Article 3028. [2910] Any number of persons desiring to form a company for the purpose of transacting insurance business shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, and submit the same to the attorney-general, and if said articles shall be found by him to be in accordance with the law of this state, and of the United States, he shall attach thereto his certificate to that effect, whereupon such articles shall be deposited with the commissioner of insurance.

Art. 3029. [2911] Such articles shall contain—

1. The name of the company, and the name selected shall not be so similar to that of any other insurance company as to be likely to mislead the public.
2. The locality of the principal business office of such company.
3. The kind of insurance business which the company proposes to engage in.
4. The amount of its capital stock, which shall in no case be less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Art. 3030. [2912] When the said articles of incorporation have been deposited with the commissioner of insurance, and the law in all other respects has been complied with by the company, the commissioner shall make an examination, or cause one to be made by some competent and disinterested person appointed by him for that purpose; and if it shall be found that the capital stock of the company, to the amount required by law, has been paid in, and is possessed by it, in money, or in such stocks, notes, bonds or mortgages, as are required by law, and that the same is the bona fide property of such company, and that such company has in all respects complied with the law relating to insurance, then the commissioner of insurance shall issue to such company a certificate of authority to commence business as proposed in their articles of incorporation.

Formation of company.

What the articles of incorporation shall contain.

Duty of commissioner of insurance when articles are deposited with him. (Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 33, §7.)

Company shall certify, under oath, that the capital is bona fide its property. (Act Feb. 17, 1875, §7.)

Art. 3031. [2913] The corporators or officers of any such company shall be required to certify under oath to the commissioner of insurance that the capital exhibited to the person making the examination is the bona fide property of the company so examined, which certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the commissioner of insurance.

Where examination is made by other than commissioner. Ib.

Art. 3032. [2914] If the examination be made by any other person than the commissioner of insurance the finding shall be certified under the oath of the person making such examination and such finding, and certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the commissioner of insurance.

Stock shall be divided into shares. Ib. §3.

Art. 3033. [2915] The stock of any company organized under the laws of this state shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Capital stock shall consist of what. (Acts of 1889, p. 11.)

Art. 3034. [2916] The capital stock of a company shall consist—

1. In lawful money of the United States; or

2. In the bonds of this state or any county or incorporated town or city thereof, or the stock of any national bank; or

3. In first mortgages upon unincumbered real estate in this state the title to which is valid and the market value of which is double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of buildings, unless such buildings are insured in some responsible company and the policy or policies transferred to the company taking such mortgage.

Capital stock may be invested, how. (Acts of 1875, p. 33.)

Art. 3035. [2917] The surplus money of a company over and above its paid up capital stock may be invested in or loaned upon the pledge of public stocks or bonds of the United States, or any of the states, or stocks, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent dividend paying corporations, or in bills of exchange or other commercial notes or bills, except its own stock; provided, always, that the current market value of such stocks, bonds, notes, bills, or other evidences of indebtedness shall be at all times during the continuance of such loans at least twenty per cent more than the sum loaned thereon.

Company may change and re-invest its stock. Ib.

Art. 3036. [2918] A company may change and reinvest its capital stock in like securities, as occasion may from time to time require.

Number and qualification of directors. Ib. §5.

Art. 3037. [2919] The affairs of any company organized under the laws of this state shall be managed by not more than thirteen nor fewer than seven directors, all of whom shall be stockholders in the company.

Election of directors. Ib.

Art. 3038. [2920] Within thirty days after the subscription books of the company have been filed, a majority of the stockholders shall hold a meeting for the election of directors, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote; and the directors then in office shall continue in office until their successors have been duly chosen and have accepted the trust.

Annual meetings for election of directors. Ib. §9.

Art. 3039. [2921] The annual meeting for the election of directors of a company shall be held during the month of January, as the by-laws of the company may direct.

Special meetings for election of directors. Ib.

Art. 3040. [2922] If from any cause the stockholders should fail to elect directors at an annual meeting, they may hold a special meeting for that purpose, by giving thirty days' notice thereof in some newspaper in general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the company is located, and the directors chosen at such special meeting shall continue in office until their successors are duly elected and have accepted.

Art. 3041. [2923] No meeting of stockholders shall elect directors or transact such other business of the company unless there shall be present at such meeting, in person or by proxy, a majority in value of the stockholders equal to two-thirds of the stock of such company. Quorum of stockholders.

Art. 3042. [2924] The directors shall choose by ballot from their own number a president and such other officers as the by-laws of the company may designate, who shall perform such duties, receive such compensation and give such security as the by-laws of such company may require. Directors shall choose president and other officers. Ib. §10.

Art. 3043. [2925] The directors may ordain and establish such by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as shall appear to them necessary for regulating and conducting the business of the company. Directors may ordain by-laws, etc. Ib. §11.

Art. 3044. [2926] It shall be the duty of the directors to keep a full and correct record of their transactions, which shall at all times during business hours be open to the inspection of the stockholders and other persons interested therein. Shall keep a record of their transactions. Ib. §11.

Art. 3045. [2927] The directors shall fill all vacancies which shall occur in the board or in any of the offices of the company, and a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Shall fill vacancies, and what shall constitute a quorum.

Art. 3046. [2928] The laws relating to and governing corporations in general shall apply to and govern insurance companies incorporated in this state in so far as the same may not be inconsistent with the provisions of this title. General incorporation law shall apply to insurance companies.

Article 3047. [2929] The commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history is charged with the execution of all laws now in force or which may hereafter be enacted in relation to insurance and insurance companies doing business in this state. Charged with the execution of insurance laws. (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 219, §1.)

Art. 3048. [2930] When application is made to the commissioner by any company desiring to pursue the business of insurance for a certificate of authority, he shall, before granting such certificate, be satisfied that such company has fully and in good faith complied with all the requirements of the law and is possessed of the amount of capital stock required by law, and such commissioner may make or cause to be made such examination and investigation into the affairs of such company as he may deem prudent. Duty of, when application is made for certificate of authority.

Art. 3049. [2931] Should said commissioner be satisfied that the company applying for authority has in all respects fully complied with the law, and that it has the required amount of capital stock, it shall be his duty to issue to such company a certificate of authority under the seal of his office, authorizing such company to transact insurance business, naming therein the particular kind of insurance, for the period of not less than three months, nor extend- Shall issue certificate of authority, when.

ing beyond the thirty-first day of December next following the date of such certificate; but no subsequent certificate of authority shall be issued to any company, organized under the laws of any other state or country, where it shall be made to appear that such company has moved from any court of this state to a court of the United States for trial any suit brought against it by a citizen of this state to recover for a loss under a policy of insurance issued by such company, and that, by such removal, the suit has been transferred to a place for trial without and beyond the limits of the county in which such citizen resides.

Other duties of Commissioner.

√ Art. 3050. [2932] The following are the duties of the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history:

1. To see that all laws respecting insurance and insurance companies are faithfully executed.

2. To file and preserve in his office all acts or articles of incorporation of insurance companies, and all other papers required by law to be deposited with him, and on application of any party interested therein to furnish certified copies thereof upon the payment of the fees prescribed by law.

3. He shall, as soon as practicable in each year, calculate or cause to be calculated in his office, by an officer or employe of his department, the net value on the thirty-first day of December of the previous year, of all the policies in force on that day in each life or health company doing business in the state.

4. Calculations of the net value of each policy shall be based upon the American experience table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest per annum. And the net value of a policy at any time shall be taken to be the net single premium which will at that time effect the insurance, less the value at that time of the future net premiums called for by the table of mortality and rate of interest designated above.

5. In case it is found that any life insurance company doing business in this state has not on hand the net value of all its policies in force, after all other debts of the company and claims against it, exclusive of capital stock, have been provided for, it shall be the duty of the insurance commissioner to publish the fact that the then existing condition of affairs of the company is below the standard of legal safety established by this state, and he shall require the company at once to cease doing new business, and he shall immediately institute proceedings, as provided by law, to determine what further shall be done in the case.

6. It is hereby made the duty of the commissioner of insurance, after having determined as above the net value of all the policies in force, to see that the company has that amount in safe, legal securities of the description and character required by law, after all its debts and claims against it, exclusive of capital stock, have been provided for.

7. He shall accept the valuation made by the insurance commissioner of the state under whose authority a life insurance company was organized, when such valuation has been properly made, on sound and recognized principles as a legal basis as above; provided, the company shall furnish to him a certificate of the insurance commissioner of such state, setting forth the value calculated on the data designated above, of all the policies in force in the company on the previous thirty-first day of December, and stating that after all other debts of the company and claims against it at that time were provided for, the company had, in safe securities of the character required by the law of this state, an amount equal to the net value of all its policies in force, and that said company is entitled to do business in its own state.

8. Every life insurance company doing business in this state during the year for which the statement is made that fails promptly to furnish the certificates aforesaid, shall be required to make full detailed lists of policies and securities to the insurance commissioner, and shall be liable for all charges and expenses consequent upon not having furnished said certificate.

9. For every company doing fire insurance business in this state he shall calculate the re-insurance reserve for unexpired fire risks by taking fifty per cent of the premiums received on all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run; provided, that when the re-insurance, reserve, calculated as above, is less than forty per cent of all the premiums received during the year, the re-insurance reserve in this case shall be the whole of the premiums received on all of its unexpired risks.

10. In marine and inland insurance he shall charge all the premiums received on unexpired risks as a re-insurance reserve.

11. Having charged against a company the re-insurance reserve, as above determined, for fire, marine and inland insurance, and adding thereto all other debts and claims against the company, he shall, in case he find the capital stock of the company impaired to the extent of twenty per cent, give notice to the company to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days; and if this is not done, he shall require the company to cease to do business within this state, and shall thereupon, in case the company is organized under authority of the state, immediately institute legal proceedings to determine what further shall be done in the case.

12. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance, after he has notified a life insurance company organized under authority of this law, to cease doing new business until the net value of its policies in force is equal to that called for by the standard of safety established by the state, at once to cause a rigid examination in regard to the affairs of such company; and in case it shall appear that there is no fraud or gross incompetency or recklessness shown to exist in the management, he may, upon publishing the facts in the case, permit such company to continue in charge of its business for one year; provided, there is, in his opinion, reason to believe that the company may eventually be able to re-establish the legal net value of its policies in force. At the end of the year named above he may renew the permission in case, on examination, he is satisfied that the company is likely to retrieve its affairs.

13. In case the commissioner does not permit the company to continue in the control of its business, it is made his duty to institute the necessary proceedings for the protection of its policy-holders in accordance with the laws.

14. The commissioner shall publish the result of his examination of the affairs of any company whenever he deems it for the interest of the public.

15. He shall suspend the entire business of any company of this state, and the business within this state of any other company, during its non-compliance with any provision of the law relative to insurance, or whenever its assets appear to him insufficient to justify its continuance in business, by suspending or revoking the certificate granted by him, and he shall give notice thereof to the insurance commissioner or other similar officer of every state, and shall also publish notice thereof.

16. He shall institute, or cause to be instituted, the necessary proceedings under the laws to close the affairs of any insurance company of this state which shall appear to him upon examination to be insolvent or fraudulently conducted.

17. He shall report promptly and in detail to the attorney-general any violation of law relative to insurance companies or the business of insurance.

18. He shall furnish to the companies required to report to him, the necessary blank forms for the statements required.

19. He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings and a concise statement of the condition of each company or agency visited or examined.

20. At the request of any person, and on the payment of the legal fee, he shall give certified copies of any record or papers in his office when he deems it not prejudicial to public interests, and shall give such other certificates as are provided for by law.

21. He shall report annually to the governor the names and compensations of his clerks, the receipts and expenses of his department for the year, his official acts, the condition of companies doing business in this state, and such other information as will exhibit the affairs of said department.

22. He shall send a copy of such annual report to the insurance commissioner or any similar officer of every other state, and to each company doing business in this state.

23. On request he shall communicate to the insurance commissioner or other similar officer of any other state, in which the substantial provisions of the law of this state relative to insurance have been or shall be enacted, any facts which by law it is his duty to ascertain respecting the companies of this state doing business within such other state.

24. It shall be his duty to see that no company is permitted to insure lives or health in this state whose charter authorizes it to do a fire, marine or inland business, and that no company authorized to do a life or health insurance business be permitted to take fire, marine or inland risks.

Powers of, to

Ib. p. 223,
39.

Art. 3051. [2933] The commissioner of insurance, for the purpose of examinations authorized by law, has power either in person or by one or more examiners by him commissioned in writing—

1. To require free access to all books and papers within this state of any insurance companies or the agents thereof doing business within this state.

2. To summon and examine any person within this state, under oath, which he or any examiner may administer, relative to the affairs and condition of any insurance company.

3. For probable cause to visit at its principal office, wherever it may be, any insurance company, not of a state in which the substantial provisions of the laws of this state shall be enacted and doing business in this state, for the purpose of investigating its affairs and condition, and he shall revoke the certificate of any such company in this state refusing to permit such examination.

4. He may revoke or modify any certificate of authority issued by him when any conditions prescribed by law for granting it no longer exist.

5. He also has power to institute suits and prosecutions, either by the attorney-general or such other attorney as he may designate, for any violation of the law of this state relating to insurance, and he shall be made a party to any proceedings for the closing up of the affairs of any company, when the same shall not be in the name of the state.

Art. 3052. [2934] Whenever, without justifiable cause, any person being within this state refuses to appear and testify before the commissioner of insurance when duly summoned, he may be attached by order of such commissioner and imprisoned in the county jail until he testifies.

Person refusing to testify may be attached, etc.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3053. [2935] Sheriffs and other peace officers of this state shall execute process directed to them by the commissioner of insurance, and make return thereof to him as in the case of process issued from any of the courts.

Process issued by commissioner shall be executed by sheriff, etc.

Art. 3054. [2936] No transfer by the commissioner of insurance of securities of any kind, in any way held by him in his official capacity, shall be valid unless countersigned by the treasurer of the state.

Transfer of securities by commissioner not valid unless countersigned by treasurer.
Ib. p. 224, §13.

Art. 3055. [2937] It is the duty of the state treasurer—

1. To countersign any such transfer presented to him by the commissioner.

Duty of treasurer in regard to such transfers.
Ib.

2. To keep a record of all transfers, stating the name of the transferee, unless transferred in blank, and a description of the security.

3. Upon countersigning, to advise by mail the company concerned, the particulars of the transaction.

4. In his annual report to the legislature to state the transfers and the amount thereof, countersigned by him.

Art. 3056. [2938] For the purpose of verifying the correctness of records the commissioner of insurance shall be entitled to free access to the treasurer's records, required by the preceding article, and the treasurer shall be entitled to free access to the books and other documents of the insurance department relating to securities held by the commissioner.

Free access to records, books, etc., given to commissioner and treasurer.
Ib. §14.

Art. 3057. [2939] Every instrument executed by the commissioner of insurance of this state, or of any other state, in which the substantial provisions of the laws of this state relating to insurance have been or shall be enacted, pursuant to authority conferred by law, and authenticated by his seal of office, shall be received as evidence, and copies of papers and records in his office certified by him, and so authenticated, shall be received as evidence with the same effect as the originals.

Instruments executed by commissioner, and copies of papers in his office made evidence.
Ib. p. 223, §11.

Art. 3058. [2940] The commissioner of insurance is authorized to address any inquiries to any insurance company in relation to its business and condition, or any matter connected with its transactions which he may deem necessary for the public good or for a proper discharge of his duties; and it shall be the duty of the company so addressed to promptly answer such inquiries in writing.

Commissioner authorized to make inquiries of company, etc. (Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 39, §38.)

Art. 3059. [2941] It shall be the duty of the commissioner to cause the information contained in the annual statements of companies to be arranged in tabular form and prepare the same in a single document for printing, and submit the same to the legislature as a portion of his regular report to that body.

Annual statement to be tabulated and submitted to legislature by commissioner.
Ib. p. 43, §28.

Insurance company's certificate of authority to transact business to be revoked, when. (Acts of 1879, ch. 144, p. 159.)

Art. 3060. [2942a] Should any insurance company fail or neglect to pay off and discharge any execution, issued upon a valid final judgment against said company, within thirty days after the notice of the issuance thereof, then in that event the certificate of authority of said company to transact business of insurance shall be revoked, cancelled and annulled, and said company shall be prohibited from transacting business of insurance in this state until said execution be satisfied.

Insurance unlawful unless authorized by commissioner of insurance. (Act May 2, 1874.) P. D. 716g.

Article 3061. [2943] It shall not be lawful for any person to act within this state, as agent or otherwise, in soliciting or receiving applications for insurance of any kind whatever, or in any manner to aid in the transaction of the business of any insurance company incorporated in this state or out of it, without first procuring a certificate of authority from the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history.

Statement under oath shall be furnished commissioner, and what it shall show. 1b.

Art. 3062. [2944] Any life or health insurance company desiring to transact the business of insurance in this state shall furnish said commissioner with a written or printed statement, under oath of the president or secretary of such company, which statement shall show—

1. The name and locality of the company.
2. The amount of its capital stock.
3. The amount of its capital stock paid up.
4. The assets of the company, including, first, the amount of cash on hand and in the hands of other persons, naming such persons and their residence; second, real estate unincumbered, where situated, and its value; and if the said company be one organized under the laws of this state, an abstract of the title thereto shall accompany such statement; third, the bonds owned by the company and how they are secured, with the rate of interest thereon; fourth, debts due the company secured by mortgage, describing the property mortgaged and its market value; fifth, debts otherwise secured, stating how secured; sixth, debts for premiums; seventh, all other moneys and securities.

5. The amount of liabilities due or not due by the company, stating the person or corporation to whom due.
6. Losses adjusted and due.
7. Losses adjusted and not due.
8. Losses unadjusted.
9. Losses in suspense and for what cause.
10. All other claims against the company, describing the same.

Art. 3063. [2945] Such life or health insurance company shall accompany such statement with its acts or articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, and a copy of its by-laws, together with the name and residence of each of its officers, directors and members, all of which shall be certified under the hand of the president or secretary of such company.

Statement shall be accompanied with act or articles of incorporation and copy of by-laws of company.
Ib.

Art. 3064. [2946] Such company shall also file with the commissioner a power of attorney under its corporate seal for all of its agents and officers or representatives in this state, authorizing such agents, officers and representatives, and each of them, to accept service of any civil process for and in behalf of such company, and consenting that the service of any civil process upon any such agent, officer or representative in the state in any suit or proceeding in which such company is a party, shall be taken and held to be valid, and waiving all claims of error by reason of such service. Said power of attorney shall be embodied in a resolution duly adopted by such company, and shall be signed by the president, manager or secretary thereof; and all of the persons named in said power of attorney shall be residents of this state, and the full name and residence of each shall be stated.

Power of attorney shall accompany statement, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3065. [2947] No life or health insurance company incorporated in this state or any other state shall transact any business of insurance in this state unless such company is possessed of at least one hundred thousand dollars of actual capital invested in stocks, bonds, mortgages or other satisfactory evidence of security, the market value of which shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Capital stock shall not be less than $100,000.
P. D. 7116h.

Art. 3066. [2948] Whenever the existing or future laws of any other state of the United States shall require of life or health insurance companies incorporated by this state any deposit of securities in such other state before transacting insurance business therein, then, and in every such case all insurance companies of such state shall, before doing any insurance business in this state, be required to make the same deposit of securities with the treasurer of this state.

Comity with other states.
P. D. 7116m.

Art. 3067. [2949] No life or health insurance company incorporated by or organized under the laws of any foreign government shall transact business in this state unless it shall first deposit and keep deposited with the treasurer of this state for the benefit of the policy-holders of such company, citizens or residents of the United States, bonds or securities of the United States or of the state of Texas, to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars.

Where suits against companies may be instituted, and how process may be served.
P. D. 7116g.

Art. 3070. [2952] Suits may be instituted and prosecuted against any life or health insurance company in any county where loss has occurred, or where the policy-holder instituting such suit resides, and the process in any such suit may be served upon any person in this state holding a power of attorney from such company, and if no such person can be found in this state, upon affidavit of that fact being filed, process may be served by publication, as provided in the case of defendants who are non-residents of this state.

Penalty for failure to pay loss.
P. D. 7116o.

Art. 3071. [2953] In all cases where a loss occurs and the life or health insurance company liable therefor shall fail to pay the same within the time specified in the policy, after demand made therefor, such company shall be liable to pay the holder of such policy, in addition to the amount of the loss, twelve per cent damages on the amount of such loss, together with all reasonable attorney's fees for the prosecution and collection of such loss.

Penalty for failure to pay execution.
P. D. 7116o.

Art. 3072. [2954] Should any life or health insurance company fail to pay off and satisfy any execution that may lawfully issue on any final judgment against said company within thirty days after the officer holding such execution has demanded payment thereof from any officer, agent or attorney of such company in this state or out of it, such officer shall immediately certify such demand and failure to the commissioner of insurance, and thereupon the commissioner shall forthwith declare null and void the certificate of authority issued by him to such company, and such company shall be prohibited from transacting any business in this state until said execution shall be fully satisfied and discharged, and until such commissioner shall renew his certificate of authority to such company.

Life or health insurance company shall not take any other risks than those of life or health.
P. D. 7116l.

Art. 3073. [2955] It shall be unlawful for any life or health insurance company to take any kind of risks or issue any policies of insurance except those of life or health, nor shall the business of life or health insurance in this state be in anywise conducted or transacted by any company which, in this or any other state or country, is engaged or concerned in the business of marine, fire, inland or other insurance.

Marine, fire and other than life or health insurance companies may do what.
(Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 34, 33.)

Art. 3074. [2956] It shall be lawful for any insurance company doing business in this state under the proper certificate of authority, except a life or health insurance company, to insure houses, buildings and all other kinds of property against loss or damage by fire, and to take all kinds of insurance on goods, merchandise or other property in the course of transportation, whether on land or water, or any vessel afloat, wherever the same may be; to lend money on bottomry or respondentia, and to cause itself to be insured against any loss or risk it may have incurred in the course of its business, and upon the interest which it may have in any property, by means of any loan or loans which it may have made on bottomry or respondentia, and generally to do and perform all other matters and things proper to promote these objects.

Limit to extent of insurance.
Ib.

Art. 3075. [2957] No fire, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this state shall expose itself to loss on any one risk, except when insuring cotton in bales, to an amount exceeding ten per cent of its paid up capital, unless the excess shall be insured by such company in some other solvent insurance company legally authorized to do business in this state.

Art. 3076. [2958] No fire, marine or inland insurance company organized under the laws of this state shall purchase or hold any real estate, except—

Insurance companies shall not purchase or hold real estate, except, etc. Ib. §16.

1. Such as shall be requisite for its convenient accommodation in the transaction of its business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for money due.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the legitimate business of the company or for money due.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales under judgments, decrees or mortgages obtained or made for such debts. All lands purchased or held in violation of this article shall be forfeited to the state.

Art. 3077. [2959] Whenever the joint stock of any fire, fire and marine, or marine insurance company of this state becomes impaired, the commissioner of insurance may in his discretion permit the said company to reduce its capital stock and par value of its shares in proportion to the extent of impairment, but in fixing such reduced capital no sum exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars shall be deducted from the assets and property on hand, which shall be retained as surplus assets, and no part of such assets and property shall be distributed to the stockholders, nor shall the capital stock of a company in any case be reduced to an amount less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Commissioner may permit capital stock of company to be reduced, when. (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 222, §8, subdivision 11.)

Art. 3078. [2960] Any fire, marine or inland insurance company having received notice from the commissioner of insurance to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days, shall forthwith call upon its stockholders for such amounts as shall make its capital equal to the amount fixed by the charter of such company.

When company is called upon to make good its capital stock, shall do what. Ib. §221.

Art. 3079. [2961] In case any stockholder of such fire, marine or inland insurance company shall neglect or refuse to pay the amount so called for, after notice personally given, or by advertisement for such time and in such manner as said commissioner shall approve, it shall be lawful for said company to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by such stockholder, and in lieu thereof to issue new certificate for such number of shares as such defaulting stockholders may be entitled to, in the proportion that the ascertained value of the funds of said company may be found to bear to the original capital of said company; the value of such shares, for which new certificates are issued, to be ascertained under the direction of said commissioner, and the company shall pay for the fractional parts of shares.

Stockholder failing to pay when called upon, what course shall be taken. Ib. §8.

Art. 3080. [2962] It shall be lawful for such fire, marine or inland insurance company to create new stock and dispose of the same, and to issue new certificates therefor, to any amount sufficient to make up the original capital of the company.

Company may create and dispose of new stock, when. Ib.

Art. 3081. [2963] In the event that any number of insurance companies, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, should associate themselves together for the purpose of issuing or vending policies or joint policies of insurance, such association shall not be permitted to do business in this state until the taxes and fees due from each of said companies shall have been paid and all the conditions of the law fully complied with by each company; and any company failing or refusing to pay such taxes and fees, and to fully comply with the requirements of law, shall be refused permission by the commissioner of insurance to do business in this state.

Notices shall be published, how.

Art. 3082. [2964] Whenever by any provision of this title any notice or other matter is required to be published, it shall, unless otherwise provided, be published for three successive weeks in two newspapers printed in the state, and which have a general circulation in the state.

Annual statement of company. (Act Feb. 17, 1876, p. 37, §17.)

Art. 3083. [2965] It shall be the duty of the president or of the vice-president and secretary of each fire, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this state, annually, on the first day of January of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, to prepare under oath and deposit with the commissioner of insurance of this state a full, true and complete statement of the condition of such company on the last day of the month of December preceding.

What the annual statement shall exhibit. Ib.

Art. 3084. [2966] The annual statement required by the preceding article shall exhibit the following items and facts:

1. The name of the company and where located.
2. The names and residences of the officers.
3. The amount of capital stock of the company.
4. The amount of capital stock paid up.
5. The property or assets held by the company, viz.: The real estate owned by such company, its location, description and value as near as may be, and if said company be one organized under the laws of this state, shall accompany such statement with an abstract of the title to the same; the amount of cash on hand and deposited in banks to the credit of the company, and in what bank or banks the same is deposited; the amount of cash in the hands of agents, naming such agents; the amount of cash in course of transmission; the amount of loans secured by first mortgages on real estate, with the rate of interest thereon, specifying the location of such real estate, its value and the name of the mortgagor; the amount of all bonds and other loans, with the rate of interest thereon and how secured; the amount due the company in which judgments have been obtained, describing such judgments; the amount of stock of this state, of the United States, of any incorporated city of this state, and of any other stock owned by the company, describing the same and specifying the amount and number of shares, and the par and market value of each kind of stock; the amount of stock held by such company as collateral security for loans, with amount loaned on each kind of stock, its par and market value; the amount of interest actually due to the company and unpaid; all other securities, their description and value.

6. 7. The income of the company during the preceding year, stating the amount received for premiums, specifying separately fire, marine and inland transportation premiums, deducting re-insurance; the amount received for interest, and from all other sources.

8. The expenditures during the preceding year, specifying the amount of losses paid during said term, stating how much of the same accrued prior, and how much subsequent to the date of the preceding statement, and the amount at which losses were estimated in such preceding statement; the amount paid for dividends; the amount paid for return premiums, commissions, salaries, expenses and other charges of officers, agents, clerks and other employes; the amount paid for local, state, national, internal revenue and other taxes and duties; the amount paid for all other expenses, such as fees, printing, stationery, rents, furniture, etc.

9. The largest amount insured in any one risk, naming the risk.

10. The amount of risks written during the year then ending.

11. The amount of risks in force having less than one year to run.

12. The amount of risks in force having more than one and not over three years to run.

13. The amount of risks having more than three years to run.

14. It shall be stated whether or not dividends are declared on premiums received for risks not terminated.

Art. 3085. [2967] The commissioner of insurance may, from time to time, make such changes in the forms of the annual statements of companies, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, as shall seem to him best adapted to elicit from the companies a true exhibit of their condition in respect to the several points enumerated in the preceding articles, or in respect to other points that he may deem essential to be added.

Commissioner may change form of annual statements. (Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 43, §27.)

Art. 3086. [2968] It shall be the duty of every insurance company doing business in this state, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, to publish annually within thirty days after the issuance thereof, a certificate from the commissioner of insurance that such company has in all respects complied with the laws in relation to insurance.

Company shall publish certificate of commissioner. Ib. §26.

Art. 3087. [2969] It shall not be lawful for any life, health, fire, marine or inland insurance company organized under the laws of this state to make any dividend except from the surplus profits arising from its business, and in estimating such profits there shall be reserved therefrom a sum equal to forty per cent of the amount received as premiums on unexpired fire risks and policies, and one hundred per cent of the premiums received on unexpired life, health, marine or inland transportation risks and policies; which amount so reserved is hereby declared to be unearned premiums; and there shall also be reserved the amount of all unpaid losses, whether adjusted or unadjusted; all sums due the company on bonds, mortgages, stocks and book accounts, of which no part of the principal or the interest thereon has been paid during the year preceding such estimate of profits, and upon which suit for foreclosure or collection has not been commenced, or which, after judgment has been obtained thereon, shall have remained more than two years unsatisfied, and upon which interest shall not have been paid; and in case of any such judgment the interest due or accrued thereon and remaining unpaid shall also be reserved.

Unlawful dividends. Ib. §15.

Art. 3088. [2970] Any dividends made contrary to the provisions of the preceding article shall subject the company making it to a forfeiture of its charter, and the commissioner of insurance shall forthwith revoke its certificate of authority.

Policy shall be considered a liquidated demand. (Acts 1879, ch. 73, p. 83.)

Art. 3089. [2971] A fire insurance policy, in case of a total loss by fire of property insured, shall be held and considered to be a liquidated demand against the company for the full amount of such policy; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to personal property.

Foreign assessment companies. (Acts of 1889, p. 98, §1.)

Art. 3090. Companies or associations organized under the laws of any other state of the United States, carrying on the business of life or casualty insurance on the assessment or natural premium plan, and having cash assets of a sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars, invested as required by the laws of this state regulating other insurance companies, shall be licensed by the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history to do business in this state, and be subject only to the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that such company or association shall first file with the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history a certified copy of its charter, a written agreement, appointing the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, and his successor in office, to be its true and lawful attorney, upon whom all lawful process in any action or proceeding against it may be served; a certificate under oath of its president and secretary that it is paying and for the twelve months next preceding has paid the maximum amount named in its policies or certificates in full; a statement under oath of its president and secretary of its business for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding; a certified copy of its constitution and by-laws, and a copy of its policy and application; a certificate from the proper authority in its home state that said company or association is legally entitled to do business in such home state, and has at least one hundred thousand dollars surplus assets subject to its indebtedness. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history to issue a license to any company or association complying with the provisions of this chapter, and every such company or association shall annually thereafter, before such license is renewed, file with the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, on or before the first day of March, a statement under oath of its president and secretary, or like officers, of its business for the year ending December 31st preceding.

Fees. Ib. §2.

Art. 3091. Every such company or association shall pay to the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, for the use of the state, the following fees: For filing copy of its charter, twenty-five dollars; for filing statement preliminary to admission, twenty dollars; for filing each annual statement after admission, twenty dollars; for license to company or association, one dollar.

Shall not apply to mutual benefit associations. Ib. §3.

Art. 3092. The provisions of this chapter shall in no wise apply to mutual benefit organizations doing business in this state through lodges or councils, such as the order of chosen friends, knights of honor, or kindred organizations.

Who are agents. (Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 32.)

Art. 3093. Any person who solicits insurance on behalf of any insurance company, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other state or foreign government, or who takes or transmits other than for himself any application for insurance or any policy of insurance to or from such company, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit the same, or who shall receive or deliver a policy of insurance of any such company, or who shall examine or inspect any risk, or receive, or collect, or transmit any premium of insurance, or make or forward any diagram of any building or buildings, or do or perform any other act or thing in the making or consummating of any contract of insurance for or with any such insurance company other than for himself, or who shall examine into, or adjust or aid in adjusting any loss for or on behalf of any such insurance company, whether any of such acts shall be done at the instance or request, or by the employment of such insurance company, or of or by any broker or other person, shall be held to be the agent of the company for which the act is done, or the risk is taken, as far as relates to all the liabilities, duties, requirements and penalties set forth in this chapter; provided, that the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to citizens of this state who arbitrate in the adjustment of losses between the insurers and the insured, nor to the adjustment of particular or general average losses of vessels or cargoes by marine adjusters who have paid an occupation tax of two hundred dollars for the year in which the adjustment is made; provided further, that the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to practicing attorneys-at-law in the state of Texas, acting in the regular transaction of their business as such attorneys-at-law, and who are not local agents, nor acting as adjusters for any insurance company.

Art. 3094. Whenever any person shall do or perform within this state any of the acts mentioned in article 3093 for or on behalf of any insurance company therein referred to, such company shall be held to be doing business in this state, and shall be subject to the same taxes, state, county and municipal, as insurance companies that have been legally qualified and admitted to do business in this state by agents or otherwise, are subject, the same to be assessed and collected as taxes are assessed and collected against such companies; and such persons so doing or performing any of such acts or things shall be personally liable for such taxes.

Taxes to be assessed against, when.
Ib. §3.

Art. 3095. Any person who shall do any of the acts mentioned in article 3093 for or on behalf of any insurance company without such company has first complied with the requirements of the laws of this state, shall be personally liable to the holder of any policy of insurance in respect of which such act was done for any loss covered by the same.

Penalty, etc.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3096. Nothing in this title shall be construed to affect or in any way apply to mutual relief associations organized and chartered under the general incorporation laws of Texas, or which are organized under the laws of any other state, which have no capital stock, and whose relief funds are created and sustained by assessments made upon the members of said associations in accordance with their several by-laws and regulations; provided, that the principal officer of every such benevolent organization (not conducted by lodges a quorum of whose members meet in their respective lodge rooms at least once each month), shall be required to make an annual statement under oath to the department of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history on the first day of January of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, showing—

Shall not affect mutual relief associations.
(Acts of 1885, p. 62.)

1. Name of organization and where located.
2. Name and residence of officers.
3. The salary paid each officer.
4. The gross amount of money received during the year, and from what sources.

- 5. The amount paid to policy holders on assessments to pay losses.
- 6. The amount paid out for all other purposes, stating in detail what purpose.
- 7. Surplus in the treasury, if any.

And should any such benevolent organization refuse or neglect to make an annual report as above required, it shall be deemed an insurance company conducted for profit to its officers, and amenable to the laws governing such companies.

"Life" and "accident" insurance companies and terms incident thereto defined. (Act of 1895, p. 97.)

Article 3096a. A life insurance company shall be deemed to be a corporation doing business under any charter involving the payment of money or other thing of value to families or representatives of policy holders, conditioned upon the continuance or cessation of human life, or involving an insurance, guaranty, contract or pledge for the payment of endowments or annuities. An accident insurance company shall be deemed to be a corporation doing business under any charter involving the payment of money or other thing of value to families or representatives of policy holders, conditioned upon the injury, disablement or death of persons resulting from traveling or general accidents by land or water. When consistent with the context and not obviously used in a different sense, the term "company" or "insurance company," as used herein, includes all corporations engaged as principals in the business of life, accident, or life and accident insurance. The term "home company," as used herein, designates those life, accident, or life and accident insurance companies incorporated and formed in this state. The term "home office" of a company means its principal office within the state or country in which it is incorporated or formed. The term "member" of a company shall include every person having a right to vote at any meeting of stockholders, other than a person having a right to vote only upon a proxy. The term "directors" or "board of directors" includes the persons duly appointed or designated to manage the affairs of the company. The "insured" or "policy holder" is the person on whose life a policy of insurance is effected. The "beneficiary" is the person to whom a policy of insurance effected is payable. By the term "net assets" is meant the funds of the company available for the payment of its obligations in this state, and also including uncollected and deferred premiums not more than three months due on policies actually in force, after deducting from such funds all unpaid losses and claims, and claims for losses, and all other debts, exclusive of capital stock. The "profits" of a company are that portion of its funds not required for the payment of losses and expenses, nor set apart for any other purpose allowed by law.

Art. 3096b. Any three or more citizens of this state, who shall be known as incorporators, may associate to form a home company under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of transacting the business of a life insurance company, the business of an accident insurance company, or the business of both a life and accident insurance company; provided, that such accident insurance business shall be made a separate department of the business of a life insurance company undertaking it.

Who may form home-life or accident insurance companies.
Ib.

Art. 3096c. No home company shall adopt a name that so closely resembles the name of an existing corporation as to be likely to mislead the public, and the words "Insurance Company" must be a part of the title.

Name of company.
Ib.

Art. 3096d. The capital stock of a home company may be divided into classes or series, and each class or series shall be paid in at such times and in such amounts as the subscription contract or the stockholders may require; provided, no company shall do or advertise to do business with a less capital stock paid in than one hundred thousand dollars. If default shall be made in the payment of any installment as required, all previous payments made thereon shall be forfeited for the use of the company after the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice sent to such defaulting stockholder. Such forfeited stock may be reissued or subscription therefor may be received as in the case of stock not issued or subscribed for. Such capital stock shall be divided into shares, or fractional parts thereof, and the par value of each share shall be such an amount as shall be named in its charter or any amendment thereto. The stockholders of any such company may increase or reduce the amount of its capital stock or the number of its shares to any amount; provided, that the capital stock shall in no case be reduced to less than one hundred thousand dollars paid in. A statement of any such increase or reduction shall be signed and acknowledged by two officers of the company, and filed and recorded in the same manner as the charter. Any such company may, after any such increase or reduction, require the return of the original subscription receipts or certificates of stock held by each stockholder in exchange for new certificates it may issue in lieu thereof. The shares or fractional parts of shares of capital stock of such company shall be transferable on the books of the company according to law and the by-laws of the company by the owner in person or his authorized attorney, and every person becoming a stockholder by such transfer shall, in proportion to his shares or parts of shares, succeed to all rights and liabilities of prior stockholders. No share, or part thereof, however, of capital stock shall be transferred until all previous calls made and due thereon shall have been paid in.

Capital stock, how paid, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3096e. Any home company may incorporate under this chapter for a period of time not exceeding five hundred years, and at the expiration of any term may renew its charter in accordance with then existing laws.

Period for which home company may incorporate.
Ib.

Art. 3096f. Not less than three of the incorporators of a home company shall sign and acknowledge before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments to deeds, and file in the office of the insurance commissioner, the charter adopted by them, which shall specify

Charter shall specify what.
Ib.

the names of the corporators and the proposed name of the company; the location of its home office; the kinds of insurance it proposes to transact; the period of time it is to exist; the amount of its capital stock, and the number and par value of the shares; and such other provisions not inconsistent with law that they may deem proper to insert therein.

Proposed charter shall be submitted to attorney-general for approval.
Ib.

Art. 3096g. Whenever such corporators shall have filed the proposed charter with, and paid a charter fee of twenty dollars to, the insurance commissioner, it shall be his duty to submit such charter to the attorney general of this state for examination, and if it shall be found by him to be in accordance with law, he shall so certify and deliver back to the commissioner.

Charter shall be recorded when approved.
Ib.

Art. 3096h. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of such charter, approved by the attorney general, record the said charter and certificate of the attorney general in a book kept for that purpose, and shall, upon receipt of fee for certified copy of charter, of one dollar, furnish a certified copy of such charter and certificate of attorney general to the corporators, upon receipt of which they shall be a body politic and corporate, and may proceed to complete organization of the company. The corporators shall have the direction of the affairs and the perfecting the organization of the company until they shall call a special meeting of the stockholders, and until such meeting has been held for the purpose of adopting by-laws, electing directors, officers, and transacting general business.

Certificate of payment of capital stock.
Ib.

Art. 3096i. Upon being notified that at least one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock named in the charter of the company has been paid in, the commissioner shall make an examination, and if it shall be found that such amount of the paid in capital stock has been invested in securities authorized by this chapter, he shall so certify. The corporators, or two officers of such company, shall be required to certify under oath to the commissioner that the money, notes, stocks, bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust or other property exhibited to him are bona fide property of the company, and are worth in cash the amounts which they represent.

When permit to do business may issue.
Ib.

Art. 3096j. When the corporators have fully complied with the requirements of this chapter the commissioner shall, upon the receipt of the certificate of authority fee of one dollar, furnish the company authority to commence business and issue policies as proposed in its charter.

Amendment of charter.
Ib.

Art. 3096k. Any home company may, by vote of the stockholders, change or amend its charter, and such alteration or amendment shall be signed by two officers of the company, and filed and recorded in the same manner as the original charter.

Paid in capital stock to consist of what.

Art. 3096l. The paid in capital stock of a home company shall consist in lawful money or bonds of the United States, or in bonds of this state, or any county or incorporated town or city thereof, or the stock of any national bank, or in first mortgages upon unincumbered real estate in this state, the title to which is valid, and the market value of which is double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of buildings, unless such buildings are insured in some responsible company and the policy or policies transferred to the company taking such mortgage. The accumulations or surplus money of the company over and above its paid in capital stock may be invested in or loaned upon the pledges of public stocks or bonds of the United States, or any county or school district, or incorporated city or town, or of any of the states, or stocks or bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent dividend paying corporation, except its own stock, or in bills of exchange, or other commercial notes or bills, or in the reserve values of its own policies, or in first mortgages upon unincumbered real estate situated in this state, the title to which is valid; provided, that the current market value of such stocks, bonds, mortgages, notes, bills or other evidences of indebtedness shall be at all times during the continuance of such loans at least twenty per cent more than the sum loaned thereon. The company may sell, change, or reinvest its capital stock or accumulations in like securities as occasion may from time to time require.

Art. 3096m. No home company shall purchase or hold real estate except for the following purposes and in the following manner: The building in which it has its home office and the land upon which it stands; such as shall be requisite for its accommodation in the transaction of its business in this state, or any other state or country; such as shall have been acquired for the accommodation of its business; such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for moneys due; such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings; such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments, decrees, or mortgages obtained or made for such debts.

Extent to which real estate may be acquired.
Ib.

Art. 3096n. The first meeting of stockholders of the home company shall be held before the company is authorized to commence business. Annual meetings shall be held at such time and place as the stockholders may determine. At any meeting of stockholders each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of the subscribed capital stock of such company standing in his name on the books of the company, which vote may be given in person or by proxy. A majority of the subscribed capital stock of such company represented at any meeting of stockholders shall constitute a quorum. The stockholders shall have authority to provide for the government of the affairs of such company by any number of directors, committees, officers, or other agencies, and may exercise or confer such powers and may perform or prescribe such duties in such manner as they deem proper, not inconsistent with law or the charter of such company.

Stockholders' meetings, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3096o. Any stockholder, director, member of a committee, officer or clerk of a home company who is charged with the duty of handling or investing its funds shall not deposit or invest such funds except in the corporate name of such company; shall not borrow the funds of such company; shall not be interested in any way in any loan, pledge, security or property of such company, except as stockholder; shall not take or receive to his own use any fee, brokerage, commission, gift or other consideration for or on account of a loan made by or on behalf of such company.

Limitations on the powers of stockholders, directors, officers and employees.
Ib.

Art. 3096p. Any home company may reinsure in other companies authorized to do business in this state any risk or part of a risk which it may take for its own benefit.

Home company may reinsure in other companies.
Ib.

Art. 3096q. No home company shall make dividends to its policy holders or stockholders, except from the profits arising from the business of such company.

Dividends may be declared only on profits.
Ib.

Art. 3096r. Each home company shall annually, after the first day of January of each year, and before the renewal of its authority to transact business, prepare, under oath of two of its officers, and Annual statements shall show what.

Ib.

deposit in the office of the insurance commissioner a statement, accompanied with the fee for filing annual statement of ten dollars, showing the condition of the company on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, which shall include a statement in detail showing class and character of its assets and liabilities on that day, the amount and character of business transacted, moneys received, and how expended during the year, and the number and amount of its policies in force on that day in Texas, and the total amounts of all policies in force; provided, that the commissioner of insurance may from time to time make such changes in the forms and requirements of the annual statement of companies as shall seem to him best adapted to elicit from the companies a true exhibit of their condition, and such statement shall also contain and set forth an exhibit of the investments of such company.

Renewal certificate; when to issue.
Ib.

Art. 3096s. Whenever any home company shall have filed its annual statement in accordance with the preceding article, the insurance commissioner shall, upon receipt of certificate of authority fee of one dollar, issue a renewal certificate of authority to such company, which shall expire on the last day of December of the current year.

Certified copies of permits to issue, when.
Ib.

Art. 3096t. Any home company having received authority to transact business in this state, may, upon payment of certified copy of certificate of authority fee of fifty cents each, procure from the commissioner, upon written request, a certified copy of its certificate of authority for each of its agents in this state.

Commissioner of insurance to examine into financial condition, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3096u. The insurance commissioner shall, at the end of each five years, or oftener if he deems it necessary, in person or by one or more examiners, commissioned in writing, visit each home company and examine its financial condition, and its ability to meet its liabilities. He shall have a free access to all the books and papers of the company or agents thereof, and shall have power to summon and examine under oath the officers, agents and employees of such company, and any other person within the state of Texas. He may revoke or modify any certificate of authority issued by him, when any conditions prescribed by law for granting it no longer exist. The expense of every such examination shall be paid by the company so examined, but the commissioner shall not make any charge for his personal services, except for traveling or other actual expenses.

Actions by and against home companies.
Ib.

Art. 3096v. Actions may be maintained by a home company against any of its policy holders, stockholders or other persons for any cause relating to the business of such company, and actions may also be prosecuted and maintained by any policy holder, or the heirs or legal representatives of such company against the company for losses which accrue on any risk, if payment is withheld for more than three months after the losses become due; but no action shall be brought or maintained by any person other than the insurance commissioner of this state for the enjoining, restraining or interfering with the prosecution of the business of the company.

Law not to apply to mutual benefit organizations, etc.

Art. 3096w. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect or in any way apply to mutual benefit organizations doing business in this state through lodges, councils or chapters, such as the Order of Chosen Friends, Knights of Honor, Progressive Endowment Guild, Knights of Maccabees, Knights of Pythias and kindred organizations, or to benevolent associations organized and chartered under title XXI. of the Revised Statutes, or which are organized under the laws of any other state, which have no capital stock, and whose relief funds are created and sustained by assessments upon the members of said organization in accordance with their several by-laws and regulations; provided, that the principal officer of every such benevolent association (not conducted by lodges, a quorum of whose members meet in their respective lodge rooms at least once each month) shall be required to make an annual statement under oath to the department of insurance on the first day of January of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, showing:

1. Name of organization and where located.
2. Name and residence of officers.
3. The salary paid each officer.
4. The gross amount of money received during the year, and from what sources.
5. The amount paid to policy holders on assessments to pay losses.
6. The amount paid out for all other purposes, stating in detail what purposes.
7. Surplus in the treasury, if any.
8. The amount of reserve fund, if any, and how invested.

And should any such benevolent organization refuse or neglect to make an annual report as above required, it shall be deemed an insurance company conducted for profit to its officers, and amenable to the laws governing such companies.

Art. 3096x. The laws relating to and governing corporations in general shall apply to and govern home companies in so far as the same are pertinent and not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter. Laws governing corporations in general applicable.

Art. 3096y. So much of chapters one, two and three of title LVIII. as relate to home life and accident insurance companies, and so much of laws and parts of laws that are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to repeal article 3050 (2932) of title LVIII. (LIII.) of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas; provided, further, that the net reserve value on the first three years' existence of any policy of insurance issued by a home company, as computed by said article 3050 (2932) of title LVIII. (LIII.), shall not be accounted a liability of the company. Laws repealed.

Commissioners' court to regulate irrigation.
P. D. 3945.

Article 3108. [2982] The commissioners' courts are authorized to order, regulate and control the time, mode and manner of erecting, repairing, cleaning, guarding and protecting the dams, ditches, roads and bridges, belonging to any irrigation farms and property, and the fences or other like protection in and around such farms; provided, that such farms, dams, ditches and fences be owned conjointly by two or more different persons; and further provided, that the same be situated outside of a corporation having jurisdiction thereof.

General powers over the subject.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 3946.

Art. 3109. [2983] Said courts shall have power to establish all needful police regulations for the government and control of irrigation farms and property, and said courts may assess and collect fines for breaches of any regulations established by them or by the joint owners of such farms and property, or recognized by said court as consistent with ancient usage and the law of the state; said courts may order meetings of joint owners for the election of commissioners and other officers, and for the consideration of any of their other interests, or the said court may proceed and elect said officers, and may regulate the right of way, the stoppage and passage of the water, and the right distribution of the shares of said water; they may forbid the running of stock at large on the common farm; they may fine for taking water out of turn and for carelessness and wantonness in overflowing roads and neighboring lands, and generally they may do or cause to be done what they may consider just and needful or beneficial to the joint owners.

May lease suerte of delinquent.
Ib. §3.
P. D. 3947.

Art. 3110. [2984] If any owner of a suerte or subdivision lot in said farm shall fail or refuse to do or pay his proportion of labor and expense in and on any dam, ditches, fences, bridges or other needful appurtenances to such irrigation farms, the commissioners' court may lease said suerte; provided, that such leasing shall be at public outcry, after ten or more days of due public notice, and to the persons bidding the shortest term, not to exceed four years, who shall give good security to discharge faithfully all such charge and work.

May license irrigation.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 3948.

Art. 3111. [2985] Upon the application of the owners of any suitable lands and water, and the assurance and the proper security given to the county, if required by said court, that no injury will result to the public health, the commissioners' courts are authorized by decree to license and permit any such owners to proceed and dam the water, and to ditch, fence and irrigate their lands; provided, that joint owners of all irrigation farms shall be liable for damages done to the public, or to any person, by reason of the overflow of such irrigation water; suit to be brought against the person occasioning the injury, or in such other way as may be sanctioned by said court.

Art. 3112. [2986] If, in the establishment of any new project of irrigation, or the extension thereof, the commissioners' court deem it of sufficient importance to order a dam or ditch to be made on the lands of any person refusing to consent thereto, the said court, after giving such person actual notice in writing, and full hearing and consideration of his objections, may decree the making of the same and shall depute two or more discreet and disinterested freeholders of the vicinage to arbitrate and fix the amount of damage permanently sustained by such person, which shall, by that or another such commission, be levied upon and paid forthwith by the applicants for such irrigation project in the ratio of the interest and several shares of the said applicants and joint owners; and the said courts may, after like personal notice to parties interested, order the multiplication or extension of any ditches for irrigation, and of irrigation farms at and below, or at the sides of such property; when it shall be the duty of such court to proceed and assess all just fines and equitable damages, and to fix and direct the rate and amount and kind of work, labor and tax to be paid by any of such applicants and others, according to their interest.

May exercise
right of eminent domain.
Ib. §5.
P. D. 3949.

Art. 3113. [2987] Where the health of the public may be injured by irrigation or the damming up of water for any purpose, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts, after due and mature hearing and consideration, to decree the discontinuance, and they shall proceed and break up and discontinue all such dams, ditches and irrigation, whether the same have been heretofore ever so long in existence or may be hereafter started.

And discontinue ditches etc.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 3950.

Art. 3114. [2988] In counties where the commissioners' courts may decree and adjudge that fences around irrigation farms may be dispensed with, they may make all fair, equal and proper regulations for the keeping up or herding of hogs, cattle and other stock, and for the security and protection of the crops and farms; provided, that if ten or more voters shall make written protest against such decree, then the said court shall proceed by notice and a public election and ascertain if two-thirds of the voters be in favor of dispensing with the use of fences, otherwise it shall not be so decreed.

And establish fence laws.
Ib. §7.

Unappropriated waters public property. (Acts 1895, p. 25.)

Article 3115. The unappropriated waters of the ordinary flow or underflow of every running or flowing river or natural stream, and the storm or rain waters of every river or natural stream, canyon, ravine, depression or water-shed within those portions of the state of Texas in which by reason of the insufficient rainfall or by reason of the irregularity of the rainfall, irrigation is beneficial for agricultural purposes, are hereby declared to be the property of the public, and may be acquired by appropriation for the uses and purposes and in the manner as hereinafter provided.

Purposes for which storm or rain waters be diverted. Ib.

Art. 3116. The storm or rain waters, as described in the preceding article, may be held or stored in dams, lakes or reservoirs built and constructed by a person, corporation or association of persons for irrigation, mining, milling, the construction of waterworks for cities and towns, or stockraising, within those portions of Texas described in the foregoing article, and all such waters may be diverted by the person, corporation or association of persons owning or controlling such dam, reservoir or lake for irrigation, mining, milling, the construction of waterworks for cities and towns, and stockraising.

Ordinary flow or underflow of running waters may be diverted, etc. Ib.

Art. 3117. The ordinary flow or underflow of the running water of every natural river or stream within those portions of Texas described in article 3115 may be diverted from its natural channel for irrigation, mining, milling, the construction of waterworks for cities and towns, or stockraising; provided, that such flow or underflow of water shall not be diverted to the prejudice of the rights of the riparian owner without his consent, except after condemnation thereof in the manner as hereinafter provided.

Purposes of appropriation. Ib.

Art. 3118. The appropriation of water must be either for irrigation, mining, milling, the construction of waterworks for cities and towns, or stockraising.

Priority of appropriation. Ib.

Art. 3119. As between appropriators the first in time is the first in right.

Statement of route of canal, etc., to be filed. Ib.

Art. 3120. Every person, corporation, or association of persons who have constructed or may hereafter construct any ditch, canal, reservoir, dam or lake for the purposes named in this chapter, and taking the water from any natural stream, storage reservoir, dam or lake, shall within ninety days after this chapter goes into effect, or within ninety days after commencement of such construction, file and cause to be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the headgate of such ditch or canal may be situated or to which said county may be attached for judicial purposes, in a well-bound book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose, a sworn statement in writing showing approximately the number of acres of land that will be irrigated, the name of such ditch or canal, the point at which the headgate thereof is situated, the size of the ditch or canal, in width and depth, and the carrying capacity thereof in cubic feet per second of time, the name of said stream from which said water is taken, the time when the work was commenced, the name of the owner or owners thereof, together with a map showing the route of such ditch or canal; and when the water is to be taken from a reservoir, dam or lake, the statement above provided for shall show in addition to the ditch and other things provided for, the locality of the proposed dam, reservoir, or lake, giving the names or numbers of the surveys upon which it is to be located, its holding capacity in cubic feet of water, the acreage and surface feet of land that will be covered, and the limits of such lake, reservoir or dam, and the area of the watershed from which the storm or rain water will be collected.

Art. 3121. By compliance with the provisions of the preceding articles the claimant's right to the use of the water relates back to the time when the work of excavation or construction was commenced on said ditch, canal, reservoir, dam or lake; provided, that a failure to file such statement shall in no wise work a forfeiture of such heretofore acquired rights, nor prevent such claimants of such heretofore acquired rights from establishing such rights in the courts.

Time from when claimant's right dates.
Ib.

Art. 3122. Any person, firm, association of persons or corporation may acquire the right to and appropriate for irrigation purposes the unappropriated waters of the ordinary flow or underflow of every running or flowing river or natural stream, and the storm or rain water of every river or natural stream, canyon, ravine, depression or watershed within those portions of the state referred to in article 3115, by filing a sworn statement in writing, to be recorded as provided in article 3120, declaring his or its intention of appropriating such water. Said statement shall also show approximately the number of acres of land proposed to be irrigated, the name of such ditch or canal, the point at which the headgate thereof will be situated, the size of the ditch or canal in width and depth, and the carrying capacity thereof in cubic feet per second of time, the name of the person, firm, association or corporation appropriating such water, the name of the stream, and shall attach to such statement a map showing approximately the proposed route of such ditch or canal; and when the water sought to be appropriated or acquired is storm or rain water, the statement above required shall also show or describe the locality of the proposed dam, reservoir, or lake by giving the names or numbers of the surveys upon which it is to be located, and approximately the following, that is to say, its holding capacity in cubic feet of water, the acreage of land that will be covered and the area of the watershed from which the storm or rain waters will be collected; provided, any person, association of persons or corporation who has heretofore had a survey made of the proposed route of his or its ditch shall have a preference right at any time within ninety days from the time this chapter shall take effect to file the statement hereinbefore required for the appropriation of water. Within ninety days next after filing of said statement the party or corporation claiming the right to appropriate the water shall begin actual construction of the proposed ditch, canal, dam, lake or reservoir, and shall prosecute the work thereon diligently and continuously to completion.

Who may appropriate; construction to begin.
Ib.

“Completion” defined.
Ib.

Art. 3123. “Completion” as used in the preceding section is hereby defined to be the conducting of the water in the main canal to the place of the intended use.

The appro-priator only to divert water.
Ib., p. 27.

Art. 3124. Whenever any person, corporation or association of persons shall become entitled to the use of any water of any river, stream, canyon or ravine, or the storm or rain water hereinbefore described, it shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or association of persons to appropriate or divert any such water in any way, except that the owner whose land abuts on a running stream may use such water therefrom as may be necessary for domestic purposes, and any one whose land may be located within the area of the watershed from which the storm or rain waters are collected may construct on his land such dams, reservoirs or lakes as may be necessary for the storage of water for domestic purposes for such owner of land; provided, that the excess of such water not used or contracted for use by such person, corporation or association of persons for irrigation, mining, milling, waterworks for cities or towns, or stockraising, may be appropriated by any person, corporation or association of persons in the manner hereinbefore provided for the appropriation of water.

Corporations may be formed to operate under this chapter.
Ib.

Art. 3125. Corporations may be formed and chartered under the provisions of this chapter and of the general corporation laws of the state of Texas, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, laterals, reservoirs, dams, lakes and wells, and of conducting and transferring water to all persons entitled to the same for irrigation, mining, milling, to cities and towns for waterworks, and for stockraising, and for the purpose of building storage reservoirs for the collection and storage of water for the purposes before mentioned. All such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts for the sale of permanent water rights, and to have the same secured by liens on the land or otherwise, and to lease, rent or otherwise dispose of the water controlled by such corporation for such time as may be agreed upon, and in addition to the lien on the crops hereinafter provided for, the lease or rental contract may be secured by a lien on the land or otherwise. All persons who own or hold a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any canal, ditch, flume or lateral constructed and maintained under the provisions of this chapter, and who shall have secured a right to the use of water in said canal, ditch, flume, lateral, reservoir, dam or lake, shall be entitled to be supplied from such canal, ditch, flume, lateral, dam or lake with water for irrigation of such land, and for mining, milling and stockraising in accordance with the terms of his or their contract; provided, that if the person, association or corporation owning or controlling such water, and the person who owns or holds a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any canal, ditch, flume or lateral constructed and maintained under the provisions of this chapter fail to agree upon a price for a permanent water right, or for the use or rental of the necessary water to irrigate the land of such person and for mining, milling and stockraising, such person, firm, association or corporation shall, nevertheless, if such person, firm, association or corporation has or controls any water not contracted to others, furnish the necessary water to such person to irrigate his lands, and for mining, milling and stockraising, at such prices as may be reasonable and just; provided, further, that in case of shortage of water from drought, accident or other cause, the water to be distributed shall be divided among all consumers pro rata, according to the amount he or they may be entitled to, to the end that all shall suffer alike, and preference be given to none. The sale of the permanent water right shall be an easement to the land and pass with the title thereof, and the owner thereof shall be entitled to the use of the water upon the terms provided in his or their contract with such person or corporation, or in case no contract is entered into, then at just and reasonable prices. Any instrument of writing providing a permanent water right shall be admitted to record in the same manner as other instruments relating to the conveyance of land.

Art. 3126. All corporations and associations formed for the purpose of irrigation, mining, milling, the construction of waterworks for cities and towns, and stockraising, as provided in this chapter, are hereby granted the right of way, not to exceed one hundred feet in width, over all public, public free school, university and asylum lands of the state, with the use of the rock, gravel and timber on the right of way for construction purposes, and may obtain the right of way over private lands by contract. Any such corporation or association of persons, or any city or town, may also obtain the right of way over private lands, and also the land for dam sites and storage reservoirs and the water belonging to the riparian owner by condemnation, by causing the damages for any private property appropriated by any such persons, corporations or associations to be assessed and paid for as provided in cases of railroads, and the delay necessary to condemn and acquire the property needed for the ditch, dam site, reservoir and sewers for water supply and drainage or water of the riparian owner shall not work to the prejudice of the person, corporation or association of persons constructing such ditch, canal, lake, reservoir or dam, and shall not be taken into account in estimating the time for the completion of such work.

over public lands.
Ib., p. 21.

Art. 3127. All surplus water of a running stream not used or disposed of as provided in the preceding articles shall be conducted back to the stream from which it was taken through a ditch or canal constructed under the provisions of this chapter, or through a natural channel leading back to the stream.

Surplus water to be returned.
Ib.

Art. 3128. All said persons, corporations and associations shall have the right to run along or across all roads and highways necessary in the construction of their work, and shall at all such crossings construct and maintain necessary bridges for the accommodation of the public, and shall not impair the usefulness of such road or highway; provided, that if any public road or highway or public bridges should be upon the ground necessary for the dam site, reservoir or lake, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to change said road and to remove such bridges that the same may not interfere with the construction of the proposed dam, reservoir or lake; provided, further, that the expense of making such change shall be paid by the person, firm or corporation owning such dam site, lake, reservoir or canal.

corporations may acquire lands.
Ib., p. 27.

Art. 3131. Any corporation organized under the provisions of the general laws of this state or the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of irrigation, shall have the power to acquire lands by voluntary donation or purchase or in payment of stock or water rights, and to hold and dispose of all such land and other property, and to borrow money for the construction, maintenance and operation of its canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes and wells, and may issue bonds and mortgage its corporate and other property and franchises to secure the payment of any debts contracted for same; provided, no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void; and provided, further, all lands acquired by said corporation, except such as are used for the construction, maintenance and operation of said canals, ditches, laterals, feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes and wells, shall be alienated within fifteen years from the date of acquiring said lands, or be subject to judicial forfeiture.

Article 3132. [3002] The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall provide safe and suitable jails for their respective counties, and shall cause the same to be kept in good repair.

Art. 3133. [3003] Each sheriff is the keeper of the jail of his county, and he shall safely keep therein all prisoners committed thereto by lawful authority, subject to the order of the proper court, and shall be responsible for the safe keeping of such prisoners.

Art. 3134. [3004] All jails hereafter erected shall be so constructed that the penalty of death may be conveniently executed within the walls thereof, and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of any county having a jail already erected, if the same is not so constructed as that the penalty of death can be conveniently executed therein, to have the construction of the same so altered as that the penalty of death may be conveniently executed within its walls, if practicable to do so without too great an expense to the county.

Art. 3135. [3005] It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts of the counties to see that the jails of their respective counties are kept in a clean and healthy condition, properly ventilated, and not over-crowded with prisoners, and that they are furnished with clean and comfortable mattresses and blankets sufficient for the comfort of the prisoners therein confined.

Art. 3136. [3006] Sheriffs and jailers shall receive into the jails of their respective counties such prisoners as may be delivered or tendered to them by any United States marshal or his deputy for any district of Texas, and shall safely keep such prisoners until they are demanded by such marshal or his deputy, or are discharged by due course of law.

Art. 3137. [3007] In the cases provided for in the preceding article the marshal, by whose authority such prisoners are received and kept, shall be directly and personally liable to the sheriff or jailer for the jail fees and all other expenses of the keeping of such prisoners, such fees and expenses to be estimated according to the laws regulating the same in other cases.

Commissioners' court shall provide jails, etc. (Act July 22, 1876, p. 57, §4.)

Who are competent jurors. Article 3138. [3009] All male persons over twenty-one years of age are competent jurors unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter.

Who are disqualified, in general. Art. 3139. [3010] No person shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

(Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 78, §§1, 2, 26.)
(Const., art. 16, §13.)

1. He must be a citizen of the state and of the county in which he is to serve, and qualified under the constitution and laws to vote in said county.
2. He must be a freeholder within the state or a householder within the county.
3. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.
4. He must be able to read and write, except in cases provided for in the succeeding article.
5. He must not have served as a juror for six days during the preceding six months in the district court, or during the preceding three months in the county court.
6. He must not have been convicted of felony.
7. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft, or of any felony.

Exception in certain cases. Art. 3140. [3011] Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write can not be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision of the preceding article; and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fifth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient.

Jurors disqualified to try a particular case. Art. 3141. [3012] The following persons shall be disqualified to serve as jurors in any particular case:

(Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 83, §26.)

1. Any witness in the case.
2. Any person interested directly or indirectly in the subject matter of the suit.
3. Any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either of the parties to the suit.
4. Any person who has a bias or prejudice in favor of or against either of the parties.
5. Any person who has sat as a petit juror in a former trial of the same case, or of another case involving the same questions of fact.

Art. 3142. [3013] All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:

Who are liable to jury service. Who are exempt from jury service. Ib. p. 78, §25.

1. All persons over sixty years of age.
2. All civil officers of this state and of the United States.
3. All overseers of roads.
4. All ministers of the gospel engaged in the active discharge of their ministerial duties.
5. All physicians and attorneys engaged in actual practice.
6. All publishers of newspapers, school masters, druggists, undertakers, telegraph operators, railroad station agents, ferrymen, and all millers engaged in grist, flouring and saw mills.
7. All presidents, vice-presidents, conductors and engineers of railroad companies when engaged in the regular and actual discharge of the duties of their respective positions.
8. Any person who has acted as jury commissioner within the preceding twelve months.
9. All members of the volunteer guards of this state under the provisions of the title "Militia."
10. In cities and towns having a population of fifteen hundred or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census, the active members of organized fire companies, not to exceed twenty to each one thousand of such inhabitants.

Art. 3143. [3015] If there be more than one organized fire company in such town or city, the whole number of exemptions provided for under subdivision 10 of the preceding article shall be equally divided between such companies.

Where several fire companies in one town, etc. Ib. §2.

Art. 3144. [3016] Before such exemption of any member of such fire company shall be made available, the members so to be exempted shall be selected by their respective companies, and their names shall be handed in to the clerks of the district and county courts, respectively, by the chief of the fire department of such city or town, or in case there be no such officer, then by the foreman of the company.

Article 3145. [3017] The district court of each county shall, at each term thereof, appoint three persons to perform the duties of jury commissioners for said court, who shall possess the following qualifications:

Jury commissioners, appointment and qualifications. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 79, §4.)

1. They shall be intelligent citizens of the county and able to read and write.
2. They shall be qualified jurors and freeholders of the county.
3. They shall be residents of different portions of the county.
4. They shall have no suit in such court which requires the intervention of a jury.

Shall serve but once in a year.
Ib. §5.

Art. 3146. [3018] The same person shall not act as jury commissioner more than once in the same year.

Commissioners to be notified of their appointment, etc.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3147. [3019] The court shall cause the persons appointed as jury commissioners to be notified by the sheriff or any constable of such appointment, and of the time and place when and where they are to appear before the court.

Failing to attend, shall be fined.
Ib. §5.

Art. 3148. [3020] If any person appointed a jury commissioner shall fail or refuse to attend and perform the duties required without a reasonable excuse, he shall be fined by the court in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Oath of jury commissioners.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3149. [3021] When the persons appointed appear before the court, the judge shall administer to them the following oath: "You do swear faithfully to discharge the duties required of you as jury commissioners; that you will not knowingly elect any man as a juryman whom you believe to be unfit and not qualified; that you will not make known to any one the name of any juryman selected by you and reported to the court; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse with any one selected by you as a juryman concerning the merits of any case to be tried at the next term of this court until after said cause may be tried or continued, or the jury discharged."

Failure of commissioners, etc.
Ib. §13.

Art. 3150. [3022] If from any cause the jury commissioners should not be appointed at the time prescribed, or should fail to select jurors as required, or should the panels selected be set aside, or the jury lists returned into court be lost or destroyed, the court shall forthwith proceed to supply a sufficient number of jurors for the term under the provisions of this title, and may, when it may be deemed necessary, appoint commissioners for that purpose.

To be instructed as to their duties.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3151. [3023] When the jury commissioners shall have been sworn and organized, the judge shall proceed to instruct them as to their duties, and shall designate to them for what weeks they shall select petit jurors, and the number of jurors to be selected for each week.

To be kept free from intrusion and not to separate.
Ib.

Art. 3152. [3024] The jury commissioners shall retire in charge of the sheriff or constable to some suitable apartment, and shall be kept free from the intrusion of any person during their session, and shall not separate, without leave of the court, until they have completed the duties required of them.

Clerk to furnish stationery and list of exempt persons, etc.
Ib. §§4, 6.
(Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 170, §6.)
(Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 3153. [3025] It shall be the duty of the clerk to furnish the jury commissioners with all necessary stationery, and also with a list of the names of all persons appearing from the records of the court to be exempt or disqualified from serving on the petit jury at each term. He shall also deliver to them the envelope mentioned in article 3171, and shall take their receipt therefor, showing whether or not such seal remained unbroken.

To have use of assessment roll.
(Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 79, §6.)

Art. 3154. [3026] It shall be the duty of the county clerk, or other legal custodian of the same, to furnish the jury commissioners with the last assessment roll of the county.

APPOINTMENT, ETC.

	Article	Article
Jury commissioners, appointment and qualification, powers and duties.....	3155	Oath3156 To select jurors for six months.....3157

Article 3155. [3027] The county court shall at its first term after the thirty-first day of December and the thirtieth day of June of each year appoint three persons to perform the duties of jury commissioners for said court, who shall possess the same qualifications as jury commissioners for the district court, and the same proceedings shall be had in the county court by the officers thereof and by the commissioners for procuring jurors as are required by this title for similar proceedings in the district court except as modified by the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 3156. [3028] The oath to be administered to the jury commissioners for the county courts shall be as follows: "You do solemnly swear faithfully to discharge the duties required of you as jury commissioners; that you will not knowingly elect any man as a jurymen whom you believe to be unfit and not qualified; that you will not make known to any one the name of any jurymen selected by you and reported to the court; that you will not directly or indirectly communicate with any one selected by you as a jurymen concerning the merits of any case to be tried by this court within the next six months, until said case shall have been tried or otherwise disposed of."

Art. 3157. [3029] Such commissioners shall select jurors for all the terms of the county court to be holden within six months next after the adjournment of the first term of said court after the said thirty-first day of December and the thirtieth day of June of each year, and the county judge shall designate the number of jurors to be so selected for each term and week.

character, of sound judgment, well-informed, and, so far as practicable, able to read and write, to serve as petit jurors at the next term, if in the district court, and for the next six months, if in the county court, and shall write the names of such persons on separate pieces of paper, as near the same size and appearance as may be, and fold the same so that the names can not be seen.

Drawing of jurors, how conducted.
Ib.

Art. 3159. [3031] The names of the persons so written and folded shall be deposited in a box, and after being well shaken and mixed, the commissioners shall draw therefrom the names, one by one, of thirty-six persons, or a greater or less number where the judge has so directed, for each week of the term of the district court or terms of the county court for which a jury may be required, and shall record such names as they are drawn upon as many separate sheets of paper as there are weeks of such term or terms for which juries will be required.

Lists to be certified, sealed up and indorsed.
Ib.

Art. 3160. [3032] The several lists of names drawn, as provided in the preceding article, shall be certified under the hands of the commissioners to be the lists drawn by them for the said several weeks, and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes, indorsed "List of petit jurors for the _____ week of the _____ term of the _____ court of _____ county." [Filling the blanks.]

To be delivered to the judge.
Ib.

Art. 3161. [3033] The commissioners shall write their names across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge.

And by him to the clerk.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3162. [3034] The judge shall deliver such envelopes to the clerk or to one of his deputies, in open court, and the court may instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week.

Clerk and deputies to be sworn.
Ib. §§8, 28.

Art. 3163. [3035] The judge shall at the same time administer to the clerk and each of his deputies an oath, in substance as follows: "You do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened until the time prescribed by law; that you will not directly nor indirectly converse or communicate with any one selected as a juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term," if in the district court; or if in the county court "within the next six months."

Same.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3164. [3036] If for any reason such oath should not be administered to any of the deputies, or should the clerk subsequently appoint a deputy, the clerk shall administer to such deputy a like oath.

District court commissioners to make out jury lists for county court.

Art. 3165. [3037] The jury commissioners for the district court shall, in addition to the other duties required of them, make out for the use of the jury commissioners of the county court a complete list of the names of all the persons selected by them as grand and petit jurors, and shall place said list in an envelope and seal the same and write their names across the seal; and shall address said envelope to the jury commissioners of the county court of the proper county, and shall deliver the same to the district judge in open court.

Which shall be delivered to the county clerk.
Ib. §2.

Art. 3166. [3038] The district judge shall, without delay, deliver said envelope to the county clerk, or one of his deputies, and at the time of delivery administer to said clerk or deputy, as the case may be, the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your ability, safely keep this envelope, and that you will neither open the same nor allow it to be opened, except as provided by law; and that you will cause it to be delivered to the jury commissioners of the county court next hereafter appointed in and for this county.”

Art. 3167. [3039] At the first term of the county court thereafter held, at which jury commissioners are appointed, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to deliver said envelope to the jury commissioners, or one of them appointed at said term, and take a receipt therefor; and said receipt shall state whether the seal of said envelope be broken or not.

And by him to the commissioners for his court.
Ib. §3.

Art. 3168. [3040] After the jury commissioners, appointed by said county court, shall have assembled for business, they shall open said envelope and read said list of names, and no person named on said list shall be selected as a juror by said commissioners.

Persons included in such lists not to be selected as jurors in county court.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3169. [3041] The jury commissioners of the county court shall, in addition to the other duties required of them, make out for the use of the jury commissioners of the district court a complete list of the names of all persons selected by them as jurors, and shall place said list in an envelope and seal the same, and write their names across the seal, and address said envelope to the jury commissioners of the district court of the proper county, and shall deliver the same to the county judge in open court.

County court commissioners to make out lists for district court.
(Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 170, §5.)

Art. 3170. [3042] The county judge shall, without delay, deliver said envelope to the district clerk, or one of his deputies, and at the time of delivery administer to said clerk, or his deputy, as the case may be, the following oath: “You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your ability, safely keep this envelope, and that you will neither open the same nor allow it to be opened, except as provided by law, and that you will cause it to be delivered to the jury commissioners of the district court next hereafter appointed in and for this county.”

To be delivered to the district clerk.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3171. [3043] At the first term of the district court thereafter held, it shall be the duty of the clerk to deliver said envelope to the jury commissioners, or one of them appointed at said term, and to take a receipt therefor, and said receipt shall state whether the seal of said envelope be broken or not.

And by him to the commissioners for his court.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3172. [3044] After the jury commissioners appointed at said term of the district court shall have assembled for business, they shall open said envelope and read said list of names, and no person named on said list shall be selected as juror by said commissioners.

Persons included in such lists not to be selected as jurors in district court.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3173. [3045] It shall be the duty of the jury commissioners, in both the district and county courts, before leaving the apartment in which they shall have selected jurors, to destroy said list of names, and it shall be unlawful for them, or any of them, to make known to any person the name of any juror on said lists.

Lists of jurors to be destroyed.

Clerk to make out jury lists and deliver to sheriff. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 171, §10.) Article 3174. [3046] Within not more than thirty days and not less than ten days prior to each term of the court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district and county courts, respectively, to open the list of jurors selected for such term, and to make out a copy of the same, duly certified under his hand and the seal of his office, and deliver the same to the sheriff. Where the judge has directed that the jurors for any week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday, the clerk shall note such order for the information of the sheriff.

Sheriff to notify jurors. Ib. Art. 3175. [3047] On the receipt of such lists it shall be the duty of the sheriff immediately to notify the several persons named in such lists to be in attendance on the court on the day and week for which they were respectively drawn to serve as jurors for said week.

Notice to jurors, how served. Ib. Art. 3176. [3048] Such notice may be orally delivered by the sheriff to the juror in person, or in case such juror can not be found, then a written memorandum thereof, signed by the sheriff officially, may be left at the juror's place of residence, with some member of his family over sixteen years of age.

Time of service. Art. 3177. [3049] Such notice shall be served at least three days prior to the first day of the term of the court, exclusive of the day of service.

Sheriff's return. Ib. Art. 3178. [3050] The sheriff executing such summons shall return the lists on the first day of the term of the court at which such jurors are to serve, with a certificate thereon of the date and manner of service upon each juror; and if any of said jurors have not been summoned he shall also state the diligence used to summon them, and the reason why they have not been summoned.

Jurors for the week, how selected. Ib. Article 3179. [3051] On Monday of each week of the court for which a jury shall be summoned, and for which there may be jury trials, or where the jury trials for the week have been set for some other day, then on such day the court shall select thirty qualified jurors, or a greater or less number, in its discretion, to serve as jurors for the week.

Art. 3180. [3052] Should such selection from any cause not be made on the day appointed, it may be made on any subsequent day.

If not selected on day appointed, may be subsequently done.

Art. 3181. [3053] Such jurors shall be selected from the names included in the jury list for the week, if there be the requisite number of such in attendance who are not excused by the court.

If practicable, to be of jurors selected by jury commissioners.

Art. 3182. [3054] If the requisite number of such jurors be not in attendance at any time, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of qualified persons to make up the requisite number of jurors.

May be filled up, how. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 80, §11.)

Art. 3183. [3055] The court may adjourn the whole number of jurors for the week, or any part thereof, to any subsequent day of the term, but jurors shall not be paid for the time they may so stand adjourned.

May be adjourned. Ib. p. 83, §24.

Art. 3184. [3056] Whenever it may be necessary to summon jurors who have not been selected by jury commissioners under the provisions of this title, the court shall administer to the sheriff and each of his deputies the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your skill and ability, and without bias or favor toward any party, summon such jurors as may be ordered by the court; that you will select none but impartial, sensible and sober men, having the qualifications of jurors under the law; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any juryman touching any case pending for trial; and that you will not by any means attempt to influence, advise or control any juryman in his opinion in any case which may be tried by him, so help you God."

Oath to be administered to the sheriff when jurors not selected are to be summoned by him. Ib. §12.

Art. 3185. [3057] The court may hear any reasonable excuse of a juror, supported by oath or affirmation, and may either release him entirely or until some other day of the term.

Court may hear excuses of jurors.

Art. 3186. [3058] Should any juror who has been lawfully notified fail to be in attendance on the court in obedience to such notice without some reasonable excuse, to be judged of by the court, he shall be fined in any sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Defaulting juror to be fined. Ib. §10.

- Call of docket for demands for jury trial. Art. 3192. [3064] On the first day of each term of the court the court shall call over the docket, except appearance cases, and shall note thereon in each case whether or not a jury trial is applied for therein, and by which party.
- Same as to appearance docket. Art. 3193. [3065] On the call of the appearance docket at each term of the court, the court shall in like manner note in each appearance case whether or not a jury trial is applied for, and by whom.
- Jury fee. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 171, §11.) Art. 3194. [3066] The party applying for a jury trial in the district or county court shall on the same day deposit with the clerk, to the use of the county, a jury fee of five dollars if in the district court, and of three dollars if in the county court.
- Oath of inability to make jury fee deposit. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 81, §18.) Art. 3195. [3067] The deposit mentioned in the preceding article shall not be required when the party shall, within the time limited for making such deposit, file with the clerk an affidavit in writing signed by him, to the effect that he is unable to make such deposit, and that he can not, by the pledge of property or otherwise, obtain the money necessary for that purpose.
- Cases heretofore entered on jury trial docket excepted. Art. 3196. [3068] The preceding article shall not apply to cases which have been heretofore properly entered on the jury trial docket in accordance with former laws.
- Order of court. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 171, §11.) Art. 3197. [3069] Upon a compliance with the foregoing provisions the court shall order the clerk to enter the suit on the jury docket.
- Clerk to keep jury docket. Ib. Art. 3198. [3070] It shall be the duty of the clerks of the district and county courts each to keep a docket, to be styled "The Jury Docket," in which shall be entered in their order the cases in which jury trials have been ordered by the court.
- Jury trial day to be fixed. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 81, §14.) Art. 3199. [3071] The court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate any day during the term for the taking up of the jury docket and the trial of causes thereon; and such order may be revoked or changed at discretion.
- Application for jury not to be withdrawn, unless, etc. Art. 3200. [3072] When one party has applied for a jury trial, as herein provided, he shall not be permitted to withdraw such application without the consent of the parties adversely interested.
- When application withdrawn, court may permit jury fee to be withdrawn also. Art. 3201. [3073] When a party who has applied for a jury trial has been permitted under the preceding article to withdraw such application, the court may, in its discretion, by an order permit him to withdraw also his jury fee deposit.

Art. 3203. [3075] No challenge to the array shall be entertained where the jurors have been selected by jury commissioners under the provisions of this title.

Not allowed, when.

Art. 3204. [3076] All challenges to the array must be in writing, setting forth distinctly the grounds of such challenge, and must be supported by the affidavit of the party or some other credible person.

Challenge to array must be in writing, etc.

Art. 3205. [3077] When a challenge to the array is made, the court shall hear evidence, and shall decide without delay whether the challenge shall be sustained or not.

Court shall decide at once.

Art. 3206. [3078] If the challenge be sustained, the array of jurors summoned shall be discharged, and the court shall order other jurors to be summoned in their stead, and shall direct that the officer who summoned the persons so discharged, and on account of whose misconduct the challenge has been sustained, shall not summon any other jurors in the case.

Proceedings when challenge to the array is sustained.
Ib.

Art. 3207. [3079] A challenge to an individual juror is either—
1. A challenge for cause; or
2. A peremptory challenge.

Challenge to a particular juror.

Art. 3208. [3080] A challenge for cause is an objection made to a particular juror, alleging some fact which, under the provisions of the first chapter of this title, disqualifies him to serve as a juror in any case, or in the particular case, or which, in the opinion of the court, renders him an unfit person to sit on the jury.

Challenge for cause.

Art. 3209. [3081] Upon a challenge for cause the examination shall not be confined to the answers of the juror, but other evidence may be heard in support of or against the challenge.

On trial of challenge for cause, evidence to be heard.

Art. 3210. [3082] In examining a juror, he shall not be asked a question the answer to which may show that he has been convicted of an offense which disqualifies him, or that he stands charged by indictment or other legal accusation with theft or any felony.

Juror not to be asked certain questions.

Art. 3211. [3083] A peremptory challenge is made to a juror without assigning any reason therefor.

Peremptory challenge.

Art. 3212. [3084] Each party to civil suit in the district court shall be entitled to six peremptory challenges.

Number of peremptory challenges in district court. (Act Dec. 1, 1871, p. 61, §6.)

In the county court. (Act Aug. 1, 1878, p. 83, §27.) Art. 3213. [3085] Each party to civil suit in the county court shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges.

Challenge to a particular juror made orally, etc. Art. 3214. [3086] Challenges for cause and peremptory challenges to a particular juror may be made orally on the formation of a jury to try the case, as provided in articles 3220 and 3222.

Court to decide challenges promptly. Art. 3215. [3087] The court shall decide without delay any challenge to a particular juror; and when the challenge is sustained the juror shall be discharged from further attendance or from the particular case, as the case may be.

Clerks to provide a box for use in drawing jurors. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 82, §21.) Article 3216. [3088] The clerks of the district and county courts shall each provide and keep a box with a sliding lid, suitable for the purposes indicated in this chapter.

Shall place names of jurors in the box. Ib. Art. 3217. [3089] When the parties to a civil cause, which is to be tried by a jury, have announced themselves ready for trial and no challenge to the array is made, the clerk shall write the names of all the regular panel for the week on separate slips of paper, as near the same size and appearance as may be, and shall place such slips in the box provided for in the preceding article, and shall mix them well.

Shall draw and record names. Ib. §22. Art. 3218. [3090] The clerk shall draw from the box, in the presence of the court, the names, one by one, of twenty-four jurors, if in the district court, or so many as there may be, if there be a less number in the box; and the names of twelve jurors, if in the county court, or so many as there may be, if there be a less number in the box; and shall write the names as they are drawn upon several slips of paper and deliver one slip to each of the parties to the suit or their attorneys.

Where names of full jury not found in the box. Art. 3219. [3091] Where there are not so many names drawn from the box as twelve, if in the district court, or six, if in the county court, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon such number of qualified persons as it may deem necessary to complete the panel, and the names of the persons so summoned shall be placed in the box and drawn and entered upon slips as provided in the preceding article.

Challenge for cause to be made, when. Art. 3220. [3092] When as many as twelve or more jurors, if in the district court, or six or more, if in the county court, are drawn, and the slips containing their names are delivered to the parties, if either party desire to challenge any juror for cause, such challenge shall now be made.

When number reduced, etc., by challenge for cause. Art. 3221. [3093] If the number of jurors be reduced by challenge for cause to less than twelve in the district court, or six in the county court, the court shall order other jurors to be drawn or summoned, as the case may be, and entered upon the slips in place of those who have been set aside for cause.

Art. 3222. [3094] When a juror has been challenged and set aside for cause his name shall be erased from the slips furnished the parties, and if there be remaining on such slips not subject to challenge for cause, twelve names if in the district court, or six names if in the county court, the parties shall proceed to make their peremptory challenges if they desire to make any.

Peremptory challenge to be made, when.
Ib.

Art. 3223. [3095] When the parties have made their peremptory challenges, or when they decline to make any, they shall deliver their slips to the clerk, and the clerk shall, if the case be in the district court, call off the first twelve names on the slips that have not been erased, and if the case be in the county court, the clerk shall call off the first six names on the slips that have not been erased, who shall constitute the jury to try the case.

Lists to be returned to the clerk and jury to be called.

Art. 3224. [3096] When, by peremptory challenges, the jury is left incomplete, the court shall direct such number of other jurors to be drawn or summoned, as the case may be, as the court may consider sufficient to complete the jury, and the same proceedings shall be had in selecting and impaneling such jurors as are had in the first instance.

Art. 3225. [3097] When the jury has been selected, such of them as have not been previously sworn for the trial of civil causes, shall be sworn by the court, or under its direction.

Article 3235. [3107] All persons leasing or renting lands or tenements, at will or for a term, shall have a preference lien upon the property of the tenant hereinafter indicated, upon such premises, for any rent that may become due and for all money and the value of all animals, tools, provisions and supplies furnished by the landlord to the tenant to enable the tenant to make a crop on such premises, and to gather, secure, house and put the same in condition for market, the money, animals, tools, provisions and supplies so furnished being necessary for that purpose, whether the same is to be paid in money, agricultural products, or other property; and this lien shall apply only to animals, tools and other property furnished by the landlord to the tenant, and to the crop raised on such rented premises.

Landlords shall have preference lien.
P. D. 7418c.

Art. 3236. [3108] It shall not be lawful for the tenant, while the rent and such advances remain unpaid, to remove or permit to be removed from the premises so leased or rented any of the agricultural products produced thereon, or any of the animals, tools or property furnished as aforesaid, without the consent of the landlord.

Tenant not to remove property subject.
Ib.

Art. 3237. [3109] Such preference lien shall continue as to such agricultural products and as to the animals, tools and other property furnished to the tenant as aforesaid, so long as they remain on such rented or leased premises and for one month thereafter; and such lien, as to agricultural products and as to animals and tools furnished as aforesaid, shall be superior to all laws exempting such property from forced sales.

When lien expires.
Ib.

Art. 3238. [3110] Such lien shall not attach to the goods, wares and merchandise of a merchant, trader or mechanic, sold and delivered in good faith in the regular course of business to the tenant.

Does not apply to, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3239. [3111] The removal of the agricultural products with the consent of the landlord for the purpose of being prepared for market shall not be considered a waiver of such lien, but such lien shall continue and attach to the products so removed the same as if they had remained on such rented or leased premises.

Removal not a waiver, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3240. [3112] When any rent or advances shall become due, or the tenant shall be about to remove from such leased or rented premises, or to remove his property from such premises, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rents or advances are payable, his agent, attorney, assigns, heirs or legal representatives, to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the premises are situated, or in which the property upon which a lien for rents or advances exists, may be found, or to any justice having jurisdiction of the cause of action, for a warrant to seize the property of such tenant; provided, that when a distress warrant shall be issued by any justice, other than the justice of the peace of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside, such warrant shall be made returnable to, and the affidavit and bond upon which it is issued shall be transmitted by, the justice issuing such distress warrant to some justice of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside.

(Acts of 1881,
p. 98.)

Oath and bond.
Ib.

Art. 3241. [3113] The plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make oath that the amount sued for is for rent or advances, such as are mentioned in the first article of this title, or shall produce a writing signed by such tenant to that effect, and shall further swear that such warrant is not sued out for the purpose of vexing and harassing the defendant; and the person applying for such warrant shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace, payable to the defendant, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages as he may sustain in case such warrant has been illegally and unjustly sued out, which bond shall be filed among the papers of the cause, and in case the suit shall be finally decided in favor of the defendant he may bring suit against the plaintiff and his sureties on such bond, and shall recover such damages as may be awarded to him by the proper tribunal.

Distress warrant, issued by whom.

Art. 3242. [3114] Upon the filing of such oath and bond it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to seize the property of the defendant, or so much thereof as will satisfy the demand, which warrant shall be, if the same is within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, returnable to said justice; but if the amount in controversy exceeds two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to the county court. If the amount in controversy exceeds five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to either the county or district court of the county, as the plaintiff in such writ may direct. If the amount in controversy shall exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to the district court of the county. When the writ is made returnable to the district or county court, the justice of the peace shall transmit all the papers in said cause to the court to which such writ is made returnable, on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Duty of officer.

Art. 3243. [3115] It shall be the duty of the officer to whom such warrant is directed to seize the property of such tenant, or so much thereof as shall be of value sufficient to satisfy such debt and costs, and the same in his possession safely keep, unless the same is replevied as herein provided, and make due return thereof to the court to which said warrant is returnable, at the next term thereof.

Defendant
may replevy.

Art. 3244. [3116] The defendant shall have the right at any time within ten days from the date of said levy to replevy the property so seized, by giving bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties in double the amount of the debt, or, at his election, for the value of the property so seized; conditioned that if the defendant be cast in the action he shall satisfy the judgment that may be rendered against him or pay the estimated value of the property, with lawful interest thereon from the date of the bond.

Art. 3245. [3117] When the property levied on has been replevied as provided in the preceding article, and final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant, such judgment shall be also against him and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such bond.

Judgment
ties.

Art. 3246. [3118] If the property is of a perishable or wasting kind, and the defendant fails to replevy as herein provided, the officer making the levy, or the plaintiff or the defendant, may apply to the court or judge thereof to which the warrant is returnable, either in term time or vacation, for an order to sell such property; and if any person other than the defendant apply for such order of sale, the court shall not grant such order unless the person applying shall file with such court an obligation, payable to the defendant, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court, that they will be responsible to the defendant for such damages as he may sustain in case such sale be illegally and unjustly applied for, or be illegally and unjustly made, which sale shall be conducted as sales under execution.

Perishable
property sold.
(Act to adopt and establish
R. C. S.,
21, 1879.)

Art. 3247. [3119] It shall be the duty of the justice of the peace at the time he issues the warrant to issue a citation to the defendant requiring him to answer before such justice, if he has jurisdiction to finally try the cause, and upon its being returned served to proceed to judgment as in ordinary cases; and if he has not such jurisdiction the citation shall require the defendant to answer before the court to which the warrant was made returnable, and shall be returned with the other papers to such court; provided, that if the defendant has removed from the county without service, the proper officer shall state this fact in his return on the citation; and the court shall proceed to try the case ex parte, and may enter the proper judgment.

Citation for defendant.
P. D. 74182.

Art. 3248. [3120] When the warrant is made returnable to the district or county court, the plaintiff shall not be obliged to file his petition before suing out said warrant, but may file the same on or before the appearance day of the term of the court to which said papers are returnable.

Petition.
Ib.

Art. 3249. [3121] Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to prevent landlords and tenants from entering into such stipulations or contracts in regard to rents and advances as they may think proper; and should the landlord, without any default on the part of the tenant or lessee, fail to comply in any respect with his part of the contract, he shall be responsible to said tenant or lessee for whatever damages may be sustained thereby; and to secure such damages to such tenant or lessee, he shall have a lien on all the property in his possession not exempt from forced sale, as well as upon all rents due to said landlord under said contract.

Rights of tenant.
(Act Aug. 14,
1876, p. 137.)

Art. 3250. [3122] If lands or tenements are rented by the landlord to any person or persons, such person or persons renting said lands or tenements shall not rent or lease said lands or tenements during the term of said lease to any other person without first obtaining the consent of the landlord, his agent or attorney.

Tenants shall not sub-let without consent, etc.
Ib.

Owners of buildings to have preference lien, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 11.)

Art. 3251. All persons leasing or renting any residence, storehouse or other building, shall have a preference lien upon all the property of the tenant in such residence, storehouse or other building, for the payment of the rents due and that may become due; provided, the lien for rents to become due shall not continue or be enforced for a longer period than the current contract year, it being intended by the term "current contract year" to embrace a period of twelve months, reckoning from the beginning of the lease or rental contract, whether the same be in the first or any other year of such lease or rental contract. Such lien shall continue and be in force so long as the tenant shall occupy the rented premises, and for one month thereafter; but this article shall not be construed as in any manner repealing or affecting any act exempting property from forced sale.

Distress warrant, how obtained. (Acts of 1879, ch. 119, p. 128.)

Art. 3252. When any rent shall become due, or the tenant about to remove from such leased or rented buildings, or remove his property therefrom, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rent is payable, his agent, attorney or assignee to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the building is situated for a distress warrant which shall be issued on an affidavit and bond, and the same proceedings shall be had on the issuance, trial and return of such warrant as is now provided by law in this chapter; the object of this and the preceding article being to extend the operation of such law so as to include and protect liens on residences and storehouses and other buildings occupied or used by tenants, and conferring on the owners thereof the same rights and privileges as are now conferred by law on other landlords.

Clerk of county court shall keep a judgment record. Article 3283. [3153] Each clerk of the county court shall keep in his office a well-bound book, to be called the “Judgment record,” in which he shall record all abstracts of judgments filed in his office for record, which are authenticated in the manner hereinafter required.

Clerks of courts shall make and deliver abstracts of judgments. Art. 3284. [3154] It shall be the duty of each clerk of a court, when the person in whose favor the judgment was rendered, his agent, attorney or assignee, applies therefor, to make out and deliver to such applicant, upon the payment of the fee allowed therefor by law, an abstract of such judgment, and certify thereto under his hand and official seal.

Abstract shall show, what. Art. 3285. [3155] The abstract provided for in the preceding article shall show—

1. The names of the plaintiff and of the defendant in such judgment.
2. The number of the suit in which the judgment was rendered.
3. The date when such judgment was rendered.
4. The amount for which the same was rendered and the amount still due upon the same.
5. The rate of interest, if any is specified in the judgment.

Justice of the peace shall deliver abstracts. Art. 3286. [3156] It shall also be the duty of each justice of the peace to make out and deliver an abstract of any judgment rendered in his court in the manner provided in the two preceding articles, certified to under his hand.

Clerk of county court shall record and index abstracts. Art. 3287. [3157] When any such abstract, as is provided for in the three preceding articles, is presented to the clerk of the county court for record, he shall file and immediately record the same in the judgment record, noting in such record the day and hour of such record, and shall also at the same time enter it upon the index.

Index shall show, what. Art. 3288. [3158] The index to such judgment record shall be alphabetical, and shall show the name of each plaintiff and of each defendant in the judgment, and the number of the page of the book upon which the abstract is recorded.

Lien of judgment, when. Art. 3289. [3159] When any judgment has been recorded and indexed, as provided in the preceding articles, it shall, from the date of such record, and index, operate as a lien upon all of the real estate of the defendant situated in the county where such record and index are made, and upon all real estate which the defendant may thereafter acquire situated in said county.

Art. 3290. [3160] When a lien has been acquired, as provided in this chapter, it shall continue for ten years from the date of such record and index, unless the plaintiff shall fail to have execution issued upon his judgment within twelve months after the rendition thereof, in which case said lien shall cease to exist.

Lien exists, how long.

Art. 3291. [3161] Satisfaction of any judgment in whole or in part may be shown—

Satisfaction of judgment shown, how.

1. By the return upon an execution issued upon said judgment, or by a certified copy of such return, certified by the officer to whom the return is made, such certificate showing the names of the parties to the judgment, the number and style of the suit, the date and amount of the judgment, the court in which rendered, and the dates of the issuance and return of the execution.

2. By a receipt, acknowledgment or release signed by the party entitled to receive payment of the judgment, or his agent, or attorney of record, and acknowledged or proven for record in the same manner as deeds are required to be.

Art. 3292. [3162] Sufficient space shall be left at the foot of each abstract of a judgment recorded in the judgment record for the entry of credits upon and satisfaction of such judgment, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter such credits and satisfaction whenever the same are made to appear, as provided in the preceding article.

Satisfaction of judgment to be entered on judgment record.

Art. 3293. [3163] An abstract of a judgment rendered in this state by any United States court may be recorded and indexed in the same manner provided for the judgments of the courts of this state, upon the certificates of the clerks of such United States courts, and the record and index of such judgments shall have the same force and effect as that of a judgment of a court of this state.

Abstract from U. S. courts may be recorded, etc.

Article 3294. Any person or firm, lumber dealer or corporation, artisan, laborer, mechanic or sub-contractor who may labor or furnish material, machinery, fixtures or tools to erect any house or improvement or to repair any building or improvement whatever, or furnish any material for the construction or repair of any railroad within this state under or by virtue of a contract with the owner or his agent, trustee, receiver, contractor or contractors, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter shall have a lien on such house, building, fixtures, improvements or railroad, and all its properties, and shall also have a lien on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith, to secure payment for the labor done, lumber, material, machinery or fixtures and tools furnished for construction or repair. The word "improvement," as used herein, shall be construed so as to include wells, cisterns, tanks, reservoirs or artificial pools or lakes made for supplying or storing water, and all pumps, syphons, wind mills or other machinery or appliances used for raising water for stock, domestic use or for irrigation purposes.

When to be filed.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 110.)

Art. 3295. In order to fix and secure the lien herein provided for, it shall be the duty of every original contractor, within four months, and every journeyman, day laborer or other person seeking to obtain the benefits of the provisions of this law, within thirty days after the indebtedness shall have accrued, to file his or their contract in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, and cause the same to be recorded in a book to be kept by the county clerk for that purpose; provided, that if such journeyman, day laborer or other person have no written contract, it shall be sufficient for them to file an itemized account of their claim, supported by affidavit, showing that the account is just and correct, and that all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits known to the affiant have been allowed.

Written notice to owner.
p. 194.)

Art. 3296. Any person, firm or corporation who may furnish any material to any contractor, sub-contractor, agent or receiver, to be used in the erection of any house, building or improvement, or to repair any house, building or improvement, or to construct or repair any railroad or its properties, by giving written notice to the owner or his agent of such house, building or improvement, or the railroad company, its agent or receiver, of each and every item furnished, and by showing how much there is due and unpaid on each bill of lumber or material furnished by said lumberman, corporation or material man under said contract, at any time within ninety days after the indebtedness shall have accrued, may fix and secure the lien provided for in this chapter as to the material furnished at the time or subsequent to the giving of the written notice above provided for, by filing in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, and if it be a railroad company in any county through which its road may pass, an itemized account of his or their claim, as provided in this article, and cause the same to be recorded in a book kept by the county clerk for that purpose; provided, that in no case shall the owner be compelled to pay a greater sum for [or] on account of labor performed or material, machinery, fixtures and tools furnished as provided in this chapter than the price or sum stipulated in the original contract between such owner and the original contractor or builder of such house, building, fixtures, improvements or repairs.

Form of fixing lien on un-written contract.
Ib. §4.
(Amend. 1895,
p. 194.)

Art. 3297. If there be no written contract, it shall be the duty of the person seeking to obtain the benefit of this chapter to deliver to the clerk of the county court a sworn account as provided for in articles 3295 and 3296, to be filed and recorded as therein provided, and in such cases when the labor is performed for or the material is furnished to the owner of the building or improvements, or the owner or receiver of any railroad, the following form may be used, and will be sufficient to fix the meaning contemplated by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of —.

A B, affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed (or material furnished) C D, of — county, Texas, and that the prices thereof as set forth in said account hereto annexed are just and reasonable, and the same is unpaid; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for said C D at the time in said account mentioned, under and by virtue of a contract between affiant (or affiant's principal) and C D, and that due notice was given by affiant (or his principal) of the labor performed (or material furnished) in accordance with article 3296; and affiant further makes oath and says that he is informed that C D was at the time said contract was made and entered into and said labor was performed (or material furnished) the owner of the house (or improvements) described as follows: (Here describe the house or improvements.) And the said house (or improvements) is situated upon a certain lot or tract of land which affiant is informed is owned by said C D, and which is described as follows: (Here describe the lot or lots or the land.) And this affiant (or his principal) claims a lien upon said house (or improvements) and upon said land. (Or if the material was furnished to any railroad company, its agent or receiver, to construct or repair its railroad or other property, then the affiant shall describe said railroad by giving its charter name and the name of the receiver, if any, and the agent of said company, if any, with whom the contract was made, and that affiant or his principal claims a lien on said railroad and its property); provided, however, a substantial compliance with the above form shall be deemed sufficient to fix and secure the lien.

Art. 3298. If the labor is performed for or the material is furnished to a contractor, builder, agent or receiver, and not the owner of the property, then the following form shall be deemed sufficient to fix the lien provided for by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of —,

A B, affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed for (or the material furnished to) C D, a contractor (builder, agent, or receiver) by affiant (or his principal), and the prices therefor as set forth in the annexed account are just and reasonable, and that the same is unpaid (or the sum of $——, as shown by said account, is unpaid) after allowing all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits known to affiant; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for (or to) said C D, to be used in the erection of a house (or building or improvements, or in the repair of the house, building or improvement, or in the construction or improvement of the railroad or its property), owned, as affiant is informed and believes, by E F, of — county, Texas, and that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) to (or for) said C D, under and by virtue of his contract between affiant (or his principal) and said C D. (And in case of material furnished affiant shall further swear that he has given to the owner, his agent or representative or receiver, notice in writing of each item of said account as required in article 3296, as the same was furnished to said C D; provided, however, that a substantial compliance with the above form shall be deemed sufficient to fix and secure the lien.)

Form when material is furnished to contractor or builder and not the owner of property.
Ib. §5.
(Amend. 1895,
p. 194.)

Description of property.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3299. In case the contract is filed and recorded as provided for in article 3295, a like description of the house, building or improvement, and the lot or tract of land, shall accompany the same, as is required in the foregoing forms, except that the same is not required to be under oath.

What is sufficient diligence—what included on property in city and country.
Ib. §7.
(Amend. 1895, p. 194.)

Art. 3300. When a contract or account is filed and recorded as required by the preceding article, it shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure this lien. If this lien is against land in a city, town or village, it shall extend to or into the lot or lots upon which such house, building or improvement is situated, or upon which such labor was performed; and if the lien is against land in the country, it shall extend to and include fifty acres upon which such house, building or improvements is situated, or upon which such labor has been performed; and if the lien is against a railroad company, it shall extend to and include all of its property.

Priority of lien.
(Amend. 1895, p. 194.)

Art. 3301. The lien herein provided for shall attach to the house, building, improvements or railroad for which they were furnished, or the work was done, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land upon which the houses, buildings or improvements, or railroad have been put, or labor performed, and the person enforcing the same may have such house, building or improvement, or any piece of the railroad property sold separately; provided, any lien, encumbrance or mortgage on the land or improvement at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and holders of such liens need not be made parties in suits to foreclose liens herein provided for.

When improvements sold separately purchaser may remove.
Ib. §9.
(Amend. 1895, p. 194.)

Art. 3302. When the house, building, improvement, or any piece of the railroad's property are sold separately, the officers making the sale shall place the purchaser in possession thereof, and such purchaser shall have the right to remove the same within a reasonable time from the date of the purchase.

Sale must be under judgment.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3303. Every sale must be upon judgment rendered by some court of competent jurisdiction, foreclosing such lien and ordering sale of such property.

On homestead, how fixed.
Ib. §11.

Art. 3304. When material is furnished, labor performed, erections or repairs made upon a homestead, if the owner thereof is a married man, then to fix and secure the lien upon the same, it shall be necessary for the person or persons who furnished the material or performed the labor, before such material is furnished or labor is performed, to make and enter into a contract in writing, setting forth the terms thereof, which shall be signed by the owner and his wife, and privily acknowledged by her, as is required in making sale of homestead. And such contract shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where such homestead is situated, in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose; provided, when such contract has been made and entered into by the husband and wife and the contractor or builder, and the same has been recorded, as heretofore provided, then the same shall inure to the benefit of any and all persons who shall furnish material or labor thereon for such contract or builder.

Notice of subcontractor or laborer to owner of property.
Ib. §12.

Art. 3305. Every person, except the original contractor or builder, or those claiming under article 3296, who may wish to avail himself of the benefits of this law, shall give at least ten days' notice in writing before the filing of the lien, as herein required, to the owner or owners, or agent, or either of them, that he holds a claim against such house, building or improvement, setting forth the amount, and from whom the same is due; and thereafter said owner or owners, or agent, shall be authorized to retain in his hands the amount claimed until the same is settled or determined not to be owing.

Art. 3306. A compliance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix the liability of the owner of such house, building or improvement for the payment of such demand, subject to the subsequent provisions of this law.

Diligence, what is sufficient. Ib. §13.

Art. 3307. [3178] Whenever any such account shall be placed in the hands of such owner or his authorized agent, it shall be the duty of such owner or his agent to furnish his contractor with a true copy of said attested account; and if said contractor shall not, within ten days after the receipt of said copy of attested account, give the owner written notice that he intends to dispute said claim, he shall be considered as assenting to the demand, which shall be paid by the owner when it becomes due.

Contractor to be furnished by owner with account. (Acts of 1876, p. 91, §7.)

Art. 3308. In all cases when a lien shall be filed under a provision of this chapter, by any person other than the original contractor or builder, it shall be the duty of the original contractor to defend any action brought thereupon, at his own expense, and during the pending of such action the owner may withhold from the contractor or builder the amount of money for which such lien shall be filed, and in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, he shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due by him to the contractor the amount of said judgment and costs, and if he shall have settled with the contractor or builder in full, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor any amount so paid by the owner for which the contractor or builder was originally the party liable. But no owner or proprietor shall in any case be required to pay, nor his property be liable for any money that he may have paid to the contractor before the fixing of the lien or before he has received written notice of the existence of the debt, and all sub-contractors, laborers and material men shall have preference over other creditors of the principal contractor or builder; provided further, a copy of each bill of lumber furnished to the contractor or builder, as the same is furnished, shall be delivered to the owner of said homestead, said bill specifying each item so furnished, how much is paid thereon, and what is due for lumber or material furnished for said contract prior thereto; provided, when the debt is paid under the contract for such building or improvements, the party for whose interest the contract was recorded shall enter a relinquishment showing a full compliance of said contract to the extent of all money due them from the original contractor or builder on account of labor done or material furnished, and the money due said original contractor or builder from the person owning or having improvements made shall not be garnisheed by other creditors to the prejudice of such sub-contractors, mechanics, laborers or material men.

Original contractor to defend suits by sub-contractors, etc. Ib. §14.

Art. 3309. When labor is performed by the day or week, then the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the end of each week during which labor is performed. When material is furnished the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the last delivery of such material, unless there is an agreement to pay for such material at a specified time.

When indebtedness accrues. Ib. §15.

Art. 3310. The liens for work and labor done or material furnished, as provided in this chapter, shall be upon an equal footing, Liens upon equal footing. Ib. §16.

without reference to date of filing the account or lien, and in all cases when a sale shall be ordered and the property sold, which may be described in any account or lien, the proceeds arising from such sale, if not sufficient to discharge all the liens against the same, without reference to the date of filing the account or lien, shall be paid pro rata on the respective liens; provided, such accounts or liens shall have been filed and suit brought as provided by this law; provided that nothing in this law shall be so construed as in any manner affecting the contract between said owner and original contractor as to the amount, manner or time of payment of said contract price.

Release to be filed by mechanics, etc., when.
Ib. §18.

Art. 3311. All parties who are authorized under this law to file a lien, and have done so, and had such lien recorded, shall, when such lien is paid or satisfied, or have received their proper lienable parts for which the owner of the building would be liable under this law, shall record a relinquishment and satisfaction of such lien.

RAILROAD LABORERS.

Railroad laborers, etc., to have lien, when.
(Acts of 1887, p. 17, §1.)

Art. 3312. All mechanics, laborers and operatives who may have performed labor, or worked with tools, teams or otherwise, in the construction, operation or repair of any railroad, locomotive, car or other equipment of a railroad, and to whom wages are due or owing for such work, or for the work of tools or teams thus employed, or for work otherwise performed, shall hereafter have a lien prior to all others upon such railroad and its equipments for the amount due him for personal services, or for the use of tools or teams.

Art. 3313. In all suits for wages due by a railroad company for such labor as heretofore mentioned, upon proof being satisfactorily made that such labor had been performed, either at the instance of said company, a contractor or sub-contractor, or agent of said company, and that such wages are due, and the lien given by the preceding article is sought to be enforced, it shall be the duty of the court having jurisdiction to try the same to render judgment for the amount of wages found to be due, and to adjudge and order said railroad and equipments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy said judgment. In all suits of this kind it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to make other lienholders defendants thereto, but such lienholders may intervene and become parties thereto and have their respective rights adjusted and determined by the court.

Venue.
Ib. §3.

Art. 3314. Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives, for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this state where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action or part thereof accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated, and in all such suits service of process may be made in the manner now required by law.

Lien ceases, when.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3315. The lien created by article 3312 shall cease to be operative in twelve months after the creation of the lien, if no steps be sooner taken to enforce it.

[3184] Whenever any article, implement, utensil or vehicle shall be repaired with labor and material, or with labor and without furnishing material, by any carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman in this state, such carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman is authorized to retain possession of said article, implement, utensil or vehicle until the amount due on same for repairing by contract shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Mechanics may retain possession of article repaired, when.
(Act April 7,
P. D. 7116a.

Art. 3321. [3185] In case no amount is agreed upon by contract, then said carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman shall retain possession of such article, implement, utensil or vehicle, until all reasonable, customary and usual compensation shall be paid in full.

Where no price is agreed upon.
Ib. §1.

Art. 3322. [3186] When possession of any of the property embraced in the four preceding articles has continued for sixty days after the charges accrue, and the charges so due have not been paid,

When property may be sold for charges.

it shall be the duty of the persons so holding said property to notify the owner, if in the state and his residence be known, to come forward and pay the charges due, and on his failure within ten days after such notice has been given him to pay said charges the persons so holding said property, after twenty days' notice, are authorized to sell said property at public sale and apply the proceeds to the payment of said charges, and shall pay over the balance to the person entitled to the same.

When owner lives out of the state or residence is unknown.

Art. 3323. [3187] If the owner's residence is beyond the state or is unknown, the person holding said property shall not be required to give the ten days' notice mentioned in the preceding article before proceeding to sell.

Balance, how disposed of.
Ib. §3.

Art. 3324. [3188] If the person who is legally entitled to receive the balance mentioned in this chapter is not known, or has removed from the state or from the county in which such repairing was done or such property was so held, it shall be the duty of the person so holding said property to pay the balance to the county treasurer of the county in which said property is held, and take his receipt therefor.

What is to be done finally with the balance.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3325. [3189] Whenever any balance mentioned in this chapter shall remain in the possession of the county treasurer for the period of two years unclaimed by the party legally entitled to the same, such balance shall become a part of the county fund of the county in which the property was so sold, and shall be applied as any other county fund or money of such county is applied or used.

Other liens and contracts not affected.

Art. 3326. [3190] Nothing in this title shall be construed or considered as in any manner impairing or affecting the right of parties to create liens by special contract or agreement, nor shall it in any manner affect or impair other liens arising at common law or in equity, or by any statute of this state, or any other lien not treated of under this title.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.

Reservations of title, mortgages, and to be recorded.
(Acts of 1835, p. 76.)

Art. 3327. All reservations of the title to or property in chattels as security for the purchase money thereof, shall be held to be chattel mortgages, and shall, when possession is delivered to the vendee, be void as to creditors and bona fide purchasers, unless such reservations be in writing and registered as required of chattel mortgages; provided, that nothing in this law shall be construed to contravene the landlord and tenant act.

All instruments intended to operate as liens to be recorded.

Art. 3328. Every chattel mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument of writing intended to operate as a mortgage of or lien upon personal property which shall not be accompanied by an immediate delivery, and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the property mortgaged or pledged by such instrument, shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor or person making the same, and as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees or lienholders in good faith, unless such instrument or a true copy thereof shall be forthwith deposited with and filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property shall then be situated, or if the mortgagor or person making the same be a resident of this state, then of the county of which he shall at the time be a resident.

Duty of clerk receiving.
(Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 479.)

Art. 3329. Upon the receipt of such instruments the clerk shall endorse thereon the day and hour when the same was deposited in his office for record, and shall keep the same on file in his office for the inspection of all parties interested until satisfaction thereof shall be entered, as provided in article 3332; provided, that if a copy be presented to the clerk for filing, instead of the original instrument, he shall carefully compare such copy with the original, and the same shall not be filed unless it is a true copy thereof, and a copy can be filed only when the original has been witnessed by two subscribing witnesses or acknowledged or proven for record and certified as required in case of other instrument for the purpose of being recorded.

Art. 3330. A certified copy of any such instrument so filed as aforesaid, certified to under the hand and seal of the clerk of the county court in whose office the same shall have been filed, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner as the original might be, unless the execution of the original has been denied under oath by the party sought to be charged thereby; provided, that the party desiring to use such instrument shall file the same in the papers of the cause before announcing ready for trial, and not afterwards; and such certified copy shall in all cases be received as evidence of filing and entry thereof in chattel mortgage record according to the endorsement of the clerk thereon.

Copy of instrument evidence of what.
Ib. 480.

Art. 3331. The county clerk shall keep a book in which shall be entered a minute of all such instruments, which shall be ruled off into separate columns, with heads as follows: Time of reception, name of mortgagor, name of mortgagee or trustee and cestui que trust, date of the instrument, amount secured, when due, property mortgaged, and remarks; and the proper entry shall be made under each of such heads. Under the head of property mortgaged it will be sufficient to enter a general description of the property pledged and the particular place where located, and index shall be kept in the manner as required for other records.

County clerk to keep book.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3332. When the debt secured by any such instrument shall have been paid or satisfied, it shall be the duty of the mortgagee, his assignee, attorney or legal representative to enter or cause to be entered and attested by the clerk, as aforesaid, satisfaction thereof, in the record book in which the instrument is entered, which may be done under the head of "remarks," and any instrument acknowledging payment or satisfaction need not be recorded at length, but the entry as above provided showing the same has been paid shall be sufficient, and the original instrument or copy thereof on file shall then be delivered to the mortgagor or maker upon demand, or the clerk may mail the same to him.

Satisfaction to be entered.
(Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 480.)

Art. 3333. The person making any such instrument shall not remove the property pledged from the county, nor otherwise sell or dispose of the same without the consent of the mortgagee; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this article the mortgagee shall be entitled to the possession of the property, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether the same has become due or not.

Property not to be removed.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3334. Chattel mortgages and other instruments intended to operate as mortgages of or liens upon personal property shall not hereafter be recorded at length as heretofore required, and when deposited and filed in accordance with the provisions of this law shall have the force and effect heretofore given to a full registration thereof, and all persons shall be thereby charged with notice thereof, and of the rights of the mortgagee, his assignee or representative thereunder, but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to in any manner affect the rights of any person under any instrument heretofore recorded as required by law.

Not to be recorded at length.
Ib. §7.

Article 3335. The owner or keeper of any stallion, jack, or bull, who keeps the same confined for the purpose of standing them for profit, shall have a preference lien upon the progeny of such stallion, jack or bull, to secure the payment of the amount due such owner or keeper for services of such stallion, jack or bull, and such lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as other mortgage liens upon personal property in this state; provided, that where parties misrepresent their stock by false pedigree no lien shall obtain.

To remain in force one year. Ib. §2.

Art. 3336. The lien herein provided for shall remain in force for the period of twelve months from the birth of said progeny, but shall not be enforced until six months shall have elapsed after such birth.

Lien, how secured. Ib. §3.

Art. 3337. In order to fix and secure the lien provided for, the owner or keeper shall have the right at any time within sixty days after such service by such stallion, jack or bull is rendered, to file his contract in the office of the county clerk of the county of the residence of the person benefited by such service, and cause the same to be recorded in a book kept by the clerk for that purpose, and said clerk shall be allowed a fee of twenty cents for recording such contract.

Duplicates of contract to be made. Ib. §4.

Art. 3338. If the contract or agreement be verbal a duplicate copy of the same shall be made under oath; one to be delivered to the clerk to be recorded and filed as provided for written contracts, and the other to be transmitted to the party owing the debt.

What contract shall contain. Ib. §5.

Art. 3339. The contract, written or sworn to, as provided for in the two preceding articles, shall contain a definite description by marks, brands and color of the mother of such progeny.

Article 3340. [3191] Every suit to be instituted to recover real estate, as against any person in peaceable and adverse possession thereof under title or color of title, shall be instituted within three years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Three years' possession, when a bar. (Act Feb. 5, 1841, p. 119, §15.) P. D. 4622.

Art. 3341. [3192] By the term "title," as used in the preceding article, is meant a regular chain of transfer from or under the sovereignty of the soil, and by "color of title" is meant a consecutive chain of such transfer down to such person in possession, without being regular, as if one or more of the memorials or muniments be not registered, or not duly registered, or be only in writing, or such like defect as may not extend to or include the want of intrinsic fairness and honesty; or when the party in possession shall hold the same by a certificate of headright, land warrant or land scrip, with a chain of transfer down to him in possession.

"Title" and "color of title" defined. Ib. §15. P. D. 4622.

Art. 3342. [3193] Every suit to be instituted to recover real estate as against any person having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same and paying taxes thereon, if any, and claiming under a deed or deeds duly registered, shall be instituted within five years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward; provided, that this article shall not apply to any one in possession of land, who in the absence of this article would deraign title through a forged deed; provided further, that no one claiming under a forged deed, or deed executed under a forged power of attorney, shall be allowed the benefits of this article.

Five years' possession, when a bar. Ib. §16. P. D. 4623. (Acts of 1879, ch. 125, p. 132.)

Art. 3343. [3194] Any person who has the right of action for the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, shall institute his suit therefor within ten years next after his cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Ten years' possession, when a bar. Ib. §17. P. D. 4621. 4624.

Art. 3344. [3195] The peaceable and adverse possession contemplated in the preceding article, as against the person having right of action, shall be construed to embrace not more than one hundred and sixty acres, including the improvements or the number of acres actually inclosed, should the same exceed one hundred and sixty acres; but when such possession is taken and held under some written memorandum of title, other than a deed, which fixes the boundaries of the possessor's claim and is duly registered, such peaceable possession shall be construed to be co-extensive with the boundaries specified in such instrument.

Ten years' possession construed to embrace what. Ib. P. D. 4624.

Land surrounded by other lands,
etc.

Peaceable possession defined.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 76.)

Art. 3345. A tract of land owned by one person, entirely surrounded by a tract or tracts owned, claimed or fenced by another shall not be considered inclosed by a fence inclosing the circumscribing tract or tracts, or any part thereof; nor shall the possession by the owner or claimant of such circumscribing land of such interior tract be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by article 3343, unless the same be segregated and separated from the circumscribing land by a fence, or unless at least one-tenth thereof be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes.

Same subject.
Ib.

Art. 3346. Possession of land belonging to another by a person owning or claiming five thousand acres or more of lands inclosed by a fence in connection therewith or adjoining thereto shall not be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by article 3343, unless said land so belonging to another shall be segregated and separated by a substantial fence from said lands connected therewith or thereto adjoining, or unless at least one-tenth thereof shall be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes, or unless there be actual possession thereof.

Possession
gives full title,
when.

Art. 3347. [3196] Whenever in any case the action of a person for the recovery of real estate is barred by any of the provisions of this chapter, the person having such peaceable and adverse possession shall be held to have full title, precluding all claims.

"Peaceable possession"
defined.
(Acts of 1841,
p. 119, §14.)
P. D. 4621.

Art. 3348. [3197] "Peaceable possession," within the meaning of this chapter, is such as is continuous and not interrupted by adverse suit to recover the estate.

"Adverse possession"
defined.

Art. 3349. [3198] "Adverse possession" is an actual and visible appropriation of the land, commenced and continued under a claim of right inconsistent with and hostile to the claim of another.

Possession
may be held by different persons.

Art. 3350. [3199] Peaceable and adverse possession need not be continued in the same person, but when held by different persons successively there must be a privity of estate between them.

(Amend. 1895,
p. 35.)

Art. 3352. [3201] If a person entitled to commence suit for the recovery of real property, or to make any defense founded on the title thereto, be at the time such title shall first descend or the adverse possession commence—

1. Under the age of twenty-one years; or,
2. Of unsound mind; or,
3. A person imprisoned; the time during which such disability shall continue shall not be deemed any portion of the time limited for the commencement of such suit or the making of such defense; and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this chapter; provided, that limitation shall not begin to run against married women until they arrive at the age of twenty-one years; and, further, that their disability shall continue one year from and after the passage of this article, and that they shall have thereafter the same time allowed others by the provisions hereof; and, further, that this article shall in no way affect suits that are now or may be pending when the same takes effect, and all such suits shall be tried and disposed of under the law now in force.

Article 3353. [3202] There shall be commenced and prosecuted within one year after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in courts, of the following description:

Actions to be commenced in one year.
(Acts Feb. 5, 1841, §1; Feb. 2, 1860, §1.)
P. D. 4604.
P. D. 15.

1. Actions for injuries done to the person of another.
2. Actions for malicious prosecution or for injuries done to the character or reputation of another by libel or slander.
3. Actions for damages for seduction, or breach of promise of marriage.
4. Actions for injuries done to the person of another where death ensued from such injuries; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued at the death of the party injured.

Art. 3353a. Causes of action upon which suit has been or may hereafter be brought by the injured party for personal injuries other than those resulting in death, whether such injuries be to the health or to the reputation or to the person of the injured party, shall not abate by reason of his death, nor by reason of the death of the person against whom such cause of action shall have accrued; but in the case of the death of either or both, such cause of action shall survive to and in favor of the heirs and legal representatives of such injured party and against the person, receiver or corporation liable for such injuries and his legal representatives; and so surviving such cause may be thereafter prosecuted in like manner and with like legal effect as would a cause of action for injuries to personal property.

Survival of cause of action.
(Act of 1895, p. 143.)

Art. 3354. [3203] There shall be commenced and prosecuted within two years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

Actions to be commenced in two years.

(Act Feb. 5,
1841, p. 163, §1.)
P. D. 4604.

Art. 3356. [3205] There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is evidenced by or founded upon any contract in writing.

2. Actions for the penalty or for damages on the penal clause of a bond to convey real estate.

3. Actions by one partner against his copartner for a settlement of the partnership accounts, or upon mutual and current accounts concerning the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factor or agents; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued on a cessation of the dealings in which they were interested together.

On bond of executor, administrator or guardian.
(Acts March
20, 1848; Aug.
9, 1876, p. 102,
§42.)
P. D. 1375,
3923.

Art. 3357. [3206] All suits on the bond of any executor, administrator or guardian shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years next after the death, resignation, removal or discharge of such executor, administrator or guardian, and not thereafter.

All other actions barred,
when.

Art. 3358. [3207] Every action other than for the recovery of real estate, for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed, shall be brought within four years next after the right to bring the same shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Actions on foreign judgments barred,
when.

Art. 3359. [3208] Every action upon a judgment or decree rendered in any other state or territory of the United States, in the District of Columbia or in any foreign country, shall be barred, if by the laws of such state or country such action would there be barred, and the judgment or decree be incapable of being otherwise enforced there; and whether so barred or not, no action against a person who shall have resided in this state during the ten years next preceding such action shall be brought upon any such judgment or decree rendered more than ten years before the commencement of such action.

Actions for specific performance.

Art. 3360. [3209] Any action for the specific performance of a contract for the conveyance of real estate shall be commenced within ten years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Judgment
shall be revived, when.
(Act Feb. 5, 1841, §2.)
P. D. 4608.

Art. 3361. [3210] A judgment in any court of record within this state, where execution has not issued within twelve months after the rendition of the judgment, may be revived by scire facias or an action of debt brought thereon within ten years after the date of such judgment, and not after.

Art. 3362. [3211] Where execution has issued and no return is made thereon, the party in whose favor the same was issued may move against any sheriff or other officer and his sureties for not returning the same within five years from the day on which it was returnable, and not after.

On motion for returning execution.
Ib.
P. D. 4608.

