1964 SUPPLEMENT

This Supplement to Vernon's Texas Statutes includes the laws of a general and permanent nature enacted at the Third Called Session of the 57th Legislature and the Regular Session of the 58th Legislature. The sessions convened and adjourned as follows:

	Convened	Adjourned
Third Called Session, 57th Leg.	Jan. 3, 1962	Feb. 1, 1962
Regular Session, 58th Leg.	Jan. 8, 1963	May 24, 1963

This volume supplements the 1948 edition of Vernon's Texas Statutes and the 1950, 1952, 1954, 1956, 1958, 1960 and the 1962 Supplements.

The constitutional amendments approved by the voters on November 6, 1962 and November 9, 1963 are also included.

To assist the user in readily locating any article or section affected by legislation from 1949 through 1963, a special Table of Articles has been prepared and is printed on the colored pages herein.

Vernon's Texas Statutes 1948 and Supplements are under the same classification and arrangement as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes. This means that users of this popular edition may go from any article therein to the same article in Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes where the complete constructions of the law by the state and federal courts, as well as complete historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, are conveniently available.

The same practical features which have served to popularize the 1948 Edition, such as a complete index, tables, etc., are continued in the Supplements.

The Publisher extends appreciative thanks to the office of the Secretary of State, as well as to other state officials, for guidance and suggestions during the preparation of this work.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

ADOPTED

ARTICLE III

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

§ 49-b. Veterans' Land Board; bond issue; Veterans' Land Fund; purchase of lands and resale to Texas veterans

Sec. 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veterans' Land Board, which shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and two citizens of the State who shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Governor shall biennially appoint one such member to serve for a term of four years, with the initial appointments to the Board under this section to be for terms of two and four years, respectively, and all subsequent appointments to be according to provisions of this section. One such appointive member shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and the other such appointive member shall be well versed in finances. The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of the Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as may be now or hereafter provided by law. The compensation for said appointive members shall be as fixed by the Legislature, and each shall make bond in such amount as may be prescribed by the Legislature. The Veterans' Land Board may issue not to exceed Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Such bonds shall be executed by said Board as an obligation of the State of Texas, in such form, denominations, and upon the terms as are now provided by law or as may hereafter be provided by law; provided, however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum, and that the same shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest.

In the sale of any such bonds, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds; such bonds to be issued as needed, in the opinion of the Veterans' Land Board.

The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in this State, (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Prison System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm, or corporation. Provided, however, the portion of the Veterans' Land Fund not immediately committed for the purchase of lands may be invested in short term United States bonds or obligations until such funds are needed for the purchase of lands. The interest accruing thereon shall become a part of the Veterans' Land Fund.

All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veterans' Land Fund.

The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, and to Texas veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative Act, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now provided by law, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

All monies received and which have been received under the Constitutional Amendment as adopted by the people of Texas at the election held on November 13, 1951, and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of lands and for interest on deferred payments, shall be credited to the Veterans' Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be sold to Texas veterans of World War II, and to Texas veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative Act, in like manner as provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of the bonds, provided for herein, for a period ending December 1, 1959; provided, however, that so much of such monies as may be necessary during the period ending December 1, 1959, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds heretofore issued and on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board, shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1959, all monies received by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of the lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of bonds heretofore issued and to pay interest thereon, and any of such monies not so needed shall not later than the maturity date of the last maturing bond or bonds be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute obligations of the State under the Constitution of Texas. Of the total Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of bonds herein authorized, the sum of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) has heretofore been issued; said bonds heretofore issued are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be obligations of the State of Texas.

The additional bonds herein authorized may be sold in such installments as deemed necessary and advisable by the Veterans' Land Board. All monies received from the sale of land and for interest on deferred payments on land purchased with the proceeds of such additional bonds, shall be credited to the Veterans' Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be sold to Texas veterans, as herein provided, in like manner as provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of the bonds provided for herein, for a period ending December 1, 1965; provided, however, that so much of such monies as may be necessary to pay interest on the additional bonds herein provided for shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965, all monies received by the

Veterans' Land Board from the sale of the lands and interest on payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of said additional bonds and to pay interest thereon, and any of such monies not so needed shall not later than the maturity date of the last maturing bond be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law.

The foregoing notwithstanding, bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board pursuant to the authority of this Section 49-b of the Constitution may bear a rate or rates of interest not to exceed three and one-half percent ($3\frac{1}{2}\%$) per annum.

The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans Land Fund which have been first offered for resale to veterans and which have not been sold may be resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now provided by law, or as may hereafter be provided by law. As amended Nov. 6, 1956; Nov. 8, 1960; Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 49—d. Texas Water Development Board; acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs

Sec. 49-d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the State, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. To this end, and with the approval of the Board of Water Engineers or its successor, the proceeds from the sale of State bonds deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund as provided in Article III, Section 49-c of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities, for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes in and from reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, by any one or more of the following governments or governmental agencies: by the United States of America or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations.

Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, the Texas Water Development Board may also, with the approval of the Board of Water Engineers or its successor, execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas in the same manner and with the same effect as State bonds issued under the authority of the preceding Section 49-c of this Constitution, and the provisions in said Section 49-c with respect to payment of principal and interest on State bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to payment of principal and interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the State's investment.

CONSTITUTION

The aggregate of the bonds authorized by said Section 49-c, plus the principal of the obligations incurred under any contracts authorized hereunder, shall not exceed the Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds authorized by said Section 49-c of Article III of this Constitution.

The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities at a price not less than the direct cost of the Board in acquiring same; and the Legislature may provide terms and conditions for the Board to sell any unappropriated public waters of the State that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage or water, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Board of Water Engineers or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities shall be used to pay principal and interest on State bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are sufficient to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities may be used for the acquisition of additional storage facilities or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49-c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby service, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 51-a. Payment of Assistance to Needy Aged, Needy Blind and Needy Children

Sec. 51-a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations and restrictions herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may by the Legislature be deemed expedient, for assistance to, and for the payment of assistance to:

(1) Needy aged persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas, and who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate; provided that the Legislature shall prescribe the residence requirements for eligibility; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to any individual recipient shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of such assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such recipients shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds.

(2) Needy individuals, who are citizens of the United States, who shall have passed their eighteenth (18th) birthday but have not passed their sixty-fifth (65th) birthday, who are totally and permanently disabled by reason of a mental or physical handicap or a combination of physical and mental handicaps and not feasible for vocational rehabilitation; provided that the Legislature shall prescribe the residence requirements for eligibility; provided further, that no individual shall receive assistance under this program for the permanently and totally disabled during any period when he is receiving Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Needy Blind, or Aid to Dependent Children, nor while he is residing permanently in any completely state-supported institution; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to any individual recipient shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of such assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such recipients shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds.

(3) Needy blind persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas, and are over the age of twenty-one (21) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate; provided that the Legislature shall prescribe the residence requirements for eligibility; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to any individual recipient shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of such assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such recipients shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds.

(4) Needy children who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas, and are under the age of sixteen (16) years; provided that the Legislature shall prescribe the residence requirements for eligibility; provided that the maximum amount paid out of state funds to any individual recipient shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of such assistance payments out of state funds on behalf of such recipients shall not exceed the amount that is matchable out of federal funds.

The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States such financial aid for such assistance as such Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions herein set forth; provided, however, that the amount of such assistance out of state funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount matchable out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of money to be expended per year out of state funds for such assistance shall never exceed Sixty Million Dollars ($60,000,000).

The Legislature may enact appropriate laws to make lists of the recipients of aid hereunder available for inspection, under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed appropriate by the Legislature. As amended Nov. 5, 1957; Nov. 6, 1962; Nov. 9, 1963.

Subsection 51a—2. Payments for medical care of needy persons of 65 years of age or over Proposed addition of this section by S.J.R.No.10, see page LXXV.

Sec. 51-b-1. Assistance for totally and permanently disabled individuals Amendment proposed by S.J.R. No. 21, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1804, adopted by the voters at election held on Nov. 9, 1963, amended this section and section 51-a so as to consist of one section designated section 51-a. See, section 51-a, ante.

§ 60. Workmen's compensation insurance for employees of counties and other political subdivisions

CONSTITUTION

Sec. 60. The Legislature shall have the power to pass such laws as may be necessary to enable all counties and other political subdivisions of this State to provide Workman's Compensation Insurance, including the right to provide its own insurance risk, for all employees of the county or political subdivision as in its judgment is necessary or required; and the Legislature shall provide suitable laws for the administration of such insurance in the counties or political subdivisions of this State and for the payment of the costs, charges and premiums on such policies of insurance and the benefits to be paid thereunder. As amended Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 62. Continuity of State and Local Governmental Operations

Sec. 62. The Legislature, in order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency resulting from disasters caused by enemy attack, shall have the power and the immediate duty to provide for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, except members of the Legislature, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices. Provided, however, that Article I of the Constitution of Texas, known as the "Bill of Rights" shall not be in any manner, affected, amended, impaired, suspended, repealed or suspended hereby. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

ARTICLE VII

EDUCATION

§ 3—b. Independent school districts within Dallas County; change in boundaries; taxes and bonds

Sec. 3—b. No tax for the maintenance of public free schools voted in any independent school district, the major portion of which is located in Dallas County, nor any bonds voted in any such district, but unissued, shall be abrogated, canceled or invalidated by change of any kind in the boundaries thereof. After any change in boundaries, the governing body of any such district, without the necessity of an additional election, shall have the power to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within the boundaries of the district as changed, for the purposes of the maintenance of public free schools and the payment of principal of and interest on all bonded indebtedness outstanding against, or attributable, adjusted or allocated to, such district or any territory therein, in the amount, at the rate, or not to exceed the rate, and in the manner authorized in the district prior to the change in its boundaries, and further in accordance with the laws under which all such bonds, respectively, were voted; and such governing body also shall have the power, without the necessity of an additional election, to sell and deliver any unissued bonds voted in the district prior to any such change in boundaries, and to assess, levy and collect ad valorem taxes on all taxable property in the district as changed, for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds in the manner permitted by the laws under which such bonds were voted. In those instances where the boundaries of any such independent school district are changed by the annexation of, or consolidation with, one or more whole school districts, the taxes to be levied for the purposes hereinabove authorized may be in the amount or at not to exceed the rate theretofore voted in the district having at the time of such change the greatest scholastic population according to the latest scholastic census and only the unissued bonds of such district voted prior to such change, may be subsequently sold and delivered and any voted, but unissued, bonds of other school districts involved in such annexation or consolidation shall not thereafter be issued. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 5. Permanent school fund; available school fund; use of funds; distribution of available school fund

Proposed amendment of this section by S.J.R.No.6, see page LXXV.

ARTICLE IX

COUNTIES

§ 1—A. Counties bordering on Gulf of Mexico or tidewater limits thereof; regulation of motor vehicles on beaches

Sec. 1—A. The Legislature may authorize the governing body of any county bordering on the Gulf of Mexico or the tidewater limits thereof to regulate and restrict the speed, parking and travel of motor vehicles on beaches available to the public by virtue of public right and the littering of such beaches.

Nothing in this amendment shall increase the rights of any riparian or littoral landowner with regard to beaches available to the public by virtue of public right or submerged lands.

The Legislature may enact any laws not inconsistent with this Section which it may deem necessary to permit said counties to implement, enforce and administer the provisions contained herein.

Should the Legislature enact legislation in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 9. Hospital districts; creation, operation, powers and duties

Sec. 9. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of hospital districts composed of one or more counties or all or any part of one or more counties with power to issue bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes; providing for the transfer to the hospital district of the title to any land, buildings, improvements and equipment located wholly within the district which may be jointly or separately owned by any city, town or county, providing that any district so created shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and assume the outstanding indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the district, if same are located wholly within its boundaries, and a pro rata portion of such indebtedness based upon the then last approved tax assessment rolls of the included cities, towns and counties if less than all the territory thereof is included within the district boundaries; providing that after its creation no other municipality or political subdivision shall have the power to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within the boundaries of the district; providing for the levy of annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the one hundred dollar valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, providing that such district shall not be created or such tax authorized unless approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors thereof voting at an election called for the purpose; and providing further that the support and maintenance of the district's hospital system shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such district.

Provided, however, that no district shall be created except by act of the Legislature and then only after thirty (30) days' public notice to the district affected, and in no event may the Legislature provide for a district to be created without the affirmative vote of a majority of the taxpaying voters in the district concerned. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

§ 11. Hospital districts; Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins counties; creation; taxes

Sec. 11. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of hospital districts in Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties, each district to be coextensive with the limits of such county.

If any such district is created, it may be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property within the district; provided, however, no tax may be levied until approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property-taxpaying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation. The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections so long as obligations are not impaired, and not to exceed the maximum limit of Seventy-five Cents (75¢) per One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation.

If such tax is authorized, no political subdivision or municipality within or having the same boundaries as the district may levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, nor shall they maintain or erect hospital facilities, but the district shall by resolution assume all such responsibilities and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations (including bonds and warrants) of such subdivisions or municipalities or both. The maximum tax rate submitted shall be sufficient to discharge obligations, liabilities, and responsibilities, and to maintain and operate the hospital system, and the Legislature may authorize the district to issue tax bonds for the purpose of the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements and initially equipping the same, and such bonds shall be payable from said Seventy-five Cent¹ (75¢) tax. The Legislature shall provide for transfer of title to properties to the district.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of the amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character. Added Nov. 6, 1962.

ARTICLE III

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

§ 51a—2. Payment for medical care of needy persons of 65 years of age or over Subsection 51a-2. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by General Laws and to make payment for same, under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for direct or vendor payments for medical care on behalf of needy individuals sixty-five (65) years of age or over who are not recipients of Old Age Assistance, and who are unable to pay for needed medical services. The payments for such medical assistance on behalf of such needy individuals shall be in such amounts as provided by the Legislature; provided, however, that the amounts paid out of state funds for such purposes shall never exceed the amount that is matchable out of Federal funds for such purposes; provided further, however, that such medical care, services or assistance shall also include the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision.

The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States, such financial aid in the form of medical assistance on behalf of the needy individuals sixty-five (65) years of age or over who are not recipients of Old Age Assistance, and who are unable to pay for needed medical services, as such Government may offer not inconsistent with restrictions herein set forth.

Proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1799. For submission to the people Nov. 3, 1964.

ARTICLE VII

EDUCATION

§ 5. Permanent school fund; available school fund; use of funds; distribution of available school fund

Sec. 5. The principal of all bonds and other funds, and the principal arising from the sale of the lands hereinbefore set apart to said school fund, shall be the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable therefrom and the taxes herein authorized and levied shall be the available school fund. The available school fund shall be applied annually to the support of the public free schools. And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same, or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties according to their scholastic population and applied in such manner as may be provided by law.

Proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1798. For submission to the people Nov. 3, 1964.

ARTICLE XVI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

* * * * *

§ 59. Conservation and development of natural resources; conservation and reclamation districts

* * * * *

(d) No law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless notice of the intention to introduce such a bill setting forth the general substance of the contemplated law shall have been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction thereof in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in the county or counties in which said district or any part thereof is or will be located and by delivering a copy of such notice and such bill to the Governor who shall submit such notice and bill to the Texas Water Commission, or its successor, which shall file its recommendation as to such bill with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives within thirty (30) days from date notice was received by the Texas Water Commission. Such notice and copy of bill shall also be given of the introduction of any bill amending a law creating or governing a particular conservation and reclamation district if such bill (1) adds additional land to the district, (2) alters the taxing authority of the district, (3) alters the authority of the district with respect to the issuance of bonds, or (4) alters the qualifications or terms of office of the members of the governing body of the district.

Proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 8, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1808. For submission to the people Nov. 3, 1964.

Sec. 62. State and county retirement, disability and death compensation funds

* * * * *

(c) Each political subdivision within Jefferson County, Texas, shall have the right to provide for and administer a Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for all appointed officers and employees of all political subdivisions within Jefferson County, Texas; or said political subdivision may elect to join the County Retirement System of Jefferson County; provided that same is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such political subdivision and after such election has been advertised by being published in at least one (1) newspaper of general circulation in said county once each week for four (4) consecutive weeks; provided that the amount contributed by the said political subdivision to such Fund shall at least equal the amount paid for the same purposes from the income of each such person and shall not exceed at any time seven and one-half per centum (7½%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the political subdivision.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

All funds provided for the compensation of each such person, or by the political subdivision of Jefferson County, Texas, for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the political subdivision within said county, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties or cities of this state, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States, provided that a sufficient amount of said funds shall be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said Fund; and providing that the recipients of benefits for said Fund shall not be eligible for any other pension retirement fund or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless the Fund, the creation of which is provided for herein, contributed by the political subdivision is released to the State of Texas as a condition to receiving such other pension aid.

Proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 26, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1806. For submission to the people Nov. 3, 1964.

