elector candidates. Further, the rules shall provide for the nomination, election and formulae for representative apportionment within the State of all party officials, convention delegates and alternates, and convention officials, except for those party officials whose election is presently provided by statute. Any formulae for apportionment adopted in the rules of any party must be based upon relative population or party strength within participating units, or both. The rules must provide for the periodic and timely publicizing of such rules, the processes and procedures by which the party rules and procedures must be adopted and amended, and any other matters within the discretion of the party. They may not conflict with any statutory prescription or prohibition, and they need not embrace matters which are regulated by statute.

Subd. 3. The chairman of the State Executive Committee of the party is responsible for filing a copy of the rules with the Secretary of State, but any member of the State Executive Committee may file the rules if the chairman fails to do so. The rules must be certified by the State chairman or by two other members of the State committee as having been adopted at a State Convention of the party, with the date and place of holding the convention shown in the certificate, except that temporary rules for 1972 may be adopted by the State Executive Committee of the party subject to action by the next State Convention as provided in Subdivision 6. These party rules shall be published and made available through State party headquarters to any interested person on request. Such rules may provide for amendment by action of the State Party Executive Committee.

Subd. 4. The rules may be changed only by action of a State Convention. When any change is made, a certified copy of the changes shall be filed with the Secretary of State, in the manner described in Subdivision 3, not later than 30 days following their adoption.

Subd. 5. The rules as filed with the Secretary of State shall govern the conduct of the party's conventions and the meetings of its executive committees. Observance of a rule may be enforced through mandamus proceedings as provided in Section 218 of this code and Chapter 723, Acts of the 60th Legislature, 1967 (Article 1735a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the same as if the rule were embraced in this code.

Subd. 6. If on January 1 of a year in which a general election is held, a party which had nominees on the ballot at either of the last three general elections has not filed a set of rules in accordance with this section, the Secretary of State shall give written notice to the State chairman of the party within 15 days thereafter, informing him that no nominee of the party will be placed on the ballot for the general election that year unless the rules are filed not later than 30 days prior to the first precinct convention to be held that year, provided that for 1972, the State Executive Committee of the party may adopt temporary rules to be ratified in accordance with this subdivision. Any duly constituted, properly representative committee of the party, on authorization of the State chairman or a majority of the State Executive Committee, may draft temporary rules to be put into effect by a majority vote of the State Executive Committee. These temporary rules must be submitted, with advance publicity preceding their presentation, as an item of business on the official agenda of the party's next State Convention for debate, amendment and permanent ratification. The Secretary of State shall notify each county clerk, not later than the date of the general primary election that year, of any such political party which has failed to comply with the requirements of this section. Neither the Secretary of State nor any county clerk may accept a certification of nominations made by a defaulting party for the general election that year, and no nominee of that party may be placed on the ballot for the election.

SUBCHAPTER D. LICENSES

License Required

Section 4.01. All licenses shall be issued between August 31 and December 1 of each year as prescribed by the Commission and shall expire one year from date of issue.

Dealer Application

Sec. 4.02. (a) The application for a dealer license shall be on a form prescribed by the Commission which shall include information on the applicant's financial resources, business integrity, business ability and experience, franchise agreement, physical facilities for sales and service, parts and accessories, inventory, new vehicle inventory and other factors the Commission considers necessary to determine applicant's qualifications to adequately serve the motoring public.

(b) A license may be renewed annually by filing an application on the forms prescribed which shall keep current the information supplied in the original application and by paying the fees.

(c) A dealer may carry on the business of his dealership at more than one location; however, a separate license shall be required for each separate and distinct dealership as determined by the Commission.

(d) A dealer licensed hereunder shall promptly notify the Commission of a change in ownership, location or franchise of a dealer, or any other matters the Commission may require by rule. If a dealer changes location of all or any part of his dealership to another municipality, a new license must be applied for as in any original application.

Manufacturer, Distributor and Representative Application

Sec. 4.03. (a) The application for a manufacturer's, distributor's, or representative's license shall be on a form prescribed by the Commission which form shall contain such information as the Commission deems necessary to fully determine the qualifications of the applicant for a license, including financial resources, business integrity and experience, facilities and personnel for serving dealers and such other information as the Commission considers to be pertinent to safeguard the public interest and welfare.

(b) The applicant for a manufacturer's license shall furnish a list of all distributors, representatives acting for applicant, and all dealers franchised to sell applicant's products in this State and their location and contract term. Thereafter all manufacturers shall advise the Commission within fifteen days of any change in the list of distributors, representatives, and dealers, and this information shall become part of the licensee's application.

(c) Each application for a manufacturer's license shall include an instrument setting forth the terms and conditions of all warranty agreements in force and effect on the products it sells in this State to ascertain the degree of protection afforded the retail purchasers of those products and the obligations of dealers in connection therewith as well as the basis for compensating dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred in connection with such manufacturer's warranty agreements. In addition, all manufacturers shall specify on or with the application the delivery and preparation obligations of their dealers prior to delivery of a new motor vehicle to a retail purchaser and the schedule of compensation to be paid to dealers for the work and service performed by them in connection with such delivery.

(d) The application for a distributor license shall disclose the manufacturer for whom the distributor will act, whether the manufacturer is licensed in this State, the warranty covering the vehicles to be sold, the persons in this State who will be responsible for compliance with that warranty, and the nature and terms of the contract under which the distributor will act for a manufacturer. Also, the application must disclose the dealers with whom the distributor will do business. If the distributor is to have any responsibility for warranties, the distributor shall furnish the same information pertaining thereto as is required of a manufacturer. The Commission shall be advised of any change in this information within fifteen days from the date thereof and such new information shall become part of the licensee's application.

(e) A license may be renewed annually by filing an application on the forms prescribed which shall keep current the information supplied in the original application and by paying the fees.

Doing Business

Sec. 4.04. The obtaining of a license hereunder shall constitute the doing of business in this State, and if no agent for service of process has been designated by a licensee, the licensee will be deemed to have designated the Secretary of State of Texas as his or its agent for receipt of service of process.

Fees

Sec. 4.05. (a) The annual license fees for licenses issued hereunder shall be as follows:

(1) For each manufacturer and distributor, $200.00.

(2) For each dealer who sold more than 200 new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $50.00.

(3) For each dealer who sold 200 or less new motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year, $25.00.

(4) For each representative, $25.00.

(b) If any person fails to apply for a license required hereunder or fails to pay a fee within the time specified, such person shall pay as a penalty 50% of the amount of the fee for each thirty days of default.

Denial, Revocation or Suspension of License

Sec. 4.06. (a) The Commission may deny an application for a license or revoke or suspend an outstanding license, for any of the following reasons:

(1) Proof of unfitness of applicant or licensee under standards set out in this Act or in Commission rules.

(2) Material misrepresentation in any application or other information filed under this Act or Commission rules.

(3) Willful failure to comply with this Act or any rule promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

(4) Failure to maintain the qualifications for a license.

(5) Willfully defrauding any retail buyer to the buyer's damage.

(6) Willful violation of any law relating to the sale, distribution, financing or insuring of new motor vehicles.

(7) Any act or omission by an officer, director, partner, trustee or other person acting in a representative capacity for a licensee which act or omission would be cause for denying, revoking or suspending a license to an individual licensee.

(b) The revocation of a license previously held under this Act may be grounds for denying a subsequent application for a license.

(c) The Commission may deny a dealer application to establish a new dealership in a community or metropolitan area where the same line-make of new motor vehicle is then represented by a dealer who is in compliance with his franchise agreement with the manufacturer or distributor, is adequately representing the manufacturer or distributor in that community or metropolitan area in the sale and service of its new motor vehicles, and no good cause is shown for an additional dealer license in the public interest.

(d) The revocation or suspension of a manufacturer or distributor license may be limited to one or more municipalities or counties or any other defined area, or may be revoked or suspended in a defined area only as to certain aspects of its business, or as to a specified dealer or dealers.

(e) No license shall be denied, revoked, or suspended except on order of the Commission after a hearing and the evidence adduced is considered by the Commission at the hearing or by a hearing report. The Commission may inspect the books and records of a licensee in connection with a hearing called or proposed.

SUBCHAPTER E. PROHIBITIONS

Dealers

Section 5.01. It shall be unlawful for any dealer to:

(1) Require a retail purchaser of a new motor vehicle as a condition of sale and delivery thereof to purchase special features, equipment, parts or accessories not ordered or desired by the purchaser, provided such features, equipment, parts or accessories are not already installed on the new motor vehicle when received by the dealer.

(2) Use false, deceptive or misleading advertising, in connection with any of the business of a dealer, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(3) Fail to perform after complaint and hearing the obligations placed on the selling dealer in connection with the delivery and preparation of a new motor vehicle for retail sale as provided in the manufacturer's preparation and delivery agreements on file with the Commission and applicable to such vehicle.

