a. The following Code of Professional Responsibility shall govern the conduct of members of the State Bar.

Canon 1

A Lawyer Should Assist in Maintaining the Integrity and Competence of the Legal Profession

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 1-1. A basic tenet of the professional responsibility of lawyers is that every person in our society should have ready access to the independent professional services of a lawyer of integrity and competence. Maintaining the integrity and improving the competence of the bar to meet the highest standards is the ethical responsibility of every lawyer.

EC 1-2. The public should be protected from those who are not qualified to be lawyers by reason of a deficiency in education or moral standards or of other relevant factors but who nevertheless seek to practice law. To assure the maintenance of high moral and educational standards of the legal profession, lawyers should affirmatively assist courts and other appropriate bodies in promulgating, enforcing, and improving requirements for admission to the bar. In like manner, the bar has a positive obligation to aid in the continued improvement of all phases of pre-admission and post-admission legal education.

EC 1-3. Before recommending an applicant for admission, a lawyer should satisfy himself that the applicant is of good moral character. Although a lawyer should not become a self-appointed investigator or judge of applicants for admission, he should report to proper officials all unfavorable information he possesses relating to the character or other qualifications of an applicant.

EC 1-4. The integrity of the profession can be maintained only if conduct of lawyers in violation of the Disciplinary Rules is brought to the attention of the proper officials. A lawyer should reveal voluntarily to those officials all unprivileged knowledge of conduct of lawyers which he believes clearly to be in violation of the Disciplinary Rules. A lawyer should, upon request, serve on and assist committees and boards having responsibility for the administration of the Disciplinary Rules.

EC 1-5. A lawyer should maintain high standards of professional conduct and should encourage fellow lawyers to do likewise. He should be temperate and dignified, and he should refrain from all illegal and morally reprehensible conduct. Because of his position in society, even minor violations of law by a lawyer may tend to lessen public confidence in the legal profession. Obedience to law exemplifies respect for law. To lawyers especially, respect for the law should be more than a platitude.

EC 1-6. An applicant for admission to the bar or a lawyer may be unqualified, temporarily or permanently, for other than moral and educational reasons, such as mental or emotional instability. Lawyers should be diligent in taking steps to see that during a period of disqualification such person is not granted a license or, if licensed, is not permitted to practice. In like manner, when the disqualification has terminated, members of the bar should assist such person in being licensed, or, if licensed, in being restored to his full right to practice.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 1-101. Maintaining Integrity and Competence of the Legal Profession

(A) A lawyer is subject to discipline if he has made a materially false statement in, or if he has deliberately failed to disclose a material fact requested in connection with, his application for admission to the bar.

(B) A lawyer shall not further the application for admission to the bar of another person known by him to be unqualified in respect to character, education, or other relevant attribute.

DR 1-102. Misconduct

(A) A lawyer shall not:

- (1) Violate a Disciplinary Rule.
- (2) Circumvent a Disciplinary Rule through actions of another.
- (3) Engage in illegal conduct involving moral turpitude.
- (4) Engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.
- (5) Engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice.
- (6) Engage in any other conduct that adversely reflects on his fitness to practice law.

DR 1-103. Disclosure of Information to Authorities

(A) A lawyer possessing unprivileged knowledge of a violation of DR 1-102 shall report such knowledge to a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon such violation.

(B) A lawyer possessing unprivileged knowledge or evidence concerning another lawyer or a judge shall reveal fully such knowledge or evidence upon proper request of a tribunal or other authority empowered to investigate or act upon the conduct of lawyers or judges.

Canon 2

A Lawyer Should Assist the Legal Profession in Fulfilling its Duty to Make Legal Counsel Available

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 2-1. The need of members of the public for legal services is met only if they recognize their legal problems, appreciate the importance of seeking assistance, and are able to obtain the services of acceptable legal counsel. Hence, importance functions of the legal profession are to educate laymen to recognize their legal problems, to facilitate the process of intelligent selection of lawyers, and to assist in making legal services fully available.

Recognition of Legal Problems

EC 2-2. The legal profession should assist laymen to recognize legal problems because such problems may not be self-revealing and often are not timely noticed. Therefore, lawyers acting under proper auspices should encourage and participate in educational and public relations programs concerning our legal system with particular reference to legal problems that frequently arise. Such educational programs should be motivated by a desire to benefit the public rather than to obtain publicity or employment for particular lawyers. Examples of permissible activities include preparation of institutional advertisements and professional articles for lay publications and participation in seminars, lectures, and civic programs. But a lawyer who participates in such activities should shun personal publicity.

EC 2-3. Whether a lawyer acts properly in volunteering advice to a layman to seek legal services depends upon the circumstances. The giving of advice that one should take legal action would well be in fulfillment of the duty of the legal profession to assist laymen in recognizing legal problems. The advice is proper only if motivated by a desire to protect one who does not recognize that he may have legal problems or who is ignorant of his legal rights or obligations. Hence, the advice is improper if motivated by a desire to obtain personal benefit, secure personal publicity, or cause litigation to be brought merely to harass or injure another.

EC 2-4. Since motivation is subjective and often difficult to judge, the motives of a lawyer who volunteers advice likely to produce legal controversy may well be suspect if he receives professional employment or other benefits as a result. A lawyer who volunteers advice that one should obtain the services of a lawyer generally should not himself accept employment, compensation, or other benefit in connection with that matter. However, it is not improper for a lawyer to volunteer such advice and render resulting legal services to close friends, relatives, former clients (in regard to matters germane to former employment), and regular clients.

EC 2-5. A lawyer who writes or speaks for the purpose of educating members of the public to recognize their legal problems should carefully refrain from giving or appearing to give a general solution applicable to all apparently similar individual problems, since slight changes in fact situations may require a material variance in the applicable advice; otherwise, the public may be misled and misadvised. Talks and writings by lawyers for laymen should caution them not to attempt to solve individual problems upon the basis of the information contained therein.

Selection of a Lawyer: Advertising

EC 2-6. Formerly a potential client usually knew the reputations of local lawyers for competency and integrity and therefore could select a practitioner in whom he had confidence. This traditional selection process worked well because it was initiated by the client and the choice was an informed one.

EC 2-7. Changed conditions, however, have seriously restricted the effectiveness of the traditional selection process. Often the reputations of lawyers are not sufficiently known to enable laymen to make intelligent choices. The law has become increasingly complex and specialized. Few lawyers are willing and competent to deal with every kind of legal matter, and many laymen have difficulty in determining the competence of lawyers to render different types of legal services. The selection of legal counsel is particularly difficult for transients, persons moving into new areas, persons of limited education or means, and others who have little or no contact with lawyers.

EC 2-8. Selection of a lawyer by a layman often is the result of the advice and recommendation of third parties—relatives, friends, acquaintances, business associates, or other lawyers. A layman is best served if the recommendation is disinterested and informed. In order that the recommendation be disinterested, a lawyer should not seek to influence another to recommend his employment. A lawyer should not compensate another person for recommending him, for influencing a prospective client to employ him, or to encourage future recommendations.

Selection of a Lawyer: Professional Notices and Listings

EC 2-9. Competitive advertising which is extravagant, artful, and self-laudatory could mislead the layman. Furthermore, it would inevitably produce unrealistic expectations in particular cases and bring about distrust of the law and lawyers. Thus, public confidence in our legal system would be impaired by such advertisements of professional services. The attorney-client relationship is personal and unique and should not be established as the result of pressures and deceptions. History has demonstrated that public confidence in the legal system is best preserved by strict, self-imposed controls over, rather than by unlimited, advertising.

EC 2-10. Methods of advertising that are subject to the objections stated above should be and are prohibited. However, the Disciplinary Rules recognize the value of giving assistance in the selection process through forms of advertising that furnish identification of a lawyer while avoiding such objections. In order to facilitate the process of informed selection of a lawyer by potential consumers of legal services, a lawyer may publish or broadcast the information enumerated herein in any advertising media, including printed media, radio or television. Printed media means mail; newspapers; magazines; classified telephone directories; city, county and suburban directories; legal directories and law lists.

- (1) Name, including the name of the law firm and its licensed attorneys;
- (2) Office addresses and telephone numbers;
- (3) Age, or date and place of birth;
- (4) Date and place of admission to the Bar of any state and to federal courts;
- (5) Universities, colleges, and law school attended, with date of graduation and degrees;
- (6) Membership in international, national, federal, state, local, and speciality bar associations;
- (7) Other professional licenses (e.g., CPA, MD);
- (8) Statement by name of prepaid or group legal services program in which the lawyer participates;
- (9) Foreign language ability;
- (10) Whether credit cards or other credit arrangements are accepted;
- (11) Office and telephone answering service hours;
- (12) Information concerning the opening of a new law office, the change of address or location of an office, and the acquisition of new associates or partners;
- (13) Fee for initial consultation, provided that if the time for the consultation is to be limited, any such limitation on the time shall be stated in the advertisement;
- (14) A statement that a schedule of fees or an estimate of fees to be charged for specific services will be available on request;
- (15) Contingent fee rates, subject to DR 2-106(C), provided that the statement discloses whether percentages are computed before or after deduction of court costs and expenses;
- (16) Hourly rate, provided that the statement discloses that the total fee charged will depend upon the number of hours which must be devoted to the particular matter to be handled for each client, and that the client is entitled without obligation to an estimate of the fee likely to be charged;
- (17) Fixed fees for specific legal services;
- (18) A listing in a legal directory may include names and addresses of references, and, with their consent, names of clients regularly represented.

EC 2-11. The name under which a lawyer conducts his practice may be a factor in the selection process. The use of a trade name or an assumed name could mislead laymen concerning the identity, responsibility, and status of those practicing thereunder. Accordingly, a lawyer in private practice should practice only under his own name, the name of a lawyer employing him, a partnership name composed of the name of one or more of the lawyers practicing in a partnership, or, if permitted by law, in the name of a professional legal corporation, which should be clearly designated as such. For many years some law firms have used a firm name retaining one or more names of deceased or retired partners and such practice is not improper if the firm is a bona fide successor of a firm in which the deceased or retired person was a member, if the use of the name is authorized by law or by contract, and if the public is not misled thereby. However, the name of a partner who withdraws from a firm but continues to practice law should be omitted from the firm name in order to avoid misleading the public.

EC 2-12. A lawyer occupying a judicial, legislative, or public executive or administrative position who has the right to practice law concurrently may allow his name to remain in the name of the firm if he actively continues to practice law as a member thereof. Otherwise, his name should be removed from the firm name, and he should not be identified as a past or present member of the firm; and he should not hold himself out as being a practicing lawyer.

EC 2-13. In order to avoid the possibility of misleading persons with whom he deals, a lawyer should be scrupulous in the representation of his professional status. He should not hold himself out as being a partner or associate of a law firm if he is not one in fact, and thus should not hold himself out as a partner or associate if he only shares offices with another lawyer.

EC 2-14. Deleted March 26, 1982.

EC 2-15. The legal profession has developed lawyer referral systems designed to aid individuals who are able to pay fees but need assistance in locating lawyers competent to handle their particular problems. Use of a lawyer referral system enables a layman to avoid an uninformed selection of a lawyer because such a system makes possible the employment of competent lawyers who have indicated an interest in the subject matter involved. Lawyers should support the principle of lawyer referral systems and should encourage the evolution of other ethical plans which aid in the selection of qualified counsel.

Financial Ability to Employ Counsel: Generally

EC 2-16. The legal profession cannot remain a viable force in fulfilling its role in our society unless its members receive adequate compensation for services rendered, and reasonable fees should be charged in appropriate cases to clients able to pay them. Nevertheless, persons unable to pay all or a portion of a reasonable fee should be able to obtain necessary legal services, and lawyers should support and participate in ethical activities designed to achieve that objective.

Financial Ability to Employ Counsel: Persons Able to Pay Reasonable Fees

EC 2-17. The determination of a proper fee requires consideration of the interests of both client and lawyer. A lawyer should not charge more than a reasonable fee, for excessive cost of legal service would deter laymen from utilizing the legal system in protection of their rights. Furthermore, an excessive charge abuses the professional relationship between lawyer and client. On the other hand, adequate compensation is necessary in order to enable the lawyer to serve his client effectively and to preserve the integrity and independence of the profession.

EC 2-18. The determination of the reasonableness of a fee requires consideration of all relevant circumstances, including those stated in the Disciplinary Rules. The fees of a lawyer will vary according to many factors, including the time required, his experience, ability, and reputation, the nature of the employment, the responsibility involved, and the results obtained. Suggested fee schedules and economic reports of state and local bar associations provide some guidance on the subject of reasonable fees. It is a commendable and long-standing tradition of the bar that special consideration is given in the fixing of any fee for services rendered a brother lawyer or a member of his immediate family.

EC 2-19. As soon as feasible after a lawyer has been employed, it is desirable that he reach a clear agreement with his client as to the basis of the fee charges to be made. Such a course will not only prevent later misunderstanding but will also work for good relations between the lawyer and the client. It is usually beneficial to reduce to writing the understanding of the parties regarding the fee, particularly when it is contingent. A lawyer should be mindful that many persons who desire to employ him may have had little or no experience with fee charges of lawyers, and for this reason he should explain fully to such persons the reasons for the particular fee arrangement he proposes.

EC 2-20. Contingent fee arrangements in civil cases have long been commonly accepted in the United States in proceedings to enforce claims. The historical bases of their acceptance are that (1) they often, and in a variety of circumstances, provide the only practical means by which one having a claim against another can economically afford, finance, and obtain the services of a competent lawyer to prosecute his claim, and (2) a successful prosecution of the claim produces a res out of which the fee can be paid. Although a lawyer generally should decline to accept employment on a contingent fee basis by one who is able to pay a reasonable fixed fee, it is not necessarily improper for a lawyer, where justified by the particular circumstances of a case, to enter into a contingent fee contract in a civil case with any client who, after being fully informed of all relevant factors, desires that arrangement.

Because of the human relationships involved and the unique character of the proceedings, contingent fee arrangements in domestic relation cases are rarely justified. In administrative agency proceedings contingent fee contracts should be governed by the same considerations as in other civil cases. Public policy properly condemns contingent fee arrangements in criminal cases, largely on the ground that legal services in criminal cases do not produce a res with which to pay the fee.

EC 2-21. A lawyer should not accept compensation or any thing of value incident to his employment or services from one other than his client without the knowledge and consent of his client after full disclosure.

EC 2-22. Without the consent of his client, a lawyer should not associate in a particular matter another lawyer outside his firm. A fee may be properly divided between lawyers properly associated if the division is in proportion to the services performed and the responsibility assumed by each lawyer, or is with a forwarding attorney, and if the total fee is reasonable.

EC 2-23. A lawyer should be zealous in his efforts to avoid controversies over fees with clients and should attempt to resolve amicably any differences on the subject. He should not sue a client for a fee unless necessary to prevent fraud or gross imposition by the client.

Financial Ability to Employ Counsel: Persons Unable to Pay Reasonable Fees

EC 2-24. A layman whose financial ability is not sufficient to permit payment of any fee cannot obtain legal services, other than in cases where a contingent fee is appropriate, unless the services are provided for him. Even a person of moderate means may be unable to pay a reasonable fee which is large because of the complexity, novelty, or difficulty of the problem or similar factors.

EC 2-25. Historically, the need for legal services of those unable to pay reasonable fees has been met in part by lawyers who donated their services or accepted court appointments on behalf of such individuals. The basic responsibility for providing legal services for those unable to pay ultimately rests upon the individual lawyer, and personal involvement in the problems of the disadvantaged can be one of the most rewarding experiences in the life of a lawyer. Every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, should find time to participate in serving the disadvantaged. The rendition of free legal services to those unable to pay reasonable fees continues to be an obligation of each lawyer, but the efforts of individual lawyers are often not enough to meet the need. Thus it has been necessary for the profession to institute additional programs to provide legal services. Accordingly, legal aid offices, lawyer referral services, and other related programs have been developed, and others will be developed, by the profession. Every lawyer should support all proper efforts to meet this need for legal services.

Acceptance and Retention of Employment

EC 2-26. A lawyer is under no obligation to act as adviser or advocate for every person who may wish to become his client; but in furtherance of the objective of the bar to make legal services fully available, a lawyer should not lightly decline proffered employment. The fulfillment of this objective requires acceptance by a lawyer of his share of tendered employment which may be unattractive both to him and the bar generally.

EC 2-27. History is replete with instances of distinguished and sacrificial services by lawyers who have represented unpopular clients and causes. Regardless of his personal feelings, a lawyer should not decline representation because a client or a cause is unpopular or community reaction is adverse.

EC 2-28. The personal preference of a lawyer to avoid adversary alignment against judges, other lawyers, public officials, or influential members of the community does not justify his rejection of tendered employment.

EC 2-29. When a lawyer is appointed by a court or requested by a bar association to undertake representation of a person unable to obtain counsel, whether for financial or other reasons, he should not seek to be excused from undertaking the representation except for compelling reasons. Compelling reasons do not include such factors as the repugnance of the subject matter of the proceeding, the identity or position of a person involved in the case, the belief of the lawyer that the defendant in a criminal proceeding is guilty, or the belief of the lawyer regarding the merits of the civil case.

EC 2-30. Employment should not be accepted by a lawyer when he is unable to render competent service or when he knows or it is obvious that the person seeking to employ him desires to institute or maintain an action merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring another. Likewise, a lawyer should decline employment if the intensity of his personal feeling, as distinguished from a community attitude, may impair his effective representation of a prospective client. If a lawyer knows a client has previously obtained counsel, he should not accept employment in the matter unless the other counsel approves or withdraws, or the client terminates the prior employment.

EC 2-31. Full availability of legal counsel requires both that persons be able to obtain counsel and that lawyers who undertake representation complete the work involved. Trial counsel for a convicted defendant should continue to represent his client by advising whether to take an appeal and, if the appeal is prosecuted, by representing him through the appeal unless new counsel is substituted or withdrawal is permitted by the appropriate court.

EC 2-32. A decision by a lawyer to withdraw should be made only on the basis of compelling circumstances, and in a matter pending before a tribunal he must comply with the rules of the tribunal regarding withdrawal. A lawyer should not withdraw without considering carefully and endeavoring to minimize the possible adverse effect on the rights of his client and the possibility of prejudice to his client as a result of his withdrawal. Even when he justifiably withdraws, a lawyer should protect the welfare of his client by giving due notice of his withdrawal, suggesting employment of other counsel, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, cooperating with counsel subsequently employed, and otherwise endeavoring to minimize the possibility of harm. Further, he should refund to the client any compensation not earned during the employment.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 2-101. Publicity and Advertising

(A) A lawyer shall not make, on behalf of himself, his partner, associate, or any other lawyer, any false or misleading communication about the lawyer or the lawyer's services. A communication is false or misleading if it:

- (1) Contains a material misrepresentation of fact or law, or omits a fact necessary to make the statement considered as a whole not materially misleading;
- (2) Contains a statement of opinion as to the quality of legal services;
- (3) Contains a representation or implication regarding the quality of legal services which is not susceptible to reasonable verification by the public;
- (4) Contains predictions of future success;
- (5) Contains statistical data which is not susceptible to reasonable verification by the public;
- (6) Contains other information based on past performance which is not susceptible to reasonable verification by the public;
- (7) Contains a testimonial about or endorsement of a lawyer;
- (8) Is intended or is likely to create an unjustified expectation about results the lawyer can achieve.

(B) A lawyer who publishes, advertises, or broadcasts with regard to any area of the law in which he practices must, with respect to each area of the law so advertised, publish or broadcast the name of the lawyer, licensed to practice law in Texas, who shall be responsible for the performance of the legal service in the area of law so advertised.

(C) Each lawyer whose name is either published, advertised, or broadcast pursuant to DR 2-101(B):

- (1) Who has been awarded a Certificate of Special Competence by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in the area so advertised must state with respect to each area, "Board Certified, (area of specialization) — Texas Board of Legal Specialization."
- (2) Who has not been awarded a Certificate of Special Competence by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in the area so advertised must state with respect to each area, "Not certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization". Where the area so advertised has not been designated as an area in which a lawyer may be awarded a Certificate of Special Competence by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, the lawyer may also state, "No designation has been made by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization for a Certificate of Special Competence in this area." Such statements must be displayed conspicuously so as to be easily seen or understood by any consumer.

(D) A lawyer shall not compensate or give anything of value to representatives of the press, radio, television, or other communication media in anticipation of or in return for publicity in a news item, except that the provisions of this paragraph shall not prohibit payment of the cost of lawyer advertising permitted under this rule.

(E) A lawyer who makes or causes to be made any form of written, recorded or broadcast public communication shall retain a copy of same for a period of four (4) years from the date such communication is first made or caused to be made.

DR 2-102. Tradenames

(A) A lawyer in private practice shall not practice under a trade name, a name that is misleading as to the identity of the lawyer or lawyers practicing under such name, or a firm name containing names other than those of one or more of the lawyers in the firm, except that the names of a professional corporation or professional association may contain "P.C." or "P.A." or similar symbols indicating the nature of the organization, and if otherwise lawful a firm may use as, or continue to include in, its name the name or names of one or more deceased or retired members of the firm or of a predecessor firm in a continuing line of succession. Nothing herein shall prohibit a married woman from practicing under her maiden name.

(B) A lawyer shall not hold himself out as having a partnership with one or more other lawyers unless they are in fact partners.

(C) A partnership shall not be formed or continued between or among lawyers licensed in different jurisdictions unless all enumerations of the members and associates of the firm make clear the jurisdictional limits of the members and associates of the firm not licensed to practice in all listed jurisdictions; however, the same firm name may be used in each jurisdiction.

DR 2-103. Recommendation of Professional Employment

(A) A lawyer shall not recommend employment, as a private practitioner, of himself, his partner, or associate to a non-lawyer who has not sought his advice regarding employment of a lawyer, except as follows:

- (1) A lawyer may advertise in the public media within the limits of DR 2-101, so long as the advertising communication does not take place in person or by telephone.

(2) A lawyer may recommend employment of himself or other attorneys in person to groups of individuals, so long as there is no potential for intimidation or overreaching by such personal contact.

(3) A lawyer may recommend himself or other attorneys to a prospective client, if such individual is a close friend, relative, former client or one whom the lawyer reasonably believes to be a client.

(4) A lawyer may recommend himself or other attorneys to a prospective client if such lawyer is acting on behalf of a bona fide, nonprofit organization that pursues litigation as a vehicle for effective political expression, and provided further, that incidental attorneys fees, if any, are paid to and inure to the benefit of the nonprofit organization.

(B) If success in asserting rights or defenses of his client in litigation in the nature of a class action is dependent upon the joinder of others, a lawyer may accept, but shall not seek employment from those contacted for the purpose of obtaining the joinder.

(C) A lawyer shall not compensate or give anything of value to a person or organization to recommend or secure his employment by a client, or as a reward for having made a recommendation resulting in his employment by a client; except that a lawyer may advertise in the public media within the limits of DR 2-101, so long as the advertising communication does not take place in person or by telephone.

(D) A lawyer shall not initiate contact with, or send a written communication to, a prospective client for the purpose of obtaining professional employment if:

(1) The lawyer knows or reasonably should know the person could not exercise reasonable judgment in employing a lawyer; or

(2) The person has made known to the lawyer a desire not to receive communications from the lawyer; or

(3) The communication involves coercion, duress, or harassment; or

(4) The communication contains any information prohibited by DR 2-101.

(E) A lawyer shall not knowingly assist a person or organization that recommends, furnishes, or pays for legal services to promote the use of his services or those of his partners or associates. However, he may cooperate in a dignified manner with the legal service activities of any of the following, provided that his independent professional judgment is exercised in behalf of his client without interference or control by any organization or other person.

(1) A legal aid office, public defender office, or legal services organization:

(a) Operated or sponsored by a duly accredited law school.

(b) Operated or sponsored by a bona fide non-profit community organization.

(c) Operated or sponsored by a governmental agency.

(d) Operated, sponsored, or approved by a bar association representative of the general bar of the geographical area in which the association exists.

(2) A military legal assistance office.

(3) A lawyer referral service operated, sponsored, or approved by a bar association representative of the general bar of the geographical area in which the association exists.

(4) A bar association representative of the general bar of the geographical area in which the association exists.

(5) Any bona fide organization that recommends, furnishes or pays for legal services to its members or beneficiaries provided the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) Such organization, including any affiliate, is so organized and operated that no profit is derived by it from the rendition of legal services by lawyers, and that, if the organization is organized for profit, the legal services are not rendered by lawyers employed, directed, supervised or selected by it except in connection with matters where such organization bears ultimate liability of its member or beneficiary.

(b) Neither the lawyer, nor his partner, nor associate, nor any other lawyer affiliated with him or his firm, nor any non-lawyer, shall have initiated or promoted such organization for the primary purpose of providing financial or other benefit to such lawyer, partner, associate or affiliated lawyer.

(c) Such organization is not operated for the purpose of procuring legal work or financial benefit for any lawyer as a private practitioner outside of the legal services program of the organization.

(d) The member or beneficiary to whom the legal services are furnished, and not such organization, is recognized as the client of the lawyer in the matter.

(e) Any member or beneficiary who is entitled to have legal services furnished or paid for by the organization may, if such member or beneficiary so desires, select counsel other than that furnished, selected or approved by the organization for the particular matter involved; and the legal service plan of such organization provides appropriate relief for any member or beneficiary who asserts a claim that representation by counsel furnished, selected or approved would be unethical, improper or inadequate under the circumstances of the matter involved and the plan provides an appropriate procedure for seeking such relief.

(F) A lawyer shall not accept employment when he knows or it is obvious that the person who seeks his services does so as a result of conduct prohibited under any Disciplinary Rule.

DR 2-104. Claims of Expertise

A lawyer shall not hold himself out publicly as a specialist, except as permitted under DR 2-101 or as follows:

(1) A lawyer admitted to practice before the United States Patent Office may use the designation "Patents," "Patent Attorney," or "Patent Lawyer," or any combination of those terms. A lawyer engaged in the trademark practice may use the designation "Trademark," "Trademark Attorney," or "Trademark Lawyer," or any combination of those terms. A lawyer engaged in patent and trademark practice may hold himself out as specializing in "Intellectual Property Law," "Patents, or Trademarks and Related Matters," or "Patent, Trademark, Copyright Law and Unfair Competition" or any of those terms.

(2) A lawyer may permit his name to be listed in lawyer referral service offices according to the areas of law in which he will accept referrals.

(3) A lawyer available to practice in a particular area of law or legal service may distribute to other lawyers and publish in legal directories a dignified announcement of such availability, but the announcement shall not contain a representation of special competence or experience.

DR 2-106. Fees for Legal Services

(A) A lawyer shall not enter into an agreement for, charge, or collect an illegal or clearly excessive fee.

(B) A fee is clearly excessive when, after a review of the facts, a lawyer of ordinary prudence would be left with a definite and firm conviction that the fee is in excess of a reasonable fee. Factors to be considered as guides in determining the reasonableness of a fee include the following:

(1) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

(2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer.

(3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

(4) The amount involved and the results obtained.

(5) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances.

(6) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client.

(7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

(8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent.

(C) A lawyer shall not enter into an arrangement for, charge, or collect a contingent fee for representing a defendant in a criminal case.

DR 2-107. Division of Fees Among Lawyers

(A) A lawyer shall not divide a fee for legal services with another lawyer who is not a partner in or associate of his law firm or law office, unless:

(1) The client consents to employment of the other lawyer after a full disclosure that a division of fees will be made.

(2) The division is made in proportion to the services performed and responsibility assumed by each, or is made with a forwarding lawyer.

(3) The total fee of the lawyers does not clearly exceed reasonable compensation for all legal services they rendered the client.

(B) This Disciplinary Rule does not prohibit payment to a former partner or associate pursuant to a separation or retirement agreement.

DR 2-108. Agreements Restricting the Practice of a Lawyer

(A) A lawyer shall not be a party to or participate in a partnership or employment agreement with another lawyer that restricts the right of a lawyer to practice law after the termination of a relationship created by the agreement, except as a condition to payment of retirement benefits.

(B) In connection with the settlement of a controversy or suit, a lawyer shall not enter into an agreement that restricts his right to practice law.

DR 2-109. Acceptance of Employment

(A) A lawyer shall not accept employment on behalf of a person if he knows or it is obvious that such person wishes to:

(1) Bring a legal action, conduct a defense, or assert a position in litigation, or otherwise have steps taken for him, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person.

(2) Present a claim or defense in litigation that is not warranted under existing law, unless it can be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

DR 2-110. Withdrawal from Employment

(A) In general.

(1) If permission for withdrawal from employment is required by the rules of a tribunal, a lawyer shall not withdraw from employment in a proceeding before that tribunal without its permission.

(2) In any event, a lawyer shall not withdraw from employment until he has taken reasonable steps to avoid foreseeable prejudice to the rights of his client, including giving due notice to his client, allowing time for employment of other counsel, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, and complying with applicable laws and rules.

(3) A lawyer who withdraws from employment shall refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned.

(B) Mandatory withdrawal.

A lawyer representing a client before a tribunal, with its permission if required by its rules, shall withdraw from employment, and a lawyer representing a client in other matters shall withdraw from employment, if:

(1) He knows or it is obvious that his client is bringing the legal action, conducting the defense, or asserting a position in the litigation, or is otherwise having steps taken for him, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person.

(2) He knows or it is obvious that his continued employment will result in violation of a Disciplinary Rule.

(3) His mental or physical condition renders it unreasonably difficult for him to carry out the employment effectively.

(4) He is discharged by his client.

(C) Permissive withdrawal.

If DR 2-110(B) is not applicable, a lawyer may not request permission to withdraw in matters pending before a tribunal, and may not withdraw in other matters, unless such request or such withdrawal is because:

(1) His client:

(a) Insists upon presenting a claim or defense that is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

(b) Personally seeks to pursue an illegal course of conduct.

(c) Insists that the lawyer pursue a course of conduct that is illegal or that is prohibited under the Disciplinary Rules.

(d) By other conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the lawyer to carry out his employment effectively.

(e) Insists, in a matter not pending before a tribunal, that the lawyer engage in conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the lawyer but not prohibited under the Disciplinary Rules.

(f) Deliberately disregards an agreement or obligation to the lawyer as to expenses or fees.

(2) His continued employment is likely to result in a violation of a Disciplinary Rule.

(3) His inability to work with co-counsel indicates that the best interests of the client likely will be served by withdrawal.

(4) His mental or physical condition renders it difficult for him to carry out the employment effectively.

(5) His client knowingly and freely assents to termination of his employment.

(6) He believes in good faith, in a proceeding pending before a tribunal, that the tribunal will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.

Canon 3

A Lawyer Should Assist in Preventing the Unauthorized Practice of Law

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 3-1. The prohibition against the practice of law by a layman is grounded in the need of the public for integrity and competence of those who undertake to render legal services. Because of the fiduciary and personal character of the lawyer-client relationship and the inherently complex nature of our legal system, the public can better be assured of the requisite responsibility and competence if the practice of law is confined to those who are subject to the requirements and regulations imposed upon members of the legal profession.

EC 3-2. The sensitive variations in the considerations that bear on legal determinations often make it difficult even for a lawyer to exercise appropriate professional judgment, and it is therefore essential that the personal nature of the relationship of client and lawyer be preserved. Competent professional judgment is the product of a trained familiarity with law and legal processes, a disciplined, analytical approach to legal problems, and a firm ethical commitment.

EC 3-3. A non-lawyer who undertakes to handle legal matters is not governed as to integrity or legal competence by the same rules that govern the conduct of a lawyer. A lawyer is not only subject to that regulation but also is committed to high standards of ethical conduct. The public interest is best served in legal matters by a regulated profession committed to such standards. The Disciplinary Rules protect the public in that they prohibit a lawyer from seeking employment by improper overtures, from acting in cases of divided loyalties, and from submitting to the control of others in the exercise of his judgment. Moreover, a person who entrusts legal matters to a lawyer is protected by the attorney-client privilege and by the duty of the lawyer to hold inviolate the confidences and secrets of his client.

EC 3-4. A layman who seeks legal services often is not in a position to judge whether he will receive proper professional attention. The entrustment of a legal matter may well involve the confidences, the reputation, the property, the freedom, or even the life of the client. Proper protection of members of the public demands that no person be permitted to act in the confidential and demanding capacity of a lawyer unless he is subject to the regulations of the legal profession.

EC 3-5. It is neither necessary nor desirable to attempt the formulation of a single, specific definition of what constitutes the practice of law. Functionally, the practice of law relates to the rendition of services for others that call for the professional judgment of a lawyer. The essence of the professional judgment of the lawyer is his educated ability to relate the general body and philosophy of law to a specific legal problem of a client; and thus, the public interest will be better served if only lawyers are permitted to act in matters involving professional judgment. Where this professional judgment is not involved, non-lawyers, such as court clerks, police officers, abstracters, and many governmental employees, may engage in occupations that require a special knowledge of law in certain areas. But the services of a lawyer are essential in the public interest whenever the exercise of professional legal judgment is required.

EC 3-6. A lawyer often delegates tasks to clerks, secretaries, and other lay persons. Such delegation is proper if the lawyer maintains a direct relationship with his client, supervises the delegated work, and has complete professional responsibility for the work product. This delegation enables a lawyer to render legal service more economically and efficiently.

EC 3-7. The prohibition against a non-lawyer practicing law does not prevent a layman from representing himself, for then he is ordinarily exposing only himself to possible injury. The purpose of the legal profession is to make educated legal representation available to the public; but anyone who does not wish to avail himself of such representation is not required to do so. Even so, the legal profession should help members of the public to recognize legal problems and to understand why it may be unwise for them to act for themselves in matters having legal consequences.

EC 3-8. Since a lawyer should not aid or encourage a layman to practice law, he should not practice law in association with a layman or otherwise share legal fees with a layman. This does not mean, however, that the pecuniary value of the interest of a deceased lawyer in his firm or practice may not be paid to his estate or specified persons such as his widow or heirs. In like manner, profit-sharing retirement plans of a lawyer or law firm which include non-lawyer office employees are not improper. These limited exceptions to the rule against sharing legal fees with laymen are permissible since they do not aid or encourage laymen to practice law.

EC 3-9. Regulation of the practice of law is accomplished principally by the respective states. Authority to engage in the practice of law conferred in any jurisdiction is not per se a grant of the right to practice elsewhere, and it is improper for a lawyer to engage in practice where he is not permitted by law or by court order to do so. However, the demands of business and the mobility of our society pose distinct problems in the regulation of the practice of law by the states. In furtherance of the public interest, the legal profession should discourage regulation that unreasonably imposes territorial limitations upon the right of a lawyer to handle the legal affairs of his client or upon the opportunity of a client to obtain the services of a lawyer of his choice in all matters including the presentation of a contested matter in a tribunal before which the lawyer is not permanently admitted to practice.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 3-101. Aiding Unauthorized Practice of Law

(A) A lawyer shall not aid a non-lawyer in the unauthorized practice of law.

(B) A lawyer shall not practice law in a jurisdiction where to do so would be in violation of regulations of the profession in that jurisdiction.

DR 3-102. Dividing Legal Fees with a Non-Lawyer

(A) A lawyer or law firm shall not share legal fees with a non-lawyer, except that:

(1) An agreement by a lawyer with his firm, partner, or associate may provide for the payment of money, over a reasonable period of time after his death, to his estate or to one or more specified persons.

(2) A lawyer who undertakes to complete unfinished legal business of a deceased lawyer may pay to the estate of the deceased lawyer that proportion of the total compensation which fairly represents the services rendered by the deceased lawyer.

(3) A lawyer or law firm may include non-lawyer employees in a retirement plan, even though the plan is based in whole or in part on a profit-sharing arrangement.

DR 3-103. Forming a Partnership with a Non-Lawyer

(A) A lawyer shall not form a partnership with a non-lawyer if any of the activities of the partnership consist of the practice of law.

Canon 4

A Lawyer Should Preserve the Confidences and Secrets of a Client

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 4-1. Both the fiduciary relationship existing between lawyer and client and the proper functioning of the legal system require the preservation by the lawyer of confidences and secrets of one who has employed or sought to employ him. A client must feel free to discuss whatever he wishes with his lawyer and a lawyer must be equally free to obtain information beyond that volunteered by his client. A lawyer should be fully informed of all the facts of the matter he is handling in order for his client to obtain the full advantage of our legal system. It is for the lawyer in the exercise of his independent professional judgment to separate the relevant and important from the irrelevant and unimportant. The observance of the ethical obligation of a lawyer to hold inviolate the confidences and secrets of his client not only facilitates the full development of facts essential to proper representation of the client but also encourages laymen to seek early legal assistance.

EC 4-2. The obligation to protect confidences and secrets obviously does not preclude a lawyer from revealing information when his client consents after full disclosure, when necessary to perform his professional employment, when permitted by Disciplinary Rules, or when required by law. Unless the client otherwise directs, a lawyer may disclose the affairs of his client to partners or associates of his firm. It is a matter of common knowledge that the normal operation of a law office exposes confidential professional information to non-lawyer employees of the office, particularly secretaries and those having access to the files; and this obligates a lawyer to exercise care in selecting and training his employees so that the sanctity of all confidences and secrets of his clients may be preserved. If the obligation extends to two or more clients as to the same information, a lawyer should obtain the permission of all before revealing the information. A lawyer must always be sensitive to the rights and wishes of his client and act scrupulously in the making of decisions which may involve the disclosure of information obtained in his professional relationship. Thus, in the absence of consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer should not associate another lawyer in the handling of a matter; nor should he, in the absence of consent, seek counsel from another lawyer if there is a reasonable possibility that the identity of the client or his confidences or secrets would be revealed to such lawyer. Both social amenities and professional duty should cause a lawyer to shun indiscreet conversations concerning his clients.

EC 4-3. Unless the client otherwise directs, it is not improper for a lawyer to give limited information from his files to an outside agency necessary for statistical, bookkeeping, accounting, data processing, banking, printing, or other legitimate purposes, provided he exercises due care in the selection of the agency and warns the agency that the information must be kept confidential.

EC 4-4. The attorney-client privilege is more limited than the ethical obligation of a lawyer to guard the confidences and secrets of his client. This ethical precept, unlike the evidentiary privilege, exists without regard to the nature or source of information or the fact that others share the knowledge. A lawyer should endeavor to act in a manner which preserves the evidentiary privilege; for example, he should avoid professional discussions in the presence of persons to whom the privilege does not extend. A lawyer owes an obligation to advise the client of the attorney-client privilege and timely to assert the privilege unless it is waived by the client.

EC 4-5. A lawyer should not use information acquired in the course of the representation of a client to the disadvantage of the client and a lawyer should not use, except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, such information for his own purposes. Likewise, a lawyer should be diligent in his efforts to prevent the misuse of such information by his employees and associates. Care should be exercised by a lawyer to prevent the disclosure of the confidences and secrets of one client to another, and no employment should be accepted that might require such disclosure.

EC 4-6. The obligation of a lawyer to preserve the confidences and secrets of his client continues after the termination of his employment. Thus a lawyer should not attempt to sell a law practice as a going business because, among other reasons, to do so would involve the disclosure of confidences and secrets. A lawyer should also provide for the protection of the confidences and secrets of his client following the termination of the practice of the lawyer, whether termination is due to death, disability, or retirement. For example, a lawyer might provide for the personal papers of the client to be returned to him and for the papers of the lawyer to be delivered to another lawyer or to be destroyed. In determining the method of disposition, the instructions and wishes of the client should be a dominant consideration.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 4-101. Preservation of Confidences and Secrets of a Client

(A) "Confidence" refers to information protected by the attorney-client privilege under applicable law, and "secret" refers to other information gained in the professional relationship that the client has requested be held inviolate or the disclosure of which would be embarrassing or would be likely to be detrimental to the client.

(B) Except when permitted under DR 4-101(C), a lawyer shall not knowingly:

- (1) Reveal a confidence or secret of his client.
- (2) Use a confidence or secret of his client to the disadvantage of the client.
- (3) Use a confidence or secret of his client for the advantage of himself or of a third person, unless the client consents after full disclosure.

(C) A lawyer may reveal:

- (1) Confidences or secrets with the consent of the client or clients affected, but only after a full disclosure to them.
- (2) Confidences or secrets when permitted under Disciplinary Rules or required by law or court order.
- (3) The intention of his client to commit a crime and the information necessary to prevent the crime.
- (4) Confidences or secrets necessary to establish or collect his fee or to defend himself or his employees or associates against an accusation of wrongful conduct.

(D) A lawyer shall exercise reasonable care to prevent his employees, associates, and others whose services are utilized by him from disclosing or using confidences or secrets of a client, except that a lawyer may reveal the information allowed by DR 4-101(C) through an employee.

Canon 5

A Lawyer Should Exercise Independent Professional Judgment on Behalf of a Client

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 5-1. The professional judgment of a lawyer should be exercised, within the bounds of the law, solely for the benefit of his client and free of compromising influences and loyalties. Neither his personal interests, the interests of other clients, nor the desires of third persons should be permitted to dilute his loyalty to his client.

Interests of a Lawyer That May Affect His Judgment

EC 5-2. A lawyer should not accept proffered employment if his personal interests or desires will, or there is a reasonable probability that they will, affect adversely the advice to be given or services to be rendered the prospective client. After accepting employment, a lawyer carefully should refrain from acquiring a property right or assuming a position that would tend to make his judgment less protective of the interests of his client.

EC 5-3. The self-interest of a lawyer resulting from his ownership of property in which his client also has an interest or which may affect property of his client may interfere with the exercise of free judgment on behalf of his client. If such interference would occur with respect to a prospective client, a lawyer should decline employment proffered by him. After accepting employment, a lawyer should not acquire property rights that would adversely affect his professional judgment in the representation of his client. Even if the property interests of a lawyer do not presently interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment, but the likelihood of interference can reasonably be foreseen by him, a lawyer should explain the situation to his client and should decline employment or withdraw unless the client consents to the continuance of the relationship after full disclosure. A lawyer should not seek to persuade his client to permit him to invest in an undertaking of his client nor make improper use of his professional relationship to influence his client to invest in an enterprise in which the lawyer is interested.

EC 5-4. If, in the course of his representation of a client, a lawyer is permitted to receive from his client a beneficial ownership in publication rights relating to the subject matter of the employment, he may be tempted to subordinate the interests of his client to his own anticipated pecuniary gain. For example, a lawyer in a criminal case who obtains from his client television, radio, motion picture, newspaper, magazine, book, or other publication rights with respect to the case may be influenced, consciously or unconsciously, to a course of conduct that will enhance the value of his publication rights to the prejudice of his client. To prevent these potentially differing interests, such arrangements should be scrupulously avoided prior to the termination of all aspects of the matter giving rise to the employment, even though his employment has previously ended.

EC 5-5. A lawyer should not suggest to his client that a gift be made to himself or for his benefit. If a lawyer accepts a gift from his client, he is peculiarly susceptible to the charge that he unduly influenced or overreached the client. If a client voluntarily offers to make a gift to his lawyer, the lawyer may accept the gift, but before doing so, he should urge that his client secure disinterested advice from an independent, competent person who is cognizant of all the circumstances. Other than in exceptional circumstances, a lawyer should insist that an instrument in which his client desires to name him beneficially be prepared by another lawyer selected by the client.

EC 5-6. A lawyer should not consciously influence a client to name him as executor, trustee, or lawyer in an instrument. In those cases where a client wishes to name his lawyer as such, care should be taken by the lawyer to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

EC 5-7. The possibility of an adverse effect upon the exercise of free judgment by a lawyer on behalf of his client during litigation generally makes it undesirable for the lawyer to acquire a proprietary interest in the cause of his client or otherwise to become financially interested in the outcome of the litigation. However, it is not improper for a lawyer to protect his right to collect a fee for his services by the assertion of legally permissible liens, even though by doing so he may acquire an interest in the outcome of litigation. Although a contingent fee arrangement gives a lawyer a financial interest in the outcome of litigation, a reasonable contingent fee is permissible in civil cases because it may be the only means by which a layman can obtain the services of a lawyer of his choice. But a lawyer, because he is in a better position to evaluate a cause of action, should enter into a contingent fee arrangement only in those instances where the arrangement will be beneficial to the client.

EC 5-8. A financial interest in the outcome of litigation also results if monetary advances are made by the lawyer to his client. Although this assistance generally is not encouraged, there are instances when it is not improper to make loans to a client. For example, the advancing or guaranteeing of payment of the costs and expenses of litigation by a lawyer may be the only way a client can enforce his cause of action, but the ultimate liability for such costs and expenses should be that of the client.

EC 5-9. Occasionally a lawyer is called upon to decide in a particular case whether he will be a witness or an advocate. If a lawyer is both counsel and witness, he becomes more easily impeachable for interest and thus may be a less effective witness. Conversely, the opposing counsel may be handicapped in challenging the credibility of the lawyer when the lawyer also appears as an advocate in the case. An advocate who becomes a witness is in the unseemly and ineffective position of arguing his own credibility. The roles of an advocate and of a witness are inconsistent; the function of an advocate is to advance or argue the cause of another, while that of a witness is to state facts objectively.

EC 5-10. Problems incident to the lawyer-witness relationship arise at different stages; they relate either to whether a lawyer should accept employment or should withdraw from employment. Regardless of when the problem arises, his decision is to be governed by the same basic considerations. It is not objectionable for a lawyer who is a potential witness to be an advocate if it is unlikely that he will be called as a witness because his testimony would be merely cumulative or if his testimony will relate only to an uncontested issue. In the exceptional situation where it will be manifestly unfair to the client for the lawyer to refuse employment or to withdraw when he will likely be a witness on a contested issue, he may serve as advocate even though he may be a witness. In making such decision, he should determine the personal or financial sacrifice of the client that may result from his refusal of employment or withdrawal therefrom, the materiality of his testimony, and the effectiveness of his representation in view of his personal involvement. In weighing these factors, it should be clear that refusal or withdrawal will impose an unreasonable hardship upon the client before the lawyer accepts or continues the employment. Where the question arises, doubts should be resolved in favor of the lawyer testifying and against his becoming or continuing as an advocate.

EC 5-11. A lawyer should not permit his personal interests to influence his advice relative to a suggestion by his client that additional counsel be employed. In like manner, his personal interests should not deter him from suggesting that additional counsel be employed; on the contrary, he should be alert to the desirability of recommending additional counsel when, in his judgment, the proper representation of his client requires it. However, a lawyer should advise his client not to employ additional counsel suggested by the client if the lawyer believes that such employment would be a disservice to the client, and he should disclose the reasons for his belief.

EC 5-12. Inability of co-counsel to agree on a matter vital to the representation of their client requires that their disagreement be submitted by them jointly to their client for his resolution, and the decision of the client shall control the action to be taken.

EC 5-13. A lawyer should not maintain membership in or be influenced by any organization of employees that undertakes to prescribe, direct, or suggest when or how he should fulfill his professional obligations to a person or organization that employs him as a lawyer. Although it is not necessarily improper for a lawyer employed by a corporation or similar entity to be a member of an organization of employees, he should be vigilant to safeguard his fidelity as a lawyer to his employer, free from outside influences.

Interests of Multiple Clients

EC 5-14. Maintaining the independence of professional judgment required of a lawyer precludes his acceptance or continuation of employment that will adversely affect his judgment on behalf of or dilute his loyalty to a client. This problem arises whenever a lawyer is asked to represent two or more clients who may have differing interests, whether such interests be conflicting, inconsistent, diverse, or otherwise discordant.

EC 5-15. If a lawyer is requested to undertake or to continue representation of multiple clients having potentially differing interests, he must weigh carefully the possibility that his judgment may be impaired or his loyalty divided if he accepts or continues the employment. He should resolve all doubts against the propriety of the representation. A lawyer should never represent in litigation multiple clients with differing interests; and there are few situations in which he would be justified in representing in litigation multiple clients with potentially differing interests. If a lawyer accepted such employment and the interests did become actually differing, he would have to withdraw from employment with likelihood of resulting hardship on the clients; and for this reason it is preferable that he refuse the employment initially. On the other hand, there are many instances in which a lawyer may properly serve multiple clients having potentially differing interests in matters not involving litigation. If the interests vary only slightly, it is generally likely that the lawyer will not be subjected to an adverse influence and that he can retain his independent judgment on behalf of each client; and if the interests become differing, withdrawal is less likely to have a disruptive effect upon the causes of his clients.

EC 5-16. In those instances in which a lawyer is justified in representing two or more clients having differing interests, it is nevertheless essential that each client be given the opportunity to evaluate his need for representation free of any potential conflict and to obtain other counsel if he so desires. Thus before a lawyer may represent multiple clients, he should explain fully to each client the implications of the common representation and should accept or continue employment only if the clients consent. If there are present other circumstances that might cause any of the multiple clients to question the undivided loyalty of the lawyer, he should also advise all of the clients of those circumstances.

EC 5-17. Typically recurring situations involving potentially differing interests are those in which a lawyer is asked to represent co-defendants in a criminal case, co-plaintiffs in a personal injury case, an insured and his insurer, and beneficiaries of the estate of a decedent. Whether a lawyer can fairly and adequately protect the interests of multiple clients in these and similar situations depends upon an analysis of each case. In certain circumstances, there may exist little chance of the judgment of the lawyer being adversely affected by the slight possibility that the interests will become actually differing; in other circumstances, the chance of adverse effect upon his judgment is not unlikely.

EC 5-18. A lawyer employed or retained by a corporation or similar entity owes his allegiance to the entity and not a stockholder, director, officer, employee, representative, or other person connected with the entity. In advising the entity, a lawyer should keep paramount its interests and his professional judgment should not be influenced by the personal desires of any person or organization. Occasionally a lawyer for an entity is requested by a stockholder, director, officer, employee, representative, or other person connected with the entity to represent him in an individual capacity; in such case the lawyer may serve the individual only if the lawyer is convinced that differing interests are not present.

EC 5-19. A lawyer may represent several clients whose interests are not actually or potentially differing. Nevertheless, he should explain any circumstances that might cause a client to question his undivided loyalty. Regardless of the belief of a lawyer that he may properly represent multiple clients, he must defer to a client who holds the contrary belief and withdraw from representation of that client.

EC 5-20. A lawyer is often asked to serve as an impartial arbitrator or mediator in matters which involve present or former clients. He may serve in either capacity if he first discloses such present or former relationships. After a lawyer has undertaken to act as an impartial arbitrator or mediator, he should not thereafter represent in the dispute any of the parties involved.

Desires of Third Persons

EC 5-21. The obligation of a lawyer to exercise professional judgment solely on behalf of his client requires that he disregard the desires of others that might impair his free judgment. The desires of a third person will seldom adversely affect a lawyer unless that person is in a position to exert strong economic, political, or social pressures upon the lawyer. These influences are often subtle, and a lawyer must be alert to their existence. A lawyer subjected to outside pressures should make full disclosure of them to his client; and if he or his client believes that the effectiveness of his representation has been or will be impaired thereby, the lawyer should take proper steps to withdraw from representation of his client.

EC 5-22. Economic, political, or social pressures by third persons are less likely to impinge upon the independent judgment of a lawyer in a matter in which he is compensated directly by his client and his professional work is exclusively with his client. On the other hand, if a lawyer is compensated from a source other than his client, he may feel a sense of responsibility to someone other than his client.

EC 5-23. A person or organization that pays or furnishes lawyers to represent others possesses a potential power to exert strong pressures against the independent judgment of those lawyers. Some employers may be interested in furthering their own economic, political, or social goals without regard to the professional responsibility of the lawyer to his individual client. Others may be far more concerned with establishment or extension of legal principles than in the immediate protection of the rights of the lawyer's individual client. On some occasions, decisions on priority of work may be made by the employer rather than the lawyer with the result that prosecution of work already undertaken for clients is postponed to their detriment. Similarly, an employer may seek, consciously or unconsciously, to further its own economic interests through the actions of the lawyers employed by it. Since a lawyer must always be free to exercise his professional judgment without regard to the interests or motives of a third person, the lawyer who is employed by one to represent another must constantly guard against erosion of his professional freedom.

EC 5-24. To assist a lawyer in preserving his professional independence, a number of courses are available to him. For example, a lawyer should not practice with or in the form of a professional legal corporation, even though the corporate form is permitted by law, if any director, officer, or stockholder of it is a non-lawyer. Although a lawyer may be employed by a business corporation with non-lawyers serving as directors or officers, and they necessarily have the right to make decisions of business policy, a lawyer must decline to accept direction of his professional judgment from any layman. Various types of legal aid offices are administered by boards of directors composed of lawyers and laymen. A lawyer should not accept employment from such an organization unless the board sets only broad policies and there is no interference in the relationship of the lawyer and the individual client he serves. Where a lawyer is employed by an organization, a written agreement that defines the relationship between him and the organization and provides for his independence is desirable since it may serve to prevent misunderstanding as to their respective roles. Although other innovations in the means of supplying legal counsel may develop, the responsibility of the lawyer to maintain his professional independence remains constant, and the legal profession must insure that changing circumstances do not result in loss of the professional independence of the lawyer.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 5-101. Refusing Employment When the Interests of the Lawyer May Impair His Independent Professional Judgment

(A) Except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer shall not accept employment if the exercise of his professional judgment on behalf of his client will be or reasonably may be affected by his own financial, business, property, or personal interests.

(B) A lawyer shall not accept employment in contemplated or pending litigation if he knows or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm ought to be called as a witness, except that he may undertake the employment and he or a lawyer in his firm may testify:

(1) If the testimony will relate solely to an uncontested matter.

(2) If the testimony will relate solely to a matter of formality and there is no reason to believe that substantial evidence will be offered in opposition to the testimony.

(3) If the testimony will relate solely to the nature and value of legal services rendered in the case by the lawyer or his firm to the client.

(4) As to any matter, if refusal would work a substantial hardship on the client because of the distinctive value of the lawyer or his firm as counsel in the particular case.

DR 5-102. Withdrawal as Counsel When the Lawyer Becomes a Witness

(A) If, after undertaking employment in contemplated or pending litigation, a lawyer learns or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm ought to be called as a witness on behalf of his client, he shall withdraw from the conduct of the trial and his firm, if any, shall not continue representation in the trial, except that he may continue the representation and he or a lawyer in his firm may testify in the circumstances enumerated in DR 5-101(B)(1) through (4).

(B) If, after undertaking employment in contemplated or pending litigation, a lawyer learns or it is obvious that he or a lawyer in his firm may be called as a witness other than on behalf of his client, he may continue the representation until it is apparent that his testimony is or may be prejudicial to his client.

DR 5-103. Avoiding Acquisition of Interest in Litigation

(A) A lawyer shall not acquire a proprietary interest in the cause of action or subject matter of litigation he is conducting for a client, except that he may:

(1) Acquire a lien granted by law to secure his fee or expenses.

(2) Contract with a client for a reasonable contingent fee in a civil case.

DR 5-104. Limiting Business Relations with a Client

(A) A lawyer shall not enter into a business transaction with a client if they have differing interests therein and if the client expects the lawyer to exercise his professional judgment therein for the protection of the client, unless the client has consented after full disclosure.

(B) Prior to conclusion of all aspects of the matter giving rise to his employment, a lawyer shall not enter into any arrangement or understanding with a client or a prospective client by which he acquires an interest in publication rights with respect to the subject matter of his employment or proposed employment.

DR 5-105. Refusing to Accept or Continue Employment if the Interests of Another Client May Impair the Independent Professional Judgment of the Lawyer

(A) A lawyer shall decline proffered employment if the exercise of his independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by the acceptance of the proffered employment, except to the extent permitted under DR 5-105(C).

(B) A lawyer shall not continue multiple employment if the exercise of his independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by his representation of another client, except to the extent permitted under DR 5-105(C).

(C) In the situations covered by DR 5-105(A) and (B), a lawyer may represent multiple clients if it is obvious that he can adequately represent the interest of each and if each consents to the representation after full disclosure of the possible effect of such representation on the exercise of his independent professional judgment on behalf of each.

(D) If a lawyer is required to decline employment or to withdraw from employment under DR 5-105, no partner or associate of his or his firm may accept or continue such employment.

DR 5-106. Settling Similar Claims of Clients

(A) A lawyer who represents two or more clients shall not make or participate in the making of an aggregate settlement of the claims of or against his clients, unless each client has consented to the settlement after being advised of the existence and nature of all the claims involved in the proposed settlement, of the total amount of the settlement, and of the participation of each person in the settlement.

DR 5-107. Avoiding Influence by Others Than the Client

(A) Except with the consent of his client after full disclosure, a lawyer shall not:

(1) Accept compensation for his legal services from one other than his client.

(2) Accept from one other than his client any thing of value related to his representation of or his employment by his client.

(B) A lawyer shall not permit a person who recommends, employs, or pays him to render legal services for another to direct or regulate his professional judgment in rendering such legal services.

(C) A lawyer shall not practice with or in the form of a professional corporation or association authorized to practice law for a profit, if:

(1) A non-lawyer owns any interest therein, except that a fiduciary representative of the estate of a lawyer may hold the stock or interest of the lawyer for a reasonable time during administration;

(2) A non-lawyer is a corporate director or officer thereof; or

(3) A non-lawyer has the right to direct or control the professional judgment of a lawyer.

Canon 6

A Lawyer Should Represent a Client Competently

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 6-1. Because of his vital role in the legal process, a lawyer should act with competence and proper care in representing clients. He should strive to become and remain proficient in his practice and should accept employment only in matters which he is or intends to become competent to handle.

EC 6-2. A lawyer is aided in attaining and maintaining competence by keeping abreast of current legal literature and developments, participating in continuing legal education programs, concentrating in particular areas of the law, and by utilizing other available means. He has the additional ethical obligation to assist in improving the legal profession, and he may do so by participating in bar activities intended to advance the quality and standards of members of the profession. Of particular importance is the careful training of his younger associates and the giving of sound guidance to all lawyers who consult him. In short, a lawyer should strive at all levels to aid the legal profession in advancing the highest possible standards of integrity and competence and to meet those standards himself.

EC 6-3. While the licensing of a lawyer is evidence that he has met the standards then prevailing for admission to the bar, a lawyer generally should not accept employment in any area of the law in which he is not qualified. However, he may accept such employment if in good faith he expects to become qualified through study and investigation, as long as such preparation would not result in unreasonable delay or expense to his client. Proper preparation and representation may require the association by the lawyer of professionals in other disciplines. A lawyer offered employment in a matter in which he is not and does not expect to become so qualified should either decline the employment or, with the consent of his client, accept the employment and associate a lawyer who is competent in the matter.

EC 6-4. Having undertaken representation, a lawyer should use proper care to safeguard the interests of his client. If a lawyer has accepted employment in a matter beyond his competence but in which he expected to become competent, he should diligently undertake the work and study necessary to qualify himself. In addition to being qualified to handle a particular matter, his obligation to his client requires him to prepare adequately for and give appropriate attention to his legal work.

EC 6-5. A lawyer should have pride in his professional endeavors. His obligation to act competently calls for higher motivation than that arising from fear of civil liability or disciplinary penalty.

EC 6-6. A lawyer should not seek, by contract or other means, to limit his individual liability to his client for his malpractice. A lawyer who handles the affairs of his client properly has no need to attempt to limit his liability for his professional activities and one who does not handle the affairs of his client properly should not be permitted to do so. A lawyer who is a stockholder in or is associated with a professional legal corporation may, however, limit his liability for malpractice of his associates in the corporation, but only to the extent permitted by law.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 6-101. Failing to Act Competently

(A) A lawyer shall not:

(1) Handle a legal matter which he knows or should know he is not competent to handle.

(2) Handle a legal matter without preparation adequate in the circumstances.

(3) Willfully or intentionally neglect a legal matter entrusted to him.

DR 6-102. Limiting Liability to Client

(A) A lawyer shall not attempt in advance to exonerate himself from or limit his liability to this client for his malpractice.

Canon 7

A Lawyer Should Represent a Client Zealously Within the Bounds of the Law

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 7-1. The duty of a lawyer, both to his client and to the legal system, is to represent his client zealously within the bounds of the law, which includes Disciplinary Rules and enforceable professional regulations. The professional responsibility of a lawyer derives from his membership in a proprofession which has the duty of assisting members of the public to secure and protect available legal rights and benefits. In our government of laws and not of men, each member of our society is entitled to have his conduct judged and regulated in accordance with the law; to seek any lawful objective through legally permissible means; and to present for adjudication any lawful claim, issue, or defense.

EC 7-2. The bounds of the law in a given case are often difficult to ascertain. The language of legislative enactments and judicial opinions may be uncertain as applied to varying factual situations. The limits and specific meaning of apparently relevant law may be made doubtful by changing or developing constitutional interpretations, inadequately expressed statutes or judicial opinions, and changing public and judicial attitudes. Certainty of law ranges from well-settled rules through areas of conflicting authority to areas without precedent.

EC 7-3. Where the bounds of law are uncertain, the action of a lawyer may depend on whether he is serving as advocate or adviser. A lawyer may serve simultaneously as both advocate and adviser, but the two roles are essentially different. In asserting a position on behalf of his client, an advocate for the most part deals with past conduct and must take the facts as he finds them. By contrast, a lawyer serving as adviser primarily assists his client in determining the course of future conduct and relationships. While serving as advocate, a lawyer should resolve in favor of his client doubts as to the bounds of the law. In serving a client as adviser, a lawyer in appropriate circumstances should give his professional opinion as to what the ultimate decisions of the courts would likely be as to the applicable law.

Duty of the Lawyer to a Client

EC 7-4. The advocate may urge any permissible construction of the law favorable to his client, without regard to his professional opinion as to the likelihood that the construction will ultimately prevail. His conduct is within the bounds of the law, and therefore permissible, if the position taken is supported by the law or is supportable by a good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of the law. However, a lawyer is not justified in asserting a position in litigation that is frivolous.

EC 7-5. A lawyer as adviser furthers the interest of his client by giving his professional opinion as to what he believes would likely be the ultimate decision of the courts on the matter at hand and by informing his client of the practical effect of such decision. He may continue in the representation of his client even though his client has elected to pursue a course of conduct contrary to the advice of the lawyer so long as he does not thereby knowingly assist the client to engage in illegal conduct or to take a frivolous legal position. A lawyer should never encourage or aid his client to commit criminal acts or counsel his client on how to violate the law and avoid punishment therefor.

EC 7-6. Whether the proposed action of a lawyer is within the bounds of the law may be a perplexing question when his client is contemplating a course of conduct having legal consequences that vary according to the client's intent, motive, or desires at the time of the action. Often a lawyer is asked to assist his client in developing evidence relevant to the state of mind of the client at a particular time. He may properly assist his client in the development and preservation of evidence of existing motive, intent, or desire; obviously, he may not do anything furthering the creation or preservation of false evidence. In many cases a lawyer may not be certain as to the state of mind of his client, and in those situations he should resolve reasonable doubts in favor of his client.

EC 7-7. In certain areas of legal representation not affecting the merits of the cause or substantially prejudicing the rights of a client, a lawyer is entitled to make the decisions on his own. But otherwise the authority to make decisions is exclusively that of the client and, if made within the framework of the law, such decisions are binding on his lawyer. As typical examples in civil cases, it is for the client to decide whether he will accept a settlement offer or whether he will waive his right to plead an affirmative defense. A defense lawyer in a criminal case has the duty to advise his client fully on whether a particular plea to a charge appears to be desirable and as to the prospects of success on appeal, but it is for the client to decide what plea should be entered and whether an appeal should be taken.

EC 7-8. A lawyer should exert his best efforts to insure that decisions of his client are made only after the client has been informed of relevant considerations. A lawyer ought to initiate this decision-making process if the client does not do so. Advice of a lawyer to his client need not be confined to purely legal considerations. A lawyer should advise his client of the possible effect of each legal alternative. A lawyer should bring to bear upon this decision-making process the fullness of his experience as well as his objective viewpoint. In assisting his client to reach a proper decision, it is often desirable for a lawyer to point out those factors which may lead to a decision that is morally just as well as legally permissible. He may emphasize the possibility of harsh consequences that might result from assertion of legally permissible positions. In the final analysis, however, the lawyer should always remember that the decision whether to forego legally available objectives or methods because of non-legal factors is ultimately for the client and not for himself. In the event that the client in a non-adjudicatory matter insists upon a course of conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the lawyer but not prohibited by Disciplinary Rules, the lawyer may withdraw from the employment.

EC 7-9. In the exercise of his professional judgment on those decisions which are for his determination in the handling of a legal matter, a lawyer should always act in a manner consistent with the best interests of his client. However, when an action in the best interest of his client seems to him to be unjust, he may ask his client for permission to forego such action.

EC 7-10. The duty of a lawyer to represent his client with zeal does not militate against his concurrent obligation to treat with consideration all persons involved in the legal process and to avoid the infliction of needless harm.

EC 7-11. The responsibilities of a lawyer may vary according to the intelligence, experience, mental condition or age of a client, the obligation of a public officer, or the nature of a particular proceeding. Examples include the representation of an illiterate or an incompetent, service as a public prosecutor or other government lawyer, and appearances before administrative and legislative bodies.

EC 7-12. Any mental or physical condition of a client that renders him incapable of making a considered judgment on his own behalf casts additional responsibilities upon his lawyer. Where an incompetent is acting through a guardian or other legal representative, a lawyer must look to such representative for those decisions which are normally the prerogative of the client to make. If a client under disability has no legal representative, his lawyer may be compelled in court proceedings to make decisions on behalf of the client. If the client is capable of understanding the matter in question or of contributing to the advancement of his interests, regardless of whether he is legally disqualified from performing certain acts, the lawyer should obtain from him all possible aid. If the disability of a client and the lack of a legal representative compel the lawyer to make decisions for his client, the lawyer should consider all circumstances then prevailing and act with care to safeguard and advance the interests of his client. But obviously a lawyer cannot perform any act or make any decision which the law requires his client to perform or make, either acting for himself if competent, or by a duly constituted representative if legally incompetent.

EC 7-13. The responsibility of a public prosecutor differs from that of the usual advocate; his duty is to seek justice, not merely to convict. This special duty exists because: (1) the prosecutor represents the sovereign and therefore should use restraint in the discretionary exercise of governmental powers, such as in the selection of cases to prosecute; (2) during trial the prosecutor is not only an advocate but he also may make decisions normally made by an individual client, and those affecting the public interest should be fair to all; and (3) in our system of criminal justice the accused is to be given the benefit of all reasonable doubts. With respect to evidence and witnesses, the prosecutor has responsibilities different from those of a lawyer in private practice: the prosecutor should make timely disclosure to the defense of available evidence, known to him, that tends to negate the guilt of the accused, mitigate the degree of the offense, or reduce the punishment. Further, a prosecutor should not intentionally avoid pursuit of evidence merely because he believes it will damage the prosecution's case or aid the accused.

EC 7-14. A government lawyer who has discretionary power relative to litigation should refrain from instituting or continuing litigation that is obviously unfair. A government lawyer not having such discretionary power who believes there is lack of merit in a controversy submitted to him should so advise his superiors and recommend the avoidance of unfair litigation. A government lawyer in a civil action or administrative proceeding has the responsibility to seek justice and to develop a full and fair record, and he should not use his position or the economic power of the government to harass parties or to bring about unjust settlements or results.

EC 7-15. The nature and purpose of proceedings before administrative agencies vary widely. The proceedings may be legislative or quasi-judicial, or a combination of both. They may be ex parte in character, in which event they may originate either at the instance of the agency or upon motion of an interested party. The scope of an inquiry may be purely investigative or it may be truly adversary looking toward the adjudication of specific rights of a party or of classes of parties. The foregoing are but examples of some of the types of proceedings conducted by administrative agencies. A lawyer appearing before an administrative agency, regardless of the nature of the proceeding it is conducting, has the continuing duty to advance the cause of his client within the bounds of the law. Where the applicable rules of the agency impose specific obligations upon a lawyer, it is his duty to comply therewith, unless the lawyer has a legitimate basis for challenging the validity thereof. In all appearances before administrative agencies, a lawyer should identify himself, his client if identity of his client is not privileged, and the representative nature of his appearance. It is not improper, however, for a lawyer to seek from an agency information available to the public without identifying his client.

EC 7-16. The primary business of a legislative body is to enact laws rather than to adjudicate controversies, although on occasion the activities of a legislative body may take on the characteristics of an adversary proceeding, particularly in investigative and impeachment matters. The role of a lawyer supporting or opposing proposed legislation normally is quite different from his role in representing a person under investigation or on trial by a legislative body. When a lawyer appears in connection with proposed legislation, he seeks to affect the lawmaking process, but when he appears on behalf of a client in investigatory or impeachment proceedings, he is concerned with the protection of the rights of his client. In either event, he should identify himself and his client, if identity of his client is not privileged, and should comply with applicable laws and legislative rules.

EC 7-17. The obligation of loyalty to his client applies only to a lawyer in the discharge of his professional duties and implies no obligation to adopt a personal viewpoint favorable to the interests or desires of his client. While a lawyer must act always with circumspection in order that his conduct will not adversely affect the rights of a client in a matter he is then handling, he may take positions on public issues and espouse legal reforms he favors without regard to the individual views of any client.

EC 7-18. The legal system in its broadest sense functions best when persons in need of legal advice or assistance are represented by their own counsel. For this reason a lawyer should not communicate on the subject matter of the representation of his client with a person he knows to be represented in the matter by a lawyer, unless pursuant to law or rule of court or unless he has the consent of the lawyer for that person. If one is not represented by counsel, a lawyer representing another may have to deal directly with the unrepresented person; in such an instance, a lawyer should not undertake to give advice to the person who is attempting to represent himself, except that he may advise him to obtain a lawyer.

Duty of the Lawyer to the Adversary System of Justice

EC 7-19. Our legal system provides for the adjudication of disputes governed by the rules of substantive evidentiary, and procedural law. An adversary presentation counters the natural human tendency to judge too swiftly in terms of the familiar that which is not yet fully known; the advocate, by his zealous preparation and presentation of facts and law, enables the tribunal to come to the hearing with an open and neutral mind and to render impartial judgments. The duty of a lawyer to his client and his duty to the legal system are the same: to represent his client zealously within the bounds of the law.

EC 7-20. In order to function properly, our adjudicative process requires an informed, impartial tribunal capable of administering justice promptly and efficiently according to procedures that command public confidence and respect. Not only must there be competent, adverse presentation of evidence and issues, but a tribunal must be aided by rules appropriate to an effective and dignified process. The procedures under which tribunals operate in our adversary system have been prescribed largely by legislative enactments, court rules and decisions, and administrative rules. Through the years certain concepts of proper professional conduct have become rules of law applicable to the adversary adjudicative process. Many of these concepts are the bases for standards of professional conduct set forth in the Disciplinary Rules.

EC 7-21. The civil adjudicative process is primarily designed for the settlement of disputes between parties, while the criminal process is designed for the protection of society as a whole. Threatening to use, or using, the criminal process to coerce adjustment of private civil claims or controversies is a subversion of that process; further, the person against whom the criminal process is so misused may be deterred from asserting his legal rights and thus the usefulness of the civil process in settling private disputes is impaired. As in all cases of abuse of judicial process, the improper use of criminal process tends to diminish public confidence in our legal system.

EC 7-22. Respect for judicial rulings is essential to the proper administration of justice; however, a litigant or his lawyer may, in good faith and within the framework of the law, take steps to test the correctness of a ruling of a tribunal.

EC 7-23. The complexity of law often makes it difficult for a tribunal to be fully informed unless the pertinent law is presented by the lawyers in the cause. A tribunal that is fully informed on the applicable law is better able to make a fair and accurate determination of the matter before it. The adversary system contemplates that each lawyer will present and argue the existing law in the light most favorable to his client. Where a lawyer knows of legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction directly adverse to the position of his client, he should inform the tribunal of its existence unless his adversary has done so; but, having made such disclosure, he may challenge its soundness in whole or in part.

EC 7-24. In order to bring about just and informed decisions, evidentiary and procedural rules have been established by tribunals to permit the inclusion of relevant evidence and argument and the exclusion of all other considerations. The expression by a lawyer of his personal opinion as to the justness of a cause, as to the credibility of a witness, as to the culpability of a civil litigant, or as to the guilt or innocence of an accused is not a proper subject for argument to the trier of fact. It is improper as to factual matters because admissible evidence possessed by a lawyer should be presented only as sworn testimony. It is improper as to all other matters because, were the rule otherwise, the silence of a lawyer on a given occasion could be construed unfavorably to his client. However, a lawyer may argue, on his analysis of the evidence, for any position or conclusion with respect to any of the foregoing matters.

EC 7-25. Rules of evidence and procedure are designed to lead to just decisions and are part of the framework of the law. Thus while a lawyer may take steps in good faith and within the framework of the law to test the validity of rules, he is not justified in consciously violating such rules and he should be diligent in his efforts to guard against his unintentional violation of them. As examples, a lawyer should subscribe to or verify only those pleadings that he believes are in compliance with applicable law and rules; a lawyer should not make any prefatory statement before a tribunal in regard to the purported facts of the case on trial unless he believes that his statement will be supported by admissible evidence; a lawyer should not ask a witness a question solely for the purpose of harassing or embarrassing him; and a lawyer should not by subterfuge put before a jury matters which it cannot properly consider.

EC 7-26. The law and Disciplinary Rules prohibit the use of fraudulent, false, or perjured testimony or evidence. A lawyer who knowingly participates in introduction of such testimony or evidence is subject to discipline. A lawyer should, however, present any admissible evidence his client desires to have presented unless he knows, or from facts within his knowledge should know, that such testimony or evidence is false, fraudulent, or perjured.

EC 7-27. Because it interferes with the proper administration of justice, a lawyer should not suppress evidence that he or his client has a legal obligation to reveal or produce. In like manner, a lawyer should not advise or cause a person to secrete himself or to leave the jurisdiction of a tribunal for the purpose of making him unavailable as a witness therein.

EC 7-28. Witnesses should always testify truthfully and should be free from any financial inducements that might tempt them to do otherwise. A lawyer should not pay or agree to pay a non-expert witness an amount in excess of reimbursement for expenses and financial loss incident to his being a witness; however, a lawyer may pay or agree to pay an expert witness a reasonable fee for his services as an expert. But in no event should a lawyer pay or agree to pay a contingent fee to any witness. A lawyer should exercise reasonable diligence to see that his client and lay associates conform to these standards.

EC 7-29. To safeguard the impartiality that is essential to the judicial process, veniremen and jurors should be protected against extraneous influences. When impartiality is present, public confidence in the judicial system is enhanced. There should be no extrajudicial communication with veniremen prior to trial or with jurors during trial by or on behalf of a lawyer connected with the case. Furthermore, a lawyer who is not connected with the case should not communicate with or cause another to communicate with a venireman or a juror about the case. After the trial, communication by a lawyer with jurors is permitted so long as he refrains from asking questions or making comments that tend to harass or embarrass the juror or to influence actions of the juror in future cases. Were a lawyer to be prohibited from communicating after trial with a juror, he could not ascertain if the verdict might be subject to legal challenge, in which event the invalidity of a verdict might go undetected. When an extrajudicial communication by a lawyer with a juror is permitted by law, it should be made considerably and with deference to the personal feelings of the juror.

EC 7-30. Vexatious or harassing investigations of veniremen or jurors seriously impair the effectiveness of our jury system. For this reason a lawyer or anyone on his behalf who conducts an investigation of veniremen or jurors should act with circumspection and restraint.

EC 7-31. Communications with or investigations of members of families of veniremen or jurors by a lawyer or by anyone on his behalf are subject to the restrictions imposed upon the lawyer with respect to his communications with or investigations of veniremen and jurors.

EC 7-32. Because of his duty to aid in preserving the integrity of the jury system, a lawyer who learns of improper conduct by or towards a venireman, a juror, or a member of the family of either should make a prompt report to the court regarding such conduct.

EC 7-33. A goal of our legal system is that each party shall have his case, criminal or civil, adjudicated by an impartial tribunal. The attainment of this goal may be defeated by dissemination of news or comments which tend to influence judge or jury. Such news or comments may prevent prospective jurors from being impartial at the outset of the trial and may also interfere with the obligation of jurors to base their verdict solely upon the evidence admitted in the trial. The release by a lawyer of out-of-court statements regarding an anticipated or pending trial may improperly affect the impartiality of the tribunal. For these reasons, standards for permissible and prohibited conduct of a lawyer with respect to trial publicity have been established.

EC 7-34. The impartiality of a public servant in our legal system may be impaired by the receipt of gifts or loans. A lawyer, therefore, is never justified in making a gift or a loan to a judge, a hearing officer, or an official or employee of a tribunal if the gift or loan is likely to, or may appear to others to be likely to, influence his judgment or obtain some benefit for the lawyer or his client. Likewise, campaign contributions should be handled discreetly so as to avoid the appearance of impropriety.

EC 7-35. All litigants and lawyers should have access to tribunals on an equal basis. Generally, in adversary proceedings a lawyer should not communicate with a judge relative to a matter pending before, or which is to be brought before, a tribunal over which he presides in circumstances which might have the effect or give the appearance of granting undue advantage to one party. For example, a lawyer should not communicate with a tribunal by a writing unless a copy thereof is promptly delivered to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer. Ordinarily an oral communication by a lawyer with a judge or hearing officer should be made only upon adequate notice to opposing counsel, or, if there is none, to the opposing party. A lawyer should not condone or lend himself to private importunities by another with a judge or hearing officer on behalf of himself or his client.

EC 7-36. Judicial hearings ought to be conducted through dignified and orderly procedures designed to protect the rights of all parties. Although a lawyer has the duty to represent his client zealously, he should not engage in any conduct that offends the dignity and decorum of proceedings. While maintaining his independence, a lawyer should be respectful, courteous, and above-board in his relations with a judge or hearing officer before whom he appears. He should avoid undue solicitude for the comfort or convenience of judge or jury and should avoid any other conduct calculated to gain special consideration.

EC 7-37. In adversary proceedings, clients are litigants and though ill feeling may exist between clients, such ill feeling should not influence a lawyer in his conduct, attitude, and demeanor towards opposing lawyers. A lawyer should not make unfair or derogatory personal reference to opposing counsel. Haranguing and offensive tactics by lawyers interfere with the orderly administration of justice and have no proper place in our legal system.

EC 7-38. A lawyer should be courteous to opposing counsel and should accede to reasonable requests regarding court proceedings, settings, continuances, waiver of procedural formalities, and similar matters which do not prejudice the rights of his client. He should follow local customs of courtesy or practice, unless he gives timely notice to opposing counsel of his intention not to do so. A lawyer should be punctual in fulfilling all professional commitments.

EC 7-39. In the final analysis, proper functioning of the adversary system depends upon cooperation between lawyers and tribunals in utilizing procedures which will preserve the impartiality of the tribunal and make their decisional processes prompt and just, without impinging upon the obligation of the lawyer to represent his client zealously within the framework of the law.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 7-101. Representing a Client Zealously

(A) A lawyer shall not intentionally:

(1) Fail to seek the lawful objectives of his client through reasonably available means permitted by law and the Disciplinary Rules, except as provided by DR 7-101(B). A lawyer does not violate this Disciplinary Rule, however, by acceding to reasonable requests of opposing counsel which do not prejudice the rights of his client, by being punctual in fulfilling all professional commitments, by avoiding offensive tactics, or by treating with courtesy and consideration all persons involved in the legal process.

(2) Fail to carry out a contract of employment entered into with a client for professional services, but he may withdraw as permitted under DR 2-110, DR 5-102, and DR 5-105.

(3) Prejudice or damage his client during the course of the professional relationship, except as required under DR 7-102(B).

(B) In his representation of a client, a lawyer may:

(1) Where permissible, exercise his professional judgment to waive or fail to assert a right or position of his client.

(2) Refuse to aid or participate in conduct that he believes to be unlawful, even though there is some support for an argument that the conduct is legal.

DR 7-102. Representing a Client Within the Bounds of the Law

(A) In his representation of a client, a lawyer shall not:

(1) File a suit, assert a position, conduct a defense, delay a trial, or take other action on behalf of his client when he knows or when it is obvious that such action would serve merely to harass or maliciously injure another.

(2) Knowingly advance a claim or defense that is unwarranted under existing law, except that he may advance such claim or defense if it can be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

(3) Conceal or knowingly fail to disclose that which he is required by law to reveal.

(4) Knowingly use perjured testimony or false evidence.

(5) Knowingly make a false statement of law or fact.

(6) Participate in the creation or preservation of evidence when he knows or it is obvious that the evidence is false.

(7) Counsel or assist his client in conduct that the lawyer knows to be illegal or fraudulent.

(8) Knowingly engage in other illegal conduct or conduct contrary to a Disciplinary Rule.

(B) A lawyer who receives information clearly establishing that:

(1) His client has, in the course of the representation, perpetrated a fraud upon a person or tribunal shall promptly call upon his client to rectify the same, and if his client refuses or is unable to do so he shall reveal the fraud to the affected person or tribunal.

(2) A person other than his client has perpetrated a fraud upon a tribunal shall promptly reveal the fraud to the tribunal.

DR 7-103. Performing the Duty of Public Prosecutor or Other Government Lawyer

(A) A public prosecutor or other government lawyer shall not institute or cause to be instituted criminal charges when he knows or it is obvious that the charges are not supported by probable cause.

(B) A public prosecutor or other government lawyer in criminal litigation shall make timely disclosure to counsel for the defendant, or to the defendant if he has no counsel, of the existence of evidence, known to the prosecutor or other government lawyer, that tends to negate the guilt of the accused, mitigate the degree of the offense, or reduce the punishment.

DR 7-104. Communicating With One of Adverse Interest

(A) During the course of his representation of a client a lawyer shall not:

(1) Communicate or cause another to communicate on the subject of the representation with a party he knows to be represented by a lawyer in that matter unless he has the prior consent of the lawyer representing such other party or is authorized by law to do so.

(2) Give advice to a person who is not represented by a lawyer, other than the advice to secure counsel, if the interests of such person are or have a reasonable possibility of being in conflict with the interests of his client.

DR 7-105. Threatening Criminal Prosecution

(A) A lawyer shall not present, participate in presenting, or threaten to present criminal charges solely to obtain an advantage in a civil matter.

DR 7-106. Trial Conduct

(A) A lawyer shall not disregard or advise his client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but he may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling.

(B) In presenting a matter to a tribunal, a lawyer shall disclose:

(1) Legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to him to be directly adverse to the position of his client and which is not disclosed by opposing counsel.

(2) Unless privileged or irrelevant, the identities of the clients he represents and of the persons who employed him.

(C) In appearing in his professional capacity before a tribunal, a lawyer shall not:

(1) State or allude to any matter that he has no reasonable basis to believe is relevant to the case or that will not be supported by admissible evidence.

(2) Ask any question that he has no reasonable basis to believe is relevant to the case and that is intended to degrade a witness or other person.

(3) Assert his personal knowledge of the facts in issue, except when testifying as a witness.

(4) Assert his personal opinion as to the justice of a cause, as to the credibility of a witness, as to the culpability of a civil litigant, or as to the guilt or innocence of an accused; but he may argue, on his analysis of the evidence, for any position or conclusion with respect to the matters stated herein.

(5) Fail to comply with known local customs of courtesy or practice of the bar or a particular tribunal without giving to opposing counsel timely notice of his intent not to comply.

(6) Engage in undignified or discourteous conduct which is degrading to a tribunal.

(7) Intentionally or habitually violate any established rule of procedure or of evidence.

DR 7-107. Trial Publicity

(A) A Lawyer participating in or associated with the investigation of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that does more than state without elaboration:

(1) Information contained in a public record.

(2) That the investigation is in progress.

(3) The general scope of the investigation including a description of the offense and, if permitted by law, the identity of the victim.

(4) A request for assistance in apprehending a suspect or assistance in other matters and the information necessary thereto.

(5) A warning to the public of any dangers.

(B) A lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not, from the time of the filing of a complaint, information, or indictment, the issuance of an arrest warrant, or arrest until the commencement of the trial or disposition without trial, make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to:

(1) The character, reputation, or prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments, or other charges of crime) of the accused.

(2) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or to a lesser offense.

(3) The existence or contents of any confession, admission, or statement given by the accused or his refusal or failure to make a statement.

(4) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of the accused to submit to examinations or tests.

(5) The identity, testimony, or credibility of a prospective witness.

(6) Any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, the evidence, or the merits of the case.

(C) DR 7-107(B) does not preclude a lawyer during such period from announcing:

(1) The name, age, residence, occupation, and family status of the accused.

(2) If the accused has not been apprehended, any information necessary to aid in his apprehension or to warn the public of any dangers he may present.

(3) A request for assistance in obtaining evidence.

(4) The identity of the victim of the crime.

(5) The fact, time, and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit, and use of weapons.

DR 7-107

(6) The identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation.

(7) At the time of seizure, a description of the physical evidence seized, other than a confession, admission, or statement.

(8) The nature, substance, or text of the charge.

(9) Quotations from or references to public records of the court in the case.

(10) The scheduling or result of any step in the judicial proceedings.

(11) That the accused denies the charges made against him.

(D) During the selection of a jury or the trial of a criminal matter, a lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to the trial, parties, or issues in the trial or other matters that are reasonably likely to interfere with a fair trial, except that he may quote from or refer without comment to public records of the court in the case.

(E) After the completion of a trial or disposition without trial of a criminal matter and prior to the imposition of sentence, a lawyer or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense shall not make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by public communication and that is reasonably likely to affect the imposition of sentence.

(F) The foregoing provisions of DR 1-107 also apply to professional disciplinary proceedings and juvenile disciplinary proceedings when pertinent and consistent with other law applicable to such proceedings.

(G) A lawyer or law firm associated with a civil action shall not during its investigation or litigation make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement, other than a quotation from or reference to public records, that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to:

(1) Evidence regarding the occurrence or transaction involved.

(2) The character, credibility, or criminal record of a party, witness, or prospective witness.

(3) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of a party to submit to such.

(4) His opinion as to the merits of the claims or defenses of a party, except as required by law or administrative rule.

(5) Any other matter reasonably likely to interfere with a fair trial of the action.

(H) During the pendency of an administrative proceeding, a lawyer or law firm associated therewith shall not make or participate in making a statement, other than a quotation from or reference to public records, that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication if it is made outside the official course of the proceeding and relates to:

(1) Evidence regarding the occurrence or transaction involved.

(2) The character, credibility, or criminal record of a party, witness, or prospective witness.

(3) Physical evidence or the performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of a party to submit to such.

(4) His opinion as to the merits of the claims, defenses, or positions of an interested person.

(5) Any other matter reasonably likely to interfere with a fair hearing.

(I) The foregoing provisions of DR 7-107 do not preclude a lawyer from replying to charges of misconduct publicly made against him or from participating in the proceedings of legislative, administrative, or other investigative bodies.

(J) A lawyer shall exercise reasonable care to prevent his employees and associates from making an extra judicial statement that he would be prohibited from making under DR 7-107.

DR 7-108. Communication with or Investigation of Jurors

(A) Before the trial of a case a lawyer connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with anyone he knows to be a member of the venire from which the jury will be selected for the trial of the case.

(B) During the trial of a case:

(1) A lawyer connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with any member of the jury.

(2) A lawyer who is not connected therewith shall not communicate with or cause another to communicate with a juror concerning the case.

(C) DR 7-108(A) and (B) do not prohibit a lawyer from communicating with veniremen or jurors in the course of official proceedings.

(D) After discharge of the jury from further consideration of a case with which the lawyer was connected, the lawyer shall not ask questions of or make comments to a member of that jury that are calculated merely to harass or embarrass the juror or to influence his actions in future jury service.

(E) A lawyer shall not conduct or cause, by financial support or otherwise, another to conduct a vexatious or harassing investigation of either a venireman or a juror.

(F) All restrictions imposed by DR 7-108 upon a lawyer also apply to communications with or investigations of members of a family of a venireman or a juror.

(G) A lawyer shall reveal promptly to the court improper conduct by a venireman or a juror, or by another toward a venireman or a juror or a member of his family, of which the lawyer has knowledge.

DR 7-109. Contact with Witnesses

(A) A lawyer shall not suppress any evidence that he or his client has a legal obligation to reveal or produce.

(B) A lawyer shall not advise or cause a person to secrete himself or to leave the jurisdiction of a tribunal for the purpose of making him unavailable as a witness therein.

(C) A lawyer shall not pay, offer to pay, or acquiesce in the payment of compensation to a witness contingent upon the content of his testimony or the outcome of the case. But a lawyer may advance, guarantee, or acquiesce in the payment of:

- (1) Expenses reasonably incurred by a witness in attending or testifying.
- (2) Reasonable compensation to a witness for his loss of time in attending or testifying.
- (3) A reasonable fee for the professional services of an expert witness.

DR 7-110. Contact with Officials

(A) A lawyer shall not give or lend anything of more than nominal value to a judge, official, or employee of a tribunal, but a lawyer is not prohibited hereby from making contributions to a fund for filing fees or campaign expenses of a judge or official seeking election or reelection to a public office.

(B) In an adversary proceeding, a lawyer shall not communicate, or cause another to communicate, as to the merits of the cause with a judge or an official before whom the proceeding is pending, except:

- (1) In the course of official proceedings in the cause.
- (2) In writing if he promptly delivers a copy of the writing to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer.
- (3) Orally upon adequate notice to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if he is not represented by a lawyer.
- (4) As otherwise authorized by law.

Canon 8

A Lawyer Should Assist in Improving the Legal System

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 8-1. Changes in human affairs and imperfections in human institutions make necessary constant efforts to maintain and improve our legal system. This system should function in a manner that commands public respect and fosters the use of legal remedies to achieve redress of grievances. By reason of education and experience, lawyers are especially qualified to recognize deficiencies in the legal system and to initiate corrective measures therein.

Thus they should participate in proposing and supporting legislation and programs to improve the system, without regard to the general interests or desires of clients or former clients.

EC 8-2. Rules of law are deficient if they are not just, understandable, and responsive to the needs of society. If a lawyer believes that the existence or absence of a rule of law, substantive or procedural, causes or contributes to an unjust result, he should endeavor by lawful means to obtain appropriate changes in the law. He should encourage the simplification of laws and the repeal or amendment of laws that are outmoded. Likewise, legal procedures should be improved whenever experience indicates a change is needed.

EC 8-3. The fair administration of justice requires the availability of competent lawyers. Members of the public should be educated to recognize the existence of legal problems and the resultant need for legal services, and should be provided methods for intelligent selection of counsel. Those persons unable to pay for legal services should be provided needed services. Clients and lawyers should not be penalized by undue geographical restraints upon representation in legal matters, and the bar should address itself to improvements in licensing, reciprocity, and admission procedures consistent with the needs of modern commerce.

EC 8-4. Whenever a lawyer seeks legislative or administrative changes, he should identify the capacity in which he appears, whether on behalf of himself, a client, or the public. A lawyer may advocate such changes on behalf of a client even though he does not agree with them. But when a lawyer purports to act on behalf of the public, he should espouse only those changes which he conscientiously believes to be in the public interest.

EC 8-5. Fraudulent, deceptive, or otherwise illegal conduct by a participant in a proceeding before a tribunal or legislative body is inconsistent with fair administration of justice, and it should never be participated in or condoned by lawyers. Unless constrained by his obligation to preserve the confidences and secrets of his client, a lawyer should reveal to appropriate authorities any knowledge he may have of such improper conduct.

EC 8-6. Judges and administrative officials having adjudicatory powers ought to be persons of integrity, competence, and suitable temperament. Generally lawyers are qualified, by personal observation or investigation, to evaluate the qualifications of persons seeking or being considered for such public offices, and for this reason they have a special responsibility to aid in the selection of only those who are qualified. It is the duty of lawyers to endeavor to prevent political considerations from outweighing judicial fitness in the selection of judges. Lawyers should protest earnestly against the appointment or election of those who are unsuited for the bench and should strive to have elected or appointed thereto only those who are willing to forego pursuits, whether of a business, political, or other nature, that may interfere with the free and fair consideration of questions presented for adjudication. Adjudicatory officials, not being wholly free to defend themselves, are entitled to receive the support of the bar against unjust criticism. While a lawyer as a citizen has a right to criticize such officials publicly, he should be certain of the merit of his complaint, use appropriate language, and avoid petty criticisms, for unrestrained and intemperate statements tend to lessen public confidence in our legal system. Criticisms motivated by reasons other than a desire to improve the legal system are not justified.

EC 8-7. Since lawyers are a vital part of the legal system, they should be persons of integrity, of professional skill, and of dedication to the improvement of the system. Thus a lawyer should aid in establishing, as well as enforcing, standards of conduct adequate to protect the public by insuring that those who practice law are qualified to do so.

EC 8-8. Lawyers often serve as legislators or as holders of other public offices. This is highly desirable, as lawyers are uniquely qualified to make significant contributions to the improvement of the legal system. A lawyer who is a public officer, whether full or part-time, should not engage in activities in which his personal or professional interests are or foreseeably may be in conflict with his official duties.

EC 8-9. The advancement of our legal system is of vital importance in maintaining the rule of law and in facilitating orderly changes; therefore, lawyers should encourage, and should aid in making, needed changes and improvements.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 8-101. Action as a Public Official

(A) A lawyer who holds public office shall not:

(1) Use his public position to obtain, or attempt to obtain, a special advantage in legislative matters for himself or for a client under circumstances where he knows or it is obvious that such action is not in the public interest.

(2) Use his public position to influence, or attempt to influence, a tribunal to act in favor of himself or of a client.

(3) Accept any thing of value from any person when the lawyer knows or it is obvious that the offer is for the purpose of influencing his action as a public official.

DR 8-102. Statements Concerning Judges and Other Adjudicatory Officers

(A) A lawyer shall not knowingly make false statements of fact concerning the qualifications of a candidate for election or appointment to a judicial office.

(B) A lawyer shall not knowingly make false accusations against a judge or other adjudicatory officer.

Canon 9

A Lawyer Should Avoid Even the Appearance of Professional Impropriety

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 9-1. Continuation of the American concept that we are to be governed by rules of law requires that the people have faith that justice can be obtained through our legal system. A lawyer should promote public confidence in our system and in the legal profession.

EC 9-2. Public confidence in law and lawyers may be eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct of a lawyer. On occasion, ethical conduct of a lawyer may appear to laymen to be unethical. In order to avoid misunderstandings and hence to maintain confidence, a lawyer should fully and promptly inform his client of material developments in the matters being handled for the client. While a lawyer should guard against otherwise proper conduct that has a tendency to diminish public confidence in the legal system or in the legal profession, his duty to clients or to the public should never be subordinate merely because the full discharge of his obligation may be misunderstood or may tend to subject him or the legal profession to criticism. When explicit ethical guidance does not exist, a lawyer should determine his conduct by acting in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the legal system and the legal profession.

EC 9-3. After a lawyer leaves judicial office or other public employment, he should not accept employment in connection with any matter in which he had substantial responsibility prior to his leaving, since to accept employment would give the appearance of impropriety even if none exists.

EC 9-4. Because the very essence of the legal system is to provide procedures by which matters can be presented in an impartial manner so that they may be decided solely upon the merits, any statement or suggestion by a lawyer that he can or would attempt to circumvent those procedures is detrimental to the legal system and tends to undermine public confidence in it.

EC 9-5. Separation of the funds of a client from those of his lawyer not only serves to protect the client but also avoids even the appearance of impropriety, and therefore commingling of such funds should be avoided.

EC 9-6. Every lawyer owes a solemn duty to uphold the integrity and honor of his profession; to encourage respect for the law and for the courts and the judges thereof; to observe the Code of Professional Responsibility; to act as a member of a learned profession, one dedicated to public service; to cooperate with his brother lawyers in supporting the organized bar through the devoting of his time, efforts, and financial support as his professional standing and ability reasonably permit; to conduct himself so as to reflect credit on the legal profession and to inspire the confidence, respect, and trust of his clients and of the public; and to strive to avoid not only professional impropriety but also the appearance of impropriety.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

DR 9-101. Avoiding Even the Appearance of Impropriety

(A) A lawyer shall not accept private employment in a matter upon the merits of which he has acted in a judicial capacity.

(B) A lawyer shall not accept private employment in a matter in which he had substantial responsibility while he was a public employee.

(C) A lawyer shall not state or imply that he is able to influence improperly or upon irrelevant grounds any tribunal, legislative body, or public official.

DR 9-102. Preserving Identity of Funds and Property of a Client

(A) All funds of clients paid to a lawyer or law firm, other than advances for costs and expenses, shall be deposited in one or more identifiable bank accounts maintained in the state in which the law office is situated and no funds belonging to the lawyer or law firm shall be deposited therein except as follows:

(1) Funds reasonably sufficient to pay bank charges may be deposited therein.

(2) Funds belonging in part to a client and in part presently or potentially to the lawyer or law firm must be deposited therein, but the portion belonging to the lawyer or law firm may be withdrawn when due unless the right of the lawyer or law firm to receive it is disputed by the client, in which event the disputed portion shall not be withdrawn until the dispute is finally resolved.

(B) A lawyer shall:

(1) Promptly notify a client of the receipt of his funds, securities, or other properties.

(2) Identify and label securities and properties of a client promptly upon receipt and place them in a safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping as soon as practicable.

(3) Maintain complete records of all funds, securities, and other properties of a client coming into the possession of the lawyer and render appropriate accounts to his client regarding them.

(4) Promptly pay or deliver to the client as requested by a client the funds, securities, or other properties in the possession of the lawyer which the client is entitled to receive.

b. Definitions.¹

As used in the above Disciplinary Rules of the Code of Professional Responsibility:

(1) "Differing interests" include every interest that will adversely affect either the judgment or the loyalty of a lawyer to a client, whether it be a conflicting, inconsistent, diverse, or other interest.

(2) "Law firm" includes a professional legal corporation.

(3) "Person" includes a corporation, an association, a trust, a partnership, and any other organization or legal entity.

(4) "Professional legal corporation" means a corporation, or an association treated as a corporation, authorized by law to practice law for profit.

(5) "State" includes the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and other federal territories and possessions.

(6) "Tribunal" includes all courts and all other adjudicatory bodies.

(7) "A bar association representative of the general bar" includes a bar association of specialists as referred to in DR 2-105(A)(1) or (4).

Sec. 10. Generally

(A) Reporting. Every inquiry and complaint involving a lawyer shall be reported to counsel promptly after it is made and the disposition of every inquiry and complaint shall be reported to counsel promptly after it occurs.

(B) Screening. Counsel shall evaluate all information coming to his attention alleging lawyer misconduct or disability. If the lawyer is not subject to the jurisdiction of the State Bar the matter shall be referred to the appropriate entity in the jurisdiction in which the lawyer is admitted. Complaints shall be docketed with an appropriate grievance committee and counsel shall conduct an investigation.

(C) Investigation. Where a matter has not been rejected after initial evaluation and the grievance committee has not determined otherwise, counsel shall proceed to conduct an investigation. The respondent shall then be advised promptly that he is the subject of an investigation, be provided a copy of the allegations against him, and be asked to respond in writing with a copy to the complainant. As early as practicable after the beginning of an investigation, counsel shall recommend to the grievance committee having jurisdiction whether to classify the matter as a complaint or to reject it as only constituting an inquiry. Where the grievance committee classifies the matter as a complaint the matter shall then be pursued to disposition. Nothing herein shall preclude the grievance committee from conducting its own investigation of matters coming to its attention.

(D) Recommendation for Disposition. As soon as practicable after completion of any additional investigation that may be required after classification of a matter as a complaint, including an investigatory hearing if necessary, counsel shall make a disposition recommendation to the grievance committee. Counsel may recommend dismissal, transfer to another committee, a negotiated sanction, or the filing of a disciplinary action. The committee may approve, disapprove, or modify the recommendation and proceed with disposition, or it may order further investigation, including one or more investigatory hearings, briefing of legal issues, and such other action as will assist in reaching a prompt disposition.

(E) Investigatory Hearing. The chairman of the grievance committee, with or without the request of counsel, may order that an investigatory hearing be conducted by the committee but shall order an investigatory hearing at the request of the respondent. The hearing shall be held not sooner than twenty-five (25) days after notice of hearing to counsel and respondent except by their agreement. Where the respondent has failed to respond in writing to allegations against him and does not so respond within twenty (20) days after service of the notice of hearing, or within such additional period as the chairman allows, the chairman may refuse to conduct an investigatory hearing requested by the respondent. All notices of hearings shall advise the respondent that he is entitled to be represented by a lawyer at the hearing and to present evidence in his own behalf.

The hearing shall be a nonadversary proceeding but the grievance committee may allow such procedures for eliciting evidence as it deems necessary, including the taking of testimony from the complainant or respondent or other witnesses with or without the presence of each other.

(F) Appeal to Review Committee. Where the grievance committee rejects a matter as only constituting an inquiry, dismisses a complaint, or invokes sanctions which are clearly inappropriate, counsel or complainant, with approval of counsel, may appeal the action of the grievance committee to the review committee in accordance with such rules of procedure as the review committee shall promulgate. The review committee shall not consider evidence not presented to the grievance committee but shall allow the submission of briefs and oral arguments by any interested party. After final submission of the matter, the review committee shall promptly dispose of the appeal. It shall either affirm the action of the grievance committee or, where it finds clear and convincing evidence that the decision of the grievance committee is erroneous, remand the matter to the grievance committee for reconsideration and such other investigation as may be necessary. Only one (1) appeal in a given matter shall be permitted.

Sec. 11. Service

Service upon the respondent of notice of any disciplinary or disability proceeding or of any other matters or notices required by these rules shall, unless otherwise provided by these rules, be made in accordance with Rule 21b of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure or by such other method designed to assure actual notice to respondent as may be directed by the chairman of a grievance committee.

Sec. 12. Subpoena Power; Discovery

(A) Oaths; Subpoena. Any member of a grievance committee may administer oaths and affirmations in a matter pending before the committee.

Counsel or the grievance committee may compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses and the production of pertinent books, papers, and documents. A respondent, upon request to the chairman of the grievance committee, shall be entitled, at his expense, to have the committee compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses and the production of pertinent books, papers, and documents before it.

Subpoenas shall be in writing and signed by counsel or a member of the grievance committee and shall notify the witness of the time and place of appearance. If the witness is commanded to produce documentary or other evidence, the subpoena shall contain a brief description of the materials desired produced.

Subpoenas shall be served on the witnesses personally or in accordance with Rule 21b of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Proof of service may be made by certificate of the person serving the subpoena. If service is by certified mail, the return receipt shall be attached to the certificate.

A subpoena issued during the course of an investigation shall clearly indicate on its face that the subpoena is issued in connection with a confidential investigation under these rules and that it is regarded as contempt of court for a person subpoenaed to breach the confidentiality of the investigation. It shall not be regarded as a breach of confidentiality for a person subpoenaed to consult with an attorney.

A district court of the county in which the attendance or production is required may, upon proper application, enforce the attendance and testimony of any witness and the production of any documents subpoenaed.

(B) Quashing Subpoena. An attack on the validity of a subpoena or upon its scope shall be heard and determined by the court wherein enforcement of the subpoena is being sought.

(C) Witnesses and Fees. Subpoena and witness fees and mileage shall be the same as those provided for proceedings in the district court.

Sec. 13. Examination of Witnesses Before District Judge; Procedure

If any witness, including the respondent, after such subpoena has been served, fails or refuses to appear before the committee or to produce those books, papers, documents, letters, or other tangible evidence described in the subpoena, or refuses to be sworn or to affirm, or to testify, such witness may be compelled to appear and to produce the requested tangible evidence and to testify at a hearing before a judge of an appropriate district court. Application for such hearing shall be entitled: "In re: Hearing Before Grievance Committee for District No. _____." The judge shall order a time and place for such hearing and shall provide for such notice as the court deems proper under the circumstances. Unless the respondent shall request a public hearing, and except as otherwise may be required by law, all proceedings before the court under this section shall be private and confidential and all records relating to these proceedings shall be held in absolute confidence and shall not be open to the public. If such witness fails to appear, testify, or produce such tangible evidence as may be ordered, or if a witness breaches the confidentiality of the investigation, he or she shall be punished as in cases of contempt.

Sec. 14. Grievance Committee Judgment; Procedure for

(A) Committee Action. If the grievance committee finds that respondent has engaged in conduct constituting professional misconduct or suffers from a disability which requires suspension from the practice of law, and respondent has had reasonable notice of the complaint and an opportunity to respond thereto, the committee, after a hearing if not waived and if any interested party so requests after notice, shall determine appropriate sanctions or take appropriate action.

(B) Judgment. If the committee shall be of the opinion that the license of the respondent should be revoked or suspended for a period not to exceed three (3) years, or that respondent should be publicly or privately reprimanded, or that such other and further orders should be made as protection of the public and respondent's clients may require, and shall have reason to believe the respondent will accept its action as final, it shall prepare a form of judgment and submit the same to him. Upon his agreement to its entry, evidenced by a memorandum in writing, signed and acknowledged by him, the committee shall enter judgment accordingly. Copies of the judgment, together with copies of the complaint, shall be mailed to the executive director of the State Bar, to counsel, to the clerk, and to the clerk of the district court of the county of residence of the respondent, in the last case for entry upon the minutes of the court. If the attorney's license has been revoked, the clerk shall strike his name from the rolls; if suspended, the clerk shall strike the name from the rolls for the time suspended.

(C) Enforcement. A judgment of a grievance committee agreed to in accordance with this section shall have the force and effect of a judgment of the district court. In order to enforce such judgment or to punish a respondent for violation thereof, the committee may apply to a district court in the county of the residence of respondent, which shall have available to it all writs and processes as well as the power of contempt to enforce such judgment the same as such court has available to it in order to enforce its own judgment.

(D) Nonacceptance; Trial De Novo. In instances in which the respondent does not accept a proposed judgment or does not accept a decision of suspension, disbarment, or reprimand, counsel shall thereafter institute suit by disciplinary petition and trial shall be de novo in the district court. The disciplinary petition shall contain a prayer for disbarment, suspension, reprimand, or other sanction of the respondent as the facts shall warrant. The committee shall not be bound by its action or judgment which shall not be admitted in evidence for any purpose.

Sec. 15. Resignation in the Face of a Pending Disciplinary Proceeding

An attempt by an attorney to resign his or her license to practice law shall be ineffective unless and until it is accepted by the Court. A motion to resign shall not be accepted by the clerk for filing unless the same is accompanied by a certificate by counsel indicating whether or not any disciplinary action is pending against movant. If such certificate discloses pending disciplinary actions, movant must also obtain and file a concurring motion from the district grievance committee before which the disciplinary action is then pending. Such concurring motion shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law regarding the complaint(s) then pending against movant. Such complaint(s) shall be considered as conclusively established thereby for all pertinent purposes. The acceptance of a resignation under this section by the Court shall be tantamount to disbarment for the purpose of reinstatement.

Sec. 16. Additional Rules of Procedure

(A) Nature of Proceedings. Disciplinary actions are civil in nature.

(B) Proceedings Governed by Rules of Civil Procedure. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure apply in disciplinary actions.

(C) Standard of Proof. Disciplinary actions shall be proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

(D) Burden of Proof. The burden of proof in proceedings seeking discipline or suspension due to disability is on the State Bar. The burden of proof in proceedings seeking reinstatement is on the applicant.

(E) Availability of Hearing Transcript. The deliberations, voting, and discussions of a grievance committee are strictly confidential and are not subject to discovery or production. Complainant, counsel, or respondent shall have the right to cause the testimony to be recorded, at the requesting party's expense, provided all records and transcripts shall remain in the custody of the grievance committee and shall be released only for use in disciplinary proceedings or in the course of an appeal to the review committee.

(F) Related Pending Litigation. The processing of a disciplinary matter shall not be delayed because of substantial similarity to the material allegations of pending criminal or civil litigation.

(G) Effect of Delay or Settlement by Complainant. The unwillingness or neglect of the complainant to sign a complaint or to prosecute a charge, settlement, or compromise between the complainant and the lawyer or restitution by the lawyer shall not alone justify abatement of the processing of any complaint.

(H) Effect of Time Limitations. Except as is otherwise provided in these rules, time limitations are directory and not jurisdictional. Failure to observe prescribed time intervals may result in sanctions against the violator but does not justify abatement of any disciplinary or disability investigation or proceeding.

(I) Trial by Jury. Either party to a disciplinary action seeking sanctions shall be entitled to a jury trial to the extent provided for in the State Bar Act.

(J) Four Year Limitation Rule and Exceptions. No member shall be reprimanded, suspended, or disbarred for misconduct occurring more than four (4) years prior to the time such allegation is brought to the attention of counsel except in cases in which disbarment or suspension is compulsory as provided herein. Limitations, however, will not run where fraud or concealment is involved until such misconduct is discovered or should have been discovered by reasonable diligence by counsel.

Sec. 17. Venue; Residence

(A) Resident Member. A disciplinary action shall be instituted against a resident member in a district court of the county of the member's residence.

(B) Nonresident Member. A disciplinary action may be instituted against a nonresident member in a district court in any county where the alleged misconduct occurred or in a district court in Travis County, Texas.

(C) Residence Defined. For purposes of this section, a resident member's county of residence shall be either (1) the county in Texas of his domicile, or if that cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry, (2) the county in Texas in which he maintains an office from which he regularly engages in the practice of law, or if neither (1) or (2) can be ascertained after diligent inquiry, then (3) the county in Texas shown in his last known address on the membership rolls of the Court.

Sec. 18. Requisites of Disciplinary Petition

The disciplinary petition shall be styled: "The State Bar of Texas v. _____." The disciplinary petition shall allege:

- (1) The identity of the grievance committee bringing the suit as petitioner;
- (2) The name of the respondent and the fact that he or she is a licensed attorney and a member of the State Bar of Texas;

(3) The residence of the respondent or pleadings that would otherwise fix the venue;

(4) A brief description of the acts and conduct that gave rise to the claimed professional misconduct sufficient to give fair notice, which allegations may be grouped in one or more counts;

(5) The Disciplinary Rule or Rules allegedly violated by such acts and conduct or other grounds for seeking sanctions;

(6) A demand for judgment that the respondent be disbarred, suspended, or reprimanded as the facts shall warrant and for such other relief to which the petitioner deems itself entitled; and

(7) Any other matter which may be required or permitted by law or this Article authorizing or regulating a particular proceeding.

Sec. 19. Answer of Respondent

The answer of the respondent shall be as in civil cases generally.

Sec. 20. Resident Judge Disqualified

Upon motion of either party filed within thirty (30) days after a judge is assigned, or within thirty (30) days after service of citation upon the respondent, whichever is later, the judge in whose court the disciplinary action is filed shall recuse himself or herself and the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district in which the suit is pending shall call upon the presiding judge of another administrative district to furnish for trial of the case a district judge who is not a resident of the administrative judicial district in which the action is pending. Each party to the disciplinary action shall have the right to cause a recusal only once during such action under these provisions.

Sec. 21. Preferred Setting

Disciplinary actions shall be entitled to preferred settings and advancement in all courts at the request of either party.

Sec. 22. Conduct Constituting Threat of Harm to Clients

(A) Evidence of Irreparable Harm. Upon receipt of evidence of just cause demonstrating that a lawyer poses a substantial threat of irreparable harm to his clients or prospective clients, the appropriate grievance committee shall authorize counsel to seek the interim suspension of such lawyer as hereinafter provided. Authorization for interim suspension shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the committee members present and voting.

(B) Immediate Interim Suspension. The court may enter an order in the nature of a temporary restraining order immediately suspending the lawyer pending the final disposition of a disciplinary action predicated upon the conduct causing the harm or may order such other action as deemed appropriate. In the event the order is entered, the court may appoint a custodian pursuant to Section 33 to protect clients' interest. The matter shall then proceed as in cases of temporary injunctions under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(C) Notice to Clients. A lawyer suspended pursuant to paragraph (B) shall comply with the notice requirements in Section 32.

Sec. 23. Judgment

(A) Determination of Misconduct; Sanctions Available. If the court finds from the evidence in a case tried without a jury, or from the verdict of the jury, if there be one, that the respondent's conduct does not constitute professional misconduct, the court shall enter judgment accordingly. If the court shall find that the respondent's conduct does constitute professional misconduct, the court shall determine whether the respondent shall be reprimanded or suspended from practice (in which case the court shall fix the term of suspension not to exceed three (3) years for each separate act of misconduct) or disbarred and the court shall enter a judgment accordingly. If the judgment be one finding that the respondent's conduct constitutes professional misconduct, the court shall direct transmittal of certified copies of the judgment and disciplinary petition to the clerk, and the latter shall make proper notation on the membership rolls.

(B) Sanctions; Relevant Factors. In its discretion, the court may conduct a separate evidentiary hearing on the appropriate measure of discipline. In determining the appropriate measure of discipline, the trial court shall consider, in addition to any other relevant matters, the nature and degree of misconduct for which the respondent is being disciplined, the seriousness and circumstances attending the misconduct, assurance that those who seek legal services will be insulated from unprofessional conduct, the profit to the attorney or the injury or hardship to others resulting from the misconduct, avoidance of repetition, the deterrent effect upon others, the maintenance of respect for the honor and dignity of the legal profession, and the conduct of the respondent during the course of the investigation and trial of the disciplinary action. In addition thereto, the disciplinary record of the respondent is admissible on the issue of the appropriate measure of discipline to be imposed.

(C) Terms of Judgment; Enforcement. In any judgment of disbarment or in any judgment of suspension for a period of more than ninety (90) days, the court shall order the respondent to surrender his or her permanent bar card and law license for transmittal to the clerk. In all judgments of disbarment or suspension, the court shall direct that the respondent shall not practice law or represent himself or herself to be an attorney during the period of such disbarment or suspension. The violation of the court's judgment in this regard shall be punishable as for contempt. In all judgments of disbarment, suspension or reprimand, the court may make and enter all such other and further orders as the protection of the public and the respondent's clients may require, including probation of a suspension or a reprimand. In no event shall a court grant a member probation of a suspension or reprimand more than one time.

(D) Restitution. In all cases in which the proof establishes that the respondent's misconduct involved misapplication of client funds and the court determines that suspension is the appropriate measure of discipline, the judgment shall require that restitution be made during the term of suspension and shall provide that failure to do so shall cause the suspension to remain in effect indefinitely thereafter and until evidence of satisfactory restitution is made by the respondent and is appropriately verified by counsel.

Sec. 24. Appeal; No Supersedeas

Either party to a disciplinary action shall have the right of appeal to the Court of Appeals but, if the judgment appealed from be one suspending or disbarring the respondent, he or she shall not be entitled to practice law in any form while the appeal is pending and shall have no right to supersede the judgment by bond or otherwise.

Sec. 25. Exemption from Cost and Appeal Bond

No cost or appeal bond shall be required of the grievance committee or the State Bar. In lieu thereof, when cost or appeal bond would otherwise be required, a memorandum shall be filed setting forth the exemption under this section.

Sec. 26. Compulsory Discipline

(A) Generally. When an attorney has been convicted of a serious crime, counsel shall initiate an action seeking compulsory discipline pursuant to this section. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of this Article relating to the procedure in disciplinary actions shall apply to actions brought hereunder. Proceedings hereunder are not exclusive in that an attorney may be tried on the underlying facts as well as upon the conviction itself.

(B) Serious Crime Defined. A serious crime, for the purpose of this section, shall be any felony involving moral turpitude or any misdemeanor involving theft, embezzlement, or fraudulent misappropriation of money or other property. A conviction for the attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation of another to commit a serious crime shall also be deemed to be a conviction of a serious crime for the purposes of this rule. The determination of whether a particular conviction constitutes a conviction of a serious crime is a question of law to be determined by the court.

(C) Evidence of Guilt. In any action brought to discipline an attorney who has been convicted of a serious crime, the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence of the guilt of the attorney for the crime of which the attorney was convicted.

(D) Commencement of Suit. Discipline under this section shall be initiated by the filing of a disciplinary petition in a district court of the convicted attorney's residence. Said petition shall allege the conviction and shall seek the appropriate discipline as provided herein.

(E) Procedure. The district court shall proceed to hear and determine all questions of fact and law as hereinafter provided without the aid of a jury. When an attorney has been convicted of a serious crime in any trial court of competent jurisdiction, the attorney shall be suspended from the practice of law pending any appeal of that criminal conviction. Upon introduction into evidence in the disciplinary action brought hereunder of a certified copy of the judgment of conviction and sentence and a certificate of the clerk that the attorney is licensed by the Court, the district court in which the disciplinary action is pending shall promptly determine whether the attorney has been convicted of a serious crime. Uncontroverted affidavits that the attorney is the same person as the person convicted in the criminal action and that the attorney is a resident of the county in which the disciplinary action is brought shall constitute competent and sufficient evidence of those facts. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit proof of the necessary elements in such proceeding by competent evidence in any other manner permitted by law. The district court shall set, hear, and determine whether the attorney should be disciplined within forty-five (45) days of the answer day; however, any failure to do so will not affect its jurisdiction to act. Any suspension ordered pending appeal of a criminal action shall be interlocutory.

(F) Disbarment. When an attorney has been convicted of a serious crime in any court of competent jurisdiction and that conviction has become final, the attorney shall be disbarred, except as provided in paragraph (G) below. If the attorney has been suspended pending the appeal of the criminal conviction, a motion for final judgment of disbarment shall be filed in the pending disciplinary action. If the motion is supported by affidavit or certified copies of court documents showing that the conviction has become final, the motion shall be granted without hearing, unless within ten (10) days following service of the motion upon the convicted attorney or his or her attorney of record, pursuant to Rule 21b of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the convicted attorney files a verified reply contesting the finality of the judgment, in which event the court shall conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine such issue. If no disciplinary action is pending when the attorney's conviction becomes final, disbarment shall be initiated by the filing of a disciplinary petition pursuant to this section.

(G) Suspension. If an attorney's sentence upon conviction of a serious crime is fully probated, or if an attorney receives probation without an adjudication of guilt, the attorney shall be suspended during the term of such probation; however, upon notice and hearing, the court in the disciplinary action may impose upon an attorney who has received probation such further disciplinary sanction as may be warranted, including disbarment. If an attorney is suspended during the term of probation, such suspension is conditioned upon the attorney satisfactorily serving the terms of such probation. If probation is revoked, the attorney shall be disbarred as herein provided.

Sec. 27. Reciprocal Discipline

(A) Counsel Duty to Obtain Order of Discipline from Other Jurisdiction. Upon being disciplined in another jurisdiction, a member shall promptly inform counsel of such action. Upon receipt of information that a member has been disciplined in another jurisdiction, counsel shall obtain a certified copy of the disciplinary order and file it and a disciplinary petition in the district court in the county wherein the member resides or in the case of a non-resident, in a district court in Travis County, which filing shall constitute a prima facie showing of the matters contained therein.

(B) Notice Served Upon Respondent. Upon presentation of a certified copy of an order demonstrating that a respondent has been disciplined in another jurisdiction, the court shall forthwith issue a notice directed to the respondent containing:

(1) A copy of the order from the other jurisdiction; and

(2) An order directing that respondent inform the court within thirty (30) days from service of the notice of any claim by the respondent predicated upon the grounds set forth in paragraph (C), that the imposition of the identical discipline in this state would be unwarranted and the reasons therefor.

(C) Discipline to be Imposed. Upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from service of the notice pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (B), if respondent fails to answer the disciplinary petition, the court shall impose the identical discipline. If respondent answers the disciplinary petition, the court shall impose the identical discipline unless respondent shows by clear and convincing evidence that:

(1) The procedure was so lacking in notice and opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process; or

(2) There was such infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that the court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the conclusion on that subject; or

(3) The imposition of the same discipline by the court would result in grave injustice; or

(4) The misconduct established warrants substantially different discipline in this state; or

(5) The offense for which the member was disciplined does not constitute misconduct under the Texas Code of Professional Responsibility.

If the court after a hearing, or a trial by jury if so requested by either party, determines that any of the foregoing exists, it shall enter such order as is deemed appropriate.

(D) Conclusiveness of Adjudication in Other Jurisdiction. In all other aspects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that a member has been guilty of misconduct shall establish conclusively the misconduct for purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state.

Sec. 28. Reinstatement After Disbarment

(A) Eligibility and Venue. A disbarred attorney may, at any time after the expiration of five (5) years from the date of final judgment of disbarment or acceptance of resignation, apply to the district court of the county of his or her residence for reinstatement. Provided, however, that when the attorney has been disbarred or has resigned based upon conviction of a criminal offense, such person may not make application for reinstatement until five (5) years from the date of completion of sentence.

(B) Petition; Contents. The application for reinstatement shall be verified and shall set forth the following information which, upon appropriate motion, may be sealed:

(1) Name, age, and residence address of the applicant;

(2) The offense or misconduct upon which the disbarment was based and the date of final judgment of disbarment;

(3) The name of the court and county where the disciplinary action was adjudicated or the name of the grievance committee before whom such disciplinary proceeding was heard;

(4) A statement that the applicant has made restitution to all persons, if any, naming them, who may have suffered pecuniary loss by reason of the misconduct for which the applicant was disbarred and that applicant has paid all costs of the disciplinary action which resulted in his or her disbarment;

(5) A statement that at the time of filing of the petition the applicant is of good moral character, possesses the mental and emotional fitness to practice law, and, during the five (5) years just prior to the filing of the petition, has been living a life of exemplary conduct;

(6) A statement that the applicant has recently read and presently understands the Code of Professional Responsibility of the State of Texas, that he or she has kept abreast of the law during the period of disbarment, and that the ends of justice will be subserved by his or her reinstatement;

(7) A listing of applicant's occupation(s) during the period of disbarment, including the names and current addresses of all partners, associates, and employers, if any, and dates and duration of all such relationships and employment;

(8) A statement showing the approximate annual earnings and other income of applicant and the names and current addresses of all sources from which all such earnings and income were derived during the period of disbarment;

(9) A statement listing all residences maintained during the period of disbarment and the names and current addresses of all landlords, if any;

(10) All financial obligations of applicant at the date of filing of the application, together with the dates when the same were incurred, and the names and current addresses of all creditors;

(11) A statement showing the dates, general nature, and final disposition of every civil action during said period wherein applicant was either a party or in which he had claimed an interest;

(12) A statement showing dates, general nature, and ultimate disposition of every matter involving the arrest and prosecution of applicant during said period for any crime, whether felony or misdemeanor, together with the names and addresses of the complaining witnesses;

(13) A statement as to whether or not any applications were made during said period for a license requiring proof of good character for its procurement and as to each such application the date, name, and address of the authority to whom it was addressed and the disposition thereof;

(14) A statement of any procedure or inquiry during said period concerning said applicant's standing as a member of any profession or organization, or holder of any license or office, which involved censure, removal, suspension, revocation of license, or discipline of applicant and as to each, the dates, facts, and disposition thereof and the name and address of the authority in possession of such records;

(15) A statement as to whether or not any charges of fraud were made or claimed against applicant during said period, whether formal or informal, and dates, names, and addresses of persons making such charges.

(C) Duty to Amend. The applicant shall be under an affirmative duty to amend and update such information until such time as his or her application for reinstatement has been heard and determined.

(D) Reinstatement After Resignation. The provisions of this Article concerning reinstatement after disbarment shall apply equally to reinstatement following resignation.

(E) Burden of Proof; Denial. The burden of proof shall be upon applicant to show by a preponderance of evidence that the public interest and the ends of justice would be best served by his or her reinstatement. A false material statement in the application for reinstatement shall require the trial judge to deny such reinstatement. Any finding that, during such period of disbarment or resignation, applicant engaged in the practice of law may serve as a ground for denial of reinstatement.

Sec. 29. Notice, Hearing, and Judgment

(A) Generally. After the filing of the application in the district court, the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern the procedure in all proceedings for reinstatement except where in conflict with specific provisions hereof. All questions of fact and law in such proceedings for reinstatement shall be determined by the court without the aid of a jury.

(B) Reinstatement; Relevant Factors. In determining the applicant's fitness for reinstatement, in addition to any other relevant matters, the court may consider evidence concerning the nature and degree of misconduct for which applicant was disbarred and the circumstances attending the offense, his or her understanding of the serious nature of the acts for which he or she was disbarred, his or her conduct during the disbarment proceedings, the profit to the applicant and injury or hardship to others, his or her attitude toward the administration of justice and the practice of law, any unauthorized practice of law prior to reinstatement, the attorney's good works or other accomplishments, and any other evidence which is relevant to the issues of the applicant's fitness to practice law and the likelihood that applicant will not engage in further misconduct.

(C) Notice. Notice of an application for reinstatement shall be served on counsel and the chairman of the grievance committee that took final action leading to disbarment, by mail in accordance with Rule 21b, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall be published in the Texas Bar Journal.

(D) Judgment; Conditions. If the court is satisfied after hearing all of the evidence both for and against the applicant, that all the material allegations are true and that the ends of justice will be served, the court may enter judgment authorizing the applicant to be reinstated upon his or her obtaining a passing grade on a bar examination regularly administered by the Texas Board of Law Examiners within eighteen (18) months from the date of judgment.

Said judgment shall direct the Board of Law Examiners to admit the applicant to a regularly scheduled examination and to process applicant's examination in accordance with that Board's rules and procedures relating to the examination of attorneys who are licensed in foreign jurisdictions. No judgment of reinstatement shall be entered by default, but the court in all cases shall hear evidence on such application before rendering judgment. If, after hearing all of the evidence, the court determines that the applicant is not entitled to reinstatement at that time, the court may, in its discretion either enter a judgment denying the petition or may direct that the petition be held in abeyance for a reasonable period of time until the applicant provides additional proof that he or she has satisfied the requirements of these rules. The court's judgment may include such other and further orders as protection of the public and applicant's potential clients may require.

(E) Appeal; Readmission. When a judgment has been entered, any party shall have the right of appeal as herein provided. If the application for reinstatement is granted and an appeal is perfected, the trial court judgment shall be stayed pending such appeal. After applicant has complied with the terms of the judgment of reinstatement and with this section, the applicant shall furnish the Clerk a certified copy of such judgment and evidence of compliance and shall pay all membership fees and assessments for the current bar year, together with all costs of the reinstatement proceedings. Upon satisfactory completion of all of the requirements of this section relating to reinstatement, the applicant may then take the attorney's oath, and his or her name shall be again entered on the membership rolls by the clerk.

(F) Denial; Subsequent Eligibility. If an applicant's first application for reinstatement is denied after a hearing on the merits, the applicant shall not be eligible to file a second application for reinstatement until the expiration of a period of three (3) years from the date of final judgment. If an applicant's second application for reinstatement is denied after a hearing on the merits, no application for reinstatement shall be considered until the expiration of a period of five (5) years from the date of final judgment of the last preceding application.

Sec. 30. Suspension Due to Disability

(A) Grounds for Suspension. The license to practice of any member shall be suspended upon a finding that the member:

- (1) Has been judicially declared to be mentally incompetent; or
- (2) Is disabled to practice law because of mental or emotional infirmity or illness caused by addiction to intoxicants or drugs and is unable to practice law without danger to the legal interests of his or her clients or to the public.

(B) Procedure. The procedure to be followed for suspension under this section shall be the procedure provided for the discipline of members for professional misconduct subject to the following provisions:

- (1) Suspension hereunder shall be immediately imposed by the court having disciplinary jurisdiction upon the filing of a certified copy of a subsisting judgment or other official record whereby the respondent has been judicially declared incompetent;
- (2) The court may appoint an attorney to represent a respondent who does not have legal representation;
- (3) Suspension under this section shall not be for a definite period of time but shall be until the respondent is reinstated in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

Sec. 31. Reinstatement After Suspension Due to Disability

A member whose license to practice has been suspended under the preceding section may be reinstated upon application, as follows:

- (A) Application.

(1) Application for reinstatement shall be by written petition, verified and filed in the district court of the county of residence of the applicant or in the district court that suspended the applicant's license to practice. The application shall state the name, age, residence, and address of the applicant; the court in which the applicant was suspended, together with the number and style of that case; a detailed description of applicant's activities since suspension, including the facts of any employment, the details concerning hospitalization, medical treatment of applicant which entitles him or her to be reinstated; and any other matters believed by applicant to be relevant to the application for reinstatement. Upon appropriate motion, the court may order the application for reinstatement sealed.

(2) An attorney suspended under Section 30 shall, in proceedings for reinstatement, bear the burden of proof to establish that the reason for such suspension no longer exists and that reinstatement to the practice of law would be without danger to the legal interests of his or her clients or to the public. Where appropriate, and upon order of the court, the applicant shall submit to an examination by one or more mental health providers. The filing of an application for reinstatement under this section shall constitute a waiver of any privilege existing between the applicant and any mental health provider who has treated, consulted, or examined the applicant during such disability or since his or her suspension and shall constitute authorization to counsel to review on demand the records of any such mental health provider. The application shall also state the applicant's current residence.

(B) Supporting Documents. The following documents shall accompany the application:

(1) A certified copy of any court order restoring the applicant to competency; or

(2) An affidavit from a mental health provider as to the applicant's current condition if the suspension was based upon mental infirmity or illness; or

(3) An affidavit from a physician as to the applicant's current condition if the suspension was based upon addiction to intoxicants or drugs.

(C) Time for Filing Application. A first application for reinstatement may be filed at any time after applicant's license to practice has been suspended under Section 30. If the first application is denied after a hearing on its merits, a second application for reinstatement may be filed at any time after the expiration of one (1) year from the date of denial of the first application. Subsequent applications shall not be filed until after the expiration of one (1) year from the date of denial on its merits of the last preceding application.

(D) Notice, Hearing, and Judgment. The procedure for reinstatement under this section is the same as provided in Section 28 except to the extent the same is inconsistent with this section. Provided, however, that if the applicant's suspension from the practice of law has continued for a period of three (3) consecutive years or more, the court, in its discretion, may require the applicant to obtain a passing grade on the state bar examination or complete a course of study approved by the court before the applicant may be reinstated.

Sec. 32. Notice to Interested Persons of Attorney Cessation of Practice

(A) Generally. When an attorney engaged in law practice in this state dies, resigns, becomes an inactive member of the State Bar, is disbarred, or is suspended from the active practice of law, leaving an unfinished client matter for which no active member of the State Bar, with the consent of the client, has agreed to assume responsibility, notice of cessation of practice shall be given as provided in this section.

(B) Notice. Notice of cessation of practice may also be required by any judgment of disbarment or suspension, or upon acceptance of an attorney's resignation, as deemed necessary by the court or district grievance committee. Notice shall be mailed to all persons who are then clients; to opposing counsel; to courts and agencies in which the attorney had pending matters, with an identification of the matter; to any errors and omissions insurer; and to any other person or entity having reason to be informed of such death, change of status, or discontinuance or interruption of law practice. Failure to comply with this section by the resigned or disciplined attorney may result in disciplinary action or contempt.