Art. 3363. [3212] No action of forcible entry or forcible detainer, as provided for by law, shall be prosecuted at any time after two years from the commencement of the forcible entry or detainer.

On the action of forcible entry, etc.

Art. 3364. [3213] Any person interested in any will which shall have been probated under the laws of this state, may institute suit in the proper court to contest the validity thereof, within four years after such will shall have been admitted to probate, and not afterward.

On actions to contest a will.
(Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 94, §3.)

Art. 3365. [3214] Any heir at law of the testator, or any other person interested in his estate, may institute suit in the proper court to cancel a will for forgery or other fraud within four years after the discovery of such forgery or fraud, and not afterward.

In case of forgery, etc., action accrues when.

P. D. 4620.

Art. 3375. [3224] No demand against any person who shall hereafter remove to this state, incurred prior to his removal, shall be barred by the statute of limitation until he shall have resided in this state for the space of twelve months; provided, that nothing in this article shall be construed to affect the provisions of the preceding article.

One disability not tacked to another.

Art. 3376. [3225] The period of limitation shall not be extended by the connection of one disability with another; and when the law of limitation shall begin to run, it shall continue to run, notwithstanding any supervening disability of the party entitled to sue or liable to be sued.

Claims barred under pre-existing laws,
etc.

Art. 3377. [3226] No one of the provisions of this title shall be so construed as to revive any claim which is barred by pre-existing laws; and all claims against which limitation under said laws had commenced to run shall be barred by the lapse of time which would have barred them had those laws continued in force; provided, the said time be shorter than that by which they would have been barred by the other articles of this title.

Art. 3378. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association or combination of whatsoever kind to enter into any stipulation, contract or agreement by reason whereof, the time in which to sue thereon is limited to a shorter period than two years. And no stipulation, contract or agreement for any such shorter limitation in which to sue shall ever be valid in this state.

No agreement shortening period of limitation valid. (Acts of 1891, p. 20, §1.)

Art. 3379. No stipulation in any contract requiring notice to be given of any claim for damages as a condition precedent to the right to sue thereon shall ever be valid unless such stipulation is reasonable, and any such stipulation fixing the time within which such notice shall be given at a less period than ninety days shall be void, and when any such notice is required, the same may be given to the nearest or any other convenient local agent of the company requiring the same. In any suit brought under this and the preceding article it shall be presumed that notice has been given, unless the want of notice is specially pleaded under oath.

Notice of claims for damages; rule as to. 1b. §2.

Liquor dealers shall give bond.
(Acts of 1887, p. 58, §4.)

Article 3380. Any person, firm or association of persons desiring to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, shall, before engaging in such occupation, be required to enter into bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two good, lawful and sufficient sureties, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that said person, firm, or association of persons so selling spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in quantities less than a quart, shall keep an open, quiet and orderly house or place for the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication; and that he or they will not sell or permit to be sold in his or their house or place of business, nor give, nor permit to be given, any spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to a student of any institution of learning, or to any habitual drunkard, or to any person after having been notified in writing through the sheriff or other peace officer, by the wife, mother, daughter, or sister of the person, not to sell to such person; and that he or they will not permit any person under the age of twenty-one years to enter and remain in such house or place of business; and that he or they will not permit any games prohibited by the laws to be played, dealt, or exhibited in or about such house or place of business; and that he or they will not keep or permit to be kept, for profit, amusement, or other purposes, in or about his or their place of business, any nine or ten-pin alley, pool table, bagatelle, pigeon-hole, or jenny-lind table, nor any other kind of table or device used for games of chance; and that he or they will not rent or let any part of the house or place in which he or they have undertaken to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in quantities less than a quart, to any person or persons, for the purpose of running or conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state; and that he or they will not adulterate in any manner by mixing any drug with any intoxicating liquor of any kind; and that he or they will not knowingly sell or give away any impure or adulterated liquor of any kind; which said bond may be sued on at the instance of any person or persons aggrieved by the violation of its provisions, and such person shall be entitled to recover the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages for each infraction of the conditions of such bond, and the said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on until the full penal sum named therein shall have been recovered. In addition to civil proceedings for individual injuries brought on said bond as above indicated, if any person, firm, or association of persons, shall violate any of the conditions of the bond herein required, it shall be the duty of the county and district attorneys, or either of them, to institute suit thereupon in the name of the state of Texas, for the use and benefit of the county, and the amount of five hundred dollars as a penalty shall be recovered from the principals and sureties upon a breach of any of the conditions thereof; and whenever the first or subsequent bond, as required, is exhausted by suit at the instance of individuals or for the use of the county, a new similar bond shall be given and approved before the dealer shall have the right to further pursue his occupation as a retail liquor dealer; or in case suit is pending on any such bond, and the county or district attorney shall make and file an affidavit with the clerk of the county court that he believes the bond of the defendant will be exhausted by said suit, the clerk shall at once notify the liquor dealer thereof, and it shall be the duty of the retail liquor dealer within twenty days from the time the bond is exhausted, or in other event within twenty days from the time the notice is given, to give a new bond similar to the bond first given, to be approved in the same way, and until such new bond is given and approved when it is required by this law, the retail liquor dealer shall not have the right to further pursue his occupation; and any person, firm, or association of persons who shall pursue his or their said occupation without giving the first bond or the new bond, as required by this law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined the same amount provided for in cases where no license has been obtained. The provisions of this law shall not be so construed as to repeal or in any manner affect any penal laws now in force in this state concerning the unlawful sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication; nor shall they be construed as depriving any person, firm, or association of persons, who are now pursuing the occupation of selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any quantity, who have complied with the law regulating the same, from continuing the said pursuit or occupation, for the full length of time for which license was obtained, and the law otherwise complied with. An open house in the meaning of this title is one in which no screen or other device is used or placed, either inside or outside of such house or place of business, for the purpose of or that will obstruct the view through the open door or place of entrance into any such house or place where intoxicating liquors are sold in quantities less than a quart. A quiet house or place of business in the meaning of this title is one in which no music, loud or boisterous talking, yelling, or indecent or vulgar language is allowed, used, or practiced, or any other noise calculated to disturb or annoy persons residing or doing business in the vicinity of such house or place of business, or those passing along the streets or public highways. By an orderly house is meant one in which no prostitute or lewd woman or women are allowed to enter or remain; and said house must not contain any vulgar or obscene pictures.

Art. 3381. The county clerks in the several counties in this state shall issue license to any person, firm or association of persons engaged or desiring to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, upon payment by such person, firm, or association of persons of all occupation taxes herein levied for state purposes, and such additional occupation taxes as shall be levied by commissioners' courts and by incorporated towns or cities, and also filing the bond required in article 3380. The evidence of payment of all tax upon such occupation shall be the receipt of the county collector of taxes for such amount of tax as shall have been or may be assessed and collected for state and county purposes upon such occupation, and the receipt of the city collector of taxes for the amount of such tax paid any city or town wherein such business or occupation may be carried on.

License to be posted.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3382. The license required by this chapter shall be posted in some conspicuous place in the house where the business or occupation for which such license is necessary is carried on before engaging in such occupation.

New certificate to be furnished, when.

Art. 3383. If from any cause any certificate of occupation license shall be lost or destroyed, it shall be the duty of the clerk, upon application of the person, firm or corporation who formerly had such license, to furnish a new certificate for the remainder of the term covered by the license lost or destroyed.

Article 3384. [3227] The commissioners' court of each county in the state, whenever they deem it expedient, may order an election, to be held by the qualified voters of said county, or of any justice's precinct, or such subdivisions of a county as may be designated by the commissioners' court of said county, or any town or city therein, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in such county, justices' precinct, or subdivision of such county, or in any town, or city; provided, it shall be the duty of said commissioners' court to order the election aforesaid whenever petitioned to do so by as many as two hundred and fifty voters in any county, or fifty voters in any justice's precinct, or subdivision of such county, as shall be designated by said court, or in any city or town, as the case may be; provided, that if the justice's precinct, or subdivision of such county, embrace within its limits an incorporated town or city or portions thereof, then such election shall only be ordered when the petition for the same is signed by qualified voters, not less than one-tenth in number of the total vote cast for governor at the next preceding general election in such incorporated town or city; and in case an election is asked for a subdivision of such county, the petition shall describe such subdivision by metes and bounds, and the said petition and description of said subdivision shall be recorded in full in the minutes of the commissioners' court, and such description shall be embraced in the notice given for such election; provided, no city or town shall be divided in making any such subdivision.

Commissioners' courts may order elections. (Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3385. [3228] The preceding article shall not be so construed to prohibit the sale of wines for sacramental purposes, nor alcoholic stimulants as medicines in cases of actual sickness, but such stimulant shall only be sold upon the written prescription of a regular practicing physician, dated and signed by him, and certified, on his honor, that he, the physician, has personally examined the applicant, naming him, and that he finds him actually sick and in need of the stimulant prescribed as medicine; provided, that a physician who does not follow the profession of medicine as his principal and usual calling shall not be authorized to give the prescription provided for in this article; and provided further, that no person shall be permitted to sell more than once on the same prescription, nor shall any person be permitted to sell at all on the prescription of a physician not herein authorized to give it, nor on a prescription which is not dated, signed, and certified as above required; provided, that every person selling such stimulants upon the prescription herein provided for, shall cancel such prescription by endorsing thereon the word "cancelled," and file the same away.

Where voting to take place.
 Ib.
 (Amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3386. [3229] When the commissioners' court, of their own motion, or upon the petition provided for in article 3384, shall order the election as herein provided for, it shall be the duty of said court to order such election to be held at the regular voting place or places within the proposed limits, upon a day not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of said order, and the order thus made shall express the object of such election, and shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions necessary to give it validity, or to clothe the court with jurisdiction to make it, have been fully complied with; provided, that if there is no regular voting place within the proposed limits of a subdivision less than a justice's or voting precinct, then the commissioners' court shall designate some suitable place within said subdivision, where said election shall be held, and said place shall be named in the notices of election, and said court will appoint such officers to hold such election as are now required to hold general elections.

Notice.
 Ib.
 (Amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3387. [3230] The clerk of said court shall post, or cause to be posted, at least five copies of said order at different places within the proposed limits, for at least twelve days prior to the day of election, which election shall be held and the returns thereof made in conformity with the provisions of the general laws of the state, and by the officers of election appointed and qualified under such laws.

Form of ballot.
 (Acts of 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3388. [3231] At said election those who favor the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors within the proposed limits shall have written or printed on their tickets the words "For prohibition," and those who oppose it shall have printed or written on their tickets the words "Against prohibition."

How election to be held.
 Ib.

Art. 3389. [3232] The officers holding said election shall, in all respects not herein specified, conform to the existing laws regulating elections; and after the polls are closed shall proceed to count the votes, and within ten days thereafter make due report of said election to the aforesaid court.

To hold session for counting votes, when.
 (Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3390. [3233] Said court shall hold a special session on the eleventh day after the holding of said election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of opening the polls and counting the votes; and if a majority of the votes are "For prohibition," said court shall immediately make an order declaring the result of said vote, and absolutely prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the prescribed limits, except for the purposes and under the regulations specified in this title, until such time as the qualified voters therein may at a legal election held for that purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise; and the order thus made shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding said election, and in counting and returning the votes and declaring the result thereof.

Result to be declared.
 Ib.
 (Amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3391. [3234] The order of court declaring the result and prohibiting the sale of such liquors shall be published for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein such election has been held, which newspaper shall be selected by the county judge for that purpose. If there be no newspaper published in the county, then the county judge shall cause publication to be made by posting copies of said order at three public places within the prescribed limits for the aforesaid length of time. The fact of publication in either mode shall be entered by the county judge on the minutes of the commissioners' court. And entry thus made, or a copy thereof certified under the hand and seal of the clerk of the county court shall be held sufficient prima facie evidence of such fact of publication.

Art. 3392. [3235] If a majority voting at such election vote "Against prohibition," the court shall make an order declaring the result, and have the same entered of record in the office of the clerk of said court.

Order when against prohibition. (Acts of 1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3393. [3236] No election under the preceding articles shall be held within the same prescribed limits in less than two years after an election under this title has been held therein; but at the expiration of that time the commissioners' court of each county in the state, whenever they decree it expedient, may order another election to be held by the qualified voters of said county, or of any justice's precinct, or such subdivision of a county as may be designated by the commissioners' court of such county, for the same purpose; provided, it shall be the duty of such court to order the election aforesaid whenever petitioned to do so by as many as two hundred voters in any county, or fifty voters in any justice's precinct or subdivision of such county, as the case may be, to order an election for the same purpose, which election shall be ordered held, notice thereof given, the votes returned and counted, and the result declared and published, in all respects as provided by this title for a first election; and the order granting such other elections, as well as that declaring the result, shall, if prohibition be carried, have the same force and effect and the same conclusiveness as are given to them in the case of a first election by the provisions of this title.

Second election, when.

Art. 3394. [3237] When such second election results against prohibition, the court shall enter an order setting aside the previous order enforcing prohibition, and shall officially announce and publish the same as provided where the election resulted in prohibition.

Order, etc., on second election. (Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48.)
Ib.

Art. 3395. [3238] The failure to carry prohibition in a county shall not prevent an election for the same from being immediately thereafter held in a justice's precinct or subdivision of such county as designated by the commissioners' court, or of any town or city in such county; nor shall the failure to carry prohibition in a town or city prevent an election from being immediately thereafter held for the entire justice's precinct or county in which said town or city is situated; nor shall the holding of an election in a justice's precinct in any way prevent the holding of an election immediately thereafter for the entire county in which the justice's precinct is situated; but when prohibition has been carried at an election ordered for the entire county, no election on the question of prohibition shall be thereafter ordered in any justice's precinct, town or city of said county until after prohibition has been defeated at a subsequent election for the same purpose, ordered and held for the entire county, in accordance with the provisions of this title; nor in any case where prohibition has carried in any justice's precinct shall an election on the question of prohibition be ordered thereafter in any town or city of such precinct until after prohibition has been defeated at a subsequent election ordered and held for such entire precinct.

May hold second election in subdivision. (Amend. 1893, p. 48.)

Penalty.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 48.)
P. C. 378.

Art. 3396. [3239] When any such election has been held and has resulted in favor of prohibition, and the aforesaid court has made the order declaring the result, and the order of prohibition, and has caused the same to be published as aforesaid, any person who shall thereafter, within the prescribed bounds of prohibition, sell, exchange or give away, with the purpose of evading the provisions of this title, any intoxicating liquors whatsoever, or in any way violate any of the provisions of this title, shall be subject to prosecution, by information or indictment, and shall be punished as prescribed in the Penal Code.

Election, how contested.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 96; amend.
1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3397. [3239a] At any time within thirty days after the result of the election has been declared, any qualified voter of the county, justice's precinct or subdivision of such county, or in any town or city of such county in which such election has been held, may contest the said election in any court of competent jurisdiction, in such manner as has been or may hereafter be prescribed; and should it appear from the evidence that the election was illegally or fraudulently conducted; or that by the action or want of action on the part of the officers to whom was intrusted the control of such election, such a number of legal voters were denied the privilege of voting as had they been allowed to vote might have materially changed the result; or if it appears from the evidence that such irregularities existed as to render the true result of the election impossible to be arrived at, or very doubtful of ascertaining, the court shall adjudge such election to be void, and shall order the proper officer to order another election to be held, and shall cause a certified copy of such judgment and order of the court to be delivered to such officer upon whom is devolved by law the duty of ordering such election.

Refunding of license tax.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 110; amend.
1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3398. In all cases where any person, firm or association of persons pursuing the occupation of liquor dealers under license issued in accordance with the laws of this state has been or shall hereafter be prevented from pursuing such occupation for the full time to which he would be otherwise entitled by reason of the adoption of local option in any county, precinct, subdivision of such county, town or city, a proportionate amount of the taxes paid by him for the unexpired term shall be refunded to him.

District judges to give in charge to grand juries.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 41; amend.
1893, p. 48.)

Art. 3399. It is hereby made the duty of the district judges to give this law in charge to the grand juries; and it is made the special duty of the county attorneys to file or have filed a complaint in the county court of said county against all houses, and the keepers thereof, used for the sale, exchange or gift of any kind of intoxicating liquors, in any county, justice's precinct or subdivision of such county, or of any town or city in such county in this state when local devices are resorted to, to prevent or avoid detection of the keeper thereof, and upon said complaint being filed with any justice of the peace, describing the place where the device is kept, and the name of the person violating this law, if known, said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant commanding any sheriff or constable to search said place, and, if the law is being violated, to arrest the person or persons so violating the law; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county wherein such house or place where such device is kept, for the sale or gift of intoxicating liquors, to demand admission into the same, and upon admittance being refused, the sheriff is hereby authorized and required by law to force open the same and arrest and hold for trial before the courts all such persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this title; and it is the duty of the county judges and justices of the peace, having jurisdiction in the premises, to see that this law is rigidly enforced; provided, no arrest or search shall ever be made until the sheriff shall first procure a warrant therefor, issued by the proper authority.

Article 3419. [3292] The volunteer guards shall constitute the active militia, and when necessary to resist invasion, quell insurrection or to aid the civil authorities in the suppression of riots and the execution of the laws, shall be first called into service.

Volunteer guards to be the active militia.

How constituted.
(Acts of 1839,
p. 12.)

Art. 3420. [3293] Volunteer guards shall be constituted by voluntary enlistment for a period not less than three years on the part of persons held to military duty under the laws of the state, or of persons that may be exempt under such laws.

I. COMPANY ORGANIZATION.

Company, what constitutes.
Ib.

Art. 3421. [3294] Any number of persons not less than forty nor more than one hundred, of good moral character, desiring to form a company of volunteer guards, may meet and declare such purpose, and after obtaining consent from the governor may perfect their organization by electing their company officers in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. And it shall not be lawful for any body of men whatsoever, other than the regularly organized volunteer guard, to associate themselves together as a military company or organization, or to parade in public with arms in any part of the state, without the license of the governor therefor.

Officers to be elected.
Ib.

Art. 3422. [3295] Each company of volunteer guards shall elect one captain, one first lieutenant and one second lieutenant, and each troop or battery such officers as the regulations shall specify or the commander-in-chief shall direct; and the commanding officer shall appoint five sergeants and four corporals, and the commanding officer of each troop or battery shall appoint such numbers of sergeants and corporals as may be specified in the regulations or the commander-in-chief may direct.

Captains may appoint certain subordinates.

Art. 3423. [3296] Captains of companies may appoint such number of musicians, markers or other subordinates as they may deem necessary, or as may be prescribed by the commander-in-chief, and the persons so appointed shall obey such orders as may be given them by their commanding officers.

Oath of officers and privates.

Art. 3424. [3297] So soon as the organization of any company of volunteer guards is perfected in accordance with the provisions of the two preceding articles, the officers and members of such company shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, before some officer authorized to administer oaths: "I, A B, do solemnly swear [or affirm] that I will support the constitution of the United States, and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the state of Texas, and will support the constitution thereof; and I do further swear [or affirm] that I will faithfully observe and obey all laws and regulations for the government of the volunteer guards of this state, and the orders of all officers elected or appointed over me, so help me God."

Such oath shall be administered to the company collectively, and shall be attested under the hand and official seal of the officer administering the same.

Muster rolls to be made out.

Art. 3425. [3298] The captain commanding the company, after its organization and muster in as hereinbefore provided, shall make up or cause to be made up complete muster rolls in duplicate of such company, duly certified under his hand to be a correct muster roll of the company [naming it], one of which rolls, with the oaths of the members provided for in the preceding article thereto attached, he shall forward by mail or other conveyance to the adjutant-general, and the other shall be deposited with the secretary of the company and be preserved in the company archives.

Each company a corporation.
(Act Feb. 15,
1858.
O. & W. 1461.

Art. 3426. [3299] On receipt of the muster roll and certificate provided for in the preceding article by the adjutant-general, the same shall be filed by him in his office as a part of the records thereof, and thereafter from the date of such filing such company shall be deemed and held in law a body corporate and politic, with power under its corporate name to take, hold, transfer and convey real or personal property necessary to the purposes of the organization to an amount not exceeding thirty thousand dollars, and with like power under its corporate name to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to prosecute and defend all suits in the courts or elsewhere; to have and use a common seal of such device as it may adopt; to ordain and establish by-laws for the government and regulation of the company affairs not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States and of this state and the orders of the commander-in-chief; and such by-laws to alter and amend at will, and generally to do and perform any and all things necessary and proper to be done in carrying out and perfecting the design of its organization.

Art. 3427. [3300] The adjutant-general shall issue to each company of volunteer guards organized under the provisions of this chapter, a certificate to that effect, under his hand and official seal, and substantially as follows:

Certificate of the adjutant-general.

“The State of Texas,

“Adjutant-General’s Office.

“I, C D, adjutant-general of the state of Texas, do hereby certify that ——— [giving the name of the company] has duly organized as a military company in accordance with the laws of the state of Texas regulating the organization of companies of volunteer guards, and as such company is entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred by such laws.

“In witness whereof, I hereto set my hand and affix the impress of my official seal, on this the ——— day of ———, 18—,

“C D,

[Official Seal.]

“Adjutant-General.”

Art. 3428. [3301] Such certificate shall be evidence in all the courts that the company therein named is duly incorporated; but in suits by or against any company of volunteer guards it shall not be necessary for either party, where the incorporation is alleged, to prove such incorporation unless that fact is denied under oath by the opposite party.

Such certicate evidence.

Art. 3429. [3302] Any uniformed volunteer military company heretofore organized shall be entitled to all the benefits and provisions of this chapter and all other laws relating to the volunteer guards, by filing with the adjutant-general the company muster roll and certificate provided herein for companies of volunteer guards; and the adjutant-general shall issue to them a like certificate as to companies organized under this chapter. Companies heretofore organized and availing themselves of this privilege shall thereafter constitute a part of the volunteer guards.

Companies
heretofore organized.

Art. 3430. [3303] The foregoing provisions of this chapter relate to the formation and organization of infantry companies; but companies of cavalry and light artillery may organize in the same manner as companies of infantry, with such additional officers and under such regulations as the commander-in-chief may prescribe; and when so organized shall be assigned to and constitute a part of the volunteer guards.

Cavalry and artillery companies may be organized.

II. REGIMENTAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.

Shall be organized into brigades, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 13.)

Art. 3431. [3304] The Texas volunteer guard in time of peace shall consist of one major-general, two brigadier-generals, an adjutant-general's department, an inspector-general's department, a quartermaster's department, a subsistence department, an ordnance department, a medical department, a pay department, a bureau of military justice, and such organizations of artillery, cavalry and infantry as the commander-in-chief may direct, not to exceed three thousand men, rank and file, including all departments of the volunteer guard, and which shall be organized into battalions, regiments, brigades and divisions of suitable size, and changed from time to time as the commander-in-chief may deem for the best interests of the service.

Each organization shall be numbered.

Art. 3432. [3305] Each company composing a regiment shall be designated with its proper letter or number, and each regiment, brigade and division shall be numbered as the commander-in-chief may direct. Companies unattached may be designated in orders by its company name.

Regimental organization. (Acts of 1889, p. 13.)

Art. 3433. [3306] Each regiment shall consist of not more than ten companies and a regimental band, and shall have a colonel, a lieutenant-colonel, and a major, all of whom shall be appointed and commissioned by the governor upon the recommendation of the line officers of the regiment. Each colonel shall appoint for his regiment an adjutant and a quartermaster with the rank of first lieutenant, and an assistant surgeon and a chaplain with the rank of captain of infantry. He shall appoint a sergeant-major, quartermaster and commissary sergeant, a hospital steward and a drum-major.

Brigade organization. Ib.

Art. 3434. [3307] Each brigade shall consist of not more than five regiments and shall be under the command of a brigadier-general, to be appointed by the commander-in-chief, and each division shall consist of not more than three brigades and shall be under the command of a major-general, to be appointed by the commander-in-chief.

Staff organization. Ib.

Art. 3435. [3308] Each major-general shall have four aides-de-camp with the rank of captain, to be appointed by him; and each brigadier-general shall have two aides-de-camp with the rank of captain, to be appointed by him. In addition thereto each major-general and each brigadier-general may appoint a quartermaster and commissary sergeant, a hospital steward and a clerk.

III. RANK AND COMMISSION OF OFFICERS.

Rank, how determined.

Art. 3436. [3309] Commissioned officers shall take rank according to the dates of their respective commissions; and between officers of the same grade and date of commission the relative rank shall be determined by lot.

All officers to be commissioned. (Const., art. 4, §20.)

Art. 3437. [3310] The commander-in-chief shall commission all officers, and each person so commissioned shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed in article 3424 for company officers and enlisted men, which oath may be taken before any officer of this state authorized to administer oaths, and shall be filed in the office of the adjutant-general.

IV. UNIFORMS, DRILLS, PARADES AND ENCAMPMENTS.

Each soldier to procure a uniform.

Art. 3438. [3311] Each member of a company of volunteer guards shall, immediately upon the organization of his company, or so soon as he attaches himself thereto if previously organized, provide himself with a uniform in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the commander-in-chief.

Art. 3439. [3312] Nothing in the preceding article contained shall prevent any company from adopting its own uniform, nor from wearing the same except on occasions when the commander-in-chief, or the division, brigade, regimental or company commander may otherwise direct.

Each company may have its own uniform.

Art. 3440. [3313] Each company of volunteer guards shall assemble for parade and drill at least once in each month, at such time and place as may be designated by its commanding officer or by the by-laws of the company.

Company parades and drills.

Art. 3441. [3314] Commanders of regiments, brigades and divisions may assemble their respective commands for purposes of drill and discipline, at convenient points, not oftener than twice in any one year, and subject to such regulations as the commander-in-chief may prescribe.

Regimental and other drills.

Art. 3442. [3315] The volunteer guards shall assemble in encampment once in each year, at such time and place as the commander-in-chief may direct; and in the order for such encampment, its commander-in-chief shall designate the companies, regiments, brigades or divisions, or parts of either, required to assemble thereat, and none other than those designated shall report.

Annual encampment.

Art. 3443. [3316] The commander-in-chief shall also designate the officer to command the troops at such encampment, and he shall also appear at such encampment, unless prevented by sickness, other public business or other good cause, and review and inspect the troops there assembled.

Governor to review troops at encampment.

Art. 3444. [3317] The commanding officer of any encampment of volunteer guards may cause those under his command to perform any field or camp duty he may require, and may place under arrest or in confinement, during such encampment, any member of his command who shall be guilty of insubordination or disorderly or unmilitary conduct, and any person who may trespass upon the grounds of such encampment or in any way interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by the members of his command; and he may prohibit the sale of all spirituous or malt liquors within one mile of such encampment.

Powers of encampment commander.

V. PENALTIES AND THEIR ENFORCEMENT.

Art. 3445. [3318] It shall be the duty of the adjutant-general and the judge-advocate-general to prepare and submit to the commander-in-chief for his approval a code of regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government and regulation of the volunteer guard as will increase its discipline and efficiency, which shall provide for the examination of certain military officers; shall define and regulate the punishment for military offenses; and shall provide for the regulation of courts-martial and courts of inquiry; which code upon its approval shall form part of this law and be distributed to the various organizations, and shall take the place of and annul all company, troop and battery constitutions and by-laws, except as may be allowed by the code.

Code of regulations. Penalties. (Acts of 1839, p. 13.)

VI. COURTS-MARTIAL.

Art. 3446. [3327] For breaches of discipline, misconduct or any other military offenses not herein provided for, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates may be tried by courts-martial convened by the battalion or regimental commander, and may be punished by suspension, dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; such courts to consist of not less than three nor more than five commissioned officers, their findings to be subject to the approval of the officer ordering the court, and their proceedings governed by the United States army regulations relating to courts-martial.

Courts-martial. Ib. p. 14.

Commissioned officers, how tried.

Art. 3447. [3328] Commissioned officers, for neglect of duty, disobedience of orders, or unsoldierly conduct, may be tried by courts-martial, according to the usage of such courts, ordered by the commander-in-chief, who, in such order, shall designate the time and place of holding such court, and the names of the officers composing it, to consist of not less than three nor more than six in number; the senior officer named shall preside and shall be of superior rank to the officer to be tried.

Extent of penalty. (Acts of 1839, p. 14.)

Art. 3448. [3329] The sentences of such courts shall not extend beyond suspension for a definite period, not to exceed twelve months, or dismissal from the service, and shall not be carried into effect without the approval of the commander-in-chief.

VII. REPELLING INVASIONS, SUPPRESSING INSURRECTION AND AIDING THE CIVIL AUTHORITIES.

Duty in case of invasion or insurrection.

Art. 3449. [3330] When an invasion of or an insurrection in the state is made or threatened the commander-in-chief shall call upon the volunteer guards to repel or suppress the same, and it is made their duty to respond immediately to such call.

In case of riot or resistance to the laws.

Art. 3450. [3331] When there is in any county, city or town a tumult, riot, mob or a body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony or breach of the peace, or to do violence to persons or property, or by force and violence to break or resist the laws, or when such tumult, riot, mob, or other unlawful act or violence is threatened, and that fact is made to appear to the commander-in-chief, or to the sheriff of such county, or the mayor of such city or town, the commander-in-chief may issue his order, or such sheriff or mayor may issue a writ directed to any commander of a brigade, regiment, battalion or company of volunteer guards, directing him to order his command, or part thereof, to appear at a time and place therein specified, to aid the civil authority in suppressing such violence and in executing the laws.

Form of the writ.

Art. 3451. [3332] The writ provided for in the preceding article shall be in substance as follows, to-wit:

“The State of Texas,

“To [insert official title] A B, commanding [insert his command]:

“Whereas, it has been made to appear to me [the sheriff of _____ county, or the mayor of _____, as the case may be], that [here state one of the causes of such writ provided for in the preceding article], and that military force is necessary to aid the civil authority in suppressing the same; you are therefore ordered and required to cause your command [or such part thereof as may be desired] to parade immediately at _____, armed and equipped, with ammunition, and with proper officers, then and there to obey such orders as may be given, according to law.

“Herein fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ as your authority for such parade.

“Witness my hand officially, on this the — day of —, 18—. “C D, “Sheriff of — county, Texas [or mayor of —, as the case may be].”

Art. 3452. [3333] The writ may be varied to suit the circumstances of the particular case, and shall be delivered to the officer therein named, and a copy thereof forwarded immediately by the sheriff or mayor to the commander-in-chief. Copy of writ to be forwarded to commander-in-chief.

Art. 3453. [3334] The officer to whom the order of the commander-in-chief of such writ is directed shall, upon its receipt, forthwith order his command, or such portion thereof as may be called for, to parade at the time and place appointed; and shall immediately notify the commander-in-chief of such proceeding, by telegraph if practicable, and also by mail. Officer's duty on receipt of writ.

Art. 3454. [3335] When such troops have appeared at the appointed place, they shall obey and execute such orders as they may then and there receive from the civil authorities charged by law with the suppression of the riot or tumult, or with the enforcement of the laws so threatened or resisted, or the preservation of the public peace. Duty of the troops.

Art. 3455. [3336] The commander-in-chief may detail any organization of volunteer guards, or a part thereof, to assist the civil authorities in guarding prisoners, or in conveying prisoners to any point in this state, or discharging other duties in connection with the execution of the laws, as the public interest or safety at any time seem to require. Troops may be used in guarding prisoners, etc.

VIII. PAY AND EXEMPTIONS.

Art. 3456. [3337] The military forces, when in the actual service of the state in time of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, shall, during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay, rations and allowances for clothing as are or may hereafter be established by law for the army of the United States. Pay, when in active service.

Art. 3457. [3338] There shall be paid to such officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, for any service under articles 3450, 3454 and 3455, the following sums per day for such service, to-wit: Pay, when aiding in the execution of the laws.

1. To all non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, one dollar.
2. To all commissioned officers of the line, below the rank of captain, two dollars.
3. To all commanding officers of companies, three dollars.
4. To all field officers below the rank of colonel, four dollars.
5. To all commanding officers of regiments, five dollars.
6. To all regimental staff officers, two dollars and fifty cents, and to all non-commissioned staff officers, one dollar and fifty cents.
7. To all brigade generals, six dollars.
8. To all brigade staff officers, four dollars.
9. To all major-generals, eight dollars.
10. To all division staff officers, five dollars.
11. All mounted officers and all members of any troop of cavalry or battery of artillery, mounted and equipped, shall be paid one dollar per day for each horse actually used by them.

No pay, except when in service.

Art. 3458. [3339] No officer or soldier of the volunteer guards shall receive any pay or allowance, except when in service, but the state shall make suitable provision for the subsistence and quarters of all troops who may attend at any annual encampment.

Privileges and exemptions. (Const., art. 7, §3.)

Art. 3459. [3340] All officers, musicians and privates of the volunteer guards who comply with all their military duties as prescribed in this chapter shall be entitled to the following privileges and exemptions, to-wit:

1. Exemption from the payment of all poll taxes save the poll tax prescribed by the constitution for the support of public schools.
2. Exemption from the payment of any road or street tax and from any road duty whatsoever under the laws.
3. Exemption from all jury service of every character and description.

Exemption from poll tax regulated.

Art. 3460. [3341] In order to entitle any company of volunteer guards to the exemption specified in the first subdivision of the preceding article, the commanding officer of such company shall annually, between the first and twentieth days of January, file with the assessor of taxes of his county a list of all members of his company who have faithfully discharged all their military duties for the year preceding, and who have been present at the last three preceding regular meetings of the company for parade or drill, or have been excused for non-attendance thereon by reason of illness; such list shall be verified by the affidavit of such commanding officer, and the persons whose names appear on said list shall not be assessed for poll taxes other than the state poll tax of one dollar for the support of public schools, for the current year.

Exemption from road duty regulated.

Art. 3461. [3342] The commanding officer of any company of volunteer guards may likewise prepare and file a similar list, verified by his affidavit, between the first and twentieth days of January of each year, with the clerk of the county court of the county, and the names appearing on said list shall thereafter be exempt from all jury duty in the county court, and from the payment of any road or street tax, or from the performance of any road duty in the county, for the remainder of the current year. The clerks of the county court shall furnish information of the persons so exempt to the proper road overseers of their respective counties.

Exemption from jury duty, how regulated.

Art. 3462. [3343] The commanding officer of any company of volunteer guards may likewise prepare and file a list similar to that prescribed in article 3461, verified by his affidavit, between the first and twentieth days of January of each year, with the clerk of the district court of the county, and the names appearing on said list shall thereafter be exempt from jury duty or service in such court for the remainder of the current year.

Provision for soldiers wounded, etc.

Art. 3463. [3344] Every officer or soldier disabled by wounds in the service shall have a reasonable provision for his maintenance provided him by the state; and the widow and children of every officer or soldier killed in the service shall be suitably provided for by the legislature.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

No fees to officers for administering oaths.

Art. 3464. [3345] No officer shall be entitled to charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering and certifying any oath administered or certified under the provisions of this chapter.

U. S. Army regulations to govern, when.

Art. 3465. [3346] The articles of war and army regulations of the United States, in so far as the same may be applicable and not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, shall constitute the rules for the government of the volunteer guards, with such modifications and changes as the commander-in-chief may direct.

Art. 3466. [3347] On the first day of October of each year the commanding officer of each company of volunteer guards shall cause to be made up and forwarded to the adjutant-general a complete muster roll of his company; and the commanders of divisions, brigades, regiments and companies shall furnish such information pertaining to their respective commands as the commander-in-chief may from time to time require.

Annual and special reports.

Article 3467. [3348] The commander-in-chief, in his capacity as governor, is authorized to draw from the United States government all arms, equipments, munitions or other military stores to which the state may from time to time be entitled for the use of the militia, and may execute such bonds in the name of the state as may be necessary or requisite to secure their issuance.

Governor to draw arms from United States. (Acts Jan. 19, 1858, p. 52; J. R. Aug. 21, 1876, p. 318.) P. D. 90.

Art. 3468. [3349] He shall cause the arms, equipments, munitions or other military property belonging to or under the control of the state to be stored at such points as he may deem most conducive to the interests of the state and the convenience of the people.

Arms to be stored at convenient points. Ib. P. D. 91.

Art. 3469. [3350] Whenever a company of volunteer guards is organized under the provisions of this title, the commanding officer of such company may make a requisition upon the adjutant-general for such arms, ammunition, accouterments and military stores as it may require, and to which it may be entitled, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the adjutant-general, with the approval of the commander-in-chief, to issue to such company the necessary arms, ammunition, accouterments and military stores, upon the compliance of such company with the provisions of this chapter.

Issued to companies of volunteer guards. P. D. 92.

Art. 3470. [3351] Before the issuance of any arms or other military supplies to a company of volunteer guards, the commanding officer of such company must file in the office of the adjutant-general his bond, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum equal to the value of the arms or other military supplies applied for, and conditioned that said company will safely keep such arms or other military supplies and the same promptly return to the state on demand of the governor. Such bond shall be approved by the county judge of the county in which such company is organized, who shall certify thereon, under his hand and the seal of the county court, that the sureties are solvent; and such bond shall not extend to the preservation of ammunition issued to said company, nor to the reasonable wear and tear of arms and equipments.

Bond to be filed before issuance. P. D. 94.

Additional arms may be issued, when.

Art. 3471. [3352] No company shall receive a greater number of arms and equipments than the actual number of active members belonging to such company; but if by reason of increase of membership or other good cause, to be judged of by the adjutant-general, any company should make requisition for additional arms or equipments, the same may be issued in like manner and upon the same conditions as are prescribed for original requisitions.

Arms may be issued to military schools, etc.
P. D. 96.

Art. 3472. [3353] The commander-in-chief may furnish suitable arms and equipments to any military educational institution, upon the written application of the trustees or faculty of such institution, and after they have filed in the office of the adjutant-general their bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which such institution is located, in a sum equal to double the value of such arms and equipments, payable to the governor and his successors in office, and conditioned that such arms shall be safely kept and promptly returned to the state upon the demand of the governor.

Certified copies of bonds to be evidence.

Art. 3473. [3354] Copies of all bonds filed in the office of the adjutant-general, in accordance with provisions of this title or any other law, certified under the hand and seal of office of the adjutant-general, shall be admitted in evidence in all the courts, in the same manner and with like effect as the original would be if duly proven.

Adjutant-general to collect stray arms.
(Act Nov. 12, 1866, p. 188.)

Art. 3474. [3355] The adjutant-general shall, under the direction of the commander-in-chief, from time to time collect such arms, equipments and other military property belonging to the state as may be in the hands of individuals without authority of law, and may store the same, under like direction, at such points as may be deemed most compatible with the public interest and convenience.

Sheriffs to be keepers of arms.

Art. 3475. [3356] The sheriffs of the several counties shall act as keepers of the public arms and other military property belonging to the state in their respective counties. They shall from time to time collect such arms or property as may be liable to loss or in the hands of unauthorized persons, and such property, when collected or turned over to them, to safely keep subject to the order of the commander-in-chief, to whom a report of such collection shall be made; and the official bonds of such shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this article.

Governor to order seizure of certain arms.
P. D. 2424.

Art. 3476. [3357] Whenever it may come to the knowledge of the governor, on the affidavit of a credible person, that any persons have state arms, equipments or other military property of the state in their possession without authority of law, and that such persons fail or refuse to deliver up such property, it shall be his duty forthwith to issue his warrant to the sheriff of the county where such persons may be or reside, commanding such sheriff to seize and take into his possession such arms or other property, and the same to keep subject to the further order of the governor.

Such seizure, how made.

Art. 3477. [3358] Any sheriff receiving a warrant such as is specified in the preceding article, shall proceed without delay to execute the same in the manner therein directed; and in executing such warrant he may summon to his aid the power of the county and any command of volunteer guards or other military organization that may be convenient.

Board of survey.
(Act May 4, 1874, 220.)
P. D. 5327a.

Art. 3478. [3359] The adjutant-general, secretary of state and attorney-general shall constitute a board of survey for the condemnation of damaged and useless arms, ammunition and other military property of the state, to be called together by the adjutant-general whenever he may deem it advisable.

Art. 3479. [3360] Whenever any arms, ammunition or other military property belonging to the state may be condemned by the board of survey provided for in the preceding article, the adjutant-general, under the direction of the commander-in-chief, shall sell the same as soon as practicable, at public auction for cash, at any point in the state deemed proper, after having given notice of the time and place of sale in such manner as the commander-in-chief may direct.

Property condemned shall be sold.
 Ib.
 P. D. 5827b.

Art. 3480. [3361] The adjutant-general shall embody in his annual report to the governor all sales made by him under the provisions of the preceding article, specifying particularly the articles sold, the time and place of sale, the names of the purchasers and the amounts received; and within thirty days after any such sale he shall pay the proceeds thereof into the state treasury, after deducting therefrom the necessary expenses of such sale, which proceeds shall constitute a part of the military fund of the state.

School lands reserved, except, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 116, §1.)

Article 3481. All the public school, university, asylum and public lands containing valuable mineral deposits are hereby reserved from sale or other disposition, except as herein provided, and are declared free and open to exploration and purchase under regulations prescribed by law by citizens of the United States and those who have declared their intention of becoming such.

To be classified. Ib. §2.

Art. 3482. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to have a map made showing the location of all public school, university, asylum and public lands which are unsold; and it shall be the duty of the geological and mineralogical survey to examine all such lands as soon as practicable, and to designate such tracts as are apparently mineral bearing as mineral lands for the purposes of this title. If mineral lands are afterward claimed to exist at other locations than are so designated, they shall also be examined and classified accordingly.

Mining districts. Ib. §3.

Art. 3483. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to unite a suitable number of these mineral locations into mining districts, in each of which shall be a surveyor who must either be the surveyor of the district or county or a regularly appointed deputy, and an officer qualified to administer oaths.

Extent of claims. Ib. §4.

Art. 3484. A mining claim upon veins or lodes of quartz or other rocks in places bearing silver, cinnabar, lead, tin, copper or other valuable metals, excluding deposits of iron ore, coal, kaolin, baryta, salt, marble, fire clays, valuable building stones, oil or natural gas, may equal but shall not exceed one thousand five hundred feet along the vein or lode. No such claim shall exceed twenty-one acres in total area. The end lines of each claim shall be parallel to each other, and all claims shall be in the form of a parallelogram or square unless such form is prevented by adjoining rights or boundaries of the section in which the claim lies. The locator under this title shall be entitled to the use of all the superficial area between the inclosing lines of the claim, and to all minerals thereon, and between the side and end lines extending downward vertically until the rights secured by posting are forfeited as provided, and in all conflicts priority of location shall decide.

Art. 3485. The locators of any mining claim shall post up at the center of one of the end lines of the same a written notice, stating the name of the locator and of the claim, and the date of posting, and describe the claim by giving the number of feet in length and width, and the direction the claim lies in length from the notice, together with the section, if known, and the county; and shall place stone monuments at the four corners, and otherwise describe corners so that they can be readily found. The notice shall be placed in a conspicuous place so as to be readily seen.

Notice to be posted by locator.
Ib. §5.

Art. 3486. The locators shall, within three months after the date of posting the required notice, sink a shaft at least ten feet in depth by four feet square, or a tunnel of the same dimensions ten feet in length, or an open cross cut twenty feet in length, four feet or more wide, and ten feet in depth at its shallowest part, and shall within said time file with the county surveyor or the district surveyor of the county, as the case may be, an application in writing for the survey of their claim, which application shall be accompanied with a fee of twenty dollars, unless its tender is waived, and also with an affidavit attached thereto that the required work, signifying it, has been done, and that the locators have found valuable mineral on the claim; and the affidavit shall state the date of the first posting of the notice on the claim by the applicants; and further, that the notice has not been post-dated or changed in its date. Upon receiving said application and fee the surveyor shall record the application, together with the affidavit, and he shall thereupon forthwith proceed to survey said claim and forward the field-notes to the commissioner of the general land office within thirty days after filing the application, in default of which he shall pay the aggrieved party such damages as he may sustain, and it shall be the duty of the applicants to see that the field-notes are so returned. The fee of twenty dollars shall cover all the services provided for in this article. In all other cases enumerated in this article the fee shall be the same allowed county clerks for similar services.

Preliminaries to application.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3487. Annually after the filing of the application for a survey as hereinbefore provided, the claimant shall, until after application is made for a patent as hereinbefore provided, do one hundred dollars worth of work in developing each claim; but where claims adjoin, the amount of work may be done on one for all belonging to the same party. The value of such shall be estimated at what it could be contracted for at a fair cash price, but the cost of tools and implements and the expense of going to and returning from the mine shall not be included in said estimate. And shall in addition to this amount of work, annually pay to the treasurer of the state the sum of fifty dollars on each and every claim filed upon, which amount shall be credited to the fund to which the land belongs upon which the claim is located; provided, that all amounts so paid shall be a credit upon the final payment for such land provided for in article 3489 of this title. Within one month after the expiration of each year, the owner shall make and file with the surveyor his affidavit, setting forth specifically what the work consists of in detail and the value thereof, and shall also file with the surveyor at the same time the receipt of the state treasurer for the amount of cash payment provided for herein or a certified copy thereof. Upon the failure of any one of several co-owners to contribute his proportion of the expenditures required in this title within the necessary time, the co-owners who have performed the labor or made the improvements, or paid the fees or other expenditures required in this title, may, at the expiration of the year in which the same is to be done, give notice in writing or notice by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the mining is, if any; if none in such county, then in the newspaper published nearest to the mine, for at least once a week for ninety days. If after such personal notice in writing or by publication such delinquent should fail or refuse to contribute his proportion of the expenditure required by this title, his interest in the claim shall become the property of his co-workers who have made the required expenditures. An affidavit by the co-owners forfeiting the interest of such delinquent shall, when recorded in the office of the proper surveyor, be sufficient evidence of such delinquency.

How payments to the state to be regulated.
Ib. §7.

Ownership of lodes in case of tunnel, etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3488. When a tunnel is run for the development of a vein or lode, or for the discovery of mines, the owner of such tunnel shall have the right of possession of all veins or lodes within two thousand feet from the face of such claim, on the line thereof, not previously known to exist, discovered in such tunnel, to the same extent as if discovered from the surface; and locations on the line of such tunnel of veins or lodes not appearing on the surface, made by other parties after the commencement of the tunnel and while the same is being prosecuted with reasonable diligence, shall be invalid, but failure to prosecute the work in the tunnel for six months shall be considered as an abandonment of the right of all undiscovered veins on the line of said tunnel.

Patents.
Ib. §9.

Art. 3489. Whenever the owners of any mining claim shall desire a patent, they shall, within five years after the filing of the application for survey, file their application for a patent upon their claim with the commissioner of the general land office, accompanied with the receipt of the state treasurer, showing that twenty-five dollars per acre has been paid by the applicant for patent to the state treasurer. No patent shall be issued in any case until the expiration of sixty days from the filing of the application. Upon filing said application the applicant shall cause to be published for four successive weeks, one insertion each week, in some newspaper published in the county in which the mine is situated, if there be any, if not, then in some newspaper published in the nearest county to the mine in which a newspaper is published, a notice stating the fact that application has been filed for patent on the claim (or claims), describing them clearly. A copy of the printed notice with affidavit that it has been published as required by this article, and that all the requirements of this title have been complied with, shall be filed with the commissioner of the general land office before patent shall issue. After the expiration of thirty days after the last insertion of said notice patent shall issue unless protest has been filed.

Patents not included in article 3495.
Ib. §10.
(Amend. 1893,
p. 100.)

Art. 3490. Any person shall have the right to purchase and obtain patent, by compliance with this article, on any public school, university, asylum, and public lands, containing valuable deposits of kaolin, baryta, salt, marble, fire-clay, iron ore, coal, oil, natural gas, gypsum, nitrates, mineral paints, asbestos, marls, natural cement, clay, onyx, mica, precious stones, and stone valuable for ornamental purposes, or other valuable building material, in legal subdivisions in quantity not exceeding one section; provided, that where any such parties shall have heretofore expended, or shall hereafter expend, five thousand dollars in developing the aforesaid mineral resources of any of said lands, such parties shall have the right to buy one additional section and no more, and to include in the purchase any section, or part thereof, on which the work may have been done. The lands so purchased may be in different sections, and all embraced in one or more obligations, not to exceed the quantity stated. The purchaser shall pay not less than fifteen dollars per acre where the lands shall be situated ten miles or less of any railroad in operation, and not less than ten dollars per acre where the land is over ten miles from such railroad; one-tenth of the purchase money to be paid in cash to the state treasurer, and the purchaser shall file the treasurer's receipt with the commissioner of the general land office, together with an obligation to pay the state of Texas the remainder in nine equal annual installments, with interest at six per cent per annum from date, subject to a forfeiture as in other cases. And all said lands are reserved from sale or other disposition than under this title; and where application is made to buy any of the lands herein named, except under this title, the purchaser shall swear that there are none of the minerals named in this title on said lands, so far as he knows or has reason to believe, or does believe; provided, further, that any party hereinbefore named who shall, prior to the passage of this article, have been the first to work on said lands for the development of said mineral resources, and who has abandoned said work, and is qualified at passage of this article to buy, shall have a prior preference right of doing so for thirty days after this article goes into effect; provided, further, this article shall not authorize the sale of lands containing valuable deposits of gold, silver, lead, cinnabar, copper, or other valuable metal.

Art. 3491. Any person desiring to contest the issuance of a patent may do so by filing with the commissioner of the general land office a protest setting forth the grounds of objection generally, and that protestant has an interest in the subject matter, which protest shall also state that the same is presented in good faith and not to injure or delay the applicants, or any of them, and the same shall be verified by affidavit; whereupon it shall be the duty of the commissioner to withhold patent until the controversy is ended; provided, that if the protestant shall not, within thirty days after the filing of his protest, institute suit in the court having jurisdiction thereof in the county where the claims are located, his protest shall constitute no further barrier to the issuance of a patent. A certified copy of the petition or a certificate of the clerk of the court where suit is pending shall be sufficient evidence to the commissioner of the pendency of the suit and of the date of filing said suit. When the land in controversy lies partly in two counties, suit may be brought in either. More than one claim shall not be embraced in the same patent or application. The suits here provided for shall be entitled to precedence of trial on the docket.

Art. 3492. When a location has been made and land disposed of by the state since the passage of an act for disposition of minerals on the land embraced in article 3481 of this title, if such location was made subsequent to the disposition by the state of such lands, and the locator or his assignees have not abandoned said claim, but are working it in good faith, the locator and his assignees shall nevertheless be entitled to the mineral and to the use of the superficial area as in other cases; and if the case is such that the fee in the land can not pass by patent, a patent may issue to all the minerals in the claims, and shall be a license from the state to enter upon and work said claim and extract the mineral therefrom. In cases provided for in this article when the fee does not pass, the price shall be twenty dollars per acre, and the locator or his assignee shall in addition, pay to the owner of the land in fee the fair value of the land so taken up by his claim, and roads and fences necessary to give him ingress and egress thereto, and be liable for any damages which may result to owner of the land in fee. All other provisions of this title shall apply to said location.

Forfeiture of claims, etc.
Ib. §13.

Art. 3493. All claims upon which patent has not been applied for within five years next after the application for survey, or which have not been surveyed and the field-notes returned to the general land office within the time prescribed therefor as hereinbefore provided, or upon which the assessment work has not been done, an affidavit therefor, filed as provided by this title, shall be and are declared forfeited without judicial action of any kind and subject to location as originally, but not by any one interested in the claim at the time of forfeiture; and any location for or on behalf of any such party shall be wholly void. Whenever any such claim shall be relocated, the locators and each of them shall make affidavit that the location is made without any contract or agreement of any kind that any of the parties owning an interest in the location before relocation has or is to have any interest in the same. In all other cases where affidavit is required by this title it may be made by one or more of the parties cognizant of the facts.

Relocation of forfeited claims.
Ib. §14.

Art. 3494. No claim which has been forfeited for any cause shall be subject to relocation for a period of thirty days next thereafter; and the party owning the same may apply to the land commissioner within that time for relief, and if it appear to him from the proof submitted that the forfeiture was not occasioned by the negligence of the owner, but by circumstances which he could not reasonably control, the commissioner may, within that time, in his discretion, grant relief against the forfeiture, and if he grants such relief he shall at once forward his order to that effect to the surveyor, who shall file the same for record in his office.

Reservation of mineral in sale of lands.
Ib. §15.

Art. 3495. Whenever any application shall be made to buy or obtain title to any of the lands embraced in article 3481 of this title, except where the application is made under this title, the applicant shall make oath that there is not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any of the mineral embraced in this title thereon, and when the commissioner has any doubt in relation to the matter he shall forbear action until he is satisfied. And any sale or disposition of said lands shall be understood to be with a reservation of the mineral thereon to be subject to location as herein provided.

Placer mining.
Ib. §16.

Art. 3496. Claims usually called placers, including all forms of metallic deposits, excepting veins of quartz or rock in place, shall be subject to entry and patent under like circumstances and conditions, and upon similar proceedings as are provided for vein or lode claims. All placer claims located shall conform as near as practicable with existing surveys and their subdivisions, and no such location shall include more than forty acres for each individual claimant, and shall not exceed three hundred and twenty acres for any association of persons. The price which shall be paid for such placer shall not be less than ten dollars per acre, together with all costs of proceedings as before provided.

Art. 3497. When non-mineral land, not contiguous to the vein or lode, is used by the prospector of such vein or lode for mining or milling purposes, such non-adjacent surface ground may be embraced and included in an application for a patent for such vein or lode, and the same may be patented therewith subject to the same preliminary requirements as to survey and notice as are applicable to veins or lodes; but no location of such non-adjacent lands shall exceed ten acres, and payment for the same must be made at the same rate as fixed by this title for the superficies of the lode. The owner of a quartz mill or reduction works, not owning a mine in connection therewith, may also receive a patent for a mill site as provided in this article.

What may be included in patent.
Ib. §17.

Art. 3498. Any owner or worker of mining claim under this title is authorized to fell and remove for building and mining purposes any timber or any trees growing or being upon unoccupied lands as described in article 3481, said lands being mineral and subject to entry only as mineral lands, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the protection of timber and undergrowth upon such lands and for other purposes.

Taking timber on mining lands.
Ib. §18.

Art. 3498a. All public school, university, asylum and public lands specially included under the operation of this title, all the lands now owned by the state situated within the reservation known as the "Pacific Reservation," which were taken off the market and reserved from sale by an act approved January 22, 1883, containing valuable mineral deposits, are hereby reserved from sale or other disposition, except as herein provided, and are declared free and open to exploration and purchase under regulations prescribed by law, by citizens of the United States and those who have declared their intention of becoming such; provided, that all who have located and recorded valid claims under previous valid laws and have not abandoned same, but are engaged in developing same, shall have a prior preference right for ninety days after the passage of this title in which to relocate same under this title.

Reserved lands opened to exploration and purchase, etc. (Act 1895, p. 197.)

Art. 3498b. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office immediately upon the passage of this title to have a map made showing the location of all public school, university, asylum and public lands which are unsold at that date, and it shall be the duty of the geological and mineralogical survey to examine all such lands as soon as practicable thereafter, and to designate such tracts as are apparently mineral bearing as mineral lands for the purposes of this title. If mineral lands are afterwards claimed to exist at other locations than are so designated they shall also be examined and classified accordingly.

Commissioner to map lands.
Ib.

Art. 3498c. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to unite a suitable number of these mineral locations into mining districts, in each of which shall be a surveyor, who must either be the surveyor of the district or county or a regular appointed deputy and an officer qualified to administer oaths.

No such claim shall exceed twenty-one acres in total area. The end lines of each claim shall be parallel to each other, and all claims shall be in the form of a parallelogram or square, unless such form is prevented by adjoining rights or boundaries of the section in which the claim lies. The locator under this title shall be entitled to the use of all the superficial area between the enclosing lines of the claim, and to all minerals thereon and between the side and end lines, extending downwards vertically, until the rights secured by posting are forfeited as provided; and in all conflicts priority of location shall decide.

Ib.

Art. 3498f. The locator shall, within three months after the date of posting the required notice, sink a shaft at least ten feet in depth by four feet square, or a tunnel of the same dimensions ten feet in length, or an open cross cut twenty feet in length, four feet or more wide and ten feet in depth at its shallowest part, and shall within said time file with the county surveyor or the district surveyor of the county, as the case may be, an application in writing for the survey of the claim, which application shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty dollars, unless its tender is waived, and also with an affidavit attached thereto that the required work, signifying that it has been done, and that the locators have found valuable minerals on the claim; and the affidavit shall state the date of the first posting of the notice on the claim by the applicants, and further, that the notice has not been post-dated or changed in its date. Upon receiving said application and fee the surveyor shall record the application, together with the affidavit, and he shall thereupon forthwith proceed to survey said claim, and forward the field notes to the commissioner of the general land office within thirty days after filing the application, in default of which he shall pay the aggrieved party such damages as he may sustain, and in addition thereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and it shall be the duty of the applicants to see that the field notes are so returned. The fee of twenty dollars shall cover all the services provided for in this title. In all other cases enumerated in this title the fee shall be the same allowed county clerks for similar services.

Claimant must do what pending patent.
Ib.

Art. 3498g. Annually after the filing of the application for a survey as hereinbefore provided, the claimant shall, until after the application is made for a patent, as hereinafter provided, do one hundred dollars' worth of work in developing each claim; but where claims adjoin, the amount of work may be done on one for all belonging to the same party. The value of such shall be estimated at what it could be contracted for at a fair cash price, but the cost of tools and implements and the expense of going to and returning from the mine shall not be included in said estimate. Within one month after the expiration of each year the owner shall make and file with the surveyor his affidavit setting forth specifically what the work consists of in detail, and the value thereof. Upon the failure of any one of several owners to contribute his proportion of the expenditures required in this title within the necessary time, the co-owners who have performed the labor or made the improvements or paid the fees or other expenditures required in this title, may at the expiration of the year in which the same is to be done, give notice in writing or notice by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the claim is, if any; if none in such county, then in the newspaper published nearest the mine, for at least once a week for ninety days. If after such personal notice in writing or by publication such delinquent shall fail or refuse to contribute his proportion of the expenditure required by this title, his interest in the claim shall become the property of his co-workers who have made the required expenditures. An affidavit by the co-owners forfeiting the interest of such delinquent shall, when recorded in the office of the proper surveyor, be sufficient evidence of such delinquency.

Art. 3498h. When a tunnel is run for the development of a vein or lode or for the discovery of mines, the owner of such tunnel shall have the right of possession of all veins or lodes within two thousand feet of the face of such claim on the line thereof, not previously known to exist, discovered in such tunnel to the same extent as if discovered from the surface; and locations on the line of such tunnel of veins or lodes not appearing on the surface made by other parties after the commencement of the tunnel and while the same is being prosecuted with reasonable diligence shall be invalid; but failure to prosecute the work in the tunnel for six months shall be considered as an abandonment of the right of all undiscovered veins on the line of said tunnel.

Rights accruing to the claimant.
Ib.

Art. 3498i. Whenever the owners of any mining claim shall desire a patent, they shall, within five years after the filing of the application for survey, file their application for a patent upon their claim with the commissioner of the general land office, accompanied by the receipt of the state treasurer showing that twenty-five dollars per acre has been paid by the applicant for patent to the state treasurer. Whereupon such patent shall issue unless protest is filed as hereinafter provided for in article 3498k.

Ib.

Art. 3498j. Within twelve months after the filing of the affidavit hereinafter provided for, any person or association of persons qualified as required by article 3498a, shall have the right to purchase and obtain patent by compliance with this title, or any of the lands of the state which are specified or included in article 3498a, containing valuable deposits of kaolin, baryta, salt, marble, fire clay, iron ore, coal, oil, natural gas, gypsum, nitrates, mineral paints, asbestos, marl, natural cement, clay, onyx, mica, precious stones or any other non-metallic mineral and stones valuable for ornamental or building purposes or other valuable building material, in legal subdivisions, in quantity not exceeding one section; provided, that where any such parties shall have heretofore expended, or shall hereafter expend, five thousand dollars in developing the aforesaid mineral re- one additional section and no more, and to include in the purchase sources of any of said lands, such party shall have the right to buy any section or part thereof on which the work may have been done. The land so purchased may be in different sections, and all embraced in one or more obligations, not to exceed the quantity stated. The purchaser shall pay not less than fifteen dollars per acre where the land shall be situated ten miles or less of any railroad in operation, and not less than ten dollars per acre where the land is over ten miles from such railroad, one-tenth of the purchase money to be paid in cash to the state treasurer on or before the expiration of the twelve months aforesaid; and the purchasers shall file the treasurer's receipt with the commissioner of the general land office, together with an obligation to pay the state of Texas the remainder in nine equal annual installments, with interest at four per cent per annum from date, subject to forfeiture as in other cases; and all said lands are reserved from sale or other disposition than under this title; and where application is made to buy any of the lands herein named except under this title, the purchaser shall swear that there are none of the minerals named in this title on said lands, so far as he knows or has reason to believe or does believe; provided, further, that any party hereinbefore named, who shall prior to the passage of this title have been the first to work on said lands for the development of said mineral resources, and who has not abandoned said work, and is qualified at passage of this title to buy, shall have a prior preference right of doing so for thirty days after this title goes into effect; provided, further, this article shall not authorize the sale of lands containing valuable deposits of gold, silver, lead, cinnabar, copper or other valuable metal; provided, further, that any person desiring to acquire any lands under the provisions of this article shall have the right to prospect said land for a period of twelve months before making any payment thereon, upon condition that said prospector shall file with the proper surveyor his affidavit in writing, setting forth that he has gone upon the land in good faith with the intention of purchasing the same under the provisions of this article, and in said affidavit give a reasonable description of said land. After the filing of said affidavit the said surveyor shall immediately forward same to the commissioner of the general land office, who shall take said section off the market until the expiration of said twelve months after the filing of said affidavit with the surveyor.

Right of purchase.
Ib.

1b.

Art. 3498k. Any person desiring to contest the issuance of patent may do so by filing with the commissioner of the general land office a protest setting forth the grounds of objection generally, and that protestant has an interest in the subject matter, which protest shall also state that the same is presented in good faith and not to injure or delay the applicants or any of them, and the same shall be verified by affidavit. Whereupon it shall be the duty of the commissioner to withhold patent until the controversy is ended; provided, that if the protestant shall not within thirty days after filing his protest institute suit in the court having jurisdiction thereof in the county where the claims are located, his protest shall constitute no further barrier to the issuance of patent. A certified copy of the petition or a certificate of the clerk of the court where suit is pending shall be sufficient evidence to the commissioner of the pendency of the suit, and of the date of filing said suit. When the land in controversy lies partly in two counties suit may be brought in either. More than one claim shall not be embraced in the same patent or application. The suits here provided for shall be entitled to precedence of trial on the docket.

Art. 3498l. All claims upon which patent has not been applied for within five years next after the application for survey, or which have not been surveyed and the field notes returned to the general land office within the time prescribed therefor as hereinbefore provided, or upon which the assessment work has not been done, an affidavit therefor filed as provided by this article, shall be and are declared forfeited without judicial action of any kind, and subject to location as originally, but not by any one interested in the claim at the time of forfeiture, and any location for or on behalf of any such party shall be wholly void. Whenever any such claim shall be relocated, the locators and each of them shall make affidavit that the location is made without any contract or agreement of any kind that any of the parties owning an interest in the location before the relocation has or is to have any interest in the same. In all other cases where affidavit is required by this title it may be made by one or more of the parties cognizant of the facts.

Forfeiture of claims.
Ib.

Art. 3498m. No claim which has been forfeited for any cause shall be subject to relocation for a period of thirty days next thereafter, and the party owning the same may apply to the land commissioner within that time for relief, and if it appear to him from the proof submitted that the forfeiture was not occasioned by the negligence of the owner, but by circumstances which he could not reasonably control, the commissioner may within that time, in his discretion, grant relief against the forfeiture, and if he be granted such relief he shall at once forward his order to that effect to the surveyor, who shall file the same for record in his office.

Relocation of forfeited claim.
Ib.

Art. 3498n. Whenever any application shall be made to buy or obtain title to any of the lands embraced in article 3498a, except where the application is made under this title, the applicant shall make oath that there is not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any of the minerals embraced in this title thereon, and when the commissioner has any doubt in relation to the matter he shall forbear action until he is satisfied. Any such sale or disposition of said lands shall be understood to be, with the reservation of the minerals thereon, to be subject to location as herein provided.

Applicant to make oath.
Ib.

Art. 3498o. Claims usually called placers, including all forms of metallic deposits, excepting veins of quartz or rock in place, shall be subject to entry and patent under like circumstances and conditions and upon similar proceedings as are provided for vein or lode claims. All placer claims located shall conform as near as practicable with existing surveys and their subdivisions, and no such location shall include more than forty acres for each individual claimant, and shall not exceed three hundred and twenty acres for any association of persons. The price which shall be paid for such placer shall not be less than ten dollars per acre, together with all costs of proceedings as before provided.

Placer claims subject to location.
Ib.

Art. 3498p. Where non-mineral land not contiguous to the vein or lode is issued by the prospector of such vein or lode for mining or milling purposes, such non-adjacent surface ground may be embraced and included in an application for a patent for such vein or lode, and the same may be patented therewith, subject to the same preliminary requirements as to survey and notice as are applicable to veins or lodes; but no location of such non-adjacent lands shall exceed ten acres, and payment for the same must be made at the same rate as fixed by this title for the superficies of the lode. The owner of a quartz mill or reduction works, not owning a mine in connection therewith, may also receive a patent for a mill site, as provided in this section.

Application may embrace non-adjacent non-mineral land.
Ib.

Purposes for which timber may be felled.
Ib.

Art. 3498q. Any owner or worker of mining claim under this title is authorized to fell and remove for building and mining purposes any timber or any tree growing or being upon unoccupied lands as described in article 3498a, said lands being mineral and subject to entry only as mineral lands, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the protection of timber and undergrowth upon such lands and for other purposes.

Vested rights not affected.
Ib.

Art. 3498r. Nothing in this title shall ever be so construed as to either destroy, invalidate or impair any valid claim, right or interest existing in, to or concerning any lands whatever at the passage of this title, of any pre-emptor, purchaser, claimant, actual settler, locator or other person whatsoever.

Proceeds appropriated.

Art. 3498s. The net proceeds of all sales of mining lands under the provisions of this title shall inure to the benefit of the state and the respective funds for which the lands mentioned in article 3498a are now set apart under the constitution and the laws of the state, and it shall be the duty of the comptroller, state treasurer and commissioner of the general land office to see to it and have said proceeds so paid rightly placed to the credit of the particular and proper fund.

Surveyors to administer oaths; repealing clause.

Art. 3498t. For the purpose of effectually carrying out the provisions of this title all county or district surveyors are hereby especially authorized and empowered to administer oaths, take affidavits and make certificates thereof; provided, further, that all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this title, or any part thereof, are hereby especially repealed.

Article 3498u. Any minor having a sufficient cause of action, and who has no legal guardian, can bring suit in any of the courts of this state by next friend, and such next friend shall have the same rights concerning such suit and the matter therein involved as if he were guardian of such minor; provided, he shall not be relieved from giving security for cost, or affidavit in lieu thereof, and can not collect the proceeds of any moneyed judgment he may recover, except as herein specified.

When minor may sue by next friend. (Acts 1893, p. 3.)

Art. 3498v. Such next friend, or the attorney of record, of such minor may enter into such agreed judgment or compromise in such suit as the court may approve, and the decree entered upon such agreement or compromise, when approved by the court, shall be forever binding on said minor, and can divest title out of the min[or] or vest it in him, when the court is satisfied such decree is for the best interest of the minor, under all the circumstances; and the court may hear evidence touching upon such agreement or compromise before approving the same.

Next friend may compromise, etc. Ib.

Art. 3498w. Whenever in any suit pending in this state any minor recovers a personal judgment for money or other personal property in which the interest of the minor does not exceed the value of five hundred dollars, and said minor has no guardian, such next friend or any person authorized by the court to do so, by an order entered of record, may take charge of said money or property for the benefit of said minor upon giving bond in such sum as shall be ordered by the court, which shall not be less than double the value of the property, conditioned that he will pay over said money and lawful interest thereon and deliver said property and its increase to the minor when he becomes of age, or to his legally qualified guardian when demanded, and that he will pay or deliver the same to such person appointed by the court, when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the minor as ordered by the court.

May collect certain personal judgments, etc. Ib.

Art. 3498x. Such person who takes such money or property shall receive no fees or commissions for caring for or handling the same, but shall receive such compensation for caring for or handling the same as may be allowed by the court, and shall make such disposition thereof and at all times as the court may order; may be re-

When may have disabilities removed. (Acts of 1881, p. 16, §1.)

Article 3499. Any minor in this state over the age of nineteen years, who may desire to have his disabilities as a minor removed, shall, by a bill or petition, present to the district court of the county where he may reside the cause or causes existing which make it advisable or advantageous to said minor to have his disabilities removed, which bill or petition shall be sworn to by some person cognizant of the facts set out in said bill or petition.

Proceedings for removal. Ib. §2.

Art. 3500. Said petition or bill shall be docketed on the trial docket of the court, and may be heard by the court either in regular order or at any time during term time, and if it shall appear to the court that the ground or causes set out are sufficient, and that it is advisable, or will be advantageous to such minor, in person or property, to have his disabilities as a minor removed, the court shall enter up a decree removing the disabilities of said minor, and cause it to be entered of record among the decrees and judgments of court.

Shall be deemed of full age. Ib. §3.

Art. 3501. After the removal of such disabilities of minority, the said minor shall be deemed and held for all legal purposes, of full age, and shall be held responsible, and shall have all the privileges and advantages as if he were of full age, saving only that he shall not vote until he arrives at the full age of twenty-one years.

Notice, on whom served. Ib. §4.

Art. 3502. In all proceedings under this title, a copy of the petition shall be served upon the father of the minor, if living within the state, and, if he be dead, that fact shall be mentioned in the petition. If the father of the minor be not living, then a copy of the petition shall be served upon the county judge of the county in which the proceeding is instituted, and in all such cases the court hearing the application shall appoint a special guardian, whose duty it shall be, in connection with the county judge, to represent the true interests of the minor, as they shall understand it, in aiding or resisting the application of the minor. An allowance shall be made by the district judge presiding to the special guardian, which shall be paid out of the estate of the minor.

Article 3503. There shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a convenient number of notaries public for each organized county, and one notary public for each unorganized county, in this state, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years from the first day of June after appointment at a regular session of the legislature; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to exempt them from jury service.

Bond and oath. (Acts of 1881, p. 94.)

Art. 3504. Every person who may be appointed a notary public, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the county court of his county, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, with the certificate of the officer administering the same; said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and deposited in said office, and shall not be void on the first recovery, and may be sued on in the name of any party injured from time to time until the whole amount thereof has been recovered.

To be removed, when. Ib. §3.

Art. 3505. Every notary public who shall be guilty of any willful neglect of duty or malfeasance in office may be removed from office in the manner provided by law.

Office to become vacant, when. Ib. §4.

Art. 3506. Whenever any notary public shall remove permanently from the county for which he was appointed, or an ex officio notary public from his precinct, his office shall thereupon be deemed vacant.

Seal, and what it shall contain. Ib. §5.

Art. 3507. Every notary public shall provide a seal of office, whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points, and the words "Notary Public, County of _____, Texas," around the margin (the blank to be filled with the name of the county for which the officer is appointed), and he shall authenticate all his official acts therewith; and any notary public or other officer required by law to keep and use a seal, who shall use in attesting any instrument any seal not such as is required by law to keep and use for that purpose, or shall fail or refuse to deliver to the county clerk of his county his seal, record books and all public papers pertaining to his office, or any of them, in case of his resignation or removal from the county, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Art. 3508. Whenever the office of notary public shall be vacated by resignation, removal or death, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county where said notary resides to obtain and deposit in his office the seal, record books and all public papers belonging in the office of said notary; provided, that the seal of any notary vacating his office may be sold by the owner thereof to any qualified notary public in the county.

Duty of county clerk when office becomes vacant.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3509. Notaries public may take acknowledgments or proof of all instruments of writing in the manner provided by law, to entitle them to registration, and give certificates of all such acknowledgments and proof under their hand and official seals; they may take the examination and acknowledgments of married women to all deeds and instruments of writing, conveying or charging their separate property, of their interest in the homestead, in the manner provided by law.

Their powers.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3510. [3368] Whenever any notary public shall vacate his office in any manner, his record books and all public papers in his office shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of his county.

Duty on vacating office.

Art. 3511. Every notary public shall have power to administer oaths and give certificates thereof under his hand and official seal. He may take the proof or acknowledgments of all instruments of writing relating to commerce and navigation, and also letters of attorney and other instruments of writing, make declarations and protest, and certify under his hand and seal the truth of the matters or things done by virtue of his office.

Shall have power to administer oaths, etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3512. Every notary public shall procure and keep a well-bound book, in which shall be entered the date of all instruments acknowledged before him, the date of such acknowledgments, the name of the grantor or maker, the place of his residence or alleged residence, whether personally known or introduced, and if introduced, the name and residence or alleged residence of the party introducing him; if the instrument be proved by a witness, the residence of such witness, whether such witness is personally known to him or introduced; if introduced, the name and residence of the party introducing him; the name and residence of the grantee; if land is conveyed or charged by such instrument, the name of the original grantee thereof shall be kept, and the county where the land is situated. The book herein required to be kept, and the statements herein required to be entered, shall be an original public record, and the same shall be open to inspection by any citizen at all reasonable times; and such notary public shall give a certified copy of any record in his office to any person applying therefor on payment of all fees thereon.

Shall keep a well-bound book.
Ib. §9.

Art. 3513. Notaries public shall have power to take the depositions of witnesses in the manner prescribed by law; to attest the oath of any person to a petition or answer in any suit, and the same when so attested shall be valid in all the courts of this state.

May take depositions.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3514. Copies of all records, declarations, protests and other official acts of notaries public may be certified by the county clerk with whom they are deposited, and shall have the same authority as if certified by the notary by whom they were originally made.

Copies of records.
Ib. §11.

Art. 3515. When notaries public have been appointed by the governor and shall have qualified, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish to the clerks of the county courts a printed list of all notaries public so appointed and qualified, and it shall be the duty of said clerks to preserve said list for public inspection and post a copy thereof on the court house door.

Ib. §12.

To qualify,
when.
Ib. §13.

Art. 3516. When a notary is appointed the secretary of state shall forward the commission to the clerk of the county court of the county where the party resides, and the said clerk shall immediately notify said party to appear before him within ten days, pay for his commission and qualify according to law; provided, that if said party be absent from the county, or sick at the time of reception of said commission by the clerk, then he shall have ten days from his return to said county in which to appear and qualify.

Clerk shall notify secretary of state.
Ib.

Art. 3517. The clerk receiving the commission shall indorse thereon the day on which notice was given, and if the party pay the state fee for commission and qualify according to law, the said clerk shall notify the secretary of state of his qualification, giving date of same, and remit the fee to said officer; but if the party fails to qualify and pay the fee within the limited time the appointment shall be void, and the clerk shall certify on the back of the commission that the party has failed to qualify, and return it to the secretary of state.

"Incom- petency," what is. (1 Bish. Cr. L., §§230, 237, 240.)

Art. 3534. [3393] By "official misconduct," as used in this title with reference to county officers, is meant any unlawful behavior in relation to the duties of his office, willful in its character, of any officer intrusted in any manner with the administration of justice or the execution of the laws; and under this head of official misconduct are included any willful or corrupt failure, refusal or neglect of an officer to perform any duty enjoined on him by law.

"Official mis- conduct," what is. (Trigg v. State, T. L. J., June 26, 1878; 2 Bouv. Dic. in verb. Bishop supra.)

Art. 3535. [3394] The two preceding articles shall apply also to mayors and aldermen, whose removal is hereafter provided for in this title.

Two preced- ing articles apply to may- or and aldermen.

Art. 3536. [3395] By "habitual drunkenness," as used in this title in relation to county officers, is meant the frequent and customary use to excess of intoxicating drinks, resulting in that condition of the body and the mind produced by the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, spirituous, vinous or malt, confirmed by habit.

"Habitual drunken- ness," what is. (Trigg v. State, Bish. Cr. Law, ch. 15, §§298, 305.)

Art. 3537. [3396] In order to constitute habitual drunkenness under this title it shall not be necessary to show that the officer is incapable of discharging the duties of his office or of taking care of himself; but the proof of the fact of habitual drunkenness to the satisfaction of the judge and jury shall be sufficient cause of removal without reference to his capacity or incapacity to discharge the duties of his office.

Further defined. (Trigg v. State, T. L. J., June 26, 1876.) (Act Aug. 16, 1876, p. 135, §3.)

Art. 3538. [3397] By "drunkenness not amounting to habitual drunkenness," as named in this chapter in connection with county officers, is meant the immoderate use of any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors to such a degree as to incapacitate the officer for the time being or permanently from the discharge of the duties of his office.

"Drunken- ness not habitual" defined. (Trigg v. State.) (Act July 31, 1876, p. 76, §§1, 4.)

Art. 3539. [3398] No county officer shall be removed from office on the charge of drunkenness, as defined in the preceding article, until he shall have been three times convicted of such offense of drunkenness.

Must be three times con- victed. (Act July 21, 1876, p. 76, §4.)

Art. 3540. [3399] The fact of a third conviction, as provided in the preceding article, shall be sufficient ground for his removal from office by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner provided in this chapter for bringing before him other causes of removal.

Three convic- tions suf- ficient ground for removal, etc.

Art. 3541. [3400] All county officers who are required to give official bonds, who shall fail to execute their bonds within the time prescribed by law, or who, when required in accordance with law to give a new bond or additional bond or security, and shall fail to do so, may also be removed from office for such failure by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner hereinafter provided for bringing such matters before the court.

Failure to give bond ground for removal.

Proceedings,
how commenced, and by whom.

Art. 3542. [3401] The proceedings for the removal of said officers may be commenced either in term time or vacation by first filing a petition in the district court of the county where the officer resides, by a citizen of the state who has resided for six months in the said county where he proposes to file such petition, and who is not himself at the time under indictment in said county.

Requisites of the petition.

Art. 3543. [3402] The petition shall be addressed to the district judge of the court in which it is filed, and shall set forth in plain and intelligible words the cause or causes alleged as the grounds of removal, giving in each instance, with as much certainty as the nature of the case will admit of, the time and place of the occurrence of the alleged acts; the petition shall, in every instance, be sworn to at or before the filing of the same by at least one of the parties filing the same, and the proceedings shall be conducted in the name of "The State of Texas," upon the relation of the person filing the same.

General issue alone submitted—verdict.
(Trigg v.
State, T. L.
J., June 26, 1876.)

Art. 3544. [3403] In these cases the judge shall not submit special issues to the jury, but shall, under a proper charge applicable to the facts of the case, instruct the jury to find from the evidence whether the cause or causes of removal set forth in the petition are true in point of fact or not; and when there are more than one distinct cause of removal alleged, the jury shall by their verdict say which cause they find sustained by the evidence before them, and which are not sustained.

Citation, how and when to issue.
(Smith v.
Brennan, T.
L. J., July 24,
1878, p. 373.)

Art. 3545. [3404] After the filing of such petition, the person or persons so filing the same shall make a written application to the district judge for an order for a citation and a certified copy of the said petition to be served on the officer against whom the petition is filed, requiring him at a certain day named, which day shall be fixed by the judge, to appear and answer to the said petition; and until such order is granted and entered upon the minutes of the court (if application is made during term time) no action whatever shall be had thereon, and if the judge shall refuse to issue the order so applied for, then the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the relator, and no appeal or writ of error shall be allowed from such action of the judge.

Application made in vacation.

Art. 3546. [3405] If the application for said citation is made to the judge in vacation, he shall indorse his action, whatever it may be, on such petition, and shall order it spread on the minutes of the court at the next ensuing term.

Citation shall issue.

Art. 3547. [3406] Upon the order being granted, and if granted during term time also spread upon the minutes, the clerk shall issue the citation, accompanied with a certified copy of the petition.

Time to answer.

Art. 3548. [3407] In no case whatever shall the period fixed by the judge in his order in which the officer is to answer, be less than five days from the date of such service, to be computed as time is computed in other civil suits.

How trial shall be conducted.

Art. 3549. [3408] The trial and all the proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted as far as it is possible in accordance with the rules and practice of the court in other civil cases.

May be suspended from office, how.

Art. 3550. [3409] At any time after the issuance of the order for the citation as herein provided, the district judge may, if he sees fit, suspend temporarily from office the officer against whom the petition is filed, and appoint for the time being some other person to discharge the duties of the office; but in no case shall such suspension take place until after the person so appointed shall execute a bond in such sum as the judge may name, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, on such conditions as the judge may see fit to impose, to pay the person so suspended from office all damages and costs that he may sustain by reason of such suspension from office, in case it should appear that the cause or causes of removal are insufficient or untrue.

Art. 3551. [3410] An appeal or writ of error to the court of civil appeals may be sued out by either party from the final judgment in these cases as in other civil cases.

Appeal or writ of error will lie.

Art. 3552. [3411] If the party has not been temporarily suspended from office, no other bond, when an appeal is taken or writ of error sued out by him, shall be necessary than a bond for all the costs that have or may accrue in the district and courts of civil appeals.

Bond for costs, when.

Art. 3553. [3412] On the order for citation being granted, the clerk of the district court will be authorized to demand of the relator security for costs as in other cases.

Relator to give security for costs.

Art. 3554. [3413] Proceedings under this title may be commenced against any district attorney either in the county of his residence or the county where the alleged cause of removal occurred, if in a county of his judicial district.

Against district attorneys, where commenced.

Art. 3555. [3414] Under the name of "district attorney," as used in this chapter, is included the district attorney for the criminal district court of Galveston and Harris counties, and the judge of said criminal district court shall have the same power as to his removal and proceed in the same manner as the district judges of the state have in reference to all county officers.

Criminal district attorney included in district attorney.

Art. 3556. [3415] No officer shall be prosecuted or removed from office for any act he may have committed prior to his election to office.

Not to be removed for acts done prior to his election.

Art. 3557. [3416] In these cases an appeal may be taken or writ of error be made returnable to the court of civil appeals, and such cause shall have precedence of the ordinary business of the court and be decided with all convenient dispatch.

Appeal or writ of error. (Amend. 1835, Sen. Jour., p. 480.)

Art. 3558. [3417] When so decided, unless the judgment be for some cause set aside or suspended, the mandate of the court shall issue within five days after the judgment of the court is rendered.

Mandate, when to issue.

[3439] In all cases where by law the commissioners' court is required to approve the bond of any of the officers of their several counties, it shall be their duty whenever they shall become satisfied that said bonds from any cause are insufficient, to require new bonds or additional sureties to be given, as the case may require.

Art. 3581. [3440] The said court shall cause the officer whose bond is complained of to be cited to appear at a term of their court not less than five days after service of said citation, and shall take such action thereon as they may deem best for the interest of the state and county. Officer to be cited. Ib.

Art. 3582. [3441] From the decision of the commissioners' court in reference to said official bond no appeal shall be allowed, and their decision shall be final and conclusive. No appeal allowed.

Article 3583. [3442] Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or other business, except banking or insurance, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities herein prescribed.

Limited partnerships authorized. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 279, §1.) P. D. 4717 et seq.

Art. 3584. [3443] Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called the general partners, and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners now are by law; and of one or more persons who shall contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners, and who shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by him or them to the capital.

General and special partners. Ib. §2.

Art. 3585. [3444] The general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership and to bind the same.

General partners only to act. Ib. §3.

Art. 3586. [3445] The persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain—

Such partnerships, how formed. Ib. §4.

1. The name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted.

2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.

3. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their respective places of residence.

4. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.

5. The period at which the partnership is to commence, and the period at which it is to terminate.

Art. 3587. [3446] The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same, before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments for record, and such acknowledgment shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgment of the conveyances of land.

Certificate to be acknowledged. Ib. §5.

county in which the principal place of business of the partnership shall be situated, and shall also be recorded by him at large in a book to be kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. If the partnership shall have places of business situated in different counties, the certificate and acknowledgment thereof shall be filed and recorded in like manner in the office of the clerk of the county court of every such county.

General partner to file affidavit.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3589. [3448] At the time of filing the original certificate with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as before directed, an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners, to the common stock, have been actually and in good faith paid in cash.

Prerequisites indispensable.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3590. [3449] No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed and recorded, nor until an affidavit shall have been filed as above directed; and if any false statement be made in such certificate or affidavit, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners.

Terms to be published.
Ib. §9.

Art. 3591. [3450] The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership when registered for at least six weeks immediately after such registry, in such newspapers as shall be designated by the clerk in whose office such registry shall be made; and if such publication be not made the partnership shall be deemed general.

Publisher's affidavit.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3592. [3451] An affidavit of the publication of such notice by the publisher of the newspapers in which the same shall be published may be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be evidence of the facts therein contained.

Renewals to be with like formalities.
Ib. §11.

Art. 3593. [3452] Every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice given in the manner herein required for its original formation, and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued shall be deemed a general partnership.

Certain alterations a dissolution.
Ib. §12.

Art. 3594. [3453] Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership according to the provisions of the last article.

Firm name.
Ib. §13.

Art. 3595. [3454] The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a firm in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, without the addition of the word "company," or any other general term; and if the name of any special partner be used in such firm, with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner.

Suits by and against.
Ib. §14.

Art. 3596. [3455] Suits in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners, in the same manner as if there were no special partners.

Capital of special partner not to be withdrawn.
Ib. §15.

Art. 3597. [3456] No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the character of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if, after the payment of such interest, any profits shall remain to be divided he may also receive his portion of such profits.

Art. 3598. [3457] If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the capital, with interest.

If reduced, to be made good. Ib. §16.

Art. 3599. [3458] A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management.

Powers of special partner. Ib. §17.

Art. 3600. [3459] The general partners shall be liable to account to each other, and to the special partners, for the management of the concern, both in law and equity, as other partners are by law; and every partner who shall be guilty of any fraud in the affairs of the partnership shall be liable, civilly, to the party injured to the extent of his damage.

Partners to account, and liability for fraud. Ib. §§18, 19.

Art. 3601. [3460] Every sale, assignment or transfer of any property or effects of the partnership made by such partnership when insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of insolvency of any partner, with the intent of giving a preference to any creditor of such partnership or insolvent partner over other creditors of such partnership; and every judgment confessed, lien created or security given by any such partnership under the like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership.

Assignments by partnership void, when. Ib. §20.

Art. 3602. [3461] Every such sale, assignment or transfer of any of the property or effects of a general or special partner made by such general or special partner when insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of the insolvency of the partnership, with the intent of giving to any creditor of his own or of the partnership a preference over the creditors of the partnership; and every judgment confessed, lien created or security given by any such partner under like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of the partnership.

Assignments in contemplation of insolvency. Ib. §21.

Art. 3603. [3462] Every special partner who shall violate any provision of the last two preceding articles, and who shall concur in or assent to any such violation of the partnership by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner.

Effect of concurrence by special partner. Ib. §22.

Art. 3604. [3463] In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as creditor until the claims of all other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied.

Partnership creditors preferred. Ib. §23.

Art. 3605. [3464] No dissolution of such partnerships by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation or in the certificate of its renewal, until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded and published once in each week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in each of the counties where the partnership may have a place of business, if there be such papers; and if there be no newspapers published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the nearest county where there is one.

Dissolution before the time agreed on. Ib. §24.

Petition for,
and what it shall state.

Art. 3607. [3466] Such joint owner or claimant may file his petition in the district court of the county in which the real estate sought to be partitioned, or a portion thereof is situated, which petition shall state—

1. The names and residence, if known, of each of the other joint owners or joint claimants of such real estate.

2. The share or interest which the plaintiff and the other joint owners or claimants of said real estate own or claim so far as known to the plaintiff.

3. The real estate sought to be partitioned shall be described in such manner as that the same may be distinguished from any other real estate, and the estimated value thereof stated.

Citation and service.

Art. 3608. [3467] Upon the filing of a petition for partition, the clerk shall issue citation for each of the joint owners or joint claimants named therein, as in other cases, and such citations shall be served in the same manner and for the same length of time provided for the service of citation in other cases.

unknown.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 46.)

Art. 3609. If the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, at the commencement of any suit, or during the progress thereof, for the partition of land, shall make affidavit that an undivided portion of the land described in the plaintiff's petition in said suit is owned by some person or persons unknown to affiant, the clerk of the court shall issue a citation to the proper officer, which shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the suit, and a description of the interest of the unknown owner or owners, commanding said officer to summon such unknown owner or owners by making publication of the citation in some newspaper in the county where the writ issued, if there be a newspaper published in said county, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, for four successive weeks previous to the return day of such process; when such notice is given, and no appearance is entered within the time prescribed for pleading, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend in behalf of such owner or owners, and proceed as in other cases where service is made by publication; and it shall be the special duty of the court in all such cases to see that its decree protects the rights of the unknown parties thereto; and the judge of the court shall fix the fee of the attorney so appointed, which shall be entered and collected as costs against said unknown owner or owners.

Art. 3610. [3468] Upon the hearing of the cause the court shall determine—

Court shall determine, what.

1. The share or interest of each of the joint owners or claimants in the real estate sought to be divided.

2. All questions of law or equity affecting the title to such real estate, or any part thereof, which may arise.

Art. 3611. [3469] The court shall enter a decree directing the partition of such real estate, describing the same, to be made in accordance with the respective shares or interests of the parties entitled thereto, specifying in such decree the share or interest of each party, and shall appoint three or more competent and disinterested persons as commissioners to make such partition in accordance with such decree and the law, a majority of which commissioners may act.

Decree of the court and appointment of commissioners.

Art. 3612. [3470] The clerk shall issue a writ of partition, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding such sheriff or constable to notify each of the commissioners of their appointment as such, and shall accompany such writ with a certified copy of the decree of the court directing the partition.

Writ of partition.

Art. 3613. [3471] The writ of partition shall be served by reading the same to each of the persons named therein as commissioners, and by delivering to any one of them the accompanying certified copy of the decree of the court.

Service of writ of partition.

Art. 3614. [3472] The court may also, should it be deemed necessary, appoint a surveyor to assist the commissioners in making the partition, in which case the writ of partition shall name such surveyor, and shall be served upon him in the same manner as upon a commissioner.

Court may also appoint surveyor.

Art. 3615. [3473] A writ of partition, unless otherwise directed by the court, shall be made returnable to the first day of the next term of the court from whence the same issues, and the officer serving the same shall indorse thereon the time and manner of such service.

Writ returnable, when, and return thereof.

Art. 3616. [3474] The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed to partition the real estate described in the decree of the court, in accordance with the directions contained in such decree and with the provisions of this chapter.

Commissioners shall proceed to partition, etc.

Art. 3617. [3475] Should the commissioners deem it necessary, they may cause to be surveyed the real estate to be partitioned into several tracts or parcels.

May cause land to be surveyed.

Art. 3618. [3476] The commissioners shall divide the real estate to be partitioned into as many shares as there are persons entitled thereto, as determined by the court, each share to contain one or more tracts or parcels, as the commissioners may think proper, having due regard in the division to the situation, quantity and advantages of each share, so that the shares may be equal in value, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the respective interests of the parties entitled.

Shall allot shares.

Art. 3619. [3477] The commissioners shall then proceed by lot to allot and set apart to each of the parties entitled one of said shares, as determined by the decrees of the court.

Report of commissioners and what it shall contain.

Art. 3620. [3478] When the commissioners have completed the partition, they shall report the same in writing and under oath to the court, which report shall show—

1. The real estate divided, describing the same.
2. The several tracts or parcels into which the same was divided by them, describing particularly each of such tracts or parcels.
3. The number of shares and the land which constitutes each share, and the estimated value of each share.
4. The allotment of each share.
5. The report shall be accompanied by such field notes and maps as may be necessary to make the same intelligible.

When property is incapable of division, same shall be sold, etc.

Art. 3621. [3479] Should the commissioners be of opinion that a fair and equitable division of the real estate, or of any part thereof, can not be made, they shall report the fact to the court in writing under oath, stating their reasons for such opinion, and if the court should be satisfied that the report of the commissioners is correct, it shall order a sale of so much of such real estate as is incapable of partition, which sale shall be for cash, or upon such other terms as the court may direct, and shall be made as under execution, and the proceeds thereof shall be returned into court and partitioned by the court between the persons entitled thereto, according to their respective interests therein.

Objections may be filed to report, etc.

Art. 3622. [3480] Either party to the suit may file objections to any report of the commissioners in partition, and in such case a trial of the issues thereon shall be had as in other cases, and if the report be found to be erroneous in any material respect, or unequal and unjust, the same shall be rejected and other commissioners shall be appointed by the court and the same proceedings had as in the first instance.

Partition not prejudicial to reversion, etc.

Art. 3623. [3481] When a partition is made between a joint owner who holds an estate for a term of years or for life, with others who hold equal or greater estates, such partition shall not be prejudicial to those entitled to the reversion or remainder of such estates.

Each party shall hold in severalty, subject, etc.

Art. 3624. [3482] When any partition is made each party to whom a share has been allotted shall hold the same in severalty under the same conditions and covenants that it was held before such partition was made, and no warranty, lease or right whatsoever shall be impaired or affected by such partition.

Decree of court shall vest title. (Ross v. Armstrong, 25 Texas Sup., p. 355.)

Art. 3625. [3483] The decree of the court confirming the report of the commissioners in partition, when a partition has been made, shall vest the title in each party to whom a share has been allotted, to such share as against the other parties to such partition suit, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, as fully and effectually as the deed of such parties could vest the same, and shall have the same force and effect as a full warranty deed of conveyance from such other parties and each of them.

Article 3636. [3494] A "pawnbroker" is one who pursues the business of lending money upon interest, and receiving upon deposit, as security for the payment of such loan and interest, any personal property. Definition of "pawnbroker."

Art. 3637. [3495] No person shall pursue the business of a pawnbroker without first having given bond, with at least two good and sufficient sureties in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, and approved by and filed with the clerk of the county court of the county in which such person proposes to pursue said business, conditioned that such person will faithfully comply with each and every requirement of the law governing such business. Pawnbroker shall give bond, and its requisites. (Act April 28, 1874, p. 153.) P. D. 7168p.

Art. 3638. [3496] The bond required by the preceding article shall be recorded and safely kept in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such pawnbroker pursues such business, the recording fees thereof to be paid by such pawnbroker, and a new bond shall be given, filed and recorded in the same manner as the first one every twelve months during the continuance of such business. Bond shall be recorded and new bond shall be given every 12 months. Ib. P. D. 7168q.

Art. 3639. [3497] Each pawnbroker shall keep a well-bound book, in which he shall register all his transactions as a broker at the time the same occurs. Such register shall show— Shall keep a register, and what the same shall show. Ib. P. D. 7168p.

1. The article of property received, giving an accurate description of the same.
2. From whom received.
3. The time and the amount for which the article is pawned.
4. The probable value of the article.
5. The rate of interest agreed upon.
6. The final disposition made of such property, and if sold to whom sold and the amount for which each article was sold.

Art. 3640. [3498] Such book shall be kept open for inspection, and the broker shall give to the party pledging, a ticket corresponding to the entry on the book of registry. Book shall be open for inspection, etc. Ib.

Ib.
P. D. 7168q.

Art. 3641. [3499] If any article deposited with such broker as a pawn shall not be redeemed at or before the time agreed upon, the broker shall sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at his usual place of business, after giving at least five days' notice of such sale.

How notice shall be given.
Ib.
P. D. 7168q.

Art. 3642. [3500] Such notice of sale shall be given by posting written or printed advertisements at not less than three public places in the county where such sale is to take place, one of which places shall be the court house of such county.

Advertisement shall state, what, and copy shall be filed in office of county clerk.

Art. 3643. [3501] The written advertisements of sale shall state the time and place of such sale, and shall contain a full description of the article or articles to be sold, and the name or names of the person or persons depositing the same, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale takes place.

Within what hours sales shall be made.

Art. 3644. [3502] All sales made by a pawnbroker shall be made between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., and no sales shall be made upon Sunday or upon a legal holiday.

Report of sales to be made, and what the same shall show.

Art. 3645. [3503] When a sale has been made the pawnbroker shall, within five days thereafter, file with the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale was made, a report in writing and under oath, showing—

1. The time and place of such sale.
2. The notice given thereof.
3. A full description of the property sold and by whom deposited.
4. By whom purchased and the amount which each article was sold for.
5. The amount due the broker, principal, interest and expenses upon each article sold.
6. The amount of surplus of the proceeds of sale of each article, if any, after deducting the amount due the broker of principal, interest and expenses.

What expenses shall be allowed and deducted.

Art. 3646. [3504] The expenses named in the preceding article shall be such expenses as have been agreed upon by the parties to the contract, or if there be no agreement in regard thereto, then the reasonable expenses of the sale only, such as reasonable auctioneer's commissions, shall be allowed and deducted.

Owner or depositor entitled to surplus for thirty days after sale.

Art. 3647. [3505] The owner or depositor of the property so sold shall be entitled upon demand to receive from such broker the surplus of the proceeds of such sale at any time within thirty days after such sale, and if no demand therefor be made within thirty days after such sale such surplus shall become the property of the county where such sale was made.

Surplus shall be paid to county treasurer, when.
Ib.
P. D. 7168q.

Art. 3648. [3506] Should there be any surplus of the proceeds of any sale made by a broker, he shall, at the expiration of thirty days from the day of such sale, pay such surplus to the county treasurer of the county where such sale was made, or he shall file with such county treasurer the receipt of the owner or depositor of the property sold, for such surplus, at the expiration of said thirty days.

Suit upon bond for surplus and damages.
Ib.
P. D. 7168r.

Art. 3649. [3507] Suit may be brought upon the bond of the pawnbroker by the county, or by any party entitled to the surplus of any sale made by him, and upon recovery judgment shall be rendered against such pawnbroker and the sureties upon his bond for the amount of such surplus, together with ten per cent per month on such amount for each month or fraction of a month that such surplus has been illegally withheld by such pawnbroker.

Art. 3650. [3508] Any person injured by the failure of a pawnbroker to comply faithfully with his contract, or with any requirement of law governing the business of pawnbrokerage, may sue upon the bond of such pawnbroker and recover such damages as he may prove himself entitled to, not to exceed the penalty of such bond.

Penitentiary board, how constituted; compensation and duties. (Acts of 1891, p. 99, §1.)

Article 3653. The governor shall appoint by, and with the advice and consent of the senate, a penitentiary board to consist of three commissioners, citizens of this state, and good, practical business men, who shall hold their office for two years, and until the appointment and qualification of their successors, and in case of vacancy in the same to be filled by executive appointment for the unexpired term. Two members of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and its proceedings shall be subject to the approval of the governor, and shall be entered of record and kept in a well-bound book. It may appoint a secretary to keep a record of its proceedings, to receive such remuneration as the board may determine, provided the legislature does not otherwise provide. The members of said board shall each receive six dollars per day and actual traveling expenses while in performance of official duties.

Powers and duties. Ib. §2.

Art. 3654. The said board shall have the general management and control of the state penitentiaries and of all convicts sentenced to said penitentiaries, whether within or without the walls thereof. It shall make or approve all contracts for the building of any new penitentiary, and for any additions, repairs and improvements necessary to be made in connection with the penitentiary or convict system of this state, on the terms prescribed by law, or in the absence thereof, on such terms as it may consider for the best interests of the state. It shall have power to purchase or cause to be purchased, with such funds as may be at its disposal, not otherwise appropriated, any lands, buildings, machinery and tools necessary for the use, preservation and operation of the penitentiaries, to the end that the largest number of convicts that can be comfortably accommodated and made self-supporting may be confined therein; and until adequate provisions be made by the legislature for the confinement and employment of all convicts who may be profitably utilized within the walls; and said board may erect and operate for the state in each of the penitentiaries a factory for the manufacture of cotton goods, cotton and jute bagging; provided, that in the judgment of the penitentiary board it shall be deemed practicable and can be done without loss to the state; the said board may employ the excess of convicts at labor outside the walls, either under the contract system or state account system, under such regulations, conditions and restrictions as it may deem best for the welfare of the state and the convicts; and said board shall, when it has means at its disposal which can be so used, from time to time purchase or lease and equip a farm or farms upon which convicts suitable for farm labor who can not be made self-supporting inside the walls shall be worked on state account. Said board shall have power to contract with railroad corporations or other common carriers for transportation facilities for said Texas institutions, and to exchange for such facilities labor of state convicts or the product of the manufactories of said institutions, upon such terms, prices and rates as it may deem for the best interests of the state, and the financial agent of the penitentiary shall honor and pay any draft or drafts drawn on him by said penitentiary board drawn for this purpose, when he has any surplus funds in his hands or at his disposal belonging to said penitentiaries. But no such farm or farms shall ever be purchased by said board except it be upon the advice, consent and direction of the governor. And said board shall, as soon as practicable, place all state convicts either inside the walls of the penitentiaries or on farms, and work the same on state account.

Art. 3655. The system of labor in the state penitentiaries shall be the state account system or contract system, or partly one and partly the other, as shall in the discretion of the penitentiary board and the governor be deemed for the best interest of the state; but no contract shall be let for any of such convict labor if equally remunerative employment can be furnished by the state and worked on state account. The said board shall not make nor approve any contract for the lease of the penitentiaries or either of them, nor shall any contract ever be made by which the control of the convicts except as to a reasonable amount of labor shall pass from the state or its officers, and the state shall never be deprived of the right to direct how, at any and all times and under all circumstances, its convicts shall be lodged, fed, clothed, quartered, worked and treated, and the management and discipline of convicts shall in all cases remain under control of the state and officers employed and paid by the state.

System of labor.
Ib. §3.

Art. 3656. It shall be the duty of said penitentiary board to make suitable provision and regulations for the safe and speedy transportation of convicts from the counties where sentenced to the penitentiaries, or to the state reformatory, or state convict farm or farms, as the case may be, either by contract with private parties for the transportation of such convicts, or by transporting said convicts on state account by the state. And should said board contract to have said convicts transported by private parties, it shall cause said contractors to give a good and sufficient bond in such an amount as said board may deem proper, payable to the state of Texas, and to be approved by said board and the governor, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duty under said contract, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by said board or may now or hereafter be prescribed by law.

Transportation of convicts.
Ib. §4.

Art. 3657. The board shall have the power to condemn useless or worn-out property of any description in and about the penitentiaries or belonging thereto, and cause the same to be destroyed or sold, and it also shall have the power to sell or exchange any land or other property belonging to the state for the use of the penitentiaries, or either of them, when the state's interest will be benefited thereby;

Power to condemn property, when.
Ib. §5.

and any conveyance it shall make shall be valid and binding when approved by the governor and attorney-general. The title to land purchased by said board shall be made to the governor and his successors in office for the use of the penitentiaries, and the same shall be passed upon and approved by the attorney-general.

Biennial reports.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3658. The board shall cause to be made biennially a full and complete inventory and valuation of all lands, buildings, machinery, tools, live stock and property of every description belonging to the penitentiaries and penitentiary system, which inventory and appraisal shall be made just previous to the date of the biennial report, and a full synopsis thereof shall be contained in the biennial report of the financial agent.

May prescribe rules, etc.
(Acts of 1881,
p. 39, §7.

Art. 3659. The board may at any time issue such orders and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government of the penitentiaries, not inconsistent with law, as they may deem proper, in order to supply any defect in the general law in regard to prison management and discipline, and to provide for such details as are not embraced therein, and for such contingencies as may at any time arise concerning the management of the penitentiaries and their proper and successful operation, and such rules and regulations shall be made with the view to carry out the general principles on which the penal laws are founded and the design for which the penitentiary system is established, and shall be binding upon all officers of penitentiaries, under-officers, lessees, employes and all persons whatsoever in any way connected with the penitentiaries or their management, or with the convicts either within or without the walls thereof.

Shall have rules printed,
etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3660. The board shall have all laws, rules, regulations and by-laws printed in pamphlet form, for the information and guidance of all connected with the management of the penitentiaries or convict labor, and such parts of said rules as refer to the duties of subordinate officers and convicts shall also be printed in suitable form and posted in conspicuous places about the prisons, for the information of all concerned.

Board authorized to purchase and equip state farms, etc.
(Act 1893, p.
122.)

Art. 3660a. The penitentiary board are hereby authorized to purchase and equip, with the consent of the governor, agricultural lands or improved farms, to be by them selected with a view to productiveness of soil and accessibility to railroads, for the purpose of establishing thereon state farms, and employing thereon convict labor on state account.

Payments,
how made.
Ib.

Art. 3660b. Upon making the purchases provided for in the preceding article, the funds necessary therefor shall be loaned by the state board of education, when available, out of the permanent school fund, to the penitentiary board, on certificates of indebtedness issued by said penitentiary board officially, and countersigned by the governor, and in a form to be prepared by the attorney-general. Said loans shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually, for the available school fund, and the principal shall be payable back to the permanent school fund as follows: In twenty annual installments of fifteen thousand dollars each, the first of which shall be due and payable in five years from the date of said loan, and the remaining payments annually thereafter until the last of the twenty payments has been made. The penitentiary board shall, from time to time, make suitable provision for the payment of said installments and interest out of the revenues of the state penitentiaries and state farms. The penitentiary board shall not make purchases under the provisions of this law amounting to more than three hundred thousand dollars in the aggregate; provided, that before any purchase shall be made or money paid under the provisions of this law, the title to such lands shall be submitted to the attorney-general of this state, and he shall file with the state board of education his opinion in writing as to his opinion of such title; and said state board of education shall not loan any of the school fund for the purchase of such lands until the attorney-general shall file with said board a written opinion that the party selling such lands can convey a good and perfect title to said lands; provided further, that all lands purchased under the provisions of this law shall be regarded and held in trust for the permanent school fund of the state until the return of the loan made for their purchase.

Article 3661. In order that there may be a more efficient supervision of the penitentiaries, and a uniformity in the management of the same, and of the discipline and general treatment of the state convicts whether confined within or without the walls, the governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a superintendent of penitentiaries, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. In case of a vacancy in said office the same may be filled by executive appointment for the unexpired term.

Term of office, vacancy, how filled.
Ib. §9.

Art. 3662. The superintendent of penitentiaries shall reside and have his office at such place as may be designated by the penitentiary board. He shall have a general supervision and control over all penitentiaries established or to be established in the state, over the discipline, management, treatment, and control of all convicts who may be imprisoned in said penitentiaries, or who may be operated outside the walls thereof, and over all officers, overseers and guards connected therewith. He may assign convicts to such penitentiary or camp as he may deem proper; provided, that in case of a lease of the penitentiaries, or any of them, or of the convicts, or any number of them, such control shall not extend to the labor of the convicts, except as may be provided by law, or by the terms of contract; nor shall he nor any other officer do anything calculated in any manner to interfere with the rights of the lessees under their contract.

Shall reside, where.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3663. The superintendent, as the principal executive officer of the penitentiaries, shall have all powers necessary to a discharge of his duties, subject to the restrictions imposed on him by law. He may designate such number of under-officers, keepers, guards, etc., to be appointed by the assistant superintendents and inspectors, with his approval, if not provided for in the rules, as he may deem necessary for the safe keeping of the convicts, or for the maintenance of discipline, and he may discharge any under-officer or employe for official misconduct, or whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require.

Principal executive officer of penitentiary.
Ib. §11.

Shall have access to all places about penitentiary.
Ib. §12.

Art. 3664. The superintendent shall at all times have access to the penitentiaries and other places where convicts are employed, and shall, unless otherwise officially engaged, make a thorough inspection of each penitentiary at least once per month, and of each convict camp twice per year, and oftener if practicable. He shall carefully examine into any and all complaints, whether made by officers, under-officers, lessees, convicts or citizens, and, unless any complaint is found to be groundless, he shall take such action as may be necessary to correct and prevent a recurrence of the same. When it is found that any assistant superintendent, inspector, chaplain, physician or lessee has been guilty of any serious official or other improper conduct, he shall report the facts thereof to the governor and penitentiary board for their action. Any officer of the penitentiary, under-officer, lessee or convict has a right, and it shall be his duty to report to the governor any official misconduct of the superintendent, or any cause of complaint whatever against him.

Shall have power to administer oaths, etc.
Ib. §13.

Art. 3665. The superintendent, in the discharge of his duties, is authorized to administer oaths, to summon and examine witnesses, and to take such other steps as he may deem necessary to ascertain the truth in respect to any matter about which he has the right to inquire. He shall examine and audit all accounts connected with the penitentiary in which the state is sought to be charged, and administer oaths to all parties presenting claims, and, to authenticate his acts, may use the seal of either penitentiary; provided, he shall not approve any claim for the transportation of convicts to the penitentiary unless the same be sworn to and accompanied by the proper commitment papers, and unless satisfied that all the prerequisites of the law have been complied with.

Monthly reports.
Ib. §14.

Art. 3666. He shall make a monthly report to the governor, as president of the penitentiary board, showing fully the condition and treatment of the convicts, and the changes in the prison population during the month. He shall at the time furnish to the governor, to the comptroller and to the lessees a statement showing the amount due the state on account of the leasing of the penitentiaries or hire of convict labor. He shall, from time to time, make such suggestions to the penitentiary board as he may deem advisable relative to any improvements or changes in the plans of the penitentiaries or management. It shall be his duty, on or before the first day of November next preceding the regular session of the legislature, to make a report to the governor, as president of the penitentiary board, in regard to the government, discipline, condition and management of the penitentiaries and convicts, showing the changes in prison population, the places where convicts are employed and occupations in which engaged, their moral, intellectual and physical condition, and such other matters as may seem pertinent or as may be required by the rules, the governor or penitentiary board.

Shall keep a record.
Ib. §15.

Art. 3667. The superintendent shall keep the records of all matters pertaining to the penitentiaries generally, and shall keep a register of all convicts belonging to the penitentiaries, whether within or without the walls of the penitentiaries, showing the registered number and name of each convict, giving aliases, if any, age, height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, marks on person, sex, nativity, residence, county where convicted, date of sentence, date of receipt, previous occupation and habits, if known. He shall keep, as far as practicable, a record of the general condition and conduct of each convict, noting all punishments, forfeitures for bad conduct, changes and incidents of importance that may occur during his confinement, and to the end that full and correct records may be kept, he may require from all officers such monthly and other reports as he may deem proper. He shall issue discharges to such convicts as are entitled thereto by expiration of term or otherwise. During the absence of the superintendent from his office he may designate some proper person to perform his clerical duties.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT.

Art. 3668. The governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, an assistant superintendent for each penitentiary now or hereafter to be established or organized, who shall hold his office for the term of two years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. In case of a vacancy in said office the same to be filled by executive appointment for the unexpired term; provided, that the governor shall make no appointment to said office until such time as the penitentiary board may deem that there is a necessity therefor.

Assistant superintendent, qualifications, etc.
Ib. §17.

Art. 3669. The assistant superintendent shall have the immediate supervision and control over the penitentiary for which he is appointed, and over all convicts confined therein, and over all officers, overseers and guards and employes connected therewith. He shall be responsible for the discipline of the prison, and the manner in which it is enforced. He shall appoint the under-officers, overseers and guards of the prison, subject to the approval of the superintendent, and may remove the same; provided, that when the penitentiary is leased his control shall not extend to the labor of the convicts, except as herein prescribed; nor shall he exercise his power of appointment when the terms of the lease require the lessees to appoint, though he may discharge any under-officer or employe for misconduct or failure to perform duty.

Duties and powers.
Ib. §18.

Art. 3670. An assistant superintendent shall have such powers as are necessary to a proper discharge of his duties, subject only to the law and the instructions of the superintendent and the penitentiary board. He shall, if practicable, reside within the penitentiary, and shall not absent himself therefrom unless upon business connected with the duties of his office, or with the permission of the superintendent or governor. During his absence the under-keeper shall act in his stead.

Powers.
Ib. §19.

Art. 3671. The assistant superintendent shall visit frequently the prison hospital, the cells, shops and other places in and near the penitentiary where the convicts may be, and shall see that they are humanely and properly treated, and shall give prompt attention to all complaints made by a convict in regard to his health, general condition, treatment, or against any officer, employe or lessee of the penitentiary; he shall see that the convicts are properly clothed, fed and taken care of in sickness and health; that the prison buildings, cells, shops and premises are kept in a neat, clean and healthy condition, and he shall frequently at suitable times converse in a kindly manner with the convicts under his charge, and use his best endeavors to produce in them a spirit of reformation.

Shall make visits, etc.,
Ib. §20.

Art. 3672. The assistant superintendent shall keep the records of the penitentiary of which he has charge, similar to those heretofore required to be kept by the superintendent. He shall keep a record of the conduct of each convict under his charge; noting all punishments and charges of misconduct. He shall, on the first of each month, make a report to the superintendent, on blanks to be furnished him, the number, names and description of all new convicts received by him during the preceding month, with other changes in prison population; the names of those who have been sick, and the names of those punished, or whose conduct has been bad. He shall make such other reports as required by the rules, the superintendent or the governor. He shall make such biennial reports as may be required to the superintendent, to be forwarded by him to the governor.

Ib. §21.

Shall receive convicts, etc. Ib. §22.

Art. 3673. He shall receive and receipt for all convicts that may be brought to the penitentiary, in accordance with law. He shall examine and pass upon all accounts connected with the penitentiary under his charge, before submitting them to the superintendent for his approval. He must require all accounts to be sworn to; and he is authorized to administer oaths in all matters connected with the penitentiary and its management, and to all parties presenting claims as above mentioned, and for this purpose he shall be provided with a seal of office, whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points, and the words "State Penitentiary,——, Texas," around the margin, the blank to be filled with the name of the place where the penitentiary is located, with which seal he shall authenticate all his official acts.

General duties. Ib. §23.

Art. 3674. He shall perform such other duties as may at any time be prescribed by the rules of the penitentiary board.

Term of office. (Acts of 1881, p. 38, §24.)

Article 3675. The governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate when in session, two officers, to be styled "inspectors of penitentiaries," who shall hold office for the term of two years, and until the appointment and qualification of their successors; provided, that one or both the inspectors, who may at any time be appointed, may be discontinued when, in the opinion of the penitentiary board, the duties required are not sufficient to require the services of one or both of them.

Duties and powers. Ib. §25.

Art. 3676. Inspectors have the immediate supervision of convicts and officers in charge of them at camps and other places outside the walls of the penitentiaries. It shall be the duty of the superintendent, with the assistance of the inspectors, to divide the convict camps, or places where convicts may be employed outside the walls, into two divisions, and assign one inspector to each division, but they may exchange work or divisions with each other at pleasure.

Shall visit camps, etc. Ib. §26.

Art. 3677. The superintendent shall, from time to time, furnish the inspectors with a list of the convicts in each force in their respective divisions. Each inspector shall visit, at least once in each month, or oftener if required by the superintendent or penitentiary board, each convict camp or place of employment. He shall see that the convicts charged to each force are on hand, and if not, he must inquire and report the cause of absence. When a convict has died, he shall investigate into the cause of his death and what nursing and medical attention were given him when sick. If a convict has escaped, he shall investigate fully, so as to fix the blame, if any, where it properly belongs. He shall make strict inquiry as to the treatment of convicts at outside camps, and as to whether the law and the rules are substantially complied with in their guarding, clothing, feeding and work; also as to whether the prison is secure, comfortable and kept clean. He shall specially notice the punishments inflicted, and whether legal and necessary.

Art. 3678. The inspection of each camp or force shall be thorough and searching, and the inspector shall examine into all complaints preferred by a convict, officer or others, and if there be any ground for complaint he shall take immediate measures for the correction of the abuse. For this purpose, and any other connected with the management of outside convict forces, he is authorized to administer oaths, summons and examine witnesses, and take such other steps as he may deem necessary, to ascertain the truth. In case of illegal punishment, cruelty or abuse of a convict by any person, he may take such action as may be proper and necessary to bring the offender to justice.

Shall have power to make thorough examinations, etc. Ib. §27.

Art. 3679. The inspector shall report to the superintendent once in each month, showing the management, condition, discipline and treatment of convicts in his division; how they have been fed and clothed during the month, and shall report the names and number of convicts who have escaped or died, the number sick, illegal punishments and abuses, and all other matters about which he has a right to inquire. They shall make such other reports as may be required.

Shall report to superintendent. Ib. §28.

Art. 3680. The inspector has the right to remove any under-officer in charge of convicts in his division for incompetency, violation of law or failure to discharge his duty, and the authority herein given to inspectors shall be exercised in conformity with law, and such regulations as may be established by the penitentiary board, and then only in correcting abuses and removing complaints, where convicts are employed outside the prison walls.

May remove under-officer. Ib. §29.

when required examine any convict as to his physical ability to perform work at which it is proposed to place him, and report the result to the assistant superintendent.

Shall advise when to remove convicts. Ib. §34.

Art. 3683. He shall notify the assistant superintendent when, on account of ill health, it may be deemed advisable to remove a convict from the penitentiary to some healthier locality, and he shall cause any convict with a contagious or infectious disease to be removed to some place to prevent the spread of such disease.

Nurses. Ib. §35.

Art. 3684. Nurses may be employed by the physician with the approval of the assistant superintendent in serious cases of sickness or epidemics.

Sick convicts shall not be discharged, except. Ib. §36.

Art. 3685. A convict afflicted with serious illness or dangerous disease shall not in such condition be discharged from the penitentiary, except upon his own request, although his time of imprisonment may have expired.

Sanitary regulations. Ib. §37.

Art. 3686. The physician is specially charged with the sanitary regulations of the penitentiary, and shall make frequent inspections and use all precautions to keep the prison healthy and prevent the introduction and spread of epidemic or contagious diseases.

Shall keep a journal. Ib. §38.

Art. 3687. The physician shall keep a journal in which he shall enter the name of each convict treated by him or under his direction, noting duration of sickness, disease, treatment, date of discharge from hospital or treatment, with such other entries as he may deem important, which journal shall at all times be open to the inspection of the assistant superintendent and the superintendent.

Shall make reports. Ib. §39.

Art. 3688. He shall make such reports as required by the governor, penitentiary board or superintendent. He shall make a biennial report to accompany that of the assistant superintendent, in which he shall state the number of cases of sickness during the two preceding years, diseases, number of deaths and diseases with which they died, the number and character of surgical operations performed, and such suggestions as he may deem important to the improvement of the sanitary condition of the prison; also any facts or incidents that he may deem of general interest or of benefit to science.

Duties. Ib. §41.

Art. 3690. The chaplain shall preach at least once every Sunday to the convicts, and shall establish such associations, Sabbath schools and other schools for the benefit of the convicts as he may deem proper, having due regard to the rules of the prison, and being careful not to conflict in any manner with the discipline of the prison and the regular hours for labor.

Shall visit convicts, etc. Ib. §42.

Art. 3691. He may, at convenient times, visit convicts during their hours of license, during week days, and also in the hospital and at their cells, and administer to all such advice and consolation as he may deem best calculated to promote reformation. He must at all times impress upon them the necessity of a strict compliance with prison rules. He must use his best endeavors on all occasions to inculcate in them sound principles of religion and morality, but he shall not, in his conversations or discourses, discuss doctrines merely sectarian, but shall teach such principles of religion and morality as are common to all Christian churches.

Art. 3692. By permission of physician he may visit sick convicts, and shall always be admitted to the bedside of any convict in a dying condition. May visit the sick. Ib. §43.

Art. 3693. Preachers, ministers and priests of all religious denominations shall, by the consent of the superintendent, assistant superintendent or chaplain, have access to the penitentiaries, and may at any reasonable time be allowed to preach to the convicts. A convict shall at all proper times be permitted to receive visits from and hold converse with any preacher, minister or priest he may desire to see. All denominations to have access. Ib. §44.

Art. 3694. The chaplain shall be ex officio librarian of the penitentiary, and perform such other duties not herein prescribed as the rules may require. Ex officio librarian. Ib. §45.

Appointment and term of office.
(Acts of 1891, p. 102, §68.)

Article 3699. The governor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the senate, a financial agent of the penitentiaries, who shall hold his office for two years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor, and in case of a vacancy in said office the same shall be filled by executive appointment for the unexpired term.

Bond and salary.
Ib. §69.

Art. 3700. Before entering upon the discharge of his official duties, the financial agent shall give bond in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the same to be approved by the penitentiary board and the governor, and filed in the office of the secretary of state. The said financial agent shall receive for his services the sum of three thousand dollars per annum and actual necessary traveling expenses in the discharge of his official duties. He shall keep his office at such place as may be directed by the penitentiary board.

Duties.
Ib. §70.

Art. 3701. The financial agent shall be the purchasing, selling and disbursing agent of the penitentiaries. He shall receive all moneys, the proceeds of convict labor from sales of manufactured goods, crops or other property belonging to the penitentiaries. And in such capacity shall, with the approval of the penitentiary board, have the power and authority to buy and sell for account of the penitentiaries for cash or upon a credit, as his judgment may approve and as may be to the best interests of said penitentiaries. He shall from time to time receive all moneys appropriated for the use of penitentiaries or either of them, and on his requisition, approved by the penitentiary board, the comptroller of public accounts is authorized to draw his warrant in favor of the said financial agent on the state treasurer for the same; provided, the said financial agent shall at no time retain in his possession nor on deposit outside of the state treasury any sum of money greater than one-half of his official bond.

Itemized monthly statements to be made.
Ib. §71.

Art. 3702. He shall furnish monthly an itemized statement of all the receipts from whatever source, and of all disbursements on account of the penitentiary management, accompanied by abstracts, cash statements, invoices, receipted vouchers, and such other data as may be required and necessary to make a full, clear and correct showing of penitentiary finances at the end of each month for which made, which said statement, after being examined and approved by the superintendent of penitentiaries, and then by the penitentiary board, shall be filed, together with the abstracts, invoices and receipted vouchers, with the comptroller of public accounts, for his examination, approval and entry.

Shall keep accounts.
Ib. §72.

Art. 3703. He shall keep correct and accurate accounts with all parties hiring convict labor either inside or outside of the walls of the penitentiary, and shall collect and receipt for all sums of money due on account of sales of goods manufactured, hire of convict labor, or for work performed by convicts either inside or outside of the walls of the penitentiaries.

Art. 3704. He shall purchase and pay for all such material as may be necessary for building or manufacturing purposes, and all supplies of provisions, clothing, bedding, shoes, medicines, and all other articles required by the rules and regulations of the penitentiaries, for the use of the prison officials, employes, sergeants, guards and convicts, and when not otherwise provided by law, he shall pay the monthly salaries of all the penitentiary officers, employes, sergeants and guards, and shall pay all accounts for services rendered and purchases made for the use of said penitentiaries or either of them.

Shall make what purchases.
Ib. §73.

Art. 3705. He shall keep an account of each and every article sold, with price for which same was sold; also an account specifying the amounts of money received by him and from whom, and on what account, together with an account of his disbursements of the same; all of which shall be by him entered in well-bound books, which he shall keep subject to the inspection of the penitentiary board or the superintendent of penitentiaries, or either of them, or any citizen of this state.

What accounts must be kept.
Ib. §74.

Art. 3706. He shall take such measures as are necessary to keep a debit and credit account with each separate industry carried on at each penitentiary, debiting each industry with salary of foreman, with labor and material used, and crediting it with the work turned out. An account shall also be kept for every department of the prisons, whether productive or nonproductive, showing the cost of labor and supplies; also an account showing labor and material used for all improvements and repairs about the penitentiaries or to the penitentiary property. And in order to keep these accounts a valuation shall be fixed upon the labor of the convicts employed in every capacity, and such accounts shall be made up from weekly statements to be furnished by the assistant superintendents and foremen. A strict account shall also be kept with each separate convict force on the outside, showing receipts and debiting each force with cost of supplies of each, description, cost of guarding, feeding, clothing, medical attention, transportation to and from, etc.

Accounts with each separate industry.
Ib. §75.

Art. 3707. He shall have charge and custody of all property, supplies, provisions, medicines, clothing, bedding, shoes, etc., purchased or manufactured for use of the penitentiaries, and shall issue the same to the prisons proper on requisitions approved by the assistant superintendent, and to the outside camps on the requisitions of the sergeants in charge, approved by the superintendent of penitentiaries.

Shall have custody of property.
Ib. §76.

Art. 3708. He shall in the purchase of all provisions and other supplies for the prison proper or the outside camps consult with the superintendent of penitentiaries, and endeavor to bring all the competition possible to bear, so as to make his purchases at the very lowest cash prices.

Shall consult with superintendent, when.
Ib. §77.