(4) Fail after complaint and hearing to perform the obligations placed on the dealer in connection with the manufacturer's warranty agreements on file with the Commission.

(5) Operate as a dealer without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

Manufacturers; Distributors; Representatives

Sec. 5.02. It shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, distributor or representative to:

(1) Require or attempt to require any dealer to order, accept delivery of or pay anything of value, directly or indirectly, for any motor vehicle, appliance, part, accessory or any other commodity unless voluntarily ordered or contracted for by such dealer.

(2) Refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order to a dealer having a franchise agreement for the retail sale of any motor vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer, distributor, or representative, any new motor vehicle or parts or accessories to new motor vehicles as are covered by such franchise if such vehicle, parts or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or are actually being delivered; provided, however, this provision is not violated if such failure is caused by acts of God, work stoppage or delays due to strikes or labor disputes, freight embargoes or other causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, distributor, or representative.

(3) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, terminate or refuse to continue any franchise with a dealer unless (A) the dealer and the Commission have received written notice sixty days before the effective date thereof setting forth the specific grounds for termination or noncontinuance and (B) if the dealer files a protest with the Commission, it is established by a preponderance of evidence at a hearing called by the Commission that there is good cause for the termination or noncontinuance. The Commission shall consider all the existing circumstances in determining good cause, including without limitation the dealer's sales in relation to the market, the dealer's investment and obligations, injury to public welfare, adequacy of service facilities, equipment, parts and personnel of the dealer and other dealers of new motor vehicles of the same line-make, whether warranties are being honored, and compliance with the franchise agreement. Good cause shall not be shown solely by a desire for further market penetration. If a franchise is terminated or not continued, another franchise in the same line-make will be established within a reasonable time unless it is shown to the Commission that the community or trade area cannot reasonably support such a dealership. If this showing is made, no dealer license shall be thereafter issued in the same area unless a change in circumstances is shown.

(4) Use any false, deceptive or misleading advertising, as defined in Section 17.12 of the Business and Commerce Code, as amended.

(5) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, prevent any dealer from changing the capital structure of his dealership or the means by or through which he finances the operation thereof, provided that the dealer meets any reasonable capital requirements agreed to by contract of the parties.

(6) Notwithstanding the terms of any franchise agreement, fail to give effect to or attempt to prevent any sale or transfer of a dealer, dealership or franchise or interest therein or management thereof unless it is shown to the Commission after hearing that the result of such sale or transfer will be detrimental to the public or the representation of the manufacturer or distributor.

(7) Require or attempt to require that a dealer assign to or act as an agent for any manufacturer, distributor or representative in the securing of promissory notes and security agreements given in connection with the sale or purchase of new motor vehicles or the securing of policies of insurance on or having to do with the operation of vehicles sold.

(8) Fail, after complaint and hearing, to perform the obligations placed on the manufacturer in connection with the delivery, preparation and warranty of a new motor vehicle as provided in the manufacturer's warranty, preparation, and delivery agreements on file with the Commission.

(9) Fail to compensate its dealers for the work and services they are required to perform in connection with the dealer's delivery and preparation obligations according to the agreements on file with the Commission which must be found by the Commission to be reasonable, or fail to adequately and fairly compensate its dealers for labor, parts and other expenses incurred by such dealer to perform under and comply with manufacturer's warranty agreements. In no event shall any manufacturer or distributor pay its dealers a labor rate per hour for warranty work that is less than that charged by the dealer to the retail customers of the dealer nor shall such labor rate be more than the retail rate. All claims made by dealers for compensation for delivery, preparation, and warranty work shall be paid within thirty days after approval and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty days after receipt. When any claim is disapproved, the dealer shall be notified in writing of the grounds for disapproval. The dealer's delivery, preparation, and warranty obligations as filed with the Commission shall constitute the dealer's sole responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and manufacturer.

(10) Operate as a manufacturer, distributor, or representative without a currently valid license from the Commission or otherwise violate this Act or rules promulgated by the Commission hereunder.

SUBCHAPTER F. ENFORCEMENT

Penalty

Section 6.01. Any person who violates any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission issued pursuant to this Act is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each day of violation and for each act of violation, as the court may deem proper. Sec. 6.04. A suit for injunctive relief or for recovery of a civil penalty or for both may be brought either in the county where the defendant resides or in the county where the violation or threat of violation occurs.

It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Health to make or cause to be made examinations of samples secured under the provisions of this section to determine whether or not any provision of this Act is being violated. Whenever samples are secured by the Commissioner of Health or his agent, an equal amount of the product sampled, may upon request, be given to the person who has custody of the product sampled; payments shall be made only for that portion of the sample actually taken by the said Commissioner or agent.

SUBCHAPTER C. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

* * * * * * * * * * *

Construction Permit

Sec. 3.27. (a) Any person who plans to construct any new facility or to engage in the modification of any existing facility which may emit air contaminants into the air of this State shall apply for and obtain a construction permit from the board before any actual work is begun on the facility. The board may exempt certain facilities or types of facilities from the requirements of Section 3.27 and Section 3.28 if it is found upon investigation that such facilities or types of facilities will not make a significant contribution of air contaminants to the atmosphere.

(b) Along with the application for the permit, the person shall submit copies of all plans and specifications necessary for determining whether the proposed construction will comply with applicable air control standards and the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, together with any other information which the board considers necessary.

(c) If, from the information submitted under subsection (b) of this section, the board finds no indication that the proposed facility will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, including proper consideration of land use, the board shall grant within a reasonable time a permit to construct or modify the facility. If the board finds that the emissions from the proposed facility will contravene these standards or will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, it shall not grant the permit and shall set out in a report to the applicant its specific objections to the submitted plans of the proposed facility.

(d) If the person applying for a permit makes the alterations in his plans and specifications to meet the specific objections of the board, the board shall grant the permit, but the board may refuse to accept new applications by a person until all previous objections of the board to the previously submitted plans of that person are rectified. If the person fails or refuses to alter the plans and specifications, the board shall refuse to grant the permit.

(e) A permit granted under this section may be revoked by the board if the board later determines that any of the terms of the permit are being violated or that emissions from the proposed facility will contravene air pollution control standards set by the board or will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act.

(f) The board or the executive director may seek an injunction in a court of competent jurisdiction to halt work on a facility which is being done without a permit issued under this section or is in violation of the terms of a permit issued under this section.

(g) The powers and duties set out in Section 3.27 and Section 3.28 may be delegated by the board to the executive director. The applicant may appeal to the board any decision made by the executive director under these sections.

(h) Provided, however, that at the time this Act becomes effective no provision of this Act shall apply where any person, firm, partnership or corporation has let any contract, or begun any construction for any addition, alteration or modification to any new or existing facility. Any contracts under this subsection shall have a beginning construction date no later than six months after the effective date of this Act to qualify for this exemption.

Operating Permit

Sec. 3.28. (a) If a permit to construct is issued, then within sixty days after the facility has begun operation, the person in charge of the facility shall apply for an operating permit. The board may require the submission of monitoring data to demonstrate compliance with applicable rules and regulations and with the Texas Clean Air Act in support of the application for an operating permit. If start-up or testing requires more than sixty days, this period may be extended by the board.

(b) When all stipulations of the construction permit are met and the operation of the facility will not contravene air pollution control standards set by the board or will not contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act, the board shall issue within a reasonable time the operating permit.

(c) If the board determines that the operation of such a facility will contravene the air pollution control standards set by the board or will contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act it shall set out in a report to the applicant the specific objections which it finds to the facility and shall not grant the permit.

(d) The board shall refuse to accept new applications by a person for an operating permit until all the previous objections to that facility submitted by the board are rectified.

(e) A permit issued under this section may be revoked by the board if the board later determines that any of the terms of the permit are being violated or that emissions from the facility contravene air pollution control standards set by the board or contravene the intent of the Texas Clean Air Act.

(f) The board or the executive director may seek an injunction in a court of competent jurisdiction to halt the operation of any facility which is operating without a permit issued under this section or which is operating in violation of the terms of a permit issued under this section.

Art. 4477—7. Solid Waste Disposal Act

* * * * * * * * * * *

State agencies; authority and powers; permits

Sec. 4.