(C) Notice by Representative of Attorney. In the event of the death of the attorney, the notice shall be given by the personal representative of the deceased attorney or by the person having custody or control of the files and records of the deceased attorney. In the case of incompetency, the notices shall be given by the attorney's guardian or a duly authorized agent or attorney in fact, or if none exists, by the person having custody or control of the files and records of the attorney. In other cases the notice shall be given by the attorney, a person authorized by the attorney, or by the person having custody or control of files and records.

(D) Duties in Addition to Notice. Attorneys who have been disbarred or suspended must, within thirty (30) days of the date of judgment, (1) notify all clients of such attorney's inability to continue to represent such clients and of the necessity for promptly retaining new counsel, (2) deliver all papers, files, or other property belonging to such clients, (3) refund to clients any unearned fees paid in advance, and (4) file an affidavit with counsel showing compliance herewith.

(E) Authority of Counsel. When an attorney is suspended under Section 30 or disappears or dies while under investigation, counsel shall determine whether a law partner, executor, or other appropriate representative of the attorney concerned is available to notify the attorney's clients and protect their interests. Counsel shall petition the district court having disciplinary jurisdiction to take necessary action for the protection of the clients involved pursuant to this section if no person is available to give the required notice.

Sec. 33. Jurisdiction of Court over Affected Attorney's Practice

(A) Application for Assumption of Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the giving of notice, as required by Section 32, a client of the attorney, the grievance committee, counsel, or any interested person or entity may make application to a district court in the county where the attorney maintains or has most recently maintained an office for the practice of law or where such attorney resides, for assumption of jurisdiction by the court over the subject attorney's law practice.

(B) Application; Contents. The application shall be verified, shall state the facts showing just cause to believe that notice of cessation is required pursuant to this section, and shall state the following:

(1) An attorney engaged in law practice in this state has died, disappeared, resigned, become an inactive member of the State Bar or has been disbarred or suspended from the active practice of law, or because of an excessive use of intoxicants or drugs, physical or mental illness, or other infirmity has become incapable of providing legal services necessary to protect the legal interests of a client;

(2) Just cause to believe that supervision of the court is warranted because the attorney has left an unfinished client matter for which no other active member of the State Bar has, with consent of the client, agreed to assume responsibility; and

(3) Just cause to believe that the interests of one or more clients of the attorney or of one or more interested persons or entities will be prejudiced if the proceedings herein provided are not maintained.

(C) Hearing. The application shall be set for hearing and an order to show cause shall be issued, directing the attorney or his personal representative, or if none exists, the persons having custody or control of the records, to show cause why the court should not assume jurisdiction of the law practice as provided herein.

(D) Order of Court. If the court finds that one or more of the events stated above has occurred and that supervision of the court is warranted because the affected attorney has left an unfinished client matter for which no other active member of the State Bar of Texas has, with consent of the client, agreed to assume responsibility, and that the interested persons or entities will be prejudiced if this proceeding is not maintained, it shall enter an order assuming jurisdiction over the attorney's client matters and shall appoint one or more active members of the State Bar to act under its direction and may order such appointed attorneys to do one or more of the following:

(1) Examine the client matters, including the files and records of the law practice, and obtain information as to any pending matters which may require attention;

(2) Notify persons and entities who appear to be clients of the attorney of the occasion for and the assumption by the court of jurisdiction over the attorney's matters and shall inform them to obtain other legal counsel;

(3) Apply for extension of time before any court or administrative body pending employment of another attorney by the client;

(4) With the consent of the client, file such motions and pleadings on behalf of the client as are required to prevent prejudice to the client's legal rights;

(5) Give notice to appropriate persons other than the client who may be affected;

(6) Arrange for the surrender or delivery of client's papers or property;

(7) Do such other acts as the court may direct.

(E) Custodian. Persons exercising custody and control of the files and records of the law practice of the affected attorney pursuant to this section shall observe the attorney-client privilege and shall make disclosure only to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. The appointment of a member of the State Bar under this section does not abrogate the attorney-client privilege and such privilege shall apply to communication between the appointed lawyer and the client to the same extent as it applied to communications between the affected attorney and the client.

(F) Immunity; No Bond. Except for willful acts or omissions, no person or entity shall incur any liability by reason of the institution or maintenance of this proceeding. No person shall incur any liability for any act done or omitted to be done pursuant to an order of the court under this section. It shall not be necessary to post a bond or security in this proceeding.

Sec. 34. Access to Disciplinary Information

(A) Confidentiality. Proceedings before a grievance committee are confidential except the pendency, subject matter, and status of a matter may be disclosed by counsel if:

(1) The respondent has waived confidentiality;

(2) The proceeding is based upon conviction of a crime; or

(3) The proceeding is based upon allegations that have become generally known to the public.

(B) Public Proceedings. After a grievance committee and a respondent have reached agreement for a sanction other than a private reprimand, or after the grievance committee has authorized the filing of a disciplinary action, the disposition is public; however, the deliberations of committee members shall remain confidential.

(C) Request for Nonpublic Information. A request for nonpublic information other than that authorized for disclosure under paragraph (A) above shall be denied unless the respondent has consented to disclosure except that the Grievance Oversight Committee of the Supreme Court shall be entitled to such information.

(D) Disclosure to National Discipline Data Bank. Counsel shall transmit notice of all public discipline imposed against an attorney, suspensions due to disability, and reinstatements to the National Discipline Data Bank maintained by the American Bar Association.

(E) Duty of Participants. All participants in a proceeding under this Article shall conduct themselves so as to maintain the confidentiality mandated.

Sec. 35. Dissemination of Disciplinary Information

(A) Notice to Disciplinary Agencies. Counsel shall transmit notice of public discipline, suspensions due to disability, reinstatements, and certificates of conviction to the disciplinary enforcement agency of any other jurisdiction in which the respondent is admitted.

(B) Public Notice of Discipline Imposed. Counsel shall cause notices of public reprimand, suspension, disbarment, reinstatement, and suspension due to disability to be published in the Texas Bar Journal and in a newspaper of general circulation in the judicial district in which the lawyer maintained an office for the practice of law. Counsel shall also cause such sanctions to be recorded in the minutes of the district court of respondent's residence. Private reprimands shall be published in the Texas Bar Journal with the name of the lawyer deleted.

(C) Notice to the Court. Counsel shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the order of reprimand, suspension, disbarment, reinstatement, and suspension due to disability to the clerk.

Sec. 36. Expenses and Fees

(A) Reimbursement of Expenses. All reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the duties of the grievance committees, and of individual members thereof, when approved by the chairman of the committee and counsel, shall be paid out of State Bar funds.

(B) Fees of Office. Clerks of courts, sheriffs, and other officers shall receive the same fee for their service in carrying out the applicable provisions of this Article as such officers are to receive if performing similar services in connection with other civil suits.

Sec. 37. Immunity from Civil Suit

Communications to the review committee, grievance committee, or counsel relating to lawyer misconduct or disability and testimony given in any disciplinary proceedings shall be absolutely privileged and no lawsuit predicated thereon may be instituted against any complainant or witness. Members of the review committee, members of the grievance committees, officers and directors of the State Bar, counsel, and staff shall be immune from suit for any conduct in the course of their official duties. The immunity herein granted is absolute and unqualified and shall extend to actions at law or in equity.

Sec. 38. Maintenance of Funds or Other Property Held for Clients and Others

Every lawyer engaged in the practice of law in the State of Texas shall maintain a separate trust account or accounts, designated as such, into which funds of clients or other fiduciary funds shall be deposited and shall further maintain and preserve for a period of at least five (5) years after final disposition of the underlying matter, the records of such accounts, including checkbooks, cancelled checks, check stubs, vouchers, ledgers, journals, closing statements, accountings, or other statements of disbursements rendered to clients or other parties with regard to trust funds or similar equivalent records clearly and expressly reflecting the date, amount, source, and explanation for all receipts, withdrawals, deliveries, and disbursements of the funds or other property of a client.

ARTICLE XI. INTEREST EARNED ON CLIENT FUNDS HELD BY ATTORNEYS

Sec. 1. Short Title

This Article may be referred to as the Texas Equal Access to Justice Program.

Sec. 2. Findings; Purpose

The Supreme Court of Texas finds that:

(A) On certain client funds held by attorneys, interest income cannot reasonably be earned to benefit individual clients for whom the funds are held;

(B) Income can be earned on those client funds pursuant to the program provided for in this Article and that income should be used to provide additional legal services to the indigent in civil matters;

(C) This Court is the proper and appropriate body, through the adoption of rules as set forth in this Article, to create and administer, or cause to be created and administered, a program to carry out the purposes of this Article; and

(D) This Article is adopted in furtherance of the inherent powers of this Court to regulate the practice of law in the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. Rules

This Court shall hereafter promulgate rules, consistent with the provisions of this Article, that are necessary and appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Article and conform the program created as provided by this Article to applicable statutes, regulations, and rulings. The rules, which may be amended or revoked by this Court from time to time as it deems necessary to carry out this Article, shall provide for:

(A) The formation of a corporation, incorporated without members under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act (TEX.REV.CIV.STAT.ANN. art. 1396-1.01 et seq.), to be the recipient of and disbursing agent for interest earned on client funds as provided by this Article;

(B) The operation of the nonprofit corporation and the program created as provided by this Article, including the provisions to be contained in the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation;

(C) The designation of persons to serve as directors of the corporation and their terms of office;

(D) Definitions of the client funds subject to Section 5 of this Article;

(E) Exemptions from Section 5 of this Article when deemed by the Court to be appropriate;

(F) Provisions specifying the types of financial institutions eligible for the deposit of the funds, the types of organizations and programs eligible to receive funds from the nonprofit corporation, and the persons and types of matters and cases eligible to receive legal services funded by grants from the nonprofit corporation; and

(G) Provisions relating to recordkeeping, reporting, and audits of the nonprofit corporation and the organizations and programs receiving funds from the nonprofit corporation.

Sec. 4. Provisions Relating to the Nonprofit Corporation

(A) The nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article shall be organized in such a manner as to be exempt from federal income taxation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or any subsequent United States internal revenue law.

(B) The exclusive purpose of the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article shall be to grant funds received by it, as provided in this Article, to organizations that will use the funds exclusively to provide legal services to the indigent in civil matters.

(C) The nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of a chairman and twelve members. The chairman and six directors shall be persons appointed by this Court and the other six directors shall be persons appointed by the president of the State Bar of Texas, with the approval of the board of directors of the State Bar of Texas. At least two of each group of appointees to the board of directors, other than the chairman, shall not be attorneys, and shall not have, other than as consumers, a financial interest in the practice of law.

(D) Funds granted by the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article to organizations to provide legal services to the indigent in civil matters may not be used for any case or matter that, if undertaken on behalf of an indigent person by an attorney in private practice, might reasonably be expected to result in payment of a fee for legal services from an award to a client, from public funds, or from the opposing party. This subsection does not apply if it is determined, pursuant to rules adopted by this Court, that adequate legal services would otherwise be unavailable to the indigent person in the case or matter.

(E) Neither the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article nor any organization or program to which it grants funds may take an action or require an attorney to take an action in violation of the Code of Professional Responsibility (Article X, Section 9, State Bar Rules) or in violation of any other code of professional responsibility adopted by this state for attorneys.

(F) No funds shall be granted by the nonprofit corporation to directly or indirectly fund class action suits, lawsuits against governmental entities, or lobbying for or against any candidate or issue. Provided, however, that funds may be granted to finance suits against governmental entities on behalf of individuals in order to secure entitlement to benefits such as, but not limited to, Social Security, Aid to Families with Dependent Children and the like.

(G) The nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article shall require, as a condition to the granting of funds to any organization or program, that adequate provision be made, in accordance with rules adopted by this Court, for reports as to the actual use of funds and for audit of the reports. The violation of any prohibition contained in Subsection 4(F) of this Article shall render the offending organization or program ineligible to receive funds from the nonprofit corporation.

(H) The records of the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article, including applications for funds, whether or not granted, shall be open for public inspection, in accordance with rules this Court may promulgate.

(I) The nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article may expend funds for administrative costs of the program, including any costs incurred after the adoption of this Article, and may provide a reasonable reserve for administrative costs.

Sec. 5. Deposit of Certain Client Funds

Text of section effective upon adoption of program rules

(A) An attorney, law firm, or professional corporation engaged in the practice of law, receiving in the course of the practice of law in this state, client funds that are nominal in amount or are reasonably anticipated to be held for a short period of time, may establish and maintain a separate interest-bearing demand account at a financial institution and may deposit in the account all those client funds. All the client funds may be deposited in a single unsegregated account. The interest earned on the account shall be paid in accordance with and used for the purposes set forth in this Article and the rules adopted by this Court. Funds to be deposited under this Article do not include those funds evidenced by a financial institution instrument, such as a draft, until the instrument is fully credited to the financial institution in which the account is maintained.

(B) This Article does not prohibit an attorney, law firm, or professional corporation engaged in the practice of law from establishing one or more interest-bearing accounts or other investments permitted by the Texas Code of Professional Responsibility (Article X, Section 9, State Bar Rules) with the interest or dividends earned on the accounts or investments payable as directed by clients for whom funds are not deposited in accordance with Subsection (A) of this section.

(C) An attorney, law firm, or professional corporation engaged in the practice of law which wishes to maintain accounts provided for in this Section 5 must so advise the nonprofit corporation in writing within thirty (30) days of the establishment of such account or accounts. Attorneys, law firms, and professional corporations engaged in the practice of law which have elected to participate in such program but which later decide to withdraw, shall so advise the nonprofit corporation within thirty (30) days of the closing of such account or accounts.

The Supreme Court order of May 9, 1984, adopting this article provides, in part, that "Sections 5 and 6 of Article XI shall not take effect until the first day of the first month that begins more than 90 days after the rules provided for in Article XI have been adopted by this Court."

Sec. 6. Depositories

Text of section effective upon adoption of program rules

(A) The interest-bearing demand account required by Section 5 of this Article shall be established with any financial institution meeting the requirements set forth in the rules adopted by this Court.

(B) The attorney, law firm, or professional corporation establishing the interest-bearing demand account shall attempt in good faith to obtain a rate of interest payable on the account not less than the rate paid by the depository institution to other depositors with accounts of similar size. A higher rate offered by the institution on deposits meeting certain time requirements or minimum amounts, such as those offered in the form of certificates of deposit may be obtained if there is no impairment of the right to withdraw or transfer principal immediately, other than the statutory notification requirements generally applicable to those accounts, even though interest may be lost because of the withdrawal or transfer.

(C) The depository institution shall be directed by the attorney, law firm, or professional corporation establishing the account:

(1) To remit, at least quarterly, interest earned on the average daily balance in the account, less reasonable service charges, to the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article;

(2) To transmit to the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article with each remittance a statement showing the name of the attorney, law firm, or professional corporation with respect to which the remittance is sent, the rate or rates of interest applied, and the amount of service charges deducted, if any; and

(3) To transmit to the depositing attorney, law firm, or professional corporation at the same time a report is sent to the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article, a report showing the amount paid to the nonprofit corporation for that period, the rate or rates of interest applied, the amount of service charges deducted, if any, and the average daily account balance for each month of the period for which the report is made.

For provisions relating to effective date of this section, see note following § 5 of this article.

Sec. 7. Attorney Liability

Nothing in this Article affects the obligations of attorneys, law firms, or professional corporations engaged in the practice of law with respect to client funds other than client funds reasonably determined to be "nominal in amount" or reasonably anticipated to be held for a "short period of time," as those terms are defined by the rules adopted by this Court. An attorney, law firm, or professional corporation is not liable in determining which funds are nominal in amount or on deposit for a short period of time if the determination is made in good faith in accordance with the rules.

Sec. 8. Liability of Nonprofit Corporation

If client funds that are neither nominal in amount nor on deposit for a short period of time are deposited under Section 5(A) of this Article, the liability of the nonprofit corporation provided in this Article may not exceed the amount of interest attributable to client funds actually paid by the depository to the nonprofit corporation.

Sec. 9. Initial Distribution of Funds

The initial distribution of funds under this Article shall be made at a time when, in the determination of the board of directors of the nonprofit corporation provided for in this Article, there are sufficient funds to provide an adequate distribution.

B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Adopted July 25, 1974

Effective September 1, 1974

Amended to February 19, 1980

Canon

1. A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary.
 2. A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all his Activities.
 3. A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his Office Impartially and Diligently.
 4. A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice.
 5. A Judge Should Regulate his Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his Judicial Duties.
 6. A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities.
 7. A Judge Should Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to his Judicial Office.
- Compliance With The Code of Judicial Conduct.
Effective Date of Compliance.

A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Canon 2

A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all his Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily in an adjudicative proceeding as a character witness.

Canon 3

A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other private communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions (Estes vs. Texas, 381 U.S. 532; Sheppard vs. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333), except that a judge may authorize:

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, or ceremonial proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions.

(d) Oral arguments by the parties in the appellate courts may be recorded by electronic means upon the prior consent obtained from the court, or the chief justice or presiding judge as the case may be, where the means of recording will not distract the participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Disqualification. (Art. V, Sec. 11 Texas Constitution; Art. 15 V.A.T.S.; C.C.P. Art. 30.01).

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to, instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(b) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

Canon 4

A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

A Judge Should Regulate his Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, political, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business. A judge should not be an officer, director or manager of a publicly owned business. For purposes of this Canon, a "publicly owned business" is a business having more than ten owners.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him.

(5) For the purposes of this section "member of his family residing in his household" means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

(6) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family; and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. "Member of his family" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him in his personal capacity.

E. Arbitration. A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law. A judge should not practice law.

G. Extra-judicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976; Feb. 19, 1980, eff. Feb. 19, 1980.

Canon 6

A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursements of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his family. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. Repealed Feb. 19, 1980.

Canon 7

A Judge Should Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to his Judicial Office

A. Political Conduct in General. Any candidate for judicial office, including an incumbent judge, and others acting on his behalf, should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable belief that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy.

B. Campaign Conduct:

(1) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled by public election between competing candidates:

(a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him;

(b) should prohibit others subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon;

(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office. Any statement of qualifications, record, or performance in office should be such as can withstand the closest scrutiny as to accuracy, candor and fairness.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

Compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct

A. The following judges shall comply with this Code:

Those elected in a statewide election.
Justices of courts of civil appeals.
Commissioners of any appellate court.
District judges.
Judges of domestic relations courts.
Judges of juvenile courts.
Judges of county courts at law.
Statutory Probate Judges.

Masters and Referees who are permanently appointed by one of the judges listed above.

The Code shall not apply to county judges whether they are also judges of juvenile courts or not.

B. Part-time Judge. A part-time judge is a judge who serves on a continuing or periodic basis, but is permitted by law to devote time to some other profession or occupation and whose compensation for that reason is less than that of a full-time judge. A part-time judge:

(1) is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G.

(2) should not practice law in the court on which he serves or in any court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court on which he serves, or act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

C. Judge Pro Tempore. A judge pro tempore is a person who is appointed to act temporarily as a judge.

(1) While acting as such, a judge pro tempore is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), (3), D, E, F, and G.

(2) A person who has been a judge pro tempore should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

D. Retired Judge. A retired judge who is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G, but he should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by Canon 5G. A retired judge who is not subject to recall for judicial service, or who by reason of disability does not perform such services is excused from compliance with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G.

Amended Sept. 24, 1974; Nov. 9, 1976; Feb. 19, 1980.

Effective Date of Compliance

A person to whom this Code become applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

A. continue to act as an officer or director of a publicly owned business for a period not to exceed four (4) years from the effective date of this Code;

B. continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

Paragraph V of the 1980 order amending this Code provided:

"That one year after the date this Order is signed, the State Commission on Judicial Conduct shall destroy all documents and records which are currently in its possession and custody which have been filed in compliance with Canon 6C which is hereby repealed."

Art. 322b. 6th Judicial District; Abolition of District Attorney's Office; Stenographer

The office of District Attorney in the Sixth Judicial District of Texas is hereby abolished and the County Attorney of each county composing said district, to wit: Fannin and Lamar Counties, shall represent the State of Texas in all matters wherein the State of Texas is a party in his respective county and shall receive such fees and compensation for his services as is now, and may hereafter, be provided by General Laws of the State of Texas; and provided further that each said County Attorney may employ a stenographer by and with the consent of the Commissioners Court of his county, to be paid such salary from county funds as shall be fixed by order of the Court.

Art. 322c. 66th Judicial District Attorney

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the office of District Attorney in the 66th Judicial District of Texas composed of Hill County, created by House Bill No. 487, Acts 1905, Twentieth¹ Legislature, Regular Session, page 37, as amended.²

Sec. 2. There shall be elected at the next general election after the effective date of this Act and at each general election thereafter a District Attorney for the 66th Judicial District of Texas composed of Hill County, who shall represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases in the 66th District Court and perform such other duties as are or may be provided by law governing District Attorneys and he shall receive such compensation as is allowed by law to other District Attorneys in this State. The Governor shall appoint a qualified licensed attorney to serve as District Attorney for the 66th Judicial District from September 1, 1949, until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

¹ Should read "Twenty-ninth".

Art. 323. Bond

Each district attorney, before entering on the duties of his office, shall give bond, payable to the Governor in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the district judge of their respective districts, conditioned that such district attorney will faithfully pay over, in the manner prescribed by law, all money which he may collect or which may come to his hands for the State or for any county. Such bond shall be deposited in the office of the Comptroller.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 324. City of 39,000 to 49,000 in Judicial District of 3 or More Counties; Assistant, Investigator and Stenographer

Sec. 1. In any Judicial District of this State consisting of three (3) or more Counties, in which there is situated a City of not less than thirty-nine thousand (39,000) inhabitants and not more than forty-nine thousand (49,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the District Attorney shall appoint one (1) Assistant District Attorney, provided that the District Attorney shall furnish data to the County Judge of the County in which said above-mentioned City is located that he is in need of an Assistant and is himself unable to attend to all the duties required of him by law and that it is necessary and to the best interests of the State that an Assistant District Attorney be appointed. Said Assistant District Attorney so appointed shall be a qualified resident of the District in which said appointment is made and shall give bond and take the official oath; the said Assistant District Attorney shall be a qualified licensed attorney and shall have authority to perform all the acts and duties of the District Attorney under the laws of this State; said appointment shall be for such time as the District Attorney shall deem best in the enforcement of the law, not to be less than one (1) month. Said Assistant District Attorney shall be paid by the County in which said above-mentioned City is located for the time of actual service rendered at the rate of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per annum, in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the County Funds by warrants drawn upon such County Funds. Said sum shall be paid upon certificate of the District Attorney of said District, that said Assistant District Attorney of said District has performed his duties and is entitled to pay. The District Attorney of any such District, at any time he deems said Assistant unnecessary or finds that he is not attending to his duties as required by law, may remove said person from office by merely writing to said County Judge to that effect.

Sec. 2. Said District Attorney is hereby authorized, with the consent of the County Judge and the Commissioners Court of the County where said City of between thirty-nine thousand (39,000) and forty-nine thousand (49,000) population is located, to appoint one (1) Assistant in addition to his legal assistant provided for in this Act, which Assistant shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District or County Attorneys, which said Assistant shall be known as Special Investigator, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the District Attorney and who shall receive as compensation a salary not to exceed Two Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) per annum, payable monthly out of the County Funds by warrants drawn on such County Funds.

Said Special Investigator shall have authority under the direction of the District Attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

Sec. 3. The District Attorney is hereby authorized with the consent of the County Judge and the Commissioners Court to appoint one (1) stenographer who may or who may not possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District and County Attorneys, and who shall perform the necessary stenographic work as may be assigned to him by the District Attorney, and who shall receive as compensation a salary not to exceed Two Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) per annum, payable monthly out of the County Funds by warrants drawn on such County Funds.

Sec. 4. This Act is not intended and shall not be considered or construed as repealing any law now in the Statute books, but shall be cumulative thereof, and providing further shall be cumulative of all laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof.

Art. 324a. Counties of 37,500 to 100,000; Appointment and Payment of Deputies or Assistants

The provision of this Act¹ relating to the appointment and payment of deputies or assistants, by the county attorneys and the district attorneys, in counties having a population in excess of one hundred thousand inhabitants, shall also apply to counties where one county composes a judicial district, and the population of the county is more than thirty-seven thousand five hundred, and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, as shown by the last United States Census, and counties where the county attorney performs the duties of the county attorney and district attorney, as provided by law.

Art. 324b. County over 70,000, Judicial District of More Than One County; Assistant and Investigator

In any judicial district in this State consisting of more than one county in which there may be a county having a population in excess of 70,000 inhabitants, according to the last census of the United States, and according to any United States census which may hereafter be taken, the district attorney of each district in connection with and for the purpose of conducting his office in such county shall be and is hereby authorized, with the approval of the county commissioners court of such county to appoint one assistant district attorney, who shall receive a salary to be fixed by said commissioners court of such county, not to exceed $2400.00 per annum. Such district attorney shall likewise be authorized, with the approval of such county commissioners court of such county, to appoint one special investigator, at a salary to be fixed by said commissioners court, not to exceed $2400.00 per annum. The salary of such assistant and special investigator, above provided for, shall be paid by the county having a population of more than 70,000, by warrant drawn on the general funds thereof, all salaries payable monthly.

The assistant district attorney above provided for, when appointed, shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State in any court or proceeding in said county in which such district attorney is, or shall be authorized to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said district attorney, and such assistants and special investigators shall be subject to removal at the will of said district attorney. Said assistant district attorney shall be authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by such district attorney in said county, this Article is not intended to repeal any other law now existing, but is cumulative thereof.

Art. 325. 6th Judicial District; Assistant

The district attorney of the Sixth Judicial District of Texas is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant district attorney, whose qualifications and authority shall be the same as now required by law for district attorneys, and he shall take the oath and execute the bond required by law. Said assistant shall receive a salary of not exceeding two thousand dollars per year to be paid out of excess fees of said office as the same accrue under the law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Abolition of office

Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 11, ch. 6, § 1, abolished the office of district attorney of the Sixth Judicial District. See article 322b.

Art. 325a. 8th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

The salary of the District Attorney for the 8th Judicial District of Texas composed of the Counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Delta and Rains shall be $4,000.00 per year, and shall be paid by the State in monthly installments upon warrants drawn by the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Art. 325b. 31st or 8th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

The District Attorney of the 31st Judicial District or the 8th Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary to be paid to District Attorneys by the State, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising such Districts, or any one or more of such Commissioners Courts; providing, however, that the total salary of each of such District Attorneys shall not be supplemented to exceed the salary paid to the highest paid County Attorney of any county in the said 31st Judicial District or the said 8th Judicial District or the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000), whichever is highest. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising said Districts, or any one or more of them, are hereby authorized to pay the supplemental salary herein authorized, in such amount within the limit fixed above.

He shall also be authorized to employ one stenographer, who shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and one stenographer who shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly. He shall also be authorized to employ four investigators, one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars per annum, and the others shall receive a salary of not to exceed twenty-two hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly. Said investigators shall have the power and shall be authorized to make arrests and to execute all processes in criminal cases. The salaries of assistants, deputies, stenographers and investigators, and other employes above provided for, shall be paid by said county by warrant drawn from the general funds thereof.

Additional Assistants and Employees; Appointment and Salary

Sec. 3. Should such district attorney be of the opinion that the number of deputies, assistants, stenographers, investigators or other employes above provided for are insufficient or inadequate for the proper investigation of crime and the efficient performance of the duties of said office, he may appoint such additional assistants and employes, and fix their salaries, provided such salaries shall in no event exceed the maximum provided herein to be paid to such assistants or other employes, but such additional assistants and employes, so appointed, before qualifying and entering upon the duties of such office and employment, shall be confirmed by the commissioners' court of the county court in which such appointments are made.

Payment of Salaries

Sec. 4. The salaries for the additional assistants and employes, as hereinabove provided for herein, shall be paid monthly out of the excess fees collected by such district attorney and his office, which would otherwise go to said county, a detailed itemized statement under oath of which he shall include in his annual report, as provided to be made in the Maximum Fee Bill; and in no event shall said county be liable for the salaries of such additional assistants or employes.

Authority and Removal of Assistants, Etc.

Sec. 5. The assistant district attorneys above provided for, when appointed, shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State in any court or proceeding in which such district attorney is or shall be authorized to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said district attorney, and such assistants, deputies, stenographers, investigators and employes, whether regular or additional, shall be subject to removal at the will of said district attorney. Each of said assistant district attorneys shall be authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by such district attorney in said county.

Application of Act

Sec. 7. The provisions of this Act² shall apply to every district attorney within the State of Texas, within counties of a population of more than 150,000 inhabitants and having a county attorney, to be determined as above provided, whether the said district attorney be of and for a judicial district called and known by number, or whether called and known as a criminal judicial district, or whether of and for any court called or known as a criminal district court; and whether such district attorney be called and known as a district attorney or a criminal district attorney, or a criminal district attorney of any named county or court.

Art. 326g. Counties over 150,000 Having No County Attorney; Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers; Automobiles

Assistants, Stenographers, Investigators; Appointment and Salaries

Sec. 1. That in any county having a population in excess of 150,000 inhabitants, according to the last census of the U.S., and according to any U.S. census which may be hereafter taken, and in which there is no county attorney, the district attorney or criminal district attorney may appoint 7 assistant district attorneys, one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed forty-eight hundred dollars per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed forty-two hundred dollars per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars per annum; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars per annum each; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum each. He may employ two stenographers, who shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand four hundred dollars per annum each. He may employ three investigators who shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand four hundred dollars per annum each. The salaries of assistants, stenographers and investigators, and other employees, above provided for, shall be paid monthly by said county, by warrant drawn from the general funds thereof.

Additional Assistants and Employees; Appointment and Salaries

Sec. 2. Should such district attorney be of the opinion that the number of deputies, assistants, stenographers, investigators or other employees above provided for are inadequate for the proper investigation of crime and the efficient performance of the duties of said office, he may appoint such additional assistants and employees, and fix their salaries, provided such salaries shall in no event exceed the maximum provided herein to be paid to such assistants or other employees, but such additional assistants and employees, so appointed, before qualifying and entering upon the duties of such office and employment, shall be confirmed by the commissioners court of the county in which such appointments are made.

Payment of Salaries for Additional Assistants and Employees

Sec. 3. The salaries for such additional assistants and employees shall be paid monthly out of the excess fees collected by such district attorney and his office, which would otherwise go to said county, a detailed sworn itemized statement of which he shall include in his annual report, as provided, to be made in the Maximum Fee Bill.¹ In no event shall said county be liable for the salaries of such additional assistants or employees.

Authority and Removal of Assistants, Etc.

Sec. 4. The assistant district attorneys above provided for, when appointed, shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State in any court or proceeding in which such district attorney is or shall be authorized to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said district attorney. Any such assistant, stenographer, investigator, or employee, whether regular or additional, shall be subject to removal at the will of said district attorney or criminal district attorney.

Automobiles; Purchase and Expense

Sec. 5. The commissioners' court of the county of the district attorney's or criminal district attorney's residence may, upon the written sworn application of the district attorney or criminal district attorney, stating the necessity therefor, allow one or more automobiles to be used by the district attorney or criminal district attorney in the discharge of his official duties, which if purchased shall be bought by the county in the manner prescribed by law for the purchase of supplies, and paid out of the general fund, and they shall be and remain the property of the county. The amount to be expended for the purchase of an automobile or automobiles shall not exceed the sum of twelve hundred dollars for the first year, and shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for any year thereafter. The expense of the maintenance and operation of such automobile or automobiles as may be allowed shall be paid for by the district attorney or the criminal district attorney from fees of office, and the amount thereof shall be reported in detail by the district attorney or the criminal district attorney on a monthly report, as is now required by law in reporting expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his office, and shall be deducted by him from the amount due by him to the county in the same manner as the other expenses are deducted which are provided for by law. Such expense account for the maintenance and operation of such automobile or automobiles shall be subject to the audit of the county auditor, and if it appears that any item of such expense was not incurred by such officer, or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by such auditor or court rejected, in which case the correctness or necessity of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Application of Act

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall apply to every district attorney within the State of Texas within counties of a population of more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, and in which there is no county attorney to be determined as above provided, whether the said district attorney be of and for a judicial district called and known by number, or whether called and known as a criminal judicial district, or whether of and for any court called or known as a criminal district court; and whether such district attorney be called and known as a district attorney, or a criminal district attorney, or a criminal district attorney of any named county or court.

Art. 326h. City of 50,000 or More in Judicial District of More Than One County; Assistants

Sec. 1. In any judicial district in this State composed of more than one county and in which there is a city having an actual population of 50,000 inhabitants or more, the district attorney shall have authority, with the approval of the commissioners' court of such county in which said city is situated, to appoint not more than two assistants, who shall be licensed to practice law in this State, and shall perform such duties as shall be required of them by the district attorney; and under the direction of the district attorney shall have all the authority that may be exercised by the district attorney. The district attorney shall use one of said assistants as an investigator to assist in the performance of the duties of his office, in addition to whatever other duties may be required of such assistant. Said assistants shall take the constitutional oath of office and serve at the will of the district attorney, not to exceed under any one appointment the maximum time fixed by the Constitution for such officers.

Sec. 2. The salary of each of said assistants shall not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) per year, to be paid by the county in which said city is situated by warrant drawn on the general fund thereof, all salaries payable monthly. The district attorney shall ascertain the population of any city in his district necessary to be ascertained under this Act by making application to the mayor of any such city for a certificate as to the population of such city. It shall be the duty of any such mayor to ascertain by some reasonable accurate estimate the population of any such city, and his certificate to same under oath shall authorize the district attorney to assume its correctness and act upon the information contained in such certificate in making any appointment of an assistant or assistants under this Act.

Art. 326i. Counties of 22,000 or More; Assistants and Investigators

Sec. 1. The district attorney of any criminal district court only for more than one county may appoint one assistant district attorney of each county containing a population of 22,000 or more as shown by the last preceding census of the United States, provided said district attorney shall furnish data to the judge of said criminal district court that he is in need of said assistants and it is necessary for the investigation and prosecution of crime and the efficient enforcement of law and to the best interest of the State that such assistant district attorneys be appointed. And when said data is furnished to said judge of said criminal district court he shall forthwith certify the same to the commissioners' court of the county in which such appointment is to be made.

And said district attorney is hereby authorized, with the approval of the commissioners' court of such county, to appoint one assistant district attorney for each county, as provided above, who shall receive a salary to be fixed by said commissioners' court in such county not to exceed $2,400.00 per annum. The salary of such assistant district attorneys above provided for shall be paid by the county for which said assistant is appointed, by warrant drawn on the general funds thereof, all salaries payable monthly.

Every person so appointed shall be a qualified resident attorney of the county and district in which such appointment is made, and shall give bond and take the oath of office required of district attorneys of this State, and shall have the power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of district attorneys under the law of this State, and said appointments shall be for such time as the district attorney shall deem best in the enforcement of the law, not to be less than one month.

Sec. 2. The assistant district attorneys, above provided for when appointed and qualified, shall be authorized to represent the State in any court or proceeding in said district in which such district attorney is or shall be authorized to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said district attorney, and said assistant district attorneys shall be authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized by said district attorney in said district.

Sec. 3. Said district attorney may likewise be, and he is hereby authorized, with the approval of such county commissioners' court of each county wherein an assistant district attorney may be appointed as provided by this Act, to appoint one special investigator for each of said counties wherein an assistant district attorney may be appointed as provided by this Act, at a salary to be fixed by said commissioners' court not to exceed $2,400.00 per annum. The salary of such special investigator above provided for shall be paid by each county in which a special investigator is appointed, by warrant drawn on the general funds thereof, all such salaries to be payable monthly. Said assistant district attorneys and special investigators shall be subject to removal at the will of said district attorney.

Art. 326k-1. Criminal District Attorney in Counties Constituting Three or More Judicial Districts

Creation of Office; Election and Term; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. In those counties in this State which within themselves constitute three or more separate Judicial Districts, and in which there is not now a District Attorney the office of Criminal District Attorney is hereby created, and shall exist from and after the passage of this Act. Such officer shall be known as Criminal District Attorney of such county. A Criminal District Attorney shall be elected in each such county at the next general election, and at each succeeding general election after the passage of this Act. He shall hold his office for the period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws of this State for other District Attorneys; and it is further provided and directed that the¹ present County Attorney of any such county shall continue in office and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws for other District Attorneys and assume the duties and be known as the Criminal District Attorney of the county, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney of such county, and appoint assistants as provided in this Act, and receive the fees provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of any such county shall have and exercise, all such powers, duties and privileges within such county as are by law now conferred or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys.

Fees; Limitation and Distribution

Sec. 3. The Criminal District Attorney in each county affected by this Act shall receive the same fees allowed by law for County Attorneys in misdemeanor cases and shall also receive a salary of five hundred ($500.00) dollars per annum, to be paid by the State in the manner provided by law for paying the salaries of District Attorneys, and in addition thereto shall be paid the following fees by the State in the manner provided by law for paying the fees of County and District Attorneys;

For each conviction of felonious homicide and for each conviction where the punishment fixed by the Statute may be death, where the defendant does not appeal or dies, or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals or where upon appeal judgment is affirmed, the sum of forty dollars. For all other convictions in felony cases where the defendant does not appeal or dies or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals or where upon appeal the judgment is affirmed, the sum of thirty dollars; provided, that in all convictions of felony, in which punishment is fixed by the verdict and punishment in a house of correction and reformatory, his fee shall be fifteen dollars. For representing the State in each case of habeas corpus where the defendant is charged with a felony, the sum of twenty dollars; For representing the State in each examining trial, in felony cases, where indictment is returned, in each case, the sum of five dollars. The Criminal District Attorney shall receive fees for other services rendered by him as is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to be paid to District and County Attorneys in this State and for such services including the same fee now fixed and allowed by law in misdemeanor cases to County Attorneys, fees allowed by law for ex-officio services, said ex-officio fees may be allowed in addition to other fees herein provided, in an amount not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum by the Commissioners' Court of the county and in the same manner as provided for county officers. The Criminal District Attorney shall retain out of the fees earned and collected by him the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum and in addition thereto one-fourth of the gross excess of all such fees in excess of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum to an amount not in excess of two thousand dollars. After deducting the three thousand five hundred dollars and one-fourth of the remaining gross the remaining amount is to be applied first for the payment of the salaries of his assistants and the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his said office, such as stamps, stationery, books, telephone, traveling expenses and other necessary expenses, and the balance remaining to be paid over to the county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the fee bill; provided that in arriving at the amount collected by him he shall include fees arising from all classes of criminal cases, whether felony or misdemeanor, arising in any of the Justice, County or District Courts or which may hereafter be created, including habeas corpus hearing, fines and forfeitures, but shall not include the five hundred dollars annual salary paid by the State; provided that on the first day of January, or as soon thereafter as practicable each year, he shall make a full and complete report and account, as is now provided by law for officers required to make annual reports of fees collected, of all such fees so collected by him; provided that in addition to the above he shall receive ten per cent for the collection of delinquent fees due the county, bond forfeitures, and money collected for the State and county as is now provided by law relating to the collection of fees by County and District Attorneys; such fees to be included in the report herein provided for and to be taken into consideration in arriving at the total maximum compensation provided in this Act; and provided further that the Criminal District Attorney shall represent the State and county in all tax suits, including suits for inheritance tax, as is now provided for District and County Attorneys. He shall receive the same fees as received by District and County Attorneys and the said fees in delinquent tax and inheritance tax suits shall be exempt to him as now provided for fees exempt to District and County Attorneys, and all such tax fees shall not be accounted for nor included in his annual report.

Assistants; Appointment; Compensation; Powers; Removal

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney shall appoint as many assistants as shall be necessary to properly administer the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney and to enforce the law, not to exceed five assistants, said appointments to be made by the said Criminal District Attorney and ratified by the Commissioners' Court. One of said assistants shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars per annum, two of said assistants shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand four hundred dollars per annum and two of said assistants shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum, each payable monthly. Assistant Criminal District Attorney¹ shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney and when confirmed by the Commissioners' Court shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State in all of the courts of the county in which the Criminal District Attorney is authorized by this Act to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of the Criminal District Attorney, and which said assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the Criminal District Attorney. Each of said assistants shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the Grand Jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon County and District Attorneys and the Criminal District Attorney when by him so authorized. The Criminal District Attorney shall be paid the same fees for services rendered by his assistants as he would be entitled to receive if the services had been rendered by himself.

Additional Assistants and Employees

Sec. 5. Should the work of the Criminal District Attorney require additional assistants and investigators and other employees provided for in this Act to properly investigate and punish offenders, and for the efficient performance of the duties incumbent upon the Criminal District Attorney, he may appoint such additional assistants and employees and fix their salaries, provided such salary shall in no event exceed the maximum provided herein to be paid to assistants so appointed; but such additional assistants and employees before qualifying and entering upon the duties of such office shall be confirmed by the Commissioners' Court of the county, upon a written application of the Criminal District Attorney, setting out under oath the necessity and facts requiring such additional appointment.

Assistants as Special Investigators; Compensation

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney is authorized, with the consent of the County Judge and the Commissioners' Court to appoint not to exceed two assistants in addition to his regular assistants provided for in this Act, which two assistants shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District or County Attorneys, which said two assistants shall be known as special investigators, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the Criminal District Attorney and who shall receive as their compensation a salary not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the county funds, by warrants drawn on such county funds; and providing further that said investigators for the Criminal District Attorney shall be allowed a sum of money by order of the Commissioners' Court for traveling and other expenses incident to the duties they shall perform under the direction of the Criminal District Attorney, which said sum of money so allowed by the said Commissioners' Court shall not exceed seventy-five dollars per month, as in the judgment of the Commissioners' Court may be deemed necessary to properly administer the duties of such office and investigation of criminal cases in said Criminal District Attorney's office and incident thereto; provided further that such amount as may be thus necessarily incurred shall be paid by the Commissioners' Court upon affidavit made by the Criminal District Attorney, showing the necessity of such expenditure and for what the same was incurred. The Commissioners' Court may also require any further evidence as in their opinion may be necessary to show the necessity of such expenditure, but they shall be the sole judge as to the necessity of such expenditure and their judgment allowing same shall be final.

Stenographers; Appointment and Compensation

Sec. 7. The Criminal District Attorney is authorized, with the consent of the County Judge and the Commissioners' Court to appoint not to exceed two stenographers, who may or who may not possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District and County Attorneys and who shall perform the necessary stenographic duties as may be assigned to them by the Criminal District Attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum each, to be paid in monthly installments out of the county funds by warrants drawn on such county funds.

Monthly Report of Expenses

Sec. 8. The Criminal District Attorney shall at the close of each month of the tenure of such office make as a part of the report required by this Act an itemized and sworn statement of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of said office, such as stamps, stationery, books, telephone, traveling expenses, and any and all other necessary expenses. If such expenses be incurred in connection with any particular case, such statement shall name such case, such expense account shall be subject to the audit of the County Auditor and if it appears that any item of such expense was not incurred by such officer or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by said Auditor rejected, in which case the correction of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction. The amount of such expenses shall be deducted by the Criminal District Attorney in making his report from the amount, if any, due by him to the county under the provisions of this Act.

Application of Act

Sec. 9. This Act is not intended and shall not be considered or construed as repealing any law now in the statute books, but shall be cumulative thereof, and providing further shall be cumulative of all laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof. This Act shall not apply to any county in this State having two or more incorporated cities each having a population of more than 20,000, according to the latest United States census.

Art. 326k-2. Unconstitutional

This article derived from Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 134, ch. 66, § 1, provided that district attorneys in judicial districts composed of two or more counties should receive certain compensation from the state in addition to the sum of $500 per annum, provided by the Constitution. In Witterspoon v. Sheppard, 123 T. 93, 67 S.W.2d 1037, the Commission of Appeals, in an opinion adopted by the Supreme Court, held that the act violated Const. Art. 5, § 21.

Art. 326k-3. Judicial District of Five or More Counties of 98,740 to 98,750; District Attorney and Assistant

Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. District Attorneys in each judicial district in this State containing five or more counties having a combined population, according to the Fourteenth Census of the United States of the year 1920, of not less than 98,740 nor in excess of 98,750, shall receive from the State as pay for their services the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars per annum, as provided by the constitution, and in addition thereto, and in lieu of the fees, commissions, and perquisites provided by law, shall receive from the State the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars for each of the first 350 days of every calendar year as compensation for attending examining trials; Habeas Corpus hearings, the sessions of the District Court of the district they represent, and for performing such other duties as imposed by law. The compensation provided for in this Act shall be paid monthly by the State upon warrants drawn by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and it shall not be necessary for the District Attorney to file any account with the District Judge or the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to deprive District Attorneys of the traveling expense allowances now provided by law, nor shall this Act affect the salary or compensation of any District Attorney fixed by special law. All commissions, perquisites and fees allowed to and collected by District Attorneys in districts composed of five or more counties, having the population as herein provided, shall be paid to the District Clerk of the County where said fees, commissions and perquisites are collected, who shall pay the same over to the State Treasury.

Assistant; Appointment; Qualifications; Bond; Oath; Removal

Sec. 2. That in each of said Judicial Districts, the duly elected District Attorney shall have the right, with the consent of the Judge of said District Court to appoint an Assistant District Attorney who shall serve as such Assistant District Attorney for the same term as the district attorney is elected, and in case of a vacancy, the District Attorney, with the consent of the district judge of the District, may make an appointment to fill out the unexpired term. The district attorney of said district, at any time he deems said assistant unnecessary, or finds that he is not attending to his duties as required by law, may remove such assistant district attorney from office by giving him written notice to that effect. Said assistant district attorney shall give a bond in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars, and take the oath of office, and shall have authority to perform all of the acts and duties of the district attorney under the laws of this State. Said assistant district attorney shall be a qualified resident attorney of the judicial district.

Compensation of Assistant

Sec. 3. The assistant district attorney provided for in Section 1 of this Act shall receive an annual salary of three thousand six hundred dollars, to be paid monthly by the comptroller out of the funds appropriated for the payment of the salaries and fees of the district attorneys of the State of Texas or out of any money not otherwise appropriated, said salary to be paid upon the sworn account such assistant district attorney approved by the district attorney and the district judge of said district; and in addition to this salary the assistant district attorney shall also be paid the amount of expenses incurred by said assistant district attorney in attending the courts of other counties than his residence in the performance of his duties as such assistant district attorney the same amount as is now paid district attorneys out of the funds appropriated for the payment of expenses of the district attorneys of the State.

Art. 326k-4. 7th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 7th Judicial District shall receive for the actual and necessary discharge of his duties in the District Court of the 7th Judicial District of Texas, and/or in the Special District Court of Smith County, Texas, the same per diem now allowed by the Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature, for not to exceed fifty (50) days during each of the calendar years 1935, 1936, 1937 and 1938, respectively, in addition to the maximum number of days for which he may be paid under provisions of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature. Payment of said additional compensation shall be made in the same manner as is provided for payment of compensation provided for by the Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature.

Sec. 2. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the District Attorney of the 7th Judicial District of Texas from receiving his actual and necessary expenses while serving as said District Attorney in said district outside of the county of his residence, as now provided by law.

Abolition of Office

Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 264, ch. 143, § 1, incorporated herein as Article 326k-13; abolished the office of District Attorney in the 7th Judicial District. Section 2 of the 1949 Act repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 326k-5. 12th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District of Texas shall receive for the actual and necessary discharge of his duties in the District Court of the 12th Judicial District of Texas, for not to exceed fifty (50) days each year in addition to the maximum number of days for which he may be paid under the Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature. Payment of said additional compensation shall be made in the same manner as is provided for payment of compensation provided for by the Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature.

Sec. 2. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District of Texas from receiving his actual and necessary expenses while serving as said District Attorney in said district outside of the county of his residence, as now provided by law.

Art. 326k-5a. 12th Judicial District; Deputy

Appointment of Deputy

Sec. 1. The district attorney of the 12th Judicial District, with the consent of each of the commissioners courts of the counties comprising the 12th Judicial District, may appoint a deputy district attorney.

Qualifications; Duties

Sec. 2. A deputy district attorney appointed under the provisions of this Act shall be a qualified licensed attorney and shall serve at the will and pleasure of the district attorney. The deputy district attorney may perform all the acts and duties of the district attorney under the laws of this state.

Salary; Expenses

Sec. 3. A deputy district attorney appointed under the provisions of this Act shall be paid a salary set by the district attorney, with the approval of the commissioners courts of the several counties included within the 12th Judicial District, and shall be allowed a reasonable amount for expenses incurred traveling about the district on the call of duty.

Payment of Salary and Expenses; Participation in Retirement System

Sec. 4. The salary and expenses provided for in this Act shall be paid by the counties composing the 12th Judicial District in proportion to the population of each for the last preceding federal census, out of the officers salary fund of the county. The salary shall be paid in 12 equal monthly installments and expense claims shall be paid at the end of each month. The salary is subject to participation fully in the Texas County and District Retirement System.

Art. 326k-8. Counties Under 25,000 with Tax Valuation Over $75,000,000; Assistant District Attorney

In any county in this State having a population less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having a tax valuation exceeding Seventy-five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) according to the last tax roll which has been approved as required by law, the District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney in said county is hereby authorized to appoint, in addition to the other assistants allowed by law, a Special Assistant District Attorney or Assistant Criminal District Attorney, whose powers and duties shall be the same as those of other Assistant District Attorneys or other Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, and in addition whose special duty shall be to assist said District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney in all civil matters arising in and connected with the efficient conduct of said office, including the investigation of all records, preparation of and filing of suits for the collection of all delinquent taxes of whatever kind or character due such county. Such Special Assistant District Attorney or Special Assistant Criminal District Attorney shall be paid the sum of Three Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600) per annum, payable in twelve (12) monthly installments, out of the General Fund of said county by warrant drawn upon such a Fund. Said salary shall be payable as herein provided when said District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney shall certify to the Judge of the County Court in such a county that any or all services enumerated herein have been performed and were necessary to the proper and efficient conduct of said office.

Art. 326k-9. Counties of 75,001 to 77,100 and 30,900 to 30,950; Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Election

Sec. 1. In those counties in this State having a population of not less than seventy-five thousand and one (75,001), and not more than seventy-seven thousand, one hundred (77,100) inhabitants, and not containing a city of more than forty thousand (40,000) inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding Federal Census, and in which counties there are one or more Judicial Districts, and in counties of this State having a population of not less than thirty thousand, nine hundred (30,900), and not more than thirty thousand, nine hundred and fifty (30,950) inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding Federal Census, and in which the County Attorney performs the duties of County Attorney and District Attorney, and in which there is not now a District Attorney, the office of Criminal District Attorney is hereby created, and shall exist from and after the passage of this Act. Such officer shall be known as Criminal District Attorney of such county. He shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws of this State for other District Attorneys. And it is further provided and directed that the person who is the present County Attorney of any such county shall continue in office and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and Laws for other District Attorneys, and assume the duties and be known as the Criminal District Attorney of the county, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney of such county, and appoint assistants as provided in this Act. Provided further, that the present County Attorneys in such counties shall continue to hold the office created by this Act, for a period in no event less than the time such officer would have held his office as County Attorney had this Act not been passed. A Criminal District Attorney shall be elected in each such county at the General Election of the year immediately preceding the termination of the term of the Criminal District Attorney provided for such counties in this Act. Thereafter, a Criminal District Attorney in such counties shall be regularly elected as provided by law.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of any such county shall have and exercise all such powers, duties, and privileges within such county as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys, and such Criminal District Attorney shall act as and perform the duties of District Attorney for all Judicial Districts in such counties, and shall act as and perform the duties of County Attorney for all County Courts of such counties.

Salary; Deputies and Assistants

Sec. 3. The Criminal District Attorney in each county affected by this Act shall receive the same salary allowed other Criminal District Attorneys, as provided in Section 13 of Chapter 465,¹ Acts of the Forty-fourth Legislature, Second Called Session, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

Deputies, assistants, and clerks shall be hired by the Criminal District Attorney in such counties, and their compensation shall be fixed as provided by Subsection 4 of Section 14, Chapter 465,² Acts of the Forty-fourth Legislature, Second Called Session, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

Law Governing

Sec. 4. The provisions of Chapter 465³ of the Acts of the Forty-fourth Legislature, Second Called Session, shall apply to and govern the offices of Criminal District Attorney created by this Act to the same extent and in the same manner that such Chapter would have applied had such offices been created prior to the passage of said Act.

Intention of Act as to Creation of Office

Sec. 5. It is not the intention of this Act to create any office of District Attorney, nor any other Constitutional office, and the office of Criminal District Attorney is hereby declared to be a separate and distinct office from the Constitutional office of District Attorney, and no Criminal District Attorney shall draw or be entitled to any salary whatsoever from the State of Texas.

Act Cumulative

Sec. 6. This Act is not intended and shall not be considered or construed as repealing any law now in the Statute Books, except those in conflict herewith, but shall be cumulative thereof.

Art. 326k-11. County Attorneys Designated Criminal District Attorneys

Sec. 1. In any county in this State not embraced in or constituting either a Criminal District Attorney's District or a District Attorney's District, and wherein the duty of representing the State in all criminal matters arising in such county devolves upon the County Attorney of such county, the Commissioners' Court thereof, upon petition of such County Attorney at any time during a non-election year, may, by appropriate action spread upon the minutes of such Commissioners' Court, designate the office of County Attorney in such county as the office of Criminal District Attorney of such County, and the incumbent of such office as the Criminal District Attorney of such County; and thereafter and until such time as such county shall be included within a regularly created and constituted District Attorney's District or Criminal District Attorney's District, such office shall be designated as the office of Criminal District Attorney of such county, and the incumbent thereof shall be designated as the Criminal District Attorney of such county; providing that such change in the designation and appellation of such office and the incumbent thereof, as aforesaid, shall in no manner alter or affect either the previous election and qualifications of the incumbent thereof, nor shall the same thereafter alter or affect either the rights, duties, or emoluments of such office or the incumbent thereof; and providing further that in all elections thereafter held to fill such office, and so long as the same shall be so designated, the said office shall be designated upon the ballot and in the election as the office of Criminal District Attorney of such county; and providing further that in the event any such county be thereafter embraced in or constitute a regularly created District Attorney's District or Criminal District Attorney's District, the designation of County Attorney shall be restored to such office unless the office of County Attorney be abolished in such county.

Sec. 2. It is not the intention of this Act to create any office of District Attorney or any other Constitutional office; but it is the intention of this Act merely to authorize a change in the name and appellation of the office of County Attorney and the incumbent thereof in certain counties, without otherwise changing or affecting the rights, duties, or emoluments either of such office or the incumbent thereof.

Sec. 3. This Act is not intended and shall not be considered or construed as repealing any law now in the statute books, except those in conflict therewith; but it shall be cumulative thereof.

Election and Term

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of Brazoria County at its general election in November 1954 and at the general election every two years thereafter an attorney for said county who shall be styled the Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, and who shall hold office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Powers and Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the District Courts of Brazoria County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Brazoria County held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before said courts and to represent Brazoria County in all matters pending before such courts and any other court where Brazoria County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest, and in addition to the specified powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act all such powers, duties, and privileges within Brazoria County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon the District and County Attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District and County Attorneys of this State.

Commission and Compensation

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, Texas, shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as salary and compensation the following: a salary of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars from the State of Texas for the salary of District Attorneys, and a sum of not less than Seventeen Thousand Five Hundred ($17,500) Dollars and not more than Eighteen Thousand Five Hundred ($18,500) Dollars a year to be paid out of the Officers' Salary Fund of Brazoria County, if adequate; if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officers' Salary Fund. The effective date of this Section is January 1, 1972.

Assistants and Stenographers; Appointment and Compensation; Office Expenses

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, and with the approval of the Commissioners Court shall be and is hereby authorized to appoint one First Assistant and two Assistants and fix their salaries as follows, and no less: said First Assistants shall receive the sum of not less than Twelve Thousand ($12,000) Dollars per annum. Each of said Assistants shall receive the sum of not less than Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars per annum.

The Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County may employ four stenographers and fix their salaries at not less than Forty-Eight Hundred ($4,800) Dollars per annum. All of the salaries mentioned in this section shall be payable from the Officers' Salary Fund of Brazoria County, if adequate; if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officers' Fund.

In addition to the salaries provided the Criminal District Attorney, his First Assistant, Assistants, and Stenographers, the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, Texas, shall provide such Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, Texas, such reasonable and necessary expenses for the operation of the Office of Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, Texas, as the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, Texas, may deem necessary for the proper operation of the Office of the Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, Texas, and said expenses shall be paid as provided by law for such expenses.

Additional Assistants and Employees

Sec. 6. Should the Criminal District Attorney be of the opinion that the number of assistants, investigators, stenographers, or clerks as provided above is not adequate for the proper investigation and prosecution of crime and the effective performance of the duties of his office, he may with the approval of the Commissioners Court appoint additional assistants, investigators, clerks or stenographers and pay said employees such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County, Texas.

Oath of Assistant and Investigators; Powers and Duties

Sec. 7. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Brazoria County and the investigator or investigators, when so appointed shall take the constitutional oath of office, and said Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their duty to represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases pending in any and all of the courts of Brazoria County, Texas, and any and all civil matters in any court anywhere involving interest, crime or right of Brazoria County as well as perform the other statutory or constitutional duties of District and County Attorneys.

Said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Brazoria County are authorized to administer oaths, file informations, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County and exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law upon the Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County.

Appointment and Term; Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act the Governor of Texas shall immediately appoint a Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The office of County Attorney of Brazoria County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

District Attorney of 23rd Judicial District

Sec. 9. Upon the effective date of this Act the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District of Texas shall only represent the State of Texas in the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda.

The provisions of this Act shall not affect the office of District Attorney or the duties and powers of such District Attorney in the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda, and the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall continue to perform his duties in the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda as before, and it is specifically understood that this bill applies only to Brazoria County and not to the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda.

From the effective date of this bill the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall continue to fulfill the duties of District Attorney in the counties of Wharton, Fort Bend, and Matagorda, but his duties in the County of Brazoria shall be divested from him and invested in the resident Criminal District Attorney of Brazoria County, Texas, as created by this bill.

The District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda at the next general election, and a District Attorney for the 23rd Judicial District shall be elected every two years from the Counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda at the general election every two years thereafter, but it is specifically understood that the present District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall continue in office as such District Attorney in the counties of Fort Bend, Wharton and Matagorda until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Art. 326k-26. Harris County District Attorney for Criminal District Court

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of District Attorney for the Criminal District Court of Harris County is hereby created, effective September 1, 1953, and said District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State of other District Attorneys.

Election and Term

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of Harris County, Texas, at the General Election in November, 1954, and at the General Election every two (2) years thereafter an attorney for said district who shall be styled the District Attorney for the Criminal District Court of Harris County, and who shall hold office for a period of two (2) years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the District Attorney, or his assistants, as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the district courts of Harris County, Texas, and the District Attorney and his assistants shall have the right and it shall be their primary duty to represent the State of Texas in criminal cases pending in the district and inferior courts of Harris County, Texas. The District Attorney shall also have control of any and all cases heard on habeas corpus before any civil district court of Harris County as well as before the Criminal Courts of said county. He shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed upon him and his assistants by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within Harris County as are now by law conferred and which may hereafter be conferred on District Attorneys in various counties and judicial districts of this State relative to criminal matters for and in behalf of the State of Texas.

Commission and Compensation

Sec. 4. The District Attorney shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as compensation therefor, out of funds provided in the biennial Appropriation Act, and from the officers salary fund of Harris County an annual sum, the total of which shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Harris County at not less than Nine Thousand, Nine Hundred Dollars ($9,900) nor more than Eleven Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($11,800). The allocation heretofore made under the provisions of Subsection B, Section 13 and Section 15, Subsection A of Chapter 465, Section 6(a), Second Called Session, Acts, Forty-fourth Legislature,¹ to the Criminal District Attorney of Harris County shall be made and allocated on the same basis to the District Attorney for the Criminal District Court of Harris County in the biennial Appropriation Act.

Assistants, Investigators, Reporters and Secretaries; Appointment and Salary

Sec. 5. Whenever the District Attorney shall require the services of assistants, investigators, reporters and secretaries in the performance of his duties, he shall apply to the Commissioners Court for authority to appoint such assistants, investigators, reporters and secretaries, stating by sworn application the number needed, the position to be filled, the duties to be performed and the amount to be paid. The Court shall make its order authorizing the appointment of such assistants, investigators, reporters, and secretaries and fix the compensation to be paid them, and determine the number to be appointed as in the discretion of said Court may be proper. Provided that in no case shall the Commissioners Court, or any member thereof, attempt to influence the appointment of any person as assistant, investigator, reporter or secretary in the District Attorney's office. All of the salaries payable by Harris County provided for in this Act shall be paid from the officers salary fund if adequate. If inadequate, the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers salary fund.

Oath and Powers of Assistants

Sec. 6. The Assistant District Attorneys of Harris County, when so appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office, and they are hereby authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury, and perform any duty devolving upon the District Attorney and shall exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law upon the District Attorney relative to criminal matters.

Sec. 1. The Constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney for Harrison County is hereby created and said Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath of office and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State of other District Attorneys.

Election and Term

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the 71st Judicial District of Harrison County at its general election in November, 1956, and at the general election every four (4) years thereafter an attorney for said Judicial District and County who shall be styled the Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County and who shall hold office for a period of four (4) years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Powers and Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the District Courts of Harrison County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior Courts of Harrison County held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before said Courts and to represent Harrison County in all matters pending before such Courts and any other Court where Harrison County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest, and in addition to the specified powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act all such powers, duties, and privileges within Harrison County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon the District and County Attorneys in the various Counties and Judicial Districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District and County Attorneys of this State.

Commission and Compensation; Private Practice of Law

Sec. 4. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County, Texas, shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall be compensated for his services by the state in such manner and in such amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the state. The Commissioners Court may pay the criminal district attorney any compensation it deems advisable but shall pay the criminal district attorney at least an amount necessary to provide him a total salary from the county and the state of not less than $16,000 per annum.

(b) The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County, if paid at least Sixteen Thousand Dollars ($16,000) per year, and his assistants, if paid at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) per year, may not engage in the private practice of civil law and may not refer legal business to others engaged in the private practice of law. This subsection does not apply to those acts required in the performance of the official duties as Criminal District Attorney.

Assistants, Investigator and Stenographers; Appointment, Salary and Expenses

Sec. 5. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, and with the approval of the Commissioners Court shall be and is hereby authorized to appoint assistants and fix their annual salary as follows: Said assistants shall receive not more than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000).

(b) The Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County may employ one investigator and he may employ two (2) stenographers and pay said employees such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Harrison County, Texas. All the salaries mentioned in this section shall be payable from the officers salary fund, if adequate; if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the County to the officers salary fund.

(c) In addition to the salaries provided the Criminal District Attorney, his assistants and investigators, the Commissioners Court of Harrison County may allow such Criminal District Attorney, his assistants and investigators, such necessary expenses as within the discretion of the Court seems reasonable and said expenses shall be paid as provided by law for such other claims of expenses.

Additional Assistants and Employees

Sec. 6. Should the Criminal District Attorney be of the opinion that the number of assistants, investigators, stenographers, or clerks, as provided above, is not adequate for the proper investigation and prosecution of crime and the effective performance of the duties of his office, he may with the approval of the Commissioners Court appoint additional assistants, investigators, clerks or stenographers and pay said employees such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Harrison County, Texas.

Oath of Assistant and Investigator; Powers and Duties

Sec. 7. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Harrison County and the investigator, when so appointed shall take the Constitutional oath of office, and said Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their duty to represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases pending in any and all of the Courts of Harrison County, Texas, and any and all civil matters in any Court anywhere involving interest, crime or right of Harrison County as well as perform the other statutory or Constitutional duties of District and County Attorneys.

Said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Harrison County are authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney and exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law upon the Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County.

Appointment and Term; Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act the Governor of Texas shall immediately appoint a Criminal District Attorney of Harrison County who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The office of County Attorney of Harrison County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 326k-43. 27th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

The Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, in the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, is hereby authorized to supplement the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, by an additional salary of One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) per year. This supplemental salary that may be paid by the said Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, may be paid in addition to the salary paid said District Attorney by the State of Texas under existing law. The amount of any such supplemental salary that may be paid by the said Commissioners Court of said County shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioners Court of said County.

Art. 326k-43a. 27th Judicial District; Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers; Compensation of District Attorney

Application for Appointment of Assistants, Investigators or Stenographers; Order Authorizing Employment

Sec. 1. Whenever the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District shall require the services of assistants, investigators or stenographers in the performance of his duty, he shall apply to the Commissioners Court of any one or more of the counties comprising said 27th Judicial District for authority to appoint such assistants, investigators or stenographers, stating by written application the number needed, the position to be filled, and the amount to be paid. Upon receipt of such application the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts applied to may enter an order authorizing the employment of such assistants, investigators and stenographers and fix the compensation to be paid them.

Qualifications and Duties of Assistants

Sec. 2. The assistants to the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be authorized to perform all duties imposed on the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District by law.

Qualifications and Powers of Investigators

Sec. 3. Investigators for the District Attorney need not be licensed to practice law. They shall have authority to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases, and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

Office Furniture and Supplies; Expenses

Sec. 4. Any one or more of the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 27th Judicial District are authorized to furnish telephones, typewriters, office furniture, supplies, and such other items and equipment as may be deemed necessary to carry out the official duties of the District Attorney's office, and to pay necessary and essential expenses incident to carrying out the official duties of the District Attorney and his office. In addition to their salaries, the District Attorney, his assistants and investigators may be allowed actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of their duties. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to that portion of the compensation and travel expense paid by the State of Texas to district officials and employees.

Supplementary Salary of District Attorney

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, in the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, is hereby authorized to supplement the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, by an additional salary of not less than One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) per year. The amount of any such supplemental salary that may be paid by said Commissioners Court of said County shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioners Court of said Bell County. This supplemental salary that may be paid by the said Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, shall be paid in addition to the salary paid said District Attorney by the State of Texas under existing law or any amendments or additions thereto.

Payment of Salaries and Expenses

Sec. 6. Only the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts of the counties within the 27th Judicial District that authorize the employment of assistants, investigators and stenographers as provided in Section 1 hereof shall be responsible for the payment of their salaries and payment of expenses thereof and of the District Attorney as provided for in Section 4 of this Act. Any such expense agreed upon by the Commissioners Courts of more than one such county within said district shall be determined according to population of the counties. The salaries of any assistants, investigators, and stenographers as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and any expenditure authorized in Section 4 of this Act, and the supplemental salary of the District Attorney as provided in Section 5 of this Act, shall be paid from the Officers Salary Fund of the county or counties obligated by the terms of this Act, or the General Fund or any combination thereof at the discretion of the said Commissioners Courts. The compensation paid from county funds of the three counties comprising the 27th Judicial District to any person affected by this Act shall not be set at a figure lower than that actually paid to that person, or to any other person serving in that position, from such funds on the effective date of this Act.

Art. 326k-44. Borden County District Attorney

Until a resident County Attorney is elected and qualified in Borden County, the District Attorney for Borden County shall represent the State in all criminal cases before the County Court of Borden County, Texas. The County Commissioners Court of Borden County shall supplement the salary of the District Attorney for Borden County, and may pay his reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with his duties in Borden County.

Art. 326k-45. 24th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney; Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers

Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary to be paid District Attorneys by the State, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising such District, in the manner specified in succeeding Sections of this Act.

Supplemental Salary

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 24th Judicial District are hereby authorized to pay in equal monthly payments the supplement to the salary paid the District Attorney by the State of Texas in such amounts that they approve and deem proper.

Payment of Salaries and Expenses

Sec. 3. The supplemental salary and the expenses to be paid the District Attorney, and the salary to be paid the investigator or Assistant District Attorney, shall be paid by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 24th Judicial District, except Victoria County, in proportion to the population of the counties, except Victoria County, according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Stenographer; Appointment and Salary; Office

Sec. 4. The District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District is hereby authorized to appoint one Stenographer whose salary shall be fixed and determined by the District Attorney with the approval of the Commissioners Court of each County of said Judicial District and the District Attorney shall file with the Commissioners Court of each County in said District a statement specifying the amount of salary to be paid said Stenographer. Said salary shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of each County comprising said District in the manner and on the same pro rata basis as that contained in the order of the District Judge of such Districts for the payment of the salary of the official shorthand reporter.

The Commissioners Court of the County in which the District Attorney resides shall furnish the District Attorney with adequate office space and the supplies necessary to the efficient operation of said office.

Investigator or Assistant; Appointment and Salary

Sec. 5. The District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District is authorized to appoint an Investigator or Assistant District Attorney for the district with the approval and consent of the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 24th Judicial District, except Victoria County. The salary of the Investigator or Assistant District Attorney shall be fixed and determined by the District Attorney with the approval and consent of the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 24th Judicial District, except Victoria County and the District Attorney shall file with the Commissioners Court of each county comprising the district, except Victoria County, a statement specifying the amount of the salary to be paid to the Investigator or Assistant District Attorney. The salary shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of each County in the proportion prescribed by Section 3 of this Act. The Assistant District Attorney must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas, and he is authorized to perform all duties imposed upon the District Attorney by law.

Expenses

Sec. 6. In addition to the salary prescribed by law, the District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District may be allowed the actual and necessary expenses, not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) per year, incurred by him in the proper discharge of his duties; and each County shall pay a proportion of these expenses as prescribed by Section 3 of this Act.

Additional Employees; Appointment and Salary

Sec. 7. Should the District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District be of the opinion that the number of investigators, assistants, stenographers, clerks, or employees as provided is not adequate for the proper investigation and prosecution of crime and the effective performance of the duties of his office, he may with the approval of the Commissioners Court of each County comprising the District, except Victoria County, appoint additional investigators, assistants, stenographers, clerks or employees and pay same such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Courts of said District, except Victoria County.

Art. 326k-45a. Calhoun County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. (a) The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Calhoun County is created.

(b) The criminal district attorney shall possess the qualifications, take the oath, and give the bond required by the constitution and laws of this state of district attorneys.

Powers and Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 2. (a) The criminal district attorney or his assistants shall be in attendance on each term and all sessions of any district court in Calhoun County held for the transaction of criminal business and in attendance on each term and all sessions of the inferior courts of Calhoun County held for the transaction of criminal business, except the city court of an incorporated city. The criminal district attorney or his assistants shall exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters before such courts and shall represent Calhoun County in all matters before such courts or any other court where Calhoun County has pending business of any kind, matter, or interest. However, nothing in this Act shall be construed as preventing Calhoun County from retaining other legal counsel in civil matters at any time it sees fit to do so.

(b) The criminal district attorneys shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed on him and his assistants by this Act, all powers, duties, and privileges within Calhoun County conferred on district attorneys and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state relative to criminal and civil matters for and in behalf of the county and State of Texas.

(c) The criminal district attorney shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Salary; Payment

Sec. 3. The Criminal District Attorney of Calhoun County shall receive as compensation an annual salary from the State of Texas in such amount as may be fixed by the general laws of this state relating to the salary to be paid to the district attorneys of this state. In addition, the commissioners court may, in its discretion, supplement the salary paid by the state. The sum paid by the county shall be paid out of the officers salary fund of the county, if adequate, and if inadequate, the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers salary fund.

Assistants and Stenographers; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 4. (a) The criminal district attorney, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, may appoint such assistant criminal district attorneys as the Calhoun County Commissioners Court may authorize. An assistant criminal district attorney shall be paid a salary of not less than $4,800 per annum to be fixed by the criminal district attorney with the approval of the commissioners court. In addition to the salaries paid the criminal district attorney and his assistants, the commissioners court may allow the criminal district attorney and his assistants such necessary expenses as within the discretion of the court seem reasonable, which expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

(b) The criminal district attorney may employ as many stenographers as the Commissioners Court of Calhoun County may authorize and fix their salaries at not less than $3,000, with the approval of the commissioners court.

(c) The salaries provided for in this section shall be paid by the county out of the officers' salary fund, if adequate, and if inadequate, the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general revenue fund to the officers' salary fund.

Oath of Assistants; Powers and Duties

Sec. 5. An assistant criminal district attorney appointed under the provisions of this Act shall take the constitutional oath of office, shall be a person licensed to practice law in this state, and may perform any duty devolving on the criminal district attorney of Calhoun County.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 6. The office of County Attorney of Calhoun County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Appointment; Election and Term

Sec. 7. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint a criminal district attorney for Calhoun County, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(b) At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected to a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of Criminal District Attorney for Calhoun County shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

District Attorney of 24th Judicial District; Application of Act

Sec. 8. (a) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District shall only represent the State of Texas in the counties of Jackson, DeWitt, Refugio, and Goliad. The provisions of this Act apply only to Calhoun County and do not affect the office of district attorney or the duties and powers of the district attorney in the counties of Jackson, DeWitt, Refugio, and Goliad. The District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District shall continue to fulfill the duties of district attorney in the counties of Jackson, DeWitt, Refugio, and Goliad, but his duties in the County of Calhoun are divested from him and invested in the Criminal District Attorney of Calhoun County.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 24th Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Jackson, DeWitt, Refugio, and Goliad. The present district attorney for the 24th Judicial District shall continue in office as the district attorney in the counties of Jackson, DeWitt, Refugio, and Goliad until the general election in 1976 and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Art. 326k-46. 38th and Second 38th Judicial Districts; Compensation of District Attorneys

The District Attorneys of the 38th Judicial District and of the Second 38th Judicial District shall be compensated for their services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the State, and in addition their salaries may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the Counties comprising the 38th Judicial District and of the Second 38th Judicial District or any one or more of such Commissioners Courts; providing, however, that the total salary of such District Attorneys shall not be supplemented to exceed the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per annum. The Commissioners Courts of the Counties comprising the 38th Judicial District and the Second 38th Judicial District or any one or more of them, are hereby authorized to pay the supplemental salary herein authorized, in such amount within the limit fixed above.

Art. 326k-47. 23rd Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the District of the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District, so that the total salary of the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District may be the sum of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) per annum.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the District of the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District are hereby authorized to pay said supplement to the salary paid the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District by the state, out of the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties, if adequate; if inadequate, the said Commissioners Courts shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Funds of said counties to the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties.

Sec. 3. The supplemental salary to be paid the District Attorney of the 23rd Judicial District by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the District of said District Attorney shall be paid on a pro rata basis according to the population of each county listed in the last preceding Federal Census.

Art. 326k-47a. 23rd Judicial District; Duties of District Attorney

The district attorney of the 23rd Judicial District shall represent the state and perform the duties of district attorney in all the district courts in Matagorda and Wharton Counties.

Art. 326k-48. 81st Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

The District Attorney of the 81st Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the State, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 81st Judicial District, or any one or more of such Commissioners Courts; providing, however, that the total salary of such District Attorney shall not be supplemented to exceed the sum of Nineteen Thousand Dollars ($19,000.00) per annum. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 81st Judicial District or any one or more of them, are hereby authorized to pay the supplemental salary herein authorized, in such amount within the limit fixed above.

Art. 326k-48a. 81st Judicial District; Stenographer or Clerk

The District Attorney of the 81st Judicial District of Texas is hereby authorized to employ a stenographer or clerk who may receive a salary not to exceed Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500.00) per annum, to be fixed by the District Attorney of the said Judicial District and approved by the combined majority of the Commissioners Courts of the counties composing his Judicial District. The salary of such stenographer or clerk provided for in this Act shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners Court of each county composing the Judicial District, prorated apportionately to the population of the county.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court in each county of the Judicial District affected by this Act may enter an order so as to increase the compensation being paid by the county to such stenographer in an amount not to exceed thirty-five per cent (35%) of the sum being paid at the effective date of this Act.

Art. 326k-49. 1st Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amounts as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the district of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District, so that the total salary of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District may be the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per annum.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the District of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District are hereby authorized to pay said supplement to the salary paid the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District by the state, out of the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties, if adequate; if inadequate, the said Commissioners Courts shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Funds of said counties to the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties.

Sec. 3. The supplemental salary to be paid the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the district of said District Attorney shall be paid on a pro rata basis according to the population of each county listed in the last preceding Federal Census.

Art. 326k-49a. 112th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 112th Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the state, and the counties comprising the District of the District Attorney of the 112th Judicial District may supplement the same by an additional salary of Four Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800.00).

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of the counties, or any one or more of them, comprising the District of the Attorney of the 112th Judicial District are hereby authorized to pay said supplement to the salary paid the District Attorney of the 112th Judicial District by the state, out of the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties, if adequate; if inadequate, the said Commissioners Courts shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Funds of said counties to the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties.

Art. 326k-50. Bexar County Criminal District Attorney

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. In view of the fact that presently there are a large number of statutes which regulate the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, some contained in numerous bracket laws and others in enactments involving the creation of various courts of Bexar County, and, in view of the fact that such statutes governing the operation of this office should be harmonized and one clear mode for operation of this office should be set out, the following is hereby enacted by the Legislature of this state as a Special Law after due publication in accordance with the Constitution of Texas.

Creation of Office; Election and Term; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 2. In Bexar County, there is hereby created the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, which officer shall be a Constitutional Criminal District Attorney. The present Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall fill this office until the 1st day of January, 1967, or until his successor is elected, and qualified, unless a vacancy in this office shall occur by death, resignation or other lawful cause, whereupon the remaining term of this office shall be filled in accordance with the law. Thereafter such officer shall be elected every four years in accordance with the Constitution of this state. The said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall possess the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this state of other District Attorneys.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, or his assistants as herein provided, to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the District and County and Justice Courts of Bexar County, as hereinafter provided, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before said courts and to represent Bexar County in all matters pending before such courts and any other court where Bexar County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within such county, as are now by law conferred or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys under any law of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District and County Attorneys of this state which funds shall be paid into the proper county funds as provided by law.

Compensation and Commission

Sec. 4. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1293, ch. 482, § 2, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.

District Attorney of 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 144th, 150th and 175th Judicial Districts

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall be and function as the District Attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 150th, 144th, and 175th Judicial District Courts of Texas, and in addition thereto shall be and function as the District Attorney for any future Judicial District which may be created which has as its territorial jurisdiction that area that lies within the boundaries of Bexar County, Texas.

Assistants and Employees; Salaries; Removal

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall appoint assistants, stenographers, investigators and other employees of this office. The number of such positions in each class of employment, and the amount of salary that shall be paid to the person holding each position shall be designated by the Criminal District Attorney and be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County. All of the salaries shall be paid from the Officers Salary Fund if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court may pay salaries out of the General Fund, the Jury fund, or any other funds available for the purpose. All employees of the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, whether assistants, stenographers, investigators; or any other class of employment, shall be removable at the will of the Criminal District Attorney.

Assistants and Investigators; Oath; Powers and Duties

Sec. 7. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Bexar County, and the investigators, when so appointed, shall take the Constitutional Oath of office and the said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their duty, to represent the State of Texas in all Criminal cases pending in any and all of the Courts of Bexar County, Texas, except in the Corporation Courts of the various cities and towns in Bexar County. Said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Bexar County are hereby authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, which assistants shall act subject to and under the direction of the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County.

Office Space

Sec. 8. The Commissioners Court is authorized upon the request of the Criminal District Attorney to provide office space for such officers, his assistants, investigators and other staff.

Automobile Expense

Sec. 9. The Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to allow such automobile expense to any officer, investigator, or employee in the performance of his official duties as they may deem necessary.

Qualifications of Assistants and Investigators

Sec. 10. The assistants to the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas; however, the investigators or other classes of employees need not be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas.

Special Counsel

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Bexar County shall have the authority to employ special counsel, learned in the law, to represent the county in all suits brought by or against such county involving condemnations or eminent domain proceedings, and particularly with authority to render aid and work with the Commissioners Court, the County Engineer and other county employees in the preparation of documents necessary in the acquisition of rights-of-way for the county, or in cases where the county is required to obtain rights-of-way for state highways, or to assist in the acquisition of such rights-of-way; to represent the county in all condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of rights-of-way for highways, and other proper purposes where the right of eminent domain is given to counties. The Commissioners Court of Bexar County and the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, acting in conjunction and upon the approval of both, shall employ any such special counsel and such employment shall be made for such time and on such terms as they may jointly deem necessary, expedient and proper. Termination of employment of such special counsel shall be governed by the law regulating removal of Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, investigators and other classes of employees of the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, as provided in this Act.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501, § 12 amended article 322; section 13 provided:

"Sections 12, 13, 14, 15, 15a and 16 of Article 52-161, Vernon's Code of Criminal Procedure [see, now, art. 199(37)], all of which relate to the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, if not repealed by Chapter 262, page 730 #4, 54th Legislature, are hereby repealed, and any other law in direct conflict with this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict."

Sections 14 and 15 of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501 repealed two sentences in article 199(37) and (150) relating to the criminal district attorney of Bexar County as district attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st and 150th judicial district courts; section 16 of the act was a savings provision; section 17 provided: "That this is a Special Law passed in accordance with the Constitution relating to the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County only, and shall not be construed to repeal nor is it intended by the Legislature to repeal any laws relating to the District Attorneys or Criminal District Attorneys in any other area, and shall be construed as cumulative of all other existing statutes not specifically in conflict herewith."

Art. 326k-51. Upshur County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, Texas, is hereby created. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County shall possess all the qualifications and shall take the oath of office and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State of other district attorneys.

Election and Term

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of Upshur County at the General Election in November, 1964, a Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County for the remainder of the constitutional term of office expiring on December 31, 1966. At the General Election in 1966 and every four (4) years thereafter, there shall be elected a Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County for the full constitutional term of four (4) years.

Powers and Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County or his assistant as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the district courts of Upshur County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Upshur County held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before said courts, and to represent Upshur County in all matters pending before such courts or any other court where Upshur County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest. In addition to the specified powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, he is invested with such powers, duties and privileges within Upshur County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this State.

Commission and Salary

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County shall be commissioned by the Governor. He shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the State. The Commissioners Court of Upshur County may supplement the amount paid to the Criminal District Attorney. The total annual salary paid by the county and the state may not exceed $16,000.

Assistants, Investigators, Etc.; Appointment and Salary

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, may appoint assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office. Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney for Victoria County is hereby created and said Criminal District Attorney of Victoria County shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath of office and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this state of other district attorneys.

Appointment; Election and Term

Sec. 2. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Governor of Texas shall immediately appoint a Criminal District Attorney for Victoria County, Texas, who shall hold office until the next general election, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The Criminal District Attorney for Victoria County shall stand for election and be elected by the qualified electors of Victoria County at the general election in November, 1968, and every four years thereafter. The office of County Attorney of Victoria County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Powers and Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Victoria County or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the district courts of Victoria County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Victoria County held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before said courts and to represent Victoria County in all matters pending before such courts and any other court where Victoria County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest, and in addition to the specified powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act all such powers, duties, and privileges within Victoria County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be, provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Salary; Payment

Sec. 4. The criminal district attorney shall receive as compensation an annual salary from the State of Texas in such amount as may be fixed by the general laws of this state relating to the salary to be paid to the district attorneys of this state. In addition, the commissioners court may, in its discretion, supplement the salary paid by the state. The sum paid by the county shall be paid out of the officers' salary fund of Victoria County, if adequate; if inadequate, the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers' salary fund.

Assistant and Stenographers; Appointment and Salary; Expenses

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Victoria County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, and with the approval of the commissioners court shall be and is hereby authorized to appoint one assistant and fix the salary as follows: Said assistant shall receive not less than $4,800 per annum.

The Criminal District Attorney of Victoria County may employ two stenographers and fix their salaries at not less than $3,000 per annum, and he may employ one chief clerk and fix her salary at not less than $3,600 per annum. All of the salaries mentioned in this section shall be payable from the officers' salary fund, if adequate; if inadequate the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers' salary fund.

In addition to the salaries provided the criminal district attorney and his assistant, the Commissioners Court of Victoria County may allow such criminal district attorney, and his assistants, such necessary expenses as within the discretion of the court seems reasonable and said expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

Additional Assistants, Clerks and Stenographers

Sec. 6. Should the criminal district attorney be of the opinion that the number of assistants, stenographers, or clerks as provided above is not adequate for the proper investigation and prosecution of crime and the effective performance of the duties of his office, he may with the approval of the commissioners court appoint additional assistants, clerks, or stenographers and pay said employees such compensation as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Victoria County, Texas.

Art. 326k-61. 85th Judicial District; District Attorney, Assistants and Personnel

Sec. 1. The office of district attorney in the 85th Judicial District of Texas composed of Brazos County is created.

Sec. 2. The qualified electors of the 85th Judicial District shall elect a district attorney at the next general election after the effective date of this Act and at every second general election thereafter.

Sec. 3. The district attorney in the 85th Judicial District shall represent the state in all criminal cases in the 85th District Court and perform other duties as are or may be provided by law governing district attorneys.

Sec. 4. The district attorney is entitled to compensation for his services in an amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary paid to district attorneys by the state. In addition to the salary paid the district attorney by the state, the Commissioners Court of Brazos County may supplement the salary of the district attorney in an amount to be fixed by the commissioners court.

Sec. 5. (a) The district attorney, with the approval of the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, may appoint such assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, clerks, and other personnel as he deems necessary to carry out the duties of his office.

(b) An assistant district attorney shall be licensed to practice law in this state and may perform for the state and the county all duties conferred and imposed by law on the district attorney. An investigator need not be licensed to practice law. An investigator shall have authority, under the direction of the district attorney, to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

(c) Each assistant district attorney, investigator, stenographer, secretary, clerk, and other personnel may be required by the district attorney to make bond in such amount as the district attorney may direct, and all personnel are subject to removal at the will of the district attorney. Each assistant district attorney and investigator, when appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office.

(d) Salaries of the assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, clerks, and other personnel shall be fixed by the district attorney, subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court of Brazos County. In addition to their salaries, the district attorney and each assistant district attorney, investigator, stenographer, secretary, clerk, and other personnel shall be allowed the actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of their duties, and other necessary expenses incident to carrying out the official duties of the district attorney and his office, subject to the approval of the district attorney and the commissioners court. The salaries and expenses may be paid by the county from county funds or from a grant or funds from other sources available for this purpose.

(e) The Commissioners Court of Brazos County is authorized to furnish telephone service, typewriters, office furniture, office space, law library, supplies, and such other items and equipment as are necessary to carry out the official duties of the district attorney's office and to pay the expenses incident to the operation of the district attorney's office. The commissioners court is further authorized to furnish automobiles for the use of the district attorney's office for the purpose of conducting the official duties of the office and to provide the maintenance thereof. The commissioners court is further authorized to pay an automobile expense allowance to the district attorney, assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, clerks, and other personnel.

(f) The Commissioners Court of Brazos County may accept gifts and grants from any individual, partnership, corporation, trust, foundation, association, or political subdivision for the purpose of financing adequate and effective prosecution, crime prevention, or rehabilitation programs within the county or district, approved and administered by the district attorney.

Art. 326k-61a. 229th Judicial District Attorney

Creation of Office; Powers and Duties; Appointment; Election and Term

(a) The office of District Attorney for the 229th Judicial District is established. The district attorney has the powers and duties prescribed by law for district attorneys. On the effective date of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a district attorney for the 229th Judicial District who shall serve until the general election in 1970, and until his successor is elected and has qualified. A District Attorney for the 229th Judicial District shall be elected at the general election in 1970 for the remainder of a term expiring on December 31, 1972. Thereafter, beginning with the general election in 1972, he shall be elected every four years for a four-year term beginning on January 1 following his election.

Supplemental Salary; Payment

(b) The District Attorney of the 229th Judicial District may be paid a supplemental salary, at the discretion of the District Judge of the 229th Judicial District, in an amount not to exceed $5,100 per annum. The Commissioners Courts of Duval, Starr, and Jim Hogg counties are authorized to pay the salary in supplementation of the salary paid by the state, in equal monthly payments out of the county funds by warrants drawn on the county funds.

Assistant; Appointment; Qualifications; Bond; Oath; Powers and Duties; Compensation; Removal

(c) The district attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one assistant district attorney for the 229th Judicial District provided that the district attorney shall furnish data to the Commissioners Courts of Duval, Starr, and Jim Hogg counties, that he is in need of an assistant and that it is necessary and to the best interests of the state and the counties that an assistant district attorney be appointed. The assistant district attorney shall be a qualified resident of the 229th Judicial District and shall give bond and take the official oath; and the assistant district attorney shall be a qualified licensed attorney and shall have authority to perform all the acts and duties of the district attorney in the 229th Judicial District under the laws of this state. The appointment shall be for such time as the district attorney shall deem best in the enforcement of the law, not to be less than one month. The assistant district attorney shall be paid by Duval, Starr, and Jim Hogg counties at a rate not to exceed $8,400 per annum, in 12 equal monthly installments out of county funds by warrants drawn upon such county funds. The district attorney, at any time he deems the assistant unnecessary or finds that he is not attending to his duties as required by law, may remove the person from office by giving written notice to the assistant and to the commissioners courts to that effect.

Additional Assistants; Appointment; Compensation; Powers and Duties; Removal

(d) The district attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one part-time assistant and one full-time assistant to serve in addition to his regular assistant, provided for in this Act, which assistants need not be licensed to practice law. The assistants shall be known as special investigators, and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the district attorney. The part-time assistant shall receive as compensation a salary not to exceed $3,600 per annum, and the full-time assistant shall receive as compensation a salary not to exceed $7,200 per annum, payable monthly out of county funds by warrants drawn on such county funds. The special investigators shall have authority under the direction of the district attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws. They shall serve at the will of the district attorney and may be removed from office by written notice by the district attorney to the special investigator concerned and to the commissioners courts to that effect.

Stenographer-Secretary; Appointment and Compensation

(e) The district attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one stenographer-secretary, who shall keep the records of the district attorney's office and perform the necessary stenographic and secretarial work, as may be assigned by the district attorney, and who shall receive as compensation a salary not to exceed $4,800 per annum, payable monthly out of county funds by warrants drawn on such county funds.

Payment and Apportionment of Salaries

(f) The supplemental salary of the district attorney, the salaries of the assistants and secretary, and the operating expenses of the office shall be paid by Duval, Starr, and Jim Hogg counties and shall be apportioned among the counties according to the following formula: The percentage of the total to be paid by each county shall be the same as that county's percentage of the total population of the three counties according to the last federal census. The judge of the 229th Judicial District shall determine the percentage for each county and notify the commissioners court of the amount to be paid by each county to each employee, and the amount of each county's share of the operating expenses.

Art. 326k-61b. 235th Judicial District Attorney

(a) The office of district attorney for the 235th Judicial District is established. The district attorney shall have the powers and duties prescribed by law for district attorneys.

(b) On the effective date of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a district attorney for the 235th Judicial District who shall serve until the general election in 1972 and until his successor is elected and has qualified. Thereafter, beginning with the general election in 1972, he shall be elected every four years for a four-year term beginning on January 1 following his election.

Art. 326k-62. 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts; Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office

(a) The office of criminal district attorney for the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts is created.

Election and Term

(b) At the general election in November 1970, and every four years thereafter, the qualified electors of Taylor County shall elect a criminal district attorney.

Qualifications; Bond; Vacancy

(c) The criminal district attorney for the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts must have the qualifications prescribed for district attorneys by general law. The criminal district attorney shall execute the bond required of district attorneys. A vacancy in the office of the criminal district attorney is filled in the same manner as a vacancy in the office of a district attorney.

Duties

(d) The criminal district attorney shall perform in the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts all duties required of district attorneys by general law, except that the county attorney of Callahan County shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Callahan County. The criminal district attorney of the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts shall also perform the duties of county attorney in Taylor County and shall assist the county attorney in Callahan County on his request or, in the event of his inability to act, on appointment by the judge of the district court in Callahan County. If there is no county attorney in Callahan County, the criminal district attorney of the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Callahan County.

Office Space; Employment of Assistants, Investigators, Etc.

(e) The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall provide suitable office space for the criminal district attorney in the county courthouse. The criminal district attorney, with the prior approval of the commissioners court, may employ as many assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, court reporters, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as are necessary to carry out the duties of his office.

Compensation and Expenses

(f) The criminal district attorney is entitled to the compensation paid district attorneys by the state which is provided in the general appropriations act. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall supplement his state compensation in an amount not less than $4,000 a year. The criminal district attorney of the 42nd and 104th Judicial Districts is entitled to the expenses and allowances provided in the general appropriations act for district attorneys who serve more than one county. The county attorney of Callahan County shall receive from the state an annual salary of $5,000, and the Commissioners Court of Callahan County shall supplement the state salary. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall also determine and pay the salaries of all employees of the criminal district attorney. The commissioners court may reimburse the criminal district attorney and his employees for their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred while performing the duties of the office.

Art. 326k-63. Navarro County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Powers and Duties

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the Constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Navarro County. It shall be the duty of the criminal district attorney, or his assistants, as provided herein, to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the district court of Navarro County. The criminal district attorney and his assistants shall have the right and it shall be their primary duty to represent the State of Texas in criminal and civil cases pending in the district court and inferior courts of Navarro County. He shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed upon him and his assistants by this Act, all powers, duties, and privileges within Navarro County as are now by law conferred and which may hereafter be conferred on county attorneys and district attorneys in various counties and judicial districts of this state relative to criminal and civil matters for and in behalf of the county and the State of Texas.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 2. The criminal district attorney shall possess the qualifications and take the oath and give bond required by the constitution and laws of this state of other district attorneys.

Assistants; Appointment; Compensation; Qualifications; Removal

Sec. 3. The criminal district attorney shall appoint a first assistant criminal district attorney and other assistants necessary to the proper performance of his official duties. The assistants shall be paid a salary to be determined and paid by the commissioners court. The assistants must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in this state. The assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the criminal district attorney and shall be and are hereby authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by the criminal district attorney.

Special Investigator; Appointment; Qualifications; Compensation; Powers and Duties; Removal

Sec. 4. The criminal district attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one assistant in addition to his legal assistants provided for in this Act, which assistant shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district or county attorneys. The assistant shall be known as special investigator, shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the criminal district attorney, and shall receive as compensation a salary set by the commissioners court and payable out of the county funds. The special investigator shall be subject to removal at the will of the criminal district attorney. The special investigator shall have authority under the direction of the criminal district attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

Stenographer; Appointment; Compensation; Removal

Sec. 5. The criminal district attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one stenographer who may or may not possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district and county attorneys, who shall perform the necessary stenographic work as may be assigned by the criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as compensation a salary set by the commissioners court and payable out of the county funds. The stenographer shall be subject to removal at the will of the criminal district attorney.

Expenses

Sec. 6. Navarro County is hereby authorized to set aside each year a sum of money to be expended by the criminal district attorney in the preparation and conduct of criminal affairs of the office.

Compensation

Sec. 7. The criminal district attorney shall be compensated for his services by the state in such manner and in such amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the commissioners court in such amount as it deems advisable.

County Attorney; Interim Status

Sec. 8. The present County Attorney of Navarro County shall fill the office of criminal district attorney ney herein created until January 1, 1971, and until his successor is elected and has qualified, unless a vacancy in the office of criminal district attorney shall occur by death, resignation, or other lawful cause, whereupon the remaining term of this office shall be filled in accordance with the law.

Severability

Sec. 9. If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of said statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the Legislature that it would have passed the balance of said Act without such portion as may be held invalid.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 10. The office of County Attorney of Navarro County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 326k-64. Deaf Smith County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Powers and Duties

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County, Texas, to become operative on the date provided in Section 12 of this Act. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney, or his assistants, as provided herein to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the District Court of Deaf Smith County. The Criminal District Attorney and his assistants shall have the right and it shall be their primary duty to represent the State of Texas in criminal and civil cases pending in the District Court and inferior courts of Deaf Smith County. He shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed upon him and his assistants by this Act, all powers, duties, and privileges within Deaf Smith County as are now by law conferred and which may hereafter be conferred on County Attorneys and District Attorneys in various counties and judicial districts of this State relative to criminal and civil matters for and in behalf of the County and the State of Texas.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney shall possess the qualifications and take the oath and give bond required by the constitution and laws of this State of other District Attorneys.

Assistants; Appointment; Compensation; Qualifications; Removal

Sec. 3. The Criminal District Attorney may appoint a first assistant Criminal District Attorney and other assistants necessary to the proper performance of his official duties. The assistants shall be paid a salary to be determined and paid by the Commissioners Court. The assistants must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in this State.

The assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the Criminal District Attorney and shall be and are hereby authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by the Criminal District Attorney.

Special Investigator; Appointment; Qualifications; Compensation; Powers and Duties; Removal

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one assistant in addition to his legal assistants provided for in this Act, which assistant shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District or County Attorneys. The assistant shall be known as special investigator, shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Criminal District Attorney, and shall receive as compensation a salary set by the Commissioners Court and payable out of the County funds. The special investigator shall be subject to removal at the will of the Criminal District Attorney. The special investigator shall have authority under the direction of the Criminal District Attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

Stenographer; Appointment; Qualifications; Compensation; Duties; Removal

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one stenographer who may or may not possess the qualifications prescribed by law for District and County Attorneys, who shall perform the necessary stenographic work as may be assigned by the Criminal District Attorney, and who shall receive as compensation a salary set by the Commissioners Court and payable out of the County funds. The stenographer shall be subject to removal at the will of the Criminal District Attorney.

Expenses

Sec. 6. Deaf Smith County is hereby authorized to set aside each year a sum of money to be expended by the Criminal District Attorney in the preparation and conduct of criminal affairs of the office.

Compensation and Expenses

Sec. 7. The criminal district attorney is entitled to the compensation paid district attorneys by the state which is provided for in the General Appropriations Act. The Commissioners Court of Deaf Smith County may supplement his state compensation. In addition, the District Attorney of Deaf Smith County, Texas, shall receive the same travel, office, and other necessary expenses as provided for district attorneys in the General Appropriations Act from the State of Texas.

Election and Term

Sec. 8. (a) The qualified electors of Deaf Smith County shall, by majority vote, elect a Criminal

District Attorney at a special election on May 18, 1971, for a term ending on December 31, 1974. The election shall be held jointly with the special election on proposed constitutional amendments which is ordered for that date. The election shall be ordered by the Governor and it shall be conducted under the procedures applying to a special election to fill a vacancy in the Legislature as prescribed in Section 32a and Subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 5 of Section 32c, Texas Election Code (Article 4.10 and Subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 5 of Article 4.12, Vernon's Texas Election Code), except that the certificate of election shall be issued by the Governor instead of the Secretary of State. The person elected is entitled to take office immediately upon receiving the certificate of election. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes in the first election, a second election shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of Subdivision 3 of Section 32c of the Election code. Each candidate in the first election shall pay a filing fee of $100, which shall accompany his application.

(b) At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, the Criminal District Attorney shall be elected for a four-year term as provided in Section 30, Article V, and Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas.

District Attorney of 69th Judicial District;
Application of Act

Sec. 9. Upon the date that the office of Criminal District Attorney becomes operative, the District Attorney of the 69th Judicial District of Texas shall only represent the State of Texas in the Counties of Oldham, Moore, Hartley, Sherman, and Dallam. The provisions of this Act shall not affect the office of District Attorney or the duties and powers of such District Attorney in the Counties of Oldham, Moore, Hartley, Sherman, and Dallam, and the District Attorney shall continue to perform his duties in those counties as before, and it is specifically understood that this Act only applies to Deaf Smith County and not to the Counties of Oldham, Moore, Hartley, Sherman, and Dallam.

Severability

Sec. 10. If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it shall not affect the balance of said statute, but it is expressly declared to be the intention of the Legislature that it would have passed the balance of said Act without such portion as may be held invalid.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 11. The office of County Attorney of Deaf Smith County is abolished from and after the date that the office of the Criminal District Attorney becomes operative.

Operative Date

Sec. 12. The office of Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County becomes operative upon the date that the initial holder of the office qualifies and assumes office following his election.

Art. 326k-64a. Representation of State in Oldham County District Court

Sec. 1. The County Attorney of Oldham County shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Oldham County. The Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall assist the county attorney in Oldham County on his request or, in the event of his inability to act, on appointment by the judge of the district court in Oldham County. If there is no county attorney in Oldham County, the Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before the district court in Oldham County on appointment by the judge of the district court in Oldham County.

Sec. 2. The Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County shall be entitled to the expenses and allowances as provided in the General Appropriations Act for district attorneys who serve more than one county. The state shall pay Oldham County a sum equal to 30 percent of the salary paid to district attorneys by the state.

Section 3 of the 1975 Act provided:

"There is appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund the sum of $7,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1976, and the sum of $7,000 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1977, for expenses and allowances to the Criminal District Attorney of Deaf Smith County as provided in Section 2 of this Act. There is appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund the sum of $6,990 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1976, and the sum of $7,440 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1977, as payment to Oldham County as provided in Section 2 of this Act."

Art. 326k-65. 22nd Judicial District; Assistants and Employees

Appointment of Assistants and Employees

Sec. 1. The District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District is hereby authorized to appoint such assistants, secretaries, stenographers, investigators, deputies and other necessary employees as the Commissioners Court of the county in the district where said employee would serve may authorize. Such employees shall serve at the pleasure of the District Attorney.

Number and Compensation of Employees

Sec. 2. The number of positions in each class of employment, and the salary or hourly wage payable to the person holding each position, shall be designated by the District Attorney with the consent of the Commissioners Courts of the counties within the district; provided that the County Commissioners Court of any county in the district may authorize additional employees, at the expense of such county, and designate the salary or hourly wage payable to such employees.

Office and Travel Expenses; Budget

Sec. 3. The District Attorney of the 22nd Judicial District, with the joint consent of the Commissioners Courts in the district, is hereby authorized to pay all necessary and proper expenses of the District Attorney's office, including but not limited to office equipment, rent, law books, supplies, postage, telephone, investigating equipment, and vehicles for transportation. And, in addition to their salaries, the District Attorney, his assistants and investigators may be allowed necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of their duties. Provided, however, that as a condition to receiving the consent of the Commissioners Courts for the expenditure of any funds for expenses, the District Attorney shall supply each Commissioners Court in the district with a budget of the proposed expenditures.

Payment of Salaries and Expenses

Sec. 4. All salaries, hourly wages and expenses provided for in this Act shall be borne by the counties composing the 22nd Judicial District in proportion to the population of each at the last preceding Federal Census, and shall be paid monthly from the officers salary fund, the general fund, or any other available county funds, or any combination thereof, at the discretion of the Commissioners Court; provided that salaries, hourly wages and expenses of any additional employees authorized in Section 2 of this Act shall be borne solely by the county which said employee serves. Salaries shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

Assistants; Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Powers and Duties

Sec. 5. Assistant District Attorneys of the 22nd Judicial District shall be residents of a county within the district and shall be duly licensed to practice law in the State of Texas. They shall, when appointed, give bond and take the constitutional oath of office, which bond and oath shall be approved by the District Judge of the 22nd Judicial District and be filed with the County Clerk of the assistant's residence. Assistant District Attorneys who have complied with the provisions of this Act are hereby authorized to represent the State of Texas in the 22nd Judicial District and its courts, and to perform for the State and the several counties of the district all duties imposed by law on the District Attorney.

Compensation by State

Sec. 6. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to deprive the District Attorney or the counties of the district of any salary, compensation or expense allowance that is now, or may in the future be, paid by the State of Texas.

County Employment of Assistants, Etc.

Sec. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as prohibiting any county or counties within the district from employing at its or their expense, assistant district attorneys, secretaries, stenographers, investigators, deputies or other employees, or from paying salaries, wages or expenses of such persons in the same manner and from the same funds as provided in Section 2 and Section 4 of this Act. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 898, ch. 125, eff. May 10, 1971.]

Art. 326k-66. 69th Judicial District; Compensation of District Attorney; Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers

Compensation of District Attorney

Sec. 1. The district attorney of the 69th Judicial District shall be compensated for his services by the State of Texas in an amount fixed by the general law relating to the salary to be paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the commissioners courts of the counties comprising the 69th Judicial District, in an amount not to exceed $8,500 per year.

The commissioners court of each county in the 69th Judicial District, in its discretion, may pay the supplemental salary herein authorized. The supplemental salary paid by each county shall be in such amount as the commissioners court may determine but shall not exceed the amount paid the county attorney in the county. If more than one county should pay a supplemental salary, then the amount of supplemental salary to be paid by each county shall be determined by a proration of the case load in the counties paying the supplemental salary, not to exceed the amount paid the county attorneys in the counties participating.

Application for Appointment of Assistants, Investigators or Stenographers; Order Authorizing Employment; Appointment

Sec. 2. Whenever the district attorney of the 69th Judicial District shall require the services of assistants, investigators, or stenographers in the performance of his duty, he shall apply to the commissioners court or commissioners courts of the county or counties in the 69th Judicial District where the services are needed for authority to appoint the assistants, investigators, or stenographers, stating by sworn application the number needed, the position to be filled, the amount to be paid, and whether the services will apply to one or more counties. The district attorney may make application for such services to be used in one or all of the counties under his jurisdiction, but application shall be made only to the counties where such services will be used. Upon receipt of such application, the commissioners court or commissioners courts of the county or counties where the application is made may enter an order authorizing the employment of the assistants, deputies, and stenographers and fix the compensation to be paid them within the limitations herein prescribed and determine the number to be appointed as in the discretion of the commissioners court or commissioners courts may be deemed proper, provided that in no case shall the commissioners court or commissioners courts or any member thereof attempt to influence the employment of any person as assistant, investigator, or stenographer. Upon entry of the order, the district attorney of the 69th Judicial District may employ the assistants, investigators, and stenographers as authorized by the commissioners court or commissioners courts, provided that the compensation paid them shall not exceed the maximum amount prescribed in Section 3 of this Act.

Compensation of Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers; Qualifications and Duties

Sec. 3. Each stenographer of the district attorney in the 69th Judicial District shall be paid an annual salary of not less than $2,400 and not more than $8,250 as determined by the commissioners courts affected thereby.

Each assistant and each investigator of the district attorney of the 69th Judicial District shall be paid an annual salary of not less than $4,800 and not more than $15,000, as determined by the commissioners courts affected thereby.

The assistants to the district attorney of the 69th Judicial District shall be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be authorized to perform all duties imposed upon the district attorney provided by law. The investigators need not be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas.

Expenses

Sec. 4. The investigators or assistants provided for in this Act shall be allowed their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in their official duties. The expenses shall be paid only after approval of the district attorney and the commissioners courts affected thereby.

Payment of Salaries

Sec. 5. All salaries and supplemental salaries provided for herein shall be paid out of the officers salary fund of the respective counties of the 69th Judicial District, if adequate; if inadequate, the commissioners courts shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund to the officers salary fund.

Bond; Powers of Arrest and Process

Sec. 6. The investigators and assistants provided for in this Act may be required to give bond and shall have authority under the discretion of the district attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

(a) The criminal district attorney, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, may appoint assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as the commissioners court may provide. All salaries of the assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks and other personnel shall be paid by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments from the officers salary fund of Collin County.

(b) In addition to the salary provided the criminal district attorney, his assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel, the commissioners court may allow the criminal district attorney, his assistants and investigators such necessary expenses as the commissioners court deems reasonable. The expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

Office; Payment of Expenses

Sec. 5. The commissioners court shall provide and furnish suitable office space and such office furniture, supplies, and equipment as necessary to carry out the duties of the criminal district attorney. The commissioners court shall pay the necessary expenses incident to carrying out the duties of the criminal district attorney.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 6. The office of County Attorney of Collin County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

County Attorney Commissioned; Election and Term; Vacancy

Sec. 7. (a) Upon the effective date of this Act, the county attorney of Collin County shall be commissioned as the criminal district attorney of Collin County. He shall fill the office of criminal district attorney until the general election in 1972 and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

(b) At the general election in 1972, there shall be elected a criminal district attorney for Collin County for a term ending on December 31, 1974. At the general election in 1974 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Section 30, Article V, and Section 65, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Collin County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Collin County, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Wood County is created to become effective on September 1, 1977.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Residence

Sec. 2. (a) The Criminal District Attorney of Wood County shall be at least 25 years of age, a practicing attorney in this state for five years, and a resident of Wood County. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state. He shall reside in Wood County during his term of office.

(b) If no person with the qualifications of age and experience required in Subsection (a) has filed for this office 30 days prior to the filing deadline, these qualifications of age and experience will be waived for the election involved only.

Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It is the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Wood County or his assistants to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district courts in Wood County and all sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Wood County held for the transaction of criminal business and exclusively to represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before those courts and perform such other duties as may be conferred by law on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Commission; Compensation; Payment

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Wood County shall be commissioned by the governor and shall receive as compensation an annual salary payable in equal monthly installments. The salary shall include the amount equal to the amount paid district attorneys by the State of Texas and shall be paid by the comptroller of public accounts, as appropriated by the legislature. In addition, the Criminal District Attorney of Wood County shall be paid in equal monthly or bimonthly installments, as determined by the Commissioners Court of Wood County, out of the officers' salary fund of Wood County an amount which, when added to the amount paid by the State of Texas, equals an amount not less than 90 percent of the total salaries paid to the Judge of the 115th Judicial District by the State of Texas and Marion, Wood, and Upshur counties.

Assistants, Investigators, etc.; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Wood County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, may appoint a staff composed of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as the Commissioners Court of Wood County may authorize. All salaries of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel shall be an amount set by the criminal district attorney with the approval of the commissioners court and shall be paid by the commissioners court in equal monthly or bimonthly installments from the officers' salary fund of Wood County. In addition to the salary provided the criminal district attorney, his assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel, the Commissioners Court of Wood County may allow the criminal district attorney, his assistants and investigators such necessary expenses as the commissioners court deems reasonable. The expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses. The provisions contained in this section shall in no way limit the authority of the legislature to provide for assistant district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, secretaries, or any other staff out of state funds when the legislature deems such supplementation of staff to be necessary.

Oath of Assistants; Powers and Duties

Sec. 6. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Wood County shall take, on appointment, the constitutional oath of office. The criminal district attorney and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and duty to represent the State of Texas in all criminal cases pending in any court of Wood County, as well as perform other statutory or constitutional duties imposed on district and county attorneys of this state. The assistant criminal district attorneys of Wood County are authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury, and generally perform any duty devolving on the Criminal District Attorney of Wood County and exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law on the Criminal District Attorney of Wood County.

Private Practice of Law

Sec. 7. The Criminal District Attorney of Wood County and his assistants shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as criminal district attorney or assistant criminal district attorney of Wood County. This section becomes effective on January 1, 1978.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 8. The office of County Attorney of Wood County is abolished from and after September 1, 1977.

County Attorney Commissioned; Election and Term; Vacancy

Sec. 9. (a) On September 1, 1977, the County Attorney of Wood County shall be commissioned as the Criminal District Attorney of Wood County. He shall fill the office of criminal district attorney until the general election in 1978 and until his successor is lawfully elected and has qualified.

(b) At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected for a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of Criminal District Attorney of Wood County after the office is filled initially by the County Attorney of Wood County, as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

Section 10 of the 1977 Act provided:

"If any paragraph, phrase, clause, or section of this statute be held invalid, it is expressly declared to be the intention of the legislature that it would not have passed the balance of the Act without such portion and the provisions of this Act are not severable."

Art. 326k-80. Walker County Criminal District Attorney

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond; Residence

Sec. 1. (a) The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Walker County is created.

(b) The Criminal District Attorney of Walker County shall be at least 25 years of age, a practicing attorney in this state for three years, and a resident of Walker County for two years prior to his appointment or election. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorney by the constitution and general laws of this state. He shall reside in Walker County during his term of office.

Powers and Duties; Private Practice of Law

Sec. 2. (a) The criminal district attorney or his assistants shall be in attendance on each term and all sessions of any district court in Walker County held for the transaction of criminal business and in attendance on each term and all sessions of the inferior courts of Walker County held for the transaction of criminal business, except the city court of an incorporated city. The criminal district attorney or his assistants shall exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters before such courts and shall represent Walker County in all matters before such courts or any other court where Walker County has pending business of any kind, matter, or interest. However, nothing in this Act shall be construed as requiring the criminal district attorney to represent the county in delinquent tax suits or condemnation proceedings or as preventing Walker County from retaining other legal counsel in civil matters at any time it sees fit to do so.

(b) The criminal district attorney shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed on him and his assistants by this Act, all powers, duties, and privileges within Walker County conferred on district attorneys and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state relative to criminal and civil matters for and in behalf of the county and State of Texas.

(c) The criminal district attorney shall not engage in the private practice of law while serving as criminal district attorney.

Commission; Compensation; Payment

Sec. 3. The Criminal District Attorney of Walker County shall be commissioned by the governor. The Criminal District Attorney of Walker County shall receive as compensation an annual salary from the State of Texas in such amount as may be fixed by the general laws of this state relating to the salary to be paid to the district attorneys of this state. In addition, the commissioners court may, in its discretion, supplement the salary paid by the state. The sum paid by the county shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

Assistants, Investigators, etc.; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Walker County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, may appoint a staff composed of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel as the Commissioners Court of Walker County may authorize. The assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel shall serve at the will of the criminal district attorney. All salaries of assistant criminal district attorneys, investigators, stenographers, clerks, and other personnel shall be an amount set by the criminal district attorney with the approval of the commissioners court and shall be paid by the commissioners court in equal monthly installments from the general fund of Walker County. In addition to the salary provided the criminal district attorney, his assistants, investigators, stenographers, clerks and other personnel, the Commissioners Court of Walker County may allow the criminal district attorney, his assistants and investigators such necessary expenses as the commissioners court deems reasonable. The expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

Oath of Assistants; Duties

Sec. 5. An assistant criminal district attorney appointed under the provisions of this Act shall take the constitutional oath of office, shall be a person licensed to practice law in this state, and may perform any duty devolving on the Criminal District Attorney of Walker County.

Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 6. The office of County Attorney of Walker County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Appointment; Election and Term; Vacancy

Sec. 7. (a) On the effective date of this Act, the governor shall appoint a Criminal District Attorney of Walker County, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

(b) At the general election in 1978 and every four years thereafter, this officer shall be elected to a regular four-year term as provided in Article V, Section 30, and Article XVI, Section 65, of the Texas Constitution.

(c) Any vacancy occurring in the office of criminal district attorney for Walker County shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and the appointee shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and has qualified.

District Attorney of 12th Judicial District

Sec. 8. (a) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District shall only represent the State of Texas in the counties of Grimes, Madison, Leon, and Trinity. The provisions of this Act apply only to Walker County and do not affect the office of district attorney or the duties and powers of the district attorney in the counties of Grimes, Madison, Leon, and Trinity. The District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District shall continue to fulfill the duties of the district attorney in the counties of Grimes, Madison, Leon and Trinity, but his duties in the county of Walker are divested from him and invested in the Criminal District Attorney of Walker County.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Grimes, Madison, Leon, and Trinity.

Effective Date

Sec. 9. The effective date of this Act is September 1, 1977.

Art. 326k-81. Bastrop County Criminal District AttorneyCreation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County is hereby created. The Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath, and give the bond required by the constitution and laws of this state of other district attorneys.

Appointment; Election and Term; Abolition of County Attorney's Office

Sec. 2. On the effective date of this Act, the Governor of Texas shall appoint a Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County, who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. The Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Bastrop County at the general election in November, 1978, and every four years thereafter. The office of County Attorney of Bastrop County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act.

Duties; Fees, Commissions and Perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district court in Bastrop County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Bastrop County held for the transaction of criminal business and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before such courts and any other court where Bastrop County has pending business of any kind, matter, or interest. In addition to the specified powers given and duties imposed upon him by this Act, he shall have all powers, duties, and privileges within Bastrop County as are now by law conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred, on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions, and perquisites as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by the district and county attorneys of this state.

Compensation; Payment; Private Practice of Law

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County shall receive as compensation an annual salary from the State of Texas in such amount as may be fixed by the general laws of this state relating to the salary to be paid to the district attorneys of this state. In addition, the commissioners court may, in its discretion, supplement the salary paid by the state. The sum paid by the county shall be paid out of the officers' salary fund of the county, if adequate, and if inadequate, the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers' salary fund. The criminal district attorney is prohibited from any private practice of law without regard to whether or not he receives any compensation therefor.

Assistants and Stenographers; Appointment and Compensation; Expenses

Sec. 5. (a) The criminal district attorney may appoint such assistant criminal district attorneys as the commissioners court may authorize. An assistant criminal district attorney shall be paid a salary fixed by the criminal district attorney with the approval of the commissioners court. In addition to the salaries paid the criminal district attorney and his assistants, the commissioners court may allow the criminal district attorney and his assistants such expenses as within the discretion of the court seem reasonable, which expenses shall be paid as provided by law for other such claims of expenses.

(b) The criminal district attorney may employ such stenographers as the commissioners court may authorize and fix their salaries, with the approval of the commissioners court.

(c) The salaries provided for in this section shall be paid by the county out of the officers' salary fund, if adequate, and, if inadequate, the commissioners court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general revenue fund to the officers' salary fund.

Oath of Assistants; Duties

Sec. 6. An assistant criminal district attorney shall take the constitutional oath of office, shall be licensed to practice law in this state, and may perform any duty devolving on the criminal district attorney.

District Attorney of 21st Judicial District

Sec. 7. (a) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 21st Judicial District shall represent the State of Texas only in the counties of Washington, Lee, and Burleson. The provisions of this Act apply only to Bastrop County and do not affect the office of district attorney or the duties or powers of the district attorney in the counties of Washington, Lee, and Burleson. The District Attorney of the 21st Judicial District shall continue to fulfill the duties of the district attorney in the counties of Washington, Lee, and Burleson, but his duties in the County of Bastrop are divested from him and invested in the Criminal District Attorney of Bastrop County.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act, the District Attorney of the 21st Judicial District shall only stand for election and be elected from the counties of Washington, Lee, and Burleson. The present district attorney for the 21st Judicial District shall continue in office as the district attorney in the counties of Washington, Lee, and Burleson until the general election in 1980 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

Sec. 2. The district attorney for the 97th Judicial District shall represent the state in all criminal cases in the district court for the 97th Judicial District and perform other duties provided by law governing district attorneys.

Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 3. The district attorney of the 97th Judicial District shall be a practicing attorney in this state and a resident of any county included in the 97th Judicial District from the time of appointment or filing for election until the end of his term of office. He shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state.

Compensation

Sec. 4. The district attorney shall receive compensation for his services in an amount as may be fixed by the general law relating to the salaries paid to district attorneys by the state.

Election; Term of Office

Sec. 5. On the effective date of this Act, the Governor of Texas shall appoint a district attorney of the 97th Judicial District, who shall serve until January 1 following the general election in 1980 and until his successor is duly elected and has qualified. Thereafter, beginning with the general election in 1980, he shall be elected every four years for a four-year term beginning January 1 following his election.

Staff; Appointment and Compensation

Sec. 6. The district attorney, with the approval of the commissioners courts of Archer, Clay, and Montague Counties, may appoint assistants, investigators, and office personnel as he deems necessary. The salary of each person appointed shall be set by the district attorney with the approval of the commissioners courts of Archer, Clay, and Montague Counties.

Payment of Compensation of Staff and Operating Expenses from County Funds

Sec. 7. The salary of each person appointed by the district attorney and the other operating expenses of the office of district attorney shall be paid from county funds by the commissioners courts of Archer, Clay, and Montague Counties.

Section 8 of the 1979 Act provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable."

Art. 326k-83. Jasper County Criminal District AttorneyCreation

Sec. 1. The constitutional office of criminal district attorney of Jasper County is created.

Qualifications

Sec. 2. The criminal district attorney shall be at least 25 years of age, a practicing attorney in this state for five years, and a resident of Jasper County. The criminal district attorney shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath of office, and give the bond required of district attorneys by the constitution and general laws of this state. The criminal district attorney shall reside in Jasper County during his or her term of office.

Duties

Sec. 3. It is the duty of the criminal district attorney or his or her assistants to be in attendance on each term and all sessions of the district courts in Jasper County and all sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Jasper County held for the transaction of criminal business and exclusively to represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before those courts and perform such other duties as may be conferred by law on the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state. The criminal district attorney shall collect the fees, commissions, and perquisites that are provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this state.

Compensation

Sec. 4. The criminal district attorney shall be commissioned by the governor and shall receive as compensation an annual salary payable in equal monthly installments. The salary shall include the amount equal to the amount paid district attorneys by the State of Texas and shall be paid by the comptroller of public accounts, as appropriated by the legislature. In addition, the criminal district attorney shall be paid in equal monthly or bimonthly installments, as determined by the Commissioners Court of Jasper County, an amount which, when added to the amount paid by the state, equals at least 90 percent of the total salary paid to each of the judges of the district courts in Jasper County.

[This article was also repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 228, ch. 104, § 1. See article 3261-1, ante.]

Art. 3261-2. 9th Judicial District; Assistants, Investigators, Secretaries and EmployeesAppointment; Removal

Sec. 1. The district attorney for the 9th Judicial District, with the approval of the commissioners court of one or more of the several counties included in the 9th Judicial District, is authorized to appoint such assistant district attorneys, investigators, secretaries, and other employees as are necessary to carry out the duties of his office. Any assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee appointed under the provisions of this Act is removable at the will of the district attorney.

Assistants; Qualifications; Bond

Sec. 2. Each assistant district attorney appointed under the provisions of this Act shall be a person licensed to practice law in this state and shall perform for the state and the several counties which have provided compensation for said attorney, included within the 9th Judicial District all duties imposed by law on the district attorney. Each assistant district attorney shall make bond in the amount fixed by the district attorney.

Investigators; Qualifications; Powers and Duties; Bond

Sec. 3. Each investigator appointed under the provisions of this Act need not be licensed to practice law. Any investigator may make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and has all the authority, rights, and duties of a peace officer. He shall make bond in the amount fixed by the district attorney.

Salary and Expenses

Sec. 4. Each assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee shall receive a salary fixed by the commissioners courts of any county or counties included in the 9th Judicial District as provided in Section 5 of this Act. In addition to a salary, the district attorney and each assistant district attorney and investigator may be allowed the actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of his duties and other necessary expenses incident to carrying out the official duties of the district attorney and his office, subject to the approval of the district attorney. The provisions of this section do not apply to that portion of the compensation and travel expense paid by the state to district officials and employees.

Payment of Salary and Expenses; Special Assignment

Sec. 5. (a) The salaries and expenses provided for by this Act shall be paid by the counties included in the 9th Judicial District in proportion to the population of each for the last preceding federal census, except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The district attorney of the 9th Judicial District may specially assign an assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee, whether one or more, to one or more counties of the 9th Judicial District. The commissioners court of one or more counties of the 9th Judicial District may, in its discretion, pay the whole or any amount greater than the proportionate part of the salary or expenses of an assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee who shall be specially assigned by the district attorney of the 9th Judicial District to that particular county or counties. To the extent that one or more counties, through its commissioners court, may agree to pay more than its proportionate part of the salary or expenses of an assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee specially assigned to it, the other counties in the 9th Judicial District to which the assistant district attorney, investigator, secretary, or other employee is not specially assigned shall be relieved from their proportionate part of his salary and expenses.

(c) The salaries, expenses, and supplemental compensation of the district attorney, assistant district attorneys, investigators, secretaries, and other employees, provided for in this Act shall be paid, at the regular pay period as used by each respective county, from the officers salary fund or the general fund or any combination thereof at the discretion of the commissioners courts. The compensation paid from county funds of the counties comprising the 9th Judicial District to any person affected by this Act shall not be set at a figure lower than that actually paid to that person, or to any other person serving in that position, from such funds on the effective date of this Act.

Office Equipment

Sec. 6. The commissioners courts of one or more of the counties comprising the 9th Judicial District may furnish telephones, typewriters, office furniture, office space, supplies, and such other items and equipment as are deemed necessary to carry out the official duties of the district attorney's office.

Supplemental Salary

Sec. 7. The Commissioners Court of any county or counties in the 9th Judicial District may supplement the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the 9th Judicial District. The amount of supplemental salary that may be paid by the commissioners court shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court of any county or counties of the 9th Judicial District and shall be paid in addition to the salary paid the district attorney by the State of Texas.

Gifts and Grants

Sec. 8. The commissioners court of one or more of the counties of the 9th Judicial District may accept gifts and grants from any individual, partnership, corporation, trust, foundation, association, or political subdivision for the purpose of financing adequate and effective prosecution, crime prevention, or rehabilitation programs within the county or district approved and administered by the district attorney.

Art. 3261-3. 3rd Judicial District; Assistant District Attorney

Sec. 1. The district attorney for the Third Judicial District, whose jurisdiction extends to the County of Anderson, is hereby authorized to employ an assistant district attorney with the consent of the commissioners court of Anderson County.

Sec. 2. Said assistant district attorney shall be a qualified licensed attorney and shall have authority to perform all the acts and duties of the district attorney under the laws of this state.

Sec. 3. If the commissioners court of Anderson County consents to the employment of an assistant district attorney, the salary of the same shall be paid by Anderson County.

Sec. 4. The district attorney of the Third Judicial District, subject to the consent of the commissioners court of Anderson County, shall fix the salary of the assistant district attorney.

Art. 326m. District of 5 Counties with Population of 74,427 to 74,428

Sec. 1. That in all Judicial Districts in this State composed of five counties in which the aggregate population of said District as shown by the Federal Census of 1920 is in excess of 74,427 and not in excess of 74,428, the duly elected District Attorney shall have the right, with the consent of the Judge of said District Court to appoint an Assistant District Attorney, who shall hold his office one year.

Sec. 2. The Assistant District Attorney provided for in Section 1 of this Act shall receive an annual salary of $3,000.00 to be paid monthly out of any money not otherwise appropriated, upon the sworn account of such Assistant District Attorney approved by the District Attorney and the Judge of said District.

Art. 326n. District Attorneys, Assistants and Investigators in Certain Judicial Districts

Compensation of District Attorney; Commissions and Fees

Sec. 1. District Attorneys in all Judicial Districts composed of only one county, in which county there are two or more District Courts with concurrent criminal jurisdiction, and which District Courts have exclusive jurisdiction of all prosecutions for failing or refusing to pay over money belonging to the State under Chapter Two (2) of Title Four (4) of the Penal Code of 1925,¹ and which District Courts further have concurrent jurisdiction with all District Courts in Texas in prosecutions involving the forging and uttering, using or passing of forged instruments in writing which concern or affect the title to land in this State, under Chapter Two (2) of Title Four (4) of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1925,² shall hereafter receive from the State as pay for their services the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per annum, as provided by the Constitution, and in addition thereto shall receive the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($3,500.00) per annum, said salary to be paid in monthly installments in the same manner as now provided for the payment of the Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) fixed by the Constitution. All commissions and fees allowed District Attorneys by law, shall, when collected, be paid to the District Clerk of such counties, who shall pay the same over to the State Treasurer.

Assistant District Attorney

Sec. 2. In such Judicial Districts the District Attorney, with the consent of either of the District Judges, is hereby authorized to appoint one assistant District Attorney, who shall receive as salary Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) per annum payable by the state monthly.

Qualifications; Oath; Removal

Sec. 3. Said Assistant District Attorney shall have all of the qualifications that are now required by law of District Attorneys, shall take an oath of office before one of the District Judges of such District, shall be subject to removal at the will of the District Attorney and under the direction of the District Attorney, shall be authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by the District Attorney.

Investigators or Assistants and Stenographer; Appointment and Compensation

Sec. 4. In such Judicial Districts the District Attorney, with the consent of the District Judges and the County Judge of such County, is hereby authorized to appoint, at his discretion, not more than two (2) Investigators or Assistants, who may be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas; who shall receive a salary of not more than Twenty-seven Hundred ($2700.00) Dollars per annum, nor less than Eighteen Hundred ($1800.00) Dollars per annum, the amount of such salary to be fixed by the District Attorney and approved by the said Judges. Such Investigators or Assistants as well as the District Attorney shall be allowed a reasonable amount for expenses, not to exceed Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars each per annum. Said District Attorney shall also be authorized to appoint a stenographer who shall receive a salary not to exceed Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars per annum. The salaries of such Investigators or Assistants, and stenographer, and the expenses, provided for in this section shall be paid monthly by the Commissioners' Court of the County comprising such Judicial Districts, out of the General Fund of the County, or in the discretion of the Commissioners' Court, out of the jury fund of said County upon the certificate of the District Attorney. Said Investigators or Assistants may be required to give bond and shall have authority under the direction of the District Attorney to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws. Should the District Attorney designate the persons appointed as Assistants, they shall be in addition to and shall have the same authority and qualifications and shall be subject to the same requirements as those Assistants provided for in Section 2 of this Act and Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 528 of the Regular Session of the 44th Legislature.³

Art. 326q. Unconstitutional

This article, derived from Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 844, ch. 354, as amended by Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 603, ch. 371, § 1, created the office of criminal district attorney in counties with a population of 33,500 to 75,000 and not containing a city of 50,000 inhabitants. It was held invalid in Hill County v. Sheppard, 142 T. 353, 178 S.W.2d 261.

Art. 327. Failure to Attend Court

When any district attorney shall fail to attend any term of the district court of any county in his district, the district clerk of such county shall certify the fact of such failure under his official seal to the Comptroller, and unless some satisfactory reason for such failure is shown to the Comptroller, such district attorney shall receive no salary for the time that he has so failed to attend.

Art. 328. Vacancy in Office

When a vacancy occurs in the office of district attorney, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person, resident of the district, to fill the same.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

2. COUNTY ATTORNEYS

Repealer

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2019, ch. 622, providing for the setting of compensation, expenses and allowances for certain county and precinct officials and employees by the commissioners courts effective January 1, 1972, provides in section 8 thereof that to the extent any local, special, or general law, including Acts of the 1971 Legislature, prescribes such compensation, expenses and allowances for any official or employee covered by this Act, that law is repealed. See article 3912k.

Art. 329. Election

A county attorney for counties in which there is not a resident criminal district attorney, shall be biennially elected for a term of two years by the qualified voters of each county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Increase in Term of Office

Const. Art. 5, § 21, was amended in November, 1954 to increase the terms of office of County Attorneys and District Attorneys from two to four years.

Art. 330. Bond

Each county attorney shall execute a bond payable to the Governor in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, with at least two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully pay over in the manner prescribed by law all moneys which he may collect or which may come to his hands for the State or any county.

