REVISED CIVIL STATUTES

OF THE

STATE OF TEXAS

A BILL to be entitled “An Act to Adopt and Establish the ‘REVISED CIVIL STATUTES of the State of Texas.’”

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, That the following titles, chapters and articles shall hereafter constitute

REVISED STATUTES
 OF THE
STATE OF TEXAS.

TITLE I.
Adoption.

[See "Descent and Distribution," Article 1690.]

	Article		Article
How heir adopted.....	1	Rights of adopted heir.....	2

Article 1. [1] Any person wishing to adopt another as his legal heir, may do so by filing in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which he may reside, a statement in writing, by him signed and duly authenticated or acknowledged, as deeds are required to be, which statement shall recite in substance that he adopts the person named therein as his legal heir, and the same shall be admitted to record in said office.

How heir adopted.
 (Act Jan. 16, 1850.)
 P. D. 30.

Art. 2. [2] Such statement in writing, signed and authenticated or acknowledged, and recorded as aforesaid, shall entitle the party so adopted to all the rights and privileges, both in law and equity, of a legal heir of the party so adopting him; provided, however, that if the party adopting such heir have, at the time of such adoption, or shall thereafter have a child begotten in lawful wedlock, such adopted heir shall in no case inherit more than one-fourth of the estate of the party adopting him.

Rights of adopted heir.
 P. D. 31.

TITLE II.

Affidavits, Oaths and Affirmations.

Form of oath, etc.....	3	All affidavits must be in writing and signed	6
Oaths, etc., generally, who to administer ..	4	Officers authorized to take affidavits....	7
Affidavit may be by agent or attorney..	5	Other oaths, etc.....	8

Form of oath, etc. (Const. Bill of Rights, art 1.) Article 3. [3] All oaths and affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience of the individual taking the same, and shall be taken subject to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Oaths, etc., generally by whom administered. (Act Feb. 5, 1887, p. 5.) Art. 4. [4] All oaths, affidavits or affirmations necessary or required by law may be administered, and a certificate of the fact given, by any judge or clerk of a court of record, justice of the peace, or by any notary public, within this state.

Affidavit may be made by agent or attorney. (Act Jan. 11, 1856, p. 13.) P. D. 35. Art. 5. [5] Whenever, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit or judicial proceeding, it may be necessary or proper for any party thereto to make an affidavit, such affidavit may be made by either the party or his agent or attorney.

All affidavits must be in writing, and signed. Art. 6. [6] All affidavits provided for in this title shall be in writing and signed by the party making the same.

Officers authorized to take affidavits. (Act Feb. 5, 1887, p. 5.) Art. 7. [7] Affidavits may be made before either of the following officers who are authorized to take such affidavits and give a certificate thereof:

1. If taken within this state, before the officers named in article 4 of this title.

2. If taken without this state, and within the United States, before any clerk of a court of record having a seal, any notary public, or any commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of this state, within some other state or territory.

3. If without the United States, before any notary public, or any minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States, resident in and accredited to the country where the affidavit may be taken; or any consul general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States, resident in such country.

Other oaths, etc. Art. 8. [8] Oaths and affirmations may also be administered, and affidavits taken, and certificates thereof given as in other cases, and by such other officers as are or may be prescribed by law.

TITLE III.

Article 9. No alien or person who is not a citizen of the United States shall acquire title to or own any lands in the state of Texas, except as hereinafter provided, but he shall have and enjoy in the state of Texas such rights as to personal property as are or shall be accorded to citizens of the United States by the laws of the nation to which such alien shall belong, or by the treaties of such nation with the United States, except as the same may be affected by the provisions of this title and the general laws of the state.

Alien ownership of lands inhibited. (Acts of 1892, p. 6.)

Art. 10. This title shall not apply to land now owned in this state by aliens so long as it is held by the present owners, nor to any alien who is or shall become a bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas; and any alien who is or shall become a bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas shall have the right to acquire and hold lands in this state upon the same terms as citizens of the state of Texas during the continuance of the bona fide residence of such alien in this state; provided, that if any such resident alien shall cease to be a bona fide inhabitant of this state, then such alien shall have ten years from the time he ceases to be such bona fide inhabitant in which to alienate such lands. The provisions of this title shall not be construed to prevent any persons not citizens of the United States from acquiring or holding lots or parcels of lands in any incorporated or platted city, town, or village in this state; provided further, that any alien who shall become an actual resident of this state, and shall in conformity with the naturalization laws of the United States have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, shall have the right to acquire and hold real estate in this state in the same manner as if he was a citizen of the United States.

Under certain circumstances and conditions permitted. Ib.

Art. 11. The provisions of this title shall not prevent aliens from acquiring lands, or any interest therein, in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts; nor from acquiring liens upon real estate, or any interest therein; nor from lending money and securing the same upon real estate, or any interest therein; nor from enforcing any such lien; nor from acquiring and holding title to such real estate, or any interest therein, upon which a lien may have heretofore or may hereafter be fixed, or upon which a loan of money may have been heretofore or hereafter may be made and secured.

Interest in liens and acquisitions of land under foreclosures, and to collect debts permitted. Ib.

Must alienate in ten years unless under disability.
Ib.

Art. 12. All non-resident aliens who may hereafter acquire real estate in Texas by devise, descent, or by purchase under the provisions of this title may hold the same for ten years; provided, that if any such non-resident alien is a minor he may hold such real estate for ten years from the time of reaching his or her majority, or if of unsound mind for ten years after the appointment of a legal guardian.

Good faith required in conveyances.
Ib.

Art. 13. Any alien who shall hereafter hold lands in Texas, in contravention of the provisions of this title, may, nevertheless, convey the fee simple title thereof at any time before the institution of escheat proceedings as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that if any such conveyance shall be made by such alien either to an alien or to a citizen of the United States, in trust, and for the purpose and with the intention of evading the provisions of this title, such conveyance shall be null and void, and any such land so conveyed shall be forfeited and escheated to the state absolutely.

Proceedings to escheat; by whom instituted and when; notice required.
Ib.

Art. 14. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general, or the district or county attorney, when he shall be informed or have reason to believe that lands in the state are being held contrary to the provisions of this title, to institute suit in behalf of the state of Texas in the district court of the county where such lands are situated, praying for the escheat of the same on behalf of the state, as in cases of estates of persons dying without the devise thereof and having no heirs; provided, before any such suit is instituted the attorney-general, district or county attorney, as the case may be, shall give ninety days notice by registered letter of his intention to sue, directed to the owner of said land or the person who last rendered same for taxes, or his agents, and to all of the persons having an interest in such land, of which the plaintiff has actual or constructive notice.

Proceedings after judgment of escheat.
Ib.

Art. 15. If it shall be determined upon the trial of any such escheat proceedings that lands are held contrary to the provisions of this title, the court trying said cause shall render judgment condemning such lands, and shall order the same to be sold under execution, and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the cost of such suit, shall be paid to the clerk of such court so rendering judgment, and said funds shall remain in the hands of such clerk for one year from the date of such payment, subject to the order of the alien owner of such lands or his heirs or legal representatives, and if not claimed within the period of one year, such clerk shall pay the same into the treasury of the state for the benefit of the available school fund of the state of Texas; provided, that when any money shall have been paid to the treasurer, as hereinbefore provided, an alien, his heirs or assigns, may recover the same from the state in the same manner prescribed in articles 2210, 2211, 2212, 2213, 2214, and 2218 of chapter 27, title 39, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas, relating to the recovery of funds of estates of decedents by the heirs, etc., where the same has been paid into the treasury by the administrator or executor; provided, that the defendant at any time before final judgment may suggest that he has conformed with the law, which being admitted or proved, said suit shall be dismissed on payment of costs and reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

In the county of Grimes on the twelfth Monday after the first Monday in March and September, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of.

(Acts of 1893,
p. 26.)

13. The thirteenth judicial district of the state shall be composed of the counties of Limestone, Freestone and Navarro, and the district courts shall be begun and held therein as follows:

In the county of Limestone on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in August, and may continue in session five weeks each term.

In the county of Freestone on the fifth Monday after the first Monday in January and on the fifth Monday after the first Monday in August, and may continue in session four weeks each term.

In the county of Navarro on the ninth Monday after the first Monday in January, and may continue in session seven weeks, and on the first Monday in June, and may continue in session seven weeks, and on the ninth Monday after the first Monday in August, and may continue in session six weeks.

14. All that part of Dallas county lying north of the following line, viz.: Beginning at the point on the east boundary line of said county where the same is intersected by the center of the track of the Texas and Pacific railroad; thence in a western direction with the center of the track of said railroad to a point in the city of Dallas where the same is crossed by Jefferson street; thence in a southern direction along the center of said street to a point directly opposite to the center of the court house situated in said city; thence in a western direction directly through the center of said court house to the Trinity river; thence up said river to the point where the same is crossed by said railroad; thence in a western direction with the center of the track of said railroad to the point where the same crosses the western boundary line of said county, shall constitute the fourteenth judicial district, and the district court shall be begun and held therein as follows: On the second Monday in March, May, September and December, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. (Acts of 1889, p. 152.)

The district courts of the fourteenth and forty-fourth judicial districts shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of said Dallas county of all matters civil and criminal of which jurisdiction is given to the district court by the constitution and laws of the state; and the grand and petit juries for said courts respectively shall be selected and drawn from the body of the county; provided, that the judge of the fourteenth judicial district shall cause a grand jury to be drawn for and organized at the March and September terms of said court, and the judge of the forty-fourth judicial district shall cause a grand jury to be drawn for and organized at the January and June terms of said court; provided further, that either of said judges may in his discretion have a grand jury drawn for and organized at any other time or terms of this court. Ib.

All cases, prosecutions and proceedings filed with the clerk shall by him be entered upon the dockets of said courts alternately, so that the business may be equally distributed between said courts; provided, either of said judges may in his discretion transfer any case or cases pending in his court to the other district court herein provided for by order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court, and where such transfer or transfers are made the clerk of the district court of Dallas county shall enter such case or cases upon the docket of the court to which the transfer is made. Ib.

If any election precinct in Dallas county, or ward in any incorporated city or town therein, shall be situated in part in each of the districts created, then each voter thereof shall vote for the district judge only of the district in which such voter resides. Ib.

15. The fifteenth judicial district of the state of Texas shall be composed of the county of Grayson, and the district court shall be held therein as follows: A term beginning on the first Monday in September of each year, and may continue in session until and including the last Saturday in December. A term beginning on the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue until and including the last Saturday in March of each year; provided, there (Act of 1895, p. 21.)

shall be no grand jury selected and empaneled for said January terms of said court. A term beginning on the first Monday in April of each year, and may continue until the business is disposed of.

(Acts of 1889,
p. 154.)

16. The sixteenth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Denton, Montague and Cooke, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows:

In the county of Montague on the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Denton on the sixth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session eight weeks.

In the county of Cooke on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in January and second Monday in July, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of.

(Acts of 1891,
p. 2.)

17. All that part of Tarrant county lying south and west of the following line, viz.: Beginning at the center of Trinity river at the point where said river leaves Tarrant county on its east boundary and enters Dallas county on its west boundary; thence in a westerly direction with the middle line of said river to the point where said river is crossed by the eastern boundary of the M. A. Jackson survey, the same being the western boundary of the James Sanderson survey; thence south with the east line of said Jackson and west line of said Sanderson surveys to the center of the track of the Texas and Pacific railway; thence westward with the center of said railway track to the point where it intersects the center of Main street in the city of Fort Worth; thence northerly with the center of Main street to the center of the court house; thence north thirty degrees west to the intersection of the north boundary line of the A. Gouhenaut survey; thence west with the north line of said Gouhenaut survey to its northwest corner; thence south to the center of Trinity river; thence westward with the center of said river to Silver Creek; thence westward with the center of Silver creek to the west boundary of Tarrant county, shall constitute the seventeenth judicial district, and the district court shall be begun and held therein as follows: On the second Monday in January, April and September, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of.

1b.

The district courts of the seventeenth and forty-eighth judicial districts shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of Tarrant county of all matters civil and criminal of which jurisdiction is given to the district court by the constitution and laws of the state; and grand and petit juries for said courts respectively shall be selected and drawn from the body of the county.

1b.

The clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall make up a civil docket and a criminal docket for each of said courts. All cases, prosecutions and proceedings filed with the clerk shall by him be entered upon the dockets of said courts alternately, so that the business may be equally distributed between said courts; provided, that the reference above to a civil docket in the singular number shall be taken to embrace the various civil dockets required by law to be used and kept by the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county when this law shall take effect, so as to make it incumbent upon said clerk, in dividing the civil business between said courts, as herein before required, to open for each court the number and kind of dockets heretofore kept by him and to enter upon each the cases belonging to the same; provided, that all garnishment cases shall follow the cases in which they are sued out, and that such garnishment cases shall not be estimated by the clerk in dividing business. In all injunctions granted by either of said judges, the suits wherein granted shall be docketed in the court of the judge who granted such injunctions, and in all cases wherein receivers may be appointed by either of said judges, the suit wherein such receivers shall be appointed shall be docketed in the court of the judge who appointed such receivers. Either of said judges may in his discretion transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, pending in his court to the district court in said county other than that of which he is judge, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court; and it shall be the duty of each of said judges to transfer to the court other than that of which he is judge all cases which he is disqualified to try, unless the judge of such other district is also disqualified to try such cases, in which event such cases shall remain where docketed by the clerk, and a special judge to try the same shall be chosen by the attorneys or appointed by the governor under the laws of the state governing the matter; and where such transfers are made the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall enter such case or cases upon the appropriate docket of the court to which such transfer shall be made.

In causes filed in said county cognizable by the district court it shall be sufficient for the petition to state the court in which suit is filed as "The district court of Tarrant county," and it shall be sufficient to address the petition to "The district court of Tarrant county." (Acts of 1891,

In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or the removal of the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county, his successor shall be appointed by the judge of the district in which said clerk, by the laws of the state, was entitled to vote.

If any election precinct as now or may be hereafter constituted in Tarrant county or any ward as now or as may be hereafter constituted in any incorporated city or town, now existing or hereafter to be formed in said county, shall be situated partly in each of said districts, then each voter thereof shall vote for the district judge only of the district in which such voter resides. 1b.

18. The eighteenth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Johnson, Hill and Bosque, and the district courts therein shall be held as follows: (Acts of 1887,
p. 129.)

In the county of Bosque on the third Monday in January and August, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Hill on the sixth Monday after the third Monday in January and August, and may continue in session seven weeks.

In the county of Johnson on the thirteenth Monday after the third Monday in January and August, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of; provided, that said continuation shall not interfere with the terms of the court in the remaining counties of the district as herein above provided for.

19. The nineteenth judicial district shall be composed of the county of McLennan, and the district court shall be held therein as follows: On the first Monday in January, April, July and October in each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of; provided, the October term shall not continue longer than the last Saturday before the twenty-fifth day of December. (Acts of 1893,
p. 52.)

20. The twentieth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Milam, Robertson and Brazos, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: 1b.

In the county of Robertson on the first Monday in January and second Monday in June, and may continue in session eight weeks.

In the county of Brazos on the first Monday in March and September, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Milam on the third Monday in April and October, and may continue in session seven weeks.

(Acts of 1892,
p. 2.)

21. The counties of Washington, Burleson, Lee and Bastrop shall constitute the twenty-first judicial district, and the district courts therein shall be held as follows:

In the county of Washington on the first Monday in March and September, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Hays on the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the county of Caldwell on the first Monday in April and October of each year, and may continue in session five weeks.

In the county of Fayette on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in March and September, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Austin on the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in March and September, and may continue in session four weeks.

(Act of 1895,
p. 105.)

23. The twenty-third judicial district of Texas shall be composed of the counties of Brazoria, Fort Bend, Jackson, Matagorda, Waller and Wharton, and the terms of the district court to be held therein shall be held as follows, viz.:

In the county of Waller on the second Monday in February and the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session three weeks.

In the county of Fort Bend on the third Monday after the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the county of Wharton on the seventh Monday after the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session three weeks.

In the county of Jackson on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session two weeks.

In the county of Matagorda on the thirteenth Monday after the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session two weeks.

In the county of Brazoria on the first Monday in January, and may continue in session five weeks, and on the fifteenth Monday after the first Monday in March, and may continue in session until the last Saturday in July.

(Act of 1895,
p. 82.)

24. The twenty-fourth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Refugio, Bee, Karnes, Goliad, Calhoun, Victoria and De Witt, and the terms of the district court therein shall be held each year as follows:

In the county of Refugio on the second Monday of February and on the first Monday of September, and may continue in session one week.

In the county of Bee on the first Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session three weeks.

In the county of Karnes on the fourth Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session three weeks.

In the county of Goliad on the seventh Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session three weeks.

In the county of Calhoun on the tenth Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session one week.

In the county of Victoria on the eleventh Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the county of De Witt on the fifteenth Monday after the second Monday in February and the first Monday in September, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of.

25. The twenty-fifth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Lavaca, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Wilson and Colorado, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: (Acts of 1883, p. 61.)

In the county of Lavaca on the first Monday in February and August of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

In Colorado county on the first Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session six weeks. (Acts of 1889, p. 156.)

In Guadalupe county on the first Monday in May and November of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

In Wilson county on the first Monday in June and December of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

In Gonzales County on the first Monday in January and July of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

26. The twenty-sixth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Williamson and Travis, and the terms of the district court shall be held therein hereafter as follows: (Acts of 1891, p. 89.)

In the county of Williamson on the first Monday in January and July of each year, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Travis on the first Monday in March of each year, and may continue in session until the last Saturday before the first Monday in May.

On the first Monday of May of each year, and may continue in session until the last Saturday in June.

On the first Monday in October of each year, and may continue in session until the last Saturday before the twenty-fifth day of December; provided, that a grand jury for Travis county shall not be drawn except for the May and October terms of said court, unless the district judge should deem it necessary to call a grand jury at other terms and should so order.

The two district courts in Travis county shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other throughout the limits of Travis county of all matters civil and criminal of which jurisdiction is given to the district court by the constitution and the laws of the state of Texas; provided, that the district judge of the fifty-third judicial district shall not order drawn or selected a grand jury unless in his judgment he thinks it necessary. Ib.

The clerk of the district court of Travis county as heretofore constituted, and his successors in office, shall be the clerk of both of the district courts in Travis county, and shall perform all the duties pertaining to both of said courts. Ib.

Ib. Either of the judges of said district courts in Travis county may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes, civil or criminal, that may at any time be pending in his court to the other district court in Travis county by order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court, and where such transfer or transfers are made the clerk of the district court of Travis county shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said causes in the same manner as if such causes were originally instituted in said court.

Ib. No petit juries shall be drawn for the March, April and November terms of said courts respectively in Travis county, unless the respective judges of said courts shall deem the same necessary.

(Acts of 1893,

Whenever, in the opinion of the judge of the twenty-sixth judicial district, there shall be a sufficient number of civil cases pending in the district court of any county in said district, in excess of what can be disposed of at the regular terms of said court, to justify the holding of a special term of said court to try pending civil cases, the judge of said district shall have power to order and hold, from time to time, special terms in said county for the trial of such pending civil cases alone. By pending civil cases is meant all civil cases the service in which was so perfected at the last regular term preceding a special term that the same might have been lawfully tried at said regular term, as well as other civil cases brought before such special term begins, or while it may be in session, in which an agreement to try the same at such special term may be made by all the parties thereto.

Ib. In order to call a special term of the district court in any county in said district, the judge of said district shall, either in term time or vacation, make and file with the clerk of the district court of such county, an order, to be entered in the minutes of said court, ordering a special term of said court, stating the time when the same shall commence, and during what time said term will be held, and the time during such term when the nonjury civil cases and jury civil cases will be respectively given precedence in the trial of causes at said special term.

Ib. The clerk of such court, on the receipt of such order, shall immediately enter the same at large upon the minutes of said court, and shall make and place in the hands of the sheriff of said county eight certified copies of said order as the same appears of record in the minutes of said court. Whereupon, the sheriff of said county shall give notice of such order by posting a copy of the same in six public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door of such county, for not less than twenty days prior to the time fixed in said order for the commencement of said special term, and shall cause one of said copies to be printed once a week for three weeks in some newspaper in said county prior to the commencement of said special term, if there be a newspaper printed in said county, as often as once a week for three weeks prior to the time fixed by said order for the commencement of said special term, and said sheriff shall endorse on the eighth copy his return, showing how he has complied with this law in giving notice of such order, and file the same with the clerk of said court by nine o'clock a. m. on the day on which said special term is to begin, and said copy and the return thereon shall be entered at large upon the minutes of said court. The minutes of such order and the preliminary proceedings prior to the opening of such special term shall be evidence of the ordering of such special term, and of the notice given thereof.

So many of the jurors selected by the commissioners for the next regular term to be held after a special term is ordered as may be required for such special term, shall be summoned as jurors for such special term, and the clerk of the court, on receiving the order for a special term, shall open the jury list of jurors selected for such next regular term, taking them in the numerical order of the number of the weeks of the next regular term for which they were selected, until he shall have opened as many lists as there shall be weeks of the special term during which jurors will be required, as shown by the order of the judge; and the clerk and the sheriff shall further proceed to obtain the attendance of such jurors as is required by law to obtain the attendance of the jurors at regular terms after jury lists are opened. Each list shall be summoned for a different week from that for which any other list shall be summoned.

During a special term, jury commissioners shall be appointed, and jurors shall be selected to take the place, in the next regular term, of such jurors selected for the next regular term as may have been required for the special term.

27. The twenty-seventh judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Mills, Bell, Lampasas and Burnet, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows:

In the county of Mills on the second Monday in March and September of each year, and may continue in session three weeks.

When minor may be apprenticed. (Const., art. 5, §16.)

Article 23. [18] The county court may bind a minor as an apprentice—

1. When such minor is an orphan and without sufficient estate for his maintenance and education.
2. When the parents of such minor have suffered him to become a charge upon the county.
3. When the parents of such minor, not being a charge on the county, shall consent in writing to such apprenticeship, which consent shall be signed by them, and filed and entered of record in such court.

Minor shall not be apprenticed to what persons.

Art. 24. [19] A minor shall in no case be apprenticed to any one who is not legally competent to act as the guardian of such minor.

Duration of apprenticeship.

Art. 25. [20] The duration of apprenticeship shall be until the minor, if a male, arrives at the age of twenty-one years; if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries, if she marries before that age.

Shall not be apprenticed without notice.

Art. 26. [21] A minor shall not be apprenticed without citation in the same manner as is provided in the case of an application for the guardianship of a minor.

In what county minor shall be apprenticed.

Art. 27. [22] A minor shall be apprenticed in the county in which he resides, and shall not be apprenticed to any person who is not at the time a resident of such county.

Obligation shall be entered into and its conditions.

Art. 28. [23] The person to whom such minor is apprenticed shall enter into an obligation in writing, payable to such minor, in the sum to be fixed by the county judge, not less than one thousand dollars, and to be approved by such county judge, conditioned—

1. That he will furnish said minor sufficient food and clothing.
2. That he will treat said minor humanely.
3. That he will teach, or cause to be taught, to said minor some trade or occupation, the same to be specified in such obligation.

4. That he will furnish said minor medicine and medical attention when necessary.

5. That he will, if practicable, send said minor to school at least three months in each year during the continuance of such apprenticeship, after said minor has arrived at the age of ten years, and while such minor is within the scholastic age. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

6. That he will not remove said minor out of the county without the leave of the court.

7. That he will not remove said minor out of the state.

Art. 29. [24] A minor who is fourteen years old, or over, may select the person to whom he desires to be apprenticed, and the court shall, if such person be competent, apprentice the minor to the person so selected. Minor 14 years of age may select, etc.

Art. 30. [25] The obligations provided for by article 28, when approved by the court, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court and recorded upon the minutes of the court. Obligation shall be approved, filed and recorded.

Art. 31. [26] When such obligation has been approved and filed, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes, reciting the fact that such obligation has been approved and filed, and directing that the same be recorded in the minutes, and authorizing the person to whom such minor is apprenticed to take charge and control of the person of such minor, and to retain the same until such minor arrives at the age of twenty-one years; or if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries, if she marries before that age, and the age of such minor at the time of entering such order shall be distinctly stated in such order. Order of the court apprenticing minor.

Art. 32. [27] A certified copy of such order, under the seal of the court, shall be sufficient evidence of the authority of the person named therein to control the person of such minor. Certified copy of order sufficient authority, etc.

Art. 33. [28] The person to whom a minor has been apprenticed shall have the right, in the management and control of such minor, to inflict such moderate corporeal chastisement as may be necessary and proper. Moderate chastisement may be inflicted on minor.

Art. 34. [29] The person to whom a minor has been apprenticed shall have the right to control the person of such minor, and shall be entitled to his services, and to all the profits arising from any such service during the continuance of such apprenticeship. Rights of persons to whom minor is apprenticed.

Art. 35. [30] It shall not be lawful for any apprentice to reside out of the county in which he has been apprenticed without the order of the county judge of such county, entered upon the minutes of the court. When such leave is obtained, a certified copy of the order granting the same shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the future residence of the minor is to be, together with a certified copy of the obligation and order apprenticing such minor, and the same shall be filed and recorded upon the minutes of the county court of such last named county, and thereafter such court shall have the same power and control over the case as if it had been originally commenced therein. Not lawful for apprentice to reside out of the county, etc.

Art. 36. [31] When an apprentice has been removed out of the county in which he was apprenticed, by the person to whom he was apprenticed, or with the knowledge or consent of such person, and without an order authorizing such removal, as provided in the preceding article, and shall be detained out of said county for more than thirty days, such apprentice shall not be held bound for a further compliance with his apprenticeship, and can only be retained at the pleasure of such apprentice. Apprentice kept out of county over 30 days, without leave, is discharged.

Proceedings when apprentice runs away, etc.

Art. 37. [32] If any apprentice shall run away from or leave the employment of the person to whom he is apprenticed without permission, such person may pursue and recapture such apprentice and bring him before the county judge having jurisdiction of the case, who shall investigate the case, and if satisfied that said apprentice ran away or left the employment of such person without good and sufficient cause, he shall order such apprentice to return to his service, and upon his failure or refusal to do so the court may punish him as for contempt of court.

Apprentice discharged when, etc.

Art. 38. [33] Upon the investigation provided for in the preceding article, if the court be satisfied that such apprentice had good and sufficient cause for running away from or leaving the employment of the person to whom he was apprenticed, the court shall discharge said apprentice and revoke all authority granted to the person to whom such minor was apprenticed, and shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes.

County judge may cause person to whom minor is apprenticed to be cited, etc.

Art. 39. [34] The county judge may, upon the complaint of the minor or any other person, or without complaint, cause the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed to be cited to appear before him at any time and place mentioned in such citation, and show cause why his authority over such minor should not be revoked and the minor discharged from his apprenticeship. And upon the return of such citation served, the judge, if satisfied that such person is incompetent from any cause to properly control such minor, or that such person has in any material respect violated the obligation entered into by him, shall enter an order upon the minutes revoking such authority granted to such person over such minor, and discharging such minor from such apprenticeship.

Person to whom minor is apprenticed may be released, when.

Art. 40. [35] A person to whom a minor has been apprenticed may at any time, upon good cause shown to the county judge, be released from future liability upon his obligation of apprenticeship, and in such case an order shall be entered upon the minutes revoking the authority of such person over such minor, and declaring such apprenticeship at an end.

County judge shall inquire into treatment, etc.

Art. 41. [36] The county judge shall from time to time inquire into the treatment of the minors apprenticed by him, or by his predecessors in office, and shall defend them from all cruelty, neglect, breach of contract or misconduct on the part of the persons to whom they are apprenticed.

Minor may be again apprenticed, when.

Art. 42. [37] When the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed dies, or when his authority has been revoked, the minor may be again apprenticed as in the first instance.

Proceedings may be in term time or vacation, except, etc.

Art. 43. [38] The proceedings provided for in the preceding articles of this title may be had either in term time or in vacation, except that a minor shall be apprenticed only at a regular term of the court for probate business, and after notice as in the case of the appointment of a guardian.

Suit upon obligation.

Art. 44. [39] In case of a breach of the obligation on the part of the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed, the minor, or the county judge, or any person for the use of the minor may sue upon such obligation in any court of the county where such obligation, or certified copy thereof has been filed and recorded, having jurisdiction of the amount claimed, and shall be entitled to recover such damages as the minor may have sustained by reason of such breach; and all such damages shall be the property of such minor.

Costs shall be paid by whom.

Art. 45. [40] In all proceedings apprenticing a minor, or discharging him from apprenticeship, and in all other proceedings connected with such apprenticeship, the person to whom such minor was apprenticed shall pay the costs of such proceedings, and the same shall be adjudged against him and collected as in other cases, except in a suit brought under the preceding article, in which case the costs shall be adjudged as in other civil suits.

Art. 46. [41] When a minor is apprenticed the person to whom such minor is apprenticed supplies the place of the guardian of the person of such minor, and in such case there shall be no guardian of the person of such minor. No guardian of person when minor is apprenticed.

Right to arbitrate. (Const., art. 16, §13.)

Article 47. [42] All persons desiring to submit any dispute, controversy, or right of action supposed to have accrued to either party, to arbitration, shall have the right so to do in accordance with the provisions of this title.

Agreement to be in writing and name arbitrators, etc. (Act April 25, 1846, p. 127.) P. D. 60-63.

Art. 48. [43] Such persons shall sign an agreement in writing, as plaintiff and defendant, to arbitrate their differences or matters in dispute, and in such agreement each party shall name for himself one arbitrator, who shall be over the age of twenty-one years, not related to either party by consanguinity or affinity, possessing the qualifications of a juror, and who is not interested in the result of the cause to be submitted for his decision.

Agreement to be filed in court having jurisdiction. Ib.

Art. 49. [44] If the amount in dispute is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, such agreement shall be filed with some justice of the peace of the county in which the defendant resides or in which the controversy arose. If the matter in dispute exceeds two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, then such agreement shall be filed with the clerk of the district or county court of the county in which the controversy arose, according as the amount involved or matter in dispute may come within the jurisdiction of one court or the other.

Day of trial to be designated by justice or clerk, etc. Ib. §5. P. D. 62.

Art. 50. [45] When such agreement is filed, the justice of the peace or the clerk of the county or district court, as the case may be, shall forthwith designate a day for the trial of the cause, not less than two days thereafter, and shall issue process for such witnesses as either party may desire, returnable on the day fixed for trial.

Oath of arbitrators. Ib. §5. P. D. 64.

Art. 51. [46] On the assembling of the arbitrators on the day of trial the justice or clerk shall administer an oath to each, substantially as follows: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fairly and impartially decide the matter in dispute between A B, the plaintiff, and C D, the defendant, according to the evidence adduced and the law and equity applicable to the facts proved, so help you God."

Continuances permissible.

Art. 52. [47] After being sworn the arbitrators may, for good cause shown, continue the hearing to some other day, and during the progress of any trial, for like good cause, may adjourn the same over to some other time.

Art. 53. [48] The justice or clerk shall administer the necessary oath to the witnesses, and the trial of the cause shall proceed in like manner with trials in the courts of this state, the plaintiff holding the affirmative, and entitled to open and conclude the argument.

Procedure on trial.

Art. 54. [49] After hearing the evidence and arguments, if any, the arbitrators shall agree upon their award and reduce the same to writing, specifying plainly their decision, which award they shall file with the justice or clerk, as the case may be, and at the succeeding term of the court such award shall be entered and recorded as the judgment of the court, with like effect as other judgments of said court, and upon which execution may issue as on ordinary judgments.

Award to be written out, filed and entered as judgment.
Ib. §7.
P. D. 66.

Art. 55. [50] If the arbitrators chosen as aforesaid can not agree, they shall select an umpire with like qualifications as themselves, or in case they disagree in the choice of an umpire, the justice or clerk shall select such umpire, and he shall be sworn in like manner as the arbitrators, and the cause may be tried anew at such time as the board of arbitration thus constituted may designate, with like proceedings as are prescribed in the preceding article.

Umpire to be selected in case of disagreement.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 65.

Art. 56. [51] If a right of appeal is not expressly reserved in the original agreement to arbitrate, no such right shall exist, but the decision of the arbitrators shall be final. But if such right of appeal is reserved, and either party desire to appeal from such decision or award, he shall file his written application to that effect with the justice or clerk, as the case may be, on or before the return day of the term of the court next thereafter.

Appeal from an award.
Ib. §7.
P. D. 66.

Art. 57. [52] When an application for appeal is filed as prescribed in the preceding article, the same shall be noted on the docket of the court, and the opposite party served with a citation, as in ordinary cases of suit by petition. Upon return of service upon the opposite party, the cause shall stand for trial de novo as in ordinary cases.

Procedure in case of appeal.

Art. 58. [53] The arbitrators may award the costs to either party, and if their decision or award is silent as to costs, the same shall be taxed equally against both parties.

Costs.

Art. 59. [54] After an agreement to arbitrate is filed as prescribed in article 49, the parties thereto shall be bound to that mode of trial under the following penalties, to-wit: Such agreement may be pleaded in bar to any suit thereafter brought by a plaintiff in such agreement for the same cause of action, when such plaintiff has refused to proceed under such agreement; and said agreement may be pleaded in bar to any right claimed or defense set up by defendant in such agreement who has refused to proceed thereunder, where such right or defense existed at the time of filing such agreement.

Penalty for refusing to proceed.
Ib. §8.
P. D. 67.

Art. 60. [55] The provisions of this title shall apply to corporations as well as natural persons, and executors, administrators and guardians may also consent to an arbitration of any controversy or matter of dispute relating to or affecting their respective trusts, with the consent of the court in which such administration or guardianship is pending.

Corporations, executors, etc., may arbitrate.

Art. 61. [56] Nothing herein shall be construed as affecting the existing right of parties to arbitrate their differences in such other mode as they may select.

Common law right not affected.

Board of arbitration authorized. (Act of 1895, p. 85, §1.)

Article 61a. Whenever any grievance or dispute of any nature growing out of the relation of employer and employes, shall arise or exist between employer and employes, it shall be lawful, upon mutual consent of all parties, to submit all matters respecting such grievance or dispute in writing to a board of arbitrators to hear, adjudicate, and determine the same. Said board shall consist of five persons. When the employes concerned in such grievance or dispute as the aforesaid are members in good standing of any labor organization which is represented by one or more delegates in a central body, the said central body shall have power to designate two of said arbitrators, and the employer shall have the power to designate two others of said arbitrators, and the said four arbitrators shall designate a fifth person as arbitrator, who shall be chairman of the board. In case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute as aforesaid are members in good standing of a labor organization which is not represented in a central body, then the organization of which they are members shall designate two members of said board, and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; and in case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute as aforesaid are not members of any labor organization, then a majority of said employes, at a meeting duly held for that purpose, shall designate two arbitrators for said board, and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; provided, that when the two arbitrators selected by the respective parties to the controversy, the district judge of the district having jurisdiction of the subject matter shall, upon notice from either of said arbitrators that they have failed to agree upon the fifth arbitrator, appoint said fifth arbitrator.

District judge to establish board, etc. Ib. §2.

Art. 61b. Any board as aforesaid selected may present a petition in writing to the district judge of the county where such grievance or dispute to be arbitrated may arise, signed by a majority of said board, setting forth in brief terms the facts showing their due and regular appointment, and the nature of the grievance or dispute between the parties to said arbitration, and praying the license or order of such judge establishing and approving of said board of arbitration. Upon the presentation of said petition it shall be the duty of said judge, if it appear that all requirements of this law have been complied with, to make an order establishing such board of arbitration and referring the matters in dispute to it for hearing, adjudication and determination. The said petition and order, or a copy thereof, shall be filed in the office of the district clerk of the county in which the arbitration is sought.

Art. 61c. When a controversy involves and affects the interests of two or more classes or grades of employes belonging to different labor organizations, or of individuals who are not members of a labor organization, then the two arbitrators selected by the employes shall be agreed upon and selected by the concurrent action of all such labor organizations, and a majority of such individuals who are not members of a labor organization.

If controversy involves different labor organizations, concurrent action is necessary.
Ib. §3.

Art. 61d. The submission shall be in writing, shall be signed by the employer or receiver and the labor organization representing the employes, or any laborer or laborers to be affected by such arbitration who may not belong to any labor organization, shall state the question to be decided, and shall contain appropriate provisions by which the respective parties shall stipulate as follows:

Submission must be in writing and must show, what.
Ib. §4.

1. That pending the arbitration the existing status prior to any disagreement or strike shall not be changed.

2. That the award shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which said board of arbitration is held, and shall be final and conclusive upon both parties, unless set aside for error of law, apparent on the record.

3. That the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same, and that the same may be specifically enforced in equity so far as the powers of a court of equity permit.

4. That the employes dissatisfied with the award shall not by reason of such dissatisfaction quit the service of said employer or receiver before the expiration of thirty days, nor without giving said employer or receiver thirty days written notice of their intention so to quit.

5. That said award shall continue in force as between the parties thereto for the period of one year after the same shall go into practical operation, and no new arbitration upon the same subject between the same parties shall be had until the expiration of said one year.

Art. 61e. The arbitrators so selected shall sign a consent to act as such and shall take and subscribe an oath before some officer authorized to administer the same to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties as such arbitrator, which consent and oath shall be immediately filed in the office of the clerk of the district court wherein such arbitrators are to act. When said board is ready for the transaction of business it shall select one of its members to act as secretary and the parties to the dispute shall receive notice of a time and place of hearing, which shall be not more than ten days after such agreement to arbitrate has been filed.

Arbitrators to take oath, etc.
Ib. §5.

Art. 61f. The chairman shall have power to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas for the production of books and papers and for the attendance of witnesses to the same extent that such power is possessed by the court of record or the judge thereof in this state. The board may make and enforce the rules for its government and transaction of the business before it and fix its sessions and adjournment, and shall herein examine such witnesses as may be brought before the board, and such other proof as may be given relative to the matter in dispute.

Powers and duties of chairman and board.
Ib. §6.

Art. 61g. When said board shall have rendered its adjudication and determination its powers shall cease, unless there may be at the time in existence other similar grievances or disputes between the same class of persons mentioned in article 61a, and in such case such persons may submit their differences to said board, which shall have power to act and adjudicate and determine the same as Adjudication terminates the powers of the board, unless, etc.

Ib. §7.

fully as if said board was originally created for the settlement of such difference or differences.

Status quo to be preserved pending arbitration.
Ib. §8.

Art. 61h. During the pendency of arbitration under this chapter it shall not be lawful for the employer or receiver party to such arbitration, nor his agent, to discharge the employes parties thereto, except for inefficiency, violation of law, or neglect of duty, or where reduction of force is necessary, nor for the organization representing such employes to order, nor for the employes to unite in, aid or abet strikes or boycotts against such employer or receiver.

Compensation of board, witnesses, etc.
Ib. §9.

Art. 61i. Each of the said board of arbitrators shall receive three dollars per day for every day in actual service, not to exceed ten days, and traveling expenses not to exceed five cents per mile actually traveled in getting to or returning from the place where the board is in session. The fees of witnesses of the aforesaid board shall be fifty cents for each day's attendance and five cents per mile traveled by the nearest route to and returning from the place where attendance is required by the board. All subpoenas shall be signed by the secretary of the board and may be served by any person of full age authorized by the board to serve the same. And the fees and mileage of witnesses and the per diem and traveling expenses of said arbitrators shall be taxed as costs against either or all of the parties to said arbitration, as the board of arbitrators may deem just, and shall constitute part of their award, and each of the parties to said arbitration shall, before the arbitration [arbitrators] proceed to consider the matters submitted to them, give a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties in an amount to be fixed by the board of arbitration, conditioned for the payment of all expenses connected with the said arbitration.

Award to take effect.
Ib. §10.

Art. 61j. The award shall be made in triplicate. One copy shall be filed in the district clerk's office, one copy shall be given to the employer or receiver, and one copy to the employes or their duly authorized representative. That the award being filed in the clerk's office of the district court, as hereinbefore provided, shall go into practical operation and judgment shall be entered thereon accordingly at the expiration of ten days from such filing, unless within such ten days either party shall file exceptions thereto for matter of law apparent on the record, in which case said award shall go into practical operation and judgment rendered accordingly when such exceptions shall have been fully disposed of by either said district court or on appeal therefrom.

Judgment to be entered, etc.
Ib. §11.

Art. 61k. At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court upon exceptions taken to said award as aforesaid, judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during the said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the court of civil appeals holding jurisdiction thereof. In such case only such portion of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said exceptions and to be decided. The determination of said court of civil appeals upon said questions shall be final, and being certified by the clerk of said court of civil appeals, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court. If exceptions to an award are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment, when entered, shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award.

Article 62. [57] The following shall be deemed the records, books and papers of the general land office and constitute a part of the archives of the same:

1. All the records, books, titles, surveys, maps, papers and documents which in any manner pertain to the lands of the late republic, now state of Texas, which have been, prior to the eighteenth day of April, A. D. 1876, delivered to the commissioner of the general land office in pursuance of and in accordance with the requirements of any law of the republic or state of Texas, by any of the empresarios, political chiefs, alcaldes, regidores, commissioners, special or general, for extending titles.

2. All books, papers, records, documents and archives pertaining to the lands of the republic or state of Texas that have heretofore been delivered by the commissioner of the court of claims to the comptroller and by him turned over to the commissioner of the general land office, in pursuance and by authority of law.

3. All other books, records, papers and archives of the colony of Martin de Leon heretofore delivered by the secretary of state, in accordance with law, to the commissioner of the general land office.

4. The duly certified copy of the book or register of land certificates, usually known as the "Lost Book of Harris county," transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office by the clerk of the county court of Harris county, in accordance with law.

5. All other books, transfers, powers of attorney, field-notes, maps, plats, legal proceedings, official reports, original documents and other papers appertaining to the lands of the republic or state of Texas that have been deposited or filed in the general land office in accordance with any law of the republic or state of Texas.

6. All owners of lands between the Nueces and Rio Grande rivers, under grants or titles from the former government, which grants or titles are such as are described in section 4 of article 13 of the present constitution, and have been, previous to the adoption of this constitution, recorded in the respective counties where the land is situated, but have not yet been deposited or archived in the general land office of this state, be and they are hereby authorized and required to deposit and archive said grants or titles in said general land office; and provided further, that such titles when so archived shall be subject to all defenses and objections that they

General assignment, how made and construed; preferences void. (Act of July 24, 1879, p. 54.)

Article 71. Every assignment made by an insolvent debtor, or in contemplation of insolvency, for the benefit of his creditors, shall provide, except as herein otherwise provided, for a distribution of all his real and personal estate, other than that which is by law exempt from execution, among all his creditors in proportion to their respective claims, and however made or expressed, shall have the effect aforesaid, and shall be construed to pass all such estate, whether specified therein or not, and in every assignment made under this title, whether for the benefit of all creditors, or accepting creditors, any attempted preference of one creditor, or creditors of the assignor shall be deemed fraudulent and without effect.

Inventory attached, what shall contain and how verified. Ib.

Art. 72. Every assignment shall be proved or acknowledged and certified and recorded in the same manner as provided by law in conveyances of real estate or other property, and the debtor shall annex to such assignment an inventory containing the following statement:

1. A full and true account of all the creditors of such debtor or debtors.
2. The place of residence of each creditor if known to such debtor or debtors, and if not known, that fact to be so stated.
3. The sum owing to each creditor, and the nature of each debt or demand, whether arising on written security account or otherwise executed.
4. The true cause and consideration of such indebtedness in each case, and the place where such indebtedness arose.
5. A statement of any existing judgment, mortgage, collateral or other security for the payment of any such debt.
6. A full and true inventory of all such debtor's estate at the date of such assignment, both real and personal, in law or in equity, and the incumbrances existing thereon, and of all vouchers and securities relating thereto, and the value of such estate according to the best knowledge of such debtor or debtors.
7. An affidavit shall be made by such debtor or debtors, and an-nexed to and delivered with such inventory or schedule, that the same is in all respects just and true according to the best of such debtor or debtors' knowledge and belief. Nothing contained in this chapter shall affect the assignor's right to retain all such of his property as is by the constitution and laws of this state exempt from execution, but such list and inventory shall not be conclusive except as against the debtor making the same.

Art. 73. Any debtor desiring so to do, may make an assignment for the benefit of such of his creditors only as will consent to accept their proportional share of his estate, and discharge him from their respective claims, and in such case the benefits of the assignment shall be limited and restricted to the creditors consenting thereto, and such debtor shall thereupon be and stand discharged from all further liabilities to such consenting creditors on account of their respective claims, and when paid they shall execute and deliver to the assignee for the debtor a release therefrom; provided, that such debtor shall not be discharged from liabilities to a creditor who does not receive as much as one-third of the amount due and allowed in his favor as a valid claim against the estate of such debtor.

Assignment for creditors, accepting and discharge of assignor. (Acts 1883, p. 46.)

Art. 74. Every assignee shall, within thirty days after the execution of the assignment, give public notice of his appointment in some newspaper printed in the county where the assignor resides, or where his principal business was conducted, or, if no newspapers be printed therein, then in the newspaper published nearest to such place of residence or business, and which notice shall be published for three successive weeks, and so far as he can, the assignee shall also give personal notice, or notice by mail, to each of the creditors of the assigning debtor.

Notice of assignee's appointment, when and how given. (Act July 24, 1879, p. 37.)

Art. 75. The creditors of the assignor consenting to such assignment, shall make known to the assignee their consent in writing, within four months after the publication of the notice provided in the preceding article, and no creditor not assenting shall receive or take any benefit under the assignment; provided, however, that any creditor who had no actual notice of such assignment, may make known his assent at any time before any distribution of assets under the assignment has been made; and provided further, that the receipt by a creditor of any portion of his claim from the assignee, shall be conclusive evidence of the assent of such creditor to the assignment.

How and when consenting creditors may accept. Ib.

Art. 76. Every such assignee shall be a resident of this state and of the county in which the assignor resides, or in which his principal business was conducted, and he shall forthwith after the execution and delivery of the deed of assignment, cause the same to be recorded as herein provided, in the county of such assignee's residence, and also in every county in which there is any real property conveyed to him by such deed of assignment, and shall execute a bond, with sureties, to be approved by the judge of the county court of the county in which the assignee resides, or by the judge of the district court of the judicial district in which such county is situated, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duties as such assignee, and that he will make proportional distribution of the net proceeds of the assigned estate among the creditors entitled thereto, which bond shall be payable to the state of Texas, and shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such assignee resides, and shall inure to the benefit of the assignor, and the creditor, or creditors, who may maintain an action thereon against such assignee and sureties, in his or their own name, jointly or severally, for any breach thereof, or violation of this law, by reason of which such assignor or creditor shall sustain damage, and upon the filing of said bond the assignee shall take possession of the assigned property, and proceed to execute the assignment, and if such assignee shall not, within five days after the delivery of the deed of assignment, execute an approved bond and file the same with the county clerk, as herein provided, such assignment shall nevertheless take effect as against the assignor and his creditors, and it shall be the duty of the county judge, or judge of the district court, as aforesaid, upon the application of the assignor, or any creditor, and being satisfied that such bond has not been given, approved and filed, to appoint in writing another competent assignee, who shall, upon the execution of such bond, approved and filed as herein provided, take possession of the assigned property and proceed to execute the assignment.

Fraud of assignor will not defeat assignment.
Ib.

Art. 77. No fraudulent act, intent or purpose of the assignor or assignee shall have the effect to defeat the assignment or to deprive the creditors consenting thereto from the benefits thereof, but any such fraudulent act, intent or purpose on the part of the assignee shall be sufficient cause for his removal, as being an unsuitable person to perform the trust, and any consenting creditor may be or become a party to prosecute or defend in any suit or proceeding necessary or proper for the enforcement of his rights under such assignments, or for the protection of his interests in the assigned property.

Proof of claim, when and how made.
(Acts of 1879, p. 57.)

Art. 78. Every creditor consenting to an assignment shall, within six months from the time of the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the assignee, file with such assignee a distinct statement of the particular nature and amount of his claim against the debtor, which shall be supported by an affidavit of the creditor, his agent or attorney, that the statement is true, that the debt is just, and that there are no credits or offsets that should be allowed against the claim, except as shown by the statement, and no creditor shall take any benefit under any assignment whatever who neglects to file such statement.

Surplus subject to garnishment.
Ib.

Art. 79. Any creditor not consenting to the assignment may garnishee the assignee for any excess of such estate remaining in his hands, after the payment to the consenting creditors, the amount of their debts and the costs and expenses of executing the assignment.

Property fraudulently sold by assignor passes by the assignment and may be recovered by assignee.
Ib.

Art. 80. All property conveyed or transferred by the assignor previous to and in contemplation of the assignment, with the intent or design to defeat, delay or defraud creditors, or to give preference to one creditor over another, shall pass to the assignee by the assignment, notwithstanding such transfer; and the assignee, or in case of his neglect or refusal, any creditor or creditors may in his name, upon securing such assignee against cost or liability, sue for, recover, collect and cause the same to be applied for the benefit of creditors as other property belonging to the debtor's estate in the hands of the assignee; but if it shall appear in such action that the purchaser of any such property bought the same of the assignor in good faith and for a valuable consideration, and without any reason to believe that the debtor was conveying or transferring the same with the intent or design aforesaid, such purchaser shall be held to have acquired as against the assignee and creditors aforesaid a good and valid title to such property.

Art. 81. No assignment shall be declared fraudulent or void for want of any inventory or list, as provided herein, but the absence of the same shall be deemed prima facie evidence that the assignor or debtor has concealed or secreted some of his estate from his assignee or creditors, and whether the said list and inventory be prepared and filed or not, the judge of the district or county court, in whose court the proceedings shall have been filed, and having jurisdiction of the estate assigned, may, on the application of the assignee, or of any creditor of the assignor or debtor, or without such application, if the judge see fit, at all times require, upon such reasonable notice as the judge may direct, the assignor or debtor, or any other person, to attend and submit to an examination, on oath, upon all matters relating to the disposition made, or status of the property of the estate assigned, including all transactions in the past bearing upon the rights of the assignee or creditors with respect to the estate in assignment, as contemplated in law. The judge may enforce attendance and obedience to the orders made, by a writ or order directed to the sheriff, or any constable, commanding the arrest of the persons referred to in the writ or order, to be brought before the judge at a time named for the purpose of examination, as provided herein, and such examination shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the persons examined, and shall be filed and attested or sworn to with the clerk of the court wherein the proceedings are pending, for the use of those interested in the estate; provided, nevertheless, that no assignor or debtor shall be prosecuted or punished for any matter or thing disclosed by him on such examination as had above. The costs of such proceedings to be paid out of the estate assigned, or by the applicant for the examination, as the judge in each case may deem right and proper to order.

Failure to attach inventory pre-sumption of fraud, but does not vitiate assignment; assignor may be examined. (Acts 1883, p. 46.)

Art. 82. The statement of a creditor, verified and filed with the assignee as hereinbefore provided, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence to justify the assignee in allowing it as a valid claim against the estate, and shall be so allowed, and such creditor entitled to his proportional share of the debtor's estate, unless the assignor, or other creditor disputing the same, shall, within sixty days after the expiration of the time within which the creditors are required by this title to file their statements, institute an action in the district or county court of the proper county to set aside the allowance and to restrain the payment thereon, for which purpose the assignor or any disputing creditor or creditors may have a remedy, jointly or severally, by injunction or other proper action to try the justness and validity of the disputed claim, and if it appears that an action could not successfully be maintained at law by the creditor against the assignor upon such claim or any disputed part thereof, the same shall be disallowed, in whole or in part, as the case may be, and the assignee restrained from paying the same, or such portion thereof as may be disallowed, and for the information of the assignor and creditors, it is further provided, that the assignee shall allow them, or any of them, to take a copy of any creditor's statement of his claim that has been filed with such assignee as herein provided.

Verified claims shall be allowed by assignee unless contested. (Acts 1879, p. 57.)

Art. 83. Claims that are not due may be allowed at their present value, by discounting them at the rate of interest mentioned in the contract, if any, otherwise at the legal rate, and if any creditor holds collateral security of less value than his debt, the value thereof may be estimated by the assignee, and only the difference between such sum and the debt shall be allowed.

Unmatured claims discounted and collateral securities estimated on proof of claim. Ib.

Article 87. [66] The asylums heretofore established by law and any others that may hereafter be established for the care and treatment of insane persons, shall be managed and controlled in accordance with the provisions of this title.

Lunatic asylum recognized and continued. (Act 1883, p. 103.)

THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

Art. 88. The general control, management and direction of the affairs of the Texas asylums for the insane shall be vested in boards of managers, to be styled, the boards of managers of the lunatic asylums, subject only to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the legislature. Three of the members of each board shall reside within five miles of their respective asylums.

Board of managers provided for. Ib.

Art. 89. [67] The governor shall appoint for each lunatic asylum a board of managers consisting of five members, who shall hold their office for two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and whenever a vacancy occurs in said boards it shall be filled by the governor, and the term of office of the person so appointed shall be for the unexpired term of the person whose place is made vacant. The board of managers shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

Board of managers, how constituted. Ib.

Compensation of members of board.
Ib.

Art. 90. [68] Each of the members of the boards of managers shall be paid five dollars per day and five cents a mile for going and returning from the asylums for the purpose of holding their monthly meetings provided for by this act, and no member shall be paid, except in case of his actual attendance on said meetings, and the certificate of the president of the boards of managers, approved by the superintendent, shall be a sufficient voucher for the comptroller to draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the amount due each member of said board for his attendance on said meetings; provided, no meeting shall be for a longer time than one day.

Organization of the board.
(Act Feb. 5, 1853, p. 114, §3, p. 116, §6.)
P. D. 114, 118.

Art. 91. [69] The boards of managers shall choose one of their number president, and the superintendent of the asylum shall be ex officio secretary of the board. A majority of the members of the boards shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Meetings and records of the boards.
(Act 1853, R. S., p. 103.)

Art. 92. [70] The boards of managers shall hold monthly meetings at the asylums, and a full account of all their acts and proceedings shall be recorded by the secretary in a book to be provided for that purpose.

Powers of the board.
Ib.

Art. 93. [71] The members of said boards of managers shall be persons distinguished for their philanthropy, and when appointed in accordance with this act, they shall have the general direction and control of all the property and business of the asylums, in accordance with the requirements of law, and in all those cases not provided for by law they shall have such direction and control of the property and business of the asylums according to the by-laws, rules and regulations of the asylums. They may take and hold in trust any gift or devise of real or personal estate for the benefit of the said asylums, and apply the same as the donor or deviser may direct.

Same subject.
Ib.

Art. 94. [72] The board of managers shall have power—

1. To make all necessary by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, for the government of their institutions, officers, employes and inmates, and for the admission of visitors.

2. To determine the salaries and wages of all officers and employes of the asylums.

3. To discharge, upon the recommendation of the superintendent, any officer, employe or patient in the asylums.

4. Upon the nomination of the superintendents, to appoint the assistant physician, steward, matron and apothecary to the asylums.

5. To examine the accounts and vouchers of the superintendents and to reject or approve the same as they may deem right and proper.

6. To exercise a careful supervision over the general operations and expenditures of the asylums, and to direct the manner in which their revenues shall be disbursed.

7. They shall also cause to be kept a clinical record of all cases admitted in the asylums.

Monthly inspections.
Ib.

Art. 95. [73] The managers shall maintain an effective inspection of their asylums, a committee for which purpose shall visit them once every month, a majority once every quarter and the whole board once a year, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws. In a book kept by the managers for this purpose, the visiting manager or managers shall note the date of each visit, the condition of the house, patients, etc., with remarks of commendation or censure, and all the managers present shall sign the same.

Art. 96. [74] The general result of these inspections, with suitable hints and suggestions, shall be inserted in the biennial report detailing the past year's operations and actual state of the asylums, which the boards shall make to the legislature in the month of January of each alternate year, accompanied by the report of the medical superintendents and stewards.

Annual reports by the board.
Ib.

Art. 96a. The members of the board of managers of the Southwest Texas lunatic asylum, situated at San Antonio, Texas, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease, or dispose of the water belonging to the state, and flowing from any of the artesian wells on the grounds of said asylum, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem to be the best interest of the state; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years.

Board authorized to dispose of artesian water. (Act 1893, p. 20.)

Art. 96b. The members of the board of managers of the state lunatic asylum, situated at Austin, Texas, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease or dispose of the water belonging to the state, and flowing from any of the artesian wells on the grounds of said asylum, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem to be the best interest of the state; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years.

Same. (Act 1895, p. 107.)

II. THE SUPERINTENDENTS.

Art. 97. [75] The boards of managers of the lunatic asylums shall elect a medical superintendent of their respective asylums, who shall hold his office for two years. He shall be a married man, a skillful physician, and also be experienced in the treatment of insanity. He shall reside at the asylum with his family, and he shall devote his whole time exclusively to the duties of his office.

Their appointment, term, etc. (Act 1885, p. 9.)

Art. 98. [77] The superintendent shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath prescribed by the constitution for all officers of the state, and shall enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the treasurer of the state, payable to the state, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as superintendent.

Oath and bond. (Act Aug. 28, 1856, p. 60, §64.) (Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 116.) P. D. 111, 118.

Art. 99. [78] The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be filed in the office of the treasurer of the state, and shall not become void upon a first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the full penalty is recovered. And certified copies of such bond, under the hand and official seal of the state treasurer, may be used in evidence in all courts and proceedings in this state with like effect as the original.

Bond, where filed, etc.

Art. 100. [79] The boards of managers shall have power to remove the superintendent for good and sufficient cause only.

Removal of superintendent. (Acts 1883, p. 103.)

Art. 101. [80] The superintendent shall be the chief executive medical and disbursing officer of the institution, and, subject to the by-laws, shall have general care and control over everything connected therewith. He shall attend to the enforcement of the laws of this state relating to the asylums and the by-laws of the institution, and shall take care that all employes connected therewith diligently and faithfully perform the duties assigned to them; and it shall be his duty to admit any of the board of managers into every part of the asylum, and to exhibit to him or them on demand all the books, papers and accounts belonging to the institution or pertaining to its business, management, discipline or government, also to furnish copies, abstracts and reports whenever required by the board.

Same subject.
Ib. p. 116.
P. D. 118.

Art. 102. [81] The superintendent shall also, with the consent of the board of managers, employ such officers, attendants and other persons as may be required for the service of the institution, and with like consent may discharge them at pleasure. He shall also receive and discharge patients, superintend repairs and improvements, and take care that all moneys intrusted to him are judiciously and economically expended.

Accounts and reports of superintendent.
Ib.
P. D. 118.
(Const., art. 4, §24.)

Art. 103. [82] The superintendent shall keep also an accurate and detailed account of all moneys received and expended by him, specifying the sources from which such moneys were received, and to whom and on what account paid out; and on the first days of January and July of each year he shall report the same under oath to the governor.

Same subject.
(Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 116, §7.)
P. D. 119.

Art. 104. [83] The superintendent shall also keep a register of all patients received into the asylum and discharged therefrom, together with a full record of all the operations of the institution; and on the first day of November of each year he shall report such operations in full to the governor, accompanied with such suggestions and recommendations concerning the management and operations of the asylum as he may deem important.

Annual inventory.
Ib. p. 116, §6.
P. D. 118.

Art. 105. [84] On the first day of November of each year the superintendent shall cause an inventory of all the personal property belonging to the asylum to be prepared, in which inventory the estimated value shall be set opposite each article, and shall submit the same to the board of managers.

III. FISCAL MANAGEMENT.

Officer not to deal with asylum.
(Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 120, §23.)
P. D. 135.

Art. 106. [85] No manager or other person connected with the asylums shall sell or be in any way concerned in the sale of any merchandise, supplies or other articles to the asylums, or have any interest in any contract therewith.

Asylum money to remain in the treasury.

Art. 107. [86] The appropriations made from time to time by the legislature for the support and maintenance of the asylums shall remain on deposit in the state treasury and be paid out, as are other public funds, upon the warrant of the comptroller of public accounts.

Board may regulate expenditures.

Art. 108. [87] The boards of managers may adopt such regulations as they deem proper and necessary for the payment of expenses other than salaries, the supplies provided for in chapter three of this title, and such other expenditures as may be regulated by law; but under such regulations no money appropriated by law shall be drawn from the treasury except upon vouchers specifying in detail the exact purpose for which the same is needed, certified as true and correct by the superintendents and approved by the presidents of the boards of managers.

Funds from outside sources, how disposed of.

Art. 109. [88] All funds of every character received into or belonging to the asylums, other than the sums of money appropriated for their support from time to time by the legislature, shall, as soon as received, be paid over to the state treasurer by the superintendents or other person receiving it, and the treasurer shall keep the same separate and apart from all other funds in his hands, and shall pay the same out only on the order of the superintendents, approved by the presidents of the boards of managers.

Art. 110. [89] The order mentioned in the preceding article shall specify on its face the purpose for which it is drawn and shall be deemed a sufficient voucher for the payment of the amount of money therein specified.

Requisites of the order.

Art. 111. [90] The treasurer of the state shall keep an exact account of the moneys received by him belonging to the asylums, from what source received, and to whom paid out and on what account, and to each annual report that he may be required to make by law to the governor or the legislature he shall append a full report of his account with the asylum, showing the receipts and expenditures thereof for the year for which such report is made.

Duties of the treasurer.

IV. ADMISSION AND DISCHARGE OF PATIENTS.

Art. 112. [91] The following persons may be admitted into the asylums as patients:

Who may be admitted.
(Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 117, §13.)
P. D. 125.

1. All persons who have been adjudged insane by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state and ordered to be conveyed to the asylum. This class shall be known as public patients.

2. All persons who may be certified to be insane by some respectable physician, under the regulations hereinafter prescribed. This class shall be known as private patients.

Art. 113. [92] Before any person can be received as a patient under paragraph 2 of the preceding article, the parent or legal guardian of such person, or, in case he has no parent or legal guardian, then some near relative or other person interested in him must present a written request to the superintendent for his admission, setting forth the name, age and residence of the lunatic, together with such other particulars as may be required by the superintendent or the by-laws of the institution, which written request must be under oath of the party presenting it, and be accompanied with the affidavit of the physician certifying to the insanity that he has made careful examination of the person for whom admission is applied for and verily believes him to be insane.

Procedure for admission of private patients.
Ib.

Art. 114. [93] The application referred to in the preceding article must also be accompanied by a certificate from the county judge of the county where the lunatic resides, that the physician certifying to the insanity of the person is a respectable physician in regular practice, which certificate of the county judge must be attested by the seal of the county court of his county.

County judge must certify.
Ib.

Art. 115. [94] All indigent public patients shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the state.

Indigent patients at state expense.
(Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, §4.)

Art. 116. [95] All public patients not indigent shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the state in the first instance, but in such cases the state shall be entitled to reimbursement in the mode pointed out in articles 136 and 137 of this chapter.

Public patients also, but state may be reimbursed.

Art. 117. [96] All private patients shall be kept and maintained at the asylum at their own expense or the expense of their relatives or friends, and for the board of such patients the superintendent may make a special contract at a rate of not less than five dollars per week; and at the time of the admission of any such patient into the asylum his board must be paid in advance for six months, and bond and security given for the prompt payment of all future expenses of such patient as may from time to time be required by the by-laws of the institution.

Private patients at their own expense.
(Act Feb. 5, 1858, pp. 117-18, §13.)
P. D. 125.
(Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, §9.)

Preferences in admission.
(Acts of 1853,
p. 105.)

Art. 118. [97] If application be made for the admission of more patients than can be accommodated in the asylum, preference shall be given, in all instances, to public over private patients, and of the former class to cases of less than one year's duration over chronic cases, and to indigent patients over others possessed of property, and no private patients shall be admitted during pendency of an application by a public patient, nor shall any public non-indigent patient be admitted during the pendency of an application by an indigent public patient.

Idiots, etc., not to be admitted.

(Act Feb. 5,
1858, p. 117,
§12.)

P. D. 124.

Discharge of patients.

(Act Feb. 5,
1858, p. 118,
§§11, 15.)

127.

P. D. 128.

Art. 119. [98] No idiot who can be safely kept in the county to which he belonged, nor any person laboring under a contagious or infectious disease, shall be received into the asylum as a patient.

Art. 120. [99] Any patient, except such as are charged with or convicted of some offense, and have been adjudged insane in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, may be discharged from the asylum at any time upon the recommendation of the superintendent, approved by the board of managers. Any patient coming within the above exception can only be discharged by order of the court by which he was committed.

Same subject.

(Act Feb. 5,
1858, p. 118,
§16.)

P. D. 128.

Art. 121. [100] No patient shall be discharged without suitable clothing and sufficient money to pay his necessary expenses home; and when a patient is discharged uncured, he shall be provided with a suitable guard and conveyed to his friends or to the county from which he was sent.

State to pay expenses, etc., of convict discharged.
(Acts of 1895,
p. 164.)

Art. 122. [101a] When a convict shall be discharged from one of the state penitentiaries, and is insane at the time of his discharge, and it shall be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction within thirty days after his discharge that said convict is insane and that he should be placed under restraint, he shall be delivered to the superintendent of the penitentiaries, or to one of the assistant superintendents of the penitentiary, to be conveyed to one of the lunatic asylums of this state by said superintendent or under his direction; and the expenses incurred in said adjudication and in keeping and conveying such patient to the asylum, including such clothing as shall be necessary for his comfort, shall be paid by the state upon the certificate of the superintendent of the penitentiary.

County to pay
conveying public patients.

(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 140,
§6.)

County to be reimbursed,
when.

Art. 123. [101] The expenses of conveying all public patients to the asylum shall be borne by the counties, respectively, from which they are sent, and said counties shall pay the same upon the sworn account of the officer or person performing such service, showing in detail the actual expenses incurred in the transportation.

Art. 124. [102] In case any public patient is possessed of property sufficient for the purpose, or any person legally liable for his support is so possessed of property, the county paying the expenses of such transportation shall be entitled to reimbursement out of the estate of the lunatic or the property of the person legally liable for his support, which may be recovered by the county in an ordinary action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Transportation home by the state.

(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 140,
§6.)

Escape from asylum.

(Act Feb. 5,
1858, p. 119,
§22.)

P. D. 133.

Art. 125. [103] The expense of conveying to their homes public patients discharged from the asylums, and the necessary clothing furnished to them at the time of their discharge, shall be paid by the state.

Art. 126. [104] If any person confined in the asylum shall escape therefrom, it shall be the duty of any sheriff or peace officer to apprehend and detain him and to report the same to the county judge of the county, and also to the superintendent of the asylum, and upon the order of either to convey such patient back to the asylum.

Art. 127. [105] Any officer who may convey a patient to the asylum in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be paid for such service out of the funds of the asylum, at the rate of ten cents per mile for himself and each necessary guard he may employ, going and returning, and the same for the patient going, the distance to be determined by the superintendent, according to the most direct traveled route.

Fees for apprehending-
(Act Feb. 5,
1858, pp. 119-
20, §22.)
P. D. 134.

V. OF JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS IN CASES OF LUNACY.

Art. 128. [106] If information, in writing and under oath, be given to any county judge that any person in his county is a lunatic or non compos mentis, and that the welfare of himself or of others requires that he be placed under restraint, and said county judge shall believe such information to be true, he shall forthwith issue his warrant for the apprehension of such person, and shall fix a day for the hearing and determination of the matter.

Apprehension of lunatics.
(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 138,
§1.)

Art. 129. [107] The warrant provided for in the preceding article shall run in the name of the "State of Texas," shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and the officer receiving it shall forthwith take into his custody the person named therein, and at the designated time have him before the county judge for trial and examination.

The writ and its requisites.

Art. 130. [108] At the time of issuing the warrant mentioned in the preceding article the county judge shall also issue an order to the sheriff or constable, directing him to summon a jury of six competent jurors of the county to be and appear before such judge at the time and place designated in said order, for the hearing and determination of the matter.

Jury to be summoned.
(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 138,
§1.)
5, §17.)

Art. 131. [109] The cause shall be docketed on the probate docket of the court in the name of the state of Texas as plaintiff, and of the person charged to be insane as defendant. The county attorney shall appear and represent the state on the hearing, and the defendant shall also be entitled to counsel; and in proper cases the county judge may appoint counsel for that purpose.

Cause to be docketed, etc.
(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 138,
§1.)

Art. 132. [110] At the time appointed for the hearing, or at any other time to which the proceeding may have been postponed, the cause shall be called for trial and a jury of six men impaneled, to whom shall be administered the following oath:

Jury impaneled and sworn.

"You and each of you do solemnly swear (or affirm) that upon all the issues about to be submitted to you in the matter of the state of Texas against A B, you will a true verdict render according to the evidence, so help you God."

Art. 133. [111] After the evidence is heard the county judge shall submit the matter to the jury upon the following special issues:

Special issues to be submitted.
(Act Aug. 15,
1876, p. 138,
§§1-2.

1. Is A B, the defendant, of unsound mind?
2. If the defendant is of unsound mind, is it necessary that he should be placed under restraint?
3. If you answer both the foregoing questions in the affirmative, then what is the age and nativity of the defendant?
4. How many attacks of insanity has he had, and how long has the present attack existed?
5. Is insanity hereditary in the family of defendant or not?

6. Is defendant possessed of any estate, and if so of what does it consist and its estimated value?

7. If the defendant is possessed of no estate, are there any persons legally liable for his support? If yea, name them.

Verdict.

Art. 134. [112] The jury shall return plain answers in writing to the issues named in the preceding article, but if they find either the first or second issue in the negative, they need not determine further, and the defendant shall be discharged.

Judgment.

Art. 135. [113] Upon return of a verdict finding that the defendant is of unsound mind, and that it is necessary that he be placed under restraint, judgment shall be entered adjudging the defendant to be a lunatic, and ordering him to be conveyed to the lunatic asylum for restraint and treatment.

Reimbursement to the state from lunatics not indigent.

Art. 136. [114] The special issues submitted to the jury, with the answers thereto, shall be incorporated in the judgment, and if it be found that the defendant is possessed of property, or that some other person is legally liable for his support, the county judge may, from time to time, upon request of the superintendent of the lunatic asylum, cite the guardian of such lunatic, or other person legally liable for his support, to appear at some regular term of the county court for civil business, then and there to show cause why the state should not have judgment for the amount due it for the support and maintenance of such lunatic, and if sufficient cause be not shown judgment may be entered against such guardian or other person for the amount found to be due the state, which judgment may be enforced as in other cases.

Limitation as to amount and procedure.

Art. 137. [115] The state, in cases provided for in the preceding article, shall in no instance recover more than five dollars per week for the support of any lunatic, and the certificate of the superintendent of the lunatic asylum as to the amount due shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the court to render judgment.

County attorney to represent state.

Art. 138. [116] The county attorney shall appear and represent the state in all cases provided for in the two preceding articles.

Warrant to convey lunatic to asylum. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, §3.)

Art. 139. [117] Immediately after any person is adjudged a lunatic, the county judge shall communicate with the superintendent of the asylum, and, if notified by the latter that there is a vacancy in the institution or that the patient can be accommodated, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff or some other suitable person, directing him to convey the lunatic to the asylum without delay, which warrant shall prescribe the number of guards to be allowed, in no case to exceed two, and shall be executed with all convenient dispatch.

Art. 140. [118] No warrant to convey a lunatic to the asylum shall issue if some relative or friend of the lunatic will undertake, before the county judge, his care and restraint, and will execute a bond in a sum to be fixed by the county judge, payable to the state, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that the party giving such bond will restrain and take proper care of the lunatic so long as his mental unsoundness continues, or until he is delivered to the sheriff of the county or other person, to be proceeded with according to law; which bond shall be filed with and constitute a part of the record of the proceeding, and may be sued and recovered upon by any party injured, in his own name.

Record made up and forwarded. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, pp. 138-9, §§1, 3.)

Art. 141. [119] The proceedings in any inquisition of lunacy shall be entered of record in the probate minutes of the county court by the clerk thereof, and before any patient is sent to the asylum the county judge shall cause a complete transcript of the proceedings to be made up and certified by the clerk of the county court under the seal of said court, which transcript he shall forward by mail to the superintendent of the asylum.

Art. 142. [120] Before sending any patient to the asylum, the county judge shall take care that the patient is provided with two full suits of substantial summer clothing and one full suit of substantial winter clothing.

Suitable clothing to be provided. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, §3.)

I. BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Article 143. [121] The general control, management and direction of the affairs, property and business of the deaf and dumb asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb and blind asylum for colored youths, the orphan asylum, and the Texas confederate home, shall be vested in a board of managers for each, to be styled "the board of trustees of the deaf and dumb asylum," and "the board of trustees of the blind asylum," and "the board of trustees of the deaf, dumb and blind asylum for colored youths," and "the board of trustees of the orphan asylum," and "the board of trustees of the Texas confederate home," respectively. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to each of said asylums, except where they conflict with special provisions relating to particular asylums.

Board of trustees.

Art. 144. [122] The governor shall appoint a board of trustees for each, consisting of five members each, who shall hold their office for two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and whenever a vacancy occurs in said board, it shall be filled by the governor, and the term of office of the person so appointed shall be for the unexpired term of the person whose place is made vacant. The appointment of said board shall be by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

Boards, how constituted. (Acts of 1883, p. 109.)

Art. 145. [123] Each board of trustees shall choose one of its members as president, and the superintendent of the asylum to which it pertains shall be ex officio the secretary of the board, and shall keep a true record of all its acts and proceedings. A majority of each board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

Organization of the boards.

Meetings of the boards.

Art. 146. [124] The boards of trustees shall hold quarterly meetings at their respective asylums, and at such other times as they may be called together by their president, or the by-laws of the institution may prescribe.

Powers of the boards.
(Act March 6,
1875, p. 66, §2.)

Art. 147. [125] The boards of trustees shall have power—

1. To examine and pass upon all accounts and expenditures of the superintendent, and to approve or disapprove the same.

2. To make all contracts and necessary arrangements for the erection of any buildings, or the making of any improvements, upon the grounds of the asylum.

Shall control appropriation for improvements.
Ib. §3.

Art. 148. [126] All moneys appropriated by the legislature for the erection of buildings, or the making of other improvements upon the grounds of either asylum, shall be subject to requisition by the board of trustees of such asylum, for the actual amount necessary to pay for such buildings or improvements; but no money shall be drawn from the treasury for such purpose until the work is completed and finally accepted by the board of trustees.

Itemized account to be filed.
Ib.

Art. 149. [127] In cases provided for in the preceding article the board of trustees shall file with the comptroller a statement of the work done, together with an itemized account of the cost of the same, and thereafter the comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer, in favor of such board of trustees, for the amount specified.

Duplicate receipts to be taken.
Ib.

Art. 150. [128] The board of trustees shall take receipts in duplicate for all moneys paid out under the two preceding articles, one of which shall be filed with the comptroller of public accounts.

Reports of the trustees.
(Acts of 1833,
p. 103.)

Art. 151. [129] On the first of January of each year the board of trustees shall report in writing to the legislature the general operations of their respective asylums for the past two years, and accompany the same with such suggestions as they may deem important to the welfare of the institution.

The compensation of trustees.
Ib.

Art. 152. [130a] The members of each board of trustees shall be paid five dollars each per day, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile in going to and returning from their respective asylums, for their services in attending the quarterly meetings provided for in article 146; provided, that no member shall draw pay for said quarterly meetings unless he shall have actually attended said meeting; and provided further, that no member can draw pay under this article for more than one day's attendance upon said quarterly meeting, and the certificate of the president of the board, approved by the superintendent, shall be sufficient evidence upon which the comptroller can draw a warrant upon the treasurer of the state to pay the amount provided for in this article.

II. THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Appointment of superintendent and term of office.
Ib.

Art. 153. [130] The board of trustees of each of said asylums respectively shall elect a superintendent of each of said asylums, who shall hold his office for the period of two years. Each of said superintendents shall have had special advantages and practical experience in the management of the persons committed to his charge by virtue of his appointment.

Oath and bond.
Ib.

Art. 154. [131] The superintendent of each of said asylums shall, within twenty days after notification of his appointment, enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the state, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of said office; and he shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution, which oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Art. 155. [132] The board of trustees of each of said asylums shall have power to remove the superintendent for good cause only.

Removal of superintendent.
Ib.

Art. 156. [133] The superintendent shall be the administrative head of the asylum for which he is appointed, and shall have the power—

Powers of superintendent.
(Act March 6, 1875, p. 67., §84, 5.)

1. To establish such rules and regulations for the government of the institution as, in his judgment, will best promote the interest and welfare of all who may be placed in his charge.

2. Where not otherwise provided by law, to appoint the subordinate officers, the necessary number of teachers and all other employes, and, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, to fix their salaries.

3. To remove at his discretion any officer, teacher or employe who does not discharge his duty, or whose conduct may be such as to endanger the morals of the pupils or the best interests of the asylum.

Art. 157. [134] The superintendent shall also have the care and custody of the buildings, grounds, furniture and other property pertaining to the asylum, and shall act as the general financier and purchasing agent of the asylum for all supplies not furnished by contract in accordance with the provisions of chapter three of this title.

Same subject.
Ib.

Art. 158. [135] At each regular meeting of the board of trustees the superintendent shall present an itemized account of all receipts and expenditures by him on account of the asylum, which account shall be verified by his own affidavit; and for any expenses other than the supplies provided for in chapter three of this title the comptroller shall not draw his warrant upon the treasurer unless the account upon which such warrant is drawn is certified as correct and just by the superintendent and is approved by the president of the board of trustees.

Report of receipts and expenditures.
Ib.

Art. 159. [136] On the first days of January and July of each year the superintendent of each asylum shall report to the governor, under oath, a full statement of all moneys and choses in action received by him and disbursed or otherwise disposed of; and on the first day of November of each year he shall make his annual report to the governor, showing in detail the operations of the institution for the year, accompanied with such suggestions and recommendations as he may deem important to the well being of the institution over which he presides.

Reports of superintendent.
(Const., Art. 4, §24.)

III. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Art. 160. [137] The board of trustees and the superintendent shall appoint an oculist for the blind asylum, who shall be skilled in his profession and a married man, and who shall attend regularly at the asylum and administer treatment to all cases of blindness among its pupils deemed curable.

Appointment of oculist and qualifications.
(Acts of 1883, p. 109, Amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478.)

Art. 161. [138] The oculist shall hold his office for the period of two years, and the board of managers and the superintendent may remove him for good cause only.

Removal of oculist.
Ib.

Art. 162. [139] A certain number of the pupils at the deaf and dumb asylum, to be designated by the superintendent and trustees of that institution, shall each year receive instruction in the art of printing in all its branches, and the studies of such pupils shall be so arranged as not to interfere with such instruction and the execution of any public printing by them for the state.

Instructor, how appointed.
Ib. §1.

Art. 163. [140] The board of public printing shall employ some competent practical printer as an instructor at said asylum in the art of printing, and the person so employed shall, in addition, discharge such other duties as may be required of him by such board.

His salary and removal.
Ib.

Art. 164. [141] The instructor provided for in the preceding article may be paid a compensation not to exceed one thousand dollars annually, and may be discharged at any time by the board of public printing.

Public printing at asylum.
Ib.
(Act June 27,
1876, p. 35,
§7.)

Art. 165. [142] Any public printing for the state may be executed at the deaf and dumb asylum, without regard to any contract with an individual to do the public printing thereof.

IV. ORPHAN ASYLUM.

Superintendent appointed and duties.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 129.)

Art. 166. The board of trustees of the orphan asylum shall appoint a superintendent of said asylum, upon the nomination of the governor, whose duties of office shall be the supervision of the affairs of said asylum, keeping the accounts of the same, and its general management, under the direction of the board of managers.

Children admitted, when.
Ib.

Art. 167. Said board of managers shall admit all children under the age of fourteen years, subject only to such restrictions as they may deem requisite to the welfare and good government of said asylum.

List of children to be made, etc.
Ib.

Art. 168. In addition to the other duties of said superintendent, he shall keep a carefully prepared list containing the names and ages of each and every child, as well as such other data concerning the history of said children as the board of managers may prescribe, said lists to be recorded in a well bound book for said purpose, and subject to the inspection of all persons who may desire to examine its contents. He shall annually deliver over to the proper authorities a list of all children within the scholastic age, and see that their pro rata of the public free school fund is set aside to their credit, and that they are provided with proper educational facilities. He shall promptly answer all inquiries, by correspondence or otherwise, concerning the orphans under his charge, and promptly inform the board of managers when an opportunity is presented to secure a good and permanent home for any child under his charge.

from, how.
Ib.

Art. 169. No person shall be permitted to remove a child from said asylum except under such lawful rules and regulations as the board of managers may adopt, and in no case shall a child be removed therefrom by any person other than the natural guardian of said child, or the duly qualified guardian of the person of such child, or the parent of said child by adoption.

Salary of superintendent.
Ib.

Art. 170. The superintendent of said asylum shall receive such salary each year as may be provided by the board of managers. In no case shall such salary be fixed at an amount exceeding one thousand dollars per annum.

Matron's
salary, etc.
Ib.

Art. 171. There shall be a matron of said asylum to be chosen by the superintendent, with the consent of the board of managers, whose salary shall not exceed forty-five dollars per month.

Board to dispose of artesian water.
(Acts 1895,
p. 15.)

Art. 171a. The board of managers of the State Orphans Home, situated at Corsicana, Texas, be and are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease or dispose of the surplus water belonging to the state, and flowing from the artesian well on the grounds of said orphans' home, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem best; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years.

V. CONFEDERATE HOME.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

Art. 172. The governor shall appoint a board of five ex-confederate soldiers for the management of said home, said managers to remain in office two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and they shall be governed in their regulations of the affairs of said home by the laws now in existence relative to the deaf, dumb and blind institutions of this state, so far as the same may be applicable, and shall make and prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the internal government, discipline and management of the home, and shall have power to enforce obedience to and compliance with said rules and regulations by discharging from the home, if in its judgment it be necessary, any inmate who may violate said rules and regulations; and said board shall be required to make such examinations from time to time as it may deem necessary, as to the qualifications and record as a soldier in the confederate army or navy of any inmate, and to discharge at once any said inmates who procured admission to the home by fraud or misrepresentation; and said board shall every three months cause to be examined by a board of physicians consisting of the home physician and two others not connected with the home, any inmate who may be designated by the superintendent and the home physician, or by any member of the board of managers, as to the physical condition of such inmate, and if it be shown from said examination and report of said examining board that any inmate so examined has sufficiently recovered from his disabilities to be able to earn a living, such inmate shall be given an honorable discharge from the home, with transportation to the place from which he entered the home; provided, however, that such inmate be given twenty days notice of his dismissal, and that he be subject to all the rules and regulations governing the home during said twenty days, or such part of that time as he may remain in the home after said notice of dismissal be given. The two physicians assisting the home physician in such examinations shall be selected by the board of managers, and they shall be paid for such service two dollars and fifty cents each for each examination made by them; and that said board of managers shall also have charge of all the property received from the John B. Hood camp confederate veterans, or from any other source, for the maintenance of said home. Said board of managers shall make annual reports to the governor on the first day of each December, embracing a full statement of all expenditures and transactions of the institution for the fiscal year next preceding. They shall visit the home at least once each month.

Board of managers, term of office, duties, etc.

SUPERINTENDENT.

Art. 173. The said board of managers shall appoint a superintendent, who shall be an ex-confederate soldier, whose duties of office shall be the supervision of the affairs of said home, keeping the accounts of the same, and its general management, under the direction of the board of managers. He shall be under the control of and subject to removal (for cause, duly spread upon the records of said home) by said board, and unless sooner removed by said board, for cause, shall hold his office for the term of two years, or until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

In addition to his other duties he shall keep in a book prepared for that purpose the name and age of each inmate, date of admission to the home, the company and regiment or other command or capacity, in which the military service was performed, and the state from which he entered the service, and such other data concerning the history of the inmates as the board of managers may prescribe.

The superintendent of said home shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION, ETC.

Applications for admission, etc.
Ib.; amend., 1896, p. 42.

Art. 174. All applications for admission to said home must show on the oath of applicant—

1. Name of applicant.
2. His age.
3. His residence (county and postoffice address).
4. The company, regiment, brigade and army in which he served.
5. That he is disabled and indigent, and is not receiving a pension from any source, and is now a bona fide citizen of Texas. And further (if he did not serve in a Texas command) that he was a bona fide resident of Texas on January first, 1895. Proof of the honorable service of applicant, as stated by himself, must be made by affidavit of two reputable persons, or by his written discharge, duly authenticated with sufficient proof of identity, or such other proof in manner and form as may be entirely satisfactory to the board of managers. The application must also be accompanied by a certificate of a regular practicing physician that the applicant is unable to provide a support for himself, giving the character of the disability, and that the applicant is not a lunatic and is not afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease.

All applications for admission to said home shall be referred to and passed upon by the board of managers.

VI. DEAF, DUMB, AND BLIND ASYLUM FOR COLORED YOUTHS.

Qualification and term of office of the superintendent for the asylum for colored youths.
(Acts of 1887, p. 150.)

Art. 175. The board of trustees of this asylum shall appoint a superintendent of said asylum, whose salary shall be fifteen hundred dollars per year. Said superintendent shall be a man of mature years and experience and familiar with the duties of the position to which he may be elected. He shall be under the control of and subject to removal by said board, and unless sooner removed by said board for cause shall hold his office for a term of two years.

Powers and duties of board of trustees, and regulations for asylum.
Ib.

Art. 176. The board of trustees shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the government of said asylum, said rules and regulations to comport as nearly as may be practicable with the rules and regulations of the asylums for like purposes in this state. Said board of trustees shall prescribe the duties of all subordinate officers or assistants in said asylum; shall appoint and may remove all such officers or assistants, determine their duties and their compensation; but said rules, appointments, and compensation shall not be in force until approved by the governor. The admission of all applicants to said asylum, their treatment, instruction, and continuance therein, all questions relating to their dismissal or removal, or voluntary departure from said asylum, or employment therein or thereabout, shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the state asylums for white youths for the deaf and dumb and blind.

Article 177. [143] The comptroller shall, on the first day of August of each year, and quarterly thereafter, advertise for sealed proposals for furnishing to the superintendents of the lunatic, deaf and dumb, and blind asylums certain supplies as hereinafter named, for two weeks in such daily newspapers, not exceeding three in number, in Texas, as he may select for that purpose; provided, if a daily newspaper is published at or near the town or city where either of said asylums are situated, one paper shall be selected from said town or city, provided said paper charges the same price for advertising said bids as are charged by other papers selected prior to the day of opening said bids. Such advertisements shall state the articles for which bids shall be received, and bids shall be made separately as hereinafter named.

Art. 178. [144] Each bid shall be secured with such bond as the comptroller may require, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the state, conditioned that the party to whom any contract may be awarded shall faithfully carry out the terms of the contract, and shall be liable to the state for any default of the same.

Art. 179. [145] On the day for opening said bids, the comptroller shall open the same in the presence of the board of trustees, or such of them as may be present, and shall award to the lowest responsible bidder, the contract or contracts for which he may have bid; provided, that he may reject any or all bids if in his judgment the interests of the state demands it.

Art. 180. [146] All bids shall be made for the term of three months, beginning September first of each year and quarterly thereafter.

Art. 181. [147] All supplies shall be furnished in accordance with contract, beginning September first and quarterly thereafter; and it shall be the duty of the superintendents of the several asylums herein named, on the first day of August, November, February and May of each year, to make out detailed estimates of such supplies as they will require for the ensuing three months, beginning on the first day of the following month, and to submit the same in duplicate to the board of trustees of their respective asylums. It is hereby made the duty of said board to immediately examine said estimates and to approve the same, or any part thereof, as they may think necessary.

Art. 182. [148] Bids shall be made for the articles hereinafter named separately, to-wit: Bids for fresh beef; bids for bacon and lard; bids for flour; bids for rice, peas, beans, grits and hominy; bids for soap, coarse and fine salt, vinegar, starch, soda, pepper and baking powders; bids for coffee and tea; bids for white and brown sugar; bids for molasses; bids for mackerel, prunes and dried apples, kraut, brooms, candles and oil, canned goods, alcoholic stim-

Ib. §7.

Art. 183. [149] The superintendents of the several asylums shall give an itemized receipt for all the articles delivered by the contractors of the same, and when approved by the board of trustees the comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the amount, which amount shall be charged to the appropriate appropriations for the asylums furnished.

Itemized estimates to be filed with comptroller.
Ib. pp. 218-19, §8.

Art. 184. [150] The superintendents of the several asylums shall furnish to the comptroller a copy of the estimates that they may require for the ensuing three months, which shall be kept by him for the inspection of the public. Said estimates shall be itemized, stating the quantity and quality of articles needed, and as far as practicable the brands. The estimates for dry goods shall state the brands; for shoes, the quality and sizes needed; and for undershirts, the quality.

Other articles to be purchased by contract, when.
Ib. 219, §9.

Art. 185. [151] The comptroller, in advertising for bids, shall specify the quality of the articles required, and as near as can be, shall specify the brands. If the board of trustees of said asylums, or any of them, shall find that a sufficient quantity of any articles, not enumerated in article 182, shall be needed to justify its purchase by contract, it shall be their duty to report the fact to the comptroller, who shall add said item or items to any bid, as required in said article, as he may deem best.

11. That he is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or

12. That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses.

What facts must further appear.
(Act Dec. 16, 1863, p. 37.)
P. D. 142.

Art. 187. [153] The affidavit shall further state—

1. That the attachment is not sued out for the purpose of injuring or harassing the defendant; and

2. That the plaintiff will probably lose his debt unless such attachment is issued.

Not to issue until suit begun.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 165.

Art. 188. [154] No such attachment shall issue until the suit has been duly instituted, but it may be issued in a proper case either at the commencement of the suit or at any time during its progress.

Attachment may issue on debt not yet due, but no judgment until debt becomes due.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 154.

Art. 189. [155] The writ of attachment above provided for may issue, although the plaintiff's debt or demand be not due, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as in other cases, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until such debt or demand shall become due.

Plaintiff must give bond with security.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 143.

Art. 190. [156] Before the issuance of any writ of attachment the plaintiff must execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the defendant, in a sum not less than double the debt sworn to be due, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his suit to effect, and will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment.

Bond to be approved and filed.

Art. 191. [157] Such bond shall be delivered to and approved by the officer issuing the writ, and shall, together with the affidavit, be filed with the papers of the cause.

Form of bond.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 163.

Art. 192. [158] The following form of bond may be used:

"The State of Texas,

"We, the undersigned, A B, ——— as principal, and ——— and ——— as sureties, acknowledge ourselves bound to pay to C D the sum of ——— dollars, conditioned that the above bound A B, plaintiff in attachment against the said C D, defendant, will prosecute his said suit to effect, and that he will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment. Witness our hands this ——— day of ——— 18—

"A B, "E F,

"G H."

Attachment abated for want of affidavit or bond.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 147-8.

Art. 193. [159] Every original attachment issued without affidavit and bond as herein provided, shall be abated on motion of the defendant; but such affidavit and bond shall not be void for want of form; provided they contain all essential matters.

Upon execution of affidavit and bond, writ to issue instantly.
(Act March 11, 1848.)
P. D. 145.

Art. 194. [160] Upon the execution of such affidavit and bond, it shall be the duty of the judge or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, immediately to issue a writ of attachment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county where property of the defendant may be supposed to be, commanding him to attach so much of the property of the defendant as shall be sufficient to satisfy the demand of the plaintiff and the probable costs of the suit.

Several writs.

Art. 195. [161] Several writs of attachment may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession, and sent to different counties, until sufficient property shall be attached to satisfy the writ.

Art. 196. [162] The following form of writ may be issued:
"The State of Texas,

Form of the writ.
Ib.
P. D. 163.

"To the sheriff or any constable of _____ county, greeting:

"We command you that you attach forthwith so much of the property of C D, if to be found in your county, repleviable on security, as shall be of value sufficient to make the sum of _____ dollars, and the probable costs of suit, to satisfy the demand of A B, and that you keep and secure in your hands the property so attached, unless replevied, that the same may be liable to further proceedings thereon, to be had before our court in _____, in the county of _____, on the _____ day of _____ 18—, when and where you shall make known how you have executed this writ."

Art. 197. [163] The writ of attachment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer issuing it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Writ to be dated, tested and lodged with sheriff, etc.

Art. 198. [164] The sheriff or constable receiving the writ shall immediately proceed to execute the same by levying upon so much of the property of the defendant subject to the writ, and found within his county, as may be sufficient to satisfy the command of the writ.

Duty of sheriff, etc.
P. D. 145.

Art. 199. [165] Whenever an officer shall levy an attachment it shall be at his own risk; and such officer may, for his own indemnification, require the plaintiff in attachment to execute and deliver to him a bond of indemnity to secure him, if it should afterward appear that the property levied upon by him does not belong to the defendant.

May demand indemnity.
P. D. 151.

Art. 200. [166] The writ of attachment may be levied on such property, and none other, as is or may be by law subject to levy under the writ of execution.

Property subject to attachment.

Art. 201. [167] The writ of attachment shall be levied in the same manner as is or may be the writ of execution upon similar property.

Levy, how made.

Art. 202. [168] When personal property is attached the same shall remain in the hands of the officer attaching until final judgment, unless a claim be made thereto and bond be given to try the right to the same, or unless the same be replevied or be sold as provided by law.

Personal property to remain in the hands of officer, unless.
P. D. 145.

Art. 203. [169] Any person other than the defendant may claim the personal property so levied on, or any part thereof, upon making the affidavit and giving bond required by the provisions of the title relating to the trial of the right of property.

Claimant's bond and affidavit.
P. D. 5310.

Art. 204. [170] At any time before judgment, should the property not have been previously claimed or sold, as provided in this chapter, the defendant may replevy the same, or any part thereof, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer who levied the writ, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, or, at the defendant's option, for the value of the property replevied, to be estimated by the officer, conditioned that should the defendant be condemned in the action he shall satisfy the judgment which may be rendered therein, or shall pay the estimated value of the property with lawful interest thereon, from the date of the bond.

Replevy by the defendant.
P. D. 150.

Sale of perishable property, etc.
P. D. 155.

Art. 205. [171] Whenever personal property which has been attached shall not have been claimed or replevied as above provided, the judge or justice of the peace out of whose court the writ was issued may, either in term time or in vacation, order the same to be sold, when it shall be made to appear that such property is in danger of serious and immediate waste or decay, or that the keeping of the same until the trial will necessarily be attended with such expense or deterioration in value as greatly to lessen the amount likely to be realized therefrom.

Procedure for sale of perishable property, etc.

Art. 206. [172] In ascertaining the facts which authorize the making of such order of sale under the preceding article, the judge or justice of the peace, as the case may be, may require or dispense with notice to the parties, and may act upon such information, by affidavit, certificate of the attaching officer, or other proof as may seem to him necessary to protect the interest of the parties.

Sale of perishable property, how made.
P. D. 155.

Art. 207. [173] Such sale shall be conducted in the same manner as sales of personal property under execution, except as to the time of advertisement, which may be fixed by the judge or the justice for a shorter period, according to the exigency of the case.

Return of sale of perishable property, etc.
P. D. 155.

Art. 208. [174] The proceeds of such sale shall, within five days thereafter, be paid over by the officer making the sale to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, as the case may be, accompanied by a statement in writing, signed by such officer officially, to be filed with the papers, stating the time and place of the sale, the name of the purchaser, and the amount received, with an itemized account of the expenses attending the sale.

Judge may make necessary orders for preservation of property, not replevied, etc., of the preservation orders for property, not replevied.

Art. 209. [175] If the personal property be not replevied or claimed or sold under the several provisions of this chapter, the judge or justice of the peace, as the case may be, may, either in term time or in vacation, make such order for the preservation or use of the same as shall appear to be to the interest of the parties.

Return of the writ.

Art. 210. [176] The officer executing the writ of attachment shall return the writ, with his action indorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, to the court from which it issued, on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Requisites of the return.

Art. 211. [177] Such return shall describe the property attached with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state when the same was attached, and whether any personal property attached remains still in his hands, and if not, the disposition made of the same; and when personal property has been replevied he shall deliver the replevy bond to the clerk to be filed with the papers of the cause.

Report of disposition of property, made after return of original writ.

Art. 212. [178] When the property levied on is claimed, replevied or sold, or otherwise disposed of, after the writ has been returned, the officer having the custody of the same shall immediately make a report in writing, signed by him officially, to the clerk or justice of the peace, as the case may be, showing such disposition of the property; and such report shall be filed among the papers of the cause.

Attachment creates a lien.

Art. 213. [179] The execution of the writ of attachment upon any property of the defendant subject thereto, unless the writ should be quashed or otherwise vacated, shall create a lien from the date of such levy on the real estate levied on and on such personal property as remains in the hands of the attaching officer, and on the proceeds of such personal property as may have been sold.

Art. 214. [180] Should the plaintiff recover in the suit, such attachment lien shall be foreclosed as in case of other liens, and the court shall direct the proceeds of the personal property sold to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, and the sale of personal property remaining in the hands of the officer and of the real estate levied on, to satisfy the judgment; provided, however, that when an attachment issued from a county or justice court has been levied upon land, no order or decree foreclosing the lien thereby acquired shall be necessary, but the judgment shall briefly recite the issuance and levy of such attachment, and such recital shall be sufficient to preserve such lien. The land so attached may be sold under execution after judgment and the sale thereof shall vest in the purchaser all the estate of the defendant in attachment in such land, at the time of the levy of such writ of attachment.

Judgment of foreclosure.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 73.)

Art. 215. [181] When personal property has been levied on as hereinbefore provided, the judgment shall also be against the defendant and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such replevy bond.

Judgment
when property is re-plevied.

Art. 216. [182] Should the attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated by interlocutory judgment or order of the court, the court shall make the proper order making disposition of the property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has been sold under order of the court directing that it be turned over to the defendant.

But the property or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has not been replevied, shall remain in the hands of the officers pending the final disposition of the main case and until it shall be finally disposed of, or until the time for perfecting an appeal has elapsed and no appeal has been perfected, when said order disposing of the property shall be carried into effect; provided, that pending the final disposition of the main case the defendant shall have the right at any time to replevy the property in the same manner as is provided for in article 204 of this chapter, or if the property has been sold he may replevy the proceeds of such sale by giving a bond in double the amount of the money arising from such sale, with like conditions as are contained in article 204. And any replevy bond given in such case, whether before or after the quashing or vacating such attachment, shall be as valid and binding as if such attachment had never been quashed or vacated.

Order of court when attachment quashed;
pending appeal may be replevied.

Writ of garnishment, who may issue and when.
 P. D. 157.
 P. D. 3785.
 (Act April 20, 1874, p. 113, §1.)

Article 217. [183] The clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace may issue writs of garnishment, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. Where an original attachment has been issued as provided in the foregoing chapter.
2. Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the defendant has not, within his knowledge, property in his possession, within this state, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such debt; and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee.
3. Where the plaintiff has a judgment and makes affidavit that the defendant has not, within his knowledge, property in his possession within this state, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such judgment.

Bond when no attachment has issued and no judgment has been rendered.
 (Act April 20, 1874, p. 113, §1.)

Art. 218. [184] In the case mentioned in subdivision two of the preceding article, the plaintiff shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that he will prosecute his suit to effect and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment.

Application for the writ, etc.

Art. 219. [185] Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment the plaintiff shall make application therefor in writing, under oath, signed by him, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant, or that he has in his hands effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein.

Art. 220. [186] When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the judge, or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant; and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before the court out of which the same is issued, on the first day of the ensuing term thereof, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant, and was when such writ was served, and what effects, if any, of the defendant he has in his possession, and had when such writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the defendant or have effects belonging to him in their possession.

Case shall be docketed, etc. P. D. 157.

Art. 221. [187] Where it appears from the plaintiff's affidavit that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is the owner of shares, or is interested therein, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company, or owned when such writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, or had when such writ was served.

Requisites when writ is against incorporated or joint stock company to subject shares, etc. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 102, §§1, 2.)

Art. 222. [188] The following form of writ may be used:
"The State of Texas,

Form of writ.

"To the sheriff or any constable of ——— county, greeting:

"Whereas, in the ——— court of ——— county [if a justice's court, state also the number of the precinct], in a certain cause wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff, claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of ——— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against E F, who is alleged to be a resident of your county [or to be within your county, as the case may be]; therefore you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before the said court at the next term thereof, to be held at ———, in said county, on the ——— day of ———, 18—, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D, and was when this writ was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession, and had when this writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession [and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or interested therein, then the writ shall proceed; and further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company, and owned when such writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this writ make due return as the law directs.

Art. 223. [189] The writ of garnishment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer who issued it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Writ to be dated, tested and delivered to the sheriff, etc.

Art. 224. [190] The sheriff or constable receiving the writ of garnishment shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof as of other citations.

Sheriff, etc., to execute and return writ forthwith.

Art. 225. [191] From and after the service of such writ of garnishment it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt or to deliver to him any effects; nor shall the garnishee, if an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest; and any such payment or delivery, sale or transfer, shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, effects, shares, or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand; provided, however, that the defendant may at any time before judgment replevy any effects, debts, shares, or claims of any kind seized or garnished, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the officer who issued the writ of garnishment, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, and conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be rendered against the said garnishee in such suit, which bond when properly approved shall be filed among the papers in the cause in the court in which the suit is pending; and in all proceedings in garnishment where the defendant gives bond as herein provided for, such defendant may make any defense which the defendant in garnishment could make in such suit.

Answer to the writ must be in writing, under oath and signed.

Art. 226. [192] The answer of the garnishee shall be under oath, in writing, and signed by him, and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment.

Garnishee to be discharged on his answer, when.

Art. 227. [193] Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant, and was not so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served on him, and that he has not in his possession any effects of the defendant and had not when the writ was served; and when the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of any shares of stock or interested therein, if it shall further appear from such answer that the defendant is not and was not when the writ was served the owner of any of such shares, or interested in such company; and should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee.

Judgment by default, when. P. D. 153.

Art. 228. [194] Should the garnishee, being a resident of the county where the proceeding is pending, fail to make answer to the writ, it shall be lawful for the court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, and on or after default day, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs.

When garnishee residing in another county fails to answer, commission to issue. P. D. 167.

Art. 229. [195] If the garnishee resides in some other county than that in which the proceeding is pending, and fails to make answer to the writ, the court shall, on motion of the plaintiff, issue a commission addressed to the clerk of the district court, the county judge, the clerk of the county court, or any notary public of the county in which the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, requiring him to cite such garnishee to answer the writ of garnishment.

Form of commission.

Art. 230. [196] The following form of commission may be used: "The State of Texas,

"To the clerk of the district court, the county judge, clerk of the county court, or any notary public of _____ county, greeting:

"Whereas, on the _____ day of _____, _____, in a certain cause pending in this court, wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of _____ dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, a writ of garnishment was issued by this court against E F, of your county, which was afterward returned duly served on the —— day of ——, 18——; and whereas the said E F has failed to make answer to the said writ, now, therefore, you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F before you, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D and was when the said writ of garnishment was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession and had when the said writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; [and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, or interested therein, the commission shall proceed: and further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company and owned when the said writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in said company, and had when the said writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this commission make return forthwith.”

Art. 231. [197] The commission shall be dated and tested as writs usually are. Tested, how.

Art. 232. [198] Upon the receipt of such commission, by any of the officers named in the preceding article, he shall immediately issue a citation, directed to the sheriff or any constable of his county, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before him at a time and place to be named in the citation, to answer upon oath as directed in article 230. Duty of officer receiving commission. P. D. 167.

Art. 233. [199] The following form of writ may be used in such cases:

“The State of Texas,

“To the sheriff or any constable of —— county, greeting:

“Whereas, in a certain cause pending in the —— court of —— county [if a justice’s court state the number of the precinct], wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, wherein the plaintiff claims of the said defendant the sum of —— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, a writ of garnishment was issued against E F of your county, which was duly served upon him on the —— day of —— 18——, requiring him to answer thereto before the said court at its late term; and whereas the said garnishee has failed to answer as required by said writ, and whereas a commission has been issued by the said court and lodged in my hands, whereby I am commanded to summon the said E F before me to make such answer: therefore, you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before me, at my office in ——, on the —— day of ——, 18——, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the aforesaid C D, and was when the aforesaid writ of garnishment was so served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession and had when the said writ was so served; and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; [and if the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, or interested therein, the writ shall proceed: and further, to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company and owned when the said writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, and had when the said writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this writ make return forthwith.”

Form of writ to be issued by commissioner for garnishee residing in another county.

Writ to be dated and tested, how. Sheriff, etc., to execute and return writ forthwith.

Art. 234. [200] The writ shall be dated and tested by the officer issuing it, with his official signature and seal of office.

Art. 235. [201] The sheriff or constable receiving such writ shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof without delay to the officer who issued it.

Duty of commissioner when garnishee in another county appears and answers.

P. D. 167.

Art. 236. [202] Should the garnishee appear and answer, in obedience to the writ, the officer executing the commission shall return the same, together with the answer of the garnishee, duly certified under his hand and seal of office, to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace who issued it; whereupon like proceedings shall be had as provided in cases of answers of a garnishee residing in the county.

Duty of commissioner when he fails to appear and answer.

P. D. 167.

Art. 237. [203] Should the garnishee fail to appear in obedience to the writ, or having appeared, should he fail or refuse to answer, or to answer fully, the officer holding such commission shall return the same, together with the citation for the garnishee issued by him, and the service indorsed thereon, and a statement duly certified by him under his hand and seal of office of such failure or refusal, to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace who issued the commission.

Proceedings on return of certificate of such refusal to answer.

P. D. 167.

Art. 238. [204] Upon the return of such commission with the citation for the garnishee, and the return thereon, and the certificate of such failure or refusal of the garnishee to answer, as mentioned in the preceding article, it shall be lawful for the court at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, and on or after default day to render judgment against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs, unless the defendant shall have previously filed a full and complete answer to the writ, and shall have also shown some good and sufficient excuse for his failure to appear and answer before the officer holding such commission.

Judgment against the garnishee when he is indebted.

P. D. 157.

Art. 239. [205] Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, made in either of the modes provided for in this chapter, or should it be otherwise made to appear as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant in any amount, or was so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against the garnishee, for the amount so admitted, or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount shall exceed the amount of the plaintiff's judgment against the defendant, with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such judgment, interest and costs.

Judgment against the garnishee for effect.

P. D. 157.

Art. 240. [206] Should it appear from the garnishee's answer, or otherwise, that the garnishee has in his possession, or had when the writ was served, any effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff or any constable presenting an execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy such execution.

Remedy when garnishee refuses to deliver effects found to be in his possession.

Art. 241. [207] Should the garnishee be adjudged to have effects of the defendant in his possession as provided in the preceding article, fail or refuse to deliver them to the sheriff or constable on such demand, the officer shall immediately make return of such failure or refusal, whereupon, on motion of the plaintiff, the gar-nishee shall be cited to show cause at the next term of the court why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal; and should the garnishee fail to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure or refusal, he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such effects.

Art. 242. [208] Where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and it appears from the answer, or otherwise, that the defendant is, or was when the writ of garnishment was served, the owner of any shares of stock in such company, or any interest therein, the court shall render a decree, ordering the sale under execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant of such shares, or interest of the defendant in such company, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution.

Judgment against incorporated companies, etc., for shares of stock or interest. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 103, §3.)

Art. 243. [209] The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution, and the sheriff or constable making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares or interest to the purchaser, with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold.

Sales of shares of stock, etc., how made. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 103, §5.)

Art. 244. [210] Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, or in such company, and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the same had been made by the defendant himself.

Effect of such sale. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 104, §3.)

Art. 245. [211] If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of any garnishee, he may controvert the same by an affidavit in writing, signed by him, stating that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particular he believes the same is incorrect.

Plaintiff may traverse answer to garnishee. P. D. 161.

Art. 246. [212] The defendant may also, in like manner, controvert the answer of the garnishee.

Defendant may traverse the answer. P. D. 160.

Art. 247. [213] If the garnishee whose answer is controverted, as provided in the two preceding articles, is a resident of the county in which the proceeding is pending, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Trial of issue on controverted answer. P. D. 161.

Art. 248. [214] If the garnishee whose answer is so controverted be a resident of some county other than that in which the proceeding is pending, the plaintiff may file in any court of the county where the garnishee may reside, having jurisdiction of the amount of the judgment in the original suit, a duly certified copy of such original judgment and of the proceedings in garnishment, including the plaintiff's application for the writ and the answer of the garnishee and the affidavit controverting the same.

Trial of issue on controverted answer when garnishee resides in another county. P. D. 161.

Art. 249. [215] It shall be the duty of the clerk of such court or the justice of the peace, as the case may be, on receiving such certified copies, to docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant, and to issue a notice to the garnishee, stating that his answer has been so controverted, and that the issue between him and the plaintiff will stand for trial at the next term of the court.

Case to be docketed and notice to issue. P. D. 164.

Art. 250. [216] Such notice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and shall be dated and tested as other process from such court, and shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant.

Notice, to whom directed and how executed.

Issue tried as other cases.
P. D. 161.

Art. 251. [217] Upon the return of such notice served, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Current wages not subject to garnishment.
(Const., art.
16, §28.)

Art. 252. [218] No current wages for personal service shall be subject to garnishment; and where it appears upon the trial that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for such current wages, the garnishee shall nevertheless be discharged as to such indebtedness.

Costs.

Art. 253. [219] Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and the garnishee is held thereon, such costs shall be taxed against the defendant and included in the execution provided for in this chapter; where the answer is contested the costs shall abide the issue of such contest.

Garnishee discharged from

Art. 254. [220] It shall be a sufficient answer to any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee, or on the possession by him of any effects, or where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock or other interest therein, for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid, or such effects were delivered, or such shares of stock or other interest in such company were sold under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Article 255. [221] Any person who, in vacation, wishes to be allowed to practice as an attorney and counsellor at law shall make application to the judge of the district court, or to a judge of the supreme court, and shall produce a certificate from the county commissioners' court of the county in which he resides that he has been a resident of the state at least six months, that he is twenty-one years of age, and that he has a good reputation for moral character and honorable deportment; whereon the judge shall proceed to examine the applicant, and if satisfied of his legal attainments shall give him a certificate of the same; under which, if given by a judge of the district court, he shall be authorized to practice in the district court and inferior courts of that district until the next succeeding term of the district court of the county in which the applicant resides; and if given by a supreme judge, he shall be authorized to practice in the supreme court and courts of criminal and civil appeals until the next regular term.

Temporary license, how obtained. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 245.) P. D. 169.

Art. 256. [222] During the term of any district court, or of the supreme court, upon application in writing of any person desiring to obtain a permanent license to practice as attorney and counselor at law in the courts of the state, accompanied with a certificate from the county commissioners' court of the character specified in the preceding article, the court shall, as soon as convenient, appoint a committee of three or more practicing attorneys of good standing, and set a day for the examination of the applicant, on which day the committee so appointed shall, in open court, proceed to examine the applicant, and if they, or a majority of them, and the court are satisfied of his legal qualifications, a report of that fact shall on the next day be made by the committee, and recorded by the clerk, and thereon the court shall order the clerk to make out a license for the applicant, which shall be signed by the court and tested by the clerk, under the seal of the court; under which, when delivered, if granted by the district court, the party shall be authorized to practice in any district, county or inferior court of the state, and if by the supreme court, then in any court of the state.

Permanent license, how obtained. Ib. §2. P. D. 170.

University graduates admitted to practice. (Acts of 1891, p. 23.)

Art. 257. [222a] Any person holding a diploma from the law department of the "University of Texas," and who desires to practice as an attorney and counselor at law in the courts of this state, may present such diploma to the district or supreme court in term time, together with a certificate of the commissioners' court of the county in which he resides, that he is a man of good moral character and honorable deportment, and such court shall thereupon order the clerk to issue a license to such applicant, which license shall be signed by the presiding judge of such court and tested by the seal of the court, which, if granted by the district court, shall authorize such applicant to practice in the district and inferior courts of the state, and if by the supreme court, then in all the courts of the state.

Immigrant attorneys, how licensed. Ib. §3. P. D. 171.

Art. 258. [223] Any person who immigrates to this state from any other state of the Union, with a view of permanently residing therein, may be admitted to practice as attorney and counselor at law, upon producing a license from any circuit or district court, or supreme court of the state from which he emigrated, and also producing satisfactory evidence to the judge or court to whom he applies that he is a man of good reputation for moral character and honorable deportment, and shall not be subject to the requisites of residence prescribed in article 255.

How admitted in the supreme court and courts of appeals. (Act April 18, 1873, p. 39.) P. D. 5836f.

Art. 259. [224] Every person heretofore or that may hereafter be licensed as an attorney and counselor at law by any of the district courts of this state, may make his application in writing to the clerk of the supreme court for a license to practice therein; and upon furnishing to said clerk satisfactory evidence that he has been licensed by the district court and that he is a practicing attorney in good standing, and the oath as required of attorneys of the supreme court, made before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and certified to by him with his seal of office, the said clerk shall enter the name of such party upon the roll of attorneys of said court, and shall also furnish such party a certificate of the fact, which shall authorize him to appear and plead in said supreme court or the courts of criminal or civil appeals of this state as an attorney thereof; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to require the personal presence of the party making the application.

Oath of attorney. (Act Jan. 18, 1860, p. 25.) P. D. 172.

Art. 260. [225] Every person admitted to practice law shall, before receiving license, take an oath that he will support the constitution of the United States and of this state; that he will honestly demean himself in the practice of the law, and will discharge his duty to his client to the best of his ability; which oath shall be indorsed upon his license, subscribed by him and attested by the officer administering the same.

Persons convicted of felony shall not be licensed. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 245.) P. D. 173.

Art. 261. [226] No person convicted of a felony shall receive license as an attorney at law; or if licensed any court of record in which such person may practice shall, on proof of a conviction of any felony, supersede his license and strike his name from the roll of attorneys.

Misbehavior or contempt, how punished. (Act Jan. 18, 1860, p. 25.) P. D. 177.

Art. 262. [227] Each attorney at law shall be subject to fine or imprisonment by any court in which he may practice for misbehavior or for contempt offered to such court; but no attorney shall be suspended or stricken from the rolls for contempt unless it involve fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice.

May be suspended or license revoked, when. Ib. P. D. 177.

Art. 263. [228] Any attorney at law who shall be guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct, or of any malpractice, or of contempt, involving fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, may be suspended or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such attorney resides, or of the county where such conduct or malpractice occurred in manner and form as hereinafter provided.

Art. 264. [229] If any district court observes any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice by any attorney at law, or if complaint be made to the district court of such conduct or malpractice by a judge of any court, a practicing attorney, a county commissioner or justice of the peace, such court shall order the attorney to be cited to show cause why his license shall not be suspended or revoked.

Shall be cited to show cause, etc., when.

Art. 265. [230] Such complaint shall be made in writing, shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and filed with the clerk of the court. If the citation be ordered upon the observation of the court the charge and the grounds thereof shall be set out distinctly in the order of the court.

Complaint, how made, etc.

Art. 266. [231] The citation shall be issued in the name of the state of Texas and in manner and form as in other cases; and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least five days before the trial day.

Citation, how issued and when served.

Art. 267. [232] Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial and conducted in the name of the state of Texas against the defendant, and the state shall be represented by the county or district attorney. A jury of twelve men shall be impaneled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as other cases.

Trial, how conducted.

Art. 268. [233] If the attorney be found guilty, or if he fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the said court, by proper order entered on the minutes, may suspend his license for a time or revoke it entirely, and may also give proper judgment for costs.

Judgment of the court.

Art. 269. [234] Each attorney who receives or collects money for his client and refuses to pay over the same when demanded, may be proceeded against by motion of the party injured or his attorney before the district court of the county in which such attorney usually resides, or in which he resided when he collected or received the money, notice of which motion with a copy thereof shall be served on such party at least five days before the trial thereof; and in case the motion be sustained judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for the amount by him collected or received with legal interest, and also not less than ten nor more than twenty per cent damages on the principal sum.

Penalty for refusing to pay over money. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 245, §11.) P. D. 178.

Art. 270. [235] Each attorney at law, practicing in any court, shall be allowed at all reasonable times to inspect the papers and records relating to any suit or other matter in which he may be interested without being required to take copies thereof; but no person whatever shall be allowed to take any papers out of the office to which they belong without the permission of the clerk or keeper of the records; and the party withdrawing said papers shall leave a descriptive receipt for the same.

Allowed to inspect papers. Ib. §12.

Art. 271. [236] No judge of the supreme court or court of criminal or civil appeals or district court, sheriff or deputy sheriff, clerk or deputy clerk of any court, or constable, shall be allowed to appear and plead as an attorney in any court of record in this state; nor shall any county judge be allowed to appear and practice as an attorney at law in any of the county courts or courts of the justices of the peace in this state.

Officers not allowed to appear as attorney. (Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 216.) Ib. §8. P. D. 174.

Attorney for plaintiff may be required to show his authority as such.

Art. 272. [237] Any defendant in any suit or proceeding pending in any court of this state may, by motion in writing under oath, stating that such defendant believes that such suit or proceeding was instituted against him or is being prosecuted against him without authority on the part of the plaintiff's attorney, cause such attorney to be cited to appear before such court and show by what authority he instituted or by what authority he prosecutes such suit or proceeding, notice of which motion shall be served upon such attorney at least five days before the trial of such motion.