VERNON'S
REVISED CIVIL STATUTES OF THE
STATE OF TEXAS

TITLE 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 17. Commencement of term of office

The regular terms of office for all elective state, district, county and precinct offices of the State of Texas, excepting the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Senator, and State Representative, shall begin on the first day of January next following the general election at which said respective offices are regularly filled, and those who are elected to regular terms shall qualify and assume the duties of their respective offices on the first day of January following their election, or as soon thereafter as possible. Persons elected to unexpired terms in the various state, district, county and precinct offices shall be entitled to qualify and assume the duties of their respective offices immediately upon receiving a certificate of election, which certificate shall be issued immediately following the official canvass of the results of the election at which they were elected, and they shall take office as soon thereafter as possible. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 5.

which amended this article, also repealed date of adjournment.

Art. 23. [5504] [3270] Definitions

Official notice of federal decennial census, see art. 29d.

Art. 28a. Legal publications, definitions

The following terms shall, unless the context indicates otherwise, have the following respective meanings:

(1) The term "publication" shall mean any proclamation, notice, citation, advertisement, or other matter required or authorized by law to be printed in a newspaper or newspapers by any institution, board, commission, department, officer, agent, representative, or employee of the State or of any subdivision or department of the State, or of any county, political subdivision, or district of whatever nature within the State, whether to be paid for out of public funds or charged as costs or fees.

(2) The term "newspaper" shall mean any newspaper devoting not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of its total column lineage to the carrying of items of general interest, published not less frequently than once each week, entered as second-class postal matter in the county where published, and having been published regularly and continuously for not less than twelve (12) months prior to the making of any publication mentioned in this Act, except that any weekly newspaper shall be allowed to omit two (2) publication issues in twelve (12) months and still retain its status as a newspaper eligible to make any publication mentioned in this Act.

(3) The term "political subdivision" shall include cities, towns, and villages, but this definition shall not be exclusive.

(4) The term "district" shall include school districts of every kind, road districts, drainage districts, irrigation districts, levee improvement districts, conservation and reclamation districts, and improvement districts of every kind, but this definition shall not be exclusive.

(5) The term "shall" whenever used in this Act shall be construed as indicating mandatory provisions in this Act.

(6) The officer, employee, agency, or persons charged with the duty of inserting any publication in a newspaper or newspapers shall select the newspaper or newspapers in which such publication is to be inserted. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 462, ch. 163, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Advertising for owners of dormant or inactive savings accounts, see art. 3272b, § 3.

Art. 29d. Official notice of federal decennial census

Section 1. Neither the state nor any political subdivision or agency thereof shall ever officially recognize or act upon any report or publication, in whatever form, of any Federal Decennial Census, either as a whole or as to any part thereof, before the first day of January of the year immediately following the calendar year during which such census was taken.

Sec. 2. As of the first day of January of the year immediately following the calendar year during which said census was taken, the state and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof shall recognize and act upon the population reports or counts as released by the Director of the Bureau of the Census of the U. S. Department of Commerce, or of its successor agency; and as to those parts of such population reports or counts not then published, official recognition shall be taken immediately upon the publication thereof after said first day of January. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1151, ch. 447.

Consent of parents and child; exceptions

Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, no adoption shall be permitted except with the written consent of the living parents of the child; provided, however, that if a living parent or parents shall voluntarily abandon and desert a child sought to be adopted, for a period of two (2) years, and shall have left such child to the care, custody, control and management of other persons, or if such parent or parents shall have not contributed substantially to the support of such child during such period of two (2) years commensurate with his financial ability, then, in either event, it shall not be necessary to obtain the written consent of the living parent or parents in such default, and in such cases adoption shall be permitted on the written consent of the Judge of the Juvenile Court of the county of such child's residence; or if there be no Juvenile Court, then on the written consent of the Judge of the County Court of the county of such child's residence.

In a case of a child fourteen (14) years of age or over, the consent of such child also shall be required and must be given in writing in the presence of the court.

Consent shall not be required of parents whose parental rights have been terminated by order of the Juvenile Court or other court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that in such cases adoption shall be permitted only upon the written order of the court terminating such parental rights. Such written order of the court giving consent for the adoption of such child shall be confidential and shall be filed with and made a part of the confidential records in the adoption proceedings, and shall be open for inspection only under such conditions and through such procedures as are prescribed by law for the inspection of the confidential adoption records in the court.

In case of a child not born in lawful wedlock the consent of the father shall not be necessary, and the consent of the natural mother, regardless of her age, shall suffice.

In the case of a child placed by its parents in a child-placing agency or institution licensed by the State Department of Public Welfare to place children for adoption, it shall be sufficient for the living parents to consent in writing that such agency or institution place such child for adoption, and no further consent shall be required of such living parent.

In the case of any consent by the natural parents as herein required to the adoption of a minor child, regardless of whether or not said child was born in lawful wedlock, such consent shall be sufficient if given in writing after the birth of said child and duly acknowledged, giving the name, date and place of birth of said child, and shall agree to permanently surrender the care, custody, and parental authority of and over said child, and consent to its adoption upon judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of reciting therein the names of the parents by adoption. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 737, ch. 344, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 941, ch. 370, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

AIRPORT ZONING REGULATIONS

Art. 46e—3. Power to adopt airport zoning regulations

(2) Where an airport is owned or controlled by a political subdivision or where an airport owned or operated by a defense agency of the federal government or the State of Texas is located within the territorial limits of a political subdivision and any airport hazard area appertaining to such airport is located outside the territorial limits of said political subdivision, the political subdivision owning or controlling the airport or the political subdivision within whose territorial limits the airport owned or operated by a defense agency of the federal government or the State of Texas is situated and the political subdivision within which the airport hazard area is located may create, by ordinance or resolution duly adopted, a joint airport zoning board, which board shall have the same power to adopt, administer, and enforce airport zoning regulations applicable to the airport hazard area in question as that vested by subsection (1) in the political subdivision within which such area is located. Each such joint board shall have as members two (2) representatives appointed by each political subdivision participating in its creation and in addition a chairman elected by a majority of the members so appointed.

Provided, however, where an airport is owned or controlled by any political subdivision having more than 600,000 inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and such airport is located within the territorial limits of such political subdivision and any airport hazard area appertaining to such airport is located outside of the territorial limits of said political subdivision owning or controlling such airport, the political subdivision shall have the same power to adopt, administer, and enforce airport zoning regulations applicable to the airport hazard area in question within a five (5) mile radius of the airport reference point of such airport as that vested by subsection (1) in the political subdivision within which such area is located; provided, however, that said control of such political subdivision shall not extend beyond the county in which the political subdivision is located. CHAPTER SIX—FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Art. 118b. Citrus fruit growers act

Definitions

Section 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas. Commissioner is authorized to utilize all employees of the Department of Agriculture in the enforcement of this Act.

(b) "Citrus fruit," as the term is used in this Act, shall be construed to mean all citrus fruits grown in the State of Texas and bought and/or sold and/or handled in any way either as fresh or natural fruit or in canned and/or processed form.

(c) "Persons" shall mean and include any individual, partnership, group of persons or corporation or business unit handling citrus fruit in the State of Texas.

(d) "Handle" means buying or offering to buy, selling or offering to sell, or shipping for the purpose of selling, whether as owner, agent or otherwise, any citrus fruit within the State of Texas, and persons buying and/or shipping citrus fruit for canning and/or processing are defined as handlers.

(e) "Dealer" means any person who handles fruit, as the word "handle" is defined in (d) of this Section.

(f) "Buying agent" shall mean any person authorized by any licensed dealer to act for him in the handling of citrus fruit as defined in (d) of this Section.

(g) "Transporting agent" shall mean any person authorized by any dealer to act for said dealer in the transporting of citrus fruit.

(h) "Warehouseman" means and includes any person who receives and stores citrus fruit for compensation.

(i) "Packer" means and includes any person who prepares and/or packs citrus fruit or its products for barter, sale, exchange, or shipment.

(j) A "commission merchant" and/or dealer or a "contract dealer," as these terms are used in this Act, shall be construed to mean any "persons," as the word is herein defined, who purchase any citrus fruit on credit, or who take into their possession for consignment or handling, in behalf of the producer or owner thereof, or in any manner whatsoever, or by virtue of any contract whatsoever, which does not require and result in the payment to the producer, seller or consignor thereof the full amount of the purchase price thereof in current money of the United States, at the time of delivery of said citrus fruit to such persons or at the time when the title to such citrus fruit passes from the producer or seller thereof to such "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer." As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Application for license

Sec. 3. Any person desiring to engage in business as a dealer in citrus fruits within this State shall, prior to engaging in such business, file with the Commissioner an application for license and receive a license, and said application shall be made under oath and the Commissioner shall provide forms for such applications, and said applications shall set forth the following specific information:

(a) The full name of the applicant and whether the applicant is an individual, partnership, corporation, exchange or association of persons; the full name and the address of the principal business office of the applicant and the address of the principal business office of applicant within the State of Texas; in the event that the applicant be a foreign corporation, the application shall name the state in which such corporation was chartered.

(b) The type of license applied for, whether "dealer," "canner" or "processor."

(c) Foreign corporations filing applications for license under this Act shall indicate clearly in such application the name and address of an agent for service within this State upon whom service of legal process may be had in any suit brought against said corporate applicant within the State of Texas.

(d) How long the applicant has been engaged in business in the State of Texas.

(e) The applicant shall answer the following questions which shall be included in and made a part of any application for license under the terms and provisions of this Act:

(1) "Have you heretofore been licensed in the State of Texas as a dealer in citrus fruits and/or perishable agricultural commodities?"

(2) "If you have answered that you have been so licensed, has any license so granted you within the State of Texas ever been suspended and/or revoked?"

(3) "If you have answered that a license so issued you within the State of Texas has been suspended and/or revoked, you will state when, where and give a short statement of the reason for such suspension and/or revocation." As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 2.

License fees; surety bond

Sec. 4. All applications for license under this Act shall be accompanied by a tender of payment in full of the fee for such license required; on receipt of said application duly executed, together with required fee, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or his agents and/or employees thereunto duly authorized to immediately issue such license, provided that no license shall issue to any person when the application for license filed by such person shall indicate that such person is a suspended licensee within the State of Texas, or that such person's license to do business in Texas has been revoked until the Commissioner is furnished with satisfactory proof that the applicant is, on the date of the filing of such application, qualified to receive the license applied for; the issuance of license to persons who have suffered prior suspension or revocation of license in this State shall be discretionary with the Commissioner; in the exercise of such discretion, the Commissioner is authorized to take into consideration the facts and circumstances pertaining to the prior suspension and/or revocation; the financial condition of the applicant, as of the date of this application, and the obligations due and owing by the applicant to growers and producers of citrus fruits and/or perishable agricultural commodities; "obligation," as the term is used in this Section, shall be construed to mean any judgment of any court within this State outstanding against the applicant or certified claims as of the date of the application under consideration by the Commissioner; prior to refusal of license by the Commissioner, any applicant for license shall be entitled to an open hearing on the facts pertaining to such application, said hearing to be conducted by the Commissioner, or his agent thereunto duly authorized; if, after such hearing, the Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, refuses the license applied for, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days from and after the denial of such license by the Commissioner and not thereafter, file his appeal from the order of the Commissioner denying such license, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State; if the Commissioner shall determine that the license applied for shall not be granted, the Commissioner shall deduct from the license fee tendered with such application the sum of Five Dollars ($5), said Five Dollars ($5) to be retained by the Commissioner to defray costs and expenses incident to the filing and examination of said application and shall return the balance of the license fee so tendered with such application to the applicant.

(a) The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same.

(1) For license as a "dealer" or "handler" of citrus fruit, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(2) For license as a "commission merchant" and/or "contract dealer," as the term is in this Act defined, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(3) For a license as a "buying agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(4) For a license as a "transporting agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(b) All "commission merchants" and/or "dealers" and "contract dealers," as the terms are in this Act defined, shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a good and sufficient surety bond, payable to the Governor of the State of Texas and his successors in office in the following amounts for the number of standard packed boxes of citrus fruit, or the equivalent thereof, exclusive of citrus fruit grown by said "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer," which the "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" intends to handle during the current or next ensuing shipping season:

$ 5,000	up to 5,000 boxes
10,000	between 5,000 and 50,000 boxes, inclusive
25,000	over 50,000 boxes

The bond furnished shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe and shall be conditioned upon faithful compliance with the terms and provisions of this Act and upon the faithful performance of the conditions and terms of all contracts made by said "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" and "contract dealer," pertaining to the handling of citrus fruit under this Act; cause of action may be maintained upon said bond by any person with whom said applicant deals in purchasing, handling, selling and accounting for sales of citrus fruit, as provided in this Act; the aggregate accumulated liability under any such bond shall not exceed the amount of such bond, and each such bond shall continue in full force and effect until notice of the termination thereof is given by registered mail to the Commissioner, which fact shall be set forth in the face of said bond, but such notice shall not affect the liability which may have accrued thereon prior to termination. No license shall be issued to any "commission merchant" or "dealer," or "contract dealer" prior to the delivery to the Commissioner and the approval by him of the bond required under the provisions of this Section. No cooperative association organized pursuant to Chapter 8, Title 93 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, that handles fruit only for its members shall be required to furnish bond as required in this Section. Any such cooperative association dealing in citrus fruit other than for its producer members shall be required to furnish bond as any other dealer. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature to make these exemptions with reference to cooperative associations because of the fact that the producer members pool their fruit for sale rather than immediately selling it. Any "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" who at any time deals in citrus fruit in excess of the amounts covered by his or its bond as hereinabove specified shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 3.

Hearing on charge of violation of act

Sec. 6. Any license issued under the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit: any person aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violation of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violation complained of; the Commissioner, on receipt of said verified complaint, shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; Commissioner shall, by registered mail to the last known address, notify the person complained of and shall furnish such person with a copy of such complaint; the Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments of writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand; upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall, within a reasonable length of time after studying all evidence, make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of; any licensee, whose license is so cancelled by an order of the Commissioner, shall be notified in writing by registered mail of the cancellation of said license and it shall be unlawful and a violation of this Act for any licensee or buying or transporting agent to operate from and after said notification of cancellation, provided that said licensee or buying or transporting agent whose license has been so cancelled shall have the right of appeal from the order of the Commissioner canceling said license to any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, provided that such appeal shall be filed in said court within ten (10) days from and after receipt by licensee of notice of said cancellation, and provided further that the effect of said appeal by said licensee or licensee's agent shall not act to supersede the order of cancellation issued by the Commissioner, pursuant to final determination of the question of cancellation by said court. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 4.

Buying by weight

Sec. 11. Any dealer who buys citrus fruit by weight and who does not have such fruit weighed on State tested scales shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 5.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Exemption from bond; penalty

Sec. 25. Any person who purchases citrus fruit only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act and receives said fruit at the dealer's place of business and pays therefor prior to or at the time of delivery or taking possession of such citrus fruit so purchased in current money of the United States shall be exempt from giving the bond provided for in this Act and such person shall indicate on his application for license that he desires to operate as a cash buyer, buying only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Section and thereupon such person shall be entitled to a license as a cash citrus dealer, purchasing only from dealers duly qualified under this Act, upon the payment by such applicant of the license fee as required under this Act. Such dealer shall be subject to all the pertinent provisions of this Act. Any violation of this Section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and be punishable, as provided in Section 21 of this Act.

Any producer handling or dealing in his own products exclusively, shall be licensed, upon application, by the Commissioner of Agriculture without charge and without being required to give a bond. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Applicable to Texas Citrus Zone only

Sec. 27. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 312, ch. 117, § 8.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER SEVEN—NURSERY STOCK

Art. 135. [4467] Definitions

The following definitions shall apply to the various categories and individuals coming within the provisions of Chapter 7 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and the amendments thereto, and shall also be used as the legal definitions of the terms herein defined in the interpretation and application of the laws of this State for all purposes.

1. Nursery Products and Nursery Stock. The terms "nursery products" and "nursery stock" within the meaning of this law shall include all trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, grasses, bulbs and buds grown or kept for, or capable of, propagation, distribution or sale, and all such "nursery products" and "nursery stock" are herewith defined to be and shall be considered as "farm products in the hands of the producer" so long as they are in a growing state, and until such "nursery products" and "nursery stock" are sold to the consumer.

2. Nursery Grower. The term "nursery grower" shall be construed to mean any person, firm, partnership or corporation growing nursery products or nursery stock for the purpose of sale, who actually grow more than fifty per cent (50%) of the nursery products and nursery stock sold by or under the direction of said person, firm, partnership or corporation, regardless of the variety of nursery products or nursery stock sold or grown.