Art. 3709. He shall, in conjunction with the superintendent of penitentiaries, under such regulations as the penitentiary board may prescribe, make all contracts for the hire of convict labor, either outside or inside the walls of the penitentiaries, or on share farms, should convicts be worked under the contract system. (But all convicts shall be placed within the walls of the penitentiaries or on state farms and worked on state account as soon and speedily as possible.) Also for work to be done with convict labor. He shall be allowed such clerical help as the penitentiary board shall from time to time deem necessary to enable him to properly discharge the duties incumbent upon him.

Biennial abstracts of his reports to be made.
Ib. §79.

Art. 3710. He shall biennially, on the first day of November, furnish the penitentiary board with an abstract of his receipts, disbursements, sales and purchases for the preceding two years, together with such other information relating to the financial transactions of the penitentiaries as the penitentiary board shall require at his hands, which shall be made a part of the biennial penitentiary report.

Suits to be brought in his name.
Ib. §80.

Art. 3711. Suits for the recovery of moneys due on account of sales or otherwise, belonging to the Texas state penitentiaries, or either of them, or for property of any description belonging to said penitentiaries, or either of them, shall be brought in the name of the financial agent of the Texas state penitentiaries for the use of the Texas state penitentiaries, or either of them, as the case may be.

Objects of the law.
(Acts of 1881,
p. 46, §50.

Article 3712. The various provisions of this title are designed to secure to the convicts humane treatment, suitable moral instruction, to provide for their health, and to extend to them such comforts and privileges as may be consistent with their situation, and at the same time to require of them a due attention to their various duties and a strict observance of the discipline, rules and regulations of the prison.

Treated with humanity, etc.
Ib. §51.

Art. 3713. The convicts shall all be treated with humanity, but a distinction may be made in their treatment so as to extend to all such as are orderly, industrious and obedient, comforts and privileges according to their deserts. The rewards to be bestowed on convicts for good conduct shall consist of a relaxation of strict prison rules, and extension of social privileges as may not be inconsistent with proper discipline. Commutation of time for good conduct shall be granted by the superintendent of the penitentiaries, and the following deductions shall be made from the term or terms of sentence when no charges of misconduct have been sustained against a convict, viz.: Two days per month off the first year of sentence. Three days per month off the second year of sentence. Four days per month off the third year of sentence. Five days per month off the fourth year of sentence. Six days per month off the fifth year of sentence. Seven days per month off the sixth year of sentence. Eight days per month off the seventh year of sentence. Nine days per month off the eighth year of sentence. Ten days per month off the ninth year of sentence. Fifteen days per month off the tenth year and all succeeding years of sentence. A convict under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence. For each sustained charge of misconduct in any year of the term the commutation allowed for one month of such year may be forfeited, and for any sustained charge of escape or attempt to escape, mutinous conduct or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of the convict up to that date shall be forfeited, unless in case of escape the convict voluntarily returns to prison without expense to the state, such forfeiture may be set aside. For extra meritorious conduct on the part of any convict he shall be recommended to the favorable consideration of the governor for increased commutation or pardon. Life or long term convicts, who, having actually served fifteen years without any sustained charge of misconduct, and who shall be favorably recommended to the governor by the superintendent and assistant superintendent of penitentiaries, and the penitentiary board, may receive at the hands of the governor a reasonable commutation of sentence, and if a life sentence is commuted to a term of years, then such convict shall have the benefit of the ordinary commutation as if originally sentenced for a term of years, except the governor should otherwise direct.

Commutation of sentence, when.

Art. 3714. The punishments that may be prescribed by the penitentiary board shall consist of deprivation of privileges, closer imprisonment, confinement in cell on bread and water, confinement in dark cell, confinement in irons and other punishments of like character; but a convict shall not be deprived of his food at regular hours, except as above provided. Whipping may be resorted to upon a special order in writing from the superintendent or assistant superintendent or inspector, in aggravated and particular cases, and under such rules and instructions as may be prescribed in the rules. A convict's head shall not be shaved in any instance; nor shall stocks or "horse" be used under any circumstances.

Punishments inside the penitentiary. (Acts of 1881, p. 46.)
Ib. §52.

Art. 3715. Suitable clothing, of substantial material, and uniform make, and sufficient food of wholesome quality shall be furnished to all, and in order that all convicts be fed alike, as near as practicable, the rules shall prescribe the kind, quality and variety of food to be furnished. Convicts are to be allowed no spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, except upon prescription of the physician.

Clothing and food.
Ib. §53.

Art. 3716. Convicts sentenced to hard labor shall be kept at work, under such rules and regulations as may be adopted; but no labor shall be required of any convict on Sunday, except such as is absolutely necessary, and no greater amount of labor shall be required of any convict than a due regard for his physical health and strength may render proper; nor shall any convict be placed at such labor as the penitentiary physician may pronounce him physically unable to perform.

Regulations as to work.
Ib. §54.

Art. 3717. Convicts who have been reported by the physician, inspector or other officer in charge as in a condition of health which requires their removal to some other place, shall be accordingly promptly removed, but under such regulations and in such manner as will prevent escape.

Convicts to be removed, when.
Ib. §55.

Art. 3718. Convicts when received into the penitentiary shall be carefully searched. If money be found on the person of a convict, or received by him at any time, it shall be taken charge of by the assistant superintendent and placed to the convict's credit, and expended by him for the convict's benefit on his written order, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by the rules. Any officer who, having charge of a convict's money, misappropriates the same, or any part thereof, or who seeks to speculate on such convict, shall be removed from office.

Ib. §56.

Sexes to be kept separate.
Ib. §57.

Art. 3719. Convicts of different sexes shall be kept separate and apart. If a female convict be received with an infant child, or if any child shall be born in the penitentiary, the child shall be permitted to remain with its mother until four years of age, when it shall be provided for as may be prescribed by the penitentiary board.

The dead to be decently buried.
Ib. §58.

Art. 3720. It shall be the duty of the assistant superintendent, inspector or other officer in charge of a penitentiary, division or convict camp or force to have all convicts who may die while in custody decently buried, and each grave marked by a board with the name of convict, date of death, age if known, and county whence sentenced, inscribed thereon.

May receive instruction.
Ib. §59.

Art. 3721. Convicts who are unable to read or write may receive instruction under such regulations as may be prescribed by the penitentiary board; and the said board may, whenever practicable to do so, employ a competent teacher for that purpose.

Discharge, how regulated.
Ib. §60.

Art. 3722. When a convict is entitled to his discharge from prison he shall be furnished with a written or printed discharge from the superintendent of penitentiaries, with seal affixed, giving convict's name, date of sentence, from what county, amount of commutation received, if any, and such other description as may be practicable. He shall be furnished with a plain suit of citizen's clothing, five dollars in money and railroad transportation to the nearest depot to county seat from whence sentenced, not to exceed fifteen dollars; but if convict prefers he may receive transportation tickets for same distance in some other direction.

VISITS TO THE PENITENTIARIES.

Who permitted to visit penitentiary.
Ib. §66.

Art. 3723. The governor and all other members of the executive and judicial departments of the government, and members of the legislature, shall be admitted into the penitentiaries at all proper hours, for the purpose of observing the conduct and operations thereof, and may hold conversations with the convicts apart from any of the prison officers.

Others, when.
Ib. §67.

Art. 3724. Other persons may visit the penitentiaries under such rules and restrictions as may be established.

Superintendent may offer rewards.
(Acts of 1881, p. 50.)

Art. 3725. The superintendent, with the governor's approval, may offer such reward for the apprehension of an escaped convict, not exceeding one hundred dollars, exclusive of expenses of delivery, as may be fixed by the penitentiary board, and to be paid as directed by the said board, the reward and expenses from either the penitentiary lease fund or from the appropriation for the arrest of a fugitive from justice.

Bond of superintendent.
(Acts of 1891, p. 104, §82.)

Art. 3726. The superintendent of penitentiaries shall give bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, the same to be approved by the penitentiary board and the governor and filed in the office of the secretary of state. The penitentiary board shall require the assistant superintendents and sergeants to give bond, payable to the superintendent of penitentiaries, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duty, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in such amount and with such conditions as it may deem proper. Said bond to be approved by said board and filed with the superintendent of penitentiaries.

Bond of other officers.

Commissioners' courts to establish workhouses, etc.
 (Const., art. 16, §3.)
 (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 9, §229.)
 (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Article 3727. [3585] The commissioners' courts of the several counties may provide for the erection of a workhouse and the establishment of a county farm in connection therewith, for the purpose of utilizing the labor of county convicts, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

"County convict" defined.
 Ib. p. 230, §16.

Art. 3728. [3586] A "county convict," within the meaning of the preceding article, is any person who may have been convicted of a misdemeanor or petty offense, and whose punishment has been assessed at imprisonment in the county jail for any term; or who, under a like conviction, has been adjudged to pay a pecuniary fine and is unable so to do.

Certain convicts only to do manual labor.
 (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 3729. [3587] When the punishment assessed in a conviction for misdemeanor is confinement in the county jail for a period less than one day, the convict shall not be required to labor, either in the work-house or elsewhere; but when such punishment is confinement in the county jail for a longer time than one day, the convict shall be required to do manual labor in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Commissioners' court to control work-houses.
 Ib. §10.

Art. 3730. [3588] County workhouses and farms shall be under the control and management of the commissioners' court, and such courts are authorized to adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws, as they may deem necessary for the successful management and operation of said institutions and for effectively utilizing the labor of county convicts.

Officers to obey their orders, etc.
 Ib. §13.

Art. 3731. [3589] The sheriff and all other peace officers shall obey the orders and regulations of the commissioners' court, made in pursuance of the preceding article, shall execute such process as may be directed by said court, and shall render all the aid possible in carrying out the provisions of this chapter and the regulations made in pursuance thereof.

Overseers and guards, etc.

Art. 3732. [3590] Such overseers and guards may be employed under the authority of the commissioners' court as may be necessary to prevent escapes and to enforce labor on the part of convicts, and they shall be paid out of the county treasury such compensation as said court may prescribe.

To labor on public works, etc.
 Ib. p. 228, §1.

Art. 3733. [3591] County convicts shall be put to labor upon the public roads, bridges or other public works of the county, when their labor can not be utilized in the county workhouse or farm, and they shall be required to labor not less than eight nor more than ten hours each day, Sundays excepted.

Where confined when off duty.

Art. 3734. [3592] When not at labor, county convicts may be confined in the county jail or workhouse, as may be most convenient, or as the regulations of the commissioners' court may prescribe.

Refractory convicts to be punished.

Art. 3735. [3593] When a convict refuses to labor, or is otherwise refractory or insubordinate, he may be punished by solitary confinement on bread and water, or in such other manner as the commissioners' court may direct.

Female convicts.

Art. 3736. [3594] Female convicts shall, under all circumstances, be kept separate and apart from male convicts, and they shall in no case be required to do manual labor, except in the workhouse, or when hired out as is hereinafter provided.

Aged or disabled convicts not to work.

Art. 3737. [3595] A convict who, from age, disease or other disability, physical or mental, is unable to do manual labor, shall not be required to work, but shall remain in jail until his term of imprisonment is ended, or until the fine and costs adjudged against him are discharged, at the rate of one dollar for each day of such confinement in jail.

Inability, how determined.

Art. 3738. [3596] The inability of the convict to do manual labor may be determined by the opinion of a competent physician appointed for that purpose by the county judge or commissioners' court, who shall be paid for such service such compensation as the commissioners' court may allow.

How to be credited on fine, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 14.)

Art. 3739. When a convict who has been committed to jail in default of payment of fine and costs is required to do manual labor he shall be credited upon such fine and costs at the rate of fifty cents for each day he may labor, and upon satisfaction of such fine and costs in full at said rate he shall be discharged; provided, such work shall be performed on public streets or roads, or on county poor farms. No convict under this chapter shall ever be required to work or be hired for more than one year.

Mechanic, etc., to have extra credit. Ib. §2.

Art. 3740. [3598] If a convict of the kind described in the preceding article be an artisan or mechanic, and be put to labor at his trade or calling in any workhouse or on any public work, he may be credited upon the fine and costs against him with such extra compensation for his labor as the county judge may determine to be just and proper.

Convicts to be guarded, etc. (Act of 1876, p. 280, §11.)

Art. 3741. [3599] Convicts shall be so guarded while at work as to prevent escapes, and no convict shall be compelled to labor at any kind of work nor in any avocation that would endanger his life or health.

Costs to be officers. Ib. p. 229, §8; amend. 1895, p. 179.

Art. 3742. [3600] Whenever a convict who has been committed to jail in default of payment of fine and costs adjudged against him, has satisfied such fine and costs in full by labor in the workhouse, on the county farm, on the public roads of the county or upon any public works of the county, said county in which said conviction was had shall be liable to each officer and witness having costs in the case against said convict for only one-half of such costs, and the county judge of said county shall issue his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each officer and witness for one-half of all such legal costs as may have been taxed up against said convict, not to include commissions, and the same shall be paid out of the road and bridge fund of the county or out of any other county funds not otherwise appropriated.

Convict may commute his labor.

Art. 3743. [3601] A convict condemned to imprisonment in the county jail as the punishment, either in whole or in part, for his offense, may avoid manual labor in the workhouse or elsewhere by payment into the county treasury of one dollar for each day of the term of his imprisonment; and the receipt of the county treasurer to that effect shall be sufficient authority to the sheriff to detain such convict in jail without labor.

Article 3744. Any person who may be convicted of a misdemeanor or petty offense, and who shall be committed to jail in default of the payment of the fine and costs adjudged against him, may be worked upon the public roads or upon the county farms of the county in which such conviction is had, or be hired out to any individual, company or corporation within the county of conviction, to remain in said county, and the proceeds of said hiring, when collected, shall be applied, first, to the payment of the costs, and second, to the payment of the fine; and every convict shall be entitled to a credit of twenty-five cents on his fine and costs for each day he may serve under such hiring, including Sunday, and he shall be discharged at any time upon payment of the balance due on his fine and costs or upon the expiration of his term of service, his term of service in no event to be greater than one day for each fifty cents of fine and costs; provided, that in no case shall the counties be responsible to the officers for their costs, and in no case shall such convicts be hired out for a longer period than one year for failure to pay a fine and costs, and on the expiration of said time, unless by his hire such fine and costs have been sooner paid off, said convicts shall be finally discharged.

Convicts may be hired out. (Acts of 1837, p. 11.)

Art. 3745. [3603] Such hiring may be either by private contract or at public auction, as may be deemed best for the interest of the county, or it may be by general contract for any specified term, embracing the labor of all county convicts of the class prescribed in the preceding article, at some fixed rate per day, week or month.

Either publicly or privately, generally or especially.

Art. 3746. [3604] Hirers of convicts shall execute bond payable to the county judge of the county, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the amount of hire agreed upon, conditioned as follows:

Hirer shall give bond and its requisites. Id. pp. 228, 229, 230, §§4, 12.

1. That the hirer will promptly and faithfully pay the amount of money mentioned in the bond when the same becomes due, and it shall be stated in the bond when the same becomes due.

2. That he will treat the convict humanely while in his employment.

3. That he will furnish the convict with a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food, with comfortable clothing and medicine when sick.

4. That he will not require the convict to work at unreasonable hours, or for a longer time during any one day than other laborers doing the same kind of labor are accustomed to work.

Such bond shall be approved by the county judge and filed in the office of the clerk of the county court.

Liability of hirer when convict escapes.
Ib. p. 229,
§4.

Art. 3747. [3605] If a convict, hired out, escapes from the hirer, such hirer shall nevertheless be liable for the full amount of the bond, unless such convict is rearrested and placed in the custody of the sheriff of the county in which he was convicted before such bond becomes due; in which case such hirer shall only be liable to pay for the time that such convict remained with him.

Suit on bond.
Ib. §5.
16, §24.)

Art. 3748. [3606] Upon the breach of such bond, the county judge or commissioners' court shall cause such bond to be sued upon in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and the amount collected thereon, after deducting therefrom the collection fees and costs, shall be paid into the county treasury by the officer collecting the same, and constitute a part of the road and bridge fund of the county.

Convict shall receive full credit for labor.
Ib. §6.

Art. 3749. [3607] All moneys arising from hiring out convicts shall be paid over to the county judge and by him paid into the county treasury, and in every case the convict shall receive full credit for the amount of his labor, to be counted and entered in discharge of the fine and costs adjudged against him; and whenever his earnings shall be sufficient to pay in full such fine and costs he shall be discharged.

Record in relation to convicts shall be kept.
(Act Aug. 21,
1876, p. 230,
§15.)

Art. 3750. [3608] County judges shall cause a record of all proceedings in relation to the employment or hiring out of convicts to be kept in well-bound books to be provided for that purpose. Said record shall contain—

1. A descriptive list of all persons known as "county convicts."
2. How such convict has been or is employed.
3. The name of the party hiring a convict.
4. The time when and the price at which such convict has been employed or hired out.
5. The amount credited such convict for such employment or hire.
6. The amount of such hire collected.
7. The amount of fine and costs due by such convict.
8. Such other information as may be necessary and requisite under the rules adopted by the commissioners' court.

Officer's costs,
how paid.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3751. [3609] Whenever the amount realized from the hire of a convict is sufficient to discharge in full the fine and costs adjudged against him, the county judge shall issue a warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each officer to whom costs may be due, for the amount of his costs, and the same shall be paid out of the road fund of the county, or out of any other funds in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Article 3752. To every surviving indigent soldier or indigent volunteer who was in the actual military or naval service of Texas at the time of the siege of Bexar, in December, 1835, or at the time of the battle of San Jacinto, in April, 1836, or who actually participated in any battle in Texas in 1836, or who was in such actual military service for as much as six weeks between the commencement of the revolution at Gonzales in 1835, and the first day of January, 1837, and to every indigent surviving signer of the declaration of independence of Texas, and to every indigent surviving widow of any such soldier, volunteer or signer, who is and has always been unmarried since the death of such soldier, volunteer or signer, and so long as such widow may remain unmarried, there shall be and is hereby granted an annual pension of one hundred and fifty dollars as hereinafter provided.

To whom granted.
(Acts of 1839,
p. 43, §1.)

Art. 3753. Each applicant for a pension under this law shall make application in writing for the same to the county judge of the county of his or her residence, and shall post a copy of such application on the court house door of the county for at least thirty days before the application is acted on by the county judge. Such application shall state the name, age and residence of the applicant, whether or not this applicant received any pension or veteran donation land certificate under any previous law, a list of the real and personal property owned by the applicant, and the present value of the same, and what property and the value thereof that such applicant has sold or conveyed within twelve months prior to the date of such application; and shall further state that the applicant is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent upon his or her labor or on the charity of others for a support; provided, that the word "indigent," within the meaning of this law, shall not allow the ownership of property to exceed one thousand dollars; and that the applicant has not transferred to others any property or values of any kind for the purpose of becoming a beneficiary under this law; and still further, that such applicant is and was for one year preceding the date of the passage of this law a bona fide resident citizen of this state. And in addition to the foregoing each male applicant shall further state the time he rendered such service and the command he served in; and each female applicant shall state the name of her deceased husband, the date of his death; that she is unmarried, and has so remained since the death of the husband for whose services she claims a pension; and shall further state, as accurately as she can, the time her said deceased husband rendered such service and the command he served in. Should the applicant be a signer of such declaration of independence, or a widow of such signer, he or she shall state all that is hereinbefore required, except as to the military service, and in lieu of which it shall state that the applicant was a signer of such declaration of independence, or is the widow of such signer, which application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, and the same shall be supported by affidavits of at least two credible witnesses who reside in the state, and shall show that the facts stated by the applicant is known and regarded in his or her neighborhood as a Texas veteran or signer of the declaration of independence, or the widow of a Texas veteran or signer of the declaration of independence. Any veteran whose application and proof heretofore made to the comptroller are in compliance with the requirements of this law shall be entitled to his or her pension on presenting such application and proof to the comptroller, without further proof being made; and where such application and proof has been returned to the applicant by the comptroller, said applicant may re-file the same as if made under this law; provided, that such application has not heretofore been declared fraudulent.

Proceedings
to obtain.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 94, §3.)

Art. 3754. Such application so signed and sworn to by the applicant and two credible witnesses shall be presented to the county judge, who shall in open court, at a regular term thereof; hear evidence as to the truth of the statements made in such application; and if he believe from the evidence that the applicant really performed the service for which the pension is claimed, or is a widow of a soldier or volunteer of the Texas revolution, or a signer of the declaration of Texas independence; that he or she is now, and was at the time of the passage of this law, and for ten years previous thereto, a bona fide resident of the state of Texas; that the applicant is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent on his or her labor or on the charity of others for a support, and has not at any time transferred any property for the purpose of becoming a beneficiary under this law; then he shall make his certificate under the seal of his office, attested by the county clerk, reciting the facts as shown by the evidence. Upon the hearing of such application the state shall be represented by the county or district attorney, and it shall be the duty of such attorney to summon witnesses to testify in behalf of the state who know the pecuniary condition of the applicant, or any other facts affecting the rights of the applicant to obtain a pension, and to examine the assessor's rolls and the records of his county, and any other source of information which may seem to him advisable; and he shall prepare a statement of the testimony given by each witness, including the name of such witness, and also of the facts disclosed by investigating any other source of information, which statements shall be approved by the county judge. For his services in behalf of the state the attorney shall be allowed a fee of ten dollars, to be paid as follows: He shall present his account for the same to the county judge, who shall approve it if he find it correct, shall date and sign the same officially, and shall cause it to be filed in the office of the county clerk. The said judge shall thereupon give the attorney a draft upon the county treasurer, and the same when presented to the treasurer shall be paid out of any moneys in his hands not otherwise legally appropriated, in the same manner as jury certificates are paid; provided, that if the applicant shall be proved not to be an indigent, and shall have his application defeated on that ground, then the attorney representing the state shall be entitled to an additional fee of ten dollars, to be taxed against the applicant as costs of suit.

Art. 3755. Such application so prepared and certified to, together with the statements of the county judge and attorney hereinbefore provided for, shall be filed with the comptroller of public accounts, whose duty it shall be to examine critically such application and statements, and any other accessible evidence that may prove or disprove the right of the applicant to claim a pension, and may require further proof of the statements made in such application, and if in his opinion the applicant has not established his or her legal right to a pension, then he shall refuse such application and file reasons therefor in his office; provided, no pension shall be granted to any one under this title whose claim has been rejected by the veteran board of this state as fraudulent.

To be filed with comptroller. (Acts of 1885, p. 94, §4.)

Art. 3756. No person shall be entitled to receive a pension under this title unless it shall be made to appear to the comptroller, from the evidence, that said person is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent upon his labor or the charity of others for a support.

Must be indigent. Ib. §5.

Art. 3757. The pension herein provided for shall begin at the date when the comptroller receives the application, and shall be paid quarterly in advance. The comptroller shall draw his warrant for the same on the treasurer, and upon presentation the treasurer shall pay the same out of any money in the treasury which may be appropriated for this purpose.

Shall commence, when. Ib. §6.

Art. 3758. On or after the first of each quarter the pensioner shall make his affidavit stating the county of his residence, and that he is the identical person to whom a pension has been granted under this law, which affidavit shall be supported by the affidavit of some other credible person to the same fact, and which affidavit may be made before any one authorized to administer oaths, which affidavit shall be filed with the comptroller, and upon the filing of the same the comptroller shall draw his warrant for the quarter found to be due.

Proof to be made each quarter. Ib. §7.

Art. 3759. It shall be the duty of the district judges of this state to specially charge every session of the grand jury to investigate violations of this law.

Investigated by grand jury. Ib. §8.

Art. 3760. No person shall receive a greater fee than ten dollars to procure a pension for another, and any contract for a larger sum shall not be enforced by the courts.

Attorney's fee. Ib. §9.

Art. 3761. It shall be the duty of the comptroller, at least once in each year, to forward to the county judge a printed list of the pensioners in their respective counties, which list shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of said judge. It shall also be the duty of the comptroller, on the application of a grand jury, to forward to it, through the district clerk of the county in which the grand jury is convened, copies of any or all original papers on file in his office connected with an application for a pension which said grand jury may desire to investigate, and such copies with their correctness attested by the comptroller shall have the same force and value in a court of law that the original papers would have had.

Lists to be sent county judges for posting. Ib. §10.

Who shall conduct business. (Acts of 1889, p. 125, §1.)

Article 3762. It shall be unlawful for any person, unless a qualified pharmacist within the meaning of this law, to open or conduct any pharmacy or store for compounding medicines, or for any one not a qualified pharmacist to prepare physicians' prescriptions or compound medicines, except under the direct supervision of a qualified pharmacist as hereinafter provided.

Qualifications. Ch. §2.

Art. 3763. Any person in order to be qualified shall be twenty-one years old and shall have passed a satisfactory examination before the board of pharmacy of Texas, or shall be a graduate in pharmacy or an assistant in pharmacy.

Graduates. Ib. §3.

Art. 3764. Graduates in pharmacy shall be such as have obtained a diploma from a regular incorporated college of pharmacy, and that requires not less than two years' experience in stores where prescriptions of medical practitioners have been compounded before said diploma is issued.

Assistant. Ib. §4.

Art. 3765. Assistants in pharmacy must be twenty-one years old and have had two years' experience in stores where prescriptions of medical practitioners have been prepared, and shall have passed a satisfactory examination before the board of pharmacy of Texas.

Examining board to be appointed. Ib. §5.

Art. 3766. The presiding judge of the district court of the several judicial districts shall severally appoint a board of pharmaceutical examiners for their respective districts, who shall hold their office two years, which appointment shall be in writing and signed by the judge making the same, and delivered to the person appointed. Said board of pharmaceutical examiners shall be composed of not less than three qualified pharmacists who are residents of the districts of which they are appointed. If a vacancy occurs in said board another shall be appointed as aforesaid to fill the unexpired term. Said board shall have power to make by-laws and all necessary regulations for the proper fulfillment of their duties under this title.

Meetings of board. Ib. §6.

Art. 3767. The board shall meet once a year in as central portions of the district as practicable, and shall give one month's notice through the public press of the time and place of such meeting. The board shall organize for business by electing a registrar of pharmacy. The duties of said board shall be to examine all applicants for registration; to direct the registration by the registrar of all persons properly qualified or entitled thereto.

Art. 3768. The duties of the registrar of pharmacy shall be to keep a book in which shall be entered, under the supervision of the board of pharmacy, the name and place of business of every person who shall apply for registration, and a statement signed by the person making the application, of such facts in the case as may claim to justify his or her application. It shall also be the duty of the registrar to duly note the fact against the name of any qualified pharmacist who may have died or removed from the state or disposed of or relinquished his business.

Duties of registrar.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3769. Any person in order to become a qualified pharmacist within the meaning of this title shall apply and appear for examination and registration, and shall pay to the board of pharmacy five dollars; and on passing the examination required, shall be furnished free of cost a certificate of registration signed by the said board. Should said person fail to pass a satisfactory examination, he may at any other one meeting of the board of pharmacy within twelve months be permitted to be examined without cost.

Examination of applicants.
Ib. §8.

Art. 3770. Graduates, as specified in article 3764, shall apply for registration, and if they produce satisfactory evidence to the board of pharmacy that they have a right to be registered, shall, upon paying said board three dollars, be furnished a certificate of registration without examination.

Graduates—how registered.

(Act April 17, 1846, p. 79, §1.)
P. D. 4761.

Article 3796. [3645] The governor is authorized and required to appoint at each of the ports such number of branch pilots as may from time to time be necessary, each of whom shall hold his office for the term of two years. In case of a vacancy in said office the appointment shall be for the unexpired term.

Bond and oath.
Ib. §5.
(Act Feb. 9, 1861, p. 19, §1.)
P. D. 4765, 4775.

Art. 3797. [3646] Before entering upon the duties of his office each branch pilot shall enter into bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the board of commissioners of pilots for the port, or if there be no such board, by the county judge of the county in which the port is situated, and forwarded to the governor, to be by him deposited in the office of the secretary of state. Each pilot shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, and together with the bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such port is situated before being forwarded to the governor; and certified copies of said bonds, under the hand and seal of the county clerk, may be used as evidence in all the courts with like effect as the originals.

Art. 3798. [3647] Each branch pilot may appoint, subject to examination and approval by the board of commissioners, two deputies, for whose acts the branch pilot so appointed shall be responsible; and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said board shall forfeit his own appointment; and the said board shall have authority to restrict all deputy pilots from piloting over the bar vessels of over a certain draught of water.

May appoint

Ib. §8.
P. D. 4768.

Art. 3799. [3648] Any branch or deputy pilot who shall be guilty of taking charge of a vessel in a state of inebriety shall, upon proof of the same, for the first offense be suspended for one month, and for the second offense be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity; and if any branch or deputy pilot shall willfully or by neglect cause the wreck of a vessel, he shall be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity, and shall be subject to such punishment as is prescribed by law.

Malfesance and punishment.
Ib. §10.
P. D. 4770.

Art. 3800. [3649] The rate of pilotage on any class of vessels shall not, in any port of this state, exceed four dollars for each foot of water which the vessel at the time of piloting draws, and whenever a vessel, except of the classes below excepted, shall decline the services of a pilot, offered outside the bar, and shall enter the port without the aid of one, she shall be liable to the first pilot, whose services she so declined, for the payment of half pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot, shall go out without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who brought her in, or, if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, though offered outside, she shall, on so going out, be liable for the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who had first offered his services before she came in, but if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, or the offer of one outside, she shall not, in case of going out without a pilot, be liable to half pilotage. At any port where vessels shall receive or discharge their cargoes at an anchorage outside of the bar, such vessel shall be liable to pilotage at the above rate to such anchorage, but shall not be liable for or compelled to pay pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and if any vessel bound from the open sea to such anchorage, while under way, shall decline the services of a pilot, and shall afterward receive or discharge any portion of her cargo at such anchorage, on the lighters or otherwise, she shall be liable for the payment of half pilotage, at the above rate, to such anchorage to the first pilot whose services shall have been tendered to and declined by her, but not liable for any pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and when a pilot takes charge of a vessel twenty miles outside of the bar, and brings her to it, he shall be entitled to one-fourth pilotage for such off shore service, in addition to what he is entitled to recover for bringing her in, but if such off shore service be declined, no portion of said compensation shall be recovered.

Pilotage.

Art. 3827. All property belonging to the state situated or being in the city of Austin, or to any department, board or office of the state, when the same shall become unfit for use or no longer needed, shall be turned over to the said superintendent, who shall sell the same at public auction, after advertising it for not less than five days, and the money arising therefrom, less the expense of advertising and selling, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the department, board or office from which it was obtained, to be expended by the said superintendent for improvements or repairs whenever needed by the said departments, boards or offices, or for the state cemetery. The said superintendent shall make his report in writing to the comptroller, stating articles received, articles sold, to whom and at what price, and also a report showing how said funds were expended.

Shall have charge of halls, rooms, etc., when. (Acts of 1884, p. 60.)

Art. 3828. Said superintendent, during the recess of the legislature, shall have the charge and control of the halls and committee rooms of said capitol, except as hereinbefore provided, and before the assembling of each session of the legislature he shall prepare the different rooms for the uses of the legislature.

Not to be used for private purposes. Ib.

Art. 3829. No room, apartment or office in said building shall at any time be used by any person as a bedroom or for any private purposes whatever; provided, that this article shall not apply to the rooms occupied by the judges of the supreme court and courts of civil and criminal appeals, on the third and fourth floors of the capitol.

Authority as a policeman. Ib.

Art. 3830. The watchmen employed about and around the capitol and other buildings and grounds shall have all the powers and authority of a policeman of the city of Austin; and whenever, for the purpose of properly executing the provisions of this law, under the approval of the governor, by the said superintendent, there may arise a conflict with any ordinances or authority granted or given under or by virtue of the charter of the city of Austin, then and in that event so much of the said charter as authorizes the granting of such ordinances or the giving of such authority, be and the same is hereby repealed in so far as they prevent the said superintendent from efficiently performing his duties hereunder.

Shall frequently inspect all state property. Ib.

Art. 3831. It shall be the duty of the said superintendent to frequently inspect all the public buildings and property of the state at the capital, and at such other places as the governor may direct; to act as adviser to all state boards in the preparation of specifications and plans for improvements and repairs to public buildings or property of the state, and to superintend the construction of said work, where the same is not otherwise specially provided for by law. The said state boards and departments shall notify the said superintendent of improvements and repairs needed for their respective buildings and offices, and the same shall be made under his direction. He shall also be required to give his special attention to the effective maintenance of the state sewers and their connections, in use at the public buildings, and to keep the same in such sanitary condition at all times as to prevent the dissemination of disease therefrom, and to see that the gas and water pipes, with their connections and appliances, are maintained in working order, ready at any time for immediate use. He shall also be required to prepare and have in his office a copy of the plans of all public buildings and improvements thereto under his charge, showing the exact location of all water, gas and sewerage pipes, so that in case of needed repairs or inspection, their position can be determined without unnecessary expense.

Art. 3832. It shall be the duty of said superintendent to make a report to the governor on the first day of December, biennially, showing the manner in which he has discharged his duties, the improvements and repairs that have been made under his superintendence, with an itemized account of his receipts and expenditures, and the condition of all property under his charge, including an estimate of needed improvements and repairs to same.

To make reports.
ib.

[Note.—Articles 3833 and 3834 (acts of 1879, S. S., p. 36, sections 1 and 2) stricken out. See report of joint committee on amendments to Civil Statutes, Sen. Jour., p. 480.]

Art. 3835. [3676] The sheriffs of the several counties shall have charge and control of the court houses of their respective counties, subject to such regulations as the commissioners' court may prescribe; and the official bonds of such sheriffs shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this article.

Article 3836. [3679] The following shall constitute a permanent fund for the university of Texas, to be used for the benefit of said university:

University funds. (Const., art. 5, §§10-15.) (Act Feb. 11, 1858, p. 148.) P. D. 3573. (See acts 1879, extra session, ch. 18.)

1. All lands and other property heretofore set apart and appropriated for the establishment and maintenance of the university of Texas under any previous law.
2. One million acres of the unappropriated public domain of the state set apart for that purpose by the present constitution, and one million acres of land set apart by act of April 10, 1883.
3. All bonds that have heretofore or that may hereafter be purchased with the proceeds of the sales of the university lands.
4. All proceeds of the sales of university lands that are now or may hereafter be placed in the treasury of the state.
5. In addition to the foregoing, all grants, donations and appropriations that may be hereafter made, or that may be received from any other source.

Art. 3837. [3680] Such portions of the funds specified in the preceding article as are now in the possession of the state, or that may hereafter be received, shall be held in trust by the state for the use and maintenance of said university; and all such funds as are susceptible of investment, and that have not heretofore been invested, shall be invested for the benefit of such university in the manner provided in the constitution and laws on that subject.

Shall be held in trust and invested. Ib.

Art. 3838. Any person, association of persons or body corporate making a donation of property for the purposes of establishing or assisting in the establishment of a professorship or scholarship in the university or any of its branches, either temporarily or permanently, may vest the legal title to the property in any person or persons, body corporate, or the state of Texas, to be held in trust for said purpose, under such directions, limitations and provisions as may be declared in writing in the donation which are not inconsistent with the objects and proper management of said institution or its branches.

Title by donation may be vested, how. (Acts of 1889, p. 143, §1.)

Art. 3839. It shall be lawful for the person or persons or body corporate to declare and direct the manner in which said title to said property shall thereafter pass or be transmitted from the person or persons or body corporate receiving it to others in continued suc-

Shall vest in the state in trust, when.
1b. §3.

Art. 3840. In the event there is a failure to transmit the title to the property or to bestow its use in the manner as declared and directed in the donation, or in the event they or either of them should become impracticable from the change of circumstances, the title to the property unless otherwise directed expressly by the donor shall vest in the state of Texas, to be held in trust to carry into effect the purposes of the donation as nearly as may be practicable by such agencies as may be provided therefor.

Must be subject to laws, etc.
1b. §4.

Art. 3841. The title to said property donated shall be received and the trust conferred in the donation shall be assumed, subject to laws that may be passed and carried into effect from time to time which may be necessary to prevent the loss of or damage to the property donated, or an abuse or neglect of the trust so as to defeat, materially change, or prevent the objects of the donation.

Copies to be filed with board, etc.
1b. §5.

Art. 3842. Copies of said donation shall be procured and filed with the board which may have control of the university or any of its branches to which the donation applies, which board shall report the condition and management of the property and the manner in which the trust is being administered, as part of the matters reported pertaining to said institution.

Article 3843. The government of the university shall be vested in a board of eight regents, selected from different portions of the state, who shall be nominated by the governor and appointed by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The members of the board of regents heretofore appointed shall continue to exercise their duties until the expiration of their respective terms.

Board of regents classified. (Acts of 1881, p. 80, §6.)

Art. 3844. The board of regents shall be divided into classes, numbered one, two, three and four, as determined by the board at their first meeting; shall hold their office two, four, six and eight years respectively, from the time of their appointment. Two members shall be appointed at each session of the legislature to supply the vacancies made by the provisions of this article, and in the manner provided for in the preceding article, who shall hold their offices for eight years respectively.

Art. 3845. The regents and their successors in office shall have the right of making and using a common seal and altering the same at pleasure.

Shall have right to use seal.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3846. The regents shall elect a chairman of the board of regents from their own number, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. They shall establish the departments of a first-class university, determine the offices and professorships, appoint a president, who shall, if they think it advisable, also discharge the duties of a professor, appoint the professors and other officers, fix their respective salaries, and they shall enact such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary for the successful management and government of the university; they shall have power to regulate the course of instruction and prescribe, by and with the advice of the professors, the books and authorities used in the several departments, and to confer such degrees and to grant such diplomas as are usually conferred and granted by universities.

How organized.
Ib. §8; amend. 1895, p. 169.

[Note.—Article 3847 was repealed by the act of 1895, p. 169.]

Art. 3848. The regents shall have power to remove any professor, tutor or other officer connected with the institution, when, in their judgment, the interest of the university shall require it.

May remove officers.
Ib. §10.

Art. 3849. The fee of admission to the university shall never exceed thirty dollars, and it shall be open to all persons in the state who may wish to avail themselves of its advantages, and to male and female on equal terms, without charge for tuition, under the regulations prescribed by the regents, and all others under such regulations as the board of regents may prescribe.

Admission fee limited.
Ib. §11.

Art. 3850. The treasurer of the state shall be the treasurer of the university.

Treasurer.
Ib. §12.

Art. 3851. The regents shall have authority to expend the interest which has heretofore accrued, and may hereafter accrue, on the permanent university fund, for the purposes herein specified, and for the maintenance of the branches of the university.

Available fund.
Ib. §18.

Art. 3852. All expenditures may be made by the order of the board of regents, and the same shall be paid on warrants of the comptroller, based on vouchers approved by the president and countersigned by the secretary.

Expenditures, how made.
Ib. §19.

Art. 3853. No religious qualification shall be required for admission to any office or privilege in the university; nor shall any course of instruction of a sectarian character be taught therein.

No religious qualification required for admission.
Ib. §20.

Art. 3854. The board of regents shall report to the board of education annually, and to each regular session of the legislature, the condition of the university, setting forth the receipts and disbursements, the number and salary of the faculty, the number of students, classified in grades and departments, the expenses of each year, itemized, and the proceedings of the board and faculty fully stated.

Annual report to board of education.
Ib. §21.

Art. 3855. There shall be appointed by the legislature at each regular session a board of visitors, who shall attend the annual examinations of the university and its branches and report to the legislature thereon.

Board of visitors.
Ib. §22.

Art. 3856. The reasonable expenses incurred by the board of regency and visitation in the discharge of their duties shall be paid from the available university fund.

Expenses of regents and visitors to be paid.

Governor to have issued manuscript bonds. (Acts of 1889, p. 81.)

Art. 3857. The governor is authorized and directed to have issued manuscript bonds of the state of Texas, to be sold or exchanged at par for the permanent university fund at any time when there is on hand in cash any reasonable amount of such funds not less than five thousand dollars.

Character of bonds. Ib. §2.

Art. 3858. Said bonds shall be of such denomination as the governor may direct, and shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the state, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually at the state treasury on the first day of March of each year.

Form of bonds. Ib. §3.

Art. 3859. The bonds issued under this chapter shall recite the title and date of passage of the act of 1889, page 81, shall be signed by the governor and treasurer and countersigned by the comptroller, and shall be registered in the office of the state treasurer; and after said bonds have been registered the governor shall offer said bonds to the board of education as an investment for the permanent university fund then on hand in cash which are by law authorized to be invested; and if the board of education take said bonds, the treasurer and comptroller shall make the proper entry, showing the facts of the transaction and the necessary transfer of such fund on their books; and if the board of education shall not take said bonds thus offered, the same shall be destroyed and cancelled and of no effect whatever.

Agricultural and Mechanical College made a branch of the University of Texas. (Const., art. 7, §13; 12 U. S. Stat., p. 503; 14.) Ib. p. 203, act March 9, 1875, p. 72. P. D. 5693 et seq.

Article 3860. [3682] The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, established by an act of the legislature passed April 17, 1871, located in the county of Brazos, and by the constitution made and constituted a branch of the University of Texas, for instruction in agriculture, the mechanical arts and the natural science connected therewith, shall be managed and controlled as herein provided.

Leading objects of the college. (12 U. S. Stat., p. 503; act Cong. July 2, 1862, §4.)

Art. 3861. [3683] The leading object of this college shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanical arts, in such manner as the legislature may prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life.

Board of directors. (Acts of 1881, p. 75.)

Art. 3862. [3684] The board of directors of said college shall consist of five members.

Art. 3863. [3685] The directors provided for in the preceding article shall be appointed by the governor, to be selected from the different sections of the state, and shall hold office for six years or during good behavior, and until their successors are qualified.

Directors, pointed, term

of office.
Ib.

[Note.—The commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history is ex officio a member of said board.—See article 2927.]

Art. 3864. [3686] Should a vacancy occur in the said board by the death, resignation or otherwise of any one of the directors so appointed, the governor shall fill the same by appointment, which shall continue until the term for which he was appointed shall expire.

Vacancy, how filled.
Ib.

Art. 3865. [3687] The governor shall be authorized to call said board together after their appointment, and said board shall at their first meeting elect from their number a president of the board, who shall thereafter be authorized to call said board together for the transaction of business whenever he deems it expedient, and a majority of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Quorum,
what constitutes.
Ib.

Art. 3866. [3689] Each of said directors shall receive their actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings of the board, to be paid out of the interest of the university fund, on accounts certified by them respectively to be correct, and approved by the governor, the daily pay of the directors not to exceed five dollars, and the annual pay of the secretary not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Expenses of directors, how paid.
Ib.

Art. 3867. [3692] The secretary of state shall forward a certificate to each director within ten days after his appointment, notifying him of the fact of such appointment, and should any director so appointed and notified fail for ten days to give notice to the governor of his acceptance, his appointment shall be deemed void, and his place filled as in case of vacancy.

Certificate of appointment
to be sent.
Ib.

Art. 3868. There shall be maintained and instructed at said college annually, free of charge to them, three students from each senatorial district in this state, one of whom shall be appointed by the senator of such district, and the other two by the representatives thereof. One-half of said students so appointed shall be compelled to take an agricultural and the other half a mechanical course of study, to be assigned thereto by the president of said college; and in order to pay their expenses the comptroller, on proper vouchers being filed in his office by the directors, is authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, against any appropriation made for that purpose.

Number of students to receive instruction free of charge.
(Acts of 1881,
p. 75.)

Art. 3869. [3693] The board of directors shall, when necessary, appoint the president and professors of the college and such other officers as from time to time they may think proper to keep the college in successful operation, and may, from time to time, abolish any office that is in their judgment unnecessary.

Board shall appoint president, professors, etc., of the college,
etc.
(Acts of 1875,
p. 74.)

Art. 3870. [3694] Said board shall also, from time to time, make such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said college as they may deem meet and proper for that purpose, and shall regulate the course of study, the rates of tuition, the manner of performing labor, and the kind of labor to be performed by the students of said college, and shall also prescribe the course of discipline necessary to enforce the faithful discharge of the duties of the professors, officers and students.

May make

(Act March 9, 1876, p. 73, §8.)
P. D. 5793.

Art. 3872. [3696] The money arising from the sale of the one hundred and eighty thousand acres of land donated to this state by the United States under the provisions of an act of congress passed on the second day of July, 1862, and an amended act of congress of July 23, 1866, shall constitute a perpetual fund, under the conditions and restrictions imposed by the above recited acts, for the benefit of said college, and the investment of the same, heretofore made in the bonds of the state, shall continue until the legislature shall by law direct it to be invested otherwise in furtherance of the interests of said college and in accordance with the terms on which it was received.

Accrued interest on bonds, how invested.

Art. 3873. [3697] The interest heretofore collected by the state board of education in accordance with the provisions of the act of August 21, 1876, due at the end of the fiscal year of 1876, on the bonds belonging to said Agricultural and Mechanical College and invested in six per cent state bonds, shall also constitute a part of the perpetual fund of said college until the legislature shall otherwise provide.

Duty of state board of education.
(Const., art. 7, §8.)
(Acts Aug. 21, 1876, p. 283, §2; March 9, 1875.)

Art. 3874. [3698] It shall be the duty of the state board of education to collect the semi-annual interest on the bonds mentioned in the two preceding articles as the same becomes due, and place the same in the treasury of the state to the credit of said college fund.

Money, how drawn from the treasury, and for what purpose.
(See acts 1879, extra session, ch. 18.)

Art. 3875. [3699] The interest on the bonds which were purchased with the proceeds of the said land scrip, and also the interest on the bonds in which the accrued interest of the said bonds was invested, as heretofore set out in this chapter, is set apart exclusively for the use of said college, and shall be drawn from the treasury by the board of directors on vouchers audited by said board, or approved by the governor and attested by the secretary of the board.

Duty of comptroller to issue warrant, when.
Ib.

Art. 3876. [3700] On such vouchers being filed with the comptroller, it shall be his duty to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the same from time to time as the same may be needed to pay the directors, professors and officers of the college.

College for colored youths.
(Act Aug. 14, 1876, p. 136, §§1, 2.)

Art. 3877. [3701] The agricultural and mechanical college for the benefit of colored youths, located in Waller county, as established by an act of the legislature, approved August 14, 1876, shall be under the supervision and control of the board of directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College located in Brazos county, and established by an act of the legislature passed April 17, 1871.

Powers and duties of the board of directors.
(Const., art. 7, §14.)

Art. 3878. [3702] The said board of directors shall in all respects have the same powers and perform the same duties in reference to the college named in the preceding article as they are clothed with in reference to the Agricultural and Mechanical College located in Brazos county.

Article 3879. The board of education shall have possession and charge of the Sam Houston Normal Institute, which shall be conducted in a first-class manner, and under such rules and regulations as to the government and discipline thereof as may be prescribed by said board.

The Sam Houston Normal Institute at Huntsville. (Acts of 1879, p. 182, §2.)

Art. 3880. Not less than two students from each senatorial district, and six from the state at large, shall be received in said institute as state students, who shall receive tuition, board and lodging free to the extent of the appropriation that may be made, but in no case shall the current expenses of the institute exceed the sum or sums appropriated. The board of education shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the admission of students and the manner of their appointment or selection. No student shall be received who is not a resident of this state and at least of the age of sixteen years and of good moral character.

Number of students to receive free tuition, etc. Ib. §3.

Art. 3881. All students attending said institute at expense of the state, as provided in the foregoing article, shall sign a written obligation in a book to be kept at the institute for that purpose, binding said students to teach in the public free schools of their respective districts at least one year next after their discharge from the normal school and as much longer than one year as the time of their attendance at said school shall exceed one year, for which teaching said student shall receive the same compensation allowed other teachers of said schools, and said board of education shall make rules by which students may receive certificates of qualification as teachers, authorizing them to teach without further examination.

Obligation of students. Ib. §4.

Art. 3882. The board of education may authorize other students to be admitted into said institute, who shall be required to pay tuition, in whole or in part, as may be prescribed by the board. Said board shall appoint the teachers of said institute and fix their salaries, not to exceed two thousand dollars for the principal and fifteen hundred dollars for assistants.

Pay students. Ib. §5.

Art. 3883. The board of education shall appoint a local board of three directors, who shall hold frequent meetings at the institute, have general supervision of the building and grounds and shall perform such other duties pertaining to the institute, and make such reports to the board of education as said board may require. Said directors shall each receive an annual salary, not to exceed one hundred dollars, to be paid out of the fund hereinafter appropriated.

Local board of directors. Ib. §6.

Art. 3884. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, annually, to set apart out of the available free school fund the sum of fourteen thousand dollars for the support of said normal school and place the same to its credit, and which may be drawn upon by the board of education for the current expenses of said school on vouchers audited by said board or approved by the governor and attested by the secretary; and on filing said vouchers the (Acts of 1879,

p. 181.)

Article 3885. The normal school for colored teachers at Prairie View shall be under the control and supervision of the board of directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

How many to be admitted.
Ib. §2.

Art. 3886. Said board of directors shall admit one student from each senatorial district in this state, and at least three students from the state at large, to be taken from the colored population of this state, and be not less than sixteen years of age at the time of their admission.

Duties of board.
Ib.

Art. 3887. Said board shall appoint a principal teacher and such assistant teacher or teachers of said school, and other officers of said school as may be necessary, and shall make such rules, by-laws and regulations for its government as they may deem proper, and shall regulate the course of study and the manner of performing labor to be performed by the students, and shall provide for the board and lodging and instruction of the students without pecuniary charge to them, and shall regulate the course of discipline necessary to enforce the faithful discharge of the duties of all officers, teachers, students and employes of said school, and shall have the same printed and circulated for the benefit of the people of the state and of the officers and students of the school.

Admissions, obligations of students, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3888. The board of directors may provide for receiving such a number of students of both sexes as in the judgment of said board the school can best accommodate, and shall require all students admitted to said school to sign a written obligation (in a proper book kept for that purpose) binding said student to teach in the public free schools for the colored population of their respective districts at least one year next after their discharge from the normal school, and as much longer than one year as the time of their connection with said normal school shall exceed one year; for which teaching said discharged student shall receive the same rate of compensation allowed other teachers of such schools with like qualifications.

Appropriations for.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 181.)
Ib. §4.

Art. 3889. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts annually to set apart out of the interest accruing from the university fund, appropriated for the support of public free schools, the sum of six thousand dollars for the support of said normal school, and place said fund to the credit of said normal schools, and the same may be drawn by the board of directors on vouchers audited by the board or approved by the governor and attested by the secretary; and on filing such vouchers the comptroller shall draw his warrant on the state treasury for the same from time to time as the same may be needed.

Art. 3890. The board shall make rules by which students can obtain certificates of qualification as teachers that will entitle them to teach without other or further examination.

THE PUBLIC FREE SCHOOLS.

Article 3891. [3703] The constitutional provisions for public schools are hereby appended as a part of the school law of this state.

Constitutional provisions relating to the public free schools. (Const., art. 7, §§2-6; Acts 1893, p. 182.)

“Article 7—Section 1—A general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the legislature of the state to establish and make suitable provision for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools.

“Sec. 2. All funds, lands and other property heretofore set apart and appropriated for the support of the public schools; all the alternate sections of land reserved by the state out of grants heretofore made, or that may hereafter be made, to railroads or other corporations of any nature whatsoever; one-half of the public domain, and all sums of money that may come to the state from the sale of any portion of the same, shall constitute a perpetual public school fund.

“Sec. 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the state occupation taxes, and a poll tax of one dollar on every male inhabitant of this state between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools, and, in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem state tax of such an amount, not to exceed twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, as, with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public free schools of this state for a period of not less than six months in each year; and the legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts within all or any of the counties of this state, by general or special law, without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation, and may authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within such school districts for the further maintenance of public free schools and the erection of school buildings therein; provided, that two-thirds of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax, not to exceed in any one year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts.

Ib. §4.

“Sec. 4. The lands herein set apart to the public free school fund shall be sold under such regulations, at such times and on such terms as may be prescribed by law; and the legislature shall not have power to grant any relief to purchasers thereof. The comptroller shall invest the proceeds of such sales and of those heretofore made, as may be directed by the board of education herein provided for, in the bonds of the United States, the state of Texas or counties in said state, or in such other securities and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law; and the state shall be responsible for all investments.

“Sec. 5. The principal of all bonds and other funds and the principal arising from the sale of the lands hereinbefore set apart to said school fund shall be the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable therefrom and the taxes herein authorized and levied shall be the available school fund, to which the legislature may add not exceeding one per cent annually of the total value of the permanent school fund, such value to be ascertained by the board of education until otherwise provided by law, and the available school fund shall be applied annually to the support of the public free schools. And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties according to their scholastic population and applied in such manner as may be provided by law.

(Const. amendment of 1884.)
Ib. §6.

“Sec. 6. All lands heretofore or hereafter granted to the several counties of this state for educational purposes are of right the property of said counties respectively to which they were granted, and title thereto is vested in said counties, and no adverse possession or limitation shall ever be available against the title of any county. Each county may sell or dispose of its lands, in whole or in part, in manner to be provided by the commissioners' court of the county. Actual settlers residing on said lands shall be protected in the prior right of purchasing the same to the extent of their settlement, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, at the price fixed by said court, which price shall not include the value of existing improvements made thereon by such settlers. Said lands and the proceeds thereof, when sold, shall be held by said counties alone as a trust for the benefit of public schools therein; said proceeds to be invested in bonds for the United States, the state of Texas, or counties in said state, or in such other securities and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law; and the counties shall be responsible for all investments; the interest thereon and other revenue, except the principal, shall be available funds.

“Sec. 7. Separate schools shall be provided for the white and colored children, and impartial provision shall be made for both.

“Sec. 8. The governor, comptroller and secretary of state shall constitute a board of education, who shall distribute said funds to the several counties, and perform such other duties concerning public schools as may be prescribed by law.”

PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND.

County bonds to be examined, etc., by attorney-general. (Acts of 1885, p. 40, §1; amend. 1893, p. 134.)

Art. 3892. Hereafter when any county bonds are offered for sale as an investment for the permanent public free school fund of the state, and the same are desired for investment, the party offering and proposing to sell such bonds shall first submit them to the attorney-general of the state, who shall carefully inspect and examine the same, in connection with the law under which they were issued, and shall diligently inquire into all the facts and circumstances, so far as may be necessary to determine the validity thereof, and upon being satisfied that such bonds were issued in conformity with law, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon the county by which they purport or appear to have been issued, he shall thereupon certify, and his certificate to that effect so procured by the party offering such bonds for sale shall be submitted to the comptroller, or board of education, with the bonds so offered for sale; and should the same be purchased as an investment for the permanent public free school fund from the county issuing the same, or from any person authorized by said county to act for it in the negotiation or sale of such bonds, they shall thereafter be held in every action or proceeding in which their validity is or may be called in question to be valid and binding obligations of the county issuing the same, unless fraudulently issued, or issued in violation of constitutional limitation; and in every such action the certificate of the attorney-general as aforesaid (which shall be carefully preserved by the comptroller) shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of the bonds and coupons thereto, which may have been so purchased.

Art. 3893. Nothing in the preceding article shall be so construed as to relieve the comptroller or board of education from the duty of a careful examination of the bonds offered as an investment for the permanent public free school fund of the state, an investigation of the facts tending to show the value and validity thereof, and such board of education may decline to purchase the same unless satisfied that they are a safe and proper investment for such funds; and no county bonds shall be purchased as an investment for the permanent public free school fund that do not bear interest at the rate of at least five per cent per annum, nor shall the amount paid for any such bonds exceed the par or face value thereof, and it shall be the duty of the board of education and comptroller to decline to purchase the bonds of any county whose indebtedness, inclusive of the bonds so offered, shall exceed five per cent of the assessed value of the real estate in such county, and if default be made in the payment of interest when due, upon any such bonds, the board of education may, at any time prior to the payment of such over-due interest, elect to treat the principal as also due, and the same shall thereupon, at the option of the board of education, become due and payable, and the payment of both such principal and interest shall in all cases be enforced in such manner as is or may be provided by law, and the right to enforce such collection shall never be barred by any law or limitation whatever.

Art. 3894. In all cases where the proceeds of the sale of any bonds have been received by the proper officers of the county, or by the party acting for it in negotiating the sale thereof, such county shall be thereafter estopped from denying the validity of such bonds so issued, and the same shall be held to be valid and binding obligations of the county, and in any action upon such bonds or coupons thereto judgment shall be rendered against the county for the amount of the bonds sued on and interest thereon at the rate mentioned therein, deducting such amounts, if any, as have been previously paid thereon.

Duties of board of education in investing school fund.
Ib. §2; amend., 1893, p. 184.

County estopped from questioning validity.
Ib. §3.

Payment of interest waiver of error. ib. §4; amend. 1893, p. 185.

Art. 3895. The payment of any interest upon any bonds heretofore purchased, with public school funds, or belonging thereto, shall be deemed and held a waiver of any supposed error, irregularity or want of authority affecting or tending to affect the validity of any such bonds; and the same shall thereafter be held to be valid and binding obligations upon the county by which they appear or purport to have been issued, notwithstanding any such supposed error, irregularity or want of authority as aforesaid.

District court of Travis county invested with concurrent jurisdiction. (Acts 1893, p. 185.)

Art. 3895a. The district court of Travis county shall have jurisdiction of any suit upon bonds or obligations belonging to the permanent public school funds, or purchased therewith, concurrent with that of any other court having jurisdiction in such case.

Provisions apply to all bonds, except. ib. §6.

Art. 3896. The provisions of this chapter shall extend to any bonds or securities other than the bonds of this state or of the United States, in which the public school funds are or may hereafter be invested, as now or hereafter authorized or prescribed by law, and also to any bonds or securities purchased with any of the permanent funds set apart for the support, maintenance and improvement of any of the asylums or other institutions of this state.

Article 3897. One-fourth of all occupation taxes and the one dollar poll tax levied and collected for the use of public free schools, exclusive of the delinquencies and cost of collection; the interest arising from any bonds or funds belonging to the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable from the proceeds of sale of land heretofore set apart for the permanent school fund which have hitherto or may hereafter come into the state treasury; all moneys arising from the lease of school lands, and such an amount of state tax, not to exceed twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property as may be from time to time levied by the legislature, shall constitute the available school fund, which fund shall be apportioned annually to the several counties of this state according to the scholastic population of each, for the support and maintenance of the public free schools.

One per cent of permanent added. (Acts of 1892, p. 8.)

Art. 3898. One per cent of the full value of what is known, held and controlled by the state of Texas as the permanent school fund shall be transferred annually hereafter to the credit of the available school fund of the state, as belonging to it and a part of the same, and which henceforward shall constitute a part of the state's available school fund and to be used and applied for the support, maintenance and benefit of the public free schools of the state, as now or hereafter may be provided by law.

Art. 3899. It shall be the duty of the comptroller and the state treasurer to notify the state board of education of the amount to the credit of the permanent school fund on the first to the fifteenth day of July of each and every year. The said statement shall show the amount invested in the bonds, the amount of outstanding land notes, and the amount of cash on hand to the credit of the permanent school fund. Upon the receipt of this information the state board of education shall estimate one per cent of the said permanent school fund, and shall issue directions to the said comptroller and state treasurer to transfer the one per cent of the permanent fund thus found to the credit of the available school fund.

How estimate to be made. Ib. §2; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3900. It shall be the duty of the state comptroller and state treasurer upon the receipt and delivery to them by said board of education of the showing and statement aforesaid, to transfer and place to the credit of the available school fund of the state the amount found and ascertained by said board of education as aforesaid, and accruing from the one per cent of value of the permanent school fund and transferred to the available school fund under article 3898; provided, that no part, or the value thereof, of the unsold public land belonging to said fund shall be included or considered by the comptroller and state treasurer in ascertaining the amount to be transferred from the permanent to the available free school fund.

Duty of comptroller and treasurer to transfer fund, when. Ib. §3; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3901. It shall be the duty of the state board of education and comptroller, in the management and investment of the permanent school fund, to provide, reserve and set apart in cash annually an amount sufficient of the same to meet the one per cent annual transfer to the available fund.

Duty to be performed annually. Ib. §4.

Art. 3902. The proceeds of any leasing or renting of lands heretofore granted by the state of Texas to the several counties thereof for educational purposes shall be appropriated by the commissioners' courts of said counties in the same manner as is provided by law for the appropriation of the interest on bonds purchased with the proceeds of the sale of such lands; and the proceeds arising from the sale of timber on said lands or any part thereof shall be invested in like manner as the constitution and law requires of proceeds of sales of such lands, and it shall be unlawful for the commissioners' court of any county to apply said proceeds, or any part thereof to any other purpose, or to loan the same, or to invest the same, except as above required.

Available county school funds. (Acts of 1884, p. 72.)

Art. 3903. No part of the public school fund shall be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school.

Sectarian schools. Ib. §3. (Acts of 1884, p. 40.)

Art. 3904. All available public school funds of this state shall be appropriated in each county for the education alike of white and colored children, and impartial provisions shall be made for both races.

Apportionment to be equal to all races. Ib. §4; amend. 1893, p. 184.

Art. 3905. All children without regard to color, over eight years of age and under seventeen years of age, at the beginning of any scholastic year, shall be entitled to the benefit of the public school fund for that year.

Scholastic age. Ib. §5; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3906. The scholastic year shall commence on the first day of September of each year and end on the thirty-first day of August thereafter.

Scholastic year. Ib. §6.

Art. 3907. The children of the white and colored races shall be taught in separate schools, and in no case shall any school consisting partly of white and partly of colored children receive any aid from the public school fund.

Separate schools for the races. Ib. §7.

"Colored race" and "Colored children" defined. Ib. §8; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3908. The terms "colored race" and "colored children" as used in the preceding articles and elsewhere in this title, include all persons of mixed blood, descended from negro ancestry.

Title to property for schools, how vested. Ib. §9; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3909. All conveyances, devices and bequests of property for the benefit of the public schools, made by any one for any county, city, town or district, shall, when not otherwise directed by the grantor or devisor, vest said property in the county judge of the county, or the mayor of the city or town, or the trustees of the school district or their successors in office, as the trustees for those to be benefited thereby, and the same, when not otherwise directed, be administered by said officers under such rules as may be established by the state superintendent.

Public school curriculum. (Acts 1893, p. 187.)

Art. 3909a. All public schools in this state shall be required to have taught in them orthography, reading in English, penmanship, arithmetic, English grammar, modern geography, composition, physiology, and hygiene, including the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics on the human system, and other branches as may be agreed on by the trustees or directed by the state superintendent.

School officers to take oath. Ib.

Art. 3909b. County superintendents, county judges, and all school officers shall take oaths to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of their respective offices.

School days and school month defined. Ib. §10; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3910. Public schools shall be taught for five days in each week. Schools shall be closed on legal holidays. A school month shall consist of not less than twenty school days, exclusive of holidays, and shall be taught for not less than seven hours each day, including intermissions and recesses.

[Note.—Articles 3912, 3913, 3914, 3915 and 3916 are stricken out of this chapter in conformity with the report of the joint committee on amendments to the civil statutes, enacted as a bill by the 24th legislature, the same matter being codified as chapter eight, title LII. hereof.]

Shall require reports from officers. (Acts of 1889, p. 15; amend. 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3917. The state superintendent shall require of county judges, county, city, and town superintendents, county and city treasurers, and treasurers of school boards, and other school officers and teachers, such school reports relating to the school fund and other school affairs as he may deem proper for collecting information and advancing the interests of the public schools, and shall furnish to county, city, and town superintendent, and other school officers and teachers, for the use of such officers and teachers, the necessary blanks and forms for making such reports and carrying out such instructions as may be required of them; and any county judge, or county, city, or town superintendent, assessor, treasurer, or teacher, who shall willfully fail to make such report within twenty days after the same shall have been required by the state superintendent to be filed, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, the same to be paid, when collected, to the available school fund.

Shall report to the board of education, when. (Acts of 1884, p. 42, §18.)

Art. 3918. The state superintendent shall, one month before the meeting of each regular session of the legislature, and ten days prior to any special session thereof, at which, under the governor's proclamation convening the same, any legislation may be had respecting the public schools, make a full report to the board of education of the condition of the public schools throughout the state. Such reports shall give all the information called for by the board of education, and contain such other matters as the state superintendent shall deem important.

Art. 3919. The governor shall lay such reports before the legislature, and two thousand copies of said report shall be printed in pamphlet form for the use of the legislature and for distribution among the various school officers and libraries within the state and the superintendents of public schools of other states and territories of the United States and Canada, and the bureau of education at Washington City.

Art. 3920. The state superintendent shall be allowed by the state board of education an amount necessary for the expenses for books, postage, express charges, printing, stationery, clerk and porter hire, and other necessary office expenses; provided, that said state board shall make no allowance of funds in excess of the amounts appropriated by the legislature for this department; and provided, that in all cases when there is a deficiency in the available school fund and warrants are issued in settlement of accounts for expenses provided for in this article, said warrants shall not be negotiable until after such accounts shall have been approved by the legislature.

To be laid before the legislature.
Copies to be distributed among school officers.
Ib. §20; amend. 1893, p. 182.
Expenses for books, etc., to be allowed him.
(Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

Article 3921. The governor, secretary of state and comptroller shall constitute a state board of education, who shall hold their sessions at the seat of government. The governor shall be ex officio president of the board, and a majority of them shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Board of education, how organized.
(Acts of 1884, p. 41, §11; amend. 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3922. The state superintendent shall be ex officio secretary of the state board of education, and shall keep a complete record of all its proceedings, which shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the superintendent.

Superintendent ex officio secretary.
Ib. §21.

Art. 3923. The state board of education shall, on or before the first day of August of each year, make an apportionment of the available school fund among the several counties of the state and to the several cities and towns constituting separate school organizations, according to the scholastic population of each, and the state superintendent shall deliver an abstract of such apportionment to the comptroller, and to each county superintendent or judge and president of the board of school trustees of each city or town that has control of the public schools, a statement of the amount apportioned to each county, city, or town, as the case may be; and he shall issue to the county treasurer of each county, and to the treasurer of the school fund of any city or town having control of the public schools, a certificate, with thirteen collection coupons attached, for the amount of the available school fund so apportioned to each county, city, or town, which certificate shall be signed by the governor as president of the board of education, countersigned by the comptroller of public accounts, and attested by the secretary.

Shall make apportionment of available school fund, when and how.
(Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

Duties of comptroller in relation to the school fund.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 42, §24.)

Art. 3924. The comptroller shall keep a separate account of the available school fund arising from every source. He shall draw his warrant in favor of the treasurer of the school fund of each county, city, or town that has control of its public schools, in such sum as each is entitled to upon a pro rata distribution of the available school fund in the hands of the state treasurer, upon the presentation to him of a coupon, properly filled out and receipted by the said local treasurer.

Same.
Ib.

Art. 3924a. The comptroller shall, at the time the certificates of apportionment are issued, advise the county treasurer of each county of the amount which the county tax collector of his county is authorized to pay on coupon No. 1 to the said county treasurer, for the available school fund for the ensuing school year.

Shall make reports to the legislature.
Ib. §25;
amend. 1893,
p. 182.

Art. 3925. The comptroller shall, on or before the meeting of each regular session of the legislature, report to the legislature an estimate of the amount of the available school fund, to be received for the succeeding two years, and the several sources from which the same accrues, and which may be subject to appropriation for the establishment and support of public schools.

STATE TREASURER.

Duties of state treasurer in relation to school fund.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 182.)

Art. 3926. The state treasurer shall receive and hold as a special deposit all moneys belonging to the available school fund, and keep an account of the several sources from which they accrue. He shall open and keep an account with every county, city, or town in the state to which the board of education issues a certificate (showing them to be entitled to receive any portion of the available free school fund), wherein he shall credit each such county, city, or town with the amount apportioned to it by such certificate.

Same.
Ib.

Art. 3926a. On the first day of each month the state treasurer shall set apart to each county, city or town such a portion of the available free school fund as has come into his hands during the preceding month, as is shown by the certificates held by them to be due to each, upon a pro rata distribution thereof, and he shall notify each local treasurer of the school fund, through the state superintendent of public instruction, of the amount which can be paid on the remaining coupons, until the whole amount of apportionment to each county or independent school district has been paid. Said money so set apart shall not be used by the state treasurer for any purpose other than to pay the warrant drawn by the state comptroller upon presentation of such coupons.

Same.
Ib.

Art. 3926b. Whenever the treasurer of the school fund of any such county, city or town shall present the comptroller's warrant to the state treasurer for payment, he shall pay to him such an amount as has been set apart under the provisions of this law to such county, city or town, and no more; and shall pay from time to time, when demanded, such sums of money as have been so set apart to the treasurer of the school fund of such county, city or town, taking his receipt therefor. The state treasurer shall also charge the various counties, cities and towns in their respective accounts with the amount or amounts so paid, and shall also, at the time of payment, endorse upon the back of such warrant the amount paid, the date when paid, and sign the same officially. When the whole amount of such certificate therefor has been paid, it shall be by such treasurer of the school fund presenting it receipted in full and delivered to the state comptroller.

Art. 3927. The treasurer shall, thirty days before each regular session of the legislature, and ten days before any special session at which any legislation can be had respecting the public schools, report to the governor the condition of the permanent and available school fund, the amount of each, and the manner of its disbursement, and he shall also make any additional report required by the board of education.

Shall report to the governor. (Acts of 1884, p. 43, §27.)

Art. 3928. The treasurer shall not under any circumstances use any portion of the permanent available school funds in payment of any warrant drawn against any other fund whatever.

Shall not with school fund pay any other claim. Ib. §28.

Article 3929. The office of county superintendent of public instruction is hereby created, and the commissioners' court of any county in the state may, when in their judgment it may be advisable, provide for the election of a county superintendent of public instruction at each general election, who shall be a person of educational attainments, good moral character, and executive ability, a qualified voter of said county, and the holder of a first grade teacher's certificate, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified; and said commissioners' court, when they so provide for the election of a county superintendent, shall appoint a county superintendent of public instruction, with the qualifications above provided, who shall perform the duties of such office until a county superintendent shall have been elected as hereinbefore provided, and shall have qualified.

County superintendent—term of office, qualifications, etc. (Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

(a) Such county superintendent of public instruction shall have, under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction, the immediate supervision of all matters pertaining to public education in his county. He shall confer with and counsel teachers and trustees, visit and examine schools, deliver lectures on topics calculated to excite an interest in public education. He shall organize and hold, with such assistance as may be necessary, at least three institutes of two days each during the school year; provided, that a failure to comply with this requirement shall be sufficient cause for his removal from office. He shall have authority to hold more than three institutes during the school year, if in his opinion the educational interests of his county demand more.

His duties.

(b) Such county superintendent of public instruction, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take the oath of office prescribed by law, and shall enter into a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county commissioners' court, and to be filed with the county clerk of his county, and said bond shall be made payable to the county commissioners' court and their successors in office, in trust for the available school fund of the county, and be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. In case said bond is forfeited and collected, the sum so collected shall become a part of the available school fund of the county.

Other duties. (c) He shall approve all vouchers legally drawn against the school fund of his county. He shall examine all contracts between the trustees and teachers of his county, and if in his judgment such contracts are proper, he shall approve the same; provided, that in considering any contract between a teacher and trustees he shall be authorized to consider the amount of salary promised to the teacher. He shall discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by the state superintendent. He shall distribute all school blanks and books to the officers and teachers of the public schools. He shall make such reports to the state superintendent as may be required by that officer. He shall immediately after qualifying appoint a county board of examiners, consisting of three resident white teachers holding first grade certificates, who shall serve during the pleasure of the county superintendent of public instruction, subject to the provisions hereinafter made.

Compensation. (d) The county superintendents of public instruction herein provided for shall receive from the available school fund of their respective counties annual salaries as follows: For each county with a scholastic population of two thousand or more, and not exceeding three thousand, he shall receive an annual salary of eight hundred dollars; for each county with a scholastic population of three thousand or more, and not exceeding four thousand, he shall receive nine hundred dollars; for each county with a scholastic population of four thousand or more, and not exceeding five thousand, he shall receive one thousand dollars; for each county with a scholastic population of five thousand or more, he shall receive twelve hundred dollars. The compensation herein provided for shall be paid quarterly by the county treasurer on the order of the commissioners' court; provided, that the salary for the quarter ending on the second Monday in November shall not be paid until the county superintendent presents a receipt from the state superintendent of public instruction showing that he has made all reports required of him.

County judge ex officio county superintendent in certain counties. Art. 3929a. In each county in this state having no school superintendent the county judge shall be ex officio county superintendent of public instruction, and shall perform all the duties required of the county superintendent in this chapter.

Commissioners' court may abolish. (Acts of 1893, p. 182.) Art. 3930. The county commissioners' court of any county in this state shall have the power and authority, when in their judgment such court may deem it advisable, to abolish the office of county superintendent of public instruction in their county by an order entered on the minutes of their court at a regular term thereof. Whenever such office is abolished the county superintendent shall serve out the term for which he was elected, and at the expiration of his term he shall turn over the books, papers, records, and other school property in his possession to the county judge, who shall thereafter perform the duties of county superintendent.

COUNTY JUDGES.

[Note.—Article 3931 defines the duties of the county judge as county superintendent. It is not embraced in the act of 1893, evidently in view of article 3930, which imposes upon him the duties of the county superintendent. But not being repealed it is retained.]

Art. 3931. The county judge, or the county superintendent, if there be one, shall have, under the direction of the state superintendent, the immediate supervision of all matters pertaining to public education in his county. He shall confer with and counsel teachers and trustees, visit and examine schools, deliver lectures on topics calculated to excite an interest in public education, or secure some one to do so. He shall organize and hold teachers' institutes, and shall approve all vouchers against the school fund of his county. He shall examine all contracts between teachers and trustees, in both district and community counties, and if in his judgment such contracts are proper he shall approve the same. He shall discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by the state superintendent. He shall distribute all school blanks and books to the officers and teachers of the public schools. He shall make such annual reports to the state superintendent as may be required by that officer; provided, that in considering whether he will approve a contract between a teacher and trustees he shall be authorized to consider the amount of salary promised the teacher.

Duties of school officers. (Acts of 1891, p. 97, §43.)

Art. 3932. The county judge shall give a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, to be approved by the county commissioners' court and filed with the county clerk, said bond to be made payable to the county commissioners' court and their successors in office, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall also take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution.

Bond. (Acts of 1884, p. 46.)
Ib. §44.

Art. 3933. The county judge who serves as ex officio county superintendent of public instruction shall be entitled to the following compensation: For five hundred dollars or less of the school fund actually disbursed by the county treasurer annually, beginning September first, twenty-five dollars shall be allowed such judge; for five hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars so disbursed annually, fifty dollars shall be allowed; and for each additional one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof so disbursed annually, ten dollars shall be allowed to such judge; and ten per cent on the salary thus allowed shall be added for postage, stationery, and printing expenses connected with the administration of the school law. Such compensation shall be paid to the county judge by the county treasurer out of the public school fund of the county upon the approval of his voucher by the commissioners' court, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as provided in this chapter for the payment of the salaries of county superintendents.

Compensation. (Acts of 1891, p. 98; amend. 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3934. The county superintendent, upon the receipt of the certificate issued by the board of education for the state fund belonging to his county, shall apportion the same to the several school districts (not including the independent school districts of the county), making a pro rata distribution as per the scholastic census, and shall at the same time apportion the income arising from the county school funds to all the school districts, including the independent school districts of the county, making a pro rata distribution as per scholastic census.

Shall apportion school fund to the districts, etc. (Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3934a. Except as herein provided, no part of the school fund apportioned to any district or county shall be transferred to any other district or county; provided, that districts lying in two or more counties, and situated on the county line, may be consolidated for the support of one or more schools in such consolidated district; and in such case the school funds shall be transferred to the county in which the principal school building for such consolidated district is located; and provided further, that all the children residing in a school district may be transferred to another district, or to an independent district, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the trustees of said districts interested.

COUNTY TREASURERS.

Compensation.
ib.

Art. 3935. The treasurers of the several counties shall be treasurers of the available public free school fund, and also of the permanent county school fund for their respective counties. The treasurers for the several counties shall be allowed for receiving and disbursing the school funds one-half of one per cent for receiving and one-half of one per cent for disbursing, said commissions to be paid out of the available school fund of the county upon an order of the commissioners' court approving the account of such treasurer; provided, no commissions shall be paid for receiving the balance transmitted to him by his predecessor, or for turning over the balance in his hands to his successor; and provided further, that he shall receive no commissions on money transferred or invested.

Bond.

(a) Within twenty days after the receipt of a certificate of his election, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, for the faithful performance of his duties under this chapter; said bond shall be an amount equal to the probable amount of available school fund and of the permanent county fund which may come into his hands, to be estimated by the county superintendent, or county commissioners' court in counties having no superintendent, and shall be made payable and conditioned as prescribed by the general law.

Duties.

(b) Upon receipt of the certificate from the state board of education, duly countersigned by the comptroller, showing the pro rata of the available school fund to which his county is entitled under the apportionment, the county treasurer shall present coupon No. 1 to the collector of taxes for his county, who shall pay to the county treasurer, on the first day of each month, all school taxes that have come into his hands during the preceding month, until the comptroller's coupon draft on the collector is paid up.

Same.

(c) The treasurer shall endorse the amounts so paid by the collector on the proper coupon, and shall also execute and deliver to the collector duplicate receipts, countersigned by the clerk of the county court, for such payments, and when the whole amount of such coupon shall have been paid the county treasurer shall deliver the same to the collector, in whose hands it shall be a voucher for so much money paid in his settlement with the comptroller of public accounts. In case the state school tax shall not suffice to pay off the apportionment to the county, the county treasurer shall, on receipt of notice from the state superintendent of the amount which can be paid by the state treasurer on the apportionment to his county, enter upon the proper coupon the amount so signified, and present the same for collection to the comptroller of public accounts. When the entire amount of the apportionment to the county shall have been paid the county treasurer shall deliver the certificate of apportionment, receipted in full, to the state comptroller.

Same.

(d) The county treasurer, upon receiving notice from the state superintendent of the amount apportioned to his county, shall report the same to the county superintendent, who shall immediately apportion the same to the several districts, according to the scholastic census, and the county superintendent shall immediately notify the county treasurer of the amount apportioned to each district. It shall also be the duty of the county treasurer to keep a separate account with each district, showing the amount apportioned according to the certificate of apportionment, and the amount paid out to each school and district; provided, in no case shall the county treasurer pay out any part of the school fund without the approval of the county superintendent.

(e) All balances of the general fund not appropriated for the current year shall be carried over by the treasurer as part of the general fund for the county for the succeeding year, and unexpended balances to the credit of any district shall be carried over for the benefit of such school district; provided, that if any such balance shall exceed five dollars per capita, according to the last scholastic census, then such excess over five dollars per capita shall be reapportioned to the school districts of the county. Same.

(f) All schools, both white and colored, in the same district shall be maintained the same length of time each year, as near as may be.

Art. 3936. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer of each county and the city treasurer or treasurer of the school board of each city or town having exclusive control of its schools to report the disbursement of the school fund, state and county, to the commissioners' court of his county. Said report shall be made at the first regular term of the commissioners' court after the thirty-first of August of each year or at the end of the school year, and shall consist of a complete exhibit of all moneys received and paid out by him, to whom paid, upon what voucher, and what moneys, if any, remain in his hands. To make regular reports of the fund. (Acts of 1888, p. 6, §1.)

Art. 3937. When such report shall have been examined and approved by the commissioners' court it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to immediately transmit a copy of such report, including a statement of the status of the permanent county school fund, certified to by the county clerk, to the superintendent of public instruction at Austin; provided, that city treasurers and treasurers of city school boards having exclusive control of its schools shall not be required to include in their reports statements of the status of the permanent county school funds. Copy to be sent to superintendent of public instruction. Ib. §2; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Article 3938. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of all organized counties, not already subdivided, to subdivide their respective counties into convenient school districts by the first day of September, 1893, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and Commissioners' courts to divide county into school districts. (Acts of 1895, p. 182.) counties hereafter organized shall be subdivided before the beginning of the next ensuing school year. Said courts shall designate said school districts by numbers; provided, that when districts are once established they shall not be changed without the consent of a majority of the legal voters in all districts affected by such change. But two or more adjacent school districts may, by a majority of the qualified voters of each district, and with the approval of the county superintendent, be consolidated, and in such case the county superintendent shall designate such consolidated district by suitable number. The commissioners' court of any organized county to which any unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes may, and upon the written petition of not less than ten resident citizens of such unorganized county shall, create such unorganized county into one or more school districts, and shall cause an order to that effect to be entered upon the minutes of said court.

To levy
special tax.
Ib.

Art. 3938a. The commissioners' court of the several counties of this state shall have power to levy a special tax for the further maintenance of public free schools and the erection within each school district of school buildings therein; provided, two-thirds of the qualified property tax paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for the purpose, shall vote such tax, not to exceed in any year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district.

Elections.
Ib.

Art. 3938b. All polls for school district elections shall be opened at 10 o'clock a. m., and shall not be closed before 4 o'clock p. m., and none of the officers holding such election shall be entitled to compensation therefor.

How made.
Ib.

Art. 3939. Said school districts shall be so made as to be as convenient as possible to the scholastic population, and said courts shall give the metes and bounds of each district, and shall designate the same carefully by giving the whole surveys and parts of surveys, with acreage of whole surveys and approximate acreage of parts of surveys in each district, and the county clerk shall carefully record the same; and each district shall be given a number, which number shall be painted in large letters or figures over the doors of the school houses, said signs to be provided by the district trustees of each district.

DISTRICT TAXATION.

Application
for local tax,
how made.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 84.)

Art. 3940. Whenever twenty or more qualified property tax paying voters of any district, or a majority of the property tax paying voters in any district, wish, for the purpose of taxing themselves for the building of school houses or supplementing the state school fund apportioned to said district, shall make application to the county commissioners' court, duly signed by them, said court shall enter upon an order for an election to be held in said district to determine whether such tax shall be levied or not; said application shall designate the amount of tax asked to be levied, and the order of said court shall state—

1. When said election shall be held.
2. At what point or points the polls shall be opened.
3. The amount of tax to be voted on.

Duty of commissioners' court.

Provided, that no election shall be held to determine the levy of a tax exceeding twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property. The commissioners' court shall order the sheriff to give notice of such election by posting three notices in the district for three weeks before the election, and the sheriff shall obey such order. Not more than one such election shall be held in the same scholastic year.

Art. 3941. The county commissioners' court shall appoint a presiding officer for such voting place to hold such election, who shall make due return thereof as is required by law for holding a general election, and all persons who favor taxation for school purposes shall have written or printed on their tickets "For school tax," and all persons opposed to such taxation shall have written or printed on their tickets "Against school tax."

Court to appoint officers to hold election. (Acts of 1884, p. 49, §32; amend. 1895, p. 182.)

Art. 3942. All persons who are legal qualified voters of this state and of the county of their residence and who are resident property taxpayers in said district, as shown by the last assessment roll of the county, shall be entitled to vote in any such school district; and if at any such election two-thirds of such qualified voters voting at such election shall vote for the tax, it shall be declared by the county commissioners' court to have carried in said district, and be so entered upon the records of said court to have been carried; and in all cases the returning officer shall make a full and complete return, as in other elections, to said court within five days after said election is held, and said return shall be opened and counted at the first meeting of said court, and the result declared.

Who entitled to vote in school election, etc. Ib. §33; amend. 1895, p. 182.

Art. 3943. Any one person may challenge a voter, but if the challenged party takes an oath that he is a qualified voter of the state and county, and that he is a resident property taxpayer in said district, he shall be entitled to vote.

Voter may be challenged. Ib. §34; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3944. At any time after the expiration of two years after any district has levied a school tax on itself, twenty property tax-paying qualified voters, or a majority of such voters of the district, may have an election held upon the proper petition to the commissioners' court, to determine whether such tax shall be abrogated, increased or diminished. Such election shall be held and conducted as elections provided for in article 3941 of this chapter, and persons entitled to vote at such election shall possess the qualifications prescribed in article 3942 of this chapter.

Second election may be held, when. Ib. §38; amend. 1893, p. 182.

Art. 3944a. If the election be to abrogate or diminish the school tax, each voter favoring the abrogation or diminution shall have written or printed upon his ticket, "For abrogating school tax," or "For diminishing school tax to ——— cents," as the case may be; and each voter opposing the abrogation or diminution shall have written or printed on his ballot, "Against abrogating school tax," or "Against diminishing school tax to ——— cents," as the case may be, and a majority vote shall be necessary to abrogate or diminish the school tax.

Ballots. (Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3944b. If the election be to determine whether the tax shall be increased, each voter favoring the increase of the school tax shall have written or printed on his ballot, "For increase of school tax," and those opposing such increase shall have written or printed on their ballots, "Against increase of school tax;" and if two-thirds of the votes cast be in favor of increasing the tax, it shall be increased.

Same. Ib.

Art. 3945. The county commissioners' court shall, at the time of levying the tax for county purposes, also levy upon each school district the amount of taxes said district has voted upon itself, and it shall be the duty of the tax assessor to assess the same as other taxes, and to make an abstract showing the amount of special tax assessed against each school district in his county, and to furnish the same to the county superintendent, on or before the first day of September of the year for which such taxes are assessed; and the taxes levied upon the real property in said district shall be a lien thereon, and the same shall be sold for unpaid taxes in the manner and at the time of sales occur for state and county taxes. A special tax voted in any district after the levy of county taxes shall be levied at any meeting of the commissioners' court prior to the delivery of the assessment rolls by the assessor. The tax assessor shall assess and the tax collector shall collect said district taxes as other taxes. The tax assessor shall receive a commission of one per centum for assessing such tax, and the tax collector a commission of one per centum for collecting the same. The tax collector shall pay all such taxes to the county treasurer, and said treasurer shall credit each school district with the amount belonging to it, and pay out the same as other school moneys.

Levy, when to be made. Ib.

Trustees to make contracts with teachers, for what period. (Acts of 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3946. Trustees of districts shall make contracts with teachers to teach the public schools of their respective districts, but the compensation to teachers under written contract with the trustees shall be approved by the county superintendent before the school is taught, stating that the teacher will teach such school for the time and money specified in the contract; and the board of trustees shall have authority, whenever the average daily attendance exceeds thirty-five pupils, to employ one competent assistant to every thirty-five pupils of such excess, and fractional part thereof exceeding fifteen pupils; and all children within the scholastic age residing in such district, though they may have settled in such a district since the scholastic census was taken, shall be entitled to receive all the benefits of the schools of such district; and in districts that levy a special school tax the trustees shall have the right to increase the salaries of teachers and the scholastic age, and may also have the schools taught longer than six months if it is deemed advisable.

Districts lying in two or more counties may be formed, how. (Acts of 1895, p. 163.)

Art. 3946a. Whenever the people living near a county line desire to organize a school district lying partly within two or more counties, a petition setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, signed by a majority of the qualified voters within said boundaries and approved by the county superintendent (or ex officio county superintendent) of public instruction of each county in which any part of the proposed district lies, shall be presented to the commissioners' court of any of one of said counties, and said commissioners' court shall have authority to establish such school district according to said petition.

Pupils and apportionment, etc. Ib.

Art. 3946b. When such school district is so established it shall be regarded and treated in all respects as a district of the county by whose commissioners' court it is established; provided, that the children of scholastic age living in each county shall be reported separately to the proper county authorities and apportionments for such pupils shall be made by the several counties as to other children of the same counties, but the funds apportioned to such children shall all be transferred during each school year to the county whose commissioners' court established the district; and provided, further, that when any such school district authorizes the levy of a local school tax by a vote of tax payers the returns of the election shall be made to the commissioners' court of the county establishing the district, and when the result of the election is declared the county clerk shall transmit to the commissioners' court of each of the other counties interested notice of the result and of the rate of tax, if any, authorized. And the commissioners' court of each county shall levy, the assessor shall assess, and the collector shall collect the tax separately for the portions of the district in their respective counties, but the funds so derived shall all be transferred to the county whose commissioners' court established the district.

Art. 3946c. County line communities may also be organized, including the residents of two or more community counties residing within three miles of the county line, upon petition to the county superintendent of public instruction of either county, in which case all the funds prorated to the children belonging to such community shall be transferred to the county whose county superintendent establishes the community.

County line communities may be formed, how. Ib.

Article 3947. Schools in counties governed by community system shall be organized as follows, and subject to the following provisions of this chapter; provided, the general provisions of this chapter govern when not in conflict with the special provisions hereof as to community system. It shall be lawful for the parents, guardians or other persons having control of any children, residing in any county governed by the community system, who may be within the scholastic age, to unite and organize themselves into free school communities, entitled to share in the benefits of the available school fund belonging to such county, upon complying with the conditions hereinafter prescribed.

Parents may unite to form, etc. (Acts of 1884, §72.)

Art. 3948. The bona fide residents of this state, desiring to unite in the organization of a free school community, shall make an application in writing to the county judge, on or before the first day of August of each year, stating that they desire in good faith to organize a free school, under the provisions of this law, and shall ask that their just pro rata of the available school fund of the county be set apart for the benefit of their school community. Said petition shall be signed in person by each petitioner, and should any petitioner be unable to sign his or her name, then said petitioner shall authorize the signing of his or her signature to the petition in the presence of at least two lawful witnesses.

How organized. Ib. §73.

Art. 3949. Such petition shall set forth—

1. That the application is made in behalf of a white or colored community, as the case may be.

What petition shall set forth. Ib. §74.

2. An alphabetical list of the names of the children within the scholastic age.

3. The age and sex of each child.

4. A similar list of all children within the scholastic age, residing in convenient distances to the school house of said community, who have no parents, guardians or other persons lawfully controlling them; and also a list of children not of scholastic age, who it is proposed shall be pupils of the community school.

5. The capacity of the school house and the character of other school conveniences, if any.

6. The names of three or more competent persons, to act as trustees for such school community. And the trustees of the community shall have the control of the public school house, and during the time in which no public school is being taught may rent out the house for such rent as can be obtained, such rent to be used to keep in repair such school house.

7. That no similar petition has been signed by the petitioners, for any other community, for the scholastic year for which said community is then being organized. And should the seventh statement prove untrue as to any of the signers of said petition, the children under the control of such signer shall forfeit their interest in the school fund for the scholastic year for which said community is being formed.

Duty of county judge upon receipt of petition.
Ib. §75.

Art. 3950. On receipt of such petition the county judge shall revise and correct it by comparing the list of names with the official census returns, and shall keep the same open for further correction as may be shown to his satisfaction to be just and proper until the first day of August of each year, at which time, if satisfied that the petition is in good faith, he shall enter an order in a book kept for that purpose sanctioning the establishment of such school community, and shall designate it by its name and number.

May organize with different sexes.
Ib. §76.

Art. 3951. Such communities may be organized for male and female schools, separate or mixed, as the population and necessities and conditions of each community may require; provided, that in towns of not more than fifteen hundred inhabitants no more than two school communities for white children and two communities for colored children shall be organized.

Child not on petition may be assigned, how.
Ib. §77.

Art. 3952. At any time before the apportionment of the available school fund to the several school communities in the county the county judge may assign any child not included in the list of an organized school community to some convenient and proper school community, and set apart to such community the proper pro rata of such child out of such school fund of the county.

TRUSTEES IN DISTRICT COUNTIES.

Election and term of office. (Acts of 1887, p. 122; amend. 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3953. On the first Saturday in June after the passage of this law the qualified voters of each school district, at a school district meeting for that purpose, shall elect three trustees for said district, who shall enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first day of July next following. They shall immediately thereafter organize by electing one of their number president and one secretary of the board of trustees. The terms of office of said trustees shall be divided into two classes, and they shall draw for the different classes; the one drawing number one shall serve for one year, and those drawing numbers two and three shall serve for two years, and until their successors shall have been elected or appointed and shall have qualified. On the first Saturday in June of each year thereafter there shall be an election in each school district for the election of a trustee or trustees, as the case may be, and the trustee or trustees so elected shall serve for two years, and until their successor or successors shall have been elected or appointed and shall have been qualified. The trustees so elected or appointed shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, qualify by taking the oath to faithfully perform their duties, and shall immediately file said oath with the county superintendent or county judge.

Art. 3953a. The commissioners' court shall appoint three persons, qualified voters of the district, to hold such election, who shall make returns thereof to the county superintendent within five days after such election shall have been held; and if no election be held, or if a vacancy occur in the board of trustees by death or otherwise, the county superintendent shall at once appoint a trustee or trustees, as may be necessary, for the full or unexpired term. If, at the time and place for holding such election, any or all of the persons so appointed to hold such election are absent or refuse to act, then the electors present may select of their number a person or persons to act in the place of those absent or refusing to act. No person shall be eligible to serve as a school trustee who can not read and write, and has not been a resident of the school district for six months prior to election held for trustees.

Election, how held.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 182.)

Art. 3954. The trustees of school districts provided for in the preceding articles of this chapter and their successors in office shall be a body politic and corporate in law, and shall be known by and under the title and name of district trustees of district number ——— and county ———, state of Texas, and as such may contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead or be impleaded in any court of this state of proper jurisdiction, and may receive any gift, grant, donation or devise made for the use of the public schools of the district. All reports and other official papers shall be headed with the number of district and name of county.

Trustees of district to be body politic.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 49, §37.)

TRUSTEES IN COMMUNITY COUNTIES.

Art. 3955. Three trustees shall be appointed by the county judge for each community school, and the three citizens named in the petition shall in all cases be appointed trustees unless the county judge be satisfied from personal knowledge that the parties so named are either unworthy or incompetent. Said trustees shall discharge such duties as are herein prescribed or which may be prescribed by the state superintendent, and shall see that the schools for which they are trustees are conducted in accordance with the provisions and limitations of this law. Said trustees shall be removed from office by the county judge upon the written application of a majority of the patrons of the school.

How appropriated.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 47, §78.)

Art. 3956. It shall be the duty of the trustees of a school community already provided with a school house to contract with a teacher holding a certificate of competency from the county judge to teach a school for the community for as long a period as the school fund entered to the credit of the community will warrant. The school shall open at such times as the trustees may decide, and be taught continuously until the close of the term, unless suspended by the trustees. The trustees shall in some public way give two weeks' notice of the time of opening the school.

Duty to employ a teacher.
Ib. §79.

GENERAL PROVISIONS REGULATING THE DUTIES OF TRUSTEES.

How contracts are to be made.
Ib. §79a.

Art. 3957. Trustees shall make contracts with teachers, and in making them shall base their contract with the teachers on the basis of the number of pupils within scholastic age registered in the community; provided, however, that should the attendance fall below thirty-three and one-third per cent of the registered pupils in such community, the trustees thereof may discontinue the school.

[Note.—The three foregoing articles, 3955, 3956, and 3957, are not embraced in the act of 1893.]

What shall be considered in making contracts.
Ib. §79b.

Art. 3958. Trustees in making contracts with teachers shall determine the salary to be allowed, or wages to be paid, upon the following rates of tuition: To teachers holding first class certificates, not more than two dollars and fifty cents; to those holding second class certificates, not more than two dollars; and to such as hold third class certificates, not more than one dollar and fifty cents per month per capita shall be allowed for pupils within the scholastic age; and it shall not be lawful for trustees or teachers to demand as a condition of admittance into school the payment of extra tuition of pupils of scholastic age; provided, that in no event shall teachers holding permanent certificates receive from the public free school fund more than eighty-five dollars per month, or those holding first grade certificates receive from the public free school fund more than seventy-five dollars per month, and those holding second grade certificates more than sixty dollars per month, and those holding third grade certificates more than forty dollars per month; provided, that this restriction shall not apply to salaries of teachers in districts which levy a local tax for school purposes.

To determine how many schools to be established,
etc.
Ib. §53;
amend. 1893,
p. 182.

Art. 3959. School trustees shall determine how many schools shall be maintained in their respective school districts, and at what points they shall be located; they shall determine when the schools shall be opened and when closed; they shall contract with teachers and manage and supervise the schools subject to the rules and regulations of the county and state superintendents. They shall approve all teachers' vouchers and all other claims against the school fund of their district; provided, that trustees of districts in making contracts with teachers shall not create a deficiency debt against the district.

Trustees to employ and dismiss teachers.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 182.)

Art. 3959a. The trustees of school districts shall have the management and control of the public schools; they shall have the power to employ and dismiss teachers, but in cases of dismissal, teachers shall have the right of appeal to the county and state superintendents.

Children over and under age admitted, how.
Ib. §58;
amend. 1893,
p. 182.

Art. 3960. The trustees of schools shall have the power to admit pupils over and under scholastic age, either in or out of the district, on such terms as they may deem proper and just; provided, that in admitting pupils over and under the scholastic age the school shall not be overcrowded, to the neglect and injury of pupils within the scholastic age; and they may suspend from the privileges of schools any pupil found guilty of incorrigible conduct, but such suspension shall not extend beyond the current term of the school.

May employ assistant teachers.
Ib. §79c.

Art. 3961. Trustees may employ one or more assistant teachers whenever the average daily attendance exceeds thirty-five pupils. The teacher shall be entitled to pay for pupils over and under age at such rates as the trustees may prescribe. If the necessity for the employment of an assistant teacher is caused by the attendance of private pupils, then the trustees shall require the teacher to employ at his or her expense an assistant holding a certificate of competency as teacher.

[Note.—Article 3961 is not embraced in the act of 1893.]

Art. 3962. The amount contracted by trustees to be paid a teacher shall be paid on a check drawn by a majority of the trustees on the county treasurer and approved by the county superintendent. The check shall in all instances be accompanied by the affidavit of the teacher that he is entitled to the amount specified in the check as compensation under his contract as a teacher.

Salary, how paid.
Ib. §79d.

Art. 3963. White and colored children shall not be taught in the same schools, but impartial provision shall be made for both races. Three white trustees shall in all cases be elected for the control and management of the white schools of the district, and three colored trustees shall be elected for the control and management of the schools for colored children. The election for white and colored trustees shall be held at the same time and places, and the ballots cast for white trustees shall be deposited in a separate box from that used for the ballots cast for colored trustees. The returns of the election shall be made to the county judge, who shall deliver the same to the commissioners' court to be canvassed and the result declared as in cases of other county elections. The returns shall show distinctly the separate votes for white and colored trustees, and the county clerk shall certify to the county superintendent the white and colored trustees elected for each district, and the county superintendent shall issue the commissions of trustees. Each year after the scholastic census of the county is completed, the county superintendent shall, if any district has less than twenty pupils of scholastic age, either white or colored, have authority to consolidate said district as to said white or colored schools with other adjoining districts, and to designate the board of trustees which shall control the white or colored school of such consolidated district. But this shall be done before the apportionment is made, and the apportionment shall be made with respect to such consolidation. The white trustees of each district shall be the trustees of the district for all purposes having relation to the management or control of the white schools, and the fund apportioned for their support, and the colored trustees shall be the trustees for all purposes in reference to the management or control of the colored schools and the funds apportioned for their support. The apportionment to the white and colored schools of each district shall be made in the following manner: The county superintendent, upon the receipt of the certificate issued by the board of education for the state fund belonging to his county, shall apportion the same to the several school districts (not including the independent school districts of the county), making a pro rata distribution as per the scholastic census, and shall at the same time apportion the income arising from the county school funds to all the school districts, including the independent school districts of the county, making a pro rata distribution as per scholastic census. Within thirty days after said apportionment is made by the county superintendent of education, the white and colored boards of trustees of such district shall, if possible, agree upon a division of the funds of the district between the white and colored schools, and shall fix the term for which the schools of the district shall be maintained for the year. Should they agree upon a division of the funds of the district or upon the length of the term for which the schools of the district shall be maintained, they shall at once certify their agreement to the county superintendent, who shall not approve any contract with teachers of the district until said agreement is received. Should said boards of trustees fail to agree upon a division of the funds of the district or upon the length of the term for which the schools of the district shall be maintained, they shall at once certify their disagreement to the county superintendent, who shall proceed to fix the school term of such district and declare the division of the school fund of the district between the white and colored schools therein, endeavoring, as far as practicable, to provide for the schools of such district a school term of the same length.

Census, how taken and returned, when. (Acts of 1895, p. 182.)

Article 3964. The scholastic census shall be taken by the district trustees, or one of them, under the supervision of the county superintendent, of all children in their district between the ages of eight and seventeen years, giving name, age, color, sex, and the name of the parent or guardian, as may be directed by the state superintendent of public instruction, and return the said list to the county superintendent by the first Monday in June in each year, and the trustees so taking said census shall be paid five cents per capita out of the school fund of their respective districts. The trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full, complete, and correct census of all children residing in their respective districts; and said trustees may require each parent, guardian, or other person having in charge any child or children, to answer, under oath, as to the names and ages of such child or children, and any person refusing to answer such questions, under oath, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. The county superintendent shall, by the first Monday in July thereafter, aggregate the whole number of children in the county, and make an abstract in duplicate thereof, one to be filed with the county clerk, and the other to be forwarded by him to the state superintendent. Said census rolls shall be sworn to by the trustees taking the census, and said abstracts by the county superintendent, before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

COMMUNITY SYSTEM.

Duty of assessor. (Acts of 1884, p. 55, §80.)

Art. 3965. It shall be the duty of the assessor of taxes for each and every county in this state not operated under the district system, prior to the first day of June of each and every year, to take an accurate census of all the children within their respective counties who will be of the age of eight and under the age of sixteen years on the first day of September next succeeding the taking of such census.

Art. 3966. Such census shall state the name of the child, his or her age, sex or color. What census shall show. Ib. §81.

Art. 3967. For the purpose of ascertaining the facts required by the preceding article to be placed in such census, the assessor shall avail himself of all accessible information, and may when he may deem it necessary require the parent or guardian of any child, or any other person, to answer under oath touching such matters. Other duty of assessor. Ib. §82.

Art. 3968. No allowance shall be made by the comptroller of public accounts to any assessor of taxes for any assessment of taxes in his county until such assessor shall have exhibited and filed with him a certificate from the county clerk, under his hand and seal of office, showing that such census and abstracts, approved by the county judge as hereinafter required, have been delivered to him by the assessor within the time hereinafter provided. No fee to assessor until roll is returned. Ib. §83.

Art. 3969. Such census shall be verified by the affidavit of the assessor, and shall be by him returned to the county judge on or before the tenth day of June of each year. Shall be verified. Ib. §84.

Art. 3970. It shall be the duty of the assessor to make out and submit to the county judge for his approval two abstracts of such census, showing the number of children, white and colored, male and female, and such other information as may have been required by the state superintendent, and upon the approval thereof by the county judge, to mail the same on or before the first day of July to the state superintendent. Assessor to make two abstracts. Ib. §85.

Art. 3971. The assessor shall receive as compensation for taking such census and making such abstracts, and the other duties required of him in connection therewith, for the first one thousand children enrolled, five cents per capita, and for all children so enrolled in excess of one thousand, three cents per capita, to be paid upon the warrant of the comptroller, out of the available school fund, by the tax collector of the county upon the certificate of the county judge, attested by his signature and seal of his office, that said census and abstracts have been delivered to him as required by law. Compensation of assessor. Ib. §86.

Article 3972. There shall be in each organized county of this state a county board of examiners. Said board shall be composed of three members, to be appointed by the county superintendent; provided, that in counties having no county superintendent the coun- County board of examiners; qualifications, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 182.)

ty judge shall appoint a county board of examiners. The persons so appointed shall be teachers residing in the county for which they are appointed, holding first grade county certificates, or certificates of some higher rank, which certificates shall be valid in the county for which said persons are appointed at the time of appointment; provided, that if the services of such persons can not be secured the superintendent may appoint other qualified persons residing in the county for which they are appointed. The members of the county board of examiners shall serve during the pleasure of the county superintendent of the county for which they are appointed. Said board of examiners shall meet at the call of the county superintendent, and the presence of all the members of the board shall be necessary to the transaction of business. If at any meeting of the board any member thereof is absent, the county superintendent shall appoint some other person, possessing the qualifications hereinbefore mentioned, to supply the place of the absent member, either temporarily or permanently, as he may deem proper.

Preliminaries to examination.
Ib.

Art. 3973. Any person desiring to be examined for a county certificate shall make application to the county superintendent, stating the class of certificate desired, and shall present him a certificate of three good and well known citizens, or such proof as he may require, of all the qualifications, except the examination grades, required for the class of certificate desired. After investigation, the county superintendent shall give the applicant a written recommendation to the board of examiners, requiring them to examine the applicant for a certificate of such class, if any, as they may find the applicant entitled to upon making the necessary examination grades. But no person shall receive such recommendation without first depositing with the county superintendent the sum of three dollars as an examination fee, and the recommendation given by the superintendent shall show the receipt of the examination fee. The board of examiners shall in no case permit any person to enter upon the examination without first presenting the written recommendation of the county superintendent.

Qualifications of teacher.

Art. 3973a. No person shall receive a certificate of any class without first showing to the satisfaction of the county superintendent that he is a person of good moral character, and his ability to speak and understand the English language sufficiently to use it easily and readily in conversation, and in giving instruction in all branches prescribed for the class of certificate for which he applies. The county superintendent, unless he knows the fact personally, shall require satisfactory proof of the applicant that he has ability to use the English language as above provided, before issuing his recommendation to the board of examiners, and the examiners shall also consider it as an element in determining his grades upon the branches upon which he is examined.

Certificates,
state.

Art. 3973b. Teachers' certificates authorizing the holders thereof to contract and teach in the public free schools of this state shall be of three kinds, as follows:

A county certificate, to be valid only in the county in which it is issued.

A city certificate, to be valid only in the city in which it is issued.

A state certificate, to be valid in all the counties and independent districts of the state. All valid teachers' certificates now in force shall be good for the time for which they were issued.

Art. 3973c. County certificates shall be of four classes, as follows: Certificates, county.

A third grade certificate.

A second grade certificate.

A first grade certificate.

A permanent certificate.

County certificates shall be issued by the county superintendent of public instruction upon the recommendation of the county board of examiners hereinbefore provided; and the county superintendent shall keep a record of all certificates issued by himself and of other certificates held by persons teaching in the public free schools of his county, who shall present such certificates for record before their contracts shall be approved, which record shall show the name, age, sex, and color of the holder of each certificate, and the kind and class of the certificate, the length of time for which it is valid, and by whom issued.

Art. 3973d. The county board of examiners of each county shall, if necessary, hold an examination on the third Friday and the Saturday following of each month of the year, except January, March, May, and July. Said board of examiners shall use the questions prescribed by the state superintendent of public instruction, and shall conduct the examinations in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the county superintendent and state superintendent of public instruction. Examinations of teachers. Ib.

Art. 3974. An applicant for a third grade certificate shall be examined in spelling, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography, Texas history, elementary physiology and hygiene and the laws of health, with special reference to narcotics, and school management and methods of teaching. A third grade certificate shall be valid for one year from the date of issue, and to receive such certificate the applicant shall, upon examination, make on the prescribed subjects an average grade of not less than seventy, and on each prescribed subject a grade of not less than fifty; provided, that a third grade certificate shall not in any case be good except in the county where issued. Applicants examined, in what. Ib.

(1). An applicant for a second grade certificate shall be examined in the subjects prescribed for a third grade certificate, and, in addition thereto, in United States history, elementary principles of civil government, English composition, physiology and hygiene, and physical geography. A second grade certificate shall be valid for two years from the date of issue, and to receive such certificate the applicant shall, upon examination, make on the prescribed subjects an average grade of not less than seventy-five, and on each subject of not less than fifty; provided, that if the applicant make a general average on the prescribed subjects of eighty-five, and on each subject a grade of not less than fifty, the certificate shall be valid for four years.

(2). An applicant for a first grade certificate shall be examined in the subjects prescribed for third and second grade certificates, and, in addition thereto, in physics, algebra, elements of geometry, the constitution of the United States and the state of Texas, and elements of mental and moral science, and the effects of tobacco and alcoholic intoxicants upon the human system. A first grade certificate shall be valid for four years; provided, if the holder thereof shall withdraw from school work for a period of two years or longer, such certificate shall become void; and to receive such certificate the applicant, upon examination, shall make upon the prescribed subjects an average grade of not less than eighty-five, and on each subject a grade of not less than fifty; provided, that a first grade certificate shall be valid for two years if the applicant makes a grade of not less than fifty on any subject, and a general average of seventy-five.

Same.
(Act of 1895,
p. 188.)

Art. 3974a. An applicant for a permanent certificate shall be examined upon the branches prescribed for third, second and first grade certificates, and in addition thereto in the history of education, general history, psychology, English and American literature, chemistry, solid geometry, plane trigonometry and elementary double entry bookkeeping. A permanent certificate shall be valid during good behavior of the holder; provided, that if any person holding a permanent certificate shall withdraw from the school work for a period of three years or longer, such certificate shall become void, and it shall be the duty of the county superintendent or the state superintendent, if the certificate be a state certificate, to cancel the same upon the records of his office. To receive a permanent certificate the applicant shall be a teacher of not less than three years successful experience in the schools of Texas, and upon examination shall make upon prescribed subjects an average grade of not less than eighty-five, and on each prescribed subject a grade of not less than fifty; provided, further, that all certificates that have heretofore been issued by county superintendents or county judges without the favorable recommendations of the county boards of examiners after examining the applicants on the subjects prescribed by law, are hereby declared null and void, and the same are hereby cancelled and declared of no force.

Grading
papers.
Ib.

Art. 3974b. The board of examiners shall grade the papers of the applicants on the basis of one hundred credits for a perfect paper, and endorse on each paper, in ink, the number of credits allowed on each answer, and the average (total) on the paper, and shall make to the county superintendent a separate report, under oath, on the examination of each applicant, which shall show the names of the members of the board conducting the examination, and the number of credits allowed upon each subject, and shall, if they believe that the applicant has fairly observed the rules prescribed for the examination, and if the applicant has made the grades and average required, recommend that he shall receive a certificate of such class, if any, as he may be entitled to, and shall deposit his papers with the county superintendent.

Duty of county superintendent.
Ib.

Art. 3974c. The county superintendent shall, upon the request of any applicant for second (grade), first (grade), or permanent certificate, made in writing, before the adjournment of the board of examiners, forward to the state superintendent, to be submitted to the state board of examiners, hereinafter provided, such applicant's papers and the report of the county board of examiners thereon, together with one dollar of the fee deposited with him; provided, that this shall not in any manner interfere with the issuance of the proper county certificate to said applicant.

Duty of state examiners.

Art. 3974d. The state board of examiners shall, at their next meeting after the receipt of said papers and report, together with said fee of one dollar, examine said papers and report thereon, and if they believe that the papers are fairly and accurately graded, they shall make a report to the state superintendent, and shall recommend that the county certificate issued upon said examination be made valid in all the counties of the state, and they shall notify said applicant of their action, who may forward his county certificate to the state superintendent of public instruction, who may issue in lieu thereof another certificate of equal rank, valid in all the counties of the state, and the state superintendent shall preserve a record of certificates thus issued by him.

Art. 3975. It shall be the duty of all teachers in the public schools of this state to attend the summer normal and county institutes as far as possible.

Teachers to attend normal schools.
Ib.

Art. 3976. Teachers may receive salaries not exceeding the following sums: Teachers with first grade certificates, seventy-five dollars per month; teachers with second grade certificates, fifty dollars per month; teachers with third grade certificates, thirty dollars per month; provided, that this restriction shall not apply to the salaries of teachers in districts that levy a local tax for school purposes. Teachers shall admit all children over and under the scholastic age into the public schools upon such terms as may be agreed to by teachers and trustees; provided, that in admitting pupils over and under the scholastic age, the school shall not be over crowded, to the neglect and injury to pupils within the scholastic age.

Salaries.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 184, §5.)

[Note.—Article 3976 is not embraced in the act of 1893.]

Art. 3976a. The county superintendent shall not act as a member of the county board of examiners. He shall collect the examination fees, and after paying out of the funds so received the expense of the examination and making the necessary remittances, if any, to the state superintendent for the state board of examiners, shall distribute the remainder among the members of the county board of examiners conducting the examination.

Duties of county superintendent.
Ib.

Art. 3976b. An applicant who takes the examination for a certificate of any class and fails to pass, may receive a certificate of any lower rank to which the examination grades on the subjects prescribed for such certificate of lower rank may entitle him.

Applicant failing on examination, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3976c. Any person holding a second grade or first grade certificate may, within one year after the date of issue, receive in lieu thereof a certificate of the next higher class by taking the examination on the additional subjects prescribed for such higher class certificate; provided, that such applicant's average grade on all subjects prescribed for such higher class certificate, as shown by both examinations, shall not be less than hereinbefore fixed, and the minimum grade on any subject shall not be less than that hereinbefore provided; and provided further, that said applicant shall possess all the other qualifications required by law for persons receiving such certificate of such higher grade.

Promotion in grade.
Ib.

Art. 3976d. It shall be the duty of every teacher in the public free schools of this state to use the English language exclusively, and to conduct all recitations and school exercises exclusively in the English language; provided, that this provision shall not prevent the teaching of any other language as a branch of study, but when any other language is so taught, the use of said language shall be limited to the recitations and exercises devoted to the teaching of said language as such branch of study.

English to be the language of use.
Ib.

Art. 3977. Teachers shall keep daily registers, in which the names, ages and studies of the pupils and their attendance shall be recorded, and such other matters as may be prescribed by the state superintendent. Said registers shall be open to the inspection of all parents, school officers and other persons who may be interested, to examine the same.

Ib. §6.

1. All teachers shall make monthly reports on such subjects as may be designated by the state superintendent or county superintendent, to be approved by a majority of the trustees of the district, and shall file the same with the county superintendent when they present their vouchers for their month's salaries.

2. They shall make such reports at the end of the school term as may be prescribed by the state superintendent, and until such term reports are made the trustees shall not approve vouchers for last month's salaries, nor shall county treasurers pay the same. All monthly and term reports shall be made under oath, and county superintendents are hereby empowered to administer oaths for such purposes. County superintendents and county judges shall receive no compensation for administering oaths necessary in transacting any business relating to school affairs.

Who exempt from examinations.
Ib. §7.

Art. 3978. Teachers holding a diploma from a Texas state normal school, or from the Peabody Normal School at Nashville, Tennessee, or the North Texas Normal College of Denton, Texas, or Coronal Institute at San Marcos, Texas, may teach in the public schools of this state during good behavior, and such diplomas shall rank as permanent state certificates; and such teachers shall not be subject to examination by any board of examiners; provided, that the state board of education, together with the state superintendent of public instruction, shall prescribe the course of study which teachers shall complete in the North Texas Normal College and Coronal Institute, before their diplomas from the same shall have the force of life certificates, and that the said board and state superintendent shall further prescribe a course of study for the said schools, the completion of which shall entitle the person so completing the same to a first grade state certificate; provided further, that the state board of education, or the state superintendent of public instruction, in order to enforce their requirements as to course of study, methods, and discipline, shall have the authority to visit the said schools, and to inspect the character of work, methods of instruction, and discipline, and to hold examinations of persons applying for diplomas or certificates from said schools. A teacher holding a first grade certificate from a Texas state normal school may teach in the public schools in this state for four years after issuance, and a teacher holding a second grade certificate from such an institution may teach in the public schools of the state for two years, and shall not be subject to examination by any board of examiners. A teacher holding a Texas summer normal certificate may teach anywhere in the state for four years, and shall not be subject to examination by any board of examiners. The state superintendent shall prescribe regulations for the holding of summer normal institutes, and prescribe rules for granting summer normal and permanent certificates, which shall be state certificates.

State certificate. ●
Ib. §8.

Art. 3979. Any teacher who may have had two years' experience in teaching, and who shall pass satisfactorily an examination prescribed by the state superintendent, and shall make a grade of not less than sixty per cent in any one branch and an average grade of not less than seventy per cent, shall be entitled to a state certificate, good throughout the state of Texas for a period of three years from date of issuance. If he shall make an average grade of not less than seventy per cent, and not less than seventy per cent in any one branch, he shall receive a certificate which shall be good throughout the state for a period of five years from date of issuance. If he shall make an average of not less than ninety per cent and not less than seventy per cent in any one branch, he shall receive a state certificate good throughout Texas for a period of ten years or during good behavior. And during the time in which the certificate provided for in this article is specified as valid the teacher holding the same shall not be subject to examination by any board of examiners. The state superintendent shall prepare a uniform set of questions for these examinations. He shall prescribe the time, place and manner of holding these examinations. The answers to all questions shall be forwarded to the department of education at Austin and shall be examined and graded by a state board of examiners, consisting of not less than five competent teachers, appointed by the state superintendent. Any person desiring to enter this examination shall present to the district board of examiners a certificate evidencing that he is of good moral character, and said certificate shall accompany his examination papers. Three persons in each senatorial district shall be appointed by the state superintendent, who shall constitute the district board of examiners and shall hold annual examination in that district. They shall certify that all the rules and regulations and directions of the state superintendent have been fully and faithfully complied with; they shall transmit all papers to the state superintendent on close of examination.

1. Before entering the examination each teacher shall pay to the district board of examiners the sum of three dollars, two dollars of which shall be retained by the district board in payment of their services and one dollar shall be forwarded to the state superintendent at Austin, to be used in paying the state board of examiners for their services; provided, that this fee shall in all cases be paid in advance, and shall in no case be refunded. These certificates shall rank as first grade certificates.

2. All examinations shall be conducted in the English language in writing and written with ink, and shall be held in the following branches: Reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, algebra, plane and solid geometry, plane trigonometry, grammar, rhetoric, English literature and composition, United States, Texas and general history, geography, including map drawing, physical geography, physiology, natural philosophy, chemistry, civil government, school management and methods of teaching, and elementary psychology.

[Note.—Article 3979 is not embraced in the act of 1893.]

Art. 3979a. University diplomas and certificates given by the university of Texas to students of the school of pedagogy, shall have the force and effect of state certificates, as follows:

State certificate.
(Act of 1893,
p. 182.)

1. Diplomas conferred by the regents of the university of Texas on students completing some degree course, and also the degree course of the school of pedagogy, shall have the force of permanent state certificates.

2. Certificates issued by the school of pedagogy to students completing the advanced course, or the special professional course, or the graduate course, shall have the force of first grade state certificates for four years.

3. Certificates issued by the school of pedagogy to students completing the junior course shall have the force of state certificates of the first grade for a period of two years.

City board of examiners authorized to issue certificates. (Act of 1893, p. 182.)

Art. 3980. A city or town which has five hundred scholastic population or more, and has become an independent school district, and which levies a local tax for educational purposes, or maintains a system of free schools for nine months each year, and which has employed a superintendent of city schools, may have a city board of examiners. Said board of examiners shall in all cases consist of a city superintendent of the city schools, together with two other persons, who shall be appointed by him, and who shall be teachers, and the superintendent shall not be subject to examination. The city board of examiners are hereby authorized to issue certificates valid only in the city in which they are issued. Such certificates shall be of two kinds, as follows:

A temporary certificate.

A permanent certificate.

Temporary and permanent certificates shall be of three classes for each kind, as follows:

Primary teacher's certificate.

Intermediate teacher's certificate.

High school teacher's certificate.

A temporary certificate shall be good for any period not exceeding four years, to be determined by the board of trustees of such city or town. A permanent certificate shall be good during good behavior, and shall not be issued to any person who has not been engaged successfully in teaching in the schools of Texas for a period of at least three years. A teacher holding a primary teacher's certificate may teach in the primary school or primary grades. A teacher holding an intermediate teacher's certificate may teach in the intermediate school or intermediate grades. A teacher holding a high school teacher's certificate may teach in the high school or high school grades. The further regulation of the issuance of such certificates shall be provided for by the boards of trustees of such cities or towns; provided, that no city or town shall make the requirements for its temporary primary or temporary intermediate certificates inferior to the requirements prescribed by law for second grade county certificates, or the requirements for its temporary high school certificates less than those prescribed by law for first grade county certificates, or the requirements for its permanent certificates less than those prescribed by law for permanent county certificates. Nothing in this chapter shall interfere with the validity of outstanding certificates in such cities and towns, or prevent the extension of such certificates for a period not to exceed four years. Cities and towns authorized by the provisions of this chapter to have a city board of examiners, may, at the discretion of the superintendent of the city schools, employ a teacher of any special branch not included in the requirements for a state certificate, without requiring an examination or a teacher's certificate; and nothing in this chapter shall prevent the board of trustees of any such city or town from recognizing the certificates issued in any other such city or town in this state, and validating the same in the city or town so recognizing them.

State board of examiners. Ib.

Art. 3980a. The state superintendent of public instruction shall be authorized to appoint a state board of examiners, consisting of not less than three competent teachers, living in the state, to serve during his pleasure, and he may increase or decrease the number, as varying conditions may make necessary.

Certificate, where valid. (Acts of 1891, p. 186.)

Art. 3981. A county certificate shall be valid only in the county in which it is issued. A city certificate shall be valid only in the city in which it is issued. A summer normal certificate, a state certificate, a certificate from a Texas state normal school, a diploma from a Texas state normal school or the Peabody normal at Nashville, Tennessee, shall be valid anywhere in Texas. Certificates shall be valid for the time they are issued, unless cancelled by the authority issuing the same for good cause shown. Any teacher who may hold a diploma conferring on him the degree of bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, or any higher academic degree from any college or university of the first class, and who shall have taught for a period of not less than five years in Texas, may, upon the payment of a fee of five dollars, which shall be placed to the credit of the state available school fund, receive from the state superintendent of public instruction a certificate of the first grade, which shall be valid anywhere in this state during good behavior.

[Note.—Article 3981 is not embraced in the act of 1893.]

Art. 3981a. Any teacher who may hold a diploma conferring on him the degree of bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, bachelor of letters, or any higher academic degree, from any college or university of the first class, and who shall have taught for a period of not less than three years in Texas, may receive from the state superintendent of public instruction a permanent state certificate, which shall be valid anywhere in this state during good behavior. The institutions to be recognized as colleges or universities of the first class shall be determined by the state superintendent of public instruction, upon the recommendation of the state board of examiners.

Valid
certificates.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 182.)

Art. 3981b. All examinations authorized under this chapter shall be conducted in the English language and in writing, and no applicant shall receive a certificate unless the board of examiners be satisfied that he is competent to teach the branches prescribed for the grade of certificate applied for, in the English language. All examinations for white and colored teachers shall be conducted in separate rooms or buildings. Any certificate may be cancelled for good cause by the authority issuing it, and the state superintendent of public instruction shall have power to cancel any certificate upon satisfactory evidence that the holder thereof is conducting his school in violation of the laws of the state; provided, that before any certificate shall be cancelled the holder thereof shall be notified, and shall have an opportunity to be heard, and he shall have the right of appeal from such decision to the state superintendent, and to the state board of education; provided, that when the state superintendent shall have cancelled the certificate, the appeal shall be to the state board of education.

ful control of such child, filed with the county superintendent, at any time before the apportionment of the school fund by the county superintendent or county judge of any scholastic year, but not afterwards; and no child shall be transferred more than once. Upon the transfer of any child its portion of the school fund shall follow and be paid over to the district or independent district to which such child is transferred; provided, no transfers shall be made after the trustees have employed a teacher.

County judge may transfer, when. (Acts of 1887, p. 123, §42.)

Art. 3983. The county judge may, at any time before he apportions the school fund among the several districts or communities, transfer a child from one district or community to another in the same county, and in every such case he shall transfer the pro rata share of such child in the school fund to the district or community in which said child shall be taught. After the completion of said apportionment no transfer shall be made, but all children within the scholastic age who have not attended any public school in the state during the current scholastic year shall be allowed to attend free of charge any public school in any district or community in which such children have acquired a residence. The county judge shall also have authority, on the recommendation of the school trustees, to consolidate one school with another in the same district or adjoining districts, and to transfer money from one school to another school in the same district or adjoining district.

Article 3984. When a school district has no school house, or not a sufficient number, or when the school houses are in need of repairs or furniture, the trustees may contract for the building or repairing of a school house or school houses, or the purchase of furniture, and may use for such purposes not more than twenty-five per cent annually of the school fund of the district for a period of five years; provided, that where a house is to be erected, the citizens of the district must contribute of their labor or means, or both, an amount equal to one-third of the school fund to be so used, and a suitable piece of land shall be donated as a site, and a deed therefor shall be executed and delivered, conveying a good and sufficient title in fee simple in and to such land, to the county judge and his successors in office, in trust for public free school purposes, which deed must be recorded as other deeds; and provided further, that districts which have taxed or may hereafter tax themselves, may be allowed to use the money raised by such taxation for the purpose of purchasing, repairing, enlarging, erecting, or furnishing school buildings, or to purchase building sites, but the title to all real estate so purchased shall be taken and recorded as hereinabove provided.