Proceeding upon his failure to show authority.

Art. 273. [238] Upon the hearing of the motion provided for in the preceding article the burden of proof shall devolve upon the defendant therein to show sufficient authority from the plaintiff in such suit or proceeding to institute or prosecute the same, and upon his failure to show such authority the court shall refuse to permit such attorney to appear in said cause, and if no person who is authorized to prosecute said cause shall appear the same shall be dismissed.

Cause shall not be continued or delayed by motion.

Art. 274. [239] The trial of the cause in which the motion provided for in the two preceding articles has been filed shall not be continued or delayed for the hearing of such motion; but such motion may be heard and determined at any time before the parties to the cause have announced ready for trial.

consent of attorney-general.
Ib.

Art. 292. The agent or attorney of the state buying for the state any such property at such sale, shall be authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the attorney-general, at any time to sell or otherwise dispose of said property so purchased, in the manner and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem most advantageous to the state; and if sold or disposed of for a greater amount than is necessary to pay off the amount due upon the judgment and all costs, the remainder shall be paid into the state treasury and placed to the credit of the general revenue; and when such sale is made the attorney-general shall, in the name of the state, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance to said property, which deed, when so signed by him, shall vest all the right and title to the same in the purchaser thereof.

May sell property of county.
Ib.

Art. 293. When any such property is sold under execution or order of sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the county, including executions issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias in the name of the state, the attorney or agent so representing the county, by and with the advice and consent of the commissioners' court, shall have the same authority to buy in and dispose of such property for the county as the agent or attorney for the state is given in article 291 in similar cases; and when any property is so purchased by the agent or attorney of the county, the officer so selling the same shall execute and deliver to the county a deed of conveyance to the same; and whenever the property so bought in for the county is sold, the county commissioners' court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof a deed of conveyance in the name of the county to such property.

Shall give receipt for money collected.
(Acts 1876, p. 85,
§4. Act May
13, 1846.)

Art. 294. [254] It shall be the duty of a district or county attorney, upon the collection of any money for the use of the state, or of any county, to deliver to the person paying the same a receipt therefor.

P. D. 188.
Shall report collections for state, etc.
(Act Aug. 7,
1876, p. 86, §5.)

Art. 295. [255] Each district or county attorney shall, on or before the last day of August of each year, file in the office of the comptroller of public accounts an account in writing, verified by the affidavit of such attorney, of all money received by him, by virtue of his office, during the preceding year, payable into the state treasury.

Shall report collections for county.
Ib. §6.

Art. 296. [256] Such attorney shall also, on or before the last day of August of each year, file with the county treasurer of each county for which money has been collected by him, an account in writing, verified by his affidavit, of all moneys received by him, by virtue of his office, during the preceding year, payable into the treasury of such county.

Shall pay over money collected in 30
Ib. §§5, 6.

Art. 297. [257] Whenever a district or county attorney has collected money for the state, or for any county, he shall, within thirty days after receiving the same, pay it into the treasury of the state, or of the county to which it belongs, after deducting therefrom and retaining the commissions allowed him thereon by law. Such district or county attorney shall be entitled to ten per cent commissions on the first thousand dollars collected by him in any one case for the state or county from any individual or company; and five per cent on all sums over one thousand dollars, to be retained out of the money when collected, and he shall also be entitled to retain the same commissions on all collections made for the state or for any county; provided, that ten per cent shall be allowed on all such sums heretofore collected since the adoption of the Revised Statutes. This article shall also apply to money realized for the state under the escheat law.

Art. 298. [258] Each district and county attorney shall keep in proper books, to be procured by them for that purpose at their own expense, a register of all their official acts and reports, and all actions or demands prosecuted or defended by them as such attorneys, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver such books to their successors in office, and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person appointed by the governor, or by the county commissioners' court of a county, to examine the same.

Shall keep register of official acts, etc. Ib. §8.

Art. 299. [259] A district or county attorney shall not take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift, or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, to prosecute any case which he is required by law to prosecute; nor shall he take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift, or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, in consideration of, or as a testimonial for his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined.

Shall not receive fee, etc., to prosecute case. Ib. §21.

Art. 300. [260] When it shall come to the knowledge of any district or county attorney that any officer in his district or county, intrusted with the collection or safe keeping of any public funds, is in any manner whatsoever neglecting or abusing the trust confided in him, or is in any way failing to discharge his duties under the law, he shall institute such proceedings as are necessary to compel the performance of such duties by such officer, and to preserve and protect the public interests.

Shall institute proceeding against officers, when, etc. (Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 86, §9.)

Art. 301. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to sue for and recover the penalties against railroad companies for failing to keep in repair public crossings as prescribed in article 4435 of these statutes; and it shall be the duty of the county attorney, upon the making of an affidavit of the facts by any person, to at once institute against the company violating the provisions of said article 4435 suit in the proper court to recover such penalty or penalties, and his willful failure or refusal to do so shall be sufficient cause for his removal from office, unless it is evident that such suit could not have been maintained. The proceedings under said article shall be conducted in the same manner as civil suits, and the county attorney attending to such suits shall be entitled to a fee in each case of ten dollars, to be taxed as a part of the costs of the case; provided, that when two or more penalties are sought to be recovered in one and the same suit, but one such fee shall be allowed; and provided further, if the county be cast in the suit, no costs shall be charged against the county.

To sue for penalty against railroads. (Acts 1885, p. 45; amend., 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478, §13.)

Art. 302. It shall be the duty of district and county attorneys to institute and prosecute quo warranto proceedings against persons and corporations in such cases and under such circumstances as are prescribed in article 4348 herein, and in such other cases as may be prescribed by law.

To institute quo warranto proceedings. (Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 43.)

Art. 303. [261] No admission made by the district or county attorney, in any suit or action in which the state is a party, shall operate to prejudice the rights of the state.

Admission made by, shall not prejudice the state. (Act May 1, 1846, p. 295, §13.) P. D. 193.

Article 304. [262] The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note assignable or negotiable by law, may secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser of such bill of exchange, and every indorser of such promissory note, without protest or notice, by instituting suit against the acceptor of such bill of exchange, or against the maker of such promissory note, before the first term of the district or county court to which suit can be brought, after the right of action shall accrue; or by instituting suit before the second term of said court, after the right of action shall accrue, and showing good cause why suit was not instituted before the first term next after the right of action accrued.

How fixed by suit in justice's court.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 230.

Art. 305. [263] Whenever the amount of such bill of exchange or promissory note shall be within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the holder thereof may secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser, by instituting suit against the acceptor or maker within sixty days next after the right of action shall accrue.

Drawer of bill liable on non-acceptance.
Ib. §3.
P. D. 231.

Art. 306. [264] The drawer of any bill of exchange which shall not be accepted when presented for acceptance shall be immediately liable for the payment thereof; and the holder of such bill may secure and fix the liability of any indorser thereof, by instituting suit against such drawer, within the time and in the manner prescribed by this title.

Assignee may sue in his own name.
P. D. 221.

Art. 307. [265] Any person to whom any of the said negotiable instruments may have been assigned, may maintain any action in his own name which the original obligee or payee might have brought; but he shall not only allow all just discounts against himself, but, if he obtained the same after it became due, he shall also allow all just discounts against the assignor before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant; but should he obtain such instrument before its maturity, by giving for it a valuable consideration, and without notice of any discount or defense against it, then he shall be compelled to allow only the just discounts against himself.

Non-negotiable instruments may be assigned.
Ib. §3.
P. D. 222.

Art. 308. [266] The obligee, or assignee, of any written instrument not negotiable by the law merchant, may transfer to another, by assignment, all the interest he may have in the same.

Art. 309. [267] The assignee of any instrument mentioned in the preceding article may maintain an action thereon in his own name, but he shall allow every discount and defense against the same which it would have been subject to in the hands of any previous owner before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant; and in order to hold the assignor as surety for the payment of the instrument, the assignee shall use due diligence to collect the same.

Assignee of non-negotiable instrument may sue in his own name. Ib.

Art. 310. [268] Parol testimony shall be inadmissible to prove that the assignor, drawer, or indorser of any of the aforesaid instruments has released the holder thereof from his obligation to use due diligence to collect the same.

Waiver of diligence not to be shown by parol. (Act Jan. 25, 1840, p. 144, §7.) P. D. 225.

Art. 311. [269] The assignee of any instrument not negotiable by the law merchant shall be entitled to recover from any previous assignor thereof; but in any suit brought against a remote assignor of such instrument, he shall be subject only to such recovery, and shall have the benefit of all defenses which he would have been entitled to had the suit been instituted by any intermediate assignee.

Assignor liable to assignee. Ib. §4. P. D. 223.

Art. 312. [270] Assignors, indorsers, and other parties not primarily liable upon any of the instruments named in this title, may be jointly sued with their principal obligors, or may be sued alone in the cases provided for in articles 1203 and 1204.

Assignor, indorser, etc., may be sued alone, when. Ib. §6. P. D. 225. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 313. [271] When a suit shall be instituted by an assignee or indorsee of any written instrument, the assignment or indorsement thereof shall be regarded as fully proved, unless the defendant shall deny in his plea that the same is genuine, and moreover shall file, with the papers in the cause, an affidavit stating that he has good cause to believe, and verily does believe, that such assignment or indorsement is forged.

Assignment, how put in issue. Ib. §5. P. D. 224.

Art. 314. [272] The defendant in any action that may be instituted upon any written instrument may plead a want or failure, or partial failure of consideration, where such written instrument shall remain in the possession of the original payee or obligee; or when it shall have been transferred or assigned after the maturity thereof; or when the defendant may prove a knowledge of such want or failure of consideration on the part of the holder prior to such transfer.

Consideration, failure of, when it constitutes a defense. Ib. §7. P. D. 227.

Art. 315. [273] The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note assignable or negotiable by the law merchant, may also secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser of such bill of exchange or promissory note, for the payment thereof, without suit against the acceptor, drawer or maker, by procuring such bill or note to be regularly protested by a notary public for nonacceptance or nonpayment, and giving notice of such protest to such drawer or indorser, according to the usage and custom of merchants.

Liability of drawer, etc., fixed by protest. (Act March 20, 1848, p. 187, §4.) P. D. 232.

Art. 316. [274] It shall be the duty of any notary public who shall protest any bill of exchange or promissory note, for nonacceptance or nonpayment, to set forth in his protest and in his notarial record a full and true statement of what shall have been done by him in relation thereto, according to the facts, by specifying therein whether demand was made of the sum of money in such bill or note specified, of whom, and when and where such demand was made. It shall also be his duty to make the requisite notices of protest for the drawers and indorsers who are sought to be made liable, and when any such notice shall be served by him, he shall note in his protest and notarial record on whom and when such notice was served; and when such notice shall be deposited in the postoffice by him, he shall (Act Dec. 24,

P. D. 236.

Art. 317. [275] The holder of any protested draft or bill of exchange, drawn by a merchant within the limits of this state upon his agent or factor living beyond the limits of this state, shall, after having fixed the liability of the drawer or indorser of any such draft or bill of exchange, be entitled to recover and receive ten per cent on the amount of such draft or bill as damages, together with interest and costs of suit thereon accruing.

Days of grace allowed on all bills and notes.
(Act Jan. 11,
1862, p. 43, §1.)
P. D. 234.

Art. 318. [276] Three days of grace shall be allowed on all bills of exchange and promissory notes assignable or negotiable by law.

Brands, Trade Marks, Etc.

Trade marks of carbonated goods.....	Article 318a	Infringements enjoined.....	Article 318c
Disposition of penalty funds.....	318b	Trade mark to be filed.....	318d

Article 318a. All manufacturers or dealers in carbonated goods, mineral waters, soda water, wine, cider, or other beverage, or manufacturers of medicine or other compound requiring the use of kegs, casks, barrels, boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, upon which the names, brands, marks, or trade marks, or other designation of ownership or proprietorship is stamped, engraved, etched, blown in, impressed, or otherwise produced upon such boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the principal place or office of business is situated, a fac simile or description of the name or names, marks or devices, so used by such manufacturer or dealer in such wares herein enumerated, and cause such description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks; and the act of so filing and causing to be recorded by the county clerk, and publishing, shall operate as a trade mark, securing to the said manufacturer the full protection of the law as a trade mark, entitling the said manufacturer to the sole and exclusive use in Texas of said mark, name, or device; for which services the clerk shall be allowed the sum of one dollar, to be paid by the party having such brands, etc., recorded.

Trade marks of carbonated goods, how established. (Acts 1893, p. 125.)

[Note—See penal code for penalties provided by this act.]

Art. 318b. All moneys collected as fines or penalty, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be returned by the justice of the peace into the county treasury, to become a part of the public road fund.

Disposition of penalty funds. Ib.

Art. 318c. Every person, association or union of workingmen, incorporated or unincorporated, having adopted a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, as aforesaid, may proceed by suit to enjoin the wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale of any such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, and the manufacture, use, display or sale of any such counterfeit or imitation, and all courts having jurisdiction thereof shall grant injunctions to restrain such manufacture, use, display or sale, and shall award the plaintiff in such suit such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale as by him may have been sustained. Where such association or union is not incorporated suits under this law may be commenced and prosecuted by any officer or member of such association or union in his own name, for himself and for the use and benefit of such association or union.

Infringement of trade mark may be enjoined. (Act 1895, p. 108.)

Art. 318d. Every person, association or union of workingmen, incorporated or unincorporated, that has heretofore or shall hereafter

Article 319. [277] The duties and liabilities of carriers in this state shall be the same as are prescribed by the common law, and the remedies against them shall be the same, except where otherwise provided by this title. Common law shall govern, except, etc.

Art. 320. [278] Railroad companies and other common carriers of goods, wares and merchandise, for hire, within this state, on land or in boats or vessels on the waters entirely within the body of this state, shall not limit or restrict their liability as it exists at common law, by any general or special notice, or by inserting exceptions in the bill of lading or memorandum given upon the receipt of the goods for transportation, or in any other manner whatever, and no special agreement made in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this article shall be valid. Carriers can not limit their responsibility. (Act Dec. 4, 1863.) P. D. 452.

Art. 321. [279] Upon the tender of the legal or customary rates of freight on goods offered for transportation, to any common carrier whatever such carrier shall receive and transport such goods, provided his vehicle or vessel has capacity safely to carry the goods so offered on the trip or voyage then pending, and such goods are of the kind usually carried upon such vehicle or vessel, and are offered at a reasonable time. Any common carrier refusing to transport goods, as above provided, taking in the same in the order presented, shall be liable to the party injured for damages sustained by reason of his refusal, and shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in any court having jurisdiction in the county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides; provided, this article shall not affect such corporations as are embraced in article 4496 of these statutes. Bound to carry goods, when. Ib. §453; (amend., 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478, §14.)

Art. 322. [280] Common carriers are required, when they receive goods for transportation, to give to the shipper, when it is demanded, a bill of lading or memorandum in writing, stating the quantity, character, order and condition of the goods; and such goods shall be delivered, in the manner provided by common law, in like order and condition to consignee, the unavoidable wear and tear and Must give bill of lading. deterioration in due course of transportation only excepted; and in case such common carrier shall fail to deliver goods as above required, they shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, as at common law; and in case of their refusal to execute and deliver a bill of lading or memorandum in writing, as above required, they shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered as in the preceding article.

Liability as warehousemen, etc.
Ib. 455.

Art. 323. [281] Railroad companies, and other common carriers having depots and warehouses for storing goods, shall be liable as warehousemen are at common law for goods and the care of the same, stored in such depots or warehouses before the commencement of the trip or voyage on which said goods are to be transported; but shall be liable as common carriers from the commencement of the trip or voyage until the goods are delivered to the consignee at the point of destination.

Diligence as to delivery.
Ib.

Art. 324. [282] If the carrier at the point of destination shall use due diligence to notify the consignee, and the goods are not taken by the consignee, and have in consequence to be stored in the depots or warehouses of the common carriers, they shall thereafter only be liable as warehousemen.

Shall forward in good order, etc.
Ib.

Art. 325. [283] Where common carriers receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another, and in case they shall fail to do so, they shall be liable, absolutely, for all losses occurring while the goods remain, and for all damages occasioned or in any wise resulting from the delay; provided, that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of the bill of lading, and the liability of the common carrier shall attach, as at common law, from and after such signing.

Shall feed and water live stock.

Art. 326. [284] It shall be the duty of a common carrier who conveys live stock of any kind to feed and water the same during the time of conveyance and until the same is delivered to the consignee or disposed of as provided in this title, unless otherwise provided by special contract, and any carrier who shall fail to so feed and water said live stock sufficiently shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, and shall be liable also to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the owner of such live stock in any court having jurisdiction in any county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

Unclaimed freight may be sold, when and how.
(Act May 2, 1874, p. 203.)
P. D. 5881a.

Article 327. [285] When any freight or baggage has been conveyed by a common carrier to any point in this state, and shall remain unclaimed for the space of three months at the office or depot nearest or most convenient to destination, and the owner, whether known or unknown, fails within that time to claim such freight or baggage, or to pay the proper charges if any there be against it, then it shall be lawful for such common carrier to sell such freight or baggage at public auction, offering each box, bale, trunk, valise or other article separately as consigned or checked.

Art. 328. [286] Thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale, and a descriptive list of the packages to be sold, with names and numbers or marks found thereon, shall be posted up in three public places in the county where the sale is to be made, and on the door of the depot or warehouse, if any, where the goods are, and shall also give notice in at least one newspaper in the county, if any be published therein, for thirty days before sale; and out of the proceeds of such sale the carrier shall deduct the proper charges on such freight or baggage, including costs of storing and costs of sale, and hold the overplus, if any, to the order of the owner any time within five years, on proof of ownership made by the claimant or his duly authorized agent or attorney.

Notice of such sale.
Ib.
P. D. 5834b.

Art. 329. [287] The carrier shall keep an account of sales, copy of the notice, a copy of the sale bill, and the expense thereof proportioned to each article sold.

Carrier shall keep an account of sales, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 5835c.

Art. 330. [288] Should any live stock remain unclaimed for the space of forty-eight hours after its arrival at the place of its destination, the carrier may sell the same at public auction after giving five days' notice of the time and place of such sale, as prescribed in article 328, and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, after deducting reasonable expenses for keeping, feeding and watering said live stock from the time of its arrival at the place of its destination until disposed of as herein provided, and such carrier shall also keep an account of any such sale, copy of the notice, copy of the sale bill, and an account of all expenses.

Carrier may sell live stock, when.
Ib.
P. D. 5834d.

Art. 331. [289] Should any perishable property remain unclaimed after arrival at its place of destination until in danger of depreciation, it shall be the duty of the carrier to sell the same at public auction, after giving five days' notice of the time and place of sale, as prescribed in article 328, and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, and keep an account of such sale, copy of the notice, copy of the sale bill, and an account of all expenses.

Carrier shall sell perishable property, when.
Ib.
P. D. 5834d.

Article 332. [290] Any person interested in the estate of a decedent or ward may have the proceedings of the county court therein revised and corrected at any time within two years after such proceedings were had, and not afterward; provided, that persons non compos mentis, infants and femmes couvertes, shall have two years after the removal of their respective disabilities within which to apply for such revision and correction.

Certiorari to county court, issued when. (Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, §§7, 9.)
P. D. 480, 482.

Art. 333. [291] All applications for the writ of certiorari to the county court shall be made to the district court, or a judge thereof. It shall state the names and residences of the parties adversely interested, and shall distinctly set forth the error in the proceeding sought to be revised.

Application for.
Ib.
P. D. 480.

Art. 334. [292] The writ of certiorari shall in all cases be granted upon the application of a party therefor, upon the applicant entering into bond in such sum as shall be required by the judge, sufficient to secure the costs of the proceeding.

Shall be granted on execution of bond.

Art. 335. [293] A writ of certiorari shall not operate as a supersedeas of the judgment of the county court, unless the applicant therefor shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in such sum as shall be fixed by the order of the district judge, payable to the adverse party and conditioned for the performance of the judgment of the district court in case such judgment shall be against the applicant.

Not to operate as supersedeas, unless bond given.

Art. 336. [294] The writ of certiorari shall be issued by the clerk of the district court upon the compliance of the party with the order of the district court or the judge thereof. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and shall command him to cite the clerk of the county court to make out a certified transcript of the proceedings designated in the writ, and transmit the same to the district court to which the writ is returnable, on or before the return day of the next succeeding term thereof.

Writ to issue to contain what.

Art. 337. [295] When an order for a supersedeas has been made, it shall also require the clerk and all officers of said court to stay further proceedings on the judgment specified in said writ.

When supersedeas granted.

Citation as in ordinary cases.

Art. 338. [296] Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation as in ordinary cases for the party named in the application as being adversely interested in the proceedings sought to be revised.

Trial de novo: judgment to be certified below. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §60.)
P. D. 1460.

Art. 339. [297] The cause shall be tried de novo in the district court, but the issues shall be confined to the grounds of error specified in the application for the writ. The judgment shall be certified to the county court for observance.

Appeals and writs of error allowed.

Art. 340. [298] Appeals and writs of error to the supreme court, from the judgments of the district courts in cases of certiorari, shall be allowed, and shall be governed by the same rules as in other cases.

Certiorari to justices' court. (Acts of 1879, p. 125.)

Article 341. [299] After final judgment in a court of a justice of the peace, in any cause, except in cases of forcible entry and detainer, the cause may be removed to the county court by writ of certiorari (or if the jurisdiction, civil or criminal, has been transferred from the county to the district court, then to the district court) in the manner hereinafter directed.

On order of the county or district court or judge.

Art. 342. [300] The writ of certiorari shall be issued by order of the county court or the judge thereof (or district court or the judge thereof if jurisdiction is transferred to said district court, as provided in the preceding article).

Requisites of the writ. (Act March 20, 1848, p. 163, §67.)
P. D. 468.

Art. 343. [301] It shall command the justice of the peace to make and certify a copy of the entries in the cause on his docket, and transmit the same, with the papers in his possession, to the proper court on or before the first day of the next term thereof; but if there is not time for such transcript and papers to be filed at such term, then they shall be so filed at the next succeeding term of said court.

Affidavit of sufficient cause.
Ib.

Art. 344. [302] The writ shall not be granted unless the party applying for the same, or some person for him having knowledge of the facts, shall make affidavit in writing, setting forth sufficient cause to entitle him thereto.

What application for certiorari must show.
Ib.

Art. 345. [303] In order to constitute a sufficient cause, the facts stated must show that either the justice of the peace had not jurisdiction, or that injustice was done to the applicant by the final determination of the suit or proceeding, and that such injustice was not caused by his own inexcusable neglect.

Within what time granted.
Ib.

Art. 346. [304] Such writ shall not be granted after ninety days from the final judgment of the justice of the peace.

- Art. 347. [305] The writ shall not be issued unless the party applying therefor shall first cause to be filed a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to the adverse party, in such sum as the judge shall direct, to the effect that the party applying therefor will perform the judgment of the county or district court, if the same shall be against him. Bond with sureties required. Ib.
- Art. 348. [306] The bond and affidavit, with the order of the judge when made in vacation, shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which the same is returnable. Bond, affidavit and order to be filed.
- Art. 349. [307] As soon as such affidavit, order of the judge and bond shall have been filed, the clerk shall issue a writ of certiorari, as directed in article 343. Writ to issue instant. (Act May 10, 1850, p. 60, §2.) P. D. 470.
- Art. 350. [308] Upon service of such writ of certiorari being made upon the justice of the peace, he shall stay further proceedings on the judgment and forthwith comply with said writ; but if there be not time for the transcript and papers to be filed at such first term, then they shall be so filed at the next succeeding term of said court. Justice shall stay proceedings and make return. Ib. §67. P. D. 468.
- Art. 351. [309] Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation, as in ordinary cases, for the party adversely interested. Citation as in other cases.
- Art. 352. [310] The action shall be docketed in the name of the original plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the original defendant as defendant. Cause to be docketed, and how.
- Art. 353. [311] At the first term of the court to which the certiorari is returnable the adverse party may move to dismiss the certiorari for want of sufficient cause appearing in the affidavit, or for want of sufficient bond. Motion to dismiss at first term.
- Art. 354. [312] No amendment of the affidavit or bond shall be made in the county or district court, nor shall a new affidavit or bond be filed. No amendment of bond or oath.
- Art. 355. [313] If the certiorari be dismissed the judgment shall direct the justice of the peace to proceed with the execution of the judgment below. Judgment of dismissal.
- Art. 356. [314] No pleading other than that required by law in the justice's court shall be necessary, except in cases of amendment as hereinafter provided. Pleading same as in Justice's court, except, etc.
- Art. 357. [315] When no pleadings have been filed in justices' courts, and none were necessary, the issues shall be made up under the direction of the court. Issues made up under direction of the court.
- Art. 358. [316] Either party may plead any new matter in the county or district court which was not presented in the court below; but no new cause of action shall be set up by the plaintiff, nor shall any set-off or counter claim be set up by the defendant which was not pleaded in the court below; and in all such cases the pleadings shall be in writing and filed in the cause before the parties have announced themselves ready for trial. New matter may be pleaded, etc.
- Art. 359. [317] The cause shall be tried de novo, in the county or district court, and judgment shall be rendered as in cases of an appeal from justices' courts. Trial de novo. (Act to establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)
- Art. 360. [318] Appeals and writs of error from the judgments of the county or district court, in cases of certiorari from justices' courts, shall be allowed, subject to such rules and limitations as apply in cases appealed from justices' courts. Appeals and writs of error in certiorari cases.

U. S. may acquire lands for certain purposes. (Const., art. 16, §34.) (Act Dec. 19, 1849, p. 12.) (Act April 4, 1871, p. 18.) P. D. 5446, 7693. 4th ed. 7810.

Article 361. [319] The United States may purchase, acquire, hold, own, occupy and possess such lands within the limits of this state as they shall deem expedient and may seek to occupy and hold as sites on which to erect and maintain lighthouses, forts, military stations, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, custom-houses, postoffices and all other needful public buildings, within the purview of the eighteenth clause of the eighth section of the first article of the constitution of the United States; and the consent of the legislature of the state of Texas is hereby expressly given to any such purchase or acquisition made in accordance with the provisions of this title.

Purchases, how made. (Act Dec. 19, 1849, p. 12.) P. D. 5446.

Art. 362. [320] All purchases of land by the United States for any of the purposes mentioned in the preceding article shall be effected either by contract with the owner of such land or by judicial proceedings as hereinafter prescribed.

Judicial proceedings if the owner will not sell. (Act Nov. 28, 1871, p. 44.) P. D. 7697. 4th ed. 7811.

Art. 363. [321] If the executive officer or other agent employed by the United States to make any purchase of lands in this state for any of the purposes aforesaid, and the owner of said land can not agree for the sale and purchase thereof, such officer or agent may file his petition in the district court of the county in which such lands or a portion thereof may be situated, describing the land and stating the purposes for which it is desired by the United States government, and praying that the value of such land be ascertained judicially, and a decree be passed vesting title thereto in the United States upon payment of the value so ascertained.

The owner to be cited. Ib.

Art. 364. [322] Upon the filing of any such petition the clerk of the court shall issue a citation to the owner of the land, as in other civil cases, which citation shall be served and returned as in civil cases; and the cause shall be entered on the civil docket of the court in its regular order, in the name of the United States of America as plaintiff and the owner of the land as defendant.

Jury to ascertain the value only. Ib.

Art. 365. [323] At the first term of the court after service of citation upon the owner, as provided in the preceding article, the cause shall be tried by a jury upon the single issue as to the value of the land, and the decision of any such jury shall in all cases be final and conclusive.

Art. 366. [324] Nothing in the preceding article contained shall be construed to prevent the parties from waiving a jury and selecting by agreement three persons to ascertain the value of the land in question, under their oaths and the direction of the court, and the finding and decision of such persons shall in all cases be final and conclusive.

Parties may select three persons, instead of a jury.
Ib.

Art. 367. [325] When the value of the land has been ascertained in either of the modes above prescribed, and the court is satisfied with such valuation, it shall enter a decree vesting the title in such land in the United States of America, to be held, owned, possessed and enjoyed by said United States for the purposes hereinbefore recited and none other.

Title to be decreed.
Ib.

Art. 368. [326] No such decree shall be entered until the value of the land so ascertained, together with all reasonable costs and expenses of the owner in attending such proceeding, shall be paid to him, or into court for his benefit and subject to his order, such costs and expenses to be assessed by the court before which any such proceeding is had.

Value to be paid before decree.
Ib.

Art. 369. [328] If the United States government shall desire to purchase or acquire any land in this state, and the real owner of such land can not be definitely ascertained, the authorized officer or agent of said government may file a petition in the district court of the county in which such land is situate, or in the district court having jurisdiction over said county, which petition shall describe the land and state the purpose for which it is desired, as in other cases.

Acquisition, if the owner is unknown.
P. D. 5448.

Art. 370. [329] The clerk of the court in which any petition may be filed under the provisions of the preceding article shall issue a citation directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon all persons interested in such land to appear at a term of the court named in such citation, then and there to answer said petition. Such citation shall conform as near as may be practicable to citations by publication in civil cases, and shall be published for eight consecutive weeks before the return day thereof in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; or in case no paper be published in the county, then in the newspaper published nearest to said county.

Citation by publication to persons interested.
Ib.

Art. 371. [330] At the return term of such citation like proceedings may be had for the condemnation and acquisition of such land as is hereinbefore provided for the acquisition of land in any county when the owner of such land is known; and if no person appears on the trial and establishes his ownership of such land to the satisfaction of the court, the value of such land, when ascertained, shall be paid into the treasury of the state, subject to the order of the owner when ascertained.

Procedure on such trial.
Ib.

Art. 372. [331] When the State of Texas may be the owner of any land desired by the United States for any of the purposes specified in this title, the governor may sell such land to the United States, and upon payment of the purchase money therefor into the treasury of the state, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office, upon the order of the governor, to issue a patent to the United States for such land in like manner as other patents are issued.

Acquisition of public land by U. S.
(Act Feb. 13, 1854, p. 102.)
P. D. 5450.

Art. 373. [332] All deeds of conveyance, decrees, patents, or other instruments vesting title in lands lying within this state in the United States, shall be recorded in the land records of the county in which such lands or a part thereof may be situate, or in the county to which such county may be attached for such purpose; and until filed for record in the proper county, they shall not take effect as to subsequent purchasers in good faith, for a valuable consideration, and without notice.

Governor may cede jurisdiction.
(Act Dec. 19,
1849, p. 12.)
P. D. 5449.

Art. 374. [333] Whenever the United States shall acquire any lands in this state, for any of the purposes and in either of the modes authorized by this title, and shall desire to acquire constitutional jurisdiction over such lands for said purposes, it shall be lawful for the governor of this state, in the name and behalf of the state, to cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over any lands so acquired, when application may be made to him for that purpose, which application shall be in writing and accompanied with the proper evidence of such acquisition, duly authenticated and recorded, containing or having annexed thereto an accurate description by metes and bounds of the lands sought to be ceded.

State to retain concurrent jurisdiction.
Ib.

Art. 375. [334] No such cession of jurisdiction shall ever be made, except upon the express condition that the State of Texas shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over the lands so ceded, and every portion thereof, so far, that all process, civil or criminal, issuing under the authority of this state, or any of the courts or judicial officers thereof, may be executed by the proper officers of this state, upon any person amenable to the same, within the limits of the land so ceded, in like manner and with like effect as if no such cession had taken place; and such condition shall be always inserted in any instrument of cession under the provisions of this title.

U. S. lands to be exempt from taxation.
(Act April 4,
1871, p. 19.)
Ib.

Art. 376. [335] The United States shall be secure in their possession and enjoyment of all lands acquired under the provisions of this title, and such lands and all improvements thereon shall be exempt from any taxation under the authority of this state so long as the same are held, owned, used and occupied by the United States for the purposes expressed in this title, and not otherwise.

P. D. 32.

Art. 378. [337] Whenever it shall be to the interest of any minor under the age of twenty-one years to change his name and to adopt another name instead of the original name, the guardian or next friend of said minor shall file his application in the district court of the county of the said minor's residence, setting forth the causes which induce the minor to desire to change the original name, accompanied with the full name which the minor wishes to adopt; whereupon the judge of said court, if the facts contained in the application shall satisfy him that it will be for the benefit and interest of the minor to change his name and to adopt another, shall grant authority to change his original name and to adopt another instead thereof.

Minors by guardian.
Ib.
P. D. 33.

Art. 379. [338] Whenever any person shall change his original name and adopt another instead thereof, it shall not operate so as to release the person from any responsibility which he may have incurred by the original name, nor shall it operate by said change of name to defeat or destroy any rights or property or action which the person had or held in his original name.

Not to injure third persons.
Ib.
P. D. 34.

Art. 380. [339] In suits for divorce the court may, in its discretion, on the final disposition of the case, enter a decree changing the name of either party to said suit, if such change of name is specially prayed for in the pleadings of such party.

In divorce suits name may be changed.

Cities, towns and villages may accept provisions of this title. (Acts of 1881, p. 115.) (Acts of 1885, p. 57.)

Article 381. [340] Any incorporated city, town or village in this state, containing one thousand inhabitants or over, including those incorporated under chapter eleven of this title, and other laws, general and special, may accept the provisions of this title in lieu of any existing charter, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village, which action by the council shall be had at a regular meeting thereof and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same, signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter, shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings as aforesaid. When such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns and vested with all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises therein conferred.

Provisions of this title do not apply until accepted. (Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, §167.)

Art. 382. [341] The provisions of this title shall not apply to any city, town or village until such provisions have been accepted by the council in accordance with the preceding article.

General powers of the corporation. Ib. §2.

Art. 383. [342] All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of this title shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of this title and those herein granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic, and under the same name shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure.

Art. 384. [343] The bounds and limits of said municipality shall be and remain the same as fixed and defined by the provisions of the act of incorporation substituted by the provisions of this title; provided, that said limits of said corporation may be hereafter extended by adding additional territory to the same whenever the majority of the qualified electors of said territory shall indicate a desire to be included within the limits of said corporation in the manner provided in article 574 of this title.

Limits of corporation to remain the same until extended, etc.
1b. §2.

Art. 385. Any city or town containing one thousand inhabitants or over may be incorporated as such, with all the powers, rights, immunities and privileges mentioned and described in the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns in the manner prescribed in chapter eleven of this title for incorporating towns and villages, except that the application to become incorporated shall be signed by at least fifty electors, residents of such city or town, and except that when an election is held according to the provisions of such chapter the words "towns and villages" shall be construed to read and read "cities and towns." When the entry by the county judge, provided in article 586 in said chapter eleven, is made with reference to a city or town of one thousand inhabitants and over, such city or town shall be invested with all the rights and privileges of such cities conferred by this title.

Cities, towns and villages may incorporate under, (Acts of 1881, p. 63.) (Acts of 1881, p. 115.)

Art. 386. [340c] That all towns and cities of one thousand inhabitants or more which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of this title and to become incorporated cities of one thousand inhabitants or more, under the general laws of Texas, and have failed to comply with all the requirements of said general law, or which are not included within the literal meaning of those cities which are authorized to accept the provisions of said general law, and all towns and villages incorporated under chapter eleven of title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes or by special charter or otherwise, but which now have one thousand inhabitants or more, and which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of this title in lieu of their said town or village charter and become incorporated cities of one thousand inhabitants or more; but which said cities have from and after the dates of their several attempted incorporations and their several efforts to accept the provisions of this title exercised the functions of cities of the class named, and were by the state of Texas recognized as such cities, be and the same are hereby declared to be cities of one thousand inhabitants or more, and the several acts whereby they attempted to accept the provisions of said law are hereby in all things validated. And that all subsequent acts of said cities and towns done and performed as a city of one thousand inhabitants or more, after they had attempted to accept the provisions of said law as aforesaid, be and the same are hereby validated and declared to be as binding as if said cities had been duly and legally incorporated; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as validating any act of said cities or the councils thereof, unless same were authorized by the general laws of the state under which they were attempting to act, at the several dates when said acts were done; and provided further, that the provisions of this article shall not validate the act of any town or city in unlawfully adding additional territory to such town or city, without the consent of such inhabitants so added to said town or city.

Territorial boundaries of cities and towns, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 17.)

Art. 386a. No city or town in this state shall be hereafter incorporated under the provisions of the general charter for cities and towns contained in title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes of this state with a superficial area of more than two square miles when such town or city has less than two thousand inhabitants, nor more than four square miles when such city or town has more than two thousand and less than five thousand inhabitants, nor more than nine square miles when such city or town has more than five, and less than ten thousand inhabitants. It shall be the duty of the mayor and board of aldermen immediately after they qualify as such officers to pass an ordinance causing an actual survey of the boundaries of such town to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for incorporation, and the field notes thereof recorded in the minute book of such town or city, and also in the record books of deeds in the county in which such town or city is situated.

Excessive territory to be relinquished. Ib.

Art. 386b. It shall be the duty of the mayor and the board of aldermen of any town or city in this state heretofore incorporated under the above named title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes of this state, and whose boundaries have been established so as to include more territory than is specified in article 386a, to immediately cause a resurvey of the boundaries of such city or town to be made, so as not to include more territory than is provided for in article 386a. Such resurvey to be made and the field notes thereof to be recorded as provided in article 386a.

Validating certain incorporations. Ib.

Art. 386c. All cities and towns in this state whose charter may be void by reason of a failure to properly define their limits, or that may have included in such limits more territory than is provided for in article 386a, that shall, within ninety days from the taking effect of this law, comply with article 386b, be and such charter and incorporation are hereby in all things validated, the same as if such territorial limits had at first been properly established.

Discontinuing Territory. (Act of 1895, p. 178.)

Art. 386d. Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city or town organized under the general laws within this state, territory to the extent of at least ten acres, contiguous, uninhabited, and adjoining the lines of any such city or town, the mayor and city or town council may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town; and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the mayor shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council, and from and after the entry of such order said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town.

Article 387. [344] The municipal government of the city shall consist of a city council composed of the mayor and two aldermen from each ward, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at called meetings or meetings for the imposition of taxes, when two-thirds of a full board shall be required, unless herein otherwise specified; provided, that where the city or town shall not be divided into wards, the city council shall be composed of the mayor and five aldermen, and the provisions of this title relating to proceedings in a ward shall apply to the whole city or town. The other officers of the corporation shall be a treasurer, an assessor and collector, a secretary, a city attorney, a marshal and city engineer, and such other officers and agents as the city council may from time to time direct; provided, that the office of treasurer, assessor and collector, city attorney, and city engineer may be dispensed with by an ordinance of the city or town council, and the powers and duties herein prescribed for such officers may be conferred by said council upon other officers. The above named officers shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, as hereinafter provided for, and shall hold their offices for two years and until the election and qualification of their successors.

Art. 388. [345] An election shall be held in each of the wards of said city, on the first Tuesday in April next after the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and annually thereafter, at such place or places as the city council may direct, and of which thirty days' previous notice shall be given by publication in one or more newspapers of said city. Said election shall be ordered by the city council, and in case of their failure to order the same the mayor of the city may make such order. For the purpose of holding said election and others ordered, the city council shall appoint annually, in May or earlier, in each ward, some competent and suitable person, who shall be the presiding officer at all elections held in his ward. The presiding officer of each ward shall appoint two judges and two clerks who, together with the presiding officer, shall be managers of elections. The presiding officers and judges must be qualified voters in the city. The city council shall provide for their compensation, and by ordinance regulate and define their powers and duties. The mayor, whenever an election is ordered, shall give the required notice and issue to the presiding officers a writ of election; and every published notice of election shall state the officer or officers to be elected, the place where the election will be held, and the name of the presiding officer thereat. In case the officer so appointed is unable, fails, refuses or neglects to act, the mayor shall make another appointment, and in case no appointed presiding officer appears to open the polls, the qualified electors may appoint such officer, who shall perform the same duties and have like power and authority to act as the first appointee; but in such case the managers, in their returns or otherwise, shall certify that the presiding officer failed to attend or neglected to act, and that the person acting as such was duly chosen by the electors present.

Election, etc., of mayor and aldermen.
(Acts of 1895,
p. 3.)

Art. 389. [346] At the first election under this title, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city, voting by ballot, a mayor, who shall hold his office for two years from the date of his election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; and at the first election held under this title there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city two aldermen from each ward in said city, one of whom shall hold his office for one year, and the other for two years from the date of their election; and the term for which each shall hold office shall be determined at the first regular meeting after said election, by lot; provided, that there shall be one alderman for the long term and one for the short term from each of said wards respectively; and provided, further, that at each annual election thereafter there shall be elected one alderman from each ward, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and provided, further, that where the city or town shall not be divided into wards the city council may determine by proper ordinance what number of aldermen shall go out of office in one year and the mode and manner of deciding which members shall hold for the long term and which for the short term.

Time of holding election and returns thereof.
ib.

Art. 390. [347] At all elections under this title the ballots of each ward shall be taken separately, the polls being opened in each ward for one day only, from eight o'clock a. m. until six o'clock p. m., with the privilege of a recess of one hour from twelve to one o'clock. Should the polls not be promptly opened for the reception of votes by eight o'clock a. m., the time thus lost shall be extended beyond the hour of six p. m. so as to secure the full period of nine hours for voting purposes. On closing the polls, the managers of election shall immediately proceed to count and cast up the votes for each candidate and certify and sign the returns in duplicate, one of which shall be sealed up and returned by the presiding officer for future use as a reference in case of a contested election; the other copy shall be sealed up with the name of the presiding officer written across the seals, and by the presiding officer, or in his absence or inability, by one of the judges or clerks, delivered in open session to the city council the next day or as soon thereafter as practicable. The officer so delivering the same shall make oath before the mayor or one of the aldermen that the returns by him delivered have not been altered or opened since being signed and sealed, as aforesaid. As received the city council shall immediately open the returns from each ward, casting up the votes of the wards for mayor, city attorney, tax assessor and collector, treasurer, city marshal, city engineer and secretary, and for aldermen of the several wards as hereinbefore provided for; and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, city attorney, tax assessor and collector, treasurer, city marshal, city engineer, secretary, and aldermen shall be declared elected to their respective offices; provided, that at the first election held under this statute the two persons from the same ward receiving the highest number of votes in the city for aldermen of the wards for which they are candidates, shall be declared elected aldermen of such wards respectively in which they were candidates; and at all subsequent elections held thereunder only one alderman shall be elected from each ward by the qualified voters of such town or city. The newly elected officers may enter upon their duties on the fifth day thereafter, Sundays excepted; provided, that any officer may qualify at any time within thirty days after his election, otherwise the office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election held to fill the same. It shall be the duty of the secretary to notify all persons elected or appointed to office of their election or appointment, and the city council elect shall meet at the usual place of meeting on the fifth day, Sundays excepted, after their election, or as soon thereafter as possible, and be installed, under the provisions of this title.

Art. 391. [348] Every person not disqualified by law, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and is entitled to vote for members of the legislature of this state, and is duly registered, and shall have resided within the corporate limits of said city for six months next preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote for the officers of said city; provided, nevertheless, that no person belonging to the regular army of the United States shall be so entitled.

Who are qualified voters for city officers.
(Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, §7.)

Art. 392. [349] The managers of election shall be sworn well and truly to conduct the election without partiality or prejudice, and agreeably to law, and according to the best of their skill and understanding, which oath shall be administered by the mayor or any justice of the peace. The presiding officer and judges thus qualified shall have power to administer oaths necessary to the performance of their official duties. When any person offering a vote shall be objected to by any one qualified to vote at such election, the managers shall examine him on oath touching the points objected to, and if he fail in establishing his qualification to their satisfaction his vote shall be rejected.

Managers of election shall be sworn; their powers and duties.
Ib. §8.

Art. 393. [349a] In any election, state, county or municipal, being held in any city or town of ten thousand inhabitants or more according to the last preceding United States census, when the right to vote of any elector offering to vote is challenged the following proceedings shall be had: The judges of election shall refuse to accept such vote of such elector unless in addition to his own oath, he proves by the oath of one well known resident of the ward, that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such ward. When such vote is accepted the judges shall cause the clerk of election to make a minute of the name of the elector and the party testifying under oath as to his qualifications, and such memoranda shall be kept by the clerk of the county court for six months after such election is held, subject to the order of the district judge. Whenever the right of an elector to vote is challenged the word "challenged" shall be entered on the ballot if accepted by the judges. Any elector voting at any election who does not possess the legal qualifications shall be punished as now provided by law for illegal voting, and any person swearing falsely as to his own qualifications or those of a challenged elector, shall be punished as now provided by law for false swearing.

Proceedings where vote challenged.
(Acts of 1891, p. 47.)

Art. 394. [350] Whenever it so happens in any election that there is a tie between two or more candidates for the same office, all of whom can not be elected, the city council shall declare such election void as between such candidates only, and immediately order a new election for the office, first giving not less than five days' notice thereof. In the event of a failure to meet on the part of the city council to examine the election returns and declare the result, the mayor shall discharge that duty.

Who are eligible to the office of mayor and alderman.
Ib. §10.

Art. 395. [351] No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor unless he possesses the qualifications of an elector, and shall have resided twelve months next preceding the election within the limits of the city; and no person shall be eligible to the office of alderman unless in addition to the above qualifications he be a resident of the ward from which he may be elected at the time of the election; provided, that if any alderman shall remove from the ward in which he was elected, his office shall be deemed vacant and a new election ordered to fill the same.

Vacancy, how filled.

Art. 396. [352] In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor or alderman, by refusal to accept or failure to qualify, or by death, resignation or otherwise, the city council shall order a new election to fill such vacancy, and all special elections shall be conducted as is herein provided for in the annual election; provided, that in all special elections to fill vacancies ten days' notice shall be deemed sufficient. In case of a vacancy in any other office in the city than mayor or alderman, by refusal to accept or failure to qualify, or by death, resignation or otherwise, the mayor or acting mayor shall fill such vacancy by appointment to be confirmed by the city council.

Election to fill vacancies may be ordered by county judge, when.
Ib.
(Act March 15, 1875, p. 256.)

Art. 397. [353] Whenever a vacancy occurs by resignation or otherwise in the municipal offices of any incorporated town or city in this state, so that such vacancies can not be filled under the charter of said town or city or under the laws of this state now in force, then, and in that event, it shall be the duty of the county judge in the county in which such city or town is situated, upon the petition of not less than ten of the principal tax-payers, citizens of said town or city, at once to order an election to fill such vacancies, giving notice of not less than ten days in the usual manner provided for such elections.

Election, etc., in such case, how conducted, etc.
Ib. §2.

Art. 398. [354] Said election shall in all things be carried on as required by law in similar elections, and the officers so elected shall in like manner be qualified and installed into office.

City council composed of mayor and aldermen, etc.
Ib. §12.

Art. 399. [355] The city council shall be composed of the mayor and aldermen provided for by this title. The mayor shall be president of the council, and in case of a tie on any question he shall give the casting vote. At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure, inability or refusal of the mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties and receive the fees and compensation of the mayor.

Article 400. [356] Every person elected by the voters of said city to fill any office, or by the city council, under this title, shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take and subscribe the official oath prescribed in the constitution of this state, and the city council may, by ordinance, require such additional oath as they may deem best calculated to secure faithfulness in the performance of their duties by such officers.

Officers shall take official oath. Ib. §13.

Art. 401. [357] The mayor of the city shall be the chief executive officer of said corporation, and shall be vigilant and active at all times in causing the laws and ordinances for the government of said city to be duly executed and put in force. He shall inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers in the government thereof, and as far as it may be in his power shall cause all negligence, carelessness and positive violations of duty to be prosecuted and punished. He shall have power, whenever in his judgment the good of the city may require it, to summon meetings of the city council, and he shall, from time to time, communicate to that body all such information and recommend all such measures as may tend to the improvement of the finances, the police, health, security, cleanliness, comfort, ornament and good government of said city. The mayor shall also be the chief judicial magistrate of the city, until the election and qualification of recorder as hereinafter provided, and until such election and qualification he shall perform all the duties required of recorder in article 405 of this chapter; provided, however, that this article shall not operate to affect the organization of any city or town already chartered by general or special charter, nor to require any new election of the officers of such chartered cities and towns.

Art. 402. [358] Whenever the mayor shall deem it necessary, in order to enforce the laws of the city, or to avert danger, or protect life or property, in case of riot or any outbreak or calamity or public disturbance, or when he has reason to fear any serious violation of law or order, or any outbreak, or any other danger to said city or the inhabitants thereof, he shall summon into service, as a special police force, all or as many of the citizens as in his judgment and discretion may be necessary and proper, and such summons may be by proclamation, or order addressed to the citizens generally, or those of any ward of the city, or subdivision thereof, or such summons may be by personal notification; such special police force, while in service, shall be subject to the orders of the mayor, shall perform such duties as he may require, and shall have the same power while on duty as the regular police force of said city; and any person so summoned and failing to obey, or appearing and failing to perform any duty that may be required by this title, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

mayor.
Ib. §16.

Art. 403. [359] The mayor shall have like power with a justice of the peace to administer oaths of office. He shall possess and execute, in the city, in criminal cases, all the powers and duties of a justice of the peace. He shall have authority in case of a riot, or any unlawful assemblage, or with a view to preserve peace and good order in said city, to order and enforce the closing of any theater, ball-room, grog-shop, tippling-house, bar-room or other place of resort, or public room, or building, and may order the arrest of any person violating, in his presence, the laws of the state, or any ordinance of the city, and he shall perform such other duties and possess and exercise such other power and authority as may be prescribed and conferred by the city council.

Ordinances and resolutions adopted shall not take effect until,
etc.
Ib. §17.

Art. 404. [360] All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and if the mayor approve thereof he shall sign the same, and such as he shall not sign he shall return to the city council with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered, and if, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force; and if the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any such proceedings, for a longer period than three days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect.

Recorder may be appointed,
how; and his jurisdiction, duties and powers. etc.
Ib. §18.

Art. 405. [361] The city council may, at any time after the acceptance of the provisions of this title, by ordinance establish the office of recorder of said city, and appoint a suitable person to fill the same, and when so appointed he shall be the chief judicial magistrate of the city, and shall hold his office until the installation of a new city council, unless the council shall sooner discontinue the office by ordinance; and as such shall hold a court within said city, by the name of the recorder's court of the city of ———, which said court shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of all misdemeanors, breaches of the peace, infractions of the ordinances, and all other causes arising under the laws of said city, and shall be deemed always open for the trial of said causes. The said court shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction in all cases arising under the ordinances of said corporation and over any breaches and violations thereof, and of any and all persons thus offending, and to try and determine all suits, actions and complaints charging a violation of any ordinance of said city, and may grant new trials, on motion in writing, showing sufficient cause and duly sworn to; and all prosecutions, trials and proceedings had in said court under this title, shall be governed by the laws and rules regulating trials, prosecutions and proceedings in justices' courts in force at the time, and shall be entitled to the same fees that justices of the peace are allowed for similar services, and to such additional compensation as may be allowed by the by-laws and ordinances of the corporation. The recorder may require of any person arrested under the provision of this title a bond for his good behavior, and to keep the peace, with two good and sufficient sureties, which bond shall be payable to the city of ———. He shall have full power and authority to issue subpoenas for witnesses, and to compel their attendance by process of attachment. He may punish all contempts, by fines and imprisonment, or either; may issue subpoenas, attachments, writs of capias, warrants of arrest, search warrants, executions and all other process known to the law, which a justice of the peace of this state may lawfully issue; and all of said writs and process shall be issued, served and executed under the same forms and in the same manner as the like process would be when issued by a justice of the peace, unless herein otherwise provided. He shall also have full power and authority to administer official oaths and all oaths and affirmations in trials before him. The recorder shall be ex officio justice of the peace, and he shall possess and execute in the city, in criminal cases, all the powers and duties of such officer, and shall have the same authority and like powers with justices of the peace in the prevention and suppression of crime; but he shall in no case entertain jurisdiction in civil suits. The city council may determine what costs, if any, shall be charged in proceedings in and for all process issued in said court, and shall allow the judge thereof, for his services, such salary or fees, or either or both, as they deem necessary; and the recorder shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by any ordinance of said corporation that may properly and lawfully be required of said officer, as the judge of said court, and are not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this state; provided, that all moneys collected for fines, of whatever character, imposed by the recorder, shall be paid into the city treasury for the use of the city; and provided further, that until the said office of recorder is established and a recorder is elected by the city council, or when the same is discontinued, or a vacancy occur therein, the mayor of the city shall possess and execute all the powers and duties of recorder, holding a court which shall be known as the mayor's court, as set forth in this section and that may be imposed by ordinance of the city, and shall receive for his services the same fees and compensation.

Art. 406. [362] Every person brought before the mayor or recorder, to be tried for an offense for which the penalty may be fine or imprisonment, or both, shall be entitled, if he shall demand it, to be tried by a jury of six legal voters of the city, who shall be summoned, impaneled and qualified as jurors in justices' courts under the laws of the state.

before jury.
Ib. §19.

Art. 407. [363] The marshal of the city shall be ex officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies, and shall either in person or by deputy attend upon the recorder's or mayor's court while said court is in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court. He shall have like power with the sheriff of the county to execute the writ of search warrant. He shall be active in quelling riots, disorder and disturbances of the peace within the limits of said city, and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city, and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the recorder's or mayor's court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinance or laws of the city. It shall be his duty to arrest without warrant all violators of the public peace, and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office, or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbance whatever. To prevent a breach of peace, or preserve quiet and good order, he shall have authority to close any theater, bar-room, ball-room, drinking-house, or any other place or building of public resort; and in the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority and jurisdiction as the sheriff of a county under the laws of the state. He shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, to be fixed by the city council. The marshal shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may require, and he shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers, rights and authority as the city council may by ordinance require and confer, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

Duties of the secretary.
Ib. §21.

Art. 408. [364] It shall be the duty of the city secretary to attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and to engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council; to keep the corporate seal; to take charge of and preserve and keep in order all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council; to countersign all commissions issued to the city officers and licenses issued by the mayor, and to keep a record or register thereof; and to make out all notices required under any regulation or ordinance of the city. He shall draw all warrants on the treasurer, and countersign the same, and keep an accurate account thereof in a book provided for the purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation, and shall keep, in books, regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause of receipt and disbursement; and also accounts with each person, including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting amounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall also keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council, and he shall do and perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order of the city council. He shall receive for his services an annual salary, payable at stated periods, and such additional fees as may be allowed by the city council.

Treasurer shall give bond; his duties, etc.
Ib. §22.

Art. 409. [365] The treasurer of said city shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as may be required by the city council, and with sufficient security, to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation; provided, that no order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments, to the city council at their first regular meeting in every quarter, and whensoever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do; at the end of every half year he shall cause to be published at the expense of the city, a statement, showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the six months next preceding, and the general condition of the treasury; and he shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require; and for his services he shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the city council.

Art. 410. [366] The assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all property taxed by the city, and make duplicate rolls thereof, and on completion of the rolls shall deliver one of them to the city secretary. He shall collect all taxes due the city, and in the event of nonpayment of any taxes, shall proceed to sell property to raise the amount of taxes so due; and shall in the performance of his duties observe the provisions of this title, and the ordinances of the city relating thereto. He shall give bond, in such amount and in such form as the city council may prescribe, with good and sufficient sureties, and the city council may require a new bond whenever, in their opinion, the existing bond is insufficient; and whenever such bond is required, he shall perform no official act until said bond shall be given and approved. He shall at the expiration of every week pay to the treasurer all money by him collected, and shall report to the city council, at the first meeting in every month, all moneys so collected and paid; and he shall perform all such other duties, and in such manner and according to such rules and regulations as the city council may prescribe. The assessor and collector is authorized to require the owners of all property subject to taxation to render a correct account of the same, under oath, to be administered by him. The assessor and collector shall receive such fees and commissions for his services as may be allowed by the ordinances of the city.

Assessor and collector shall give bond, and his duties, etc.
Ib. §23.

Art. 411. [367] The city council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties of all officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties of all officers appointed or elected to any office under this title, whose duties are not herein specially mentioned, and fix their compensation. They may also require bonds to be given to the said corporation by all officers for the faithful performance of their duties. The city council shall provide for filling vacancies in all offices, not herein provided for, and in all cases of vacancy, the same shall be filled only for the unexpired term.

Powers of city council over officers.
Ib. §24.

thorized by law, and the location of depots within the city; to require that railroad tracks, turnouts and switches shall be so constructed as to interfere as little as possible with the ordinary travel and use of streets, avenues and alleys, and that sufficient space shall be left on either side of said track for the safe and convenient passage of teams, carriages and other vehicles, and persons; to require railroad companies to keep in repair the streets, avenues or alleys through which their track may run, and if ordered by the city council to construct and keep in repair suitable crossings at the intersection of streets, avenues and alleys, and ditches, sewers and culverts when the city council shall deem it necessary; to direct the use and regulate the speed of locomotive engines in said city, or to prevent and prohibit the use or running of the same within the city; provided, that the provisions of this article shall apply to railroads known as steam railroads, and not to city, street or horse railroads.

May tax and regulate street railroads.
Ib. §71.

Art. 461. [415] The city council shall have power to assess and collect the ordinary municipal taxes upon city or horse railroads, and to compel said city railroad companies to keep their roads in repair, and to make them conform to the grades of the streets upon which their tracks may be laid, whenever said streets shall have been graded by the city, and to restrain the rate of speed so as not to exceed seven miles per hour, and to compel said city railroads to supply ample accommodation for the safe and convenient travel of the people on the street where their track may run; the city council may enforce these regulations by proper ordinances, with suitable penalties for any violation of said ordinances.

May prevent, etc., dead animals, etc., being deposited within city limits.
Ib. §72.

Art. 462. [416] To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the limits of said city any dead carcass, or any other offensive or unwholesome substance or matter, and to require the removal or destruction, by any person who shall have placed or caused to be placed upon or near his premises, or elsewhere, of any substance or matter, filth, or any putrid or unsound beef, pork or fish, hides or skins of any kind; and on his default, to authorize the removal or destruction thereof, by some officer of the city, and require the owner of any dead animal to remove the same to such place as may be designated.

May prevent, etc., the driving of animals into or through the city.
Ib. §73.

Art. 463. [417] To prevent, regulate and control the driving of cattle, horses and all other animals into or through the city.

Power to pass, etc., ordinances, etc., and other powers.
Ib. §74.

Art. 464. [418] The city council shall have power to pass, publish, amend or repeal all ordinances, rules and police regulations, not contrary to the constitution of this state, for the good government, peace and order of the city and the trade and commerce thereof, that may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers vested by this title in the corporation, the city government, or in any department or officer thereof; to enforce the observance of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations, and to punish violations thereof by fines, penalties and imprisonment in the prison, workhouse, or house of correction, or to work on the streets or other public works, or either, in the discretion of the court before whom conviction may be had; but no fine or penalty shall exceed one hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment more than fifteen days for any offense, unless a larger fine and longer period of imprisonment is herein allowed; and for any fine, penalty and costs imposed by the mayor or recorder in the trial of any cause or complaint before him, execution may issue to collect such fine and costs, to be levied and executed in the same manner that executions are from the district court. The same shall be issued by the mayor or recorder to the marshal, who, in levying on property and selling, shall have like power and authority as the sheriff of the county in executions issued from the district court; and the laws of the state, so far as applicable, shall apply to and be in full force and effect as to the executions issued from the mayor's or recorder's court; and any person upon whom any fine or penalty is imposed may be committed until the payment of the same, with costs, and in default thereof may be imprisoned in the city prison or workhouse, or house of correction, or may be required to work on the streets or other public work of the city for such time and in such manner as may be provided by ordinance; provided, such imprisonment shall not exceed fifteen days, unless a longer period is herein allowed.

Art. 465. [419] To pass all necessary ordinances to provide for funding the whole or any part of the existing debt of the city, or of any future debt, by canceling the evidences thereof, and issuing to the holders or creditors notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest at any annual rate not to exceed ten per cent. The council shall also provide by ordinance for issuing the bonds of the city in such sums as may be agreed upon for railroad subsidies heretofore voted, or that may be hereafter voted in accordance with the laws of this state.

May pass ordinances to fund debt, etc.
Ib. §75.

Art. 466. [420] To appropriate so much of the revenues of the city, emanating from whatever source, for the purpose of retiring and discharging the accrued indebtedness of the city, and for the purpose of improving the public markets and streets, erecting and conducting city hospitals, city hall, waterworks, and so forth, as they may from time to time deem expedient; and in furtherance of these objects they shall have power to borrow money upon the credit of the city, and issue coupon bonds of the city therefor in such sum or sums as they may deem expedient, to bear interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum, payable semi-annually at such place as may be fixed by city ordinance; provided, that the aggregate amount of bonds issued by the city council shall, at no time, exceed six per cent of the value of the property within said city subject to ad valorem tax.

Power over the finances of the city.
Ib. §76.

Art. 467. [421] All bonds shall specify for what purpose they were issued, and when any bonds are issued by the city a fund shall be provided to pay the interest and create a sinking fund to redeem the bonds, which fund shall not be diverted, nor drawn upon for any other purpose; provided, however, that said sinking fund may, as it accumulates, be invested in bonds of the United States, the state of Texas, or counties in said state; and the city treasurer shall honor no draft upon said fund except to pay interest upon or to redeem the bonds for which it was provided, or for investment in other securities as above provided.

City bonds shall specify, what.

Art. 468. [422] Said bonds shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the secretary, and payable at such places and at such times as may be fixed by ordinance of the city council, not less than ten nor more than fifty years.

Bonds shall be signed, etc., and payable where and when, etc.
(Acts of 1875, p. 256, §78.)
Bonds shall be registered in comptroller's office.
Ib. §79.

Art. 469. [423] It shall be the duty of the mayor, whenever any bond or bonds are issued, to forward the same to the comptroller of public accounts of the state, whose duty it shall be to register said bond or bonds in a book kept for that purpose, and to indorse on each bond so registered his certificate of registration, and to give, at the request of the mayor, his certificate certifying to the amount of bonds so registered in his office up to date.

Mayor shall furnish statement to comptroller. Duties of comptroller, etc.
Ib. §80.

Art. 470. [424] It shall be the duty of the mayor, at the time of forwarding any of said bonds for registration, to furnish the comptroller with a statement of the value of all taxable property, real and personal, in the city; also, with a statement of the amount of tax levied for the payment of interest and to create a sinking fund. It is hereby made the duty of the comptroller to see that a tax is levied and collected by the city sufficient to pay the interest semi-annually on all bonds issued, and to create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the said bonds at maturity, and that said sinking fund is invested in good interest-bearing securities.

May compromise debts and issue bonds. (Acts of 1887, p. 50.)

Art. 471. The mayor and board of aldermen are authorized and empowered, by resolution or ordinance of said board of aldermen by referring to this and the succeeding articles of this chapter relating hereto and adopting the same, to compromise and fund any existing valid indebtedness by the city or town issued, whether bonded or floating, and the coupons due upon the bonded debt; and for this purpose they are authorized and empowered to issue new bonds, in denomination of not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable semi-annually at the office of the state treasurer or at such other place as said board of aldermen shall provide; said new bonds to become due and payable in not exceeding thirty years, and to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding six per cent per annum, as in their discretion may best subserve the purpose intended.

Barred debts cannot be compromised.
Ib.

Art. 472. No compromise shall be made under the provisions of this chapter, by which any debt shall be funded which is barred by the statute of limitations.

Bonds exempt from taxation and may be used to pay taxes.
Ib.

Art. 473. The new bonds thus issued by any city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town, and the taxes levied to pay said new bonds may be paid in said bonds or coupons thereof if matured; provided, that said coupons and bonds shall only be received in payment of taxes levied for the purpose of paying such bonds and coupons.

Bonds when executed must be registered with comptroller.
Ib.

Art. 474. The mayor and board of aldermen shall cause to be prepared the necessary blank bonds to give effect to the provisions of this chapter, the cost of which shall be paid out of the treasury of such city or town; said bonds when issued by any city or town shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary (or recorder if there be no secretary), with the seal of such city or town affixed; and such new bonds shall be registered in the office of the state comptroller.

Bonds when issued, how disposed of, etc.
Ib.

Art. 475. Such new bonds may be exchanged for the old bonds, or they may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase of such old bonds; provided, that no delivery of such new bonds shall take place unless a contract has already been entered into for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds; and provided further, no bonds issued under this chapter as a compromise of existing indebtedness shall be sold at less than par, and each bond shall be made to bear the lowest rate of interest that will give a par value.

Art. 476. All laws in force providing for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such existing bonds shall apply and be in force for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such new bonds; provided, that the sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of such new bonds whenever the same can be bought at not more than their par value.

Tax laws to remain in force.
Ib.

Art. 477. The object and intention of these provisions being to enable the cities or towns in this state which have granted subsidy bonds to railroads or other works of internal improvement, or created any other indebtedness whatever, whether bonded or floating, to compromise the same, and thereby reduce the burden of taxation, it is hereby declared, as an inducement to the holders of said bonds to accept the compromise, that whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith either by the holders of the present bonds or by any persons purchasing such new bonds as provided herein, that all laws in force or which may hereafter be in force for the assessment and collection of the state taxes shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of the taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suits instituted to enforce the payment of said new bonds or coupons against any such city or town, no defense either in law or equity shall be admitted in any of the courts of this state except such as originated upon or subsequent to the issuance of such new bonds.

Laws to enforce collection continued in force, and all defenses to bonds cut off.
Ib.

Art. 478. Whenever a collector of taxes shall neglect or refuse to collect the taxes levied for the payment of the interest and sinking fund of such new bonds, he shall be liable on his official bond, at the suit of any persons holding any of said bonds or coupons, for all such damages as said person or persons shall have sustained by reason of his neglect or refusal; nor shall such collector or his sureties be relieved of such liability by his resignation of the office; and whenever any person who may be elected collector of taxes of any city or town shall fail, neglect or refuse to give the bond required by law for the collection of such tax, or whenever the mayor and board of aldermen shall appoint any person who shall fail, neglect or refuse to give said bond, or whenever they shall fail, neglect, or refuse to appoint some person who will give said bond and collect said tax, then it is hereby made the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person to collect said taxes, who shall perform all the duties required by these provisions or any other laws of this state relating to the collection of said taxes, from the term of his said appointment until the next general election.

Tax collector; liability; governor to appoint, when.
Ib.

Art. 479. Whenever a compromise of the debt of any city or town shall be effected, as hereinbefore provided, and the bonds are delivered to the creditors, a board of liquidation, consisting of five reputable citizens of such city or town, shall be appointed forthwith in the manner following: The mayor of the city or town shall appoint one, the governor of the state shall appoint one, and the district judge of the district in which such city or town shall be situated shall appoint one, the city council of the city or town shall appoint one, and the holders of said indebtedness, or a majority of them, shall appoint one; and each shall fill vacancies in the office of their respective appointees in said board; and in case of failure, neglect or refusal of any one or all of said officers to appoint a member of said board, or to fill vacancies therein, then the holders of said bonds, or any one or more of them shall have the right to apply to the district court of the district in which such city or town shall be situated, or to the judge thereof in vacation, for the appointment of a member or members of said board necessary to complete the same, and it shall be the duty of said court or judge to make said appointment. The members of said board shall serve without compensation and shall hold their offices for the term of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each member of said board shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said board, or a majority thereof, shall select some solvent depository for all moneys coming under their control, as hereinafter provided, and for whose acts they shall be responsible, and shall, in writing signed by them, notify the collector of taxes of said city or town of said selection. It shall thereupon become the duty of such collector to deposit at the close of business each day one-half of all moneys collected by him for the twenty-four hours next preceding, on account of all the taxes of whatever nature levied by said city or town, with the said depository, whose receipt therefor shall be an acquittance to said collector; and said collectors shall be liable on their official bonds for any failure to promptly make such deposits and for ten per cent per month of such amounts, and in addition thereto as penalty; which sums may be recovered by said board of liquidation in a suit therefor; and it shall be their duty to promptly institute such suits. But whenever the total of said deposits shall equal the annual interest on said bonds it shall be lawful for such collector to discontinue said deposits until he shall be notified in writing by said board that said deposits are reduced below that sum. Said funds of cities or towns shall be subject to the order of said boards of liquidation, and shall be applied by them to the payment, first, of the interest on said bonds as the same matures; and secondly, to the payment of the principal thereof; and thirdly, to the payment of interest on any valid bonds issued under the provisions hereof; and fourthly, to the payment of the principal of bonds of the character last referred to on the maturity of same. The members of said board shall be liable for the prompt payment of said interest out of said funds, and in case of failure or refusal they shall, in addition, be liable to ten per cent of the amount of such interest as damages to be recovered by any person aggrieved thereby, in any court of competent jurisdiction. Whenever there shall be in the hands of such depositories a sufficient sum to pay two per cent of the principal of said bonds in addition to one year's interest it shall be the duty of said board of liquidation to use the same in the purchase of outstanding bonds, provided in article 476, which bonds when so purchased shall be cancelled, and shall, together with all coupons which have been paid, be returned to the council of the city or town. Expenses incurred by said board in advertising for purchase of bonds shall be paid out of said funds. Said boards shall make semi-annual reports to the said councils of their acts and of all receipts and disbursements of moneys coming under their control.

The method of arranging a compromise.
Ib.

Art. 480. Any city or town so situated as is herein set forth, which fails to effect a compromise of its debts, or pending the negotiation of a compromise, shall be permitted, on its application setting forth its financial condition and insolvency, to have the district court of the county in which said city or town is situated take charge of the collection and appropriation of all taxes levied and assessed by said city or town, except so much thereof as is necessary to pay the current expenses of the city or town; and to that end said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint a receiver, or may make the assessor and collector of said city or town its receiver, to collect and pay into a named depository all taxes levied by said city or town for the payment of its debts; and said courts shall decide all questions of priority between conflicting claimants of said funds, and shall provide for the ratable and equitable distribution of said funds among all creditors entitled thereto. But it shall not be lawful for any court to appoint a receiver of or concerning any city or town except upon the voluntary application of such city or town.

Art. 481. Cities and towns shall also have authority to fund, compromise and liquidate their indebtedness and issue bonds therefor under such conditions, restrictions and limitations as are prescribed under title County Finances, chapter two, conferring such authority on counties, cities and towns, and as may be otherwise provided by law.

Other instances when debts may be compromised and bonds issued, etc.

Art. 482. The boards of aldermen, or other constituted municipal authorities of cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, are hereby authorized and empowered to appropriate money to improve and to aid in the improvement of their harbors and of the bars at the entrance thereof; provided, that they shall not thereby increase their aggregate debt beyond the amount of indebtedness limited by their charters respectively; such appropriations to be made out of any surplus funds which may at any time be on hand, and by the use or sale of any bonds heretofore authorized to be issued; provided, such bonds are not needed for the purposes for which they were specially authorized; and also if necessary therefor, to issue and dispose of bonds with interest coupons, attached in such amounts as may be necessary, not to exceed the limit of indebtedness fixed by their charters.

Gulf cities may issue bonds for harbors, etc. (Acts of 1883, p. 48.)

Art. 483. The city council or other constituted municipal authorities, as the case may be, shall levy an annual ad valorem tax on the property in said city, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds, as required by the constitution. The interest on said bonds shall be paid semi-annually, and it shall not exceed five per cent. Said bonds shall not be sold at less than par.

Tax to be levied, interest paid and bonds sold, etc. lb.

Art. 483a. The city council or town council in any city or town within this state having less than three thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding census, may by an ordinance of said city council or town council, as the case may be, dispense with the office of marshal; provided, that when the city marshal has been elected by the people he shall not be removed during his term of office under the provisions of this article.

May dispense with office of city marshal. (Acts of 1895, p. 49.)

Ad valorem tax.
Ib. §81.
(Const., art. 11, §4.)

Article 484. [425] The city council shall have power within the city, by ordinance, to annually levy and collect taxes, not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent on the assessed value of all real and personal estate and property in the city not exempt from taxation by the constitution and laws of the state.

To levy and collect tax and issue bonds for improvements, buildings, etc.
(Acts of 1885, p. 99.)

Art. 485. The city or town council or board of aldermen of any incorporated city or town within the limits of this state shall have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of not exceeding twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property within such city or town for the erection, construction or purchase of public buildings, streets, sewers and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have assumed or which may hereafter assume the exclusive control and management of the public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits.

Levy tax and issue bonds for public improvements.

Art. 486. [425c] The city or town council of any city or town in this state incorporated under the general laws shall have the power by ordinance to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax sufficient to meet the interest and sinking fund on all indebtedness legally incurred prior to the adoption of the constitutional amendment in 1883, regarding the power of cities and towns to levy and collect taxes, etc., and may levy and collect twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property in such city or town for current expenses, and may levy and collect an additional twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, waterworks, sewers, street improvements and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town, and all cities and towns providing for such improvements shall have the power to issue coupon bonds of the city therefor in such sum or sums as they may deem expedient, to bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum; provided, that the aggregate amount of bonds issued for the above named purposes shall never reach an amount where the tax of one-fourth of one per cent will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity, and the amount of bonds legally issued under acts passed prior to the adoption of the present constitution shall not be computed and estimated in the amount of bonds which may be issued for the above named city improvements. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for the public free schools and institutions of learning, within those which have assumed or may assume hereafter the exclusive control and management of the public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits, and shall also have power to levy by ordinance a tax not exceeding fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars for the improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such town or city within its limits as provided by the amendment of 1883, to the constitution of this state.

Art. 487. [426] Cities having more than ten thousand inhabitants may levy, assess and collect taxes not exceeding one and one-half per cent on the assessed value of real and personal estate and property in the city, not exempt from taxation by the constitution and laws of the state, and assessments, levy and collection of taxes made by such cities for the year 1889 are hereby made valid to the amount aforesaid, and such cities are hereby authorized to levy, assess and collect a further tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property for the purpose of paying the debts of such city lawfully contracted prior to the first day of January, 1889, not to include any bonded debt. Any funding warrants that may be issued for such debt by any such city shall not be included in the limit of six per cent prescribed by article 466; provided, that this article shall not apply to or in any manner affect any city organized under a special charter, and shall not be construed to validate any debt contracted by any city without authority of law existing at the time the same was contracted.

Cities of 10,000 inhabitants and over to levy and collect tax; validating act. (Acts of 1889, p. 3.)

Art. 488. [427] No debt shall ever be created by any city unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon, and create a sinking fund of at least two per cent thereon.

Debt shall not be created unless provision be made to pay the same. (Const., art. 11, §6.)

Art. 489. [428] The city council shall have power to levy and collect an annual poll tax, not to exceed one dollar, of every male inhabitant of said city over the age of twenty-one years (idiots and lunatics excepted), who is a resident thereof at the time of such annual assessment.

Poll tax. (Acts of 1875, p. 256, §83.)

Art. 490. [429] The city council shall have power to levy and collect taxes, commonly known as licenses, upon trades, professions, callings and other business carried on; and upon carriages, hacks, coaches, buggies, drays, carts, wagons, and other vehicles used in said city, when the same are for public use; and each and every person and firm engaging in the following trades, professions, callings and business, among others, shall be liable to pay such license tax; but this enumeration shall not be construed to deprive the city council of the right and power to levy and collect other license taxes, and from other persons and firms, under the general authority herein granted.

Occupation tax. Ib. §83.

Art. 491. [430] Every person and firm engaged in selling goods, wares and merchandise; every person and firm selling liquor in quantities over a quart; every person and firm keeping a grog-shop, tippling-place, bar-room or drinking-saloon; every person or firm keeping a place where spirituous liquors, wines, cordials or beer are sold in quantities less than one quart; every person or firm keeping a billiard table, ball alley, or nine or ten-pin alley, or any similar game; every person or firm keeping a tavern or hotel, or boarding-house; every person or firm keeping a restaurant, eating-house, oyster-shop, oyster-saloon, or place of any description where eating or refreshments are furnished; every person or firm keeping a liv-

Same subject.
Ib. §85.

Art. 492. [431] Each and every firm keeping a lumber, wood or coal yard, or any place for sale of the articles aforesaid, or building material, shall be subject to said license tax, and all other persons from whom the city council may require said tax, under the authority in this title granted; provided, nothing herein contained shall in any wise prevent or restrain the city council from collecting the license, and each license tax hereinbefore provided for by this title; each establishment shall be liable to said license tax; and any person or firm pursuing occupations, business, avocations or callings subject to said tax shall pay on each, and no license shall extend to more than one establishment, or include more than one occupation, avocation, business or calling.

Power of city council to provide for assessing, etc., taxes.
Ib. §86.

Art. 493. [432] The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the assessing and collecting of the taxes aforesaid, and to determine when taxes shall be paid by corporations, and when by the individual corporators; provided, no tax shall be levied unless by consent of two-thirds of the aldermen elected.

Collection of license tax, etc.
Ib. §87.

Art. 494. [433] The license tax shall be collected by the assessor and collector, and shall be paid to that officer by each and every person and firm owing such license and before engaging in any trade, profession, business, calling, avocation or occupation subject to said tax; and if any person shall engage in any business, calling, avocation or occupation which by an ordinance of the said city is subject to a license tax, without first having obtained said license, he, she or they shall, on conviction before the mayor or recorder's court, be liable to imprisonment or a fine of ten dollars, or both imprisonment and such fine, for each day such violation of said ordinance may continue; and this article shall apply to all persons owing any license and failing to pay the same; provided, that the city council may collect said license tax by suit in any court having jurisdiction, under such rules and regulations as they may provide by ordinance; said taxes, commonly known as licenses, laid as herein provided, shall not be construed to be a tax on property within the meaning of article 89, or any other article of this title.

Real estate includes what.
Ib. §88.

Art. 495. [434] The term real estate or property, as used in this title, shall be construed to include lots, lands and all buildings or machinery and structures of every kind erected upon and affixed to the same.

Personal estate includes what.
Ib. §89.

Art. 496. [435] The term personal estate or property, as used in this title, shall be construed to include all household furniture, money, goods, capital, chattels, public stocks and stocks of corporations, moneyed or otherwise, and generally all property which is not real.

Art. 497. [436] The city council may, by ordinance, provide for the exemption from taxation of such property as they may deem just and proper; provided, nothing contained in this chapter on taxation shall be construed to prevent the city council from imposing, levying and collecting special taxes and assessments for the improvement of the avenues, streets and alleys, as hereinafter provided.

City council may provide for the exemption of property from taxation, etc. Ib. §90.

Art. 498. [437] The city council may also levy, assess and collect taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken; but all such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from those levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor, and such taxes may be paid in the coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied.

Article 499. [438] The city council may and shall have full power to provide by ordinance for the prompt collection of all taxes assessed, levied and imposed under this title, and due or becoming due to said city, and are hereby authorized, and to that end may and shall have full power and authority to sell or cause to be sold real as well as personal property, and may and shall make all such rules and regulations, and ordain and pass all ordinances as they may deem necessary to the levying, laying, imposing, assessing and collecting of any of the taxes herein provided.

Power of city council to provide for collection of taxes. (Acts of 1875, p. 256, §91.)

Art. 500. [439] The city council shall have power by ordinance to regulate the manner and mode of making out tax lists or inventories and appraisements of property therein, and to prescribe the oath that shall be administered to each person on such rendition of property, and to prescribe how and when property shall thus be rendered, and to prescribe the number and form of assessment rolls, and fix the duties and define the powers of the assessor and collector, and adopt such measures as they may deem advisable to secure the assessment of all property within the limits of said city, and collect the tax thereupon; and may by ordinance provide that any person, firm or corporation having property subject to taxation or being liable for any tax under the provisions of this title, and neglecting to render a list, inventory and appraisalment thereof, as required by ordinance of said city, shall be liable to fine and imprisonment.

Duty of tax-payers to render inventory of property, etc.
Ib. §93.

Art. 501. [440] Every person, partnership and corporation owning property within the limits of the corporation shall, within two months after published notice, hand in to the assessor and collector of the city a full and complete inventory of the property possessed or controlled by him, her or them within said limits not exempt from taxation, on the first day of January of the current year, verified as required by ordinance; and any person failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this article shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, and the city council shall, by ordinance, clearly define the duties of tax-payers herein, and make all necessary rules and regulations to secure the rendition of property and the collection of taxes due thereon.

Duty of assessor and collector to make lists of property, etc.
Ib. §95.

Art. 502. [442] It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector to make out a list of all personal property which has not been given in for assessment according to the provisions of this title, and assess the same in the name of the owner, if he be known; if not, then it shall be assessed by description of the property and as unknown owner, and the value of such property shall be determined by the board of equalization, and the same may be sold as in other cases, if the tax be not paid in the time prescribed by law.

Unrendered property shall be ascertained, etc., by assessor.
Ib. §96.

Art. 503. [443] It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector, at the expiration of the time fixed by ordinance for the rendition of property, to ascertain such property in the city subject to taxation as has not been rendered, and the same shall be by him presented to the board of equalization for valuation by said board, and the same shall be by him entered in a supplement to the assessment roll as unknown, specifying the year for which said tax is not paid within the time prescribed by law; said property shall be sold at the same time and with like effect as other property.

Assessment for back taxes.
Ib. §97.

Art. 504. [444] Whenever the assessor and collector shall ascertain that any taxable property, real or personal, has not been assessed for the past year, he shall assess the same in a supplement to his next assessment roll, at the same rate under which such property should have been assessed for such year, stating the year for which such property should have been assessed, and the taxes thereon shall be collected in the same manner as other assessments. In all cases where any party has omitted to render property for taxation for any former year or years, and such taxes have not been paid, such party shall give such property in for assessment for the years thus omitted and pay such taxes, and the assessor and collector shall enter all such property in a supplement to his next assessment roll, under the head of payments for former years.

Appointment and duties of board of equalization.
(Acts of 1837, p. 152.)

Art. 505. The city councils of the several cities and towns of this state incorporated under the general laws shall annually, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter, a resident and property-owner of the city or town for which he is appointed, who shall be styled the board of equalization, and at the same meeting said council shall by ordinance fix the time for the meeting of such board of equalization.

Annual meetings of said board.
Ib.

Art. 506. The board of equalization shall convene annually, at the time fixed by the city council, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for examination, correction, equalization, appraisalment, and approval, and at all meetings of said board the city secretary shall act as secretary thereof.

Art. 507. The board of equalization shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time fixed for the convening of said board, all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for their examination, that they may see if each and every person has rendered his property at a fair market value, and said board shall have power to send for persons and papers, to swear and qualify persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property; and if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and if too low, they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said board shall also have power to correct any errors that may appear on the assessor's lists or books.

Shall value
property.
Ib.

Art. 508. The board of equalization shall equalize as near as possible the value of all the improved lots within the corporate limits of their city, having reference to the size and location of said lots and the improvements thereon, and shall equalize the value of unimproved lots as near as possible, having reference to the size and location thereof, and all other property of the same kind shall be made as nearly equal as possible. Any person may file with said board at any time before the final action of said board a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said board shall hear said complaint, and said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses summoned in sustaining said complaint as to the insurance on said property, or the rents and profits it may bring the holder thereof.

Values to be equalized by board.
Ib.

Art. 509. The city assessor at the same time that he delivers to said board his lists and books, as provided in article 507, shall also furnish to said board a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse to swear or qualify or to sign the oath or affirmation as required by law, together with a list of the property of such persons situated within the corporate limits of their city, as made by him through other information, and said board shall examine said lists and appraise the property so listed by the assessor.

Unrendered property list to be examined by board.
Ib.

Art. 510. In all cases where the board of equalization shall find it their duty to raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor, they shall, after having fully examined such lists or books and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said board to give written notice to the owner of such property or to the person rendering the same of the time to which said board may have adjourned, and that such owner or person rendering the said property may at that time appear and show cause why the value of said property should not be raised, which notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city postoffice.

Notice to property owners.
Ib.

Art. 511. The board of equalization shall meet at the time specified in said order of adjournment, and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised, and if said board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value.

Board to lower values,
when.
Ib.

Art. 512. The board of equalization, after they have finally examined and equalized the value of all property on the assessor's lists or books, shall approve said lists or books and return them together with the lists mentioned in article 509, that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by law; and when said general rolls are so made up the board shall meet again to examine said rolls and approve the same if found correct.

Action of board final.
Ib.

Art. 513. The action of said board at the meeting provided for in article 511, shall be final, and shall not be subject to revision by said board or by any other tribunal thereafter.

Compensation of board.
Ib.

Art. 514. The members of the board of equalization and the city secretary while acting as secretary of said board shall receive such compensation for their services, to be allowed by the city council, as said council may deem just and reasonable.

Oath to be taken.
Ib.

Art. 515. Before said board shall enter upon their duties they shall be sworn, by any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially discharge all duties incumbent upon them by law as such board.

Duty of assessor and collector in regard to collection of taxes.
(Acts of 1875, p. 256, §98.)

Art. 516. [445] The assessor and collector, after the completion of the assessment roll, as required by ordinance, shall proceed to collect the taxes therein mentioned within the time, and give such notice as may be prescribed by the city council, and for that purpose shall call once upon every person taxed, or on the agent or attorney of such person at the usual place of his or her residence, office, place of business, or elsewhere, and demand the payment of the tax charged upon his or her person or property, if the person is to be found, and if not, then a written demand, specifying the amount of taxes due, left at the residence with some adult member of the family, shall be a sufficient demand; provided, that if any person thus owing taxes has no residence, office, or place of business, and no agent in the city or known to the assessor and collector, then the said demand shall not be necessary, and the ordinary published notice required by ordinance shall be sufficient.

Property of taxpayer shall be levied on and sold for taxes, when.
Ib. §100.

Art. 517. [446] If any person shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay the taxes imposed on him and his property, within the time prescribed by the ordinances of said city, the assessor and collector shall, by virtue of his tax list and assessment roll, levy upon so much property liable to taxation belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, and the assessor and collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale by advertisement in writing (if not unknown property), the property and amount of taxes, costs and fees due thereupon; such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in said city, and at the expiration of such notice, and on the day therein specified, the assessor and collector shall proceed to sell such property at public auction, in front of the court house door of the city, or such building as may be used for such purpose; provided, that when real estate is offered for sale the smallest portion of grounds (to be taken from the east side of the premises) shall be sold for which any person will take the same and pay the taxes, costs and fees.

Assessor and collector shall make deed to purchaser to property sold for taxes; effect of deed, right of redemption, etc.
Ib. §100.

Art. 518. [447] The assessor and collector shall, when any property has been sold for the payment of taxes, make, execute and deliver a deed for said property to the person purchasing the same, and such deed shall be prima facie evidence in all controversies and suits in relation to the right of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, to the premises thereby conveyed, of the following facts:

First—That the land or lot or portions thereof conveyed was subject to taxation or assessment at the time the same was advertised for sale, and had been listed or assessed in the time or manner required by law.

Second—That the taxes or assessment were not paid at any time before the sale.

Third—That the land, lot, or portion thereof conveyed, had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed, and shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts:

1. That the land, lot or portion thereof sold was advertised for sale in the manner and for the length of time required by law.

2. That the property was sold for taxes or assessments as stated in the deed.

3. That the grantee in the deed was the purchaser.

4. That the sale was conducted in the manner prescribed by law.

And in all controversies and suits involving the title to land claimed and held under and by virtue of such deed, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat said title, either that the land was not subject to taxation at the date of the sale, that the taxes or assessment had been paid, that the land had never been listed or assessed for taxation and assessment as required by this title or some ordinance of the city, or that the same had been redeemed according to the provisions of this title, and that such redemption was made for the use and benefit of the person having the right of redemption under the law; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by the said deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims title, had title to the land at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained after the sale, and that all taxes due upon the lands have been paid by such person or the person under whom he claims title as aforesaid; provided, however, that the owner of such property shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years of the day and date of the sale thereof, upon paying to the purchaser double the amount of taxes for which the same was sold, together with the costs of such sale and double the amount of all taxes paid by the purchaser since such sale. The assessor and collector shall have full power to levy upon any personal property to satisfy any tax imposed by this title; all taxes shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are assessed, and in case any property levied upon is about to be removed out of the city, the assessor and collector shall proceed to take into his possession so much thereof as will pay the taxes assessed and costs of collection.

Art. 519. [448] If from any cause the sale of property levied upon or seized for taxes shall not take place at the time first appointed, the assessor and collector shall appoint some other time, give like notice, and proceed to sell such property in the manner prescribed in the first instance; and in case said property levied upon or seized for taxes can not be sold on the day advertised, such sale may be postponed from day to day until completed, of which postponement the assessor and collector shall give verbal notice at the expiration of sale each day.

Sale may take place at another time than that first advertised, when, and may be continued from day to day.
Ib. §101.

Art. 520. [449] If at any sale of real or personal property or estate for taxes no bid shall be made for any parcel of land or any goods and chattels, the same shall be struck off to the city, and thereupon the city shall receive, in the corporate name, a deed for said property, and shall be vested with the same right as other purchasers at such sale, and shall have power to sell and convey the same.

Property shall be struck off to city, when.
Ib. §102.

Property of infant, etc., may be redeemed, when.

Ib. §103.

Taxes, etc., collectible in current money only. (Const., art. 11, §4.)

Ib. §105.

Art. 521. [450] If the real estate of an infant, feme covert or lunatic be sold under this title, the same may be redeemed at any time within one year after such disability be removed.

Art. 522. [452] Taxes levied to defray the current expenses of the city government, and all license and occupation taxes levied, and all fines, forfeitures, penalties and other dues accruing to cities, shall be collectible only in current money.

City council may regulate and control the erection, etc., of wooden buildings.

Article 523. [453] The city council, for the purpose of guarding against the calamities of fire, may prohibit the erection, building, placing, moving or repairing of wooden buildings within such limits within said city as they may designate and prescribe; and may within said limits prohibit the moving or putting up of any wooden building from without said limits, and may also prohibit the removal of any wooden building from one place to another within said limits, and may direct, require and prescribe that all buildings within the limits so designated and prescribed as aforesaid shall be made or constructed of fire-proof materials, and to prohibit the rebuilding or repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits when the same shall have been damaged to the extent of fifty per cent of the value thereof, and may prescribe the manner of ascertaining such damage; may declare all the dilapidated buildings to be nuisances and direct the same to be repaired, removed or abated in such manner as they shall prescribe and direct; to declare all wooden buildings in the fire limits which they deem dangerous to contiguous buildings, or in causing or promoting fires, to be nuisances, and require and cause the same to be removed in such manner as they shall prescribe.

May prohibit, etc., dangerous condition of chimneys, etc.

Ib. §106.

Art. 524. [454] The city council shall have power to prevent and prohibit the dangerous condition of chimneys, flues, fire-places, stovepipes, ovens, or other apparatus used in or about any building or manufactory, and to cause the same to be removed or placed in a secure and safe condition when considered dangerous.

May prevent deposits of ashes in improper places, etc.

Ib. §107.

Art. 525. [455] To prevent the deposit of ashes in places where they would be liable to produce fire, or in any wooden box or barrel, or within any wooden building, and to appoint one or more officers to enter into all buildings and inclosures to examine and discover whether the same are in a dangerous state, and to cause such as may be dangerous to be put in a safe condition.

Art. 526. [456] To require the inhabitants to keep and provide as many fire-buckets and ladders or other means to reach the roof as they shall prescribe, and to regulate the use thereof in times of fire.

May require inhabitants to keep fire buckets, etc.
Ib. §108.

Art. 527. [457] To regulate or prevent the carrying on of manufactories and works dangerous in promoting or causing fires; to prohibit or regulate the building and erection of cotton presses and sheds.

May regulate carrying on of business dangerous in promoting fires.
Ib. §109.

Art. 528. [458] To regulate or prevent and prohibit the use of fireworks and firearms.

May regulate, etc., use of fireworks and firearms.
Ib. §110.

Art. 529. [459] To direct, control or prohibit the keeping and management of houses or any buildings for the storing of gunpowder and other combustible, explosive or dangerous materials within the city; to regulate the keeping and conveying of the same.

May control, etc., the storing of gunpowder, etc.
Ib. §111.

Art. 530. [460] To regulate and prescribe the manner and to order the building of parapet and party-walls.

May regulate, etc., the building of parapet and party walls.
Ib. §112.

Art. 531. [461] To compel the owners or occupants of houses or other buildings to have scuttles in the roofs and stairs or ladders leading to the same.

May compel owners of buildings to have scuttles, etc.
Ib. §113.

Art. 532. [462] To authorize the mayor, officers of fire companies or any officer of said city to keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle, disorderly and suspicious persons, and arrest and imprison the same, and compel all officers of the city and all other persons to aid in the extinguishment of fires and in the preservation of property exposed to danger thereat, and in preventing goods from being stolen.

May provide regulations for extinguishment of fires.
Ib. §114.

Art. 533. [463] And generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as the city council may deem expedient.

Same subject.
Ib. §115.

Art. 534. [464] The city council may procure fire engines and other apparatus for the extinguishment of fires, and have control thereof, and provide engine-houses for keeping and preserving the same; and shall have power to organize fire, hook and ladder, hose and ax companies and fire brigade; and the companies so organized, with such assistant engineers as may be provided for, and the chief engineer, shall constitute the fire department of the city. Each company shall have the right to elect its own members and officers. The engineers shall be chosen in such manner as said department may determine, subject to the approval of the city council, who shall define the duties of said officers and pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the interest and welfare of said department and to contribute to the efficiency thereof; all officers so elected and approved shall be commissioned by the mayor, and the said companies, officers and members shall observe and be governed by the ordinances of said city relating to the fire department; said companies shall have power to adopt their own constitution and by-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this title and the ordinances of said city; and said department shall take the care and management of the engines and other implements and apparatus provided and used for the extinguishment of fires, and their powers and duties shall be prescribed and defined by the city council.

May procure fire engines, etc.
Ib. §116.

Art. 535. [465] When any building in the city is on fire it shall be lawful for the chief or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, to direct such building, or any other building which they may deem hazardous and likely to take fire and communicate to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up or destroyed, and no action shall be maintained against any person or against the city therefor; but any person interested in any such building so destroyed or injured may within six months, and not thereafter, apply in writing to the city council to assess and pay the damage he has sustained, and if the city council and the claimant can not agree on the terms of adjustment, then the application of such claimant shall be referred to three commissioners, one to be appointed by the claimant, one by the city council, and the third by both. They shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duty according to the best of their ability, shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses and shall give all parties a fair and impartial hearing, and give notice of time and place of meeting; said commissioners shall be qualified voters and owners of real estate in the city, shall take into account the probabilities whether the said building would have been destroyed by fire if it had not been so pulled down and destroyed, and the loss of insurance upon said property, if any, caused by pulling down, blowing up or destroying said building, and may report that no damage should equitably be allowed to such claimant.

Damages satisfied, how.

Art. 536. [466] Whenever a report shall be made, and finally confirmed for the appraising of said damages, a compliance with the terms thereof by the city council shall be deemed a full satisfaction of said damages.

{ City council may appoint health physician, etc. Ib. §119.

Article 537. [467] The city council may appoint a health physician, and as many health inspectors as they may deem necessary, and shall prescribe, by ordinance, the powers and duties and compensation of the same.

Power to make regulations in regard to pestilence and disease. Ib. §120.

Art. 538. [468] The city council shall have power to take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilence, contagious or infectious diseases into the city; to stop, detain and examine, for that purpose, any person coming from any place infected or believed to be infected with that disease; to establish, maintain and regulate pest-houses or hospitals at some place within the city, or not exceeding five miles beyond its bounds; to cause any person who shall be suspected of being infected with any such disease to be sent to such pest-house or hospital; to remove from the city or destroy any furniture, wearing apparel, or property of any kind which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with pestilence, or which shall be likely to pass into such a state as to generate or propagate diseases; to abate all nuisances of every description which are or may become injurious to the public health, in any manner that they may deem expedient; and from time to time, do all acts, make all regulations and pass all ordinances which they shall deem expedient for the preservation of health and the suppression of disease in the city.

Art. 539. [469] The owner, driver, conductor or person in charge of any stage, railroad car or public conveyance, which shall enter the city, having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person became sick on the way and could not be left, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment, and such owner, driver, conductor or person in charge, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health physician; and every neglect to comply with these provisions shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either.

Owner, etc., of public conveyance conveying into city persons sick with contagious disease, liable to punishment, when.
Ib. §121.

Art. 540. [470] Any person who shall bring, or cause to be brought into the city, any person or property of any kind, tainted or infected with malignant fever, or pestilential or infectious disease, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either.

Any person liable to punishment, when.
Ib. §122.

Art. 541. [471] Every keeper of an inn, hotel, tavern, boarding or lodging house in the city, in which any inmate thereof shall be sick with small-pox, varioloid, yellow fever, or other infectious or pestilential disease, shall, upon such fact coming to his knowledge, forthwith report the same to the health officer. Every physician in the city shall report under his hand, to the officer above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient. A violation of either of the provisions of this section, or any part of either of them, shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either.

Inn-keeper, physician, etc., shall report persons sick with smallpox, etc.
Ib. §123.

Art. 542. [472] The city council shall have power to require the filling up, draining and regulating of any lot or lots, grounds or yards, or any other places in the city, which shall be unwholesome, or have stagnant water therein, or from any other cause be in such condition as to be liable to produce disease; also, to cause all premises to be inspected, and to impose fines on the owners of houses under which such stagnant water may be found, and to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and for the making, filling up, altering or repairing of all sinks and privies, and directing the mode and material for constructing them in future, and for cleansing and disinfecting the same; and for cleansing of any house, building, establishment, lot, yard or ground, from filth, carrion or impure or unwholesome matter of any kind, and to punish any owner or occupant violating the provisions of any ordinance so passed, as aforesaid; and the city council shall, also, in addition to the foregoing remedy, have the power to cause any of the improvements above mentioned to be done at the expense of the city, on account of the owners, and cause expenses to be assessed on the real estate, or lot or lots, benefited thereby; and on filing with the county clerk of the county in which the city is situated a statement, by the mayor, of such expenses, shall have a first and privileged lien on such property to secure such expenditure, and twelve per cent interest thereon. For any such expenditures and interest, as aforesaid, suit may be instituted and recovery had in the

ib. §126.

Article 544. [474] The city council shall be invested with full power and authority to grade, gravel, repair, pave or otherwise improve any avenue, street or alley, or any portion thereof, within the limits of said city, whenever, by a vote of two-thirds of the aldermen present, they may deem such improvement for the public interest; provided, the city council pay one-third and the owner of the property two-thirds thereof, except at the intersection of streets, from lot to lot across the streets either way, shall be paid for by the city alone; and said costs shall be assessed on the property fronting on said street so improved, to be collected in equal annual payments, not less than five in number, and all moneys collected from these assessments shall be appropriated exclusively to the payment of the bonds issued for the cost of said improvement.

Estimate of cost of improvements shall be made,
etc.
ib. §127.

Art. 545. [475] Whenever the city council shall determine to make any such improvement, they shall cause an estimate to be made of the probable cost thereof by the city engineer, or by some other officer of the city, or by a committee of three aldermen; and such engineer or other officer or committee shall also report a full list of all lots or fractional lots, giving number and size of the same, and the number of the block in which situated, and the names of the owners thereof, if known, and such other information as may be required by the city council, and if there be any lot or fractional lot the owner of which is not known, the same shall be entered on said list as unknown; it shall be the duty of the officer or committee aforesaid to enter on said list, opposite each lot or fractional lot lying and being on each side of the street, avenue or alley so to be improved as aforesaid, one-third of the estimated expense for such work or improvement on such avenue, street or alley, fronting, adjoining or opposite such lot or fractional lot; and on the acceptance and approval of said report and list by the city council, said amount shall be imposed, levied and assessed as taxes, and shall be a lien upon the property until the payment of the same.

Art. 546. [476] After such action on the part of the city council as above provided for, such officer or committee shall give such notice as may be required by ordinance, of said tax being due and within what time payable, and shall commence forthwith to collect the same. And after the expiration of the period for payment of said tax, said officer or committee shall levy on so much of any property on said list on which said tax has not been paid as will be sufficient to pay the same, and the same notice of sale as is required in sales for other tax shall be given; and if said tax be not paid before the day of sale, said officer or committee shall sell said property in the name and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the same conditions which are or may be provided by ordinance for sale of real estate in the city, charged with the payment of taxes imposed by the said corporation; and said officer or committee shall execute a deed to the purchaser at any such sale, and all other provisions of this title in reference to a deed drawn by the assessor and collector shall apply to the deed provided for in this article.

Property levied on and sold for taxes for improvements, when and how, etc. Ib. §128.

Art. 547. [477] In addition to the power and authority granted to the city council to collect said assessment of taxes as aforesaid, they shall have the further power and additional remedy of instituting suit in the corporate name in any court having jurisdiction for the recovery against any owner of property for the amount due for any such work so made as aforesaid; and the city council shall provide, by resolution or ordinance under the provisions of this title, for carrying out and executing the powers in this chapter conferred, and may adopt such resolutions and enact such ordinances and make such regulations as they may deem necessary.

Suit against owner of property for improvement tax, when, etc. Ib. §129.

Art. 548. That whenever the city council of any incorporated city or town shall deem it necessary to take any private property in order to open, change or widen any public street, avenue or alley, or for the construction of water mains or supply reservoirs or stand pipes for waterworks or sewers, or for the purpose of establishing thereon one or more hospitals or pest-houses within or without the limits of such city or town, such property may be taken for such purposes by making just compensation to the owner thereof. If the amount of such compensation can not be agreed upon it shall be the duty of such city council to cause to be stated in writing the real estate or property sought to be taken, the name of the owner thereof and his residence, if known, and file such statement with the county judge of the county in which said property is situated. Any company or corporation chartered under the laws of this state for the purpose of constructing waterworks or furnishing water supply for any town or city shall have the same right to condemn property necessary for the construction of supply reservoirs or stand pipes for waterworks, when deemed necessary to preserve the public health, that is given towns and cities under this article. Upon the filing of the statement provided for in this article it shall be the duty of said judge, in term time or vacation, to appoint three disinterested freeholders and qualified voters of the county as special commissioners to assess the damages to accrue to the owner by reason of such condemnation.

Condemnation of property. (Acts of 1891, p. 172.)

Art. 549. The commissioners so appointed shall, in their proceedings, be governed and controlled by the law in force in reference to the condemnation of the right of way for railroad companies and the assessment of damages therefor—the city, town, company or

City council may cause dangerous buildings, etc., to be removed. (Acts of 1875, p. 256, §131.)

Article 550. [479] Whenever, in the opinion of the city council, any building, fence, shed, awning or any erection of any kind or any part thereof is liable to fall down and endanger persons or property, they may order any owner or agent of the same, or any owner or occupant of the premises on which such building, shed, awning or other erection stands or to which it is attached, to take down and remove the same, or any part thereof, within such time as they may direct; and to punish by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect, failure or refusal to comply therewith. The city council shall, in addition, have the power to remove the same at the expense of the city on account of the owner of the property or premises, and assess the expenses on the land on which it stood or to which it was attached; and shall, by ordinance, provide for such assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice and the means of recovering any such expenses.

Writs of mayor, etc., may be executed anywhere in the county. Ib. §132.

Art. 551. [480] Writs issued by the mayor or recorder of said city for offenses against the laws may be executed, and the accused person or persons arrested by the marshal or his deputies anywhere within the county in which such city is situated.

Proceedings when a peace bond, etc., given before mayor, etc., has been forfeited. Ib. §133.

Art. 552. [481] Whenever any person has been required by the mayor or recorder to give a peace bond, or a bond for good behavior, or any similar bond under this title, and has complied with such orders, and been guilty of a violation or infraction of such bond, and the same is proved or established to the satisfaction of that officer in any trial or complaint, such party so offending may be fined in the sum of two hundred dollars and imprisoned for two months; and the city in its corporate name may sue in any court having jurisdiction for the recovery of the penalty of such bond.

Art. 553. [482] The wards of each city accepting the provisions of this title shall be and remain unchanged by its acceptance; provided, that the city council shall have power from time to time to cause a division of said city to be made into as many wards as they may deem necessary, and for the good of the inhabitants of said city, and may change the boundaries of the same; but no such division or change shall be made unless it be done at least three months preceding the city election next ensuing, and said wards so established shall contain as far as practicable an equal number of voters.

Wards of city to remain unchanged until, etc. Ib. §134.

Art. 554. [483] In all cases where, by any provision of this title or by ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, a person is required to obtain a license for any calling, occupation, business or avocation, and has, on complaint before the mayor or recorder, been adjudged guilty of violating any rule, regulation, or ordinance of the city council in relation thereto, the mayor or recorder, in addition to fine and imprisonment, or either, may suspend or revoke the license so granted.

Occupation license to be suspended or revoked, etc., when. Ib. §135.

Art. 555. [484] The city council shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of each municipal year, contract as they may, by ordinance or resolution, determine, with a public newspaper of the city as the official paper thereof, and to continue as such until another is elected, and shall cause to be published therein all ordinances, notices, and other matters required by this title or by the ordinance of the city to be published.

Official paper, and contract for publishing, etc. Ib. §136.

Art. 556. [485] The city council shall, at least ten days before the expiration of each municipal year, cause to be published in a city newspaper a correct and full statement of the receipts and expenditures from the date of the last annual report, together with the sources from which the funds were derived, and showing for what purpose disbursed, the condition of the treasury, together with such information as may be necessary to a full understanding of the financial condition of the city.

Statement of receipts and expenditures, etc., shall be published annually. Ib. §137.

Art. 557. [486] Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine, imprisonment or forfeiture shall, after the passage thereof, be published in every issue of the official paper for ten days; if the official paper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof; and proof of such publication shall be made by the printer or publisher of such paper making affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, and filed with the secretary of the city or town, and shall be prima facie evidence of such publication and promulgation of such ordinances in all courts of the state, and such ordinances so published shall take effect and be in force from and after the publication thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ordinances not required to be published shall take effect and be in force from and after the passage, unless otherwise provided. If any town or city shall desire to publish its ordinances in pamphlet or book form, it shall not be necessary to republish such ordinances as have been previously published.

Ordinances, when and how published. (Acts of 1889, p. 4.)

Art. 558. [487] All ordinances of the city, where printed and published by authority of the city council, shall be admitted and received in all courts and places without further proof.

Published ordinances admissible in evidence. (Acts of 1875, p. 256, §139.)

Style of ordinances.
Ib. §140.

Art. 559. [488] The style of all ordinances shall be, "Be it ordained by the city council of the city of ——" [inserting the name of the city]; but it may be omitted when published in the form of a book or pamphlet.

Ordinances, etc., remain in force until, etc.
Ib. §141.

Art. 560. [489] All ordinances, regulations or resolutions in force in any city accepting the provisions of this title, and not in conflict with this title, shall remain in force under this title until altered, amended or repealed by the city council, after this title shall take effect.

Fines, etc., to be paid into city treasury.
Ib. §142.

Art. 561. [490] All fines, forfeitures and penalties for the breach or violation of this title, or any regulation, order or ordinance of the city council, shall, when collected, be paid into the city treasury for the use and benefit of said city.

None but resident voters eligible to office.
Ib. §143.

Art. 562. [491] No person other than an elector, resident of the city, shall be appointed to any office by the city council.

Resignation of officers.
Ib. §144.

Art. 563. [492] Resignations by any officer authorized to be elected or appointed by this title shall be made to the city council in writing, subject to their approval and acceptance; provided, that nothing in this article shall apply to appointments by the mayor. Any such appointee wishing to resign shall present his resignation to that officer, in writing, for his action.

Power of city council to remove officers.
Ib. §145.

Art. 564. [493] The city council shall have power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice, and an opportunity to be heard in his defense. In addition to the foregoing power of removal, the city council shall have power at any time to remove any officer of the corporation elected by them, by resolution declaratory of its want of confidence in said officer; provided, that two-thirds of the aldermen elected vote in favor of said resolution.

Outgoing officer shall deliver books, etc., to his successor, etc.
Ib. §146.

Art. 565. [494] Whenever any person shall be removed from any office, or the term for which he was elected or appointed has expired, or he has resigned, or has ceased to act in his official capacity, he shall deliver over to his successor all books, papers and effects in any way appertaining to his office. Every person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be deemed an offender within the meaning of any law of the state punishing such offenses, and in addition thereto he shall, on conviction before the mayor or recorder, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not exceeding six months, or either. Any officer who shall have been intrusted with the collection or custody of funds belonging to said city, who shall be in default to said city, besides being liable to criminal prosecution and a civil action for debt, shall thereafter be incapable of holding any office under said city, until the amount of his defalcation shall have been fully paid to said city with twelve per cent interest.

Member of city council ineligible to other office, and shall not be contractor, surety, etc.
Ib. §147.

Art. 566. [495] No member of the city council shall hold any other employment or office under the city government while he is a member of said council, unless herein otherwise provided, and no member of the city council, or any officer of the corporation, shall be directly or indirectly interested in any work, business or contract, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the city treasury, or by an assessment levied by an ordinance or resolution of the city council; nor be the surety of any person having a contract, work or business with said city, for the performance of which security may be required, nor be the surety on the official bond of any officer of the city.

Art. 567. [496] Each alderman shall be fined three dollars for each meeting which he fails to attend, unless on account of his own sickness or that of his family. Any member of the city council remaining absent for three regular consecutive meetings of the board, unless prevented by sickness, without first having obtained leave of absence at a regular meeting, shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and the mayor shall proceed to fill the vacancy in accordance with the charter.

Attendance, etc., of officers.
Ib. §148.

Art. 568. [497] The city council shall have power to prescribe the duties of all officers and persons appointed by them or elected to any office or place whatever subject to the provisions of this title, to remit in whole or in part, and on such conditions as may be deemed proper, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, any fine or penalty belonging to the city, which may be imposed or incurred under this title, or under any ordinance or resolution passed in pursuance thereof.

Power of city council to prescribe duties of officers, remit fines, etc.
Ib. §149.

Art. 569. [498] The city council shall, on or before the first day of January next preceding each and every election after the first under this title, fix the salary and fees of office of the mayor to be elected at the next regular election, and shall at the same time establish the compensation or salary to be paid to the officers elected or appointed by the city council, and the compensation or salary so established shall not be changed during the term for which said officers shall be elected or appointed.

Salary of officers shall be fixed by city council, etc.
Ib. §150.

Art. 570. [499] It shall not be necessary in any action, suit or proceeding in which the city, accepting the provisions of this title, shall be a party, for any bond, undertaking or security to be executed in behalf of the city; but all such actions, suits and proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner as if such bond, undertaking or security had been given, and for all the purposes of such actions, suits and proceedings, the city shall be liable in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if the bond, undertaking or security in ordinary cases had been duly given and executed.

City exempt from giving bond in suits.
Ib. §151.

Art. 571. [500] The cemetery lots which have and may hereafter be laid out and sold for said city for private places of burial shall, with their appurtenances, be forever exempt from taxes, executions, attachments or forced sales.

Cemetery lots exempt from forced sale.
Ib. §152.

Art. 572. [501] All rights, actions, fines, penalties and forfeitures in suits or otherwise, which have accrued under the laws heretofore in force, shall be vested in and prosecuted by the corporation hereby created, and no suit pending shall be affected by the passage and acceptance of this title, but the same shall be prosecuted or defended as the case may be by the corporation hereby created.

Rights, actions, etc., not affected by this title.
Ib. §153.

Art. 573. [502] All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any city accepting the provisions of this title, is hereby vested in the corporation created by this title, and the officers of said corporation in office at the date of its acceptance shall continue in the same until superseded in conformity with the provisions of this title, from and after it takes effect.

Property, officers, etc., not affected by this title.
Ib. §154.

Art. 574. [503] Whenever a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the state legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city, incorporated under or accepting the provisions of this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact, to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may by ordinance receive them as part of said city; from thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city, and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title.

Segregating territory from city.
(Acts of 1883,
p. 99.)

Art. 575. [503a] Whenever fifty qualified voters of any territory within the limits of any incorporated town shall sign and present a petition to the mayor of such city praying that such territory, setting the same out by metes and bounds, be declared no longer a part of such town, it shall be the duty of the mayor thereof to order an election within thirty days thereafter to be holden at the different voting precincts of said town; and if a majority of the legal voters of said town voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said town the mayor of said city shall declare such territory no longer a part of said city, and shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city council, and from and after the date of such order said territory shall cease to be a part of said town; provided, no city or town shall thus be reduced to a less area than one square mile or one mile in diameter around the center of the original corporate limits.

Liab. for debts, etc.
Id.

Art. 576. [503b] Whenever any territory shall withdraw as above provided, and such city or town shall at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawing territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness, but it shall be the duty of said city council to continue to levy an ad valorem tax each year on the property of said territory of the same rate as is levied upon other property of such city until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city or town at the time of the withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting the same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the inhabitants of said territory from paying in full at any time their pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city.

Rate of interest on city indebtedness.
(Act Feb. 26,
1874, §156.)

Art. 577. [504] No indebtedness of any character whatever hereafter incurred by said corporation shall draw a higher rate of interest than ten per cent per annum.

Incorporated cities may establish libraries.
Id.

Art. 578. [505] The incorporated cities in this state are hereby authorized to establish free libraries in such city, to adopt rules and regulations for the proper management thereof, and to appropriate such part of their revenues for the management and increase thereof as such city may determine by the action of the municipal government of the city.

Board of examiners of finances.
(Acts 1895, p.
41.)

Art. 578a. It shall be the duty of the mayor of each city or incorporated town within this state, incorporated under the general laws of the state, at the first regular meeting in January of each year of the board of aldermen or city council, by and with the advice and consent of such board of aldermen or city council, to appoint three resident citizens of such city or incorporated town, who shall constitute and compose a board of examiners of the finances of said city or incorporated town.

Duties of board.
Id.

Art. 578b. It shall be the duty of such examiners when appointed to proceed to examine the books and accounts of the various officers of such city or incorporated town, and to make a true report of the financial condition thereof under oath to the mayor and board of aldermen or city council of such city or incorporated town as soon after their appointment as practicable; provided, that in no instance shall the return of such report under oath be deferred longer than the first regular meeting of the board of aldermen or city council in March of each year.

Art. 578c. Such examiners shall receive for their services such compensation as the board of aldermen or city council shall fix each for every day actually employed in their investigations, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, which sum shall be paid by order of the board of aldermen or city council. Compensation. Ib.

Art. 578d. The annual report of such board of examiners shall be passed upon by the board of aldermen or city council and spread upon the minutes of their meeting at the first regular meeting of said board or council after the return of such report. Council to pass on such report. Ib.

Art. 579. [506] When a town or village may contain more than two hundred and less than ten thousand inhabitants, it may be incorporated as a town or village, in the manner prescribed in this chapter. May be incorporated, when. (Acts of 1881, p. 63.)

Art. 580. [507] If the inhabitants of such town or village desire to be so incorporated, at least twenty residents thereof, who would be qualified voters under the provisions of this chapter, shall file an application for that purpose in the office of the judge of the county court of the county in which the town or village is situated, stating the boundaries of the proposed town or village and the name by which it is to be known if it be incorporated; provided, that if any town or village be situated on both sides of a line dividing two counties, application may be made to the judge of the county court of either county in which a portion of said town or village is located, in manner and form as is hereinbefore provided; provided further, that in towns and villages that may be incorporated on territory in two counties, in the trial of the offenses before the mayor or recorder for a violation of the laws of the state or the ordinances of the corporation, an appeal shall be to the county court of the Towns and villages incorporated, when. (Acts of 1889, p. 5.)

county in which the offense may have been committed; and in cases in which said mayor or recorder have not final jurisdiction, but when sitting as an examining court, parties brought before them on such examining court, charged with an offense against the laws of the state, shall be bound over by them to the county court of the county in which said offense is alleged to have been committed, or to the district court, as the case may be.

County judge to order election to determine, etc.

Art. 581. [508] If satisfactory proof is made that the town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, it shall be the duty of the county judge to make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated, and at a place designated within the town or village, for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people.

Officers appointed to hold election.

Art. 582. [509] The county judge shall appoint an officer to preside at the election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it; and after a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

Qualification of electors.

Art. 583. [510] Every male person who has attained the age of twenty-one years, and who has resided within the limits of the proposed town for the six months next preceding, and is a qualified elector under the laws of the state, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

Tickets, written or printed.

Art. 584. [511] On each ticket the voter must write or cause to be written or printed, "corporation" or "no corporation."

Returns of election.

Art. 585. [512] If a majority of the votes are cast in favor of incorporation, the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge of the county within ten days after the same was held.

Duty of county judge to make an entry, etc., when.

Art. 586. [513] The county judge shall, within twenty days after the receipt of the returns, make an entry upon the records of the commissioners' court that the inhabitants of the town are incorporated within the boundaries thereof, which shall also be designated in the entry, and a certified copy of such entry shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record of deeds of such county.

Powers of corporation.

Art. 587. [514] When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made the town shall be invested with all the rights incident to such corporations under this chapter, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to hold and dispose of real and personal property; provided, such real property is situated within the limits of the corporation.

Election of mayor, etc.

Art. 588. [515] The county judge shall immediately order an election for a mayor, a marshal and five aldermen.

Who are eligible for offices.