3. Nursery Dealer. The term "nursery dealer" shall be construed to mean any person, firm, partnership or corporation who buy and sell or offer for sale nursery products and/or nursery stock and who has facilities that maintain or preserve said nursery products and nursery stock without permitting same to become dry or infested or diseased, and provided said nursery dealer shall have an established permanent address, which address shall be registered with the Commissioner of Agriculture and which address shall be imprinted upon the certificate and all copies of the certificate issued to said nursery dealer by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

4. Nursery Agent. The term "nursery agent" shall be construed to mean any person, firm, partnership or corporation selling nursery products or nursery stock or taking mail orders or in any manner selling or offering for sale nursery products and nursery stock, either as being entirely under the control of a nursery grower or nursery dealer, with whom the nursery products or nursery stock offered for barter and traffic originates, or some cooperative basis for handling nursery products or nursery stock with the nursery grower or nursery dealer as hereinbefore defined. Any such nursery agent shall have proper credentials from the nursery grower or nursery dealer he represents or cooperates with, and failing in that, any such nursery agent shall be classed as a nursery dealer, and subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted relative to them, and shall be amenable to the same penalties for violation of any provisions of this law.

5. Florist. The term "florist" shall be construed to mean any person, firm, partnership or corporation who maintains, grows, raises, or buys and offers for sale for profit, cut flowers, potted plants, blooming plants, inside foliage plants, bedding plants, corsage flowers, cut foliage, floral decorations and live decorative material. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 613, ch. 280, § 17; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 858, ch. 328, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER SEVEN A—PLANT DISEASES AND PESTS

135b—5. Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of Texas [New].

Art. 135b—1. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58 Leg., p. 30, ch. 23, § 13. Eff. March 28, 1963.

See, now, art. 136b—5.

Art. 135b—5. Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of Texas

Title

Section 1. This Act shall be known as the "Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of Texas."

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purpose of this Act:

A. The term "economic pesticide" means (1) any substance or mixture of substances intended for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any insects, rodents, nematodes, fungi, weeds, or other forms of plant or animal life or viruses, except viruses on or in living man or other animals, which the Commissioner shall declare to be a pest, and (2) any substance or mixture of substances intended for use as a plant regulator, defoliant or desiccant. The term does not include any "commercial fertilizer" within the meaning of Chapter 37, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, 1961, known as the Texas Commercial Fertilizer Control Act of 1961.

B. The term "device" means any instrument or contrivance intended for trapping, destroying, repelling, or mitigating insects or rodents or destroying, repelling, or mitigating fungi, weeds, nematodes, or such other pests as may be designated by the Commissioner, but not including equipment used for the application of economic pesticides when sold separately therefrom.

C. The term "ingredient statement" means either:

(1) A statement of the name and percentage of each active ingredient, together with the total percentage of the inert ingredients, in the economic pesticide, and in the case of a liquid economic pesticide, in a one-gallon container or more, an additional statement of the pounds per gallon of each active ingredient; or

(2) A statement of the name of each active ingredient, together with the name of each and total percentage of the inert ingredients, if any there be, in the economic pesticide (except Option 1 shall apply if the preparation is highly toxic to man, determined as provided in Section 5 of this Act); and, in addition to (1) or (2) in case the economic pesticide contains arsenic in any form, a statement of the percentages of total and water soluble arsenic, each calculated as elemental arsenic.

D. The term "active ingredient" means:

(1) In the case of an economic pesticide other than a plant regulator, defoliant, or desiccant, an ingredient which will prevent, destroy, repel, or mitigate insects, nematodes, fungi, rodents, weeds, or other pests;

(2) In the case of a plant regulator, an ingredient which, through physiological action, will accelerate or retard the rate of growth or rate of maturation or otherwise alter the behavior of ornamental or crop plants or the produce thereof;

(3) In the case of a defoliant, an ingredient which will cause the leaves or foliage to drop from a plant; and

(4) In the case of a desiccant, an ingredient which will artificially accelerate the drying of plant tissue.

E. The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

F. The term "Commissioner" means the Texas Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agent.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 3. A. It shall be unlawful for any person to distribute, sell, or offer for sale within this State or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this State through any point outside this State any of the following:

(1) Any economic pesticide which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, or any economic pesticide if any of the claims made for it or any of the directions for its use differ in substance from the representations made in connection with its registration, or if the composition of an economic pesticide differs from its composition as represented in connection with its registration. Provided, that, in the discretion of the Commissioner, a change in the labeling or formula of an economic pesticide may be made within a registration period if the economic pesticide is registered in conformity with the requirements of this Act for other economic pesticides.

(2) Any economic pesticide unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container, and there is affixed to such container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there be one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing:

(a) The name and address of the manufacturer, registrant, or person for whom manufactured;

(b) The name, brand, or trade-mark under which said article is sold; and

(c) The net weight or measure of the contents of the container, subject, however, to such reasonable variations as the Commissioner may permit after he consults with the advisory group provided for in Section 5B of this Act. Provided, that in the case of a tank truck used merely to deliver an economic pesticide to the user when the truck does not remain in the user's hands, an invoice with the required labeling information left with the purchaser at the time of delivery of the economic pesticide is permissible in lieu of a label being affixed to the tank.

(d) The ingredient statement as provided for in Section 2C of this Act.

(3) Any economic pesticide which contains any substance or substances in quantities highly toxic to man, determined as provided in Section 5 of this Act, unless the label shall bear, in addition to any other matter required by this Act:

(a) The skull and crossbones;

(b) The word "poison" prominently, in red, on a background of distinctly contrasting color; and

(c) A statement of an antidote for the economic pesticide.

(4) Any economic pesticide that is not distinctly colored or discolored in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Commissioner shall issue pursuant to this Act.

(5) Any economic pesticide which is adulterated or misbranded, or any device which is misbranded.

B. It shall be unlawful:

(1) For any person to detach, alter, deface, or destroy, in whole or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this Act or regulations promulgated hereunder, or to add any substance to, or take any substance from, an economic pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this Act;

(2) For any person to use for his own advantage or to reveal, other than to the Commissioner or proper officials or employees of the State or to the courts of this State in response to a subpoena, or to physicians, or in emergencies to pharmacists and other qualified persons, for use in the preparation of antidotes, any information relative to formulas of products acquired by authority of Section 4 of this Act.

Sec. 4. A. Every economic pesticide which is distributed, sold, or offered for sale within this State or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this State through any point outside this State shall be registered in the office of the Commissioner, and such registration shall expire August 31 of each year and shall be renewed annually. The registrant shall file with the Commissioner a statement including:

(1) The name and address of the registrant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if other than the registrant;

(2) The name of the economic pesticide;

(3) A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the economic pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it including directions for use; and

Registration

(4) If requested by the Commissioner a full description of the tests made and the results thereof upon which the claims are based. In the case of renewal of registration, a statement shall be required only with respect to information which is different from that furnished when the economic pesticide was registered or last reregistered.

B. The registrant shall pay to the Commissioner an annual registration fee of Twenty Dollars ($20) for each economic pesticide registered provided that:

(1) All registration fees collected by the Commissioner under this Act shall be paid into the State Treasury by the Commissioner and placed by the State Treasurer in the Special Department of Agriculture Fund, and shall be used only for administrative and enforcement purposes of this Act;

(2) Any registrant who is located outside the State of Texas but who distributes economic pesticides in the State of Texas shall deposit with the Commissioner an instrument in writing appointing a resident agent within this State upon whom service may be had in actions filed by the State or taken by the Commissioner in the administration or enforcement of this Act.

(3) The Commissioner is authorized to cancel all registrations of any registrant who fails to comply with the requirements of this Act.

C. The Commissioner, whenever he deems it necessary in the administration of this Act, may require the submission of the complete formula of any economic pesticide. If it appears to the Commissioner that the composition of the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it and if the article and its labeling and other material required to be submitted comply with the requirements of Section 3 of this Act, he shall register the article.

D. If it does not appear to the Commissioner that the article is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it or if the article with its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of this Act, he shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the article, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with the Act so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections. If, upon receipt of such notice, the registrant insists that such corrections are not necessary and requests in writing that the article be registered, the Commissioner shall register the article, under protest, and such registration shall be accompanied by a warning, in writing, to the registrant of the apparent failure of the article to comply with the provisions of this Act. In order to protect the public, the Commissioner, on his own motion, may at any time cancel the registration of an economic pesticide and in lieu thereof issue a registration under protest in accordance with the foregoing procedure. In no event shall registration of an article, whether or not protested, be construed as a defense for the commission of any offense prohibited under Section 3 of this Act.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, registration is not required in the case of an economic pesticide shipped from one plant within this State to another plant within this State operated by the same person.

Determinations; Rules and Regulations; Uniformity

Sec. 5. A. The Commissioner is authorized, after opportunity for a hearing:

(1) To declare as a pest any form of plant or animal life or virus which is injurious to plants, men, domestic animals, articles, or substances;

(2) To determine whether economic pesticides are highly toxic to man; and

(3) To determine standards of coloring or discoloring for economic pesticides, and to subject economic pesticides to the requirements of Section 3A(4) of this Act.

B. The Commissioner, after consulting with suitable officials of organizations known to be concerned with the manufacture, distribution, and use of economic pesticides, is authorized to make and issue appropriate rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations providing for the collection and examination of samples of economic pesticides and devices and for the labeling of custom mixes.

C. The Commissioner, after such consultation as is prescribed in paragraph B of Section 5 hereof, shall from time to time issue such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act. Such rules and regulations shall be published from time to time and made accessible to those affected by this Act.

D. The Commissioner shall furnish upon request quarterly reports and one consolidated annual report of the official economic pesticide sample results. The contents of the report are to be determined in a manner which the Commissioner finds most expedient.

Enforcement

Sec. 6. A. The Commissioner shall have authority to enter into any building or place owned, controlled or operated by a registrant or dealer where, from probable cause it appears that said building or place contains economic pesticides for the purpose of inspection or sampling, and shall have the power to take a sample for official analysis from any package or lot of economic pesticides, including custom mixes, found within this State. The Commissioner shall have the power to issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any economic pesticide which he has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act prohibiting further sale of such economic pesticide until he has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, that in respect to the economic pesticide which has been denied sale as provided in this paragraph, the owner or custodian of such economic pesticide shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the economic pesticide is found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and the discharge of such economic pesticide from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further that the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the right of the Commissioner to proceed as authorized by other Sections of this Act.

B. In addition to the remedies herein provided, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to institute an action in his own name to enjoin any violation of any provision of this Act.

C. The Commissioner is authorized to contract with State colleges, State agencies or commercial laboratories for examination of economic pesticides provided such facilities and examinations are certified as adequate by the head of the A. & M. College Agricultural Analytical Services Laboratory and provided that such contracts to commercial laboratories are let on a competitive bid basis.

D. The Commissioner shall make or provide for service sample tests of economic pesticides on request, and after consulting with the advisory group as provided for in Section 5B of this Act, he shall fix and collect charges for each service sample on a cost basis.

Exemptions

Sec. 7. A. The penalties provided for violation of Section 3A of this Act shall not apply to:

(1) Any carrier while lawfully engaged in transporting an economic pesticide within this State, if such carrier shall, upon request permit the Commissioner or his designated agent to copy all records showing the transactions in and movement of the articles;

(2) Public officials of this State and the Federal Government engaged in the performance of their official duties;

(3) The manufacturer or shipper of an economic pesticide for experimental use only;

(4) Any person who employs or uses economic pesticides in the sale of a pest extermination or control service;

(a) By or under the supervision of an agency of this State or of the Federal Government authorized by law to conduct research in the field of economic pesticides, or

(b) By others if the economic pesticide is not sold and if the container thereof is plainly and conspicuously marked "FOR EXPERIMENTAL USE ONLY—NOT TO BE SOLD," together with the manufacturer's name and address; provided, however, that if a written permit has been obtained from the Commissioner, economic pesticides may be sold for experiment purposes subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be set forth in the permit.

B. No article shall be deemed in violation of this Act when intended solely for export to a foreign country, and when prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, all the provisions of this Act shall apply.

Penalties

Sec. 8. A. Any firm, corporation, or person who shall sell or offer for sale any economic pesticide or device without having attached thereto such statements as are required by law or who shall sell or offer for sale any adulterated or misbranded economic pesticide or device within the meaning of this Act, or who shall violate any other provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50), nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for each offense.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, in case any person, with intent to defraud, uses or reveals information relative to formulas of products acquired under authority of Section 4 of this Act, he shall upon conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor, and he shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Appeals

Sec. 8A. In all appeals prosecuted in any of the courts of this State pursuant to the provisions of this Act, such trials shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from justice of the peace courts to county courts. When such an appeal is filed and the court thereby acquires jurisdiction, all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect, and the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this Act.

Seizures

Sec. 9. A. Any economic pesticide or device that is distributed, sold, or offered for sale within this State or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this State through any point outside this State shall be liable to be proceeded against in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county of the State where it may be found and seized for confiscation by process of libel for condemnation:

- (1) In the case of an economic pesticide,
 - (a) If it is adulterated or misbranded;
 - (b) If it has not been registered under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act;
 - (c) If it fails to bear on its label the information required by this Act;
 - (d) If it is a white powder economic pesticide and is not colored as required under this Act.

(2) In the case of a device, if it is misbranded.

B. If the article is condemned, it shall, after entry of decree, be disposed of by destruction or sale as the court may direct and the proceeds, if such article is sold, less legal costs, shall be paid to the State Treasurer; provided, that the article shall not be sold contrary to the provisions of this Act; and provided further, that upon payment of costs and execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that the article shall not be disposed of unlawfully, the court may direct that said article be delivered to the owner thereof for relabeling or reprocessing as the case may be.

C. When a decree of condemnation is entered against the article, court costs and fees and storage and other proper expenses shall be awarded against the person, if any, intervening as claimant of the article.

Delegation of Duties

Sec. 10. All authority vested in the Commissioner by virtue of the provisions of this Act may with like forces and effect be executed by such employees of the Texas Department of Agriculture as the Commissioner may from time to time designate for said purpose.

Cooperation

Sec. 11. When he deems it necessary, the Commissioner is authorized and empowered to cooperate with, and enter into agreements with any other agency of this State, the United States Department of Agriculture, and any other state or agency thereof for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and securing uniformity of regulations.

Severability

Sec. 12. If any provision of this Act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this Act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. CHAPTER 16—FORESTS [NEW]

Art.
165—9. Control of forest pests

Art. 165—9. Control of forest pestsPurpose

Section 1. In order to protect forest resources, enhance the growth and maintenance of forests, promote stability of forest-using industries, protect recreational wildlife uses and conserve other values of the forest, it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of Texas to control forest pests in or threatening forests in the State of Texas.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) "Forest pests" means insects and diseases that are harmful, injurious or destructive to forests and whose damage, if uncontrolled, is of considerable economic importance. These pests include but are not limited to the following: pine bark beetles of the genera Dendroctonus, Ips, Pissodes, and Hylobius; sawflies of the genus Neodiprion; defoliators in the genera Datana, Malacosoma, Hyphantria, Diapheromera, and Galerucella; pine shoot moth of the genus Rhyacionia; wilt of the genus Chalara and rots of the genera Fomes and Polyporus.

(b) "Forest land" means lands on which the trees are potentially valuable for timber products, protection of watersheds, wildlife habitat, recreational uses or for other purposes, but shall not include any land within the incorporated limits of any village, town, or city.

(c) "Forest" includes the standing trees on any forest land.

(d) "Person" includes any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association or other business whether or not incorporated.

(e) "Control" includes prevent, retard, suppress, eradicate or destroy.

(f) "Infestation" includes actual infestation or infection at condition beyond normal proportion causing abnormal epidemic loss to present and/or future commercial timber supply.

(g) "Landowner" and "owner" includes any person who owns forest lands, or who has such forest land under his direction irrespective of ownership.

(h) "Forest owner" means any person who owns the standing trees on any forest land, either by a present right or by a future right under the terms of a valid existing contract.

(i) "Tract" means all contiguous land in common ownership.

(j) The singular and plural number shall each include the other unless the context otherwise requires.

(k) The masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter.

Public nuisance

Sec. 3. Forest pests are declared to be a public nuisance.

Landowner duty

Sec. 4. Each owner of forest land shall control such forest pests on lands owned by him or under his direction as hereinafter provided.

Administrative responsibility

Sec. 5. The Texas Forest Service shall administer this Act and make all relevant determinations. It shall make surveys and investigations to determine the existence of infestations of forest pests, and means practical for their control by landowners. For this purpose, duly delegated representatives of the Texas Forest Service may enter private lands and public lands, including, if permission is obtained, those held by the United States, for the purpose of conducting such surveys and investigations. All its information shall be available to all interested landowners.

Area proceedings

Sec. 6. Whenever the Texas Forest Service finds an infestation existent or threatened in the State, it shall determine when control measures are needed, the nature of such control measures, their availability and the techniques by which the control measures shall be applied. Having determined that an infestation exists, the Texas Forest Service shall give notice of the fact by:

a. Placing a notice in a newspaper or newspapers, if any, in the county or counties in which any infested lands are located, or if no such newspaper exists, then placing a notice in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the county or counties in which any infested lands are located, stating its findings, and setting a time and place for a hearing, not less than ten (10) days from the date of such notice, on the need for the control of the pest.

b. Mailing copies of such notice to owners of forest land known to the Texas Forest Service to have holdings in the affected area.

c. Arranging for publicity on the subject by all news media serving the affected area.