Art. 331. Assistants

County attorneys, by consent of the commissioners court, shall have power to appoint in writing one or more assistants, not to exceed three, for their respective counties who shall have the same powers, authority and qualifications as their principals, at whose will they shall hold office. Before entering on the duties of their offices, they shall take the official oath which shall be indorsed upon their appointment, which oaths and appointments shall be recorded and deposited in the county clerk's office.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 331a. County of 100,000 to 150,000 with City over 75,000; Assistants and Stenographer

Sec. 1. That in any county having a population of more than 100,000 and less than 150,000, and containing a city of more than 75,000 population, according to the United States Census for the year 1920, the County Attorney is hereby authorized to appoint two Assistant County Attorneys, each having the qualifications required of County Attorneys, one of whom shall receive a salary of $3000.00 per annum, and one of whom shall receive a salary of $2400.00 per annum. The said County Attorney is also hereby authorized to appoint one stenographer at a salary not to exceed $1800.00 per annum. The salaries of the Assistants and stenographer above provided for shall be paid monthly by the county in which such appointments are made.

Sec. 2. Should such County Attorney be of the opinion that the number of assistants above provided for are inadequate for the efficient performance of the duties of said office, he may appoint additional assistants under the provisions and restrictions of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Art. 331b. Counties of 49,600 to 49,700; Assistants to County Attorney Performing Duties of District Attorney

In all counties in which the county attorney performs the duties of the county attorney and district attorney, as provided by law, the county attorney may appoint one or more assistants who need not possess the qualifications required by law of county attorneys. The appointment of the assistants provided for by this act shall be governed by the provisions of Article 3902, whereby the number of assistants to be appointed and the compensation to be paid each shall be determined by the commissioners' court, providing that the provision of this bill shall apply only to counties in this State having a population of not less than 49600 and not more than 49700 according to the last government census of 1920.

Art. 331b-1. Counties of 42,900 to 43,000; Assistants to County Attorney Performing Duties of District Attorney

In all counties in which the county attorney performs the duties of the county attorney and district attorney, as provided by law, the county attorney may appoint one or more assistants who need not possess the qualifications required by law of county attorneys. The appointment of the assistants provided for by this act shall be governed by the provisions of Article 3902, whereby the number of assistants to be appointed and the compensation to be paid each shall be determined by the commissioners' court, provided that the provision of this bill shall apply only to counties in this State having a population of not less than 42900 and not more than 43000 according to the last government census of 1920.

Art. 331b-2. Certain Counties of 46,000 to 46,150; Assistants

Sec. 1. That in any county having a population of more than forty-six thousand (46,000) and less than forty-six thousand, one hundred and fifty (46,150) inhabitants, and containing a total taxable valuation not in excess of Thirty Million, Seven Hundred and Forty-two Thousand, Six Hundred and Sixty Dollars ($30,742,660), as shown by the tax rolls for the preceding year, and in which there is a city of not more than forty-three thousand, one hundred and thirty-two (43,132) inhabitants, as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, the County Attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one Assistant County Attorney, having the qualifications required of County Attorneys, who shall receive a salary not to exceed Eighteen Hundred Dollars ($1,800) per annum, said salary to be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments (out of county funds) by each county in which such appointment is made, by warrants drawn on the General Fund thereof.

Sec. 2. Should such County Attorney be of the opinion that the efficient performance of the duties of said office necessitates the appointment of more than one Assistant, he may appoint additional Assistant under the provisions and restrictions of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925.

Art. 331b-3. Counties of 60,001 to 100,000 Having No District Attorney; Assistants

Sec. 1. In all counties of this State having a population of sixty thousand and one (60,001) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the county attorneys in such counties which do not have a district attorney, and where the county attorney performs the duties of county attorney and district attorney, the county attorney in such counties shall apply to the county Commissioners Court of his county for authority to appoint such assistant county attorneys as he may require in the performance of his duties as such county attorney, stating by sworn application the number needed, the position to be filled and the amount to be paid. Said application shall be accompanied by a statement showing the probable receipts from fees, commissions and compensation to be collected by said office during the fiscal year and the probable disbursements which shall include all salaries and expense of said office; and said Court shall make its order authorizing the appointment of such assistant county attorneys and fix the compensation to be paid them within the limitations herein prescribed and determine the number to be appointed as in the discretion of said Court may be proper. The compensation which may be allowed to the assistant county attorneys for their services shall be a reasonable one, not to exceed Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600) per annum, to be paid out of the officer's salary fund of such counties.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, and in nowise shall be considered as a limitation on the other powers and authority of the Commissioners Court therein prescribed.

Art. 331c. Counties of 37,500 to 100,00 Having No District Attorney; Fees; Assistants and Stenographer

That in any county having a population of not less than 37,500 and not more than 100,000 inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding Federal census, and each succeeding Federal census thereafter, and in which counties there are one or more Judicial districts where there is no District Attorney, the County Attorney shall be allowed to retain out of the fees earned and collected by him, the sum of $5,000.00 per annum, as his compensation, exclusive of the compensation of assistants, deputies and stenographers, and shall be allowed to retain any amount as may be incurred as expenses under the authority of Article 3899, Revised Statutes, 1925, and any other expenses allowed by law, including in addition to the items enumerated in the Statutes, expenses incurred in investigating crime and accumulating evidence in Criminal cases, and shall pay over all fees earned by such office in excess of $5,000.00, and in excess of such expenses herein provided for, during each and every fiscal year, into the County Treasury in accordance with the provisions of the maximum fee bill. In arriving at the amount collected by him, he shall include the fees arising from all classes of Criminal cases, whether felonies or misdemeanors, arising in any court in such county, including habeas corpus hearings and finances and forfeitures, and including fees for representing the State in Criminal actions in Corporation Courts; such latter fees to be the same as those fixed by law for like services in Justice Courts. Each County Attorney may appoint not to exceed three Assistant County Attorneys, two of which shall receive a salary of not to exceed $3,600.00 per annum, and one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed $2,400.00 per annum. He may appoint one stenographer, who shall receive a salary not to exceed $1,500.00 per annum. The salaries of the assistants and stenographer shall be paid monthly by the County Attorney out of the fees of office.

Art. 331d. Counties of 27,050 to 27,075 with Two or More District Courts; Assistants

Sec. 1. In any county having a population of not less than twenty-seven thousand and fifty (27,050) and not more than twenty-seven thousand and seventy-five (27,075) inhabitants according to the Federal census for the year 1940 and in which county there are two (2) or more District Courts, the County Attorney is hereby authorized to appoint one Assistant County Attorney who has the qualifications required of County Attorneys, and who shall receive a salary of not more than Four Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per year and not less than Two Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) per year. The salary of the Assistant above provided for shall be paid in equal monthly installments monthly by the county in which such appointment is made.

Sec. 2. Should such County Attorney be of the opinion that the number of Assistants above provided for is inadequate for the efficient performance of the duties of said office, he may appoint additional Assistants under the provisions and restrictions of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 3. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or ineffective, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment has been rendered.

Art. 331e. Counties of 50,900 to 60,000 Having No District Attorney; Assistants

Sec. 1. In all counties of this State having a population of fifty thousand, nine hundred (50,900) and not more than sixty thousand (60,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the county attorneys in such counties which do not have a district attorney, and where the county attorney also performs the duties of district attorney, the county attorney in such counties shall apply to the County Commissioners Court of his county for authority to appoint such assistant county attorneys as he may require in the performance of his duties as such county attorney, stating by sworn application the number needed, the position to be filled, and the amount to be paid. Said application shall be accompanied by a statement showing the probable receipts from fees, commissions and compensation to be collected by said office during the fiscal year and the probable disbursements which shall include all salaries and expenses of said office; and said Court shall make its order authorizing the appointment of such assistant county attorneys and fix the compensation to be paid them within the limitations herein prescribed and determine the number to be appointed as in the discretion of said Court may be proper. The compensation which may be allowed to the assistant county attorneys for their services shall be a reasonable one, not to exceed Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600) per annum, to be paid out of the officer's salary fund of such counties.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, and in nowise shall be considered as a limitation on the other powers and authority of the Commissioners Court therein prescribed.

Art. 331f. Certain Counties over 13,000 on Mexican Border; Assistant and Secretary

In any county bordering on the international boundary between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, having more than thirteen thousand (13,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census and having a taxable property valuation in excess of Twenty Million Dollars ($20,000,000) according to the latest approved tax rolls and having a county attorney, the Commissioners Court of such county may employ an assistant county attorney and fix his salary at not to exceed Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600) per annum and may employ a secretary to the county judge and fix his salary at not to exceed Twenty-seven Hundred Dollars ($2700) per annum, such salaries to be payable out of the General Fund of said county in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

Art. 331f-1. Counties of 64,191 to 100,000 on Mexican Border; Assistant and Secretary

Sec. 1. In all counties of this state having a population of not less than 64,191, and not more than 100,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, and which counties border on the International Boundary between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, the county attorneys of such counties may appoint, with the approval of the commissioners court of such counties, an assistant county attorney and a secretary. The application for such appointment must be sworn to and be in writing stating a need for an assistant county attorney and secretary, if such application includes the services of a secretary. The compensation to be paid must be a reasonable amount fixed at the discretion of the commissioners court of such counties, but shall not exceed $10,000 per annum for the assistant county attorneys and $5,800 per annum for the secretaries, to be paid out of the officers' salary funds of such counties in 12 equal monthly installments.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are cumulative of Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, and in nowise shall be considered as a limitation on the other powers and authority of the commissioners court therein prescribed.

Art. 331g. Counties of Not Less Than 100,000 Having No District Attorney; Assistants and Investigator

Sec. 1. In all counties in this State having a population of not less than one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, in which there is no district attorney and where the county attorney performs the duties of the district attorney, the Commissioners Courts, upon recommendation of the county attorneys, are hereby authorized to appoint assistant county attorneys to aid such county attorneys in the performance of their duties, provided, however, that no Commissioners Court shall be authorized to appoint more than four (4) assistants.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court in such counties shall fix the salaries of the assistant county attorneys not to exceed the following amounts: The salaries of the first three (3) assistants, who shall be duly licensed attorneys at law, shall be fixed at any amount not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per annum each; the salary of the next assistant, who shall be a duly licensed attorney at law, shall be fixed at a sum not to exceed Forty-five Hundred Dollars ($4500) per annum.

Sec. 3. The assistant county attorneys provided for in this Act shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the county attorney.

Sec. 4. In addition to the assistants provided for in this Act, such Commissioners Courts are hereby authorized to employ an investigator and fix his salary at any sum not to exceed Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3600) per annum, who shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by the county attorney.

Sec. 5. The investigator provided for in this Act, in addition to his salary, may be allowed repair and maintenance expense for any automobile owned and used by such investigator in the actual discharge of official duties never to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50) per month. The automobile expense provided for herein shall be paid out of the Officers Fund when approved by the county attorney.

Sec. 6. All salaries provided for in this Act shall be paid by the county out of the Officers Salary Fund.

Sec. 7. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Act is held unconstitutional, such invalid portion shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature declares it would have enacted the remaining portion with the invalid portion omitted.

Sec. 8. This Act is hereby declared to be cumulative of all acts relating to the appointment of assistant county attorneys in the counties coming under the terms of this Act.

Art. 331g-1. Counties over 37,000; Investigator

Sec. 1. In each county of this State which has a population of more than thirty-seven thousand (37,000) inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal Census, the county attorney may appoint an investigator, with the approval of the Commissioners Court. He may be required to make a bond in an amount to be fixed by the county attorney. He shall receive a salary in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners Court, not to exceed Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250) per month, and he may also receive an expense allowance to be fixed by the Commissioners Court in an amount not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50) per month.

Sec. 2. This Act is cumulative of all other laws authorizing the appointment of investigators by county attorneys, and is also cumulative of all laws authorizing the appointment of other employees for the county attorney's office; but this Act shall not authorize the appointment of an additional investigator in any county in which an investigator with similar powers may be appointed under existing law.

Sec. 2a. Any investigator appointed by a county attorney under authority of this law shall not by virtue of such appointment be permitted to carry arms in the conduct of his duties but he shall be subject to the prohibitions against carrying arms contained in Article 483 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas, as amended, and similar statutes, the same as any private citizen; and it is further provided that such investigator shall not by virtue of his official position be empowered to make arrests.

Art. 331g-2. Counties of 11,200 to 11,400; Special Investigator Sec. 1. The commissioners court of any county having a population of not less than 11,200 nor more than 11,400, according to the last preceding federal census, may appoint a special investigator. The investigator shall work under the supervision of the county attorney for such law enforcement purposes as designated by the commissioners court.

Sec. 2. An investigator appointed under this Act shall receive an annual salary, not to exceed $8,000, to be set by the commissioners court and paid in equal monthly installments. He shall receive a reasonable allowance for expenses to be set by the commissioners court.

Sec. 3. The investigator shall have all the authority of a peace officer of this state.

Sec. 4. The investigator shall post a bond in an amount, not to exceed $10,000, to be set by the commissioners court and conditioned on his faithful performance of his duties under the direction of the county attorney. The bond shall be payable to the county judge.

Sec. 5. The office of such special investigator shall terminate two years from the effective date of this Act.

Art. 331h. County Attorney of Harris County

Creation of Office; Qualifications; Oath; Bond

Sec. 1. The Constitutional office of County Attorney of Harris County is created effective September 1, 1953, and said County Attorney of Harris County shall possess all the qualifications, take the oath and give the bond required by the laws of this State of other County Attorneys.

Election and Term

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of Harris County at the general election in 1954, and at the general election every two years thereafter, an attorney for said county who shall be styled the County Attorney of Harris County and who shall hold office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Powers and Duties

Sec. 3. It shall be the primary duty of the County Attorney of Harris County or his assistants to represent the State of Texas, Harris County and the officials of such county in all civil matters pending before the courts of Harris County and any other courts where the State of Texas, Harris County and the officials of such county have matters pending. It is understood that the County Attorney will represent the State of Texas, Harris County and the officials of such county in such civil matters as is now required by law of Criminal District Attorneys, District Attorneys, and County Attorneys with the exception that the County Attorney shall represent the Flood Control District of Harris County and perform any and all other duties imposed by this Act without any additional fee, compensation or perquisite other than that paid by Harris County out of its officers salary fund.

Commission and Salary

Sec. 4. The County Attorney of Harris County shall be commissioned in accordance with the law and he shall receive such annual salary as may be provided by general law.

Assistants; Oath; Powers and Duties

Sec. 5. The Assistant County Attorneys of Harris County, when appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office and are authorized to perform any and all duties devolving upon the County Attorney of Harris County and may exercise any power and perform any duty conferred by law upon the County Attorney of Harris County.

Appointments; Payment of Salaries

Sec. 6. On September 1, 1953, the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a County Attorney of Harris County who shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority from time to time to authorize the appointment of assistants, investigators and secretaries as said Commissioners Court shall deem necessary to the efficient operation of the office of County Attorney. The salaries of the County Attorney and such assistants, investigators and secretaries, as well as the operating expenses of the office, shall be paid out of county funds and in no way be an obligation of the revenues of the State of Texas.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 7. If any part, Section, Subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of the Act and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portion despite such invalidity.

[Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 786, ch. 316.]

Art. 331i. County Attorney of Midland County; Assistants, Investigators and Stenographers

Application for Appointment of Assistants, Investigators or Stenographers; Order Authorizing Employment; Appointment

Sec. 1. Whenever the County Attorney of Midland County shall require the services of assistants, investigators or stenographers in the performance of his duty, he shall apply to the Commissioners Court of such County for authority to appoint such assistants, investigators or stenographers, stating by sworn application the number needed, the position to be filled, and the amount to be paid. Upon receipt of such application the Commissioners Court of such County may enter an order authorizing the employment of such assistants, investigators and stenographers and fix the compensation to be paid them within the limitations herein prescribed and determine the number to be appointed as in the discretion of the Commissioners Court may be proper. In no case shall the Commissioners Court or any member thereof attempt to influence the employment of any person as assistant, investigator or stenographer. Upon entry of such order the County Attorney of such County shall be authorized to employ the assistants, investigators and stenographers as authorized by the Commissioners Court of such County provided that the compensation paid each of said employees shall not be less than the minimum nor exceed the maximum amounts prescribed in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act.

Salary of Stenographers

Sec. 2. Each stenographer of the county attorney of such county shall be paid a salary of not less than Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000) per annum and not more than Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) per annum as determined by the Commissioners Court of such county, to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the officers salary fund, the general fund, or any other available fund of such county.

Salary of Assistants and Investigators

Sec. 3. Each assistant of the county attorney of such county shall be paid a salary of not less than Four Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per annum and not more than Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) per annum as determined by the Commissioners Court of such county to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the officers salary fund, the general fund or any other available fund of such county. Each investigator shall be paid a salary of not less than Four Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) and not more than Nine Thousand Dollars ($9,000) per annum as determined by the Commissioners Court of such county to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the officers salary fund, the general fund, or any other available fund of such county.

Qualifications and Duties of Assistants

Sec. 4. The assistants to the County Attorney of such County must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be authorized to perform all duties imposed on the County Attorney of such County by law.

Investigators; Authority; Expenses

Sec. 5. Investigators for the County Attorney need not be licensed to practice law. They shall have authority to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases, and shall have the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws. In addition to their salaries, investigators may be allowed actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of their duties, not to exceed the amount fixed by the Commissioners Court of such County. All claims for travel expenses for the investigators shall be paid from the General Fund, the Officer's Salary Fund, or any other available fund of such County.

Automobiles; Office Supplies and Equipment

Sec. 6. The Commissioners Court of such County is authorized to furnish an automobile or automobiles for use of the County Attorney's office in carrying out the official duties of the office, and to provide for the maintenance thereof. It is further authorized to furnish telephones, typewriters, office furniture, supplies, and such other items and equipment as it deems necessary to carry out the official duties of the County Attorney's office, and to pay the necessary and essential expenses incident to carrying out the official duties of the County Attorney and his office.

Bond

Sec. 7. The stenographers, special investigators, and assistants to the County Attorney may be required by the Commissioners Court of such County to give bond in such amount as the Court may direct.

Termination of Services

Sec. 8. All stenographers, special investigators and assistant County Attorneys appointed under the provisions hereof may have their services terminated at any time by the County Attorney of such County.

Definition

Sec. 2. In this Act, "district attorney" means each of the district attorneys for the 2nd, 3rd, 9th, 12th, 21st, 26th, 27th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 34th, 36th, 38th, 39th, 43rd, 47th, 51st, 52nd, 63rd, 64th, 66th, 69th, 70th, 75th, 76th, 81st, 85th, 90th, 97th, 105th, 106th, 118th, 119th, 145th, 155th, 159th, 173rd, 196th, 198th, 216th, 220th, 229th, 235th, 266th, and 271st Judicial Districts; the criminal district attorney in each of the counties of Bastrop, Bee, Bexar, Brazoria, Caldwell, Cass, Eastland, Fort Bend, Galveston, Gregg, Harrison, Hays, Hidalgo, Jackson, Jefferson, Kaufman, Lubbock, McLennan, Navarro, Randall, Rockwall, Smith, Tarrant, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Victoria, Walker, and Wood; the county attorney performing the duties of the district attorney in each of the counties of Andrews, Cameron, Castro, Falls, Fannin, Freestone, Grayson, Limestone, Morris, Ochiltree, Red River, Robertson, Rusk, and Willacy; and the county attorney or criminal district attorney, as the case may be, of Denton County.

Compensation

Sec. 3. Each district attorney governed by this Act shall receive from the state compensation equal to 90 percent of the compensation that is provided for a district judge in the General Appropriations Act. Each commissioners court may supplement the district attorney's state salary, but shall in no event pay the district attorney an amount less than the compensation it provides its highest paid district judge.

Expenses and Allowances

Sec. 4. Each district attorney governed by this Act shall receive not less than $22,500 per annum from the state to be used by the district attorney to help defray the salaries and expenses of the office but not to be used to supplement the district attorney's salary. Each district attorney shall submit annually a sworn account to the comptroller of public accounts showing how this money was spent during the year.

Limitations on Law Practice

Sec. 5. (a) A district attorney governed by this Act may not engage in the private practice of law, but may complete all civil cases that are not in conflict with the interest of any of the counties of the district in which the district attorney serves and that are pending in court on the effective date of this Act or are pending in court before the district attorney takes office. A district attorney may not accept a fee from an attorney to whom the district attorney has referred a case.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section also applies to an assistant of a district attorney governed by this Act if, from all funds received, the assistant district attorney receives a salary that is equal to or greater than 80 percent of the salary paid by the state to the district attorney under this Act.

Construction

Sec. 6. It is the purpose of this Act to increase funds available for use in prosecution. The commissioners court in each county that has a district attorney governed by this Act shall provide the funds necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Act and shall continue to provide funds for the office of the district attorney in an amount that is equal to or greater than the amount of funds provided for the office by the county on the effective date of this Act. This provision does not apply to local supplementation to the salary of the district attorney.

Effect on Art. 3912e

Sec. 7. Subsection (b), Section 13, Chapter 465, Acts of the 44th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1935 (Article 3912e, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), continues in force only as to those counties and those district attorneys that are not subject to this Act.

Art. 332c. Representation of County Officials and Employees by District, County or Private Attorneys

Sec. 1. In this Act, "nonpolitical entity" means any person, firm, corporation, association, or other private entity, and does not include the state, a political subdivision of the state, a city, a special district, or other public entity.

Sec. 2. In any suit instituted by a nonpolitical entity against an official or employee of a county, the district attorney of the district in which the county is situated or the county attorney, or both, shall, subject to the provisions contained in Section 3, represent the official or employee of the county if the suit involves any act of the official or employee while in the performance of public duties.

Sec. 3. If additional counsel is necessary or proper for an official or employee provided legal counsel by Section 2 of this Act or if it reasonably appears that the act complained of may form the basis for the filing of a criminal charge against the official or employee, the county commissioners court shall employ and pay private counsel.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act requires a county official or employee to accept the legal counsel provided for him in this Act.

Art. 332d. Prosecutor Council

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The Legislature of the State of Texas finds and declares that a uniform quality of prosecution will aid in improving the efficiency and effectiveness of the state's criminal justice system. The legislature recognizes that the prosecutor performs a judicial function which has a significant effect on the executive branch and on law enforcement. To this end, it is the purpose of this Act to provide a centralized agency of the judicial department of government capable of delivering technical assistance, educational services, and professional development training to the prosecutors of Texas and their assistants and to improve the administration of criminal justice through professionalization of the prosecuting attorney's office.

Creation

Sec. 2. There is created the Prosecutor Council, hereinafter referred to as the "council."

Membership; "Prosecuting Attorney" Defined

Sec. 3. (a) The council shall be composed of nine members, selected as follows:

(1) four citizens of the State of Texas, who are not licensed to practice law, appointed by the Governor of Texas, with the advice and consent of the senate. In making such appointments, the governor shall give due consideration to geographical areas of the state and their population diversities; and

(2) five incumbent, elected prosecuting attorneys to be elected by prosecuting attorneys, at least one each of whom shall be a county attorney, a district attorney, and a criminal district attorney.

(b) The supreme court shall promulgate rules for electing prosecutors to the council.

(c) For purposes of this Act, "prosecuting attorney" means the person who holds the office of county attorney, district attorney, or criminal district attorney, and represents the State of Texas in criminal cases, including those holding the office pro tempore. The duties of prosecuting attorneys who are members of the council shall be additional to those of their elected position, and membership on the council shall not constitute dual officeholding.

Terms

Sec. 4. The members of the council shall serve overlapping six-year terms. Initially, the governor shall appoint one citizen for two years, two citizens for four years, and one citizen for six years. Initially, two prosecuting attorneys shall be elected for two years, one prosecuting attorney shall be elected for four years and two prosecuting attorneys shall be elected for six years. The terms of the present members shall expire on December 31, 1981, and each member shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed or elected.

Vacancies

Sec. 5. Vacancies on the council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. A member appointed to fill a vacancy created other than by expiration of a term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he is to succeed. Any member may be reappointed for additional terms. If a member who is a prosecuting attorney ceases to be a prosecuting attorney, a vacancy on the council shall exist.

Expenses

Sec. 6. Members of the council shall serve without compensation but may be entitled to their actual expenses in attending meetings and in the performance of their duties hereunder.

Meetings; Officers; Quorum; Executive Director

Sec. 7. (a) The council shall meet at least twice each year and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary. The council shall designate from among its prosecutor members a chairman and from its lay members a vice-chairman who shall serve two-year terms and who may be reelected. The chairman shall preside over the meetings, and in his absence the vice-chairman shall preside. The council shall establish its own procedures with respect to its meetings, and five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority vote of the members present and voting shall be required for approval of any action authorized by this Act.

(b) The council shall appoint an executive director who shall be an attorney licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas. The executive director shall perform the functions and duties assigned him by the council and shall represent the council in all cases in the courts of the state or of the United States.

Duties

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the council to:

- (1) develop and adopt minimum standards for the operation of prosecuting attorneys' offices;
- (2) approve courses for in-service training and professional development of prosecuting attorneys, their assistants, and staff;
- (3) cooperate and coordinate with the Texas Judicial Council to improve the maintenance and reporting of criminal justice statistics;
- (4) accept and investigate complaints of prosecuting attorney incompetency and misconduct;
- (5) receive and consider suggestions to improve the administration of criminal justice and to investigate and report upon such matters as may be referred to the council by the governor or the legislature;
- (6) coordinate with the Texas District and County Attorneys Association to carry out the provisions and purposes of this Act;
- (7) respond to requests for technical assistance from the various prosecuting attorneys; and
- (8) report to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1 of each year as to all its proceedings, recommended changes in jurisdictions, needed funding for local offices, and other matters to improve local prosecution within the state.

Powers

Sec. 9. The council may:

- (1) respond to the request of a judge for recommendations regarding the appointment of a special prosecutor in case of disqualification of the prosecuting attorney;

(2) enter into agreements with other public or private agencies or organizations to implement the intent and purpose of this Act;

(3) accept funds, grants, and gifts from any public or private source to implement this Act;

(4) employ such staff and clerical assistants as necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities;

(5) pay the expenses of prosecutors and their staffs to attend professional development courses, to assist other prosecutors, to advise the council, and to perform the other activities that the council deems to be in the interest of improving the quality of prosecution; and

(6) take such other action as may be appropriate for the improvement and more efficient administration of criminal justice.

Reprimand, Disqualification, or Removal from Office

Sec. 10. (a) A prosecuting attorney may be reprimanded, disqualified, or removed from office as hereinafter provided.

(b) For purposes of this Act:

(1) "incompetency" means:

- (A) gross ignorance or neglect of official duty;
- (B) physical or mental defect which prohibits the prompt or proper discharge of official duties; or
- (C) failure to maintain the qualifications required by law for election to the office.

(2) "misconduct" means:

- (A) any unlawful behavior defined in Chapter 39 of the Penal Code;
- (B) any act which is a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; or
- (C) willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of official duties.

(c) A prosecuting attorney is disqualified from performing the duties and functions or exercising the privileges of his office when a petition for removal from office has been filed against him as provided in this Act.

(d) A prosecuting attorney is suspended from office when:

- (1) he has been disbarred or suspended from the practice of law in the State of Texas, whether through trial or upon agreement;
 - (2) he has been found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of any felony or any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or;
 - (3) a finding of incompetency or misconduct follows a trial on the merits of a petition for removal.
- (e) A prosecuting attorney is removed from office upon final adjudication or conviction for any cause of action which was the basis for his suspension. The court entering the appropriate judgment as provided by Subsection (d) of this section shall include an order suspending the prosecuting attorney and removing him from office when the judgment becomes final.

(f)(1) During a period of disqualification, the prosecuting attorney shall be entitled to receive the compensation provided by law for such office but shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto.

(2) During a period of suspension, the prosecuting attorney shall not be entitled to any compensation provided by law for his office and shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto. If the trial court judgment which causes a suspension is upon final determination overturned, then he shall be entitled to receive as compensation an amount equal to the total compensation he would have received during the period of such suspension.

(g)(1) After investigation of a complaint of prosecutor incompetency or misconduct, the council may, in its discretion, issue a private reprimand, order a hearing to be held before the council, or request the supreme court to appoint a master to hold a hearing.

(2) The supreme court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the council and masters in hearings relating to the investigation of complaints of prosecuting attorney incompetency or misconduct, consistent with this Act and due process of law.

(3) In the conduct of investigations or hearings, any member of the council or the master may administer oaths and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and to compel testimony and the production of books, records, papers, accounts, and documents relevant to any investigation or hearing. Orders for attendance of witnesses, testimony, or production of evidence shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the district court.

(4) It shall be the duty of all law enforcement officers to serve process and execute all lawful orders of the council or master. Such process and orders may also be served by any other person designated by the master, the council, or their authorized representative.

(5) In any investigation or hearing, process shall extend to all parts of the state, and each witness, other than an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, shall receive the same fees and mileage as allowed witnesses in civil cases.

(6) In any investigation or hearing, the council or master may order the deposition of any person be taken in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(h) Upon the appointment of a master, notice shall be given to the prosecuting attorney who is the subject of any complaint or investigation, specifying the matters under investigation and the complaint against him and setting a date for a hearing or for the taking of testimony for purposes of investigation.

(i) After the conclusion of the hearing, the master shall file with the council a statement of his findings of fact, together with a complete transcript of all proceedings had in the cause. Such findings and transcripts shall be filed with the council not later than 30 days after the date set for the hearing to commence. For good cause shown, the council may, in its discretion, extend the time for filing such findings and transcripts.

(j) All proceedings and records before the council or a master shall be confidential and privileged until such time as they are introduced in evidence in any proceeding for removal.

(k) If, after examining the records and proceedings before it, the council finds by majority vote of the council membership good cause therefor, it shall cause to be filed in the district court of the county in which the prosecuting attorney resides a petition for removal. Such petition shall be filed in the name of the State of Texas and docketed on the civil docket of the court. Such petition shall allege incompetency or misconduct, together with the facts which form the basis of the allegations. The trial on a petition for removal shall proceed in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(l) When a petition for removal is filed pursuant to this section, the judge of the court in which it is filed shall request the appointment of a special judge who shall hear the case. Upon appointment, the special judge shall appoint an attorney to prosecute the case, such counsel to be selected from a list of not less than five qualified attorneys submitted by the council.

(m) Upon disqualification or suspension of a prosecuting attorney, the duties of his office shall be performed by a prosecuting attorney pro tempore as provided by this Act. The prosecuting attorney pro tempore shall serve until the disqualification or suspension is lifted or until a successor has been appointed and qualified.

Prosecuting Attorney Pro Tempore

Sec. 10A. (a) A prosecuting attorney pro tempore shall be appointed by the body or person who has the authority to appoint the prosecuting attorney in the event of a vacancy.

(b) The prosecuting attorney pro tempore shall receive as compensation an amount not less than the compensation the disqualified or suspended prosecuting attorney was entitled to receive. Each governmental body shall pay that part of the compensation it paid the predecessor out of any available funds. This obligation shall take precedence over any other the governmental body may have.

Limitations; Intent of Legislature

Sec. 10B. No prosecuting attorney shall be reprimanded or removed for misconduct as defined by Section 10 of this Act occurring more than four years prior to the time of filing of a complaint with the council, but limitation will not run where fraud or concealment is involved until the misconduct is discovered or should have been discovered by reasonable diligence. The complaint shall be considered as filed when made in writing to the executive director of the council. It is the intention of the legislature that there continue to be no restrictions to the reprimand or removal of a prosecuting attorney other than those stated in this Act.

Severability

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 332d-1. Application of Sunset Act

The Prosecutor Council is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless the Prosecutor Council is continued in existence as provided by that Act, the Prosecutor Council is abolished and this Act expires effective September 1, 1985.

Sections 1 to 4 of the 1981 Act amended art. 332d.

Art. 333. To Report to Attorney General

District and County Attorneys shall, when required by the Attorney General, report to him at such times and in such form as he may direct, such information as he may desire in relation to criminal matters and the interests of the State, in their districts and counties.

Art. 334. Shall Advise Officers

The district and county attorneys, upon request, shall give an opinion or advice in writing to any county or precinct officer of their district or county, touching their official duties.

Art. 335. Collections and Fees

Whenever a district or county attorney has collected money for the State or for any county, he shall within thirty days after receiving the same, pay it into the treasury of the State or of the county in which it belongs, after deducting therefrom and retaining the commissions allowed him thereon by law. Such district or county attorney shall be entitled to ten per cent commissions on the first thousand dollars collected by him in any one case for the State or county from any individual or company, and five per cent on all sums over one thousand dollars, to be retained out of the money when collected, and he shall also be entitled to retain the same commissions on all collections made for the State or for any county. This article shall also apply to money realized for the State under the escheat law.

Art. 336. Accepting Reward

No district or county attorney shall take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, to prosecute any case which he is required by law to prosecute, or consideration of or as a testimonial for his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined.

Art. 337. Collection Reports

On or before the last day of August of each year, each district or county attorney shall file in the office of the Comptroller or of the county treasurer, as the case may be, a sworn account of all money received by him by virtue of his office during the preceding year, payable into the State or county treasury.

Art. 338. Register

Each district and county attorney shall keep in proper books, to be procured by them for that purpose at their own expense, a register of all their official acts and reports, and all actions or demands prosecuted or defended by them as such attorneys, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver such books to their successors in office; and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person appointed by the Governor or by the county commissioners court of a county, to examine the same.

Art. 339. To Prosecute Officers

When it shall come to the knowledge of any district or county attorney that any officer in his district or county entrusted with the collection or safe keeping of any public funds is in any manner whatsoever neglecting or abusing the trust confided in him, or in any way failing to discharge his duties under the law, he shall institute such proceedings as are necessary to compel the performance of such duties by such officer and to preserve and protect the public interests.

Art. 340. Admissions

No admissions made by the district or county attorney in any suit or action in which the State is a party shall operate to prejudice the rights of the State.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 341. Population Determined

The preceding Federal census shall be the basis for determining population under any provisions of this title.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

4. PUBLIC DEFENDERS

Art. 341-1. Tarrant County; Appointment and Compensation; Entitlement of Indigents

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) Recent federal and state court decisions have emphasized the constitutional obligation of the state to afford needy persons the effective assistance of counsel in criminal actions. In some counties, the bar has partially met this obligation through creation of a nonprofit organization, primarily financed by federal grants, which provides counsel; in others, volunteers from the bar donate their services to defend needy persons. And in still other counties, the courts concerned appoint counsel under Articles 26.04 and 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) Especially in the metropolitan counties, the obligation to furnish competent counsel imposes a substantial burden on county financial resources. None of the alternative methods presently employed to furnish counsel has proved entirely satisfactory and the Legislature finds that a countywide public defender system, functioning either alone or in a combination with other methods, may better satisfy the constitutional and statutory obligations for providing counsel for the needy accused.

(c) In view of the findings and determinations expressed in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, there is established in Tarrant County the offices of Public Defender of Tarrant County, hereafter referred to as the "public defender."

Appointment of Public Defenders

Sec. 2. (a) Each criminal district judge of Tarrant County shall appoint one attorney to serve as a public defender and define his duties and responsibilities. A public defender serves at the pleasure of the appointing Judge.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Compensation

Sec. 3. (a) The public defenders shall receive an annual salary of not less than $10,000 to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and paid from the appropriate county fund.

(b) The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding daily appearance fees shall not apply to public defenders, however, all other provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding fees and allowances shall apply to public defenders.

(c) A public defender may not engage in any criminal law practice other than that authorized in this Act and shall accept nothing of value, except as authorized in this Act, for any services rendered in connection with a criminal case.

(d) A violation of Subsection (c), Section 3 of this Act shall be cause for removal of the public defender by the judge who appointed him.

Entitlement to Representation

Sec. 4. (a) Any indigent person charged with a criminal offense in a court in Tarrant County or any indigent person in Tarrant County who is a party in a juvenile delinquency proceeding shall be represented by a public defender or other practicing attorney appointed by a court of component jurisdiction. If an attorney, other than a public defender, is appointed, he shall be compensated as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) A public defender may inquire into the financial condition of any person whom he is appointed to represent and shall report any findings of the investigation to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing into the financial condition of the defendant and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by a public defender.

Substitute Defender

Sec. 5. At any stage, including appeal or other post-conviction proceedings, the court concerned may assign a substitute attorney. The substitute attorney shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Severability

Sec. 6. If any provision of the Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1621, ch. 501, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 341-2. Counties Having Four County and Four District Courts; Appointment and Compensation; Entitlement of Indigents

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) Recent federal and state court decisions have emphasized the constitutional obligation of the state to afford needy persons the effective assistance of counsel in criminal actions. In some counties, the bar has partially met this obligation through creation of a nonprofit organization, primarily financed by federal grants, which provides counsel; in others, volunteers from the bar donate their services to defend needy persons. And in still other counties, the courts concerned appoint counsel under Articles 26.04 and 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) The obligation to furnish competent counsel imposes a substantial burden on county financial resources. None of the alternative methods presently employed to furnish counsel has proved entirely satisfactory and the legislature finds that a countywide public defender system, functioning either alone or in a combination with other methods, may better satisfy the constitutional and statutory obligations for providing counsel for the needy accused.

Appointment of Public Defender

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court of any county having four county courts and four district courts may appoint one or more attorneys to serve as a public defender to serve at its pleasure.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Compensation

Sec. 3. (a) The public defenders shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the commissioners court and paid from the appropriate county fund.

(b) The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding daily appearance fees shall not apply to public defenders; however, all other provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding fees and allowances shall apply to public defenders.

(c) A public defender may not engage in any criminal law practice other than that authorized in this Act and shall accept nothing of value, except as authorized in this Act, for any services rendered in connection with a criminal case.

(d) A violation of Subsection (c), Section 3 of this Act shall be cause for removal of the public defender by the judge who appointed him.

Entitlement to Representation

Sec. 4. (a) Any indigent person charged with a criminal offense or any indigent person who is a party in a juvenile delinquency proceeding shall be represented by a public defender in a county having at least four county courts and at least four district courts, if one has been appointed, or other practicing attorneys appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. If an attorney, other than a public defender, is appointed, he shall be compensated as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) A public defender may inquire into the financial condition of any person whom he is appointed to represent and shall report any findings of the investigation to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing into the financial condition of the defendant and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by a public defender.

Substitute Defender

Sec. 5. At any stage, including appeal or other postconviction proceedings, the court concerned may assign a substitute attorney. The substitute attorney shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1357, ch. 609, §§ 1 to 5, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Art. 341-3. Wichita County; Appointment, Compensation, Powers, and Duties; Substitute in Case of Conflict

Appointment of Public Defender

Sec. 1. (a) The Commissioners Court of Wichita County may appoint an attorney to serve at its pleasure as public defender.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Employment of Assistants and Personnel

Sec. 2. (a) The public defender may, with the approval of the commissioners court, employ assistant public defenders, investigators, secretaries, and other personnel required for the proper and efficient operation of the office.

(b) An assistant public defender must be licensed to practice law in this state and is authorized to perform all duties imposed by law on the public defender.

Costs of Court

Sec. 3. The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, relating to the compensation of appointed counsel, except the provisions of that article relating to daily appearance fees, apply to appearances and legal representation by the public defender or an assistant public defender.

Compensation and Expenses

Sec. 4. The provisions of Chapter 622, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, as amended (Article 3912k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), apply to compensation of personnel and payment of expenses incidental to the operation of the office of the public defender, except that the commissioners court may not pay the public defender an annual salary that is greater than the annual salary paid to the district attorney serving Wichita County.

Duties and Responsibilities

Sec. 5. (a) The public defender or an assistant public defender shall represent any indigent person charged with a criminal offense in Wichita County and any indigent minor who is a party to a juvenile delinquency proceeding in the county.

(b) The public defender or an assistant public defender shall inquire into the financial condition of any person the defender is appointed to represent. The defender shall report the findings of the inquiry to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing on the financial condition of the defendant or minor and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by the defender.

Outside Employment and Compensation

Sec. 6. A public defender or an assistant public defender may not:

(1) engage in criminal law practice other than practice as a public defender or assistant public defender;

(2) engage in civil or criminal law practice before a county court, county court at law, or district court in Wichita County, other than practice associated with his position in the public defender's office; or

(3) receive anything of value other than compensation authorized by this Act for practice performed in furtherance of his duty as a public defender or assistant public defender.

Removal

Sec. 7. The commissioners court may remove a public defender or assistant public defender if the defender violates a provision of Section 6 of this Act.

Appointment of Substitute Defender

Sec. 8. (a) If the judge determines that a conflict of interest exists between the public defender or assistant public defender and an accused indigent person charged in a criminal proceeding or an indigent minor in a juvenile delinquency proceeding before the judge, the judge may, at any stage of the proceeding, appoint another attorney to represent the accused.

(b) An attorney appointed under Subsection (a) of this section must be licensed to practice law in this state and is entitled to compensation for services as provided by Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Gifts and Grants

Sec. 9. The commissioners court may accept gifts and grants from any source for the purpose of financing an adequate and effective public defender program within the county.

Art. 342-103. Finance Commission—Banking Section and Savings and Loan Section—Consumer Credit Section—Creation—General Powers

There is hereby established and created The Finance Commission of Texas which shall consist of twelve (12) members, and be divided into three (3) sections, namely: The Banking Section, consisting of six (6) members, The Savings and Loan Section, consisting of three (3) members, and the Consumer Credit Section, consisting of three (3) members. The Finance Commission and each section thereof shall serve as an advisory board to the Commissioner as to general policies and shall have such other duties, powers, and authority as may be conferred upon them by law. The Banking Section, the Savings and Loan Section, and the Consumer Credit Section shall make a thorough and intensive study of the Texas banking, savings and loan, and consumer credit statutes, respectively, with a view to so strengthening said statutes as to attain and maintain the maximum degree of protection to depositors, stockholders, shareholders, and consumers, and shall report every two (2) years to the Legislature by filing with the Clerks of the Senate and the House of Representatives the results of its study, together with its recommendations.

Section 11 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"The governor promptly shall appoint the three members of the Consumer Credit Section and shall designate the term to be served by each. One member shall serve until February 1, 1985; one until February 1, 1987; and one until February 1, 1989."

Art. 342-103a. Application of Sunset Act

The Finance Commission of Texas is subject to the Texas Sunset Act as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the commission is abolished effective September 1, 1995.

Art. 342-104. Finance Commission—Sections—Qualifications of Members

1. Four (4) members of the Banking Section shall be active bankers who shall have had not less than five (5) years executive experience next preceding their appointment in a State bank in a capacity not lower than cashier. The Banking Section shall at all times include four (4) members, each of whom, at the time of his appointment, is an officer in a State bank which falls within one of the four (4) quartiles of the total number of State banks, according to and measured by the capital, certified surplus, and undivided profits of such banks as of the last statement of condition published pursuant to the Commissioner's call in the year previous to the year in which the appointments are made. Each quartile shall at all times be represented by one (1) member on the Banking Section who, at the time of his appointment, is an officer in a State bank within such quartile, and each member shall continue to serve from his respective quartile throughout his term of office notwithstanding any adjustment of his bank's capital, certified surplus, and undivided profits subsequent to the date of the appointment. The Commissioner shall divide the total number of State banks with as near an equal number of banks as mathematically possible being placed in each quartile and advise the Governor which State banks fall within each of the four (4) quartiles prior to any appointments of banker members of the Commission. Two (2) members of the Banking Section shall be selected by the Governor upon the basis of recognized business ability.

2. Two (2) members of the Savings and Loan Section shall be savings and loan executives who shall have had not less than five (5) years full-time employment experience in a State Savings and Loan or Federal Savings and Loan Association. The Savings and Loan Section shall at all times consist of one (1) member who is a full-time employed executive in a State association which, at the time of his appointment, had gross assets not exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) and one (1) member who is a full-time employed executive in a State association which, at the time of his appointment, had gross assets exceeding One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000). One (1) member of the Savings and Loan Section shall be selected by the Governor upon the basis of recognized business ability.

3. Experience as Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner, or Examiner shall be deemed banking experience, and experience as Savings and Loan Supervisor or Savings and Loan Examiner shall be deemed savings and loan experience, within the meaning of this article.

4. Two (2) positions of the Consumer Credit Section must be filled by individuals, each of whom is licensed under Chapter 3, Title 79, Revised Statutes (Article 5069-3.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is an executive or a person, other than a bank or savings and loan association, licensed under that chapter or is licensed to engage in business as a pawnbroker under Chapter 51, Title 79, Revised Statutes (Article 5069-51.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). One (1) member of that section must be a member of the general public. A person is not eligible for appointment as a public member if the person or the person's spouse:

(a) is licensed by an occupational regulatory agency in the field of lending, pawnbroking, or making installment sales;

(b) is employed by or participates in the management of a business entity or other organization related to the field of lending, pawnbroking, or making installment sales; or

(c) has, other than as a consumer, a financial interest in a business entity related to the field of lending, pawnbroking, or making installment sales.

5. A member or employee of the Finance Commission may not be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking or lending industry. A member or employee of the Commission may not be related within the second degree by affinity or consanguinity to a person who is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking or lending industry.

Art. 342-105. Finance Commission—Residence of Members

No two (2) members of the same section of the Finance Commission shall be residents of the same State Senatorial District.

Art. 342-106. Finance Commission—Members—Appointment—Term

1. The Governor of the State of Texas, subject to confirmation by the Senate, shall appoint the members of the Finance Commission, each of whom, except the initial appointees, shall serve for a term of six (6) years, and the term of one third of the members of each section shall expire February 1 of each odd-numbered year.

2. Appointments to the Finance Commission shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees.

3. Members of the Finance Commission shall, subject to the provisions of Article 7 of this Chapter, serve until their successors are appointed and have qualified by taking oath in the form prescribed by the State Banking Board.

Section 11 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"The governor promptly shall appoint the three members of the Consumer Credit Section and shall designate the term to be served by each. One member shall serve until February 1, 1985; one until February 1, 1987; and one until February 1, 1989."

Art. 342-106A. Conflict of Interest

A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), by virtue of his activities for compensation in or on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the Finance Commission may not serve as a member of the Finance Commission or act as the general counsel to the Finance Commission.

Art. 342-107. Finance Commission—Vacancies

1. It is a ground for removal from the Finance Commission if a member:

(a) does not have at the time of appointment the qualifications required by Articles 4 and 5 of this code¹ for appointment to the Commission;

(b) except as provided by Section 2 of this article,² does not maintain during the service on the Commission the qualifications required by Articles 4 and 5 of this code for appointment to the Commission; or

(c) violates a prohibition established by Article 6A of this code³.

2. An increase or decrease in the capital and surplus of a member's employing bank, or an increase or decrease in the gross assets of a member's employing savings and loan association does not create a ground for removal.

3. In event of a vacancy on the Finance Commission for any cause, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the unexpired term.

4. The validity of an action of the Finance Commission is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of a member of the Commission existed.

¹ So in enrolled bill; probably should read "Articles 4 and 5 of this Chapter" (arts. 342-104 and 342-107).

² So in enrolled bill; probably should read "Article 2 of this Chapter" (art. 342-102).

³ So in enrolled bill; probably should read "Article 6A of this Chapter" (art. 342-106A).

Art. 342-108. Finance Commission—Confirmation of Appointments

In event of appointment of any member of the Finance Commission while the Legislature is in session, the appointment shall be promptly related to the Senate for confirmation, and in event of any such appointment while the Legislature is not in session, such appointment shall be promptly related to the Senate at the next meeting of the Legislature. If the Senate should refuse to confirm any appointment, the office shall thereupon become vacant.

Art. 342-109. Finance Commission—Expenses and Compensation of Members

Each member of the Finance Commission shall be reimbursed reasonable and necessary expenses incidental to travel incurred by him in connection with the performance of his official duties. Each member of the Commission is entitled to per diem as set by legislative appropriation for each day that the member engages in the business of the Commission or the section the member represents.

Art. 342-110. Finance Commission—Disqualification of Members

No member shall act at any meeting of the Commission or either section thereof, when the matter under consideration specifically relates to any corporation in which such member is an officer, director, or stockholder.

Art. 342-111. Finance Commission—Sections—Meetings—Quorum—Minutes

The Finance Commission and each Section thereof shall hold at least two regular public meetings during each calendar year at such dates as are set by the Commission. At the first regular public meeting of the Finance Commission during each calendar year, the Commission shall elect a chairman from its members by majority vote. The chairman of the Finance Commission shall be entitled to vote on all matters. The term of office of the chairman of the Finance Commission shall begin on July 1 of each calendar year and shall expire on June 30 of the succeeding calendar year. No member of the Finance Commission shall serve consecutive terms as chairman of the Finance Commission. The chairman of the Finance Commission shall preside at all public meetings of the Finance Commission and shall cause adequate minutes of the proceedings of all public meetings to be kept. Special public meetings of the Commission may be called by the chairman or by any three members of the Commission. The Commission and each Section thereof may adopt internal requirements of procedure governing the time and place of meetings, the character of notice of special public meetings, the procedure by which all public meetings are to be conducted and other similar matters. A majority of the members of the Finance Commission shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting any business coming before the Commission and a majority of each Section of the Commission shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting any business coming before said Section.

Section 2 of the 1973 amendatory act provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 342-111A. Open Meetings; Administrative Procedure

The Finance Commission is subject to the open meetings act, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 342-112. Reports by Commissioner—Examinations and Audits—Fees, Penalties and Revenues—Expenses—Budgets—Reports to Governor and Legislature

Text as amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 1085, ch. 244, § 5

1. The Banking Department shall be audited from time to time by the State Auditor in the same manner as other State Departments, and the actual costs of such audits shall be paid to the State Auditor from the funds of the Banking Department.

2. Fees, penalties, and revenues collected by the Banking Department from every source whatsoever shall be retained and held by said Department, and no part of such fees, penalties, and revenues shall ever be paid into the General Revenue Fund of this State. All expenses incurred by the Banking Department shall be paid only from such fees, penalties, and revenues, and no such expense shall ever be a charge against the funds of this State. The Finance Commission shall adopt, and from time to time amend, budgets which shall direct the purposes, and prescribe the amounts, for which the fees, penalties, and revenues of the Banking Department shall be expended.

3. During January of each year, the Finance Commission shall file with the Governor and the presiding officer of each house of the legislature a complete and detailed written report accounting for all funds received and disbursed by the Banking Department, Savings and Loan Department, and Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner during the preceding year.

4. Within the first sixty (60) days of each succeeding Regular Session of the Legislature the Finance Commission shall make a report to the appropriate committees of the House and Senate charged with considering legislation pertaining to the banking, savings and loan, and consumer credit industries.

Art. 342-112. Reports by Commissioner—Examinations and Audits—Fees, Penalties and Revenues—Expenses—Budgets—Reports to Governor and Legislature

Text as amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2923, ch. 499, § 1

1. The State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Banking Department during each fiscal year. The actual costs of such audits shall be paid to the State Auditor from funds appropriated to the Banking Department.

2. The Commissioner and the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall establish reasonable and necessary fees for the administration of this code.

3. All sums of money paid to the Banking Department shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund known as the Banking Department Expense Fund and may be used only for the administration of the statutory duties of the Banking Department. All expenses incurred by the Banking Department shall be paid only from that fund, and no such expense shall ever be a charge against the funds of this State.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 128, ch. 97, subch. I, art. 12. Amended by Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 233, ch. 139, § 1; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2923, ch. 499, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Section 8(b) of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2930, ch. 499, provides: "Section 3 of Article 12, Chapter I, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-112, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) as amended by this Act takes effect September 1, 1985."

Art. 342-112A. Transfers to General Revenue Fund

The Banking Department shall cause to be transferred each year of the biennium the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000) to the General Revenue Fund, to cover the cost of governmental service rendered by other departments.

Sections 15, 17 and 18 of the amendatory Act of 1951, read as follows:

"Sec. 15. All fees and revenues collected by the Banking Department for all prior fiscal years which are on deposit in the State Treasury at the effective date of this Act, except fees and revenues against which State warrants are then outstanding, are hereby appropriated to the Banking Department, to be retained and held by said department under the provisions of this Act, and to be expended only for the expenses of said department. All moneys in the 'Cemetery Perpetual Care Enforcement Fund' in the State Treasury at the effective date of this Act, except moneys against which State warrants are then outstanding, are hereby appropriated to the Banking Department, to be held and expended by it as provided in Section 6 of this Act [912a-3].

"Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with any provision of this Act are hereby repealed.

"Sec. 18. If any portion of this Act is for any reason held unconstitutional, the unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the remaining portion of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the Act, and each part thereof, irrespective of the fact that some part thereof might be declared unconstitutional."

Art. 342-113. Banking Section—Rules and Regulations—Loans and Investments—Insurance—Preservation of Books and Records—Affairs Transacted by National Banks—Determination of Incidental Powers

The Banking Section, through resolution adopted by not less than four affirmative votes, may promulgate general rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and Statutes of this State, and from time to time amend the same, which rules and regulations shall be applicable alike to all state banks to effect the following ends and purposes:

1. To prevent state banks from concentrating an excessive or unreasonable portion of their resources in any particular type or character of investment or in any single line of credit under any exception to Article 7, of Chapter V of this Code,¹ thereby preventing the solvency or liquidity of such banks depending to an undue extent upon such type or character of investment or single line of credit.

2. To provide adequate fidelity coverage or insurance on the officers and employees of state banks, and fire, burglary, robbery and other casualty coverage for state banks, so as to prevent loss through theft, defalcation or other casualty, and to make certain that the insurer or surety is solvent and will be able to pay losses sustained.

3. To provide for the preservation of the books and records of the Banking Department and of banks during such time as said books and records are of value, and to permit the destruction or other disposition of such books and records after the same are no longer of any value.

4. To permit state banks to transact their affairs in any manner or make any loan or investment which they could do under existing or any future law, rule or regulation were they organized and operating as a National bank under the laws of the United States; but it is expressly provided that this authority is subject to the laws of this State and shall not be construed in any wise to confer authority to abridge such laws or diminish or limit any rights or powers specifically given to state banks by such laws; and it is further provided that, any provision of this Code to the contrary notwithstanding, ing, the transaction of affairs and making of loans or investments permitted by valid rules and regulations shall not constitute a violation of any penal provision of the statutes of this state.

5. From time to time upon request of the Banking Commissioner, to define, identify and determine incidental powers which a state bank may exercise as necessary to its specific powers under Article 1, Chapter III of this Code.²

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-114. Savings and Loan Section—Rules and Regulations—Loans and Investments—Advisory Powers

The Savings and Loan Section, through resolutions adopted by not less than two affirmative votes, may promulgate general rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and Statutes of this State, and from time to time amend the same, which rules and regulations shall be applicable alike to all State associations, and may authorize savings and loan associations organized under the laws of this State to invest their funds in any manner and to the same extent which said association could invest such funds under existing or any future law, rule or regulation were they organized and operating as a Federal Savings and Loan Association under the laws of the United States, provided, however, that this authority shall not be construed in any wise to confer authority to abridge, or diminish or limit any rights or powers specifically given to State associations by the statutory laws of this State. In addition to such powers as may be conferred upon the Savings and Loan Section by this Act or by the Savings and Loan Act of Texas, as amended,¹ the Savings and Loan Section shall have the following duties:

(a) When in the judgment of the Section, protection of investors in State associations requires additional regulations or limitations, to promulgate such additional rules and regulations as will in its judgment prevent State savings and loan associations from concentrating an excessive or unreasonable portion of their resources in any particular type or character of loan or security authorized by the Texas Savings and Loan Act.

(b) When in the judgment of the Section, establishment of standards or changes in existing standards for investment are necessary, to establish standards through rules and regulations for investments by State associations in the investments authorized under the provisions of Section 5.11 of the Texas Savings and Loan Act,² which standards may also establish a limit in the amount which State associations may invest in any particular type or character of investment under said Subdivision to an amount or percentage based upon assets or reserves, permanent capital and undivided profits.

(c) To advise with the Savings and Loan Commissioner as to the forms to be prescribed for the filing of the annual statements with the Savings and Loan Department and the forms to be prescribed for the publication of the annual financial statements by State associations.

(d) To confer with the Savings and Loan Commissioner and with the President of the regional Federal Home Loan Bank of the district in which Texas State associations are members on general and special business and economic conditions affecting State associations.

(e) To request information and to make recommendations with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of the Savings and Loan Commissioner as relating to the savings and loan business, including recommendations as to legislation affecting such institutions, providing, that no information regarding the financial condition of any State savings and loan association obtained through examination or otherwise shall be divulged to any member of the Finance Commission, nor shall any member of the Finance Commission be given access to the files and records of the Department appertaining thereto; provided, further, however, that the Commissioner may disclose to the Savings and Loan Section any file or record pertinent to any hearing or matter pending before such Section.

Art. 342-114A. Consumer Credit Section

The Consumer Credit Section, through resolutions adopted by not less than two affirmative votes, may promulgate rules necessary for supervising the Consumer Credit Commissioner and for ensuring compliance with Title 79, Revised Statutes (Article 5069-1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 342-115. State Banking Board—Members—Duties—Rules of Practice—Appeal

1. The State Banking Board shall consist of three (3) members: the Banking Commissioner; who shall serve as Chairman; the State Treasurer; and a citizen of this State, who shall represent the interests of the general public. The citizen member shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for a two-year term expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year. Appointment of the citizen member to the Board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointee.

2. A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), by virtue of his activities for compensation in or on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the board may not serve as a member of the board or act as the general counsel to the board.

3. It is a ground for removal of the citizen member from the State Banking Board if the member:

(a) does not have at the time of appointment the qualifications required by Section 1 of this article for appointment to the Board;

(b) does not maintain during the service on the Board the qualifications required by Section 1 of this article for appointment to the Board; or

(c) violates a prohibition established by Section 2 or Subsection (c) of Section 6 of this article.

4. The validity of an action of the State Banking Board is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of the citizen member of the Board existed.

5. The State Banking Board shall hear and determine applications for State banking charters, and shall make such other determinations and perform such other duties as are provided elsewhere in this Code.

6. The State Banking Board shall adopt and publish such rules and procedural regulations as may be necessary to facilitate the fair hearing and adjudication of charter applications and such other business to come before it, provided, however, that such Board shall be governed by, and shall implement by appropriate regulations, the following rules of practice and procedure:

(a) Notwithstanding any law or statute to the contrary, the State Banking Board shall enter into executive session and shall meet in private for their personal deliberations on the following questions: the proposed officers and directors of proposed banks, and their character and fitness; the good faith of the applicants; and the evidence concerning applications for conversion of national banks to State banks.

(b) The minutes of the meetings of the Board shall set forth the names of persons appearing as applicants, as opponents, and their respective counsel, representatives, and expert witnesses, together with the substance of their testimony or presentations. The decision of the Board shall be evidenced in the minutes by the vote of each Board member in respect to each of the five statutory requisites for issuance of a bank charter, and no member shall abstain from voting unless he shall be disqualified for some ethical or personal reason, which ground of disqualification shall be stated in the record.

(c) No member of the Board shall be an officer, director or otherwise interested in the management or operation of any State or national bank or savings and loan association; provided further, that if any Board member shall own or otherwise control any shares of stock in any State or national bank, or savings and loan association, that he shall file with the chairman a list of all such stocks, describing the security, the quantity, and the value thereof, which list shall be a public record of the Banking Board.

(d) When either the State Treasurer or Commissioner is unable to personally attend an official meeting of the Board, the respective first deputy of such member may appear and vote in his stead, provided that the Board rules shall prescribe the deputy by name and title who is so authorized, and provided further, that two such deputies may not both sit as substitute members of the Board at the same meeting.

7. Any person, firm or corporation who is a party to, or is necessarily aggrieved by any final order, ruling or judgment of the State Banking Board shall have the right to appeal by filing a suit to set aside such order, ruling or judgment in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, within thirty (30) days following the date of rendition of such order, ruling or judgment. Provided, that in such cases the substantial evidence rule shall apply and govern the trial, as is the common practice in cases of appeal from administrative orders and as construed by the courts of this State. Pending final judgment of the court the order shall remain in effect, unless otherwise stayed or enjoined by the court upon proper application.

8. The State Banking Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished effective September 1, 1995.

9. The State Banking Board is subject to the open meetings act, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

10. The State Banking Board shall keep an information file about each complaint filed with the Board relating to a State bank. If a written complaint is filed with the Board relating to a State bank, the Board, at least as frequently as quarterly and until final disposition of the complaint, shall notify the parties to the complaint of the status of the complaint unless the notice would jeopardize an undercover investigation.

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-201a. Application of Sunset Act

The office of Banking Commissioner is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the office is abolished effective September 1, 1995.

Art. 342-202. Deputy Commissioner—Appointment—Qualifications—Duties—Compensation

The Commissioner shall appoint a Deputy Banking Commissioner who shall have the same qualifications as are required of the Commissioner and shall, during the absence or inability of the Commissioner, be vested with all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner shall receive such compensation as is fixed by the Finance Commission.

Art. 342-203. Departmental Examiner—Appointment—Qualifications—Compensation

The Commissioner shall appoint a Departmental Bank Examiner who shall be a bank accountant with not less than five (5) years experience as such or as an examiner in the Banking Department of Texas, the National Banking System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the Federal Reserve System. The Departmental Bank Examiner shall receive such compensation as is fixed by the Finance Commission.

Art. 342-204. Examiners—Assistant Examiners—Appointment—Qualifications—Compensation

The Commissioner shall appoint bank examiners and assistant bank examiners in sufficient number to fully perform his duties and responsibilities under the Code and the laws of this State. Such examiners shall have the qualifications required by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission. Each examiner and each assistant examiner shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the Finance Commission.

Art. 342-205. Savings and Loan Department—Savings and Loan Commissioner—Powers and Duties

(a) By and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the Finance Commission of Texas, by at least five (5) affirmative votes, two (2) of which must be by members of the Savings and Loan Section, shall elect a Savings and Loan Commissioner who shall serve at the pleasure of the Finance Commission and who shall be an employee of said Commission and subject to its orders and direction. The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall have had not less than five (5) years practical experience within the ten (10) years prior to his election in the executive management of a savings and loan association doing business in this State, provided that experience as Savings and Loan Supervisor, Deputy Savings and Loan Supervisor, Savings and Loan Examiner, or Savings and Loan Hearing Officer shall be deemed savings and loan experience within the meaning of this Section. The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall receive such compensation as is fixed by the Finance Commission but not in excess of that paid the Governor and such compensation shall be paid from funds of the Savings and Loan Department.

(b) The Savings and Loan Commissioner, subject to the approval of the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, shall appoint one or more Deputy Savings and Loan Commissioners, one of which shall be designated by the Savings and Loan Commissioner to be vested with all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the Savings and Loan Commissioner during the absence or inability of the Savings and Loan Commissioner. A Deputy Savings and Loan Commissioner shall have had practical experience in a savings and loan association doing business in this State or experience in the Savings and Loan Department in this State. The Savings and Loan Commissioner may also appoint a Hearing Officer or Officers, who shall be full time employees of the Savings and Loan Department, to conduct such investigations or public hearings as may be required by law of the Savings and Loan Commissioner. The Hearing Officer or Officers shall be vested for the purpose of such investigations or public hearings with the power and authority as the Savings and Loan Commissioner would have if he were personally conducting such investigation or public hearing, provided that the Hearing Officer or Officers shall not be authorized to make any order upon the final subject matter of such investigation or hearing; and provided, further, that the record of any investigation or public hearing conducted before the Hearing Officer may be considered by the Savings and Loan Commissioner in the same manner and to the same extent as evidence that is adduced before him personally in any such proceeding. The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall also appoint Savings and Loan Examiners. Each Deputy Savings and Loan Commissioner, the Savings and Loan Examiners, each Hearing Officer, and all other officers and employees of the Savings and Loan Department shall receive such compensation as is fixed by the Finance Commission which shall be paid from the funds of the Savings and Loan Department.

(c) The Savings and Loan Commissioner, each Deputy Savings and Loan Commissioner, each Hearing Officer, each Savings and Loan Examiner, and every other officer and employee of the Savings and Loan Department specified by the Finance Commission, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath of office and make a fidelity bond in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) payable to the Governor of the State of Texas, and his successors in office, in individual, schedule or blanket form, executed by a surety appearing upon the list of approved sureties acceptable to the United States Government. Each bond required under this Article shall be in the form approved by the Finance Commission. The premiums for such bonds shall be paid out of the funds of the Savings and Loan Department.

(d) Upon the appointment and qualification of a Savings and Loan Commissioner under this Act such Savings and Loan Commissioner shall in person or by and through the Deputy Savings and Loan Commissioner, Savings and Loan Examiners, or other officers of the Savings and Loan Department, supervise and regulate, in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Savings and Loan Commissioner together with the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, all savings and loan associations doing business in this State (except Federal Savings and Loan Associations organized and existing under Federal Law), and he shall have and perform all of the duties and shall exercise all of the powers theretofore imposed upon the Banking Commissioner and upon the Building and Loan Supervisor under and by virtue of the laws of this State with reference to savings and loan associations, and the Banking Commissioner shall be relieved of all responsibility and authority relating to the granting of charters and the regulation and supervision of such associations.

(e) The rule-making power of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission shall not be exercised unless notice of the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or amendment to existing rules or regulations has been given to all associations subject to regulation hereunder by certified mail, and, if within twenty (20) days after issuance of such notice, as many as five (5) associations request a hearing on such proposal, a public hearing shall be called by the Savings and Loan Commissioner at which any interested party may present evidence or argument relating to such proposal. After consideration of any relevant matter available from the files and records of the Banking Department or presented at any such hearing, any rule, regulation or amendment approved and adopted pursuant to such hearing shall be promulgated in written form and the effective date thereof fixed by the order of adoption and promulgation.

(f) The position of Building and Loan Supervisor is hereby abolished as of the effective date of this Act.

(g) The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall attend each meeting of the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, but he shall not vote. The Savings and Loan Section shall elect a Chairman in the same fashion and for the same term as required and provided for the Chairman of the Commission. Special meetings of the Section may be called by the Chairman, or any two (2) members of the Section.

(h) The Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission shall establish reasonable and necessary fees for the administration of the Texas Savings and Loan Act (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall collect all fees, penalties, charges and revenues required to be paid by savings and loan associations and shall from time to time as directed by the Finance Commission submit to such Commission a full and complete report of the receipts and expenditures of the Savings and Loan Department, and the Finance Commission may from time to time examine the financial records of the Savings and Loan Department or cause them to be examined. In addition, the State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Savings and Loan Department each fiscal year, and the actual costs of such audits shall be paid to the State Auditor from the funds of the Savings and Loan Department. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law of this State, beginning September 1, 1985, all sums of money paid to the Savings and Loan Department from all sources shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund to be known as the Savings and Loan Department Expense Fund and may be used only for the expenses incurred by the Savings and Loan Department. All expenses incurred by the Savings and Loan Department shall be paid only from such fund. The Finance Commission shall promulgate and adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to coordinate the operation of the Savings and Loan Department with the operation of the Banking Department and the Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner.

(i) Insofar as the provisions of this Section may conflict with any other provisions of The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended, or Senate Bill No. 111, Acts 1929, 41st Legislature,¹ page 100, Chapter 61, as amended,² or the Texas Savings and Loan Act of 1963, Chapter 113, Acts 58th Legislature, 1963, page 269, et seq., as amended,³ the provisions of this Act shall control; except that the terms "Savings and Loan," "Savings and Loan Association," and "Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission" as used herein are intended to and shall have the same meaning as the terms "Building and Loan" and "Building and Loan Association" and "Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission" as used in said Statutes, and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission is hereby renamed as the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas.

(j) The office of Savings and Loan Commissioner is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the office is abolished effective September 1, 1995.

(k) An officer or employee of the Savings and Loan Department may not be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the savings and loan industry.

(l) The Savings and Loan Department is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(m) The Savings and Loan Commissioner or his designee shall develop an intraagency career ladder program, one part of which shall be the intraagency posting of all nonentry level positions for at least 10 days before any public posting.

(n) The Savings and Loan Commissioner or his designee shall develop a system of annual performance evaluations based on measurable job tasks. All merit pay for Savings and Loan Department employees must be based on the system established under this section.

(o) The Savings and Loan Commissioner shall prepare information of consumer interest describing the regulatory functions of the Savings and Loan Department and describing the department's procedures by which consumer complaints are filed with and resolved by the department. The department shall make the information available to the general public and appropriate state agencies.

(p) The Savings and Loan Department shall keep an information file about each complaint relating to a licensee filed with the department.

(q) If a written complaint is filed with the Savings and Loan Department relating to a licensee, the department, at least as frequently as quarterly and until final disposition of the complaint, shall notify the parties to the complaint of the status of the complaint unless the notice would jeopardize an undercover investigation.

Section 1 of the amendatory act of 1961 provided:

"The purpose of this Act is to create a Savings and Loan Department of Texas, such Department to be composed of a Savings and Loan Commissioner and such deputies, examiners and other officers and employees as may be authorized by the Finance Commission of Texas; and to make such changes in the Texas Banking Code of 1943 as are necessary to accomplish the purpose of this Act."

Sections 7 and 12 of the 1983 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 7. The requirements under Article 5, Chapter II, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-205, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), that the Savings and Loan Commissioner develop an intraagency career ladder program and a system of annual performance evaluations shall be implemented before September 1, 1984. The requirement of that article that merit pay be based on the performance evaluation system shall be implemented before September 1, 1985."

"Sec. 12. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, this Act takes effect September 1, 1983.

"(b) Section 1 of this Act, to the extent that it relates to the deposit of money in the Savings and Loan Department expense fund and to the use of money in that fund, takes effect September 1, 1985. All funds in the custody of the Savings and Loan Commissioner or the Savings and Loan Department that are subject to Section (h), Article 5, Chapter II, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-205, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), on September 1, 1985, shall be transferred to the State Treasurer on that date for deposit to the credit of the Savings and Loan Department expense fund."

Art. 342-206. Oath and Bond of Commissioner and Others—Premiums

The Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner, the Departmental Examiner, the Liquidating Supervisor, and each examiner, assistant examiner, and special agent, the Building and Loan Supervisor and each building and loan examiner and each other officer and employee specified by the Commissioner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath of office and make a fidelity bond in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), payable to the Governor of the State of Texas, and his successors in office, in individual, schedule or blanket form, executed by a surety appearing upon the list of approved sureties acceptable to the United States Government. Any bond provided under this article shall be on a form approved by the Finance Commission. The premiums for such bonds shall be paid out of the funds appropriated for the operation of the Banking Department.

Art. 342-207. Commissioner—General Powers—Duties—Liabilities of Commissioner and Others—Defense by Attorney General

The Commissioner shall supervise and shall regulate, as provided in this Code, all state banks and shall enforce the provisions of this Code in person or through the Deputy Commissioner, the Departmental Examiner or any examiner. The Commissioner, each member of the Finance Commission, each member of the State Banking Board, the Deputy Commissioner, the Departmental Examiner, the Liquidating Supervisor, each examiner, assistant examiner, and special agent, the Building and Loan Supervisor, each building and loan examiner, and each other officer and employee of the State Banking Department shall not be personally liable for damages occasioned by his official acts or omissions except when such acts or omissions are corrupt or malicious. The Attorney General shall defend any action brought against any of the above mentioned officers or employees by reason of his official act or omission, whether or not at the time of the institution of the action the defendant has terminated his service with the Department.

Art. 342-208. Examination—May Administer Oaths—Fees—Disposition

Text as amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2929, ch. 499, § 6

The Commissioner shall examine each state bank annually and no more, unless the Commissioner deems additional examinations necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders, and to enforce the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943. The Commissioner may accept examinations of state banks by a federal agency in lieu of an examination required by this Article. The performance of bank services by a processor shall be subject to regulation and examination by the Commissioner to the same extent as if the services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises. The Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner and each examiner may administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject which he deems pertinent to the financial condition of any state bank. The Commissioner and the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall assess and collect a fee in connection with each examination, based on the bank's total assets, covering the cost of such examination, the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department, and the enforcement of the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, including but not limited to, the premium on the bond of the Commissioner and other officers and employees of the Banking Department, and such other fidelity or casualty insurance or coverage required or furnished pursuant to or in connection with the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, together with all other expenses of the Banking Department, which fee shall in no event be less than Fifty Dollars ($50) for each examination so made. All fees collected by the Commissioner shall be deposited and used in accordance with Section 3, Article 12, Chapter I, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-112, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 342-208. Examination—May Administer Oath—Fees—Disposition

The Commissioner shall examine each state bank annually and no more, unless the Commissioner deems additional examinations necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders, and to enforce the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943. The Commissioner may accept examinations of state banks by a federal agency in lieu of an examination required by this Article. The performance of bank services by a processor shall be subject to regulation and examination by the Commissioner to the same extent as if the services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises. The Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner and each examiner may administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject which he deems pertinent to the financial condition of any state bank. The Commissioner shall assess and collect a fee in connection with each examination, based on the bank's total assets, covering the cost of such examination, the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department, and the enforcement of the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, including but not limited to, the premium on the bond of the Commissioner and other officers and employees of the Banking Department, and such other fidelity or casualty insurance or coverage required or furnished pursuant to or in connection with the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, together with all other expenses of the Banking Department, which fee shall in no event be less than Fifty Dollars ($50) for each examination so made. The Commissioner may assess and collect a fee annually, in addition to the fee collected in connection with each examination, based on the bank's total assets, to cover the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department and the enforcement of the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943. All sums of money paid to the Banking Department under this Code shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund to be known as the Banking Department Expense Fund and may be used only for the administration of this Code.

Art. 342-208a. Examination of Nonbanking Affiliates

The Commissioner may examine the affiliates of a state bank to the extent it is necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders of the bank and to enforce the provisions of The Texas Banking Code of 1943. The Commissioner may conduct the examination in conjunction with any examination of the state bank or affiliate conducted by any other state or federal regulatory authority. For the purpose of this Article, "affiliate" means any bank holding company of which the state bank is a subsidiary and any nonbanking subsidiary of that bank holding company, as "subsidiary" is defined by Section 2 of the federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C., Sec. 1841(d), as amended).

Art. 342-209. Call Statements—Filing—Publication—Posting—Penalty

The Commissioner shall at least twice each year call upon each state bank to make and publish a statement of its financial condition as of the close of business on a date specified in such call. Such statements shall be upon such form and reflect such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner and shall be filed with the Commissioner within the time specified in the call. Such statement shall be published within the time specified in the call in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county of the bank's domicile, or if no such newspaper is published in said county, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in an adjacent county, and a publisher's certificate reflecting such publication shall be filed with the Commissioner within the time specified in the call. A copy of the latest called statement shall be kept posted in the lobby of the banking house at a point accessible to the public. Any state bank which fails to file or publish such statement or to file such publisher's certificate, within the periods herein prescribed in the call, or to post such notice, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to be collected by suit by the Attorney General on behalf of the Commissioner.

Art. 342-210. Information Confidential—Privileged—Exceptions

Subject to the provisions of Section 5 of Chapter 183 of the Forty-fourth Legislature of Texas (1935), page 461 (Article 489b, Section 5), and any other statutory provision of this State, all information obtained by the Banking Department relative to the financial condition of state banks other than call reports and profit and loss statements, whether obtained through examination or otherwise, except published statements, and all files and records of said Department relative thereto shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of said Department. Further provided that no such information shall be divulged to any member of the Finance Commission, nor shall any member of the Finance Commission be given access to such files and records of the Banking Department; provided, however, that the Commissioner may disclose to the Finance Commission, or either section thereof, or to the State Banking Board information, files and records pertinent to any hearing or matter pending before such Commission or either section thereof or such Board. Further provided that upon request, the Commissioner may disclose to a Federal Reserve Bank any information relative to its members, and shall permit it access to any files and records or reports relating to its members. Further provided that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this State or the United States, and to the best interest of the public, divulge such information to any other department of the State or National Government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

Art. 342-211. Violation of Duty by Commissioner and Others—Penalty

If the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department shall give advance notice of any call to be made pursuant to Article 9 of this chapter;¹ or divulge information or permit access to any file or record of the Banking Department in violation of Article 10 of this chapter;² or knowingly be or become indebted to, or financially interested in, any state bank, directly or indirectly; or purchase any asset belonging to any state bank in the hands of the Commissioner for purposes of liquidation, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall upon conviction be fined not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and forfeit his office or employment.

Art. 342-212. Complaints

1. The Commissioner shall prepare information of consumer interest describing the regulatory functions of the Banking Department and describing the Department's procedures by which consumer complaints are filed with and resolved by the Department. The Commissioner shall make the information available to the general public and appropriate state agencies.

2. The Commissioner shall keep an information file about each complaint filed with the Commissioner relating to any entity regulated by the Banking Department.

3. If a written complaint is filed with the Commissioner relating to any entity regulated by the Banking Department, the Commissioner, at least as frequently as quarterly and until final disposition of the complaint, shall notify the parties to the complaint of the status of the complaint unless the notice would jeopardize an undercover investigation. [Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2925, ch. 499, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 342-213. Intraagency Program; Employee Evaluation

1. The Commissioner or his designee shall develop an intraagency career ladder program, one part of which shall be the intraagency posting of all nonentry level positions for at least 10 days before any public posting.

2. The Commissioner or his designee shall develop a system of annual performance evaluations based on measurable job tasks. All merit pay for Banking Department employees must be based on the system established under this section.

3. The Banking Commissioner shall prepare and maintain a written plan to assure implementation of a program of equal employment opportunity whereby all personnel transactions are made without regard to race, color, disability, sex, religion, age, or national origin. The plans shall include:

(1) a comprehensive analysis of all the agency's work force by race, sex, ethnic origin, class of position, and salary or wage;

(2) plans for recruitment, evaluation, selection, appointment, training, promotion, and other personnel policies;

(3) steps reasonably designed to overcome any identified underutilization of minorities and women in the agency's work force; and

(4) objectives and goals, timetables for the achievement of the objectives and goals, and assignments of responsibility for their achievement.

The plans shall be filed with the Governor's office within 60 days of the effective date of this Act, cover an annual period, and be updated at least annually. Progress reports shall be submitted to the Governor's office within 30 days of November 1 and April 1 of each year and shall include the steps the agency has taken within the reporting period to comply with these requirements.

Section 7 of the 1983 Act provides:

"The requirements of Article 13, Chapter II, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-213, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), that the Banking Commissioner of Texas develop an intraagency career ladder program and a system of annual performance evaluations shall be implemented before September 1, 1984. The requirement that merit pay be based on the performance evaluation system shall be implemented before September 1, 1985."

Art. 342-214. Conflict of Interest

1. An officer or employee of the Banking Department may not be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking industry.

2. An officer or employee of the Banking Department may not be related within the second degree by affinity or consanguinity to a person who is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the banking industry.

3. Before the 11th day after the day on which an employee begins employment with the Banking Department, the employee shall sign a notarized affidavit stating that the employee has read the conflict of interest statutes applicable to employees of the Department.

Art. 342-305. Application for and Granting of Charters—Approval

A. Applications for a State bank charter shall be granted only upon good and sufficient proof that all of the following conditions presently exist:

- (1) A public necessity exists for the proposed bank;
- (2) The proposed capital structure is adequate;
- (3) The volume of business in the community where such proposed bank is to be established is such as to indicate profitable operation of the proposed bank;
- (4) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability and standing to render success of the proposed bank probable; and
- (5) The applicants are acting in good faith.

The burden to establish said conditions shall be upon the applicants.

B. Applicants desiring to incorporate a State bank shall file with the Banking Commissioner an application for charter upon official forms prepared and prescribed by the Commissioner. All persons subscribing to the capital stock of the proposed bank shall sign and verify under oath a statement of such stock subscribed, and which statement shall truly report the number of shares and the amount to be paid in consideration; the names, identity, title and address of any other persons who will be beneficial owners of such stock or otherwise share an interest or ownership in said stock, or who will pay any portion of the consideration; whether said stock is to be pledged as security for any loan; whether a loan has been committed or is intended for the subscription and purchase of said stock, and if so, the name and address of such person or corporation which is intended to loan funds for said purchase; the names of any cosigners, guarantors, partners or other persons liable for the repayment of any loan financing the purchase of such stock. Provided, however, that the verified statement of subscribers to stock shall be confidential and privileged from public disclosure prior to the final determination by the Board of the application for a charter, unless the Board shall find that public disclosure prior to public hearing and final determination of the charter application is necessary to a full development of the factual record.

C. The Commissioner shall require deposit of such charter fees as are required by law and shall proceed to conduct a thorough investigation of the application, the applicants and their personnel, and the charter conditions alleged. The actual expense of such investigation and report shall be paid by the applicants, and the Commissioner may require a deposit in an estimated amount, the balance to be paid in full prior to hearing of the application. A written report of the investigation shall be furnished to the State Banking Board and shall be made available to all interested parties at their request.

D. Upon filing of the application, the Commissioner shall promptly set the time and place for public hearing of the application for charter, giving the applicants reasonable notice thereof. Before the 10th day preceding the day on which the hearing is held, the Commissioner shall publish notice of the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the proposed bank is to be located. After full and public hearing the Board shall vote and determine whether the necessary conditions set out in Section A above have been established. Should the Board, or a majority of the Board, determine all of the said conditions affirmatively, then the application shall be approved; if not, then the application shall be denied. If approved, and when the Commissioner receives satisfactory evidence that the capital has been paid in full in cash, the Commissioner shall deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the Articles of Association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the Articles of Association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the Articles of Association.

E. The provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governing contested cases do not apply to charter applications filed for the purpose of assuming the assets and liabilities of any bank deemed by the Commissioner to be in an unsafe condition.

F. The financial statement of a proposed officer or director filed under this article is confidential and not subject to public disclosure.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-306. Recordation of Articles of Association and Amendments

The bank shall, upon receipt from the Commissioner of a certified copy of its articles of association and any amendment thereto, file the same with the County Clerk of the county of the bank's domicile for recordation in the Deed Records of said county.

Art. 342-307. Certificate of Authority—Posting—Revocation of Charter

No state bank may do business until it receives a certificate of authority from the Commissioner, which shall not be delivered until it has elected the officers and directors named in the application for charter or other officers and directors approved by the Commissioner; shall have adopted by-laws approved by the Commissioner; and shall have complied with all the other requirements of this Code relative to the incorporation of state banks.

If any state bank does not open and actually engage in business within three months after the granting of its charter, or conditional approval of application for charter, the Commissioner may so inform the State Banking Board which may in its discretion forfeit the charter or cancel its conditional approval of application for charter, without any judicial action.

Each state bank shall keep its certificate of authority posted in its lobby at a point accessible to the public.

Art. 342-308. Merger—Trust Powers

Any two or more state banks, or if national banks are hereafter authorized by the laws of the United States to participate in such a merger, any one or more state banks and any one or more national banks domiciled in this State may, with the approval of the Commissioner and the written consent of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital of each of said banks, be merged. Said merging banks shall file with the Commissioner:

(1) A statement of the plan of merger approved by the board of directors of each merging bank, by a majority vote of the qualified directors.

(2) Written consent to such merger executed by the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital of each merging bank.

(3) Certificate of merger stating the facts required by Article 4 of this chapter¹ and executed and acknowledged by a majority of the qualified directors of each merging bank.

The Banking Commissioner shall thereupon investigate the condition of the merging banks and if he finds that the state bank which will result from the merger (hereafter called the "resulting bank") will be solvent and its capital unimpaired; that it will have adequate capital structure; that such merger is to the best interest of the depositors, creditors and stockholders of the merging banks and of the public in general; that the distribution of the stock of the resulting bank is to be upon an equitable basis; and that the resulting bank has in all respects complied with the laws of this State relative to the incorporation of State banks, he may approve such merger, and, if he so approves, he shall deliver to the resulting bank a certified copy of the certificate of merger, which certificate shall constitute the charter and articles of association of the resulting bank, and shall be filed as provided in Article 6 of this chapter.² The resulting bank shall be deemed a continuation in entity and identity of each of the banks involved in the merger; shall be subject to all the liabilities, obligations, duties and relations of each merging bank; and shall without the necessity of any conveyance, assignment or transfer become the owner of all of the assets of every kind and character formerly belonging to the merging banks; further, provided, that if any merging bank shall at the time of the merger be acting as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, or in any other fiduciary capacity, the resulting bank shall, without the necessity of any judicial action or action by the creator of such trust, continue such office, trust or fiduciary relationship and shall perform all of the duties and obligations and exercise all of the powers and authority connected with or incidental to such fiduciary relationship in the same manner as though the resulting bank had been originally named or designated as such fiduciary.

The naming or designating by a testator, or the creator of a living trust, of any one of the merging banks to act as trustee, guardian, executor or in any other fiduciary capacity shall be considered the naming or designating of the bank resulting from the merger.

Art. 342-309. Reorganization—Incorporation to Take Over Business of Other Banks—Trust Powers

A state bank may be incorporated to take over the business of any incorporated bank or banks, state or national, as a step in the reorganization of such bank or banks, (which bank or banks, whether one or more, will be hereafter referred to as the "reorganizing bank"), and shall, subject to the provisions of this article, be authorized to purchase assets from the reorganizing bank and as consideration therefor, assume all liabilities, known or unknown, of the reorganizing bank, other than its liability to stockholders as such.

Persons desiring to incorporate a state bank under the provisions of this article shall proceed in the manner provided in Article 5 of this Chapter,¹ and in addition, shall file with the Commissioner:

(1) The proposed contract whereby the state bank is to purchase the assets from and assume the liabilities of the reorganizing bank, as above mentioned.

(2) Contracts, if any, whereby the proposed state bank is to purchase for cash the whole or any part of the right of any or all of the stockholders of the reorganizing bank to receive liquidating dividends upon liquidation of the reorganizing bank, which contracts shall expressly provide that they shall be binding and effective only in event the reorganizing bank is placed in voluntary liquidation within ten (10) days of the granting of the application for the charter applied for. Such contracts shall be executed on behalf of the proposed bank by the persons applying for the charter.

If the Commissioner, after investigation, determines that the proposed bank, if incorporated, will, after its capital has been paid in in full and all contracts above mentioned finally consummated, be solvent, its capital adequate and unimpaired, that such reorganization is to the best interest of the reorganizing bank, its depositors, creditors and stockholders and the public in general, and that upon incorporation such bank will have in all other respects complied with the law, he shall recommend to the State Banking Board that the charter be granted.

If the State Banking Board concurs in the findings of the Commissioner, it shall grant the application, and the Commissioner shall deliver a certified copy of the articles of association in the manner provided in Article 5 of this chapter. Provided, however, that the Commissioner shall not deliver a certificate of authority until the contracts above mentioned have been fully consummated, and the requirements of Article 7 of this chapter² have been met. The state bank so incorporated shall be deemed a reorganization of the reorganizing bank, and a continuation of such bank in entity and identity, subject to all of its liabilities, obligations, duties and relations, save and except its liability to stockholders as such, and shall pay and perform each and every obligation, duty and liability of the reorganizing bank in exactly the same manner as the reorganizing bank was obligated to do; further provided that if the reorganizing bank was at the time of incorporation of the new state bank, named or acting as guardian, trustee, executor, administrator or in any other fiduciary capacity, such state bank shall, without the necessity of any judicial action, or action by the creator of such trust, continue the trusteeship or other fiduciary relation and perform all of the duties and obligations of the reorganizing bank and exercise all the powers and authority relative thereto; and neither the reorganization of such bank, nor any liquidation of such bank in connection therewith, shall be deemed a resignation or refusal to act. The naming or designating by a testator or the creator of a living trust of the reorganizing bank to act as trustee, guardian, executor, or in any other fiduciary capacity shall be considered the naming or designating of the bank resulting from the reorganization.

The new state bank shall give notice of its assumption of the liabilities of the reorganizing bank by publishing notice thereof once each week for a period of two (2) weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county of its domicile, or in event no such newspaper is published in said county, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in an adjacent county. The first notice shall be published within ten (10) days after the delivery of the certificate of authority to such bank.

Art. 342-310. Purchase of Assets of Another Bank—Disbursing Agent

Any state bank may, with the consent of the Commissioner, purchase the whole or any part of the assets of any other state bank or of any national bank domiciled in this State, and may hold the purchase price and any additional funds delivered to it by the selling bank in trust for or as a deposit to the credit of the selling bank. The purchasing bank may act as agent of the selling bank in disbursing the funds so held in trust or on deposit by paying the depositors and creditors of the selling bank, provided that if the purchasing bank acts under written contract of agency which specifically names each depositor and creditor and the amount to be paid each, and if such agency is confined to the purely ministerial act of paying such depositors and creditors the amounts due them as determined by the selling bank and reflected in the contract of agency and involves no discretionary duties or authority other than the identification of the depositors and creditors named, and if such contract is approved by the Commissioner, then the purchasing bank may rely upon such contract of agency and the instructions included therein, and shall not be in any way liable or responsible for any error made by the selling bank in determining its liabilities, the depositors and creditors to whom such liabilities are due, or the amounts due such depositors and creditors; nor liable or in any way responsible for any preference which may result from the payments made pursuant to such contract of agency and the instructions included therein. Further provided that, in event the selling bank should, at any time after such sale of assets, be closed and come into the hands of the Commissioner or, if a national bank into the hands of a receiver, then the purchasing bank shall pay to the Commissioner as statutory liquidator or to the receiver of such national bank the balance of the funds held by it in trust or on deposit for the selling bank, not theretofore paid to the depositors and creditors of the selling bank, and shall thereupon stand discharged of any and all liabilities, obligations or responsibilities to the selling bank, its receiver, the Commissioner as its statutory liquidator, or to the depositors, creditors or stockholders thereof. Provided further that payment to any depositor or creditor of the selling bank of the amount to be paid him under the terms of the contract of agency may be effected by the purchasing bank opening an account in the name of such depositor or creditor, crediting such account with the amount to be paid the depositor or creditor under the terms of such agency contract, and mailing a duplicate deposit ticket evidencing such credit to such depositor or creditor at his address as reflected by the records of the selling bank, or delivering it to him personally, and the relation of debtor to creditor shall thereupon arise between the purchasing bank and such depositors and creditors to the extent and only to the extent of the credit reflected by such deposit tickets. Further provided, that if any such depositor or creditor checks upon the credit so created, or if he does not within sixty (60) days of the mailing or the personal delivery of such deposit ticket protest the transaction and demand payment from the selling bank, he shall be deemed to have ratified the transaction and to the extent of the credit so created to have accepted the obligation of the purchasing bank as reflected by said deposit ticket in satisfaction of the obligation of the selling bank, and the obligation of the selling bank to the extent of such credit shall be deemed paid and satisfied within the meaning of this article.

Art. 342-311. Existing Corporations—Powers Retained

All corporations which on the effective date of this Act¹ were subject to the provisions of Title 16 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,² or any chapter thereof, shall retain the powers provided in their charters.

² Article 342 et seq. (repealed).

Art. 342-312. Amendment of Articles of Association—Rights of Stockholders upon Increase in Capital—Stock Option Plans

Subject to the provisions of this Code, any state bank may amend its articles of association for any lawful purpose.

If the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, at any regular meeting of stockholders, or any special meeting called for that purpose, vote to amend the charter, the board of directors shall prepare, execute in the manner provided for the execution of articles of association, and file with the Commissioner an amendment to the articles of association. If the Commissioner finds that the amendment is not violative of law and does not prejudice the interest of depositors and creditors or the public, he shall approve such amendment and deliver to the bank a certified copy thereof, and said amendment shall thereupon become effective; provided, however, that if a state bank does not have the power to receive demand deposits, no amendments of its articles of association adopting any power provided under Subsection (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f) of Article 1 of this Chapter¹ and no amendment changing the domicile of any state bank shall be effective until approved by the State Banking Board in the manner provided for the approval of an original application for charter. Any state bank may amend its articles of association to extend its corporate existence for a perpetual period or for any period of years.

Each stockholder of a state bank shall be entitled to his proportionate part of any increase of stock effected out of surplus funds or undivided profits, and shall be entitled to subscribe for his proportionate share of any capital increase to be paid in cash; provided, however, the bank may arrange for the disposition of fractional shares by those entitled thereto or pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined. Each stockholder or his assignee, in event he elects to assign such rights of subscription, shall subscribe for and pay the amount of such subscription to the corporation within ten (10) days after the stockholders have adopted such amendment, otherwise the board of directors may allocate the unsubscribed or unpaid portion of the increase among the other stockholders or otherwise as they deem to the best interest of the bank.

With prior approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, shares of stock in a bank, which are created by a capital increase, may be allocated to and purchased by the bank out of its surplus which is not certified or out of its undivided profits to be held by the bank for fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option or bonus plan, whereby officers or employees, or both, of the bank are given options to purchase or a bonus of shares of the bank's capital stock at a specified price, subject to the following requirements and restrictions:

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five percent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of other stockholders. Employee benefit plans, including employee stock option plans, stock bonus plans, restricted stock option or bonus plans, or any other plans, the sole purpose of which is to compensate employees of the bank for services rendered to the bank, authorized under this Article, may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five percent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1853, ch. 722, §§ 2 to 6 amended art. 342-401, 342-406, 342-504, 342-505 and 4591d; § 7 of the 1967 Act transferred the provisions of art. 4591d to art. 342-910a; §§ 8 and 9 thereof provided:

"Sec. 8. If any provision, Section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 9. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-313. Conversion of State Bank into National Bank

The owners of record of two-thirds of the capital of any solvent state bank may, by vote or written consent, authorize its officers and directors to take such action as may be necessary under the laws of the United States to convert it into a national bank, provided, however, that the state bank shall not cease to be a state bank subject to the supervision of the Commissioner until (1) the Commissioner has been given written notice of the intention to convert for at least thirty (30) days, (2) such bank has published notice thereof at least once a week for four (4) weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of its domicile, or, if no such newspaper is published in the county, in an adjacent county, (3) the bank has filed with the Commissioner a transcript of the conversion proceedings, sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors and a publisher's certificate showing publication of the notice above provided, and (4) such bank has received a certificate of authority to do business as a national bank.

Art. 342-313a. Conversion of National Bank into State Bank

A national bank or association located in this state which follows the procedures prescribed by the laws of the United States to convert into a state bank, shall be granted a certificate of incorporation in the state when the State Banking Board finds that the bank meets the standards as to location of office, capital structure and business experience of officers and directors for the incorporation of a state bank. In considering the application for conversion from a national bank into a state bank the Board shall consider and determine that the new bank meets with all the requirements of a new state bank applicant. Included also in the application for conversion and to be considered along with the other information submitted shall be the terms of the transition from a national bank into a state bank which shall also show that the provisions of Public Law 706 of the 81st Congress of the United States¹ have been fully satisfied. Such conversion shall be governed by the provisions of this Article and shall not be governed by Article 9, now codified as Article 342-309, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

Art. 342-314. Change of Domicile

(a) A state bank may change its domicile to a location no more than thirty (30) miles from where it is located or to any place within the city of its domicile. No state bank may change its domicile without receiving the prior approval of the State Banking Board.

(b) Applications for a change of domicile shall be granted by the State Banking Board only upon good and sufficient proof that all the following conditions exist:

(1) a public necessity exists for the bank at the proposed location;

(2) proposed capital structure is adequate;

(3) volume of business in the community where the bank is to be located is such as to indicate profitable operation of the bank at that location;

(4) the proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability, and standing to render success of the bank probable; and

(5) the applicants are acting in good faith.

(c) If the proposed relocation of the bank would effect an abandonment of all or part of the community presently served by the bank, the bank must establish that the abandonment is consistent with the original determination of public necessity for the establishment of a bank at that location.

Art. 342-401. Transfer of Stock—Notice to Commissioner

Shares of stock in a state bank shall be personal property and transferable only upon its books, and it shall be the duty of the officers of a state bank to transfer such stock upon its books at the request of the transferee, supported by a transfer in writing or other legally effective transfer.

If title to more than ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares of stock outstanding is transferred, the transferee shall, within fifteen (15) days thereafter, give the Commissioner written notice of the date of the transfer, the number of shares transferred and the consideration therefor, and the names and addresses of the persons or corporations from whom and to whom the stock was transferred. Where the title to the stock so transferred is to be held by the transferee in the capacity of agent or trustee, the transferee shall, within fifteen (15) days after title to the stock is transferred, give the Commissioner written notice of the name and address of each principal or each beneficiary having an interest therein. Information obtained hereunder by the Commissioner shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department, except that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States, and to the best interest of the public divulge such information to any department of the state or national government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

Any transferee who willfully and knowingly fails or refuses to give the Commissioner notice as required by this Article, shall, upon conviction, be fined in an amount not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months, or both.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-401a. Transfer of Stock—Review by Commissioner

A. No person may acquire any voting security of a state bank or of any corporation or other entity owning voting securities of a state bank if, after the acquisition, the person would own or possess the power to vote twenty-five per cent (25%) or more of the voting securities of the bank unless an application is filed with the Commissioner for his review of the proposed transaction and for his action, if any, as provided in this Article.

B. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the Commissioner and shall be made under oath. The application shall, except to the extent expressly waived by the Commissioner, contain the following information:

(1) the identity, personal history, business background and experience, and financial condition of each person by whom or on whose behalf the acquisition is to be made, including a description of the managerial resources and future prospects of each acquiring party and a description of any material pending legal or administrative proceedings in which he is a party;

(2) the terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(3) the identity, source, and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition, a description of the transaction, the names of the parties, and arrangements, agreements, or understandings with such persons;

(4) any plans or proposals which any acquiring party making the acquisition may have to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets or merge it with any company, or to make any other major changes in its business or corporate structure or management;

(5) the terms and conditions of any offer, invitation, agreement, or arrangement under which any voting security will be acquired and any contract affecting such security or its financing after it is acquired; and

(6) such other information that the Commissioner by rule shall require to be furnished in an application as well as any information that the Commissioner orders to be included in the particular application being filed.

The applicant shall pay the appropriate filing fee when he files the application. A "person" proposing to acquire voting securities subject to the provisions of this Article includes an individual, two (2) or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination of the foregoing, and the information required by the Commissioner may be required of each member of the group, as directed by the Commissioner. Information obtained by the Commissioner under this Article is confidential and may not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department, except that the Commissioner may in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States and to the best interest of the public, divulge such information to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or federal government, and provided that notice of the application, its date of filing, and the identity of all parties thereto shall be submitted to the Texas Register by the Commissioner upon receipt of the said application and shall be published in the next issue thereof following the date such information is received.

C. The Commissioner shall issue an order denying an application if he finds that:

(1) the acquisition would substantially lessen competition or would in any manner be in restraint of trade and would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of a combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the banking industry in any part of the State, unless he also finds that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed acquisition are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of acquisition in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served and that the proposed acquisition is not in violation of any law of this State or the United States;

(2) the poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank being acquired;

(3) plans or proposals to liquidate or sell the bank or its assets are not in the best interest of the bank;

(4) the experience, ability, standing, competence, trustworthiness, or integrity of the applicant is such that the acquisition would not be in the best interest of the bank;

(5) the bank will not be solvent, have adequate capital structure, or be in compliance with the laws of this State after the acquisition;

(6) the applicant has failed to furnish all of the information pertinent to the application reasonably requested by the Commissioner; or

(7) the applicant is not acting in good faith.

D. If an application filed under this Article is not denied by the Commissioner within thirty (30) days after it is filed, the transaction may be consummated. The Commissioner may, before the expiration of the thirty-day period, give the applicant written notice that the application will not be denied, in which case the transaction may be consummated. Any agreement entered into by the applicants and the Commissioner as a condition that the application will not be denied is enforceable against the bank and is considered for all purposes an agreement under the provisions of this Code.

E. If the Commissioner issues an order denying an application, the applicant is entitled to a hearing if he requests one in writing no later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the day the application is filed or the fifteenth (15th) day after the day the application is denied, whichever date is later. After hearing the matter, the Commissioner shall, within thirty (30) days, enter a final order either affirming his denial or withdrawing his denial of the application. An applicant may not appeal the Commissioner's denial of an application or order affirming his denial until a final order is entered. Any applicant herein shall have the right to appeal such final order to the district court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, against the Banking Commissioner of Texas as defendant. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply, but such action shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending. The Commissioner shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder. The filing of an appeal pursuant to this Article shall not stay the order of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant.

F. This Article does not apply to:

(1) the acquisition of securities in connection with the exercise of a security interest or otherwise by way of foreclosure on default in the payment of a debt previously contracted for in good faith, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of such foreclosure to the Commissioner;

(2) transactions governed by Article 8, 9, or 10 of Chapter III of this Code;¹

(3) transactions requiring the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1841, et seq., and 26 U.S.C.A., Sec. 1101, et seq.);

(4) acquisitions by the owner of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the voting securities of the bank; or acquisitions of less than ten per cent (10%) of the voting securities of the bank in any one (1) year by the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more, but not more than fifty per cent (50%), of those voting securities, provided that such acquisition does not result in the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more acquiring fifty per cent (50%) or more of the voting securities;

(5) acquisitions or transfers by operation of law or by will or intestate succession, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of acquisition to the Commissioner; or

(6) any transaction which the Commissioner by rule or order may exempt as not being contemplated by the purposes of this Article or the regulation of which is not necessary or appropriate to achieve the objectives of this Article.

No provision of this Section shall excuse or diminish the notice requirements provided elsewhere in this Code.

G. No provision of this Article shall be construed to prevent the Commissioner from investigating, commenting upon, or seeking to enjoin or set aside any transfer of voting securities, whether the transfer is included within this Article or not, if the Commissioner deems the transfer to be against the public interest.

H. If it appears to the Commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of this Article or any rule or order of the Commissioner adopted under it, the Attorney General on behalf of the Commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the violation and for any other equitable relief as the nature of the case may require.

I. Any person who willfully and knowingly makes a materially false or misleading statement to the Commissioner with respect to the information required herein may be fined in an amount not exceeding Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000), or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed one (1) year, or both. This provision is cumulative of other remedies contained herein.

J. The Commissioner by rule shall adopt a schedule of fees for the filing of applications and the holding of hearings. The schedule may be graduated so that those applications and hearings that are more difficult to review or administer will require a larger fee. An application fee is not refundable on denial of the application, but the Commissioner may refund a portion of the fee if the application is withdrawn before he completes review of it. Fees collected under this Article shall be retained by the Department and may be used only for expenses of the Department.

Art. 342-402. Stockholders' Meetings—Quorum—Voting

The stockholders of each state bank shall hold one regular meeting each year at the time prescribed in its bylaws and such special meetings as may be deemed necessary after notice as prescribed in the bylaws. At all stockholders' meetings the owners of a majority of the capital stock, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned from time to time without notice to the stockholders. Each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by such stockholder, which vote may be cast in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing filed among the records of the bank. Stock owned of record by an estate shall be voted by its personal representative, and stock held in a fiduciary capacity shall be voted by the fiduciary, provided, however, that in the election of directors, shares of its own stock held solely by a state bank in any such capacity, whether registered in its own name in such capacity or in the name of its nominee, shall not be voted by the bank unless under the terms of the will or trust, the manner in which such shares shall be voted may be determined by a donor or beneficiary of the will or trust and unless such donor or beneficiary actually directs how such shares shall be voted, and shares of its own stock held by state bank and one or more persons in any such capacities may be voted by such other person or persons in the same manner as if such person or persons were the sole personal representative or sole trustee. Whenever shares of stock cannot be voted by reason of being held by the bank as sole personal representative or sole trustee, such shares shall be excluded in determining whether matters voted upon by the shareholders were adopted by the requisite percentage of shares.

Section 2 of the 1977 Act provides:

"Any provision or part of a provision in the Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-101 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which is in conflict with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict only."

Art. 342-403. By-Laws—Adoption and Amendment

The stockholders of a state bank shall adopt by-laws which may be amended at any regular annual meeting of the stockholders, or, if the purpose of the meeting is stated in the notice, at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose. Neither the by-laws nor any amendment thereto shall be effective until filed with the Commissioner and approved by him.

Art. 342-404. Directors—Number—Change of Number—Advisory Directors

A State bank shall have not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-five (25) directors, the majority of whom shall be residents of the State of Texas. The number of directors may be changed from time to time within the limits above prescribed, without amendment of the charter, by resolution adopted at any regular meeting of the stockholders or any special meeting of stockholders called for the purpose of electing directors, which resolution shall be spread on the minutes of the meeting, and a certified copy shall be filed with the Commissioner, for which filing no fee shall be charged.

The board of directors with the approval of the stockholders may elect an advisory board of directors in any number designated by resolution of the stockholders, which advisory directors shall not be required to comply with Article 5 of this Chapter¹ and shall not have the right to vote as directors of the bank.

Art. 342-405. Directors—Qualifications

No person shall serve as director of a state bank when (1) the bank holds a judgment against him, or (2) holds a charged-off note against him, or (3) he has been convicted of a felony.

Art. 342-406. Directors' Election—Term—Failure to Elect—Vacancy—Failure to Fill Vacancy—Addition of Directors

Each state bank shall, at its regular annual meeting of stockholders, or at some adjournment thereof, or at a special meeting of stockholders called for such purpose, elect directors who shall serve until the next regular annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors have been elected and have qualified. If any state bank fails to elect directors within (60) days after its regular annual meeting, the Commissioner may, after ten (10) days notice by mail, call a meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing directors, and if the stockholders do not elect directors at the meeting so called, the Commissioner may close the bank and liquidate it pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VIII of this Code.¹

Any vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, and any director so appointed shall hold his office until the next election; provided if the vacancy reduces the number of directors to less than that required by Article 4 of this Chapter,² it shall be filled within thirty (30) days from the date it occurs and upon the failure to fill such vacancy within the above prescribed time limit, the Commissioner may close the bank and liquidate it pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VIII of this Code.

A majority of the full board of directors of a state bank, when authorized by resolution adopted at any regular meeting of stockholders or at any special meeting of stockholders called for such purpose, may at any time increase the number of directors of a state bank and appoint persons to fill the resulting positions and the persons so appointed shall serve until the next regular annual meeting of stockholders; provided, however, that the board of directors shall not increase the number of directors by more than two (2) during any one year and the total number of directors shall never exceed the maximum number now or that may hereafter be authorized by law. The resolution of the stockholders, as herein provided, and any action of the board of directors pursuant thereto, shall be spread upon the minutes of the stockholders or directors meeting, as the case may be, and a certified copy shall be filed with the Commissioner, for which filing no fee shall be charged. This provision shall be cumulative of all existing laws relating to increasing the number of directors of a state bank and the filling of the positions thereby created.

² Article 342-404.

Art. 342-407. Directors—Oath and Acceptance

Prior to taking office each director in a state bank shall take oath that he accepts the position as director; that he will not violate, nor knowingly permit any officer, director or employee of the bank to violate, the laws of the State of Texas in the conduct of the business of the bank; and that he will diligently perform his duties as director. Such affidavit shall be sworn and subscribed to before a notary public, spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting, and a duplicate original thereof filed with the Commissioner.

Art. 342-408. Directors—Meetings—Chairman—Quorum

The directors of a State bank shall hold at least one regular meeting each month as prescribed in the by-laws. Special meetings may be called in such manner and upon such notice as may be prescribed in the by-laws. The president of the bank shall be a qualified member of the board of directors and shall be the chairman thereof, but the board may designate a director in lieu of the president to be chairman of the board and to perform such duties as may be designated by the board. A majority of the qualified directors shall constitute a quorum.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 144, ch. 97, subch. IV, art. 8; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 894, ch. 412, § 7, eff. May 30, 1959.]

Art. 342-409. Directors—Duties—Approval of Loans and Expenses—Election, Term and Compensation of Officers

Subject to the by-laws the board of directors of a state bank shall supervise the conduct of its business and may promulgate rules and regulations relative thereto and prescribe the duties and responsibilities of the officers and employees. At each regular meeting the board shall review and approve or disapprove each loan and investment made and item of expense incurred since the last meeting; and shall examine and take appropriate action upon the over-draft, suspense and bills of exchange accounts. The board may designate committees from among its members to perform these duties and approve or disapprove the committees' reports at each regular meeting. Such approval, disapproval or other action of the board shall be spread upon its minutes.

By a majority vote of its qualified members, the board shall elect a president, one or more vice presidents, and a cashier or secretary, and such other officers of the bank as may be prescribed by the by-laws or deemed necessary by the directors and fix their compensation; provided, however, that the president shall be a member of the board of directors. Each officer of the bank shall serve only during the pleasure of the board, and any contract for a fixed term of employment shall be void.

Art. 342-410. Directors, Officers and Employees—Liability—Reimbursement for Expenses

Except as otherwise provided by statute, directors and officers of state banks shall be liable for financial losses sustained by state banks to the extent that directors and officers of other corporations are now responsible for such losses in equity and common law. Any officer or director who does not approve of any act or omission of the board, and desires to relieve himself from any personal liability for such act or omission shall promptly announce his opposition to such act or omission and cause such opposition to be spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting. If for any reason such opposition is not spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting, he shall promptly report the facts to the Commissioner.

Any person may be indemnified or reimbursed by a state bank, through action of its board, for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of said bank. The board may authorize the purchase by the bank of insurance covering the indemnification of directors, officers or employees. If there is a compromise of such an action or threatened action, there shall be no indemnification or reimbursement for the amount paid to settle the claim or for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such claim without the vote, or the written consent, of the owners of record of a majority of the stock of the bank. No such person shall be indemnified or reimbursed if he has been finally adjudged to have been guilty of, or liable for, willful misconduct, gross neglect of duty, or a criminal act. This article shall not bar any right or action to which such person would be entitled at common law or any other statute of this State.

Art. 342-411. Officers—Transfer of Securities—Bills Payable—Rediscunts—Sale of Notes

No officer of a state bank shall endorse, pledge, assign, transfer, rediscount or in anywise dispose of any note, bond, security or other obligation held by the bank, nor create any bills payable, unless he shall have previously been duly authorized to do so by the board of directors, as reflected by the minutes of its meeting.

Art. 342-411a. Exemption from Securities Law

Sec. 1. In this article, "eligible person" means a person who is an officer, director, or employee of a state bank or national bank domiciled in the state with fewer than five hundred (500) shareholders or of a bankholding company with fewer than five hundred (500) shareholders that owns the majority of the voting shares of a bank domiciled in the state.

Sec. 2. An eligible person is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities issued:

(1) by the bank or bank holding company of which that person is an officer, director, or employee;

(2) by a bank holding company that owns a majority of the voting shares of the bank of which that person is an officer, director, or employee; or

(3) by a bank the majority of the voting shares of which are owned by the bank holding company of which that person is an officer, director, or employee.

Sec. 3. An eligible person may not be compensated for services performed under the exemption provided by this Article.

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 348, ch. 160, amending various provisions of The Securities Act (art. 581-1 et seq.), provides in § 10:

"This Act does not affect Section 11.01, Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or Article 11a, Chapter IV, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as added (Article 342-411a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

Section 2 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"This Act applies only to a transaction occurring on or after the effective date of this Act. A transaction occurring before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect when the transaction occurred, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 342-412. Officers and Directors—Cease and Desist—Removal—Appeal

1. If the Commissioner finds that an officer, director or employee of a State bank, or the State bank itself acting through any authorized person, has committed any of the following violations or practices:

(a) violates the provisions of this Code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(b) refuses to comply with the provisions of this code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks; or

(c) wilfully neglects to perform his duties, or commits a breach of trust or of fiduciary duty.

(d) Commits any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the bank's business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency; or

(e) refuses to submit to examination under oath; or

(f) conducts business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner; or

(g) violates any conditions of its charter or of any agreement entered with the Banking Commissioner or the Banking Department; then in such event the Commissioner shall give notice in writing to such bank and the offending officer, director or employee, stating the particular violations or practices complained of, and the Commissioner shall call a meeting of the directors of said bank and lay before them such findings and demand a discontinuance of such violations and practices as have been found.

2. If the Commissioner shall find that an order to cease and desist from such actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then at the directors' meeting above provided or within thirty (30) days thereafter the Commissioner may serve on the State bank, its board of directors, and any offending officers, directors or employees, a written order to cease and desist from the violations and practices enumerated therein and to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to correct the conditions resulting from such violations or practices. Said cease and desist order shall be effective instantaneously if the Commissioner finds that immediate and irreparable harm is threatened to the bank, its depositors or stockholders; otherwise, said order shall state the effective date, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank or directors shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order shall be final. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, who shall thereafter certify to the Commissioner in writing that each has read and understood the order.

3. If the Commissioner subsequently finds by examination or other credible evidence that the offending officer, director or employee has continued such violations or practices as previously charged and found by the Commissioner, after notice and demand made under Paragraph 1 above, and further finds that removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of such bank and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, then the Commissioner may serve such officer, director or employee with an order of removal from office. Said order shall state the grounds for removal with reasonable certainty and shall state the effective date of removal, not less than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of the notice thereof. Unless the bank, the directors or the person removed shall file a notice of appeal with the Banking Section of the Finance Commission within ten (10) days after such delivery or mailing of notice, whichever is the case, the order of removal shall be effective and final and said person shall thereafter be prohibited from further holding office or employment by, or participating in the affairs of, the said State bank. A copy of said order shall be entered upon the minutes of the directors, and an officer shall acknowledge receipt of such order and certify to the Commissioner that such person has been removed from office.

4. Upon the timely filing of an appeal the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall set a time and place for hearing such appeal, giving reasonable notice thereof to the appellants. The Banking Section may adopt such rules or procedure as may be necessary to govern the fair hearing and adjudication of the questions appealed, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Appeal from Cease and Desist Order. If the Banking Section finds that appellants have committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner, and further finds that an order to cease and desist from said actions is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

(b) Appeal from Order of Removal. If the Banking Section finds that appellant has committed one or more of the violations or practices charged by the Commissioner sufficient to justify his removal, and further finds that an order of removal from office is necessary and in the best interests of the bank involved and its depositors, creditors and stockholders, the said order of the Commissioner shall be affirmed and made final and effective. If the findings are otherwise, the Banking Section shall set aside the order of the Commissioner.

5. After a cease and desist order or an order of removal becomes effective and final, should a State bank or its board of directors or any duly authorized officer of said bank fail or refuse to comply with such an order, then the Commissioner may, upon notice, assess a penalty against said State bank in an amount not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per day for each day the bank is in violation of said order of the Commissioner or the Banking Section of the Finance Commission. Failure to remit any penalty so assessed shall subject the bank to a suit for collection by the Attorney General of Texas to be instituted in the District Court of Travis County, Texas. In addition to the remedy above provided the Attorney General of Texas, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner, may bring suit in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, against any bank in violation of the final orders of the Commissioner or the Banking Section to enjoin the further violation of said orders and the violations and practices charged by the Commissioner as the grounds for such orders.

6. Orders to cease and desist, orders for removal from office, and all copies of notices, correspondence or other records in the Banking Department relating to such orders concerning such violations or unsound practices shall be confidential and shall not be publicized or revealed to the public except in any lawsuit authorized by this Code or by other lawful order or authority.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-413. Officers, Employees, Agents—Embezzlement, Abstraction and Misapplication—Penalty

Any officer, employee or agent of a state bank who embezzles, fraudulently abstracts or wilfully misapplies money, funds, credit or other asset of such bank shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than ten (10) years, or both.

Art. 342-414. Officers, Employees, Directors—False Entries and Statements—Penalty

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly makes a false entry upon the books or records or in any report or statement of such bank, or knowingly gives a false answer to any question propounded to him while being examined under oath by the Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner, or any Examiner, shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than ten (10) years, or both.

Art. 342-415. Officers, Directors, Employees, Stockholders—Destruction of Bank Records—Penalty

Any officer, director, employee or stockholder of a state bank who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or information from the Banking Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner or any Examiner, or for the purpose of suppressing any evidence material to any pending or anticipated suit or legal proceeding, abstracts, removes, destroys, or conceals any book or record of such bank shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both. Destruction or disposition of any book or record of a state bank after the period which it is required to be preserved by any rule or regulation of the Banking Section under Article 13 of Chapter I¹ shall raise a rebuttable presumption that this article has not been violated.

Art. 342-416. Officers, Employees—Certification of Check Without Funds—Penalty

Any officer or employee of a state bank who certifies any check drawn upon such bank, if the drawer does not have sufficient credit in his checking account to pay such check, unless he acts in good faith with reason to believe that the credit is sufficient, shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-417. Officers, Directors and Employees—Accepting Bonuses—Penalty

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who demands, or directly or indirectly receives a bonus, commission or other consideration on account of the making of a loan or investment or the purchase of any asset by such bank shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

342-512. Investment in a Bank.

342-513. Bank Subsidiary Corporations.

Art. 342-501. Domicile—Furniture and Fixtures—Depreciation—Exception

(a) No state bank shall, without prior written consent of the Commissioner, invest an amount in excess of sixty per cent (60%) of its four primary capital accounts in a domicile (including land and building) and furniture and fixtures.

(b) A state bank shall assign to the portion of its domicile represented by the land on which the banking house is located an original book value of:

(1) the cost of the land when purchased; or

(2) if the land was contributed to the bank, the fair market value of the land at the time of the contribution as determined by the Commissioner.

(c) If the land representing a portion of a state bank's domicile was purchased by or contributed to the bank before January 1, 1982, the bank shall assign an original book value to the land in accordance with Section (b) of this article.

(d) A state bank may depreciate the portion of its domicile represented by the land on which the banking house is located.

(e) The portion of the domicile represented by the banking house shall be depreciated each year not less than two and one-half per cent (2½%) of its cost to the bank until that portion of the domicile is charged down to One Dollar ($1), and the furniture and fixtures shall be depreciated each year not less than ten per cent (10%) of their cost to the bank until said account is charged down to One Dollar ($1), provided that the Commissioner may permit a lesser percentage to be charged off during any year.

Art. 342-501A. Parking Areas—Customers and Employees

A bank may own or lease land in the vicinity of such bank as an automobile parking area exclusively or predominantly for the use of its customers and employees, provided that such land shall not be used for any other purpose. Such real estate shall become a part of the bank's domicile and shall be subject to the provisions of Article 1, Chapter V, Title 16 of The Texas Banking Code of 1943.¹

Art. 342-502. Other Real Estate—Depreciation—Exceptions

(a) No State bank shall acquire real estate, other than its domicile, except in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of indebtedness, or in the ordinary course of the collection of loans and other obligations owing the bank, or for the use of the bank in future expansion of its banking house.

(b) If a State bank acquires the real estate for use in future expansion of its banking house, or if it acquired real estate for that purpose before January 1, 1982, the bank shall:

(1) assign an original book value to the portion represented by land in accordance with Section (b), Article 1, of this Chapter;¹ and

(2) depreciate the portion represented by a building or other improvement in accordance with the requirements for a banking house provided by Section (e), Article 1, of this Chapter.

(c) If a State bank acquires real estate other than for the use in future expansion of its banking house, the bank may not assign an original book value to such real estate in excess of its reasonable value at the time of acquisition, and such real estate shall be depreciated each year ten per cent (10%) of such original book value until charged down to twenty-five per cent (25%) of its original book value; provided that the Commissioner may permit a lesser percentage to be depreciated during any year.

(d) The original book value of real estate acquired for future expansion of the banking house shall be included in determining whether the State bank has invested an amount in excess of sixty per cent (60%) of its four primary capital accounts in a domicile (including land and building) and furniture and fixtures under the provisions of Article 1 of this Chapter.

(e) If such real estate acquired for the use of the bank in future expansion of its banking house is not improved and occupied as a banking house within three (3) years from the date of its acquisition, the bank shall sell or otherwise dispose of such property; provided that the Commissioner may for good cause shown grant an extension of time for a period of one year or more.

Art. 342-503. Engaging in Commerce—Exceptions

No state bank shall invest its funds in trade or commerce by buying and selling goods, wares, merchandise or chattels or by owning or operating an industrial plant except when necessary to avoid a loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided that to the extent that national banks may now or hereafter have authority to do so, a state bank may become the owner and lessor of personal property acquired upon the specific request and for the use of a customer and may incur such additional obligations as may be incident to becoming an owner and lessor of such property.

Rental payments collected by the bank under the lease agreement shall be considered to be rent and shall not be deemed to be interest or compensation for the use of money loaned.

The aggregate of the bank's investment in properties so acquired shall not exceed limits prescribed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission as they may be adjusted from time to time, and property so acquired shall not be retained more than six (6) months beyond the duration of the original lease period agreed to by the customer for whom the property was acquired, except with written permission of the Banking Commissioner.

Art. 342-504. Real Estate Loans—Limitations—Exceptions

State banks are authorized to make loans upon the security of real estate and invest their funds in obligations secured by real estate subject to such rules and regulations as may be imposed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission of Texas relating to margin requirements, repayment programs or terms, and the aggregate in the various types of classes of real estate loans; provided, however, that no state bank shall make a loan upon security of real estate or invest its funds in obligations secured by real estate unless:

1. The security is a lien upon such real estate or the loan or investment made by the bank is wholly guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs under Title III of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act of 1944,¹ as amended from time to time.

2. Such loan or obligation is supported by:

(a) either an attorney's opinion or a mortgagee's title insurance policy;

(b) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(c) a written appraisal of such real estate signed by an appraiser; and

(d) if the improvements situated upon such real estate constitute an appreciable portion of the security, adequate coverage insuring the interest of the bank against loss by fire and tornado.

3. The limitations, restrictions and requirements of this Article shall not apply to a loan or obligation insured by the Federal Housing Administration, or to any loan or obligation which the United States of America has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest through a federal agency or instrumentality, or to security taken to prevent loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith.

4. Construction loans:

(a) The following loans made to finance the construction of buildings shall not be considered as loans secured by real estate within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans, provided that such loans shall be secured by a first lien on the real estate upon which the building or buildings are being constructed:

(1) loans having maturities which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission, made to finance the construction of industrial or commercial buildings on which there are valid and binding agreements entered into by financially responsible lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings, and

(2) loans made to finance the construction of residential or farm buildings having maturities which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission from time to time.

(b) Such loans or obligations shall be supported by:

(1) either an attorney's opinion, a mortgagee's title insurance policy or a mortgagee's title insurance policy binder;

(2) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(3) either a written appraisal of such real estate, signed by an appraiser, or a valid and binding agreement entered into by a financially responsible lender or lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings; and

(4) insurance coverage upon the building or buildings under construction in an amount adequate to insure the interest of the bank against loss by fire, tornado and other casualties.

(c) No state bank shall invest its funds in, or be liable on, any such loans covered by this Section in an amount in excess of that prescribed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission.

5. Loans made to established industrial or commercial businesses in which the Housing and Home Finance Administrator or the Small Business Administration cooperates or purchases a participation under the provisions of Section 102 or 102a of the Housing Act of 1948, as amended,² or of the Small Business Act of 1953,³ shall not be subject to the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article upon loans secured by real estate.

6. Loans made to businesses where the bank looks for repayment out of the operations of the borrower's business, relying primarily on the borrower's general credit standing and forecast of operations, with or without other security, but wishes to take a mortgage on the borrower's real estate as a precaution against contingencies, shall not be considered as real estate loans within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans.

7. Loans may be made to finance the construction of buildings during periods of construction which shall be fixed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission from time to time upon the security of:

(a) a purchase contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Public Buildings Purchase Contract Act of 1954⁴ or the Post Office Department Property Act of 1954,⁵ or an assignment thereof irrevocably binding the Administrator of General Services or the Postmaster General to commence payments at a specified date not later than one month from the date of completion and acceptance of the building and to continue such payments at least at annual intervals until the loan has been paid in full, and

(b) a bid and performance bond with one or more financially responsible sureties thereon in favor of the General Services Administration or the Post Office Department, jointly with the lender, without complying with the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article concerning loans secured by real estate, even though the lender may hold additional security in the form of a mortgage, deed of trust, title to the premises involved, or other such lien on such premises.

Art. 342-506. Own Stock—Security—Acquisition—Disposition—Investment Certificates—Maturity

No state bank shall acquire a lien by pledge or otherwise on its shares of stock nor purchase or acquire title to such stock, except to prevent loss upon a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided, however, that with the approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, a bank may purchase and carry as treasury stock its own shares for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option or bonus plan authorized by Article 12, Chapter III of this code.¹

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five per cent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of the other stockholders.

If a state bank acquires a lien upon or title to its stock under the exception first provided for in this Article, it shall not permit such lien to continue for more than two (2) years, nor shall it hold title to such stock for more than one (1) year. Provided that the stock on which the bank has a lien plus the stock held by it as owner shall not exceed, in par value, the aggregate of all surplus accounts and undivided profits of said bank; provided, however, that any provision of this Code to the contrary notwithstanding, a state bank may make loans, charge or collect in advance interest thereon at a rate not exceeding that permitted by law, together with other charges permitted by this Code, and take as collateral thereof its investment certificates, issued simultaneously with the granting of the loans or otherwise, requiring weekly, semi-monthly, monthly or other regular periodic installments to be paid upon such certificates; such loans, subject to acceleration for specified causes, shall mature when the withdrawal value of the investment certificate or certificates securing the same equals the face amount of the note evidencing the loans, and shall be comparable in form and principle of operation to sinking-fund loans which building and loan associations are now authorized to make under the laws of this State.

Art. 342-507. Limit of Liability of Any One Borrower—Exceptions—Penalty

No state bank shall permit any person or any corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus. The phrase "indebted or in any other way liable" shall be construed to include liability as partner or otherwise. The above limitation shall not apply to the following classes of indebtedness or liability:

1. Liability as endorser or guarantor of commercial or business paper discounted by or assigned to the bank by the actual owner thereof who has acquired it in the ordinary course of business.

2. Indebtedness evidenced by banker's acceptances, bills of exchange or drafts drawn against actually existing values and secured by a lien upon goods in transit with shippers' order bills of lading or comparable instruments attached.

3. Indebtedness evidenced by notes or other paper secured by liens upon agricultural products, manufactured goods, or other chattels in storage in bonded warehouses or elevators with warehouse or elevator receipts attached, cotton yard tickets, signed by a bonded weigher, when the value of the security is not less than one hundred twenty-five per cent (125%) of the indebtedness, and the bank's interest therein is adequately insured against loss, with insurance policies or certificates of insurance attached.

4. Deposit in a reserve depository, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

5. Indebtedness of another state or national bank arising out of short-term loans when such loans are made out of the excess cash reserve funds of the lending bank and have settlement periods of less than one week.

6. Indebtedness arising out of the daily transaction of the business of any clearing house association in this State.

7. Bonds and other legally created general obligations of any State or of any county, city, municipality or political subdivision thereof and indebtedness of the United States of America, or any instrumentality or agency of the United States Government.

8. Any portion of any indebtedness which the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest.

9. Liability under an agreement by a third party to repurchase from the bank an indebtedness that the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest, to the extent that the agreed repurchase price does not exceed the purchase price agreed to or value guaranteed by the United States, its agency or instrumentality.

10. Indebtedness secured by obligations which are issued by or guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by the United States and the market value of which is one hundred per cent (100%) of such indebtedness at all times.

11. Indebtedness fully secured by a segregated deposit account in the lending bank.

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly violates or participates in the violation of any provision of this Article shall upon conviction be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State Penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 148, ch. 97, subch. V, art. 7. Amended by Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 532, ch. 294, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 894, ch. 412, § 10, eff. Art. 342-508. Loan Fees Prohibited—Exception

No bank shall charge or collect any loan fee or any other charge, by whatever name called, for the granting of a loan unless authorized by law. Provided, however, a bank may require an applicant for a loan or discount to pay the cost of any abstract, attorney's opinion or title insurance policy, or other form of insurance, and filing or recording fees or appraisal fees. Expenses necessary or proper for the protection of the lender, and actually incurred in connection with the making of the loan may be charged. In all loan transactions in which the amount loaned is $100 or more and the loan period is one month or more, a bank may charge any borrower the reasonable value of services rendered in connection with the making of any loan, including the drawing of notes, the taking of acknowledgments and affidavits, the preparation of financial statements, and the investigation or analysis of the financial responsibility of the borrower or any endorser, surety or co-signer, in an amount agreed upon, but not to exceed $15 for each loan transaction, which shall be in lieu of all interest and other charges which could otherwise be collected in connection with the loan. No bank shall induce or permit any person, or husband and wife, to be obligated directly or indirectly under more than one loan contract under this article at the same time for the purpose, or with the effect, of obtaining a higher authorized charge than would otherwise be permitted. The charge authorized herein shall not apply to any renewal or extension of an obligation on which the charge has been previously imposed; provided, however, that such renewal or extension may bear interest at the rate that is otherwise provided by law. The charge shall not apply to a loan transaction wherein the borrower applies all or a portion of the loan proceeds to discharge a prior loan made by the same lender to the same borrower and in connection with which the above charge was imposed.

Art. 342-509. Loans to and Transactions with Officers and Directors—Penalty

Without the prior approval of a majority of the board of directors spread upon its minutes, no state bank shall: (1) permit any officer thereof to become indebted to it, directly or indirectly, in any sum whatsoever, nor any director who is not an officer thereof to become indebted to it, directly or indirectly, in a sum exceeding ten per cent (10%) of its capital and certified surplus, or (2) sell any of its assets to any of its officers or directors, or purchase any asset in which any officer or director has any interest. No director shall be qualified to vote on any resolution that relates to any loan or the purchase or sale of any asset in which transaction such director is interested. Any officer or director who knowingly participates in or permits any violation of any of the provisions of this article shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or confined in the State Penitentiary for not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-509a. Stockholders, Officers and Employees—Authority to Take Acknowledgments

Art. 342-513. Bank Subsidiary Corporations

(a) Unless otherwise permitted by rule or regulation promulgated by the banking section: (1) a state bank may invest not more than ten per cent (10%) of its capital and certified surplus in a subsidiary corporation; and (2) no state bank shall invest more than five per cent (5%) of its total assets in subsidiary corporations.

(b) A subsidiary corporation may perform only those functions that a state bank is authorized to perform under the laws of this state.

(c) The banking section, through resolution adopted by not less than four affirmative votes, may promulgate general rules and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and statutes of this state, and from time to time amend same, which rules and regulations shall be applicable alike to all subsidiary corporations.

CHAPTER SIX. SURPLUS, DIVIDENDS, LIABILITIES, UNINVESTED TRUST FUNDS, PREFERENCES, RESERVES, DEBENTURES AND WITHDRAWALS

Art.

342-601. Surplus—Certified Surplus—Mandatory Transfers.

342-602. Liability Limit—Exceptions.

342-603. Pledge of Assets—Securing Depositors.

342-604. Uninvested Trust Funds—Segregation.

342-605. Preferences.

342-606. Reserve Depositories—Amount Carried.

342-607. Capital Notes or Debentures—Capital Defined.

342-608. Limitation Upon Withdrawals.