Art. 3985. The trustees of the district must make application to the county superintendent for any appropriation for the purposes named in the preceding section before making any contract with any teacher for the year in which such appropriation is desired, which application shall be accompanied with plans and specifications of the house or houses sought to be erected, with a statement of the estimated cost, or in case of desired repairs or furniture, a detailed statement of the repairs or furniture desired, together with an estimate of the cost of the same.

Applications must be accompanied by plans and specifications.
Ib.

Art. 3986. After receipt of such application the county superintendent, if it appears to his satisfaction that the house to be erected is necessary and adapted to the needs of the pupils of the district, or that the repairs or furniture desired is necessary, and that the requirements of law have been complied with, shall make an order appropriating such amount of the school fund to the credit of such district for each year as he may deem expedient, necessary, and proper for the purposes specified in such application; but in making any such appropriation for a district, the scholastic interests of the district as a whole shall be considered; and no part of such appropriation shall be drawn from the treasury or paid until the completion of the building or repairs according to contract, plans, and specifications, or in case of furniture, until the delivery thereof, according to such contract as the trustees may have made, and then only upon the warrant of the county superintendent.

County judge to make the order appropriating money to build, etc.
Ib.

Art. 3987. The trustees of such school district shall contract for the erection of such building and superintend the construction of the same, and the county superintendent shall draw his warrant or warrants upon the school fund so appropriated only upon the accounts first approved by them.

Trustees to contract for the building.
Ib.

Art. 3988. No mechanic, contractor, material man, or other person can contract for or in any other manner have or acquire any lien upon the house so erected or the land upon which the same is situated, and all contracts with such parties shall expressly stipulate for a waiver of such lien.

No builder's lien allowed.
Ib.

Art. 3989. So much of the available school fund of any school district for any one year, not to exceed twenty-five per cent of said fund, as the county superintendent may deem expedient, necessary, and proper, may be used in the purchase of suitable school property upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore specified.

Fund to be used at discretion of judge.
Ib.

Art. 3990. The trustees of any school district, upon the order of the commissioners' court, prescribing the terms thereof, when deemed advisable, may make sale of any property belonging to said school district, and apply the proceeds to the purchase of necessary grounds or to the building or repairing of school houses, or place the proceeds to the credit of the available school fund of the district.

Maysell property, when.
Ib.

Art. 3991. The trustees of any school district not having a school house may rent or lease a suitable house instead of building or purchasing one, if deemed advisable by them. The rent shall be paid by the county treasurer out of the available school fund of the district, upon the warrant of the trustees, approved by the county superintendent.

May lease house, when.

ored children, shall not be used for white children without the consent of the trustees of the district, and a like rule shall protect the use of school houses erected in part by voluntary subscription of white parents or guardians for the benefit of white children.

Children entitled to be enrolled.
Ib.

Art. 3993a. In taking the scholastic census, every child that will be of scholastic age at the beginning of the next school year shall be enrolled and enumerated in the district in which it resides at the time of its enumeration.

Children eligible to the public schools; counties exempt from district system.
Ib.

Art. 3993b. Every child in this state of scholastic age shall be permitted to attend the public free schools of the district or independent district in which it resides at the time it applies for admission, notwithstanding that it may have been enumerated elsewhere, or may have attended school elsewhere part of the year; provided, that white children shall not attend the schools supported for colored children, nor shall colored children attend the schools supported for white children; provided, that the following counties shall be and the same are hereby exempted from the district system provided in this act, to-wit: Freestone, Limestone, Robertson, Van Zandt, Smith, Montgomery, Trinity, Cass, Bowie, Bosque, Lee, Burleson, Washington, Bastrop, Cameron, Hidalgo, Nacogdoches, Panola, Rusk, Brazoria, Matagorda, Wharton, Raines, Shackelford, Callahan, Guadalupe, and Angelina; provided, that any county exempted from the district system may be transferred from the community system to the district system by the commissioners' court of said county passing an order to that effect, and in such case it shall be the duty of the county clerk to notify the state superintendent of public instruction of such action; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any of the laws now in force as to said counties for the government of schools in counties under the community system, but said laws are hereby expressly continued in full force and operation in the counties above specified.

Towns and villages may incorporate for free school purposes only, how. (Acts of 1891, p. 79.)

Article 3994. Towns and villages authorized to incorporate under this chapter, or having two hundred inhabitants or over, not desiring to incorporate for municipal purposes, may incorporate for free school purposes only; provided, that the territory incorporated shall not exceed four miles square; and when so desiring an election may be held under the provisions of this title and chapter, and if at said election a majority of the votes cast be in favor of the corporation, it shall be the duty of the county judge to make return thereof and cause a record of the result of such election to be made; upon which entry being made such town or village shall be regarded as duly incorporated for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a free school therein, and shall, upon notice to the state board of education by the board of trustees hereinafter provided for, receive such pro rata share of the available school fund as its scholastic population may entitle it to; and all towns and villages heretofore incorporated under the provisions of this article as it heretofore existed, but which incorporation is invalid by reason of having incorporated more territory than a radius of two miles from the center of said town or village.

Art. 3995. Trustees of towns and villages that have been or may hereafter be incorporated for school purposes only, under act of the seventeenth legislature, approved April 6, 1881, shall have power to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property, for the purpose of purchasing or constructing public free school buildings and sites therefor, within the limits of such incorporated district, and said trustees shall have power to issue coupon bonds of the town or village therefor, to be made payable at a date not exceeding twenty years from date, in such sums as they shall deem expedient, to bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum; provided, that the aggregate amount of bonds issued for the above named purposes shall never reach an amount when the tax of one-fourth of one per cent per annum will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity; and provided further, that no such tax shall be levied and no such bonds shall be issued until an election shall have been held for the purpose of determining said question, whereat two-thirds of the taxpayers voting at said election shall have voted in favor of the levying of said tax or the issuance of said bonds, or both, as the case may be.

Trustees may levy and collect the tax. (Acts of 1881, p. 133.)

Bonds for school buildings.

Art. 3996. The election provided for in the preceding article may be ordered by the trustees on the written petition of at least twenty taxpaying voters of said towns or villages at any time not less than thirty days from the date of the order, which order shall state the date and place when said election shall be held, the amount of tax to be levied, or the amount of bonds to be issued, as the case may be, and the trustees shall also name and appoint therein the manager or managers of said election, which shall be held as nearly as may be possible in conformity with the general election law of the state; provided, that when a proposition to levy such a tax shall be defeated no election for that purpose shall be ordered until after the expiration of one year.

Election ordered by trustees, when. Ib. §2.

Art. 3997. Public notice of said election shall be given by the said trustees by placing notices of the same in three different portions of such incorporated district at least twenty days before said election, which notice shall state the time and place of the election, and the amount of the tax to be levied or the amount of bonds to be issued, or both, as the case may be.

Notice of election. Ib. §3.

Art. 3998. No person shall vote at said election unless he be a qualified voter under the constitution and laws of this state, and a taxpayer in such incorporated district, and those in favor of the levying of such tax or the issuance of such bonds shall write or print upon their ballots, "For the tax," and those against the levying of such a tax or the issuance of such bonds shall write or print on their ballots, "Against the tax;" and due returns thereof shall be made to said trustees within ten days, and the result thereof shall be recorded by the said trustees in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose.

Who may vote. Ib. §4.

Art. 3999. Upon the entry of record, as provided for in the preceding article 3994, it shall be the duty of the county judge to forthwith order an election of five school trustees for such town or village so incorporated for school purposes, who shall be elected in the same manner and at the same time, and whose term of office shall be the same as that of trustees of districts.

County judge to order election for trustees, when. (Acts of 1881, p. 114.)

Power of trustees.
Ib.

Art. 4000. The trustees elected in accordance with the preceding article shall be vested with the full management and control of the free schools of such incorporated town or village, and shall in general be vested with all the powers, rights and duties in regard to the establishment and maintaining of free schools, including the powers and manner of taxation, for free school purposes, that are now conferred by the laws of this state upon the council or board of aldermen of incorporated cities and towns.

Organization.
Ib.

Art. 4001. The board of trustees, when elected, shall organize by choosing from their number a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and an assessor and collector of taxes.

Duties of assessor and collector.
Ib.

Art. 4002. The assessor and collector of taxes shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties, with reference to the assessment and collection of taxes for free school purposes that are conferred by law upon the marshal of incorporated towns and villages, and he shall receive such compensation for his services as the board of trustees may allow, not to exceed four per cent of the whole amount of taxes received, and he shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such amount as may be prescribed by the board of trustees.

Bond and compensation of treasurer.
Ib.

Art. 4003. The treasurer shall be required to give bond, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved by the board of trustees, for a sum equal to double the probable amount of taxes assessed, and the pro rata share of the available school fund, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and the payment of the funds received by him, upon the draft of the president, drawn upon order, duly entered, of the board of trustees, and for his services he shall be entitled to retain a commission of one per cent upon all amounts paid out by him.

Cities and towns may assume exclusive control of free schools, etc.

Article 4004. [3781] All cities and towns which have heretofore under the act of May 2, 1875, or any subsequent law, assumed control of the public free schools within their limits, and have continued to exercise the same until the present time, or may hereafter determine so to do by a majority vote of the property taxpayers of said city or town voting at an election held for that purpose, may have exclusive control of the public free schools within their limits.

Art. 4005. Any city or town in this state may acquire the exclusive control of the public free schools within its limits.

Applicable to all cities and towns. (Acts of 1879, p. 76, §1.)

Art. 4006. The mayor of said city or town shall, upon the written application of not less than fifty of the qualified electors of such city or town, order, within twenty days of such application, an election by the qualified electors of such city or town, to be conducted as other municipal elections, to decide by a majority of the votes cast by the qualified electors of such city or town at such election whether such city or town shall acquire the exclusive control of any or all of the public free schools and institutions of learning within its limits, and whether the same shall be under the control of the board of trustees as hereinafter mentioned, or of the council or board of aldermen of such city or town.

How determined that city or town shall take charge of schools. Ib. §2.

Art. 4007. If at such election it shall be decided that such city or town has acquired the exclusive control of said public free schools and institutions of learning, and that the same shall be under the management of a board of trustees, then the mayor of such city or town shall, within ten days from the ascertainment of such result, order an election, to be conducted as other municipal elections, by the qualified electors of such city or town, of six trustees, to take charge of and manage said public free schools and institutions of learning. The six persons receiving the largest number of votes cast at such election shall thereupon become such trustees, and shall hold their offices for four years; provided, that at the first election held under the provisions of this chapter the trustees receiving the smallest majorities shall only hold their offices for two years, and at the end of every two years thereafter there shall be elected in like manner three trustees. Any vacancy from any cause whatever among said trustees to be filled by an election as herein provided for, for the unexpired term of such trustees; and provided further, that said trustees may continue to act until their successors may have qualified.

Mayor to order election, when. Ib. §3.

Art. 4008. The county judge of the county in which said city or town is situated, and the mayor of such city or town, shall be ex officio members of said board of trustees.

Ex officio member of board of trustees. Ib. §4.

Art. 4009. Said board of trustees may adopt such rules, regulations and by-laws for their own government as they may deem proper, and select their chairman, secretary, treasurer and other necessary officers.

Powers and duties. Ib. §5.

Art. 4010. Said board of trustees shall have and exercise exclusively the same powers, control, management and government of and over such public free schools and institutions of learning in such cities or towns as are now or hereafter may be by law conferred upon the council or board of aldermen of such cities or towns where such council or board of aldermen are invested with the control of such public free schools.

Shall control and manage. Ib. §6.

Art. 4011. Should the election provided for in article 4007 of this chapter result adversely to the acquisition of such control of the public free schools and election of a board of trustees, then no like application shall be entertained within two years.

Election resulting adversely, effect of. Ib. §7.

Art. 4012. The board of trustees herein provided for to act in the place of the council or board of aldermen in such cities or towns as may acquire the exclusive control of the public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits shall receive no compensation for their services.

Compensation. Ib. §8.

Property, how vested. (Acts of 1889, p. 128.)

Art. 4013. In all cities and towns in this state which have assumed or may hereafter assume the exclusive control and management of the public free schools within their limits, and which have determined or may hereafter determine that such exclusive control and management of the public free schools within their limits shall be in a board of trustees, and organized under an act of the sixteenth legislature, approved April 3, 1879, and acts amendatory thereto, the title to all houses, lands and other property owned, held, set apart or in any way dedicated to the use and benefit of the public free schools of such city or town, including property heretofore acquired as well as that which may hereafter be acquired, shall be vested in the board of trustees and their successors in office in trust for the use and benefit of the public free schools in such city or town, and such board of trustees shall have and exercise the exclusive control and management of such school property, and shall have and exercise the exclusive possession thereof for the purposes aforesaid; provided, that where trustees are named, other than the municipal corporation itself, in any instrument conveying, donating, bequeathing or devising any money or other property, real or personal, for the benefit of any city or town, this law shall not interfere in any manner with the title or authority of such trustees to or over such money or other property. And such board of trustees shall constitute a body corporate and shall have full power to protect the title, possession and use of all such property within the limits of such city or town, and may bring and maintain such suit or suits in law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction, when necessary, to recover the title or possession of any such property that may be adversely held or seized, or to prevent any trespass upon or injury to such property, and the power and authority of any such board of trustees to bring and maintain any suit in relation to the recovery of such property or of the possession and use thereof; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to lands belonging to the state upon which houses for school purposes have been built without authority from the state.

Powers and duties of trustees in regard to same.

Bond of treasurer. Ib. §2.

Art. 4014. The treasurer of the board of trustees of any such city or town, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the state of Texas, and to be approved by such board of trustees, and in such sum as shall be fixed by said board of trustees, not less than one-half of the annual school revenues that shall come into his hands, conditioned that such treasurer will receive and disburse such school funds as shall come into his hands according to law, and that he will render a full and true account of all such funds.

Treasurer to receive money direct from state. Ib. §3.

Art. 4015. The pro rata of the available school fund of the state appropriated and set apart to such city or town shall be, by the proper officer or department of the state, paid over directly to the treasurer of the board of trustees, who shall execute the proper receipts therefor; and all moneys and funds arising from the assessment and collection of any special tax in such city or town for public free school purposes shall be by the assessor and collector, or the collector or other proper officer of such city or town whose duty it is to collect the taxes, turned over directly to the treasurer of the board of trustees of such city or town, who shall execute and deliver his receipt to such collector, and the mayor and council or board of aldermen of such city or town shall have no power or control over such funds.

Art. 4016. In such cities and towns as have assumed the exclusive control of the public free schools within their limits, and have decided under the laws providing therefor that a special tax shall be levied for the support of such public free schools, the mayor and council or board of aldermen of such city or town shall annually assess and levy such tax by ordinance duly passed and approved in the same manner as is required in the assessment and levy of taxes for general purposes in such city or town. In cities and towns which have voted upon and directed the levy of a special tax not exceeding one-half of one per cent, the mayor and council or board of aldermen of such city or town shall annually levy such rate of taxes for public school purposes, not exceeding one-half of one per cent, as shall be sufficient for the support of the public free schools for the term as required by law, but in such cities and towns as have voted upon and decided at an election held for that purpose that a specified rate of taxes shall be assessed and levied in such city or town for the support of its public free schools, the mayor and council or board of aldermen of such city or town shall have no discretion in fixing the rate at which such tax shall be levied, but shall assess and levy the same at the rate fixed in the proposition as submitted and adopted by the qualified voters of such city or town at the election held for that purpose.

Mayor and council to assess and levy tax for schools as for general purposes.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4017. The provisions of the preceding articles 4013 to 4016 inclusive shall apply to cities organized under special charters or special acts of incorporation, but not to cities and towns organized and incorporated under the general law.

To what cities and towns applicable.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4018. The city council of every city or town of one thousand inhabitants or more, incorporated under the general law, that has or shall assume control of its public free schools, may appoint six persons of good moral character and qualified voters of such city or town, as a board of trustees for such schools, of which board the mayor shall be ex officio chairman.

Board of trustees, how appointed.
(Acts of 1883, p. 112, §1.)

Art. 4019. A trustee so appointed shall serve without compensation and shall hold his office for the term of three years or until his successor is qualified, and an appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term only. But the terms of two of the trustees first appointed under this chapter shall expire on the first Tuesday in April after their appointment, and two on the first Tuesday in April of each succeeding year.

Compensation and term of service.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4020. Before any trustee enters upon the discharge of the duties of his office, he shall swear that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of such office and file such affidavit with the mayor.

Oath of trustee.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4021. Said board of trustees may adopt such rules, regulations and by-laws for their own government as they may deem proper. The public free schools of such city or town shall be under the control and supervision of such board of trustees, and said board when appointed shall have the exclusive power to control, manage and govern said schools.

Adopt such rules and regulations as deemed proper.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4022. [3783] The council or board of aldermen of such city or town, unless it has vested the exclusive management and control of its public free schools in a board of trustees, are invested with exclusive power to maintain, regulate, control and govern all the public free schools now established, or hereafter to be established,

Powers of town council and board of aldermen.
(Acts of 1879, p. 174; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 481.)

within the limits of said city or town; and they are furthermore authorized to pass such ordinances, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws as may be necessary to establish and maintain free schools, purchase building sites, construct school houses and generally to promote free public education within the limits of their respective cities or towns.

Such city or town to receive pro rata of school fund.
Ib. §56.

Art. 4023. [3784] Such city or town, after notice to the state board of education that it has determined to assume control of the public free schools within its limits, shall receive such pro rata of the available school fund as its scholastic population may entitle it to.

Duty of council to submit question of taxation.

Art. 4024. [3786] After a city or town has assumed control of the public free schools within its limits, as provided for in the act of May 7, 1875, the council or board of aldermen shall also submit the question to the property taxpayers as to whether or not the additional amount as provided for in article 4025 shall be raised by taxation.

Additional amount may be raised by taxation, when.
Ib.
(Acts of 1879, extra session, ch. 53.)

Art. 4025. [3785] If, at an election held for that purpose, at which none but property taxpayers, as shown by the last assessment rolls, who are qualified voters of such city or town, shall vote, two-thirds of those voting shall vote in favor thereof, such an amount shall be raised by taxation, not to exceed one-half of one per cent in addition to the pro rata of the available school fund received from the state, as may be necessary to conduct the schools for ten months in the year.

Rate of taxation for independent districts.
(Acts of 1881, p. 63.)

Art. 4026. The city or town council, or board of aldermen, of any city, town or village, whether incorporated under any act of the congress of the republic or the legislature of the state of Texas, or under any act of incorporation whatever, shall have power, by ordinance, to annually levy and collect not exceeding one-half of one per cent ad valorem taxes for the support and maintenance of public free schools in the city or town where such city or town is a separate and independent school district; provided, that no such tax shall be levied until an election shall have been held, at which none but property taxpayers, as shown by the last assessment rolls, who are qualified voters of such city or town, shall vote, and two-thirds of those voting shall vote in favor thereof. The proposition submitted may be for a tax not exceeding one-half of one per cent, or it may be for a specific per cent; one election, and no more, shall be held hereafter in any one calendar year to ascertain whether a school tax shall be levied; if the proposition is carried the school tax shall continue to be annually levied and collected for at least two years; and thereafter, unless it is discontinued, at an election held to determine whether the tax shall be continued or discontinued, at the request of fifty property taxpayers of such city or town; when the tax is continued no election to discontinue it shall be held for two years; when the tax is discontinued no election to levy a tax shall be held during the same year.

If the vote is favorable, tax to be levied annually thereafter.

Art. 4027. [3787] If the vote of the taxpayers is in favor of the levy of said tax, then it shall be the duty of the council or board of aldermen annually thereafter to levy upon the taxable property in the limits of said city or town, in accordance with the usual assessment of taxes for municipal purposes, such additional tax as may be necessary for the support of the schools for ten months in the year, not to exceed one-half of one per cent.

Subject to general law.
Ib.

Art. 4028. [3788] Schools thus organized and provided for by incorporated cities or towns shall be subject to the general laws so far as the same are applicable; but each city or town having control of schools within its limits shall constitute a separate school district, and may by ordinance provide for the organization of schools and the appropriation of its school fund in such manner as may be best suited to its population and condition.

Art. 4029. [3789] Any city or town having voted a tax in addition to the pro rata of the available school fund from the state, may extend the scholastic age of the children in its schools, and prescribe such other studies as the council or board of aldermen may deem proper.

City or town may extend scholastic age, etc., when.

Art. 4030. [3790] It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector of taxes of such city or town as may have assumed control of the public free schools within its limits to take the scholastic census annually, as hereinbefore required of the county assessor; to file abstracts of the same with the council or board of aldermen, and to report the same to the state board of education.

Scholastic census taken by city assessor and collector.

Art. 4031. [3791] Whenever any city or town shall have assumed control of the public schools therein, as herein provided, the treasurers of such cities and towns, respectively, shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as are herein prescribed for county treasurers so far as the same are applicable.

Treasurers of cities and towns constituting separate school districts.

Art. 4032. [3792] The title to all houses, lands and other property now owned, or which may hereafter be purchased or acquired by a city or town for the benefit of public free schools, and all houses, lands or other property purchased for the benefit of public free schools in the county, and lying within the limits of any town or city which may have assumed control and management of the public free schools within its limits in conformity with law, shall be vested in the mayor of such city or town, in trust for the sole use of public free schools established under this chapter.

Title to land, houses, etc.

Art. 4033. [3793] Any houses or lands held in trust by any city or town for public free school purposes may be sold for the purpose of investing in more convenient and desirable school property, with the consent of the state board of education, by the council or board of aldermen of such city or town; and in such cases the mayor shall execute his deed to the purchaser for the same, reciting the resolution of the board of education giving consent thereto, and the resolution of the council or board of aldermen authorizing such sale.

Sale of houses, etc., held in trust.

BONDS OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS FOR BUILDING SCHOOL HOUSES.

Art. 4034. Towns and cities which have assumed or may hereafter assume control and management of the public free schools within their limits may also provide for building sites and buildings for such public free schools and institutions of learning in the manner and under restrictions and limitations provided in article 486, relating to cities and towns.

Bonds for school houses. (Acts of 1887, p. 37.)

Vacant lands belong to state (Acts Dec. 14, 1837.)

• Article 4035. [3794] All the vacant lands are the property of the state and subject alone to the disposition of the proper authorities thereof.

H. D. 44-6. All public lands retained at annexation. (Joint res., June 23, 1845.)

Art. 4036. [3795] In order that the provisions of law relating to the public domain may be brought together, the following extract is made from the joint resolutions of the congress of the United States for annexing Texas to the United States, approved March 1, 1845, and the joint resolution of the congress of the republic of Texas assenting to the same, approved June 23, 1845, viz.:

“Said state, when admitted into the Union, * * * shall also retain all the vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits, to be applied to the payment of the debts and liabilities of said republic of Texas, and the residue of said lands, after discharging said debts and liabilities, to be disposed of as said state may direct,” etc.

No reservation shall be made. (Const., art. 14, §3.)

Art. 4037. [3796] No reservation of any part of the public domain, for the purpose of satisfying a grant of lands to any railway company in this state, shall ever be made.

Forfeiture on failure to comply, etc. Ib.

Art. 4038. [3797] No land certificate shall be issued to such railway company until it shall have equipped, constructed and in running order, at least ten miles of road, and on the failure of such company to comply with the terms of its charter or alienate its land at a period to be fixed by law, in no event to exceed twelve years from the issuance of the patent, all said land shall be forfeited to the state and become a portion of the public domain, and liable to location and survey.

Same. Ib. §5.

Art. 4039. [3798] All lands heretofore or hereafter granted to railway companies, where the charter or law required or shall hereafter require their alienation within a certain period on pain of forfeiture, or is silent on the subject of forfeiture, and which lands have not been or shall not hereafter be alienated, in conformity with the terms of their charters and the laws under which the grants were made, are hereby declared forfeited to the state and subject to pre-emption, location and survey as other vacant lands.

Proceedings to forfeit land donations. Ib.

Art. 4040. [3799] All lands heretofore granted to said railroad companies to which no forfeiture was attached on their failure to alienate, are not included in the foregoing clause, but in all such last named cases it shall be the duty of the attorney-general, in every instance where alienations have been or hereafter may be made, to inquire into the same, and if such alienation has been made in fraud of the rights of the state, and is colorable only, the real and beneficial interest being still in such corporation, to institute legal proceedings, in the county where the seat of government is situated, to forfeit such lands to the state, and if such alienation be judicially ascertained to be fraudulent and colorable as aforesaid, such lands shall be forfeited to the state and become a part of the vacant public domain, liable to pre-emption, location and survey.

Art. 4041. [3800] The state of Texas hereby releases to the owner or owners of the soil all mines or minerals that may be on the same, subject to taxation as other property.

Title to mines, etc., released.

Article 4042. [3801] There shall be one general land office, which shall be at the seat of government, where all land titles which have emanated or may hereafter emanate from the state shall be registered, except those titles the registration of which may be prohibited by the constitution.

General land office established.
Ib. §1.

Art. 4043. [3802] The commissioner of the general land office shall have custody and control of all books, records, papers, maps and original documents appertaining to the titles of lands heretofore and by the provisions of the law denominated archives; and the said books, records, papers and original documents shall become and be deemed the books and papers of said office.

Commissioner to have custody of books, etc. (Act Dec. 14, 1837.)
P. D. 71.

Art. 4044. [3803] The said commissioner is hereby authorized to employ one night watchman for the general land office, at a salary not to exceed six hundred dollars per annum.

Night watchman. (Act Feb. 27, 1875, p. 56.)

Art. 4045. [3804] Any one desirous to examine any of the papers, records or files in the general land office shall first obtain the consent of the commissioner or the chief clerk in writing so to do, and an order for the detail of a clerk of said office to be present and superintend such examination.

Examination of papers, etc., permitted, when. (Act June 2, 1873, p. 180.)
P. D. 7099kk.

Art. 4046. [3805] Any paper or document required or permitted by law to be filed in the general land office shall be indorsed by the commissioner, or in his absence by the chief clerk, with ink, "filed," with the date of filing and file number, and signed by the clerk filing the same; and on the wrapper or cover containing said paper or file shall be indorsed a list with the corresponding numbers of the papers contained in said wrapper or cover, and signed by the clerk making the same, and if several papers constitute a single file they shall be numbered consecutively.

Clerk to be detailed, etc., when.
Ib.
P. D. 709911.

Art. 4047. [3806] When an examination is desired by any person other than an employe of the office, the clerk detailed for such examination, before he shall permit such person to handle such papers or files, shall indorse as required by the preceding article on the cover or wrapper of said papers, numbering them as herein required, and sign his name to said list.

Clerk to examine papers after, etc.
Ib. §3.
7099mm.

Art. 4048. [3807] After an examination is made, the clerk in charge of same shall carefully examine the papers of said file and see that they correspond with the list on the cover or wrapper, and are all in place.

Lithographic copies of maps to be printed. (Acts of 1879, p. 40.)

Art. 4049. The commissioner of the general land office is authorized to contract for the printing and delivery to him of lithographic copies of maps of the various counties of this state; provided, that the cost of such printing and delivery shall not exceed two cents per copy.

To be copyrighted.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4050. When said commissioner has prepared the official copy of the map of any county from which such lithographic copies are to be printed, he shall copyright the same in the name and for the benefit of the state of Texas, in accordance with the laws of copyright of the United States.

To be sold at 50 cents.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4051. When such copies are received by the commissioner he shall offer the same for sale at not less than fifty cents nor more than one dollar per copy, regulating the price by the amount of labor required in the original compilation of such maps and transcribing same; provided, that when a party desires to purchase at any one time one hundred or more copies of the maps of any county or counties, he shall be allowed a discount on the fixed price of the same of twenty per cent.

Proceeds to be placed in state treasury.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4052. All moneys received from the sale of maps, as above provided, shall be paid into the state treasury as are all other fees received by the general land office.

No transfers, etc., shall be withdrawn.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 7099nn.

Art. 4053. [3808] No transfer or deed that may be a link in any chain of title to any certificate on file in the general land office shall be withdrawn by any one; but the commissioner shall, on demand, deliver to the interested party certified copies, which shall have the same force and effect as the originals; provided, if in any suit there is any question as to the genuineness of any such original, the commissioner shall deliver the same to the party to whom the same may be ordered by the court where such suit is pending; and in such case it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to retain in his office a duly certified copy of such original, which, in case of the loss of the original, shall have the same force and effect as the original.

Original certificate shall remain on file.
Ib. §5.
P. D. 7099oo.

Art. 4054. [3809] When the commissioner cancels a patent or permits the floating of certificates he shall not deliver the original certificate, but it shall remain in its original file.

Certificate for unlocated balance to issue, when.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 7099pp.

Art. 4055. [3810] Where a certificate has been located in part the original shall not be withdrawn from the general land office, but the commissioner shall deliver to the interested party a certificate for the unlocated balance, stating whether said certificate can be further divided.

Art. 4056. [3811] When a certificate has been patented the commissioner shall write in ink across the face of said certificate "patented," and sign his name thereto.

Certificate to be indorsed when patented.
Ib. §7.
P. D. 7099qq.

Art. 4057. [3812] When a survey has become forfeited and void from any cause, so soon as such forfeiture is discovered the commissioner shall notify the party interested in such survey or location, in writing by mail, directed to such party at his postoffice address, if known, and if not known, directed to him at the county seat of the county in which the land is situated, of such forfeiture; and no new file or location shall be made on the land covered by such forfeited survey or location, except by the owner of such forfeited survey or location, for a period of ninety days after the mailing of such notice; and the commissioner shall keep a record of the date said notice was mailed and the name of the party to whom the notice was mailed and the name of the postoffice to which said notice was addressed; and the record of such entries shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and the absence of such entries shall be prima facie evidence that the notice required above had not been given.

Notice to be given of forfeited survey. (Acts of 1881, p. 6.)

Art. 4058. [3813] A certificate for an unlocated balance shall be delivered only to the owner, or his agent or attorney; and when the same is delivered to the agent or attorney, the legal authority to receive the same shall be filed with the commissioner.

Certificate to be delivered only to owner.
Ib. §8.
P. D. 7099rr.

Art. 4059. [3814] If the assignee of the original grantee apply for the delivery of any paper, certificate or copy of certificate, if the evidence of title to the assignee is not already on file in the land office, it shall be filed before delivering the same; and the owner shall, by himself or his lawful agent or attorney, file with his other proof of title an affidavit that the party claiming delivery is a bona fide owner.

Before delivery to assignee, evidence of title to be filed.
Ib.

Art. 4060. [3815] When the commissioner has doubts as to the identity of parties, or genuineness of any transfer or power of attorney, he shall not deliver such instrument to the party claiming until such doubtful matters are made clear by such additional proof as he may deem just and reasonable, which proof shall be by affidavits filed with the commissioner.

When commissioner is in doubt, proof, how made.
Ib.

Art. 4061. [3816] No paper, certificate, copy or document, other than a patent, shall be delivered by the commissioner to the owner until he has receipted for the same, in which receipt shall be stated his place of residence, his postoffice, and, if delivered to the agent or attorney, shall state in addition his residence and postoffice, which receipt shall be filed by the commissioner with the other papers; provided, that when the commissioner has good reason to doubt the genuineness of any transfer, power of attorney or other paper on file in the general land office, he shall not permit any one to obtain an official copy thereof until such doubts have been removed.

Receipts for papers, etc.
Ib. §9.
P. D. 7099ss.

Art. 4062. [3817] The commissioner of the general land office and the sureties on his official bond shall be responsible to any party injured by removal, withdrawal or alteration of any record or file in said general land office, unless said commissioner can show that such removal, withdrawal or alteration has taken place by permission of the party owning said file or record.

Commissioner and sureties responsible, when.
Ib. §12.

What counties are separate land districts.

Article 4063. [3818] Every organized county which shall have been a land district, or having elected a county surveyor, shall have complied with the laws heretofore in force permitting a county to become a land district, is hereby declared a separate land district.

When county becomes a land district, (Acts Jan. 26, 1858.)
P. D. 1082.

Art. 4064. [3819] When any organized county shall hereafter elect a surveyor, and he shall give bond and be qualified as provided by law, said county shall be a separate land district.

When county to have a surveyor.

Art. 4065. [3820] Each county becoming a land district shall have at least one surveyor, who shall keep his office at the county seat; and such office shall be supplied with a map or maps of all the surveys made in such county, with a file or entry book, and a record book of the field-notes of all surveys in the county.

"Land districts" defined.

Art. 4066. [3821] All "land districts" now created by law and having a district surveyor shall remain and continue as such, subject, however, to alteration by any organized county within its limits, or any part of such district, becoming a separate land district as provided by law.

County or district failing to organize as separate land district. (Act Feb. 8, 1860.)
P. D. 1090.

Art. 4067. [3822] Any organized county or newly created district which may fail or refuse to organize as a separate land district as provided by law shall continue to form a part of the land district to which it was formerly attached until it shall have complied with the provisions of law relating to the election and qualification of a surveyor, and until such surveyor shall have procured the necessary maps, field-notes copies and records as required by law.

Unorganized counties attached for land purposes, etc. (Amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 481.)

Art. 4067a. Each county in this state that is unorganized, or that has not so completed its organization as to become a separate land district under the requirements of the law, shall be attached to some organized county for surveying purposes, and the county surveyor of such organized county shall be the surveyor for the land district thus constituted, and the records of all files and surveys of land in such district shall be kept at his office.

Counties attached. Ib.

Art. 4067b. The land districts composed of more than one county are defined and the unorganized counties are attached for surveying purposes as follows:

(Act 1883.)

1. The counties of Armstrong, Carson and Randall are attached to Donley county.

(Act 1887.)

2. The counties of Andrews and Gaines are attached to Martin county.

Ib.

3. The counties of Bailey, Cochran and Hockley are attached to Crosby county.

(Acts 1883, 1889.)

4. The counties of Borden, Dawson, Lynn, Yoakum, Terry and Glasscock are attached to Howard county.

(Act 1883.)

5. The counties of Greer, Collingsworth, Hutchinson, Hansford, Ochiltree, Roberts, Hemphill and Lipscomb are attached to Wheeler county.

6. The counties of Crane, Ector and Upton are attached to Mid-land county. (Act 1889.)
7. The county of Lamb is attached to Baylor county. (Act 1881.)
8. The county of La Salle is attached to Nueces county. (Act 1874.)
9. The counties of Loving, Ward and Winkler are attached to Reeves county. (Act 1877.)

Duties of county surveyor. (Act Dec. 14, 1837, P. D. 4522.)

Art. 4071. [3837] Each county surveyor shall receive and examine all field-notes of surveys which have been or may hereafter be made in said county, and upon which patents are to be obtained, and shall certify to the same according to law, and shall record such field-notes in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and he shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law.

Surveyor to report to commissioners' court as to inclosed school lands. (Acts of 1879, p. 101.)

Art. 4072. It shall be the duty of the surveyor of each county to make a report to the county commissioners' court on the first Monday in June each year of the number of sections of public school lands in his county inclosed during the past year, and the names of the person or persons controlling such inclosed lands, and the number of sections controlled by him or them respectively.

Shall record all field-notes in his district. (Acts of 1881, p. 71.)

Art. 4073. The surveyors of the several counties of this state shall record in a well-bound book all the surveys in the county or district for which he was elected, with the plats thereof that he may make, whether private or official, and such record shall be open to the inspection of the public; for which service the surveyor may charge, in addition to the fees now allowed by law for field work, twenty cents per hundred words for such record.

Shall plat surveys upon map, etc. (Act Jan. 26, 1853, P. D. 1087.)

Art. 4074. [3838] It shall be the duty of every district, county and special county surveyor, once in every three months, to plat upon the map of his district or county all surveys made to that date within the three preceding months, and transmit sketches and field-notes of same to the commissioner of the general land office, together with a list of all land certificates or warrants on file in his office, giving the number, date and quantity in acres of each, stating by whom and to whom the same purports to have been issued, and when and by whom filed; and any surveyor failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this article shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered by the state before the district court on complaint of any party aggrieved, or of the proper county or district attorney, whose duty it shall be to prosecute all such suits. A certificate from a postmaster certifying that a letter or package containing the returns herein provided for was mailed in his office, addressed to the commissioner of the general land office, shall be evidence of the fact in any suit against a surveyor under this article.

Record books furnished. (Act March 9, 1875; Feb. 2, 1860.)

Art. 4075. [3839] The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall furnish the county surveyors of their respective counties with the necessary books of record pertaining thereto.

Deputies appointed; oath and bond required, etc. (Act Dec. 14, 1837, P. D. 4522.)

Art. 4076. [3840] The county or district surveyor shall appoint as many deputy surveyors as he may deem necessary for the county or district, and shall administer to them the oath of office, and take the bond hereinafter prescribed, and shall furnish them such instructions as may be furnished to him from time to time by the commissioner of the general land office; and such deputy surveyor, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be deposited and recorded in the clerk's office of the same county; and the county or district surveyor shall immediately report such appointment to the commissioner of the general land office, and state when such deputy entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office.

Art. 4077. [3841] It shall be the duty of each deputy district or county surveyor to administer an oath to each individual employed by him as chain carrier or marker for the faithful performance of his duties as such, in accordance with the instructions given him; and no person under the age of sixteen years shall be employed in either of the above capacities; and further, it shall be the duty of said deputy to subscribe the name of each of the chain carriers to his field-notes previous to returning the same to the county surveyor.

Chain carriers and markers. (Act Dec. 14, 1837.) P. D. 4523.

Art. 4078. [3842] It shall be the duty of all deputy surveyors to make returns of the field-notes of every survey by them made, within three months after making the survey, to the county or district surveyor for his approval; and any deputy neglecting to do so shall be liable for damages at the suit of any person thereby injured.

Deputy surveyors shall return field-notes. (Act Feb. 5, 1840.) P. D. 4112.

Art. 4079. [3843] Any county surveyor may do the work of a practical surveyor, and may also perform all the duties required of a deputy surveyor, and in such case he shall make out, certify to, record and return the field-notes under his own official signature.

County surveyor may do work of deputy. (Act Dec. 20, 1837.)

Art. 4080. [3844] It shall be the duty of each county or district surveyor to make out and keep in his office, free for the inspection of all persons, a map on which all the surveys made in his county shall be laid down and properly connected; which map shall be corrected at the end of every three months.

Shall keep a map in his office for inspection. (Act Feb. 5, 1840.)

Art. 4081. [3845] Hereafter, when any change may take place in the boundaries of any county, it shall be the duty of the surveyor of any county from which territory may be so taken, to furnish the surveyor of the county including such territory with a full and complete copy of all the field-notes of surveys made in the same.

Duty on change of boundary. (Act Feb. 5, 1840.)

Art. 4082. [3846] Whenever the election of any person to the office of county or district surveyor may be contested, like notice shall be given and proceedings had as in case of contested elections for county officers. When the district is composed of one county the contest shall be tried in such county, but where the district is composed of more than one county, then such contest shall be tried in the county from which the district takes its name.

Contested elections, by what court tried. (Act Feb. 7, 1853.)

Art. 4083. [3847] All district surveyors shall be governed in the discharge of their official duties by the same provisions of law which regulate and prescribe the duties of county surveyors so far as the same may be applicable, and upon their removal from office or at the expiration of their term of office they shall deliver to their successors all records, books, papers, maps and other things appertaining to the office.

Their duties, how regulated. (Act May 12, 1846.)

Art. 4084. [3848] Each district surveyor shall appoint one or more deputy surveyors, who shall qualify and give bond in manner and form as required of deputy county surveyors, and whose duties shall be the same as those of deputy county surveyors so far as the same may be applicable; and when such surveyor does the work of surveying in a new county he shall notify the special county surveyor acting under his direction, and report his work to him to be mapped and noted on his records.

Deputy district surveyors.

Art. 4085. [3849] It shall be the duty of each district surveyor, within twenty days after his election, to appoint as his deputy a special county surveyor for each unorganized county within his district, who shall hold his office during the term of his principal, unless sooner superseded by the appointment of another as his successor. The district surveyor shall immediately notify the commissioner of the general land office of every such appointment. Each special county surveyor so appointed shall have all the powers, perform all the duties and be subject to all the penalties appertaining to county surveyors, and shall keep, in addition to the returns to be made to his principal, a record and map of all the transactions in his office, to become part of the county surveyor's records of such county whenever it may be organized. All such special county surveyors shall reside and keep their offices in their respective counties, if there be settlements in the same, but if there be no settlements in the county, then at the nearest town to such county. Whenever any county may elect a county surveyor, who shall have qualified and given bond, and who shall have procured the maps and records required by law, the district surveyor within whose district such county may have been or may be at the time, and his deputy shall cease to exercise any official acts within the same.

Deputy surveyor of new county to procure maps. (Act May 11, 1846.)
P. D. 4276.

Art. 4086. [3850] Deputy surveyors of the several new counties shall procure from the district surveyors of their respective districts, or make out the same, a map of all the surveyed lands situated in the new county to which such deputy may be assigned, which shall be kept in the office of such deputy at the county site, for the inspection of all persons interested.

Surveys of deputy to be placed on map.
Ib.
P. D. 4277.

Art. 4087. [3851] All surveys made by a deputy surveyor in a new county, after being examined and placed upon the map of the district, shall be placed upon the county map.

Surveys in unorganized counties. (Act Feb. 8, 1860.)
P. D. 1091.

Art. 4088. [3852] In any unorganized county to which a special deputy surveyor may have been appointed, or may hereafter be appointed, the district surveyor of the land district to which it is attached or his deputies may make surveys, the field-notes of which shall be recorded in a separate book for each of such unorganized counties, and also in the ordinary record books of the land district; but before making such surveys he shall notify the special deputy surveyor thereof and afterward report the field-notes to him, to be mapped out and noted on his records.

Special deputies, bond, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 1092.

Art. 4089. [3853] The district or county surveyor of any county shall have the power to appoint a special deputy, who shall be empowered to perform all official acts which said district or county surveyor may legally perform, and the said special deputy surveyor, before entering on the discharge of his duties, shall give bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the governor, for the faithful discharge of the same, which shall be approved by the commissioners' court of the county and filed with the county clerk thereof.

Surveyor not authorized to survey, until, etc. (Act Jan. 26, 1858.)

Art. 4090. [3854] Before any surveyor, elected as provided by law, in a county not previously a separate land district, shall receive any file or location of a certificate, or any application for a homestead donation, or make any survey therein, he shall procure a certified map of the surveys in said county, and a certified copy of all files, applications and locations of lands therein from the surveyor's office of the land districts to which said county belonged, and file the same in his office for the inspection of any one interested in examining the same.

Art. 4091. [3855] When the surveyor shall have complied with the provisions of the preceding article, it shall be his duty immediately to make out and return to the general land office field-notes, properly certified to, of the boundaries of such county; and the commissioners' court of said county shall make the necessary provision for paying the expenses thereof.

Art. 4092. [3856] Whenever the maps, field-notes of surveys or other records, or any part thereof, of the surveyor's office in any county or land district shall from any cause be lost or destroyed, or when any new county shall organize, or new land district is created, it shall be the duty of such county or district surveyor to obtain from the commissioner of the general land office a transcript of such maps, field-notes of surveys or other records of his office of his county or land district, certified to as required by law, and for obtaining which he shall be entitled to five cents per hundred words, and the state shall be entitled to ten cents per hundred words, to be paid by the commissioners' court of his county; said transcript of records so certified shall answer all the purposes and have the same force and effect in law that the original could have.

Art. 4093. [3857] The district and county surveyors are authorized to rent some suitable building or room in which to keep their offices in case the said surveyors can not be provided with offices in the court houses of their respective counties.

Art. 4094. [3858] The county commissioners' court shall make the necessary arrangement for paying the rent of an office rented by said surveyors, upon satisfactory evidence showing that the rent was reasonable and the office necessary, and that there was no office provided for said surveyors in the court house of their county.

Art. 4095. [3859] In all cases where the county surveyors do not reside at the county seats of their respective counties they shall and are hereby required to have deputies in their respective offices residing at said county seats, who shall keep their offices open and the records thereof subject to the examination of any person interested therein, and who shall have authority to receive and file land certificates or other evidences of right to land, and also to receive and record all files or designations of land to be surveyed.

Art. 4096. [3860] Any certificate of claim to land, which has been or may be obtained in the manner and form prescribed by law, shall be sufficient evidence to authorize any lawful surveyor to survey for any person holding such certificate any lands which he may point out agreeably to all the laws which do now or may hereafter exist on that subject; provided, that where more than one application is made for the same tract of land to be surveyed, the settler or occupant shall have the preference if their claims be otherwise equal.

Art. 4097. [3861] In all cases where there is more than one claimant to the same location, or in case there be more occupant claimants than one, the conflicting claims shall be summarily tried by the nearest justice of the peace, and six disinterested jurors summoned for that purpose, who shall in all cases give preference to the oldest occupant and settler; and upon their decision the surveyor shall grant to the successful party the field-notes of the tract of land.

Art. 4098. [3862] Any person interested for himself, or as agent or attorney of another, shall at all times have the right to examine the books, papers, plats, maps or other archives belonging to the office of any district, county or special surveyor, on the payment of the fee fixed by law.

Shall return field notes of new county. Transcript to be obtained from land office, when. (Acts of 1885, p. 92; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 482.)

Authorized to rent office. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 196.)

Right to demand statement, when. (Act Jan. 26, 1858.)
P. D. 1086.

Art. 4099. [3863] Whenever an applicant calls upon a district, county, deputy or special surveyor to make an entry for location on his books, and shall be informed that the land indicated by the applicant has already been located, or located and surveyed, the applicant may demand of the surveyor a certificate in writing, setting forth the time at which the entry, location and survey, or either, was made, at whose instance, upon what certificate or warrant, and all the facts in the case, which certificate shall be held good evidence in law and equity against such surveyor in any suit brought against him to test the truth of the certificate and recover damages by the applicant; and any surveyor refusing any examination of his books and archives, or to give the certificates as herein provided, shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered before the district court by the party injured.

Transcripts, etc., by whom paid for. (Act March 20, 1848.)
P. D. 1078.

Art. 4100. [3864] The transcript of records and maps, together with the examination of the same, shall be paid for by the county for the benefit of which they are made, allowing ten cents for every one hundred words in copying said records, and three dollars per day for each day the draftsman may be actually and necessarily engaged in copying maps, as provided by law; and clerks and district surveyors for examining and certifying transcripts of records shall have three dollars per day.

Surveyors to establish true meridian, etc. (Act June 2, 1873, p. 173.)
P. D. 7099sss.

Art. 4101. [3865] The district or county surveyors of the several counties, in order to secure uniformity in the courses indicated by the different surveyors' compasses or other instruments used within their several jurisdictions, shall, in some convenient place at their respective county seats, establish a true meridian by a substantial monument, to be erected at the expense of the county, and shall adjust, or cause to be adjusted to the said meridian, all such instruments before being used within their respective jurisdictions, and shall keep in their offices a standard chain of the true measurement of ten varas, to which all chains used by themselves or their deputies shall be adjusted before being used in the measurement of lines of surveys.

Responsible for neglect or failure, etc. Ib.
P. D. 7099ttt.

Art. 4102. [3866] All surveyors shall be held responsible to parties interested for any cost that may accrue in rectifying any errors that may occur in their work by reason of neglect or failure to comply with the requirements of the preceding article.

Shall turn over records, etc. (Act May 12, 1846.)
P. D. 4525.

Art. 4103. [3867] Upon the removal from office, or at the expiration of the term of office, of any county or district surveyor, he shall deliver to his successor all records, books, papers, maps and other things appertaining to his office.

County clerk shall take charge of books, etc., when. (Act Oct. 18, 1866, p. 31.)

Art. 4104. [3869] Whenever an organized county from any cause has not a qualified county surveyor, the county clerk of such county is hereby required to take charge of all records, maps and papers belonging to the county surveyors' office and safely keep the same in his office.

Surveyor's records may be transcribed. (Act Nov. 6, 1871, p. 18.)

Art. 4105. [3870] Whenever the county commissioners' court of any county shall deem the same necessary, they shall order the surveyor's records to be transcribed in good and substantial books, in a plain hand, by the surveyor or special deputies sworn to make true copies of the same, for which services they shall be allowed not more than ten cents per hundred words, to be paid out of the county treasury.

Article 4106. All laws and parts of laws granting lands or land certificates to any person, firm, corporation or company for the construction of railroads, canals and ditches, are repealed.

Articles repealed.
(Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.)
Ib.

[Note.—The foregoing repealing act repeals original article 4106 (3871), and articles 4107 (3872), 4108 (3873), 4109 (3874), 4110 (3875), 4111 (3876), 4112 (3877), 4113 (3878), 4114 (3879), 4115, 4116, 4117, and 4118 (3882).]

Art. 4119. [3883] Whenever any headright certificate, soldier's discharge, bounty warrant, donation warrant or any other land certificate described in this chapter shall have been lost or destroyed a duplicate thereof may be issued by the commissioner of the general land office as hereinafter provided.

Duplicate certificates may be issued, when.
(Act May 11, 1846.)
P. D. 4122.

Art. 4120. [3884] Whenever any of the above mentioned certificates or evidence of claim to land may have been lost or destroyed the owner thereof, or his agent or legal representative, shall cause a notice of such loss or destruction to be published for eight successive weeks in some weekly newspaper published in the county where such person, his agent or legal representative resides, or in the nearest county if none be so published, and such notice shall describe substantially, or as near as can be, the certificate or paper lost, and shall further state that unless intelligence of the same is received by him, or by the commissioner of the general land office, within three months of the date of said publication, he will apply to the proper officer for a duplicate of the certificate or paper so lost or destroyed.

Notice to be published for eight weeks.
(Act Jan. 14, 1840.)
P. D. 4123.

Art. 4121. [3885] When any person shall apply for a duplicate of any such certificate or claim against the government, he shall be required to prove by the affidavit of the printer or publisher, duly made before some officer authorized to administer oaths, that the notice has been published as required in the preceding article; and he or his agent shall take and subscribe an oath before some officer, authorized as aforesaid, to the following effect: That he is the just owner of the said certificate or claim [describing it]; that he has not sold, alienated nor transferred the same in any manner; that it has been lost [or destroyed, as the case may be], and that since lost [or destroyed] he has not known or heard of the existence of the same. And he shall file said proof and affidavit in the general land office; and when the assignee of the original grantee applies for such duplicate, the evidence of this title shall be filed in the general land office, if not already on file; whereupon, if it shall appear to the commissioner of the general land office that the certificate or claim so lost or destroyed is a genuine and subsisting claim against the government, and that the provisions of this article have been fully complied with, no intelligence of said certificate or claim having been received by him, it shall be his duty to issue to the claimant, in the name of the original grantee, a duplicate certificate under his hand and the seal of his office, entitling him to the same quantity of land as was conferred by the original; provided, that administrators and the legal representatives of deceased owners shall not be required to take the oath above prescribed; and provided further, that when an agent or attorney applies for such duplicate, his legal authority to receive and receipt for the same be filed before delivery.

Joint owners may join or sever in affidavit. (Act Feb. 7, 1852.) P. D. 4127.

Art. 4122. [3886] When any certificate or evidence of claim to land mentioned in this chapter shall be owned by two or more parties, and the same shall be lost or destroyed, the parties owning the same may jointly or severally make the affidavit required of such owner.

When unlocated balance certificate may be issued. (Act Jan. 10, 1850.)

Art. 4123. [3887] When two or more surveys have been made by virtue of any legal claim to lands and patents obtained therefor, if it shall appear by the district or county maps in the general land office, or by a plat or sketch giving a connection of the adjacent surveys certified to by the district or county surveyor and returned to said office, that the survey last made is so circumscribed by other surveys that no more vacant land can be obtained in that place, and the survey or surveys already made do not satisfy the claim, the commissioner of the general land office shall issue, on demand, to the owner or holder of said claim, a certificate for the unlocated balance thereof, which may be located, surveyed and patented as other certificates.

When location in conflict, may be changed. (Acts of 1879, p. 20, S. S.)

Art. 4124. [3888] Whenever the field-notes of a survey have been returned to the general land office, and upon examination the same are found to be in conflict with previous claims, it shall be lawful for the rightful claimant of the certificate so located in conflict to file his affidavit with the commissioner, setting forth that the certificate was not intentionally so located in conflict, but that he believed at the date of such location that the land covered thereby was vacant and unappropriated public domain; to abandon said survey and surrender all claim thereto by reason of the file, entry and survey made by him, and to receive from the commissioner a copy of the certificate on which the same was based, if such certificate be valid and genuine; and it shall be the duty of the commissioner to indorse upon the said copy that the original certificate is floated, and the county where the land is situated which is covered by such floated certificate, and that the copy is given in lieu of the original, but without any prejudice to the rights of any person by virtue of said certificate, and that the said copy may be located upon any unappropriated or vacant land.

When patent cancelled, a duplicate certificate may issue. (Acts Feb. 3, 1854; June 2, 1873, p. 180, §5.) P. D. 4301-2. P. D. 709900.

Art. 4125. [3889] Whenever any patent to land has been cancelled according to law, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to issue to the owner, his agent or legal representative, on his demand, a duplicate of the original certificate, or a certificate for the unlocated balance of said certificate, as the case may be, which may be located and surveyed and patented upon as in other cases; and the commissioner shall certify upon such certificate that the original patent has been cancelled, the county where the land is situated, and that the duplicate or certificate is given in lieu of the original, but without any prejudice to the rights of any person.

Art. 4126. [3890] Whenever any genuine land certificate has been located and surveyed in part, and the same, with the field-notes, has been returned to and filed in the general land office, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to issue to the owner thereof, his agent or legal representative, on demand, a certificate for the unlocated balance of said original, stating thereon the number and amount of locations made on the original, and the same may be located, surveyed and patented as in other cases.

Where surveyed in part certificate for unlocated balance to issue. (Act June 2, 1873, p. 180, §6.) P. D. 7099pp.

Art. 4127. [3891] When any person may have applied for and obtained a duplicate land warrant, headright or other land certificate, or certificate for unlocated balance, under the provisions of this chapter, and the same may have been lost or destroyed, such person shall be entitled to demand and receive a triplicate thereof, or other certificate of unlocated balance, by complying with the provisions hereof in reference to obtaining duplicate certificates or certificate of unlocated balance.

Triplicate certificate, when obtained. (Act Nov. 27, 1861.) P. D. 4158.

Art. 4128. [3892] All certificates heretofore or that may be hereafter issued by the supreme or district courts, in accordance with the provisions of an act passed by the fifth congress of the republic of Texas, approved February 4, 1841, shall be as valid and legal as if issued by any other legal authority.

Certificates issued by supreme and district courts validated. (Act March 28, 1848.) P. D. 4237.

Art. 4129. [3893] The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized to issue to all persons and corporations such land certificates as they may be entitled to under any general or special law.

Commissioner authorized to issue certificate. (Act March 6, 1863, p. 23, §1.)

Article 4130. [3894] Each county, district and special deputy surveyor shall keep in his office a well-bound book as a register of entries, in which he shall register all entries or applications for land in his county or district.

Surveyor shall keep a register of entries. (Act Aug. 30, 1856.) P. D. 4573.

Art. 4131. [3895] An entry or application shall be in writing, and be dated and signed by the applicant. It shall particularly describe the claim to be surveyed and the land applied for; which entry or application, together with the land certificate or scrip, or other legal evidence of title to be surveyed, shall be filed in the office of the county or district surveyor in which the land is situated; and where the said claim to be surveyed shall remain until returned, together with the field-notes, to the general land office.

Entry, etc., how made. Ib.

Art. 4132. [3896] The survey shall be made by a copy of the entry or application, and strictly in accordance with the same; and hereafter no survey shall be made until after entry or application, as provided in the preceding article.

Survey, how made. Ib.

Shall confer a preference right. Art. 4133. [3897] Every entry or application, made according to the two preceding articles, shall confer a preference right of location or survey over any subsequent entry or application.

Certificate not to be lifted after entry. Art. 4134. [3898] It shall not be lawful for such surveyor to allow the holder of any land certificate or scrip, or other legal evidence of title to land, to lift or float the same after entry, location, file or survey, when the same is not made upon land previously appropriated. But when a conflict of entries, files, locations or surveys occur, upon a proper showing of the facts, which may be by the certificate of one of his deputies or from his knowledge, he shall allow the party having his entry, file, location or survey of subsequent date, to lift so much thereof as shall be affected by such conflict.

Effect of location on a valid title, etc. Art. 4135. [3899] Whenever an entry is made by virtue of a genuine certificate, upon any land which appears to be appropriated, deeded or patented, by the books of the proper surveyor's office, or records of the county court or general land office, the party making such entry shall abide by the same. And in the event that judgment final shall be rendered against the right of the party making such entry to hold such land, he shall not have the right to lift or re-enter said certificate. But the same shall be forfeited, and so declared to be by the judgment of the court.

Certificate may be relocated on same land, when. (Act Feb. 10, 1852.) Art. 4136. [3900] Any person holding a genuine certificate or other legal evidence of right to land under the republic or state of Texas, and having a survey made by virtue of the same, the field-notes of which may not have been returned to the general land office before the period prescribed by law, shall have the right to relocate the same certificate or other evidence of legal right to land, upon the same survey, but without being compelled to have the same resurveyed; provided, said survey shall not have been previously located by some other person by right of a genuine land claim.

Relocation, how made, etc. Art. 4137. [3901] Any person wishing to avail himself of the privilege of relocating the same land claim upon the same land, as permitted by the preceding article, shall present his land claim, or cause the same to be done for that purpose, to the district or county surveyor, as the case may be, of the district or county where the field-notes were first recorded, who shall duly enter such relocation upon the record of field-notes of the office, and duly certify the same to the commissioner of the general land office, which shall be sufficient authority for him to issue the patent for the land so relocated as in other cases.

Surveys shall be made within twelve months. Art. 4138. [3902] All lands which may be located by entry or application, as aforesaid, shall be surveyed within twelve months from the date of entry or the same shall be null and void and the lands be subject to relocation and survey; but such lands shall not in any case be subject to relocation at any time by the same certificate.

May be made in more than two places. Art. 4139. [3903] Locations of land by entry or application may be made in more than two places by virtue of any genuine land certificate, bounty warrant or other legal evidence of claim to land; provided, such other places be bounded by previous surveys and shall be enough to satisfy only a part of said claim.

Where land lies in two or more districts may be located in either. Art. 4140. [3904] Whenever it appears that an entry or location is made on the boundary of any county or land district, and a part of the land so entered or located upon is in the adjoining county or land district, the same shall be as valid and legal as if the land were situated entirely within the county or land district in which such entry or location was made; and it shall be the duty of the county or district surveyor to make out a certified copy of such entry or location and forward the same to the county or district surveyor of the county or district affected thereby.

Art. 4141. [3905] It shall be the duty of the county or district surveyor receiving the entry or location mentioned in the preceding article, and which purports to locate part of the land within his district or county, to record the same as if such entry or location had been made in his own district or county.

Surveyor to record such location.

Article 4142. [3906] All surveys shall be made by authority of law, or under or by virtue of some genuine land certificate which is at the time on file in the county or district surveyor's office where the land is situated, and by a county, district or deputy surveyor duly appointed or elected and qualified.

What authorizes a survey.

[Note.—Article 4143 (3907) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 64, Sen. Jour., p. 482.]

Art. 4144. [3908] The field-notes of every survey shall state—

1. The county or land district in which the land is situated.

2. The certificate or other authority under or by virtue of which is made, giving a true description of same by numbers, date, when and where issued, name of original grantee and quantity.

Field-notes shall describe, what.

3. The land by proper field notes with the necessary calls and connections for identification (observing the Spanish measurement by varas).

4. A diagram of the survey.

5. The variation at which the running was made.

6. It shall show the names of the chain carriers.

7. It shall be dated and signed by the surveyor.

8. The correctness of the survey, and that it was made according to law, shall be certified to officially by the surveyor who made the same; and also that such survey was actually made in the field, and that the field-notes have been duly recorded, giving book and page.

9. When the survey has been made by a deputy the county or district surveyor shall certify officially that he has examined the field-notes, has found them correct, and that they are duly recorded, giving book and page of record.

Art. 4145. [3909] The field-notes of all surveys shall be returned to and filed in the general land office within twelve months from the date of survey.

Surveys to be returned in twelve months (Act Feb. 10, 1852.)
P. D. 4566.

on loss of original field-notes.
Ib.
P. D. 4552.

Art. 4146. [3910] When the original field-notes of any survey made by authority of law shall have been heretofore or may be hereafter lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the party who owned the same or his agent, on making affidavit of the loss or destruction of such field-notes and filing the same in the office of the county or district surveyor, to apply to such surveyor of the county where the survey was made and recorded and obtain from him a certified copy of the record thereof, which copy shall be as valid and efficient in law as the original was, and shall secure to the party all the rights before the commissioner of the general land office that the original would have done.

Surveys on navigable streams.
(Act Dec. 14, 1837.)
P. D. 4529.

Art. 4147. [3911] All lands surveyed for individuals, lying on navigable water courses, shall front one-half of the square on the water course and the line running at right angles with the general course of the stream, if circumstances of lines previously surveyed under the laws will permit; and all streams, so far as they retain an average width of thirty feet, shall be considered navigable streams within the meaning hereof, and they shall not be crossed by the lines of any survey.

Surveys shall be in a square.
Ib.

Art. 4148. [3912] All surveys not made upon navigable water courses shall be in a square, so far as lines previously surveyed will permit.

Two or more surveys permitted, when.
(Act Feb. 10, 1864.)
P. D. 4522.

Art. 4149. [3913] Two surveys may be made under any genuine land certificate, and more than two surveys may be made thereunder, provided the land to be located be bounded by previous surveys, and shall be enough to satisfy only a part of said claim, which fact shall be specially certified to by the surveyor making the survey.

Notice to settlers.
(Act Dec. 14, 1837.)
P. D. 4528.

Art. 4150. [3914] It shall be the duty of the surveyor in all cases, before he runs a division line between two settlers or occupants claiming lands, to notify in writing the parties interested before running the same; and any survey which may be made contrary to the true intent and meaning of this article shall not be a lawful one.

Trial as to disputed line before justice of the peace.
Ib.
P. D. 4527.

Art. 4151. [3915] When two or more persons can not agree to a division line of any land which has never been surveyed agreeably to law, it shall be lawful for either party to apply to any justice of the county or territory in which the land lies, or if there be no justice of the peace in the county or territory, then to the nearest justice in any county or territory, and make oath that he has tried and has not been able to settle the dispute between himself and one or more other persons (naming them) concerning a division line, and the said justice shall issue a warrant to any lawful officer to summon the party or parties defendant, together with six disinterested jurors, to meet upon the premises in dispute, together with such witnesses as either party may choose to have summoned, to give evidence on a certain day, naming at what time and place; the justice shall also meet the parties, examine all the testimony before the jury, who shall on oath hear and determine the case in dispute, and shall also determine who shall pay the costs of suit; each juror in such case shall be allowed two dollars per day for such services; the other officers, such fees as have already been established by law for other similar services; provided, that if the land in dispute shall be on a county line, it shall be lawful for a justice of either county, in which part of the land may be to act in such case; and in case either party be dissatisfied with the decision they shall have the right to appeal to the county court within ten days upon giving bond and security for the costs.

Art. 4152. [3916] All surveys represented upon the maps of the general land office, the field-notes of which shall not be returned to the general land office, under the provisions of this chapter, and for which there are no titles on file in said office, shall be null and void, and be stricken from the maps of said office, when it is made to appear to the commissioner of the general land office, by the certificate of the county clerk of the county in which the land is situated, that there is no title to said survey on record in said county, and by the affidavits of two credible citizens of said county that the said land is not occupied by the owner nor by some person holding for him.

When surveys void.
(Acts of 1885, p. 50.)

Art. 4153. [3917] If any district or county surveyor shall fail, neglect or refuse, when the amount of lawful surveying fees of any location of land may be tendered to him by any person legally entitled to the survey, to make or cause the survey of the same to be made within one month of the time of the tender to him of said surveying fees, he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond to the party or parties legally entitled to the same, in the amount of damages or injury said party or parties may sustain by reason of such neglect, refusal or failure, to be recovered before any competent tribunal.

Liability for failing to survey.
Ib.
P. D. 4569.

Art. 4154. [3918] If, upon examination of the field notes of a survey in the general land office, they are found to be incorrect, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to cause a plain statement of the errors, with a sketch of the map, to be forwarded by mail or by the party interested, to the surveyor who made the survey, with a requisition to correct the same and return corrected field-notes to the general land office.

Field-notes to be sent back for correction, when.
(Act Oct. 24, 1871, p. 11.)
P. D. 7091.

Art. 4155. [3919] It is hereby made the duty of surveyors who shall have made and delivered incorrect field-notes, upon the requisition of the commissioner of the general land office, provided for in the preceding article, or of the party interested, to make corrected field-notes and return the same to the general land office without delay and without any additional compensation.

The same corrected and returned, how.
Ib.
P. D. 7092.

Art. 4156. [3920] When a conflict of surveys does not exist on the ground, but appears only on the maps or in the field-notes, it shall only be required of the surveyor to make an official certificate of the facts and furnish a true sketch of the survey with its connections.

Correction by certificate, when made.
Ib.

[Note.—Article 4157 (3921) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 64, Sen. Jour., p. 482.]

Art. 4158. [3922] In all cases where field-notes shall be withdrawn from the general land office the same shall be returned thereto within twelve months from the date of withdrawal, or such survey or surveys shall be null and void.

Field-notes withdrawn to be returned, when.
(Act Nov. 29, 1871, p. 45, §3.)
P. D. 7098.

Art. 4159. [3923] An entry or location made by virtue of a genuine land certificate upon any vacant and unappropriated land which lies partly in one and partly in another land district or county shall be surveyed by the surveyor of the district or county in which the entry or location was made; and the field-notes thereof shall be recorded in both districts or counties before they are returned to the general land office.

Locations on the line and within two districts may be surveyed by either.

Art. 4159a. Whenever the commissioner of the general land office shall find by inspection of the whole body of the application that it was made for the purpose of having a survey made of a portion of the unappropriated public domain for the homestead of the applicant, under "An act for the benefit of actual occupants of the public lands," approved May 26, 1873, and acts amendatory thereof, and upon which application the surveyor did make the survey as required by law, even though his field-notes were not returned to the land office within twelve months, and shall also find that the proof of occupancy as required by law is fully and properly made, from all of which it shall be manifestly clear to the commissioner that the applicant had in good faith endeavored to comply with the law hereinbefore recited, but was misled through the omission or ignorance of the officers charged by law to perform their duties in the premises, he shall issue and sign the patent, notwithstanding the application may not have been sworn to, or not signed if sworn to, or shall not have the seal of the officer before whom the affidavit was made attached thereto, and notwithstanding the application may contain a recital of articles 3926 and 3927 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, "An act for the relief of actual occupants of the public lands," approved April 24, 1879, when it shall be manifest from all the papers on file in the land office that such recital was erroneously made.

[Note.—The articles referred to in this article, being parts of the act of May 26, 1873, do not appear to have been codified by the commission of 1893, nor to have been considered by the legislature in revising same.]

Law not to apply, when.
Ib.

Art. 4159b. That nothing in this law shall be construed to allow any applicant to obtain a patent in any case where subsequent settlers have, by reason of any of the failures or delays recited in this law, themselves settled upon any of such lands in good faith as a home, nor thus defeat such subsequent applicant.

Land purchase money refunded,
when.
Ib. p. 162.

Art. 4159c. Upon proper proof being made to the comptroller that money has been in good faith paid into the state treasury upon lands for taxes, lease and purchase money, for which, on account of conflicts, erroneous surveys, or illegal sales, patents can not legally issue, or upon lands which patents have issued and have been or may hereafter be legally cancelled, the comptroller is hereby authorized to issue his warrant for the amount so paid into the treasury in favor of the parties who have in good faith paid such money for which they receive no consideration; provided, that this article shall not apply to surveys the errors in which may be corrected; and provided further, that whenever the official records of the general land office shall show that patents for such lands can not legally issue upon such surveys, on account of conflicts, erroneous or illegal sales, or that patents issued on such lands have been legally cancelled, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to issue his certificate to that effect, which certificate filed with the comptroller shall be sufficient proof to authorize him to act under the provisions hereof.

Article 4160. [3937] Every person who is the head of a family and without a homestead shall be entitled to receive a donation from the state of Texas of one hundred and sixty acres of vacant and unappropriated public land, upon the conditions and under the stipulations hereinafter provided.

Who is entitled to 160 acres. (Const., art. 14, §6.)

Art. 4161. [3938] Every single man of the age of eighteen years or upward shall be entitled to receive a donation from the state of Texas of eighty acres of vacant and unappropriated public land, upon the conditions and under the stipulations hereinafter provided.

Who is entitled to 80 acres. Ib.

Art. 4162. [3939] Any person desiring to acquire any portion of the public domain as a homestead donation, and who is entitled to apply for the same under the provisions of this chapter, shall present to the surveyor of the district or county in which the land is situated his application in writing, designating the land which he claims, and stating that he claims the same for himself, in good faith, under the laws granting homestead donations; that he is without any homestead of his own, and that he has actually settled upon the land which he claims, and that he believes the same to be vacant and unappropriated public domain.

Shall present application in writing.

Art. 4163. [3940] Said application shall be made at the time of settlement or occupancy of the land, or within thirty days thereafter, and shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall be filed with the said surveyor and recorded by him in a well-bound book kept for recording pre-emption and homestead applications; and the said surveyor shall give a receipt therefor, if desired.

Shall be sworn to, filed and recorded.

[Note.—Article 4164 (3941) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 65, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Art. 4165. [3942] Any applicant for a homestead donation, after having settled upon the public land he claims, and having made his application in writing for a survey, as required by the provisions of this chapter, and continuing his said occupation, shall have a preference right over all subsequent locations or settlements to have the same surveyed, for a period of twelve months from the date of his application, and to secure a patent for the same under the provisions of this chapter.

Preference right to survey and patent. (Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 197.)

Art. 4166. [3943] The field-notes of every survey made under the provisions of this chapter, after being duly certified, mapped and recorded, shall be returned to and filed in the general land office within twelve months after the date of the survey aforesaid.

Field-notes to be returned to general land office in twelve months. (Act May 26, 1873, p. 197.)

Entitled to patent after three years' residence.

Art. 4167. [3944] Whenever the field-notes of a homestead donation survey shall have been returned to the general land office according to the provisions of the preceding article, and when proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the general land office that the original applicant for a homestead donation has by himself, or in case the claim has been transferred, that he and his assignee have together in good faith resided upon, occupied and improved the land so claimed by him for a period of three consecutive years from the date of the application, it shall be the duty of said commissioner to issue a patent therefor to the original applicant or his assignee, as the case may be, upon payment of all the office and patent fees.

Proof shall be by affidavit, etc. (Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 197.)

Art. 4168. [3945] The proof required in the preceding article shall be by an affidavit of the claimant to the effect that such original applicant has by himself, or in case the claim has been transferred, that he and his assignee have together in good faith resided upon, occupied and improved said land for three consecutive years from the date of his application for a homestead donation; which affidavit shall be corroborated by the affidavit of two disinterested and credible citizens of the county or surveyor's district in which the land is situated, which affidavits shall be subscribed and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, who shall certify to the same and to the credibility of said witnesses under his hand and seal of his office.

Patents shall issue to the heirs, when. (Act March 24, 1871, p. 16.) P. D. 7053.

Art. 4169. [3946] When the original occupant or his assignee is dead, the patent shall issue to his heirs on application of the surviving widow, one of the heirs or his legal representative.

No assignment valid unless by deed, etc. Id. P. D. 7053.

Art. 4170. [3947] No assignment of the homestead donation right by the occupant or settler before the patent has been obtained shall be good and valid in law, unless the same be by deed duly authenticated as required by law.

Shall forfeit right and title, when.

Art. 4171. [3948] Should any person claiming a homestead donation fail to make the written application as provided in this chapter, or should he fail to have the survey made and to have the field-notes thereof (duly certified to and recorded) returned to and filed in the general land office within twelve months after the date of his application, or should he or his assignor fail to make satisfactory proof that he had resided upon, occupied and improved the land claimed by him for three years after the date of his application, as provided in this chapter, he shall in either event forfeit all right and title to said land, and the same shall become subject to entry or location as other vacant and unappropriated public land.

Land certificate may be applied, etc., at any time.

Art. 4172. [3949] Any person who shall have filed his application for a homestead donation, according to the provisions of this chapter, or the vendee of such person, shall have the right and privilege at any time to locate upon his said claim or survey any genuine and unsatisfied land certificate, which shall have been duly transferred to him; and after returning the said certificate to and filing it in the general land office, he shall be entitled to receive a patent for the land in the same manner as if the certificate had been originally located upon it; provided, that the field-notes of the survey shall have been returned to the general land office within twelve months, as hereinbefore provided, and the homestead donation claim has not been forfeited under the preceding article.

Art. 4173. [3950] If any person shall be driven from the land claimed or occupied by him as a homestead donation by hostile Indians or other public enemies, or having reasonable grounds to fear violence from such Indians or enemies to himself or family, shall temporarily abandon his said land and shall return to and occupy the same as soon as it shall appear reasonably safe for him to do so, he shall not forfeit or lose any right by reason thereof, and proof of the same may be made by the affidavit of the party and the certificate of the county or district surveyor.

Temporary abandonment, when not commuted. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 197.)

Art. 4174. [3951] No person shall settle upon or occupy, nor shall any survey be made or patented under the provisions of this chapter upon any land titled or equitably owned under color of title from the sovereignty of the state, evidence of the appropriation of which is on the county records or in the general land office, or when the appropriation is evidenced by the occupation of the owner or of some person holding for him.

Homestead donations on titled lands prohibited. (Const., art. 4, §2.)

Article 4175. [3952] Every patent for land emanating from the state shall be issued in the name and by the authority of the state, under the seal of the state, and under the seal of the general land office, and shall be signed by the governor and countersigned by the commissioner of the general land office; and before the delivery thereof to the party entitled thereto it shall be registered in a well-bound book kept in the general land office for the recording of patents.

Requisites of patent. (Act May 12, 1846.) P. D. 4279, 4281.

Art. 4176. [3953] Whenever the field-notes of a survey and the land certificate by virtue of which the same was made have been returned to and filed in the general land office within the time prescribed by law, if it shall appear after due examination that such survey was correctly and legally made upon vacant and unappropriated land, and that the land certificate is genuine and unsatisfied, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to make out and deliver to the rightful owner thereof, his agent or legal representative, a patent for the land described in said survey.

When patent to be issued. (Act Jan. 20, 1840.) P. D. 4286.

Art. 4177. [3954] Should it appear to the commissioner of the general land office, from the records of his office or from information on oath given him, that there is some illegality in the claim, he shall, if he deems it necessary, refer the matter to the attorney general,

Art. 4180. [3957] The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to issue patents to the legal owner of a land certificate in all cases where the same has been located in two surveys, and where the same is bounded by other surveys.

Art. 4181. [3958] In cases where conflicts exist between surveys, the commissioner of the general land office shall be authorized and is hereby required to issue patents to such portions of such surveys as are free from conflicts, and also to issue a certificate for the residue in each case.

Shall issue patent to assignee, when. (Act May 12, 1846.)

P. D. 4294.

Art. 4182. [3959] The commissioner of the general land office is hereby required to issue patents to, and in the name of, the assignee of any genuine land certificate issued in conformity to law.

Before issuing to assignee transfers, etc., must be filed. lb.

Art. 4183. Before any patent shall issue to the assignee under the preceding article, he must present and file a sufficient and properly authenticated chain of transfer, assignment or obligation for title, or a power of attorney showing a transfer from the original grantee to the assignee.

Patent may issue to assignee without transfer, when. (Act Feb. 3, 1845.)

P. D. 4292.

Art. 4184. [3960] All patents may issue in the name of the assignee when the certificate was granted in the name of the assignee, without an exhibition of a chain of transfers as prescribed in the preceding article.

Patents to deceased persons shall inure to whom. (Act Dec. 24, 1851.)

P. D. 4228a.

Art. 4185. [3961] All patents which have heretofore been issued by the authorities of the republic of the state of Texas, in the names of persons deceased at the time of issuing such patents, and all patents for lands which may be issued hereafter by authority of the state of Texas, in the names of persons deceased at the time at which said patents may be issued, shall be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and effectual to convey and secure to the heirs or assignee, as the case may be, of such deceased persons, the land so patented, or which may be so patented, as though such deceased persons had been in being at the time such patents bear date.

In what order patents shall issue. (Act April 8, 1861.)

P. D. 4300. (Acts of 1879, extra session, ch. 27.)

Art. 4186. [3962] The commissioner of the general land office is authorized and required to patent surveys in the order in which they may be made ready for patenting, without regard to the order of filing in the general land office or the order of application; provided, that when application is made for patent on any claim, and the office fees therefor have been paid, such claim shall have preference over claims for which no application has been made; provided, such surveys shall have been regularly mapped, or there be sufficient evidence that no previous survey has been legally filed in the land office covering the same ground as represented on the maps of the office.

Art. 4187. [3963] The commissioner of the general land office is hereby prohibited from issuing a patent upon any survey that shall have been made by authority of a certificate issued prior to March 16, 1840, and has not been returned as genuine and legal by the commissioners appointed by the act of January 29, 1840, or by authority of a warrant issued for military services, unless the same shall have been presented to and approved by the secretary of war, the adjutant general or the commissioner of the court of claims, as heretofore prescribed by law, or unless said certificate or warrant shall have been issued by authority of a special act of the legislature; and any patent issued contrary to the provisions of this article shall be null and void, unless the person claiming such patent shall produce to the commissioner of the general land office the judgment or decree of a district court of the republic or state of Texas, from which no appeal was taken within the time prescribed by law, that he is justly entitled to the amount of land under the constitution and laws.

Patents on non-recommended certificates prohibited.
(Act Jan. 29, 1840.)
P. D. 4288.

[Note.—Article 4188 (3964) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 67, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Art. 4189. [3965] Where a patent to land has been or may hereafter through mistake be issued upon any valid claim for land which is afterward found to be in conflict with any older title, it shall be competent for the owner of such patent, or any part of the land embraced therein, and within such conflict, to return the same to the commissioner of the general land office for cancellation, or in case the owner of such land in conflict can not obtain the patent, then he shall return instead thereof legal evidence of his title to such patent or part thereof, and in either case he shall make and file with the said commissioner an affidavit in writing that he is still the owner of the same, and has not sold or transferred it; and should it appear from the records of the general land office, or from a duly certified copy of a judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction before which the title to such land may have been adjudicated, that such conflict really exists, it shall be lawful for him to cancel the patent or such part thereof as shall appear to belong to the party so applying, and deliver a new certificate or other evidence of claim upon which it is issued to the owner for relocation.

Patent may be cancelled in whole or in part, where issued by mistake.
(Act March 10, 1885, p. 76.)

Art. 4190. [3966] In cases where there is only a partial conflict the commissioner of the general land office may, under like circumstances and in like manner as is provided for in the preceding article, cancel any patent presented to him, and issue a patent to the applicant for such portion of the land covered by his patent as may not be in conflict with the older title, where from the field-notes the same may be done, and also issue to such applicant a certificate for the unlocated balance.

When in partial conflict, may be cancelled.
(Act Feb. 3, 1874.)
P. D. 4302.

Art. 4191. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to issue and deliver all patents now or hereafter ready for delivery to the person entitled to receive the same, when it appears from the books of said office that the legal fee for said patent has been at any time heretofore deposited in said office and not withdrawn.

Commissioner required to deliver patent, when.

Refunding of fee when patent can not issue. (Acts of 1883, p. 113.)

Art. 4192. Upon proper proof being made to the comptroller that deposits have been made in any special funds of moneys, for which deposits and payments no patents for lands can be issued for which such payment may have been or may hereafter be made, the comptroller is authorized to issue his warrant in favor of such parties for such amount as may be found to be due; provided, this article shall not apply to surveys the errors in which may be corrected.

When patent may be delivered to agent.

Art. 4193. [3967] No patent shall be delivered in any case to an agent or legal representative until he shall have filed written authority from the owner.

Commissioner required to issue patents on certificates not reported by clerks, when. (Acts of 1883, p. 82.)

Art. 4194. The commissioner of the general land office is authorized and required to issue patents to lands that have been surveyed and returned to the general land office and have been suspended because the clerks of the county courts have failed to make reports as required by law, when said commissioner is satisfied from evidence in his office that such patents should issue.

Penalty for failure to pay fees on patents. (Acts of 1879, p. 62.)

Art. 4195. If any patents remain in the land office six months after the owners are notified of the issuance, and to pay the dues on the same, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to add to the amount of said fees a penalty of ten per cent per month for the whole time the fees may remain unpaid, and to collect said penalty and fees from the persons or corporations to whom said patents have been granted, and said commissioner shall have no authority to deliver any patent for land or certified copy of field-notes or certificate thereof until the whole amount of said fees and penalty shall have been paid, and it is made the duty of the attorney-general to bring suit for the same in the district court of Travis county.

Venue, etc.

State shall have a lien to secure the fees. Ib.

Art. 4196. The state of Texas has and shall hereafter have a lien upon all the land conveyed by or included in all patents to land granted by the state for the amount of fees and penalties provided for in the preceding article, and said land shall be subject to be sold in satisfaction of the same.

[Note.—Articles 4197 and 4198. By the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code (No. 68, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482) Article 4197 is renumbered 4198 and amended to include the words “under chapter 8, Title LXXXVII., Revised Civil Statutes,” and the Article which follows and numbered by the codifiers of 1892 as 4198 (3969) is omitted as repealed.]

Severed from public domain. (Acts of 1885, p. 104; amend. 1895, No. 68, Sen. Jour. p. 482.)

Article 4198. All reservations of the public domain for the benefit of any railroad or railroad company heretofore made by law, and the right to which reservation has lapsed since January 1, 1872, or may hereafter lapse, are hereby declared then to have been severed from the mass of the public domain; and, in event of forfeiture to the state, are expressly reserved from location except by actual settlers under chapter 8, title LXXXVII, Revised Civil Statutes.

Reservation surrendered, how. (Acts of 1879, p. 175.)

Art. 4199. Any railroad company in whose favor a reservation from the public domain may heretofore have been created by any law, general or special, may surrender its exclusive right to further locate lands within said reservation; and whenever any such railroad company shall file in the office of the secretary of state an instrument in writing, approved as to form by the attorney-general, relinquishing or surrendering its claim to such reservation, said relinquishment shall, upon the payment of all costs of suit, if one has been instituted, be accepted by the state, instead of a judicial forfeiture of the reservation, and shall be deemed a satisfaction of said suit; and it is especially provided that the lands so relinquished shall be subject to location only under the provisions of law embraced in this chapter. The surrender is not to affect the right of the company to construct its road in accordance with its charter, nor its relation to the laws regulating railroads and granting land subsidies to aid in their construction. Any action taken by any railroad company under the provisions of this chapter is to be held to be a complete acceptance of all the provisions of the constitution applicable to railroads, and of the laws of the state regulating railroads.

Article 4200. All the public lands heretofore authorized to be sold under the act entitled "An act to provide for the sale of the unappropriated public land of the state of Texas, and the investment of the proceeds of such sale," approved July 14, 1879, are withdrawn from sale; provided, that nothing contained in this article shall be construed to return the land reserved by an act entitled "An act to provide for the sale of a portion of the unappropriated public lands of the state of Texas, and the investment of the proceeds of such sale," approved July 14, 1879, and the act amendatory of such act, approved March 11, 1881, to the mass of the public domain, but the same shall be construed to be reserved for the purposes for which said land was originally set apart and designated by said act until the legislature shall otherwise provide.

Subject to location, how. Effect of surrender. Certain land withdrawn from sale. (Acts of 1883, p. 2.)

Art. 4201. Any person desiring to purchase any of such appropriated public lands situated in organized counties of the state of Texas as contain not more than six hundred and forty acres, appropriated by an act to provide for the investment of the proceeds of such sale, approved July 14, 1879, may do so by causing the tract or tracts which such person may desire to purchase to be surveyed by the authorized public surveyor of the county in which such land is situated. The provisions of this article shall not be so construed as to prohibit the right of acquiring any of said lands under the homestead donation law, within the bounds of the reservation here made; but any person shall have the same right of acquiring a homestead within this reservation, under the homestead donation laws of this state, as he may have had prior to April, 1889; provided, where it is ascertained that any of such lands as contain not more than six hundred and forty acres are situated within the inclosed lands of any actual bona fide settler and resident of the state, such settler shall have the preference right for six months from the time that the same shall have been declared by the commissioner of the general land office to be vacant and subject to sale, to purchase as much of said land as may be embraced within his inclosure; provided, that said preference right shall not be given to any person who has inclosed any vacant land knowing the same to be vacant at the time of inclosing same.

Application, how made. (Acts of 1887, p. 61, §2.)

Art. 4202. The person desiring to purchase any of said lands shall make application therefor in writing, describing the lands by reference to the surrounding surveys.

Lands to be surveyed. Ib. §3.

Art. 4203. It shall be the duty of the surveyor to survey the lands designated in said application within three months from the date thereof, and within sixty days after said survey to certify to, record and map the field-notes of said survey; and he shall also within the said sixty days return to and file the same in the general land office, together with the applications for the purchase thereof, as required by law in other cases.

Surveyor's fees. Ib. §4.

Art. 4204. Surveyors shall be entitled to receive from applicants for the purchase of lands under the authority of this chapter all legal surveyors' fees for work done by them.

Patent to issue, when. Ib. §5.

Art. 4205. Within ninety days after the return to and filing in the general land office of the surveyor's certificate, map and field-notes of the land desired to be purchased, it shall be the right of the person who has had the same surveyed to pay or cause to be paid into the treasury of the state of Texas the purchase money therefor at two dollars per acre; and upon the presentation to the commissioner of the general land office of the receipt of the state treasurer for such purchase money, said commissioner shall issue to said person a patent for the tract or tracts of land so surveyed and paid for.

Failure to pay to work forfeiture. Ib. §6.

Art. 4206. Should any applicant for the purchase of public land fail, refuse or neglect to pay for the same within the time prescribed in article 4205 he shall forfeit all rights thereto, and shall not thereafter be allowed to purchase the same, but such land so surveyed may be sold as if no survey had been made.

Reservations not to be disturbed. Ib. §7.

Art. 4207. Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to operate as a repeal of the reservations and donations of the lands referred to in this title to the free school and public debt funds made by former laws, but such reservations and donations shall be preserved intact, and the proceeds arising from the sale of the same under the provisions of this chapter shall go one-half to the permanent free school fund and the other half to the public debt.

Certificates shall not be located, etc., on titled land. (Const., art. 14, §2.)

Article 4208. [3977] All genuine land certificates heretofore or hereafter issued shall be located, surveyed or patented only upon vacant and unappropriated public domain, and not upon any land titled or equitably owned under color of title from the sovereignty of the state, evidence of the appropriation of which is on the county records or in the general land office, or when the appropriation is evidenced by the occupation of the owner, or of some person holding for him.

[Note.—Articles 4209 (3978) and 4210 (3981) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 70, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Art. 4211. [3982] No person elected or appointed to any position of trust in the general land office, or employed in such land office, shall directly or indirectly be concerned in the purchase of any right, title or interest in any public land, either in his own name, right or interest for any other person, or in the name or right of any other person, in trust for himself; nor shall take nor receive any fee or emolument for negotiating or transacting the business of said office, other than those fees allowed by law.

No officer shall be interested in public land, etc. (Act Dec. 18, 1837.) P. D. 4090.

[Note.—Articles 4212 (3983), 4213 (3984) and 4214 (3985) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 70, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Art. 4215. [3986] The commissioner of the general land office shall make it the special duty of one of his clerks to constantly correct said abstract according to errors discovered, changes by cancellation of patents, changes of county lines and creation of new counties, and to add all new patented surveys at the date of the patent.

Abstract to be corrected when necessary. Ib. §4

Art. 4216. [3987] During the month of August of each year hereafter the commissioner of the general land office shall have made out and furnished to the comptroller of public accounts a supplementary abstract of all patents that have been issued from his office during the year ending on the thirty-first day of August, to include all locations filed during the year not patented.

Supplemental abstract furnished, when. Ib. §5.

Art. 4217. [3988] The comptroller of public accounts is hereby authorized to have one thousand copies of said supplementary abstracts printed and bound for distribution among those officers of the state and counties whose duties require the use of said abstract, the surplus copies to be sold at a reasonable price to parties applying for them; provided, that if the demand for copies of said abstract shall be greater than the supply provided for by this article, an additional number of five hundred copies may be printed.

Abstract to be printed, etc. Ib. §6.

Art. 4218. [3989] The sum necessary to pay for the printing and binding of said abstract shall be paid out of the general appropriation made by the legislature for printing, and all moneys received by the comptroller by the sale of said abstract shall be paid into the treasury to the credit of said appropriation.

Printing of, how paid for, etc. Ib. §7.

Art. 4218a. The titles to all lands located by virtue of certificates issued to railroad companies in whole or in part for sidings, switches or turnouts, and which lands were transferred by any of said companies or their duly appointed receivers or assigns prior to the first day of January, A. D. 1891, to purchasers in actual good faith for value, and are now owned by such purchasers, their heirs or assigns, be and the same are hereby validated to such purchasers, their heirs or assigns, and also to all actual settlers on such lands so far as the state may have any claim, and that the titles to all public free school, university or asylum lands located by virtue of such certificates are also validated, whether the locations were voidable or not by reason of their having been made by the wrong surveyor; pro-

Sale and lease of public lands provided for. (Acts 1895, p. 63.)
 Duties of commissioner of the general land office.
 Ib.

Article 4218b. All lands heretofore or hereafter surveyed and set apart for the benefit of the public free schools, the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, and the orphan asylum shall be sold and leased under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 4218c. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby vested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion of all matters pertaining to the sale and lease of said lands, and their protection from free use and occupancy and from unlawful enclosure, with such exceptions and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the provisions of this chapter, or by the constitution of the state. He shall, as soon as practicable, adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution or this chapter as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, and may from time to time alter or amend such regulations so as to protect the public interest; but all regulations shall be submitted to the governor for his approval before adoption or promulgation. He shall adopt all necessary forms of applications for sales or leases and all other forms necessary or proper for the transaction of the business imposed upon him by this chapter, and may from time to time call upon the attorney general to prepare such forms; and it shall be the duty of that officer to furnish the commissioner of the general land office with such advice and legal assistance as may be requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this chapter; and it shall be the duty of such commissioner to call upon the attorney general for advice whenever there is any doubt as to the meaning of this chapter or any provisions thereof.

Art. 4218d. The commissioner of the general land office shall from time to time, as the public interest may require, cause any or all of the lands belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter to be carefully and skillfully classified and valued that have not heretofore been classified, and for this purpose he may appoint, with the approval of the governor, such number of competent agents, who shall be citizens of the county or district where such land is situated, as may be necessary, or may determine and declare the classification and valuation without the aid of such agents, and upon such facts as may be satisfactory to the commissioner. Such agents shall receive for their work a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the commissioner of the general land office, and not to exceed the sum of three dollars per section; and no such expense shall be incurred in the absence of an appropriation by law to cover such expenditure, and the state shall not be liable for any expenditure of this character incurred in excess of current appropriations.

Lands to be classified and valued.
Ib.

Art. 4218e. It shall be the duty of such agents as may be appointed under the provisions of this chapter, under such restrictions and instructions as may be prescribed by the commissioner of the general land office, to classify such lands belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter as the commissioner may direct, into agricultural, pasture, and timber lands, and for this purpose they shall carefully examine the same, and after such examination they shall prepare an accurate plat of each section, showing the relative proportions of timber and open land on such section, and their situation; also, the quality of the soil, the topography of the land, and the quality and kind of timber, and the streams and other sources of water supply, and their location, and such other facts as may be important; and from time to time, as may be prescribed by the commissioner of the general land office, such agent shall prepare and forward to the commissioner, with such plats, a tabulated statement of such lands so examined by him, with the value of each section, and such plats and reports when approved by the commissioner, shall be filed in the general land office as a part of the records of said office; but nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require or authorize a classification of lands already classified under former laws; provided, that any section or part of any section heretofore classified as timbered land which is not pine land nor valuable chiefly for the timber thereon may be classified under the provisions of this chapter as agricultural lands.

Duties of classifying agents.
Ib.

Art. 4218f. When any portion of said land has been classified to the satisfaction of the commissioner under the provisions of this chapter or former laws, such lands shall be subject to sale, but to actual settlers only, and in quantities of not less than forty acres, and in multiples thereof, nor more than one section containing six hundred and forty acres more or less; provided, that when there is a fraction less than forty acres of any section left such fraction may be sold; but lands classified as purely pasture lands may be sold in quantities not to exceed four sections to the same settler.

Classified lands subject to sale to actual settlers.
Ib.

Commissioner of land office to notify county clerks.
Ib.

Art. 4218g. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to notify in writing the county clerk of each county of the valuation fixed upon each section of land in his county, and in each county attached to it for judicial purposes, which he offers for sale, which notification shall be kept by the clerk in his office and recorded in a well bound book, which shall be open to public inspection.

Price of public free school and asylum lands.
Ib.

Art. 4218h. All lands belonging to the public free schools and the several asylum funds shall be sold at no less than two dollars per acre, except pasture lands, which shall be sold at not less than one dollar per acre, and all timber lands shall be sold at not less than five dollars per acre. By timber lands as here used is meant lands valuable chiefly for the timber thereon.

Prior right reserved to existing actual settler.
Ib.

Art. 4218i. Any bona fide actual settler who may reside on any part of the lands the sale of which is authorized by this chapter at the time this chapter may go into effect, shall have the prior right for a period of ninety days after this chapter goes into effect, or after said land shall have been placed upon the market, to purchase such quantity of land as may be limited by this chapter, to include his improvements, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter regulating sales as in other cases, and such land shall be appraised without reference to the improvements thereon. Any bona fide settler who has heretofore purchased or who may hereafter purchase not exceeding one section of agricultural land, shall have the right to purchase three strictly pastoral sections, upon his making oath that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is directly or indirectly interested in the purchase of the same.

Commissioner to make all sales; conditions of same; status of vendee of original purchaser; sales after forfeiture; payments, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4218j. All sales shall be made by the commissioner of the general land office, or under his direction, and he shall prescribe suitable regulations whereby all purchasers shall be required to reside upon as a home the land purchased by them for three consecutive years next succeeding the date of their purchase, except when otherwise provided. Such regulations shall require the purchaser to reside upon the land for three consecutive years herein mentioned, and to make proper proof of such residence and occupancy to the commissioner of the general land office within two years next after the expiration of said three years, by his affidavit, corroborated by the affidavits of three disinterested and credible persons, to be certified by some officer authorized to administer oaths, and on making such proof the commissioner shall issue to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, a certificate showing that fact. If, however, any purchaser has sold his purchase, or any part thereof, his vendee shall be permitted to compute the time of the occupancy of his vendor as a part of his own occupancy; and if any person has sold the whole or any part of his purchase under this or any former law, his vendee, or if he refuses to do so, the vendor himself, may make proof of occupancy as provided herein. Any person desiring to purchase land in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall forward his application to the commissioner, describing the land sought to be purchased, which application shall be accompanied with the affidavit of the applicant, in effect that he desires to purchase the land for a home, and has in good faith settled thereon, except where otherwise provided herein, and he shall also swear that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase thereof. Any owner of land heretofore purchased, and which land has been or may be forfeited for non-payment of interest, shall have ninety days prior right after this chapter goes into effect, or after the land is again placed upon the market, to purchase said land without the condition of settlement and occupancy, in case it has been occupied for three consecutive years as required by law; but if not, then he shall reside thereon until the occupancy under the first and last purchase shall together amount to said term of three years; provided, that when any forfeiture has been made the commissioner of the general land office shall add to the appraised value of such land the amount of interest due thereon at the time of forfeiture, which shall be paid in cash with the first payment of one-fortieth of the appraised value of the land when purchased under the preference right to purchase given herein. Any original purchaser or his vendee of any of the lands the sale of which is provided for in this chapter, who has improved such land as a home, and who has been forced to temporarily abandon same on account of drouth, and who shall in good faith reoccupy the same, either by themselves or vendees, within six months after this chapter goes into effect, shall not have the forfeiture declared against them under the law providing for the forfeiture of such lands for non-occupancy; provided, that they shall make affidavit, supported by the affidavit of three disinterested witnesses, that they have reoccupied the land as a home in good faith, and that they had abandoned the same since their purchase on account of the drouth and not otherwise; and such absence shall not be deducted from the three years occupancy required by law in making final proof of occupancy; and provided further, that any purchasers or their vendees of such lands who have failed to make proof of occupancy as required by the law regulating such purchases shall have six months after this chapter shall take effect to make such proof of occupancy as required by the provisions of this chapter. The purchaser shall transmit to the treasurer of the state one-fortieth of the aggregate purchase money for the particular tract of land, and send to the commissioner his obligation to the state, duly executed, binding the purchaser to pay to the state on the first day of November of each year thereafter, until the whole purchase money is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum on the whole unpaid purchase money, which interest shall also be payable on the first day of November of each year; and upon receipt of one-fortieth of the purchase money by the treasurer, and the affidavit and obligation aforesaid by the commissioner, the sale shall be deemed and held effective from the date the affidavit and obligation are filed in the general land office; provided, that if the land applied for be timbered land, then the purchaser shall be required to pay the full amount of the purchase money at the time of his purchase.

Art. 4218k. Purchasers shall have the option of paying the purchase money for their lands in full at any time after they have occupied the same for three consecutive years; and when they have made such payment in full, together with the proof that they have occupied the land for three consecutive years, they shall receive patents for the same upon payment of the patent fee prescribed by law. Purchasers may also sell their lands, or a part of the same, in quantities of forty acres or multiples thereof, at any time after the sale is 1b.

Art. 4218l. If upon the first day of November of any year the interest due on any obligation remains unpaid, the commissioner of the general land office shall endorse on such obligation "Land Forfeited," and shall cause an entry to that effect to be made on the account kept with the purchaser, and thereupon said land shall thereby be forfeited to the state without the necessity of re-entry or judicial ascertainment, and shall revert to the particular fund to which it originally belonged, and be resold under the provisions of this chapter or any future law; provided, if any purchaser shall die, his heirs or legal representatives shall have one year in which to make payment after the first day of November next after such death, and shall be absolved and exempt from the requirement of settlement and residence thereon. And if any purchaser shall fail to reside upon and improve in good faith the land purchased by him, he shall forfeit said land and all payments made thereon to the state, in the same manner as for non-payment of interest, and such land shall be again for sale as if no such sale and forfeiture had occurred; provided, that all necessary and temporary absence from such land of such purchaser, for the time of not more than six months in any one year, for the purpose of earning money with which to pay for the land, or for the purpose of schooling his children, shall not work a forfeiture of his title; provided, further, that nothing in this article contained shall be construed to inhibit the state from instituting such legal proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such forfeiture, or to recover the full amount of the interest and such penalties as may be due the state at the time such forfeiture occurred, or to protect any other right to such land, which suits may be instituted by the attorney general or under his direction, in the proper court of the county in which the land lies or of the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; provided, this article shall be printed on the back of receipt.

Art. 4218m. In all cases where persons have purchased or may hereafter purchase state, school or asylum lands under any act of the legislature authorizing the sale thereof and requiring a residence of three years thereon, and said persons have so resided upon said land or may hereafter reside thereon for the period of three years as required by law, and their files have been or may hereafter be cancelled and purchases annulled by the commissioner of the general land office on account of conflict with other surveys, said persons shall have the right to purchase other lands of the classes mentioned in this article without being required to reside thereon. Persons desiring to avail themselves of the benefits of this provision shall make satisfactory proof to the commissioner of the three years' residence under their first purchase.

Coupling occupancy under second purchase to cure defects of first.
Ib.

Art. 4218n. In all cases where any of the lands mentioned in this chapter have been heretofore sold under any law authorizing the sale thereof, and the original purchaser shall have sold or may hereafter sell any part of his purchase in quantities of forty acres or multiples thereof, and the conveyance to his vendee or vendees is filed in the general land office after having been duly recorded in the proper county, the commissioner and treasurer shall credit his account with the value of the land sold, and they shall open up new accounts with the original purchaser and such vendee or vendees, and the commissioner of the general land office shall patent said land to the owners thereof in quantities of forty acres or multiples thereof; provided, that when any of such land is situated within three miles of a county seat it may be patented in twenty acre tracts.

Vendees of original purchasers protected.
Ib.

Art. 4218o. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized to patent in quantities of not less than one nor more than five acres any of the vacant and unappropriated public domain of Texas or any of the lands mentioned in this chapter as sites for cemeteries, churches or school houses. When the land is desired as a location for a school house, the patent shall issue to the county judge of the proper county and his successors in office in trust for that purpose; and when desired for a church house or a cemetery, it shall be issued to trustees designated by those requesting the patent. If the land has been previously sold by the state and not patented, the owner thereof shall execute a deed therefor to the county judge or trustees, as the case may be, and cause the same to be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the proper county, and to be filed in the general land office, and shall be entitled to credit on his account with the state for the value therefor. Except in case of vacant land the value of the land shall be deposited with the state treasurer, and in all cases the patent fees shall be paid to the commissioner of the general land office before patent issues. Such land shall be taken from the margin of a tract or section or of a subdivision thereof, as the case may be.

Cemetery, church and school-house sites.
Ib.

Art. 4218p. The commissioner of the general land office shall retain in his custody as records of his office all applications, affidavits, obligations and all other papers relating to sales of said lands, and

Accounts, etc., with purchasers to be kept shall cause to be kept accurate accounts with each purchaser. All purchase money due upon lands, as well as accrued interest, and all other moneys arising from the sales or leases of said lands shall be paid by the purchaser or lessee direct to the treasurer of the state, who shall cause an accurate account to be kept with each purchaser, and who shall execute duplicate receipts for all sums of money paid to him under the provisions of this chapter, one of which receipts shall be delivered to the purchaser or his agent, and the other transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office.

Sale of timber on timbered lands, etc.
ib.

Art. 4218q. The commissioner of the general land office shall adopt such regulations for the sale of timber on the timbered lands as may be deemed necessary and judicious. Such timber shall not be sold for less than five dollars per acre, cash, except in such cases as the commissioner may ascertain by definite examinations by an approved agent appointed by him for that purpose, to be paid by the purchaser, to be sparsely timbered or containing timber of but little value, in which case he may sell the timber on such sections or part of sections at its proper value; provided, such timber is sold at not less than two dollars per acre. The purchaser shall have five years from the date of his purchase within which to remove the timber therefrom, and in case of failure to do so, such timber shall thereby be forfeited to the state without judicial ascertainment; provided, that all timbered lands from which the timber has been cut and taken off may be placed on the market and sold as agricultural or grazing lands, according to classifications to be made by the land commissioner; provided, that the purchaser or his vendees of any such timber shall have the right to purchase the land upon which such timber so purchased is situated at two dollars per acre, cash, at any time before the expiration of five years from date of purchase of timber under the provisions of this chapter.

Lands to be leased; terms, conditions, etc.
ib.; amend.
p. 75.

Art. 4218r. The public lands and all lands referred to in the several funds mentioned in this chapter shall be leased by the commissioner of the general land office under the provisions of this chapter, at not less than three cents per acre. All lands classified as agricultural and all lands containing permanent water thereon shall be leased for a term of five years or less, and all lands classified as pastoral or dry grazing lands shall be leased for a term of not more than ten years, and the rental shall be paid yearly in advance, the first payment to be made at the time the lease contract is entered into. If at the termination of any lease the lands covered thereby are still for lease, the lessee thereof shall have the preference right to again lease such lands theretofore leased by him upon the terms and at the price then fixed by law. All leases shall be executed under the hand and seal of the land commissioner and delivered to the lessee or his duly authorized agent, and such lease shall not take effect until the first annual rental is paid and such lease thereof duly filed for record in the clerk's office of the proper county, and it shall not be necessary for the commissioner to acknowledge such lease contract so signed and delivered; and all leases under the provisions of this chapter may be advertised by the commissioner in such manner as he may think best, and let to the highest responsible bidder in such quantities and under such regulations as he may think to the best interest of the state not inconsistent with the equities of the occupant. All bids and offers to lease may be rejected by him prior to signing the lease contract, for fraud or collusion or other good and sufficient cause.

Art. 4218s. Any person desiring to lease any portion of the lands ^{Same.} belonging to any of the funds mentioned in this chapter shall make ^{1b.} application in writing to the commissioner of the general land office, specifying and describing the particular lands he desires to lease, and thereupon the commissioner, if satisfied that the lands applied for are not in immediate demand for purposes of actual settlement, shall notify the applicant in writing that his proposition to lease is accepted, and thereupon he shall execute and deliver to the lessee, in the name and by the authority of the state of Texas, a lease of said land for such term as may be agreed upon, and deliver the same to such lessee when satisfied that the lessee has paid to the treasurer of the state the rent for one year in advance. No lands which are now or may hereafter be classified as grazing or pasture lands shall be subject to sale, nor shall the possession thereof by the lessee be disturbed during the term of such lease, except as herein provided, so long as the rents are paid promptly in advance each year, as required by this chapter. Any actual settler upon any of the lands mentioned in this chapter, being the head of a family, shall have the right to buy at any time not more than three additional sections of strictly pasture lands, notwithstanding any lease thereof, unless by some other actual settler, the head of a family, leasing not more than three sections. Whenever any lease-holder has leased from the state of Texas exceeding ten sections, any actual settler, being the head of a family, shall have the right to lease within a radius of five miles of the land occupied by him not exceeding three sections of the land held by such larger leaseholder, but shall not be allowed thereby to reduce the larger leasehold to less than ten sections; provided, that any man not the head of a family shall have this preference right to lease three sections after having placed two hundred dollars worth of improvements on the section purchased by him; provided, that in all cases where the actual settler having purchased one section of land is permitted by the provisions of this article to buy or lease additional lands, and thus terminate the lease of the larger leaseholder, he shall be required to so select such additional lands sought to be purchased or leased by him as that by an exchange of lands, section for section and acre for acre, of like quality and class with the larger leaseholder, he can secure the quantity of land he desires to purchase or lease in a solid body; and in case the larger leaseholder desires to do so the actual settler so purchasing or leasing the additional lands in this article mentioned shall make such exchange with him, and shall be required to fence the same separate and apart from the lands of the larger leaseholder; but in no case shall the actual settler be allowed to purchase or lease the lands and terminate the lease of the larger leaseholder under the provisions of this article upon which there is a permanent natural or artificial water supply; and in no case shall such actual settler be permitted to so select such additional lands for purchase or lease as that by an exchange of lands with the larger leaseholder such larger leaseholder will be required to give in exchange any lands upon which there may be a permanent natural or artificial water supply, or upon which there may be improvements of the value of two hundred dollars. In case the larger leaseholder does not desire to exchange lands, as herein provided, with the actual settler, or upon request made by such actual settler refuses to do so within a reasonable time, then he shall not be required to fence his land, but may turn loose inside of any inclosure in which his lands may be situated not more than one head of cattle or horses, or in lieu thereof four head of sheep or goats, for every ten acres of land so purchased or leased by him; provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed so as to prevent either lessee from fencing his own land from the other if he should desire to do so, or to require the small leaseholder to fence his lands at all unless the larger leaseholder shall have his leasehold fenced; and provided further, that nothing in this article shall be so construed as to permit any actual settler, either by purchase or lease, or by both, to terminate the lease of the larger leaseholder upon more than four sections; and provided further, that north of a line extending west from the southeast corner of Callahan county to the southeast corner of Martin county; thence north to the south line of Lynn county; thence west to the southwest corner of Lynn county; thence north to the south line of Castro county; thence west to the line of New Mexico, the settler exercising the preference right herein given to buy or lease within the enclosure of another may so buy or lease any lands except a section on which there are improvements of the value of two hundred dollars, or on which there is a permanent artificial water supply, and shall not be required to enclose his lands separate from the lands of the larger leaseholder unless he can obtain the full amount of four sections in a solid body, or unless the same can be secured in a solid body by exchange of lands for the term for which he leases, section for section or acre for acre, with the larger leaseholder; and in all cases where he is not required by the provisions of this chapter to enclose his lands he may turn loose not more than one head of horses or cattle, or in lieu thereof four head of sheep or goats, for every ten acres of land purchased or leased by him and unenclosed. Each violation of the provisions of this chapter which restricts the number of stock that may be turned loose on lands leased from the state shall be an offense, and the offender, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine of one dollar for each head of stock he may so turn loose, and each thirty days violation of the provisions of this article shall constitute a separate offense. Any agricultural land that may be leased by an actual settler shall be subject to sale and settlement, but in case his lease does not embrace more than three sections, only on condition that the purchaser enclose with posts and at least two wires the land purchased by him separate from the land held by the lessee, and failure to so enclose it within three months from the date of the purchase shall be sufficient cause to authorize the commissioner to cancel the contract of purchase and reinstate the lease. In all cases where the lease is terminated under any of the provisions hereof, before the expiration of the term of lease, the lessee shall have a pro rata credit upon his next year's rent, or the money refunded to him by the treasurer, as he may elect. On the expiration of his lease or its termination under any provision of this article the lessee shall have the right for a period of sixty days to remove any or all the improvements he shall have placed upon the leased premises.

cations for conditional lease.
Ib. p. 63.

Art. 4218t. Any person desiring to lease any portion of the lands aforesaid on which no permanent water supply exists, shall notify the commissioner of the general land office in writing that he desires to lease lands, specifying and describing them, provided he can obtain the necessary supply of water by boring or otherwise, and that he will within ninety days lease said lands, provided such water supply can be obtained; he shall also make and file with the commissioner of the general land office his bond, with good and sufficient personal security in a sum equal to one year's rental of the quantity of land applied for, payable to the state of Texas, conditioned that he will diligently and in good faith try to secure water on such land during such ninety days, and if secured will lease the designated lands for the term prescribed herein, and thereupon the commissioner shall for such ninety days withhold the lands thus designated from lease to any other person; within or at the expiration of said ninety days and annually thereafter such applicant to lease shall pay to the state of Texas, in advance, one year's rental of the land applied for by him, on satisfactory proof of which payment the commissioner shall execute and deliver to the lessee a lease of the said lands, signed by himself officially and attested by the seal of the land office, together with which he shall deliver up the bond of said lessee, marked "Satisfied." If the said lessee shall fail to apply for his lease and make the payment aforesaid within said ninety days, and shall also within said ninety days fail to make proof to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the general land office within that time that he has in good faith and diligently used proper means and expended proper efforts to secure a water supply on such land and failed, then and in that case the commissioner shall mark said bond "Forfeited," and shall deliver the same to the attorney general of the state, who shall at once cause the said bond to be sued upon and collected; and such collection shall become a part of the available school fund. The penalty stated in such bond is hereby declared to be liquidated damages, and judgment for that sum shall in all cases be recovered by the state. Proof satisfactory to the commissioner of the general land office that proper, suitable and diligent effort had been made by such applicant to secure water, and that sufficient water could not be secured, shall relieve the principal and sureties on said bond from all responsibility therein, and it shall be marked "Satisfied" by said commissioner and delivered to the principal therein. No lease of less than four sections of unwatered pasture lands shall be made unless such less number includes all unleased land in that vicinity belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter. Lessees or their vendees who shall have at their own expense secured water on their leaseholds in accordance with the provisions of this article shall, at the expiration of their lease contract, have the right to a renewal of their leases for another term of five years at the price then provided by law, by giving sixty days' written notice to the commissioner, as provided in the preceding article.

[Note.—Section 20 of the act of April 4, 1895, p. 72, was repealed by the act of April 16, 1895, p. 75.]

Art. 4218u. All lessees shall pay the annual rents due for leased lands directly to the treasurer of the state, who shall execute receipts in duplicate for each payment made by any lessee, one of which receipts shall be delivered to the lessee and the other transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office. The treasurer shall cause to be kept an accurate account with each lessee, and the commissioner of the general land office shall file in his office all applications and other papers relating to leases, and keep a record of all leases made, which papers shall constitute a part of the records of his office.

Payment of rents, how made.

Art. 4218v. If any lessee shall fail to pay the annual rent due in advance for any year within sixty days after such rents shall become due, the commissioner of the general land office may declare such lease cancelled by a writing under his hand and seal of office, which writing shall be filed with the other papers relating to such lease, and thereupon such lease shall immediately terminate, and the lands so leased shall become subject to purchase or lease under the provisions of this chapter. Such lease shall not be made to original lessees until all arrears are fully paid. During the continuance of all leases, and after forfeiture, the state shall have a lien upon all property owned by the lessee upon the leased premises to secure the payment of all rents due, which lien shall be superior to all other liens whatsoever; and it shall not be essential to the preservation or validity of such lien that it shall be reserved in the instrument of lease.

Lessees privileged to purchase; personal property in improvements.
Ib.

Art. 4218w. Lessees shall have the right at any time to purchase their leased lands, subject to the limitations as to quantity provided by this chapter, and at the price and on the conditions herein provided, without reference to any improvements made on such lands by such lessees; and all improvements made by lessees on lands leased by them are hereby declared to be personal property, which may be removed by such lessees on the expiration of their lease contracts; and they shall have sixty days after such expiration in which to remove the same.

Suits to recover lands illegally occupied.
Ib., amend.
p. 75.

Art. 4218x. If the governor shall at any time be credibly informed that any portion of the public lands or the lands belonging to any of the several funds named in this chapter have been enclosed or that fences have been erected thereon without authority of law, he is authorized in his discretion to direct the attorney general to institute suit in the name of the state for the recovery of such lands and damages, and a fee of not less than ten dollars for the attorney when the sum recovered is less than one hundred dollars, and when it is over that sum the fee shall be ten per cent, to be paid by the defendant for the use and occupancy of the same, and the removal of such enclosures and fences; and such damages shall not be for a less sum than the amount of all the leases due during such occupancy. For the recovery by the state of all lands sold under the provisions of this or former laws which have been or may hereafter be forfeited to the state for any reason, and for the recovery of any money due the states on leases made under this or former laws, and for the recovery of damages for the unlawful use and occupancy of such lands, as provided in this article, or any former laws, jurisdiction is expressly conferred on the courts of Travis county having jurisdiction thereof under the constitution concurrently with courts of the districts in which the land is situated, and all such suits shall be instituted by the attorney general or under his direction. In suits provided for in this article, the court shall issue a writ of sequestration directed to any sheriff of the state, commanding and requiring such officer to take such land and all property thereon belonging to the person or persons so unlawfully occupying said lands into his actual custody, and hold the same subject to further orders of the court, and the state shall not be required to give bond. Such writ of sequestration may be executed by any sheriff of the state into whose hands it may be delivered, and it shall be the duty of any sheriff into whose hands it may come to proceed and execute such writ. The defendant in such suit may replevy as in ordinary cases by giving bond as prescribed by law, and such cases shall have precedence on the docket and stand for trial before all other cases; and in case judgment is recovered by the state in such suit the court shall order such enclosure or fences to be removed, and shall tax the costs of the suit against the defendant, and all property found upon the land belonging to the defendant, not exempt from execution, shall be liable to the payment of such costs and damages in addition to the personal liability of the defendant. Appeals may be prosecuted from all judgments in such cases as in ordinary cases, except that the state shall not be required to give bond to perfect its appeal, and such cases on appeal shall have precedence over all other cases. If any person shall make a lease contract, and after the same is enclosed by fence shall for any cause decide not to continue payment of his lease, either in whole or in part, he shall give public notice by publication in any local paper having the largest circulation, for at least sixty days before the time in which his next annual payment shall become due, that he will not continue his lease after the year for which payment is made, and shall also state the number and block of the land which he will not lease inside his inclosure, if he only intends to surrender a part of his lease, and shall post and shall keep posted for said sixty days notice on all gates of his pasture of such intention; then, and then only, he shall not be subject to the suit nor liable for the damages provided for in this article.

[Note.—For penalties for violations of this chapter see Penal Code.]

Art. 4218y. The commissioner of the general land office may withhold from lease any agricultural lands necessary for purposes of settlement; and no agricultural lands shall be leased if in the judgment of the commissioner they may be in immediate demand for settlement, but such lands shall be held for settlement and sold to actual settlers only under the provisions of this chapter; and all sections or fractions of sections in all counties organized prior to the first day of January, 1875, except El Paso, Pecos and Presidio counties, which sections are detached and isolated from other public lands, may be sold to any purchaser except to a corporation without actual settlement, at not less than two dollars per acre, upon such terms as the commissioner of the general land office may prescribe.

Board of public printing provided for. (Act June 27, 1876, p. 31, §81, 16.)

Record of the proceedings of the board, etc. Ib. §16.

Board shall contract for public printing, etc. Ib. §1.

An expert may be employed, etc. Ib. §15. (Act March 13, 1876, p. 91, §1.)

Article 4219. [3990] The attorney general, the state treasurer and the secretary of state shall constitute a board of public printing, and a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Art. 4220. [3991] The secretary of state shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board and of all acts done by him in connection with the public printing, under the provisions of this title.

Art. 4221. [3992] The board of public printing are authorized and required to contract, as hereinafter prescribed, with some suitable person or persons, who shall be a resident of this state, to print and bind the laws and the journals of the senate and house of representatives, and to do such other printing and binding, and to furnish such stationery as may be required by law, or may be needed by any department of the state government or by either house of the legislature, not to include such work as may be done at the deaf and dumb asylum, nor such stationery, printing and binding as may be needed by the judicial department. They are authorized to make a separate contract when printing is to be done in any other language than the English, and in such case the printing board shall employ a competent person, at a price not to exceed thirty cents per hundred words, to translate the matter required into such other language.

Art. 4222. [3993] The board of public printing shall be authorized to employ a competent practical printer at a salary not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month, who shall be ex officio instructor in the art of printing at the deaf and dumb asylum, and whose further duty it shall be to advise with and assist the board in advertising for proposals for printing and stationery, and in making contracts therefor, and to examine the work done and stationery furnished under such contracts, and to certify to the board whether the same are correct and in accordance with law and with the contracts of the contractors.

Art. 4223. [3994] The public printing shall be divided into four classes, as follows:

Printing classified.
Prices to be paid.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 100.)
First class.

First—The first class shall include the printing and binding of the laws, journals, department reports, governor's messages and like documents, which shall be printed on white calendered book paper of uniform color, twenty-five by thirty-eight inches in size and weighing not less than forty-five pounds to the ream, from long primer type (except tabular work, which may be from such type smaller than long primer as the nature of the work and good taste may require); the pages of the laws, department reports, governor's messages and like documents to be twenty-six ems pica wide and forty-six ems pica long, including head and foot lines, and to contain not less than eighteen hundred and twenty-four ems; and the journals shall be printed in octavo form, the pages to be twenty-six and one-half picas wide and forty-six ems pica long, including head and foot lines, from brevier type, two columns to the page, each column thirteen ems pica wide, and each page to contain not less than twenty-eight hundred ems. When printed the laws and reports shall be neatly folded, stitched, covered and trimmed, and the journals and messages folded, stitched and trimmed. Cover paper shall be not less than thirty-five pounds to the ream. The index to the laws shall be printed from brevier type, and the index to the journals from nonpareil type. The maximum prices for the material and work of the first class shall be: For paper, white and cover, per pound, fifteen cents, and no allowance shall be made for waste; composition, seventy-five cents per one thousand ems, printer's measurement; press work, sixteen pages to the form, unless the nature of the work requires a smaller number of pages, fifty cents a token of two hundred and forty impressions or less; binding, forty cents per one hundred for folding, stitching, covering and trimming first signature of sixteen pages, and twenty cents per one hundred for each additional signature of sixteen pages or less; for folding, stitching and trimming without covering, thirty cents per one hundred for first signature of sixteen pages, and fifteen cents per one hundred for each additional signature of sixteen pages or less. No matter shall be leaded except by the express direction of the printing board. The printing board shall, at the same time the contract is let for the printing of the journals of the two houses of the legislature, include in said contract the printing and delivery of each day's proceedings of the two houses while in session, the same to be printed in octavo form as provided in this act for the printing of the regular journals of the two houses, five hundred copies for the use of the house of representatives, and two hundred copies for the use of the senate, the same to be delivered by the hour of meeting of the day following that on which such proceedings were had.

Second—Work of the second class shall consist of all blanks and printed stationery required by any department of the state government except the judicial department, and shall be on first class sized and calendered white wove unruled flat papers of such dimensions and weights as the nature of the work may require. The maximum prices for such work shall be as follows: For composition, fifty cents per one thousand ems, printer's measurement; for press work on forms the size of flat cap sheet or less, forty cents per token; on forms larger than flat cap, fifty cents per token; and a token shall be two hundred and forty impressions or less when the number of Second class.

(Acts of 1885,
p. 100-2-3.)

copies of a job ordered shall require a less number of impressions. The maximum price for paper required for work of the second class shall be twenty-five cents per pound. For ruling work of the second class the maximum price shall be twenty cents per one hundred sheets for each actual and necessary passage through the ruling machine. For numbering, with a numbering or paging machine, per one hundred pages, or per one hundred numbers, ten cents. For binding work of the second class the maximum price shall be: For pads of one hundred copies each, of any printed job, quarter-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per pad five cents; for pads of two hundred copies of any printed job, half-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per pad ten cents; for quarter binding quarter-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire ten cents; for quarter binding half-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire fifteen cents; for quarter binding whole sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire twenty cents; for half binding quarter-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire twenty-five cents; for half binding half-sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire thirty-five cents; for half binding whole sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire forty-five cents. A quire within the meaning here intended for binding work of the second class is not less than forty leaves.

Third class.

Third—Work of the third class shall consist of blank books, either ruled and printed, or ruled without printing. The paper shall be made of linen stock, and of the quality known among paper dealers as "P" paper; and the maximum prices shall be as follows: Cap paper, eighteen pounds to the ream, plain ruled, half bound, sixty cents per quire; ditto, printed heads, eighty-five cents per quire; ditto, plain ruled, extra full bound, one dollar per quire; ditto, printed heads, one dollar and twenty-five cents per quire. Demy paper, twenty-eight pounds to the ream, plain ruled, half bound, seventy-five cents per quire; ditto, printed heads, one dollar per quire; ditto, plain ruled, extra full bound, one dollar and twenty-five cents per quire; ditto, printed heads, one dollar and fifty cents per quire. Medium paper, forty pounds to the ream, extra full bound, Russia leather ends and bands, canvas cover with Russia leather corners, plain ruled, three dollars per quire; ditto, printed heads, four dollars per quire. Super royal paper, fifty-four pounds to the ream, extra full bound, Russia leather ends and bands, canvas cover with Russia leather corners, plain ruled, four dollars and fifty cents per quire; ditto, printed heads, five dollars per quire. A quire shall not be less than forty leaves in work of the third class. No extra charge to be allowed for vowelings, paging, labeling, lettering or gilding. Where changes in the printed heads occur in any blank book ordered, the maximum price shall be fifty cents for each change in the ruling and printing together.

Fourth class.

Fourth—Work of the fourth class shall consist of the printing of bills, resolutions, committee reports and such other like work as may be ordered by the legislature, or either house thereof, and shall be on first class sized and calendered white wove flat cap paper of fourteen pounds to the ream, printed on pica type, lines numbered in the margin, with space between the lines of the size of pica, the printing to be thirty-six ems pica wide and sixty-five ems in length. The maximum price for work of the fourth class shall be: For two hundred copies, or any number of copies less than two hundred, ordered by either house of the legislature, including composition, paper, press work and binding, two dollars per page for as many pages as are contained in one copy thereof, and when more than two hundred copies of work mentioned in this class are ordered by either house of the legislature the printer shall be paid only for the paper, press work and binding of such additional copies at such rates as are contracted for, for work of the second class; provided, that the printing board in having schedules prepared for the use of bidders for the first and second classes of printing, may fix other and lower maximum prices than those designated in this article for work and material of the first and second classes of printing; and that such schedules may call for bids by the ream on all papers required for the first and second classes, giving dimensions and weights, in no-wise to exceed the basis of twenty-five cents per pound, or may call for bids by the pound for all papers required for said classes; and provided, that the printing board may in their discretion receive separate proposals and make separate contract for furnishing in part or all the printing papers required under the provisions of this article for the printing of the first and second classes, under like conditions required by law for contracts to do the printing and furnish the paper; and in event of such separate contract the printing board shall cause the papers so furnished to the state to be delivered to the contractor to do the printing and binding, on written requisition of such contractor, and under proper guards and checks, at such times and in such quantities as the requisites of any job or jobs of printing may require.