Art. 589. [516] No person shall be eligible to any of said offices, nor shall any person be qualified to vote at any election to fill any of them, unless he possess the requisites provided by article 583.

Commission of mayor, etc.

Art. 590. [517] The county judge shall, immediately after the returns have been made, commission the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, and shall deliver certificates of election to the other officers elected.

Officers—term of office. (Act May 26, 1873, p. 99, §5.)

Art. 591. [518] The mayor, aldermen and all other officers elected at the first election under this chapter, regardless of the time of such first election, shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified at the next succeeding annual election, according to the provisions of the succeeding article.

Art. 592. [519] The annual election of officers of all towns and villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall take place on such day as may be fixed by law for municipal elections throughout the towns and cities of the state. Should no such uniform day be fixed, then the elections herein provided for shall take place on the first Tuesday in April of each and every year. The mayor, or, in case of his inability or refusal to act, any two aldermen shall order such annual election by notices posted for at least ten days at three public places within the corporate limits. The returns of such election shall be made to the town or village council, and certificates of election given by the mayor, or person acting as such, to the persons elected to the various offices for such corporation.

Annual election of officers.
lb. §6.

Art. 593. [520] The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen, and shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the state as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

Quorum may pass by-laws.

Art. 594. [521] The board of aldermen shall have and exercise exclusive control over the streets, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits, and shall have the power to cause the male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties, to work on the streets and public alleys not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute, or a sum of money (not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded) to employ such substitute. They shall, as far as practicable, prevent any nuisances within the limits of the corporation, and cause such as exists to be removed at the expense of the person by whom they were occasioned or upon whose property they may be found; they may establish markets, and may do whatever else may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this chapter; provided, that with the consent of the board of aldermen, where streets are continuations of public roads, the commissioners' court shall have power to construct bridges and other improvements thereon which facilitate the practicability of travel on said streets.

May prevent and remove nuisances, regulate markets, etc.

Art. 595. [522] The board of aldermen shall have power to levy and collect an occupation tax of not more than one-half the amount levied by the state; also to levy taxes on persons and property, real and personal, within the corporation, subject to taxation by the laws of the state; but the tax on persons and property shall not in any one year exceed the rate of one-fourth of one per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation.

Board of aldermen may levy tax.
(Acts of 1891, p. 171.)

Art. 596. [523] The board of aldermen shall have power to prescribe the fine to be imposed by the mayor for the violation of any by-law or ordinance, which shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars; but no fine shall be imposed except upon the verdict of a jury, should the defendant demand a trial by jury.

Aldermen may prescribe fine, etc.

Art. 597. [524] When a vacancy shall occur in any of the offices created by this chapter, or by the board of aldermen under its provisions, the acting aldermen shall fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

Vacancies, how filled.

Art. 598. [525] The board of aldermen shall have power to appoint such officers, other than those mentioned in this chapter, as shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the same, to prescribe their duties and to fix their compensation; and shall also have power to dismiss them at any time, and appoint others in their stead.

Additional officers may be appointed.

Board must prescribe amount of bonds, etc.

Art. 599. [526] The board shall prescribe the bonds and security which the marshal and such other officers as may be appointed shall give, which shall be executed and approved by the mayor, before the marshal or other officer shall enter upon the discharge of his duties. Said bond shall be payable to the corporation.

If bond is not given in five days after, etc.

Art. 600. [527] If the bond required in the preceding article is not given within five days after the marshal is elected, or the officer appointed, the board shall have the power to appoint another marshal or officer in the place of the one so elected or appointed.

Jurisdiction same as justices of the peace.

Art. 601. [528] The mayor of a town or village incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same jurisdiction and power, in cases both civil and criminal, that are conferred on justices of the peace, and his judgments and final orders therein may be revised in the manner prescribed for revising such judgments and orders, when made in such cases by a justice of the peace.

Shall enforce by-laws.

Art. 602. [529] It shall be the duty of the mayor to enforce and carry into effect such by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of the land, as the board of aldermen may from time to time enact for the better regulation of the police of the corporation.

May fix penalty, when.

Art. 603. [530] Where the penalty for the violation of a by-law or ordinance has not been fixed by the board of aldermen, the mayor shall have power to enforce fines not to exceed twenty dollars.

Party entitled to a jury, when.

Art. 604. [531] In any case or proceeding before the mayor of a town or village, any party who will deposit three dollars for paying the jury, or will make an affidavit to the effect that he is too poor to make such deposit, shall have the right to have any question of fact found by a jury.

Fines, how enforced.

Art. 605. [532] It shall be the duty of the mayor to cause all fines to be enforced by imprisonment not exceeding fifteen days, and by execution against the property of the persons on whom such fines shall be imposed.

Fees of mayor.

Art. 606. [533] The mayor shall be entitled to such fees as may be allowed to justices of the peace for similar services, and to such additional compensation as may be allowed by the by-laws and ordinances of the corporation.

Powers, duties and fees of constable.

Art. 607. [534] The marshal shall have the same power within the town that constables shall have within their precincts, and shall be entitled to the same fees. He shall discharge all other duties that may be prescribed by the by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be fixed by the board.

Taxes, by whom collected, etc.; sale of property for, etc.

Art. 608. [535] The corporation tax shall be assessed and collected by the marshal, and if the same be not voluntarily paid he shall have power to make the collection in the same manner and with like effect as is prescribed in chapter six of this title, for collection of taxes in cities, so far as applicable.

Real estate sold may be redeemed, etc.

Art. 609. [536] Real estate sold for taxes due the corporation may be redeemed as provided in chapter six of this title.

Where purchaser is a non-resident.

Art. 610. [537] Where the purchaser does not reside within the limits of the corporation, the estate may be redeemed by making the payment into the treasury of the corporation for the benefit of the purchaser.

Art. 611. [538] No ordinance or by-law shall be enforced until it has been published at least ten days in three public places in the town or in a newspaper, if one be published in the corporation.

Ordinances not to be enforced until.

Art. 612. [539] When any property shall be liable to assessment for corporation taxes, and the owner is unknown, such property shall be valued by the marshal and assessed by its description, stating that the owner of the property is unknown; unless the taxes are paid the property shall be sold for the payment thereof, as nearly as may be, in the manner in which such property when duly rendered is required to be sold, and the sale shall be equally valid.

Where property is liable for taxes and owner is unknown.

Art. 613. Towns and villages heretofore incorporated by the congress of the republic or the legislature of the state may, by a resolution of the board of aldermen and a two-thirds vote of the voters at an election held therefor, amend their charters in any particular not in conflict with the constitution of the state or the Revised Statutes.

Charters amended, how. (Acts of 1881, p. 83.)

Art. 614. In order to amend the charter of any town or village it shall be necessary before said amendment shall go into effect, for the board of aldermen to adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment, and a certified copy of the same shall be approved by the attorney-general and recorded in the office of the secretary of state before the same shall take effect.

Takes effect, when. Ib.

Art. 615. [540] When fifty of the voters of any incorporated town or village shall desire the abolishment of such corporation, they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such town or village, as in the case of its incorporation, and if there be a majority of two-thirds of the voters of said corporation voting at such election in favor of abolishing such corporation, the county judge shall declare the corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners' court, and from and after the date of such order the said corporation shall cease to exist.

Corporation may be abolished, how.

Art. 616. [541] When any corporation is abolished as provided in the preceding article, or if any de facto corporation shall be declared void by any court of competent jurisdiction, or if the same shall cease to operate and exercise the functions of such de facto corporation, all the property belonging thereto shall be turned over to the county treasurer of the county, and the commissioners' court of the county shall provide for the sale and disposition of the same, and for the settlement of the debts due by the corporation, and for this purpose shall have power to levy and collect a tax from the inhabitants of said town or village, in the same manner as the said corporation would be entitled to under the provisions of this chapter; provided, that when any town or city shall reincorporate under chapters one or eleven of title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes, upon a majority of the legal voters, tax paying property holders of said town or city, all property, real and personal, of the old or de facto corporation shall be vested in the new one; and provided further, that the new corporation shall assume all the legal indebtedness, contracts and obligations of the old corporation; provided, where cities and towns have reincorporated under chapters one or eleven of title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes, upon a majority vote of the tax paying property owners of said city or town, all property, real or personal, of the old or de facto corporation shall be vested in the new one; and provided further, that the new corporation shall assume all the legal indebtedness, contracts and obligations of the old corporation.

Proceedings when incorporation abolished. (Acts of 1891, p. 95.)

Incorporations for school purposes.
175.)

Art. 616a. Towns and villages authorized to incorporate under this chapter, or having two hundred inhabitants or over, not desiring to incorporate for municipal purposes, may incorporate for free school purposes only; provided, that the territory incorporated shall not exceed an area of sixteen square miles; and when so desiring, an election may be held under the provisions of this title and chapter, and if, at said election, a majority of the votes cast be in favor of the corporation, it shall be the duty of the county judge to make return thereof, and cause a record of the result of such election to be made, the same as provided by articles 585 and 586 of this chapter; upon which entry being made, such town or village shall be regarded as duly incorporated for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a free school therein, and shall, upon notice to the state board of education by the board of trustees hereinafter provided for, receive such pro rata share of the available school fund as its scholastic population may entitle it to.

Same valldated.
Ib.

Art. 616b. All towns and villages heretofore incorporated under the provisions of said article as it heretofore existed, but which incorporation is invalid by reason of having incorporated more territory than a radius of two miles from the center of said town or village, or by reason of having incorporated pastoral or agricultural lands adjacent to such town or village, are hereby declared valid, and all acts of any such incorporated town or village are to be held binding and full force and effect given thereto; provided, that all towns and villages heretofore incorporated under and by the virtue of the provisions of this chapter, which embrace a radius of three miles from the center of such town or village, but are invalid by reason of having incorporated pastoral or agricultural lands adjacent to such town or village, are hereby declared valid, and all acts of any such incorporated town or village are to be held binding, and full force and effect given thereto; and provided further, that no such town or village shall hereafter incorporate a greater area than sixteen square miles.

Same.
90.)

Art. 616c. All towns and villages which have heretofore attempted to be incorporated under the provisions of chapter 11, title 18, of the Revised Civil Statutes, but which in said attempted incorporation failed to comply with all the requirements of said chapter 11, title 18, but which said towns or villages have from and after the date of their several attempted incorporations, as aforesaid, exercised the functions of towns and villages, and been recognized as such towns or villages, be and are hereby declared to be towns and villages of the class named, and their incorporations be and the same are hereby declared to be as legal and valid as if the original acts of incorporation had been in strict compliance with the requirements of the law; provided, that nothing in this article shall be held to validate the incorporation of towns and villages that had less than two hundred inhabitants at the time of this attempted corporations of such towns and villages.

Commissioners to appoint
collector.

Art. 617. In all cases where the commissioners' court shall be vested with the authority conferred on them by the preceding article, it shall be the duty of such court to appoint a suitable person to perform the duty of tax collector, whose duty it shall be to collect the taxes within the territory comprised in the dissolved corporation, until such legal indebtedness of such corporation has been paid off or until such city or town has been reincorporated, and shall fix his bond in sufficient penalties to protect any fund collected; provided, that such appointee may be removed at any time for carelessness or inefficiency or other good cause.

Cities and towns incorporated under the general laws of the state, and cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or less chartered under special law, including those which may have heretofore accepted the provisions of title xviii., chapter 1, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the state, may abolish their corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided.

Abolition of corporation provided. (Acts 1895, p. 166.)

Art. 617b. When one hundred of the property tax payers who are qualified voters of any such city or town shall desire the abolishment of such corporation they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such city or town as in the case of its incorporation.

Petition and election to abolish. Ib.

Art. 617c. All persons who are legally qualified voters of the state and county in which any such election is ordered, and are resident property tax payers in the city or town where such election is to be held, as shown by the last assessment roll of such city or town, shall be entitled to vote at such election; and if a majority of such qualified voters voting at such election shall vote to abolish such corporation, the county judge shall declare such corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners' court, and from the date of such order said corporation shall cease to exist.

Qualified voters at such election; duty of county judge. Ib.

Art. 617d. When any corporation is abolished as provided in the preceding articles, all the property belonging thereto shall be turned over to the county treasurer, and the commissioners' court of the county shall provide for the sale and disposition of the same, except the property pertaining to the public free schools or devoted exclusively to public use; the commissioners shall also provide for the settlement of the debts due by the corporation, and for this purpose shall have the power to levy and collect a tax from the inhabitants of such city or town in the same manner as the said corporation would be entitled to do under its charter or the laws of the state; and any surplus remaining in the hands of the county treasurer after the payment of the debts of said corporation shall be paid to the trustees of the public free schools situated in said city or town, for the benefit of such schools.

Disposition of property of abolished corporation. Ib.

Art. 617e. Where the public free schools of any such city or town are under the management of trustees appointed or elected by the voters of the city or town, or by the city or town council, at the time its corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, such trustees shall constitute the management of said schools for the remainder of the term for which they were appointed or elected, subject to the supervision of the commissioners' court, unless such city or town shall sooner become incorporated for school purposes only.

Public free school management, etc. Ib.

Art. 617f. All taxes for municipal or school purposes which have been levied at the date of abolishment of such corporation, and which have not been paid, shall be collected by the collector of the county in the same manner provided by law for the collection of state and county taxes, and paid into the county treasury; but the portion of such taxes levied for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools of such city or town shall be paid over to the trustees of public free schools of said city or town and applied by them to the purposes for which they were levied.

Collection of municipal or school taxes.

Public buildings of abolished corporation.

Art. 617g. When any corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at the time of such abolishment own any public buildings, public parks, public works or other property, and the same shall not have been sold or disposed of as provided in this chapter, the same shall be managed and controlled by the commissioners' court of such county for the purposes to which same were originally used and intended, and for this purpose the commissioners' court shall have and exercise, with reference thereto, the powers originally conferred by charter upon the mayor and aldermen of such city.

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance.

Incumbrances include what.

Art. 634. [558] The term “incumbrances” includes taxes, assessments and all liens upon real property.

Conveyance of separate lands of the wife, how made.

Art. 635. [559] The husband and wife shall join in the conveyance of real estate, the separate property of the wife; and no such conveyance shall take effect until the same shall have been acknowledged by her privily and apart from her husband, before some officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments to deeds for the purpose of being recorded and certified to, in the mode pointed out in article 4643.

Art. 636. [560] The homestead of a family shall not be sold and conveyed by the owner, if a married man, without the consent of the wife. Such consent shall be evidenced by the wife joining in the conveyance, and signing her name thereto; and also by her separate acknowledgment thereof taken and certified to before the proper officer and in the mode pointed out in article 4643. Conveyance of homestead, how made.

Art. 637. [561] When an instrument in writing, which was intended as a conveyance of real estate, or some interest therein, shall fail, either in whole or in part, to take effect as a conveyance by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the same shall nevertheless be valid and effectual as a contract upon which a conveyance may be enforced, as far as the rules of law will permit. Failing as a conveyance, shall be valid as a contract.

54. To build, maintain and operate a line of road to mines, gins, quarries and mills, and to condemn land necessary for right of way for such road from and between such mine, gin, quarry or mill and the nearest line of railroad.

Charter and what it must set forth.
P. D. 5937.

Art. 643. [567] A charter must be prepared setting forth—

1. The name of the corporation.

2. The purpose for which it is formed.

3. The place or places where its business is to be transacted.

4. The term for which it is to exist.

5. The number of its directors or trustees, and the names and residences of those who are appointees for the first year.

6. The amount of its capital stock, if any, and the number of shares into which it is divided.

7. The charter of a bridge or ferry company shall also state the stream intended to be crossed by the bridge or ferry.

8. The charter of a road company shall also state—first, the kind of a road intended to be constructed; second, the places from and to which the road is intended to be run; third, the counties through which it is intended to be run; fourth, the estimated length of the road.

Charter must be subscribed and acknowledged.
(Acts of 1887, p. 103.)

Art. 644. [568] The charter of an intended corporation must be subscribed by three or more persons, two of whom at least must be citizens of this state, and must be acknowledged by them before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds; provided, that all charters for the purposes named in clauses two and three of article 642 of this chapter and title may be subscribed by married women, who may also be stockholders, officers and directors thereof; and their acts, contracts and deeds shall be as binding and effective for all the purposes of said corporation as if they were males, and the joinder and consent of their husbands and privy examinations separate and apart from them shall not be required.

Must be filed with secretary of state, etc.
(Act April 23, 1874, §9.)
P. D. 5940.

Art. 645. [569] Such charter shall thereupon be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who shall record the same at length in a book to be kept for that purpose, and retain the original on file in his office. A copy of the charter, or of the record thereof certified under the great seal of the state, shall be evidence of the creation of the corporation.

Corporation shall exist from time of filing charter, etc.
Ib. §10.
P. D. 5941.

Art. 646. [570] The existence of the corporation shall date from the filing of the charter in the office of the secretary of state, and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be evidence of such filing.

Art. 647. [571] Any private corporation heretofore organized or incorporated, or which may hereafter be organized or incorporated, for any of the purposes mentioned in this chapter may amend or change its charter or act of incorporation, by filing, authenticated in the manner required by this chapter as to an original charter of incorporation, such amendments or changes with the secretary of state; and in case of a corporation created by special act of the legislature, said corporation shall cause the amendments or changes to its charter to be authenticated as required in the case of an original charter of incorporation, and filed with the secretary of state, together with the original charter of such company, and such amendments thereto, or changes therein, if any, as have been made by special act of the legislature, and the same shall be recorded by the secretary of state, followed by the proposed amendments or changes thereof.

Charter may be amended, how. Ib. §10. P. D. 6011b.

Art. 648. [572] The amendments or changes provided for in the preceding article shall take effect and be in force from the date of the filing thereof with the secretary of state, and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be evidence of such filing.

When amendments shall take effect. Ib.

Art. 649. [573] No amendments or changes violative of the constitution or laws of this state, or of any of the provisions of this title, shall be of any force or effect; and no amendments or changes shall be of any force or effect which are not germane to the original purposes or charter of incorporation, and calculated to carry out and effect the same.

Shall not conflict with constitution or laws. Ib.

Art. 650. [574] All charters, or amendments to charters, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the power of the legislature to alter, reform, or amend the same.

Legislature may alter, reform or amend. Ib.

General power of a corporation. P. D. 5942. (Acts of 1883, p. 98.)

1. To have succession by its corporate name for the period limited in its charter, not to exceed fifty years, and when no period is limited, for twenty years.
2. To maintain and defend judicial proceedings.
3. To make and use a common seal.
4. To hold, purchase, sell, mortgage or otherwise convey such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, and also to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal or mixed, as shall be requisite for such corporation to acquire in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability due or belonging to the corporation.

5. To appoint and remove such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require, and to allow them a suitable compensation.

6. To make by-laws not inconsistent with existing laws for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs and the transfer of its stock.

7. To enter into any obligation or contract essential to the transaction of its authorized business.

8. To increase or diminish, by a vote of its stockholders cast as its by-laws may direct, the number of its directors or trustees, to be not less than three nor more than thirteen.

9. Any private corporation created either by special act of the legislature, or under the provisions of the general law, for the support of any benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertaking, the support of any literary or scientific undertaking, the maintenance of a library, or the promotion of painting, music or other fine arts, whose charter may expire or may have expired by limitation, may revive such charter with all the privileges and immunities and rights of property, real and personal, exercised and held by it at the date of the expiration of its said charter, by filing, with the consent of a majority of its stockholders, a new charter under the provisions of the general law of the state of Texas, reciting therein such original privileges and immunities and rights of property, and by filing therewith a certified copy of such original forfeited charter; and any two or more of such corporations may revive and consolidate their charters under a new corporate name or under the name of either, with all the privileges, immunities and rights of property, real and personal, enjoyed by each at the date of the expiration of their several charters, by in like manner filing a charter, which shall recite the fact of consolidation, accompanied by certified copies of said original charters; provided, the provisions hereof shall not be construed to relieve any corporation from the payment of occupation taxes now or hereafter required by law.

May increase its capital stock, how.
(Act of 1893,
p. 123.)
P. D. 5943.

Art. 652. [576] Any corporation may increase its capital stock to any amount, not exceeding at any one time double the amount of its authorized capital, by a vote of the stockholders, in conformity with the by-laws thereof, and if a majority of the stockholders shall vote for the increase of the stock, the same may be increased by the board of directors, trustees, or other business managers of such corporation, and upon such increase of stock being made, in accordance with the by-laws, the date and amount shall be certified to the secretary of state by the directors or trustees, and from the time such certificate is filed, the increase of stock shall become a part of the capital thereof. Such certificate shall be filed and recorded in the same manner as the charter; provided, that no stock shall be issued except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received.

Increase in certain cases
validated.
Ib.

Art. 652a. That in all cases where the amount of the capital stock of any corporation has heretofore been increased by more than one increase thereof to an amount in excess of double the amount of the original capital, and such increase has been made with the sanction of the secretary of state, under his construction of the law, such increase shall be, and the same is hereby, validated and declared legal.

Art. 653. [577] Corporations shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the corporation, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, and may execute bonds or promissory notes therefor, and may pledge the property and income of the corporation.

May borrow money.
Ib. §13.
P. D. 5944.

Art. 654. [578] Whenever the full amount of the capital stock of a corporation having a capital stock shall not have been already subscribed in good faith, the directors or trustees named in the charter, or a majority of them, may, within three months after the filing of the charter, cause books to be opened for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the corporation, at such time or times and at such place or places as they may determine, after having given at least thirty days' notice in a newspaper published or generally circulated in one or more counties where books of subscription are to be opened, of the time and place of opening books, which books may be kept open till the whole amount of capital stock is subscribed.

May open books for subscription of stock.
Ib. §14.
P. D. 5945.

Art. 655. [579] A majority of the directors or trustees shall constitute a quorum, and be competent to fill vacancies in the board, and to transact all business of the corporation. An annual election shall be held for directors or trustees at such time and place as the by-laws of the corporation may require.

Quorum and annual elections.
Ib. §15.
P. D. 5946.

Art. 656. [580] The directors or trustees shall choose one of their number president, and shall appoint a secretary and treasurer and such other officers as they may deem necessary for the corporation.

President and secretary to be chosen.
Ib. §16.
P. D. 5947.

Art. 657. [581] The directors or trustees may adopt by-laws for the government of the corporation; but such by-laws may be altered, changed or amended by a majority vote of the stockholders at any election or special meeting ordered for that purpose by the directors or trustees, on a written application of a majority of the stockholders or members.

By-laws may be adopted, altered, etc.
Ib. §17.
P. D. 5948.

Art. 658. [582] All corporations heretofore created and now in existence under any law of this state, are hereby authorized to increase the number of directors or trustees of any such corporation.

May increase number of directors or trustees.
Ib. §18.
P. D. 5949.

Art. 659. [583] In case it should happen that an election for directors or trustees should not be held on the day appointed by the by-laws of any corporation, such corporation shall not for that reason be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall be lawful on any other day to hold a meeting and elect its directors or trustees in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws thereof.

Failure to elect directors shall not dissolve, etc.
Ib. §19.
P. D. 5950.

Art. 660. [584] The secular affairs of a religious corporation shall be under the control of a board of trustees to be elected by the members of such corporation, and the title to all property of any such corporation shall vest in such trustees.

Trustees to be elected to control religious corporation.
Ib. §20.
P. D. 5951.

Art. 661. [585] The directors or trustees shall have the general management of the affairs of the corporation, and may dispose of the residue of the capital stock at any time remaining unsubscribed in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe.

Directors shall have general management, etc.
Ib. §21.
P. D. 5952.

Art. 662. [586] They shall cause a record to be kept of all stock subscribed and transferred, and of all business transactions, and their books and records shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any and every stockholder.

Directors shall cause record to be kept, etc.
Ib. §21.

Art. 663. [587] They shall, also, when required by one-third of the stockholders thereof, present reports in writing of the situation and amount of business of the corporation, and declare and make such dividends of the profits from the business of the corporation as they shall deem expedient, or as the by-laws may prescribe.

Ib. §21.

Existing corporations may accept provisions of this title, etc.
Ib. §22.
P. D. 5953.

Art. 664. [588] Any corporation heretofore organized and now in existence under any general or special law of the republic or state of Texas, may, by a vote of its board of directors, accept any or all of the provisions of this title, and have and exercise all of the rights, power and privileges conferred by this title, by filing a copy of their acceptance with the secretary of state; whereupon, that portion of its charter inconsistent with this title, or the portion accepted, shall cease to be applicable to such corporation; and it shall have the exclusive right to carry out the objects of said corporation, as described in its act of incorporation, or certificate, filed with the secretary of state, if acting under a general law within the limits or boundaries described in said act of incorporation, or certificate, as the case may be, without any limitation as to time, and shall possess all the privileges and franchises conferred by its act of incorporation or certificate filed with the secretary of state, not abandoned in the copy of acceptance of any or all the provisions of this title.

Corporation restricted to the objects of its creation.
Ib. §23.
P. D. 5954.

Art. 665. [589] No corporation created under the provisions of this title shall employ its stock, means, assets or other property, directly or indirectly, for any other purpose whatever than to accomplish the legitimate objects of its creation.

Stock of corporation is personal estate.
Ib. §24.
P. D. 5955.

Art. 666. [590] The stock of any corporation created under this title shall be deemed personal estate; and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe.

Directors may require payment of stock.
Ib. §25.
P. D. 5956.

Art. 667. [591] The board of directors or trustees of any corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner and in such installments as may be required by the by-laws.

Stock forfeited, when and how.
Ib. §26.
P. D. 5957.

Art. 668. [592] If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment, as required by the board of trustees, the directors or trustees may declare his stock and all previous payments forfeited to the use of the company; but no stock shall be forfeited until the directors or trustees have caused a notice in writing to be served on him personally, or by depositing the same in the postoffice, properly directed to him at the postoffice nearest his usual place of residence, stating that he is required to make such payment at the time and place specified in said notice, and that if he fails to make the same his stock and all previous payments thereon will be forfeited for the use of the company; which notice may be served, as aforesaid, at least thirty days previous to the day on which such payment is required to be made.

Corporation may sue its own members.
Ib. §27.
P. D. 5958.

Art. 669. [593] All bodies corporate may sue for, recover and receive from their respective members all arrears or other debts, dues or other demands which are now, or hereafter may be, owing to them, in like mode, manner and form as they might sue for, recover and receive the same from any person not a member of their body.

Directors liable for debts of corporation, when, and to what extent.
Ib. §28.
P. D. 5959.

Art. 670. [594] If the directors of any corporation shall knowingly declare and pay any dividend when the corporation is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the corporation then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted, as long as they shall respectively continue in office. The amount for which they shall all be so liable shall not exceed the amount of such dividend; and if any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making the dividend, or shall object thereto at the time such dividend is declared, and shall file their objections in writing with the secretary or other officer of the corporation having charge of the books, they shall be exempted from the said liability.

Article 687. [611] It shall be lawful for any corporation created for the purpose of constructing a macadam or plank road, by its agents and servants, to enter upon any lands, to make surveys, estimates and locations.

May enter upon lands, make surveys, etc.
P. D. 5975.

Art. 688. [612] If any such corporations shall require for the construction or repair of its road, or any bridge thereof, any stone, timber or other material, from land adjoining to or near said road, and can not contract for the same with the owner thereof, such corporation may proceed to have the value of the same assessed, and the same proceedings shall be had therefor as is provided by law to be taken by railway corporations in like cases; and all macadam or plank road corporations shall have the right also to condemn in like manner, and occupy any quantity of land, not exceeding one acre at any one place, for the purpose of erecting toll-houses thereon.

May condemn land, etc.
P. D. 5976.

If road is out of repair, charter may be forfeited.
P. D. 5977.

Art. 689. [613] If any road, or any part thereof, after it shall have been completed, shall be suffered to be out of repair, so as to be impassable for the space of two months, unless when the same is being repaired, the company owning such road shall be liable to forfeit its corporate powers and privileges, and such forfeiture may be enforced by suit, as in other cases of forfeiture of charter by incorporated companies.

Shall not collect tolls when road is out of repair.
P. D. 5977.

Art. 690. [614] If any such company shall suffer the road to be out of repair, to the injury, hindrance or delay of travelers, for an unreasonable time, such company shall have no right to collect tolls thereon until the same is again repaired.

Width of road and how to be constructed.
P. D. 5978.

Art. 691. [615] All macadam or plank roads shall be opened not exceeding sixty feet wide, thirty feet of which shall be cleared of brush and logs, and at least sixteen feet in width shall be made an artificial road, composed of stone, gravel, wood or other convenient material, in such manner as to secure a firm and substantial road.

No toll-gates permitted in town, etc.
P. D. 5978.

Art. 692. [616] No company or association of individuals, which has been or may hereafter be incorporated, for the purpose of making such road, shall erect or keep any toll-gate, or receive any toll within the corporate limits of any incorporated city, town or village, or within one-half mile of such limits.

Tolls to be regulated by commissioners' court.
P. D. 5979.

Art. 693. [617] As soon as such road shall have been completed, or any part thereof, not less than five miles together in any part of the road, unless the same is less than five miles long, and so from time to time, as often as five miles in addition shall be completed adjoining any five miles previously constructed, the commissioners' court of the county in which such finished road lies, or, in case the road lies in two or more counties, the commissioners' courts of either of said counties shall, on application of the agent of the company, appoint three judicious house-holders, who shall, on oath, examine the same, and report their opinion to the court in writing; and if such report shall state that the road, or such part thereof, be completed agreeably to the provisions of this chapter, the court shall by license, in writing, authorize the company to erect gates at suitable distances and demand and receive of persons traveling such road the toll that may be fixed by the commissioners' court.

Persons exempt from tolls.
P. D. 5980.

Art. 694. [618] Any person or persons going to or from public worship on the Sabbath, common schools and other institutions of learning, funerals, militia muster, the troops of the United States and of this state, may pass over such road free from toll.

Mile posts and rates of toll.
P. D. 5981.

Art. 695. [619] All macadam or plank road companies shall put up a post or stone at the end of each mile, with the number from beginning of said road, fairly cut or painted thereon; and also in a conspicuous place near each gate shall be placed a board with the rates of toll painted thereon, and no toll shall be demanded unless such rates are kept up.

Any person may complain of non-repairs; proceedings in such case.
P. D. 5982.

Art. 696. [620] If any macadam or plank road company shall fail to keep their road in repair for five days successively any person may file a complaint in writing before any justice of the peace of the county, setting forth the nature of the defect complained of, designating the place in the road where it exists; and it shall be the duty of the justice to appoint two disinterested persons as inspectors, to meet at the place complained of within five days, and of the time and place of meeting reasonable notice shall be given to the gate-keeper nearest to the place of meeting, and the inspectors shall then examine into the truth of the matter complained of, and if they shall find the complaint to be true they shall send a certified copy of the complaint and of the finding thereon to the keeper of each of the gates between which such defective place shall be, and thereafter no toll shall be received at such gates for the intermediate distance until the part of the road complained of shall be fully repaired; and the inspectors and justice of the peace shall be entitled to two dollars and a half per day for their services, and shall be paid by the company if the complaint be sustained, and if it shall fail, then by the complainant.

Art. 697. [621] If any person using any part of said road shall, with intent to defraud such company, falsely represent himself to any toll-gatherer as entitled to exemption from paying toll, or shall make any untrue statement as to the distance he has traveled or intends to travel on the road, or shall practice any fraudulent means, and thereby lessen or avoid the payment of tolls, each and every person concerned in any such fraudulent practices shall for every such offense forfeit and pay such company the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by such company in an action of debt before any justice of the peace of the county where the offender may be found.

Travelers practicing fraud may be sued, etc. P. D. 5983.

This title embraces, what. (Acts of 1887, p. 91.)

Article 721. [644a] This title shall embrace and include the creation of private corporations for the purpose of constructing, owning and operating deep water channels from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico along and across any of the bays on the coast of this state to the mainland, for the purposes of navigation and transportation, and for the construction, owning and operating docks on the coast of this state for the protection and accommodation of ships, boats, and all kinds of vessels for navigation, and their cargoes.

Channel corporation; added powers. 1b; amend., Acts 1895, p. 185.

Art. 722. [644b] Every such channel corporation shall, in addition to the powers herein conferred, have power—

1. To cause such examination and survey for its proposed channel to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route for such purpose, by its officers, agents, or servants, to enter upon any of the waters of such bays, and upon any of the lands of this state or of any person.

2. To take and hold such voluntary grant of real estate and other property as shall be made to it to aid in the construction and maintenance of its deep water channel, and works pertinent thereto.

3. To construct its channel across, along, through, or upon any of the waters of the bays within the jurisdiction of this state, and so far into the mainland as may be necessary to reach a place for its docks that will afford security from cyclones, storms, swells, and tidal waves, with such depth as may suit its convenience and the wants of navigation, not less than five feet, and a width of not less than forty feet.

4. To furnish to vessels and boats, adapted to the purpose, facilities for navigating in and along the entire length of its channel, and to charge and collect a toll therefor, to be prescribed and established by its by-laws, not to exceed one cent per barrel bulk of the capacity of each vessel, for each mile of the length of its channel used by the vessel going either way.

5. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, finishing, or operating its channel, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid; provided, that damages for any property appropriated by such corporation shall be assessed and paid for as is provided for in case of railroads.

6. To enter upon and condemn and appropriate any lands of any person or corporation that may be necessary for the uses and purposes of such channel corporation; the damages for any property thus appropriated to be assessed and paid for in the same manner as provided by law in the case of railroads; provided, that no damages shall be assessed against or paid by it for any portion of the route of its channel embraced within and covered by the waters of any bay on the coast of this state, nor for any portion of any island belonging to the state that may be requisite and necessary to the construction and successful operation of its channel; and provided further, that its right of way shall be the actual width of its channel, and not more than six hundred feet in width situated wholly or in part on either side of the channel; provided, that when the land sought to be condemned under this chapter is arable land, such right of way shall not extend further than one hundred and fifty feet on each side from the edge or boundary of said channel.

7. To construct, own and operate its channel so far into the waters of the Gulf of Mexico as may be necessary to obtain an adequate depth of water at its gulf entrance to facilitate the ingress and egress of such vessels as may navigate the same, in so far as this state may have the power to grant such right, which shall be in subordination to that of the government of the United States in as far as that government has the constitutional power to control the same.

Art. 723. [644c] Every such dock corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power—

Dock corporations; added powers.
1b.

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction and operation of its docks, approaches, entrances, moorings and ways; and the construction, use and enjoyment of such warehouses, stores and sheds as may be necessary to the receiving and discharging of freights, goods, wares and merchandise, and the proper protection and preservation thereof; provided, that no such dock corporation shall ever have the right or power to take or condemn to its use any private property without the free consent of the owner thereof, expressed by a sufficient deed in writing.

2. To construct its dock or docks in such manner and of such size and depth as it may deem meet and proper to suit the convenience of such vessels as may see fit to use and occupy the same, and to collect from the vessels using the same, or from their masters, owners or consignees, such sum or sums for the use thereof as may be authorized by its by-laws and agreed to by such masters, owners or consignees.

3. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing or operating its dock or docks, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for such amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid.

Art. 724. [644d] Every such corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power—

Corporations created under this chapter; additional power granted.
1b.

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of its harbor approaches, entrances, and ways thereto, and the construction of wharves, piers and warehouses.

2. To construct, own and maintain its harbor by building piers and breakwaters so far into the gulf as may be necessary to obtain sufficient depth of water to facilitate the ingress and egress, and the safety while in port of such vessels as may enter the same, in so far only as the state may have the power to grant such right, which, however, shall be exercised subject and in subordination to the government of the United States in as far as it may have constitutional power to control the same.

3. To provide facilities to vessels and boats entering its harbor for anchorage, receiving and discharging cargoes and passengers, and to charge and collect fair and reasonable tolls and wharfage therefor, to be prescribed by its by-laws.

4. To borrow money in such amounts and on such terms as may be necessary for constructing and finishing or operating its harbor or piers, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid.

Rates, tolls and charges subject to legislative control.
Ib.

Art. 725. [644f] All rates, tolls, or charges made by any corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the right of the legislature from time to time to alter, revise, change or amend the same.

Corporations acting under authority of congress may purchase certain coast lands from the state. (Acts of 1891, p. 166.)

Article 726. Any corporation organized under the laws of Texas, which is now authorized or which may hereafter be authorized by an act of congress of the United States to construct, own, operate or maintain, with private capital, a deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves on the gulf coast of Texas, shall be permitted to purchase from the state of Texas at two dollars per acre so much of any public lands, islands, shores or shallow bays belonging to the state of Texas as may be situated within one-half mile from any point or points on the construction works of any jetties or any such deep water channel leading into the main harbor from the open sea; provided, that in no case shall such strip or body of land be more than one-half mile in width, and such company or corporation may also purchase from the state at the same price per acre any lands, shores, islands or shallow bays within one-fourth mile of each side of every navigable channel that such company or corporation may construct through or across such shallow bays in the prosecution of such work.

May purchase certain other lands.
Ib.

Art. 727. Any such company or corporation owning in whole or in part any lands fronting or abutting upon any shallow bays in which any such work is being constructed, may purchase at the same price per acre any lands, shores or shallow bays adjoining and lying in front of such lands; provided, that such purchase shall not extend into such bay so as to include land covered with water having an average depth of more than three and one-half feet at mean low tide. That the purchases under the provisions of this article shall not extend a greater distance along the front of the survey on the shore than three miles, nor a greater distance into the bay than one-half mile; provided, that the islands known as Tolly island and Lydia Ann islands, situated in Aransas bay, shall not be subject to purchase under the provisions herein; provided, that one-half of the proceeds of the sale of the lands as provided for herein shall belong to the permanent free school fund of this state.

Art. 728. All applications of a purchaser to buy under the foregoing articles shall be made in writing to the commissioner of the general land office, accompanied by one-fifth of the purchase money, and also by a copy of the act of congress authorizing the construction of such deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves, and a complete plat or map showing the location and design of such improvements, and said plat or map shall also show the public lands, shores, islands and shallow bays applied for, and the depths of such shallow bays in feet, determined by actual survey or as shown by the United States coast survey map.

Application for purchase how made.
Ib.

Art. 729. Upon the payment of one-fifth of the purchase money as hereinbefore provided, the commissioner of the general land office shall issue a receipt therefor, and attach thereto a copy of the application and plat filed by said purchaser, which said receipt shall be sufficient authority to the proper county surveyor to survey the lands, shores, islands or shallow bays sold; provided, that the remainder of the purchase money may be paid at any time within five years after date of first payment, and deferred payments shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum payable annually. If any company or corporation purchasing any land, island or shallow water bays under these provisions shall fail to secure twenty feet of water over the bar between the Gulf of Mexico and the main harbor within five years from the date of such purchase and maintain said twenty feet of water continuously for two years, then all such rights shall revert to the state. If the purchaser of any island, shallow water bay, land, or either, under these articles, shall fail to pay the annual interest upon any part of the purchase money when such interest shall become due, or if such purchaser shall fail to pay the principal when the same shall become due, then all rights acquired under such purchases shall be forfeited, with all payments made thereon, without any judicial ascertainment of such forfeiture, and the commissioner of the general land office shall indorse upon the contract of purchase, that the same is forfeited, whereby all rights so acquired shall be forfeited and revert to the state. If any such corporation shall fail to conform to the act of congress in prosecuting such work, or if such corporation shall fail to secure twenty feet of water at low tide upon the bars and other obstructions between the main harbor and the Gulf of Mexico within five years after the twenty-first day of April, 1891, if such corporation then existed, or within five years of the date of the filing of the charter of any such company as hereafter formed, then all islands, lands, shallow bays and other rights acquired under this chapter shall be forfeited and shall revert to and vest in the state of Texas.

Regulating surveys, payment of purchase money, forfeiture, etc., under foregoing articles.
Ib.

Art. 730. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, which has such authority as mentioned in article 726 conferred upon it by act of the congress of the United States, may construct, own and maintain upon the gulf coast of Texas, in connection with its deep water harbor and navigable channels, docks and wharves and navigable channels for the accommodation of commerce, and such corporation may charge, demand and receive reasonable and just tolls, and charge for the use of such docks and wharves; but all navigable channels so constructed shall forever remain open and free to all vessels without fee or charge; the tolls and charges for the use of said docks and wharves shall be equal, just and uniform to all vessels, persons and corporations without discrimination as to amount charged or

Right to construct docks, etc., charge tolls subject to railroad commission and general laws regulating rights of said corporations.
Ib.

delay in handling the same, and all such tolls and charges shall be under the control of the legislature of the state of Texas; and until otherwise directed by the legislature shall be subject to control and regulation by the railroad commission under the rules prescribed for the regulation of railroads so far as applicable. Any railroad or other means of transportation which may be constructed between the mainland and any deep water harbor or channel shall be a public highway, and all rates and charges for the transportation of freights and passengers thereon shall be subject to the control and regulation of the railroad commission as a railroad; such railroad or other means of transportation shall receive from each and every ship, boat and vessel, or from the wharf on which the same is discharged, all freights and passengers, and transport and deliver them to the consignee, or any connecting line of railroad, without discrimination as to charges or delay in transportation and delivery, and shall in like manner receive from every person and from every connecting line of railroad all freight and passengers and transport and deliver the same to each and every ship, boat, vessel, person or corporation for delivery to such ship, boat or vessel on like equal and just terms without discrimination as to charges and delay in transportation or delivery thereof. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect any rights acquired before the enactment of this law. The acceptance of the provisions herein, or the exercise of any rights or privileges granted herein, by said corporation, or any person or corporation holding under the same, shall be deemed and held to be a contract with the state; that any willful violation of these provisions, or the doing of any act herein prohibited, shall work a forfeiture of all rights acquired hereunder so far as then held or claimed by the person or corporation guilty of such violation.

Rights, power and privileges granted shall not interfere with, what.
Ib.

Art. 731. The privileges and rights granted herein shall never be exercised so as to in any way hinder or interfere with the completion of any railroad heretofore chartered to be built to and upon Harbor island, in and upon the location designated in such charter; nor with any such railroads acquiring and controlling all necessary depot grounds, wharf grounds and deep water fronts that it may or could have acquired legally had not this law been enacted.

Shall file release with secretary of state of right of control by congress.
Ib.

Art. 732. Before any rights can vest in any corporation by virtue of any purchase of public lands, islands, shores or shallow bays, the said corporation shall file with the secretary of state a release to the state of Texas of all claim or right to have its tolls or charges imposed for any use to be made of such property or structures thereon regulated by any act of congress now existing or hereafter to be passed.

Penalty against corporation for acting without certificate of authority.
Ib.

Art. 741. Any persons, association of persons or corporation, who shall accept any corporation created for the purposes, or either of them, mentioned in article 733 of this chapter, without such corporation having previously complied with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, and having received from the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, the certificate of authority provided for in article 739 of this chapter, shall forfeit as a penalty the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Statement required when corporation refuses to further guarantee fidelity of any person; penalty.
Ib.

Art. 742. When any corporation shall cancel a bond of guaranty or indemnity, or shall notify the employer of the person whose fidelity is guaranteed, that said corporation will no longer guarantee or be security for the fidelity of said person, or when said corporation has once guaranteed the fidelity of any person, or acted as security therefor, and on application refuses to do so again, it shall furnish to such person a full statement in writing of the facts on which the action of the corporation is based, and if such actions be based in whole or in part on information, all such information, together with the name or names of the informants, with their place of residence, and any such corporation failing or refusing to furnish such written statement within thirty days after a request therefor, shall be liable to the person injured in the sum of five hundred dollars, in addition to all other damages caused thereby, which may be sued for and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 743. If any such corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of article 733 of this chapter, the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history shall revoke the certificate of authority issued to said corporation.

If corporation fails to comply with. Ib.

corporation a permit to transact business in this state. If such corporation is created for more than one purpose the permit may be limited to one or more purposes.

No such corporation can maintain any suit, etc.
Ib.

Art. 746. No such corporation can maintain any suit or action, either legal or equitable, in any of the courts of this state upon any demand, whether arising out of contract or tort, unless at the time such contract was made or tort committed the corporation had filed its articles of incorporation under the provisions of this chapter in the office of the secretary of state for the purpose of procuring its permit.

Corporations exempted from provisions hereof.
Ib.

Art. 747. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to corporations created for the purpose of constructing, building, operating, or maintaining any railway, or to such corporations as are required by law to procure permits to do business from the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history.

Permit to extend for period of ten years.
Ib.

Art. 748. No permit shall be issued for a longer period than ten years from the date of filing such articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state.

Evidence.
Ib.

Art. 749. Either the original permit or certified copies thereof by the secretary of state shall be evidence of the compliance on the part of any corporation with the terms of this chapter. A certificate of the secretary of state to the effect that the corporation named therein has failed to file in his office its articles of incorporation shall be evidence that such corporation has in no particular complied with the requirements of this chapter.

Corporate acquisition of speculative lands prohibited.
(Acts 1893, p. 36.)

Article 749a. No private corporation heretofore or hereafter chartered or created whose main purpose of business is the acquisition or ownership of land by purchase, lease, or otherwise, shall hereafter be permitted to acquire any land within this state by purchase, lease, or otherwise.

Present corporate holdings to be alienated.
Ib.

Art. 749b. All private corporations whose main purpose or business is the acquisition or ownership, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, of lands in this state, shall, within fifteen years from the time this law takes effect, make an actual bona fide sale of all lands, or interest therein acquired, before this law takes effect, and shall within said fifteen years, by proper deed, convey in good faith all their right and title to said land. And lands acquired by corporations in payment of debts due such corporation shall be sold and conveyed as herein provided within fifteen years from the date of the acquisition of such land.

Holdings of other corporations restricted.
Ib.

Art. 749c. All private corporations authorized by the laws of Texas, as provided in article 642, to do business in this state, whose main purpose is not the acquisition or ownership of lands, as mentioned in the preceding articles, which have heretofore or may hereafter acquire, by lease, purchase, or otherwise, more land than is necessary to enable them to carry on their business, shall, within fifteen years from the time this law takes effect, or the date said land may be hereafter acquired in good faith sell and convey in fee simple all lands so acquired, and which are not necessary for the transaction of their business. And no private corporation shall be permitted to purchase any land under the provisions of this and the preceding articles unless the lands so purchased are necessary to enable such corporation to do business in this state, or except where such land is purchased in due course of business to secure the payment of debt; provided, that nothing in this law shall be construed to prohibit the lease, purchase, sale, or subdivision of lands within incorporated towns, cities, or villages, and the suburbs of such towns, cities, and villages, within two miles from the limits of said incorporation in any direction.

Art. 749d. All corporations holding lands contrary to the provisions of this law shall hold the same subject to the forfeiture and escheat proceedings, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or other attorney appointed by the governor for that purpose, when he is informed or has reason to believe that any corporation is holding lands in violation of this law, to institute suit in the name of the state of Texas, in the district court of Travis county, or in the district court of any county in Texas where such corporation may have an agent, or in any county where any part of the land may be situated, against such corporation, as is provided in title 38, in the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, for the escheat of estates of deceased persons dying without devise thereof and having no heirs.

Art. 749e. If it shall be determined upon the trial of said suit that lands are held contrary to this law, the court trying said cause shall enter judgment condemning such lands and ordering them to be sold as under execution. The proceeds of such sale to be applied, first, to the payment of costs of such suit, and balance to be paid into the state treasury, subject to be paid to the stockholders, or persons entitled to receive the same as owners, upon proper proof made within twelve months from date of sale, and if the legal representatives of such corporation fail to claim the said balance of money realized on sale of said land, then it shall escheat absolutely to the state and be applied to the available school fund of the state of Texas. The court trying said cause shall allow the attorney representing the state a reasonable fee, to be taxed as cost in the suit, but in no case shall the state be liable for costs or fees unless it is successful in said suit.

Forfeiture prescribed; duty of attorney-general. Ib.

Proceeds of such forfeitures to be covered into the treasury. Ib.

Article 756. [651] The legislature shall have power to create counties for the convenience of the people, subject to the following provisions of this chapter:

Legislature may create counties. (Const., art. 9, §1.)

Art. 757. [652] In the territory of the state, exterior to the counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less.

Must have 900 square miles, unless, etc. Ib.

Art. 758. [653] The territory referred to in the preceding article may at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population, and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties.

Exterior territory may be divided at any time. Ib.

Art. 759. [654] Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than seven hundred square miles; nor shall any such county now existing be reduced to a less area than seven hundred square miles.

Counties created out of other counties must have 700 square miles. Ib.

Art. 760. [655] No new counties shall be created so as to approach nearer than twelve miles of the county seat of any county from which it may in whole or in part, be taken.

Line of new county shall not approach nearer than 12 miles to an established county seat. Ib.

Art. 761. [656] Counties of a less area than nine hundred, but of seven hundred or more square miles, within counties now existing, may be created by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals.

Counties with less than 900 square miles may be created, how. Ib.

Existing counties may be reduced to 700 square miles,
how.
Ib.

Art. 762. [657] Any county now existing may be reduced to an area of not less than seven hundred square miles by a like two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals.

New county shall pay its part of the liabilities of the old county.
Ib.

Art. 763. [658] When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be holden for and obliged to pay its proportion of all the liabilities then existing of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as the law shall provide.

New counties to pay pro rata of indebtedness.
(Acts of 1893,
p. 124.)

Art. 764. Any county which has heretofore been created, or may hereafter be created, by the legislature of the state of Texas, out of any other county or counties, shall be held liable for and bound to pay its proportion of all the liabilities of the county or counties from which it was taken, existing at the date of its creation of such new county, according to the proportionate value of the property in the excised territory, and the value of the property remaining in the old county, and a suit to recover the same may be brought by the parent county either in the district court of such parent county or in the district court of the newly created county, and the court shall have power to make any order or render any judgment necessary to carry out and satisfy its decree therein; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any county the claims against which have already been placed before courts having jurisdiction thereof and tried or dismissed under laws that were at such time constitutional.

Such indebtedness, how apportioned.
Ib.

Art. 765. Where any suit has been or shall be brought to enforce payment of the indebtedness created by the parent county or counties, or for the pro rata share of the excised territory, the assessment rolls of the parent county or counties for the year in which such new county was created shall be conclusive evidence of the property and value thereof remaining in the parent county and in the excised territory at the date of the creation of such new county; provided, that when the new county was organized and made assessment rolls for the same year as that in which it was created, such rolls shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the property therein and the taxable values thereof at the date of the creation of such new county, and the assessment rolls of the parent county for the same year shall be conclusive evidence of the property and the value thereof remaining in the parent county at the date of the creation of such new county.

Suits to have precedence;
special tax to pay judgments.
Ib.

Art. 765a. All suits brought under this law are hereby declared to be of general public interest, and shall be given precedence upon the dockets of the courts of this state; and if the plaintiff shall recover, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the newly created county to levy a special tax on all property in the territory taken from the plaintiff county sufficient to pay off the judgment, and if the first levy be insufficient, to make said levy annually till said judgment is satisfied, and the judgment of the court shall order said commissioners' court to make such levies.

Non-residents to pay to comptroller.
(Acts of 1889,
p. 136.)

Art. 766. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to assess and collect from the non-residents of unorganized counties such rate of taxation, to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such unorganized county, as the commissioners' court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt, and a certified statement of the commissioners' court making the levy in the parent county, giving the amount of the levy, shall be authority for his action.

Art. 767. When the territory taken is added to and made a part of an organized county, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county to levy and have collected on all property in such territory a tax sufficient to pay their pro rata of the indebtedness, said tax not to exceed the constitutional limit; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes to levy and have collected on all property in such unorganized county owned or held by resident citizens a tax for the purpose of paying such indebtedness.

When territory is added, duty of commissioners in organized counties.
Ib.

Art. 768. When any county has organized, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county to levy and have collected on all property in this county such rate of taxation to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such county as the commissioners' court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt.

Tax for pro rata indebtedness.
Ib.

Art. 769. All county taxes due unorganized counties collected by the comptroller shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the same shall have been organized; then he shall, upon demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, pay the same over to the said treasurer; provided, that in case any unorganized county is indebted to any county from which the same has been created, and which debt existed at the time of its creation, the comptroller shall use so much of said fund as may be necessary to pay the pro rata share of such debt due by such unorganized county, and an order of the commissioners' court of the parent county stating the amount due from the unorganized county shall be authority for the comptroller to draw his warrant for said amount, and the provisions of this article shall apply to all money now held by the comptroller for unorganized counties and to all money hereafter collected.

Tax collected in unorganized counties by comptroller.
Ib.

Art. 770. When any new county has been created wholly and entirely out of any existing county, if any bonds were legally issued by the parent county prior to the severance of a part of its territory, such of said bonds and the coupons due thereon as are held by the school fund of the state of Texas shall be apportioned between the parent county and the county or counties created out of the parent county by the comptroller of public accounts on the basis now provided by law.

County bonds held by school funds apportioned between counties, when. (Acts of 1891, p. 39.)

Art. 771. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the parent county or any county created out of the parent county, which has now or may hereafter be organized, to levy and have collected on all property in such county a tax to pay such county's pro rata share of the debt. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of any county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes, to levy and have collected on all property in said unorganized county owned by resident citizens thereof a tax for the purpose of paying said county's part of the debt; and it shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to assess and collect on all property in such unorganized counties owned by non-residents a tax to pay said counties' pro rata part of said debt; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the levy and collection of any tax in excess of that now allowed by the constitution of this state.

Commissioners' court to levy tax for pro rated.
Ib.

Art. 772. [659] No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted to a vote of the electors of both counties, and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each.

Part of existing county shall not be detached, etc., except, etc. (Const., art 9.)

Election shall be ordered, when, etc.

Art. 773. [660] An election for the purpose named in the preceding article shall be ordered by the county judge or county judges of the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach any portion thereof, or to attach any portion thereto, upon the application in writing of not less than fifty qualified voters of said county or counties.

Application shall show, what.

Art. 774. [661] The application provided for in the preceding article shall designate particularly, by metes and bounds, the portion of territory proposed to be detached, and shall show the number of square acres contained within said bounds, and the number of square acres remaining in the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach such part or parts, and the distance on a direct line of the county seat of any such county or counties from the nearest boundary line of the territory which it is proposed shall be detached.

Notices of such election shall contain, what.

Art. 775. [662] The notices of such election shall contain, substantially, the boundaries and statements contained in the application, and in the order of election.

Question to be voted upon.

Art. 776. [663] The question to be voted upon at such election shall be, "For or against the proposition," and the ballots shall be, "For the proposition," or "Against the proposition."

Law governing other elections shall govern this.

Art. 777. [664] Such election shall be governed by the law governing other elections so far as the same may be applicable, and not in conflict with any of the provisions of this chapter.

Returns of elections, how and to whom made.

Art. 778. [665] The returns of such election shall be made to the county judge or county judges of the county or counties in which the election takes place, and such county judge or county judges shall estimate the vote and make duplicate statements of the same, and shall certify to such statements officially, and one of said statements, together with a copy of the application certified to by him officially, he shall seal in an envelope, writing his name across the seal, and indorsing upon the package "Election returns of —— county," and direct and transmit the same by mail or other safe conveyance to the speaker of the house of representatives at the seat of government, in time for the same to be received at as early a day as practicable during the next session of the legislature.

Another election for same purpose shall not be held for five years.

Art. 779. [666] When any such election has been held in a county, and the proposition to detach a portion thereof has been defeated, no other election for the same purpose shall be ordered or held for the period of five years thereafter.

Art. 784. [671] All legally organized counties that from any cause may have lost, or may hereafter lose their county organization, shall be, for all judicial and surveying purposes, and for the registration of deeds, mortgages and all other instruments that are now or may hereafter be required or permitted by law to be recorded, attached to the organized county whose county seat is nearest to the county seat of such disorganized county, and so remain attached until such disorganized county shall again be legally organized.

Disorganized counties to be attached to other counties, until, etc. (Act Nov. 5, 1866, p. 90.)

County attached to another may be organized, how. (Act May 1, 1874, p. 188, §2.)

Art. 785. [672] When any unorganized or disorganized county has been attached to another county for judicial or other purposes, and desires to be organized or reorganized, a petition expressing such desire, signed by not less than one hundred and fifty qualified voters residing in such unorganized or disorganized county, may be presented to the commissioners' court of the county to which such unorganized or disorganized county is attached, and thereupon it shall be the duty of said court to proceed without delay to the organization or reorganization of such county, as the case may be, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the organization of new counties.

Certificates of election of such cases shall be issued by whom and bonds taken, etc. lb. §3.

Art. 786. [673] It shall be the duty of the county judge of the county conducting the organization of another county to issue the certificates of election to the officers elected in such organized or reorganized county, and to approve the bonds of such officers and administer to them the oath of office in accordance with law.

Books, etc., shall be delivered to such officers. lb. §4.

Art. 787. [674] It shall be the duty of all officers of the county from which any new county has been created, or to which any such newly organized or reorganized county has been attached, and the duty also of all other persons who may have in their possession any books, records, maps or other property belonging to such newly organized or reorganized county to deliver the same to the proper officers of such newly organized or reorganized county within five days after such officers have been legally qualified as such, and any officer or person who shall willfully fail to make such delivery upon demand made therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Elections in unorganized counties. (Act March 26, 1848.) P. D. 3624.

Art. 788. [675] In all cases where a county is not organized, and there is no officer in the same authorized by law to organize such county, the county judge of the nearest county which is organized may order elections for county officers in any such disorganized county, and appoint the presiding officers and managers and clerks of election, as prescribed by law in other cases.

Survey made.
(Acts of 1879,
p. 137.)

Article 799. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the county court of any county in this state, or notice shall be given such court by the commissioner of the general land office, that the boundary or any part thereof of the county is not sufficiently definite and well defined, such court shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain, by actual survey, the boundary, or any part thereof, of said county, and to make and establish the lines and corners in a manner herein prescribed; and the court in the order making the appointment shall specify the line or lines to be run, and the corners to be established and marked; and shall in all things conform to the law defining the boundaries of said county.

Boundary,
how marked.

Art. 800. The initial corners of the surveys herein provided for shall be designated by posts, mounds or stone monuments; the posts shall be of hewn cedar, cypress or bois d'arc, at least eight inches in diameter, five feet long, and set in the ground not less than three feet; the mounds shall be of stone when practicable, otherwise of earth, and not less than two feet high; that at the end of each mile in said boundary a like post, mound or stone monument shall be established; the initial corners shall be described on the post or monument established there.

Natural objects to be named.

Art. 801. In the field notes of the surveys of the lines ordered to be run, the surveyor shall give an accurate description of all prominent natural objects crossed by or adjacent to said lines, as well as of the corners and lines of surveys on or near said boundaries.

Notice to other counties.

Art. 802. It shall be the duty of the court making such order to cause a copy thereof to be sent to the county courts of the counties interested in such boundary, stating the time and place, which time shall not be later than twenty days after the meeting of the county court of the county notified, for the commencement of the survey, and such notice shall be given at least ten days before the meeting of said county court; and it shall be the duty of the court so notified to appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor to proceed at the time and place to assist in running and establishing such line.

Oath and bond of surveyors.

Art. 803. The surveyors herein provided for shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for county surveyors, and shall, before entering upon the duties herein prescribed, enter into bond with two or more sureties to be approved by the county court, in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty.

Field notes to be returned and recorded.

Art. 804. When the line shall have been surveyed and marked as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the surveyor to make due return of the field notes and map to the county court; which field notes and map shall be recorded by the clerk, and a certified copy thereof returned to the general land office.

Art. 805. If either of the surveyors appointed to run and mark such line shall fail to attend at the time and place appointed, the one in attendance shall proceed alone to perform the duties assigned him, and make his report to the county court of the county employing him, which, being approved by such court, shall be recorded as evidence of the line in question, and the line so surveyed and marked shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties.

In the absence of one surveyor the other shall act.

Art. 806. Should the surveyors above provided for fail to agree as to the true boundary line between their respective counties, the facts of such disagreement, with a full statement of the questions at issue between them, shall be by them reported to the commissioner of the general land office, whose duty it shall be to examine the disputed matter at once, and from such data as the maps and archives of his office furnish, shall designate to such surveyors the line to be run, stating at what specific point they shall begin and to what specific point they shall run, adhering as nearly as possible to the line designated in the act creating such county line, which instruction shall be authority for said surveyors to run such line, and the line so run as above directed shall thereafter be the true dividing line between said counties.

Commissioner of the land office to direct survey in case of disagreement. (Acts of 1879, p. 137.)

Art. 807. The expense of surveying and marking such line shall be divided between the counties interested in proportion to the frontage of each county upon the line, and paid for by each county as proportioned. The surveyors appointed as herein provided shall receive for their services the sum of three dollars per mile for each mile run. The expense of establishing the posts, mounds or stone monuments shall be paid by the counties interested, and they shall be erected under the supervision and direction of the surveyor.

Expense to be divided between counties.

Art. 808. Before any county in this state not already organized as a separate land district under existing law shall be recognized as such, the county court shall cause the boundary lines of the county to be surveyed and marked and the field notes and map of such survey, duly recorded, returned to the general land office as provided in this chapter.

Land districts to be surveyed.

Article 809. In the organization of any county or counties now existing or hereafter to be created by the legislature, it shall be the duty of the county judge holding the election in such new county for county officers thereof to order an election for the location of a county seat therein, which shall be conducted in the same manner as that regulating the election of the officers of such new county, and the place receiving a majority of all the votes cast by the electors voting on the location of such county seat shall thereafter be the county seat of such county, subject to be removed as other county seats; provided, that when any county has been organized and no county seat has been located the county judge of such county shall order an election for the location of a county seat.

Two-thirds vote necessary, when, to create. (Acts of 1881, p. 67.)

Art. 810. [694a] No county seat first established in a newly organized county shall be located at any point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county in this state, unless by a two-thirds vote of all the electors voting on the subject in said county.

Election for removal of, when. (Acts of 1879, p. 84.)

Art. 811. Hereafter no county seat situated within five miles of the geographical center of any county shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; nor shall any county seat be removed from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county to any other point more than five miles from such center, nor from a point within five miles of the geographical center to any other point within five miles of such center, except by a two-thirds vote of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; provided, that no person shall be allowed to vote except he be a bona fide citizen of the county in which he offers to vote. A majority of said electors, however, voting at such election may remove a county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of the county to a point within five miles of such center; in either event the center to be determined by a certificate from the commissioner of the general land office, in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Application made, how and when. (Acts 1893, p. 164.)

Art. 812. When it becomes desirable to remove the county seat of any county, it shall be the duty of the county judge of said county, or in case of his failure or inability to act, then any two of the county commissioners of said county, upon the written application of not less than one hundred freeholders, who are resident citizens of said county thereof, to make an order in writing upon the minutes of said commissioners' court, for the holding of an election at the various voting precincts in said county, on a day therein named, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of said order, for the purpose of submitting the question to the electors of said county; provided, that when a county seat has been established for a longer term than ten years, it shall require two hundred freeholders to make said application; provided further, that when a county seat has been established for a longer term than forty years, it shall require a majority of the resident freeholders of said county to make said application; said majority of freeholders to be ascertained by the county judge, or in case of his failure or inability to act, then by any two of the county commissioners of said county, from the assessment rolls thereof.

Art. 813. The commissioner of the general land office, upon being notified by the county judge of any county that a proposition is submitted to the people of such county, or that it is desirable on the part of the people thereof, that the center of such county should be designated, preliminary to the removal of any county seat, shall from the maps, surveys and other data on file in his office, designate the center of such county, and shall certify the same to the county judge of such county, who shall cause the same to be spread upon the records of deeds of his county.

Art. 814. All persons who are qualified electors under the constitution and laws of the state shall be entitled to vote at said election, and on each ticket the voter shall write or cause to be written or printed: "For removal to ——" [inserting the name of the place]; or, should the voter be in favor of the county seat remaining where the same is already located, he shall write or cause to be written or printed on his ticket: "For remaining at ——" [inserting the name of the place].

Who may vote and form of ballot.
Ib.

Art. 815. The county judge or commissioners shall order said election in each voting precinct in said county, which shall be conducted, as near as may be, as elections for county officers; and the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the officer ordering said election within ten days after the same was held, who shall then proceed to open said returns and count the same, and declare the result, which shall be entered upon the records of said commissioners' court, and shall also state the name of the place from which the same is removed, and the name of the place to which the same is removed; and a certified copy of such entry shall thereupon be, by the county clerk of said county, recorded in the proper record deeds of such county.

Election, how conducted and ordered.
Ib.

Art. 816. When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the county seat, if the election be held to move the county seat from a point within five miles of the geographical center, to a point more or less than five miles from the geographical center, or from a point more than five miles from the geographical center, to any other point more than five miles from such center, shall be removed to the place receiving the votes of two-thirds of all the electors voting on the subject, and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. But if the election be held to move the county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center to a point within five miles of such center, then the county seat shall be moved to the place receiving a majority of all the electors in the county voting at such election, and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county.

County seats removed, when.
Ib.

Art. 817. Whenever an election for the location or removal of a county seat shall have been voted on by the electors of any county, and the question settled by said electors, it shall not be lawful for a like application to be made for the same purpose within five years thereafter.

No change by election until after five years.
Ib.

Art. 818. [704] All terms of the district, county and county commissioners' courts shall be held at the county seat.

Courts shall be held at county seat.

Art. 819 [705] It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of each county, as soon as practicable after the establishment of a county seat, or after its removal from one place to another, to provide a court house and jail for the county, and offices for county officers at such county seat, and keep the same in good repair.

Court house, jail, etc., to be provided.

Art. 820. Until the county seats of new counties are established as required by the provisions of this chapter, the courts of such new counties shall be held at such place as may be appointed by the county commissioners' court of such county.

When commissioners' court may fix place of holding court. (Acts of 1879, p. 84.)

Art. 821. [706] The county judge, sheriff, clerks of the district and county courts, county treasurer, assessor of taxes and collector of taxes, county surveyor and county attorney of the several counties of this state shall keep their several offices at the county seats of their respective counties.

Officers shall keep offices at county seats. (Act March 16, 1848; act May 13, 1848.) O. & W., 282, 284.

Article 823. [934] The several county commissioners' courts shall each procure a well-bound ledger and index, and shall cause to be entered in said book a full, complete and orderly statement of the condition of the finances of the county. Duty of commissioners' court to procure ledger, etc.

Art. 824. [935] It is hereby made the duty of the clerk of the county court to open and keep in said book, which shall be known as a finance ledger, an account with each and every officer of the county, district, or state, who is now or may be hereafter authorized or required by law to receive or collect any money or other property for the use of or belonging to the county. The clerk shall also keep such other accounts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this title; that all items shall be entered daily under their respective heads, and said finance ledger shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. Duty of county clerk to keep accounts. (Act 1893, p. 160.)

Art. 824a. [935a] It shall be the duty of the said clerk to balance each account so kept, and make a tabular statement, under Same. Ib.

oath, at each regular term of the commissioners' court for the three months next preceding the month when such court meets in regular session, to be presented to said court during the second day of its term, specifying therein the names of the creditors of said county, and the items of indebtedness, with their respective dates of accrual, and also the names of persons to whom moneys have been paid, with the amounts paid each; the names of persons from whom moneys have been received, with the date of receipt, and for what account received, during the quarter for which such statement is prepared; said statement shall also show the amount to the credit or debit of each fund separately.

Same.
ib.

Art. 824b. [935a] It shall be the duty of said clerk immediately after the first regular term of the commissioners' court in each year to publish for one time in some weekly newspaper published in his county (or if there be no paper published therein, then by posting four copies of such exhibit, one in each commissioner's precinct, one of which shall be at the court house door, the other three at public places in such precincts), an exhibit showing the aggregate amount received and the aggregate amount paid out of each fund for the four preceding quarters, and the balance to the credit or debit of each fund; also the amount of indebtedness of said county, with their respective dates of accrual, and to whom and for what due; also the amount to the debit or credit of each officer or other persons with whom an account is kept. The cost for publishing the same shall be paid by order of the commissioners' court out of the general fund of the county.

Compensation of clerk.

Art. 824c. [935b] The clerk shall receive annually as compensation for the labor performed in keeping the finance ledger as provided for in article 824, and making the quarterly statement as provided for in article 824a, the sum of five dollars for each one thousand dollars tax assessed as due the county, to be paid quarterly on order of the commissioners' court out of the general fund of the county; provided, the same be not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Accounts shall be opened how, and shall be indexed.

Art. 825. [936] Said accounts shall be opened by stating at the top of the page the name of the officer and his office, and all of said accounts shall be properly indexed for convenient reference.

Account with the tax collector.

Art. 826. [937] The accounts of the tax collector shall be kept as follows: A separate account shall be kept for each separate fund that may be upon the tax rolls; each account shall state the name of the collector, the character of the fund entered therein, and the year for which the same is assessed.

Receipt of collector for tax rolls.

Art. 827. [938] Whenever the tax rolls are ready for delivery to the tax collector the court or officer having control of the same shall take from the collector a written receipt for the same, specifying the amount therein assessed and due the county, stating separately the amount assessed to each fund, and shall deliver said receipt to the clerk of the county court, who shall charge the collector with the amount stated in said receipt in the proper account, and said amounts shall be treated as debts due the county by the collector.

How the collector may discharge his indebtedness.

Art. 828. [939] The collector shall discharge said indebtedness within the time prescribed by law, by filing with said clerk receipts for the same, as follows:

1. The commission due the collector.
2. The assessor's receipt for commissions due such assessor, if any are to be paid by the county.

3. Proper vouchers for such payments as he is now, or may hereafter be, required to pay out of any money on hand.

4. The receipt of the county treasurer for the money paid into the treasury.

Art. 829. [940] The collector shall make separate lists of the indigent and delinquent taxpayers, showing their names, and the amount due by each taxpayer, and the court shall carefully examine said indigent and delinquent list, and shall make an order and enter the same upon the minutes of the court, stating the names and amounts that are adjudged uncollectible, and the collector shall have credit for the amounts included in said order in the proper accounts.

Collector shall make separate lists of indigent and delinquent taxpayers, etc.

Art. 830. [941] No credit for indigent or delinquent taxes shall be entered in said collector's accounts until an order of the court has been made and entered allowing the same.

No credit shall be entered for delinquent taxes until allowed by the court.

Art. 831. [942] In keeping accounts with the collector, the taxes assessed for each year shall be kept separate and distinct.

Taxes for each year shall be kept separate.

Art. 832. [943] Whenever a tax collector shall go out of office, he shall deliver to his successor the tax rolls in his possession, and shall receive from his successor a receipt in writing for the amount of taxes due on the tax rolls so delivered, specifying the amount of each fund and each year separately, and also the amount due on the indigent and delinquent list, which receipts he shall deliver to the clerk of the county court, who shall enter them to the credit of the collector presenting them, to the extent that the same are allowed by the court as hereinbefore provided, and shall charge the amounts so credited to the successor in office of such collector, in the proper accounts.

Tax collector going out of office shall deliver tax rolls to successor, etc.

Art. 833. [944] All occupation taxes due the county shall be collected by the tax collector of the county without assessment, and the collector shall give to the party paying the tax a receipt in writing, stating the name of the person paying the same, the occupation paid for, the time such occupation is to be pursued, and the amount collected for the state and for the county.

Collector shall collect occupation tax, and receipt for same.

Art. 834. [945] Upon the presentation of the receipts provided for in the preceding article to the clerk of the county court of the county in which such tax has been paid, such clerk shall issue a license in the name of the state or county, or both, in accordance with the tax paid, to the person paying such tax, authorizing him to pursue the occupation named in such receipt during the time for which he has paid the tax.

County clerk shall issue occupation license, when.

Art. 835. [946] Said clerk shall, at the end of every month, make two reports in writing, one of licenses issued on taxes paid to the state, which he shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts, by mail; the other of licenses issued on taxes paid to the county, and file the same in his office.

County clerk shall make two reports of licenses issued at end of each month.

Art. 836. [947] The reports required by the preceding article shall state the name of the licensee, the occupation, the time for which the license is issued and the amount of taxes paid therefor, and shall be dated and signed officially by such clerk and attested by his seal of office.

What the reports shall state, etc.

Art. 837. [948] The clerk shall keep an occupation tax account with the collector of the county, in which he shall charge the collector with all licenses issued for the county, and the collector shall have credit in said account for his commissions, and the amount paid into the treasury upon filing the proper receipt of the county treasurer with such clerk.

Clerk shall keep occupation tax account with collector.

Clerk shall keep account with sheriff.

Art. 838. [949] An account shall be kept by the clerk with the sheriff of each county, in which such sheriff shall be charged with all judgments, fines, forfeitures and penalties, payable to the county, rendered in the district or county courts of the county, or any other court of his county, and with the collection of which he is, by law, made chargeable.

How sheriff may free himself from liability under preceding article.

Art. 839. [950] The sheriff may free himself from liability from the charge required in the preceding article by—

1. Producing the receipt of the county treasurer showing the payment of such judgment, fine, forfeiture or penalty.

2. By showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners' court that the same can not be collected, or that the same has been discharged by imprisonment or labor, or by escape, without his fault or neglect; and none of the credits herein provided for, except those on the receipts of the treasurer, shall be entered without an order of the commissioners' court allowing the same.

Clerks, etc., shall report fines, judgments and jury fees monthly. (Acts of 1887, p. 36.)

Art. 840. [951] Clerks of the district and county courts, county judges, county treasurers, sheriffs, district and county attorneys, constables and justices of the peace, who shall collect or handle any money for the use of the county, shall make a full and complete report, under oath, in writing, to the commissioners' court, at each regular term thereof, of all fines imposed and collected and all judgments rendered and collected for the use of the county, and all jury fees collected in their respective courts in favor of or for the use of the county; and at the same time to present their receipts and vouchers showing what disposition has been made of the money collected, fines imposed and judgments rendered; which reports, receipts and vouchers shall be carefully examined by the said commissioners' court, and if found to be correct, shall cause the clerk to enter the same on the financial ledger, and if found to be incorrect, shall summon said officer before them, and have the same corrected; and said reports, receipts and vouchers shall be filed in the county clerk's office.

What the reports shall show.

Art. 841. [952] The reports required by the preceding article shall state fully—

1. The name of the party fined and the amount of the fine, or the name of the party against whom judgment was rendered and the amount of such judgment, as the case may be.

2. The style and number of the cases in which fines have been imposed or judgments rendered, and the date thereof.

3. The amount of jury fees collected, and the style and number of the case in which each jury fee was collected and from whom collected.

Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices shall be charged against them, etc.

Art. 842. [953] Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices of the peace shall be charged against the justice of the peace imposing or rendering the same, and he may discharge said indebtedness by filing with the clerk of the county court the treasurer's receipt for the amount thereof, or by showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners' court that he has used due diligence to collect the same without avail, or that the same have been satisfied by imprisonment or labor.

District attorney shall make report, etc.

Art. 843. [954] The district attorney of each district shall, at each term of the district court for each county in his district, make a report in writing to the clerk of the county court of all moneys received by him since the last term of the district court for such county, for the use of such county.

Art. 844. [955] The county attorney of each county in the state shall make a similar report to the one required in the preceding article to the clerk of the county court of his county, at the end of each month.

County attorney shall make report.

Art. 845. Whenever the principal and sureties upon any judgment, the proceeds of which revert to, and belong to, any county, are insolvent so that under any existing process of law said judgment, or any part thereof can not be collected, the commissioners' court of said county are hereby constituted a board to dispose of such judgment, and are hereby empowered and authorized, by such advertising as they may deem necessary, to offer for sale as they may deem to be the best interests of the county all the right of the county to such judgment. And if by public sale, if the amount bid on the same should not be deemed sufficient they shall refuse to accept the same, and dispose of the same in any manner deemed by them most advantageous to the interest of the county, and upon sale shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser.

Judgment not collectible may be sold. (Acts of 1879, p. 9.)

Art. 846. [956] When any officer collects money belonging to and for the use of any county, he shall, except where otherwise provided in this title, forthwith report the same in writing to the clerk of the county court of the county to which such money belongs, stating fully in such report from whom collected, the amount collected, the time when collected, and by virtue of what authority or process collected.

Any officer collecting money for county shall report the same.

Art. 847. [957] When any officer reports to the clerk of the county court any money collected by such officer for the use of the county, the amount of money so collected shall be charged to such officer, and he may discharge himself from such indebtedness by producing the receipt of the proper county treasurer therefor.

Money collected by officer shall be charged to him, etc.

Art. 848. [958] There shall also be kept in the ledger, provided for in article 823, an estray account, in which shall be entered on the debit side each application made to the clerk of the county court to estray any animal in his county, by entering the date of the application, the name of the person estraying, and a brief description of the animal or animals to be estrayed, and the amount of such charge shall be left blank until said person shall file his account of the sale of said animal or animals, and upon the filing of said account the net amount due the county from such sale shall be entered in the blank.

Estray account.

Art. 849. [959] When the receipt of the county treasurer is presented to the clerk, showing any amount paid into the treasury on account of the sale of an estray, the same shall be entered on the credit side of the account, showing the date, name of payer, amount paid and a brief description of the estray, and such amount shall be charged on the debit side of the county treasurer's account.

Same subject.

Art. 850. [960] An account shall also be kept in said ledger by the clerk with the county treasurer, in which such treasurer shall be charged separately with the amount of each fund for which he gives a receipt to the sheriff, collector or other person paying the same into the treasury, and such treasurer shall have credit for all moneys paid out by him, when the commissioners' court has approved his reports of the same, and for his legal commissions.

Clerk shall keep account with county treasurer.

Art. 851. [961]. The county treasurer of each county shall keep a well-bound book in which he shall register all claims against his county when presented to him for registration, and no claim or any part thereof against a county shall be paid by such county treasurer, nor shall the same or any part thereof be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county until it has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this title.

County treasurer shall register claims against the county.

Claims shall be classified.

Art. 852. [962] Claims against a county shall be registered in three classes, as follows:

1. All jury scrip and scrip issued for feeding jurors.

2. All scrip issued under the provisions of the road law or for work done on roads and bridges.

3. All the general indebtedness of the county, including feeding and guarding prisoners, and paupers' claims.

Manner of registering claims.

Art. 853. [963] Each claim shall be entered in the register, stating the class to which it belongs, the name of the payee, the amount, the date of the claim, the date of registration, the number of such claim, by what authority issued, and for what service the same was issued.

What shall be written on registered claim.

Art. 854. [964] When a claim has been registered the treasurer shall write on the face of the same its registered number, the word "registered," the date of such registration, and shall sign his name officially thereto.

Claims shall be numbered, in what order.

Art. 855. [965] Claims shall be numbered in the order presented, and if more than one claim is presented at one and the same time they shall be numbered in the order of their date.

Order in which claims shall be paid.

Art. 856. [966] The treasurer shall pay off the claims in each class in the order in which they are registered.

Classification of county funds. (Const., art 16, §24.)

Art. 857. [967] The funds received by the county treasurer shall be classed as follows:

1. All jury fees, all money received from the sale of estrays, and all occupation taxes; and this class of funds shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class first, described in article 852.

2. All money received under any of the provisions of the road and bridge law, including the penalties recovered from railroads for failing to repair crossings, prescribed in article 4435, and all fines and forfeitures; and this fund shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class second.

3. All money received, not otherwise appropriated herein or by the commissioners' court; and the funds of this class shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class third.

Commissioners' court may create other classes of funds, etc.

Art. 858. [968] The commissioners' court shall have power to cause such other accounts to be kept, creating other classes of funds, as it may deem proper, and require the scrip to be issued against the same and registered accordingly.

Said court may transfer one class of funds to another, except, etc.

Art. 859. [969] The commissioners' court shall have power by an order to that effect to transfer the money in hand from one fund to another, as in its judgment is deemed necessary and proper, except that the funds which belong to class first shall never be diverted from the payment of the claims to which the same are appropriated by article 857, unless there is an excess of such funds.

County treasurer shall report registered claims each month.

Art. 860. [970] The county treasurer shall, at the end of each month, file in the office of the clerk of the county court of his county a report in writing, showing the total amount of claims registered by him during said month, stating each class separately.

Clerk shall enter report upon ledger, etc.

Art. 861. [971] The clerk with whom the report required by the preceding article is filed shall enter the same upon the ledger under the head of "Registered indebtedness of the county," keeping a separate account of each class of indebtedness, and, from the reports of the treasurer of disbursements made, credit said accounts with the total amount of vouchers of each class of claims paid.

Art. 862. [972] The county treasurer, or any other officer disbursing money for the county, or receiving county claims in payment of dues of any kind, shall require the party receiving payment of, or credit for the same, his agent or attorney, to receipt in writing upon the face of such claim for the amount so paid or received thereon.

Party receiving payment of claim shall receipt thereon.

Art. 863. [973] Every officer who shall collect any fine, penalty, forfeiture, judgment, tax or other indebtedness due the county, in claims against the county, shall keep a descriptive list of such claims, and shall, when he reports such collection, file with his report a list stating the party in whose favor each claim was issued, the class and registered number thereof, the name of the party paying in such claim, and the amount received, and for what purpose received.

Officer receiving claim in payment of debt to county shall report list of same.

Art. 864. [974] Claims received for the county by any officer other than the treasurer shall be turned over, together with the list mentioned in the preceding article, to the county treasurer, who shall give a proper receipt for the same, and the county treasurer shall file said list with his report in the office of the clerk of the county court.

Claims received by other officer than county treasurer shall be reported to county treasurer.

Art. 865. [975] The county treasurer shall keep accurate accounts showing all the transactions of his office in detail, and all warrants by him paid off shall be punched at the time he pays them, and the vouchers relating to and accompanying each report shall be presented to the commissioners' court with the corresponding report, when it shall be the duty of said court to compare the vouchers with the report, and all proper vouchers shall be allowed and the treasurer credited with the amount thereof.

County treasurer shall keep accounts, etc. (Acts of 1889, p. 6.)

Art. 866. [976] When a claim presented as a voucher has been found by the court to be correct, the court shall cause the same to be cancelled by writing or stamping upon the face thereof the word "cancelled," and the clerk shall attest the same by his official signature.

Claim shall be cancelled, when and how.

Art. 867. [977] When the commissioners' court has compared and examined a report of the treasurer and found the sum correct, it shall cause an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court, stating the approval thereof, which order shall recite separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by the treasurer, and the balance of such fund, if any, remaining in the treasurer's hands, and shall cause the proper credits to be made in the accounts of the treasurer in accordance with said order.

Order of court approving treasurer's report.

Art. 868. [978] The commissioners' court shall, at each regular term, examine all accounts and reports relating to the finances of the county, and compare the same with the vouchers accompanying them, and cause such corrections to be made as are necessary, in order to make said accounts and reports correct, and shall cause all orders made by them, appertaining to said accounts and reports, to be properly entered upon the minutes of said court, and noted upon said accounts and reports.

Commissioners' court shall examine and correct all accounts and reports, etc.

Art. 869. [979] All reports and vouchers shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and shall be carefully preserved therein, and shall be briefly noted in the proper account upon the ledger.

Reports and vouchers shall be filed and preserved in county clerk's office.

District judge shall appoint committee to examine into finances of county.

Art. 870. [980] At each term of the district court the district judge, upon the request of the grand jury, may appoint a committee consisting of three citizens of the county, men of good moral character and intelligence, and experienced accountants, to examine into the condition of the finances of the county.

Duty of such committee.

Art. 871. [981] It shall be the duty of the committee provided for in the preceding article to examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and orders of the commissioners' court relating to the finances of the county that have not been examined and reported upon by a previous committee; to count all the money in the office of the county treasurer belonging to the county, and to make such other examination as to them may seem necessary and proper in order to ascertain the true condition of the finances of the county, and the court shall, if necessary, upon the application of said committee, send for persons and evidence to aid them in their investigation.

Report of committee.

Art. 872. [982] Said committee shall, at the earliest practicable day after their appointment, make to said district court a report in writing, in detail, stating whether the books and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of this title are correctly kept in accordance with said provisions, and setting forth fully the condition of the finances of the county, the state of each officer's account, and specifying all irregularities, omissions or malfeasance of any kind that they may discover. Said report shall be signed and sworn to by said committee and filed in the office of the clerk of said district court, and the attention of the grand jury called thereto as soon after the filing of the same as practicable.

Pay of committee.

Art. 873. [983] Said committeemen shall each be entitled to receive for their services three dollars for each day, not to exceed five days, that they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such, which fees shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the certificate of the district judge stating the number of days served.

All reports shall be sworn to.

Art. 874. [984] All reports required under any of the provisions of this title shall be sworn to by the officer making the same, before some officer authorized to administer oaths.

Monthly reports shall be filed, when.

Art. 875. [985] All monthly reports required by any of the provisions of this title shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the proper county within five days after the end of each month.

Warrants issued against county by judge or court shall be attested by clerk, etc.

Art. 876. [986] All warrants or scrip issued against the county treasurer by any judge or court shall be signed and attested by the clerk or judge of the court issuing the same, under his official seal, and no justice of the peace shall have authority to issue warrants against the treasury for any purpose whatever, except as provided in article 1124 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

[Note.—The Acts of March 27, 1885, p. 56; of 1881, p. 5; of 1887, p. 135; and of 1879, p. 43, relating to issuance by counties of court house, jail and bridge bonds, were embraced in the codification of 1893 as Articles 877 to 889 inclusive. Those articles are expressly repealed by the Act of 1895, p. 113, the provisions of that Act substituting Articles 877 to 883 inclusive.]

Article 877. The county commissioners' court of any county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to issue the bonds of said county for the following purposes:

1. For the erection of a county court house and jail, or either.
2. For purchasing or constructing bridges for public purposes, within the county or across a stream that constitutes a boundary line of the county.

Art. 878. All bonds issued under this law shall run not exceeding forty years, and shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the county any time after five years after the issuance of the bonds, or after any period not exceeding ten years, which may be fixed by the commissioners' court.

Art. 879. Said bonds shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable on the tenth day of April; or interest may, in the discretion of the commissioners' court, be made payable semi-annually, on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October, respectively. Interest shall be evidenced by attached coupons.

Art. 880. The issue of bonds under this chapter shall be based upon the taxable values of the county according to the last approved assessment, and shall be limited as follows: Court house and jail bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding two per cent of said taxable values; bridge bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding one per cent of said taxable values. In determining the amount of the bonds of the respective kinds to be issued, previous indebtedness for said several purposes shall be considered. The total indebtedness of any county shall not be increased by any issue of bonds to a sum exceeding five per cent of its said taxable values.

Court house, jail and bridge bonds, authorized. (Acts 1893, p. 112.)

To run not exceeding forty years; redeemable when. Ib.

Interest and sinking fund provided.
Ib.

Art. 881. The commissioners' court shall levy annual ad valorem taxes sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund for their redemption; which said taxes shall not exceed, for court house and jail bonds, one-fourth of one per cent; for bridge bonds, fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars.

Bonds to be signed, countersigned, registered and sold at not less than par, etc.
Ib.

Art. 882. The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer, before delivery. The county treasurer shall keep an account of the amount of principal and interest paid on each, and no bond shall be sold at less than its par value and accrued interest, exclusive of commissions.

Old bonds of legal issue may be substituted by new.
Ib.

Art. 883. When bonds have heretofore been legally issued for any of the purposes above named, new bonds in conformity with this law may be issued in lieu thereof.

[Note.—Articles 884 to 889 inclusive, not having been substituted, are dropped. See preceding note.]

Debts may be funded, when and how. (Acts of 1879, p. 61.)

Art. 890. All counties, incorporated cities and towns in this state owing debts are hereby authorized to fund the same in bonds of said counties, cities and towns, in such sums and at such rate of interest as may seem best to the authorities of said counties, cities and towns; provided, that in no case shall the rate of interest be greater than six per cent per annum; and provided further, that this and the two following articles shall not apply to any indebtedness of any counties, cities or towns made and undertaken since the eighteenth day of April, 1876, and shall not apply to any bonds issued under an act entitled, "An act to authorize counties, cities and towns to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvements," approved April 12, 1871; provided further, that no city shall issue bonds to a greater amount than is authorized by its charter, where a limit is placed on the issue of bonds in its charter.

Debts may be compromised.
Ib.

Art. 891. All the counties, incorporated cities and towns of this state, are hereby authorized to scale their debts of every description, bonded or otherwise, by adjustment and compromise with their creditors, and may issue bonds as provided for in the foregoing article, in any sums and at any rate of interest not greater than six per cent per annum, in settlement or compromise with said creditors, or with any one or more of them.

Sinking fund to be provided and tax levied.
Ib.

Art. 892. Said counties, cities and towns, in funding and scaling their said indebtedness made and undertaken before said eighteenth day of April, 1876, as herein provided, shall provide a suitable sinking fund of two per cent per annum, to be applied to the payment of the principal of the bonds issued under article 890; and shall annually levy and collect a sufficient tax on all the taxable property of said counties, cities and towns to pay the interest and sinking fund aforesaid; provided, that should there be annually collected more than is necessary to pay the interest already due and the two per cent sinking fund, such excess and sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of the bonds for which said sinking fund is set aside.

BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF COUNTIES, CITIES AND TOWNS, COMPROMISED BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE.

Art. 893. The county commissioners' court of any county, or the mayor and board of aldermen of any city or town in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to compromise and fund any existing bonded indebtedness by such county, city or town issued, and the coupons due thereon, to aid in the construction of railroads or other works of internal improvement, or other bonds issued by authority of law; and for this purpose they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue new bonds in denomination of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable annually at the office of the state treasurer; said new bonds to become due and payable in twenty years, and to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding eight per cent per annum, as in their discretion may best subserve the purpose intended.

May compromise and fund indebtedness.
(Acts of April 18, 1879, p. 109.)

Art. 894. No compromises shall be made under the provisions hereof, by which any debt barred by the statute of limitation, or which may be barred at the time of such compromise, shall be revived, nor shall such new bonds, to be used in funding the principal of such old bonds, be issued for any greater amount than three-fourths of the principal of the old bonds outstanding; provided, that when the rate of interest of such new bonds is not more than five per cent per annum, then new bonds may be issued to the full amount of the old bonds outstanding; and provided further, that the amount of new bonds to be issued for the funding of the matured interest shall be left to the discretion of the county commissioners' court or the mayor and board of aldermen as the case may be, but in no case to exceed the amount of such matured interest.

Authority to compromise limited.
Ib.

Art. 895. The new bonds thus issued by any county shall be exempt from the payment of all county taxes, general and special, in the county by which they are issued; and the new bonds thus issued by any city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town.

Bonds exempt from taxation.
Ib.

Art. 896. The county commissioners' court or mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, shall cause to be prepared the necessary blank bonds to give effect to the provisions hereof, the cost of which shall be paid out of the treasury of such county, city or town; said bonds, when issued by any county, shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk of such county, with the seal of the county court affixed; and when issued by any city or town shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the recorder (or secretary if there be no recorder), with the seal of such city or town affixed; and such new bonds, whether issued by any county, city or town, shall be registered in the office of the state comptroller.

Issued and registered, how.
Ib.

Art. 897. Such new bonds may be exchanged for the old bonds at the rate specified in article 894, or they may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase of such old bonds at the rate specified in said article; provided, that no delivery of such new bonds shall take place unless a contract has already been entered into for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds; and provided further, no bonds so issued shall be sold at less than par; each bond sold shall be made to bear the lowest rate of interest that will give it par value.

May be exchanged or sold.
Ib.

Tax laws to be continued in force.
Ib.

Art. 898. All laws in force providing for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such existing bonds, shall apply and be in force for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such new bonds; provided, that the sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of such new bonds whenever the same can be bought at not more than their par value.

Same subject.
Ib.

Art. 899. The object and intention of these provisions being to enable the counties, cities or towns in this state which have granted subsidy bonds to railroads or other works of internal improvement, or created any bonded indebtedness whatever, to compromise the same and thereby reduce the burden of taxation, it is hereby declared, as an inducement to the holders of said bonds to accept the compromise, that whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith, either by the holder of the present bonds or by any person purchasing said new bonds as provided in the foregoing articles, that all laws in force or which may hereafter be in force for the assessment and collection of the state taxes, shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of the taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suits which may be instituted to enforce the payment of said new bonds or coupons against any such county, city or town, no defense either in law or equity shall be admitted in any of the courts of this state, except such as originated upon or subsequent to the issuance of such new bonds.

Collector liable for failing to collect tax, and when to be appointed by governor.
Ib.

Art. 900. Whenever a collector of taxes shall neglect or refuse to collect the taxes levied for the payment of the interest and sinking fund of such new bonds, he shall be liable on his official bond at the suit of any person or persons holding any of said bonds or coupons for all such damages as said person or persons shall have sustained by reason of his neglect or refusal; nor shall such collector or his sureties be relieved of such liability by his resignation of the office; and whenever any person who may be elected collector of taxes of any county, city or town shall fail, neglect or refuse to give the bond required by law for the collection of such tax, or whenever the commissioners' court or the mayor or board of aldermen, as the case may be, shall appoint any person who shall fail, neglect or refuse to give said bond, or whenever they shall fail, neglect or refuse to appoint some person who will give said bond and collect said tax, then it is hereby made the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person to collect said taxes, who shall perform all the duties required herein or any other law of this state relating to the collection of said taxes from the time of his said appointment until the next general election.

Compromise by vote of the people; notice of election, how given.
Ib.

Art. 901. No compromise which may be agreed upon between the commissioners' court or the mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, and the bondholders or others, shall be binding upon the taxpayers of any county, city or town until the terms of said compromise shall have been submitted to a vote of the property taxpayers at an election held by order of the commissioners' court, or mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, and a majority of the said taxpayers shall vote in favor of and ratify the terms of said compromise; said election shall be held in accordance with the general law regulating elections; provided, that none but property taxpayers shall vote at any such election; provided further, that notice of such election shall be published for thirty days in some newspaper published in the county, city or town, as the case may be; and in case there shall be no paper published in such county, city or town, then by posting in ten public places in such county, city or town, as the case may be, for thirty days prior to any election hereunder.

COUNTIES MAY COMPROMISE DEBTS AND ISSUE BONDS FOR SAME CREATED PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 1891.

Art. 902. The county commissioners' court of any county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to compromise, compound, refund, settle with and to fund any existing indebtedness lawfully made and undertaken by such county by authority of law created prior to January 1, 1895, and for this purpose the said commissioners' courts are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in denomination of not less than five hundred dollars, with interest coupons, payable annually; said bonds to become due and payable in twenty years from date of their issuance; provided, that said bonds may be paid off at any time after two years from their date of issuance if the commissioners' court should so elect; and provided further, that such bonds shall not be sold for less than their face or par value; said bonds to bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum; and the said commissioners' courts are further authorized and empowered to levy a tax upon all real and personal property situated in the county, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars on the assessed value of such property in any one year, to pay the annual interest, and not less than two per cent annually of the principal of said bonds, besides the expenses of assessing and collecting the same, and no bonds shall be issued under this article until a levy as herein provided shall have been made, and when such levy shall have been made the same shall continue in force until the whole amount of the principal and interest shall have been fully paid; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize any county to levy any tax in excess of that authorized by the constitution and laws now in force; provided further, that it shall not authorize the taking up of bonds heretofore issued and issuing new bonds in lieu thereof unless such new bonds shall bear a less rate of interest than the bonds taken up.

Counties authorized to compromise, compound, settle and fund indebtedness. (Acts of 1895, p. 165.) (Amendment.)

Art. 903. All taxes levied hereunder shall be applied solely to the objects for which they were levied, as follows:

Taxes levied, how applied. (Acts of 1889, p. 89.)

1. To the payment of the expenses of assessing and collecting the same.

2. To the payment of the annual interest of said bonds and not less than two per cent of the principal; and if there be any excess on hand, after making the above payments for the current year, it shall be used in the purchase and cancellation of said bonds, after the expiration of said five years, as hereinbefore provided.

Art. 904. All taxes levied hereunder shall be assessed and collected in the same manner and by the same officers whose duty it is to assess and collect the state tax, and they shall receive for their services one-fourth the rate of commissions allowed for assessing and collecting the state tax. The same remedies shall be used to enforce the collection of said taxes that are provided by law to enforce the collection of the state tax; provided, that such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from that levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor.

By whom assessed and collected. Ib.

Collector to give bonds.
Ib.

Art. 905. The officer whose duty it is to collect the taxes so levied shall give a bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county commissioners' court, in a sum to be equal to double the estimated annual amount of said tax, which bond shall be payable to the county, and shall be conditioned for the faithful collection and payment of said tax into the county treasury.

Money received and paid out by treasurer.
Ib.

Art. 906. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to receive all moneys collected as herein provided, and to keep separate accounts thereof, and to pay the same on warrants drawn by the order of the commissioners' court in the usual regular form.

Collector to pay money to treasurer.
Ib.

Art. 907. The collector of the taxes so levied shall pay over to the county treasurer, at the beginning of each and every month, all moneys he may have collected during the next preceding month, deducting his legal commission on the amount so paid, and he shall, at each regular meeting of the county commissioners' court, make a report of his collections and payments to the county treasurer since the next preceding term.

Bonds, how executed and expenses paid.
Ib.

Art. 908. All expenses necessary to give effect to the provisions herein shall be paid out of the treasury of the county, and all bonds issued by any county hereunder shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the clerk of the commissioners' court, with the seal of said court affixed thereto.

GENERAL POWER OF COUNTIES, CITIES AND TOWNS TO COMPROMISE RAILROAD AND OTHER INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT BONDS.

Internal improvement bonds, how adjusted and paid.
(Acts of 1887, p. 77.)
Ib.

Art. 909. Any county, city or town that has heretofore issued bonds to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvements, are hereby authorized to compromise or adjust such indebtedness so created, in such manner as may be deemed to the best interest of such county, city or town; provided, that the amount of the debt and the rate of interest thereon shall not be thereby increased; and provided further, that no debt which has become barred by the statute of limitation shall be thereby revived. For the purpose of carrying out the compromise or adjustment hereby authorized, the said counties, cities and towns are authorized to issue bonds, in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or adjustment, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding bonds.

Bonds sold and exchanged, how.
Ib.

Art. 910. The bonds authorized by the preceding article may be exchanged for the bonds heretofore issued, or they may be sold and the proceeds used to buy up the old bonds as it may be necessary; provided, that the said bonds shall not be exchanged for the old bonds at a greater rate than par, except that the old bonds may be taken at a discount, and the new at the face value, according to agreement; and provided, that the new bonds issued hereunder shall not be sold for less than the amount for which the old bonds can be purchased. No such bonds shall be sold until there has been a contract by which the proceeds can be invested in the purchase of the old bonds.

Authority for executing bonds and terms and conditions of same.
Ib.

Art. 911. If any county, city or town shall desire to avail itself of these provisions, and when arrangements shall have been made for the compromise or adjustment of any of the bonds as hereinbefore mentioned, the commissioners' court of such county, or the city council of such town or city, shall enter an order, or adopt an ordinance, as the case may be, authorizing the issuance of bonds, which shall prescribe the amount to be issued, and shall cause blank bonds to be prepared for the purpose aforesaid. The bonds shall be made payable to bearer, and shall be payable such time after date as may be fixed and agreed upon, not to exceed fifty years, and shall bear such rate of interest as may be agreed upon, which shall not exceed the rate of interest that the old bonds now bear. The interest may be made payable annually, or semi-annually, and at such place as may be specified. Coupons shall be attached, representing each installment of interest as specified, which shall also include two per cent of the face of the bond as a sinking fund. The bonds issued by the county shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, with the seal of the county, and the coupons shall be signed by the county judge. The bonds that may be issued by any city or town under the provisions hereof, shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city secretary or recorder, with the seal of such city or town attached, and the coupons shall be signed by the mayor.

Art. 912. The bonds as herein authorized to be issued may be exchanged or sold from time to time, and in such amounts as can be procured of the old bonds by purchase or exchange. Whenever any bonds shall be issued, the county commissioners' court, or council of such city or town, shall levy upon the last assessment of the property for such city or town, as the case may be, a tax sufficient to pay the interest and sinking fund of not less than two per cent upon such bonds. The tax so levied shall remain as the levy for that purpose until a new levy may be made for that purpose; provided, that such commissioners' court or council may from time to time increase or diminish such tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable values of the property of the county or city or town and the amount to be collected; provided further, that the amount shall not any time be reduced so that it will not raise an amount sufficient to pay the annual interest and sinking fund on all the bonds sold or exchanged under the provisions hereof.

Regulating taxes for interest and sinking fund. Ib.

Art. 913. If the tax collector, or any officer charged with the duty of collecting the tax levied to pay the interest and sinking fund upon said bond, shall refuse to collect the said tax at any time, he shall be liable upon his official bond to any person who may be injured thereby. If any collector shall refuse to collect said taxes, then upon the complaint of any citizen or person interested, or upon their own motion, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county, or the city council of such city or town, to appoint some suitable person, who shall qualify as required of the collector aforesaid, and shall proceed to collect said tax until the next general election, and until a collector shall be elected and qualified who will collect the same. If the commissioners' court or council aforesaid shall fail or refuse to appoint some person as aforesaid, then the governor of the state shall make such appointment of some suitable person who shall collect said taxes until the next general election and until some collector shall be elected who will collect the same; and such person so appointed by the governor shall qualify as the regular collector is or may be required by law.

Collector liable on bond for failure of duty; new collector appointed, when. Ib.

Art. 914. Before the bonds that may be issued hereunder shall be delivered they shall be registered in the office of the comptroller of the state, who shall indorse upon each bond the date of such registration; and when so registered and delivered the said bonds shall not be subject to any defense that existed prior to the delivery of them, and this shall be stated in the face of the bonds.

Assessment of taxes and compensation of assessor.
Ib.

Art. 915. The taxes levied hereunder shall be assessed by the officer whose duty it is by law to make the assessment for such county, city or town, who shall receive for such assessment one per cent for making such assessment. The officer whose duty it is by law to collect the taxes for such county, city or town, shall collect the taxes levied hereunder, and shall receive as compensation therefor one per cent of the amount collected.

Surplus fund,
how applied.
Ib.

Art. 916. If after all the matured coupons upon any series of bonds that may be issued hereunder have been paid off there shall remain a surplus of the taxes so collected for the payment thereof, then the commissioners' court of such county, or the council of such city or town, may use the surplus so remaining to purchase any of the outstanding bonds, at not more than par. If said bonds can not be purchased at par, then the said surplus may be applied to the payment of the next maturing coupons upon their maturity, and the taxes for that year remitted to that extent.

(Acts of 1887,
p. 29.)

Art. 917. The county commissioners' court of any county, or the mayor and board of aldermen or city council of any city or town, that have heretofore issued bonds to aid in the construction of railroads or other works of internal improvement, are hereby authorized and empowered to reduce the rate of taxation heretofore levied for the purpose of paying the interest and sinking fund on such bonds, so as to raise the amount necessary to pay the said interest and sinking fund which may become due annually according to the terms of the said bonds; and any county, city or town, by its said commissioners, or city council, or mayor and aldermen, may from time to time hereafter increase or diminish its rate of taxation according to the valuation of its taxable property, so as to raise the amount necessary for the payment of said interest and sinking fund annually; provided, that the taxes shall never be reduced below the rate that will raise the amount that is annually due upon such bonds.

How amount

collector.
Ib.

Art. 918. The levy of tax provided for in the preceding article shall be made upon the assessed valuation of the property of such county, city or town for the previous year, and shall remain in force from year to year until there has been a new levy, according to the provisions hereof. It shall be the duty of the officer who shall make the assessments annually for such county, city or town to make the levy of the taxes aforesaid upon the assessment of property made for general purposes, and to so return his rolls as to show the said tax due from each person the same as the other taxes are shown. No additional fees shall be allowed for said work. For collecting the said taxes the tax collector of such county, city or town shall receive one and one-half per cent upon the amount collected.

fund.
184.)

Article 918a. Hereafter any county, city, or town, acting through its commissioners' court, city council, or board of aldermen, as the case may be, in authorizing the execution of any bonds in pursuance of law, shall, at the time, provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually of sufficient amount with which to pay the annual interest and a sinking fund with which to pay such bonded indebtedness at maturity.

Art. 918b. Hereafter no bonds executed by any county, city, or town shall bear a higher rate of interest than six per cent per annum, and shall not be sold at less than its par value and accumulated interest, exclusive of commissions.

Rate of interest; terms of sale.
Ib.

Art. 918c. Hereafter no county, city, or town shall execute a bond to mature later than forty years from the date of its execution.

No bond to run longer than forty years.
Ib.

Art. 918d. Any county, city, or town, in the state of Texas, desiring to issue bonds as authorized by the constitution and laws of this state, shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the attorney general the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order, or ordinance, levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, with a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such county, city, or town, including the series of bonds proposed, and the assessed value of property for purposes of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment, of such county, city or town, together with such other information as the attorney general may require; whereupon it shall be the duty of the attorney general to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds, and if, as the result of such examination, the attorney general shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such county, city, or town by which they are executed, he shall so officially certify.

Conditions precedent to the issuance of bonds.
Ib.

Art. 918e. When said bonds have been examined by the attorney general and his certificate attached thereto, they shall be registered by the comptroller, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the certificate of the attorney general to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record, for use in the event of litigation.

Bonds to be registered by comptroller.
Ib.

Art. 918f. Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the attorney general, and having been registered in the comptroller's office, as provided herein, shall thereafter be held, in every action, suit, or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And in every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds, the certificate of the attorney general, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided, the only defense which can be offered against the validity of said bonds shall be for forgery or fraud. But this article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the constitution, or contrary to its provisions, but all such bonds shall, to the extent of such excess, be held void.

Certificate of attorney-general and registration prima facie evidence of validity.
Ib.

Art. 918g. Nothing in this law shall be construed to apply to the issuance of any bonds in cases where provisions for their issuance have been made, in whole or in part, before the passage of this law.

Law not applicable in certain cases.

 Oath and bond of. (Act May 13, 1846.)
 P. D. 1096.

Article 919. [987] At each regular biennial election for state and county officers, there shall be elected in each county, by the qualified voters thereof, a county treasurer, whose term of office shall be two years and until his successor is qualified.

Art. 920. [988] The county treasurer, before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state and shall give a bond payable to the county judge of his county, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his hands as county treasurer, and render a just and true account thereof to said court at each regular term of said court, which oath and bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of such county and safely preserved.

Art. 921. [989] The county treasurer shall also give an additional bond to the one required in the preceding article, for the school fund of his county, payable to the county judge of such county, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such county judge, in a sum double the amount of such school fund, to be estimated by such county judge, conditioned that he will safely keep and faithfully disburse the school fund according to law, and pay such warrants as may be drawn on said fund by competent authority. Said bond shall be given within twenty days after such treasurer has received his certificate of election, and when given and approved, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of his county and there safely preserved.

Shall be required to give new bond, when.

Art. 922. [990] It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court, whenever they may consider the bonds, or either of the bonds, of a county treasurer, from any cause, insufficient or doubtful, to require such treasurer to give another bond or bonds, or to give additional bond or bonds, as the case may be.

Office to be declared vacant when

Art. 923. [991] Should the person elected treasurer fail to give the bonds required by this title and take the oath of office within twenty days after receiving his certificate of election, it shall be the duty of the county judge to declare the said office vacant; and should a treasurer fail to give another or an additional bond or bonds when required to do so, as provided in the preceding article, within twenty days after notice of such requirement, he shall be removed from said office in the manner provided by law.

Art. 924. [992] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of county treasurer, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the county in which such vacancy occurs to fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointment to be made by a majority vote of the commissioners present, at a regular or special term of such court, and such appointment shall continue in force until the next general election and until a successor is qualified.

Vacancy, how filled.
(Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 217.)

Art. 925. [993] The person appointed to fill the vacancy, as provided in the preceding article, shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of such office, and within twenty days after he has been notified of such appointment, take the oath and give the bonds required, as in the case of an election to such office.

Appointee shall take oath and give bonds.
Ib.

Art. 926. [994] It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived, and to pay and apply the same as required by law, in such manner as the commissioners' court of his county may require and direct.

Shall receive moneys belonging to county, etc.
(Act May 13, 1846.)
P. D. 1097.

Art. 927. [995] The county treasurer shall keep a just and true account of the receipts and expenditures of all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the debts due to and from his county; and direct prosecutions according to law for the recovery of all debts that may be due his county, and superintend the collection thereof.

Shall keep true accounts and superintend collection of money, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 1098.

Art. 928. [996] The county treasurer shall render a detailed report at every regular term of the commissioners' court of his county of all the moneys received and disbursed by him, of all debts due to and from his county, and of all other proceedings in his office, and shall exhibit to said court at every such term all his books and accounts for their inspection and all vouchers relating to the same, to be audited and allowed.

Shall report to commissioners' court.
Ib.
P. D. 1099.

Art. 929. [997] He shall deliver the moneys, securities, and all other property of the county in his hands, together with all documents, instruments of writing, papers and books belonging to or for the use of the county to his successor in office, and perform all such other acts as may be required of him by said commissioners' court.

Shall deliver money, etc., to successor in office.
Ib.
P. D. 1100.

Art. 930. [998] The county treasurer shall not pay any money out of the county treasury except in pursuance of a certificate or warrant from some officer authorized by law to issue the same; and if such treasurer shall have any doubt of the legality or propriety of any order, decree, certificate or warrant presented to him for payment, he shall not pay the same, but shall make report thereof to the commissioners' court for their consideration and direction.

Shall not pay out money except, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 1101.

Art. 931. [999] It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to examine the accounts, dockets and records of the clerks, sheriff, justices of the peace, constables and tax collector of his county, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any moneys of right belonging to his county are in their hands which have not been accounted for and paid over according to law, and shall report the same to the commissioners' court at their next term, to the end that suit may be instituted for the recovery thereof.

Shall examine dockets, accounts, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 1102.

Art. 932. [1000] The county treasurer shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law.

Shall perform such other duties as may be required by law.

One chief and two associate justices. (Const., art. 5, §2.)

Article 933. [1001] The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and two associate justices, any two of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of two judges shall be necessary to the decision of a case.

Election and tenure of office. (Acts of 1892, p. 19.)

Art. 934. [1002] The chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state at a general election. The judges of said court now in office shall hold their office until the expiration of the term for which they were elected, and until their successors are elected and qualified. As soon as practicable after the election of the successors to the present incumbents, the newly elected judges shall cast lots for the term of office. That one who shall draw number one shall hold his office for two years; the one drawing number two shall hold his office for four years, and the one drawing number three shall hold his office for six years; each to hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified; and each justice of the supreme court elected thereafter shall hold his office for six years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall each receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars.

Qualification of judges. Ib.

Art. 935. [1003] No person shall be eligible to the office of chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court unless he be at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this state, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in this state, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years.

Vacancies, how filled. Ib.

Art. 936. [1004] In case of a vacancy in the office of chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court, the governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the state.

Article 940. [1011] The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the state, which shall extend to questions of law arising in all civil cases of which the courts of civil appeals have appellate but not final jurisdiction. Appellate jurisdiction of supreme court (Acts, of 1892, p. 19.)

Art. 941. [1011a] All causes shall be carried up to the supreme court by writs of error upon final judgment and not on judgments reversing and remanding causes except in the following cases, to-wit: Writs of error, in what cases. Ib; (Amend. 1895, p. 145.)

1. Where the state is a party or where the railroad commissioners are parties.
2. Cases which involve the construction and application of the constitution of the United States or of the state of Texas or of an act of congress.
3. Cases which involve the validity of a statute of the state.
4. Cases involving the title to a state office.

5. Cases in which a civil court of appeals overrules its own decisions or the decision of another court of civil appeals or of the supreme court.

6. Cases in which the judges of any court of civil appeals may disagree.

7. Cases in which any two of the courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same question of law.

8. When the judgment of the court of civil appeals reversing a judgment practically settles the case, and this fact is shown in the petition for writ of error, and the attorneys for petitioners shall state that the decision of the court of civil appeals practically settles the case, in which case, if the supreme court affirms the decision of the court of civil appeals, it shall also render final judgment accordingly.

Petition for writ of error; requisites of and bond.
Ib: (Amend. 1895, p. 144.)

Art. 942. [1011b] Any party desiring to sue out a writ of error before the supreme court shall present his petition addressed to said court, stating the nature of his case and the grounds upon which the writ of error is prayed for, and showing that the supreme court has jurisdiction thereof; and the petition shall contain such other requisites as may be prescribed by the supreme court. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of the court of civil appeals within thirty days from the overruling of the motion for rehearing, and thereupon the said clerk of the court of civil appeals shall note upon his record the filing of said application, and shall forward to the clerk of the supreme court the said application, together with the original record in the case, and the opinions of the court of civil appeals, and the motion filed therein, and certified copies of the judgments and orders of the court of civil appeals; provided, that the party applying for the writ of error shall deposit with the clerk of the court of civil appeals a sum sufficient to pay the expressage or carriage of the said record to and from the clerk of the supreme court, which sum shall be charged as costs in the suit. If the writ of error be granted and the plaintiff in error has given no bond, then the supreme court in granting the writ shall specify what bond shall be given, and the plaintiff in error shall file said bond in the trial court, to be approved by the clerk of said court, and a certified copy thereof shall at once be transmitted to the supreme court, and upon the filing of said certified copy the clerk of the supreme court shall issue the citation in error as may be prescribed by the rules of the supreme court.

(Acts of 1892, p. 19.)

Art. 943. [1011c] If it shall appear to the supreme court, from an inspection of the petition and record, that there is error in said judgment of the courts of civil appeals, it shall grant a writ of error, returnable in thirty days, in such manner as may be prescribed by said court.

Court to make rules, etc.
Ib.

Art. 944. [1011d] The supreme court shall from time to time make and promulgate suitable forms, rules and regulations for carrying into effect the foregoing articles relating to the jurisdiction and practice of the supreme court.

May ascertain jurisdictional facts.
Ib.

Art. 945. [1011e] The supreme court shall have the power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as the court may determine, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction.

May issue writs.
Ib.

Art. 946. [1012] The supreme court, or any justice thereof, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus as may be prescribed by law; and the said court, or the justices thereof, may issue writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and all writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said court; and in term time or vacation may issue writs of quo warranto or mandamus against any district judge or officer of the state government, except the governor of the state.

Art. 947. [1014] The supreme court shall have power to make, establish and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, for the government of said court and all other courts of the state, so as to expedite the dispatch of business in said courts.

To prescribe rules of practice.
Ib.

Art. 948. [1015] The supreme court shall have power to punish any person for a contempt of said court, according to the principles and usages of law in like cases, not to exceed one thousand dollars fine, and imprisonment not exceeding twenty days.

May punish contempt.
(Act May 12, 1846.)
P. D. 1577.

Art. 949. [1016] The said court or any judge thereof, in vacation, may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause, agreeably to the principles and usages of law, returnable to the supreme court on or before the first day of the term, or during the session of the same, or before any judge of the said court, as the nature of the case may require.

May issue mandamus to compel district judge to proceed to trial.

Article 959. The judges of the supreme court, after their election to each term of office, shall appoint some person or persons learned in the law, being a licensed attorney, to report the decisions of the supreme court, and of the courts of civil appeals, who shall be removable at the pleasure of the court, and who shall be paid for the services required three thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly on the certificate of the chief justice; provided, however, that he may be allowed such additional compensation for reporting the decisions of the courts of civil appeals as the supreme court may deem just.

Appointment and removal of reporters.
(Acts of 1882, p. 71.)

Art. 960. The reporter shall be furnished by the state printing board with the necessary stationery for the performance of the duties imposed by the provisions hereof.

Stationery, how furnished.
Ib.

Art. 961. The reporter shall obtain from the clerks of the courts the records of cases to be reported, with the briefs and opinions in such cases as soon as such cases are finally disposed of and the opinions are recorded, which shall be returned after the report thereof is completed. He shall without delay, under the direction of the court, prepare such decisions, with appropriate syllabus, and statements when necessary, for publication in book form, and shall from time to time deliver the same to the secretary of state for the board of public printing as hereinafter provided. The secretary of state shall receipt for the same and deliver to the expert printer appointed by the board of public printing for publication.

Art. 964. The decisions of said courts shall be printed and bound. Each volume shall not contain less than seven hundred pages nor more than eight hundred pages. Each page shall be twenty-six ems pica wide and forty-six ems pica long. The type used shall be long primer and minion of the same size used in volume 23, Wallace's United States supreme court reports. The lines shall be leaded with not thicker than eight to pica leads. The paper, presswork and binding shall be of the same style and at least equal quality in every respect with the volumes of Moore & Walker's reports heretofore published. The volumes containing the supreme court decisions shall be styled "The Texas Reports," and shall be so styled on the title page and back, and the volumes shall be numbered. The name of the reporter may be printed on the back of each volume. Each volume shall be copyrighted in the name of the reporter, who shall immediately on delivery of the edition transfer and assign the same to the state. It shall be electrotyped, and the plates shall be owned by the state and preserved by the secretary of state.

Art. 965. When printed and bound the reports shall be delivered to the secretary of state, who shall sell single copies for two dollars, exclusive of postage or express charges, and he shall also for the same price sell single copies of any former volume of reports for either of said courts heretofore published under the state's copyright and now owned by the state. The secretary of state shall deliver to the state treasurer the proceeds of all sales so made by him, of which and of his operations hereunder and of the transactions of the said board hereunder he shall make a full statement and showing in his biennial report.

printed. Ib.