Art. 342-601. Surplus—Certified Surplus—Mandatory Transfers

Each state bank shall maintain an account to be known as "surplus," any part of which account may, from time to time, be certified, which portion of the surplus shall be known as "certified surplus," before declaring any dividend each state bank shall transfer to "certified surplus" an amount not less than ten percent (10%) of the net profits of such bank earned since the last dividend was declared; provided, however, that this article shall not require a transfer to certified surplus of a sum which would increase the certified surplus to more than the capital of the bank. Except to absorb losses in excess of undivided profits and uncertified surplus, such certified surplus shall not be reduced without the prior written consent of the Commissioner. The Board of Directors shall, in connection with each transfer to or reduction in the certified surplus, promptly file with the Commissioner its certificate reflecting such transfer or reduction. The certified surplus accounts maintained by state banks on the effective date of this Act,¹ shall be deemed "certified surplus" within the purview of this article.

¹ Effective 90 days after May 11, 1943, date of adjournment.

Art. 342-602. Liability Limit—Exceptions

No state bank shall without the prior written consent of the Commissioner be indebted or liable for an amount in excess of its capital and certified surplus except on account of the following:

1. Money on deposit with or collected by it.

2. Bills of exchange, bankers acceptances, checks or drafts drawn against money actually on deposit to the credit of the bank or due to said bank.

3. Liability to stockholders on account of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits.

4. Liabilities arising under or pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Act,¹ the Federal Reserve Act,² the Federal Agricultural Credit Act of 1923,³ or pursuant to any or all amendments to any or all of said acts.

5. Indebtedness evidenced by investment certificates or certificates of indebtedness.

6. Liability on endorsement of notes, bills of exchange or other evidences of indebtedness actually owned by said bank and sold or endorsed with or without recourse, provided said sale or endorsement shall have been previously approved by the board of directors of said bank.

7. Liabilities to other banks arising out of short-term loan transactions when such liabilities are incurred for the purpose of fulfilling cash reserve requirements and have settlement periods of less than one week.

Art. 342-603. Pledge of Assets—Securing Depositors

No state bank shall pledge, or create any lien upon, any asset or in any way secure the repayment of any deposit except when specifically authorized to do so by law, except that it may pledge its assets to secure a deposit of or by the United States Government, the State of Texas, or any agency or instrumentality of either. This article does not prohibit the pledge of assets to secure the repayment of money borrowed. Any act, deed, conveyance, pledge or contract in violation of this article shall be void.

Art. 342-604. Uninvested Trust Funds—Segregation

Unless the trust instrument provides otherwise, funds received in trust by a state bank awaiting investment shall be carried in a separate account and shall not be used by the bank in the conduct of its business, unless it shall first set aside in the trust department United States government bonds or other securities eligible under the laws of this State for the investment of funds by guardians or trustees of a market value equivalent to the amount so used. In event of the liquidation of such bank the owners of the funds held in trust for investment shall have a lien upon the bonds or other securities so set apart.

Art. 342-605. Preferences

No state bank shall transfer, assign, convey, mortgage, or create any lien upon any asset belonging to it or make any payment in money or otherwise upon any indebtedness after the commission of any act of insolvency or in contemplation thereof, or while such bank is insolvent, with a view to prevent the application of its assets in accordance with the provisions of this Code, and any transfer, assignment, conveyance, mortgage, payment or other act in violation of this article shall be void.

Art. 342-606. Reserve Depositories—Amount Carried

The Commissioner may approve as Reserve Depositories banks incorporated by any state or the United States with not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) capital. No State bank shall deposit or loan an amount in excess of twenty per cent (20%) of its capital, certified surplus and deposits in any one reserve depository.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-607. Capital Notes or Debentures—Capital Defined

With the prior written approval of the Commissioner any state bank may, at any time, through action of its board of directors and without requiring any action of its stockholders, issue and sell its capital notes or debentures, which shall be subordinate and subject to the claims of depositors and may be subordinated and subjected to the claims of other creditors or the holders of investment certificates.

With the prior approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock and the prior written approval of the Commissioner any state bank may issue and sell its convertible capital notes or debentures, which shall be subordinate and subject to the claims of depositors and may be subordinated and subjected to the claims of other creditors or the holders of investment certificates.

The term "capital" as used in this article relating to solvency of state banks shall be construed to embrace the amount of outstanding capital notes and debentures legally issued by any state bank and sold by it to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other corporation or individual. The capital stock of any such bank may be deemed to be unimpaired when the amount of capital notes and debentures as represented by cash or sound assets exceeds the impairment as found by the Commissioner. Before any such capital notes or debentures are retired or paid by the bank, any existing deficiency of its capital (disregarding the notes or debentures to be retired) must be paid in cash, to the end that the sound capital assets shall at least equal the capital stock of the bank. Provided, in the event the net profits are not sufficient to meet the interest and retirement payments on the capital notes or debentures issued prior to the effective date of this Act, the Commissioner may require the bank's stockholders to pay into the bank in cash an amount sufficient to meet the deficiency. Such capital notes or debentures shall in no case be subject to any assessment. The holders of such capital notes or debentures shall not be held individually responsible as such holders for any debts, contracts, or engagements of such bank, and shall not be held liable for assessments to restore impairment in the capital of such bank.

Art. 342-608. Limitation Upon Withdrawals

Upon the request of any state bank which is suffering from or threatened with unusual and excessive withdrawals due to financial conditions, panic or crisis, the Commissioner may, if he deems such action necessary in order to prevent unnecessary loss to or preference among the depositors and creditors of such bank, and to preserve the financial structure of the bank and its usefulness to the community, limit the right of withdrawal by or payment to depositors and creditors, and other persons to whom the bank is liable, provided, however, that such limitations shall be uniform in their application to each class of liability, and shall not defer any person in his right to full payment or withdrawal for more than ten (10) days.

CHAPTER SEVEN. DEPOSITORY CONTRACTS

Art.

- 342-701. Depository Contract—Limitation of Actions—Amendments to Contracts.
 342-702. Brokered Funds Defined—Reporting—Commissioner's Authority.
 342-703. Deposits—Discharge from Liability on Public Funds.

Art.

- 342-704. Deposits—Discontinuance or Reduction of Interest.
 342-705. Adverse Claims to Deposits—Disclosure as to Amount Deposited—Subpoenas and Production.
 342-706. Joint Deposits—Minors, Married Women—Trustees.

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, enacting the Uniform Commercial Code, repealed Articles 1 to 6, 11 and 12 of Subchapter VII of the Banking Code of 1943 [former arts. 342-701 to 342-706, 342-711 and 342-712 respectively], effective June 30, 1966. Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721 was itself repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopting the Business & Commerce Code effective September 1, 1967. However, the latter Act specifically provided that the repeal did not affect the prior operation of the 1965 Act or any prior action taken under it. See, now, Business and Commerce Code, § 4.101 et seq.

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2875, ch. 947, §§ 1, 2, effective August 30, 1971, amended Subchapter VII of the Banking Code of 1943 by adding Article 2 [art. 342-702], and by renumbering Articles 7, 7a to 10 [formerly numbered arts. 342-707, 342-707a to 342-710] as Articles 1, 3 to 6 [arts. 342-701, 342-703 to 342-706], respectively.

Art. 342-701. Depository Contract—Limitation of Actions—Amendments to Contracts

Sec. 1. The depository contract between a bank and a depositor, whether evidenced by deposit tickets, signature cards, notices provided for in Section 2 of this article, resolutions, rules and regulations, or otherwise shall be deemed a contract in writing for all purposes. The cause of action on any such depository contract, other than a time deposit, shall not accrue until the bank has denied liability and given the depositor notice thereof. Provided that the delivery to the depositor of a statement of his account or pass book reflecting the balance, or the mailing of a statement of such account (with or without cancelled items) to the depositor at his address as reflected by the books of the bank, shall constitute a denial of any liability on the part of the bank in excess of the balance reflected by such statement or pass book, and notice thereof to the depositor, and, to the extent of any excess over the balance reflected shall accrue the cause of action.

Sec. 2. A bank at its option may amend a depository contract or incorporate new terms or provisions therein by mailing written notice to the depositor of such amendments or new terms or provisions, such notice (or enclosures therewith) to include (i) the text of each new or amended term or provision and (ii) a statement of the depositor's right to terminate the account prior to the effective date of such new or amended term or provision (which effective date shall not be less than 30 days after the date of mailing the notice) without becoming bound by such new or amended term or provision; provided that the effective date of new or amended terms or provisions need not be delayed for such period (and notice of a right to terminate need not be given) if such amendment or addition is made to comply with law or regulation authorizing such earlier effective date, is made to change the rate of interest to be paid by the bank on an interest bearing account (if such change is otherwise made in accordance with the depository contract or other applicable law or regulation), or is made for reasons relating to security of accounts. Such notice may be given by separate mailing addressed to the depositor at the address reflected by the records of the bank or may be included with the statement of account and mailed or delivered to the depositor in the manner otherwise prescribed for the mailing or delivery of statements of account.

Sec. 3. The procedure for amending depository contracts provided for in Section 2 of this article shall not limit nor impair but shall be in addition to and cumulative of any procedures otherwise permitted by applicable law for establishing or amending depository contracts.

Section 3 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"This Act shall not restrict or apply to amendment of depository contracts, addition of new terms or provisions to depository contracts, or disclosure or production of deposits or of records of accounts and other bank records where such amendment, addition, or disclosure is made under or in substantial compliance with applicable federal laws or regulations. This Act shall not restrict or apply to the use or disclosure by a bank of information or records pertaining to deposits, accounts, or bank transactions where such use or disclosure is made in good faith in the usual course of the financial business of the bank, is made by the bank in the course of the litigation affecting its interests, or is made with express or implied consent of the depositor or customer. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the investigation or prosecution of criminal offenses."

Art. 342-702. Brokered Funds Defined—Reporting—Commissioner's Authority

For the purpose of this article, "brokered funds" are funds accepted by a bank on which a fee in money is paid or agreed to be paid, directly or indirectly, either to the depositor of such funds or a third party by such bank or a third party, in addition to any interest to be paid under the contract of repayment.

In the event that any bank shall accept brokered funds as defined herein, it shall forthwith notify the Commissioner in writing of the acceptance of such funds, the depositor and his address, any loans, if any, made in consideration of or conditioned upon said deposit, and listing the borrower, his address, and any collateral securing said loan, and such other information concerning said deposit and loan as the Commissioner may require and on such forms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner may further require any bank to report such brokered funds and loans as above described, if any, which have been accepted or made previous to the effective date of this Act.

Provided, however, should the Commissioner find from examination or other evidence that a bank is being operated in an unsafe manner, or insolvency of the bank is threatened, or the continued acceptance of brokered funds will threaten the liquidity of the bank, then the Commissioner shall have the authority to act as follows:

(a) to issue an order to cease and desist from further accepting any brokered funds, or otherwise to regulate the amount of such funds which may be accepted or the rate of interest to be paid, and

(b) to issue a written order stating that after the effective date thereof all brokered funds accepted by said bank shall be and are hereby classified as the issuance, sale and negotiation of "notes, bonds, and other evidence of indebtedness" by the bank as provided in Paragraph (h), Article 1, Chapter III of such Code,¹ and not as deposits received by the bank as provided in Paragraph (a), Article 1, Chapter III of the Banking Code of 1943 as amended.² In the event that brokered funds are accepted after issuance of such order, it shall be the duty of said bank to state in the contract of repayment that in the event of liquidation of the issuing bank, the owner and holder of such contract of repayment shall be considered and treated as a common creditor and not as a depositor of the bank, and a cash reserve of ten percent (10%) of the total outstanding brokered funds shall be maintained against such funds, in the same manner as cash reserves are maintained against demand deposits and time deposits.

Provided further, that the Commissioner may exercise any or all of the powers above provided, which shall be cumulative of any other powers and remedies provided elsewhere in this Code.

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1971 act provide:

"Sec. 3. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 4. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-703. Deposits—Discharge from Liability on Public Funds

Any bank or depository with whom there may be deposited funds of the State or of any county, city, school district, improvement district or any other municipal subdivision or district or public agency, upon the payment of any warrant, check or draft drawn by the qualified public official or officials authorized to make withdrawals of such funds or any part thereof, shall be fully discharged of any further liability on account of the deposit covered by such withdrawals.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 832, ch. 450, § 1. Renumbered by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2876, ch. 947, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 342-704. Deposits—Discontinuance or Reduction of Interest

Any bank heretofore or hereafter contracting to pay interest on any deposit or investment certificate without a definite maturity date may reduce the rate of, or discontinue its liability for, interest by posting prior notice thereof for at least thirty (30) days in the lobby of its banking house. This article shall not affect any contractual provision relative to the reduction of the rate of, or the discontinuing of liability for, interest.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 154, ch. 97, subch. VII, art. 8. Renumbered by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2876, ch. 947, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 342-705. Adverse Claims to Deposits—Disclosure as to Amount Deposited—Subpoenas and Production

Sec. 1. No bank shall be required to recognize the claim of any third party to any deposit, or withhold payment of any deposit to the depositor or to his order, unless and until the bank is served with citation or other appropriate process issuing out of a court of competent jurisdiction in connection with a suit instituted by such third party for the purpose of recovering or establishing an interest in such deposit; neither shall any bank be required to disclose or produce to third parties, or permit third parties to examine the amount deposited by any depositor or records of accounts or other bank records except (i) where the depositor or owner of such deposit or other bank customer as to whom records of accounts or other bank records are to be disclosed is a proper or necessary party to a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction in which event the records pertaining to the deposits, accounts, or other bank transactions of such depositor, owner, or customer shall be subject to disclosure or (ii) where the bank itself is a proper or necessary party to a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction or (iii) in response to a subpoena issued by a legislative investigating committee of the Legislature of Texas, or (iv) in response to a request for examination of its records by the Attorney General of Texas pursuant to Article 1302-5.01 et seq. of the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act.

Sec. 2. Unless ordered otherwise by a court of competent jurisdiction, before disclosure, production, or examination may be required under Section 1 of this article, the agency, body, or party issuing or obtaining the order, subpoena, or request for the disclosure, examination, or production of records of deposits or accounts and other bank records shall (1) give notice of such order, subpoena, or request to the depositor or bank customer by personally serving the depositor or customer with a copy thereof or by mailing a copy thereof to the depositor or customer by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least 10 days preceding the date when compliance with the order, subpoena, or request is required, and (2) certify to the bank (at the time the order, subpoena, or request is served or delivered to the bank) that the depositor or bank customer has been served with or has been mailed a copy of the order, subpoena, or request as required herein. A bank shall be entitled to recover reasonable costs of reproduction which it incurs in complying with orders, subpoenas, and requests for the disclosure, examination, or production of records of deposits or accounts and other bank records. The bank may notify its customer or depositor (unless ordered otherwise by a court of competent jurisdiction) of its receipt of any subpoena, order, or request for production.

Sec. 3. Each customer or depositor to whom notice of an order, subpoena, or request for disclosure, examination, or production of records of deposits or accounts or other bank records may, prior to the date specified therein for disclosure, examination, or production, file in an appropriate district court of the State of Texas a motion to quash the order, subpoena, or request or for protective order and shall make personal service of such motion on the party, agency, or body issuing or obtaining such order, subpoena, or request and on the bank prior to the date for disclosure, examination, or production. Any motion to quash or for protection shall be verified. Failure to file and serve such motion to quash or for protection shall constitute consent for all purposes to disclosure, production, or examination made pursuant to this article.

Section 3 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"This Act shall not restrict or apply to amendment of depository contracts, addition of new terms or provisions to depository contracts, or disclosure or production of deposits or of records of accounts and other bank records where such amendment, addition, or disclosure is made under or in substantial compliance with applicable federal laws or regulations. This Act shall not restrict or apply to the use or disclosure by a bank of information or records pertaining to deposits, accounts, or bank transactions where such use or disclosure is made in good faith in the usual course of the financial business of the bank, is made by the bank in the course of the litigation affecting its interests, or is made with express or implied consent of the depositor or customer. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the investigation or prosecution of criminal offenses."

Art. 342-706. Joint Deposits—Minors, Married Women—Trustees

A bank may pay a present or future deposit, payable to or on the order of (a) any one of two or more persons, or (b) a minor, married woman, or other person under disability, or in form payable to or on the order of one person, for the benefit of or in trust for another, without the terms of the trust being disclosed to the bank in writing, to any one of such joint depositors (before or after the death of the other joint depositor or depositors), or to such minor, married woman, or other person under disability, or, on the death or disability of the trustee, to the beneficiary of such trust.

- 342-816. Deposit of Funds by Commissioner in Banks—Preferred Payment.

Art. 342-801. Exclusive Methods of Liquidation

The methods of liquidation of state banks as provided for in this Code shall be exclusive and no state bank shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, nor shall any court appoint a receiver for any state bank. Provided, however, nothing in this article shall prohibit the liquidation of a state bank by The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as provided in Article 489b, Acts 1935, Forty-fourth Legislature of Texas, Page 459, Chapter 183.

Art. 342-801a. Supervision of Banks—Conservatorship Proceedings—Review—Procedure

Definition of Terms

Sec. 1. As used in this article, the following words, terms and phrases include the meanings, significance or application described in this section, except as another meaning is clearly requisite from the purposes or is otherwise clearly indicated by the context:

(a) In respect of a bank, "unsafe condition" shall mean and include, and the conditions to which this article is applicable include, but are not limited to, any one or more of the following circumstances or conditions.

(1) if a bank's capital is impaired, or impairment of capital is threatened, or

(2) if a bank violates the provisions of this code or any other law or regulation applicable to State banks, or

(3) if a bank conducts any fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of the bank's business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency, or

(4) if a bank conducts business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or

(5) if a bank violates any conditions of its charter or any agreement entered with the Banking Commissioner or the Banking Department.

(b) "Exceeded its Powers" shall mean and include, but is not limited to, the following circumstances:

(1) if a bank has refused to permit examination of its books, papers, accounts, records, or affairs by the Banking Commissioner of Texas, his deputy, or duly commissioned examiner, or

(2) if a bank has neglected or refused to observe an order of the Commissioner to make good, within the time prescribed, any impairment of its capital.

(c) "Consent" includes and means a written agreement by the bank to either supervision or conservatorship under this article.

Conditions for Supervision by Commissioner

Sec. 2. If upon examination or at any other time it appears to or is the opinion of the Banking Commissioner that any bank is in an unsafe condition (as defined herein) and its condition is such as to render the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to its depositors and creditors, or if such bank appears to have exceeded its powers (as defined herein) or has failed to comply with the law, or if such bank gives its consent (as defined herein), then the Banking Commissioner shall upon his determination (a) notify the bank of his determination, and (b) furnish to the bank a written list of the Commissioner's requirements to abate his determination, and (c) if the Commissioner makes a further determination to supervise he shall notify the bank that it is under the supervision of the Banking Commissioner and that the Commissioner is invoking the provisions of this article. If placed under supervision such bank shall comply with the lawful requirements of the Banking Commissioner within such time as provided in the notice of the Commissioner, subject however to the provisions of this article. In the event of such bank's failure to comply within such time the Banking Commissioner may appoint a conservator as hereafter provided.

Prohibited Acts During Period of Supervision

Sec. 3. During the period of supervision the Commissioner may appoint a supervisor to supervise such bank and may provide that the bank may not do any of the following things during the period of supervision, without the prior approval of the Commissioner or his supervisor:

- (1) Dispose of, convey or encumber any of its assets;
- (2) Withdraw any of its bank accounts;
- (3) Lend any of its funds;
- (4) Invest any of its funds;
- (5) Transfer any of its property; or
- (6) Incur any debt, obligation or liability.

Conservatorship Proceedings

Sec. 4. After the period of supervision specified by the Commissioner for compliance, if it is determined that such bank has failed to comply with the lawful requirements of the Commissioner, then upon due notice and hearing, or by consent of the bank, the Commissioner may appoint a conservator, who shall immediately take charge of such bank and all of the property, books, records, and effects thereof. The conservator shall conduct the business of the bank and take such steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have necessitated such order, as the Commissioner may direct. During the pendency of conservatorship the conservator shall make such reports to the Commissioner from time to time as may be required by the Commissioner, and shall be empowered to take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of such bank, including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank, and to deal with the same in his own name as conservator, and shall be empowered to file, prosecute, and defend any suit or suits which have been filed or which may thereafter be filed by or against such bank which are deemed by the conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties or any property affected thereby. The Banking Commissioner, or any duly appointed deputy, may be appointed to serve as the conservator. If the Banking Commissioner, however, is satisfied that such bank is not in condition to continue business in the interest of its depositors or creditors, under the conservator as above provided, the Banking Commissioner may proceed with an appropriate remedy provided by any other provision of this Code.

Supervisor's and Conservator's Service Charge

Sec. 5. The cost incident to the supervisor's and conservator's service shall be fixed and determined by the Banking Commissioner and shall be a charge against the assets and funds of the bank to be allowed and paid as the Banking Commissioner may determine.

Review and Stay of Action

Sec. 6. During the period of supervision and during the period of conservatorship, the bank may request the Banking Commissioner or in his absence, the duly appointed deputy for such purpose, to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the supervisor or conservator, specifying wherein the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interests of the bank, and such request shall stay the action specified pending review of such action by the Commissioner or his duly appointed deputy. Any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a supervisor and providing that the bank shall not do certain acts as provided in Section 3 and Section 4 of this article, any order entered by the Commissioner appointing a conservator, and any order by the Commissioner following the review of an action of the supervisor or conservator as hereinabove provided shall be immediately reviewed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission upon the filing of an appeal by the bank. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission may stay the effectiveness of any order appealed from, pending its review of such order. Such appeal shall have precedence over all other business of a different nature pending before the Banking Section of the Finance Commission; and all matters and evidence pertaining to the bank's condition and the subject appeal shall be presented to the Banking Section of the Finance Commission in a closed hearing. Upon hearing the Banking Section shall promptly render a decision which may affirm or terminate the order appealed from, modify the order, continue or discontinue such supervision, conservatorship or other order in connection therewith, or enter such other order as is appropriate and consistent with this article. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall make such other rules and regulations with regard to such appeals and their consideration as it deems advisable. Any bank dissatisfied with any order rendered by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission under this article shall have the right to appeal to the district court in the manner prescribed elsewhere in this Code, which order shall be considered final for the purpose of such appeal.

Venue

Sec. 7. Any suit filed against a bank or its conservator, after the entrance of an order by the Banking Commissioner placing such bank in conservatorship and while such order is in effect, shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere. The conservator appointed hereunder for such bank may file suit in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering any assets or property of such bank including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank.

Duration of Conservatorship

Sec. 8. As respects a conservatorship, the conservator shall serve for such time as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this Act. If rehabilitated, the rehabilitated bank shall be returned to management or new management under such conditions as are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the conditions which occasioned the conservatorship.

Administrative Election of Remedies

Sec. 9. If the Commissioner determines to act under authority of this article, or is directed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission to act under this article, the sequence of his acts and proceedings shall be as set forth herein. However, it is a purpose and substance of this article to authorize administrative discretion—to allow Commissioner and the Banking Section of the Finance Commission administrative discretion in the event of unsound banking operations—and in furtherance of that purpose, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to proceed with regulation either under this article or under any other applicable article or law, or under this law in conjunction with other law, either as such law is now existing or as is hereafter enacted, and it is so provided.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 10. The Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall be empowered to adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for the augmentation and accomplishment of this Act, including its purposes.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2877, ch. 948, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.]

Sections 3 and 4 of the 1971 Act provide:

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 4. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 342-802. Voluntary Liquidation of Solvent State Bank—Cancellation of Charter—Resumption of Business Prohibited

A solvent state bank may be closed and liquidated upon the written consent or vote of the owners of record of two thirds of its capital, which consent, or the resolution adopted by the stockholders, shall specify the date when such bank is to be closed and shall designate one or more individuals to act as the liquidating agent, who shall conduct the liquidation under the supervision of the board of directors, after giving suitable bond as prescribed by said board and approved by the Commissioner. Prior to the closing of such state bank, the directors shall file with the Commissioner a transcript of the proceedings authorizing the closing of the bank. Notice to its depositors and creditors to present their claims shall be published once a week for thirteen (13) weeks, beginning within ten (10) days after the closing of the bank, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of the bank's domicile, or if no such newspaper is published in said county, in an adjacent county. Upon presentment of lawful claims, the bank shall pay its depositors and creditors, provided that such payment may be effected through a disbursing agent as authorized under Article 10 of Chapter 3 of this Code.¹ The liquidating agent shall make a written report to the stockholders at each annual meeting, a copy of which, signed and sworn to by the liquidating agent, shall be filed with the Commissioner. The stockholders at any regular or special meeting may remove the liquidating agent and name a successor. The Commissioner may from time to time examine the liquidating bank and may, if the depositors and creditors are not paid upon presentment of their lawful claims, or if, prior to the payment of all depositors and creditors, he finds any condition which would authorize the closing of the bank were it not in voluntary liquidation, take possession of the assets and liquidate the same in the manner herein provided for the liquidation of insolvent state banks.

Upon the expiration of six (6) months from the first publication of notice as above provided, the bank shall file with the Commissioner an affidavit sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors stating that all depositors and creditors who have presented their claims have been paid the amounts due them, and listing those depositors and creditors who have not presented their claims, giving their addresses as shown by the books of the bank and the amounts respectively due each. Such affidavit shall be accompanied by a publisher's certificate showing publication of notice as above provided, and by a sum equal to the aggregate amount due the non-claiming depositors and creditors. The Commissioner shall hold such money for the benefit of said depositors and creditors in the manner provided in Article 15 of this Chapter.²

At any time after the filing of such affidavit, the board of directors may distribute the remaining assets among the shareholders in proportion to their ownership of stock of the bank and shall thereafter file with the Commissioner an affidavit sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors showing such distribution. The filing of such affidavit and the approval thereof by the Commissioner shall have the effect of cancelling the charter of the bank without the necessity of any judicial action.

No state bank which has been closed pursuant to the provisions of this article shall resume business or reopen without the prior written consent of the Commissioner.

Art. 342-803. Closing State Bank—By Commissioner—By Directors

Whenever the Commissioner, through examination, finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a state bank are seriously jeopardized through its insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of such depositors and creditors that the bank be closed and its assets liquidated, he may close and liquidate the bank, unless its board of directors close the bank and place it in his hands for liquidation.

Art. 342-804. Posting of Notice—Creation of Liens, Transfers and Payment after Closing Immediately after the closing of any state bank by its directors or by the Commissioner under the provisions of Article 3 of this chapter,¹ the Commissioner shall place an appropriate sign to that effect at the main entrance of the bank, and thereafter no judgment lien, attachment lien or other voluntary lien shall attach to any asset of said bank, nor shall the directors, officers or agents of such bank thereafter have authority to act for or on behalf of said bank or to convey, transfer, assign, pledge, mortgage or encumber any asset thereof, and any attempt by any officer, director or agent to transfer, assign, convey, mortgage or pledge any asset of the bank or to create any lien thereon or in any manner to prefer any depositor or creditor of the bank after the posting of such notice or in contemplation thereof shall be void. The Commissioner immediately after posting the notice at the entrance of such bank shall advise its correspondent banks of its closing. No correspondent shall pay any item drawn on the account of the closed bank which is presented for payment after the receipt of such advice, unless the same has been previously certified.

Art. 342-805. Contest of Liquidation

At any time within two (2) days, excluding legal holidays for banks, after the Commissioner has closed any state bank under the provisions of Article 3 of this Chapter,¹ such bank, acting through its directors, may sue in the district court of the bank's domicile to enjoin the Commissioner from liquidating such bank, and the court, or the judge thereof if in vacation, may, without notice or hearing, restrain the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of such bank pending hearing on the merits, and shall, in that event instruct the Commissioner to hold the assets of such bank in his possession pending final disposition of such suit. The Commissioner shall thereupon refrain from liquidating such assets, provided, however, the Commissioner may, with the approval of the district judge, take such action as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit upon its merits and shall enter a judgment (1), enjoining the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of such bank, or (2) refusing such injunction. Appeal shall lie from such judgment as in other civil cases, but the Commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such bank pending final disposition on appeal.

Art. 342-806. Inventory of Assets—Custodia Legis—Jurisdiction

Promptly after the Commissioner has acquired possession of the assets of a state bank for liquidation, he shall prepare and file in the office of the district clerk of the county of the bank's domicile an inventory of such assets, and the clerk shall assign a cause number to the proceedings so instituted. The assets of the bank shall be deemed to be in the custody of the court in which such proceedings are pending and all suits and orders provided for under this chapter¹ shall be deemed to be in the nature of interventions or orders in said proceedings, of which suits and orders said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction. Provided, however, that during vacation of such court, the judge thereof shall be authorized to enter any of such orders and to conduct any hearing incident thereto.

Art. 342-807. Resumption of Business—Reorganization

No state bank which has been closed under the provisions of Article 3 of this Chapter¹ shall be reopened unless the contest provided for under Article 5 of this chapter² is finally determined adversely to the Commissioner, or unless the Commissioner, acting under order of the district court, shall authorize such reopening by a certificate under the seal of his office. The Commissioner may in such certificate place such limitations upon the right of withdrawal by, or payment of, depositors and creditors of such bank as he may deem necessary to the protection of the depositors and creditors as a whole. Provided, however, that such limitation shall be applicable alike to all unsecured depositors and creditors and shall not defer their right of full withdrawal or payment for more than eighteen (18) months from the date of the reopening of such bank, nor defer any secured depositor or creditor to any extent without his written consent.

The limitations upon the right of withdrawal or payment set out in the certificate of the Commissioner shall when the bank is reopened be binding upon all unsecured depositors and creditors and all secured depositors and creditors who have assented thereto in writing. The State of Texas, or any county, city, common or independent school district or any other political subdivision of this State, as depositor or creditor, may by the proper administrative official or officials, board, or tribunal agree to such limitations, if, in his or their opinion such agreement is to the best interest of all concerned.

Art. 342-808. Notice to Depositors and Creditors

Upon final determination that any state bank is to be liquidated by the Commissioner, he shall publish notice for the time and in the manner prescribed in Article 2 of this Chapter,¹ provided, however, that the Commissioner's notice shall require all depositors and creditors to file written proofs of claim with the Commissioner at his office in Austin, Texas, and the Commissioner shall within thirty (30) days after the first publication of such notice mail a similar notice to each depositor or creditor shown upon the books of the bank at his address as reflected thereby.

Art. 342-809. Presentation of Claim

Each depositor, creditor or other person asserting any claim of any character against a state bank in the process of liquidation by the Commissioner, shall within eighteen (18) months of the date of the first publication of notice, as provided for in the preceding article,¹ present his claim in writing to the Commissioner at his office in Austin, Texas. Such claims shall state the facts upon which the same are based; shall set out any right of priority of payment or other specific rights asserted by the claimant and shall be signed and sworn to by the claimant.

Art. 342-810. Approval—Classification and Rejection

Within three (3) months after receipt of any claim against a state bank which is in his hands for liquidation, the Commissioner shall, unless such time is extended by written agreement with the claimant, approve or reject such claim in whole or in part. If he approves such claim, or any part thereof, he shall classify the same and enter such claim and his action thereon in a claim register. If the Commissioner rejects any claim in whole or in part, or if he denies any right of priority of payment or any other right asserted by the claimant, he shall notify the claimant of his action by registered mail.

Art. 342-811. Appeal by Claimant

Any claimant may, within three (3) months from the date of mailing of notice by the Commissioner as provided by the preceding Article,¹ sue upon such claim in the district court; otherwise the action of the Commissioner shall be final and not subject to review. The trial of such suit shall be de novo as if originally filed in said court and subject to the rules of procedure and appeal applicable to civil cases.

Art. 342-812. Powers of Commissioner—Sale of Assets, Compromises and Agreements

Pursuant to the order of the district court, entered with or without hearing, the Commissioner may sell any of the assets of a state bank in his hands for liquidation; may borrow money and pledge the whole or any part of such assets of such bank to secure the debt created; may compromise or compound any bad or doubtful claim held by or asserted against such bank; and may enter into any other kind or character of contract or agreement on behalf of such bank which he deems necessary or proper to the management, conservation or liquidation of its assets and all parties interested in the affairs of such bank shall be bound and precluded by the action of the Commissioner. Provided that said court, if it deems it advantageous or proper, may require notice and hearing before entering any order, and in that event shall, by order, fix the time and place of the hearing and prescribe the character of notice to be given thereof. Further provided that said court, in its discretion, and subject to such limitations as it may prescribe, may by general order authorize the Commissioner (a) to compound or compromise any claim or debt involving not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) held by or asserted against the bank, and (b) to sell all chattels belonging to the bank.

Art. 342-813. Expenses of Administration

The expense of liquidation of state banks shall be paid out of the assets thereof, subject to review and approval by order of the district court. The Commissioner is authorized to employ such special agents, attorneys and other assistants as may be necessary or proper to the administration of the affairs of such banks, and shall, if he deems it to be in the interest of economy and efficiency, establish a central office unit to assist in the supervision of the liquidation of said banks.

Art. 342-814. Dividends—Delayed Claims

The Commissioner may from time to time in the course of the liquidation of a state bank, upon order of the district court, pay dividends to those depositors and creditors who have established their claims, provided that no final dividend shall be paid within eighteen (18) months of the date of the first publication of notice as prescribed in Article 8 of this Chapter.¹ All claims filed after the declaration and payment of any dividend and prior to the expiration of such eighteen (18) months shall, if approved, participate in dividends previously paid before any additional dividend is declared. Claims which are not presented within said eighteen (18) months period shall not participate in any dividend or distribution of assets until after full payment of all approved claims presented during such period.

Art. 342-815. Final Dividend—Report—Disposition of Assets—Discharge

At any time after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the first publication of notice as specified in Article 8 of this Chapter,¹ after the Commissioner has liquidated all of the assets of a bank capable of liquidation or has realized sufficient funds from such liquidation to pay the costs thereof, to pay all claims which have been filed and established, and leave funds available to provide for the payment of all non-claiming depositors and creditors, the Commissioner shall, acting under order of the district court, declare and pay a final dividend. The Commissioner shall deposit in one or more state banks all funds hereafter available for the benefit of non-claiming depositors and creditors. All unclaimed dividends and all funds hereafter available for nonclaiming depositors and creditors, together with all funds held pursuant to the provisions of Article 540 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,² (which latter funds shall be transmitted by the State Treasurer to the Commissioner together with a list of the depositors and creditors for whose benefit the same is held), shall be deposited by the Commissioner in one or more State banks for the benefit of the depositors and creditors entitled thereto. The Commissioner shall pay any depositor or creditor, upon his demand, any amount so held for his benefit. In event the Commissioner is in doubt as to the identity of any claimant or his right to the funds thus held, he shall reject the claim and notify the claimant by registered mail. The claimant shall, within three (3) months after mailing of such notice by the Commissioner, institute suit against the Commissioner in the district court to recover such funds, which suit shall be in the nature of an action in rem governed by the rules of procedure and appeal applicable to civil cases and the judgment therein shall be binding upon all persons interested in such funds. If such suit is not filed within the time prescribed, the rejection of the Commissioner shall be final. After paying a final dividend as above provided and doing each and every act necessary or proper in connection with the liquidation of the assets of such bank for the benefit of the depositors and creditors, the Commissioner shall file in the district court his final report of such liquidation, and said court shall by order fix and designate a time and place when and where such report shall be heard, and direct the Commissioner to give such notice thereof as the court may deem proper. If said court, after such notice and hearing shall find that the affairs of said bank have been administered properly and in accordance with law it shall approve such report, and the order of approval shall have the force and effect of forfeiting and cancelling the corporate charter of such bank, vesting title to the remaining assets, if any, in the stockholders of said bank, and releasing and discharging the Commissioner from any further duty, obligation or liability in connection with the administration of the affairs of such bank, and thereafter no person shall have or maintain any claim, suit or action against the Commissioner individually or in his capacity as statutory liquidator of such bank other than suits to recover unclaimed deposits as above provided. The district court may, in such order, direct the Commissioner as to the disposition of the books, records and remaining assets, if any, of such bank and may designate a trustee to whom the Commissioner shall deliver physical possession of the same, and who, under the supervision of said court shall administer or liquidate such assets for the benefit of the former stockholders of such bank.

Art. 342-901. State Instrumentality—Depository—Fiscal Agent

All state banks are hereby declared to be charged with the public interest and shall be under state control and be subject to such legislation as may be enacted for the regulation of such banking institutions. Such state banks shall be deemed instrumentalities and agencies of the state, and may, when lawfully designated thereto, act as depositories for the public funds of this State or any county, city, common or independent school district or any other political subdivision of this State, in accordance with the laws of this State governing depositories of public funds now or hereafter existing; and such state banks shall act as fiscal agents for the United States, the State of Texas, or any county, city, common or independent school district or any other political subdivision of this State on request and upon reasonable compensation.

Art. 342-902. Unauthorized Banking—Advertising—Private Banks—Penalty

It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association or common law trust:

(1) To conduct a banking or trust business or to hold out to the public that it is conducting a banking or trust business; or

(2) To use in its name, stationery or advertising, the term "bank," "bank and trust," "savings bank," "certificate of deposit," "trust" or any other term or word calculated to deceive the public into the belief that such person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, common law trust, or other group of persons is engaged in the banking or trust business.

Provided, however, that this Article shall not apply to (1) national banks; (2) state banks; (3) other corporations heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of this state or of the United States to the extent that such corporations are authorized under their charter or the laws of this state or of the United States to conduct such business or to use such term; and (4) private banks which were actually and lawfully conducting a banking business on the effective date of this Act so long as the owners of such bank, their successors or assigns, shall continuously conduct a banking business in the city or town where such private bank was domiciled on the effective date of this Act; provided, however, that such private banks shall include the word "Unincorporated" in their firm or business names and such word shall be prominently set out upon the stationery and in all the advertising of such private banks.

This article shall not bar an individual from acting in any fiduciary capacity if he does not hold out to the public that he is conducting any branch of the trust business.

Any person, corporation, firm, partnership, association or common law trust violating any provision of this article shall forfeit Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for every day it continues so to do. Suits to recover such penalty shall be instituted in the name of the State of Texas by the Attorney General or by a District or County Attorney under his direction either in the county where the principal office of such person, corporation, firm, partnership, association or common law trust is situated, or in Travis County, Texas. Such penalties, when recovered, shall be paid into the State Treasury for the use of the School Fund.

Art. 342-903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house or through unmanned teller machines as authorized in Article 3a.¹ For purposes of this article "banking house" means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by closed circuit television or pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device, and (b) not more than two (2) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within three thousand five hundred (3,500) feet of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by closed circuit television or pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device, and (c) in addition, not more than one (1) drive-in/walk-up facility whose nearest boundary is located within ten thousand five hundred (10,500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom, is within the same county as the central building, and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected drive-in/walk-up facility or by closed circuit television, pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. The term "drive-in/walk-up facility" as herein used shall mean a facility offering banking services solely to persons who remain outside of the facility or in a secured teller lobby during the transaction of business with the bank.

Any bank adversely affected by a violation of this article may, and the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner, shall bring suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this article. The party who prevails in such proceeding shall recover costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Section 2 of the 1981 amendatory act provides:

"This Act is not a validating act and does not authorize any automobile drive-in facility, drive-in/walk-up facility, or other facility that on or before the effective date of this Act violated Article 3, Chapter IX, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-903, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as it existed before being amended by this Act."

Art. 342-903a. Unmanned Teller Machines

Sec. 1. Subject to the provisions of this article, a bank or group of banks, for the convenience of customers, may install, maintain, operate, or utilize one or more unmanned teller machines at locations separate and apart from the banking house within the county or the city of the bank's domicile.

Sec. 2. As used in this article, the following terms shall have these meanings, unless otherwise clearly indicated by the context in which they are used:

(a) "Unmanned teller machine" means a machine, other than a telephone, capable of being operated solely by a customer, by which a customer may communicate to the bank:

(1) a request to withdraw money directly from the customer's account or from the customer's account pursuant to a line of credit previously authorized by the bank for the customer;

(2) an instruction to deposit funds into the customer's account with the bank;

(3) an instruction to transfer funds between one or more accounts maintained by the customer with the bank but not as between the customer's account and an account maintained in the bank or in some other financial institution by some other customer;

(4) an instruction to apply funds against an indebtedness of the customer to the bank; or

(5) a request for information concerning the balance of the account of the customer with the bank.

(b) "Bank" means a state, national, or private bank domiciled in this state.

Sec. 3. Authorization under this article for a bank to install, maintain, operate, or utilize one or more unmanned teller machines within the county or city of the bank's domicile does not preclude the use of bank or other personnel for the following purposes:

(a) to attend an unmanned teller machine on a temporary basis to instruct customers in the use of the machines; or

(b) to collect deposits or other funds placed in the machine, to replenish money dispensed by the machine, or to otherwise service, repair, or attend to the needs of an unmanned teller machine at frequent intervals.

Sec. 4. Banks shall have the right to share, under a written agreement, in the use of any unmanned teller machine that is located within the county or the city of the bank's domicile on a reasonable, nondiscriminatory basis and on the following conditions:

(a) any bank utilizing one or more unmanned teller machines may be required to meet necessary and reasonable technical standards and to pay charges for the use of the machines. The standards or charges imposed shall be reasonable, fair, equitable, and nondiscriminatory among banks. Any charges imposed shall not exceed an equitable proportion of both the cost of establishing the unmanned teller machines, including provisions for amortization of development costs and capital expenditures over a reasonable period of time, and the cost of operation and maintenance of the machine, plus a reasonable return on those costs, and those charges shall be related to the services provided to the bank or its customers.

(b) where more than one bank utilizes an unmanned teller machine and any bank uses, allows the use, or is allowed to use visual or oral data identifying itself, each bank sharing the machine shall receive equal prominence in the visual and oral data available to the public at or adjacent to the machine, and no advertising with regard to the machine shall suggest, imply, or claim that any particular bank has exclusive control over the use of the machine.

Sec. 5. Where the city in which a bank is domiciled lies in more than one county, the bank may install, maintain, operate, utilize, or share one or more unmanned teller machines within the corporate limits of the city in addition to machines in the county of its domicile.

Sec. 6. On written complaint by a bank that is utilizing or that seeks to utilize on unmanned teller machine that it is being denied the use of the machine on a reasonable, nondiscriminatory basis and that the machine is, therefore, not being operated in the best interests of the public, the State Banking Board shall have jurisdiction to determine whether or not the bank has been denied the right to utilize the machine under this article. After a hearing conducted by the board in accordance with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the board may enter an order directing compliance with this article and prescribing the manner and means of complying with this article.

Sec. 7. In the event that operation of an unmanned teller machine is to be discontinued, notice of intent to discontinue shall be given to the State Banking Board not less than 60 days before the date on which operation of the machine is to be discontinued, and a copy of that notice shall be sent to all institutions using the machine. The State Banking Board, on complaint by an affected bank or on its own motion, may delay discontinuance of an unmanned teller machine for a period of not more than 60 days past the proposed date of discontinuance if it finds that the banks sharing the unmanned teller machine would be unfairly prejudiced by discontinuance on the proposed date.

Sec. 8. Any person who violates this article or any order of the board issued pursuant to this article is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation and for each act of violation. All civil penalties recovered under this article shall be paid to the Banking Department under Article 12, Chapter I of this code, as amended (Article 342-112, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), for the use of the State Banking Board in enforcing this article.

Sec. 9. Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is violating or is threatening to violate this article or any order of the State Banking Board issued pursuant to this article, the board may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat or for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty provided by this article, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty. At the request of the board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the state for injunctive relief or for the recovery and receipt of a civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty.

A suit for injunctive relief or for recovery of a civil penalty, or for both, may be brought either in the county where the defendant resides, or in the county where the violation or threat of violation occurs. In any suit to enjoin a violation or threat of violation of this article or of any order of the board, the court may grant the State Banking Board, without bond or other undertaking, any prohibitory or mandatory injunction as the facts may warrant, including temporary restraining orders after notice and hearing, temporary injunctions, and permanent injunctions.

Sec. 10. Banks, under a written agreement, may share unmanned teller machines with savings and loan associations or credit unions on the following conditions:

(1) only those functions permitted for banks under Section 2 of this article are available to the customers of any savings and loan association or credit union using the unmanned teller machine or machines; and

(2) the unmanned teller machine or machines may be utilized by a savings and loan association or credit union for the use of their customers only within the county and the city where the savings and loan association or credit union is domiciled and has its principal place of business.

Sec. 11. Nothing in this article abridges, modifies, affects, or expands any authority under existing law for any savings and loan association or credit union to operate unmanned teller machines separate and apart from their principal places of business.

Sec. 12. This article does not apply to:

(1) an unmanned teller machine located at a bank's banking house; or

(2) the use of an unmanned teller machine, wherever located, solely to withdraw cash.

Sec. 13. The legislature finds that the Congress of the United States has amended the Consumer Protection Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), through passage of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act¹ and that the Consumer Protection Act is sufficiently comprehensive to provide for the full and complete protection of the rights of consumers using unmanned teller machines in this state. The legislature further finds that it would not be in the best interest of the public of this state to have separate regulation of the consumer protection aspects of unmanned teller machines by both the state and federal governments. To ensure the continuing protection of consumers using the unmanned teller machines authorized by this article, the State Banking Board and the attorney general are directed to make a continuing study of the substantive and procedural provisions of the Consumer Protection Act of the regulations promulgated under that Act, and of the effectiveness of enforcement of that Act in this state and to report their findings and recommendations to the legislature on or before June 30, 1981, and on the same date every fourth year after 1981.

115 U.S.C.A. § 1693 et seq.

Section 2 of the 1979 Act provided:

"This Act takes effect on the later of:

"(1) the 270th day after approval by the qualified voters of this state of an amendment to the Texas Constitution providing that the legislature may authorize banks to use unmanned teller machines within the county and the city of their domicile, on a shared basis, to serve the public convenience; or

"(2) December 31, 1980. If the constitutional amendment is not adopted, this Act has no effect."

Such a constitutional amendment was adopted at an election held November 4, 1980.

Art. 342-903b. Repealed by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2044, ch. 374, § 2, eff. Aug. 29, 1983

See, now, art. 342-903.

Art. 342-903c. Customer Convenience Terminals

Construction and Application

Sec. 1. The underlying purpose of this article shall be to enhance the convenient and efficient transaction of retail trade by allowing electronic fund transfer technology to enter the existing financial payment and settlement system. This purpose shall be achieved by use of a particular type of unmanned teller machine of a different type from the type described in Article 3a, and its use shall be governed by the terms of this Article 3c, except as otherwise herein provided in Section 6. This article shall be liberally construed to this end.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this article:

(1) "Account" means an asset account in a financial institution.

(2) "Financial institution" means

(A) a state, national or private bank;

(B) a savings and loan association; or

(C) a credit union.

(3) "Merchant" means any person other than a financial institution or a system.

(4) "Customer convenience terminal" is a device which is a particular kind of unmanned teller machine (i.e., the use of which does not involve personnel of a financial institution):

(A) by which a customer of a financial institution can authorize and effect the electronic transfer of funds from the customer's account at the financial institution to a merchant's account at a financial institution within the county or the city in which the terminal is located in order to obtain cash or purchase or rent or pay for goods or services or both; and

(B) by which the merchant can ascertain that the transaction has been completed and the funds have been or will be transferred to the merchant's account at the merchant's financial institution within the county or the city in which the terminal is located.

(5) "System" means an electronic information communication and processing facility owned or operated by a person other than a merchant and used to receive, transmit, or retransmit electronic impulses or other electronic indicia of transactions, originating at a customer convenience terminal, to financial institutions or to other transmission facilities for purposes of effecting transfers of funds to or from one or more accounts.

Customer Convenience Transactions

Sec. 3. Any person may install, maintain, operate, utilize, own, or lease customer convenience terminals. For purposes of Chapter IX of this code, as amended (Article 342-901 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), no customer convenience terminal shall be deemed to constitute a branch office and no person who installs, maintains, operates, utilizes, owns, or leases a customer convenience terminal shall be deemed to be conducting a banking business. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of any party to a transaction of the type described herein under any applicable statute or contract.

Sharing

Sec. 4. All financial institutions domiciled in this state shall have the right to share in the use of any system operated in this state on a reasonable, non-discriminatory basis, and any system may require the utilization of reasonable and necessary technical standards.

Advertising

Sec. 5. No participants in a system shall receive greater prominence in the identification necessary to enable the public to determine accessibility of the terminal, and no advertising with regard to the terminal shall suggest, imply, or claim that any particular financial institution has exclusive control over the use of the terminal.

Compliance

Sec. 6. On written complaint by a financial institution that is utilizing or that seeks to utilize a system that it is being denied the use of that system on a reasonable, nondiscriminatory basis, the State Banking Board shall have jurisdiction to determine whether or not the financial institution has been denied the right to utilize the system under this article. The provisions of Sections 6 and 13, Article 3a, Chapter IX, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-903a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply to this article.

Unauthorized Use

Sec. 7. A customer of a financial institution shall not be liable for an unauthorized electronic fund transfer or a series of related unauthorized transfers in an amount in excess of $50 if the customer notifies the financial institution within two business days after learning of the loss or theft of the access device and if the customer fails to notify the financial institution, the customer's liability shall not exceed $500. The terms "access device" and "unauthorized electronic transfer" as used herein shall have the same meaning as the same terms under the "Electronic Fund Transfer Act," 15 U.S.C. 1693a(1) as amended and Regulation E promulgated thereunder.

Charges

Sec. 8. Charges. No charges or fees may be imposed by a financial institution in relation to an account in which funds located in that account may be electronically transferred unless such charges or fees are reasonably related to the cost of services performed by the financial institution. The burden of proving the reasonableness of such fees or charges is on the financial institution.

Art. 342-906. Safety Deposit Boxes—Access by Joint Lessees—Opening—Lien—Sale of Content

Any state, national or private bank may maintain safety deposit boxes and rent the same. In all such transactions the relationship of the bank and the renter shall, in the absence of a contract to the contrary, be that of lessor and lessee and landlord and tenant and the rights and liabilities of the bank shall be governed accordingly, and the lessee shall be deemed in law for all purposes to be in possession of the box and the content thereof. If a safety deposit box is held in the name of two (2) or more persons jointly, any one of such persons shall be entitled to access to such box and shall be permitted to remove the content thereof and the bank shall not be responsible for any damage arising by reason of such access or removal by one of said persons. If the box rental is delinquent for six (6) months, the bank after at least sixty (60) days' notice by mail addressed to the lessee at his address on the books of the bank, may, if the rent is not paid within the time specified in said notice, open the box in the presence of two (2) executive officers of the bank and a notary public and place the content of the box in a sealed envelope or container bearing the name of the lessee. The bank shall then hold the content of the box subject to a lien for its rental, the cost of opening the box and the damages in connection therewith. If such rental, cost and damages are not paid within two (2) years from the date of opening of such box, the bank may sell any part or all of the content at public auction in like manner and upon like notice as is prescribed for the sale of real property under deed of trust.

Art. 342-907. Slander or Libel of Banks—Penalty

Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate, or transmit to another or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any bank, banking house, banking company, trust company, in the State, with intent to injure any such financial institution; or who shall counsel, aid, procure, or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit, or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-908. Application of Code to National Banks—Discrimination Between State and National Banks

State and national banks are hereby declared to be within the same class under the Constitution and laws of this state. It is not the intention of the Legislature to discriminate between state banks, national banks, and private banks. To the extent that the State of Texas has power to legislate with reference to national banks, all laws of this state shall apply alike to state banks, private banks, and national banks domiciled in this state; and state banks and private banks shall be subject to only such taxes heretofore or hereafter imposed by the state, or any political subdivision thereof, as could lawfully be imposed upon such state banks or private banks were they operating as national banks.

Art. 342-909. Severability of Provisions

If any provision of this Code or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Code which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Code are declared to be severable.

Art. 342-910. Moratoriums—Emergency Closing of Banks or Bank Operations—Limitations On Liabilities During Emergencies

(a) The Commissioner, with the approval of a majority of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, may proclaim a financial moratorium for and invoke a uniform limitation on withdrawal of deposits of every character from all banks within the State. Any bank refusing to comply with any written proclamation of the Commissioner, signed by a majority of the members of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas, shall forfeit its charter, if it is a State chartered bank; or forfeit its right to continue to do business, if it is a private bank; or forfeit any and all rights it may have under State law, if it is a national bank, to act as reserve agent for any State chartered bank and to act as depository of any State, county, municipal or other public funds, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor on order of the Commissioner and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank without the written approval of the Commissioner.

(b) 1. Whenever the officers of a bank are of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a bank's offices or particular bank operations, they shall have the authority, in the reasonable and proper exercise of their discretion, to determine not to conduct the particular bank operations or open the bank's offices on any business or banking day or, if having opened, to close such offices or suspend and close the particular bank operations during the continuation of such emergency, even if the Commissioner has not issued a proclamation of emergency. The office or operations so closed shall remain closed until such time as the officers determine that the emergency has ended, and for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen; however, in no case shall such office or operations remain closed for more than 48 consecutive hours, excluding other legal holidays, without receiving the approval of the Commissioner. A bank closing an office or operations pursuant to the authority granted under this article shall give as prompt notice of its action as conditions will permit and by any means available, to the Commissioner.

2. Whenever the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, in this State or in any part or parts of this State, he may, by proclamation, authorize banks located in the affected area or areas to close any part or all of their offices or operations. In addition, if the Commissioner is of the opinion that an emergency exists, or is impending, which affects, or may affect, a particular bank or banks, or a particular bank operation, but not banks located in the area generally, he may authorize the particular bank or banks so affected, to close or to suspend and close a particular bank operation. The office or bank operations so closed shall remain closed until the Commissioner proclaims that the emergency has ended, or until such earlier time as the officers of the bank determine that the office or bank operation, theretofore closed because of the emergency, should reopen, and, in either event, for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen.

3. "Emergency" means any condition or occurrence which may interfere physically with the conduct of normal business at the offices of a bank or of particular bank operations, or which poses an imminent or existing threat to the safety or security of persons or property, or both. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, an emergency may arise as a result of any one or more of the following: fire; flood; earthquake; hurricane; tornado; wind, rain, or snow storm; labor dispute and strike; power failure; transportation failure; interruption of communication facilities; shortage of fuel, housing, food, transportation or labor; robbery or burglary or attempted robbery or burglary; actual or threatened enemy attack; epidemic or other catastrophe; riot; civil commotion, and other acts of lawlessness or violence, actual or threatened.

4. Any day on which a bank, or any one or more of its operations, is closed during all or any part of its normal banking hours pursuant to the authorization granted under this article shall be, as to such bank or, if not all of its operations are closed, then as to any operations which are closed, a legal holiday for all purposes with respect to any banking business of any character. No liability, or loss of rights of any kind, on the part of any bank, or any director, officer, or employee thereof, shall accrue or result by virtue of any closing authorized by this article.

5. The provisions of this article shall be construed and applied as being in addition to, and not in substitution for or limitation of, any other provision in this Code or other law of this State or of the United States, authorizing the closing of a bank or excusing the delay by a bank in the performance of its duties and obligations because of emergencies or conditions beyond the bank's control, or otherwise.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-910a. Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 1. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.

Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for all banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a mandatory legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday of any week in the year in addition to mandatory legal holidays, provided:

(a) such day is designated at least 15 days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the board of directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and

(b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least 15 days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this state that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the board of directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, and issuing cashier's checks.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

Sec. 3. Discrimination Prohibited. The provisions of Section 2 of this article shall be completely permissive with each individual bank or trust company in this State, and no bank, trust company, clearing house association, or group of banks or trust companies, shall discriminate against or refuse its services to any bank or trust company or enter into any agreement to discriminate against or refuse its services, either director or indirectly, to any bank or trust company which may or may not elect to exercise any of the options contained in Section 2 of this article. The provisions of the Antitrust

Laws of this State shall be applicable to the provisions of this article, and the Attorney General of Texas shall institute and prosecute any legal proceedings authorized by law to enforce the provisions of this article, including forfeiture of right to do business in Texas for violation of such provisions.

"Acts 1955, 54th Legislature, Chapter 16, page 16, as amended, codified as Article 4591d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, is in its entirety and as amended by this Act, hereby transferred to and made a part of Chapter IX of the Texas Banking Code of 1943 and designated as Article 10a of said Chapter IX."

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 amendatory act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-911. Repealer of Conflicting Laws

The following statutes, together with all other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed: [enumeration of repealed statutes omitted].

Art. 342-911.1. Appeals from Orders of State Banking Board and Finance Commission

Any person, firm or corporation who is a party to, or is necessarily aggrieved by, any final order, ruling or judgment of the State Banking Board or the Banking Section of the Finance Commission shall have the right to appeal by filing a suit to set aside such order, ruling or judgment in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, within thirty (30) days following the date of rendition of such order, ruling or judgment. Provided, that in such cases the substantial evidence rule shall apply and govern the trial, as is the common practice in cases of appeal from administrative orders and as construed by the courts of this State. Pending final judgment of the court the order shall remain in effect, unless otherwise stayed or enjoined by the court upon proper application.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1971 Act provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Art. 342-912. Acquisition of Bank or Holding Company under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Recommendations of Commissioners

Sec. 1. A state bank, a national bank in the state, or a bank holding company seeking to acquire a state bank or national bank within the state, that submits an application for approval to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842), shall transmit a copy of the application, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. If the application is made by a state bank or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a state bank, the commissioner, on receipt of the notice prescribed by Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)), shall respond in writing within the time limit prescribed by that subsection. The response shall set forth the views and recommendations of the commissioner concerning the application. If the commissioner disapproves the application, he shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)).

Sec. 3. If the application is made by a national bank in the state or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a national bank in the state, the commissioner shall advise the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System of any views and recommendations he may have concerning the application and other material before the board of governors in connection with the application. If the commissioner recommends to the board of governors that the application be denied, he shall request that a hearing pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)) be held. If the board of governors should grant such request, the commissioner shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing as hereinabove provided. If the board of governors should deny such request, the commissioner is authorized and directed to pursue the remedies available to him as an aggrieved party in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Section 1848).

Art. 342-913. Acquisition of Nonbanking Institution under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Order and Appeal

Sec. 1. A bank holding company doing business in the state that submits an application or notice to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System concerning an acquisition or activity regulated by Section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1843), other than an application or notice concerning an activity initiated prior to the effective date of this article, shall transmit a copy of the application or notice, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner. The commissioner may on his own motion order a public hearing on the matter. The commissioner shall order a hearing if the holding company requests a hearing in writing at the time it transmits the application or notice to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. After the close of the hearing, if one is held, the commissioner shall disapprove the acquisition or activity unless he finds that it can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience or increased competition, that outweigh possible adverse effects such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interest, or unsound banking practices.

Sec. 3. An acquisition or activity is approved if:

(1) the applicant does not request a hearing and the commissioner does not, within 30 days after the application or notice is filed, order that a hearing be held; or

(2) a hearing is held and the commissioner's final order approves the acquisition or activity.

Sec. 4. The Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act¹ governs proceedings under this article, except that the final order of the commissioner approving or disapproving the acquisition or activity shall be rendered within 30 days after the hearing is closed.

Sec. 5. If it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in an acquisition or activity subject to this article without complying with the provisions of this article or in violation of an order of the commissioner entered pursuant to this article, the attorney general on behalf of the commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the acquisition or activity and for any other equitable relief the nature of the case may require. A "person" subject to the provisions of this section shall include an individual, two or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, association, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination thereof.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE

Art. 489a. Repealed by Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 370, ch. 180, § 1

Art. 489b. Federal Deposit Insurance

Banking Institution Defined

Sec. 1. The term "banking institution," as used in this Act shall be construed to mean any bank, trust company, bank and trust company, stock savings bank or mutual savings bank, which is now or may hereafter be organized under the laws of this State.

Authority to Banking Institutions to Contract under Acts of Congress Safeguarding Banks

Sec. 2. Any banking institution now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State are hereby empowered, on the authority of its board of directors, or a majority thereof, by and with the consent and approval of the State Banking Commissioner, to enter into such contracts, incur such obligations and generally to do and perform any and all such acts and things whatsoever as may be necessary or appropriate in order to take advantage of any and all memberships, loans, subscriptions, contracts, grants, rights, or privileges, which may at any time be available or enure to banking institutions or to their depositors, creditors, stockholders, conservators, receivers or liquidators, by virtue of those provisions of Section 8 of the Federal "Banking Act of 1933" Sec. 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended,¹ which establish the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and provide for the insurance of deposits, or of any other provisions of that or any other Act or Resolution of Congress to aid, regulate or safeguard banking institutions and their depositors, including any amendments of the same or any substitutions therefor; also, to subscribe for and acquire any stock, debentures, bonds or other types of securities of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and to comply with the lawful regulations and requirements from time to time issued or made by such Corporation.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Receiver or Liquidator Without Bond

Sec. 3. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation created by Section eight of the Federal "Banking Act of 1933" (Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended) is hereby authorized and empowered to be and act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any banking institution, the deposits in which are to any extent insured by said Corporation, and which shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors.

The appropriate State authority, having the right to appoint a receiver or liquidator of a banking institution, may in the event of such closing, tender to said Corporation the appointment as receiver or liquidator of such banking institution, and if the Corporation accepts said appointment, the Corporation shall have and possess all powers and privileges provided by the laws of this State with respect to a receiver or liquidator respectively of a banking institution; its depositors and other creditors, and be subject to all the duties of such receiver or liquidator, except in so far as such powers, privileges or duties are in conflict with the provisions of subsection (1) of Section 8 of said "Banking Act of 1933."

Subrogation of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to Rights Against Closed Institution

Sec. 4. Whenever any banking institution shall have been closed as aforesaid, and said Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation shall pay or make available for payment the insured deposit liabilities of such closed institution, the Corporation, whether or not it shall have become receiver or liquidator of such closed banking institution, as herein provided, shall be subrogated to all rights against such closed banking institution of the owners of such deposits in the same manner and to the same extent as subrogation of the Corporation is provided for in subsection (1) of Section 12B of the said Federal Reserve Act, as amended (being Section 8 of the said "Banking Act of 1933") in the case of the closing of a national bank: Provided, that the rights of depositors and other creditors of such closed institution shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the laws of this State.

Copies of Banking Commissioner's Examinations Furnished Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Sec. 5. The Banking Commissioner may furnish to said Corporation, or to any official or examiner thereof, a copy or copies of any or all examinations made of any such banking institutions and of any or all reports made by same, and shall give access to and disclose to said Corporation or any official or examiner thereof any and all information possessed by the office of said Banking Commissioner with reference to the conditions or affairs of any such insured institution.

Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit the duty of any banking institution in this State, deposits in which are to any extent insured under the provisions of Section 8 of the "Banking Act of 1933" (Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended) or of any amendment of or substitution for the same, to comply with the provisions of said Act, its amendments or substitutions, or the requirements of said Corporation relative to examinations and reports, nor to limit the powers of the Banking Commissioner with reference to examinations and reports under existing law.

Borrowing by Closed Institutions

Sec. 6. With respect to any banking institution, which is now or may hereafter be closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors or by action of the Banking Commissioner or of a court or by action of its directors or in the event of its insolvency or suspension, the Banking Commissioner and/or the receiver or liquidator of such institution with the permission of said Banking Commissioner may borrow from said Corporation or any other source and furnish any part or all of the assets of said institution as security for a loan from same; provided, that where said Corporation is acting as such receiver or liquidator, the order of a court of record of competent jurisdiction shall be first obtained approving such loan. Such Banking Commissioner upon the order of a court of record of competent jurisdiction, and upon a like order and with the permission of said Banking Commissioner, the receiver or liquidator of any such institution may sell to said Corporation any part or all of the assets of such institution.

The provisions of this Section shall not be construed to limit the power of any banking institution, the Banking Commissioner, or receivers or liquidators to pledge or sell assets in accordance with any existing law.

Acceptance as Receiver as Vesting Title in Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Sec. 7. Upon the acceptance of the appointment of receiver or liquidator aforesaid by said Corporation, the possession of and title to all the assets, business and property of such banking institution of every kind and nature shall pass to and vest in said Corporation and without the execution of any instruments of conveyance, assignment, transfer or endorsement.

Sec. 8. Repealed by Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 164, ch. 97, subch. IX, art. 11.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 9. The validity of any provision or part of this Act shall not be dependent upon any other provision or part thereof. If any provision or part thereof should for any reason be held unconstitutional or invalid such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions or parts of this Act.

Art. 489c. Executed

The article was derived from Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 370, ch. 180, and provided for the liquidation of the Bank Deposit Insurance Company created by art. 489a, which was thereby repealed. It is omitted as executed. Provision for insurance of deposits through the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is made by art. 489b.

SALE OF CHECKS ACT

Art. 489d. Sale of Checks Act

Citation

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as "The Sale of Checks Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock association, trust, or corporation, but does not include the United States Government or the government of this state.

(b) "Licensee" means a person duly licensed by the Commissioner pursuant to this Act.

(c) "Check" means any check, draft, money order, personal money order, or other instrument for the transmission or payment of money.

(d) "Personal money order" means any instrument for the transmission or payment of money in relation to which the purchaser or remitter appoints or purports to appoint the seller thereof as his agent for the receipt, transmission, or handling of money, whether such instrument be signed by the seller or by the purchaser or remitter or some other person.

(e) "Sell" means to sell, to issue, or to deliver a check.

(f) "Deliver" means to deliver a check to the first person who in payment for same makes or purports to make a remittance of or against the face amount thereof, whether or not the deliveror also charges a fee in addition to the face amount, and whether or not the deliveror signs the check.

(g) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the State Banking Department.

License Required

Sec. 3. No person, except those specified in Section 4 shall engage in the business of selling checks, as a service or for a fee or other consideration, without having first obtained a license hereunder. Any person engaged in said business on the effective date of this Act may continue to engage therein without a license until the Commissioner shall have acted upon his application for a license, provided that such application be filed within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act.

Exemption from Licensing

Sec. 4. No license to sell checks as aforesaid shall be required hereunder of any of the following:

(a) Banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, and savings and loan associations, whether organized under the laws of this state or of the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be deemed to enlarge the powers of the foregoing persons;

(b) Incorporated telegraph companies insofar as they receive money at any of their respective offices or agencies for immediate transmission by telegraph; or

(c) Agents of a licensee, as provided in Section 11.

Qualifications

Sec. 5. To qualify for a license hereunder an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The applicant shall have a net worth of at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), computed according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) The financial responsibility, financial condition, and business experience, and character and general fitness of the applicant shall be such as reasonably to warrant the belief that applicant's business will be conducted honestly, carefully and efficiently. To the extent deemed advisable by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may investigate and consider the qualifications of officers and directors of an applicant in determining whether this qualification has been met.

Applications

Sec. 6. Each application for such a license shall be made in writing and under oath to the Commissioner in such form as he may prescribe. The application shall state the full name and business address of:

(a) The proprietor, if the applicant is an individual;

(b) Every member, if the applicant is a partnership or association, except that if the applicant is a joint stock association having fifty (50) or more members, the name and business address need be given only of the association and each officer and director thereof;

(c) Every trustee and officer if the applicant is a trust; and

(d) The corporation and each officer and director thereof, if the applicant is a corporation.

Accompanying Fee, Statements and Bond

Sec. 7. Each application for a license shall be accompanied by:

(a) An investigation fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) which shall not be subject to refund but which, if the license be granted, shall constitute the license fee for the first license year or part thereof;

(b) Financial statements reasonably satisfactory to the Commissioner;

(c) A surety bond issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in the principal sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), and an additional principal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each location, in excess of one, at which the applicant proposes to sell checks in this state, but in no event shall the bond be required to be in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). If the bond accompanying the application be in a principal sum of less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), the application shall also be accompanied by a list of the locations at which the business is to be conducted. The bond shall be in form satisfactory to the Commissioner and shall run to the state for the benefit of any claimants against the applicant or his agents to secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks. The aggregate liability of the surety in no event shall exceed the principal sum of the bond. Such claimants against the applicant or his agents may themselves bring suit directly on the bond, or the Attorney General may bring suit thereon in behalf of such claimants, either in one action or successive actions; or

(d) In lieu of such corporate surety bond or bonds, or of any portion of the principal thereof as required by this Section, the applicant may deposit with the Commissioner or with such banks or trust companies or national banks in this state as such applicant may designate and the Commissioner may approve interest-bearing stocks and bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States, or of this state, or of a city, county, town, village, school district or instrumentality of this state, or guaranteed by this state, to an aggregate amount, based upon principal amount or market value, whichever is lower, of not less than the amount of the required corporate surety bond or portion thereof. The securities shall be deposited as aforesaid and held to secure the same obligations as would the surety bond, but the depositor shall be entitled to receive all interest and dividends thereon, shall have the right, with the approval of the Commissioner, to substitute other securities for those deposited, and shall be required so to do on written order of the Commissioner made for good cause shown.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of (c) above, when the Commissioner determines with respect to any applicant or licensee that a bond or equivalent deposit of less than the sums prescribed therein will be sufficient to fully secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant or licensee and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks, then he is authorized to reduce the bond or equivalent deposit required of such applicant or licensee to such sums as will be sufficient. In making such determination, the Commissioner may consider the maximum sums of checks sold or to be sold by the applicant or licensee and which are or can reasonably be expected to be outstanding at any one time and all other relevant facts. Nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict or limit the authority of the Commissioner to require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities as provided for in subsection (b) of Section 9.

Investigation; Granting of License

Sec. 8. Upon the filing of an application in due form, accompanied by the fee and documents mentioned in Section 7, the Commissioner shall investigate to ascertain whether the qualifications prescribed by Section 5 have been met. If he finds that such qualifications have been met, and if he approves the said documents and finds that said bond is in the prescribed amount, he shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business of selling checks in this state.

Maintenance of Bond or Securities

Sec. 9. After a license has been granted, the licensee shall maintain said bond or securities in the amount prescribed by Section 7, as follows:

(a) Each licensee who does not have on file or deposit a bond or securities, as aforesaid, in the undiminished principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), shall file quarterly reports with the Commissioner setting forth the locations at which he sells checks in this state as of January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 in each year, the report for each such date being due on or before the 15th day thereafter. Within ten (10) days following the filing of such a report, the principal sum of the bond or securities shall be increased to reflect any increase in the number of locations, and may be decreased to reflect any decrease in the number of locations.

(b) If the Commissioner shall at any time reasonably determine that the bond or securities aforesaid are insecure, deficient in amount, or exhausted in whole or part, he may by written order require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities in order to secure compliance with this Act, such order to be complied with within thirty (30) days following service thereupon upon the licensee.

Annual License Fee

Sec. 10. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner annually on or before April 15 of each year a license fee of Fifty Dollars ($50).

Agents and Sub-agents

Sec. 11. A licensee may conduct his business at one or more locations within this state, as follows:

(a) The business may be conducted through or by means of such agents and sub-agents as the licensee may from time to time designate or appoint.

(b) No license under this Act shall be required of any agent or sub-agent of a licensee except as provided in the following subsection.

(c) An agent or sub-agent, other than a person referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 4, who sells the licensee's checks over-the-counter to the public shall not be exempt from licensing under this Act if such agent or sub-agent in the regular conduct of such business receives or at any time has access to (1) the licensee's checks which, having been paid, are returned through banking channels or otherwise for verification or for reconciliation or accounting with respect thereto or (2) bank statements relating to checks so returned. This subsection shall not affect the exemption of any agent of a licensee who does not sell checks over-the-counter to the public.

Liability of Licensees

Sec. 12. Each licensee shall be liable for the payment of all checks which he sells, in whatever form and whether directly or through an agent, as the maker or drawer thereof according to the negotiable instrument laws of this state; and a licensee who sells a check, whether directly or through an agent, upon which he is not designated as maker or drawer shall nevertheless have the same liabilities with respect thereto as if he had signed same as the drawer thereof.

Disclosure of Responsibility

Sec. 13. Every check sold by a licensee, directly or through an agent, shall bear the name of the licensee clearly imprinted thereon.

Revocation of License; Investigations

Sec. 14. The Commissioner may revoke a license on any ground on which he may refuse to grant a license or for violation of any provision of this Act. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Commissioner, if he has reasonable cause to believe that the grounds for revocation exist, may investigate the business, books and records of the licensee.

Hearings

Sec. 15. No license shall be denied or revoked except after a hearing thereon. The Commissioner shall give the applicant or licensee at least twenty (20) days written notice of the time and place of such hearing by registered or certified mail addressed to the principal place of business of such applicant or licensee. Any order of the Commissioner denying or revoking such license shall state the grounds upon which it is based and shall not be effective until twenty (20) days after written notice thereof has been sent by registered or certified mail to the applicant or licensee at such principal place of business.

Penalties

Sec. 16. Any person who directly or through another violates or attempts to violate any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or both. Each transaction in violation of this Act and each day that a violation continues shall be a separate offense.

Severability

Sec. 17. Should any provision, sentence, clause, Section or part of this Act for any reason be held unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such unconstitutionality, illegality, or invalidity shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, Sections or parts of this Act. It is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature that this Act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal or invalid sentence, clause, Section or part thereof not been included herein.

PREPAID FUNERAL SERVICES OR MERCHANDISE

Art. 548b. Sale of Prepaid Funeral Services or Funeral Merchandise

Permit from State Banking Department Authorizing Transaction of Business

Sec. 1. Any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association (hereinafter called "organization" or "seller") desiring to sell prearranged or prepaid funeral services or funeral merchandise (including caskets, grave vaults, and all other articles of merchandise incidental to a funeral service, but excluding grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums), or accepting funds for such services or merchandise, in this state, under any contract, expressed or implied, providing for prepaid burial or funeral benefits or merchandise (hereinafter called "prepaid funeral benefits"), or who shall solicit the designations by an individual of the items of funeral merchandise or services which he desires to be provided out of any fund, investment, security, or contract to be created or purchased by such individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization shall obtain a permit from the State Banking Department (hereinafter called Department) of this state authorizing the transaction of this type of business, before conducting such business. Seller shall not be entitled to enforce a contract made in violation of this Act, but the purchaser or his heirs, or legal representative, shall be entitled to recover all amounts paid to the seller under any contract made in violation thereof, and all amounts paid whether or not paid seller, to any fund or for any investment, security, or contract where the seller has violated the provisions of this Act. Delivery of funeral merchandise prior to death shall not constitute performance or fulfillment, either wholly or in part, of any prepaid funeral benefits contract entered into after the effective date of this amendatory Act.

Provided, however, that grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums shall not be excluded from the provisions of this Section when these items and articles are sold in contemplation of trade or barter for services and articles designated as included by the provisions of this Section.

Solicitation of Designation of Funeral Services or Merchandise Without Approval of Fund, Investment, Security or Contract

Sec. 1a. No organization covered by this Act shall solicit by any means whatsoever the designation by an individual of funeral services or merchandise which he desires to be provided to be paid out of any fund, investment, security, or contract, to be created or purchased by or for such an individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization, unless such a fund is to be created by a contract of insurance with an insurance company licensed in Texas, or unless such fund, investment, security, or contract shall have been approved by the Department as safeguarding the right and interests of the individual, his heirs and assigns, to substantially the same or greater degree as is provided with respect to funds regulated by Section 5 hereof. Provided, however, that the Department may require evidence of payment of premiums on any contract of insurance used to create a fund to guarantee prepaid funeral benefits. Any seller failing to provide such evidence to the Department after being so requested by written notice shall be subject to cancellation of its permit under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act.

Administration of Act by Banking Department; Rules and Regulations; Contracts

Sec. 2. This law shall be administered by the State Banking Department. The Department is authorized to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations concerning the keeping and inspection of records, the filing of contracts and reports, and all other matters incidental to the orderly administration of this law; and the Department may approve forms for sales contracts for prepaid funeral benefits. All such contracts must be in writing and no contract form shall be used without prior approval of the Department. All such contracts shall state the name of the funeral home or other organization primarily responsible for providing the funeral services or merchandise specified in such contracts. In the event the seller is not the funeral home designated to provide the specified funeral services or merchandise, such contract shall not be valid unless the funeral home so designated is a party to the contract and therein agrees and obligates itself to provide such specified funeral services or merchandise. It is further provided, that all prearranged or prepaid funeral contracts shall set forth the particulars of the funeral merchandise, including a description and specifications of the material used in the caskets or grave vaults to be furnished, and such contracts shall set forth the particulars of the professional services to be performed and the funeral home facilities to be provided.

Application for and Issuance of Permit; Filing Fees; Duration of Permit

Sec. 3. Each organization desiring to sell prepaid funeral benefits shall file an application for a permit with the Department and shall pay a filing fee of $50. The Banking Commissioner may issue a permit upon receipt of the application and payment of the filing fee. Permits shall expire on March 1st each year, but may be renewed for a period of one year upon payment of a fee of $40 on or before March 1st.

Cancellation of Permit; Refusal to Renew; Appeal

Sec. 4. The Department may cancel a permit or refuse to renew a permit for failure to comply with any provision of this Act or any valid rule or regulation which the Department has prescribed, after reasonable notice to the permittee and after a hearing if the permittee requests a hearing.

No organization shall be entitled to a new permit for a period of one year after cancellation or refusal by the Department to renew its permit, but shall thereafter be entitled to a new permit upon satisfactory proof of compliance with this law.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the Department may appeal therefrom to a District Court in Travis County, Texas.

Handling of Funds Paid or Collected Under Contract

Sec. 5. All sums heretofore or hereafter paid or collected on contracts for prepaid funeral benefits entered into prior to the effective date of this Act shall be handled in accordance with the manner in which they have heretofore been handled. All sums paid or collected on such contracts entered into after the effective date of this Act (with the exception of those paid where a contract of insurance is created or those approved by the Department, as both are provided for in Section 1a of this Act) shall be handled in the following manner:

(1) The funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) may retain as its own money, for the purpose of covering its selling expenses, servicing costs, and general overhead, an amount not to exceed one-half of all funds so collected or paid until it has received for its use and benefit an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser of said prepaid funeral benefits as such total amount is reflected in the contract. No charges or assessments, except premiums collected on an insurance policy guaranteeing the payments on a prepaid funeral contract or the unpaid balance thereof, shall be collected from the purchaser other than those included in the total amount of said contract.

(2) All amounts paid or collected, with the exception of those permitted to be retained as set forth above, shall, within thirty days after such collection, be (a) deposited in a savings and loan association in this state, or (b) deposited in a state or national bank in this state, or (c) placed with the trust department in a state or national bank in this state, or in a trust company authorized to do business in this state, to be invested by such trust department or company in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Texas Trust Code (Subtitle B, Title 9, Property Code).¹ Such deposits or trust accounts shall be carried in the name of the funeral home or other entity to whom the purchaser makes payment, but accounting records shall be maintained showing the amount deposited or invested with respect to any particular purchaser's contract.

(3) The date of death of the purchaser of such contract (or other individual who may be designated in the contract as the person for whose funeral such funds may be used) shall be the maturity date of the contract, and as soon as conveniently practicable after such maturity date and upon presentation of a certified copy of the death certificate of such person together with proper affidavits as may be required by the Department, such funds shall be released in fulfillment of the contract, and the funeral home (or other entity to the contract which has collected the funds) shall, if the amount so withdrawn does not equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid under such contract, make up the difference so that the amount available for funeral benefits shall equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid in under such contract. Any amounts accumulated at maturity on any particular contract in excess of one hundred percent of the amount paid in on such contract shall be available to the funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) in making up the difference on any particular contract which at maturity did not have funds available equal to one hundred percent of the amount paid under such contract.

The seller may withdraw at any time funds out of accrued interest or income of the deposit accounts or trust accounts for the purpose of paying reasonable and necessary charges made by a savings and loan association, or bank, or trust department of a bank, or trust company, and trustee's fees made by a savings and loan association, or bank, or trust department of a bank, or trust company, with respect to such accounts, or for the purpose of paying any taxes caused or created by reason of the existence of such deposit accounts or trust accounts.

Upon the maturity date of a contract as above provided and only after the funeral home has fully performed its obligations under said contract with the purchaser, or at the time of cancellation prior to maturity as provided in Subsection (4) herein, the seller may additionally withdraw from said deposit account (whether a trust or other funded account) any enhanced value, accrued interest, or accrued income of said contract. Such withdrawal shall be the proportionate part of the total enhanced value, accrued interest or accrued income, that the amount deposited under said contract bears to the total amount deposited from all unexpired contracts.

(4) In the event a purchaser under a contract should desire to cancel the contract prior to maturity, such cancellation may be accomplished by the purchaser giving fifteen days notice in writing to the Department and to the seller of the contract, and thereafter, upon written authorization from the Department, such purchaser may withdraw the funds in such depository being held for his use and benefit; provided, however, such purchaser shall be entitled to withdraw and receive only the actual amounts paid in by him less the amounts permitted to be retained as provided in Subsection (1) hereof. Purchaser may make no partial cancellations or withdrawals.

Agents Responsible for Funds Collected; Designation; Violation a Misdemeanor

Sec. 6. Each organization subject to this Act shall designate an agent or agents, either by names of the individuals or by titles of their offices or positions, who shall be responsible for deposit of funds collected under contracts for prepaid funeral benefits. The organization shall notify the Department of such designation within 10 days after it becomes subject to this Act, and shall also notify the Department of any change in such designation within 10 days after such change occurs. If any person acting on behalf of the seller collects any money under such a contract and fails to deliver it, within 30 days after collection, to a designated agent, or if any designated agent fails to deposit the money within 30 days after he receives it, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and a violation of this Act and shall be punished by those means prescribed in Section 9 of this Act.

Annual Report

Sec. 7. The Department may require an annual report from any permit holder in such form as the Department may require. Any organization which has discontinued the sale of prepaid funeral benefits but which still has outstanding contracts shall not be required to obtain a renewal of its permit, but the Department may require annual reports of said organization until all such contracts have been fully discharged. If any officer of any organization fails or refuses to file an annual report or to cause it to be filed within 30 days after he has been notified of the requirement by the Department, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and a violation of this Act and shall be punished by those means prescribed in Section 9 of this Act.

Records Required; Examination; Fee

Sec. 8. Each organization which has outstanding contracts for prepaid funeral benefits shall maintain within this state such records as the Department may require to enable it to determine whether the organization is complying with the provisions of this Act. Such records shall be subject to annual examination by the Department or its agent and to such additional examinations as it deems necessary. The organization shall pay for the cost of examination, including the salary and traveling expenses paid to the person making the examination during the time spent in making the examination and in traveling to and returning from the point where the records are kept, and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the examination. The Banking Commissioner or his agent shall assess and collect a fee in connection with each examination, based on the organization's total outstanding contracts, covering the cost of such examination, the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department, and the enforcement of the provisions of this Act; but the cost to the organization shall not be more than a total cost of $1,000 for each examination. Those organizations with less than 50 contracts outstanding shall be assessed an examination fee of $50 plus one-fourth of one percent of the dollar amount of the organization's outstanding contract funds on deposit, in trust, or vested in any other program subject to this Act. Those organizations with 50 or more contracts outstanding shall be assessed an examination fee of $100 plus one-fourth of one percent of the dollar amount of the organization's outstanding contract funds on deposit, in trust, or vested in any other program subject to this Act.

Violation of Act; Punishment

Sec. 9. Any officer, director, agent, or employee of any organization subject to the terms of this Act who makes or attempts to make any contract in violation of this Act, or who refuses to allow an inspection of the organization's records, or who violates any other provision of this Act, or who is guilty of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or any other dishonest practice in sale of any contract subject to this Act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month and not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each violation of any provision of this Act shall be deemed a separate offense and prosecuted individually.

The Department may bring each such violation of this Act to the attention of the Attorney General of this state and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to institute suit in the manner of the State of Texas against such violator in any county in this state where such violation might occur.

In addition to the misdemeanor penalties prescribed above, the Attorney General shall have the power and authority to institute quo warranto proceedings in a District Court of Travis County, Texas to forfeit the charter and right to do business of a corporation whose officer, director, agent or employee refuses or fails to correct a violation of this Act after such violation has been called to the attention of said officer, director, agent or employee by the Department or the Attorney General. A period of 30 days shall be considered sufficient time to correct such violation after notice from the Department or Attorney General.

Fees, Penalties and Revenues; Disposition

Sec. 10. All fees, penalties and revenues collected by the department shall be paid to the State Treasury, placed in the prepaid funeral account fund and shall be expended as authorized by legislative appropriation.

Applicability to Insurance Code and Group Term Life Insurance

Sec. 10a. Nothing in this Act shall alter or affect any provisions of the Insurance Code of the State of Texas; provided however, that purchasers of contracts for prepaid funeral benefits from the same seller of such contracts shall constitute a lawful group for the issuance of a group contract of decreasing term life insurance by a life insurance company authorized to do a life insurance business in the State of Texas. The amount of insurance relative to any particular purchaser shall at all times approximate the future unpaid balance of such contract for prepaid funeral benefits. The seller of prepaid funeral benefit contracts shall have an insurable interest in the life of any purchaser of such contract to the extent of any unpaid balance thereof, and the proceeds of any life insurance policy received by a seller of a prepaid funeral benefit contract on the life of a purchaser of such contract shall be applied to the reduction or elimination of any unpaid balance thereof. This section shall not be construed as having any effect on the funding of prepaid funeral benefits by other contracts of insurance as provided for in Section 1a of this Act.

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1283, ch. 494, which amended art. 4582b, relating to funeral directing and embalming, provided in § 5 of the Act that nothing therein should be construed as repealing, amending, modifying, altering, or in any way prohibiting the effect and application of the provisions of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496 (S.B. No. 129), which amended this article, and further provided that if there were conflicts between the provisions of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1283, ch. 494, and Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, the provisions of ch. 496 should prevail.

Sections 4 and 5 of Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 250, ch. 119 provide:

"Sec. 4. If any provision, section, sentence, clause or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 5. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

Sections 2 and 3 of Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 374, ch. 168 provide:

"Sec. 2. If any provision, section, sentence, clause, or part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect other provisions or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. All laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed or modified to the extent of such conflict only."

PENAL PROVISIONSArt. 548c. Affidavit of Solvency

Annually, not later than January 15th of each year, each person or persons, association of persons or partnerships, or trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, or the officers or the managers thereof, owning or operating any bank of deposit within this State, shall file with the county clerk of the county wherein the principal business of said institution is conducted an affidavit stating that said person or association of persons, partnership or institution, operating under a common law declaration of trust, is solvent and has and owns property and assets in this State the value of which is in excess of any and all of the liabilities of such person, association of persons, partnership or institution operating under a declaration of trust.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 548d. Statement of Private Bank

Every person, partnership or association of persons, the trustee or trustees of every joint stock association, or institution, operating under any common law declaration of trust, owning or operating a bank of deposit within this State, shall annually, not later than January 20th, file with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of said joint stock association or institution operating under a common law declaration of trust is located, a written sworn statement giving the names of each partner or stockholder, or member holding or owning any financial interest or stock in such partnership or institution operating under a common law declaration of trust or association of persons; and a copy of such statement shall be published by the institution, partnership or association of persons, trustee or trustees of such institution, in some newspaper of general circulation in said county, if such newspaper be published within said county.

Art. 548e. Advertisement of Responsibility

No person, association of persons, partnership, or any trustee or trustees, acting under any common law declaration of trust, owning or operating any private banking institution or bank of deposit within this State, shall advertise in any newspaper or otherwise within this State, that said person or association of persons, partnership or institution operating under any common law declaration of trust, owns, possesses or has a financial responsibility in excess of, or above the real and true financial responsibility of such person, association of persons, partnership or institution operating under a declaration of trust. By the term "financial responsibility" as herein used, is meant money or real or personal property within this State.

Art. 548f. Punishment

The violation of any provision of the six preceding articles¹ by any person, association of persons, partnership, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, shall constitute a misdemeanor as to such person, as to each member or association of persons, and as to each and every trustee acting under such common law declaration of trust, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day said business is carried on or attempted to be carried on shall be a separate offense.

Art. 548g. Exceptions

The provisions of the eight preceding articles shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustees, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who, at the time this Act becomes effective are actively engaged in the operation of any bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank within this State, nor to any bank which may have been in successful operation in this State for twenty years and shall have suspended operation prior to the passage of this Act, but which shall resume operation within twelve months after the passage of this Act. The right to continue such business of such bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank so engaged, or shall resume business as provided in this Act, and by their heirs, legal representatives, assigns and successors, is hereby expressly recognized, confirmed and fixed. Said provisions shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustee, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who has for a period of one year next preceding the date that this Act becomes effective, and who, as such, in the course of the liquidation of any bank or trust company or bank and trust company within this State, has acquired the assets, or any part thereof, including the real estate used as its banking house or place of business and has assumed the liabilities, or a part thereof, of such liquidated bank or trust company or bank and trust company.

Art. 581-2. Creating the State Securities Board and Providing for Appointment of Securities Commissioner

A. The State Securities Board is hereby created. The Board shall consist of three citizens of the state. With the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall biennially appoint one member. The term of each member shall be six (6) years from the time of his appointment and qualification, and until his successor shall qualify. Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term. Members shall be eligible for reappointment. Appointments to the Board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees.

B. Board members must be members of the general public. A person is not eligible for appointment as a member if the person or the person's spouse:

(1) is registered as a dealer, salesman, agent, or investment adviser;

(2) is employed by or participates in the management of a business entity engaged in business as a securities dealer or investment adviser; or

(3) has, other than as a consumer, a financial interest in a business entity engaged in business as a securities dealer or investment adviser.

C. A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), because of the person's activities for compensation in or for a profession related to the operation of the Board, may not serve as a member of the Board or act as the general counsel to the Board.

D. Each member of the Board is entitled to per diem as set by legislative appropriation for each day that the member engages in the business of the Board.

They shall select their own chairman. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

E. It is a ground for removal from the Board if a member:

(1) does not have at the time of appointment the qualifications required by Subsection A or B of this section for appointment to the Board;

(2) does not maintain during the service on the Board the qualifications required by Subsection A or B of this section for appointment to the Board; or

(3) violates a prohibition established by Subsection C of this section.

F. The validity of an action of the Board is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of a member of the Board existed.

G. The Board shall appoint a Securities Commissioner who serves at the pleasure of the Board and who shall, under the supervision of the Board, administer the provisions of this Act. Each member of the Board shall have access to all offices and records under his supervision, and the Board, or a majority thereof, may exercise any power or perform any act authorized to the Securities Commissioner by the provisions of this Act.

H. The Commissioner, with the consent of the Board, may designate a Deputy Securities Commissioner who shall perform all the duties required by law to be performed by the Securities Commissioner when the said Commissioner is absent or unable to act for any reason.

I. Before assuming office, the Securities Commissioner shall first give a bond in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. The same requirement is made of the Deputy Securities Commissioner, and the Securities Commissioner may require any or all of his staff and employees to be likewise bonded. The expense of all such bonds may be paid by the state.

J. On or before January 1 of each year, the Board, with the advice of the Commissioner, shall report to the Governor and the presiding officer of each house of the Legislature as to its administration of this Act, as well as plans and needs for future securities regulation. The report must include a detailed accounting of all funds received and disbursed by the Board during the preceding year.

K. The Commissioner or his designee shall develop an intraagency career ladder program, one part of which shall be the intraagency posting of all nonentry level positions for at least ten (10) days before any public posting. The Commissioner or his designee shall develop a system of annual performance evaluations based on measurable job tasks. All merit pay for Board employees must be based on the system established under this section.

L. The Board shall prepare information of consumer interest describing the regulatory functions of the Board and Commissioner and describing the Board's and Commissioner's procedures by which consumer complaints are filed with and resolved by the Board or Commissioner. The Board shall make the information available to the general public and appropriate state agencies. There shall be prominently displayed at all times in the place of business of each dealer, salesman, or agent regulated under this Act, a sign containing the name, mailing address, and telephone number of the Board and a statement informing consumers that complaints against a dealer, salesman, or agent may be directed to the Board.

M. The State Auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the Board during each fiscal year.

N. The Board and Commissioner are subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

O. The State Securities Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1995.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 2. Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1841, ch. 735, § 2.066, eff. Aug. 29, 1977; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Section 6 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"The requirements under Subsection K, Section 2, The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), that the commissioner develop an intraagency career ladder program and a system of annual performance evaluations shall be implemented before September 1, 1984. The requirement of that section that merit pay be based on the performance evaluation system shall be implemented before September 1, 1985."

Art. 581-3. Administration and Enforcement by the Securities Commissioner and the Attorney General and Local Law Enforcement Officials

The administration of the provisions of this Act shall be vested in the Securities Commissioner. It shall be the duty of the Securities Commissioner and the Attorney General to see that its provisions are at all times obeyed and to take such measures and to make such investigations as will prevent or detect the violation of any provision thereof. The Commissioner shall at once lay before the District or County Attorney of the proper county any evidence which shall come to his knowledge of criminality under this Act. In the event of the neglect or refusal of such attorney to institute and prosecute such violation, the Commissioner shall submit such evidence to the Attorney General, who is hereby authorized to proceed therein with all the rights, privileges and powers conferred by law upon district or county attorneys, including the power to appear before grand juries and to interrogate witnesses before such grand juries.

Art. 581-4. Definitions

The following terms shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, have the following respective meanings:

A. The term "security" or "securities" shall include any share, stock, treasury stock, stock certificate under a voting trust agreement, collateral trust certificate, equipment trust certificate, preorganization certificate or receipt, subscription or reorganization certificate, note, bond, debenture, mortgage certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, any form of commercial paper, certificate in or under a profit sharing or participation agreement, certificate or any instrument representing any interest in or under an oil, gas or mining lease, fee or title, or any certificate or instrument representing or secured by an interest in any or all of the capital, property, assets, profits or earnings of any company, investment contract, or any other instrument commonly known as a security, whether similar to those herein referred to or not. Provided, however, that this definition shall not apply to any insurance policy, endowment policy, annuity contract, optional annuity contract, or any contract or agreement in relation to and in consequence of any such policy or contract, issued by an insurance company subject to the supervision or control of the Board of Insurance Commissioners when the form of such policy or contract has been duly filed with the Board as now or hereafter required by law.

B. The terms "person" and "company" shall include a corporation, person, joint stock company, partnership, limited partnership, association, company, firm, syndicate, trust, incorporated or unincorporated, heretofore or hereafter formed under the laws of this or any other state, country, sovereignty or political subdivision thereof, and shall include a government, or a political subdivision or agency thereof. As used herein, the term "trust" shall be deemed to include a common law trust, but shall not include a trust created or appointed under or by virtue of a last will and testament or by a court of law or equity. Under the criminal penal provisions of Section 29 of this Act, the word "person" shall mean a natural person.

C. The term "dealer" shall include every person or company, other than a salesman, who engages in this state, either for all or part of his or its time, directly or through an agent, in selling, offering for sale or delivery or soliciting subscriptions to or orders for, or undertaking to dispose of, or to invite offers for, or rendering services as an investment adviser, or dealing in any other manner in any security or securities within this state. Any issuer other than a registered dealer of a security or securities, who, directly or through any person or company, other than a registered dealer, offers for sale, sells or makes sales of its own security or securities shall be deemed a dealer and shall be required to comply with the provisions hereof; provided, however, this section or provision shall not apply to such issuer when such security or securities are offered for sale or sold either to a registered dealer or only by or through a registered dealer acting as fiscal agent for the issuer; and provided further, this section or provision shall not apply to such issuer if the transaction is within the exemptions contained in the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

D. The term "salesman" shall include every person or company employed or appointed or authorized by a dealer to sell, offer for sale or delivery, or solicit subscriptions to or orders for, or deal in any other manner, in securities within this state, whether by direct act or through subagents; provided, that the officers of a corporation or partners of a partnership shall not be deemed salesmen, where such corporation or partnership is registered as a dealer hereunder.

E. The terms "sale" or "offer for sale" or "sell" shall include every disposition, or attempt to dispose of a security for value. The term "sale" means and includes contracts and agreements whereby securities are sold, traded or exchanged for money, property or other things of value, or any transfer or agreement to transfer, in trust or otherwise. Any security given or delivered with or as a bonus on account of any purchase of securities or other thing of value, shall be conclusively presumed to constitute a part of the subject of such purchase and to have been sold for value. The term "sell" means any act by which a sale is made, and the term "sale" or "offer for sale" shall include a subscription, an option for sale, a solicitation of sale, a solicitation of an offer to buy, an attempt to sell, or an offer to sell, directly or by an agent or salesman, by a circular, letter, or advertisement or otherwise, including the deposit in a United States Post Office or mail box or in any manner in the United States mails within this State of a letter, circular or other advertising matter. Nothing herein shall limit or diminish the full meaning of the terms "sale," "sell" or "offer for sale" as used by or accepted in courts of law or equity. The sale of a security under conditions which entitle the purchaser or subsequent holder to exchange the same for, or to purchase some other security, shall not be deemed a sale or offer for sale of such other security; but no exchange for or sale of such other security shall ever be made unless and until the sale thereof shall have been first authorized in Texas under this Act, if not exempt hereunder, or by other provisions of law.

F. The terms "fraud" or "fraudulent practice" shall include any misrepresentations, in any manner, of a relevant fact; any promise or representation or predication as to the future not made honestly and in good faith, or an intentional failure to disclose a material fact; the gaining, directly or indirectly, through the sale of any security, of an underwriting or promotion fee or profit, selling or managing commission or profit, so gross or exorbitant as to be unconscionable; any scheme, device or other artifice to obtain such profit, fee or commission; provided, that nothing herein shall limit or diminish the full meaning of the terms "fraud," "fraudulent," and "fraudulent practice" as applied or accepted in courts of law or equity.

G. "Issuer" shall mean and include every company or person who proposes to issue, has issued, or shall hereafter issue any security.

H. "Broker" shall mean dealer as herein defined.

I. "Mortgage" shall be deemed to include a deed of trust to secure a debt.

J. If the sense requires it, words in the present tense include the future tense, in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter gender, in the singular number include the plural number, and in the plural number include the singular number; "and" may be read "or" and "or" may be read "and".

K. "No par value" or "non-par" as applied to shares of stock or other securities shall mean that such shares of stock or other securities are without a given or specified par value. Whenever any classification or computation in this Act mentioned is based upon "par value" as applied to shares of stock or other securities of no par value, the amount for which such securities are sold or offered for sale to the public shall be used as a basis of such classification or computation.

L. The term "include" when used in a definition contained in this Act shall not be deemed to exclude other things or persons otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

M. "Registered dealer" shall mean a dealer as hereinabove defined who has been duly registered by the Commissioner as in Section 15 of this Act provided.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 4. Amended by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1085, ch. 235, § 1, eff. May 17, 1971; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 348, ch. 160, § 1, eff. May 15, 1979.]

Section 10 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"This Act does not affect Section 11.01, Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or Article 11a, Chapter IV, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as added (Article 342-411a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

Art. 581-5. Exempt Transactions

Except as hereinafter in this Act specifically provided, the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the sale of any security when made in any of the following transactions and under any of the following conditions, and the company or person engaged therein shall not be deemed a dealer within the meaning of this Act; that is to say, the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any sale, offer for sale, solicitation, subscription, dealing in or delivery of any security under any of the following transactions or conditions:

A. At any judicial, executor's, administrator's, guardian's or conservator's sale, or any sale by a receiver or trustee in insolvency or bankruptcy.

B. The sale by or for the account of a pledge holder or mortgagee, selling or offering for sale or delivery in the ordinary course of business to liquidate a bona fide debt, of a security pledged in good faith as security for such debt.

C. (1) Sales of securities made by or in behalf of a vendor, whether by dealer or other agent, in the ordinary course of bona fide personal investment of the personal holdings of such vendor, or change in such investment, if such vendor is not engaged in the business of selling securities and the sale or sales are isolated transactions not made in the course of repeated and successive transactions of a like character; provided, that in no event shall such sales or offerings be exempt from the provisions of this Act when made or intended by the vendor or his agent, for the benefit, either directly or indirectly, of any company or corporation except the individual vendor (other than a usual commission to said agent), and provided further, that any person acting as agent for said vendor shall be registered pursuant to this Act;

(2) Sales by or on behalf of any insurance company subject to the supervision or control of the Board of Insurance Commissioners of any security owned by such company as a legal and bona fide investment, provided that in no event shall any such sale or offering be exempt from the provisions of this Act when made or intended, either directly or indirectly, for the benefit of any other company as that term is defined in this Act.

D. The distribution by a corporation of securities direct to its stockholders as a stock dividend or other distribution paid out of earnings or surplus.

E. Any offer and any transaction pursuant to any offer by the issuer of its securities to its existing security holders (including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities or nontransferable warrants) if no commission or other remuneration (other than a stand-by commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this State.

F. The issue in good faith of securities by a company to its security holders, or creditors, in the process of a bona fide reorganization of the company made in good faith, or the issue in good faith of securities by a company, organized solely for the purpose of taking over the assets and continuing the business of a predecessor company, to the security holders or creditors of such predecessor company, provided that in either such case such securities are issued in exchange for the securities of such holders or claims of such creditors, or both, and in either such case security holders or creditors do not pay or give or promise and are not obligated to pay or give any consideration for the securities so issued other than the securities of or claims against said company or its predecessor then held or owned by them.

G. The issue or sale of securities (a) by one corporation to another corporation or the security holders thereof pursuant to a vote by one or more classes of such security holders, as required by the certificate of incorporation or the applicable corporation statute, in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of corporate assets, or (b) by one corporation to its own stockholders in connection with the change of par value stock to no par value stock or vice versa, or the exchange of outstanding shares for the same or a greater or smaller number of shares; provided that in any such case such security holders do not pay or give or promise and are not obligated to pay or give any consideration for the securities so issued or sold other than the securities of the corporation then held by them.

H. The sale of any security to any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, surety or guaranty company, savings institution, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940,¹ small business investment company as defined in the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended,² or to any registered dealer actually engaged in buying and selling securities; or the issue or sale of any investment contract in connection with an employees' stock bonus, annuity, pension, profit-sharing or similar employee benefit plan provided the securities purchased under the plan either would be exempt if sold by a registered dealer under Section 6 hereof or shall be qualified under Section 7 hereof or purchased in a transaction exempt under Section 5 hereof.

I. Provided such sale is made without any public solicitation or advertisements, (a) the sale of any security by the issuer thereof so long as the total number of security holders of the issuer thereof does not exceed thirty-five (35) persons after taking such sale into account; (b) the sale of shares of stock pursuant to the grant of an employees' restricted stock option as defined in the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States; or (c) the sale by an issuer of its securities during the period of twelve (12) months ending with the date of the sale in question to not more than fifteen (15) persons (excluding, in determining such fifteen (15) persons, purchasers of securities in transactions exempt under other provisions of this Section 5, purchasers of securities exempt under Section 6 hereof and purchasers of securities which are part of an offering registered under Section 7 hereof); provided such persons purchased such securities for their own account and not for distribution.

The commissioner may by order revoke or suspend the exemption under clause (c) of this Subsection I with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act. The revocation or suspension of this exemption shall be inapplicable to the issuer until such issuer shall have received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

J. Wherein the securities disposed of consist exclusively of notes or bonds secured by mortgage or vendor's lien upon real estate or tangible personal property, and the entire mortgage is sold or transferred with all of the notes or bonds secured thereby in a single transaction.

K. Any security or membership issued by a corporation or association, organized exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any stockholder, shareholder, or individual members, and where no commission or remuneration is paid or given or is to be paid or given in connection with the disposition thereof.

L. The sale by the issuer itself, or by a registered dealer, of any security issued or guaranteed by any bank organized and subject to regulation under the laws of the United States or under the laws of any State or territory of the United States, or any insular possession thereof, or by any savings and loan association organized and subject to regulation under the laws of this State, or the sale by the issuer itself of any security issued by any federal savings and loan association.

M. The sale by the issuer itself, or by a registered dealer, of any security either issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any territory or insular possession thereof, or by the District of Columbia, or by any state of the United States, or political subdivision thereof (including but not limited to any county, city, municipal corporation, district, or authority), or by any public or governmental agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing.

N. The sale and issuance of any securities issued by any farmers' cooperative association organized under Article 5737 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended;³ the sale and issuance of any securities issued by mutual loan corporations organized under Article 2500 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925;⁴ the sale and issuance of any equity securities issued by any cooperative association organized under the Cooperative Association Act, as amended (Article 1396-50-01, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and the sale of any securities issued by any farmers' cooperative society organized under Article 2514 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.⁵ Provided, however, this exemption shall not be applicable to agents and salesmen of any farmers' cooperative association, mutual loan corporation, cooperative association, or farmers' cooperative society when the sale of such securities is made to non-members, or when the sale of such securities is made to members or non-members and a commission is paid or contracted to be paid to the said agents or salesmen.

O. The sale by a registered dealer of outstanding securities provided that:

(1) Such securities form no part of an unsold allotment to or subscription by such dealer as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer thereof; and

(2) Securities of the same class, of the same issuer, are outstanding in the hands of the public; and

(3) Such securities are offered for sale, in good faith, at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such securities at the time of such sale; and

(4) No part of the proceeds of such sale are paid directly or indirectly to the issuer of such securities; and

(5) Such sale is not directly or indirectly for the purposes of providing or furthering any scheme to violate or evade any provision of this Act; and

(6) The right to sell or resell such securities has not been enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction in this State by proceedings instituted by an officer or agency of this State charged with enforcement of this Act; and

(7) The right to sell such securities has not been revoked or suspended by the commissioner under any of the provisions of this Act, or, if so, revocation or suspension is not in force and effect; and

(8) At the time of such sale, the issuer of such securities shall be a going concern actually engaged in business and shall then be neither in an organization stage nor in receivership or bankruptcy; and

(9) Such securities or other securities of the issuer of the same class have been registered by qualification, notification or coordination under Section 7 of this Act; or at the time of such sale at least the following information about the issuer shall appear in a recognized securities manual or in a statement, in form and extent acceptable to the commissioner, filed with the commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer:

(a) A statement of the issuer's principal business;

(b) A balance sheet as of a date within eighteen (18) months of the date of such sale; and

(c) Profit and loss statements and a record of the dividends paid, if any, for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of such balance sheet or for the period of existence of the issuer, if such period of existence is less than three (3) years.

The term "recognized securities manual" means a nationally distributed manual of securities that is approved for use hereunder by the Board.

The commissioner may issue a stop order or by order prohibit, revoke or suspend the exemption under this Subsection O with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act. Notice of any court injunction enjoining the sale, or resale, of any such security, or of an order revoking or suspending the exemption under this subdivision with respect to any security, shall be delivered or shall be mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, to any dealers believed to be selling, or offering for sale, securities of the type referred to in the notice; and the prohibitions of (6) and (7) above of this Subsection O shall be inapplicable to any dealer until he has received actual notice from the commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

The Board may for cause shown revoke or suspend the recognition hereunder of any manuals previously approved under this Subsection but no such action may be taken unless upon notice and opportunity for hearing before the Board or a hearings officer appointed by the Board. A judgment sustaining the Board in the action complained of shall not bar after one year an application by the plaintiff for approval of its manual or manuals hereunder, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the Board from thereafter revoking such recognition for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered.

P. The execution by a dealer of an unsolicited order for the purchase of securities, where the initial offering of such securities has been completed and provided that the dealer acts solely as an agent for the purchaser, has no direct or indirect interest in the sale or distribution of the security ordered, and receives no commission, profit, or other compensation from any source other than the purchaser.

Q. The sales of interest in and under oil, gas or mining leases, fees or titles, or contracts relating thereto, where (1) the total number of sales by any one owner of interests, whether whole, fractional, segregated or undivided in any single oil, gas or mineral lease, fee or title, or contract relating thereto, shall not exceed thirty-five (35) within a period of twelve (12) consecutive months and (2) no use is made of advertisement or public solicitation; provided, however, if such sale or sales are made by an agent for such owner or owners, such agent shall be licensed pursuant to this Act. No oil, gas or mineral unitization or pooling agreement shall be deemed a sale under this Act.

R. The sale by the issuer itself, or by a subsidiary of such issuer, of any securities which would be exempt if sold by a registered dealer under Section 6 (other than Subsection 6-E) of this Act.

S. The sale by or through a registered dealer of any option if at the time of the sale of the option:

(1) the performance of the terms of the option is guaranteed by any broker-dealer registered under the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended,⁶ which guaranty and broker-dealer are in compliance with such requirements or regulations as may be approved or adopted by the board;

(2) the option is not sold by or for the benefit of the issuer of the security which may be purchased or sold upon exercise of the option;

(3) the security which may be purchased or sold upon exercise of the option is either (a) exempted under Subsection F of Section 6 of this Act or (b) quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation system and meets the requirements of Paragraphs (1), (6), (7), and (8) of Subsection O of Section 5 of this Act; and

(4) such sale is not directly or indirectly for the purposes of providing or furthering any scheme to violate or evade any provisions of this Act.

For purposes of this subsection the term "option" shall mean and include any put, call, straddle, or other option or privilege of buying or selling a specified number of securities at a specified price from or to another person, without being bound to do so, on or prior to a specified date, but such term shall not include any option or privilege which by its terms may terminate prior to such specified date upon the occurrence of a specified event.

T. Such other transactions or conditions as the board by rule, regulation, or order may define or prescribe, conditionally or unconditionally.

⁶ 15 U.S.C.A. § 78a et seq.

Sections 1 to 12a of the amendatory act of 1963 amended various articles of the Securities Act. Section 13 was a severability provision. Section 14 thereof provided:

"Prior law exclusively governs all suits, actions, proceedings, rights, liabilities and causes of action which are pending or accrue before the effective date of this Act; and same shall continue and remain in full force and effect until terminated as under the law now in force."

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-6. Exempt Securities

Except as hereinafter in this Act expressly provided, the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any of the following securities when offered for sale, or sold, or dealt in by a registered dealer or salesman of a registered dealer:

A to C. Deleted by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 354, ch. 160, § 3, eff. May 15, 1979.

D. Any security issued or guaranteed either as to principal, interest, or dividend, by a corporation owning or operating a railroad or any other public service utility; provided, that such corporation is subject to regulation or supervision either as to its rates and charges or as to the issue of its own securities by the Railroad Commission of Texas, or by a public commission, agency, board or officers of the Government of the United States, or of any territory or insular possession thereof, or of any state or municipal corporation, or of the District of Columbia, or of the Dominion of Canada, or any province thereof; also equipment trust certificates or equipment notes or bonds based on chattel mortgages, leases or agreements for conditional sale of cars, motive power or other rolling stock mortgages, leased or sold to or furnished for the use of or upon a railroad or other public service utility corporation, provided that such corporation is subject to regulation or supervision as above; or equipment trust certificates, or equipment notes or bonds where the ownership or title of such equipment is pledged or retained in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the United States, or of any state, territory or insular possession thereof, or of the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada, or any province thereof, to secure the payment of such equipment trust certificates, bonds or notes.

E. Any security issued and sold by a domestic corporation without capital stock and not organized and not engaged in business for profit.

F. Securities which at the time of sale have been fully listed upon the American Stock Exchange, the Boston Stock Exchange, the Midwest Stock Exchange or the New York Stock Exchange, or upon any recognized and responsible stock exchange approved by the Commissioner as hereinafter in this section provided, and also all securities senior to, or if of the same issues, upon a parity with, any securities so listed or represented by subscription rights which have been so listed, or evidence of indebtedness guaranteed by any company, any stock of which is so listed, such securities to be exempt only so long as the exchange upon which such securities are so listed remains approved under the provisions of this Section. Application for approval by the Commissioner may be made by any organized stock exchange in such manner and upon such forms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, but no approval of any exchange shall be given unless the facts and data supplied with the application shall be found to establish:

(1) That the requirements for the listing of securities upon the exchange so seeking approval are such as to effect reasonable protection to the public;

(2) That the governing constitution, by-laws or regulations of such exchange shall require:

1st: An adequate examination into the affairs of the issuer of the securities which are to be listed before permitting trading therein;

2nd: That the issuer of such securities, so long as they be listed, shall periodically prepare, make public and furnish promptly to the exchange, appropriate financial, income, and profit and loss statements;

3rd: Securities listed and traded in on such exchange to be restricted to those of ascertained, sound asset or income value;

4th: A reasonable surveillance of its members, including a requirement for periodical financial statements and a determination of the financial responsibility of its members and the right and obligation in the governing body of such exchange to suspend or expel any member found to be financially embarrassed or irresponsible or found to have been guilty of misconduct in his business dealings, or conduct prejudicial of the rights and interests of his customers;

The approval of any such exchange by the Commissioner shall be made only after a reasonable investigation and hearing, and shall be by a written order of approval upon a finding of fact substantially in accordance with the requirements hereinabove provided. The Commissioner, upon ten (10) days notice and hearing, shall have power at any time to withdraw approval theretofore granted by him to any such stock exchange which does not at the time of hearing meet the standards of approval under this Act, and thereupon securities so listed upon such exchange shall be no longer entitled to the benefit of such exemption except upon the further order of said Commissioner approving such exchange.

G. Deleted by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 354, ch. 160, § 3, eff. May 15, 1979.

H. Negotiable promissory notes or commercial paper issued in good faith and in the usual course of carrying on and conducting the business of the issuer, provided that such notes or commercial paper mature in not more than twenty-four (24) months from the date of issue.

I. Notes, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness or certificates of ownership which are equally and proportionately secured without reference of priority of one over another, and which, by the terms of the instrument creating the lien, shall continue to be so secured by the deposit with a trustee of recognized responsibility approved by the Commissioner of any of the securities specified in Subsection M of Section 5 or Subsection D of Section 6; such deposited securities, if of the classes described in Subsection M of Section 5, having an aggregate par value of not less than one hundred and ten per cent (110%) of the par value of the securities thereby secured, and if of class specified in Subsection D of Section 6, having an aggregate par value of not less than one hundred and twenty five per cent (125%) of the par value of the securities thereby secured.

J. Notes, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of religious, charitable or benevolent corporations.

K. Deleted by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 354, ch. 160, § 3, eff. May 15, 1979.

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-7. Permit or Registration for Issue by Commissioner; Information for Issuance of Permit or Registration

A. Qualification of Securities.

(1) No dealer, agent or salesman shall sell or offer for sale any securities issued after September 6, 1955, except those which shall have been registered by Notification under subdivision B or by Coordination under subdivision C of this Section 7 and except those which come within the classes enumerated in Section 5 or Section 6 of this Act, until the issuer of such securities or a dealer registered under the provisions of this Act shall have been granted a permit by the Commissioner; and no such permit shall be granted by the Commissioner until the issuer of such securities or a dealer registered under the provisions of this Act shall have filed with the Commissioner a sworn statement verified under the oath of an executive officer or partner of the issuer, or of such registered dealer, and attested by the secretary or partner thereof, setting forth the following information:

a. The names, residences and post office addresses of the officers and directors of the company;

b. The location of its principal office and of all branch offices in this State, if any;

c. A copy if its articles of incorporation or partnership or association, as the case may be, and of any amendments thereto, if any; if a corporation, a copy of all minutes of any proceedings of its directors, stockholders or members relating to or affecting the issue of said security; if a corporation, a copy of its bylaws and of any amendments thereto; if a trustee, a copy of all instruments by which the trust is created and in which it is accepted, acknowledged or declared;

d. A statement showing the amount of capital stock, if any, and if no capital stock, the amount of capital of the issuer that is contemplated to be employed; the number of shares into which such stock is divided, or if not divided into shares of stock, what division is to be made or is contemplated; the par value of each share, or if no par stock, the price at which such security is proposed to be sold; the promotional fees or commissions to be paid for the sale of same, including any and all compensations of every nature that are in any way to be allowed the promoters or allowed for the sale of same; and how such compensation is to be paid, whether in cash, securities, service or otherwise, or partly of either or both; also, the amount of cash to be paid, or securities to be issued, given, transferred or sold to promoters for promotion or organization services and expenses, and the amount of promotion or organization services and expenses which will be assumed or in any way paid by the issuer;

e. Copies of certificates of the stock and all other securities to be sold, or offered for sale, together with application blanks therefor; a copy of any contract it proposes to make concerning such security; a copy of any prospectus or advertisement or other description of security prepared by or for it for distribution or publication;

f. A detailed statement prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and procedures and generally accepted accounting principles, showing all the assets and all the liabilities of the issuer, said statement to reflect the financial condition of the issuer on a day not more than ninety (90) days prior to the date such statement is filed. Such statement shall list all assets in detail and shall show how the value of such assets was determined, that is, whether the value set forth in said statement represents the actual cost in money of such assets, or whether such value represents their present market value, or some other value than the actual cost in money, and shall show the present actual value of said assets; also, whether the value set forth in the statement is greater or less than the actual cost value in money and greater or less than the present market value of such assets. If any of the assets consist of real estate, then said statement shall show the amount for which said real estate is rendered for State and county taxes, or assessed for taxes. If any such assets listed shall consist of anything other than cash and real estate, same shall be set out in detail so as to give the Commissioner the fullest possible information concerning same, and the Commissioner shall have the power to require the filing of such additional information as he may deem necessary to determine whether or not the true value of said assets are reflected in the statement filed. Should any of the assets listed in said statement be subject to any repurchase agreement, or any other agreement of like character, by the terms of which the absolute ownership of, or title to said assets is qualified or limited in any way, then the terms and conditions of said agreement by which the absolute ownership of, or title to said assets is qualified or limited, as well as the amount and character of the assets subject thereto shall be fully stated. Said statement shall list all current liabilities, that is, all liabilities which will mature and become due within one year from the date of such application, and shall list separately from such current liabilities, all other liabilities, contingent or otherwise, showing the amount of those which are secured by mortgage or otherwise, the assets of the issuer which are subject to such mortgage, and the dates of maturity of any such mortgage indebtedness. Such application shall also include a detailed profit and loss statement, prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and procedures and generally accepted accounting principles, which shall cover the last three (3) years' operations of the issuer, if such issuer has been in operation for three (3) years, but if not, said profit and loss statement shall cover the time that said issuer has been operating. If said issuer has not been operating, but is taking over a concern of any kind which has been previously operating, then a financial and profit and loss statement showing the operations of the concern thus taken over for a period of the last three (3) years next preceding the taking over of said concern shall be included in said statement; said profit and loss statement shall clearly reflect the amount of net profit or net loss incurred during each of the years shown.

B. Registration by Notification.

(1) Securities may be registered by notification under this subsection B if they are issued by an issuer which has been in continuous operation for not less than three (3) years and which has shown, during the period of not less than three (3) years next prior to the date of registration under this section, average annual net earnings after deducting all prior charges including income taxes except charges upon securities to be retired out of the proceeds of sale, as follows:

a. In the case of interest-bearing securities, not less than one and one-half times the annual interest charges on such securities and on all other outstanding interest-bearing securities of equal rank;

b. In the case of securities having a specified dividend rate, not less than one and one-half times the annual dividend requirements on such securities and on all outstanding securities of equal rank;

c. In the case of securities wherein no dividend rate is specified, not less than five per cent (5%) on all outstanding securities of equal rank, together with the amount of such securities then offered for sale, based upon the maximum price at which such securities are to be offered for sale. The ownership by an issuer of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the outstanding voting stock of a corporation shall be construed as the proportionate ownership of such corporation and shall permit the inclusion of the earnings of such corporation applicable to the payment of dividends upon the stock so owned in the earnings of the issuer of the securities being registered by notification.

(2) Securities entitled to registration by notification shall be registered by the filing with the Commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer of a registration statement as required by subsection (a), and completion of the procedures outlined in subsection b hereof:

a. A registration statement in a form prescribed by the Commissioner signed by the applicant filing such statement and containing the following information:

1. Name and business address of main office of issuer and address of issuer's principal office, if any, in this state;

2. Title of securities being registered and total amount of securities to be offered;

3. Price at which securities are to be offered for sale to the public, amount of securities to be offered in this state, and amount of registration fee, computed as hereinafter provided;

4. A brief statement of the facts which show that the securities are entitled to be registered by notification;

5. Name and business address of the applicant filing statement;

6. Financial statements to include a certified profit and loss statement, a certified balance sheet, and certified statements of surplus, each to be for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of registration. These financial statements shall reflect the financial condition of the issuer as of a date not more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of such filing with the Commissioner;

7. A copy of the prospectus, if any, describing such securities;

8. Filing of a consent to service of process conforming to the requirements of Section 8 of this Act, if the issuer is registering the securities and is not a resident of this state or is not incorporated under the laws of this state.

b. Such filing with the Commissioner shall constitute the registration of securities by notification and such registration shall become effective five (5) days after receipt of the registration statement and all accompanying papers by the Commissioner; provided that the Commissioner may in his discretion waive or reduce the five (5) days waiting period in any case where he finds no injury to the public will result therefrom. Upon such registration by notification, securities may be sold in this state by registered dealers and registered salesmen. Upon the receipt of a registration statement, prospectus, if any, payment of the filing fee and registration fee, and, if required, a consent to service of process, the Commissioner shall record the registration by notification of the securities described. Such registration shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year, if the securities are entitled to registration under this subsection at the time of renewal, by a new filing under this section together with the payment of the renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

c. If at any time, before or after registration of securities under this section, in the opinion of the Commissioner the information in a registration statement filed with him is insufficient to establish the fact that the securities described therein are, or were, entitled to registration by notification under this section, or that the registration information contains, or contained, false, misleading or fraudulent facts, he may order the applicant who filed such statement to cease and desist from selling, or offering for sale, such securities registered, or proposed to be registered, under provisions of this section, until there is filed with the Commissioner such further information as may in his judgment be necessary to establish the fact that such securities are, or were, entitled to registration under this section. The provisions of Section 24 of this Act as to hearing shall be applicable to an order issued hereunder.

C. Registration by Coordination.

(1) Any security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended,¹ in connection with the same offering, may be registered by coordination. A registration statement under this section shall be filed with the Commissioner by the issuer or any registered dealer and shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents:

a. Three copies of the prospectus filed under the Federal Securities Act together with all amendments thereto;

b. The amount of securities to be offered in this state;

c. The states in which a registration statement or similar document in connection with the offering has been or is expected to be filed;

d. Any adverse order, judgment or decree previously entered in connection with the offering by any court or the Securities and Exchange Commission;

e. A copy of the articles of incorporation and by-laws (or their substantial equivalents) currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security;

f. If the Commissioner requests any other information, or copies of any other documents, filed under the Federal Securities Act of 1933;

g. An undertaking to forward promptly all amendments to the federal registration statement, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date; and

h. If the registration statement is filed by the issuer, or by a dealer who will offer such securities for sale as the agent of the issuer, and the issuer is not a resident of this state or is not incorporated under the laws of this state, a consent to service of process conforming to the requirements of Section 8.

(2) Upon receipt of a registration statement under this section the Commissioner shall examine such registration statement and he may enter an order denying registration of the securities described therein if he finds that the registrant has not proven the proposed plan of business of the issuer to be fair, just and equitable, and also that any consideration paid, or to be paid, for such securities by promoters is fair, just and equitable when such consideration for such securities is less than the proposed offering price to the public, and that the securities which it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing and disposing of the same will be such as will not work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof. If the Commissioner enters an order denying the registration of securities under this section, he shall notify the registrant immediately. The provisions of Section 24 of this Act as to hearing shall be applicable to an order issued hereunder. A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective at the moment the federal registration statement becomes effective if all the following conditions are satisfied:

a. No order has been entered by the Commissioner denying registration of the securities;

b. The registration statement has been on file with the Commissioner for at least ten (10) days; and

c. A statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two full business days or such shorter period as the Commissioner expressly permits and the offering is made within those limitations. The registrant shall promptly notify the Commissioner by telephone or telegram of the date and time when the federal registration statement became effective and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a post-effective amendment containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices, and other matters dependent upon the offering price.

Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the Commissioner may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this subsection, if he promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of this subsection as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The Commissioner may waive either or both of the conditions specified in clauses b and c. If the federal registration statement becomes effective before all these conditions are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the Commissioner of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective the Commissioner shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone or telegram, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the issuance of an order denying registration; but this advice by the Commissioner does not preclude the issuance of such an order at any time.

(3) Registration of securities under this subsection shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and may be renewed for additional periods of one (1) year, if a renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) is paid, and if the securities are entitled to registration at the time of renewal by the same standards of fairness, justice and equity as prescribed by this subsection for original approval.

D. Termination Of Fiscal Year; Certification Of Statements.

If the fiscal year of the issuer terminated on a date more than 90 days prior to the date of the filing, then the financial statements required in Subsections A and B of this Section 7, which must be as of a date not more than 90 days prior to the date of filing, need not be certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant if there are filed in addition thereto financial statements containing the information required by the applicable subdivision which are certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant as of the end of the preceding fiscal year of the issuer.

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-8. Consent to Service and Certificate of Good Standing

If the application for a permit to sell securities be filed by an issuer, or by a dealer who will offer such securities for sale as the agent of the issuer, and the issuer is organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, or domiciled in any other state than Texas, such application shall also contain a certificate executed by the proper officer of such state, territory or government dated not more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of filing of the application showing that such issuer is authorized to transact business in such state, territory or government, and is not delinquent in any taxes or assessments required to be paid to such state, territory or government. Such application shall also contain a written instrument duly executed by an executive officer of such issuer, under proper resolution of its board of directors, and authenticated and attested by the seal of said issuer, appointing the Commissioner irrevocably its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceedings against such issuer arising out of any transaction subject to this Act may be served with the same effect as if such issuer were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner, whenever he shall have been served with any process as is herein provided, to forward same by United States mail to the home office of such issuer.

Art. 581-9. Protection to Purchasers of Securities

A. In the event any company, as defined herein, shall sell, or offer for sale, any securities, as defined in this Act, the Commissioner, if he deems it necessary to protect the interests of prospective purchasers of such securities, may require the company so offering such securities for sale to deposit all, or any part, of the proposed securities, or all, or any part, of the moneys and funds received from the sale thereof, except such amounts thereof as the Commissioner deems necessary to be used, and not to exceed the amount allowed as expenses and commissions for the sale of such securities, to be deposited in a trust account in some bank or trust company approved by the Commissioner and doing business in the State of Texas, until such time as such proposed company or existing company shall have sold a specified monetary amount or number of shares of such securities as in his opinion will reasonably assure protection of the public. When the Commissioner makes a written finding that the terms of the escrow agreement have been fully met, the bank or trust company shall transfer such funds to the proposed or existing corporation and its executive officers for the purpose of permitting it to use such securities or money in its business. In the event such proposed or existing company shall fail within two (2) years to sell the minimum amount of capital necessary under the escrow agreement, the Commissioner may authorize, and the bank or trust company shall return to the subscribers, upon receipt of such authority from the Commissioner, that portion of the funds which were deposited or escrowed under such escrow agreement; provided, however, that any securities held by such bank or trust company under the escrow agreement shall be returned to the corporation only after the bank or trust company has received evidence of cancellation thereof from the issuer. At the time of making the deposits, as herein provided for, the dealer or issuer shall furnish to such bank or trust company, and to the Commissioner, the names of the persons purchasing or subscribing for such securities, and the amount of money paid in by each.

B. The total expenses for marketing securities, including all commissions for the sale of such securities, and all other incidental selling expenses, shall not in the aggregate exceed twenty per cent (20%) of the price at which the stock or other securities of any proposed or existing company are to be sold, or offered for sale, to the public of this State; and this amount may be limited by the Commissioner to a less percentage which is in his opinion fair, just and equitable under the facts of the particular case.

C. In connection with any permit to sell securities the Commissioner shall require all offers for sale of said securities to be made through and by prospectus which fairly discloses the material facts about the plan of finance and business. Said prospectus shall be filed with and approved by the Commissioner; provided, however, if the applicant files a prospectus or offering circular with the Commissioner which is also filed with the S.E.C. under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the regulations thereunder, this subsection shall in all respects be satisfied. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be treated as a violation of this Act, subjecting the parties responsible to the consequences thereof as provided herein.

Art. 581-10. Examination of Application; Permit

A. Commissioner to Examine Application; Grant or Deny.

Upon the filing of an application for qualifying securities under Section 7A,¹ it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to examine the same and the papers and documents filed therewith. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant appears to be fair, just and equitable, and also that any consideration paid, or to be paid, for such securities by promoters is fair, just and equitable when such consideration for such securities is less than the proposed offering price to the public, and that the securities which it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing and disposing of the same are not such as will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of such securities. Should the Commissioner find that the proposed plan of business of the applicant appears to be unfair, unjust or inequitable, he shall deny the application for a permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision.

B. Permit, Form and Contents; Term and Renewals.

Every permit qualifying securities shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, and shall recite in bold type that the issuance thereof is permissive only, and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the securities permitted to be issued. Such permit shall be for a period of one (1) year; provided, however, that if the securities authorized to be sold are not sold within the term provided by the permit, a renewal application may be filed with the Commissioner. Such renewal application shall recite the total number of shares sold in Texas, the total number of shares sold elsewhere, total number of shares outstanding, and shall contain a detailed balance sheet, an operating statement, and such other information as the Commissioner may require. The Commissioner shall examine applications for renewal by the same standards as stated in subsection A of this section for original applications and upon that basis issue or deny renewal permits; such permits, if issued, shall be for a period of one (1) year and be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe. The Commissioner shall charge such fees for the issuance of permits to sell securities as are hereinafter provided. No permit instrument need be issued if securities are registered under Sections 7B or C of this Act, but the Commissioner will examine the registration papers to determine their sufficiency under the requirements there stated.

C. Use of Permit to Aid Sale of Securities Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any dealer or issuer, agent or salesman, to use a permit authorizing the issuance of securities in connection with any sale or effort to sell any security.

D. Commissioner's Discretion. In applying the standards of this Act, the Commissioner may waive or relax any restriction or requirement in the Board's rules that, in his opinion, is unnecessary for the protection of investors in a particular case.

¹Article 581-7.

Art. 581-10-1. Purposes

A. This Act may be construed and implemented to effectuate its general purpose to maximize coordination with federal and other states' law and administration, particularly with respect to:

- (1) procedure, reports, and forms; and
- (2) exemptions.

B. This Act may be construed and implemented to effectuate its general purposes to protect investors and consistent with that purpose, to encourage capital formation, job formation, and free and competitive securities markets and to minimize regulatory burdens on issuers and persons subject to this Act, especially small businesses.

Art. 581-11. Papers Filed with Commissioner; Records Open to Inspection

All information, papers, documents, instruments and affidavits required by this Act to be filed with the Commissioner shall be deemed public records of this state, and shall be open to the inspection and examination of any purchaser or prospective purchaser of said securities or the agent or representative of such purchaser or prospective purchaser; and the Commissioner shall give out to any such purchaser or prospective purchaser or his agent or representative any information required to be filed with him under the provisions of this section, or any other part of this Act, and shall furnish any such purchaser, prospective purchaser, or his agent or representative requesting it, certified copies of any and all papers, documents, instruments and affidavits filed with him under the provisions of this section or of any part of this Act. The Commissioner shall maintain a record, which shall be open for public inspection, upon which shall be entered the names and addresses of all registered dealers and salesman and all orders of the Commissioner denying, suspending or revoking registration.