(e) Except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section with respect to certain industrial solid wastes, each state agency has the power to require and issue permits authorizing and governing the operation and maintenance of sites used for the disposal of solid waste. This power may be exercised by a state agency only with respect to the solid waste over which it has jurisdiction under this Act. If this power is exercised by a state agency, that state agency shall prescribe the form of and reasonable requirements for the permit application and the procedures to be followed in processing the application, to the extent not otherwise provided for in this subsection. The following additional provisions apply if a state agency exercises the power authorized in this subsection:

(1) The state agency to whom the permit application is submitted shall mail a copy of the application or a summary of its contents to the Texas Air Control Board, to the other state agency, to the mayor and health authorities of any city or town within whose extraterritorial jurisdiction the solid waste disposal site is located, and to the county judge and health authorities of the county in which the site is located. The governmental entities to whom the information is mailed shall have a reasonable time, as prescribed by the state agency to whom the application was originally submitted, to present comments and recommendations on the permit application before that state agency acts on the application.

(2) A separate permit shall be issued for each site. The permit shall include the names and addresses of the person who owns the land where the waste disposal site is located and the person who is or will be the operator or person in charge of the site; a legal description of the land on which the site is located; and the terms and conditions on which the permit is issued, including the duration of the permit.

(3) The state agency may extend or renew any permit it issues in accordance with reasonable procedures prescribed by the state agency. The procedures prescribed in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e) for permit applications apply also to applications to extend or renew a permit.

(4) Before a permit is issued, extended, or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted shall issue notice and hold a hearing in the manner provided for other hearings held by the agency.

(5) Before a permit is issued, extended, or renewed, the state agency to which the application is submitted may require the permittee to execute a bond or give other financial assurance conditioned on the permittee's satisfactorily closing the disposal site on final abandonment.

(6) If a permit is issued, renewed, or extended by a state agency in accordance with this Subsection (e), the owner or operator of the site does not need to obtain a license for the same site from a county, or from a political subdivision exercising the authority granted in Section 6 of this Act.

(7) A permit is issued in personam and does not attach to the realty to which it relates. A permit may not be transferred without prior notice to and prior approval by the state agency which issued it.

(8) The state agency has the authority, for good cause, after hearing with notice to the permittee and to the governmental entities named in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection (e), to revoke or amend any permit it issues for reasons pertaining to public health, air or water pollution, land use, or violation of this Act or of any other applicable laws or regulations controlling the disposal of solid waste.

* * * * * * * * * * *

County powers

Sec. 5. (a) Every county has the solid waste management powers which are enumerated in this Section 5. However, the exercise of the licensing authority and other powers granted to counties by this Act does not preclude the department or the board from exercising any of the powers vested in the department or the board under other provisions of this Act, including specifically the provisions authorizing the department and the board to issue permits for the operation and maintenance of sites for the disposal of solid waste. The powers specified in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section and Section 18 of House Bill No. 727, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, 1971, may not be exercised by a county with respect to the industrial solid waste disposal practices and areas to which Subsection (f) of Section 4 of this Act applies. The board, by specific action or directive, may supersede any authority or power granted to or exercised by a county under this Act, but only with respect to those matters which are, under this Act, within the jurisdiction of the state agency acting.

Art. 4477—8. County solid waste control act

Sec. 2. This Act may be cited as the "County Solid Waste Control Act."

(f) "County" means any county in the state.

(g) "Solid waste disposal system" means any plant, composting process plant, incinerator, sanitary landfill, or other works and equipment not specifically mentioned herein which is acquired, installed, or operated for the purpose of collecting, handling, storing, treating, neutralizing, stabilizing, or disposing of solid waste, including sites therefor.

(h) The terms "solid waste," "sanitary landfill," and "composting" shall have meanings as set forth in the Solid Waste Disposal Act, as amended (compiled as Article 4477—7, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Disposal systems; acquisition, etc., purchase, sale or operating agreements; leases

Sec. 4. A county may acquire, construct, improve, enlarge, extend, repair, operate, or maintain all or any part of one or more solid waste disposal systems, and may make contracts with any person under which the county will collect, transport, handle, store, or dispose of solid waste for such person. A county may also enter into contracts with any person to purchase or sell, by installments over such term as may be deemed desirable, or otherwise, all or any part of any solid waste disposal system. A county is also authorized to enter into operating agreements with any person, for such terms and upon such conditions as may be deemed desirable, for the operation of all or any part of any solid waste disposal system by any person or by the county; and a county may lease to or from any person, for such term and upon such conditions as may be deemed desirable, all or any part of any solid waste disposal system.

Eminent domain

Sec. 5. A county shall have the power and right to acquire by purchase, lease, gift, condemnation, or in any other manner, and to own, maintain, use, and operate any and all property of any kind, real, personal, or mixed, or any interest therein necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers and purposes authorized by this Act. Such power of eminent domain shall be restricted to the respective county and be exercised in the manner provided in the laws applicable or available to counties.

Public agencies; contracts with county for disposal services; authorization

Sec. 6. Public agencies are hereby authorized to make contracts with a county under which the county will make all or any part of a solid waste disposal system available to a public agency or group of public agencies or to other persons and furnish solid waste collection, transportation, handling, storage, or disposal services by the county's system. The contract may be upon such terms and for such periods of time as the parties may agree and may provide that it will remain in effect until any bonds issued or to be issued by the county, and any bonds which may be issued to refund the same, are paid; the contract may contain provisions to assure equitable treatment of parties who contract with the county for solid waste collection, transportation, handling, storage, or disposal services from all or any part of the same solid waste disposal system; shall provide the method of determining the amounts to be paid by the public agency to the county; may provide for the sale or lease to or use of by the county of any solid waste disposal system or any part thereof at the time owned or to be acquired by the public agency; may provide that the county shall operate any solid waste disposal system or part thereof at the time owned or to be acquired by the public agency; may provide that the public agency shall have the right to continued performance of such services after the amortization of the county's investment in the disposal system during the useful life thereof upon payments of reasonable charges therefor, reduced to take into consideration such amortization; and may contain such other provisions and requirements as the county and the public agency may determine to be appropriate or necessary. A city may also provide in its contract that the county shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, and public ways and places within the city during the term of the contract.

Payments by public agency to county for disposal services; sources

Sec. 7. Payments by a public agency to the county for solid waste collection, transportation, handling, storage, or disposal services may be made from the income of the public agency's solid waste disposal fund as may be prescribed in the contract between the county and the public agency. Such payments shall constitute an operating expense of such fund the revenues of which are thus to be applied. Payments to be made under the contract by the public agency may also be made from the revenues of the public agency's water, sewer, electric, gas, or any combination of utility systems, but in such event shall be subordinate to amounts required to be paid from the revenues of such system or systems for principal of and interest on bonds of the public agency which are outstanding at the time of the making of the contract and which are payable from such revenues unless the ordinance or resolution authorizing such outstanding bonds of the public agency expressly reserves the right to accord such contract payments a position of parity with, or a priority over, such public agency's bond requirements. Unless the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 8 is followed, neither the county nor a holder of any bonds of the county shall have the right to demand payment of the public agency's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation. If the alternative procedure prescribed in Section 8 is followed, payments under the contract may be payable from and constitute solely an obligation against the taxing powers of the public agency or may be payable both from taxes and from such revenues as may be prescribed in the contract.

Alternative procedure for payments by public agency to county: Bond election; taxes

Sec. 8. (a) If an election is held substantially according to applicable procedure prescribed in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended [1], in reference to the issuance of bonds by cities, by a public agency having taxing powers, and in such election it is determined that the governing body of the public agency is authorized to levy an ad valorem tax to pay all or a portion of the payments to be made by the public agency under a contract between the public agency and a county to be authorized by the governing body of the public agency, the contract, in such event, will constitute an obligation against the taxing power of the public agency to the extent therein provided. No election is required for the exercise of any power conferred by this Act except for the levy of such tax.

(b) Only qualified electors of the public agency shall be entitled to vote at such election. Except as otherwise provided in this section and in said Chapter 1, Title 22, the general election code [2] shall govern such election.

[1] Article 701 et seq.

[2] V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 1.01 et seq.

Payments by public agency to county from solid waste disposal fund; adjustment of rates for adequate revenue

Sec. 9. Whenever a public agency shall have executed a contract with a county under this Act and the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the public agency's solid waste disposal fund, the duty is hereby imposed on the public agency to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the public agency to the end that the revenues therefrom, together with any taxes levied in support thereof, will be sufficient at all times to pay the expense of operating and maintaining such service or system, all of the public agency's obligations to the county under the contract, and all of the public agency's obligations under and in connection with bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter, secured by revenues of such service or system. The contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the public agency whether and when such rates are to be adjusted.

Rendering of disposal services concurrently to more than one person; contracts; allocation of cost

Sec. 10. Any contract or group of contracts under this Act may provide for services to be rendered concurrently by the county to more than one person relating to the construction or operation of all or any part of a solid waste disposal system and provide that the cost of such services shall be allocated among the several persons as determined in the contract or group of contracts.