Art. 966. Should the expert printer, whose duty it is to supervise and have promptly executed the printing, binding and delivering of the reports to the secretary of state, fail to have the work executed with promptness and in accordance with the provisions hereof, he shall be removed from his trust and another appointed; and whenever the board of public printing shall ascertain that the work of printing and binding the reports can be done more speedily, better and more economically by contract, or that ample material and means to carry out the provisions hereof are not at their control, they shall at once let the printing and binding of the reports out by contract, requiring security for the performance of the work and the delivery to the state of the electrotype plates. No copies of reports shall be furnished to any county except upon payment made by such county to the secretary of state as in sale to private parties. The secretary of state may transmit advance sheets of the reports as the publishing progresses on receiving two dollars for the volume, the purchaser to have the right on returning all the forms of the volume to the secretary of state to have the same bound without further expense on his paying the expense of transmitting the same to and from the state department.

Ib.

Art. 983. [1057] Upon the rendition by the supreme court of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated by article 975, it shall not be necessary for the lower court from which the cause was removed to make any further order or decree therein, but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the supreme court or court of civil appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases.

Clerk to issue mandate, when.
Ib.

Art. 984. [1058] The clerk of the supreme court shall not deliver the mandate of the court until all costs of that court and of the courts of civil appeals have been paid. If the costs have not been paid at the end of fifteen days from the date of judgment or from the overruling of a motion for rehearing, the said clerk may issue an execution for the costs of the supreme court and the courts of civil appeals, specifying the amount of each, and attaching to said execution a correct list of all costs accruing in each of said courts. Said execution shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county from which the cause was removed, or to any county in which the person or persons, liable under such execution, or either of them, may have property. It shall be the duty of every sheriff or constable receiving such execution to execute and return the same under the same rules, regulations and liabilities as provided for executions from the district court.

Execution returnable, when.

Officer failing to make return.
Ib.

Art. 985. [1059] All executions for costs of the supreme court, as authorized by law, shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed, within four months from the date thereof.

Art. 986. [1060] In case any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs, if he has collected the same, within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of said supreme court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before the said supreme court, and show cause, if any he can, why he has not collected and returned such costs and execution; and failing to show cause, said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for twice the amount of said costs, together with the cost of such proceeding. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court, when he shall receive any money due the clerk of any court of civil appeals, to pay the same over to such clerk of the courts of civil appeals, and if he refuses to do so upon demand, the clerk of the said courts of civil appeals may file in the supreme court a motion against the said clerk so failing, and upon ten days' notice given to him the said supreme court may enter judgment against said clerk of the supreme court and the sureties on his official bond for double the amount of the costs so collected by him and due to said clerk of the courts of civil appeals.

One chief and two associate justices, (Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 25.)

Art. 988. The chief justice and associate justices of each of the courts of civil appeals shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective districts, composed of the counties returnable to the several courts, at a general election. Upon their qualification, after the first election after the creation of any court of civil appeals in this state, the justices thereof shall draw lots for the terms of office, and those drawing number one shall hold their office for the term of two years; those drawing number two shall hold their offices for a term of four years, and those drawing number three shall hold their offices for the term of six years from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Each of said offices shall be filled by election at the next general election at which terms as aforesaid would expire, and the person elected shall thereafter hold his office for six years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall receive each an annual salary of thirty-five hundred dollars, and no more.

Elected alternately, how; term of office. Ib.

Art. 989. No person shall be eligible to the office of chief justice or associate justice of the courts of civil appeals unless he be at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this state and a resident of the district for which he is elected, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in this state, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years.

Qualification of judges. Ib.

Art. 990. In case of a vacancy in the office of chief justice or associate justice of any court of civil appeals the governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the district composed of counties returnable to said court.

Jurisdiction defined. Ib.

1. Of which the district courts have original or appellate jurisdiction.
2. Of which the county court has original jurisdiction.
3. Of which the county court has appellate jurisdiction when the judgment or amount in controversy or the judgment rendered shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs. The judgment of the courts of civil appeals shall be conclusive in all cases on the facts of the case, and a judgment of such courts shall be conclusive on the law and fact, nor shall a writ of error be allowed thereto from the supreme court in the following cases, to-wit:
 1. Any civil case appealed from a county court or from a district court when under the constitution a county court would have had original or appellate jurisdiction to try it, except in probate matters and in cases involving the revenue laws of the state or the validity of a statute.
 2. All cases of boundary.
 3. All cases of slander and divorce.
 4. All cases of contested elections of every character other than for state officers, except where the validity of the statute is attacked by the decision.

5. The judgments of said courts of civil appeals shall be final in all appeals from interlocutory orders appointing receivers or trustees or such other interlocutory appeals as may be allowed by law, and the judgment of said court shall be final in all other cases as to law and facts except where appellate jurisdiction is given to the supreme court and not made final in said courts of civil appeals.

May issue writs of mandamus, etc.

There shall be appointed for each of the courts of civil appeals one clerk, who shall reside at the place of holding court, which appointment shall be made by the court, or the judges thereof, and shall be entered of record in the proceedings of the court, and each person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution before some officer authorized to administer oaths generally, and shall enter into a bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court or any judge thereof, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and that he will correctly record the judgments, decrees, decisions and orders of said courts, and deliver over to his successor in office all records, minutes, books and papers and whatever belongs to his said office of clerk, which bond and oath shall, without delay, be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be put in suit and prosecuted by any party injured, until the amount thereof is recovered.

Art. 1002. If, in vacation, the office of clerk may become vacant, the appointment shall be made by the chief justice and the associates of said courts, or by any one of said associates and chief justice, and the person so appointed shall give bond and take the oath as prescribed in the preceding article, the bond to be approved by any judge of the court, which bond and oath shall be deposited in the same manner as though the appointment had been made in term time, and may be prosecuted and put in suit in like manner; copies of said bond certified under the hand of the secretary of state and the seal of state, shall be received in evidence in any court in the state, in the same manner as the original would be were it presented in court, and the said appointment shall continue until the next regular term of the said court, and until a regular appointment shall be made.

Temporary appointment to fill vacancy, how and when made.
Ib.

Art. 1003. The clerk of each of said courts shall hold his office for a term of two years from his appointment, but may be removed therefrom for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, by the courts of civil appeals, on motion, of which the clerk against whom complaint is made shall have ten days' previous notice, specifying the particular charges of negligence or misconduct in office preferred; and in every such case the court shall determine both the law and the facts; and whenever the necessity occurs the court may appoint a clerk pro tempore.

Term of office, and how removed.
Ib.

Article 1014. In all cases of appeal or writ of error to the courts of civil appeals the trial shall be on a statement of facts or agreed statement of the pleadings and proof as agreed upon by the parties or their attorneys, or the conclusions of law and fact, as the case may be, certified to by the judge of the court below; or should the parties fail to agree, then the judge of the court below shall certify the facts; or on a bill of exceptions to the opinion of the judge; or on a special verdict; or on an error in law, either assigned or apparent on the face of the record; and in the absence of all these, the case shall be dismissed with costs alone, or with costs and damages, at the discretion of the court. And the court shall admit as part of the record to be examined by them in the trial of a cause every bill of exceptions not signed by the judge trying the cause below, upon its appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the facts are fairly stated therein; that said bill was prepared in accordance with the law governing the preparation of such bills, and that the judge trying the cause refused to sign the same; and the truth of any such bill of exceptions shall be determined by the court on the copies of the affidavits required by law to be made in such case, such copies to be contained in and to form a part of the record transmitted to the court of civil appeals.

Case, how brought before the court for trial.
 Ib.

Art. 1015. In any appeal or writ of error as provided for in this chapter, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file the transcript with the clerk of the courts of civil appeals within ninety days from the performance of the appeal or service of the writ of error; provided, that for good cause the court may permit the transcript to be thereafter filed upon such terms as it may prescribe.

Transcript filed, when.

Art. 1016. In case the appellant or plaintiff in error shall fail to file a transcript of the record, as directed in this chapter, then it shall be lawful for the appellee or defendant in error to file with the clerk of said court a certificate of the clerk of the district or county court in which any such appeal or writ of error may have been taken, attested by the seal of his court, stating the time when such appeal was perfected or such citation was served; whereupon it shall be the duty of the courts of civil appeals to affirm the judgment of the court below, unless good cause can be shown why such transcript was not filed by the appellant or plaintiff in error. If a copy of the bond accompanies such certificate of the clerk of the district or county court, the judgment shall in like manner be affirmed against the sureties on such bond.

Certificate of affirmance, and proceedings thereon.
 Ib.

Art. 1017. In all cases where the courts of civil appeals shall have affirmed the judgment of the court below, under the provisions of the preceding article, said court may, at any time within fifteen days after such affirmance, permit the transcript to be filed by the appellant or plaintiff in error, and the case to be tried on its merits; provided, that appellant or plaintiff in error shall show to the court good cause why the transcript was not filed by him in accordance with the provisions of article 1015, and shall also show to said court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intentions to apply for such permission to file said transcript, and in cases where the court shall adjourn within fifteen days after any judgment shall have been affirmed under the provisions of the next preceding article, the court may permit the appellant or plaintiff in error to file said transcript at such time as may be deemed proper, and have said cause tried on its merits; provided, said appellant or plaintiff in error shall show good cause why said transcript was not filed as herein directed, and shall show to the court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intention to apply for permission to file said transcript.

Assignment of error; requisite of. Ib.

Art. 1018. The appellant or plaintiff in error shall in all cases file with the clerk of the court below all assignments of error, distinctly specifying the grounds on which he relies, before he takes the transcript of the record from the clerk's office; all errors not distinctly specified are waived.

Appearance by brief, etc. Ib.

Art. 1019. When any cause or suit may be taken up from any inferior court to the courts of civil appeals, whether by appeal, writ of error or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the attorney both for the plaintiff and defendant to file in the papers of said suit or cause his written brief or argument; and the said court shall be required to notice the same as if it were the personal appearance of said attorney, and shall not dismiss any suit or cause where such brief or argument of counsel is filed with the papers, for want of other or further prosecution.

Notices to attorneys, how given. Ib.

Art. 1020. All notices required herein to be given by the court of civil appeals to the parties or their attorneys of record in any case shall be served by the clerk of said court, transmitting said notice to said attorneys by registered letter through the mail properly directed. Registration receipts shall be filed and kept by the clerk with the record of the cause.

Disqualification of judges. Ib.

Article 1021. No judge of the courts of civil appeals shall sit in any cause wherein he may be interested in the question to be determined, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree, or where he shall have been of counsel in the cause; and where the court or any two of its members shall thus be disqualified to hear and determine any cause or causes in said courts that fact shall be certified to the governor, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons, learned in the law, for the trial and determination of said cause or causes.

Art. 1022. When a cause is carried to the courts of civil appeals by writ of error, it shall be docketed in the order of the date received, and the clerk shall transfer the said cause to the trial docket thirty days after the same has been received and docketed; provided, that the court may upon motion of either party, of which notice shall be given to the adverse party, extend the time for placing said cause on the trial docket for good cause shown. Causes on the trial docket of said court shall be heard in the order of the date of filing, except as hereinafter provided, unless continued to some future time for good cause shown, and it shall be the duty of the clerk, under the directions of the court, to notify the parties or the attorneys of record, of the date when the cause is set for hearing.

Docket of causes and disposition of same.
Ib.

Art. 1023. The cases filed in the courts of civil appeals shall be decided in the order in which they are filed at each term of the court, but the following cases shall have precedence of all others in the order named:

Cases decided in their order, except, etc., and disposed of, how.
Ib.

1. All cases in which the railway commission is a party.
2. Cases in which the state is a party.
3. Cases which shall be submitted on oral argument for all parties to the cause.
4. Such other cases as the court by order or rule may direct.

On the call of cases the court shall set down the causes for argument for such time as the same can be heard, and notice of which shall be given to counsel as heretofore provided; and said cause shall be determined upon argument or as soon thereafter as practicable, or it shall be set down for further argument, but may be postponed by order of the court to a later day in the term.

Art. 1024. There shall be no reversal on appeal or writ of error, nor shall the same be dismissed for want of form, provided sufficient matter or substance be contained in the record to enable the court to decide the cause upon its merits; and where the court shall be of opinion that an appeal or writ of error has been taken for delay, and that there was no sufficient cause for taking such appeal, then and in that case the appellant or plaintiff in error, if he be the defendant in the court below, shall pay ten per cent on the amount in dispute as damages, together with the judgment, interest and cost of suit thereon accruing. If in any judgment rendered in the district or county court there shall be an excess of damages rendered, and before the plaintiff has entered a release of the same in such court in the manner provided by law, such judgment shall be removed to the courts of civil appeals, it shall be lawful for the party in whose favor such excess of damages has been rendered to make such release in the courts of civil appeals in the same manner as such release is required to be made in the district or county court; and upon such release being filed in the said court, after revising said judgment, said courts of civil appeals shall proceed to give such judgment as the court below ought to have given if the release had been filed therein.

No reversals for want of form; affirmance with damages, when; error cured by release of damages, how.
Ib.

Art. 1025. When there is a defect of substance or form in any appeal or writ of error bond, on motion to dismiss the same for such defect the court may allow the same to be amended by filing in the said courts of civil appeals a new bond, on such terms as the court may prescribe.

New appeal bond allowed when.
Ib.

Art. 1026. If any party to the record in any cause hereafter taken to the courts of civil appeals, by appeal or writ of error, or transferred from the supreme court or courts of appeals, shall have died heretofore, or shall hereafter die, after the appeal bond has been filed

Judgment, when reformed; when remanded. Ib.

Article 1027. When the judgment or decree of the court below shall be reversed, the court shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as the court below should have rendered, except when it is necessary that some matter of fact be ascertained or the damage to be assessed or the matter to be decreed is uncertain, in either of which cases the cause shall be remanded for a new trial in the court below.

Disposition of case, when judgment affirmed. Ib.

Art. 1028. Whenever the courts of civil appeals on the trial of cases brought from an inferior court shall affirm the judgment or decree of such inferior court, or when said courts shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as should have been rendered by the court below and such judgment shall be for the same or a greater amount, or of the same nature as rendered in the court below, said courts shall render judgment against the appellant or plaintiff in error and his sureties on the appeal bond, a copy of which shall always accompany the transcript of the record, and said courts of civil appeals shall in their discretion include in their said judgment or decree such damages, not exceeding ten per cent on the amount of the original judgment, as the court may deem proper; and the judgment or decree of said courts rendered as contemplated in this article shall be final.

Mandate and execution, issued when. Ib.

Art. 1029. If no writ of error be sued out or motion for rehearing be filed within thirty days after the conclusion or decision of the court has been entered in any court of civil appeals, the clerk of the court shall, upon application of either party and the payment of all costs, issue a mandate upon said judgment; and in any cause reversed by said courts the appellant shall be entitled to an execution against the appellee for costs occasioned by such appeal, including costs for the transcript, said costs to be taxed by the clerk of the said court.

Suggestion of remittitur. (Acts 1893, p. 89.)

Art. 1029a. In all civil cases, now pending, or that may hereafter be appealed to any court of civil appeals of this state, and such court shall be of the opinion that the verdict and judgment of the trial court is excessive, and for that reason only said cause should be reversed, then it shall be the duty of such court of civil appeals to indicate to the party in whose favor such judgment was rendered, or his attorneys of record, the amount of the excess of such verdict and judgment, and said court shall, at the same time, indicate to such party, or his attorney, within what time he may file a remittitur of such excess, and if such remittitur shall be so filed, then the court shall reform and affirm such judgment in accordance therewith; if not filed as indicated, then to be reversed.

Art. 1029b. Whenever any court of civil appeals shall indicate that a verdict is excessive, as hereinbefore provided, and no remittitur shall be filed, as herein provided, no evidence shall be allowed nor allusion made, in any subsequent trial, of the action of such court of civil appeals in reference to the amount of excess of such verdict.

All writs and process issuing from the courts of civil appeals shall bear the test of the chief justice or presiding judge of said court, under the seal of said court and signed by the clerk thereof, and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the state, and shall be by such officer executed according to the command thereof and returned to the court from which they emanated; and whenever such writ or process shall not be executed, the clerk of said court is hereby authorized and required to issue another like process or writ upon the application of the party suing out the former writ or process to the same or any other county.

Lower court to enforce judgment, how and when.
Ib.

Art. 1035. Upon the rendition by the courts of civil appeals of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated by article 1028, it shall not be necessary for the lower court from which the cause was removed to make any further order or decree therein, but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the supreme court or courts of civil appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases.

No mandate to issue until costs paid.
Ib.

Art. 1036. On the rendition of any final judgment or decree by the courts of civil appeals the clerk of said court shall not issue and deliver the mandate of the court or certify the proceedings of the lower court until all of the costs accruing in the cause in the courts of civil appeals have been paid. If neither party shall pay the costs and take out the mandate within thirty days after the time when the same can be issued by law, then it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue execution for the costs accruing in his court against the party against whom such costs have been adjudged, and to send such execution by mail to the proper officer for collection; but he shall retain the mandate until the costs have been paid or collected.

Return of execution, when.
Ib.

Art. 1037. All executions for costs of the courts of civil appeals as authorized by law shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed within four months from the date thereof.

Proceedings for neglect of duty against officer.
Ib.

Art. 1038. In case any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs if he has collected the same within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of said court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before said court and show cause, if any he can, why he has not collected and returned said costs and execution, and failing to show cause said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for twice the amount of said costs, together with the costs of such proceedings.

Art. 1040. When any one of said courts of civil appeals shall in any cause or proceeding render a decision in which any one of the judges therein sitting shall dissent as to any conclusions of law material to the decision of the case said judge shall enter the grounds of his dissent of record, and the said court of civil appeals shall, upon motion of the party to the cause, or on its own motion, certify the point or points of dissent to the supreme court.

Art. 1041. When a certificate of dissent is sent up by any court of civil appeals it shall be the duty of the clerk to send up a certified copy of the conclusions of fact and law as found by the court, and the questions of law upon which there is a division, and the original transcript, if so ordered by the supreme court, and thereupon, if the supreme court so direct, the clerk shall set down the same for argument and notify the attorneys of record.

Art. 1042. After the question is decided the supreme court shall immediately notify the court of civil appeals of their decision, and the same shall be entered as the judgment of said court of civil appeals.

Art. 1043. Whenever in any case pending before the court of civil appeals there should arise an issue of law which said court should deem it advisable to present to the supreme court for adjudication, it shall be the duty of the presiding judge of said court to certify the very question to be decided by the supreme court, and during the pendency of the decision by the supreme court the cause in which the issue is raised shall be retained for final adjudication in accordance with the decision of the supreme court upon the issue submitted.

Proceedings when jurisdiction of lower court has been changed, pending appeal.
Ib.

Article 1062. When the court from which an appeal has been or may hereafter be taken has been or shall be deprived of jurisdiction over any case pending such an appeal, and when such case shall have been or may hereafter be determined by the court of criminal appeals, the mandate of said court of criminal appeals shall be directed to the court to which jurisdiction has been or may hereafter be given over such case.

Costs to be taxed, how, on disposition of case in the court of criminal appeals.
Ib.

Art. 1063. In every state case of a less grade than felony in which an appeal is taken to the court of criminal appeals, and the judgment of the court below is affirmed against the defendant, all fees due the clerk of said court in said case shall be adjudged against the defendant and his sureties on his recognizance, for which execution shall issue as in other cases of appeal to the court of criminal appeals. Should such case be reversed by the court of criminal appeals and a new trial be had in the court below and the defendant convicted, then the costs aforesaid in favor of the clerk of the court of criminal appeals shall be taxed by the court below against the defendant, and a certified copy of said bill of costs by the clerk of the court of criminal appeals, filed in the court below, shall be sufficient to require said costs to be taxed and collected as other costs against the defendant in the court below.

fact immediately to the governor by mail, telegram or otherwise, whereupon the governor shall appoint a special judge not so disqualified to try the same. The evidence of such appointment may be transmitted by telegram or otherwise. The special judge so appointed shall qualify and proceed to the trial or disposition of such cause immediately, if the trial is pending, otherwise, when called or reached, as in other cases.

Record to be made where special judge is agreed on or appointed. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 141, §2.)

Art. 1070. [1093] Whenever a special judge is agreed upon by the parties or is appointed by the governor for the trial of any particular cause, as above provided, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court as a part of the proceedings in such cause a record showing—

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and
2. That such special judge [naming him] was, by consent, agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; or
3. That the parties having failed to agree upon a proper person to try the cause, and the judge of the court having certified that fact to the governor, he had appointed such special judge [naming him] to try the cause; and
4. That the oath prescribed by law had been duly administered to such special judge.

Special judge, when and how elected. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, §1.)

Art. 1071. [1094] Whenever on the day appointed for a term of the district court, or at any time before the expiration of the term, or the completion of all the business of the court, the judge thereof shall be absent, or shall be unable or unwilling to hold the court, there shall thereby be no failure of the term, and no failure to proceed with the business of the court, but the practicing lawyers of such court present thereat may proceed to elect from among their number a special judge of said court, who shall proceed to hold said court and conduct the business thereof, and shall have all the power and authority of the judge of said court, during such continued absence or inability, and until the completion of any business begun before such special judge.

Electoral body, how constituted. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, §2.)

Art. 1072. [1095] Such election shall be by ballot, and each practicing lawyer in attendance at such court shall be entitled to participate in such election and shall be entitled to one vote; and a majority of the votes of all the practicing lawyers present and participating shall be necessary to the election of such special judge.

Mode of conducting the election. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, §1.)

Art. 1073. [1096] The mode of conducting such election shall be as follows: The sheriff or constable shall make proclamation at the court house door that the election of a special judge of the court is about to be made by the practicing lawyers present thereat; the clerk shall then make a roll or list of all the practicing lawyers present; and such lawyers shall then proceed to organize and hold the election as hereinbefore provided.

Failure or refusal of officers to act. (Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 141, §2.)

Art. 1074. [1097] Should the sheriff or constable and clerk, or either of them, fail or refuse to act, the said practicing lawyers may nevertheless proceed to organize themselves into such electoral body, and appoint a sheriff and clerk pro tempore to do the duties of such officers respectively.

Record of the election, etc. Ib.

Art. 1075. [1098] It shall be the duty of the clerk to enter upon the minutes of the court a record of the election of such special judge, showing—

1. The names of all the practicing lawyers present and participating in such election.

2. The fact that the public proclamation was made at the court house door that such election was about to take place.

3. The number of ballots polled at such election and the number polled for each person, and the result of the election.

4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to the special judge.

Art. 1076. [1099] The record of such proceedings, showing a substantial compliance with the requirements of the law in that behalf, shall be conclusive evidence of the election and qualification of such special judge. Effect of such record.
Ib.

Art. 1077. [1100] Like elections may be held from time to time during the term of the court to supply the absence, failure or inability of the judge or of any special judge to perform the duties of the office. Other similar elections from time to time.

ceedings, judgments and executions.
(Act May 11,
1846, p. 203,
§24.)
P. D. 504.

Art. 1087. [1107] Such clerks shall also keep a fair record of all the acts done, and proceedings had, in their respective courts; they shall enter all judgments of the court, under the direction of the judge, and shall keep a record of all executions issued and the returns thereon, in record books to be kept for the purpose.

Other dockets,
etc.

Art. 1088. [1108] They shall also keep such other dockets and books as are, or may be, required by law.

Shall report
fines and jury fees.
(Act Nov. 15,
1864, p. 7, §9.)
P. D. 401A.

Art. 1089. [1109] In addition to the reports required of the clerk of the district court under the several provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, it shall be his duty on the last day of each term of the court to make out a statement in writing, which shall set forth all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the names of the parties from whom received, up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement, if any such has been made; and also, the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such services, which statement shall be examined by the judge holding such court, and if found to be correct shall be approved and signed by him. Should the judge consider such statement erroneous, he may make such corrections therein as he may deem necessary, and shall then approve and sign the same. Such statement when so approved and signed shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

Art. 1090. [1109a] It shall be the duty of the clerk to pay over to the county treasurer all jury fees and fines received by him, to the use of the county. Shall pay over jury fees and fines.

Art. 1091. [1110] All records of judgments, executions, and all other papers and proceedings in suits heretofore had in the district courts of the several counties of the republic or state of Texas shall be kept in the office of the clerks of the district courts of such counties, and the same proceedings may be had thereon as if such suits had been commenced and such proceedings had in the district courts of this state as now organized. Records of suits, etc., in former district courts. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 204, §26.) P. D. 506.

Art. 1092. [1111] All records of judgments, executions, and all other papers and proceedings in suits heretofore had in the county courts of the republic of Texas prior to the first day of February, 1839, and of the county courts of the state as organized under the act entitled "An act to organize the county courts and to define the powers and jurisdiction thereof," approved October 25, 1866, shall be kept in the office of the clerks of the district courts of such counties, and the same proceedings may be had thereon as if such suits had been commenced and such proceedings had in the district courts as now organized. Records of suits, etc., in former county courts. (Acts May 11, 1846, p. 20, §27; Aug. 8, 1870, p. 48, §§1-4.)

Art. 1093. [1112] The clerks of the district courts shall have the custody of all the minutes, records, books, papers and seals which now are, or may have been heretofore, or may be hereafter deposited in their respective offices in accordance with law, and it shall be their duty carefully to attend to the arrangement and preservation of the same. Custody and arrangement of books, papers, etc. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 203, §22.) P. D. 502.

Art. 1094. [1113] They shall also provide and keep in their respective offices, as part of the records thereof, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their said courts; which indexes shall be kept in well-bound books, and shall state in full the names of all the parties to such suits, which shall be indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case. Indexes to all judgments. (Act June 21, 1876, p. 25, §1.)

Art. 1095. [1114] Whenever a clerk of the district court shall vacate his office, he shall transfer to his successor all the records, books and papers of the office. Shall transfer records to his successor.

Art. 1096. In counties having a population of less than eight thousand persons, there shall be an election of a single clerk, who shall perform the duties of district and county clerks. He shall take the oath and give the bond required of clerks of both the district and county courts, and shall have all the powers and perform the duties of such clerks respectively. In determining the number of persons in the county under this article, the estimate shall be made on the basis of five inhabitants for every vote cast for governor in such county at the last preceding general election. Single clerk for district and county courts in certain counties. (Acts of 1879, p. 47.)

Art. 1097. [1116] When in any county a single clerk shall have been elected, as provided in the preceding article, he shall, in performing the duties of clerk of the district court, use the seal of said court, and authenticate his official acts as clerk of such district court. When acting as district clerk to use seal of said court.

Art. 1101. [1120] The district court shall also have power to punish by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of such court.

[Note.—Article 1102 [1221] was repealed by the Act of April 26, 1893, p. 75. The same act prescribes the procedure in such cases, and, enacted as amendments to Article 1139 of the revision of 1879, which is Article 1130 hereof, they are included as Articles 1130, 1131, 1132 and 1132a, post.]

Art. 1103. The judges of the district courts of this state may, by an order made and entered in open court upon the minutes of said court, upon the application in open court of any person interested as administrator, executor, heir, legatee, devisee, distributee, creditor or guardian in the administration of the estate of a deceased person, or in the guardianship of a minor, person of unsound mind, or habitual drunkard, pending in such court, transfer such administration or guardianship to the county court of the county in which such district court is there being held for further administration, upon satisfactory evidence that the county judge of said county is legally qualified to act as such in such administration.

May transfer probate proceedings to county court. (Acts of 1881, p. 72.)

Art. 1104. Immediately after the termination of the courts at which the order of transfer authorized by the foregoing article is made, it shall be the duty of the clerk thereof to transmit all the papers relating to such administration or guardianship, together with a transcript, certified by him under the seal of said district court, or the record of all orders, judgments and decrees of such district court in relation to such estate, to the county clerk of his county, for which services he shall be allowed such fees as are now allowed him by law for similar services, to be paid as expenses of administration.

Duty of clerk to transmit papers, records, etc. Ib.

Art. 1105. When the clerk of the district court of any county in the state, where the civil and criminal jurisdiction (or either) of the county court has been transferred to the district court, shall receive from the clerk of the county court a certified copy of a judgment rendered in any civil or criminal case in the county court, he shall immediately record such judgments in the minutes of the district court; and thereupon the said district court shall have the power to enforce said judgments by execution or otherwise, as other judgments rendered in said district court are or may be enforced.

Judgments transferred and enforced. (Acts of 1879, p. 11.)

Art. 1106. [1122] Subject to the limitations stated in this chapter, the district court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is or may be cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them.

To hear and determine all cases of legal or equitable cognizance. (Act May 10, 1846, p. 201, §7.) P. D. 1410.

Art. 1107. [1123] The judge of the district court shall have authority, either in term time or in vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court.

To grant all remedial writs. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, §4.) P. D. 1407.

Art. 1108. [1124] Any judge of the district court may hold courts for or with any other district judge, and the judges of the several district courts may exchange districts whenever they may deem it expedient to do so.

May alternate, etc. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 202, §15.) P. D. 1418.

Terms of court.
(Const., art. 5, §7.)

Article 1111. [1127] The several judges of the district courts shall hold the regular terms of their said courts at the county seat of each county in the district twice in each year, unless additional terms should be prescribed by law, and shall hold such special terms as may be required by law.

Terms of court in unorganized counties.

Art. 1112. Whenever any unorganized county within this state has become organized, or may hereafter become organized, there being no time fixed by law for holding district court in such counties, the district judge in whose judicial district such county is situated shall fix times to hold at least two terms of court each year in each of such counties, by a written declaration, to be forwarded by the district judge to the district clerk of the county, and by him spread on the minutes of the district court. When the times are so fixed they shall not be changed except by an act of the legislature.

Special terms of the district court.
(Acts of 1879, p. 42.)

Art. 1113. In any county in this state where it may become necessary in the opinion of the district judge of the district in which said county is situated, on account of an accumulation of business which can not be disposed of in the time provided for the regular term of the district court, there may be held a special term or terms of the district court, for the transaction and disposition of the accumulated business undisposed of, as hereinafter provided for.

Order for special term and time fixed.
Ib.

Art. 1114. Whenever it may become necessary, in the opinion of the district judge, to hold a special term in any county in his district, he shall cause to be entered an order to that effect upon the minutes of a regular term of the court held in said county, and in said order shall appoint the time for the holding of such special term at a day not less than thirty days after the adjournment of the regular term at which such order is entered, which order shall state the length of time deemed necessary for the holding of such special term.

Notice and business to be disposed of.
Ib.

Art. 1115. Upon the order provided for in the foregoing article being entered, the clerk of the district court of such county shall issue six notices containing a copy of the order of the court as entered, and also the name, style and number of each case appearing upon the docket of said court which will be before the court for disposition at such special term, which notice and copies shall be under seal of the court.

Notice to be posted and return made.
Ib.

Art. 1116. The sheriff shall post the true copies of said notice at six public places in such county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and shall return the original notice to the special term, with his return thereon, stating the manner in which he has executed the same, which notice and return shall be entered in full in the minutes of the court.

Jury provided for at special terms.
Ib.

Art. 1117. At any special term above provided for no grand jury shall be impaneled and no new cases can be brought to said term, but the jury commissioners at the regular term of the court at which the order for a special term is entered, shall, under the instruction of the court, select a regular venire for each week of such special term, which shall be done in accordance with the law regulating juries for any regular term of the court; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to interfere with the selecting of juries at one regular term of the court for the next regular term of the court.

Art. 1118. The juries for any special term shall be summoned in accordance with the law regulating juries at regular terms of court, and at any special term all proceedings may be had in any case which could be had at any regular term of such court, and all process issued to a previous regular term or to such special term, and all orders, judgments and decrees, and all proceedings had in any case, criminal or civil, which would be lawful if had at a regular term, shall have the same force and effect, and any proceeding had may be appealed from under the same rules, regulations and limitations as provided for in appeals from regular terms of court.

Juries, how summoned, business transacted, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1119. [1128] Should the judge of any district court not appear at the time appointed for holding the same, and should no election of a special judge be had, the sheriff of the county, or in his default any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days; and if the judge should not appear on the morning of the fourth day, and should no special judge have been elected, the sheriff or constable, as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof.

---	----------------	--

County judge, election, qualification, term of office. (Const., art. 5, §15; art. 16, §17.) (Act June 10, 1876, p. 17, §1.)

Article 1124. [1133] There shall be elected in each county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a county judge, who shall be well informed in the law of the state, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified.

Oath of office. (Acts of 1883, p. 50.)

Art. 1125. [1134] The county judge shall, before entering on the duties of his office, execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, the amount of said bond to be determined and fixed by the county commissioners' court, payable to the treasurer of his county, conditioned that he will pay over to the person or officer entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands as county judge, within thirty days after he shall have received the same, and take the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and the further oath required of the several members of the commissioners' court.

Shall keep office at the county seat. (Acts of 1883, p. 8.)

Art. 1126. [1135] The county judge shall keep his office at the county seat of the county and shall attend at said office from day to day. He shall not absent himself from the county or the state without the permission of the commissioners' court, to be entered on the minutes of the court, nor shall he so absent himself with such permission for a longer period than ninety days.

May practice law in certain counties. (Acts of 1879, extra session, ch. 16.)

Art. 1127. [1136] County judges in those counties wherein the civil or criminal jurisdiction of the county courts has been or may hereafter be diminished, shall have the right to practice as attorneys in all justices' and county courts, in cases wherein the courts over which they preside have neither original nor appellate jurisdiction, provided they are licensed lawyers.

Vacancy, how filled. (Const., art 5, §28.) (Act June 10, 1876, p. 17, §1.)

Art. 1128. [1137] Any vacancy in the office of the county judge may be filled by the commissioners' court of the county in which such vacancy may occur until the next general election.

Disqualification; causes of. (Const., art 5, §11.) (Act June 10, 1876, p. 19, §6.)

Art. 1129. [1138] No judge of the county court shall sit in any case wherein he may be interested, or where he shall have been of counsel, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree.

[Note.—The Act of April 26, 1893, repeals, and under the same numbers, with Article 1132a added, supersedes Articles 1130, 1131 and 1132—old numbers 1139, 1140 and 1141.]

Art. 1130. When a judge of the county court is disqualified by any of the causes above stated, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try such case.

Special county judge may be appointed by parties. (Acts of 1893, p. 75.)

Art. 1131. Whenever a judge of the county court is disqualified to try a civil case pending in the county court, and the parties shall fail at the first term of the court to agree upon a special judge, it shall be the duty of the judge to certify to the governor that he is disqualified to try such case, and the failure of the parties to agree upon a proper person to try the same, whereupon the governor shall proceed to appoint some person, learned in the law, to try such case. But when a county judge is disqualified to act in probate matters in any cause, he shall forthwith certify his disqualification in such case to the governor, whereupon the governor shall appoint some person to act as special judge in said case, who shall act from term to term until such disqualification ceases to exist.

Governor to appoint special county judge, etc. Ib.

Art. 1132. Whenever any case or cases are called, or pending, in which the county judge, or the special judge chosen, as hereinbefore provided, shall be a party, or have an interest, or have been attorney, or of counsel, or otherwise disqualified from sitting in and trying the same, no transfer of or removal of shall be made necessary thereby, but the parties or their counsel shall have the right to select and agree upon an attorney of the court for the trial thereof; and if the parties or their attorneys shall fail to select or agree upon an attorney for the trial of such case at or before the time it is called for trial, or if the trial of the case is pending, and the county judge should become unable to act, or is absent, and a special judge is selected who is disqualified to proceed with the trial, and the parties fail to select or agree upon a special judge who is qualified at once, it shall be the duty of the county judge or special judge presiding to certify the fact to the governor immediately, by telegram, mail, or otherwise, whereupon the governor shall appoint a special judge, not so disqualified, to try the same. The evidence of such appointment by the governor may be transmitted by telegram, or otherwise. The special judge, after taking the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, shall proceed to the trial or disposition of such case immediately, if the trial is pending, otherwise when called or reached, as in other cases. Any special judge agreed upon or appointed to try causes shall receive the same pay for his services as is now provided by law for county judges.

Governor to appoint by telegram. Ib.

Art. 1132a. Whenever a special judge is agreed upon by the parties, or is appointed by the governor, for the trial of any particular cause, as above provided, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court as a part of the proceedings in such cause a record showing:

Minutes of court to show proceedings. Ib.

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and
2. That such special judge [naming him] was, by consent, agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; or
3. That the parties having failed to agree upon a proper person to try the cause, and the judge of the court having certified that fact to the governor, he had appointed such special judge [naming him] to try the cause; and
4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to such special judge; provided, that all cases heretofore transferred by the county court to the district court on account of the disqualification of the county judge shall be considered lawful, and the district courts to which such causes have been transferred shall retain jurisdiction thereof.

County clerk, election and term of office. (Const., art. 5, §20; art. 16, §17.) Article 1133. [1142] There shall be a clerk of the county court for each county, who shall be elected at a general election for members of the legislature, by the qualified voters of such county, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified.

Vacancy in office, how filled. (Const., art. 5, §20.) Art. 1134. [1143.] Whenever a vacancy may, from any cause, occur in the office of clerk of the county court, the same shall be filled by the commissioners' court of the county, and the clerk so appointed shall give bond and qualify in the same manner as if he had been elected, and shall hold his office until the next general election, and until his successor shall have duly qualified.

County clerk pro tem appointed, when. (Acts of 1887, p. 102.) Art. 1135. In all cases wherein any county clerk in this state is, or shall hereafter be, a party to any pending or proposed suit, motion or proceeding in his court, the county judge in whose court the same may be pending or proposed shall, either in term time or in vacation, on application of any person interested, or of his own motion, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding.

County clerk pro tem to qualify and give bond. Ib. Art. 1136. Any person so appointed clerk shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the state of Texas, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed.

Bond and oath. (Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, §2.) P. D. 500. Art. 1137. [1144] Each clerk of the county court shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of the county, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum to be fixed by the commissioners' court, not less than two thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the safe keeping of the records, and the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office required by the constitution, which shall be indorsed upon the bond, and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be recorded in the county clerk's office, and shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit in the name of the governor for the use of the party injured, and shall not become void on the recovery of part of the penalty thereof, but may be sued on from time to time by the parties injured, until the whole amount of the penalty is recovered.

Art. 1138. [1145] The clerk of the county court, whether elected or appointed, shall have power to appoint one or more deputies, by a written appointment under his hand and the seal of his court, which appointment shall be recorded in the office of such clerk of the county court, and shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court.

May appoint deputies.
(Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, §3.)

Art. 1139. [1146] Such deputies shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution. They shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person.

Oath and power of deputies.
(Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, §4.)

Art. 1140. [1147] The several clerks of the county court shall keep their offices at the county seat of their respective counties; and when the clerk does not reside at such county seat he shall have a deputy or deputies residing there.

Clerk shall keep office at county seat.
Ib.

Art. 1141. [1148] The clerks of the county court shall have power and it shall be their duty, when applied to for that purpose, to take the separate acknowledgment of married women in all cases where such acknowledgment is required or permitted by law to be taken, to the execution of any deed or other instrument in writing, or conveyance executed by them, and to take the acknowledgment of all other persons to deeds or other written instruments or conveyances, and to take proof by witnesses of all such deeds, written instruments or conveyances, which are required or permitted by law to be so acknowledged or proven for record; and it shall also be their duty to record, in accordance with the registration laws now or hereafter in force, all such deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust or any other instruments in writing, or judgments, which may be permitted or required by law to be recorded.

Take acknowledgments and proofs of deeds for record, etc.
(Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, §5.)

Art. 1142. [1149] Such clerks shall also be authorized to issue all marriage licenses, to administer all oaths and affirmations, and to take affidavits and depositions to be used as provided by law in any of the courts.

Issue marriage licenses, and take oaths, depositions, etc.
Ib. §6.

Art. 1143. [1150] Such clerks shall be ex officio clerks of the commissioners' courts of their respective counties, and it shall be their duty to attend upon each term of said court, to issue all notices, writs, and other process required by said courts, to keep the records, books, papers and proceedings of said courts, and see that the same are properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and generally to do and perform such other duties as are or may be imposed on them by law as clerks of such courts.

Ex officio clerk of commissioners' courts.
(Acts July 22, 1876, p. 52, §8; May 25, 1876, p. 10, §1.)

Art. 1144. [1151] They shall be ex officio recorders for their several counties, and as such shall record in suitable books to be procured for that purpose all deeds, mortgages and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded; they shall be the keepers of such record books, and shall keep the same properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and shall do and perform such other duties as are or may be by law required of them as recorders.

Have custody of records of deeds, etc.
(Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, §1.)

Custody of records, etc., of said court.
Ib.

Art. 1145. [1152] They shall be the keepers of the records, books, papers and proceedings of their respective county courts in civil and criminal cases and in matters of probate, and see that the same are properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and shall do and perform such other duties in that behalf as are or may be by law imposed on them.

Keep a record of proceedings, judgments, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 504.

Art. 1146. [1153] The several clerks of the county courts shall keep a fair record of all the acts done and proceedings had in their respective courts; they shall enter all judgments of the court, under the direction of the judge, and shall keep a record of all executions issued, and of the returns thereon in record books to be kept for that purpose.

Index to all judgments.

Art. 1147. [1154] It shall be the duty of the several clerks of the county courts to provide and keep in their respective offices, as part of the records thereof, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their said courts, which indexes shall be kept in well bound books, and shall state in full the names of all the parties to such suits, which shall be indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case.

Other dockets, indexes, etc.

Art. 1148. [1155] They shall also keep such other dockets, books and indexes as are and may be required by law.

Report fines and jury fees.
(Act June 16, 1876, p. 23, §24.)

Art. 1149. [1156] In addition to the reports required of the clerk of the county court under the several provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, it shall be his duty on the last day of each term of the county court to make out a statement in writing, which shall set forth all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the names of the parties from whom received up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement, if any such has been made; and also the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such service, which statement shall be examined by the judge holding such court, and, if found to be correct, shall be approved and signed by him. Should said judge consider said statement erroneous, he may make such corrections therein as he may deem necessary, and shall then approve and sign the same—which statement, when so approved and signed, shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

Shall pay over jury fees and fines.

Art. 1150. [1157] It shall be the duty of the clerk to pay over to the county treasurer all jury fees and fines received by him to the use of the county.

Shall transfer records to his successor.

Art. 1151. [1158] Whenever a clerk of the county court shall vacate his office, he shall transfer to his successor all the records, books and papers of the office.

Single clerk for district and county courts in certain counties.
(Const., art. 5, §20.)

Art. 1152. [1159] In counties having a population of less than eight thousand persons only one clerk shall be elected, who shall take the oath and give the bond required of clerks both of the district and county court, and who shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of such clerks, respectively.

When acting as county clerk to use seal of county court.

Art. 1153. [1160] Where in any county a single clerk shall have been elected as provided in the preceding article, he shall, in performing the duties of clerk of the county court, use the seal of said court and authenticate his official acts as clerk of such county court.

Terms of the county court. (Const. amendment, 1883, art. 5, §29.)

Article 1167. The county court shall hold at least four terms for both civil and criminal business annually as may be provided by the legislature, or by the commissioners' court of the county under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the commissioners' court; provided, the commissioners' court of any county having fixed the times and number of terms of the county court, shall not change the same again until the expiration of one year. Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation under such regulation as may be prescribed by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said courts in such manner as is or may be provided by law, and a jury therein shall consist of six men. Until, or unless, otherwise provided the terms of the county court shall be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks.

Commissioners' court may fix. (Acts of 1885, p. 53.)

Art. 1168. The county commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state may, at a regular term thereof, by an order entered upon the records of said courts, provide for more terms of the county court for the transaction of civil, criminal and probate business, and fix the times at which each of the four terms required by the constitution and the terms exceeding four, if any, shall be held, not to exceed six annually, and may fix the length of said terms; provided, that when the commissioners' court shall have fixed the number of terms of the county court by an order entered of record said court shall not change the number of terms of the county court for one year from the date of the entry of the original order fixing the terms of the county court.

Art. 1169. Should the county judge fail to appear at the time appointed for holding the county court, and should no election of a special judge be had, the sheriff of the county, or in his default any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day, for three days; and if the judge should not appear on the fourth day, and should no special judge have been appointed, the sheriff or constable, as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof.

Adjournment of term when county judge fails to appear. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, §9.) P. D. 1412.

System of pleading. (Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 83, §1.) P. D. 979.

Article 1181. [1185] The pleadings in all civil suits in the district and county courts shall be by petition and answer.

Pleadings to be in writing, signed and filed.

Art. 1182. [1186] The pleadings in said courts shall be in writing and signed by the party, or by his attorney, and filed with the clerk of the court.

Art. 1183. [1187] The pleading shall consist of a statement, in logical and legal form, of the facts constituting the plaintiff's cause of action, or the defendant's ground of defense.

Pleadings defined.

Art. 1184. [1188] The pleadings of an intervenor shall conform to the requirements of pleadings on the part of the plaintiff and defendant, respectively, so far as they may be applicable.

Pleadings of an intervenor.

Art. 1185. [1189] In addition to the requirements of the several articles of this title relating to pleading, the pleadings of the parties, respectively, shall contain any other matter, not included in the preceding articles, which may be required by any law authorizing or regulating any particular action or defense.

Pleadings in particular cases.

Art. 1186. [1190] In pleading the charter or act of incorporation of any corporation, public or private, it shall not be necessary to set out at length such charter or act of incorporation, but it shall be sufficient to allege that such corporation was duly incorporated, and such allegation by either party shall be taken as true, unless denied by the affidavit of the adverse party, his agent or attorney.

Pleading charters and acts of incorporation. (Act Feb. 14, 1860, p. 116, §1.) P. D. 1518. (Acts of 1883, p. 103.)

Art. 1187. [1191] Whenever any pleading is founded, in whole or in part, on any private or special act or law of the congress of the republic of Texas, or of the legislature of this state, it shall not be necessary for the party pleading the same to set out such private or special act or law, but it shall be sufficient to recite the title thereof, and the date of its approval, and to allege in substance so much of such act or law as may be pertinent to the cause of action or defense.

Pleading special act of the legislature.

Art. 1188. [1192] All parties to a suit may in vacation amend their pleadings, may file suggestions of death and make representative parties, and make new parties, and file such other pleas with the clerk of the court in which such suit is pending as they may desire. And any party may in vacation intervene in any suit pending such amendments and pleas, subject to be stricken out at the next term of the court on motion of the opposite party to the suit for sufficient cause shown or existing, to be determined by the court; provided, that it shall be the duty of the party filing such pleading to notify the opposite party or their attorneys of the filing of such papers within five days from the filing of the same. All amendments to pleadings, pleas and pleas of intervention, must, when court is in session, be filed under leave of the court, upon such terms as the court may prescribe, before the parties announce ready for trial, and not thereafter.

Pleadings may be amended. (Acts of 1889, p. 3.)

Art. 1189. [1193] Such leave shall be given, and such amendment filed, for a reasonable time before the case is called for trial, so as not to operate a surprise to the opposite party.

Time of filing amendment. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §34.) P. D. 54.

Art. 1190. [1194] Whenever a judgment has been arrested or a new trial granted, because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, the court may allow such pleadings to be amended as if no such trial had been had or judgment rendered.

Pleadings amended after arrest of judgment, etc. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §114.) P. D. 1475.

Article 1212. [1213] When a petition shall be filed with the clerk and the other regulations hereinafter prescribed shall be complied with, it shall be his duty to issue forthwith a writ of citation for the defendant.

Art. 1213. [1214] If there be several defendants, residing in different counties, one citation shall issue to each of such counties.

Art. 1214. [1215] Such citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and shall command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the next regular term of the court, stating the time and place of holding the same. It shall state the date of the filing of the plaintiff's petition, the file number of the suit, the names of all the parties and the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and shall contain the requisites prescribed in article 1447.

Art. 1215. [1216] Where the defendant is to be served without the county in which the suit is pending, a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition shall accompany the citation, and should there be more than one defendant to be served without the county, a certified copy of the petition shall be made out for each of them.

Art. 1216. [1217] Where it appears from the petition that the sheriff is a party to the suit, or is interested therein, the citation shall be addressed to any constable of his county.

Art. 1217. [1218] It shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable to whom any citation shall be delivered to indorse thereon the day and hour on which he received it, and to execute and return the same without delay.

Art. 1218. [1219] Unless the process should otherwise direct, the citation shall be served, if within the county in which the suit is pending, by the officer executing it delivering to the defendant, or

Art. 1219. [1220] If served without the county in which the suit is pending, the officer shall also deliver to the defendant and each of them, in person, the certified copy of the petition accompanying the citation.

Art. 1220. [1221] In suits against any county the citation shall be served on the county judge of such county.

Art. 1221. [1222] In suits against any incorporated city, town or village, the citation may be served on the mayor, clerk, secretary or treasurer thereof.

Art. 1222. [1223] In suits against any incorporated company or joint stock association, the citation may be served on the president, secretary or treasurer of such company or association, or upon the local agent representing such company or association in the county in which suit is brought, or by leaving a copy of the same at the principal office of the company during office hours; and in suits against receivers of railroad companies service may be had upon the receiver or upon the general or division superintendent or upon any agent of the receiver who resides in the county in which the suit is brought.

Art. 1223. In any suit against a foreign, private or public corporation, joint stock company or association or acting corporation or association, citation or other process may be served on the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer, or general manager, or upon any local agent within this state, of such corporation, joint stock company or association, or acting corporation or association.

Art. 1224. [1224] In suits against partners the citation may be served upon one of the firm, and such service shall be sufficient to authorize a judgment against the firm and against the partner actually served.

Art. 1225. [1225] The return of the officer executing the citation shall be indorsed on or attached to the same; it shall state when the citation was served and the manner of service, conforming to the command of the writ, and shall be signed by him officially.

Art. 1226. [1226] When the citation has not been served the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same and the cause of failure to execute it, and where the defendant is to be found, in so far as he has been able to ascertain.

Art. 1227. [1227] When any process has not been returned or has been returned without service, or has been improperly served, it shall be the duty of the clerk upon the application of any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, to issue other process to the same or any other county, as the party applying may direct.

Art. 1228. [1228] The citation shall be served before the return day thereof, and in order to compel the defendant to plead at the return term of the court, the citation must be served at least ten days before the first day of such return term exclusive of the days of service and return.

Art. 1229. [1229] If the citation be issued too late, or if it can not be served at least ten days before the first day of such return term, exclusive of the days of service and return, the officer, to whom it is delivered shall nevertheless proceed to serve the same at any time before the return day thereof, and such service shall compel the defendant to plead at the next succeeding term of the court.

Art. 1230. [1230] Where the defendant is absent from the state, or is a non-resident of the state, the clerk shall, upon the application of any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, address a notice to the defendant requiring him to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the time and place of the holding of the court, naming such time and place. Its style shall be "The State of Texas," and it shall give the date of the filing of the petition, the file number of the suit, the names of all the parties and the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and shall state that a copy of the plaintiff's petition accompanies the notice. It shall be dated and signed, and attested by the clerk, with the seal of the court impressed thereon; and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon; a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition shall accompany the notice.

Art. 1231. [1231] Such notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact.

By whom served. Ib.

Art. 1232. [1232] Service in such cases shall be made by the person executing the same, delivering to the defendant in person a true copy of such notice, together with the certified copy of the plaintiff's petition accompanying the same.

Service in such cases. Ib.

Art. 1233. [1233] The return of service in such cases shall be indorsed or attached to the original notice; it shall state when the same was served and the manner of service, and shall be signed and sworn to by the party making such service before some officer authorized by the laws of this state to take affidavits; and such affidavit shall be certified under the hand and official seal of such officer.

Return of such service. Ib.

Art. 1234. [1234] Where a defendant has been served with such notice he shall be required to appear and answer in the same manner and under the same penalties as if he had been personally served with a citation within this state.

Effect of such service.

Art. 1235. [1235] Where any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, shall make oath at the time of instituting the suit, or at any time during its progress, that the party defendant is a non-resident of the state, or that he is absent from the state, or that he is a transient person, or that his residence is unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for the defendant, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of the citation in some newspaper published in his county, if there be any newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the judicial district where the suit is pending; but if there be no newspaper published in such judicial district, then it shall be published in the nearest district to the district where the suit is pending. Such citation shall be published once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day thereof.

Citation by publication. (Acts March 16, 1848, p. 106, §13; March 15, 1875, p. 170, §1.) (Acts 1879, ch. 96, p. 103.) P. D. 25.

Art. 1236. [1236] Where any property of any kind in this state may have been granted or may have accrued to the heirs, as such, of any deceased person, any party having a claim against them relative to such property, if their names be unknown to him, may bring his action against them, their heirs or legal representatives, describing them as the heirs of such ancestor, naming him; and if the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall at the time of instituting the suit or any time during its progress, make oath that the names of such heirs are unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such heirs addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the sheriff or constable to summon the defendant by making publication of the citation in some newspaper of his county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day of such citation.

Art. 1237. [1237] The citations provided for in the two preceding articles shall contain the requisites prescribed in article 1447.

Art. 1238. [1238] The return of the officer executing such citation shall be indorsed or attached to the same, and shall show when the citation was executed and the manner thereof, specifying the dates of such publication, shall be accompanied by a printed copy of such publication, and shall be signed by him officially.

Art. 1239. [1239] Any mistake or informality in a return may be corrected by the officer at any time under the direction of the court.

Art. 1240. [1240] The defendant may accept service of any process, or waive the issuance or service thereof by a written memorandum signed by him or by his duly authorized agent or attorney, and filed among the papers of the cause; and such waiver or acceptance shall have the same force and effect as if the citation had been issued and served as provided by law.

Art. 1241. [1241] The defendant may in person, or by attorney, or by his duly authorized agent, enter an appearance in open court, and such appearance shall be noted by the judge upon his docket and entered in the minutes, and shall have the same force and effect as if citation had been duly issued and served as provided by law.

Art. 1242. [1242] The filing of an answer shall constitute an appearance of the defendant so as to dispense with the necessity for the issuance or service of citation upon him.

Art. 1243. [1243] Where the citation or service thereof is quashed on motion of the defendant, the case may be continued for the term, but the defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance to the succeeding term of the court.

Art. 1244. [1244] Where the judgment is reversed on appeal or writ of error taken by the defendant for the want of service, or because of defective service of process, no new citation shall be issued or served, but the defendant shall be presumed to have entered his appearance to the term of the court at which the mandate shall be filed.

Art. 1245. [1245] No judgment shall in any case be rendered against any defendant unless upon service, or acceptance, or waiver of process, or upon an appearance by the defendant, as prescribed in this chapter, except where otherwise expressly provided by law.

Citation by publication to contain same requisites as other writs. (Act to adopt and establish R.C.S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.) Return of citation by publication.

Marriage of plaintiff feme sole.
Ib. §40.
P. D. 8.

Art. 1252. [1252] A suit instituted by a feme sole shall not abate by her marriage, but upon a suggestion of such marriage being entered on the record, the husband may make himself a party to such suit and prosecute the same as if he and his wife had been originally plaintiffs in such suit.

Marriage of defendant feme sole.
Ib. §41.
P. D. 9.

Art. 1253. [1253] A suit instituted against a feme sole shall not abate by her marriage, but upon a suggestion of such marriage being entered on the record, in open court, or upon a petition representing that fact being filed with the clerk, it shall be his duty to issue a scire facias to the husband of such defendant, and upon the return thereof executed, the husband shall be made a party to such suit, and it shall proceed as if such husband and wife had originally been defendants in such suit.

Suit to the use of another.
Ib. §42.
P. D. 10.

Art. 1254. [1254] When a plaintiff, suing for the use of another person, shall die before verdict, the person for whose use such suit was brought, upon such death being suggested on the record in open court, may prosecute the suit in his own name, and shall be responsible for costs in the same manner as he would have been had the suit been commenced by him.

Death of party to suit for injuries resulting in death.
P. D. 18.

Art. 1255. [1255] In cases arising under the provisions of title fifty-seven the suit shall not abate by the death of either party pending the suit, but in such case, if the plaintiff dies, where there is only one plaintiff, some one or more of the parties entitled to the money recovered may be substituted and the suit prosecuted to judgment in the name of such party or parties, for the benefit of the persons entitled; if the defendant dies, his executor, administrator or heir may be made a party, and the suit prosecuted to judgment as provided for in previous articles of this chapter.

P. D. 1448.

Art. 1256. [1256] Where there are several defendants in a suit, and some of them are served with process in due time and others not so served, the plaintiff may either discontinue as to those not so served and proceed against those that are, or he may continue the suit until the next term of the court and take new process against those not served; and no defendant against whom any suit may be so discontinued shall be thereby exonerated from any liability under which he was, but may at any time be proceeded against as if no such suit had been brought and no such discontinuance entered.

Discontinuance as to principal obligor.
Ib.
P. D. 1449, 1426, 225.

Art. 1257. [1257] Where a suit is discontinued as to a principal obligor no judgment can be rendered therein against an indorser, guarantor, surety or drawer of an accepted bill who is jointly sued, unless it is alleged and proven that such principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the state, or in such part of the same that he can not be reached by the ordinary process of law, or that his residence is unknown and can not be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or that he is dead or actually or notoriously insolvent.

Discontinuance in vacation.
Ib. §28.
P. D. 1440.

Art. 1258. [1258] The plaintiff may enter a discontinuance on the docket in vacation, in any suit wherein the defendant has not answered, on the payment of all costs that have accrued thereon.

Art. 1259. [1259] The court may permit the plaintiff to discontinue his suit as to one or more of several defendants who may have been served with process, or who may have answered when such discontinuance would not operate to the prejudice of the other defendants; but no such discontinuance shall in any case be allowed as to a principal obligor, except in the cases provided for in article 1257.

Discontinuance as to defendants served, etc.

Art. 1260. [1260] Where the defendant has filed a counter claim seeking affirmative relief, the plaintiff shall not be permitted, by a discontinuance of his suit, to prejudice the right of the defendant to be heard on such counter claim.

Discontinuance when defendant has filed counter claim.

Art. 1261. [1261] The scire facias and returns thereon, provided for in this chapter, shall conform to the requisites of citations and the returns thereon, under the provisions of chapter six of this title.

---	----------------	---	----------------

Article 1262. [1262] The defendant in his answer may plead as many several matters, whether of law or fact, as he shall think necessary for his defense, and which may be pertinent to the cause; provided, that he shall file them all at the same time, and in due order of pleading.

Answer may include several matters. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §29.) P. D. 1441.

Art. 1263. [1263] In all cases in which the citation has been personally served at least ten days before the first day of the term to which it is returnable, exclusive of the day of service and return, the answer of the defendant shall be filed in the county and district courts, on or before the second day of the return term, and before the call of the appearance docket on said second day.

Answer to be filed, when. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §§10, 12; June 16, 1876, p. 22, §18.) P. D. 1506, 1508. (Acts of 1891, p. 94; amend., 1893, p. 31.)

Art. 1264. [1264] In all cases in which service of the citation has been made by publication the answer shall be filed on or before appearance day of the term next succeeding that to which such citation is returnable.

Answer in cases of citation by publication. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §12.)

Art. 1265. [1265] An answer setting up any of the following matters, unless the truth of the pleadings appear of record, shall be verified by affidavit:

Certain pleas to be verified by affidavit. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §31.)

1. That the suit is not commenced in the proper county.
2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
3. That the plaintiff is not entitled to recover in the capacity in which he sues.
4. That there is another suit pending in this state between the same parties for the same cause of action.
5. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant.
6. A denial of partnership as alleged in the petition whether the same be on the part of the plaintiff or defendant.
7. That the plaintiff or the defendant, alleged in the petition to be duly incorporated, is not duly incorporated as alleged.

8. A denial of the execution by himself or by his authority of any instrument in writing, upon which any pleading is founded, in whole or in part, and charged to have been executed by him or by his authority, and not alleged to be lost or destroyed. Where such instrument in writing is charged to have been executed by a person then deceased, the affidavit will be sufficient if it state that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe that such instrument was not executed by the decedent or by his authority.

9. A plea denying the genuineness of the indorsement or assignment of a written instrument, as required by article 313.

10. That a written instrument upon which a pleading is founded is without consideration, or that the consideration of the same has failed in whole or in part.

(Act to adopt and establish R.C.S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

11. That an account which is the foundation of the plaintiff's action, and supported by an affidavit, is not just, and in such case the answer shall set forth the items and particulars which are unjust.

12. That the contract sued upon is usurious.

Plea of payment, counter claim, etc. (Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 62, §2.) P. D. 3444.

Art. 1266. [1266] In every action in which a defendant shall desire to prove any payment, counter claim or set-off, he shall file with his plea an account stating distinctly the nature of such payment, counter claim or set-off, and the several items thereof; and on failure to do so he shall not be entitled to prove the same unless it be so plainly and particularly described in the plea as to give the plaintiff full notice of the character thereof.

General denial need not be repeated.

Art. 1267. [1267] Where the defendant has pleaded the general denial, and the plaintiff shall afterward amend his pleading, it shall not be necessary for the defendant to plead such denial a second time, but such original denial shall be presumed to extend to all matters subsequently set up by the plaintiff.

Pleas to be filed in due order, etc. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §32.) P. D. 2.

Art. 1268. [1268] Pleas shall be filed in the due order of pleading, and shall be heard and determined in such order under the direction of the court.

Certain pleas to be determined during the term at which filed. Ib. §33. P. D. 3.

Art. 1269. [1269] Pleas to the jurisdiction, pleas in abatement, and other dilatory pleas and demurrers, not involving the merits of the case, shall be determined during the term at which they are filed, if the business of the court will permit.

By consent of parties. (Act June 21, 1876, p. 25, §1.)

Article 1270. [1270] The court may, upon the written consent of the parties thereto, or their attorney, filed with the papers of the cause by an order entered on the minutes, transfer the same for trial to the court of any other county having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such suit.

Granted on application, when. (Act April 7, 1874, p. 67, §1.) P. D. 5885a.

Art. 1271. [1271] A change of venue may be granted in any civil cause upon application of either party, supported by his own affidavit and the affidavit of at least three credible persons, residents of the county in which the suit is pending, for any of the following causes:

1. That there exists in the county where the suit is pending so great a prejudice against him that he can not obtain a fair and impartial trial.

2. That there is a combination against him instigated by influential persons, by reason of which he can not expect a fair and impartial trial.

3. For other good and sufficient cause, to be determined by the court.

Art. 1272. [1272] Where application for a change of venue is made in conformity to the requirements of the preceding article, the same shall be granted unless the credibility of the persons making the application for a change of venue, or their means of knowledge, or the truth of the facts set out in the said application, are attacked by the affidavit of a credible person; and if such application is thus attacked, the issue thus formed shall be tried by the judge, and the application granted or refused, as the law and the facts shall warrant.

Shall be granted, unless, etc.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 5885d.
Amend., 1893,
p. 2.

Art. 1273. [1273] Upon the grant of a change of venue, as provided in the two preceding articles, the cause shall be removed to some adjoining county, the court house of which is nearest to the court house of the county in which the suit is pending, unless it be made to appear in the application that such nearest county is subject to some objection sufficient to authorize a change of venue therefrom in the first instance; but the parties may by consent agree that it shall be changed to some other county, and the order of court shall conform to such agreement.

To what county.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 5885b

Art. 1274. [1274] Where a suit may be pending in the district or county court of any county, out of the territory of which a new county has been or may be hereafter made, in whole or in part, if the defendants, or any one of them, shall file a motion in the court where such suit is pending, to transfer the same to such new county, naming it, together with an affidavit stating that neither he nor any one of the defendants now resides in the territorial limits of the county where such suit is pending and that neither he nor any one of the defendants resided in said territorial limits at the time of the institution of such suit—and shall further swear that at the date of the filing of such suit said defendant was a resident citizen within the territorial limits of the new county—the court shall grant a change of venue to such new county, unless the suit could be properly brought in the county in which the same is pending under some provision of article 1194.

In case of new counties.
(Act July 29,
1876, p. 74, §1.)

Art. 1275. [1275] When an order for a change of venue has been granted by the court the clerk shall immediately make out a correct transcript of all the orders made in said cause, certifying thereto officially under the seal of the court, and transmit the same with the original papers in the cause to the clerk of the court to which the venue has been changed.

Duty of clerk on change of venue.

Art. 1277. [1277] On the first application for a continuance, if the ground of such application be the want of testimony, the party applying therefor shall make affidavit that such testimony is material, and that he has used due diligence to procure the same, stating such diligence.

Art. 1278. [1278] On the second or any subsequent application for a continuance, if the ground of such application be the want of testimony, the party applying therefor shall make affidavit that such testimony is material, showing the materiality thereof, and that he has used due diligence to procure such testimony, stating such diligence, and the cause of failure if known; that such testimony can not be obtained from any other source; and if it be for the absence of a witness, he shall state the name and residence of the witness and what he expects to prove by him; and he shall also state that the continuance is not sought for delay only, but that justice may be done.

Art. 1279. [1279] If from any cause the court shall not be held at the time prescribed by law, or if the business before the court be not determined before the adjournment thereof, such business, of whatsoever nature, remaining undetermined, shall stand continued until the next succeeding term of the court.

Article 1280. [1280] The second day of each term of the district or county court is termed appearance day.

Appearance day.
(Acts of 1891, p. 94.)

Art. 1281. [1281] It shall be the duty of the court on appearance day of each term, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, to call in their order all the cases on the docket which are returnable to such term.

Call of the appearance docket.

Art. 1282. [1282] Upon the call of the appearance docket, or at any time after appearance day, the plaintiff may take judgment by default against any defendant who has been duly served with process and who has not previously filed an answer.

Judgment by default.
(Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §12.)
P. D. 1508.

Art. 1283. [1283] Where there are several defendants, some of whom have answered and others have made default, an interlocutory judgment by default may be entered against those who have not answered, and the cause may proceed against the others; but only one final judgment shall be given in the suit.

Where some defendants answer and others do not.
Ib. §47.
P. D. 1450.

Art. 1284. [1284] Where a judgment by default is rendered against the defendant, or all of several defendants, if the cause of action is liquidated and proved by an instrument in writing, the damages shall be assessed by the court or under its direction, and judgment final shall be rendered therefor unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury.

Damages on liquidated demands, how assessed.
Ib.

Art. 1285. [1285] If in such case the cause of action is unliquidated or be not proved by an instrument in writing, the court shall hear evidence as to the damages and shall render judgment therefor, unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury.

On unliquidated demands, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1286. [1286] If the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury, the judgment by default shall be noted and a writ of inquiry awarded, and the cause shall be entered on the jury docket.

Jury to assess damages, when.
Ib.

Art. 1287. [1287] All suits in which final judgments shall not have been rendered by default, as hereinbefore provided, shall be called for trial in the order in which they stand on the docket to which they belong, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Suits called in their order, etc.
(Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §93.)
P. D. 1461.

Art. 1288. [1288] Every suit shall be tried when it is called, unless it be continued or postponed to a future day of the term, or be placed at the end of the docket to be called again for trial in its regular order.

To be tried when called, unless, etc.
Ib.

Day set for jury docket. (Acts of 1881, p. 5.)

Art. 1289. [1289] The court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate a day of the term for taking up for trial the causes on the jury civil docket at all subsequent terms, until changed by a like order; but, in case of change, it shall not take effect until the succeeding term of said court. In all cases in which juries have been demanded by either party, all questions of law, demurrers, exceptions to pleadings, etc., shall, as far as practicable, be heard and determined by the court before the day designated for the trial of said jury causes, and all jurors shall be summoned to appear on the day of the term so designated.

Call of non-jury docket.

Art. 1290. [1290] The docket of cases in which jury trials have not been granted shall be taken up at such times and in such manner as not unnecessarily to interfere with the dispatch of business on the jury docket.

Issues of law and dilatory pleas, when tried. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §33.)

Art. 1291. [1291] When a case is called for trial, the issues of law arising on the pleadings, and all pleas in abatement, and other dilatory pleas remaining undisposed of, shall be determined, and it shall be no cause for the postponement of a trial of the issues of law that a party is not prepared to try the issues of fact.

Trial by the court.

Art. 1292. [1292] The rules hereinafter prescribed for the trial of causes before the jury shall govern in trials by the court so far as may be applicable.

Agreed case. (Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 110, §12.)

Art. 1293. [1293] The parties may in any case submit the matter in controversy between them to the court upon an agreed statement of facts made out and signed by them or their counsel, and filed with the clerk, upon which judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; and in such case the statement so agreed to and signed and certified by the court to be correct, and the judgment rendered thereon, shall constitute the record of the cause.

Cases brought up from inferior courts, tried de novo. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §§59, 60.)

Art. 1294. [1294] In all cases brought up from inferior courts, whether by appeal or certiorari, the case shall be tried de novo.

Court may employ a stenographer, etc.

Art. 1295. [1295] For the purpose of preserving a statement of the evidence given on the trial of a cause, the court may, and upon application of either party shall, employ a stenographer or other competent person to take down the testimony in a cause.

Compensation of stenographer.

Art. 1296. [1296] Reasonable compensation, not to exceed twenty cents per hundred words, shall be allowed such stenographer, to be fixed by the court and taxed in the bill of costs.

Order of proceedings on trial by jury.

Art. 1297. [1297] In suits tried by a jury the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the court should for good cause, to be stated in the record, otherwise direct:

1. The plaintiff or his counsel shall read his petition to the jury.
2. The defendant or his counsel shall read his answer.
3. If there be any intervenor, he or his counsel shall read his pleadings.
4. The party, plaintiff or defendant, upon whom rests the burden of proof on the whole case under the pleadings, shall then be permitted to state to the jury briefly the nature of his claim or defense and facts relied on in support thereof.
5. Such party shall then introduce his evidence.
6. The adverse party shall then be permitted to state briefly the nature of his defense or claim and the facts relied on in support thereof.

7. He shall then introduce his evidence.

8. The intervenor, if any, shall in like manner be permitted to make his statement, and shall then introduce his evidence.

9. The parties shall then be confined to rebutting testimony on each side.

Art. 1298. [1298] The court may at its discretion, at any time before the conclusion of the argument, where it appears to be necessary to the due administration of justice, allow a party to supply an omission in testimony, on such terms and under such limitations as the court may prescribe.

Additional testimony allowed, when.

Art. 1299. [1299] After the evidence is concluded the parties may submit the case to the jury in argument; the party having under the pleadings the burden of proof on the whole case shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument; where there are several other parties having separate claims or defenses, and represented by different counsel, the court shall prescribe the order of argument between them.

Order of argument.

Art. 1300. [1300] After the conclusion of the argument the court shall read to the jury the charges and instructions, if any, under the provisions of this title relating thereto.

Charge and instructions. (Act Feb. 6, 1853, p. 19, §99.) P. D. 1464.

Art. 1301. [1301] At any time before the jury have retired the plaintiff may take a nonsuit, but he shall not thereby prejudice the right of an adverse party to be heard on his claim for affirmative relief; when the case is tried by the judge such nonsuit may be taken at any time before the decision is announced.

Non-suit may be taken, when. Ib. P. D. 1464.

Art. 1302. [1302] The court may appoint one of the jury to be the foreman thereof, and in case no foreman is appointed by the court, the jury may elect a foreman from their number, who shall preside at their deliberations and see that the same are conducted with regularity and in order.

Foreman of jury.

Art. 1303. [1303] The jury may take with them in their retirement the charges and instructions in the cause, the pleadings and any written evidence except the depositions of witnesses. But when part only of a paper has been read in evidence, the jury shall not take the same with them unless the part so read to them is detached from that which was excluded.

Jury may take papers with them, except, etc. Ib. P. D. 1464.

Art. 1304. [1304] The jury may either decide the case in court or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they shall be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court; but the court may in its discretion permit them to separate temporarily for the night and at their meals, and for other proper causes.

Jury to be kept together.

Art. 1305. [1305] The officer having the jury under his charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, except to ask them if they have agreed upon a verdict, unless by order of the court; and he shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

Duty of officer in charge of jury.

Art. 1306. [1306] If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by any other person, on any subject connected with the trial.

Caution to the jury.

Art. 1307. [1307] When the jury wish to communicate with the court, they shall make their wish known to the officer having them

Jury may communicate with the court.

in charge, who shall inform the court thereof, and they may be brought into open court, and through their foreman shall state to the court, either verbally or in writing, what they desire to communicate.

May ask further instruction.
 P. D. 1464.

Art. 1308. [1308] The jury may, after having retired, ask further instruction of the court touching any matter of law. For this purpose they shall appear before the judge in open court in a body and through their foreman state to the court, either verbally or in writing, the particular question of law upon which they desire further instruction, and the court shall give such instruction in writing; but no instruction shall be given except upon the particular question on which it is asked.

May have witness recalled.

Art. 1309. [1309] If the jury disagree as to the statement of any particular witness, they may, upon applying to the court, have such witness again brought upon the stand, and he shall be directed by the judge to detail his testimony to the particular point of disagreement, and no other, and as nearly as he can in the language used upon his examination.

May have deposition, etc., re-read.

Art. 1310. [1310] If the jury disagree as to any portion of a deposition or other paper not carried with them in their retirement, the court may in like manner permit such portion of the deposition or paper to be again read to the jury.

Disagreement of jury.

Art. 1311. [1311] The jury may, after the cause is submitted to them, be discharged by the court when they can not agree and both parties consent to their discharge, or when they have been kept together for such time as to render it altogether improbable that they can agree.

May be discharged by the court.
 (Const., art 5, §13.)

Art. 1312. [1312] They may also be discharged by the court when any calamity or accident may, in the opinion of the court, require it; and they shall be so discharged when by sickness or other cause their number is reduced below the number constituting a jury in such court.

Final adjournment of court discharges.
 Case to be tried again.

Art. 1313. [1313] The final adjournment of the court before the jury have agreed upon a verdict discharges them.

Art. 1314. [1314] Where a jury has been discharged as herein provided, without having rendered a verdict, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term.

Court may proceed with other business.

Art. 1315. [1315] The court may, during the retirement of the jury, proceed to any other business and adjourn from time to time, but shall be deemed open for all purposes connected with the case before the jury.

Court may charge the jury.
 (Act Feb. 5, 1853, p. 19, §99.)
 P. D. 1464.

Article 1316. [1316] After the argument of a cause the judge may, in open court, deliver a charge to the jury on the law of the case, subject to the restrictions hereinafter provided.

Art. 1317. [1317] The charge shall be in writing and signed by the judge, and he shall read it to the jury in the precise words in which it is written; he shall not charge or comment on the weight of evidence; he shall so frame the charge as to distinctly separate the questions of law from the questions of fact; he shall decide on and instruct the jury as to the law arising on the facts, and shall submit all controverted questions of fact solely to the decision of the jury.

Requisites of the charge. Ib.

Art. 1318. [1318] Such charge shall be filed by the clerk and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and shall be regarded as excepted to, and subject to revision for errors therein, without the necessity of taking any bill of exception thereto.

Charge need not be excepted to.

Art. 1319. [1319] Either party may present to the judge, in writing, such instructions as he desires to be given to the jury, and the judge may give such instructions, or a part thereof, or he may refuse to give them, as he may see proper, and he shall read to the jury such of them as he may give.

Parties may ask instructions. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §109.) P. D. 216.

Art. 1320. [1320] When the instructions asked, or some of them, are refused, the judge shall note distinctly which of them he gives and which he refuses, and shall subscribe his name thereto, and such instructions shall be filed with the clerk, and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, subject to revision for error without the necessity of taking any bill of exception thereto.

Instructions refused constitute part of bill of exceptions. Ib.

Art. 1321. [1321] The charge and instructions given to the jury may be carried with them by the jury in their retirement, and an additional charge or instructions may be given them upon any question of law arising in the case, in conformity with the preceding rules, upon the application of the jury therefor in open court.

Jury may carry charge, etc., with them. (Act. Feb. 5, 1853, p. 19, §99.) P. D. 1464.

Article 1322. [1322] When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge, and their names shall be called by the clerk, and they shall deliver their verdict to the clerk.

Rendition of verdict.

Art. 1323. [1323] The verdict shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the foreman; and where, pending a trial in the district court, any juror may die or be disabled from sitting, and the verdict is rendered by the remaining jurors, the verdict shall be signed by all of such remaining jurors.

Must be in writing and signed. (Act. Aug. 1, 1876.) P. D. 1464.

Art. 1324. [1324] The clerk shall read the verdict aloud, and shall inquire of the jury if such is their verdict; if any juror disagrees to the verdict, the jury shall be sent out again, but if no disagreement is expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the court shall (except in the cases hereinafter provided for) receive the verdict and enter a minute thereof on the docket, and the jury shall be discharged.

Verdict received and noted on docket.

Jury may be polled.

Art. 1325. [1325] When the verdict is announced either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the clerk or judge asking each juror separately if such is his verdict; if any juror answers in the negative, the jury shall again be sent out for further deliberation; but if each juror concurs in the verdict the same shall be received and noted in the docket, except in the cases provided for in the two succeeding articles, and the jury shall be discharged.

Defective or mistaken verdict.

Art. 1326. [1326] If the verdict is informal or defective the court may direct it to be reformed at the bar, and where there has been a manifest miscalculation of interest, the court may direct a computation thereof at the bar, and the verdict may, if the jury assents thereto, be reformed in accordance with such computation.

Not responsive to the issues.

Art. 1327. [1327] If the verdict is not responsive to the issue submitted to the jury, the court shall call their attention thereto, and send them back for further deliberation.

Verdicts either general or special. General verdict.

Art. 1328. [1328] The verdict of a jury is either a general or a special verdict.

Art. 1329. [1329] A general verdict is one whereby the jury pronounce generally in favor of one or more parties to the suit upon all or any of the issues submitted to them.

Special verdict. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §108.)

Art. 1330. [1330] A special verdict is one wherein the jury find the facts only on issues made up and submitted to them under the direction of the court.

P. D. 1469. Requisites of special verdict.

Art. 1331. [1331] The special verdict must find the facts as established by the evidence, and not the evidence by which they are established, and the findings must be such as that nothing remains for the court but to draw from such facts the conclusions of law.

Special verdict conclusive. P. D. 1469.

Art. 1332. [1332] A special verdict found under the provisions of the two preceding articles shall, as between the parties, be conclusive as to the facts found.

Verdict to cover all the issues submitted. (Acts of 1879, p. 119.)

Art. 1333. [1333] The jury shall render a general or special verdict, as shall be directed by the court at the request of a party to the suit, and the verdict shall comprehend the whole issue or all the issues submitted to them; and upon a trial by the court the judge shall, at the request of either of the parties, also state in writing the conclusions of facts found by him separately from the conclusions of law, which conclusions of fact and law shall be filed with the clerk and shall constitute a part of the record; and in all cases where a special verdict of the jury is rendered or the conclusions of fact found by the judge are separately stated, the court shall, unless the same be set aside and new trial granted, render judgment thereon, and it shall be sufficient for the party excepting to the conclusions of law or judgment of the court to cause it to be noted on the record in the judgment entry that he excepts thereto, and such party may thereupon take his appeal or writ of error without a statement of facts or further exceptions in the transcript, but the transcript shall in such case contain the special verdict or conclusions of fact and law aforesaid and the judgment rendered thereon.

Verdict not void for want of form. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §104.) P. D. 1465.

Art. 1334. [1334] No special form of verdict is required, and where there has been a substantial compliance with the requirements of the law in rendering a verdict, the judgment shall not be arrested or reversed for mere want of form therein.

Article 1335. [1335] The judgment of the court shall conform to the pleadings, the nature of the case proved and the verdict, if any, and shall be so framed as to give the party all the relief to which he may be entitled either in law or equity.

Judgments, how framed, (Acts May 13, 1846, p. 363, §115; May 11, 1846, p. 200, §7.)
P. D. 1476, 1410.

Art. 1336. [1336] Judgment may, in a proper case, be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs, and against or for one or more of several defendants or intervenors.

For or against one or more plaintiffs, etc.

Art. 1337. [1337] Only one final judgment shall be rendered in any cause, except where it is otherwise specially provided by law.

But one final judgment.

Art. 1338. [1338] Where the judgment is for the conveyance of real estate, or for the delivery of personal property, the decree may pass the title to such property without any act to be done on the part of the party against whom the judgment is rendered.

Judgment may pass title, etc. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §120.)
P. D. 1481.

Art. 1339. [1339] The court shall cause its judgments and decrees to be carried into execution; and where the judgment is for personal property, and it is shown by the pleadings and evidence and the verdict, if any, that such property has an especial value to the plaintiff, the court may award a special writ for the seizure and delivery of such property to the plaintiff, and the court may, in addition to the other relief granted in such case, enforce its judgment by attachment, fine and imprisonment.

Court shall enforce its own decrees, and may in certain cases do so by contempt process. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, §17.)
P. D. 1420.

Art. 1340. [1340] Judgments for the foreclosure of mortgages and other liens shall be that the plaintiff recover his debt, damages and costs, with a foreclosure of the plaintiff's lien on the property subject thereto, and (except in judgments against executors, administrators and guardians) that an order of sale shall issue to the sheriff or any constable of the county where such property may be, directing him to seize and sell the same as under execution, in satisfaction of the judgment; and if the property can not be found, or if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, then to make the money, or any balance thereof remaining unpaid, out of any other property of the defendant, as in case of ordinary executions.

Judgment of foreclosure of liens. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 303, §119.)
P. D. 1480.

Art. 1341. [1340a] When any order foreclosing a lien upon real estate is made in a suit having for its object the foreclosure of such lien, in any court having jurisdiction, such order shall have all the force and effect of a writ of possession, as between the parties to such suit of foreclosure and any person claiming under the defendant to such suit by any right acquired pending such suit; and the court shall so direct in the judgment providing for the issuance of such order, and the sheriff or other officer executing such order of sale, shall proceed by virtue of said order to place the purchaser of the property sold under the same in possession thereof within thirty days after the day of sale.

Judgment on appeal, etc., from county court.
(Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §60.)
P. D. 1460.

Art. 1342. [1341] Judgments on appeal or certiorari from any county court sitting in probate shall be certified to such county court for observance.

On appeal, etc., from justices' court.

Art. 1343. [1342] Judgments on appeal or certiorari from any justice's court shall be enforced by the county court.

Judgments against executors, etc.
(Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §118.)
P. D. 1479.

Art. 1344. [1343] Where a recovery of money is had against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, the judgment shall state that it is to be paid in the due course of administration, and no execution shall issue on such judgment, but the same shall be certified to the county court, sitting in matters of probate, to be there enforced in accordance with law.

Against executors acting independently of probate court.

Art. 1345. [1344] The preceding article shall not apply to judgments against an executor who has been appointed and is acting under a will dispensing with the action of the county court in reference to such estate; but such judgment shall be enforced against the property of the testator in the hands of such executor, by execution, as in other cases.

Judgment in suits by publication.
(Acts May 13, 1846, p. 363, §128; Nov. 6, 1866, p. 125, §1.)
P. D. 1488, 26.

Art. 1346. [1345] Where service of process has been made by publication, and no answer has been filed within the time prescribed by law, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend the suit, and judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; but in every such case a statement of the evidence, approved and signed by the judge, shall be filed with the papers of the cause as part of the record thereof.

Against partners when all not sued.
P. D. 1514.

Art. 1347. [1346] Where the suit is against several partners jointly indebted upon contract, and the citation has been served upon some of such partners, but not upon all, judgment may be rendered therein against such partnership and against the partners actually served, but no personal judgment or execution shall be awarded against those not served.

Confession of judgment.
(Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §116.)
P. D. 1477.

Art. 1348. [1347] Any person indebted, or against whom a cause of action exists, may without process appear, in person or by attorney, and confess judgment therefor in open court; but in such case a petition should be filed and the justness of the debt or cause of action be sworn to by the person in whose favor the judgment is confessed.

The acceptance of service and waiver of process.
(Acts of 1885, p. 33.)

Art. 1349. [1347a] The acceptance of service and waiver of process, provided for in article 1240, and the entry of appearance in open court as provided for in article 1241, or the confession of judgment as provided for in article 1348, shall not in any action be authorized by the contract or instrument of writing sued on, or any other instrument executed prior to the institution of such suit, nor shall such acceptance or waiver of service be made until after suit brought.

Confession of, by attorney.
Ib.

Art. 1350. [1348] When the judgment is confessed by attorney, the power of attorney shall be filed, and a recital of the contents of the same be made in the judgment.

Releases errors, but may be impeached, etc.
Ib. §117.
P. D. 1478.

Art. 1351. [1349] Every judgment by confession duly made shall operate as a release of all errors in the record thereof, but such judgment may be impeached for fraud or other equitable cause.

Other judgments, when authorized by law.

Art. 1352. [1350] The court may render such other judgment and in such form as may be authorized by law.

Article 1353. [1351] Any party in whose favor a verdict has been rendered may in open court remit any part of such verdict, and such remitter shall be noted on the docket and entered in the minutes, and execution shall thereafter issue for the balance only of such judgment, after deducting the amount remitted.

Remitter of excess in verdict. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §133.) P. D. 52.

Art. 1354. [1352] Any person in whose favor a judgment has been rendered may in open court remit any part of such judgment, and such remitter shall be noted on the docket and entered in the minutes, and execution shall thereafter issue for the balance only of such judgment, after deducting the amount remitted.

Remitter of excess in judgment in open court. Ib.

Art. 1355. [1353] Any party may make such remitter in vacation by executing and filing with the clerk a release in writing, signed by him or by his attorney of record, and attested by the clerk with the seal of his office. Such release shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and any execution thereafter issued shall be for the balance only of the judgment, after deducting the amount remitted.

Remitter in vacation. Ib.

Art. 1356. [1354] Where there shall be a mistake in the record of any judgment or decree, the judge may, in open court, and after notice of the application therefor has been given to the parties interested in such judgment or decree, amend the same according to the truth and justice of the case, and thereafter the execution shall conform to the judgment as amended.

Mistakes in judgments corrected in open court. (Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, §13.) P. D. 49.

Art. 1357. [1355] Where, in the record of any judgment, or decree of any court, there shall be any mistake, miscalculation or misrecital of any sum or sums of money, or of any name or names, and there shall be among the records of the cause any verdict or instrument of writing whereby such judgment or decree may be safely amended, it shall be the duty of the court in which such judgment or decree shall be rendered, and the judge thereof, in vacation, on application of either party, to amend such judgment or decree thereby, according to the truth and justice of the case; but the opposite party shall have reasonable notice of the application for such amendment.

Misrecitals, etc., corrected in vacation or term time, in certain cases. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §132.) P. D. 51. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 1358. [1356] The judge making such correction in vacation shall embody the same in a judgment, and shall certify thereto and deliver the same to the clerk, who shall enter the same in the minutes. Such judgment shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and any execution thereafter issued shall conform to the judgment as corrected.

Correction made in vacation to be certified to clerk, etc.

Art. 1359. [1357] A remitter or correction made as provided in any of the six preceding articles shall, from the making thereof, cure any error in the verdict or judgment by reason of such excess.

Correction or remitter operates to cure error. Ib. §133. P. D. 52.

Exception to rulings taken, when, (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §101.) P. D. 217.

Article 1360. [1358] Whenever, in the progress of a cause, either party is dissatisfied with any ruling, opinion or other action of the court, he may except thereto at the time the same is made or announced, and at his request time shall be given to embody such exception in a written bill.

Requisites of bill of exceptions.

Art. 1361. [1359] No particular form of words shall be required in a bill of exceptions, but the objection to the ruling or action of the court shall be stated with such circumstances, or so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain it, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

May refer to statement of facts.

Art. 1362. [1360] Where the statement of facts contains all the evidence requisite to explain the bill of exceptions, it shall not be necessary to set out such evidence in the bill of exceptions, but it shall be sufficient to refer to the same as it appears in the statement of facts.

Charges regarded as excepted to. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §101.) P. D. 217.

Art. 1363. [1361] The ruling of the court in the giving, refusing or qualifying of instructions to the jury, shall be regarded as excepted to in all cases.

No bill of exceptions where ruling appears of record.

Art. 1364. [1362] Where the ruling or other action of the court appears otherwise of record, no bill of exceptions shall be necessary to reserve an exception thereto.

Bill to be presented to the judge during the term and in ten days.

Art. 1365. [1363] It shall be the duty of the party taking any bill of exceptions to reduce the same to writing, and present the same to the judge for his allowance and signature during the term, and within ten days after the conclusion of the trial.

Submitted to opposing counsel, etc.

Art. 1366. [1364] It shall be the duty of the judge to submit such bill of exceptions to the adverse party or his counsel, if in attendance on the court, and if the same is found to be correct, it shall be signed by the judge without delay and filed with the clerk during the term.

If found incorrect. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §101.) P. D. 217.

Art. 1367. [1365] Should the judge find such bill of exceptions to be incorrect, he shall suggest to the party or his counsel, who drew it, such corrections as he may deem necessary therein, and if they are agreed to he shall make such corrections and sign the same and file it as provided in the preceding article.

On disagreement, judge to make out bill, etc.

Art. 1368. [1366] Should the party not agree to such corrections, the judge shall return the bill of exceptions to him with his refusal indorsed thereon, and shall make out and sign and file with the clerk such a bill of exceptions as will in his opinion present the ruling of the court in that behalf as it actually occurred.

Controverted bill of exceptions and affidavits relating thereto. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §§101, 102.) (Acts of 1892, p. 25.)

Art. 1369. [1367] Should the party be dissatisfied with the bill of exceptions filed by the judge, as provided in the preceding article, he may, upon procuring the signatures of three respectable bystanders, citizens of this state, attesting the correctness of the bill of exceptions as presented by him, have the same filed as part of the record of the cause; and the truth of the matter in reference thereto may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not exceeding five in number on each side, to be filed with the papers of the cause, within ten days after the filing of such bill of exceptions, and to be considered as a part of the record relating thereto. When the court refuses to sign a correct bill of exceptions, such proceedings may be had in the court of civil appeals as is prescribed in article 1014.

Statement of facts, how prepared. (Acts of 1892, p. 42.)

Article 1379. [1377] After the trial of any cause, either party may make out a written statement of the facts given in evidence on the trial, and submit the same to the opposite party, or his attorney, for inspection. If the parties, or their attorneys, agree upon such statement of facts, they shall sign the same, and it shall then be submitted to the judge, who shall, if he find it correct, approve and sign it, and the same shall be filed with the clerk. Where it is agreed by the parties to the suit, or their attorneys of record, that the evidence adduced upon the trial of the cause is sufficient to establish a fact or facts alleged by either party, the testimony of the witnesses and the deeds, wills, records, or other written instruments, admitted as evidence relating thereto, shall not be stated or copied in detail into a statement of facts, but the facts thus established shall be stated as facts proved in the case; provided, an instrument, such as a note or other contract, mortgage or deed of trust, that constitutes the cause of action on which the petition, or answer, or cross-bill, or intervention, is founded, may be copied once in the statement of facts. When there is any reasonable doubt of the sufficiency of the evidence to constitute proof of any one fact under the preceding rule, there may then be inserted such of the testimony of the witnesses and written instruments, or parts thereof, as relate to such facts.

When the parties disagree. Ib.

Art. 1380. [1378] If the parties do not agree upon such statement of facts, or if the judge do not approve or sign it, the parties may submit their respective statements to the judge, who shall, from his own knowledge, with the aid of such statements during the term, make out and sign and file with the clerk a correct statement of the facts proven on the trial, and such statement shall constitute a part of the record.

Made up and filed in vacation, when.

Art. 1381. [1379] The court may, by an order entered upon the record during the term, authorize the statement of facts to be made up, and signed and filed, in vacation, at any time not exceeding ten days after the adjournment of the term.

Statement of facts not filed in time, when considered by court. (Acts of 1887, p. 17.)

Art. 1382. [1379a] Whenever a statement of facts shall have been filed after the times respectively prescribed in the preceding articles 1379, 1380 and 1381 of this chapter, and the party tendering or filing the same shall show to the satisfaction of the courts of civil appeals that he has used due diligence to obtain the approval and signature of the judge thereto, and to file the same within the time in this chapter prescribed for filing the same, and that his failure to file the same within said time is not due to the fault or laches of said party or his attorney, and that such failure was the result of causes beyond his control, the courts of civil appeals shall permit said statement of facts to remain as part of the record, and consider the same in the hearing and adjudication of said cause the same as if said statement of facts had been filed in time.

Article 1383. [1380] An appeal or writ of error may be taken to the courts of civil appeals from every final judgment of the district court in civil cases, and from every final judgment in the county court in civil cases of which the county court has original jurisdiction, and from every final judgment of the county court in civil cases of which the court has appellate jurisdiction, where the judgment or amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, and an appeal shall lie from an interlocutory order of the district court appointing a receiver or trustee in any cause; provided, said appeal be taken within twenty days from the entry of said order; an appeal under such cases shall take precedence in the appellate court, but the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of the appeal, unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court.

Appeals to the courts of civil appeals, allowed in what cases.

Art. 1384. [1384] The party taking an appeal is called the "appellant," and the adverse party is called the "appellee."

"Appellant" and "appellee" defined.

Art. 1385. [1385] The party suing out a writ of error is called the "plaintiff in error," and the adverse party is called the "defendant in error."

"Plaintiff in error" and "defendant in error" defined.

Art. 1386. [1386] The term "appellate court" includes the supreme court or court of civil appeals having jurisdiction of a cause on appeal or writ of error. The term "court below" includes the district or county court from which such appeal or writ of error is taken.

"Appellate court" and "court below" defined.

Art. 1387. [1387] An appeal may, in cases where an appeal is allowed, be taken during the term of the court at which the final judgment in the cause is rendered, by the appellants giving notice of appeal in open court within two days after final judgment, or Appeal perfected, how.

two days after judgment overruling a motion for a new trial, which shall be noted on the docket and entered of record, and by his filing with the clerk an appeal bond, where bond is required by law, or affidavit in lieu thereof, as hereinafter provided, within twenty days after the expiration of the term. If the term of the court may by law continue more than eight weeks, the bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, shall be filed within twenty days after notice of appeal is given, if the party taking the appeal resides in the county, and within thirty days if he resides out of the county.

By parties of whom no appeal bond is required.

Art. 1388. [1388] In cases where the appellant is not required by law to give bond on appeal, the appeal is perfected by the notice provided for in the preceding article.

Writ of error sued out, when.

Art. 1389. [1389] The writ of error may, in cases where the same is allowed, be sued out at any time within twelve months after the final judgment is rendered, and not thereafter.

By petition. Ib. §140. P. D. 1495.

Art. 1390. [1390] The party desiring to sue out a writ of error shall file with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered, a petition in writing, signed by him or by his attorney, and addressed to such clerk.

Requisites of petition.

Art. 1391. [1391] The petition shall state the names and residences of the parties adversely interested, shall describe the judgment with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state that he desires to remove the same to the court of civil appeals for revision and correction. Where the plaintiff in error desires the issuance of a supersedeas, he shall state the facts which entitle him thereto, and pray for the issuance thereof.

Error bond. Ib.

Art. 1392. [1392] The plaintiff shall also, at the time of filing such petition, file with the clerk a writ of error bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, as hereinafter provided.

Citation in error. Ib.

Art. 1393. [1393] Upon the filing of the petition and bond mentioned in the three preceding articles, it shall be the duty of the clerk forthwith to issue a citation for the defendant in error, and if there be several defendants, residing in different counties, one citation shall issue to each of such counties.

Form and requisites of citation.

Art. 1394. [1394] The style of such citation shall be "The State of Texas," and it shall be dated and tested by the clerk as other writs, and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and shall command him forthwith to summon the defendant to appear and defend such writ before the court of civil appeals within sixty days from date of service of said citation, stating the place of holding the same, according to the provisions of the law regulating the returns of appeals and writs of error from the county in which the judgment was rendered. It shall state the date of the filing of the petition in error, the names of the parties according to such petition and the description of the judgment as therein given. Such citation shall be made returnable within ten days from the issuance of the same if defendant resides in the county, and within twenty days if he resides out of the county.

Service and return of. Ib.

Art. 1395. [1395] It shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable receiving such citation to indorse the day and hour on which he receives it, and to execute and return it forthwith. Service shall be made by delivering to the defendant in error, and if more than one, then to each of them, in person, a true copy of such citation. The return of such officer shall be indorsed on or attached to the original writ, and shall state when and how the same was served, and shall be signed by him officially.

Art. 1396. [1396] The citation shall be returned as prescribed in article 1394, and where the same has not been served the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same, and a failure to execute it, and where the defendant is to be found, so far as he has been able to ascertain.

Return and what shall show.

Art. 1397. [1397] If the citation is returned not executed, the clerk shall forthwith issue an alias or pluris citation, as the case may be, which shall conform to the requisites prescribed for the issuance of citation in the first instance, and shall, in addition, indicate how many previous citations have been issued.

Alias citation. Ib.

Art. 1398. [1398] If it appears from the allegations in the papers of the cause that the party is a non-resident of the state, or if it appears from the return of the sheriff or constable that the party can not be found in the county of his residence, the citation shall direct the officer to summon the defendant by making service on his attorney of record, if there be one.

Service on the attorney of record. Ib.

Art. 1399. [1399] Service of the citation may be also made in either of the modes provided in chapter six of this title, so far the same are applicable.

Service in other modes.

Art. 1400. [1400] The appellant or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to the appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the probable amount of the costs of the suit in the court of civil appeals, supreme court and the court below, to be fixed by the clerk, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect, and shall pay all the costs which have accrued in the court below, and which may accrue in the court of civil appeals and the supreme court.

Cost bond on appeal or writ of error.

Art. 1401. [1401] Where the appellant or plaintiff in error is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but, in order to do so, he shall be required to make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides, or before the court trying the case, and shall consist of the affidavit of said party, stating his inability to pay the costs; which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit, whereupon it shall be the duty of the court trying the case, if in session, or the county judge of the county in which the suit is pending, to hear evidence and to determine the right of the party, under this article, to his appeal.

Appeal, etc., by party unable to give cost bond. (Act May 3, 1871, p. 74, §1.) (Acts of 1879, ch. 81, p. 90.) P. D. 6180.

Art. 1402. [1402] When the bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal or writ of error, as the case may be, shall be held to be perfected.

Appeal or writ of error, perfected, when.

Art. 1403. [1403] The bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided in the three preceding articles, shall not have the effect to suspend the judgment, but execution shall issue thereon as if no such appeal or writ of error had been taken.

Appeal, etc., on cost bond or affidavit, does not suspend execution.

Art. 1404. [1404] Should the appellant or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, desire to suspend the execution of the judgment, he may do so by giving, instead of the bond or affidavit in lieu thereof, mentioned in the four preceding articles, or in addition to such bond, a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, Supersedeas bond.

to be approved by the clerk, payable to appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect, and in case the judgment of the supreme court or the court of civil appeals shall be against him, he shall perform its judgment, sentence or decree, and pay all such damages as said court may award against him.

Supersedeas bond, where judgment is for land or other property.
Ib. §137.
P. D. 1492.

Art. 1405. [1405] Where the judgment is for the recovery of land or other property, the bond shall be further conditioned that the appellant or plaintiff in error shall, in case the judgment is affirmed, pay to the appellee or defendant in error, the value of the rent or hire of such property in any suit which may be brought therefor.

Judgment stayed and execution superseded.
Ib. §140.
P. D. 1495.

Art. 1406. [1406] Upon the filing of the bonds mentioned in the two preceding articles, the appeal or writ of error shall be held to be perfected and the execution of the judgment shall be stayed, and should execution have been issued thereon, the clerk shall forthwith issue a supersedeas.

No bond required of the state.
Of executors, etc.
(Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, §4.)
P. D. 1503.

Art. 1407. [1407] The State of Texas shall not be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by it in any civil case.

Art. 1408. [1408] Executors, administrators and guardians, appointed by the courts of this state, shall not be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by them in their fiduciary capacity.

Executor, etc., may take appeal or writ of error.

Art. 1409. [1409] In case of the death of any party entitled to an appeal or writ of error, the same may be taken by his executor, administrator or heir.

Transcript to be made out and delivered.
(Act May 13, 1848, p. 363, §133.)
P. D. 1494.

Art. 1410. [1410] When an appeal or writ of error has been perfected, the clerk of the court shall, upon the application of either party, make out and deliver to him a transcript of the record of the cause.

Transcript to contain all proceedings, except, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1411. [1411] The transcript shall, except in the cases hereinafter provided, contain a full and correct copy of all the proceedings had in the cause.

Citation and return omitted, when.

Art. 1412. [1412] If the pleadings or the judgment show an appearance of the defendant, in person or by attorney, the citation and returns shall not be copied into the transcript.

Omission of unimportant proceedings, when.
(Act Feb. 5, 1848, p. 110, §12.)
P. D. 1516.

Art. 1413. [1413] The parties may, by an agreement in writing, with the approval of the judge, direct the clerk in making up the transcript for the appellate court to omit therefrom any designated portion of the proceedings not deemed material to the disposition of the cause in such appellate court, and in such case the transcript shall not embrace such portions of the proceedings.

Agreed statement of pleadings and proof.
Ib.

Art. 1414. [1414] The parties may, without the necessity of setting out all the proceedings at length, agree upon such a brief statement of the case and of the facts proven, with or without copies of any part of the proceedings as shall in their opinion enable the appellate court to determine whether there has been any error in the judgment; and if the judge shall approve and sign such statement, the same shall be filed among the papers of the cause and shall constitute a part of the record, and on appeal or writ of error shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of such proceedings themselves.

Transcript must contain, what.
Ib.

Art. 1415. [1415] The transcript shall, in all cases, contain a copy of the final judgment, notice of appeal, petition for writ of error and citation in error, with return of service thereon, bond on appeal or writ of error, or affidavit in lieu thereof, and assignment of errors:

or such of them as there may be, and also a copy from the fee book of all the costs that have accrued in the cause.

Art. 1416. [1416] The clerk shall certify to the correctness of the transcript, and sign the same officially with the seal of the court attached. Such certificate shall state whether the same be a transcript of all the proceedings in the cause, or the transcript provided for in articles 1412, 1413 and 1414.

Clerk's certificate and indorsement. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §139.) P. D. 1494.

Art. 1417. [1416a] Not less than five days before the time of filing of the transcript in the court of civil appeals the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file with the clerk of the district court a copy of his brief, which shall be by the clerk deposited with the papers of the cause, with the date of filing indorsed thereon, and the clerk shall forthwith give notice to the appellee or defendant in error, or his attorney of record, of the filing of such brief, and that in twenty days after such notice the appellee or defendant in error shall file a copy of his brief with the clerk of said court below, and with the clerk of the court of civil appeals four copies.

Briefs filed in courts below and notice given. (Acts of 1892, S. S.)

Art. 1418. [1417] Where a cause shall be removed by appeal or writ of error to the appellate court, the cause shall remain, or be replaced on the docket to await the mandate of the appellate court.

Case appealed, etc., to remain on docket till, etc.

Art. 1419. [1418] Upon the return of the mandate, if the judgment of the court below be reversed by the appellate court, the cause shall stand for trial in its order on the docket.

Proceedings on return of mandate.

Art. 1420. [1419] If the judgment of the court below be affirmed in the appellate court, the court below shall make such orders as may be necessary to carry out the judgment of the appellate court, and the cause shall be dropped from the docket.

Proceedings in case of affirmation of judgment.

Art. 1422. [1420a] It shall be lawful for the clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace to demand payment of all costs due in each and every case pending in their respective courts, up to the adjournment of each term of said courts.

Art. 1423. [1420b] Should any party against whom costs have been taxed under the provisions of this chapter fail or refuse to pay the same within ten days after demand for payment, it shall be lawful for the clerk or justice of the peace to make out a certified copy of the bill of costs then due, as herein provided for, and place the same in the hands of the sheriff or constable for collection, and such certified bill of costs shall have the force and effect of an execution. The removal of a case by appeal shall not prevent the district clerk, county clerk or justice of the peace from issuing his execution for costs at the end of the term at which the appeal is taken.

Art. 1424. [1420c] It shall be lawful for the sheriff or constable, upon demand and failure to pay said bill of costs, to levy upon a sufficient amount of property of the person from whom said costs may be due to satisfy the same, and sell such property according to the law governing sales under execution; provided, where such party is not a resident of the county where such suit is pending, then payment of such costs may be demanded of his attorney of record, and neither the clerk nor justice of the peace shall be allowed to charge any fee for making out such certified bill of costs, nor shall the sheriff or constable be allowed any fees for collecting said costs unless he is compelled to make a levy; and in case of levy or sale he shall charge and collect the same fee as are allowed for collecting money under other executions.

Art. 1425. [1421] The successful party to a suit shall recover of his adversary all the costs expended or incurred therein, except where it is or may be otherwise provided by law.

Art. 1426. [1422] All taxes imposed on law proceedings shall be included in the bill of costs.

Art. 1427. [1423] There shall not be allowed in any cause the fees of more than two witnesses to any one fact.

Art. 1428. [1424] On all motions the court may give or refuse costs at its discretion, except where it is otherwise provided by law.

Art. 1429. [1425] Where a pleading is excepted to, if such exception be sustained, all the costs of such exception and of the pleading adjudged to be insufficient, shall be taxed against the party filing such insufficient pleadings.

Art. 1430. [1426] If such exception be overruled, all costs of such exception shall be taxed against the party taking the exception.

Art. 1431. [1427] Where any plaintiff shall bring in the same court several suits against the same defendant for causes of action which should have been joined, he shall recover the costs of one action only; and the costs of the other actions shall be adjudged against him, unless sufficient reasons appear to the court for instituting several actions.

Art. 1432. [1428] Where the plaintiff's demand is reduced by payment to an amount which would not have been within the jurisdiction of the court, the defendant shall recover his costs.

- Art. 1433. [1429] In all civil actions for assault and battery, slander and defamation of character, if the verdict or judgment shall be for the plaintiff, but for a less sum than twenty dollars, the plaintiff shall not recover his costs, but each party shall be taxed with the costs incurred by him in such suit. Costs in action of assault and battery, etc. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §106.) P. D. 1467.
- Art. 1434. [1430] The costs of all new trials may either abide the event of the suit or may be taxed against the party to whom the new trial is granted, as may be adjudged by the court at the time of granting such new trial. Cost of new trials. Ib. §113. P. D. 1474.
- Art. 1435. [1431] When the judgment is arrested or the verdict set aside because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the party in whose favor the verdict or judgment was rendered, the costs thereof shall be taxed against the party whose pleadings shall have been so adjudged insufficient. Where judgment is arrested, etc. Ib. §114. P. D. 1475.
- Art. 1436. [1432] In cases of appeal or certiorari taken by the party against whom the judgment was rendered in the court below, if the judgment of the court above be against him, but for a less amount, such party shall recover the costs of the court above, but shall be adjudged to pay the costs of the court below; if the judgment be against him for the same or a greater amount than in the court below, the adverse party shall recover the costs of both courts. On appeal and certiorari. (Act Aug. 13, 1870, p. 87, §12.) P. D. 6349.
- Art. 1437. [1433] In cases of appeal or certiorari taken by the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered in the court below, if the judgment of the court above be in his favor for a greater amount, such party shall recover the costs of both courts; if the judgment be in his favor, but for the same or a less amount than in the court below, he shall recover the costs of the court below and pay the cost of the court above. Same subject. Ib.
- Art. 1438. [1434] The court may, for good cause, to be stated on the record, adjudge the costs otherwise than as provided in the preceding articles of this chapter. Court may otherwise adjudge costs.
- Art. 1439. [1435] The clerk may require from the plaintiff in a suit security for costs before issuing any process therein, but he shall file the petition and enter the same properly on the docket. Clerk may require security for costs. (Act March 20, 1848, p. 184, §23.) P. D. 3833.
- Art. 1440. [1436] The plaintiff in any civil suit may, at any time before final judgment, upon motion of the defendant or any officer of the court interested in the costs accruing in such suit, be ruled to give security for the costs; and if such rule be entered against the plaintiff and he fail to comply therewith on or before the first day of the next term of the court, the suit shall be dismissed. Defendant or any officer may require security. (Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, §1.)
- Art. 1441. [1437] All bonds given as security for costs shall authorize judgment against all the obligors in such bond for the said costs, to be entered in the final judgment of the cause. Judgment on cost bond. Ib. §2.
- Art. 1442. [1438] A party, who is required to give security for costs, may file with the clerk an affidavit that he is too poor to pay the costs of court, and is unable to give security therefor, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk to issue process and to perform all other services required of him in the same manner as if the security had been given; provided, the clerk or justice of the peace shall have the right to contest, by proof or otherwise, the inability of the party to pay the costs, or his inability to give security for the same, said contest to be tried by the judge or justice of the peace at the next term after the filing of the contest. Affidavit of inability to give. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §8.) P. D. 1429. (Acts of 1873, ch. 81, p. 91.)

No security to be required of executors, etc. (Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, §4.) P. D. 1503.

No security required of state.

Security may be required of intervenors, etc.

Costs may be secured by other bonds, etc.

Art. 1443. [1439] Executors, administrators and guardians appointed by the courts of this state, shall not be required to give security for costs in any suit brought by them in their fiduciary character.

Art. 1444. [1440] The state shall not in any case be required to give security for costs.

Art. 1445. [1441] The provisions of this chapter relating to security for costs by the plaintiff shall also apply to an intervenor, and to a defendant who seeks a judgment against the plaintiff on a counter claim after the plaintiff shall have discontinued his suit under the provisions of this title relating to discontinuance.

Art. 1446. [1442] When the costs are secured by the provisions of an attachment or other bond filed by the party required to give security for costs, no further security shall be required.

Art. 1465. Receivers may be appointed by any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, in the following cases:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim, or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

3. In cases where a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.

4. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

Art. 1466. No party, attorney, or any person interested in any way in an action for the appointment of a receiver shall be appointed receiver therein, nor shall any person be appointed receiver in any case where the property lies within this state, unless the person appointed at the time of his appointment is a bona fide citizen of the state of Texas and qualified to vote, and during the pendency of said receivership the person or persons so appointed receiver shall keep and maintain actual residence within this state. And if in any action for the appointment of a receiver the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated partly in this state and partly without, then no person shall be appointed receiver of that part of the property situated in this state unless such person at the time is a bona fide citizen of this state and qualified to vote, and during the pendency of said receivership the person or persons so appointed receiver shall keep and maintain actual residence within this state.

Who disqualified to act as receiver.
(Acts of 1889, p. 55.)

Art. 1467. If any person should be appointed receiver of property situated in this state, or a part of which is situated in this state and a part without, who is not at the time a bona fide citizen of this state and entitled to vote, all such appointments shall be absolutely null and void in so far as the property situated within this state is concerned.

When appointment void.
Ib.

Art. 1468. If any corporation owning property in this state and chartered by this state shall have a receiver of its property situated in this state appointed who is not at the time of appointment a bona fide citizen of this state and qualified to vote, said corporation shall thereby forfeit its charter, and it shall be the duty of the attorney-general to at once prosecute a suit by quo warranto against said corporation so offending to forfeit its charter, and the court trying the cause shall forfeit the charter of said corporation upon proof that a person has been appointed receiver of its property situated in this state who is not qualified to act under the provisions of this article.

Quo warranto to forfeit charter.
Ib.

Art. 1469. When a receiver is appointed he shall, before he enters upon his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully, and shall execute a bond, with three or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court appointing him, in such sum as the court shall see proper to fix, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all of the duties of receiver in the action [naming it] and obey the orders of the court therein.

Oath and bond of receiver.
(Acts of 1887, p. 120.)

Art. 1470. The receiver shall have power, under the control of the court, to bring and defend actions in his own name as receiver, to take charge and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect, compound for, compromise demands, make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize.

Receiver's power.
Ib.

Art. 1471. The funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest by order of the court, but no such order shall be made except upon consent of all the parties to the action.

Funds, how invested.
Ib.

Art. 1472. All moneys that come into the hands of a receiver as such receiver shall be applied as follows: First, to the payment of all court costs of the suit; second, to the payment of all wages of employes due by the receiver; third, to the payment of all debts due by the receiver for materials and supplies purchased during the Application of funds in hand of receiver, and claims preferred.

(Acts of 1889, p. 55.)

receivership by the receiver for the improvement of the property in his hands as receiver; fourth, to the payment of all debts due for betterments and improvements done during the receivership to the property in his hands as such receiver; fifth, to the payment of all claims and accounts against the receiver on contracts made by the receiver during the receivership, and for all claims for stock and personal injury claims against said receiver accruing during said receivership, and all judgments rendered against said receiver for personal injuries and for stock killed; sixth, all judgments recovered against the person or persons or corporations in suits brought before the appointment of a receiver in the action. And said claims shall have a preference lien on all of the moneys coming into the hands of the receiver which are the earnings of the property in his hands, and the court shall see that the money coming into the hands of the receiver as earnings of the property in his hands is paid out on the claims against said receiver in the order of their preference as named above, and it shall be the duty of the receiver to pay the funds in his hands which are the earnings of the property while in his hands as receiver on the claims against him in the order of preference named above.

Proceedings in suits where receiver is discharged.
Ib.

Art. 1473. If a receiver is discharged pending suits against him for causes of action growing out of and arising during the receivership, the cause of action shall not abate, but may be prosecuted to final judgment against the receiver, and the plaintiff in the action may, if he sees proper, make the party or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property that was in his hands as receiver a party to the suit, and if judgment is finally rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the receiver, the court shall also enter up judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the party to whom the property was delivered by the receiver.

When property in the hands of receiver subject to execution.
Ib.

Art. 1474. If any person should sue a receiver and obtain judgment against such receiver, and said receiver shall have in possession moneys subject to the payment of such judgment, and the plaintiff owning the judgment shall apply to the court appointing the receiver for an order to pay said judgment, and if the court appointing the receiver should refuse to order said judgment paid, when there is money in the hands of said receiver subject to the payment of the judgment, then it shall be the duty of the court rendering the judgment to order an execution to issue on said judgment against said receiver upon the filing by the plaintiff in the court where the judgment was rendered an affidavit stating the facts that the plaintiff had applied to the court appointing the receiver for an order for said receiver to pay said judgment, and that it was proved to the court that there was money in the hands of the receiver at that time which was subject to the payment of the judgment, and that the court appointing the receiver refused to order the receiver to pay the judgment; said execution when so issued shall be levied upon any property in the hands of the receiver and shall be sold as under ordinary executions, and a sale of the property will convey the title of the same to the purchaser.

Judgments a first lien on property, and property charged with lien after receivership.
Ib.

Art. 1475. All judgments rendered against a receiver for causes of action arising during the receivership shall be a lien upon all of the property in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien; and if the property should be turned back into the possession of the party or corporation who were owning same at the time of the appointment of a receiver or any one else for them, or as their assigns or purchasers, the party or corporation so receiving said property from said receiver shall take said property charged with all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver occurring during the receivership, to the value of the property delivered by the receiver.

Art. 1476. If a receiver is discharged by the court before all of the liabilities of the receiver arising during the receivership are settled in full, then the person, persons, or corporation to whom the receiver delivers the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable to the persons having claims against said receiver for the full amount of the liabilities.

Persons to whom property delivered liable for debts.
Ib.

Art. 1477. The discharge of a receiver shall not work an abatement of the suit against a receiver, nor shall it in any way affect the right of the party to sue the receiver if he sees proper.

Effect of discharge of receiver.
Ib.

Art. 1478. All parties and corporations whose property has been placed in the hands of a receiver by order of the court, and which was not sold by the receiver, and which property has been delivered back to the original parties or corporation without any sale of said property, shall be liable and held to pay all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver in causes of action arising out of and during the receivership; and if there are any suits pending against the receiver at the date of discharge, on causes of action arising during the receivership, the plaintiff shall have the right to make the party or corporation to whom the receiver delivered the property which was in his hands as receiver a party defendant along with the receiver; and if any judgment is rendered against the receiver for causes of action arising out of and during the receivership, then the court shall also at the same time (if the party or corporation receiving back the property have been made parties defendant) render judgment in favor of the plaintiff against defendants for the amount so found for plaintiff and all costs, and plaintiff shall have the right to foreclose his lien on the property delivered back by said receiver to said party or corporation.

Property redelivered by receiver without sale still liable for debts; suits do not abate, but new party may be made.
Ib.

Art. 1479. If at the date of the discharge of the receiver there are any judgments or claims not sued on against a receiver arising during the receivership, and which judgments and claims not sued on are unpaid at the date of the discharge of said receiver, said unpaid judgments and unpaid claims not sued on shall be a preference lien on all of the property that was in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien, and the person or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable for all unpaid judgments and unpaid claims not sued on to the value of the property that was delivered by the receiver to said person or corporation.

Judgments and unsued claims have preference lien over mortgage.
Ib.

Art. 1480. Any person having a claim against a receiver not sued on at the date of the discharge of the receiver, shall have the right to sue said receiver either alone or jointly with the person or corporation to whom the receiver delivered said property that was in his hands as such receiver; and if any judgment is rendered against said receiver, a judgment shall also be rendered against the person or corporation for the same amount that is rendered against the receiver, not to exceed the value of the property so received by said person or corporation.

Receiver and person to whom property is delivered both liable and may be sued for unpaid claim.
Ib.