Art. 581-12. Registration of Persons Selling

Except as provided in Section 5 of this Act no person, firm, corporation or dealer shall, directly or through agents or salesmen, offer for sale, sell or make a sale of any securities in this state without first being registered as in this Act provided. No salesman or agent shall, in behalf of any dealer, sell, offer for sale, or make sale of any securities within the state unless registered as a salesman or agent of a registered dealer under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 581-13. Method of Registration Required of Each Dealer and Each Agent or Salesman of Each Dealer

A. A dealer to be registered must submit a sworn application therefor to the Commissioner, which shall be in such form as the Commissioner may determine and which shall state:

- (1) The principal place of business of the applicant wherever situated;
- (2) The location of the principal place of business and all branch offices in this state, if any;
- (3) The name or style of doing business and the address of the dealer;
- (4) The names, residences and the business addresses of all persons interested in the business as principal, officer, director or managing agent, specified as to each his capacity and title; and
- (5) The general plan and character of business of such applicant and the length of time during and the places at which the dealer has been engaged in the business.

B. Such application shall also contain such additional information as to applicant's previous history, record, associations and present financial condition as may be required by the Commissioner, or as is necessary to enable the Commissioner to determine whether the sale of any securities proposed to be issued or dealt in by such applicant would result in fraud.

C. Each application shall be accompanied by certificates or other evidences satisfactory to the Commissioner establishing the good reputation of the applicant, his directors, officers, copartners or principals.

D. The Commissioner shall require as a condition of registration for all registrations granted after the effective date of this Subsection D that the applicant (and, in the case of a corporation or partnership, the officers, directors or partners to be licensed by the applicant) pass successfully a written examination to determine the applicant's qualifications and competency to engage in the business of dealing in and selling securities as a dealer or as a salesman, or rendering services as an investment adviser. This condition may be waived as to any applicant or class of applicants by action of the State Securities Board.

E. Not later than the 30th day after the day on which an examination is administered under this Act, the Board shall notify each examinee of the results of the examination. However, if an examination is graded or reviewed by a national testing service, the Board shall notify examinees of the results of the examination not later than the 14th day after the day on which the Board receives the results from the testing service. If the notice of the examination results will be delayed for longer than ninety (90) days after the examination date, the Board shall notify the examinee of the reason for the delay before the 90th day.

F. If requested in writing by a person who fails an examination administered under this Act, the Board shall furnish the person with an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.

G. If the applicant is a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or territory or government or shall have its principal place of business therein, it shall accompany the application with a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto, certified by the proper officer of such state or government or of the corporation, and its regulations and by laws.

H. If a limited partnership, either a copy of its Articles of Copartnership or a verified statement of the plan of doing business.

I. If an unincorporated association or organization under the laws of any other state, territory or government, or having its principal place of business therein, a copy of its Articles of Association, Trust Agreement or other form of organization.

J. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to prepare a proper form to be used by the applicant under the terms of this Section, and the Commissioner shall furnish copies thereof to all persons desiring to make application to be registered as a dealer.

K. The Board may waive any registration requirement for an applicant with a valid registration from another state having registration requirements substantially equivalent to those of this state.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 13. Amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 9; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 581-14. Denial, Suspension or Revocation of Registration as Dealer, Agent, or Salesman

A. The Commissioner shall deny, revoke, or suspend a registration, place on probation a dealer, agent, or salesman whose registration has been suspended, or reprimand a person registered under this Act if the person:

(1) has been convicted of a felony, or of any misdemeanor of which fraud is an essential element;

(2) has engaged in any inequitable practice in the sale of securities or in any fraudulent business practice;

(3) in the case of a dealer, is insolvent;

(4) in the case of a dealer, is selling or has sold securities in this state through a salesman other than a registered salesman, or, in the case of a salesman, is selling or has sold securities in this state for a dealer, issuer or controlling person with knowledge that such dealer, issuer or controlling person has not complied with the provisions of this Act;

(5) has violated any of the provisions of this Act or a rule of the Board;

(6) has made any material misrepresentation to the Commissioner or Board in connection with any information deemed necessary by the Commissioner or Board to determine a dealer's financial responsibility or a dealer's or salesman's business repute or qualifications, or has refused to furnish any such information requested by the Commissioner or Board; or

(7) has not complied with a condition imposed by the Commissioner under Section 13-D. Provided, however, that this subdivision shall not apply to any person or company registered as a dealer or salesman on August 23, 1963.

B. The Commissioner shall keep an information file about each complaint filed with the Commissioner or Board relating to a person registered under this Act.

C. If a written complaint is filed with the Commissioner or Board relating to a person registered under this Act, the Commissioner, at least as frequently as quarterly and until final disposition of the complaint, shall notify the parties to the complaint of the status of the complaint unless the notice would jeopardize an undercover investigation.

D. If the Commissioner proposes to suspend or revoke a person's registration, the person is entitled to a hearing before the Commissioner. Proceedings for the suspension or revocation of a registration are governed by the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

E. This section does not affect the confidentiality of investigative records maintained by the Commissioner or Board.

Art. 581-15. Issuance of Registration Certificates to Dealers

If the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant for a dealer's certificate of registration has complied with the requirements of the Act above, that the applicant has filed a written consent to service as and when required by Section 16 of this Act, and upon the payment of the fees required by Section 35 of this Act, the Commissioner shall register the applicant and issue to it or him a registration certificate, stating the principal place of business and address of the dealer, the names and business addresses of all persons interested in the business as principals, officers, directors or managing agents, and the fact that the dealer has been registered for a current calendar year as a dealer in securities. Pending final disposition of an application, the Commissioner may, for special cause shown, grant temporary permission, revocable at any time and subject to such terms and conditions as the Commissioner may prescribe, to transact business as a dealer under this Act. Any dealer acting under such a temporary permission, shall be considered a registered dealer for all purposes of this Act.

Art. 581-16. Consent to Suit in this State, by Dealers Who Are Foreign Companies or Non-residents

Every company organized under the laws of any other state, or having its principal office therein, and every non-resident individual, shall file with its or his application for registration as a dealer a written consent, irrevocable, that actions growing out of any transaction subject to this Act may be commenced against it or him, in the proper court of any county of this state in which the cause of action may arise, or in which the plaintiff may reside, by a service of process upon the Commissioner as its or his agent, and stipulating and agreeing that such service of process shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due service had been made upon the person or company itself according to the laws of this or any other state, and such instrument shall be authorized by the seal of such corporation, or by the signature of all the members of such co-partnership, or by the signature of the president and secretary of the association, if it is a corporation or association, and shall be accompanied by a duly certified copy of the resolutions of the board of directors, trustees, or managers of the corporation authorizing the said secretary and president to execute the same.

Art. 581-17. Form of Certificates to Dealers

The certificate shall be in such form as the Commissioner may determine. Any changes in the personnel of a partnership or in the principals, officers, directors or managing agents of any dealer shall be immediately certified under oath to the Commissioner and any change in the certificate necessitated thereby may be made at any time, upon written application setting forth the fact necessitating the change. Upon the issue of the amended certificates, the original certificate and the certified copies thereof outstanding shall be promptly surrendered to the Commissioner.

Art. 581-18. Registration of Agents or Salesmen of Dealers

Upon written application by a registered dealer, and upon satisfactory compliance with the requirements of the Act above, the Commissioner shall register as agents or salesmen of such dealer such persons as the dealer may request. The application shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe and shall state the residences and addresses of the persons whose registration is requested, together with such information as to such agent's or salesman's previous history, record and association as may be required by the Commissioner. Such application shall also be signed and sworn to by the agent or salesman for whom registration is requested. The Commissioner shall issue to such dealer, to be retained by such dealer for each person so registered, evidence of registration stating the person's name, the address of the dealer, and the fact that the person is registered for the current calendar year as an agent or salesman of the dealer. The evidence of registration shall be in such form as the Commissioner shall determine. Upon application by the dealer, the registration of any agent or salesman shall be cancelled.

Art. 581-19. Annual Registration; Renewals

A. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section, all registrations shall expire at the close of the calendar year, but new registrations for the succeeding year shall be issued upon written application and upon payment of the fees as hereinafter provided, without filing of further statements or furnishing any further information unless specifically requested by the Commissioner. Applications for renewals must be made not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the 1st of January of the ensuing year. If any applicant is registered after December 1st of any year, he may immediately apply for a renewal of his registration for the ensuing year.

B. The Board by rule may adopt a system under which registrations expire on various dates during the year. For the year in which the registration expiration date is changed, registration fees payable after the 60th day and before the 30th day before January 1st of the next year shall be prorated on a monthly basis so that each person shall pay only that portion of the registration fee that is allocable to the number of months during which the registration is valid. On renewal of the registration on the new expiration date, the total registration renewal fee is payable.

C. A person may renew an unexpired registration by paying to the Board before the expiration date of the registration the required renewal fee. If a person's registration has been expired for not longer than ninety (90) days, the person may renew the registration by paying to the Board the required renewal fee and a fee that is one-half of the original application fee for the registration. If a person's registration has been expired for longer than ninety (90) days but less than two years, the person may renew the registration by paying to the Board all unpaid renewal fees and a fee that is equal to the original application fee for the registration. If a person's registration has been expired for two years or longer, the person may not renew the registration. The person may obtain a new registration by submitting to reexamination and complying with the requirements and procedures for obtaining an original registration. At least thirty (30) days before the expiration of a person's registration the person shall be notified in writing of the impending registration expiration. A person who sells securities after the person's registration has expired and before it is renewed is subject to the sanctions provided by this Act for selling securities without being registered.

D. The Board may recognize, prepare, or administer continuing education programs for dealers, salesmen, or agents. Participation in the programs is voluntary.

Art. 581-20. Display or Advertisement of Fact of Registration Unlawful

It shall be unlawful for any dealer, agent or salesman to use the fact that¹ his registry, by public display or advertisement, except as herein-after expressly provided, for the registration certificate or any certified copy thereof, in connection with any sale or effort to sell any security.

¹ So in enrolled bill; probably should read "of".

Art. 581-21. Posting Certificates of Authority

Immediately upon receipt of the dealer's registration certificate issued pursuant to the authority of this Act, the dealer named therein shall cause such certificate to be posted and at all times conspicuously displayed in such dealer's principal place of business, if one is maintained in this state, and shall likewise forthwith cause a duplicate of such certificate to be posted and at all times conspicuously displayed in each branch office located within this state.

Art. 581-22. Regulation of Offers

A. Permitted Written, Pictorial, or Broadcast Offers. A written or printed offer (including a pictorial demonstration with any accompanying script) or a broadcast offer (i. e., an offer disseminated by radio, television, recorded telephone presentation, or other mass media) to sell a security may be made in this State if:

(1) a copy of the offer is filed with the Commissioner prior to its use in this State; and

(2) the person making or distributing the offer in this State is a registered dealer or a registered salesman of a registered dealer, as required by this Act; and

(3) either:

(a) the security is registered under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or a permit has been granted for the security under Section 10, or

(b) an application for registration under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or for a permit under Section 10 has been filed with the Commissioner; and

(4) if registration has not become effective under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or a permit has not been granted under Section 10, the offer prominently states on the first page of a written or printed offer or as a preface to any pictorial or broadcast offer either:

INFORMATIONAL ADVERTISING ONLY.

THE SECURITIES HEREIN DESCRIBED HAVE NOT BEEN QUALIFIED OR REGISTERED FOR SALE IN TEXAS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY OR CONSUMMATION OF SALE OF THESE SECURITIES IN TEXAS PRIOR TO QUALIFICATION OR REGISTRATION THEREOF IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

or

(b) other language required by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission that in the Commissioner's opinion will inform investors that the securities may not yet be sold; and

(5) the person making or distributing the offer in this State;

(a) has not received notice in writing of an order prohibiting the offer under Subsection A or B of Section 23, or

(b) has received such notice but the order is no longer in effect; and

(6) payment is not accepted from the offeree and no contract of sale is made before registration is effective under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or a permit is granted under Section 10.

B. Permitted Oral Offers. An oral offer (not broadcast, i. e., not disseminated by radio, television, recorded telephone presentation, or other mass media) to sell a security may be made in this State in person, by telephone, or by other direct individual communication if:

(1) the person making the offer in this State is a registered dealer or a registered salesman of a registered dealer, as required by this Act; and

(2) either:

(a) the security is registered under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or a permit has been granted for the security under Section 10, or

(b) an application for registration under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or for a permit under Section 10 has been filed with the Commissioner; and

(3) the person making or distributing the offer in this State:

(a) has not received notice in writing of an order prohibiting the offer under Subsection A or B of Section 23, or

(b) has received such notice but the order is no longer in effect; and

(4) payment is not accepted from the offeree and no contract of sale is made before registration is effective under Subsection B or C of Section 7 or before a permit is granted under Section 10.

C. Effect of Compliance. An offer in compliance with Subsection A or B of Section 22 is not a violation of Section 7.

D. Effect of Noncompliance. An offer not in compliance with Subsection A or B of Section 22 is unlawful and a violation of this Act.

E. Applicability. Section 22 does not apply to transactions or securities exempt under Section 5 or Section 6.

F. Dealers Named in Offer. A dealer whose name is included in a written or printed or broadcast offer along with the name of a registered dealer is not deemed to make an offer in this State by that fact alone.

Art. 581-23. Cease-Desist Orders; Stop-Offer Notices; List of Securities Offered

Anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding,

A. If it appears to the commissioner at any time that the sale or proposed sale or method of sale of any securities, whether exempt or not, would not be in compliance with this Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, the commissioner may, after notice to the issuer, the registrant and the person on whose behalf such securities are being or are to be offered, by personal service or the sending of a confirmed telegraphic notice, and after opportunity for a hearing (at a time fixed by the commissioner) within 15 days after such notice by personal service or the sending of such telegraphic notice, if the commissioner shall determine at such hearing that such sale would not be in compliance with the Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, issue a written cease and desist order, prohibiting or suspending the sale of such securities or denying or revoking the registration of such securities. No dealer, agent or salesman shall thereafter knowingly sell or offer for sale any security named in such cease and desist order.

B. No person shall make an offer within this State after notice in writing has been given him by the commissioner that, in the commissioner's opinion, the same contains any statement that is false or misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof.

C. The commissioner may, in the exercise of reasonable discretion hereunder, at any time, require a dealer to file with the commissioner a list of securities which he has offered for sale or has advertised for sale within this State during the preceding six months, or which he is at the time offering for sale or advertising, or any portion thereof.

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-24. Hearings upon Exception to Actions of Commissioner

A. If any person or company should take exception to the action of the Commissioner under Sections 15 or 18, in failing or refusing to register and issue certificate for a dealer or salesman, under Section 23 in issuing an order against the sale of securities or the use of materials therein, or in any other particular where this Act specifies no other procedure, the complaining party may request a hearing before the Commissioner.

B. On complaint by a person aggrieved by a denial of a permit for the sale of securities under Section 10 of this article or a failure or refusal to register securities under Section 7 of this article, the Board or a hearings officer appointed by the Board shall conduct a hearing.

Art. 581-25. Revocation of Registration of any Dealer, Agent, or Salesman

The revocation of a dealer's registration shall constitute a revocation of the registration of any agent or salesman of the dealer and notice of its operation on such agent or salesman shall be forthwith sent by the Commissioner to each of such agents or salesmen. All registrations revoked shall at once be surrendered to the Commissioner upon request.

Art. 581-25-1. Receiverships of Persons or Assets of Persons Acting as Dealers

A. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner, either upon complaint or otherwise, that:

(1) any person or company, a substantial portion of whose business consists of acting as a dealer (as defined in Subsection C of Section 4 of this Act), whether or not duly registered by the commissioner as in this Act provided, shall have engaged in any act, transaction, practice, or course of business declared by Section 32 of this Act to be a fraudulent practice;

(2) such person or company shall have acted as a dealer in connection with such fraudulent practice; and

(3) the appointment of a receiver for such person or company, or the assets of such person or company, is necessary in order to conserve and protect the assets of such person or company for the benefit of customers, security holders, and other actual and potential claimants of such person or company the commissioner may request the attorney general to bring an action for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company.

B. Upon request by the commissioner pursuant to Subsection A of this Section 25-1, and if it appears to the attorney general that the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 exist with respect to any person or company, the attorney general may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company. The facts set forth in the petition for such relief shall be verified by the commissioner upon information and belief. Such action may be brought in a district court of any county wherein the fraudulent practice complained of has been committed in whole or part, or of any county wherein any defendant with respect to whom appointment of a receiver is sought has its principal place of business, and such district court shall have jurisdiction and venue of such action; this provision shall be superior to any other provision of law fixing jurisdiction or venue with regard to suits for receivership. In any such action the attorney general may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring the forthwith appearance of any defendant and his employees, salesmen, or agents and the production of documents, books, and records as may appear necessary for any hearing, to testify and give evidence concerning matters relevant to the appointment of a receiver.

C. In any action brought by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection B of this Section 25-1, the court, upon a proper showing by the attorney general of the existence of the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 with respect to any person or company, may appoint a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company. If such receiver is appointed without notice to and opportunity to be heard for such person or company, such person or company shall be entitled to apply in writing to the court for an order dissolving the receivership, and, if such application is made within 30 days after service upon such person or company of the court's order making such appointment, shall be entitled to a hearing thereon upon 10 days written notice to the attorney general.

D. No person shall be appointed a receiver pursuant to this Section 25-1 unless such person be found by the court, after hearing the views of the attorney general, the commissioner, and, if deemed by the court to be practicable, the person or company against whom such relief is sought, to be qualified to discharge the duties of receiver giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case. No bond for receivership shall be required of the commissioner or attorney general in any proceeding under this Section 25-1 but the court shall require a bond of any receiver appointed hereunder, conditioned upon faithful discharge of the receiver's duties, in an amount found by the court to be sufficient giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case.

E. The remedy of receivership provided by this Section 25-1 shall be in addition to any and all other remedies afforded the commissioner or the attorney general by other provisions of statutory or decisional law of this state, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, any such provision authorizing receiverships.

Art. 581-26. Notices by Registered Mail

Any notice required by this Act shall be sufficient if sent by registered or certified mail unless otherwise specified in this Act, addressed to the dealer, agent or salesman, as the case may be, at the address designated in the application for registration. All testimony taken at any hearing before the Commissioner shall be reported stenographically and a full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the Commissioner on any hearing or investigation.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 26.]

Art. 581-27. Judicial Review

Judicial review of a decision of the Commissioner or Board is under the substantial evidence rule.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 27. Amended by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 763, ch. 291, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1981; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Section 149 of the 1981 amendatory act provides, in part: "This Act takes effect on September 1, 1981. Appeals to the courts of appeals filed on or after that date shall be filed in the court of appeals having jurisdiction."

Section 7(a) and (d) of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"(a) The amendments that this Act makes to Section 27, The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), apply only to a proceeding in which the petition for review is filed on or after September 1, 1983."

"(d) A proceeding in which the petition for review is filed before September 1, 1983, an offense committed before September 1, 1983, or the amount of the fees due before September 1, 1983, is governed by the law in effect at the time of the filing or offense, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 581-28. Subpoenas or Other Process in Investigations by Commissioner

The Commissioner may require, by subpoena or summons issued by the Commissioner, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence or other records or indices showing the names and addresses of the stockholders (except such books of account as are necessary to the continued conduct of the business, which books the Commissioner shall have the right to examine or cause to be examined at the office of the concern and to require copies of such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary touching the matter in question, which copies shall be verified by affidavit of an officer of such concern and shall be admissible in evidence as provided in Section 30 hereof), relating to any matter which the Commissioner has authority by this Act to consider or investigate, and for this purpose the Commissioner may sign subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence; provided, however, that all information of every kind and nature contained therein shall be treated as confidential by the Commissioner and shall not be disclosed to the public except under order of court; but nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit or limit the publication of rulings or decisions of the Commissioner nor shall this limitation apply to hearings provided for in Sections 24 and 25 of this Act. In case of disobedience of any subpoena, or of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Commissioner, the Commissioner may invoke the aid of the District Court within whose jurisdiction any witness may be found, and such court may thereupon issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to obey the subpoena or give evidence, or produce books, accounts, records, papers, and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as contempt thereof.

In the course of an investigation looking to the enforcement of this Act, or in connection with the application of a person or company for registration or to qualify securities, the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner shall have free access to all records of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, including company examination reports to the Board and reports of special investigations made by personnel of the Board, as well as records and reports of and to any other department or agency of the state government. In the event, however, that the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner should give out any information which the law makes confidential, the affected corporation, firm or person shall have a right of action on the official bond of the Commissioner or Deputy for his injuries, in a suit brought in the name of the state at the relation of the injured party.

The Commissioner may in any investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed for depositions in civil actions under the laws of Texas.

Each witness required to attend before the Commissioner shall receive, for each day's attendance, the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00), and shall receive in addition the sum of Ten Cents (10c) for each mile traveled by such witness by the usual route going to and returning from the place where his presence is required. All disbursements made in the payment of such fees shall be included in and paid in the same manner as is provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration and enforcement of this Act as hereinafter provided.

The sheriff's or constable's fee for serving the subpoena shall be the same as those paid the sheriff or constable for similar services. The fees, expenses and costs incurred at or in connection with any hearing may be imposed by the Commissioner upon any party to the record, or may be divided between any and all parties to the record in such proportions as the Commissioner may determine.

Any subpoena, summons, or other process issued by the Commissioner may be served, at the Commissioner's discretion, by the Commissioner, his authorized agent, a sheriff, or a constable.

The Commissioner may, at his discretion, disclose any confidential information in his possession to any governmental authority approved by Board rule; or to any quasi-governmental authority charged with overseeing securities activities which is approved by Board rule. The disclosure does not violate any other provision of this Act or any provision of Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 28. Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 873, ch. 327, § 6, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Art. 581-28-1. Adoption of Rules and Regulations

A. For purposes of this Section 28-1, the term "rule and regulation" shall mean any statement by the board of general and future applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of the board. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule or regulation, but does not include statements concerning only the internal management of the board not affecting private rights or procedures or forms or orders adopted or made by the board or the commissioner pursuant to other provisions of this Act.

B. The board may, from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, make or adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out and implement the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations governing registration statements, applications, notices, and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this Act, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act. For the purpose of adoption of rules and regulations, the board may classify securities, persons, and matters within its jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. The board may, in its discretion, waive any requirement of any rule or regulation in situations where, in its opinion, such requirement is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

C. No rule or regulation may be made or adopted unless the board finds, after notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act.

D. The board may, by rule or regulation adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1, delegate to the commissioner or the deputy commissioner such of the authority granted to the board under this Section 28-1 to hold hearings for adoption of rules and regulations and to make or adopt rules and regulations, or to waive the requirements thereof, as it may, from time to time, deem appropriate. All rules and regulations made or adopted by the commissioner or the deputy commissioner pursuant to such delegated authority shall be made or adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1.

E. No provision of this Act imposing any liability or penalty applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule or regulation of the board, notwithstanding that the rule or regulation may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

F. The Board may not adopt rules restricting competitive bidding or advertising by a person registered under this Act except to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices by the person. The Board may not include in its rules to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices by a person regulated by the Board a rule that restricts the person's use of any medium for advertising, restricts the person's personal appearance or use of his voice in an advertisement, relates to the size or duration of an advertisement by the person, or restricts the person's advertisement under a trade name. However, this section does not affect limitations on advertising contained in Subsections I or Q of Section 5 of this Act or in rules adopted by the Board under Subsection T of Section 5 of this Act.

G to L. Repealed by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2717, ch. 465, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 199, ch. 78, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1975. Amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2715, ch. 465, §§ 2, 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 581-29. Penal Provisions

Any person who shall:

A. Sell, offer for sale or delivery, solicit subscriptions or orders for, dispose of, invite offers for, or who shall deal in any other manner in any security or securities without being a registered dealer or salesman or agent as in this Act provided shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 10 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

B. Sell, offer for sale or delivery, solicit subscriptions to and orders for, dispose of, invite orders for, or who shall deal in any other manner in any security or securities issued after September 6, 1955, unless said security or securities have been registered or granted a permit as provided in Section 7 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 10 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

C. In connection with the sale, offering for sale or delivery of, the purchase, offer to purchase, invitation of offers to purchase, invitations of offers to sell, or dealing in any other manner in any security or securities, whether or not the transaction or security is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act, directly or indirectly (1) engage in any fraud or fraudulent practice, or (2) employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud, or (3) knowingly make any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or (4) engage in any act, practice or course of business which operates or will operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be imprisoned for not less than 2 or more than 10 years, fined not more than $5,000, or both, if the amount involved in the offense is less than $10,000, or imprisoned for not less than 2 or more than 20 years, fined not more than $10,000, or both, if the amount involved in the offense is $10,000 or more.

D. Sell or offer for sale any security or securities named or listed in a notice in writing given him by the commissioner under the authority of Section 23A of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

E. Knowingly make or cause to be made, in any document filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding under this Act, whether or not such document or proceeding relates to a transaction or security exempt under the provisions of Sections 5 or 6 of this Act, any statement which is, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, false or misleading in any material respect shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

F. Knowingly make any false statement or representation concerning any registration made under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

G. Make an offer within this State as to any security that is not in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 22 of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Section 7(b) and (d) of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"(b) The amendments that this Act makes to Subsection C, Section 29, The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), apply only to an offense committed on or after September 1, 1983."

"(d) A proceeding in which the petition for review is filed before September 1, 1983, an offense committed before September 1, 1983, or the amount of the fees due before September 1, 1983, is governed by the law in effect at the time of the filing or offense, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 581-29-1. Limitation

An indictment for an offense under Subsection C of Section 29 may be brought only before the fifth anniversary of the day on which the offense is committed.

[Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2716, ch. 465, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 581-30. Certified Copies of Papers Filed with Commissioner as Evidence

Copies of all papers, instruments, or documents filed in the office of the Commissioner, certified by the Commissioner, shall be admitted to be read in evidence in all courts of law and elsewhere in this state in all cases where the original would be admitted in evidence; provided, that in any proceeding in the court having jurisdiction, the court may, on cause shown, require the production of the originals.

The Commissioner shall assume custody of all records of the Securities Divisions within the offices of the Secretary of State and of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, and henceforth these prior records shall be proven under certificate of the Commissioner.

In any prosecution, action, suit or proceeding before any of the several courts of this state based upon or arising out of or under the provisions of this Act, a certificate under the seal of the state, duly signed by the Commissioner, showing compliance or non-compliance with the provisions of this Act respecting compliance or non-compliance with the provisions of this Act by any dealer or salesman, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such compliance or of such non-compliance with the provisions of this Act, as the case may be, and shall be admissible in evidence in any action at law or in equity to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Art. 581-31. Construction

Nothing herein contained shall limit or diminish the liability of any person or company, or of its officers or agents, now imposed by law to prevent the prosecution of any person or company, or of its officers or agents, for the violation of the provisions of any other statute.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 31.]

Art. 581-32. Injunctions and Restitution

A. Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner either upon complaint or otherwise, that in the issuance, sale, promotion, negotiations, advertisement or distribution of any securities within this state, including any security embraced in the subsections of Section 6, and including any transaction exempted under the provisions of Section 5, any person or company who shall have employed, or is about to employ any device, scheme or artifice to defraud or to obtain money or property by means of any false pretense, representation or promise, or that any such person or company shall have made, makes or attempts to make in this state fictitious or pretended purchases or sales of securities or shall have engaged in or is about to engage in any practice or transaction or course of business relating to the purchase or sale of securities which is in violation of law or which is fraudulent or which has operated or which would operate as a fraud upon the purchaser, any one or all of which devices, schemes, artifices, fictitious or pretended purchases, or sales of securities, practices, transactions and courses of business are hereby declared to be and are hereafter referred to as fraudulent practices; or that any person or company is acting as dealer or salesman within this state without being duly registered as such dealer or salesman as provided in this Act, the Commissioner and Attorney General may investigate, and whenever he shall believe from evidence satisfactory to him that any such person or company has engaged in, is engaged in, or is about to be engaged in any of the practices or transactions heretofore referred to as and declared to be fraudulent practices, or is selling or offering for sale any securities in violation of this Act or is acting as a dealer or salesman without being duly registered as provided in this Act, the Attorney General may, on request by the Commissioner, and in addition to any other remedies, bring action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas against such person or company and any other person or persons heretofore concerned in or in any way participating in or about to participate in such fraudulent practices or acting in such violation of this Act, to enjoin such person or company and such other person or persons from continuing such fraudulent practices or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof or in violation of this Act. In any such court proceedings, the Attorney General may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring the forthwith appearance of any defendant and his employees, salesmen or agents and the production of documents, books and records as may appear necessary for the hearing of such petition, to testify and give evidence concerning the acts or conduct or things complained of in such application for injunction. The District Court of any county, wherein it is shown that the acts complained of have been or are about to be committed, shall have jurisdiction of any action brought under this section, and this provision shall be superior to any provision fixing the jurisdiction or venue with regard to suits for injunction. No bond for injunction shall be required of the Commissioner or Attorney General in any such proceeding.

B. The Attorney General may, in an action under Subsection A of this section or in a separate action in District Court, seek restitution for a victim of fraudulent practices. The court may order the defendant to deliver to the person defrauded the amount of money or the property that the defendant obtained from the person by the fraudulent practices.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 32. Amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 581-33. Civil Liabilities

A. Liability of Sellers.

(1) Registration and Related Violations. A person who offers or sells a security in violation of Section 7, 9 (or a requirement of the Commissioner thereunder), 12, 23B, or an order under 23A of this Act is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security.

(2) Untruth or Omission. A person who offers or sells a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act) by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission, or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security. However, a person is not liable if he sustains the burden of proof that either (a) the buyer knew of the untruth or omission or (b) he (the offeror or seller) did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the untruth or omission. The issuer of the security (other than a government issuer identified in Section 5M) is not entitled to the defense in clause (b) with respect to an untruth or omission (i) in a prospectus required in connection with a registration statement under Section 7A, 7B, or 7C, or (ii) in a writing prepared and delivered by the issuer in the sale of a security.

B. Liability of Buyers. A person who offers to buy or buys a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act) by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, is liable to the person selling the security to him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security. However, a person is not liable if he sustains the burden of proof that either (a) the seller knew of the untruth or omission, or (b) he (the offeror or buyer) did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the untruth or omission.

C. Liability of Nonselling Issuers Which Register.

(1) This Section 33C applies only to an issuer which registers under Section 7A, 7B, or 7C of this Act, or under Section 6 of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933,¹ its outstanding securities for offer and sale by or for the owner of the securities.

(2) If the prospectus required in connection with the registration contains, as of its effective date, an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the issuer is liable to a person buying the registered security, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the securities. However, an issuer is not liable if it sustains the burden of proof that the buyer knew of the untruth or omission.

D. Rescission and Damages. For this Section 33:

(1) On rescission, a buyer shall recover (a) the consideration he paid for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment by him, less (b) the amount of any income he received on the security, upon tender of the security (or a security of the same class and series).

(2) On rescission, a seller shall recover the security (or a security of the same class and series) upon tender of (a) the consideration he received for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of receipt by him, less (b) the amount of any income the buyer received on the security.

(3) In damages, a buyer shall recover (a) the consideration he paid for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment by him, less (b) the value of the security at the time he disposed of it plus the amount of any income he received on the security.

(4) In damages, a seller shall recover (a) the value of the security at the time of sale plus the amount of any income the buyer received on the security, less (b) the consideration paid the seller for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment to the seller.

(5) For a buyer suing under Section 33C, the consideration he paid shall be deemed the lesser of (a) the price he paid and (b) the price at which the security was offered to the public.

(6) On rescission or as a part of damages, a buyer or a seller shall also recover costs.

(7) On rescission or as a part of damages, a buyer or a seller may also recover reasonable attorney's fees if the court finds that the recovery would be equitable in the circumstances.

E. Time of Tender. Any tender specified in Section 33D may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

F. Liability of Control Persons and Aiders.

(1) A person who directly or indirectly controls a seller, buyer, or issuer of a security is liable under Section 33A, 33B, or 33C jointly and severally with the seller, buyer, or issuer, and to the same extent as if he were the seller, buyer, or issuer, unless the controlling person sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist.

(2) A person who directly or indirectly with intent to deceive or defraud or with reckless disregard for the truth or the law materially aids a seller, buyer, or issuer of a security is liable under Section 33A, 33B, or 33C jointly and severally with the seller, buyer, or issuer, and to the same extent as if he were the seller, buyer, or issuer.

(3) There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

G. Survivability of Actions. Every cause of action under this Act survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

H. Statute of Limitations.

(1) No person may sue under Section 33A(1) or 33F so far as it relates to Section 33A(1):

(a) more than three years after the sale; or

(b) if he received a rescission offer (meeting the requirements of Section 33I) before suit unless he (i) rejected the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt and (ii) expressly reserved in the rejection his right to sue; or

(c) more than one year after he so rejected a rescission offer meeting the requirements of Section 33I.

(2) No person may sue under Section 33A(2), 33C, or 33F so far as it relates to 33A(2) or 33C:

(a) more than three years after discovery of the untruth or omission, or after discovery should have been made by the exercise of reasonable diligence; or

(b) more than five years after the sale; or

(c) if he received a rescission offer (meeting the requirements of Section 33I) before suit, unless he (i) rejected the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt, and (ii) expressly reserved in the rejection his right to sue; or

(d) more than one year after he so rejected a rescission offer meeting the requirements of Section 33I.

(3) No person may sue under Section 33B or 33F so far as it relates to Section 33B:

(a) more than three years after discovery of the untruth or omission, or after discovery should have been made by the exercise of reasonable diligence; or

(b) more than five years after the purchase; or

(c) if he received a rescission offer (meeting the requirements of Section 33J) before suit unless he (i) rejected the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt, and (ii) expressly reserved in the rejection his right to sue; or

(d) more than one year after he so rejected a rescission offer meeting the requirements of Section 33J.

I. Requirements of a Rescission Offer to Buyers. A rescission offer under Section 33H(1) or (2) shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The offer shall include financial and other information material to the offeree's decision whether to accept the offer, and shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(2) The offeror shall deposit funds in escrow in a state or national bank doing business in Texas (or in another bank approved by the commissioner) or receive an unqualified commitment from such a bank to furnish funds sufficient to pay the amount offered.

(3) The amount of the offer to a buyer who still owns the security shall be the amount (excluding costs and attorney's fees) he would recover on rescission under Section 33D(1).

(4) The amount of the offer to a buyer who no longer owns the security shall be the amount (excluding costs and attorney's fees) he would recover in damages under Section 33D(3).

(5) The offer shall state:

(a) the amount of the offer, as determined pursuant to Paragraph (3) or (4) above, which shall be given (i) so far as practicable in terms of a specified number of dollars and a specified rate of interest for a period starting at a specified date, and (ii) so far as necessary, in terms of specified elements (such as the value of the security when it was disposed of by the offeree) known to the offeree but not to the offeror, which are subject to the furnishing of reasonable evidence by the offeree.

(b) the name and address of the bank where the amount of the offer will be paid.

(c) that the offeree will receive the amount of the offer within a specified number of days (not more than 30) after receipt by the bank, in form reasonably acceptable to the offeror, and in compliance with the instructions in the offer, of:

(i) the security, if the offeree still owns it, or evidence of the fact and date of disposition if he no longer owns it; and

(ii) evidence, if necessary, of elements referred to in Paragraph (a)(ii) above.

(d) conspicuously that the offeree may not sue on his purchase under Section 33 unless:

(i) he accepts the offer but does not receive the amount of the offer, in which case he may sue within the time allowed by Section 33H(1)(a) or 33H(2)(a) or (b), as applicable; or

(ii) he rejects the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt and expressly reserves in the rejection his right to sue, in which case he may sue within one year after he so rejects.

(e) in reasonable detail, the nature of the violation of this Act that occurred or may have occurred.

(f) any other information the offeror wants to include.

J. Requirements of a Rescission Offer to Sellers. A rescission offer under Section 33H(3) shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The offer shall include financial and other information material to the offeree's decision whether to accept the offer; and shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(2) The offeror shall deposit the securities in escrow in a state or national bank doing business in Texas (or in another bank approved by the commissioner).

(3) The terms of the offer shall be the same (excluding costs and attorney's fees) as the seller would recover on rescission under Section 33D(2).

(4) The offer shall state:

(a) the terms of the offer, as determined pursuant to Paragraph (3) above, which shall be given (i) so far as practicable in terms of a specified number and kind of securities and a specified rate of interest for a period starting at a specified date, and (ii) so far as necessary, in terms of specified elements known to the offeree but not the offeror, which are subject to the furnishing of reasonable evidence by the offeree.

(b) the name and address of the bank where the terms of the offer will be carried out.

(c) that the offeree will receive the securities within a specified number of days (not more than 30) after receipt by the bank, in form reasonably acceptable to the offeror, and in compliance with the instructions in the offer, of:

(i) the amount required by the terms of the offer; and

(ii) evidence, if necessary, of elements referred to in Paragraph (a)(ii) above.

(d) conspicuously that the offeree may not sue on his sale under Section 33 unless:

(i) he accepts the offer but does not receive the securities, in which case he may sue within the time allowed by Section 33H(3)(a) or (b), as applicable; or

(ii) he rejects the offer in writing within 30 days of its receipt and expressly reserves in the rejection his right to sue, in which case he may sue within one year after he so rejects.

(e) in reasonable detail, the nature of the violation of this Act that occurred or may have occurred.

(f) any other information the offeror wants to include.

K. Unenforceability of Illegal Contracts. No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this Act or any rule or order or requirement hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract.

L. Waivers Void. A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a buyer or seller of a security to waive compliance with a provision of this Act or a rule or order or requirement hereunder is void.

M. Saving of Existing Remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Act are in addition to any other rights (including exemplary or punitive damages) or remedies that may exist at law or in equity.

1 15 U.S.C.A. § 77f.

Section 2 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"Prior law exclusively governs all suits which are pending or may be initiated on the basis of facts or circumstances occurring before the effective date of this Act, except that no suit may be maintained to enforce any liability under prior law unless brought within any period of limitation which applied when the cause of action accrued, and in any event within five years after the purchase or sale."

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-34. Actions for Commission; Allegations and Proof of Compliance

No person or company shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of this state for collection of a commission or compensation for services rendered in the sale or purchase of securities, as that term is herein defined, without alleging and proving that such person or company was duly licensed under the provisions hereof and the securities so sold were duly registered under the provisions hereof at the time the alleged cause of action arose; provided, however, that this section or provision of this Act shall not apply (1) to any transaction exempted by Section 5 of this Act, nor (2) to the sale or purchase of any security exempted by Section 6 of this Act.

Art. 581-35. Fees

The Commissioner or Board shall charge and collect the following fees and shall daily pay all fees received into the State Treasury:

A. For the filing of any original application of a dealer, Seventy Dollars ($70.00), and for the filing of any renewal application of a dealer, Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) plus Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) for each person listed as an officer in the application;

B. For the filing of any original application for each salesman, Thirty Dollars ($30.00), and for the filing of any renewal application for each salesman, Fifteen Dollars ($15.00);

C. For any filing to amend the registration certificate of a dealer or evidence of registration of a salesman, or issue a duplicate certificate or evidence of registration, Five Dollars ($5.00);

D. For the filing of any original, amended or renewal application to sell or dispose of securities, Ten Dollars ($10.00);

E. For the examination of any original or amended application filed under Subsection A, B, or C of Section 7 of this Act, regardless of whether the application is denied, abandoned, withdrawn, or approved, a fee of one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of one percent (1%) of the aggregate amount of securities described and proposed to be sold to persons located within this state based upon the price at which such securities are to be offered to the public;

F. For certified copies of any papers filed in the office of the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall charge such fees as are reasonably related to costs; however, in no event shall such fees be more than those which the Secretary of State is authorized to charge in similar cases; and

G. For the filing of any application for approval of a stock exchange so that securities fully listed thereon will be exempt, a fee of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00).

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 35. Amended by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 982, ch. 457, § 1; Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 875, ch. 327, § 7, eff. Aug. 29, 1977; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983; Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 5220, ch. 953, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2717, ch. 465, § 7(c) and (d), provides:

"(c) The amendments made by this Act to Section 35, The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), apply only to fees that are due on or after September 1, 1983."

"(d) A proceeding in which the petition for review is filed before September 1, 1983, an offense committed before September 1, 1983, or the amount of the fees due before September 1, 1983, is governed by the law in effect at the time of the filing or offense, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 5221, ch. 953, § 4, provides:

"Section 3 of this Act applies only to fees that become due on or after September 1, 1983. The amount of the fees that become due before September 1, 1983, is governed by the law in effect when the fees become due, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 581-35-1. Sale of Securities in Excess of Amount Registered; Fees

An offeror who sells securities in this State in excess of the aggregate amount of securities registered may, while such registration is still effective, apply to register the excess securities by paying three times the difference between the initial fee paid and the fee required under Subsection E of Section 35 for the securities sold to persons within this State, plus the amendment fee prescribed by Subsection D of Section 35. Registration of the excess securities, if granted, shall be effective retroactively to the date of the existing registration.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 361, ch. 160, § 9, eff. May 15, 1979.]

For effect of the 1979 Act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-36. Deposit to General Revenue Fund

Upon and after the effective date of this Act all moneys received from fees, assessments, or charges under this Act shall be paid by the Commissioner or Board into the General Revenue Fund. If the Commissioner or Board determines that all or part of a registration fee should be refunded, the Commissioner may make the refund by warrant on the State Treasury from funds appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for that purpose.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 36. Amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2688, ch. 465, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.]

Art. 581-37. Pleading Exemptions

It shall not be necessary to negative any of the exemptions in this Act in any complaint, information or indictment, or any writ or proceeding laid or brought under this Act; and the burden of proof of any such exemption shall be upon the party claiming the same.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 37.]

Art. 581-38. Partial Invalidity; Severability

The provisions of this Act are severable, and in the event that any provision thereof should be declared void or unconstitutional, it is hereby declared that the remaining provisions would have been enacted notwithstanding such judicial determination of the invalidity of any particular provision or provisions in any respect, and said sections shall remain in full force and effect.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 38.]

Art. 581-39. Repeal of Securities Act and Insurance Securities Act Now in Effect; Saving Clause as to Pending Proceedings

The Acts now in effect being currently known as the Securities Act of Texas and the Insurance Securities Act of Texas, as embraced in Senate Bill No. 149, Chapter 67,¹ and House Bill No. 39, Chapter 384,² Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, and codified as Articles 579 and 580 of Vernon's Civil Statutes of Texas, be and the same are hereby repealed; provided, however, that all permits, orders, and licenses issued by the Secretary of State or Board of Insurance Commissioners pursuant to said laws prior to the effective date of this Act shall be valid during the period for which they were issued unless sooner revoked by the Commissioner for any cause for which the Commissioner is authorized by this Act to revoke hereunder; provided further, that all prosecutions and legal or other proceedings begun, and any violation of law whether prosecution or administrative action is commenced or not, and any cause of action of civil or criminal nature existing under the provisions of that law now in effect, shall continue in effect and remain in full force and effect until terminated as under the terms of the law now in force, notwithstanding the passage of this Act. [Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 39.]

Art. 601b. State Purchasing and General Services Act

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the State Purchasing and General Services Act.

Definitions

- Sec. 1.02. In this Act:
- (1) "Commission" means the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.
 - (2) "State agency" means:

(A) "any department, commission, board, office, or other agency in the executive branch of state government created by the constitution or a statute of this state;

(B) the Supreme Court of Texas, the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, a court of civil appeals, or the Texas Civil Judicial Council; or

(C) a university system or an institution of higher education as defined in Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended, other than a public junior college.

ARTICLE 2. ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Commission

Sec. 2.01. The State Purchasing and General Services Commission is established.

Membership

Sec. 2.02. The commission is composed of three members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

Terms

Sec. 2.03. Members of the commission hold office for staggered terms of six years, with a member's term expiring on January 31 of each odd-numbered year.

Officers; Meetings; Quorum

Sec. 2.04. (a) The governor annually shall appoint a chairman from among the commission members.

(b) The commission shall meet at least once each month. The commission may meet at other times at the call of the chairman or as provided by the commission's rules.

(c) Two members of the commission constitute a quorum.

Sec. 2.06. (a) The commission shall employ an executive director who shall serve at the pleasure of the commission. He shall execute a bond payable to the state in such sum as the commission may deem necessary, to be approved by the commission and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Premiums for said bond also shall be payable from such appropriations for the commission as are authorized by the legislature. The executive director must have demonstrated executive and organizational ability.

(b) The executive director shall manage the affairs of the commission subject to and under the direction of the commission. All direction of the commission to the executive director shall be made at an open meeting of the commission and made a part of the minutes of the commission. A member of the commission may not grant any authority to the executive director or any other employee by power of attorney.

(c) The executive director may employ a staff necessary to administer the functions of the commission.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 2.07. The commission is subject to the Texas Sunset Act (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless continued in existence as provided by that Act, the commission is abolished and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 3. PURCHASINGEstablishment of Purchasing System

Sec. 3.01. (a) The commission shall purchase, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire all supplies, materials, services, and equipment for all state agencies, except for serial and journal subscriptions for libraries operated as a part of university systems or institutions of higher education, and shall institute and maintain an effective and economical system for purchasing all such supplies, materials, services, and equipment.

(b) "Services," as used in this article, means the furnishing of skilled or unskilled labor or professional work but does not include:

(1) professional services covered by the Professional Services Procurement Act (Article 664-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes);

(2) services of an employee of a state agency;

(3) consulting services or services of a private consultant as defined by Chapter 454, Acts of the

65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1977 (Article 6252-11c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); or

(4) services of public utilities.

Limits of Authority

Sec. 3.02. The commission's authority does not extend to purchases of supplies, materials, services, or equipment:

(1) for resale;

(2) for auxiliary enterprises;

(3) for organized activities relating to instructional departments of institutions of higher learning and similar activities of other state agencies; or

(4) from gifts or grants other than federal grants.

Purchases or Lease of Computers

Sec. 3.021. If a state agency requests the commission to purchase or lease automated information systems, the computers on which they are automated, or a service related to the automation of information systems or the computers on which they are automated and if the purchase or lease is of a type that requires the Automated Information Systems Advisory Council to prepare a report, the commission may not make an award for the purchase or lease of the software, hardware, or services until the report has been filed as required by law or until 60 days after receipt of the proposal and any supporting information by the council as prescribed by law, whichever is earlier, or the completion of an agreed extension period.

Purchase of Motor Vehicles for School Districts

Sec. 3.03. The commission shall purchase all motor vehicles used for transporting school children, including buses, bus chassis, and bus bodies, tires, and tubes, for school districts participating in the Foundation School Program as provided by Subchapter F, Chapter 21, Texas Education Code.¹

¹ Education Code, § 21.161 et seq.

Mental Health and Mental Retardation Community Centers

Sec. 3.04. Community centers for mental health and mental retardation services that are receiving state grants-in-aid under the provisions of Article 4 of the Texas Mental Health and Mental Retardation Act¹ may purchase drugs and medicines through the commission.

Purchases by the Legislature

Sec. 3.05. Either house of the legislature, or any agency, council, or committee of the legislature, including the Legislative Budget Board, the Texas Legislative Council, the State Auditor's Office, and the Legislative Reference Library, may utilize the purchasing services of the commission for purchasing supplies, materials, services, equipment, and those items covered by Article XVI, Section 21, of the Texas Constitution.

Delegation of Authority to State Agencies

Sec. 3.06. The commission may delegate purchasing functions to a state agency.

Emergency Purchases

Sec. 3.07. The commission shall provide for emergency purchases by a state agency and may set a monetary limit on the amount of each emergency purchase.

Purchases Less than a Specified Monetary Amount

Sec. 3.08. (a) State agencies are delegated the authority to purchase supplies, materials, and equipment if the purchase does not exceed $500. The commission by rule shall prescribe procedures for these purchases, and by rule may delegate to state agencies the authority to purchase supplies, materials, or equipment if the purchase exceeds $500. Competitive bidding, whether formal or informal, is not required for a purchase by a state agency if the purchase does not exceed $100, or a greater amount prescribed by rule of the commission.

(b) Supplies or materials purchased under this section may not include:

(1) items for which contracts have been awarded under the contract purchase procedure, unless the quantity purchased is less than the minimum quantity specified in the contract;

(2) any item required by statute to be purchased from a particular source; or

(3) scheduled items that have been designated for purchase by the commission.

(c) Large purchases may not be divided into small lot purchases in order to meet the specified dollar limits.

(d) Agencies making purchases under this section must attempt to obtain at least three competitive bids from sources which normally offer for sale the merchandise being purchased.

Review of Specifications

Sec. 3.09. (a) The commission shall review the specifications and conditions of purchase of any supplies, materials, equipment, or services desired to be purchased.

(b) If the commission finds that specifications and conditions of a purchase request have been drawn to describe a product which is proprietary to one vendor and does not include language which permits an equivalent product to be supplied, it shall require written justification of the requested specifications or conditions, signed by the agency head or the chairman of the governing body. For an institution of higher education, the written justification may be signed by the person designated by the president or governing body as purchasing officer for the institution. The written justification shall contain the following:

(1) explanation of the need for the specifications;

(2) the reason competing products are not satisfactory; and

(3) other information requested by the commission.

(c) If a resubmission with written justification is to be required by the commission, it shall notify the requesting state agency of that fact within 10 days after the date of receipt of the purchase request.

(d) If the commission, after considering all factors, takes exception to the justifications, it shall purchase the supplies, materials, services, or equipment as requested and report the reasons for its exceptions to the agency head or the chairman of the governing body, the state auditor, the Legislative Budget Board, and the governor.

(e) The commission shall issue an invitation to bid to vendors within 20 days after the date of receipt of the written justification required.

(f) The commission shall not delay processing a purchase requisition by submitting the specifications and conditions to the systems/administrative services division of the state auditor's office for comment or recommendation prior to issuing the invitation to bid to vendors.

Purchase Methods

Sec. 3.10. In purchasing supplies, materials, services, and equipment the commission may use, but is not limited to, the contract purchase procedure, the multiple award contract procedure, and the open market purchase procedure. The commission shall have the authority to combine orders in a system of schedule purchasing, and it shall at all times try to benefit from purchasing in bulk. All purchases of and contracts for supplies, materials, services, and equipment shall, except as provided herein, be based whenever possible on competitive bids.

Contract Purchase Procedure

Sec. 3.11. (a) Notice. Notice inviting bids shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state and at least seven days preceding the last day set for the receipt of bids. The newspaper notice shall include a general description of the articles to be purchased, and shall state where bid blanks and specifications may be secured, and the time and place for opening bids.

(b) Bidders List. The commission shall maintain a bidders list and shall add or delete names from the list by the application and utilization of applicable standards set forth in Subsection (e) of this section. Bid invitations shall be sent only to those who have expressed a desire to bid on the particular types of items which are the subject of the bid invitation. Use of the bidders list shall not be confined to contract purchases but it may be used by the commission as it may find desirable in making any purchase.

(c) Bid Deposits. When deemed necessary bid deposits in amounts to be set by the commission shall be prescribed in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The commission shall establish and maintain records of bid deposits and their disposition with the cooperation of the state auditor, and upon the award of bids or rejection of all bids, bid deposits shall be returned to unsuccessful bidders making bid deposits. The commission may accept a bid deposit in the form of a blanket bond from any bidder.

(d) Bid Opening Procedure. Bids shall be submitted to the commission, sealed, and identified as bids on the envelope. Bids shall be opened at the time and place stated in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The state auditor or a member of his staff may be present at any bid opening. A tabulation of all bids received shall be available for public inspection under regulations to be established by the commission.

(e) Award of Contract. The commission shall award contracts to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications required. Complying with the specified time limit for submission of written data, samples, or models on or before bid opening time is essential to the materiality of a bid, provided, however, that the commission shall have the authority to waive this provision if the failure to comply is beyond control of the bidder. In determining who is the lowest and best bidder, in addition to price, the commission shall consider:

- (1) the quality, availability, and adaptability of the supplies, materials, equipment, or contractual services, to the particular use required;
- (2) the number and scope of conditions attached to the bid;
- (3) the ability, capacity, and skill of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service required;
- (4) whether the bidder can perform the contract or provide the service promptly, or within the time required, without delay or interference;
- (5) the character, responsibility, integrity, reputation, and experience of the bidder;
- (6) the quality of performance of previous contracts or services;
- (7) the previous and existing compliance by the bidder with laws relating to the contract or service;
- (8) any previous or existing noncompliance by the bidder with specification requirements relating to time of submission of specified data such as samples, models, drawings, certificates, or other information;

(9) the sufficiency of the financial resources and ability of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service; and

(10) the ability of the bidder to provide future maintenance, repair parts, and service for the use of the subject of the contract.

(f) Rejection of Bids. If a bid is submitted in which there is a material failure to comply with the specification requirements, such bid shall be rejected and the contract awarded to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications, provided, however, the commission shall in any event have the authority to reject all bids or parts of bids when the interest of the state will be served thereby.

(g) Bid Record. When an award is made, a statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder and the factors considered in determining the lowest and best bid shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

(h) Tie Bids. In case of tie bids, quality and service being equal, the contract shall be awarded under rules and regulations to be adopted by the commission.

(i) Performance Bonds. The commission may require a performance bond before entering a contract in such amount as it finds reasonable and necessary to protect the interests of the state. Any bond required under this subsection shall be conditioned that the bidder will faithfully execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered. Any bond required shall be filed with the commission and recoveries may be had thereon until it is exhausted.

Open Market Purchase Procedure

Sec. 3.12. (a) When the commission determines that any purchases of supplies, materials, equipment, or services may be made most effectively in the open market, such purchases may be made without newspaper advertising.

(b) Minimum Number of Bids. All open market purchases shall, whenever possible, be based on at least three competitive bids, and shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder in accordance with the standards set forth under this article.

(c) Notice Inviting Bids. The commission shall solicit bids by:

- (1) direct mail request to prospective vendors; or
- (2) telephone or telegraph.

(d) Recording. The commission shall keep a record of all open market orders and bids submitted thereon, and a tabulation of the bids shall, under rules and regulations to be established by the commission, be open to public inspection; provided, they shall always be open to inspection by the state auditor or his representatives.

(e) Agency Review. If a state agency requests that it be allowed to review the bids on a purchase request, the commission shall forward copies of the bids received or make the same available to the requesting agency along with the commission's recommended award. If, after review of the bids and evaluation of the quality of products offered in the bids, the state agency determines that the bid selected by the commission is not in its opinion the lowest and best bid, it may file with the commission a written recommendation, complete with justification, that the award be made to the bidder determined to be the lowest and best bid. The commission shall give consideration to, but is not bound by, the agency recommendation in making the award.

(f) Statement of Award. A statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder and the factors considered in determining the lowest and best bid shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

Compliance with Antitrust Laws

Sec. 3.13. A bidder offering to sell supplies, materials, services, or equipment to the state shall certify on each bid submitted that neither the bidder nor the firm, corporation, partnership, or institution represented by the bidder, or anyone acting for such firm, corporation, or institution has violated the antitrust laws of this state codified in Section 15.01, et seq., Business & Commerce Code, or the federal antitrust laws, nor communicated directly or indirectly the bid made to any competitor or any other person engaged in such line of business. The attorney general shall prepare the certification statement which is to be made a part of the bid form.

Invoice

Sec. 3.14. The contractor or seller of supplies and/or services contracted for by the commission shall render an invoice to the ordering agency at the address shown on the purchase order. The invoice shall be prepared and submitted under such rules and regulations as the commission shall provide.

Invoice; Check of Goods or Services

Sec. 3.15. (a) As soon as supplies, materials, or equipment are received by a state agency they shall be inspected by the agency to see if they correspond in every particular with those covered by the contract under which they were purchased, and if the invoice is correct, the agency shall certify that such is true and transmit to the commission the original invoice and appropriate purchase voucher forms. As soon as an invoice is received for services rendered to any state agency, the agency shall determine if such services correspond in every particular with those services contracted for and that the invoice is correct, and shall certify that such is true and transmit to the commission the original invoice and appropriate purchase voucher forms. The state agency shall complete the procedures for transmittal of the invoice and purchase voucher to the commission promptly after receipt of the supplies, materials, or equipment or performance of the services or receipt of the invoice for the supplies, materials, equipment, or services, whichever is later.

(b) If the commission finds such invoice and purchase voucher forms correct, it shall approve and transmit same to the state comptroller. The commission shall complete the procedures for transmittal of the invoice and purchase voucher to the state comptroller within eight days after receipt of the invoice and purchase voucher. The commission is not required to process vouchers in payment of telephone service within eight days but shall process them as expeditiously as possible.

Invoice; Payment

Sec. 3.16. When an invoice and purchase voucher have been approved by the agency and the commission, and have been approved by the comptroller, the comptroller shall draw a warrant upon the state treasury for the amount due on the invoice or for so much thereof as has been allowed, and it shall be charged against the state agency. The comptroller shall complete the procedures for drawing the warrant within eight days after receipt of the invoice and purchase voucher.

Specifications and Standards Program; Test and Inspection Program

Sec. 3.17. The commission shall have the authority to establish and maintain a specifications and standards program to coordinate the establishment and maintenance of uniform standards and specifications for materials, supplies, and equipment purchased by the commission. The commission shall enlist the cooperation of other state agencies in the establishment, maintenance, and revision of uniform standards and specifications and shall encourage and foster the use of standard specifications in order that the most efficient purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment may be continuously accomplished. The commission may also establish and maintain a program of testing and inspecting to ensure that materials, supplies, services, and equipment meet specifications, and may make contracts for testing. If any state agency determines that any supplies, materials, services, or equipment received do not meet specifications, it shall promptly notify the commission in writing detailing the reasons why the supplies, materials, services, or equipment do not meet the specifications of the contract. The commission shall immediately determine whether or not the reported supplies, materials, services, or equipment meet specifications. The sole power to determine whether materials, supplies, services, and equipment meet specifications shall rest with the commission. When the commission finds that contract specifications or conditions have not been complied with, it shall take action, with the assistance of the attorney general, if necessary, against the defaulting contractor.

Usage Figures

Sec. 3.18. The commission shall maintain usage figures on the consumption and use of supplies, materials, services, and equipment purchased for state agencies, institutions, boards, and commissions, and shall furnish using agencies upon request usage and consumption figures maintained. The commission is directed to cooperate with the state budget offices and the state auditor in the preparation of usage and consumption figures of supplies, materials, services, and equipment.

Conflict of Interest

Sec. 3.19. No member of the commission or any employee or appointee of the commission shall be interested in, or in any manner connected with, any contract or bid for furnishing supplies, materials, services, and equipment of any kind to any agency of the State of Texas. Neither shall any member or employee or appointee, under penalty of dismissal, accept or receive from any person, firm, or corporation to whom any contract may be awarded, directly or indirectly, by rebate, gift, or otherwise, any money or other thing of value whatever, nor shall he receive any promise, obligation, or contract for future reward or compensation from any such party.

Preference for Products of Retarded or Handicapped Persons

Sec. 3.20. The products of workshops, organizations, or corporations whose primary purpose is training and employing mentally retarded or physically handicapped persons shall be given preference if they meet state specifications as to quantity, quality, and price.

Purchase and Use of Paper Containing Recycled Fibers

Sec. 3.21. The commission shall contract for paper containing the highest percent of recycled fibers for all purposes for which paper with recycled fibers may be used and to the extent that such paper is available at a reasonable price through normal commercial channels to supply the needs of the state. All agencies which purchase through the commission are directed to place orders for papers containing recycled fibers to the highest extent of their needs and to the extent that such paper is available through purchasing procedures of the commission.

Exemption of Goods or Services of Blind Persons

Sec. 3.22. The provisions of this article with respect to competitive bids are not applicable to state purchases of blind-made goods or services offered for sale to state agencies as a result of efforts made by the Texas Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Goods and Services acting in accordance with legislation applicable to the committee if the goods or services meet state specifications as to quantity and quality and the cost is not in excess of the fair market price of like items.

Contracts with Department of Corrections

Sec. 3.23. The commission is hereby authorized to make contracts with the Texas Department of Corrections for the purchase of supplies, equipment, services, and materials for use by other state agencies.

Advance Payments to State or Federal Agencies

Sec. 3.24. All state agencies are authorized to make advance payments to federal and other state agencies for merchandise purchased from such agencies when advance payments will expedite the delivery of the merchandise.

Contracts for Printing Laws

Sec. 3.25. (a) The commission shall, at the opening of each regular session of the Texas legislature, award a special contract for printing the general and special laws and resolutions to be passed by each regular or special session of the current legislature, the contract to be separate and apart from all other contracts for public printing. The general and special laws shall be printed in separate volumes upon order of the commission. The contracts for the printing shall be prepared by the commission and shall provide such penalties as will assure the delivery of the laws within the contract time limit. The printer shall be required to begin delivery of completed books within a reasonable time after the printing is completed and binding commenced, which limit shall be set out in the call for bids made by the commission. An appropriation shall be made by the legislature to pay the cost of compiling, indexing, and printing all such laws and resolutions.

(b) There shall also be placed in the contract a stipulation requiring the printer to have the proof read and corrected before submitting such proof to the state. The comptroller shall not issue a warrant to the printer in payment for the printing of such laws and resolutions unless and until the printer, if an individual, or if a corporation, partnership, or association, the vice-president, secretary, or manager of same has made a sworn affidavit that he has complied with this section.

(c) Such laws and resolutions shall be compiled and printed under the direction of the secretary of state, who shall within 26 days, excluding Sundays, after adjournment of the legislature furnish the printer all copy therefor, the delivery of the first copy to the printer to begin as the bills are signed by the governor; provided that copy for the index shall be given to the printer within five days after the printer has furnished all page proofs of the laws to the secretary of state.

(d) The secretary of state shall distribute the printed laws of each session of the legislature as follows: (1) one copy to the governor, (2) one copy to the lieutenant governor, (3) three copies to each of the heads of all departments, (4) one copy to each of the judges of the several courts throughout the state, (5) one copy to each district and county attorney in the state, and (6) one copy to each member of the legislature.

Prohibition of Reproduction or Disposition of Matter Printed Under Public Contract

Sec. 3.26. (a) Except under contract or agreement with the state as hereinafter provided authorizing them so to do, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons doing any printing, under contract, for the State of Texas, to reproduce, print, or prepare or to sell or furnish any such printing or printed matter or any reprint, reproduction, or copy of same, or plate, type, mat, cut, or engraving from which such printing contract was executed, except the amount and number of copies contracted to be printed and furnished to the State of Texas under such contract.

(b) Any printing done under contract for any department, the legislature, or either branch thereof, any board, commission, court, officer or agent of the State of Texas, as well as any such work done directly for the state, shall for the purposes of this article be deemed to have been done for the State of Texas.

(c) With the consent of the commission and the governor, any person, firm, corporation, or association may print extra copies and sell them at a price fixed by the commission, whenever in the opinion of the commission and the governor the printed matter should be distributed in such manner for the benefit of the public. Any such contract for the printing and sale of such extra copies shall be approved by the attorney general.

(d) Any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and in the event the violation is by a natural person or the agent or employee of a person, corporation, firm, or association, the punishment may be by jail sentence not to exceed 30 days in addition to such fine. The conviction of an agent or employee shall not bar conviction of the principal also.

Surplus War Materials

Sec. 3.27. The commission is authorized and directed to purchase for any county or any other political subdivision of this state such surplus war materials or surplus goods, merchandise, equipment, or other wares from the federal government or its agencies as may be offered for sale by them, provided the county or other political subdivision shall request the commission to make such purchase, and provided it shall deposit with the commission sufficient funds to cover payment therefor.

Preference to Texas and United States Products

Sec. 3.28. (a) The commission and all state agencies making purchases of supplies, materials, or equipment shall give preference to those produced in Texas or offered by Texas bidders, the cost to the state and quality being equal.

(b) If supplies, materials, or equipment produced in Texas or offered by Texas bidders are not equal in cost and quality, then supplies, materials, or equipment produced in other states of the United States of America shall be given preference over foreign-made products, the cost to the state and quality being equal.

Purchase of Passenger Vehicles

Sec. 3.29. A state agency may not purchase or lease a vehicle designed or used primarily for the transportation of persons, including a station wagon, that has a wheel base longer than 113 inches or that has more than 145 SAE horsepower. This provision does not apply to the purchase or lease of a vehicle to be used primarily for criminal law enforcement or a bus, motorcycle, pickup, van, truck, three-wheel vehicle, tractor, or ambulance.

Authority to Pay Charges

Sec. 3.30. The commission or a state agency may pay a restocking charge, cancellation fee, or other similar charge if the commission determines that the charge is justifiable.

ARTICLE 4. PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Custodianship of State Property

Sec. 4.01. (a) The commission shall have charge and control of all public buildings, grounds and property of the state, and is the custodian of all public personal property, and is responsible for the proper care and protection of such property from damage, intrusion, or improper usage. The commission is expressly directed to take any steps necessary to protect public buildings against any existing or threatened fire hazards. The commission is authorized to provide for the allocation of space in any of the public buildings to the departments of the state government for the uses authorized by law, and is authorized to make any repairs to any such buildings or parts thereof necessary to the serviceable accommodation of the uses to which such buildings or space therein may be allotted.

(b) The allocation of any space affecting the quarters of either house of the legislature must have the approval of the speaker of the house of representatives or the lieutenant governor, the approval being for the quarters allocated to the particular house affected.

(c) The provisions of Subsection (a) of this section pertaining to charge and control of public buildings and grounds do not apply to buildings and grounds of:

(1) institutions of higher education, as defined by Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended;

(2) state agencies to which control has been specifically committed by law; and

(3) state agencies that have demonstrated ability and competence to maintain and control their buildings and grounds and to which the commission delegates that authority.

Lease of Public Grounds

Sec. 4.02. (a) All public grounds belonging to the State of Texas under the charge and control of the commission may be leased for agricultural or commercial purposes. Lease proposals shall be advertised once a week for four consecutive weeks in at least two newspapers, one of which shall be published in the city where the property is located, or the nearest daily paper thereto, and the other in some paper with state-wide circulation. Each lease shall be subject to the approval of the attorney general of Texas, both as to substance and as to form. The money derived from the lease of such property, less the expense for advertising and leasing, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund except that if land leased belongs to any eleemosynary institution, that money must be deposited to the credit of said institution in the same manner that the special fund is now deposited or may hereafter be ordered deposited by the legislature.

(b) The commission shall adopt proper forms and regulations, rules, and contracts, as will, in its best judgment, protect the interest of the state. The commission may reject any and all bids.

(c) This section does not apply to space in a building that the commission may lease to a private tenant under Section 4.15 of this Act.

Sec. 4.03. Repealed by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2773, ch. 476, § 14, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.

Use of Rooms in Capitol for Private Purposes

Sec. 4.04. No room, apartment, or office in the state capitol building shall be used at any time by any person as a bedroom or for any private purposes whatever. This section shall not apply to the offices and living quarters occupied by the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives.

Inspection of State Property

Sec. 4.05. The commission shall frequently inspect all the public buildings and property of the state at such regular intervals as may be necessary to keep constantly informed of the condition of the same, except that the commission may inspect the buildings, property in the buildings, and other property under the control of the State Preservation Board only at the board's request. The commission shall report to the board the results of any inspection. Restoration and repairs may be made only at the direction of the board and only by a contractor or agency chosen by the board.

Repair and Improvement of State Buildings

Sec. 4.06. When needed improvements or repairs of buildings and offices are called to the attention of the commission by the heads of departments or offices, the commission shall provide for such repairs or improvements, and they shall be made under its direction.

Maintenance of Sewers and Utility Conduits

Sec. 4.07. The commission shall give special attention to the effective maintenance of sewers and utility conduits.

Plans of Public Buildings

Sec. 4.08. The commission shall prepare and keep in its offices a copy of the plans of all public buildings and improvements thereto under its charge showing the exact location of all water, gas, and sewerage pipes and electrical wiring.

Report about Improvements and Repairs

Sec. 4.09. The commission shall biennially on December 1st make a report to the governor showing all improvements and repairs that have been made with an itemized account of receipts and expenditures, and showing the condition of all property under its control with an estimate of needed improvements and repairs.

State Cemetery

Sec. 4.10. (a) The commission shall control, superintend, and beautify the grounds of the State Cemetery and shall preserve the grounds and everything pertaining thereto and protect the property from depreciation and injury. The commission shall procure and erect, at the head of each grave which has no permanent monument, an obelisk of marble upon which shall be engraved the name of the dead therein buried.

(b) The persons eligible for burial in the State Cemetery are as follows:

(1) present and former members of the Texas Legislature;

(2) present and former elective state officials;

(3) present and former state officials who have been appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate;

(4) persons specified by a governor's proclamation; and

(5) persons specified in a concurrent resolution adopted by the legislature.

(c) Grave spaces shall be allotted for a person eligible for burial and for his or her spouse, together with his or her unmarried child or children, which child or children shall be buried alongside his, her, or their parent or parents, provided that such child on the effective date of this Act or at the time of his or her death is a resident in any state eleemosynary institution. Children other than those hereinabove made eligible for burial may not be included. The size of a grave plot may not be longer than eight feet nor wider than five feet times the number of persons of one family authorized hereunder to be buried alongside one another.

(d) No monument or statue may be erected that is taller than any existing monument or statue in the State Cemetery on the effective date of this Act.

(e) No trees, shrubs, or flowers may be planted in the State Cemetery without written permission from the commission.

(f) Burial of persons on state property may take place only in the State Cemetery or in a cemetery maintained by a state eleemosynary institution, and no other state property, including the capitol grounds, may be used as an interment site.

(g) Allotment and location of the necessary number of grave plots authorized shall be made by the commission upon application of the person primarily eligible hereunder or by his or her spouse, or by the executor or administrator of his or her estate.

French Embassy

Sec. 4.11. The property known as the French Embassy is set aside for the uses and purposes of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas and they are authorized to take full charge of said building and use it as they may see proper. The French Embassy shall be the property of the state, and the title of said property shall remain in custody of the commission.

Protection of State Buildings and Grounds; Regulation of Parking

Sec. 4.12. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to trespass upon the grass plots or flowerbeds, or to damage or deface any of the buildings, or cut down, deface, mutilate, or otherwise injure any of the statues, monuments, memorials, trees, shrubs, grasses, or flowers on the grounds or commit any other trespass upon any property of the state, real or personal, located on the grounds of the state capitol, the governor's mansion, or other property owned by the State of Texas known as the capitol complex, in the area bounded on the south by Tenth Street, on the north by Martin Luther King Boulevard, on the west by Lavaca Street, and on the east by Trinity Street in the City of Austin; or on any other state-owned property under the charge and control of the commission whether or not located in the City of Austin.

(b) It is an offense to park a vehicle in a place other than a space marked and designated for parking by the commission or to block or impede traffic on the driveways of property owned or leased by the state in the area described in Subsection (a) of this section. The commission may regulate the flow and direction of traffic in the capitol complex and may erect the structures necessary to implement this authority.

(c)(1) When the legislature is in session, the commission shall assign and mark, for unrestricted use by members and administrative staff of the legislature, the reserved parking spaces in the capitol complex requested by the respective houses of the legislature. A request for parking spaces reserved pursuant to this subsection shall be limited to spaces in the capitol driveways and the additional spaces in state parking lots proximately located to the capitol.

(2) When the legislature is not in session, the commission shall, at the request of the respective legislative bodies, assign and mark the spaces requested for use by members and administrative staff of the legislature, in the areas described in Subsection (c)(1) of this section.

(3) The commission shall assign and mark reserved parking spaces on the capitol driveways for the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the house, and secretary of state for their unrestricted use.

(4) The commission may assign parking spaces to elected state officials and appointed heads of state agencies who occupy space in state buildings located within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section.

(5) If spaces are available, the commission shall assign parking spaces to handicapped state employees. All remaining parking facilities under charge and control of the commission in the area described in Subsection (a) of this section may be made available by the commission for use by the state employees working for agencies housed within that area as pursuant to Subsection (c)(7) of this section.

(6) The commission may designate and mark parking spaces for state-owned vehicles and visitor and business parking within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section.

(7) The legislature may establish in the General Appropriations Act a charge for parking, or may also establish in said Act that no charge be made for parking, or both, in any part or all of a state-owned or state-leased area located within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section. In each biennium such a charge is established, the commission shall collect the charge. The legislature may also establish in said Act that parking in any part or all of such area be made available by the commission on either an open lot parking basis or an individual space assignment basis, or both. However, to the extent the legislature does not make provision in each biennium for any part or all of the area within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section either as to parking charges or the prohibition thereof, or as to the basis upon which parking facilities are to be utilized, the commission may establish and collect a reasonable monthly parking charge for parking within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section, except those parking spaces assigned to the respective houses of the legislature on the capitol drive-ways, and may make available parking facilities in said area on either an open lot parking basis or an individual space assignment basis, or both.

(8) A person who parks an unauthorized vehicle in a space assigned under the provisions of this section commits an offense.

(9) The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the property or the parking facility under the management and control of the Texas Employment Commission and located within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section.

(d) The commission is hereby authorized to request the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation to assist it in the marking and designation of such parking spaces as the commission shall deem necessary and to maintain the painting of lines and curb markings and furnish such directional or informational signs as the commission shall deem necessary in the area described in Subsection (a) of this section. The Department of Public Safety shall provide advice and assistance to the commission when requested and shall at all times have at least one commissioned officer assigned to duty in the capitol area.

(e) It shall be unlawful to operate a motor vehicle upon any property owned by the State of Texas within the bounds set forth in Subsection (a) of this section at a speed in excess of 15 miles per hour. All laws regulating traffic upon highways and streets shall apply to the operation of motor vehicles within the prescribed areas, except as modified hereby.

(f) All of the general and criminal laws of the state are declared to be in full force and effect within the areas regulated by this section.

(g) The commission is authorized to employ security officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section and may commission such security officers as it deems necessary as peace officers. When so commissioned, said officers are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges, and immunities of peace officers; provided, that each security officer shall take and file the oath required of peace officers and shall execute and file with the commission a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $1,000 payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office with two or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned that he will fairly and faithfully perform all of the duties as may be required of him by law, and that he will fairly and impartially enforce the law of this state and that he will pay over any and all money, or turn over any and all property, to the proper person legally entitled to the same, that may come into his possession by virtue of such office. Said bond shall not be void for the first recovery but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this section for any person or persons to impersonate any of said officers.

(h) The powers and duties conferred on the commission by this section may, at the request of a state agency, be exercised on any property owned or leased by the state. The cost of any service performed by the commission under this subsection, for a requesting agency, when performed outside the areas described in Subsection (a) of this section, shall be reimbursed to the commission by that agency pursuant to a contract executed in accordance with The Interagency Cooperation Act (Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(i) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200. The penalties for violation of any of the other criminal laws of the state shall be as now provided by law.

(j) In connection with traffic and parking violations only, the officers authorized to enforce the provisions of this section shall have the authority to issue and use traffic tickets and summons of the type now used by the city of Austin and/or the Texas Highway Patrol with such changes as are necessitated thereby to be prepared and furnished by the commission. Upon the issuance of any such traffic ticket or summons the same procedures shall be followed as now prevail in connection with the use of parking and traffic violation tickets by the city of Austin and the Texas Highway Patrol. Nothing herein shall restrict the application and use of regular arrest warrants.

(k) The primary responsibility for enforcing the provisions of this section shall be with the commission, which shall have authority to promulgate rules and regulations not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of law as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Whenever the commission shall have promulgated such a rule or regulation and has posted signs in any of the regulated areas giving notice thereof, it shall be unlawful for any person to violate any of the provisions of such signs and shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this section.

(l) The judge of the municipal court and/or any justice of the peace in Austin are each hereby separately vested with all jurisdiction necessary to hear, try, and determine criminal cases involving violations hereof where punishment does not exceed a fine of $200.

(m) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge the authority of the commission to grant permission to use the capitol grounds and any grounds adjacent to any state building for such use as may be provided by preexisting law.

Pass Keys to Rooms in the Capitol

Sec. 4.13. Any person who shall make or have made or keep in his possession a pass or master key to the rooms and apartments in the state capitol, unless authorized to do so, shall be fined not exceeding $100.

Consent of Legislature Required for Construction

Sec. 4.14. (a) It shall be unlawful, without the prior express consent of the legislature, for any officer of this state or any employee thereof or any other person to construct, build, erect, or maintain any building, structure, memorial, monument, statue, concession, or any other structure including creation of parking areas or the laying of additional paving on any of the grounds that surrounded the state capitol on January 1, 1955, and which grounds were then bounded by Eleventh, Brazos, Thirteenth and Colorado Streets, in the city of Austin, Texas, whether such land lay inside or outside the fence enclosing part of the grounds; provided, however, that paved access and underground utility installations may be constructed and maintained.

(b) Any officer or employee of this state, or other person violating Subsection (a) of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or imprisoned in the county jail of Travis County for a period of time not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) Any officer of this state who is subject to removal from office by means of impeachment shall be subject to such removal for violation of Subsection (a) of this section and any other officer or any employee of the state who shall violate Subsection (a) of this section shall be dismissed immediately from any employment by the state.

Lease of Space to Private Tenants

Sec. 4.15. (a) The purpose of this section is to encourage the most efficient use of valuable space in state office buildings and parking garages, to serve the needs of the employees and visitors in the buildings, and to enhance the social, cultural, and economic environment in and near the buildings.

(b) In a state-owned building that is under the commission's control and that is used primarily for office space or vehicle parking for the state government, the commission may lease at fair market value an amount of space to private tenants for commercial, cultural, educational, or recreational activities. However, the commission may not lease any space to a private tenant for use as private office space unless the private office space is related and incidental to another commercial, cultural, educational, or recreational activity of the tenant in the building.

(c) The commission shall determine the amount of space in a building to be allocated to private tenants and the types of activities in which the tenants may engage based on the market for certain activities among employees and visitors in the building and in the vicinity of the building. The amount of space allocated to private tenants may not exceed 15 percent of the total space in the building.

(d) If the commission allocates space in a building to a private tenant, it shall do so in a manner that encourages the tenant to use space with street frontage or in other areas of heavy pedestrian activity.

(e) The commission may furnish utilities and custodial services to a private tenant at cost.

(f) The commission may lease space in a building after the lease is negotiated with the tenant or after the tenant is selected through a competitive bidding process. In either case, the commission shall follow procedures that promote competition and protect the interests of the state.

(g) The commission may permit a private tenant to sublease part or all of the space the tenant leases. However, the commission must approve all subleases.

(h) The commission may refuse to lease space to a person or to permit an activity in the space if the commission considers the refusal to be in the best interests of the state.

(i) The commission shall deposit lease revenue in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. The revenue may be used only for building and property services performed by the commission.

(j) The commission shall request the State Commission for the Blind to determine under Section 94.003, Human Resources Code, if it is feasible to install a vending facility in the building in which the commission intends to lease space to a private tenant. If the installation of the facility is feasible, the commission shall permit the installation in accordance with Chapter 94, Human Resources Code. If a vending facility is installed, the commission may not lease any space in the building to a tenant that the commission, after consultation with the State Commission for the Blind, determines would be in direct competition with the vending facility. If the State Commission for the Blind determines that the installation of a vending facility is not feasible, the commission shall lease space to at least one private tenant whose activity in the building will be managed by a blind person or by a handicapped person who is not blind.

(k) The space leased to a private tenant is subject to ad valorem taxation in accordance with Subsection (d), Section 11.11, Tax Code, as amended. However, if the private tenant would be entitled to an exemption from taxation of the space if the tenant owned the space instead of leasing it, the space is not subject to taxation.

ARTICLE 5. BUILDING CONSTRUCTION
ADMINISTRATION

Acquisition, Construction, Etc.; Authorization

Sec. 5.01. Under such terms and conditions as may be provided by law, the commission may acquire necessary real and personal property, modernize, remodel, build, and equip buildings for state purposes, and make contracts necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes herein mentioned in keeping with appropriations authorized by the legislature. The commission shall not sell or dispose of any real property of the state except by specific authority from the legislature.

Acquisition, Construction, Etc.; First Consideration to Historic Structures

Sec. 5.01A. (a) In acquiring real property, each using agency of the state, other than those specifically excluded by Sections 5.13 and 5.14 of this article, shall give first consideration to a building that is a historic structure under Section 8, Chapter 500, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 as amended (Article 6145, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or to a building that has been designated a landmark by the local governing authority, if the building meets requirements and specifications and the cost is not substantially higher than other available structures that meet requirements and specifications.

(b) Upon consideration of the construction of a new state building, the using agency shall notify the Texas Historical Commission and shall request a list of historic structures in the proposed construction area that are suitable and available for state acquisition.

(c) If the using agency decides to proceed with new construction, the using agency shall forward to the commission for inclusion in the project analysis for the new construction:

- (1) the date it notified the Texas Historical Commission of the proposed construction;
- (2) the date of the Texas Historical Commission's response;
- (3) a copy of the list of historic structures furnished by the Texas Historical Commission; and
- (4) a statement of the reasons for the rejection of each of the historic structures on the list.

(d) If the using agency rejects the acquisition of a historic structure because of the cost of the structure, the using agency shall forward to the commission for inclusion in the project analysis for the new construction a comparison of the cost of the new construction with the cost of the purchase and rehabilitation of the historic structure.

(e) In determining the feasibility of the acquisition of a historic structure, the using agency shall evaluate the possibility of providing the space needed by the using agency by combining new construction with the acquisition of the historic structure.

(f) Upon request of the using agency, the commission shall assist the using agency in evaluating the feasibility of acquiring a historic structure and in preparing the information required by Subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

(g) The commission shall fulfill the requirements of Subsections (a) through (e) of this section for all projects for which it is the using agency and for any multiagency state office building for which the commission serves as the coordinating authority.

Contracts; Analyses

Sec. 5.02. (a) The commission is authorized to take any action and enter into any contracts to obtain sites which it deems necessary in order to provide for the orderly future development of the state building program insofar as appropriations permit.

(b) The commission may call upon the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation to make appropriate tests and analyses of the natural materials at the site of each building constructed under the terms of this article to insure that foundations of said buildings will be adequate for the life of the buildings.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 5.03. The commission shall have and may exercise the power of eminent domain under the general laws to obtain sites for buildings.

Title, Initial Occupants

Sec. 5.04. The commission shall obtain title for the state and retain control of the real property acquired for sites and of the buildings located thereon. The initial occupants of buildings shall be those state agencies determined by the commission or the legislature. This section shall apply to all new state buildings constructed heretofore or that may be constructed hereafter in Austin by the commission.

Assistance from Agencies

Sec. 5.05. The commission shall have the authority to call on any department of state government to assist it in carrying out the provisions of this article.

Monuments, Memorials

Sec. 5.06. Monuments or memorials for the Texas heroes of the Confederate States of America and the Texas War for Independence, or to commemorate any other event or person of historical significance to Texans and the State of Texas may be erected on land owned or acquired by the state or, if suitable contracts can be made for permanent preservation of such monuments or memorials, on private property or on land owned by the federal government or by other states. The locating and marking of graves of such Texans is hereby authorized. The commission is further authorized to maintain and shall be responsible for the continuing maintenance of the monuments and memorials erected by the State of Texas to commemorate the Centenary of Texas Independence. Before erection of any new monument or memorial the commission shall obtain the approval of the Texas Historical Commission as to the form, dimensions, substance of, and inscriptions or illustrations upon such monuments or memorials.

Contracts with Historical Commission

Sec. 5.07. The commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with the Texas Historical Commission for the purpose of assisting and advising the commission with regard to the proper memorials and monuments to be erected, repaired, and removed to new locations, the selection of sites therefor, and the locating and marking of graves.

Acquisition of Historic Buildings, Etc.

Sec. 5.08. The commission is authorized to acquire by gift, devise, purchase, or by its general power of eminent domain, any lands on which are situated historic buildings, sites, or landmarks of statewide historical significance associated with historic events or personalities, or prehistoric ruins, burial grounds, archaeological or vertebrate paleontological sites, sites including fossilized footprints, inscriptions made by human agency, or any other archaeological, paleontological, or historical feature, within the limits of the State of Texas. The right of eminent domain conferred above as relating to historical sites, buildings, and structures shall not be exercised except upon a proper showing that it is necessary to prevent destruction or deterioration of the historical site, building, or structure. The commission is authorized to request from the Texas Historical Commission a certification or authentication of the worthiness of preservation of the features listed above.

Archives

Sec. 5.09. The commission may, in its discretion, provide for the storage and display of the archives of Texas.

Construction in Other Cities

Sec. 5.10. (a) The commission is authorized and empowered to select and purchase sites in any of the cities of Texas on which to construct state office buildings and adjoining parking lots where such are deemed necessary to house state departments and agencies in said cities, and is further authorized and empowered to plan, construct, and initially equip state office buildings together with adjoining parking space on each such site selected and purchased.

(b) The commission is further authorized and empowered to enter into lease agreements with departments, commissions, boards, agencies, and other instrumentalities of the State of Texas, political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and the federal government or its instrumentalities concerning the space in the office building which is the subject of this article. Except as provided by Section 4.15 of this Act or by another law, the commission is specifically denied the power to lease space in said building to individuals, private corporations or associations, partnerships, or any other private interests.

Grant of Easements and Rights-of-Way

Sec. 5.11. The commission is authorized and empowered to grant such permanent and temporary easements and rights-of-way over and on lands of any state agency on any project administered by the commission as shall be necessary to insure the efficient and expeditious construction, improvement, renovation, use, and operation of such state agency project building or facility.

Definitions

Sec. 5.12. The following terms whenever used or referred to in this article shall have the following meanings, except in those instances where the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Using agency" means any instrumentality of the state which shall occupy and make use of a state-owned or state-leased building, and for the purpose of this article the commission shall be considered as the using agency for the state capitol, the governor's mansion and for all other state-owned buildings maintained by the commission.

(2) "Commission" means the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.

(3) "Project" means any building construction project, other than those specifically excluded by Sections 5.13 and 5.14 of this article, which shall be financed in whole or in part by specific appropriation, bond issue or federal funds. The term "project" shall include the construction of any building or any structure or any facility or utility appurtenant thereto, including original equipment and original furnishings thereof, and of any addition to, alteration, rehabilitation, or repair of any existing building or any structure, or any facility or utility appurtenant thereto.

(4) "Project analysis" refers to work done prior to legislative appropriation for a project for the purpose of developing a reliable estimate of the cost of a project to be requested of the legislature.

(5) "Cost of a project" includes, but shall not be limited to, the cost of all real estate, properties, rights and easements acquired, utility services, site development, the cost of construction and the initial furnishing and equipment thereof, all architectural and engineering and legal expenses, the cost of surveys and plans and specifications, and such other expenses, including those incurred by the commission, as are necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of any project.

(6) "Construction" means and includes acquisition, construction, and reconstruction.

(7) "Rehabilitation" means and includes renewal, restoration, extension, enlargement, and improvement.

(8) "Equipment" and "furnishings" mean and include any equipment and furnishings whatsoever as may be necessary and required for the use of a project.

(9) "Architect/engineer" means a person registered as an architect pursuant to Chapter 478, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (compiled as Article 249a of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and/or a person registered as a professional engineer pursuant to Chapter 404, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (compiled as Article 3271a of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), employed to provide professional architectural or engineering services and having overall responsibility for the design of a project. The term "architect/engineer" standing by itself may, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, mean either an architect/engineer employed by the commission on a salary basis or an architect/engineer in private practice retained for a specific project under a contractual agreement with the commission. The term "private architect/engineer" shall specifically and exclusively refer to a registered architect or a registered engineer in private practice retained for a specific project under a contractual agreement with the commission.

(10) "Stage construction" means the construction of a project in phases, each phase resulting in one or more buildings or structures which individually or together shall be capable of use regardless of whether subsequent phases of the project are authorized or not.

Application of Article

Sec. 5.13. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this article, this article shall apply to all building construction projects as herein defined which may be undertaken by the state, with the following exceptions:

(1) all projects constructed by and for the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation;

(2) all projects constructed by and for state institutions of higher education;

(3) all projects constructed by and for the Texas Department of Corrections;

(4) pens, sheds, and ancillary buildings constructed by and for the Texas Department of Agriculture for the processing of livestock prior to export;

(5) all projects of repair and rehabilitation, except major renovations, of buildings and grounds on the commission inventory;

(6) all projects constructed by the Parks and Wildlife Department; and

(7) repair and rehabilitation projects of any other using agency, provided all labor for such projects is provided by the regular maintenance forces of the using agency under specific legislative authorization, and provided further, that such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and/or drawings.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the commission from undertaking a project excluded by this section under an interagency agreement originated by the appropriate using agency, and provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as exempting any agency or institution from the requirements of Section 5.31 of this article.

(c) In addition to the exclusions enumerated in this section, the commission may, by regulation, exclude repair and rehabilitation projects involving the use of contract labor, provided such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and drawings.

Additional Exclusions

Sec. 5.14. In addition to the projects excluded by Section 5.13 of this article, it is specifically provided that nothing in this article shall apply to:

(1) projects constructed by or under the supervision of any public authorities created by the laws of this state; or

(2) state-aided local government projects of any character whatsoever.

Administration

Sec. 5.15. (a) The commission is designated as the administering agency and shall exercise the powers and duties conferred upon it by this article. The commission shall be the coordinating authority for the construction of any multiagency state office buildings which the legislature may authorize.

(b) In accord with the provisions of Section 2.06 of this article, the executive director shall appoint a Director of Facilities Planning and Construction who shall be either a registered architect or a registered professional engineer and shall have proven administrative ability and experience in the fields of building design and construction.

(c) The commission may assign a qualified professional employee to any using agency where the volume of construction projects is such that the commission and the using agency agree that full-time coordination between the commission and the using agency is desirable. The commission and the using agency shall mutually agree upon the qualifications and duties of such assigned employees and the salary and related expenses of such assigned employees shall be charged against the projects of the using agency to which they are assigned. Such assignments shall be terminated whenever in the opinion of the commission they are no longer required.

(d) The commission may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the powers, duties, and responsibilities imposed upon it by this article. The rules and regulations shall be binding on all state agencies upon being filed with the secretary of state. The commission shall prepare and publish a manual to assist using agencies in complying with the provisions of this article and the rules and regulations of the commission. Copies of the manual shall be distributed to all using agencies and shall be available to architects, engineers, contractors, and others who may need and request a copy of it.

(e) Legal representation of the commission shall be performed by the Attorney General of Texas. This provision shall not restrict the attorney general from employing special assistants to assist in the performance of duties arising by virtue of the provisions of this article in those instances where the attorney general deems such employment necessary.

(f) Venue of all suits for any breach of contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be in Travis County, Texas.

(g) The commission may waive, suspend, or modify any provision of this article which shall be in conflict with any federal statute or any rule, regulation, or administrative procedure of any federal agency where such waiver, suspension, or modification shall be essential to the receipt of federal funds for any project. In the case of any project wholly financed from federal funds, any standards required by the enabling federal statute or required by the rules and regulations of the administering federal agency shall be controlling.

Project Analysis

Sec. 5.16. (a) Each using agency of the state which shall desire any project, other than those specifically excluded by Sections 5.13 and 5.14 of this article, shall prepare and submit to the commission a general description of the project. The commission shall cause all such projects to be studied and shall initiate the preparation of a project analysis for all new construction projects and for all other projects where, in the opinion of the commission, the cost of preparing a project analysis is justified.

(b) A project analysis may be prepared by a private architect/engineer employed by the commission or, at its discretion, by the commission's staff. A private architect/engineer employed for the purpose of preparing a project analysis shall be selected by the method set forth in Section 5.22 of this article and shall be paid from the State Building Construction Planning Fund established by Section 5.24 of this article. The contract to prepare a project analysis shall specify that the analysis shall become the property of the commission.

(c) A project analysis shall consist of (1) a complete description of the facility or project together with a justification of such facility or project prepared by the using agency, (2) a detailed estimate of the amount of space needed to meet the needs of the using agency and to allow for realistic future growth, (3) a description of the proposed facility prepared by an architect/engineer and including schematic plans and outline specifications describing the type of construction and probable materials to be used, sufficient to establish the general scope and quality of construction, (4) an estimate of the probable cost of construction, (5) a description of the proposed site of the project and an estimate of the cost of site preparation, (6) an overall estimate of the cost of the project, (7) the information about historic structures considered instead of new construction that was prepared as required by Section 5.01A of this article, and (8) other information as required by the commission. A project analysis may include two or more alternative proposals for meeting the space needs of the using agency by (1) new construction, (2) acquisition and rehabilitation of an existing or historic structure, or (3) a combination of the above. All estimates involved in the preparation of a project analysis shall be carefully and fully documented and incorporated into the project analysis.

Text of (c) as amended by Act 1983, 68th Leg., p. 3414, ch. 571, § 4

(c) A project analysis shall consist of (1) a complete description of the facility or project together with a justification of such facility or project prepared by the using agency, (2) a detailed estimate of the amount of space needed to meet the needs of the using agency and to allow for realistic future growth, (3) a description of the proposed facility prepared by an architect/engineer and including schematic plans and outline specifications describing the type of construction and probable materials to be used, sufficient to establish the general scope and quality of construction, (4) an estimate of the probable cost of construction, (5) a description of the proposed site of the project and an estimate of the cost of site preparation, and (6) an overall estimate of the cost of the project. If any part of the project involves the construction or rehabilitation of a building that is to be used primarily as a parking garage or for office space for the state government, the project analysis also shall include a description of the amount and location of space in the building that can be made available for lease, under Section 4.15 of this Act, to private tenants or shall include a statement of the reason that the lease of space in the building to private tenants is not feasible. All estimates involved in the preparation of a project analysis shall be carefully and fully documented and incorporated into the project analysis.

Throughout the preparation of the project analysis, the commission and any private architect/engineer employed by the commission shall work closely and cooperatively with the using agency to the end that the project analysis shall fully reflect the needs of the using agency.

The using agency shall use the cost of the project as determined by such project analysis as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this state.

(d) In the case of projects where, in the opinion of the commission, the cost of a project analysis is not justified or required, the commission shall, in cooperation with the using agency, develop a realistic estimate of the cost of the project. When necessary, the commission shall arrange for an on-site inspection and analysis of the proposed project by a member of its staff. The using agency shall be informed of the cost estimate so developed and shall use such estimate as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this state.

(e) On or before a date to be specified by the budget agencies of this state in each year immediately preceding a regular session of the legislature, the commission shall submit to the budget agencies a report listing all projects requested pursuant to this section. The list shall contain (1) a brief and specific justification of each project as prepared by the using agency, (2) a summary of the project analysis where one was made or a statement briefly describing the cost-estimating method used for projects for which a project analysis was not made, (3) a project cost estimate developed in accordance with the provisions of this section, with sufficient detail given to afford the budget agencies, the governor, and the legislature the widest possible latitude in developing policy in regard to each such project request, (4) an estimate, prepared by the commission with the cooperation of the using agency and with the cooperation of the private architect/engineer employed, of the annual cost of maintaining the completed project including the estimated cost of utility services, and (5) an estimate, prepared by the using agency, of the annual cost of staffing and operating the completed project exclusive of maintenance cost. Where appropriate, the commission, with the approval of the using agency, may indicate the feasibility of stage construction of a requested project and may indicate the degree to which funds would be required in the next biennium if the project were undertaken in stages.

(f) Whenever any using agency shall request three or more projects, it shall designate its priority rating for each project. The budget agencies shall, with the cooperation of the commission, develop detailed instructions to implement this priority system and the commission's report shall show the designated priority of each project to which a priority rating has been assigned.

Legislative Authorizations and Appropriations

Sec. 5.17. (a) The legislature shall authorize and appropriate for such projects as it may approve. Project appropriations shall be made directly to the using agency except in those instances where the project is to be constructed by the commission in which case the appropriation shall be made to the commission.

(b) The appropriation of funds by the legislature for the construction of a project shall be construed by the commission and the using agency as an expression of legislative intent that the project be completed within the limits of the funds actually appropriated. In the event that the funds appropriated are less than the amount originally requested or if, for any reason, the funds appropriated are less than the amount required for the project as originally submitted to the budget agencies, the commission and the using agency shall jointly confer on ways and means whereby the project cost can be brought within the bounds of the funds appropriated and shall, in such conferences, make every effort to comply with legislative intent with regard to modification of the project from the original request. In the event that it is impossible to modify the project to bring the cost within the amount appropriated, the commission shall notify the using agency that it considers such project as cancelled.

When authorized by the act appropriating funds for a project, the using agency may appeal the decision of the commission to the governor by submitting a request that the project be undertaken as stage construction or that the funds available for such project be supplemented by the transfer of funds appropriated to the same using agency for other projects of equal or lower priority or from the unused contingency reserves of any project of the same using agency. The governor shall, after obtaining the advice of the Legislative Budget Board, rule on such request and if the ruling shall favor the agency, the commission shall proceed with the project.

(c) The legislature may, by specific provision, provide for stage construction of a project and in such event the commission shall proceed with the project through the specifically authorized stage.

Fine Arts Projects

Sec. 5.18. (a) Any using agency which requests a project analysis by the commission, if the cost of the project is estimated to exceed $250,000, may stipulate that a percentage of the original project cost estimate not to exceed one percent shall be used for fine arts projects at or near the site of the building construction project, such as murals, fountains, mosaics, and other aesthetic improvements.

(b) If the expenditures for fine arts are authorized and appropriated by the legislature, the commission shall consult and cooperate with the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities for advice in determining how to utilize the portion of the appropriation to be used for fine arts projects.

(c) It is the intent of the legislature that emphasis be placed on works by living Texas artists whenever feasible. Consideration shall be given to artists of all ethnic origins.

(d) Nothing in this section is intended to limit, restrict, or otherwise prohibit the commission from including expenditures for fine arts in its original project cost estimate.

Fine Arts Projects Exempt Agencies

Sec. 5.19. (a) Any using agency exempt under Section 5.13 of this article and any county, city, or other political subdivision of this state undertaking a public construction project estimated to cost in excess of $250,000 may designate that a percentage not to exceed one percent of the cost of a public construction project shall be used for fine arts projects at or near the site of the construction project.

(b) The agency or the governing body of a political subdivision may consult and cooperate with the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities for advice in determining how to utilize the portion of the cost set aside for fine arts purposes.

(c) The Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities shall place emphasis on works by living Texas artists whenever feasible, and when consulting with the governing body of a political subdivision, shall place emphasis on works by artists who reside in or near the political subdivision. Consideration shall be given to artists of all ethnic origins.

Preliminary Plans, Working Plans; Specifications

Sec. 5.20. (a) Preliminary plans and outline specifications and working plans and specifications for all projects shall be prepared either by a private architect/engineer selected and appointed by the commission in accordance with Section 5.22 of this article, or by the professional staff of the commission, provided, however, that a private architect/engineer shall be appointed for any new construction project estimated to cost in excess of $100,000 and for any new construction project for which the using agency requests that a private architect/engineer be selected and appointed. In either case, plans and specifications shall be approved by the commission, and shall not be accepted or used by the using agency without such approval. The commission shall see that plans and specifications (1) are clear and complete; (2) permit execution of the project with appropriate economy and efficiency; and (3) conform with the requirements set forth in the project analysis previously prepared.

(b) The commission shall appoint a design advisory panel to advise the commission and the using agency on the design concept and aesthetic merits of plans submitted by an architect/engineer, provided, however, that the final decision on such matters shall rest with the commission. The design advisory panel shall consist of five persons, two of whom shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Architects, two of whom (one a structural engineer and the other a mechanical-electrical engineer) shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, and one of whom shall be neither an architect nor an engineer and who shall serve as chairman of the panel. Members of the panel shall serve for two years and shall be eligible for reappointment and the commission shall promulgate regulations to provide for an orderly rotation of membership which may specify a shorter term of office for the original appointees. The members of the panel shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses out of the appropriations to the commission. No member of the panel shall, during the period of his service, advise on any project in which he is employed, retained, or in any manner financially interested. The panel shall have no responsibility for reviewing the plans and specifications other than to the extent set forth in this subsection.

(c) Following final approval of the working plans and specifications and their acceptance by the using agency, the commission shall cause to be advertised in not less than two newspapers of general circulation for bids or proposals for performance of the construction and related work on the project. Subject to the applicable provisions of other law respecting the award of state contracts, the contract or contracts shall be awarded to the qualified bidder making the lowest and best bid; but no contract shall be awarded for a sum in excess of the amount which the comptroller shall certify to be available for such project. The commission shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

(d) Before a contract is awarded for the major repair or renovation of a state structure which has been designated by the Texas Historical Commission as a Recorded Texas Historic Landmark, the commission shall forward to the Texas Historical Commission a copy of the bids received and an evaluation of the qualifications of the bidders. The Texas Historical Commission shall review the bids and qualifications of the bidders and recommend to the commission the bidder to which the award should be made. Based on the recommendation of the Texas Historical Commission, the commission may award the contract to a bidder other than the lowest bidder.

(e) Upon notice and on itemized statements by the commission:

(1) the comptroller shall transfer from each project appropriation to the State Building Construction Planning Fund created by Section 5.24 of this article an amount certified by the commission as sufficient to reimburse the planning fund for prior expenditures on behalf of the project; and

(2) the comptroller shall reserve from each project appropriation an amount estimated by the commission to be sufficient to cover contingencies over and above all amounts obligated by contract or otherwise, for planning, engineering, and architectural work, site acquisition and development, and construction, equipment, and furnishings contracts. The amount so reserved shall be used only upon the following conditions:

(A) that the architect/engineer or the contractor recommend and justify the proposed contingency expenditures by submitting a change order request;

(B) that the proposed change order request be approved by the architect/engineer;

(C) that the proposed change order request be approved by the using agency which shall make formal request for the allocation of funds from the contingency reserve; and

(D) that the director of planning and construction shall investigate the nature of the change order and concur in the necessity of the proposed expenditure or refuse same within 15 days after receiving the request.

In the event the director shall refuse to concur in a proposed contingency expenditure, the using agency may appeal to the commission and the findings of the commission shall be final. The commission shall promulgate regulations setting forth the procedures for such appeals.

If an approved change order shall result in a reduction of construction cost, the contingency reserve shall be increased by the amount of such reduction.

(f) The comptroller of public accounts shall issue warrants in payment of progress payments as well as final payments on construction under this article upon the written approval of the commission.

(g) Any equipment and furnishings not constructed or installed under the construction contract or contracts shall be acquired through regular purchasing channels of the state.

Project Construction Inspection

Sec. 5.21. The commission shall be responsible for protecting the interests of the state during the actual construction of each project covered by the provisions of this article. Construction inspection shall fall into three categories: detailed inspection, general inspection, and professional inspection, as defined and provided for in this section.

(1) Detailed inspection shall mean the close, technical, on-site examination of the materials, structure, and equipment, and surveillance of the workmanship and methods used to insure reasonably that the project is accomplished in compliance with information given by the contract documents and good construction practices by one or more full-time personnel at the project site. The commission shall be the sole judge of when detailed inspection is required and shall base its decision on the size and complexity of the project.

The full cost of detailed inspection shall be a charge against the project.

Detailed inspection shall be exercised by a project construction inspector who shall be appointed by the architect/engineer with the approval of the commission.

The project construction inspector shall:

(A) become thoroughly conversant with the drawings, specifications, details, and general conditions for executing the work;

(B) keep such records of the work as the architect/engineer and the commission may specify and require and make such reports to the architect/engineer with copies to the commission and the using agency as the architect/engineer and the commission may specify and require and maintain copies of these records and reports at the site of construction together with the plans, specifications, shop drawings, change orders, and correspondence dealing with the project;

(C) endeavor to see that the requirements of the contract documents are being carried out by the contractor;

(D) endeavor to see that all authorized changes are properly incorporated in the work and that no changes are made unless properly authorized;

(E) notify the architect/engineer if conditions encountered at the project are at variance with the contract documents and comply with the directives of the architect/engineer in endeavoring to correct these conditions;

(F) review shop drawings in relation to their adaptability to job conditions and advise the architect/engineer in respect thereto;

(G) endeavor to see that materials and equipment furnished are in accordance with the specifications;

(H) see that records are kept, on construction plans, of the principal elements of mechanical and electrical systems;

(I) see that accurate records are kept of all underground utility installations (including existing installations uncovered in the process of construction) at the project site so that the information may be recorded on site plans or drawings which may be established and maintained by the commission and/or the using agency;

(J) keep a daily written log of all significant happenings on the job, the log to include the number of workers that worked that particular day and weather conditions that existed during the day;

(K) observe and give prompt written notice to the construction contractor's representative and the architect/engineer of any noncompliance on the part of the contractor's representative with any contract documents and notify the architect/engineer and the commission of any failure to take corrective measures promptly;

(L) initiate, attend, and participate in progress meetings and inspections with the contractor;

(M) review every contractor's invoice against the value of partially completed or completed work and the materials stored at the project site prior to its being forwarded to the architect/engineer and promptly notify the architect/engineer of any discrepancy between his review of the work and the invoice; and

(N) be responsible to the architect/engineer for the proper administration of the duties enumerated herein and comply with other instructions and assignments of the architect/engineer.

(2) General inspection shall mean the examination and inspection of the project at periodic intervals by employees of the commission. On projects where a project construction inspector is employed by an architect/engineer, the general inspector shall work with and through the project construction inspector and the architect/engineer. On all other projects, the general inspector shall work with and through the architect/engineer and shall exercise such detailed inspection functions as the commission may require. The cost of general inspection shall be a charge against the project.

(3) Professional inspection shall mean the periodic examination of all elements of the project to reasonably insure that these meet the performance and design features and the technical and functional requirements of the contract documents. Professional inspection shall be exercised by the architect/engineer or his authorized representative who shall:

(A) assist the commission in obtaining proposals from contractors and in awarding and preparing construction contracts, be responsible for the interpretation of the contract documents and any changes made thereto, and provide such interpretation of the plans and specifications as may be required during the construction phase;

(B) check and approve samples, schedules, shop drawings, and other submissions only for conformance with the design concept of the project and for compliance with the information given by contract documents;

(C) approve or disapprove all change order requests and, subject to the provisions of Section 5.20 of this article, prepare all change orders;

(D) assemble all written guarantees required of the contractors;

(E) make periodic visits to the site of the project to become generally familiar with the progress and quality of the work and to determine in general if the work is proceeding in accordance with the contract documents, the amount of time that such on-site inspections shall entail to be determined by dividing the total compensation for professional services, exclusive of payments for detailed inspection, by 100 with the result being expressed as the number of hours to be devoted to on-site inspections, project conferences with the contractor and others, and travel to and from such inspections and conferences;

(F) make a written inspection report after each visit to the project and send a copy of such report to the contractor and to the commission;

(G) keep the commission informed of the progress of the work and endeavor to guard against defects and deficiencies in the work of contractors;

(H) determine periodically the amount owing to the contractors and recommend payment of such amounts to the commission, the recommendation to constitute a representation to the commission that, based upon observations and other pertinent data, the work has progressed to the point indicated and also to constitute a representation to the commission on the part of the architect/engineer that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quality of the work is in accordance with the plans, specifications, and contract documents; and

(I) conduct inspections to determine the dates of substantial and final completion and notify the commission and the using agency of findings in this respect.

(4) In the event that the commission requires full-time detailed inspection of the construction of a project, the architect/engineer shall select, subject to the commission's approval, the project construction inspector and shall be responsible for the proper administration of the duties enumerated under Subdivision (1) of this section. He shall pay the salary of the project construction inspector and shall be reimbursed for all such salary costs plus expenses of overhead directly applicable to such salary.

(5) Nothing in Subdivision (3) shall be construed as requiring the architect/engineer to assume responsibility for or to guarantee the complete adherence of the contractor to the plans and specifications and contract documents nor shall anything in Subdivision (3) be construed as requiring that the architect/engineer shall be liable for defects in construction.

(6) It is the responsibility of the architect/engineer to furnish the professional inspection of a project and when a private architect/engineer is employed, the fee paid such architect/engineer shall be deemed to cover professional inspection, provided, however, that such fee shall not be deemed to cover the additional cost of detailed inspection over and above the administrative duties specifically encompassed by Subdivision (4) of this section. In projects where the commission's staff serves as architect/engineer, the commission shall be responsible for professional supervision and the cost of such supervision shall be a charge against the project.

Selection of Architects/Engineers

Sec. 5.22. (a) The commission shall establish and maintain a file of all qualified private architects/engineers who express an interest in state building construction projects. The file shall contain such information as the commission shall deem essential and desirable together with brochures and exhibits submitted by each private architect/engineer. Each private architect/engineer may submit additional brochures, exhibits, and information as he may deem necessary and that may be in accordance with his ethical practice in order that his file shall be current at all times. The files shall be open to the inspection of any using agency.

(b) Responsibility for the selection of a private architect/engineer employed for any project covered by the provisions of this article shall be vested in the commission. In recognition of the close working relationship which must exist between the architect/engineer and the using agency, the commission shall request the using agency to make recommendations regarding private architects/engineers and shall consider any such recommendation in making its selection of a private architect/engineer to be employed for a particular project. The commission shall make its selection in accordance with the generally accepted standards for such selection and in conformity with the ethical standards of the professional societies of such architects/engineers.

Compensation of Architects/Engineers

Sec. 5.23. Private architects/engineers employed by the commission shall be compensated in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) the compensation for new projects and rehabilitation projects shall be established by the commission on the basis of studies of the compensation paid within the state by private clients for projects of comparable size and complexity, provided that such compensation shall not exceed the minimum recommended for similar projects by the Texas Society of Architects in instances where the private architect/engineer is an architect or the minimum recommended by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers in instances where the private architect/engineer is an engineer. The compensation established by the commission shall be deemed to cover all professional services to be rendered by the private architect/engineer including professional inspection as that term is defined in Section 5.21 of this article. On any project where the commission requires detailed inspection, as defined by Section 5.21 of this article, the compensation shall be increased by the actual cost of providing such detailed inspection;

(2) the compensation for preparation of a project analysis as required by Section 5.16 of this article shall not exceed one percent of the estimated cost of construction. In the event the project is approved by the legislature in substantially the form originally requested and the same private architect/engineer is employed for the subsequent phases of design, the compensation paid under this subdivision shall be deducted from the compensation paid under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this section; and

(3) the state shall furnish detailed information on space requirements and relationships and the justification for, use of, and general requirements to be met by the project. The state shall furnish a complete site survey and soil analysis.

Planning Fund

Sec. 5.24. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund to be known as the State Building Construction Planning Fund which shall be used to make payments for engineering, architectural, and other planning expenses necessary to make a project analysis in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.16 of this article. The commission shall authorize all payments made from the planning fund. The payments shall be a first charge against the project for which they were drawn and the amount so paid shall be credited to and transferred to the planning fund at such time as the legislature may approve the project and appropriate funds for its construction.

Final Inspection

Sec. 5.25. (a) The commission shall be responsible for directing final payment for work done on each project. If upon final inspection of any project it shall be found that the plans, specifications, contract, or change orders for the project shall not have been fully complied with, the commission shall, until such compliance shall have been effected or adjustments satisfactory to it shall have been made, refuse to direct such payment.

(b) The final inspection shall consist of an on-site inspection by the architect/engineer, a representative of the commission, a representative of the using agency, and a representative or representatives of the contractor or contractors. The final inspection shall be scheduled by the commission upon notification by the architect/engineer within 10 days after the architect/engineer has notified the commission that the contract has been performed according to the plans and specifications.

(c) Upon completion of the project the commission shall release the same to the using agency. The commission shall be responsible for making an inspection of the project prior to the expiration of the guarantee period to observe any defects which may appear within one year after completion of the contract. The commission shall give prompt written notice to the contractor of defects which are due to faulty materials and workmanship. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring the contractor to assume responsibility for or guarantee any defects other than those due to faulty materials or workmanship or failure on his part to adhere to the contract documents.

Uniform General Conditions

Sec. 5.26. (a) The commission shall adopt and maintain a uniform set of general conditions to be incorporated into all building construction contracts executed by the State of Texas, including those pertaining to projects otherwise excluded from the provisions of this article by Section 5.13 but not including those excluded by Section 5.14 of this article.

(b) The commission shall cause the uniform general conditions of state building construction contracts to be reviewed whenever in its opinion such review is desirable, but in no event less frequently than once every five years. The review shall be made by a committee appointed by the commission consisting of the director of planning and construction who shall serve ex officio as chairman of the committee and who shall vote only in the event of a tie; two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Architects; two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers; and two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the Chairman of the Executive Council of the Texas Associated General Contractors Chapters; and two persons appointed by the commission from the list of nominees submitted to it by the Executive Secretary of the Mechanical Contractors Associations of Texas, Incorporated. Members of any review committee appointed pursuant to this subsection shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses.

Energy Conservation Standards

Sec. 5.27. (a) In addition to the uniform set of general conditions provided for in Section 5.26 of this article, the commission shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards that all new state buildings, including buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, are required to meet. These standards shall include both performance and procedural standards for maximum energy conservation allowed by the latest and most effective technology consistent with the requirements of public health and safety regulations and economic considerations.

(b) The standards shall be promulgated in terms of energy consumption allotments and shall take into consideration the various classes of building uses. Performance standards shall allow for design flexibility since only the total allotment of energy is prescribed.

(c) Procedural standards shall be directed toward specific design and building practices that produce good thermal resistance and low air leakage and toward requiring practices in the design of mechanical and electrical systems which conserve energy. The procedural standards shall address, when applicable, the following items:

- (1) insulation;
- (2) lighting, according to the lighting necessary for the tasks for which each area is intended to be used;
- (3) ventilation;

(4) the potential use of new systems for saving energy in ventilation, climate control, and other areas; and

(5) any other item which the commission deems appropriate.

Energy Conservation Standards by Other Entities

Sec. 5.28. (a) The boards of regents and boards or governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions exempted by Section 5.13 of this article shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards as provided in Section 5.27 of this article for all new buildings under their authority. The standards shall be consistent with those promulgated by the commission for other state buildings and be prepared in cooperation and consultation with the commission and the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

(b) The commission shall assist the boards and governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section with the preparation of energy conservation standards by providing technical assistance and advice.

Model Energy Conservation Codes

Sec. 5.29. The commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and the Texas Department of Community Affairs, shall prepare model energy conservation building codes and make them available for use by cities in enacting or amending their ordinances.

Energy Conservation Manual

Sec. 5.30. (a) The commission shall produce and publish an energy conservation manual for potential use by designers, builders, and contractors of residential and nonresidential buildings. The manual shall be furnished on request at a reasonable price sufficient to cover the costs of printing and help defray research costs in establishing design standards. The manual shall contain the following:

- (1) guidelines for energy conservation established by the commission;
- (2) forms, charts, tables, and other data to assist designers and builders in meeting the guidelines;
- (3) design suggestions for meeting or exceeding the guidelines; and
- (4) any other information which the commission finds will assist persons to become familiar with the latest technologies that they might use in meeting the guidelines.

(b) The manual shall be updated periodically as significant new energy conservation information becomes available.

Compilation of Construction and Maintenance Information

Sec. 5.31. (a) For the purpose of providing the governor, the legislature, and the budget offices of the state with current information on the status of state-owned buildings, and for the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on construction costs, the commission shall biennially obtain from all using agencies a list of all state-owned buildings showing the year of completion, the general type of construction, size, usage, and general condition of each. In addition the commission shall, for all buildings completed from and after the effective date of this Act, obtain from all using agencies data showing the total cost of the project and the cost of construction together with such data as may be necessary to enable a meaningful comparison to be made on the cost of buildings of like nature.

(b) For the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on maintenance data, the commission shall obtain biennially from all using agencies information on the cost of heating, cooling, and maintaining all buildings owned by the state.

(c) The commission shall summarize its findings in a report to be made available to the governor, the legislature, and the budget offices of this state. All state agencies, departments, and institutions shall cooperate with the commission in providing the information necessary for said report.

Solar Energy Use

Sec. 5.32. (a) Any construction of a new state building included in the exceptions prescribed by Section 5.13 of this article is not exempt from this section.

(b) In this section:

(1) "Solar energy" means radiant energy from the sun that may be collected and converted into useful thermal, mechanical, or electrical energy. The term includes biomass energy that is created in living plants through photosynthesis.

(2) "Solar energy device" means a solar collector or solar storage mechanism that collects, stores, or distributes solar energy.

(3) "Solar collector" means an assembly, structure, or design, including passive elements, used to absorb, concentrate, convert, reflect, or otherwise capture or redirect solar energy for subsequent use as thermal, mechanical, or electrical energy.

(4) "Solar storage mechanism" means equipment, components, or elements designed and used to store, for subsequent use, solar energy captured by a solar collector, in the form in which the energy will eventually be used or in an intermediate form. The term includes thermal, electro-chemical, chemical, electrical, and mechanical storage mechanisms.

(c) During the planning phase of the proposed construction of a new state building, the commission or, if the construction is included in the exceptions prescribed by Section 5.13 of this article, the governing body of the appropriate agency or institution shall determine the economic feasibility of incorporating solar energy devices for space heating, cooling, water heating, and interior lighting into the building's design and proposed energy system. Economic feasibility for each function shall be determined by comparing the estimated cost of energy procurement using conventional design practices and energy systems with the estimated cost of using solar energy devices during the economic life of the proposed new building.

(d) If the use of solar energy devices for a particular function is determined to be economically feasible under Subsection (c) of this section, the commission or governing body shall include the use of solar energy devices for that function in the construction plans.

ARTICLE 6. LEASE OF SPACE FOR STATE AGENCIES

Definitions

Sec. 6.01. In this article:

(1) "Commission" means the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.

(2) "State agency" means a board, a commission, a department, an office, or other agency of the state government.

Determinations and Standards

Sec. 6.02. (a) When a state agency needs space to carry on its functions, the head of the agency or his or her designee shall submit a written request for the space to the commission.

(b) After consulting the state agency regarding the amount and type of space requested, the commission shall determine whether a need for the space exists and, if so, the specifications to be used in obtaining the space.

(c) The commission shall adopt standards regarding the uses of and the needs for space by state agencies and the types of space needed by state agencies.

Sharing Space

Sec. 6.03. The commission may consolidate the requests for space of two or more state agencies with similar needs and obtain space and allocate space so that it can be shared by the agencies.

Preference for State-owned Space

Sec. 6.04. In filling a request for space, the commission shall give a preference to available state-owned space.

Leasing Space from Other Sources

Sec. 6.05. (a) When state-owned space is not available and a state agency has verified that it has sufficient funds available to cover a lease of space, the commission may lease space for the agency from another source according to the provisions of this section and the specifications submitted by the state agency.

(b) The space may be leased from another state agency through an interagency contract or from the federal government or a political subdivision, including a county, a municipality, a school district, a water or irrigation district, a hospital district, a council of government, or a regional planning council, through a negotiated contract.

(c) The space may be leased from a private source through competitive bidding whenever possible, but the commission, with the approval of the state agency, may negotiate for the space when competition is not available.

(d) When competitive bidding is used, the commission shall take into consideration moving costs, the cost of time lost in moving, and other factors in determining the lowest and best bid.

The commission shall forward copies of all bids received to the leasing agency along with the commission's recommended award. If, after review of the bids and evaluation of all factors involved, the leasing agency determines that the bid selected by the commission is not in its opinion the lowest and best bid, it may file with the commission a written recommendation, complete with justification and full explanation of all factors considered in arriving at the recommendation, that the award be made to a bidder other than the commission's recommended bidder.

The commission shall give full consideration to the agency recommendation and if it does not agree with the agency recommendation, it shall notify the agency in writing. The agency and the commission shall attempt to reach an agreement on the award.

If agreement is not reached within 30 days, all bids and pertinent documents shall be transmitted to the governor who shall designate the bidder to which the award shall be made.

(e) In any contract entered into by the commission for the lease of space under this article, the State of Texas, acting through the commission, is the lessee.

(f) The provisions of the lease contract shall reflect the provisions contained in the invitation for bids, the successful bid, and the award of the contract.

(g) The lease contract may provide for an original term not to exceed 10 years and may include options to renew for as many terms, not to exceed 10 years each, that the commission considers to be in the state's best interest, and when the contract contains no option to renew, the lease may be renewed once according to the same provisions that were in the original contract for a term not to exceed one year, on agreement of the parties.

(h) A lease contract is contingent on the availability of funds appropriated by the legislature to cover the provisions of the lease.

(i) The obligation of the lessor to provide lease space and of the commission to accept the space becomes binding on the award of the contract.

(j) In leasing space for the use of state agencies, the commission shall give first consideration to a building that is a historic structure under Section 8, Chapter 500, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended (Article 6145, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or to a building that has been designated a landmark by the local governing authority, if the building meets requirements and specifications and the cost is not substantially higher than other available structures that meet requirements and specifications. Upon consideration of the leasing of space for the use of a state agency, the commission shall notify all individuals and organizations that are within the county where the leasing is under consideration and that are on a list furnished to the commission by the Texas Historical Commission as required by Section 8C of Chapter 500, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 6145, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). At the end of a biennium, the commission shall report to the legislature the commission's reasons for rejecting during the biennium the lease of any historic structure whose owner bid to lease space to the state.

Elimination of Barriers to Handicapped Persons in State Buildings

Sec. 6.06. The commission may not enter a lease contract under this article unless it complies with the provisions of Article 7 of this Act.

Remedial Action Against Lessor

Sec. 6.07. When a state agency occupies lease space and is aware of circumstances concerning the space which require remedial action against the lessor, the agency shall notify the commission, and the commission may investigate the circumstances and the lessor's performance under the contract. When the commission requests the assistance of the attorney general in protecting the state's interest under a lease contract, the attorney general shall assist the commission.

Certification of Funds

Sec. 6.08. At least 60 days before the beginning of each fiscal biennium during the term of a lease contract entered into under this article, the state agency occupying the leased space shall certify to the commission that funds are available to cover the lease.

Option to Purchase

Sec. 6.09. When the commission considers it advisable, the commission may lease space for a state agency by a contract which contains an option for the commission to purchase the space subject to the legislature's appropriation of funds for the purchase. A lease contract containing the option shall show the amount that will be accumulated by the commission and credited toward the purchase at various periods during the term of the lease and the purchase price of the property at the beginning of each fiscal biennium during the term of the lease.

Records

Sec. 6.10. In order to efficiently maintain a space management system, the commission shall maintain records of the amount and cost of space under lease by the commission and may collect other information that it considers necessary. All state agencies shall cooperate with the commission in securing this information.

Exemptions

Sec. 6.11. The provisions of this article do not apply to the acquisition of district office space for members of either house of the legislature or space to be used by the Texas Employment Commission.

Rules

Sec. 6.12. The commission shall promulgate rules necessary to administer its functions under this article.

ARTICLE 7. ARCHITECTURAL BARRIERS

Policy

Sec. 7.01. The provisions of this article are to further the policy of the State of Texas to encourage and promote the rehabilitation of handicapped or disabled citizens and to eliminate, insofar as possible, unnecessary barriers encountered by aged, handicapped, or disabled persons, whose ability to engage in gainful occupations or to achieve maximum personal independence is needlessly restricted when such persons cannot readily use public buildings.

Application

Sec. 7.02. (a) The standards and specifications adopted under this article shall apply to all buildings and facilities used by the public which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the state's power of regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings and facilities constructed in this state through partial or total use of federal funds. All buildings and facilities constructed in this state, or substantially renovated, modified, or altered, after the effective date of this article from any one of these funds or any combination thereof shall conform to each of the standards and specifications adopted under this article except where the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned shall determine, after taking all circumstances into consideration, that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impracticable. Where it is determined that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practicable, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(b) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in those buildings and facilities under construction on the effective date of this article, unless the authority responsible for the construction shall determine that the construction has reached a state where compliance is impractical. This article shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

(c) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in all buildings leased or rented in whole or in part for use by the state under any lease or rental agreement entered into on or after January 1, 1972. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the power of the state's regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings or facilities leased or rented for use by the state through partial or total use of federal funds. Facilities which are the subject of lease or rental agreements on January 1, 1972, will not be required to meet standards and specifications for the term of the existing lease or rental agreement but must be brought into compliance before a lease or rental agreement is renewed. Where it is determined by the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned that full compliance with any particular standard is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practical, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (e) of this section, these standards and specifications shall be adhered to in certain privately financed buildings, building elements, and improved areas which are open to public use for education, employment, transportation, or acquisition of goods and services, and which are constructed on or after January 1, 1978, in counties with a population of 45,000 or more. Such facilities include the following:

(1) shopping centers which contain in excess of five separate mercantile establishments; compliance with accessibility standards and specifications relative to toilet rooms shall not apply unless the shopping center elects to have public toilet rooms;

- (2) passenger transportation terminals;
- (3) theaters and auditoriums having a seating capacity for 200 or more patrons;
- (4) hospitals and related medical facilities which provide direct medical service to patients;
- (5) nursing homes and convalescent centers;
- (6) buildings containing an aggregate total of 20,000 or more square feet of recognizable office floor space;
- (7) funeral homes; and
- (8) commercial business and trade schools.

(e) The commission shall have the authority to waive or modify accessibility standards and specifications when application of such standards and specifications is considered by the commission to be irrelevant to the nature, use, or function of a building or facility covered by this article. The commission shall not waive or modify any standard or specification when such action would result in a significant impairment of the acquisition of goods and services by handicapped persons or substantially reduce the potential for employment of handicapped persons. All evidence supporting waiver or modification determinations made by the commission shall be made a matter of record and become part of the file system maintained by the commission.

Scope

Sec. 7.03. (a) This article is concerned with nonambulatory disabilities, semiambulatory disabilities, sight disabilities, hearing disabilities, disabilities of coordination, and aging.

(b) It is intended to make all buildings and facilities covered by this article accessible to, and functional for, the physically handicapped to, through, and within their doors, without loss of function, space, or facilities where the general public is concerned.

Definitions

Sec. 7.04. For the purpose of this article the following terms have the meanings as herein set forth:

- (1) "Nonambulatory disabilities" means impairments that, regardless of cause or manifestation, for all practical purposes, confine individuals to wheelchairs.
- (2) "Semiambulatory disabilities" means impairments that cause individuals to walk with difficulty or insecurity. Individuals using braces or crutches, amputees, arthritics, spastics, and those with pulmonary and cardiac ills may be semiambulatory. The listing here made is illustrative and shall not be construed as being exhaustive.
- (3) "Sight disabilities" means total blindness or impairments affecting sight to the extent that the individual functioning in public areas is insecure or exposed to danger.

(4) "Hearing disabilities" means deafness or hearing handicaps that might make an individual insecure in a public area because he is unable to communicate or hear warning signals.

(5) "Disabilities of coordination" means faulty coordination or palsy from brain, spinal, or peripheral nerve injury.

(6) "Aging" means those manifestations of the aging processes that significantly reduce mobility, flexibility, coordination, and perceptiveness but are not accounted for in the aforementioned categories.

Responsibilities for Enforcement

Sec. 7.05. (a) The responsibility for administration and enforcement of this article shall reside primarily in the commission, but the commission shall have the assistance of appropriate state rehabilitation agencies in carrying out its responsibilities under this article. State agencies involved in extending direct services to disabled or handicapped persons are authorized to enter into interagency contracts with the commission to provide such additional funding as might be required to insure that service objectives and responsibilities of such agencies are achieved through the administration of this article. In enforcing this article the commission shall also receive the assistance of all appropriate elective or appointive state officials. The commission shall from time to time inform professional organizations and others of this law and its application.

(b) The commission shall have all necessary powers to require compliance with its rules and regulations and modifications thereof and substitutions therefor, including powers to institute and prosecute proceedings in the district court to compel such compliance, and shall not be required to pay any entry or filing fee in connection with the institution of such proceedings. The commission or a handicapped person who seeks injunctive relief to obtain compliance with the rules and regulations shall first notify a person responsible for the building and allow that person 90 days to bring the building into compliance. The commission shall have the authority to extend the 90-day period when circumstances justify such extension.

(c) The commission is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as might reasonably be required to implement and enforce this article. The standards and specifications to be adopted by the commission under this article shall be consistent in effect to those adopted by the American National Standards Institute, Inc. (or its federally recognized successor in function), and the commission shall publish the standards and specifications in a readily accessible form for the use of interested parties.

(d) All plans and specifications for construction of buildings subject to the provisions of this article shall be submitted to the commission for review and approval prior to bidding and award of contract in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the commission. Likewise, any substantial modification of approved plans shall be resubmitted to the commission for review and approval.

(e) The commission may review plans and specifications, make inspections, and issue certifications that structures not otherwise covered by this article are free of architectural barriers and in compliance with the provisions of this article. The commission is authorized to charge a fee, not to exceed $100, for review of plans and specifications, inspection, and certification of each privately owned building or facility.

(f) With respect to buildings and facilities that are under the jurisdiction and control of The University of Texas Board of Regents, the responsibility for administration and enforcement of this article shall reside in such governing board, and in the discharge of such responsibility the governing board shall have the same responsibilities, duties, powers, and authority that are herein imposed on and delegated to the commission with respect to all other buildings and facilities covered by this article.

ARTICLE 8. PROPERTY ACCOUNTING

Property Accounting System

Sec. 8.01. (a) All real and personal property belonging to the state shall be accounted for by the head of the agency which has possession of the property.

(b) The commission shall administer the property accounting system. The state auditor shall administer the property responsibility system. The commission shall issue rules and regulations and a manual of instruction and prescribe such records, reports, and forms necessary to accomplish the objects of this article subject to the approval of the state auditor. The state auditor is directed to cooperate with the commission in the exercise of the commission's rulemaking powers herein granted by giving technical assistance and advice.

(c) The commission shall maintain a complete and accurate set of centralized records of state property. Where the commission finds that an agency has demonstrated its ability and competence to maintain complete and accurate detailed records of the property it possesses without the detailed supervision by the commission, it may direct that the detailed records be kept at the principal office of such agency. Where the commission issues such order, it shall keep only summary records of the property of such agency and the agency shall keep such detailed records as the commission directs and furnish the commission with such reports at such times as directed by the commission.

(d) Each agency head shall cause each item of state property possessed by his agency to be marked so as to identify it. The agency head shall follow the instructions issued by the commission in marking state property.

Responsibility for Property Accounting

Sec. 8.02. (a) All state agencies shall comply with the provisions of this article and keep the property records required.

(b) All real property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency which possesses the property. Except as herein provided, each agency shall maintain a record of each item of real property it possesses that shall include the following information, to be furnished upon request to the commission as part of the agency's annual inventory under Section 8.03(f) of this Act:

(1) a description of each item of property by reference to a volume number, and page or image number or numbers of the official public records of real property in a particular county, or where not applicable, by a legal description;

(2) the date of purchase of the property, where applicable;

(3) the purchase price of the property, where applicable;

(4) the name of the agency holding title to the property for the state; and

(5) a description of the uses of the property.