Bonds; pledge of revenues from contracts

Sec. 11. For the purpose of acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending, and repairing all or any part of a solid waste disposal system or systems, a county is authorized to issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues to accrue under any contract or contracts made under this Act and from any other income pledged by the county. Said bonds shall constitute investment securities governed by Chapter Eight, Uniform Commercial Code [1], and shall be in such form and denomination and shall bear such rate or rates of interest as are prescribed by the governing body of the county. A county is likewise authorized to refund any bonds issued under this Act upon such terms and conditions and bearing such rate or rates of interest as the governing body may prescribe. Said bonds may be sold at such price or prices and upon the terms determined by the governing body of the county at public or private sale or may be exchanged for property of any kind, real, personal, or mixed, or any interest therein deemed by the governing body of the county to be necessary or convenient to the purposes authorized by this Act. Pending the issuance of definitive bonds, a county may issue negotiable interim bonds or obligations eligible for exchange or substitution by use of definitive bonds.

[1] V.T.C.A. Bus. & C. § 8.101 et seq.

Collection of rates and charges to maintain adequate revenue; allocation of bond proceeds

Sec. 12. While any such bonds are outstanding, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the county to fix, maintain, and collect rates and charges for services furnished or made available by the solid waste disposal system adequate to pay maintenance and operation costs of and expenses allocable to the solid waste disposal system and the principal of and interest on such bonds and to provide and maintain the funds created by the resolution authorizing the bonds. Interest to accrue on the bonds, administrative expenses to estimated date when the solid waste disposal system will become revenue producing, and reserve funds created by the resolution authorizing the bonds may be set aside out of bond proceeds.

Establishment of disposal service as a utility; use of service; fees; enforcement of collection

Sec. 13. Any public agency or any county may offer solid waste disposal service to persons within its boundaries, may require the use of such service by any or all such persons, may charge fees therefor, and may establish said service as a utility separate from other utilities within its boundaries. To aid in enforcing collection of fees for such solid waste disposal service, any public agency or county may suspend service from any or all other utilities owned or operated by it to any person who may become delinquent in payment of solid waste disposal service fees until such delinquency has been paid in full.

Approval of bonds and contracts; registration; validation

Sec. 14. After any bonds are authorized to be issued by a county pursuant to the powers provided in this Act, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance may be submitted to the Attorney General for his examination as to the validity thereof. Where such bonds recite that they are secured by pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts between the county and a public agency, a copy of such contract and the proceedings of the public agency authorizing same may also be submitted to the Attorney General. If the Attorney General finds that such bonds have been authorized and the contracts have been made in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve the bonds and such contracts; and the bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Thereafter, the bonds and contracts, if any, shall be valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause. In lieu of, or in addition to, such approval by the Attorney General, the board of directors of the district may have any such bonds validated by suit in the District Court in the manner and with the effect provided in Chapter 316, Acts of the 56th Legislature [1]. The interest rate and sale price of the bonds need not be fixed until after the termination of the validation proceedings or suit. If the proposed bonds recite that they are secured by the proceeds of a contract or contracts made by the district and one or more public agencies, the petition shall so allege; and the notice of the suit shall mention such allegation and each public agency's fund or revenues from which such contract or contracts are payable. Such suit shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem. The judgment shall be res adjudicata as to the validity of such bonds and any such contract or contracts and the pledge of revenues thereof.

Investment of bond proceeds

Sec. 15. Proceeds from the sale of bonds may be invested, pending their use, in such securities or time deposits as are specified in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture securing them; and the earnings on such investments may be applied as provided in such resolution or trust indenture.

Bonds as legal investments and security for deposits

Sec. 16. All bonds issued under this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, school districts, or any other political corporation or subdivision of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposits of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and of any political subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Relocation of highways, railroads, or utility facilities at county expense

Sec. 17. In the event that any county, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the county. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Regulations; ordinances; guidelines; adoption procedures

Sec. 18. (a) Subject to the limitation prescribed in Subsection (a), Section 5, Solid Waste Disposal Act [1], a county, acting through its commissioners court, may make regulations for the areas of the county not within the territorial limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of incorporated cities and towns to provide for governing and controlling solid waste collection, handling, storage, and disposal. The regulations shall not authorize any activity, method of operation, or procedure which is prohibited by the Solid Waste Disposal Act or by the rules and regulations of the State Department of Health or the Texas Water Quality Board or the board. The county shall not, in its regulations, under the licensing power granted in the Solid Waste Disposal Act, or otherwise, impose any unreasonable requirements on the disposal of such solid waste in the county not warranted by the circumstances. The county may prohibit the disposal of any solid waste within the county if the disposal of the solid waste is a threat to the public health, safety, and welfare. The county may institute legal proceedings to enforce its regulations.

(b) To prohibit the disposal of solid waste within the county, the commissioners court must adopt an ordinance in the general form as prescribed for municipal ordinances specifically designating the area of the county in which the disposal of solid waste shall not be prohibited, unless such county has adopted solid waste disposal guidelines approved by the State Department of Health.

(c) The ordinance required in Subsection (b) of this section may be passed on first reading; however, such proposed ordinance must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county for two consecutive weeks before such proposed ordinance is taken up by the Commissioners court, and such publication shall contain:

(1) a statement of the time, place, and date such proposed ordinance shall be considered by the commissioners court, and

(2) notice that any interested citizen of the county may testify at such hearing.

(d) A public hearing shall be had on the proposed ordinance before it is considered by the commissioners court, and any interested citizen of the county shall be allowed to testify.

Section 2 of the 1971 amendatory act repealed conflicting laws and contained a severability provision.

Art. 4494r—2. Issuance of revenue bonds in counties of 200,000 or more

Section 1. The commissioners court of every county containing a population of 200,000 or more, according to the last preceding federal census, wherein there exists a hospital district which has been created by law pursuant to any Section of Article IX of the Texas Constitution shall be authorized and have the power to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, repair, renovate, improve, enlarge, and/or equip any hospital facilities, and to acquire any real or personal property in connection therewith, for and on behalf of said hospital district. Provided however, that there shall be no authority to issue such revenue bonds on behalf of a hospital district for the purchase of nursing homes for long term care. Such commissioners court shall be authorized to issue said revenue bonds to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of the revenues and income of every nature derived by the hospital district from the operation and/or ownership of its hospital facilities (exclusive of ad valorem taxes). Also, the commissioners court shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of said bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise. Said bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages and deeds of trust on any real property on which any hospital facilities of the hospital district are or will be located, and any real or personal property incident or appurtenant to said facilities, and the commissioners court may authorize the execution and delivery of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence same. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not to exceed 40 years from their date. In the authorization of any such bonds, the commissioners court may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, or other types of bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the order authorizing the issuance of said bonds, all within the discretion of the commissioners court. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (provided that such bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at any rate or rates, all as shall be determined and provided by the commissioners court in the order authorizing the issuance of said bonds. If so permitted in the bond order, any required part of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest thereon during the period of the construction of any hospital facilities to be provided through the issuance of said bonds, and for the payment of operation and maintenance expenses of said facilities to the extent, and for the period of time, specified in said bond order, and also for the creation of reserves for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds; and such moneys may be invested, until needed, to the extent, and in the manner provided, in said bond order. The commissioners court or the board of hospital managers or directors of the hospital district shall be authorized to fix and collect charges for the occupancy or use of any of said hospital facilities, and the services thereof, in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by such commissioners court or board; and such charges shall be fixed and collected in such amounts as will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with said bonds, and, to the extent required by the bond order, to provide for payment of all or any part of the operation, maintenance, and other expenses of the hospital facilities. The commissioners court or the board of hospital managers or directors of the hospital district shall make provision in each annual hospital district budget for the payment of all operation and maintenance expenses of the hospital district. In preparing the budget, the commissioners court or board may take into consideration the estimated excess revenues and income from hospital facilities that will be available for paying operation and maintenance expenses after providing for all principal, interest, and reserve requirements in connection with said bonds. To the extent that such excess revenues and income are not available at any time to make payment of all operation and maintenance expenses of the hospital district, ad valorem taxes of the hospital district shall be used to make such payment, and the proceeds of an annual ad valorem tax may be pledged for such payment in the order authorizing the issuance of said bonds. If such annual ad valorem tax is thus pledged it shall be the duty of the commissioners court, during each year while any of said bonds are outstanding, to compute and ascertain a rate and amount of ad valorem tax which will be sufficient to raise and produce the money required to make the aforesaid payment of operation and maintenance expenses to the extent required; and said tax shall be based on the latest approved tax rolls of the hospital district, with full allowance being made for tax delinquencies and the cost of tax collection. Said rate and amount of ad valorem tax shall be levied, and ordered to be levied, against all taxable property in the hospital district, for each year while any of said bonds are outstanding; and said tax shall be assessed and collected each such year and used for such purpose to the extent so required. Said rate and amount of ad valorem tax shall be levied and ordered to be levied against all taxable property within the hospital district subject to hospital district taxation for each year while any of said bonds are outstanding; and said tax shall be assessed and collected each such year and used for such purposes to the extent so required.