Art. 1481. In any case in which any receiver is sued in any of the courts of this state, and such receiver desires to take an appeal from any judgment which may be rendered against him in any justice or county court, or to take an appeal or writ of error from any judgment which may be rendered against him in any district court, before such appeal or writ of error shall be perfected or allowed such receiver shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, payable to the appellee or the defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest, and cost, conditioned that such receiver shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and in case the judgment of the court to which such appeal or writ of error be taken shall be against him, that he will perform its judgment, sentence, or decree, and pay all such damages and costs as said court may award against him. In the event that the judgment of the court to which such appeal or error is taken shall be against such receiver, judgment shall at the same time be entered against the sureties on his said bond, and execution thereon may issue against such sureties within twenty days after the rendition of such judgment.

Receiver to give bond on appeal.
Ib.

Railroad funds, where deposited. (Acts of 1887, p. 122.)

Art. 1482. When a line of railroad operated by a receiver lies wholly within this state, all money which comes into the hands of the receiver, whether from operating the road or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this state as the court may direct, until properly disbursed; but if any portion of the road lies in another state the receiver shall be required to deposit in this state at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the company within this state.

Receiver may sue, or be sued without leave; effect of judgment against. Ib.

Art. 1483. When any property of any kind within the limits of this state has been placed, by order of court, in the hands of a receiver, who has taken charge of such property, such receiver may, in his official capacity, sue or be sued in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the cause of action, without first having obtained leave of the court appointing such receiver to bring said suit, and if a judgment is recovered against said receiver it shall be the duty of the court to order said judgment paid out of any funds in the hands of said receiver as such receiver.

Suits against receiver, where brought. Ib.

Art. 1484. Actions may be brought against the receiver of the property of any person where said person resides. Actions may be brought against receivers of a corporation in the county where the principal office of said corporation may be located, and against receivers of railroad companies in any county through or into which the road is constructed, and service of summons may be had upon the receiver, or upon the general or division superintendent of the road, or upon any agent of said receiver who resides in the county in which the suit is brought.

Master in chancery, qualification, duties and appointments. Ib.

Art. 1485. The court shall, in every case of the appointment of receiver, also after his disqualifying, appoint a master in chancery, who shall be a citizen of this state, and not an attorney for either party to the action, nor related to either party, who shall perform all of the duties required of him by the court, and shall be under orders of the court, and have such power as a master of chancery has in a court of equity.

Inventory to be made and returned by receiver. Ib.

Art. 1486. The receiver, as soon after his appointment as possible, shall return to the court appointing him a true and correct inventory of all property received by him as such receiver.

Jurisdiction to appoint receiver confined to courts of this state in certain cases. Ib.

Art. 1487. When a person resides in this state and a receiver is applied for, or if the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated within the limits of this state, no court other than one within the limits of this state shall have power to appoint any receiver of said property.

Art. 1488. If the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is a corporation whose property lies within this state, or partly within this state, then the action to have a receiver appointed shall be brought in this state in the county where the principal office of said corporation is located.

Receiver of corporation, where applied for.
Ib.

Art. 1489. When a receiver of a corporation has, under the order of the court, made improvements upon the property of said corporation, and has also, under the order of the court appointing him, purchased rolling stock, machinery, and made other improvements whereby the value of the property of said corporation has been increased, or has extended such road, or acquired any property in connection with said road, and has paid for same out of the current receipts of the corporation that came into his hands as receiver, then, if there be any floating debts against said corporation, said corporation shall be made to contribute to the floating indebtedness to the full value of the money so spent by said receiver as aforesaid; and if there are any liens of any kind upon the property of said corporation in the hands of such receiver, and said property is sold under the order of the court, and said liens foreclosed, then it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the court appointing such receiver, if there be any unpaid debts or judgments, or claims against the corporation itself, to detain in the hands of the clerk of the court money to the full value of the improvements made by said receiver of said property out of the proceeds of the sale of the property sold, and pay the same over to any person or persons who has or may have a claim, debt, or judgment against said corporation; and the court in ordering the sale of the property shall require sufficient cash money to be paid in at date of sale to cover the full value of the improvements so made by said receiver out of the current funds received by him from the property while receiver.

Where there are betterments, general creditors have rights to be protected.
Ib.

Art. 1490. All judgments, claims, or causes of action when determined, existing against any corporation at the time of the appointment of a receiver, shall be paid out of the earnings of such corporation while in the hands of the receiver, to the exclusion of mortgage action; and the same shall be a lien on such earnings.

Judgments and other claims have preference over mortgage.
Ib.

Art. 1491. No corporation shall be administered in any court for a longer period than three years from the date of such appointment; and within three years such court shall wind up the affairs of such corporation, unless prevented by appeal of litigation.

Receivership of corporations limited to three years.
Ib.

Art. 1492. No receiver shall ever be appointed of any joint stock, incorporated company, or of any copartnership or private person, on the petition of such joint stock, incorporated company, partnership or person; provided, that any stockholder or stockholders of such joint stock or incorporated company may have his or their action against such company, and may have a receiver appointed as in ordinary cases; and provided further, that nothing herein shall prevent a member of any copartnership from having a receiver appointed whenever a cause of action arises between the copartners.

Application for receiver, by whom made.
Ib.

Art. 1493. In all matters relating to the appointment of receivers, and to their powers, duties, and liabilities, and to the powers of the court in relation thereto, the rules of equity shall govern whenever the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and the general laws of the state.

Rules of equity shall govern in receivership proceedings.
Ib.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS.

Art. 1494. [1471] Whenever in any suit it shall appear that an investigation of accounts or examination of vouchers is necessary for the purposes of justice between the parties, the court shall appoint an auditor or auditors to state the accounts between the parties and to make report thereof to the court as soon as may be.

Report to be verified by affidavit.

Art. 1495. [1472] The report of the auditor shall be verified by his affidavit, stating that he has examined carefully the state of the account between the parties, and that his report contains a true statement thereof, so far as the same has come to his knowledge.

Shall be admitted in evidence, but, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1496. [1473] The report of the auditor shall be admitted in evidence, but may be contradicted by evidence from either party where exceptions to such report, or of any items thereof, shall have been filed before the trial.

Compensation of.

Art. 1497. [1474] The court shall award reasonable compensation to such auditor, which shall be allowed and taxed in the bill of costs, as in other cases.

SUBSTITUTION OF LOST RECORDS AND PAPERS.

Lost records and papers supplied, on motion.
(Act Feb. 11, 1850, p. 160, §1.)
P. D. 4969.

Art. 1498. [1475] Whenever the records and papers of a cause, or any part thereof, may be lost or destroyed, either before or after the trial, the same may be supplied by either party, on motion before the court, upon three days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney.

Motion, requisites of.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 4970.

Art. 1499. [1476] Such motion shall be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney, and shall be verified by affidavit. It shall state the loss or destruction of such record or papers, and shall be accompanied by certified copies of the originals, if they can be had, and if not, then substantial copies thereof as near as may be.

If substitutes agreed to.

Art. 1500. [1477] If the adverse party admit the correctness of such copies, and the court be satisfied that they are correct copies in substance of the originals, an order shall be made substituting such copies for the originals.

If not agreed to, court may hear proof, etc.

Art. 1501. [1478] If their correctness be not admitted, or if the court do not find them to be correct, the parties shall submit their respective statements to the judge, and he shall hear proof as to the contents of such lost records and papers, and correct copies thereof shall be made up under the direction of the judge.

Adverse party may supply.

Art. 1502. [1479] The adverse party may, in the same proceedings, supply any other portions of such records and papers desired by him.

Parties may agree on brief statement, etc.

Art. 1503. [1480] The parties may, by consent in writing, with the approval of the judge, agree on a brief statement of the matters contained in such lost records and papers, and the court may by an order substitute such statement for the lost originals.

Substituted copies constitute record.
(Act to adopt and establish R. C. S. passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 1504. [1481] Such substituted copies or brief statement of their contents, as the case may be, made up under the preceding articles of this subdivision, shall be filed with the clerk, and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and shall have all the force and effect of the originals.

Article 1504a. An action may be brought and prosecuted to final decree, judgment, or order, by any person claiming a right or interest in or to any property in this state, against any person or persons who are non-residents of this state, or whose place of residence is unknown, or who are transient persons, who claim an adverse estate, or interest in, or who claim any lien or incumbrance on said property, for the purpose of determining such estate, interest, lien, or incumbrance, and granting the title to said property, or settling the lien or incumbrance thereon.

Actions maintainable against non-residents. (Acts of 1893, p. 77.)

Art. 1504b. Such action may be maintained by any such person whether he is in actual possession of such property or not, and service on the defendant or defendants may be made by publication of the writ or notice of the same, as is now or hereafter may be provided by law for publication of citation against non-residents, persons unknown, or transient persons.

Actual possession not necessary; service, etc. Ib.

Art. 1504c. The pleadings in such case shall set forth the title of the complainant, as well as the claim of the defendant, if known, and such proceedings shall be had in such action as may be necessary to fully settle and determine the question of right or title in and to said property between the parties to said suit, and to decree the title or right of the party entitled thereto; and the court may issue the appropriate order to carry such decree, judgment, or order, into effect.

Requisites of pleadings. Ib.

Art. 1504d. No judgment by default shall be taken in such case by reason of the failure of the defendant to answer, but the facts entitling the plaintiff to judgment shall be exhibited to the court on the trial, and a statement of the facts shall be filed as may be provided by law in suits against non-residents of this state where no appearance has been made by them.

Judgment by default can not be rendered. Ib.

Art. 1504e. In case said suit shall be for the extinguishment of any lien or claim for money on said property that may be held by the defendant, the amount thereof, with interest, shall be ascertained by the court, and the same shall be deposited in the registry of the court, subject to be drawn by the defendant or defendants entitled thereto; but in such case no decree shall be entered until said sum is deposited, which fact shall be noted in said decree.

Procedure if suit be to extinguish lien. Ib.

Art. 1504f. The judgment of the court, in the cases mentioned, shall be received in evidence, under the rules governing evidence that may be established by law, and said judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto concerning the matters determined therein.

Judgment in such cases receivable in evidence. Ib.

Texarkana civil and criminal court established. (Acts of 1895, p. 10.)

Article 1531h. There is hereby established and created a court to be held in the city of Texarkana, in Bowie county, Texas, which is hereby styled "Texarkana civil and criminal court."

Art. 1531i. Within that portion of the territory of Bowie county described in article 1531j, the "Texarkana civil and criminal court" shall have and exercise all the jurisdiction, power and authority in both civil and criminal cases which is now or may hereafter be vested by the constitution and the laws of this state in the district courts of this state, except such jurisdiction, power and authority as are specially withheld from said court by this chapter, and said court shall also have original jurisdiction of all suits, complaints and pleas whatever, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, as well as of all proceedings under distress warrants issued by justices of the peace when the amount in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars exclusive of interest; but said court shall have no jurisdiction in probate matters, and the jurisdiction of the county court of Bowie county as a probate court, and the jurisdiction of the district court of said county in probate matters shall not in any manner be affected, altered or changed by this chapter. Said Texarkana civil and criminal court shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction of all the criminal cases, both felonies and misdemeanors, where the offense is committed in that portion of Bowie county described in article 1531j, and over which justices of the peace and mayors' or recorders' courts have not jurisdiction under the laws of this state, and shall have appellate jurisdiction of all cases, both civil and criminal, over which justices of the peace and mayors' and recorders' courts of cities and towns have original jurisdiction, and in which cases appeals are now or may hereafter be by law allowed to be prosecuted to the county court.

Jurisdiction
defined.
Ib.

Art. 1531j. The court established by this chapter shall be held for and its jurisdiction shall extend over and be confined to the following described territory: All that portion of Bowie county, Texas, lying east of the following line: Beginning at a point on the south bank of Red river, same being the southeast corner of a survey in the name of C. M. Collum, as shown by a map of Bowie county; then westerly to the northeast corner of the L. Peters survey, as shown by said map; thence south with said L. Peters' east boundary line and the extension thereof produced to the north bank of Sulphur Fork of Red river.

Territorial jurisdiction.
Ib.

Art. 1531k. The district judge of the judicial district in which Bowie county is or may hereafter be situated shall be ex officio judge of the "Texarkana civil and criminal court," and shall hold and preside over the same.

District judge to preside.
Ib.

Art. 1531l. The clerk of the district court of Bowie county shall be ex officio clerk of the court established by this chapter, and shall keep an office in the building where said court is held, from which building the process of said court shall issue; and said clerk shall have the custody of all minutes, records, books, papers, and seal of said court, and shall keep the same in said office; and when he does not reside in Texarkana, he shall have a deputy or deputies residing there. He shall be provided with a seal having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and the words "Texarkana civil and criminal court, Bowie county, Texas," the impress of which seal shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of said court, and shall be used to authenticate his official acts as such clerk. He shall provide and keep for said court such dockets, minute books, and record books of all kinds, and keep such records and minutes of the proceedings of said court as are required by law to be kept of and for the district courts of this state, and perform such duties as district clerks perform.

District clerk to serve; his duties; seal,
etc.
Ib.

Sheriff; his duties, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1531m. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of Bowie county to attend upon said court, and to execute its process either in person or by deputy, and when he does not reside in Texarkana, he shall keep one or more deputies residing there.

District and county attorney to serve.
Ib.

Art. 1531n. The district attorney of the judicial district in which Bowie county is or may be hereafter situated shall be ex officio attorney for the state in the court established by this chapter, and it shall be his duty to represent the state in all cases in said court to which the state is a party, except in such criminal cases as may be in said court on appeal from justices' courts, and on presentment by information filed by the county attorney of Bowie county, in which cases the county attorney of said county shall represent the state. All the provisions of the law regulating the respective duties, powers and privileges of district and county attorneys in the district and county courts of this state shall apply in this court, when not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter.

Fees.
Ib.

Art. 1531o. The clerk of the court established by this chapter, and all other officers attending upon it, or executing its process, and the attorney representing the state therein, shall receive and be paid the same fees and in the same manner as such officers are or may hereafter be paid for like services in the district and county courts of this state.

General rules of practice applicable.
Ib.

Art. 1531p. The rules adopted and which may be hereafter adopted by the supreme court of the state of Texas for the district and county courts shall govern this court, and the proceedings in this court shall conform to the rules and practices governing district courts, and all provision of the laws of this state governing district courts and providing for special judges by agreement, and also providing for the election or appointment of special judges for the same, shall apply to and govern this court, as far as applicable, and when not otherwise provided herein.

Terms of court.
Ib.

Art. 1531q. The district judge presiding over the court established by this chapter shall hold at least two regular terms of said court in each year, one term to be begun and holden on the sixth Monday after the fourth Monday in August in each year, and may continue in session for three weeks, and the other term to be begun and holden on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in February of each year, and may continue in session for three weeks, and he shall hold such special terms as may be authorized in accordance with the law governing special terms of the district courts.

Venue of suits and prosecutions.
Ib.

Art. 1531r. No inhabitant of that portion of Bowie county described in article 1531j shall be sued in the district court of Bowie county nor in the county court of said county in any action over which the court established by this chapter has jurisdiction, except in such cases as he might be sued in such courts as if he were an inhabitant of any other county than Bowie, or state than Texas, nor shall any person be presented or indicted therein for any offense committed in said county of Bowie within the territory or district described in article 1531j.

Power to issue writs and process.
Ib.

Art. 1531s. The court established by this chapter shall have power to issue all writs and process as may issue by the district courts of this state.

Jury commissioners; their qualifications.
Ib.

Art. 1531t. The judge of the court established by this chapter shall at each term thereof appoint three persons to perform the duties of jury commissioners for said court, who shall possess the following qualifications:

1. They shall be intelligent citizens residing in that portion of Bowie county described in article 1531j, and be able to read and write.

2. They shall be freeholders in Bowie county, and qualified jurors in the court established by this chapter.

3. They shall have no suit in the court established by this chapter which requires the intervention of a jury.

Art. 1531u. All provisions of the laws of this state relating to the appointment, organization, privileges, powers, duties and compensation of jury commissioners for the district courts of this state shall apply to and govern the appointment, organization, privileges, powers, duties and compensation of the jury commissioners of the court established by this chapter, as far as practicable, and when not otherwise provided herein.

General laws governing jury commissioners, applicable.
Ib.

Art. 1531v. The grand and petit jurors for the court established by this chapter shall reside in that portion of Bowie county described in article 1531j, and shall possess the qualifications prescribed by law for grand and petit jurors for the district courts, and all provisions of the laws of this state relating to the selection, exemption, organization, empaneling, privileges, powers, duties and compensation of grand and petit juries in any manner, shall apply to and govern the selection, organization, empaneling, privileges, powers and duties, compensation and exemption of the grand and petit juries of the court established by this chapter, as far as applicable, and when not otherwise provided herein.

Appearance day.
 Ib. §18.

Article 1607. [1577] The first day of each term of the justice's court after the return of process duly served in any cause shall be appearance day; but where the service was made by publication, the first day of the second term after such publication shall be appearance day.

Proceedings where defendant fails to appear.
 Ib. §18.

Art. 1608. [1578] If the defendant, who has been duly served with a citation, shall fail to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m., on appearance day, the justice shall proceed in the following manner:

1. If the plaintiff's cause of action be liquidated and proved by an instrument of writing purporting to have been executed by the defendant, or be upon an open account duly verified by affidavit, the justice shall, whether the plaintiff appear or not, render judgment in his favor against the defendant for the amount of such written obligation or sworn account, after deducting all credits indorsed thereon.

2. If the plaintiff's cause of action is not so liquidated, and the plaintiff appears in person or by agent or attorney, the justice shall proceed to hear the testimony, and if it shall appear therefrom that the plaintiff is entitled to recover, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for such amount as the testimony shows the plaintiff entitled to; otherwise judgment shall be rendered for the defendant.

Appearance noted.

Art. 1609. [1579] If the defendant appear, the same shall be noted on the docket and the cause shall stand for trial in its order.

Jury trial may be demanded. (Const., art. 1, §15.)

Art. 1610. [1580] Either party may demand a jury as herein after provided.

Court shall try case, when.
 Ib.

Art. 1611. [1581] If neither party shall demand and be entitled to a jury trial, the cause shall be tried by the justice without a jury.

Call of the non-jury docket.
 Ib. §41.

Art. 1612. [1582] The docket of cases to be tried by the justice shall be called regularly, and the cases shall be tried when called, unless the same should be continued or postponed to some later period in the term.

Plaintiff failing to appear may be non-sued.
 Ib. 18.

Art. 1613. [1583] If the plaintiff shall fail to appear when the cause is called in its order for trial, the justice may, on motion of the defendant, dismiss the suit.

Proceedings, evidence, etc., to conform to rules governing district courts, etc.
 Ib. §§14-16.

Art. 1614. [1584] Upon a trial before the justice the proceedings shall conform as near as may be to the rules governing the district and county courts, and all the rules of evidence and the provisions for procuring the attendance of witnesses, for taking the depositions of witnesses and parties, and for taking and determining exceptions thereto, prescribed for the government of the district and county courts, shall, when not in conflict with the provisions of this title, govern the proceedings in the justices' courts, so far as the same may be applicable.

Judgment on trial without jury.
 Ib. §11.

Art. 1615. [1585] After hearing the evidence the justice trying the case without a jury shall give judgment for the party who may appear to be justly entitled thereto.

Article 1616. [1586] Either party to any suit in the justice's court shall be entitled to a trial by jury upon making demand therefor and complying with the provisions of this chapter relating thereto. Jury trial may be demanded. (Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 159, §11.)

Art. 1617. [1587] Either party desiring a jury shall, on or before the first day of the term at which the case is to be tried, make a demand for a jury, which shall be noted by the justice in his docket; and shall also deposit a jury fee of three dollars, which shall also be noted on the docket, and the case shall be set down as a jury case. Time of demand and deposit of jury fee.

Art. 1618. [1588] The justice shall, on the first day of the term, fix a day for taking up the jury cases, if any, pending for trial at such term, and he may fix said first day of the term for that purpose. Jury trial day to be fixed.

Art. 1619. [1589] Whenever at any term of a justice's court there may be any jury cases pending for trial, it shall be the duty of the justice to issue a writ directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon six legally qualified jurors, or a greater number should the justice deem it necessary, to attend as a jury before such justice at a day and place to be named in the writ. Summons for jury to be issued, when, etc.

Art. 1620. [1590] The justice on delivering such writ to the officer shall administer to him the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your skill and ability, and without bias or favor toward any party, summon such jurors as may be ordered by the court; that you will select none but impartial, sensible and sober men, having the qualifications of jurors under the law; that you will not directly or indirectly converse or communicate with any juryman touching any case pending for trial; and that you will not, by any means, attempt to influence, advise or control any juryman in his opinion, in any case which may be tried by him, so help you God." Oath to sheriff, etc., summoning jury. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 80, §12.)

Art. 1621. [1591] The officer receiving such writ shall immediately proceed to execute the command thereof by summoning the required number of jurors, to appear before the justice at the day and place named in the writ. Duty of the officer.

Art. 1622. [1592] Such summons shall be by an oral notice by the officer to the juror that he is required to appear as a juror before such justice at the day and place named. Summons to juror, how served.

Venire of jurors to be called.

Art. 1623. [1593] At the time fixed for taking up the jury cases, the justice shall proceed to call the names of the jurors so summoned.

Excuses of juror.

Art. 1624. [1594] The court may hear any reasonable excuse of a juror, supported by oath or affirmation; and may excuse him for the trial of any particular case, or for one or more days of the term.

Defaulting jurors to be fined.

Art. 1625. [1595] When any person so summoned as a juror shall fail or refuse to attend, it shall be the duty of the justice to enter a fine nisi against him for an amount not exceeding five dollars, to the use of the county, to be made final, with costs, unless such person shall, after being cited to do so, show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure, to be judged of by the justice.

Other jurors to be summoned when necessary.

Art. 1626. [1596] If the number of jurors present and not excused be less than six, or less than the justice shall deem necessary, he shall order the sheriff or constable to summon a sufficient number of others, having like qualifications, to make up the required number.

Call of jury docket.

Art. 1627. [1597] When the required number of jurors is present, the jury cases shall be called in their order on the docket.

Challenge to the array, when.

Art. 1628. [1598] When the parties to a jury case have announced themselves ready for trial, either party may challenge the array of jurors.

Challenge to the array, how made, and proceedings therein.

Art. 1629. [1599] The cause of such challenge, and the manner of making it, and the decision thereof and the proceedings when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts in the title "Juries."

Drawing jury. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 82, §22.)

Art. 1630. [1600] If no challenge to the array is made the justice shall write the name of all the jurors present on separate slips of paper, as nearly alike as may be, and shall place them in a box and mix them well, and shall then draw the names one by one from the box, and write them down as they are drawn, upon several slips of paper, and deliver one slip to each of the parties, or their attorneys.

Challenge for cause. lb.

Art. 1631. [1601] If either party desires to challenge any juror for cause, such challenge shall now be made.

Challenge for cause, proceedings on same as in district court, etc.

Art. 1632. [1602] The causes of such challenge, and the manner of making it, and the decision thereof, and the proceedings, when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts.

Peremptory challenges, when and how made.

Art. 1633. [1603] When a juror has been challenged for cause his name shall be erased from the slips furnished to the parties; and if there be remaining on such slips as many as six names, the parties shall proceed to make their peremptory challenges, if they desire to make any, which shall be governed by the same rules as are prescribed for the district and county courts.

The jury.

Art. 1634. [1604] When the parties have made their peremptory challenges, or when they decline to make any, they shall deliver their slips to the justice, who shall call off the first six names on the slips that have not been erased, who shall constitute the jury to try the case. The jurors not called shall retire.

When jury is left incomplete. (Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 82, §22.)

Art. 1635. [1605] Where by peremptory challenges the jury is left incomplete the justice shall direct the sheriff or constable to summon others to complete the jury, and the same proceedings shall be had in selecting and impaneling such jurors as are had in the first instance.

Jurors to be sworn.

Art. 1636. [1606] When the jury has been selected, such of them as have not been previously sworn for the trial of civil cases shall be sworn by the justice.

Art. 1637. [1607] The form of the oath shall be in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that in all cases between parties which shall be to you submitted, you will a true verdict render according to the law and the evidence, so help you God."

Oath of jurors.
P. D. 3984.

Art. 1638. [1608] The mode of proceeding on the trial before the jury shall be the same, so far as applicable, as is prescribed for the district and county courts in the chapters relating thereto, except that the justice shall not deliver any charge to the jury.

Mode of proceeding on trial before jury same as in district courts, etc.

Art. 1639. [1609] Where the suit is for the recovery of specific articles, the jury shall, if they find for the plaintiff, assess the value of each of such articles separately according to the proof.

Verdict for specific articles to assess their value separately. - (Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 163, §19.)

Art. 1640. [1610] Before the verdict is rendered the justice shall pay to each juror fifty cents out of the jury fee deposited in the case.

Pay of jurors.

Art. 1658. [1628] Such execution or other process shall conform to the requirements of article 1598. It shall describe the judgment and shall require the sheriff or constable of the proper county to execute the same, according to its terms, whether the same be to make a sum of money, or to deliver personal property, or to deliver possession of real estate, or to do some other thing; and if for money, it shall state the rate of interest; and it shall also require the officer to make the costs which may have been adjudged against the defendant in execution, and the further costs of executing the writ. A certified copy of the costs, taxed against the defendant in execution according to the fee book up to the issuance of the execution, shall be attached to the writ. Execution.

Art. 1659. [1629] Such execution or other process shall be returnable in sixty days. Returnable in sixty days.
Ib. §22.

Art. 1660. [1630] Within ten days after the rendition of any final judgment of the justice's court it shall be the duty of the justice to tax up the costs in such suit, and to enter the same in his fee book. Taxation of costs.

Art. 1661. [1631] On the eleventh day after the rendition of any final judgment, if the case has not been appealed, and no stay of execution has been granted, it shall be the duty of the justice to issue an execution for the enforcement of such judgment and the collection of the costs. Execution to issue after ten days.
Ib. §22.

Art. 1662. [1632] Such execution may be issued at any time before the eleventh day, upon the filing of an affidavit by the plaintiff in the judgment, or his agent or attorney, to the effect that the defendant is about to remove his property out of the county, or is about to transfer or secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. Within the ten days, when.
Ib.

Art. 1663. [1633] Where an execution from a justice's court is sent to a county other than that in which the judgment was rendered, it shall be accompanied by a certificate of the county clerk and attested by his official signature and seal of office, that the officer issuing the same is an acting justice of the peace in said county; and the cost of procuring such certificate shall be collected as a part of the costs of executing the writ. Appeal may be taken. Ib. §21.

Article 1668. [1638] Any party to a final judgment in the justice's court may appeal therefrom to the county court where such judgment, or the amount in controversy, shall exceed twenty dollars exclusive of costs, and in such other cases as may be expressly provided by law.

Taken to district court, when.

Art. 1669. In all counties in which the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county courts has been transferred to the district courts, appeals and writs of certiorari may be prosecuted to remove a case tried before a justice of the peace to the district court, in the same manner and under the same circumstances under which appeals and writs of certiorari are allowed by general law to remove causes to the county court.

Art. 1670. [1639] The party appealing, his agent or attorney, shall, within ten days from the date of the judgment, file with the justice a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, in double the amount of the judgment, payable to the appellee, conditioned that the appellant shall prosecute his appeal to effect, and shall pay off and satisfy the judgment which may be rendered against him on such appeal. When such bond has been filed with the justice the appeal shall be held to be thereby perfected; but if, upon the call of the docket upon appearance day in the court to which the appeal is taken, the appellee fails to appear in person, or by attorney, the case shall be continued, unless it is shown to the court that notice of the appeal has been given as hereinafter provided; and no judgment by default shall at any time be rendered against an appellee whose appearance has not been entered in the case, unless and until it is made to appear to the court that notice in writing of such appeal has been served upon the appellee, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the first day of the term at which such judgment by default is sought to be taken. Such notice may be signed by the clerk of the court, or by the appellant, his agent or attorney, and may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county, or by any other person competent to make oath of the fact; and the service shall be made by the delivery of a copy thereof to the appellee, his agent or attorney; and such service shall be evidenced by the return thereon of the officer executing the same, or by the oath of such other competent person indorsed thereon and filed with the papers in the case.

Notice bond and other proceedings on appeal. (Acts of 1883, p. 91.)

Art. 1671. [1639a] Where the appellant is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or to give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but in order to do so he shall be required to make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides, or before the court trying the same, at any time within ten days from and after the date of the judgment rendered therein, and shall consist of the affidavit of said party stating his inability to pay the costs, which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit; whereupon it shall be the duty of the court trying the case, or the justice of the peace of the precinct in which said case was tried, or the county judge of the county in which the suit is pending, to hear evidence and to determine the right of the party to his appeal.

Affidavit of inability to give bond. (Acts of 1887, p. 113.)

Art. 1672. [1739b] When the bond, or the affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed, and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal shall be held to be perfected.

When appeal perfected on affidavit. Ib.

Art. 1673. [1640] Whenever an appeal has been granted from the justice's court to the county court it shall be the duty of the justice who made the order immediately to make out a true and correct copy of all the entries made on his docket in the cause, and certify thereto officially, and transmit the same, together with a certified copy of the bill of costs taken from his fee book, and the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court of his county.

Duty of justice in case of appeal. Ib.

Art. 1674. [1641] Such transcript and papers shall, if practicable, be transmitted to the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of the next term of such court; but if there be not time to

Article 1688. [1645] Where any person, having title to any estate of inheritance, real, personal or mixed, shall die intestate, as to such estate, and shall leave no surviving husband or wife, it shall descend and pass in parcenary to his kindred, male and female, in the following course, that is to say—

1. To his children and their descendants.

2. If there be no children nor their descendants, then to his father and mother, in equal portions. But if only the father or mother survive the intestate, then his estate shall be divided into two equal portions, one of which shall pass to such survivor, and the other half shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the deceased, and to their descendants; but if there be none such, then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving father or mother.

3. If there be neither father nor mother, then the whole of such estate shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and to their descendants.

4. If there be none of the kindred aforesaid, then the inheritance shall be divided into two moieties, one of which shall go to the paternal and the other to the maternal kindred, in the following course, that is to say: To the grandfather and grandmother in equal portions, but if only one of these be living, then the estate shall be divided into two equal parts, one of which shall go to such survivor, and the other shall go to the descendant or descendants of such deceased grandfather or grandmother. If there be no such descendants then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving grandfather or grandmother. If there be no surviving grandfather or grandmother, then the whole of such estate shall go to their descendants, and so on without end, passing in like manner to the nearest lineal ancestors and their descendants.

Art. 1689. [1646] Where any person having title to any estate of inheritance, real, personal or mixed, shall die intestate as to such estate, and shall leave a surviving husband or wife, the estate of such intestate shall descend and pass as follows:

1. If the deceased have a child or children, or their descendants, the surviving husband or wife shall take one-third of the personal estate, and the balance of such personal estate shall go to the child or children of the deceased and their descendants. The surviving husband or wife shall also be entitled to an estate for life, in one-third of the land of the intestate, with remainder to the child or children of the intestate and their descendants.

2. If the deceased have no child or children, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to all the personal estate, and to one-half of the lands of the intestate, without remainder to any person, and the other half shall pass and be inherited according to the rules of descent and distribution; provided, however, that if the deceased have neither surviving father nor mother, nor surviving brothers and sisters, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to the whole of the estate of such intestate.

No distinction on account of source of property, except in cases of adoption. (Act March 20, 1861.)

P. D. 3420. (Act to adopt and establish R.C.S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 1690. [1647] There shall be no distinction in regulating the descent and distribution of the estate of a person dying intestate between property which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the father, and that which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the mother; and all the estate to which such intestate may have had title at the time of death shall descend and vest in the heirs of such person in the same manner as if he had been the original purchaser thereof; provided, however, that if such intestate was the legally adopted heir of another, and dies, leaving no surviving husband or wife, and no children, then so much of his estate as was obtained by gift, devise or descent, from the person adopting him, shall descend to the person and his heirs who adopted such intestate.

Rule as to whole and half blood. (Act March 18, 1848.)

P. D. 3424.

Art. 1691. [1648] In cases before mentioned, where the inheritance is directed to pass to the collateral kindred of the intestate, if part of such collateral be of the whole blood, and the other part of the half blood only of the intestate, those of the half blood shall inherit only half so much as those of the whole blood; but if all be of the half blood they shall have whole portions.

No corruption of blood, forfeiture of estate, etc. (Const., Bill of Rights, §21; act March 18, 1848.)

P. D. 3418.

Persons not in being. (Act March 18, 1848.)

P. D. 3423.

Art. 1692. [1649] No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate, nor shall there be any forfeiture by reason of death by casualty, and the estate of those who destroy their own lives shall descend or vest as in case of natural death.

Art. 1693. [1650] No right of inheritance shall accrue to any person whatsoever other than to children or lineal descendants of the intestate, unless they be in being and capable in law to take as heirs at the time of the death of the intestate.

Advancements brought into hotchpotch.

P. D. 3426.

Art. 1694. [1651] Where any of the children of a person dying intestate, or their issue, shall have received from such intestate in his lifetime any real, personal or mixed estate by way of advancement, and shall choose to come into the partition and distribution of the estate with the other distributees, such advancement shall be brought into hotchpotch with the whole estate, and such party returning such advancement shall thereupon be entitled to his proper portion of the whole estate; provided, that it shall be sufficient to account for the value of the property so brought into hotchpotch at the time it was advanced.

Per capita and per stirpes. (Acts of 1887, p. 49.)

Art. 1695. [1652] When the intestate's children, or brothers and sisters, uncles and aunts, or any other relations of the deceased standing in the first and same degree alone come into the partition, they shall take per capita—that is to say, by persons; and when a part of them being dead and a part living, the descendants of those dead have right to partition, such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive.

Art. 1696. [1653] Upon the dissolution of the marriage relation by death, all property belonging to the community estate of the husband and wife shall go to the survivor, if there be no child or children of the deceased or their descendants; but if there be a child or children of the deceased, or descendants of such child or children, then the survivor shall be entitled to one-half of said property, and the other half shall pass to such child or children, or their descendants. But such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive.

Rule as to community estate. (Acts of 1887, p. 76.)

Art. 1697. [1654] In every case the community estate passes charged with the debts against it.

Passes charged with debts. P. D. 5498.

Art. 1698. [1655] Where two or more persons hold an estate, real, personal or mixed, jointly, and one joint owner dies before severance, his interest in said joint estate shall not survive to the remaining joint owner or joint owners, but shall descend to and be vested in the heirs or legal representatives of such deceased joint owner in the same manner as if his interest had been severed and ascertained.

Jus accrescendi abolished. (Act March 18, 1848.) P. D. 3429. (Ross v. Armstrong, 25 Tex., Sup., p. 366.)

Art. 1699. [1656] Where a man, having by a woman a child or children, shall afterward intermarry with such woman, such child or children, if recognized by him, shall thereby be legitimated and made capable of inheriting his estate. The issue also of marriages deemed null in law shall nevertheless be legitimate.

Illegitimate children and issue of void marriages. P. D. 3427.

Art. 1700. [1657] Bastards shall be capable of inheriting from and through their mother, and of transmitting estates, and shall also be entitled to distributive shares of the personal estates of any of their kindred, on the part of their mother, in like manner as if they had been lawfully begotten of such mother.

Bastards inherit from mother. P. D. 3428.

Art. 1701. [1658] In taking title to land by descent, it shall be no bar to a party that any ancestor through whom he derives his descent from the intestate, is or hath been an alien.

Alienage no bar to inheritance. P. D. 44, 45, 46.

Article 1701c. The commissioners' court of any county in this state, at any regular or called session thereof, may, in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall have power, whenever the same shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, or where and whenever the same will be of public benefit or utility, to cause to be straightened, widened, altered, deepened, any creek, bayou, or other stream or water course, and shall cause to be constructed and maintained, as hereinafter provided, any ditch, drain or water course within any of the said counties, and shall have power to make the said improvement, if necessary, by removing from any adjacent lands or any stream or water course any timber, bush, tree or other substance liable to or causing the obstruction thereof, and shall also have power to construct in connection with any such ditch or drain any side, lateral, spur or branch ditch or water course necessary to the accomplishment of this title; provided, however that no ditch, drain, outlet or water course shall be deepened, widened, constructed or maintained without a sufficient outlet being provided for all water that may collect therein; provided further, that the word "ditch" in this title hereafter shall be construed to embrace any ditch, drain or water course that may be constructed under the provisions of this title.

Commissioners' court authorized to construct drains, etc. (Acts of 1895, p. 151.)

Art. 1701d. Before the commissioners' court of such county shall establish any ditch, drain or water course there shall be filed with the clerk of the county court of said county a petition signed by at least five persons who are land owners and whose land will be liable to be affected by or assessed for the expense of the construction of the same, setting forth the necessity thereof, with a general description of the proposed starting point, route and terminus of the said ditch; and said petitioners shall give a bond not to exceed one hundred dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, payable to the said county, to be approved by the clerk of the said court, conditioned to pay all expenses in case the commissioners' court shall fail to establish said proposed ditch, drain or water course. As soon as said petition is filed said court shall, if in regular session, or at their next regular session, appoint a jury of three freeholders and householders of the county, not interested in the construction of the proposed work, and not of kin to any of the parties interested therein, who shall constitute a jury of viewers, who shall meet at a time and place specified by the said court in the order of making said appointment preparatory to commencing their duties as hereinafter specified, and it shall be the duty of the said clerk of the said county court thereupon to issue to the said viewers a certified copy of the petition and order of said court, who shall proceed at the time set in said order with a surveyor, who shall be a civil engineer, or a civil engineer and surveyor, to make an accurate survey of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, from its source to its outlet; and they shall cause stakes or monuments to be set along said line at intervals of one hundred feet, together with such intermediate stakes as may be necessary, and numbered progressively at each one hundred feet; and they shall establish permanent bench marks along said line, at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary; and they shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch, drain or water course, together with the position of stakes or monuments, with numbers corresponding with those on the ground, and the position of bench marks, with their elevations referred to on assumed or previously determined datum. The map should also show the lines and boundaries of adjacent property, and the position of county roads and railroads which may be affected by said ditch or drain, and such information should be obtained as will lead to the determination of the benefits or damages which will accrue from the construction of the same; and they shall prepare a profile of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, which shall show the assumed datum and the grade line of the bottom of the same, and the elevation of each stake or monument and other important feature along the line, such as top of bank and bottom of all ditches or water course and surface of water, top of rail and bottom of tie, foot of embankment, bottom of burrow pits, of all railroads, and center of road, and bottom and top of ditches of highways. And they shall, in tabular form, give the depth of cut, width at bottom and width at top at the source, outlet, and at each one hundred feet stake or monument of said ditch, drain or water course; and they shall make a computation of the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch, drain or water course, and an estimate of the total cost of construction of the whole work, and they shall prepare specifications in detail for the execution of the same; and they shall have power, when they find it necessary, to provide for running said ditch under ground through drain tiles or other materials, as they may deem best, by specifying size of tile or other kind of material to be used in such underground work, and shall include the cost of same in the estimate of the total cost of the work; and they shall set apart and apportion to each parcel of land, and to each corporation, road or railroad, and to the county when public highways are benefited, a share of said work in proportion to the benefits which will result to each from such improvement, and the cost of the construction of each share or allotment separately. And they shall describe each parcel of land to be assessed in the construction of said ditch, giving the number of acres in each tract assessed and an estimate of the number of acres benefited, the amount that each tract will be benefited by the construction of said work, and the amount of each tract as assessed therefor; and they shall also ascertain and give the names of the owners of the lands that are assessed in the construction of said ditch, drain or water course.

as far as they may be able to ascertain by reasonable enquiry and search of the public records, and report whether or not the proposed ditch or drain will be of public utility; and they shall submit with their report a copy of the map and profile of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, and a copy of the specifications for the construction of the same, which, together with the report, shall become a public record, and shall be placed in the custody of the county clerk, to be presented [preserved] as such.

Art. 1701e. Whenever a public ditch, drain or water course is located wholly or in part of the bed of a private ditch already or partially constructed, the viewers shall make an estimate of the number of cubic yards of earth already excavated and the cost of the same on each tract of land, and deduct the same from the assessment thereon.

Estimate to be made by viewers.
Ib.

Art. 1701f. All lands benefited by public ditch, drain or water course shall be assessed in proportion to the benefit to the said lands by the construction thereof, whether it pass through said lands or not; and the viewers in estimating the benefit to lands in controversy by said ditch shall not consider what benefit such lands will receive after some other ditch or ditches shall be constructed, but only the benefits that may be received by reason of the construction of the public ditch as it affords an outlet for the drainage of such lands; and in the making of the said assessment should the viewers find that the construction of said ditch or drain would to any extent construct or constitute a public road of utility to the county in that section, or be a material benefit in the drainage of any public road then constructed, they will assess as against the county such sum as will represent the benefit so accruing to the public; provided, that all assessments for benefits accruing to counties or county roads shall be approved by the commissioners' courts of such counties.

How estimates shall be made by viewers.
Ib.

Art. 1701g. The said jury of viewers, as provided for in this title, shall issue a notice in writing to the land owner through whose lands such proposed ditch or drain may run, or to his or their agent or attorney, of the time when they shall proceed to lay out such ditch, or when they shall proceed to lay out such drain, or when they will assess the damage incidental to the construction of same, which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day named therein; if such owner is a non-resident of the county the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants as to actions in the district or county court, and such ditch or drain may be constructed four weeks after such publication, the cost of publishing the same to be paid as directed by the commissioners' court.

Notice to be issued by viewers to owners of lands affected.
Ib.

Art. 1701h. All persons whose land may be affected by such ditch, drain or water course, shall have the right to appear before said viewers and freely express their opinions on all matters pertaining thereto, and the owner of any such lands may at the time stated in said notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a statement in writing of any objections to or dissatisfaction therewith, and any claim for damages which he may have by reason of the making of the said ditch or drain; and a failure to make such claim in writing, as herein specified, for damages or compensation, shall be deemed and held a waiver for all right thereto, all of which said claim or objection shall be returned to the commissioners' court, in connection with the report of the said viewers.

Owners shall have right to appear before viewers in opposition, etc.
Ib.

Duty of commissioners' court on hearing of petition.
Ib.

Art. 1701i. The commissioners' court, at the time set for the hearing of said petition, shall hear and determine the same, in connection with all remonstrances or objections thereto, and if they find that the said viewers' report is made in accordance with the provisions of this title, and it be in favor of the proposed work, and if they find the proposed ditch or drain to be of public utility, or conducive to public health, or of public benefit or convenience, they shall enter an order on the minutes establishing the same, as specified in the said report, and order the same to be constructed according to the said report, and shall then or thereafter take such further action and make such other and further orders and decrees in the premises as may be proper or necessary to secure the execution of said work. But should said viewers report adversely to the said work, the board shall dismiss the petition and tax the costs as against the said petitioners.

Viewers to take oath; form of.
Ib.

Art. 1701j. The said viewers, before proceeding to act as such, shall take the following oath, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, to-wit: "I do solemnly swear that I will lay out the ditch or drain now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed in the commissioners' court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my ability, skill and knowledge. So help me God."

Appeal available; conditions of.
Ib.

Art. 1701k. Any person or corporation aggrieved thereby may appeal from the final order of the commissioners' court made in said proceedings and entered upon their record to the county court of that county within ten days thereafter, by filing within ten days thereafter a transcript of said proceedings in said county court, and also filing within the said ten days with the clerk of the said court an appeal bond, with at least two good sureties, to be approved by the said county clerk, conditioned that he will prosecute such appeal to effect and pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court; and the said appeal shall be heard and determined upon the following issues, to-wit:

1. Whether said ditch shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare.

2. Whether the route thereof is practicable.

3. Whether the assessments made for the construction of such ditch are in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom.

4. The amount of damages, if any, to be allowed to any person or persons, or corporation; and if more than one person appeal the judge of the said court shall order the said cases to be consolidated and tried together, and the rights of each party shall be separately determined by the said court and jury, if any, in its verdict and final determination, and the cause so appealed and so conducted in said county court shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil cases in said court. Either party to such action may appeal to such appellate court as has jurisdiction of said cause, and said action shall be returnable at once to said appellate court at either of its terms, and said action so filed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all cases of a different character therein pending.

Burden of proof.
Ib.

Art. 1701l. In the trial of all cases so appealed from the order of the commissioners' court the burden of proof shall rest upon the complainant.

Art. 1701m. Every person or corporation through whose lands any public ditch is constructed shall be required to keep the same open, free, and clear from all obstructions upon his or its premises, by him or it placed therein, and in case of failure to do so shall be liable to pay all reasonable and necessary expenses of removing such obstruction.

Grounds to be kept open by owners.
Ib.

Art. 1701n. Whenever the route of the proposed ditch, drain, or water course extends into two or more counties, then a petition shall be signed by at least five free-holders, one or more of whom are land owners in the county other than that of the filing of the petition, and whose lands will be liable to be assessed for the construction of such ditch, and file the same with the clerk of the commissioners' court, the said petition to be filed in the county containing the head or source of the proposed ditch, at least ten days before any regular meeting of the commissioners' court of that county, and thereupon the clerk of such court shall transmit to the clerk of the court of such other county or counties interested therein a certified copy of such petition; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county interested in the proposed work, at their first regular session after such petition is filed, to appoint three disinterested freeholders and householders of their respective counties as viewers, in like manner as is provided for the appointment of viewers on a ditch in but one county, to meet and act jointly at such time and place as the board of commissioners of the county where the petition is filed may designate, and such joint viewers shall have the same power and perform the same duties as is provided in this title for the viewers on a ditch in one county; and they shall file a report of their proceedings with the clerk of each of said counties so interested at least two weeks before the next regular session of the board of commissioners, whereupon the clerk of each county shall give notice in the manner provided for as to ditches in one county, and the time for the hearing thereof shall be set by the respective courts of each county; provided further, that in an action of a joint board of viewers the approval and report of a majority of the whole board shall be necessary to constitute a valid report of said board.

Requisites of petition when drain extends into two or more counties.

Art. 1701o. The joint board of viewers, as herein provided for, of the counties interested in said joint ditch, shall proceed to establish the same in the manner specified in ditches in but one county, and in all matters pertaining to such joint ditch the board of commissioners shall act in the same manner, so far as is applicable, as is required by this title for ditches into but one county, and they shall act jointly, and the same shall be determined by the respective orders of the said respective commissioners' courts, and such further proceedings had thereon as herein provided for in but one county.

Joint viewers to co-operate under orders of their respective courts.
Ib.

Art. 1701p. When any ditch established under this title drains either in whole or in part any public road or railroad, or benefits any such road or railroad, so that the roadbed or travel or track of any such road will be made better by the construction of any such ditch, then the jury of viewers shall apportion to any such county if the same be a public road, or to such railroad if the same be a railroad, such portion of the costs and expenses thereof as herein provided for to private individuals.

Duty of viewers when drain benefits public roads or railroads.
Ib.

Art. 1701q. That in all reports made by any jury of viewers the same shall be sufficient if signed by a majority of said viewers.

Majority report of viewers sufficient.
Ib.

Compensation
of viewers.

Art. 1701r. The said jury of viewers shall each receive the sum of three dollars per day as compensation for said work for each day so actually engaged. And said surveyor and engineer shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the commissioners' court.

Assessments and damages, how paid.
Ib.

Art. 1701s. That all assessments, sums and charges by the said viewers, on order of court assessed against any land or lands shall be a lien thereon, and shall be collected as other assessments and taxes are collected under the general tax laws of this state. That any damages, if any, that the said jury of viewers or commissioners' court assesses in favor of any individual or corporation shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the order of the said court. And any sums assessed against any county on account of any public road shall be paid by the said county under an order of the commissioners' court.

Art. 1704. [1661] All elections shall be held for one day only at each election, and the polls shall be open on that day from eight o'clock a. m. to six o'clock p. m.

Hours of election and for one day only.
(Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 307, §12.)

Art. 1705. The commissioners' court of each county, at their first regular term in each year, if they deem it necessary, may divide their respective justices' precincts into as many election precincts as they shall deem expedient, which shall all be numbered, and no two shall be designated by the same number. No election precinct shall be formed out of any two or more justices' precincts, and they shall designate one place in each of such election precincts at which elections shall be held; and they shall, at their first regular or called term in each year, select and appoint from and among the residents of each election precinct some suitable person to be the presiding officer of each precinct; but each justices' precinct shall constitute at least one election precinct.

Commissioners' court to divide and number precincts, how, and appoint presiding officer and places of holding elections.
(Acts of 1879, p. 38.)

Art. 1706. [1664] In each incorporated city, town or village each ward shall constitute an election precinct; provided, that the commissioners' court of the several counties may and it shall be their duty to divide any ward of any city or town into as many election precincts as they may deem proper; and provided further, that towns and villages incorporated in accordance with chapter eleven of title eighteen shall not necessarily constitute a separate election precinct, except in elections pertaining solely to the affairs of said towns and villages.

City wards, etc., shall be election precincts.
(Acts of 1889, p. 10.)

Art. 1707. [1665a] Each unorganized county in the state of Texas shall constitute an election precinct, and the commissioners' court of a county to which an unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes shall, by an order duly spread on the minutes of the commissioners' court, designate one place within each unorganized county, at which all elections in such unorganized county shall be held.

Precincts in unorganized counties.

Presiding officers in unorganized counties. (Acts of 1881, p. 97.)

Art. 1708. [1665b] It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to which any unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes to appoint some suitable person in each of such unorganized counties, to serve as a presiding officer of elections in said unorganized county, which appointment shall be made in the same manner as in the appointment of presiding officers in election precincts in organized counties.

Voting for commissioners in unorganized counties. (Acts of 1885, p. 89.)

Art. 1709. Each unorganized county of the state of Texas which is attached, for judicial purposes, to an organized county shall be attached, for election purposes, to some one of the commissioners' precincts of such organized county, and voters in such unorganized county shall be authorized to vote in any election for commissioner of such commissioners' precinct; provided, when more than one election precinct has been established by law in such unorganized county of the state, each election precinct therein shall be attached, for election purposes, severally to one of the commissioners' precincts of such organized county, and voters in such election precincts shall be authorized to vote in any election for commissioner of the commissioner's precinct to which such election precinct has been attached.

Presiding officers of elections to be appointed. (Acts of 1883, p. 39.)

Article 1710. [1667] At the first regular or called session of the commissioners' court in each county in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, said court shall select and appoint some suitable and competent person in each election precinct to serve as presiding officer of elections in said precinct, and said appointment shall be noted upon the minutes of the court; provided, that the commissioners' court of any county may have the power when they deem advisable to appoint two presiding officers for each election precinct, one of whom shall be the presiding officer at the ballot-box used for the deposit of ballots cast for electors for president and vice-president of the United States, and members of congress of the United States, and the other presiding officer at the ballot-box used for the deposit of ballots cast for state, district and county officers.

Qualification of presiding officer.

Art. 1711. [1668] No person shall be appointed presiding officer who is not a qualified voter of the precinct for which he is so appointed.

Shall act for what time.

Art. 1712. [1669] A presiding officer appointed by the commissioners' court shall continue to act as such for two years, and until his successor is appointed.

Art. 1713. [1670] Where a presiding officer of elections has been appointed by the commissioners' court, the clerk of said court shall make out a certified copy of the order of appointment, together with a certified copy of the order establishing the election precinct in which he is to preside, and deliver it to the sheriff, who shall deliver the same to such presiding officer.

Certified copy of order of appointment shall be delivered to presiding officer.

Art. 1714. [1671] In case the presiding officer appointed should fail to attend on the day of election, or refuse or fail to act, or in case no presiding officer has been appointed, it shall be lawful for the voters present at the precinct voting place on that day to appoint from among the qualified voters of such precinct a presiding officer to act as such at that election; and the person so appointed shall be authorized to act as presiding officer as fully as if he had been appointed by the commissioners' court.

Voters may appoint presiding officer, when. (Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 307, §9.)

Art. 1715. [1672] Where a presiding officer has been appointed by the voters, as provided in the preceding article, the judges and clerks of the election at such precinct shall, in making the returns of such election, certify that the presiding officer was appointed from and by the voters at the precinct voting place on the day of such election, because there was no regular presiding officer in attendance, or because the regular presiding officer failed or refused to act, as the case may be.

Appointment by voters shall be certified with election returns. Ib.

Art. 1716. [1673] The presiding officer of each election precinct shall, on or before the day of election, select from among the qualified voters of the precinct two judges and two clerks, such selection to be made from the different political parties, if demanded, as far as practicable, and there be present a sufficient number of the party making such demand who are willing and competent to serve in said positions, and the said judges and clerks, together with the presiding officers, shall be the managers of the election.

Judges and clerks of election shall be appointed, etc. Ib. §8.

Art. 1717. [1674] The presiding officer shall, before opening the polls, administer to each judge and clerk of election the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will well and truly conduct the election, without partiality or prejudice and agreeable to law, according to the best of your skill and understanding, so help you God."

Oath to be administered to judges and clerks. Ib. §8.

Art. 1718. [1675] One of the judges of election shall, before opening the polls, administer to the presiding officer of election the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of presiding officer of elections to the best of your skill and understanding, so help you God."

Oath of the presiding officer. Ib.

Art. 1719. [1676] Presiding officers, judges and clerks of election are authorized to administer all oaths necessary or proper in the discharge of their duties as such officers, and to administer all oaths connected in any way with the holding of elections.

Officers of election may administer necessary oaths. Ib. §10.

Art. 1720. [1677] Judges of elections, while in the discharge of their duties as such, shall have the power of a district judge to preserve order and keep the peace. They may appoint special peace officers to act as such during the election, and they, or either of them, may issue warrants of arrest for felony or breach of the peace committed at such election, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, who shall forthwith execute any such warrant, and shall, if so ordered by a judge of the election, commit the party arrested to jail during the election, but the party arrested shall first be permitted to vote, if entitled to do so; and, as soon as practicable after

Governor shall order certain elections. (Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 306, §3.)

Article 1722. [1679] The governor shall, by proclamation, order all elections for state and district officers, electors for president and vice president of the United States, members of congress, members of the legislature, and all other elections required to be ordered by him by the constitution or laws of the state.

County judge shall order certain elections. Ib. §2.

Art. 1723. [1680] It shall be the duty of the county judge of each county, or in case of vacancy in that office or any inability or failure of the county judge to act, then any two of the county commissioners, to order all elections for county and precinct officers, and all other elections required by law to be ordered by the county judge.

Writs of election shall be issued, etc. Ib. §7.

Art. 1724. [1681] The county judge or county commissioners ordering an election shall issue writs of election, wherein shall be particularly stated the officer or officers to be chosen, or the question to be voted upon, or both, as the case may be, and the day of election, and a copy of the form of election returns furnished by the secretary of state shall accompany each writ.

Writs of election shall be delivered to whom, etc.

Art. 1725. [1682] The writs of election and copies of the form of returns, as provided for in the preceding article, shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county, who shall, previous to the day of election, deliver the same to the presiding officer of each election precinct in which the election is ordered to be held, and in case there be no presiding officer in any such election precinct, the writ and form shall be delivered to the qualified voter of such election precinct who resides at or nearest to the voting place in such precinct.

Forms shall be furnished by secretary of state, etc. Ib. §6.

Art. 1726. [1683] Forms of election notices, writs and returns shall be furnished by the secretary of state to the county judge of each county.

Special elections to fill vacancies. Ib. §5.

Art. 1727. [1684] In all cases of vacancy in any civil office of the county, district, or the state, by death, resignation, or otherwise, which by law is filled by special election, the officer or officers authorized by this chapter to order elections shall immediately make such order for an election, fixing the day, not exceeding thirty days off, to fill the unexpired time made vacant, and cause like notice to be given and issue writs as provided for general elections.

Twenty days notice of any election shall be given. (Acts of 1891, p. 13.)

Art. 1728. [1685] Where an election is ordered, at least twenty days' notice of the same shall be given by notice posted up at the place or places designated for holding the election in each election precinct, specifying the time at which such election will be held and the officer or officers to be chosen or the question to be voted upon, or both, as the case may be; and it is hereby made the duty of the county judge of each county, or in case of vacancy in that office or inability or failure to act, then any two of the county commissioners, to have said notices of election posted as required by this article; provided, that in case a vacancy shall occur in the senate or house of representatives during a session of the legislature, then ten days' notice of a special election to fill such vacancy shall be sufficient notice of said election.

Art. 1729. [1686] In all city, town or village elections, where not otherwise provided for by the charter of said city or town, the mayor thereof, or in the event that office is vacant, or when the mayor is unable or fails to act, then any two of the aldermen shall order such elections, give notice thereof and appoint presiding officers, who shall hold the election and make returns to the mayor, under the same regulations and with like effect as in county elections, so far as applicable.

Who shall order, etc., town or city elections. Ib. §23.

Art. 1734. [1691] All qualified voters of the state who shall have resided for six months immediately preceding an election within the limits of any city, town or village, shall have the right to vote for all elective officers of such city, town or village; but in all elections to determine expenditure of money or assumption of debt, only those shall be qualified to vote who pay taxes on property in said city, town or village.

Challenge of vote. (Act March 16, 1848.) P. D. 3603.

Art. 1735. [1692] When any person offering to vote shall be objected to, the managers of elections, or either of them, shall examine the person offering to vote upon oath touching the points of such objection, and if such person fail to establish his qualification to vote to the satisfaction of a majority of the managers of the election, his vote shall be rejected. If his vote be received the word "sworn" shall be written by the clerks upon the poll lists opposite the name of such voter.

When vote challenged, proceedings in certain city elections. (Acts of 1891, p. 47.)

Art. 1736. In any election, state, county or municipal, being held in any city or town of ten thousand inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding United States census, when the right to vote of any elector offering to vote is challenged, proceedings shall be had as prescribed in article 393.

Vote shall be by ballot. (Acts of 1883, p. 39.)

Article 1737. [1693] In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by ballot, which ballot may be either written or printed, or written in part, or printed in part, which ballot shall be deposited in the ballot-box as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that whenever the commissioners' court of any county shall have made an order appointing two presiding officers in each election precinct, as provided in article 1710, then one of said presiding officers shall be designated as the presiding officer to receive and count and return, as provided by law, the ballots for electors for president and vice president of the United States, and members of congress of the United States, and the other of said presiding officers shall be designated as the officer to receive, count and return the ballots cast for state, district and county officers; each to be provided with a metallic or wooden box, to be used for said purpose; and all laws in force pertaining to the holding of elections and making returns thereof shall apply alike to the managers of the election at each of said ballot-boxes.

Art. 1738. [1694] Each of the clerks of an election shall keep a poll list upon which he shall write and number the name of each person who votes at the time of his voting, and one of the judges of election, in every case, shall receive the ballot, and at the time of receiving it shall write upon it the voter's number, corresponding with the number on the clerk's poll list, and shall immediately place the ballot in the ballot-box.

Poll lists and manner of receiving and numbering votes. (Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 308, §16.)

Art. 1739. [1695] No officer of election shall unfold or examine a ballot received, nor shall they examine the same or the indorsement on any ballot by comparing it with the clerk's list of voters when the votes are counted out, nor shall they permit the same to be done, nor shall they examine, or permit to be examined the ballots, subsequent to the same being received into the ballot-box, except in cases specially provided by law.

Secrecy of the ballot guarded. Ib.

Art. 1740. [1696] Immediately after closing the polls, the officers of election shall proceed to count the votes in the presence of two qualified voters of their county of good repute, and of different political parties, if such can be conveniently obtained, and shall continue such count without interruption until all the ballots voted at such election are counted.

Counting the votes. Ib. §17.

Art. 1741. [1697] No ballot which is not numbered as provided in article 1738 shall be counted, nor shall either of two or more ballots folded together be counted, and where the names of two or more persons are upon a ballot for the same office, when but one person is to be elected to that office, such ballot shall not be counted for either of such persons.

Ballots which shall not be counted. Ib. §16.

Art. 1742. All ballots shall be written or printed on plain white paper, without any picture, sign, vignette, device or stamp or mark, except the writing or printing, in black ink or black pencil, of the names of the candidates, and the several offices to be filled, and except the name of the political party whose candidates are on the ticket; provided, such ballots may be written or printed on plain white foolscap, legal cap, or letter paper; provided, that all ballots containing the name of any candidate pasted over the name of any other candidate shall not be counted for such candidate whose name is so pasted, and any ticket not in conformity with the above shall not be counted.

Kind of ballots to be used. (Acts of 1879, p. 119.)

Names not to be pasted over.

Art. 1743. [1698] When the ballots have all been counted, the managers of the election in person shall make out triplicate returns of the same, certified to be correct, and signed by them officially, showing, first, the total number of votes polled at such box; second, the number polled for each candidate, one of which returns, together with poll lists and tally lists, shall be sealed up in an envelope and delivered by one of the managers of election to the county judge of the county; another of said returns, together with poll lists and tally lists, shall be delivered by one of the managers of election to the clerk of the county court of the county, to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for twelve months from the day of the election; and the other of said returns, poll and tally lists shall be kept by the presiding officer of the election for twelve months from the day of election.

Same subject.

Art. 1744. [1699] In case of vacancy in the office of county judge, or the absence, failure or inability of that officer to act, the election returns shall be delivered to the clerk of the county court of the county, who shall safely keep the same in his office, and he, or the county judge, as the case may be, shall deliver the same to the county commissioners' court on the day appointed by law to open and compare the polls.

Within what time returns shall be delivered.

Art. 1745. [1700] The election returns shall be delivered as provided in the two preceding articles, on or before the Monday next following the day of election.

Tally lists shall be kept.

Art. 1746. [1701] In counting out the votes each clerk shall keep a tally list showing each vote counted, for what person or persons counted, and for what office or offices, and when the counting is completed each clerk shall certify his tally list to be correct and shall sign such certificate officially.

Ballots, etc., to be placed in a box and delivered to county clerk. (Acts of 1881, p. 97.)

Art. 1747. [1702] Immediately after counting the votes, by the managers of election, the presiding officer shall place all the ballots voted, together with one poll list and one tally list, into a wooden or metallic box, and shall securely fasten the box with nails, screws or locks, and he shall, within ten days after the election, Sundays and the days of election excluded, deliver said box to the clerk of the county court of his county, or to the county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, whose duty it shall be to keep the same securely; and in the event of any contest growing out of elections within one year thereafter, he shall deliver said ballot-box to any competent officer having a process therefor, from any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand such ballot-box; provided, that all questions arising at any election board shall be settled and determined by the presiding officer and the judges, anything in any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Ballots, etc., shall be burned, when lb.

Art. 1748. [1703] In the event that no contest grows out of the election within one year after the day of such election, the said clerk shall destroy the contents of said ballot-box by burning the same.

Presiding officer shall retain one poll and tally list.

Art. 1749. [1704] The presiding officer of election shall retain in his custody one of the poll lists and one of the tally lists of the election, and shall keep the same for one year after election, subject to the inspection of any one interested in such election.

Elections in precincts of over 100 votes. (Acts of 1887, p. 21.)

Art. 1750. The presiding officer of each election precinct which shall have cast more than one hundred votes at the last preceding election shall, on or before the day of election, select from among the qualified voters of the precinct three judges and four clerks, to be made from the different political parties if demanded, as far as practicable, and there being present a sufficient number of the party making such demand who are willing and competent to serve in such position. Said presiding judge, before balloting begins, shall designate two of said judges to be counting judges, and such presiding judge and said remaining judge shall be the receiving judges of election, and said presiding judge shall designate two of said clerks to be receiving clerks and two of said clerks to be canvassing clerks of said election. The said receiving clerks shall keep the poll lists and the said canvassing clerks shall keep the tally lists now provided for by law.

Art. 1751. There shall be provided by the presiding judge in each election precincts two ballot-boxes, one of which shall be numbered number one and the other number two. Before the balloting begins said judge shall open and examine said boxes, and remove everything therefrom. One of said receiving judges shall receive the ballot of each voter, and after pronouncing the name of such voter in an audible voice shall pass the ballot to the other receiving judge, who shall number the same and deposit it in said ballot-box number one, which shall be kept securely closed while the balloting continues for one hour from the time of opening the polls. At the expiration of said hour the receiving judges shall deliver said ballot-box number one to the counting judges, who shall immediately deliver over to said receiving judges ballot-box number two, which ballot-box number two shall be opened and examined in the presence of all the judges, and when everything is removed therefrom shall be securely closed, and until the ballots in box number one have been counted said receiving judges shall receive and deposit ballots therein in the same manner as during the first hour ballots were received and deposited in ballot-box number one. After the delivery of ballot-box number one to the counting judges the same shall be immediately opened by them and the tickets shall be taken out one at a time by one of the counting judges, who shall read distinctly while the ticket remains in his hand the name or names written or printed thereon, also the office that is intended to be filled by such person voted for, and deliver the same to the other counting judge, who shall place the same in another box and keep securely until the counting is finished, and then said box, with all the ballots cast at said election, shall be returned to the county clerk as provided for by law. The same method shall be observed with each ticket, and the counting shall continue thus until all the ballots in the box are counted. And then the counting judges shall securely close ballot-box number one and deliver the same to the receiving judges, and receive from the receiving judges ballot-box number two, and so on in the same manner until the polls are closed and all the ballots are counted. No person or persons shall be admitted in the room or place where such ballots are being counted except the judges and clerks of election; provided, that any political party may select a representative man, who may be admitted as a witness of such counting. It shall be the duty of one of the judges to announce to the voters present the total number of votes polled at each change of the boxes; but the judges, clerks and witnesses shall make oath that they will make no statement nor give any information of any kind as to the number of votes polled for any office or person, nor the name of any person voted for, nor any other fact touching in any way to show the state of the polls at any time previous to the closing of the polls of said election on the day of the same. When any person offering to vote shall be objected to, the manager of the election, with the two first named judges on the list of judges, shall examine the person offering to vote upon oath touching the points of such objection, and if such person fail to establish his qualification to vote to the satisfaction of a majority of the managers of the election, his vote shall be rejected; if his vote be received the word "sworn" shall be written by the clerks upon the list opposite the name of such voter.

dollars per day, the same to be paid by the county treasurer of the county where such services are rendered, upon the order of the commissioners' court of such county; provided, twelve working hours shall be considered a day within the meaning of this article. One of the judges shall deliver the returns to the county clerk immediately, and receive two dollars for delivery of the returns, if delivered within two days; provided, said judge shall not receive the two dollars for delivering the returns if he shall have to travel less than five miles in so doing.

County commissioners shall open returns, when. (Acts of 1883, p. 50.)

Art. 1753. [1705] On the Monday next following the day of election, and not before, the county commissioners' court shall open the election returns and estimate the result, recording the state of the polls in each precinct in a book to be kept for that purpose; provided, that in the event of a failure from any cause of the commissioners' court to convene on the Monday following the election to compute the votes, then said court shall be convened for that purpose upon the earliest day practicable thereafter.

Returns shall not be estimated, unless, etc.

Art. 1754. [1706] No election returns shall be opened or estimated unless the same have been returned in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Certificates of election to county and precinct officers.

Art. 1755. [1707] After an estimate of the result of an election has been made, as provided for in this law, the county judge shall deliver to the candidate or candidates for whom the greatest number of votes have been polled for county and precinct officers a certificate of election, naming therein the office to which such candidate has been elected, the number of votes polled for him, and the day on which such election was held, and shall sign the same and cause the seal of the county court to be thereon impressed.

When a county is a representative or senatorial district. (Acts of 1883, p. 50.)

Art. 1756. [1708] If the county constitutes a senatorial or representative district of itself, the county commissioners' court shall, at the same time, make an estimate of the votes polled for members of the legislature; and the county judge shall give a like certificate of election, as provided in the preceding article, to the person receiving the highest number of votes for senator or representative, and shall also transmit a duplicate of such certificate to the secretary of state.

Returns of elections for certain state and district officers. (Acts of 1883, p. 50.)

Art. 1757. [1709] In all elections for comptroller of public accounts, treasurer of the state, commissioner of the general land office, attorney-general, judges of the supreme court, court of appeals and district courts, district attorneys, and for representatives in the congress of the United States, the county judge shall, on the Monday next following the day of election, and not before, make out duplicate returns of the election; one of which he shall immediately transmit to the seat of government in this state, sealed in an envelope, directed to the secretary of state, and indorsed, "Election returns for _____ county for _____" [filling the first blank with the name of the county and the other blank with the office for which the election was held]; and the other of such returns shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where such election was held.

Such returns shall be counted, when and by whom. Ib.

Art. 1758. [1710] On the fortieth day after the election, the day of election excluded, and not before, the secretary of state, in the presence of the governor and attorney-general, or in case of vacancy in either of said offices, or of inability or failure of either of said officers to act, then in the presence of either one of them, shall open and count the returns of the election.

Art. 1759. [1711] When the returns have been counted the governor shall immediately make out, sign and deliver a certificate of election, with the seal of the state thereto affixed, to the person or persons who shall have received the highest number of votes for each or any of said offices.

Governor shall give certificate of election, when.
Ib.

Art. 1760. [1712] The county judges of the several counties shall promptly make duplicate returns of the election for governor and lieutenant-governor, carefully sealed in an envelope, one of which shall be transmitted to the seat of government in this state, directed to the speaker of the house of representatives, and indorsed as provided in article 1757, and the other of said returns shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county.

Returns for governor and lieutenant-governor.
Ib.

Art. 1761. [1713] The transmitted returns provided for in the preceding article, directed to the secretary of state, shall be taken charge of by him, and preserved in his office, the package and seal thereon to remain unbroken until the organization of the next legislature, when he shall, on the first day thereof, deliver the said return to the speaker of the house of representatives.

Secretary of state shall keep returns, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1762. [1714] When an election shall have been held for members of the legislature in a district composed of more counties than one, the county judge to whom the returns in each county are made, and who is not authorized to give certificates of election to such members of the legislature, shall make out and send complete returns of such election for members of the legislature in his county immediately after examining and recording the same, to the county judge of the county, who may by law be authorized to give certificates of election to members of the legislature for such district.

Returns for members of the legislature.
Ib. §26.

Art. 1763. [1715] The returns provided for in the preceding article shall be sealed in an envelope, and the name of the officer forwarding them shall be written across the seal, and the envelope shall be indorsed "Election returns," and directed to the county judge of the proper county and transmitted by mail or other safe and expeditious conveyance.

Returns shall be transmitted how, and to whom.
Ib.

Art. 1764. [1716] The county judge to whom the returns named in the two preceding articles are forwarded, or in case of a vacancy in that office, or of inability or failure to act on the part of such officer, then the clerk of the county court of such county, or his deputy, shall, upon the thirtieth day after the election, Sunday excluded if Sunday be the thirtieth day, open and count said returns in the presence of at least two qualified voters of said district, and after recording the same shall give a certificate or certificates of election to the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes for senator or representative in that district; which certificate shall be under the seal of the county court of the county from whence it issues, and shall state the number of votes received by the person to whom the same is given, and the officer giving such certificate shall immediately forward a duplicate of the same to the secretary of state.

Duty of district returning officer.
Ib.

Art. 1765. [1717] If all the election returns of the district shall have been received by the returning officer of the district before the said thirtieth day, then he may count said returns and issue the certificate of election as provided for in the preceding article at any time before said thirtieth day.

Count may be made before 30th day, when.
Ib.

County judge shall certify to secretary of state the officers elected and qualified.
(Act March 6, 1863.)
P. D. 3604.

Art. 1766. [1718] At the expiration of thirty days from an election, and from time to time thereafter as the officers may qualify, the county judge of each county shall make out and certify to the secretary of state a tabular statement showing who were elected, and to what office, and the date of qualification, giving the number of the precinct (if precinct officers), and he shall also certify the result of the vote for members of the legislature; and he shall in like manner report to the secretary of state all special elections to fill a vacancy in any county precinct office, certifying when and how the vacancy occurred.

Registration of voters, when.
(Acts of 1892, P. 67.)

Art. 1767. In all cities in this state having a population of ten thousand inhabitants or more, to be determined by the last United States decennial census or by a census provided for by the commissioners' court of the county where said election is to be held, there shall—upon the petition of five hundred citizens of such city—be prior to each general election, either state, county or municipal, had a registration of all voters in said city, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Unregistered electors can not vote.

Art. 1768. Each qualified elector of such city, under the constitution and laws of this state, shall be entitled to register; but no elector of such city who fails to register under the provisions of this chapter shall vote at any state, county or city election for which registration is had under the provisions of this chapter.

Voter to give registrar information as to his qualification.

Art. 1769. Each person offering to register under the provisions of this chapter shall give to the registrar, hereinafter provided for, under oath, if demanded, the following information, to-wit: His name, the street and number of his residence, the number of the ward in which he resides, and such other information touching his qualifications as a voter in the city as may be necessary to establish his right to registration. Should the place of his residence not be numbered, then he shall give such description of his place of residence as will enable the same to be correctly located.

Appointment and qualification and term of office of registrar.

Art. 1770. There shall be appointed by the commissioners' court of each county in which there is located a city having a population of ten thousand inhabitants or more one registrar of all the voters of each such city in said county, who shall be a qualified elector of such city, and shall hold his office for two years and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

Art. 1771. It shall be the duty of the registrar provided for in the preceding article to register all the qualified electors of such city as is hereinafter provided, and to do and perform all other duties required of him by the provisions of this chapter.

Duties of registrar.

Art. 1772. Said registrar, when appointed and before entering upon his duties as such, shall take and subscribe before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths the oath of office prescribed by the state constitution for all state and county offices, which said oath of office shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such registrar is appointed. Upon the filing of said oath of office with the county clerk as herein provided, the county clerk shall issue to such registrar a certificate of his appointment and qualification, which said certificate shall be sufficient authority for the said registrar to do and perform all the official duties herein prescribed and required.

Oath of registrar and certificate of appointment.

Art. 1773. Said registrar shall have authority to appoint and employ as many deputies or assistants, who shall be qualified electors of such city, as may be necessary to the prompt and efficient discharge of his official duties; provided, there shall be appointed one deputy from each political party, if demanded by the chairman of the county executive committee of the party in said county two days prior to the opening of the registration books, as hereinafter provided.

Registrar to appoint deputies.

Art. 1774. Said registrar shall open the books of his office for the registration of all the voters in the city on the first Tuesday of the month preceding and prior to the month in which the election is held for which registration is required under the provisions of this chapter, and said registrar shall keep the same open for the registration of voters for twenty consecutive days, Sunday excluded, from eight o'clock a. m. till eight o'clock p. m. of each day and no longer.

Registration books, when opened.

Art. 1775. Said registrar shall keep his office during the registration of the voters in some convenient room or place; notice of the time and place of each registration of voters shall be given in some daily newspaper published in said city for at least five consecutive days prior to the day of beginning such registration and during the time of such registration. But should there be no daily newspaper published in the said city, then notice may be given by printed handbills posted throughout the city for five consecutive days prior to the beginning of the registration and during the time of such registration. The publication of which notice shall be paid for in all state and county elections by the commissioners' court of the county out of the general revenue fund of said county, and for all city elections by the city council out of the general revenue funds of the city.

Notice of time and place of the registration to be published, when and how.

Art. 1776. The registrar shall receive as compensation in full for all services herein required eight cents for each certificate of registration issued, to be paid in all state and county elections by the commissioners' court of the county out of the general revenue funds of the county, and in all city elections by the city council of the city out of the general revenue funds of the city. Upon the completion and delivery of the work, as hereinafter provided, to the county clerk in all state and county elections, the commissioners' court, or the city council, as the case may be, shall cause to be issued to the registrar

Compensation of registrar, when and how paid.

a warrant on the treasurer for the full amount due on said work, as herein provided, which shall be full compensation for all services performed.

Books, stationery and blank certificates furnished registrar.

Art. 1777. The commissioners' court shall furnish and supply the registrar with all necessary books, stationery and blank certificates of registration and an office in which to perform all the necessary work of registration during the time he is necessarily engaged in the registration of voters as herein provided, but in all city elections the city council shall furnish and supply them.

Registration books shall show, what.

Art. 1778. The registrar's books shall contain a list of all registered voters of the city, with the number of the certificates issued written opposite to the name of the holder of the certificate, and the number of the ward in which the voter resides, and shall also indicate the color or nationality of the holder of the certificate, or such other information as will enable the judges of election to determine the identity of the holder of the certificate, and shall also show the street and number of the residence of the voter, or such other information as will enable his place of residence to be correctly located.

List of registered voters to be furnished managers of election.

Art. 1779. The registrar shall make a list of all the registered voters of his city for the use of the managers of the election of each ward in the city, which list shall be a true copy of his books, as is required and provided for in article 1778, which said lists shall be made out and filed with the county clerk, or city secretary, as the case may be, at least five days prior to the day of election, which said lists shall then be furnished the presiding officer of the election of each ward in the city, as other election papers are furnished such presiding officers of election.

Registrar authorized to administer oaths.

Art. 1780. The registrar herein provided for is hereby authorized and empowered to administer all necessary oaths to applicants for registration and also to all witnesses touching the qualifications of applicants for registration, and any person who shall swear falsely about his own qualifications as a voter of the city, or any person who shall as a witness for the applicant swear falsely about the qualifications of such applicant shall be deemed guilty of false swearing, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished as provided by law for the punishment of false swearing in other cases.

Proof before registrar of elector's qualifications.

Art. 1781. Should the registrar have doubts or not be satisfied as to the qualifications of the applicant for registration, he may, in addition to the oath of the applicant for registration, demand proof of the right of such applicant to register before he shall issue to such applicant a certificate of registration, which proof shall consist of the sworn testimony of two well known citizens of the city, if demanded, which oath or oaths shall be sworn and subscribed to by the applicant and by each of his witnesses separately, and the said oaths shall be filed and kept as a part of the records of the registrar's office.

Certificate of registration, its form, uses and purposes.

Art. 1782. Each person who shall register under the provisions of this chapter shall receive a registration certificate, which shall be numbered to correspond with the number of registered certificate issued, and which shall, in addition to the name of the holder, be dated and signed by the registrar, which certificate shall be preserved and presented to the judges of the election, and should the person presenting such certificate not correspond with the description of the person to whom issued as appears on the registrar's books, then he shall not vote until he shall have satisfied the judges of election of his right to vote.

Art. 1783. Each certificate of registration when presented and voted shall have stamped or written thereon by one of the judges of election the word "voted." No certificate shall be voted unless it corresponds with the name and number on the list of registered voters herein provided for, and the holder shall correspond with the other information contained on the list of registered voters furnished the managers of the election as herein provided, or that the judges of the election are satisfied that the holder of the certificate is the person to whom it was issued, and when voted one of the judges of the election shall write or stamp opposite the name of the holder the word "voted," on the list. And when a certificate has been voted it shall be considered as exhausted, and shall be placed by one of the judges of the election in a closed box, and when the election is closed said box and contents shall be sealed up and deposited with the county clerk or city secretary, as the case may be, after having been labeled "registered certificate," and said box and contents shall be preserved by the said clerk or city secretary, as is provided by law for the preservation of the ballots of the election.

Certificate of registration, how cancelled and preserved.

Art. 1784. The list of registered voters shall, at the close of the election, be placed by the managers of the election in the envelope covering the returns to be delivered to the county clerk or city secretary, as is provided by law, and shall be preserved by such officer in the same manner as is provided for the preservation of election returns thus made.

List of registered voters, returned and preserved

Art. 1785. Any person offering to vote in a city at any election for which registration has been had of all the voters of such city shall not vote unless he presents a certificate of registration, as herein provided; or in case he has lost or mislaid his certificate, he shall so state, and if his name shall appear on the registered list and he is known to the judges to be the person whose name thus appears on the registered list, or can furnish satisfactory evidence that he is the person whose name appears on the said list, then he shall be entitled to vote; provided, the certificate has not been previously voted, in which case he shall not vote; and provided further, that when any person does vote without presenting his certificate of registration, as herein provided, then one of the judges or managers of the election shall stamp or write opposite his name on the registration list the words, "voted, certificate lost."

Rules for voting when certificate is lost.

Art. 1786. Every male person who shall have become of the age of twenty-one years by the day of the election and shall be otherwise a qualified elector, or who shall have become a qualified voter of the city by the day of the election for which the registration is made, and is a bona fide citizen of the city in which he offers to register, shall be entitled to register as a qualified voter of the city, provided he shall establish the same as herein provided.

Who entitled to register.

Art. 1787. The following safeguards and regulations shall be observed to secure the voter from interference while casting his ballot at said election, to-wit: The polling places in the several precincts in the city shall be provided with a guard rail, so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside of said rail can approach within six feet of the ballot boxes or compartments or booths at which electors are to prepare their ballots for voting. The arrangements shall be such that neither the ballot boxes nor voting booths, nor the electors while preparing their ballots, shall be hidden from view of those just outside of the said guard rail or from the judges, and yet the same shall be far enough removed and so arranged that the elector may conveniently prepare his ballot for voting with secrecy. There shall be provided in each polling place not less than one such compartment or booth for every fifty electors to vote at such polling place, and every polling place shall have at least three such compartments or booths, which shall be made with three sides closed and the front side open, and inside thirty-two inches wide, thirty-two inches deep and six feet four inches high, containing a shelf, and shall be arranged with hinges, to fold up when not in use convenient for storage. The county judge, county clerk and sheriff of each county shall constitute a board, a majority of whom may act, to provide the voting booths or compartments and guard rails required by this chapter. When said appliances have been provided, said board shall file with the county commissioners' court a written report of their action, giving a detailed statement of the expenses incurred in providing said booths and guard rails; and it shall be the duty of said court to certify to the comptroller of public accounts the amounts due and to whom due, and the number of booths and feet of guard rails provided. Upon receipt of said certificate the comptroller shall issue his warrant upon the state treasurer in favor of the parties to whom said account is due for one-half of the said amount, and the same shall be paid out of the state treasury, and the residue thereof shall be paid by the respective counties. During the election and counting of ballots no person other than the judges and clerks of elections and the electors admitted as herein provided for the purpose of providing their ballots and voting shall be admitted or permitted to be within said rail.

The ballot, its form and requisites and by whom furnished.

Art. 1788. All ballots used by the voters at said elections shall be furnished by officers conducting said election, upon which shall be printed the names of all the candidates for state, county, precinct or city offices upon one ticket and arranged according to the respective parties to which the candidates may belong, and whenever a voter has been furnished with a ballot by an officer conducting the election the presiding officer shall stamp with a rubber stamp provided for that purpose the words "Official Ballot," and no ballot cast without such words stamped upon it by the said presiding officer shall be counted at said election.

Candidates may furnish ballots, when and how.

Art. 1789. All ballots used at any election shall be upon substantially the same character of paper, which shall be white, and any candidates shall have the right to have ballots printed such as are named in the preceding article, which he must furnish to the presiding officer at least one day before the day of holding the election.

Ballot prepared, how and by whom.

Art. 1790. Not more than one person shall at one time be permitted to occupy any one compartment or place provided for electors to prepare their ballots, except when an elector is unable to prepare his ballot, he may be accompanied by two judges to assist him, and no person shall remain in or occupy any such compartment longer than may be necessary to prepare his ballot.

Judges may prepare ballot for illiterate persons and persons disabled.

Art. 1791. Any elector who declares to the presiding officer that he can not read or write, or that by blindness or other physical disability he is unable to prepare his ballot, shall upon request receive the assistance of two of the judges in the preparation thereof.

Cities may adopt other methods.

Art. 1792. Cities containing a population of ten thousand inhabitants or more may through their city council adopt such methods to protect the purity of the ballot in elections held at their municipal elections, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as may be deemed advisable.

Article 1793. Contested elections for the office of district attorney shall be tried by the district judge of the district in the county where the candidate who shall have received the certificate of election shall reside, and if there are two district judges in said county, then to be tried before either of said judges.

Contest of election for district attorney. (Acts of 1895, p. 58.)

Art. 1794. Contested elections for the office of district judge shall be tried in the county of the adjoining district the county seat of which is nearest to the residence of the candidate who shall have received the certificate of election, and by the district court of such adjoining district, and in counties having two or more district courts then to be tried by the district court of the adjoining district in said county.

Contest of election for district judge. Ib.

Art. 1795. Contested elections for the office of chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court and judges of the court of criminal appeals shall be tried in the county and by the district court of the district, or one of them, in which the seat of government is located. And contested elections for the office of chief justice of the court of civil appeals or associate justice of any supreme judicial district in the state, shall be tried by the district court, or either of them if there are more than one, in the county where said court of civil appeals has its sittings.

Contest of election for appellate judges. Ib.

Art. 1796. Contested elections for any county office shall be tried by the district court in the county where the election was held. If there are two such courts, then to be tried by either of them.

Contest of election for any county office. Ib.

Art. 1797. Contested elections for other purposes than the election of officers shall be tried by the district court in the county where the election was held, or either of them if there is more than one such court.

Other contested elections than for officers. Ib.

Notice of contest.
Ib.

Art. 1798. Any person intending to contest the election of any one holding a certificate of election as a member of the legislature or for any office mentioned in this law, shall within thirty days after the return day of election give him a notice thereof in writing and deliver to him, his agent or attorney, a written statement of the ground on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest. By the "return day" is meant the day on which the votes cast in said election are counted and the official result thereof declared.

Reply to notice of contest.
Ib.

Art. 1799. The person holding such certificate shall within ten days after receiving such notice and statement deliver or cause to be delivered to said contestant, his agent or attorney, a reply thereto in writing.

Service of notice, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1800. The notice, statement and reply required by the two preceding articles may be served by any person competent to testify, and shall be served by delivering the same to the party for whom they are intended in person, if he can be found in the county, if not found, then upon the agent or attorney of such person, or by leaving the same with some person over the age of sixteen years at the usual place of abode or business of such person.

Copy of notice and reply to be filed, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1801. If the contest be for the validity of an election for any state office, except the office of governor and lieutenant-governor, or for any district office except members of the legislature, or for any county office, a copy of the notice and statement of the contestant and of the reply thereto of the contestee served on the parties shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the case.

Cause to have precedence;
procedure if contest be for district clerk.
Ib.

Art. 1802. When the notice, statement and reply have been filed with the clerk of the court he shall docket the same as in other causes, and the said contest shall have precedence over all other causes. Should the office contested for be that of clerk of the district court, then a clerk pro tem. shall be appointed as is provided now by law in suits where the clerk is a party to the suit.

Rules of evidence and procedure on trial.
Ib.

Art. 1803. In trials of all contests of election the evidence shall be confined to the issues made by the statement and reply thereto, which statement and reply may be amended as in civil cases; and as to the admission and exclusion of evidence, the trial shall be conducted under the rules governing proceedings in civil causes.

Contestee in certain cases to execute bond.
Ib.

Art. 1804. Whenever the validity of an election for an officer other than for members of the legislature is contested, the contestee shall within twenty days after the service of the notice and statement of such contest upon him, as provided in this law, file with the clerk of the court in which such contest is pending a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the contestant, to be approved by said clerk, in an amount to be fixed by said clerk, not less than double the probable amount of salary or fees or both, as the case may be, to be realized from the office being contested for a period of two years. Said bond to be conditioned that in the event the decision of the contest shall be against such contestee, and in favor of the contestant, such contestee will pay over to such contestant whatever sum may be adjudged against him by a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such bond.

On failure of contestee in such cases, contestant to execute bond.
Ib.

Art. 1804a. Should the contestee fail to file the bond as required in the preceding article, and within the time therein prescribed, it shall be the duty of said clerk to notify the contestant immediately of such failure, and such contestant shall have the right within ten days after such notice to file a like bond payable to the contestee, conditioned that in the event the decision of the contest is against him and in favor of the contestee, he will pay over to such contestee whatever sum may be adjudged against him, the said contestant, by a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such bond.

Art. 1804b. Immediately upon the filing of said bond by the contestant the clerk shall certify in writing, and under his official seal, to the governor that the contestee failed to give the required bond, and that the contestant has given such bond in accordance with law.

Execution of bond by contestant to be certified to governor.
Ib.

Art. 1804c. Upon receiving such certificate from the clerk it shall be the duty of the governor to issue a permission to the said contestant for the office in controversy pending such contest, and thereupon the contestant, upon qualifying in said office as required by law, shall exercise all the rights and powers and perform all the duties of said office for the full term thereof, unless it shall be otherwise determined and ordered by the court upon the trial of such contest.

Governor to commission contestant to perform duties of office pending determination of contest.
Ib.

Art. 1804d. It shall be the duty of the governor to issue the commission to the contestee at the time provided by law as in other cases, unless he has been notified of the failure of such contestee to file the bond required by article 1804, in which event the governor shall withhold the issuance of such commission until after the time allowed the contestant to file such bond has elapsed, but if the said contestant shall also fail to file bond as provided in article 1804a, and within the time therein required, it shall be the duty of the clerk to certify all the facts in the case under his official seal to the governor, who shall thereupon issue the commission to the contestee.

On failure of contestant to execute bond governor to commission contestee.
Ib.

Art. 1804e. If upon the trial of any contested election case any vote or votes be found to be illegal or fraudulent, the court trying the same shall subtract such vote or votes from the poll of the candidate who received the same, and after a full and fair investigation of the evidence shall decide to which of the contesting parties the office belongs.

Fraudulent votes not to be counted.
Ib.

Art. 1804f. Should it appear on the trial of any contest provided for in article 1801 that it is impossible to ascertain the true result of the election as to the office about which the contest is made, either from the returns of the election or from any evidence within reach, or from the returns considered in connection with other evidence, or should it appear from the evidence that such a number of legal voters were by the officers or managers of the election denied the privilege of voting as, had they been allowed to vote, would have materially changed the result, the court shall adjudge such election void, and direct the proper officers to order another election to fill said office, which election shall be ordered and held and returns thereof made in all respects as required by the general election laws of the state.

Election to be declared void, when.
Ib.

Art. 1804g. The bonds required to be filed by the contestant and contestee under the provisions of this chapter shall remain on file in the office of the clerk where filed, and may be sued upon as other bonds.

Bonds subject to suit.
Ib.

Art. 1804h. Either the contestant or contestee may appeal from the judgment of the district court to the court of civil appeals under the same rules and regulations as are provided for appeals in civil cases, and such cases shall have precedence in the court of civil appeals over all other cases.

Appeal available, and to have precedence of hearing.
Ib.

Art. 1804i. In case of appeal as provided for in the preceding article, the clerk shall without delay make up the transcript and forward the same to the clerk of the court of civil appeals for that district.

Transcript on appeal.
Ib.

Costs, how taxed.
Ib.

Art. 1804j. The costs in all contested election cases shall be taxed according to the laws governing costs in civil cases, except when otherwise specially provided, and bond for cost may be required as in civil suits.

Measure of damages.

Art. 1804k. Where the contest shall have been decided against one of the parties and the other party shall have filed a bond and performed the duties of the office under the provisions of this chapter, the bond so filed shall inure to the benefit of the successful party in any suit thereon in a court having jurisdiction of the amount in controversy, and the measure of damages recoverable, besides cost of suit, shall be the salary, fees, and emoluments of office of which he has been deprived, less such reasonable expenses as the party holding the office shall have incurred in executing the duties of the office; provided, that he shall have acted in good faith in receiving the certificate of election or commission for the office.

Service of notice, etc.,
when the contest is for the legislature.
Ib.

Art. 1804l. If the contest be for the validity of an election for members of the legislature, a copy of the notice, the statement and the reply served upon the parties as required by this chapter, shall within twenty days after the service thereof be filed with the district returning officer to whom the returns of such election were made, who shall envelope the same, together with a certified copy of the poll book or register of the votes of each precinct and county returned to him in said election, and shall seal the said envelope and write his name across the seals, and address the package to the president of the senate or speaker of the house of representatives, as the case may be, to the care of the secretary of state, and shall forward the same by mail or other safe conveyance to the seat of government, so as to reach there if possible before the convening of the legislature.

Depositions may be taken in such case.
Ib.

Art. 1804m. At any time after filing said papers with said returning officer either party to said contest may proceed, at his own expense, to take such written testimony as he may deem proper, having first served the opposite party, his agent or attorney, with a copy of the interrogatories he intends to propound to each witness, and the name of the officer before whom such interrogatories will be answered, as well as the time and place of taking such testimony.

Who may take such depositions.

Art. 1804n. Any officer authorized by the law of this state to administer oaths, upon being satisfied as to any costs, including his own fees, that may accrue in the taking of such testimony, shall proceed, upon the application of the party desiring it, to summon the witness or witnesses named in the interrogatories and take his or their answers in writing and under oath to such interrogatories and cross-interrogatories as may be propounded in writing.

How depositions may be returned.

Art. 1804o. The answers of each witness shall be reduced to writing and signed by such witness, and sworn to by such witness before the officer taking the same, and shall be certified to by such officer and sealed in an envelope, and the name of the said officer shall be written by him across the seals, and he shall forward the same without delay by mail or other safe conveyance to the president of the senate or speaker of the house of representatives, as the case may be, to the care of the secretary of state, at the seat of government.

Procedure in the house in which the contest is pending.
Ib.

Art. 1804p. The notice and statement of contest and the other papers pertaining thereto shall immediately after the organization of the legislature be opened by the president of the senate or the speaker of the house of representatives, as the case may be; and the same shall be referred to the committee on privileges and elections of the house in which that contest is pending, which committee shall proceed without delay to fix a time for the hearing of said case, and after due notice to the parties thereto shall investigate the issues between said parties, hearing all the legal evidence that may be presented to said committee, and shall as soon thereafter as practicable report their conclusions of law and fact in respect to said case to the house by which said committee was appointed, accompanied by all the papers in the cause, and the evidence taken therein, with such recommendations as may to them seem proper. Any one or more of the committee dissenting from the views of the majority may present a minority report.

Art. 1804q. The rules of evidence and the laws in force respecting the admissibility of evidence, the taking of depositions and the issuance and service of process in the district courts of this state shall be observed by said committee, so far as the same may be applicable. Said committee shall have the power to send for persons and papers, and the chairmen of said committees shall have the power to issue all process necessary to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, ballot boxes and other documents before said committee, and such process shall be executed by the sergeant-at-arms of the house in which the contest is pending, or by such other person as may be designated by the presiding officer of said house.

Hearing of evidence by committee on privileges and election; powers and duties of committee.
Ib.

Art. 1804r. The house in which the contest is pending shall, as soon as practicable after the report of the committee has been received, fix a day for the trial of the contest, and shall proceed to determine whether the contestant or contestee, or either of them, is entitled to the contestant's seat; provided, the said house may hold the election void after full consideration of all the evidence and for the reasons prescribed in article 1804f, and in such case the governor shall be at once notified of the vacancy. Such fees shall be paid to the witnesses and the officers serving the process as shall be prescribed by the rules of the house in which said contest is pending, and no mileage or per diem shall be paid to either of the parties to said contest until said case is determined, and in no case shall any mileage or per diem be paid to any party against whom any contest is decided.

Procedure on final trial by the body; fees, etc.
Ib.

Art. 1804s. If the contest be for the validity of an election for governor, lieutenant governor, comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, commissioner of the general land office or attorney general, the same shall be tried and determined by both houses of the legislature in joint session, and the provisions of this chapter governing in the case of a contest for the validity of an election for members of the legislature shall apply to and govern in a contest for the offices above named, as far as the same may be applicable.

Contest for governor, lieutenant-governor, etc.
Ib.
(Const., art. 4, §3.)

Art. 1804t. If the contest be for the validity of an election held for any other purpose than the election of an officer or officers in any county or part of a county or precinct of a county, or in any incorporated city, town or village, any resident of such county, precinct, city, town or village, or any number of such residents, may contest such election in the district court of such county in the same manner and under the same rules, as far as applicable, as are prescribed in this chapter for contesting the validity of an election for a county office.

Other contested elections.

Parties defendant under preceding article.
Ib.

Art. 1804u. In any case provided for in the preceding article, the county attorney of the county, or where there is no county attorney the district attorney of the district, or the mayor of the city, town or village, or the officer who declared the official result of said election, or one of them, as the case may be, shall be made the contestee, and shall be served with notice and statement, and shall file his reply thereto as in the case of contest for office; but in no case shall the costs of such contest be adjudged against such contestee, or against the county, city, town or village which they may represent, nor shall such contestee be required to give any bond upon an appeal.

Article 1811. [1760] On the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1896, and on the first Tuesday next after the first Monday in November every four years thereafter, the qualified voters for members of the house of representatives of the state legislature shall elect from among the resident citizens, over twenty-one years of age, and not members of either house of congress of the United States, as many electors of president and vice-president of the United States as the state of Texas may at the time be entitled to elect.

Mode, places, etc., of election for electors.
Ib.
P. D. 3645.

Art. 1812. [1761] Such election shall be held in the same manner, at the same places, under the same regulations, and by officers and managers appointed in the same way as elections for members of the house of representatives of this state may be; except that such qualified voter shall be authorized to vote for the whole number of electors that the state will then be empowered to elect.

Returns of election by precinct officers.
Ib.
P. D. 3646.

Art. 1813. [1762] The officers conducting said elections, or the managers thereof at each precinct, shall, within three days after holding said election, add up and compare the number of votes given for each person there voted for as an elector, and shall make out in writing, seal up, certify and transmit the result of said election to the county judge or other proper officer of their county, in the same manner prescribed by the laws regulating elections for members of the state legislature.

Returns of elections by counties.
Ib.
P. D. 3647.

Art. 1814. [1763] It shall be and is hereby made the duty of the county judge or other proper officer or officers of each county, within four days after such election, to make out in writing, certify, seal up and transmit by mail or other expeditious conveyance, a correct statement of the election held at all the precincts in the county, directed to the secretary of state at the seat of government of the state, as is now required by law in other elections, and indorsed thereon: "Election returns for the county of _____ for presidential electors."

Secretary of state shall count returns, when, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 3648.

Art. 1815. [1764] It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, in the presence of the governor and attorney-general, or either of them, on the fourth Monday in November next after said election, to open all the election returns received by him, and correctly add up all the votes cast in the several counties for each of said electors, and cause the result thereof, with the names of the persons elected, to be forthwith published in some newspaper printed at the seat of government, and in writing forthwith notify the persons elected of their election.

Art. 1816. [1765] The electors so chosen shall convene in the capitol, at the seat of government of the state, on the first Wednesday in December next after their election, and vote for president and vice-president of the United States, and make return thereof as is required by the laws of the United States.

P. D. 3649.
(U. S. Revised Statutes, p. 21.)

Art. 1817. [1766] If any person so chosen elector shall, by death or other disabling cause, fail to attend by the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of the day fixed by law, and vote as required by law, or if any such person shall be legally disqualified to serve as elector, a majority of the qualified electors present, after having convened, may appoint some other person to act as elector in the place of any such absent or disqualified person, and shall immediately report their action to the secretary of state aforesaid.

Place of absent or disqualified electors, how supplied.
Ib.
P. D. 3650.

Art. 1818. [1767] The governor shall, on or before the meeting of the electors, cause three lists of the names of such electors to be made out and delivered to them, as required by act of congress.

Governor shall cause list of electors to be made, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 3651.

Art. 1819. [1768] It shall be the duty of the governor, or in case of his inability, then of the lieutenant-governor, to issue a proclamation under the seal of the state, and have the same published for at least forty days before an election for electors, in some newspaper printed at the seat of government, requiring the county judge or other proper officer or officers of each county in the state to cause an election to be held at each precinct in the county at the time and for the purpose prescribed in this title.

Governor shall issue proclamation, etc.
Ib.
P. D. 3652.

Art. 1820. [1769] Electors for president and vice-president of the United States shall receive the same pay for mileage in traveling to and from the seat of government of the state, and the same pay daily while engaged there in the duties required of them by law, as that allowed by law to the members of the legislature of this state.

When estates shall escheat. (Acts of 1835, p. 35.)

Article 1821. [1770] If any person die seized of any real, or possessed of any personal estate, without any devise thereof, and having no heirs, or where the owner of any real or personal estate shall be absent for the term of seven years, and is not known to exist, such estate shall escheat to and vest in the state; provided, that where no will is recorded or probated in the county where such property is situated within seven years after the death of the owner, it shall be prima facie evidence that there was no will, and where no lawful claim is asserted to, or lawful acts of ownership exercised in such property for the period of seven years, and this has been proved to the satisfaction of the court, it shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the death of the owner and of the failure of heirs, and the court trying the cause may, if such evidence is not rebutted, find therefrom in favor of the state.

Duty of district county attorney.

Art. 1822. [1771] When the district or county attorney shall be informed or have reason to believe that an executor under the will of any person who has died without heirs and without having devised his estate, has not accepted the trust, and that no administrator with the will annexed has been appointed; or where such attorney shall discover that no letters of administration on the estate of an intestate who has died without heirs have been granted; or where such attorney finds any estate, real or personal, in the condition specified in the next preceding article (1821) he shall file a petition in behalf of the state in the district court of the county where such property or any part thereof lies, which petition shall set forth a description of the estate, the name of the person last lawfully seized or possessed of the same, the names of the tenants or persons in actual possession, if any, and the names of the persons claiming the estate, if any such are known to claim, and the facts or circumstances in consequence of which such estate is claimed to have escheated, praying for a writ of possession for the same in behalf of the state.

Clerk to issue citation to those alleged to be in possession.

Art. 1823. [1772] The clerk of the court shall issue citation, as in other civil causes, for such of the defendants as shall be alleged in the petition to hold possession of or claim such estate, requiring them to appear and answer at the next term of court.

Art. 1824. [1773] The clerk shall also issue a citation, setting forth briefly the contents of the petition, for all persons interested in the estate to appear and answer at the next term of court, which citation shall be published as required in other civil suits.

Citation published and its requisites. (Acts of 1885, p. 35.)

Art. 1825. [1774] All persons named in such petition as tenants or persons in actual possession or claimants of the estate may appear and plead to such proceedings, and may traverse the facts stated in the petition, or the title of the state to the lands and tenements therein mentioned, as in civil cases, and any other person claiming an interest in such estate may appear and be made a defendant and plead as in other cases.

Claimants may appear and plead. P. D. 3661.

Art. 1826. [1775] If no person, after notice as aforesaid, shall appear and plead within the time prescribed by law, then judgment shall be rendered by default in behalf of the state.

If no person appears. P. D. 3662.

Art. 1827. [1776] If any person appear and deny the title set up by the state, or traverse any material fact in the petition, issue shall be made up and tried as other issues of fact; and a survey may be ordered, as in other cases where the titles or boundaries of land are drawn in question.

If any person appears, issue and trial. P. D. 3663.

Art. 1828. [1777] If after the issue and trial it appears from the facts found or admitted that the state has good title to the estate, real or personal, in the petition mentioned, or any part thereof, judgment shall be rendered that the state shall be seized or possessed thereof, and at the discretion of the court recover costs against the defendants; provided, that whenever judgment is rendered in favor of the state, whether by default or after trial upon the merits, a writ of possession shall be awarded as in other civil suits.

Judgment for the state, when. (Acts of 1885, p. 35.)

Art. 1829. [1778] If it appears that the state has no title in such estate the defendant shall recover his costs, to be taxed and certified by the clerk; and the comptroller of public accounts shall, on such certificate being filed in his office, issue a warrant therefor on the treasury, which shall be paid as other demands on the treasury.

Costs against the state, how paid. P. D. 3665.

Art. 1830. [1779] When any judgment shall be rendered that the state be seized or possessed of any estate, such judgment shall contain a description thereof, and shall vest the title in the state.

Judgment for state vests title in state. P. D. 3666.

Art. 1831. [1780] A writ shall be issued to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county commanding him to seize such estate vested in the state; and if the same be personal property or real estate he shall dispose of the same at public auction in the manner provided by law for the sale of property under execution, and the proceeds, less the costs of court and attorneys' commissions, shall be paid into the treasury of the state; provided, that no real estate shall be sold by the sheriff or constable at less than the minimum price to be fixed by the judge before whom the cause was tried, said minimum valuation to be distinctly stated in the advertisement, and should there be on the day of sale no bona fide bid for as high an amount as the valuation fixed by the judge before whom the cause was tried there shall be no sale, and the writ shall be immediately returned to the court issuing the same; and thereafter said real estate may be sold by the attorney general in the same manner as lands bid in by the state under authority of article 292, Revised Civil Statutes, are now sold by that officer.

Writ of seizure and proceedings thereunder. (Acts of 1885, p. 35.)

Appeal or writ of error.
P. D. 3669.

Art. 1832. [1781] Any party who shall have appeared to any such proceedings, and the district or county attorney, on behalf of the state, shall have the right to prosecute an appeal or writ of error upon such judgment.

Comptroller to keep accounts.
P. D. 3670.

Art. 1833. [1782] The comptroller shall keep just accounts of all moneys paid into the treasury, and of all lands vested in the state under the provisions of this chapter.

Heir, etc., afterward appearing, may bring suit.
P. D. 3671.

Art. 1834. [1783] If any person appear after the death of the testator or intestate and claim any money paid into the treasury under this chapter, as heir, or devisee, or legatee thereof, he may file a petition in the district court for the county where the estate was sold, stating the nature of his claim and praying that such money be paid to him, a copy of which petition shall be served on the district or county attorney, at least twenty days previous to the return day of the process, who shall put in an answer to the same.

Order of court in favor of claimant.
P. D. 3672;
amend. 1895,
p. 189.

Art. 1835. [1784] The court shall examine the claim and the allegations and proofs, and if it shall find that such person is an heir, devisee, legatee or legal representative, whether citizen or foreigner, such court shall make an order directing the comptroller to issue his warrant on the treasury for the payment of the same, but without interest or costs, a copy of which order, under the seal of the court, shall be a sufficient voucher for issuing such warrant, and the same proceedings shall be instituted for the recovery of any money or property heretofore deposited with the treasurer or comptroller in accordance with the laws heretofore existing; provided, that if such heir, devisee, legatee or legal representative or their assigns shall sue for and recover such estate, real or personal, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state from any purchaser at sheriff's sale, as hereinbefore provided, or from his heirs, devisees, legatees, legal representatives or assigns, then and in any such event a certified copy of such judgment of recovery, together with the affidavit of the party cast in the suit that he is the owner of and entitled to the money theretofore paid into the state treasury as the proceeds of such escheated estate, shall be sufficient authority for the issuance by the comptroller of a warrant on the state treasury for the payment to such purchaser, his heirs, legal representatives or assigns, such net amount of money as was paid into the state treasury by reason of said sheriff's sale of such estate.

Proceeds of escheated property subject to disposition by the state.
P. D. 3674.

Art. 1836. [1785] The proceeds of all property escheated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall remain subject to the disposition of the state, as may hereafter be prescribed by law.

Final decree of probate court may be revised, when.
(Act Nov. 13, 1866, p. 236, §1.)

Art. 1837. [1786] Any decree of the probate court finally closing any estate may be revised and corrected in the district court of the county in which the letters were granted to such executor or administrator, upon the ground that there was error, fraud or mistake, of law or fact, in such final account and settlement, upon the application of the state, by bill of review, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the revision and correction of any such account and settlement by any individual interested in an estate.

Governor may cause proceedings to be instituted, when.
(Act Nov. 13, 1866, p. 236, §2.)

Art. 1838. [1787] In any case in which the governor has reason to believe that there has been fraud, error or mistake of law or fact in any such final account and settlement, he is authorized to retain counsel and have proceedings instituted, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the laws, to have such final account and settlement revised and corrected for the protection of the rights of the state, and for such services the counsel so retained shall be allowed a reasonable compensation.

Art. 1839. [1788] All suits brought for the collection of the assets turned over to the treasurer, under this chapter, shall be brought in the name of "The State of Texas." Suit must be in name of state.

Art. 1843. [1792] Wills shall be admitted to probate, and letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted—

1. In the county where the deceased resided, if he had a domicile or fixed place of residence in the state.
2. If the deceased had no domicile or fixed place of residence in the state, but died in the state, then either in the county where his principal property was at the time of his death, or in the county where he died.
3. If he had no domicile or fixed place of residence in the state, and died without the limits of the state, then in any county in this state where his nearest kin may reside.
4. But if he had no kindred in this state, then in the county where his principal estate was situated at the time of his death.

In case of concurrent jurisdiction of several courts.

Art. 1844. [1793] When two or more courts have concurrent jurisdiction of an estate, the court in which application for letters testamentary or of administration thereon is first filed shall have and retain jurisdiction of such estate, to the exclusion of such other court or courts.

Article 1845. [1794] There shall be kept by the clerk of the county court a record book to be styled "Judge's probate docket," in which shall be entered—

1. The name of each deceased person upon whose estate proceedings are had or sought to be had.

2. The name of the executor or administrator of such estate, or of the applicant for letters, as the case may be.

3. The date of the filing of the original application for the probate of a will, or for letters testamentary or of administration.

4. A minute of all orders, judgments, decrees and proceedings had in the estate, with the date thereof.

5. Each estate shall be numbered upon such docket in the order in which the proceedings therein have been commenced, and each paper filed in an estate shall be numbered with the docket number of such estate.

Art. 1846. [1795] Said clerk shall also keep a record book to be styled "Probate minutes," in which he shall enter in full all the orders, judgments, decrees and proceedings of the court, and in which shall be recorded all papers of estates required by law to be recorded.

Art. 1847. [1796] Said clerk shall also keep a record book to be styled "Claim docket," in which shall be entered all claims presented against an estate for approval by the court. This docket shall be ruled at proper intervals from top to bottom, with a short note of the contents at the top of each column. One or more pages shall be assigned to each estate. In the first or marginal column shall be entered the names of the claimants in the order in which their claims are filed; in the second, the amount of the claim; in the third, its date; in the fourth, when due; in the fifth, the date from which it bears interest; in the sixth, the rate of interest; in the seventh, when allowed in whole or in part by the executor or administrator; in the eighth, the amount allowed; in the ninth, the date of rejection; in the tenth, the date of filing; in the eleventh, when approved; in the twelfth, the amount approved; in the thirteenth, when disapproved; in the fourteenth, the class to which the claim belongs; in the fifteenth, when established by judgment of a court; in the sixteenth, the amount of such judgment.

Art. 1848. [1797] Said clerk shall also keep a record book, to be styled "Probate fee book," in which shall be entered each item of costs which accrue to the officers of the court, together with witness fees, if any, showing the party to whom such costs or fees are due, the date of the accrual of the same and the estate or party liable therefor.

Art. 1849. [1798] Each record book shall be provided by the clerk with a convenient index, and shall be open to the inspection of any person desiring to examine the same, but shall not be taken from the office of the clerk.

Shall be evidence.

Art. 1850. [1799] Said record books, or certified copies therefrom, shall be evidence in any of the courts of this state.

What papers shall be recorded in probate minutes. P. D. 5772.

Art. 1851. [1800] The following papers of an estate shall be recorded in the probate minutes:

1. All applications for the probate of wills when the probate has been granted.
2. The citation and return thereon in such cases.
3. The will and the testimony upon which the same was admitted to probate.
4. All bonds and the oaths of executors and administrators.
5. The notice to persons holding claims against an estate.
6. All inventories and appraisements and lists of claims.
7. All exhibits and accounts.
8. All reports of hiring, renting or sale.
9. All applications for the sale of real estate.
10. All reports of commissioners of partition.

Papers which have been disapproved by the court, and vouchers and all other papers not above enumerated, shall not be recorded.

And shall be entered of record.

Art. 1853. [1802] All such decisions, orders, decrees and judgments shall be entered on the records of the court, during the term at which the same are rendered, and any such decision, order, decree or judgment shall be a nullity unless entered of record.

Probate docket disposed of promptly. (Acts of 1881, p. 31.)

Art. 1854. [1802a] When the probate docket is taken up, it shall be disposed of with dispatch, without an adjournment of the court for more than three days at any time; and, in case of such adjournment, the reason therefor must appear upon the minutes.

No trial by jury in probate matters. P. D. 5481.

Art. 1855. [1803] There shall be no trial by jury in probate matters, except when expressly provided by law.

Duty of clerk to file papers, etc.

Art. 1856. [1804] The clerk of the county court shall receive and file all applications, complaints, petitions and all other papers permitted or required by law to be filed in said court in estates of decedents, and shall indorse on each paper the date when it was filed, and sign his name officially to such indorsement, and shall also place thereon the docket number of the estate to which it belongs.

Art. 1857. [1805] Said clerk shall issue all necessary notices, citations, writs and process from said court in probate matters without any order from the county judge, unless such order is required by some provision of this title.

Clerk shall issue all notices, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 129, §138.)

Art. 1858. [1806] The county judge shall have power to enforce obedience to all his lawful orders against executors and administrators, by attachment and imprisonment, but no such imprisonment shall exceed three days for any one offense, except in the case provided for in the succeeding article.

Power of court to attach and imprison executor, etc. Ib. p. 129, §135.

Art. 1859. [1807] When complaint shall be made in writing to any county judge that any person has the last will of any testator or testatrix, or any papers belonging to the estate of a testator or intestate, said county judge shall cause said person to be cited to appear before him, either in term time or vacation, and show cause why he should not deliver such will to the court for probate, or why he should not deliver such papers to the executor or administrator, and upon the return of such citation served, unless such will or papers are so delivered or good cause be shown to the court for not delivering the same, the county judge, if satisfied that such person had such will or papers at the time of the complaint being filed, may cause him to be arrested and imprisoned until he shall so deliver them.

Person having will, etc., may be attached, etc. Ib. p. 128, §126.

Art. 1860. [1808] Executions issued from the county court in probate matters shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of a county, shall be made returnable in sixty days, and shall be tested and signed by the clerk officially and sealed with the seal of the court, and all proceedings under such executions shall be governed by the laws regulating proceedings under executions issued from the district court in so far as the same may be applicable.

Executions in probate matters. Ib. p. 129, §135.

Art. 1861. [1809] The county judge shall have the same power to enforce all orders, decrees and judgments heretofore made and rendered in the probate court of his county, as if such orders, decrees or judgments had been made and rendered under the provisions of this title.

County judge may enforce orders, etc., of previous court. Ib. p. 130, §140.

Art. 1862. [1810] All citations in probate matters shall be in writing, dated and signed by the clerk officially, and sealed with the seal of the court, and shall state substantially the nature of the proceeding which the party to be cited is called upon to answer, and the time when and place where such party is required to appear.

Requisites of citation in probate matters.

Art. 1863. [1811] A citation is served either by posting, by delivery in person, or by publication, and when the mode of service is not expressly provided by law, it must be served upon the party to be cited in person, by delivering to him a true copy of such citation at least ten days, exclusive of the day of service, before the day upon which he is required to appear and answer.

Service of citation.

Art. 1864. [1812] When citation is required to be posted, it means for ten days, exclusive of the day of posting, before the day upon which the party is required to appear and answer, at three of the most public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and no two of which shall be in the same city or town, unless the contrary be expressed by the law which provides for such citation.

Service by posting. P. D. 5475.

Mode of posting citation and return of same.
Ib.

Art. 1865. [1813] When a citation is required to be posted, the clerk shall place the original citation, together with three copies thereof, in the hands of the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, who shall post such copies as required by the preceding article, and shall return the original to the clerk, stating in a written return thereon the time when, and the place where, he posted such copies.

Citation by publication. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 129, §137.)

Art. 1866. [1814] In all cases where it is necessary to cite any person by publication, and the manner of citing such person is not otherwise provided for, the citation by publication shall be made in like manner as in suits in the district court.

Rights, etc., of executors, etc., regulated by common law.
Ib. p. 130, §141.

Art. 1867. [1815] The rights, powers and duties of executors and administrators shall be governed by the principles of the common law, when the same do not conflict with any of the provisions of the statutes of this state.

Depositions and rules of evidence.
Ib. p. 129, §136.

Art. 1868. [1816] In all proceedings in the county court, arising under the provisions of this title, the depositions of witnesses may be taken and read in evidence under the same regulations and rules as in the district court, and all laws in relation to witnesses and evidence which govern in the district court shall apply to proceedings in the county court, in so far as the same are applicable.

In whom property vests upon death of testator or intestate.
Ib. p. 127, §125.

Art. 1869. [1817] When a person dies, leaving a lawful will, all of his estate devised or bequeathed by such will shall vest immediately in the devisees or legatees; and all the estate of such person, not devised or bequeathed, shall vest immediately in his heirs at law; but all of such estate, whether devised or bequeathed or not, except such as may be exempted by law from the payment of debts, shall still be liable and subject in their hands to the payment of the debts of such testator or intestate; and whenever a person dies intestate all of his estate shall vest immediately in his heirs at law, but with the exceptions aforesaid shall still be liable and subject in their hands to the payment of the debts of the intestate; but upon the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration upon any such estate, the executor or administrator shall have the right to the possession of the estate as it existed at the death of the testator or intestate, with the exception aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator to recover possession of and hold such estate in trust to be disposed of in accordance with law.

Any person interested in an estate may file opposition, etc.

Art. 1870. [1818] Any person interested in an estate may, at any time before any application, petition, exhibit, account, claim or other proceeding is decided upon by the court, file opposition thereto in writing, and shall be entitled to process for witnesses and evidence, and to be heard upon such opposition as in other suits.

Duty of county judge to call dockets, etc.

Art. 1871. [1819] It shall be the duty of the county judge, at each regular term of his court for probate business, to call the estates in their regular order upon his docket, and also to call the claim docket, and to make such orders as may be necessary. It shall also be his duty to see that executors, administrators and officers perform the duties enjoined upon them by law in all matters pertaining to such estates.

Meaning of "term of court," "docket," and "minutes."

Art. 1872. [1820] When a term of the county court is mentioned in this title, a regular term of said court for probate business is meant, and when the word "docket" is used, the probate docket is meant, and when the word "minutes" is used, the probate minutes are meant.