At the hearing, the agent of the Texas Forest Service who presides will describe the conditions that have been found, explain the measures needed to control the pest infestation, hear all suggestions and protests and record the proceedings. As soon as practicable after the hearing, the Texas Forest Service shall promulgate procedures to be followed for the control of the infestation, mailing copy to all appearing at the hearing, to all to whom notices were originally sent and publishing by newspaper circulated in the affected area in manner the same as publication of preliminary notice. Such publication is notice as of its publication date to each landowner within the affected area and as to each tract of land therein.

Specific proceedings

Sec. 7. If in instances to which Section 6 has not been applied control measures are needed to check the spread of the forest pests on forest land owned or controlled by any person, written notice, signed by a duly authorized representative of the Texas Forest Service, whose mailing address shall be shown on said notice, shall be given to such person informing him of the facts as found to exist, of his responsibilities for the control measures, of the control technique that is recommended, of the law under which control must be accomplished, and of the authority of the Texas Forest Service in the event the landowner takes no action toward controlling the pest. The notice may be given by personal service on the landowner, or on the person having control of the forest land, or by registered or certified mail directed to such person at his last known address, or, if such person or his address be unknown, then such notice shall be given by publication in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land is located, which published notice, in addition to the other matters contained therein as above provided, shall state the name of the owner, if known, and shall briefly describe the land to which the notice applies; no other notice shall be necessary under the provisions of this law.

Sec. 8. (a) Within ten (10) days after the giving of notice, whether under Section 6 or 7, exclusive of the date of the giving of such notice, each affected landowner shall commence diligently to take measures to control the infestation as prescribed, and continue such activity with all practical expedition and efficiency under the direction of the Texas Forest Service. The landowner shall notify the Texas Forest Service of his actions, and the result thereof; and each such landowner may report to and consult with the representative or representatives of the Texas Forest Service as often as may be necessary. The Texas Forest Service may change its prescribed procedures as conditions or new information may require. The Texas Forest Service shall inform itself of what is done and the result thereof, and upon request certify when all reasonably practicable measures to be done by landowners, pursuant to its prescribed procedures, shall have been completed.

(b) Where all or part of the standing trees are owned by someone other than the landowner, either by a present right or by a future right under the terms of a valid existing contract, the landowner shall, within ten (10) days after receiving the notice provided for above from the Texas Forest Service, notify the Texas Forest Service of such facts and furnish the names and addresses of any such forest owner.

Notice to forest owner

Sec. 9. Where the landowner has given the Texas Forest Service notice of any interest in the forest upon his land owned by another, as provided for above, then the Texas Forest Service shall furnish the same information to this forest owner that it is required by this Act to give to the landowner.

Appeal

Sec. 10. Any landowner, or person having control of forest land, aggrieved by the notice given by the Texas Forest Service shall have the right to seek relief in the district court of the county in which the land is situated, and at no time while such litigation is pending shall the Texas Forest Service proceed with any control measures, unless permission to do so is given by the court upon a showing of probable harm due to any delay in using such control measures. Proceedings to obtain relief shall be initiated by the aggrieved landowner or other person having control of the forest land, within ten (10) days from and after the giving of such notice, exclusive of the date of the giving of such notice in the manner hereinabove provided, and not thereafter. The district court shall give priority to any such case. If the final judgment in any such action be in favor of the landowner, then the landowner may be entitled to injunctive relief against the use of any control measures on his forest land by the Texas Forest Service until such time as the court may determine. If the final judgment be against the landowner, or if the landowner shall fail to seek relief in the district court of said county, the notice from the Texas Forest Service shall be final and the Texas Forest Service shall summarily take the measures necessary to control the infestation.

Control measures by agency

Sec. 11. In the event pest control measures as prescribed by the Texas Forest Service are not applied by the landowner or any other person within ten (10) days from the giving of the notice herein provided, exclusive of the date of the giving of such notice, representatives of the Texas Forest Service shall enter upon said lands and cause the forest pest to be controlled or destroyed. All charges and expenses of such control or destruction shall be paid for by the owner of the land upon which the infestation occurred. If the control is undertaken by the Texas Forest Service, the cost, not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) for each infested acre or part of such an acre on which control measures have been employed, shall constitute a legal claim against such landowner, but shall not constitute a lien on any land owned by such landowner, and may be recovered by suit brought in behalf of the Texas Forest Service by the Attorney General in the county where the infestation occurred, together with all costs incurred in such suit; provided, however, in the event that the tract with respect to which the Texas Forest Service conducted control measures contains fifty (50) acres of forest land or less, and the landowner in whose name the record title to such land stands owns no more than fifty (50) acres of forest land in the county in which the infestation occurred, then the cost of control shall be borne by the Texas Forest Service.

Landowner reimbursement

Sec. 12. Where the landowner has given the Texas Forest Service notice of any interest owned by another in the forest upon his land, and where the landowner has made expenditures for pest control purposes pursuant to Section 8a, or has paid any legal claim against him because of the provisions of Section 11, then such landowner shall have a right to a reasonable reimbursement for such expenses from the forest owner, such reimbursement to be proportional to the interest owned in the forest by the forest owner.

Cooperative agreements

Sec. 13. In order to accomplish the control of such forest pests, the Texas Forest Service may enter into cooperative agreements with private landowners or forest owners, the Federal Government, or other public or private agencies. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 745, ch. 281.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 539, ch. 198, which amended this article and article 1817 by creating the Twelfth and Thirteenth Supreme Judicial Districts and by locating the Court of Civil Appeals thereof in the cities of Tyler and Corpus Christi, provided in sections 3-6:

"Sec. 3. This Act shall not affect the jurisdiction on appeal of cases from the counties named in the newly-created Twelfth and Thirteenth Supreme Judicial Districts in which the transcripts shall have been filed in the Courts of Civil Appeals of which said counties were formerly a part where such transcripts have been filed prior to the date this Act becomes effective. In any case from a trial court of any county now a component of the newly-created Twelfth and Thirteenth Supreme Judicial Districts in which appeal or writ of error shall have been perfected prior to the taking effect of this Act in which the transcript shall not have been filed in the Court of Civil Appeals of the Supreme Judicial District to which the county formerly belonged prior to the date this Act becomes effective, the record in such case shall be filed in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Twelfth or Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District of Texas, whichever shall have jurisdiction; provided, however, that in any case from a trial court of counties now comprising the Twelfth and Thirteenth Supreme Judicial Districts in which appeal or writ of error is perfected after the passage and before the taking effect of this Act, if the transcript be filed in either the Court of Civil Appeals to which the county formerly belonged or in the Twelfth or Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District of Texas within the time otherwise provided by law, such appeal shall not be dismissed for failure to file the transcript in the proper court, but if filed in the wrong court, the clerk thereof shall transmit the record, together with a transcript of any orders made in the case, to the proper court having jurisdiction.

"Sec. 4. On or before September 1, 1963, the Governor shall by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, appoint one chief and two (2) associate justices for the Twelfth Supreme Judicial District, who shall each reside in the territorial limits of the Twelfth Supreme Judicial District, and who shall possess the qualifications now required by law, who shall constitute the Court of Civil Appeals within and for the Twelfth Supreme Judicial District, and who shall hold their offices until the next General Election in 1964 and who shall thereafter be elected and qualify as provided and required by Article 1813 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended.

"Sec. 5. On or before September 1, 1963, the Governor shall by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, appoint one chief and two (2) associate justices for the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District, who shall each reside in the territorial limits of the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District, and who shall possess the qualifications now required by law, who shall constitute the Court of Civil Appeals within and for the Thirteenth Supreme Judicial District and who shall hold their offices until the next General Election in 1964 and who shall thereafter be elected and qualify as provided and required by Article 1813 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended.

"Sec. 6. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated out of any moneys in the State Treasury such sums of money as shall be necessary to put into effect the provisions of this Act. The salaries of the judges are authorized to be as fixed in said Appropriations Bill, and the employees to be employed and the salaries to be paid such employees, in addition to said judges, are likewise authorized to be fixed and determined in the Appropriations Bill; and provision shall be made therein for such records, supplies and other necessary items that shall be required for the effective operation of said Court."

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

Particular criminal district courts, see Vernon's Ann.C.C.P. art. 52 et seq.

Art. 199. [30] [22] [17] Judicial Districts

11, 55, 61, 80, 113, 125, 127, 129, 133, 151, 152, 157, 164, 165—Harris

In addition to the Criminal District Courts of Harris County, Texas, Harris County shall constitute the 11th, 55th, 61st, 80th, 113th, 125th, 127th, 129th, 133rd, 151st, 152nd, 157th, 164th and 165th Judicial Districts.

The two (2) additional District Courts herein created [164th and 165th] shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction, coextensive with- in the limits of Harris County, in all Criminal and Civil Cases, proceedings, and matters over which the other District Courts of Harris County are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of this State.

There shall be two (2) terms of each said fourteen (14) Civil District Courts in Harris County in each year, and the first term shall be known as the January-June term, and shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second term, which shall be known as the July-December term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

In all suits, actions, or proceedings in said Courts, it shall be sufficient for the address or designation to be merely "District Court of Harris County." The Clerk of the Civil District Courts in Harris County shall be known as the "Clerk of the District Court of Harris County, Texas." The Clerk of said fourteen (14) Civil District Courts shall docket alternately on the dockets of the District Courts of the 11th, 55th, 61st, 80th, 113th, 125th, 127th, 129th, 133rd, 151st, 152nd, 157th, 164th and 165th Judicial Districts in Harris County, all cases, actions, petitions, applications, and other proceedings filed in the District Courts of Harris County so that the first case, or proceeding filed after the effective date of this Act and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 11th Judicial District Court; and the second case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 55th Judicial District Court; and the third case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 61st Judicial District Court; and the fourth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 80th Judicial District Court; and the fifth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 113th Judicial District Court; and the sixth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 125th Judicial District Court; and the seventh case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 127th Judicial District Court; and the eighth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 129th Judicial District Court; and the ninth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 133rd Judicial District Court; and the tenth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 151st Judicial District Court; and the eleventh case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 152nd Judicial District Court; and the twelfth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 157th Judicial District Court; and the thirteenth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 164th Judicial District Court; and the fourteenth case or proceeding filed and every fourteenth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 165th Judicial District Court. All cases or proceedings in this manner shall be docketed in and divided and distributed among said fourteen (14) Civil District Courts, one-fourteenth ($\frac{1}{14}$ th) to each of them when first filed. All suits and proceedings shall be filed by the Clerk in the order in which the petitions are presented to or deposited with him, and immediately after being so presented or deposited. In case of the disqualification of the Judge of any of said fourteen (14) Civil Courts, in any case or proceeding, such case or proceeding, on his suggestion of disqualification, shall be transferred to another of said Courts, and the order of transfer may be made by any Judge of another of said Courts and may be transferred to any other of said Courts, or instead of transferring the case the Judge of any other of said Courts may sit in the Court in which the case is then pending and there try the same, and all transferred cases or proceedings shall be docketed by the Clerk accordingly. The Judges of said fourteen (14) Civil Courts shall sign the minutes of each term of the Courts in Harris County within thirty (30) days after the end of the term, and shall also sign the minutes at the end of each volume of the minutes, and each Judge sitting in said Courts shall sign the minutes of such proceedings as were had before him.

The Judge of each Court hereby created may take the same vacation provided for the other Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Harris County, Texas. During such vacation time the term of Court of which he is Judge shall remain open and the Judge of any other Civil District Court in Harris County may hold such Court during the vacation of the Judges thereof. During the period of such vacation it shall not be lawful for a Special Judge of such Court to be elected by the practicing lawyers of such Court because of the absence of the Judge on his vacation, unless no Judge of said Civil District Courts is in the county. The Judges of said Courts shall, by agreement among themselves, take their vacation alternately so that there shall at all times be at least six (6) of said Judges in the county; and in the event of the absence, sickness or disqualification of the Judge of any of said Civil District Courts any of the other Judges of the said District Courts may act and preside or any regular practicing lawyers of the Bar of Harris County, Texas, may be elected who have the qualifications of a District Judge to act and preside over any of the said Courts during such absence, sickness or inability of any of the regular judges to act and preside therein; and such Special Judges shall be elected according to Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925.¹

The Clerk of the District Courts of Harris County, upon the taking effect of this Act, shall prepare promptly dockets for the Courts so created by this Act and shall place on the dockets of said 164th and 165th District Courts, the thirteenth and fourteenth case, respectively, pending on the respective dockets of the 11th, 55th, 61st, 80th, 113th, 125th, 127th, 129th, 133rd, 151st, 152nd and 157th District Courts. The cases so transferred shall bear the same docket numbers as in the Courts from which they are transferred and the Judges of the existing District Courts, respectively, shall make proper orders transferring from such Courts to the 164th and 165th District Courts the cases which have been placed on the docket of the 164th and 165th District Courts in pursuance of this Section.

The respective Judges of the District Courts of Harris County shall, from time to time as occasion may require, transfer cases from any one of such Courts to any other such Court in order that the business may be equally distributed among them, that the Judges thereof may at all times be provided with cases to be tried or otherwise considered, and that the trial of no case need be delayed because of the disqualification of the Judge in whose Court it is pending; provided, however, that no case shall be transferred from one Court to another without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which it is transferred. When any transfer is made, proper order shall be entered on the minutes of the Court as evidence thereof and such order on the minutes shall be notice of the transfer to the attorneys of record of all parties to the cause. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 3(B).

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 3(B), introductory paragraph, provides that, "So much of Article 199, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, as relates to the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, is hereby amended so as hereafter to read as follows:"

The provisions of Article 199 relating to the District Courts of Harris County, as amended by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 903, ch. 414, relate also to the Criminal District Courts of Harris County. The 1959 Act constitutes a composite amendment of not only Article 199 of the Civil Statutes but, also, of Article 52 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 3(C), provided:

"(C) All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Section are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws or parts of laws, this Section shall be cumulative."

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 4(B), introductory paragraph provides: "So much of Article 199 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, as relates to the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, is hereby amended so as to hereafter read as follows:"

[(A). See art. 199(166)].

(B). Bexar County shall constitute the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 144th, 150th, 166th, and 175th Judicial Districts of Texas. Each of the said nine (9) District Courts shall have and exercise civil and criminal jurisdiction in Bexar County, Texas. Said District Courts shall have and exercise, in addition to the jurisdiction now conferred or to be conferred by law on said Courts, concurrent jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of Bexar County, Texas, in all actions, proceedings, matters and causes, both civil and criminal, of which District Courts of general jurisdiction are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

(C) The present Judges of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 144th, 150th, and 175th Judicial Districts of Bexar County, Texas, shall continue as Judges of said Courts as constituted and defined by this Act, and the tenure of office of said Judges shall remain the same as is now provided by law.

(D) There shall be two (2) terms of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 150th, and 166th District Courts in Bexar County, Texas, in each year, and the first term shall begin on the first Monday in January each year and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July of each year; and the second term shall begin on the first Monday in July of each year and shall continue until and including the Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

(E) The 144th District Court and the 175th District Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of court each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before such Courts, one term beginning the first Monday in January; one the first Monday in March; one the first Monday in May; one the first Monday in July; one the first Monday in September; one the first Monday in November; each term to last for two (2) months. Each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

(F) The practice and procedure of said Courts shall be the same as now prescribed by law and, in civil actions, as also provided by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to District Courts having successive terms.

(G) All indictments shall be returned to the 144th District Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the 175th District Court of Bexar County, Texas. The District Clerk of Bexar County shall docket successively on the dockets of the District Courts of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 150th, and 166th Judicial Districts in Bexar County all civil cases, actions, causes, petitions, applications, or other proceedings so that the first case or proceeding filed on or after the effective date of this Act and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter shall be docketed in the 37th Judicial District; and the second case or proceeding filed and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 45th Judicial District; and the third case or proceeding filed and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 57th Judicial District; and the fourth case or proceeding and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 73rd Judicial District; and the fifth case or proceeding and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 131st Judicial District; and the sixth case or proceeding and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 150th Judicial District; and the seventh case or proceeding and every eighth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the 166th Judicial District; and so on seriatim; and in this manner all cases or proceedings filed to be docketed in and divided equally among the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 150th, and 166th Judicial District Courts, one-seventh ($\frac{1}{7}$) in each Court.

(H) The District Judges of Bexar County, Texas, shall, on or before the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, or at such other times as may be determined by a majority of the said District Judges, elect one of the said District Judges to serve as Presiding Judge of the Bexar County District Courts for a period of time to be set by said Judges.