Art. 4494r—4. Adoption of tax rolls by hospital districts; board of equalization; assessment and collection of taxes

Section 1. That hospital districts organized pursuant to the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, may prepare and adopt their own tax rolls. Prior to the levy of any taxes, the governing board of the hospital district shall appoint a board of equalization to be composed of five (5) resident property owners of the district and cause property to be assessed, evaluated, and equalized and the tax rolls to be prepared. The taxes of the hospital district shall be assessed and collected upon all taxable property situated within the district, subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the county in which the hospital district is located, or the hospital district may appoint its own assessor and collector of taxes for the hospital district. Such taxes shall be assessed, equalized, and collected in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes, except as herein provided.

Sec. 2. If the hospital district prepares its first tax rolls, and the normal rendition period for county taxes has expired, the governing board of the hospital district shall give thirty (30) days written notice to all property owners to render their property to the hospital district's tax assessor and collector. After this period, the hospital district shall appoint its board of equalization who shall then proceed to equalize the taxes and establish the tax rolls as soon as possible.

CHAPTER SIX—MEDICINE

Art. 4501. [5739] Examination

All applicants for license to practice medicine in this State not otherwise licensed under the provisions of law must successfully pass an examination by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners. The Texas State Board of Medical Examiners is authorized to adopt and enforce rules of procedure not inconsistent with the statutory requirements. An applicant, to be eligible for the examination, must be a citizen of the United States, or have filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen, and must present satisfactory proof to the Board that he is at least twenty-one (21) years of age, of good moral character, who has completed sixty (60) semester hours of college courses other than in medical school, which courses would be acceptable, at the time of completing same, to the University of Texas for credit on a Bachelor of Arts Degree or a Bachelor of Science Degree, and who is a graduate of a medical school or college which was approved by the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners at the time the degree of Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathy was conferred. Application for examination must be made in writing verified by affidavit, and filed with the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners on forms prescribed by the said Board, accompanied by a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50). All applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of such examination; provided that the partial examinations provided for in Article 4503 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas shall not be disturbed by this Article. Provided further that all students regularly enrolled in medical schools whose graduates are now permitted to take the medical examination prescribed by law in this State shall upon completion of their medical college courses be permitted to take the examination prescribed herein. If any applicant, because of failure to pass the required examination, shall be refused a license, he or she, at such time as the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners may fix, shall be permitted to take a subsequent examination, upon such subjects required in the original examination as the Board may prescribe, upon the payment of such part of Fifty Dollars ($50) as the Board may determine to be reasonable. In the event satisfactory grades shall be made on the subjects prescribed and taken on such re-examination, the Board may grant the applicant a license to practice medicine. The Board shall determine the credit to be given examinees on answers turned in on the subjects of complete and partial examination, and its decision thereon shall be final. Provided, however, the Secretary may issue a temporary license to practice medicine to an applicant only after he has filed his completed application, together with an additional fee of Ten Dollars ($10), with the Secretary of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, and that all of the other requirements as required for a permanent license are complied with; such temporary license shall be valid only until the date of the next Board meeting, and at that date the temporary license automatically expires, and is of no further effect. If the applicant fails the examination, no further permit shall be issued until he has successfully passed the examination, or is eligible for and has been granted reciprocity.

Art. 4550a. Application, Registration Fund, and Secretary

1. It shall be the duty of all persons now lawfully qualified and engaged in the practice of dentistry in this State, or who shall hereafter be licensed for such practice by the State Board of Dental Examiners, to annually apply and to be registered as such practitioners with the State Board of Dental Examiners on or before March 1st of each calendar year. Each person so registering shall pay in connection with such annual registration for the receipt hereinafter provided for, a fee of not less than Twelve Dollars ($12) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50) as determined by said Board according to the needs of said Board, such payment to be made by each licensee to such Board, and every person so registering shall file with said Board a written application setting forth such facts as the Board may require. Upon receipt of such applications, accompanied by such fees, said Board, after ascertaining either from its records or other sources deemed by it to be reliable, that the applicant is a duly licensed practitioner of dentistry in this State, shall issue to the applicant an annual registration certificate or receipt certifying that he has filed such application and has paid the required fee; provided, that the filing of such application, the payment of such fee, and the issuance of such receipt therefor, shall not entitle the holder thereof to lawfully practice dentistry within the State of Texas unless he has in fact been previously licensed as such practitioner by the State Board of Dental Examiners, as provided by this law, and has duly recorded his license in the county or counties in which the same may be required by law to be recorded, and unless said license is in full force and effect; and provided further, that in any prosecution for the unlawful practice of dentistry such receipt showing payment of the annual registration fee required by this chapter shall not be treated as evidence that the holder thereof is lawfully entitled to practice dentistry.

2. If any person required to register as a practitioner of dentistry under the provisions hereof shall fail or refuse to apply for such registration and pay such fee or or before March 1st of each calendar year, as hereinabove set forth, his license to practice dentistry, issued to him, shall thereafter stand suspended so that thereafter in practicing dentistry, he shall be subject to the penalties imposed by law upon any person unlawfully practicing dentistry. Provided, that such license shall be reinstated at any time within three years upon written application of the holder made to said Board with such information or facts which the Board may require, accompanied by the payment of the annual registration fees in arrears and an additional fee of Five Dollars ($5). Any license or certificate issued by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners shall be subject to cancellation for failure to pay all annual registration fees required by law where such license or certificate holder shall have failed to register and pay such fees for three consecutive years. A revocation to be valid for failure to pay such fees shall be based upon written notice to such person at his last known address not less than 90 days prior to the date of hearing and intended cancellation if not so paid. Upon such cancellation the Board, in its discretion in each instance, may reinstate such person's license or certificate upon an affirmative showing by such person that he or she has the degree of professional skill and knowledge currently required of such licensees or certificate holders, and that such person is not mentally or physically incompetent and has not been guilty of any immoral or unprofessional conduct. Provided, however, that the requirements governing the payment of the annual registration fees and penalties for late registration shall not apply to licensees who are on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States of America, and are not engaged in private or civilian practice.

3. All annual registration fees collected by the State Board of Dental Examiners under this Act shall be placed in the State Treasury every thirty (30) days, as collected, to the credit of a special fund to be known as the "Dental Registration Fund," and all expenditures from this fund shall be on order of the State Board of Dental Examiners, on warrants issued by the State Comptroller for the purposes and in the amounts fixed by the Legislature in the General Appropriations Bills. The State Board of Dental Examiners shall be authorized to employ and to compensate from such special funds employees and such other persons as may be found necessary to assist the local prosecuting officers of any county in the enforcement of all laws of the State prohibiting the unlawful practice of dentistry, and to carry out the other purposes for which said fund is hereby appropriated. Provided, that all such prosecutions shall be subject to the direction and control of the regularly and duly constituted prosecuting officers, and nothing in this Act shall be construed as depriving them of any authority vested in them by law.

4. The proceeding on appeal shall be under the substantial evidence rule.

(d) The Board may, upon majority vote, rule that the order revoking, cancelling, or suspending the practitioner's license be probated so long as the probationer conforms to such orders and rules as the Board may set out as the terms of probation. The Board, at the time of probation, shall set out the period of time constituting the probationary period.

(e) At any time while the probationer remains on probation, the Board may hold a hearing and, upon majority vote, rescind the probation if the terms of the probation have been violated, and enforce the Board's original action in revoking, cancelling, or suspending the practitioner's license. The hearing to rescind the probation shall be called by the President of the Texas State Board of Podiatry Examiners, who shall cause to be issued a notice setting a time and place for the hearing and containing the charges or complaints against the probationer. The notice shall be served on the probationer or his counsel, and any person or persons complaining of the probationer or their counsel, at least ten (10) days prior to the time set for the hearing. When personal service is impossible, or cannot be effected, the same provisions for service in lieu of personal service set out in Subsection (b) of this Article shall apply. The respondent and any person or persons complaining of the respondent have the right to appear at the hearing either personally or by counsel, or both, to produce witnesses or evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the Board. The Board may also issue subpoenas on its own motion. The subpoenas of the Board may be enforced through any district court having jurisdiction and venue in the county where the hearing is held. Sec. 2. A. There is hereby created the State Board of Morticians, with offices located in Austin, Texas, consisting of six (6) members who shall be citizens of the United States and residents of the State of Texas, and shall be licensed embalmers and funeral directors in the State of Texas. Each shall have a minimum of ten (10) years, consecutively, of such experience in this state immediately preceding appointment. The members of said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate for a period of six (6) years. Each member shall be subject to removal by the Governor for neglect of duty, incompetence, or fraudulent or dishonest conduct. The Governor shall remove from the Board any member whose license to practice funeral directing and/or embalming has been voided, revoked or suspended. The Governor, in appointing members to the Board, shall designate their terms so that two (2) places on the Board shall become vacant each two (2) years. Any vacancy in an unexpired term shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term. No member of the Board shall be appointed for more than two (2) terms of service. No member shall be appointed to the Board who is an officer or employee of a corporation or other business entity controlling or operating, directly or indirectly, more than three funeral establishments, if another member of the Board is also an officer or employee of the same corporation or other business entity.