Art. 1873. [1821] It shall be the duty of the county judge, when he enters an order upon the minutes in vacation, to date and sign the same officially; and at the close of each term of his court he shall in open court sign the minutes of such term officially, after ascertaining that all orders, judgments, decrees and proceedings of the term have been properly entered, and that all papers required to be recorded therein have been so recorded.

Duty of the judge to sign the minutes, etc.

Art. 1874. [1822] Whenever complaint in writing, under oath, shall be made to the county judge, by any person interested in the estate of a decedent, that the executor or administrator of such estate is about to remove said estate or any part thereof beyond the limits of this state, such judge shall have power to order a writ to issue, directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the state, commanding him to seize such estate, or any part thereof, and hold the same subject to such further orders as such judge may make on such complaint; provided, that no such writ shall issue unless the complainant shall give bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in such sum as the said judge may require, payable to the executor or administrator of such estate, conditioned for the payment of all damages and costs that may be recovered for the wrongful suing out of such writ.

Attachment for property of estate may be issued, when. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 129, §133.)

Art. 1875. [1822a] Executors and administrators shall be required to make annual exhibits under oath, fully showing the condition of the estate; they shall be required to make final settlement of the estates they represent within three years from grant of letters, unless the time be extended by the court after satisfactory showing being made under oath; and upon failure in either case, shall be removed as provided in article 2027.

Annual exhibits required; final settlement, when. (Acts of 1881, p. 31.)

Art. 1876. [1823] All exhibits made by executors or administrators, showing a list of claims allowed and approved, or established against the estate they represent, or showing the condition of said estate, and an account of the moneys received and of the moneys paid out on account of said estate, returned to the court before the filing of the account for final settlement of said estate, shall be filed with the clerk, unless otherwise specially provided in this title. Notice of such filing shall be posted on the court house door of the county for which such court is held; and no other action shall be had thereon until the expiration of at least twenty days from the posting of said notice, after which time the county judge shall, in term time, examine said exhibit, and if the same be found to be correct, render judgment of approval thereon and order said exhibit to be recorded.

Twenty days notice of filing of exhibit shall be given, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 109, §68.)

Art. 1877. [1824] An executor or administrator shall be deemed to have duly qualified when he shall have taken the oath required by law, and when he shall have given the bond required by law, and when said bond has been approved and filed. In the case of an executor where no bond is required, he shall be deemed to have been duly qualified when he shall have taken the oath required by law.

When an executor or administrator shall be deemed to have qualified.

Art. 1878. [1825] In all proceedings in the county court arising under the provisions of this title, the depositions of witnesses may be taken and read in evidence, under the same rules and regulations as in the district court, and all laws in relation to witnesses and evidence which govern the district court shall apply to all proceedings in the county court, under the provisions of this title so far as they are applicable.

Depositions and rules of evidence.

Titles made by executor, etc., valid, although, etc.

Art. 1879. [1826] When an executor or administrator, legally qualified as such, has performed any acts as such executor or administrator in conformity with his authority and with law, such acts shall continue to be valid to all intents and purposes, so far as regards the rights of innocent purchasers of any of the property of the estate from such executor or administrator, for a valuable consideration, in good faith, and without notice of any illegality in the title to the same, notwithstanding such acts or the authority under which they were performed may afterward be set aside, annulled and declared invalid.

Sales by foreign executors validated. (Acts of 1893, p. 102.)

Art. 1879a. All sales of real estate within this state, which have been heretofore made by executors of wills, which, prior to such sales, had been probated according to the laws of another state of the United States, having jurisdiction, and which wills possessed the requisites to pass title to real estate required by the statutes of this state, where such wills conferred upon the executors the power to sell the real estate so sold, independent of the probate court, and where such sales would have been valid and effectual to pass the title to such real estate had the wills been probated in this state, be and the same are hereby validated; provided, however, that the validation of such sales shall not defeat the rights of creditors of the testators of such wills, nor affect the title of purchasers for value from the heirs or devisees of the testators of such wills, where such purchases were made prior to the enactment hereof.

Application for letters must be filed within four years after death of testator or intestate. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 94, §2; amend. 1893, p. 6.) P. D. 5505.

Article 1880. [1827] All applications for the grant of letters testamentary or [of] administration upon an estate must be filed within four years after the death of the testator or intestate, and if four years have elapsed between the death of such testator or intestate and the filing of such application, such application shall be refused and dismissed; provided, that this article shall not apply to citizens of this state who have suffered losses by Indian depredations and have died since such loss, and make the application for the purpose of recovering compensation for such loss. In all such cases the proper courts of this state are authorized to grant letters of administration upon the estate of any citizen, without regard to the date of his death, when the applicant for letters alleges in his application that the testator or intestate suffered losses by Indian depreddation and that letters are sought for the purpose of enabling him or her to bring suit in the United States court of claims to recover compensation for such loss, under the act of congress of March 3, 1891, entitled, "An act to provide for the adjudication and payment of claims arising from Indian depreddations."

Art. 1881. [1828] No will shall be admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator, unless it be shown by proof that the party applying for such probate was not in default in failing to present the same for probate within the four years aforesaid, and in no case shall letters testamentary be issued where a will is admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator.

Will shall not be probated after a lapse of four years, unless, etc.

Art. 1882. [1829] Where letters testamentary or of administration shall have once been granted, any person interested in the administration may proceed, after any lapse of time, to compel a settlement of the estate when it does not appear from the record that the administration thereof has been closed.

Administration not barred, when. P. D. 5507.

Art. 1883. [1830] All applications for probate of wills, or for letters testamentary or of administration, shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the county court of the proper county.

Applications shall be in writing and filed. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 94, §2.)

Art. 1884. [1831] An application for the probate of a written will produced in court shall state—

Application for probate of written will produced in court shall state what.

1. The name of the testator and that he is dead, and the time and place of his death.
2. The facts necessary to show that the court has jurisdiction of the estate.
3. The nature and probable value of the estate.
4. The name and residence of the executor named in the will, if any, and if none be named in the will, then the name and residence of the applicant.

5. That such executor or applicant, as the case may be, is not disqualified by law from accepting letters, if letters be desired.

Art. 1885. [1832] The written will shall be filed with the application for the probate thereof, and shall thereafter remain in the office of the clerk with whom it is filed, unless removed therefrom by order of the county or district court.

Will shall be filed with the application, etc.

Art. 1886. [1833] An application for the probate of a written will which can not be produced in court, in addition to the requirements of article 1831, shall state—

What the application shall state where the will can not be produced in court.

1. The reason why such will can not be produced.
2. The contents of such will as far as known.
3. The date of such will and the executor appointed therein, if any, and the names of the subscribing witnesses thereto, if any.
4. The names and residences, if known, of all the heirs at law of the testator, and if not known, that fact shall be stated.

Such application shall be sworn to by the applicant or some credible person.

Art. 1887. [1834] An application for the probate of a nuncupative will, in addition to the requirements of article 1884, shall state—

Application for nuncupative will shall state, what.

1. The substance of the testamentary words spoken.
2. The names and residence of the witnesses thereto.
3. The names and residence, if known, of the heirs at law of the testator, and if not known, that fact shall be stated.

Such application shall be sworn to by the applicant or some credible person.

Application for letters of administration shall state, what.

Art. 1888. [1835] An application for letters of administration shall state—

1. The name of the deceased; that he is dead, and the time and place of his death, and that he died intestate.
2. The facts necessary to show that the court has jurisdiction of the estate.
3. The nature and probable value of the estate.
4. That a necessity exists for an administration upon such estate, setting forth the facts which show such necessity.
5. That the applicant is not disqualified by law to act as administrator.

Citation to issue, and shall state, what.

Art. 1889. [1836] When an application for the probate of a written will, together with such will, is filed with the clerk, or when an application for letters of administration is filed, the clerk shall issue a citation to all parties interested in such estate, which citation shall state—

1. That such application has been filed, and the nature of it.
2. The name of the deceased and of the applicant.
3. The time when and the court by which the application will be acted upon.
4. It shall cite all persons interested in the estate to appear at the time therein named and contest said application should they desire to do so.

Service of such citation, how made.

Art. 1890. [1837] The citation provided for in the preceding article shall be served by posting for at least ten days, exclusive of the day of posting, before the first day of the term of the court to which such citation is returnable.

Citation when will can not be produced, or where it is nuncupative.

Art. 1891. [1838] When the application is for the probate of a written will which can not be produced in court, or for the probate of a nuncupative will, the citation shall contain substantially the statements made in the application, and the time when, place where and court before which such application will be acted upon.

Service of such citation, how made.

Art. 1892. [1839] If the heirs of the testator be residents of this state and their residence be known, the citation provided for in the preceding article shall be served upon them by delivering to each of them in person a true copy of such citation, at least ten days, exclusive of the day of service, before the first day of the term of the court to which such citation is returnable.

Service of such citation, by publication.

Art. 1893. [1840] Service of such citation may be made by publication thereof in a newspaper published in the county in which such citation is issued, if there be one, and if there be none, then in the newspaper which is published nearest to the court house of such county, for four successive weeks previous to the first day of the term of the court to which such citation is returnable, in the following cases:

1. When the heirs are non-residents of this state.
2. When their names or their residences are unknown.
3. When they are transient persons.

No action shall be had until service of citation.

Art. 1894. [1841] No application shall be acted upon until the service of citation has been made in the manner and for the length of time in such case required by the preceding articles of this chapter.

Application may be made to whom. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 95, §6.)

Art. 1895. [1842] Applications for the probate of a will may be made by the testamentary executor, or by any person interested in the estate of the testator, and application for letters of administration upon an estate may be made by any person.

Art. 1896. [1843] When application is made for letters of administration upon an estate by a creditor, and those interested in the estate do not desire an administration thereupon, they can defeat such application—

Administration may be prevented, how. P. D. 5558.

1. By the payment of the claim of such creditor.
2. By proof to the satisfaction of the court that such claim is fictitious, fraudulent, illegal or barred by limitation.
3. By executing a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and to be approved by the county judge, in double the amount of such creditor's debt, conditioned that the obligors will pay the debt of such applicant upon the establishment thereof by suit in any court having jurisdiction of the amount in the county having jurisdiction of such estate.

Art. 1897. [1844] Several creditors may authorize one of their number to apply for letters in behalf of them all; and in such case, the grant of letters can not be defeated without complying with the requirements of the preceding article as to all the claims so represented.

One creditor may apply in behalf of several, etc. P. D. 5559.

Art. 1898. [1845] The bond provided for in article 1896, when given and approved, shall be filed with the clerk of the county court and recorded in the minutes, and any creditor, to secure the payment of whose debt the same was executed, may sue thereon in his own name for the recovery of his debt.

Bond shall be filed, etc.

Art. 1899. [1846] A lien shall exist on all of the estate in the hands of the distributees of such estate, and those claiming under them with notice of such lien, to secure the ultimate payment of the bond provided for in article 1896.

Lien upon estate to secure bond.

Article 1900. [1847] A written will produced in court may be proved—

How a written will which is produced in court may be proved. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 94, §3.)

1. By the written affidavit of one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, taken in open court and subscribed by such witness.
2. If all the witnesses are non-residents of the county, or those resident of the county are unable to attend court, it may be proved by the testimony of any one or more of them taken by deposition.
3. If none of the witnesses are living it may be probated on proof by two witnesses of the handwriting of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and also of the testator, if he was able to write, which proof may be either by affidavit taken in open court and subscribed by the witnesses, or by deposition.
4. If the will was wholly written by the testator it may be probated on proof by two witnesses of his handwriting, which proof may also be made by affidavit taken in open court and subscribed to by the witnesses, or by deposition.

How written will not produced may be proved. (Tyner vs. Paschal, 27 Texas, 286.)

Art. 1901. [1848] A written will which can not be produced in court, upon proof of that fact may be proved in the same manner as provided in the preceding article, and the same amount and character of testimony shall be required to prove such will as is required to prove a written will produced in court.

Nuncupative will shall not be proved, when, etc. Ib. p. 95, §4. P. D. 1264.

Art. 1902. [1849] No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator; nor shall any such will be probated after six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the pretended testamentary words, unless the same, or the substance thereof, shall have been committed to writing within six days after making such will; nor shall any such will be probated unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, at his habitation, or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick away from home and dies before he returns to such habitation.

Nuncupative will must be proved, how. Ib. (10 Texas, 121; 20 Texas, 384.) P. D. 1264.

Art. 1903. [1850] No nuncupative will shall be probated unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import, and if the testimony of such witnesses differs materially as to the testamentary words spoken, or as to the testator's calling upon some one to witness the same, the will shall not be admitted to probate.

Facts which must be proved. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 1904. [1851] Before admitting a will to probate it must be proved to the satisfaction of the court—

1. That the testator, at the time of executing the will, was at least twenty-one years of age, or was married, that he was of sound mind, and that he is dead.
2. That the court has jurisdiction of his estate.
3. That citation has been served and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by law.
4. That the testator executed the will with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make it a valid will.
5. That such will has not been revoked by the testator.

Further proof in case of will which can not be produced in court.

Art. 1905. [1852] If the will be a written will which can not be produced in court, the cause of its non-production must be proved, and such cause must be sufficient to satisfy the court that it can not by any reasonable diligence be produced, and the contents of such will must be substantially proved by the testimony of a credible witness who has read the same or who has heard it read.

All testimony shall be committed to writing, etc. Ib. p. 95, §7.

Art. 1906. [1853] All testimony taken in open court upon the hearing of an application to probate a will, shall be committed to writing at the time it is taken, and subscribed in open court by the witness or witnesses, and filed by the clerk.

Order shall be entered, will, etc., shall be recorded, when.

Art. 1907. [1854] Upon the hearing of an application for the probate of a will, if the court be satisfied from the evidence that such will should be admitted to probate, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, and such will, together with the application for the probate thereof, and all the testimony in the case, shall be recorded in the minutes; provided, that the substance only of depositions shall be so recorded.

Certified copy of record may be read in evidence. Ib. p. 95, §7.

Art. 1908. [1855] A certified copy of such record of testimony may be read in evidence on the trial of the same matter in any other court when taken there by appeal or otherwise.

Will probated in another state or country may be filed and recorded in this state. Ib. §5.

Art. 1909. [1856] When application is made for the probate of a will which has been probated according to the laws of any of the United States or territories, or of any country out of the limits of the United States, a copy of such will and the probate thereof attested by the clerk of the court in which such will was admitted to probate, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate from the judge or presiding magistrate of such court, that the said attestation is in due form, may be filed and recorded in the court, and shall have the same force and effect as the original will, if probated in said court; provided, that the validity of such will may be contested in the same manner as the original might have been.

Article 1910. [1857] Letters testamentary or of administration shall not be granted to any person who is under twenty-one years of age, or of unsound mind; provided, however, that such letters may be granted to a surviving husband or wife who may be under twenty-one years of age.

Who are disqualified from being executors or administrators. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 96, §10.)

Art. 1911. [1858] When a will shall have been probated, it shall be the duty of the court to grant letters testamentary to the executor or executors appointed by such will, if any there be, or to such of them as are not disqualified, and are willing to accept the trust and qualify according to law within twenty days after such probate, except in the case provided for in article 1881.

When a will has been probated letters testamentary shall be granted. Ib, p. 95, §8.

Art. 1912. [1859] When any person shall die intestate, or where no executor is named in a will, or where the executor renounces, dies, becomes of unsound mind, or is removed, or is disqualified, or shall neglect to accept and qualify within twenty days after the probate of the will, or shall neglect for a period of thirty days after the death of the testator to present the will for probate, then administration of the estate of such intestate, or administration with the will annexed of the estate of such testator shall be granted, should administration appear to be necessary.

When administration shall be granted. Ib. §9.

Art. 1913. [1860] No administration upon any estate shall be granted unless it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that there exists a necessity therefor, such necessity to be determined by the court hearing the application.

Administration shall not be granted, unless, etc.

Art. 1914. [1861] Letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted to persons who are qualified to act, in the following order:

Order in which letters shall be granted. Ib.

1. To the person named as executor in the will of the deceased.
2. To the surviving husband or wife.

P. D. 5508.

3. To the principal devisee or legatee of the testator.
4. To any devisee or legatee of the testator.
5. To the next of kin of the deceased, the nearest in the order of descent first, and so on.
6. To a creditor of the deceased.
7. To any person of good character residing in the county.

Where applicants are equally entitled.
P. D. 5512.

Art. 1915. [1862] When applicants are equally entitled, the letters shall be granted to the applicant who, in the judgment of the court, is most likely to administer the estate advantageously, or they may be granted to any two or three of such applicants.

Certain persons entitled to letters may waive right in favor of another, how.

Art. 1916. [1863] The surviving husband or wife, or, if there be no such survivor, the heirs or any one of the heirs of the deceased, to the exclusion of any person not equally entitled, may, in open court or by power of attorney, duly authenticated and filed with the clerk of the county court of the county having jurisdiction of the estate, renounce his right to the administration in favor of some other qualified person, and thereupon the court may grant letters to such other person.

Letters revoked and granted to person having prior right.
Ib. p. 96, §§13, 14.
P. D. 5518.

Art. 1917. [1864] Where letters have been granted to one, and another, whose right thereto is prior and who has not waived such right and who is not disqualified, makes application for letters, the letters previously granted shall be revoked and other letters shall be granted to the person thus entitled.

Letters revoked and granted to executor upon attaining lawful age.
Ib. p. 96, §11.

Art. 1918. [1865] Whenever any person named as executor in a will is under age, and letters of administration, with the will annexed, have been granted to any other person, such executor shall, upon proof that he has attained the age of twenty-one years and is not disqualified otherwise, be entitled to have such letters of administration revoked and letters testamentary granted to himself. And when two or more persons are named executors in a will, any one or more of whom are minors when such will is admitted to probate, and letters testamentary have been issued to such only as are of full age, such minor or minors, upon attaining the age of twenty-one years, if not disqualified, shall be permitted to qualify and receive letters.

Executor absent from the state, etc., may qualify within what time, etc.
Ib. p. 96, §12.

Art. 1919. [1866] Whenever any person named as executor in a will shall have been absent from the state when the testator died or when the will was proved, whereby he was prevented from presenting the will for probate within thirty days after the death of the testator, or from accepting and qualifying as executor within twenty days after the probate of the will, or whenever he shall have been prevented by sickness from so presenting the will or from so accepting and qualifying, he shall be allowed to accept and qualify as executor at any time within sixty days after his return to the state or his recovery from sickness, upon making proof to the court that he was so absent or prevented by sickness; and if in the meantime letters of administration have been granted, such letters shall be revoked.

Letters shall not be revoked except upon application and citation.

Art. 1920. [1867] Letters shall not be revoked and other letters granted under the provisions of either of the four preceding articles, unless application therefor has been filed and the executor or administrator has been cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why such application should not be granted; but in such cases when the letters are revoked, other letters may be granted without the posting of citation as in other cases.

Art. 1921. [1868] Whenever letters of administration shall have been granted upon an estate, and it shall afterward be discovered that the deceased left a lawful will, such will may be proved in the manner provided for the proof of wills; and if an executor is named in such will, and he is not disqualified, he shall be allowed to qualify and accept as such executor, and the letters previously granted shall be revoked; but if no such executor be named in the will, or if the executor named be disqualified, or shall renounce the executorship, or shall neglect to accept and qualify within twenty days after the date of the probate of the will, or shall neglect for a period of thirty days after the discovery of such will to present it for probate, then administration with the will annexed of the estate of such testator shall be granted as in other cases. All acts done by the first administrator, previous to the qualification of the executor or administrator with the will annexed, shall be as valid as if no such will had been discovered.

When will is discovered after grant of administration.
Ib. p. 97, §15.

Art. 1922. [1869] When a will has been admitted to probate in any of the United States or territories thereof, or in the District of Columbia, or in any country out of the limits of the United States, and the executor named in such will has qualified, and a copy of such will and the probate thereof has been filed and recorded in any county court of this state having jurisdiction of the estate, and letters of administration have been granted by such court to any person other than such executor, upon the application of such executor, and after citation served upon the person to whom such letters have been granted, such letters shall be revoked, and letters testamentary shall be granted to such applicant.

Executor of another state entitled to letters within this state, when.
Ib. p. 97, §16.
P. D. 5517.

Art. 1923. [1870] In the case provided for in the preceding article the executor shall be required to give bond as in other cases, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, and the order revoking the former letters shall not take effect until such executor has qualified in accordance with law.

Bond shall be required as in other cases.
P. D. 5517.

Art. 1924. [1871] Whenever an estate is unrepresented by reason of the death, removal or resignation of the executor or administrator, the court shall grant further administration upon such estate when necessary, and with the will annexed, where there is a will, in the same manner and under the same regulations provided for the appointment of original executors or administrators.

Further administration shall be granted, when.
Ib. p. 97, §18.

Art. 1925. [1872] Whenever any person has been removed from the executorship or administration of an estate, he shall not afterward be appointed administrator thereof.

Executor, etc., who has been removed, shall not afterward be appointed, etc.
Ib. p. 100, §23.

Art. 1926. [1873] Before granting letters testamentary it must appear to the court—

What facts must appear before granting letters testamentary.
Ib. p. 94, §2.

1. That the person is dead.
2. That four years have not elapsed since his decease prior to the application.
3. That the court has jurisdiction of the estate.
4. That the will has been proved as prescribed by law.
5. That the person to whom the letters are to be granted is named as executor in the will.
6. That the person named as executor is not disqualified by law.

The first three subdivisions of this article have no application where letters of administration upon such estate have been previously granted in said court.

What facts must appear before grant of letters of administration.

Ib. p. 94, §2.

Art. 1927. [1874] Before granting letters of administration it must appear to the court—

1. That the person is dead.
2. That four years have not elapsed since his decease prior to the application.
3. That the court has jurisdiction of the estate.
4. That there is a necessity for an administration upon such estate.
5. That the person to whom the letters are about to be granted is entitled thereto by law and is not disqualified.

The first three subdivisions of this article have no application when letters testamentary or of administration have been previously granted upon such estate by said court.

Order of court granting letters.

Art. 1928. [1875] When letters testamentary or of administration are granted by the court, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, which order shall state—

1. The name of the testator or intestate.
2. The name of the person to whom the grant of letters is made.
3. If bond is required, the amount thereof.
4. The order shall require the clerk of the court to issue letters in accordance with such order, when the person to whom such letters are granted shall have qualified according to law.

Grant of letters may be opposed, etc.

Art. 1929. [1876] When application is made for letters of administration, any person may at any time before the said application is granted, file his opposition thereto in writing, and may apply for the grant of letters to himself or to any other person; and upon the trial the court shall grant letters to the person that may seem best entitled to them, having regard to the provisions of this title, without further notice than that of the original application.

County judge may appoint temporary administrator, when. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 98, §20.)

Article 1930. [1877] Whenever it may appear to the county judge that the interest of an estate requires the immediate appointment of an administrator, he shall, either in open court or in vacation, by writing under his hand and the seal of the court, attested by the clerk, appoint some suitable person temporary administrator with such limited powers as the circumstances of the case may require.

Appointment may be made without application, etc. Ib. p. 98, §20.

Art. 1931. [1878] Such appointment may be made either upon written application or without such application, and without citation. It shall define the powers conferred, and before being delivered to the person appointed shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and the clerk shall indorse thereon a certificate that it has been so recorded, and until such record and certificate are made such appointment shall not take effect.

Art. 1932. [1879] Such appointment shall not be delivered or take effect until the person appointed has taken the oath and has given bond as required by law. Oath and bond required. Ib. p. 98, §22.

Art. 1933. [1880] Such appointment shall cease to be of force on the day designated for taking up probate business at the first term of the court held next after the date thereof, unless at such term it be continued in force by an order entered upon the minutes in open court; and in no case shall such appointment continue in force beyond the day designated. Appointment shall cease to be of force, when. Ib. p. 98, §20.

Art. 1934. [1881] Pending any contest relative to the probate of a will, or the granting of letters of administration, whether such contest be in the county court or in the district court, it shall be the duty of the county judge, should he deem it necessary, to appoint a temporary administrator in the manner prescribed in the preceding articles in this chapter, with such limited powers as the circumstances of the case may require; and such appointment may continue in force until the termination of the contest and the appointment of an executor or administrator with full powers. Pending contest the county judge may appoint temporary administrator. Ib. p. 98, §21.

Art. 1935. [1882] Temporary administrators shall have and exercise only such rights and powers with regard to the estate, or such portions thereof as may be committed to their charge, as are specifically and clearly expressed in the order of the court appointing them, and any acts performed by them as such administrators that are not so expressly authorized shall be void. Rights and powers of temporary administrator.

Art. 1936. [1883] At the expiration of the time for which a temporary administrator has been appointed, he shall file with the clerk of the court a list of all the property of the estate which has come to his hands, a return of all sales made by him, and a full exhibit and account of all his acts as such administrator, all of which shall be verified by his affidavit. List, return of sales, exhibit and account shall be made. P. D. 5531.

Art. 1937. [1884] The list, return, exhibit and account required to be made by the temporary administrator under the preceding article shall be acted upon by the court at the same or a subsequent term, and whenever temporary letters shall expire, or cease to be of effect from any cause, the court shall immediately, either in term time or in vacation, enter an order upon the probate minutes requiring such temporary administrator to forthwith deliver the estate remaining in his possession to the person legally entitled to the possession of the same. List, etc., shall be acted upon by the court.

Oath of executor or administrator with will annexed. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 100, §30.)

Article 1938. [1885] Before the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration with the will annexed, the person named executor or appointed administrator with the will annexed shall take and subscribe an oath in form as follows: "I do solemnly swear that the writing which has been offered for probate is the last will of _____, so far as I know or believe, and that I will well and truly perform all the duties of executor of said will (or 'of administrator with the will annexed,' as the case may be) of the estate of said _____."

Oath of administrator. Ib. p. 100, §31.

Art. 1939. [1886] Before the issuance of letters of administration, the person appointed administrator shall take and subscribe an oath in form as follows: "I do solemnly swear that _____, deceased, died without leaving any lawful will, so far as I know, or believe, and that I will well and truly perform all the duties of administrator of the estate of said deceased."

Oath of temporary administrator. Ib. p. 98, §22.

Art. 1940. [1887] Before the issuance of temporary letters of administration, the person appointed temporary administrator shall take and subscribe an oath in form as follows: "I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly perform the duties of temporary administrator of the estate of _____, deceased, in accordance with law, and with the order of the court appointing me such administrator."

Oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths, etc.

Art. 1941. [1888] The oaths prescribed by the three preceding articles may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court granting the letters, and shall be recorded in the minutes of such court.

Bond of executors and administrators. Ib. p. 100, §32.

Art. 1942. [1889] Before the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration, the person to whom letters are granted shall enter into bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties, who shall be bona fide residents of this state, to be approved by and payable to the county judge of the county, in such penalty as he may direct, not less than double the estimated value of the estate of the testator or intestate, except in the case of a temporary administrator, when the bond shall be in such sum as the county judge may direct.

Form of bond. Ib. p. 101, §34.

Art. 1943. [1890] The following form, or the same in substance, may be used for the bonds of executors and administrators:

"The State of Texas,

"County of _____

"Know all men by these presents, that we, A B as principal, and C D and E F as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the county judge of the county of _____, and his successors in office, in the sum of _____ dollars; conditioned that the above bound A B, who has been appointed executor of the last will and testament of J C, deceased, (or 'has been appointed by the county judge of _____ county, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of J C, deceased,' or 'has been appointed by the county judge of _____ county, administrator of the estate of J C, deceased,' or, 'has been appointed by the county judge of _____ county, temporary administrator of the estate of J C, deceased,' as the case may be), shall well and truly perform all the duties required of him under said appointment.

"A B,
"C D,
"E F."

Art. 1944. [1891] The oath of an executor or administrator may be taken and subscribed, or his bond may be given and approved, either in term time or vacation, at any time before the expiration of twenty days from the probate of the will or the order granting the letters, or before his letters shall have been revoked for a failure to qualify within the time allowed.

Oath and bond within what time.
Ib. p. 101, §33.

Art. 1945. [1892] All bonds of executors and administrators when approved shall be filed with the clerk of the court and shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

Bond shall be filed and recorded.
Ib. p. 101, §33.

Art. 1946. [1893] When any testator shall direct in his will that no security shall be required of the person named therein as executor, letters testamentary shall be issued to such person without any bond being required, except in the case provided for in article 1923, in which case bond is required, notwithstanding the will may provide to the contrary.

When will provides that no bond shall be required.
Ib. p. 101, §32.

Art. 1947. [1894] When a married woman may be appointed executrix or administratrix, she may, jointly with her husband, or without her husband, if he be absent from the state, or insane, or refuses to join with her, execute such bond as the law requires and acknowledge the same before the county judge, county clerk or any notary public of the county where the will was proved or letters were granted; and such bond shall bind her separate estate in the same manner as if she were unmarried, but shall not bind her husband as surety unless he sign and be approved as such.

Bond of married woman.
Ib. p. 101, §35.
P. D. 5571.

Art. 1948. [1895] When a surviving husband or wife under twenty-one years of age shall wish to accept and qualify as executor or executrix, or administrator or administratrix, he or she may execute such bonds as the law requires and acknowledge the same before the county judge, county clerk or any notary public of the county in which the will was proved or letters of administration were granted, and such bonds shall be as valid as if he or she were of lawful age.

Bond of a husband or wife who is a minor.
Ib. p. 101, §36.

Art. 1949. [1896] An executor or administrator may be required to give a new bond in the following cases:

When new bond may be required.
Ib. pp. 101, 102, §§37, 39.

1. When the sureties upon the bond or any one of them shall die, remove beyond the limits of the state, or become insolvent.

2. When in the opinion of the county judge the sureties upon any such bond are insufficient.

3. When in the opinion of the county judge any such bond is defective.

4. When the amount of any such bond is insufficient.

5. When the sureties or any one of them petition the court to be discharged from future liability upon such bond.

6. When the bond and the record thereof have been lost or destroyed.

Duty of county judge to require new bond, when.

Art. 1950. [1897] When it shall come to the knowledge of the county judge that any such bond is in any respect insufficient or that it has, together with the record thereof, been lost or destroyed, it shall be his duty without delay to cause the executor or administrator to be cited to show cause why he should not give a new bond.

Any person interested in estate may demand new bond.
Ib. p. 102, §38.

Art. 1951. [1898] Any person interested in an estate may, upon application in writing filed with the county clerk of the county where the administration is pending, alleging that the bond of the executor or administrator is insufficient or defective, or has been, together with the record thereof, lost or destroyed, cause such executor or administrator to be cited to appear and show cause why he should not give a new bond.

Sureties may ask to be discharged, and for new bond.
Ib. §39.

Art. 1952. [1899] The sureties upon the bond of an executor or administrator, or any one of these, may, at any time, present a petition to the county judge praying that such executor or administrator may be required to give a new bond, and that he or they may be discharged from all liability for the future acts of such executor or administrator, whereupon such executor or administrator shall be cited to appear and give a new bond.

Citation to executor or administrator.

Art. 1953. [1900] The citations required in the three preceding articles may be issued either in term time or in vacation, and shall require the party cited to appear before the county judge on some day named therein, not later than ten days from the date of such citation, either in term time or in vacation, and five days service thereof, exclusive of the day of service, shall be sufficient.

Order requiring new bond.
Ib. p. 102.

Art. 1954. [1901] Upon the return of any such citation served, the county judge shall, on the day named in such citation for the hearing of the matter, whether it be in term time or in vacation, proceed to inquire into the sufficiency of the reasons for requiring a new bond, and if satisfied that a new bond should be required he shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes, stating in such order the amount of such new bond, and the time within which it shall be given, which shall not be later than twenty days from the date of such order.

After order requiring new bond, functions of executor, etc., suspended.
Ib. p. 102, §40.

Art. 1955. [1902] Whenever an executor or administrator has been required to give a new bond, the order requiring such bond shall have the effect to suspend the powers of such executor or administrator, and he shall not thereafter pay out any money of said estate or do any other official act except to preserve the property of the estate, until such new bond has been given and approved.

Sureties discharged when new bond is approved.
Ib. §39.

Art. 1956. [1903] When a new bond has been given and approved the sureties upon the former bond of such executor or administrator are thereby discharged from all liability for the future acts of such executor or administrator, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Bond shall not be void on first recovery, etc.

Art. 1957. [1904] The bonds of executors and administrators shall not become void upon the first recovery, but may be put in suit and prosecuted from time to time until the whole amount thereof shall have been recovered.

Article 1963. [1910] Whenever letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted, the county judge shall, by an order entered on the minutes of the court, appoint three or more disinterested persons, citizens of the county, any two of whom may act, to appraise the estate of the deceased. Appointment of appraisers. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 103, §43.)

Art. 1964. [1911] If from any cause such appointment be not made, or if the appraisers, or any of them so appointed, fail to act, or if from any other cause a new appointment is required, the county judge shall by a like order, either in term time or vacation, appoint another appraiser or appraisers, as the case may require. Same subject.

Art. 1965. [1912] Every executor or administrator shall, immediately after the issuance of the letters, make and file in the court a true and correct inventory of the real and personal estate of the decedent, and a list of the claims against the estate. Inventory and appraisal. Ib. p. 103, §44.

diately after he has qualified as such, with the assistance of any two or more of the appraisers appointed by the county judge, make, or cause to be made, a full inventory and appraisal of all the estate of the testator or intestate, both real and personal, specifying in such inventory what portion of said estate is the separate property of the deceased, and what portion, if any, is represented as common property.

Appraisalment shall be sworn to.

Ib. p. 103, §44.

Art. 1966. [1913] The appraised value of each article of property shall be stated opposite such article in the inventory, and such appraisalment shall be sworn to and subscribed by the appraisers making the same before some officer of the county where the same is made, authorized by law to administer oaths.

List of claims.

Ib. p. 103, §44.

Art. 1967. [1914] Such executor or administrator shall also make and attach to said inventory a full and complete list of all claims due or owing to the testator or intestate, stating the nature of such claims, the names of the parties owing the same, the date thereof and the date when due, and the rate of interest each one bears, and shall also specify what portion of such claims is the separate property of the deceased, and what portion, if any, is represented as common property.

Inventory and list shall be sworn to.

Ib. p. 103, §44.

Art. 1968. [1915] Such executor or administrator shall also attach to such inventory and list his affidavit in writing, subscribed and sworn to by him, before some officer of the county authorized by law to administer oaths, that the said inventory and list is a full and complete inventory and list of the property and claims of his testator or intestate that have come to his knowledge.

Shall be returned within sixty days.

Ib. p. 103, §45.

Art. 1969. [1916] The inventory, appraisalment and list required to be made by the preceding articles of this chapter shall be returned to the court granting the letters, either in term time or in vacation, within sixty days from the date of granting such letters.

Court shall approve or disapprove same.

Ib.

Art. 1970. [1917] Upon the return of any such inventory, appraisalment and list, it shall be the duty of the judge, either in term time or in vacation, to examine the same, and to either approve or disapprove the same.

Order of approval.

Art. 1971. [1918] Should the inventory, appraisalment and list be approved by the judge, he shall cause an order to that effect to be entered upon the minutes, either in term time or in vacation, and shall cause such inventory and list to be recorded upon said minutes.

Order of disapproval.

Art. 1972. [1919] Should the inventory, appraisalment and list, or either of them, be disapproved, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, either in term time or in vacation, and such order shall further require the executor or administrator to return another inventory, appraisalment and list, or either of them, within a time which shall be specified in such order, not to exceed ten days from the date of such order; and the judge may also, if he deems it necessary, appoint new appraisers.

Duty of executor, etc., to make additional inventory.

Ib. p. 103, §46.

Art. 1973. [1920] Whenever property or claims of the testator or intestate other than such as may be included in the inventory and list, which have been returned, shall come to the knowledge of the executor or administrator, he shall make and return an additional inventory or list, or both, of such newly discovered property or claims or both, without delay; and upon the return of any such additional inventory, the county judge shall, either in term time or in vacation, appoint appraisers and cause the property named in such additional inventory to be appraised as in the case of original appraisements.

Art. 1974. [1921] Any executor or administrator, on the complaint in writing of any person interested in the estate, shall be cited to appear before the court in which the administration was granted, at a regular term thereof, and show cause why he should not be required to make and return an additional inventory or list of claims, or both.

May be cited to make, etc.
Ib. p. 103, §46.

Art. 1975. [1922] Upon the hearing of such complaint the court shall, on sufficient proof being made that any property or claims of the estate have not been included in the inventory and list returned, require an additional inventory or list, or both, as the case may be, to be made and returned, including such property or claims, in like manner as original inventories and lists, and within such time as may be fixed by the court by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes.

Order requiring additional inventory.
Ib. p. 103, §46.

Art. 1976. [1923] Any executor or administrator, on complaint in writing of any person interested in the estate, setting forth that an error has been made in the inventory or list of claims returned, and pointing out such error, shall be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why such alleged error should not be corrected; and if upon the hearing of such complaint it appear to the satisfaction of the court that such inventory or list is in any particular erroneous, such error shall be corrected and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, specifying such error and the correction thereof.

Erroneous inventory or list may be corrected.

Art. 1977. [1924] Any person interested in the estate who may deem any appraisement returned therein unjust or erroneous, may, upon complaint in writing, cause the executor or administrator to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why a new appraisement should not be made.

New appraisement may be required.
Ib. p. 104, §48.

Art. 1978. [1925] Upon the hearing of such complaint, if the court be satisfied that such appraisement was manifestly unjust or erroneous, an order shall be entered upon the minutes appointing appraisers and requiring a new appraisement to be made and returned in like manner as original appraisements.

Order for same.
Ib.

Art. 1979. [1926] When any such new appraisement is made, returned and approved by the court, it shall stand in the place of the original appraisement of the same property.

New appraisement stands in place of original.
Ib. p. 104, §48.

Art. 1980. [1927] Not more than one reappraisement shall be made, but any person interested in the estate may contest the approval of any appraisement by filing his objections thereto in writing at any time before such appraisement has been approved by the court.

Not more than one reappraisement.
Ib.

Art. 1981. [1928] All inventories and appraisements and lists of claims which have been taken, returned and approved in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or the record thereof, or certified copies of either the originals or the record thereof, may be given in evidence in any of the courts of this state in any suit, by or against the executor or administrator, but shall not be conclusive for or against him, if it be shown—

Shall be evidence to what extent.
Ib. p. 104, §47.

1. That there is other property belonging to the estate not inventoried; or,
2. That there are other claims belonging to the estate other than those named in the list; or,
3. That certain property or claims named in the list did not belong to the estate; or,
4. That the property was not separate or common property as specified in such inventory or list; or,

5. That the property or any part thereof was sold legally and in good faith for less than the appraised value thereof.

Where more than one executor or administrator qualifies and some neglect to return inventory, etc. Ib. p. 98, §23.

Art. 1982. [1929] If there be more than one executor or administrator qualified as such, any one or more of them, on the neglect of the others, may return an inventory and appraisement and list of claims as required by the provisions of this chapter; and the executor or administrator so neglecting shall not thereafter interfere with the estate or have any power over the same; but the executor or administrator so returning shall have thereafter the whole administration unless within sixty days after the return the delinquent or delinquents shall assign to the court in writing and under oath some reasonable excuse which the court may deem satisfactory; and if no such sufficient excuse shall be assigned within said time, an order shall be entered upon the minutes removing such delinquent or delinquents and revoking his or their letters.

What care to take of property of estate. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 104, §49.)

Article 1983. [1930] It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to take such care of the property of the estate of his testator or intestate as a prudent man would take of his own property, and if there be any buildings belonging to the estate it shall be his duty to keep the same in tenable repair, extraordinary casualties excepted, unless directed not to do so by an order of the court.

Duty in regard to plantation, manufactory or business. Ib. p. 104, §50.

Art. 1984. [1931] If there be a plantation, manufactory or business belonging to the estate, and the disposition thereof is not specially directed by will, and if the same be not required to be at once sold for the payment of debts, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to carry on the plantation, manufactory or business, or cause the same to be done, or to rent the same, as shall appear to him to be most for the interest of the estate. In coming to a determination he shall take into consideration the condition of the estate and the necessity that may exist for future sale of such property for the payment of claims or legacies, and shall not extend the time of renting any of the property beyond what may consist with the speedy settlement of the estate.

Action of executor, etc., in regard to plantation, etc., may be controlled by court. Ib. p. 104, §50.

Art. 1985. [1932] Any person interested in the estate may, upon complaint in writing, after citation of the executor or administrator, at a regular term of the court upon good cause shown, obtain an order of the court, which shall be entered upon the minutes, controlling the action of such executor or administrator in regard to such plantation, manufactory or business.

Ordinary diligence shall be used to collect claims and recover property of estate. Ib. p. 104, §52.

Art. 1986. [1933] Every executor or administrator shall use ordinary diligence to collect every claim due to the estate he represents, and to recover possession of all property to which the estate has a right; provided, there is a reasonable prospect that such claim can be collected or such property recovered, and if any executor or administrator shall neglect to use such diligence, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable, at the suit of any person interested in the estate, for the use of the estate, for the amount of such claims or the value of such property as may have been lost by his neglect to use such diligence.

Art. 1987. [1934] Whenever an executor or administrator may deem it for the interest of the estate he represents to purchase any property or to exchange any property, or take any claims or property for the use and benefit of the estate in payment of any debt due the estate, or to compound bad or doubtful debts due the estate, or to make compromises or settlements in relation to property or claims in dispute or litigation, it shall be his duty to present an application in writing to the county court, at a regular term thereof, representing the facts; and if the court upon the hearing of such application shall be satisfied that it will be for the interest of the estate to grant the same, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, setting forth fully the authority granted.

Property may be purchased, compromises made, etc., under order of the court.
Ib. p. 105, §54.
P. D. 5622.

Art. 1988. [1935] When a mortgagee dies his executor or administrator, on receipt of the amount due on the mortgage, is authorized to release such mortgage.

Power to release mortgage.
Ib. p. 105, §55.
P. D. 5638.

Art. 1989. [1936] Should there be more than one executor or administrator of the same estate at the same time, the acts of one of them as such executor or administrator shall be as valid as if all had acted jointly, and in case of the death, resignation or removal of an executor or administrator, if there be a co-executor or co-administrator of such estate, he shall proceed with the administration as if no such death, resignation or removal had occurred.

Acts of one co-executor or co-administrator valid.

Art. 1990. [1937] The preceding article shall not be construed to authorize one of several executors to convey real estate, but in such case all the executors who have qualified as such and who are acting as such shall join in such conveyance.

Preceding article does not apply, when.

Directions in will to be executed, unless, etc.
P. D. 5623.

Proceedings to annul directions in will.

Art. 1992. [1939] Such proceeding shall be by application in writing, filed with the clerk of the court, setting forth the provisions and directions in the will that are objected to, and the grounds of objection.

Citation to executor, etc., in such case.

Art. 1993. [1940] Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue a citation for the executor or administrator with the will annexed to appear at a regular term of such court and answer such application, the substance of which application shall be set forth in the citation, and such citation shall further direct such executor or administrator to refrain from executing the provisions and directions in the will that are objected to, until such application has been heard and decided by the court.

Order of the court in such case.

Art. 1994. [1941] If it appear upon the hearing of such application that no material injury to the interests of the applicant will be occasioned by executing the provisions and directions of the will, and that such provisions and directions are legal, the objections shall be overruled, and the provisions and directions objected to shall be confirmed and executed, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes; otherwise an order shall be entered upon the minutes of the court annulling the provisions and directions in the will to which objections are sustained, or suspending the execution of the same until the further order of the court.

Testator may provide that no action be had in the court, except probate of will, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 124, §117.

Art. 1995. [1942] Any person capable of making a will may so provide in his will that no other action shall be had in the county court in relation to the settlement of his estate than the probating and recording of his will, and the return of an inventory, appraisal and lists of claims of his estate.

Creditor may sue executor in such case. Ib. p. 124, §117.

Art. 1996. [1943] In the cases mentioned in the preceding article any person having a debt or claim against said estate may enforce the payment of the same by suit against the executor of such will, and when judgment is recovered against the executor, the execution shall run against the estate of the testator in the hands of the executor that may be subject to such debt; but no such executor shall be required to plead to any suit brought against him for money until the expiration of twelve months from the date of the probate of such will.

Executor without bond may be required to give bond, when. Ib. p. 124, §117.

Art. 1997. [1944] In cases where no bond has been required of an executor, any person having a debt, claim or demand against the estate, to the justice of which oath has been made by himself, his agent or attorney, or any person interested in such estate, whether in person or as the representative of another, may, by complaint in writing filed in the court where such will was probated, cause such executor to appear before such court at some regular term and show cause why he should not be required to give bond as such executor.

Order requiring bond. Ib. p. 124, §117.

Art. 1998. [1945] Upon the hearing of such complaint if it be made to appear by proof to the satisfaction of the court that such executor is wasting, mismanaging or misapplying such estate, and that thereby said creditor may probably lose his debt, or such person his interest in the estate, it shall be the duty of the court to enter an order upon the minutes requiring such executor to give bond within ten days from the date of such order.

Bond in such case. Ib. p. 125, §117.

Art. 1999. [1946] Such bond shall be signed by the executor with two or more good and sufficient sureties for an amount equal to double the full value of the estate, to be approved by and payable to the county judge of the county, conditioned that said executor will well and truly administer such estate, and that he will not waste, mismanage or misapply the same; which bond shall be filed, and when approved by the county judge shall be recorded in the minutes, and may be recovered upon as other bonds given by executors and administrators.

Art. 2000. [1947] Should such executor fail to give such bond within ten days after the order requiring him to do so, then it shall be the duty of the county judge, without citation, and either in term time or in vacation, to remove such executor and appoint some competent person in his stead, whose duty it shall be to administer said estate according to the provisions of such will, and who, before he enters upon the administration of said estate, shall take the oath required of executors and shall give the bond required in the preceding article.

Should executor fail to give required bond.
Ib. p. 125, §117.

Art. 2001. [1948] If such will does not distribute the entire estate of the testator, or provide a means for partition of said estate, the executor shall have the right to file his final account in the court in which the will was probated, and ask partition and distribution of the estate, and the same shall be partitioned and distributed in the manner provided for the partition and distribution of estates administered under the direction of the court.

Estate may be partitioned and divided by court, when.
Ib. p. 125, §117.

Art. 2002. [1949] When it is provided in a will that no action shall be had in the county court except to probate and record the will and return an inventory of the estate, any person having a debt against such estate may, by complaint in writing filed in the court where such will was probated, cause all the persons entitled to any portion of such estate under the will or as heirs at law to be cited to appear before such court at some regular term and execute an obligation, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, for an amount equal to the full value of such estate as shown by the inventory and list claims, such obligation to be payable to the county judge, and to be approved by him, and conditioned that the obligors shall pay all debts that may be established against such estate in the manner provided by law.

Heirs, etc., may be required to give bond, when.
Ib. p. 126, §123.

Art. 2003. [1950] Upon the return of the citation served, unless such persons so entitled to any portion of the estate, or some of them, or some other person for them, shall execute such obligation to the satisfaction of the county judge, such estate shall thereafter be administered and settled under the direction of the court as other estates are required to be settled.

Upon failure to give bond estate shall be administered under direction of the court.
Ib. p. 126, §123.

Art. 2004. [1951] If the obligation provided for in article 2002 is executed and approved, it shall be filed and recorded in the minutes of the court, and no further action shall be had in said court in relation to said estate, except in the case mentioned in article 2001, in which case the action therein provided for may be had.

Bond shall be filed and recorded.
Ib.

Art. 2005. [1952] Every creditor of such estate shall have the right to sue on such obligation in any court having jurisdiction of the debt, and shall be entitled to judgment thereon for such debt as he may establish against the estate, or such creditors may have their action against those in possession of the estate.

Creditor may sue on bond, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2006. [1953] All costs of the proceedings, provided for in the four last preceding articles, shall be paid by the persons entitled to such estate, according to their respective interests in such estate.

Costs of such proceeding to be paid by whom.
Ib.

Art. 2007. [1954] Whenever in a will power is given to an executor to sell any property of the testator, no order of the county judge shall be necessary to authorize the executor to make such sale, and when any particular directions are given by a testator in his will respecting the sale of any property belonging to his estate, the same shall be followed, unless such directions have been annulled or suspended by order of the court as hereinbefore provided.

Personal property reserved from sale by will. Ib. p. 130, §146.

Art. 2008. [1955] If a testator in his will directs his personal estate or any part thereof not to be sold, the same shall be reserved from sale, unless such sale be necessary for the payment of debts.

Administration under will same as intestates' estates, except, etc.

Art. 2009. [1956] The administration of an estate under a will shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the law respecting the administration of intestates' estates, except where it is otherwise provided by law or by the provisions and directions of the will.

Legatee or devisee may obtain order for delivery of legacy or bequest, when and how. Ib. p. 110, §70.

Art. 2010. [1957] Any devisee or legatee may obtain from the county judge of the county where the will was proved an order for the executor or administrator, with the will annexed, to deliver to him the property devised or bequeathed, whenever it shall appear to such county judge that there will remain in the hands of such executor or administrator, with the will annexed, after such delivery, a sufficient amount of the estate for the payment of all debts against said estate; provided, such devisee shall have first caused the executor or administrator, and the other devisees or legatees, if any, and the heirs, if any of the estate is coming to them, to be cited to appear and show cause why such order should not be made.

Naming an executor in a will does not release him from a debt, etc. Ib. p. 105, §53.

Art. 2011. [1958] The naming an executor in a will shall not operate to extinguish any just claim which the deceased had against him; and in all cases where an executor or administrator may be indebted to his testator or intestate, he shall account for the debt in the same manner as if it were so much money in his hands; provided, however, that if said debt was not due at the time of receiving letters, he shall only be required to account for it from the date when it shall become due.

Subsequent administrator under a will shall succeed to rights of executor, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 93, §24.)

Article 2012. [1959] When an administrator of the estate not administered has been or shall be hereafter appointed he shall succeed to all the rights, powers and duties of the former executor or administrator, except such rights and powers conferred on the former executor by the will of the testator as are different from those conferred by this title on executors generally.

Powers of subsequent administrator. Ib.

Art. 2013. [1960] Such administrator shall have power to make himself party to all suits prosecuted by the former executor or administrator of the estate, and may be made a party to all suits prosecuted against the former executor or administrator of the estate. He shall have power to settle with the former executor or administrator of the estate, and to receive and receipt for all such portion of the estate as remains in his hands. He shall have power to bring suit on the bond or bonds of the former executor or administrator, in his own name as administrator, for all the estate that has not been accounted for by such former executor or administrator.

Art. 2014. [1961] Such administrator shall proceed to administer such estate in like manner as if his administration was a continuation of the administration of the former executor or administrator, with the exceptions hereinbefore named.

How subsequent administration shall proceed.
Ib.

Art. 2015. [1962] Whenever an executor shall accept and qualify as such after letters of administration shall have been granted upon the estate, such executor shall, in like manner, succeed to the previous administrator, and he shall proceed to administer the estate in like manner as if his administration was a continuation of the former one, subject, however, to any legal directions of the testator contained in his will, in relation to the estate.

Same as to executor after administration.
Ib.

Art. 2016. [1963] An executor or administrator who has been qualified as such to succeed a prior administrator or executor shall make and return to the court an inventory and appraisement and list of claims of the estate, within one month after being qualified, in like manner as is required of original executors and administrators; and they shall also in like manner return additional inventories and lists of claims.

Inventories, etc., to be returned in one month.
Ib. p. 98, §24.

Article 2017. [1964] At any time after the return of the inventory, appraisement and list of claims of a deceased person, any one entitled to a portion of said estate as heir, devisee or legatee, or his guardian, if he be a minor, may, by a complaint in writing, filed in the court where such inventory, appraisement and list of claims have been returned, cause the executor or administrator of the estate to be cited to appear at some regular term of the court and render an exhibit under oath of the condition of such estate.

Persons entitled to estate may cause executor or administrator to be cited, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 126, §124.)

Art. 2018. [1965] Upon the return of such citation served, the persons so entitled to such estate, or any of them, or any persons for them, may execute and deliver to the county judge an obligation payable to him, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such county judge, for an amount equal to at least double the appraised value of the estate as ascertained by the appraisement and list of claims returned, conditioned that the persons who execute such obligation shall pay all the debts against the estate not paid that have been allowed by the executor or administrator and approved by the county judge, or that have been established by suit, or that may be established by suit against said estate, and will pay to the executor or administrator any balance that may be found to be due him by the judgment of the court on his exhibit.

May give bond to pay debts of estate, etc.
Ib.

Bond shall be filed and recorded and order of court thereon.
Ib.

Art. 2019. [1966] When the bond provided for in the preceding article has been given and approved, it shall be filed and recorded in the minutes of the court, and the court shall thereupon enter an order upon the minutes directing and requiring the executor or administrator to deliver forthwith to such person or persons the portion or portions of such estate to which he or they are entitled.

Partition may be had of estate.
Ib.

Art. 2020. [1967] Any of the persons so entitled to any portion of the estate may, on application in writing to the court, cause a partition and distribution of such estate to be made among the persons entitled thereto, in accordance with the provisions of this title respecting the partition and distribution of estates.

Lien on property in hands of distributees.
Ib.

Art. 2021. [1968] A lien shall exist on all of said estate in the hands of the distributees, and those claiming under them, with notice of such lien, to secure the ultimate payment of the aforesaid obligation.

Creditor whose claim has been allowed, etc., may sue on bond.
Ib.

Art. 2022. [1969] Any creditor of such estate whose claim is yet unpaid, and which claim has been allowed by the executor or administrator previous to the filing of such obligation, and approved by the county judge or established by suit against the executor or administrator previous to the filing of such obligation, shall have the right to sue on such obligation in his own name, and shall be entitled to judgment thereon for the amount of his claim.

Other creditor may sue and recover, to what extent.
Ib.

Art. 2023. [1970] Any other creditor of such estate whose claim is not barred by the laws of limitation shall have the right to sue on such obligation, and shall be entitled to judgment thereon for such debt as he may establish against the estate.

Creditor may also sue distributee.
Ib.

Art. 2024. [1971] Any creditor may sue any distributee, or he may sue all the distributees together, who have received any of the estate, but no one of such distributees shall be liable beyond his just proportion according to the estate he may have received in the distribution.

Order discharging executor or administrator estate and closing

Art. 2025. [1972] When an estate has been withdrawn from further administration under the provisions of this chapter, an order shall be entered upon the minutes discharging the executor or administrator and declaring the administration closed.

In what cases may be removed without notice.
(Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 99, §26.)

Article 2026. [1973] Executors and administrators may be removed by the county judge without notice, at a regular term of the court, by an order entered on the minutes of the court, in the following cases:

1. When they neglect to qualify in the manner and within the time required in this title.
2. When they neglect to return to the court an inventory and appraisal and list of claims of the estate, in the manner and within the time required in this title.

3. When they have been required to give a new bond and neglect to do so within the time prescribed by the court.

4. When they absent themselves from the state for a period of three months at one time, without permission of the court.

5. In such other cases as are specially provided for in this title.

Art. 2027. [1974] Executors and administrators may be removed by the county judge on his own motion, or on the complaint of any person interested in the estate, after being cited to answer such motion or complaint at a regular term of the court, in the following cases: In what cases may be removed with notice. (Acts of 1881, p. 31.)

1. When there shall appear sufficient grounds to believe that they have misapplied, embezzled or removed from the state the property, or any part thereof, committed to their charge, or that they are about to misapply, embezzle or remove from the state any of such property.

2. When it is proved that they have been guilty of gross neglect, or mismanagement in the performance of their duties as such executors or administrators.

3. When they fail to obey any order of the court consistent with this title, made in relation to the estate committed to their charge.

4. When an executor or administrator becomes of unsound mind, or from any other cause is incapable of performing the duties of his trust.

5. When they fail to make an annual exhibit fully showing the condition of the estate they represent, or fail to make to the court any exhibit they are required to make by law.

6. When they fail to make a final settlement for three years after the grant of letters, unless the time be extended by the court, after satisfactory showing being made under oath.

Art. 2028. [1975] In the cases enumerated in the preceding article, when proof is made that the executor or administrator has removed from the state, or is eluding the process of the court, the motion or complaint may be heard, though the citation be not served. Citation need not be served, when. Ib. p. 99, §27.

Art. 2029. [1976] In all cases when an executor or administrator is removed, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes of the court, which order shall set forth the cause of such removal. Order of removal shall set forth cause. Ib. P. D. 5734.

How served. Art. 2032. [1979] Such citation shall be published for at least
 Ib. twenty days in some newspaper printed in the county, if there be one; if not, then by posting copies thereof for a like period in the manner required for posting other citations.

Exhibit and account shall be examined, etc., by the court. Art. 2033. [1980] At the return term of such citation, or at some
 Ib. other term to which it may have been continued, upon the county judge being satisfied that such citation has been published or posted, as the case may be, he shall proceed to examine such exhibit and account, and to hear all proof that may be offered in support of the same, and all objections, exceptions and proof offered against the same, and shall, if necessary, restate such exhibit and account, and shall audit and settle the same.

Order approving exhibit and account. Art. 2034. [1981] If upon such examination and settlement it
 Ib. shall appear that such executor or administrator has accounted for all said estate according to law, the county judge shall enter an order upon the minutes, approving such exhibit and account, and requiring such executor or administrator to deliver the estate, if there be any remaining in his possession, to some person qualified by law to receive it.

Order of discharge. Art. 2035. [1982] When such executor or administrator has delivered
 Ib. the estate in accordance with the order of the court to some person qualified to receive it, and has produced to the court satisfactory evidence of that fact, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes, either in term time or in vacation, accepting the resignation of such executor or administrator and discharging him from such trust.

Shall not be discharged until, etc. Art. 2036. [1983] No executor or administrator shall be discharged until, etc. until the exhibit and account required have been made, returned, settled and approved as provided in this chapter, nor until he has delivered the estate, if there be any remaining in his possession, as hereinbefore required.

Allowance to widow and minor children to be made, when. Article 2037. [1984] At the first regular term of the court after (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 105, §56.) the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, or at any subsequent term thereafter, within twelve months after the grant of such original letters, it shall be the duty of the court to fix the amount of an allowance for the support of the widow and minor children of the deceased.

Amount of allowance, and with reference to what time. Art. 2038. [1985] Such allowance shall be of an amount sufficient (Acts of 1887, p. 73.) for the maintenance of such widow and minor children for the term of one year from the time of the death of the testator or intestate, and such allowance to be fixed with regard to the facts existing during the first year after the death of such testator or intestate; provided, that in no case shall such allowance exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 2039. [1986] No such allowance shall be made for the widow when she has separate property adequate to her maintenance; nor shall such allowance be made for the minor children when they have property in their own right adequate to their maintenance.

Allowance shall not be made, when.
Ib.

Art. 2040. [1987] When an allowance has been fixed an order shall be entered upon the minutes stating the amount thereof, and directing the executor or administrator to pay the same in accordance with law.

Order fixing allowance.

Art. 2041. [1988] The executor or administrator shall pay such allowance—

1. To the widow, if there be one, for the use of herself and the minor children, if such children be hers.

To whom allowance shall be paid.

2. If the widow is not the mother of such minor children, or of some of them, the portion of such allowance necessary for the support of such minor child or children of which she is not the mother, shall be paid to the guardian or guardians of such minor child or children.

3. If there be no widow the allowance to the minor child or children shall be paid to the guardian or guardians of such minor child or children.

Art. 2042. [1989] The widow, or the guardian of the minor children as the case may be, shall have the right to take in payment of such allowance or any part thereof, any of the personal property of the estate at its appraised value as shown by the appraisal returns.

Widow or guardian may take property for allowance.
Ib.

Art. 2043. [1990] If there be no personal effects of the deceased that the widow or guardian is willing to take for such allowance, or not a sufficiency of them, and if there be no funds or not sufficient funds in the hands of such executor or administrator to pay such allowance or any part thereof, then it shall be the duty of the county judge, so soon as the inventory and appraisal and list of claims are returned and approved, to order a sale of so much of the estate for cash as will be sufficient to raise the amount of such allowance, or a part thereof, as the case may require.

Sale shall be ordered to raise allowance, when.
Ib.

Art. 2044. [1991] The allowance made for the support of the widow and minor children of deceased shall be paid in preference to all other debts or charges against the estate, except the funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness of deceased, which claims shall be first paid, if presented within the time prescribed by law entitling them to such preference.

Allowance to be paid in preference to other debts or charges, except, etc.

Art. 2045. [1992] The allowance provided for in this chapter shall be paid as follows:

Allowance apportioned, how.

1. If there be both widow and minor child or children, the widow shall be entitled to one-half and the minor child or children to the other half.

2. If there be a widow and no minor child or children, the widow shall receive the whole.

3. If there be a minor child or children and no widow, such minor child or children shall receive the whole.

Court shall set apart exempt property, etc. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 106, §57.)

Article 2046. [1993] At the first term of the court after an inventory, appraisalment and list of claims have been returned, it shall be the duty of the court, by an order entered upon the minutes, to set apart for the use and benefit of the widow and minor children and unmarried daughters remaining with the family of the deceased, all such property of the estate as may be exempt from execution or forced sale by the constitution and laws of the state, with the exception of any exemption of one year's supply of provisions.

Allowance in lieu of exempt articles. lb.

Art. 2047. [1994] In case there should not be among the effects of the deceased all or any of the specific articles so exempted, it shall be the duty of the court to make a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof, to be paid to such widow and children, or such of them as there may be, as hereinafter directed.

Such allowance shall not exceed, what. lb.

Art. 2048. [1995] The allowance in lieu of a homestead shall in no case exceed five thousand dollars, and the allowance for other exempted property shall in no case exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of the allowance provided in the preceding chapter.

To whom the exempt property shall be delivered.

Art. 2049. [1996] The exempted property set apart to the widow and children shall be delivered by the executor or administrator without delay as follows:

1. If there be a widow and no children, or if the children be the children of the widow, the whole of such property shall be delivered to the widow.

2. If there be children and no widow such property shall be delivered to such children if they be of lawful age, or to their guardian if they be minors, or the same may be equally divided among them, except the homestead.

3. If there be children of the deceased of whom the widow is not the mother, the share of such children in such exempted property, except the homestead, shall be delivered to such children if they be of lawful age, or to their guardian if they be minors, or may be equally divided between them.

4. In all cases the homestead shall be delivered to the widow, if there be one, and if there be no widow, to the guardian of the minor children and unmarried daughters, if any, living with the family.

Allowance shall be paid, how. lb.

Art. 2050. [1997] The allowances made in lieu of any of the exempted property shall be paid either in money out of the funds of the estate that may come to the hands of the executor or administrator, or in any property of the deceased that such widow or children if they be of lawful age, or their guardian if they be minors, may choose to take at the appraisalment, or a part thereof, or both, as they may select.

Art. 2051. [1998] Such allowance shall be paid by the executor or administrator in the following manner:

To whom allowance shall be paid.
Ib.

1. If there be a widow and no children, the whole to be paid to such widow.

2. If there be children and no widow, the whole to be paid to such children if they be of lawful age, or to their guardian if they be minors, or to be equally divided among them.

3. If there be both widow and children, the whole to be paid to such widow if she be the mother of such children, but if she be not the mother of such children one-half to be paid to such widow and the other half to such children if they be of lawful age, or to their guardian if they be minors, or to be equally divided among them.

Art. 2052. [1999] If there be no property of the deceased that such widow or children are willing to take for such allowance, or not a sufficiency, and there be no funds, or not sufficient funds of the estate in the hands of such executor or administrator to pay such allowance, or any part thereof, it shall be the duty of the county judge, on the application in writing of such widow and children, to order a sale of so much of the estate for cash as will be sufficient to raise the amount of such allowance, or a part thereof, as the case may require.

Sale to raise allowance, when.
Ib.

Art. 2053. [2000] No property upon which liens have been given by the husband and wife, acknowledged in a manner legally binding upon the wife to secure creditors, or upon which a vendor's lien exists, shall be set aside to the widow or children as exempted property or appropriated to make up the allowances made in lieu of exempted property, until the debts secured by such liens are first discharged.

Property upon which liens exist shall not be set aside, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2054. [2001] If upon a final settlement of such estate it shall appear that the same is solvent, the exempted property, except the homestead, which has been set apart to the widow or children, or both, together with any allowance that has been received by them in lieu thereof, shall be subject to partition and distribution among the heirs and distributees of such estate in like manner as the other property of the estate.

When estate proves to be solvent.
Ib.

Art. 2055. [2002] Should the estate, upon final settlement, prove to be insolvent, the title of the widow and children to all the property and allowances set apart or paid to them, under the provisions of this and of the preceding chapter, shall be absolute, and shall not be taken for any of the debts of the estate except as hereinafter provided.

When estate proves to be insolvent.
Ib.

Art. 2056. [2003] In ascertaining whether an estate is solvent or insolvent the exempt property set apart to the widow or children, or the allowance in lieu thereof, and the allowance provided for in the preceding chapter, shall not be estimated or considered as assets of the estate.

Exempt property, etc., not to be considered in ascertaining solvency, etc.

Art. 2057. [2004] The homestead shall not be partitioned among the heirs of the deceased during the lifetime of the widow, or so long as she may elect to use or occupy the same as a homestead, or so long as the guardian of the minor children of the deceased may be permitted, under the order of the proper court having the jurisdiction, to use and occupy the same.

homestead, and when the proper court no longer permits the guardian of the minor children to use and occupy the same as a homestead, it may be partitioned among the respective owners thereof in like manner as other property held in common.

No distinction between separate and community homestead.

Art. 2059. [2006] The homestead rights of the widow and children of deceased are the same whether the homestead be the separate property of the deceased or community property between the widow and the deceased, and the respective interests of such widow and children shall be the same in one case as in the other.

Homestead not liable for debts, except, etc. (Const., art. 16, §50.)

Art. 2060. [2007] The homestead shall not be liable for the payment of any of the debts of the estate, except for the purchase money thereof, the taxes due thereon or for work and material used in constructing improvements thereon; and in this last case only when the work and material are contracted for in writing, with the consent of the wife, given in the same manner as required in making a sale and conveyance of the homestead.

Other exempt property, liable for what debts.

Art. 2061. [2008] The exempted property, other than the homestead, or any allowance made in lieu thereof, shall be liable for the payment of the funeral expenses, and the expenses of last sickness of deceased, when presented within the time prescribed therefor; but such property shall not be liable for any other debts of the estate.

Homestead rights of surviving husband. (Const., art. 16, §51.)

Art. 2062. [2009] On the death of the wife, leaving a husband surviving, the homestead shall descend and vest in like manner as other real property of the deceased, and shall be governed by the same laws of descent and distribution, but it shall not be partitioned among the heirs of the deceased during the lifetime of such surviving husband, or so long as he may elect to use or occupy the same as a homestead.

Article 2063. [2010] It shall be the duty of an executor or administrator, within one month after receiving letters, to publish in some newspaper printed in the county where the letters were issued, if there be one, a notice requiring all persons having claims against the estate of the testator or intestate to present the same within the time prescribed by law, which notice shall state the time of the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, and the residence and postoffice address of such executor or administrator, and shall be published once a week for four successive weeks.

Art. 2064. [2011] A copy of such printed notice, together with the affidavit of the publisher, sworn to and subscribed before some officer authorized to administer oaths, that it was published once a week for four successive weeks, shall be filed and recorded in the court from which the letters were issued, and a certified copy thereof, or of such record, may be given in evidence in any court in any action by or against the executor or administrator.

Copy of notice, etc., to be filed and recorded.
Ib.

Art. 2065. [2012] When no newspaper is printed in the county, the notice required shall be posted at the court house door of the county where the letters were issued, for four successive weeks, and a copy of such notice, with the return that such notice has been posted according to law, shall be filed and recorded, and shall be evidence as provided in the preceding article in the case of a printed notice.

Same subject.
Ib.

Art. 2066. [2013] If such notice has been given by a former executor or administrator, a subsequent executor or administrator need not give it, and such notice given by one executor or administrator, where several are acting as such, shall be sufficient for all.

One notice sufficient.

Art. 2067. [2014] If the executor or administrator fail to give such notice or cause the same to be given, he and his sureties upon his bond shall be liable for any damage which any person may sustain by reason of such neglect, unless it appear that such person had such notice otherwise; and such executor or administrator shall be removed by the county judge at any regular term of the court on the complaint of any person interested in the estate, after being cited to answer such complaint.

Penalty for neglect to give notice.
Ib. p. 107, §60.

Art. 2068. [2015] Every claim for money against a testator or intestate shall be presented to the executor or administrator within twelve months after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, or the payment thereof shall be postponed until the claims which have been presented within said twelve months and allowed by the executor or administrator and approved by the county judge have been first entirely paid.

Claims shall be postponed, if not presented in twelve months.

Art. 2069. [2016] Claims for funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness of the deceased shall be presented within sixty days after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, or the exempted property set apart to the widow and children, or allowances made them under the provisions of chapters seventeen and eighteen of this title, shall no longer be liable to the payment of such claims, or any part thereof.

Claims for funeral expenses and of last sickness to be presented in sixty days, or, etc.

Art. 2070. [2017] If the executor or administrator absent himself from the state, the time of such absence shall not be computed in estimating the twelve months or sixty days' time mentioned in the two preceding articles.

Time of absence of executor, etc., not to be computed.
Ib. §59.

Art. 2071. When two or more persons are jointly bound for the payment of a debt or for any other purpose, upon the death of either of said persons so bound his estate may be charged by virtue of such obligation in the same manner as if the obligors had been bound severally as well as jointly.

Estate charged with joint obligation.
(Acts of 1887, p. 17.)

Art. 2072. [2018] No executor or administrator shall allow any claim for money against his testator or intestate, nor shall any county judge approve the same, unless such claim is accompanied by an affidavit in writing that the claim is just and that all legal offsets, payments and credits known to affiant have been allowed. Such affidavit, if made by any other person than the owner of the claim, shall state further that the affiant is cognizant of the facts contained in his affidavit.

Claim lost or destroyed may be presented, how.

Art. 2073. [2019] If the claim has been lost or destroyed, the claimant, or some one for him, may make an affidavit to the fact of such loss or destruction, stating the amount, date and nature of such claim and when due, and that the same is just, and that all legal offsets, payments and credits known to affiant have been allowed, and that the claimant is still the owner of the same; but in such case, before such claim shall be approved, it must be proved by disinterested testimony taken in open court, or by deposition.

Affidavit made before whom. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 2074. [2020] The affidavit may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths and give certificates thereof.

Allowance or approval without affidavit, void.

Art. 2075. [2021] If any such claim is allowed or approved without such affidavit as is required by the preceding articles of this chapter, such allowance or approval shall be of no force or effect.

Ib. §61. Memorandum of allowance or rejection. Ib. §63.

Art. 2076. [2022] When any claim for money against an estate shall be presented to the executor or administrator, if the same be properly authenticated in the manner required by this chapter, he shall indorse thereon or annex thereto a memorandum in writing signed by him, stating the time of its presentation, and that he allows or rejects the claim, or what portion thereof he allows or rejects, as the case may be.

Failure to indorse or annex memorandum. Ib. p. 108, §64.

Art. 2077. [2023] When a claim for money against the estate of a deceased person shall be presented to the executor or administrator for his action, and he shall fail to indorse thereon or annex thereto a memorandum in writing as required by the last preceding article, such failure shall be deemed equivalent to a rejection of the claim, and shall authorize the claimant to bring a suit for the establishment thereof in like manner as if such claim had been so rejected, and such executor or administrator shall be removed on the complaint of any person interested in such claim, after being cited to appear and answer such complaint, and upon proof being made of such failure.

When claim is allowed, shall be presented for approval.

Art. 2078. [2024] If a claim or a part thereof be allowed by an executor or administrator, it shall be presented within twelve months after the issuance of original letters testamentary or of administration to the clerk of the county court of the proper county, who shall enter the same in its proper place upon the claim docket, and unless such claim is so presented within said time, the payment thereof, should it be approved either in whole or in part, shall be postponed until all other claims which have been allowed and approved within the time prescribed have been first entirely paid.

Claim shall be acted upon by the court.

Art. 2079. [2025] All claims that have been allowed by the executor or administrator and entered upon the claim docket for the period of ten days shall be acted upon by the court at a regular term, and either approved in whole or in part or rejected, as to the court may seem right, and they shall also at the same time be classified by the court.

Action of the court upon claims.

Art. 2080. [2026] When the court has acted upon a claim its action shall be entered upon the claim docket and the date thereof, and the county judge shall also indorse upon such claim or annex thereto a memorandum in writing, signed by him officially and dated, stating the action of the court upon such claim, whether approved or disapproved, or if approved in part and rejected in part, stating the amount approved, and also stating the classification of such claim.

Art. 2081. [2027] Any person interested in an estate may, at any time before the court has acted upon a claim, appear and object to the approval of the same or any part thereof in writing, and in such case the court shall hear proof and render such judgment as the facts and the law may require.

Any person interested in estate may oppose the approval of a claim.

Art. 2082. [2028] When a claim for money against an estate has been rejected by the executor or administrator, either in whole or in part, the owner of such claim may, within ninety days after such rejection, and not thereafter, bring a suit against the executor or administrator for the establishment thereof in any court having jurisdiction of the same; and on the trial of such suit the memorandum in writing of the executor or administrator indorsed on or annexed to such claim may be given in evidence to prove the facts therein stated, without proof of the handwriting of such executor or administrator, unless the same be denied under oath.

When claim has been rejected the owner may bring suit. Ib. §63.

Art. 2083. [2029] No execution shall be issued on a judgment obtained in any such suit, but a certified copy of such judgment shall be filed with the clerk of the county court where the estate is pending within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment, and entered upon the claim docket, and shall be classified by the county judge, and have the same force and effect as if the amount thereof had been allowed by the executor or administrator, and approved by the county judge.

Judgment establishing claim shall be filed, etc. Ib.

Art. 2084. [2030] In any suit that may be brought by the holder of a claim to establish the same after rejection, if he fails to recover judgment thereon for a greater amount than was allowed by the executor or administrator, he shall be adjudged to pay all costs of such suit.

Cost of suit to be adjudged against claimant, when. Ib. p. 107, §62.

Art. 2085. [2031] The action of the court in approving or disapproving a claim shall have the force and effect of a final judgment, and when the claimant, or any person interested in the estate, shall be dissatisfied with such action, he may appeal therefrom to the district court, as from other judgments of the county court rendered in probate matters.

Action of court on claim a judgment, etc.

Art. 2086. [2032] The provisions of this chapter respecting the presentation of claims against an estate shall not be construed to apply to any claim of the executor or administrator against his testator or intestate, but any such executor or administrator holding any such claim shall file the same in the court granting his letters, verified by affidavit as required in other cases, within six months after he has qualified as such executor or administrator, or such claim shall be barred.

Claim of executor or administrator. Ib. p. 110, §71.

Art. 2087. [2033] When such claim has been entered upon the claim docket, and acted upon by the court as in other cases of claims, an appeal from the judgment of the court may be taken as in other cases.

Action of the court thereon, etc.

Art. 2088. [2034] The provisions of this chapter respecting the presentation of claims, shall not be so construed as to apply to the claim of any heir, devisee or legatee when claiming as such, nor to any claim that accrues against the estate after the granting of letters testamentary or of administration for which the executor or administrator has contracted.

Provisions of this chapter do not apply to certain claims. Ib. §70.

Claim shall not be allowed after order for partition.
Ib. §69.

Art. 2089. [2035] No claim for money against his testator or intestate shall be allowed by an executor or administrator, nor shall any suit be instituted against him on any such claim after an order for partition and distribution has been made; but the owner of any such claim not barred by the laws of limitation shall have his action thereon against the heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate, but they shall not be bound beyond the value of the property they may receive in such partition and distribution.

Judgment shall not be rendered in favor of claim which has not been presented and rejected.
P. D. 5683.

Art. 2090. [2036] No judgment shall be rendered in favor of a claimant upon any claim for money which has not been legally presented to the executor or administrator, and rejected by such executor or administrator, either in whole or in part.

Classification of claims.
(Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 115, §88.)
P. D. 5674.

Article 2091. [2037] The claims against an estate shall be classed and have priority of payment as follows:

1. Funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness.
2. Expenses of administration and the expenses incurred in the preservation, safe-keeping and management of the estate.
3. Claims secured by mortgage or other liens so far as the same can be paid out of the proceeds of the property subject to such mortgage or other lien, and when more than one mortgage or lien shall exist upon the same property the oldest shall be first paid; but no preference shall be given to such claims secured by mortgage or lien further than regards the property subject to such mortgage or other lien.
4. All claims legally exhibited within one year after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration.
5. All claims legally exhibited after the lapse of one year from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration.

Claims to be paid pro rata, when.
Ib.
P. D. 5674.

Art. 2092. [2038] Where there is a deficiency of assets to pay all claims of the same class they shall be paid pro rata, and no executor or administrator shall be allowed to pay any claims whether the estate is solvent or insolvent, except with their pro rata amount of the funds of the estate that have come to hand.

Order of payment of claims.
Ib. §89.

Art. 2093. [2039] Executors and administrators, whenever they have funds in their hands belonging to the estate they represent, shall pay—

1. Funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness, if the claims therefor have been presented within sixty days from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, but if not presented within such time their payment shall be postponed until the allowances made to the widow and children, or either, are paid.
2. Allowances made to the widow and children, or either.

3. Expenses of administration and the expenses incurred in the preservation, safe-keeping and management of the estate.

4. Other claims against the estate in the order of their classification.

Art. 2094. [2040] No claim for money, or any part thereof, shall be paid until it has been approved by the county judge or established by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Claim shall not be paid, unless, etc.

Art. 2095. [2041] Whenever an executor or administrator has funds of the estate in his hands sufficient to pay a claim, or any part thereof, against the estate, and fails to make such payment when required to do so by the owner of such claim, such owner may obtain an order of the county court, at a regular term thereof, directing such payment to be made, upon making proof that such executor or administrator has funds of the estate in his hands which should be paid upon such claim, and that he fails to make such payment; provided, such executor or administrator shall have first been cited on the complaint in writing of such claimant, filed with the clerk, to appear and show cause why such order should not be made.

Owner of claim may obtain order for payment, when.
Ib.

Art. 2096. [2042] Whenever any executor or administrator shall have in his hands the proceeds of a sale that has been made for the satisfaction of a mortgage or other lien, and such proceeds or any part thereof are not required for the payment of any debts against the estate that have a preference over such mortgage or other lien, it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator, within twelve months after the grant of letters testamentary or of administration, to pay over such proceeds, or so much thereof as may not be required for the payment of any debts against the estate that have a preference over such mortgage or other lien, to the creditor or creditors having a right thereto; and if any executor or administrator shall fail so to do, such creditor or creditors, upon proof thereof, may obtain an order from the county court, in like manner as is provided in the preceding article, directing such payment to be made.

Proceeds of sale of property on which there is a mortgage or other lien.
Ib. p. 116, §90.

Art. 2097. [2043] At the first term of the court after the expiration of twelve months from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to return to the court an exhibit in writing, sworn to and subscribed by him, setting forth a list of all claims against the estate that were presented to him within twelve months after the said original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, specifying which have been allowed by him; which have been rejected and the date when rejected; which have been sued upon and the condition of the suit; also setting forth fully the condition of the estate.

Exhibit of condition of estate after twelve months.
Ib. p. 109, §66.

Art. 2098. [2044] Should such executor or administrator fail to return the exhibit as required by the preceding article, any person interested in the estate may, upon complaint in writing, filed with the clerk, cause such executor or administrator to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why his letters should not be revoked and why he should not be fined for such failure, and upon the hearing of such complaint, unless good cause be shown for such failure, the court shall revoke the letters of such executor or administrator and shall fine him in a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars.

Penalty for failure to return exhibit.
Ib.

Art. 2099. [2045] Upon the return of such exhibit, if it shall appear therefrom, or from any other evidence, that the estate is solvent, taking into consideration as well the claims presented before the expiration of twelve months from said granting of letters testamentary or of administration on which suit has been or can yet be instituted, as those so presented, allowed and approved, or established by judgment, and that the executor or administrator has in his hands sufficient funds for the payment of all the aforesaid claims, it shall be the duty of the county judge to order immediate payment to be made of all claims allowed and approved or established by judgment.

Order for payment of claims pro rata.
Ib.

Art. 2100. [2046] If it appear that the funds on hand are not sufficient for the payment of all the said claims, or if the estate be insolvent and the executor or administrator has any funds in his hands, it shall be the duty of the county judge to order such funds to be applied to the payment of all claims having a preference in the order of their priority, if they or any of them be still unpaid, and then to the payment pro rata of the other claims allowed and approved or established, taking into consideration also the claims that were presented within the twelve months, and in suit or on which suit may yet be instituted.

Claims presented after twelve months, paid
when.
Ib. p. 116,
§92.

Art. 2101. [2047] Claims for money against the estate of a deceased person, which may be presented to the executor or administrator after the expiration of twelve months from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, and allowed and approved or established by judgment, shall be paid by the executor or administrator at any time before the estate is finally closed, when he has funds of the estate in his hands over and above what may be sufficient to pay all debts of every kind against the estate that were presented within the twelve months and allowed and approved or established by judgment, or that may be so established, and an order for the payment of any such claim upon proof that the executor or administrator has such funds, may be obtained from the county judge in like manner as is provided in this chapter, for creditors to obtain payment.

Exhibit may be required,
when, etc.
Ib. §93.

Art. 2102. [2048] At the third regular term after the expiration of twelve months from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, or at any term of the court thereafter, any person interested in the estate may, by a complaint in writing filed in the county court, cause the executor or administrator to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and make an exhibit in writing, under oath to the court, setting forth fully, in connection with the previous exhibits, the condition of the estate he represents; and if it shall appear to the court by said exhibit, or by other evidence, that said executor or administrator has any funds of the estate in his hands subject to distribution among the creditors of the estate, it shall be the duty of the county judge to order the same to be paid out to them according to the provisions of this chapter, or any executor or administrator may voluntarily present such exhibit to the court, and if he has any of the funds of the estate in his hands subject to distribution among the creditors of the estate, a like order shall be made.

Liability of executor, etc.,
for failure to pay money,
etc.
Ib. p. 119,
§101.

Art. 2103. [2049] In all cases where an order shall be made by any county judge, under the provisions of this title, for an executor or administrator to pay over money to any person other than the treasurer of the state, and such executor or administrator shall neglect to make such payment when it is demanded by the person entitled thereto, his agent or attorney, such executor or administrator shall be liable on his official bond to the person in whose favor such order of payment was made, for damages upon the amount he shall so neglect to pay at the rate of five per cent per month for each and every month he shall so neglect to make such payment after the same was so demanded, such damages to be recovered by suit against such executor or administrator and the sureties upon his bond before any court having jurisdiction of the amount claimed, exclusive of interest and such damages.

Art. 2104. [2050] It shall not be lawful for any executor or administrator to purchase for his own use, either directly or indirectly, any claim against the estate he represents, and should he do so, any person interested in the estate may, upon complaint in writing, cause him to be cited to appear before the court, and upon proof of such complaint the court shall enter an order upon the minutes cancelling the claim so purchased, and such executor or administrator shall not be allowed to receive from the estate any portion of such claim.

Executor or administrator shall not purchase claim against estate. Ib. p. 114, §86.

Article 2105. [2051] When an executor or administrator thinks it would be to the interest of the estate to hire out any of the personal property of the estate, or to rent any of the real estate, he shall do so either at public auction or privately, for cash or on credit, as he may deem most advantageous to the estate.

Executor, etc., may hire out or rent property of estate. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 104, §51.)

Art. 2106. [2052] Should such executor or administrator prefer not to act without an order of the court, he may file an application in writing with the clerk of the county court, setting forth the property which he thinks should be hired or rented, and should the county judge be of the opinion that it would be to the interest of the estate to grant the application, he shall do so by an order entered upon the minutes, either in term time or in vacation, which order shall name the property to be hired or rented, and state whether such hiring or renting shall be at public auction or privately, and whether for cash or on credit, and if on credit the length of such credit, and shall also state the period of time for which such property shall be hired or rented.

May obtain order of the court to hire out or rent same.

Art. 2107. [2053] When an executor or administrator hires or rents property belonging to an estate without an order of the court authorizing him to do so, he shall be held responsible to the estate for the reasonable value of the hire or rent of such property, to be ascertained by the court by satisfactory evidence.

When, without order of court, responsible, etc.

Art. 2108. [2054] When property is hired or rented on a credit, possession thereof shall not be delivered to the person hiring or renting the same until such person has executed and delivered to the executor or administrator a note with good personal security for the amount of such hire or rent; and any executor or administrator who shall deliver possession of any property so hired or rented on a credit without first receiving such note with good personal security, shall be responsible upon his bond as such executor or administrator for the full amount of such hire or rent.

Report of hiring or renting.

Art. 2109. [2055] When any property of the estate has been hired or rented the executor or administrator shall, within thirty days after such hiring or renting, return to the court a report in writing, signed by him and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, stating—

1. The property hired or rented.
2. When the same was so hired or rented, and whether at public auction or privately.
3. Whether for cash or on a credit, and if on a credit, the length of such credit.
4. The name of the person hiring or renting the same.
5. The amount for which the same was hired or rented.

Action of court on report.

Art. 2110. [2056] When any such report of hiring or renting is returned to the court it shall be filed, and at a regular term of the court thereafter it shall be examined, and if found to be just and reasonable it shall be approved and confirmed by order of the court entered upon the minutes, and shall be recorded in the minutes; but if disapproved by the court and order to that effect shall be entered, and also adjudging against such executor or administrator the reasonable value of the hire or rent of such property, where it appears that by reason of any fault of such executor or administrator such property has not been hired or rented for its reasonable value.

Person interested in estate may file complaint to have property hired or rented.

Art. 2111. [2057] Any person interested in an estate may, upon complaint in writing filed in the county court, cause an executor to be cited to appear at a regular term of such court and show cause why he should not hire or rent any of the property belonging to the estate, and upon the hearing of such complaint the court shall make such order as may seem most for the interest of the estate.

Article 2112. [2058] All sales for the payment of the debts owing by the estate shall be ordered to be made of such property as may be deemed most advantageous to such estate to be sold. Advantage of estate to be considered in ordering sale. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 112, §76.)

Art. 2113. [2059] No sale of any property belonging to an estate shall be made by an executor or administrator without an order of the court authorizing the same. No sale without order of court.

Art. 2114. [2060] The court may order a sale of property, to be made for cash or on a credit, at public auction or privately, as it may consider most to the advantage of the estate, except when herein otherwise specially provided. Sale may be on what terms.

Art. 2115. [2061] All sales of personal property at public auction shall be governed by the rules governing sales of personal property under execution, unless herein otherwise provided. Sales at public auction same as under execution. Ib. p. 130, §148.

Art. 2116. [2062] When personal property is sold on a credit it shall not be for a longer time than six months from the date of such sale, and the purchaser shall be required to give his note for the amount of such purchase, with good and solvent personal security, before such property shall be delivered to him. Purchaser shall give note and security, when.

Art. 2117. [2063] Whenever there is property belonging to the estate of a deceased person that is perishable or liable to waste, upon the application in writing of the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee or legatee of the deceased, or any creditor of the estate whose claim has been allowed and approved or established by suit, the county judge, by an order entered on the minutes of the court, either in term time or in vacation, may direct the sale of such property, or any part thereof. Property liable to perish or be wasted shall be sold. Ib. p. 111, §74.

Art. 2118. [2064] The county judge may, either in term time or in vacation, by an order entered on the minutes of the court, direct the crops belonging to the estate of a deceased person, or any part thereof, to be sold at private sale, upon the application in writing of the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee or legatee of the deceased, or any creditor of the estate whose claim has been allowed and approved or established by suit; provided, that no crops shall be sold under any such order at a less price than their fair market value. Sale of crops. Ib. p. 112, §75.

Duty of executor, etc., to sell personal property.
Ib. p. 130,
§145.

Art. 2119. [2065] The executor or administrator, as soon as practicable after his qualification as such, shall sell, at public or private sale, as the court may order, all personal property belonging to the estate, except such bonds, securities or other personal property as may, in the opinion of the county judge, be of a character not liable to waste or loss, and except property exempt from forced sale, specific legacies and personal property necessary to carry on a plantation, manufactory or business, which it may be thought best to carry on, giving such credit as such executor or administrator or county judge may deem most advantageous to the estate, not exceeding six months, and taking notes with one or more sufficient sureties, for the purchase money.

Sale of stock.
Ib. p. 131,
§150.

Art. 2120. [2066] If the executor or administrator shall represent to the court on oath in writing that there is stock belonging to the estate which he is unable to collect or command, the court may order that the same be sold at public auction, on such credit as the court may deem reasonable, not exceeding twelve months, taking notes with good and sufficient sureties for the purchase money, and such sale shall be advertised, made, returned and confirmed in the same manner as the sale of real property.

Order for sale of property mortgaged, etc.
Ib. p. 112,
§77.

Art. 2121. [2067] Any creditor of a deceased person holding a claim secured by mortgage or other lien, which claim has been allowed and approved or established by suit, may obtain at a regular term of the court, from the county court of the county where the letters testamentary or of administration were granted, an order for the sale of the property upon which he has such mortgage or other lien, or so much of said property as may be required to satisfy such claim, by making his application in writing and having such executor or administrator cited to appear and answer the same. And in case the mortgage or other lien shall be upon real property, the same notice shall be given of said application as is required to obtain an order for the sale of such property.

Duty of executor, etc., to apply for sale of real estate, when.
Ib. p. 111,
§72.

Art. 2122. [2068] It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator, so soon as he shall ascertain that it is necessary, to apply to the county judge, at some regular term of the court, for an order to sell so much of the real estate belonging to the estate he represents as he shall think to be sufficient to pay the local charges and claims against the estate.

Requisites of such application.
Ib.

Art. 2123. [2069] Such application shall be in writing and shall describe the real estate sought to be sold, and shall be accompanied by an exhibit in writing, verified by the affidavit of such executor or administrator, showing fully and particularly the charges and claims against said estate that have been approved or established by suit, or that have been rejected and may yet be established, and the amount due, or claimed to be due on each, and the estimated expenses of administration, and the property of said estate remaining on hand liable for the payment of such charges and claims.

Citation in such case.
Ib.

Art. 2124. [2070] Upon the filing of such application and exhibit it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue a general citation to all persons interested in the estate, describing the land sought to be sold, and requiring such persons to appear at the term named in such citation, and show cause why such sale should not be made should they choose to do so.

Posting and return of citation.
Ib.

Art. 2125. [2071] Such citation shall be posted in the manner required for other citations, for at least thirty days before the first day of the term of the court at which such application is to be heard, and shall be returned and the citation and return recorded in like manner as other citations and returns thereon.

Art. 2126. [2072] Upon the return of such citation served it shall be the duty of the court at a regular term thereof to hear such application and to hear evidence in favor of or against the same, and if satisfied that a necessity exists for such sale, to order the same to be made; but if not satisfied that a necessity exists for such sale, or if satisfied that there is other property of the estate that it would be more to the interest of the estate to have sold than the property sought to be sold, the application shall be refused by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes.

Action of the court on application.
Ib.

Art. 2127. [2073] All sales of real estate for the payment of debts shall be made at public auction to the highest bidder on a credit of twelve months, except when otherwise specially provided by law.

Real estate shall be sold on twelve months' credit, except, etc.
Ib. p. 112, §80.

Art. 2128. [2074] Sales of real estate may be made at public auction for cash or on such credit as the county judge may direct not exceeding twelve months, in the following cases:

May be sold for cash, etc., when.
Ib.

1. When the sale is made for the purpose of raising the amount or any part of the amount of any allowance made to the widow and children, or either, under the provisions of this title.

2. When the sale is made for the satisfaction of a mortgage or other lien upon such real estate.

3. When such sale is made in accordance with directions contained in a will.

Art. 2129. [2075] When it shall appear to be for the interest of the estate the county judge may order a sale of real estate to be made for cash or on a credit of not more than twelve months, as he may direct, at private sale; but in all such cases, before the county judge shall order a confirmation of the sale, it must be shown, in addition to the other requirements of this chapter, that the sale was made for a fair price.

Sale of real estate may be private, when.
Ib. p. 112, §81.

Art. 2130. [2076] All public sales of real estate shall be advertised at least twenty days before the day of sale. The manner of advertising shall be by posting a notice of such sale at the court house of the county where the land is to be sold, and at two other public places in the county where the sale is to be made, but not in the same city or town.

Twenty days' notice of sale to be given.
Ib. p. 113, §83.

Art. 2131. [2077] Such notice shall state the time and place of sale, the terms of sale, shall describe the property to be sold, and shall be signed by the executor or administrator.

What notice of sale shall state.

Art. 2132. [2078] All public sales of real estate should be made in the county where the letters testamentary or of administration were granted, at the court house door of such county, or at the place in such county where sales of real estate are specially authorized by law to be made; and all such sales shall be made on the first Tuesday of the month, between the hours of ten a. m. and four p. m.

Time and place of sale.

Art. 2133. [2079] When the county judge shall deem it for the advantage of the estate, he may order the sale of real estate to be made in the county where it is situated, and in all cases where such public sale is ordered to be made in any other county than that in which the letters testamentary or of administration were granted, such sale shall be advertised in both counties.

Sale may be ordered to be made in county where land is situated.
Ib. p. 113, §83.

Art. 2134. [2080] Whenever any property of an estate is ordered to be sold by the county judge, such order shall be entered on the minutes of the court, shall describe the property to be sold, the time and place of sale, and the terms of such sale.

Any person interested in estate may apply for an order of sale.
Ib. p. 111, §73.

Art. 2135. [2081] When any executor or administrator shall neglect to apply for an order to sell sufficient property of the estate he represents to pay the charges and claims against the estate that have been allowed and approved or established by suit, any person interested in the estate may, upon application in writing, cause such executor or administrator to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and make a full exhibit of the condition of such estate as required in article 2097, and show cause why a sale of the property of the estate should not be ordered, and upon the hearing of such application, if the court is satisfied from the proof that a necessity exists for the sale, the same shall be ordered as in other cases.

Any person interested in estate may oppose the application for sale.
Ib. p. 112, §78.

Art. 2136. [2082] When an application is made to the county judge for an order to sell any property belonging to the estate of a deceased person, any person interested in such estate may, at any time before an order is made thereon, file his opposition in writing to such sale, or may make application in writing for sale of other property of the estate, and upon hearing of the matter in controversy, the county judge shall make such order thereon as the circumstances of the case may require, having due regard to the provisions of this title.

Executor or administrator shall not purchase property of the estate.
Ib. p. 114, §86.

Art. 2137. [2083] It shall not be lawful for any executor or administrator to take the estate of his testator or intestate, or any part thereof, at its appraised value, or to become the purchaser, either directly or indirectly, of any property of the estate sold by him; and if any executor or administrator should either directly or indirectly become the purchaser of any of the property of his testator or intestate, at a sale made by him or his co-executor or co-administrator, upon the complaint in writing of any person interested in such estate, and service of citation upon such executor or administrator, and upon proof of such complaint, such sale shall be declared void by the county judge, and such executor or administrator decreed to hold the property so purchased in trust as assets of the estate, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Bidder failing to comply with his bid shall be liable, etc.
Ib. p. 113, §84.

Art. 2138. [2084] When any person shall bid off property offered for sale, rent or hire, at public auction, by an executor or administrator, and shall fail to comply with the terms of sale, renting or hiring, such property shall be readvertised and sold, rented or hired without any further order of the court for that purpose, and the person so failing to comply shall be liable to pay such executor or administrator for the use of the estate ten per cent on the amount of his bid; and also the deficiency in price on the second sale, renting or hiring, if any such deficiency there be; to be recovered by such executor or administrator by suit in any court of the county where such sale, hiring or renting was made, having jurisdiction of the amount claimed.

Public sale may be continued from day to day.
Ib. §83.

Art. 2139. [2085] Public sales may be continued from day to day, in case the day set apart for such sale shall be insufficient to complete the same, by giving public notice of such continuance at the conclusion of the sale of each day, and the continued sale shall commence and close within the same hours.

Notice of private sale need not be given, unless, etc.

Art. 2140. [2086] When property is ordered by the court to be sold at private sale no notice of such sale shall be required, unless the court ordering such sale shall direct otherwise.

Sales shall be reported in thirty days. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 113, §85.)

Art. 2142. [2088] The report of sale shall be in writing, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by the executor or administrator before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall show—

Requisites of report of sale.

1. The time and place of the sale.
2. The property sold, describing the same.
3. The name of the purchaser of such property.
4. The amount for which each article of property sold.
5. The date of the order of the court authorizing the sale.
6. The terms of the sale, and whether at public auction or made privately.

Art. 2143. [2089] The report of sale may be made in term time or in vacation, and when returned shall be filed by the clerk, and the filing thereof noted upon the judge's docket.

Report may be made, when, etc.

Art. 2144. [2090] At any time after the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, it shall be the duty of the county judge, at a regular term of his court, to inquire into the manner in which the sale was made, and to hear evidence in support of or against such report, and if satisfied that such sale was fairly made, and in conformity with law, he shall enter upon the minutes of the court a decree confirming such sale, and order the report of sale to be recorded by the clerk, and the proper conveyance of the property to be made by the executor or administrator to the purchaser upon compliance by such purchaser with the terms of sale.

Action of court on report of sale. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 113, §85.)

Art. 2145. [2091] If the court is not satisfied that the sale was fairly made and in conformity with law, an order shall be entered upon the minutes setting the same aside and ordering a new sale to be made if necessary.

Sale shall be set aside, when. Ib.

Art. 2146. [2091a] After a sale has been confirmed by a decree of the court, upon the purchaser complying with the terms of the sale, the executor or administrator shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a proper conveyance of the property purchased by him. In the case of personal property no conveyance shall be necessary, but the decree of the court confirming the sale shall vest the right and title of the testator or intestate to the property sold in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making the sale.

Conveyance of property sold. Ib. p. 13, §85.

Art. 2147. [2092] If the property sold be real estate the conveyance shall be by deed, and shall recite the decree of the court confirming the sale and ordering the conveyance to be made, and such conveyance shall vest the right and title that the testator or intestate had in such real estate in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making such sale.

Conveyance of real estate. Ib.

Conveyance of real estate shall not be delivered until, etc. Ib. p. 113, §87.

Art. 2148. [2093] No conveyance of real estate sold shall be executed and delivered by the executor or administrator to the purchaser until the terms of sale have been complied with by such purchaser, and when such sale has been made on a credit it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator, before delivering a conveyance of the property to the purchaser to take from such purchaser a note with good personal security, together with a mortgage containing power of sale upon the property sold to secure the payment of the purchase money, and to file such mortgage for record in the county where such real estate is situated.

Penalty for neglect to take note and mortgage. Ib.

Art. 2149. [2094] Should the executor or administrator neglect to take such note, security and mortgage, and file such mortgage for record in the proper county before delivery of such deed, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable at the suit of any person interested in the estate, for the use of the estate, for the full amount of such sale.

Note holds vendor's lien. Ib.

Art. 2150. [2095] All notes executed for the purchase money of real estate purchased under the provisions of this chapter shall hold the vendor's lien on the real estate for which they were given against all persons having notice, express or implied, in favor of the estate, whether the mortgage be recorded or not, and such lien shall in no case be waived.

Article 2154. [2099] All applications for the partition and distribution of an estate shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the administration of the estate is pending. Such application shall state—

Application for partition and distribution. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 120, §102.)

1. The name of the person whose estate is sought to be partitioned and distributed.

2. The names and residences of all persons entitled to a share of such estate, and whether such persons are adults or minors, and if these facts be unknown to the applicant, it shall be so stated in the application; such application may be filed by any person interested in the estate.

Art. 2155. [2100] Upon the filing of any such application, it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue a citation returnable to some regular term of the court, which citation shall state the name of the person whose estate is sought to be partitioned and distributed, the term of the court to which such citation is returnable, and shall require all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause why such partition and distribution should not be made.

Citation in such cases. Ib.

Art. 2156. [2101] Such citation shall be personally served by leaving a copy thereof with each person entitled to a share of the estate, who is known and is a resident of this state, and if there be any persons so entitled who are not known, or who are not residents of this state, such citation shall be published for at least four successive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county, if there be one; if not, then it shall be published in like manner in one of the nearest newspapers published in the state. A copy of such publication, and the affidavit of the publisher or printer attached thereto, shall accompany the report of the officer serving such citation.

Service of citation. Ib.

Executor, etc., shall also be cited, etc.

Art. 2157. [2102] When the application is made by any other person than the executor or administrator of the estate, such executor or administrator shall be cited to appear and answer such application, and to file in court a full and complete exhibit and account of the condition of the estate, verified by affidavit, as in case of final settlement of such estate.

Application may be made, when.
Ib. p. 117, §94.

Art. 2158. [2103] At any time after the first term of the court after the expiration of twelve months from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, the heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate, or any of them, may, by their application in writing, filed in the county court, cause the executor or administrator, and the heirs, devisees and legatees of the estate, to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why a partition and distribution of the residue of such estate should not be made.

Upon return of citation served court shall proceed, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2159. [2104] Upon the return of any such citation served at the return term thereof, or at some succeeding term to which the application may be continued, if it shall appear that such citation has been served or published as required by law, and that there is a residue of the estate on hand subject to partition and distribution, the court shall proceed to have such residue partitioned and distributed among the persons entitled thereto in the manner herein-after provided.

Court shall ascertain, what facts.
Ib. p. 120, §103.

Art. 2160. [2105] In proceeding to partition an estate, the court shall ascertain—

1. The residue of the estate subject to partition and distribution, which shall be ascertained by deducting from the entire assets of such estate remaining on hand the amount of all debts and expenses of every kind which have been approved or established by judgment, or which may yet be established by judgment, and also the probable future expenses of administration.

2. The persons who are by law entitled to partition and distribution, and their respective shares.

3. Whether advancements have been made to any of the persons so entitled, their nature and value, and shall require the same to be placed in hotchpotch as required by the law governing descents and distributions.

Shall appoint guardians for minors, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2161. [2106] If there are any persons entitled to any portion of the estate who are known, and are minors, and have no guardian in this state, or whose guardians are also entitled to a portion of such estate, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent such minors in the partition of the estate; and if there be any persons so entitled who are not known or are not residents of the state, and no person appears who is authorized to represent them, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent such persons in the partition.

Decree of partition.
Ib.

Art. 2162. [2107] The court shall then proceed to enter a decree, which shall state—

1. The name and residence, if known, of each person entitled to a share of the estate, specifying those who are known to be minors and the name of their guardian, or guardian ad litem, and the name of the attorney appointed to represent those who are unknown or are not residents of the state.

2. The proportional part of the estate to which each is entitled.

3. It shall contain a full description of all the estate to be distributed.

4. It shall direct the executor or administrator to retain in his hands for the payment of debts and expenses of administration a sufficient amount of money or property for that purpose, specifying the amount of money or the property to be so retained.

Art. 2163. [2108] If the estate to be distributed shall consist only of money or debts due the estate, or both, the court shall fix the amount to which each distributee is entitled, and order the payment and delivery thereof by the executor or administrator.

Where estate consists of money or debts only.
Ib.

Art. 2164. [2109] If the estate do not consist entirely of money or debts due the estate, or both, the court shall appoint three or more discreet and disinterested persons as commissioners to make a partition and distribution of the estate.

Court shall appoint commissioners, when.
Ib.

Art. 2165. [2110] When commissioners are appointed the clerk shall issue a writ of partition directed to the commissioners appointed, commanding them to proceed forthwith to make such partition and distribution in accordance with the decree of the court, a copy of which decree shall accompany the writ, and also commanding them to make due return of said writ, with their proceedings under it, at some term of the court to be named in the writ.

Writ of partition shall issue.
Ib.

Art. 2166. [2111] Such writ shall be served by delivering the same and the accompanying copy of the decree of partition to any one of the commissioners appointed, and by notifying the other commissioners, verbally or otherwise, of their appointment, and such service may be made by any person.

Service of writ.

Art. 2167. [2112] It shall be the duty of the commissioners of partition under this chapter to make a fair, just and impartial partition and distribution of the estate in the following order:

Manner of making partition by commissioners.

1. Of the land or other property by allotment to each distributee of a part in each parcel or of parts in one or more parcels, or of one or more parcels, either with or without the addition of a part or parts of other parcels, as shall be most for the interest of the distributees; provided, the said real estate is capable of being so divided without manifest injury to all or any of the distributees.

Ib. p. 121, §104.

2. If the real estate is not capable of a fair, just and equal division in kind, but may be made so by allotting to one or more of the distributees a proportion of money or other personal property to supply the deficiency or deficiencies, the commissioners shall have power to make, as near as may be, an equal division of the real estate and supply the deficiency of any share or shares from the money or other property.

3. The commissioners shall proceed to make a like division in kind, as near as may be, of the money and other personal property, and shall determine by lot among equal shares to whom each particular share shall belong.

Art. 2168. [2113] Said commissioners having divided the whole or any part of the estate, shall make to the court a report in writing, subscribed and sworn to by them, containing a statement of the property divided by them, and also a particular description of the property allotted to each distributee and its value. And if it be real estate that has been divided, said report shall contain a general plat of said land with the division lines plainly set down and the number of acres in each share.

Report of commissioners when division is made.
Ib. p. 122, §106.

Art. 2169. [2114] Upon the return of such report it shall be the duty of the court at some regular term to examine the same carefully and to hear all exceptions and objections made thereto, and to hear evidence in favor of or against the same, and if it be merely informal to cause said informality to be corrected; and if such division shall appear to have been fairly made according to law, and no valid exceptions are taken to it, the court shall approve it and order it to be recorded, and shall enter a decree vesting title in the distributees of their respective shares or portions of the property as set apart to them by the commissioners; but if said division shall not appear to have been fairly made according to law, or any valid exceptions are taken to it, the court shall set aside said report and division and order a new partition to be made.

Property incapable of division to be specially reported.
Ib. p. 121, §105

Art. 2170. [2115] When, in the opinion of the commissioners, the whole or any portion of the estate is not capable of a fair and equal division among the distributees, the said commissioners shall make a special report in writing, subscribed and sworn to by them, specifying therein the property that is so incapable of division and the value of the same duly appraised by them.

Distributees may pay appraised value and take property incapable of division.
Ib.

Art. 2171. [2116] Upon such special report being made to the court any one or more of the distributees, at a regular term of the court, by the payment to the executor or administrator of the appraised value of the property so reported as incapable of division, shall have the right to take such property.

May take it on credit, when.
Ib.

Art. 2172. [2117] Should the court think it for the interest of the distributees to allow a credit, any one or more of such distributees shall have the right to take said property by executing his or their obligations with two or more good and sufficient sureties in favor of each of the other distributees for their share of the appraised value of such property, payable at such time, not exceeding twelve months from the date thereof, as the court may designate, and when such obligations are executed a lien shall exist upon such property by operation of law to secure the payment of the same.

Decree of court in such cases vesting title.
Ib.

Art. 2173. [2118] Should any one or more of the distributees take the said property as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the court to enter upon the minutes a decree stating the facts, and on the entry of such decree the property shall vest as fully and absolutely in the person or persons taking the same as the deceased was vested therewith, subject to the lien for the purchase money thereof, as provided in the preceding article.

New appraisal of property, when.
Ib.

Art. 2174. [2119] If any of the distributees shall file in this court his exception to the appraisement of the commissioners before any of the distributees shall have so taken such property, the court shall hear proof thereon, and if satisfied that such appraisement is unjust or erroneous, shall order a new appraisement of such property to be made, and shall appoint three or more disinterested citizens of the county to make such new appraisement, as in other cases of appraisement.

If no distributee take property, it shall be sold, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2175. [2120] If no distributee take the said property as aforesaid, the court shall order the sale of the same, either for cash or on a credit, as may be most for the interest of the distributees, and the proceeds of sale when collected shall be distributed by the court among those entitled thereto.

Distributees purchasing at sale shall pay only the excess of his share.
Ib.

Art. 2176. [2121] At any such sale, if any distributee shall bid off any of the said property, he shall be required to pay, or secure, as the case may be, only such amount of his bid as may exceed the amount of his share of such property.

Court may order sale, when.
Ib. p. 122, §107.

Art. 2177. [2122] When any portion of the estate to be partitioned lies in another county and can not be fairly partitioned without prejudice to the interests of the distributees, the commissioners may report such facts to the county judge in writing, whereupon he may, at some regular term of the court, if satisfied that the said property can not be fairly and advantageously divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, order a sale thereof for cash, or on a credit of not more than twelve months, at his discretion; and when the proceeds of such sale have been collected they shall be distributed by him among those entitled thereto.

Art. 2178. [2123] If the court is not satisfied that such property can not be fairly and advantageously divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, three or more commissioners may be appointed in each county where any portion of the estate so reported is situated, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as is provided in this chapter for commissioners to make partition.

If property is not sold, commissioners in county where it is situated shall be appointed, etc. Ib.

Art. 2179. [2124] In all cases where commissioners to make partition are appointed under this chapter the report of a majority of them shall be sufficient.

Majority of commissioners may act. Ib. p. 123, §109.

Art. 2180. [2125] When the report of any commissioners to make partition shall have been approved and ordered to be recorded, the court shall order the executor or administrator to deliver to the distributees their respective shares of the estate on demand, including all the title deeds and papers belonging to the same.

Court shall order executor or administrator to deliver property, when. Ib. §113.

Art. 2181. [2126] If any distributee be a minor his share shall be delivered to his guardian, and if such minor has no guardian, and is a resident of this state, the executor or administrator shall retain his share until a guardian of such minor shall be appointed and qualified; and if any distributee be a minor and reside in any other than this state, and the guardianship of such minor or minors may be or has been granted in the state where such minor or minors reside, it shall be lawful for the executor or administrator in this state to settle with and pay or deliver over to such guardian any and all estate in his hands, which shall be as good and valid as if the guardianship had been granted in this state; provided, said guardian before he receives such estate shall make and enter into a bond as guardian in the matter of the guardianship so pending, conditioned and for the amount prescribed by the court having jurisdiction of such guardianship; and provided further, that he shall produce to the court of the county wherein administration has been or may be granted in this state a certified copy of the bond so given and of the record of his appointment as guardian, with certificates from the clerk and judge of the court in which said guardianship is pending that said appointment and bond are in due and legal form under the laws of the said state; also a copy of his bond as guardian; and if the court shall be satisfied that said guardian has been legally appointed and otherwise complied with the requirements herein, such court shall order to be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court, which, when recorded, shall entitle the guardian to settle for the amount due his ward.

To whom property shall be delivered. Ib.; amend. 1895, p. 150.

Art. 2182. [2127] If any executor or administrator shall neglect to deliver to the person entitled thereto, his agent or attorney, when demanded, any portion of an estate so ordered to be delivered, such executor or administrator shall be liable to pay out of his own estate to the person so entitled damages on the amount or value of the share so withheld, at the rate of ten per cent per month for Damages for neglect to deliver property, etc. Ib.

each and every month he shall so neglect to deliver such share after such demand, which damages may be recovered by suit before any court having competent jurisdiction.

Surviving husband or wife may have partition of common property.
Ib. p. 122, §108.

Art. 2183. [2128] When any husband or wife shall die leaving any common property, the survivor may, at any time after letters testamentary or of administration have been granted, and an inventory, appraisal and list of the claims of the estate have been returned, make application in writing to the court which granted such letters for a partition of such common property, which application shall be acted upon at some regular term of the court.

Action of court and bond in such case.
Ib.

Art. 2184. [2129] If upon the hearing of such application there appear to be any such common property, and such surviving husband or wife shall execute and deliver to the county judge an obligation with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and approved by said county judge, for an amount equal to the value of his or her interest in such common property, conditioned for the payment of one-half of all debts existing against such common property, then the county judge shall proceed to make a partition of said common property into two equal moieties, one to be delivered to the survivor and the other to the executor or administrator of the deceased; and all the provisions of this chapter respecting the partition and distribution of estates shall apply to any partition made under the provisions of this article, so far as the same may be applicable.

Lien upon property delivered, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2185. [2130] Whenever any such partition shall be made, a lien shall exist upon the property delivered to such survivor to secure the payment of the aforesaid obligation, and such obligation shall be filed with the clerk and recorded in the minutes of the court, and any creditor of said common property may sue in his own name on such obligation, and shall have judgment thereon for one-half of such debt as he may establish, and for the other half he shall be entitled to be paid by the executor or administrator of the deceased.

Common property shall be held by executor, etc., until, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2186. [2131] Until any such partition of common property is applied for and made as herein provided, the executor or administrator of the deceased shall have the right, and it shall be his duty, to recover possession of all such common property and hold the same in trust for the benefit of the creditors and others entitled there-to under the provisions of this title.

Joint owners with estate may have partition.
Ib. p. 123, §112.

Art. 2187. [2132] Any person having a joint interest with the estate of a decedent in any property, real or personal, may make application to the county court from which letters testamentary or of administration have been granted on said estate, to have a partition thereof; whereupon the court shall proceed to make a partition of said property between the applicant and the estate of the deceased; and all the rules and regulations contained herein in relation to the partition and distribution of estates shall govern partitions under this article so far as the same are applicable.

Expenses of partition to be paid, by whom.
Ib. §111.

Art. 2188. [2133] All expenses incurred in the partition of estates shall be paid by the parties interested in the partition, each party paying in proportion to the share he may receive. The portion of the estate allotted to each distributee shall be liable for his portion of such expenses, and if not paid the court may order execution therefor in the names of the persons entitled thereto.

Court may appoint another guardian, etc., when.
Ib. §110.

Art. 2189. [2134] In any case where the county judge shall appoint a guardian ad litem for minors, or an attorney to represent a distributee who is absent from the state or unknown, under the provisions of this title, if such guardian ad litem, or attorney, shall neglect to attend to the duties of such appointment, the county judge shall appoint others in their places by an order entered on the minutes of the court, and such guardian ad litem and attorney shall be allowed by the county judge a reasonable compensation for their services, to be paid out of the estate of the person they represent, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes, and if such allowance is not paid an execution may issue therefor in the name of the person entitled thereto.

Article 2190. [2135] When all the debts known to exist of every kind against the estate of a deceased person have been paid, or when they have been paid so far as the assets of the estate in the hands of the executor or administrator will permit, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator of such estate to present to the court his account for final settlement of such estate verified by affidavit.

Duty of executor, etc., to present account for final settlement, when. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 117, §95.)

Art. 2191. [2136] Such accounts shall show—

1. The property that has come into the hands of such executor or administrator belonging to the estate.
2. The disposition that has been made of any such property.
3. The debts that have been paid.
4. The debts and expenses, if any, still owing by the estate.
5. The property of the estate, if any, still remaining on hand.
6. The persons entitled to receive any portion of such estate, and their residence, if known, and whether adults or minors, and if minors, the names of their guardians.
7. Any advancements or payments that may have been made by the executor or administrator from such estate to any such person.

What the account shall show.

8. Said account shall be accompanied by proper vouchers in support of each item thereof, and such account and vouchers shall be filed with the clerk, either in term time or in vacation.

Art. 2192. [2137] It shall be sufficient, under the preceding article, to refer to the inventory without giving each item in detail; also to refer to and adopt report of sales, exhibits and accounts of the executor or administrator, including vouchers which had previously been approved and filed according to law, without re-stating the items thereof.

What shall be sufficient under the preceding article.

Art. 2193. [2138] Should the executor or administrator neglect to present such account, it shall be the duty of the county judge, either of his own motion or upon the complaint of any person interested in the estate, to cause such executor or administrator to be cited to present such account within a time specified in such citation.

Citation shall issue.
Ib.

Art. 2194. [2139] Upon the presentation of an account for final settlement it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue a citation, which shall state the presentation of said account, the term of the court when it will be acted on, and shall require all persons interested to appear and contest the same if they see proper.

Service on return of such citation.

Art. 2195. [2140] Such citation shall be published for at least twenty days in a newspaper printed in the county, if there be one, if not then by posting such notice at the court house and at two other public places in the county, not in the same town or city, for at least twenty days. When the citation has been published, the affidavit of the publisher or printer attached to a copy thereof that the same has been published for at least twenty days, shall accompany the return of the officer who executes such citation. When the citation has been posted, the original citation, with the return of the officer posting the same indorsed thereon or attached thereto, shall be filed.

County judge may order other notice to be given.
Ib.

Art. 2196. [2141] In addition to the citation required in the two preceding articles, the county judge may order such other notice to be given as he shall deem expedient, by an order entered upon the minutes of the court.

Action of court upon account.
Ib.

Art. 2197. [2142] At the term of court named in such citation, or at some subsequent term to which the same has been continued, upon return being made that citation has been served in the manner required, it shall be the duty of the court to examine said account and the vouchers accompanying the same, and after hearing all exceptions and objections thereto, and the evidence that may be offered in support of or against such account, to re-state said account, if necessary, and audit and settle the same.

Partition of estate on hand
shall be made.
Ib.

Art. 2198. [2143] Upon a settlement of an estate, if there is any of the estate remaining in the hands of the executor and administrator, and the heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate, or their assignee, or either of them, are present or represented in court, it shall be the duty of the county judge to order a partition and distribution of the estate to be made among them, upon satisfactory proof being made that they are entitled to receive it.

Executor, etc.,
shall be discharged,
when.
Ib.