However, where the description of real property required by this subsection would be excessively voluminous, as in the case of highway right-of-way or park land, the commission may direct the agency in possession of that real property to furnish such description only in summary form, as agreed to by the commission and the agency involved. In addition, the real property administered by the General Land Office shall be accounted for by that office and not by the system prescribed herein, and the real property administered by the permanent funds established by the legislature and people shall be accounted for by the agency now charged with its administration and not by the system prescribed herein. Neither the General Land Office nor the agency charged with administration of the permanent funds may be required to furnish the commission with the records described in this subsection.

(c) All personal property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency that possesses the property. The commission shall by regulation define what is meant by personal property for the purposes of this article, but such definition shall not include nonconsumable personal property having a value of $250 or less per unit. In promulgating such regulations, the commission shall take into account the value of the property, its expected useful life, and if the cost of record keeping bears a reasonable relationship to the cost of the property on which records are kept. The commission shall consult with the state auditor in making such regulations and the auditor shall cooperate with the commission in the exercise of this rulemaking power by giving technical assistance and advice.

(d) All equipment and supplies which are purchased through a program, contract, or grant with the Texas Department of Health by or for qualified entities, including but not limited to individuals, corporations, local units of government and other state agencies and which are used to promote and maintain public health are exempt from the property accounting system prescribed by this article. The qualified entities shall maintain complete equipment and supply records. The Texas Department of Health may request the return of any usable equipment or supplies purchased with funds provided by the department upon the termination of the program, contract, or grant.

(e) As part of the state agency's annual inventory under Subsection (f) of Section 8.03 of this Act, each agency shall furnish to the commission information listing the identification and age of buildings that were acquired by the agency since the preceding annual inventory that are at least 45 years old on the date of the inventory or that are possessed by the agency and have become 45 years old since the preceding annual inventory and shall furnish a photograph of each of those buildings. The commission shall give this information and the photographs to the Antiquities Committee.

Property Manager; Property Inventory

Sec. 8.03. (a) Each agency head is responsible for the proper custody, care, maintenance, and safekeeping of the state property possessed by his agency.

(b) Each agency head shall designate either himself or one of his employees as property manager. The commission shall be informed in writing by the agency head of the name of the property manager and shall be informed of any changes. Where the commission finds that convenience and efficiency will be served, it may permit more than one property manager to be appointed by the agency head.

(c) The property manager shall maintain the required records on all property possessed by the agency and shall be the custodian of all such property.

(d) No person shall entrust state property to any state official or employee or to anyone else to be used for other than state purposes.

(e) When an agency's property is entrusted to some person other than the property manager, the property manager shall require a written receipt for such property executed by the person receiving custody of the property. When the possession of property of one agency is entrusted to another agency on loan, such transfer shall be done only when authorized in writing by the agency head who is lending such property and the written receipt shall be executed by the agency head who is borrowing such property. The property manager is relieved of the responsibility for property which is the subject of such a receipt.

(f) Each agency shall make a complete physical inventory of all property in its possession once a year. The inventory shall be taken on the date prescribed for the agency by the commission.

(g) The agency head shall forward a signed statement describing the method by which the inventory was verified, along with a copy of such inventory, within 45 days after the inventory date for the agency.

(h) The commission shall supervise the property records of each agency so that the records accurately reflect the property currently possessed by the agency. The commission shall prescribe the methods whereby items of property are deleted from the property records of the agency. Property that has become surplus or obsolete and no longer serviceable and has been turned over to the commission for disposal under the laws relating thereto shall be deleted from the records of that agency upon the authorization of the commission. Property that is missing from the agency or property that is disposed of directly by the agency in a legal manner shall be deleted from the commission's records upon the authorization of the state auditor.

Change of Property Managers

Sec. 8.04. When there is a change in agency heads or property managers, the incoming agency head or property manager shall execute a receipt for all agency property accounted for to the outgoing agency head or property manager. A copy of such receipt shall be delivered to the commission, the state auditor, and the outgoing agency head or property manager. No further warrants in favor of the outgoing agency head or property manager shall be drawn or paid until the state auditor has certified that the agency property has been properly accounted for. The state auditor may make this certification without requiring that a physical inventory be taken.

Liability for Property Loss

Sec. 8.05. Where agency property disappears, whether through theft or other cause, as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care for its safekeeping, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. Where agency property deteriorates as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care to maintain and service the property, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. Where agency property is damaged or destroyed as a result of an intentional wrongful act or of a negligent act of any state official or employee, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. The liability prescribed by this section may be found to attach to more than one person in a particular instance; in such cases, the liability shall be joint and several.

Reporting to State Auditor

Sec. 8.06. When any state property has been lost, destroyed, or damaged through the negligence or fault of any state official or employee, the agency head responsible for such property shall immediately report such loss, destruction, or damage to the state auditor. Upon learning in any manner of such property loss, destruction, or damage, the state auditor shall investigate the matter. If the investigation discloses that an injury has been sustained by the state through the fault of a state official or employee, the state auditor shall make written demand upon such state official or employee for reimbursement to the state for the loss so sustained.

Legal Action to Recover Monetary Loss of Property

Sec. 8.07. In case the demand made by the state auditor for reimbursement for property loss, destruction, or damage is refused or disregarded by the state official or employee upon whom such demand is made, the state auditor shall report the facts to the attorney general. If, after an investigation of the facts, the attorney general finds that legal liability may be adjudged against the state official or employee, he shall take such legal action to recover the monetary loss of the state property occasioned by the loss, damage, or destruction as in his opinion may be deemed necessary. Venue for all such suits instituted against a state official or employee shall lie in the courts of appropriate jurisdiction of Travis County.

Failure to Keep Records

Sec. 8.08. When any agency fails to keep the records required under the provisions of this article or fails to take the annual physical inventory, the commission shall so inform the comptroller and the comptroller may refuse to draw any warrants on behalf of such agency.

Transfer of Personal Property

Sec. 8.09. (a) Any state agency is authorized to transfer any personal property of the state under its control or jurisdiction to any other state agency with or without reimbursement between the agencies; provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any real property.

(b) When any personal property under the control or jurisdiction of one state agency is transferred to the control or jurisdiction of any other state agency, such transfers shall be immediately and simultaneously reported to the commission by the transferor and the transferee on forms prescribed by the commission, and it shall adjust the inventory records of the agencies involved in making the transfer. Whenever any transfer is made with reimbursement from funds deposited in the state treasury, the transferee shall issue a voucher payable to the transferor, and the comptroller of public accounts shall issue warrants for reimbursement.

Distribution of This Article

Sec. 8.10. Each agency head shall distribute a copy of this article to each official and employee of his agency and shall give a copy to each new employee of the agency.

ARTICLE 9. SURPLUS AND SALVAGE PROPERTY

Definitions

Sec. 9.01. As used in this article:

(1) "Comptroller" means the comptroller of public accounts.

(2) "Auditor" means the state auditor.

(3) "Property" means personal property, and does not mean real property, or any interest in real property. Personal property affixed to real property may be sold under this law if its removal and disposition is to carry out a lawful objective under this law or any other law.

(4) "Surplus property" means any personal property which is in excess of the needs of any state agency and which is not required for its foreseeable needs. Surplus property may be used or new but possesses some usefulness for the purpose for which it was intended or for some other purpose.

(5) "Salvage property" means any personal property which through use, time, or accident is so depleted, worn out, damaged, used, or consumed that it has no value for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

(6) "Political subdivision" means a county, municipality, school district, or junior college district.

Establishment of Procedures

Sec. 9.02. The commission shall establish and maintain procedures for the transfer, sale, or disposal of surplus and salvage property no longer needed by state agencies.

Mailing Lists of Political Subdivisions

Sec. 9.03. The commission shall maintain a mailing list, renewable annually, of political subdivision purchasing agents or other officers performing similar functions who have asked for information on surplus or salvage equipment or material the state may have available.

Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.04. (a) All state agencies that determine they have surplus or salvage property shall inform the commission of the kind, number, location, condition, original cost or value, and date of acquisition of the property.

(b) When a state agency reports to the commission that it has surplus or salvage equipment or material, the commission shall inform other state agencies and political subdivisions of the existence, kind, number, location, and condition of the equipment or material.

(c) When notified of surplus or salvage property, a state agency may negotiate directly with the reporting state agency for an interagency transfer of the property at a mutually agreed upon value. If a transfer is made, the participating agencies shall report the transaction to the comptroller and the commission. The comptroller shall debit and credit the proper appropriations and the commission shall adjust the state inventory records if inventoried property is transferred.

(d) A political subdivision shall notify the commission within 30 days from the date of the notice if it desires to negotiate for surplus or salvage equipment or material.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice, and if the commission determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the commission may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvaged equipment or material to any political subdivision which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(f) The commission shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one political subdivision expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage equipment or material. The commission may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage equipment and material to political subdivisions.

(g) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice and no political subdivision has expressed a desire to negotiate, or if one or more political subdivisions has expressed a desire to negotiate but is unable to negotiate a sale or transfer of the equipment or material within 40 days from the date of the notice, the commission may offer the equipment or material to the organization known as the Texas Partners of the Alliance, a registered agency with the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid with the approval of the Partners of the Alliance office of the Agency for International Development. The equipment or material shall be offered at its fair market value as determined by mutual agreement between the commission and the Texas Partners of the Alliance.

(h) If the Texas Partners of the Alliance do not accept the offer within 60 days, or if the commission and the Texas Partners of the Alliance cannot agree on the fair market value of the equipment or material, the commission shall sell or dispose of the equipment or material as otherwise provided by this article.

Alternative Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.05. (a) If surplus or salvage property is not disposed of under the provisions of Section 9.04 of this article, the commission shall sell the property by competitive bid or auction or delegate to the state agency having possession of the property the authority to sell the property on a competitive bid basis.

(b) If the value of any property or lot of property to be sold is estimated to be over $1,000, the sale shall be advertised at least one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity where the property is located by the commission or the state agency delegated authority to sell the property.

(c) When the commission sells any surplus or salvage property it shall report the item sold and the sale price to the agency that declared such property as surplus or salvage.

(d) All agencies for whom surplus or salvage property is sold or who sell surplus or salvage property under authorization of the commission shall report the sale together with the prices realized to the comptroller; and if the property is on the state inventory the commission shall remove it from the inventory.

(e) The proceeds from the sale of any surplus or salvage property less the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited to the credit of the item of appropriation to the agency for whom the sale was made. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of any surplus or salvage property equal to the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the item of appropriation to the commission from which such cost was expended.

Destruction of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.06. If the commission cannot sell or dispose of any property reported to it as surplus or salvage it may order the property destroyed as worthless salvage and report the destruction to the declaring agency. The destruction of salvage shall authorize the commission to remove reported property from the state inventory if on the state inventory. Authorization by the commission to delete salvage items not its own from the state inventory shall not be required. It is not the intention of this section to alter, enlarge, or amend the law providing for the deletion from inventory upon the authorization of the auditor of property that is missing from any agency.

Maximum Return from Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.07. The commission shall at all times try to realize the maximum return to the state in the sale and disposal of surplus and salvage property. It shall maintain a list of prospective buyers of surplus and salvage property and it may in all cases reject any or all offers if it finds rejection to be in the best interests of the state. It shall cooperate with all state agencies in a continuing program of surplus and salvage property evaluation to minimize losses from accumulations and it shall cooperate at all times with the auditor in surplus and salvage property analysis.

Obtaining Good Title to Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.08. Any purchaser of surplus or salvage property at a sale made by the commission or by any agency under authorization of the commission shall obtain good title to any property purchased if the purchaser has in good faith complied with the conditions of the sale and the applicable rules and regulations of the commission.

Rules, Reports, Forms

Sec. 9.09. The commission is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations and prescribe reports and forms necessary to accomplish the purposes of this article subject to the approval of the state auditor.

Disposition of Property by Legislature

Sec. 9.10. The provisions of this article do not apply to the disposition of surplus property by either house of the legislature pursuant to a system of disposition provided for in the rules and regulations of the administration committee of each house. If surplus property of either house is sold, proceeds of the sale shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the expense fund of that house.

Purchase of Legislative Chairs

Sec. 9.11. A legislator may purchase the executive chair used by the legislator on the floor of the legislature if:

- (1) the legislator has not been reelected; and
- (2) the legislator pays into the state treasury the commission's estimate of the fair market value of replacement equipment.

This section does not limit a legislator's right to purchase state-owned equipment in any other manner.

Property Used as Trade-in

Sec. 9.12. A state agency may offer surplus or salvage property as a trade-in on new property of the same general type when such exchange is in the best interests of the state.

Exemption

Sec. 9.13. For purposes of this article the terms "surplus" and "salvage" shall not apply to products and by-products of research, forestry, agricultural, livestock, and industrial enterprises in excess of that quantity required for consumption by the producing agency when such agencies have a continuing and adequate system of marketing research and sales, the efficiency of which shall be certified to the commission by the state auditor. A qualifying agency shall furnish the commission with a copy of the rules and regulations and latest revisions thereof promulgated by the policy-making body of each agency or institution for the guidance and administration of the programs enumerated herein. When requested by such agency or institution to do so, the commission shall dispose of the property as provided for in this article.

Authorization of Agencies to Dispose of Property

Sec. 9.14. The commission may authorize an agency to dispose of surplus or salvage property where the agency demonstrates to the commission its ability to make such disposition under the rules and regulations set up by the commission, as provided for herein. State eleemosynary institutions and institutions and agencies of higher learning shall be excepted from the terms of this article.

Disposition of Wastepaper

Sec. 9.15. The commission shall establish and maintain in each public building under its control facilities for collecting separately from all other wastes all the wastepaper disposed of in that building. The commission shall sell the wastepaper for recycling purposes to the highest bidder.

ARTICLE 10. TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

Definitions

Sec. 10.01. In this article:

(1) "Telecommunications services" means intercity communications facilities or services, provided that any dedicated circuits included as part of the consolidated system are considered to begin and end at the main connecting frame. "Telecommunications services" does not include single agency point-to-point radio systems or facilities or services of criminal justice information communication systems.

(2) "Consolidated telecommunications systems" means the network of telecommunications services serving the government of the State of Texas.

(3) Repealed by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 4366, ch. 700, art. IV, § 4, eff. Aug. 29, 1983.

System of Telecommunications Services

Sec. 10.02. (a) The commission shall plan, establish, and manage the operation of a system of telecommunications services for all state agencies. Each agency shall identify its particular telecommunications services requirements and the site at which the service shall be provided.

(b) The commission shall fulfill the telecommunications requirements of each state agency to the extent possible and to the extent that funds are appropriated or available for this purpose.

(c) The commission may negotiate rates and execute contracts with telecommunications service utilities for services, lease transmission facilities on a competitive bid basis if possible, and develop, establish, and maintain carrier systems necessary to the operation of the telecommunications system. The commission may own or lease any facilities or equipment necessary to provide telecommunications services.

(d) All contracts with telecommunications carriers shall contain the provision that the commission or any participating agency may obtain any data relating to the costs to the state of parallel tolls.

Policies and Guidelines

Sec. 10.03. (a) In order to insure efficient utilization of telecommunications systems at minimum cost to the state, the commission shall promulgate and disseminate to all agencies appropriate policies, guidelines, operating procedures, and telephone directories.

(b) Each agency shall comply with the policies, guidelines, and operating procedures promulgated. The commission, with the advice of the state auditor, shall maintain records relating to the consolidated telecommunications system as necessary to enable the commission to analyze the cost effectiveness of the system to the state agencies, and shall advise the legislature at each session as to the cost effectiveness of the system.

Balancing Technological Advancements and Existing Facilities

Sec. 10.04. In the planning, design, implementation, and operation of the telecommunications systems and facilities, the commission shall maintain an appropriate balance between the adoption of technological advancements and the efficient utilization of existing facilities and services in order to avoid misapplication of state funds and degradation or loss of the integrity of existing systems and facilities.

Sharing of Services or Facilities

Sec. 10.05. Telecommunications facilities and services, to the extent feasible and desirable, shall be provided on an integrated or shared basis, or both, to avoid waste of state funds and manpower.

Payment for Services

Sec. 10.06. (a) The commission shall develop a system of billings and charges for services provided in operating and administering the consolidated telecommunications system, which allocates the total state cost to each entity serviced based on proportionate usage.

(b) The comptroller of public accounts shall establish in the state treasury a revolving account for the administration of this article. The account shall be used as a depository for funds received from entities served and as a source of funds to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire services, supplies, and equipment, and to pay salaries, wages, and other costs directly attributable to the provisions and operations of the system.

(c) In order to provide an adequate cash flow as may be necessary for purposes of this article, using state agencies and other entities, upon proper notification, shall make monthly payments into the telecommunications revolving fund account from appropriated or other available funds. The legislature may appropriate funds for the operation of the system directly to the commission. In that case the revolving fund shall be used to receive funds due from local government entities and other agencies to the extent that their funds are not subject to legislative appropriation.

Contract with Entities Other than State Agencies

Sec. 10.07. The commission may contract with each house of the legislature, legislative agencies, counties, cities, districts, and other political subdivisions and agencies not within the definition of "state agency," for utilization of the state telecommunications system.

Designated Agent

Sec. 10.08. The commission is designated as the agency of this state responsible for obtaining telecommunications services.

Centralized Capitol Complex Telephone System

Sec. 10.09. (a) The commission shall provide centralized telephone service for state agencies, each house of the legislature, and legislative agencies in the capitol complex and other state agencies which elect to subscribe to such service.

(b) Each using entity shall make monthly payments to the commission when assessed by the commission.

(c) Each using entity shall arrange for its terminal telephone equipment. The commission shall make terminal equipment available for using entities that choose to use that terminal equipment.

(d) The commission shall prepare and issue a revised centralized telephone service directory in February of each year.

Engineering and Technical Assistance

Sec. 10.10. (a) The commission may provide engineering and technical assistance to state agencies on telephone and other telecommunications matters, including customer premises equipment. If this requirement exceeds in-house capabilities, the commission may contract for the services.

(b) If the governing officer or body of an agency consents in writing to the imposition of a surcharge to pay the cost of the commission's engineering and technical assistance to the agency, the commission may impose the surcharge.

Rate Intervention

Sec. 10.11. If the commission determines that there is sufficient economic impact on state government, the commission may intervene on behalf of state agencies in telecommunications rate cases and may hire special counsel and expert witnesses to prepare and present testimony. The attorney general shall represent the commission before the courts in all appeals from rate cases in which the commission intervenes.

ARTICLE 11. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Transfer of Powers and Duties; References

Sec. 11.01. (a) All powers, duties, and functions granted or assigned to the State Board of Control by laws not repealed by this Act, other than powers, duties, and functions previously transferred to other agencies, are transferred to the commission.

(b) Any reference in the statutes to the State Board of Control means the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.

(c) Any reference in the statutes to The State Purchasing Act of 1957 means Article 3 of this Act.

Messenger Service

Sec. 11.02. (a) The commission shall operate a messenger service for handling unstamped written communications between state agencies, including the legislature and legislative agencies, located in Austin. All such agencies in the capitol complex shall utilize the service, and other state agencies shall utilize the service to the maximum extent feasible.

(b) State warrants may be delivered upon agreement between the state comptroller, the commission, and the agency concerned.

(c) United States mail may be delivered to and from the post office located in the capitol complex on agreement of the commission and the agency concerned.

Business Machine Repair

Sec. 11.03. (a) The commission shall maintain a facility for the repair of office machines and shall offer the service to state agencies, including the legislature and legislative agencies, located in Austin.

(b) Using agencies shall make payment to the commission for repair services by vouchers prepared and submitted to the using agency by the commission.

(c) No privately-owned machines shall be serviced by the commission.

Central Supply Store

Sec. 11.04. (a) The commission shall operate a central supply store where state agencies, including the legislature and legislative agencies, can secure small supply items.

(b) The commission shall submit a purchase voucher to each using agency after the close of each month covering supply items purchased.

(c) Purchases from the central supply store may be made only by state agencies.

ARTICLE 98. AMENDMENTS

Secs. 98.01 to 98.04. [Amends art. 6252-11c]

ARTICLE 99. FINAL PROVISIONS

Board Abolished

Sec. 99.01. The State Board of Control is abolished.

Transfer of Personnel, Property, Etc.

Sec. 99.02. All personnel, records, and property of the State Board of Control are transferred to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.

Initial Appointments to Commission

Sec. 99.03. In making the initial appointments to the commission, the governor shall designate one member for a term expiring January 31, 1981, one for a term expiring January 31, 1983, and one for a term expiring January 31, 1985.

Application

Sec. 99.04. Chapter 454, Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1977 (Article 6252-11c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, does not apply to any contract that a state agency entered or renewed before the effective date of this Act. A contract entered or renewed before the effective date of this Act is governed by Chapter 454, Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session, 1977, as it existed when the contract was entered or renewed, and that law is continued in effect for this purpose as if this Act were not in force.

Repealer

Sec. 99.05. The following articles and acts, as compiled in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, are repealed: 601, 601a, 602, 606, 606a, 630, 630a, 630b, 630c, 634½, 634a-1, 635, 655, 657, 658, 658a, 664-1, 664-2, 664-3, 665, 665a, 665b, 666, 666a, 666a-2, 666b, 667, 668, 669, 673, 674, 675, 676, 678, 678b, 678c, 678e, 678e-1, 678e-2, 678f, 678f-1, 678g, 678h, 678i, 678m, 678m.1, 678m-1, 678m-2, 678m-3, 678m-4, 678m-5, 688, 688a, 689, 689a, 690-695, 6252-6, and 6252-6a.

Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 2266, ch. 546, § 4, provides:

"Section 3 of this Act applies only to a charge based on failure to complete performance of a contract made on or after the effective date of this Act."

Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 2279, ch. 555, § 3 provides:

"This Act does not apply to the construction of a new building if the final written plans were completed before the effective date of this Act."

Section 4 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 1074, ch. 241, provides:

"Section 2 of this Act shall apply to all equipment or supplies which have previously been purchased by or for a qualified entity with funds provided through a contract or agreement with or a grant from the Texas Department of Health and which are on the effective date of this Act in the possession of or under the control of such qualified entity."

Section 6 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 1993, ch. 362, provides:

"The State Purchasing and General Services Act (Article 601b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this Act, affects only state building construction for which a project analysis is prepared after August 31, 1983."

Section 12 of Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2010, ch. 364, provides:

"In each state agency's first annual inventory under Subsection (f), Section 8.03, State Purchasing and General Services Act (Article 601b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), made on or after the effective date of this Act, the agency shall furnish to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission information listing the identification and age of each building it possesses that is at least 45 years old on the date of that inventory and shall furnish a photograph of each of those buildings. The commission shall give that information and the photographs to the Antiquities Committee."

Art. 601c. Public Building Authority Act

ARTICLE I

Short Title

Sec. 1. This article may be cited as the Texas Public Building Authority Act.

Purpose

Sec. 2. The purpose of this article is to provide a method of financing for the acquisition or construction or the repair, renovation, or other improvement of buildings for the use of state agencies and institutions in Travis County, Texas.

Public Building Authority

Sec. 3. The Texas Public Building Authority is established as a public authority and body politic and corporate.

Composition of Governing Board

Sec. 4. The governing board of the authority is composed of three members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

Terms

Sec. 5. Members of the board are appointed for staggered terms of six years with one member's term expiring on February 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Officers; Quorum; Meetings

Sec. 6. (a) The board biennially shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from its members.

(b) A majority of the full membership of the board constitutes a quorum.

(c) The board shall meet at least once in each quarter of the calendar year and shall meet at other times at the call of the chairman or as prescribed by a rule of the board.

Compensation and Expenses

Sec. 7. A member of the board is entitled to a per diem of $50, unless otherwise specified in the General Appropriations Act, for each day the member performs functions as a member of the board and to reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses the member incurs in performing the functions.

Staff

Sec. 8. The board shall employ persons and contract with consultants necessary for the board to perform its functions. Employees of the board are considered to be state employees.

Issuance of Bonds

Sec. 9. The board may issue and sell bonds in the name of the authority to finance the acquisition or construction or the repair, renovation, or other improvement of buildings for the use of state agencies and institutions in Travis County, Texas.

Legislative Approval Required

Sec. 10. Before the board may issue and sell bonds, the legislature by law must have authorized the specific project for which the bonds are to be issued and sold and must have authorized the maximum amount of bonded indebtedness that may be incurred by the issuance and sale of bonds for the project.

Scope of Power

Sec. 11. (a) The board's authority under Section 9 of this article is limited to the financing of a project and does not affect the authority of the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or any other state agency to carry out its statutory authority, including its authority to construct buildings, relating to the project.

(b) The State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall carry out its statutory authority regarding a project financed under this article as if the project were financed by legislative appropriation.

(c) The board and the State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall adopt a memorandum of understanding to carry out the intent of this section that defines the division of authority between the board and the commission.

Manner of Repayment of Bonds

Sec. 12. (a) The board may provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds issued under Section 9 of this article relating to a building:

(1) by pledging all or any part of the designated rents, issues, and profits from the building to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or occupying state agency; or

(2) from any other source of funds lawfully available to the board.

(b) From funds appropriated for the purpose of paying rental charges on improvements acquired, constructed, renovated, or repaired under this article, the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or occupying or using state agency shall pay to the board an amount determined by the board to be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds and to maintain any reserve funds required for servicing the debt.

(c) The commission shall set the amounts of the rents in amounts sufficient to provide the revenue required by the board.

(d) All lease contracts entered into under this Act shall be subject to the appropriation by the legislature of funds necessary to cover the provisions of the lease.

(e) The board may lease space in projects constructed under this Act if the space cannot be leased to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or other state agency.

Additional Security for Bonds; Conveyance of Title to Board

Sec. 13. (a) The bonds may be additionally secured by a deed of trust, mortgage lien, or security interest on part or all of the project financed under this article or on part or all of the real property conveyed under Subsection (d) of this section. The bonds may vest in the trustee power to sell the project or real property for payment of the indebtedness, power to operate the project or real property, and all other powers necessary for the further security of the bonds; provided, however, that no property of the state other than the project financed or the real property conveyed under Subsection (d) of this section may serve as security for the bonds unless the legislature so provides.

(b) The trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the project or real property, may contain provisions prescribed by the board for the security of the bonds and the preservation of the trust estate and may make provisions for amendment or modification and may make provisions for investment of revenue from the project or real property.

(c) A purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust or mortgage lien becomes absolute owner of the project, real property, and rights purchased and may maintain and operate the project or real property.

(d) In return for the board's financing of a project under this article, the state shall convey to the board title to any of the state's real property of which the project will be made a part.

State Debt Not Created

Sec. 14. (a) Bonds issued under this article are not debts of the state or any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of the state and are not a pledge of the faith and credit of any of them. The bonds are payable solely from revenue as provided by this article.

(b) The bonds shall contain on their face a statement to the effect that:

(1) neither the state nor an agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of the state is obligated to pay the principal of or the interest on the bonds except as provided by this article; and

(2) either the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or any agency, political corporation, or political subdivision of the state is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on the bonds.

Form of Bonds

Sec. 15. (a) The board may issue bonds in various series or issues.

(b) Bonds may mature serially or otherwise not more than 40 years from their date and shall bear interest at any rate permitted by the constitution and laws of the state.

(c) The bonds and interest coupons, if any, are investment securities under the terms of Chapter 8 of the Business & Commerce Code and may be issued registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the board, or may contain a mandatory redemption provision.

(d) The bonds may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner and under the terms, conditions, and details and shall be signed and executed, as provided by the board in the resolution or order authorizing their issuance.

Provisions of Bonds

Sec. 16. (a) In the orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds, including refunding bonds, the board may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, the reserve fund, and other funds and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds, the pledged revenues, and the operation and maintenance of the project financed under this article or the real property conveyed under Subsection (d) of Section 13 of this article.

(b) The orders or resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenue or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from the revenue on a parity with or subordinate to the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued.

(c) The orders or resolutions of the board issuing bonds may contain other provisions and covenants as the board may determine.

(d) The board may adopt and have executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and convenient in the issuance of bonds.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration by Comptroller

Sec. 17. (a) The bonds issued by the board must be submitted to the attorney general for examination.

(b) If the attorney general finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts.

(c) After the approval and registration of bonds, the bonds are incontestable in any court or other forum, for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 18. (a) The board may issue bonds to refund all or any part of its outstanding bonds issued under this article, including matured but unpaid interest coupons.

(b) The board may refund bonds, notes, or other obligations as provided by the general laws of the state for revenue bonds.

Bonds as Investments

Sec. 19. The bonds are legal and authorized investments for:

- (1) banks;
- (2) savings banks;
- (3) trust companies;
- (4) savings and loan associations;
- (5) insurance companies;
- (6) fiduciaries;
- (7) trustees;
- (8) guardians; and
- (9) sinking funds of cities, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the state and other public funds of the state and its agencies, including the permanent school fund.

Bonds as Security for Deposits

Sec. 20. The bonds are eligible to secure deposits of public funds of the state and cities, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the state. The bonds are lawful and sufficient security for deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any.

Tax Status of Bonds

Sec. 21. The bonds issued by the board, any transaction relating to the bonds, and profits made in the sale of the bonds are free from taxation by the state or by any city, county, special district, or other political subdivision of the state.

Other Powers

Sec. 22. The board may:

- (1) exercise, to the extent practicable, all powers given to a corporation under the general laws of the state;
- (2) have perpetual succession by its corporate name;
- (3) sue and be sued in its corporate name;
- (4) adopt a seal and use it as the board considers appropriate;
- (5) accept gifts and donations; and
- (6) adopt rules and perform all functions reasonably necessary for the board to administer its functions prescribed by this article.

Conveyance of Property

Sec. 23. (a) When the principal of and interest on bonds relating to a project financed under this article are paid in full and the building involved in the project is free of all liens, the board shall certify to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or occupying or using state agency that rentals are no longer required to service the bond debt.

(b) On making the determination called for in Subsection (a) of this section, the board shall, for the sum of $1, convey title of the completed project, of other real property involved in the project, and of the real property previously conveyed to the board under Subsection (d) of Section 13 of this article to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission or designated occupying or using state agency.

Preference in Leasing

Sec. 24. For the purposes of Section 6.04, State Purchasing and General Services Act (Article 601b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), property owned by the board shall be considered state-owned space.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 25. The authority has the power of eminent domain and may exercise the same for the purposes set forth in this article in connection with projects approved under Section 10 of this article.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 26. The board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless continued in existence as provided by that Act, the board is abolished and this article expires September 1, 1995.

Initial Appointments and Organizational Meeting

Sec. 27. (a) In making his initial appointments to the board, the governor shall designate one member for a term expiring February 1, 1985, one for a term expiring February 1, 1987, and one for a term expiring February 1, 1989.

(b) The governor shall designate a time and place at which the board shall convene for an organizational meeting. At this meeting the board shall elect its initial chairman and vice-chairman.

ARTICLE II

Authorization of Projects

Sec. 1. (a) The governing board of the Texas Public Building Authority may issue and sell bonds in accordance with the Texas Public Building Authority Act to finance the projects listed by Section 3 of this article.

(b) The maximum amount of bonded indebtedness that the board may incur in financing the projects is $50 million.

Appropriations

Sec. 2. (a) From funds appropriated by H.B. 656, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981,¹ from Fund 117 to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission:

(1) the sum of $1 million is appropriated for the biennium beginning September 1, 1983, to the authority for its operating expenses in carrying out the provisions of this article; and

(2) the sum of $7 million is appropriated for the biennium beginning September 1, 1983, to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission to the account of a special fund in the State Treasury to be known as the state lease fund to pay to the authority amounts for debt service that may be due in the biennium for any of the projects authorized.

(b) On issuance of bonds necessary to finance the projects authorized by this article, the board shall certify to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission and to the comptroller of public accounts that the funds are available and shall deposit the bond proceeds in the State Treasury to the account of the State Purchasing and General Services Commission for the specific projects. Once the funds are deposited and the comptroller of public accounts has certified that the funds are available, the State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall begin the projects and the funds so deposited are appropriated to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission for these purposes. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2543d, Revised Statutes, depository interest earned on the funds shall be credited to and accounted for in the state lease fund created by this article.

Specific Projects

Sec. 3. The following projects are approved for financing under the Texas Public Building Authority Act:

Project	Estimated Cost of Project
(1) Construction related to the Texas Youth Council, Texas Rehabilitation Commission State Office Building	$10,500,000
(2) Purchase and renovation of the Texas Employment Commission Property	26,750,000

Rent and Fees

Sec. 4. The State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall establish schedules necessary to properly charge state agencies occupying or using projects authorized by this article for the expenses incurred in financing the project. Using state agencies shall pay to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission from all funds appropriated to the agency, in their proper proportion, for these purposes, the amount determined by the State Purchasing and General Services Commission as the necessary payment for the period or periods the commission has determined the payments are due. Payments received by the commission under this section shall be deposited to the credit of the state lease fund. The legislature may, in the alternative, provide for direct appropriation of the necessary funds for using agencies to the state lease fund.

State Lease Fund

Sec. 5. The state lease fund created by this article may be used to finance appropriations to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission for payment of rents and fees to the authority. In addition, the legislature may transfer funds on deposit in the state lease fund to the General Revenue Fund for such other purposes as the legislature may determine.

ARTICLE III

Purchase and Renovation of the Texas Employment Commission Property

Sec. 1. (a) The Texas Employment Commission shall sell to the State Purchasing and General Services Commission office buildings and parking facilities in its possession in or near the Capitol Complex. The sale shall be under an agreement between the Texas Employment Commission and the State Purchasing and General Services Commission on a price sufficient to provide the Texas Employment Commission adequate, alternative office and parking space outside the Capitol Complex and with the necessary concurrence that may be required by the United States government.

(b) The State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall, under an agreement with the Texas Employment Commission and subject to the availability of funds authorized by Article II of this Act, purchase office buildings and parking facilities of the Texas Employment Commission located in or near the Capitol Complex. If the offices are acquired, the State Purchasing and General Services Commission may, from funds made available by the authority, renovate these facilities as necessary for occupancy by other state agencies. In negotiating the price for the Texas Employment Commission's facilities, the State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall consider the cost to the Texas Employment Commission of alternative space. The State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall also consider the price in the context of the reasonable rates that might otherwise be paid by prospective occupying state agencies for rent in comparable space. In any event, the State Purchasing and General Services Commission may not agree to a price greater than one and one-half times the estimated amount in Section 3, Article II, of this Act.

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 1. [Amends art. 601b by amending § 10.09 and adding §§ 10.10, 10.11].

Sec. 2. [Amends art. 601b, § 10.02(c)].

Sec. 3. [Amends art. 601b, § 10.03(b)].

Sec. 4. [Repeals art. 601b, § 10.01(3)].

Replacement of Centrex System

Sec. 5. If the State Purchasing and General Services Commission decides to replace the current centrex system, the commission shall make the new service operational for the legislature and legislative agencies not later than September 1, 1984.

Advisory Committee

Text of section effective until August 31, 1985

Sec. 6. (a) The State Telephone Service Advisory Committee is established.

(b) The committee is composed of:

(1) three representatives of state agencies appointed by the governor;

(2) three persons appointed by the lieutenant governor; and

(3) three persons appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(c) Appointments of the lieutenant governor and speaker of the house of representatives may include members of the legislature or representatives of state agencies.

(d) A member of the committee is appointed for a term expiring on the date the committee is abolished under this Act.

(e) The committee shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from its members.

(f) The governor shall designate a time and place at which the committee shall convene for an organizational meeting. The committee shall meet at other times and places at the call of the chairman or as provided by a rule of the committee.

(g) A member of the committee may not receive compensation for service on the committee. A member is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing functions as a member of the committee.

(h) A vacancy on the committee shall be filled for the unexpired part of the term in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

(i) The committee shall:

(1) advise the State Purchasing and General Services Commission about the specifications for the centralized telephone service;

(2) review bids received by the commission relating to the provision of the centralized telephone service; and

(3) advise and assist the commission in the determination as to which bidder or bidders should be awarded a contract.

(j) The committee is abolished and this section expires August 31, 1985.

Temporary Provision

Text of section effective until September 1, 1985

Sec. 7. (a) Those provisions of S.B. 179, Acts of the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, 1983 (the General Appropriations Act for the fiscal biennium beginning September 1, 1983),¹ that are contingent on enactment of S.B. 1401, Acts of the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, apply notwithstanding the failure of S.B. 1401 to become law.

(b) Section 80, Article V of S.B. 179, may not be construed as prohibiting the State Purchasing and General Services Commission from implementing this article by establishing a telephone system that uses leased equipment in whole or in part.

(c) This section expires September 1, 1985.

Art. 664-4. Professional Services Procurement Act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Professional Services Procurement Act."

Sec. 2. For purposes of this Act the term "professional services" shall mean those within the scope of the practice of accounting, architecture, optometry, medicine or professional engineering as defined by the laws of the State of Texas or those performed by any licensed architect, optometrist, physician, surgeon, certified public accountant or professional engineer in connection with his professional employment or practice.

Sec. 3. No state agency, political subdivision, county, municipality, district, authority or publicly-owned utility of the State of Texas shall make any contract for, or engage the professional services of, any licensed physician, optometrist, surgeon, architect, certified public accountant or registered engineer, or any group or association thereof, selected on the basis of competitive bids submitted for such contract or for such services to be performed, but shall select and award such contracts and engage such services on the basis of demonstrated competence and qualifications for the type of professional services to be performed and at fair and reasonable prices, as long as professional fees are consistent with and not higher than the published recommended practices and fees of the various applicable professional associations and do not exceed the maximum provided by any state law.

Sec. 4. Any and all such contracts, agreements or arrangements for professional services negotiated, made or entered into, directly or indirectly, by any agency or department of the State of Texas, county, municipality, political subdivision, district, authority or publicly-owned utility in any way in violation of the provisions of this Act or any part thereof are hereby declared to be void as contrary to the public policy of this State and shall not be given effect or enforced by any Court of this State or by any of its public officers or employees.

Art. 664-7. Purchasing Program for Local Governments

Definition

Sec. 1. In this Act, "local government" means a county, city, town, special district, school district, junior college district, or other legally constituted political subdivision of the state.

Purchasing Program

Sec. 2. (a) The State Purchasing and General Services Commission shall establish a program by which the commission performs purchasing services for local governments. The services shall include:

(1) the extension of state contract prices to participating local governments when the commission considers it feasible;

(2) solicitation of bids on items desired by local governments if the solicitation is considered feasible by the commission and is desired by the local government; and

(3) provision of information and technical assistance to local governments about the purchasing program.

(b) The commission may charge a participating local government an amount not to exceed the actual costs incurred by the commission in providing purchasing services to the local government under the program.

(c) The commission may adopt rules and procedures necessary to administer the purchasing program.

Local Government Participation

Sec. 3. (a) A local government may participate in the purchasing program of the commission by filing with the commission a resolution adopted each year by the governing body of the local government requesting that the local government be allowed to participate and stating that the local government:

(1) will designate an official to act for the local government in all matters relating to the program, including the designation of specific contracts in which the local government desires to participate, and that the governing body will direct the decisions of the representative;

(2) will purchase from the contracts made under this subsection, except in emergencies;

(3) will be responsible for payment directly to the vendor under each contract; and

(4) will be responsible for the vendor's compliance with all conditions of delivery and quality of the purchased item.

(b) A local government that purchases an item under a state contract satisfies any state law requiring the local government to seek competitive bids for the purchase of the item.

Art. 678a. Board of Mansion Supervisors

Membership; Appointment; Term

Sec. 1. There is hereby created the "Board of Mansion Supervisors." Said Board shall consist of three members, and one of the three shall be Chairman. The Chairman and other members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governor. The Chairman shall be appointed for an unexpired term ending January 1, 1936, one member shall be appointed for an unexpired term ending January 1, 1934, and one member shall be appointed for an unexpired term ending January 1, 1932, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter, the Governor shall appoint such Chairman and members for terms of six years.

Semi-annual Meetings

Sec. 2. Said Board of Mansion Supervisors shall hold regular and semi-annual meetings in January and July of each year on dates to be specified by the Board and may hold such special meetings at such times and places as the Board may deem necessary and proper. It shall require two members of said Board to constitute a quorum.

Rules and Regulations; Records

Sec. 3. Said Board of Mansion Supervisors is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations for the conduct of its work as may be deemed necessary. Said Board of Mansion Supervisors shall keep a record of all proceedings and official acts.

Plans and Designs for Repairs; Report to Board of Control

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of said Board, from time to time, to make plans and designs for repairs to the Governor's Mansion, conforming to the style of architecture of the original building, and for such rehabilitation, renovation, repairing, beautifying and decorating generally of Mansion and the grounds adjacent thereto, as in their judgment may be deemed proper and expedient. It shall also be the duty of the Board to study the need of furniture, fixtures, equipment and interior decoration of the Mansion. The Board shall, on or before September 1, 1932, and each two years thereafter, submit a report to the Board of Control, embodying their recommendations and an estimate of the cost. The Board of Control shall incorporate in the biennial budget, under the head of "Mansion and Grounds," the requests of said Board of Mansion Supervisors and the recommendation of the Board of Control on such requests. The Board may, from time to time, submit reports with their recommendations to the Legislature.

Consent to Removal of Equipment; Visitation

Sec. 5. The furniture, fixtures and equipment belonging to the State and now situated in the Mansion shall not be taken therefrom and no changes shall be made in said furniture, fixtures and equipment without the consent of the Board of Mansion Supervisors and the Board of Control. The Board of Mansion Supervisors, or any member thereof, shall have the authority to visit the Mansion and grounds at any reasonable time.

BUDGETS

Art. 689a-1. Governor as Chief Budget Officer

The Governor is hereby made the chief budget officer of the State.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 2.]

Art. 689a-2. Uniform Budget Estimate Blanks

The Governor is hereby authorized to collaborate with the Legislative Budget Board in designing and preparing uniform budget estimate blanks upon which all requests for appropriations from the Legislature shall be prepared; and the Governor shall require that all requests for appropriations be submitted to him on such blanks or forms.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 3. Amended by Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 572, ch. 332, § 5.]

Art. 689a-3. Repealed by Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1322, ch. 446, § 1

Art. 689a-4. Hearings by Governor in Preparation of Budget

Upon receipt of the estimates for appropriations, the Governor shall afford to the heads of departments, institutions or other agencies that are seeking appropriations an opportunity to appear and be heard at a public hearing wherein such estimates are to be considered; and, if so desired, the Govern-nor shall have the right to require the heads of such departments, institutions or other agencies, or any employees thereof, to appear at such public hearing and to give further information concerning requested appropriations. Any taxpayer shall have the right to be present at any and all such public hearings and to participate in the discussion of any item proposed to be included in the budget under consideration. The Governor shall preside at and conduct all such hearings, or, if unable for any reason to conduct such hearings, the Governor may authorize any employee of the Executive Department to preside at such hearings and represent him.

Art. 689a-4a. Cooperation by Governor and Legislative Budget Board; Joint Hearings

With respect to matters pertaining to the compilation of the biennial appropriation budget, the Governor and the Legislative Budget Board created by Chapter 487, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949, page 908,¹ may cooperate and exchange information, and may, if they so desire, jointly hold public hearings pertaining to the biennial appropriation budgets. At any such joint public hearings, the Governor shall preside, or, if for any reason he be unable to conduct such hearings, the Lieutenant-Governor or such person as the Governor and the Lieutenant-Governor shall appoint, shall preside.

Art. 689a-4b. Determination by Governor of Prerequisites to Expenditure of Appropriations

Sec. 1. The Governor of the State of Texas is authorized to find any fact specified by the Legislature in any appropriation bill as a contingency enabling expenditure of any designated item of appropriation.

Sec. 2. (a) The Governor shall base his finding on the evidence as it exists at the time of his determination; provided the Legislature may by condition in an appropriation bill require such determination to be made following a public hearing.

(b) The decision of the Governor, together with his findings of fact, shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Legislative Budget Board.

(c) The Governor's decision shall be final, subject to review in the courts by mandamus or other appropriate legal remedies.

(d) His certificate, under the seal of his office, stating his decision, shall be evidence of his decision.

[Acts 1972, 62nd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 22, ch. 5, eff. Jan. 16, 1973.]

Art. 689a-4c. Expenditure of Funds by Governor in Certified Emergency; Administration

Declaration of Policy

Sec. 1. It is in the public interest for the Governor to have available authority and funds for use in instances when the Legislature is not in session and there arises an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the emergency be met. Within the limits of the funds appropriated for this purpose and upon the compliance by the Governor with the requirements of this Act, it is the legislative intent to enable the Governor to act in instances of emergency and imperative public necessity without being forced to call the Legislature into session. The funds appropriated pursuant to this Act are to be available only in those instances where no other funds are available for purposes specifically appropriated for by the Legislature due to exhaustion of appropriations. At the time of the certification provided for in Section 2, the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall determine, with whatever assistance he deems necessary from other agencies, as to whether other funds are available.

Procedure

Sec. 2. When, in the judgment of the Governor, a situation arises that presents an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring the use of the funds hereby authorized, the Governor shall certify such facts to said Comptroller, stating in the certification the facts presenting the emergency and imperative public necessity and why the facts present an emergency and an imperative public necessity. The Comptroller shall endorse on the Governor's Certificate the availability or unavailability of other funds setting forth their source and amount, if any, and must return said certificate to the Governor's Office within two (2) working days of receipt of said certificate. No expenditures shall be made by the Governor prior to receipt by the Governor of a return of his certificate from the Comptroller showing that no other funds are available. Copies of the Governor's Certificate, and the returned certificate containing the endorsement by the Comptroller, shall be filed with the Secretary of State and with the Legislative Budget Board.

Administration of Funds

Sec. 3. For purposes of this Act, the Governor may by interagency contract, in each instance, use any agency of the executive branch for administration of the funds hereby authorized. Such interagency contracts are exempt from the provisions of Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

Funding and Expenditures

Sec. 4. Following certification in compliance with this statute, the Governor is authorized to expend appropriated funds for purposes of the certified emergency, and the necessary warrants shall be drawn by the Comptroller and paid by the State Treasurer. The Legislature may appropriate money to the Governor pursuant to this Act to be expended for the Executive branch of government only.

Cumulative Clause

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws or parts of laws, general or special.

Severability Clause

Sec. 6. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

[Acts 1972, 62nd Leg., 4th C.S., p. 23, ch. 6, eff. Oct. 17, 1972.]

Art. 689a-5. Compilation of Budget by Governor

Based on information submitted to the Governor in the estimates and obtained by him at public hearings, from inspections and from other sources, the Governor shall compile the biennial appropriation budgets. On such budgets, the list of appropriations shall be shown for the current year preceding the biennium for which appropriations are sought and recommended, and the expenditures shall be shown for each of the two (2) full years next preceding the current year. The budget shall also show the amounts requested by the various agencies and the amounts recommended by the Governor for each of the years of the ensuing biennium.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 6. Amended by Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 572, ch. 322, § 8; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1322, ch. 446, § 2.]

Art. 689a-6. Transmission of Copies of Budget; Committee Hearings; Copies of Budget for Distribution

Within five (5) days after the beginning of each Regular Session of the Legislature, the Governor shall transmit to all members of the Legislature printed copies of the budget; and, the Appropriations Committee in the House and the Finance Committee in the Senate may, if they so desire, begin preliminary committee hearings on the budget without waiting for the submission of the budget bills. The Governor shall also cause to be printed such extra copies of the budget as in his judgment are necessary for public distribution.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 7. Amended by Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 572, ch. 322, § 9; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1688, ch. 546, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 689a-7. Budget Bills of Appropriations Submitted by Governor; Hearings on Bills

Within thirty (30) days after the beginning of each regular session of the Legislature, the Govern-nor may prepare and submit printed copies of a general appropriation bill for the ensuing biennium to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Lieutenant Governor, and to each Member of the House and Senate; provided, however, that in years when a newly elected Governor other than the then Governor is to be inaugurated, the appropriation bill may be prepared by the incoming Governor and shall be transmitted to the Legislature within twenty (20) days from the date he takes the oath of office.

The Director of the Budget, under the direction of the Legislative Budget Board, shall also prepare a general appropriation bill for introduction at each regular session of the Legislature, and shall transmit copies of the bill to all Members of the Legislature and to the Governor within seven (7) days after the convening of any regular session of the Legislature.

Upon receipt of the general appropriation bill prepared by the Director of the Budget, the Lieutenant Governor in the Senate and the Speaker in the House may, if they so desire, cause such bill to be introduced in the Senate and in the House of Representatives, or it may be introduced by any Member of the House or the Senate. A general appropriation bill submitted by the Governor may also be introduced in like manner. Hearings on the appropriation bills shall be conducted before the Appropriation Committee of the House and the Finance Committee of the Senate. The Appropriations Committee and the Finance Committee may, if they so desire, begin preliminary committee hearings on the budget upon receipt of the bill prepared by the Director of the Budget without waiting for submission of the bill prepared by the Governor. All heads of departments, institutions or other agencies of the government requesting appropriations shall have the right to appear before either of these committees in behalf of the appropriation requested. Likewise, any taxpayer in the State shall have the right to be present and to be heard at the hearing on the proposed appropriation.

Art. 689a-8. Budget Bill Not to Include Per Diem and Mileage of Members of Legislature

The budget and budget bill so to be prepared and submitted by the Governor shall not have included therein any appropriations for the per diem and mileage of the members of the Legislature, nor the necessary expenses of the Legislature, and nothing herein contained shall affect any such appropriations.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 9.]

Art. 689a-8a. Constitutional Amendment; Effect if Adopted

In the event a Constitutional Amendment providing for annual budget sessions of the Legislature is adopted, all references in the preceding sections of this Act, in Chapter 487, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature, Regular Session (Article 5429c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) and in Section 7 of Chapter 332, Acts of the Fifty-second Legislature (Article 689a-4a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) to biennial budgets shall be deemed to mean annual budgets, and all references to biennial sessions or regular sessions of the Legislature shall mean the annual budget sessions.

[Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1322, ch. 446, § 4.]

Art. 689a-9. County Budget; County Judge as Budget Officer

The County Judge shall serve as budget officer for the Commissioners' Court in each county, and during the month of July of each year he, assisted by the County Auditor or by the County Clerk, shall prepare a budget to cover all proposed expenditures of the county government for the succeeding year. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year. The budget must also be so prepared as to show as definitely as possible each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget, and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects. The budget shall also contain a complete financial statement of the county, showing all outstanding obligations of the county, the cash on hand to the credit of each and every fund of the county government, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds available from all sources during the ensuing year, the estimated revenues available to cover the proposed budget and the estimated rate of tax which will be required.

Art. 689a-9a. Taxes Included in Estimated Revenues of Year in Which Levied and Collected

The County Judge in preparing the budget to cover all proposed expenditures of the county government for the succeeding year shall estimate the revenue to be derived from taxes to be levied and collected during such succeeding year, and such revenue shall be included in the estimated revenues available to cover the proposed budget.

[Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 1056, ch. 439, § 1.]

Art. 689a-10. County Budget Filed with Clerk of County Court

When the County Judge has completed the budget for the county, a copy of it shall be filed with the clerk of the County Court, and it shall be available for the inspection of any taxpayer.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 11.]

Art. 689a-11. Commissioners' Court to Hold Hearings and Approve Budget in Certain Counties

The Commissioners' Court in each county shall each year provide for a public hearing on the county budget—which hearing shall take place on some date to be named by the Commissioners' Court subsequent to August 15th and prior to the levy of taxes by said Commissioners' Court. Public notice shall be given that on said date of hearing the budget as prepared by the County Judge will be considered by the Commissioners' Court. Said notice shall name the hour, the date and the place where the hearing shall be conducted. Any taxpayer of such county shall have the right to be present and participate in said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the budget as prepared by the County Judge shall be acted upon by the Commissioners' Court. The Court shall have authority to make such changes in the budget as in their judgment the law warrants and the interest of the taxpayers demand. When the budget has been finally approved by the Commissioners' Court, the budget, as approved by the Court shall be filed with the Clerk of the County Court, and taxes levied only in accordance therewith, and no expenditure of the funds of the county shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with the budget as adopted by the Court. Except that emergency expenditures, in case of grave public necessity, to meet unusual and unforeseen conditions which could not, by reasonably diligent thought and attention, have been included in the original budget, may from time to time be authorized by the Court as amendments to the original budget. In all cases where such amendments to the original budget is made, a copy of the order of the Court amending the budget shall be filed with the Clerk of the County Court, and attached to the budget originally adopted.

Provided, however, that in all counties of this State, containing a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding United States census, the provisions hereof shall not apply to the making of such county budgets, and in such counties all matters pertaining to the county budget shall be governed by existing law.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 12. Amended by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 325, ch. 130, § 1, eff. May 13, 1981.]

Art. 689a-12. County Officers to Furnish Information to County Judge

In the preparation of the budget, the County Judge shall have authority to require any officer of the county to furnish such information as may be necessary for the County Judge to have in order that the budget covering the expenditures of the county may be properly prepared.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 13.]

Art. 689a-13. Budget Officers and Preparation of Budget in Cities and Towns

The Mayor of every incorporated city, town or village shall serve as the budget officer for the Board of Commissioners or Council of such city, town or village, except that any such city or town as shall have a City Manager form of Government, the City Manager shall serve as the budget officer. Such Mayor or City Manager shall prepare each year a budget to cover all proposed expenditures of the Government of said city or town for the succeeding year. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year. The budget must also be so prepared as to show as definitely as possible each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget, and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects. The budget shall also contain a complete financial statement of the city, town or village, showing all outstanding obligations of such city, town or village, the cash on hand to the credit of each and every fund, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds available from all sources during the ensuing year, the estimated revenue available to cover the proposed budget, and the estimated rate of tax which will be required.

If a city or town in this State has already set up in its charter definite requirements which provide for the preparation each year of a budget of all expenditures of said city and a public hearing on said budget, then the charter provisions of said city as to the time of public hearings and the method of preparation of the budget shall govern, provided that when said budget has been finally prepared and approved, that a copy of said budget, together with all amendments thereto, shall be filed with the County Clerk, the same as this Act requires other budgets to be filed.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 14. Amended by Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 326, ch. 130, § 2, eff. May 13, 1981.]

Art. 689a-14. Budget Filed with Clerk of City or Town

Said budget so to be prepared by such Mayor or City Manager shall be filed with the Clerk of such city, town or village not less than thirty (30) days prior to the time the Board of Commissioners or Council of such city, town or village makes its tax levy for the current fiscal year, and such budget shall be available for the inspection of any taxpayer.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 206, § 15.]

Art. 689a-15. Hearings on City or Town Budgets, Approval and Filing

The Board of Commissioners or Council of every such city, town or village, shall each year provide for a public hearing on such budget, which hearing shall take place on some date to be fixed by such Board of Commissioners or Council, not less than fifteen days subsequent to the time such budget is filed as provided in Section 15¹ hereof, and prior to the time said Board of Commissioners or Council of such city, town or village makes its tax levy. Public notice of the hour, date and place of such hearing shall be given, or caused to be given by such Board of Commissioners, or Council, and any taxpayer of such city, town or village shall have the right to be present and participate in such hearing. At the conclusion of such hearing, the budget as prepared by the Mayor or City Manager shall be acted upon by the said Board of Commissioners or Council. The Board of Commissioners, or Council shall have the authority to make such changes in the budget as in their judgment the law warrants and the best interests of the taxpayers of such city, town or village demands. When the budget has been finally approved by such Board of Commissioners, or Council, the budget as so approved shall be filed with the Clerk of such city, town or village, and taxes levied only in accordance therewith, and no expenditure of the funds of such city, town or village shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with such adopted budget, except that in case of grave public necessity, emergency expenditures to meet unusual and unforeseen conditions, which could not, by reasonable diligent thought and attention, have been included in the original budget, may from time to time be authorized by such Board of Commissioners, or Council, as amendments to the original budget. In all cases where such amendment to the original budget is made, a copy of the order or resolution of the Board of Commissioners or Council amending such budget shall be filed with the Clerk of such city, town or village, and attached to the budget originally adopted. Immediately after the adoption of said budget or any amendment thereto, the Mayor or City Manager, as the case may be, shall file or cause to be filed, a true copy of said approved budget, and all amendments thereto, in the office of the County Clerk of the County in which said municipality is situated.

Art. 695d. Time Limit for Presentation of Disbursing Orders for Relief Issued Before October, 1936

Sec. 1. Any person having a claim against the State of Texas based on any disbursing order issued for general or transient relief purposes by the Texas Relief Commission or The Texas Relief Commission Division of the State Board of Control, or any of their authorized representatives, agents or employees, prior to October, 1936, shall, within six (6) months from the effective date of this Act, present the same to the State Department of Public Welfare for approval and payment, and failure to do so shall forever bar any claim based thereon against the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. Any person to whom a check was issued by the Texas Relief Commission or the Texas Relief Commission Division of the State Board of Control, or any of their authorized representatives, agents or employees, prior to July 1, 1936, for relief purposes, or his heirs, assigns or legal representatives, shall present the same to the State Department of Public Welfare for approval and payment within six (6) months from the effective date of this Act, and failure to do so shall forever bar any claim against the State of Texas evidenced by said check or upon the claim to satisfy which said check was given.

Art. 695g. Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance Coverage for County and Municipal Employees

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following definitions of words and terms shall apply as used in this Act:

(a) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act,¹ would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that Act.

(b) The term "employment" means any service performed by an employee in the employ of a county or municipality or other political subdivision of the state except (1) service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this Act would constitute "employment" as defined in the Social Security Act;² or (2) service which under the Social Security Act may not be included in an agreement between the State and the Federal Security Administrator entered into under this Act; or (3) service in any policeman's position, which is subject to an existing Retirement System at the time the agreement is undertaken, in incorporated cities having a population of 250,000 or more according to the most recent decennial Federal Census prior to the date of said agreement.

(c) The term "employee" includes an officer of a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the State; also the word "employee" shall include any State Employee or officer who is paid wholly from United States funds and would be a Federal employee except for classification as a State employee by the Federal Government.

(d) The term "State Agency" means the Employees Retirement System of Texas.

(e) The term "Federal Security Administrator" includes any individual to whom the Federal Security Administrator has delegated any of his functions under the Social Security Act with respect to coverage under such Act of employees of States and their political subdivisions.

(f) The term "municipality" means incorporated cities, towns, and villages.

(g) The term "Social Security Act" means the Act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, Chapter 531, 49 Stat. 620, officially cited as the "Social Security Act," (including regulations and requirements issued pursuant thereto), as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended.

(h) The term "political subdivision" includes an instrumentality of the State, of one or more of its political subdivisions, or of the State and one or more of its political subdivisions, but only if such instrumentality is a juristic entity which is legally separate and distinct from the State or subdivision and only if its employees are not by virtue of their relation to such juristic entity employees of the State or subdivision.

(i) The term "State working days" includes all days of the year excluding weekends, and State or National holidays.

² 42 U.S.C.A. § 301 et seq.

Administration of Act

Sec. 2. The Employees Retirement System of Texas is designated the State Agency to administer the provisions of this Act. The Executive Director of the department shall act for it and shall direct and administer its functions under this Act.

Agreements With Federal Security Administrator

Sec. 3. The State Agency is authorized to enter into agreements with the Federal Security Administrator to obtain Federal old-age and survivor's insurance coverage for employees of any of the counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State. These agreements may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification, and termination of the agreement, administration, and any other appropriate matters consistent with the Constitution and laws of Texas as the State Agency and Federal Security Administrator shall agree.

Agreements with County and Municipal Governing Bodies; Agreements Between Adjutant General, State Agency and United States Government

Sec. 4. The State Agency is authorized to enter into agreements with the governing bodies of counties and with the governing bodies of municipalities and with the governing bodies of other political subdivisions of the State which are eligible for Social Security coverage under Federal law when the governing body of any of said counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions desire to obtain coverage under the old-age and survivor's insurance program for their employees, these agreements to embrace such provisions relating to coverage benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and any other appropriate matters consistent with the Constitution and laws of Texas as the State Agency and the governing body of the county, municipality or other political subdivision shall agree. Any such agreement entered into shall include a provision that no action of the Federal Government shall ever impair or impede the retirement program of this State or its political subdivisions. Any instrumentality of the State, for which direct appropriations are made by the Legislature, may contribute to the old-age and survivor's insurance program of the Federal Government for employees covered under Chapter 470, Acts, 1937, Forty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session,¹ and amendments thereto, only such funds as are specifically appropriated therefor.

Rules and Regulations; Terms of Agreements

Sec. 5. The Employees Retirement System of Texas is authorized and directed to promulgate all reasonable rules and regulations it deems necessary to govern applications for and eligibility to participate in this program, and it shall prescribe the terms of the agreements necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act and to insure financial responsibility on the part of participating counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State.

Authority of Governing Bodies

Sec. 6. The respective governing bodies of the various counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State which are now or shall hereafter become eligible under applicable Federal requirements are hereby authorized to enter into all necessary agreements with the State Agency to enable the employees of the respective counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions to have coverage under the Social Security Act. The respective governing bodies are authorized to pay contributions as required by these agreements from those funds from which the covered employees receive their compensations, and it is expressly provided that all prior laws and parts of laws which fix a maximum compensation for any covered employees of counties are hereby amended to allow payment of the matching contribution necessary to this program in addition to any maximum compensations otherwise fixed by law.

Submission and Approval of Plans

Sec. 7. Each county, municipality or other political subdivision of the State is authorized to submit for approval by the State Agency a plan for extending the benefits of the Federal old-age and survivor's insurance system to employees of the county, municipality or political subdivision. The State Agency shall not finally refuse to approve a submitted plan and shall not terminate an approved plan without reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the affected county, municipality or political subdivision. Each plan shall be approved by the State Agency if it finds it is in conformity with requirements provided in the regulations of the State Agency, except that no plan shall be approved unless:

(a) it is in conformity with requirements of the applicable Federal law and with the Federal-State agreements;

(b) it specifies the source or sources from which the funds necessary to make the payments required are to be derived and contains guarantees that these sources will be adequate for this purpose (the State Agency may by appropriate rules and regulations require guarantees in the form of surety bonds, advance payments into escrow, detailed representations and assurances of priority dedication, or any legal undertakings to create adequate security that each county, municipality and political subdivision will be financially responsible for its share in this program for at least a minimum period equivalent to that specified by Federal requirements to precede coverage cancellation);

(c) provides such methods for administration of the plan by the county, municipality or political subdivision as are found by the State Agency to be necessary for proper and efficient administration;

(d) it provides the county, municipality or political subdivision will make reports in such form and containing such information as the State Agency may from time to time require and will comply with such provisions as the State Agency or appropriate Federal authorities may from time to time find necessary to assure the receipt, correctness and verification of these reports; and

(e) it authorizes the State Agency to terminate the plan in its entirety if it finds there has been a failure to comply with any provision contained in the plan, this termination to take effect at the expiration of such notice and upon such conditions as may be provided by regulations of the State Agency consistent with applicable Federal law.

Contributions; Reports; Delinquencies

Sec. 8. (a) Each county, municipality or other political subdivision as to which a plan has been approved may and shall pay to the State Agency, with respect to employees' wages, contributions in the amounts and at the rates specified by the applicable agreement entered into pursuant to the Federal-State agreement. Counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions required to make such payments are authorized, in consideration of the employees' retention in or entry upon employment, to impose upon its employees as to services which are covered by an approved plan, a contribution with respect to wages in keeping with applicable State and Federal requirements. Contributions so collected shall be paid to the State Agency in partial discharge of the liability of the county, municipality or political subdivision, but failure to deduct contributions from employees' wages shall not relieve the employee or the employer of liability for the contribution. If more or less than the correct amount of any contribution is paid or deducted, adjustments or refunds shall be made in the manner and at the time prescribed by the State Agency. Matching contributions by the employing counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions as prescribed by the approved plan in keeping with Federal requirements shall be paid from the respective sources of funds from which covered employees receive their compensation.

(b) Monthly reports and contributions shall be received by the State Agency on or before the sixth State working day of the month in which the report and contributions are required to be submitted to the Federal Social Security Administration. Quarterly reports and contributions are due and must be received by the State Agency on or before the 15th State working day of the month preceding the month in which the report and contributions are due to the Federal Social Security Administration. Contributions received after the day payment is due and wage reports received after the due date are delinquent and the reporting entity shall pay interest for each and every calendar day of delinquency including the day the delinquent contributions and reports are received by the State Agency. The interest rate shall be at the same rate as the interest rate charged by the Federal Social Security Administration for delinquent payment of contributions. Interest on delinquent contributions shall be deposited in the Social Security Administration Fund.

Assessment and Collection of Contributions

Sec. 9. When the governing body of a county, municipality or other political subdivision elects to enter into an agreement with the State Agency, it shall become the duty of the County Treasurer in the respective counties and of the person or persons who hold comparable positions in the municipalities or other political subdivisions to assess and collect the required contributions of the various employees in the respective counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions and transmit the same to the State Agency. Each plan approved by the State Agency will specify the responsible personnel of the undertaking county, municipality or other political subdivision who will be charged with the duty to make assessments, collections, and reports.

Administrative Expenses

Sec. 10. The respective governing bodies of the various counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of this State which enter into agreements under this program are hereby authorized to pay to the State Agency, out of any available funds not otherwise dedicated, such amounts, separate and apart from employees' contributions and matching contributions, as may be agreed between the respective governing body and the State Agency to be necessary to finance the county's, municipality's or other political subdivision's proportionate share in the administrative cost of this program at the State level. The State Agency shall require specific undertakings to defray a proportionate share of the administrative expenses at the State level in agreements negotiated with counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions on any basis mutually agreeable between the State Agency and the participating county, municipality or other political subdivision, whether as an annual fee for each participating county, municipality or other political subdivision, an annual fee per employee covered, a percentage based upon the contributions to the Federal authorities, or any other equitable measure. Annually at the close of each fiscal year, the State Agency shall pay from the Social Security Administration Fund to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas an amount not less than ten (10%) per cent of these contributions during the preceding year to defray administrative expenses until such time as the amount appropriated to the State Agency from funds of the State for administrative purposes has been reimbursed in full, at which time such payments shall cease.

Delinquent Payments

Sec. 11. The State Agency may require in agreements with counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions an undertaking to pay legal interest on delinquent payments. The State Agency is empowered to sue to collect any delinquencies and interest thereon in courts of competent jurisdiction. The State Agency may direct the deduction of any delinquent payments with interest from any moneys payable to the delinquent county, municipality or other political subdivision by the State or any department or agency of the State; provided, however, that deductions shall be made only from such prior appropriations as were expressly made subject to such deductions. The Comptroller and the State Treasurer are empowered and directed to comply with the State Agency's deduction directives and to remit the deducted amounts to the State Agency in trust for the contributions of the delinquent county, municipality or other political subdivision.

Social Security Fund; Social Security Administration Fund

Sec. 12. (a) There is hereby established as a special fund, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State, to be known as the Social Security Fund, which shall be administered as directed by the State Agency exclusively for the purposes of this Act. The State Treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of the fund. He shall administer such fund in accordance with the directions of the State Agency, and the Comptroller shall issue warrants upon it in accordance with such regulations as the State Agency shall prescribe. The State Agency shall deposit all moneys collected under the provisions of this Act, except moneys to defray administrative expenses at the State level, in the Social Security Fund. All moneys so deposited with the State Treasurer in the Social Security Fund shall be held in trust, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State. The State Agency is vested with full power, authority, and jurisdiction over the fund and may perform any and all acts necessary to the administration thereof and to pay the amounts required to be paid to the appropriate Federal authorities and any refunds or adjustments necessary under this Act.

(b) The State Agency shall deposit all moneys collected under the provisions of this Act from participating counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions to defray the cost of administering this program at the State level in a special fund to be known as the Social Security Administration Fund. The State Treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of the fund, which shall be held separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State. The State Treasurer shall administer this fund in accordance with the directions of the State Agency. Moneys deposited in either of these special funds shall be disbursed upon warrants issued by the Comptroller of Public Accounts pursuant to sworn vouchers executed by the State Agency acting through the executive director of personnel of the agency to whom he expressly delegates this function. These funds will not be State funds and will not be subject to legislative appropriation. This fund may be used to pay interest assessed as a penalty by the Federal Social Security Administration because of delinquent payment of contributions.

Expenditures; Personnel

Sec. 13. The State Agency is authorized to expend moneys in the Social Security Administration Fund for any purpose necessary to carry on the administration of this program at the State level, including but not limited to salaries, traveling expenses, printing, stationery, supplies, equipment, bond premiums, postage, communications, and contingencies, and the State Agency is authorized to employ such personnel, purchase such equipment, incur such expenses as may be necessary to carry out the administration of this program at the State level, provided all salaries and expenditures from this fund shall be consistent with the letter and spirit of comparable items and general provisions in the general departmental appropriation bill then current.

Application of Law to Employees of Political Subdivisions Not Otherwise Provided For

Sec. 13a. All of the provisions of House Bill No. 603, Chapter 500, Acts 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951, as amended by Senate Bill No. 124, Acts 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953,¹ shall be applicable to all such employees of political subdivisions of this State as are not otherwise provided for in said Act if and when a Constitutional Amendment providing for coverage of such employees, as embodied in House Joint Resolution No. 37, is adopted by vote of the people of this State.

Art. 695h. Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance Coverage for State Employees

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following definitions of words and terms shall apply as used in this Act:

(a) The term "Wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act,¹ would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that Act.

(b) The term "Employment" means any service performed by a State employee except (1) service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this Act shall constitute "employment" as defined in the Social Security Act;² or (2) service which under the Social Security Act may not be included in an agreement between the State and the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare entered into under this Act.

(c) The term "State Employee" in addition to its usual meaning shall include elective and appointive officials of the state; and shall not include those persons rendering services in positions the compensation for which is on a fee basis. The term "State Employee" shall not include any employees in positions subject to the Teacher Retirement System except those employed by state departments, state agencies, and state institutions as construed in their usual meaning.

(d) The term "State Agency" means the Employees Retirement System of Texas.

(e) The term "Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare" includes any individual to whom the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare has delegated any of his functions under the Social Security Act with respect to coverage under such Act of employees of States.

(f) The term "Social Security Act" means the Act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, Chapter 531, 49 Stat. 620, officially cited as the "Social Security Act", (including regulations and requirements issued pursuant thereto), as such Act has been and may from time to time be amended.

(g) The term "Federal Insurance Contributions Act" means subchapter A and B of Chapter 21 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as such Code has been and may from time to time be amended; and the term "employee tax" means the tax imposed by Section 3101 of such Code of 1954.

(h) The term "State working days" includes all days of the year excluding weekends, and State or National holidays.

¹26 U.S.C.A. § 3101 et seq.

²42 U.S.C.A. § 301 et seq.

Administration of Act

Sec. 2. The Employees Retirement System of Texas is designated the State Agency to administer the provisions of this Act. The Executive Director of the Department shall act for and shall direct and administer its functions under this Act. He is further instructed to negotiate the best possible contract for the employees of the State of Texas.

Agreements to Obtain Coverage

Sec. 3. The State Agency is authorized to enter into agreements with the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare to obtain Federal Old Age and Survivors insurance coverage for State employees. These agreements may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, administration and any other appropriate matters consistent with the terms and provisions of this Act as the State Agency and the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare shall agree.

Contributions by State Agency from Social Security Trust Fund

Sec. 4. The State Agency is authorized to pay contributions as required by these agreements from the Social Security Trust Fund established by Chapter 500, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951, as amended (Article 695g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The payment of contributions by the State under the program may not be considered compensation under any law of this State.

Contributions by State Employees

Sec. 5. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, the State is required to pay all contributions under this program except that portion of the employee tax which would be imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act¹ if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that Act that is in excess of 5.85 percent of wages, such wages not to exceed $16,500 in a calendar year. Except as provided by this subsection, any contributions in excess of 5.85 percent of wages, such wages not to exceed $16,500 in any calendar year, are the obligation of the employee. The Legislature may provide in the General Appropriations Act for the State payment of employee contributions under this program in excess of the amounts required by this subsection. The Legislature may provide for payment at any rate equal to or greater than 5.85 percent of wages and payment computed on any wage base equal to or greater than $16,500 a calendar year. If the Legislature provides for State payment of employee contributions in excess of the amounts required by this subsection, a State employee is obligated to pay only the difference between the amount the Legislature provides and the amount required by federal law.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to State-paid judges. The State is not required to pay any contributions of State-paid judges under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. However, the Legislature may provide in the General Appropriations Act for the State payment of State-paid judges' contributions under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act at any rate and on any amount of State-paid compensation that it considers appropriate. There is imposed on the services of State-paid judges which are covered by an agreement with the Secretary of Health and Human Services a contribution with respect to wages (as defined in Section 1(a) of this Act) equal to the amount of the employee tax which would be imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that Act. Any contributions in excess of the State payment, if any, prescribed by the General Appropriations Act are the obligations of the State-paid judges.

(c) Such contributions shall be paid to the Social Security Trust Fund from the respective funds from which covered employees receive their compensation.

(d) The Comptroller of Public Accounts may prorate the State's projected contribution to each employee over the portion of the calendar year that the employee's salary is subject to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act to equalize monthly contributions from the employee during the portion of the year that the salary continues to be subject to FICA taxes.

¹26 U.S.C.A. § 3101 et seq.

Collection of Contributions

Sec. 6. (a) The collection of said employees' contributions shall be as follows:

(1) Each department (including for the purpose of this Act any State office, board, bureau, or agency) of the State shall cause to be deducted on each and every payroll of a covered employee for each and every payroll period beginning on the date of establishment of Social Security coverage for said employee the contributions payable by such employee, as provided in this Act. Each department head of the State shall certify to the proper disbursing officer of said department on each and every payroll a statement of the amount of the employee's contribution which should be deducted from each employee's salary and a statement of the total amount to be deducted from all salaries and shall include the total amount in the payroll voucher. Each department head at the end of each month shall certify to the State Agency copies of said payroll statement and voucher on forms prescribed by the State Agency.

(2) The proper disbursing officer of each State department on authorization from the department head shall make deductions from salaries of the employees as provided in this Act. The total amount deducted shall be paid by each department head to the State Treasurer as custodian of the Social Security Trust Fund, and the State Treasurer shall deposit said amounts in the Social Security Trust Fund.

(3) If less than the correct amount of an employee's contribution is deducted with respect to any remuneration, the employee shall remain liable therefor.

(4) If more than the correct amount of the employee's contribution is paid or deducted with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund, if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the State Agency shall prescribe.

(b) The collection of the State's contribution shall be made as follows:

(1) After September 1, 1978, and after the date of the establishment of Social Security coverage for State employees, there is hereby allocated and appropriated to the Social Security Trust Fund, in accordance with this Act, from the several funds from which the employees benefited by this Act receive their respective salaries, a sum equal to the amount of the contribution to be paid by the State as provided in Sections 4 and 5 of this Act for employees whose compensation is paid from funds in the State Treasury. The State Agency shall certify to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts at the end of each month the total amount of the State's monthly contributions for employees whose salaries are paid from funds in the State Treasury. The State Comptroller after receipt of the certification shall pay the amount to the State Treasurer as custodian of the Social Security Trust Fund. The State Treasurer shall deposit the amounts so received in the Social Security Trust Fund.

(2) Thereafter, on or before the first day of November next preceding each Regular Session of the Legislature, the State Agency shall certify to the Governor for review and adoption the amount necessary to pay the contributions of the State of Texas for the ensuing biennium. This amount shall be included in the budget of the State which the Governor submits to the Legislature. The State Agency shall send a copy to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts of the certification to the Governor.

(3) All moneys hereby allocated and appropriated by the State to the Social Security Trust Fund shall be paid to the Fund in monthly installments.

(4) In those instances in which State employees are paid from funds not in the State Treasury, the department head at the end of each month shall certify to the proper disbursing officer the total amount of the State's contributions based upon compensation paid the employees. The disbursing officer shall pay that amount to the State Treasurer as custodian of the Social Security Trust Fund. The State Treasurer shall deposit the amounts in the Social Security Trust Fund. A copy of the department heads' certification in these instances shall be given to the State Agency at the same time the original is certified to the disbursing officer. These copies shall be on forms prescribed by the State Agency.

Monthly reports and contributions shall be received by the State Agency on or before the sixth State working day of the month in which the report and contributions are required to be submitted to the Federal Social Security Administration. Quarterly reports and contributions are due and must be received by the State Agency on or before the 15th State working day of the month preceding the month in which the report and contributions are due to the Federal Social Security Administration. Contributions received after the day payment is due and wage reports received after the due date are delinquent and the reporting entity shall pay interest for each and every calendar day of delinquency including the day the delinquent contributions and reports are received by the State Agency. The interest rate shall be at the same rate as the interest rate charged by the Federal Social Security Administration for delinquent payment of contributions. Interest on delinquent contributions shall be deposited in the State Social Security Administration Fund.

Powers and Duties of State Agency

Sec. 7. The State Agency shall have the power to make and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and to require such reports from the Departments as it finds necessary or appropriate to the efficient administration of the functions with which it is charged under this Act. It is further provided that the State Agency shall certify to the Comptroller of Public Accounts any and all departments which have not filed required reports within the specified time, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby directed to withhold any salary warrants or expense reimbursement warrants to the heads or any employees of such departments as are on the certified list until such time as the State Agency shall notify the Comptroller that such delinquent reports have been filed. In those instances in which State employees' salaries are paid from funds other than funds in the State Treasury, it shall be unlawful for the disbursing officer of a department to pay any salaries or expense reimbursements after notification by the State Agency that a required report is delinquent; and said disbursing officer shall be personally liable as well as liable on his official bond for payment of salaries or expense reimbursements after notification of delinquency by the State Agency.

State Social Security Administration Fund

Sec. 8. There is hereby created a special fund, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this State, to be known as the State Social Security Administration Fund. The State Treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of the fund and shall administer it in accordance with directions from the State Agency. Money deposited in this fund shall be disbursed upon warrants issued by the Comptroller of Public Accounts pursuant to sworn vouchers executed by the State Agency acting through the executive director or personnel of the agency to whom he expressly delegates this function. This fund may be used to pay interest assessed as a penalty by the Federal Social Security Administration because of delinquent payment of contributions.

Expenditures; Personnel

Sec. 9. The State Agency is authorized to expend moneys in the State Social Security Administration Fund for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of this Act including, but not limited to, salaries, traveling expenses, printing, stationery, supplies, equipment, bond premiums, postage, communications, and contingencies; and the State Agency is authorized to employ such personnel, accountants and attorneys, purchase such equipment, and incur such expenses as may be necessary to carry out the administration of this Act, provided all salaries and expenditures from this fund shall be consistent with the letter and spirit of comparable items and general provisions in the general departmental appropriation bill then current.

Appropriation

Sec. 10. For the purpose of administering the provisions of this Act, there is hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to the State Social Security Administration Fund the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000).

Benefits from both State Employees Retirement Act and Federal Social Security Act; Conflicting Laws Repealed

Sec. 11. Nothing shall prevent any employee from receiving benefits under both the State Employees Retirement Act¹ and the Federal Social Security Act and any law in conflict herewith is repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Art. 695n. Employment Incentive Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Employment Incentive Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "AFDC" means aid to families with dependent children authorized by The Public Welfare Act of 1941.¹

(2) "AFDC recipient" means a person who receives or who the State Department of Public Welfare has determined is eligible to receive AFDC payments.

Employment Program

Sec. 3. The Texas Employment Commission, after consultation with the State Department of Public Welfare, shall establish an employment program designed to assist and encourage AFDC recipients in obtaining employment. The commission shall adopt the rules necessary to implement the employment program consistent with this Act and applicable federal law.

Registration

Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, each AFDC recipient shall register with the commission in the employment program established under Section 3 of this Act.

(b) An AFDC recipient is not required to register if he is in the class of individuals that is exempt from registering for manpower services, training, and employment under Section 402, Title IV-A of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Section 602) and rules adopted pursuant to that law.

Duty of Registrant

Sec. 5. Each registrant shall:

- (1) report to the commission for interview at the reasonable request of the commission;
- (2) furnish the commission with information it requests that is reasonably related to placing the registrant in suitable employment;
- (3) apply for suitable employment as directed by the commission;
- (4) accept any offer of suitable employment; and
- (5) continue in suitable employment obtained after registration until:
 - (A) the work becomes unsuitable;
 - (B) he becomes exempt from the registration requirement as provided in Section 4 of this Act; or
 - (C) he is terminated from the employment due to circumstances beyond his control.

Review of Registrants; Notification of Welfare Department

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall establish a system of periodic review to determine whether registrants comply with Section 5 of this Act. In each case reviewed, the commission shall determine whether the registrant without good cause failed to comply. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(b) In determining suitability of employment, the commission shall consider the facts and circumstances relative to the particular registrant, including but not limited to his health, his training and education, the degree of risk to his health and safety, his experience and prior earnings, his prospects of securing work in his customary occupation, and the commuting distance and expense.

(c) Employment is not suitable if the commission determines that:

- (1) the compensation, work hours, or other conditions of work are substantially less favorable to the registrant than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;
- (2) as a condition of employment the registrant is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining a labor organization;
- (3) the work site is subject to a strike or lockout at the time of the offer of employment;
- (4) the degree of risk to the registrant's health or safety is unreasonable;
- (5) the registrant is physically or mentally unfit to perform the work;
- (6) the commuting distance is unreasonable; or

(7) the employment fails to satisfy standards established under applicable federal law.

(d) If the final decision of the commission is that a registrant failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause, the commission promptly shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the decision. However, if the registrant appeals the decision, the commission shall delay notification pending the final outcome of the appeal.

Loss of AFDC Eligibility; Reinstatement

Sec. 7. (a) If a registrant has failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause as determined by the commission, the registrant is ineligible to receive AFDC payments. The ineligibility takes effect on the date the commission's decision on the matter becomes final.

(b) AFDC ineligibility resulting from the application of Subsection (a) of this section continues until the registrant's eligibility is reinstated by the commission.

(c) On application by a registrant for reinstatement of AFDC eligibility in the manner prescribed by rule of the commission, the commission shall determine whether to reinstate eligibility.

(d) The commission shall reinstate AFDC eligibility if it finds that the registrant, after having lost eligibility under Subsection (a) of this section, obtained employment of at least 30 hours a week. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(e) On reinstatement of a registrant's AFDC eligibility, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the reinstatement.

Deduction for Unsuccessful Appeal

Sec. 8. (a) If the final outcome of a registrant's appeal of a decision made by the commission under Section 6 of this Act upholds the commission's decision, the department of public welfare shall deduct the amount of AFDC payments made to the registrant during the pendency of the appeal from any future AFDC payments made to the registrant.

(b) In each case in which a deduction is required under Subsection (a) of this section, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the time elapsed between the rendering of the commission's decision and the reviewing court's judgment.

Hearings

Sec. 9. The commission, a hearing examiner appointed by the commission, or an appeal tribunal established under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act (Article 5221b-22b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) may conduct an adjudicative hearing held under this Act.

Venue of Appeal

Sec. 10. Venue in an appeal of a decision made by the commission under this Act is in the district court of the county in which the registrant resides.

Sec. 11. [Adds § 19-B to art. 695c]

Delayed Effective Date

Sec. 12. Sections 5 through 11 of this Act take effect March 1, 1978. Otherwise, this Act takes effect September 1, 1977.

Sunset Provision

Sec. 13. Unless reenacted, the provisions of this Act shall be without effect after August 31, 1987.

[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 749, ch. 281, §§ 1 to 4, 12, 13, eff. Sept. 1, 1977. Amended by §§ 5 to 11, eff. March 1, 1978.]

TITLE 21

BOND INVESTMENT COMPANIES

- Art.
696. Deposit.
697. Default of Deposit.
698. Receiver.
699. Interchange of Deposit.
700. Return of Deposit.
700a. Penalty for Violation of Laws.

Art. 696. Deposit

Each corporation, company or individual, doing business in this State as a bond investment company, or company to place or sell bonds, certificates or debentures on the partial payment or installment plan, shall deposit with the State Treasurer, in cash or securities approved by said Treasurer, the sum of five thousand dollars, and shall deposit semi-annually with said Treasurer, in cash or securities, to be approved by said officer, ten percent of all net premiums received until the sum deposited amounts to one hundred thousand dollars.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 697. Default of Deposit

If any such domestic corporation, shall fail, for sixty days after its organization, to make with the State Treasurer the deposit required by this title, it shall be considered to have forfeited its charter; and the Attorney General shall upon information thereof, bring suit in the name of the State to have such charter or certificate of incorporation declared forfeited, and the court, upon so finding, shall declare such charter forfeited and appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be, under the order of the court, to distribute to the shareholders the assets of the company. The court shall out of such assets make equitable compensation for the receiver.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 698. Receiver

In case of the failure of any such company, the district court of the county in which the principal office is located, upon the application of one or more shareholders, shall appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be to wind up its affairs, liquidate its debts, and distribute its assets, using therefor, upon the order of the court, the deposit previously made with the State Treasurer to secure the shareholders. Said Treasurer is authorized to pay out such deposit upon the warrant of the Comptroller in accordance with requisitions made upon the Comptroller by said receiver, approved by the court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 699. Interchange of Deposit

On request of any such company, the State Treasurer is authorized to permit such company to interchange cash for the securities or securities for the cash deposited by such company under the provisions of this title with said Treasurer, such securities always to be approved by said Treasurer on the written advice of the Attorney General.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 700. Return of Deposit

If any such company shall cease to do business in this State and satisfy the Comptroller and the Attorney General that it has no liabilities in this State, the Comptroller shall issue his warrant to the State Treasurer; and said Treasurer upon such warrant of the Comptroller, shall return to such company the cash or securities deposited by it under the provisions of this title.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 700a. Penalty for Violation of Laws

Any officer, agent, or representative of any domestic or foreign corporation or company doing business in this State as a bond investment company or company to place or sell bonds, certificates or debentures on the partial payment or installment plan, who shall attempt to place or sell shares or transact any business in the name of or on behalf of such company while it fails to comply with the laws of this State requiring deposits to be made with the State Treasurer, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both.

Art. 701. Shall Hold Election

The bonds of a county or an incorporated city or town shall never be issued for any purpose unless a proposition for the issuance of such bonds shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters who are property tax payers of such county, city or town.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 702. Question Submitted

In all cases when the governing body of a county, city or town shall order an election for the issuance of the bonds of the county, city or town or of any political subdivision or defined district of a county, city or town, such body shall at the same time submit the question of whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of such county, city or town, political subdivision or defined district for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds and to create a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds. Bonds issued by the governing body of any such county, city or town, political subdivision or defined district whether required by law to be submitted to the Attorney General for approval or not, may be submitted by such governing body to the Attorney General for his approval in the manner provided for the approval of bonds issued by counties, cities, towns, and in case such bonds are so submitted to the Attorney General they shall be examined by him and approved or disapproved in accordance with laws governing bonds issued by counties, cities or towns, and if approved, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller as is provided in such laws.

Art. 703. Submission of Proposition

The proposition to be submitted shall distinctly specify:

1. The purpose for which the bonds are to be issued;
2. The amount thereof;
3. The rate of interest;
4. The levy of taxes sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity;
5. The maturity date, or that the bonds may be issued to mature serially within any given number of years not to exceed forty.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 703a. Use of Bond Proceeds for Other Purposes; Election

This Act shall apply to all cities, including, but not limited to, home rule cities, which have heretofore issued, sold and delivered bonds for a specific purpose or purposes and such purpose or purposes have been accomplished by other means or have been abandoned and all or a portion of such bond proceeds remain unexpended. In such cases, the governing body of each such city shall be authorized to call and hold an election, in the same manner provided for calling and holding bond elections, for the purpose of submitting to the duly qualified resident electors of such city who own taxable property within said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation the proposition of whether or not such unexpended funds may be expended for other and different purposes specified in the election resolution or ordinance and the election notice. If a majority of those voting at such election vote in favor of the use of such unexpended funds for such designated purpose or purposes, then the governing body of such city shall be authorized to make such expenditures.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 4, ch. 4, § 1.]

Art. 703b. Use of Unexpended Bond Proceeds for Other Purposes; Election

This Act shall apply to all cities, including but not limited to, home rule cities, which have sold and delivered bonds for a specific purpose or purposes and such purpose or purposes have been accomplished by other means or have been abandoned and all or a portion of such bond proceeds remain unexpended. In such cases, the governing body of each such city shall be authorized to call and hold an election, in the same manner provided for calling and holding bond elections, for the purpose of submitting to the duly qualified resident electors of such city who own taxable property within said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation the proposition of whether or not such unexpended funds may be expended for other and different purposes specified in the election resolution or ordinance and the election notice. If a majority of those voting at such election vote in favor of the use of such unexpended funds for such designated purpose or purposes, then the governing body of such city shall be authorized to make such expenditures.

Art. 704. Time of Election; Notice of Election

The time and place or places of holding said election shall be designated in the election order, and such election shall be held not less than fifteen (15) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of such order. Notice of said election shall be given by posting a substantial copy of the election order at three (3) public places in such county, city, or town, and also at the county courthouse if for a county election and at the city hall if for a city or town election. Such notice shall also be published on the same day in each of two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within said county, city, or town, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for said election. The provisions of this Article shall control over any city charter provisions to the contrary. Except as herein provided, the manner of holding said election shall be governed by the laws governing general elections.

Art. 705. Form of Ballot

All voters desiring to support the proposition shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words "For the issuance of bonds," and those opposed, the words "Against the issuance of bonds."

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 705a. Cancellation of Unsold Bonds of Cities or Towns; Election

Sec. 1. Any incorporated city or town in this State, including cities incorporated under the Home Rule Provisions of the Constitution and Laws of Texas, which has heretofore or may hereafter vote in favor of or execute bonds which have been or may be unsold for a period of ten (10) or more years after the same have been or may be executed, may revoke and cancel such bonds at an election called by the governing body of any such city or town upon its own motion or upon petition of not less than ten per cent (10%) of the qualified property taxpaying voters voting in the last preceding city election, shall order an election to determine whether or not such bonds shall be revoked or cancelled. None but qualified taxpaying voters may vote at such an election. Such election shall be ordered and held on a date stated in such order not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of such order and notice thereof shall be given for fifteen (15) days before such election by publication of the notice thereof in some newspaper published in such city or town and such election shall be held and conducted in the same manner and form as required in elections to authorize the issuance of such bonds. Those voting to revoke and cancel such bonds shall have written or printed on their ballot: "FOR revocation of the bonds"; and those voting not to revoke or cancel such bonds shall have written or printed on their ballot: "AGAINST revocation of the bonds."

Sec. 2. The result of such election, whether favorable to the cancellation of such bonds or not, shall be duly recorded by the governing body of said city or town, and the returns thereof and the result duly entered on record in the minutes of said governing body, and in the event the result of such election for the cancellation and revocation of such bonds shall show that a majority of the qualified resident property taxpaying voters of such city or town, voting at such election, have voted for the cancellation and revocation of such unsold bonds, the governing body shall cancel and burn all such executed bonds, and forward to the Comptroller a certified copy of the minutes showing such revocation, cancellation and destruction. The Comptroller shall thereupon cancel the registration of said bonds on the records of his office.

Sec. 3. When said bonds have been destroyed the governing body of such city or town shall readjust the existing tax levies in such city or town by an amount equal to that levied or proposed to be levied for interest and sinking fund accounts of the bonds to be cancelled.

Sec. 4. After deducting any claims properly chargeable against such taxes, the unexpended part of all taxes that have been collected, with the view to the sale of such bonds as destroyed, shall be refunded to the taxpayers ratably upon order of the governing body. The City Treasurer shall take and file proper receipts for all funds so refunded.

Sec. 5. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as invalidating any bond election or any bonds which have been sold by such city or town.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 675, ch. 340.]

Art. 706. Maturity Dates

Bonds may be issued to mature serially within any given number of years not to exceed forty, within the discretion of the governing body issuing the same.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 707. Interest and Sinking Fund

When the issuance of bonds has been authorized, the governing body of a county or town shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds at maturity. Such bonds shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 708. Sale Price

Bonds shall never be sold at less than their par value and accumulated interest, exclusive of commissions.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 708a. Authorizing Sale of Securities to Reconstruction Finance Corporation

Whenever any county, district, city or town, or other municipality or defined subdivision of this State shall own bonds or other securities, or warrants, notes or other obligations or evidences of indebtedness of any other county, district, city or town, or other municipality or defined subdivision of this State, the same may be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other agency of the United States of America or department of the Federal Government at such price, whether or not less than the par or face amount thereof, as shall seem to the governing body of the seller to be reasonable and for the best interests of the seller.

Art. 708b. Defense Bonds and Other United States Obligations; Investment of Bond Proceeds by Political Subdivisions

That any political subdivision of the State of Texas which heretofore has issued and sold bonds and is unable to obtain labor and materials to carry out the purpose for which the bonds were issued may invest the proceeds of such bonds now on hand in defense bonds or other obligations of the United States of America; provided, however, that whenever war time or any other regulations shall permit such political subdivisions to acquire the necessary labor and materials, the obligations of the United States in which said proceeds are invested shall be sold or redeemed and the proceeds of said obligations shall be used for the purpose for which the bonds of any such political subdivision were authorized.

Art. 708b-1. Bond Proceeds Not Usable Because of Labor and Material Shortages; Investment in United States Obligations

Any political subdivision of the State of Texas which heretofore has issued and sold bonds and is unable to obtain labor and materials to carry out the purposes for which the bonds were issued may invest the proceeds of such bonds now on hand in government bonds or other obligations of the United States of America; provided, however, that whenever conditions shall permit such political subdivisions to acquire the necessary labor and materials the obligations of the United States in which said proceeds are invested shall be sold or redeemed and the proceeds of said obligations shall be used for the purposes for which the bonds of any such political subdivision were authorized.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 388, ch. 216, § 2. Amended by Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 710, ch. 373, § 1.]

Art. 709. Examination of Bonds, Etc.

Before any bonds shall be offered for sale, the county judge or the mayor, as the case may be, shall forward the bonds to the Attorney General, together with a certified copy of the order or ordinance levying the tax to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of the county, city or town, including the series of bonds proposed, together with the amount of the assessed value of the property of the county, city or town for purposes of taxation as shown by the last official assessment of such county, city or town. Such county judge or mayor shall also furnish the Attorney General with any additional information he may require.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 709a. Approval of Bonds of Improvement Districts of Home Rule Cities

Bonds issued by the governing body of any home rule city for and on behalf of an improvement district created within said city under the provisions of the home rule charter may be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval in the manner provided for the approval of bonds issued by cities and towns, and when so submitted such bonds shall be examined by the Attorney General and approved or disapproved in accordance with the laws governing bonds issued by cities and towns, and if approved, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller as in the case of bonds issued by cities and towns.

Art. 709b. Home Rule Cities; Validation of Bonds

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by any Home Rule City in the State of Texas which pledge the revenues of its water, sewer, or electric systems, or any combination of the revenues of such systems, and any and all proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of charter or statutory authority of such city, or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds and make such pledge of revenue or revenues, and notwithstanding the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the charter or statutes, and the issuance, sale and delivery of such bonds are hereby authorized and approved irrespective of the fact that any such city may be engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such city to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack in such suit or litigation; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered, in accordance with law, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations against the revenues so encumbered, and the bonds shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. This Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections where in a majority of the voting qualified property tax-paying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings or bonds, except insofar as such proceedings or bonds might be affected by any such city being engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such city, or the governing body thereof, to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to so function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 175, ch. 92.]

Art. 709c. Home Rule Cities; Advertising Bonds for Sale and Receipt of Bids Before Passage of Ordinance Authorizing Bond Issue

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any Home Rule City having a charter which provides that bonds issued by the city shall be advertised for sale after the bonds have been authorized and issued.

Sec. 2. In order for the city to receive competitive bids on the interest rate its bonds are to bear, as well as on the amount of the premium, the governing body of any city to which this Act is applicable shall advertise its bonds for sale and receive bids therefor before the passage of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Art. 709d. Offer for Sale of Bonds, Obligations and Pledges; Submission to Attorney General; Certificate of Validity

When any county bonds, or the bonds of any incorporated city, independent or common school district, road precinct, drainage, irrigation, navigation and levee districts, or obligations and pledges of the University of Texas are offered for sale, the party offering, or proposing to sell, such bonds, obligations, and pledges shall first submit them to the Attorney General, who shall carefully inspect and examine the same in connection with the law under which they were issued, and shall diligently inquire into the facts and circumstances so far as may be necessary to determine the validity thereof; and, upon being satisfied that such bonds, obligations, and pledges were issued in conformity with law, and that they are valid and binding obligations, he shall thereupon certify to their validity, and his certificate to that effect, so procured by the party offering such bonds, obligations, and pledges as the case may be, shall be submitted to the Comptroller or State Board of Education with the bonds, obligations, and pledges so offered for sale, and shall be carefully preserved by the Comptroller. If the same be purchased from the county, city, precinct, or district issuing the same or from the University of Texas, or from any person authorized to act for it in the negotiation or sale of the same, they shall thereafter be held to be valid and binding obligations in every action or proceeding in which their validity is or may be called in question, unless fraudulently issued, or issued in violation of the constitutional limitation. In every such action, such certificate of the Attorney General shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of such bonds, obligations, or pledges, and coupons thereto, which may have been so purchased.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 573, ch. 278, § 1. Renumbered from art. 2670 by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3024, ch. 994, § 16(a), eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 710. Registration

When said bonds have been examined and certified by the Attorney General, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 711. Special Registration

The Comptroller shall indorse his certificate of registration on each city bond so registered, and at the request of the mayor, give his certificate to the amount of bonds so registered to date.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 712. Certificate of Approval

The certificate of the Attorney General to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 713. Shall Cancel Old Bonds

In the case of funding or refunding bonds, the Comptroller shall not register the same until the original bonds are presented to him for cancellation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 714. Requisites of Cancellation

After registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall cancel the old, and deliver the new bonds to the proper party or parties. The old bonds may be presented for cancellation in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as herein provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 715. Evidence of Validity

Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General, and having been registered in the Comptroller's office, shall be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. In every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of its validity, together with the coupons attached thereto. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. This article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the Constitution, or contrary to its provisions.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 715a. Replacement for Damaged, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Bonds

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to (and the term "issuer" as used in this Act shall mean and include) the State of Texas, or any department, agency or instrumentality of the State of Texas or any county, municipal corporation, taxing district or other political district or subdivision of the State of Texas having power to borrow money and issue bonds.

Sec. 2. Any issuer may issue a replacement bond to be exchanged for any damaged or mutilated bond theretofore lawfully issued and which at the time of exchange is outstanding, and may also issue a replacement bond for any bond theretofore lawfully issued and which is outstanding to replace any such bond which has been destroyed, lost or stolen, without an election. Any bond issued to replace a destroyed, lost or stolen bond, shall be issued upon indemnity satisfactory to the issuer, and to the Trustee if such bond is secured by a Trust Indenture. The issuer may require an affidavit or any other form of evidence satisfactory to the issuer to establish proof of ownership and the circumstances of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or damage of such bond.

Sec. 3. Any bond issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be of like tenor and effect as the bond which it is issued to replace, except that such replacement bond shall bear a date specified by the issuer and shall be signed manually, or in facsimile, as provided by law, by the officers of the issuer holding office at the time of issuance of the replacement bond.

Sec. 4. Any such replacement bond shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval. If the Attorney General finds that such bond has been issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act he shall approve same and shall transmit any such bond to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for registration. The Comptroller shall register any such replacement bond in the same manner as the original bond was registered, giving it the same registration number as the original bond, except that such number shall be preceded by the letter R. The Comptroller shall date his registration certificate as of the date of registration of the replacement bond. Prior to registration of a bond issued to replace a mutilated or damaged bond, the Comptroller shall cancel the bond being replaced and return same to the issuer. The Comptroller shall register other bonds authorized herein upon certification from the Attorney General that such bond is being issued to replace a bond which has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Sec. 5. This Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws relating to the issuance of bonds.

[Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 701, ch. 334, eff. Aug. 30, 1965.]

Art. 715b. Bond Registration Act

Citation of Act

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Bond Registration Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Comptroller" means the comptroller of public accounts.

(2) "Fully registrable" means, with reference to the public securities, that the principal of and interest on such securities are payable only to the registered owner thereof, the principal thereof being payable upon presentation of the securities at the place of payment and the interest thereon being payable to the registered owner at the most recent address of said registered owner shown on the books of the registrar.

(3) "Issuer" means the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, authority, or any other political corporation of the State of Texas having the authority to issue public securities.

(4) "Public securities" means bonds, notes, certificates of obligation, certificates of indebtedness, or other obligations for the payment of money lawfully issued by an issuer.

(5) "Registered owner" means the payee named in a fully registrable public security, his legal representative or successor.

(6) "Registrar" means the comptroller of public accounts or a commercial bank or issuer-registrar meeting the requirements of this Act which is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing public securities.

(7) "Issuer-Registrar" shall mean an incorporated city, operating under a home-rule charter adopted pursuant to Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas, and having a population in excess of 100,000 according to the most recent official census published by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, which is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing issuance of its public securities.

Form of Public Securities; Denomination

Sec. 3. (a) Any issuer may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities that such public securities may be in a form:

(1) having appertaining thereto coupons and being unregistrable;

(2) having appertaining thereto coupons and being registrable as to principal only; or

(3) being fully registrable. Such proceedings may provide that public securities of the same issue or series may be of one or more of such types and may be exchangeable in whole or in part for one or more of such types.

(b) Any issuer may also provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities that such public securities shall be in a form having initially appertaining thereto coupons and being permitted to become fully registrable in accordance with Section 5 of this Act.

(c) Public securities may be issued in any denomination or denominations, provided that if such public securities are authorized to be in a denomination or denominations in excess of $1,000, they shall be in a denomination or denominations that are multiples of $1,000.

Registrar of Securities; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 4. If the proceedings authorizing public securities provide that such securities can be fully registrable, the registrar therefor shall be the comptroller, an issuer-registrar, or a banking corporation or association at which the principal of such public securities shall be payable. They may be registered under such reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as such proceedings may provide.

Comptroller as Registrar: Attachment or Removal of Coupons

Sec. 5. If the comptroller of public accounts is named the registrar in proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities, in accordance with such proceedings such public securities may be originally issued with coupons appertaining thereto and subsequently become fully registrable by the removal by the comptroller of the coupons appertaining thereto upon the presentation of the securities to the comptroller, and may be originally issued fully registrable and subsequently become public securities with coupons appertaining thereto by attachment of the coupons appertaining thereto by the comptroller upon presentation of such securities to the comptroller. Such attachment and removal may occur successively from time to time. No matured coupon will be attached or reattached by the comptroller.

Exchange or Change in Form of Securities

Sec. 6. (a) If the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities provide or have heretofore provided that such public securities having appertaining thereto coupons or being fully registrable may be exchanged or such public securities change form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with Section 5 hereof, and such public securities on initial issuance are approved by the attorney general in accordance with law and registered by the comptroller, upon exchange or their change in form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with this Act, it shall not be necessary for the attorney general to again approve and it shall not be necessary for the comptroller to again register such public securities, resulting from such exchange or change in form, but the public securities resulting from such exchange or change in form shall as a matter of law be considered as having been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller.

(b) If such public securities are exchanged, the registrar shall cause to be placed on the public securities received in exchange an appropriate inscription manually signed verifying that the public securities received in exchange are in lieu of the public securities presented for exchange.

Change of Registered Owner or Address; Replacement for Damaged, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Bonds: Form and Identity Changes

Sec. 7. (a) If the comptroller is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities, upon the change on the registration books of the registrar of the registered owner or his address, the comptroller shall notify all places of payment with reference to such change or changes.

(b) In the event application is made to the comptroller for the replacement of damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen bonds, pursuant to Chapter 334, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 715a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and any such bond or bonds as described in said application do not appear in the comptroller's records in the form and bear the identity as originally registered by the comptroller, the applicant for such replacement shall furnish the comptroller a chronology of the changes from the original, registered form and identity as to enable the comptroller, under regulations promulgated by him to effect such purpose, to trace the changes in form and identity by such chronology, of such bond or bonds into the original, registered form and identity.

Cost and Expenses for Registration and Exchange of Securities

Sec. 8. Where the proceedings authorizing public securities provide for public securities to be fully registrable whether initially or through exchange or conversion, such proceedings shall provide to the extent the issuer is to pay the cost and expenses in connection with the registration and exchange of such public securities including the fees of the registrar therein named. The comptroller shall adopt reasonable regulations for his performing the services provided for herein, and shall publish a schedule of fees for performing such services.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 9. (a) The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws or parts of laws, general or special, and specifically are not intended to qualify the Texas Uniform Commercial Code or limit the negotiability of public securities as provided therein.

(b) In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of any city charter the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Severability

Sec. 10. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person, political subdivision, or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this Act, which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of the Act are declared to be severable.

[Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 1132, ch. 431, § 1, eff. June 19, 1975. Amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 5288, ch. 972, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1983.]

Section 2 of the 1983 amendatory act provides:

"If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or other part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall ever be held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, the remainder of the Act and application of such word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or other part of this Act to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby."

Art. 716. Validity of Certain Bonds

No bonds or coupons legally and lawfully issued and signed by the duly authorized officers of any county, city, town, political subdivision, defined district, water improvement district or water control district or any school district of this State, shall ever be held invalid by reason of the fact that at the time of the actual delivery of such bonds to a purchaser, such bonds or coupons had been signed or executed by different officers acting in the same capacity or when such bonds or coupons had been signed or executed by officers who had succeeded other officers who had executed or signed a part of said bonds or coupons, nor shall any such bonds ever be held invalid by reason of the fact that at the time of the actual delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, the respective persons who had signed such bonds or coupons, or any part thereof, may have been replaced in their respective offices by other persons after the signing of such bonds or coupons or any part thereof and before the delivery thereof, and any officer acting in the same official capacity as his predecessor, shall have the same right to complete the execution of such bonds and their issuance in the manner and form as provided by law and to the same extent as did his predecessor and it shall be lawful for the official board or managing body of any such political subdivision or district to select in the manner provided by law another official or person in whom may be vested the authority and duty of the execution of such bonds and/or coupons and of issuing such bonds and completing the record in respect thereto, provided, however, such action or actions shall be set forth in the records of said subdivision or district.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 237, ch. 6, § 1.]

Art. 716a. Validating Municipal Bond Issues

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as "The 1935 Validating Act."

Sec. 2. The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meaning:

(a) The term "public body" means a Water Control and Improvement District, Water Improvement District, Irrigation District, Conservation and Reclamation District, Navigation District, Road District, School District, County, City or Incorporated town of this State.

(b) The term "bonds" includes bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, temporary bonds, temporary notes, interim receipts, interim certificates and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness, or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money, or evidencing or representing a charge, lien or encumbrance on specific revenues, income or property of a public body, or including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

Sec. 3. All bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of any work, undertaking or project by any public body to which any loan or grant has heretofore been made by the United States of America through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of such work, undertaking or project, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds, and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power (other than constitutional) of such public body, or the governing board or commission or officers thereof, to authorize and issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than constitutional) in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

Sec. 4. Provided however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings, or bonds or other obligations issued by virtue thereof, where the validity of any such proceedings or obligations or bonds issued thereunder has been contested or attacked in any pending suit or litigation.

Art. 716b. Validating County Bond Issues and Elections Between June 19 and August 17, 1936

All proceedings heretofore had by the governing bodies of all counties, between June 19, 1936 and August 17, 1936, both inclusive, in the State of Texas in connection with the issuance of bonds for any purpose, including the orders for and notices of elections, the conduct and returns of elections, and the canvassing of such returns of such elections, and the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant thereto, are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized, including among others, instances wherein there have been irregularities in the calling of elections and the giving of notice of elections, notwithstanding the fact that the election order designated a time for holding the election on a day more than thirty (30) days from the date of such order, and notwithstanding the fact that the notice of election was posted within such county instead of having been both posted and published in a newspaper of general circulation, and not withstanding the fact that both such irregularities have occurred in connection with the same election. All bonds issued pursuant to such proceedings, when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers thereof, shall constitute valid and binding obligations of such county. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds, are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings or obligations issued thereunder, the validity of which is being contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, or that may be filed sixty (60) days after the effective date hereof and shall not validate any levy, assessment of valuation made or placed on any property where any suit, as aforementioned, shall be or shall have been filed within the time aforementioned. [Acts 1936, 44th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 2098, ch. 504, § 1.]

Art. 717. Exceptions

The first three Articles of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall not apply to refunding bonds issued, or to be issued, for the refunding of any valid outstanding bonds of a county, city, or town; nor to any bond issue for a sum less than Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars, when issued for the purpose of repairing buildings or structures for the building of which bonds are allowed to be issued; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of bond issues for the repairing of such buildings and structures shall never in any one calendar year exceed Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 67, ch. 40, § 1.]

Art. 717a. Refunding Indebtedness of Unorganized Counties Since Organized

Issuance of Refunding Bonds; Taxes and Sinking Fund

Sec. 1. That the Commissioners Court of any organized county in this State which was unorganized at the time¹ taking the next preceding United States Census, and which had a population of less than one hundred at the time of said census, is authorized and empowered to fund into the bonds of any such county such legal indebtedness of the county which is evidenced by the legally issued and outstanding warrants and scrip of such county issued for any purpose, as authorized by law, and which indebtedness existed on January 1st 1929. Said refunding bonds may be issued by the Commissioners court of any such county, payable serially or otherwise, within a period of time not exceeding forty years as the court may direct, and shall bear interest at a rate of not more than six per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually; the rate of interest and payment dates to be determined by the Commissioners Court of such counties, to be issued in such denominations as may be prescribed by the Commissioners Court of such counties. At the time of the passage of an order of the Commissioners Court, authorizing the issuance of such bonds, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners Court of such counties to levy an annual Ad Valorem tax on all taxable property within the county sufficient to provide for the payment of the interest on such bonds and to create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal thereof as it matures; and in such cases it shall not be necessary to submit the question of the issuance of said refunding bonds to a vote of the people. The Commissioners Court of such counties are¹ authorized to issue said bonds in exchange for like amounts of the outstanding warrants or scrip of said counties as existed on January 1st 1929. Said bonds, when executed shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and shall be registered by the Comptroller as in the case of other legally authorized refunding bonds.

Limitation on Warrants or Indebtedness

Sec. 2. From and after the taking effect of this act, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioners Court of any county coming within the provisions of this act to issue or cause to be issued any warrants, scrip, or evidence of indebtedness, or to create any debt against the road and bridge fund of such county, except as authorized by this act, in excess of the current revenues for said county road and bridge purposes; provided that in case of great calamity or urgent public necessity, said court may issue warrants against the road and bridge fund in excess of the current revenues for the purpose of repairing roads and building bridges occasioned by such calamity or urgent public necessity, but in no instance shall such warrants exceed the limitations provided by the constitution and laws of this State; and provided further that no warrant shall be issued for such purposes until first authorized by order passed by said court, and provided further that said order shall recite fully the necessity therefor and particularly specify the several purposes for which said warrants are to be issued, which said order shall be published at least one time in some newspaper published in said county before said warrants are issued. If no newspaper is being published in said county, then in some newspaper in an adjoining county nearest the county seat of said county.

¹ So in enrolled bill.

Art. 717a-1. Refunding Indebtedness of Counties of 100,000 or More; Taxes; Sinking Fund

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State, having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall have the power to issue bonds for the purpose of refunding any and all outstanding indebtedness of such county, chargeable against the General Fund which existed on April 30, 1941. Items of indebtedness as of said date, in the form of scrip or time warrants, either or both, may be included in such refunding bond issue. Such refunding bonds may be issued by the Court payable serially, or otherwise, within a period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years as the Court may direct, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five (5) per centum per annum, interest payable annually or semiannually as may be determined by the Court; provided, however, that the amount of bonds issued under this Act shall never reach an amount where a tax of Five (5) Cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity; and, provided further, that said refunding bonds shall have been first authorized by a majority vote cast by the duly qualified property taxpaying voters voting at an election held for that purpose.

Sec. 2. That said Commissioners Courts are further authorized and empowered to levy (within the maximum rate hereinabove prescribed) a tax upon all real and personal property situated in such county, out of the tax of Twenty-five (25) Cents authorized for county purposes by Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of Texas, sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds, if voted or authorized as herein provided, and no bonds shall be issued under this Act until a tax levy, as herein provided, shall have been made, and when said levy shall have been so made, the same shall continue in force until the whole amount of the principal of and interest on such bonds shall have been fully paid.

Sec. 3. The general laws relative to county refunding bonds, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall apply to the issuance, approval, and certification, and the registration of the bonds provided for in this Act.

Sec. 4. If any section, clause, or phrase of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portion of this Act.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 793, ch. 492.]

Art. 717b. Borrowing from Federal Agencies

Any governmental agency and/or municipality of the State of Texas, heretofore authorized to borrow money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under Acts of the 43rd Legislature and prior Acts is also authorized to borrow money in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of the 43rd Legislature and prior Acts from any other Federal Agency now or to be hereafter created.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 601, ch. 198, § 1.]

Art. 717c. Counties Authorized to Borrow from Federal Agencies and to Levy Tax to Repay Indebtedness

Borrowing and Receiving Grants Authorized; Restrictions

Sec. 1. All counties in this State acting by and through their respective Commissioners Courts may borrow money and/or receive grants of money from the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or any other Federal agency that may be provided for similar purposes under the terms and provisions, and in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the Congress of the United States commonly known as the "National Industrial Recovery Act."¹ Provided that all actions taken by the Commissioners Courts in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be done in accordance with, and subject to all the restrictions of Chapter 163 of the Acts of the Forty-second Legislature,² and nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing any of the provisions of House Bill No. 312, passed by the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature.²

Security for Repayment

Sec. 2. When any such money is borrowed as authorized and provided in Section 1 hereof for any purpose for which counties in this State may create an indebtedness and levy a tax to pay such indebtedness under the Constitution and laws of this State the repayment of such loan by such county making the loan may be secured in the following manner:

(a) Such county or counties may sell or pledge its bonds to the United States of America acting through the Federal Emergency Administrator of the Public Works or other Federal Agency at not less than par value and accrued interest; and/or

(b) Such counties may issue their negotiable warrants or certificates of indebtedness and sell the same to the United States of America acting through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or other Federal Agency at not less than par value and accrued interest; and/or

(c) Such counties may convey the site on which any county project is located to the United States of America acting through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or other Federal Agency and lease said county project from the United States of America acting through such Administrator or other Federal Agency at such rental as will repay such loan within the time agreed upon, at which time title to such project shall vest in such county.

Bonds or Security Approved by Attorney General; Contest of Validity

Sec. 3. In all instances where the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or other Federal Agency delivers to any county officer or agent authorized to receive the same the consideration or money for which the security provided for herein is given and such money is so received such counties may not thereafter contest the validity of any such security except for fraud or forgery; provided, however, that such bonds or other security herein provided for is first approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, whose duty it shall be to pass upon any such security to be given by any such county to the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works or other Federal Agency.

Expiration Date

Sec. 4. Any contract or agreement made and entered into by any such county under the authority and provisions of this Act shall be valid and in full force and effect for the period of time provided for in said contract and agreement made by such county.

Construction as to Existing Law

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of any existing laws; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall apply wherever there is any conflict with any other law or laws during the period of the existence of this Act.

[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 298, ch. 109. Amended by Acts 1935, 44th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1652, ch. 423, §§ 1, 3.]

Art. 717d. Validating County Bonds for Road Construction and Tax Levies

Sec. 1. Where, under authority of Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers, being qualified electors of any county voting on the proposition, having voted at an election held in such county called by the County Commissioners' Court of such county, in favor of the issuance of bonds of such county and the levy of a tax upon the taxable property therein for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and providing a sinking fund for redemption thereof for the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads or turnpikes, or in aid thereof within such county, the canvass of said vote, revealing such majority having been recorded in the minutes of said County Commissioners' Court, and where thereafter the County Commissioners' Court of each such county, by order adopted and recorded in its minutes, authorized the issuance of such bonds of such county, prescribed the date and maturity thereof and rate of interest the bonds were to bear, the place of payment of principal and interest, and providing for the levy of a tax upon the valuation of taxable property in each such county according to the value thereof as fixed for State and County purposes, sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to produce a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at maturity, and such bonds were approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and thereafter issued and delivered, each such election and all acts and proceedings had and taken in connection therewith by such County Commissioners' Court in respect of such bonds, levy of taxes, construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads or turnpikes, or in aid thereof, are hereby legalized, approved and validated; and such bonds are hereby validated and constitute the legal obligations of such county. Any such county bonds heretofore voted and authorized, as aforesaid, and not yet issued, may be issued and delivered by order of the County Commissioners' Court of such county when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and such bonds shall constitute the valid and binding obligation of such county.

Sec. 2. Taxes, sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon such bonds, so levied for such purpose upon the valuation of taxable property in such County, according to the value of taxable property as determined for State and County purposes, are hereby found and fixed as the amount to be raised in each such county, and constitute the basis for such taxation, and the assessment and levy of such taxes is hereby validated and legalized; and such taxes, in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon such bonds now outstanding, or hereafter issued, as aforesaid, shall be annually assessed and collected according to the value of taxable property as fixed for State and County taxes, by the County Commissioners' Court of each such county and express authority so to do is hereby delegated and granted to such courts.

Sec. 3. Such orders, and all other orders adopted by such County Commissioners' Court in respect of such bonds and taxes, as the same appear upon the record of such court, or copies thereof duly certified, are hereby constituted legal evidence of such orders, and shall be authority for such court to annually levy, assess and collect taxes in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon such bonds as the same mature and became due, such taxes to be levied and assessed upon the value of taxable property in such county as fixed for state and county taxes.

Sec. 4. The legislature hereby exercises the authority upon it conferred by Section 52, of Article 3, of the Texas Constitution, and confirms and ratifies the acts and proceedings of such courts in respect of such election, authorization, issuance and delivery of such bonds, the levy of taxes to pay principal thereof and interest thereon, with like effect, as though at the time or times said acts and proceedings were done or had, there existed statutory authority for the doing thereof. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any proceedings, levies, or to any bonds or warrants issued thereunder, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in suit or litigation which is pending at the time this Act becomes a law.

Art. 717e. Validating Bonds and Proceedings of Water Improvement Districts, Drainage Districts, and Other Districts and Cities, Towns, etc., Issued for Loans or Grants by Federal Agencies

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as "The 1939 Validating Act."

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(a) The term "public body" includes a Water Control and Improvement District, Water Improvement District, Irrigation District, Conservation and Reclamation District, Drainage District, Levee District, Navigation District, Road District, School District, County, City or Incorporated Town or Village of this State.

(b) The term "bonds" includes bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, temporary bonds, temporary notes, interim receipts, interim certificates and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness, or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money, or evidencing or representing a charge, lien or encumbrance on specific revenues, income or property of a public body, or including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

Sec. 3. All bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of any work, undertaking or project by any public body to or for the benefit of which, any loan or grant or both has been made heretofore by the United States of America through the Federal Emergency Administration (or Administrator) of Public Works or the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of such work, undertaking or project, or for the purpose of funding or refunding previously existing indebtedness, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds, the provisions made for the payment thereof, and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are hereby validated notwithstanding any lack of previous legislative authorization to such public body, or the governing body thereof, to issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than constitutional) in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body. All bonds heretofore authorized for such purposes by an election or by action of the governing body of a public body to or for which a loan or grant, or both has been made by the United States of America through the Federal Emergency Administration (or Administrator) of Public Works, or the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, shall, when issued (and when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts if such approval and registration are authorized by statute) be binding legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body, notwithstanding any lack of previous legislative authorization, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than constitutional) in such proceedings, or in the execution, sale or delivery thereof.

Sec. 4. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings, or bonds or other obligations issued by virtue thereof, where the validity of any such proceedings, or obligations or bonds issued thereunder has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation instituted prior to the delivery of such bonds to the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works or the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 717f. Validation of Election Revoking Authority to Issue Bonds

Sec. 1. All elections ordered by the Commissioners Courts of any and all counties for the purpose of revoking or cancelling the authority of such Courts to issue bonds (which bonds have been previously authorized at an election wherein a majority of the qualified property-taxpaying voters who had duly rendered the same for taxation voting at such election voted in favor of such bonds, but which bonds have not been issued) and in which election or elections a majority of the qualified property-taxpaying voters who had duly rendered the same for taxation voting at such election or elections voted in favor of such revocation or cancellation, are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. Any and all acts of the Commissioners Courts and other county officials in levying and collecting taxes in anticipation of the issuance of any such bonds, the authority of the Commissioners Courts to issue such bonds having been so revoked or cancelled subsequent to such levy, are hereby in all things validated, and such taxes shall be placed in the constitutional fund out of which such taxes were levied and collected.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 181, ch. 98.]

Art. 717g. Revocation or Cancellation of Authority to Issue Bonds

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county and the governing body of any incorporated city or town, including Home Rule Cities, are hereby empowered and authorized to order an election or elections for the purpose of determining whether the authority to issue bonds theretofore voted but which have not at the time of ordering such election been sold and delivered shall be revoked or canceled. The authority granted by this Act shall apply to unsold and undelivered bonds whether the same constitute all or only a portion of an issue. Such election shall be ordered, held, and conducted in the same form and manner and under the same procedure as that at which such bonds were originally authorized. All voters desiring to support the proposition shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words:

“FOR the revocation of bonds”; and those opposed, the words: “AGAINST the revocation of bonds.”

If the revocation election covers bonds of more than one voted issue, there shall be a separate proposition pertaining to the bonds of each voted issue.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court or the governing body of the city or town shall pass an order or resolution canvassing the returns, and if the election carries by the vote required under the statutes under which the bonds were originally voted, the authority to issue such bonds shall thereupon be revoked and canceled. If the bonds have been printed the Commissioners Court or governing body shall destroy the bonds by canceling and burning the same. If said bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller, a certified copy of the order or resolution and the minutes pertaining thereto shall be forwarded to said Attorney General and Comptroller. If the bonds have not been printed, a certified copy of the order or resolution showing that the authority to issue such bonds has been revoked and canceled and the minutes pertaining thereto shall be forwarded to the Attorney General.

Art. 717h. Bonds for Repair or Improvement of Toll Bridge Across Rio Grande

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities, which own the portion of an international toll bridge over the Rio Grande River which is situated within the United States of America. Any such city or town may from time to time issue bonds payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of such bridge for the purpose of repairing or improving the bridge, acquiring approaches thereto, and constructing buildings to be used in connection therewith, or for any of such purposes. Such bonds shall be issued in conformity with and subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Sec. 2. Where there are outstanding bonds payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of such bridge, additional revenue bonds are permitted or authorized by the provisions of the outstanding bonds and the proceedings relating to such outstanding bonds. The additional bonds shall be issued to the extent and under the conditions provided by the provisions of the outstanding bonds and the proceedings relative thereto, including any trust indenture securing the outstanding bonds, and such additional bonds may be secured by a pledge of and lien on the net revenues junior to the pledge and lien securing the outstanding bonds, or by a pledge of and lien on the net revenues on a parity with such outstanding bonds, depending upon the provisions of said outstanding bonds and the proceedings relative thereto.

Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this Act. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 805, ch. 449.]

Art. 717i. Validation of County Bond Elections for Flood Control, Drainage or Irrigation; Issuance of Bonds Under Election Previously Ordered

Sec. 1. All county-wide election proceedings heretofore had for the issuance of bonds by the county for the purposes of improving rivers, creeks and streams for the prevention of overflows, for necessary drainage purposes in connection therewith, for constructing and maintaining lakes, pools, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for purposes of irrigation, or in aid thereof, or purchasing improvements already existing and adding thereto, and incidental expenses in connection therewith, including the acquisition of right of way for flood control and the site or sites for dams or other structures to prevent overflows and to provide necessary drainage, constructing flood control systems or aiding therein, and constructing canal systems or aiding therein, are hereby in all things validated. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, petitions heretofore presented to the Commissioners Court praying for an election for the issuance of bonds for any or all of said purposes, orders or resolutions of the Commissioners Court heretofore passed or adopted ordering an election or elections to authorize the issuance of bonds for said purposes, election notices heretofore given, and the like, are hereby in all things validated, provided, that this validating section shall not be effective as to litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All county-wide bond elections heretofore called and held for the issuance of county bonds for any or all of said purposes at which elections not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters whose property had been duly rendered for taxation, voting at said election, voted in favor of said bonds are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 3. All bonds for said purposes, the election for the authorization of which has heretofore been ordered by the Commissioners Court, but which election has not been held by the time that this Act becomes effective, may be issued if at the election not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters whose property has been duly rendered for taxation, voting at said election, shall vote in favor of the issuance thereof, and said bonds, and bonds which have heretofore been authorized at an election as provided in Section 2 of this Act but which bonds have not yet been issued, shall be issued in accordance with the applicable general laws governing the issuance of county bonds, being Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended.¹ Such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General for approval, and if he approves the same, they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, as provided by general law. After said bonds are approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller, and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers thereof for not less than their par value and accrued interest, they shall thereafter be incontestable. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be refunded either through option provisions contained in such bonds or with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, at the same or lower rate of interest, said refunding bonds to mature serially in not to exceed forty (40) years, and said refunding bonds to be issued in the same manner as provided for and with the same effect as the original bonds, provided, however, that no election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of said refunding bonds.

Sec. 4. Bonds issued under this Act are hereby declared to be bonds issued by counties under the authority of Section 52, Article III, Constitution of Texas, or by counties as conservation and reclamation districts under the authority of Section 59, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, and the petition praying for the election to authorize the issuance of said bonds shall determine under which of said Constitutional provisions said bonds are issued or to be issued.

Art. 717j. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 406, ch. 204, § 9

Art. 717j-1. Texas Uniform Facsimile Signature of Public Officials Act

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Public security" means a bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, or other obligation for the payment of money, issued by this state, its political subdivisions, or by any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state or its political subdivisions.

(b) "Instrument of payment" means a check, draft, warrant, or order for the payment, delivery, or transfer of funds.

(c) "Certificate of assessment" means any certificate or instrument, evidencing a special assessment, issued by any agency or political subdivision of this state which is authorized by law to levy such assessments.

(d) "Authorized officer" means any official of this state, its political subdivisions, or any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state or its political subdivisions whose signature to a public security, eligible contract, instrument of payment or certificate of assessment is required or permitted.

(e) "Facsimile signature" means a reproduction by engraving, imprinting, lithographing, stamping, or other means of the manual signature of an authorized officer.

(f) "Eligible contract" means any written contract, purchase order, surety bond, or other written evidence of agreement and any application, certificate, approval, or other document related thereto (other than a public security or instrument of payment) executed, authenticated, certified, or endorsed for or on behalf of any home-rule city with a population of 1,200,000 or more, according to the last preceding or any future federal census.

Facsimile Signature

Sec. 2. If the use of a facsimile signature is authorized by the board, body, or officer empowered by law to authorize the issuance of the public securities, instruments of payment or certificates of assessment, or, in the case of an eligible contract, if the use of a facsimile signature is authorized by the governing body of the city, any authorized officer may execute, authenticate, certify, or endorse, or cause to be executed, authenticated, certified, or endorsed with a facsimile signature in lieu of his manual signature:

(a) Any public security, provided that at least one signature required or permitted to be placed thereon shall be manually subscribed;

(b) Any instrument of payment;

(c) Any certificate of assessment; and

(d) Any eligible contract.

In any suit or legal action instituted against the officer whose name is affixed under the provisions of this Act, it shall not be a defense that such name was affixed to any public security, eligible contract, instrument of payment or certificate of assessment, as herein defined, without his authority or consent. Upon compliance with this Act by the authorized officer, his facsimile signature has the same legal effect as his manual signature.

However, as to a public security required to be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, only his signature or that of a deputy designated in writing to act for the Comptroller is required to be manually subscribed to such public security or to a certificate thereon.

Facsimile Seal

Sec. 3. When the seal of this state, its political subdivisions, or any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state or its political subdivisions is required in the execution, authentication, certification, or endorsement of a public security, eligible contract, instrument of payment or certificate of assessment, the authorized officer may cause the seal to be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped, or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The facsimile seal has the same legal effect as the impression of the seal.

Penalty

Sec. 4. Any person who with intent to defraud uses on a public security, an eligible contract, an instrument of payment or a certificate of assessment:

(a) A facsimile signature, or any reproduction of it, of any authorized officer; or

(b) Any facsimile seal, or any reproduction of it, of this state, its political subdivisions, or any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state or its political subdivisions shall upon conviction be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years.

Uniformity of Interpretation

Sec. 5. This Act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Short Title

Sec. 6. This Act may be cited as the Texas Uniform Facsimile Signature of Public Officials Act.

Severability Clause

Sec. 7. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable.

Applicability

Sec. 8. This Act applies to all public securities authorized and all instruments of payment executed after the effective date of this Act. The signature upon public securities authorized after the effective date of House Bill No. 725, Acts 1955, 54th Legislature, Chapter 293,¹ but prior to the effective date of this Act and which were not executed prior to the effective date of this Act may be placed upon these public securities by complying either with House Bill No. 725, Acts 1955, 54th Legislature, Chapter 293, or with this Act.

Art. 717k. State, County, Municipality or Political Subdivision; Issuer of Bonds, Notes, etc."Issuer" Defined; Applicability of act

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to (and the term "issuer" as used in this Act shall mean and include) the State of Texas, or any department, agency or instrumentality of the State of Texas or any county, municipal corporation, taxing district or other political district or subdivision of the State of Texas having power to borrow money and issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness; and which has the power to issue refunding bonds in lieu of outstanding obligations of the issuer.

Refunding Bonds; Power to Issue; Sale Price; Maturity; Interest Rate; Security; Combination Issuance; Election; Approval; Registration; Sale and Delivery; Legal Investments; Exception

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of any issuer shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds to be sold for cash in such principal amounts as are necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of any obligations being refunded and the interest to accrue on said obligations to the maturity thereof, and/or to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any date or dates upon which said obligations are subject to such redemption, including principal, and any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on said obligations to said redemption date or dates. Said refunding bonds shall be sold for not less than their par value plus accrued interest to date of delivery, shall mature not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer. Such refunding bonds may be secured by and made payable from the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both, or any other or different source, or any combination of sources, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to secure or pay any kind or type of bonds by or from any such source. Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any encumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Texas Constitution and this Act he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, without the surrender, exchange, or cancellation of the obligations being refunded; and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, such bonds shall be so registered before the making of the deposit with the State Treasurer as required hereunder, and such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered to the purchaser thereof in order to permit the issuer to use the proceeds from such sale and delivery to make all or any part of said deposit. After such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. All refunding bonds issued under this Act, shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said refunding bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the market value of said refunding bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder unless the obligations to be refunded are scheduled to mature or are subject to redemption prior to maturity within not more than five years from the date of the refunding bonds; and no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder to refund electric and gas system revenue bonds issued by any city having a population in excess of 500,000, according to the most recent federal census.