The Presiding Judge of the Bexar County District Judges shall, when this Act becomes effective and from time to time as occasion may require in order to adjust the business and dockets of said Courts, transfer, or cause to be transferred, upon the approval of the Judges of said Courts, causes for any of the said Courts to any other of the said Courts in order that the business of the said Courts shall be continually equalized and distributed among them to the end that each Judge shall be at all times provided with cases or proceedings to try or otherwise consider and that the trial of a cause shall not be delayed because of the disqualification of the Judge in whose Court it is pending. When a case is transferred, proper order shall be entered upon the minutes of the Court as evidence thereof. It is the intention of this Section that the 144th District Court and the 175th District Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference to criminal cases, matters, or proceedings, while the other District Courts shall give preference to civil cases, matters or proceedings. For such purposes, the 144th and 175th District Courts shall constitute the Criminal District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, while the other District Courts shall constitute the Civil District Courts of Bexar County, Texas. The Judges of the said District Courts shall sign the minutes of each term of said Court in Bexar County, Texas, within thirty (30) days after the end of the term and shall also sign the minutes at the end of each volume of the minutes, and each Judge sitting in said Courts shall sign the minutes of such proceedings as were had before him.

(I) In the absence, except as otherwise provided herein, sickness, or disqualification of a Judge of any of the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, any of the other Judges of the said District Courts may act and preside; or any regularly practicing lawyer of the Bar of Bexar County, who has all the qualifications of a District Judge, may be elected to act and preside over any of the said Courts during such absence, sickness, or inability of any of the regular Judges to act and preside therein; such Special Judge to be elected according to Title 40 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(J) All bail bonds, recognizances or other obligations, taken for the appearance of the defendants, parties and witnesses in any of the said District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, or any inferior Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall be binding on all such defendants, parties and witnesses and their sureties for appearance in any of said Courts in which said cause may be pending or to which same may be transferred. In all cases transferred from one of the said Courts to another, all process, bonds, recognizances and obligations extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which the case is transferred and shall be valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which it is transferred.

(K) Each Judge of the said District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, may take a vacation between the first day of June and the first day of October in each year, during which time the terms of Court of which he is Judge shall remain open and the Judge of any other District Court may hold such Court during the vacation of the Judge thereof. During the period of such vacation, it shall not be lawful for a Special Judge of such Court to be elected by the practicing lawyers of such Court because of the absence of the Judge on his vacation, unless no Judge of the said District Courts is in the County. The Judges of the said District Courts shall by agreement among themselves take their vacations alternately so that there shall be at all times at least five (5) of the said Judges in the County during such vacation period.

(L) The Judge of each of the several District Courts shall appoint an official court reporter for his Court as provided by the General Law who will be compensated as provided by law.

(M) The Sheriff of Bexar County, as hereinafter provided, either in person or by deputy, shall attend the several District Courts as required by law, or when required by the Judges thereof, and the Sheriff and Constables of the several counties of this State, when executing process out of said Courts, shall receive fees as provided by the General Law for executing process issued out of the District Courts. The Sheriff of Bexar County shall, upon the effective date of this Act, appoint one deputy to serve as bailiff for each of said District Courts of Bexar County, Texas; provided that an additional deputy shall be appointed for the 144th District Court and an additional deputy shall be appointed for the 175th District Court, both of which Courts must give preference to the trial of criminal cases, matters, or proceedings. The persons thus appointed as such deputies must be acceptable to the Judge of the Court to which he or they are appointed or assigned, and said appointments for each of said Courts must be approved and confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. The said Deputy Sheriffs shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas; and the Sheriff of Bexar County shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned, and payable as may be prescribed by the said Sheriff or provided by law. The said deputies shall act in the name of their principal, and they may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County in person. The said deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as hereinabove provided, continue as such respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judge of the Court to which he or they may have been appointed; and should any of the said Judges, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of the said Deputy Sheriff or Deputy Sheriffs, the Sheriff of Bexar County shall, upon the request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the said deputies to attend all sessions of the said District Courts and also perform and render such services in and for said Courts, and for the Judges thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and deputies in and about the several District Courts throughout this State, and including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants, and writs of any and all kinds and nature in both civil and criminal cases, matters and proceedings; and it shall be the duty of said Deputy Sheriffs to also perform and render any and all other services that may from time to time be assigned them or to any of them by the Judges of said Courts. The said deputies shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout the State may or may hereafter possess and enjoy. The said Deputy Sheriffs are authorized and empowered to act for one another, and it shall be their duty to so act for one another when required to do so by any of the Judges of the said Courts or by the said Sheriff; but said deputies thus acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive nor shall they receive any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County shall, in the event of a vacancy, caused by any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such Court in which a vacancy may occur, such appointment, however, to be subject to the approval and written confirmation of the Judge of the Court in which such vacancy may exist. The salary of the said deputies appointed for each of the said

District Courts shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of the said Court in any sum not less than Three Thousand, Nine Hundred Dollars ($3,900) annually. The said annual salaries to be paid to the said deputies, when fixed by said Judges as herein provided, shall be paid to them either monthly or twice monthly out of such fund of Bexar County as provided by law for the payment of salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided that nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the Sheriff of Bexar County from assigning additional deputies to any of the said District Courts when circumstances so require, or when requested to do so by the Judge of any of the said District Courts. Provided that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and the powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

(N) The Clerk of the District Courts of Bexar County shall be the Clerk of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 144th, 150th, 166th, and the 175th District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and shall be compensated as provided by law. The District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the effective date of this Act, appoint a deputy for each of the said District Courts; provided, however, that the persons thus appointed must be acceptable to the respective Judges of the said Courts, and such appointment for each of the said Courts must be confirmed in writing by the Judge thereof before it becomes effective. The said deputies thus appointed shall, before assuming their respective duties, take the oath of office as prescribed by the Constitution of Texas; and the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputies to furnish bonds in such amount, conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by the said District Clerk or provided by law. The said Deputy District Clerks shall act in the name of their principal, and they, and each of them may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the said District Clerk in person; and it shall be the duty of each of the said deputies to attend all sessions of the District Court to which he has been appointed, and perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the District Clerk and their deputies in the several District Courts of this State; and the said deputies shall also perform any and all other services that may from time to time be assigned them by the Judges of the said Courts. The said deputies to be appointed for the District Courts are authorized to act for one another in any matter pertaining to the clerical business of the said Courts, and it shall be their duty to thus act for one another when requested to do so by the Judges of the said Courts, or by the said District Clerk; but such deputies acting for one another shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall they receive, any additional compensation. The said deputies shall, from and after their said appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as the respective deputies at the pleasure of the Judges of the said Courts; and should any of the said Judges, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of the said Deputy District Clerk assigned to his Court, the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon request of such Judge or Judges, appoint another deputy for such Court or Courts, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinabove provided. In the event of a vacancy, caused by any reason whatsoever, the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall immediately appoint another deputy for the Court in which a vacancy has occurred, such appointment, however, shall be with the written approval and confirmation of the Judge of the Court in which a vacancy has occurred. The salary of the Deputy District Clerk appointed for each of the said

District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, shall be determined and fixed by the respective Judges of the said Courts in any amount not less than Four Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($4,400) annually; said annual salaries to be paid to said Deputy District Clerks either in equal monthly or twice monthly installments out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, and such payment of said salaries shall be made in the manner provided by law. Provided that nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, from assigning additional deputies to any of said Courts when circumstances so require, or when requested to do so by the Judge of any of the said District Courts. Provided that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the District Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly stated.

(O) The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall be the District Attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 144th, 150th, 166th, and the 175th District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and shall be compensated as provided by law.

(P) Each of the said District Courts shall have an official seal as now provided by law for District Courts.

(Q) The District Judges of the 144th and 175th District Courts shall alternately appoint grand jury commissioners and empanel grand juries; and further, they may appoint grand jury bailiffs, not to exceed seven (7). Each Judge may appoint three (3) of such bailiffs, and, if needed, may jointly appoint the seventh such bailiff. Bailiffs thus appointed are subject to removal at the will of the Judge or Judges so appointing them.

(R) The procedure for drawing jurors for said Courts shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be provided by law.

(S) The compensation of each Judge shall be the same as the compensation paid the Judges of the other District Courts, including the expenses as now provided by the laws of this State, and the compensation shall be paid in the manner in which other District Judges of the State are paid.

(T) It is expressly provided that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing any provision of Senate Bill No. 89, Acts, 1961, Fifty-seventh Legislature, page 38, Chapter 24, changing the names and designations of the Criminal District Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Criminal District Court Number 2 of Bexar County, Texas, to the 144th District Court and the 175th District Court of Bexar County, Texas, respectively. All other laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Section are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only; as to all other laws or parts of laws, this Section shall be cumulative. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 4(B).

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501, § 14 provided:

"Sec. 14. The sentence of article 199 (37) of Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes which reads as follows:

'The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall be the District Attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, and Special 37th District Courts and the Criminal District Courts and shall be compensated as provided by law.' is hereby repealed. It is the intention of this Legislature that this sentence only is repealed and nothing herein contained shall alter, amend or change any other portion of the Act quoted."

Dallas County, Texas. All of said Courts hereby created shall have and exercise, in addition to the jurisdiction now conferred by law on said Courts, concurrent jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of Dallas County in all actions, proceedings, matters and causes both civil and criminal of which District Courts of general jurisdiction are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

(D) The terms of each of said District Courts shall begin on the first Monday of January and July of each year, respectively and the term of each of said Courts shall continue until the convening of the next succeeding term.

(E) The judge of each of the Courts hereby created is authorized to appoint an official court reporter for his court and said court reporter shall have the qualifications now required by law for official shorthand reporters. Each such reporter shall perform the duties as required by law and such duties as may be assigned to the court reporter by the judge of the court to which the reporter is appointed and shall receive as compensation for his services the compensation now allowed or hereinafter allowed for the official shorthand reporters for the District Courts of Dallas County, Texas, under the laws of this State.

(F) The letter "I" shall be placed on the docket and court papers of the 162nd District Court. As soon as possible after this Act takes effect the District Clerk of Dallas County, Texas, shall, under the direction of the presiding judge of the District Judges of Dallas County, cause the civil dockets to be equalized in each of the District Courts handling civil matters in Dallas County by transferring pending cases from existing District Courts to the District Courts created by this Act as will be necessary to equalize the dockets of each of the District Courts; and thereafter civil cases shall be docketed by the District Clerk in rotation from A through I as such cases are filed or in any other manner as directed by the presiding judge of the District Judges of Dallas County. The District Clerk, similarly, shall equalize the dockets of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County by transferring cases from the Criminal District Court, the Criminal District Court Number 2 and the Criminal District Court Number 3 to the Criminal District Court Number 4.

(G) The judge of any of the District Courts in Dallas County may in his discretion try and dispose of any causes, matters or proceedings for any other judge of said Courts. Either of the judges of said District Courts of Dallas County may at his discretion at term time or in vacation transfer a case or cases to said other District Court with the consent of the judge of said other District Court by order entered in the minutes of his court. When such transfer is ordered, the District Clerk of Dallas County shall certify all orders made in said case and such certified copies of such orders together with the original papers shall be filed among the papers of the case thus transferred and the fees thereof shall be taxed as part of the costs of said suit and the Clerk of said Court shall docket any such case in the Court to which it shall have been transferred, and when so entered, the Court to which same shall have been thus transferred shall have like jurisdiction therein as in cases originally filed in said Court. All process and writs issued out of the District Court from which any such transfer is made shall be returnable to the Court to which said transfer is made.

(H) The District Attorney of Dallas County shall also be the District Attorney for the additional Courts created by this Section.

(I) The District Clerk of Dallas County, Texas, shall also act as District Clerk for the 162nd Judicial District, and the Criminal District Court Number 4.

(J) The Sheriff of Dallas County either in person or by deputy shall attend the Courts created by this Section as required by law or when required by the respective judges thereof and the sheriff and constables of the several counties of this State when executing processes out of said Courts shall receive fees as provided by General Law for executing processes issued out of District Courts.

(K) All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued out of the District Courts or Criminal District Courts of Dallas County are hereby made returnable to the said District Courts of Dallas County as required by law and all bonds executed and recognizances entered by and in said Courts shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds or recognizances at the terms of such Courts as fixed by law and this Section and all processes heretofore returned or hereafter returned to the District Courts of Dallas County shall be valid.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, which created additional district courts for judicial districts numbers 162 through 167, provided in section 6: "The Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge, respectively, of each of said District Courts herein created, each of whom shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. At the first General Election after the creation of said District Courts provided for herein the Judge of each of said Courts shall be elected for a term of four (4) years. Such persons so appointed and elected shall have the qualifications provided by the Constitution and the laws for this State for District Judges. The Judge of each of the Courts created by this Act shall draw the same compensation that is provided by the laws of the State of Texas for District Judges of the respective counties where the Courts herein created are located."

163. — Orange

(A) There is hereby created effective September 1, 1963, an additional Judicial District in and for the County of Orange, State of Texas, the limits of which District shall be coextensive with the limits of said County. Said Judicial District shall be known as the 163rd Judicial District.

(B) The District Court for the 163rd Judicial District shall have and exercise the jurisdiction prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this State for district courts in general. The judge thereof shall have and exercise the powers conferred by the Constitution and laws of this State on the judges of the district courts in general. The jurisdiction of said Court shall be concurrent with that of the 128th District Court in Orange County.

(C) The terms of the 163rd District Court shall begin on the first Monday in January, May and September of each year, respectively, and each term of said Court shall continue until the convening of the next succeeding term.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(D) The Judge of the Court created by this Section shall draw the same compensation that is provided by the laws of the State of Texas for the Judge of the 128th District Court.

(E) The Judge of the 163rd District Court is authorized to appoint an official court reporter for this Court and said court reporter shall have the qualifications now required by law for official shorthand reporters. Such reporter shall perform the duties as required by law and such duties as may be assigned to the court reporter by the Judge of the Court to which the reporter is appointed and shall receive as compensation for his services the compensation now allowed or hereinafter allowed for the official shorthand reporters for the District Court of Orange County under the laws of this State.

(F) The letters "A" and "B" shall be placed on the docket and the court papers of the respective District Courts of Orange County to distinguish them, the letter "A" being used in connection with the 128th District Court and the letter "B" being used in connection with the 163rd District Court. As soon as possible after this Act takes effect the District Clerk of Orange County shall, under the direction of the District Judges of said Courts, cause the civil and criminal dockets to be equalized in the number of cases pending in each of the existing Courts; and thereafter civil and criminal cases shall be docketed by the District Clerk in rotation from "A" through "B" as such cases are filed, or in any other manner as directed by the said District Judges.

(G) The Judge of either of the District Courts may at his discretion try and dispose of any causes, matters or proceedings for the other Judge of said Courts. Either of the Judges of said District Courts may at his discretion at term time or in vacation transfer a case or cases to said District Court with the consent of the Judge of said other District Court by order entered in the minutes of his Court. When such transfer is ordered, the District Clerk of Orange County shall certify all orders made in said cases and such certified copies of such orders, together with the original papers, shall be filed among the papers of the case thus transferred and the fees thereof shall be taxed as part of the cost of said suit and the Clerk of said Court shall docket any such case in the court to which it shall have been transferred, and when so entered, the court to which the same shall have been transferred shall have like jurisdiction therein as in cases originally filed in said Court. All process and writs issued out of the District Court from which any such transfer is made shall be returnable to the Court to which said transfer is made, according to the terms of the District Court or the respective court as fixed by this Act.

(H) The District Clerk of Orange County shall also act as District Clerk for the 163rd District Court of Orange County.

(I) The District Attorney in and for the 128th Judicial District Court shall also act as the District Attorney for the 163rd Judicial District Court created herein.

(J) The Sheriff of Orange County shall attend either in person or by deputy the 163rd District Court, as required by law in Orange County or when required by the Judge thereof, and the Sheriff and constables of the several counties of this State when executing process out of said Courts shall receive fees provided by General Law for executing process out of District Courts.

(K) All processes, writs, bonds, recognizances or other obligations issued out of the District Courts of Orange County are hereby made returnable to the terms of the District Courts of Orange County as said terms are fixed by law and by this Act, and all bonds executed and recognizances entered by and in said Court shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in the 128th District Court shall be valid.

(L) All grand and petit juries drawn and selected under existing laws in Orange County shall be considered lawfully drawn and selected for either the 163rd District Court or the 128th District Court, and may be used interchangeably in connection with said Courts.

(M) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all laws now in effect with respect to the 128th District Court of Orange County shall apply to the 163rd District Court created by this Section. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 2.

Emergency. Effective Sept. 1, 1963.

Appointment, election, qualifications and compensation of judge of the 163rd Judicial District, see note under art. 199(162). District Court of Orange County, see art. 199(128).

164, 165. — Harris

There are hereby created in and for Harris County, Texas, two (2) additional District Courts, the limits each of which shall be coextensive with the limits of Harris County, Texas. Said Courts shall be known, respectively, as the 164th and 165th District Courts; the 164th District Court shall be effective September 1, 1963, and the 165th District Court shall be effective June 1, 1964. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 3(A).

Emergency. Effective Sept. 1, 1963.