Art. 2199. [2144] If upon such settlement there be none of the estate remaining in the hands of the executor or administrator, he shall be discharged from his trust by an order of the court entered upon the minutes, and such order shall declare said estate closed.

Order for discharge of executor, etc.,
when, etc.

Art. 2200. [2145] Whenever in any case the executor or administrator has fully administered the estate in accordance with the provisions of this title, and in accordance with the order of the court, and has filed proper vouchers, it shall be the duty of the court to enter upon the minutes an order discharging said executor or administrator from his trust and declaring said estate to be closed.

Article 2201. [2146] If any person entitled to a portion of an estate, except a minor who resides in this state and has no guardian, shall not demand the portion to which he is entitled from the executor or administrator within six months after an order approving the report of commissioners of partition, the county judge, by an order entered upon the minutes, shall require the executor or administrator to pay so much of said portion as may be in money to the state treasurer, and such portion as may be in other property he shall order the executor or administrator to sell on such terms as the court may think best, and when the proceeds of such sale are collected he shall order the same to be paid to the treasurer of the state; in all such cases allowing to the executor or administrator reasonable compensation for his services.

If distributee does not demand his portion in six months after partition, same shall be paid to state treasurer. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 124, §114.)

Art. 2202. [2147] Upon the settlement of the final account of any executor or administrator, if the heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate, or assignees, or any of them, do not appear or are not represented in the court, and there are any funds of such estate remaining in the hands of the executor or administrator, it shall be the duty of the county judge to enter an order upon the minutes requiring such executor or administrator to pay such funds to the treasurer of the state.

When those entitled to estate do not appear and claim, shall be paid to state treasurer. Ib. §96.

Art. 2203. [2148] If in such case there shall be any property of the estate that has not been sold, or any debts due the estate that may be collected, it shall be the duty of the county judge, by an order entered upon the minutes, to require the executor or administrator to sell such property on such terms as the county judge may think best, and to collect such debts and to pay the proceeds of such sale and amount collected of such debts to the state treasurer as soon as received; in all such cases allowing to the executor or administrator reasonable compensation for his services.

Property uncalled for shall be sold, etc. Ib. p. 118, §96.

Art. 2204. [2149] The executor or administrator, while he has any of such estate under his control, shall, from time to time, as he receives money, report the same to the court in writing under oath, and should he neglect to report to the court the condition of the estate at reasonable periods of time, it shall be the duty of the court to cause him to be cited to appear and make such report either in term time or in vacation, and the court shall thereupon make such order as the circumstances of the case may require.

Executor, etc., shall make report, etc.

While the property remains under control of executor, etc., distributees may have partition.
Ib.

Art. 2205. [2150] While such estate or any portion thereof remains under the control of the executor or administrator, the heirs, devisees, legatees or their assignees, or any of them, may obtain from the county judge, at a regular term of the court, an order to have the same partitioned and distributed among them, according to their respective interests in the same, upon causing the executor or administrator to be cited, and upon making satisfactory proof of their right to the same.

Certified copy of order for payment to treasurer shall be sent by the clerk to treasurer.
Ib. p. 118, §97.

Art. 2206. [2151] Whenever an order shall be made by the county judge for an executor or administrator to pay over any funds to the treasurer of the state, under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which such order may be made, to transmit to said treasurer, by mail, a certified copy of such order within thirty days after said order shall have been made.

Clerk shall take certificate of postmaster, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2207. [2152] Whenever the clerk mails such copy he shall take from the postmaster with whom it is mailed a certificate stating that such certified copy was mailed in his office, directed to the treasurer of the state, at the seat of government, and the date when it was mailed, which certificate shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

Penalty for neglect of such duty.
Ib.

Art. 2208. [2153] Any clerk who shall neglect to transmit a certified copy of such order within the time prescribed, and to take such certificate and have it so recorded, as required in the preceding article, shall be liable in a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action in the name of the state, before any court of the county having jurisdiction of the amount, on the information of any citizen of the county, one-half of which penalty shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the state.

Executor, etc., shall take receipt of treasurer, etc.
Ib. p. 119, §98.

Art. 2209. [2154] Whenever an executor or administrator shall pay over to the treasurer of the state any funds of the estate he represents, under the provisions of this chapter, he shall take from such treasurer a receipt for such payment, with his official seal attached, and file the same with the clerk of the court ordering such payment, and such receipt shall be recorded on the minutes of such court, and a certified copy of the same, or of such record, shall be evidence of such payment.

Distributees may recover funds paid into the treasury.
Ib. §99.

Art. 2210. [2155] Whenever any funds of an estate shall have been paid to the treasurer of the state, under the provisions of this chapter, any heir, devisee or legatee of such estate, or their assignees, or any of them, may recover the portion of such funds to which he or they would have been entitled, as if the same had not been so paid to the treasurer.

Mode of recovery.
Ib.

Art. 2211. [2156] In such case the person claiming such funds, or any portion thereof, shall institute his suit therefor, by petition filed in the county court of the county in which the estate was administered, against the treasurer of the state, setting forth the petitioner's right to such funds, and the amount claimed by him.

Citation to county or district attorney.

Art. 2212. [2157] Upon the filing of such petition the clerk shall issue a citation for the county attorney of the county, or the district attorney of the district, to appear and represent the interest of the state in such suit, and it shall be the duty of such county or district attorney to do so.

Proceedings in suit to recover funds.

Art. 2213. [2158] The proceedings in such suit shall be governed by the same rules as are provided for civil suits in the county court, and should the plaintiff establish his right to the funds claimed he shall have a judgment therefor which shall specify the amount to which he is entitled, and a certified copy of such judgment shall be sufficient authority for the treasurer to pay the same.

Art. 2214. [2159] The costs of any such suit shall in all cases be adjudged against the plaintiff, and he may be required, as in other cases, to secure the costs. Costs shall be paid by plaintiff. Ib.

Art. 2215. [2160] Whenever any executor or administrator shall fail to pay to the treasurer of the state any funds of the estate that he represents which he has been ordered by the county judge so to pay, within three months after such order has been made, such executor or administrator shall be liable to pay out of his own estate to the state treasurer damages thereon at the rate of five per cent per month for each month he may neglect to make such payment after the three months from such order. Penalty when executor, etc., fails to pay funds to treasurer. Ib. $100.

Art. 2216. [2161] The treasurer of the state shall have the right in the name of the state to apply to the court in which the order for payment was made, by application in writing, to enforce the payment of such funds, together with the payment of any damages that may have accrued under the provisions of the preceding article, and it shall be the duty of the court to enforce such payment in like manner as other orders of payment are required to be enforced. Treasurer may apply to county court to enforce payment, and duty of court in such case. Ib.

Art. 2217. [2162] The treasurer shall also have the right to institute suit in the name of the state against such executor or administrator and the sureties on his bond for the recovery of the funds so ordered to be paid, and damages if any have accrued, which suit may be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the order of payment was made. Treasurer may also sue upon bond. Ib.

Art. 2218. [2163] It shall be the duty of the county or district attorney, as the case may be, to attend to and represent the interests of the state in all matters arising under any of the provisions of this chapter, and for which services he shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. Duty of county or district attorney to represent state.

of all the community debts allowed or paid in the settlement of such estates.

When there is no child, administration not required. (Amend. 1893, p. 89.)
P. D. 5498.

Art. 2220. [2165] Where the husband or wife dies intestate, or becomes insane, having no child or children, and no separate property, the common property passes to the survivor, charged with the debts of the community, and no administration thereon or guardianship of the estate of the insane wife or husband shall be necessary.

Where there is child, survivor holds subject, etc. (Amend. 1893, p. 89.)
Ib. p. 127, §116.
P. D. 4647.

Art. 2221. [2166] Where the wife dies or becomes insane, leaving a surviving husband and child, or children, the husband shall have the exclusive management, control and disposition of the community property in the same manner as during her lifetime, or sanity, and it shall not be necessary that the insane wife shall join in conveyances of such property, or her privy examination and acknowledgment be taken to such conveyances, subject, however, to the provisions of this chapter.

Application for community administration.
Ib.

Art. 2222. [2167] The husband shall, within four years after the death of the wife, or her being declared insane, as provided by law, when there is a child, or children, file a written application in the county court of the proper county, stating:

1. The death of his wife, or that she has been declared insane by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the time and place of her death or of such declaration.
2. That she left a child or children, giving the names, sex, residence, and age of each child.
3. That there is a community estate between the deceased or insane wife and himself.
4. Such facts as show the jurisdiction of the court over the estate.
5. Asking for the appointment of appraisers, to appraise such estate.

Court shall appoint appraisers. (Act 1876, p. 124.)

Art. 2223. [2168] Upon the filing of such application the county judge shall, without citation, and either in term time or in vacation, by an order entered upon the minutes of the court, appoint appraisers to appraise such estate as in other administrations.

Inventory shall be returned in twenty days.

Art. 2224. [2169] It shall be the duty of the surviving husband, with the assistance of any two of the appraisers, to make out a full, fair and complete inventory and appraisal of such community estate, and the husband shall attach thereto a list of all community debts due the estate, and such inventory, appraisal and list shall be sworn to and subscribed and returned to the court within twenty days from the date of the order appointing appraisers, and in like manner as in other administrations.

Bond of survivor.
Ib. p. 124, §116.

Art. 2225. [2170] The surviving husband shall at the same time he returns the inventory, appraisal and list of claims, present to the court his bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable and to be approved by the county judge, in a sum equal to the whole of the value of such community estate as shown by the appraisal, conditioned that he will faithfully administer such community estate, and pay over one-half the surplus thereof after the payment of the debts with which the whole of such property is properly chargeable, to such person or persons as shall be entitled to receive the same.

Action of court upon inventory, etc.

Art. 2226. [2171] When any such inventory, appraisal, list of claims and bond are returned to the county judge, he shall, either in term time or in vacation, examine the same and approve or disapprove them by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes of the court, and when approved the same shall be recorded upon the minutes of the court, and the order approving the same shall also authorize such survivor to control, manage and dispose of such community property in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 2227. [2172] When the order mentioned in the preceding article has been entered, such survivor, without any further action in the county court, shall have the right to control, manage and dispose of such community property, real or personal, in such manner as may seem best for the interest of the estate and of suing and being sued with regard to the same, in the same manner as during the lifetime of the deceased, and a certified copy of the order of the court mentioned in the preceding article shall be evidence of the qualification and right of such survivor.

After order of court, survivor has control, etc.
P. D. 4648.

Art. 2228. [2173] The survivor shall keep a fair and full account and statement of all community debts and expenses paid by him, and of the disposition made of such community property, and upon final partition of said estate shall account to the legal heirs of the deceased for their interest in such estate, and the increase and profits of the same, after deducting therefrom all community debts, unavoidable losses, necessary and reasonable expenses, and a reasonable commission for the management of the same.

Survivor shall keep an account, etc.
P. D. 4648.

Art. 2229. [2174] Any person interested in such community estate may cause a new appraisalment to be made of the same, or a new bond may be required of the survivor for the same causes and in like manner as provided in other administrations.

New appraisalment and bond may be required.

Art. 2230. [2175] It shall be the duty of the survivor to pay all just and legal community debts as soon as practicable, and according to the classification and in the order prescribed for the payment of debts in other administrations.

Duty of survivor to pay debts.

Art. 2231. [2176] Any creditor of the estate whose claim has not been paid in full may, after the lapse of one year from the filing of the inventory, appraisalment, list of claims and bond by the survivor, cause such survivor to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court in which such bond has been filed, and make an exhibit to the court in writing and under oath, showing fully and specifically—

Creditor may have survivor to make exhibit, when.

1. The debts that have been presented to him against such community estate and their class.

2. The debts that have been paid by him and those that remain unpaid, and the class of each.

3. The property that has been disposed of by him and the amount received therefor.

4. The property remaining on hand.

5. An account of losses, expenses and commissions.

Art. 2232. [2177] When such exhibit has been returned to the court and filed, the court shall, at a regular term, examine the same and hear exceptions and objections thereto, and evidence in support of or against the same, and if satisfied that the estate has been fairly administered and in conformity to law, and that there remains no further property of such estate for the payment of debts, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes approving such exhibit and directing the same to be recorded in the minutes, and shall also in such order declare such administration closed.

Action of court upon exhibit.

Art. 2233. [2178] But should it appear to the court from such exhibit or from other evidence that such estate has been improperly Sureties on survivor's bond shall be cited, when.

administered, or that there are still assets of said estate that are liable for the payment of the applicant's debt or any part thereof, and if said debt be for the amount of one thousand dollars or less, exclusive of interest, the court shall order citation to issue for the sureties upon the bond of such survivor, citing them to appear before such court at a regular term thereof, and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for such debt and costs, which citation shall be returnable as in other civil suits, and the proceedings in such case shall be the same as in other civil suits in said court.

Creditor may sue upon bond, when.

Art. 2234. [2179] Should the amount due and payable to such creditor exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes requiring the survivor to pay such debt or a part thereof, as the evidence may show to be proper, and should he neglect to pay the same for thirty days after the date of such order, the creditor may have his action in the district court of the county where the survivor's bond is filed, against such survivor and the sureties upon his bond, and in such case a certified copy of such bond or the record thereof, and of the proceedings and orders of the county court in the estate, shall be evidence in any other court.

Action of court when survivor fails to make exhibit.

Art. 2235. [2180] Should the survivor, after being duly cited, fail to file an exhibit as required, the court shall proceed, in accordance with the provisions of the two preceding articles, as if the creditor's right to the payment of his claim had been fully established.

Surviving wife shall have same rights, etc. Ib.; amend. 1893, p. 89. P. D. 4652.

Art. 2236. [2181] The wife may retain the exclusive management, control and disposition of the community property of herself and deceased or insane husband in the same manner, and subject to the same rights, rules and regulations as provided in the case of the husband, and until she shall, in the event of the death of the husband, marry again.

"Survivor," etc., applies alike to sane and insane persons. (Acts 1893, p. 89.)

Art. 2236a. The use of the words "survivor" or "surviving" in the above and foregoing articles of this chapter, where no other designation is given, shall be held to apply as well to a sane person representing an insane person.

Rights of wife cease when she marries again.

Art. 2237. [2182] Upon the marriage of the surviving wife she shall cease to have such control and management of said estate or the right to dispose of the same, and said estate shall be subject to administration as in other cases of deceased persons' estates.

Persons entitled to estate may have partition, when.

Art. 2238. [2183] After the lapse of twelve months from the filing of the bond by the survivor, the persons entitled to the deceased's share of such community estate, or any portion thereof, shall be entitled to demand and have a partition and distribution thereof in the same manner as in other administrations.

Recovery of insane spouse stops action hereunder. (Acts 1893, p. 89.)

Art. 2238a. Whenever such insane husband or wife shall have recovered sanity, then all action hereunder shall cease, and a report shall be made under oath of all transactions had and done under said proceedings, and said report shall be filed and recorded in the court where such proceedings were had, and with the other papers of the case.

Duty of guardians in such cases. Ib.

Art. 2238b. Persons now acting as guardians of the estate of persons of unsound mind, shall turn over the estates of their wards, where the wards shall be married persons, upon the qualification of the sane spouse, as provided in this chapter.

Duty of clerk to record all papers not recorded	2242

Article 2239. [2184] It shall be the duty of the county judge of any county from which any county or part thereof has been taken, upon the written application of the executor, administrator, or the majority of the heirs of an estate, to transmit all original papers relating to the settlement of a deceased person's estate who was at the time of his decease a resident of that part of the territory of the county which has been or may hereafter be taken to form any new county, or that may be added to any other county, to the county court of such new county, or county to which such territory has been added; and he shall also transmit with such original papers a transcript, certified by the clerk under the seal of the court, of the records of all orders, judgments and decrees of the court had in relation to such estate.

Court shall transfer administration on application, when. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 125, §118.)

Art. 2240. [2185] At the time of filing such application the applicant shall pay all fees due on account of such estate, and the order for the transfer of such estate shall not be made until such fees have been paid.

Applicant shall pay fees due. Ib.

Art. 2241. [2186] When the fees due have been paid, the county judge shall, either in term time or in vacation, hear such application, and if satisfied that the facts exist which authorize the transfer of such estate, he shall enter an order upon the minutes directing such transfer, and ordering all original papers of the estate that have not been recorded to be recorded previous to such transfer.

Order of court for transfer.

Art. 2242. [2187] Upon the entry of such order it shall be the duty of the clerk to record all original papers belonging to the estate that have not been previously recorded, for which the same fee shall be allowed him as is allowed for other recording, which fees shall be paid by the applicant before any such transfer shall be made.

Duty of clerk to record all papers not recorded. Ib. p. 125, §119.

Art. 2243. [2188] In all cases where papers and proceedings relating to the settlement of an estate shall be transmitted to any court in the manner provided for in this chapter, such papers and proceedings shall be filed in such court, and such estate shall be proceeded with and settled in such court in like manner as if the settlement of such estate had been originally commenced in such county, and the transcript of the record transmitted in the manner provided herein shall have the same force and effect in evidence as the record itself might or could have.

Administration of estate shall be proceeded with as if commenced originally in the county to which transfer is made. Ib. §120.

Art. 2244. [2189] All proceedings in relation to the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, remaining unsettled in the district courts of this state, shall be transferred to the county court of the county having jurisdiction thereof, and shall be conducted and concluded in such county court under the provisions of this title.

Administration in district court shall be transferred to county court. Ib. p. 130, §144.

Article 2245. [2190] Executors and administrators shall be entitled to receive and may retain in their hands five per cent on all sums they may actually receive in cash, and the same per cent on all sums they may pay away in cash in the course of their administration.

Commissions not allowed on certain moneys. Ib.

Art. 2246. [2191] The commission allowed by the preceding article shall not be allowed or received for receiving any cash which was on hand at the time of the death of the testator or intestate, nor for paying out money to the heirs or legatees as such.

Shall be allowed expenses, etc. Ib.

Art. 2247. [2192] Executors and administrators shall also be allowed all reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by them in the preservation, safe keeping and management of the estate, and all reasonable attorney's fees that may be necessarily incurred by them in the course of the administration.

Account for expenses shall be filed and acted upon by the court.

Art. 2248. [2193] All such charges as are provided for in the preceding article shall be made in writing, showing specifically each item of expense and the date thereof, and shall be verified by the affidavit of the executor or administrator, and filed with the clerk and entered upon the claim docket, and shall be acted upon by the court in like manner as other claims against the estate.

Costs of appraisers.

Art. 2249. [2194] Appraisers appointed under the provisions of this title shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day each for every day that they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties as such appraisers.

Costs of commissioners.

Art. 2250. [2195] Commissioners appointed under the provisions of this title to partition and distribute an estate, or any part thereof, shall be entitled to receive two dollars each for every day that they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties as such commissioners, to be taxed and paid as other costs in cases of partition.

When costs shall be adjudged against executor, etc. Ib. p. 129, §133.

Art. 2251. [2196] In all cases where an executor or administrator shall neglect the performance of any duty required by this title, and any costs are incurred on account thereof, he and his sureties on his bond shall be liable for all such costs, and the same shall be adjudged against him and his sureties, and execution issue therefor as in other cases.

Same subject. Ib.

Art. 2252. [2197] Whenever an executor or administrator shall be removed for any of the causes set forth in this title, the costs of such proceeding shall likewise be adjudged against him and the sureties upon his bond.

When application, etc., is defeated, costs shall be adjudged against applicant, etc. Ib. p. 129, §134.

Art. 2253. [2198] In all cases where a party shall file any application, complaint or opposition in the court, under the provisions of this title, and on the trial thereof he shall be defeated, or fail in the object for which his application, complaint or opposition was filed, all costs occasioned by the filing of the same shall be adjudged against him.

Art. 2254. [2199] When any person except the executor or administrator of an estate files any application, complaint or opposition in relation to the estate, the clerk may require him to give security for the probable costs of such proceeding before filing the same, or any one interested in the estate, or any officer of the court may, at any time before the trial of such application, complaint or opposition, obtain from the court, upon written motion, an order requiring such party to give security for the costs of such proceedings, and the rules governing the proceedings in civil suits in the county court respecting this subject shall govern in such case.

Security for costs may be required, when.

Article 2255. [2200] Any person who may consider himself aggrieved by any decision, order, decree or judgment of the county court, shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the district court of the county, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter.

Right of appeal. (Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 128, §130.)

Art. 2256. [2201] He shall, within fifteen days after such decision, order, judgment or decree shall have been rendered, file with the county clerk a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the county judge, and to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the appellant shall prosecute said appeal to effect, and perform the decision, order, decree or judgment which the district court shall make thereon, in case the cause shall be decided against him.

Appeal bond. Ib.

Art. 2257. [2202] When an appeal is taken by an executor or administrator no bond shall be required unless such appeal personally concern him, in which case he must give the bond.

Bond not required of executor, etc., unless, etc.

Art. 2258. [2203] Where the party who desires to appeal is unable to give the appeal bond, it shall be sufficient if he file with the county clerk, within the time prescribed for giving such bond, an affidavit in writing that he has made diligent efforts to give such bond and is unable to do so by reason of his poverty, and such affidavit shall operate a perfection of the appeal in respect to the matter of costs.

Affidavit that party is too poor to give bond. P. D. 6180.

Art. 2259. [2204] Upon such appeal bond or affidavit being filed in the county clerk's office it shall be his duty immediately to make out a certified transcript of the papers and proceedings relating to the decision, order, judgment or decree appealed from, together with such decision, order, judgment or decree, and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court, together with the appeal bond or affidavit that has been made in lieu of such bond, on or before the first day of the next term of such court.

Duty of county clerk to make and transmit transcript, etc. Ib. §131.

Article 2264. [2209] The clerk of the district or county court, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall, at the request of any party to a suit pending in his court, or of his agent or attorney, issue a subpoena for any witness or witnesses who may be represented to reside within the county or be found therein at the time of the trial.

Witnesses subpoenaed. (Act March 13, 1846, p. 363, §1.) P. D. 3719.

Art. 2265. [2210] The style of the subpoena shall be "The State of Texas." It shall state the names of the parties to the suit, the court in which the same is pending, the time and place at which the witness is required to appear, and the party at whose instance he is summoned. It shall be dated and tested by the clerk or justice, but need not be under the seal of the court, and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon.

Form of subpoena. Ib.

Art. 2266. [2211] Subpoenas may be executed and returned at any time before the trial of the cause, and shall be served by being read to the witness, and service thereof may be accepted by any witness by a written memorandum, signed by him, attached to the subpoena.

Service of. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, §16.) P. D. 1434.

Art. 2267. [2212] Every witness summoned in any suit shall attend the court from day to day, and from term to term, until discharged by the court or party summoning him; and if any witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail to attend, he may be fined by the court as for a contempt of court, and an attachment may issue against the body of such witness to compel his attendance; but no such fine shall be imposed, nor shall such attachment issue in a civil suit until it shall be shown to the court, by affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney, that his lawful fees have been paid or tendered to such witness.

Witness shall attend, etc. Ib. P. D. 3720.

Art. 2268. [2213] Witnesses shall be allowed a fee of one dollar for each and every day they may be in attendance on the court, and six cents for every mile they may have to travel in going to and returning therefrom, which shall be paid on the certificate of the clerk, by the party summoning them; which certificate shall be given on the affidavit of the witness before the clerk; and such compensation and mileage of witnesses shall be taxed in the bill of costs as other costs.

Notice and service thereof.
(Acts of 1887, p. 27.)

Art. 2274. [2219] The party wishing to take the deposition of a witness in a suit pending in court shall file with the clerk or justice of the peace, as the case may be, a notice of his intention to apply for a commission to take the answers of the witness to interrogatories attached to such notice. The notice shall state the name and residence of the witness, or the place where he is to be found, and the suit in which the deposition is to be used, and a copy thereof, and of the attached interrogatories, shall be served upon the adverse party, or his attorney of record five days before the issuance of a commission; and whenever the adverse party is a corporation or a joint stock association, service may be made upon the president, secretary or treasurer of such corporation or association, or upon the local agent representing such corporation or association in the county in which the suit is pending, or by leaving a copy of the notice and attached interrogatories at the principal office of such corporation or association during office hours.

Art. 2275. [2220] In all civil suits where it shall be shown to the court, by affidavit filed therein, that either party is beyond the jurisdiction of the court, or that he can not be found, or has deceased since the commencement of the suit, and such death has been suggested at a prior term of the court, so that the notice and copy of interrogatories can not be served upon him for the purpose of taking depositions, and such party has no attorney of record upon whom they can be served; or if he be deceased, and all the persons entitled to claim by or through such deceased defendant have not made themselves parties to the suit, and are unknown, the party wishing to take depositions may file his interrogatories in the court where said suit is pending, and the clerk of such court or justice of the peace shall thereupon cause a notice to be published in some newspaper for thirty days, stating the number of the suit, the names of the original parties, in what court the suit is pending, the name and residence of the witnesses to whom interrogatories are propounded, and that a commission will issue on or after the thirtieth day after such publication to take the deposition of such witness; at the expiration of which time such clerk or justice shall, on the application of the party filing such interrogatories, his agent or attorney, issue a commission as in other cases.

P. D. 3731.

Art. 2278. [2223] Whenever one party may file interrogatories for the purpose of taking the deposition of a witness, the opposite party may file cross-interrogatories at any time before the commission issues, and a copy of the same shall accompany the direct interrogatories, and shall be answered and returned therewith.

Commission to take deposition.
Ib. §67.
P. D. 3736.

Art. 2279. [2224] After the service of the notice of filing the interrogatories has been completed, the clerk or justice shall issue a commission to take the deposition of the witness named in the notice.

Requisites of.
Ib.

Art. 2280. [2225] The style of the commission shall be "The State of Texas," and it shall be dated and tested as other process; it shall be addressed to the several officers named in the succeeding article, and shall authorize and require them, or either of them, to summon the witness before him forthwith, and to take his answers under oath to the direct and cross-interrogatories, if any, a copy of which shall be attached to such commission, and to return without delay the commission and interrogatories, and the answers of the witness thereto, to the clerk or justice of the proper court, giving his official and postoffice address.

Officers authorized to execute.
P. D. 3726,
3736.

Art. 2281. [2226] The commission shall be addressed to the following officers, either of whom may execute and return the same:

1. If the witness be alleged to reside or be within the state, to any clerk of the district court, any judge or clerk of the county court, or any notary public of the proper county.

2. If the witness be alleged to reside or be without the state, and within the United States, to any clerk of a court of record having a seal, any notary public, or any commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of this state within some other state or territory.

3. If the witness is alleged to reside or be without the United States, to any notary public or any minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States resident in and accredited to the country where the deposition may be taken, or any consul-general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States resident in such country.

Witness to be summoned.
Ib. §68.
P. D. 3727.

Art. 2282. [2227] Upon the receipt of such commission by any officer to whom it is addressed residing in this state, if the witness does not voluntarily appear, he shall issue a subpoena directed to the sheriff or any constable of his county, requiring him to summon the witness to appear and answer interrogatories at a time and place named in the subpoena.

Refusing to answer, may be attached.
Ib.

Art. 2283. [2228] If the witness after being duly summoned shall fail to appear, or having appeared shall refuse to answer the interrogatories, such officer shall have power to issue an attachment against such witness and to fine and imprison him in like manner as the district and county courts are empowered to do in like cases.

Execution of the commission.
Ib. §69.
P. D. 3728.

Art. 2284. [2229] Upon the appearance of the witness, the officer to whom the commission is directed shall proceed to take his answers to the interrogatories. The answers shall be reduced to writing, and shall be signed and sworn to by the witness. The officer shall certify that the answers of the witness were signed and sworn to by the witness before him, and shall seal them up in an envelope, together with the commission and interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, if any, and shall write his name across the seal, and indorse on the envelope the names of the parties to the suit and of the witnesses, and shall direct the package to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace from which the commission issued.

Art. 2285. [2230] The officer executing such commission shall have authority, when he shall deem it expedient, to summon and swear an interpreter to facilitate the taking of the deposition. Interpreter.

Art. 2286. [2231] Depositions may be returned to the court either by mail, by a party interested in taking the same, or by any other person. If sent by mail, the postmaster or his deputy mailing the same shall indorse thereon that he received them from the hands of the officer before whom they were taken; and the clerk or justice taking them from the postoffice shall indorse on them that he received them from the postoffice, and sign his name thereto. If sent otherwise than by mail, the person delivering them into court shall make affidavit before the clerk or justice that he received them from the hands of the officer before whom they were taken; that they have not been out of his possession since, and that they have undergone no alteration. Article 2299. [2245] The common law of England as now practiced and understood shall, in its application to evidence, be followed and practiced by the courts of this state, so far as the same may not be inconsistent with this title or any other law.

Common law rules of evidence. (Act Dec. 20, 1836.) P. D. 3706.

Art. 2300. [2246] No person shall be incompetent to testify on account of color, nor because he is a party to a suit or proceeding or interested in the issue tried.

Color or interest does not disqualify. (Act May 19, 1871, p. 108.) P. D. 6826.

Art. 2301. [2247] The husband or wife of a party to a suit or proceeding, or who is interested in the issue to be tried, shall not be incompetent to testify therein, except as to confidential communications between such husband and wife.

Husband or wife not disqualified, except, etc.

Art. 2302. [2248] In actions by or against executors, administrators or guardians, in which judgment may be rendered for or against them as such, neither party shall be allowed to testify against the others as to any transaction with, or statement by, the testator, intestate or ward, unless called to testify thereto by the opposite party; and the provisions of this article shall extend to and include all actions by or against the heirs or legal representatives of a decedent arising out of any transaction with such decedent.

In actions by or against executors, etc., certain testimony not allowed. Ib. P. D. 6827.

Art. 2303. [2249] No person shall be incompetent to testify on account of his religious opinions, or for want of any religious belief.

Religious opinions, etc., do not disqualify. (Const., art. 1, §5.)

Art. 2304. [2250] The printed statute books of this state, of the United States, of the District of Columbia, or of any state or territory of the United States, or of any foreign government purporting to have been printed under the authority thereof, shall be received as evidence of the acts and resolutions therein contained.

Printed statutes evidence, when. (Act May 13, 1846.) P. D. 3712.

Art. 2305. [2251] A certified copy under the hand and seal of the secretary of state of this state, of any act or resolution contained in any of such printed statute books deposited in his office, or of any law or bill, public or private, deposited in his office in accordance with law, shall be received as evidence thereof.

Certified copies of acts, etc., evidence. Ib.

Copies of records of public officers and courts to be prima facie evidence.

Ib.
P. D. 3715.

Art. 2306. [2252] Copies of the records of all public officers and courts of this state, certified under the hand and seal (if there be one) of the lawful possessor of such records, shall be admitted as evidence in all cases where the records themselves would be admissible; translated copies of all records in the land office, certified to under the hand of the translator, and the commissioner of the general land office, attested with the seal of said office, shall be prima facie evidence in all cases where the original records would be evidence.

(Acts of 1881,
P. 71.)

Art. 2307. [2252a] The county surveyor of the several counties of this state shall record in a well-bound book all the surveys in the county or district for which he was elected, with plats thereof that he may make, whether private or official, and certified copies of such record under the official signature of the surveyor may be used in evidence in any of the courts of this state.

Copies and certificates from certain officers are evidence.
(Act March 20, 1848.)

P. D. 3806.

Art. 2308. [2253] It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, attorney-general, commissioner of the general land office, comptroller, treasurer, adjutant-general and commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history to furnish any person who may apply for the same, with a copy of any paper, document or record in their respective offices, and also to give certificates, attested by the seal of their respective offices, certifying to any fact or facts contained in the papers, documents or records of their offices, to any person applying for the same, and the same shall be received in evidence in all cases in which the originals would be evidence.

Notarial acts and copies thereof are evidence.
(Act June 24,
1876, p. 30, §9.)

P. D. 4637.

Art. 2309. [2254] All declarations and protests made and acknowledgments taken by notaries public, and certified copies of their records and official papers shall be received as evidence of the facts therein stated in all the courts of this state.

In suits against delinquent officers, transcript from comptroller's office is evidence.
(Act Feb. 3,
1861, p. 14.)

P. D. 3704.

Art. 2310. [2255] In suits by the state against any officer or agent thereof, on account of any delinquency or failure to pay to the state any money, a transcript from the papers, books, records and proceedings of the office of comptroller of public accounts, purporting to contain a true statement of accounts between the state and such party, authenticated under the seal of said office, shall be admitted as prima facie evidence, and the court trying the cause may thereupon render judgment accordingly; and all copies of bonds, contracts or other papers relating to or connected with any account between the state and an individual, sued as aforesaid, when certified by the comptroller of public accounts to be true copies of the originals on file in said office, and authenticated under the seal of said office, may be annexed to such transcript and shall be entitled to the same degree of credit that would be due to the original papers if produced and proved in court; but when such suit is brought upon a bond or other written instrument, and the defendant shall by plea under oath deny the execution of such instrument, the court shall require the production and proof thereof.

Copies of certain instruments prior to 1837 are evidence.
(Act May 13,
1846.)

P. D. 3717.

Art. 2311. [2256] Copies of all conveyances and other instruments of writing between private individuals, which were filed in the office of any alcalde or judge in Texas previous to the first Monday in February, 1837, shall be admissible in evidence, and shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof; provided, such copies are certified under the hand and official seal of the officer with whom the originals are now deposited.

Recorded instruments admitted in evidence without proof, when.

Ib.
P. D. 3716.

Art. 2312. [2257] Every instrument of writing which is permitted or required by law to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and which has been or may be so recorded after being proven or acknowledged in the manner provided by the laws in force at the time of its registration shall be admitted as evidence without the necessity of proving its execution; provided, that the party who wishes to give it in evidence shall file the same among the papers of the suit in which he proposes to use it, at least three days before the commencement of the trial of such suit, and give notice of such filing to the opposite party or his attorney of record; and unless such opposite party, or some other person for him, shall, within three days before the trial of the cause, file an affidavit stating that he believes such instrument of writing to be forged. And whenever any party to a suit shall file among the papers of the cause an affidavit stating that any instrument of writing, recorded as aforesaid, has been lost, or that he can not procure the original, a certified copy of the record of any such instrument shall be admitted in like manner as the original could be.

Art. 2313. [2257a] All abstracts of land titles or land abstract books to lands in this state compiled from the records of any county in this state prior to the year 1877, which said records were partially or wholly destroyed or lost from any cause during the month of March, 1876, shall hereafter be competent prima facie evidence of the truth of the data or memoranda therein contained and compiled prior to the year 1877, and shall be admissible in evidence in the courts of this state; provided, that the compiler of such abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books shall have made heretofore, or before offered in evidence, affidavit before some officer authorized at the time of making such affidavit to take acknowledgments to deeds in this state, and to the effect that said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books were compiled by him from the records of the county prior to their destruction or loss, and that they contain a true and correct statement of the matters and things to which they relate; and provided also, that it shall be admissible to offer in evidence any testimony tending to discredit or substantiate the reliability of such abstract of land titles or land title abstract books or tending to show the compiler thereof to have been incompetent or unreliable, or competent and reliable; and provided further, that a copy of such abstract shall be filed in the papers of the cause in which it is sought to be used and notice given to the opposite party at least five days before the trial, and the same defenses may be made as if copies of the original record had been filed; provided further, that the party offering such abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books in evidence, shall himself or by his agent or attorney have made affidavit that the original instrument to which the said data or memoranda relates is not then on record, that he has made diligent search and inquiry for the same in places and from persons where and in whose possession it would most probably be found, and has been unable to find the same; that to his best knowledge and belief the same is lost or destroyed; and provided further, that the owner of said abstracts of land titles or of land title abstract books shall have filed with the county commissioners' court his application in writing (which may be granted or refused in the discretion of said court, and if refused this article shall not become of force as to said application so refused) for an order of said court admitting to record in said court the contract of the said owner in writing wherein said owner shall bind himself, his heirs and assigns as follows: That said owner, his heirs or assigns, will, whenever requested in writing, setting forth the data required by any party to any suit interested in introducing said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books, produce the same without charge on the day demanded for introducing in evidence, and upon the trial of any cause in this state; provided, that if said owner, his heirs or assigns, are required to produce said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books in courts of any other county than that to the lands of which said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books pertain, they shall be, by the party at whose instance such production is required, reasonably compensated in advance for the time and expenses of the said owner, his heirs or assigns. And the said owner in said contract shall bind himself, his heirs and assigns to answer in full damages to any party damaged by the failure or default of the said owner, his heirs or assigns without good cause, to produce said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books, data or memoranda, when demanded as herein provided. And said contract shall further stipulate that no charge shall ever be made by said owner, his heirs or assigns, in excess of one dollar for each instrument or remove in any title in the compilation of a complete abstract or title to the lands in the county to which said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books pertain, and that said owner, his heirs and assigns will upon request and payment of the fees therefor by any person, either make, compile and certify, or cause to be made, compiled or certified, within a reasonable time, a complete abstract of title to any lands to which said abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books pertain; provided, that nothing herein contained shall ever be construed to any way effect or apply to any suit or suits pending in any of the courts of this state on the twelfth day of July, 1891; provided further, that the provisions of this article shall not apply if it can be shown by competent evidence that any such deeds were improperly recorded.

Certified copy of instrument sued on is evidence, when.
Ib.
P. D. 3718.

Art. 2314. [2258] If suit be brought on any instrument or note in writing filed in any suit brought thereupon in any other court of this state, a certified copy of such instrument or note in writing, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court in which the original may be filed, shall be admitted as evidence in like manner as such original might be; but if the defendant shall plead and file an affidavit under oath that such original instrument or note in writing has not been executed by him, or by his authority, the clerk of the court having the custody of such original shall, on being subpoenaed as a witness, attend with the same on trial of the cause.

Certified copies from heads of departments evidence.
(Act Aug. 11, 1870, p. 62.)
P. D. 6825.

Art. 2315. [2259] Certified copies, under the hands and official seals of the heads of departments, of all notes, bonds, mortgages, bills, accounts, or other documents, properly on file in any of the departments of this state, shall be received in evidence on an equal footing with the originals, in all suits now pending or which may be hereafter instituted in this state, where the originals of such notes, bonds, mortgages, bills, accounts or other documents would be evidence.

Assessment or payment of taxes may be proven, how.
(Act Feb. 15, 1858.)
P. D. 3708.

Art. 2316. [2260] Whenever in any cause it may be material to prove the assessment of any property for taxes, or the payment of any taxes, the certificate of the comptroller of such assessment from the rolls deposited in his office, or that the payment of such taxes is shown by the records of his office, shall be admissible in evidence to prove the same.

Rate of interest in this state presumed, unless, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2317. [2261] The rate of interest in any other state, territory or country is presumed to be the same as that established by law in this state, and may be recovered accordingly without allegation or proof of the rate of interest in such other state, territory or country, unless the rate of interest in such other country be alleged and proved.

Art. 2318. [2262] When any petition, answer, or other pleading shall be founded, in whole or in part, on any instrument or note in writing, charged to have been executed by the other party or by his authority, and not alleged therein to be lost or destroyed, such instrument or note in writing shall be received as evidence without the necessity of proving its execution, unless the party by whom or by whose authority such instrument or note in writing is charged to have been executed, shall file his affidavit in writing denying the execution thereof; and the like rule shall prevail in all suits against indorsers and sureties upon any note or instrument in writing. When any such instrument or note in writing is charged to have been executed by any testator or intestate, it shall be received in evidence in like manner, unless some suspicion is cast upon it by the affidavit of the executor or administrator of such testator or intestate.

Execution of notes and other instruments presumed, unless, etc. (Act May 13, 1846.) P. D. 1443.

Art. 2319. [2263] Where a county has been heretofore, or may hereafter be created out of the territory of any organized county, and the records of deeds and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded, relating to lands or other property in such new county have been transcribed and placed on record in such new county, in accordance with law, certified copies of such transcribed records in the new county may be admitted in evidence with like effect as certified copies of the original records.

Copies of certain transcribed records made evidence.

Art. 2320. Transcribed records for new counties or for newly attached territory, as provided for by law, when properly verified and certified shall have all the force and effect in judicial proceedings in courts of this state as the original records.

Effect of transcribed records of new counties, etc. (Acts of 1879, p. 105.)

Art. 2321. [2264] Whenever it may be necessary to make proof of the appointment and qualification of an executor, administrator or guardian, the letters issued to them in the manner provided by law, or a certificate of the proper clerk under his official seal that such letters have been issued, shall be sufficient evidence of the appointment and qualification of such executor, administrator or guardian.

Evidence of appointment and qualification of executor, etc. (Act Feb. 25, 1863, p. 5.) P. D. 1286.

Art. 2322. [2265] Titles to land which may have been deposited in the general land office subsequently to the time when the land embraced by such titles had been located or surveyed, by virtue of valid land warrants or certificates, shall not be received as evidence of superior title to the land, against any such location or survey, unless such elder title had been duly recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the land may have been situated prior to the location and survey, or unless the party having such location or survey made had actual notice of the existence of such elder title before he made such location or survey.

Certain titles not evidence, unless, etc. (Act Oct. 20, 1866, p. 32.) P. D. 5825.

Art. 2323. [2266] When any action or defense is founded upon an open account, supported by the affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney, taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to the effect that such account is, within the knowledge of affiant, just and true; that it is due, and that all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits have been allowed, the same shall be taken as prima facie evidence thereof, unless the party resisting such claim shall, before an announcement of ready for trial in said cause, file a written denial, under oath, stating that such account is not just

Article 2324. [2267] From and after the adjournment of every district or county court it shall be the duty of the clerk thereof to tax the costs in every case in which a final judgment has been rendered against the party liable therefor under such judgment, and which have not been paid by him, and to issue execution for the enforcement of such judgment and the collection of such costs.

Execution on judgment of district and county court, issued when. (Act June 4, 1873, p. 209, §1.)
P. D. 377c.

Art. 2325. [2268] After the expiration of twenty days from and after the rendition of a final judgment in the district or county court, and after the overruling of any motion therein for a new trial or in arrest of judgment, if no supersedeas bond on appeal or writ of error has been filed and approved, the clerk shall issue execution upon such judgment upon the application of the successful party.

Execution before adjournment when.
Id.

Art. 2326. [2269] When an execution has been issued under the preceding article, and a supersedeas bond is afterward filed and approved within the time prescribed by law, the clerk shall immediately issue a writ of supersedeas suspending all further proceedings under such execution.

Execution issued before adjournment, superseded, when.

When judgment shall become dormant. (Acts 1895, p. 2.)

Art. 2326a. If no execution is issued within twelve months after the rendition of a judgment in any court of record, the judgment shall become dormant and no execution shall issue thereon unless such judgment be revived; but where the first execution has issued within the twelve months the judgment shall not become dormant unless ten years shall have elapsed between the issuance of executions thereon, and execution may issue at any time within ten years after the issuance of the preceding execution.

Execution from justice's court.

Art. 2327. [2270] Executions from the justices' courts shall issue as provided in the title relating to said courts.

Execution issued on removal of property, etc. (Act Jan. 27, 1842, p. 66, §3.) P. D. 3774.

Art. 2328. [2271.] Upon the filing of an affidavit that the party against whom a judgment for money, other than a judgment for costs only has been rendered, is about to remove his property out of the county, or is about to transfer or secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, the clerk may issue execution immediately.

On death of plaintiff execution issued, how. (Act Feb. 5, 1853.) P. D. 13.

Art. 2329. [2272] Where a sole plaintiff, or one of the several plaintiffs, shall die after judgment, execution shall issue on such judgment in the name of the legal representative of such deceased sole plaintiff, or in the name of the surviving plaintiffs, and the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff, as the case may require, upon an affidavit of such death being filed with the clerk, together with a certificate of the appointment of such representative, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court wherein such appointment was made.

On death of executor, etc. Ib.

Art. 2330. [2273] When an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee of an express trust dies or ceases to be such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee after judgment, execution shall issue on such judgment in the name of his successor, upon an affidavit of such death being filed with the clerk, together with the certificate of the appointment of such successor, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court wherein such appointment was made.

On death of nominal plaintiff.

Art. 2331. [2274] When a person in whose favor a judgment is rendered for the use of another dies after judgment, execution shall issue in the name of the party for whose use the suit was brought upon an affidavit of such death being filed with the clerk.

On death of defendant, no execution for money. (Act Feb. 5, 1853.) P. D. 14.

Art. 2332. [2275] Where a sole defendant dies after judgment for money against him, execution shall not issue thereon, but the judgment may be proved up and paid in due course of administration.

On death of defendant, execution for property. Ib.

Art. 2333. [2276] In all cases of judgments other than money judgments, where the sole defendant or one or more of several joint defendants shall die after judgment, upon an affidavit of such death being filed with the clerk, together with the certificate of the appointment of a representative of such decedent, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court wherein such appointment was made, the proper process on such judgment shall issue against such representative.

Terms "plaintiff" and "defendant" defined.

Art. 2334. [2277] By the term "plaintiff," as used in this title, is meant the party in whose favor judgment is rendered, and by the term "defendant" is meant the party against whom judgment was rendered.

County to which execution for money shall issue. (Act Jan. 27, 1842.) P. D. 3784.

Art. 2335. [2278] Where the execution requires that the judgment shall be made out of the property of the debtor, it shall be issued in the first instance to the county in which the judgment is rendered, and upon the return thereof that no property can be found, or not sufficient to satisfy the same, execution may be issued to any other county in the state.

Art. 2336. [2279] Where the execution or any writ in the nature thereof requires the sale or delivery of specific real or personal property, it may be issued to the county where the property or some part thereof is situated. Execution for property shall issue.

Art. 2337. [2280] Process in the nature of an execution which requires only the delivery of real or personal property, may be issued at the same time to different counties. To different counties.

Art. 2338. [2281] The style of the execution shall be "The State of Texas." It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and shall be signed by the clerk or justice officially, and sealed with the seal of the court, if issued out of the district or county court. It shall correctly describe the judgment, stating the court wherein and the time when rendered, the names of the parties, the amount, if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon, if less than the original amount, the rate of interest, if other than six per cent, and shall have the following requisites: Requisites of an execution. (Const., art. 5, §12.) (Act June 4, 1873, p. 209, §§1, 2.) P. D. 3772.

1. The several items of the bill of costs to be collected under the execution shall be indorsed thereon in intelligible words and figures.

2. If the judgment be for money simply, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of the property of the debtor, subject to execution.

3. If the judgment commands the sale of particular property for the satisfaction thereof, the writ shall be framed accordingly.

4. If the judgment be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, the writ shall require the officer to deliver the possession of the same, particularly describing it to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the officer to satisfy any costs, damages or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of any property subject to execution of the party against whom it is rendered.

5. If the judgment be for the recovery of personal property or its value, the writ shall command the officer, in case a delivery thereof can not be had, to levy and collect the value thereof for which the judgment was recovered, to be specified therein out of any property of the party against whom the judgment was rendered, liable to the execution.

6. It shall require the officer to satisfy the costs adjudged against the party, and the further costs of executing the writ, out of any property liable to execution of the party against whom the judgment was rendered.

7. When an alias or pluries execution is issued, it shall show upon its face the number of previous executions which have been issued on the judgment.

Art. 2339. [2282] The execution shall be returnable to the first day of the next term of the court, or in thirty, sixty or ninety days, if so directed by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney. Returnable when. (Act June 4, 1873.) P. D. 3775.

Art. 2340. [2283] The officer receiving an execution shall indorse thereon the exact hour and day when he received it, and if he receives more than one on the same day against the same person, he shall number them as received; and on failure to do, or in case of false indorsement, he and his sureties shall be liable, on motion in the court from whence the execution is issued, three days' notice Indorsements by officer. (Act Jan. 27, 1842.) P. D. 3780.

being given, to a judgment in favor of the plaintiff in execution for twenty per cent on the amount of the execution, together with such damages as the plaintiff in execution may have sustained by such failure or such false indorsement.

Execution levied on property of surety, when. (Act Feb. 5, 1858.)
P. D. 4786.

Art. 2341. [2284] If it appear upon the face of an execution, or by the indorsement of the clerk, that of those against whom it is issued any one is surety for another, the levy of the execution shall first be made upon the property of the principal subject to execution and situate in the county in which the judgment is rendered. But if property of the principal can not be found which will in the opinion of the officer be sufficient to make the amount of the execution, the levy shall be made on so much property of the principal as may be found, if any, and upon so much of the property of the surety as may be necessary to make the amount of the execution.

On death, etc., of officers, enforced by successor.

Art. 2342. [2285] If the officer receiving an execution die or go out of office before the return of any execution, his successor or other officer authorized to discharge the duties of the office in such case shall proceed therein in the same manner that such officer should have done.

Enforced without delay.

Art. 2343. [2286] When an execution against the property of any person is issued to an officer, he shall proceed without delay to levy the same upon the property of the defendant not exempt from execution, unless otherwise directed by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney.

Levy of execution. (Act June 4, 1873, p. 209, §2.)
P. D. 3775.

Art. 2344. [2287] The officer shall first call upon the defendant, if he can be found, or if absent, upon his agent within the county, if known, to point out property to be levied upon; and a levy shall first be made upon the property designated by the defendant or his agent; provided, that if it be personal property the defendant or his agent deliver the same into the officer's possession; or, if it be real estate that he deliver to the officer, a description thereof by metes and bounds, and that it be situated in whole or in part within the county. If, in the opinion of the officer, the property so designated will not sell for enough to satisfy the execution and costs of sale, he shall notify the defendant or his agent thereof; whereupon the latter may make an additional designation.

Failure of defendant to designate property.
Ib. §3.

Art. 2345. [2288] If no property be thus designated, or if an insufficient amount of property be designated, it shall be the duty of the officer to levy the execution upon the property of the debtor, subject to execution in the following order:

1. On personal or movable property.
2. On uncultivated lands; and,
3. Upon cultivated lands.

Property not to be designated.

Art. 2346. [2289] A defendant in execution can not point out property which he has sold, mortgaged or conveyed in trust, or property exempt from forced sale.

Property sold, etc., cannot be levied on, when.

Art. 2347. [2290] Property which the judgment debtor has sold, mortgaged or conveyed in trust shall not be seized in execution, if the purchaser, mortgagee or trustee shall point out other property of the debtor in the county sufficient to satisfy the execution.

Levy on real estate.

Art. 2348. [2291] In order to make a levy on real estate it shall not be necessary for the officer to go upon the ground, but it shall be sufficient for him to indorse such levy on the writ.

On personal property.

Art. 2349. [2292] A levy upon personal property is made by taking possession thereof, when the defendant in execution is entitled to the possession; where the defendant in execution has an interest in personal property, but is not entitled to the possession thereof, a levy is made thereon by giving notice thereof to the person who is entitled to the possession, or one of them when there are several.

Art. 2350. [2293] A levy upon horses, mules, jacks, jennets, horned cattle or hogs running at large in a range, and which can not be herded and penned without great inconvenience and expense, may be made by designating by reasonable estimate the number of animals and describing them by their marks and brands, or either; such levy shall be made in the presence of two or more credible persons, and notice thereof shall be given in writing to the owner, or his herder or agent, if residing within the county and known to the officer.

On stock running at large.

Art. 2351. [2294] A levy on the stock of any corporation or joint stock company is made by leaving a notice thereof with any officer of such company.

Levy on shares of stock, etc. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 102.)

Art. 2352. [2295] A levy upon the interest of a partner in partnership property is made by leaving a notice with one or more of the partners, or with a clerk of the partnership.

Interest of partner.

Art. 2353. [2296] Goods and chattels pledged, assigned or mortgaged as security for any debt or contract, may be levied upon and sold on execution against the person making the pledge, assignment or mortgage subject thereto; and the purchaser shall be entitled to the possession when it is held by the pledgee, assignee or mortgagee, on complying with the conditions of the pledge, assignment or mortgage.

Goods pledged or mortgaged.

Art. 2354. [2297] Shares of stock in any joint stock or incorporated company may be sold on execution against the person owning such stock.

Shares of stock may be sold. (Act March 13, 1875, p. 102.)

Art. 2355. [2298] The officer shall keep securely all personal property levied on by him for which no delivery bond has been given; and if any injury or loss should result to any party interested by his negligence, he and his sureties shall be liable to pay the value of the property so lost or the amount of injury sustained, and ten per cent thereon, to be recovered by the party injured on motion—three days' notice being given—in the court from which the execution issued.

Duty of officer as to property in his hands. (Act Jan. 27, 1842.) P. D. 3782.

Art. 2356. [2299] The officer shall be authorized to retain out of the proceeds of personal property sold upon execution all reasonable expenses incurred by him in making the levy and keeping the property.

Expenses for keeping property. lb.

Art. 2357. [2300] Any personal property taken in execution may be returned to the defendant by the officer upon the delivery by the defendant to him of a bond, payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer, to the effect that the property shall be delivered to the officer at the time and place named in the bond, to be sold according to law, or for the payment to the officer of the fair value thereof, which shall be stated in the bond.

Defendant may give delivery bond and keep property. (Act Jan. 27, 1842.) P. D. 3778.

Art. 2358. [2301] Where property has been replevied, as provided in the preceding article, the defendant may sell or dispose of the same, paying the officer the stipulated value thereof.

Property may be sold by defendant.

Art. 2359. [2302] In case of the non-delivery of the property according to the terms of the bond, and non-payment of the value thereof, the officer shall forthwith return the bond, indorsed "forfeited," to the clerk of the court from which execution issued; whereupon, if the judgment remain unsatisfied in whole or in part, the clerk shall issue execution against the principal debtor and the sureties on the bond for the amount due, not exceeding the stipulated value of the property, upon which execution no delivery bond shall be taken, which fact shall be indorsed by the clerk on the execution.

Real property sold, how.

Ib.

P. D. 3776.

Art. 2360. [2303] Real property taken by virtue of any execution shall be sold at public auction, at the court house door of the county, on the first Tuesday of the month, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m.

Sale of lands, etc., elsewhere than at court house door.

Art. 2361. [2304] Where by law the public sales of lands in any county are directed to be made at any other place than the court house door, the sales herein provided to be made at the court house door shall be made at the place designated by such law.

Lots in a city or town, how sold.

Art. 2362. [2305] If real property situated in any town or city, taken in execution, consist of several lots, tracts or parcels, each shall be offered separately, unless the same be not susceptible of a separate sale by reason of the character of the improvements thereon.

Lands not in a city, etc., sold in lots, when. (Act Feb. 22, 1875, p. 50.)

Art. 2363. [2306] When lands not situated in any town or city are taken in execution, the defendant in such writ in whom the legal or equitable title to such land may be vested, shall have the right to present to the officer holding such execution, at any time before the sale so as not to delay the same being made as advertised, a plat of said land as actually surveyed, in lots of not less than fifty acres, by the county surveyor of the county wherein said premises are situated. The plat shall be accompanied by the field notes of each lot as numbered, with the certificate of the county surveyor that the same are correct, and the defendant shall have the right to designate the order in which the lots shall be sold.

Sale of lots shall cease, when.

Ib.

Art. 2364. [2307] When a sufficient number of such lots are sold to satisfy the amount due on the execution, the sale shall cease at the request of the defendant.

Expenses of selling lots, how paid. Ib.

Art. 2365. [2308] The expenses of the survey and all other expenses attending the sale of said land in lots, as hereinbefore provided, shall be paid by the defendant, and shall in no case constitute any additional cost in said case.

Notice of sale of real estate. (Act Jan. 27, 1842; amend. 1895, p. 168.)

Art. 2366. [2309] The time and place of making sale of real estate in execution shall be publicly advertised by the officer for at least twenty days successively next before the day of sale, by posting up written or printed notices thereof at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the door of the court house of the county, and by delivering to the defendant in execution one copy of said notice of sale, whenever he resides in the county where the land is situated, and shall mail a similar notice to the attorney of record, if any, for such defendant in every case; and if such defendant resides out of the county where the land is situated, the officer shall mail to him a similar notice, directed to him at his postoffice, if known to such officer, and if his residence is not known and he has no attorney of record, the posting of the first three notices shall be sufficient; provided, that whenever real property shall be levied on by virtue of an execution, or shall be the subject of any order of sale or venditioni exponas, if the defendant shall at any time prior to and not later than five days after receiving notice of the levy of any execution or issuance of order of sale or venditioni exponas, request the clerk or justice of the peace issuing such execution, order of sale or venditioni exponas, or the officer making the levy or holding the process, that notice of the sale be published in a newspaper, the same shall be so published, if there be a newspaper published in the county that will publish the same for the compensation allowed herein; when said request is filed the officer shall, under the provisions of this article, publish notice of the sale in a newspaper published in the county for three consecutive weeks. Said notice shall contain a statement of the authority by virtue of which the sale is to be made, the time of levy, and the time and place of sale; it shall also contain a brief description of the property to be sold, and shall give the number of acres, original survey, locality in the county, and the name by which the land is most generally known, but it shall not be necessary for it to contain field notes. Publishers of newspapers shall receive for publishing said sales fifty cents per square for the first insertion and thirty cents per square for subsequent insertions, to be taxed and paid as other costs; in such publications ten lines shall constitute a square, and the body of no such advertisements shall be printed in larger type than brevier; provided, that on request of any defendant against whom judgment is rendered the clerk or justice of the peace shall note on the margin of the judgment record, "to be advertised by publication," and he shall note this fact on the execution, order of sale or venditioni exponas issued on such judgment, and notice of the sale of any real estate levied upon by virtue of such writ shall then be advertised in a newspaper as herein directed.

Art. 2367. Whenever real property shall be levied on by virtue of any execution, or shall be the subject of any order of sale or venditioni exponas, if the defendant shall, within five days after the levy of the execution, or the issuance of the order of sale or venditioni exponas, file with the officer making the levy or having the process a written request that notice of the sale be published in a newspaper, the same shall be so published, if there be a newspaper published in the county that will publish the same for the compensation allowed herein. When said request is filed the officer shall, under the provisions of this article, publish notice of the sale in a newspaper published in the county for three consecutive weeks. Said notice shall contain a statement of the authority by virtue of which the sale is to be made, the time of levy and the time and place of sale; it shall also contain a brief description of the property to be sold, and shall give the number of acres, original survey, locality in the county, and the name by which the land is most generally known, but it shall not be necessary for it to contain the field notes. Publishers of newspapers shall receive for publishing said sales seventy-five cents per square for the first insertion and fifty cents per square for subsequent insertions, to be taxed and paid as other costs; in such publications ten lines shall constitute a square, and the body of no such advertisement shall be printed in larger type than brevier.

Art. 2368. [2310] By the "court house door" of a county is meant either of the principal entrances to the house provided by the proper authority for the holding of the district court; and where, from any cause, there is no such house, the door of the house where the district court was last held in that county shall be deemed to be the court house door. Where the court house, or house used by the court, has been destroyed by fire or other cause, and another has not been designated by the proper authority, the place where such house stood shall be deemed to be the court house door.

Art. 2369. [2310a] All sales of real estate made in this state under powers conferred by any deed of trust or other contract lien shall be made in the county in which such real estate is situated.

To be published in newspaper, when. (Acts of 1879, p. 152.)

"Court house door" defined.

Real estate sales under deeds of trust, how made. (Acts of 1889, p. 143.)

Notice shall be given as now required in judicial sales, and such sales shall be made at public vendue, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of the first Tuesday in any month; provided, that when such real estate is situated in an unorganized county such sale shall be made in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and where such real estate is situated in two or more counties the sale may be made in any county where any part of the real estate is situated, after notice as required in judicial sales has been given in every county in which any part of such real estate is situated.

Sale of personal property.
(Act Jan. 27, 1842.)
P. D. 3776.

Art. 2370. [2311] Personal property taken in execution shall be sold on the premises where it is taken in execution, or at the court house door of the county, or at some other place if, owing to the nature of the property, it is more convenient to exhibit it to purchasers at such place.

Notice of sale of personal property.
Ib.

Art. 2371. [2312] Previous notice of the time and place of the sale of any personal property on execution shall be given for ten days successively, by posting up written or printed notices thereof in at least three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door of the county and one at the place where the sale is to be made.

Personal property present at sale, except.

Art. 2372. [2313] Personal property shall not be sold unless the same be present and subject to the view of those attending the sale, when it is susceptible of being thus exhibited, except shares of stock in joint stock or incorporated companies, and in cases where the defendant in execution has merely an interest without right to the exclusive possession, in which case the interest of the defendant may be sold and conveyed without the presence or delivery of the property.

Sale of stock running in range.

Art. 2373. [2314] When a levy is made upon horses, mules, jacks, jennets, horned cattle or hogs running at large in the range, under article 2350 of this title, it is not necessary that such stock or any part thereof should be present at the place of sale, and the purchaser at such sale is authorized to gather and pen such stock and select therefrom the number purchased by him.

When execution not satisfied.

Art. 2374. [2315] When the property levied on does not sell for enough to satisfy the execution, the officer shall proceed anew, as in the first instance, to make the residue.

Conveyance to purchaser.
Ib.
P. D. 3795.

Art. 2375. [2316] When a sale has been made and the terms thereof complied with, the officer shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a conveyance of all the right, title, interest and claim which the defendant in execution had in and to the property sold.

Deeds to the state in usual form.
(Acts of 1879, p. 9.)

Art. 2376. [2316a] In all cases where property is purchased by the state, under article 291 of the Revised Civil Statutes, the officer selling the same shall execute and deliver to the state a deed of conveyance to the same, such as is prescribed for individuals in similar cases.

Conveyance made after death of purchaser.

Art. 2377. [2317] In case the purchaser, having complied with the terms of the sale, shall die before a conveyance shall have been executed to him, the officer shall convey the property sold to the purchaser, nevertheless, and the conveyance shall have the same effect as if it had been executed in the lifetime of the purchaser.

Purchaser deemed innocent.

Art. 2378. [2318] A purchaser at sale under execution shall be deemed to be an innocent purchaser without notice in all cases where he would be deemed to be such had the sale been made voluntarily by the defendant in person.

Art. 2379. [2319] Any officer who shall sell any property without giving the previous notice herein directed, or who shall sell the same otherwise than in the manner herein prescribed, shall forfeit and pay to the party injured not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars in addition to such other damages as the party may have sustained, to be recovered, on motion, five days' notice thereof being given, from such officer and his sureties.

Penalty for making sale otherwise than as authorized by law.

Art. 2380. [2320] If any officer making sale of property on execution, or his deputy, shall directly or indirectly purchase the same, the sale shall be void.

Officer or deputy shall not purchase.

Art. 2381. [2321] If any person shall bid off property at any sale made by virtue of an execution, and shall fail to comply with the terms of the sale, he shall be liable to pay to the plaintiff in execution twenty per cent on the value of the property thus bid off, besides costs, to be recovered on motion, five days' previous notice of such motion being given to the defendant; and should the property on a second sale bring less than on the former, he shall be liable to pay to the defendant in execution all loss which he sustains thereby, to be recovered on motion as above provided.

Purchaser failing to comply.
Ib.
P. D. 3786.

Art. 2382. [2322] When the terms of the sale shall not be complied with by the bidder, the sheriff shall proceed to sell the property again on the same day, if there be sufficient time; but if not, he shall readvertise and sell the same as in the first instance.

Re-sale of property.
Ib.
P. D. 3787.

Art. 2383. [2323] When an execution is issued to any county other than the one in which the judgment is rendered, return may be made by mail; but money can not be thus sent except by direction of the party entitled to receive the same or his attorney of record.

Return of execution by mail.

Art. 2384. [2324] When an officer has collected money on execution he shall pay over the same to the party entitled thereto at the earliest opportunity.

Money to be paid over.

Art. 2385. [2325] Should an officer fail or refuse to pay over money collected under an execution when demanded by the person entitled to receive the same, he shall be liable to pay to such person the amount so collected, with damages at the rate of five per cent per month thereon, besides interest and costs, which may be recovered of him and his sureties by the party entitled to receive the same on motion before the court from which said execution issued, five days' previous notice thereof being given to said officer and his sureties.

Failure to pay over money.
Ib.
P. D. 3781.

Art. 2386. [2326] Should an officer fail or refuse to levy upon or sell any property justly liable to execution, when the same might have been done, he and his sureties shall be liable to the party entitled to receive the money collected on such execution for the full amount of the debt, interest and costs, to be recovered on motion before the court from which said execution issued, five days' previous notice thereof being given to said officer and his sureties.

Failure to levy or sell, penalty for.
Ib.
P. D. 3796.

Art. 2387. [2327] Should an officer neglect or refuse to return any execution as required by law, or should he make a false return thereon, he and his sureties shall be liable to the party entitled to receive the money collected on such execution for the full amount of the debt, interest and costs, to be recovered as provided in the preceding article.

Failure to return execution.
Ib.
P. D. 3796.

Art. 2388. [2328] If, on the sale of property, more money is received than is sufficient to pay the amount of the execution or executions in the hands of the officer, the surplus shall be immediately paid over to the defendant, his agent or attorney.

Surplus to be paid to defendant.
Ib.
P. D. 3777.

Return of execution.

Art. 2389. [2329] Every execution shall be returned forthwith, upon being satisfied by the collection of the money, or upon order of the plaintiff or his attorney indorsed thereon.

Death of defendant operates as supersedeas, when.

Art. 2390. [2330] The death of the defendant after the execution is issued shall operate as a supersedeas thereof; but the lien of the execution, when one has been acquired by a levy, shall be recognized and enforced by the county court in the payment of the debts of the deceased.

Death of plaintiff does not abate writ.

Art. 2391. [2331] An execution shall not be abated by the death of the plaintiff therein after the execution has been issued, but the same shall be executed and returned in the same manner as if the plaintiff was still living.

Execution docket.

ib.
P. D. 3773.
(Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.)

Art. 2392. [2332] The clerk of each of the several courts shall keep an execution docket in which he shall enter a statement of all executions as they are issued by him, specifying the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment, the amount due thereon, the rate of interest when it exceeds eight per cent, the costs, the date of issuing the execution, to whom delivered and the return of the officer thereon, with the date of such return; and such docket entries shall be taken and deemed to be a record.

Index to execution docket.

Art. 2393. [2333] The clerk shall keep an index and cross-index to the execution docket, and when execution is in favor of or against several persons it shall be indexed in the name of each person.

Penalty for failing to keep docket and index.

Art. 2394. [2334] Any clerk who shall fail to keep an execution docket and index thereto, as hereinbefore directed, or shall neglect to make the entries therein, shall, besides being punished as provided in the penal law, be liable to any person injured for the amount of damages sustained by such neglect, to be recovered in a suit against him and his sureties on his official bond.

Article 2403. [2343] When the homestead of a family, not being in a town or city, is a part of a larger tract or tracts of land than is exempt from forced sale as such homestead, it shall be lawful for the head of the family to designate and set apart the homestead, not exceeding two hundred acres, to which the family is entitled under the constitution and laws of this state.

Voluntary designation of homestead in the country. (Act May 7, 1873, p. 64. §1, et seq.) P. D. 6394a et seq.

• Art. 2404. [2344] The party desiring so to designate and set apart the homestead shall file for record with the clerk of the county court of the county in which the land or a part thereof may be, an instrument of writing containing a description by metes or bounds, or other sufficient description to identify it, of the homestead so claimed by him, stating the name of the original grantee and the number of acres, and, if more than one survey, the number of acres in each.

Mode of setting it apart.

Art. 2405. [2345] Such instrument shall be signed by the party and acknowledged or proved as other instruments for record, and shall state that the party has designated and set apart as his homestead the tract or tracts of land so claimed by him; and such instrument shall be recorded by the clerk in the record of deeds of said county.

Instrument to be recorded, etc.

Art. 2406. [2346] Where the owner of such a homestead, part of a larger tract, as is described in article 2403, has failed to designate and set apart his homestead as provided in the three preceding articles, the excess of such tract or tracts of land over and above the homestead exemption may be partitioned and separated from such homestead and subjected to levy and sale under execution, if otherwise subject, as hereinafter directed.

Excess over homestead subject to execution. Ib.

Art. 2407. [2347] The sheriff or constable holding an execution against the owner of such excess of land, over and above his exempted homestead, and not separated and partitioned therefrom, may, on his own motion, and shall, if required by the plaintiff in execution, his agent or attorney, notify the defendant in execution to designate and set apart his homestead from the remainder of the lands so owned and occupied by him, and that on his failure to do so within ten days the sheriff or constable will proceed to have such partition made as provided by law.

Owner to be notified to set apart, etc. Ib.

Art. 2408. [2348] The notice mentioned in the preceding article shall be written or printed, and shall be signed by the sheriff or constable.

Notice, what. Ib.

- Service of notice.
Ib. Art. 2409. [2349] Such notice may be served on the defendant by the sheriff or constable by reading the same to him, or by leaving a copy of the same at his place of residence, with some person over fourteen years of age.
- Return of service.
Ib. Art. 2410. [2350] The sheriff or constable shall return said notice to the court from which the execution issued, with his return indorsed thereon, showing how he executed the same.
- Return prima facie evidence.
Ib. Art. 2411. [2351] The notice and return indorsed thereon shall be filed by the proper officer of the court, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated.
- Defendant may designate his homestead.
Ib. Art. 2412. [2352] On the service of such notice the defendant in execution shall have the right, within ten days thereafter, to designate and set apart his homestead from any excess of land owned by him, and deliver the same to the sheriff or constable.
- Mode of making designation by defendant.
Ib. Art. 2413. [2353] The designation and setting apart so made by the defendant shall be such as is required by articles 2404 and 2405.
- Designation to be recorded.
Ib. Art. 2414. [2354] The sheriff or constable shall deliver the designation or setting apart of the homestead so made to the clerk of the county court of the county in which such homestead, or a part thereof, is, and such clerk shall forthwith record the same in the record of deeds of his said county.
- Effect of, when made by defendant.
Ib. Art. 2415. [2355] Such designation and setting apart of the homestead made by the defendant under any of the preceding articles shall operate as a relinquishment of all right of homestead in the excess of land so partitioned from the homestead, and shall be binding on the defendant, and all others in privity with him, and the same or a certified copy of the record thereof shall be admitted in evidence of the facts stated therein.
- Defendant failing, officer to appoint commissioners
Ib. Art. 2416. [2356] If the defendant in execution shall fail or refuse, within ten days after such notice, to so designate and set apart his homestead, the sheriff or constable holding such execution shall, at the earliest practicable time, summon either verbally or in writing, three disinterested freeholders of the county, neighbors of the defendant in execution, as commissioners to designate for the defendant his homestead.
- Commissioners to designate homestead.
Ib. Art. 2417. [2357] The commissioners shall, as soon as practicable, proceed to partition the homestead of the defendant from the remainder of the tract or tracts, and may, if they deem it necessary, call in a surveyor to assist them. The action of such commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by them, or a majority of them, and shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, which shall be sufficient to admit the same to record.
- Requisites of designation by commissioners.
Ib. Art. 2418. [2358] The designation of the homestead by such commissioners shall contain all the requisites prescribed for a designation and setting apart by the defendant, and in addition thereto shall state that the commissioners making the same were summoned by the sheriff or constable holding said execution to perform such duty, and that the designation of the homestead made by them is fair and just to the best of their judgment and belief.
- To be returned and recorded.
Ib. Art. 2419. [2359] The commissioners shall return their said designation to the sheriff or constable, who shall deliver the same to the clerk of the county court to be recorded; and such designation, or a certified copy thereof, shall have the same effect as if the defendant had made the same under the provisions of this chapter.
- Effect of.
Ib.

Art. 2420. [2360] Whenever a homestead is designated under the provisions of this chapter, the sheriff or constable holding said execution shall make due return thereon, showing—

Sheriff's return.
Ib.

1. That notice to designate his homestead was given to the defendant in execution, referring to said notice and return thereon, which shall be returned with said execution.

2. That the designation of his homestead was delivered to him by the defendant, and has been filed by him with the county clerk, stating the dates of such delivery and filing.

3. If the defendant has failed or refused to deliver to him the designation of his homestead within the time prescribed by law, the return shall show that fact, and also that commissioners were duly appointed by him, and that the designation made by such commissioners was filed by him with the clerk of the county court, stating the times when said acts were done, and such return shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

Art. 2421. [2361] The commissioners shall be entitled to receive for their services the sum of two dollars per day, and the surveyor the sum of five dollars per day, to include pay for chain carriers.

Compensation of commissioners and surveyor.
Ib.

Art. 2422. [2362] The sheriff or constable and clerk shall, for their services, be entitled to such fees as are or may be allowed by law.

Fees of clerk,
etc.
Ib.

Art. 2423. [2363] Such fees and expenses shall be taxed as part of the costs of the execution against the defendant and collected as other costs.

Fees, etc.,
taxed as costs.
Ib.

Art. 2424. [2364] Whenever the homestead of the defendant in execution has been designated in either of the modes prescribed in this chapter, the officer holding said execution may proceed to sell the excess over and above the homestead, in accordance with the law governing sales under execution.

Excess to be sold.
Ib.

Art. 2425. [2365] The defendant may at any time after his homestead has been designated and set apart in either of the modes pointed out in this chapter, change the boundaries of his said homestead by an instrument executed and recorded in the manner provided for in articles 2404 and 2405, but such change shall not impair the rights of parties acquired prior to such change.

Defendant
may change,
etc., but, etc.

Art. 2426. [2366] The provisions of this chapter in regard to the designation of the homestead are cumulative, and shall not be construed so as to interfere with or abrogate any other mode or remedy now known to the law for subjecting the excess of the homestead tract of land over and above the exemption to forced sale, or any mode known to the law for procuring partition by the purchaser at such execution sale, between himself and the owner of the homestead.

Provisions of this chapter cumulative.
Ib.

Art. 2427. [2367] Where there is more personal property of the same kind than is exempt from execution, the head of the family or other person entitled to such exemption may point out the portions to be levied on; but if he fails to do so within a reasonable time after being requested by the officer holding the execution, such officer may make the selection for himself; but such notice shall only be necessary when the defendant is at the time to be found within the county.

Personal property may be designated,
etc.

Express companies declared common carriers, and duties defined.
(Acts of 1891, p. 48.)

Article 2428. Every person, firm or corporation which shall do the business of an express company, upon railroads or otherwise, in this state, by the carrying of any kind of property, money, papers, packages or other things, are hereby declared to be common carriers, and shall receive, safely carry and promptly deliver at the express office nearest destination every such article as may be tendered to them, and in the carriage of which they are engaged; provided, that no such company shall be compelled to carry any gunpowder, dynamite, kerosene, naphtha, gasoline, matches or other dangerous or inflammable oils, acids or materials, except under such regulations as may be prescribed by the railroad commission. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation so engaged to demand or receive for such services other than reasonable compensation.

Railroad commission to regulate rates, etc.

Art. 2429. The railroad commission of the state of Texas shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix and establish reasonable and just rates of charges for each class or kind of property, money, papers, packages and other things to be charged for and received by each express company on all such property, money, papers, packages and things which by the contract of carriage are to be transported by such express company between points wholly within this state, which rates or charges may be made to apply to all such companies, and may be changed or modified by said commission from time to time in such manner as may become necessary. Said commission shall have the same power to make and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government and control of such express companies as is or may be conferred upon said commission for the regulation of railroads.

Penalties against, and railroad commission to enforce.

Art. 2430. Every express company doing business in this state which shall demand or receive a greater compensation than that which may be prescribed and fixed by the said railroad commission for the transportation of any class or kind of property, money, papers, packages or things, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for each offense; provided, that if it shall appear that such violation was not willful, said company shall have ten days to refund such overcharges or damages, in which case the penalty shall not be incurred. And the said commission shall have authority and it shall be its duty to sue for and recover the same in the same manner as may be prescribed by law for like suits against railroad companies.

Art. 2431. The said commission shall have authority, and it shall be its duty to call upon such express companies for reports, and investigate their books in the same manner as may be prescribed by law for the regulation of railroad companies, and the said commission shall have power and authority to institute suits, sue out such writs and process as may be applicable and authorized for the regulation of railroad companies. All laws, rules and regulations made and prescribed for the government and control of railroads, in so far as they are applicable, shall be of equal force and effect against all express companies.

Powers of [2415] All clerks and their deputies are prohibited from charging any fees or commissions for writing deeds, mortgages, bills of sale, or any other conveyance for any person, unless they pay the same tax, if any, which may be required by law to be paid by conveyancers or attorneys at law.

Clerks are prohibited from acting as conveyancers, etc.
Ib. §9.

Art. 2480. [2416] The fees allowed in this title pertaining to suits or actions in courts shall be allowed and taxed in the bill of costs against the party cast in the suit or action wherein any such service shall be rendered, except where it is otherwise provided by law or adjudged by the court.

Fees in suits to be taxed against party cast, etc.
Ib. §20.

Art. 2481. [2417] No copy of a paper not required by law to be copied shall be allowed and taxed in the bill of costs, and if any party or attorney shall take out copies of his own pleadings, or of papers filed by him in any cause, it shall be at his own expense, and no charge for such copies shall be allowed in the bill of costs.

No charge for copies of papers, when.
Ib.

Art. 2482. [2418] No clerk of a court, justice of the peace or other officer shall be allowed to charge any fee for the examination of any paper or record in his office.

No fee for examinations.
Ib. §21.

Art. 2483. [2419] Every officer entitled by law to charge fees for services shall keep a fee book, and shall enter therein all fees charged for services rendered, which fee book shall at all times be subject to the inspection of any person wishing to see the amount of fees therein charged.

Officers shall keep fee books.
Ib. §22.

Art. 2484. [2420] None of the fees mentioned in this title shall be payable by any person whomsoever until there be produced, or ready to be produced, unto the person owing or chargeable with the same, a bill or account in writing containing the particulars of such fees, signed by the clerk or officer to whom such fees are due, or by whom the same are charged, or by the successor in office, or legal representative of such clerk or officer.

Fee bill shall be produced, etc., before fees are collectible.
Ib. §23.

Art. 2485. [2421] If any of the officers named in this title shall demand and receive any higher fees than are prescribed to them in this title, or any fees that are not allowed by this title, such officer shall be liable to the party aggrieved for fourfold the fees so unlawfully demanded and received by him, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, and may also be punished criminally for extortion, as prescribed in the Penal Code.

Penalty for demanding, etc. fees unlawfully.
Ib. §24.
(See acts 1879, ch. 108, §9.—L.)

Art. 2486. [2422] It shall be the duty of county judges, clerks of the district and county courts, sheriffs, justices of the peace, constables and notaries public of the several counties, to keep posted up at all times in a conspicuous place in their respective offices a complete list of the fees allowed by law to be charged by them respectively.

Certain officers shall keep list of fees posted, etc.
Ib. §25.

Art. 2487. [2423] Officers receiving any process to be executed shall not be entitled in any case to demand their fees for executing the same in advance of such execution, but their fees shall be taxed and collected as other costs in the case.

Fees shall not be demanded in advance, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2488. [2424] It shall be lawful for any clerk of a court or justice of the peace, when any suit is determined in their respective courts and the costs are not paid by the party against whom the same have been adjudged, to issue execution therefor against such party, under the same rules governing executions in other cases, to be levied and collected as in other cases.

Execution for costs.
Ib. §26.

Bill of costs shall accompany execution.
Ib.

Art. 2489. [2425] A bill of costs, showing each item thereof, for which the party against whom the execution issues is liable, shall accompany each execution or order of sale.

Execution shall issue on demand of person entitled to costs.

Art. 2490. [2426] Any person to whom any costs are due in a suit or action which has been determined, may demand that execution issue therefor, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the clerk or justice of the peace to issue execution for all costs due by such party at once.

Each party liable for costs incurred by him.

Art. 2491. [2427] Each party to a suit shall be liable for all costs incurred by him, and in case the costs can not be collected of the party against whom the same have been adjudged, execution may issue against any party in such suit, for the amount of costs incurred by such party, but no more.

Preceding articles, etc., do not apply to executors, etc.
Ib. §26.
(Acts of 1879, ch. 81, p. 33.)

Art. 2492. [2428] The preceding articles in relation to executions and payment of costs, do not apply to executors, administrators or guardians, but in cases where costs are adjudged against an estate of a deceased person, or of a ward, the same shall be collected as provided in the titles "Estates of Decedents" and "Guardian and Ward."

Execution for costs shall not issue, until, etc.

Art. 2493. [2429] No execution for costs shall issue in any case until after judgment rendered therefor by the court.

No fee allowed for filing certain papers.

Art. 2494. [2430] No clerk or justice of the peace shall be entitled to any fee for filing any process or paper issued by him and returned into his court.

Any other fees of office.

Art. 2495. Any other fees of office not embraced within this title, but otherwise provided for, shall not be affected by the provisions hereof.

State's attorney fees in school land litigation.
(Act 1893, p. 29.)

Art. 2495a. District and county attorneys who have represented or may hereafter represent the state in suits for the recovery of interest and purchase money due the state on account of sales of school lands, made under the laws of 1879 and 1881, or for the forfeiture of said lands on account of non-payment of said interest and purchase money, shall be allowed a fee of ten dollars for each of such cases in which the state recovers judgment; said fees to be approved by the judge who tried the case or his successor in office, and certified by the clerk of the trial court, and when so approved and certified shall be paid out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated; provided, that in cases where suits are filed by one district or county attorney and judgment obtained by his successor in office, the fee shall be equally divided between them.

Defense attorney fees in such cases.
Ib.

Art. 2495b. A fee of five dollars for every suit heretofore or hereafter brought be allowed attorneys appointed by the court to represent the defendant in all cases where the state recovered judgment and where the costs can not be made out of the defendant; said fee to be paid by the state upon the presentation of an account allowed by the district court trying said case, stating the number and style of the suit and that the state recovered therein, that the attorney was appointed and represented the defendant therein, and that the costs can not be recovered out of said defendant.

to issue of.
Ib.

Art. 2518k. Any person wishing to engage in the business of fishing or catching green turtle or terrapin must make application in writing to the fish and oyster commissioner or his deputy for a license, stating under oath that he is a citizen of the United States and a resident and taxpayer of the state of Texas, and stating also the name and class of his boat, the number and length and class of nets to be used, and he shall receive a license authorizing such person to engage in such business. Such license must be signed by the fish and oyster commissioner or his deputy, and must be stamped with the seal of his office, and it shall state:

1. The name of applicant, and his place of residence.
2. The name, class and place of registry of his boat.
3. The number, length and class of nets to be used.
4. The date of issuance of such license.

Such license shall be good for all the purposes of this article for six months from the day of issuance of same, and for such license the applicant shall pay to the fish and oyster commissioner or his deputy the sum of five cents per fathom for every fathom of drag seine, and two and one-half cents per fathom for every fathom of set nets, and the float line shall be deemed the length of such drag seine or set net; and it shall be the duty of the fish and oyster commissioner or his deputy to measure such seine or nets, and attach securely to each one a metal tag with the letters "F. & O. C." stamped thereon.

[Note.—For breeding grounds for fish, green turtle, terrapin, etc., see Penal Code.]

Art. 2518l. Oyster beds shall be private and public. All those not designated as private shall be public. All natural oyster beds and oyster reefs in the navigable waters of the state shall be deemed public.

Private and public oyster beds defined.
Ib.

Art. 2518m. Any person who is a bona fide citizen of the United States and a resident and tax payer of the state of Texas, shall have the right of obtaining a location for planting oysters and making private oyster beds within the navigable waters of the state other than those mentioned in article 2518o, by making written application to the fish and oyster commissioner or his deputy, describing the location desired. A fee of ten dollars in cash must accompany such application. It shall then be the duty of the fish and oyster commissioner, or his deputy, to, as soon as practicable, thoroughly examine the location described with tongs, dredge, or in other efficient manner, and if the same be not a natural oyster bed or reef, and not exempted from location by any article of this chapter, he shall mark off a space not exceeding fifty acres in area by planting four buoys, one at each of the four corners, which buoys must not be less than twelve inches in diameter, and for which buoys and the labor of placing the same the locator must pay; and the locator must fasten securely to one or more of the buoys a notice of his location; and the fish and oyster commissioner, or his deputy, shall give to the locator a certificate signed by such commissioner, or his deputy, stamped with the seal of his office; such certificate shall show the date of application, date of survey, manner of marking, and a description by metes and bounds, with a reference to the points of the compass and natural or artificial objects by which the said location can be found and verified. At any time not exceeding sixty days after the date of such certificate of location, the locator must file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the location is situated, who shall record the same in a well-bound book kept for the purpose, and the original, with a certificate of registration, shall be returned to the owner or locator. The clerk shall receive for the recording of such certificate the same fees as for recording deeds. The original or certified copies of such certificate shall be admissible in evidence under the same rules governing the admission of deeds or certified copies thereof. Any person so locating, shall be protected in his possession thereof against trespass thereon, in like manner as freeholders are protected in their rights, so long as he complies with article 2518n.

Location of oyster beds regulated; notice to be recorded, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2518n. Any person who secures a location for a private oyster bed shall keep the corners marked by securely anchored buoys of not less than twelve inches in diameter; and he shall further pay to the state a tax of ten cents per acre for each year of the first five years he occupies such location and twenty-five cents per acre for

Owner of private location taxed, etc.
Ib.

each year after the first five years that he occupies such location; this tax shall be paid to the legal tax collector of the county in which the location is situated, and it shall be due on January first of each year, as other ad valorem taxes, and if not paid before March first of the same year the locator shall forfeit all rights to the location and the same shall revert to the state.

Riparian rights prescribed.
Ib.

Art. 2518o. When any creek, bayou, lake or cove shall be included within the metes and bounds of any original grant or location in this state, the lawful occupant of such grant or location shall have the exclusive right to use said creek, lake, bayou, or cove for gathering, planting or sowing oysters within the metes and bounds of the original grant or patent of said land. But if said creek, bayou, lake or cove is not included in the survey of said lands, then the exclusive rights of the riparian owner shall extend to the middle of said creek, bayou, lake or cove; provided, said creek, bayou, lake or cove be not more than two hundred yards in width, but if said creek, bayou, lake or cove be more than two hundred yards in width, then the riparian owner's right shall extend only one hundred yards from the shore. No person shall locate any water or ground covered with water for planting oysters along any bay shore in this state nearer than one hundred yards from the shore, which one hundred yards is declared to be the riparian right of the land owner for planting oysters. In determining such riparian right of any land owner the starting point must be at high water mark or where the land survey ceases, and measure out into the bay one hundred yards; provided, that should a natural oyster bed or reef be on this one hundred yards riparian reservation, the land owner shall have no exclusive right to the same.

Location limited and foreign corporations excluded.
Ib.

Art. 2518p. No person, firm, or corporation shall ever own, lease, or otherwise control more than six hundred and forty acres of land covered by water, the same being oyster location under this chapter, and within the navigable waters of this state, and any person, firm or corporation that now holds six hundred and forty acres of oyster location shall not be permitted hereafter to acquire, own, lease or otherwise control more; provided, that no corporation shall own or lease or control any such lands covered by water unless such corporation shall be duly incorporated under the laws of this state.

“Forcible entry” defined.

1. An entry without the consent of the person having the actual possession.
2. As to a landlord, an entry upon the possession of his tenant at will or by sufferance, whether with or without the tenant’s consent.

Art. 2521. [2442] A person shall be adjudged guilty of forcible detainer also in the following cases:

Other cases of forcible detainer.

1. Where a tenant at will or by sufferance refuses, after demand made in writing as aforesaid, to give possession to the landlord after the determination of his will.
2. Where the tenant of a person who has made a forcible entry refuses to give possession, after demand as aforesaid, to the person upon whose possession the forcible entry was made.
3. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of one who acquired it by forcible entry refuses to give possession on demand, as aforesaid, to him upon whose possession the first forcible entry was made.
4. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of a tenant for a term, refuses to deliver possession to the landlord, upon demand as aforesaid, after the term expires; and if the term expire whilst a writ of forcible entry sued out by the tenant is pending, the landlord may, at his own cost and for his own benefit, prosecute it in the name of the tenant.

It is not material whether the tenant shall have received possession from his landlord or have become his tenant after obtaining possession.

Venue.
Ib. §4.

Art. 2522. [2443] Any justice of the peace of the precinct where the property is situated shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any case arising under this title.

Citation.
Ib. §4.

Art. 2523. [2444] Whenever the party aggrieved, or his authorized agent, shall file his complaint in writing and under oath with such justice of the peace, it shall be his duty immediately to issue his citation to the sheriff or any constable of his county, commanding him to summon the person against whom complaint is made to appear before such justice, at a time and place named in such citation, such time being for not more than ten nor less than six days from date of the citation.

Requisites of the complaint.
Ib.

Art. 2524. [2445] The complaint named in the preceding article shall describe the lands, tenements or premises, the possession of which is claimed, with certainty sufficient to identify the same; and it shall also state the facts which entitle the complainant to the possession and authorize the action under the first three articles of this title.

Service and return of citation.
Ib.

Art. 2525. [2446] The sheriff or constable receiving such citation shall execute the same by reading it to the defendant, or by leaving a copy thereof with some person over the age of sixteen years, at his usual place of abode, at least five days before the return day thereof; and he shall return such citation, with his action written thereon, to the justice of the peace who issued the same, on the day assigned for trial.

Precept for a jury, and service, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2526. [2447] The justice of the peace shall also, at the time of issuing said citation, issue a precept to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon a jury of six men, qualified jurors of the county, to appear before him on the day set for trying said complaint, to serve as jurors on the trial of the case, which precept may be served by reading the same to the juror, and shall be returned, with the names of the jurors written thereon, to said justice of the peace on the day assigned for trial.

Other jurors may be summoned, when.
Ib.

Art. 2527. [2448] If any of the jurors summoned as aforesaid shall fail or refuse to attend, or shall be excused after being challenged, a jury shall be completed by causing other qualified jurors to be summoned immediately.

Shall be docketed and tried as other cases, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2528. [2449] The cause shall be docketed and tried as other cases, and the justice of the peace shall have authority to issue subpoenas for witnesses, to enforce their attendance, and to punish for contempts.

Right of possession the only issue.

Art. 2529. [2450] On the trial of any case of forcible entry, or of forcible detainer, under the provisions of this title, the only issue shall be as to the right to actual possession; and the merits of the title shall not be inquired into.

Trial may be postponed for cause.
Ib.

Art. 2530. [2451] For good cause shown, supported by affidavit by either party, the trial may be postponed for a time not exceeding six days.

Impanelling
the jury, and verdict.
Ib.

Art. 2531. [2452] On the day named in the citation for trial, or on the day to which the case may be postponed according to the provisions of the preceding article, the jury shall be impaneled and sworn as in other cases, and after hearing the evidence they shall return their verdict of guilty or not guilty of the charge as stated in the complaint.

Art. 2532. [2453] If the jury finds the defendant guilty, the said justice of the peace shall give judgment thereon for the plaintiff to have restitution of the premises and for costs, and he shall award his writ of restitution, and may also issue execution for the costs; but should the jury find the defendant not guilty, judgment shall be given in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff for all costs, and executions may issue therefor.

Judgment of the court, and writ, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2533. [2454] No writ of restitution shall issue until the expiration of two days from the rendition of the judgment.

Writ of restitution not to issue for two days.
Ib.

Art. 2534. [2455] Either party, his agent or attorney, may appeal from any final judgment rendered by the justice of the peace in such case, to the county court of the county in which the judgment is rendered, by giving notice thereof in open court and by filing with such justice of the peace, within five days after the rendition of said judgment, a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said justice of the peace, and payable to the adverse party, conditioned that he will prosecute his appeal with effect, or pay all costs and damages which may be adjudged against him; and no motion for a new trial shall be necessary to authorize such appeal.

May appeal, when and how.
Ib. p. 163, §21.

Art. 2535. [2456] The appeal bond made in the preceding article may be substantially as follows:
"The State of Texas,

Form of appeal bond.

"County of ———.

"Whereas, Upon a writ of forcible entry [or forcible detainer] in favor of A B, and against C D, tried before ———, a justice of the peace of ——— county, a judgment was rendered in favor of the said A B on the ——— day of ———, A. D.——, and against the said C D, from which the said C D has appealed to the county court; now, therefore, the said C D and ———, his sureties, covenant that he will prosecute his said appeal with effect and pay all costs and damages which may be adjudged against him.

"Given under our hands this ——— day of ———, A. D.——."

Art. 2536. [2457] Whenever such appeal bond shall be executed and filed, the justice of the peace shall stay all further proceedings on the judgment, and he shall immediately make out a transcript of all the entries made on his docket of the proceedings had in the case before him; and he shall file the same, together with all the original papers, with the clerk of the county court of the county in which the trial was had, on or before the first day of the first term of said court, or if there be insufficient time, on or before the first day of the next succeeding term thereof.

Duty of justice in case of appeal.

Art. 2537. [2458] The clerk of the county court shall docket the cause, and the same shall be tried de novo, with or without a jury, as in other cases.

Trial de novo.

Art. 2538. [2459] On the trial of said cause in the county court the appellee shall be permitted to prove the damages for withholding the possession of the premises from the appellee during the pendency of the appeal, and for the reasonable expenses of the appellee in prosecuting or defending the cause in the county court, and if the possession of the premises be not adjudged to the appellant, the said court shall render judgment also in favor of the appellee and against said appellant and the sureties on his bond for the damages proven and all costs.

Damages may be proved, when.

Judgment by default, when lb.

Art. 2539. [2460] Should the defendant, by himself or his attorney, fail to enter an appearance upon the docket of the county court on appearance day, and before the case is called regularly for trial, the facts alleged in the complaint may be taken as admitted, and judgment by default may be entered accordingly.

Judgment of county court,
final, etc., except, etc.

Art. 2540. [2461] After a trial upon the merits the proper judgment shall be rendered upon the law and the facts, or upon the verdict of the jury, as the case may be; and the judgment of the county court finally disposing of the cause shall be conclusive of the litigation, and no further appeal shall be allowed, except where the judgment shall be for damages in an amount exceeding one hundred dollars.

Writ of restitution, etc., by whom issued and served.

Art. 2541. [2462] The writ of restitution, or execution, or both, shall be issued by the clerk of the county court according to the judgment rendered, and the same shall be executed by the sheriff or constable, as in other cases; and such writ of restitution shall not be suspended or superseded in any case by any appeal taken from such final judgment in the county court.

Shall not bar action for trespass, etc.

Art. 2542. [2463] The proceedings under a forcible entry, or forcible detainer, shall not bar an action for trespass, damages, waste, rent or mesne profits.

Article 2543. [2464] No action shall be brought in any of the courts in any of the following cases, unless the promise or agreement upon which such action shall be brought, or some memorandum thereof, shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some person by him thereunto lawfully authorized:

1. To charge any executor or administrator upon any promise to answer any debt or damages due from his testator or intestate, out of his own estate; or,
2. To charge any person upon a promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another; or,
3. To charge any person upon any agreement made upon consideration of marriage; or,
4. Upon any contract for the sale of real estate or the lease thereof for a longer term than one year; or,
5. Upon any agreement which is not to be performed within the space of one year from the making thereof.

Art. 2544. [2465] Every gift, conveyance, assignment, or transfer of, or charge upon any estate, real or personal, every suit commenced, or decree, judgment, or execution suffered or obtained, and every bond or other writing given with intent to delay, hinder or defraud creditors, purchasers, or other persons of or from what they are or may be lawfully entitled to, shall, as to such creditors, purchasers or other persons, their representatives or assigns, be void. This article shall not affect the title of a purchaser, for valuable consideration, unless it appear that he had notice of the fraudulent intent of his immediate grantor, or of the fraud rendering void the title of such grantor.

Art. 2545. [2466] Every gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge made by a debtor, which is not upon consideration deemed valuable in law, shall be void as to prior creditors unless it appears that such debtor was then possessed of property within this state subject to execution sufficient to pay his existing debts; but such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge shall not on that account merely be void as to subsequent creditors, and though it be decreed to be void as to a prior creditor, because voluntary, it shall not for that cause be decreed to be void as to subsequent creditors or purchasers.

Art. 2546. [2467] No gift of any goods or chattels shall be valid unless by deed or will, duly acknowledged or proven up and recorded, or unless actual possession shall have come to and remained with the donee or some one claiming under him.

2. That the court has jurisdiction of the case.
3. That the person to be appointed guardian is not disqualified to act as such and is entitled thereto, or in case no person who is entitled thereto applies therefor, that the person appointed is a proper person to act as such guardian.

Art. 2589. [2508] Only one guardian can be appointed of the person or estate; but one person may be appointed guardian of the person and another of the estate whenever the court shall be satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the ward to do so. Nothing in this article shall be held to prohibit the joint appointment of husband and wife. Only one guardian of the person or estate shall be appointed, except, etc. (Act Aug. 15, 1870.) P. D. 6926.

Art. 2590. [2509] The order of the court appointing a guardian shall be entered upon the minutes of the court, and shall specify—

1. The name of the person appointed.
2. The name of the ward.
3. Whether the guardian is of the person, of the estate, or of both the person and estate of such ward.
4. The amount of the bond required of such guardian.
5. If it be the guardianship of the estate the order shall also appoint three or more discreet and disinterested persons to appraise such estate and return such appraisement to the court.

6. It shall direct the clerk to issue letters of guardianship to the person appointed when such person has qualified according to law.

Minor having guardian may select another,
when.

Art. 2591. [2510] A minor having a guardian of his person or estate, appointed by the court, may, upon attaining the age of fourteen years, by application in writing filed in the court in which such guardianship is pending, select another guardian of his person, or of his estate, and if the court is satisfied that the person selected is suitable and competent, the appointment of such person as guardian shall be made, and the letters of guardianship to the former guardian shall be revoked; except in the case where such former guardian has been appointed by the will or written declaration of the parent of such minor, in which case the minor shall not be permitted to select another guardian, unless such appointed guardian die, resign, or is removed from such guardianship.

Another guardian shall be appointed,
when.

Art. 2592. [2511] Whenever a person appointed guardian fails to qualify as such, according to law, or dies, resigns, or is removed, the court shall appoint another guardian in his stead.

ues in office,
until, etc.
(Act Aug. 18,
1876, p. 178,
§38.)
(Acts of 1876,
p. 175.)

Art. 2593. [2512] The guardian of a minor continues in office, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the minor arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or, being a female, marries, or until such minor shall die.

Art. 2594. The guardian of a person of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard shall continue in office, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the ward shall be restored to sound mind or to correct, sober habits, as the case may be, or shall die.

Court may appoint a receiver, when.
(Acts of 1885,
p. 81.)

Art. 2595. When from any cause the estate of a minor, person of unsound mind or of an habitual drunkard is without a guardian, and such estate is likely to injure or waste, the county judge shall upon application or without application, either in term time or in vacation, appoint some suitable person to take charge of such estate, as receiver, until a guardian can be regularly appointed, and shall make such other orders as may be necessary for the preservation of such estate. Such appointment and orders shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and shall specify the duties and powers of such receiver, and the provisions of the law governing in the case of a temporary administration upon the estate of a decedent shall govern in the case of a receiver appointed under this article, so far as the same are applicable. If during the pendency of such receivership the wants of such minor person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard should require the use of the means of such estate for their subsistence, clothing or education, the county judge is hereby authorized, and it shall be his duty, upon application or without application, either in term time or in vacation, to appropriate by an order entered upon the minutes of his court, out of the effects of such estate, an amount sufficient for such purpose, said amount to be paid by such receiver upon such claims for the subsistence, clothing or education as may have been presented to such county judge and approved, and by him ordered to be paid. If at any time the receiver shall have on hand any money belonging to such estate beyond what may be necessary for the present necessities of the beneficiary of said estate and the current expenses thereof, he may, under the direction of the county judge, loan said money for such length of time as said county judge may direct, for the highest legal rate of interest that can be obtained therefor, in the manner and upon the security and terms provided in article 2640, chapter nine, title fifty-one, of said Revised Civil Statutes.

Art. 2596. [2515] When a minor or person of unsound mind resides out of the state and owns property in this state, guardianship of the estate of such minor or person of unsound mind may be granted when it is made to appear that a necessity exists for such guardianship, in like manner as if such minor or person of unsound mind resided in this state; and the court making such grant of guardianship shall take all such action and make all such orders in reference to the estate of the ward, for the maintenance and support or education and care of such ward, out of the proceeds of such ward's estate, in like manner as if the ward had resided in this state and guardianship of the person of said ward had been granted by said court, and the ward had been sent abroad by the order of the court for education or treatment.

Guardianship of estate of non-resident minor. Ib. p. 176, §22.

Art. 2597. [2516] When a person appointed guardian has qualified as such by taking the oath and giving the bond required by law, the clerk shall issue to him a certificate, attested by the seal of the court, stating the fact of such appointment and qualification and the date thereof; which certificate shall constitute letters of guardianship and be evidence of the authority of the person to whom issued to act as guardian.

Letters shall issue, when, and shall state, what. (Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1875.)

is pending, and to be approved by such county judge; conditioned that such guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the person of such ward.

Bond of guardian of the estate. (Act of 1895, p. 231.)

Art. 2600. [2519] The bond of the guardian of the estate of a ward shall be in amount equal to double the estimated value of the property belonging to such estate, payable to the county judge of the county where such guardianship is pending and to be approved by such county judge, conditioned that such guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the estate of such ward according to law; and it shall be the duty of such county judge to annually examine into the condition of the estate of the ward and the solvency of such guardian's bond, and to require such guardian at any time it may appear that such bond is not ample security to protect such estate and the interests of his ward, to execute another bond in accordance with law. And in such case he shall notify the guardian as in other cases; and should damage or loss result to the estate of any ward through the negligence of such county judge to perform the duties herein prescribed, such county judge shall be liable on his official bond, payable to such ward, an amount equal to his loss due to such negligence.

Two or more sureties required. (Act of 1876, p. 177, §32.)

Art. 2601. [2520] Any bond required by the provisions of this chapter to be given by a guardian shall be subscribed by such guardian, and by at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which the guardianship is pending.

Bond where same person is guardian of both person and estate. Ib. §34.

Art. 2602. [2521] Where the same person is appointed guardian of both the person and estate of a ward, only one bond shall be given by such guardian, varying the form thereof to suit the case.

No bond required when will, etc., has dispensed with it. Ib. §33.

Art. 2603. [2522] When the surviving parent of a minor has provided by will, regularly probated, that a guardian appointed by such will shall not be required to give bond for the management of the estate devised by such will, the direction shall be observed, unless it be made to appear at any time that such guardian is mismanaging the property, or is about to betray his trust, in which case, upon proper proceedings had for that purpose, such guardian may be required by the court to give bond as in other cases.

Bond of married woman as guardian. Ib. §33.

Art. 2604. [2523] Where a married woman may be appointed guardian, she may, jointly with her husband, or without her husband if he be absent from the state, or refuse to join in the bond with her, execute such bond as guardian as the law requires, and acknowledge the same before any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of married women to written instruments; and such bond shall bind her estate in the same manner as if she were unmarried, but shall not bind her husband as surety unless he sign and be approved as such.

Bond of father or mother under 21 years of age valid. Ib. §40.

Art. 2605. [2524] A bond executed by the father or mother of a minor, as guardian of such minor, when such father or mother is under twenty-one years of age, shall be as valid as if he or she were of full age.

New bond may be required, etc.

Art. 2606. [2525] The county judge shall have power to require new bonds of guardians in all cases where he has power to require new bonds of executors or administrators, and under the same rules and regulations and with like effect.

Guardian shall cease to act as such, when. Ib. §43.

Art. 2607. [2526] When a guardian has been required to give a new bond he shall thereafter refrain from acting as such guardian, except to preserve the property committed to his charge, until he has given such new bond and the same has been approved.

Art. 2608. [2527] A surety upon the bond of a guardian may be relieved from his bond in the same manner and with like effect as is provided in the case of a surety upon the bond of an executor or administrator. Surety may be relieved in same manner, etc. Ib.

Art. 2609. [2528] The oath and bond of a guardian shall be presented to the county judge within twenty days after the order appointing such guardian, either in term time or in vacation, for the action of such judge. Oath and bond to be presented within 20 days.

Art. 2610. [2529] The oaths of guardians and their bonds, when approved, shall be immediately filed with the clerk of the county court and recorded in the minutes of said court and safely preserved. Oaths and bonds shall be recorded.

Art. 2611. [2530] When a new bond has been given and approved the sureties upon the former bond of such guardian shall not be liable for any misconduct of such guardian occurring after the approval of such new bond, and shall be released from all liability for the acts of such guardian occurring after the approval of such new bond. Sureties relieved, when, etc. Ib. §44.

Article 2612. [2531] It shall be the duty of every guardian of an estate, as soon as he shall have collected the estate, and within thirty days after he has taken the oath and given bond, with the assistance of any two of the appraisers appointed by the court, to make and return to the court a true and perfect inventory of all the property, real and personal, belonging to said estate, which has come to the knowledge of such guardian, and each article of such property shall be appraised by such appraisers, and the appraised value thereof stated opposite the same in the inventory, and the same shall be subscribed and sworn to by such appraisers before any officer of the county in which the inventory is made, authorized by law to administer oaths generally. Inventory shall be returned in 30 days, etc. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 179, §50.)

Art. 2613. [2532] The guardian shall also make out and attach to such inventory and appraisement a list of all claims due or to become due belonging to the estate. Such list shall state— List of claims. Ib. §50.

1. The name of each person indebted to the estate.
2. The nature of such indebtedness, whether by note, bill, bond or other written obligation, or by account or verbal contract.
3. The date of such indebtedness and the date when the same was due or will be due.
4. The amount of each claim and the rate of interest thereon, and the time for which the same bears interest.

Art. 2614. [2533] The guardian shall annex to the inventory, appraisement, and list of claims an affidavit in substance as follows: "I, A B, guardian of the estate of C D, do solemnly swear that the inventory and list of claims annexed hereto are a true and Affidavit of guardian to inventory, etc.

(Act March 20,
1848.)
P. D. 3899.

Art. 2616. [2535] Whenever any guardian of an estate shall discover any property belonging to such estate which has not been inventoried and appraised, or any claim that has not been embraced in the list of claims, he shall forthwith make out and return to the court an additional inventory or list of claims, embracing such property or claims, as the case may be.

Appraisers to be appointed in such case,
when, etc.

Art. 2617. [2536] Where an additional inventory of property has been returned by the guardian, the court shall appoint appraisers to appraise such property, as in the case of original inventories, or such appraisers may be appointed before the return of such additional inventory, either in term time or in vacation, by an order of the court entered upon the minutes.

Additional inventory, etc.,
may be required, when.
Ib.

Art. 2618. [2537] Whenever it shall be shown to the county judge that any guardian has not returned to the court an inventory and appraisement and list of claims of all the property belonging to his ward, such judge shall cause such guardian to be cited, either in term time or in vacation, and require him to return to the court an additional inventory and appraisement, or an additional list of claims, as the case may be, in the same manner as in the case of original inventories and appraisements and lists of claims are required to be returned, and within the same time; but such inventory and appraisement and list of claims shall only embrace such property as has been omitted in previous inventories and appraisements and lists of claims.

Inventories,
etc., may be corrected, etc.

Art. 2619. [2538] Erroneous inventories, appraisements and lists of claims may be corrected, and new appraisements may be ordered, under the same rules and regulations as are provided in the case of estates of decedents.

Inventories,
etc., evidence.
Ib.
P. D. 3900.

Art. 2620. [2539] All inventories, appraisements or lists of claims, when approved by the court, or the record thereof, or copies of the same or of the record thereof, duly certified under the seal of the clerk of the county court having charge thereof, may be given in evidence in any suit by or against such guardian, but shall not be conclusive against the ward if it be shown that there is other property or claims of such ward not included therein, or that the estate or claims were actually worth more than the value at which they are set down in such inventories, appraisements or lists.

Guardian may carry on or rent farm, etc., under order of the court. (Act Aug. 13, 1876, p. 182, §86.)

Article 2633. [2552] If there be a farm, plantation, manufactory or business belonging to the estate, and if the same be not required to be at once sold for the payment of debts, it shall be the duty of the guardian of such estate, upon an order of the court, to carry on such farm, plantation, manufactory or business or rent the same, as shall appear for the best interest of the estate. In coming to a determination the court shall take into consideration the condition of the estate, and the necessity that may exist for the future sale of such property for the payment of debts or the education and maintenance of the ward, and shall not extend the time of renting any such property beyond what may consist with the interests of the estate and of the ward.

Duty of guardian to rent out property, when, etc. Ib. §87.

Art. 2634. [2553] When an order of the court is made directing property to be rented, it shall be the duty of the guardian to obey such order and rent the property for the best price that can be obtained therefor, taking good security for the payment of the rent, and that the tenant will not commit, nor permit any other person to commit, waste on the rented premises.

May rent improved property other than, etc., without order.

Art. 2635. [2554] The guardian may rent the improved property of the ward, other than such property as is named in article 2633, without an order of the court authorizing him to do so, and either at public or private renting, but when he rents without an order of court, he shall be required to account to the estate of the ward for the reasonable value of the rent of such property for the time the same was so rented.

Art. 2636. [2555] The court may order the farm, plantation, manufactory, business, or any improved property of the estate to be rented, either at public or private renting, for any length of time not exceeding one year, and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem for the best interests of the ward.

Court may order improved property rented, etc.

Art. 2637. [2556] If the ward own wild or unimproved real property, the guardian may let out the same on improvement leases, under order of the court, for such length of time and upon such terms and conditions as the court may direct in its order.

Unimproved land may be leased. Ib. §88.

Art. 2638. [2557] Any person, upon complaint in writing filed with the clerk of the county court, may cause the guardian of the estate of a ward to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court, and show cause why he should not be required to rent out the farm, plantation or other improved property of the ward, or why he should not be required to lease for improvement the wild or unimproved lands of the ward, and upon the hearing of such complaint the court shall make such order as may in his judgment be for the best interest of the estate.

Guardian may be cited to show cause why he should not rent land out, etc.

Art. 2639. [2558] If at any time the guardian of the estate shall have on hand any money belonging to the ward beyond what may be necessary for the education and maintenance of such ward, such guardian shall, under the direction of the court, invest such money in the bonds of the United States or of the state of Texas, or loan the same for the highest rate of interest that can be obtained therefor.

Money shall be invested, how. Ib. 39.

Art. 2640. [2559] When the guardian loans the money he shall take the note of the borrower with good personal security, and shall also take a mortgage with power of sale, upon unincumbered real estate situated in this state, worth at least the full amount of such note and interest, and he shall not deliver such money until such note and mortgage have been taken and approved by the county judge of the county in which the guardianship is pending, which approval shall be by an order of such judge entered upon the minutes of his court, either in term time or in vacation.

Note and mortgage shall be taken for money loaned. Ib.

Art. 2641. [2560] When the guardian may think it best for his ward to have any surplus money on hand invested in real estate, he shall file an application in writing in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order of such court authorizing him to make such investment. Such application shall state the nature of the investment sought to be made, and the reasons why the guardian is of the opinion that it would be for the benefit of the ward to have the same made.

Investing money in real estate. Ib.

Art. 2642. [2561] When any such application is filed, notice of the same shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an application to sell real estate belonging to the ward, and for the same length of time.

Notice of application to invest in real estate. Ib.

Art. 2643. [2562] Upon the hearing of any such application at a regular term of the court, after notice thereof has been given as required, if the court be satisfied that such investment will be beneficial to the ward, an order authorizing the same to be made shall be entered upon the minutes, which order shall specify the investment to be made, and shall contain such other directions as the court may think it advisable to make.

Order of the court on such application. Ib.

Contract of investment must be approved by the court.
Ib.

Art. 2644. [2563] Where any contract has been made for the investment of money in real estate, under order of the court, such contract shall be reported in writing to the court by the guardian at the next regular term of such court thereafter, and it shall be the duty of the court to inquire fully into the same, and if satisfied that such investment will benefit the estate of the ward, and that the title to such real estate is valid and unincumbered, the court may approve the contract and authorize the guardian to pay over the money in performance of the same; but no money shall be paid out by the guardian on any such contract until such contract has been approved by the court by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes of the court.

Title to be made to ward and property to be inventoried, etc.

Art. 2645. [2564] When the money of the ward has been invested in real estate, the title to such real estate shall be made to such ward, and such real estate shall be inventoried, appraised, managed and accounted for by the guardian as other real estate of the ward.

Guardian may be cited to show cause why he should not invest or loan money.

Art. 2646. [2565] When there is any surplus money of the estate in the hands of the guardian, any person may, by complaint in writing filed in the court in which such guardianship is pending, cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of such court to show cause why such surplus money should not be invested or loaned at interest, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and upon the hearing of such complaint the court shall enter upon the minutes such order as the law and the facts may require.

County judge shall see that money is invested, etc.

Art. 2647. [2566] It shall be the duty of the county judge, whenever it is made known to him in any manner that there is surplus money belonging to the ward in the hands of the guardian, to cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why said money should not be invested, or why it should not be loaned at interest under the provisions of this chapter.

When guardian is liable for interest.
Ib. §90.

Art. 2648. [2567] If the surplus money in the hands of the guardian belonging to the ward can not be invested or loaned at interest as directed in this chapter, after due diligence to do so by the guardian, he shall be liable for the principal only of such money. But if the guardian neglects to invest such money or loan the same at interest when he could do so by the use of reasonable diligence, he shall be liable for the principal and also for the highest legal rate of interest upon such principal for the time he so neglects to invest or loan the same.

Shall not be personally responsible for money loaned, when.
Ib. §91.

Art. 2649. [2568] The guardian shall not be personally responsible for money loaned under the direction of the court, on security approved by the court, in case of the inability of the borrower to pay the same, and the failure of the security, unless such guardian has been guilty of fraud or negligence in respect to such loan or the collection of the same, in which case he and the sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss his ward may have sustained by reason of such fraud or negligence.

Shall report renting, etc., to court.

Art. 2650. [2569] The guardian shall report to the court in writing, and verified by his affidavit, the renting or leasing of property belonging to the estate, or the investment or loaning of money belonging to the estate, within thirty days after any such transaction, stating fully the facts of such transaction.

Article 2651. [2570] The guardian of the estate, as soon as practicable after appraisement, shall apply for an order of the court to sell at public or private sale, for cash or on credit not exceeding six months, all the personal property belonging to the ward that is liable to perish, waste or deteriorate in value, or that will be an expense or disadvantage to the estate to keep on hand.

Perishable property shall be sold. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 181, §80.)

Art. 2652. [2571] If the guardian shall represent to the court on oath that there is stock belonging to the estate which he is unable to collect or command, the court may order that the same be sold at public auction, on such credit as the court may deem reasonable, not exceeding twelve months, taking notes bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the day of sale, with good and sufficient security for the purchase money. Such sale shall be advertised, made, returned and acted upon by the court the same as sales of real estate.

Sales of wild stock. Ib. §§84, 85.

Art. 2653. [2572] When the income of the ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay the debts against the estate, the guardian of the person, or of the estate, or any person holding a valid claim against the estate, or any person interested in the ward, may, by application in writing to the court in which such guardianship of the estate is pending, ask for an order for a sufficient amount of real estate to be sold to make up the deficiency.

When real estate may be sold. Ib. §§101, 2.

Art. 2654. [2573] It is the duty of the guardian to apply for such order whenever it appears that a necessity exists therefor, and to set forth fully in his application such necessity, and accompanying the application with an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate.

Guardian shall apply for order to sell real estate, when. Ib. §105.

Art. 2655. [2574] When the application for the sale of real estate is made by any other person than the guardian of the estate, the guardian of the estate shall be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why the order should not be made, and also to present to the court an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate.

Guardian shall be cited, when.

Art. 2656. [2575] Whenever an application for the sale of real estate is filed, it shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to issue a citation to all persons interested in the ward to appear at a regular term of the court, to be named in such citation, and show cause

Citation upon application for sale of real estate. Ib. §104.

why such application should not be granted, which citation shall state the property sought to be sold, and shall be served by posting, as in the case of sales of real estate of the estates of decedents, for at least twenty days before the first day of the term of the court to which such citation is made returnable.

No order of sale shall be made until citation has been served, etc.

Art. 2657. [2576] No order for the sale of real property shall be made unless the citation provided for in the preceding article has been served in the manner and for the length of time thereby required and returned into court by the officer who served the same.

Ib.
Advantage of estate to be considered in ordering sale. Ib. §103.

Art. 2658. [2577] When a sale of real estate is ordered, it shall be of the property which the court may deem most advantageous to the estate to be sold.

May be sold, on what terms. (Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 9.)

Art. 2659. [2578] A sale of real estate may be ordered by the court for cash, or for part cash and part credit, or wholly on credit, and if wholly on credit then for no longer period than twelve months, at public auction or at private sale, as it may appear to the court to be most to the advantage of the estate.

Order of sale shall state, what. (Acts of 1876, p. 181, §100.)

Art. 2660. [2579] An order for the sale of real estate shall state—

1. The property to be sold, giving such a description of it as will identify it.

2. Whether it is to be sold for cash or on credit, and if on credit the length of such credit.

3. Whether it is to be sold at public auction or at private sale, and if at public auction the time and place of such sale.

4. The necessity and purpose of such sale.

5. It shall require the sale to be made and the report thereof returned to the court in accordance with law.

In what county real estate shall be sold. Ib. §108.

Art. 2661. [2580] All sales of real property shall be made in the county where the guardianship is pending, unless such real property is situated in another county, in which case the court may order the sale to take place in the county where the real estate is situated. In all such cases the sale shall be advertised in both counties.

Terms of sale. (Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 9.)