(b) An issuer shall have the right to deposit, or cause to be deposited to the State Treasurer of the State of Texas a sum of money equal to the principal amount of the bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness which it proposes to refund plus the amount of interest which will accrue thereon calculated to the date on which it is to become due or on which it may be redeemed, together with the amount of contract premium if any, required for redemption; and concurrently with such deposit shall pay to the State Treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act a sum of money equivalent to one-twentieth ($\frac{1}{20}$) of one per cent (1%) of the principal amount of said bonds and one-eighth ($\frac{1}{8}$) of one per cent (1%) of the interest to accrue on all of said underlying obligations, and an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the charges of the bank or trust company at which the principal and interest of said underlying obligations are payable for its services in paying such principal and interest. The State Treasurer may rely on a certificate by such city as to the amount of the charges made by such bank or trust company. At the same time such city shall deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy of the ordinance authorizing said underlying obligations, or a certified excerpt therefrom, showing clearly the amounts and the date or dates on which interest is due on such underlying obligations, the date when the principal becomes subject to redemption, and the name and address of the bank or trust company at which such principal and interest must be paid. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to accept such deposits, payments, and instruments, and safely to keep and use such money for the purposes set forth in this Act and for no other purpose, and no part of such money except that in payment for his services and to reimburse his expenses in performing such services shall be used by or for the State of Texas or for any creditor of the State of Texas, nor shall such money be commingled with any other money.

Duty of State Treasurer

Sec. 3. Upon receipt of such deposits and payments, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer, if the securities involved are to be redeemed at a place of payment other than his office, immediately and by the most expeditious means to forward to and deposit with the bank or trust company where such underlying securities are payable, the amount out of such deposits as is specified as being for the payment of the principal and interest, and contract premium, if any, on the securities to be redeemed, and for the payment of the service charges of such bank or trust company; provided however, that the issuer shall have made deposits and payments with the State Treasurer during normal banking hours at least one (1) business day prior to the date on which such securities are designated to be redeemed. The State Treasurer shall notify such bank or trust company to forward to him the underlying securities thus redeemed and cancelled, and after the State Treasurer shall have made a record of their payment and cancellation shall forward such cancelled bonds, coupons or securities to issuer.

Issuance and Sale of Refunding Bonds; Registration by Comptroller of Public Accounts

Sec. 4. When the issuer shall have deposited and paid into the Office of the State Treasurer the money, and shall have done the things required by Section 2 of this Act, it shall have authority to issue, sell and deliver refunding bonds in lieu of the underlying securities, despite the fact that the holders of other such underlying securities may not have surrendered or presented the same for payment; provided that the Attorney General of Texas shall certify to the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to any underlying securities which have not reached their normal maturity date that the issuer has validly called the bonds for redemption in accordance with the contract rights of the issuer. Where the issuer has complied with the requirements of this Act, the Comptroller shall register the refunding bonds despite the fact that some or all of the underlying securities shall not have been surrendered by the holder for payment and cancellation.

Cancellation of Underlying Securities not Required for Issuance, Sale or Registration of Refunding Bonds

Sec. 5. Regardless of any provisions to the contrary contained in prior laws requiring the issuance of refunding bonds, the issuer shall have the right to issue, register and sell such bonds without cancellation of the underlying securities provided the issuer has made the deposit required and has otherwise complied with the requirements of this Act.

Withdrawal of Deposits on Cancellation of Underlying Obligation

Sec. 6. After an issuer has made the deposits and payments required under Section 2 hereof, the issuer may apply to the State Treasurer to withdraw from the paying agent the amount of money deposited on the account of any underlying bond or security, together with the deposit for interest thereon and premium, if any, by exhibiting to the State Treasurer said obligation duly cancelled, whereupon the State Treasurer shall make a proper record of the payment and cancellation of such instrument. No funds so deposited by issuer with the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Act shall otherwise be withdrawn by the issuer except upon the conditions stated above in this Section, or unless the Attorney General of Texas shall certify to the State Treasurer that the payment by the issuer of the underlying security is barred by limitation and that payment thereof by the issuer is forbidden by law.

Deposits with State Treasurer; Effect; Refunding of Obligations; Fees; Forwarding to Place of Payment; Time of Payment

Sec. 7. When the deposit of money required hereunder is made with the State Treasurer in accordance with this Act, for any obligations being refunded pursuant hereto, such deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded; provided, however, that, at the option of and within the discretion of the issuer, provision may be made in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds for the subordination thereof to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent specifically provided in said proceedings. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the fees to be paid the State Treasurer for his services and expenses under this Act shall not exceed a maximum of $1,000. Immediately after the receipt thereof, and by the most expeditious means, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to forward to and deposit with the place of payment (paying agent) for the obligations being refunded all of the money deposited with him pursuant hereto (excepting the fees for his services). If there is more than one place of payment for the obligations being refunded, the State Treasurer shall forward the aforesaid money directly to the one of said places of payment which is located in the State of Texas; provided that if more than one of such places of payment is located in the State of Texas, or if no place of payment is located in the State of Texas and there is more than one place of payment located outside of the State of Texas, then said money shall be forwarded directly to the one of such places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the duty of the place of payment to deposit the aforesaid money received from the State Treasurer (excepting the amount thereof representing the charges of the place of payment) into an interest and sinking fund to be established and maintained in trust and as a trust fund for the payment of the obligations being refunded. Further, it shall be the duty of the place of payment, out of said interest and sinking fund, to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when duly presented therefor at the maturity, due date, or redemption date thereof. If there is more than one place of payment, the one having the deposit shall make appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary funds will be available at the other place or places of payment to pay or redeem any of such obligations being refunded when so presented for payment or redemption. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act shall not have the right to demand or receive payment thereof at any time before the scheduled maturity date or dates, due date or dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of said obligations being refunded, unless the governing body of the issuer shall have specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of said obligations in the proceedings authorizing said refunding bonds.

Alternate Procedures; Issuance and Sale of Refunding Bonds; Deposits in Connection with Payment or Redemption of Revenue Obligations

Sec. 7A. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act or any other law to the contrary, any issuer may, at its option, in lieu of making any deposit with the State Treasurer hereunder, deposit proceeds from the sale of refunding bonds issued hereunder, and/or any other available funds or resources, directly with any place of payment (paying agent) for any obligations payable from revenues (other than ad valorem tax revenues) which it wishes to refund, or to pay or redeem in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds, or with the trustee under any trust indenture, deed of trust, or similar instrument securing such revenue obligations, in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment and/or redemption of any such revenue obligations of the issuer, including assumed obligations, which are to be refunded, or to be paid or redeemed in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds; and such deposit, if made on or before such payment and/or redemption date, shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the revenue obligations being refunded, or being paid or redeemed in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds; and any issuer is authorized to enter into an escrow or similar agreement with any such place of payment (paying agent) or trustee with respect to the safekeeping, investment, reinvestment, administration, and disposition of any such deposit, upon such terms and conditions as the parties may agree, provided that such deposits may be invested and reinvested only in direct obligations of the United States of America, including obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, and which may be in book entry form, and which shall mature and/or bear interest payable at such times and in such amounts as will be sufficient to provide for the scheduled payment and/or redemption of such revenue obligations, and further provided that if any such revenue obligations are scheduled to be paid and/or redeemed on a date later than the next succeeding scheduled interest payment date thereon, the issuer shall be required to enter into an appropriate escrow or similar agreement as described above. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act or any other law to the contrary, refunding bonds may be issued under this Act to refund any revenue obligations which are scheduled to mature, or which are subject to redemption prior to maturity, not more than 20 years from the date of the refunding bonds, and refunding bonds issued under this Act may be sold at public or private sale, under such procedures, at any price (at a premium, at par, or at a discount), upon such terms, and bear interest at such rate or rates, and mature not more than 40 years after their date, all as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided that Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as now or hereafter amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which pertains generally to the sale price and interest rates of all public securities, shall be applicable to said refunding bonds; and any issuer is further authorized to pledge to the payment of any refunding bonds issued hereunder (i) any surplus income to be available from the investment or reinvestment of any deposit made as authorized in this Section 7A and/or (ii) any other available revenues, income, or resources. The refunding bonds also may be issued in an additional amount sufficient to pay the costs and expenses of issuing said bonds and sufficient to fund any debt service reserve, contingency, or other similar fund deemed necessary or advisable by the issuer.

State Treasurer's Bond; Protection of Deposits of Moneys and Securities

Sec. 8. The bond or bonds given by the State Treasurer under Article 4368 to secure the faithful execution of the duties of his office (except such special bonds as may have been given to protect funds of the United States Government) and any and all other bonds which may have been given by the State Treasurer, shall be construed as protecting all moneys and securities deposited or placed with the State Treasurer under this Act.

Cumulative of Other Acts

Sec. 9. This Act is cumulative of all other Acts on the subject, but to the extent that its provisions are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of other laws, the provisions of this Act shall be controlling.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1256, ch. 503. Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2316, ch. 783, §§ 1, 2, eff. June 14, 1969; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 2182, ch. 832, § 1, eff. June 14, 1979.]

Art. 717k-1. Public Securities; Issuance by State, County, Municipality or Political Subdivision; Denominations

Sec. 1. The term "public securities" as used herein shall mean bonds, notes, or other obligations for the payment of money which may hereafter be issued by this state, or by any department, agency, or other instrumentality of this state, or by any county, municipality, taxing district, or other political district or subdivision (whether included within one county or more than one county) which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law to borrow money and to issue bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness.

Sec. 2. All public securities authorized under the laws of this state may hereafter be issued in any denomination fixed and determined in the order, resolution, or ordinance authorizing the issuance of such securities, by the board, body, or officer empowered by law to authorize the issuance of such securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of the Act shall be cumulative of all existing laws pertaining to the issuance of public securities, but the provisions hereof concerning the denominations in which public securities may be issued shall apply to all public securities, despite any provision in any earlier law to the contrary.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2043, ch. 752, eff. June 18, 1967.]

Art. 717k-2. Public Securities; Issuance by Public Agencies; Interest Rate

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "public agency" shall mean and include the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, any body politic and corporate of the State of Texas, and solely for the purposes of this Act and not for any other purposes of law, any nonprofit corporation or other not-for-profit entity that has been determined to be an instrumentality of or is acting on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(b) The term "public securities" shall mean any bonds, notes, or other obligations payable from taxes, or revenues, or both, which any public agency is now or hereafter may be authorized to issue pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act.

(c) The term "net interest cost" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total of all interest to accrue and come due thereon through the final scheduled maturity date thereof, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the price paid therefor; provided, however, with reference to floating rate public securities, the term "net interest cost" shall mean the total of all interest to accrue from the date of delivery and come due thereon through any date net interest cost is calculated thereon, plus, in the case of a discount, the figure obtained by multiplying the dollar amount of the discount by a fraction the numerator of which is the aggregate number of bond years to the date of such net interest cost calculation and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of bond years to the scheduled final maturity date of the floating rate public securities, or minus, in the case of a premium, the figure obtained by multiplying the dollar amount of the premium by a fraction the numerator of which is the aggregate number of bond years to the date of such net interest cost calculation and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of bond years to the scheduled final maturity date of the floating rate public securities. The term "discount" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the principal amount (par value) of such issue or series plus any accrued interest to the date of delivery minus the total sum of money paid to the issuer.

The term "premium" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total sum of money paid to the issuer for such an issue or series minus the principal amount (par value) thereof, and also minus any accrued interest to the date of delivery. The term "bond years" with reference to each separate bond, note, or other obligation constituting part of an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the principal amount (par value) of each such bond, note, or other obligation by one-thousand (1000) and multiplying such quotient by the number of years from the date interest commences to accrue thereon to its scheduled maturity date or, with respect to floating rate public securities, by the number of years from the date net interest cost commences to accrue thereon to the earlier of the date of maturity thereof or any date interest on such floating rate public securities is calculated. If any portion of an issue or series of public securities is subject to a mandatory redemption prior to scheduled maturity which at the time of delivery of such public securities is scheduled to occur on a date or dates certain, net interest cost and bond years shall be calculated as if the face amount of bonds, notes, or other obligations required to be redeemed on each such earlier date were scheduled to mature on such earlier date and net interest cost shall include any redemption premium required to be paid on any such mandatory redemption date. No other forms of compensation, whether due upon an optional or mandatory prepayment or redemption, shall be included in net interest cost.

(d) The term "net effective interest rate" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the amount of the net interest cost of such issue or series by the aggregate total number of bond years of all bonds, notes, or other obligations constituting such issue or series, and then dividing such quotient by ten (10) and expressing the result as a rate of interest in per cent per annum.

(e) The term "floating rate public securities" shall mean those public securities or portion thereof bearing a rate of interest determined in accordance with a clearly stated formula, calculation, or method, such that the net interest cost with reference thereto at any future date cannot be ascertained on the date of delivery thereof.

Sec. 2. (a) The maximum rate of interest for any issue or series of public securities shall be a net effective interest rate of 15 percent, and any public agency is hereby authorized to issue and sell any issue or series of its public securities at any price or prices and bearing interest at any rate or rates (provided that the net effective interest rate does not exceed 15 percent), as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided.

(b) Any public securities authorized by an election held before the effective date of the 1981 amendment of this section may be issued, sold, and bear interest as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, except that public securities heretofore authorized by an election required by the Constitution of Texas shall not be issued at an interest rate greater than authorized at such election unless a further election is held resulting favorably to the issuance of such previously voted public securities at a price and at a rate authorized by Subsection (a) of this section. Elections for that purpose shall be called and held, and notice thereof given, in the same manner as provided by law applicable to the previous election authorizing such public securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act concerning sale price and the maximum rates of interest which public securities may bear shall apply to all public securities notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, but shall not apply to any public securities whose maximum rate of interest or maximum net effective interest rate is, at the time of issuance thereof, otherwise specifically fixed by the Constitution.

Sec. 4. If an issue or series of public securities is issued in exchange for property, labor, services, materials, or equipment pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act, such public securities may bear interest at any rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, provided that the maximum interest rate shall not exceed 15 percent.

Art. 717k-3. Refunding Bonds; Issuance by Public Agencies; Approval; Registration; etc.

Definitions

Sec. 1. The term "issuer," as used in this Act, shall mean any department, board, authority, agency, subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas of every kind or type whatsoever, including, without limitation, all counties, home rule charter cities, general law cities, towns, villages, state-supported educational institutions of higher learning, junior and regional college districts, school districts, hospital districts, water districts, road districts, navigation districts, conservation districts, and all other kinds and types of political or governmental entities. The term "governing body," as used in this Act, shall mean the board, council, commission, court, or other group which is authorized by law to issue bonds for or on behalf of any issuer.

Complete or Partial Refunding

Sec. 2. The governing body of any issuer shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds.

Maturity; Interest; Security and Source of Payment; Combination Issuance; Election; Exception

Sec. 3. Said refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer. Such refunding bonds may be secured by and made payable from the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both, or any other or different source, or any combination of sources, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to secure or pay any kind or type of bonds by or from any such source. Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any incumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder to refund electric and gas system revenue bonds issued by any city having a population in excess of 500,000, according to the most recent federal census.

Negotiability; Redeemability; Issuance

Sec. 4. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (except that such bonds may be made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and they may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions and details, and may be executed, as provided by the governing body of the issuer in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Approval; Registration; Exchange

Sec. 5. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Texas Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act shall be issued in exchange for, and upon surrender and cancellation of, the obligations being refunded thereby, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the obligations being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds. Any such exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries, and all or any part of any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations may be refunded in whole or in part hereunder. Any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations, whether payable from revenues, taxes, or otherwise, may be refunded hereunder in part provided that the issuer can demonstrate to the attorney general at the time of the refunding that adequate resources will remain, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment of the unrefunded part of such issue when due.

Legal Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 6. All bonds issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said refunding bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the value of said refunding bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 7. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability

Sec. 8. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any situation or circumstance, shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act, or the application thereof to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Art. 717k-4. Revenue Bonds; Issuance by Cities, Towns and Villages; Validation of Proceedings

Sec. 1. Where any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who had duly rendered the same for taxation a proposition or propositions for the issuance of revenue bonds for a purpose or purposes provided by Chapter 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such revenue bonds were approved by a majority vote of the said participating property tax-paying voters, all election proceedings relating thereto are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed and such bonds may be issued and made payable from and secured by the net revenues of one or more of the utility systems mentioned in the said proposition or propositions approved at the said election, but in no event shall any such pledge of net revenues be made which would conflict with the contract rights of the holders of any outstanding bonds.

Sec. 2. All proceedings of the governing body of an incorporated city with respect to the authorization of bonds payable from revenues (any sources except ad valorem taxes) are hereby ratified and confirmed and such bonds shall be payable from and secured by the revenues pledged to the payment thereof.

Sec. 3. In all instances where revenue bonds are validated by the provisions hereof, all proceedings relating to the authorization of such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 4. The provisions hereof shall not be construed as validating any bonds where (i) such bonds were required by law to be approved at an election unless the issuance thereof was approved at such election by a majority of the participating resident qualified property taxpaying electors, or (ii) the bonds or election proceedings are involved in litigation questioning the validity thereof on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Art. 717k-5. Validation of Contracts, Warrants and Refunding Bonds Authorized by Counties, Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. In every instance where the commissioners court of a county or the governing board of a city, including home-rule cities, or town in this state has entered into contracts for, or has determined the advisability thereof by giving notice of intention to issue interest-bearing time warrants in payment therefor, the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal services rendered to the county, city, or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a commissioners court or governing body of a city, including home-rule cities, or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed. Such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances, and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the commissioners court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 717k-6. Bond Procedures Act of 1981

Definitions; Short Title

Sec. 1. (a) The term "issuer" as used in this Act means and includes any department, board, authority, agency, subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, political subdivision, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas of every kind or type whatsoever, and any nonprofit corporation acting for or on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(b) The term "bonds" as used in this Act means and includes all bonds, certificates, notes, and other obligations authorized to be issued by any issuer by any statute, city home-rule charter, or the Texas Constitution.

(c) This Act may be cited as the "Bond Procedures Act of 1981."

Construction; Effect of Approval and Registration

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as granting any original or independent power to any issuer to issue any bonds, but shall be applicable and available to any issuer and the governing body thereof with respect to certain terms, provisions, and details of the issuance of any bonds authorized by any other statute, city home-rule charter, or the Texas Constitution, including either original bonds, refunding bonds, exchanged or converted bonds, or any combination of the foregoing, and in fixing the terms, conditions, and details of any bonds otherwise authorized to be issued. If any statutory, charter, or constitutional provisions authorizing any bonds provide for the approval thereof by the attorney general of Texas and the registration thereof by the comptroller of public accounts of the State of Texas, then any such bonds shall be submitted to the attorney general for approval, and if the attorney general determines that they have been issued in accordance with law, he shall approve them and thereafter they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts, and after such approval and registration such bonds and any contracts, proceeds from which are pledged to the payment thereof, shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason, and shall be binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Issuance and Execution

Sec. 3. The governing body of any issuer is authorized to issue bonds with or without interest coupons, in any denomination, payable at such time or times, in such amount or amounts or installments, at such place or places, in such form, under such terms, conditions, and details, in such manner, redeemable prior to maturity at any time or times, bearing no interest, or bearing interest at any rate or rates (either fixed, variable, floating, adjustable, or otherwise, all as determined by the governing body or by a formula or contractual arrangement for the periodic determination of interest rates, such determination, formula, or arrangement to be set forth in the instrument providing for the issuance of the bonds) not to exceed the maximum net effective interest rate allowed by law, and the bonds and interest coupons, if any, may be signed or otherwise executed in such manner, with manual or facsimile signatures, and with or without a seal, all of the foregoing as shall be specified by the governing body of the issuer in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. In the event any officer or officers whose signatures are on any bonds or interest coupons appertaining thereto cease to be such officer or officers before the delivery thereof to the purchaser, such signature or signatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes and the successor or successors in office of any such officer or officers shall be fully authorized to complete the execution, authentication, and/or delivery of said bonds and interest coupons to the purchaser or the purchasers thereof.

Form; Registration

Sec. 4. The governing body of any issuer is authorized to issue bonds and the interest coupons appertaining thereto, if any, in such form or forms, with provision for registering such bonds as to principal or as to principal and interest, or with provision for changing the form or forms of such bonds and interest coupons, if any, in such manner as shall be specified by the governing body of the issuer in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the bonds.

Series or Single; Terms and Conditions

Sec. 5. The governing body of any issuer is authorized to issue bonds constituting a series of any number of bonds, or a single bond, payable in one stated amount or in stated installments to the bearer, or to a registered or a named payee, or to the order of, or to the successors or assigns of, such registered or named payee, and provision may be made for the conversion of any bond or interest coupon, upon the request or demand of the bearer or owner, into coupon bonds, payable to the bearer, registrable as to principal or as to principal and interest, or into fully registered bonds without interest coupons, or into any other form, in any denomination, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the bond or bonds being converted, bearing interest, if any, at the same rate or rates as the bond or bonds being converted, and having such other characteristics, and upon further terms and conditions, and in such manner as may be specified by the governing body of the issuer in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the bonds.

Change or Conversion

Sec. 6. (a) When the procedures for changing or converting any bond or bonds are set forth in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the issuance thereof, no additional resolutions, orders, or ordinances need be adopted or passed by the governing body of the issuer so as to accomplish such change or conversion, and the appropriate officials of such issuer, upon the request or demand of the bearer or owner of such bond or bonds as provided therein, if required or necessary, shall have the appropriate new bonds and interest coupons, if any, printed, executed, and exchanged for the bond or bonds being changed or converted, in the manner prescribed in such proceedings. Except as provided in Section 6(b) hereof, in the event that any bond or bonds being changed or converted was or were approved by the attorney general of the State of Texas and registered by the comptroller of public accounts of the State of Texas, then any bond or bonds to be exchanged for any such bond or bonds being changed or converted shall be submitted to the attorney general of the State of Texas for examination, and if he finds that it or they have been printed, executed, and issued as provided by law and by the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bond or bonds being changed or converted, then he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts, and after such approval and registration they shall be valid and incontestable for all purposes. However, the comptroller of public accounts shall not register any such new bond or bonds until any bond or bonds being changed or converted shall have been surrendered to and canceled by the comptroller of public accounts, and upon such surrender and cancellation, the comptroller of public accounts shall register and deliver the new bond or bonds in exchange for the bond or bonds being changed or converted.

(b) The governing body of any issuer may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond or interest coupon into any other form or forms of bond or interest coupon, and for reconversion of bonds and interest coupons into any other form, and may provide procedures for the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated bonds or interest coupons or for the transfer or exchange of bonds for previously issued bonds, all in such manner as may be prescribed by the governing body of the issuer in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of Section 6(a) of this Act, if the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of any bonds or interest coupons or of the transfer or exchange of previously issued bonds, is imposed upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture securing the bonds, or upon a paying agent for any such bonds, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds or interest coupons, or the bonds delivered on transfer or exchange of previously issued bonds need not be reapproved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 6(a), and all such replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds and interest coupons and such transferred or exchanged bonds shall be valid, incontestable, and enforceable in the same manner and with the same effect as the bonds originally issued.

Use of Proceeds

Sec. 7. An issuer may use the proceeds of bonds which, in whole or part, are payable from and secured by the revenues derived from the operation or ownership of any project or facilities, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by law to secure and pay such bonds from such revenues, for paying interest thereon during the period of the acquisition or construction of any project or facilities to be provided through the issuance thereof, and for one year thereafter, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of such project or facilities during the estimated period of the acquisition or construction of such project or facilities and for one year thereafter, for funding debt service reserve, contingency, and other funds relating to the bonds, and for paying the costs and expenses of the issuance of the bonds; and such proceeds may be placed on time deposit or invested in any obligations authorized by law for the investment of funds of such issuer until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing their issuance.

Validation of Prior Proceedings and Issuance

Sec. 8. All bonds heretofore issued and delivered by the governing body of any issuer and all proceedings authorizing same, are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed in all respects.

Bonds as Negotiable Instruments, Investment Securities, and Security for Deposits

Sec. 9. All bonds issued by an issuer shall constitute negotiable instruments, and are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Texas Uniform Commercial Code,¹ notwithstanding any provisions of law or court decision to the contrary, and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking fund of cities, towns, villages, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of the State of Texas. Said bonds also are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state or any political subdivision or public agency of the state, and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value, when accompanied by any unmatured coupons attached to the bonds.

¹ Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Liberal Construction

Sec. 10. This Act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes of the Act, and all powers herein granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Severability

Sec. 11. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of the Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that the Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Pledge or Lien on Resources, Assets or Fund of Issuer

Sec. 12. When the governing body of any issuer provides in the resolution, order, ordinance, or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of any bond or bonds for a pledge or lien on revenues, income, or other resources of the issuer, or the assets of the issuer, or any fund maintained by the issuer, such pledge or lien shall be valid and binding in accordance with its terms without further action on the part of the issuer and without any filing or recording with respect thereto except in the records of the issuer. All such liens and pledges shall be effective from the time of payment for and delivery of the bonds until the bonds have been paid or payment of the bonds has been provided for and shall be fully effective as to items then on hand and thereafter received, and said items shall be subject to such liens or pledges without any physical delivery thereof or further act. Nothing contained in this section shall relieve any issuer of any obligation to file or record any lien on realty or to submit any bond issue for approval by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller of public accounts. [Acts 1981, 67th Leg., p. 3217, ch. 845, eff. June 17, 1981. Amended by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2493, ch. 435, §§ 6 to 8, eff. Aug. 29, 1983.]

Art. 717l. County Bonds; Taxation to Pay; Surveys, Maps and Plats

Sec. 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in the State of Texas having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) inhabitants, or more, according to the last preceding or any future federal census, is authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof, for the purpose of paying for the cost of making any survey and of acquiring any maps and plats which said Commissioners Court is authorized to cause to be made, and is authorized to acquire under the provisions of Article 7344 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any such county may also cause to be furnished to the assessor and collector of taxes of such county, block books showing the description of each block and subdivision, and the names of the record owners of each parcel of property therein, where known, and such other information relative thereto as will be of assistance to the assessor and collector of taxes of such county in the performance of his duties; and such Commissioners Court is authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the county and to levy and collect taxes in payment thereof to pay for the cost of such block books and the compilation of such information.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court may submit at any bond election one proposition for the issuance of such bonds, which proposition may include all the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued; or it may, at its option, submit at any bond election one or more separate propositions for the issuance of such bonds, each of which separate propositions may include any one or more of the purposes authorized herein for which such bonds may be issued.

Sec. 4. Such bonds under and pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be an obligation of and a charge against the county; and it shall be the duty of such Commissioners Court to have assessed and collected a tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as such principal and interest become due, which tax shall be levied pursuant to the authority of Article 8, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended, for general fund purposes. Such bonds may mature serially or otherwise as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of such county, not exceeding forty (40) years from their date; and such bonds may contain such option or options of redemption, or no option of redemption, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court; and the issuance of such bonds and the levying and collection of such taxes shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended,¹ governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns and counties of this state.

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act are in addition to all the powers given by, and are cumulative of, all other provisions of the laws of the State of Texas on the same subject.

Art. 717l-1. Contracts to Destroy Paid Certificates, Bonds, Interest Coupons, and Evidences of Indebtedness

The commissioners court of a county may contract with its depository or another entity that acts as the registrar or paying agent for the certificates, bonds, interest coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness issued by the county, for the destruction of any certificates, bonds, interest coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness that have been issued and paid by the county. The commissioners court may establish the terms of the contract as it considers appropriate. However, the contract may not authorize the destruction of a certificate, bond, interest coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness before the expiration of one year from the date of its payment or before the expiration of three months from the date the depository or other registrar or paying agent files with the commissioners court or county treasurer a list identifying the certificate, bond, interest coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness to be destroyed.

Art. 717m. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 881, ch. 400, § 14(a), eff. June 6, 1979

Section 14(b) of the 1979 repealing act provided:

"Subsection (a) of this section does not affect any proceeding under the repealed law pending on the effective date of this Act. Such a proceeding is covered by the law under which it was instituted, and the repealed law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 717m-1. Declaratory Judgment Concerning Validity of Securities

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following words, as used in this Act, shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Public agency" means any board, authority, agency, department, commission, political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas including, without limitation, any county, home-rule charter city, general law city, town, or village, any state-supported educational institution of higher learning, any school, junior college, hospital, water, sewerage, waste disposal, pollution, road, navigation, levee, drainage, conservation, reclamation, or other district or authority, and any other type of political or governmental entity of the State of Texas.

(2) "Securities" means all interest-bearing obligations, including, without limitation, any bonds, notes, bond anticipation notes, warrants, certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness, whether general or special, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable in form, whether in bearer or registered form, whether in temporary or permanent form, whether with or without interest coupons, and regardless of the source of payment, whether from taxes, revenues, or both, or otherwise.

Declaratory Judgment

Sec. 2. Any public agency may, prior to or after the issuance and delivery of any securities, institute a proceeding in rem in district court by filing a petition as provided by this Act, for the purpose of obtaining a declaratory judgment as to the authority of the public agency to issue and deliver the securities and as to the legality and validity of all proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting any securities, including, in appropriate cases, the validity of the election, if any, at which the securities were authorized, and the organization or boundaries, if any, of the public agency, any assessments or taxes levied or to be levied, and the lien of the taxes, the validity of any contract or contracts executed or proposed to be executed with respect to the securities, the levy of rates, fees, charges, or tolls, and of proceedings or other remedies for the collection of such taxes, rates, fees, charges, or tolls, the legality and validity of the pledge of any taxes, revenues, receipts, or property, or encumbrance thereon to secure said securities, and as to the legality and validity of the securities and proceedings. The petition may be filed in any district court of Travis County, Texas, or, at the option of the public agency, in any district court of the county in which the public agency maintains its principal office, as a class action against the taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and/or all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities.

Content of Petition

Sec. 3. The petition for declaratory judgment shall briefly set out, by proper allegations, references, or exhibits, the public agency's authority for issuing the securities, the holding of an election and the results of the election where an election is required, copies of or pertinent excerpts from any proceedings, including any essential actions and expenditure of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with the securities, the amount or proposed maximum amount and purpose of the securities, the rate or rates of interest or proposed maximum rate of interest they are to bear, and, in case it is desired to adjudicate the organization or validity of the public agency, the authority for and proceedings had in the creation of the public agency, or in changing its boundaries, if any, or any other pertinent matters.

Notice to Taxpayers and Attorney General, etc.

Sec. 4. The judge of the district court where the petition is filed shall, on filing and presentation of the petition, immediately make and issue an order in general terms in the form of a notice directed to all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditure of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, requiring, in general terms and without naming them, all the persons and the Attorney General of Texas to appear for hearing and trial at 10 a. m. on the first Monday after the expiration of 20 days from the date of issue of the order, and show cause why the prayers of the petition should not be granted and the proceedings and the securities validated and confirmed as therein prayed. The notice shall give a general description of the nature of the petition but need not set forth the entire petition or the attached exhibits. A copy of the petition, together with any exhibits attached, and a copy of said order, shall be served on the attorney general at least 20 days before the time fixed in the order for hearing and trial as aforesaid; provided, that the attorney general may waive the service when he has been furnished a certified copy of the petition, order, and a transcript of all pertinent proceedings relating to the matters set forth in the petition. The attorney general shall carefully examine the petition, and if it appears or there is reason to believe that the petition is defective, insufficient, or untrue, or, if, in his opinion, the proceedings or the securities are or will be invalid or unauthorized, the defense shall be made thereto as he may deem proper. The records of the public agency pertaining to the proceedings or the securities shall be open to inspection at reasonable times to any party to the suit. Any officer, agent, or employee having charge, possession, custody, or control of any of the books, papers, or records of the public agency shall, on demand of the attorney general, exhibit for examination the books, papers, or records and shall, without cost, furnish duly authenticated copies which pertain to the proceedings or the securities, or which may affect the legality of the same, as may be demanded of him. It is specifically provided, however, that if the attorney general does not question the validity of the proceedings or the securities or the security or provisions for the payment thereof, the attorney general may so allege, and on a finding by the court to that effect, the attorney general may be dismissed as a party and the court shall proceed to a final determination of the cause. If the cause is filed in any court other than in Travis County, the public agency shall pay any mileage and travel expenses of the attorney general or his assistant in the same amount as is allowable by the state to officials for travel on other official business. The claim for the expenses shall be filed in duplicate with the clerk of the court in which the cause is pending and shall be taxed as costs against the public agency.

May Enjoin Other Proceedings

Sec. 5. On motion of the petitioner, whether before or after the date set for hearing as provided in Section 4 of this Act, the judge may enjoin the commencement, prosecution, or maintenance by any person or entity of any other action or proceeding contesting the validity of the organizational proceedings or boundary changes of the public agency, or the validity of the securities described in the petition or the validity of any proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, or the validity of the taxes, assessments, tolls, fees, rates, or other levies authorized to be imposed or made for the payment of the securities or the interest on the securities, or the validity of any pledge of any revenues, receipts, or property, or encumbrances thereon, to secure payment, and may order a joint hearing or trial before him of all issues then pending in any other action, cause, or proceedings in any court in the State of Texas, and may order all actions or proceedings consolidated with the suit for declaratory judgment pending before him as authorized by this Act, and may enter orders as are necessary or proper to effect the consolidation, and which will avoid unnecessary costs or delays or multiplicity of suits, and all interlocutory orders shall be final and not be appealable.

Published Notice

Sec. 6. Prior to the date set for hearing and trial as provided in Section 4 of this Act, the clerk of the court where the petition is filed shall give notice by causing a substantial copy of the order issued pursuant to Section 4 of this Act to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County, and in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the public agency maintains its principal office, and if any public agency, other than the State of Texas, has defined boundaries, in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the public agency has territory. The notice shall be so published once in each of two consecutive calendar weeks, with the date of the first publication to be not less than 14 days prior to the date set for hearing and trial. On the giving of the notice and the publication of the order, all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected in any way by the securities, or the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, shall be considered as and are thereby made parties defendant to the proceedings, and the court shall have jurisdiction of them to the same extent as if individually named as defendants in the petition and personally served with process in the cause.

Admission of Parties

Sec. 7. Any property owner, taxpayer, citizen, or person affected by or interested in the proceedings or the issuance of the securities may become a named party to the proceedings by pleading to the petition on or before the time set for hearing and trial as provided in Section 4 of this Act, or thereafter by intervention on leave of court. At or after the time and at the place designated in the order for hearing and trial, the judge shall proceed to hear and determine all questions of law and fact in the proceedings and may enter orders as to the proceedings, and as to any necessary adjournments as will enable him properly to try and determine the questions and to render a final judgment with the least possible delay. Any party to the proceedings shall be entitled to a jury trial on any issue of fact where required by the Texas Constitution. Rule 254 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and Section 1, Chapter 7, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as amended (Article 2168a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not apply to any proceedings or appeals authorized by this Act. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the applicable Texas

Rules of Civil Procedure and all applicable statutes shall govern the proceedings and appeals held and conducted pursuant to this Act.

Bond

Sec. 8. At any time prior to entry of final judgment in the proceedings, the public agency may ask the court for an order that any opposing party or intervenor, except the attorney general, be dismissed unless the opposing party or intervenor shall post a bond with sufficient surety, approved by the court, payable to the public agency for the payment of all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the delay as will be occasioned by the continued participation of the opposing party or intervenor in the proceedings in the event that the public agency finally prevails and obtains substantially the judgment prayed for in its petition. The court shall then issue an order directed to the opposing party or intervenor, which order, together with a copy of the motion, shall be served on the opposing party or intervenor, or on his attorney of record, personally or by registered mail, requiring the opposing party or intervenor to appear at the time and place, not sooner than 5 nor later than 10 days after entry of the order, as the court may direct, and show cause why the motion should not be granted. Motions with respect to more than one opposing party or intervenor may be heard together if so directed by the court. Unless at the hearing on the motion the opposing party or intervenor establishes facts which, in the judgment of the court would entitle him to a temporary injunction against the issuance of the securities, the court shall grant the motion of the public agency and in its order the court shall fix the amount of the bond to be posted by the opposing party or intervenor in an amount found by the court to be sufficient to cover all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the delay as will be occasioned by the continued participation of the opposing party or intervenor in the proceedings in the event that the public agency finally prevails and obtains substantially the judgment prayed for in its petition. The court in its discretion may receive evidence at the hearing or any adjournment with respect to the amount of the damages and costs, which shall include but not be limited to anticipated increases in interest rates and in construction and financing costs. If more than one opposing party or intervenor is a participant in the proceedings, the court in its discretion may allocate the amount of the bond among the opposing parties or intervenors according to the extent or degree of their participation in the proceedings, but may fix the amount of the bond to be posted by a particular opposing party or intervenor only if a motion as described in this section was made and granted as to the opposing party or intervenor. In the event a bond with sufficient surety is not filed by the opposing party or intervenor within 10 days after entry of the order of the court fixing the amount of the bond, the opposing party or intervenor shall be dismissed by the court. The dismissal shall constitute a final judgment of the court, unless an appeal was taken as provided by this Act. No court shall have further jurisdiction of any action to the extent the action involves any issue which was or could have been raised in the proceedings, except to the extent that the issue may have been raised by an opposing party or intervenor as to whom no motion was made hereunder. An order of the court fixing the amount of the bond to be posted by an opposing party or intervenor or denying the motion of a public agency or dismissing a party for failure to file a bond may be appealed as provided in Section 9 of this Act. The court to which any appeal is taken may modify the order of the lower court and may enter the modified order as the final order. In the event no appeal is taken or if the appeal is taken and the order of the lower court is affirmed or affirmed as modified, and no bond is posted pursuant to this section within 10 days after entry of the appropriate order, no court shall have further jurisdiction of any action to the extent it shall involve any issue which was or could have been raised in the proceedings, except to the extent that the issue may have been raised in the proceedings by an opposing party or intervenor as to whom no motion was made hereunder. It is further provided that, on motion of the public agency, the court shall proceed without delay to hearing and trial on the merits of the public agency's petition, regardless of the pendency of an appeal from any order entered pursuant to this section.

Appeal

Sec. 9. Any party to the cause, whether the public agency, a defendant, intervenor, or otherwise, dissatisfied with any order entered paramount to Section 8 of this Act, or with the judgment in the declaratory judgment action, may appeal therefrom to the appropriate court of civil appeals after the entry of the order or judgment, or the order or judgment shall become final. The appeal shall take priority over all other cases, causes, or matters pending in the court of civil appeals, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the court of civil appeals assure the priority and act thereon and render its final order or judgment therein with the least possible delay. The Supreme Court shall have authority to review, by writ of error or other authorized procedure, all questions of law arising out of the orders and judgments of the courts of civil appeals in the cases, in the manner, time, and form applicable in other civil causes where a decision of the court of civil appeals is not final, but any such review shall take priority over all other cases, causes, or matters pending in the Supreme Court, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the Supreme Court assure the priority and review and act thereon and render its final order or judgment therein with the least possible delay. Also, Rule 499a, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, shall apply to proceedings in the district court, but any direct appeal thereunder shall take priority over all others cases, causes, and matters pending in the Supreme Court, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the Supreme Court assure the priority and review and act thereon and render its final order or judgment with the least possible delay.

Effect of Judgment

Sec. 10. In the event the judgment of the district court determines that the public agency has or had authority to undertake the proceedings and/or to issue the securities upon the terms set forth in the petition for declaratory judgment hereunder, and adjudicates the legality of all proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or relating to the securities, and no appeal is taken within the time above prescribed, or if taken and the judgment of the district court is affirmed, the judgment shall, as to all matters adjudicated, or which could have been raised in the proceedings, be forever binding and conclusive against the public agency, the attorney general, the comptroller of public accounts, and all parties to the cause, whether mentioned in and served with the notice of the proceedings, or included in the description, "all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any properties or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities," and shall constitute a permanent injunction against the institution by any person or entity of any action or proceedings contesting the validity of the proceedings and/or securities described in the petition, or the validity of provisions made for the payment of the same, or of interest thereon, or any matters adjudicated by the judgment, or which could have been raised in the proceedings.

Securities: Printed Statement

Sec. 11. Securities adjudged valid as provided by this Act may, at the option of the public agency, have stamped, printed, or written on the securities the following statement:

"This obligation was validated and confirmed by a judgment entered _____ (date when the judgment was entered and the court in which it was entered and the style and number of the cause in said court), which perpetually enjoins the institution of any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity of this obligation, or the provision made for the payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon."

The certificate may be signed by the clerk, secretary, or other official of the public agency, and the signature may be by facsimile if authorized by the governing body of the public agency.

Costs

Sec. 12. The costs in each proceeding under this Act shall be paid by the public agency, except that in cases where a taxpayer, citizen, or other person or entity appears and contests the proceedings or intervenes therein, the court may tax the whole or any part of the costs against such party or parties as the court shall determine to be equitable and just; provided, that in no event shall any costs be taxed against the attorney general.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 13. The procedure prescribed in this Act is cumulative of all other methods permitted under law for declaratory judgments and for approval and validation of proceedings and/or securities and shall not have the effect of repealing any such laws; but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the acts and procedures authorized in this Act, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as specifically provided in this Act. To the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. The procedures authorized by this Act may be invoked only by a public agency, and when so invoked may be employed concurrently with, or after use of other means of declaratory judgment, approval, or validation, and may be invoked before or after the attorney general has approved the securities and/or before or after the securities are authorized or delivered and outstanding, and may be invoked regardless of the pendency of any other suit, action, cause, or proceeding in any court pertaining to the matters sought to be adjudicated. This Act shall not have the effect of repealing the existing right of a public agency to apply for, and of the Supreme Court to issue, writs of mandamus to the attorney general for the approval of bonds, in appropriate cases, and the Supreme Court is specifically authorized to consider and issue such writs when appropriate, and it is declared that the remedy is necessary and desirable in the public interest as a matter of public policy of the State of Texas.

Art. 717n. Counties; Issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness

Adoption of Act; Eligible County Defined

Sec. 1. The provisions of this Act may be adopted by an order of the Commissioners Court of any eligible county within this state upon the unanimous vote of the members of such court. An eligible county is defined to mean any county whose total taxable valuations at the time of the adoption of the provisions of this Act, according to the last approved tax rolls of the county, decreased by as much as seven per centum (7%) from the year preceding and which county will not have sufficient funds available within the current fiscal year to meet its general fund operating expenses as the same shall become due.

Issuance of Certificates; Purpose

Sec. 2. Subject to the limitations contained in this Act, an eligible county is authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of paying the operating expenses of the county to be legally incurred payable from the county's constitutional general fund as the same shall become due. Any such certificates shall be sold for cash at not less than par and accrued interest and the proceeds thereof, excluding accrued interest, shall be used for the purpose authorized in this Act, provided, however, no such certificates shall be issued, sold or delivered after two (2) years from the effective date of this Act.

Maturity; Interest; Form of Certificates and Coupons

Sec. 3. Such certificates shall be authorized by order of the Commissioners Court, shall mature in not exceeding fifteen (15) years from their date and bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per centum (5%) per annum. Interest may be evidenced by coupons and the certificates shall be fully negotiable. The certificates and coupons pertaining thereto shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, or the signatures of such officials may be lithographed or printed on such certificates or coupons in accordance with the provisions of Article 717j, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other law as may then be applicable to the execution of obligations issued by a county.

Tax

Sec. 4. When such certificates are issued, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners Court to levy and have assessed and collected a tax (out of the constitutional general fund tax as provided by Article 8 Section 9 of the Constitution of Texas) sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the certificates as such principal and interest become due, not to exceed ten cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation of taxable property in said county, nor may any eligible county issue any certificates under the provisions of this Act in the aggregate principal amount in excess of one-half (½) of one per centum (1%) of the valuation of taxable property in said county according to the last approved tax rolls of such county at the time of the adoption of this Act.

Examination and Approval of Certificates

Sec. 5. The certificates and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and if they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and thereafter they shall be incontestable.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 6. The certificates of indebtedness shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, savings and loan associations, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such certificates shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value or to the extent of their market value, whichever value is the smaller, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 7. The Commissioners Court of an eligible county shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the refunding of certificates issued under the terms of this Act, subject to the General Laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds by counties and without the necessity of any notice or right to referendum vote.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 651, ch. 301.]

Art. 717n-1. Counties over 1,000,000; Issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness for Certain Purposes

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any county having a population in excess of 1,000,000, according to the most recent Federal Census, is authorized, subject to the limitations contained in this Act, to issue certificates of indebtedness:

(1) in the amount of not more than $2,000,000 for the purpose of constructing, enlarging, furnishing, equipping and repairing county buildings and other permanent improvements; and

(2) in the amount of not more than $3,500,000 for the purchase of right-of-way in participation with the Texas Highway Department in connection with designated state highways and for the construction of curbs, gutters and drainage facilities for such designated highways.

(3) If bonds are not issued under this Act by January 1, 1980, this Act will no longer be in effect.

Maturity; Interest; Negotiability; County Registration; Amount

Sec. 2. Such certificates shall be authorized by order of the commissioners court and shall mature in not to exceed 35 years from their date. Interest may be evidenced by coupons. Said certificates shall be sold for cash, and they shall be fully negotiable. Said certificates shall be signed by the county judge, attested by the county clerk, and registered by the county treasurer. Certificates shall not be issued under this Act in excess of $5,500,000.

Tax Levy and Assessment

Sec. 3. When such certificates are issued, it shall be the duty of the commissioners court to levy and have assessed and collected a tax under Article VIII, Section 9 of the Constitution, sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the certificates as such principal and interest become due.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 4. The certificates and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, who shall endorse his certificate of registration thereon, and thereafter they shall be incontestable.

Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 5. The certificates of indebtedness shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, savings and loan associations, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such certificates shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such certificates shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value or to the extent of their market value, whichever value is the smaller, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Art. 717o. Local Government Sport Centers

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Local government" means a county, an incorporated city or town, or an independent school district.

(2) "Ordinance," in the case of an independent school district, means "resolution," and in the case of a county means "order."

(3) "Sport center" means a facility used for sporting activities and events, including auxiliary facilities such as parking areas and restaurants.

Application of Act

Sec. 2. A local government may take advantage of this Act only if all or most of its territory is located in a county that has a population of more than 650,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 3. (a) A local government may construct, acquire, lease, improve, enlarge, and operate one or more sport centers under this Act.

(b) Two or more local governments acting jointly may do anything authorized by this Act to be done by a single local government. When two or more local governments act jointly, joint action by all local governments involved is necessary to perform any official act. Two or more local governments may act jointly under this subsection only if each of them is authorized individually to take advantage of this Act and all or most of the territory of each of them is located in the same county or in adjacent counties.

(c) A local government or combination of them acting under this Act may contract with any public or private entity including a coliseum advisory board or similar body, for the performance of any function authorized under this Act other than the performance of an official governmental act that is required to be done by the governing body of a local government.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. For any purpose authorized under Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of a local government may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 6. The local government is authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the local government.

Pledges

Sec. 7. (a) The local government may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the local government, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the local government may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The local government may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

(d) No holder of any bond or bonds issued under this Act shall ever have the right to demand payment thereof out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act are public purposes and proper functions of local governments.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a local government under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A local government has the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Art. 717p. River Authorities Engaged in Distribution and Sale of Electrical Energy

Sec. 1. Any river authority which is engaged in the distribution and sale of electric energy to the public shall have the power and is hereby authorized to issue from time to time revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations for any purpose or purposes authorized by law relating to the generation, transmission, or distribution of electricity. Such revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations may either be (1) sold for cash, at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the board of directors of the river authority shall determine; provided that the net effective interest rate shall not exceed the maximum from time to time authorized by law, or (2) issued on such terms as the board of directors shall determine in exchange for property of any kind, real, personal, mixed, or any interests therein which the board shall deem necessary or convenient for any such lawful purpose or purposes; provided that any property acquired through the exchange of revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations shall be certified in writing prior to such exchange as being for value equal to or in excess of the par value of the bonds, notes, or other obligations by an independent appraisal which is kept on file by the river authority as a public record and a copy filed with the auditor of the State of Texas, or (3) issued in exchange for like principal amounts of other obligations of the river authority, matured or unmatured, or (4) sold to the State of Texas or any agency thereof, the United States of America, or any agency or corporation created or designated by the State of Texas or United States of America in exchange for cash equal in amount to the principal amount of the bonds so sold.

Sec. 2. This Act is cumulative of the other acts governing river authorities relating to the issuance of revenue bonds and, this Act is full authority for any such river authority to issue and sell bonds or other debt instruments under its provisions without reference to the provisions of any other law, and no other general or special law or specific act or provision thereof which limits, restricts, or imposes additional requirements on the matters authorized by this Act shall apply to any action or proceeding unless expressly provided to the contrary herein.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to or affect any litigation instituted prior to the effective date of this Act which questions the legality of any acts taken or proceedings had by any such river authority prior to said effective date.

Art. 717q. Short Term Obligations for Public UtilityDefinitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Issuer" means (A) any incorporated city operating under a home-rule charter adopted pursuant to Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas; (B) any conservation and reclamation district created and organized as a river authority under and pursuant to Article III, Section 52, or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas and by an act of the legislature of the State of Texas; (C) any joint powers agency organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 166, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 1435a, Revised Statutes); (D) any metropolitan rapid transit authority or regional transportation authority created, organized, and operating pursuant to Chapter 141, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 1118x, Revised Statutes) or Chapter 683, Acts of the 66th Legislature, Regular Session, 1979 (Article 1118y, Revised Statutes); and (E) any conservation and reclamation district organized or operating as a navigation district under and pursuant to Article III, Section 52, or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas.

(2) "Public utility" means properties and facilities for (A) the conservation, storage, supply, treatment, or transmission of water; (B) the treatment, collection, or disposal of water-carried wastes or solid wastes; (C) the generation, transmission, or distribution of electric power and energy; (D) the acquisition, distribution, or storage of gas; (E) a "public transportation system" as defined in Chapter 683, Acts of the 66th Legislature, 1979 (Article 1118y, Revised Statutes); (F) an "airport" as defined in the Municipal Airports Act (Article 46d-1 et seq., Revised Statutes); or (G) a port facility, including facilities for the operation or development of ports and waterways or in aid of navigation and navigation-related commerce in the ports and on the waterways.

(3) "Eligible project" means the acquisition or construction of improvements, additions, or extensions for a public utility, one or more, including capital assets and facilities incident and related to the operation, maintenance, and administration thereof, and, with respect to properties and facilities for (A) the generation of electric power and energy, fuel acquisition, or development or facilities for the transportation thereof; (B) a public transportation system, buildings, structures, terminals, rolling stock, garages, shops, equipment, and other facilities (including vehicle parking areas and facilities necessary or convenient for the beneficial use and access of persons and vehicles to stations, terminals, yards, cars, and buses or for the protection and environmental enhancement of such facilities) for mass public transportation; and (C) a port facility, wharves, docks, warehouses, grain elevators, other storage facilities, bunkering facilities, port-related railroads and bridges, floating plants and facilities, lightering facilities, cargo handling facilities, towing facilities, and all other facilities or aids incident to or useful in the operation of a port facility.

(4) "Project costs" means all costs and expenses incurred in relation to an eligible project, one or more, including without limitation design, planning, engineering and legal costs, acquisition costs of land, interests in land, right-of-way and easements, construction costs, costs of machinery, equipment, and other capital assets incident and related to the operation, maintenance, and administration of an eligible project, and financing costs, including interest during construction, underwriter's discount and/or fees, legal, financial, and other professional services. Project costs attributable to an eligible project and incurred prior to the issuance of any obligations issued to finance an eligible project may be reimbursed from the proceeds of sale of short term obligations.

(5) "Short term obligations" means notes, warrants, or other special obligations authorized to be issued by an issuer under the provisions of this Act, which, at the time of issuance, have been rated at least "investment grade" by a nationally recognized rating agency for municipal securities.

(6) "Credit agreement" means loan agreement, revolving credit agreement, agreement establishing a line of credit, letter of credit, reimbursement agreement, insurance contract, commitments to purchase short term obligations, purchase or sale agreements, or commitments or other contracts or agreements authorized and approved by the governing body of an issuer in connection with the authorization, issuance, security, or payment of short term obligations.

(7) "Governing body" means the board, council, commission, or other designated body (acting either individually or jointly, when authorized by law) authorized by law to issue bonds for or on behalf of an issuer.

Authority to Issue, Sell and Deliver; Execution of Credit Agreements; Security; Repayment

Sec. 2. The governing body of an issuer is hereby authorized and empowered to issue, sell, and deliver short term obligations and execute credit agreements in relation thereto to finance project costs of an eligible project, subject to the limitations contained herein. Short term obligations shall be secured solely by (A) the proceeds of sale of short term obligations; (B) the proceeds of sale of revenue bonds payable from the revenues of a public utility, one or more, operated and maintained by an issuer; or (C) any one or more of such sources, including credit agreements, all as the governing body of the issuer shall provide in the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the short term obligations. Short term obligations shall be repaid from the source or sources securing the payment thereof, funds received from a credit agreement, or from any other revenues otherwise legally available for the payment thereof, except funds derived from ad valorem taxation.

Resolution, Order or Ordinance; Contents; Validity of Signatures

Sec. 3. The issuance of short term obligations shall be authorized by resolution, order, or ordinance of the governing body of an issuer, which resolution, order, or ordinance shall fix the maximum amount of short term obligations to be issued or, if applicable, the maximum principal amount which may be outstanding at any time, the maximum term short term obligations issued and delivered pursuant to such authorization shall be outstanding, the maximum interest rate to be borne by the short term obligations, the manner of sale, price, form, terms, conditions, and the covenants thereof. The resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the issuance of short term obligations may provide for the designation of a paying agent for the short term obligations and may authorize one or more designated officers or employees of the issuer to act on behalf of the issuer in the selling and delivering of short term obligations authorized and fixing the dates, price, interest rates, and other procedures as may be specified in the resolution, order, or ordinance. Short term obligations may be issued in such form or such denomination, payable at such time or times, in such amount or amounts or installments, at such place or places, in such form, under such terms, conditions, and details, in such manner, redeemable prior to maturity at any time or times, bearing no interest, or bearing interest at any rate or rates (either fixed, or variable, or floating according to any clearly stated formula, calculation, or method) not to exceed the maximum net effective interest rate allowed by law and may be signed or otherwise executed in such manner, with manual or facsimile signatures, and with or without a seal, all as shall be specified by the governing body of the issuer in the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the short term obligations. In the event any officer or officers whose signatures are on any short term obligations cease to be such officer or officers before the delivery thereof to the purchaser, such signature or signatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes and the successor or successors in office of any such officer or officers shall be fully authorized to complete the execution, authentication, or delivery of said short term obligations to the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

Contracts for Future Sale

Sec. 4. The governing body of an issuer may contract for the future sale of short term obligations pursuant to which the purchasers are committed to purchase the short term obligations from time to time on the terms and conditions stated in the contract, including any credit agreement executed in connection therewith, and may pay such consideration as it considers proper for the commitments. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, including any procedural requirements with respect thereto, an issuer shall be authorized and empowered to pledge or encumber the revenues of a public utility, one or more, subject to applicable statutory liens and liens securing indebtedness payable therefrom, as security for the repayment of a credit agreement. Short term obligations issued pursuant to such a contract shall mature within five years from the date of the contract.

Refinancing, Renewal, or Refunding

Sec. 5. Short term obligations (including accrued interest) may from time to time be refinanced, renewed, or refunded by the issuance of short term obligations and may be funded by the issuance of revenue bonds payable solely from the revenues of a public utility, one or more. Short term obligations, refunding short term obligations, renewals of short term obligations, or short term obligations issued to refinance short term obligations shall not be outstanding for a total elapsed time of more than five years from the date of the passage of the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the issuance thereof.

Resolution, Order, Ordinance, and Credit Agreements; Review and Approval by Attorney General

Sec. 6. Preliminary to the issuance and delivery of short term obligations, the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the issuance thereof, together with any credit agreements, shall be submitted to the attorney general for his review. If the attorney general shall find that such credit agreement and other authorizing proceedings conform to the requirements of this Act, the same shall be approved. Thereafter, the short term obligations authorized therein may be executed and delivered, exchanged, or refinanced from time to time in accordance with the authorizing proceedings. Upon approval by the attorney general and initial delivery of short term obligations, the credit agreements and short term obligations issued pursuant thereto and secured thereby shall be incontestable for any cause. Registration of short term obligations by the comptroller of public accounts shall not be required.

Negotiable Instruments; Legal and Authorized Investments; Security for Deposits

Sec. 7. All short term obligations issued by an issuer shall constitute negotiable instruments and are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Business & Commerce Code, notwithstanding any provisions of law or court decision to the contrary and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees and for the sinking fund of cities, towns, villages, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of the State of Texas. Said short term obligations also are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state or any political subdivision or public agency of the state and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value.

Liberal Construction; Interpretation of Powers

Sec. 8. This Act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and purposes of this Act, and all powers herein granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Severability

Sec. 9. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of the Act or the applications of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 10. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the short term obligations and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, or under any agreement, without reference to any other laws of any restrictions or limitations contained therein; that to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law or home-rule charter, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Art. 717r. Metropolitan Water Control and Improvement Districts and Subdistricts; Issuance of Bonds and Refunding Bonds

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Refunding bonds" means refunding bonds issued by a metropolitan water control and improvement district.

(2) "Residential neighborhoods" means an area that, as it develops, will consist of detached single-family residences on no less than 79 percent of its net residential acreage, and no more than an additional 10 percent of its net residential acreage will consist of condominiums or multifamily rental units with a density greater than 15 units per net residential acre. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "residential neighborhoods" means an area that, as it develops, will consist of detached single-family residences on no less than 87½ percent of its net residential acreage if the preliminary engineering report adopted by the board of directors of the metropolitan water control and improvement district before the authorization of bonds stipulated that approximately 87½ percent of the net residential acreage would consist of single-family residences; provided, however, that on the full utilization of all facilities constructed with the proceeds of the bonds so authorized, the definition of "residential neighborhoods" stated in the first sentence of this subdivision shall thereafter apply. Variance of as much as three percent from the percentages set forth above shall be permissible during development so long as the percentages are met on completion of development.

(3) "Subdistrict" means a conservation and reclamation district created pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution and this Act to provide freshwater supply and distribution, sanitary sewage collection and treatment and storm sewer and drainage facilities and services to residential neighborhoods.

(4) "Metropolitan water control and improvement district" means each conservation and reclamation district containing at least 10,000 acres after all exclusions of land have occurred, created pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution whether by general law or special Act that is governed by Chapter 51, Water Code, as amended, to the extent those provisions are not inconsistent with the provisions of any special Act creating the district.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 2. (a) A metropolitan water control and improvement district may issue bonds to refund all or part of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other obligations including matured but unpaid interest.

(b) Refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise not more than 40 years from their date and shall bear interest at any rate or rates permitted by the constitution and laws of this state.

(c) Refunding bonds may be payable from the same source as the bonds, notes, or other obligations being refunded or from other additional sources or from other different sources.

(d) The refunding bonds shall be approved by the attorney general and shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After that approval and registration, the refunding bonds shall be valid and incontestable for all purposes.

(e) The orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds deposited in the place or places at which the bonds being refunded are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued before the cancellation of the bonds being refunded, provided an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds being refunded to their maturity dates, or to their option dates if the bonds have been duly called for payment prior to maturity according to their terms, has been deposited in the place or places at which the bonds being refunded are payable. The comptroller of public accounts shall register these refunding bonds without the surrender and cancellation of the bonds being refunded. All resolutions previously adopted by metropolitan water control and improvement districts authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds are ratified and confirmed in all respects.

(f) A refunding may be accomplished in one or in several installment deliveries. Refunding bonds constitute negotiable instruments and are investment securities governed by the Uniform Commercial Code (Chapter 8, Business & Commerce Code) notwithstanding any provisions of law or court decision to the contrary and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of this state. Refunding bonds are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state and of any city, county, school district, and any other political subdivision or public agency of the state and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value.

(g) In lieu of the methods set forth in this Act, a metropolitan water control and improvement district may refund bonds, notes, or other obligations in the manner provided by other general laws of this state.

(h) Notice of intention to issue refunding bonds shall be published by the metropolitan water control and improvement district at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the metropolitan water control and improvement district at least 15 days before the meeting of the governing body at which it is proposed to issue such bonds. At any time prior to the issuance of the bonds, if a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the qualified voters of the metropolitan water control and improvement district is filed with the metropolitan water control and improvement district calling for a referendum on the refunding bond issue, the governing body shall, at its next meeting, order an election to be held within the metropolitan water control and improvement district to determine whether or not the bonds shall be issued. The election shall be held in the manner prescribed by Section 7, Bond and Warrant Law of 1931 (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Creation of Subdistricts

Sec. 3. (a) The Texas Water Commission may create subdistricts over designated territory within the boundaries of metropolitan water control and improvement districts as provided by this section.

(b) A petition that contains the substance of the requirements of Sections 51.013 and 51.014, Water Code, shall be filed with the Texas Water Commission.

(c) The Texas Water Commission shall have notice of the hearing given in the manner required by Section 51.018, Water Code.

(d) The hearing shall be conducted in the manner provided by Section 51.020, Water Code; and the Texas Water Commission shall grant or refuse the petition in the manner provided by Section 51.021, Water Code, and the appeal from the decision of the Texas Water Commission shall be made in the manner provided by Sections 51.022 through 51.025, Water Code, as amended. The Texas Water Commission shall appoint five directors to serve as the governing body of the subdistrict, each of whom shall meet the qualifications provided by Section 51.072, Water Code.

(e) Within 60 days after a petition for the creation of a subdistrict is granted by the Texas Water Commission, the board of directors of the subdistrict shall adopt an order calling elections within the boundaries of the subdistrict in the manner provided by Sections 51.221 through 51.224, Water Code, for the following purposes:

(1) to confirm the creation of the subdistrict in the manner provided by Sections 51.033 and 51.034, Water Code;

(2) to authorize the issuance of bonds by the subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict to be repaid by ad valorem taxes, revenues, or ad valorem taxes and revenues derived by the subdistrict;

(3) to authorize a tax within the boundaries of the subdistrict to make payments under a contract with the metropolitan water control and improvement district to support refunding bonds of the metropolitan water control and improvement district in accordance with the exclusions procedure provided by Section 5 of this Act;

(4) to authorize a maintenance tax within the boundaries of the subdistrict in the manner provided by Sections 51.360 and 51.361, Water Code; and

(5) to elect a permanent board of directors for the subdistrict in the manner provided by Sections 51.074 and 51.075, Water Code.

(f) The subdistrict shall sue and be sued in its own name and shall, until excluded from the boundaries of the metropolitan water control and improvement district in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of this Act, have concurrent jurisdiction with the metropolitan water control and improvement district that is in the territory within the boundaries of the subdistrict and may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authority of the metropolitan water control and improvement district within the boundaries of the subdistrict.

(g) The ad valorem plan of taxation shall apply to each subdistrict, and there shall be no hearing for exclusions of land from the subdistrict necessary prior to the elections provided in this section.

(h) The subdistrict may be dissolved in the same manner as the metropolitan water control and improvement district.

(i) The subdistrict shall be governed by Chapter 51, Water Code, as amended, and all other general laws of this state to the extent those laws are not inconsistent with this Act.

Bonds of the Subdistrict

Sec. 4. (a) Before adopting the order calling elections provided by Subsection (e) of Section 3 of this Act, the engineers for the subdistrict shall present a report to the governing body of the subdistrict that conforms to Section 51.410, Water Code, with regard to the bonds to be issued by the subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict.

(b) After the engineer's report is filed and approved, the governing body of the subdistrict shall order an election within the boundaries of the subdistrict to authorize the issuance of bonds by the subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict in accordance with the provisions of this Act and Sections 51.411 and 51.412, Water Code.

(c) Bonds authorized at an election within the subdistrict may only be repaid from ad valorem taxes imposed on all taxable property within the boundaries of the subdistrict or income, increment, and revenue derived from the ownership or operation of any part of the assets of the subdistrict or any combination of the foregoing, and the metropolitan water control and improvement district is not liable for the repayment of those bonds other than specifically set forth in this subsection.

(d) Bonds issued by a subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict shall be submitted to the attorney general for approval and to the comptroller of public accounts for registration in the method specified by Sections 51.416 through 51.418, Water Code, and shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 51.419 through 51.438, Water Code, as amended. Refunding bonds may be issued by a subdistrict as provided by Section 2 of this Act.

(e) Bonds issued by a subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict are investment securities under Chapter 726, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981 (Article 2529b-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and are bonds under Chapter 845, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981 (Article 717k-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and are otherwise subject to the provisions of general laws of this state relating to bonds of a water control and improvement district to the extent that those general laws are not inconsistent with this Act.

Exclusion of Territory Within Subdistrict

Sec. 5. (a) Under Subsection (e) of Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of the subdistrict shall call an election within the subdistrict to coincide with the confirmation election, at which election a proposition shall be submitted to the qualified voters that would authorize the subdistrict to enter into a contract with the metropolitan water control and improvement district under which the subdistrict would levy an unlimited ad valorem tax on all taxable property within the subdistrict to repay to the metropolitan water control and improvement district a portion of the metropolitan water control and improvement district's total outstanding indebtedness, that portion to be calculated by multiplying the total outstanding indebtedness of the metropolitan water control and improvement district on the date of the first payment under the contract by a percentage equal to the proportion of the total taxable property within the metropolitan water control and improvement district borne by the total taxable property within the subdistrict, as of the date of the next preceding tax roll.

(b) The ballots in the election under Subsection (a) of this section shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the following proposition: "The execution of a contract and the levy of taxes to pay for the contract." A copy of the proposed contract shall be available at the office of the metropolitan water control and improvement district for inspection before the election. The election shall otherwise be conducted in conformity with Chapter 51, Water Code, as amended, for elections to approve a tax-supported contract with the United States.

(c) If the proposition is approved at the election within a subdistrict, the governing board of the metropolitan water control and improvement district shall, on receipt of a petition that conforms substantially to Section 51.694, Water Code, and that describes all of the territory within the subdistrict, conduct a hearing within 30 days after receipt of the petition on the exclusion of the subdistrict from the boundaries of the metropolitan water control and improvement district.

(d) If the governing body of the subdistrict establishes at the hearing that the subdistrict has been created, has authorized issuance of bonds by the subdistrict or by the metropolitan water control and improvement district on behalf of the subdistrict, has authorized the tax-supported contract payment, and has elected a permanent board of directors, the governing board of the metropolitan water control and improvement district shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, enter an order approving the contract supported by a tax within the subdistrict, and excluding all land within the subdistrict from the boundaries of the metropolitan water control and improvement district contingent only on the completion of the refunding bond issue.

(e) Refunding bonds may be issued by a metropolitan water control and improvement district to implement the exclusion of land within a subdistrict under any terms and conditions that are deemed advisable by the governing body of the metropolitan water control and improvement district and shall only be subject to the interest rate limitations imposed by the constitution and laws of this state. In the event refunding bonds are not issued by a metropolitan water control and improvement district within 30 days after the hearing at which the subdistrict establishes all items in Subsection (d) of this section, all property within the subdistrict shall be deemed to be excluded from the boundaries of the metropolitan water control and improvement district on the expiration of the 30th day.

(f) Any subdistrict located within a service area as defined by an Environmental Protection Agency grant utilized by a metropolitan water control and improvement district to expand its wastewater treatment plant shall obtain wastewater treatment services to the extent of capacity provided with Environmental Protection Agency funds from the wastewater treatment plant constructed with the prior proceeds of the Environmental Protection Agency grant in accordance with the terms of a contract approved by the governing bodies of the subdistrict and the metropolitan water control and improvement district.

(g) To reduce the cost of services to its residents and taxpayers, the subdistrict shall utilize the employees, consultants, staff, and services of the metropolitan water control and improvement district and shall reimburse the metropolitan water control and improvement district for all costs of furnishing those services. The services could be terminated for good cause. In the event of dispute, the subdistrict and metropolitan water control and improvement district will obtain arbitration of the dispute.

Water and Sewer Rates

Sec. 6. The metropolitan water control and improvement district shall establish rates for all services to subdistricts after their exclusion from the boundaries of the metropolitan water control and improvement district that shall not exceed 150 percent of the rates for similar service for residents of the metropolitan water control and improvement district.

Election Dates

Sec. 7. All of the elections authorized by this Act may be held on any day of the year other than a general election date and shall not be limited to the uniform election dates established by Section 9b, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 2.01b, Vernon's Texas Election Code).

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The legislature finds and determines that this Act will facilitate and advance the conservation and reclamation of the natural resources of this state by permitting certain water control and improvement districts to extend freshwater supply and distribution facilities, storm water and flood control facilities, and sanitary sewage collection and treatment facilities into areas that have previously not received such facilities. The reclamation of land for development and use as residential neighborhoods will be implemented and the health, welfare, and safety of residents of those neighborhoods will be additionally protected.

Construction

Sec. 9. The powers granted by this Act to metropolitan water control and improvement districts shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes of this Act, and all those powers shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate that intent and those purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Severability

Sec. 10. If one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of those sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of those sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if the invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included in this Act.

CHAPTER TWO. COURTHOUSE, JAIL AND OTHER BONDS

- Art.
718. County Issues Authorized.
719. Requisite Vote.
720. Term of Bonds.
721. Interest on Bonds.
722. Limit of Issue.
723. Interest and Sinking Fund; Disposition of Surplus.
724. Bonds to be Signed, Etc.
725. Substitution of Bonds.
725a. The 1935 Validating Act.
725b. Counties of Over 900,000; Bond Issue Authorized; Referendum.
725c. Validation of Proceedings in Connection with Bonds for Courthouse and Jail Buildings.

Art. 718. County Issues Authorized

After having been authorized as provided in Chapter One of this title, the Commissioners Court of a county may lawfully issue the bonds of said county for the following purposes:

1. To erect the county courthouse and jail, or either;
2. To purchase suitable sites within the county and construct buildings thereon to provide homes or schools for dependent and delinquent boys and girls or for either;
3. To establish county poor houses, farms, and homes for the needy or indigent in the county;
4. To purchase and construct bridges for public purposes within the county or across a stream that constitutes a boundary line of the county; or
5. To improve and maintain the public roads in the county.

When the Commissioners Court shall deem it advisable to issue bonds for both the purchase or construction of bridges and improvement and maintenance of the public roads, both questions may be submitted and voted on as one proposition.

Art. 719. Requisite Vote

If a majority of the property tax paying voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of the proposition, then such bonds shall be thereby authorized and shall be issued by the commissioners court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 720. Term of Bonds

All bonds issued under this chapter shall run not exceeding forty years, and may be redeemable at the pleasure of the county at any time after five years after the issuance of the bonds, or after any period not exceeding ten years, which may be fixed by the commissioners court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 721. Interest on Bonds

Such bonds shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, payable annually or semi-annually within the discretion of the governing body. Interest shall be evidenced by attached coupons.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 722. Limit of Issue

The issue of bonds under this Chapter shall be based upon the taxable values of the County according to the last approved assessment, and shall be limited as follows: Courthouse Bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding two per cent of said taxable values; Jail Bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding one and one-half per cent of said taxable values; Joint Courthouse and Jail Bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding three and one-half per cent of said taxable values; Bridge Bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding one and one-half per cent of said taxable values. In determining the amount of the bonds of the respective kinds to be issued, previous indebtedness for said several purposes shall be considered. The total indebtedness of any County for the purposes provided in this Chapter, shall not be increased by any issue of bonds to a sum exceeding five per cent of its said taxable values.

Art. 723. Interest and Sinking Fund; Disposition of Surplus

The commissioners court shall levy annual ad valorem taxes sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund for their redemption; which shall not exceed for courthouse and jail bonds, one-fourth of one per cent; for bridge or road and bridge bonds, fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars.

Provided that when the principal and all interest on said bonds are fully paid, in the event there is any surplus remaining in the Sinking Fund, not in excess of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, said remaining surplus not used in the full payment of the principal and interest on said bond or bonds may be used by the county for maintaining and repairing the courthouse and jail and the roads and bridges of said county, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court.

Art. 724. Bonds to be Signed, Etc.

The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer before delivery. The county treasurer shall keep an account of the amount of principal and interest paid on each, and no bond shall be sold at less than its par value and accrued interest, exclusive of commissions.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 725. Substitution of Bonds

Where bonds have been legally issued, or may be hereafter issued for any purpose authorized in this chapter, new bonds in lieu thereof bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued, in conformity with existing law, and the commissioners court may issue such bonds to mature serially or otherwise, not to exceed forty years from their date.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 725a. The 1935 Validating Act

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as "The 1935 Validating Act."

Sec. 2. The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this Act, shall have the following meaning:

(a) The term "public body" means any county within the State of Texas.

(b) The term "bonds" includes bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, temporary bonds, temporary notes, interim receipts, interim certificates and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness, or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money, or evidencing or representing a charge, lien or encumbrance on specific revenues, income or property of a public body, or including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

Sec. 3. All bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of any work, undertaking or project by any public body to which any loan or grant has heretofore been made by the United States of America through the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of such work, undertaking or project, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds, and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power (other than Constitutional) of such public body, or the governing board or commission or officers thereof, to authorize and issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities (other than Constitutional) in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

Art. 725b. Counties of Over 900,000; Bond Issue Authorized; Referendum

Any county having in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) population according to the last preceding Federal Census is authorized to issue bonds for the purposes of erecting and equipping a courthouse and jail and county branch office buildings, and acquiring sites therefor, provided such bonds are voted and issued as required by Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended.¹ Bonds for any or all of said purposes may be submitted to the voters in a single proposition. The bonds, in the discretion of the Commissioners Court, may be made optional for redemption prior to maturity on any date specified by the court in the bonds. The bonds may be executed with the facsimile signatures as provided by law, and a facsimile seal of the Commissioners Court may be printed or lithographed thereon. The bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in accordance with, and with the effect provided in said Chapter 1, Title 22. If any election is held prior to the effective date of this Act for the purposes herein authorized, the county is authorized to proceed with the issuance of such bonds in the manner herein provided.

Art. 725c. Validation of Proceedings in Connection with Bonds for Courthouse and Jail Buildings

Sec. 1. All proceedings in connection with any county bonds heretofore favorably voted by a majority of the participating resident qualified electors of the county who owned taxable property and who had duly rendered the same for taxation on the tax rolls of such county, for the purpose of erecting, repairing and equipping courthouse and jail buildings and county branch office buildings, are hereby in all things validated, regardless of whether or not any such bonds so voted were submitted in only one proposition and regardless of the language appearing on the ballot concerning any proposition so submitted. Said bonds may be issued and delivered by the Commissioners Court for the purpose or purposes so voted, may mature serially or otherwise and may contain such option or options of redemption or no option of redemption, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county.

The issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ and when so issued shall constitute valid and enforceable obligations of the issuer in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings the validity of which has been or is being questioned in litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same.

[Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 15, ch. 5.]

CHAPTER FOUR. VIADUCTS, BRIDGES, ETC.

Art.

- 785. May Order Election.
- 786. Survey and Estimate.
- 787. Submission of Resolution.
- 788. Conduct of Election.
- 789. Ballot.
- 790. Issue of Bonds.
- 791. Limit of Issue.
- 792. Tax Levy.
- 793. Court May Contract.
- 794. Maintenance Fund.
- 795. Rules and Regulations.
- 795a. Bond Issue to Refund Outstanding Causeway Revenue Bonds.

Art. 785. May Order Election.

The county commissioners court of any county having a population in excess of fifty thousand inhabitants according to the last United States census, may in their discretion, order an election to determine the propriety of a bond issue to provide for the construction and maintenance of causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches across any river and bottoms within the limits of such county, irrespective of any municipal boundaries.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 786. Survey and Estimate

The commissioners court of such county shall, prior to ordering any such election, provide for preliminary surveys and estimates for such work, and shall prescribe in the election order the amount and terms of such bond issue.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 787. Submission of Resolution

The resolution providing for such election shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court and shall be submitted to the property owning qualified voters of said county as a proposition at a regular or special election which may be ordered by said court for that purpose. If a majority of the votes cast shall be for such resolution, the same shall be deemed to be adopted.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 788. Conduct of Election

Such election shall be governed in all respects by the laws governing elections in this State, and the returns made and canvassed in the same manner, and the results declared by proclamation of the county judge of said county. Such proclamation shall be posted in at least three public places in said county, and at the option of the county judge, published in some newspaper in said county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 789. Ballot

Those desiring to vote for the resolution shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For the Resolution to Issue Bonds to ..." (here insert purpose of the proposed bond issue as set forth in said resolution), and those desiring to vote against the resolution shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "Against the Resolution to Issue Bonds to ..." (here insert such purpose of the proposed bond issue, as set forth in said resolution). Such ballots shall be written or printed on plain white paper, with black ink or pencil, and shall contain no distinguishing mark or device, except as above provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 790. Issue of Bonds

If the resolution be voted, the commissioners court, under the supervision and direction of the Comptroller, shall prepare and execute the bonds of the county accordingly. They shall bear interest not exceeding five per cent payable annually, and be redeemable in not less than five nor more than forty years from the date thereof. The time of maturity shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Such bonds shall be registered or enrolled as other county bonds, and shall not be sold or negotiated at less than their par value.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 791. Limit of Issue

In no case shall bonds be issued under this chapter for a greater sum than that a levy of five cents of the one hundred dollars property valuation of said county will yield sufficient revenue to pay the interest as it accrues, and create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of such bonds at maturity.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 792. Tax Levy

When bonds are issued under the provisions of this chapter, the commissioners court shall levy an annual ad valorem tax on all property of the county, which shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on said bonds and creating a sinking fund to pay the principal.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 793. Court May Contract

The commissioners court may contract with individuals, firms or corporations for the use of such causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, or constructing and maintaining and using tracks, telegraph lines or other such privileges, but shall make no exclusive nor preferential contracts, and before executing any such contracts, shall give notice by posting at the courthouse door and in three other public places in said county the full terms and nature of such proposed contracts.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 794. Maintenance Fund

Revenues that may accrue from any contract or contracts so made may be applied to the maintenance and repair of such structure or structures; and such court may make adequate provision for such maintenance and repair. In the event the revenues accruing from the use of any such structure shall exceed the expenditures for its maintenance and repair, such excess shall be applied to the road and bridge fund of the county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 795. Rules and Regulations

The commissioners court may make rules for the use of any structure erected under the provisions of this chapter, and provide for the enforcement thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 795a. Bond Issue to Refund Outstanding Causeway Revenue Bonds

Authority to Issue Bonds; Ad Valorem Taxes

Sec. 1. That the Commissioners Court of any county in the State of Texas which has heretofore or shall hereafter issue bonds, to construct, acquire, improve, operate or maintain a causeway, and the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof are payable from revenues derived from the operation of such causeway, is hereby authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of refunding such outstanding revenue bonds and to levy and collect ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such refunding bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof.

Aggregate Principal Amount

Sec. 2. That the aggregate principal amount of bonds issued from time to time pursuant to this Act and at any time outstanding, shall not exceed a principal amount which will permit the interest on and the principal of such bonds to be paid from a tax levied within the eighty cent (80¢) limitation provided by Article 8, Section 9 of the Texas Constitution, and provided that the Commissioners Court shall not authorize the issuance of bonds under authority of Section 1 hereof unless authorized at an election at which only the qualified voters who reside in the county and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be allowed to vote, and unless the majority of the votes cast thereat are in favor of issuing the bonds. Said election shall be conducted in accordance with the terms of Title 22 of Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.¹

Detail of Bonds; Manner of Sale; Redemption; Exchange; Use of Accumulated Monies

Sec. 3. That the Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof, providing that the bonds shall not mature later than forty (40) years after their date, and no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per cent (6%) per annum, computed with relationship to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. The bonds may be redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court prior to the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all of the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instrument Law of Texas. Provision may be made for registration of such bonds as to principal only. The bonds issued hereunder may be exchanged for the revenue bonds being refunded or the proceeds of the bonds issued hereunder may be used to pay the principal amount of the bonds being refunded and any premium required by the terms thereof to be payable on redemption prior to maturity. Any monies accumulated in the funds established by the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of the bonds to be refunded may be used by the Commissioners Court, upon cancellation of such bonds to be refunded, to pay accrued interest on and the principal of any such bonds to be refunded, to pay any premium required to be paid thereon in event of redemption prior to maturity, to pay into the road and bridge fund of the county, or may be used for any other lawful purpose.

Taxes to Pay Interest; Sinking Fund for Redemption of Bonds

Sec. 4. That any county issuing bonds pursuant to this Act shall continue to levy ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof even though the facilities constructed with the proceeds of the bonds to be refunded by the bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall become a part of the State Highway System.

Refunds; Terms and Conditions

Sec. 5. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded by the Commissioners Court upon such terms and conditions, including interest rates and maturity, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court, provided that such terms and conditions shall not be inconsistent with the application of the constitutional provision to which reference is herein made. Any such bonds may be so refunded by issuance of refunding bonds, either to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded, or to be sold, with the proceeds thereof to be used for the redemption and cancellation of the bonds being refunded.

Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 6. All bonds, whether original or refunding, heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant to this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their par value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Approval of Attorney General; Registration

Sec. 7. Prior to the delivery thereof to the purchasers, all bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and the records related to the issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination and if he finds they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and upon such approval and registration they shall be uncontestable.

Art. 796. In Case of Storms, Etc.

Any county or any city incorporated under the general laws which may suffer great destruction or damage of property or depreciation of the value of taxable property from storms, floods or other disasters, may fund, refund, compromise or settle its valid outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 797. Regulation of Bonds

For such purpose, the bonds of the county or city may be issued by the governing body without a vote of the tax payers in denominations of not less than one hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or settlement, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding indebtedness. Such bonds may be exchanged for bonds or other evidences of outstanding indebtedness of such county or city, or may be sold and the proceeds applied in the purchase of outstanding bonds or the payment of outstanding floating indebtedness, and may be exchanged or sold from time to time in such amounts as may be required for refunding said outstanding bonds and funding or settling said floating debts.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 798. Order of Commissioners Court

Before issuing such bonds, and not later than two years after the disaster, the governing body of the county or city shall, by an order or ordinance, entered on the minutes, recite the nature and date of such disaster, the taxable value of the remaining property subject to taxation in said city or county as shown by the first approved assessment roll of such county or city made after such disaster, and the amount of bonds that will be sufficient to fund, refund or settle the outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness of such county or city, stating also, the amount of new bonds that will be required for refunding or settling each outstanding issue of bonds, and the amount of new bonds necessary to fund or settle the outstanding indebtedness charged against each particular fund.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 799. Classification of Issues

Separate classes of bonds shall be issued to refund or settle, respectively, each separate issue of outstanding bonds, and to fund or settle, respectively, the indebtedness against each particular fund.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 800. Apportionment of Taxes

The court or council shall determine and record in the minutes the proportion of the several annual ad valorem taxes authorized by law that can be applied, respectively, in payment of the interest and sinking funds of the several classes of bonds without depriving the city or county of the funds which will be required to meet the necessary current annual expenses of such county or city. A levy in proportion to such excess or excesses beyond the amount required for current annual expenses may be made to pay the interest and sinking fund, respectively, of the said several classes of bonds. The constitutional limitation as to the rates and purposes of the several taxes shall not be exceeded nor disregarded.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 801. Requisites of Bonds

The court, or city council, shall also by order or ordinance, prescribe the form and the classes of said bonds, and provide for the issuance thereof, at such dates as may be expedient. Such bonds may be made payable at any date deemed expedient by the commissioners court or city council, not later than forty years from the date of the execution, and provision may be made for their redemption after five years, or after such longer period as may be deemed expedient. Said bonds shall bear interest as stipulated and specified in coupons attached thereto, not to exceed four per cent per annum. Said bonds shall be issued under and subject to all requirements of chapter one of this title, which are not in conflict with the requirements and provisions of this chapter, and shall be signed by the county judge or mayor, and attested by the county or city clerk, as the case may be.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 802. Registration and Sale

When examined and certified by the Attorney General, said bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller without requiring the old bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness to be presented to him for cancellation. Said bonds shall be delivered to the county or city treasurer, and said officer shall register said bonds in a book kept for that purpose, and said bonds may thereafter be sold or exchanged for not less than their face value and accrued interest. Before delivery of the bonds, the date of the sale or exchange thereof shall be indorsed and certified on the bonds by the county judge or mayor, whose signature shall be attested by the county or city clerk.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 802a. Funding Indebtedness Representing Difference Between Wages Paid and Wages Required to be Paid to Firemen and Policemen by Cities of Over 75,000 Population

Sec. 1. All cities within the State of Texas, whether incorporated under General Law or Special Law or operating under charters adopted under the provisions of Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of Texas, with a population of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) enumerated by the preceding United States Census, shall have the power to fund by ordinance enacted by the governing body the whole or any part of the legal debt of said city, which debt is the difference between the wages paid or to be paid the firemen and the policemen, and the wages required to be paid the firemen and the policemen by the terms of Senate Bill No. 89, passed and approved the 19th day of April, A.D. 1937, by the Forty-fifth Legislature of Texas, at the Regular Session,¹ and which debt accrued or will have accrued before the 31st of May, A.D. 1939, and to issue negotiable bonds with or without coupons, bearing interest at an annual rate as provided by the Charter of the City which issues the said obligations. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the debt which may be legally due such firemen and policemen.

Sec. 2. Articles 709 to 715 and Article 4398 of the Revised Statutes of Texas for 1925 shall apply to all bonds issued under this Act.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws on this subject, and wherever the provisions of this Act are in conflict with any existing law or laws on this subject, the provisions hereof, in so far as same are in conflict with any existing law or laws, shall govern and control.

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city or town operating under its special charter adopted under the Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution, having outstanding as of January 1, 1939, unpaid and delinquent indebtedness against its General Fund, whether in the form of scrip warrants, warrants or notes, or in either or all of such forms, in an amount exceeding thirty-three and one-third (33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %) per cent of its current tax levy for General Fund purposes, and which did not, on said date, own any one of the following utilities from which it could derive revenues: water system, sanitary sewer system, electric lighting system, or natural gas distribution system, is hereby authorized to issue funding bonds or funding warrants for the purpose of funding any such items which constitute legal indebtedness of such city. No election nor notice of intention to issue such funding bonds or warrants shall be required. If funding bonds are issued they shall be issued in the manner prescribed by Article 717 of the Revised Civil Statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds.

Sec. 2. Such funding bonds or warrants shall mature serially, or otherwise, not to exceed thirty (30) years from their date and shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed five (5%) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually.

Sec. 3. When said funding bonds or warrants are issued it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest thereon as such principal and interest mature.

Sec. 4. If funding bonds are issued they shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination and approval in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as is provided in said Articles.

Sec. 5. All such outstanding indebtedness is hereby validated, provided that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any such items of indebtedness which may be in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but in the event any of its provisions are in conflict with any existing laws the provisions hereof shall prevail and be effective to the extent of such conflict.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 103.]

Art. 802b-2. Refunding Bonds Supported by Ad Valorem Tax or by Pledge of Income of Specified Utilities; Issuance by Cities Operating Under Charters Authorized

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city operating under a charter either adopted or amended by vote of the people which owns and operates its waterworks and sanitary sewer systems, and the principal amount of whose bond and time warrant indebtedness is in an aggregate amount exceeding forty (40) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an eligible city.

Classes of Refunding Bonds Authorized; Prerequisites

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds of two classes. One class of its refunding bonds, which may be in one or more series, shall not be supported by an ad valorem tax but by a pledge to the payment of the principal and interest thereof of all or a stipulated part of the net income from the operation of its waterworks system or its sewer system, or both, and by a deed of trust or a mortgage upon such systems, and by a grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the systems and property so purchased for a term of not over twenty (20) years after purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. The other class, which may be in one or more series, shall be supported by an ad valorem tax levied at a rate or in an amount sufficient to pay the interest thereon and the principal at maturity. Such city shall designate the several issues or parts of issues of outstanding bonds or time warrants, or both, eligible to be refunded by the issuance of the respective classes of its refunding bonds, provided, however, that bonds and warrants which were issued for waterworks or sewer purposes shall be refunded into the class which is secured by the revenues from, and deed of trust or mortgage upon such systems, and all other bonds and warrants shall be refunded in the class of bonds payable from ad valorem taxes. No such city shall be authorized to exercise the additional powers conferred by this Act unless it obtains a reduction in the principal amount of its indebtedness to the extent of not less than fifteen (15) per cent, and unless it obtains a reduction in the average interest rate of its refunded indebtedness so that the average interest rate borne by its two classes of refunding bonds shall be not more than three (3) per cent per annum. Such city shall not be permitted to deliver refunding bonds of said two classes unless and until it shall have obtained consent to such refunding by the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) per cent of aggregate principal amount of its outstanding indebtedness, which sixty-six and two-thirds (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) per cent shall include not less than one hundred (100) per cent of the revenue bonds outstanding against said system or systems, or unless such refinancing plan shall have been made effective in composition proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9, of the United States Code and amendments thereto.¹

Before any income from such utility or utilities shall be used to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, the expenses of operation and maintenance shall have first been provided substantially in accordance with the provisions of Article 1113 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, which is applicable to the income of an encumbered utility system or encumbered utility systems. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law, it shall be the duty of the city, after making said pledge of such utility income, to establish and maintain utility rates adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility system or systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of such income.

Revenue Bonds, Refund of

Sec. 3. Such city also shall refund, par for par, all of its outstanding revenue bonds which are secured by a pledge of the revenues of either or both of such systems, and bonds issued to refund such revenue bonds may be included in any refunding issues under the class secured by the pledge of utility revenues authorized by this Act.

Form; Registration; Procedure

Sec. 4. The refunding bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable and shall be issued in the same manner as refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of Title 22 and Title 28 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas and amendments thereto;¹ no notice of intention to issue refunding bonds and no election for the issuance of such bonds shall be required. No such refunding bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller and delivered by him unless and until he shall have received and cancelled in lieu thereof bonds or time warrants in the proportion prescribed in the ordinances authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds, and in accordance with this Act. The procedure prescribed in Articles 709 to 715 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, in reference to examination and approval of the bonds by the Attorney General, their registration by the Comptroller, and the effect of approval by the Attorney General shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Law as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 5. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with or are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provisions of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

Art. 802b-3. Cities of 35,000 to 45,000 Under Special or Home Rule Charters May Issue Notes to Fund or Refund Warrants

Sec. 1. All cities in this State, operating under a Special or Home Rule Charter and having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand (35,000) nor more than forty-five thousand (45,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, are hereby authorized and empowered to issue notes for the purpose of funding or refunding outstanding and unpaid warrants drawn against the General Fund for general operating expenses, subject to the limitations and provisions contained hereinafter in this Act.

Sec. 2. Before any city of the classification prescribed in Section 1 hereof may avail itself of the provisions of said Section, the governing body of such city shall order an election on the question of whether or not the governing body shall be authorized to issue notes for the purpose of funding or refunding outstanding and unpaid warrants drawn against its General Fund. Such election shall be held, and notice thereof given, and the results thereof declared, in the same manner as prescribed by General Law on the question of the issuance of municipal bonds. Only qualified electors, who own taxable property in such city and who have duly rendered same for taxation, shall be allowed to vote at such election.

Sec. 3. In the event such election results favorably to the issuance of such notes, the governing body of such city shall have the authority to pass all appropriate ordinances and resolutions to effect their issuance. The notes so authorized shall mature serially over a period not exceeding ten years from their date, and may bear interest not exceeding five (5) per cent per annum and may be redeemable at the pleasure of the governing body. The full faith and credit of such city may be pledged to the payment of such notes and the interest thereon. Provided, however, that only such general fund warrants issued during the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which such funding or refunding operation is performed may be funded or refunded by the issuance of such notes; and provided further, that all warrants drawn against the General Fund during the calendar year in which such funding or refunding operation takes place and all warrants drawn against the General Fund in subsequent years in which such funding or refunding takes place shall be paid out of current funds appropriated for that purpose and shall never be funded or refunded.

Art. 802b-4. Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum Bonds, Refunding; Cities Over 100,000

Eligible Cities; Issuance of Refunding Bonds

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city of over one hundred thousand (100,000) population ac-ording to the last preceding Federal Census, which owns and operates an Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum against which there are outstanding revenue bonds issued for the construction thereof, and which owns and operates an unencumbered natural gas distribution system which serves the inhabitants of all or a part of such city. Any such city, for the purposes of this Act, shall be an "eligible" city.

Any eligible city is authorized, without an election and without notice of intention to issue such bonds, to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up and in lieu of its outstanding revenue bonds issued for the purpose of financing the Construction of its Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum, and may secure said refunding bonds by a pledge of the net revenues from the operation of such Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum, and by the net revenues from the operation of its natural gas distribution system; provided that the revenues from its natural gas distribution system shall not be pledged as security for such refunding bonds unless such refunding bonds are issued to bear an interest rate lower than the rate borne by said outstanding revenue bonds.

Maturity; Interest; Options; Bonds as Special Obligations

Sec. 2. The bonds issued under this Act shall mature serially within a period of time not exceeding thirty (30) years from their date. The governing body of such city shall prescribe the interest rates, maturities and any options of redemption prior to maturity of such bonds. Such bonds which constitute special obligations of the issuing city, shall never be considered indebtedness of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the revenues pledged for the payment of such bonds, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue tax supported bonds for any purpose authorized by law.

Books and Accounts; "Net Revenues"; Rates; Rentals; Charges; Reserve; Lien

Sec. 3. Whenever the income of such Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum and of such natural gas distribution system shall be encumbered as authorized in this Act it shall be the duty of the city to establish and maintain separate books and accounts for each of the properties whose income shall have been pledged. The total revenues remaining after providing for payment of reasonable operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges, resulting from the operation of the encumbered Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum shall constitute "net revenues." The total revenues remaining after providing for payment of reasonable operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges, resulting from the operation of the encumbered natural gas distribution system shall constitute "net revenues." The ordinance authorizing such revenue bonds shall prescribe the conditions under which such revenues may be used to pay depreciation, replacement, improvement and necessary expansion charges. It shall be the duty of any city issuing bonds under the provision of this Act to fix and maintain rates, rentals, and charges in the instance of each such encumbered property to assure receipt of income sufficient to pay reasonable operating, maintenance, improvement, necessary expansion and repair charges in connection with the proper operation of such property and to assure net revenues from the property or properties encumbered sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such bonds according to their tenor and effect, and to establish and maintain a reasonable reserve in the interest and sinking fund to be provided for such bonds. The requirement for a "reasonable reserve" shall be satisfied by establishing and maintaining in the Interest and Sinking Fund, in addition to requirements for a given calendar year, money sufficient to pay the principal and interest scheduled to mature and accrue during the succeeding calendar year. After such reserve account shall have been established and so long as it shall remain intact and while there are no delinquencies of principal or interest on any of the outstanding bonds, such city may use the pledged revenues in excess of such requirements for any other lawful purpose. The pledging of the revenues as authorized herein shall not constitute a lien on the physical properties of the Exposition and Convention Hall or Coliseum or of the Natural Gas Distribution System.

Required Clause; Transcript of Proceedings

Sec. 4. Every contract and bond, or other evidence of indebtedness, issued pursuant to this Act shall contain substantially the following clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." It shall be the duty of the officials of any such city to file with the Attorney General of the State of Texas a proper transcript of proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds and evidencing the pledge of revenues from which the principal and interest of said bonds are to be paid, and to deliver to the Attorney General the executed refunding bonds. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to approve such record and said bonds when issued in accordance with this law.

Registration of Bonds; Defenses

Sec. 5. After said bonds have been examined and approved by the Attorney General they shall be registered by the Comptroller and delivered in exchange for a like principal amount of said original revenue bonds. After receiving the approval by the Attorney General and having been registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, said bonds shall be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, valid and binding obligations. In every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds the certificate of approval by the Attorney General or a duly certified copy thereof shall be received in evidence of the validity of such bonds. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud.

Law as Cumulative; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 6. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with or are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provisions of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over any such conflicting or inconsistent provisions.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 652, ch. 395.]

Art. 802b-5. Home Rule or Special Charter Cities and Towns; Bonds to Pay Existing Judgments Authorized

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city or town operating under a special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted or amended pursuant to the Home Rule Amendment to the Constitution, having outstanding as of January 1, 1943, against its General Fund unpaid judgments or judgment in an amount exceeding fifty (50) per cent of its general fund revenue derivable from ad valorem taxes levied for the fiscal year within which the bonds hereinafter authorized are directed to be issued, bearing interest at a rate of five (5) per cent or more per annum, shall be authorized to order an election for the purpose of submitting to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters thereof the proposition of the issuance and sale of its bonds to provide funds for the payment of such judgment or judgments and the levy of a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest as it matures.

Sec. 2. Such bonds shall be authorized, issued and sold in the manner prescribed in the General Law relating to the issuance and sale of bonds by cities and towns, shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed twenty (20) years from their date and shall bear interest not to exceed four (4) per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually.

Sec. 3. When said bonds are issued it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city to levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest thereon as such principal and interest mature.

Sec. 4. Before such bonds are sold they shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination and approval in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as provided in said Articles.

Sec. 5. No bonds shall be delivered until the judgment or judgments for the payment of which such bonds are authorized has or have been released and such release of judgment is delivered to the city.

Sec. 6. All such judgments are hereby declared to be final and conclusive, and the evidences of obligations upon which such judgments were obtained are hereby validated and declared to be general obligations of such city, provided that this Section shall not be applicable to any such judgments from which an appeal is now pending or to obligations which may be in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 7. No provision in the charter of any such issuing city relating to the authorization, issuance and sale of bonds shall be applicable to the bonds issued hereunder but the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Sec. 8. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event any of the provisions of this Act conflict with, or are inconsistent with, the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with a provision of the charter of any such city, the provisions of this Act take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

[Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 26, ch. 23.]

Art. 802c. Refunding Bonds of Certain Cities Operating Utilities

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to cities operating under charters either adopted or amended by vote of the people, which own and operate waterworks, electric light and sanitary sewer systems, and whose outstanding bond and time warrant indebtedness, including accrued and unpaid interest thereon, exists in an aggregate amount of not less than thirty-five (35) per cent of the assessed valuation of the property in such city according to the latest approved official tax rolls. Any such city for the purposes of this Act shall be an "eligible" city.

Refunding Bonds Authorized; Proceedings under Municipal Bankruptcy Act Authorized; Pledge of Revenues from Utilities

Sec. 2. Any eligible city is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up all or any part of its outstanding indebtedness evidenced by bonds or interest-bearing time warrants, or both, regardless of whether such indebtedness is in its original form or has been funded, or refunded, in whole or in part, such refunding bonds to bear interest at a rate or rates to be determined by the governing body of said city, not exceeding the average rate or rates of interest borne by the indebtedness to be refunded, and no election shall be required as a condition precedent to the issuance of the said refunding securities. In the event not less than seventy-five (75) per cent of the total amount of its outstanding indebtedness is refunded in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by consent of the holders of such portion of such indebtedness, or under a plan of composition confirmed or to be confirmed by the Court in proceedings instituted by such city under Title 11, Chapter 9, of the United States Code,¹ and amendment thereto, which proceedings by any such city are hereby expressly authorized, the governing body of such eligible city, in addition to the levying of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said refunding bonds, is authorized to pledge to the payment of such principal and interest, a designated annual amount or a designated proportion of the net revenues from the operation of any one or more of the utility systems owned and operated by said city, which pledge shall remain in full force and effect so long as any part of the principal or interest of said refunding bonds is outstanding and unpaid. For the purposes of this Act the expression "net revenues" shall mean the gross revenues of such system or systems after the payment of the reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance, and collection of income, including salaries and wages of employees of such utility or utilities, the setting aside of a five (5) per cent (of such gross income) reserve for replacements, depreciations, and obsolescence, and for the construction of such extensions and additions as may be determined by the governing body to be reasonably necessary and economically justified. When such city issues refunding bonds under the provisions of this law it shall be the duty of the city, after making said pledge of such utility revenues, to establish and maintain utility rates adequate to yield revenues sufficient to operate and maintain said utility systems and to fulfill the city's pledge of said utility revenues.

Amount of Bonds; Procedure; Registration

Sec. 3. The refunding bonds authorized in this Act may be issued in an amount not exceeding the combined amount of outstanding principal, matured interest coupons, and accrued interest on said original securities and shall mature at such time or times as the governing body may prescribe. The procedure of the issuance of said refunding bonds shall be that which is prescribed in the Statutes for the issuance of refunding bonds to take up outstanding bonds.

Such refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in exchange for and upon cancellation of such original indebtedness after they shall have been approved by the Attorney General, and when so registered shall have all of the elements of protections of bonds approved by the Attorney General of Texas under the provisions of Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Form of Bonds; Exemptions From Certain Charter Provisions

Sec. 4. Refunding Bonds issued under this Act shall be fully negotiable coupon bonds payable to bearer, constituting general obligations of the issuing city, and the holders thereof shall succeed to all the privileges of the holders of the indebtedness constituting the basis of the Refunding Bonds except as modified and changed by the express terms of the proceedings employed in the refunding operation. No provisions in the charter of any such issuing city shall be applicable to the Refunding Bonds thus to be issued but the provisions of this Act and other General Laws shall prevail as to said Refunding Bonds. Particularly, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, said Refunding Bonds shall be exempt from any charter provision restricting the interest rate to be borne by said bonds, limiting the maximum tax rate which may be levied to pay the principal and interest thereof, restricting the place of payment, restricting the recovery of interest upon defaulted principal and interest coupons, requiring the registration of said bonds, requiring notice of intention as a condition precedent to the right to bring suit on said bonds or coupons, or requiring an election thereon.

Law Cumulative; Conflicting Provisions

Text of section as enacted by Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 132, ch. 103

Sec. 5. This law shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject. In the event that any provisions of this Act conflict with, or are inconsistent with, the provisions of any other law, general or special, or with the provision of the charter of any such eligible city, the provisions of this Act shall take precedence over such conflicting or inconsistent provisions and shall prevail.

Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds

Text of section as added by Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 78, ch. 54, § 1

Sec. 5. (a) Whenever a city shall have issued refunding bonds under the provisions of this law as passed originally or under any amendments thereof supported by a tax levy and by a pledge of a designated portion of the net revenues from the operation of one or more of its utility systems and so long as any part of such indebtedness is outstanding either as refunded originally or as again subsequently refunded, it may refund such indebtedness and it is further authorized and empowered to issue its fully negotiable coupon bonds, hereinafter called "Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds," from time to time, to finance repairs, replacements, extensions and improvements of and to one or more of its utility systems, payable from and secured as to principal and interest by a pledge of the net revenues only of any or all of said utility systems, provided that so long as any refunding bonds issued under the provisions of Chapter 103, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-seventh Legislature of Texas remain outstanding and unpaid, either as refunded originally or as again subsequently refunded, the pledge of the net revenues securing such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be of equal dignity with the pledge securing such refunding bonds, provided further, that while any of such refunding bonds are outstanding no Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be issued except to the extent expressly permitted by the ordinance authorizing such outstanding refunding bonds and in no event shall Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds be issued in an amount and under terms which would cause the aggregate amount of all annual pledges, securing the refunding bonds and Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds to exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the average net revenues of such utility systems for the three (3) completed fiscal years next preceding.

(b) Such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not more than forty (40) years from their date, with or without option of prior redemption as may be determined by the governing body, the terms of which option, if any, shall be prescribed in the authorizing ordinance and in the bonds, bearing interest at not exceeding five per cent (5%) per annum. No such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall be issued until authorized at an election for such purpose called and held in the manner provided in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ for the issuance of bonds by cities.

(c) When Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds shall have been issued hereunder they shall constitute special obligations of such city and such bonds shall never be a debt of the city, but solely a charge upon the pledged revenues and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the city to incur obligations payable from taxation. The bonds hereby authorized shall contain substantially the following provision:

The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

(d) The term "net revenues" as used herein shall mean the amount of gross revenues of the city's utility systems remaining after deducting:

(1) Expense of operation of said systems and collection of the income, including salaries and wages of employees thereof;

(2) Maintenance and repair of same;

(3) Five per cent (5%) of gross income therefrom as a reserve for depreciation and obsolescence, which sum may be invested in bonds of such city, the State of Texas, or the United States of America, and which reserve may be used for repairing damage caused by wars, riots, floods, hurricanes, fires, or acts of God or other causes not within the control of the governing body of the city;

(4) Cost of such extensions and repairs, as in the judgment of the governing body are necessary to keep the utility systems in operation and render adequate service to the city and its inhabitants or such as may be necessary to meet some physical accident or condition which would otherwise impair the efficient operation of the utility system;

(e) When any such bonds shall have been authorized and issued as herein permitted it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city, enforceable by any bondholder through mandamus or through any other method, to fix and maintain rates for services rendered by any and all of the city's utility systems sufficient to pay all operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation, replacement and betterment charges and to assure payment of the interest and principal of all such Refunding Bonds and Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds;

(f) Before any such Utility Improvement Revenue Bonds are sold they shall be submitted to and approved by the Attorney General in the manner and with the effect provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and except as prescribed in this Act said bonds shall be executed and issued in the manner provided by the charter of the city.

Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 78, ch. 54, added a new § 5, without mentioning or affecting a former § 5, which appeared in the original act, and which is entitled "Law cumulative; conflicting provisions".

Art. 802d. Refunding Bonds of Cities Whose Streets Link State Highways

Issuance

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city or town in this State whose street or streets form a connecting link between State Highways, having outstanding as of the effective date of this Act, unpaid and delinquent indebtedness against its general fund, whether in the form of scrip warrants, warrants or notes, or in either or all of such forms, and which cannot derive revenues for general fund operating purposes from any publicly owned utilities at this time, is hereby authorized to issue funding or refunding bonds for the purpose of funding any such items which constitute legal indebtedness of such city or town. No election nor notice of intention to issue such funding or refunding bonds shall be required. If funding or refunding bonds are issued they shall be issued in the manner prescribed by Article 717 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, for the issuance of refunding bonds.

Maturity; Interest Rate

Sec. 2. Such funding or refunding bonds shall mature serially or otherwise, not to exceed thirty (30) years from their date and shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually.

Tax Levy to Pay Bonds and Interest

Sec. 3. When said funding or refunding bonds are issued it shall be the duty of the governing body of such city or town to levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest thereon as such principal and interest mature.

Approval and Registration

Sec. 4. If funding or refunding bonds are issued they shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination and approval in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided in Articles 709 to 715, both inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as is provided in said Articles.

Outstanding Indebtedness Validated

Sec. 5. All such outstanding indebtedness is hereby validated, provided that the provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to any such items of indebtedness which may be in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Debt Burden Not Increased

Sec. 6. This Act shall not be interpreted so as to authorize an increase in the debt burden of any such city or town.

Act Cumulative; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 7. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but in the event any of its provisions are in conflict with any existing laws the provisions hereof shall prevail and be effective to the extent of such conflict.

Certificate of Necessity of Improvement

Sec. 8. If funding or refunding bonds are issued such city or town shall furnish to the Attorney General, at the time of submission of the bond transcript, a certificate of the necessity of such street improvement by the State Highway Department.

[Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 937, ch. 566.]

Art. 802e. Validation of Refunding Bonds of Cities and Proceedings Therefor

Wherever any city, pursuant to election and to ordinance adopted by the governing body thereof, has heretofore issued bonds of the city for any corporate purpose and where such bonds have been purchased from the holders thereof for the bond and sinking funds of such city and have been paid for with money taken from such funds, and where such bonds have been cancelled, through error or otherwise, and where the governing body of such city has heretofore adopted an ordinance authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds of such city for the purpose of refunding the indebtedness so represented, the proceedings authorizing such refunding bonds are hereby validated and confirmed and the bonds to be issued pursuant to such proceedings are validated and confirmed and shall, when duly issued, constitute the valid and legally binding obligations of such city in accordance with their terms. Each such city is authorized to do all things necessary to complete the issuance of such bonds and, within constitutional limitations, is hereby required to levy such taxes as may be necessary and fully sufficient to assure the prompt payment of principal of and interest on such bonds.

Art. 802f. Wharf and Terminal Facility Bonds of Cities or Towns, Bonds to Redeem; Subrogation

Sec. 1. Whenever any city or town in this state incorporated under general law or having a special charter, has outstanding unpaid revenue bonds issued for the purchase price, in whole or in part, of the wharf and terminal facilities, or an interest therein, theretofore purchased by such city or town, which bonds are subject to call and redemption prior to their maturity and are secured by an encumbrance on such wharf and terminal facilities, or an interest therein, and a pledge of the revenues thereof, such city or town, subject to the below prescribed requirements, conditions and restrictions, through its governing body, may, for the purpose of redeeming such revenue bonds, issue negotiable bonds of such city or town in an aggregate principal amount not greater than the aggregate principal amount of the revenue bonds redeemed and the interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption and having an interest rate less than the interest rate of the revenue bonds redeemed, and may make provision for the payment of the bonds issued under authority of this Act, by annual levies of taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund to pay them at maturity; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued under authority of this Act unless the issuance thereof, and the levy of annual taxes to provide for the payment of the interest thereon and create a sinking fund with which to pay them at maturity, shall have been authorized at an election called and conducted under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas¹ and laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto which shall govern the issuance of all bonds issued under the authority herein given.

Sec. 2. Any city or town which may redeem its outstanding revenue bonds in the manner prescribed in Section 1 hereof, shall thereupon become subrogated to the rights of the holders of the bonds so redeemed insofar as payments from the revenues of the wharf and terminal facilities are concerned, and be entitled to have paid into its general fund from such revenues like amounts as would have been payable on the bonds redeemed had the same remained outstanding; but such rights on the part of such city or town shall in no wise limit any encumbrance on the properties securing any other outstanding revenue bonds secured by such encumbrance, nor shall such encumbrance in anywise inure to the benefit of such city or town, or in anywise be enforceable by it, but shall remain in full force for the sole benefit of the holders of any unpaid revenue bonds whose rights to enforce such encumbrance shall remain superior to the right of such city or town to payments from the revenues of the wharf and terminal facilities properties above prescribed. Nor shall anything herein contained be deemed as affecting the right of any such city or town to payments from such revenues provided to be made by the terms of any contract under which its revenue bonds may have been issued, but such contract right on the part of such city or town shall remain unaffected, and payments to which such city or town is entitled thereunder shall be made in addition to the payments above prescribed in this section.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 683, ch. 345.]

Art. 802g. Refunding Bonds Due Serially Issued Under Composition Plan Approved Under Bankruptcy Act

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding refunding bonds, whether revenue bonds or tax supported bonds, or both, issued pursuant to a plan of composition confirmed by a United States District Court under the National Bankruptcy Laws, which do not mature in annual installments, hereinafter called "Term Bonds".

Maturities; Interest Rate; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized to issue refunding bonds (hereinafter called "Serial Refunding Bonds") having serial maturities and bearing interest at a rate to be determined by the governing body of the city provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed an average rate of four (4%) per cent per annum, for the purpose of refunding such outstanding term bonds, in the manner provided by law for the issuance of city refunding bonds. Where serial refunding bonds are issued to refund outstanding revenue bonds, the governing body of the city is authorized to secure the serial refunding bonds by a deed of trust upon the utility system as well as by a pledge of the net revenues of the system if the bonds being refunded so provide.

Sale of Refunding Bonds in Lieu of Exchange for Term Bonds

Sec. 3. In lieu of exchanging the serial refunding bonds for the term bonds in the manner otherwise provided by law, the city may, at any time after calling the outstanding term bonds for redemption in the manner provided in said bonds, sell the serial refunding bonds (or the unexchanged portion of them) at not less than par and accrued interest and deposit the principal amount received from such sale together with the additional amount necessary to pay the interest to the call date, with the bank where the term bonds are payable, in which event, a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register the serial refunding bonds without cancellation of the underlying term bonds and deliver them as provided in said ordinance or resolution. No city charter provision relating to the terms, issuance, sale and delivery of bonds shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Existing Ordinances Relating to Bonds Validated

Sec. 4. If, prior to the effective date of this Act, any such city has passed an ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of serial refunding bonds and making provisions for the payment and security thereof, including, in the case of revenue bonds, the pledge of revenues and the encumbrance on the properties of the utility system or systems, such ordinance or ordinances and the provisions for the payment and security of the serial refunding bonds, are hereby validated and ratified.

Incontestability of Bonds

Sec. 5. When such serial refunding bonds shall have been authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, signed by the Mayor and City Secretary or Clerk of said city, approved by the Attorney General of Texas, and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable and shall constitute valid and binding obligations of such city.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 665, ch. 236.]

Art. 802h. Refunding Bonds Adjudicated to be Valid by Federal Court or Issued Pursuant to Plan of Composition Under Bankruptcy Laws

Eligible Cities

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding refunding bonds adjudicated to be valid by a decree of the Federal Court, or issued pursuant to a plan of composition confirmed by a United States District Court under the National Bankruptcy Laws, where the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds provides that not less than a fixed rate of tax therein specified shall be levied, assessed and collected each year so long as any of such bonds or interest thereon are outstanding. Such bonds are herein called "Original Refunding Bonds."

Maturities; Interest Rate

Sec. 2. Any such city is hereby authorized to issue refunding bonds (hereinafter called "New Refunding Bonds") having serial maturities and bearing interest at a rate to be determined by the governing body of the city, not to exceed six percent (6%) per annum, for the purpose of refunding such Original Refunding Bonds, in the manner provided by law for the issuance of city refunding bonds.

Sale of New Refunding Bonds in Lieu of Exchange for Original Refunding Bonds

Sec. 3. In lieu of exchanging the New Refunding Bonds for the Original Refunding Bonds in the manner otherwise provided by law, the city may sell the New Refunding Bonds (or the unexchanged portion of them) at not less than par and accrued interest and deposit the principal amount received from such sale, together with the additional amount necessary to pay the interest to the call date, or maturity dates, with the bank where the Original Refunding Bonds are payable, in which event, a certified copy of the ordinance or resolution so providing shall be transmitted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts and he shall register the New Refunding Bonds without cancellation of the Original Refunding Bonds and deliver them as provided in said ordinance or resolution. No city charter provision relating to the terms, issuance, sale and delivery of bonds shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Incontestability of Bonds

Sec. 4. When such New Refunding Bonds shall have been authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, signed by the Mayor and city secretary or clerk of said city, approved by the Attorney General of Texas, and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable and shall constitute valid and binding obligations of such city.

Art. 803. Power to Issue

For the purpose of constructing and maintaining pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for irrigation purposes or in aid thereof, or purchasing any such improvements already existing and adding thereto and paying incidental expenses connected therewith, counties may issue bonds not to exceed one fourth of the assessed valuation of its real property and levy and collect necessary taxes to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 804. Order for Election

Upon the petition of fifty or more resident property taxpaying voters of a county for an election upon the question of issuing bonds under the provisions of Section 52, Article 3, or Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, the commissioners court shall at a regular or special session thereof, order an election to determine whether or not the bonds of such county shall be issued in an amount not to exceed one fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county for the purposes stated in the preceding article, and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county for the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds and providing a sinking fund for the redemption thereof.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 805. Amount of Bonds, etc.

The amount of bonds proposed to be issued, with the rate of interest thereon not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, and the date of maturity, shall be stated in the petition, in the order for the election, and in the notice therefor; or such order and notice may provide that the bonds may bear interest at a rate to be fixed by the commissioners court, not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, and that the bonds may mature at such times as may be fixed by the commissioners court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed forty years from their date.

Art. 806. Limit of Indebtedness

Where such county contains any district or districts organized under Section 52 of Article 3, or Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, the percentage of indebtedness of any such district based upon its assessed valuation of real property in the district, together with the percentage of the proposed county indebtedness based upon the assessed valuation of the real property of the county as shown by the last approved assessment rolls of such district and of the county, shall never exceed in any one or more of such districts, or in the county, twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of real property of such district or districts, or of such county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 807. Election

These rules shall govern the conduct and holding of such election:

1. Only resident property taxpayers who are qualified electors of the county shall be allowed to vote in such election, and a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted thereat.

2. The ballots to be used at such election shall have written or printed thereon the words "For the issuance of the bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof," and "Against the issuance of the bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." The commissioners court shall furnish the ballots for each of the polling places.

3. The election order shall fix the time of holding said election and shall designate the polling place or places in each voting precinct in the county where said election shall be held, and shall name a presiding judge, a judge and two clerks for each polling place, or may name more election officers for any polling place if the court considers it necessary.

4. A copy of the election order signed by the county judge shall serve as proper notice of said election, and one copy shall be posted at each polling place and one at the courthouse door for at least full twenty days prior to the date of the election, and shall also be published in a newspaper published in said county for three consecutive weeks prior to the date of said election, the first publication to be full twenty-one days before the date of the election.

5. The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of this State, except as otherwise herein provided.

6. Immediately after the election the presiding judge at each polling place shall make returns of the result of the election showing the total number of votes cast, the number cast for and against the proposition, and he shall deliver such returns to the county clerk who shall keep them in a safe place and deliver them to the commissioners court, who shall at a regular or special session, canvass said returns and declare the result of said election by order entered upon the minutes of the court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 808. Order of Issuance

If the issuance of the bonds and levy of the tax have been so adopted, the commissioners court, at a regular term thereof, shall make and enter an order directing the issuance of the bonds authorized, and in said order shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest thereon, payable at such place or places as provided in said order, and to redeem such bonds at maturity.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 809. Additional Bond Issue

If bonds have been authorized to be issued, or have been issued as herein provided, and if the commissioners court of such county shall consider it necessary to make any modifications in any of the proposed improvements, or shall determine to purchase or construct further or additional improvements and issue additional bonds, or purchase additional property in order to carry out the purposes of the project, or to best serve the interests of the county, such findings shall be entered of record, and an order for an election shall be entered and notice thereof given, and such election shall be held and the result thereof declared, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and if the result of such election be in favor of the issuance of such additional bonds, the commissioners court may order such additional bonds to be issued in the manner herein provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 810. May Issue Notes

Whenever a county shall have constructed or purchased improvements and the same shall be damaged so that it may be necessary to raise funds to repair such damage, the county may issue bonds to raise such funds in the manner provided in this chapter, or may issue its notes therefor. Such notes shall run not to exceed twenty years and bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum payable annually or semi-annually.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 811. Shall Order Election

Before such notes are issued, the commissioners court shall order an election and give notice thereof, as required for elections upon bond issues, stating the purpose for which they are to be issued, the time they are to run, the rate of interest, and the time and place or places of election.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 812. Ballot, etc.

The ballots for such election shall have written or printed thereon "For the issuance of notes," and "Against the issuance of notes." Such election shall be held and returns made and canvassed as provided herein for bond elections. If a two-thirds majority of those voting at such election voted in favor of the issuance of such notes, the commissioners court may issue and sell same for the benefit of said county and the purpose or purposes for which authorized.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 813. Requisites of Issuance

The commissioners court shall pass and enter an order directing and authorizing the issuance of the notes, and in said order provisions shall be made for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the current interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of the principal at maturity. Said notes may be issued to mature serially or otherwise, as may be provided in the election order and notice of election. The limitation of indebtedness hereinbefore provided shall also apply to the issuance of such additional bonds and such notes.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 814. Issuance of Bonds and Notes

All bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the county, and such bonds shall be designated "... County Water Improvement Bonds," and such notes shall be designated "... County Water Improvement Notes," and shall be signed by the county judge, countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer, and the seal of the commissioners court shall be impressed thereon, and may be in such denominations as may be fixed by the commissioners court.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 815. May Exchange Bonds

The commissioners court may exchange bonds for property or in payment of the contract price for work to be done in the construction of said improvements.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 816. Sale of Bonds and Notes

The commissioners court shall sell or exchange such bonds and notes on the best terms and for the best obtainable price, not less than their par value. When the bonds or notes are sold, the proceeds shall immediately be delivered to the county treasurer.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 817. Other Counties May Avail

Any county desiring to issue bonds in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall bring an action in the district court of such county, or in the district court of Travis County, to determine the validity of such bonds in the manner provided for the validation of Water Improvement District Bonds in Chapter 2 of the Title "Water"¹ and each provision of said chapter relative to such suit, the duties of the Attorney General and Comptroller, the judgment to be rendered, the effect of such judgment, and other matters connected therewith, shall apply to the validation of such county bonds.

¹ Article 7622 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Water Code).

Art. 818. Special Powers

Counties operating under the provisions of this chapter are hereby empowered to own and construct reservoirs, dams, levees, wells, canals and other improvements, and to acquire the necessary rights-of-way and other lands by purchase or by condemnation in the manner provided for the condemnation of right-of-way by railroad companies, and to do, construct, purchase and acquire all other works and improvements required for the proper and efficient irrigation of the lands in such county.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 819. Special Fund

The commissioners court shall annually levy a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on such bonds and to pay the principal thereof as the same becomes due, and said tax shall be assessed and collected as other county taxes, and when collected shall constitute a special fund and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose than in this article provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 820. Control of System

The commissioners court shall have and exercise the control and management of the affairs and operation of the irrigation system of such county to the same extent and in the manner provided in Chapter 2 of the Title "Water,"¹ as conferred upon the directors of Water Improvement Districts, and said court shall exercise all of the powers relative to the control, management, affairs and operation of such county irrigation system as such directors have under the provisions of said chapter, and all the provisions of said chapter relative to the control management, affairs and operation of Water Improvement Districts shall apply to the control, management, affairs and operation of such county irrigation system.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

¹ Article 7622 et seq. (repealed; see, now, Water Code).

Art. 821. Other Improvements

Any county authorized under the provisions of this chapter, may issue bonds for the improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflow and for all necessary drainage purposes in connection therewith, and bonds proposed to be issued for the combined purposes stated in this chapter, or for any two of said purposes, shall be treated and deemed as for one purpose and may be voted upon as one proposition.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 822. Repealed by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 962, ch. 406, § 5.

CHAPTER SIX A. NAVIGATION AID BONDS

Art.

- 822a. Power to Issue.
- 822b. Eminent Domain.
- 822c. Elections and Order for Issuance.
- 822d. Bonds and Warrants.
- 822e. Right of Way and Conveyance to United States.
- 822f. Bonds by Coastal Counties for Canal Purposes.

Art. 822a. Power to Issue

Any county in this State may, upon a vote of a two-thirds majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon, who are qualified electors of such county, at an election held hereunder as hereinafter provided, in addition to all other debts, issue bonds or warrants or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county, and levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest thereon, and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, as herein provided, for the purpose of navigation, or in aid of navigation, by securing right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges for any canal or water-way, authorized to be constructed under any Act of the United States Congress now in force, or hereafter enacted, and shall have the power, after any right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges have been secured, to convey same to the Government of the United States, if necessary to do so to aid in any navigation by waterways, or canals.

[Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 129, ch. 84, § 1.]

Art. 822b. Eminent Domain

Sec. 2. Any county in this State shall have the right of eminent domain for the purpose of carrying out the authority granted in Section 1 of this Act.¹

Sec. 3. Said county shall have the right in lieu of exercising its right to eminent domain, as hereinbefore provided, to permit the Government of the United States to exercise its right of eminent domain, and lend its credit in guaranteeing the Government of the United States to pay such judgment or assessment of damages, as may be entered against said Government of the United States, for the value of such property as it may condemn for such right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges.

Art. 822c. Elections and Order for Issuance

Sec. 4. The commissioners' court of any county in this State may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon a petition presented to it by twenty-five of the resident property tax payers therein, at a regular or special term of said court, order an election for the purpose of determining as to whether or not said county shall issue bonds or warrants, or otherwise lend its credit for the purpose of navigation or in aid thereof, by securing the necessary right-of-way for the purposes indicated in Section 1 hereof;¹ said election order shall describe as near as may be, the navigation purposes, or the aid thereto proposed, or the right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges, necessary to be secured and the amount of bonds or warrants, or extent of credit proposed to be authorized for such purposes; and if bonds or warrants are to be issued, their maturity dates and the rate of interest; and if it is proposed to lend the credit of the county in lieu of the issuance of bonds or warrants, said election order shall state the manner in which said credit is proposed to be used, and the extent thereof, and the terms and conditions thereof. Twenty days notice of the holding of said election shall be given by publication in some newspaper published at the county seat of said county, and by posting in three public places in the county, one of which, shall be at the county seat.

Sec. 5. The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon, the words and none other: "For the issuance of bonds (or warrants) or (loaning of credit) and levy of a tax in payment thereof," and "Against the issuance of bonds (or warrants) or (loaning of credit) and the levy of a tax in payment thereof."

Sec. 6. If the proposition submitted to the voters of said county is at said election, adopted by them, the commissioners' court shall enter the same in the minutes of said court, setting out the date of election, the notice of election, the result of the election, together with an order providing for the issuance of such bonds, or warrants, stating the amount thereof, the maturities thereof, and the rate of interest, and at the same time levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest of said bonds or warrants, and providing a sinking fund sufficient to liquidate same at maturity, or as the case may be, setting out the mode and manner and conditions under which it is determined at said election to lend its credit and the extent thereof.

Sec. 7. If, at said election, the credit of the county is to be used otherwise than by the issuance of bonds or warrants, and in such manner as that its use creates a debt against the county, the commissioners' court shall, at a regular or special term thereof, at the time of the entering of said order, authorizing the use of said credit and the creation of said debt, levy a tax sufficient to pay said debt, or such amount thereof, as may mature during the current year, and shall from year to year, levy a tax sufficient to liquidate same as it accrues.

Art. 822d. Bonds and Warrants

Sec. 8. All bonds or warrants issued under the provisions of this Act¹ shall be issued in the name of the county; shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk under the seal of the commissioners' court; they shall be issued in such denominations and payable at such time, or times, not to exceed forty years from their date as may be deemed most expedient by the court, and shall bear interest not to exceed 6% per annum. All bonds shall be approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller as other county bonds are approved and registered; all bonds or warrants shall be sold by the commissioners' court on the best terms and for the best price possible, but for not less than face par value and accrued interest, and all moneys received therefor, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and by him placed to the credit of the navigation fund of such county, and paid out on warrants, as other county funds are disbursed.

Sec. 9. When bonds or warrants have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected annually, taxes sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds, and to provide a sinking fund to redeem the same at maturity, and if the credit of the county is used otherwise than by the issuance of bonds and warrants, in such a way as that a debt against the county is created, said court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected annually a tax sufficient to pay said indebtedness as and when it accrues. The sinking fund of said bonds or warrants, shall be invested as the sinking fund of other county bonds are invested.

¹Articles 822a to 822e.

Art. 822e. Right of Way and Conveyance to United States

Sec. 10. When right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges have been secured by such county under the provisions hereof, either by purchase, condemnation, or donation, such county shall have the right, and is hereby authorized to convey said right-of-way and necessary dumping privileges to the Government of the United States by deed executed as other deeds by counties are required to be executed.

Sec. 11. The purpose of this Act being to grant authority to the counties of Texas to issue bonds, warrants or otherwise lend their credit to acquire and convey to the United States Government, the necessary right-of-way for waterways or navigable canals, the construction of which has been, or may be, authorized by the Government of the United States; the cost of construction and maintenance of which, is to be borne by the Government of the United States, and for no other purpose, and the provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed for the purpose of carrying out such intent.

Art. 822f. Bonds by Coastal Counties for Canal Purposes

The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all counties adjacent to the Gulf of Mexico of the State of Texas, for the purpose of condemning and acquiring land, right of way or easement or dumping ground privileges in land, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, where said land, right of way, easement or dumping ground privilege is necessary in the construction of an intra-coastal canal.

All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the Commissioners' Court, and in the name of the county, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the Statutes of the State of Texas for condemning and acquiring of right of way by railroads. Provided, that no appeal from the finding and assessment of damages by the Commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing the suspension of work by the county or the Government of the United States, in connection with which the land, right of way, easement, etc., is sought to be acquired; and provided, further, that in case of appeal counties shall not be required to give bond, nor shall they be required to give bond for costs.

In all of the counties of this State adjacent to the Gulf of Mexico, the Commissioners' Courts are authorized to issue time warrants bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, to be used for the purpose of purchasing or paying for lands for right of way and easement and dumping ground purposes for an intracoastal canal. The lands needed may be acquired by direct purchase or by payment after condemnation proceedings.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 834, ch. 347, § 1. Amended by Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 7, ch. 4, § 1.]

Art. 823. May Issue Bonds

Any city or town may issue its coupon bonds for such sum as it may deem expedient for the purpose of the construction or purchase of public buildings, waterworks, sewers, and other permanent improvements within the city limits, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges, and streets of such city or town. This article includes building sites and buildings for the public free schools and institutions of learning within such cities and towns which assume the exclusive control of their public free schools and institutions of learning. Such bonds shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum and shall become due and payable serially or otherwise not to exceed forty years from their date and may be payable at such place as may be fixed by ordinance.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 824. Limitations

The limitations now provided by law upon the bonds that such cities may issue shall not apply to bonds issued under this law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 825. Signature

All bonds issued by a city or town shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city secretary.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 826. Shall Provide for Tax

The governing body, when the issuance of bonds has been authorized, shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of such bonds and all other outstanding bonds of such city or town issued since September 25, 1883.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 827. Funding of Debt

The governing body shall pass all necessary ordinances to provide for funding the whole or any part of the existing debt of the city or any future debt by cancelling the evidences thereof, and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest at any annual rate not to exceed six per cent. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 827a. Payment of Warrants and Vouchers Previously Issued

The towns and cities, organized under and governed by the General Laws of the State of Texas, may renew, extend and pay warrants and vouchers executed and delivered for the purpose of securing funds and for the purpose of borrowing funds for the use of such towns and cities prior to June 1, 1932, and all extensions and renewals thereof; provided that the provisions hereof shall apply only where such funds received and borrowed, and used by such towns and cities prior to June 1, 1932, do not exceed the total sum of Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars. Such warrants and vouchers may be so issued to bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum and may be so issued without the necessity of the approval thereof by the Attorney General and without the necessity of a registration thereof by the Comptroller, and may be made payable within one year from date of the issuance or more than one year; taxes may be levied and used to provide for the payment thereof; providing, however, that nothing herein shall affect any pending litigation.