Appointment, election, qualifications and compensation of judges of 164th and 165th Judicial Districts, see note under art. 199(162). Judicial districts in Harris County, see art. 199(11).

166. — Bexar

There is hereby created effective February 1, 1964, one (1) additional District Court in and for Bexar County, Texas, to be known as the 166th Judicial District Court. The limits of such District Court shall be coextensive with the limits of Bexar County, Texas. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 4(A).

Emergency. Effective Sept. 1, 1963.

Appointment, election, qualifications and compensation of judge of 166th Judicial District, see note under art. 199(162). Judicial district in Bexar County, see art. 199(37).

167. — Travis

(A) There is hereby created effective June 1, 1964, the 167th Judicial District to be composed of and to have its boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Travis County, Texas; and there is also hereby created the 167th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas.

(B) The 167th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, shall have jurisdiction over all matters, both civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given or shall be given by the Constitution and Laws of Texas to district courts.

(C) The terms of the 167th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, shall begin on the first Monday in March and the first Monday in September of each year and each term of said Court shall continue until the convening of the next succeeding term.

(D) The Judge of said District Court shall have the right to select jury commissioners and empanel grand juries and may order both grand and petit juries to be drawn for such terms of his Court as in his judgment is necessary, by an order entered in the minutes of said Court.

(E) The Judge of said District Court is authorized to appoint an official Court Reporter for said Court who shall have the qualifications and receive the same compensation as are now, or may hereafter be, fixed by law for court reporters in district courts.

(F) The Sheriff, District Attorney, County Attorney, and the Clerk of the District Courts of Travis County, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the Sheriff, District Attorney, County Attorney, and Clerk, respectively, of the 167th Judicial District Court herein created under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for sheriffs, district attorneys, county attorneys, and clerks of the district courts of the State; and said Sheriff, District Attorney, County Attorney, and Clerk shall respectively receive such compensation as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of this State to be paid in the same manner.

(G) The Judge of said Court may, in his discretion, either on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties or on his own motion transfer any cause, civil or criminal, on his docket to the docket of one of the other District Courts of Travis County, Texas, and any of the Judges of the other District Courts in Travis County, Texas, may, in his discretion, either on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties or on his own motion, transfer any cause, civil or criminal, on his docket, to the docket of said 167th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, and the Judge of any of the District Courts of Travis County, Texas, may, in his discretion, exchange benches with any other District Judge in Travis County, Texas from time to time; and whenever a judge of any of said District Courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case from his Court to one of the other District Courts in said County and any of the Judges of the District Courts of Travis County may in his own courtroom try and determine any case or proceeding pending in any of the other District Courts of Travis County, without having the case transferred or may sit in any of the other of said Courts and there hear and determine any case there pending and each judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending, and two (2) or more judges may try different cases in the same Court at the same time and each may occupy his own courtroom or the room of any other Court. In case of absence, sickness, or disqualification of any of said District Judges of Travis County, any other of said Judges may hold court for him. Any of said Judges may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in any of said Courts and determine the same or may hear or determine any question in any case and any other of said Judges may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case. Any of said Judges may hear and determine exceptions, motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, and all dilatory pleas, motions for new trial and all preliminary matters, questions, and proceedings, and may enter judgment or order thereon in the Court in which the case is pending, without having the case transferred to the Court of the Judge acting and the Judge in whose Court the case is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete, and determine the case or other matter or any part thereof and render final judgment thereon. Any of the Judges of said Courts may issue restraining orders and injunctions returnable to any of the other judges of courts. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1332, ch. 507, § 5.

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Galveston County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, and with the approval of the Commissioners Court shall be and is hereby authorized to appoint one (1) first assistant and one (1) second assistant and fix their salaries as follows: said first and second assistant shall receive not less than Eight Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400) per annum nor more than Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per annum. The Criminal District Attorney of Galveston County, Texas, shall be and he is hereby authorized to appoint four (4) additional assistants in addition to the first and second assistant and fix their salaries as follows: two (2) of said additional assistants shall receive not less than Six Thousand Nine Hundred Dollars ($6,900) per annum nor more than Nine Thousand Dollars ($9,000) per annum, and two (2) assistants shall receive not less than Six Thousand One Hundred Eighty Dollars ($6,180) per annum nor more than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) per annum.

The Criminal District Attorney of Galveston County may employ three (3) secretaries and pay said employees not less than Three Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600) per annum nor more than Four Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($4,800) per annum. All of the salaries mentioned in this Section shall be payable from the officers salary fund, if adequate, if inadequate the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the general fund of the county to the officers salary fund.

In addition to the salaries provided the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants, the Commissioners Court of Galveston County may allow such Criminal District Attorney and his assistants such necessary expenses as within the discretion of the court seem reasonable and said expenses shall be paid as provided by law for such other claims of expenses. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 332, ch. 178, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 922, ch. 353, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 326k—43a. Twenty-seventh judicial district; stenographers, assistants and investigators

Application for appointment of assistants, investigators or stenographers; order authorizing employment

Section 1. Whenever the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District shall require the services of assistants, investigators or stenographers in the performance of his duty, he shall apply to the Commissioners Court of any one or more of the counties comprising said 27th Judicial District for authority to appoint such assistants, investigators or stenographers, stating by written application the number needed, the position to be filled, and the amount to be paid. Upon receipt of such application the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts applied to may enter an order authorizing the employment of such assistants, investigators and stenographers and fix the compensation to be paid them.

Qualifications of assistants; duties

Sec. 2. The assistants to the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and shall be authorized to perform all duties imposed on the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District by law.

Qualifications of investigators; powers; expenses

Sec. 3. Investigators for the District Attorney need not be licensed to practice law. They shall have authority to make arrests and execute process in criminal cases, and shall have all the rights and duties of a peace officer in criminal cases and in cases growing out of the enforcement of all laws.

Furnishing office furniture and supplies

Sec. 4. Any one or more of the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 27th Judicial District are authorized to furnish telephones, typewriters, office furniture, supplies, and such other items and equipment as may be deemed necessary to carry out the official duties of the District Attorney's office, and to pay necessary and essential expenses incident to carrying out the official duties of the District Attorney and his office. In addition to their salaries, the District Attorney, his assistants and investigators may be allowed actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the proper discharge of their duties. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to that portion of the compensation and travel expense paid by the State of Texas to district officials and employees.

Supplemental salary

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, in the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, is hereby authorized to supplement the salary paid by the State of Texas to the District Attorney of the 27th Judicial District of the State of Texas, by an additional salary of not less than One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) per year. The amount of any such supplemental salary that may be paid by said Commissioners Court of said County shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioners Court of said Bell County. This supplemental salary that may be paid by the said Commissioners Court of Bell County, Texas, shall be paid in addition to the salary paid said District Attorney by the State of Texas under existing law or any amendments or additions thereto.

Payment of salaries and expenses

Sec. 6. Only the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts of the counties within the 27th Judicial District that authorize the employment of assistants, investigators and stenographers as provided in Section 1 hereof shall be responsible for the payment of their salaries and payment of expenses thereof and of the District Attorney as provided for in Section 4 of this Act. Any such expense agreed upon by the Commissioners Courts of more than one such county within said district shall be determined according to population of the counties. The salaries of any assistants, investigators, and stenographers as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and any expenditure authorized in Section 4 of this Act, and the supplemental salary of the District Attorney as provided in Section 5 of this Act, shall be paid from the Officers Salary Fund of the county or counties obligated by the terms of this Act, or the General Fund or any combination thereof at the discretion of the said Commissioners Courts. The compensation paid from county funds of the three counties comprising the 27th Judicial District to any person affected by this Act shall not be set at a figure lower than that actually paid to that person, or to any other person serving in that position, from such funds on the effective date of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 923, ch. 354.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 326k—48. Eighty-first judicial district; supplemental salary of district attorney

The District Attorney of the 81st Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amount as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to District Attorneys by the State, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 81st Judicial District, or any one or more of such Commissioners Courts; providing, however, that the total salary of such District Attorney shall not be supplemented to exceed the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per annum. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the 81st Judicial District or any one or more of them, are hereby authorized to pay the supplemental salary herein authorized, in such amount within the limit fixed above. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 419, ch. 143, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Title of Act:

An Act authorizing the Commissioners Courts of the counties of the 81st Judicial District to supplement the salary of the District Attorney of the 81st Judicial District; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 419, ch. 143.

Ark. 326k—49. First judicial district; supplemental salary of district attorney

Section 1. The District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District shall be compensated for his services in such amounts as may be fixed by the General Law relating to the salary paid to district attorneys by the state, and in addition his salary may be supplemented by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the district of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District, so that the total salary of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District may be the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per annum.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the District of the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District are hereby authorized to pay said supplement to the salary paid the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District by the state, out of the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties, if adequate; if inadequate, the said Commissioners Courts shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Funds of said counties to the Officer's Salary Funds of said counties.

Sec. 3. The supplemental salary to be paid the District Attorney of the 1st Judicial District by the Commissioners Courts of the counties comprising the district of said District Attorney shall be paid on a pro rata basis according to the population of each county listed in the last preceding Federal Census. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 926, ch. 356.

Art. 326k—50. Criminal district attorney for Bexar CountyPurpose of act

Section 1. In view of the fact that presently there are a large number of statutes which regulate the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas; some contained in numerous bracket laws and others in enactments involving the creation of various courts of Bexar County, and, in view of the fact that such statutes governing the operation of this office should be harmonized and one clear mode for operation of this office should be set out, the following is hereby enacted by the Legislature of this state as a Special Law after due publication in accordance with the Constitution of Texas.

Creation of office; election and term; qualifications

Sec. 2. In Bexar County, there is hereby created the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, which officer shall be a Constitutional Criminal District Attorney. The present Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall fill this office until the 1st day of January, 1967, or until his successor is elected, and qualified, unless a vacancy in this office shall occur by death, resignation or other lawful cause, whereupon the remaining term of this office shall be filled in accordance with the law. Thereafter such officer shall be elected every four years in accordance with the Constitution of this state. The said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall possess the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this state of other District Attorneys.

Duties and powers

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, or his assistants as herein provided, to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the District and County and Justice

47 ATTORNEYS—DISTRICT AND COUNTY Art. 326k—50

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Courts of Bexar County, as hereinafter provided, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all matters pending before said courts and to represent Bexar County in all matters pending before such courts and any other court where Bexar County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within such county, as are now by law conferred or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys under any law of this state. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by District and County Attorneys of this state which funds shall be paid into the proper county funds as provided by law.

Compensation; commission

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall receive as pay for his services the sum of Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($16,500) annually. He shall receive a salary of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) from the State of Texas as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas for the salary of District Attorneys. The Commissioners Court in Bexar County shall supplement the salary of the Criminal District Attorney by the State of Texas in an amount to provide the salary set out herein. The Criminal District Attorney shall be commissioned in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this state.

and 175th judicial district courts

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall be and function as the District Attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st, 150th, 144th, and 175th Judicial District Courts of Texas, and in addition thereto shall be and function as the District Attorney for any future Judicial District which may be created which has as its territorial jurisdiction that area that lies within the boundaries of Bexar County, Texas.

Assistants and employees; salaries; removal

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County shall appoint assistants, stenographers, investigators and other employees of this office. The number of such positions in each class of employment, and the amount of salary that shall be paid to the person holding each position shall be designated by the Criminal District Attorney and be subject to the approval of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County. All of the salaries shall be paid from the Officers Salary Fund if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court may pay salaries out of the General Fund, the Jury fund, or any other funds available for the purpose. All employees of the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, whether assistants, stenographers, investigators, or any other class of employment, shall be removable at the will of the Criminal District Attorney.

Assistant criminal district attorneys and investigators;
powers and duties

Sec. 7. The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Bexar County, and the investigators, when so appointed, shall take the Constitutional Oath of office and the said Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their duty, to represent the State of Texas in all Criminal cases pending in any and all of the Courts of Bexar County, Texas, except in the Corporation Courts of the various cities and towns in Bexar County. Said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys of Bexar County are hereby authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, which assistants shall act subject to and under the direction of the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County.

Office space

Sec. 8. The Commissioners Court is authorized upon the request of the Criminal District Attorney to provide office space for such officers, his assistants, investigators and other staff.

Allowance for automobile expense

Sec. 9. The Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to allow such automobile expense to any officer, investigator, or employee in the performance of his official duties as they may deem necessary.

Qualifications of assistants and investigators

Sec. 10. The assistants to the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County must be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas; however, the investigators or other classes of employees need not be duly and legally licensed to practice law in the State of Texas.

Special counsel

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court of Bexar County shall have the authority to employ special counsel, learned in the law, to represent the county in all suits brought by or against such county involving condemnations or eminent domain proceedings, and particularly with authority to render aid and work with the Commissioners Court, the County Engineer and other county employees in the preparation of documents necessary in the acquisition of rights-of-way for the county, or in cases where the county is required to obtain rights-of-way for state highways, or to assist in the acquisition of such rights-of-way; to represent the county in all condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of rights-of-way for highways, and other proper purposes where the right of eminent domain is given to counties. The Commissioners Court of Bexar County and the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, acting in conjunction and upon the approval of both, shall employ any such special counsel and such employment shall be made for such time and on such terms as they may jointly deem necessary, expedient and proper. Termination of employment of such special counsel shall be governed by the law regulating removal of Assistant Criminal District Attorneys, investigators and other classes of employees of the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, as provided in this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501, § 12 amended article 322; section 13 provided: "Sections 12, 13, 14, 15, 15a and 16 of Article 52—161, Vernon's Code of Criminal Procedure, all of which relate to the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, if not repealed by Chapter 262, page 730 #4, 54th Legislature, are hereby repealed,⁸⁷ and any other law in direct conflict with this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict."

Sections 14 and 15 of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1312, ch. 501 repealed two sentences in article 199 (37) and (150) relating to the criminal district attorney of Bexar County as district attorney of the 37th, 45th, 57th, 73rd, 131st and 150th judicial district courts; section 16 of the act was a savings provision; section 17 provided: "That this is a Special Law passed in accordance with the Constitution relating to the office of Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County only, and shall not be construed to repeal nor is it intended by the Legislature to repeal any laws relating to the District Attorneys or

Art. 326k—51. Criminal district attorney for Upshur County

Creation of office; qualifications; oath bond

Section 1. The constitutional office of Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, Texas, is hereby created. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County shall possess all the qualifications and shall take the oath of office and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State of other district attorneys.

Election and term of office

Sec. 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of Upshur County at the General Election in November, 1964, a Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County for the remainder of the constitutional term of office expiring on December 31, 1966. At the General Election in 1966 and every four (4) years thereafter, there shall be elected a Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County for the full constitutional term of four (4) years.

Powers, duties and privileges; fees, commissions and perquisites

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County or his assistant as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the district courts of Upshur County and all of the sessions and terms of the inferior courts of Upshur County held for the transaction of criminal business, and to exclusively represent the State of Texas in all criminal matters pending before said courts, and to represent Upshur County in all matters pending before such courts or any other court where Upshur County has pending business of any kind, matter or interest. In addition to the specified powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, he is invested with such powers, duties and privileges within Upshur County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon the district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this State. He shall collect such fees, commissions and perquisites as are now, or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services rendered by district and county attorneys of this State.

Commission; salary

Sec. 4. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as salary and compensation the sum of Seven Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) per year, to be paid out of the Officers Salary Fund of Upshur County, if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court of Upshur County shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officers Salary Fund.

Assistant; secretary; appointment and salary

Sec. 5. The Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of his office, and with the approval of the Commissioners Court of Upshur County, may appoint one assistant, who shall receive a salary of not less than Four Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars ($4,200) and not more than Four Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars

($4,800) per year, and one secretary, who shall receive a salary of not less than Two Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($2,600) and not more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) per year. The salary of the assistant and of the secretary shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall be paid from the Officers Salary Fund, if adequate; if inadequate, the Commissioners Court shall transfer the necessary funds from the General Fund of the County to the Officers Salary Fund.

Oath of assistant; powers and duties

Sec. 6. The Assistant Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, when so appointed, shall take the constitutional oath of office, and shall be authorized to administer oaths, file informations, examine witnesses before the grand jury, and generally to exercise any power and perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County.

Expenses

Sec. 7. In addition to the salaries provided the Criminal District Attorney and his assistant, the Commissioners Court of Upshur County may allow the Criminal District Attorney and his assistant such necessary expenses as within its discretion seems reasonable, to be paid as provided by law for such other claims of expenses.

Appointment by governor; abolition of office of county attorney

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Governor of Texas shall immediately appoint a Criminal District Attorney of Upshur County, who shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The office of County Attorney of Upshur County is abolished from and after the effective date of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1345, ch. 508.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Each examiner and each assistant examiner shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the Finance Commission. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 1.

¹ So in enrolled bill.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 342—207. Commissioner—General Powers—Duties—Liabilities of Commissioner and Others—Defense by Attorney General

Sale of checks act, issuance of license by commissioner of state banking department, see art. 489d.