B. The members of said Board, before entering upon their duties, shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for other state officials, which oath shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, after having been administered under proper authority. Each person appointed to the Board shall be furnished with a certificate of appointment by the Governor which shall bear evidence of the taking of oath of office.

C. The Board shall meet in Austin, Texas, in regular session at least two (2) times each year for the transaction of business. Examination for funeral directors and embalmers shall be held at least once during each year at such times and places as the Board may designate and give due notice thereof. Special meetings or hearings may be held at such time and place as may be determined by and upon call of the President, Vice-President or three (3) members of the Board.

D. The Board shall elect a President, Vice-President, and Secretary from the members of the said Board who shall serve two (2) years, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. In the absence of an Executive Secretary, the Secretary shall be bonded to the State of Texas in a sum equal to the maximum annual anticipated receipts of the Board and any premium payable for such bond shall be paid from the funds of the Board; likewise, the Board will require a bond of the Executive Secretary, if any, and such bond shall be deposited with the State Auditor of the State of Texas. The Secretary shall deliver all money on hand at the end of his term of office to his successor, and the Executive Secretary shall deliver all money on hand to the Secretary upon relief from duty. The President of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board unless otherwise ordered, and he shall exercise all duties and performances incident to the office of the President of the Board, and in his absence the Vice-President shall preside. A majority of the membership of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

E. The Board shall make an annual report covering the work of the Board for the preceding fiscal year, and such report shall include:

1. An itemized account of money received and expended and the purpose therefor which has been duly certified by the State Auditor or a Certified Public Accountant;

2. The names of all duly licensed funeral directors, embalmers, and funeral establishments. A copy of this report shall be furnished each licensed funeral director and embalmer in this state. A copy shall likewise be filed with the Secretary of State for permanent record, a certified copy of which, under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts.

F. The Board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose.

G. The Board shall keep a permanent, alphabetical record of all applications for licenses and the action thereon. Such records shall also show, at all times, the current status of all such applications and licenses issued.

H. The Board may employ such inspectors, and clerical and technical assistants, legal counsel, including an Executive Secretary, as may be determined by it to be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, and the terms, conditions and expenses of such employment shall be determined by the Board.

I. Membership of the Board shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling expenses incident to attendance upon the business of the Board, and in addition thereto, each shall receive a per diem allowance of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each day actually spent by such member upon attendance to the business of the Board, not to exceed fifty (50) days within a calendar year. The Secretary, in the absence of an Executive Secretary, notwithstanding membership on the Board, shall receive and be paid a salary for the time he devotes to the business of the Board, and the amount and method of payment shall be fixed by the Board and in addition thereto, he shall receive necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of such duty; provided, however, he shall not be paid a per diem allowance during the time he is compensated on a salary basis; and provided that all such expenses, per diem allowance and compensation shall be paid out of the receipts of the Board. All fees received under the provisions of this law in excess of the necessary and proper expenses of the Board shall be held by the Secretary of the Board as a special fund with which to pay the expense of the Board in administering and enforcing this Act. No claim for traveling expenses or per diem allowance shall be allowed or paid unless the claim be in writing and signed by the claimant under oath.

J. Except as otherwise provided by law, all records of the Board shall be open to inspection by the public during regular office hours.

K. All meetings of the Board shall be open and public.

L. The Board shall prescribe the form of the official application blank. It shall notify the proprietor of each licensed funeral establishment in this state that any person who seeks employment as a funeral director or embalmer must fill in this application blank, and that the person receiving the application must mail a copy of the official form to the Board. The Board shall inform the prospective employer of the status of the applicant's license to engage in the activity he proposes.

M. The Board may adopt such administrative procedures as may be desirable to effect the intent of the provisions of this Section.

Licenses—funeral directors and embalmers

Sec. 3. A. The Board is hereby authorized and empowered and it shall be its duty to prescribe and maintain a standard of proficiency, character and qualifications of those engaged or who may engage in the practice of a funeral director or embalmer and to determine the qualifications necessary to enable any person to lawfully practice as a funeral director, to embalm dead human bodies, and to collect the fees therefor. The Board shall examine all applicants for funeral directors' and embalmers' licenses and for apprenticeship licenses and shall issue the proper license to all persons qualified and who meet requirements herein prescribed.

B. The minimum requirements for the issuance of licenses by this Board to practice funeral directing and/or embalming in Texas are as follows, to wit:

1. For a license to practice funeral directing: the applicant shall be found by the Board to be not less than twenty-one (21) years of age, a resident of the State of Texas, and a citizen of the United States, of good moral character, having graduated from an accredited high school or passed examination prescribed by the Texas Education Agency from an accredited school or college of mortuary science approved by this Board, having served as an apprentice for at least one (1) year under the personal supervision and instruction of a licensed funeral director and having satisfied the Board through oral and written examination as to his proficiency by examination on the subjects of: (a) the art and technique of funeral directing; (b) signs of death; (c) the manner by which death may be determined; (d) sanitation; (e) hygiene; (f) mortuary management and mortuary law; (g) business and professional ethics; (h) laws applicable to vital statistics pertaining to dead human bodies; (i) rules and laws governing preparation, transportation and disposition of dead human bodies; and such other subjects as may be taught in a recognized school or college of mortuary science.

2. For a license to practice embalming: the applicant shall have been found by the Board to be not less than twenty-one (21) years of age, a resident of the State of Texas, and a citizen of the United States, of a good moral character having graduated from an accredited high school or passed examination prescribed by the Texas Education Agency, having graduated from an accredited school or college of mortuary science approved by this Board, having served as an apprentice for two (2) years under the personal supervision of a licensed embalmer, and having satisfied the Board as to his proficiency through oral and written examination on the subjects of: (a) anatomy of the human body; (b) the cavities of the human body; (c) the arterial and venous system of the human body; (d) blood and discoloration; (e) bacteriology and hygiene; (f) pathology; (g) chemistry and embalming; (h) arterial and cavity embalming; (i) restorative art; (j) disinfecting; (k) embalming special cases; (l) contagious and infectious diseases; (m) mortuary management; (n) care, preservation, transportation and disposition of dead human bodies; (o) laws applicable to vital statistics pertaining to dead human bodies; (p) sanitary science; and such other subjects as may be taught in a recognized school or college of mortuary science, and shall at the request of the Board, demonstrate his proficiency as embalmer.

C. The Board is hereby authorized and empowered and it shall be its duty to approve a course of instruction to be given by any college of mortuary science or recognized school of higher learning that desires to be approved by the Board. And it shall be the duty of the Board to examine and supervise the activities of an accredited school or college of mortuary science so as to insure that said college or school is meeting the requirements of the Board.

D. It shall be the duty of the Board to prescribe and supervise the course of instruction received by an apprentice while serving his or her apprenticeship, consistent with the following requirements to establish such an apprenticeship registration procedure:

1. Apprenticeship for embalmer: A license to practice the science of embalming shall not be issued unless and until the applicant therefor has served an apprenticeship period of not less than twenty-four (24) months under the personal supervision and instruction of a licensed embalmer and has successfully completed all requirements of apprenticeship. The only exception to this requirement shall be in the case of an applicant under reciprocity.

(a) Any person, eighteen (18) years of age or more, who desires to practice the science of embalming in this state, files application therefor, meets the requirements of the law and this Board, and, in the discretion of the Board, is of good moral character and possesses such qualification to enter into apprenticeship training, may be registered as an apprentice. Apprenticeship for a license to practice the science of embalming may be served in two ways: (1) the applicant may apply for and serve twelve (12) months apprenticeship before entry into a school of embalming or college of mortuary science, and the remaining twelve (12) months after graduation from such school or college and after successfully taking the Board's examination for embalming as prescribed herein; or (2) the applicant may serve the full twenty-four (24) months period after completing and graduating from a school or college of mortuary science and after successfully taking the Board's examination for embalming as prescribed herein. No part of the apprenticeship time may be served during the year in which the applicant is attending a school or college of mortuary science as defined herein. Applicant shall pay a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) at the time he requests such apprenticeship registration.