Art. 4223a. [3993] No contract with the public printer shall be made for the publication of executive proclamations, advertisements, and other like documents; but the maximum price for such work shall be one dollar per square of one hundred words for the first publication, and fifty cents per square for each subsequent publication that may be ordered, and fractional parts of a square at proportionate rates, and each square shall contain not less than one hundred words.

Proclamations, etc.; how published. (Amend. 1895, No. 73, Sen. Jour., p. 482.)

Art. 4224. [3996] When proclamations, advertisements and like publications are authorized or required by law to be published in more newspapers than one they shall be published under like rules; provided, that proclamations and like documents shall not be published in more than two newspapers in each congressional district, and at different points, and shall not be inserted for a longer period than three months; and proposed amendments to the constitution shall be published once a week for four weeks, commencing at least three months before the time specified by the legislature for an election thereon, in one weekly newspaper in each county in which such newspaper may be published; and all claims presented for publishing advertisements shall be accompanied by a copy of the advertisement as printed, and shall state the dates when the same was published.

When published in more than one paper. (Acts of 1876, p. 31, §4.)

Art. 4225. [3997] The maximum rates for stationery shall be as follows:

Other printing and stationery.

Ib. §6.

Art. 4226. [3998] All printing and stationery not embraced within the provisions of the preceding articles of this title shall be furnished by the contractor at rates proportionate to those stipulated for in the contract for work and stationery of similar character, to be fixed by the board of public printing.

Current printing of legislature to be done at Austin.

Ib. §12.

Number of copies of laws, etc. (Acts of 1883, p. 5.)

Art. 4227. [3999] The current printing of the legislature shall be done at the seat of government.

Art. 4228. [4000] There shall be printed not less than eight thousand copies of the laws of a general nature, and as many more as the printing board may require, not to exceed twelve thousand in all; and fifteen hundred copies of the special laws, including all acts for private relief, all acts incorporating towns and cities, all acts having a local application, all of a personal nature, and all acts incorporating private associations of every description that may be passed at each session of the legislature; and one thousand copies of the journals of each house of the legislature.

Of the governor's message, etc. (Acts of 1876, p. 31, §7.)

Art. 4229. [4001] There shall be printed such number of copies of the messages of the governor and other documents as the legislature or either house thereof may order.

Of other public documents. Ib. §8.

Art. 4230. [4002] There shall be printed, under the supervision of the secretary of state, eleven hundred copies of the annual reports of the comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, commissioner of the general land office, superintendent of the penitentiary, superintendent of the lunatic asylum, of the asylums of the blind, deaf and dumb, and the reports of all other officers who are required to report to the governor or the legislature; three hundred copies of which reports shall be delivered by the secretary of state to the two houses of the legislature for their use, at as early a day as practicable after they are printed; three hundred copies shall be delivered to the officer making the report for his use, and the remaining five hundred copies shall be kept by the secretary of state for public use, but the printing board may increase the number of copies of such reports required to be printed, not to exceed two thousand.

Art. 4231. [4003] It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, on the first day of August next, and every two years thereafter, or as soon after the first day of August as may be practicable, to advertise for sealed proposals to furnish said stationery and to do such public printing and binding as may be required by the several departments of the government under the provisions of this title. Such advertisement shall be published for thirty days in not less than two nor more than five newspapers published within the state and having the largest circulation therein. It shall invite separate proposals to furnish the stationery and to do the printing and binding, and shall state as nearly as practicable the probable amount of such printing, binding and stationery which will be required under the contract. It shall also state the time and place of opening the bids and of awarding the contract, which shall be at the office of the secretary of state, not exceeding forty days from the date of the first publication of such advertisement.

Advertisement for proposals to do public printing, etc.
Ib. §9.

Art. 4232. [4004] Separate proposals shall be made for furnishing the stationery and for doing the printing and binding, and the proposals for printing and binding shall embrace all such work as is included under articles 4223 and 4225, except such as may be done at the deaf and dumb asylum, and the material therefor; and the proposals for stationery shall embrace all material specified in article 4225, and such other articles as are usually included under the term stationery.

Proposals to include, what.
Ib. §10.

Art. 4233. [4005] Each bid shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that should the contract be awarded to him, he will, without delay, upon being notified of such award, enter into a written contract in accordance with law, and with his said proposal, and will give bond and security, as required by law, for the faithful performance of such contract.

Bid to be accompanied by bond.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4234. [4006] No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in such contract, except in contracts for the translation of any public document into some other language.

No officer to be interested in contract.
Ib. §17.

Art. 4235. [4007] Such proposals shall be sealed and addressed to the secretary of state at the seat of government, and shall be indorsed with a memorandum showing that they are proposals for the public printing and binding, or for stationery for the several departments, as the case may be; and upon their receipt they shall be filed by the secretary of state, and the seals thereof shall not be broken until the day named in the advertisement for awarding the contracts, when they shall be opened in the presence of the printing board and such bidders and others as may desire to be present.

Proposals, to whom addressed.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4236. [4008] It shall be the duty of the printing board on the day fixed in such advertisement, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to make a careful examination and comparison of such bids and to award the contracts to the lowest and best responsible bidder whose bid may be below the maximum rates as herein prescribed; provided, such bid shall be approved by the governor and comptroller of public accounts.

Awarding of contract.
Ib.

Successful bidders to be notified.

Art. 4237. [4009] It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, upon the making of such awards, immediately to notify the successful bidders, respectively, of the acceptance of their said bids, and that they will be required without delay to execute and deliver to him their contracts with the state for the due performance of their said undertakings.

Requisites of the contract. Ib. §12.

Art. 4238. [4010] Such contract shall be in writing and shall be signed by the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the printing board in such sum as they shall prescribe, made payable to the state, and conditioned for his faithful compliance with his bid and with the provisions of the law relating thereto, for the period of two years, and until a new contract shall have been made and approved; the contract shall also be signed on behalf of the state by the members of the printing board, and shall be approved by the governor and comptroller and filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Suits on contractor's bond. Ib.

Art. 4239. [4011] On breach by the contractor of the bond provided for in the preceding article the same may be put in suit on the order of the governor, and such suit may be brought in the proper court of the county in which the seat of government may be, and such bond shall not become void on the first recovery, but suits may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof shall be recovered.

Secretary of the senate and chief clerk of house to furnish journals, etc., to contractor. Ib. §9.

Art. 4240. [4012] It shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate, and of the chief clerk of the house of representatives, to deliver to the contractor for the public printing the journals of their respective houses for the purpose of being printed, together with a comprehensive index to the same, to be printed at the end thereof; and it shall be the duty of the contractor to carefully use the same, and to return them without delay, uninjured, to such secretary and clerk respectively when the printing thereof is completed.

Secretary of state to furnish laws, etc. Ib.

Art. 4241. [4013] It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to deliver to such contractor, as soon as practicable after their passage or approval, copies of all laws and resolutions adopted by the legislature, together with a comprehensive index to the same.

Secretary of state to compare copies and certify, etc. Ib. §§9, 11.

Art. 4242. [4014] It shall also be the duty of the secretary of state to read and revise the proofs of such laws and resolutions and to superintend the printing of the same and to compare the same with the originals in his office, and to certify that the laws and resolutions as published are true copies of such originals; which certificate, together with a statement of the date on which the legislature adjourned, shall be appended to and printed at the end of each volume of such laws and resolutions. But the provision requiring the secretary of state to read and revise the proofs shall not dispense with the duty of the contractor to see that such proofs are properly read and corrected.

Work to be delivered to whom. Ib. §10.

Art. 4243. [4015] The whole number of laws and journals, reports of public officers and other public documents authorized to be printed, shall be delivered to the secretary of state at his office, except such printing as may be ordered by the two houses of the legislature, or either of them, for their use, which shall be delivered to such persons at such times as such houses, or either of them, may direct.

When to be delivered. Ib. §11.

Art. 4244. [4016] The laws and journals shall be delivered within sixty days after the last copy shall have been furnished to the contractor. The reports of public officers shall be delivered to the governor by the respective officers making the same in sufficient time to be delivered to the contractor one month before the meeting of the legislature, and if so furnished to said contractor shall be delivered by him to the secretary of state within the first week of said session; and if furnished less than one month before the meeting of the legislature, or after, the same shall be delivered by the contractor to the secretary of state within one month after they are so furnished.

Art. 4245. [4017] All accounts for printing done or stationery furnished, under the provisions of this title, except that for the legislature when in session, shall be audited as follows: The account shall be verified by the affidavit of the contractor that said account is just and correct; that the amount of work charged for has actually been performed, or the actual amount of stationery delivered, and that the prices charged in said account are in accordance with the stipulations of the contract, and shall be accompanied with a sample of the work done and stationery furnished. After which it shall be examined by the practical printer and printing board, and if found correct, approved by said board. Such claim, when thus examined and approved, shall be sufficient authority for the comptroller to issue his warrant, to be paid out of the appropriations for public printing or stationery.

Account, how audited and paid.
Ib. §13.

Art. 4246. [4018] All accounts for printing done or stationery used in either house of the legislature shall, in addition to the requirements contained in the preceding article, be approved by the chairman of the committee on public printing and the chairman of the committee on contingent expenses of the house ordering the work, before being presented to the printing board; for which account, when thus approved, the comptroller is authorized to draw his warrant, payable out of the contingent fund.

Accounts for current printing of legislature.
Ib. §14.

Art. 4247. [4019] It shall be competent for the legislature, at any time, to change by law the maximum rates hereinbefore prescribed for stationery or printing and binding, and should the contractors decline to do such work, or to furnish such stationery at the maximum rates so fixed, the printing board shall immediately proceed to re-let such contract.

Legislature may alter maximum rates, etc.
Ib. §17.

Art. 4248. [4020] The contracts for printing and stationery herein provided for may be abrogated by the legislature when in session, or by the printing board, with the consent of the governor and comptroller, when the legislature is not in session, if the contractor should fail to perform the work or to furnish the supplies in accordance with law and with his contract, and as promptly as the exigencies of the public service demand.

Contract may be abrogated, when, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4249. [4021] Should there be no bid for the public printing or stationery within the maximum rates as fixed by law, or should the successful bidder fail to execute the bond with security as herein required, or should the contract be abrogated, it shall be the duty of the printing board, with or without advertisement, as the interest of the state and the exigencies of the public service may seem to require, to proceed to let out a new contract as hereinbefore provided; and they may, in their discretion, make such temporary arrangements to meet the emergency as is demanded by the public interest.

Board may re-let contract, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4250. The reporters for the supreme court and court of criminal appeals shall be furnished by the state printing board with all stationery necessary for the performance of their duties.

Supplies to reporters, (Acts 1889, p. 7, §2.)

The 50 leagues appropriation. (Const., art. 7, §11.) (Act Jan. 26, 1839, p. 129.) P. D. 3550.

Article 4251. [4022] The fifty leagues of land set apart and appropriated for the establishment and maintenance of the "University of Texas," by an act of the congress of the republic of Texas, entitled "An act appropriating certain lands for the establishment of a general system of education," approved January 26, 1839, shall continue and remain as a part of the permanent university fund.

The 1,000,000 acres appropriation. (Const., art. 7, §15.)

Art. 4252. [4023] In addition to the lands heretofore granted to the University of Texas, there is hereby set apart and appropriated for the endowment, maintenance and support of said university and its branches one million acres of the unappropriated public domain, to be designated and surveyed as hereinafter provided.

One-half of public domain added to permanent fund, etc. (Acts of 1883, p. 71.)

Art. 4253. After the payment of the amounts due from the state to the common free school fund out of the proceeds of the sales heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, of that portion of the public lands set aside for the payment of the public debt by an act approved July 14, 1879, and an act amendatory thereof approved March 11, 1881, and the payment directed to be made to the common school and university funds by an act approved February 23, 1883, the remainder of said land, not to exceed two million of acres, contained in the counties and territory specially mentioned in said acts, or the proceeds thereof, set aside by said acts for the payment of the public debt, heretofore or hereafter to be received by the state, shall one-half thereof constitute a permanent endowment fund for the University of Texas and its branches, including the branch for the instruction of colored youths.

The asylum lands. (Const., art. 7, §9.) Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76.)

Art. 4254. [4024] The four hundred thousand acres of land set apart for the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the asylum for the deaf and dumb, and an orphan asylum, in equal portions of one hundred thousand acres for each of said asylums, by the provisions of an act of the legislature entitled "An act setting aside and appropriating land for the benefit of asylums," approved August 30, 1856, is hereby recognized and set apart to provide a permanent fund for the support, maintenance and improvement of such asylums.

Art. 4255. [4025] In case any of the lands appropriated and set apart by the provisions of the four preceding articles have not been surveyed, and the field-notes thereof returned to the general land office in accordance with law, the commissioner of the general land office shall, as soon as may be practicable, appoint one or more competent surveyors to survey such lands out of any vacant and unappropriated public lands.

Such lands to be surveyed if necessary. (Act Jan. 26, 1839, p. 120.) P. D. 3550.

Art. 4256. [4026] Such surveys shall be made in sections of six hundred and forty acres each, so far as the same may be practicable; and the surveyor shall locate and survey said lands under the direction of the commissioner of the general land office, and return the field-notes and maps thereof to the general land office within such time as may be prescribed by the commissioner, verified by his affidavit, in substance as follows: "I, A B, do solemnly swear [or affirm] that I have well and truly discharged my duties as surveyor of university [or asylum] lands to the best of my skill and ability; that in the performance of such duties I have selected and surveyed the most valuable unappropriated lands ascertainable by me in the locality designated by the commissioner of the general land office for my operations; and that the field-notes, maps and description of the lands herewith returned are as correct as I can make them, so help me God."

Surveys, how made and returned. P. D. 3551.

Art. 4257. [4027] At the time of appointment of any surveyor for the purposes indicated in this chapter the commissioner of the general land office shall designate the general limits of the territory in which such surveyor shall operate, and notify the district surveyor having jurisdiction over such territory of such appointment and designation, and thereafter no locations shall be permitted within such limits until after receipt by the district surveyor of a certified copy of the maps and field-notes as provided in the succeeding article.

Locations prohibited, when.

Art. 4258. [4028] After the return of the field-notes and maps to the general land office by the surveyor appointed to make any such locations the commissioner of the general land office shall cause certified copies thereof to be forwarded to the district or county surveyor of any district or county in which any such lands are situated, who shall record the same in their respective offices as in other cases.

Copies of field-notes, etc., forwarded to district surveyors.

Art. 4259. [4029] Appointments of surveyors for the purpose indicated in the preceding article may be renewed or continued by the commissioner of the general land office, and additional surveys made until the whole amount of lands appropriated for the university or asylums are finally designated and surveyed.

Surveyors to continue until, etc.

Art. 4260. [4030] The expenses of surveys made under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid out of the university fund of this state, or the fund of the proper asylum, upon the sworn account of the surveyor, approved by the commissioner of the general land office, and filed with the comptroller of public accounts.

Surveyors, how paid.

Art. 4261. For the purpose of ascertaining the conflicts and errors in and making proper corrections of surveys of lands made for the common school, university or asylum funds, or other surveys in which the state may be interested, directly or indirectly, in cases where from discrepancies or imperfections in field-notes it may become necessary for the proper compilation of maps, or for the proper location and identification of said lands upon the ground, the commissioner of the general land office is hereby invested with full power and authority to have such surveys made as he may deem necessary, and to appoint competent surveyors for this purpose.

Commissioner to have surveys made, when. (Acts of 1887, p. 107.)

Bond, etc.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4262. Any surveyor appointed under the provisions of this law shall make and execute a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned and payable the same as bonds of county and district surveyors; he shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution for other officers; said bond to be approved by the commissioner of the general land office, and shall be conditioned as other surveyors' bonds. He shall be under the control and direction of the commissioner of the general land office, and under such direction may survey the common school, university and asylum lands, or other lands in which the state may be interested, and prepare and return field-notes of same and certify to any and all facts, and generally do and perform such official acts as might lawfully be done by a county or district surveyor, and shall sign his name officially as "state surveyor."

May have lands surveyed, when.
Ib.

Art. 4263. The commissioner of the general land office may have any lands belonging to the common school, university or asylum funds, or other lands in which the state may be interested or lands alternating therewith, surveyed or resurveyed, and field-notes or corrected field-notes of same returned to his office by any surveyor appointed under this law, which field-notes shall have the same force and effect as if made by the county or district surveyor of the county or district in which said land lies; and upon the adoption and approval of said field-notes by the commissioner of the general land office, he shall forward to the surveyor of the county or district in which said land lies, certified copies of said field-notes, which thereafter shall be a part of the records of said surveyor's office. In carrying out the provisions of this law the commissioner of the general land office may, when requested by the owner of lands alternating with the lands resurveyed under the provisions of this law, cancel patents and in lieu thereof issue patents in accordance with said resurvey; provided, that all such owners shall pay the expenses incurred in making such corrected surveys of their lands and in issuing said patents; provided, that no claims shall be created against the state for services performed under this law in the absence of a previous appropriation therefor.

Control of university lands confided to regents.
(Acts of 1895,
p. 19.)

Art. 4263a. The board of regents of the University of Texas are hereby invested with the sole and exclusive management and control of the lands which have heretofore been or which may hereafter be set aside and appropriated to or acquired by the University of Texas, with the right to sell, lease and otherwise manage, control and use the same in any manner, and at such prices and under such terms and conditions as may to them seem best for the interest of the university, not in conflict with the constitution of this state; provided, that such land shall not be sold at a less price per acre than the same class of land of other funds may be sold at under the statutes.

Duty of commissioner of land office.
Ib.

Art. 4263b. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby directed to furnish as soon as practicable to the said board of regents complete and accurate maps and all other data necessary to show the location and condition of every tract of said university lands, and shall at all times hereafter furnish to said board such additional information as they may require, and shall at all times render to said board such assistance as may be possible and as they shall request in the discharge of the duties hereby imposed on said board.

Art. 4263c. All records and accounts of transactions in university lands, and of moneys paid thereon, shall be kept in the general land office and in office of the treasurer, as heretofore, and all patents shall be signed and issued as heretofore, and all moneys received on the sales or leases of said lands shall be paid to the treasurer of the state.

Custody of records and funds. Ib.

Article 4264. [4031] All the alternate sections of land reserved by the state out of grants heretofore made, or that may hereafter be made to railroads or other corporations of any nature whatever, one-half of the public domain, and all other lands heretofore set apart or that may hereafter be set apart for the benefit of public free schools shall constitute a part of the perpetual public free school fund.

The public school lands. (Const., art. 7, §2.)

Art. 4265. Any and all public lands heretofore surveyed by railroads or corporations, or any company or any person in this state, for the benefit of the public free schools of this state, by virtue of any certificate, valid or invalid, void or voidable, be and the same are hereby declared to be lands belonging to the public free schools of this state.

Locations validated. (Acts of 1883, p. 4.)

Art. 4266. When lands are sold in unorganized counties and bid in by the comptroller for the state for the taxes due thereon, and are not redeemed by the owner thereof, nor his agent, within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which said land was sold, then the land thus sold and unredeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund, to be sold and disposed of as other lands belonging to the public free school fund are to be sold and disposed of by law.

Lands sold for taxes to state, etc. (Acts of 1879, p. 140.)

Art. 4267. All the vacant and unappropriated public domain embraced in the territorial limits of the county of Greer is appropriated, one-half thereof for public free schools for the education of children in Texas, without reference to race or color, and the other half for the payment of the state debt; and said lands shall be surveyed and disposed of for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article in such manner as may hereafter be provided by law.

Greer county lands. (Acts of 1879, p. 16.)

Art. 4268. After the payments of the amounts due from the state to the common free school fund, out of the proceeds of the sales heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, of that portion of the public lands set aside for the payment of the public debt, by an act approved July 14, 1879, and an act amendatory thereof, approved March 11, 1881, and the payment directed to be made to the common school and university funds by an act approved February 23, 1883, the remainder of said land, not to exceed two million of acres, contained in the counties and territory specially mentioned in said acts, or the proceeds thereof, set aside by said acts for the payment of the public debt, heretofore or hereafter to be received by the state, shall one-half thereof constitute a permanent endowment fund for the common free schools of this state.

One-half of unsold public domain to permanent fund. (Acts of 1883, p. 71.)

Surveys validated.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 28.)

Art. 4269. The surveys of all county school lands heretofore made, either actually on the ground or by protraction, and returned into the general land office, according to law, and upon which patents have issued, are hereby declared valid surveys, and the titles to the lands included within the lines of said surveys, as returned to the general land office, are hereby vested in the counties for which the same were made; and in all such surveys the calls for distance shall have precedence and control calls for rivers or natural objects when the calls for distance will give the quantity of land intended to be included in the survey and the calls for natural objects or rivers will not; provided, this law shall not divest any vested right.

Such lands belong to the counties.
(Const., art. 7, §6.)

Art. 4270. [4035] All lands granted to counties for educational purposes, under the provisions of this chapter or any former law, shall belong to such counties respectively, and the titles thereto shall be fully vested in said counties; and no adverse possession or limitation shall ever be available against the title of any county to such lands.

Land, how sold and proceeds invested.
Ib.

Art. 4271. [4036] Each county may sell or dispose of the lands granted to it for educational purposes in such manner as may be provided by the commissioners' court of such county; and the proceeds of any such sale shall be invested in bonds of the state of Texas, or of the United States, and held by such county alone as a trust for the benefit of public free schools therein, only the interest thereon to be used and expended annually.

Actual settlers to have preference.
Ib.

Art. 4272. [4037] In any sale of county school lands, under the provisions of the preceding article, the actual settlers residing on said lands shall be protected in the prior right of purchasing the same to the extent of their settlement, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, at the price fixed by the commissioners' court, which price shall not include the value of existing improvements made thereon by such settlers.

[Note.—Article 4273 omitted as repealed by report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code; No. 77, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Surplus segregated from public domain, when.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 104.)

Art. 4274. Surveys and blocks of surveys heretofore made by virtue of valid alternate scrip be and the same are hereby declared to segregate from the mass of the public domain all land embraced in said surveys, or blocks of surveys, as evidenced by the corners and lines of same, or by calls for natural or artificial objects, or the calls for the corners and boundaries of other surveys or by the maps and other records in the general land office.

Belong to public free school fund.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4275. All excess in said surveys are hereby donated and declared to belong to the public free school fund of the state; and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to ascertain, by any and all means practicable, the existence and extent of such excesses, and to provide for and direct such surveys, or corrected surveys, as may be necessary for this purpose; provided, that where such surveys were made in blocks of two or more surveys, said respective surveys shall remain on the ground consecutively as placed therein, as shown by the maps, sketches and field-notes originally returned to the general land office; provided, that the person who has already purchased or who may hereafter purchase from the state the particular section to which surplus shall by such resurvey be made contiguous, shall have the prior right for the period of six months after such resurvey shall have been made, in which to purchase such excess on the same terms on which such purchaser has already bought or may buy.

Art. 4276. All such surveys which under the direction of the commissioner of the general land office have been or may be hereafter corrected, so that all excess in the original surveys shall be placed in the surveys belonging to the public free schools, are hereby validated, and the action of the commissioner is hereby ratified; and he is directed and authorized to issue patents to the owners thereof, and to sell such surveys belonging to the public free schools, securing to the state the benefit of such excesses.

Excess to be added.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4277. The provisions of this law shall not apply to nor affect the rights of the third persons heretofore acquired in good faith.

Shall not affect.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4278. Nothing in the preceding four articles shall apply to any lands for which patents have been issued.

Conflicts.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4279. Where the common school or even numbered surveys in conflicting locations, made by virtue of alternate land certificates, are not identical or upon the same land, the commissioner of the general land office may, where he deems it to the interest of the state to do so, change the numbers of the surveys in the conflicting locations so as to make the common school or even numbered surveys in both locations identical; provided, that the commissioner of the general land office shall not change the numbers of surveys without the written consent of the owner of the certificates by virtue of which said surveys are made.

Even numbered surveys in conflict, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 104.)

Art. 4280. The three hundred and twenty-five leagues of land heretofore surveyed under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for designating and setting apart three hundred leagues of land out of the unappropriated public domain, for the benefit of the unorganized counties of the state, and to provide for the survey and location of the same," approved March 16, 1882, is set apart and shall constitute a reservation out of which each of the unorganized counties of this state, as it may be organized, shall be entitled to receive four leagues of land for free school purposes, and out of which such organized counties of this state as may have located their certificate for four leagues of school land in conflict with or upon land already appropriated by valid prior location and survey, or which from any cause have failed to get title to their four leagues of school land, shall be entitled to receive so much of said land as may be necessary to secure to any such county the number of acres it may be entitled to from any cause, or that may be declared to be in conflict by the commissioner of the general land office.

Unorganized county school land. (Acts of 1883, p. 45.)

Art. 4281. Each of said leagues of land shall be numbered by the commissioner of the general land office, in the order in which it was surveyed by the contractor or contractors, beginning at number one and extending to three hundred and twenty-five, and as each of the unorganized counties in this state shall be organized such county shall be entitled to the first four leagues out of the reservation authorized by the foregoing provisions, which shall not have been patented to other counties for free school purposes. Upon the payment to the treasurer of the state the actual cost of surveying fees and legal interest thereon from time of payment by the state, and upon the payment of such costs and interest, the commissioner of

Shall be numbered, etc.
Ib. §2.

the general land office is required to issue patents to said county for four leagues of land as above provided, but said counties shall not be required to pay patent fees for said patents.

Lands, how obtained by counties. Ib. §3.

Art. 4282. Any organized county in this state shall, in like manner as provided in the preceding articles, be entitled to receive so much of said land, not exceeding four leagues, as shall be necessary to secure to any such county the number of acres of land heretofore located by such county, and which shall be declared to be in conflict with prior locations and surveys by the commissioner of the general land office or by the decree or judgment of any court having jurisdiction of the subject matter. And it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office, upon the written application of the county judge and any two of the county commissioners, accompanied by the decision of the commissioner of the land office, or a certified copy of such decree or judgment, to issue patents to such county upon the same conditions and in like manner as is provided for unorganized counties; provided, if any such county should be entitled to receive a quantity less than one league such land shall be surveyed at the expense of such county, in a square figure with at least two lines thereof (where more than one line is run) commencing on lines of original survey as may be selected by the county judge of the county that is entitled to the survey.

Lands to be sold or leased. (Acts of 1887, p. 83, §1.)

Article 4283. All lands heretofore or hereafter surveyed and set apart for the benefit of the public free schools, the university, the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, and the orphan asylum, shall be sold and leased under the provisions of this chapter.

Commissioner to carry into effect, etc. Ib. §2.

Art. 4284. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby vested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and direction of all matters pertaining to the sale and lease of said lands, and their protection from free use and occupancy, and from unlawful inclosure, with such exceptions and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the provisions of this chapter, or by the constitution of the state. He shall, as soon as practicable, adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution or this chapter as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, and may from time to time alter or amend such regulations so as to protect the public interest, but all regulations shall be submitted to the governor for his approval before adoption or promulgation. He shall adopt all necessary forms of applications for sales or leases, and all other forms necessary or proper for the transaction of business imposed upon him by this chapter, including the forms of leases, receipts and acquittances, and may from time to time call upon the attorney-general to prepare such forms, and it shall be the duty of that officer to furnish the commissioner of the general land office with such advice and legal assistance as may be requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this chapter; and it shall be the duty of such commissioner to call upon the attorney-general for advice whenever there is any doubt as to the meaning of this chapter or any provisions thereof.

Art. 4285. The commissioner of the general land office shall cause all the lands belonging to the several funds named in this chapter which may be in demand for immediate settlement, to be carefully and skillfully classified and valued; and for this purpose he may appoint, with the approval of the governor, such number of competent state agents as may be necessary to effect such classification and valuation; and he shall cause such classification and valuation to be made of the remainder of such lands from time to time as the same may come into demand for actual settlement; and with the approval of the governor he may allow such compensation to said state agents as may be just and proper, not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per month and necessary expenses for subsistence. He may also appoint such other assistants as may be found necessary to accomplish such classification and appraisalment and the sale or lease of the lands; but no state agents or other appointments shall be made in the absence of an appropriation by law to cover such expenditure, and the state shall not be liable for any expenditure of this character incurred in excess of the current appropriations.

Commissioner shall have classified and valued.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4286. It shall be the duty of such state agents as may be appointed under the provisions of this chapter, under such regulations and instructions as may be prescribed by the commissioner of the general land office, to classify all the lands belonging to the several funds mentioned in this law, as prescribed in article 4285, lying in the particular territory to which such agent may be assigned, into agricultural, pasture and timber lands; and for this purpose they shall carefully examine the same, and after such examination they shall prepare an accurate plat of each section, showing the relative proportions of timber and open land on such section, and their situation, also the quality of the soil, the topography of the land and the quality and kind of timber, and the streams and other sources of water supply, and their location, noting such streams as may be permanent water, and such other facts as may be important; and from time to time, as may be prescribed by the commissioner of the general land office, such agent shall prepare and forward to the commissioner, with such plats, a tabulated statement of all the lands in any particular locality, with the value of each section; and such plats and reports shall be filed in the general land office as a part of the records of said office; but nothing in this article contained shall be construed to require a classification of lands already classified under former laws, if such classification is satisfactory to the commissioner.

Agents to be appointed, how, etc.

To be sold to actual settlers only; conditions. (Acts of 1889, p. 51, §5.)

Art. 4287. When any portion of said land has been classified to the satisfaction of the commissioner under the provisions of this chapter or former laws, such land shall be subject to sale, but to actual settlers only, and in quantities of not less than eighty acres and in multiples thereof, nor more than one section containing six hundred and forty acres, more or less; provided, that when there is a fraction less than eighty acres of any section left such fraction may be sold; but lands classified as purely pasture lands and without permanent water thereon may be sold in quantities not to exceed four sections to the same settler; and in no event shall sale be made to a corporation, either foreign or domestic, and all sales to a settler shall be upon the express condition that any sale or transfer of such land to any corporation, directly or indirectly, before patent is issued thereon, shall ipso facto terminate the title of the purchaser or owner, and such land shall be forfeited to the state without re-entry and become again a part of the particular fund to which it formerly belonged.

County clerk to be notified of valuations. (Acts of 1887, p. 83, §6.)

Art. 4288. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to notify in writing the county clerk of each county of the valuation fixed upon each section of land in his county, and in each county attached to it for judicial purposes, which he offers for sale, which notification shall be kept by the clerk in his office and recorded in a well-bound book, which shall be open to public inspection.

Prices. Ib. §7.

Art. 4289. All lands belonging to the public free schools, university and the several asylum funds, shall be sold at not less than two dollars per acre. All sections of land having permanent water on, or bordering thereon, shall be sold at not less than three dollars per acre, and no less than one hundred and sixty acres shall be sold, except in cases where a fractional part of a section less than one hundred and sixty acres is unsold, in which case the entire fractional part of such survey shall be sold; provided, that no watered portion of any section shall be sold unless there is permanent water on, or bordering on, the part of said section remaining unsold; and all timber land shall be sold at not less than five dollars per acre. By timber lands here used is meant lands valuable chiefly for the timber thereon.

Purchase, how made. (Acts of 1889, p. 51.)

Art. 4290. Any bona fide actual settler who may reside on any part of the lands the sale of which is authorized by this chapter shall have the right, for a period of six months after the same shall have been appraised, to purchase such quantity of land as may be limited by this chapter, to include his improvements, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter regulating sales as in other cases, and such lands shall be appraised without reference to the improvements thereon; provided, that any bona fide settler who has heretofore purchased or may hereafter purchase one section of agricultural or watered land, and no more, shall have the right to purchase three dry and strictly pastoral sections upon his making oath that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is directly or indirectly interested in the purchase of the same.

Sales, how made. (Acts of 1887, p. 85, §9.)

Art. 4291. All sales shall be made by the commissioner of the general land office or under his direction, and he shall prescribe suitable regulations whereby all purchasers shall be required to reside upon, as a home, the land purchased by them for three consecutive years next succeeding the date of their purchase. Such regulations shall require the purchaser to reside upon the land for the three consecutive years herein mentioned, and to make proper proof of such residence and occupancy to the commissioner of the general land office within one year next after the expiration of said three years by his affidavit, corroborated by the affidavits of three disinterested and credible citizens of the county, to be certified to by some officer of the county wherein the land is situated authorized to administer oaths. Any person desiring to purchase land in accordance with the provisions of this law shall forward his application to the commissioner, particularly describing the land sought to be purchased, which application shall in all cases, be accompanied with the affidavit of the applicant, in effect that he desires to purchase the land for a home, and has in good faith settled thereon; and he shall also swear that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase save himself. The purchaser shall transmit to the treasurer of the state one-fortieth of the aggregate purchase money for the particular tract of land and send to the commissioner his obligation to the state duly executed, and binding the purchaser to pay to the state on the first day of August of each year thereafter until the whole purchase money is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price with interest thereon from date at the rate of five per cent per annum on the whole unpaid purchase money, which interest shall also be payable on the first day of August of each year; and upon receipt of one-fortieth of the purchase money by the treasurer, and the affidavit and obligation aforesaid by the commissioner, the sale shall be deemed and held effective from the date the affidavit and obligation are filed in the general land office; provided, that if the land applied for be timbered land, then the purchaser shall be required to pay the full amount of the purchase money at the time of his purchase.

Art. 4292. All purchasers shall have the option of paying the purchase money for their lands in full at any time after they have occupied the same for three consecutive years; and when they have made such payment in full, together with the proof that they have occupied the land and homestead for three consecutive years, they shall be entitled to receive patents for the same upon payment of the patent fees prescribed by law. Purchasers may also sell their land at any time after sale is effected under this law, and in such cases the vendee, or any subsequent vendee, may file his own obligation with the commissioner of the general land office, together with the duly authenticated conveyance, or transfer, from the original purchaser, and the intermediate vendee's conveyance or transfer, if any there be, duly recorded in the county where the land lies, or to which it may be attached for judicial purposes, together with his affidavit stating that he desires to purchase the land for a home, and that he has in good faith settled thereon, and that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase save himself; and thereupon the original obligation may be surrendered or cancelled, and the vendee shall become the purchaser direct from the state, and be subject to all the obligations and penalties prescribed by this law, and the original purchaser shall be absolved from further liability thereon; provided, that whenever a town shall be located and established upon any land sold under this or any former law, the purchaser or his vendee shall be permitted to pay the entire balance of principal and interest due the state upon such land, and obtain a patent therefor at any time; but no such payment shall be permitted or patent issue until such purchaser or owner of such land shall file in the general land office a certified plat of such town, made by the proper surveyor of the county, which shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner of such land, corroborated by the affidavit of five disinterested and credible citizens of the county, to the effect that a town, giving its name, has been located and established upon the land, and that there has been erected therein, and being occupied by bona fide citizens, twenty business and residence houses, or either or both.

Time in which interest may be paid.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 180.)

Art. 4293. If, upon the first day of November of any year, the interest due for the year next preceding on any obligation remains unpaid, the commissioner of the general land office shall endorse on such obligation "land forfeited," and shall cause an entry to that effect to be made on the account kept with the purchaser, and thereupon said land shall be forfeited to the state, without the necessity of re-entry or judicial ascertainment, and shall revert to the particular fund to which it originally belonged, and be resold under the provisions of this chapter, or any future law; provided, if any purchaser shall die, his heirs or legal representatives shall have one year in which to make payment after the first day of November next after such death; and if any purchaser shall fail to reside upon and improve in good faith the land purchased by him, he shall forfeit said land and payment thereon made, to the state, in the same manner as for non-payment of interest, and such land shall again be for sale, as if no such sale or forfeiture had occurred; or, if he shall fail to make the proof of occupancy within the time and in the manner prescribed by the regulations of the commissioner of the general land office, as provided for in article 4291, he shall in like manner forfeit the land and all payments thereon to the state; provided further, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to inhibit the state from instituting such legal proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such forfeiture, or to protect any other right to such land; which suits may be instituted by the attorney-general under the direction of the governor, in the proper court of the county in which the land lies; provided, this article shall be printed on the back of the receipt.

Applications, etc., to remain on file in land office.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 87, §12.)

Art. 4294. The commissioner of the general land office shall retain in his custody as records of his office all applications, affidavits, obligations and all other papers relating to the sales of said lands, and shall cause to be kept accurate accounts with each purchaser. All purchase money due upon lands, as well as accrued interest and all other moneys arising from the sales or leases of said lands, shall be paid by the purchaser or lessee direct to the treasurer of the state, and who shall execute duplicate receipts for all sums of money paid to him under the provisions of this law, one of which receipts shall be delivered to the purchaser or his agent and the other transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office.

Sales of timber.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 51.)

Art. 4295. The commissioner of the general land office shall adopt such regulations for the sale of the timber on timbered lands as may be deemed necessary and judicious, such regulations to be subject to the approval of the governor. Such timber shall not be sold for less than five dollars per acre cash, except in such cases as the commissioner may ascertain by definite examination of a state agent that any particular section is sparsely timbered or contains timber of but little value, in which case he shall be authorized to sell the timber on said section at the best price, on the best terms practicable; provided, such timber is sold at not less than two dollars per acre. And in no case shall less than one section of timbered land be sold to any purchaser, except in cases of fractional sections, which may be sold under the provisions of this chapter. The purchaser shall have five years from the date of his purchase within which to remove the timber therefrom, and in case of failure to do so, such timber shall be forfeited to the state without judicial ascertainment; provided, that all timbered lands from which the timber has been cut and taken off may be placed on the market and sold for not less than two dollars per acre, as other lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 4296. The public lands, and all lands belonging to the public free schools, asylums, or university fund, shall be leased by the commissioner of the general land office under the provisions of this chapter. All of such lands lying west of the Pecos river, and all of such lands lying south of the Texas and Pacific railroad, except in the counties of Concho, McCulloch, Coke, Sterling, Glasscock, Midland, Ector, Tom Green, Howard and Martin, and all university lands, shall be leased for a period of not longer than ten years; and all other such lands lying north of the Colorado river and north of the Texas and Pacific railroad, and the counties hereinbefore excepted from the ten years' lease, shall be leased for a period not longer than five years, and the lessee shall pay an annual rental of four cents per acre for all lands leased; provided, that the university lands may be leased at three cents per acre per annum; which rental shall be paid each year in advance, the first payment to be made at the time the lease is executed; and if at the termination of any lease any of such lands are not in demand for actual settlement they may be again leased for another five years, and the lessee thereof whose term of lease has expired shall have the refusal of such land as he has been leasing on the terms and at the price that may be fixed therefor by the commissioner of the general land office, and all leases shall be executed under the hand and seal of the commissioner of the general land office, and shall be delivered to the lessee or his duly authorized agent, and such leases shall not take effect until the first payment of annual rent is paid and the lease duly filed for record in the county where the land lies, or to which it may be attached for judicial purposes, and it shall not be necessary for the commissioner to acknowledge such lease before the same is placed on record.

Terms of leases.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 180.)

Art. 4297. Any person desiring to lease any portion of the public lands belonging to any of the funds mentioned in this chapter the sale and lease of which is not provided for by any other law, shall make application in writing to the commissioner of the general land office, specifying and describing the particular lands he desires to lease; thereupon the commissioner, if satisfied the lands are not in demand for purposes of actual settlement, and that such lands can be leased without detriment to the public interest, shall notify the applicant in writing that his proposition to lease is accepted, and thereupon he shall execute and deliver to the lessee in the name of the state a lease of said land for such terms as may be agreed upon, not longer than the period of time fixed by this chapter, according to its location, and deliver the same to such lessee when satisfied that the lessee has paid to the treasurer of the state the rental for one year in advance. No lands which are now or which may hereafter be classified as grazing lands within the territory where ten years lease is authorized, as set forth in the preceding article, shall be subject to sale during the term of the lease contract thereof, and the possession of the lessee shall not be disturbed during the term of his lease.

Ib. §15.

Rent to be paid, how. (Acts of 1887, p. 88, §16.)

Art. 4298. All lessees shall pay the annual rents due for leased lands directly to the treasurer of the state, who shall execute receipts in duplicate for each payment made by any lessee, one of which receipts shall be delivered to the lessee and the other transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office. The treasurer shall cause to be kept an accurate account with each lessee, and the commissioner of the general land office shall file in his office all applications and other papers relating to leases, and keep a record of all leases made, which papers shall constitute a part of the records of his office.

Lease cancelled, when. (Ib. §17.)

Art. 4299. If any lessee shall fail to pay the annual rent due in advance for any year, within sixty days after such rent shall become due, the commissioner of the general land office may declare such lease cancelled, by a writing under his hand and seal of office, which writing shall be filed with the papers relating to such lease, and thereupon said lease shall immediately terminate, and the lands so leased shall become subject to purchase or lease, as the commissioner may determine for the best interest of the state. And during the continuance of all leases, and after forfeiture, the state shall have a lien upon all the property upon the leased premises to secure the payment of all rents due, which lien shall be prior and superior to all other liens whatsoever, and it shall not be essential to the preservation or validity of such lien that it shall be reserved in the instrument of lease.

Land inclosed or used without authority. (Acts of 1887, p. 89, §20.)

Art. 4300. If the governor is informed at any time, upon the affidavit of some credible person, that any portion of the public lands, or lands belonging to the public free school, asylum or university funds, have been inclosed, or that fences have been erected thereon without authority of law, he is authorized, in his discretion, to direct the attorney-general to institute suit in the name of the state for the recovery of such land and damages for the use and occupation of such land and the removal of such inclosures and fences. Such suit may be instituted in the district court of any county where the land, or a portion thereof, is situated, or in the district court of Travis county; and upon application of the attorney-general, and without affidavit or bond, the clerk of the court in which suit is instituted shall issue a writ of sequestration, directed to any sheriff of the state of Texas, commanding and requiring such officer to take such land and all property thereon into his actual custody, and the same hold subject to the further orders of the court. Such writ of sequestration may be executed by any sheriff of the state into whose hands it may be delivered, and it shall be the duty of any sheriff into whose hands it may come to proceed and execute such writ, and the governor is required, in his discretion, to furnish such sheriff with the necessary force of volunteer militia or other military force of the state to accomplish the purposes of the writ and to execute the process of the court. The defendant in such writ may replevy, as in ordinary cases, by giving bond as prescribed by law, and such cases shall have precedence on the docket and stand for trial before all other causes; and in case judgment is recovered by the state in such suit the court shall order such inclosures or fences to be removed, and shall tax the costs of the suit, including the cost of the military force, if any, against the defendant; and all property found upon the land belonging to the defendant shall be liable for such costs and damages in addition to the personal liability of the defendant. Appeals may be prosecuted from all judgments in such cases as in ordinary cases, except that the state shall not be required to give bond to perfect its appeal, and such cases on appeal shall have precedence over all other cases.

Art. 4301. The commissioner of the general land office, under the direction of the governor, may withhold from lease any agricultural lands necessary for purposes of settlement, and no agricultural lands shall be leased if in the judgment of the commissioner they may be in immediate demand for settlement, but such lands shall be held for settlement and sold to actual settlers only, under the provisions of this law, and all sections or fraction of sections in all counties organized prior to the first day of January, 1875, except El Paso, Pecos and Presidio counties, which sections are detached and isolated from other public lands, may be sold to any purchaser, except to a corporation, without actual settlement, at not less than two dollars per acre, upon such terms as the commissioner of the general land office may prescribe.

Lands may be withheld from lease, when. (Acts of 1889, p. 53, §22.)

Art. 4302. Leaseholds created under the provisions of this chapter shall be exempt from all taxation.

Exempt from taxation. (Acts of 1887, p. 91, §24.)

Art. 4303. Nothing in this law shall be construed to impair, interfere with or in any manner affect any lease or sale, or the rights growing out of the same, made under former laws, of the lands herein referred to; provided, that any person or persons who have heretofore leased lands from this state at prices fixed by the land board, and whose leases have not yet expired, shall have their rental for the remainder of their unexpired term reduced to the prices charged under this law for the lease of similar lands.

Vested rights not to be disturbed. Ib.

Art. 4304. The commissioner of the general land office is authorized and required to issue patents to all parties purchasing university lands in accordance with the original subdivisions as made under the provisions of "An act authorizing the disposition and sale of university lands," approved August 30, 1856, where said subdivisions have been made and field-notes filed in the general land office in accordance with said act; and if it should appear from actual survey on the ground, conforming to the lines and corners of said original subdivisions, that there is any subdivision more or less than one hundred and sixty acres, the commissioner of the general land office shall issue patents for the number of acres contained in said subdivisions upon the purchaser paying into the state treasury the amount per acre that the subdivision may have been appraised at; provided, that this article shall not affect any rights heretofore acquired under existing laws relative to university lands.

Regulations for issuance of patents. (Acts of 1879, p. 39.)

[Note.—Article 4305 omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code, No. 79; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 482.]

Art. 4306. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized to lease for a term of not exceeding ten years, at a price not less than two cents per acre, the three hundred and twenty leagues of land set apart and surveyed in the year 1882 for the unorganized counties of the state, situated in the counties of Hockley, Cochran, Bailey, Lamb, Andrews, Martin, Dawson and Gaines, under the same rules and upon the same terms as are prescribed by law for the lease of the university lands. The proceeds of such lease shall be paid into the state treasury and become a part of the available school fund of the state.

Lease of unorganized county school lands. (Acts of 1889, p. 108, §1.)

Control to vest
in county,
when.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4307. Whenever any county entitled to said lands shall be organized, the control of said lands belonging to such county shall vest in the commissioners' court of such county, and any lease money thereafter becoming due shall be payable to such county, but all leases executed before such organization of the county shall be binding for the full term thereof.

Article 4308. The governor is hereby authorized and required to appoint five competent persons as public weighers in every city which receives annually over one hundred thousand bales of cotton, on sale or for shipment. In all cities or towns or railroad stations which receive annually less than one hundred thousand bales of cotton, the county commissioners' courts of the counties in which said cities and towns or railroad stations are situated, should the commissioners' court deem the same necessary to protect the sellers, may order an election, at which all the qualified voters of the county may vote for one or more public weighers; provided, that the county commissioners' court may provide by appointment for cotton weighers, to hold office until the next general election and until their successors are qualified; provided, that in towns and at railroad stations outside of county seats the county commissioners' court may appoint one or more public weighers; provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent any other person from weighing cotton, wool or hides when requested so to do by the owners thereof. All public weighers shall hold their offices for two years and until their successors are appointed or elected as the case may be and qualified, subject to removal for misconduct or incompetency in office; provided, that no person shall be appointed a public weigher who is in any wise interested in the purchase or sale of cotton, wool, sugar or hides received to be weighed, either as principal, agent, factor, commission merchant or employe.

To be appointed by governor, when. (Acts of 1883, p. 83.)

By county commissioners' court, when.

Term of office.

Art. 4309. Every person so appointed before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully and impartially to administer the duties of his office; he shall also execute a bond with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the county judge of the county in which the appointment is made and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties; provided, that in cities or towns receiving for sale or shipment less than twenty-five thousand bales of cotton or sacks of wool, the bond of public weighers shall be two thousand dollars.

Shall take oath and give bond. Ib.

Art. 4310. When the person so appointed as aforesaid shall have qualified as aforesaid he shall enter upon the duties of his office, and shall weigh, without unnecessary delay, all cotton, wool, sugar and hides required to be weighed, and shall mark upon the same plainly in figures the weight thereof and make a return of such weights in detailed form to the owner or owners thereof, or their agents

May appoint deputies.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4311. The public weigher shall have power to appoint one or more deputies, not to exceed three, who shall subscribe and take an oath similar to the one herein provided to be taken by the public weigher. The deputation and oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk before he shall enter upon the discharge of his duties. The public weigher shall be responsible for the acts of his deputies and no person shall be appointed deputy who is in anywise interested in the purchase or sale of any cotton, wool, sugar or hides required to be weighed, either as principal, agent, factor, commission merchant or employe.

Shall keep accurate scales.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4312. He shall keep accurate and well adjusted scales and balances and accurate weights, and shall have the same tested and certified to, as provided by law.

Ib. §7.

Art. 4314. It shall not be lawful for any factor, commission merchant or any other person or persons to employ any other than a regularly appointed and qualified public weigher or his deputy to weigh any cotton, wool, sugar or hides required to be weighed, sold or offered for sale in any city having a public weigher duly qualified; and any person or persons violating this provision shall be liable, at the suit of the public weigher of any such city, or either of such public weighers, to damages in any sum not less than five dollars for each bale of cotton, bale or sack of wool, hogshead or barrel of sugar or bale of hides so unlawfully weighed, to be recovered in any court of such county having jurisdiction thereof; provided, any owner shipping any produce named in this article to any town or city having a public weigher may, by written instructions, authorize his factor, commission merchant or agent to have such produce weighed by private weighers if he prefers so to do, and in all such cases the prohibitions and penalties embraced in this article and in the preceding articles shall not apply.

Liabie on bond, how.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 83, §9.)

Art. 4315. Any public weigher who shall violate any of the provisions of this law, or fail to comply with any of such provisions, shall be liable, at the suit of any person injured, upon his bond for damages that may have accrued to such person by such violation or failure, and may also be removed from office by the commissioners' court upon satisfactory evidence being furnished of his misconduct or incompetency; provided, that such public weigher shall have five days' notice to appear before said court and offer testimony in his behalf.

Owner of cotton, etc.,

Article 4317. The state health officer shall take cognizance of the interests of the public health as it relates to the sale of food and drugs, and the adulterations of the same, and make all necessary investigations and inquiries relating thereto. He shall also have the supervision of the appointment of public analysts and chemists, and upon his recommendation, whenever he shall deem any such officers incompetent, the appointment of any and every such officer shall be revoked, and be held to be void and of no effect. The state health officer shall adopt such measures as may seem necessary to facilitate the enforcement of this law, and prepare rules and regulations with regard to the proper method of collecting and examining articles of food or drugs, and for the appointment of the necessary inspectors and analysts, and the said health officer shall be authorized to expend an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this law.

Powers and duties of state health officer, in. (Acts of 1883, p. 72.)

Art. 4318. It shall be the duty of the state health officer to prepare and publish from time to time lists of the articles, mixtures or compounds declared to be exempt from the provisions of this law, in accordance with subdivision 7 of the succeeding article. The state health officer shall also from time to time fix the limits of variability permissible in any article of food, or drug, or compound, the standard of which is not established by any national pharmacopoeia.

Same. Ib. §2.

Art. 4319. An article shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of this title:

Adulteration defined. Ib. §3.

(a) In the case of drugs—

1. If when sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia it differs from the standard of strength, quality or purity laid down therein.

2. If when sold under or by a name not recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia, but which is found in some other pharmacopoeia, or other standard work on materia medica, it differs materially from the standard of strength, quality or purity laid down in such work.

3. If its strength or purity fall below the professed standard under which it is sold.

(b) In the case of food or drinks—

1. If any substance or substances has or have been mixed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously effect its quality or strength.

2. If any inferior or cheaper substance has been substituted wholly or in part.

3. If any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted.

4. If it be an imitation of or be sold under the name of another article.

5. If it consists wholly or in part of a diseased or decomposed or putrid or rotten animal or vegetable substance, whether manufactured or not; or in the case of milk, if it is the product of a diseased animal.

6. If it be colored, or coated, or polished, or powdered, whereby damage is concealed, or it is made to appear better than it really is, or of greater value.

7. If it contains any added poisonous ingredient, or any ingredient which may render such article injurious to the health of a person consuming it; provided, that the state health officer may, with the approval of the governor, from time to time declare certain articles or preparations to be exempt from the provisions of this law; and provided further, that the provisions of this law shall not apply to mixtures or compounds recognized as ordinary articles of food; provided, that the same are not injurious to health, and that the articles are distinctly labeled as a mixture, stating the components of the mixture.

Governor to appoint local health officer, when4332

Article 4321. The governor is empowered to issue his proclamation declaring quarantine on the coast, or elsewhere within this state, whenever in his judgment quarantine may become necessary, and such quarantine may continue for any length of time as in the judgment of the governor the safety and security of the people may require.

Governor empowered to issue proclamation, when. (Acts of 1891, p. 188.)

Art. 4322. It shall be the duty of the governor of the state of Texas, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to select and appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, from the most skillful physicians of the state of Texas, one physician, who shall be known as health officer of the state, and shall from previous and active practice be familiar with yellow fever and pledged to the importance of both quarantine and sanitation.

May appoint state health officer. Ib.

Art. 4323. Such health officer shall, during the time he is engaged in the public service, receive for his services twenty-five hundred dollars per year, and his necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his legitimate duties, a bill of which must be made out in detail and approved by the governor, on which approved account the comptroller shall issue his warrant on the treasurer for the amount of said approved account.

Compensation. (Amend. 1895, p. 142.)

Art. 4324. Whenever the governor has reason to believe that the state of Texas is threatened at any point or place on the coast, border or elsewhere within the state with the introduction or dissemination of yellow fever contagion, or any other infectious and contagious disease that can and should, in the opinion of the state health officer, be guarded against by state quarantine, he shall, by proclamation, immediately declare said quarantine against any and all such places, and direct the state health officer to promptly establish and enforce the restrictions and conditions imposed and indicated by said quarantine proclamation, and when from any cause the governor can not act, and the exigencies of the threatened danger require immediate action, the state health officer is empowered to declare quarantine as prescribed in this article, and maintain the same until the governor shall officially take such action as he may see proper.

May issue proclamation, when. (Acts of 1891, p. 188, §4.)

Quarantine laws to be in force as governor and health officer may direct.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4325. The laws in regard to state quarantine shall remain and be in full force and operation on the coast or elsewhere in the state as the governor or health officer may direct, and be enforced as heretofore, with such additional changes as the provisions of this title prescribe, and with such additional changes in station and general management as the governor may think proper.

Local quarantine.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4326. The law in regard to local quarantine by the inhabitants of any point or points on the coast or elsewhere in the state shall remain in full force when in conformity with this title; provided, that in all differences and disputes between any such points, contiguous or remote, within this state, such differences and disputes shall be immediately by the local health authorities, if any, and if none, by the inhabitants themselves, reported and submitted to the governor, and on the receipt of such report he shall forthwith order the state health officer to such points with instructions to investigate the same and report the exact condition of things, and upon investigation of such report shall issue his proclamation declaring the determination of the issue, and by said proclamation the aforesaid differences shall be governed and determined.

Bond of local health officer.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4327. Said health officer shall give a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, made payable to the governor, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the honest and impartial performance of his duties, and such health officer shall hold his position for the term of two years, subject, however, to removal at any time by the governor, whenever in his judgment the public good demands.

Local to be subordinated to state authorities.
Ib. §8.

Art. 4328. Whenever quarantine is declared by the governor or by any county or corporate authorities in the state, it shall be the duty of such authorities to establish a quarantine station or stations where any person may be detained for such length of time as in the discretion of the quarantine officers the public safety may demand; provided, that all county and municipal quarantine shall be subordinate, subject to and regulated by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the governor or state health officer.

Shelter, etc., to be furnished by health officer to persons detained.
Ib. §9.

Art. 4329. It shall be the duty of the state health officer to furnish persons detained by him with necessary shelter and subsistence (not including crews of vessels, except such as are removed by the quarantine officers from infected vessels), and to provide all other things essential for the protection and comfort of those held in quarantine, and all such expenses authorized by the state health officer and approved by the governor shall be paid by the state.

Expenses, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 142.)

Art. 4330. All the costs and expenses of enforcing and maintaining the general quarantine or such as are ordered by the governor or state health officer shall be paid out of the fund appropriated for quarantine purposes. All quarantine officers appointed by the governor shall be selected and commissioned by the governor of the state, and shall be paid by the state, and all health authorities of the state, or of any county or city thereof, shall obey the rules and regulations prescribed by the governor or state health officer. The regular officers in charge of regular established quarantine stations on the coast shall be allowed one hundred and fifty dollars per month while on duty at their respective stations; provided, that the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the port of Galveston; and provided, that the officer in charge of said station shall receive two hundred dollars per month. Temporary officers, or those commissioned by the governor to guard against threatened epidemics, and

Those stationed at railway crossings on the Rio Grande shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars per month while on duty, and such other pay for extra expenses actually incurred as may be deemed just by the governor and state health officer. All quarantine officers, whether of towns, cities, counties or state, shall be authorized to administer oaths to any person or persons suspected of violating any quarantine regulations, and any person or persons swearing falsely shall be punished according to the provisions of the Penal Code.

Art. 4331. [4091] It is hereby made the duty of any county, town or city authority upon the coast or elsewhere in Texas, at as early a day as practicable after the promulgation of the governor's proclamation declaring quarantine, to provide suitable stations where they are not now provided, at sufficient distance from the usual places of landing of vessels, or the depots of railroads coming into their respective counties, towns or cities, and to select, appoint and employ a competent physician as health officer, subject to the approval of the governor, at such stations, and to furnish said officer with such guards, employes and other things as may be necessary to render such quarantine effective; and said county, town or city authorities may provide for the establishment and maintenance of quarantine, subordinate, subjected to and regulated by such rules and regulations as the governor and state health officer may prescribe.

Stations to be provided.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 17.)

Art. 4332. Whenever, on the coast of Texas or elsewhere in this state, the authorities of any county, town or city jail, refuse or neglect to establish quarantine as provided in the preceding article, then and in that event the governor shall have the power and it shall be his duty to appoint a health officer and to prescribe such regulations for the government of the same as he may deem necessary.

Governor may appoint local health officer, when.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 186.)

Art. 4333. [4093] It shall be the duty of all health officers and all quarantine authorities to stop each and every vessel from any infected port or district, notwithstanding the said vessel may have a clean bill of health, if deemed necessary (and such health officers or quarantine authorities shall have power so to do), to take the affidavit of the master of said vessel as to the health of himself and crew from the time of sailing from said infected port or district; and such officers and authorities shall detain said vessel at quarantine for such length of time as may be prescribed by the governor and state health officer in their rules and regulations governing quarantine; and all such officers and authorities may use force if necessary in order to discharge the duties imposed upon them by the provisions of this title and the rules and regulations of the governor and state health officer.

Incoming vessels to be stopped.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 17.)

Art. 4334. Any vessel arriving at any of the quarantine stations of this state, designated by the proper authorities, from any infected port or district without a clean bill of health from the proper officers from said port or district, shall be taken possession of by the health officer or other quarantine authority at the station at which said vessel arrives, and be held by the same until all fines that may have been assessed against the master of said vessel for a violation of the quarantine laws, rules and regulations have been paid, or until said vessel shall have been replevied in accordance with law.

Vessels from infected ports.
(Acts of 1891,
p. 188, §12.)

Art. 4335. The payment of the fine which may be assessed against the master of such vessel shall not operate as a release or discharge of the vessel from quarantine, but the same rules shall apply as in case of other vessels placed in quarantine.

Payment of fine, etc.
Ib. §13.

Expenses to be itemized. (Acts of 1883, p. 18.)

Art. 4336. [4097] It shall be the duty of the county, town or city authorities aforesaid, as soon as quarantine ceases to exist, to forward to the comptroller of the state an itemized account of all receipts and expenditures made by them, and when approved by the governor and state health officer, said comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the payment of any balance that may be due said authorities or either of them, and pay into the treasury any excess of receipts over expenditures as a credit to the quarantine fund.

Corporate authorities may establish quarantine, when. Ib.

Art. 4337. [4098] Nothing contained in this title shall be construed to prevent any town, city or county from establishing any quarantine which they may think necessary for the preservation of the health of the same; provided, that the rules and regulations of such quarantine be not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, and be consistent with and subordinate to said provisions and the rules and regulations prescribed by the governor and state health officer.

Municipal authorities may co-operate, how. (Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 9.)

Art. 4338. The municipal authorities of towns and cities, and commissioners' courts of the counties wherein such towns and cities are situated, may co-operate with each other in making such improvements connected with said towns, cities and counties as may be deemed by said authorities and courts necessary to improve the public health and to promote efficient sanitary regulations; and by mutual agreement they may provide for the construction of said improvements and the payment therefor.

County physician. (Acts of 1891, p. 186, §14.)

Art. 4339. It shall be the duty of every county judge within the state of Texas, after each general election of state and county officers, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to select from the physicians of the respective counties one of high character and recognized ability, who shall be known as "county physician." It shall be the duty of said county physician to establish, maintain and enforce local quarantine for his county whenever declared by proclamation of commissioners' court; to furnish supplies, select medical assistants, guards, and perform all other duties coincident to a reasonable, economic and consistent quarantine. The salary of county physician must be agreed to and be paid by their respective counties, but the county physician shall receive no salary except when quarantine has been established and he is actually engaged in service. County physicians shall in all quarantines establish rules in harmony and accord with the rules prescribed by the state health officer; shall respect and obey instructions from said officer, and make written reports to him of their official acts whenever required to do so, giving cause and history of epidemic, number of deaths and recoveries, and all other facts of statistic or scientific value.

Commissioners' court may direct county physician to declare quarantine, when. Ib. §15.

Art. 4340. Whenever the commissioners' court of any county has reason to believe that they are threatened at any point or place within or without the county limits with the introduction or dissemination of a dangerous, contagious or infectious disease that can and shall be guarded against by quarantine, they may direct their county physician to declare and maintain said quarantine against any and all such dangerous diseases; to establish, maintain and supply stations or camps for those held in quarantine; to provide hospitals, tents or pest houses for those sick of contagious and infectious disease; to furnish provisions, medicine and all other things absolutely essential for the comfort of the well and the convalescence of the sick. The county physician shall keep an itemized account of all lawful expenses incurred by local quarantine, and his county shall assume and pay them as other claims against the county are paid. Chartered cities and towns are embraced within the purview of this article, and the mere fact of incorporation does not exclude them from the protection against epidemic diseases given by the commissioners' court to other parts of their respective counties. The medical officers of chartered cities and towns can perform the duties granted or commanded in their several charters, but must (if the county physician is not, as is frequently the case, the city physician also) be amenable and obedient to rules prescribed by the state health officer. This article, however, must not be construed as prohibiting any incorporated town or city from declaring, maintaining and paying for a local quarantine.

Art. 4341. The quarantine or health officer at Galveston, Texas, shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the care and preservation of any steam vessel or vessels belonging to the state at his station, and for the faithful performance of his duty.

Bond of health officer at Galveston. Ib. §16.

Art. 4342. It is hereby made the duty of the governor and state health officer, upon completion of the disinfecting warehouse at Galveston, or any port on the coast of Texas, to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the disinfection of all vessels and their cargoes and passengers arriving at said ports from any infected port or district; the object of such rules and regulations being to provide safety for the public health of the state without unnecessary restrictions upon commerce and travel.

To prescribe rules, etc. Ib. §17.

Art. 4342a. The state health officer be and is hereby authorized, with the advice and consent of the governor, to sell to the best advantage of the state, for cash, any property in the quarantine service that is useless, and to apply the proceeds thereof to the general revenue of the state of Texas, and make due report of said sale or sales to the governor.

Sale of condemned property. (Acts of 1895, p. 2.)

Art. 4351. [4100] No railroad corporation shall be formed until stock to the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of said road so intended to be built shall be in good faith subscribed, and five per cent of the amount subscribed paid in to the directors of such proposed company.

Art. 4352. [4101] The persons proposing to form a railroad corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain—

1. The name of the proposed corporation.
2. The places from and to which it is intended to construct the proposed railroad, and the intermediate counties through which it is proposed to construct the same; provided, however, that local suburban railways may be constructed for any distance less than ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town, in addition to such mileage as they may have within the same, and in such case the general direction shall be given from the beginning point.
3. The place at which shall be established and maintained the principal business office of the proposed corporation.
4. The time of the commencement and the period of the continuation of the proposed corporation.
5. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation.
6. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation.
7. The names of the members of the first board of directors, and in what officers or persons the government of the proposed corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested.
8. The number and amount of shares in the capital stock of the proposed corporation.

Art. 4353. [4102] The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the attorney-general of the state, whose duty it shall be to carefully examine the same, and if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and not in conflict with the laws of the United States or of this state, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect.

Art. 4354. [4103] When said articles have been examined and certified as provided in the preceding article the same shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, accompanied by an affidavit in writing, signed and sworn to by at least three of the directors named in such articles, before some officer of the state authorized by law to administer oaths, which affidavit shall state that the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of such proposed road has been in good faith subscribed, and that five per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the secretary of state shall cause such articles, together with said affidavit, to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles and return the same to such corporation.

Shall be filed in office of secretary of state.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4355. [4104] The existence of such corporation shall date from the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state, and the certificate of the secretary of state, under the seal of the state, shall be evidence of such filing.

Existence of corporation begins, when.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4356. [4105] When the articles of incorporation have been filed and recorded as herein provided, the persons named as corporators therein shall thereupon become and be deemed a body corporate, and be authorized to proceed to carry into effect the objects set forth in such articles, in accordance with the provisions of this title.

Corporators may proceed to act, when.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4357. [4106] No railroad corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years in the first instance, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time for periods not longer than fifty years, in the manner provided in the succeeding articles.

Corporation shall not be for more than fifty years, but, etc.
Ib. p. 144, §8.

Art. 4358. [4107] The manner of renewing a railroad corporation which has expired by lapse of time shall be as follows:

Manner of renewing corporation.
Ib.

1. By a resolution in writing adopted by a majority of three-fourths of the stockholders of the company at a regular meeting of the stockholders, which resolution shall specify the period of time for which the corporation is renewed.

2. Those desiring a renewal of the corporation shall purchase the stock of those opposed thereto at its current value.

3. The resolution, when adopted, shall be certified to by the president of the company, and he shall state in his certificate thereto that it was adopted by a majority vote of three-fourths of all the stockholders of said company at a regular meeting of such stockholders, and that the stockholders desiring such renewal have purchased the stock of those who oppose such renewal, and such certificate shall be attested by the secretary of the company under the seal of the company.

4. The said resolution and certificate shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and the renewal of said corporation shall date from said filing.

Art. 4359. Whenever any line or lines of railway or railway properties within this state are by special law authorized to be sold and conveyed, the persons contemplating or engaging for the purchase thereof may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating such line or lines of railway by complying, as far as is applicable, with the requirements of this chapter. In the formation of such corporation the requirements of article 4351 and so much of article 4354 of the Revised Statutes as relates to the affidavit therein provided for may be dispensed with, and words applicable to the case of a purchase may be used and substituted when necessary or proper, in the articles of incorporation or elsewhere, for or in lieu of words applicable to the building or construction of a railway. And when such corporation has been formed it shall have the power to purchase, acquire, own, maintain and operate such line or lines of railway and properties pertaining thereto, and all rights, powers and privileges given by the laws of this state to railway companies, including the right to complete and extend such line or lines of railway, and to construct branch lines thereto, and any proposed extension or branch lines may be provided for and included in the original articles of incorporation, or the same may, by amendment thereto at any time thereafter, be projected and provided for by such company.

Shall take property subject to liens, etc.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4360. Every railroad company organized under the preceding article shall take the property so purchased subject to all incumbrances, judgments, claims, suits, claims for damages and for right of way against the old company and subject to all debts and claims for damages, accruing against any receiver who may have been appointed for the old company to the same extent that such property would have been liable in the hands of the railroad company from which it was purchased, and such new company may be made a party to every suit pending against the company from which it purchased, or which may be pending against any receiver of such company, to enforce any right against such new company, and the new company may be sued to enforce any such rights, without joining the old company or the receiver, and in case any judgment has been rendered against the company from which the purchase is made or against a receiver for such last named company, and for which the property is liable, execution may be issued on such judgment against such property in the possession of the new company without any suit therefor. When any corporation shall be formed under the provisions of article 4359, service of process may be had upon any agent of such corporation in any county where suit may be pending. Such service shall bind each and every railroad operated or owned under such charter, in the same manner as if it were one railroad.

Corporation may amend, etc., articles, etc.
(Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 142, §5.)
How amendment, etc., shall be made.
Ib. §5.

Article 4361. [4108] Any railroad corporation may amend or change its articles or act of incorporation in the manner provided in the following articles of this chapter.

Art. 4362. [4109] Said amendment or change shall be made in the manner following:

1. It shall be in writing and signed by the president and board of directors of the corporation and attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation.
2. It shall be submitted to the attorney-general as in the case of original articles of incorporation, and examined and certified by him in the same manner.

3. It shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

4. In the case of a corporation created by a special act of the legislature the said amendment or change, together with the original charter and such amendments and changes as have been made by special act of the legislature, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

Art. 4363. [4110] Such amendment or change shall be in force from the date of the filing of the same in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Shall take effect, when. Ib.

Art. 4364. [4111] Where, by the special act or articles of incorporating any railroad company, any privileges, rights or benefits are conferred upon said corporation, such as it could not claim, exercise or receive under this title or the general laws, then the said corporation shall not be permitted so to amend or change its charter or articles of incorporation as to relieve it from any of the requirements of such special act or acts conferring said privileges, rights or benefits. Shall not amend, etc., when. Ib.

Art. 4365. [4113] Any railroad corporation may, by amendment to its charter, project and provide for the locating, constructing, owning, maintaining and operating a branch line to its original or trunk line of railroad from any point on the said original main or trunk line to any other point in this state, by a branch line to the main line, making an angle with said main line of at least twenty-five degrees in the general course of said branch line, and also so projected that said branch line shall in no case be so located as to be or become such a line of railroad as that, if the same were owned by another corporation, the corporation owning the main line or any one of the other branches thereof, would be forbidden by the constitution and laws from consolidating therewith on account of the lines being parallel or competing lines. May project, etc., a branch line by amendment. Ib. p. 143, §7.

Art. 4366. [4114] Any such corporation making such amendment to its charter as is authorized by the preceding article shall complete and put in good running order at least ten miles of its said branch line in said amendment proposed within one year from the filing of such amendment, and an additional extent of at least twenty miles each and every succeeding year until the entire extent of the projected branch line is completed. Branch line shall complete 10 miles first year, etc. Ib.

state.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 130, §2.)

Art. 4368. It shall be the duty of said railroad company to keep and maintain at the place within this state where its said general offices are located, the office of its president or vice-president, also the office of its secretary, treasurer, local treasurer, auditor, general freight agent, traffic manager, general manager, general superintendent, general passenger and ticket agent, chief engineer, superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, master of transportation, train master, stock and fuel agent, claim agent, and each and every one of its general offices shall be so kept and maintained, by whatever name it is known, and the persons who perform the duties of said general offices, by whatever name known, shall keep and maintain their offices at the place where said general offices are required to be located and maintained, and the persons holding said general offices of a railroad shall reside at the place and keep and maintain their offices at the place where the general offices of said railroad are required by law to be kept and maintained, and if the duties of any of the above named offices are performed by any person, but his position is called by a different name, it is hereby made the duty of said railroad company to have and maintain said offices at the place where its general Texas offices are kept and maintained as required by this chapter; provided, that if the judgment of the court shall be to forfeit the charter, then it shall allow the railroad company six months from the date of the judgment within which to comply with the requirements of this chapter, and if said railroad company shall comply within the said time no forfeiture shall occur, but if the railroad company shall not comply, then the judgment shall be final, the object and meaning of this statute being to require every railroad company owning or operating a line of railway within this state to keep and maintain its general offices within this state at such place as required herein, and the name of the above as general offices shall not be understood to allow the railroad company to have any of the offices usually known as general offices at any other place than the one it is required to keep its general offices at, and each and every railroad is hereby required to have and maintain its general offices at the place named herein.

Forfeiture for violation of,
etc.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4369. Each and every railroad company chartered by this state, or owning, operating or controlling any line of railroad within this state, which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the charter by which it operates its railroad in this state to the state of Texas, and it is hereby made the duty of the attorney-general of this state, upon the application of any interested party or on his own motion, to proceed at once against every railroad company owning, operating or controlling any line of railway within this state by quo warranto to forfeit the charter of the railroad company so offending or violating any of the provisions of this law, shall in addition to forfeiting the charter to that part of the railroad situated within this state be subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars for each and every day it violates any of the provisions of this chapter, said penalty to be recovered in the name of the state of Texas by a suit which shall be filed by the attorney-general in any court in this state having jurisdiction, and on the trial the court shall, if it finds that the railroad company has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, render judgment in the name of the state of Texas at the rate of the sum of five thousand dollars for each and every day said court shall find that said railroad company violated any of the provisions of this chapter. And any money recovered from any railroad company under the provisions of this law shall be paid over into the state treasury, and become a part of the available public free school fund.

Art. 4370. At the public or general offices of the said railroad companies established as provided for in this chapter the principal business of said corporation shall be conducted, and stock transferred and claims for damages settled and adjusted by duly authorized officers and agents of said corporations, and where there shall be kept for the inspection of stockholders of such corporation books in which shall be recorded—

What books shall contain; open to inspection, etc. (Acts of 1885, p. 67.)

1. The amount of capital stock subscribed.
2. The names of the owners of the stock and the amounts owned by them respectively.
3. The amount of stock paid and by whom.
4. The transfer of stock with the date of the transfer.
5. The amount of its assets and liabilities.
6. The names and places of residence of each of its officers.

Provided, that railroad corporations shall be required to keep such office at some place on the line of its road in this state, as heretofore provided.

Art. 4371. The president or superintendent of every railroad company doing business in this state shall report annually under oath to the comptroller or governor the true status of said railroad, and such other matters and things as may be inquired about by said comptroller or governor.

President shall report, etc. (Const., art. 10, §3.)

Art. 4372. The books of such corporation kept at its public office shall at all reasonable business hours be open to the inspection of each stockholder and to any officer or agent of the state whose duty it may be to inspect such books.

Books to be kept, where. Ib. §4.

Art. 4373. The legislature may by committee or otherwise examine the books of any railroad corporation at such times and as often as may by said legislature be deemed necessary.

Legislature may examine. Ib. §5.

Art. 4374. It shall be unlawful for any railroad or other corporation to fail or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, and if said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with any part thereof, it shall be liable to pay to the state of Texas the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every month

Penalty for failure, etc. Ib. §6.

that said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply therewith, said sum to be recovered by the state in any court in this state of competent jurisdiction; provided, that an honest mistake in the entries in its books shall not subject a railroad company to the penalties of this article, if the office of said company shall be kept in this state, as herein provided.

Duties of attorney-general.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4375. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general of this state to bring suit against said corporations and prosecute them to judgment for any violation of the provisions of this chapter.

May change public office.
(Act Feb. 7, 1854.)
P. D. 4388.

Art. 4376. [4118] Every railroad corporation may change at pleasure its public office by publishing a notice of such change in some newspaper published on the line of its road, if any there be, and if not, then in some newspaper in the state and having a general circulation in the state, for four successive weeks prior to such a change; provided, however, that the right to make such change shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions herein contained.

Notice of establishment of public office, in first instance, shall be given.

Art. 4377. [4119] Every railroad corporation shall also, as soon as it has in the first instance established its public office, give notice of such establishment by a like publication as required in the preceding article.

Public office the domicile of the corporation.
(Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 150, §32.)

Art. 4378. [4120] The public office of a railroad corporation shall be considered the domicile of such corporation.

Railroad stock is personal estate and transferable. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 145, §17; p. 144, §10.)

Article 4394. [4138] The stock of a railroad corporation shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation; but no such transfer shall be valid until the same shall have been made on the stock and transfer books of the company; nor shall any share be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been paid.

Directors may require payment of stock, etc. Ib. p. 145, §16.

Art. 4395. [4139] The directors of such corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner and in such installments as the directors may deem proper.

Sale of stock when owner neglects to pay. Ib. p. 145, §16.

Art. 4396. [4140] If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment as required by a resolution or order of the board of directors, the said board shall be authorized to advertise said stock for sale by publication once a week for thirty days in some newspaper published on the line of said road, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper published in the state having a general circulation in the state, which notice shall name the stock to be sold and the time and place of such sale, and all stock so sold shall be sold at the public office or place of business of such company, and between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., and to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of such sale to be credited to the delinquent stockholder.

Stockholders shall have access to books, etc., of corporation. Ib. p. 145, §13.

Art. 4397. [4141] All stockholders shall at all reasonable hours have access to and may examine all books, records and papers of such corporation.

Funds of corporation shall be used only for legitimate purposes. Ib. §17.

Art. 4398. [4142] It shall not be lawful for any railroad corporation to use any of the funds thereof in the purchase of its own stock, or that of any other corporation, or to loan any of its funds to any director or other officer thereof, or to permit them, or any of them, to use the same for other than the legitimate purposes of the corporation.

Art. 4399. [4143] Each stockholder of any railroad corporation shall be held individually liable to the creditors of such corporation to an amount not exceeding the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for any and all debts and liabilities of such corporation until the whole amount of the capital stock of such corporation so held by him shall have been paid.

Extent of stockholder's liability for debts of corporation.
Ib. p. 146, §20.

Art. 4400. [4144] No person holding stock in any railroad corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stockholder of such corporation, but the estate or person owning such stock shall be considered as holding the same and liable as a stockholder accordingly.

Persons holding stock who are not liable.
Ib. §19.

Art. 4401. [4145] In case the capital stock of any railroad corporation shall be found insufficient for constructing and operating its road, such corporation may, with the concurrence of two-thirds in value of all its stock, increase its capital stock from time to time to any amount required for the purposes aforesaid.

Capital stock may be increased.
Ib. §18.

Art. 4402. [4146] Such increase shall be sanctioned by a vote in person or by written proxy of two-thirds in amount of all the stock of such corporation, at a meeting of such stockholders called by the directors of the corporation for such purpose, by giving notice in writing to each stockholder, to be served personally or by depositing the same in a postoffice directed to the postoffice addresses of each of said stockholders severally, postage prepaid, at least sixty days prior to the day appointed for such meeting, and also by advertising the time, place and purpose of such meeting in some newspaper published in each county through or into which the said road shall run or be intended to run (if any newspaper shall be published therein) at least sixty days next preceding the day appointed for such meeting.

Notice of meeting for such increase, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4403. [4147] Such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting, the object thereof, and the amount to which it is proposed to increase such capital stock.

Right to construct, etc., road anywhere in the state. (Const., art. 10, §1.)

Article 4422. [4166] Any railroad corporation shall have the right to construct and operate a railroad between any points within this state and to connect at the state line with railroads of other states.

Right of way over public lands.

Art. 4423. [4167] Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any lands belonging to this state, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land.

Lineal survey. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 147, §23.)

Art. 4424. [4168] Every railroad corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed railway to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purpose may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damage that may be occasioned thereby.

May lay out road 200 feet in width, etc. lb.

Art. 4425. [4169] Such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its railway, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing the railway, making compensation in the manner provided by law.

Right to construct across streams of water, etc.

Art. 4426. [4170] Such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across, along or upon any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal which the route of said railway shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal thus intersected or touched to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossing in repair.

Art. 4427. All railway corporations in this state which have, or which may hereafter fence their right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through their fence and over their roadbed along their right of way every one and one-half miles thereof; provided, that if such fence shall divide any inclosure that at least one opening shall be made in said fence within such inclosure.

Opening through fences, etc. (Acts of 1887, p. 39.)

Art. 4428. Such crossings shall not be less than thirty feet in width, and shall be made and kept in such condition as to admit of the free and easy passage of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and all other domesticated animals, wagons and other vehicles.

Width of crossings.

Art. 4429. Such crossings shall be made at such times and places as may be demanded by any two or more citizens of the state who either live or own land within five miles of the place where such crossings may be demanded.

Where may be made. Ib. §3.

Art. 4430. Such demand shall be made in writing, of the nearest local agent of such railway company to the place where such crossing or crossings are demanded, and shall state when and where such crossing is desired.

Demand to be in writing. Ib. §4.

Art. 4431. No railway company shall be required to complete such crossing as may be demanded under this chapter in a shorter time than thirty days from the day on which such demand is first made, nor shall they be required to make any crossings where they have already left such crossings in each one and one-half miles of their road, except inside of inclosures, as provided in article 4427.

Thirty days' time for completion. Ib. §5.

Art. 4432. Any railway company, upon such demand, shall be deemed to have complied therewith upon making such crossings within four hundred yards of the place where they are demanded, within the time herein allowed.

Distance from place. Ib. §6.

Art. 4433. Whenever any railway company shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this chapter, after demand is made in accordance herewith, such railway company shall pay to the persons who made such demand each the sum of five hundred dollars for each and every month they shall so fail or refuse to comply with such demand, the same to be recovered by suit in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the amount.

Failure, etc. Ib. §7.

Art. 4434. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to affect the law requiring railroad companies to provide proper crossings at intersection of all roads and streets.

Intersections of roads and streets. Ib. §8.

Art. 4435. It shall be the duty of every railroad company in this state to place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way, over or across which any public county road may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public, and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed by the overseer of such public road, it shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars for each and every week such railroad company may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved in a suit in the name of the county in which the cause of action accrued.

Crossings of public roads. (Acts of 1885, p. 45.)

Art. 4436. [4171] In no case shall any railroad company construct a roadbed without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices, as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary drainage thereof.

Shall first construct necessary culverts, or sluices. (Acts of 1876, p. 147.)

Art. 4437. [4172] Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize the erection of any bridge or any other obstruction across or over any stream or water navigable by steamboats or sail

Navigable waters shall not be obstructed. Ib.

vessels at the place where any bridge or other obstruction may be proposed to be placed so as to prevent the navigation of such stream or water.

Streets, etc., of incorporated cities or towns shall not be taken, without, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4438. [4173] Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize the construction of any railroad upon or across any street, alley, square or highway of any incorporated city or town without the assent of the corporation of said city or town.

In case of highways, plank roads, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4439. [4174] In case of the construction of any railway along highways, plank roads, turnpikes or canals, such railroad corporation shall either first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having control or jurisdiction of the same or condemn the same under the provisions of law.

Shall have the right to cross, intersect, etc., other railways.
Ib.

Art. 4440. [4175] Such corporation shall have the right to cross, intersect, join and unite its railway with any other railway before constructed at any point on its route and upon the grounds of such other railway corporation, with the necessary turnouts, sidings and switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its connection.

Intersected railways shall do what.
Ib.

Art. 4441. [4176] Every corporation whose railway is or shall be hereafter intersected by any new railway shall unite with the corporation owning such new railway in forming intersections and connections and grant to such new railway facilities therefor.

When the two corporations can not agree.
Ib.

Art. 4442. [4177] If the two corporations can not agree upon the amount of compensation for any such crossing, intersection or connection, or the points and manner of the same, their differences shall be adjusted in the manner provided by law.

May enter upon adjacent land and take material, etc.
Ib. §22.

Art. 4443. [4178] Any railroad corporation may enter upon and take from any land adjacent to its road earth, gravel, stone or other materials, except fuel and wood, necessary for the construction of its railway, paying, if the owner of such land and the corporation can agree thereto, the value of such material taken and the amount of damage occasioned to any such land or appurtenances, and if such owner and corporation can not agree, then the value of such material and the damage occasioned to such real estate may be ascertained, determined and paid in the manner provided in this chapter.

Value of same, and damages shall first be paid.
Ib.

Art. 4444. [4179] The value of such material and the damage to such real estate shall in all cases be ascertained, determined and paid before such corporation can enter upon and take such material.

In case corporation and owner can not agree, etc.
Ib. p. 146, §21.

Art. 4445. [4180] If any railroad corporation shall at any time be unable to agree with the owner for the purchase of any real estate or the material thereon required for the purposes of its incorporation or the transaction of its business, for its depots, station buildings, machine and repair shops, or for the right of way, or any other lawful purpose connected with or necessary to the building, operating or running its road, such corporation may acquire such property in the manner provided in this chapter.

Shall not enter upon land, etc., except for a lineal survey.
P. D. 4922.

Art. 4446. [4181] No railroad company shall enter upon, except for a lineal survey, any real estate whatever, the same being private property, for the purpose of taking and condemning the same or any material thereon, for any purpose whatever, until the said company shall agree with and pay the owner thereof all damages that may be caused to the lands and property of said owner by the condemnation of said real estate and property, and by the construction of such road.

Statement to be filed with county judge. (Acts of 1885, p. 54.)

Art. 4447. [4182] If such company and said owner can not agree upon the damages, it shall be the duty of said company to state in writing the real estate and property sought to be condemned, the object for which the same is sought to be condemned, the name of the owner thereof and his residence, if known, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such property or a part thereof is situated; provided, if the owner resides in either county in which a portion of the land is situated, the same shall be filed in the county of his residence.

Art. 4448. [4183] Upon the filing of such statement the county judge shall forthwith, either in term time or in vacation, appoint three disinterested freeholders of said county as special commissioners to assess said damages, giving preference to those that may be agreed on between said corporation and said owner.

County judge shall appoint commissioners. (Acts of 1860, p. 60.)

Art. 4449. [4184] The said commissioners shall be sworn by the county judge or by any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, to assess said damages fairly and impartially and in accordance with law.

Commissioners shall be sworn. ib.

Art. 4450. [4185] Said commission shall, without delay, appoint a day and place for hearing said parties, and the day appointed shall be the earliest practicable day, and the place selected for such hearing shall be as near as practicable to the property in controversy, or at the county seat of the county in which the property is situated.

Commissioners shall select a day and place of hearing. ib.

Art. 4451. [4186] The commissioners shall issue a notice in writing to each of the parties, notifying them of the time and place selected for the hearing.

Shall issue written notice to parties. ib.

Art. 4452. [4187] Said notice shall be served upon said parties at least five days before the day of hearing, exclusive of the day of service, and shall be served by delivering a copy of the same to the party, his agent or attorney, and may be served by any person competent to testify.

Manner of serving notice.

Art. 4453. [4188] The person making such service shall return the original notice to said commissioners, or any one of them, on or before the day set for the hearing, with his return in writing thereon, stating how and when the same was served.

Return of notice.

Art. 4454. [4189] When the property in controversy is the property of the estate of a deceased person or of a minor, and such estate has a legal representative or such minor has a guardian, the notice shall be served upon such legal representative or guardian.

When the property belongs to estate or to a minor, notice shall be served on whom. ib.

Art. 4455. [4190] When the property in controversy belongs to a non-resident of this state, or to an unknown person, or to a person whose residence is unknown, or who secretes himself so that the process of law can not be served upon him, such notice may be served upon such owner by publication in the same manner as is provided for service of citation in article 1235 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

Property of non-resident, unknown owner, or one who secretes himself. (Acts of 1885, p. 54; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 83, p. 482.)

[Note.—Article 4456, by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code, No. 83, was merged into Article 4455 as it appears amended.]

Art. 4457. [4191] When service of notice has been perfected the commissioners shall, at the time and place appointed, or at any other time and place to which said hearing has been adjourned, proceed to fully hear said parties; but if upon the day set for the hearing the service of notice has not been perfected the said hearing shall be postponed from time to time until such service has been perfected.

Proceedings of commissioners.

Art. 4458. [4192] Said commissioners for the purpose mentioned in this chapter shall have power to compel the attendance of Power of commissioners.

witnesses and the production of testimony, and to administer oaths and punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district or county court.

Rule of damages.

Art. 4459. [4193] Said commissioners shall hear evidence as to the value of the property sought to be condemned, and as to the damages which will be sustained by the owner thereof by reason of such condemnation, and as to the benefits that will result to the remainder of such property belonging to such owner, if any, by the construction and operation of such railroad, and shall according to this rule assess the actual damage that will accrue to such owner by said condemnation.

Same subject.

Art. 4460. [4194] When the whole of a person's real estate is condemned the damages to which he shall be entitled shall be the market value thereof in the market in which the same is located.

Same subject.

Art. 4461. [4195] When only a portion of a person's real estate is condemned the commissioners shall estimate the injuries sustained and the benefits received thereby by the owner as to the remaining portion of such real estate; whether such remaining portion is increased or diminished in value by such condemnation, and the extent of such increase or diminution, and shall assess the damages accordingly.

Injuries and benefits which shall not be estimated.

Art. 4462. [4196] In estimating either the injuries or the benefits, as provided in the preceding article, those injuries or benefits which the owner of such real estate sustains or receives in common with the community generally, and which are not peculiar to him and connected with his ownership, use and enjoyment of the particular parcel of land, shall be altogether excluded from such estimate.

Assessment shall be in writing, dated, signed, etc.

Art. 4463. [4197] When the said commissioners shall have assessed the damages, they shall reduce their decision to writing, stating therein the amount of damages due to the owner of such real estate, if any be found to be due, and shall date the same and sign it, and shall file the said assessment, together with all other papers connected with the case, with the county judge without delay.

Other commissioners may be appointed, when.

Art. 4464. [4198] Should the said commissioners, or either of them, from any cause be unable or fail to act as such, the county judge may at any time appoint another commissioner or commissioners to supply the place or places of those who are unable or who fail to act.

Pay of commissioners.

Art. 4465. [4199] Commissioners appointed under this chapter shall be entitled to receive for their services three dollars each for every day they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such commissioners, and they may withhold their decision until their said fees are paid to them.

Corporation shall pay expenses of serving notice.

Art. 4466. [4200] The railroad company seeking to condemn property shall defray all expenses of serving notice upon the owner of such property, but shall be entitled to recover said expenses from such owner in case it shall be decided that said owner shall pay the costs of the proceeding.

Commissioners shall make out cost bill, etc.

Art. 4467. [4201] The commissioners may adjudge the costs against either party, and shall make out a statement in writing of all the costs which have accrued before them, and shall state therein against which party the said costs have been adjudged, and shall sign the same and deliver it, with the other papers of the cause, to the county judge.

Either party, if dissatisfied with decision, may remove cause, etc.

Art. 4468. [4202] If either party be dissatisfied with the decision of such commissioners he may, within ten days after the same has been filed with the county judge, file his opposition thereto in writing, setting forth the particular cause or causes of his objection, and thereupon the adverse party shall be cited, and said cause shall be tried and determined as in other civil causes in said court.

Art. 4469. [4203] If no objections are filed to such decision within the time prescribed in the preceding article, the county judge shall cause the said decision to be recorded in the minutes of his court, and shall make the same the judgment of said court, and may issue the necessary process to enforce the same.

Decision shall be made the judgment of the court, when.

Art. 4470. [4204] The costs of the proceedings before the commissioners and in the court shall be determined as follows, to-wit: If the said commissioners shall award greater damages than the said company offered to pay before the proceedings commenced, or if objections are filed to the decision in the county court under the provisions of this chapter, and the judgment of the court is for a greater sum than the amount awarded by the commissioners, then the said company shall pay all costs; but if the amount awarded by said commissioners as damages, or if the judgment of the county court shall be for the same or less amount of damages than the amount offered by the company before proceedings were commenced, then the costs shall be paid by the owner of the property.

Costs shall be awarded, by what rule. 1b.

Art. 4471. [4205] In no case shall such corporation be entitled to enter upon and take the property condemned without first having paid whatever amount of damages and costs may have been awarded or adjudged against it.

Damages must be paid before property is taken. (Const., art. 1, §17.)

Art. 4472. When any railroad company is sued for any property occupied by it for railroad purposes or for damages thereto, the court in which such suit is pending may determine all matters in dispute between the parties, including the condemnation of the property, upon petition or cross-bill asking such remedy by defendant, but the plea for condemnation shall be an admission of the plaintiff's title to such property.

Practice in case specified. (Acts of 1889, p. 18.)

Art. 4473. [4206] The right of way secured or to be secured to any railroad company in this state, in the manner provided by law, shall not be so construed as to include the fee simple estate in lands, either public or private, nor shall the same be lost by the forfeiture or expiration of the charter, but shall remain subject to an extension of the charter or the grant of a new charter over the same way without a new condemnation.

The right of way, how construed. (Act Feb. 7, 1861, p. 12.)

Art. 4474. [4207] The right of way is hereby reserved to any railroad companies incorporated by the laws of this state, or that may hereafter be so incorporated, to the extent of one hundred feet on each side of said road, or roads that cross over, or extend through any lands granted, or that may be hereafter granted to any railroad company by the legislature, with the right to take from the lands so granted such stone, timber and earth as such road may need in the construction of its line of road.

Right of way reserved out of lands granted to railroad companies. P. D. 7389a.

Art. 4475. [4208] Whenever the right of way has been acquired as hereinbefore provided, the judgment of the court shall vest such right in the company so acquiring the same.

Right of way vested by judgment of the court.

[4212] Such corporation shall have the right to take, hold and use such voluntary grants of real estate and other property as shall be made to it in aid of the construction and use of its railway, and to convey the same when no longer required for the uses of such railway, in any manner not incompatible with the terms of the original grant.

Shall alienate lands, except, etc.; forfeiture. Ib.; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 84, p. 482.

Art. 4480. [4213, 4277] All lands acquired by railroad companies under the provisions of this chapter or any general laws, shall be alienated by said companies, one-half in six years and one-half in twelve years from the issuance of patents to the same, and all lands so acquired by railroad companies, and not alienated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the state and become a part of the public domain and liable to location and survey as other unappropriated lands. All lands purchased by or donated to a railroad corporation, except such as are used for depot purposes, reservations for the establishment of machine shops, turn outs and switches, shall be alienated and disposed of by said company in the same manner and time as is required when lands have been received from the state.

Preceding articles to apply to all companies. Ib. p. 143, §6.

Art. 4481. [4214] The three preceding articles shall apply to such corporations as are prohibited by their acts of incorporation from purchasing or receiving donations of land, as well as to those corporations that are not so prohibited.

Right to convey persons and property. Ib. p. 147, §23.

Art. 4482. [4215] Such corporation shall have the right to receive and convey persons and property on its railway by the power and force of steam or by any mechanical power.

Right to erect and maintain buildings, etc. Ib.

Art. 4483. [4216] Such corporation shall have the right to erect and maintain all necessary and convenient buildings and stations, fixtures and machinery for the accommodation and use of passengers, freights and business interests, or which may be necessary for the construction or operation of its railway; but no railway company shall have the power, either by its own employes or other persons, to construct any buildings along the line of their railroad to be occupied by their employes or others, except at their respective depot stations and section houses, and at such places only such building as may be necessary for the transaction of their legitimate business operations, and for shelter for their employes, nor shall they use, occupy or cultivate any part of the right of way over which their respective roads may pass, with the exception aforesaid, for any other purpose than the construction and keeping in repair their respective railways.

Art. 4484. [4217] Such corporation shall have the right to regulate the time and manner in which passengers and property shall be transported, and the compensation to be paid therefor, subject nevertheless to the provisions of this or any other law that may hereafter be enacted.

Right to regulate time, etc., of transportation.
Ib.

[Note.—Article 4485 (4218) omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code, No. 85; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 483.]

Art. 4486. [4219] Such corporation shall have the right from time to time to borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing, improving or operating its railway, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchise to secure the payment of any debt contracted by such corporation for the purposes aforesaid.

Right to borrow money, issue bonds, etc.
Ib. p. 147, §23.

Art. 4487. [4220] No mortgage by such corporation shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the stock of such company, after notice in a manner provided in this title for increasing the capital stock of such corporations.

Mortgage invalid, unless, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4488. [4221] When any such resolution has been adopted in the manner provided in the preceding article, it shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and no such resolution shall take effect until so recorded.

Resolution authorizing mortgages shall be recorded.
Ib.

Art. 4489. [4222] The directors shall be empowered, in pursuance of any such resolution, to confer on any holder of any bond for money so borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal of such bond into the stock of such corporation at any time not exceeding ten years after the date of such bond, under such regulations as may be provided in the by-laws of such corporation.

Directors may pay bonds with stock.
Ib.

Art. 4490. Any railway company in the state of Texas having a terminus on the coast, the said terminus being a county site, and the same having been destroyed by storms and cyclones, and when said county site has been removed back from the coast near the line of said railway, it shall be lawful for said railway company to remove and take up its track from its original terminus on the coast to a point opposite or near said new county site; provided, said railway company make its terminus at and build its road to said new county site.

When terminus on coast is destroyed. (Acts of 1887, p. 6.)

Road shall pass through county seat, when, (Const., art. 10, §9.)

Article 4491. [4223] No railroad hereafter constructed in this state shall pass within a distance of three miles of any county seat without passing through the same and establishing and maintaining a depot therein, unless prevented by natural obstacles, such as streams, hills or mountains; provided, such town or its citizens shall grant the right of way through its limits and sufficient ground for ordinary depot purposes.

Shall survey 25 miles of road, locate depot, etc. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 142, §5.)

Art. 4492. [4224] Every railroad company organized under this title shall make an actual survey of its route or line for a distance of twenty-five miles on its projected route, and shall designate the depot grounds along said first twenty-five miles before the roadbed is begun, and no railroad company shall change its route or depot grounds after the same have been so designated.

Subsequent survey of each 25 miles of road. Ib.

Art. 4493. [4225] Every railroad company organized under this title shall, on the completion of the first twenty-five miles of its roadbed, make a survey of the next twenty-five miles, and of each subsequent twenty-five miles as the preceding twenty-five miles shall be completed and every subsequent twenty-five miles shall be controlled by the provisions applicable to the first twenty-five miles of the road.

Trains to be regular, and notice to be given. P. D. 4893.

Art. 4494. [4226] Every such corporation shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times, to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodations for the transportation of all such passengers and property as shall within a reasonable time previous thereto offer or be offered for transportation at the place of starting, and the junction of other railroads, and at sidings and stopping places established for receiving and discharging way passengers and freights, and shall take, transport and discharge such passengers and property at, from and to such places on the due payment of the tolls, freight or fare legally authorized therefor.

[Note.—Article 4495 omitted as repealed by the report of the joint committee on amendments to the Revised Civil Code, No. 87; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 483.]

Art. 4496. [4227] In case of the refusal by such corporation or their agents so to take and transport any passenger or property, or to deliver the same, or either of them, at the regular appointed time, such corporation shall pay to the party aggrieved all damages which shall be sustained thereby, with costs of suit, and in case of the transportation of property shall in addition pay to such party special damages at the rate of five per cent per month upon the value of the same at the time of shipment, for the negligent detention thereof beyond the time reasonably necessary for its transportation; provided, that in all suits against such corporation under this law the burden of proof shall be on such corporations to show that the delay was not negligent.

Refusal to transport passenger or property. (Acts of 1887, p. 116.)

Art. 4497. When the owner, owners or managers of any freight of any kind shall make application in writing to the superintendent or person in charge of transportation, to any railway company operating a line at the point the cars are desired upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railway company to supply the number of cars required at the point indicated in the application within a reasonable time, not to exceed six days from the receipt thereof, and shall furnish such cars to the persons applying therefor in the order applied for, without giving preference to any person.

Railroad to furnish cars when demanded. (Acts of 1887, p. 133.)

Art. 4498. Said application for cars shall state the number of cars desired, the place at which they are desired and the time they are desired; provided, that the place designated shall be at some station or switch on the railroad.

Application shall state, what. Ib. §2.

Art. 4499. When cars are applied for under the provisions of this chapter, if they are not furnished the railway company so failing to furnish them shall forfeit to the party or parties so applying for them the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car failed to be furnished, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, and all actual damages that such applicant may sustain.

Penalty for failure to furnish. Ib. §3.

Art. 4500. Such applicant shall at the time of applying for such car or cars deposit with the agent of such company one-fourth of the amount of the freight charge for the use of such cars unless the said road shall agree to deliver said cars without such deposit, and said applicant shall within forty-eight hours after such car or cars have been delivered and placed as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the applicant to fully load the same, and upon failure to do so he shall forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars for each car not used. And if the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him and shall so notify the said company or its agent, he shall forfeit and pay to the said railroad company in addition to the penalty herein prescribed the actual damages that such company may sustain by the said failure of the applicant to use said cars.

Applicant shall make deposit. Ib. §4.

Art. 4501. When cars have been supplied and loaded it shall be the duty of the railway company to deliver the same to the party or parties to whom they are consigned within a reasonable time, and the party or parties to whom the cars are consigned shall unload the same within forty-eight hours after delivery and notice, or forfeit to the railway company the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car so left unloaded, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

To deliver loaded cars in reasonable time. Ib. §5.

Necessary for applicant to show, what.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4502. It shall be necessary for the party or parties bringing suit against any railroad company under the provisions of this law, to show by evidence that he or they had on hand at the time any demand for cars was made the amount of lumber, cotton, wool, hides or other freight necessary to load the cars so ordered; provided, that the provisions of this law shall not apply in cases of strikes or other public calamity.

Double-decked cars
for sheep, etc.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 57, §1; Sen.
Jour., 1895, p.
483, No. 88.)

Art. 4502a. All railroad companies operating any railroad, or any part thereof, within the limits of this state, are required to provide cars with double decks for the shipment of sheep, goats, hogs and calves; that the said cars must be in every way as large as those now in use upon the respective railroads of this state; that the distance between the floor and the second deck shall be the same as the distance between said second deck and the roof; the floor of said second deck shall be so constructed as to protect the animals beneath; and said cars must be furnished by the railroad company to any person who shall offer to ship at one time hogs, sheep, goats, or calves, in carload lots.

Rates of freight; penalty.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4502b. It shall not be lawful for any railroad company to charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, goats, hogs, or calves than is charged for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses the same distance, and in the same direction, and any railroad company that shall fail or refuse to furnish double-decked cars of the dimensions prescribed in the preceding article, to any person who may wish to ship as much as a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, or shall charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, than for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses for the same distance and in the same direction, shall be liable to pay to the owner or shipper of said sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that if any railroad companies shall transport sheep, hogs, goats, and calves on single-decked cars at one-half the price per carload charged for shipping horses or other cattle, then the penalties prescribed in this article for failure to provide double-decked cars shall be inoperative.

Conductor, etc., shall wear badge.
P. D. 4891.

Art. 4503. [4228] Every conductor, baggage master, engineer, brakeman or other servant of such railroad corporation employed in a passenger train or at stations for passengers shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office and the initial letters of the style of the corporation by which he is employed.

Without badge shall not receive fare, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4504. [4229] No conductor or collector without such badge shall demand or be entitled to receive from any passenger any fare, toll, ticket, or exercise any of the powers of his office, and no other of the said officers or servants, without such badge, shall have any authority to meddle or interfere with the passengers, their baggage or property.

Baggage shall be checked,
etc.
P. D. 4895.

Art. 4505. [4230] A check shall be affixed to every package or parcel of baggage when taken for transportation by the agent or servant of such corporation, and a duplicate thereof given to the passenger or person delivering the same on his behalf; and if such check be refused on demand, the corporation shall pay to such passenger the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt; and further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger, and if such passenger shall have paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the train.

Art. 4506. [4231] Such corporations shall erect at all points where its road shall cross any first or second class public road, at a sufficient elevation from such public road to admit of the free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railroad and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for the cars; and any company neglecting or refusing to erect such signs shall be liable in damages for all injuries occurring to persons or property from such neglect or refusal.

Signs shall be erected at cross-roads, etc.
P. D. 4890.

Art. 4507. [4232] A bell of at least thirty pounds weight and a steam whistle shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and the whistle shall be blown and the bell rung at the distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, and such bell shall be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such public road, or stopped; and each locomotive engine approaching a place where two lines of railway cross each other, shall, before reaching such railway crossing, be brought to a full stop; and any engineer having charge of such engine, and neglecting to comply with any of the provisions of this article, shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for such neglect, and the corporation operating such railway shall be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of any such neglect; provided, however, that the full stop at such crossings may be discontinued when the railroads crossing each other shall put into full operation at such crossing an interlocking switch and signal apparatus, and shall keep a flagman in attendance at such crossing.

Bell and steam whistle; duty as to.
(Acts of 1883, p. 28; amend. 1893, p. 87.)

Art. 4508. [4233] In forming a passenger train, baggage or freight or merchandise or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of passenger cars; and if they or any of them shall be so placed and any accident happen to life or limb, the officer or agent who so directed or knowingly suffered such arrangement, and the conductor and engineer of the train, shall each and all be held guilty of intentionally causing the injury, and be punished accordingly.

Passenger trains, how formed.
P. D. 4896.

Art. 4509. Every railroad company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, doing business in this state as common carriers of passengers for hire, shall provide separate coaches for the accommodation of white and negro passengers, which separate coaches shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience.

Separate coaches.
(Acts of 1891, p. 44.)

Art. 4510. The term negro as used herein includes every person of African descent as defined by the statutes of this state.

"Negro" defined.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4511. Each compartment of a coach divided by a good and substantial wooden partition with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this law, and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart.

Partition.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4512. Any railroad company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof which shall fail to provide its trains, carrying passengers, with separate coaches as above provided for, shall be liable for each and every such failure to a penalty not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction. And each trip run with any such train without such separate coaches shall be deemed a separate offense.

Penalty for failure.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4513. The provisions of this law shall not be so construed as to prohibit nurses from traveling in the same coach with employers or employes upon the train in discharge of their duties; nor shall it be construed to apply to such freight trains as may carry passengers in cabooses, neither shall it apply to street railway cars; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent railroad companies in this state from hauling sleeping cars or chair cars attached to their trains to be used exclusively by either white or negro passengers separately but not jointly.

Nurses not excluded.
Ib. §6, p. 165.

Law to be posted conspicuously.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4514. Every railroad company carrying passengers in this state shall keep this law posted in a conspicuous place in each passenger depot, and in each passenger coach, provided for in this chapter.

Not applied to excursion trains.
Ib. §8.

Art. 4515. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any excursion train run strictly as such for the benefit of either race.

Conductor authorized to refuse admittance to whom.
Ib. §9.

Art. 4516. Conductors of passenger trains provided with separate coaches shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach in which he is not entitled to ride under the provisions of this chapter; and the conductor in charge of the train shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty to remove from a coach any passenger not entitled to a ride therein under the provisions of this chapter. And upon his failure or refusal to do so he shall be punished as provided by the Penal Code.

Brakes and brakeman.
P. D. 4907.

Art. 4517. [4234] Every such company shall have a good and sufficient brake upon the hindmost car on all trains transporting passengers and merchandise, and also permanently stationed there a trusty and faithful brakeman, under a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered by suit in the name of the state.

Shall carry U. S. mails, and compensation therefor.
P. D. 4903.

Art. 4518. [4235] Every such corporation shall, when applied to by the postmaster-general, convey the mail of the United States on its road or roads; and in case such corporation shall not agree as to the rate of transportation therefor, and as to the time, rate of speed, manner and condition of conveying the same, it shall be lawful for the governor to appoint three commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after fifteen days' notice in writing of the time and place of meeting, to the corporation, shall determine and fix the prices, terms and condition aforesaid; but such price shall not be less for conveying such mails in the regular passenger trains than the amount which such corporation would receive as freight on a like weight of merchandise transported in their merchandise trains, and a fair compensation for the postoffice car; and in case the postmaster-general shall require the mail to be carried at other hours, or at a higher speed than the passenger train be run at, the corporation shall furnish an extra train for the mail and be allowed an extra compensation for the expenses and wear and tear thereof and for the services, to be fixed as aforesaid.

Station depots shall be erected, etc.
P. D. 4923.

Art. 4519. [4236] Each and every railroad company is hereby required to erect at each and every depot, station or place established by such company for the reception and delivery of freight, suitable buildings or inclosures to protect produce, goods, wares and merchandise and freight of every description from damage by exposure to the weather, stock or otherwise, in default of which such railroad company shall be liable to the owner of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise for the amount of damages or loss sustained by reason of such improper exposure, together with all costs and expenses of recovering the same, including necessary attorney's fees.

Art. 4520. [4237] Railroad companies shall in no case be allowed to charge storage upon freight received by them for delivery, unless the owner or consignee thereof neglect to remove it from the depot of the company within three days after notice of its reception, which notice may be given by posting the same on the depot door, and after the expiration of such time the company may remove and store said freight at the expense of the owner or consignee, and said freight shall be held liable for the freight and charges due thereon.

No storage to be charged, except, etc. P. D. 4923.

Art. 4521. [4238] Every railroad company doing business in this state shall keep its depots or passenger houses in this state, lighted, and warmed, and open to the ingress and egress of all passengers who are entitled to go therein, for a time not less than one hour before the arrival and after the departure of all trains carrying passengers on such railroad, and every such railroad company for each failure or refusal to comply with the provisions of this article, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas, the sum of fifty dollars, which may be sued for and recovered in the name of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall be liable to the party injured for all damages by reason of such failure.

Passenger depots opened, lighted, warmed, etc.; penalty for failure. (Acts of 1891, p. 29; Sen. Jour., 1895, No. 89, p. 483.)

[Note.—The preceding article, by the report of the committee on amendments to the Revised Statutes, Senate Journal, page 483, is substituted for the original article (4238 of the revision of 1879) which by the same report is stricken out.]

Art. 4522. [4239] When a company constructs a switch on its road for the accommodation of freighters, they shall be bound to furnish a sufficient number of cars for the transportation of freight therefrom when requested so to do, and in default shall be subject to the same penalties as in other cases of neglect of the like character.

Switch cars shall be furnished. P. D. 4934.

Art. 4523. [4240] Each and every railroad company whose railway passes through a field or inclosure, is hereby required to place a good and sufficient cattle-guard or stop at the points of entering such field or inclosure, and keep them in good repair.

Cattle-guards and stops, at what places. P. D. 4925.

Art. 4524. [4241] In case an inclosure or field through which a railway passes shall be enlarged or extended, or the owner of the land over which a railway runs shall clear and open a field so as to embrace the track of a railway, such railroad company is hereby required to place good and sufficient cattle-guards or stops at the margins of such extended inclosures or fields, or such new fields, and keep the same in repair.

Same subject.

Art. 4525. [4242] Such cattle-guards or stops shall in all cases be so constructed and kept in repair as to protect such fields and inclosures from the depredations of stock of every description.

Character of cattle-guards and stops.

Art. 4526. [4243] Should any such company fail to construct and keep in repair such cattle-guards and stops, the owner of such inclosure or field may have such cattle-guards and stops placed at the proper places and kept in repair, and may recover the costs thereof from such railroad company, unless it be shown that the enlargement or extension, as above provided, was made capriciously and with intent to annoy and molest such company.

Owner may place and keep in repair cattle-guards and stops at cost of company, when. P. D. 4925.

Art. 4527. [4244] Should any such company neglect to construct the proper cattle-guards and stops and keep the same in repair as required by law, such company shall be liable to the party injured by such neglect for all damages that may result from such neglect, to be recovered by suit in any court having jurisdiction.

Liability of company for neglect to place and keep in repair cattle-guards and stops. Ib.

Liability of companies for stock killed or injured.
P. D. 4926.

Art. 4528. [4245] Each and every railroad company shall be liable to the owner for the value of all stock killed or injured by the locomotives and cars of such railroad company in running over their respective railways, which may be recovered by suit before any court having competent jurisdiction of the amount. If the railroad company fence in their road, they shall only then be liable in cases of injury resulting from want of ordinary care.

Consolidation prevented.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 137.)

Art. 4529. It shall be unlawful for any railroad corporation or other corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any railroad corporation, to consolidate the stocks, property, works or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the stocks, property, works or franchises of any other railroad corporation owning or having under its control or management a competing or parallel line; nor shall any officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of such railroad corporation act as or become an officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of any other railroad corporation in leasing or purchasing any parallel or competing line.

Corporation
defined.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4530. Railroad corporation or other corporation, as used in the preceding article, is declared to mean any corporation, company, person or association of persons who own or control, manage or operate any line of railroad in this state.

Consolidation,
etc.

Art. 4531. [4247] No railroad company organized under the laws of this state shall consolidate, by private or judicial sale or otherwise with any railroad company organized under the laws of any other state or of the United States.

Map and profile of road, etc., shall be filed.
P. D. 4904.
(Acts 1893, p.
169.)

Art. 4532. [4248] Each railroad company transacting business in this state that has not heretofore filed a profile of its road in the general land office, in accordance with the provision of article 4248, shall file such profile in the office of the railroad commission; and each railroad company that shall construct any railroad in this state hereafter shall file in the office of said commission a profile of the road constructed. The profiles herein required to be filed in the office of the railroad commission, of roads already completed, shall be filed within three months after the passage of this law, unless in the judgment of the railroad commission the facts warrant the giving of a longer period of time, in which event said commission shall have power to extend the time at their discretion, not to exceed twelve months after the passage of this law.

2. The commissioner of the general land office shall, upon the taking effect of this law, file in the office of the railroad commission the original of all profiles of railroads heretofore filed in said office under article 4248 of the revised civil statutes.

3. Any railroad company failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this act shall forfeit to the state of Texas any sum not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county through which such railway company may pass; and each day such railroad company fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law shall be considered a separate offense.

[Note.—The foregoing article substitutes the original article of same number.]

[Note.—Article 4533 [4249], requiring railroad corporations to file an annual report with the comptroller, was repealed by the act of 1895, p. 85.]

Penalty for neglect to make report.
P. D. 4901.

Art. 4534. [4250] Any such corporation which shall neglect to make such report shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be sued for in the name of the state.

Art. 4535. [4251] All railway companies doing business in this state shall be and they are hereby required to receive from all other railway companies with which they may connect at the state line of this state, or at any place within this state, or at any or all places where they may cross the line of any other railway doing business or operating a line of railway in this state, all freights and passengers coming to it from such connecting line and destined to points on its line, or to points beyond its line or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the next connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against the line from which such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such line for like or similar service against any other railway in or out of this state with which it does business; provided, however, that the words "without delay or discrimination" as used herein are hereby declared to mean that the freight received for transportation as herein required shall be shipped in the order in which it is received, giving preference in all cases to live stock and other perishable freight in the order received, and the charges for the business required by this article to be interchanged shall be no greater pro rata per cent per mile for freight, and no greater rate per mile for passengers and baggage than is charged to any other line for transporting like freight and passengers and baggage, or that it accept for itself when transported wholly on its own line, no matter on what part of the line or in what direction the transporting is done.

To receive freights and passengers from connecting lines. (Acts of 1887, p. 110.)

Art. 4536. [4252] Whenever any two or more railroads doing business in this state shall connect with each other by crossing each other's tracks or otherwise so as to form a continuous or connected line from one point in the state to another point in this state, such lines so crossing are hereby declared to be connecting lines; and when such connecting lines receive from any other railway or transportation line passengers or freight for transportation over the combined line at a rate or division agreed upon between themselves and such other railway or transportation line from which the business is received as aforesaid, then in every such case it shall be the duty of such connecting railways forming such through line, and of either or both of them, to receive from every other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them may connect by crossing of track or otherwise, all passengers or freight that may be destined to points on either of the lines making up such combined line, and transport the same to the point of destination, if on such combined lines or either of them, or to the next connection or crossing in the direction of the destination of such freight or passengers, without delay or discrimination, and at no greater rate than is paid, and on the same conditions as is or shall be required by such combined line for like or similar services from any other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them shall interchange business.

What are connecting lines. Ib.

Art. 4537. [4253] Every railroad or person or corporation operating a railway for the carriage of freight and passengers in this state shall receive freight, passengers and baggage for transportation to or into this state, or through any part thereof, from every other connecting railway, upon the same terms and conditions as to the division of charges for carrying or transporting the same upon a mileage or any other basis, and upon terms and conditions as to bills of lading, way-bills, tickets, coupon tickets and baggage checks, that any such person or corporation or transportation line may receive or contract to receive from any other person or corporation engaged in like business in this state; and where railroads within this state receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be the first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another; and in case of failure to do so they shall be liable for all loss occurring while the goods remain, and for all damage occasioned or in any wise resulting from delay; provided, that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of bill of lading, and as having ended upon the arrival of freight at point of destination, and written notices served upon the consignee that it is ready for delivery upon payment of freight and charges; provided further, that should the consignee of the goods fail to receive them promptly after such notice is served the liability of the railroads thereafter shall be the same as that of warehousemen.

(Acts of 1883,
p. 69.)

Declared to be trustees,
etc.
Ib.

Art. 4538. [4254] Every railway which may interchange business with any other connecting railway under the provisions of this chapter or otherwise, is hereby declared to be a trustee for such connecting railway to the extent of all sums of money received by it for the joint business interchanged between them, and which may properly belong to such other railway. Such sums of money shall be due and payable from one connecting line to the other once every ninety days, and each connecting railway shall have a lien upon the property and franchises of connecting railways to the extent of balances due each quarter, which lien shall be superior to all other liens upon said property and franchises save and except laborers' liens, as already provided by law, and may be enforced in any of the courts of this state having jurisdiction by law of the subject matter and the parties.

Penalty for refusing to receive from connecting lines.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 112.)

Art. 4539. [4255] If any railway company doing business in this state shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any other railway company, or shall fail or refuse to interchange business on the same terms or for the same pro rata that it interchanges business with any other railway company in this state; or shall fail or refuse to honor or receive the tickets, coupon tickets, waybills or baggage checks of any connecting railway upon the same terms and conditions that it receives or honors the tickets, coupon tickets, waybills or baggage checks of any other railway company; or shall violate in any manner any other provisions of this and the four preceding articles, such railway company so offending shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this title, and shall forfeit and pay to the person or corporation aggrieved thereby the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each and every act of discrimination or violation of this law, which may be recovered in a civil action in any of the courts of this state having jurisdiction by law of such an amount, in the name of the person or corporation suing; provided, nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any other damages by and aggrieved person, firm or corporation, occurring by reason of the violation of this or the four preceding articles, nor to relieve any railway company or its officers, managers or agents, from prosecution for violation of any penal law of this state.

Equal facilities to be furnished.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 113.)

Art. 4540. Every railroad company operating a railroad within this state shall furnish reasonable and equal facilities and accommodations, and upon reasonable and equal rates, to all corporations and persons engaged in the express business, for the transportation of themselves, agents, servants, merchandise and other property, and for the use of their cars, depots, buildings and grounds, and for exchanges at points of junction with other roads.

Art. 4541. Any railroad company which shall fail to comply with the provisions hereof, shall be liable to the aggrieved party, in an action on the case, for damages, and such railway company, in addition to liability to said action for damages, shall be subject to a writ of mandamus, to be issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel compliance with the provisions of the preceding article, and the said writ of mandamus shall issue at the instance of any party or corporation aggrieved by a violation hereof, and any violation of said writ shall be punishable as a contempt.

Damages for failure to comply, etc. Ib. §2.

Art. 4542. The passenger fare upon all railroads in this state shall be three cents per mile, with an allowance of baggage to each passenger not to exceed one hundred pounds in weight; provided, however, that where the fare is paid to the conductor, the rate shall be four cents per mile, except from stations where no tickets are sold, and that the minimum charge in no case shall be less than twenty-five cents; and provided further, that when the passenger fare does not end in five or naught, the nearest sum so ending shall be the fare; provided further, that in no case shall children under ten years of age be charged a higher rate of fare than two cents per mile; provided further, railroads shall be required to keep their ticket offices open half an hour prior to the departure of trains, and upon failure to do so they shall not charge more than three cents per mile.

The provisions of this article shall be considered as cumulative of other remedies given to persons having claims against railway corporations.

Road, etc., liable to be sold for debts.
P. D. 4912.

Art. 4549. [4260] In case of the sale of the entire roadbed, track, franchise and chartered right of a railroad company, whether by virtue of an execution, order of sale, deed of trust or any other power, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale and their associates, shall be entitled to have and exercise all the powers, privileges and franchises granted to said company by its charter, or by virtue of the general laws; and the said purchaser or purchasers and their associates shall be deemed and taken to be the true owners of said charter and corporators under the same, and vested with all the powers, rights, privileges and benefits thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were the original corporators of said company; and shall have power to construct, complete, equip and work the road upon the same terms and under the same conditions and restrictions as are imposed by their charter and the general laws.

Art. 4550. In case of any such sale heretofore or hereafter made of the roadbed, track, franchise or chartered right of a railway company or any part thereof as mentioned in article 4549, the purchaser or purchasers thereof and their associates shall be entitled to form a corporation under chapter one of this title, for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating the portion of the road so purchased as if such road or portion of the road were the road intended to be constructed by the corporation, and when such charter has been filed the said new corporation shall have all the powers and privileges conferred by the laws of this state upon chartered railroads, including the power to construct and extend; provided, that notwithstanding such incorporation the portion of the road so purchased shall be subject to the same liabilities, claims and demands in the hands of the new corporation as in the hands of the purchaser or purchasers of the sold out corporation; provided, that by such purchase and organization no rights shall be acquired under any former charter or law in conflict with the provisions of the present constitution in any respect, nor shall the main track of any railroad once constructed and operated be abandoned or removed.

New corporation, in case of sale, may be formed, how. (Acts of 1889, p. 19.)

Art. 4551. No railway company availing itself of any of the privileges herein provided shall claim to be under the jurisdiction of the federal courts by reason thereof, and any railway company which may avail itself of the said privileges which shall claim to be subject to the jurisdiction of the federal courts in pursuance of this article shall ipso facto forfeit its reorganization and be remanded to the same condition as it was prior to said reorganization.

Jurisdiction, etc. Ib. p. 20, §2.

Art. 4552. [4261] Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights and privileges of any railroad company is made by virtue of any deed of trust or power the same shall be made at the time and place mentioned in the deed of trust or power, and in accordance with the provisions of the same as to notice, and in other respects; and if the same be not specified, such sale shall be made as hereinafter provided for sales under execution or order of sale.

Sale under deed of trust, when and where made. P. D. 4913.

Art. 4553. [4262] Whenever judgment is rendered against any railroad company execution shall issue thereon and be levied and collected as in other civil causes, except that when the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of said railroad company is levied upon, the levy and sale must take place in the county where the principal office of such company is situated, and the entire roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of such company shall be levied upon and sold. The provisions of this article shall be observed so far as they are applicable in all cases where, by any decree of a competent court, a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of any railroad company is directed to be made.

Judgment, execution, levy and sale. P. D. 4914.

Unpaid stock subscriptions of stockholders of sold out company. P. D. 4915.

Art. 4554. [4263] The sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be held to pass or convey to the purchaser any right or claim to recover from the former stockholders of said company any sums which may remain due upon their subscriptions of stock, but the said stockholders shall continue liable to pay the same in discharge and liquidation of the debts due by the sold out company, as hereinafter provided.

After sale old directors to be trustees. P. D. 4916.

Art. 4555. [4264] Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges is made as hereinbefore provided (unless other persons shall be appointed by the legislature or by some court of competent authority), the directors or managers of the sold out company at the time of the sale, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be the trustees of the creditors and stockholders of the sold out company, and shall have full powers to settle the affairs of the sold out company, collect and pay the outstanding debts, and divide among the stockholders the money and other property that shall remain after the payment of the debts and other necessary expenses; and the persons so constituted trustees shall have authority to sue by the name of the trustees of such sold out company, and may be sued as such, and shall be jointly and severally responsible to the creditors and stockholders of such company, to the extent of its property and effects that shall come to their hands.

Suits not to abate. Ib.

Art. 4556. [4265] No suit pending for or against any railroad company at the time that the sale may be made of its roadbed, track, franchise and chartered privileges shall abate, but the same shall be continued in the name of the trustees of the sold out company.

This title not to apply to state loans, etc. P. D. 4917.

Art. 4557. [4266] The provisions of this title shall not apply to any debt, execution, or deed of trust held by the state against any railroad company, because of any loan made by the state to any company under the provisions of the act to provide for the investment of the special school fund, or any other law which authorizes the loan of money to railroad companies; nor shall any creditor of any railroad company be allowed to make the state a party to any suit brought for the enforcement of any debt, mortgage or deed of trust or lien on any railroad, or permitted to require the state to foreclose any lien which it may have upon any road, but the lien of the state and its right to enforce the same shall continue as if this title had never been passed, and as if no sale had been made under the provisions of the same.

Forfeiture for failure to build and equip. (Acts of 1889, p. 17.)

Article 4558. [4278] If any railroad corporation organized under this title shall not, within two years after its articles of association shall be filed and recorded as provided in this title, begin the construction of its road and construct, equip and put in good running order at least ten miles of its proposed road; and if any such railroad corporation, after the first two years, shall fail to construct, equip and put in good running order at least twenty additional miles of its road each and every succeeding year until the entire completion of its line, such corporation shall, in either of such cases, forfeit its corporate existence and its powers shall cease as far as relates to that portion of said road then unfinished, and shall be incapable of resumption by any subsequent act of incorporation. The provisions of this article shall not apply to or in any manner affect railway companies incorporated for the construction and operation of urban, suburban and belt railroads for a distance of less than ten miles, as provided in clause two of article 4352, chapter one, of this title; provided, that all such companies shall, within twelve months from the date of their charter, complete a portion of their road and commence and continue the running of cars thereon.

Art. 4559. [4279] The preceding article shall apply as well to branch lines as to main lines of railroad.

Same as to branch lines. (Acts of 1876, p. 143, §7.)
Neglect to make annual report. P. D. 4902.