Art. 342—304. Articles of Association

The articles of association of a state bank shall be signed and acknowledged by each person subscribing to stock and shall contain:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The city or town and the county of its domicile.
3. Such of the powers listed in Article 1 of this Chapter as it shall choose to exercise.
4. The capital and the denomination and number of shares.
5. The name and address of each subscriber for stock and the number of shares subscribed for by him.
6. The number of directors.
7. The period of duration, which may be perpetual. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 342—305. Application for and Granting of Charters—Approval—Conditional Approval

Applicants shall file with the Commissioner an application for charter and the proposed articles of association; provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to present any application for a State Bank Charter on printed forms prepared by the State Banking Board, or the State Banking Department or the Commissioner of Banking, or under their or his directions, but any application which shall contain substantially the information required by this Act shall be deemed compliance therewith. Forms prepared by the Department or Commissioner may be used. Subsequently to the filing of any application for a charter the Commissioner may require additional information in connection therewith. Upon presentation to the Department or the Commissioner during regular business hours, such application shall be immediately filed and processed in the normal course of business, without delay or prejudice. In the event any citizen of this State shall request a set or sets of printed forms, prepared by the Department or the Commissioner, to be used in applying for a State Bank Charter from the State Banking Board or the State Banking Department or the Commissioner thereunder, or any employee thereof or therein, such forms shall be forthwith furnished and such applicant or citizen shall not be asked, nor shall he be required to disclose any information, at such time, concerning any proposed application for a State Bank Charter prior to its filing. The violation of any provision or requirement herein or the failure or refusal on the part of any official or employee of the State Banking Department to comply with any provision or requirement herein shall be cause for removal from office or dismissal from employment by the State Banking Board. Charter fees as prescribed by law shall be deposited with the Commissioner at the time the application is filed. The Commissioner shall thereupon make a thorough investigation of the application, the actual expense of which shall be determined by and paid to the Commissioner by the applicants prior to the hearing, and based upon the written report of such investigation, he shall make his findings together with the investigation report available to the State Banking Board. The written report of investigation and the findings of the Commissioner shall be made available to all interested parties at their request, provided that all sources of the information contained in the report of investigation shall be considered confidential and shall be privileged communications.

In considering any such application, the State Banking Board shall, after hearing, determine whether or not:

1. A public necessity exists for the proposed bank.
2. The proposed capital structure is adequate.
3. The volume of business in the community where such proposed bank is to be established is such as to indicate profitable operation of the proposed bank.
4. The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability and standing to render success of the proposed bank probable.
5. The applicants are acting in good faith.

Should the State Banking Board determine any of the above issues adversely to the applicants, it shall reject the application. Otherwise such Board shall approve the application and the Commissioner shall, when the capital has been paid in cash, deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the articles of association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided, however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the articles of association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the articles of association. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 342—312. Amendment of Articles of Association—Rights of Stockholders upon Increase in Capital

Savings and loan associations, amendment of charter and bylaws, see art. 852a, § 2.11.

Art. 342—404. Directors—Number—Change of Number—Advisory Directors

Savings and loan associations, directors, see art. 852a, § 3.01.

CHAPTER FIVE—LOANS AND INVESTMENTS

Art.
342—509a. Stockholders, Officers and Employees—Authority to Take Acknowledgments [New].

Condominium projects, loans on individual apartments, see art. 1301a, § 10.

Art. 342—502. Other Real Estate—Depreciation—Exceptions

Condominium projects, loans on individual apartments, see art. 1301a, § 10.

Art. 342—504. Real Estate Loans—Limitations—Exceptions

Except as provided in Sections 4 through 8 of this Article, no state bank shall make a loan upon security of real estate or invest its funds in obligations secured by real estate unless:

1. The security is a first lien upon such real estate or the loan or investment made by the bank is wholly guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs under Title III of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act of 1944,¹ as amended from time to time.

2. The total net balance owing upon the indebtedness secured by such lien:

(a) does not exceed sixty per cent (60%) of the appraised value of such real estate;

(b) does not exceed seventy per cent (70%) of the appraised value of such real estate and such loan or obligation provides for uniform monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual reductions of principal in such amounts as to retire forty per cent (40%) thereof within five (5) years of the date of the bank's loan or investment; or

(c) does not exceed eighty per cent (80%) of the appraised value of such real estate when such real estate consists of 'residential real estate' and such loan provides for repayment in equal monthly installments in such amounts as to retire the same in its entirety, both as to principal and interest, in not more than two hundred and forty (240) months from the date thereof and further provides for equal monthly deposits during the term thereof in amounts sufficient to pay as they accrue the premiums on fire and tornado insurance and all taxes assessed against the security. The aggregate of loans and investments of the class provided for in this Subsection (c) of Section 2 made by any state bank shall never, without the written consent of the Commissioner, exceed the certified surplus and capital of such bank.

The term "residential real estate" as used in this Subsection (c) of Section 2 shall mean land on which is situated a dwelling of not more than four (4) family units the primary use of which is occupancy as a home.

The term "net balance" as used in this Section 2 shall mean the balance obtained after deducting from any loan or obligation the portion thereof guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs under Title III of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended from time to time.

3. Such loan or obligation is supported by:

(a) either an attorney's opinion or a mortgagee's title insurance policy;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(b) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(c) a written appraisal of such real estate signed by an appraiser; and

(d) if the improvements situated upon such real estate constitute an appreciable portion of the security, adequate coverage insuring the interest of the bank against loss by fire and tornado.

4. The limitations, restrictions and requirements of Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this Article shall not apply to a loan or obligation insured by the Federal Housing Administration, or to any loan or obligation which the United States of America has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest through a federal agency or instrumentality, or to security taken to prevent loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith.

5. Construction loans:

(a) The following loans made to finance the construction of buildings shall not be considered as loans secured by real estate within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans, provided that such loans shall be secured by a first lien on the real estate upon which the building or buildings are being constructed:

(1) loans made to finance the construction of industrial or commercial buildings having maturities not in excess of thirty-six (36) months where there are valid and binding agreements entered into by financially responsible lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings, and

(2) loans made to finance the construction of residential or farm buildings having maturities not in excess of eighteen (18) months.

(b) Such loans or obligations shall be supported by:

(1) either an attorney's opinion, a mortgagee's title insurance policy or a mortgagee's title insurance policy binder;

(2) evidence of payment of all taxes other than taxes for the current year;

(3) either a written appraisal of such real estate, signed by an appraiser, or a valid and binding agreement entered into by a financially responsible lender or lenders to advance the full amount of the bank's loan upon completion of the buildings; and

(4) insurance coverage upon the building or buildings under construction in an amount adequate to insure the interest of the bank against loss by fire, tornado and other casualties.

(c) No state bank shall, without the written consent of the Commissioner, invest its funds in, or be liable on, any such loans in an aggregate amount in excess of its capital and certified surplus.

6. Loans made to established industrial or commercial businesses in which the Housing and Home Finance Administrator or the Small Business Administration cooperates or purchases a participation under the provisions of Section 102 or 102a of the Housing Act of 1948, as amended,² or of the Small Business Act of 1953,³ shall not be subject to the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article upon loans secured by real estate.

7. Loans made to businesses where the bank looks for repayment out of the operations of the borrower's business, relying primarily on the borrower's general credit standing and forecast of operations, with or without other security, but wishes to take a mortgage on the borrower's real estate as a precaution against contingencies, shall not be considered as real estate loans within the meaning of this Article but shall be classed as ordinary commercial loans.

8. Loans may be made to finance the construction of buildings during a construction period in each case of not to exceed thirty-six (36) months, upon the security of:

(a) a purchase contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Public Buildings Purchase Contract Act of 1954⁴ or the Post Office Department Property Act of 1954,⁵ or an assignment thereof irrevocably binding the Administrator of General Services or the Postmaster General to commence payments at a specified date not later than one month from the date of completion and acceptance of the building and to continue such payments at least at annual intervals until the loan has been paid in full, and

(b) a bid and performance bond with one or more financially responsible sureties thereon in favor of the General Services Administration or the Post Office Department, jointly with the lender, without complying with the requirements, restrictions or limitations of this Article concerning loans secured by real estate, even though the lender may hold additional security in the form of a mortgage, deed of trust, title to the premises involved, or other such lien on such premises. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 894, ch. 412, § 9; Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 108, ch. 37, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 4.

Savings and loan associations, voluntary liquidation, see art. 852a, § 10.04.

CHAPTER NINE—GENERAL PROVISIONSArt. 342—903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No state, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purpose of this Article 'banking house' means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by pneumatic tube or other similar carrier. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 213, ch. 123, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 6.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 342—908. Application of Code to National Banks—Discrimination Between State and National Banks

State and national banks are hereby declared to be within the same class under the Constitution and laws of this State. It is not the intention of the Legislature to discriminate between state banks and national banks. To the extent that the State of Texas has power to legislate with reference to national banks, all laws of this State shall apply alike to state banks and national banks domiciled in this State; and state banks shall be subject to only such taxes heretofore or hereafter imposed by the State, or any political subdivision thereof, as could lawfully be imposed upon such state banks were they operating as national banks. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 134, ch. 81, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

MISCELLANEOUS LAWS

SALE OF CHECKS ACT

Art.

489d. Sale of Checks Act [New].

SALE OF CHECKS ACT

Art. 489d. Sale of Checks Act

Citation

Section 1. This Act may be cited as "The Sale of Checks Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock association, trust, or corporation, but does not include the United States Government or the government of this state.

(b) "Licensee" means a person duly licensed by the Commissioner pursuant to this Act.

(c) "Check" means any check, draft, money order, personal money order, or other instrument for the transmission or payment of money.

(d) "Personal money order" means any instrument for the transmission or payment of money in relation to which the purchaser or remitter appoints or purports to appoint the seller thereof as his agent for the receipt, transmission, or handling of money, whether such instrument be signed by the seller or by the purchaser or remitter or some other person.

(e) "Sell" means to sell, to issue, or to deliver a check.

(f) "Deliver" means to deliver a check to the first person who in payment for same makes or purports to make a remittance of or against the face amount thereof, whether or not the deliveror also charges a fee in addition to the face amount, and whether or not the deliveror signs the check.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(g) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the State Banking Department.

License Required

Sec. 3. No person, except those specified in Section 4 shall engage in the business of selling checks, as a service or for a fee or other consideration, without having first obtained a license hereunder. Any person engaged in said business on the effective date of this Act may continue to engage therein without a license until the Commissioner shall have acted upon his application for a license, provided that such application be filed within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act.

Exemption from Licensing

Sec. 4. No license to sell checks as aforesaid shall be required hereunder of any of the following:

(a) Banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, and savings and loan associations, whether organized under the laws of this state or of the United States; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be deemed to enlarge the powers of the foregoing persons;

(b) Incorporated telegraph companies insofar as they receive money at any of their respective offices or agencies for immediate transmission by telegraph; or

(c) Agents of a licensee, as provided in Section 11.

Qualifications

Sec. 5. To qualify for a license hereunder an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The applicant shall have a net worth of at least Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), computed according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) The financial responsibility, financial condition, and business experience, and character and general fitness of the applicant shall be such as reasonably to warrant the belief that applicant's business will be conducted honestly, carefully and efficiently. To the extent deemed advisable by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may investigate and consider the qualifications of officers and directors of an applicant in determining whether this qualification has been met.

Applications

Sec. 6. Each application for such a license shall be made in writing and under oath to the Commissioner in such form as he may prescribe. The application shall state the full name and business address of:

(a) The proprietor, if the applicant is an individual;

(b) Every member, if the applicant is a partnership or association, except that if the applicant is a joint stock association having fifty (50) or more members, the name and business address need be given only of the association and each officer and director thereof;

(c) Every trustee and officer if the applicant is a trust; and

(d) The corporation and each officer and director thereof, if the applicant is a corporation.

Accompanying Fee, Statements and Bond

Sec. 7. Each application for a license shall be accompanied by:

(a) An investigation fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) which shall not be subject to refund but which, if the license be granted, shall constitute the license fee for the first license year or part thereof;

(b) Financial statements reasonably satisfactory to the Commissioner;

(c) A surety bond issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in the principal sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), and an additional principal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each location, in excess of one, at which the applicant proposes to sell checks in this state, but in no event shall the bond be required to be in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000). If the bond accompanying the application be in a principal sum of less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), the application shall also be accompanied by a list of the locations at which the business is to be conducted. The bond shall be in form satisfactory to the Commissioner and shall run to the state for the benefit of any claimants against the applicant or his agents to secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks. The aggregate liability of the surety in no event shall exceed the principal sum of the bond. Such claimants against the applicant or his agents may themselves bring suit directly on the bond, or the Attorney General may bring suit thereon in behalf of such claimants, either in one action or successive actions; or

(d) In lieu of such corporate surety bond or bonds, or of any portion of the principal thereof as required by this Section, the applicant may deposit with the Commissioner or with such banks or trust companies or national banks in this state as such applicant may designate and the Commissioner may approve interest-bearing stocks and bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States, or of this state, or of a city, county, town, village, school district or instrumentality of this state, or guaranteed by this state, to an aggregate amount, based upon principal amount or market value, whichever is lower, of not less than the amount of the required corporate surety bond or portion thereof. The securities shall be deposited as aforesaid and held to secure the same obligations as would the surety bond, but the depositor shall be entitled to receive all interest and dividends thereon, shall have the right, with the approval of the Commissioner, to substitute other securities for those deposited, and shall be required so to do on written order of the Commissioner made for good cause shown.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of (c) above, when the Commissioner determines with respect to any applicant or licensee that a bond or equivalent deposit of less than the sums prescribed therein will be sufficient to fully secure the faithful performance of the obligations of the applicant or licensee and his agents with respect to the receipt, handling, transmission and payment of money in connection with the sale of checks, then he is authorized to reduce the bond or equivalent deposit required of such applicant or licensee to such sums as will be sufficient. In making such determination, the Commissioner may consider the maximum sums of checks sold or to be sold by the applicant or licensee and which are or can reasonably be expected to be outstanding at any one time and all other relevant facts. Nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict or limit the authority of the Commissioner to require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities as provided for in subsection (b) of Section 9.

Investigation; Granting of License

Sec. 8. Upon the filing of an application in due form, accompanied by the fee and documents mentioned in Section 7, the Commissioner shall investigate to ascertain whether the qualifications prescribed by Section 5 have been met. If he finds that such qualifications have been met, and if he approves the said documents and finds that said bond is in the prescribed amount, he shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business of selling checks in this state.

Maintenance of Bond or Securities

Sec. 9. After a license has been granted, the licensee shall maintain said bond or securities in the amount prescribed by Section 7, as follows:

(a) Each licensee who does not have on file or deposit a bond or securities, as aforesaid, in the undiminished principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000), shall file quarterly reports with the Commissioner setting forth the locations at which he sells checks in this state as of January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 in each year, the report for each such date being due on or before the 15th day thereafter. Within ten (10) days following the filing of such a report, the principal sum of the bond or securities shall be increased to reflect any increase in the number of locations, and may be decreased to reflect any decrease in the number of locations.

(b) If the Commissioner shall at any time reasonably determine that the bond or securities aforesaid are insecure, deficient in amount, or exhausted in whole or part, he may by written order require the filing of a new or supplemental bond or the deposit of new or additional securities in order to secure compliance with this Act, such order to be complied with within thirty (30) days following service thereof upon the licensee.

Annual License Fee

Sec. 10. Each licensee shall pay to the Commissioner annually on or before April 15 of each year a license fee of Fifty Dollars ($50).

Agents and Sub-agents

Sec. 11. A licensee may conduct his business at one or more locations within this state, as follows:

(a) The business may be conducted through or by means of such agents and sub-agents as the licensee may from time to time designate or appoint.

(b) No license under this Act shall be required of any agent or sub-agent of a licensee except as provided in the following subsection.

(c) An agent or sub-agent, other than a person referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 4, who sells the licensee's checks over-the-counter to the public shall not be exempt from licensing under this Act if such agent or sub-agent in the regular conduct of such business receives or at any time has access to (1) the licensee's checks which, having been paid, are returned through banking channels or otherwise for verification or for reconciliation or accounting with respect thereto or (2) bank statements relating to checks so returned. This subsection shall not affect the exemption of any agent of a licensee who does not sell checks over-the-counter to the public.

Liability of Licensees

Sec. 12. Each licensee shall be liable for the payment of all checks which he sells, in whatever form and whether directly or through an agent, as the maker or drawer thereof according to the negotiable instrument laws of this state; and a licensee who sells a check, whether directly or through an agent, upon which he is not designated as maker or drawer shall nevertheless have the same liabilities with respect thereto as if he had signed same as the drawer thereof.

Disclosure of Responsibility

Sec. 13. Every check sold by a licensee, directly or through an agent, shall bear the name of the licensee clearly imprinted thereon.