(1) A person qualifying in this manner shall serve at least one (1) year of apprenticeship immediately following the successful passing of the written examination accorded him by the Board.

(2) An applicant for a license to practice the science of embalming who attains a grade of 70% or higher on the written examination given by the Board upon payment of a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) therefor, shall be registered as an apprentice within six (6) months of such examination.

(b) Each registered apprentice embalmer shall be issued a certificate of apprenticeship or other means of apprenticeship identification by the Board to be served in the State of Texas. During the period of apprenticeship he shall assist in embalming a minimum of one hundred (100) dead human bodies, ten (10) of which bodies the apprentice shall embalm after the first year of apprenticeship without aid but in the immediate presence and under the personal supervision of an embalmer duly and currently licensed in the State of Texas. No more than two (2) apprentices may receive credit due for work on any one body.

(c) An apprentice embalmer must report within ten (10) days thereof of each separate case handled by him or with which he has assisted in handling. Each such report shall be certified by the licensee under whom the apprentice performed his work. Throughout the period of apprenticeship, the apprentice shall report on at least one (1) such case of embalming each calendar month, within the month. In any month in which he did not embalm at least one (1) case under the direction of a licensed embalmer, a report shall be made to the Board notwithstanding.

2. Apprentice for Funeral Director: The term of apprenticeship for a funeral director's license shall be a period of not less than twelve (12) months, and may be served concurrently with apprenticeship for an embalmer's license; however, apprenticeship must be served in twelve (12) consecutive months. A person desiring to become an apprentice funeral director shall make application to the Board on a form provided by the Board, and if the Board desires, he shall appear before at least one (1) member of the Board, or a designated representative thereof, for approval of his application, subject to review of it by the entire Board. Applicant must be not less than nineteen (19) years of age, a person of good moral character and have completed the educational requirements prescribed for a funeral director, except an applicant for a funeral director's license may elect to serve apprenticeship therefor in like manner to that of one who has applied for a license to practice the science of embalming, by serving one (1) year of apprenticeship prior to completing a course of study in funeral directing prescribed by the Board and graduating from a school of embalming or college of mortuary science. The application for registration shall be sworn to and accompanied by a fee of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10). If the application is accepted, applicant will be issued a certificate of apprenticeship registration upon determination by the Board that his qualifications are satisfactory.

(a) An applicant for a funeral director's license and the examination therefor who has not completed one (1) year of apprenticeship prior to graduation from a school of embalming or college of mortuary science shall be admitted to apprenticeship only in the event he shall have attained a grade of 70% or higher on the written, oral and practical examinations given by the Board, and the payment of a fee of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) therefor, whereupon he shall be registered as an apprentice. Provided, however, applicant must register as an apprentice within six (6) months of such examination.

(b) An apprentice funeral director must report within ten (10) days thereof of each separate case with which he has assisted in handling. Each such report shall be certified to by the licensee under whom the apprentice performed the work. Throughout the period of apprenticeship the apprentice shall report on at least one (1) such case each calendar month, within the month. In any month within which he did not assist a funeral director in handling a funeral, a report shall be made to the Board notwithstanding.

(c) During the course of apprenticeship each apprentice shall assist a licensed funeral director in this state to prepare, other than by embalming, and to make final disposition of not less than one hundred (100) dead human bodies, ten (10) of which bodies the apprentice shall handle, after graduation from an approved school of embalming or college of mortuary science, where one (1) year of apprenticeship was served prior to entrance into an institution for preparation by him to become a funeral director. The Board may require other evidence of his ability, in its discretion. No more than two (2) apprentices may receive credit for work done on any one body.

3. Annual renewal apprenticeship certificate: Each certificate of apprenticeship issued by the Board to an apprentice embalmer or apprentice funeral director must be renewed on the first day of January of each year and will be renewed upon payment by the apprentice of a renewal fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10), provided the apprentice has conducted himself with propriety and observed the rules and regulations of the Board with respect to his apprenticeship. Notice shall be mailed, during the month of December each year, to each registered apprentice at his last known address, notifying him that the renewal fee is due. If the renewal fee is not paid on or before the 31st day of January in the year in which it became due, a penalty in the sum of not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) will be added to the renewal fee of each certificate when paid. Fifteen (15) days after the grace period as above provided, if said annual renewal fee and penalty still remain unpaid, it shall be the duty of the Board, acting through its Secretary, to suspend his certificate for nonpayment of the annual renewal fee and to notify such apprentice of such suspension by registered mail, addressed to his last known address. If the said renewal fee and penalty is not then paid within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice of suspension, the Board shall then cancel such certificate. Provided, however, after an apprentice certificate has been cancelled, the apprentice may apply for reinstatement within eighteen (18) months from the date such apprentice certificate was cancelled and the Board may, in its discretion, reinstate said apprentice provided he meets all other requirements of the Board. It is provided that the registration fee of any apprentice who is actively engaged in the military service of the United States may, in the discretion of the Board, be remitted for the duration of such service or for such fees and such time as the Board may deem advisable upon presentation of proper evidence required by the Board.

4. Notification of the Board upon entry into apprenticeship: When an apprentice enters the employ of a licensed embalmer or funeral director, he shall immediately notify the Board the name and place of business of the licensed embalmer or funeral director whose service he has entered and the name of the funeral director or embalmer under whom he will train, and such notification shall be signed by the embalmer or funeral director in each case. If at any time thereafter such apprentice leaves the employ of the licensed embalmer or funeral director whose services he has entered, the said licensed embalmer or funeral director shall give to such apprentice an affidavit showing the length of time he has served as an apprentice with him and the number of cases handled while so employed; the original of said affidavit shall be filed with the Board and made a matter of record, and a copy shall be furnished to the apprentice. The Board shall furnish report forms to be used by each apprentice.

(a) Any apprentice registration shall be cancelled, and the applicant required to re-register, including paying the required fees, for failure to pass the Board's examination of such apprentice after only part of the apprenticeship has been completed. Provided, however, such applicant shall be given credit for apprenticeship time served under the cancelled license in any new registration.

5. Certificate of Apprenticeship may be suspended or revoked as provided and set forth in Section 3, subsection H.

E. Any person engaged or desiring to engage in the practice of embalming or funeral directing in this state, in connection with the care and disposition of dead human bodies, shall make written application to the Board for a license accompanying same with a fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50). The license or licenses when issued shall be signed by a majority of the Board and shall authorize the licensee to practice the science of embalming and/or funeral directing. All licenses shall be registered in the office of the County Clerk in any county in which the holder thereof resides and practices embalming and/or funeral directing and shall be displayed conspicuously in the place of business. Every licensed embalmer and/or funeral director who desires to continue his practice shall annually pay to the Secretary of the said Board a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) for the renewal of each funeral director's license and each embalmer's license. Said license shall become due and payable annually on the 31st day of May, and the Board will give written notice on or before April 1st, of each year that the license fees are due and payable. When a licensee under this Act shall fail to pay his annual registration fee, it shall be the duty of the Board to notify such licensee at his last known address that his annual registration fee is due and unpaid and that a penalty equal to the amount of the registration fee has been added. If such fee and penalty are not paid within fifteen (15) days after notification by regular mail, it shall be the duty of the Board to suspend the license and notify the licensee by certified mail, return receipt requested, of such suspension. Thirty (30) days after the Board shall have declared a license suspended, as provided herein, the license shall be automatically cancelled and the Board may thereafter in its discretion refuse to reinstate the licensee until the applicant has passed a regular examination for license as provided in this Act. If any license issued under this Act shall be lost or destroyed, the holder of any such license may present his application for duplicate license to the State Board of Morticians, on a form to be prescribed by the Board, together with his affidavit of such loss or destruction, and that he is the same person to whom such license was issued, and such other information concerning its loss or destruction as the State Board of Morticians shall require, and shall, upon payment of a fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10), as determined by the Board, be granted a duplicate license; provided further, that the same fee as set forth above for duplicate licenses shall also apply to endorsements by the Board.

1. Any license that has been cancelled, suspended or lapsed for a period of five (5) years or more may be reinstated only after the applicant shall have passed an oral and practical examination by the Board on embalming and/or an oral examination on funeral directing.