Art. 4560. [4280] Any railroad corporation which shall neglect to make the annual report to the comptroller required by this title, and which has been notified by the comptroller of such failure, and shall still neglect to make such report, within three months after such notice, shall forfeit its charter.

Article 4561. A railroad commission is hereby created, to be composed of three persons to be appointed by the governor, as follows: If the legislature be in session the governor shall, by and with the advice of the senate, appoint said commissioners, but if the legislature be not in session, the governor shall make such appointments, and each commissioner so appointed shall hold his office until the second Monday after the inauguration of the next succeeding governor and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Each succeeding governor shall on the second Monday after his inauguration, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint said commissioners, who shall each hold his office until the second Monday after the inauguration of the next succeeding governor and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

Railroad commission created, how. (Acts of 1891, p. 55.)

1. The persons so appointed shall be resident citizens of this state, and qualified voters under the constitution and laws, and not less than twenty-five years of age. No person shall be appointed as such commissioner who is directly or indirectly interested in any Qualifications of commissioners.

railroad in this state or out of it, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or in the earnings of any such road; and if such commissioner shall voluntarily become so interested his office shall become vacant; and if any railroad commissioner shall become so interested otherwise than voluntarily, he shall within a reasonable time divest himself of such interest; failing to do this, his office shall become vacant.

Shall hold no other office, etc.

2. No commissioner hereunder shall hold any other office under the government of the United States or of this state or of any other state government; and shall not while such commissioner engage in any occupation or business inconsistent with his duties as such commissioner.

Vacancies.

3. The governor shall fill all vacancies in the office of commissioner by appointment, and the person so appointed shall fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Oath, etc.

4. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said commissioners shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and shall, in addition thereto, swear that he is not directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, nor in the bonds, stock, mortgages, securities, contracts or earnings of any railroad, and that he will to the best of his ability faithfully and justly execute and enforce the provisions of this chapter and all laws of this state concerning railroads, which oath shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Salary.

5. Each of said commissioners shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars, payable in the same manner that salaries of other state officers are paid.

Sessions; may appoint clerks, etc.; their salaries.

The commissioners appointed shall meet at Austin and organize and elect one of their number chairman of said commission. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum to transact business. Said commission may appoint a secretary at a salary of not more than two thousand dollars per annum, and may appoint not more than two clerks at a salary of not more than fifteen hundred dollars per annum each, and such other persons as experts as may be necessary to perform any duty that may be required of them by this chapter. The secretary shall keep full and correct minutes of all the transactions and proceedings of said commission, and perform such duties as may be required by the commission. The commission shall have power to make all needful rules for their government and for their proceedings. They shall be known collectively as "Railroad Commission of Texas," and shall have a seal, a star of five points, with the words "Railroad Commission of Texas" engraved thereon. They shall be furnished with an office in the capitol at Austin, and with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies, and all necessary expenses, to be paid for on the order of the governor.

Expenses.

The commissioners, secretary and clerks shall be entitled to receive from the state their actual necessary traveling expenses, which shall include the cost only of transportation while traveling on the business of the commission, to be paid out on the order of the governor upon an itemized statement thereof, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense, and approved by the commission.

May hold sessions at any place, etc.

Said commissioners may hold sessions at any place in this state when deemed necessary to facilitate the discharge of their duties.

Powers and duties.

Art. 4562. The power and authority is hereby vested in the railroad commission of Texas, and it is hereby made its duty, to adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations to govern and regulate railroad freight and passenger tariffs, the power to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination and extortion in rates of freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads in this state, and to enforce the same by having the penalties inflicted as by this chapter prescribed through proper courts having jurisdiction.

1. The said commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fairly and justly classify and subdivide all freight and property of whatsoever character that may be transported over the railroads of this state into such general and special classes or subdivisions as may be found necessary and expedient. To classify freights.

2. The commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix to each class or subdivision of freight a reasonable rate for each railroad subject to this chapter for the transportation of each of said classes and subdivisions. To fix reasonable rates.

3. The classifications herein provided for shall apply to and be the same for all railroads subject to the provisions of this chapter. Classifications to be uniform.

4. The said commission may fix different rates for different railroads and for different lines under the same management, or for different parts of the same lines if found necessary to do justice, and may make rates for express companies different from the rates fixed for railroads. May fix different rates.

5. The said commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix and establish for all or any connecting lines of railroad in this state reasonable joint rates of freight charges for the various classes of freight and cars that may pass over two or more lines of such railroads. Rates for connecting lines.

6. If any two or more connecting railroads shall fail to agree upon a fair and just division of the charges arising from the transportation of freights, passengers or cars over their lines, the commission shall fix the pro rata part of such charges to be received by each of said connecting lines. Commission to fix when there is disagreement.

7. Until the commission shall make the classifications and schedules of rates as herein provided for, and afterwards if they deem it advisable, they may make partial or special classifications for all or any of the railroads subject hereto, and fix the rates to be charged by such roads therefor; and such classifications and rates shall be put into effect in the manner provided for general classifications and schedules of rates. Old rates to exist until changed by the commission.

8. The commission shall have power and it shall be its duty from time to time, to alter, change, amend or abolish any classification or rate established by it when deemed necessary; and such amended, altered or new classifications or rates shall be put into effect in the same manner as the originals. May alter, abolish, etc.

9. The commission may adopt and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper to hear and determine complaints that may be made against the classifications or the rates, the rules, regulations and determinations of the commission. May adopt rules and regulations.

10. The commission shall make reasonable and just rates of charges for each railroad subject hereto for the use or transportation of loaded or empty cars on its road; and may establish for each railroad or for all railroads alike reasonable rates for the storing and handling of freight and for the use of cars not unloaded after forty-eight hours' notice to the consignee, not to include Sundays. Empty cars.

11. The commission shall make and establish reasonable rates for the transportation of passengers over each or all of the railroads May fix rates for all services.

subject hereto, which rates shall not exceed the rates fixed by law. The commission shall have power to prescribe reasonable rates, tolls or charges for all other services performed by any railroad subject hereto.

Railways to maintain depots, etc.

12. It shall be the duty of each and every railway subject to this chapter to provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at its several stations for the accommodation of passengers, and said depot buildings shall be kept well lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public; and all such roads shall keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for the receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freights handled by such roads; provided, that this shall not be construed as repealing any existing laws on the subject.

Notice to be given when rates fixed.

Art. 4563. Before any rates shall be established under this chapter, the commission shall give the railroad company to be affected thereby ten days' notice of the time and place when and where the rates shall be fixed; and said railroad company shall be entitled to be heard at such time and place, to the end that justice may be done; and it shall have process to enforce the attendance of its witnesses. All process herein provided for shall be served as in civil cases.

May fix rules for all investigations.

1. The commission shall have power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of railroad companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, orders, charges and other acts required of it under this law; provided, no person desiring to be present at any such investigation by said commission shall be denied admission.

May administer oaths, etc.

2. The chairman and each of the commissioners, for the purposes mentioned in this chapter, shall have power to administer all oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents and testimony, and to punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district or county court.

Rates to be held conclusive until, etc.

Art. 4564. In all actions between private parties and railway companies brought under this law, the rates, charges, orders, rules, regulations and classifications prescribed by said commission before the institution of such action shall be held conclusive, and deemed and accepted to be reasonable, fair and just, and in such respects shall not be controverted therein until finally found otherwise in a direct action brought for that purpose in the manner prescribed by articles 4565 and 4566 of this chapter.

When railway dissatisfied, may file petition, etc.

Art. 4565. If any railroad company or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the commission, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rate, rule, charge, classification or order, or to either or all of them, in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, against said commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court, at either of its terms, and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice.

Art. 4566. In all trials under the foregoing article the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. Burden of proof.

Art. 4567. The said commission shall, as soon as the classifications and schedules of rates herein provided for are prepared by them, furnish each railroad subject to the provisions of this chapter with a complete schedule in suitable form, showing the classification of freight made by them and the rates fixed by said commission to be charged by such road for the transportation of each class of freight, and shall cause a certified copy of such classification and schedule of rates to be delivered to each of said railroads at its principal office in this state, if it has such office in this state, and if not, then to any agent of said company in this state, which said schedule, rules and regulations shall take effect at the date which may be fixed by said commission, not less than twenty days. Each of said railroad companies shall cause said schedule to be printed in type of a size not less than pica, and shall have the same posted up in a conspicuous place at each of its depots, so as to be inspected by the public. Said commission may at any time abolish, alter or in any manner amend the said schedules, or abolish or amend any such regulations, and in that event certified copies of the schedules, rules or regulations, showing the changes therein, shall be delivered to each road as herein specified. In all cases where the rates shall not have been fixed by the commission, no changes shall be made except after ten days' notice to and consent of the commission. Railroads to be furnished with schedule of rates fixed.

Art. 4568. Any person, firm, corporation or association, or any mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing association, or any body politic or municipal organization complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any railroad subject hereto, in violation of any law of this state or the provisions of this chapter for which penalty is provided, may apply to said commission in such manner and under such rules as the commission may prescribe; whereupon, if there shall appear to the commission to be any reasonable grounds for investigating such complaint, it shall give at least five days' notice to such railroad of such charge and complaint, and call upon said road to answer the same at a time and place to be specified by the commission. The commission shall investigate and determine such complaint under such rules and modes of procedure as it may adopt. If the commission finds that there has been a violation, it shall determine if the same was willful; if it finds that such violation was not willful, it may call upon said road to satisfy the damage done to the complainant thereby, stating the amount of such damage, and to pay the cost of such investigation; and if the said railroad shall do so within the time specified by the commission there shall be no prosecution by the state; but if said railroad shall not pay said damage and cost within the time specified by said commission, or if the commission finds such violation to be willful, it shall institute proceedings to recover the penalty for such violation and the cost of such investigation. All such complaints shall be made in the name of the state of Texas upon the relation of such complainant. All evidence taken before said commission in the investigation of any such complaint, when reduced to writing and signed and sworn to by the wit- Complainants may apply to commission. Proceedings thereunder.

ness, may be used by either party—the state, complainant or the railroad company—in any proceeding against such railroad involving the same subject matter; provided further, that the commissioners may require the testimony so taken before them to be reduced to writing when they may deem it necessary, or when requested to do so by either party to such proceedings, and a certified copy, under the hand and seal of said commission, shall be admissible in evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such railroad, involving the same subject matter and between the same parties. The provisions of this article shall not abridge nor affect the rights of any person to sue for any penalty that may be due him under the provisions of this chapter or any other law of this state.

May inspect books, etc.
Ib. §10.

Art. 4569. The commissioners, or either of them, or such persons as they employ therefor, shall have the right, at such times as they may deem necessary, to inspect the books and papers of any railroad company and to examine under oath any officer, agent or employe of such railroad in relation to the business and affairs of the same. If any railroad shall refuse to permit the commissioners, or either of them, or any person authorized thereto, to examine its books and papers, such railroad company shall for each offense pay to the state of Texas not less than one hundred and twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each day it shall so fail or refuse; provided, that any person other than one of said commissioners who shall make any such demands shall produce his authority, under the hand and seal of said commission, to make such inspection.

To ascertain cost of railway, etc.
Ib. §11.

Art. 4570. The commission shall ascertain as early as practicable the amount of money expended in construction and equipment per mile of every railway in Texas; the amount of money expended to procure the right of way, and the amount of money it would require to reconstruct the roadbed, track, depots and transportation, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the railroad. It shall also ascertain the outstanding bonds, debentures and indebtedness and the amount respectively thereof, when issued, and rate of interest, when due, for what purpose issued, how used, to whom issued, to whom sold, and the price in cash, property or labor, if any, received therefor, what became of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, the amount purporting to be due thereon, the floating indebtedness of the company, to whom due and his address, the credits due on it, the property on hand belonging to the railroad company, and the judicial or other sales of said road, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid and in what manner paid therefor. The commission shall also ascertain the amounts paid for salaries to the officers of the railroad and the wages paid its employes. For the purpose in this article named, the commission may employ sworn experts to inspect and assist them when needed, and from time to time, as the information required by this article is obtained, it shall communicate the same to the attorney general by report, and file a duplicate thereof with the comptroller for public use, and said information shall be printed from time to time in the annual report of the commission.

Blanks for information to be prepared.
Ib. §12.

Art. 4571. The said commission shall cause to be prepared suitable blanks with questions calculated to elicit all information concerning railroads, and as often as it may be necessary furnish said blanks to each railroad company. Any railroad company receiving from the commission any such blanks shall cause said blanks to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and in case they are unable to answer any question, they shall give a satisfactory reason for their failure; and the said answers, duly sworn to by the proper officer of said company, shall be returned to said commission at its office in the city of Austin within thirty days from the receipt thereof.

1. If any officer or employe of a railroad company shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks as above required, or fail or refuse to answer any questions therein propounded, or give a false answer to any such question, where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or shall evade the answer to any such questions, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined for each day he shall fail to perform such duty after the expiration of the time aforesaid a penalty of five hundred dollars, and the commission shall cause a prosecution therefor in the proper court; and a penalty of a like amount shall be recovered from the company when it appears that such person acted in obedience to its direction, permission or request in his failure, evasion or refusal. Said commission shall have the power to prescribe a system of bookkeeping to be observed by all the railroads subject hereto, under the penalties prescribed in this article.

Penalty for failure to fill out blanks.

Commission to adopt system of book-keeping.

2. The said commission shall make and submit to the governor annual reports containing a full and complete account of the transactions of their office, together with the information gathered by such commission as herein required, and such other facts, suggestions and recommendations as may be by them deemed necessary, which report shall be published as the reports of the heads of departments.

Annual reports.

3. The said commission shall have power, and it is hereby made its duty, to investigate all through freight rates on railroads in Texas; and when the same are, in the opinion of the commission, excessive or levied or laid in violation of the interstate commerce law, or the rules and regulations of the interstate commerce commission, the officials of the railroads are to be notified of the facts and requested to reduce them or make the proper corrections, as the case may be. When the rates are not changed or the proper corrections are not made according to the request of the commission the latter is instructed to notify the interstate commerce commission and to apply to it for relief.

Duty as to through freights.

Art. 4572. The said commission, in making any examination or investigation provided in this chapter, shall have power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses by such rules as they may prescribe. Each witness who shall appear before the commission by order of the commission, at a place outside of the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance one dollar per day and three cents per mile, traveled by the nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said commission, which shall be ordered paid by the comptroller of public accounts upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness, and approved by the chairman of the commission; provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in any railroad in this state or out of it, or who is in any wise interested in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of any such road, or who shall be the agent or employe of such road, or an officer thereof, when summoned at the instance of such railroad; and no witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may have traveled on such free transportation. In case any witness shall fail or refuse to obey such subpoena, said commission may issue an attachment for said witness, directed to any sheriff or any constable of the state of Texas, and compel him to attend before the commission and give his testimony upon such matter as shall be lawfully required by them. If a witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail or refuse to attend or to answer any question propounded to him, and which he would be required to answer if in court, the commission shall have the power to fine and imprison such witness for contempt, in the same manner that a judge of the district court might do under similar circumstances. The claim that any such testimony may tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse such witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding; provided, the commission shall in all cases have the right in its discretion to issue proper process and take depositions instead of compelling personal attendance of witnesses. The sheriff or constable executing any process issued under the provisions of this article or under any other provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the commission, not to exceed fees as now prescribed by law for similar services.

Penalty for extorting.
Ib. §14.

Art. 4573. If any railroad company, subject to this chapter, or its agent or officer, shall hereafter charge, collect, demand or receive from any person, company, firm or corporation a greater rate, charge or compensation than that fixed and established by the railroad commission for the transportation of freight, passengers or cars, or for the use of any car on the line of its railroad, or any line operated by it, or for receiving, forwarding, handling or storing any such freight or cars, or for any other service performed or to be performed by it, such railroad company and its said agent and officer shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

"Unjust discrimination" defined.
Ib. §15.

Art. 4574. If any railroad subject hereto, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device, shall charge, demand, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service, such railroad shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited.

Same.

1. It shall also be an unjust discrimination for any such railroad to make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, or to subject any particular description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice, delay or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

Same.

2. Every railroad company which shall fail or refuse, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commission, to receive and transport without delay or discrimination the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line of railroad, and every railroad which shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commission, fail or refuse to transport and deliver without delay or discrimination any passengers, tonnage or cars, loaded or empty, destined to any point on or over the line of any connecting line of railroad, shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination; provided, perishable freights of all kinds and live stock shall have precedence of shipment.

3. It shall also be an unjust discrimination for any railroad sub- Same. ject hereto to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of like kind of property or passengers for the shorter than for a longer distance over the same line; provided, that upon application to the commission any railroad may in special cases, to prevent manifest injury, be authorized by the commission to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for transporting persons and property, and the commission shall from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated railroad may be relieved from the operations of this provision; provided, that no manifest injustice shall be imposed upon any citizen at intermediate points; provided further, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the commission from making what are known as "group rates" on any line or lines of railroad in this state.

4. Any railroad company violating any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, and shall for each offense pay to the state of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars. Penalty for unjust discrimination.

5. Nothing herein shall prevent the carriage, storage or handling Same. of freight free or at reduced rates for the state, or for any city, county or town government, or for charitable purposes, or to and from fairs and expositions for exhibition thereof, or the free carriage of destitute and indigent persons, or the issuance of mileage or excursion passenger tickets; nor to prevent railroads from giving free transportation to ministers of religion, or free transportation to the inmates of hospitals, eleemosynary and charitable institutions, and to the employes of the agricultural and geological departments of this state, or to peace officers of this state; and nothing herein shall be construed to prevent railroads from giving free transportation to any railroad officers, agents, employes, attorneys, stockholders or directors, or to the railroad commissioners, their secretary, clerks and employes herein provided for, or to any person not prohibited by law; provided, they, or either of them, shall not receive from the state mileage when such pass is used.

Art. 4575. In case any railroad subject to this chapter shall do, Same. cause to be done, or permit to be done any matter, act or thing in this chapter prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing herein required to be done by it, such railroad shall be liable to the person or persons, firm or corporation injured thereby for the damages sustained in consequence of such violation; and in case said railroad company shall be guilty of extortion or discrimination as by this chapter defined, then, in addition to such damages, such railroad shall pay to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county into or through which such railroad may run; provided, that such road may plead and prove as a defense to the action for said penalty that such overcharge was unintentionally and innocently made through a mistake of fact; provided, that any such recovery as herein provided shall in no manner affect a recovery by the state of a penalty provided for such violation. Ib. §17.

Same.
Ib. §18.

Art. 4576. If any railroad, as aforesaid, shall willfully violate any other provision of this chapter, or shall do any other act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any other duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not herein been provided, for every such act of violation it shall pay the state of Texas a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars.

Venue of suits for recovery of penalty.
Ib. §19.

Art. 4577. All of the penalties herein provided, except as provided in article 4575, shall be recovered and suits thereon shall be brought in the name of the state of Texas in the proper court having jurisdiction thereof in Travis county, or in any county to or through which such railroad may run, by the attorney general or under his direction; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the state. In all suits arising under this chapter the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the state under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury of the state.

Certified copies of commission rates to be evidence.
Ib. §20.

Art. 4578. Upon application of any person the commission shall furnish certified copies of any classification, rates, rules, regulations or orders, and such certified copies, or printed copies published by authority of the commission, shall be admissible in evidence in any suit and sufficient to establish the fact that any charge, rate, rule, order or classification therein contained and which may be in issue in the trial, is the official act of the commission. A substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter shall be sufficient to give effect to all the classifications, rates, charges, rules, regulations, requirements and orders made and established by the commission, and none of them shall be declared inoperative for any omission of a technical matter in the performance of such act.

Effect given to classifications, when.

All violations of duty to be reported to attorney-general.
Ib. §21.

Art. 4579. It is hereby made the duty of such railroad commission to see that the provisions of this chapter and all laws of this state concerning railroads are enforced and obeyed, and that violations thereof are promptly prosecuted, and penalties due the state therefor recovered and collected. And said commission shall report all such violations, with the facts in their possession, to the attorney general or other officer charged with the enforcement of the laws, and request him to institute the proper proceedings; and all suits between the state and any railroad shall have precedence in all courts over all other suits pending therein.

Duty to investigate all charges and see that the law is enforced.

1. It shall be the duty of the commission to investigate all complaints against railroad companies subject hereto, and to enforce all laws of this state in reference to railroads. But any two connecting railroads may enter into a contract whereby any part or all of the passengers, freight or cars, empty or loaded, hauled or transported by one and destined to points on or beyond the line of the other, shall be delivered to, received and transported by the other; which contract, however, shall be submitted to the railroad commission for examination and approval, and when so approved shall be binding; but if the said contract be not approved by the commission the same shall be void; provided, that any connecting line delivering freight to the owner or consignee of such freight may be sued by the owner thereof in the county where the freight is delivered for any damage that may be done to such freight in its transportation.

"Road," "railroad," "railroad" companies, etc., defined.

Art. 4580. The terms "road," "railroad," "railroad companies" and "railroad corporations," as used herein, shall be taken to mean and embrace all corporations, companies, individuals and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers (appointed by any court whatsoever) that may now or hereafter own, operate, manage or control any railroad or part of a railroad in this state, and all such corporations, companies and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, as shall do the business of common carriers on any railroad in this state.

1. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed to apply to and affect only the transportation of passengers, freight and cars between points within this state; and this chapter shall not apply to street railways nor suburban or belt lines of railways in or near cities and towns.

Law applies only to railroads in this state.

2. It shall be the duty of the commission to see that, upon every railroad and branch of same carrying passengers for hire in this state, shall run at least one train a day (Sundays excepted) upon which passengers shall be hauled, and the commission shall have no power to relax this provision.

One train a day to be run.

Art. 4581. This law shall not have the effect to release or waive any right of action by the state or any person for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen or may hereafter arise under any law of this state; and all penalties accruing under this chapter shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty; and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this chapter are repealed.

Law cumulative. §23.

DUTIES AND POWERS AS TO EXPRESS COMPANIES.

Art. 4582. The railroad commission of the state of Texas shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix and establish reasonable and just rates of charges for each class or kind of property, money, papers, packages and other things to be charged for and received by each express company on all such property, money, papers, packages and things which by the contract of carriage are to be transported by such express company, between points wholly within this state, which rates or charges may be made to apply to all such companies, and may be changed or modified by said commission from time to time in such manner as may become necessary. Said commission shall have the same power to make and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government and control of such express companies as is or may be conferred upon said commission for the regulation of railroads.

Duties and powers as to express companies. (Acts of 1891, p. 48, §2.)

Art. 4583. Every express company doing business in this state which shall demand or receive a greater compensation than that which may be prescribed and fixed by the said railroad commission for the transportation of any class or kind of property, money, papers, packages or things, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for each offense; provided, that if it shall appear that such violation was not willful, said company shall have ten days to refund such overcharges or damages, in which case the penalty shall not be incurred. And the said commission shall have authority and it shall be its duty to sue for and recover the same in the same manner as may be prescribed by law for like suits against railroad companies.

Guilty of extortion, when. Ib. §3.

Art. 4584. The said commission shall have authority and it shall be its duty to call upon such express companies for reports, and in-

Regulation of issue of stocks, bonds, etc., by railroads vested in state. (Acts 1893, p. 57.)

Article 4584a. Among other things, the power and authority of issuing or executing bonds, or other evidences of debt, and all kinds of stock and shares thereof, and the execution of all liens and mortgages by railroad corporations in this state, are special privileges and franchises, the right of supervision, regulation, restriction, and control of which has always been, is now, and shall continue to be vested in the state government, to be exercised according to the provisions of this and other laws.

Issue of incumbrance above value of the road prohibited; except, etc. Ib.

Art. 4584b. Hereafter no bonds or other indebtedness shall be increased or issued or executed by any authority whatsoever, and secured by lien or mortgage on any railroad or part of railroad, or the franchises or property appurtenant or belonging thereto, over or above the reasonable value of said railroad property; provided, that in case of emergency, on conclusive proof shown by the company to the railroad commission that public interests or the preservation of the property demand it, the said commission may permit said bonds, together with the stock in the aggregate, to be executed to an amount not more than fifty per cent over the value of said property.

Railroad commission to ascertain and report railroad values; proceeding incident thereto. Ib.

Art. 4584c. It shall be the duty of the railroad commission to ascertain, and in writing report to the secretary of state, the value of each railroad in this state, including all its franchises, appurtenances and property. After it shall have prepared said report of value, the commission shall give the company interested ten days notice in writing, by registered letter to the president, treasurer or receiver of said railroad, to the effect that said report is ready to be made, and that if it have any objections thereto it must file them, in writing, within forty days after said service, or the same will be so deposited with the secretary of state as correct. Should the company or its duly authorized representative file with said commission any objections to said report of value, the commission shall duly investigate and pass on the same. On investigation, if the commission conclude that its report of value is too low or too high, then it shall make the necessary correction before filing it. Should no objections be filed within the time permitted, or being filed and on examination found without merit, the commission shall forthwith file its said report in the office of the secretary of state, where it shall remain as a public record, as a limitation for the issuance of indebtedness under the limitations prescribed in article 4584b. To promote public interests and protect private rights, the commission after due notice under the rule herein prescribed, may correct its report of value of any railroad at any time it may deem proper.

Art. 4584d. Every judicial or other sale of any railroad in this state hereafter made, which shall have the effect to discharge the property so sold from liability in the hands of purchasers for claims for damages, unsecured debts, or junior mortgages against such railroad company so sold out, shall have the effect to annul and cancel all claims of every stockholder therein to any share in the stock of such railroad; and it shall not be lawful for said purchasers or for any railroad company organized hereafter to operate said railroad, to issue any stock in lieu of the old stock or to allow any compensation therefor in any manner whatever, nor shall all or any part of the debt to satisfy which such sale is made be continued or held as a claim or lien on said property.

Effect of judicial or other sale of railroad.
Ib.

Art. 4584e. The purchasers of said property who procure it clear of incumbrance, or any company organized by their consent to operate said railroad under and in pursuance of the laws of this state, may issue stock and bonds in the proportion that they may deem advisable, subject to the rules, restrictions and limitations prescribed in articles 4584b, 4584c and 4584d.

Purchasers complying with law may issue bonds, etc.

Art. 4584f. Should any company or corporation authorized to construct, own or operate a railroad in this state desire to issue bonds or other indebtedness, to be secured by lien or other mortgage on its franchises and property, in advance of the completion of the said railroad, it shall make application to and first procure the consent of the railroad commission thereto. In said application it shall exhibit to the commission its contract with the construction company, if it have any; the profile of its completed road or part of road, the evidence of its right of way, depot grounds, terminal facilities; the extent and value of work done or in process of completion; the amount of property received; the amount of stock subscribed and the amount paid in; and all other necessary facts showing the value of the franchises and property proposed as security for said contemplated debts. If, on investigation, the commission is satisfied that the company is acting in good faith, and that its contract with the construction company is reasonable and fair to the public, then it shall authorize the execution of said indebtedness and lien to the extent necessary for the demands of the work, at no time to be more than fifty per cent over the value of the whole property and franchises. In executing said bonds the company shall comply with article 4584g, and have them registered, as required in article 4584h.

Authority to issue bonds before completion of roads must be obtained, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4584g. Each railroad company now existing, or that shall hereafter be organized or that shall be reorganized under the laws of this state, or which shall increase its stock under the laws of this state, shall issue certificates to the subscribers to its said stock under the following regulations: A majority of the board of directors shall meet in person in the state of Texas, at the principal office of such company, and shall cause to be made a list of the subscribers to such stock, showing the number of shares subscribed by each, the amount of stock represented by each share and the amount actually paid, labor done or property received on each share of stock, and shall cause to be affixed to each name on said list a number, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any certificate previously issued. The president of the board or presiding officer of the meeting at which the issuing of such certificates of stock is authorized, shall make a certificate to said statement to the effect that the same is correct, and that the amount of money paid, labor done and property received as stated is correct, and shall sign the same in person. Such statement shall thereupon be entered at large upon the minutes, and after having the seal of the company affixed thereto, shall be attested by the secretary of the company and deposited with the railroad commission, and by it filed and preserved in the office. The secretary of the company shall then be authorized to make out and deliver to each stockholder in said list a certificate corresponding with said statement in number, name, number of shares, amount of stock represented by each share, and the amount of money or its equivalent paid upon each share, which certificate shall be signed by the president of the said railroad company, attested by the secretary, with the seal of said company affixed. No railroad company shall hereafter increase its stock unless all existing shares of stock shall have been paid in full, or all unpaid shares of such stock have been sold out as forfeited under the law. When the certificates to be issued are for increase of stock, the statement herein required to be made by the board of directors shall state that all existing shares of stock have been paid in full or that all shares not paid in full have been sold out or forfeited under the law. In no event shall the stock exceed the value of the railway property, and the correct aggregate amount of stock so issued by each railway company shall be certified to and registered in the office of the secretary of state by or at the instance of the railroad commission.

Ib.

Prerequisites to the issue by railroad companies of bonds, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4584h. Whenever any railroad company in this state shall hereafter desire to make, issue, and sell any bonds or evidences of debt which are to become a lien on its property, it shall comply with the laws of this state regulating the same, and in addition thereto shall have said bonds prepared, signed by the president of the company, and attested by the secretary, with the seal of the company attached thereto. Each bond shall be numbered, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any preceding bond issued by it, and continue consecutively until all are numbered. The bonds shall be dated, made payable at a time not exceeding thirty years from date, and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. The said bonds, when thus prepared, shall be presented to the railroad commission of this state, with a statement in writing, signed and sworn to by the president of said company, showing the amount of the stock of said company, and the amount of outstanding bonds, if any, of said company. If said bonds are such as are permitted under this law, and the railroad commission shall be so satisfied, it shall approve said bonds, and shall issue to the secretary of state a direction to register said bonds, specifying the numbers, dates, and amounts thereof. And said commission shall keep in its office a correct record of the bonds so approved by it, giving the name of the company, the numbers, dates of execution and maturity of the bonds, the amount and rate of interest of each, and the date of approval; provided, that this provision shall not apply to receivers' certificates where the amount does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

Duty of secretary of state.

Art. 4584i. When any such bonds shall be presented to the secretary of state with the direction aforesaid to register, he shall register said bonds by entering a description thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall show the date, number, amount, when due, the rate of interest on each bond, and also the date when the same is registered. The secretary of state shall endorse on each bond, under the seal of his office and his official signature, together with the date thereof, as follows: "This bond is registered under the direction of the railroad commission of Texas." No bond or other evidence of debt hereafter issued by or under the authority of any person, firm, corporation, court, or railroad company, whereby a lien is created on its franchises or property situated in this state, shall be valid or have any force until the same has been registered as required herein.

Art. 4584j. If any railroad company owning or operating a railroad in this state shall hereafter issue or consent to or cause to be issued any bonds or other evidences of debt to be or become a lien on its railroad property so owned or operated, or shall issue any stock not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, such action shall work a forfeiture of the charter of said company, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to forfeit the same.

Forfeiture of charter.
Ib.

Art. 4584k. Every certificate of stock in any railroad company, and every bond and other evidence of debt operating as a lien upon the property of such railroad company, which shall be made, issued or sold without a compliance with this chapter, shall be void.

Certificates,
bonds, etc.,
void.

Art. 4584l. Each and every railroad director, president, secretary or other official who shall knowingly make any false statement upon which to secure the registration of any bond or other evidence of debt as aforesaid, or who shall by false statement knowingly made procure of the railroad commission direction to the secretary of state to register the same, and which shall be by the secretary of state registered, or shall with knowledge of such fraud negotiate or cause to be negotiated any such bond or other security issued in violation of this chapter, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by confinement at hard labor in the state penitentiary for a term of years not less than two nor more than fifteen, and shall likewise be liable to any creditor of such company for the full amount of damages sustained by such wrongful conduct. Venue in such cases shall be in either of the district courts held in Travis county, or in the county where the principal office of the railway company whose property is sought to be so incumbered or affected is located.

Penalties
hereunder;
venue.

Art. 4584m. That nothing in this law, and no act done or performed under or in connection with it, shall be held or construed to bind or make the state of Texas liable to pay or guarantee, in any manner whatsoever, any obligation, debt, or claim executed or assumed under or by virtue of its provisions.

Old records to be transcribed, when and how. (Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 84, §1.)

Article 4585. [4281] It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of any county, when the records or indexes of such county have become or may become defaced, worn, or in any condition endangering their preservation in a safe and legible form, to procure a good and well-bound book or books, as the case may be, and require the county clerk to transcribe, or have transcribed by a sworn deputy, the records contained in such book or books, in a plain, legible hand and with some standard ink of a permanent black color.

Shall conform to the original record and be compared. Ib. §2, 1.

Art. 4586. [4282] The book or books so transcribed shall conform in all respects to the original record as indexed; and the designation of such transcribed book or books, whether by letter or number, shall not be changed from the original, and they shall be carefully compared with the original record by said clerk or sworn deputy so transcribing the same, assisted by some other sworn deputy.

Correctness to be certified to, and effect of same. Ib. §2.

Art. 4587. [4283] When said record or records shall have been found to be truly and correctly transcribed, the county clerk, with the sworn deputies so transcribing and verifying the same, shall certify officially, at the conclusion of the record, with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page to the correctness of the same, reciting the number of pages contained in said book, from one to the highest number; after which said transcribed record or records shall have all the force and effect in judicial proceedings in the courts of the state as the original records.

Original books to be preserved. Ib.

Art. 4588. [4284] The original book or books transcribed according to the provisions of this chapter shall be carefully kept and preserved by such clerk, as other archives of his office.

To what records this chapter shall apply.

Art. 4589. [4285] The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all records belonging to the district court, county court and commissioners' court, including all records used for registration, except the records of the surveyor's office; but the clerk of the district court shall perform all the duties herein required of the county clerk so far as the same appertains to the records of the said district clerk's office; and the records so transcribed by the district clerk shall have the same force and effect as the original records.

Art. 4590. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of any county in this state which may have been created, either in whole or in part from the territory of any other county or counties in this state, or to which may have been added since its creation the territory of any other county or counties in this state, to secure a well-bound book or books, as the case may be, and require the county clerk to transcribe or have transcribed from the record of said other county or counties by a sworn deputy, all the deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title affecting or in any wise relating to all lands and real property which are or may be embraced in the territory so acquired from another county or counties, and which deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title appear of record in said county or counties from which said territory may have been taken as having been there recorded prior to the transfer of territory as aforesaid, and when the acquired territory may have been from more than one county, then the clerk shall provide a separate record book for each county, which said book or books shall be indexed and arranged as is now required for record books in case of deeds and mortgages.

Commissioners' court to have records transcribed, when. (Acts of 1879, p. 105.)

Art. 4591. Said records shall be transcribed in a plain, legible hand, and with some standard ink of a permanent black color, and when so transcribed shall be carefully compared with the original record by the said clerk or sworn deputy so transcribing the same, assisted by some other sworn deputy.

How to be transcribed. Ib. §2.

Art. 4592. When said record or records shall have been found to be truly and correctly transcribed the county clerk, with the sworn deputies so transcribing and verifying the same, shall certify under their official oath of office at the conclusion of the record with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page the correctness of the same, after which said transcribed record or records shall have all the force and effect in judicial proceedings in the courts of this state as the original records.

To have effect of judicial proceedings, when. Ib. §3.

Art. 4593. The county clerk or person making such transcript shall be entitled to compensation therefor at the rate of fifteen cents for one hundred words, and for comparing and verifying the same, payable out of the county treasury upon warrant issued under order of the commissioners' court.

Compensation. Ib. §4.

Art. 4593a. The county commissioners of any county of this state are authorized and empowered to contract with the clerk of the county courts of their respective counties to cause to be translated into the English language, by themselves or their deputies, the archives and records of their offices, or any part thereof, now in the Spanish language, in their official custody, relating to titles to land, and copy said translations in a well bound book or books; provided, that they shall not contract to pay more than fifteen cents per hundred words for both the translation and recording.

Translations may be authorized by commissioners' courts. (Acts of 1893, p. 168.)

Art. 4593b. When said archives and records, now in Spanish, are translated and recorded as hereinbefore provided, said records in English shall have the same force and effect as if the archives and instruments were originally made and recorded in the English language, and certified copies may be used as evidence and otherwise, for like purposes and with like effect as the originals are [and] certified copies of records of the originals can now be used; and said record books hereinbefore provided for shall be and are hereby made permanent archives and records of the county clerks' office of the counties when so translated and recorded.

Effect of such translations, etc. Ib.

Lost records may be supplied by proof, etc. (Act July 13, 1876, p. 45, §1.)

Article 4594. [4286] All deeds, bonds, bills of sale, mortgages, deeds of trust, powers of attorney and conveyances of any and every description which are required or permitted by law to be acknowledged or recorded, and which have been so acknowledged or recorded; and any and every judgment of a court of record in this state, and which record and minutes of court containing such judgment have been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, may be supplied by parol proof of the contents thereof; which proof shall be taken in the manner hereinafter provided.

Proceedings to establish lost records, etc. Ib. §2.

Art. 4595. [4287] Any person having any interest in any such deed, instrument in writing, or any judgment, order or decree in the district court, the record or entry of which has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, may, in addition to any mode now provided by law for establishing the existence of such record and the contents thereof, file with the clerk of the district court of the county where such loss or destruction took place, his written application setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought; whereupon such clerk shall issue a citation to the grantor in such deed, or to the party or parties interested in such instrument of writing, or to the party or parties who were interested adversely to the applicant at the time of the rendition of any such judgment, or who may be now interested, or the heirs and legal representatives of such parties, to appear at a term of the district court to be designated in said citation, and contest the right of the applicant to have any such deed, instrument in writing or judgment substituted and recorded; and service shall be as now provided for process in other cases.

Judgment, etc. Ib.

Art. 4596. [4288] On hearing said application, if the court shall be satisfied from the evidence of the existence of such deed, instrument in writing, record, judgment, order or decree, and of the loss, destruction or carrying away of the same, as alleged by the applicant, and the contents thereof, an order shall be entered on the minutes of the district court to that effect, which order shall contain a description of the lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record, and the contents thereof, and a certified copy of such order may be recorded in the records of the proper county.

Proceedings in the county court.

Art. 4597. [4289] Whenever any judgment, order or decree duly entered in the county court of any county has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, any person interested therein may file his written application with the clerk of the county court to which the original record belonged, setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought, when the same proceedings shall be had and the court shall enter a like judgment as provided in the two preceding articles, so far as applicable.

Effect of judgment, etc. Ib.

Art. 4598. [4290] Whenever such judgment, order or decree rendered in the district or county court shall be duly entered, it shall stand in the place of and have the same force and effect as the original of said lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record; and when duly recorded may be used in evidence in any of the courts of this state with like effect as the original thereof.

Art. 4599. [4291] All certified copies from the records of such county, the record of which has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, and all certified copies from the records of the county or counties from which said county was created, may be recorded in such county; provided, the loss of the original shall first be established.

Certified copies may be recorded.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4600. [4292] When any of the original papers mentioned in the first article of this chapter may have been saved or preserved from loss, the record of said originals having been lost, destroyed or carried away, the same may be recorded again, and this last registration shall have force and effect from the filing for original registration; provided, said originals are recorded within four years next after such loss, destruction or removal of the records; and certified copies from any record authorized by the provisions of this title to be made may be received in evidence in any of the courts of this state in the same manner and with like effect as certified copies of the original record.

Original deeds, etc. recorded again, when.
Ib. §4.
(Acts of 1879, ch. 35, p. 35.)

Art. 4601. [4293] Judgments, orders and decrees when substituted as hereinbefore provided, shall carry all the rights thereunder in every respect as the originals, especially preserving the liens from the date of the originals, and giving the parties the right to issue executions under the substituted judgments as under the originals.

Judgments shall have force of originals.

Art. 4622. [4314] The proof of any instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by one or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before some officer authorized to take such proof, and stating on oath that he or they saw the grantor or person who executed such instrument subscribe the same, or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his or their presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein stated, and that he or they had signed the same as witnesses at the request of the grantor or person who executed such instrument; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his official seal.

Proof of instrument by witness.
(Act May 12, 1846, §8.)
P. D. 5008.

Witness must be personally known to officer.
 Ib. §10.
 P. D. 5010.

Art. 4623. [4315] The proof by a subscribing witness must be by some one personally known to the officer taking the proof to be the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a witness, or must be proved to be such by the oath of a credible witness, which fact shall be noted in the certificate.

Form of certificate of proof by witness.

Art. 4624. [4316] The certificate of the officer, where the execution of the instrument is proved by a witness, must be substantially in the following form:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me, _____ [here insert the name and character of the officer], on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____), to be the person whose name is subscribed as a witness to the foregoing instrument of writing, and after being duly sworn by me stated on oath that he saw _____, the grantor or person who executed the foregoing instrument, subscribe the same (or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed), and that he had signed the same as a witness at the request of the grantor [or person who executed the same].

“Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D. ____.

“_____.”

Handwriting may be proved, when.

Art. 4625. [4317] The execution of an instrument may be established for record by proof of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one of the subscribing witnesses in the following cases:

1. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are dead.
2. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are non-residents of this state.
3. When the place of their residence is unknown to the party desiring the proof, and can not be ascertained.
4. When the subscribing witnesses have been convicted of felony, or have become of unsound mind, or have otherwise become incompetent to testify.
5. When all the subscribing witnesses to an instrument are dead or are non-residents of this state, or when their residence is unknown, or when they are incompetent to testify, and the grantor in such instrument refuses to acknowledge the execution of the same for record.

Evidence must prove, what.

Art. 4626. [4318] The evidence taken under the preceding article must satisfactorily prove to the officer the following facts:

1. The existence of one or more of the conditions mentioned therein; and,
2. That the witness testifying knew the person whose name purports to be subscribed to the instrument as a party, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
3. That the witness testifying personally knew the person who subscribed the instrument as a witness, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
4. The place of residence of the witness testifying.

Proof, how made when grantor made his mark. (Act March 6, 1863, §1.)
 P. D. 5009.

Art. 4627. [4319] When the grantor or person who executed the instrument signed the same by making his mark, and when also any one or more of the conditions mentioned in article 4625 exists, the execution of any such instrument may be established by proof of the handwriting of two subscribing witnesses and of the place of residence of such witnesses testifying.

Art. 4628. [4320] The proof mentioned in the three preceding articles must be made by the deposition or affidavit of two or more disinterested persons in writing; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, and sign and seal the same with his official seal, which proofs and certificate shall be attached to such instrument.

Proofs, how made and certified.
Ib.
P. D. 5009.

Art. 4629. [4321] Officers authorized to take the proof of instruments of writing under the provisions of this chapter are also authorized in such proceedings—

Officers are authorized to administer oath, etc.

1. To administer oaths or affirmations.
2. To employ and swear interpreters.
3. To issue subpoenas.
4. To punish for contempt as hereinafter provided.

Art. 4630. [4322] Upon the sworn application of any person interested in the proof of any instrument required or permitted by law to be recorded, stating that any witness to the instrument refuses to appear and testify touching the execution thereof, and that such instrument can not be proved without his evidence, any officer authorized to take the proof of said instrument shall issue a subpoena requiring such witness to appear and testify before such officer touching the execution of such instrument.

Subpoena shall issue, when. (Act Feb. 9, 1860, §1.)
P. D. 5020.

Art. 4631. [4323] When such witness shall fail to appear in obedience to such subpoena said officer shall have the same power to enforce his attendance and to compel his answers on oath touching the execution of such instrument as a judge of the district court has to compel the attendance and answers of witnesses; provided, that an attachment shall in no case issue without the same compensation is made or tendered to each witness as is allowed to witnesses in other cases; and provided further, that no witness shall be required to go beyond the limits of the county of his residence unless he shall, for the time being, be found in the county where the execution of such instrument is sought to be proved for registration.

May compel attendance and answers of witness.

Art. 4632. [4324] All officers authorized or permitted by law to take the acknowledgment or proof of any deed, bond, mortgage, bill of sale or any other written instrument required or permitted by law to be placed on record shall procure a well-bound book, in which they shall enter and record a short statement of each acknowledgment or proof taken by them, which statement shall be by them signed officially.

Statement of acknowledgment, etc., to be recorded. (Act April 28, 1874, p. 155, §1.)
P. D. 7418b.

Art. 4633. Patents and grants may be recorded without proof.

Article 4637. [4329] Letters patent from the state of Texas, or any grant from the government, executed and authenticated pursuant to existing law, may be recorded without further acknowledgment or proof.

Copies of archives recorded.
 (Act Jan. 19, 1839, §2.)
 P. D. 4984.

Art. 4638. [4330] Copies of all deeds, transfers or any other written evidence of title to land which have been filed in the general land office, in accordance with law, or copies when the originals remain in the public archives, and were executed in conformity with the laws existing at their dates, duly certified by the officers having lawful custody thereof, shall be admitted to record in the county where such land lies.

What may be recorded.
 (Act May 12, 1846, §4.)
 P. D. 5004.

Art. 4639. [4331] The following instruments of writing, which shall have been acknowledged or proved according to law, are authorized to be recorded, viz: All deeds, mortgages, conveyances, deeds of trust, bonds for title, covenants, defeasances or other instruments of writing concerning any lands or tenements, or goods and chattels, or movable property of any description.

All sales, etc., to be void as to creditors and purchasers, unless registered.
 (Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 69, §4.)
 P. D. 4988.

Art. 4640. [4332] All bargains, sales and other conveyances whatever, of any lands, tenements and hereditaments, whether they may be made for passing any estate of freehold or inheritance or for a term of years; and deeds of settlement upon marriage, whether land, money or other personal thing; and all deeds of trust and mortgages whatsoever, which shall hereafter be made and executed, shall be void as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless they shall be acknowledged or proved and filed with the clerk, to be recorded as required by law; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to all subsequent purchasers, with notice thereof or without valuable consideration, shall nevertheless be valid and binding.

Art. 4641. [4333] All deeds, conveyances, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other written contracts relating to real estate, which are authorized to be recorded, shall be recorded in the county where such real estate or a part thereof is situated; provided, that all such instruments, when relating to real estate situated in an unorganized county, shall be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, in a well-bound book, or books, to be kept for that purpose, separately from the records of the county to which it is attached and from other unorganized counties; and it shall be the duty of the clerk or other officer having the custody of such books, when such unorganized county shall be organized, or has been detached therefrom and attached to another county for judicial purposes, to deliver such book, or books, without charge, to the proper officer of such newly organized county, or of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes, when demanded by him; and where such records have been heretofore kept in separate books, they shall also be delivered in like manner as above, and in each case the same shall become archives of the county to which it is so delivered. Where such records have not heretofore been kept separately, upon the organization or attachment of such unorganized county to another organized county, a certified transcript from the records of such instruments so recorded shall be obtained by such new clerk or officer, and when so made the same shall in like manner become archives of such newly organized county, or county to which such unorganized county may be attached, as the case may be.

Deeds, etc., to be recorded in county where land is situated. (Acts of 1887, p. 94.)

Art. 4642. [4334] Every conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage in this chapter mentioned, or certified copies of any such original conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage copied from the deed or mortgage records of any county in the state where the same has been regularly recorded, although the land mentioned may not have been situated in the county where such instrument was recorded, and which shall have been acknowledged, proved or certified according to law, may be recorded in the county where the land lies, and when delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded shall take effect and be valid as to all subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to all creditors from the time when such instrument shall have been so acknowledged, proved or certified and delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only; provided, however, that all certified copies filed and recorded under the provisions of this article shall take effect and be in force from the time such certified copy was filed for record; and provided further, that nothing in this shall be construed to make valid any instrument which was at the time of its execution from any cause invalid.

Deed, etc., valid against subsequent creditors from, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 157.) P. D. 4994.

Art. 4643. [4335] No covenant or agreement made in consideration of marriage shall be good against a purchaser for a valuable consideration, or any creditor not having notice thereof, unless such covenant or agreement shall be duly acknowledged or proven and recorded in manner and form as provided by law for deeds and other conveyances.

Marriage contract, when valid. (Acts of 1887, p. 94, §2.) P. D. 4987.

Art. 4644. [4336] Each recorder shall also record in books to be provided for that purpose all marriage contracts and powers of attorney, and all official bonds required to be recorded in his office, Recorder shall record, etc. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 236, §5.) P. D. 5005.

and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office, which shall be proved or acknowledged according to law and delivered to him for record.

Copies from land office to be recorded.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 5006.
Judgments to be recorded,
when.
Ib.
P. D. 5006.

Art. 4645. [4337] Each recorder shall record all copies of titles recorded in the general land office presented for record; provided, such copies are attested with the seal of the general land office.

Art. 4646. [4338] Each recorder shall also record all judgments and abstracts of judgments rendered by any court of this state presented to him for record; provided, such judgments or abstracts of judgments are attested under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court where such judgment was obtained.

Transfers of judgment to be recorded,
etc.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 103.)

Art. 4647. The sale of a judgment or any part thereof of any court of record within this state, or the sale of any cause of action or interest therein after suit has been filed thereon, shall be evidenced by a written transfer, which when acknowledged in the manner and form required by law for the acknowledgment of deeds may be filed with the papers of such suit, and when thus filed by the clerk it shall be his duty to make a minute of said transfer on the margin of the minute book of the court where such judgment of said court is recorded, or if judgment be not rendered when said transfer is filed, the clerk shall make a minute of such transfer on the court trial docket where the suit is entered, giving briefly the substance thereof, for which services he shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying therefor, and this article shall apply to any and all judgments, suits, claims and causes of action, whether assignable in law and equity or not. When said transfer is duly acknowledged, filed and noted as aforesaid, the same shall be full notice and valid and binding upon all persons subsequently dealing with reference to said cause of action or judgment, whether they have actual knowledge of such transfer or not.

Judgment in justice courts,
how recorded.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 133.)

Art. 4648. Whenever land is sold under execution or order for sale issuing out of a justice court in this state, upon the application of any party interested in said land, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace having the custody of the execution and judgment upon which said execution issued to make from said records a complete transcript of said judgment and the execution issued thereon and levied on land, together with the levy and return of the officer executing the same thereon indorsed, and to certify to the correctness thereof officially; then said transcript shall be admitted to record in the county where the land is situated in the same manner in which deeds are recorded and with like effect, which said transcript or certified copy thereof, under the hand and seal of the county clerk of the county where said transcript has been recorded, shall be admitted in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner and with like effect that the original judgment and execution with indorsements thereon would have if offered.

Partition to be recorded.
(Act Feb. 9,
1860, p. 75, §4.)
P. D. 5023.

Art. 4649. [4339] Every partition of any tract of land or lot, made under any order or decree of any court, and every judgment or decree by which the title of any tract of land or lot is recovered shall be duly recorded in the clerk's office of the county court in which such tract of land or lot or part thereof may lie, and until so recorded, such partition, judgment or decree shall not be received in evidence in support of any right claimed by virtue thereof.

Decree may be abbreviated.
Ib.

Art. 4650. [4340] It shall not be necessary in the cases mentioned in the preceding article to record the proceedings or the decree rendered in such cases in full, but a brief statement by the clerk of the court in which the same is made, under his hand and seal, setting forth the case in which the partition or decree was made, and the date thereof, and the names of the parties in the suit or partition, and the particular land or lot lying in the county in which the record is made and the name of the party to whom the same is decreed, shall be deemed and held to be a sufficient record of such partition, judgment or decree.

Art. 4651. [4341] Every deed, mortgage or other writing respecting the title of personal property hereafter executed, which, by law, ought to be recorded, shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court of that county in which the property shall remain, and if afterward the person claiming title under such deed, mortgage or other writing shall permit any other person in whose possession such property may be to remove with the same or any part thereof out of the county in which the same shall be recorded, and shall not, within four months after such removal, cause the same to be recorded in the county to which such property shall be removed, such deed, mortgage or other writing for so long as it shall not be recorded in such last mentioned county, and for so much of the property aforesaid as shall have been removed, shall be void as to all creditors and purchasers thereof for valuable consideration without notice.

Title to chattels, where recorded. (Act Feb. 5, 1840, §12.) P. D. 4993.

Art. 4652. [4342] The record of any grant, deed or instrument of writing authorized or required to be recorded, which shall have been duly proven up or acknowledged for record and duly recorded in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such grant, deed or instrument.

P. D. 5018.

Article 4660. [4350] If any recorder to whom any instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, and proved or acknowledged according to law, which shall be delivered for record, shall neglect or refuse to make an entry thereof, or give receipt therefor, as required by law, or shall neglect or refuse to record such instrument of writing within a reasonable time after receiving the same, or shall record any instrument of writing affecting the same property, or any part thereof, before another first deposited in his office and entitled to be recorded, or shall record any such instrument incorrectly, or shall neglect or refuse to provide and keep in his office such indexes as required by law, he shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered on motion in the district court, one-half to the use of the county, and the other half to the use of the person who shall sue for the same, such clerk having three days' notice of such motion, and shall also be liable to the party for all damages he may have sustained thereby, to be recovered by suit on the official bond of such recorder, given by him as the clerk of the county court, against such clerk and his sureties.

Art. 4661. [4351] The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form or record of any conveyance or other instrument heretofore made, executed, acknowledged, proved or recorded, shall not be affected by anything contained in this title, but shall depend for its validity and legality upon the laws in force when the act was performed.

Conveyances heretofore made to be governed by the then existing laws.

Art. 4662. [4352] All conveyances of real property heretofore made and acknowledged or proved, according to the laws in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence, and may be recorded in the same manner and with the like effect as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of this title.

Recording, and as evidence, to be governed by the then existing laws.

Art. 4663. [4353] When the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of any instrument in writing may be properly made, but defectively certified, any party interested may have an action in the district court to obtain a judgment correcting the certificate.

Party may have action to correct error where certificate is imperfect.

Art. 4664. [4354] Any person interested under any instrument in writing entitled to be proved for record may institute an action in the district court against the proper parties to obtain a judgment proving such instrument.

May obtain judgment of proof of any instrument.

Art. 4665. [4355] A certified copy of the judgment in a proceeding instituted under either of the two preceding articles, showing the proof of the instrument, and attached thereto, shall entitle such instrument to record, with like effect as if acknowledged.

Effect of judgment in such action.

Art. 4666. [4356] Any grant, deed or other instrument of writing for the conveyance of real estate or personal property, or both, or for the settlement thereof in marriage, or separate property, or conveyance of the same in mortgage, or trust to uses, or on conditions, as well as any and every other deed or instrument required or permitted by law to be registered, and which shall have been prior to the ninth day of February, 1860, registered or recorded, shall be held to have been lawfully registered, with the full effect and consequences of existing laws; provided, the same shall have been acknowledged by the grantor or grantors before any chief justice, or associate justices, or clerk of the county court, or notary public in any county within the late republic or the now state of Texas, or judge of the department of Brazos, or any primary judge, or judge of the first instance in 1835 or 1836, or proven before any such officer by one or more of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and certified by such officer, whether such acknowledgment or proof shall have been made before any such officer of the county where such instrument should have been recorded or not.

Record of certain titles confirmed. (Act Feb. 9, 1860, §2.) P. D. 5021.

Art. 4667. [4357] All such instruments which shall have been acknowledged or proven before any officer named in the preceding article, and which shall have been afterward recorded in the proper county, or certified copies thereof, shall be evidence in the courts, as full and sufficient as if such acknowledgment had been taken or proof made in accordance with existing laws; but this article and the article preceding shall not be construed so as to affect or bind, in any manner, any person or party with constructive notice of the existence of any deed or other instrument of writing as a recorded deed or instrument, except after the ninth day of February, 1860, and in the future.

Shall be evidence, when. Ib. §3. P. D. 5022.

Art. 4668. [4358] Where an instrument in writing has been duly registered in the proper county, and any property conveyed or incumbered by such instrument shall fall within another county subsequently created, the prior registration shall not be deemed to be thereby invalidated or in any manner affected, but shall still continue to be equivalent to an actual notice of its contents to all persons whomsoever, and it shall be the duty of the county court of the new county (and at the expense thereof) to cause a transcript of the record of all such instruments to be made and duly certified and deposited in the recorder's office of said new county, for public inspection, and indexes of the same to be made.

Attachments to be recorded,
when.
(Acts of 1839,
p. 80.)

Art. 4669. Whenever an attachment is levied upon real estate the officer levying the writ shall immediately file with the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate so levied upon is situated, a copy of the writ, together with a copy of so much of his return as relates to the land in said county. Said clerk shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose, the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in attachment, the amount of the debt and the return of the officer in full. Should the writ of attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated, the court in which the attachment suit is pending shall cause a certified copy of said order to be sent to the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate levied upon is situated. Said clerk shall, upon the receipt of the same, enter in the book aforesaid the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and record the order of the court in full. If the real estate levied upon is situated in any county other than the one in which the suit is pending, then, in case of failure to make the record aforesaid, the attachment lien shall not be valid against subsequent purchasers for value and without notice and subsequent lienholders in good faith. The county clerk of every county in this state shall keep a well-bound book for the record of the matters aforesaid, and shall keep a direct and reverse index thereto in which shall be entered the names of all the plaintiffs and defendants in the various attachments recorded by him, and the order of the court aforesaid shall be indexed in the same manner, and certified copies of such records shall be admissible in lieu of the original writ and entries. Clerks of the county court shall receive the same fees for recording the matter herein provided for as they are now allowed by law for recording deeds, to be paid by the plaintiff, and said fees to be taxed as a part of the costs in the case in which the attachment is issued and paid and collected as other costs. Sheriffs shall receive a fee of one dollar for making the copy and return herein provided for, to be taxed and collected as other costs in the suit.

Article 4670. [4359] All public roads and highways that have heretofore been laid out and established agreeably to law, except such as have been discontinued, are hereby declared to be public roads.

What roads are declared to be public. (Act July 29, 1876, p. 64, §6.)

Art. 4671. [4360] The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall have full powers and it shall be their duty to order the laying out and opening of public roads when necessary, and to discontinue or alter any road whenever it shall be deemed expedient as hereinafter prescribed.

Commissioners' courts to open, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 21.)

Art. 4672. No public roads shall be altered or changed except for the purpose of shortening the distance from the point of beginning to the point of destination, unless the court upon a full investigation of the proposed change finds that the public interest will be better served by making the change; that said change shall be by unanimous consent of all the commissioners elected.

Shall not be changed, except, etc. Ib.

Art. 4673. In all cities and incorporated towns in the state of Texas in which from any cause there is not a de facto municipal government in the active discharge of their official duties, the commissioners' court of the county in which such city or incorporated town is situated shall assume and have control of the streets and alleys thereof, and shall have the same worked under the law and regulations for the working of public roads, and such streets and alleys for the purposes of this article shall be held and denominated public roads; provided, that all residents of any city or town, having no de facto city government, not otherwise exempt from road duty, shall be liable to road service as in other cases.

Roads in towns and cities where no incorporation. (Acts of 1885, p. 25.)

First class roads from county site to county site. (Acts of 1884, p. 63, §1.)

Art. 4674. The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall see that at least one first-class road of the width prescribed by law is laid out and opened from the county seats of their respective counties on the most direct and practicable route to the lines of their county in the direction of the county seats of each adjacent county, where no part of another county intervenes between the county seats of such counties; or if a border county, to meet the nearest road to the border; and if any adjacent county is not organized, then in the direction of the center of such county. And the commissioners' court of a county to which one or more unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall lay out and open at least two first-class roads sixty feet in width through the extent of each such unorganized county to intersect at right angles as nearly as may be at the center of the county, and to meet at the county lines similar roads of the adjacent counties. In counties now having public roads substantially complying with the preceding requirement as to course, the court shall be required only to give such roads the width of sixty feet and clear them of obstructions; such roads, however, shall not be laid out across orchards, yards, lots or graveyards, or within one hundred feet of a residence, without the consent of the owner; provided, that this law shall not apply to counties where there already exists a sufficiency of public roads.

Jury of view to be appointed. Ib. §2.

Art. 4675. It shall be the duty of each commissioners' court on their own motion to appoint a jury of view to lay out the roads required in the preceding article, and to mark and define them, and to report in writing such marks and any prominent natural objects that may aid in defining the route selected. And upon the report of the jury of view such roads shall be declared public highways of the first-class, and the court shall order the overseer to open the same, and where the country is open prairie to plow a furrow on each side of the road and establish monuments at convenient intervals.

Damages, how assessed. Ib. §3.

Art. 4676. If damages are claimed by any owner of land so appropriated for public highways, or by any person where inclosed premises are crossed, a jury to assess such damages shall be appointed as now provided in article 4690 of the Revised Statutes.

When damages are excessive, etc. Ib. §4.

Art. 4677. If the damages assessed be excessive, the court may appoint another jury to assess them, and upon the second report, if the damages are deemed excessive, the court may change the road so as to avoid the property so greatly damaged; provided, such change will not divert the road more than one-quarter of a mile from a direct line; provided further, that in all cases where the owner or owners of lands over which such roads shall pass shall have the right of appeal to the district court where the same shall be tried (by first giving a bond in a sufficient amount to cover all costs), and if a greater amount of damages is there obtained the county shall pay the excess and the costs, but if no greater damages are obtained the party taking the appeal shall pay all costs; provided, that such appeal shall in no case delay or prevent the immediate opening of such road after the damages assessed as above have been tendered.

Owners of inclosed lands shall have nine months, etc. Ib. §5.

Art. 4678. Persons through whose inclosed premises such roads are laid out shall have nine months to remove and adapt their fences to the road. Where the county is unorganized the owners of fences shall not be required to remove them until such county shall become organized, and not then until fifty residents of such county shall petition the commissioners' court for the removal of such fences; provided, that at all times the owners of such fences shall have at the crossing of such road convenient gates not less than twelve feet wide.

Art. 4679. The juries of view and the juries to assess damages shall, for the organized counties, be allowed such compensation as is now provided by law; and for the unorganized counties the sum of two dollars per day for the actual time employed, and five cents per mile for the actual distance traveled to mark and lay out the road or to assess the damages, which amounts, on sworn accounts, shall be paid out of the respective county funds. And any person summoned as a viewer as provided in this chapter who shall fail or refuse to perform the service required of him by law as such viewer shall be fined for contempt by the commissioners' court for every such failure not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, to be collected as other fines are collected; provided, that all reasonable excuses shall be heard.

Compensation
of jurors.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4680. Where there are no persons in the unorganized counties to act or willing to serve on the jury of view or jury to assess damages, the court shall designate citizens of their own county to perform the service.

In organized counties, etc.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4681. Nothing in the preceding articles shall be construed to prohibit the opening of other roads as is now provided by law. Roads laid out under the provisions of article 4674 shall not be changed except for the purpose of securing a better and more direct route, and then only after an actual view by a majority of the commissioners' court of that portion of the road sought to be changed.

Such roads to be changed,
when.
Ib. §8.

Art. 4682. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts to classify all public roads in their countries into first, second and third class roads, and to act as supervisors of roads in their respective precincts, as hereinafter provided, and commissioners' courts may, on their own motion, where it is deemed necessary, open new roads or straighten existing ones.

To classify all public roads.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 20.)

Art. 4683. [4362] First class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than forty feet nor more than sixty feet wide; all stumps over six inches in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off, all stumps six inches and under to be cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least sixteen feet wide.

First class
roads.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4684. [4363] Second class roads shall be clear of all obstructions and not less than thirty feet wide; stumps six inches and over in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off; and all stumps less than six inches in diameter to be cut smooth with the ground; all causeways to be made at least sixteen feet wide.

Second class
roads.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4685. [4364] Third class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than twenty feet wide; stumps six inches and over in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off; all stumps less than six inches in diameter to be cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least twelve feet wide.

Third class
roads.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4686. [4365] The commissioners' court shall in no instance grant an order on an application for any new road, or to discontinue an original one, unless the persons making application therefor, or

Application for new road, etc., shall not be granted until notice has been given,
etc.
Ib. §6.

some one of them, shall have given at least twenty days' notice by written advertisement of their intended application, posted up at the court house door of the county and at two other public places in the vicinity of the route of the proposed new road, or the road proposed to be discontinued.

Application,
how made.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 20.)

Art. 4687. All applications for a new road, and all applications to discontinue an existing one, shall be by petition to the commissioners' court, signed by at least eight freeholders in the precinct or precincts in which such road is desired to be made or discontinued, specifying in such petition the beginning and termination of such road proposed to be opened or discontinued; provided, that where one or more persons live within an inclosure either or all of them may petition the commissioners' court for a third class road or neighborhood road to their nearest trading points, mills, gins, school and church houses and county seats, and the courts shall open such roads, as hereinafter provided in the opening of third class roads; and provided further, that no part of a public road shall be discontinued unless a new road connecting that part of such road not discontinued shall first be opened; and provided further, that no part of a first or second class road shall be reduced to a road of a lower class.

How laid out.
Ib.

Art. 4688. [4367] All roads hereafter ordered to be made shall be laid out by a jury of freeholders of the county to be appointed by the commissioners' court. Said jury shall consist of five persons, a majority of whom may proceed, with or without the county surveyor, as ordered by the commissioners' court, to lay out, survey and describe such road to the greatest advantage to the public, and so that the same can be traced with certainty; and the field notes of such survey or description of the road shall be included in the report of the jury; and, if adopted, shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners' court.

Oath of jury.
Ib.

Art. 4689. [4368] The jurors provided for in the preceding article shall, before proceeding to act as such, take the following oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to-wit:

"I, ———, do solemnly swear that I will lay out the road now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed from the commissioners' court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my skill and knowledge, so help me God."

Duty of jury to perform the work and report.
Ib.

Art. 4690. [4369] It shall be the duty of such jurors, when qualified as provided in the preceding article, to proceed to lay out and mark the road in accordance with the order of the court and the law, and to report their proceedings in writing to the next regular term of the commissioners' court.

Notice to owner.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 21.)

Art. 4691. The jury of freeholders provided for in article 4688 shall issue a notice in writing to the land owners through whose lands such proposed road may run, or to his agent or attorney, of the time when they will proceed to lay out such road, or when they will assess the damages incidental to the opening of the same, which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day therein named. If such owner is a non-resident of the county the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants as to actions in the district or county court, and the road may be established after four weeks' publication, the cost of publishing to be paid as directed by judgment of the court.

Art. 4692. The owner of any such land may, at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a statement in writing of the damages claimed by him, if any, incidental to the opening of such road, and thereupon the jury shall proceed to assess the damages, returning their assessment and the claimant's statement with their report, to the commissioners' court.

Statement by owner of damages.
Ib.

Art. 4693. [4372] If the commissioners' court shall approve of the report and order such road to be opened, they shall consider the assessment and damages by the jury and the claimant's statement thereof, and allow to such owner just damages and adequate compensation for the land taken, and when paid or secured by deposit with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner they may proceed to have such road opened. If the owner of the land is not satisfied with the assessment by the commissioners' court he may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal from judgment of justice's court, but such appeal shall not prevent the road from being opened, but shall be only to fix the amount of damages. If no claim of damages is filed with such jury after notice as provided in the preceding article the same shall be considered as waived.

If report approved, damages to be paid, etc.

Art. 4694. [4373] If, in the judgment of the commissioners' court, from the report of the commissioners named in the two preceding articles, the road should be deemed of sufficient importance, the court may order the survey or opening of the same; but the court shall first order the payment of the damages assessed, if any, by the commissioners of view to be made to the owner of the land out of the county treasury, and the county treasurer shall have paid the same or secured its payment by a special deposit of the amount in his office, subject to the order of such owner, and shall notify such owner by mail or otherwise of such deposit.

Court may order opening of road, but damages assessed must be first paid, etc. (Acts of 1876, p. 64.)

Art. 4695. [4374] If no objection be filed, upon the report of a jury appointed upon an application to open a new road, the court shall proceed to establish and classify such road and order the opening out of the same, and shall appoint an overseer and apportion hands for the same, as in other cases.

Road shall be established, etc., if no objection be made.
Ib. §13.

Art. 4696. The commissioners' court may alter or change the course of any public road, in accordance with article 4672 of this chapter, after notice and upon application in the same manner as provided in this chapter for the discontinuance of a road, except that the application need not be signed by more than one freeholder of the precinct in which such alteration or change is proposed to be made.

May change roads, when.

Art. 4697. [4376] When juries of view are appointed it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to make out copies of the order appointing them in duplicate, and to deliver such copies to the sheriff of the county within ten days after such order of appointment was made, indorsing on such copies the date of such order.

Duty of clerk when jury of view is appointed.
Ib. §14.

Art. 4698. [4377] The sheriff receiving such copies shall serve the same upon the jurors by delivering to each of them in person a copy of the order of appointment provided for in the preceding article, or by leaving one of said copies at the usual place of abode of such juror. Service shall be made within twenty days after the sheriff receives said copies, and he shall make his return to the clerk on the duplicate copies, stating the date and manner of service, or if service has not been made, stating the cause of his failure to make the same.

Service of order of appointment on juror.
Ib.

Defaulting juror shall be punished, how.
Ib.

Art. 4699. [4378] Any juror of view, summoned as such, who shall fail or refuse to perform the service required of him by law as such juror, shall forfeit and pay for every such failure the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by judgment on motion of the district or county attorney, in the name of the county, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which such defaulter may reside.

Roads on lines.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 22.)

Art. 4700. For the further and better providing for public roads, any lines between different persons or owners of land, any section line, or any direct line through an inclosure containing twelve hundred and eighty acres of land or more, may, upon the conditions provided for in the following articles of this chapter, be declared public highways, and left open and free from all obstructions for fifteen feet on either side of said lines, but the marked trees and other objects used to designate said lines, and the corners of surveys, shall not be removed or defaced.

Ten freeholders may make an application for.
(Acts of 1876,
p. 65.)

Art. 4701. [4380] Whenever ten freeholders may desire the boundary lines between different persons or owners of land to be declared a public highway, in order to give them a nearer, better or more practicable road to their church, county seat, mill, timber or water, they may apply to the commissioners' court for an order establishing such road.

Requisites of application.
Ib.

Art. 4702. [4381] The application provided for in the preceding article shall be in writing, and shall be signed and sworn to by the applicants. It shall designate the lines sought to be opened, and the names and residences of the persons or owners to be affected by such proposed road, and shall state the facts which show a necessity for such road.

Clerk shall issue notice.
Ib.

Art. 4703. [4382] Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue a notice reciting the substance thereof, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon the owners of the land, naming them, whose lines are proposed to be left open, to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners' court and show cause why said lines should not be declared public highways.

Service of notice and return of same.

Art. 4704. [4383] The notice provided for in the preceding article shall be served in the manner and for the length of time provided for the service of citations in civil actions in justices' courts, and shall be returned in like manner as such citations.

May open lines, when.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 24.)

Art. 4705. [4384] At a regular term of the court, after due service of notice as provided in the preceding article, the commissioners' court may, in its discretion, should it deem the road of sufficient public importance, issue an order declaring the lines designated in the application to be public highways, and direct the same to be opened by the owners thereof and left open for a space of fifteen feet on each side of said line.

Notice of the order of the court shall be served upon the owners of the land.
Ib.

Art. 4706. [4385] When an order as provided in the preceding article is made, the clerk shall, without delay, issue a notice reciting said order or its substance, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to serve the owners of such lines named in such notice with a true copy thereof, and the officer to whom said notice is delivered shall, without delay, serve the same as therein directed and return the same to the clerk, indorsing thereon the manner and date of such service.

Such roads not required to be controlled by the public.
Ib.

Art. 4707. [4386] The commissioners' court shall not be required to keep any such road as is mentioned in the last seven articles worked by the road hands as in the case of other public roads.

Art. 4708. [4387] All costs attending the proceedings provided for in relation to opening of neighborhood roads shall be paid by the county if the application be granted.

Costs, etc.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 24.)

Art. 4709. [4388] The commissioners' court may discontinue any neighborhood road which has been established as a public highway in the same manner provided in this chapter for discontinuing other public roads.

Neighborhood road may be discontinued,
how.

Art. 4710. [4389] The owners of the land whose lines have been or may be declared public highways, and also any person through whose land a third class road may run, shall have the right to erect a gate or gates across said road or roads when necessary, said gate or gates to be not less than ten feet wide and free of obstructions at the top; provided, that when the right of way for any third class road or neighborhood road has been granted to the county without cost the owner of such land shall have the right to put a gate across such road or roads, but where such right of way has been condemned and paid for according to existing law the county commissioners' court shall have the right to prevent any obstruction of such a road by a gate.

Right to erect gates.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 24.)

Art. 4711. [4390] The amount of damages to be allowed to the owners of said lands for opening the line of a neighborhood road, as provided in this chapter, shall be assessed as provided for in the case of first, second and third class roads in this chapter.

Damages, how assessed.
Ib.

Art. 4712. The county commissioners of the several counties are hereby constituted supervisors of public roads in their respective counties, and each commissioner shall supervise the public roads within his commissioner's precinct once each year, and shall receive as compensation therefor three dollars per day for the time actually employed in the discharge of his duties, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund of the county; provided, that no commissioner shall receive pay for more than ten days in each year. He shall also make a report to the first regular term of the commissioners' court held in his county during the year, said report to be made under oath, and to state—

Commissioners as supervisors.
Ib.

1. The condition of all roads and parts of roads in his precinct.
2. The condition of all culverts and bridges.
3. The amount of money remaining in the hands of overseers subject to be expended upon the roads within his precinct.
4. The number of mile posts and finger boards defaced and torn down.
5. What, if any, new roads of any kind should be opened in his precinct, and what, if any, bridges, culverts or other improvements are necessary to place the roads in his precinct in good condition and the probable cost of such improvements; also, the name of every overseer who has failed to work the road, or in any way neglected to perform his duty.

Said report shall be spread upon the minutes of the court, to be considered in improving public roads and determining the amount of taxes to be levied therefor.

Art. 4713. No entire road of the first or second class shall hereafter be discontinued except upon vacation by order of the commissioners' court or non-use for a period of three years.

Not to be discontinued, unless.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 24.)

Art. 4714. The report made by the supervisors of public roads to the commissioners' court, as provided for in article 4712, shall be submitted, together with all contracts made by said court since its last report for any work on any road, to the grand jury, at the first term of the district court thereafter.

Reports, etc.
Ib.

Across public lands, etc.

Art. 4715. No public road shall be opened across lands owned and used or for actual use by the state, educational, eleemosynary, or other public state institutions for public purposes and not subject to sale under the general laws of the state, without the consent of the trustees of said institution and the approval of the governor of the state, and the roads heretofore opened across such lands may be closed by the authorities in charge of any such lands whenever they deem it necessary to protect the interests of the state, upon repayment to the county where the land is situated, with eight per cent interest, the amount actually paid out by said county for the condemnation of said lands as shown by the records of the commissioners' court.

County shall be laid off into road precincts. (Act July 29, 1876, p. 63, §5.)

Article 4716. [4391] The commissioners' court of the several counties shall lay off their respective counties into convenient road precincts, and shall number each precinct; and in the order establishing the same shall specify as definitely as practicable the boundaries thereof.

Overseers to be appointed, when. (Acts of 1884, p. 25.)

Art. 4717. An overseer shall be appointed and hands apportioned by said court for each road precinct at the time of establishing the same; and at the first regular term of court in each year the said court shall appoint an overseer for each road precinct in the county, and shall at the same time designate all the hands liable to work on public roads, and apportion them to the several overseers; provided, that hands shall as nearly as practicable be apportioned to work on the road precinct nearest to their place of abode; and provided further, that the supervisor of public roads shall at any time apportion any hands in his precinct who from any cause may not have been apportioned as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Appointment of overseers, etc., may be made at any time. (Acts of 1876, p. 63.)

Art. 4718. [4393] If from any cause the said court should fail to perform the duties required of it by the preceding article, at its first regular term in each year, it shall be competent and legal for said court to perform said duties at any subsequent term, whether the same be a regular or called term.

Vacancy in overseership, how filled. Ib.

Art. 4719. [4394] In case of the death, removal or other inability to act, of any road overseer, it shall be the duty of the county judge, immediately upon information of the fact, to appoint an overseer to fill such vacancy, who shall be notified of his appointment as in other cases.

Duty of clerk to make out copies of order of appointment, etc. Ib. §14.

Art. 4720. [4395] It shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to make out copies of all orders appointing overseers of roads in duplicate, and deliver the same to the sheriff of the county within ten days after any such order shall have been made, indorsing on such copies the date of the orders of appointment.

Art. 4721. [4396] All orders appointing overseers shall embrace the designation of hands liable to work under such overseer, as far as known, and shall specify the boundaries of such overseer's road precinct as laid off by the court. Order of appointment of overseer shall show, what. Ib.

Art. 4722. [4397] The sheriff shall, within twenty days after the reception of the copies of any order appointing an overseer, deliver to or leave at the usual place of abode of such overseer one of such copies, and shall return the duplicate of such copy to the clerk of the county court, indorsing thereon the date and manner of service, and if not served the cause of his failure to serve the same. Service of order and return. Ib.

Art. 4723. [4398] The term of service of a road overseer shall be from the time of the service of the order of appointment until the first regular term of the commissioners' court in the succeeding year. Term of service of overseer. Ib. $5.

Art. 4724. [4399] No person shall be compelled to serve as an overseer who is lawfully exempt from road duty, nor shall any one be compelled to serve as overseer more than one year in every three successive years. Persons not compelled to serve as overseers, when, etc. Ib. $23.

Art. 4725. [4400] It shall be the duty of every person appointed overseer of a road who is lawfully exempt from road duty to notify the clerk of the county court of his non-acceptance within ten days after his being notified of his appointment. Overseer not liable shall notify clerk of non-acceptance. Ib.

Art. 4726. [4401] If any person appointed overseer of a road who is lawfully exempt from road duty shall notify the clerk of his non-acceptance as provided in the preceding article, the clerk shall forthwith report the same to the county judge, who shall immediately appoint another overseer for said road precinct. County judge shall thereupon appoint another. Ib.

Art. 4727. [4402] Should any person appointed overseer, and who is lawfully exempted from road duty, fail to notify the clerk of his non-acceptance within ten days after being notified of his appointment, it shall be considered an acceptance of the appointment, and he shall not be permitted thereafter to plead his exemption from road duty as a defense against any neglect or failure to perform any of the duties of such overseer. Unless overseer give notice of non-acceptance shall be considered as accepting. Ib.

Art. 4728. [4403] It shall be the duty of the clerk to insert on the copies of all orders of appointments of overseers issued by him the duties required of overseers in regard to their non-acceptance of such appointment. Clerk shall insert what on copies of appointment. Ib.

Art. 4729. [4404] The clerks of the county courts of the several counties shall post up in their respective court houses, on the first day of each term of the district court held in his county, a list of the names and the road precincts of all the overseers of roads in the county. Clerk shall post list of overseers, etc. Ib. $29.

Article 4737. [4412] Every overseer shall cause the roads through his precinct to be worked twice in each year.

Road shall be worked twice each year. (Act July 29, 1876, p. 68, §16.)

Art. 4738. [4413] Overseers of roads shall have the power to call out all persons liable to work upon public roads at any time such overseer may deem it necessary, or when ordered by the commissioners' court or other competent authority, and such hands may be called out in detail, or the whole force at any one time, as may be deemed best, or as they may be directed, for the better improvement of the public roads.

Power to call out hands. (Acts of 1889, p. 2L.)

Art. 4739. [4414] In case any person liable to work on roads shall not have been designated and apportioned by the commissioners' court, the overseer of the road nearest to which such person lives shall summon such person to work on such road the same as if such person had been designated and apportioned to such overseer.

Hands not designated shall be summoned. Ib. §5.

Art. 4740. [4415] It shall be the duty of the overseer to give three days' previous notice, by summons in person or in writing, to each person within his road precinct liable to road duty in said precinct, of the time and place when and where such person is required to appear to work on the road, and the number of days such person will be required to work.

Mode of summoning hands. Ib. §17.

Art. 4741. [4416] If the summons be in writing it may be served by leaving the same at the usual place of abode of the person summoned, with some person residing at such place who is not less than ten years of age, or if no person ten years of age or over can be found at such place of abode, the overseer may serve the same by posting it on the door of such place of abode.

Summons in writing may be served, how.

Art. 4742. [4417] The overseer shall have power to appoint some one to summon the hands to work on the road, and such person shall be exempt from working on the roads as many days as he was actually engaged in summoning the hands.

Overseer may appoint some one to summon hands. Ib.

Art. 4743. [4418] It shall be the duty of the overseer, within ten days after he has had his road worked, to file with the county attorney of his county, or the justice of the peace of his precinct, a complaint in writing and under oath against each person who has been summoned to work and who has failed to work and failed to furnish a substitute, and has failed to pay one dollar for each day he has so failed to work or furnish a substitute, and also against each person so summoned who has refused to do a reasonable amount of work on the road or who has refused to perform the reasonable directions of the overseer.

To file complaints, where, etc. (Acts of 1884, p. 26, §3.)

Timber for causeways and bridges. (Acts of 1876, p. 68.)

Art. 4744. [4419] When to the overseer it may appear expedient to make causeways and build bridges, the timber most convenient therefor may be used; but in such case the owner of such timber shall be paid out of the county treasury a fair compensation for the same, to be determined by the commissioners' court upon the application of such owner.

Construction of causeways. Ib.

Art. 4745. [4420] The earth necessary to construct a causeway shall be taken from both sides, so as to make a drain on each side of such causeway. Whenever it is necessary to drain the water from any public road, the overseer shall cut a ditch for that purpose, having due regard to the natural water flow, and with as little injury as possible to the adjacent land owner; provided, that in such cases the commissioners' court shall cause the damages to such premises to be assessed and paid out of the general revenues of the county, and in case of disagreement between the commissioners' court and such owner, the same may be settled by suit as in other cases.

Ditches may be cut on land of adjacent owners, when. (Acts of 1884, p. 27.)

Overseer may exchange labor for wagons, etc. (Acts of 1876, p. 68.)

Art. 4746. [4421] When it may be necessary to use a wagon for any purpose in working a road, or a plow or scraper, the overseer of such road is authorized to exchange the labor of any hand or hands bound to work on such road, for the use of a wagon or wagons, plows or scrapers, and the necessary teams to operate the same, at reasonable rates, to be employed as aforesaid.

Road shall be measured and mile posts set up. Ib. §22.

Art. 4747. [4422] It shall be the duty of all overseers of roads to measure such parts of roads as are in their respective precincts in continuation, and set up posts of good lasting timber or stone at the end of each mile leading from the court house or some other noted place, and to mark on said posts in legible and enduring figures the distance in miles to said court house or other noted place.

Index boards shall be placed, where. Ib.

Art. 4748. [4423] It shall also be the duty of overseers to place conspicuously and permanently at the forks of all public roads in their respective precincts, and at all roads crossing or leading away from such public roads, index boards, with directions plainly marked thereon, stating the most noted place to which each of said roads leads.

Mile posts and index boards to be replaced when removed. Ib.

Art. 4749. [4424] When a mile post or index board shall be removed or defaced by any means whatever, the overseer shall cause the same to be replaced immediately by another, marked as the original one.

Overseer may exchange labor for index boards and mile posts. Ib. §21.

Art. 4750. [4425] The overseer is authorized to exchange the labor of any hand or hands bound to work on his road, for the making of index boards or mile posts, or either.

Overseer shall apply money, how. Ib. §27.

Art. 4751. [4426] Overseers of roads shall apply all money coming into their hands as such overseers to the improvement of their roads in an impartial manner, by repairing or building bridges, hiring hands or teams to work on the road, or in such other manner as he may deem best.

Overseer shall report to commissioners' court, when, etc. Ib. §28.

Art. 4752. [4427] It shall be the duty of each overseer to report in writing and under oath to the commissioners' court of his county, at the first regular term thereof in each year, giving the number of the hands and their names in his precinct liable to work on the roads; the number of days he has caused his road to be worked; the condition of such road; the amount of the funds received by him for his road; from whom received, and for what purpose, and to whom and for what purpose said funds have been paid out, and the amount of such funds, if any, that remain in his hands; and he shall at the same time pay over to said court any such funds which may remain in his hands.

Art. 4753. [4428] Overseers shall retain out of money that may come to their hands as such overseers ten per cent thereof as compensation for their services, and during their term of service they shall be exempt from serving upon juries. Compensation, etc., of owners. Ib. §31.

Art. 4754. [4429] All moneys appropriated by law, or by order of the commissioners' court, for working public roads or building bridges, shall be expended under the order of the commissioners' court, except when otherwise herein provided, and said court shall from time to time make the necessary orders for utilizing such money and for utilizing convict labor for such purposes. Money shall be expended under order of court, etc. (Const., art. 16, §24.)

Art. 4755. Overseers shall dismiss from the road any hand or hands, whether working for themselves or as substitutes for others, who shall fail to do good and efficient work, or who shall hinder other hands from doing their work properly, or dismiss any hand who may be intoxicated, or who shall refuse to obey any reasonable order of the overseers; and the overseer shall proceed against such hand or hands so dismissed in the same manner as if they had refused to obey the summons to work upon the road. Overseers to dismiss hands, when. (Acts of 1889, p. 22.)

Article 4756. Each county commissioners' court of this state may employ not exceeding four road commissioners for their respective counties, who shall be resident citizens of the district for which they are employed, and when more than one is employed, the district that each road commissioner is to control shall be defined and fixed by the court; such road commissioners when employed shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon by the court, not to exceed two dollars per day for the time actually engaged. Each road commissioner when employed, before he enters upon his duties, shall execute a bond, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, and conditioned for a faithful performance of his duties. Commissioners' court may employ four road commissioners. (Acts of 1889, p. 134.)

Art. 4757. A road commissioner when employed shall have control over all overseers, hands, tools, machinery and teams to be used upon the roads in his district; and shall have the power to require overseers to order out his hands in any number he may designate for the purpose of opening, working or repairing the roads or building or repairing bridges or culverts of his district; and it shall be the duty of such road commissioner to see that all the roads and bridges of his district are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction and control of the commissioners' court, inaugurate a system of grading and draining public roads in his district, and see that such system is carried out by the overseers and hands under his control, and shall obey all orders of the commissioners' court; Powers and duties. Ib. §2.

and he shall be responsible for the safe keeping and liable for the loss or destruction of all machinery, tools or teams placed under his control, unless such loss is without his fault, and when he shall be discharged he shall deliver them to the person designated by the court.

Same.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4758. He shall expend such money as may be placed in his hands by the commissioners' court under its direction in the most economical and advantageous manner on the public roads, bridges and culverts of his district; and all his acts shall be subject to the control, supervision, orders and approval of the commissioners' court; he shall work the convicts and such other labor as may be furnished him by the commissioners' court; and when the road commissioner shall have funds in his hands to expend for labor on the roads, and when it shall be necessary for any overseer or overseers in his district to work more than five days during any one year upon the public roads, he may employ such overseers to continue their duties as such for such a length of time as may be necessary, and pay them for their services not more than one dollar and fifty cents per day for the time actually employed after the five days; provided, that hands shall not be required to work when there shall be on hand, after building and repairing bridges, a sufficient road fund to provide for the necessary work on the roads; and said road commissioner shall report to the commissioners' court at each regular term under oath, showing an itemized account of all money he has received to be expended on roads and bridges and what disposition he has made of the money, and showing the condition of all roads, bridges and culverts in his district, and such other facts as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports and at such time as the court may desire.

ture of road fund.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4759. The commissioners' court shall see that the road and bridge fund of their county is judiciously and equitably expended on the roads and bridges of their county, and, as nearly as the condition and necessity of the roads will permit, it shall be expended in each county commissioners' precinct in proportion to the amount collected in such precinct; and in expending money in building permanent roads the money shall first be used only on first or second class roads, and on those which shall have the right of way furnished free of cost to make as straight a road as is practicable to obtain and having the greatest bonus offered by the citizens of money, labor or other property.

May make rules and regulations for working roads.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4760. The commissioners' courts are authorized to make all reasonable and necessary rules and orders for the working and repairing of public roads, and to utilize the labor to be used and money expended thereon, not in conflict with the laws of this state, and enforce such rules and orders; and they are further authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools or teams, and hire such labor as may be needed in addition to the labor now required of citizens to build or repair the roads.

May accept donations of money, etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 4761. Commissioners' courts or road commissioners may accept donations of money, lands, labor of men, teams or tools, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building roads in their counties, and may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road for the purpose of draining his land, and require the person draining his land to do such work under the direction of the road commissioner.

Art. 4762. This chapter shall not be construed to repeal any existing law, but it is cumulative and in aid of existing law; provided, that when road commissioners are employed the county commissioners are not required to supervise the roads as required by article 4712 of the Revised Statutes; provided, nothing in this law shall be construed so as to require more than five days' service in one year of any citizen.

Article 4763. The commissioners' court of any county in this state may appoint one road superintendent for such county, or one superintendent in each commissioner's precinct, and such courts are authorized by an order made at any regular term thereof to determine whether there shall be one road superintendent for the county or one for each of the commissioner's precincts therein. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of such court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be sufficient; provided, no county shall be under the operation of this law whose commissioners' court does not appoint a road superintendent or superintendents as herein provided.

Commissioners' court may employ superintendent for county. (Acts of 1891, p. 149, §1.)

Art. 4764. In case such commissioners' court shall determine that there shall be one road superintendent, as provided in the preceding article, such court shall appoint a competent road superintendent for such county, and in case it is determined that there shall be four superintendents, then such court shall appoint a competent person as road superintendent for each commissioner's precinct in such county.

May determine number to be appointed Ib. §2.

Art. 4765. Each road superintendent, whether county or precinct, shall within twenty days after his appointment take and subscribe the oath required by the constitution, and enter into bond payable to the county judge and his successors in office, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, conditioned that he will faithfully do and perform all the duties required of him by law or the commissioners' court and that he will pay out and disburse the funds subject to his control as the law provides, or the commissioners'

Oath and bond of superintendent. Ib. §3.

court may direct, which bond shall be filed and recorded as other official bonds and shall not be void for the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time until the full amount is exhausted.

Qualifications.
Ib. §4.

Art. 4766. Every road superintendent shall be a qualified voter in the county or precinct, as the case may be, for which he is appointed, and shall hold his office for two years or until his successor is appointed and qualified, but in all cases where the condition of the roads does not demand the continued services of the superintendent, his salary may in the discretion of the commissioners' court be suspended. The commissioners' court may for good cause remove any road superintendent, and in case of vacancy from any cause may appoint a successor, who shall hold his office for the unexpired term.

Salary.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4767. Each road superintendent shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, to be paid on the order of said court at stated intervals, but the salary of the county superintendent, in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants, shall never exceed one thousand dollars per annum, and in counties of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, it shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The salary of precinct superintendents in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and in counties of over fifteen thousand inhabitants it shall never exceed four hundred dollars per annum.

Shall have supervision, etc., over roads subject to commissioners' court.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4768. The road superintendent, subject to the orders and directions of the commissioners' court, shall have the general supervision over all the public roads and highways of his county or precinct, as the case may be, and shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making and changing of roads therein, the building of bridges therein (except where otherwise contracted), the working of the roads therein and all repairs to be made on the same, and over all county convicts worked on such roads, but this shall not prevent the commissioners' court from employing a person to watch and manage such convicts and direct the work to be done by them. Said road superintendent shall take charge of all tools, machinery, implements and teams placed under his control by the commissioners' court, and execute his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the county clerk, and he shall be responsible for the safe keeping of all such machinery, tools, implements and teams, and the proper expenditure and paying out of all money belonging to the road fund that may come into his hands, and shall be liable for the loss, injury or destruction of any such tools, teams, implements or machinery, unless such loss occurred without his fault, and for the wrongful or improper expenditure of any such money, and upon the expiration of his term of office, or in case of his resignation or removal, he shall deliver all such money and property to his successor or such other person as the commissioners' court may direct.

Roads and bridges to be kept in repair, his duty, etc.
Ib. §7.

Art. 4769. It shall be the duty of each road superintendent to see that all of the roads and bridges in his county or precinct, as the case may be, are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction of the commissioners' court, inaugurate and carry out a system of working, grading and draining the public roads in his county or precinct, and shall see that every person subject to road duty in his county or precinct performs the work to which he is liable under the law. He shall act as supervisor of the roads in his county or precinct, as the case may be, and perform all the duties of supervisor that now devolve on the county commissioners under the existing laws in counties not adopting this law, and he shall do and perform such other service as may be required of him by the commissioners' court.

Art. 4770. Each road superintendent in counties where the commissioners' court so directs, as soon as practicable, shall divide his county or precinct, as the case may be, into road districts of convenient size, to be approved by the commissioners' court, and define the boundaries thereof and designate the same by number, which boundaries shall be recorded in the road minutes of the commissioners' court; and he shall ascertain the names of all persons subject to road duty in each district and keep a record thereof and report the same to the commissioners' court.

County shall be divided into precincts or districts.
Ib. §8.

Art. 4771. Every road superintendent shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to call out all persons liable to work on the public roads at any time and in such numbers as he may deem necessary to work the roads in their respective districts, and he shall utilize all such labor to the best advantage in connection with other labor on the roads. The call shall be summons served in the manner and for the length of time prescribed by the law regulating the calling out of hands by overseers, but no person shall be compelled to work outside of his road district. The road superintendent may appoint any person subject to road duty in any district to summon the hands to work the roads therein, and such person shall be exempt from road service as many days as he was actually engaged in summoning the hands, and in case of emergency he may appoint a deputy to supervise any particular work. He may also contract with any person subject to road duty for the use of teams, and permit such person to discharge his road duty by the use of such double team, but he shall never allow more than two dollars a day for any team, nor more than three dollars for any hand and double team.

Shall call out all persons liable to work, etc.
Ib. §9.

Art. 4772. Each road superintendent shall make a report, under oath, to the commissioners' court at each regular term thereof, showing an itemized account of all money belonging to the road fund he has received, from whom received, and what disposition he has made of the same, the condition of all roads and bridges in his county or precinct, as the case may be, and such other matters as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other report at such times as such court may require.

Shall make reports.
Ib. §10.

Art. 4773. The commissioners' court of any such county is authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools, implements, teams and labor required to grade, drain or repair the roads of such county, and said court is authorized and empowered to make all reasonable and necessary rules, orders and regulations not in conflict with law for laying out, working and otherwise improving the public roads, and to utilize the labor and money expended thereon, and to enforce the same. But no change in any road shall be made that lengthens the same without it is to the benefit of the traveling public or for the protection of private property, and then only upon the unanimous consent of the commissioners' court.

Commissioners' court may hire or purchase all machinery, etc., for working roads.
Ib. §11.

Art. 4774. Each road superintendent shall employ sufficient force to enable him to do the necessary work in his county or precinct, as the case may be, having due regard for the condition of the county road and bridge fund and the quality and durability of the work to be done, and shall buy or hire such tools, teams, implements and machinery as the commissioners' court may direct, and he shall work such roads in such manner as the commissioner may direct,

May employ sufficient force, etc.
Ib. §12.

and such work shall at all times be subject to the general supervision of the commissioners' court.

Shall make the best contracts, etc.
Ib. §13.

Art. 4775. Each road superintendent shall make the best contract possible for all labor, tools, implements or machinery that he is authorized to hire or purchase, and in payment therefor he shall issue to the person entitled thereto his certificate, showing the amount due and the purpose for which it was given, and upon approval by the commissioners' court a warrant shall issue therefor to the holder thereof on the county treasurer, to be paid by him out of the proper fund as other warrants. All such certificates shall be dated, numbered and signed by the road superintendent, and he and his sureties on his official bond shall be liable for all loss or damages caused by the wrongful issue of any such certificate or any extravagance in the amount thereof.

May improve road and bridge by contract.
Ib. §14.

Art. 4776. The commissioners' court of any such county may, when deemed best, construct, grade, gravel or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract. In such case said court or the county judge may advertise, in such manner as said court may determine, for bids to do such work and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall enter into bond with good and sufficient sureties for the faithful compliance with such contract, but said court shall have the right to reject any and all bids. At the time of making any such contract the said court shall direct the county treasurer to pass the amount of money stipulated in such contract to a particular fund for that purpose, and the treasurer shall keep a separate account of such fund and the same shall not be used for any other purpose, and can only be paid out on the order of said court.

May require county convicts to work on roads.
Ib. §15.

Art. 4777. The commissioners' court may require all county convicts not otherwise employed to labor upon the public roads under such regulations as may be most expedient. Each county convict worked on the public roads in satisfaction of any fine and costs shall receive a credit thereon of fifty cents for each day he may labor. And the commissioners' court may order that the county pay to the officers of court as much as one-half of the costs due them and adjudged against such convict, and upon such order such payment shall be made. But no such costs nor any part thereof shall ever be paid until such convict has worked out the entire amount of such fine and costs as provided by law, and then only upon a certificate from such county or precinct superintendent to the effect that such costs have been so worked out. The commissioners' court may grant a reasonable commutation of time for which a convict would be compelled to work to pay his fine and costs, or for which he is committed, as a reward for faithful services and good behavior, and such court shall make proper rules and regulations under which such commutations may be granted.

May accept donations, etc.
Ib. §16.

Art. 4778. The commissioners' court may accept donations of money, land, teams, tools or labor, or any other kind of property or material, to aid in building or keeping up roads in the county, and said court or any road superintendent, by and with the concurrence of the commissioners, may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road, the same to be done under the direction of the road superintendent, or such other person as said court may direct.

May retain old system of working roads.
Ib. §17.

Art. 4779. The commissioners' court of any county may retain the system of working hands under road overseers as provided by general laws, and place such overseers under the control of a county or precinct superintendent, under such lawful regulations as said court may prescribe, or may work with overseers without any superintendent, as may be deemed best.

Art. 4780. The commissioners' court of any county in any county in which a special tax for the maintenance of the public roads is levied and collected, as provided for in section 9 of article 8 of the constitution, shall not be compelled to require persons subject to road duty to work on the roads, as prescribed in existing general laws, but in such counties the roads shall be worked wholly by taxation, or by taxation in connection with road service, as such court may deem best. In any such county such court may reduce the number of days that persons liable to road duty may be required to work on the roads, but can never increase the number above five days in any one year.

May, in counties levying special tax, exempt persons from working roads.
Ib. §18.

Art. 4781. Each road superintendent shall keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him on account of the road or bridge fund, and pay the same over to the county treasurer within ten days after its collection, taking his receipt for the same.

Superintendent to keep accounts.
Ib. §19.

Art. 4782. Any person who shall knowingly or willfully destroy, injure or misplace any bridge, culvert, drain, sewer, ditch, sign-board, mile post or tile, or anything of like character, placed upon any road for the benefit of the same, shall be liable to the county and any person injured for all damages caused thereby.

Parties misplacing bridge shall be liable, etc.
Ib. §22.

Art. 4783. The county superintendent or the precinct superintendent, as the case may be, shall obtain from the tax collector of their counties as soon after the first day of January of each year as practicable, and before the first day of May thereafter, a full list of the delinquent poll tax payers of such county for the previous year, and the persons so appearing on said list and who are such delinquent poll tax payers shall be subject to road duty for the period of three days during such year, and they shall be summoned, as in other cases, to work the roads in the road district or precinct in which such person may reside; and the performance of the road service provided for in this article shall not exonerate the persons from any other road duty to which the persons performing the same may be subject, but this shall be taken as cumulative. The persons required to do road duty under the provisions of this article shall be subject to prosecution as provided in this chapter or other law of this state, and subject to the same liabilities and punishments provided for in other cases for failing to appear or do good work, when summoned so to do, as provided for by this chapter or other law of this state, and all such laws shall apply to parties required to work under the provisions of this article. And when they are convicted for so failing to work the roads, shall satisfy the fine and costs as in other misdemeanor convictions. But any person summoned to work on the road under the provisions of this article may satisfy such summons and be relieved from such duty by paying to the county road or precinct superintendent, as the case may be, three dollars; one-third of which sum shall go to the free school fund, and the balance to the road and bridge fund.

Delinquent poll tax payers to be subject to three days' road duty.
Ib. §23.

Art. 4784. The term "road" as used in this chapter includes road-bed, ditches, drains, bridges, culverts, and every part of such road, and the terms "work" and "working" include the opening and laying out of new roads, widening, constructing, draining, repairing, and everything else that may be done in and about any road.

"Roads," "work" and "working" defined.
Ib. §24.

Law cumulative.
Ib. §25.

Art. 4785. This law shall be cumulative of all other general laws on the subject of roads and bridges not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein such general laws shall apply; but in case of conflict with other general laws the provisions of this chapter shall govern.

Counties exempt.
(Acts of 1891, ch. 97; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 483.)

Art. 4785a. The counties of Grayson, Travis, Houston, Dallas, Limestone, Fayette, Galveston, Cherokee, Gonzales, Woods, Raines, Harrison, Shelby, San Augustine, Sabine, Newton, Jasper, Tyler, Morris, Marion, Victoria, Goliad, Refugio, Aransas, Calhoun, Jackson, DeWitt, Hopkins, Comal, Upshur, Blanco, Camp, Gillespie, Lavaca, Parker, Panola, Milam, Lamar, Hill, Smith, Gregg, McLennan, Harris, Washington, Titus, Cass, Franklin, Delta, Angelina, Nacogdoches, Bowie, Montgomery, Walker, Trinity, Red River, Henderson, Van Zandt, Tarrant and Jack counties are exempted from the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the county commissioners' courts of Dallas and Collin counties may accept and adopt the provisions of this act in lieu of the special acts for Dallas, Collin, Grayson and other counties, if in their judgment its provisions are better suited to Dallas and Collin county than the said special laws. Election for road tax, how ordered, etc.
(Acts of 1891, p. 51, §1.)

Article 4786. The commissioners' court of any county shall, upon presentation to it, at any regular session, of a petition signed by two hundred qualified voters, they being property taxpayers of the county, to order an election to determine whether there shall be levied upon the property within said county by said commissioners' court a road tax, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property under the provisions of the amendment of 1889, to the constitution of the state of Texas, adopted in 1890, order said election as hereinafter provided. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of such petition before the court can act on the same, but the court may act thereon without notice, and may make an order for such election, fixing the amount to be levied, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, the election to take place at any time thereafter, not less than twenty nor more than ninety days from the date of making the order therefor.

Same.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4787. It shall not be necessary to give any formal notice of such election, except the county judge shall issue his election proclamation, and the fact that such election is to be held shall be published in the newspapers of the county as fully as practicable, and tickets for the election shall be printed by the county and sent to each voting precinct by the county judge before the election opens, and as long before such time as practicable. The expenses of the election shall be paid for by the county. If an election be ordered within ninety days of a general election, it shall be held on the day of the general election and as elections on other questions are held, but otherwise the commissioners' court shall order a special election to determine whether said tax shall be levied, which shall be conducted as other elections, and the officers to conduct the same shall be appointed as in other cases.

Art. 4788. Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the county shall be permitted to vote at such election. The tickets printed and to be voted shall have written or printed on them the words: "For the tax," and "Against the tax," and those who favor the tax shall vote the ticket, "For the tax," and those who oppose the tax shall vote the ticket, "Against the tax."

Who are qualified to vote; manner of voting. Ib. §3.

Art. 4789. If at any such election the majority of the qualified voters voting thereat shall vote for such tax, it shall not be necessary to make further proclamation of that fact than to count the votes as in other cases, and officially announce the result, and the commissioners' court shall thereby be authorized and required to levy a road tax in the same manner that other taxes are levied, in the amount specified in said order for such election, never to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. Such levy shall be made at the same time other county taxes are levied, if such election is held in time therefor, but otherwise it may be made at any time before the rolls are made out and settlement affected. If, at the election, the proposition for said tax shall carry, no petition for its repeal shall be granted in less than two years. But if it fail to carry another petition may be granted in one year, but not sooner, and the order granting the second or any subsequent petition may fix a greater or less rate of levy, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, and if no greater rate is levied for any one year the commissioners' court may lower the rate for the next year without a petition therefor. An election to repeal the levy may be ordered and held as in other cases, but there must be satisfactory proof presented to said commissioners' court that there is great dissatisfaction with such tax and that it is probable that a majority of the citizens of the county who are authorized to vote for said tax would vote for the repeal of the law, and unless such proof be made the petition to repeal shall not be granted.

Duty of commissioners' court upon obtaining result of election. Ib. §4.

Art. 4790. No bonds shall ever be issued under the provisions of this chapter.

No bonds to issue. Ib. §5.

Article 4791. [4430] Overseers of roads shall cause bridges to be erected across all such water courses and other places as may appear to them necessary and expedient; and should there be a water course or other place that requires a bridge, dividing any two road precincts, the overseer of each of such precincts, together with their hands, shall meet at the same time and place to construct such bridge, and the overseer chosen by a majority of the hands present shall superintend the building of such bridge until finished.

Overseer shall have bridges built, when, etc. (Act July 29, 1876, p. 67, §20.)

Commissioners' court, power to have bridges built, etc.
(Act July 22, 1876, p. 51, §4.)

Art. 4792. [4431] The commissioners' court shall have full power and authority to cause all necessary bridges to be built and kept in repair in their respective counties, and to make appropriations of money of the county therefor, when necessary.

May contract for building of toll bridges.
(Act Dec. 20, 1836.)
P. D. 5244.

Art. 4793. [4432] The commissioners' courts through whose county large creeks or water courses shall pass, over which it may be too burdensome for the overseers, with the hands apportioned to them to work on roads, to build bridges, may contract with a proper person or persons to build a toll bridge, for which the court shall lay the toll to be levied on all persons, cattle, horses, carriages, etc., passing over the same; to be granted to the undertaker for such a number of years as the said court may think proper, not to exceed ten years; and the builder or builders and their successors shall keep the bridge in constant repair during the term of the contract, and in default thereof shall forfeit all right and claim to the toll of such bridges.

Shall take security from contractor to keep bridges in repair, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 5245.

Art. 4794. [4433] The commissioners' court, before granting a license to any person to build a toll bridge, shall take bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that the undertaker or undertakers shall build and keep in constant repair the bridges so contemplated for the term of years agreed upon between the undertaker or undertakers and the court; and if any person or persons shall sustain damages in consequence of the owner or keeper of any toll bridge not having complied with the conditions of his bond, the person or persons so damaged may bring an action of debt against the owner or keeper of such toll bridge, on his or their bond, in the county in which such license was granted, and recover judgment for the damages so sustained.

When streams form dividing line of counties expense of bridge to be joint, etc.
(Act Nov. 28, 1871, p. 42.)
P. D. 5883.

Art. 4795. [4434] Whenever any stream is the division line between counties, or when two or more counties are jointly interested in bridges, it shall be lawful for the counties so divided or interested to jointly erect bridges over said dividing stream, upon such equitable terms as the commissioners' court of each county interested may agree upon.

Tolls assessed to pay bonds, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 5884.

Art. 4796. [4435] Whenever any county bonds have been or may hereafter be issued for the purpose of building bridges, it shall be lawful for the commissioners' courts of the county or counties interested to assess and collect tolls on said bridges sufficient to pay the interest on bonds so issued; and, if thought proper, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity, all of which shall be done under such rules and regulations as the commissioners' courts of the counties interested may prescribe.

Article 4797. [4436] Every person owning the land fronting upon any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, shall be entitled to the privilege of keeping a public ferry over or across such water course, stream, lake or bay; if he owns the lands on both sides or banks, he shall be entitled to the sole and exclusive right of ferriage at such place; if he owns the lands on one side only, he shall have the privilege of a public ferry from his own shore, with the privilege of landing his boat and passengers on the opposite shore, with the consent of the owner of the land on said shore; if such consent can not be obtained, he may apply to the commissioners' court for the establishment of a public road from said opposite shore, and said court shall act on such application as in other cases.

Who are entitled to license to keep. (Act Jan. 23, 1850.)
P. D. 3841.

Art. 4798. [4437] No person shall keep any ferry over or across any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, so as to charge any compensation for crossing the same, without first procuring a license from the commissioners' court of the county in which such ferry is situated.

Shall not be for hire without license.
Ib.
P. D. 3842.

Art. 4799. [4438] When a water course, navigable stream, lake or bay makes a part of the boundary line of this state, if any tax or charge shall be assessed or collected by any such adjoining state for the privilege of a ferry landing on the shore or bank of such state from this state, then the same tax or charge may be assessed and collected by the commissioners' court for the like privilege of landing on the bank or shore of this state.

Where stream is part of state boundary.
Ib.
P. D. 3842.

Art. 4800. [4439] Any person wishing to establish a ferry across any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay in this state, shall apply to the commissioners' court of the county in which such ferry site may be, and on the applicant showing that he is the lawful owner of such land as the ferry is sought to be established on, and also satisfying the court that the public convenience will be promoted thereby, such court shall grant such license.

License, how obtained.
Ib.
P. D. 3844.

Art. 4801. [4440] When a commissioners' court shall establish a ferry they shall state in their record the rates of toll or ferriage which may be demanded for ferrying passengers, carriages, wagons, carts, beasts and such other property as is usually transported by ferries, and the said courts may, at their first term in each year, and shall at any other term, upon the petition of twenty respectable citizens of the county, revise, and, if deemed expedient, change the rates of toll or ferriage at all ferries that have been or may be established in their county.

Rates of ferriage shall be established, etc. (Act Jan. 5, 1854.)
P. D. 3845.

Change of rates.
Ib.

Art. 4802. [4441] All changes of the rates of ferriage shall be entered of record and notice thereof furnished by the county clerks to the owners of ferries affected by such change; provided, no change of rate shall take effect until the expiration of thirty days from the day on which said change may be made.

When owner refuses to keep ferry at the established rates.
Ib.

Art. 4803. [4442] Where any owner of a ferry shall refuse to keep up the same at the rates allowed by the commissioners' court, said court may issue a license to any one who will do so, but in all such cases the party receiving such license shall be bound to take the ferry-boat in use at said ferry, if desired by the owner, at such valuation as two respectable citizens of the vicinity, one to be chosen by each party, shall place upon it.

License and bond to be renewed annually.
(Act Jan. 23, 1850.)
P. D. 3846-7.

Art. 4804. [4443] The owners of all ferries shall annually obtain a renewal of their license, and shall annually enter into bond, payable to the county judge of their county, in such sum as the commissioners' court shall direct, not less than one thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such county judge, conditioned that the owner of such ferry will at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and will also keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank, and that said ferry shall be well attended at all times, and that he will comply with all the requisitions of the law relating to or governing ferries, which bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court.

License not to issue until, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 3848.

Art. 4805. [4444] Upon producing the receipt of the county treasurer for the payment of the tax assessed by the commissioners' court for the privilege of such ferry, and executing the bond required by the preceding article, such commissioners' court shall grant a license to such applicant for the term of one year from the date of such license, and no license for any ferry that has been or may hereafter be established shall be granted until such payment shall be made and bond executed.

Rates of, to be delivered to person obtaining license.
Ib.
P. D. 3849.

Art. 4806. [4445] In all cases where any person shall obtain a license for a ferry, the clerk of the court shall make out and deliver to such person a copy of the rates of toll or ferriage established by the court for such ferry, which shall be under his hand and official seal.

Rates of, to be posted at the ferry.
Ib.
P. D. 3850.

Art. 4807. [4446] Every owner of a ferry licensed shall keep a list of the rates of toll or ferriage established for his ferry posted up, either at the ferry or ferry house, for the inspection of all persons. If any such owner shall fail or neglect to do so he shall forfeit and pay the sum of four dollars for every such neglect, which may be recovered before any justice of the peace of the county on the complaint of any person, one-half of said amount to go to the county and the other half to the prosecutor; and every week that he shall so fail or neglect shall be deemed a separate offense, for which he shall be liable as aforesaid.

Where ferryman delays or refuses, etc., to cross person.
Ib.
P. D. 3851.

Art. 4808. [4447] If any person licensed to keep a ferry shall, on being tendered his lawful fees, refuse or neglect, without a reasonable cause, to cross any person, his horse or other property usually transported by such ferry, every such ferryman shall, for every delay of thirty minutes, forfeit and pay to the person injured the sum of two dollars, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace for the county in which the ferry is situated, with costs of suit; and the oath of the party shall be received in evidence of the fact.

Art. 4809. [4448] Every licensed ferryman shall at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and shall keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair, and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank; and shall give ready and due attendance on all passengers, horses, wagons and other property.

Duties of ferryman.
Ib.
P. D. 3852.

Art. 4810. [4449] If any licensed ferryman shall charge and receive from any person a higher rate of toll or ferriage than has been established for his ferry by the commissioners' court, he shall forfeit and pay to such person five dollars for every such offense, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is established, with costs of suit; and the oath of the complainant shall be received in evidence.

Where ferry-man charges more than,
etc.
Ib.
P. D. 3853.

Art. 4811. [4450] If any person shall keep any ferry over any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, for which he shall charge any person any money or other valuable thing, without complying with the provisions of this chapter in relation to paying the tax, obtaining license and entering into bond, he shall forfeit and pay to every other person having a licensed ferry on the same water course, stream, lake or bay in the same county five dollars for every person so ferried, and the same sum for every wagon or other article so transported which may be subject to a separate charge, to be sued for and recovered before any justice of the peace of the county, with costs of prosecution; and shall, moreover, forfeit and pay a like sum in like manner to the county, which may be sued for and recovered in like manner by the county treasurer.

Penalty for keeping, etc., without license.
Ib.
P. D. 3854.

Art. 4812. [4451] In all cases where a recovery shall be had against the ferryman for violation of this law, if after judgment execution shall be returned that no estate of such ferryman can be found whereon to levy and make the money demanded in such execution, the justice to whom such execution is so returned shall cite the sureties of such ferryman to appear and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for the amount of the execution that is not satisfied, and unless such cause is shown judgment shall be so entered and execution shall issue therefor.

against sureties of ferryman.
Ib.
P. D. 3855.

Art. 4813. [4452] Any person injured by breach of the bond of any ferryman shall have the right to sue thereon in his own name; and no such bond shall be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time until the whole penalty is recovered.

Suit on bond.
Ib.
P. D. 3856.

Art. 4814. [4453] Any person wishing to establish a public ferry between the regular terms of the commissioners' court may obtain a temporary license for such ferry from the county judge, which shall authorize him to keep such ferry until the next regular term of the commissioners' court for the county, and to charge and receive for such time such rates of toll or ferriage as are charged at other ferries on the same water course, stream, lake or bay.

Temporary license.
Ib.
P. D. 3857.

Art. 4815. [4454] The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall have power to assess and collect an annual tax for the privilege of each and every ferry in their county, which tax shall not exceed one hundred dollars per annum.

License tax.
Ib.
P. D. 3858.

Art. 4816. [4455] If any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay shall form a portion of the boundary of any county, so that one bank shall be in one county and the other in a different county, at the place where it is proposed to establish a ferry, or where a ferry has been established, the application for a license shall be made to the commissioners' court of the county wherein the applicant resides or

Art. 4857. [4485] A special judge elected by practicing lawyers or agreed upon by the parties, as provided by law, shall be paid for his services out of the state treasury on the certificate of the clerk of the court, in which such services were rendered, to the comptroller, of the record of such election or appointment and services, accompanied by the account of such special judge, verified by his affidavit, showing the number of days actually served by him as such special judge.

Required produce evidence of qualifications to comptroller, when. (Acts of 1881, p. 7, §1.)

Art. 4858. The comptroller of public accounts, the state treasurer, county commissioners' courts, county treasurers and any and all other officers of this state, or of any municipal division thereof, whether herein enumerated or not, who are authorized or required by law to audit, or pay, or order to be paid, claims due from the state, or any county or municipal division thereof, to any person or persons, as a salary, or as fees, compensation, perquisites or emoluments for official services rendered by such person, as an officer thereof, shall, upon the demand of any citizen of this state, before auditing, paying or ordering to be paid, any such claims as aforesaid, require such person presenting such claim to produce the certificate of his election or appointment to such office directed by the laws of this state to be issued to such officer; or, if his claim be founded upon the judgment or decree of a court of this state, authorized by the laws of this state to hear and determine the claims of persons to office, then a copy of the record of such judgment or decree certified under the hand and seal of the legal custodian of such record to be a true copy thereof.

Art. 4859. It shall not be lawful for any officer or court of this state or of any municipal division thereof, to allow, audit, pay or order to be paid, the claim of any person for salary, compensation, fees, perquisites, emoluments or services, as an officer of the state, or of any municipal division thereof, except to such person as has been duly elected such officer by the qualified voters of this state, and whose election has been ascertained and certified or declared in the manner required by the laws of this state, or who has been appointed such officer by the lawful appointing power under the constitution and laws of this state, or who has been adjudged entitled thereto by a state court of competent jurisdiction of this state, and has qualified as such officer in accordance with the requirements of the laws of this state.

Salary to be paid only, when.
Ib. §2.

Art. 4860. No person shall be held by the laws of this state entitled to pay for services as an officer thereof, or of any county or municipal division thereof, or to exercise any of the powers of jurisdiction of an officer thereof, unless he shall have been elected, appointed or adjudged entitled thereto, as specified in article 4859; and the official acts of any person claiming a right to exercise such power or jurisdiction, contrary to the provisions of this law, are and shall be held to be null and void.

Who entitled to compensation.
Ib. §3.

Art. 4861. No court of this state shall have power, authority or jurisdiction to issue the writ of mandamus, or injunction, or any other mandatory or compulsory writ or process against any of the officers of the executive departments of the government of this state, to order or compel the performance of any act or duty which, by the laws of this state, they or either of them are authorized to perform, whether such act or duty be judicial, ministerial or discretionary.

Article 4864. [4489] Judges and clerks of the district and county courts, and justices of the peace, shall, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit, before final judgment, have power to issue writs of sequestration, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

In what cases to be issued. (Acts of 1887, p. 30.)

1. When a married woman sues for divorce, and makes oath that she fears her husband will waste her separate property, or their common property, or the fruits or revenue produced by either, or that he will sell or otherwise dispose of the same so as to defraud her of her just rights, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

2. When a person sues for the title or possession of any personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

3. When a person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien upon personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the county during the pendency of the suit.

4. When any person sues for the title or possession of real property, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of his possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the fruits or revenue produced by the same.

5. When any person sues for the title or possession of any property from which he has been ejected by force or violence, and makes oath of such fact.

6. When any person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien on real estate, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of such possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the timber, rents, fruits or revenue thereof.

7. When any person sues to try the title to any real property, or to remove cloud upon the title to any such real property, or to foreclose a lien upon any such real property, or for a partition of real property, and makes oath that the defendant, or either of them in the event there be more than one defendant, is a non-resident of this state.

Affidavit, and what it shall state. (Acts of 1866, p. 120.) P. D. 5095a.

Art. 4865. [4490] No sequestration shall issue in any cause until the party applying therefor shall file an affidavit in writing stating—

1. That he is the owner of the property sued for, or some interest therein, specifying such interest, and is entitled to the possession thereof; or,

2. If the suit be to foreclose a mortgage or enforce a lien upon the property, the fact of the existence of such mortgage or lien, and that the same is just and unsatisfied, and the amount of the same still unsatisfied, and the date when due.

3. The property to be sequestered shall be described with such certainty that it may be identified and distinguished from property of a like kind, giving the value of each article of the property and the county in which the same is situated.

4. It shall set forth one or more of the causes named in the preceding article entitling him to the writ.

Petition must be filed, when. Ib. p. 122, §4.

Art. 4866. [4491] If the suit be in the district or county court no writ of sequestration shall issue unless a petition shall have been first filed therein, as in other suits in said courts

Bond for the writ. (Act March 15, 1848.) P. D. 5096-7.

Art. 4867. [4492] Nor shall a writ of sequestration issue in any case until the party applying therefor has filed with the judge, clerk or justice of the peace to whom he applies, a bond payable to the defendant for a sum of money not less than double the value of the property to be sequestered, as stated in his affidavit, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such judge, clerk or justice of the peace as the case may be, conditioned that the plaintiff or person suing out such writ will pay to the defendant all such damages as may be awarded against him, and all costs in case it shall be decided that such sequestration was wrongfully issued.

Writ may issue when claim is not due, when, etc. Ib. P. D. 5098.

Art. 4868. [4493] When any person has a mortgage or lien upon personal property of any description, and makes affidavit and gives bond as required in the two preceding articles, the writ of sequestration may issue, although the right of action upon such mortgage or lien has not accrued; and the same proceeding shall be had thereon as in other cases of sequestration, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until the right of action on such mortgage or lien shall have accrued.

Writ and its requisites. (Act Nov. 9, 1866.) Ib. p. 124, §4.

Art. 4869. [4494] The writ of sequestration may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county wherein the property is alleged to be situated, which allegation may be made either in the original or in a supplemental affidavit. It shall command the sheriff or any constable to take into his possession the property, describing the same as it is described in the affidavit, if to be found in the county, and keep the same subject to the future order of the judge, court or justice of the peace who issued the writ, unless the same is replevied according to law.

Duty of officer while he retains custody of property. (Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 121, §3.) P. D. 5101, 5106.

Art. 4870. [4495] The officer executing a writ of sequestration, while he retains custody of the property sequestered, shall take care of and manage the same in a prudent manner, and if he confides the same to the custody of other persons he shall be responsible for their acts in regard thereto, and shall be responsible to the party injured for any neglect or mismanagement by himself, or by those to whom he has confided the custody or management of the property.

Art. 4871. [4496] The officer retaining custody of property by virtue of a writ of sequestration shall be entitled to receive a just compensation and all reasonable charges therefor, to be determined by the judge or justice from whose court the writ issued, to be taxed in the bill of costs against the party cast in the suit, and collected in the same manner as the other costs in the case.

Art. 4872. [4497] If the officer be compelled to expend any sum of money in the security, management or care of the property, he may retain possession of said property until said money be refunded by the party offering to replevy said property, his agent or attorney.

Art. 4873. [4498] When property has been sequestered, the defendant shall have the right to retain possession of the same by delivering to the officer executing the writ his bond, payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, for an amount of money not less than double the value of the property to be replevied.

Art. 4874. [4499] If the property to be replevied, as provided in the preceding article, be personal property, the condition of the bond shall be that the defendant will not remove the same out of the county, or that he will not waste, ill-treat, injure, destroy, sell or dispose of the same, according to the plaintiff's affidavit, and that he will have such property, with the value of the fruits, hire or revenue thereof, forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, or that he will pay the value thereof and of the fruits, hire or revenue of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do.

Art. 4875. [4500] If the property be real estate, the condition of such bond shall be that the defendant will not injure the property, and that he will pay the value of the rents of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do.

Art. 4876. [4501] The bond provided for in the three preceding articles shall be returned with the writ to the court from whence the writ issued, and in case the suit is decided against the defendant final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied, and the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof, as the case may be.

Art. 4877. [4502] The defendant shall have the right, at any time within ten days after the rendition of the judgment provided for in the preceding article, to deliver to the sheriff or constable of the court in which such judgment is rendered, the property, or any portion thereof, which he has bound himself to have forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, and the sheriff or constable to whom such possession is tendered shall receive such property, if the same has not been injured or damaged since the replevy, and receipt to the defendant therefor, and shall immediately deliver such property to the plaintiff, and the defendant in such judgment shall, upon filing with the papers in the cause the receipt of the sheriff or constable, be credited by the clerk or justice of the peace upon such judgment with the value of the property so returned.

Art. 4878. [4503] If the property tendered back by the defendant has been injured or damaged while in his possession under such bond, the sheriff or constable to whom the same is tendered shall not receive the same unless the defendant at the same time tenders the reasonable amount of such injury or damage, to be judged of by such sheriff or constable.

Return of bond and judgment thereon.
Ib.

Defendant may discharge judgment by return of property, etc.

When the property has been injured, etc.

Execution shall issue, when.

Art. 4879. [4504] If the property be not returned and received, as provided in the two preceding articles, execution shall issue upon said judgment for the amount due thereon, as in other cases.

Plaintiff may replevy, when, and his bond. (Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 122, §3.)

P. D. 5101a.

Art. 4880. [4505] When the defendant fails to replevy the property within ten days after the levy of the writ, if such defendant, his agent or attorney, is present in the county, or within twenty days if absent from the county at the time of such levy, the officer having the property in possession shall deliver the same to the plaintiff upon his giving bond payable to the defendant in a sum of money not less than double the value of such property, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the forthcoming of such property, together with the fruits, hire, revenue and rent of the same, to abide the decision of the court.

Bond shall be returned and the proceedings thereon, if forfeited.

Art. 4881. [4506] The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned with the writ, and in case the suit is decided against the plaintiff final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied and for the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof, as the case may be, and the same rules which govern the discharge or enforcement of a judgment against the obligors in the defendant's replevy bond, as hereinbefore provided, shall be applicable to and govern in case of a judgment against the obligors in the plaintiff's replevy bond.