Art. 2662. [2581] The terms of sale of real estate when made partly on credit shall be that the cash payment be not less than one-fifth of the purchase price, and that the purchaser give his note or notes for the deferred payments maturing in equal annual amounts, the last note to mature not later than five years from date of deed, said notes to bear interest from date at a rate of interest of not less than six per centum, payable annually, and in default of the payment of principal or interest or any part thereof when due shall mature the whole debt; all notes for deferred payments to be secured by vendor's lien, retained in deed and notes upon the property sold, except where improved property or timbered lands are sold, in which exceptions the cash payment shall not be less than one-third of the appraised value of the property so sold. If a sale be made wholly for credit the purchaser's note must be secured by vendor's lien upon the property sold, and he shall also be required to furnish good personal security in addition to said lien, and the rate of interest shall not be lower than is provided in case of sales for part credit, and in every case the deferred payments shall be made payable in the county where the guardianship is pending.

Guardian shall not purchase property belonging to ward.

Art. 2663. [2582] It shall not be lawful for the guardian to take the estate of his ward or any part thereof, at its appraised value, or to become the purchaser, either directly or indirectly, of any property of the estate sold by him; and if any guardian shall, either directly or indirectly, become the purchaser of any property of his ward, at a sale made by such guardian, upon the complaint in writing of any person, and after service of citation upon such guardian, and upon proof of such complaint, such sale shall be declared void by the court, and shall be set aside, and an order to that effect entered upon the minutes, and the costs of such sale, and of the proceeding to set the same aside, shall be adjudged against such guardian individually.

Art. 2664. [2583] When any person shall bid off property offered for sale by a guardian, and shall fail to comply with the terms of the sale, the facts shall be reported to the court by the guardian, and such person so failing to comply shall be liable to pay such guardian, for the use of the estate, ten per cent on the amount of his bid; and, also, the deficiency in price on the second sale of such property, if any such deficiency there be, to be recovered by suit in any court of the county where such sale was made having jurisdiction of the amount claimed.

Bidder failing to comply with bid shall be liable, etc.

Art. 2665. [2584] Public sales may be continued from day to day in case the day set apart for any such sale shall be insufficient to complete the same, by giving public notice verbally of such continuance at the conclusion of the sale each day, and the continued sale shall commence and conclude within the hours prescribed for public sales under execution.

Sale may be continued from day to day.

Art. 2666. [2585] The laws regulating sales under execution, so far as the same relate to the advertisement and sale of property and the proceedings incidental thereto, and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, shall apply to and govern public sales by a guardian of the property of the ward.

Guardians' sales governed by same rules as execution sales. (Acts of 1876, p. 181, §§82-111.)

Art. 2667. [2586] When a private sale of the property of the ward is made by a guardian, notice of such sale is not required to be given.

Notice of private sale not required.

Art. 2668. [2587-2588] Any person holding a claim against the estate of a ward, secured by mortgage or other lien, may obtain an order for the sale of the property upon which he has such mortgage or other lien, or so much thereof as may be required to satisfy the claim, by causing citation to be posted and the guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why such order should not be made; and such sale shall be made upon such terms as the court may direct, which terms shall be stated in the order of sale, and the notice and other proceedings shall be the same as in other sales by guardians.

Sale of mortgaged property to be made on such terms as court may direct. Ib. §§100, 107.

Art. 2669. [2589] Should it appear to the court that the discharge of such mortgage or other lien, out of the general assets, would be beneficial to the estate, the payment may be ordered to be so made, instead of ordering a sale of the property.

Mortgage or lien may be discharged without sale. Ib. §106.

Art. 2670. Should an estate in the hands of a guardian be involved in debt, and upon proper showing made to the court it shall appear that the guardian can pay off and discharge existing debts to the advantage of the estate by the hypothecation or mortgage of real estate at a lower rate of interest, or upon more advantageous terms than the old indebtedness, the court may, in its discretion, by order made for that purpose, allow the guardian to pay off and discharge existing debts by the execution of a good and sufficient mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate to secure the person furnishing the money with which to discharge said indebtedness; acts of guardians under this article to be reported to the court and approved as in case of sales; nor shall any guardian renew any indebtedness or evidence thereof except by order of the court, made upon application and notice as in case of sales of land.

Guardian authorized to re-hypothecate ward's indebtedness, when. (Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 10.)

May renew debt, when. Ib.

Art. 2671. Should a guardian not have sufficient funds in hand belonging to the estate of his ward to pay and discharge any existing debt, he may renew the evidence of the same in like manner as his ward could were he able to act, and such act of the guardian shall have the same force and effect with reference to such novated paper as if done by the ward; provided, no such order shall be made if any creditor of said ward interpose any objection to the same before said order is granted; provided, that no such guardian shall renew the evidences of any debt against the estate of his ward which shall become barred by the statutes of limitation; nor shall such guardian renew the evidences of any debt that may have been made or contracted by his ward during his minority or other disabilities.

Article 2672. [2590] All sales of the property of the ward shall be reported to the court in which the guardianship is pending, by the guardian, within thirty days after the sale is made.

Report of sale and its requisites.

Art. 2673. [2591] The report of any sale shall be in writing, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by the guardian before some officer authorized to administer oaths. It shall show—

1. The time and place of the sale.
2. The property sold, giving a description of the same.
3. The name of the purchaser of the property.
4. The amount for which each article of property was sold.
5. The date of the order of sale.
6. Whether such sale was at public auction or was a private sale.
7. The terms of the sale.
8. Whether or not the purchaser has complied with the terms of the sale.

Report may be in term time or vacation.

Art. 2674. [2592] A report of sale may be made in term time or in vacation, and when returned shall be filed by the clerk and the filing thereof noted in the case upon the judge's docket.

Action of the court on report of sale. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 185, §113.)

Art. 2675. [2593] At any time after the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, it shall be the duty of the court in which the same has been filed, at a regular term thereof, to inquire into the manner in which such sale was made, and to hear evidence in support of or against such report, and if satisfied that such sale was fairly made and in conformity with law, the court shall cause to be entered upon its minutes a decree confirming such sale, and order the report of sale to be recorded by the clerk, and the proper conveyance of the property sold to be made by the guardian to the purchaser upon compliance by such purchaser with the terms of sale.

Art. 2676. [2594] If the court is not satisfied that the sale was fairly made, and in conformity with law, an order shall be entered upon the minutes, setting the same aside, and ordering the property to be again sold, if necessary.

Sale shall be set aside, when.

Art. 2677. [2595] After a sale has been confirmed by a decree of the court, and after the purchaser has complied with the terms of the sale, the guardian shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a proper conveyance of the property purchased by him. In the case of a sale of personal property no conveyance shall be necessary, but the decree of the court confirming the sale shall vest the right and title of the ward to the property sold in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making such sale.

Conveyance of property sold.

Art. 2678. [2596] If the property sold be real estate the conveyance shall be by deed, and shall refer to the decree of the court confirming the sale and ordering the conveyance to be made, by giving the date and term of the court of such order, and such conveyance shall vest the right and title of the ward to such real estate in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making such sale.

Conveyance of real estate. Ib. §115.

Art. 2679. [2597] No conveyance of real estate sold shall be executed and delivered by the guardian to the purchaser until the terms of sale have been complied with by such purchaser, and when such sale has been made on a credit it shall be the duty of the guardian, before delivering a conveyance of the property to the purchaser, to take from such purchaser a note with good personal security, payable in the county in which the guardianship is pending, bearing ten per cent interest per annum for the purchase money, together with a mortgage containing a power of sale upon such real estate to secure the payment of such note, and to file such mortgage for record in the county where such real estate is situated.

No conveyance until terms of sale have been complied with.

Art. 2680. [2598] Should the guardian neglect to take the note, security and mortgage, and file such mortgage for record in the proper county before delivering to the purchaser a deed, as required by the preceding article, such guardian and the sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss may accrue to the estate of the ward by reason of such neglect.

Penalty for neglect to take note and mortgage, etc.

Art. 2681. [2599] All notes executed for the purchase money of real estate, under the provisions of this chapter, shall hold the vendor's lien on the real estate for which such notes were given against all persons having notice, express or implied, in favor of the estate, whether the mortgage be recorded or not, and such lien shall in no case be waived.

Vendor's lien on real estate sold, retained.

Art. 2682. [2600] If from any cause the guardian shall fail to sell any real estate ordered to be sold, at the time specified in the order, he shall report the facts to the court or judge, accompanied by his affidavit of the truth thereof, and the court or judge, either in term time or vacation, may, by an order entered upon the minutes, appoint another day for such sale, and so on from time to time until the sale is completed.

When property is not sold at the time ordered, etc. Ib. §116.

Annual account of guardian of person. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 186, §120.)

Article 2683. [2601] The guardian of the person where there is a separate guardian of the estate, shall annually return to the court an account, supported by his affidavit, showing the items of expenditure since the last account for the education and maintenance of the ward.

Annual account of guardian of estate. Ib. §119.

Art. 2684. [2602] The guardian of an estate shall annually return to the court an account showing—

1. Any property that may have come to his knowledge belonging to his ward which has not been previously inventoried or listed.
2. Any changes in the property of the ward which have not been previously reported.
3. A complete account of receipts and disbursements since the last annual account.
4. All claims that have been allowed by him against the estate since the last annual account that are still unpaid.
5. All claims that have been rejected by him since the last annual account, and whether the same have been sued upon or not.
6. The money and property still on hand, and the condition of such property, and the use that is being made of the same.
7. Such other facts as may be necessary to show the true and exact condition of the estate.

Annexed to such account shall be the affidavit of the guardian that it contains a correct and complete statement of the matters to which it relates.

Annual account shall be continued one term. Ib. §121.

Art. 2685. [2603] When an annual account is presented it shall be filed, and the filing thereof noted in the case upon the judge's docket, and without being acted on shall be continued until the second regular term of the court thereafter.

Citation on annual account. Ib. §122.

Art. 2686. [2604] Upon the filing of an annual account, the clerk shall issue a citation to all persons interested in the ward, stating that such account has been filed and the term of the court when it will be acted on, which citation shall be duly posted for twenty days and returned as in other cases of citation.

Account must be proved by vouchers or other evidence. Ib. §124.

Art. 2687. [2605] The guardian must produce and file proper vouchers for every item of credit claimed by him in his account, or support the same by other satisfactory evidence.

Action of the court on the account. Ib. §125.

Art. 2688. [2606] If the account be found incorrect it shall be correctly stated; and when so corrected, or if found correct, it shall be approved by an order of the court entered upon the minutes.

Guardian shall be cited to return account, when. Ib. §128.

Art. 2689. [2607] If the guardian fail to return an annual account, as required by the provisions of this chapter, he shall be cited to return the same at the next term of the court, and show cause for failing to return such account at the proper time.

Penalty for failing to return account. Ib. §129.

Art. 2690. [2608] If the guardian fail to return such account after being cited to do so, or fail to show good cause for failing to return such account at the proper time, he may be fined by the court not exceeding five hundred dollars, for the use of the county, and he and his sureties shall be liable for all fines imposed and damages sustained by reason of such failure.

Article 2691. [2609] When a guardian dies the court, on application, shall appoint another.

When guardian dies. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 179, §54.)

Art. 2692. [2610] When a guardian wishes to resign, he shall present his application in writing to that effect to the court, and accompany such application with a full and complete account of the condition of the estate and of his guardianship verified by his affidavit.

Resignation of guardian. Ib. §55.

Art. 2693. [2611] Upon the filing of such application and account the clerk shall issue a citation to all persons interested in such guardianship, which citation shall state—

Citation in such case. Ib. §56.

1. That such guardian has filed his application for leave to resign the guardianship, and has accompanied the same by an account for final settlement thereof.

2. It shall notify all persons interested in the guardianship to appear at a certain term of the court, commencing on such a day and month, and contest the account of the guardian, if they see proper to do so.

Art. 2694. [2612] Such citation shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper in the county, if there be one regularly printed therein; if not, then such citation shall be duly posted for at least twenty days before the return term thereof, and such citation shall be duly returned by the officer executing the same.

Service of such citation. Ib. §57.

Art. 2695. [2613] Upon the hearing of such application and account, if it appear that such guardian has accounted for all the estate according to law, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes that he delivered the estate remaining in his possession, if any there be, or the person of his ward, or both, as the case may be, to some person who shall have been or may be appointed and qualified as guardian in his place; upon compliance with such order and surrender of his letters of guardianship, such guardian shall be permitted to resign his trust and be discharged, and an order to that effect shall be made by the court and entered upon the minutes of the court.

Action of court upon application and account. Ib. §58.

Art. 2696. [2614] Guardians shall be removed in the following cases, without notice, at the regular term of the court:

Removal of guardian without notice, when. Ib. §59.

1. When they neglect to return within thirty days after qualification an inventory and list of claims of the property of the estate as far as such property has come to their knowledge.

2. When they have been required to give a new bond, and neglect to do so within the time prescribed.

3. When they have removed from the state.

Removal
after citation.
Ib. §60.

Art. 2697. [2615] A guardian may be removed by the court of its own motion, or on the motion of any person interested in the ward, or his estate, after being cited to answer—

1. When he fails to return any account which he is required to return by any of the provisions of this title.

2. When he fails to obey any order of the court or judge consistent with this title.

3. When there is good cause to believe that he has misapplied, embezzled or removed, or is about to misapply, embezzle or remove from the state the property committed to his charge, or any part thereof.

4. When he is proved to have been guilty of gross neglect or mismanagement in the performance of any of his duties as guardian.

5. When he becomes of unsound mind, or becomes an habitual drunkard, or is sentenced to imprisonment for a term of years.

6. When, if he be the guardian of the person, he cruelly treats the ward, or neglects to educate and maintain the ward as liberally as the means of such ward and the circumstances of the case demand.

Order removing guardian shall state,
what, etc.
Ib. §§61-2.

Art. 2698. [2616] The order of the court removing a guardian shall state the cause of such removal, and shall require such guardian to surrender his letters of guardianship, and shall also further require such guardian to deliver the person of the ward, or his estate, or both, as the case may be, to some person who has been appointed guardian and has qualified as such in his place.

Art. 2699. [2617] When any person shall have been removed from the guardianship of the person or estate of a ward, he shall not afterward be reappointed to such guardianship.

Person removed shall not be reappointed.
Ib. §63.

When guardian dies, etc., estate shall be accounted for and delivered,
etc.
Ib. §64.

Art. 2700. [2618] If a guardian die, resign, or be removed, he or his legal representatives shall account for, pay and deliver to the person legally entitled to receive the same, all the property of every kind belonging to the estate of the ward at such time and in such manner as the court shall order, and in case of a refusal to comply with an order of the court to that effect, the same may be enforced by attachment and punishment as for contempt.

Subsequent guardian shall account for, what.
Ib. §65.

Art. 2701. [2619] When a guardian succeeds a former guardian, he shall be required to account for all the estate which came into the hands of his predecessor, and shall be entitled to any order or remedy which the court has power to give, in order to enforce the delivery of the estate, and the liability of the sureties of his predecessor for so much as is not delivered. But such subsequent guardian shall be excused from accounting for such of the estate as he has failed to recover after the use of due diligence.

Subsequent guardian succeeds to,
what.

Art. 2702. [2620] A subsequent guardian shall succeed to all the rights, powers and duties of his predecessor, and shall proceed with the guardianship in all respects as if it were a continuation of the same by the same guardian.

Article 2703. [2621] A guardian may pay any claim against the estate of his ward which he knows to be just, without the authentication thereof.

Art. 2704. [2622] The guardian shall not allow, and the court shall not approve, any claim except as provided for in the preceding article, unless it be accompanied by an affidavit of the claimant "that the claim is just, that nothing has been paid or delivered toward the satisfaction of such claim, except what is mentioned or credited (if any), that there are no counter claims known to the affiant which have not been allowed, and that the sum claimed is justly due."

Art. 2705. [2623] Where the claim is not founded on an instrument in writing or an account, in addition to the statement required by the preceding article, the affidavit must state the facts upon which the claim is founded.

Art. 2706. [2624] When a claim belongs to a corporation, the cashier, treasurer or managing agent of such corporation shall make the affidavit required to authenticate it.

Art. 2707. [2625] When an affidavit authenticating a claim is made by an officer of a corporation, an executor, administrator, trustee, assignee, agent or attorney, it shall be sufficient to state in such affidavit "that he has made diligent inquiry and examination, and that he does verily believe that nothing has been paid and delivered toward the satisfaction of such claim, except the amount credited (if any), that there are no counter claims which have not been allowed, and that the sum claimed is justly due."

Art. 2708. [2626] The affidavit authenticating a claim may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

Art. 2709. [2627] When a claim is presented to the guardian, properly authenticated, he shall indorse thereon or annex thereto a memorandum in writing signed by him, stating the time of its Guardian may pay claim without authentication, when. Ib. §95.

Claim shall not be allowed unless supported by affidavit, etc. Ib. §154.

Where claim is not founded on written instrument, affidavit shall state facts. Ib. §155.

When a claim belongs to a corporation, who shall make affidavit. Ib. §156.

Affidavit by officer of corporation, executor, etc., shall state what, etc. Ib. §157.

presentment and that he allows or rejects it, or what portion thereof he allows, if any.

Effect of failure to make memorandum.
Ib. §160.

Art. 2710. [2628] The failure of a guardian to indorse on or annex to any claim presented to him, his allowance or rejection thereof, shall be deemed a rejection of such claim; and in such case the costs, if the claim be established, shall be adjudged against the guardian, to be paid out of his own estate.

Rejected claim, if not sued on in 90 days, barred.
Ib. §162.

Art. 2711. [2629] When a claim or part thereof has been rejected by the guardian, the claimant, if he does not submit thereto, shall institute suit thereon within ninety days after such rejection, or the same shall be barred.

Memorandum evidence.
Ib. §165.

Art. 2712. [2630] When a rejected claim is sued upon, the indorsement thereon or annexed thereto of its rejection shall be taken to be true without proof, unless it be denied under oath.

When claim is allowed, shall be presented, etc.
Ib. §161.

Art. 2713. [2631] After a claim has been presented to the guardian and allowed, the claimant shall present it to the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending, who shall enter it upon the claim docket.

Claims shall be examined, etc., by the court.
Ib. §164.

Art. 2714. [2632] At each regular term of the court all claims which have been allowed and entered on the claim docket shall be examined by the court and approved or disapproved in the same manner as is provided for claims against the estates of decedents.

Any person may contest claim.
Ib. §166.

Art. 2715. [2633] Any person may appear and contest the approval of any claim or any part thereof, and shall be entitled to process to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of testimony as in ordinary suits.

Court shall hear evidence on claim.
Ib. §167.

Art. 2716. [2634] Although a claim be properly authenticated and allowed, if the court be not well satisfied it is just it shall send for persons and papers, and may examine the claimant and the guardian under oath and hear other evidence. If the court be not entirely convinced in such case by evidence other than the testimony of the claimant that the claim is just, it shall be disapproved.

Order of approval or disapproval is a judgment.
Ib. §168.

Art. 2717. [2635] The order of approval or disapproval of a claim has the force and effect of a judgment.

Appeal may be taken from action of court on claim.

Art. 2718. [2636] When a claimant or any person interested in a ward shall be dissatisfied with the action of the court in approving or disapproving a claim in whole or in part, he may appeal therefrom to the district court as in the case of any other judgment rendered by said court.

Action of court shall be indorsed on claim, etc.

Art. 2719. [2637] When a claim is acted on by the court, the court shall indorse thereon or annex thereto a memorandum in writing, signed officially, stating the action of the court upon such claim, and shall also enter such action upon the claim docket.

Lost claim may be proved, how.
Ib. §174.

Art. 2720. [2638] When a claim has been lost and can not be produced, the claimant may make an affidavit of the facts and present it to the guardian, with the same effect as the claim itself, but in such case the claim must be proved by competent testimony, other than such claimant's affidavit or oath, produced in court or taken by deposition, before it shall be approved by the court.

Claim held by guardian, established, how.
Ib. §158.

Art. 2721. [2639] A claim which the guardian held against the ward at the time of his appointment, or which has since accrued, is exhibited by being filed, verified by the affidavit of the guardian; after which it takes the same course as other claims.

When claim is said to be exhibited.
Ib. §169.

Art. 2722. [2640] A claim is said to be legally exhibited—
1. When it is properly presented to the guardian, and after being allowed by him is filed.

2. When after being rejected suit is commenced thereon.

Art. 2723. [2641] A claim is said to be established—

1. When it has been allowed by the guardian and approved by the court.

When a claim is said to be established.
Ib. §170.

2. When in a suit thereon it has been sustained by the judgment of the proper court.

Art. 2724. [2642] Claims which have not been legally exhibited within the year may be exhibited at any time afterward before the estate is closed, or suit on such claims would be barred by the general law of limitation.

When a claim may be exhibited.
Ib. §172.

Art. 2725. [2643] The general law of limitations is interrupted—

Limitation is interrupted, how.
Ib. §173.

1. By filing a claim which has been allowed.

2. By commencing a suit upon a rejected or disapproved claim within ninety days after such rejection or disapproval.

Art. 2726. [2644] It shall not be lawful for a guardian, either directly or indirectly, to purchase for his own use any claim against the estate of his ward, and upon proof to the satisfaction of the court of the violation of this provision, the court shall disapprove the claim.

Guardian shall not purchase claim.

Art. 2727. [2645] When a claim has been established by judgment a certified copy of such judgment shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending, and entered upon the claim docket as other claims are entered.

Claim established by judgment shall be filed, etc.
Ib. §164.

Art. 2728. [2646] The costs incurred in the exhibition and establishment of claims shall be taxed as follows:

Cost incurred in exhibiting, etc., a claim, taxed, how.
Ib. §190.

1. If a claim be allowed and approved, the estate shall pay the costs.

2. If a claim be allowed, but disapproved, the claimant shall pay the costs.

3. If a claim which has been rejected be established, the estate shall pay the costs.

Art. 2729. [2647] The claim docket required to be kept in estates of decedents shall be used also for the estates of wards, and under the same rules as far as applicable.

Claim docket.

Art. 2730. [2648] It shall be the duty of the guardian to pay all claims against the estate of his ward that have been allowed and approved, or established by suit, as soon as practicable, and the court may at any time, either in term time or in vacation, by an order entered upon the minutes, direct the order in which the claims against the estate shall be paid, and the amount to be paid on each claim when the funds are not sufficient to pay them all in full.

Payment of claims.

Art. 2731. [2649] Any creditor of the estate of the ward whose claim has been approved by the court, or established by judgment, may, upon application in writing to the court in which such guardianship is pending, at a regular term thereof, obtain an order for the payment of such claim, upon proof being made that there are funds in the hands of the guardian subject thereto, or if there be no funds, or not sufficient for the payment of such claim, and if to await the receipt of funds from other sources would involve an unreasonable delay, an order shall be made for the sale of property of the estate sufficient to pay the debt.

Creditor may obtain order for payment of claim.
Ib. §96.

Art. 2732. [2650] If any guardian shall fail to pay any claim ordered by the court to be paid when demanded, upon affidavit of the demand and failure to pay being filed with the clerk of the court making such order, an execution shall be issued for the amount Execution shall issue against guardian, when.

ordered to be paid such claimant, and for the costs of such proceeding against the property of such guardian.

Sureties on guardian's bond shall be cited, when, etc.
 lb. §98.

Art. 2733. [2651] If the execution provided for in the preceding article be returned not satisfied, the sureties upon such guardian's bond may be cited to appear at a regular term of the court from which such execution issued, and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for such debt, interest and costs.

Citation and judgment in such case.
 lb. §99.

Art. 2734. [2652] Citation in such case may be issued to any county in the state, and upon the return thereof duly served, if good cause to the contrary be not shown, the court shall render judgment against the sureties so served in favor of the claimant for the amount of the claim ordered to be paid as aforesaid, and remaining unpaid, and ten per cent damages thereon together with interest and costs, and execution may issue thereon accordingly.

County judge shall issue warrant on information. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 187, §141.)

Article 2735. [2653] If information be given to the judge of the county court that any person of the county is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, and is without a guardian, such judge, if satisfied that there is good cause for the exercise of his jurisdiction, shall, either in term time or in vacation, issue a warrant to the proper officer commanding that such person be brought before him at a time and place to be named in such warrant.

Duty of county officer to file information, when.

Art. 2736. [2654] It shall be the duty of any county officer who may discover any person who resides in the county to be of unsound mind, and without a guardian, to file information thereof with the county judge of such county, who shall issue his warrant as provided in the preceding article.

Requisites of information.

Art. 2737. [2655] The information provided for in the two preceding articles shall be in writing, and shall state the name of the person charged with being of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard, if his name be known, and if unknown, such person shall be described, and that such person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, as the case may be, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the informant, and such information shall be subscribed and sworn to by the informant before some officer of the county authorized to administer oaths.

Jury shall be impaneled.

Art. 2738. [2656] When the person charged is brought before the judge he shall, either in term time or in vacation, cause to be impaneled a qualified jury to try the case and decide whether such person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, as charged in the information.

Art. 2739. [2657] The case shall be docketed in the name of the county as plaintiff, and the person against whom the information is filed as defendant, and the proceedings and trial therein shall be governed by the same rules and regulations that govern in ordinary suits in the county court, unless otherwise provided.

Proceedings and trial.

Art. 2740. [2658] If it be found by the jury that the defendant is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, as charged, the court shall proceed immediately and without further notice to appoint a guardian of the person and estate of such defendant in the same manner as in the case of a minor.

If verdict is against defendant, guardian shall be appointed. Ib. §143.

Art. 2741. [2659] The court may, for good cause shown, at any time within ten days after the verdict has been returned, set aside such verdict and grant a new trial to either party; but when two juries have concurred in a case the second verdict shall not be set aside.

New trial may be granted, when. Ib. §144.

Art. 2742. [2660] All the provisions of this title relating to the guardianship of the persons and estates of minors shall apply to the guardianship of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind and habitual drunkards, in so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with any provision of this chapter.

Provisions as to minors apply to persons of unsound mind, etc.

Art. 2743. [2661] The court by which any person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard is committed to guardianship may make orders for the support of his family and the education of his children when necessary.

Order for support of ward's family. Ib. §177.

Art. 2744. [2662] If the person committed to guardianship is married, the husband or the wife of such person, as the case may be, shall be entitled first in order to the guardianship.

Husband or wife first entitled to guardianship.

Art. 2745. [2663] If any person shall be furiously mad, or so far disordered in his mind as to endanger his own person or the person or property of others, it shall be the duty of the guardian or other person under whose care he may be, and who is bound to provide for his support, to confine him in some suitable place until the first regular term of the county court of his county, when the court shall make such order for the restraint, support and safe-keeping of such ward as the circumstances may require.

When ward is furiously mad. Ib. §178.

Art. 2746. [2664] If any such person of unsound mind as is specified in the preceding article shall not be confined by those having charge of him, or if there be no person having such charge, any magistrate may cause such insane person to be apprehended and may employ any person to confine him in some suitable place until the county court shall make further order thereon, as provided in the preceding article.

When insane person is not confined or in charge of any one. Ib. §179.

Art. 2747. [2665] Where the person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard has no estate of his own, they shall be maintained—

Who are liable to maintain persons of unsound mind, etc. Ib. §180.

1. By the husband or wife of such person, if any, if able to do so.
2. By the father or mother of such person, if able to do so.
3. By the children and grandchildren of such person, if able to do so.
4. By the county in which said person has his residence.

Art. 2748. [2666] The expenses attending the confinement of an insane person shall be paid by the guardian out of the estate of the ward, if he has any estate, and if he has no estate such expense shall be paid by the person bound to provide for and support such insane person, and if not so paid the county shall pay the same.

Expenses of confinement to be paid, how. Ib. §181.

Art. 2749. [2667] In all cases of appropriations out of the county treasury for the support and confinement of any person of County may recover back expenses paid. Ib. §182.

unsound mind or habitual drunkard, the amount thereof may be recovered by the county from the estate of such person, or from any person who, by law, is bound to provide for the support of such person, if there be any such person able to pay the same.

Proceedings to discharge ward from guardianship. Ib. §183.

Art. 2750. [2668] If any person shall allege in writing and under oath that a person who has been adjudged to be of unsound mind, or an habitual drunkard, has been restored to his right mind, or to correct, sober habits, as the case may be, the guardian of the person and of the estate of such ward shall be cited to appear before the county judge on a day and at a place named in such citation, either in term time or in vacation, and show cause why such ward should not be discharged from further guardianship, or the guardian may appear without such citation.

Same subject. Ib.

Art. 2751. [2669] If the fact of such alleged restoration be doubtful, the court shall, either in term time or in vacation, cause a qualified jury to be impaneled to try the issue as in the first instance, and if it be found by such jury that the ward has been restored to his right mind, or has reformed, he shall be discharged from guardianship by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes, and the guardian shall immediately settle his accounts and deliver up all the property remaining in his hands to such ward.

Court may discharge from guardianship without jury, when. Ib.

Art. 2752. [2670] If the fact of such alleged restoration be not doubtful, the court may, without the intervention of a jury, make the order discharging the ward from guardianship, as provided in the preceding article.

Article 2753. [2671] Where a guardian and his ward are non-residents, such guardian may file in the county court of any county a full and complete transcript from the records of a court of competent jurisdiction where he and his ward reside, showing that he has been appointed and has qualified as guardian of the estate of such ward; which said transcript shall be certified by the clerk of the court in which the proceedings were had, under the seal of such court, if there be one, together with a certificate from the judge, chief justice or presiding magistrate of such court, as the case may be, that the attestation to such transcript is in due form; and upon the filing of such transcript the same may be recorded, and the guardian shall be entitled to receive letters of guardianship of the estate of such minor situated in this state, upon filing a bond with sureties, as in other cases, in double the amount of the estimated value of such estate.

Such guardian may remove property out of state, etc. Ib. §71.

Art. 2754. [2672] Upon the recovery of the property of the ward, if it be personal property, such guardian may remove the same out of the state, unless such removal would conflict with the tenure of such property, or the terms and limitations under which it is held; and if it be real property he may obtain an order for the sale of it and remove the proceeds; such sale shall be made, returned and acted upon by the court as other sales of real estate by a guardian.

Art. 2755. [2673] Any resident executor, administrator or guardian having any of the estate of such ward, may be ordered by the court to deliver the same to such non-resident guardian.

Resident executor, etc., may be ordered to deliver property.
Ib. §72.

Art. 2756. [2674] There shall be no removal from the state of any of such property until all the debts known to exist against the estate have been paid, or the payment thereof secured by bond payable to the judge of the county court and approved by the clerk.

Property shall not be removed until debts are paid, etc.
Ib. §73.

Art. 2757. [2675] The benefit of the provisions of this chapter shall not extend to the residents of any state, territory, district or country in which a similar law does not exist in favor of the residents of this state.

Benefits of this chapter shall not extend, etc.

Article 2758. [2676] When a guardian desires to remove the transaction of the business of the guardianship from one county to another, he shall file in the court where such guardianship is pending a written application asking for authority to do so, and state in such application his reasons for desiring such removal.

Application to remove guardianship to another county. (Act Aug. 13, 1876, p. 135, §§117-18.)

Art. 2759. [2677] Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue citation to the sureties upon the bond of such guardian, citing them to appear at a regular term of the court, to be named in such citation, and show cause why such application should not be granted.

Citation to sureties in such case.
Ib. §118.

Art. 2760. [2678] Upon the hearing of the application, if no good cause be shown to the contrary, and if it appear that the removal of the guardianship would be to the interest of the ward, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes authorizing such removal upon the payment of all costs that have accrued.

Action of the court on application.

Art. 2761. [2679] When such order of removal has been made the clerk shall record all papers of the guardianship required to be recorded, and that have not already been recorded, and shall make out a full and complete certified transcript of all the orders, decrees, judgments and proceedings in such guardianship, and upon the payment of his fees therefor shall transmit such transcript, together with all the original papers in the case, to the clerk of the county court of the county to which such guardianship has been removed.

Transcript to be made and transmitted by clerk, etc.

Art. 2762. [2680] The order removing a guardianship shall not take effect until the transcript provided for in the preceding article has been filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county to which such guardianship has been ordered removed, and until a certificate of that fact from the clerk filing the same, under his official seal, has been filed in the court making such order of removal.

Article 2764. [2682] When the ward dies, or if a minor arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or if a female marries, or if a person of unsound mind, or habitual drunkard, is restored and discharged from guardianship, the guardianship shall be immediately settled and closed and the guardian discharged, as provided in the following articles of this chapter.

Guardian shall file account for final settlement, which shall show, what.

Art. 2765. [2683] The guardian shall file with the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending his account for final settlement of such guardianship, which account shall show fully and completely—

1. The property, rents, revenues and profits received by the guardian and belonging to his ward during his guardianship.
2. The disposition made of such property, rents, revenues and profits.
3. The expenses and debts, if any, against the estate remaining unpaid.
4. The property of the estate remaining in the hands of such guardian, if any.
5. Such other facts as may be necessary to a full and definite understanding of the exact condition of the guardianship.
6. Such account shall be subscribed and sworn to by the guardian before some officer authorized to administer oaths.

Guardian may be cited to make final settlement, etc.

Art. 2766. [2684] Should the guardian fail to file his account for final settlement at the proper time, the court shall, upon its own motion, or upon the complaint in writing of any one interested in the estate, cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and file such account.

Citation when account is filed.

Art. 2767. [2685] Upon the filing of an account for final settlement, the clerk shall, if the ward be living and resident in the state, and his residence be known, issue a citation notifying such ward of the filing of such account, and of the term of court at which the same will be acted upon, and that he may appear and contest such account, if he see proper to do so.

Same subject.

Art. 2768. [2686] If the ward be not living, but there is an executor or administrator of his estate, legally qualified, such executor or administrator shall be cited, as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 2769. [2687] If the ward be not living, and there be no executor or administrator of his estate, or if the ward be a non-resident of the state, or if his residence be unknown, citation shall be published once a week for three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one regularly published therein; if not, then such citation shall be duly posted for at least twenty days before the return term thereof. Same subject.

Art. 2770. [2688] After citation has been duly served, the court shall proceed to examine the account for final settlement, and to hear all exceptions and objections thereto (if any), and the evidence in support of or against such account, and if the same is found to be fair, just and correct, an order shall be entered upon the minutes approving it, and directing the guardian to deliver the estate remaining in his hands to the ward or other person legally authorized to receive the same, and upon compliance with such order the guardian shall be discharged, and such guardianship closed by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes. Action of court upon account.

Art. 2771. [2689] Should the account be found to be incorrect in any particular, the court shall cause the same to be corrected and re-stated, and make such order in relation thereto as may be necessary to a full and fair settlement of the guardianship. Account shall be re-stated, when.

Art. 2772. [2690] The guardian must produce and file proper vouchers for every item of credit claimed by him in his account, or support the same by other satisfactory evidence. Guardian must produce vouchers, etc.

Art. 2773. [2691] When the ward is dead and there is no executor or administrator of his estate, or when the ward is a non-resident, or his residence is unknown, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the interest of such ward in the final settlement with the guardian, and shall allow such attorney reasonable compensation for his services out of the ward's estate. Court shall appoint attorney to represent ward, when.

Art. 2774. [2692] In the settlement of the account of the guardian all debts due the estate which the court is satisfied could not have been collected by due diligence, and which have not been collected, shall be excluded from the computation. Debts that could not be collected to be excluded. Ib. §130.

Art. 2775. [2693] In the settlement of any of the accounts of the guardian he shall account for the reasonable value of the labor or services of his ward, or the proceeds thereof, if any such labor or services have been rendered by such ward, and the guardian shall be entitled to reasonable credits for the board, clothing and maintenance of his ward. Labor or services of ward to be accounted for, etc.

Art. 2776. [2694] When a guardian who has been ordered by the court, upon final settlement, to deliver the estate to the ward or other person legally authorized to receive the same, fails to obey such order, he may be attached and punished as for a contempt of court. Guardian may be attached, etc., when.

Art. 2777. [2695] When a guardian who has been ordered by the court, upon final settlement, to deliver the estate to the ward or other person legally authorized to receive the same, or to pay any amount adjudged by the court to be due by him to the estate of his ward, and fails to obey such order, upon complaint in writing by the ward or other person legally entitled to receive such estate or money, the sureties upon the bond of such guardian shall be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for the value of such estate, or for such money, together with ten per cent damages on the same, and interest and costs. Proceedings when guardian fails to deliver estate.

Judgment in such case.

Art. 2778. [2696] Upon the hearing of the complaint provided for in the preceding article, if no good cause to the contrary be shown, the court shall render and enter a judgment in favor of such complaint against the guardian and the sureties upon his bond that have been cited, for the full value of the estate which said guardian has failed to deliver, and for the full amount of money which the guardian has been adjudged to be indebted to the estate, and for ten per cent damages on the same, together with interest and all costs of the proceeding, and execution shall issue to enforce such judgment. It shall not be necessary before rendering judgment against the guardian under this article that he shall have been cited.

Guardian of person receives no pay. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 187, §189.)

Article 2779. [2697] The guardian of the person alone is entitled to no compensation.

Commissions of guardians. Ib. §40.

Art. 2780. [2698] The guardian of the estate is entitled to five per cent on all sums that he actually receives or pays away in cash, but this shall not be construed to include money on hand at the time of the commencement of the guardianship, or money received or paid over on the settlement of the guardianship.

Extra compensation, when allowed. Ib.

Art. 2781. [2699] If the guardian manages a farm, plantation, manufactory or other business of his ward, the court may allow him a reasonable compensation for such services.

Expenses incurred to be allowed. Ib. §131.

Art. 2782. [2700] All necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the guardian in the preservation and management of the ward's estate, and in the collecting or attempting to collect claims or debts due the ward, and in recovering or attempting to recover property to which the ward has a title or claim, and all reasonable attorneys' fees necessarily incurred in the management of such guardianship, shall be allowed the guardian, to be paid out of the estate on satisfactory proof thereof being made to the court.

Pay of appraisers.

Art. 2783. [2701] Appraisers appointed by the court to appraise the property of the ward shall be allowed two dollars each for every day that they are necessarily engaged in the performance of such duty, to be paid out of the estate.

Costs shall be adjudged against the guardian, when. Ib. §191.

Art. 2784. [2702] In all cases where the guardian shall neglect the performance of any duty required of him, and shall be cited to appear before the court on account thereof, he shall pay all costs of such proceeding out of his own estate, and the court shall adjudge the same against him.

Costs shall be adjudged against applicant, when. Ib. §192.

Art. 2785. [2703] In all cases where a party shall make any application or opposition, and on the trial thereof he shall be defeated, all costs occasioned by such application or opposition shall be adjudged against such party by the court.

Art. 2786. [2704] When any person is found to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual drunkard, the cost of the proceeding shall be paid out of his estate, or if his estate be insufficient to pay the same, such costs shall be paid out of the county treasury, and the judgment of the court shall be accordingly. In proceedings against persons of unsound mind, etc. Ib. §195.

Art. 2787. [2705] If the defendant, in the case mentioned in the preceding article, be discharged, the person at whose instance the proceeding was had shall pay the costs of such proceeding, unless the informant be an officer acting in his official capacity in filing the information, in which case the costs shall be paid out of the county treasury. Same subject. Ib.

Art. 2788. [2706] The provisions of law regulating costs and security therefor shall apply to matters of guardianship, where the same are not expressly provided for in this title. Cost laws apply to guardianships. Ib. §189.

Article 2789. [2707] Any person who may consider himself aggrieved by any decision, order or judgment of the court, or by any order of the judge thereof, may appeal to the district court as a matter of right, without bond. Right of appeal. (Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 192, §197.)

Art. 2790. [2708] An appeal is taken by causing an entry of notice thereof to be made on the record during the term at which such decision, order or judgment is entered; or if such decision, order or judgment be made in vacation, by causing the entry of such notice to be made before the close of the next regular term of the court thereafter. Notice of appeal. Ib. §198.

Art. 2791. [2709] When notice of appeal has been given, a certified transcript of the proceedings shall be made out by the clerk and transmitted to the district court of the county; such transcript shall not contain anything that does not relate to the decision, order or judgment appealed from. Transcript on appeal. Ib. §199.

Art. 2792. [2710] When notice of appeal has been given by the same person from more than one decision, order or judgment of the court in the same guardianship, at the same term, all of the appeals may be embraced in the same transcript. Several appeals may be embraced in same transcript, when. Ib.

Art. 2793. [2711] If there be not time to make out such transcript before the first day of the next term of the district court after such appeal is taken, it shall be transmitted to such court within sixty days after such appeal is taken. Transcript shall be made out, etc., within what time. Ib. §200.

Art. 2794. [2712] The appeal shall not suspend the decision, order or judgment, except in the cases mentioned in the succeeding article, unless the appellant, within twenty days after the entry of notice of appeal, shall file a bond in an amount fixed by the court at the time of entry of appeal, signed by two or more good and suf- Appeal shall not suspend decisions, etc., unless, etc. Ib. §201.

ficient sureties, payable to and approved by the clerk, conditioned that the appellant shall perform the orders and judgment which the district court may make therein, in case the decision be against him.

Appeal suspends decision, etc., without bond, when.

Art. 2795. [2713] An appeal suspends the decision, order or judgment, without bond—

1. When taken by a claimant from the disapproval of his claim.

2. When taken by the guardian or trustee, except where the controversy is respecting the rights of guardianship or the settlement of an account.

Judgment of district court shall be entered of record, etc.

Art. 2796. [2714] When a certified copy of the judgment of the district court in the case is received, it shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the county court as the judgment of such county court.

Judgment dismissing appeal, etc.

Art. 2797. [2715] Where a certified copy of the judgment of the district court dismissing an appeal or quashing a supersedeas is received, it shall be entered of record on the minutes of the county court, and the decision, order or judgment of the county court which was appealed from shall stand as if no appeal or supersedeas had been taken or obtained.

Appeal shall be tried de novo. (Act May 13, 1846.)

Art. 2798. [2716] Appeals from the decision, order or judgment of the county court or county judge to the district court in cases of guardianship shall be tried in the district court de novo, and the judgment of the district court therein shall be certified to the county court to be carried into effect.

Bill of review may be brought.

Art. 2799. [2717] Any person interested may, by a bill of review filed in the court in which the proceedings were had, have any decision, order or judgment rendered by such court, or by the judge thereof, revised and corrected on showing error therein. But no process or action under such decision, order or judgment shall be stayed except by writ of injunction.

Certiorari.

Art. 2800. [2718] Any person interested may also have any decision, order or judgment of the county court or county judge revised and corrected by writ of certiorari from the district court under the same rules and regulations as are provided in estates of decedents.

Article 2801. [2719] A secretary of state shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and shall be continued in office during the term of service of the governor by whom he was appointed.

Art. 2802. [2720] He shall keep a fair register of all the official acts of the governor, and when required shall lay the same and all minutes and other papers in relation thereto before the legislature, or either branch thereof.

Art. 2803. [2721] He shall keep his office at the seat of government or other place where the sessions of the legislature may be held; he shall, in a separate book suitable for the purpose, keep a complete register of all the officers appointed and elected in the state, and commission the same when not otherwise provided for by law; he shall arrange and preserve all the books, maps, parchments, records, documents, deeds, conveyances and other papers belonging to the state that have been or may be properly deposited there, and sealed with the seal of the state, and also similar copies of any act, law or resolution of the United States, or either of them, from the originals in his office; which copies shall be as legal and conclusive in evidence and to all intents and purposes in the courts of this state as the originals would have been; and he shall, when required, furnish the governor, the legislature, or either branch thereof, with such copies, and shall affix the seal of the state to all certificates of official character that may emanate from his office.

Art. 2804. [2722] He shall attend at every session of the legislature for the purpose of receiving bills which have become laws, and immediately after the close thereof shall cause all such bills and all the enrolled joint resolutions of the legislature to be bound together in a volume to be kept in his office, and the date of the session to be written or stamped thereon, a certified copy of which he shall deliver to the public printer, together with an index of the same, and he shall carefully examine and compare the printed copy with the certified copy and correct all the errors contained in the former.

His appointment and term. (Const., art. 4, §21.) (Act May 9, 1845.)

O. & W. 1818. Shall register governor's acts. Ib. §2. O. & W. 1819.

His general duties. Ib. §13. O. & W. 1820.

Shall receive and bind enrolled bills, etc. Ib. §4. O. & W. 1821.

Shall forward laws, etc., to certain foreign officials. (Act March 20, 1848.) O. & W. 1825.

Art. 2805. [2723] The secretary of state shall forward to the librarian of congress, to the secretary of state of the United States, to the secretary of the treasury of the United States, to the executive departments of all the states of the Union, to each foreign librarian or government with whom a system of literary exchange may be established, and to such associations and societies for the promotion of the arts and sciences as he may deem advisable, copies of all laws, judicial reports, maps, charts and other productions of a literary, scientific or political character printed or published by order of the legislature or at the expense of the state.

Disposition of books received.

Art. 2806. [2724] The secretary of state shall turn over to the person in charge of the state library, immediately upon their receipt, all books, maps, charts or other publications of a political or miscellaneous character received at his office; and he shall in like manner turn over to the librarian of the supreme court, at the capitol, all volumes of reports of the courts of any other state or territory received by him. All printed volumes of the statutes or laws of any other nation, state or territory the secretary of state shall deposit in his office, subject to the inspection and use of all officers of the state government and both branches of the legislature.

Copies of reports to be sent to whom. (Acts of 1887, p. 114.)

Art. 2807. [2725] The secretary of state shall deliver, by mail or otherwise, to each justice of the supreme court, each judge of the court of appeals, the attorney general, the assistant attorney general, the governor, each district judge of the state, each professor of law of the university of Texas, the librarian of said university, and to the county judge of each county for the use of the counties, one copy of the reports of the supreme court and courts of appeals, hereafter issued; also one copy of each of said reports to the circuit judge of the United States for Texas, and shall furnish to each district judge of the United States for Texas one copy of each of said reports for each branch of his court; and when it appears that any of the reports of either of said courts have been heretofore furnished and not returned to the department of state, or when they are hereafter delivered by the state to either of the said officers or authorities, the secretary shall have no authority to send another copy, except on proof that the same have been destroyed by fire, or have been rendered valueless by long use, to be evidenced by the certificate of the officer demanding to be resupplied with such report.

What officers entitled to receive copies of laws. (Acts 1885, p. 68.)

Art. 2808. [2726] The following officers shall be entitled to receive one copy each of all general and special laws hereafter passed by the legislature, to-wit: The governor and heads of departments, each member of the legislature, the judges of the several courts throughout the state, and the clerks of said courts, and each county attorney. The following officers shall be entitled to receive one copy each of all general laws hereafter passed by the legislature, to-wit: County attorney, county treasurer, county surveyor, sheriff, assessor of taxes, collector of taxes, inspector of hides and animals, justice of the peace, constable and county commissioner.

How distributed. (Act Feb. 2, 1850, p. 99, §3.) P. D. 4585.

Art. 2809. [2727] The secretary of state shall distribute the printed laws of each session of the legislature to the officers named in the preceding article, as follows: He shall mail or deliver in person to the governor and heads of departments, and to all state or district officers, a copy each, as therein provided; and he shall forward to the county judge of each county a sufficient number of said laws to supply each county officer named in the preceding article with a copy.

Art. 2810. The secretary of state is authorized to sell copies of the general and special laws of the state of Texas that have been or may hereafter be published, at a price not to exceed twenty-five per cent above cost of publishing; provided, that a sufficient number of all laws published be reserved from sale for the use of the state; and provided further, that any money realized in excess of the costs attending such sale shall be placed to the account of the general revenue in the state treasury.

May sell copies of laws. (Acts 1883, p. 33.)

Art. 2811. [2728] He shall distribute to the governor and heads of departments, and to each member of the legislature, a copy of the printed journals of both houses; and he shall also forward to the county judge of each county two copies of said journals, one to be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court and the other in the office of the clerk of the county court, for the use of said courts respectively.

Legislative journals, how distributed. Ib. §4. P. D. 4586.

Art. 2812. [2729] Whenever a digest or revision of the laws of the state has been or shall be subscribed for, or published by the state, a sufficient number of copies of each volume thereof shall be forwarded to the county judge of each county to furnish one of said copies to each judge of the supreme and district courts and courts of appeals, to each clerk of the supreme, district and county courts, and courts of appeals, and to each justice of the peace that may be a resident in said county; and it shall be the duty of said county judge to deliver one copy of each of said volumes to each of said officers that may reside in said county.

Digest of laws, how distributed. Ib. §5. P. D. 4587.

Art. 2813. [2730] The secretary of state shall also deliver to each of the executive officers at the seat of government one copy of each volume of any edition of a digest or revision of the laws of the state, whether such books shall be subscribed for or published by the state, which shall belong to said office; and the officer receiving any such volume shall be bound to deliver it to his successor, and shall be liable to pay his successor the costs and charges that may be necessary to supply the office with any book he may neglect so to deliver.

Executive officers entitled to copies. Ib. §7. P. D. 4589.

Art. 2814. [2731] Whenever any officer shall receive a copy of any report, statute, digest or journal, he shall receipt for the same to the officer distributing it, who shall file such receipt in his office; and said books shall be deemed to belong to the office of said officer to whom they are delivered, and shall, at all reasonable hours, be subject to the inspection and examination of any citizen of this state; and should any of said officers fail or refuse to deliver any of said books to his successor in office when demanded by him, the officer so failing or refusing shall be liable to pay such successor the costs and charges that may be necessary to supply the office of such successor with any of said books that he shall so fail or refuse to deliver.

Officers shall receipt for books. Ib. §6. P. D. 4588.

Art. 2815. [2732] The secretary of state shall forward to the clerk of the county court of each county, for the use of the county, one copy of all the acts of the congress of the United States which may be received in his office.

Shall distribute U. S. laws. (Act May 9, 1846, p. 139, §6.) P. D. 4582.

Art. 2816. [2733] The secretary of state shall appoint a chief clerk, and such number of assistant clerks as may be authorized by law, each of whom shall receive such compensation as may from time to time be fixed by appropriation.

May appoint chief and other clerks.

Art. 2817. [2734] In the absence of the secretary of state, or his inability to act from any cause, the chief clerk may perform all the duties required by law of that officer.

Chief clerk may act, when. Ib. §7. P. D. 5094.

His election and term of office. (Const., art. 4, §2.)

Article 2818. [2735] There shall be elected by the qualified voters of this state, at the time and places of election for members of the legislature, a comptroller of public accounts, who shall hold his office for the term of two years and until the election and qualification of his successor.

Vacancies, how filled.

Art. 2819. [2736] In case of a vacancy in the office of comptroller of public accounts, the governor shall fill the same by appointment for the unexpired term, which appointment shall be submitted to the senate for confirmation, if in session.

His bond and oath. (Act April 11, 1864, p. 68, §1.) P. D. 5413.

Art. 2820. [2737] The comptroller shall, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, give a bond, payable to the governor and his successors in office, for the use of the state, in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, with not less than six good sureties, to be approved of by the governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office; and shall take and subscribe to the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with the bond, shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, which said bond shall not be void on the first recovery of part or of the whole of the penalty; and shall thereafter continue in force for the whole amount of the penalty thereof, and may be sued on from time to time, and shall be deemed to extend to the faithful performance of the duties of his trust until his successor shall be duly qualified, and shall have entered upon the duties of his office.

Seal of office. Ib. §18. P. D. 5430.

Art. 2821. [2738] He shall procure, at the expense of the state, a seal with the words "Comptroller's Office, State of Texas," engraved around the margin, and a star with five points in the center thereof, which shall be used as the seal of the comptroller's office in the authentication of all his official acts, except warrants drawn on the treasury of the state.

His general duties. Ib. §2. P. D. 5414.

Art. 2822. [2739] It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to superintend the fiscal concerns of the state, and manage the same in the manner required by law; he shall also perform such official acts as were required of the Secretary of the treasury under the republic of Texas, when not otherwise provided by law.

To keep all accounts of state. Ib. §4. P. D. 5416.

Art. 2823. [2740] He shall keep and state all accounts between this state and the United States, and all other accounts in which the state is interested, and suggest plans for the improvement and management of the public revenue.

Art. 2824. [2741] He shall examine and settle the accounts of all persons indebted to the state, and certify the amount or balance to the treasurer, and direct and superintend the collection of all moneys due the state.

Shall settle accounts and superintend collections.
Ib. §5.
P. D. 5417.

Art. 2825. [2742] He shall require all accounts presented to him for settlement, not otherwise provided for by law, to be certified to by affidavit, taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, touching the correctness of the same, or by oath or affirmation, which may be administered by himself in any case in which he may deem it necessary.

Certain accounts to be verified.
Ib. §13.
P. D. 5425.

Art. 2826. [2743] He shall require all persons who shall have received any moneys belonging to the state, and shall not have accounted therefor, to settle their accounts; and shall, from time to time, require all persons receiving moneys, or having the disposition or management of any property of the state, of which an account is kept in his office, to render statements thereof to him.

Shall require settlements.
Ib. §7.
P. D. 5419.

Art. 2827. [2744] He shall audit the claims of all persons against the state in cases where provisions for the payment thereof have been made by law, unless the auditing of any such claim shall be otherwise specially provided for.

Shall audit claims against state.
Ib. §6.
P. D. 5418.

Art. 2828. All sheriffs, attorneys and all other parties holding claims against the state of Texas for which no warrants have been issued, and the appropriation for which has been exhausted, shall present the same to the comptroller of the state of Texas for his consideration at least thirty days before the meeting of each regular session of the legislature of the state of Texas.

Sheriffs, etc., to present claims for audit.
(Acts 1879, S. S., p. 32.)

Art. 2829. The comptroller of the state of Texas is authorized and directed to audit no claims against the state not presented in the time prescribed in article 2828, until all claims presented prior to that time have been considered and passed upon by him.

Shall not audit claims, unless.
Ib. §2.

Art. 2830. The comptroller of the state of Texas shall keep a book for the purpose of registering and indexing all audited claims against the state, and on the meeting of the regular session of the legislature shall make a minute report of the same to the two houses thereof, giving the names and amounts of all audited claims.

Claims to be registered and reported.
Ib. §3.

Art. 2831. [2745] He shall draw warrants on the treasurer for the payment of all moneys directed by law to be paid out of the treasury; and no warrant shall be drawn unless authorized by law; and every warrant shall refer to the law under which it is drawn, and no warrant shall be issued in favor of any person, or the agent or assignee of any person indebted to the state, until such debt be paid.

Shall draw warrants on treasurer.
P. D. 5429.
(Acts of 1846, p. 68.)

Art. 2832. No warrant shall be drawn on the treasurer of this state by the comptroller, based alone on the requisition of any individual or board, except as otherwise provided by law, but in all cases an account must be first filed, made in pursuance of some specific appropriation, and filed by some one duly authorized, which the comptroller may require to be verified by affidavit.

Warrant not to be drawn on requisition.
(Acts of 1835, p. 35.)

Art. 2833. [2746] He shall number each and every warrant he shall draw upon the treasurer of the state; the numbers shall begin with one at the commencement of each fiscal year, and proceed progressively to the end thereof; they shall specify on what particular account they are drawn; and he shall take a receipt for every such warrant from the person receiving the same, to be deposited in the files of his office.

Warrants to be numbered.
(Acts of 1846, p. 63.)
P. D. 5422.

If warrant is lost, duplicate may issue. (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 281, §1.)

Art. 2834. [2747] The comptroller of public accounts, when satisfied that any original warrant drawn upon the state treasurer has been lost, or when any certificate or other evidence of indebtedness approved by the auditorial board of the state has been lost, is authorized to issue a duplicate warrant in lieu of the original warrant or a duplicate or a copy of such certificate or other evidence of indebtedness in lieu of such original.

Prerequisites to such issuance. Ib.

Art. 2835. [2748] No such duplicate warrant or other evidence of indebtedness shall issue until the applicant has filed with the comptroller his affidavit, stating that he is the true owner of such instrument, and that the same is in fact lost or destroyed, and shall also file with the comptroller his bond in double the amount of the claim, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor, to be approved by the comptroller, and conditioned that the applicant will hold the state harmless and return to the comptroller, upon demand being made therefor, such duplicates or copies, or the amount of money named therein, together with all costs that may accrue against the state, on collecting the same.

If duplicate be improperly issued. Ib. §2.

Art. 2836. [2749] If, after the issuance of said duplicate or copy, the comptroller should ascertain that the same was improperly issued, or that the applicant or party to whom the same was issued was not the owner thereof, he shall at once demand the return of said duplicate or copy, if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the state, if so paid; and upon the failure of the party to return the same, or the amount of money called for, suit shall be instituted upon said bond in the court having jurisdiction of the amount in controversy, in the city of Austin, Travis county, Texas.

Monthly reports to treasurer. P. D. 5423.

Art. 2837. [2750] He shall furnish the treasurer of the state, at the close of every month, with a report specifying the warrants that have been drawn during each month, their numbers, their several amounts, and the names of the persons to whom payable.

Quarterly examination of treasury. (Act April 11, 1846, p. 68, §20.) P. D. 5432.

Art. 2838. [2751] The comptroller shall examine the disbursements of the treasurer at the end of each quarter, and shall, together with the treasurer, cancel the warrants which have been paid, in such manner as to prevent their future circulation, and shall examine if the receipts acknowledged by the treasurer during the quarter correspond with the deposits, and if the balance of money reported to be in his possession is actually in his hands.

Shall furnish forms and prescribe tax regulations. Ib. §12. P. D. 5424.

Art. 2839. [2752] He shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by all persons in the collection of the public revenue, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper assessment and collection of the revenues of the state.

To send to tax collectors lists of lands purchased at tax sales by state. (Acts of 1879, p. 79.)

Art. 2840. It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, on or before the first day of each year, to make out and forward to the collector of taxes in each county of the state, a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the state for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale, by payment or tender of payment to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the state, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed.

Art. 2841. [2753] The comptroller shall, from time to time, cause to be published at the expense of the state, in one or more of the newspapers printed therein, such instruction relating to the payment of moneys due this state, or the duties to be performed by the assessors and collectors thereof, as he may deem necessary.

And publish the same. (Acts of 1846, p. 68, §68.) P. D. 5428.

Art. 2842. [2754] He shall remit or make an allowance to every tax collector in the auditing of his accounts for all sums of money which in his judgment have been illegally assessed.

Illegal assessments may be remitted. Ib. §14. P. D. 5426.

Art. 2843. [2755] The account of the comptroller against the state shall not be passed to the treasurer until approved by the secretary of state.

His accounts, how approved. Ib. §15. P. D. 5427.

Art. 2844. [2756] All liens, mortgages, bonds and other sureties for money given to this state, or any officer, and being for the use of the state, unless otherwise specially directed, shall be deposited in the office of the comptroller.

State obligations to be deposited in his office. Ib. §17. P. D. 5429.

Art. 2845. [2757] The accounts of the comptroller shall be annually closed on the last day of August, and he shall exhibit all books, papers, vouchers, and all other matters pertaining to his office, for the examination of either branch of the legislature, or any committee which may be by them appointed, whenever required by them so to do.

Annual accounts, when closed. Ib. §19. P. D. 5431.

Art. 2846. [2758] In addition to the reports required by the constitution the comptroller shall exhibit to the governor on the first Monday of November of each year, and at such other times as he shall require, an exact and complete statement of the funds of the state, of its revenues, and of the public expenditures during the preceding year (or for such other time as may be required), with a detailed estimate of the expenditures to be defrayed from the treasury for the ensuing year, specifying therein each object of expenditure, and distinguishing between such as are provided for by special or general appropriations and such as are required to be provided for by law, and showing the means from which such expenditures are to be defrayed.

Annual report to the governor. Ib. §3. P. D. 5415.

Art. 2847. [2759] The comptroller shall appoint a chief clerk who, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall be required to take the oath prescribed by the constitution, and give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable in like manner as the bond of the comptroller, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, whose duty it shall be to keep the books of said office, and discharge the duties of the comptroller whenever said office may become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, or when the comptroller may be unavoidably absent, or incapable from sickness to discharge said duties.

Chief clerk and his duties. (Act Feb. 10, 1852, p. 83.) P. D. 5433.

Art. 2848. [2760] The comptroller of public accounts shall preserve the books, records, papers and other things belonging to his office, and deliver the same without injury or damage to his successor.

Shall turn over to successor. (Act April 11, 1846, p. 68.) P. D. 5421.

P. D. 5282.

New bond may be re-quired.
(Act May 3, 1873, p. 62, §3.)

Failing to give new bond.
Ib. §4.

Article 2849. [2761] There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state, at the time and place of election for members of the legislature, a state treasurer, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the election and qualification of his successor.

Art. 2850. [2762] Should a vacancy occur in the office of state treasurer, the governor shall fill the same by appointment for the unexpired term, which appointment shall be submitted to the senate, if in session, for confirmation.

Art. 2851. [2763] The state treasurer shall, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, give a bond payable to the governor and his successors in office, for the use of the state, in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, with no less than six good sureties, to be approved of by the governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office; and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with the bond, shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state; which said bond shall not be void on the first recovery of part, or of the whole of the penalty; but shall thereafter continue in force for the whole amount of the penalty thereof, and may be sued on from time to time, and shall be deemed to extend to the faithful performance of the duties of his trust, and until his successor shall be duly qualified and shall have entered upon the duties of his office.

Art. 2852. [2764] It shall be the duty of the attorney-general, with the comptroller, on the first days of June and December of every year, to examine the bond of the treasurer and make diligent inquiry into the condition of the sureties on said bond; and if, in the opinion of the attorney-general, said bond is not sufficient, from death, removal, insolvency of said sureties, or from any cause, to secure the state in her rights, then it shall be the duty of the attorney-general to notify said treasurer in writing of the insufficiency of said bond; and should said treasurer fail, for the space of twenty days from the date of such notice, to furnish a sufficient new bond, it shall be the duty of the governor forthwith to suspend said treasurer from office.

Art. 2853. [2765] Should the treasurer be suspended from office under the provisions of the preceding article, it shall be the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person treasurer, who shall give bond as in other cases, said bond to be approved by the governor; and the appointee shall perform the duties of treasurer until the suspended officer shall give a new bond to be approved by the governor, as in other cases.

Art. 2854. [2766] The treasurer shall receive on the warrants of the comptroller of public accounts all moneys which shall, from time to time, be paid into the treasury of the state, receipting for the same upon duplicate and triplicate warrants, which duplicate shall be deposited with the comptroller, and the triplicate given to the person depositing such moneys.

Shall receive moneys on warrant of comptroller. (Act March 19, 1846, §2.) P. D. 5283.

Art. 2855. [2767] The treasurer shall countersign and pay all warrants drawn by the comptroller of public accounts on the treasury, which are authorized by law, and no moneys shall be paid out of the treasury except on the warrants of the comptroller.

How money to be paid out. Ib. §3. P. D. 5284.

Art. 2856. [2768] He shall keep true, regular and methodical accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the public moneys of the treasury, and close his accounts annually on the thirty-first day of August, with the proper and legal vouchers for the same, distinguishing between the receipts and disbursements of each fiscal year.

Shall keep strict accounts. Ib. §4. P. D. 5285.

Art. 2857. [2769] He shall provide, at the expense of the state, all necessary books for the proper keeping of the accounts of the treasury; and he shall open therein an account in the name of "The State of Texas," in which he shall enter the amounts of all moneys, securities and other property in the treasury, and which may at any time be received by him; and shall state distinctly the several sources from which the revenue is derived, and the amount received from each.

How accounts shall be kept. Ib. §5. P. D. 5286.

Art. 2858. [2770] He shall also open an account in the treasury for all appropriations of money made by law, so that the appropriations and the application in pursuance thereof may clearly and distinctly appear.

An account for each appropriation. Ib. §6. P. D. 5287.

Art. 2859. [2771] In addition to the reports required by the constitution, the treasurer shall submit to the governor on the first Monday of November of each year, and at such other times as he shall require, an exact statement of the condition and situation of the treasury, and of the balance of money remaining therein to the credit of the state, with a summary of the receipts and payments of the treasury during the preceding year, or for such other period of time as may be specially required; and shall exhibit all books, papers, vouchers and other matters pertaining to his office for the examination of the legislature, or either branch thereof, or any committee which may be by them appointed, whenever required by them to so do.

Shall make an annual exhibit to the governor. Ib. §7. P. D. 5288.

Art. 2860. [2772] All moneys received by the treasurer shall be kept in the safes and vaults of the treasury, and it shall not be lawful for the treasurer to keep or receive into the building, safes or vaults of the treasury any money or the representative of money belonging to any individual, except in cases expressly provided for by law; nor shall it be lawful for said treasurer to appropriate to his own use, or loan, sell or exchange any money or the representative of money in his custody or control as such treasurer.

Public moneys and that only to be kept in the treasury. (Act May 3, 1873, p. 62, §1.) P. D. 5290.

Art. 2861. [2773] The treasurer shall appoint a chief clerk and such other employes as may be authorized by law, who shall receive such compensation as may, from time to time, be appropriated by law for that purpose.

May appoint chief clerk, bookkeeper, etc.

Art. 2862. [2774] The chief clerk of the treasury office is authorized to sign the name of the treasurer, by himself as clerk, whenever by reason of sickness, unavoidable absence or other cause the treasurer's name can not be affixed by himself; and the signature of the treasurer affixed by the chief clerk, as herein provided, shall be as valid as when affixed by himself.

Chief clerk may act, when and how. (Act Jan. 11, 1862, p. 44.) P. D. 5291.

Shall turn over to his successor. (Act March 19, 1846, p. 10, §8.) P. D. 5289. Art. 2863. [2775] The treasurer shall, at the close of his term of office, deliver into the possession of his successor the moneys, securities and all other property of the state, together with the books, vouchers, papers and evidences of property in his possession, and all other matters and things which pertain to the office of state treasurer.

Custodian of school fund bonds. (Acts 1895, p. 9.) Art. 2863a. The treasurer of the state of Texas is hereby made the custodian of all bonds in which the school funds of the state of Texas have been or may hereafter be invested, under the provisions of an act of the legislature, approved March 24, 1885, and also an act of the legislature approved February 1, 1889; and that it is hereby made his duty to keep said bonds in his custody until the same shall be paid off, discharged, or otherwise disposed of by the proper authorities of said state.

Duty with respect thereto. Ib. Art. 2863b. Said treasurer shall upon the payment of any installment of interest see that the proper credit is given, and that the coupons on said bonds when paid shall be properly separated therefrom and cancelled by said treasurer.

His election, term and salary. (Const., art. 4, §§2, 23.) Article 2864. [2776] There shall be elected by the qualified voters at the time and places of election for members of the legislature, a commissioner of the general land office, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the election and qualification of his successor in office, and shall reside at the capital during his continuance in office.

Vacancies, how filled. Art. 2865. [2777] In case of a vacancy in the office of commissioner of the general land office, the governor shall fill the same by appointment, which shall be submitted to the senate, if in session, for confirmation, and the person so appointed shall hold said office for the unexpired term.

His bond and oath. (Act May 12, 1846, p. 232, §5.) P. D. 4086. Art. 2866. [2778] The commissioner of the general land office shall, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties of his office, enter into bond with three or more sureties, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, for the use of the state, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties, and take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which bond, after being approved by the governor, shall, together with the oath, be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Seal of office. Ib. §6. P. D. 4089. Art. 2867. [2779] The commissioner of the general land office shall procure a seal of office with the words, "General Land Office, the State of Texas," engraved around the margin, and such other device as the governor shall approve, which approval shall be certified and recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

Art. 2868. [2780] It shall be the duty of the commissioner to superintend, control and direct the official conduct of all subordinate officers of the general land office, and to execute and perform all acts and things touching or respecting the public land of the state of Texas, or rights of individuals in relation thereto, as may be required of him by law.

His general duties.
Ib. §1.
P. D. 4091.

Art. 2869. [2781] The commissioner of the general land office shall give information to the governor, or either branch of the legislature, concerning the public lands, or the general land office, from time to time, as may be required.

Give information to the governor, etc.
Ib. §12.
O. & W. 1155.

[Note.—Article 2870, which was the act of 1879, requiring the commissioner of the general land office to furnish tax assessors with abstracts of all surveys of land in their respective counties, was stricken out by the joint committee on amendments to the civil statutes. See Sen. Jour., p. 479.]

CHIEF CLERK.

Art. 2871. [2782] The commissioner of the general land office shall appoint a chief clerk, who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the commissioner, and shall enter into bond, with three or more sureties, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, for the use of the state, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which bond shall be approved by the governor and filed in the office of the secretary of state.

for money.
Ib. p. 162,
§2.

Art. 2876. [2787] It shall be the duty of the receiving clerk to receive all funds that are required to be paid to the commissioner by existing laws, and to give to the person depositing money a certificate of deposit stating the amount, name of party, and character of claim upon which deposited, and if any funds are received of a general character in advance of fees and dues, it shall be so stated, and the receiving clerk shall be responsible therefor to the state or individual.

Shall register receipts and payments.
Ib.

Art. 2877. [2788] The receiving clerk shall keep a book or books, in which he shall enter each deposit separately, giving name of party, number of claim and situation of land sought to be perfected, and shall keep all letters and other vouchers filed in neat and regular order and number corresponding with his books, and shall make a report to the treasurer on the last day of each month of all funds in his hands due the state, paying the same in and taking the receipt in his own name in the same manner as heretofore required by law of the commissioner.

Shall report annually to the governor,
etc.
Ib. §3.

Art. 2878. [2789] It shall be the duty of the receiving clerk to furnish the governor, through the commissioner of the general land office, on or before the meeting of the legislature, a correct report of the condition of his office, the money received, giving character of claim, the money paid out and character of payment; and it shall be his duty to keep separate columns in his books, showing the amount of specie or the amount of currency or other funds paid in, and in his reports to the treasury he shall pay in kind all funds in his hands that belong to the state of Texas, and upon his removal or resignation shall turn over his books, accounts and money in hand to his successor, when properly qualified, or to the commissioner, taking a receipt for the same.

If defaulter, to be removed.
Ib.

Art. 2879. [2790] The commissioner shall from time to time examine the books and accounts of the receiving clerk and note that they are properly kept, and if any defalcation is found, shall report the same to the governor at once, who shall suspend him from office until an examination is made, and if found guilty, he shall be removed and proceedings instituted upon his bond to recover whatever deficit may occur.

Art. 2896. When any such property is sold under execution or order of sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the county, including executions issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias in the name of the state, the attorney or agent so representing the county, by and with the advice and consent of the commissioners' court, shall have the same authority to buy and dispose of such property for the county as the agent or attorney for the state is given in this chapter in similar cases; and when any property is so purchased by the agent or attorney of the county, the officer so selling the same shall execute and deliver to the county a deed of conveyance to the same; and whenever the property so bought in for the county is sold, the county commissioners' court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof a deed of conveyance in the name of the county to such property.

Art. 2897. Whenever the principal and sureties upon any judgment held by the state are insolvent so that under any existing process of law said judgment or any part thereof can not be collected, there shall be and is hereby constituted a board consisting of the attorney-general, comptroller and treasurer of the state, who are hereby empowered and authorized by such advertising as they may deem necessary to offer for sale at public outcry, or by private sale, as they may deem to the best interest of the state, all the right of the state to such judgment; and if by public sale, if the amount bid on the same should not be deemed sufficient, they shall refuse to accept the same, and dispose of the same in any manner deemed by them most advantageous to the interest of the state, and upon sale shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser.

Sale of judgments against insolvents.
Ib. §5.

Art. 2898. [2803] The attorney-general shall keep in proper books, to be provided for that purpose at the expense of the state, a register of all his official acts and opinions, of all actions and demands prosecuted or defended by him or any district or county attorney, in which any portion of the revenue of the state is involved, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver the same to his successor in office.

Ib. §12.
P. D. 209.

Art. 2899. [2804] All money received by the attorney-general for debts due or penalties forfeited to the state, shall be paid by him into the treasury immediately after the receipt thereof.

Shall pay over collections immediately.
Ib. §11.
P. D. 208.

Art. 2900. [2805] It shall be the duty of the attorney-general, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, whenever sufficient cause exists therefor, to seek a judicial forfeiture of the charters of private corporations; and he shall at once take steps to seek such forfeiture in all cases where satisfactory evidence is laid before him that any corporation receiving state aid has by the non-performance of its charter conditions or the violations of its charter, or by any act or omission, misuser or non-user, forfeited its charter or any rights thereunder.

Enforce forfeiture of charters, etc.

Art. 2901. [2806] He shall also especially inquire into the charter rights of all private corporations, and from time to time, in the name of the state, take such legal action as may be proper and necessary to prevent any private corporation from exercising any power or demanding or collecting any species of taxes, tolls, freight or wharfage not authorized by law.

And inquire into all charter rights.
(Const., art. 4, §22.)

Art. 2902. [2807] No admission, agreement or waiver, made by the attorney-general, in any action or suit in which the state is a party, shall prejudice the rights of the state.

No admission to prejudice.
(Act May 11, 1846, p. 206, §14.)
P. D. 211.

Art. 2903. [2808] The attorney-general shall reside and keep his office at the seat of government.

Office, where kept.
Ib. §15.
P. D. 212.

Art. 2904. [2809] The governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, if in session, an officer to be styled the "assistant attorney-general," who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the election and qualification of his successor.

His duties.
Ib.

Art. 2905. [2810] In case of the absence or inability to act of the attorney-general, the assistant attorney-general shall discharge the duties devolved by law upon said officer, and he shall also assist the attorney-general in representing the interests of the state in all suits, pleas and prosecutions in the supreme court and courts of appeals.

Further duties.
Ib.

Art. 2906. [2811] The assistant attorney-general shall represent the state in all cases in the district or inferior courts of any county when required so to do by the governor or attorney-general; and he shall, in addition thereto, perform such other duties as may be required of him by law or by the governor or attorney-general.

Governor authorized to order civil suits, when. (Acts of 1887, p. 138.)

Art. 2907. The governor is hereby authorized to order through the proper officials the institution, prosecution or defense of any civil action or suit whenever he deems such course proper for the assertion or defense of any right of the state, and to render to said officials such assistance as to him may seem necessary or expedient.

Appointment by the governor. (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 219, §2; Acts 1887, p. 99; Acts 1889, pp. 53-54; Const., art. 16, §38.)

Art. 2908. [2812] The governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, who shall be a citizen of the state and experienced in matters of insurance.

His term of office. Ib. §2, 5.

Art. 2909. [2813] The commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the appointment and qualification of his successor.

Vacancies in office, how filled. Ib. §27.

Art. 2910. [2814] The governor may fill any vacancy occurring in the office of commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, and report the name of the person so appointed to the senate, if in session, or at the next succeeding session of the legislature. Should the senate fail to confirm the appointment made by the governor within ten days after being advised thereof, then the said office shall be deemed vacant and a new appointment shall be made until the office is filled.

Oath and bond. Ib. p. 219, §3.

Art. 2911. [2815] Within fifteen days after notice of his appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, and shall give a bond to the state of Texas in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Art. 2912. Said commissioner may appoint a competent chief clerk and such other clerks as the labors of his office may require; and all clerks shall be removable at the pleasure of the commissioner.

May appoint clerks, their compensation. (Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 478.)

Art. 2913. [2816] The chief clerk shall possess all the power and perform all the duties attached by law to the office of commissioner during the necessary or unavoidable absence of the commissioner, or his inability to act from any cause. The commissioner shall be responsible for the acts of his chief clerk, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his position, take the oath required of the commissioner; he may also be required by the commissioner to enter into bond with security, payable to said commissioner, for the faithful performance of the duties of his position.

Qualifications of chief clerk. Ib.

Art. 2914. Said commissioner shall be styled the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, and shall have a seal of office, the design of which shall consist of a star with five points with letters composing the word "Texas" arranged between the respective points thereof, said seal to be not less than one and a half and not more than two inches in diameter, and on the margin thereof around the points of the star shall be inserted the words, "Department of Agriculture, Insurance, Statistics and History," or an intelligible abbreviation thereof. Such seal thus formed and impressed shall be the seal of the office of the department of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history.

Seal of office. (Acts of 1889, p. 53.)

Art. 2915. No person who is a director, officer or agent of, or directly or indirectly interested in, any insurance company, except as insured, shall be a commissioner or clerk, and it shall be unlawful for such commissioner, or any person employed by him or in any way connected with his office, to purchase all or any part of any mine or mineral land, to be in any manner interested in such purchase, during the term of his office or employment.

Who disqualified. (Acts of 1887, p. 99; Acts 1888, p. 10.)

Art. 2916. The duties of the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history shall be as follows:

Duties.

1. To execute the laws relating to insurance and insurance companies doing business in this state.

2. To execute the laws in relation to statistics and history.

3. To execute the laws in relation to agriculture as herein provided.

4. To have charge of the state library, and all books, manuscripts and other articles therein contained.

5. To cause to be bound the current files of not less than six nor more than ten leading newspapers of the state.

6. To obtain from every available source all reliable information and statistics relating to the population, wealth and general resources of the state.

7. To correspond with persons well informed in the history of Texas, and to solicit reliable information concerning the same as he may deem best.

8. To revise and digest such information in proper form, and he shall record the same in a well-bound book, carefully indexed for future use, and number and file the original documents in his office.

9. To keep a book in which he shall enter the names of persons furnishing data pertaining to Texas history.

10. To demand and receive from officers having them in charge all books, maps, papers, documents, memoranda and data not connected with or necessary to the current duties of said officers, relating to the history of Texas, and carefully catalogue, classify and preserve the same.

11. The attorney-general shall decide as to the proper custody of such books, etc., whenever there is any disagreement as to the same.

12. To preserve all historical relics, mementos, antiquities and works of art connected with and relating to the history of Texas, which may in any way come into his possession as such commissioner.

What volumes to be taken out.
Ib.

Art. 2917. It shall not be lawful for the commissioner to permit any manuscripts, papers, documents, relics, works of art or other property under his charge, except bound in volumes of books, to be taken from his custody, nor from the public buildings which have been assigned for their preservation.

Shall procure full sets of laws.
Ib.

Art. 2918. The commissioner shall procure and keep in the state library the general laws of the United States and of every state in the Union, and from time to time make such purchases of books and other articles as may be directed by law.

To report to the governor.
Ib.

Art. 2919. It shall be the duty of the commissioner to make such report of the business of his office and the information therein collected and preserved as the governor may require, and all such reports shall be by the governor laid before the legislature at its next session after they shall have been made and printed.

Shall procure archives, etc., from Mexico.
Ib.

Art. 2920. The commissioner shall endeavor to procure from Mexico the original archives which have been removed from Texas and relate to the history and settlement thereof, and in case he can not procure the originals, he shall endeavor to procure authentic copies thereof; also any and all papers relating to the early history of Texas.

Ex officio member of board of directors A. & M. college. (Acts of 1887, p. 99, §3.)

Art. 2921. The commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history shall be ex officio a member of the board of directors of the agricultural and mechanical college of the state, and allowed all necessary expenses in attending the meetings of the board.

Shall provide statistics of agriculture, etc.
Ib. p. 9.

Art. 2922. Said commissioner shall, through his department, correspond with the department of agriculture at Washington City, and with the department of agriculture of the several states and territories of the United States, and, at his option, with those of foreign countries and the representatives of the United States in foreign countries, with the view of gathering facts and information that will aid and advance the interests of agriculture in Texas. He may also, for the same purpose, correspond with such organizations, societies and associations in the state having for their object the promotion of agriculture in any of its branches, as he may choose, as well as such individuals as he may select in various parts of the state.

To furnish tax assessors blanks. (Acts of 1889, p. 54.)

Art. 2923. Said commissioner shall plan and arrange for collecting and publishing agricultural and farm statistics in such manner and numbers as he may deem best or the condition of the department will permit, and shall, before the first day of January of each year, furnish the tax assessor of the several counties in the state with the necessary blanks, together with such instructions as will properly direct them in that work, and such blanks shall contain only such questions as relate to agriculture, horticulture and stock raising.

Art. 2924. The annual reports of the commissioner shall be distributed through the state, and in such manner as the commissioner may deem best; and he may, whenever the means of the department will allow and the interests of agriculture require, take the necessary steps for publishing semi-annual or quarterly reports of the condition of the crops, stock and other matters relating to this department, and distribute the same in such manner as he may think will best promote the public good.

Distribution of reports.
(Acts of 1887,
p. 99.)

GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

Art. 2925. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history to have a geological and mineralogical survey made of the state of Texas, and for that purpose he shall employ such a number of competent persons, skilled in the science of geology and mineralogy, as shall be necessary to properly and expeditiously execute said work. The persons so employed shall be under the supervision and control of the said commissioner, and shall receive such compensation as the commissioner may direct, not to exceed two thousand dollars per year. The commissioner shall provide all necessary chemical apparatus, books, maps and stationery, and may employ such additional clerks as shall be requisite to a proper execution of such work, which clerks shall receive such compensation as he may deem proper, not to exceed nine hundred dollars each per year.

To have geological, etc., survey made.
(Acts 1888, S.
S. p. 10, §1;
amend., Sen.
Jour., 1895,
p. 478.)

Art. 2926. The commissioner shall cause to be made assays, analyses or other scientific examination of all beds or deposits of ores, coals, clays, marls and other mineral substances situated in this state as shall be requisite to a correct knowledge of the extent and value thereof. He shall also, in all proper cases, upon application, require like examinations, assays or analyses to be made of deposits, mines and lands situated in this state, and shall furnish proper certificates of the result of such examination, assays or analysis. He shall also, upon request of any person, require assays or analyses to be made of any specimen of soil or mineral deposit in this state, and shall also furnish to the party requesting it a certificate thereof; provided, that in all cases when assays or analyses are made upon request of any person, the party making the request shall be required by the commissioner to make affidavit that the specimen offered was found upon the land of the party making the request, or that said request is made at the instance or with the full knowledge and consent of the owner of the land upon which said specimen was found.

Commissioner shall cause
assays, etc.
Ib. §2.

Art. 2927. The commissioner shall preserve a record of this department of his office, and the information therein collected and preserved shall be reported to the governor as in case of other matters relating to his office. He shall also report to the governor before each session of succeeding legislatures, for information of the governor and such legislatures, all money expended and how and for what purpose such money was expended. He shall also report the amounts of money received from persons, corporations or syndicates for services rendered, specifying the amount so received. He shall also preserve specimens of minerals, coals, stones and other natural substances useful in agriculture, manufacturing or the mechanical arts, and shall from time to time, as far as practicable, add specimens of organic remains and other objects of natural history peculiar to this state.

Commissioner shall preserve records.
Ib. §3.

Commissioner to prescribe fees. Ib. §4.

Art. 2928. The commissioner shall prescribe a schedule of reasonable fees to be charged and collected from all persons having scientific examinations, assays or chemical analyses made, and for certificates furnished under this chapter, which fees shall, when collected, be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

Commissioner and employes prohibited from dealing in mines. (Com. amendment, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 478.)

Art. 2928a. It shall be unlawful for the commissioner of agriculture, insurance, statistics and history, or any person employed by him or connected with his office, to purchase all or any part of any mine or mineral lands, or be in any manner interested in such purchase, during the term of his office or employment. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be punished by fine as provided in the Penal Code.

Board of contractors. (Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 273, §1; Const., art. 16, §21.)

Article 2929. [2824] The attorney-general, treasurer and secretary of state are constituted a board of contractors, and required to contract with any suitable person or persons, firm or firms, who are residents of and doing business in this state, to furnish such fuel as may be required by law or needed by any department of the state government, except the judicial department, and said contracts shall be for the term of one year, and until a new contract shall be made and approved.

Duration of the contract. Ib.

Advertisement for proposals. Ib. §2.

Art. 2930. [2826] The secretary of state shall every year, and at such other times as are necessary, advertise for thirty days in one or more newspapers published in the city of Austin, and having the largest circulation for sealed proposals for furnishing such fuel, and shall in said advertisement state a time and place when and where said proposals shall be received and opened and contract awarded, not exceeding forty days from the date of the first publication of said advertisement; and he shall in said advertisement give such specifications and estimates of the probable amount and quality of fuel that will be required as may be practicable.

Proposals, how made. Ib. §2.

Art. 2931. [2827] All proposals shall be sealed and addressed to the secretary of state and shall be indorsed with the statement that they are proposals for fuel, and when received shall be filed carefully away by the secretary of state in his office, and the seals thereof shall not be broken until the day named in the advertisement for awarding the contract, and shall be opened in the presence of the contracting board and such bidders as may desire to be present.

Contract awarded to lowest bidder. Ib.

Art. 2932. [2828] The bids shall be examined by the contracting board, a careful comparison made, and the contract awarded to the lowest and most responsible bidder, whose bid shall be below such maximum rates as are hereinafter prescribed.

Art. 2933. [2829] Each bid shall be accompanied by a guarantee, signed by at least two responsible citizens, guaranteeing that if the contract be awarded to said bidder that he or they will enter into contract, and give a good and sufficient bond to carry out the same.

Bids to be guaranteed.
Ib.

Art. 2934. [2830] The party to whom any contract is awarded shall immediately after such award enter into bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the board of contractors, payable to the state, and with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the board, conditioned for the faithful performance of such contract, which bond shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state.

Contractor's bond.

Art. 2935. [2831] At any time after a contract has been made and entered into with any person or firm as herein provided, the legislature may annul said contract if not executed, and may alter or amend by enactment the maximum rates for such fuel. The board of contractors shall have power, and is hereby required when the legislature is not in session to cancel the contract whenever the party or parties fail to comply with the contract as promptly as the exigencies of the public service demand; and it shall be their duty to let out a new contract in the manner herein provided.

Rescission of contract.
Ib. §3.

Art. 2936. [2832] No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in said contracts, and all such contracts shall be in writing and signed by the board of contractors, and approved in writing by the governor, secretary of state and comptroller.

No officer to be interested in contracts.
Ib. p. 274. §5.

Art. 2937. [2833] The rate paid for fuel in said contracts shall not exceed six dollars and ten cents per cord for dry cedar, and five dollars and ten cents per cord for dry oak and other kinds of wood, except cedar.

Rate for fuel.
Ib. §6.

Art. 2938. [2834] The secretary of state shall keep a record of his proceedings and the proceedings of the board of contractors; and a majority of said board shall be competent to do business.

Record of proceedings.
Ib. §4.

Ib. §21.

Art. 2938b. The superintendent of public instruction shall be charged with the administration of the school law and a general superintendency of the business relating to the public schools of the state. He shall hear and determine all appeals from the rulings and decisions of subordinate school officers, and all such officers and teachers shall conform to his decisions, unless they are reversed by the state board of education. He shall prescribe suitable forms for reports required of subordinate school officers and teachers, and blanks for their guidance in transacting their official business and conducting public schools, and shall, from time to time, prepare and transmit to them such instructions as he may deem necessary for the faithful and efficient execution of the school laws, and by whatsoever is so communicated to them shall they be bound to govern themselves in the discharge of their official duties. He shall examine and approve all accounts of whatsoever kind against the school fund that are to be paid by the state treasurer, and upon such approval the comptroller shall be authorized to draw his warrant.

Shall file and index reports, etc.
Ib. §22.

Art. 2938c. The state superintendent shall file all reports, documents and papers transmitted to him and the state board of education by county or city school officers, and from all other sources, pertaining to public schools, and keep a complete index of the same.

Shall counsel with school boards; issue rules, instructions, etc.
Ib. §23.

Art. 2938d. The state superintendent shall advise and counsel with the school officers of the counties, cities and towns and school districts as to the best methods of conducting the public schools, and shall be empowered to issue instructions and regulations, binding for observance on all officers and teachers, in all cases wherein the provisions of the school law may require interpretation in order to carry out the designs expressed therein; also in cases that may arise in which the law has made no provision, and where necessity requires some rule in order that there may be no hardships to individuals, and no delays or inconvenience in the management of school affairs.

Shall have school laws printed and distributed, etc.
Ib. p. 188, §24.

Art. 2938e. He shall cause to be printed for general distribution such number of copies of the school laws as may at any time be necessary, to be determined by the state board of education.

Control, how vested.
(Acts 1889,
p. 95.)

Article 2941. The government of the house of correction and reformatory shall be vested in the governor, a board of control who shall be known as trustees, and the superintendent.

Trustees,
qualification,
compensation, etc.
Ib. §2.

Art. 2942. Said board of control shall consist of three trustees, to be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, and shall hold their offices for the term of two years unless sooner removed by the governor; provided, that such trustees, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall take the constitutional oath of office. Such trustees shall each receive the sum of five dollars per day and their actual expenses while engaged in the performance of their duties, for which the comptroller shall issue his warrant on their verified accounts approved by the governor, and two members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; provided, they shall not receive more than one hundred and fifty dollars per annum each.

Meetings and
trustees.
Ib. §3.

Art. 2943. Said trustees shall hold stated quarterly meetings at the reformatory, and shall convene at the seat of government, or at said reformatory in cases of emergency, when thereto called by the governor. It shall be their duty to make full and complete quarterly reports in writing to the governor, covering all the transactions at such meetings and during the preceding quarter, and on or before the thirtieth day of November of each year to make an annual report in writing to the governor, covering all transactions since their last annual report, fully exhibiting the condition of the institution, together with such suggestions as to the control, government and management thereof as they may deem necessary or requisite to the interest thereof.

Duties of trustees.
Ib. §4.

Art. 2944. It shall be the duty of said trustees to take control and supervision of the reformatory, and in this connection they shall elect one of their members chairman at their first meeting, and prescribe rules respecting the conduct of their meetings and business; and at the same meeting they shall formulate a set of by-laws, rules and regulations for the economic and efficient government and control of said reformatory and house of correction, having in view the objects to be accomplished by the establishment thereof, which by-laws, rules and regulations shall be reported to the governor for his approval, or for his amendment and approval, and when so approved or amended and approved the same shall become binding and of obligatory force upon the trustees, superintendent, subordinate officers, employes and inmates of said institution, and it shall be the duty of the trustees to see to the enforcement thereof, and of the laws of the state in relation to said house of correction and reformatory.

Art. 2945. The governor shall appoint a superintendent, who shall be financial agent for said reformatory and house of correction, and who shall receive for his services the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, to be paid quarterly on the comptroller's warrant, based on a verified account approved by the trustees. Such superintendent shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, and shall give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which bond when so approved shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state.

Superintendent, appointment, qualification, etc.
Ib.

Art. 2946. The superintendent shall have the entire control and management of the house of correction and reformatory, subject to the authority established by law and the by-laws, rules and regulations adopted by the trustees.

Entire control subject to board.
Ib. §6.

1. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to keep a register in which he shall enter the reception, previous moral character, habits and education, so far as can be ascertained, and the discharge, death, escape, commutation of time, and punishment inflicted on each person committed to the house of correction and reformatory.

Shall keep a register.

2. It shall be his duty to obey and carry out all written orders and instructions which he shall from time to time receive from the board or from the governor.

To carry out instructions of governor and board.

3. He shall reside at the house of correction and reformatory and be held responsible for the strict enforcement of the laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, and written orders of the trustees and of the governor; he shall see that the buildings are kept in good condition and that good order be observed in all departments.

Shall reside at reformatory.

4. He shall take the proper measures to promote the healthfulness and cleanliness of the house of correction and reformatory.

Sanitation.

5. He shall keep the books of the reformatory, fully exhibiting all moneys received and disbursed, the source from which received, and the purposes for which the same were expended. Said books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the trustees or of the governor, or any one appointed by the governor or the trustees to make such inspection.

Shall keep books.

6. Said superintendent shall make full quarterly reports in writing, under oath to the governor, showing in detail the fiscal operations of the reformatory since his last report; and it shall also be his duty to make an annual report of like character to the governor, on or before the thirtieth day of November of each year, covering in detail all the fiscal operations of the reformatory for the year last past.

Shall make quarterly reports.

7. He shall purchase all materials and supplies and disburse all moneys appropriated therefor, and shall sell all products raised and all articles manufactured by the inmates, and shall deposit all money realized from the sale thereof in the treasury of the state, taking the treasurer's certificate of deposit therefor.

Shall purchase supplies.

Art. 2947. All supplies for the house of correction and reformatory which are not therein produced or manufactured shall, so far as can be done advantageously to the state, be procured from the Supplies from penitentiaries, when.

Ib. §7.

state penitentiaries, under such rules and regulations as the trustees and governor may provide; and the laws and regulations of said penitentiaries, and the laws relating to and defining the mode and manner of furnishing supplies to the asylums, shall apply to and be complied with in procuring such other supplies as may be needed; and no officer of the house of correction and reformatory shall in any manner be interested in any contract made therefor.

Requisites of
by-laws.
Ib. §8.

Art. 2948. The by-laws herein provided for shall prescribe rules for the liberal commutation of time to be earned by the inmates for good behavior, and for apprenticing the inmates by the trustees, after a reasonable period of confinement, when deemed for the best interest of the house of correction and reformatory and the inmates, and for a term not longer than the time for which they were committed, and for tickets of leave, and for reasonable recreation, and for instruction in reading, writing, arithmetic, and habits of industry, sobriety, and in useful arts or trades; but the specification of any subject to be embraced in the by-laws shall not be construed as a limitation of the power of the trustees to make other rules, regulations and by-laws, as provided for in previous articles of this chapter.

Mechanical industries.
Ib. §9.

Art. 2949. In connection with said house of correction and reformatory there shall be established such mechanical industries as the board of trustees may deem proper and advisable, and the inmates shall be placed at such work as the superintendent shall designate; and the trustees shall especially provide that the white and colored inmates shall be kept, worked and educated separately.

Shall employ subordinates.
Ib. §10.

Art. 2950. The superintendent shall employ, with the advice and consent of the trustees, such subordinate officers, teachers and employes as the governor and trustees shall determine are requisite and necessary to the due conduct and administration of said house of correction and reformatory, whose salaries shall be fixed by the trustees with the approval of the governor.

Who shall be confined therein.
Ib. §11.

Art. 2951. In said house of correction and reformatory shall be confined all convicts heretofore transferred thereto or heretofore provided by law to be transferred from the penitentiaries of this state, and all male persons under sixteen years of age who shall hereafter be convicted of a felony in any court in this state, whose term of confinement shall not exceed five years; provided, said convicts confined in said house of correction and reformatory shall be required to wear such uniform as may be adopted by the trustees; and provided, no uniform shall be prescribed similar to that now worn by the convicts in the penitentiaries. It shall be the duty of the governor, upon the recommendation of the trustees and superintendent of said house of correction and reformatory, for good behavior and exemplary moral conduct during confinement, to restore to such convicts all their legal rights at the expiration of their respective terms of servitude.

Duties toward discharged persons.
Ib. §13.

Art. 2952. Upon the discharge of any persons so committed to said house of correction and reformatory, the superintendent shall provide them with a suit of suitable clothing and five dollars in money, and procure transportation for them to their homes, if resident of this state, or to the county in which they may have been convicted, or to such other place in the state at which said discharged inmate may have procured employment, at his option; provided, that such transportation shall not exceed that to the point from which said convict was convicted.

Art. 2953. If any person confined in the house of correction and reformatory shall escape therefrom, it shall be the duty of any sheriff or peace officer to apprehend and detain him, and to report the same to the superintendent of the house of correction and reformatory, and they shall be returned in the same manner and under the same laws as are provided for the return of convicts escaped from the penitentiaries. And it shall be lawful for any person to apprehend such escaped inmate, and it shall be the duty of any person who apprehends such escaped inmate to immediately deliver him to the sheriff or nearest constable of the county where such arrest has been made, who shall retain him until returned as hereinbefore provided.

Escapes.
Ib. §14.

Art. 2960. [2844] Whereas, many persons heretofore, previous to the passage of an act approved June 5, 1837, regulating marriages, and for other purposes, had, for the want of some person legally qualified to celebrate the rites of matrimony, resorted to the practice of marrying by bond; and others have been married by various officers of justice not authorized to celebrate such marriages; and whereas, public policy and the interest of families require a further legislative action on the subject; therefore, all such marriages are declared legal and valid to all intents and purposes, and the issue of such persons are declared legitimate children and capable of inheritance.

Art. 2961. [2845] In cases where persons have so intermarried agreeably to the custom of the times, and where husband or wife has since died, then and in that case the issue of such marriages are hereby legitimated. Issue legitimated. (Act Jan. 20, 1840.) P. D. 4672.

Art. 2962. [2846] All persons who at any time heretofore have lived together as man and wife, and both of whom, by the laws of bondage, were precluded from the rites of matrimony, and continued to live together until the death of one of the parties, shall be considered as having been legally married, and the issue of such cohabitation is declared legitimate; and all such persons as were so living together in such relation on the fifteenth day of August, 1870, shall be considered as having been legally married, and the children heretofore or hereafter born of such cohabitations are declared legitimate. Cohabitation of certain persons considered as marriage. (Act Aug. 15, 1870, p. 127.) P. D. 7120.

Separate property. (Act March 13, 1848.) P. D. 4641. (Const. art. 16, §15.)

Article 2967. [2851] All property, both real and personal, of the husband, owned or claimed by him before marriage, that acquired afterward, by gift, devise or descent, as also the increase of all lands thus acquired, shall be his separate property. All property, both real and personal, of the wife, owned or claimed by her before marriage, and that acquired afterward, by gift, devise or descent, as also the increase of all lands thus acquired, shall be the separate property of the wife; but during the marriage the husband shall have the sole management of all such property.

Community property. P. D. 4642.

Art. 2968. [2852] All property acquired by either husband or wife during the marriage, except that which is acquired by gift, devise or descent, shall be deemed the common property of the husband and wife, and during the coverture may be disposed of by the husband only.

Presumption as to community property. (Act Jan. 20, 1840.) P. D. 4638.

Art. 2969. [2853] All the effects which the husband and wife possess at the time the marriage may be dissolved shall be regarded as common effects or gains, unless the contrary be satisfactorily proved.

Wife may contract debts, when. (Act March 13, 1848.) P. D. 4643.

Art. 2970. [2854] The wife may contract debts for necessaries furnished herself or children, and for all expenses which may have been incurred by the wife for the benefit of her separate property, and for such debts suit may be brought in the manner prescribed in article 1201.

Judgment and execution in such cases. P. D. 4644.

Art. 2971. [2855] Upon the trial of any suit as provided for in the preceding article, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court and jury that the debts so contracted or expenses so incurred were for the purposes enumerated in said article, and also that the debts so contracted or expenses so incurred were reasonable and proper, the court shall decree that execution may be levied upon either the common property or the separate property of the wife, at the discretion of the plaintiff.

Husband failing to support wife, etc. (Act Jan. 20, 1840.) P. D. 4637.

Art. 2972. [2856] Should the husband fail or refuse to support his wife from the proceeds of the lands she may have, or fail to educate her children as the fortune of the wife would justify, she may, in either case, complain to the county court, which, upon satisfactory proof, shall decree that so much of such proceeds shall be paid to the wife for the support of herself and for the nurture and education of her children, as the court may deem necessary.

Community property liable for debts. (Act Aug. 26, 1856.) P. D. 4646.

Art. 2973. [2857] The community property of the husband and wife shall be liable for their debts contracted during marriage, except in such cases as are specially excepted by law.

Female under 21 emancipated by marriage. (Act March 13, 1848.) P. D. 4642.

Art. 2974. [2858] Every female under the age of twenty-one years, who shall marry in accordance with the laws of this state, shall, from and after the time of such marriage, be deemed to be of full age, and shall have all the rights and privileges to which she would have been entitled had she been at the time of her marriage of full age.

Art. 2975. [2859] The marital rights of persons married in other countries, who may remove to this state, shall, in regard to property acquired in this state during the marriage, be regulated by the laws of this state. Rights of persons married elsewhere. P. D. 4639.

Marriage may be annulled, when. (Act Jan. 6, 1841.) P. D. 3449.

Art. 2977. [2861] A divorce by separation from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed in the following cases: Divorce may be granted in what cases. (Act May 27, 1876, p. 16.) P. D. 3451.

1. Where either the husband or wife is guilty of excesses, cruel treatment or outrages toward the other, if such ill treatment is of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable.

2. In favor of the husband, where his wife shall have been taken in adultery, or where she shall have voluntarily left his bed and board for the space of three years with the intention of abandonment.

3. In favor of the wife, where the husband shall have left her for three years with intention of abandonment, or where he shall have abandoned her and lived in adultery with another woman.

4. In favor of either the husband or wife, when the other shall have been convicted, after marriage, of a felony and imprisoned in the state prison; provided, that no suit for divorce shall be sustained because of the conviction of either party for felony until twelve months after final judgment of conviction, nor then if the governor shall have pardoned the convict; provided, that the husband has not been convicted on the testimony of the wife, nor the wife on the testimony of the husband.

Art. 2978. [2862] No suit for divorce from the bonds of matrimony shall be maintained in the courts unless the petitioner for such divorce shall, at the time of exhibiting his or her petition, be an actual bona fide inhabitant of the state, and shall have resided in the county where the suit is filed six months next preceding the filing of the suit. Plaintiff must be resident in the state and county. (Act May 27, 1873, p. 117.) P. D. 3459.

Art. 2979. [2863] In all suits and proceedings for divorce from the bonds of matrimony the defendant shall not be compelled to answer upon oath, nor shall the petition be taken as confessed for want of an answer, but the decree of the court shall be rendered upon full and satisfactory evidence, independent of the confession Full proof required. P. D. 3452.

or admission of either party, and upon the verdict of a jury, if a jury shall have been demanded by either party, and if not, upon the judgment of the court affirming the material facts alleged in the petition.

Division of property.
P. D. 3452.

Art. 2980. [2864] The court pronouncing a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony shall also decree and order a division of the estate of the parties in such a way as to the court shall seem just and right, having due regard to the rights of each party and their children, if any; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to compel either party to divest himself or herself of the title to real estate.

Condonation, connivance
and collusion.
P. D. 3460.

Art. 2981. [2865] In any suit for divorce for the cause of adultery, if it shall be proved that the complainant has been guilty of the like crime, or has admitted the defendant into conjugal society or embraces after he or she knew the criminal fact, or that the complainant (if the husband) connived at his wife's prostitution, or exposed her to lewd company, whereby she became ensnared to the crime aforesaid, it shall be a good defense and a perpetual bar against said suit; or if it appears that the adultery complained of is occasioned by collusion of the parties, and done with intention to procure a divorce, or where both parties shall be guilty of adultery, then no divorce shall be decreed.

Legitimacy of children; parties may marry again.
P. D. 3453.

Art. 2982. [2866] A divorce from the bonds of matrimony shall not in any wise affect the legitimacy of the children thereof; and either party may, after the dissolution of the marriage, marry again.

Debts and alienations after suit
filed.
P. D. 3457.

Art. 2983. [2867] On and after the day on which the action for divorce shall be brought, it shall not be lawful for the husband to contract any debts on account of the community, nor to dispose of the lands belonging to the same; and any alienation made by him after that time shall be null and void, if it be proved to the satisfaction of the court that such alienation was made with a fraudulent view of injuring the rights of the wife.

Inventory and appraisement; injunction.
P. D. 3458.

Art. 2984. [2868] At any time during a suit for divorce the wife may, for the preservation of her rights, require an inventory and an appraisement to be made of both real and personal estate which are in the possession of the husband, and an injunction restraining him from disposing of any part thereof in any manner.

Temporary orders.
P. D. 3454.

Art. 2985. [2869] Pending any suit for a divorce the court or the judge thereof may make such temporary orders respecting the property and parties as shall be deemed necessary and equitable.

Alimony.
P. D. 3456.

Art. 2986. [2870] If the wife, whether complainant or defendant, has not a sufficient income for her maintenance during the pendency of the suit for a divorce, the judge may, either in term time or in vacation, after due notice, allow her a sum for her support in proportion to the means of the husband, until a final decree shall be made in the case.

Custody of children.
P. D. 3461.

Art. 2987. [2871] The courts aforesaid shall have power in all cases of separation between man and wife, to give the custody and education of the children to either father or mother, as to the said court shall seem right and proper, having regard to the prudence and ability of the parents, and the age and sex of the child or children, to be determined and decided on the petition of either party; and in the meantime to issue any injunction or make any order that the safety and well-being of any such children may require.

Costs.

Art. 2988. [2872] The court may award costs to the party in whose behalf the sentence or decree shall pass, or that each party shall pay his or her own costs, as to the court shall appear reasonable.

Article 2989. [2873] Judges of the district and county courts may, either in term time or vacation, grant writs of injunction, returnable to said courts, in the following cases:

Writs of injunction granted, when. (Const., art. 5, §§8, 16.)

1. Where it shall appear that the party applying for such writ is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, requires the restraint of some act prejudicial to the applicant.

2. Where, pending litigation, it shall be made to appear that a party is doing some act respecting the subject of litigation, or threatens, or is about to do some act, or is procuring or suffering the same to be done in violation of the rights of the applicant, which act would tend to render judgment ineffectual.

3. In all other cases where the applicant for such writ may show himself entitled thereto under the principles of equity.

Art. 2990. [2874] No injunction shall be granted to stay any judgment or proceedings at law, except so much of the recovery or cause of action as the complainant shall in his petition show himself equitably entitled to be relieved against, and so much as will cover the costs.

No injunction against a judgment, except, etc. (Act May 13, 1846, p. 363.) P. D. 3930.

Art. 2991. [2875] No injunction to stay an execution upon any valid and subsisting judgment shall be granted after the expiration of one year from the rendition of such judgment, unless it be made to appear that an application for such injunction has been delayed in consequence of the fraud or false promises of the plaintiff in the judgment, practiced or made at the time of or after rendition of such judgment, or unless for some equitable matter or defense arising after the rendition of such judgment. If it be made to appear that the applicant was absent from the state at the time such judgment was rendered, and was unable to apply for such writ within the time aforesaid, such injunction may be granted at any time within two years from the date of the rendition of the judgment.

Injunction to stay execution within twelve months, unless, etc. Ib. P. D. 3931.

Art. 2992. [2876] No writ of injunction shall be granted unless the applicant therefor shall present his petition to the judge, verified by his affidavit taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and containing a plain and intelligible statement of the grounds for such relief.

Injunctions granted on sworn petition. P. D. 3929.

Judge's fiat to be indorsed on petition.
P. D. 3933.

Art. 2993. [2877] If, upon the inspection of such petition, it shall appear to the judge from the facts stated therein that the applicant is entitled to the writ, he shall indorse on such petition or annex thereto his written order directing the clerk of the proper court to issue the writ of injunction prayed for, upon such terms and under such modifications, limitations and restrictions as may be specified in said order; and the judge shall also specify in such order the amount of the bond to be given by the applicant as a prerequisite to the issuance of the writ. If the injunction be applied for to restrain the execution of a money judgment or the collection of a debt, the bond shall be fixed in double the amount of such judgment or debt.

Notice to opposite party, when.

Art. 2994. [2878] Upon application for any writ of injunction, if it appear to the judge that delay will not prove injurious to either party and that justice may be subserved thereby, he may cause notice of such application to be served upon the opposite party, his agent or attorney, in such manner as he may direct, and fix a time and place for the hearing of such application.

Petition to be filed and cause docketed.

Art. 2995. [2879] Upon the grant of any writ of injunction, the party to whom the same is granted shall file his petition therefor, together with the order of the judge granting the same, with the clerk of the proper court; and if such writ of injunction does not pertain to a pending suit in said court, the cause shall be entered on the civil docket of the court in its regular order in the name of the party to whom the writ is granted as plaintiff and of the opposite party as defendant.

Writs, where returnable.

Ib.
P. D. 3932.

Art. 2996. [2880] Writs of injunction granted to stay proceedings in a suit, or execution on a judgment, shall be returnable to and tried in the court where such suit is pending, or such judgment was rendered; writs of injunction for other causes, if the party against whom it is granted be an inhabitant of the state, shall be returnable to and tried in the district or county court of the county in which such party has his domicile, according as the amount or matter in controversy comes within the jurisdiction of either of said courts. If there be more than one party against whom any writ is granted it may be returned and tried in the proper court of the county where either may have his domicile.

The bond for injunction.
P. D. 3933.

Art. 2997. [2881] Upon the filing of the petition and order of the judge hereinbefore provided for, in the proper court, and before the issuance of the writ of injunction, the complainant shall execute and file with the clerk a bond to the adverse party, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such clerk, in such sum as may be affixed in the order of the judge granting the writ, conditioned that the complainant will abide the decision which may be made therein, and that he will pay all sums of money and costs that may be adjudged against him, if the injunction be dissolved in whole or in part. If the state be complainant in any petition for injunction, no bond shall be required.

Clerk to issue the writ.

Art. 2998. [2882] When the petition, order of the judge and bond aforesaid are filed, it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue the writ of injunction directed in such order, in conformity with the terms thereof, and to deliver the same to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county for service and return.

The writ and its requisites.

Art. 2999. [2883] The writ of injunction shall be sufficient if it contains substantially the following requisites:

1. Its style shall be "The State of Texas."
2. It shall be directed to the person or persons enjoined.

3. It must state the names of the parties to the proceeding, plaintiff and defendant, and the nature of the plaintiff's application, with the action of the judge thereon.

4. It must command the person or persons to whom it is directed to desist and refrain from the commission or continuance of the act enjoined, or to obey and execute such order as the judge has seen proper to make.

5. It shall state the term of the court to which such writ is returnable.

6. It shall be dated and signed by the clerk officially, and attested with the seal of his office; and the date of its issuance must be indorsed thereon.

Art. 3000. [2884] If there be several persons enjoined, residing in different counties, a writ shall issue to each of such counties. Writs may issue in different counties.

Art. 3001. [2885] The clerk issuing any such writ of injunction shall deliver the same to the sheriff or any constable of his county, if the person enjoined be a resident of such county; if the person enjoined be a resident of some other county, the clerk shall forward such writ by mail to the sheriff or any constable of such county. To whom delivered.

Art. 3002. [2886] The officer receiving any writ of injunction shall indorse thereon the date of its receipt by him, and shall forthwith execute the same by delivering to the party enjoined a true copy of such writ, and the original shall be returned to the court from which it issued on or before the return day named therein, with the action of the officer indorsed thereon or annexed thereto, showing how and when he executed the same. Service and return of the writ.

Art. 3003. [2887] The party upon whom any writ of injunction is served shall obey the command thereof and refrain from the commission of the act enjoined so long as such injunction continues in force; or if the continuance of an act or acts be enjoined, the person enjoined shall immediately cease such act or acts and thereafter refrain from their continuance so long as such injunction remains in force. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be dealt with as hereinafter directed. Duty of defendant upon service of writ.

Art. 3004. [2888] Any injunction restrains the counselors, solicitors, attorneys, agents, servants and employes of the party, as well as the party himself. Injunctions restrain attorneys, etc., as well as the party.

Art. 3005. [2889] When any writ of injunction is issued, and such writ does not pertain to a suit pending in the court, the clerk of such court shall issue a citation to the defendant as in other civil cases, which shall be served and returned in like manner as ordinary citations issued from said court. But if any injunction is issued after notice to the defendant, as hereinbefore provided, no citation to such defendant shall be necessary. Citation to issue to defendants.

Art. 3006. [2890] The defendant to an injunction proceeding may answer as in other civil actions; but no injunction shall be dissolved before final hearing because of a denial of the material allegations of the plaintiff's petition, unless the answer denying the same is verified by the oath or affirmation of the defendant. The answer. P. D. 3929.

Art. 3007. [2891] In all cases of injunction, motions to dissolve the same without determining the merits, may be heard after answer filed, in vacation as well as in term time, at least ten days' notice of such motion being first given to the opposite party or his attorney. In such cases the proceedings upon such hearing, including the action of the judge upon the motion, shall be entered upon the minutes of the proper court by the clerk thereof, on or before Dissolution in term time or vacation. P. D. 3934.

the first day of the succeeding term of such court, and thereafter shall constitute a part of the record of the same.

Refunding bond on dissolution.
P. D. 3937.

Art. 3008. [2892] Upon the dissolution of any injunction restraining the collection of money, by an interlocutory order of the court or judge, made in term time or vacation, if the petition be continued over for trial, it shall be the duty of the court or judge to require of the defendant in such injunction proceeding a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court, which bond shall be payable to the complainant in double the amount of the sum enjoined, and conditioned to refund to the complainant the amount of money, interest and costs, which may be collected of him in the suit or proceeding enjoined, in the event such injunction is made perpetual on final hearing.

Judgment on such bond.
P. D. 3938.

Art. 3009. [2893] In the event such injunction is perpetuated on final hearing, the court may, on motion of the complainant, enter judgment against the principal and sureties in any bond taken in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article for such amount as may be shown to have been collected from such complainant.

Damages for delay.
P. D. 3935.

Art. 3010. [2894] Upon the dissolution of an injunction, either in whole or part, on final hearing, where the collection of money has been enjoined, if the court be satisfied that the injunction was obtained only for delay, damages thereon may be assessed by the court, at ten per cent on the amount released by the dissolution of the injunction, exclusive of costs.

Disobedience
a contempt.
P. D. 3934.

Art. 3011. [2895] Disobedience of an injunction may be punished by the court or judge, in term time or in vacation, as a contempt.

Procedure, in case of disobedience.

Art. 3012. [2896] In case of such disobedience the complainant, his agent or attorney may file in the court in which such injunction is pending, or with the district or county judge, as the case may be, in vacation, his affidavit, stating the person guilty of such disobedience, and describing the act or acts constituting the same; and thereupon the court or judge shall issue or cause to be issued an attachment for such person, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and requiring such officer to arrest the person therein named and have him before the court or judge at a time and place to be named in such writ.

Persons guilty to be imprisoned.

Art. 3013. [2897] On return of such attachment the court or judge shall proceed to hear proof, and if satisfied that such person has disobeyed the injunction either directly or indirectly, he shall be committed to jail without bail until he purges himself of such contempt, in such manner and form as may be directed by the court or judge.

General principles of equity applicable, when.

Art. 3014. [2898] The principles, practice and procedure governing courts of equity shall govern proceedings in injunctions when the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this title or other law.

Injunction by the State.
(Acts of 1888,
p. 10, §1.)

Art. 3015. The full right, power and remedy of injunction may be resorted to and invoked by the state at the instance of the county or district attorney or attorney-general, to prevent, prohibit or restrain the violation of any revenue law of the state.

Shall be cumulative.
Ib. §2.

Art. 3016. The right and remedy provided by the preceding article shall be cumulative of other laws in force in this state.

Article 3017. [2899] An action for actual damages on account of injuries causing the death of any person may be brought in the following cases:

Actions for injuries resulting in death, brought when. (Acts of 1860, p. 32; 1887, p. 44; 1892, S. S., p. 5.)

1. When the death of any person is caused by the negligence or carelessness of the proprietor, owner, charterer, hirer of any railroad, steamboat, stage coach, or other vehicle for the conveyance of goods or passengers, or by the unfitness, negligence or carelessness of their servants or agents; when the death of any person is caused by the negligence or carelessness of the receiver or receivers or other person or persons in charge or control of any railroad, their servants or agents, and the liability of receivers shall extend to cases in which the death may be caused by reason of the bad or unsafe condition of the railroad or machinery or other reason or cause by which an action may be brought for damages on account of injuries, the same as if said railroad were being operated by the railroad company.

2. When the death of any person is caused by the wrongful act, negligence, unskillfulness or default of another.

Art. 3018. [2900] The wrongful act, negligence, carelessness, unskillfulness or default mentioned in the preceding article must be of such a character as would, if death had not ensued, have entitled the party injured to maintain an action for such injury.

Character of wrongful act. Ib.

Art. 3019. [2901] When the death is caused by the willful act or omission, or gross negligence of the defendant, exemplary as well as actual damages may be recovered.

Exemplary damages. (Const., art. 16, §26.)

Art. 3020. [2902] The action may be commenced and prosecuted, although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amounts in law to a felony, and without regard to any criminal proceedings that may or may not be had in relation to the homicide.

Action commenced without regard to criminal proceedings. Ib.

Art. 3021. [2903] The action shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the surviving husband, wife, children and parents of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and the amount recovered therein shall not be liable for the debts of the deceased.

For whose benefit action to be brought. Ib. §2. P. D. 16.

Art. 3022. [2904] The action may be brought by all of the parties entitled thereto, or by any one or more of them for the benefit of all.

Who may bring the action. Ib.

Art. 3023. [2905] If the parties entitled to the benefit of the action shall fail to commence the same within three calendar months

Executor, etc., may bring the action, when. Ib.

after the death of the deceased, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator of the deceased to commence and prosecute the action, unless requested by all of the parties entitled thereto not to prosecute the same.

Suit does not abate by death of either party.
Ib. §4.
P. D. 18.

Art. 3024. [2906] The action shall not abate by the death of either party to the record if any person entitled to the benefit of the action survives. If the plaintiff die pending the suit, when there is only one plaintiff, some one or more of the parties entitled to the money recovered may, by order of the court, be made plaintiff and the suit be prosecuted to judgment in the name of such plaintiff for the benefit of the persons entitled.

Abates, when.

Art. 3025. [2907] If the sole plaintiff die pending the suit, and he is the only party entitled to the money recovered, the suit shall abate.

Executor, etc.,
of defendant
made party,
when.
Ib.

Art. 3026. [2908] If the defendant die pending the suit his executor or administrator may be made a party and the suit be prosecuted to judgment as though such defendant had continued alive. The judgment in such case, if rendered in favor of the plaintiff, shall be, to be paid in due course of administration.

Damages to be apportioned
by the jury.
Ib. §2.
P. D. 16.