F. (1) The Board is authorized to make certain reciprocal arrangements. The State Board of Morticians may in its discretion, upon payment by an applicant of a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100), grant a license to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer to persons who furnish proof that they have been registered for at least three (3) years as such, in some other state or territory of the United States; provided that the licensing board of such other state or territory in its examination requires the same general degree of fitness required by this state. Said application shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the President or Secretary of the Board of Mortician Examiners which issued the license, or by a duly constituted registration officer of the state or territory by which the certificate or license was granted, and on which the application for registration in Texas is based, reciting that the accompanying certificate or license has not been cancelled, suspended or revoked, and that the statement of the qualifications made in the application for a license in Texas is true and correct. Applicants for a license under the provisions of this Act shall subscribe to an oath in writing before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, which shall be a part of such application, stating that the license, certificate, or authority under which the applicant practiced as a funeral director or embalmer in the state or territory from which the applicant removed, was at the time of such removal in full force and effect and not cancelled or suspended or revoked. Said application shall also state that the applicant is the identical person to whom the said certificate, license, or commission was issued, and that no proceeding has been instituted against the applicant for the cancellation, suspension or revocation of such certificate or license in the state or territory in which the same was issued; and that no prosecution is pending against the applicant in any state or federal court for any offense which, under the laws of the State of Texas, is a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

(2) Licenses granted under this subsection shall be on the following basis: Before a license is granted, the applicant shall receive a temporary permit good for one (1) year from date of issuance by the Board. At the end of one (1) year, the holder of said temporary permit shall again be considered by the Board, and if his application for license has been maintained and he meets all other requirements, the Board, in its discretion, may grant said applicant a license.

G. Licenses currently outstanding shall be recognized under this Act. Any person, personally holding a current funeral director's and/or embalmer's license granted by the proper authorities in this state, shall not be required to make application for or submit to an examination, but shall be entitled to a renewal of his license, upon expiration of such current license, under the terms and conditions as herein provided for the renewal of licenses of those who may be licensed after the passage of this Act. All such persons shall be subject to every other provision of this Act.

H. The State Board of Morticians is hereby authorized and empowered and it shall be its duty to conduct hearings to revoke, suspend, or place on probation any licensed funeral director and/or embalmer, or apprentice and may refuse to admit persons to examination for any of the following reasons:

1. The presentation to the Board of any license, certificate, or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination;

2. Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;

3. Unfit to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer by reason of insanity or has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind;

4. The use of any advertising statement of a character which misleads or deceives the public, or use, in connection with advertisements, the names of persons who do not hold a license as a funeral director or embalmer and represent them to be so licensed;

5. The purchase, sale, barter, or use, or any offer to purchase, sell, barter, or use any license, certificate, or transcript of license or certificate, in or incident to an application to the Board of Morticians for license to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer;

6. Altering, with fraudulent intent, any funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, or transcript of license or certificate;

7. The use of any funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, diploma, or transcript of any such funeral director and/or embalmer license, certificate, or diploma, which has been fraudulently purchased, issued, counterfeited, or materially altered;

8. The impersonation of, or acting as proxy for, another in any examination required by this Act for a funeral director and/or embalmer license;

9. The impersonation of a licensed funeral director or embalmer as authorized hereunder, or permitting, or allowing another to use his license, or certificate to practice as a funeral director or embalmer or mortician in this state, for the purpose of embalming or practicing the science of embalming, in connection with the care and disposition of the dead, or acting as a funeral director or practicing as a funeral director in this state, in connection with the care and disposition of the dead;

10. Using profane, indecent or obscene language within the immediate hearing of the family or relatives of a decedent, in proximity to a deceased person whose body has not yet been interred or otherwise disposed of; or the indecent exposure of a dead human body;

11. Refusing to promptly surrender a dead human body, upon the express order of a person in possession of lawful authority therefor, to a licensed funeral director or embalmer or an agent or employee of the same;

12. Wilfully making any false statement on a certificate of death;

13. Employment directly or indirectly of any apprentice, agent, assistant, embalmer, funeral director, employee, or other person on a part or full-time basis, or on commission, for the purpose of calling upon individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular funeral director or embalmer;

14. Presentation of false certification of work done as an apprentice on apprenticeship records;

15. Unfitness by reason of drug addiction; and

16. Whenever a licensee, apprentice, or any other person, whether employee, agent or representative, or one in any manner associated with a funeral establishment shall solicit business or offer any inducement, pecuniary or otherwise, for the purpose of securing or attempting to secure business for such funeral establishment, unless such solicitation is made pursuant to a permit issued under the provisions of Article 548b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or Senate Bill No. 129, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963.

17. Failure by the Federal Director in Charge to provide licensed personnel for attendance, direction, or personal supervision for a "first call," as that term is defined in this Act.

18. Conduct by a licensee which, in the discretion of the Board, after applying contemporary community standards, is found to be offensive to the common conscience and moral standards of the community where such conduct occurs.

19. Performing acts of funeral directing or embalming, as those terms are defined in this Act, which are outside the licensed scope and authority of the licensee.

20. Conviction by the Board, after a hearing as provided in this Act, of fraud or other similar deception against the public.

I. The Board may issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable to effect the intent of the provisions of this Section.

Funeral establishments

Sec. 4. A. All funeral establishments shall be licensed by the Board. All licenses shall expire at midnight on September 30th of each year. The license fee shall not exceed Fifty Dollars ($50) for issuance of licenses to existing establishments and for renewal licenses. Funeral establishments created after the effective date of this Act shall apply for a license, and upon satisfaction to the Board that this Section has been complied with and upon receipt of the licensing fee, which shall not exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250), an initial license shall be duly issued to such new establishments. Not later than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of licenses, the Board shall cause to be issued notification in writing by mail to each licensed funeral establishment that a renewal fee not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50) must be paid by October 1st before such license shall be renewed, and upon due receipt of such fees all existing licenses shall be considered automatically renewed. Any establishment which fails to pay its license renewal fee as herein provided within thirty (30) days after September 30th may be required by the Board to pay a penalty of Fifty Dollars ($50) in addition to the regular fee, and if the delinquency is more than thirty (30) days, the establishment shall not be permitted to operate as a funeral home until it has applied for and has been granted a new license as in the case of original applications and licenses for new funeral establishments.

B. No funeral establishment shall conduct funeral business as intended under this Act unless duly licensed.

C. Each funeral establishment shall be required to have a physical plant, equipment and personnel consisting of the following:

1. Adequate facilities in which funeral services may be conducted;

2. A preparation room being used by such establishment that meets the sanitary code of the State of Texas and the municipality in which same is located;

3. A physical plant which meets building standards and fire safety standards of the state and of the municipality in which the establishment is located;

4. Access to rolling stock consisting of at least one motor hearse;

5. A preparation room that is secluded from the public, properly ventilated, and containing an operating table, sewer facilities, hot and cold running water, and sufficient instruments and chemicals to embalm a dead human body;

6. A display room containing sufficient merchandise to permit reasonable selection, including five (5) or more adult caskets;

7. Sufficient licensed personnel who will be available to conduct the operation of the funeral establishment;

8. A physical plant located at a fixed place, and not located on any tax-exempt property or cemetery; and

9. A physical plant which meets the health standards or health ordinances of the state and of the municipality in which the establishment is located.

It is expressly provided, however, that an establishment which functions solely as a commercial embalmer, as that term is defined in this Act, shall have a funeral establishment license, but shall not be required to meet the requirements of sub-sections 1 and 6 of this paragraph C.

D. 1. The Board may initiate formal complaint or other action against a funeral establishment or in regard to the license of a funeral establishment only upon the following grounds:

(a) Failure of a funeral establishment to substantially comply with the provisions of Subsection B or C of this Section.

(b) Conducting or operating a funeral establishment in a manner which, in the discretion of the Board, after applying contemporary community standards, is found to be offensive to the common conscience and moral standards of the community where the funeral establishment is licensed or where such offensive conduct occurred.

(c) The use of any advertising statement of a character which misleads or deceives the public, or use, in connection with advertisements, the names of persons who do not hold a license as a funeral director or embalmer and represent them to be so licensed;

(d) Whenever a licensee, apprentice, or any other person, whether employee, agent or representative, or one in any manner associated with a funeral establishment shall solicit business or offer any inducement, pecuniary or otherwise, for the purpose of securing or attempting to secure business for such funeral establishment, unless such solicitation is made pursuant to a permit issued under the provisions of Article 548b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, or Senate Bill No. 129, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963.

(e) Failure by the funeral director in charge to provide licensed personnel for attendance, direction, or personal supervision for a "first call" as that term is defined in this Act.

Provided, however, with respect to alleged violations of Subsection D–1 (b), (c), (d), and (e), the Board may not initiate formal complaint or other action against a funeral establishment or in regard to the license of a funeral establishment when the ground or grounds of complaint are based on the conduct of employees, agents or representatives of such establishment performed outside the scope and authority of their employment or contrary to the instructions of the funeral establishment and its management.

2. As to asserted violations of provisions of this Section, the Board shall have the following powers, rights and duties:

(a) The Board may, in any case, require a sworn statement setting forth matter complained of as a condition to taking further action.