Defendant not required to account for hire, etc., when.

P. D. 5100.

Art. 4882. [4507] In suits for the enforcement of a mortgage or lien upon property the defendant, should he replevy the property, shall not be required to account for the fruits, hire, revenue or rent of the same, but this exemption shall not apply to the plaintiff in case he shall replevy the property.

Property likely to waste, etc., may be sold, when.

ib.
P. D. 5099a.

Art. 4883. [4508] If after the expiration of ten days from the levy of a writ of sequestration the defendant has failed to replevy the same, if the plaintiff or defendant shall make affidavit in writing that the property levied upon, or any portion thereof, is likely to be wasted or destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, and if the officer having possession of such property shall certify to the truth of such affidavit, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace to whose court the writ is returnable, upon the presentation of such affidavit and certificate, either in term time or in vacation, to order the sale of said property, or so much thereof as is likely to be so wasted, destroyed or depreciated in value by keeping, but either party may replevy the property at any time before such sale.

Order of sale in such case.

ib.

Art. 4884. [4509] The judge or justice granting the order provided for in the preceding article shall issue an order directed to the officer having such property in possession, commanding such officer to sell such property in the same manner as under execution.

Return of order of sale.

ib.

Art. 4885. [4510] The officer making such sale shall, within five days thereafter, return the order of sale to the court from whence the same issued with his proceedings thereon, and shall, at the time of making such return, pay over to the clerk or justice of the peace the proceeds of such sale.

Where debt is not due, property may be sold, when, etc.

(Act March 15, 1848.)

P. D. 5098.

Art. 4886. [4511] If the suit in which the sequestration issued be for a debt or demand not yet due, and the property sequestered be likely to be wasted, destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, the judge or justice of the peace shall, under the regulations hereinbefore provided, order the same to be sold, giving credit on such sale until such debt or demand shall become due.

Art. 4887. [4512] In the case of a sale, as provided for in the preceding article, the purchaser of the property shall execute his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer making the sale, and payable to such officer, in a sum not less than double the amount of the purchase money, conditioned that such purchaser shall pay such purchase money at the expiration of the time given.

Purchaser shall give bond, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4888. [4513] The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned by the officer taking the same to the clerk or justice of the peace from whose court the order of sale issued, with such order, and shall be filed among the papers in the cause, and in case the purchaser does not pay the purchase money at the expiration of the time given judgment shall be rendered against all the obligors in such bond for the amount of such purchase money, interest thereon and all costs incurred in the enforcement and collection of the same, and execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff in the suit, as in other cases, and the money when collected shall be paid to the clerk or justice of the peace to abide the final decision of the cause.

Bond shall be returned and judgment,
etc., thereon,
when.
Ib.

[For venue in damage cases growing out of sequestration, see article 1194.]

I. ELECTION AND QUALIFICATION.

Election and term of office. (Const., art. 5, §23.) (Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, §1.) P. D. 5108.

Article 4890. [4514] There shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county one sheriff, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.

Vacancies, how filled. 1b.

Art. 4891. [4515] Should a vacancy occur in the office of sheriff the commissioners' court of the county shall fill such vacancy by appointment; and the person appointed, after qualifying in the manner prescribed by law for persons elected to said office, shall discharge the duties of sheriff for the unexpired term and until the election and qualification of his successor.

Oath and bond. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, §2.) P. D. 5109.

Art. 4892. [4516] Every person elected to the office of sheriff shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by such court, not less than five nor more than thirty thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned that he will account for and pay over to the persons authorized by law to receive the same all fines, forfeitures and penalties that he may collect for the use of the state or any county, and that he will well and truly execute and due return make of all process and precepts to him lawfully directed and pay over all sums of money collected by him by virtue of any such process or precept to the persons to whom the same are due or their lawful attorney, and that he will faithfully perform all such duties as may be required of him by law, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, which bond and oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court and deposited in said office. Said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered.

Art. 4893. [4517] When any person elected or appointed sheriff in accordance with the preceding article shall have given bond and taken the oath of office he may enter at once upon the discharge of his duties, and his acts shall be as valid in law before receiving his commission from the governor as afterward.

May act without a commission. (Act Dec. 20, 1836, p. 179, §2.) P. D. 5102.

Art. 4894. [4518] When any person elected sheriff shall neglect, refuse or fail from any cause whatever, to give bond and take the oath of office within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant, and the county commissioners' court shall proceed to appoint a sheriff to fill the vacancy, who shall hold his office for the unexpired term.

Neglect to qualify. (Acts of 1885, p. 89.)

Art. 4895. [4519] Whenever any of the sureties of a sheriff shall die, remove permanently from the state, become insolvent, or be released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners' court shall deem the sheriff's bond insufficient, said court shall cite said sheriff to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond with good and sufficient security; and if such sheriff shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond on or before the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

Failure to give new bond when required. (Acts of 1836, p. 178.) P. D. 5110.

II. POWERS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES.

Art. 4896. [4520] Sheriffs shall have the power, by writing, to appoint one or more deputies for their respective counties, to continue in office during the pleasure of the sheriff, who shall have power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of their principals, and every person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on his appointment, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, and such appointment and oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk and deposited in said office; provided, that the number of deputies appointed by the sheriff of any one county shall be limited to not exceeding three in the justice precinct in which is located the county site of such county; and a list of these appointments shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the clerk's office so that all can see them; provided further, that no person shall be appointed a deputy sheriff who stands convicted for a felony, and an indictment for a felony of any deputy sheriff appointed shall operate a revocation of his appointment as such deputy sheriff; provided, that any sheriff may appoint one deputy in addition to the above enumerated for each justice precinct in addition to the precinct where the county site is situated; and all sheriffs having more deputies than are provided for in this law shall make the number of his deputies conform to the provisions of the same.

May appoint deputies, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 23.)

Art. 4897. [4521] Sheriffs shall be responsible for the official acts of their deputies, and they shall have power to require from their deputies bond and security; and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and sureties as any person can have against a sheriff and his sureties.

Responsible for their acts. (Acts of 1846, p. 265.) P. D. 5113.

Art. 4898. [4522] Whenever in any county it may become necessary to employ guards for the safe keeping of prisoners and the security of jails, the sheriff may, with the approval of the commissioners' court, or in cases of emergency, with the approval of the county judge, employ such number of guards as may be necessary, and his account therefor, duly itemized and sworn to, shall be allowed by said commissioners' court and paid out of the county treasury.

Shall receive prisoners from constables, etc. (Act Dec. 20, 1836, p. 179, §14.)

Art. 4899. [4523] It shall be the duty of sheriffs to receive from constables and other officers all persons who shall be apprehended by such constables or other officers for offenses against the state, and them safely keep, subject to the order of the proper court.

P. D. 5104.
To attend upon courts. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, §13.)

Art. 4900. [4524] Each sheriff shall attend upon all district, county and commissioners' courts for his county; and in counties where the supreme court and court of appeals shall hold their sessions, the sheriffs of such counties shall attend upon such court.

P. D. 51.
Shall execute all legal process. Ib. §8.
P. D. 5115.

Art. 4901. [4525] Each sheriff shall execute all process and precepts directed to him by legal authority, and make return thereof to the proper court, on or before the day to which the same is returnable; and any sheriff who shall fail so to do, or who shall make a false return on any process or precept shall, for every such offense, be liable to be fined by the court to which such process is returnable, as for a contempt, not exceeding one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court; which fine shall go to the county treasury, and such sheriff shall also be liable to the party injured for all damages he may sustain.

And all legislative process. (Act March 23, 1872, p. 19.)
P. D. 7102a et seq.

Art. 4902. [4526] Sheriffs are required also to execute all subpoenas and other process issued by the speaker of the house of representatives, or the president of the senate or chairman of a committee of either house of the legislature, to them directed, under like pains and penalties as are incurred by failure to execute process issued by a court, and for such services they shall receive the fees prescribed by law for similar services in the courts, to be paid on the certificate of the authority issuing such process.

To discharge all duties imposed by law.

Art. 4903. [4527] Sheriffs shall also do and perform all such duties as may be imposed upon them by the Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure or other laws.

List of fugitives to be sent to adjutant-general. (Acts of 1887, p. 44, §1; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour. No. 97, p. 484.)

Art. 4904. It shall be the duty of each sheriff in this state upon the close of any regular term of the district court in his county, or within thirty days thereafter, to make out and forward by mail to the adjutant-general of this state a certified list of all persons who, after indictment for a felony, have fled from said county. Such lists shall contain the full name of each of such fugitives, with a description giving his age, height, weight, color and occupation, the complexion of skin and the color of eyes and hair, and any peculiarities in person, speech, manner or gait that may serve to identify such fugitive, so far as the sheriff may be able to give them, and shall state the offense with which such person is charged. The adjutant-general shall prescribe, have printed and forward to the sheriffs of the several counties the necessary blanks upon which are to be made the lists herein required.

Shall indorse all process. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, §14.)
P. D. 5121.

Art. 4905. [4528] Every sheriff and deputy sheriff shall indorse on all process and precepts coming to their hands the day and hour on which they received them, the manner in which they executed them, and the day when they executed them, and shall sign their return officially.

May summon posse comitatus. Ib. §10.
P. D. 5117.

Art. 4906. [4529] Whenever a sheriff or any of his deputies shall meet with resistance in the execution of any legal process, they shall call to their aid the power of the county, and any person who shall neglect or refuse to aid and assist any sheriff or deputy in the execution of any legal process when summoned so to do shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered on motion of such sheriff or his deputy, and proof of such neglect or refusal before the court from which such process issued, three days' notice of such motion being given to the party accused; and in addition thereto may be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code.

Art. 4907. [4530] When any sheriff shall from any cause vacate his office, all unfinished business whatsoever in his hands shall be transferred to his successor, and be completed by him in the same manner as if commenced by himself.

Unfinished business.
(Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, §15.)

I. ELECTION, QUALIFICATION, ETC.

Article 4908. [4531] There shall be elected at each general election, by the qualified voters of each justice's precinct, a constable for such precinct, who shall hold his office for the term of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified; provided, that where in any such justice's precinct there may be a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint no more than two deputies, who shall qualify as required of deputy sheriffs.

Term of office.
(Acts of 1885, p. 17.)

Art. 4909. The commissioners' courts of the several counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have power to appoint a constable for each of the unorganized counties attached to said counties for judicial purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the law now in force authorizing such appointments in organized counties.

Appointed, how, in unorganized counties.
(Acts of 1879, p. 89.)

Art. 4910. [4532] Vacancies in the office of constable shall be filled by the commissioners' court until the next succeeding general election.

Vacancies, how filled.

Art. 4911. [4533] Every person who may be elected to the office of constable shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by said court, not less than five nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties required of him by law; and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; which bond and oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and deposited in said office; said bond shall not be void

May act without commission.

Art. 4912. [4534] Whenever any person is elected or appointed to the office of constable and has given bond and taken the oath prescribed in the preceding article, he may enter at once upon the duties of the office, and his acts shall be as valid in law as if he had been duly commissioned.

Neglect to qualify.
(Act May 12, 1846, P. 251, §4.)
P. D. 983.

Art. 4913. [4535] Whenever any person elected constable shall neglect or refuse to give bond and take the oath of office as required in the preceding articles within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant, and the commissioners' court of the county shall fill the same as in other cases of vacancy.

Failure to give new bond.
Ib. §3.
P. D. 982.

Art. 4914. [4536] Whenever any of the sureties of a constable shall die, remove permanently from the state, or become insolvent, or are released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners' court shall deem the bond of any constable to be insufficient, said court shall cite said constable to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond, with good and sufficient security, and if such constable shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond at the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

II. POWERS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES.

Duties in general.
Ib. §8.
P. D. 987.

Art. 4915. [4537] Each constable shall execute and return according to law all process, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, and shall attend upon all justices' courts held in his precinct, and shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law.

May summon posse comitatus.
Ib. §7.
P. D. 986.

Art. 4916. [4538] When any constable shall meet with resistance in the execution of any lawful process, or in the arrest of offenders, he may call to his aid any citizen of the county who may be convenient; and any person who shall fail or refuse to obey such call may be fined as for a contempt by any justice of the peace, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, on motion of such constable, three days' notice thereof having been given to the party accused, and may also be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code.

Failure to execute or return process.
Ib. §11.
P. D. 990.

Art. 4917. [4539] If any constable shall fail or refuse to execute and return, according to law, any process, warrant, or precept to him lawfully directed and delivered, he shall be fined for a contempt, on motion of the party injured, before the court from which such process, warrant or precept issued, in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred, with costs, which fine shall be for the benefit of the party injured; and said constable shall have ten days' notice of such motion.

Failure to pay over collections.
Ib. §12.
P. D. 991.

Art. 4918. [4540] If any constable shall receive from any person any bonds, bills, notes or accounts for collection, and shall give his receipt therefor, in his official capacity, and shall fail to pay to such person, on demand, any amount he may have collected on the same, such constable and his sureties shall be responsible on his official bond for all such amounts as he may have collected on such bonds, bills, notes or accounts not paid over.

Art. 4919. [4541] Every constable may execute any process, May execute process, where, Ib. §14. P. D. 993.

Art. 4924. Whenever any horses or cattle branded with the county brand are removed to another county, the owners of such stock may counterbrand with said county brand, and a bar under said county brand shall be used and known as the "County brand," and when so counterbranded the brand of the county in which said stock may be newly located may be placed on said stock.

Art. 4925. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish a printed list of the county brands to the county clerks of this state, who shall securely post the same in their office.

Art. 4926. [4557] Minors owning cattle or hogs separate from that of the father or guardian, may have a brand and mark, which shall be recorded; the father or guardian shall be responsible for the proper use of such mark and brand of any such minor.

Art. 4927. [4558] Cattle shall be marked with the ear mark or branded with the brand of the owner on or before they are twelve months old; hogs, sheep and goats shall be marked with the ear mark of the owner on or before they are six months old.

Art. 4928. [4559] If any dispute shall arise about any ear mark or brand, it shall be decided by reference to the book of marks and brands kept by the clerk of the county court, and the ear mark and brand of the oldest date shall have the preference.

Art. 4929. [4560] It shall be the duty of the clerks of the county courts in the respective counties to keep a well-bound book, in which they shall record the marks or brands of each individual who may apply to them for that purpose, noting in every instance the date on which the brand or mark is recorded, which record shall be subject to the examination of every citizen of the county at all reasonable office hours, free of charge for such examination.

(Acts of 1892,
§1.)

Art. 4932. If, after carefully and minutely examining the animal or animals so reported to be affected with glanders or farcy, said three citizens shall be of the opinion that the animal or animals so examined by them are diseased with glanders or farcy, they shall condemn the same, and it shall be their duty to appraise such animal or animals at their just and full value at the time of such examination and condemnation, and shall forthwith report their action in writing to the county judge, giving in said report the number of animals condemned, if any, the owner or owners of same if known, and if unknown so stating it, with the appraised value of same. But if the said citizens have any reasonable doubt as to the diseased animals being affected with glanders or farcy, before condemning as above provided for, they shall require the owner or owners to have said diseased animals separated from contact with all other animals subject to contagion, for a reasonable time, and when they are fully satisfied that the disease is glanders or farcy, then they shall proceed to condemn and destroy said animals as provided for in this article.

constable of his county, commanding him to seize said diseased animal or animals and take same to some secluded place and kill them and bury or burn the carcass.

Payment for animals killed; fee, etc. Ib. $4.

Art. 4934. After the said diseased animal or animals are killed, as provided in the preceding article, it shall be the duty of the county clerk, upon the written order of the county judge, to issue a warrant or warrants of the county, payable out of the general revenue, in favor of the owner or owners of said animal or animals so killed, for the amount of the value, as diseased, if the animal has any value, as appraised by said citizens who examined and condemned same. The sheriff or constable killing, burning or burying said animal or animals shall be paid by the county such sum as the commissioners' court thereof may determine their services worth.

Law cumulative. Ib. $6.

Art. 4935. This law is cumulative of all other laws now in force for the prevention of glanders and farcy.

[Note.—The act of 1895 expressly repeals the act of 1891, comprised in articles 4936, 4937, 4938 and 4939. Under the first three of those numbers the new articles are here substituted.]

Bounty for killing wolves, etc. (Acts 1895, p. 20.)

Art. 4936. Hereafter when any person shall kill in this state any wolf, either cayote or lobo, panther, Mexican lion, tiger, leopard or wildcat, he may be paid in the county in which he killed such animals the sum of fifty cents for each cayote, wolf or wildcat, and one dollar for each lobo wolf, and the sum of two dollars for each panther, Mexican lion, tiger or leopard so killed.

Proof, how made. Ib.

Art. 4937. The commissioners' court of any county may order to be paid to the person or persons having killed any of said animals in their respective counties as fixed in article 4936, upon their exhibiting the scalps of the animals killed to the county judge of said county, accompanied by the written affidavit of such person, stating when and where he killed said animals and the kind of each.

Same. Ib.

Art. 4938. Such scalp shall consist of a sufficient portion of the said animal's hide, including the ears thereof, to determine whether the same has been taken from one of the above named animals; and the commissioners' court may in all cases when it is not satisfied as to the sufficiency of the evidence before it under this law reject any and all claims. The commissioners' court shall destroy all such scalps as soon as practicable.

Bill of sale to be always taken. (Act Nov. 13, 1866, p. 223, §1.) P. D. 7445.

Article 4940. [4562] Upon the sale, alienation or transfer of any horse, mare, mule, gelding, colt, jack, jennet, cow, calf, ox or beef steer by any person in this state, the actual delivery of such animals shall be accompanied by a written transfer from the vendor, or party selling, to the purchaser, giving the number, marks and brands of each animal sold and delivered.

Art. 4941. [4563] Upon the trial of the right of property of any animal, such as is mentioned in the preceding article, in any court of this state, the possession of such animal without the written transfer therein specified shall be deemed prima facie illegal.

Possession prima facie illegal, without. Ib.

Art. 4942. [4564] Persons may dispose of stock animals of the kind mentioned in article 4940, as they run in the range, by the sale and delivery of the brands and marks; but in every such sale the purchaser, in order to acquire title thereto, shall have his conveyance or bill of sale of such stock recorded in the county clerk's office, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and such sale or transfer shall be noted on the record of original marks and brands in the name of the vendee or purchaser.

Stock animals sold by mark and brand, etc. Ib.

Art. 4943. [4565] Every person in this state engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market shall make a regular report to the county commissioners' court of the county, under oath, giving the number, color, age, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered; which report shall be made to each regular meeting of the court, and be recorded by the clerk for the inspection of any one interested. Each report made shall be accompanied by the bill of sale or written conveyance to the butcher for every animal that he has purchased for slaughter; and if any of the animals slaughtered have been raised by himself it shall be so stated in the report.

Butchers to report to commissioners' court. Ib. p. 224, §3. P. D. 6557.

Art. 4944. [4566] Any person who shall purchase animals of any class named in article 4940, for the purpose of driving to market out of the county where purchased, or out of the state, shall, before moving the animals out of the county where purchased, deposit with the clerk of the county court, for record, a bill of sale and correct list of the number, marks, brands and kind of animals, signed and acknowledged by the vendor or vendors, which, together with the postoffice or place of abode of the vendee, shall be recorded in the book kept by the clerk for that purpose, and with his certificate of record, under seal attached, shall be returned to the purchaser upon payment of the recording fees.

Bill of sale and description to be recorded before driving. Ib. pp. 223-4, §2. P. D. 6556.

Art. 4945. [4567] Persons intending to drive stock raised by themselves to market out of the county where raised, or out of the state, shall, before driving, deposit with the clerk of the county court for record a correct list of such animals, with a particular description of their marks and brands, verified by their own affidavit, which list the county clerk shall record and certify, as in other cases of registration, and return to the owner.

Owners to file sworn descriptive lists. Ib. p. 224, §2.

Art. 4946. [4568] The commanders, or agents of all vessels, and the agents of all railroads on which cattle are exported from the state, and the proprietors or agents of all establishments for the slaughter of cattle within the state, shall keep a register of all cattle shipped or slaughtered, with the marks, brands and general description of such animals, and the names of the persons shipping or selling the same, the dates of their shipment or purchase, and the county from which they were driven.

Register of cattle shipped or slaughtered to be kept. (Act Sept. 5, 1850, p. 27, §1.) P. D. 460.

Art. 4947. [4569] Such register shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of the county where the cattle were shipped or slaughtered on the first day of each month, and such clerk shall at once copy the same in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose, and return the original to the party depositing it. The record kept by the county clerk shall be open at all times to public inspection without charge.

County clerk to make a copy. Ib. §2. P. D. 461.

Butchers' bond, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 84.)

Art. 4948. Every person, before he shall set up and carry on the trade of a butcher or slaughterer of cattle in the state of Texas, shall file a bond, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which he desires to carry on the business, in a sum of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, conditioned that he shall keep a true and faithful record, in a book kept for that purpose, of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, with a description of the animal, including marks, brands, age, weight, and from whom purchased, and the date thereof; that he will have the hide and ears of such animal inspected by the inspector or some magistrate of the county within five days after it is slaughtered; and that he will not purchase any cattle that has been slaughtered by another unless the hide and ears of such slaughtered animal accompanies said animal offered for sale; and that he will not purchase any animal that has been slaughtered by another when the ear marks or brands on the hide accompanying such animal when offered for sale have been changed, mutilated or destroyed.

Shall keep a record, etc. Ib. §3.

Art. 4949. Every person who shall carry on the business of butcher or slaughterer of cattle shall keep a true and faithful record, in a book kept for that purpose, of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, together with a description of each animal, including mark, brand, age, weight and from whom purchased and the date thereof, and shall have the hide and ears of such animal or animals inspected by the inspector or some magistrate of the county within five days after such animal is slaughtered.

Shall be open to inspection. Ib. §5.

Art. 4950. The record provided for in the preceding article shall be open to inspection of all persons.

May be sued upon bond. Ib. §7.

Art. 4951. Any butcher or slaughterer of cattle who shall violate any of the conditions of the bond referred to in article 4948 may be sued upon his bond at the instance of the county or district attorney of the county where such bond is given, and all sums recovered by suits upon said bonds shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the available school fund of such county.

Inspector to keep a record, etc. Ib. §8.

Art. 4952. It shall be the duty of the inspector or magistrate who inspects such hides as are mentioned in this chapter to keep a record of the marks, brands, color and a general description of such hide, and for whom inspected, with the date of such inspection, and return the same to the clerk of the county court within ten days after such inspection, and shall be entitled to receive the sum of twenty-five cents for each hide so inspected, to be paid by the party having the hide inspected.

Exempted counties.

Art. 4953. The provisions of the five preceding articles shall in no wise apply to the following counties: Anderson, Bell, Gonzales, Coryell, Hamilton, Mills, Brown, Comanche, Lavaca, Llano, San Saba, Concho, Runnels, Coleman, Travis, Grayson, Cooke, Montague, Colorado, Bexar, Jasper, Newton, Orange, Jefferson, Polk, San Jacinto, Tyler, Chambers, Hardin, Liberty, Harrison, Smith, Upshur, Gregg, Wood, Rains, Bowie, Cass, Morris, Titus, Lee, Bastrop, Fayette, Hill, Johnson, Ellis, McLennan, Falls, Robertson, Milam, Brazos, Galveston, Brazoria, Matagorda, San Patricio, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Hays, Blanco, Comal, Tarrant, Wise, Parker, Jack, Dallas, Nacogdoches, San Augustine, Sabine, Shelby, Panola, Rusk, Hunt, Hopkins, Delta, Franklin, Camp, Angelina, Houston, Leon, Grimes, Madison, Kaufman, Rockwall, Fannin, Lamar, Red River, Van Zandt, Henderson, Cherokee, Bosque, Hood, Erath, Somervell, Collin, Den-

Article 4954. [4570] Hereafter when any stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox shall be found on the plantation or land of any citizen or his lessee for one year or more, such citizen or lessee may forthwith advertise the same [describing the animal's color and specifying the marks and brands, if any; also, giving the age and flesh marks of every kind] at three public places in the county in which such citizen resides; one of which notices shall be at the court house door for at least twenty days, and shall also deliver to the clerk of the county court a copy of said notice, which shall be by him securely posted up in his office; after the expiration of which time, if no owner apply, it shall be the duty of the taker-up of said animal or animals to appear before some justice of the peace in said county and stray the same.

Who may take up stray animal, etc.
(Act Oct. 26, 1866, p. 54.)
P. D. 6810.

Art. 4955. [4571] Any citizen entitled to stray any animal, as provided in the preceding article, shall make oath that the animal which he proposes to stray was taken up on his plantation, or on his lands adjoining the same; that the marks and brands thereof have not been altered or disfigured since the same was taken up; that notice has been given as the law requires, and that no owner has been found; which affidavit shall be sworn to and subscribed by the person estraying, and attested by the justice and filed; whereupon the said justice shall cause to appear before him, by summons or otherwise, two disinterested householders of his county, who are in no way related to the person estraying, commanding them, after being sworn, to value and appraise the same and certify the valuation, together with a particular description of the animal, including stature, marks, brands, color and age, under oath, which shall be attested by said justice, who shall thereupon require of the taker-up a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in double the value of such animal or animals, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, conditioned that the taker-up shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, which bond, affidavit and appraisement shall be transmitted by such justice to the clerk of the county court within twenty days thereafter, for which said justice shall receive the same fees that are allowed for similar services by law.

Oath, appraisement and bond.

P. D. 6811.

Ownership,
how proven,
etc.
Ib.
P. D. 6812.

Art. 4956. [4572] At any time within twelve months, and before the sale of any estrays, it shall be lawful for the owner of any estray animal enumerated in the first article of this chapter to prove his property by the affidavit of any respectable witness, which shall specify a particular description of the animal claimed, including the kind, marks, brands, stature, color and age of the same, which certificate may be sworn to and subscribed before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths in the county where such animal may have been estrayed, which certificate shall be delivered to the taker-up and by him filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, and on the delivery of such certificate and the payment of all costs incurred in posting such estray or estrays, to the taker-up, such owner shall be entitled to demand and receive the animal.

Proof of respectability,
when required.
Ib.

Art. 4957. [4573] When the respectability of the witness named in the preceding article is not known to the officer administering the oath, the party claiming the estray shall produce satisfactory evidence of the respectability of such witness, certified to by a notary public, county clerk or county judge of the county in which such witness resides.

When taker-up not entitled to compensation.
Ib.

Art. 4958. [4574] If the owner of any animal which has been estrayed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter be a resident citizen of the county in which such animal has been estrayed, and shall have had his mark and brand recorded in said county, and the animal so estrayed shall be in the mark and brand of the owner at the time it was taken up, then and in that case the taker-up shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for expense incurred in estraying said animal.

Estray not to be used until,
etc.
Ib.
P. D. 6810.

Art. 4959. [4575] Any animal taken up as an estray according to the provisions of the preceding articles shall not be used for any purpose whatsoever until the party taking up such animal shall have given bond as required by article 4955.

When county commissioner to return
estrays.
Ib.
P. D. 6813.

Art. 4960. [4576] If any estray of any kind shall be found running at large and not estrayed, and the owner of the same be unknown, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners, or any of them, to return the same, with a full description thereof, to the county clerk of their respective counties, who shall advertise the same in the manner specified in this chapter, and if such animal shall not be proven away by the owner within the time allowed by law the commissioner returning the same, or his successor in office, shall proceed to sell such animal and report the sale thereof to the clerk of the county court, and after paying the clerk's fee and retaining twenty per cent of the proceeds of such sale, he shall pay the remaining sum into the county treasury.

County clerk to record papers.
Ib.
P. D. 6814.

Art. 4961. [4577] It shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court to record the papers transmitted to him, as provided in article 4571, in a separate book, to be kept by him for that purpose, for which he shall be entitled to demand and receive the same fees that are allowed by law for similar services, to be paid in all cases by the taker-up.

Two or more animals to be in one entry.
Ib.

Art. 4962. [4578] When two or more animals are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be included in the same entry, and no more fees (including fees for posting and advertising hereinafter mentioned) shall be charged than is allowed by law for one such animal.

Clerk to advertise, etc.
Ib.

Art. 4963. [4579] The clerk of the county court shall cause a statement of the appraisement and a description of the animals so estrayed to be advertised at least three times in some newspaper published in the county where such animal was estrayed, if there be one; and if there be no newspaper published in the county, then the clerk shall cause the same to be advertised in the newspaper nearest to the county, and also by posting up notices at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door thereof; and the printer of such notice shall furnish the said clerk with a copy of the paper containing said notice, and it shall be the duty of the said clerk to file and preserve the same in his office for the inspection of all persons who may be interested; and for such publication the printer shall be entitled to receive from the party estraying the same the sum of two dollars, to be collected by the county clerk and paid to the order of the printer.

Art. 4964. [4580] The property of every stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox taken up as aforesaid and not proven away within twelve months after such appraisement, shall be deemed vested in the county wherein such stray or estrays may have been posted, and the taker-up shall immediately thereafter proceed to sell the same for cash to the highest bidder at the court house door of the county, after giving notice of the same as required in the case of sheriff's sales; and within ten days after such sale, he shall, after deducting the expenses incurred in estraying said animals, pay into the county treasury seventy-five per cent of the proceeds of the same, and retain the other twenty-five per cent for his own use and benefit.

Property in estrays, etc.,
sales, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 6815.

Art. 4965. [4581] Whenever a sale of an stray shall be made according to the provisions of the preceding article, the taker-up shall make a return of such sale, duly sworn to by him, to the clerk of the county court of the county in which the sale was made, who shall file the same in his office.

Return of sale.
Ib.

Art. 4966. [4582] All sales of estrays, horses, mares, fillies, geldings, colts, mules, jacks, jennets or work oxen shall be made on the first Monday in the month, and between the hours of one and three o'clock p. m. of said day.

Sales made on first Monday.
Ib.

Art. 4967. [4583] Any citizen taking up any stray hogs, sheep, goats or cattle, other than work oxen, shall proceed in the same manner as is required in the case of horses, etc., except advertising in a newspaper; and any person estraying the same, at the expiration of six months from the day of appraisement, shall proceed to give notice as in the case of sheriffs' or constables' sales, and sell such estrays where they were taken up; provided, there be not less than three adult bidders in attendance at said sale, beside the family of the taker-up.

Hogs, sheep, etc., how estrayed, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 6816.

Art. 4968. [4584] No animal of the kind enumerated in the preceding article, except work oxen, shall be subject to be estrayed unless the same shall have been known to the taker-up as being an stray for at least twelve months previous to the time of estraying the same.

Not to be estrayed until after twelve months.
Ib.

Art. 4969. [4585] In making the returns of sales under this title, when the sale has been made at the residence of the taker-up or other place than at the court house door of the county, the taker-up shall, in all cases, give the names of at least three of the bidders who were present at said sale, who were not members of his family.

Names of bidders to be given.
Ib.
P. D. 6817.

Art. 4970. [4586] If any person estraying an animal enumerated in this chapter shall send or take away the same out of the county in which the same was taken up and estrayed, or sell or otherwise dis-

Taker-up

P. D. 6818.

pcse of the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon their bond in an action for damages in favor of the party injured.

Taker-up may use, when.

Art. 4971. [4587] The taker-up of an estray may use the same in moderation, after having executed bond as provided in article 4955, but should he abuse or injure the same he and his sureties shall be liable upon his bond in damages for such abuse or injury, and may be sued therefor by the owner for his own use, or by the county judge for the use of the county.

Death, etc., of estray to be reported.

Ib.
P. D. 6319.
P. C. 188.

Art. 4972. [4588] Whenever an estray animal shall be found dead, or shall escape, the taker-up shall, without delay, make report thereof, in writing, to the clerk of the county court, under oath, which report shall be recorded by said clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and any person who shall make a false report shall be liable on his bond, together with his sureties, for the value of the animal or animals estrayed; and shall also be liable to be indicted and punished as for perjury.

Proceeds of sale, how disposed of.

Ib.
P. D. 6320.

Art. 4973. [4589] All moneys arising from the sales of estrays, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall be by him applied exclusively to the jury fund of the county.

If taker-up refuse to deliver liable for damages.

Ib.
P. D. 6321.

Art. 4974. [4590] If any person having in charge an estray shall refuse to deliver the same to the owner thereof, on his complying with the requisitions of this chapter, such owner shall be entitled to his action therefor with damages.

Owner mayre-claim money in twelve months.

Ib.
P. D. 6322.

Art. 4975. [4591] At any time within twelve months after the sale of any estray made under the provisions of this chapter, the owner of such estray may apply to the county treasurer of the county in which such estray has been sold, and upon proof of such ownership shall be entitled to receive from said treasurer the amount deposited on account of such sale, after paying such costs as may be necessary to establish his right thereto.

County clerk to send notice of estray, etc. (Acts of 1883, p. 76, §5.)

Art. 4976. Whenever any person shall estray any animal on which any county brand may be found, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county in which said estray may be to immediately send a notice containing a full description of said animal, together with the marks and brands, to the county clerk of the county to which the county brand may belong, and it shall be the duty of the county clerk of said county brand to record said notice in a book kept for that purpose, and post the same on the court house door; and it shall further be his duty to ascertain from his record of brands to whom said animal may belong, and to notify said owner by letter or otherwise, and for such services he shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner, and the county clerk furnishing the notice shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner.

Liability for failure.
Ib. §6.

Art. 4977. Any county clerk who shall fail to send a notice as required in article 4976 of this chapter, the county clerk so failing shall become liable to the original owner of said estray in an amount equal to the value of said estray.

Article 4978. [4592] Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of a county, the commissioners' court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision, on some day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs, sheep or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision.

County judge to order election.
(Const. art. 16, §22.)
(Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 150, §1.)

Art. 4979. Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the stock law, and in such intervening territory there is less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory, and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law.

Election may be ordered in subdivisions, when.
(Acts of 1881, p. 110.)

Art. 4980. [4593] Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the preceding articles which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county or subdivision, as the case may be; and if the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated.

Requisites of petition.
(Acts of 1876, p. 150.)

Art. 4981. [4594] Upon the filing of such petition the commissioners' court, at its next regular term thereafter, shall pass an order directing an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable.

Election, how ordered and conducted.
Ib.

Art. 4982. [4595] Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners' court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notice thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the court house door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision if the election be ordered for a subdivision.

Notice, how given.
Ib.

- Requisites of the order. Art. 4983. [4596] The order of the county judge shall specify—
 1. The petition and the action of the commissioners' court.
 2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
 3. The territorial limits to be affected.
 4. The day of election.
 5. The places at which polls are to be opened.
- Voting places. Art. 4984. [4597] If the election is ordered for the whole county, the same shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts; but if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened.
- Managers to be appointed, when. Art. 4985. [4598] If the election be for a subdivision of the county the county judge shall, at the time he issues the order for such election, appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters, and such managers may appoint their own clerks.
Ib. pp. 150-1, §4.
- Freeholders only to vote. Art. 4986. [4599] No person shall vote at any election under the provisions of this chapter unless he be a freeholder and is also a qualified voter under the constitution and laws.
(Const., art. 16, §23.)
 Ib. p. 150, §2.
- Manner of voting. Art. 4987. [4600] All votes at any election in pursuance of this chapter shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to prevent the animal designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing such animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words "Against the stock law."
Ib. §3.
- Returns of election. Art. 4988. [4601] On or before the tenth day after any election under the provisions of this chapter, the persons holding such election shall make due return of all the votes cast at their respective voting places for and against said proposition to the county judge of the county, who shall tabulate and count said returns and ascertain the result of said election.
Ib. p. 151, §4.
- Returns, how opened. Art. 4989. [4602] The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or of two respectable freeholders of the county.
Ib. §4.
- Proclamation of the result, and its effect. Art. 4990. [4603] If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result, which proclamation shall be posted at the court house door, and after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within the limits designated any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation.
Ib.
- Stock may be impounded, when. Art. 4991. [4604] If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated land of any person other than the owner of such stock, without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this chapter have become operative in the manner provided in the preceding articles, the owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound said stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him.
(Acts of 1887, p. 56.)
- Not to be impounded, when. Art. 4992. [4605] No animals shall be impounded unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or be found roaming about the residence, lots or cultivated land of another, and whenever any stock is impounded notice thereof shall at once be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages.

Art. 4993. [4606] Any owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of enclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: ten cents per day per head for hogs, ten cents per day per head for goats, and five cents per day per head for sheep. The damages done by such stock, if any, and the fees due to the taker-up of stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall upon the application of the taker-up of the stock be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. Where said justice shall fail or refuse to make appointment, or where the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this chapter has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due to the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees, in writing, and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders, to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with the justice of the peace, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days' notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision and one at the door of the court house of the county; and provided further, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken for the payment of the same under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 4994. [4607] After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in the preceding article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like services in civil cases.

Art. 4995. [4608] If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, the taker-up may make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to affiant, which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice, to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such assessment, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case where the owner is known, and if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the clerk of the county court, and pay the same over to the county treasurer, to be received and disbursed by him as in case of sales of estrays, or the taker-up may at his option, after the expiration of five days, estray such stock, according to the laws regulating estrays in this state.

Lawful fence.
(Acts of 1876,
p. 150, §5.)

Art. 4996. [4609] After the adoption of the stock law in any county or subdivision, any fence within such county or subdivision shall be deemed a lawful fence if it be sufficient to keep out the classes of stock not affected by the provisions of this chapter; and no person within such county or subdivision shall be required to fence against stock not permitted to run at large.

Subsequent elections in case of defeat.
Ib. §5.

Art. 4997. [4610] Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this chapter for any county or subdivision, and the proposition for a stock and fence law, as herein provided, is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter. But the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county; nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county.

(Acts of 1879,
p. 66, §6.)

Art. 4998. Should any stock not permitted to run at large enter within the inclosure of any owner or lessee of land entitled to the benefit of this chapter without his or their consent, it shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of said inclosure to impound said stock; and it shall be the duty of the owner or lessee of said land to give notice immediately to the owner of said stock of their impounding and detention, and the owner of said stock shall be entitled to the possession of his or her stock on the payment of expenses incurred in impounding and keeping said stock; provided, that in such county or subdivision said owners or lessees shall not be required to fence against the stock not permitted to run at large; and any fence in said county or subdivision which is sufficient to keep out ordinary stock permitted to run at large under this chapter shall be deemed a lawful fence. Three barbed wires or two strands of barbed wire, or pickets four and one-half feet high and not more than six inches apart, shall constitute a lawful fence. If boards or rails are used then three boards, to be not less than five inches wide and one inch thick, or four rails, shall constitute a lawful fence; provided, that if wires only are used, the owner of the fence shall be required to fasten a board not less than four inches wide and one-half inch thick between the wires; provided further, that all fencing built under the provisions of this act shall be four and one-half feet high.

Lawful fence.

Stock not to be injured,
etc.
Ib. §9.

Art. 4999. If any person whose fence is insufficient under this law, shall, with guns, dogs or otherwise, maim, wound or kill any cattle or any horse, mule, jack or jennet, or procure the same to be done, such person or persons so offending shall give full satisfaction to the party injured for all damages by such person or persons sustained, to be recovered as in other suits for damages; provided, that this article shall not be so construed as to authorize any person in any event to maim, kill or wound any horse, mule, jack, jennet or cattle belonging to another. When a trespass has been committed by any cattle or horses on the cleared or cultivated land of any person who has complied with the provisions of this chapter, in the erection of a lawful fence, it shall be lawful for such person to complain thereof to the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such trespass shall have been committed, and such justice is hereby authorized and required to cause two disinterested and impartial freeholders to be summoned, who shall on oath view and examine whether such complaint be sufficient or not, and what damages he has sustained by said trespass, and certify the same in writing; and if it shall so appear that said fence be sufficient, then the owner of such cattle or horses shall make just satisfaction for the trespass to the party injured, to be recovered before any tribunal having proper jurisdiction. In case of a second trespass by the same cattle or horses, the owner or lessee of the premises upon which the trespass is committed may, if he deem it necessary for the protection and preservation of his premises or growing crops thereon, cause said stock to be penned and turned over to the sheriff or constable, and held responsible to the person damaged for all damages caused by said stock and all costs thereof. It shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of such inclosures as are contemplated in this chapter to charge the following rates for impounding such stock as referred to in this chapter, to-wit, twenty-five cents per day per head.

Art. 5000. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the freeholders of any county or subdivision of a county where the stock law prevails from deciding by a majority vote whether or not three barbed wires without a board or plank shall constitute a lawful fence in such county or subdivision of same. The election for such purpose to be conducted in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as elections provided for in the act authorizing the passage of stock and fence laws, approved August 15, 1876.

Lawful fence may be determined by election.

Art. 5001. The counties of Cook, Refugio, Aransas, San Patricio and Bee are exempted from the provisions of this chapter.

Article 5002. [4611] Each organized county, not expressly excepted herein, shall constitute an inspection district for the inspection of hides and animals, and at each general election an officer to be styled "Inspector of hides and animals" shall be elected by the qualified voters of such county in the same manner as other county officers are elected.

Inspector to be elected. (Const., art. 16, §23.) (Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 285, §1.)

Governor may appoint in unorganized county.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 89.)

Art. 5003. The governor is authorized to appoint a hide inspector for each unorganized county in this state.

Term of office.
(Act Aug. 23,
1876, p. 295, §2.)

Art. 5004. [4612] Inspectors of hides and animals shall hold their offices for the term of two years and until the election and qualification of their successors in office.

Vacancies,
how filled.
(Act Aug. 19,
1876, p. 217, §1.)

Art. 5005. [4613] In case of a vacancy in such office the commissioners' court shall fill the same by appointment for the unexpired term, and until such vacancy is filled by such appointment the sheriff of the county shall discharge the duties of the office.

Bond and oath.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5006. [4614] Every person elected to the office of inspector of hides and animals, before entering on the duties of his office, shall enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of the county constituting his district, which bond shall be in a sum to be fixed by said court, not less than one thousand dollars, nor more than ten thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform the duties of his office, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and he shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on or attached to said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same—which bond and oath shall be deposited and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county. The bond herein provided for shall not be void for want of form or on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time, in the name of any person injured by a breach thereof, until the whole penalty shall have been recovered.

Appointees also to give bond.
(Act Aug. 19,
1876, p. 217, §1.)

Art. 5007. [4615] Persons appointed to fill vacancies in the office of inspector shall give bond and take the oath in like manner as prescribed in the preceding article, and shall not enter upon the duties of the office until such bond is given and approved and such oath is taken; but a sheriff acting temporarily as inspector, pending a vacancy in such office, shall not be required to give additional bond, but his official bond as sheriff shall extend to and include the faithful and proper performance of his duties as inspector ad interim.

Seal of office.
(Act Aug. 23,
1876, p. 296, §6.)

Art. 5008. [4616] The county commissioners' court of each county shall furnish to the inspector for such county a seal of office, having upon it the words, "Inspector of Hides and Animals, _____ county, Texas" [the blank to be filled with the name of the county], and each inspector and his deputy shall certify their official acts with the impress of such seal. Upon his retirement from office the inspector shall deliver such seal, together with the books, papers and records of his office, to his successor.

Deputies may be appointed.
Ib. p. 295, §4.

Art. 5009. [4617] Every inspector shall have power to appoint as many deputies as shall be necessary to perform the duties imposed on them by this chapter, and such deputies shall have the same power and authority to perform the duties of their office as their principal; and the inspectors shall require bond and security of their deputies for the faithful performance of their duties; and the said deputies shall, before entering upon their duties, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, shall be indorsed upon the bonds.

Appointment
to be recorded.
Ib. pp. 295-6,
§5.

Art. 5010. [4618] The appointment of each deputy shall be in writing, with the seal of the inspector thereon, and shall, with their bonds and oath of office, be recorded by the clerk of the county court of the county constituting their district, and the inspectors shall be responsible to any persons injured thereby for the official acts of each of their deputies, and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and their sureties as any person can have against the inspectors and their sureties.

Art. 5011. [4619] Whenever in this chapter the word "inspector" is used, it shall be taken and deemed to be "the inspector of hides and animals," the words "deputy inspector" shall be taken to mean the "deputy inspector of hides and animals," and the words "county, district or inspection district," shall be held to include each organized county in this state not herein excepted, together with any unorganized county that may be attached for judicial purposes to any such county.

Meaning of terms.
Ib. p. 301, §27.

Art. 5012. [4620] Every inspector shall have authority to authenticate bills of sale of animals, and give certificates of acknowledgment of the same under his hand and seal.

May authenticate instruments.
Ib. p. 302, §30.

Art. 5013. [4621] It shall be the duty of the inspector, in person or by deputy, to faithfully examine and inspect all hides or animals known or reported to him as sold, or as leaving or going out of the county, for sale or shipment, and all animals driven or sold in his district for slaughter, packeries or butcheries, and the inspector shall keep a record, in a well-bound book, in which he shall record a correct statement of the number, ages, marks and brands of all animals inspected by him, and the number, mark and brand of all hides inspected by him, and whether the same are dry or green, and the name or names of the vendor or vendors, and of the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

Inspections and record thereof.
Ib. p. 296, §7.

Art. 5014. [4622] He shall return a certified copy of all entries made in such record during each month to the clerk of the county court of the county on the last day of each month, which report shall be filed among the records of the county court. The book of records herein provided for shall at all times be open for the inspection of any person interested therein.

Monthly returns to county clerk.
Ib.

Art. 5015. [4623] The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to include sheep, goats, swine or hides of either, nor to involve the re-inspection of salted hides in packeries or other slaughter-houses taken from animals previously inspected and returned, as provided in the preceding articles.

Exemptions from inspection.
Ib.

Art. 5016. [4624] No inspector shall grant any certificate of inspection of any unbranded hides or animals, or of hides or animals upon which the marks and brands can not be ascertained; and he shall prevent the same from being taken or shipped out of the county unless they are identified by proof or by a bill of sale signed by the owner of such hides or animal, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state.

Shall not certify unbranded animals, etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 5017. [4625] Every inspector shall have power to, and may seize and sequester all unmarked or unbranded calves or yearlings; and all calves or yearlings freshly marked or branded, and on which the fresh marks or brands are unhealed, which are about to be slaughtered, or driven or shipped out of the county, unless such animals are accompanied by the mothers thereof, or are identified by the presentation of a bill of sale from the person proved to be the owner thereof, signed by him or his legally authorized agent, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state.

May seize certain animals, etc.
Ib. §9.

Also unbranded hides and animals.
Ib. §10.

Art. 5018. [4626] Every inspector shall have power to, and may seize and sequester all unbranded animals or hides, and animals and hides upon which the mark or brand can not be ascertained, which are about to be taken or shipped out of the county, or which animals are to be slaughtered, unless such animals or hides are identified as provided in the preceding article.

Procedure in cases of seizure.
Ib. p. 304, §44.

Art. 5019. [4627] When the inspector has seized any hides or animals, as provided for in the two preceding articles, he shall report the fact to some judge of the district or county court or justice of the peace, according as the value of the property seized may come within the jurisdiction of either of said courts, and it shall be the duty of said judge or justice to issue or cause to be issued a citation addressed, "To all whom it may concern," setting forth a seizure of said property, with a description of the same, commanding them to appear at a day named in said citation to show cause why the said property should not be forfeited to the county wherein the same was seized and sold for the benefit of said county; said citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of said county, who shall cause certified copies of the same to be posted in three public places in said county for a period of ten days before the day mentioned in said citation. Upon the proof of the posting of said citation, as herein required, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace issuing said citation to proceed to condemn the property mentioned in said citation, unless satisfactory proof should be made of the ownership of said property, or other sufficient cause be shown why the same should not be condemned; and in case of condemnation he shall order the same to be sold by the inspector at public auction to the highest bidder. The inspector shall be entitled to retain one-fourth of the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting therefrom all expenses connected therewith, and he shall immediately pay the remaining three-fourths thereof into the county treasury; and all sums so paid in shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of such county.

Bill of sale to be taken.
Ib. p. 297, §11.

Art. 5020. [4628] Every person who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for sale or shipment out of any county, or who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for slaughter, shall, at the time of purchasing and before driving the same, procure a bill of sale from the owner or owners thereof, or from his or their legally authorized agent, which bill of sale shall be in writing, properly signed and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state. Such bill of sale shall distinctly enumerate the number, kind and age of animals sold, together with all the marks and brands discernable on said animals; and said animals shall, before leaving the county in which they have been gathered, be inspected by the inspector of such county or his deputy.

Also in sale of hides.
Ib. §12.

Art. 5021. [4629] Every person who shall purchase any hides of cattle shall, at the time of purchasing the same, obtain from the owner thereof, or from his legally authorized agent, a bill of sale in writing, certified to by the inspector or by any officer authorized to take acknowledgments, which bill of sale shall recite in full the marks and brands of each hide, the weight thereof, and whether the same is dry or green.

Certificate of inspection to be given.
Ib. §13.

Art. 5022. [4630] Whenever an inspector shall have inspected any animal or animals, as herein provided, he shall, on the presentation of a bill of sale or power of attorney from the owner or owners of such animal or animals, or his or their agent, duly authorized in writing, which bill of sale, power of attorney or authority shall be in writing, duly signed and acknowledged by the person executing the same before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state, and on payment to said inspector of his legal fees, deliver to the purchaser of the animals mentioned in such bill of sale or power of attorney, or his agent, a certificate setting forth that he has carefully examined and inspected such animal or animals, and that said purchaser has in all respects complied with the provisions of this chapter, which certificate shall not be complete until the same and bill of sale herein provided for shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county, and be certified to by said clerk under his hand and seal. Such certificate shall be then delivered to the purchaser or purchasers, and shall protect him or them from the payment of inspection fees in any other district for the animals therein described, except from the county from which the same may be exported.

Art. 5023. [4631] Any person or persons driving cattle in his or their own mark and brand shall be entitled to the certificate of inspection provided for in the preceding article, on payment of fees to the inspector, and on presentation to the inspector of the certificate of the clerk of the county court of the county where such mark and brand is recorded, to the effect that the mark and brand named therein is duly recorded in his office as the mark and brand of the person so driving such cattle.

Same subject.
Ib. §14;
amend. 1895,
Sen. Jour., No.
101a, p. 484.

Art. 5023a. [4632] Any person or persons who shall drive any cattle to market beyond the limits of this state shall, before removing such cattle from the county where the same are gathered, place upon each and every animal so to be driven, a large and plain road brand, composed of any device he may choose, which brand shall be branded on the left side of the back behind the shoulder; and every person or persons using or causing to be used any road brand shall place the same on record as in the case of other brands, in the county from which the animals are to be driven, and before their removal from such county.

Road brand.
(Acts of 1876,
p. 295; Sen.
Jour., 1895, p.
484.)

Art. 5023b. [4633] Any person intending to drive or ship any animals to the Republic of Mexico, may ship the same from any point on the coast of Texas, or may drive or ship them across the Rio Grande river at any point where a custom house of the United States is located, and shall not drive or ship such animals across the Rio Grande at any other point or points, and he shall cause all such animals to be inspected by the inspector of the district in which the point of shipment or place at which they are to be driven across said river is situated; such inspection shall be made before shipment from the state or passage across said river of said animals.

Exportation of cattle to Mexico.
Ib.

Art. 5023c. [4634] Whenever a drove of cattle may be passing through any county it shall be the duty of the inspector, if called upon to do so by any person, to stop and inspect said drove without any unnecessary detention of the same; and he shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in the inspection of such cattle as are prescribed in articles 5013, 5017 and 5018.

Herds in transit may be inspected.
Ib.

Art. 5023d. [4635] If any cattle be found in said drove not included in the certificate of the inspector of the county in which the drove may have been gathered, the fees of the inspector shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said cattle, but if no cattle shall be found in said drove except those covered by the inspector's certificate, then the inspector's fees shall be paid by the person at whose instance and request said drove was inspected.

Hides imported from Mexico.
Ib.

Art. 5023e. [4636] The hides of all cattle imported into this state from Mexico shall be inspected by the inspector of hides and animals of any county or district into which the same may be introduced or imported; and should the importer of said hides fail or refuse to pay the inspection fees as required by law, the inspector is hereby authorized to retain possession of said hides and sell a sufficient number thereof, after public notice of three days, to the highest and best bidder, to pay said inspection fees and all necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Horses and mules.
Ib.

Art. 5023f. [4637] Horses and mules imported from Mexico into this state shall be inspected in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article, and with like authority to retain and sell as therein provided for a failure to pay the inspection fees.

Suspicious hides to be seized.
Ib.

Art. 5023g. [4638] Should an inspector of hides and animals find among hides imported from Mexico any hides which, from the brand or from other evidence, he has reason to believe have been stolen from the lawful owner, it shall be his duty to separate said hides from the others undergoing inspection, and to notify any person he believes to be interested therein to come forward and institute suit for the recovery of the same.

Procedure upon seizure.

Art. 5023h. [4639] Should no person appear to claim said hides the inspector shall, within twenty-four hours, make oath before the county judge of the county or before a justice of the peace of the county, that he has reason to believe that said hides have been stolen, whereupon said county judge or justice of the peace shall issue a citation, directing the importer or party claiming the same to appear before him at his office within a time specified, not to exceed twenty-four hours, to show cause why said hides should not be condemned.

Importer to recover on proof.
Ib.

Art. 5024. [4640] Should said importer or claimant make proof that he is the lawful owner of said hides by showing a bill of sale from the owner of the same or his legally authorized agent, and by showing a complete chain or transfer or title from the original owner of the brand to himself or his firm, as the case may be, the county judge or justice of the peace shall direct that the same be delivered to said importer or claimant upon his paying the inspection fees.

Hides to be sold, if not proven away.
Ib.

Art. 5025. [4641] Should the importer or claimant of said hides fail to establish his claim as the lawful owner of the same, or to any number of said hides so seized, it shall be the duty of the county judge or the justice of the peace to direct that said hides be sold at public auction by the inspector of hides and animals, or his deputy, after a notice of ten days, published in a newspaper, should there be one published in said county; or if no newspaper be published in the county, then by notice in writing, posted at the court house and two or more other places in said county, and the said hides shall be sold to the highest and best bidder.

Fees of inspector in such cases.
Ib.

Art. 5026. [4642] The inspector of hides and animals shall retain twenty-five per cent of the purchase money, after having deducted and paid all necessary expenses incurred by reason of said sale, and he shall deposit the remainder of said purchase money with the county treasurer and take his receipt therefor; and said county treasurer shall place one-half of said sum of money to the credit of the school fund and the other half to the credit of the jury fund of said county.

Art. 5027. [4643] Should any person appear either by himself, his agent or attorney, and claim any hides imported from Mexico at any time before said hides shall have been sold as above directed, and should said claim be established before the county judge or a justice of the peace of said county, such hides shall be delivered to the claimant, and all costs accruing therein shall be paid by the importer; provided, that at any time before proceedings shall have been commenced as above directed, the importer may be permitted to pay the lawful owner, his agent or attorney, for any hides imported by him from Mexico and presented in any county of this state for inspection, and upon such payment, and the fees for inspection, such hides shall be released.

Hides to be delivered to true owner, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5028. [4644] The clerk of the county court in each county shall transcribe the list of all recorded marks and brands in his county and revise the same. Such revised list shall be written in a well-bound book, kept for that purpose only, and shall be arranged as follows, viz.: All brands of the letter class shall be placed in alphabetical order, following which shall be the numeral, character and device brands in the order of the date of their registration. Opposite each brand shall be stated the marks corresponding to said brand, the name of the owner of the brand, his place of residence; if the same be sold, the name of the person to whom sold, and his residence; the date of registration of brands and marks, particulars relating thereto. Before each brand shall be placed its number, commencing at one for the first brand on the revised list; and the name of the owner of each brand shall be indexed, reference being had in such index to the list number of the brand or brands of such owner; and all new brands and marks placed on record shall be immediately recorded and indexed in said book, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of all persons; provided, that the provisions of this article shall apply only to counties in which the work of transcribing the records has not already been done in accordance with law.

Revised list of marks and brands.
Ib. p. 300, §23.

Art. 5029. [4645] In all cases where application for registration of any mark or brand shall be made the clerk of the county court shall receive and record the same, unless an examination of the recorded list of marks and brands shows that a similar mark and brand is already upon record in such county, in which event he shall refuse to register or give any certificate for the same; provided, that if such applicant shall have previously had such mark and brand recorded in some other county, and shall have a certificate from the clerk of the county in which said brand had been recorded, stating that said brand and mark had been recorded in said county at some time anterior to the time of the registration of the similar mark and brand in the county in which the applicant may desire to have his brand recorded, then said brand and mark shall be recorded, and the clerk shall, on the record, make a minute setting forth said facts.

Same brand, etc., not to be recorded twice, etc.
Ib. §24.

Art. 5030. [4646] All marks and brands of cattle shall be recorded in the county or counties in which they usually range; provided, that when cattle are gathered near the county line the bills of sale of the same shall be recorded in both counties; and when any stock of cattle is sold the fact shall be noted on the record opposite or near the record of its mark and brand, giving the name of the vendor and vendee and date of sale, and this shall be done as often as there is a sale. It is made the duty of the inspector to procure certified copies of the marks and brands of this county for himself and his deputies, and, monthly, to have added thereto the marks and brands that may be recorded.

Ib. p. 301, §23.

Only one mark and brand to be used.
Ib. p. 300, §22.

Art. 5031. [4647] No person owning and claiming stock shall, in originally marking and branding animals, make use of more than one mark and brand; provided, that any person may own and possess animals in many marks and brands, the same having been by him acquired by purchase, and bills of sale in writing, properly acknowledged, from the previous owner or owners of his or their legally constituted agent, shall be sufficient evidence of such purchase, but the increase of such animals, or of any animal counterbranded by such person from other stocks of cattle owned by him, shall be branded or counterbranded by one and the same brand, and when marked by such person shall be marked in one and the same mark.

Counterbranding.
Ib. §21.

Art. 5032. [4648] In all cases where the counterbranding of any cattle shall be deemed necessary or expedient, the person so counterbranding shall counterbrand the existing brand of the animal by which the owner thereof is then known, or by which it is then claimed and owned, by branding below the said brand its facsimile, that is, similar letters, characters or numbers, as the case may be; and he shall also place on said animals the brand of the then owner thereof; but no person shall change or alter the ear marks of any animal, but in counterbranding shall leave the ears bearing the same mark or marks as before counterbranding.

Authority to gather, etc.
Ib. p. 209, §20.

Art. 5033. [4649] Any person having marks and brands recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court may file with the inspector a list of his recorded marks and brands, certified by the clerk under his seal, to which certified list shall be attached the names of any person or persons whom the owner of said stock may wish to authorize to gather, drive or otherwise handle his stock; and the filing of said list with the inspector shall be deemed sufficient authority to the person or persons named in such list to gather, drive or otherwise handle any animals of the marks and brands therein described.

Inspections to be personal.
Ib. p. 301, §29.

Art. 5034. [4650] In making inspections the inspector shall not trust to the statements or representations of any person, but he shall in person carefully inspect and examine each animal or hide separately so as to identify the marks and brands, and in case of animals, the ages and sexes.

Certificate of inspection.
Ib.

Art. 5035. [4651] He shall also carefully examine the bills of sale and lists of brands and marks for the cattle inspected by him, and if satisfied that the person claiming the cattle inspected has correct bills of sale or chain of transfer in writing from the recorded owner, or is the owner himself in whole or part of the mark and brand of each animal in his drove or herd which should be inspected, and that he has none other in said herd or under his control to be carried with it, he will then, and not until then, make out a certificate, which he shall first enter in his record, under his hand and seal, containing the number of cattle in each mark and brand, with their respective ages and sexes, thus inspected, and that they appear to be the property of the person for whom they were inspected, naming him or her, as appears by bills of sale from the recorded owner of the marks and brands on the cattle inspected by him, or the owner of the brand and mark himself or herself, and that he has none other in his herd or under his control that should be inspected; and that he intends to drive or ship them, naming the place in the state, for sale or slaughter; or, if out of the state, he shall then name the place on the border of the state through which it is proposed to drive or ship such stock.

Art. 5036. [4652] Whenever any person shall be about to drive or ship any stock out of the state, if the inspector shall believe, or is informed by any credible person, that said person has other stock in his herd than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly attested by proper bill of sale, the inspector at said point of shipment, or border county where said person leaves the state, shall be authorized to inspect said stock in the same manner as in the original inspection; and if any stock is found in said herd other than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly and properly authenticated by bill of sale, the fees of said inspection shall be paid as provided in article 5023d of this chapter (provided, that the said inspector shall in no case be authorized to receive or demand more than three cents per head for each head of cattle inspected); but if not, then said fees shall be paid by the person at whose instance said inspection was made; and if said inspection is made by the inspector, at his own instance, and no stock is found in said herd except those properly accounted for under the provisions of this article, then said inspector shall receive no fees for said inspection.

Inspection before exportation.
(Acts of 1879, extra session ch. 22.)

Art. 5037. [4653] One of these certificates the inspector shall immediately remit by mail, postage paid, to the first inspector, and the party owning the cattle shall deposit the other with him in two months from the date of the original inspection, both to be kept by him in his office.

Certificate, where filed.
Ib.

Art. 5038. [4654] But if the inspector at the point of destination shall find, upon inspection, that the owner of the herd or person in charge has in his herd other cattle besides those inspected originally in the county from which said herd was driven, he shall seize said cattle and take them into possession, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as are prescribed in article 5017.

Seizure of cattle not inspected originally.
Ib.

Art. 5039. [4655] If the person in charge of any such cattle shall refuse to deliver the same into the possession of the inspector, such inspector may apply for and obtain a writ of sequestration from any justice of the peace, county judge or district judge, according as the value of such cattle may come within the jurisdiction of either. Such writ may be obtained upon the affidavit of the inspector, stating that he believes such cattle have been unlawfully acquired, and shall issue without bond, and be forthwith executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county; and thereupon the proceedings referred to in the preceding article shall be had before the officer issuing the writ, either in term time or in vacation.

Writ of sequestration if necessary.
Ib.

Art. 5040. [4656] The net proceeds of the sale of cattle condemned under the two preceding articles, save one-fourth of such proceeds retained by the inspector for his compensation, shall be paid into the county treasury, subject to the claim of the true owner of such cattle; and if no claim be set up and established thereto within one year from the date of its deposit, such proceeds shall pass into the general fund of the county, and all claims thereto shall thereafter be barred.

Proceeds paid into county treasury subject to claims.
Ib.

Art. 5041. [4657] At the time such proceeds are originally deposited in the county treasury the inspector shall accompany such deposit with a certified statement, under his hand and seal, of the Description, etc., of cattle also filed.

Ib.

number of cattle sold, the mark and brand of each animal, the amount for which each sold.

Change of destination.
Ib.

Art. 5042. [4658] If the owner of the inspected herd should desire to sell, slaughter or ship the cattle, or any of them, at any other place than the destination named in the original certificate of inspection, he may do so by first having his herd inspected at the point of destination therein named and a new certificate of inspection issued to him at that point, naming the new point of destination or shipment; and upon his arrival at such new point of destination like proceedings shall be had in the way of inspection, comparison and return of the certificates of inspection as are prescribed for the original point of destination.

Counties
exempted.

Art. 5043. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the following counties, viz.: Anderson, Austin, Angelina, Bell, Bowie, Brazos, Bastrop, Bosque, Burleson, Brazoria, Caldwell, Camp, Calhoun, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Collin, Colorado, Cooke, Dallas, Delta, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Fannin, Franklin, Falls, Freestone, Gonzales, Eastland, Stephens, Fayette, Fort Bend, Galveston, Goliad, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Hardin, Harrison, Hays, Henderson, Hill, Hood, Hunt, Hopkins, Houston, Jackson, DeWitt, Jasper, Jefferson, Johnson, Kaufman, Lamar, Lee, Leon, Lampasas, McLennan, Madison, Marion, Montgomery, Montague, Morris, Nacogdoches, Newton, Orange, Panola, Parker, Polk, Palo Pinto, Rains, Red River, Robertson, Rockwall, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, Shackelford, Shelby, Smith, Tarrant, Titus, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Walker, Washington, Wharton, Wise, Wood, Jack, Harris, Chambers, Clay, Young, Wheeler, Lavaca, Neuces, Bee, Refugio, Limestone, San Patricio, Somervell, Matagorda, Waller, Karnes, Victoria, Milam, Live Oak, Williamson, Liberty, Wilbarger, Archer, Hardeman, Childress, Hall, Collingsworth, Donley, Gray, Armstrong, Briscoe, Floyd, Randall, Kendall, Comal, Travis, Navarro, Brown, Coryell, Mills, Bailey, Deaf Smith, Dallam, Oldham, Hartley, Hockley, Cochran, Ford and Wichita, and the provisions of this chapter shall in no wise relate or apply to the aforesaid counties; provided, that in those counties bordering on the line of the state, except those bordering on Red River, and the Rio Grande, where there is a depot or place for the shipment of cattle, no inspector of hides and animals shall be elected, but one for each of such counties shall be appointed by the governor, who shall hold office for two years, and until his successor shall be appointed, and said inspector, so appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office and give the bond now required of inspectors of hides and animals, and such inspector shall receive the same fees now allowed to inspectors of hides and animals, and perform the same duties; provided, that such cattle shall not be subject to inspection on board of any railroad unless the same have been placed on board of such train for the purpose of evading the provisions of this act; and provided further, that the counties of Guadalupe, Blanco, Llano, Kendall and Hamilton shall be exempt from all laws regulating the inspection of hides.

Article 5043a. There shall be appointed by the governor, and with the consent of the senate, a live stock sanitary commission of the state of Texas, composed of three members. Before entering upon the duties of their office said commissioners shall take and subscribe to the usual oath of office and file the same with the secretary of state; and they shall also, before entering upon the performance of their duties, execute a bond, to be approved by the state comptroller, in the sum of ten thousand dollars each, conditioned that they will faithfully perform the duties of their office, which said bond they shall file with the secretary of state. The term of office of said commissioners shall be for a period of two years next from the day of their qualification, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified.

Commission created; oath, bond and term of office. (Acts of 1893, p. 70.)

Art. 5043b. The commissioners, whose appointment is provided for in the preceding article, shall each be practical live stock raisers in the state of Texas, and shall have been actively engaged in said business for at least five years next preceding the date of their appointment, and shall be bona fide residents of and stock raisers in the particular section of the state from which they may be appointed. One of said commissioners shall be appointed from the west, one from the south, and one from the eastern portion of said state.

Qualifications of commis- sioners. Ib.

Art. 5043c. It shall be the duty of the commission provided for in article 5043a to protect the domestic animals of this state from all contagious or infectious diseases of a malignant character, whether said diseases exist in Texas or elsewhere; and for this purpose they are hereby authorized and empowered to establish, maintain, and enforce such quarantine lines and sanitary rules and regulations as they may deem necessary. It shall also be the duty of said commission to co-operate with live stock quarantine commissioners and officers of other states and territories, and with the United States secretary of agriculture, in establishing such interstate quarantine lines, rules, and regulations as shall best protect the live stock industry of this state against Texas or splenetic fever. It shall be the duty of said commission, upon receipt by them of reliable information of the existence among the domestic animals of the state of any malignant disease, to go at once to the place where any such disease is alleged to exist, and make a careful examination of the animals believed to be affected with any such disease, and ascertain, if possible, what, if any, disease exists among the live stock reported to be affected, and whether the same is contagious or infectious, and if said disease is found to be of a malignant, contagious or infectious character, they shall direct and enforce such quarantine lines and sanitary regulations as are necessary to prevent the spread of any such disease. And no domestic animal infected with disease, or capable of communicating the same, shall be permitted to enter or leave the district, premises, or grounds so quarantined, except by authority of the commissioners. The said commission shall also, from time to time, give and enforce such directions and prescribe such rules and regulations as to separating, feeding, and caring for such diseased and exposed animals as they shall deem necessary to prevent the animals so affected with such disease from coming in contact with other animals not so affected. And the said commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon any grounds or premises to carry out the provisions of this act.

Duties and powers of the commission. Ib.

When the governor shall proclaim quarantine.
Ib.

Art. 5043d. When the commission shall have determined the quarantine lines and other regulations necessary to prevent the spread among domestic animals of Texas of any malignant, contagious, or infectious disease found to exist among the live stock of this state, or elsewhere, and given their orders as hereinbefore provided, prescribing quarantine and other regulations, they shall notify the governor of the state of Texas, who shall issue his proclamation, proclaiming the boundary of such quarantine around such diseased stock, and the orders, rules, and regulations prescribed by the commission; and such commission shall give such notice as may to them seem best to make the quarantine established by them effective.

Commission to purchase supplies, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5043e. The commission provided for in this chapter shall have power to purchase such supplies and material as may be necessary to carry into full effect all orders by them given, as hereinbefore provided, which said supplies and material and wages, and expenses of the veterinarian hereinafter provided for, shall be paid out of the moneys hereinafter appropriated, on the warrant of the comptroller, issued to said commissioners, upon their filing with the comptroller an itemized account thereof, properly verified by affidavit; provided, that no material or supplies may be purchased by the commissioners except such as may be necessary to carry into effect the quarantine and other regulations prescribed by them. And such commissioners shall have the power to employ a competent veterinarian to assist them in the investigation of the diseases amongst the live stock of this state whenever they may deem the services of one necessary; provided, that the compensation of such veterinarian shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars per day and actual expenses while so employed; and provided further, that the expenditures for the compensation of veterinarians shall not exceed nine hundred dollars in any one year.

Railways to keep clean transporting cars.
Ib.

Art. 5043f. It shall be the duty of the railway corporations doing business in the state to cleanse and disinfect the cars used by them in transporting live stock in or through this state, at such times and places as the commissioners may designate, whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners, any such order may be necessary to prevent the spread of infectious or contagious disease. And such corporations violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered in a civil action, to be prosecuted under the direction of the attorney-general in the name of the state of Texas.

Knowledge or suspicion of infection to be reported.

Art. 5043g. It shall be the duty of any owner or person in charge of any domestic animal or animals, who discovers, suspects or has reason to believe that any of his domestic animals, or domestic animals in his charge, are affected with any contagious or infectious disease, to immediately report such fact, belief, or suspicion to the commission and to the sheriff and county clerk of the county in which said domestic animals are found.

Art. 5043h. The commissioners appointed by the governor, as hereinbefore provided, shall receive five dollars per day for the time by them necessarily employed in the discharge of the duties required by this chapter; and said commissioners, hereinbefore provided for, shall receive in addition thereto the actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred by them and paid in the discharge of the duties required of them by the provisions of this chapter; which said per diem and expenses shall be drawn from the treasury on the warrant of the comptroller, to be issued to said commissioners on their filing with the comptroller an itemized account thereof, properly verified by affidavit.

Compensation of commissioners.

Art. 5043i. The live stock sanitary commission shall have power to call upon any sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable to execute their orders, and such officers shall obey the orders of said commissioners; and the officer or officers performing these duties shall each be entitled to two dollars and fifty cents per day for himself and horse, which payment shall be made upon a sworn account, approved by said commissioners; provided, said expenses under this article shall not exceed in any event five hundred dollars per annum.

Sheriffs and constables subject to orders of commissioners.
Ib.

Art. 5043j. The sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of the general revenue fund not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the exhaustion of the appropriation herein made shall terminate the liability of the state for the two years next following, and absolve it from any future claims of any and all persons who may have claims, real or pretended, under the provisions of this chapter.

Appropriation for purposes of this chapter.
Ib.

Art. 5043k. Any quarantine line that may be fixed by the live stock sanitary commission, against Texas or splenic fever, shall be so fixed as to conform to the Federal quarantine line established, or that may be established, by the United States department of agriculture; provided, however, that as to the shipment or movement of live stock within the limits of the state, such quarantine lines, and the regulations in relation thereto, shall not apply from the first day of November to the fifteenth day of May of each year; provided, the quarantine line now recognized and established by Federal authority within the state of Texas shall not be changed prior to December 1, 1893, but said line as is now established shall remain in full force until said date.

Quarantine line.

Art. 5043l. No quarantine line shall be established at any time, nor regulations made in relation thereto, unless two of the live stock sanitary commissioners agree thereto.

Concurrence of two commissions, etc.

Art. 5043m. This chapter does not repeal any law in force for the protection of domestic animals, but is cumulative thereto.

Cumulative law.

Occupation
taxes.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 27, et seq.)

Art. 5049. [4665] There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm, company or association of persons pursuing any of the following named occupations an annual occupation tax, except when herein otherwise provided, on every such occupation or separate establishment, as follows:

Merchants,
etc.

From every merchant whose annual purchases amount to ten hundred thousand dollars, three hundred dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, two hundred and fifty dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to five hundred thousand dollars, two hundred dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, one hundred and fifty dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to one hundred thousand dollars, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to fifty thousand dollars, sixty dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to twenty-five thousand dollars, twenty-five dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to fifteen thousand dollars, twenty dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to ten thousand dollars, twelve dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to five thousand dollars, six dollars; from every merchant whose annual purchases amount to two thousand dollars or less, three dollars. A merchant in the meaning of this article is any person, firm or association of persons engaged in buying and selling lumber and shingles, goods, wares and merchandise of any kind whatever.

Affidavit.
(Act of 1895,
p. 18.)

Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, desiring to sell goods, wares or merchandise within this state, shall, before pursuing such occupation, pay the tax and take out a license to pursue the occupation of a merchant of the class to which he properly belongs, according to his annual purchases, as provided by law; and shall file with the tax collector an affidavit of the amount of his annual purchases for the past year, if previously engaged in such business, or part of a year if engaged in such business less than a year, and also of the estimated amount of his annual purchases for the ensuing year. Said affidavit shall be filed and preserved by the tax collector as a part of the records of his office, and shall be in substance as follows, viz.:

“The undersigned, as the representative of ———, doing business at ———, Texas, do solemnly swear that the estimate made of the annual purchases of said concern of goods, wares and merchandise for the next ensuing year does not exceed ——— thousand dollars. I further swear that the annual purchases of said concern for the past ——— months did not exceed the sum of ——— thousand dollars.”

Said affidavit shall be signed and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and for this purpose the tax collectors of counties, cities, and towns are hereby authorized to administer oaths.

Patent medicine vendors.

From every traveling person selling patent or other medicine, one hundred and seventy-five dollars, and no traveling person shall so sell until said tax is paid; provided, that this tax shall not apply to commercial travelers, drummers or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade for merchants engaged in selling drugs or medicines by wholesale.

From every fortune teller, one thousand dollars; from every clairvoyant or mesmerist who plies his or her vocation for money, fifty dollars for each and every county in which such vocation is carried on.

Fortune tellers, etc.

From every person, firm or association of persons engaged in discounting and shaving paper, or engaged in business as money brokers or bankers, or dealers in stocks, securities or bills of exchange, or in buying and selling bonds, state or county warrants or other claims against the state, an annual tax of twenty-five dollars in a city or town of not more than two thousand inhabitants; in a city or town of five thousand inhabitants and not less than two thousand, an annual tax of sixty dollars; in a city or town of ten thousand and not less than five thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of one hundred and twenty dollars; in a city or town of twenty thousand and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of one hundred and eighty dollars; in a city or town of more than twenty thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of two hundred and forty dollars.

Money brokers.

From every operator or owner of any daguerrean, photograph or other such like gallery, by whatever name called, if in any incorporated city or town of less than five thousand inhabitants, six dollars; if more than five thousand inhabitants, fourteen dollars; and if elsewhere, four dollars; and from every person soliciting work for any daguerrean, photograph or such like gallery, or for persons engaged in the business of copying or enlarging pictures or photographs of any character, where such gallery is not situated in or such business is not in the county in which he solicits such work, seven dollars.

Photographers, etc.

From every auctioneer doing business in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, an annual tax of forty dollars; from every auctioneer in a city or town of five thousand and not more than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars; from every auctioneer in a city or town of two thousand inhabitants and not more than five thousand, ten dollars; from auctioneers in all other towns or villages, seven dollars.

Auctioneers.

From every keeper of a toll bridge, an annual tax of seven dollars.

Toll bridge keepers.

From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of ship brokers or ship agents, if in a city or town of ten thousand inhabitants or more, fifty dollars; if in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, ten dollars.

Ship brokers, etc.

From every person, firm or association of persons selling upon commission, an annual tax of seven dollars.

Commission merchants.

From every land agent there shall be collected an annual tax of five dollars. The term "land agent" shall be construed to mean any person, firm or association of persons performing for compensation any of the following services: purchasing or selling real estate for others, purchasing or selling land certificates for others. But this term "land agent" shall not be so construed as to levy a tax upon attorney in addition to the one hereinafter levied.

Land agents.

From every person practicing law, and from every conveyancer or other person drawing deeds or other legal instruments for pay, five dollars; provided, that attorneys at law shall only pay county occupation tax in the county of his or their residence.

Lawyers.

From every physician, surgeon, oculist or medical or other specialist of any kind traveling from place to place in the practice of his profession, an annual tax of fifty dollars in each county where he may practice his profession; from every dentist, five dollars.

Physicians, etc.

- Shooting gallery. From every person or firm keeping a shooting gallery at which a fee is paid or demanded, an annual tax of twenty-five dollars in each county.
- Ring devices, etc. From every person or firm keeping a knife, cane or doll rack, or any other device upon which rings are pitched, or at which balls are thrown, an annual tax of one hundred dollars.
- Billiard tables, etc. From every billiard, bagatelle, pigeon-hole, devil-among-the-tailors, or jenny-lind table, and pool table, or anything of the kind, used for profit, twenty dollars; and any such table used in connection with any drinking saloon or other place of business where intoxicating liquors, cigars, or other things of value are sold or given away, or upon which any money or any other thing of value is paid, shall be regarded as used for profit.
- Obscene literature. From every person, firm, or association of persons selling or offering for sale the Illustrated Police News, Police Gazette, Sporting World, or other illustrated publications of like character, the sum of five hundred dollars in each county in which sale may be made or offered to be made.
- Pool sellers. From any person or persons who shall sell pools on horse races or other contests, five dollars for each and every day they may so sell said pools.
- Ten pin alley. For every nine or ten pin alley, or any other alley used for profit by whatever name called, constructed or operated upon the principle of a bowling alley, and upon which balls, rings, or other devices used as substitutes thereof are rolled, without regard to the number of pins used, or whether pins are used or not, or whether the balls, rings, or other devices are rolled by hand or with a cue or any other device, one thousand dollars. Any such alley used in connection with any drinking saloon or any drug store, or with any drug store where intoxicating liquors are sold or given away, or upon which any money or thing of value is paid, shall be regarded as used for profit.
- Hobby horses, etc. From all persons keeping or using for profit any hobby horse or flying-jenny, or device of that character with or without name, sixteen dollars for each county wherein the same are kept or used.
- Foot peddlers. From every foot peddler, five dollars in each county in which he peddles; for every peddler with one horse or one pair of oxen, the sum of fifteen dollars in each county where he peddles; for every peddler with two horses or two pairs of oxen, thirty dollars in each county in which he may pursue such occupation; for every peddler with sail or other boat, in the streams or along the coast or bays of this state, thirty dollars in each county in which he may pursue such occupation; provided, any blind, deaf and dumb, or any wounded person who has lost a hand or a foot, shall not be required to pay any tax for peddling; provided, such persons shall not be exempt from said peddlers' tax if in the employ of another person or persons; nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to include traveling vendors of tin or earthen ware; provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to include traveling vendors of literature exclusively religious in character, or traveling vendors of vegetables, poultry, or other country produce exclusively, fruit and fruit trees exclusively.
- Theaters. For every theater or dramatic representation from which pay for admission is demanded or received, two dollars for each day they may perform, or fifty dollars per quarter; provided, that theatrical or dramatic representations given by performers for instruction only or entirely for charitable purposes shall not be herein included. For every circus wherein equestrian or acrobatic feats and performances are exhibited for which pay for admission is demanded or received, for each performance thereof fifty dollars, notwithstanding more than one such performance may take place daily; for every exhibition where acrobatic feats are performed for profit not connected with the circus, ten dollars for each performance; for every sleight-of-hand performance or exhibition of legerdemain, ten dollars; for every fight between man and man, or between men and bulls, or between dogs and bulls, or between bears and dogs, or between bulls and any other animals, or between dogs and dogs, five hundred dollars for each performance;* for every cockpit, when kept for profit or upon which any money or thing of value is bet or paid, twenty-five dollars; for every menagerie, wax work, or exhibition of any kind where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every day on which fees for such admissions are received; provided, that exhibitions by associations organized for promotion of art, science, charity or benevolence shall be exempt from taxation; provided, that persons who form a museum composed entirely of the products of Texas shall have the right to exhibit same for a fee without paying any occupation tax; for every concert where a fee for admission is demanded or received, two dollars; provided, that entertainments when given by the citizens for charitable purposes or for the support or aid of literary or cemetery associations are exempt.

For every livery or feed stable, thirty cents for each stall and thirty cents for each hack, buggy, or other vehicle; for every hack, buggy, or other vehicle let for hire not connected with a livery, feed or sale stable, two dollars; for every wagon yard used for profit, not connected with a livery stable, five dollars. Livery stables,
etc.

From every life insurance company doing business in this state, an annual tax of three hundred dollars, and in every county in which they may do business, ten dollars as county tax; from every fire, marine, health, live stock, guarantee or accident insurance company doing business in this state, an annual tax of two hundred dollars, and in every county in which they may do business, seven dollars as county tax. The state tax due from insurance companies shall be paid by such companies to the comptroller of public accounts, whose receipt, under seal, shall be evidence of payment of state tax, and the county collector's receipt shall be authority to work in any county of this state for which such company has a receipt. Life insurance companies.

There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm or association of persons selling or offering for sale the "Sunday Sun," the "Kansas City Sunday Sun," or other publications of like character, whether illustrated or not, the sum of five hundred dollars in each county in which sale may be made or offered to be made.

There is hereby imposed upon and shall be collected from each and every person acting as general agent or agents of life, fire, marine and accident insurance companies who may transact any business as such in this state, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars. By "general agent," as used in this law, is meant any person or firm representative of any insurance company in this state, or who exercises a general supervision over the business of such insurance company in this state, or over the local agencies thereof. and every person or firm acting as local agent or agents of life, fire, marine and accident insurance companies who may transact any business as such in this state, an annual occupation tax of seven dollars. By "local agent," as used in this law, is meant any person or firm who may solicit, contract for or receive premiums for insurance in this state for any insurance company or companies, or who may deliver contracts or policies of insurance, including railway agents and employes who may solicit or receive premiums for accident insurance in this state; provided, that local agents shall pay county occupation taxes in each and every county in which they do business.

Agents of industrial life insurance companies.
Ib.

There is hereby imposed upon and shall be collected from each and every person or firm acting as local agent or agents of industrial life insurance companies who may transact any business as such in this state, an annual occupation tax of two dollars. By "industrial life insurance," as used in this law, is meant insurance adapted to the wants and necessities of the wage earners in that the policies are small and the premiums collected weekly at the homes of the insured, the maximum policy or insurance written on any one person being one thousand dollars.

Lightning rod agents.

For every person, firm or association of persons dealing in lightning rods, an annual tax of thirty-six dollars to the state and eighteen dollars as county tax to the county in which such business is carried on; upon every person canvassing for the sale of lightning rods, an annual tax of one hundred dollars and fifty dollars as county tax in each county in which such canvassing is done.

Cotton brokers, etc.
(Act of 1889.)

From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of cotton broker, cotton factor or commission merchant in a city of more than five thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of thirty-five dollars, and in all other cases an annual tax of eighteen dollars; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax under this law shall not be considered as a "cotton broker." From every pawnbroker an annual tax of seventy-five dollars. From every cotton buyer or every buyer of wool, ten dollars; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax, as herein prescribed, shall not be considered a cotton buyer or buyer of wool.

Sewing machine agents.

From every person, firm, agency or association of persons dealing in sewing machines, an annual tax of fifteen dollars to the state and seven dollars as county tax in every county where such business may be carried on; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax, as required by this article, shall not be required to pay this special tax to sell sewing machines.

Clock peddlers.

From every person or firm who peddles out clocks or cooking stoves or ranges over the county, two hundred and fifty dollars for the state and one hundred dollars for each county in which they make a sale; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax, as required by this article, shall not be required to pay this special tax for selling clocks and cooking ranges or stoves.

Express companies.
(Act of 1889.)

From any person, firm or association of persons doing an express business in this state an annual tax of one thousand dollars shall be levied and collected, this tax to be paid by such person, firm or association of persons doing an express business to the comptroller of public accounts, whose receipt under seal shall be issued to the company or companies, certified copies of which shall be evidence of the payment of the state, county and municipal occupation tax; provided, that said express companies may be allowed to sell money orders without paying an additional tax, but said express companies shall not be allowed to charge a greater per cent as commissions than postoffice money orders can be bought for; provided further, that they shall not be required to sell any order for less than five cents as a commission.

Each and every express company shall annually on or before the first day of March, through its superintendent or other chief officer or authorized agent, file with the comptroller of public accounts a report, under oath, showing the amount of charges and freights within this state paid to or uncollected by such companies on account of money, goods and merchandise carried within this state during the year ending December 31 next preceding, and said express companies at the time of filing the required report shall pay to the treasurer of the state one and one-half per cent of their gross receipts, as shown by their said reports. The receipt of the state treasurer shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes, and no occupation taxes shall be levied upon express companies by any county, city or town in this state; provided, this article shall not be construed to prohibit the levy of state, county and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such companies. Each and every express company failing or refusing to file the report herein required and pay the required taxes shall forfeit to the state twenty-five dollars for each day said report and payment are delayed. For the purpose of suit to recover the taxes and forfeitures venue and jurisdiction is hereby expressly conferred upon the courts of Travis county, and service upon any officer or agent of such company within this state shall in all respects be held legal and valid.

That part of the act of 1889 levying an occupation tax of one thousand dollars upon express companies, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

From every person, firm or association of persons owning or running any palace, sleeping, or dining-room cars on any railroad in this state, there shall be collected an annual tax of fifty cents per mile for each and every mile of any and all railroads in this state over which such cars may run. The tax herein due shall be paid by such person, firm, or association of persons to the comptroller of public accounts, whose receipt under seal shall be issued to the person, company or firm, certified copies of which shall be evidence of the payment of state tax; provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the levy of any county or municipal tax upon such person, firm or association of persons.

From every person, firm or association of persons owning or running any railroad cars, steamboat, or stage coaches in this state, there shall be collected quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, a tax of one per cent on steamboats and stage coaches, and one per cent on railroads upon their gross receipts from all their passenger travel within this state. The said gross receipts to be returned under oath by said owner, agent or manager, to the comptroller, and said tax to be collected by the comptroller under such regulations as he may prescribe; provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the levy of any county or municipal tax upon such person, firm or association of persons.

From every chartered telegraphic company doing business in this state, there shall be collected one cent for every full rate message sent by any person within this state to any person within this state, and one-half that for any message less than a full rate message so sent. This tax to be paid quarterly to the comptroller, on the sworn statement of the chief manager of said company or companies, or any other officer authorized by said company to make said statement, who shall keep a record of such messages; and the receipt of the comptroller, under seal, shall be issued to said company or companies, certified copies of which shall be evidence of the payment of the state tax; provided, railroad messages for running their trains and for company use shall not be taxed; provided further, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the levy or collection of any county or municipal tax upon such chartered companies for messages sent, and messages sent on official business by officers of the United States.

Telephone companies.

For every telephone company doing business in this state, an annual tax of fifty dollars, and five dollars to each county through which their lines may run.

Gas companies.

From each gas company manufacturing gas in towns and cities of ten thousand or more inhabitants, thirty-five dollars; in towns and cities having less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars.

Electric companies.

From each electric light company operating an electric light in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars annually; and in a town or city of less than ten thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of twenty dollars.

Loan agents.

From every person, firm or association of persons loaning money as agent or agents for any corporation, firm or association, either in this state or out of it, an annual occupation tax of one hundred dollars for the state for the principal office, and a county tax of ten dollars from each agent for each county in which he may do business, and no additional occupation tax shall be levied by any county, city or town in the state.

Credit agencies.

From each and every person, party, partnership or corporation engaged in the business of inquiring into and reporting upon the credit or standing of persons engaged in business in this state, or acting as agent or business manager in this state for any such person, party, partnerships or corporation, two hundred and fifty dollars; and provided further, that no county, city or town shall levy or collect any occupation tax upon or from any such person, party, partnership, joint stock association or corporation. The payment of this tax, evidenced by the receipt of the comptroller of public accounts, shall exempt the company or party paying the same from the payment of this tax in any other county; and payment of such tax shall not be required of any sub-agent or correspondent of the party or company carrying on such business in this state.

Skating rinks.

From each skating rink, twenty-five dollars.

Blanks to be furnished commissioners' courts by comptroller.

When the comptroller furnishes collectors with blank occupation tax receipts, he shall furnish the commissioners' courts with the numbers and value of the receipts furnished to their respective collectors, and such courts shall charge their respective collectors with the number and such proportion of the value of the receipt so furnished as shall apply to the county tax when such collectors shall make their settlements with the comptroller. The comptroller shall furnish the commissioners' courts with the numbers and value of the receipts used, and with the numbers and value of the receipts returned, and with the amount of the occupation taxes collected by their respective collectors.

County, ad valorem, etc. (Acts of 1885, p. 105.)

Art. 5050. The commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state shall have the power to levy, for county revenue purposes, a tax of one-fourth of one per cent, and for roads and bridges fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property subject to a state tax by the provisions of this title, and for the payment of debts incurred prior to September, 1883, and for the erection of public buildings and other permanent improvements they shall have power to levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year; and for the improvement of public roads a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation under the restrictions provided in chapter seven of title ninety-seven, and shall have power to levy a special tax for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection within each school district of school buildings therein in counties not exempt from the district school system; provided, that two-thirds of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, and shall have the right to levy one-half of the occupation tax levied by the state upon all occupations not herein otherwise specially exempted; provided, any one wishing to pursue any of the vocations named in this chapter, upon which a county occupation tax may be levied, may do so by paying the same quarterly; and provided further, the receipt of the proper officer under seal shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such taxes as are herein named; and provided further, the provisions of this law shall not be deemed to effect the provisions of any law specially authorizing any commissioners' court to levy a different rate of tax; and provided further, no person shall be allowed license for selling intoxicating or spirituous liquors, or for keeping any nine or ten pin alley, or billiard, bagatelle, pigeon-hole, jenny-lind, devil-among-the-tailors table, or anything of the kind used for profit, for a period of less than twelve months; and provided further, the mayor and board of aldermen of any incorporated town or city shall in no case levy a greater tax on any occupation than that authorized by this chapter to be levied by the county commissioners' court; and be it further provided, that in all cases where any dealer in merchandise, wares or goods of any kind, subject to ad valorem or occupation taxes, or both, under the provisions of this law, who shall after the rendition of said merchandise, wares or goods for taxation, or after becoming liable for any occupation tax, become bankrupt or make assignment of said merchandise, wares or goods, then the collector of taxes shall at once present to the receiver or assignee of said dealer for payment of the amount due for said taxes by said dealer, and in case of failure of said receiver or assignee to at once pay the amount of said taxes, the said collector shall levy upon, seize and sell from the said merchandise, wares or goods, enough to satisfy the amount of said taxes, and said taxes until paid shall constitute a prior lien on said merchandise, goods and wares in default of said taxes.

(Acts of 1891,
p. 51.)

Art. 5051. [4667] The taxes herein levied by this chapter are hereby made payable in the currency or coin of the United States; provided, that all county ad valorem taxes may be paid in the jury and county scrip of their respective counties.

Taxes payable

Ib. §7.

Art. 5053. The comptroller of public accounts shall be authorized and required to furnish tax collectors the necessary books and blanks required to be used by such collectors under the provisions of this chapter.

Tax to be paid before occupation begins.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5054. The payment of the specific tax herein provided for shall be required by the collector of taxes to be made before any person, firm or association of persons shall be allowed to engage in any occupation requiring a license under the provisions of this law, this payment to be made for a period not less than three months. All arrearages of taxes that may be due by reason of any such business having been carried on shall be a lien upon all the stock and fixtures owned or used in or making a part of any business or vocation liable to such tax under the provisions of this chapter, and which lien shall authorize the collector to sell, after due notice, so much stock or other personal property of any person, firm or association of persons owing taxes under the provisions of this chapter, as will satisfy such claim, together with the cost of such proceeding.

Occupation tax receipts

collectors.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5055. The comptroller shall cause occupation tax receipts for each occupation to be printed, with his signature, for all occupations payable to the collectors, annual receipts for those that are paid annually, and quarterly receipts for all that can be paid quarterly; such receipts shall state the name of the occupation and the amount of the tax, and have blanks for the year, month and name of licenses, and also have a blank space for signature of the collector; these receipts shall each have a stub attached, stating briefly the substance of the attached receipt, and shall be bound in books; and he shall forward to each collector a proper number of said receipts, and charge him with the amount represented therein, and cause him to account therefor. The collector, whenever collecting any occupation tax, shall fill the blanks in the receipt and stub by writing thereon the time for which he collects and the name of the licensee, and shall sign the receipt and stub officially, and no person shall pursue any occupation unless he has a receipt, signed, as herein provided, by the comptroller and collector; and every person, firm or corporation keeping an office or having a local place of business shall keep posted up in a conspicuous place his or their said licenses.

License.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 27, §1.)

Art. 5056. Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons who shall be the legal owners or holders of any unexpired occupation license issued in accordance with the laws of this state, shall be and are hereby authorized to transfer the same on the books of the officer by whom the same was issued.

Art. 5057. The assignee or purchaser of such unexpired occupation license shall be authorized to pursue such occupation under such unexpired license for and during the unexpired term thereof; provided, that such assignee or purchaser shall, before following such occupation, comply in all other respects with all the requirements of the law provided for in original applications for such licenses; and provided further, that nothing in this law shall be so construed as to authorize two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons to follow the same occupation under one license at the same time; and provided further, that whenever any person, firm, corporation or association of persons following an occupation shall be closed out by legal process, the occupation license shall be deemed an asset of said person, firm, corporation or association of persons, and sold as other property belonging to said person, firm, corporation or association, and the purchaser thereof shall have the right to pursue the occupation named in said license or transfer it to any other person; provided, such occupation license shall under no circumstances be transferred more than one time.

Purchaser of unexpired license may pursue occupation, when, etc.
Ib. §2.

REVENUE AGENT.

Art. 5058. The governor is authorized to appoint a suitable person as revenue agent for the state, for the purpose of securing a better enforcement of the revenue laws of the state. The agent provided for herein shall be known as the state revenue agent. Said revenue agent shall be subject to the directions of the governor, who may, whenever in his judgment the public service demands it, direct the said revenue agent to investigate books and accounts of the assessing and collecting officers of this state, and all officers and persons disbursing, receiving or having in their possession public funds, and to make such other investigations and perform such other duties in the interest of the public revenues as the governor may direct. Whenever any such investigation is ordered by the governor, the revenue agent shall report to him in writing the results of such investigations, and point out the particulars, if any, wherein the revenue laws have been violated, their enforcement neglected, together with the names of the parties delinquent therein. Whereupon the governor shall institute civil and criminal proceedings through the attorney general in the name of the state against such delinquent parties who are reported by such agent to be delinquent. Said revenue agent shall have power at any time to examine and check up all and any disbursements or expenditures of money appropriated for any of the state institutions or for any other purpose or for improvements made by the state on state property or money received and disbursed by any board authorized by law to receive and disburse any state money.

Duties. (Acts of 1891, p. 87.)

Art. 5059. When said revenue agent acting under the direction of the governor calls on any person connected with the public service to inspect his accounts, records or books, said officers or official so called upon shall submit to said agent all books, records and accounts so called for without delay.

Shall have access to books, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5060. Said revenue agent shall receive as compensation for his services not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, together with his actual traveling expenses, which shall be paid on the approval of the same by the governor; provided, said revenue agent shall not be allowed traveling expenses for any service connected with the examination and investigation of the accounts of any institution in Travis county.

Occupation tax for the selling of spirituous, etc., liquors. (Act of 1893, p. 177.)

Article 5060a. Hereafter there shall be collected from every person, firm or association of persons selling spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, within this state, an annual tax on each separate establishment as follows: For selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in quantities of one gallon or less than one gallon, three hundred dollars; for selling such liquors in quantities of one gallon or more than one gallon, three hundred dollars; provided, that in selling one gallon, the same may be made up of different liquors in unbroken packages, aggregating not less than one gallon. For selling malt liquors exclusively, fifty dollars; provided, that nothing in this article shall be so construed as to exempt druggists who sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, on the prescription of a physician, or otherwise, from the payment of the tax herein imposed; provided further, that this article shall not apply to the sale by druggists of tinctures and drug compounds in the preparation of which spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, on the prescription of a physician, or otherwise, from the payment of the tax herein imposed; provided further, that this article shall not apply to the sale by druggists of tinctures and drug compounds in the preparation of which spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are used, and which compounds are not intoxicating beverages prepared in evasion of the provisions of this chapter.

Counties may levy.
Ib.

Art. 5060b. The commissioners' court of the several counties in this state shall have the power to levy and collect from every person or association of persons selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, a tax equal to one-half the state tax herein levied; and where any such sale is made in any incorporated city or town, such city or town shall have the power to levy and collect a tax upon such sale equal to that levied by the commissioners' court of the county in which such city or town is situated.

Prerequisites to the issue of license to sell.
Ib.

Art. 5060c. Every person, firm or association of persons desiring to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, shall, before he or they commence the sale of such liquors or medicated bitters, file with the county clerk of the county in which he or they propose to sell such spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, an application for license to engage in the sale of such liquors or medicated bitters. Said application shall be made on oath, on forms to be provided by the comptroller, and shall designate the place at which it is proposed to carry on the sale of such liquors or medicated bitters; if in a city, the street and number of the house shall be given, and the quantities in which he or they propose to sell, whether one gallon or more than one gallon, one gallon and less than one gallon, or whether they desire to sell malt liquors exclusively; and shall also state in said application whether or not the said liquors are to be sold to be drunk on the premises; and shall pay to the collector of taxes of the county in which he or they propose to sell such spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, the entire annual tax herein levied, according to the quantities in which he or they propose to sell, and the entire annual tax upon such business, as may be levied by the commissioners' court of such county, and file with the county clerk bond as required in article 5060g of this chapter. In case the selling of such liquors or medicated bitters be carried on in a city or incorporated town, he or they so selling shall, in addition to the state and county tax herein required to be paid, pay to collector of taxes in such city or town such tax as may be levied on said business by such city or town, and all taxes herein levied shall be paid in advance. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be posted by the licensee in a conspicuous place in his or their place of business, and on failure to so post such license, he or they so failing shall be considered as having no license.

Art. 5060d. Upon filing the sworn application as provided in article 5060c, and paying to the collector the annual state and county tax herein provided for, and filing such bond as is required by article 5060g, the county clerk of said county shall issue to said applicant a license to sell spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, at the place and in the manner and quantities set forth in the application, and no sale shall be made until such license is procured. The receipt of the tax collector shall be evidence of the payment of the tax. For issuing licenses herein provided for, county clerks shall be entitled to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for each license.

License to issue, when.
1b.

Art. 5060e. No license shall be granted for a longer or shorter period than one year. The particular place and house in which the liquors are to be sold shall be designated in the license, and no license shall authorize any person to sell spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, at any other place or house than that designated in the license; provided, that if any person or association of persons having a license to sell such liquors, desires to change his or their place of business, such change may be made by presenting the license to the clerk of the county and having the new place of business inserted therein, but in no case to admit of the temporary closing of one place of business to sell at another place.

thousand dollars, with at least two good, lawful, and sufficient sureties, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that said person, firm, or association of persons so selling spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, shall keep an open, quiet, and orderly house or place for the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication; and that such person, firm, or association of persons, or his or their agent or employe, will not sell nor permit to be sold in his or their house or place of business, nor give nor permit to be given, any spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to a student of any institution of learning, or to any habitual drunkard, or to any person after having been notified in writing, through the sheriff or other peace officer, by the wife, mother, daughter, or sister of the person, not to sell to such person; and that he or they will not permit any person under the age of twenty-one years to enter and remain in such house or place of business; and that he or they will not permit any games prohibited by the laws of this state to be played, dealt, or exhibited in or about such house or place of business; and that he or they will not rent or let any part of the house or place in which he or they have undertaken to sell spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, to any person or persons for the purpose of running or conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state; and that he or they will not adulterate the liquors sold by them in any manner, by mixing with the same any drug; and that he or they will not knowingly sell or give away any impure or adulterated liquors of any kind; which said bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the business is conducted, and shall be recorded by such clerk in a book to be kept for such purpose, for which service the said clerk shall be entitled to a fee of seventy-five cents; which said bond may be sued on at the instance of any person or persons aggrieved by the violation of its provisions, and such person shall be entitled to recover the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages for each infraction of the condition of such bond, and the said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on until the full penal sum named therein shall have been recovered. In addition to civil proceedings for individual injuries, brought on said bond as above indicated, if any person, firm, or association of persons shall violate any of the conditions of the bond herein required, it shall be the duty of the county and district attorneys, or either of them, to institute suit thereupon in the name of the state of Texas, for the use and benefit of the county, and the amount of five hundred dollars as a penalty shall be recovered from the principals and sureties upon a breach of any of the conditions thereof; and whenever the first or subsequent bond as required is exhausted by suit at the instance of individuals, or for the use of the county, a new similar bond shall be given and approved before the dealer shall have the right to further pursue the business of a liquor seller; or, in case suit is pending on any such bond, and the county or district attorney shall make and file an affidavit with the clerk of the county court that he believes the bond of the defendant will be exhausted by said suit, the clerk shall at once notify the liquor dealer thereof, and it shall be the duty of the liquor dealer, within twenty days from the time the bond is exhausted, or, in other event, within twenty days from the time the notice is given, to give a new bond similar to the bond first given, to be approved in the same way; and until such new bond is given and approved, when it is required by this chapter, the liquor seller shall not have the right to further pursue the business of selling liquors; and any person, firm, or association of persons who shall sell liquors, in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, without giving the first bond, or the new bond, as required by this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined the same amount provided for in cases where no license has been obtained. An open house, in the meaning of this chapter, is one in which no screen or other device is used or placed either inside or outside of such house or place of business for the purpose of or that will obstruct the view through the open door or place of entrance into any such house or place where intoxicating liquors are sold to be drunk on the premises. A quiet house or place of business, in the meaning of this chapter, is one in which no music, loud or boisterous talking, yelling, or indecent or vulgar language is allowed, used or practiced, or any other noise calculated to disturb or annoy any persons residing or doing business in the vicinity of such house or place of business, or those passing along the streets or public highways. By an orderly house is meant one in which no prostitute or lewd woman or women are allowed to enter or remain; and it is further provided, that said house must not contain any vulgar or obscene pictures. Any surety on such bond may relieve himself from further liability thereon by giving the principal in said bond notice in writing that he will no longer remain as surety on said bond and by filing with the county judge an affidavit that such notice has been given, and if within five days after such notice if he fail to make a new bond, he shall cease to pursue said business until a new bond is given. And any person who shall continue to pursue said business after such affidavit is filed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided in cases where no license has been procured; provided, that where the sale is made in good faith, with the belief that the minor was of age, and there is good ground for such belief, that shall be a valid defense to any recovery on such bond.

Art. 5060h. An habitual drunkard, within the meaning of this chapter, is one who makes it a habit, or who habitually becomes intoxicated by the voluntary use of intoxicating liquors; and in all suits for the breach of such bond for unlawfully selling to an habitual drunkard, the question whether or not such person is an habitual drunkard shall be determined by the court or jury trying such case, as any other fact.

Habitual drunkard defined.

Art. 5060i. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to wines produced from grapes grown in this state, while the same is in the hands of the producers or manufacturers thereof.

Producers of domestic wines exempt.

Furniture. 10. Household and kitchen furniture, not exceeding at their true and full value two hundred and fifty dollars to each family, in which may be included one sewing machine.

Pensions. 11. All annual pensions granted by the state.

When property to be rendered. Art. 5066. [4674] All property shall be listed for taxation between January 1 and June 1 of each year, when required by the assessor, with reference to the quantity held or owned on the first day of January in the year for which the property is required to be listed or rendered. Any property purchased or acquired on the first day of January shall be listed by or for the person purchasing or acquiring it.

How to be rendered. Art. 5067. [4675] All property shall be listed or rendered in the manner following:

By the owner. 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his real estate, moneys, credits, bonds or stock of joint stock or other companies (when the property of such company is not assessed in this state), moneys loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other property.

As agent. 2. He shall also list all lands or other real estate, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation whatsoever, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or drafts and credits due from or owing by any person, body corporate or politic.

Minor. 3. The property of a minor child shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

Wife. 4. The property of a wife, by her husband, if of sound mind; if not, by herself.

Idiot. 5. The property of an idiot or lunatic, by the person having charge of such property.

Cestui que trust. 6. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee of the estate; of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

Receivers. 7. The property of corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers.

Corporations. 8. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the president or proper agent or officer thereof.

Copartnership. 9. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

Manufactories. 10. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent, in the name of his principal, as real, personal and merchandise.

11. The stock of nurseries, growing and otherwise, in the hands of nurserymen, shall be listed and assessed as merchandise. Nurseries.

Art. 5068. [4676] All property, real and personal, except such as is required to be listed and assessed otherwise, shall be listed and assessed in the county where it is situated. Where to be rendered. Ib. §8.

Art. 5069. Lands lying on county boundaries, which have not been accurately and legally surveyed, determined or fixed, shall not be assessed or taxed in more than one county. To be rendered in but one county. (Acts of 1879, p. 153; amend. 1895, No. 104, Sen. Jour., p. 485.)

Art. 5070. All persons, companies and corporations owning pastures in this state which lie on county boundaries shall be required to list for assessment all live stock of every kind owned by them in said pastures in the several counties in which such pastures are situated, listing in each county such portion of said stock as the land in such county is of the whole pasture. All persons, companies and corporations owning any kind of live stock in pastures not their own shall list said live stock in the several counties in which such pastures are situated in the same manner; and in both cases the tax upon such live stock shall be paid to the tax collectors of the several counties in which such live stock is listed and assessed. Live stock, when and how rendered. (Acts of 1889, p. 29.)

Art. 5071. Any lands which may have been assessed in any county according to the abstract of land titles, and the taxes paid thereon according to law, shall not be afterwards subject to the payment of taxes for the same period in a different county, although a subsequent survey and determination of the county boundaries may show said lands to be in a different county from that in which they were originally assessed; and any sales of such lands for alleged delinquency shall be illegal and void. Taxes not to be paid twice, etc. (Acts of 1879, p. 153, §2.)

Art. 5072. [4677] All persons, companies and corporations in this state owning steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf-boats and other water crafts shall be required to list the same for assessment and taxation in the county in which the same may be enrolled, registered or licensed, or kept when not enrolled, registered or licensed. Vessels, where listed. (Acts of 1876, p. 277.)

Art. 5073. [4678] All railroad, telegraph, plank road and turnpike companies shall list all of their real and personal property, giving the number of miles of roadbed and line in the county where such roadbed and line is situated, at the full and true value, except when such company may own personal property or real estate in an unorganized county or district, then they shall list such property to the comptroller. Railroads, telegraphs, etc. Ib. §11.

Art. 5074. [4679] Persons required to list property on behalf of others shall list it in the same manner in which they are required to list their own, but they shall list it separately from their own, specifying in each case the name of the person, estate, company or corporation to whom it belongs. Listing for others. Ib. p. 278, §12.

Art. 5075. [4680] Each person required by law to list property shall make and sign a statement, verified by his oath, as required by law, of all property, both real and personal, in his possession, or under his control, and which he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof, or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor. Shall list under oath. Ib. §13.

31. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf-boats, barge or other water craft, and the value thereof.
32. The value of goods, wares and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant (in hand on the first day of January of each year).
33. Value of materials and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.
34. Value of manufacturers' tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.
35. Number of steam engines, including boilers, and the value thereof.
36. Amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
37. Amount of credits of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
38. Amount of moneys other than of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
39. Amount of credits other than of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
40. Amount and value of bonds and stocks (other than United States bonds).

41. Amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this state.

42. Value of all property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.

43. Value of stock and furniture of saloons, hotels and eating-houses.

44. Value of every billiard, pigeon-hole, bagatelle or other similar tables, together with the number thereof.

45. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.

46. Value of all other property not enumerated above.

Art. 5077. [4682] No person shall be required to list or render a greater portion of his credits than he believes will be received or can be collected, or to include in his statement as a part of his personal property which is required to be listed any share or portion of the capital stock or property of any company or corporation which is required to list or return its capital and property for taxation.

Certain credits and stocks not to be listed.
Ib. §14.

Art. 5078. [4683] Persons listing or rendering real estate shall make a statement, duly signed and under oath, which shall truly and distinctly set forth—

2. The number of the lot and block and the true and full value thereof, together with the name of the town or city.

3. When the name of the original grantee, or abstract number, or number of certificate, or number of survey is unknown, say "unknown," and give such description so that land or lot can be identified and the true and full value thereof can be determined.

Art. 5079. [4684] Every bank, whether of issue or deposit, banker, broker, dealer in exchange, or stock jobber, shall at the time fixed by this chapter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the assessor of taxes a sworn statement showing:

Assessment of personal property by rendition by banker, broker, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 37.)

1. If a national bank, the president or some other officer of such bank shall furnish to the assessor of the county in which such bank is located a list of the names of all the shareholders of the stock, together with the number and amount of the shares of each stockholder of stock in said bank, and the shareholders of the stock in national banks shall render to the tax assessor of the county in which said bank is located the number of their shares and the true and full value thereof. All shares of stocks in national banks not rendered to the assessor of taxes in the county where such bank is located within the time prescribed by law for listing property for taxes shall be assessed by the assessor against the owner or owners thereof as unrendered property is assessed; but the tax roll shall show the name of the owner or owners thereof as per statement furnished by the president or other officers of said bank.

2. National banks shall render all other bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stock or stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets, together with all other personal property belonging or pertaining to said bank, except such personal property as is specially exempted from taxation by the laws of the United States.

3. National banks shall be required to render all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered, and all the personal property of said national banks herein taxed shall be valued as other personal property is valued.

4. All other banks, bankers, brokers or dealers in exchange, or stock jobbers shall render their list in the following manner:

1. The amount of money on hand or in transit or in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others subject to draft, whether the same be in or out of the state.

2. The amount of bills receivable, discounted or purchased and other credits due or to become due, including accounts receivable, interest accrued but not due, and interest due and unpaid.

3. From the aggregate amount of the items named in the first and second of the last two subdivisions shall be deducted the amount of money on deposit.

4. The amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets.

5. All other property belonging or appertaining to said bank or business, including both personal property and real estate, shall be listed as other personal property and real estate.

Assessment of real estate by banks.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 106.)

Art. 5080. Every banking corporation, state or national, doing business in this state shall, in the city or town in which it is located, render its real estate to the assessor of taxes at the time and in the manner required of individuals. At the time of making such rendition the president or some other officer of said bank shall file with said assessor a sworn statement showing the number and amount of the shares of said bank, the name and residence of each shareholder, and the number and amount of shares owned by him. Every shareholder of said bank shall, in the city or town where said bank is located, render at their actual value to the assessor of taxes all shares owned by him in such bank; and in case of his failure so to do, the assessor shall assess such unrendered shares as other unrendered property. Each share in such bank shall be taxed only for the difference between its actual cash value and the proportionate amount per share at which its real estate is assessed. The taxes due upon the shares of banking corporations shall be a lien thereon, and no banking corporation shall pay any dividend to any shareholder who is in default in the payment of taxes due on his shares; nor shall any banking corporation permit the transfer upon its books of any share, the owner of which is in default in the payment of his taxes upon the same. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to tax national or state banks, or the shareholders thereof, at a greater rate than is assessed against other moneyed capital in the hands of individuals.

No deductions in certain cases.
(Acts of 1876,
p. 280, §17.)

Art. 5081. [4685] No person, company or corporation shall be entitled to any deduction on account of any bond, note or obligation of any kind given to any mutual insurance company, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any religious, literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on account of any subscription to or installment payable on the capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated.

Assessment by railroads.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 61.)

Art. 5082. [4686] It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation in this state to deliver a sworn statement, on or before the first day of June of each year, to the assessor of each county and incorporated city or town, into or through which any part of their road may run or in which they own or are in possession of real estate, a classified list of all real estate owned by or in possession of said company in said county, town or city, specifying—

1. The whole number of acres of land, lot or lots, exclusive of their right of way and depot grounds owned, possessed or appropriated for their use, with a valuation affixed to the same.

2. The whole length of the railroad and the value thereof per mile, which valuation shall include right of way, roadbed, superstructure, depots and grounds upon which said depots are situate, and all shops and fixtures of every kind used in operating said road.

3. All personal property of whatsoever kind or character, except the rolling stock belonging to the company or in their possession in each respective county, listing and describing the said personal property in the same manner as is now required of citizens of this state.

Art. 5083. [4687] It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation in this state to deliver a sworn statement, on or before the first day of April in each year, to the assessor of the county in which its principal office is situated, setting forth the true and full value of the rolling stock of said railroad, together with the names of all the counties through which it runs, and the number of miles of roadbed in each of said counties, and the said assessment shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which its principal office is situated for review, as is provided by article 5120 of this code and the other laws of this state in respect to boards of equalization, on the first Monday in June in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and such board shall certify such final valuation when made, without delay, to the comptroller of public accounts, who shall proceed at once to apportion the amount of such valuation among the said counties in proportion to the distance such road may run through any such county, and shall certify such apportionment to the assessors of such counties, and the same shall constitute part of the tax assets of such counties, and the assessor of each of said counties shall list and enter the same upon the rolls for taxation, as other personal property situated in said county; provided, that any railway company organized, and having its principal office without the state, and which may own or operate, as lessee or otherwise, any line of railroad which is partly within the state and partly without, may render its rolling stock for taxation in the county where such company owning said railroad has established its office within this state, and a proportional part of such company's rolling stock shall be rendered and assessed for taxation within the state, according to the number of miles of such railway therein, as compared with the number of miles without the state.

Railroads to return sworn statements, when, etc. (Acts of 1885, p. 30.)

Art. 5084. [4688] All property of private corporations, except in cases where some other provision is made by law, shall be assessed in the name of the corporation, and in collecting the taxes on the same all the personal property of such corporation shall be liable to be seized whenever the same may be found in the county, and sold in the same manner as the property of individuals may be sold for taxes. All statements and lists made by corporations that are required to be sworn to shall be verified by the affidavit and signature of the secretary of said corporation, and if they have no secretary, the officer who discharges the duties of secretary of said corporation.

Assessments and collections of corporate property. (Acts of 1876, p. 280, §§20, 21.)

Art. 5085. [4689] All real property subject to taxation shall be assessed to the owners thereof in the manner herein provided, but no assessment of real property shall be considered illegal by reason of the same not being listed or assessed in the name of the owner or owners thereof.

Assessments in owner's name. Ib. §21.

Lien for taxes.
Ib. §22.

Art. 5086. [4690] All taxes upon real property shall be a lien upon such property until the same shall have been paid. And should the assessor fail to assess any real estate for any one or more years, the lien shall be good for every year that he should fail to assess for, and he may, in listing property for taxes any year thereafter, assess all the back taxes due thereon, according to the provisions of this title.

Leasehold interests in public lands.
Ib. p. 281, §23.

Art. 5087. [4691] Property held under a lease for a term of three years or more, or held under a contract for the purchase thereof, belonging to this state, or that is exempt by law from taxation in the hands of the owner thereof, shall be considered for all purposes of taxation as the property of the person so holding the same, except as otherwise specially provided by law.

Valuation of property for taxation.
Ib. §24.

Art. 5088. [4692] Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing or ungathered thereon.

2. In determining the true and full value of real and personal property the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

3. In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such a price as such property, including a mine or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

4. Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

5. Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

6. Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family or any other person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

7. Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money or property of any kind, shall be valued at the full value of the same so payable. If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money.

United States paper money taxable.
(Acts 1895, p. 49.)

Art. 5088a. Circulating notes of national banking associations and United States legal tender notes and other notes and certificates of the United States, payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency, and gold, silver and other coin, shall be hereafter subject to taxation as money on hand or on deposit, under the laws of this state.

Assessed as money on hand.
Ib.

Art. 5088b. The assessor of taxes shall assess the same in the same manner as money on hand or on deposit or other personal property, as provided for in the general assessment laws of this state.

Article 5089. [4693] There shall be elected by the qualified electors of each county within this state, at the same time and under the same law regulating the election of state and county officers, an assessor of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. Election and term of assessor. (Const., art. 8, §14.) (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 265, §1.)

Art. 5090. [4694] In case of a vacancy in the office of assessor of taxes, the same shall be filled by the county commissioners' court for the unexpired term only, and until the election and qualification of an assessor at the succeeding general election; and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall qualify in the same manner as is prescribed by law for assessors of taxes, and shall have all the rights and perform all the duties required by law of the assessor elected. Vacancies, how filled.

Art. 5091. [4695] Every assessor of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to one-fourth the amount of the state tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all the duties of said office; and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which oath, together with said bond, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the comptroller, to be deposited in his office. Oath and bond. (Ib. p. 266, §2.)

Purview of the bond.
Ib.

Art. 5092. [4696] Said bond shall be deemed to extend to the faithful performance of the duties of his office as assessor of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but suit may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof be recovered.

New bond.
Ib.

Art. 5093. [4697] Assessors of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond and additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners' court, it may be advisable; and should any assessor of taxes fail to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

Bond for county taxes.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5094. [4698] The assessor of taxes shall give a like bond with like conditions to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than one-fourth of the amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed five thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county; which bond shall be recorded and deposited in the county clerk's office of the county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and the assessor of taxes may be removed from office for a failure to furnish a new bond or additional security in the manner prescribed by law.

May appoint
deputies.
Ib. p. 267, §7.

Art. 5095. [4699] Each assessor of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the assessment of taxes, and may require such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the assessor of taxes shall in all cases be liable and accountable for the proceedings and misconduct of his deputies.

Authority of deputies.
Ib. §8.

Art. 5096. [4700] The deputies appointed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall do and perform all the duties imposed and required by law of assessors of taxes, and all acts of such deputies done in conformity with law shall be as binding and valid as if done by the assessor of taxes in person.

May administer oaths.
Ib. p. 266, §4.

Art. 5097. [4701] Assessors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full, complete and correct assessment of all taxable property situated in their respective counties.

The oath.
Ib. p. 267, §5.

Art. 5098. [4702] The assessor of taxes shall also require each person rendering a list of taxable property to him for taxation under the assessment laws to subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, which shall be written or printed at the bottom of each inventory, to-wit: "I, ——— [filling the blank with the name of the person subscribing], do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the above inventory rendered by me contains a full, true and complete list of all taxable property owned or held by me in my own name [or for others, as the case may be, naming the person or firm for whom he rendered the list] in this county subject to taxation by the laws of this state, on the first day of January, A. D. 18—— [filling the blank with the year]; and that I have true answers made to all questions propounded to me touching the same, so help me God."

Where and how the oath
may be made.
Ib.

Art. 5099. [4703] The owner or agent who is required under the laws of this state to render any property for taxation, may render the same in the county where the same is situated by listing the same and making oath thereto, as required in this title, before any officer authorized to administer oaths in this state, or any officer out of this state that is authorized by law to take acknowledgments of instruments for record in this state, and may forward the same to the assessor of the county by mail or otherwise, and the assessor shall enter the said property on his tax rolls. If the assessor is satisfied with the valuation as rendered in said list he shall so enter the same; if he is not satisfied with the valuation he shall refer the same to the board of equalization of the county for their action, and shall immediately notify, by mail or otherwise, the person from whom he received said list that he has referred said valuation to the board of equalization.

Art. 5100. [4704] The assessor of taxes, for every failure or neglect to administer the oath or affirmation prescribed in article 5098 to each person rendering a list of taxable property to him, unless the person refuses to qualify, shall forfeit fifty dollars, to be deducted out of his commissions upon full and satisfactory information furnished the county judge; and for each and every failure or neglect to attest the oath subscribed to as provided in said article, shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars upon satisfactory information furnished the county judge. The forfeitures imposed by this article shall be deducted from the assessor's commissions on the assessment for county taxes.

Penalty for failure to attest oath, etc.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5101. Any evasion by means of artifice or temporary or fictitious sale, exchange or pretended transfer upon any bank books of gold and silver coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this state for United States non-taxable treasury notes or any notes or bonds not so subject to taxation, and any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer not made in good faith, and by actual exchange and delivery of the funds so sold, exchanged or transferred and made only by entry on bank books, or by any express or implied understanding not to immediately make a bona fide and permanent sale, shall be deemed prima facie to be a fraud upon the public revenue of this state.

Fraud upon the public revenue.
(Acts of 1891, p. 39, §1.)

Art. 5102. All assessors of taxes in this state shall require all taxpayers when assessed by them to make oath as to any such sale, exchange or transfer made by them on the first day of January or within sixty days before said first day of January of any year for which any such assessment is made, as to the good faith and bona fide business transaction of any such sale, exchange or transfer, as above set forth, if any such should have been made by them, and if it should be disclosed that any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer has been made for the purpose of evading taxation, then and in that event the assessor shall list and render against such person the coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this state; provided, that if any person shall make a false affidavit as to any of the foregoing facts he shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished as is now provided by law.

Taxpayer to make oath.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5103. [4705] Assessors of taxes shall, between the first day of January and the first day of June of each year, proceed to take a list of taxable property, real and personal, in his county, and assess the value thereof in the manner following, to-wit: By calling upon the person, or by calling at the office, place of business or the residence of the person and listing the property required by law in his name and requiring the person to make a statement under oath, as prescribed in article 5098, of such property in the form hereinafter prescribed.

When assessments to be made.
(Acts of 1876, p. 265, §9.)

Art. 5104. [4706] Should any property be listed or assessed for taxation after the first day of June of any year, or should the as-

Irregular assessments valid.
Ib.

essor of taxes or his deputy fail to administer the requisite oath or attest the same in the mode prescribed by law, or should the party rendering property for taxation fail to subscribe to the list, yet the assessment shall nevertheless be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as if made in strict pursuance of law.

If taxpayer is absent, etc.
Ib. p. 268, §10.

Art. 5105. [4707] If any person, who is required by this title to list property, shall be sick or absent when the assessor calls for a list of his property, the assessor shall leave at the office or usual place of residence or business of such person, a written or printed notice requiring such person to meet him and render a list of his property at such time and place as the assessor of taxes may designate in said notice. The assessor of taxes shall carefully note in a book the date of leaving such notice.

Or refuses to list.
Ib. §11.

Art. 5106. [4708] In every case where any person whose duty it is to list any property for taxation has refused or neglected to list the same when called on for that purpose by the assessor of taxes, or has refused to subscribe to the oath in regard to the truth of his statement of property or any part thereof, when required by the assessor of taxes, the assessor shall note in a book the name of such person who refused to list or to swear; and in every case where any person required to list property for taxation has been absent or unable from sickness to list the same, the assessor of taxes shall note in a book such fact, together with the name of such person.

Duty of assessor in such cases.
Ib. §12.

Art. 5107. [4709] In all cases of failure to obtain a statement of real and personal property from any cause, it shall be the duty of the assessor of taxes to ascertain the amount and value of such property and assess the same as he believes to be the true and full value thereof, and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as if such property had been rendered by the proper owner thereof.

Commissioner of general land office to furnish abstracts to assessors.
(Acts of 1879, p. 24.)

Art. 5108. The commissioner of the general land office shall furnish to each assessor of taxes in this state a correct abstract of all the surveys of land and number of acres therein in their respective counties, and on the first day of January of each year said commissioner of the general land office shall furnish said assessors an additional list of all new valid surveys in his county during the year; provided, that in case the records of the land office do not show the quantity of acres in a survey, the surveyor of the district shall furnish said assessor a certified statement of the number of acres therein.

Books to be furnished assessors. How to be filled by assessors.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5109. The commissioners' courts of each county in this state shall procure and furnish the assessor of said county three well-bound books of not less than six hundred and forty pages each, and an index book for same, and such other stationery as may be necessary; said books to be of the best material and make, and shall have printed headings as per following form:

Assessor's Abstract for _____ Co.
Abstract No. _____
PATENT					CERTIFICATE
No.	Vol.	To Whom Issued	Date			Acres	No.	Class	Character	To Whom Issued
			Month	Day	Year
Rendered for Taxation.