Art. 828. May Compromise Debts

The governing body, by their resolution or ordinance, by referring to this law and adopting the same, are authorized to compromise and fund any existing valid indebtedness issued by the city or town, whether bonded or floating, and the coupons due upon the bonded debt. For such purpose, they are authorized to issue new bonds in denominations of not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable annually, to become due and payable in not exceeding thirty years, and to bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 829. Exceptions

No compromise shall be made by which any debt shall be funded when such debt is barred by the statutes of limitations.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 830. Liquidation Board

Whenever a compromise of the debt of any city or town shall be so affected, and the bonds are delivered to the creditors, a board of liquidation consisting of five reputable citizens of such city or town shall forthwith be appointed and organized in the manner following:

1. One each shall be appointed by the mayor of the city or town, the city council, the Governor, any district judge of the district in which such city or town is situated, and the holders of said indebtedness or a majority of them, and each shall fill vacancies in the office of their respective appointee in said board.

2. In case of failure, neglect or refusal of any or all of said officers to appoint a member of said board or to fill vacancies therein, then the holders of said bonds or any one or more of them may apply to any district court of the district in which such town or city is situated, or to the judge thereof in vacation, for the appointment of the members necessary to complete said board, and said court or judge shall make such appointment.

3. The members of said board shall serve without compensation, and shall hold office for four years. Each member of said board shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. A majority of said board shall be a quorum to transact business.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 831. Liquidation

These rules shall govern the handling and disposition of all moneys coming under the control of the board as herein provided:

1. Said board shall select some solvent depository for such moneys, for whose acts they shall be responsible, and shall, in writing, signed by them, notify the tax collector of said city or town, of said selection.

2. Said collector shall thereupon deposit at the close of business of each day one-half of all moneys collected by him for the twenty-four hours next preceding, on account of all the taxes of whatever nature levied by said city or town, with the said depository, whose receipt therefor shall be an acquittance of said collector.

3. The collector shall be liable on his official bond for any failure to promptly make such deposits and for ten per cent per month of such amounts in addition thereto as penalty, which sums may be recovered by said board in a suit therefor, which they shall promptly institute.

4. Whenever the total of said deposits shall equal the annual interest on said bonds, it shall be lawful for the collector to discontinue said deposits until he shall be notified in writing by said board that said deposits are reduced below that sum.

5. Said funds shall be subject to said board and shall be applied by it to the payment, first of the interest on the said bonds as they mature, secondly, to the payment of the principal thereof, and thirdly, to the payment of interest of any valid bonds issued by such city and not embraced in any issue of bonds issued under the provisions of this law, and fourthly, to the payment of the principal of bonds of the character last referred to on the maturity of the same.

6. The members of said board shall be liable for the prompt payment of interest out of said funds, and in case of failure or refusal, they shall in addition be liable to ten per cent of the amount of such interest as damages to be recovered by any person aggrieved thereby.

7. Whenever there shall be in the hands of such depository a sufficient sum to pay two per cent of the principal of said bonds in addition to one year's interest, said board shall use the same in the purchase of outstanding bonds as provided by law, and such bonds when so purchased shall be returned to the city council together with all coupons which have been paid.

8. Expenses incurred by the board in advertising for purchasers of bonds shall be paid out of said funds.

9. Said board shall make semi-annual reports to the city council of its acts and of all receipts and disbursements of money coming under their control.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 832. State Tax Laws

Whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith, either by the holders of the present bonds or by any persons purchasing new bonds, as herein provided, all laws now or hereafter in force for the assessment and collection of State taxes shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suit instituted to enforce the payment of said bonds or coupons against any such city or town, no defense either in law or equity, shall be admitted in any court of this State, except such as originated upon, or subsequent to, the issuance of such new bonds.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 833. Payment of Taxes With Bonds

The new bonds thus issued by a city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town. The taxes levied to pay such new bonds may be paid with the bonds or coupons thereof if matured. Said coupons and bonds shall only be received in payment of taxes which have been levied for the purpose of paying such bonds and coupons.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 834. Further Compromise

Cities and towns may compromise and liquidate their indebtedness and issue bonds therefor under such conditions as are prescribed in this title conferring such authority on counties, cities and towns, and as may be otherwise provided by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 835. Harbor Bonds

When necessary therefor, cities which border on the Gulf of Mexico may issue the coupon bonds of such cities to bear interest at not exceeding five per cent per annum for the purpose of improving or aiding the improvement of their harbors and the bars at the entrance thereof in such amounts as may be deemed necessary not to exceed the limit of indebtedness fixed by their respective charters, and may appropriate for such purpose money out of any surplus fund which may be on hand at any time, and when any bonds may be on hand, the issuance of which has been made for other purposes and may not be needed for such purpose. Such surplus bonds may be sold and the proceeds used for such improvements.

Arts. 835a, 835b. Repealed by Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 33, ch. 26, § 1; Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 771, ch. 309, § 8

Art. 835c. Hospital Sites in Cities and Counties

Any city or county in this State, acting by or through the governing body of such city or Commissioners Court of such county, may issue negotiable bonds of the city or county, as the case may be, and levy taxes for the sinking fund of such bonds, and the levying of such taxes being in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, of the Revised Civil Statutes, of 1925,¹ which bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to condemnation or purchase, either or both, of lands to be used for hospital purposes; and which lands when so acquired, or if such city or county shall already own land or sites that are suitable and adequate for hospital purposes, then such lands so owned, may be by such city or county donated to the State of Texas or the United States of America for hospital purposes, where the State of Texas or United States of America has or may agree to erect and maintain hospitals thereon; or if any such city or county has in its general fund sufficient funds for the acquisition of such property, same may be diverted and applied for such use; provided also that such city or county may stipulate for and agree to accept a nominal award as full compensation for such lands in any condemnation proceeding, including proceedings pending when this Act becomes effective, instituted by the State of Texas or the United States of America for the acquisition of such lands for hospital purposes; provided further that all such donations or contracts to make such donations made or entered into by and between any city or county in this State and the United States of America prior to the date of the approval of this Act, whether consummated by voluntary conveyance, condemnation proceedings, or otherwise, be and the same are fully and completely validated, ratified, and confirmed; and provided further that nothing in this Act shall be construed by any city or county to exceed the limits of indebtedness placed upon it under the Constitution.

Art. 835d. Unconstitutional

This article, derived from Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 771, ch. 309, was held invalid as creating "debt" against city in violation of Const. Art. 11, §§ 5 and 7. City of Fort Worth v. Bobbitt, 121 T. 14, 41 S.W.2d 228.

Art. 835e. Bonds Validated

That all proceedings had prior to March 1, 1935, by the governing bodies of all independent school districts, cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas in the issuance and sale of bonds, to aid in financing any undertaking for which a loan or grant has been made by the United States through the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or any other agency, department or division of the Government of the United States of America are hereby in all things fully validated, confirmed, approved and legalized and all bonds issued thereunder are hereby declared to be the valid and binding obligations of such independent school districts, cities or towns, and all bonds which were prior to March 1, 1935, authorized but not yet issued shall, when delivered and paid for, constitute valid and binding obligations of such independent school district, city or town. All tax levies made by such governing bodies for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or warrants are hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved and legalized. Provided that this Act shall not validate any bonds now in litigation.

Art. 835e-1. Refunding Bonds of Home Rule Cities Validated

Sec. 1. In each instance wherein any city operating under a special charter, either adopted by vote of the people or granted by the Legislature and thereafter amended by vote of the people, which allocates its permitted taxing power to specified purposes at fixed rates for each such purpose, has passed an ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds to refund all of the outstanding bonds of such city, and said refunding bonds and bonds to be refunded thereby have been approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, the proceedings had by such city in authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds and the tax levied to pay the principal and interest thereof are hereby validated, and said refunding bonds, when registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts in exchange for the bonds to be refunded thereby are hereby validated, notwithstanding the fact that one or more issues of such refunding bonds or of the bonds refunded thereby may have been authorized and issued for the purpose of refunding bonds originally payable from such separate tax allocations, and the taxes levied to pay the principal and interest of such refunding bonds are hereby validated and shall not be affected by any provisions of such charter requiring allocation of such taxes to such specific purposes.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any bonds, the validity of which is being questioned in litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 699.]

Art. 835e-2. Fire-Fighting Equipment Bonds Validated

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore voted and authorized by any city for the purpose of equipping fire stations or purchasing firefighting equipment, including all proceedings and the authorization and issuance thereof are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed notwithstanding the lack of charter or statutory power of such city or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds; and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered for not less than par and accrued interest, shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of such cities.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued pursuant thereto the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 835f. Sale of Bonds or Obligations by Municipal or Political Subdivisions to Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Federal Agency

That all counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions of this State, which may own bonds or any other obligations or evidences of indebtedness, of an irrigation, levee, drainage, or school district of this State, or of any County, Municipality, or other political subdivisions thereof, or that may own any other kind of municipal bonds or evidences of indebtedness, are hereby authorized to sell, compromise or exchange the same to, or with, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or any other agency of the Federal Government, at less than par and/or at a price which may seem just and fair and agreed upon by the owners of such securities, provided, that in all such sales, exchanges or compromises, the bonds, obligations, securities, or evidences of debt so acquired by such Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or other agency of the Federal Government, shall never become a charge against the irrigation, levee, drainage, or school district, or the county or municipality issuing same, for more than the amount paid therefor by said Reconstruction Finance Corporation or other agency of the Federal Government, plus interest at the rate provided for in such securities. The privilege of purchasing, compromising or exchanging such bonds, obligations, or evidences of indebtedness for less than par value, shall only apply to purchases, compromises, or exchanges made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or by any other agency of the Federal Government, acting through its own representative or through the district, county, municipality or political subdivision obligated to pay such securities.

Art. 835g. Use for Other Purposes of Bond Monies Dedicated to Specific Public Improvement in Certain Cities and Towns; Election Authorizing Transfer

Sec. 1. All cities and towns in this State having a population of not less than 15,100 and not more than 15,250, according to the last preceding Federal Census, which have the exclusive control of the schools within its limits, are hereby expressly authorized to utilize bond monies on hand, which have heretofore been authorized by the Council of said City, for public improvements of whatsoever character within said city, for the use and benefit of the public schools within such city or any purpose authorized by City Commission. Provided that before any such transfer shall be authorized the question of the transfer shall be submitted to the property tax paying voters of said city at an election to be held in accordance with the provisions of the law which were followed in issuing the bonds originally. And no such transfer shall be made unless a majority of the legally qualified voters of said City vote in favor of such transfer. Provided further, that this law shall not apply in any case wherein the funds are being expended upon the public works for which they were voted. It is expressly provided that it shall only apply in case the public improvement for which the bonds were originally issued have never been commenced.

Sec. 2. The City Council, by following the procedure set out in Section 1, is hereby authorized to repurchase and cancel such bonds, if in their discretion the same is for the benefit of the property tax paying voters of the municipality.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 1865, ch. 2.]

Art. 835h. Bonds for Improvement of Parking Lots

Bonds Authorized; Pledge of Revenues

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city in this State having less than sixty thousand (60,000) population which is operating under a home rule charter and which city on January 1, 1949, owned and was operating a public parking lot or lots is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds of the city for the purpose of constructing, building, or erecting buildings and other permanent improvements on said public parking lot or lots then being used for the public parking or storage of motor vehicles, such negotiable revenue bonds to be secured solely by a pledge of, and payable from, the net revenues derived from the operation of said parking lot or lots and the buildings and other permanent improvements thereon. "Net revenues" is defined as the gross revenues minus all operation and maintenance expenses. No such bonds shall ever be considered as a debt of the city, but solely a charge upon the pledged revenues, and such bonds shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the city to incur obligations payable from taxation. Such bonds shall contain on the face thereof the following provision:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Issuance, Maturity and Interest; Election; Incontestability

Sec. 2. Such bonds shall be payable serially in not more than forty (40) years from date and shall bear interest at not more than five per cent (5%) per annum. Such bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Secretary; provided, however, that the facsimile signatures of such officers may be printed or lithographed on the interest coupons attached thereto. Such bonds shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest. Such bonds may be issued without the necessity of any election therefor; provided, however, that the governing body, if it so determines, may order an election to determine whether a majority of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters who have taxable property and who have duly rendered the same for taxation voting therein desire the issuance of such bonds, such election to be held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter One, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.¹ Any bonds issued under this Act shall be incontestable after issuance and delivery except for fraud and forgery. It shall not be necessary to submit any of such bonds or proceedings to the Attorney General, and the Attorney General shall have no power or authority to examine and approve or disapprove the same.

Personnel; Fees and Tolls

Sec. 3. Such city is authorized to employ necessary personnel to operate the parking facilities authorized by this Act, and is authorized to prescribe and enforce the fees and tolls which are to be charged for the use of such parking lot or lots and buildings and other improvements thereon. The expense of operation and maintenance thereof shall always be a first lien and charge against the income thereof. So long as any of said bonds or any interest thereon remain outstanding, the city shall charge or require payment of fees and tolls which shall be equal and uniform within classes defined by the governing body of such city, and which shall be sufficient to pay expenses of operation and maintenance and to pay the principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds as such principal matures and as such interest accrues, and to establish and maintain such reserve or reserves, if any, as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Additional Bonds

Sec. 4. So long as any such revenue bonds are outstanding, no additional bonds of equal dignity shall be issued against the pledged revenues, except to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Exemption From Taxation

Sec. 5. Any bond issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be exempt from taxation by the State of Texas or by any municipal corporation, county or other political subdivision or taxing district of the State.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. In case any one or more of the Sections or provisions of this Act shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other Sections or provisions of this Act.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 385, ch. 205.]

Art. 835i. Bonds for Fire Truck and Fire Equipment; Validation

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore voted and authorized by any city for the purpose of purchasing a fire truck and fire equipment, including all proceedings and the authorization and issuance thereof are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed notwithstanding the lack of charter or statutory power of such city or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds; and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered for not less than par and accrued interest, shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of such cities.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued pursuant thereto, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 835j. Revenue Bonds for Air Conditioning Equipment in Municipal Auditorium or Theatre

Authority to Issue; Payable from Revenue

Sec. 1. The governing body of any city in this State which has a population of not less than one hundred and seventy-five thousand (175,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding United States Census is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds of the city for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing and installing air conditioning equipment in and for the municipal auditorium and/or municipal theatre owned and operated by said city, such negotiable revenue bonds to be secured solely by a pledge of, and payable from, the net revenues derived from the operation of said municipal auditorium and/or municipal theatre. "Net revenues" is defined as the gross revenues minus all operation and maintenance expenses. No such bonds shall ever be considered as a debt of the city, but solely a charge upon the pledged revenues, and such bonds shall never be reckoned in determining the power of the city to incur obligations payable from taxation. Such bonds shall contain on the face thereof the following provision:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Term; Interest; Signatures; Elections; Approval and Registration

Sec. 2. Such bonds shall be payable serially in not more than forty (40) years from date and shall bear interest at not more than five per cent (5%) per annum. Such bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Secretary; provided, however, that the facsimile signatures of such officers may be printed or lithographed on the interest coupons attached thereto. Such bonds may be issued without the necessity of any election therefor; provided, however, that the governing body, if it so determines, may order an election to determine whether a majority of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters who have taxable property and who have duly rendered the same for taxation voting therein desire the issuance of such bonds, such election to be held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.¹ Such bonds may be presented to the Attorney General for his approval as is provided for the approval of municipal bonds issued by cities or towns. In such case, the bonds shall be registered by the State Comptroller as in the case of other municipal bonds. Any bonds issued under this Act shall be incontestable after issuance and delivery except for fraud, forgery, or unconstitutionality.

Operation and Maintenance; Fees, Tolls and Charges

Sec. 3. Such city is authorized to employ necessary personnel to operate such municipal auditorium and/or theatre, and to properly maintain and keep the same in proper repair, the costs of which shall be classed as operation and maintenance expenses. Such operation and maintenance expenses shall always be a first lien and charge against the income thereof. So long as any of said bonds or any interest thereon remain outstanding, the city shall charge or require payment of fees, tolls and charges for the use of such auditorium and/or theatre and their facilities which shall be equal and uniform within classes defined by the governing body of such city, and which shall be sufficient to pay all expenses of operation and maintenance and to pay the principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds as such principal matures and as such interest accrues, and to establish and maintain such reserve or reserves, if any, as may be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Additional Bonds

Sec. 4. So long as any such revenue bonds are outstanding, no additional bonds of equal dignity shall be issued against the pledged revenues, except to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted in the ordinance authorizing the bonds.

Exemption From Taxation

Sec. 5. Any bond issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be exempt from taxation by the State of Texas or by any municipal corporation, county or other political subdivision or taxing district of the State.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 6. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, Section or part of this Act shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, Section or part of this Act.

[Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 936, ch. 510.]

Art. 835k. Bonds for Municipal Garage or Park Band Shell Validated

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore voted and authorized by any city for the purpose of constructing and equipping of a municipal garage and for the purpose of constructing a municipal public park band shell, either or both, including all proceedings and the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of charter or statutory power of such city or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds and notwithstanding that the election may not in all respects have been ordered and held in accordance with statutory provisions; and such bonds when approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered for not less than par and accrued interest, shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of such cities. Provided, however, that this Act shall apply only to such bonds which were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters whose property had been duly rendered for taxation voting on separate propositions voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued pursuant thereto, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time that this Act becomes effective.

Art. 835k-1. Bonds for Public Recreation Tower Structure; Validation

Sec. 1. All bonds payable from ad valorem taxes heretofore issued, sold, and delivered by any city for the purpose of making improvements for public recreation purposes, to wit: the construction and equipment of a tower structure, to include observation, dining, concession, and other facilities, are hereby validated in all respects.

Sec. 2. All elections heretofore held or attempted to be held at which the issuance of all such bonds shall have been authorized or attempted to be authorized for said purpose are hereby validated in all respects.

Sec. 3. All proceedings, ordinances, and other acts or attempted acts of the governing body of any city pertaining to the authorization, issuance, sale, and delivery of all such bonds and the election authorizing same or attempting to authorize same are hereby validated in all respects.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not validate any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 835l. Harbor, Wharf and Dock Facilities; Cities and Towns of 5,000 or Less on Gulf or Connecting Waters

Sec. 1. Any city or town in this State, having five thousand (5,000) or less inhabitants, located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or on any channel, canal, bay, or inlet connected with the Gulf of Mexico, organized and operating under the general law, shall have the authority to purchase, by condemnation or otherwise, construct, own, maintain, improve, repair, operate, or lease any wharf, pier, pavilion, dock, harbor or boat basin, and such other facilities as may be deemed advisable in connection therewith, including ferries, marinas, elevated platforms, parking facilities, restaurants, hotels, motels, clubs, or other commercial establishments and municipal buildings.

Sec. 2. Any such city or town may issue its negotiable bonds for the purposes above enumerated and may provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds from the income of such facilities including income from leasing any or all of such facilities or land after deducting the reasonable cost of the operation and maintenance thereof, or such city or town may issue its negotiable bonds for such purposes in the manner now provided for the issuance of other municipal bonds payable from an ad valorem tax levied on all the taxable property within such city or town.

Sec. 3. In the event bonds are issued payable from the income of such facilities, the governing body of such city or town shall have the authority to issue such bonds without the giving of any notice or submitting the question to a vote of the qualified property taxpaying voters, and may prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds in any manner such governing body may deem advisable. If any such bonds are issued payable from an ad valorem tax on the property in such city or town, the question of the issuance of such bonds shall first be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of such city or town who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, and such bonds shall not be issued unless authorized by a majority vote of the voters voting at such election.

Sec. 4. Before any such bonds shall be issued and sold, they shall first be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval and if approved by him, to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, to be registered by him in the manner provided for other municipal bonds. The approval of the Attorney General of such bonds and registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall have the same effect as in the case of other municipal bonds.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 339, ch. 210. Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1907, ch. 772, § 7, eff. June 13, 1979.]

Art. 835m. Municipal Libraries; Fire Stations; Validation of Bonds

Sec.1. All bonds heretofore voted by any incorporated city or town, including home rule cities, for the purpose of enlarging and improving a municipally owned and operated library building or constructing a new municipal library building, either or both, and all proceedings relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that the election may not in all respects have been ordered and held in accordance with mandatory statutory provisions. All bonds heretofore voted by any incorporated city or town, including home rule cities, for the purpose of constructing a fire station or a fire station and dormitory, either or both, and all proceedings relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that the election may not in all respects have been ordered and held in accordance with mandatory statutory provisions. Such bonds, when approved by the Attorney-General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and sold and delivered for not less than their par value plus accrued interest, shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of such city or town and shall be incontestable. Provided, however, that this Act shall apply only to such bonds which were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters whose property had been duly rendered for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such bonds or proceedings, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Art. 835n. Issuance of Bonds for Fire Fighting Equipment in Cities of Less Than 5,000 Population

Cities and towns of less than five thousand (5,000) population are authorized to issue negotiable bonds for the purpose of providing money to purchase fire fighting equipment. Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended,¹ relating to the voting and issuance of bonds, the approval thereof by the Attorney General, and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law.

Art. 835o. Home Rule Cities; Street and Drainage Improvements; Fire Stations; Validation of Bonds

Sec. 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by any Home Rule City in the State of Texas, for the purpose of providing street and drainage improvements, or for the purpose of constructing new fire stations, and any and all proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of Charter or statutory authority of such City, or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds, and notwithstanding the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the Charter or Statutes, and the issuance, sale and delivery of such bonds are hereby authorized and approved irrespective of the fact that any such City may be engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such City to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack in such suit or litigation; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered, in accordance with law, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations, and the bonds shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. This Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the voting qualified property tax-paying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings or bonds, except insofar as such proceedings or bonds might be affected by any such City being engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such City, or the governing body thereof, to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to so function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be strictly construed to achieve the purposes hereof, and no action by any City hereunder shall be validated by this Act except for the specific and limited purposes enumerated herein.

Art. 835p. Cities of 600,000 or More; Limitation on Bonded Indebtedness

Sec. 1. This Act shall be applicable to all cities having a population of six hundred thousand (600,000) or more according to the then last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. Any such city shall be authorized to incur total bonded indebtedness by the issuance of tax-supported bonds, whether voted prior to or after the effective date of this Act, in an amount not exceeding ten (10%) per cent of the total assessed valuation of property shown by the last assessment roll of such city, notwithstanding that the limit of total bonded indebtedness fixed in dollars by the city charter is a lesser amount.

[Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 38, ch. 18, eff. March 17, 1967.]

Art. 835q. Revenue Bonds and Ad Valorem Tax Bonds; Validation of Proceedings

Sec. 1. Where any city in the state which operates under the general law or pursuant to a home rule charter has heretofore at an election submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation propositions for the issuance of the bonds of such city for the purposes stated in such propositions, such bonds being payable from the revenues stated in such propositions or payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied therefor, and such propositions having carried by the vote of a majority of the persons voting in such election, all of the proceedings heretofore had by such city, including all proceedings had and acts done in connection with the calling and holding of the election, despite any failure or failures in such proceedings to comply with the pertinent statutes, are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed.

Sec. 2. The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of the revenue bonds and the ad valorem tax bonds so authorized, and to do everything necessary to the issuance of revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds in the amounts so authorized as provided by the statutes relating to the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. The revenue bonds and ad valorem tax bonds of any such city when delivered and paid for pursuant to such existing proceedings, and lawful proceedings hereinafter had shall be and are hereby declared to be valid and binding obligations of such city in accordance with the terms thereof.

Sec. 4. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of same.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 67, ch. 25, eff. March 25, 1969.]

Art. 835r. Bonds for Payment of Judgments; Election

Sec. 1. Whenever a final judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction shall have been heretofore entered or may hereafter be entered against any city or town or for which the payment thereof is the legal responsibility of such city or town which judgment or decree awards the plaintiff or plaintiffs a cash judgment or decree against such city or town and such city or town does not have funds available with which to pay said judgment or decree and the interest thereon in cash and the cost and expenses connected therewith, the governing body of such city or town shall have the right, power and authority, after due notice, to call and hold an election, in the same manner provided for calling and holding other bond elections, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified resident electors of such city or town who own taxable property within said city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation the proposition of whether or not such city or town shall issue, sell and deliver to a purchaser thereof its negotiable bonds in an amount sufficient to pay said judgment or decree and the interest thereon and any costs and expenses connected therewith. If a majority of those voting at such election vote in favor of the issuance of such bonds, there shall be levied and collected a tax against all the taxable property in said city or town to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund to redeem the principal of said bonds as same becomes due. Such bonds shall be issued to mature serially or otherwise not to exceed forty (40) years from their date and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six and one-half percent (6½%) per annum and in such denominations as may be determined by the governing body of such city or town. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the general laws governing the issuance of bonds by cities and towns shall be applicable to the issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 2. Said bonds or refunding bonds and the record pertaining to same shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination and if he approves same they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas and delivered to the purchaser thereof at a price of not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest. After such approval by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, said bonds in the hands of the original purchaser or subsequent holders thereof shall be legal, valid and binding general obligations of such city or town and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 3. Said governing body shall have the authority to refund such bonds in accordance with the general laws authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds by cities and towns, except such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a savings will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SINKING FUNDS—INVESTMENTS, ETC.

- Art. 836. Investments.
 837. Secondary Investments.
 837a. Investment of Sinking Funds of County or Navigation District in Counties in Excess of 190,000.
 838. Repealed.
 839. Disbursements.
 840. Diversion of Funds; Penalties.
 841. Recovery.
 842. Federal Farm Loan Bonds.
 842a. Securities Issued by Federal Agencies; Texas Securities; Investments.
 842a-1. Obligations Wholly or Partly Insured by United States or State, Investment In.

Art. 836. Investments

The legally authorized governing body of any county, city or town, or the trustees of any school district or school community, may invest their respective sinking funds for the redemption and payment of the outstanding bonds of such county, city or town, or community, in bonds of the United States; war-savings certificates; and certificates of indebtedness issued by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States; in bonds of Texas, or any county of this State, or of any incorporated city or town; and in shares or share accounts of building and loan associations organized under the laws of this State, or Federal Savings and Loan Associations domiciled in this State, where such shares or share accounts are insured under and by virtue of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. No such bonds shall be purchased which, according to their terms, mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 812, ch. 437, § 1.]

Art. 837. Secondary Investments

In the event a governing body is unable to purchase securities of the character mentioned in the preceding article, which mature at a date prior to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created, then they may invest such funds in the bonds of any school district or school community authorized to issue bonds, under the same restrictions as provided in the preceding article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 837a. Investment of Sinking Funds of County or Navigation District in Counties in Excess of 190,000

This Article shall apply only to and in counties having a population in excess of 190,000 according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census. Investments of sinking funds of any county and Navigation District shall be made in the manner provided by Article 837 and the terms governing the purchase of any securities authorized by this Chapter, shall be reflected by appropriate minutes of the governing body with a complete description of the securities purchased. Upon receipt of said securities and payment therefor the same shall be forthwith delivered to the Depository and in the event there is no Depository, then to the Treasurer of the county, who shall arrange for said securities to be placed in a safety deposit vault or other secure place if no safety deposit vault is available, and the contract of arrangement shall provide simultaneous or joint access to said securities by the Treasurer and the County Auditor. A written record of the securities purchased and deposited in said safety deposit box shall be maintained therein, and shall at all times reflect the condition of the investments. A copy of such record shall be maintained by the Depository. Access to said box shall be only in the presence of the above named officials and officers of the Depository. The bond of the Depository shall secure said securities.

The County Auditor shall prescribe the system of accounts for said security record and the type of reports necessary thereto, and shall not less than once in each six months audit the same and count the securities in said safety deposit vault, and file a report thereof with the governing body of said county or Navigation District respectively, and also with the Depository. The duties herein imposed are official duties and are within the terms of the official bonds of the officers named who shall be responsible for the safe deposit and withdrawal of said securities. No securities shall be withdrawn from said safety deposit box except upon the written order of the Commissioners' Court, recorded in its minutes, a copy of which shall be furnished the Depository and the County Auditor.

Art. 838. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1102, ch. 428, § 1

Art. 839. Disbursements

No city or county treasurer shall honor any draft upon the interest and sinking fund provided for any of the bonds of such city or county, nor pay out nor divert any of the same, except for the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds or for redeeming the same, or for investment in such securities as may be provided by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 840. Diversion of Funds; Penalties

Any treasurer who shall divert said fund or apply said fund for any other purpose than as permitted by the preceding Article shall be subject to a penalty of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.), to be recovered by the state, and in addition thereto, shall be liable for the amount of such fund so diverted.

Art. 841. Recovery

The Comptroller, whenever the reports of any treasurer show that he has diverted said funds, or when he shall fail to make such reports, shall notify the Attorney General or the district attorney of the district in which such treasurer resides, or county attorney in counties in which there is no district attorney provided for by law, of the fact, who shall thereupon institute suit against such treasurer and his official bondsmen for the amount of such penalty and of said fund so diverted. The amount of such penalty so recovered shall be paid into the State Treasury, and the amount of the diverted fund so recovered shall be paid into the county or city treasury to the credit of the fund from which it was so diverted.

Art. 842. Federal Farm Loan Bonds

All bonds issued under and by virtue of the Federal Farm Loan Act, approved by the President of the United States, July 17, 1916,¹ and all consolidated bonds, bonds, debentures, and other similar obligations issued by virtue of the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, approved by the President of the United States, December 10, 1971, and as thereafter amended,² shall be a lawful investment for all fiduciary and trust funds in this State, and may be accepted as security for all public deposits where deposits of bonds or mortgages are authorized by law to be accepted. Such bonds shall be lawful investments for all funds which may be lawfully invested by guardians, administrators, trustees and receivers, for saving departments of banks incorporated under the laws of Texas, for banks, savings banks and trust companies chartered under the laws of Texas, and for all insurance companies chartered or transacting business under the laws of Texas, where investments are required or permitted by the laws of this State.

Art. 842a. Securities Issued by Federal Agencies; Texas Securities; Investments

Hereafter, all mortgages, bonds, debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates, and other such evidences of indebtedness, issued or that hereafter may be issued under the terms and provisions of the National Housing Act, approved by the President of the United States on June 27, 1934, as amended¹ and as may hereafter be amended, and all "insured accounts" issued or that may hereafter be issued by any institution insured under the provisions of Title IV of the National Housing Act, approved June 27, 1934, as amended and as may hereafter be amended,² or any evidences of indebtedness or accounts that may be issued or insured by any lawful agency created thereunder, all mortgages, bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended,³ debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates, or other such evidences of indebtedness, which have been or which may hereafter be issued by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, or any Federal Home Loan Bank, or the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, or by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or by the Federal Farm Loan Board, or by any Federal Land Bank, the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, or Banks for Cooperatives, or by any National Mortgage Association, or by any entity, corporation or agency, which has been or which may be created by or authorized by any Act, which has been enacted or which may hereafter be enacted by the Congress of the United States, or by any amendment thereto, which has for its purpose the relief of, refinancing of or assistance to owners of mortgaged or incumbered homes, farms, and other real estate, and the improvement or financing or the making of loans on any real property, shall hereafter be lawful investments for all fiduciary and trust funds in this State, and may be accepted as security for all public deposits where deposits of bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended, or mortgages are authorized by law to be accepted. Such mortgages, bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended, debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates and other such evidences of indebtedness, insured accounts shall be lawful investments for all funds which may be lawfully invested by guardians, administrators, trustees, and receivers, for building and loan associations, savings departments of banks, incorporated under the laws of Texas, for banks, savings banks and trust companies, chartered under the laws of Texas, and all insurance companies of every kind and character, chartered or transacting business under the laws of Texas, where investments are required or permitted by the laws of this State; providing further that where such mortgages, bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended, debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates, and other such evidences of indebtedness are issued against and secured by promissory notes, or other obligations, the payment of which is secured in whole or in part, by mortgage, deed of trust, or other valid first lien upon real estate situated in Texas, or where such mortgages, bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended, debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates, or other such evidences of indebtedness are acquired, directly or indirectly, in exchange for, or in substitution of notes, or other obligations, secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other valid first lien upon real estate situated in Texas, or where such "insured accounts" are issued by building and loan associations chartered under the laws of Texas or by Federal Savings and Loan Associations domiciled in Texas, then such mortgages, bonds, consolidated bonds issued under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, P.L. 92-181, and as thereafter amended, debentures, notes, collateral trust certificates or other such evidences of indebtedness, "insured accounts," so issued and so secured, or so acquired or insured, shall be regarded for investment purposes by insurance companies as "Texas Securities," within the meaning of the laws of Texas governing such investments.

The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all other provisions of the Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, affecting the investment of funds or moneys by fiduciaries, guardians, administrators, trustees and receivers, building and loan associations, savings departments of banks, incorporated and doing business under the laws of Texas, commercial banks, savings banks and trust companies, chartered and doing business under the laws of Texas, insurance companies of any kind and character, chartered and transacting business under the laws of Texas, and all corporate creatures, organized and doing business under the laws of Texas.

It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent to enact a separate provision of this Act independent of all other provisions, and the fact that any phrase, sentence, or clause of this Act shall be declared unconstitutional, shall in no event affect the validity of any of the provisions hereof.

Art. 852a. Savings and Loan Act

CHAPTER ONE. SHORT TITLE, FORM, DEFINITIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Savings and Loan Act."

Form

Sec. 1.02. This Act has been organized and divided in the following manner:

(1) The Act is divided into Chapters, containing groups of related Articles. Chapters are numbered consecutively with cardinal numbers.

(2) Chapters are divided into Sections, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.

(3) Sections are divided into Subsections. The Subsections within each Section are numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals enclosed in parenthesis.

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. As used in this Act the following terms, unless otherwise clearly indicated by the context, have the meanings specified below:

(1) "Association" shall mean a savings and loan association subject to the provisions of this Act.

(2) "Savings and Loan Association" shall mean an association whose primary purpose is to promote thrift and home financing and whose principal activity is the lending to its members of money accumulated in savings accounts of its members on the security of first liens on homes and other improved real estate.

(3) "Loss Reserves" shall mean the aggregate amount of the reserves allocated by an association for the sole purpose of absorbing losses.

(4) "Savings Liability" shall mean the aggregate amount of the withdrawal value of the savings accounts of the members of an association at any particular time as shown by the books of the association.

(5) "Savings Account" shall mean that part of the savings liability of an association which is credited to a member by reason of the placement of funds in the association.

(6) "Withdrawal Value of a Savings Account" shall mean the credit balance of a savings account at any particular time as shown by the books of an association.

(7) "The Commissioner" shall mean the Savings and Loan Commissioner appointed under the provisions of House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ as the same may be hereafter amended from time to time.

(8) "Surplus" shall mean the aggregate amount of the undistributed earnings of an association held as undivided profits or unallocated reserves for general corporate purposes and any paid-in surplus held by an association.

(9) "Federal Association" shall mean a savings and loan association incorporated pursuant to the Home Owner's Loan Act of 1933 as now or hereafter amended,² whose principal business office is located within the territorial limits of this State.

(10) "Member" shall mean a person holding a savings account in an association, or owning one or more shares of its Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, or borrowing from or assuming or obligated upon a loan in which an association has an interest, or owning property which secures a loan in which an association has an interest. The voting rights of members shall be as provided in the bylaws of each respective association.

(11) "Dividends on Saving Accounts" shall mean that part of the net income of an association which is declared payable on savings accounts from time to time by the Board of Directors, and is the cost of savings money to the association.

² 12 U.S.C.A. § 1461 et seq.

Effect of Headings, Etc.

Sec. 1.04. The division of this Act into Chapters and Sections and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER TWO. FORMATION OF ASSOCIATIONS

Application for Charter

Sec. 2.01. Application for a charter for a savings and loan association may be made by five (5) or more citizens of this State (hereinafter referred to as incorporators) by tendering to the Commissioner along with the proper filing fee, an application consisting of the following:

(1) Two (2) copies of Articles of incorporation for the proposed association stating (i) the name of the association, (ii) the site of the principal office and (iii) the names and addresses of the initial directors.

(2) A statement as to (i) the amount, if any, of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock which has been subscribed and paid for at the time of filing, (ii) the names and addresses of such subscribers and the amount subscribed by each, (iii) the amount of savings liability, if any, with which the association will commence business, (iv) the amount of paid-in surplus or expense fund with which the association will commence business.

(3) Two (2) copies of the bylaws under which the association proposes to operate.

(4) Statements, exhibits, maps and other data sufficiently detailed and comprehensive as to enable the Commissioner to pass upon the matters set forth in Section 2.08(2), (3) and (4) of this Act and such other information in regard to the proposed association and its operation as may be required by duly promulgated rules and regulations of the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas.

The Articles of incorporation and all statements of fact tendered to the Commissioner in connection with an application for charter shall be subscribed and sworn to under the sanction of an oath, or such affirmation as is by law equivalent to an oath, made before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

Proposed Managing Officer of Applicants; Approval

Sec. 2.01a. The applicants for a charter for a new association shall not be required at any contested hearing concerning the granting of the charter by the Commissioner, to identify in the public record of that hearing the name and qualifications of the proposed managing officer of the new association, but such evidence may be presented to the Commissioner before, during, or after other determinations required by this Act are made; provided, however, no new association shall commence business without first having presented to the Commissioner the name and qualifications of its proposed managing officer, and until that managing officer is approved as qualified by the Commissioner.

Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.02. The charter of an association may provide for the issuance of Capital Stock in the form of common or preferred stock. No other form or type of stock or shares may be issued. Such Capital Stock, when issued, may not be retired or withdrawn except as hereinafter provided, until after all liabilities of the association shall have been satisfied in full, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts. Such stock must be fully paid for in cash in advance of issuance and the association may not make any loans against the shares of such stock. Shares of such stock may be issued with par value of not less than One Dollar ($1) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100). With the prior written approval of the Commissioner as to the number of shares to be issued, the bylaws of an association may provide that its Capital Stock may be issued with no par value. An association authorized to issue such stock must have at all times issued and outstanding stock with a value on its books of at least Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or two and one-half per cent (2½%) of its gross assets, whichever is greater, but no association shall be required to have an amount of such stock with a value on its books of more than Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). Associations whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation may retire in whole or in part any such stock heretofore issued when such associations are authorized to do so by a majority vote at any annual meeting of its members, or any special meeting of members called for such purpose; provided, that the basis of such retirement shall have been first approved by the Commissioner and consent to such retirement upon the part of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation has been filed in writing with the Commission.

Stock Requirements for Proposed Permanent Reserve Fund Stock Associations

Sec. 2.03. Incorporators of proposed associations with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, as a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter shall be required to have subscribed and paid for in cash to the credit of the proposed association an aggregate amount of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as the Commissioner shall specify within the limits set for such stock in the preceding Section. Such stock shall be issued within thirty (30) days from the date of incorporation.

Paid-in Surplus Requirements for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock Associations

Sec. 2.04. As a prerequisite to approval of any application for a proposed association with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the Commissioner may require in addition to the amount paid in for such stock a paid-in surplus up to but not in excess of the aggregate amount of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock required under the preceding Section. Such paid-in surplus may be used in lieu of earnings to pay organization and operating expenses, dividends on savings accounts and to meet any loss reserve requirements. If the application should not be approved or if the proposed association does not proceed to do business, the stock subscriptions for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and paid-in surplus shall be returned pro-rata to the subscribers, less any lawful expenditures.

Savings Account Requirements for Proposed Associations Without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.05. As a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the incorporators must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner subscribed and paid-in savings accounts in the following aggregate amounts in relation to the population of the community in which the home office of the association is to be located: (a) in communities having not more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000); (b) in communities having more than ten thousand (10,000) but less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000); (c) in communities having one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants, the minimum sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000); provided, that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require a larger amount to be paid in. The population of the community shall be determined by the Commissioner based upon the latest Federal census.

Expense Fund Requirements for Proposed Association Without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.06. In addition to the savings account subscriptions required by the preceding Section the incorporators of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that an expense fund has been subscribed and paid into the credit of the proposed association equal to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the minimum specified amount of required savings accounts set out in Section 2.05, from which expense fund the expense of organizing the association and its operating expenses in addition to such dividends as may be declared and paid or credited to its savings account holders may be paid until such time as its earnings are sufficient to pay same. The amounts so contributed to the expense fund shall not constitute a liability of the association except as hereinafter provided. Such contributions may be repaid pro-rata to the contributors from the net earnings of the association after provision for required loss reserve allocations and payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts. In case of the liquidation of an association before contributions to the expense fund have been repaid, any contributions to the expense fund remaining unexpended, after the payment of expenses of liquidation, all creditors, and the withdrawal value of all savings accounts shall be paid to the contributors pro-rata. The books of the association shall reflect such expense fund. Contributors to the expense fund shall be paid dividends on the amounts paid in by them and for such purpose such contributions shall in all respects be considered as savings accounts of the association.

Hearings on Charter Applications

Sec. 2.07. When a proper application for a charter has been filed, the Commissioner shall cause public notice of such application to be given and give any interested party an opportunity to appear, present evidence and be heard for or against such application. The hearing shall be held before a hearing officer designated by the Commissioner. The hearing officer shall file a report on the hearing with the Commissioner. The report must contain findings of fact on each condition set out by Section 2.08 of this Act and the facts, received as evidence at the hearing, on which those findings are based.

Approval of Application for Charter

Sec. 2.08. The Commissioner shall not approve any charter application unless he shall have affirmatively found from the data furnished with the application, the evidence adduced at such hearing and his official records that:

- (1) the prerequisites, where applicable, set forth in Sections 2.02, 2.03, 2.04, 2.05, and 2.06 have been complied with and that the Articles of incorporation comply with all other provisions of this Act;
- (2) the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in the Articles of incorporation are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed association will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this Act and that the proposed association will have qualified fulltime management;

(3) there is a public need for the proposed association and the volume of business in the community in which the proposed association will conduct its business is such as to indicate profitable operation;

(4) the operation of the proposed association will not unduly harm any existing association.

If the Commissioner so finds, he shall state his findings in writing and issue under his official seal a certificate of incorporation and deliver a copy of the approved Articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators and retain a copy thereof as a permanent file of his office, whereupon the proposed association shall be a corporate body with perpetual existence unless terminated by law and may exercise the powers of a savings and loan association as herein set forth.

Refusal of Charter Application

Sec. 2.09. If the Commissioner is unable to make the findings as required by the preceding Section, he shall endorse upon each copy of the proposed Articles of incorporation the word "refused" with the date of such endorsement and attach thereto a written statement of his grounds for such refusal. One copy of the proposed Articles and attached grounds of refusal shall be promptly mailed to the incorporators by certified mail.

Forfeiture of Charter for Failure to Commence Business

Sec. 2.10. Any association whose charter has been approved under this Act shall commence business within six (6) months after the date of such approval. If an association has not commenced business within such time, the incorporators may request a hearing before the Commissioner; and if good cause is shown for such failure, the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of the time for commencing business to give such association an opportunity to overcome the cause for the delay in commencing business. Failure to commence business as herein required shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of the association's charter at the suit of the Attorney General upon request of the Commissioner brought in the County where the association proposes to locate its principal office.

Amendment of Charter and Bylaws

Sec. 2.11. Any association may, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of its members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, amend its charter or bylaws in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; provided, that before such amendments become effective they must be filed with and approved by the Commissioner.

Corporate Name; Exclusive Use by Associations

Sec. 2.12. The name of every association shall include either the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association." These words shall be preceded by an appropriate descriptive word or words approved by the Commissioner. An ordinal number may not be used as a single descriptive word preceding the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association," unless such words are followed by the name of the town, city or county in which the association has its home office. No certificate of incorporation of a proposed association having the same name as any other association authorized to do business in this State under this Act or a name so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive shall be issued by the Commissioner, except to an association formed by the reincorporation, reorganization, or consolidation of other associations, or upon the sale of the property or franchise of an association. No person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation, either domestic or foreign, unless authorized to do business in this State under the provisions of this Act shall do business under any name or title which indicates or reasonably implies that the business is the character or kind of business carried on or transacted by an association or which is calculated to lead any person to believe that the business is that of an association. Upon application by the Commissioner or any association, a court of competent jurisdiction may issue an injunction to restrain any such entity from violating or continuing to violate any of the foregoing provisions of this Section.

Change of Office or Name

Sec. 2.13. No association shall, without the prior approval of the Commissioner (i) establish any office other than the principal office stated in its articles of incorporation, (ii) move any office of the association from its immediate vicinity or (iii) change its name. When his approval is applied for, the Commissioner shall give any person who might be affected an opportunity to be heard on the action proposed to be taken for which approval is sought.

Preference to Local Control

Sec. 2.14. In any instance where there is a conflict between an application for the approval of a charter for a new association and an application for the establishment of an additional office by an existing association both seeking to locate in the same community and the principal office of the existing association is located in a different county than such community, the Commissioner may give additional weight to the application having the greater degree of control vested in or held by residents of the particular community.

Incorporation to Take Over Business of an Existing Association

Sec. 2.15. (a) Application for a charter for a savings and loan association for the sole purpose of purchasing the assets, assuming the liabilities (other than its liability to stockholders as such) and continuing the business of any association deemed by the commissioner to be in an unsafe condition (hereinafter referred to as the reorganizing association) may be made to the commissioner.

(b) The application for such a charter shall consist of such data and information as the commissioner may require, or that may be required by, duly promulgated rules and regulations of the commissioner and the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas. The capitalization of such an association shall be in an amount set by the commissioner sufficient to carry out the purposes for which the charter is requested.

(c) The provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not apply to such an application.

(d) If the commissioner finds that the business of the reorganizing association can be effectively continued under the proposed charter, that the reorganization is in the best interest of the savers, depositors, creditors, and stockholders, if any, of the reorganizing association, and the public in general, he shall state his findings in writing and issue under his official seal a certificate of incorporation, whereupon the proposed association shall be a corporate body, and a continuation of the reorganizing association subject to all its liabilities, obligations, duties, and relations, save and except its liability to stockholders as such, and may exercise all the powers of a savings and loan association under the laws of this state.

CHAPTER THREE. DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS

Board of Directors

Sec. 3.01. The business of the association shall be directed by a board of directors of not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-one (21) elected by a majority vote at each annual meeting of the members; provided, that associations authorized to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock by their bylaws may provide in such bylaws that all or at least a majority of the board of directors shall be elected from among the holders of such stock. The number of directors shall be fixed from time to time within the limits above prescribed by resolution adopted at any annual meeting of members, or any special meeting called for such purpose.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 3.02. Within thirty (30) days after the corporate existence of an association shall begin, the initial board of directors shall hold an organization meeting and, pursuant to the provisions of this Act and the bylaws, shall elect officers and take such other action as is appropriate in connection with beginning the transaction of business by the association. The Commissioner upon good cause shown may extend by order the time within which the organization meeting shall be held.

Qualification of Directors

Sec. 3.03. The bylaws of an association may prescribe other qualifications for directors, but no person shall be eligible to election as a director unless he is the owner in good faith and his own right on the books of the association either in the form of a savings account or Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or a combination of both having a value on such books of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and which shall not be reduced by withdrawal or pledge for a loan by the association, so long as such person remains a director. Any director, who after his election as such, ceases to be the owner in his own right of the necessary qualifying interest shall cease to be a director; provided, that no action of the board of directors shall be invalidated through the participation of such director in such action; provided, further, that if a director becomes ineligible under the terms of this Section by reason of the exercise by the association of the right of redemption of savings accounts provided for in Section 6.16, he shall validly in office until the expiration of his term or until he otherwise becomes ineligible, whichever may occur first. Any vacancy among directors may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, by electing a director to serve until the next annual meeting of members. In the event of a vacancy on the board of directors from any cause, the remaining directors shall have full power and authority to continue direction of the association until such vacancy is filled.

Officers

Sec. 3.04. The officers of an association shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and such other officers as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such officers shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors. The president shall be a member of the board of directors.

Indemnity Bonds of Directors, Officers and Employees

Sec. 3.05. Every association shall maintain on file with the Commissioner an effective blanket indemnity bond with an adequate corporate surety protecting the association from loss by or through any fraud, dishonesty, forgery or alteration, larceny, theft, embezzlement, robbery, burglary, holdup, wrongful or unlawful abstraction, misappropriation, or any other dishonest or criminal action or omission by any officer or employee of such association and any director of such association when performing the duty of an officer or employee. Associations which employ collection agents, who for any reason are not covered by a bond as hereinabove required, shall provide for the bonding of each such agent in an amount equal to at least twice the average monthly collection of such agent. Such agents shall be required to make settlement with the association at least monthly. No bond coverage will be required of any agent which is a bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The amounts and form of such bonds and sufficiency of the surety thereon shall be approved by the board of directors and the Commissioner. All such bonds shall provide that a cancellation thereof either by the surety or the insured shall not become effective unless and until thirty (30) days' notice in writing first shall have been given to the Commissioner, unless he shall have approved such cancellation earlier.

Meetings of Members; Voting Rights

Sec. 3.06. The annual meeting of the members of each association shall be held each year at the time fixed in the bylaws of the association. Special meetings may be called as provided in the bylaws. Those members or stockholders who shall be entitled to vote at any annual or special meeting of the association shall be those members or stockholders of record as of the end of the calendar year preceding the meeting or those of record 20 business days prior to the date on which the notice of the meeting is given, whichever is later, except those who have ceased to be members or stockholders between the record date and the date of the meeting. The bylaws may provide the basis for computing the number of votes which a member shall be entitled to cast, and in the instance of a Permanent Reserve Fund Stock association the bylaws may provide that only holders of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock shall have the right to vote. In the absence of any bylaw provision to the contrary, in the determination of all questions requiring action by the members, each member shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote by virtue of his membership, plus an additional vote for each share or fraction thereof of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock of the association, if any, owned by such member, and an additional vote for each One Hundred Dollars ($100) or fraction thereof of the withdrawal value of savings accounts, if any, held by such member. A loan or a savings account shall create a single membership for voting purposes even though more than one person is obligated on such loan or has an interest in such savings account. Voting may be in person or by proxy. Every proxy shall be in writing and signed by the member or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact and, when filed with the secretary, shall, unless otherwise specified in the proxy, continue in force from year to year until a revocation in writing is duly delivered to the secretary or until superseded by subsequent proxies. The bylaws of each association shall specify the quorum requirements and other voting requirements for conducting business at membership meetings.

Access to Books and Records

Sec. 3.07. Every member shall have the right to inspect such books and records of an association as pertain to his loan, Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or savings account. Otherwise, the right of inspection and examination of the books and records shall be limited to the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives as provided in this Act, to persons duly authorized to act for the association and to any Federal instrumentality or agency authorized to inspect or examine the books and records of an association whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The books and records pertaining to the accounts and loans of members shall be kept confidential by the Commissioner, his examiners and representatives, except where disclosure thereof shall be compelled by a court of competent jurisdiction, and no member or other person shall have access to the books and records or shall be furnished or shall possess a partial or complete list of the members except upon express action and authority of the board of directors. The books, records and files of an association shall not be admissible as evidence in any proceeding concerning the validity of any tax assessment or the collection of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest except where (i) the owner of an account is a proper party to the proceeding in which event the books, files and records pertaining to the account of such party shall be admissible or (ii) the association itself is a proper party to the proceeding in which event any book, file or record material to the proceeding shall be admissible.

Repeal

By order of the Texas Supreme Court dated November 23, 1982, effective September 1, 1983, adopting the Texas Rules of Evidence, § 3.07 of this article is deemed to be repealed insofar as it relates to civil actions by the Rules of Practice Act, Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 201, § 1, classified as art. 1731a, § 1.

CHAPTER FOUR. CORPORATE POWERS OF ASSOCIATES

General Corporate Powers

Sec. 4.01. Every association incorporated pursuant to or operating under the provisions of this Act shall have all the powers enumerated, authorized, and permitted by this Act and such other rights, privileges, and powers as may be incidental to or reasonably necessary for the accomplishment of the objects and purposes of the association.

Power to Borrow

Sec. 4.02. An association shall have power to borrow an aggregate amount equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) if its savings liability on the date of borrowing from any non-governmental source and may pledge its assets to secure the repayment of money so borrowed. Any borrowing from non-governmental sources in excess of such amount must first be approved in writing by the Commissioner. Notwithstanding the aforesaid limitation, an association which is a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to borrow or obtain advances from such bank in such amounts and upon such terms as may be prescribed by such bank from time to time. In addition, an association may, at any time through action of its board of directors, issue such capital notes, debentures or other capital obligations as shall be authorized under rules and regulations promulgated by the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission and the Commissioner acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by Chapter 198, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, as the same may be amended from time to time.

Insurance of Savings Accounts

Sec. 4.03. Every association shall have the power and right to obtain and maintain insurance of its savings accounts by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. No association or corporation or foreign association or any other person shall advertise or represent or offer to accept any savings accounts in this State as insured or guaranteed accounts or as the savings accounts of an insured or guaranteed institution unless the same are insured by either the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Fiscal Agent

Sec. 4.04. Any association shall have power to act as fiscal agent of the United States, and, when so designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, it shall perform under such regulations as he may require, and shall have power to act as agent for any instrumentality thereof, and as agent of this State or any governmental subdivision or instrumentality thereof.

Power to Act Under Federal Self-Employed Retirement Plans

Sec. 4.05. Any association and any Federal association (insofar as its charter and applicable Federal rules and regulations permit) may exercise all powers necessary to qualify as a trustee or custodian for retirement plans meeting the requirements of 26 U.S.C. sec. 401(d) or sec. 408 or any similar plans permitted or recognized by Federal law and may invest any funds held in such capacities in the savings accounts of the institution if the trust or custodial retirement plan does not prohibit such investment.

CHAPTER FIVE. LOANS, INVESTMENTS, OWNERSHIP OF REAL PROPERTY

Original Real Estate Loans

Sec. 5.01. Every association may make real estate loans to members secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting a first and prior lien on improved real estate and may make additional real estate loans secured by liens subsequent to its own first lien upon the same property. Additional security may also be taken by the association in connection with any such loan if deemed necessary and proper.

Power to Deal in Real Estate Loans

Sec. 5.02. Every association may purchase real estate loans upon security of the same character against which such association may make an original loan and also may lend money on the security of such real estate loans.

Participation in Real Estate Loans with Others

Sec. 5.03. Subject to the requirements of any rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof, every association may participate with other lenders in real estate loans of any type that such association could originate; may sell with or without recourse any real estate loan it holds or any participating interest therein; and may service any real estate loans sold by it.

Loans Shall Conform to Rules and Regulations of the Commissioner and Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission

Sec. 5.04. The Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ as the same may be amended shall, from time to time, promulgate such rules and regulations in respect to loans by associations operating under this law as may be reasonably necessary to assure that such loans are in keeping with sound lending practices and promote the purposes of this Act; provided that such rules and regulations shall not prohibit an association from making any loan or investment that a Federal association could make under applicable Federal regulations.

Requirements in Regard to Lending Transactions

Sec. 5.05. In no event shall an association make a loan, purchase or sell a note or lien or enter into any participation transaction authorized in Sections 5.01, 5.02, and 5.03 in violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 and no association shall:

(1) Make a real estate loan to an officer or director of the association unless such loan be first approved unanimously by its board of directors and such approval recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board at which such loan was approved.

(2) Make a real estate loan or loans to any one borrower in the aggregate in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) or the sum of its loss reserves, surplus and permanent Reserve Fund Stock, if any, or within such limits as may be fixed by appropriate rule and regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 hereof, whichever is the greater amount.

(3) Make a real estate loan unless an appraisal by an appraiser or committee of appraisers appointed by the board of directors first be made and filed in writing with the association as a part of its permanent files; reappraisals may be required by the Commissioner on real estate securing loans which are delinquent more than twelve (12) months at the expense of the association.

(4) Make a real estate loan which is not secured by a first and prior lien upon the property described in the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting such lien, unless every prior lien thereon is owned by such association.

(5) Make a real estate loan unless the association is furnished with either a satisfactory abstract of title or a policy of title insurance issued by a title company authorized to insure titles in this state showing that the lien securing such loan meets the requirements of the preceding subsection (4).

(6) Make a real estate loan unless the insurable improvements thereon are insured against loss by a fire and extended coverage policy or its equivalent issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state.

(7) Sell or transfer a prior lien held by the association while retaining a junior lien on the same security to secure an unsatisfied obligation due the association unless such junior lien or liens were created in connection with a loan made under Sections 5.08 and 5.10 of this Act.

(8) Fail to promptly record in the proper county records every mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument, creating, constituting or transferring any lien securing in whole or in part any real estate loan or the association's interest therein.

Advances to Pay Taxes, Etc., on Security

Sec. 5.06. Associations may pay taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other similar charges for the protection of their interests in properties securing their real estate loans, which such advances may be carried on their books as an asset of the association and for which they may charge and collect interest, or such advances may be added to the unpaid balance of the loan as of the first day of the month in which such advances are made. All such advances shall constitute a valid lien against the real estate securing the loan for which they were made. Associations may require borrowers to pay monthly in advance, in addition to interest or interest and principal, the equivalent of one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the estimated annual taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges upon the real estate securing any loan, or any of such charges, so as to enable the association to pay same as they become due from the funds so received. The amount of such monthly charges may be increased or decreased as is necessary for the payment of same. Associations may carry such funds in trust in an account or may credit the same to the indebtedness and advance the money for taxes, insurance or other charges as they come due. Every association shall keep a record of the status of taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges on all real estate securing its loans and on all real and personal property owned by it.

Expenses, Fees and Charges for Real Estate Loans

Sec. 5.07. Every association may require borrowing members to pay all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the making, closing, disbursing, extending, readjusting or renewing of real estate loans, which such charges may be collected by the association from the borrower and retained by it or paid to any persons, including any director, officer, or employee of the association rendering services in connection therewith, or paid directly by the borrower. In addition, associations may charge premiums for making such loans as well as penalties for prepayments or late payments; provided, that unless agreed in writing to the contrary, any prepayment of principal shall be applied on the final installment of the note or other obligation until fully paid, and thereafter on the installments in the inverse order of their maturity. The expenses, fees and charges authorized herein shall be in addition to interest authorized by law, and shall not be deemed to be a part of the interest collected or agreed to be paid on such loans within the meaning of any law of this State which limits the rate of interest which may be exacted in any transaction. No director, officer or employee of an association shall receive any fee or other compensation of any kind in connection with procuring any loan for an association, except for services actually rendered as above provided. A loan settlement statement shall be furnished by or on behalf of the association to each borrower upon the closing of every real estate loan, indicating in detail the expenses, fees and charges such borrower has paid or obligated himself to pay to the association or to any other person in connection with such loan. A copy of such statement shall be retained in the records of the association.

Insured and Guaranteed Loans

Sec. 5.08. Any association may make, without regard to any loan limitations or restrictions otherwise imposed by this Act, any loan, secured or unsecured, which is insured or guaranteed in any manner and in any amount by the United States or any instrumentality thereof.

Loans on Security of Savings Accounts

Sec. 5.09. Any association may make loans on the sole security value of the accounts owned or otherwise pledged for or by the borrower. No such loan shall be made when an association has applications for withdrawal which have been on file more than sixty (60) days and not reached for payment.

Property Improvement Loans and Other Loans to Members

Sec. 5.10. Any association may make property improvement loans to home owners and other property owners for maintenance, repair, modernization, improvement and equipment of their properties, and may make other loans to members, on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof and which shall not be subject to the requirements of Section 5.05 of this Act.

Investment in Securities

Sec. 5.11. Every association shall have power to invest in obligations of, or guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the United States or this State; in stock of a Federal Home Loan Bank of which it is eligible to be a member, and in any obligations or consolidated obligations of any Federal Home Loan Bank or Banks; in stock or obligations of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of a national mortgage association or any successor or successors thereto; in demand, time, or savings deposits with any bank or trust company the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of any corporation or agency of the United States or this State, or in deposits therewith to the extent that such corporation or agency assists in furthering or facilitating the association's purposes or power; in savings accounts of any association operating under the provisions of this Act and of any Federal association; in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are a general obligation of any city, town, village, county, school district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of this State; and in such other securities or obligations which the Commissioner may approve and place on a published list. An association investing in securities which are listed by the Commissioner shall not be required to dispose of such securities if at a later time the Commissioner shall remove same from list. No security owned by an association shall be carried on its books at more than the actual cost thereof unless a different treatment is permitted by the Commissioner in writing.

Acquisition of Real Property

Sec. 5.12. An association may own during the period of its corporate existence real property upon which any facility used in connection with the operation of such association is located. Every other parcel of real estate acquired by such association in the course of business shall be disposed of within five (5) years from the date acquired unless the Commissioner shall have extended the time in which such disposition shall be made. Any of such real property may be sold, conveyed, leased, improved, repaired, mortgaged or exchanged for other real estate when such is authorized by the board of directors.

Limitation on Investment in Office Buildings

Sec. 5.13. An association may not invest more in office buildings than an amount equal to the aggregate dollar value of its loss reserves and surplus plus the par value of any outstanding Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as reflected by its books at the time of such investment unless the investment of a greater amount is authorized by the Commissioner in writing.

Valuation of Real Property on the Books of an Association

Sec. 5.14. No association shall carry any real estate on its books at a sum in excess of the total amount invested by such association on account of such real estate, including advances, costs and improvements, but excluding accrued but uncollected interest unless the Commissioner has specifically approved in writing a higher valuation. Any association selling real estate under a contract of sale may carry the amount due the association under the terms of such contract as an asset upon its books; provided, that at no time shall the contract be considered as having an asset value greater in amount than the sales price agreed upon in the contract, or greater in amount than the value at which such property so sold was permitted to be carried upon the books of the association.

Appraisals of Real Estate Owned

Sec. 5.15. Every association shall appraise every parcel of real estate at the time of acquisition thereof and upon completion of any permanent improvements thereto. The report of such appraisal shall be in writing and kept in the records of the association.

Enlargement of Powers

Sec. 5.16. Any provisions of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, any association may make any loan or investment, perform any function, or engage in any activity which such association could make were it incorporated and operating as a Federal association domiciled in this State.

CHAPTER SIX. SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

No Limitation on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.01. There shall be no limit on the number and value of savings accounts an association may accept unless limits are fixed by its board of directors.

Who May Open a Savings Account

Sec. 6.02. Investments in savings accounts may be made only with cash and may be made by any person in his own right or in a trust or other fiduciary capacity and by any partnership, association, corporation, political subdivision, public and governmental unit or entity.

Savings Contracts

Sec. 6.03. Each holder of a savings account shall execute a savings contract setting forth any special terms and provisions applicable to such account and the conditions upon which withdrawals may be made not inconsistent with provisions of this Act. Such savings contract shall be held by the association as part of its records pertaining to such account. The savings contract in respect to savings accounts of political subdivisions and public and governmental units or entities shall provide that the holder of any such account shall not become a member of the association.

Evidence of Ownership of an Account

Sec. 6.04. As evidence of each savings account the association shall issue to the holder of such account either an account book or certificate.

Transfer of Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.05. Savings accounts shall be transferable only on the books of the association upon presentation of evidence of transfer satisfactory to the association accompanied by proper application for transfer by the transferee who shall accept such account subject to the terms and conditions of the savings contract, the bylaws of the association and the provisions of its charter. The association may treat the holder of record of a savings account as the owner thereof for all purposes without being affected by any notice to the contrary unless the association has acknowledged in writing that a pledge of such savings account has been made.

Lost or Destroyed Account Books or Certificates

Sec. 6.06. A new account book or certificate may be issued in the name of the holder of record at any time when requested by such holder or his legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the association that the original book or certificate has been lost or destroyed. The new account book or certificate shall expressly state that it is issued in lieu of the one lost or destroyed and the association shall in no way be liable thereafter on account of the original account book or certificate. The association may if it desires require indemnification against any loss that might result from the issuance of the new account book or certificate.

Savings Accounts of Married Women and Minors

Sec. 6.07. Any association operating under this law and any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts from any married woman or minor as the sole and absolute owner of such savings account, and receive payments thereon by or for such owner, and pay withdrawals, accept pledges to the association, and act in any other manner with respect to such accounts on the order of such married woman or minor. Any payment or delivery of rights to a married woman or to any minor, or a receipt or acquittance signed by a married woman or by a minor who holds a savings account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such institution for any payment so made or delivery of rights to such married woman or minor. In the case of a minor, the receipt, acquittance, pledge or other action required by the institution to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon such minor with like effect as if he were of full age and legal capacity; provided, if any parent or guardian of such minor should not desire the minor to have authority to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer or make withdrawals from his savings account, such fact may be made known to the association in writing by such parent or guardian, in which event the right of the minor to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer and make withdrawals from the account during the minority of such minor shall not be exercised by him except with the joinder of such parent or guardian. In the event of the death of such minor, the receipt or acquittance of either parent or guardian of such minor shall be valid and sufficient discharge of such institution for any sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

Savings Accounts in Two or More Names

Sec. 6.08. When a savings account is opened in any association operating under this law or Federal Savings and Loan Association doing business in this state in the names of two or more persons, whether minor or adult, and the savings contract provides that the moneys in such account may be paid to or on the order of any one of such persons, then the institution may pay the moneys in such account to or on the order of any one of such persons either before or after the death of the other person or persons named on such account and such institution shall have no further liability for the amounts so paid, but if the savings contract provides that the signatures of more than one of such persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them are required on any check, receipt or withdrawal order, then the institution shall pay the moneys in the account only in accordance with such instructions; provided, that any one of the parties to such an account may give written notice to the institution not to permit withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the savings contract, in which event the institution may refuse, without liability, to honor any check, receipt or withdrawal request on the account pending determination of the rights of the parties thereto.

Joint Accounts by Husband and Wife

Sec. 6.09. A husband and wife shall have full power to enter into a savings contract involving a savings account consisting of funds which are community property of their marriage so as to create a joint tenancy with right of survivorship as to such account and any future additions or dividends made or credited thereto and, to the extent necessary to accomplish such result in law, such contract shall constitute a partition of such community property or reciprocal gifts from the respective spouses, if the same is in writing and subscribed to by such husband and wife even though not acknowledged by either of them.

Pledge to Association of Joint Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.10. The pledge or hypothecation to any association or Federal association of all or part of a savings account issued in the names of two (2) or more persons signed by any person or persons upon whose signature or signatures withdrawals may be made from the account shall, unless the terms of the savings account provide specifically to the contrary, be a valid pledge and transfer to the institution of that part of the account pledged or hypothecated, and shall not operate to sever or terminate the joint and survivorship ownership of all or any part of the account.

Savings Accounts of Fiduciaries

Sec. 6.11. Any association operating under this law or any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts in the name of any administrator, executor, custodian, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary for a named beneficiary or beneficiaries, and any such fiduciary shall have power to vote as a member as if the membership were held absolutely, to open and make additions to, and to withdraw from any such account in whole or in part. Except when otherwise provided by law, the payment to any such fiduciary or a receipt or acquittance signed by any such fiduciary to whom any payment is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of an institution for the payment so made. Whenever a person holding an account in a fiduciary capacity dies and no written notice or order of the probate court of the revocation or termination of the fiduciary relationship shall have been given to the institution and the institution has no written notice or order of the probate court of any other disposition of the beneficial estate, the withdrawal value of such account, and dividends thereon, or other rights relating thereto may, at the option of the institution, be paid or delivered, in whole or in part, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and such institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Trust Accounts Where Trust Instrument Not Disclosed

Sec. 6.12. Whenever an account shall be opened by any person, describing himself in opening such account as a trustee for another and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than such description shall have been given in writing to such institution, withdrawals from such account may be made on the signature of the person so described as trustee, and in the event of the death of such person, the withdrawal value of such account, or any part thereof, together with dividends thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the account was thus stated to have been opened, and the institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Powers of Attorney on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.13. Any association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney-in-fact authorized in writing to manage or to make withdrawals either in whole or in part from the savings account of a member until it receives written notice or is on actual notice of the revocation of his authority. For the purposes of this Section, written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of such member shall constitute written notice of revocation of the authority of his attorney.

Savings Accounts as Legal Investments

Sec. 6.14. Administrators, executors, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries of every kind and nature; counties, cities, towns and all other political subdivisions or instrumentalities of this State; insurance companies doing business in this State; business and nonprofit corporations; charitable or educational corporations or associations; banks; credit unions and all other financial institutions are hereby specifically authorized and empowered to invest funds held by them in savings accounts of any association operating under this law or any Federal association. Any such investments made by insurance companies shall be eligible for tax reducing purposes under Article 7064 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended,¹ and any such investment by a school district of any of its funds in such savings accounts which are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation shall for all purposes be considered as meeting the requirements of Section 1, Acts 1953, Fifty-third Legislature, Regular Session, page 464, Chapter 150, as amended (Article 2786d, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes),² and Article 2832, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.³ If upon the effective date of this Act the shares and share accounts of associations operating under Article 881a of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, are legal investments for any particular business, organization, corporation, fiduciary or political subdivision, the savings accounts of associations subject to terms of this Act shall be deemed to be legal investments to the same extent as such shares and share accounts.

Withdrawals From Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.15. Any savings account holder may at any time present a written application for withdrawal of all or any part of his savings account except to the extent the same may be pledged to the association or to another person on the books of the association. The association may pay in full each and every withdrawal request as presented and without requiring that written application therefor be made or the association may elect to number, date and file in the order of actual receipt every withdrawal application and to pay such requests out of its net receipts. Not more than one half of the net receipts of the association in any month shall be applied to the payment of withdrawal applications unless the board of directors specifically authorizes the use of a greater portion of such receipts for such purpose. By the term "Net receipts" is meant the cash receipts of the association as loan repayments, interest and investments in savings accounts less disbursements for all expenses necessary and incidental to the operation of the association in carrying on its business. Whenever the net receipts so made applicable to withdrawal applications on file for a particular month are not sufficient to pay such applications in full, the applications on file shall be paid out of such net receipts on a pro-rata basis or, with the approval of the Commissioner, the board of directors may fix maximum amounts to be paid upon any one application during any one month and payments shall be made pro-rata out of such net receipts to all applications on file subject to such maximum payment limitation. No association can obligate itself to pay withdrawals on any plan other than that set forth above. While an application for withdrawal by a member remains in effect and unpaid, no withdrawal applications subsequently filed by the same member shall be paid and no loan shall be made secured by transfer or pledge of the account. A member filing a withdrawal application shall not become a creditor of the association by reason of such filing. Full payment may be made at any time to members whose entire interest in the association amounts to One Hundred Dollars ($100) or less. The Commissioner with the approval of the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas may invoke a uniform limitation on the amounts withdrawable from savings accounts of associations subject to this Act during any period when such limitation is necessary in the public interest. The membership of a savings account holder who has filed an application for withdrawal shall remain unimpaired so long as any withdrawal value remains to his credit on the books of the association. An application for withdrawal may be cancelled in whole or in part at any time by a member.

Redemption of Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.16. At any time funds are on hand for the purpose an association shall have the right to redeem by lot or otherwise, as the board of directors may determine, all or any part of any of its savings accounts on a dividend date by giving thirty (30) days' notice by certified mail addressed to each affected account holder at his last address as recorded on the books of the association. No association shall redeem any of its savings accounts when the association is subject to receivership action under Section 8.16 hereof or when it has applications for withdrawal which have been on file for more than thirty (30) days and have not been reached for payment. The redemption price of savings accounts redeemed shall be the withdrawal value thereof. If the aforesaid notice of redemption shall have been duly given, and if on or before the redemption date the funds necessary for such redemption shall have been set aside so as to be and continue to be available therefor, dividends upon the accounts called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the dividend date specified as the redemption date, and all rights with respect to such accounts shall forthwith, after such redemption date, terminate, except only the right of the account holder of record to receive the redemption price.

Lien on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.17. Every association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State shall have a lien, without further agreement or pledge, upon all savings accounts owned by any member to whom or on whose behalf the association has made an advance of money by loan or otherwise and upon the default in the repayment or satisfaction thereof, the association may, without notice to or consent of the member, cancel on its books all or any part of the savings accounts owned by such member and apply the value of such accounts in payment on account of such obligation. An association may by written instrument waive its lien in whole or in part on any savings accounts. Any association may take the pledge of savings accounts of the association owned by a member other than the borrower as additional security for any loan secured by an account or by an account and real estate, or as additional security for any real estate loan.

Method of Paying Dividends on Savings Accounts

Sec. 6.18. Dividends shall be credited to savings accounts on the books of the association unless a savings account holder shall have requested and the association shall have agreed to pay dividends on such savings account in cash. Dividends payable in cash may be paid by check or bank draft.

Permissive Bylaw Provisions in Respect to Priority of Savings Accounts and Notice of Withdrawal

Sec. 6.19. The bylaws of an association may provide that in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the association or in the event of any other situation in which the priority of savings accounts is in controversy, all savings accounts shall, to the extent of their withdrawal value, be debts of the association having the same priority as the claims of general creditors of the association not having priority (other than any priority arising or resulting from consensual subordination) over other general creditors of the association. If its bylaws so provide, an association may require advance notice of as much as sixty (60) days before paying withdrawal applications. An association which, having required advance notice of withdrawal, fails to make full payment of any withdrawal application at the end of the notice period shall be deemed to be subject to receivership proceedings under Section 8.16 of this Act.

Enlargement of Powers

Sec. 6.20. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, an association may raise capital in the manner and form and issue any certificate in the form and pay dividends, earnings or interest thereon in the manner which the association could if it were a Federal Association as defined in Section 1.03(9) of this Act.

CHAPTER SEVEN. COMPUTATION OF EARNINGS, TRANSFERS TO LOSS RESERVES, DIVIDENDS, SURPLUS

Computation of Net Income

Sec. 7.01. Each association shall close its books on the last business day of June and December of each year, and at such other times as its bylaws may provide, for the purpose of determining the gross income of the association for the period since the date of the last such closing of its books and from which shall be deducted the expenses of operating the association for such period, the balance remaining being the net income for the period.

Transfers to Loss Reserves

Sec. 7.02. If, at the date of any closing of its books, the loss reserves of an association equal an aggregate amount of less than five per cent (5%) of its savings liability, then an amount equal to at least five per cent (5%) of its net income, or so much thereof as may be necessary to increase its loss reserves to the above required amount, shall be transferred from the net income of the association to its loss reserves. In the event that any credit to the loss reserves of an association is made following the effective date of this Act in excess of the minimum five per cent (5%) requirement the dollar amount of such excess may be carried over as a credit toward the minimum requirement for any subsequent accounting period.

Dividends on Savings Accounts

Sec. 7.03. After providing for payment of the expenses of operation of the association and for the required minimum transfer to its loss reserves, the board of directors of the association may declare dividends on savings accounts. Dividends, when declared, shall be computed and paid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may from time to time be authorized by rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas. An association shall not be required to pay or credit a dividend of less than One Dollar ($1) on any account or any dividend on short-term accounts where the savings contract provides for closing the account within one (1) year and waives dividend participation.

Dividends on Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 7.04. The balance of net income of the association, if any, may be credited to a surplus account, from which the board of directors of any association whose bylaws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, and which has such stock outstanding, may, at their discretion, and at such times as they may determine, declare and pay dividends in cash or additional stock to the holders of record of such stock outstanding at the date such dividends are declared.

Use of Surplus Accounts and Expense Fund Contributions

Sec. 7.05. Any association at any closing date may use all or any part of any surplus accounts, whether earned or paid-in, or any expense fund contributions on its books at such time to meet all or any part of the expenses of operating the association for the period just closed, required transfers to loss reserves, or the payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts.

Contracts With Members to Pay Interest

Sec. 7.06. An association may contract with its savings members to pay interest on savings accounts provided that the association's bylaws contain provisions substantially similar to those authorized by Section 6.19 of this Act. Any interest so paid shall be considered a cost of savings money to the association.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION, BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING PRACTICES, STATEMENTS, REPORTS, AUDITS, EXAMINATIONS, VIOLATIONS, RECEIVERSHIP

Supervision and Regulation

Sec. 8.01. All associations subject to this Act shall be supervised and regulated and the provisions of this Act shall be enforced by the Savings and Loan Department of Texas and the Savings and Loan Commissioner, acting pursuant to the authority hereby delegated and the authority delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, 1961.¹

Books and Records

Sec. 8.02. Every association shall keep at its home office correct and complete books of account and minutes of the meetings of members and directors. Complete records of all business transacted at the home office shall be maintained at the home office. Records of business transacted at any branch or agency office may be kept at such branch or agency office; provided, that control records of all business transacted at any branch or agency office shall be kept at the home office.

Accounting Practices

Sec. 8.03. Every association shall use such forms and observe such accounting principles and practices as the Commissioner may require from time to time.

Misdescription of Assets

Sec. 8.04. No association by any system of account or any device of bookkeeping shall, either directly or indirectly, knowingly enter any of its assets upon its books in the name of any other person, partnership, association or corporation or under any title or designation that is not truly descriptive of such assets.

Charging Off or Setting Up Reserves Against Bad Assets

Sec. 8.05. The Commissioner, after a determination of value, may order that assets in the aggregate, to the extent that such assets have depreciated in value, be charged off, or that a special reserve or reserves equal to such depreciation in value be set up by transfers from surplus.

Maintenance of Membership Records

Sec. 8.06. Every association shall maintain membership records which shall show the name and address of the member, the status of the member as a savings account holder, a stockholder or an obligor, and the date of membership thereof.

Reproduction and Destruction of Records

Sec. 8.07. Any association may cause any or all records kept by such association to be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic, or microfilming process which correctly and permanently copies, reproduces or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film or other durable material, and such association may thereafter dispose of the original record. Any such copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. A facsimile, exemplification or certified copy shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification or certified copy of the original record.

Financial Statement

Sec. 8.08. Every association shall prepare and publish annually in the month of January of each year in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the home office of such association is located, a statement of its financial condition in the form prescribed or approved by the Commissioner as of the last business day of December of the preceding year.

Annual Reports, Other Reports

Sec. 8.09. On or before the last day of March in each year, every association shall make an annual written report to the Commissioner, upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner, of its affairs and operations, which shall include a complete statement of its financial condition, including a statement of income and expense since its last previous similar report, for the twelve (12) months ending on the last business day of December of the previous year. Every such report shall be signed by the president, vice president or secretary. Every association shall also make such other reports as the Commissioner may from time to time require, which reports shall be in such form and filed on such dates as he may prescribe and shall, if required by him, be signed in the same manner as the annual report.

Annual Audit and Examination

Sec. 8.10. The Commissioner shall at frequent intervals examine or cause an examination to be made into the affairs of every association subject to this Act. If an association is not audited in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner, the examination of such association shall include an audit. Upon completion of an audit, one (1) copy of same, signed and certified by the auditor making such audit, shall be promptly filed with the Commissioner. The Commissioner, any deputy commissioner, or his examiners or auditors shall have free access to all books and records of an association which relate to its business and books and records kept by any officer, agent or employee relating to or upon which any record of its business is kept; and may summon witnesses and administer oaths or affirmations in examination of the directors, officers, agents, or employees of any such association, or any other person in relation to its affairs, transactions and condition, and may require and compel the production of records, books, papers, contracts or other documents by court order, if not voluntarily produced.

Joint Examinations

Sec. 8.11. The Commissioner may examine or cause to be examined any association in conjunction with an examination by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, a Federal Home Loan Bank or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, and shall accept any audit made by or accepted by any of said agencies during the course of any examination of an association.

Extra or Additional Examinations

Sec. 8.12. Whenever, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the condition of any association renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra or additional examination or audit or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, the Commissioner shall cause such work to be done, and such association shall be charged with the cost of same. A full and complete copy of the report of all examinations and audits shall be promptly furnished to the association examined or audited. Every report of examination or audit shall be presented to the board of directors at their next regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for such purpose, and noted in the minutes thereof.

Commissioner Shall Order Discontinuance of Violations

Sec. 8.13. If the Commissioner as a result of any examination or investigation of the affairs of an association finds that such association is violating or has violated or is about to violate any provision of its charter or bylaws or any law, or willfully violates any rule or regulation governing its operations to an extent which would tend to cause a substantial reduction in net worth or is engaging in, or has engaged in, or if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the association is about to engage in an unsafe and unsound practice or practices, he shall deliver a formal written order to the board of directors of the association in which the facts known to the Commissioner are set forth with an order to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may, by provisions which may be mandatory or otherwise, require the association, its directors, officers, employees, or agents to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from any such violation or practice. Such order shall become final 10 days after the same has been delivered unless the association shall within such time request a hearing before the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission in regard to such order, at which hearing any pertinent evidence relating to said order or the facts stated therein may be presented. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Savings and Loan Section, on the basis of the evidence presented and any matters of record concerning the order provided by the Commissioner, shall continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside. An unsafe and unsound practice with respect to an association is such action or inaction as is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings or to otherwise prejudice its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders.

Commissioner May Remove Directors and Officers Participating in Violations

Sec. 8.14. Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioner, any director or officer of an association has committed any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or refused to comply with a cease and desist order which has become final, or has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound practice or practices in connection with the association, or has committed or engaged in any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as such director or officer, and it appears that the association has suffered or probably will suffer substantial financial loss or other damage or that its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders could be seriously prejudiced thereby, the Commissioner may require that any such director or officer be removed from the office. Prior to entering an order of removal, the Commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the acts and conduct to which he objects to the board of directors of the association and the person or persons concerned and of his intention to enter a removal order. Such order shall become final within 10 days after such delivery unless within such time a hearing is requested. The Commissioner shall promptly hold a hearing if timely request is made at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in such statement may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at such hearing, may proceed to enter an order for the immediate removal of the director or officer affected, a reprimand of the individuals and association concerned or a dismissal of the entire matter. If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the Commissioner may proceed to enter an order of removal on the basis of the facts set forth in his original statement.

Enforcement of Cease and Desist and Removal Orders

Sec. 8.15. In the case of violation or threatened violation of or failure or refusal to obey a final cease and desist order or a removal order, the Commissioner may apply to a district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the association, its directors, officers, employees, or agents from violating, failing or refusing to obey such order. The court shall grant such injunction upon a showing of substantial evidence to support the findings of fact in the Commissioner's order. No bond for injunction shall be required of the Commissioner.

Receivership

Sec. 8.16. If, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the public interest requires it, he may apply to a district court of the county in which the home office of the association is located for the appointment of a receiver for such association. Such court shall appoint a receiver as applied for if it finds substantial evidence to support any one or more of the following circumstances or conditions alleged to exist by the Commissioner in his application:

- (1) that the association is insolvent in that the cash value of its assets realizable in a reasonable time is less than the total of its obligations to its creditors and the amount of its savings liability;
- (2) that there has been a substantial dissipation of assets or earnings due to any violation or violations of applicable law, rules, or regulations, or to any unsafe or unsound practice or practices;
- (3) that the association is in an unsafe and unsound condition to transact business in that there has been a substantial reduction of its net worth over the preceding 36 months (for this purpose, net worth shall be computed after the establishment of such valuation reserves and other reserves against possible losses as have been required by any supervisory authority having jurisdiction over the association or would be required under generally accepted accounting principles applicable to savings and loan associations) and has failed to restore such net worth reduction as ordered by the Commissioner;

(4) that the association and its directors and officers have violated any material conditions of its charter or bylaws, the terms of any final cease and desist order issued by the Commissioner, or any agreement between the association and the Commissioner;

(5) that the association, its directors, and officers have concealed or refused to permit examination of the books, papers, accounts, records, and affairs of the association by the Commissioner or other duly authorized personnel of the Savings and Loan Department.

All proceedings in regard to such applications shall be governed by the laws of this State applicable to receiverships generally. The Commissioner, or his deputy or a Savings and Loan Examiner shall be appointed by the court as a receiver. The receiver, upon appointment by the court, shall immediately take charge of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the court, and proceed to conduct the business of the association or to take such steps as may be necessary to conserve the assets and protect the rights of the creditors of the association and its members as may be ordered by the court. The official who is appointed receiver shall receive no additional compensation for such service. If the association is an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, said corporation may be tendered appointment as receiver or co-receiver. If it accepts such appointment, it may, nevertheless, make loans on the security of or purchase at public or private sale any part or all of the assets of the association of which it is receiver or co-receiver, provided such loan or purchase is approved by such court. The directors, officers and attorneys of an association in office at the time of the initiation of any proceeding under this Section are expressly authorized to contest any such proceedings and shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and attorney's fees by the association or from its assets, the amount of which shall be fixed by the court.

Communications From Commissioner

Sec. 8.17. Every approval or rejection by the Commissioner given pursuant to the provisions of this Act and every communication having the effect of an order or instruction to any association shall be sent by certified mail to the association affected thereby, addressed to the president thereof at the home office of the association, and shall be presented to the board of directors of such association at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose and noted in the minutes of such meeting.

Voluntary Supervisory Control

Sec. 8.18. If in connection with any cease and desist order the Commissioner requests the consent of the board of directors of the association to the placing of the association under supervisory control of the Commissioner, and a majority of such board affirmatively consents to such request, the Commissioner may appoint a supervisory agent to supervise and monitor the operations of the association during the period of supervision to which consent was given. During the period of supervision, the association, its directors, and officers shall act in accordance with such instructions and directions as may be given by the Commissioner through the supervisory agent and shall not act or fail to act except in compliance with such cease and desist order without the prior approval of the supervisor or the Commissioner. The cost incident to such supervision shall be fixed by the Commissioner and paid by the association.

CHAPTER NINE. FOREIGN ASSOCIATIONS

Limitation on Right to do Business as a Savings and Loan Association

Sec. 9.01. From and after the effective date of this act no person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation by whatever name called shall do business as a savings and loan association within this State or maintain any office in this State for the purpose of doing such business except:

- (1) associations organized under the laws of this State and subject to this Act;
- (2) Federal associations as herein defined;
- (3) savings and loan associations organized under the laws of another state of the United States which have held on the effective date of this Act certificates of authority issued pursuant to Section 61 of Senate Bill No. 111, Acts, 1929, Forty-first Legislature, Second Called Session, page 100, Chapter 61,¹ for not less than ten (10) consecutive years and have actually done business in this State continuously for such period; and

(4) to the extent any activity does not constitute transacting business in this State under Article 8.01B of the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Renewal of Outstanding Certificates

Sec. 9.02. Any savings and loan association organized under the laws of another state of the United States holding a certificate of authority to do business in this State on the effective date of this Act may renew such certificate from year to year thereafter by the payment of an annual renewal fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or Twenty Dollars ($20) for each million dollars or major fraction thereof of the total assets of such association, whichever is the greater, and by fulfilling all the prerequisites required by law at the time it secured its last renewal certificate prior to the effective date of this Act. Such association shall pay the same annual fees in lieu of examination charges paid by domestic associations under Section 11.06 of this Act, together with all traveling expenses of such examination; provided that if such examination fee is inadequate to defray all expenses of such examination, then such association shall pay the additional cost thereof. Examinations shall not be made more than once each year.

Contracts Deemed Made in This State

Sec. 9.03. Any contract made by any foreign association with any citizen of this State shall be deemed and considered a Texas contract and shall be construed by all the courts of this State according to the laws of this State.

Rights, Privileges and Obligations of Foreign Associations With Certificates of Authority

Sec. 9.04. Any foreign association operating under a certificate of authority as herein provided, during the time such certificate is in force, shall have all of the rights and privileges of associations created under this Act and its savings accounts shall be eligible for investment to the same extent as that of a domestic association; likewise, all provisions of this Act and all rules and regulations made pursuant thereto shall be applicable to such foreign associations.

Power of Commissioner to Revoke Certificate

Sec. 9.05. The Commissioner may issue discontinuance orders against a foreign association in the same manner as against domestic associations as set forth in Section 8.13 hereof, and upon the failure or refusal of a foreign association to comply with a final order of the Commissioner he shall revoke the certificate of authority held by such association and it will be unlawful thereafter for any agent of such association to transact any business in this State, except to receive payments to apply on loan contracts then in effect, and to pay withdrawal requests.

Federal Savings and Loan Associations

Sec. 9.06. Federal associations are not foreign corporations or associations. Unless Federal laws or regulations provide otherwise, Federal associations and the members thereof shall possess all of the rights, powers, privileges, benefits, immunities and exemptions that are herein provided or that may hereafter be provided by the laws of this State for associations subject to this Act or the members thereof. This provision is additional and supplemental to any provision which, by specific reference, is applicable to Federal associations and the members thereof.

CHAPTER TEN. CONVERSION, REORGANIZATION, MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION, VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Conversion Into Federal Associations

Sec. 10.01. Any association subject to this Act may convert itself into a Federal association in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as now or hereafter amended,¹ upon a majority vote of the members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. A copy of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of the members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner within ten (10) days after the date of such meeting. A sworn copy of the proceedings of such meeting, when so filed, shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. Within three (3) months after the date of such meeting, the association shall take such action in the manner prescribed and authorized by the laws of the United States as shall make it a Federal association. There shall be filed with the Commissioner a copy of the charter issued to such Federal association by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. No failure to file any such instruments with the Commissioner shall affect the validity of such conversion. Upon the grant of any association of a charter by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the association receiving such charter shall cease to be an association incorporated under this Act and shall no longer be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner. Upon the conversion of any association into a Federal association, the corporate existence of such association shall not terminate, but such Federal association shall be deemed to be a continuation of the entity of the association so converted and all property of the converted association, including its rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal, or mixed, and things in action, and every right, privilege, interest, and asset of any conceivable value or benefit then existing, or pertaining to it, or which would inure to it, shall immediately by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer and without any further act or deed remain and be vested in and continue and be the property of such Federal association into which the state association has converted itself, and such Federal association shall have, hold and enjoy the same in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the same was possessed, held, and enjoyed by the converting association, and such Federal association as of the time of the taking effect of such conversion shall continue to have and succeed to all the rights, obligations, and relations of the converting association. All pending actions and other judicial proceedings to which the converting state association is a party shall not be deemed to have abated or to have discontinued by reason of such conversion, but may be prosecuted to final judgment, order, or decree in the same manner as if such conversion into Federal association had not been made and such Federal association resulting from such conversion may continue such action in its corporate name as a Federal association, and any judgment, order, or decree may be rendered for or against it which might have been rendered for or against the converting state association theretofore involved in such judicial proceedings. Any association or corporation, which has heretofore converted itself into a Federal association under the provisions of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 and has received a charter from the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, shall hereafter be recognized as a Federal association, and its Federal charter shall be given full credence by the courts of this State to the same extent as if such conversion had taken place under the provisions of this Section; provided, however, that there shall have been compliance with the foregoing requirements with respect to the filing with the Commissioner of a copy of the Federal charter or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association. All such conversions are hereby ratified and confirmed, and all the obligations of such an association which has so converted shall continue as valid and subsisting obligations of such Federal association, and the title to all of the property of such an association shall be deemed to have continued and vested, as of the date of issuance of such Federal charter, in such Federal association as fully and completely as if such conversion had taken place since the enactment of this Act pursuant to this Section.

112 U.S.C.A. § 1464.

Conversion Into State Chartered Association

Sec. 10.02. Any Federal association may convert itself into an association under this Act upon a majority vote of the members of such Federal association cast at an annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. Copies of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary, shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner and mailed to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Washington, D.C., within ten (10) days after such meeting. Such verified copies of the proceedings of the meeting when so filed shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. At the meeting at which conversion is voted upon, the members shall also vote upon the directors who shall be the directors of the state-chartered association after conversion takes effect. Such directors then shall execute two (2) copies of the application for certificate of incorporation provided in this Act. The Commissioner shall, upon receipt of such application, cause the association to be examined and if he finds that it is in sound condition, approve the conversion and insert in the certificate of incorporation, at the end of the paragraph preceding the testimonium clause, the following: "This association is incorporated by conversion from a Federal savings and loan association." Each of the directors chosen for the association shall sign and acknowledge the application for certificate of incorporation as subscribers thereto and the proposed bylaws as incorporators of the association. The provisions of this Act shall, so far as applicable, apply to such conversion. The state-chartered association shall be a continuation of the corporate entity of the converting Federal association and continue to have all of its property and rights.

Reorganization, Merger, and Consolidation

Sec. 10.03. Pursuant to a plan adopted by the board of directors and approved by the Commissioner as equitable to the members of the association and as not impairing the usefulness and success of other properly conducted associations, an association shall have power to reorganize or to merge or consolidate with another association or Federal association; provided, that the plan of such reorganization, merger or consolidation shall be approved by a majority of the total vote the members are entitled to cast. Approval may be voted at either an annual meeting or at a special meeting called to consider such action. In all cases the corporate continuity of the resulting corporation shall possess the same incidents as that of an association which has converted in accordance with this Act. In the case of prior common ownership, the association in the proposed merger possessing the largest assets shall be designated as the home office. Any order of the Commissioner approving the reorganization, merger, or consolidation of any association with another association or Federal association shall become final 10 days after the same has been delivered unless an association within the vicinity of the reorganizing, merging, or consolidating associations shall within such time request a public hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, objecting to such order on the basis that the reorganization, merger, or consolidation would materially constrict the ability of the objecting association to compete in its vicinity. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Commissioner on the basis of the evidence presented shall thereupon either continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside.

Voluntary Liquidation

Sec. 10.04. At any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, any association may by majority vote of its members resolve to liquidate and dissolve the association; provided, that before such resolution shall take effect, a copy thereof certified to by the president and the secretary of the association, together with an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities sworn to by a majority of its board of directors, shall be filed with and approved by the Commissioner. When the Commissioner shall have approved such resolution it shall thereafter be unlawful for such association to accept any additional savings accounts or additions to savings accounts or to make any additional loans, but all its income and receipts in excess of actual expenses of liquidation of the association shall be applied to the discharge of its liabilities. The board of directors of the association, under the supervision of the Commissioner and in accordance with a plan of liquidation approved by him, shall thereupon proceed to liquidate the affairs of the association and reduce the assets thereof to cash for the purpose of paying, satisfying and discharging all existing liabilities and obligations of the association, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, the balance remaining, if any there be, to be distributed pro-rata among the savings account members of record on the date of adoption by the association of the resolution to liquidate; provided, however, that if the association be one whose by-laws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and such association has issued and has outstanding such stock, then any such balance remaining after all liabilities and obligations have been fully paid and satisfied, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, shall be distributed among the holders of such stock in proportion to their stockholding. All expenses incurred by the Commissioner or any of his representatives during the course of any such liquidation shall be paid from the assets of the association. Upon completion of liquidation, the board of directors shall file with the Commissioner a final report and accounting of such liquidation. The approval of such report by the Commissioner shall operate as a complete and final discharge of the board of directors and each member in connection with the liquidation of such association.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings accounts, certificates, and other evidences of interests in the savings liability of associations subject to this Act and of Federal associations are not "securities" for any purpose under The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Securities of these associations other than interests in the savings liability of the associations are not subject to the registration requirements of The Securities Act, as amended. Any person whose principal occupation is that of an officer of an association is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended, with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities of the association of which the person is an officer.

Acknowledgments by Members and Employees

Sec. 11.02. No public officer qualified to take acknowledgments or proofs of written instruments shall be disqualified from taking the acknowledgments or proofs of any instrument in writing in which an association or Federal association is interested by reason of his membership in or stockholding in or employment by such an institution so interested, and any such acknowledgments or proofs heretofore taken are hereby validated.

Closing Places of Business

Sec. 11.03. All associations and Federal savings and loan associations operating in this State are hereby authorized and permitted to close their respective places of business at any time the board of directors of such institution shall so determine.

Right to Act to Avoid Loss

Sec. 11.04. Nothing in this Act or the statute law of this State shall be construed as denying to an association the right to invest its funds, operate a business, manage or deal in property, or take any other action over whatever period of time may reasonably be necessary to avoid loss on a loan or investment theretofore made or an obligation created in good faith.

Fees

Sec. 11.05. The amount of the fees to be charged by the Commissioner for supervision and examination of associations, filing of applications and other documents and for other services performed by the Commissioner and his office and the time and manner of payment thereof shall be fixed by rule and regulation adopted by the Commissioner and the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by Article 5, Chapter II, the Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-205, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). All fees collected by the Commissioner shall be deposited and used in accordance with Section (h), Article 5, Chapter II, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-205, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

All Associations Authorized to Conduct a Savings and Loan Business Shall Conform to This Act

Sec. 11.06. Any association or corporation authorized to conduct a building and loan association, savings and loan association, building society or other similar business under prior law by whatever name known which has substantially the same purpose as a savings and loan association as defined by this Act shall, at the time this Act becomes effective, be subject to the provisions of this Act and shall thereafter be deemed to exist by virtue of this Act. The name, rights, powers, privileges, and immunities of each such association or corporation shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited and determined by the provisions of this Act to the same extent and effect as if such corporation had been incorporated pursuant hereto, and the Articles of association, certificate of incorporation, or charter, however, entitled, bylaws and constitutions, or other rules of every such corporation heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered and amended to conform to the provisions of this Act, with or without the issuance or approval by the Commissioner of conformed copies of such documents, and the same are declared void to the extent that the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; except that (i) the obligations of any such existing corporation, whether between such corporation and its members, or any of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the members of such corporation, or between such corporation and any other person or persons, existing at the time this Act takes effect shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of this Act and (ii) no association shall be required to change its name, and, with such exceptions, every such corporation shall possess the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and shall be subject to the duties, liabilities, disabilities and restrictions conferred and imposed by this Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its certificate of incorporation, bylaws, constitution, or rules. All obligations of any such corporation heretofore contracted shall be enforceable by it and in its name, and demands, claims, and rights of action against any such corporation may be enforced against it as fully and completely as they might have been enforced heretofore.

Outstanding Shares, Stock, Share Accounts and Investment Certificates (Except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) to be Considered as Savings Accounts

Sec. 11.07. From and after the effective date of this Act any shares, stock, share accounts and investment certificates (except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) which an association subject to this Act has issued and which is then outstanding shall be considered as savings accounts as defined in this Act and the holders thereof shall have all of the rights and privileges appertaining to the holder of savings accounts under this Act as well as any valid contractual or other legal rights in respect thereto preserved by Section 11.06 of this Act; except that any such outstanding shares or share accounts which are not entitled to dividends shall not by virtue of any provision of this Act become so entitled.

Associations Prohibited From Issuing Any Stock or Shares Not Authorized by This Act

Sec. 11.08. No association subject to this Act shall, after the effective date of this Act, issue any form of stock, share, account or investment certificate except as permitted by this Act for associations formed under its terms.

Ad Valorem Taxation of the Property of an Association

Sec. 11.09. Each association subject to this Act and all Federal associations domiciled in this State shall render for ad valorem taxation all of its real estate as other real estate is rendered. The personal property of each such association shall be valued as other personal property is valued for assessment in this State, and shall be rendered by such association to the appropriate assessing unit or units in the following manner:

- (1) its furniture, fixtures, equipment and automobiles shall be rendered where such property is located in the same manner as other similar property;
- (2) the remainder of the personal property of such association shall be rendered as a whole in the city and county where its principal office is located at the value remaining after deducting from the total value of such association's entire assets the following:

- (a) all debts of every kind and character owed by such association;
- (b) all tax free securities owned by such association;
- (c) the loss reserves and surplus of the association;
- (d) the savings liability of the association;
- (e) the assessed value of its furniture, fixtures and real estate.

Initiation of Rule-Making by Associations

Sec. 11.10. When as many as twenty per cent (20%) of the associations subject to this Act petition the Commissioner in writing requesting the promulgation, amendment or repeal of a rule or regulation the Commissioner shall initiate rule-making proceedings under Section (e) of Article 5, Sub-Chapter II, Chapter 97, Acts of the Forty-eighth Legislature, as amended by House Bill No. 91, Acts 1961, Fifty-seventh Legislature, Chapter 198.¹

Hearing Procedure

Sec. 11.11. (1) Notice of any hearing held pursuant to orders issued under Sections 8.13 and 8.14 shall be given to all parties affected by such orders. Notice of all other hearings held under any provision of this Act shall be given to all associations and Federal associations in the county where the subject matter of the hearing is or will be situated.

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded any interested party to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved in any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(3) Upon the written request of any interested party the Commissioner shall keep a formal record of the proceedings of any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(4) A decision or order adverse to a party who has appeared and participated in a hearing shall be in writing and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated, on all issues material to the decision reached. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings.

(5) A decision or order entered after hearing shall be final and appealable fifteen (15) days after the day the same is entered unless a motion for rehearing is filed by a party within such time and if the motion for rehearing is overruled such decision or order shall be final and appealable from and after the date the order overruling such motion is entered.

(6) Parties to a hearing shall be promptly notified either personally or by mail of any decision, order or other action taken in respect to the subject matter of the hearing.

Judicial Review

Sec. 11.12. Any party with an interest in the subject matter thereof who is dissatisfied with any act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner taken or made, or with any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission in connection with the administration of this Act, may secure judicial review thereof in the following manner:

(1) Venue. (a) Proceedings for review of a removal order entered pursuant to Section 8.14 of this Act, may be instituted by filing a petition as in civil actions generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, either in a district court of Travis County, or in the district court of the county in which any person affected by such order resides or of the county in which the principal office of the association affected by such order is located.

(b) Proceedings for review of other acts, orders, rulings or decisions of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission may be instituted by filing a petition as in a civil action generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, in a district court of Travis County and not elsewhere.

(2) Time for Filing. Any petition for judicial review must be filed within thirty (30) days after the action, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner is final or the rule or regulation complained of is promulgated.

(3) Stay of Enforcement. The filing of a petition for review shall not itself stay the effect of the act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of, but the Commissioner or the reviewing court may order a stay upon appropriate terms and if a stay is so granted no supersedeas bond shall be required.

(4) Service of Process. The petition for review shall be served on the Commissioner and upon all parties of record in any hearing before the Commissioner in respect to the matter for which review is sought or upon the Commissioner alone if the matter for which review is sought is a rule or regulation promulgated in connection with the administration of this Act. After service of such petition upon the Commissioner and within the time permitted for filing an answer, the Commissioner shall certify to the District Court in which such petition is filed the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers. The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the Commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the cost in the case, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of said cause.

(5) Trial. (a) The review of an order issued under Section 8.14 of this Act shall be tried in the same manner as civil actions generally and the complaining party shall be entitled to a jury. The trial shall be governed by the rules of civil procedure and all fact issues material to the validity of such order shall be determined de novo on the preponderance of the evidence and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply. Any relevant and competent evidence shall be admissible for or against the order.

(b) The review of any other act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation shall be tried by the court without a jury in the same manner as civil actions generally and all fact issues material to the validity of the Act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of shall be redetermined in such trial on the preponderance of the competent evidence, but no evidence shall be admissible which was not adduced at the hearing on the matter before the Commissioner or officially noticed in the record of such hearing.

(6) Burden of Proof and Judgment. The burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. The reviewing court may affirm the action complained of or remand the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings.

(7) Appeals. Appeals from any final judgment may be taken by either party in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond shall be required of the Commissioner.

Slander

Sec. 11.13. Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate or transmit to another, or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any association subject to this Act or any Federal association in this State, with intent to injure any such financial institution, or who shall counsel, aid, procure or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) or by imprisonment in the State penitentiary for a period not exceeding two (2) years or both by such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for Embezzlement, Etc.

Sec. 11.14. Every officer, director, member of any committee, clerk or agent of any association subject to this Act or any Federal association in this State who embezzles, abstracts or misapplies any of the moneys, funds or credits of such association, who issues or puts into circulation any warrant or other orders without proper authority, who issues, assigns, transfers, cancels or delivers up any note, bond, draft, mortgage, judgment, decree or any other written instrument belonging to such association, who certifies to or makes a false entry in any book, report or statement of or to such association, with intent in either case to deceive, injure or defraud such association, or any member thereof, or for the purpose of inducing any person to become a member thereof, or to deceive anyone appointed to examine the affairs of such association shall be deemed guilty of a felony and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than ten (10) years. Whoever, with intent to deceive, injure or defraud aids or abets any officer, member of any committee or other person in committing any of the prohibited acts enumerated herein shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than ten (10) years.

Sec. 11.15. Repealed by Acts 1983, 68th Leg., p. 2785, ch. 477, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1983.

Penalty for Failing to Comply With Law

Sec. 11.16. Any association violating the provisions of this law or failing to comply with the provisions of this law or any valid rules or regulations made thereunder may be required by the Commissioner to pay from Five Dollars ($5) per day to Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day to the Commissioner for each day it so fails after lawful notice of the delinquency by the Commissioner. The Attorney General is authorized to file suit for the collection of such penalty upon certification by the Commissioner of the failure or refusal of such association to remit the penalty assessed by him.

Penalty for Suppressing Evidence

Sec. 11.17. Every officer, director, employee or agent of any association subject to this Act who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or suppressing any evidence against himself or against any other person, abstracts, removes, mutilates, destroys or secretes any paper, book or record of any association or of the Commissioner, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction therefor, shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years.

Disclosure of Examiners—Penalty

Sec. 11.18. The Commissioner and any examiner, inspector, deputy, assistant or clerk, appointed or acting under the provisions of this Act, failing to keep secret any facts or information regarding an association obtained in the course of an examination or by reason of his official position, except when the public duty of such officer required him to report upon or take official action regarding the affairs of the association so examined, or who wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of such association, shall be removed from his position or office and shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Reports of examinations made to the Commissioner shall be regarded as confidential and not for public record or inspection, except that for good reason same may be made public by the Commissioner, but copies thereof may, upon request of the association, be furnished to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or to the Federal Home Loan Bank for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act. Nothing herein shall prevent the proper exchange of information relating to associations and the business thereof with the representatives of savings and loan departments of other states, but in no case shall the private business or affairs of any individual association be disclosed. Any official violating any provision of this Section, in addition to the penalties herein provided, shall be liable, with his bondsmen, to the person or corporation injured by the disclosure of such secrets. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to any facts or information or to any reports of investigations obtained or made by the Commissioner or his staff in connection with any applications for a charter under this Act or in connection with any hearing held by the Commissioner under this Act, and any such facts, information or reports may be included in the record of the appropriate hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Commissioner shall report promptly to the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission when either a cease and desist or removal order under Sections 8.13 and 8.14 of this article has been issued to an association. The Commissioner shall furnish such information about the association as the section members shall require in executive session.

Permanent Reserve Fund Stock to be Called Capital Stock

Sec. 11.19. The stock issued by an association under the authority of Section 2.02 shall hereafter be called "Capital" stock rather than "Permanent Reserve Fund" stock and the term "Permanent Reserve Fund" wherever such term appears in the Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is hereby changed to "Capital."

Change of Control of Association

Sec. 11.20. (a) No person may acquire any voting security of a savings and loan association or of any corporation or other entity owning voting securities of a savings and loan association if, after the acquisition, the person would own or possess the power to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities of the association unless an application is filed with the commissioner for his review of the proposed transaction and for his action, if any, as provided by this section.

(b) The application must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must be made under oath. The application must, except to the extent expressly waived by the commissioner, contain the following information:

(1) the identity, personal history, business background and experience, and financial condition of each person by whom or on whose behalf the acquisition is to be made, including a description of the managerial resources and future prospects of each acquiring party and a description of any material pending legal or administrative proceedings in which he is a party;

(2) the terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(3) the identity, source, and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition, a description of the transaction, the names of the parties, and arrangements, agreements, or understandings with those persons;

(4) any plans or proposals which any acquiring party making the acquisition may have to liquidate the association, to sell its assets or merge it with any company, or to make any other major changes in its business or corporate structure or management;

(5) the terms and conditions of any offer, invitation, agreement, or arrangement under which any voting security will be acquired and any contract affecting that security or its financing after it is acquired; and

(6) other information that the commissioner by rule requires to be furnished in an application as well as any information that the commissioner orders to be included in the particular application being filed.

(c) The applicant shall pay the appropriate filing fee when he files the application. A person proposing to acquire voting securities subject to this section includes an individual, two or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination of the foregoing, and the information required by the commissioner may be required of each member of the group, as directed by the commissioner. Information obtained by the commissioner under this section is confidential and may not be disclosed by the commissioner or any officer or employee of the Savings and Loan Department, except that the commissioner may in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States and to the best interest of the public, divulge information to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or federal government, and provided that notice of the application, its date of filing, and the identity of all parties to the application shall be submitted to the Texas Register by the commissioner on receipt of the application and shall be published in the next issue of the Texas Register following the date the information is received.

(d) The commissioner shall issue an order denying an application if he finds that:

(1) the acquisition would substantially lessen competition or would in any manner be in restraint of trade and would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of a combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the savings and loan industry in any part of the state, unless he also finds that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed acquisition are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of acquisition in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served and that the proposed acquisition is not in violation of any law of this state or the United States;

(2) the poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the association being acquired;

(3) plans or proposals to liquidate or sell the association or its assets are not in the best interest of the association;

(4) the experience, ability, standing, competence, trustworthiness, or integrity of the applicant is such that the acquisition would not be in the best interest of the association;

(5) the association will not be solvent, have adequate capital structure, or be in compliance with the laws of this state after the acquisition;

(6) the applicant has failed to furnish all of the information pertinent to the application reasonably requested by the commissioner; or

(7) the applicant is not acting in good faith.

(e) If an application filed under this section is not denied by the commissioner within 60 days after it is filed, the transaction may be consummated. The commissioner may, before the expiration of the 60-day period, give the applicant written notice that the application will not be denied, in which case the transaction may be consummated. Any agreement entered into by the applicants and the commissioner as a condition that the application will not be denied is enforceable against the association and is considered for all purposes an agreement under this Act.

(f) If the commissioner issues an order denying an application, the applicant is entitled to a hearing if he requests one in writing not later than the 30th day after the day the application is filed or the 15th day after the day the application is denied, whichever date is later. After hearing the matter, the commissioner shall, within 30 days, enter a final order either affirming his denial or withdrawing his denial of the application. An applicant may not appeal the commissioner's denial of an application or order affirming his denial until a final order is entered. Any applicant shall have the right to appeal the final order only to the district court of Travis County, Texas, against the Savings and Loan Commissioner of Texas as defendant. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply, but the action shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Either party to the action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of the cause, and the appeal shall be at once returnable to the appellate court having jurisdiction of the cause and that action shall have precedence in that appellate court over all causes of a different character pending in that court. The commissioner shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising under this section. The filing of an appeal under this section shall not stay the order of the commissioner adverse to the applicant.

(g) This section does not apply to a conversion, reorganization, merger, consolidation, or voluntary liquidation under Chapter 10, Texas Savings and Loan Act (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(h) No provision of this section shall excuse or diminish the notice requirements provided elsewhere in this Act.

(i) No provision of this section shall be construed to prevent the commissioner from investigating, commenting upon, or seeking to enjoin or set aside any transfer of voting securities, whether the transfer is included in this section or not, if the commissioner deems the transfer to be against the public interest.

(j) If it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of this section or any rule or order of the commissioner adopted under it, the attorney general on behalf of the commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the violation and for any other equitable relief as the nature of the case may require.

(k) Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes a materially false or misleading statement to the commissioner with respect to the information required by this section may be fined in an amount not exceeding $2,000, or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed one year or both. This provision is cumulative of other remedies contained in this section.

(l) The Savings and Loan Section by rule shall adopt a schedule of fees for the filing of applications and the holding of hearings. The schedule may be graduated so that those applications and hearings that are more difficult to review or administer will require a larger fee. An application fee is not refundable on denial of the application, but the commissioner may refund a portion of the fee if the application is withdrawn before he completes review of it. Fees collected under this section shall be deposited and used in accordance with Section (h), Article 5, Chapter II, The Texas Banking Code of 1943 (Article 342-205, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Applicability of Chapter 4, Business & Commerce Code

Sec. 11.21. An association shall be subject to and shall have the benefit of the provisions of Chapter 4 of the Business & Commerce Code with respect to all items paid, collected, settled, negotiated, or otherwise handled for customers of the association.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 269, ch. 113, § 1. Amended by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 492, ch. 254, §§ 1, 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1965; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1678, ch. 539, § 1, eff. "(b) The repeal of a prior act by this Act shall not impair or otherwise affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such act prior to the repeal thereof.

"Sec. 3. Severability. If any part, Section, Subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

"Sec. 4. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 1964.

"Sec. 5. Emergency. The fact that the present laws relating to savings and loan associations are in many respects inadequate, containing in many instances overlapping, ambiguous, inconsistent and obsolete provisions and seriously impairing the efficient operation of such associations and their ability to serve the public needs in home financing creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity. Demanding that the Constitutional Rule requiring all bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended and such Rule is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect and be in full force from and after the date specified in Section 4 hereof and it is so enacted."

Section 6 of the 1977 amendatory act provided:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications to the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

1. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES

Art. 882. At Common Law

The duties and liabilities of carriers in this State and the remedies against them, shall be the same as are prescribed by the common law except where otherwise provided by this title.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 883. Liability Fixed; Exceptions for Rates Based on Value; Evidence; Notice of Claim May be Required

Railroad companies, and other carriers of passengers, goods, wares, and merchandise for hire, within this state, on land, or in boats or vessels on the waters entirely within this state, shall not limit or restrict their liability as it exists at common law, by any general or special notice, or by inserting exceptions in the bill of lading or memorandum given upon the receipt of the goods for transportation or in any other manner whatsoever; provided, however, that the provisions hereof respecting liabilities of carriers as it exists at common law for loss, damage, or injury to baggage and personal effects of passengers transported incident to the carriage of persons, goods, wares, and merchandise shall not apply to property received for transportation concerning which the carriers shall have been or shall hereafter be expressly authorized or required by order of the Railroad Commission of Texas to establish and maintain rates dependent upon the value declared in writing by the shipper of the property or agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property, in which case, such declaration or agreement shall have no effect other than to limit liability and recovery to an amount not exceeding the value so declared or released, and so far as relates to values, shall be valid and is not hereby prohibited. The Railroad Commission of Texas is hereby authorized to fix and establish just and reasonable rates for transportation of goods, wares, and merchandise described by commodities or articles or by generic grouping of commodities or articles, and the baggage and personal effects of passengers, dependent upon the value thereof declared in writing, or agreed upon in writing by the shipper or passenger as the agreed value, under the circumstances and conditions surrounding such transportation. Provided further, that a requirement of a notice or claim consistent with the provisions of Article 5546 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as heretofore amended, as a condition precedent to the enforcement of any claim or loss, damage and delay or either, or any of them, whether inserted in a bill of lading or other contract or arrangement for carriage, or otherwise provided, shall be valid and is not hereby prohibited.

Section 2 of the 1965 amendatory act provides:

"All other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed, provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Acts 1931, 42nd Legislature, page 480, Chapter 277, Section 6aa [art. 911b, § 6aa], requiring that minimum rates, fares and charges of contract carriers shall not be less than the rates prescribed for common carriers for substantially the same service, or the provisions of Acts 1947, 50th Legislature, page 563, Chapter 327 [arts. 883(a), 883b] relating to declaration of value, rates based on value and evidence, with respect to transportation of household goods, personal effects or used office furniture and equipment by specialized motor carriers and other carriers for hire."

Section 2 of the 1969 amendatory act provides:

"All other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith or to the extent of such conflict are hereby repealed, provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Section 6aa, Chapter 314, General Laws, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as added by Section 6, Chapter 277, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, (Section 6aa, Article 911a [probably should read "911b"], Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), requiring that minimum rates, fares, and charges of contract carriers shall not be less than the rates prescribed for common carriers for substantially the same service, or the provisions of Article 883(a), Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added by Section 1, Chapter 327, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, relating to declaration of value, rates based on value, and evidence, with respect to transportation of household goods, personal effects, or used office furniture and equipment by specialized motor carriers and other carriers for hire."

Art. 883(a). Declaration of Value; Rates Based on Value; Evidence

No specialized motor carrier or other carrier for hire, including the carriers referred to in said Article 883, shall be required to accept for transportation household goods, personal effects or used office furniture and equipment, unless the shipper or owner thereof or his agent shall first declare in writing the reasonable value thereof. The carrier shall not be liable in damages for an amount in excess of such declared value for the loss, destruction or damage of such property. The Railroad Commission shall establish adequate rates consistent with such declared values to be assessed and collected by such carriers. If the Railroad Commission fails to establish such rates, then in that event such carriers are authorized to collect reasonable transportation charges consistent with the declared value of such property.

Saving Clause

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 581, ch. 295, § 1 and Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 618, ch. 213, § 1, which amended art. 883, in § 2 thereof repealed conflicting laws but provided that nothing therein should affect the provisions of this article. See notes under art. 883.

Art. 883b. Declaration of Value as Evidence

The declaration of value by the shipper shall not be admissible as evidence in any court action unless the carrier at the time of acceptance of such shipment had or provided and maintained in force insurance in a solvent company authorized to do business in Texas, or bonds, in an amount equal to such declared value to protect the owner of such shipment against loss or damage thereto; provided, however, this requirement as to insurance or bonds shall not apply to steam or electrical railways.

Saving Clause

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 581, ch. 295, § 1, which amended art. 883, in § 2 thereof repealed conflicting laws but provided that nothing therein should affect the provisions of this article. See note under art. 883.

Art. 884. Must Carry Goods

Upon the tender of the legal or customary rates of freight on goods offered for transportation, to a common carrier other than a railroad, such carrier shall receive and transport such goods, provided his vehicle or vessel has capacity safely to carry the goods so offered on the trip or voyage then pending, and such goods are of the kind usually carried upon such vehicle or vessel, and are offered at a reasonable time. Any common carrier refusing to transport goods as above provided or to take the same in the order presented, shall be liable in damages to the party injured, by reason of such refusal, and shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in the county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 885. Must Give Bill of Lading

Common carriers, when they receive goods for transportation, shall give to the shipper, when it is demanded, a bill of lading, or written receipt stating the quantity, character, order and condition of the goods; and such goods shall be delivered in like order and condition to the consignee, the unavoidable wear and tear¹ and deterioration in due course of transportation only, excepted. Any such common carrier failing to deliver goods as herein required shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, as at common law; and on refusal to execute and deliver a bill of lading or written receipt shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered as in the preceding article.

Art. 886. Liability as a Warehouseman, etc.

Railroad companies and other common carriers having depots and warehouses for storing goods shall be liable as warehousemen are at common law for goods and the care of the same stored at such depots or warehouses before the commencement of the trip or voyage on which said goods are to be transported. They shall be liable as common carriers from the commencement of the trip or voyage until the goods are delivered to the consignee at the point of destination. The trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of the bill of lading, and the liability of the common carrier shall attach, as at common law, from and after such signing.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 887. Diligence in Delivery

If the carrier at the point of destination shall use due diligence to notify the consignee, and the goods are not taken by the consignee, and have in consequence to be stored in the depots or warehouses of the common carriers, they shall thereafter only be liable as warehousemen.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 888. Shall Ship in Order

Where common carriers receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another. For failure to do so, they shall be liable for all losses occurring while the goods remain, and for all damages occasioned or in any wise resulting from the delay.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 889. Care of Animals

A common carrier who conveys live stock of any kind shall feed and water the same during the time of conveyance and until the same is delivered to the consignee or disposed of as provided in this title, unless otherwise provided by special contract. Any carrier who shall fail to so feed and water said live stock sufficiently shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, and shall be liable also to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the owner of such live stock in any county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

2. BILLS OF LADINGArts. 890 to 898. Repealed by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, § 10-102, eff. June 30, 1966

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, enacting the Uniform Commercial Code, repealed arts. 890 to 898 effective June 30, 1966. Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, was itself repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopting the Business & Commerce Code effective September 1, 1967. However, the latter Act specifically provided that the repeal did not affect the prior operation of the 1965 Act or any prior action taken under it.

See, now, Business & Commerce Code, § 7.301 et seq.

Art. 899. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1967

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopted the Business & Commerce Code.

See, now, Business & Commerce Code, § 35.15.

3. DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED GOODSArt. 900. Unclaimed Freight

When any freight or baggage has been conveyed by a common carrier to any point in this State, and shall remain unclaimed for the space of three months at the office or depot nearest or most convenient to destination, and the owner, whether known or not, fails within that time to claim such freight or baggage, or to pay the proper charges if there be any against it, it shall be lawful for such common carrier to sell such freight or baggage at public auction, offering each article separately as consigned or checked.

Art. 901. Sale

Thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale, and a descriptive list of the packages to be sold, with names and numbers or marks found thereon, shall be posted in three public places in the county where the sale is to be made and on the door of the depot or warehouse if any, where the goods are, and notice shall also be given in at least one newspaper in the county, if any be published therein, for thirty days before sale. Out of the proceeds of such sale, the carrier shall deduct the proper charges on such freight or baggage, including costs of storing and costs of sale, and hold the overplus, if any, to the order of the owner any time within five years, on proof of ownership made by the claimant or his duly authorized agent or attorney.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 902. Sale of Live Stock

If any live stock remains unclaimed for the space of forty-eight hours after its arrival at the place of its destination, the carrier may sell the same at public auction after giving five days' notice of the time and place of such sale, as prescribed in the preceding article and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, after deducting reasonable expenses for keeping, feeding and watering said live stock from the time of its arrival at the place of its destination until disposed of as herein provided.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 903. Perishable Property

If any perishable property remains unclaimed after arrival of¹ its place of destination until in danger of depreciation the carrier shall sell the same at public auction, after giving five days' notice of the time and place of sale, as prescribed in the second preceding article and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

¹ So in enrolled bill; probably should read "at".

Art. 904. Data Kept

In each sale under the three preceding articles the carrier shall keep an account of such sale and the expense thereof proportioned to each article sold, a copy of the notice and a copy of the sale bill.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

4. CONNECTING LINES OF COMMON CARRIERS

Art. 905. "Connecting Lines"

All common carriers in this State over whose transportation lines, or parts thereof, is transported any freight, baggage or other property received by either of such carriers for shipment or transportation between points in this State, on a contract for carriage recognized, acquiesced in, or acted upon by such carriers shall, with respect to the undertaking and matter of such transportation be considered and construed to be connecting lines. Such lines shall be deemed and held to be agents of each other, each the agent of the others, and all the others the agents of each, and shall be deemed and held to be under a contract with each other and with the shipper, owner and consignee of such property for the safe and speedy transportation of such property from point of shipment to destination; and such contract as to the shipper, owner and consignee of such property shall be deemed and held to be the contract of each of such common carriers. The provisions of this law shall apply whether the route of such freight, baggage or other property be chosen by the owner or his agents, or by the initial carrier to whom such property is delivered. In any suit brought hereunder, the rights, duties and liabilities of the parties shall be determined by the initial contract executed by and between the owner, shipper or his or her duly authorized agents and the initial carrier, unless it be proved that a subsequent contract supported by a valuable consideration moving to the owner or shipper, in addition to that of the initial contract, was executed by such owner, shipper or his or their duly authorized agents with a subsequent connecting carrier handling the shipment, and the transportation of a caretaker shall not be deemed to be such valuable consideration. In any court of this State, any bill of lading, waybill, receipt, check or other instrument issued by either of such carriers, or other proof showing that either of them has received such freight, baggage or other property for shipment or transportation, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the subsistence of the relations, duties and liabilities of such carrier as herein provided, notwithstanding any stipulation or attempted stipulation to the contrary by such carrier, or either of them, and any stipulation contained in any contract contrary to any provision of this law shall be void.

Art. 906. Recovery by Shipper

For any damage or injury to, or loss or delay of, any freight, baggage or other property, sustained anywhere during the transportation over connecting lines or either of them, as contemplated and defined in the preceding article, either or all of such connecting carriers, as the person or persons sustaining such damage may elect to sue therefor in this State, shall be held liable to such person or persons. The provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall not be applicable to suits brought by such person or persons under the provisions of this subdivision except upon the plaintiff's request. Any carrier or carriers held liable under the provisions hereof shall be entitled in a subsequent action to recover the amount of any loss, damage or injury it has been required to pay hereunder, from the carrier or carriers through whose negligence the loss, damage or injury was sustained, together with all costs of suit; and for the purpose of such recovery, it shall only be necessary that the carrier against whom judgment was had, show which carrier or carriers caused the loss or damage and produce satisfactory evidence that the judgment rendered against it has been paid, and in such action between the carriers, the provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall be applicable.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

5. PROTECTING MOVEMENT OF COMMERCE

Art. 907. Protecting Commerce

If at any time the movement of commerce by common carriers of this State or any of them is interfered with in violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 42 of the Penal Code, and the Governor, after investigation, becomes convinced that the local authorities were failing to enforce the law, either because they were unable or unwilling to do so, the Governor shall, in order to prevent such interference, forthwith issue his proclamations declaring such conditions to exist and describing the areas thus affected.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84. Amended by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 988, ch. 399, § 2(G), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 908. Governor's Jurisdiction

Upon the issuance of the proclamation provided for in the preceding article, the Governor shall exercise full and complete police jurisdiction of the area described in the proclamation whether the same be all within or partly within, or partly without the limits of any incorporated city or county; the exercise of said police jurisdiction by the Governor as above set out, shall supersede all police authority by any and all local authority, provided that the Governor shall not disturb the local authorities in the exercise of police jurisdiction, at any place outside the district described in his proclamation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 909. Arrests

No peace officer of this State shall be permitted to make arrests after the Governor's proclamation has become effective, in the territory embraced by such proclamation, except officers acting under the authority of the Governor under the provisions of this law. Persons arrested within the district shall be delivered forthwith to the proper authorities for trial.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 910. Rangers Used

The provisions of this law shall be effective without a declaration of martial law. The State Rangers may be used in the enforcement of the provisions of this law. If a sufficient number of Rangers are not available, the Governor is authorized to employ any number of men to be designated as special Rangers and such men shall have all the power and authority of the regular Rangers, and shall be paid the same salary as the Rangers are paid, and such salaries shall be paid out of the appropriation made to the executive office for the payment of rewards and the enforcement of the law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 911. Scope of Law

Nothing in this law shall be construed as limiting the power and authority of the Governor to declare martial law and to call forth the militia for the purpose of executing the law, when in the judgment of the chief executive it is deemed necessary so to do. This law shall be construed as cumulative of the existing laws of this State, and shall not be held to repeal any of the same except where in direct conflict herewith.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

6. REGULATION OF MOTOR CARRIERS

Art. 911a. Motor Bus Transportation and Regulation by Railroad Commission

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) That the term "Corporation" when used in this Act means a corporation, company, association, or joint stock association.

(b) The term "Person" when used in this Act means an individual, firm or co-partnership.

(c) The term "Motor Bus Company" when used in this Act means every corporation or persons as herein defined, their lessees, trustees, receivers, or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating or managing any motor propelled passenger vehicle not usually operated on or over rails, and engaged in the business of transporting persons for compensation or hire over the public highways within the State of Texas, whether operating over fixed routes or fixed schedules, or otherwise. However, the term "Motor Bus Company" as used in this Act shall not include:

(1) corporations or persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, insofar as they own, control, operate, or manage motor propelled passenger vehicles operated wholly within the limits of any incorporated town or city, and the suburbs thereof, whether separately incorporated or otherwise;

(2) corporations or persons to the extent that they own, control, operate, or manage vehicles used for van-pooling or any other nonprofit ride-sharing arrangement by which a group of people share the expense of operating or owning and operating a vehicle in which they commute to and from work with one member of the group serving as driver in exchange for transportation to and from work and reasonable personal use of the vehicle; or

(3) corporations or persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, insofar as they own, control, operate, or manage motor propelled taxicabs designed for carrying no more than five passengers; permits, licenses, or certificates issued prior to June 1, 1983, would not be affected by the provisions of this exclusion. Such taxicabs are motor buses only when they operate to or from an airport established pursuant to Section 14, Chapter 114, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, as amended (Article 46d-14 Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(d) The term "Public Highway" when used in this Act means every street, road, or highway in this State.

(e) The term "Highway Commission" when used in this Act means the Board of Highway Commissioners of the State of Texas.

(f) The term "Commission" when used in this Act means the Railroad Commission of the State of Texas.

Common Carriers

Sec. 2. All motor-bus companies, as defined herein, are hereby declared to be "common carriers" and subject to regulation by the State of Texas, and shall not operate any motor propelled passenger vehicle for the regular transportation of persons as passengers for compensation or hire over any public highway in this State except in accordance with the provision of this Act, provided, however, that nothing in this Act or any provision thereof shall be construed or held to in any manner affect, limit, or deprive cities and towns from exercising any of the powers granted them by Chapter 147, pages 307 to 318 inclusive, of the General Laws of the State of Texas, passed by the Thirty-third Legislature, or any amendments thereto.

Certificates of Convenience and Necessity

Sec. 3. It is hereby declared that when existing transportation facilities on any highway in this State do not provide passenger service which the Commission shall deem adequate to provide for public convenience on such highway, then such inadequacy of service shall be considered as creating a condition wherein the public convenience and necessity require the designation of, and provision for, additional service on such highway, and it shall be the duty of the Commission to issue certificate or certificates as herein provided, if in the opinion of said Commission the issuance of such certificate will promote the public welfare.

Regulations by Commission

Sec. 4. (a) The Commission is hereby vested with power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty to supervise and regulate the public service rendered by every motor bus company operating over the highways in this State, to fix or approve the maximum, or minimum, or maximum and minimum, fares, rates or charges of, and to prescribe all rules and regulations necessary for the government of, each motor bus company; to prescribe the routes, schedules, service and safety of operations of each such motor bus company; to require the filing of such annual or other reports and of such other data by such motor bus company as the Commission may deem necessary. To ensure non-discriminatory rates, charges, and classifications for all shippers and users of regulated transportation services for which the Commission prescribes rates, charges, and classifications, the Commission shall establish collective ratemaking procedures for all commodities and services for which it prescribes rates, charges, and classifications. Those procedures must assure that respective revenues and costs of carriers engaged in the transportation of the particular commodity or service for which rates are prescribed are ascertained. Failure on the part of any carrier to comply with this subsection or the rules and regulations adopted under it may result in suspension or cancellation of the carrier's operating authority by the Commission.

(b) The Commission is hereby vested with authority to supervise, control and regulate all terminals of motor bus companies, including the location of facilities and charges to be made motor bus companies for the use of such terminal, or termini; provided, that the Commission shall have no authority to interfere in any way with valid contracts existing between motor bus companies and the owner or owners of motor bus terminals at the time of the passage of this Act.

(c) Repealed by Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 245, ch. 173, § 2.

(d) The Commission is further authorized and empowered to supervise and regulate motor bus companies in all other matters affecting the relationship between such motor bus companies and the traveling public that may be necessary to the efficient operation of this law.