Art. 5110. The blanks to be filled by the assessor with the abstract number, name of party to whom the certificate was issued, the number, class and character of the certificate, the name of the party to whom the patent issued, number of volume of patent, the month, day and year it was issued, and the number of acres each survey contains; which whole survey shall stand as a debit against the assessor.

How to be filled by assessor. Ib. §2.

Art. 5111. Each assessor shall be required to make an abstract of all the blocks or subdivisions of each of the cities or towns or vil-

Blocks and lots in cities. Ib. §3.

lages of his county, in a book or books of at least four hundred and eighty pages each, to be furnished him by the commissioners' court of his county for that purpose, with an index book to the same, which said book or books shall have a blank space for a diagram or plot of each block or subdivision, giving the number of the lots as per form following:

Block No. _____ Assessor's Abstract of City Lots in _____ County, City of _____		 /
Year	Owner's Name
Year	Owner's Name	No. Lot	Value
Year	Owner's Name	No. Lot	Value

And the said assessor shall draw a plot of each block in the blank space left for that purpose, giving the number of each lot. And the whole of said block or subdivision shall be a debit against the assessor.

Art. 5112. Each assessor in this state, when he shall have made the assessment of his county for each year, shall on the first day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, carry from each person's assessment the number of acres and its value on each survey of lands, lots or blocks to that particular survey, lot or block found on the abstract books provided in articles 5110, 5111 and 5119; and that all the parts of each survey or block placed on said abstract books shall be a credit to the assessor on that particular survey. And said assessor shall deduct the total number of acres rendered on each survey or block from the total number of acres of the whole survey or block as is shown by said abstract, and if any part is left unrendered, then he shall assess the same to the owner or owners thereof, if known, and if unknown then to "unknown owners," and the value thereof shall be affixed by him, sanctioned by the board of equalization; provided, that the owner or owners of any survey and grant of land may show by a survey, to be made by the county surveyor of the county, that the survey and grant in which they are interested does not contain the full complement of acres, showing how many acres are in fact embraced within the calls of the particular survey and grant.

Duties of assessor as to same.
Ib. §4.

Art. 5113. The assessor's abstracts shall be kept in his office at the county seat of his county, as records of his office, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. The index book shall show the original grantee, the number of acres, the abstract number, and the volume and page in which each survey is placed.

To be kept in office.
Ib. §5.

Art. 5114. Should there be any survey of lands, lots or blocks not on the abstract book or books which are by law subject to taxation, the assessor shall enter such lands, lots or blocks on the assessment list as though the same appeared on said abstract books.

Lands not on abstract to be placed there.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5115. Each assessor of taxes shall procure from the board of equalization of his county a certificate that all the surveys and parts of surveys of lands in his county, and all the lots and blocks of the cities and towns of his county are rendered for taxation, which certificate shall be forwarded to the comptroller of this state before he shall issue to said assessor a draft on the tax collector of his county. And the same rule shall apply to the commissioners' court before they issue drafts on the county treasurer for his pay for assessing the county taxes.

Certificate from board of equalization.
Ib. §7.

Art. 5116. The board of equalization or the county commissioners' court shall, if the assessor fails to perform the duties required by this chapter within a reasonable time, employ some other competent person to have the requirements of this law carried out, and the compensation therefor shall be deducted from the assessor's pay for that year.

Substitute to be employed if assessor fails.
Ib. §8.

Art. 5117. The comptroller of this state shall be required to have this law carried out in the unorganized counties of this state, where lands are located.

Unorganized counties.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5118. [4710] The manner and form for assessing property for taxation shall be substantially as follows, to-wit:

41. The value of stock and furniture of saloons, hotels and eating houses.
42. The value of every billiard, pigeon hole, bagatelle, and other similar table, together with the number thereof.
43. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.
44. The value of all other property not enumerated as above.

Art. 5119. [4711] If the assessor of taxes discovers any real property in his county subject to taxation which has not been listed to him, he shall list and assess such property in the manner following, to-wit:

Assessment of property not rendered. Ib. p. 269, §14.

1. The name of the owner; if unknown, say "unknown."
2. Abstract number and number of certificate.
3. Number of the survey.
4. Name of the original grantee.
5. Number of acres.
6. The true and full value thereof.
7. The number of lot or lots.
8. The number of the block.
9. The true and full value thereof.

10. The name of the city or town, and give such other description of the lot or lots or parcels of land as may be necessary to better describe the same; and such assessment shall be as valid as if rendered by the owner thereof.

Art. 5120. The commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state shall convene and sit as a board of equalization on the second Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable before the first day of July, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessors of their counties for inspection, correction, equalization and approval.

Boards of equalization. (Acts of 1879, p. 44; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 108, p. 486.)

1. They shall cause the assessor to bring before them at such meeting all said assessment lists, books, etc., for inspection, and see that every person has rendered his property at a fair market value, and shall have power to send for persons, books and papers, swear and qualify persons, to ascertain the value of such property, and to lower or raise the value on the same.

2. They shall have power to correct errors in assessments.

3. They shall equalize improved lands into three classes—the first class to embrace the better quality of land and improvements; the second class to embrace the second quality of lands and improvements, and the third class to embrace lands of but small or inferior improvements. The unimproved lands shall embrace first, second and third class, and all other property made as nearly uniform as possible.

4. After they have inspected and equalized as near as possible, they shall approve said lists or books and return to assessors for making up the general rolls, when said board shall meet again and approve the same, if found correct.

5. Whenever said board shall find it their duty to raise the assessment of any person's property, it shall be their duty to order the county clerk to give the person written notice, who rendered the same, that they desire to raise the value of the same. It shall be their duty to cause the county clerk to give ten days' written notice before their meeting by publication in some newspaper, but if none is published in the county, then by posting a written or printed notice in each justice's precinct, one of which must be at the court house door.

6. The assessors of taxes shall furnish to the board of equalization, on the first Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refuse to swear or to qualify, or to have signed the oath or affirmation as required by law, together with the assessment of said persons' property made by him through other information; and the board of equalization shall examine, equalize and correct assessments so made by the assessor, and when so revised, equalized and corrected, the same shall be approved.

Assessment of real property for previous years. (Acts of 1888, p. 4; Ib., 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 486.)

Art. 5120a. [4712] If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any real property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation for any year since 1870, he shall list and assess the same for each and every year for which it has not been assessed, in the manner prescribed in the preceding article, and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof; but no such real property shall be assessed by the assessor unless he has ascertained by the certificate of the comptroller of public accounts the fact that the records of his office do not show that the property has been rendered or assessed for the year in which he assesses it.

Assessment of back taxes on personal property. (Acts of 1887, p. 127.)

Art. 5121. If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any property, or, outside of his county but belonging to a resident of the county, any personal property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation every year for two years past, he shall list and assess the same for each and every year thus omitted which it has belonged to said resident, in the manner prescribed for assessing other property, and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof.

Unlisted property; supplemental roll. (Acts of 1895, p. 103.)

Art. 5121a. Collectors of taxes of counties, cities and towns, when any tax payer applies to them for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of his taxes, and the collector finds that his name or his property does not appear on the tax roll, shall, and it is hereby made their duty to, assess said taxpayer then and there, collect the taxes and enter the same upon a supplemental tax roll to be made by him. He shall make out, on forms to be furnished by the comptroller, three copies of such supplemental roll, one copy to be delivered to the comptroller of public accounts, one to be delivered to the county clerk, and one to be filed in the collector's office. Said supplemental tax roll shall be made out and delivered to the county commissioners' court with all other papers pertaining to the final settlement of said tax collector, and the same shall be examined and approved by the county commissioners' court, in like manner as upon the tax roll of the tax assessor. The collectors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full and correct assessment of all taxable property assessed by them under this act. The oath shall be the same as is administered by tax assessors under existing law. The collector of taxes shall receive the following compensation for his services on all assessments made by him under this act, to-wit: For assessing the state and county taxes, four cents for each one hundred dollars of property so assessed, and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll, which fee shall be paid in the same way as the tax assessor's fee in article 5133.

Assessor to follow instructions. (Acts of 1876, p. 265.)

Art. 5122. [4713] The assessors of taxes, in the execution of their duties, shall use the forms and follow the instructions which shall from time to time be prescribed by the comptroller of public accounts, and furnished to them by the county judge in pursuance of law.

Equalization of assessments. Ib. p. 270, §17.

Art. 5123. [4714] In case the person listing property makes oath, and the assessing officer is satisfied that it is correctly valued, he shall list the same accordingly; but if the assessor is satisfied that the value is too low he shall list the same at such value as he, as a sworn officer, deems just; and if the person listing makes oath that the assessment is excessive, the value shall be decided by the board of equalization, whose valuation shall be final.

Art. 5124. [4715] The boards of equalization shall have power, without complaint from any one, to supervise the assessments of their respective counties, and if satisfied that the valuation of any property is not just and fair, to increase or diminish the same, and to affix a proper valuation thereto; and their action in such cases shall be final and not subject to revision by said board or any other tribunal thereafter.

Boards may equalize without complaint.

Art. 5125. [4716] The assessor of taxes shall furnish the board of equalization on the first Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refused to swear or to qualify, or to sign the oath or affirmation, as prescribed in this title; also a list of the names of those persons who refused to render a list of taxable property as required by this title. And should any person so failing or refusing to take the oath prescribed, or to render a list of their property, or to subscribe to the oath, as required by the provisions of this title, fail to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to the board of equalization within one month from the date of the filing of said list by the assessor, as required by this article, the board of equalization shall return a list of all persons who have failed to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to render, qualify or subscribe to the oath or affirmation, as the case may be, to the assessor of taxes, who shall present the said list to the grand jury of his county next impaneled after the board of equalization has furnished him with the list above required.

Assessor to furnish list of delinquents. Ib. §18.

Art. 5126. [4717] The assessor of taxes shall submit all the lists of property rendered to him prior to the first Monday in June to the board of equalization of his county on the first Monday in June, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for their inspection, approval, correction or equalization; and after the board of equalization shall have returned the corrected and approved lists of taxable property, the assessor of taxes shall proceed to assess all the unrendered property of his county as provided for in this title, and shall proceed to make out and prepare his rolls or books of all the real and personal property listed to him, in the form and manner prescribed by the comptroller of the state.

And submit lists to board of equalization. Ib. §20.

Art. 5127. [4718] As soon as the board of equalization shall have examined, corrected and approved the assessor's list, the assessor of taxes shall prepare and make out a roll or book, as may be required by the comptroller, from the list so corrected and approved, and three exact copies of the same, the original to be furnished to the collector of taxes, the second to the comptroller of public accounts, and the third to be filed in the county clerk's office for the inspection of the public. He shall also prepare a roll or book, and two exact copies thereof, to be distributed, the first to the collector of taxes, the second to the comptroller, the third to be filed in the county clerk's office, of all the real and personal property which has not been listed to him.

Shall make out rolls in triplicate. Ib. §19.

Art. 5128. [4719] The assessor of taxes shall, after his list of unrendered real and personal property shall have been examined, corrected and approved by the board of equalization as provided by law, prepare and make out his rolls or books of all unrendered real and personal property listed by him in the manner and form prescribed by the comptroller of the state.

Also rolls of unrendered property. Ib. p. 271, §21.

And add up columns.
Ib. §22.

Art. 5129. [4720] The assessor of taxes shall add up and note the aggregate of each column on his roll or book, and he shall also make in each book or roll, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and he shall add up and set down under the respective headings the total of the several columns.

Return and oath.
Ib. §23.

Art. 5130. [4721] The assessor of taxes shall, on or before the first day of August of each year for which the assessment is made, return his rolls or assessment books of the taxable property rendered to him or listed by him for that year, after they have been made in accordance with the provisions of this title, to the county board of equalization, verified by his affidavit, substantially in the following form:

“State of Texas }
“— County. } ss.

“I, ———, assessor of ——— county, do solemnly swear that the rolls (or books) to which this is attached contain a correct and full list of all the real and personal property subject to taxation in ——— [fill the blank with the name of the county] county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same, and that the assessed value set down in the proper column opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property is the true and correct valuation thereof as ascertained by law, and that the footings of the several columns in said books and the tabular statement returned is correct, as I verily believe.”

To be signed and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and attested with his signature and seal of office.

All lists, etc.,
filed in county
clerk's office.
Ib. §24.

Art. 5131. [4722] The assessor of taxes shall at the same time deliver to the board of equalization all the lists, statements of all property which shall have been made out or received by him, and arranged in alphabetical order, together with the roll withdrawn to aid him in the past assessment. The lists and statements shall be filed in the county clerk's office, and remain there for the inspection of the public.

Rolls, how distributed.
Ib. §25.

Art. 5132. [4723] After the board of equalization shall have examined the rolls or assessment books and made all corrections, if any be necessary, the assessor shall send one copy of each to the comptroller of public accounts, one copy of each to the collector of his county, and he shall file the other copies in the county clerk's office until the next assessment, when the assessor shall have the right to withdraw them and use as provided in this title.

Compensation.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 33.)

Art. 5133. [4724] Each assessor of taxes shall receive the following compensation for his services, which shall be estimated upon the total values of the property assessed, as follows: For assessing the state and county tax, on all sums of two millions of dollars or less, five cents for each one hundred dollars of property assessed, and all sums over two millions and less than five millions of dollars, two and one-half cents on each one hundred dollars, and all sums over five millions of dollars, two cents on each one hundred dollars. Two-thirds of the above fees shall be paid by the state and one-third by the county, and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll, which shall be paid by the state.

How paid by the state.
Ib. §27.

Art. 5134. [4725] The comptroller, on receipt of the rolls, shall give the assessor an order on the collector of his county for the amount due him by the state for assessing the state taxes, to be paid out of the first money collected for that year.

Art. 5135. [4726] The commissioners' court shall issue an order on the county treasurer of their county, to the assessor, for the amount due him for assessing the county tax of their county, to be paid out of the first money received from the collector on the rolls of that year.

By the county.
Ib. §28.

Art. 5136. [4727] Should any assessor of taxes fail or neglect to make out and return his rolls or books to the commissioners' court in the time and manner provided for in this chapter, it shall be competent for the commissioners' court to deduct from his compensation such amount as they may deem proper and right for such neglect or failure; and should his rolls or books, when presented for approval to the commissioners' court, prove to be imperfect or erroneous, the court shall have the same corrected or perfected, either by the assessor or some other person than the assessor of taxes. Such person so employed by the commissioners' court shall be entitled to such part of the commissions to which such assessor is entitled as the court may allow; and said court shall so certify to the comptroller, who shall pay such person in the same manner as the assessor of taxes is paid, and the amount so paid shall be deducted by the comptroller from the commissions of the assessor of taxes, whose duty it was to have performed such work.

Penalties for neglect of duty.
Ib. §29.
(See acts of 1879, ch. 47.)

Art. 5137. [4728] Lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and lands lying in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be assessed by the comptroller of public accounts in accordance with such regulations as he may adopt and establish for that purpose.

Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties, etc. (Const., art. 8, §12.)

PROPERTY IN UNORGANIZED COUNTIES.

Art. 5138. All lands and other property situated in the unorganized counties of this state, owned by residents of such unorganized counties, shall be assessed by the assessor of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and the taxes collected by the collector of such organized county; and the same remedies for the enforcement of the assessment and collection of such taxes shall apply as the law directs for the assessment and collection of the taxes on property situated in organized counties of this state.

Lands in unorganized counties. (Acts of 1879, p. 141.)

Art. 5139. The comptroller of the state is authorized, empowered and required to assess and collect the state taxes on all lands in this state which are situated in unorganized counties thereof, and owned by non-residents thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Duties of comptroller in relation thereto.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5140. The comptroller may at any time prior to the return of the assessment rolls to his office of the organized county to which such unorganized county or counties are attached for judicial purposes, receive the assessment of and collect the taxes on any lands situated in such unorganized county or counties which are owned by non-residents thereof.

Same.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5141. As soon as the tax rolls of the organized county to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have been received by the comptroller, he shall, by comparing the lands rendered to the assessor of the organized county by the residents of such unorganized county or counties with those previously rendered to him by non-residents, make out a list of all un-

Same.
Ib. §4.

rendered lands situated in such unorganized county, and place such value upon the lands thus found to be unrendered as he, as a sworn officer, may deem just and fair; provided, nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the comptroller from receiving the assessment and taxes due at any time prior to the completion of the unrendered list of such unorganized county.

Same.
Ib. §5.

Art. 5142. After the completion of the unrendered list provided for in this chapter, the owner or owners must pay according to the value and assessment made thereon by the comptroller.

May appeal from comptroller's assessment.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5143. Assessment of lands rendered to the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall be made by the party rendering the same under oath as to their value; but if the comptroller thinks the valuation too low he shall object, and if the comptroller and the party rendering the land cannot agree, then the comptroller shall assess the same at such value as he as a sworn officer may think it is worth; and if the party rendering feels that the assessment is too high he may appeal to the board of equalization, which for such purposes shall consist of the governor, attorney general and the secretary of state, and their decision shall be final.

May levy upon and sell, when.
Ib. §7.

Art. 5144. Three months after the completion of the unrendered list of each unorganized county respectively the comptroller shall proceed to levy upon and advertise all lands in such counties upon which the taxes are due and unpaid, giving notice of the amount due upon each separate tract of land, and giving such description of the land upon which taxes are due and unpaid as he may be in possession of; such notice to be given by publication in some weekly newspaper published in the state for four consecutive weeks; said notice to state that on a certain day therein named the comptroller will proceed to sell the land therein described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the state and county taxes due, and the cost of advertising the same.

Sale.
Ib. §8.

Art. 5145. The sale shall commence on the day named in said notice, and may continue from day to day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) until completed; such sale shall be had in front of the comptroller's office, in the city of Austin, between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of each day.

May be bought by state, when.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5146. Should there be no purchaser of said lands, then the comptroller shall bid the same in to the state for the taxes due thereon and the costs of sale, and make a deed to the state to the same, including in one deed all lands bid in for the state or any one else.

Redemption.
Ib. §10.

Art. 5147. Should the lands bid in by the comptroller for the state not be redeemed by the owner thereof or his agent within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which the said land was sold, then the said lands thus sold and unredeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund, to be sold and disposed of as other lands belonging to the public free school fund are to be sold and disposed of by law.

Tax deed.
Ib. §11.

Art. 5148. The comptroller shall give to the purchaser of any lands the sale of which is provided for in this chapter a deed to the same, giving in such deed such description of the land as may be necessary to identify the same, or such description as he may be in possession of.

List of purchasers to be kept in office.
Ib. §12.

Art. 5149. The comptroller shall keep a list of the purchaser or purchasers of all such lands in his office, showing the name and post-office of the purchaser or purchasers, together with the amount and description of the land sold and the amount for which it was sold, and the date of sale.

Art. 5150. The deed given to the purchaser or purchasers by the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall vest a good and sufficient fee simple title in the purchaser or purchasers, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud; provided, the former owner or owners thereof do not redeem the same within two years from the date of the deed, either by paying to the purchaser or purchasers double the amount for which said land was sold, or by making a tender of the same to him or his agent, or by depositing with the comptroller before the expiration of the two years double the amount for which such land was sold, to be paid by the comptroller, when called upon, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

Deed shall vest good title when.
Ib. §13.

Art. 5151. All county taxes collected under the provisions of article 5147 shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes.

County taxes to be paid, when.
Ib. §14.

Art. 5152. All county taxes due unorganized counties collected by the comptroller shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the same shall have been organized; then he shall, upon the demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, pay the same over to said treasurer.

Comptroller to keep taxes of unorganized counties.
Ib. §15.

Art. 5153. All money received by the comptroller on deposit for the redemption of land sold and bought by individuals shall be by him deposited in the state treasury as a special deposit, subject to the order of the party to whom the conditional deed to such land was given. So also shall all county taxes collected by the comptroller under the provisions of this law be deposited in the state treasury as a special fund, subject to the order of the comptroller, to be paid to the county treasurers as provided in this chapter.

Special deposit to be made by comptroller.
Ib. §16.

Election and term of collector. (Const., art. 8, §16.) (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 259, §1.)

Article 5154. [4729] In each county having ten thousand inhabitants, to be determined by the last preceding census of the United States, there shall be elected by the qualified voters, at the same time and under the same law regulating the election of state and county officers, a collector of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Vacancies, how filled. Ib.

Art. 5155. [4730] Should the office of collector of taxes from any cause become vacant before the expiration of said term, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court in the county in which such vacancy shall occur, to appoint a collector of taxes, who shall be qualified in the same manner and subject to like bonds as the collector of taxes elected, and the collector of taxes so appointed shall hold his office for and during the unexpired term of his predecessor and until his successor shall have been qualified; and the collector of taxes so appointed shall have all the rights and perform all the duties required by law of the collector of taxes elected.

Sheriff a collector, when. (Const., art. 8, §16.) Ib. §2.

Art. 5156. [4731] In each county having less than ten thousand inhabitants the sheriff of such county shall be the collector of taxes, and shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges, be subject to all the requirements and restrictions, and perform all the duties imposed by law upon collectors; and he shall also give the same bonds required of a collector of taxes elected.

Bond and oath. Ib. §3.

Art. 5157. [4732] Every collector of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give a bond based upon unincumbered real estate of the sureties subject to execution, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to the whole amount of the state tax of the county as shown by the last preceding assessment, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, which shall be further subject to the approval of the comptroller, and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with said bonds, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the comptroller to be deposited in his office. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as collector of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but suit may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof be recovered.

Art. 5158. [4733] The collector of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond or additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners' court or comptroller of public accounts, it may be advisable. Should any collector of taxes fail to give a new bond and additional security, when required, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law.

New bond.
Ib.

Art. 5159. [4734] Collectors of taxes shall give a like bond, with like conditions, to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than the whole amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, which bond shall be recorded and deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court. A new bond and additional security may be required, and for a failure to give such new bond or additional security the collector of taxes may be removed from office in the manner prescribed by law.

Bond for county taxes.
Ib. p. 260, §4.

Art. 5160. [4735] No collector of taxes shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office until all the bonds required of him by law for the collection of any taxes, state, county or special, shall have been given and approved.

All bonds to be first approved.

Art. 5161. [4736] Each collector of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the collection of taxes, and may take such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity, and the collectors, in all cases, shall be liable and accountable for his proceedings and misconduct in office.

May appoint deputies.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5162. [4737] When the collector of taxes of any county shall have received the assessment rolls or books of the county, he shall receipt to the commissioners' court for the same, and said rolls or books shall be full and sufficient authority for the county collector of taxes to receive and collect the taxes therein levied.

Rolls to be a warrant.
Ib. §5.

Art. 5163. [4738] The collector of taxes shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes assessed upon the tax list in his county, whether assessed for the state or county, school, poorhouse or other purpose, and he shall proceed to collect the same according to law, and place the same when collected to the proper fund, and pay the same over to the proper authorities, as hereinafter provided.

Collector for all taxes.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5164. [4739] The collector of taxes of each county shall begin the collection of taxes annually on the first day of October, or so

Collections,
when to begin.
Ib. §7.

soon thereafter as he may be able to obtain the proper assessment rolls, books or data upon which to proceed with the business; and he shall post up notices—not less than three—at public places in each voting or magistrate's precinct in his county, at least twenty days previous to the day said taxpayers are required to meet him for the purpose of paying their taxes, stating in said notice the times and places the same are required to be paid; and it shall be the duty of said collector, or his deputy, to attend at such times and places for the purposes aforesaid, and shall remain at each place at least two days; and if the collector shall, from any cause, fail to meet the taxpayers at the time and place specified in the first notice, he shall, in like manner, give a second notice.

Shall keep office at county site. (Acts of 1887, p. 127.)

Art. 5165. [4740] The collector of taxes shall keep his office at the county seat of his county, and it shall be the duty of every person who has failed to attend and to pay his taxes at the times and places in his precinct named by the collector, as provided in the preceding article, to call at the office of the collector and pay the same before the last day of December of the same year for which the assessment is made.

Tax receipt and its requisites. (Acts of 1876, p. 261, §10.)

Art. 5166. [4741] The collector of taxes or his deputy, whenever any tax is paid, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of state ad valorem tax, amount of state poll tax, the amount of county ad valorem tax, the amount of county poll tax, and the year or years for which such tax was levied; said receipt shall also show the number of acres of land in each separate tract, number, abstract and name of original grantee; the said receipt shall have a duplicate stub showing the name of the person, the date, the amount of each separate tax and the date of payment. The collector of taxes shall provide himself with a seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points, surrounded by the words "Collector of taxes, ——— county" [the blank to be filled with the name of the county], and shall impress said seal to each receipt given by him for taxes collected on real estate; and said receipt having the seal attached shall be admissible to record in the county in which the property is situated in same manner as deeds duly authenticated, and when so recorded shall be full and complete notice to all persons of the payment of said tax.

Quarterly reports; requisites of: duties of collector. (Acts of 1893, p. 90.)

Art. 5167. [4742] 1. At the end of each month the collector of taxes shall, on forms to be furnished by the comptroller of public accounts, make an itemized report under oath to the comptroller, showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all state taxes collected.

2. He shall present such report, together with the tax receipt stubs, to the county clerk, who shall, within two days, compare said report with said stubs, and if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates, and amounts, he (the clerk) shall certify to its correctness, for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the commissioners' court twenty-five cents for each certificate and twenty-five cents for each two hundred tax payers on said report.

3. The collector of taxes shall then immediately forward his reports so certified to the comptroller, and shall pay over to the state treasurer all moneys collected by him for the state during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected; and to enable him to do so he may, at his own risk, send the same to the state treasurer at the least cost to the state, on which he shall be allowed credit by the comptroller upon filing receipts showing actual amount of exchange paid; provided, that the state treasurer shall accept no payment other than money orders or direct cash payments, which may be made through express companies, banks, or any other source. The state treasurer whenever he may receive a remittance from a collector of taxes shall promptly pay the money so remitted to the state treasury, on the deposit warrant of the comptroller, and the money when so deposited shall be a credit to the said collector of taxes.

4. The collector of taxes shall pay over to the state treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the state, and finally adjust and settle his account with the comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year; and to enable him to do so, the commissioners' court shall convene on or before the third Monday in April for the purpose of examining and approving his final settlement papers.

5. The allowance of a delinquent and insolvent list to the collector, in accordance with article 5170, shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes, but it shall be the duty of the collector to use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due thereon, after it is allowed by the commissioners' court, and he shall issue special tax receipts therefor, to be furnished by the comptroller, which blank receipts shall be numbered and charged to the collector, who shall account for same at his next annual settlement, in the same manner as occupation tax receipts; he shall also make itemized monthly reports of such collections, using special blanks for that purpose.

6. To enforce the prompt and speedy collection and remittance of taxes, and to provide for the proper accounting of same, the comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by collectors of taxes, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations as he may deem necessary in regard thereto. It shall be his imperative duty to enforce a strict observance of all the provisions of these articles.

7. It shall be the duty of the comptroller to notify the district attorney of the district, or the county attorney of the county in which the collector resides, and the sureties on the bond of the collector, of any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this article.

Art. 5168. [4743] 1. The collector of taxes shall at the end of each month make like reports to the commissioners' court of all the collections made for the county, conforming as far as applicable and in like manner to the requirements as to the collection and report of taxes collected for the state. The county clerk shall likewise, within two days after the presentation of said report by the collector, examine said report and stubs, and certify to their correctness as regards names, dates and amounts, for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the collector of taxes fifty cents each month, which amount shall be allowed to the collector by the commissioners' court.

Duties of clerk and collector.
1b.

2. The clerk shall file said report intended for the commissioners' court, together with the tax receipt stubs, in his office for the next regular meeting of the commissioners' court.

3. The collector of taxes shall immediately pay over to the county treasurer all taxes collected for the county during said month, after reserving his commissions for collecting the same, and take receipts therefor, and file with the county clerk.

4. At the next regular meeting of the commissioners' court, the collector of taxes shall appear before said court and make a summarized statement, showing the disposition of all moneys, both of the state and county, collected by him during the previous three months. Said statement must show that all taxes due the state have been promptly remitted to the state treasury at the end of each month, and all taxes due the county have been paid over promptly to the county treasurer, and shall file proper vouchers and receipts showing same.

5. The commissioners' court shall examine such statement and vouchers, together with the itemized report and tax receipt stubs filed each month, and shall compare the same with the tax rolls and tax receipt stubs. If found correct in every particular, and if the collector of taxes has properly accounted for all taxes collected, as provided above, the commissioners' court shall enter an order approving said report, and the order approving same shall be recorded in the minutes, as other proceedings of said court.

6. The collector of taxes shall finally adjust and settle his account with the commissioners' court for the county taxes collected, at the same time and in the same manner as is provided in the foregoing article in his settlement with the state.

Report not to be approved
unless.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 90.)

Art. 5169. [4743a] If any collector of taxes shall have failed at the end of each month, or within three days thereof, to promptly remit to the state treasurer the amount due by him to the state, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, the commissioners' court, at the next regular meeting, shall ascertain the facts, and if the collector of taxes fails or refuses to pay or remit the same and file proper vouchers therefor, as provided in the foregoing article, the commissioners' court shall not approve his reports and accounts, but shall ascertain the amounts due by him, both to the state and county, and enter an order requiring him to pay the same to the proper treasurers, as is provided in articles 5210 and 5211, of the Revised Statutes, and notify such collector, as is provided for in article 4769a, section 3, under penalty for failure to do so, in section 4 of said article.

Whenever the collector of taxes shall fail or refuse to remit to the state treasurer the amounts due the state, when requested, the comptroller shall notify him under article 4769a, sections 3, 4, 5 and 7.

[Note.—Article 4769a, referred to in the acts of 1893, is the act of July 2, 1879, and so numbered in Sayles' Texas Civil Statutes, to which evidently reference was had. The first three sections are articles 5210, 5211 and 5212 of this revision, and sections 4, 5, 6 and 7 are the supplemental sections of article 104 of the Penal Code.]

List of delinquents and insolvents to be made out.
Ib.

Art. 5170. [4744] The collector of taxes shall make out on forms, to be furnished for that purpose by the comptroller of public accounts, between April 1 and 15 of each year, lists of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, the caption of which shall be the "list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers." In this list he shall give the name of the person, firm, company, or corporation from whom the taxes are due, in separate columns, and he shall post one copy of these de linquent or insolvent lists at the court house door of the county, and one list at the court house door, or where court is usually held, in each justice precinct in his county; and the collector of taxes, upon the certificate of the commissioners' court that the persons appearing on the insolvent or delinquent lists have no property out of which to make the taxes assessed against them, or that they have moved out of the county, and that no property can be found in the county belonging to such persons, out of which to make the taxes due, shall be entitled to a credit on final settlement of his accounts for the amounts due by the persons, firms, companies, or corporations certified to by the commissioners' court, as above provided for.

Art. 5171. [4745] The allowance of an insolvent list to the collector, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article, shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes, but it shall be the duty of the collector to use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due on the insolvent list after it is allowed, and report and pay over to the proper officers all amounts collected on the same.

Collector to endeavor to collect delinquent list.
Ib. p. 282, 513.

Art. 5172. Non-residents of counties, owing state or county taxes, are hereby authorized to pay the same to the comptroller of public accounts; provided, that all taxes due by said non-residents shall be paid at the comptroller's office on or before the first day of January next after the assessment of such taxes; provided further, that the collectors of taxes shall be entitled to the commissions on all moneys paid by non-residents to the comptroller of public accounts, due their counties respectively.

Non-residents.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 41.)

Art. 5173. [4746] If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law, until the first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll of the county to the comptroller, the collector of taxes shall, by virtue of his tax roll, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with all costs accruing thereon; provided, there shall be no levy on property when the owner thereof has the right to pay at the comptroller's office, until a list of the persons who have paid their taxes at said office has been furnished the collector of taxes by the comptroller. The comptroller shall forward said list of paid taxes on or before the first day of February of each year, and the tax collector shall, immediately on receipt of said list from the comptroller, levy on and sell the property of such non-residents as have not paid their taxes, in accordance with the law regulating the sale of property for taxes.

Forced collections to begin, when.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 127.)

Art. 5174. [4747] If any person shall point out to the collector of taxes sufficient personal property belonging to him to pay all taxes assessed against him before the first day of January of any year, the collector shall immediately levy upon and sell such property so pointed out, in accordance with the laws regulating tax sales of a similar class of property.

Personal property may be pointed out.
Ib.

Art. 5175. [4748] If it comes to the knowledge of the collector that any personal property assessed for taxes on the rolls is about to be removed from the county, and the owner of such property has not other property in the county sufficient to satisfy all assessments against him, the collector shall immediately levy upon a sufficiency of such property to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the law regulating sales of personal property for taxes, unless the owner of such property shall give bond, with sufficient security, payable to and to be approved by the collector, and conditioned for the payment of the taxes due on such property, on or before the first day of January next succeeding.

Tax lien superior to assignment, attachment, inheritance or devise, except. (Report joint committee, 1895, No. 111, Sen. Jour., p. 486.)

Art. 5175a. In all cases where a taxpayer makes an assignment of his property for the payment of his debts, or where his property is levied upon by creditors, by writs of attachment or otherwise, or where the estate of a decedent is or becomes insolvent, and the taxes assessed against such person or party, or against any of his estate, remains unpaid in part or in whole, the amount of such unpaid taxes shall be a first lien upon all such property; provided, that when taxes are due by an estate of a deceased person, the lien herein provided for shall be subject to the allowances to widows and minors, funeral expenses, and expenses of last sickness; and such unpaid taxes shall be paid by the assignee, when said property has been assigned, by the sheriff out of the proceeds of sale in case such property has been seized under attachment or other writ, and by the administrator or other legal representative of decedents, and if said taxes shall not be paid, all said property may be levied on by the tax collector and sold for such taxes in whomsoever's hands it may be found.

All property liable for taxes. (Acts of 1879, p. 46.)

Art. 5176. All real and personal property held or owned by any person in this state shall be liable for all state and county taxes due by the owner thereof, including taxes on real estate, personal property and poll tax; and the collector of taxes shall levy on any personal or real property to be found in his county to satisfy all delinquent taxes, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sales of property, how made. (Acts of 1876, p. 259, §15.)

Art. 5177. [4749] In making sales of personal property for taxes, the collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale, together with a brief description of the property levied on and to be sold, for at least ten days previous to the day of sale, by advertisements in writing to be posted at the court house door, and at two other public places in the county; and such sale shall take place at the court house door of the county in which the assessment is made, by public auction.

If property is insufficient. Ib.

Art. 5178. [4750] If personal property levied upon prove insufficient to satisfy the taxes and penalties due and costs accrued thereon, the collector shall levy upon and sell so much other personal taxable property belonging to the person as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes, penalties and costs in the same manner as an original levy and sale; and in all cases of sales for taxes, if there be an excess remaining in the hands of the collector, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs, the same shall be paid over to the original owner by the collector, or deposited in the hands of the county treasurer subject to the order of such owner.

Sales of real property, when made. Ib. §16.

Art. 5179. [4751] If the delinquent is not possessed of a sufficiency of personal property in the county, subject to seizure and sale, to satisfy all taxes due by him, the collector of taxes shall seize so much of the real estate of such delinquent, situated in the county, as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding article.

Advertisements of real property for sale, etc. (Acts of 1881, p. 15.)

Art. 5180. [4752] In making sales of real property for taxes the collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one, and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation not exceeding twenty-five cents for each tract or parcel of land so advertised, to be taxed as other costs of sale against such land; provided, the cost of advertising in a newspaper shall be deducted from the fees allowed the collector for advertising; and provided, that the comptroller shall allow the collector twenty-five cents per tract for each tract of land bid off by the state; and if there be no newspaper published in the county, or there being a newspaper published in the county, and the publisher thereof refuses to publish the advertisement at the price herein fixed, then advertisement shall be made by posting the same for thirty days previous to the day of sale, at the court house door and three other public places in the county where the land or lots are situated, giving in said advertisement such description as is given to the same on the tax rolls in his hands, stating the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown say "unknown," together with time, place and terms of sale, said sale to be for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry, at the court house door, and between legal hours, on the first Tuesday of the month.

Art. 5181. Prior to the sale of any real property for taxes in any county in this state the collector of taxes shall advertise the same by posting a list of the names of the delinquents for thirty days as follows: One copy at the court house door of the county, and a copy at two other public places in the county where the lands or lots are situated.

List to be posted.
(Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 46.)

Art. 5182. [4753] As far as may be practicable all the lands and town lots levied upon for taxes shall be advertised in one notice and be sold on the same day; and such sales may be continued from day to day until concluded, but at the close of each day's sale the collector of taxes shall make proclamation of such continuance on the following day. No sale shall be considered complete until the payment of the purchase money, and if the same is not paid before the completion of the tax sales, the collector shall resell the property, and continue such sale until the same is complete.

May be continued from day to day.
(Acts of 1876, p. 289.)

Art. 5183. [4754] No real estate set apart, used or designated as a homestead shall be sold for taxes other than the taxes due on such homestead.

Homesteads liable only for their own taxes.
Ib.

Art. 5184. [4755] The collector of taxes, in making sales for taxes due upon real estate, shall sell at auction, at the time and place appointed, so much of said real estate as may be necessary to pay the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and shall offer said real estate to the bidder who will pay the taxes and penalties due, and costs of sale and execution of deed, for the least amount of said real estate, who shall be deemed the highest bidder. Should a less amount of said real estate than the whole tract or parcel of said real estate levied upon be sold for the taxes and penalties due and all costs of sale and execution and deed, the collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser, begin at some corner of said tract or parcel of land or town lot and designate the same in a square as near as practicable.

Sales of land, how made.
Ib. p. 263, §17.

Art. 5185. [4756] The collector of taxes shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, upon the payment of the amount for which the estate was sold, and costs and penalties, a deed for the real estate sold, which deed shall vest a good and perfect title to said land in the purchaser, if not redeemed in two years, as hereinafter provided; which deed shall state the cause of sale, the amount sold, the price for which the real estate was sold, the name of the person, firm, company or corporation on whom the demand for the taxes was made; provided, the name is known, and if unknown say "unknown," the same description of the land as is given in the tax rolls, and such other description as may be practicable for better identification; and when real estate has been sold he shall convey, subject to the right of redemption provided for in article 5187, all the right and interest which the former owner had therein at the time when the assessment was made.

Sales to be reported to commissioners' court.
Ib.

Art. 5186. [4757] When the collector of taxes shall have made sale of any real estate under this chapter, it shall be his duty to make immediate return of said sale to the commissioners' court, stating in said return the land sold, the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown, state the fact, the time of the sale, the amount for which said sale was made, together with the name of the purchaser, which return shall be entered of record on the minute books of said court.

Redemption of land sold for taxes.
Ib. §19.

Art. 5187. [4758] The owner of real estate sold for the payment of taxes, or his heirs or assigns or legal representatives may, within two years from the date of sale, redeem the estate sold by paying or tendering to the purchaser, his heirs or legal representative, double the amount of money paid for the land.

Redemption from private purchasers.
(Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 29.)

Art. 5188. Any person having the right to redeem any land sold at tax sale may do so by payment, within the time prescribed by law, to the collector of taxes of the county in which the said land was sold, of the amount which the law requires to be paid; provided, that the owner of said land, or his agent, shall first have made affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, that he has made diligent search in the county where said land is situated for the purchaser thereof at the tax sale, and has failed to find him; or that the purchaser at such tax sale is not a resident of the county in which the land is situated, or that he and the purchaser can not agree on the amount of redemption money. In such cases only shall the owner or agent be authorized to redeem the same by the payment to the collector of taxes.

Receipt of collector notice, when.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5189. It shall be the duty of any collector of taxes, to whom payment is made under the provisions of this chapter, to give a receipt therefor, signed by him officially, in the presence of two witnesses, which said receipt, when duly recorded, shall be notice to all persons that the land therein described has been redeemed; and the collector of taxes shall, on demand, pay over to the purchaser at said tax sale the money thus received by him.

Relief, when.
(Acts of 1881, p. 107.)

Art. 5190. Any person whose land has been rendered for taxation, whether the same was rendered in the name of the original grantee or not, and has also been placed upon the unrendered rolls for the same year, shall be entitled to relief upon complying with the requirements hereinafter indicated.

Same.

Art. 5191. If any such lands shall have been sold for the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls, and bought by the state, the owner thereof, his agent or attorney, shall present to the tax collector of the county in which the land is situated a sworn statement to the effect that the same land has been rendered for taxation, and placed upon the regular assessment rolls for the year mentioned. Said affidavit shall contain an accurate description of the land, and be accompanied with the certificate of the assessor that the same is true and correct; and the tax collector shall thereupon present such person with a written statement, officially signed, that said tax has been cancelled, and make a note of the same upon the unrendered rolls; provided, the provisions of this article shall apply to such lands at any time after the collector shall receive the rolls until the same shall have gone into the hands of a private purchaser; and if the owner shall have paid the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls at any time previous he shall be entitled to the warrant of the comptroller for the amount so paid, in the same manner as is provided in article 5192 of this chapter, in cases of redemption from individual purchasers; provided further, that the tax collector shall make no charge whatever for the duties herein mentioned.

Art. 5192. When the owner of such lands shall have redeemed the same from a private purchaser it shall be the duty of the tax collector to furnish him a certificate to that effect; and upon presentation of said certificate to the comptroller, the comptroller shall issue to him a warrant upon the treasury of the state for the amount of such tax. This warrant shall be receivable for all taxes to the state. For issuing the certificate provided for in this article the tax collector shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant.

Certificate of redemption from collector. Ib. §3.

Art. 5193. [4759] Should the collector of taxes fail to make sale of any real estate for want of a purchaser, he shall bid the same off for the state for the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and execute a deed to the state; and one deed shall include all tracts of land bid off to the state at such tax sale, and make due return thereof, under such forms and directions as the comptroller may furnish and direct; and after sale and purchase by the state of any real estate it shall not be lawful for said collector to levy upon or advertise or sell the same for any remaining or accrued taxes due thereon until the same shall have been redeemed by the owner or is sold by the state. Said collector shall, on final settlement of his accounts with the commissioners' court and the comptroller of public accounts, be entitled to a credit for the amount of taxes due the state and county, respectively, for which the land and lots were bid off to the state.

Lands to be bid in for state, when. (Acts of 1879, S. S. p. 36, §1.)

Art. 5194. The owner, or his agent, of any lands that may have been conveyed to the state under the provisions of the foregoing article, desiring to redeem the same, may do so by depositing with the collector of the county in which the lands were sold double the amount of the purchase money and all accrued taxes thereon, within two years from the date of the deed to the state, and it shall be the duty of such collector to execute a receipt to such owner, or agents, giving therein the amount of money received, and a description of the land so as to identify the same, and sign and seal the same officially, and upon presentation of such receipt to the comptroller of public accounts, he shall execute to the owner a relinquishment under his signature and seal of office, which may be admitted to record in like manner with other conveyances of land.

May redeem, how. Ib. §2.

Art. 5195. In case said land shall not have been redeemed as provided in article 5194, then the same may be sold as provided by article 5193.

If not redeemed. Ib. §3.

Art. 5196. The owner of real estate which has been bought in by the state for taxes, his heirs or assigns may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the comptroller if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the comptroller as due thereon with costs of advertisement; and provided further, that if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the comptroller that any land has been sold to the state for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale, and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed or that such sale has been cancelled, which certificate shall release the interest of the state, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded.

Commissioners' court to sit as a board of inquiry, when. (Acts of 1889, p. 31.)

Art. 5197. The commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state shall, at the regular terms of said courts, sit as a court of inquiry in cases where land has been erroneously rendered for taxes; and any land owner whose land has been or may be sold to the state for taxes may appear before said court in person or by proxy and show to the satisfaction of a majority of said court that the taxes for which his or her lands have been sold have been paid, although the same was rendered in an incorrect abstract number or survey or original grantee; thereupon said commissioners' court shall issue to the said land owner a certificate setting forth fully said facts, which certificate shall be signed officially by the county judge of said county; and upon the presentation of said certificate to the comptroller of public accounts he shall execute and deliver to said land owner a valid deed relinquishing all the right, title and interest the state may have acquired in and to said land by reason of such tax sale.

Tax sales of towns and cities. (Acts of 1876, p. 259, §20.)

Art. 5198. [4760] The provisions of this chapter in reference to the seizure and sale of real and personal property for taxes, penalties and costs due thereon, shall apply as well to collectors of taxes for towns and cities as for collectors of taxes for counties, and they shall be governed in selling real and personal property by the same rules and regulations in all respects as to time, place, manner and terms and making deeds as are provided for collectors of taxes for counties.

[Note.—Articles 5199 (4761), 5200 (4762), 5201 (4763), 5203 (4764), 5204 (4765), and 5205 (4766) were repealed by the act of 1893, p. 93.]

Collector to file complaint, when. (Acts of 1887, p. 127.)

Art. 5202. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make an affidavit before any justice of the peace against any person, firm or association of persons engaged in or pursuing any occupation on which, under the laws of this state, a tax is imposed, who fails or refuses to pay the same.

Compensation. (Acts of 1883, p. 101, §1.)

Art. 5206. [4767] There shall be paid for the collection of taxes as compensation for the services of the collector, beginning with the first day of September of each year, five per cent on the first ten thousand dollars of taxes collected, and four per cent on the next ten thousand dollars collected for the state, and one and one-quarter per cent on all collections over that sum; for collecting the county taxes, five per cent on the first five thousand dollars of such taxes collected, and four per cent on the next five thousand dollars collected, and two per cent on all such taxes collected over that sum; and in counties owing subsidies to railroads, the collector shall receive only one per cent for collecting such railroad tax, and in case where property is levied on and sold for taxes he shall receive the same compensation as allowed by law to sheriffs or constables upon making a levy and sale in similar cases, but in no case to include commissions on such sales.

Art. 5207. And on all occupations and license taxes collected, five per cent.

For occupation tax.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5208. [4768] In making levies upon different tracts of land belonging to the same individual, corporation or company, the collector shall be entitled to charge for only one levy; and in all cases of advertisement of lands for tax sales he shall be entitled to charge for any one tract the exact proportion of the amount paid for the whole advertisement which said tract bears to all other tracts advertised, and no more. And for any greater charge under this article the collector shall be deemed guilty of extortion and be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Compensation for one levy only, etc.

Art. 5209. [4769] The taxes upon lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and upon lands situated in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be paid and collected at the office of the comptroller of public accounts, under such regulations as he may adopt for that purpose.

Taxes upon lands of non-residents in unorganized counties.
(Const., art. 8, §12.)

Art. 5210. All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to the state, and pay the same over to the state treasurer whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the comptroller of public accounts; provided, that tax collectors shall have thirty days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same.

Payments of moneys.
(Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 5.)

Art. 5211. All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to their respective counties, cities or towns, and pay the same over to the respective county treasurers or city treasurers, whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the respective county judges, or county commissioners' courts, or mayor or board of aldermen; provided, that tax collectors shall have ten days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same.

Same.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5212. The notification and direction provided for in the two preceding articles may be verbal, written, or by telegram; and if written or by telegram, proof of the deposit in the postoffice or telegraph office of such notification and direction, with postage or charges duly prepaid and correctly addressed, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such notification and direction having been given, and of the time when the same was given.

Notification to pay, etc.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5212a. Hereafter it shall be the duty of the district or county attorney of the respective counties of this state, by order of the commissioners' court, to institute suit in the name of the state for the recovery of all money due the state and county as taxes due and unpaid on unrendered personal property; and in all suits where judgments are obtained under this act the person owning the property on which there are taxes due the state and county shall be liable for all costs; provided, such suits may be brought for all taxes so due and unpaid for which such delinquent tax payer may be in arrears for and since the year 1886; and provided further, the state and county shall be exempt from liability for any costs growing out of such action; provided, all suits brought under this article for the recovery of taxes due on personal property shall be brought against the person or persons who owned the property at the time

Back taxes on unrendered lands. (Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 214, §1.)

Article 5213. [4770] In all cases where lands or real estate have not been assessed for taxation for any year since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the same shall be assessed and the taxes thereon collected in the mode prescribed in this chapter.

Comptroller to prepare list each year. Ib. §2.

Art. 5214. [4771] On the first day of July of each year the comptroller of public accounts shall cause to be prepared a list of all unrendered lands in each county subject to taxation and not assessed, in which shall be specified the name of the original grantee, the abstract number, the number of acres, the year for which such lands were unrendered, and the rate of state and county taxes for such year.

And forward same to boards of equalization. Ib.

Art. 5215. [4772] Upon completion of such lists the comptroller shall forward the same to the board of equalization of the respective counties, with the verification that the said list is a true and correct statement of all the unrendered land and real estate in ——— county for the year ———, as shown by the records of his office.

The board to value such lands. Ib. §3.

Art. 5216. [4773] Upon receipt of such list or lists by the board of equalization of such county, it shall be their duty to value each and every tract of land or parcel of real estate so mentioned and described in the said lists at their true and full value, as near as can be ascertained, for the year it was omitted to have been rendered.

And cause three rolls to be made. Ib. §4.

Art. 5217. [4774] When the board of equalization shall have completed the valuation they shall cause to be made out three separate rolls, in such manner as may be prescribed by the comptroller; they shall place one in the hands of the collector of taxes, forward one to the comptroller of the state, and file one in the office of the county clerk for the inspection of the public.

Collector to give notice. Ib. p. 215, §5.

Art. 5218. [4775] Upon receipt of the rolls by the collector of taxes he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in his county, and if no paper is published in his county, by posting printed circulars in not less than eight public places in his county, for four consecutive weeks, that the rolls for the collection of taxes on unrendered land and real estate have been placed in his hands, and that unless the taxes are paid within sixty days after the date of said notice he will proceed to collect the same as provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes.

Art. 5219. [4776] After the expiration of said sixty days, if the taxes on any such lands are not paid, the collector of taxes shall proceed to enforce the collection of said taxes in the mode provided in the preceding chapter for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes, and he shall be entitled to the same fees and penalties as are allowed him for the collection of other delinquent taxes.

And enforce collections after sixty days.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5220. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, on or before the first day of each year, to make out and forward to the collector of taxes in each county of the state a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the state for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale by payment or tender of payment to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the state, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed.

Comptroller to make out list of lands sold to state, etc. (Acts of 1879, p. 79, §1.)

Art. 5221. It shall be the duty of each collector of taxes, within ninety days after receipt of said list, to call to his aid the county surveyor of his county, and, near as may be, ascertain if any lands contained in said list do not in fact exist in said county, or are embraced in other surveys conflicting therewith, and upon which the taxes have been paid, and after deducting the same from said list, he shall proceed to sell each tract of land therein described, whether belonging to residents or non-residents, for the payment of such sums of money as may be designated on said list as due thereon, together with all costs that may accrue in advertising and selling the same as herein provided.

Sale, when and how made.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5222. The collector of taxes shall, prior to the sale of any real estate that has been previously bid off to the state at tax sales, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same, advertise the real estate to be sold in some newspaper published in the county for six successive weeks, if there be such newspaper published therein, otherwise he shall post advertisements of said sale at the court house door and at one public place in each justice's precinct of his county for at least six weeks, giving in said advertisement, whether published or posted, such description of the lands to be sold as shall be given on the comptroller's list, and stating the time, place and terms of sale, which shall be between legal hours on the first Tuesday of some specified month at the court house door at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash; provided, that no real estate shall in any case be sold for less than the amount designated by the comptroller as due thereon, together with all costs of advertisements and sale; and provided further, that no sales shall be made under the provisions of this chapter until six months after the same goes into effect; and provided further, that the former owner of any such real estate, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the comptroller as

Ib. §3.

due thereon, with costs of advertisement; and provided further, that if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the comptroller that any land has been sold to the state for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale, and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed or that such sale has been cancelled, which certificate shall release the interest of the state, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded.

Land sold,
how.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 79, §4.)

Art. 5223. At the time and place appointed for said sale the collector of taxes shall offer for sale each separate parcel of the real estate advertised, and shall sell the same to the bidder who will offer the largest amount of money therefor.

Sale may be continued, etc.
Ib. §5.

Art. 5224. If the sale of the real estate advertised as provided herein shall not be completed on the day it is commenced, said sale may be continued for ten consecutive days, from day to day, by announcement of the tax collector to that effect, and the said collector may, if there be on any day a less number than three bidders present, adjourn said sale to the first Tuesday in the following month.

Deed executed,
when and how.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5225. When a sale has been made of any real estate as herein provided, the collector of taxes, upon payment of the amount bid for the same, shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for such real estate, specifying in said deed the cause and date of sale, the number of acres sold, if the same can be ascertained, the name of the person, firm, corporation or company in whose name the land was assessed, and all such descriptive information as may be necessary to identify the property conveyed; provided, that the purchaser may, after payment, as described in this article, ask a delay of sixty days within which to have said real estate surveyed by the county surveyor, said survey to be made at the expense of the purchaser, and, upon a certificate from the collector directed to the surveyor that the person named in the certificate has purchased and paid for the same, not to exceed one dollar for each survey, to be paid for out of the sale of such survey.

Same.
Ib. §7.

Art. 5226. When a survey has been made, as provided in the preceding article, and a copy of the field notes, certified to as true and correct by the county surveyor, filed with the collector of taxes, the said collector shall thereupon make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to said real estate, which deed shall, in addition to the requisite hereinbefore named, contain the field-notes certified by the county surveyor.

Effect of deed,
etc.
Ib. §8.

Art. 5227. Deeds made, executed and delivered by collectors of taxes under the authority of this chapter shall be held to vest a good and perfect title to the real estate therein described in the purchaser, and may be impeached only by frauds; provided, that the former owner shall have two years from the date of said deed to redeem the same by paying to the purchaser double the amount paid for said land by the purchaser at such sale, together with all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser, with eight per cent interest on the amount of such subsequent taxes.

Report of sales.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5228. Within thirty days after sales made under the provisions of this chapter, the collector of taxes shall make a report to the commissioners' court of his county, and also to the comptroller of public accounts, giving in said reports such description of the real estate sold as is given in the comptroller's list, and stating the amounts due the state, county and collector respectively, and the amount for which said land was sold, and the name of the party to whom each tract was sold.

Art. 5229. Collectors of taxes shall, within sixty days after payments for real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter, after deducting from the proceeds of sale all costs due to them or their predecessors in said office, pay into the county treasury of the county in which said real estate is situated the amount of taxes shown by the comptroller's list to be due to said county, and the balance of said proceeds shall be paid by him into the treasury of the state within the said sixty days, in such manner as may be directed by the comptroller of public accounts.

Proceeds of sale paid to whom.
Ib. §10.

Art. 5230. Taxes collected by state or county, by sales made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be placed to the credit of the different funds for which originally assessed under the direction respectively of the comptroller of public accounts and the commissioners' court of the county in which the sale is made; the balance of the proceeds, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs accrued, shall, under direction of the comptroller, be placed in the treasury of the state as a special tax sale fund, and be subject to be reclaimed by the owner or owners of the land on proof as required in case of escheated estates.

Collections
applied, how.
(Acts of 1884,
p. 31.)

Art. 5231. The collector of taxes shall be entitled to deduct and retain out of the proceeds of sale of each separate parcel of real estate sold, as hereinbefore provided—

Costs deducted by collector, etc.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 79, §12.)

1. Such amount as may be designated in the comptroller's list as costs due thereon to the collector.

2. If the advertisement of sale is published in a newspaper, such a proportion of the actual amount paid for advertising as the number of acres in such separate parcel sold bears to the whole number of acres advertised; or if the advertisements are posted, the sum of one dollar.

3. Two dollars for every deed made, executed and delivered under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 5232. If, after the expiration of ninety days after the receipt by the collector of taxes of the comptroller's list, any real estate described in said list shall remain unsold, it shall be the duty of the said collector to make separate reports of such fact to the commissioners' court of his county and the comptroller of public accounts respectively, and the said parcels of real estate shall be embraced in the next list furnished by the comptroller of public accounts to the collector of taxes.

All land and improvements subject to taxation, (Acts of 1895, p. 50.)
 Delinquent taxes a lien on land.
 Ib.

Article 5232a. For the purposes of taxation real property shall include all lands within the state and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appertaining thereto, except such as are expressly exempted by law.

Art. 5232b. All lands or lots which have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the state, or to any city or town, for taxes due thereon since the first day of January, A. D. 1885, or which may hereafter be returned delinquent or reported sold to the state, or to any city or town, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and said taxes shall remain a lien upon the said land, although the owner be unknown or though it be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner, and though the ownership be changed, the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for taxes, interest and costs due for any preceding year.

Lands delinquent to be listed by comptroller.
 Ib.

Art. 5232c. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts immediately upon the taking effect of this chapter to prepare a list of all lands, lots or parts of lots sold to the state for taxes since the first day of January, 1885, and which have not been redeemed in each of the counties of this state, and to record such lands in books to be called the "Delinquent Tax Records," and may show when the lands or lots were reported delinquent or sold to the state for taxes, also the name of the owner at the time of such sale or delinquency, the number of acres, the amount of taxes due when first sold, and the amount of tax levied against it for each year since it was first returned delinquent, as shown by the records of his office; and making up the list or lists contemplated by this law for each county the comptroller is hereby required to make corrections and supply omissions in the description of any real estate embraced in said list or lists, so that when the corrections are made and the omissions are supplied the description will be such as is given in the abstracts of all the titled, patented and located lands in the state of Texas, or, as required in article 5232i, such as may be furnished by the commissioner of the general land office, and the comptroller is further required, in bulk assessments, to apportion to each tract or lot of land separately its pro rata part of the entire tax, interest and cost. The list for each county when signed by the comptroller shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers charged with any duty thereunder as to the regularity of listing, assessing and reporting same as delinquent or as sold to the state any real estate whatsoever. This "delinquent tax record" for each county shall be preserved by the comptroller in his department, and upon the completion of such "delinquent tax record" the comptroller shall cause a duplicate of same to be sent to the county clerk of the county for which such "delinquent tax record" is made, or if unorganized, then of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes, and may require of said county clerk a receipt for the same.

Art. 5232d. On receipt of such "delinquent tax record" from the comptroller containing a complete list of the lands or lots that have been reported delinquent or sold to the state for taxes for any year or number of years since January 1, 1885, and containing also the data and information mentioned in article 5232c, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of each of the counties of this state respectively to cause same to be recorded in a book in like manner as is prescribed to be done by the comptroller in article 5232c, which book shall be labeled the "Delinquent Tax Record of _____ County." The delinquent tax records shall be arranged alphabetically in each case as to the names of delinquents.

Delinquent tax lists to be recorded by county clerks.
Ib.

Art. 5232e. Upon receipt of said "delinquent tax record" from the comptroller by the county clerk of any county in this state, it shall be his duty immediately to certify same to the county commissioners' court, and the commissioners' court shall cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county for three consecutive weeks, if a newspaper is published in the county, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such list may be published in a newspaper outside of the county, to be designated by the commissioners' court by contract duly entered into, and a publisher's fee of twenty-five cents shall be taxed against such tract or parcel of land so advertised, and the publishers shall receive such compensation as is provided by law for like services in other cases.

Delinquent tax list to be published.
Ib.

Art. 5232f. Twenty days after the publication of such notice, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the commissioners' court, or the county judge acting for said court, shall file a list of all lands so advertised for taxes due for any year or number of years, the tax on which remains unpaid, with the county clerk of the county in which such lands are located, or if unorganized, then with the county clerk of the county to which attached for judicial purposes, and are to be sold under the provisions of this chapter for the taxes, interest and costs, and shall cause suit to be filed in the name of the state of Texas in the district court for said county, or if unorganized, then in the district court of the county to which attached for judicial purposes, stating therein by apt reference to lists or schedules annexed thereto a description of all lands or lots in such county upon which taxes have remained unpaid for any year or number of years since the first day of January, 1885, and the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for the sale thereof, and shall pray for judgment for the payment of the several amounts so specified therein, and in default thereof that such lands be sold to satisfy said judgment for taxes, interest and costs, and for such other relief to which the state may be entitled under the law and the facts. The petition in such suit shall be signed by the attorney bringing the suit, and shall be verified by the affidavit of said attorney or the county judge to the effect that the averments contained in said petition are true to the best of the knowledge and belief of affiant, and the pleadings of the defendant, except those of law, shall be verified by like affidavit of the defendant, his agent or attorney.

Suits to foreclose tax liens

ceedings had therein as provided by law for suits of like character in the district courts of this state; and in case of foreclosure an order of sale shall issue and the land sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall at any time before the sale file with the sheriff or other officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in less tracts than the whole, together with a description of said subdivisions, then such officer shall sell the land in said subdivisions as the defendant may request, and in such case shall only sell as many subdivisions, as near as may be, to satisfy the judgment, interest and costs, and after the payment of the taxes, costs and interest adjudged against it the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff to the clerk of the court out of which said execution or other final process issued, to be retained by him subject to the order of the court for the period of two years, after which time the court may order the same to be paid to the state treasurer, who shall hold same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed; provided, any one claiming the same shall make proof of his claim to the satisfaction of the state treasurer within ten years after the sale of said lands or lots, after which the same shall be governed by the law regulating escheats; provided, that no suit shall be brought to enforce such lien upon any lands that a sufficient description to identify the same can not first be had.

Sheriff to execute deeds.
Ib.

Art. 5232h. In all cases in which lands have been sold or may be sold for default in the payment of taxes it shall be lawful for the sheriff selling the same, or any of his successors in office, to make a deed or deeds to the purchaser or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this state to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud.

Attorneys to represent state; fees, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5232i. The county attorney shall represent the state and county in all suits against delinquent tax payers that are provided for in this chapter. In litigated cases additional counsel may be retained by the commissioners' court if they deem it necessary to do so whose compensation shall be such reasonable fee as may be agreed upon at the time of employment, but in no case shall the compensation for said county attorney be greater than five dollars for the first tract in one suit, and one dollar for each additional tract if more than one tract is embraced in same suit, recover taxes, interest and costs; provided, that in no case shall the state or county be liable for such fees, but in each case they shall be taxed as costs against the land to be sold under judgment for taxes and paid out of the proceeds of the sale of same after the taxes and interest due thereon to the state are paid. The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of two dollars for selling, and making deed thereto, each tract or lot of land that he sells under judgment for taxes, which fee shall be taxed as costs in the suit, and the district clerk shall be entitled to a fee of three dollars in each case, to be taxed as costs of suit.

Assessor to list unpaid taxes annually, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5232j. The tax collector of each county shall make up a list of the lands and lots on the thirty-first day of March of each year on which the state and county taxes for the preceding year remain unpaid, and shall file a certified copy of said list with the county clerk of his county, and shall send one to the comptroller of public ac counts. The county clerk and comptroller shall enter said list in the "delinquent tax record," as provided in article 5232c, immediately upon receipt of same from the tax collector. The commissioners' court shall examine such delinquent list, correct errors in same, if there be any, and cause the corrections to be made upon the "delinquent tax record" of the clerk's office, and notify the comptroller of such corrections made. When the delinquent list is corrected as provided for in this article, then such list shall be advertised as provided for in article 5232e, and after such advertisement suit shall be instituted against delinquents in the district court as above provided, and such list as furnished by the tax collector and corrected by the commissioners' court shall constitute prima facie evidence of the proper assessment of the real estate, and that the amounts charged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; provided, that the commissioners' court shall have the power in cases where lands delinquent for taxes for any year or years which have been subsequently subdivided and sold by the holder of such tracts of land at the time of delinquency, to pro rate the amount of delinquent or back tax among the holders of subdivisions, and on the payment of such pro rata by the holder of any subdivision he shall be released from any liability for the remainder of the delinquent tax due on the whole tract.

Art. 5232k. Any incorporated city or town or school district shall have the right to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes due it under the provisions of this chapter.

Law available to incorporated cities and towns.
Ib.

Art. 5232l. Real estate which may have been rendered for taxes and paid under erroneous descriptions given in assessment rolls, or lands that may have been doubly assessed and taxes paid on one assessment, or lands which may have been assessed in a county other than the one in which they are located, or lands which may have been sold to the state and upon which taxes have been paid and through error not credited in the assessment rolls, shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of this chapter. When called upon the commissioner of the general land office shall furnish the comptroller officially with such information as may be necessary to enable him to determine the validity or locality of such surveys and grants as have not been shown by the printed abstracts of the land office.

Exemptions from this chapter.

Art. 5232m. Any delinquent tax payer whose lands have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the state for taxes due thereon, or any one having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter by paying the taxes due thereon since January first, 1885, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and accrued costs of suit.

Delinquent owners may redeem before sale.
Ib.

Art. 5232n. Where lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter the owner or any one having an interest therein shall have the right to redeem said land, or his interest therein, within two years from the date of said sale upon the payment of double the amount paid for the land.

May redeem in two years by paying double.

Such taxes, how applied. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 174, §1.)

Article 5233. [4778] All taxes levied, assessed and collected for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of bonds heretofore issued by cities or towns to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvement, shall be applied solely to the objects for which they were levied, under the direction of the controller, as follows: First, to the payment of expenses of assessing and collecting the same; second, to the payment of the annual interest of such bonds, and not less than two per cent of the principal; and if there be any excess on hand after making the above payments for the current year, it shall be used in the purchase and cancellation of said bonds.

To be collected by city officers. Ib. §2.

Art. 5234. [4779] All such taxes shall be assessed and collected by the same officers whose duty it is to assess and collect the other municipal taxes, who shall receive the same rates of commission allowed for assessing and collecting the ad valorem tax of such city. The same remedies shall be used to enforce the assessment, collection and paying over such taxes as are or may hereafter be provided by law to enforce the assessment, collection and paying over of other municipal taxes.

Bond of the officer. Ib. §3.

Art. 5235. [4780] The officer whose duty it is to collect the aforesaid taxes shall give bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the mayor and board of aldermen of such city, in a sum fifty per cent greater than the estimated annual amount of said taxes, which bond shall be payable to the state, and shall be conditioned for the faithful assessing, collecting and paying over of said tax into the state treasury, as provided by law, and said assessor shall be amenable and subject to all laws enacted to secure the honest and faithful performance of the duties of collectors of taxes.

Taxes may be paid in what. Ib. §4.

Art. 5236. [4781] It shall be lawful for the collector to receive in payment of the taxes herein specified, current money or the matured coupons of the bonds for the payment of which such tax may have been levied.

To be paid over every month. Ib. §5.

Art. 5237. [4782] The collector of taxes, levied under the provisions of this chapter, shall pay over to the state treasurer, at the beginning of each and every month, all moneys or coupons he may have collected during the preceding month, deducting his legal commissions on the amount so paid, and shall make a report of his collections to the mayor and city council at its first regular meeting in each month.

If insufficient, additional levy to be made. Ib. §6.

Art. 5238. [4783] If it shall be ascertained, at any time, that the tax which has been levied for the payment of the city bonds issued under the provisions of law is insufficient to pay the annual interest and two per cent annually of the principal of such bonds, besides the expenses of assessing, collecting and paying over such tax, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to inform the mayor of said city of the fact; and it shall be the duty of the city council, and they shall, upon such information, levy such additional tax, and cause the same to be collected, as will be sufficient to make such payments; which levy shall be continued in force until the whole amount of principal and interest of said bonds shall have been fully paid.

Article 5239. Where any county now or hereafter created out of a part of any one or more organized counties, or when any unorganized county may be organized by the election and qualification of its officers, it shall be the duty of the person in charge of the assessor's roll in the county or counties from which such new county or any part of it has been taken, or to which such unorganized county has been attached for judicial purposes, to allow such person as the commissioners' court of the newly organized county may appoint for that purpose, access to the rolls for the purpose of making the transcripts hereinafter provided for.

When new counties are created, etc. (Acts of 1885, p. 107, §1.)

Art. 5240. It shall be the duty of the person so appointed to make from such assessor's rolls two transcripts of the unpaid assessments, both on person and property, in that portion of the county included within the limits of the new county, or, as the case may be, in the limits of the former unorganized county.

Transcripts of unpaid assessments. Ib. §2.

Art. 5241. The collector of the county from which such territory has been taken, or to which such unorganized county has been attached, shall examine and verify the transcripts herein provided for and attest their correctness over his official signature. For such service he shall receive twenty dollars from the county for which the transcript has been made, to be paid on the order of its commissioners' court. He shall also have the commissioners' court of his county to approve the transcript rolls, and shall deliver one of them to the collector of the new county; the other he shall forward to the comptroller, and, when received by the comptroller, it shall authorize him to give the proper credit to the collector of the old county and to charge the same to the collector of the new county.

To be verified. Ib. §3.

Art. 5242. The collector of such new county shall receive the same compensation, and shall have the same authority to collect and enforce the collection of the taxes found to be due by such transcripts as is enjoyed by the collectors of the other counties in this state.

Compensation of collector. Ib. §4.

Art. 5243. The person selected by the commissioners' court of the new county to make such transcripts shall receive for his services such compensation as he may agree on with such commissioners' court.

Art. 5243b. The comptroller of public accounts shall audit and pass upon the claims against the direct tax fund which may be made by those who paid the tax, or their legal representatives.

Art. 5243c. The comptroller shall allow such claims and draw his warrant in the name of the claimant, his surviving wife, or his or her legal representative, if any, on the state treasurer in payment of same when the genuineness thereof has been established in either of the following methods: First: When satisfactory proof has been made before him that the party applying is entitled thereto; and he is hereby authorized to administer such oaths as he may require in regard to the matter. Second: He shall, as soon as practicable, furnish a list of those who paid the tax and amounts paid to the county judge of each county wherein the tax was paid, to be filed in his office for inspection by those interested. In the manner to be designated by the comptroller, the county judge shall give notice of the receipt of the list. He shall at any time hear evidence as to the right of those making claim, and if the proof be satisfactory, he shall, under the seal of the county court, deliver to the claimant a certificate stating how the claim was established. In case where neither of the above rules can be applied, the comptroller may prescribe the rule.

Fee of county judge.
Ib.

Art. 5243d. The county judge shall be allowed the sum of twenty-five cents for each certificate, to be paid by the applicant.

(Acts of 1893,
p 156.)

Art. 5243f. There shall hereafter be collected from each telephone company an annual tax of twenty-five cents on each telephone in use by such company in this state; provided, that no occupation tax shall be levied on any telephone company by any county, city or town, but this article shall not be construed to prohibit the levy of state, county or municipal taxes upon the real and personal properties of such companies. Every such company shall, on or before the fifteenth day of January of each year, through its superintendent, or other chief officer or agent, make to the comptroller of public accounts a statement on oath showing the number of telephones in use in this state by such company, and the comptroller of public accounts shall certify to the state treasurer the amount of taxes due by such company, which taxes shall be paid to the state treasurer, for the use of the state, the amount of the taxes herein levied, and no telephone company shall do business in this state until said reports are filed and taxes paid. Any telephone company violating any provision of this article shall forfeit to the state, as a penalty, the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction on the complaint of the comptroller of public accounts.

Art. 5243g. Every sleeping car company, palace car company, dining car company doing business in this state, and every company, corporation, person, or association of persons leasing or renting cars to any railway company in this state, shall, annually, between the first day of January and the first day of March, report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the president, treasurer, or some other officer of said corporation, as follows, viz.:

1. The total authorized capital stock.
2. The number of shares issued.
3. The number of shares authorized.
4. The par value of each share.
5. The number of miles of railroad in this state and other states over which its cars are hauled.

6. The number of miles of railroad in this state over which its cars are hauled, the total amount invested by said company in real estate, manufacturing plants, materials and properties other than sleeping, palace and dining cars and their equipments; and shall pay to the state treasurer, for the use of the state, a tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars of the capital stock of such company employed in this state; and in computing the amount of such capital stock so employed, the same shall be such proportion of the capital stock of such company, after deducting therefrom the amount shown to be invested in real estate, manufacturing plants, materials and properties, other than such sleeping, palace or dining cars and their equipments or properties used in connection with the operation of such cars, as the miles over which it runs cars in this state bear to the whole number of miles in this state and other states over which such cars are run; and in the event of the neglect or refusal of the officers of any such corporation to make the report herein required, the comptroller of public accounts and attorney-general, or either of them, are hereby authorized to make a valuation of the capital stock of such company, and ascertain any other necessary facts from any information in their hands or that they may be able to obtain, and shall calculate the taxes due by such company, and certify to the state treasurer the amount of taxes due by such company; and each and every such company failing or refusing for more than thirty days after the first day of March to make the report required herein and pay the required taxes shall forfeit to the state twenty-five dollars for each day said report and payment are delayed, which forfeiture, together with the taxes due, shall be sued for by the attorney-general in the name of the state. For the purpose of suits provided for in this article, venue and jurisdiction are hereby expressly conferred upon the courts of Travis county, and service may be had upon any officer or agent of such company within this state, and such service shall in all respects be held legal and valid, and no occupation taxes shall be levied upon such companies by any county, city or town. Nothing in this article shall be construed to relinquish the claim of the state to taxes now due under provisions of previous articles.

Capital stock of non-corporators subject.
ib.

Art. 5243h. Whenever any person or association of persons, not being a corporation, nor having capital stock, shall in this state engage in the business mentioned in article 5243g, then the capital and property, or the certificates, or other evidences of the rights or interests of the holders thereof, in the business, or capital and property employed therein, shall be deemed and treated as the capital stock of such person or association of persons for the purpose of taxation in like manner if such person or association of persons were a corporation; and such person or association of persons shall make to the comptroller of public accounts, at the time and in the manner required in article 5243g, such report as the comptroller of public accounts may require to carry out the provisions of this chapter relating to such person or association of persons; and such persons or association of persons shall be subject to all the penalties provided in article 5243g for failure to make the required reports and pay the required taxes.

Art. 5243i. Each and every private domestic corporation heretofore chartered or that may be hereafter chartered under the laws of this state, and each and every foreign corporation that has received or may hereafter receive a permit to do business under the laws of this state, in this state, shall pay to the secretary of state, annually, on or before the first day of May, a franchise tax of ten dollars. Any such corporation which shall fail to pay the tax provided for in this article shall, because of such failure, forfeit their charter.

Franchise tax of corporations.

Art. 5243j. The secretary of state shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, notify all corporations subject to the tax provided in the preceding article, and in thirty days after the first day of May of each year shall publish a list of the charters forfeited for non-compliance with this chapter; provided, that any corporation which shall within sixty days after such publication pay the tax and five dollars additional thereto shall be relieved from forfeiture of its charter by reason of such failure; provided further that this chapter shall not be construed to repeal any law prescribing fees to be collected by the secretary of state.

Secretary of state to notify corporations, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5243k. Corporations organized for the purpose of religious worship, or for holding places of burial, not for private profit, or for school purposes, or for purely public charity, are exempted from the tax imposed by this act.

Article 5244. Any person engaged in floating or rafting timber upon the waters of any river or creek of this state shall have a log brand with which to brand every log or stick that he may float or haul and put into the waters for sale or market, the same to be distinctly branded.

Log brands.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 81, §1.)

Art. 5245. He shall have said brand recorded in every county in which he cuts any of said timber, and in the county where he proposes to sell or market said timber, by the county clerk, in a book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose, for which said clerk shall receive a fee the same as is by law allowed for recording stock brands.

To be recorded.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5246. Any persons who float any logs or timber in this state shall, on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of September, and on the first day of January of each year, or within fifteen days of said dates, make a written report under oath showing the number of logs cut or floated during the next preceding three months, the survey or surveys of land from which they were cut or carried, and the number cut from each, and a description of the brand placed thereon, and shall file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the timber was cut, and such clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and index it, and receive therefor the sum of fifty cents from the party presenting the same; provided, that this law shall not apply to pickets, posts, rails or firewood.

Method of trying titles to land, etc. (Act Feb. 5, 1840, §1.) P. D. 5292.

Rules in other cases observed, how far. Ib. §2. P. D. 5293.

The petition shall state, what. Ib. §1. P. D. 5292.

Indorsement on petition. Ib. §2. P. D. 5293.

Article 5248. [4784] All fictitious proceedings in the action of ejectment are abolished, and the method of trying titles to lands, tenements or other real property shall be by action of trespass to try title.

Art. 5249. [4785] The trial shall be conducted according to the rules of pleading, practice and evidence in other cases in the district court, and conformably to the principles of trial by ejectment, except as herein otherwise expressly provided.

Art. 5250. [4786] The petition shall state—

1. The real names of the plaintiff and defendant and their residence, if known.

2. It shall describe the premises by metes and bounds, or with sufficient certainty to identify the same, so that from such description possession thereof may be delivered, and shall also state the county or counties in which the same are situated.

3. The interest which the plaintiff claims in the premises, whether it be a fee simple or other estate; and if he claims an undivided interest he shall state the same and the amount thereof.

4. That he was in possession of the premises or entitled to such possession.

5. That the defendant afterward unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed him of such premises [stating the date], and withholds from him the possession thereof.

6. If rents and profits or damages are claimed, such facts as show the plaintiff to be entitled thereto and the amount thereof.

7. It shall conclude with a prayer for the relief sought.

Art. 5251. [4787] The plaintiff shall indorse on his petition that the action is brought as well to try the title as for damages.

Art. 5252. [4788] When a party is sued for lands the real owner or warrantor may make himself, or may be made a party defendant in the suit, and shall be entitled to make such defense as if he had been the original defendant in the action.

Warrantor, etc., may be made a party.

Art. 5253. [4789] When such action shall be commenced against a tenant in possession the landlord may enter himself as the defendant or he may be made a party on motion of such tenant, and he shall be entitled to make the same defense as if the suit had been originally commenced against him.

Landlord may become defendant.
Ib. §5.
P. D. 5296.

Art. 5254. [4790] The defendant in the action shall be the person in possession if the premises are occupied, or some person claiming title thereto in case they are unoccupied.

The possessor shall be defendant.

Art. 5255. [4791] The plaintiff may join as a defendant with the person in possession, any other person who, as landlord, remainderman, reversioner or otherwise, may claim title to the premises or any part thereof adversely to the plaintiff.

May join as defendants, whom.

Art. 5256. [4792] The defendant in such action may file only the plea of "not guilty," which shall state in substance that he is not guilty of the injury complained of in the petition filed by the plaintiff against him, except that if he claims an allowance for improvements he shall state the facts entitling him to the same as provided in the succeeding chapter.

May file plea of "not guilty" only.
(Act Feb. 2, 1844.)
Ib. §5.
P. D. 5307.

Art. 5257. [4793] Under such plea of "not guilty" the defendant may give in evidence any lawful defense to the action, except the defense of limitation, which shall be specially pleaded.

What proof may be made under such plea.
Ib.

Art. 5258. [4794] Such plea or any other answer to the merits shall be an admission by the defendant, for the purpose of that action, that he was in possession of the premises sued for, or that he claimed title thereto at the time of commencing the action, unless he states distinctly in his answer the extent of his possession or claim, in which case it shall be an admission to such extent only.

Answer taken as admitting possession.
(Act Feb. 5, 1840, §6.)
P. D. 5297.

Art. 5259. [4795] All certificates for headright, land scrip, bounty warrant or any other evidence of right to land recognized by the laws of this state which have been located and surveyed, shall be deemed and held as sufficient title to authorize the maintenance of the action of trespass to try title.

What is sufficient title, etc.
(Act Feb. 5, 1841, §23.)
P. D. 5303.

Art. 5260. [4796] After answer filed, either party may, by notice in writing, duly served on the opposite party or his attorney of record, not less than ten days before the trial of the cause, demand an abstract in writing of the claim or title to the premises in question upon which he relies.

Either party may demand abstract of title.

Art. 5261. [4797] Such abstract of title shall be filed with the papers of the cause within twenty days after the service of the notice, or within such further time as the court on good cause shown may grant; and in default thereof no evidence of the claim or title of such opposite party shall be given on trial.

Abstract must be filed in 20 days, etc.

Art. 5262. [4798] The abstract mentioned in the two preceding articles shall state—

Abstract shall state, what.

1. The nature of each document or written instrument intended to be used as evidence, and its date; or,
2. If a contract or conveyance, its date, the parties thereto and the date of the proof or acknowledgment, and before what officer the same was made; and,
3. Where recorded, stating the book and page of the record.
4. If not recorded in the county when the trial is had, copies of such instrument, with the names of the subscribing witnesses, shall be included.

If such unrecorded instrument be lost or destroyed, it shall be sufficient to state the nature of such instrument and its loss or destruction.

Amended abstract.

Art. 5263. [4799] The court may allow either party to file an amended abstract of titles, under the same rules which authorize the amendment of pleadings so far as they are applicable; but in all cases the documentary evidence of title shall, at the trial, be confined to the matters contained in the abstract of titles.

Surveyor appointed, etc. (Act Feb. 5, 1840, §3.)
P. D. 5294.

Art. 5264. [4800] The presiding judge of the court may, either in term time or in vacation, at his own discretion, or on motion of either party to the action, appoint a surveyor, who shall survey the premises in controversy pursuant to the order of the court, and report his action under oath to such court; and if said report be not rejected for good cause shown, the same shall be admitted as evidence on the trial.

Survey unnecessary, when.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 5308.

Art. 5265. [4801] Where there is no dispute as to the lines or boundaries of the land in controversy, or where the defendant admits that he is in possession of the lands or tenements included in the plaintiff's claim or title, an order of survey shall be unnecessary.

Common source of title, proof of. (Act Sept. 28, 1871, p. 3, §1.)
P. D. 6829.

Art. 5266. [4802] It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to deraign title beyond a common source, and proof of a common source may be made by the plaintiff by certified copies of the deeds showing a chain of title to the defendant emanating from and under such common source; but before any such certified copies shall be read in evidence they shall be filed with the papers of the suit three days before the trial, and the adverse party served with notice of such filing as in other cases; provided, that such certified copies shall not be evidence of title in the defendant unless offered in evidence by him, and the plaintiff shall not be precluded from making any legal objection to such certified copies or the originals thereof when introduced by the defendant.

Judgment by default.

Art. 5267. [4803] If the defendant, who has been personally served with citation according to law, fails to appear and answer by himself or attorney within the time prescribed by law for other actions in the district court, the proper judgment by default may be entered against him and in favor of the plaintiff for the title to the premises or the possession thereof, or for both, according to the petition, and for all costs, without any proof of title by the plaintiff.

Proof ex parte, when made.

Art. 5268. [4804] If the defendant has been cited only by publication, and fails to appear and answer by himself, or by attorney of his own selection, or if any defendant, having answered, fails to appear by himself or attorney when the case is called for trial on its merits, the plaintiff shall make such proof as will entitle him prima facie to recover, whereupon the proper judgment shall be entered.

When defendant claims part only.

Art. 5269. [4805] Where the defendant claims part of the premises only, the answer shall be equivalent to a disclaimer of the balance.

When plaintiff proves part.

Art. 5270. [4806] Where the defendant claims the whole premises, and the plaintiff shows himself entitled to recover part, the plaintiff shall recover such part and costs.

May recover a part, etc., when.

Art. 5271. [4807] When there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, any one or more of the plaintiffs may recover against one or more of the defendants the premises or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or damages, according to the rights of the parties.

The judgment, etc.

Art. 5272. [4808] Upon the finding of the jury, or of the court where the case is tried by the court, in favor of the plaintiff for the whole or any part of the premises in controversy, the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the title or possession, or both, as the case may be, of such premises, describing them, and, where he recovers the possession, that he have his writ of possession.

Art. 5273. [4809] Where it is alleged and proved that one of the parties is in possession of the premises the court or jury, if they find for the adverse party, shall assess the damages for the use and occupation of the premises, and if special injury to the property be alleged and proved, the damages for such injury shall also be assessed, and the proper judgment shall be entered therefor, on which execution may issue, but damages shall not be assessed under this article for use and occupation, or for injuries done over two years prior to the commencement of the suit.

Damages, etc., when recovered. Ib. §1.

Art. 5274. [4810] When the defendant or person in possession has claimed an allowance for improvements in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding chapter, the claim for use and occupation and damages mentioned in the preceding article shall be considered and acted on in connection with such claim by the defendant or person in possession.

Considered with claim for improvements, when.

Art. 5275. [4811] Any final judgment rendered in any action for the recovery of real estate hereafter commenced shall be conclusive as to the title or right of possession established in such action upon the party against whom it is recovered, and upon all persons claiming from, through or under such party, by title arising after the commencement of such action.

Final judgment conclusive.

Art. 5276. [4812] Nothing under this title shall be so construed as to alter, impair or take away the rights of parties, as arising under the laws in force before the introduction of the common law, but the same shall be decided by the principles of the law, or laws under which the same accrued, or by which the same were regulated or in any manner affected.

Former laws shall govern, when. Ib. §6. P. D. 5297.

Article 5277. [4813] The defendant in any action of trespass to try title may allege in his pleadings that he and those under whom he claims have had adverse possession in good faith of the premises in controversy for at least one year next before the commencement of such suit, and that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements on the lands sued for during the time they have had such possession, stating the improvements and their value respectively, and stating also the grounds of such claim.

Suggestion of improvements in good faith. (Act Feb. 5, 1840.) P. D. 5300.

Art. 5278. [4814] Where the defendant has filed his claim for an allowance for improvements in accordance with the preceding article, if the court or jury find that he is not the rightful owner of the premises sued for, but that he and those under whom he claims Issue as to. Ib.

have made permanent and valuable improvements thereon, being possessors thereof in good faith, the court or jury shall at the same time estimate from the testimony—

1. The value at the time of trial of such improvements as were so made before the filing of the suit not exceeding the amount to which the value of the premises is actually increased thereby.

2. The value of the use and occupation of the premises during the time the defendant was in possession thereof (exclusive of the improvements thereon made by himself or those under whom he claims), and also, if authorized by the pleadings, the damages for waste or other injury to the premises committed by him, not computing such annual value for a longer time than two years before suit, nor damages for waste or injury done before said two years.

3. The value of the premises recovered without the improvements made as aforesaid.

Rents and profits to be offset against.

Art. 5279. [4815] If the sum estimated for the improvements exceeds the damages estimated against the defendant and the value of the use and occupation as aforesaid, there shall then be estimated against him, if authorized by the testimony, the value of the use and occupation and the damages for injury done by him or those under whom he claims, for any time before the said two years, so far as may be necessary to balance the claim for improvements, but no further; and he shall not be liable for the excess, if any, beyond the value of the improvements.

Judgment for excess, etc.

Art. 5280. [4816] If it shall appear from the finding of the court or jury, under the two preceding articles, that the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages exceed the estimated value of the improvements, judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff for the excess and costs in addition to a judgment for the premises; but should the estimated value of the improvements exceed the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages, judgment shall be entered for the defendant for the excess.

Writ of possession not to issue, unless, etc.
(Act Feb. 5, 1840, §9.)
P. D. 5301.

Art. 5281. [4817] In any action of trespass to try title when the lands or tenements have been adjudged to the plaintiff, and the estimated value of the improvements in excess of the value of the use and occupation and damages has been adjudged to the defendant, no writ of possession shall be issued for the term of one year after the date of the judgment, unless the plaintiff shall pay to the clerk of the court for the defendant the amount of such judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon.

On failure of plaintiff, defendant may pay, etc., and keep premises.

Art. 5282. [4818] If the plaintiff shall neglect for the term of one year to pay over the amount of said judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon, as directed in the preceding article, and the defendant shall, within six months after the expiration of said year, pay to the clerk of the court for the plaintiff the value of the lands or tenements without regard to the improvements, as estimated by the court or jury, then the plaintiff shall be forever barred of his writ of possession, and from ever having or maintaining any action whatever against the defendant, his heirs or assigns, for the lands or tenements recovered by such suit.

Defendant failing to pay, etc., within six months, writ may issue, etc.

Art. 5283. [4819] If the defendant or his legal representatives shall not, within the six months aforesaid, pay over to the clerk for the plaintiff the estimated value of the lands or tenements, as directed in the preceding article, then the plaintiff may sue out his writ of possession as in ordinary cases.

Art. 5284. [4820] The judgment or decree of the court shall recite the estimated value of the premises without the improvements, and shall also include the conditions, stipulations and directions contained in the three preceding articles, so far as they may be applicable to the case before the court. Judgment.

Art. 5285. [4821] Whenever payment shall be made to the clerk of the court by the plaintiff or defendant, as provided in the preceding articles, it shall be the duty of such clerk to enter a memorandum of such payment, with the date thereof, on the page of the record on which the judgment was entered; and he shall, on demand, pay over the money to the party entitled, taking his receipt therefor, dated and signed on the page of the record aforesaid. Duty of clerk on receiving payment, etc.

Claimant must make affidavit. (Act March 18, 1846, p. 140, §1.) P. D. 5310.

Article 5286. [4822] Whenever any sheriff or other lawful officer shall levy a writ of execution, sequestration, attachment or other like writ upon any personal property, and such property, or any part thereof, shall be claimed by any person who is not a party to such writ, such person or his agent or attorney may make oath in writing before any officer authorized to administer oaths, that such claim is made in good faith, and present such oath in writing to the officer who made such levy.

Bond. (Acts of 1887, p. 104.)

Art. 5287. [4823] He shall also execute and deliver to the officer who made such levy his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, payable to the plaintiff in such writ, for an amount equal to double the value of the property so claimed to be assessed by such officer; provided, however, that when more than one writ has been levied said bond may be made payable to all the plaintiffs in the several writs levied. Said bond shall inure to the benefit of all the plaintiffs in the several writs according to their respective priorities in time of levy. Upon the approval of such bond and delivery of the property to the claimant, the same shall be deemed in custodia legis, and shall not be taken out of his possession by any other like writ or writs, but said writs may be levied on the same by giving notice to the claimant, and in such cases the claimant's bond shall also inure to the benefit of the several plaintiffs in such writs according to their respective priorities.

Condition of bond.

Art. 5288. [4824] The bond shall be conditioned that the party making such claim, in case he fails to establish his right to such property, shall return the same to the officer making the levy, or his successor, in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase and fruits thereof from the date of said bond, or in case he fails so to return said property and pay for the use of the same, he shall pay the plaintiff the value of said property, with legal interest thereon from the date of the bond, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

Art. 5289. [4825] It shall be the duty of the officer receiving such oath and bond to deliver the property so claimed to the person so claiming it. Property to be delivered to claimant. Ib.

Art. 5290. [4826] Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond, as provided for in this chapter, if the writ under which said levy was made was issued by any justice of the peace or court of the county where such levy was made, the sheriff or other officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on the writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, and shall also indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath to the proper justice or court having jurisdiction to try such claim, as hereinafter provided. Return of oath and bond. Ib. §2. P. D. 5311.

Art. 5291. [4827] The form of such bond shall be substantially as follows: Form of bond.

“Whereas, by virtue of a writ of ——[here describe the writ] issued out of the —— court (or by ——, justice of the peace for precinct No. ——, —— county) in favor of ——[here insert name of plaintiff] versus ——[here insert name of defendant], and tested on the —— day of ——, A. D. 18——, ——[here insert name and title of officer seizing], has seized and taken the following described personal property, viz.: ——[here describe the property], the value of which property has been assessed by said officer at —— dollars. And, whereas, —— [here insert name of claimant] has claimed said property and presented to said officer his oath in writing that such claim is made in good faith; now therefore we ——[here insert name of claimant], as principal and —— and —— as sureties, acknowledge ourselves bound to pay to the said ——[insert name of plaintiff] the sum of —— dollars, being double the value of said property, conditioned that the said —— [here insert name of claimant], in case he fails to establish his right to said property, will return the same to the said ——[insert the name of the officer] or his successor in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase or fruits of the same from the date of this bond and costs, or in case he fails to return said property and pay for the use, hire, increase or fruits thereof, that he will pay the plaintiff the value of the same with legal interest thereon from date, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

“Witness our hands this the —— day of ——, A. D. 18——.

“_____
“_____”

“Approved: _____ sheriff (or constable) of _____ county.”

Art. 5292. [4828] Any other form of bond which shall be a substantial compliance with the requirements of article 5291 shall be a sufficient bond. Form immaterial.

Art. 5293. [4829] Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond as provided for herein, if the writ under which such levy was made was issued by any justice of the peace or court of another county than that in which such levy was made, then the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath, with a copy of the writ, to the justice or court of the county in which such levy Return of oath, bond and copy of writ when levy made in county other than that where writ issued.

was made having jurisdiction according to the value of the property as assessed by said officer.

Return of original writ.

Art. 5294. [4830] The sheriff or other officer taking such bond shall also indorse on the original writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, the names of the sureties and to what justice or court the bond has been returned; and he shall forthwith return such original writ to the justice or court from which it is issued.

Jurisdiction. (Const., art. 5, §§8, 16, 19.)

Art. 5295. [4831] Cases arising under this chapter shall be tried as follows:

1. Where the assessed value of the property does not exceed two hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to a justice of the peace, as before provided.

2. Where the value assessed is more than two hundred dollars and does not exceed five hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to the proper county court.

3. When the assessed value is more than five hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to the proper district court.

Cause, how docketed. (Act March 18, 1848, p. 140, §3.) P. D. 5312.

Art. 5296. [4832] Whenever any oath and bond for the trial of the right of property shall be returned as provided for in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court, or of such justice of the peace, to docket the same in the name of the plaintiff in the writ as the plaintiff, and the claimant of the property as defendant.

Issue to be made up, etc. Ib.

Art. 5297. [4833] At the first term of the court thereafter, if both parties appear, the court or justice shall direct an issue to be made up in writing between the parties and tried as in other cases.

Requisites of issue.

Art. 5298. [4834] Said issue shall consist of a brief statement of the authority and right by which the plaintiff seeks to subject the property levied on to his execution, and of the nature of the claim of the defendant thereto.

Judgment by default against defendant, when. Ib.

Art. 5299. [4835] If the plaintiff appears and the defendant fails to appear or neglects or refuses to join issue under the direction of the court or justice, within the time prescribed for pleading, the plaintiff shall have judgment by default, as in other cases.

Judgment of non-suit against plaintiff, when. Ib.

Art. 5300. [4836] If the plaintiff does not appear at the said first term the case shall be continued to the next term, when, if he appears, the like proceedings may be had as at the said first term; but if he does not then appear on or before the appearance day of said term, he shall be nonsuited.

Proceedings, how conducted.

Art. 5301. [4837] The proceedings and practice on the trial shall be as nearly as practicable the same as in other cases before such court or justice.

Burden of proof on plaintiff, when. Ib.

Art. 5302. [4838] In all cases arising under this title, if the property was taken from the possession of the claimant, the burden or proof shall be on the plaintiff.

Burden of proof on defendant, when. Ib.

Art. 5303. [4839] If it was taken from the possession of the defendant in such writ, or any other person than the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the claimant.

Damages. P. D. 5314.

Art. 5304. [4840] In all trials of the right of property under the provisions of this title, if the claimant shall fail to establish his right to the property, the court or justice trying the same shall give judgment against all the obligors in the claimant's bond for ten per cent damages on the value of the property.

Where value of property exceeds judgment. Ib.

Art. 5305. [4841] When such value is greater than the amount claimed under the writ, by virtue of which such property was levied upon, the damages shall be on the amount claimed under said writ.

Art. 5306. [4842] In all trials of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, in any county other than that in which the writ issued under which the levy was made, the copy of the writ herein required to be returned by the officer making the levy shall be received in evidence in like manner as the original could be.

Copy of writ

when.
P. D. 5315.

Art. 5307. [4843] In all cases where any claimant of property, under the provisions of this title, shall fail to establish his right thereto, judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, with legal interest thereon from the date of such bond. Such judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the writ, or of the several plaintiffs, if more than one, and shall fix the amount of each plaintiff's claim.

Judgment
upon failure to establish title, etc.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 104.)

Art. 5308. In case such judgment should not be satisfied by a return of the property as provided in article 5310, then execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff for the amount of his claim, or of all the plaintiffs for the sum of their several claims, provided the amount of such judgment exceed such claim or sum; and in such cases the excess of such judgment shall inure to the benefit of any person who shall show superior right or title to the property claimed as against the claimant; but if such judgment be for a less amount than the sum of the several plaintiffs' claims, then the respective rights and priorities of the several plaintiffs shall be fixed and adjusted in the judgment.

Execution shall issue.
Ib.

Art. 5309. [4844] On such judgment no execution shall issue for ten days.

Execution not to issue within ten days.

Art. 5310. [4845] If, within ten days from the rendition of said judgment, the claimant shall return such property in as good condition as he received it, and pay for the use of the same, together with the damages and costs, such delivery and payment shall operate as a satisfaction of such judgment.

Return of property by claimant within ten days.

Art. 5311. [4846] A claim made to property, under the provisions of this chapter, shall operate as a release of all damages by the claimant against the officer who levied upon said property.

Claim operates a release of damages.
P. D. 5317.

Art. 5312. [4847] Proceedings for the trial of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, shall in no case prevent the plaintiff in the writ from having a levy made upon any other property of the defendant.

Levy may be made on other property.

Definition of trust.
(Acts of 1889; amend. 1895, p. 112.)

Article 5313. A trust is a combination of capital, skill, or acts by two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, or either two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce or aids to commerce, or to create or carry out restrictions in the full and free pursuit of any business authorized or permitted by the laws of this state.
2. To increase or reduce the price of merchandise, produce or commodities.
3. To prevent competition in manufacture, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or commodities, or to prevent competition in aids to commerce.
4. To fix at any standard or figure, whereby its price to the public shall be in any manner controlled or established, any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce intended for sale, use or consumption in this state.
5. To make or enter into or execute or carry out any contract, obligation or agreement of any kind or description by which they shall bind or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of or transport any article or commodity, or article of trade, use, merchandise, commerce or consumption below a common standard figure, or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article, commodity or transportation at a fixed or graded figure, or by which they shall in any manner establish or settle the price of any article or commodity or transportation between them or themselves and others to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or unite any interest they may have in connection with the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity that its price might in any manner be affected.

Forfeiture of charter of corporation, when.
Ib. §2;
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5314. Any corporation holding a charter under the laws of the state of Texas which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall thereby forfeit its charter and franchise, and its corporate existence shall cease and determine.

Duties of attorney-general in relation thereto.
Ib. §3.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5315. For a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter by any corporation mentioned herein, it shall be the duty of the attorney-general or district or county attorney, or either of them, upon his own motion, and without leave or order of any court or judge, to institute suit or quo warranto proceedings in Travis county, at Austin, or at the county seat of any county in the state, where such corporation exists, does business or may have a domicile, for the forfeiture of its charter rights and franchise, and the dissolution of its corporate existence.

Art. 5316. Every foreign corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter is hereby denied the right and prohibited from doing any business within this state, and it shall be the duty of the attorney-general to enforce this provision by injunction or other proper proceedings in the district court of Travis county, in the name of the state of Texas.

Foreign corporations.
Ib. §4.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5317. The provisions of chapter 48, general laws of this state, approved July 9, 1879, to prescribe the remedy and regulate the proceedings by quo warranto, etc., shall, except in so far as they may conflict herewith, govern and control the proceedings when instituted to forfeit any charter under this chapter.

Quo warranto.
Ib. §5.
Amend. Ib.

[Note.—The act of 1879, referred to in the preceding article, is title XCIII. of this revision.]

Art. 5318. Each and every firm, person, corporation or association of persons who shall in any manner violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall for each and every day that such violation shall be committed or continued forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the state of Texas in any county where the offense is committed, or where either of the offenders reside, or in Travis county, and it shall be the duty of the attorney-general or the district or county attorney to prosecute for and recover the same.

Penalty for violation of this chapter.
Ib. §10.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5319. Any contract or agreement in violation of the provisions of this act shall be absolutely void and not enforceable either in law or equity.

Contracts void.
Ib. §11.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5320. The provisions hereof shall be held cumulative of each other and of all other laws in any way affecting them now in force in this state; provided, this chapter shall not be held to apply to livestock and agricultural products in the hands of the producer or raiser, nor shall it be understood or construed to prevent the organization of laborers for the purpose of maintaining any standard of wages.

Provisions cumulative.
Ib. §12.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5321. Nothing in this chapter shall be held or construed to affect or destroy any rights which may have accrued, or to affect the right of the state to recover penalties, or to affect the right of the state to forfeit charters of domestic corporations and prohibit foreign corporations from doing business in this state, or affect the right of the state to maintain prosecutions for violations thereof, under any law of this state relating to trusts, for acts heretofore done.

Accrued rights not affected.
Amend. Ib.

Art. 5321a. Any court, officer or tribunal having jurisdiction of the offense defined in this chapter, or any district or county attorney or grand jury may subpoena persons and compel their attendance as witnesses to testify as to the violation of any of the provisions of the foregoing articles. Any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of said articles about which he may testify fully and without reservation.

Compulsory process.

(Act Feb. 13, 1858, p. 200, §1.)
P. D. 5353.

Art. 5324. [4849] The governor, shall procure, if necessary, at the expense of the state, a set of weights and measures in conformity with the standard used by the government of the United States, and cause the same to be deposited with the treasurer of the state, by him to be safely kept.

And furnish copies to counties.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 5354.

Art. 5325. [4850] The governor is authorized to cause correct copies of such weights and measures to be made under such appropriate seal as he may adopt, and to deliver or cause to be delivered, after the inspection and approval of some competent person by him appointed for that purpose, a full set of such weights and measures to the county judges of the several counties, on their application, and at the cost and expense of their respective counties.

Commissioner of agriculture may sell.
(Acts of 1889, p. 32.)

Art. 5326. The commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history is hereby authorized to sell sets or parts of sets of standard weights and measures heretofore manufactured in accordance with articles 5323 and 5325 of the Revised Statutes, at the present cost of manufacturing.

Counties to pay for same.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 5356.

Art. 5327. [4851] When such copies have been made it shall be the duty of the several commissioners' courts to appropriate a sufficient amount of money to enable the county judges of the respective counties to pay for and procure a full set thereof for the use of their counties, and said county judges shall take charge of and keep the same.

Art. 5328. [4852] The commissioners' courts of the several counties are authorized and directed to grant a license to such suitable person or persons as they may think proper to make and vend weights and measures agreeing with the standard furnished by the governor, under such rules and regulations as they may think proper to prescribe; provided, however, that no such weights and measures shall be sold or distributed unless the same have been first examined and approved by the commissioners' court, or some competent person under their direction and approval.

License to make and

Art. 5339. [4863] No nuncupative will shall be established unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, at his habitation or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick from home and dies before he returns to such habitation; nor when the value exceeds thirty dollars, unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import.

Art. 5340. [4864] No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor until those who would have been entitled by inheritance, had there been no will, have been summoned to contest the same, if they desire to do so.

Notice and proof.
P. D. 5371.

Art. 5341. [4865] After six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove a nuncupative will, unless the testimony or the substance thereof shall have been committed to writing within six days after making the will.

Testimony to be committed to writing, etc.
P. D. 5367.

Art. 5342. [4866] Any soldier in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his chattels without regard to the provisions of this title.

Wills of soldiers, etc., disposing of chattels.
P. D. 5369.

Art. 5343. [4867] When a testator shall have children born and his wife enceinte, the posthumous child, if unprovided for by settlement and pretermitted by his last will and testament, shall succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as such child would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate, toward which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament.

Posthumous children.
P. D. 5363.

Art. 5344. [4868] If a testator having a child or children born at the time of making his last will and testament shall, at his death, leave a child or children born after the making of such last will and testament, the child or children so after-born and pretermitted shall, unless provided for by settlement, succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as they would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate, toward raising which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament, in the same manner as is provided in article 5343.

Children born after making a will.
P. D. 5364.

Art. 5345. [4869] Every last will and testament made when the testator had no child living, wherein any child he might have is not provided for or mentioned, if at the time of his death he shall leave a child, or leave his wife enceinte of a child which shall be born, shall have no effect during the life of such after-born child, and shall be void unless the child die without having been married and before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years.

The same.
P. D. 5363.

Art. 5346. [4870] Under the name of "children," as used in this title, are included descendants of whatever degree they may be, it being understood they are only counted for the child they represent.

Term "children" includes descendants.
P. D. 5373.

Art. 5347. [4871] Where a testator shall devise or bequeath an estate or interest of any kind, by will, to a child or other descendant of such testator, should such devisee or legatee, during the lifetime of the testator, die leaving children or descendants who shall survive such testator, such devise or legacy shall not lapse by reason of such death, but the estate so devised or bequeathed shall vest in the children or descendants of such legatee or devisee in the same manner as if he had survived the testator and died intestate.

Bequests to children, etc., not to lapse.
P. D. 5365.

Art. 5348. [4872] Should any person be subscribing witness to a will, and be also a legatee or devisee therein, if the will can not be otherwise established, such bequest shall be void, and such witness shall be allowed and compelled to appear and give his testimony in like manner as if no such bequest had been made. But if in such case the witness would have been entitled to a share of the estate of the testator had there been no will, he shall be entitled to so much of such share as shall not exceed the value of the bequest to him in the will.

Will in such case may be proved, how.
Ib.

Art. 5349. [4873] In the case provided for in the preceding article, such will may be proved by the evidence of the subscribing witnesses, corroborated by the testimony of one or more other disinterested and credible persons, to the effect that the testimony of such subscribing witnesses necessary to sustain the will is substantially true, in which event the bequest to such subscribing witnesses shall not be void.

Husband or wife may authorize survivor to manage separate estate.
(Act Aug. 26, 1856, p. 51, §8.)
P. D. 4653.

Art. 5350. [4874] The husband or wife may, by last will and testament, give to the survivor of the marriage the power to keep his or her separate property together, until each of the several heirs shall become of lawful age, and to manage and control the same under the provisions of law relating to community property, and such other restrictions as may be imposed by such will; provided, the surviving husband or wife is the father or mother, as the case may be, of the minor heirs; and provided further, that any child or heir entitled to any part of said property shall, at any time upon becoming of age, be entitled to receive his distributive portion of said estate.

Original wills, etc., to be deposited with county clerk, etc.
P. D. 5372.

Art. 5351. [4875] All original wills, together with the probate thereof, shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county wherein the same shall have been probated, and shall there remain, except during such time as they may be removed to some other court, by proper process, for inspection.

To be recorded, etc.
Ib.

Art. 5352. [4876] Every such will, together with the probate thereof, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county court in a book to be kept for that purpose, and certified copies of such will and the probate of the same, or of the record thereof, may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence as the original might be.

How foreign will may be proved.
(Acts of 1887, p. 38, §1.)

Art. 5353. When any will or testament, or testamentary instrument of any character, conveying or in any manner disposing of land in this state, has been duly probated according to the laws of any of the United States or territories, a copy thereof and its probate, attested by the clerk of the court in which such will and testament or testamentary instrument was admitted to probate, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate from the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, may be filed and recorded in the register of deeds in any county in which said real estate is situated, in the same manner as deeds and conveyances are required to be recorded, and without further proof or authentication; provided, that at any time within four years from the date of the record of such will in this state, the validity of such will may be contested in a proceeding instituted for that purpose, as the original might have been.

Prima facie evidence, when.
Ib. §2.

Art. 5354. A copy of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate so attested, together with the certificate that said attestation is in due form, as required by the preceding article, shall be prima facie evidence that said will has been duly admitted to probate, according to the laws of the state wherein it has been admitted to probate, and shall be sufficient to authorize the same to be recorded in the proper county or counties in this state.

Art. 5355. Every such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, which shall be attested and proven, as provided in article 5353, and delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded, shall take effect and be valid and effectual as a deed of conveyance of said property, and the record thereof shall have the same force and effect as the record of deeds or other conveyances to land from the time when such instrument was delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only.

Shall take effect, when.
Ib. §3.

Art. 5356. The record of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, duly attested and proven, as provided in the preceding articles, and duly made in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such will and testament, and of the title or titles conferred thereby.

Shall operate as notice, etc.
Ib. §4.

Inspector of sheep to be appointed, when.	5357	Duties as to diseased cattle.....	5361
Bond	5358	Same	5362
Duties	5359	May be paid fees by wool growers.....	5363
Compensation	5360	Exempting counties.....	5364

Inspector of sheep to be appointed, when. (Acts of 1891, p. 140, §1.)

Article 5357. Whenever it appears from the assessor's rolls of any county that there are as many as five hundred sheep owned and assessed for taxes in any county in this state, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of said county, upon the application of one or more resident owners of sheep of said county, to appoint an inspector of sheep, who shall be a resident citizen of such county and well versed in the scab and diseases which usually affect sheep, and said inspector shall hold his office for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said inspector may appoint one or more deputies, who shall likewise be well versed in scab and other diseases of sheep, who shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, and may lawfully perform the same acts as the inspector of sheep, and the inspector may require of his deputies so appointed bonds payable to himself for the faithful performance of their duty as such deputies.

Bond. Ib. §2.

Art. 5358. Said inspector of sheep shall, within twenty days after receiving notice of his appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by the commissioners' court, not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon him as inspector of sheep. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners' court and be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county as other official bonds.

Duties. Ib. §3.

Art. 5359. It shall be the duty of the inspector of sheep or his deputy to carefully and minutely examine and inspect at any time sheep in his county, or which may be driven into or through his county, in which he has reason to believe, or is informed in writing by any one or more sheep owners of his county, or of any adjacent and contiguous county, is infected with scab or any other infectious or contagious disease; and when one or more sheep affected with scab are found in any flock so inspected, the entire flock shall be condemned by said inspector or deputy and considered as affected with said disease.

Compensation. Ib. §4.

Art. 5360. The inspector shall be entitled to receive the sum of two cents per head, unless otherwise provided in this title, for all sheep inspected and condemned under the provisions of this title; provided, the inspector shall be entitled to receive only one cent per head of any number he may inspect for any one person in excess of two thousand head. In no one case shall his fee exceed fifty dollars; such fee to be paid by the owner or person in charge of the sheep so inspected and condemned; provided, that when an inspector shall inspect any sheep and find no scab to exist in the flock of sheep so inspected, then the fees for such service shall be paid by the person at whose instance such inspection was made; and provided further, that the inspector shall have a lien upon all sheep so inspected and condemned by him for his fees as provided in this article; provided further, that if any owner or person in charge of sheep affected with scab or other contagious disease shall report the same in writing to said inspector or his deputy, and that he proposes to take means forthwith to cure such disease, it shall not be lawful for the inspector to inspect such flock within twenty days after such report; provided, that if, after the expiration of the twenty days aforesaid, the said sheep have not been thoroughly cured, then the said sheep shall be subject to inspection as hereinbefore provided.

Art. 5361. It shall be the duty of the inspector of sheep, or his deputy, to arrest and take in charge any flock or flocks of sheep, the property of owners who do not reside in his county, or have no certain or fixed ranch therein, found traveling through his county, and found after inspection to be affected with scab, and to hold and dip said sheep at the cost of the owner or person in charge of such flock or flocks, until the same shall be cured; and said inspector shall be entitled to recover from the owner or person in charge of such flock or flocks of sheep so held by him the sum of two dollars per day as compensation for holding such sheep, in excess of inspection fees provided for in article 5388; and said inspector shall have a lien upon all sheep so held by him until all fees and expenses for holding and dipping incurred by him are paid; provided, that said inspector shall not in any case hold said flock or flocks of sheep exceeding twenty days.

Duties as to diseased sheep.
Ib. §5.

Art. 5362. Whenever any flock of sheep in any county in this state has been inspected as provided for in this chapter, and found to be affected with scab, it shall be the duty of the owner or person in charge of such flock to thoroughly cure the same within twenty days from said inspection.

Same.
Ib. §6.

Art. 5363. Whenever in any county in this state there shall not be sufficient scab or other contagious and infectious diseases among the sheep to pay the sheep inspector a fair remuneration, under the fees provided by this chapter, it shall be lawful for any association of wool growers in such county to pay such inspector such additional sums of money as to them may seem right and proper in order to keep such inspector in the performance of the duties of his office.

May be paid fees by wool growers.
Ib. §9.

Art. 5364. The counties of Grayson, Freestone, Gonzales, Morris, Titus, Cass, Marion, Bowie, Red River, Trinity, San Jacinto, Polk, Anderson, Van Zandt, Cameron, Collin, Colorado, Grimes, Houston, Webb, Encinal, Hunt, Hopkins, Ellis, Dallas, Rockwall, Denton, Fannin, Henderson, Brazos, Smith, Panola, Gregg, Lamar, Wood, Rains, Limestone, Cooke, Brown, Comanche, Cherokee, Mills, Montgomery, Shelby, Lee, Burleson, Rusk, Lavaca, Milam, Wise, Upshur, Robertson, Camp, Parker, Franklin, Navarro, Karnes, Wilson, Atascosa, Harrison, San Augustine, Sabine, Fayette, Austin, Leon, Madison, Hill, Bosque, Waller, Fort Bend, Washington, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Hays, Tarrant, Johnson, Clay, Montague, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Bastrop, Harris, Harrison, Camp, Orange, Jefferson, Hardin, Liberty, Chambers, Newton, Tyler, Jasper, Kaufman, Nacogdoches, DeWitt, Victoria, Jackson, Calhoun, Refugio, Goliad and Aransas are exempt from the provisions of this title.

Appointment of wreck-masters. (Act April 30, 1846, p. 158, §1.) P. D. 5375.

Article 5365. [4877] The governor shall appoint not less than one and not more than three persons of good character in each maritime county of the state as wreck-masters for such county.

Bond and oath. Ib.

Art. 5366. [4878] Each person so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge of the county for which he is appointed, and to be approved by such officer, conditioned that the person so appointed shall faithfully discharge the duties of his office, which bond shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of such county. The appointee shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution for all officers, which oath shall be indorsed on said bond before the same is filed.

His duties. Ib. §2. P. D. 5376.

Art. 5367. [4879] It shall be the duty of each wreck-master so appointed, as soon as he may be apprised of any wreck in his county, or the portion of such county allotted to him, to repair at once to the place where such wreck has occurred, and if the property so wrecked be found abandoned, to attend to the salving thereof, to use his best endeavors for the preservation of the same, and to attend generally to the interests of the owners of such property or whom it may concern, and the wreck-master shall have the command and direction of all persons engaged in saving and preserving such property.

To be controlled by pilot commissioners. Ib. §3. P. D. 5377.

Art. 5368. [4880] Wreck-masters shall be subject to the control and direction of the commissioners of pilots for the principal ports of their counties, if such there be, but in case there are no such officers in such county, then wreck-masters shall be under the control of the county judge of their county.

To take possession of wrecked property and sell. Ib. §5. P. D. 5379.

Art. 5369. [4881] Each wreck-master shall take into his custody and safely keep all wrecked property salvaged by him or under his direction, or found wrecked and abandoned in his county or that portion of the county under his supervision and jurisdiction, and, after the notice required by law, he shall sell the same at public auction for the benefit of the owners or underwriters and the salvors, to all of whom he shall faithfully account.

Art. 5370. [4882] Each wreck-master shall keep a true account of all property salvaged by him or under his direction, with the circumstances under which it was salvaged, and the names of the persons engaged in salvaging, the time that each was so employed and other circumstances needful for the proper apportionment of salvage.

To keep a record, etc.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 5378.

Art. 5371. [4883] He shall also keep a true account, in a book to be kept for that purpose, of all sales made by him and the proceeds thereof, commissions, expenses, salvage, balance left and the condition and disposition of the same; and within one month after each sale, and at other times when required, he shall make an abstract report in writing, signed by him, of the matters and things provided for in this and the preceding article, to the commissioner of pilots or the county judge, as the case may be, and he shall also, when required, report the same, together with all needful information in his possession, to the court or other tribunal before which cases of salvage may be pending.

Additional record and reports.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 5378.

Art. 5372. [4884] Wreck-masters shall receive a commission of five per cent upon the amount of all sales made by them, after deducting all expenses, not including salvage, with such reasonable expenses as may be allowed by the authority which may control them or the court before which the case may come, which expenses may include the wages and mileage of a crier, at a rate to be fixed by such controlling authority.

Fees and perquisites.
Ib. §5.
P. D. 5379.

Art. 5373. [4885] It shall be the special duty of each wreck-master to prosecute before the proper tribunal any person who may be guilty of wasting, stealing or embezzling any property coming within the description of wrecked property.

Special duty to prosecute.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 5380.

Article 5374. [4886] It shall be the duty of the person taking up cotton afloat, abandoned in rivers, or in the waters of the gulf of Mexico on the coast of this state, or in the bays or bayous thereof, to place the same in a secure place out of the weather, and give early notice by advertisement, or by other means, at the port to which said cotton was destined, if within this state, and if without the limits of the state, or its destination be unknown to the finder, then at the nearest port of entry in this state to the locality where it may be taken up, of the finding of the same, giving a description of the marks or brands on said cotton, together with the place of finding and the name of the finder.

Wrecked cotton to be advertised.
(Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76, §1.)
P. D. 1030.

Art. 5375. [4887] It shall be the duty of the person finding, or other person having said cotton in his possession, to deliver the same to the owner, insurer or consignee thereof, on demand, upon being paid the expenses of advertisement, and five dollars upon each bale so saved and delivered.

And delivered to owner, when.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 1031.

Art. 5376. [4888] If no owner, insurer or consignee of the cotton appear within three months after such advertisement, the person finding shall cause the same to be sold at auction by a legal wreck-master of the county in which said cotton is deposited, at public outcry to the highest bidder; and the wreck-master shall, from the proceeds of such sale, pay the necessary expenses attending the storage, advertising and sale of said cotton, and to the finder the salvage of five dollars for each bale as aforesaid. The remainder, less his commissions and other necessary expenses, he shall hold in trust for the benefit of the owner or others concerned.

And proceeds paid into state treasury.
Ib.

Art. 5377. [4889] If, at the expiration of one year thereafter, no legal claimant appears therefor, said proceeds shall be paid over by said wreck-master to the treasurer of the county in which the sale took place, and said county treasurer shall immediately pay the same over to the treasurer of the state, who shall pay the same over to the person entitled thereto, on proof being made of the right of the claimant, in the manner provided for the recovery of money paid into the treasury of the state by executors or administrators of estates where no heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate appear to claim the fund of the estate on the final settlement thereof.

If no wreck-master, county clerk to act.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 1033.

Art. 5378. [4890] In case there shall be no wreck-master in the county in which the cotton is deposited, then it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court to perform all the duties required of wreck-masters by the two preceding articles, and such clerk shall be entitled to receive the same compensation for his services as is allowed to wreck-masters under this chapter.

Warrant to issue for suspected cotton.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 1035.

Art. 5379. [4891] Upon affidavit being made before any justice of the peace that the affiant has good reason to believe, and does believe, that certain cotton within his county has been so found, or having been found without such county has been brought therein, and that reasonable time has elapsed, and that the finder has neglected to comply with the requirements of the foregoing articles, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to issue his warrant and cause said cotton, or its proceeds, to be seized by a legal officer and delivered to the wreck-master of said county, to be disposed of according to the provisions of this chapter.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, That these Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas shall be known, and may be cited as the "Revised Statutes."

Revised Civil Statutes, how known and cited.

Sec. 3. That the rule of the common law that statutes in derogation thereof shall be strictly construed shall have no application to the Revised Statutes, but the said statutes shall constitute the law of this state respecting the subjects to which they relate, and the provisions thereof shall be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects and to promote justice.

To be liberally construed.

Sec. 4. That all civil statutes of a general nature, in force when the Revised Statutes take effect, and which are not included herein, or which are not hereby expressly continued in force, are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

Sec. 5. That the repeal of any statute, or any portion thereof, by the preceding section, shall not affect or impair any act done, or right vested or accrued, or any proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced in any cause before such repeal shall take effect; but every such act done, or right vested or accrued, or proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced shall remain in full force and effect to all intents or purposes as if such statute, or part thereof so repealed, had remained in force, except that where the course of practice or procedure for the enforcement of such right, or the conducting of such proceeding, suit or prosecution shall be changed, the same shall be conducted as near as may be in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Repeal does not affect, what.

Sec. 6. That no offense committed and no liability, penalty or forfeiture, either civil or criminal, incurred prior to the time when any statute or part thereof shall be repealed or altered by the Revised Statutes, shall be discharged or affected by such repeal or alteration; but prosecutions and suits for such offenses, liabilities, penalties or forfeitures shall be instituted and proceeded with in all respects as if such prior statute or part thereof had not been repealed or altered, except that where the mode of procedure or matters of practice have been changed by the Revised Statutes the procedure had after the Revised Statutes shall have taken effect in such prosecution or suit shall be, as far as practicable, in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Same subject.

Validating and legalizing statutes not repealed.

Sec. 7. That no general or special law heretofore enacted validating or legalizing the acts or omissions of any officer, or any act or proceeding whatever, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title; but all such validating or legalizing statutes whatsoever now in force in this state are hereby continued in force, and the same shall be as effectual for all purposes after as before the Revised Statutes go into effect.

Laws relating to public debt, etc., not repealed.

Sec. 8. That no law relating to the public debt or the public credit shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Laws relating to university and school funds, etc., not repealed.

Sec. 9. That no law relating to the university or public school fund, or in relation to the Agricultural and Mechanical College fund, or the investment of any such funds, or making any reservation in favor of the same, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, except where altered or amended by the Revised Statutes.

Laws creating, etc., counties and county seats not repealed. (Acts of 1879, ch. 157.)

Sec. 10. That no statute, or part of a statute, creating, adding to or organizing any county, or establishing any county seat, in this state, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, or by any law relating to the establishment of county boundaries contained in this act.

Judicial districts, and times of holding district courts.

Sec. 11. That the laws now in force organizing the several judicial districts, and prescribing the times for holding the district courts therein, are continued in force.

No person, etc., released from any duty, etc.

Sec. 12. That nothing in the repealing clause of this title shall be construed as releasing any person or corporation from any duty enjoined in the limitation or condition imposed by any law that may be repealed by the repealing clause of this title.

Laws as to reservations for actual settlers and public buildings not repealed.

Sec. 13. That no law in reference to land reservations, or setting apart portions of such reservations for the benefit of actual settlers, or for the construction or repairing of the public buildings of the state, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, unless expressly altered or repealed in some of the preceding articles of the Revised Statutes.

Laws for the payment of unpaid school teachers, etc., and as to public libraries, not repealed. Certain acts to the penitentiary not repealed.

Sec. 14. That no law providing for the payment of unpaid school teachers in the public schools, or giving authority to cities or towns to establish public libraries, or for like purposes, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause herein.

Certain local laws not repealed.

Sec. 15. That all laws in relation to the penitentiary or the convicts therein, except as altered or amended in the Revised Statutes, shall not be affected or impaired by the repealing clause herein.

Sec. 16. That all laws of a local nature operating in particular counties, cities or towns, and all laws of a private nature, operating on particular persons, are not affected by the said repealing clause.

Certain pre-emption laws not repealed.

Sec. 17. That the repealing clause of this title shall not affect any law concerning pre-emption settlers further than such law may be amended or changed by the Revised Statutes.

Laws concerning the Indian and Mexican frontiers, etc., not repealed.

Sec. 18. That all laws now providing for the defense of the inhabitants of this state on its Indian and Mexican frontier, and all acts giving the exclusive authority to suppress lawlessness and crime in certain localities, shall not be affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 19. That the provisions of the Revised Statutes so far as they are substantially the same as the statutes of this state in force at the time when the Revised Statutes shall go into effect, or of the common law in force in this state at said time, shall be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments of the same.

Shall be construed as continuation of former law, etc.

Sec. 20. That no laws, general or special, enacted by the twenty-third legislature, or by the present session of the twenty-fourth legislature, shall be in any way affected by the repealing clause of this title, but any and all such laws shall continue to be the law of this state, this act of revision to the contrary notwithstanding.

Laws of the twenty-third and regular session of twenty-fourth legislatures not affected.

Sec. 21. That the Revised Statutes shall not be printed in the pamphlet laws of the present session of the legislature, but shall be printed, published and distributed at such time and in such manner as may be provided by law.

Revised Statutes not to be printed in pamphlet laws.

Sec. 22. That these Revised Statutes shall take effect and be in force at twelve o'clock, meridian, on the first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

When to take effect.

Sec. 23. Because of the importance and great length of this act, and the near approach of the end of the present session of the legislature, an imperative public necessity exists that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days should be suspended, and it is therefore suspended.

Emergency clause.

The foregoing Act was presented to the Governor of Texas for his approval at twelve o'clock and fifteen minutes p. m. on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1895, but was not signed by him nor returned to the house in which it originated, with his objections thereto, within the time prescribed by the Constitution, and thereupon became a law without his signature.

ALLISON MAYFIELD,

Secretary of State.