Revocation of License; Investigations

Sec. 14. The Commissioner may revoke a license on any ground on which he may refuse to grant a license or for violation of any provision of this Act. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Commissioner, if he has reasonable cause to believe that the grounds for revocation exist, may investigate the business, books and records of the licensee.

Hearings

Sec. 15. No license shall be denied or revoked except after a hearing thereon. The Commissioner shall give the applicant or licensee at least twenty (20) days written notice of the time and place of such hearing by registered or certified mail addressed to the principal place of business of such applicant or licensee. Any order of the Commissioner denying or revoking such license shall state the grounds upon which it is based and shall not be effective until twenty (20) days after written notice thereof has been sent by registered or certified mail to the applicant or licensee at such principal place of business.

Penalties

Sec. 16. Any person who directly or through another violates or attempts to violate any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or both. Each transaction in violation of this Act and each day that a violation continues shall be a separate offense.

Severability

Sec. 17. Should any provision, sentence, clause, Section or part of this Act for any reason be held unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such unconstitutionality, illegality, or invalidity shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, Sections or parts of this Act. It is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature that this Act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal or invalid sentence, clause, Section or part thereof not been included herein. PREPAID FUNERAL SERVICES OR MERCHANDISE

Art. 548b. Sale of prepaid funeral services or funeral merchandise

Permit from State Banking Department authorizing contracts

Section 1. Any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association (hereinafter called "organization" or "seller"), desiring to sell prearranged or prepaid funeral services or funeral merchandise (including caskets, grave vaults, and all other articles of merchandise incidental to a funeral service, but excluding grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums) in this state, under any contract, expressed or implied, providing for prepaid burial or funeral benefits or merchandise (hereinafter called "prepaid funeral benefits"), or who shall solicit the designation by an individual of the items of funeral merchandise or services which he desires to be provided out of any fund, investment, debenture, security, or contract to be created or purchased by such individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization shall obtain a permit from the State Banking Department of this state authorizing the transaction of this type of business, before conducting such business. Seller shall not be entitled to enforce a contract made in violation of this Act, but the purchaser or his heirs, or legal representative, shall be entitled to recover all amounts paid to the seller under any contract made in violation thereof, and all amounts paid whether or not paid seller, to any fund or for any investment, debenture, security, or contract where the seller has violated the provisions of this Act. Delivery of funeral merchandise prior to death shall not constitute performance or fulfillment, either wholly or in part, of any prepaid funeral benefits contract entered into after the effective date of this amendatory Act.

Provided, however, that grave lots, grave spaces, grave markers, monuments, tombstones, crypts, niches, and mausoleums shall not be excluded from the provisions of this Section when these items and articles are sold in contemplation of trade or barter for services and articles designated as included by the provisions of this Section. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, § 1.

Emergency. Effective July 15, 1963.

Solicitation of designation of funeral services and merchandise; creation of fund by contract of insurance

Sec. 1a. No organization covered by this Act shall solicit by any means whatsoever the designation by an individual of funeral services or merchandise which he desires to be provided to be paid out of any fund, investment, debenture, security, or contract, to be created or purchased by or for such an individual at the suggestion or solicitation of the organization, unless such a fund is to be created by a contract of insurance with an insurance company licensed in Texas, or unless such fund, investment, debenture, security, or contract shall have been approved by the Banking Department as safeguarding the rights and interests of the individual and his heirs and assigns to substantially the same or greater degree as is provided with respect to funds regulated by Section 5 hereof. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, § 2.

Application for and issuance of permit; filing fees; duration of permit

Sec. 3. Each organization desiring to sell prepaid funeral benefits shall file an application for a permit with the State Banking Department and shall pay a filing fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00). The Banking Commissioner shall issue a permit upon receipt of the application and payment of the filing fee. Permits shall expire on March 1st each year, but may be renewed for a period of one (1) year upon payment of a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) on or before March 1st. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, § 3.

Handling of funds paid or collected under contract

Sec. 5. All sums heretofore or hereafter paid or collected on contracts for prepaid funeral benefits entered into prior to the effective date of this Act shall be handled in accordance with the manner in which they have heretofore been handled. All sums paid or collected on such contracts entered into after the effective date of this Act (with the exception of those paid where a contract of insurance is created or those approved by the Banking Department, as both are provided for in Section 1a of this Act) shall be handled in the following manner:

(1) The funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) may retain as its own money, for the purpose of covering its selling expenses, servicing costs, and general overhead, an amount not to exceed one-half of all funds so collected or paid until it has received for its use and benefit an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser of such prepaid funeral benefits as such total amount is reflected in the contract. No charges or assessments, except premiums collected on an insurance policy guaranteeing the payments on a prepaid funeral contract or the unpaid balance thereof, shall be collected from the purchaser other than those included in the total amount of said contract.

(2) All amounts paid or collected, with the exception of those permitted to be retained as set forth above, shall, within thirty days after such collection, be (a) deposited in a savings and loan association in this state, or (b) deposited in a state or national bank in this state, or (c) placed with the trust department for the use and benefit of the purchasers in a state or national bank in this state to be invested by such trust department in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Texas Trust Act. Such deposits or trust accounts shall be carried in the name of the funeral home or other entity to whom the purchaser makes payment, but accounting records shall be maintained showing the amount deposited or invested with respect to any particular purchaser's contract.

(3) The date of death of the purchaser of such contract (or other individual who may be designated in the contract as the person for whose funeral such funds may be used) shall be the maturity date of the contract, and as soon as conveniently practicable after such maturity date and upon presentation of a certified copy of the death certificate of such person together with proper affidavits as may be required by the State Banking Department, such funds shall be released in fulfillment of the contract, and the funeral home (or other entity to the contract which has collected the funds) shall, if the amount so withdrawn does not equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid under such contract, make up the difference so that the amount available for funeral benefits shall equal one hundred percent of the total amount paid in under such contract. Any amounts accumulated at maturity on any particular contract in excess of one hundred percent of the amount paid in on such contract shall be available to the funeral home (or other entity collecting said funds) in making up the difference on any particular contract which at maturity did not have funds available equal to one hundred percent of the amount paid under such contract. It is provided further, that at any time the total funds deposited or placed in trust plus accrued interest thereon on all such contracts of any particular funeral home or entity exceeds one hundred percent of the amount paid in on all such contracts, thereafter upon maturity of any contract the amount available for funeral benefits shall be increased by the proportionate amount of such excess as said purchaser's contract bears to the total amount paid in on all such contracts of the particular funeral home or entity. In no event shall more funds be withdrawn from the trust account than originally placed into the fund under any one contract other than through the payment to the purchaser or his estate of accrued interest earned in excess of the face amount of the contract; and in no event shall any accrued interest be paid to the seller.

(4) In the event a purchaser under a contract should desire to cancel the contract prior to maturity, such cancellation may be accomplished by the purchaser giving fifteen days notice in writing to the State Banking Department and to the seller of the contract, and thereafter, upon written authorization from the State Banking Department, such purchaser may withdraw the funds in such depository being held for his use and benefit; provided, however, such purchaser shall be entitled to withdraw and receive only the actual amounts paid in by him less the amounts permitted to be retained as provided in subsection (1) hereof. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, § 4.

Emergency. Effective July 15, 1963. repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, Section 1a of this article, as enacted by ch. 496, § 2 and the present section 1a was Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1292, ch. 512, was added in lieu thereof.

Saved From Repeal

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1283, ch. 494, which amended article 4582b, relating to funeral directing and embalming, provided in section 5 of the act that nothing in the act should be construed as repealing, amending, modifying, altering, or in any way prohibiting the effect and application of the provisions of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. —, ch. 496 (Senate Bill No. 129) which amended this article, and further provided that if there were conflicts between the provisions of Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1283, ch. 494 and Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1304, ch. 496, the provisions of chapter 496 should prevail.

TITLE 19—BLUE SKY LAW—SECURITIES

Art. 581—5. Exempt Transactions

E. Any offer and any transaction pursuant to any offer by the issuer of its securities to its existing security holders (including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities or non-transferable warrants) if no commission or other remuneration (other than a stand-by commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this State. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 1.

G. The issue or sale of securities (a) by one corporation to another corporation or the security holders thereof pursuant to a vote by one or more classes of such security holders, as required by the certificate of incorporation or the applicable corporation statute, in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of corporate assets, or (b) by one corporation to its own stockholders in connection with the change of par value stock to no par value stock or vice versa, or the exchange of outstanding shares for the same or a greater or smaller number of shares; provided that in any such case such security holders do not pay or give or promise and are not obligated to pay or give any consideration for the securities so issued or sold other than the securities of the corporation then held by them. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 2.

H. The sale of any security to any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, surety or guaranty company, savings institution, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940,¹ small business investment company as defined in the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended,² or to any registered dealer actually engaged in buying and selling securities; or the issue or sale of any investment contract in connection with an employees' stock bonus, annuity, pension, profit-sharing or similar employee benefit plan provided the securities purchased under the plan either would be exempt if sold by a registered dealer under Section 6³ hereof or shall be qualified under Section 7⁴ hereof or purchased in a transaction exempt under Section 5 hereof. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 3.

⁴ Article 585—7.

I. Provided such sale is made without any public solicitation or advertisements, (a) the sale of any security by the issuer thereof so long as the total number of security holders of the issuer thereof does not exceed thirty-five (35) persons after taking such sale into account; (b) the sale of shares of stock pursuant to the grant of an employees' restricted stock option as defined in the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States; or (c) the sale by an issuer of its securities during the period of twelve (12) months ending with the date of the sale in question to not more than fifteen (15) persons (excluding, in determining such fifteen (15) persons, purchasers of securities in transactions exempt under other provisions of this Section 5, purchasers of securities exempt under Section 6¹ hereof and purchasers of securities which are part of an offering registered under Section 7 hereof),² provided such persons purchased such securities for their own account and not for distribution.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

The issuer shall file a notice not less than five (5) days prior to the date of consummation of any sale claimed to be exempt under the provisions of clause (c), of this Subsection I, setting forth the name and address of the issuer, the total amount of the securities to be sold under this clause, the price at which the securities are to be sold, the date on which the securities are to be sold, the names and addresses of the proposed purchasers, and such other information as the Commissioner may reasonably require, including a certificate of a principal officer of the issuer that reasonable information concerning the plan of business and the financial condition of the issuer has been furnished to the proposed purchasers. The Commissioner may by order revoke or suspend the exemption under this clause (c) with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act.³ The revocation or suspension of this exemption shall be inapplicable to the issuer until such issuer shall have received actual notice from the Commissioner of such revocation or suspension. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 4.

O. The sale by a registered dealer of outstanding securities provided that:

(1) Such securities form no part of an unsold allotment to or subscription by such dealer as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer thereof; and

(2) Securities of the same class, of the same issuer, are outstanding in the hands of the public; and

(3) Such securities are offered for sale, in good faith, at prices reasonably related to the current market price of such securities at the time of such sale; and

(4) No part of the proceeds of such sale are paid directly or indirectly to the issuer of such securities; and

(5) Such sale is not directly or indirectly for the purposes of providing or furthering any scheme to violate or evade any provision of this Act; and

(6) The right to sell or resell such securities has not been enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by proceedings instituted by an officer or agency of this state charged with enforcement of this Act; and

(7) The right to sell such securities has not been revoked or suspended by the Commissioner under any of the provisions of this Act, or, if so, revocation or suspension is not in force and effect; and

(8) At the time of such sale, the issuer of such securities shall be a going concern actually engaged in business and shall then be neither in an organization stage nor in receivership or bankruptcy; and

(9) Such securities or other securities of the issuer of the same class have been registered by qualification, notification or coordination under Section 7 of this Act;¹ or at the time of such sale at least the following information about the issuer shall appear in a recognized securities manual or in a statement, in form and extent acceptable to the Commissioner, filed with the Commissioner by the issuer or by a registered dealer:

- (a) A statement of the issuer's principal business;
- (b) A balance sheet as of a date within eighteen (18) months of the date of such sale; and
- (c) Profit and loss statements and a record of the dividends paid, if any, for a period of not less than three (3) years prior to the date of such balance sheet or for the period of existence of the issuer, if such period of existence is less than three (3) years.

The term "recognized securities manual" shall include the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, Best's Life Insurance Reports, and such other nationally distributed manuals of securities as may be approved for use hereunder by the Commissioner.

"The Commissioner may issue a stop order or by order prohibit, revoke or suspend the exemption under this Subsection O with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that the plan of business of the issuer of such security, the security, or the sale thereof would tend to work a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser or purchasers thereof, such order to be subject to review in the manner provided by Section 24 of this Act.² Notice of any court injunction enjoining the sale, or resale, of any such security, or of an order revoking or suspending the exemption under this subdivision with respect to any security, shall be delivered or shall be mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, to any dealers believed to be selling, or offering for sale, securities of the type referred to in the notice; and the prohibitions of (6) and (7) above of this Subsection O shall be inapplicable to any dealer until he has received actual notice from the Commissioner of such revocation or suspension.

Except for the manuals published by Moody's Investment Service, Standard & Poor's Corporation, and Best's Life Insurance Reports, the Commissioner may for cause shown revoke or suspend the recognition hereunder of any manuals previously approved by the Commissioner under this Subsection but no such action may be taken by the Commissioner unless upon notice and opportunity for hearing as provided by Section 24 of this Act. Any interested party aggrieved by any decision of the Commissioner pursuant to such hearing may appeal to the district court of Travis County, Texas, in the manner provided by Section 27 of this Act.³ A judgment sustaining the Commissioner in the action complained of shall not bar after one year an application by the plaintiff for approval of its manual or manuals hereunder, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the Commissioner from thereafter revoking such recognition for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 5.

Art. 581—7. Permit or Registration for Issue by Commissioner; Information for Issuance of Permit or Registration

A. Qualification of Securities.

(1) No dealer, agent or salesman shall sell or offer for sale any securities issued after September 6, 1955, except those which shall have been registered by Notification under subdivision B or by Coordination under subdivision C of this Section 7 and except those which come within the classes enumerated in subdivisions A to R, both inclusive, of Section 5 of this Act,¹ or subdivisions A to K, both inclusive, of Section 6 of this Act,² until the issuer of such securities or a dealer registered under the provisions of this Act shall have been granted a permit by the Commissioner; and no such permit shall be granted by the Commissioner until the issuer of such securities or a dealer registered under the provisions of this Act shall have filed with the Commissioner a sworn statement verified under the oath of an executive officer or partner of the issuer, or of such registered dealer, and attested by the secretary or partner thereof, setting forth the following information:

a. The names, residences and post office addresses of the officers and directors of the company;

b. The location of its principal office and of all branch offices in this State, if any;

c. A copy of its articles of incorporation or partnership or association, as the case may be, and of any amendments thereto, if any; if a corporation, a copy of all minutes of any proceedings of its directors, stockholders or members relating to or affecting the issue of said security; if a corporation, a copy of its bylaws and of any amendments thereto; if a trustee, a copy of all instruments by which the trust is created and in which it is accepted, acknowledged or declared;

d. A statement showing the amount of capital stock, if any, and if no capital stock, the amount of capital of the issuer that is contemplated to be employed; the number of shares into which such stock is divided, or if not divided into shares of stock, what division is to be made or is contemplated; the par value of each share, or if no par stock, the price at which such security is proposed to be sold; the promotional fees or commissions to be paid for the sale of same, including any and all compensations of every nature that are in any way to be allowed the promoters or allowed for the sale of same; and how such compensation is to be paid, whether in cash, securities, service or otherwise, or partly of either or both; also, the amount of cash to be paid, or securities to be issued, given, transferred or sold to promoters for promotion or organization services and expenses, and the amount of promotion or organization services and expenses which will be assumed or in any way paid by the issuer;

e. Copies of certificates of the stock and all other securities to be sold, or offered for sale, together with application blanks therefor; a copy of any contract it proposes to make concerning such security; a copy of any prospectus or advertisement or other description of security prepared by or for it for distribution or publication;

f. A detailed statement prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and procedures and generally accepted accounting principles, showing all the assets and all the liabilities of the issuer, said statement to reflect the financial condition of the issuer on a day not more than ninety (90) days prior to the date such statement is filed. Such statement shall list all assets in detail and shall show how the value of such assets was determined, that is, whether the value set forth in said statement represents the actual cost in money of such assets, or whether such value represents their present market value, or some other value than the actual cost in money, and shall show the present actual value of said assets; also, whether the value set forth in the statement is greater or less than the actual cost value in money and greater or less than the present market value of such assets. If any of the assets consist of real estate, then said statement shall show the amount for which said real estate is rendered for State and county taxes, or assessed for taxes. If any such assets listed shall consist of anything other than cash and real estate, same shall be set out in detail so as to give the Commissioner the fullest possible information concerning same, and the Commissioner shall have the power to require the filing of such additional information as he may deem necessary to determine whether or not the true value of said assets are reflected in the statement filed. Should any of the assets listed in said statement be subject to any repurchase agreement, or any other agreement of like character, by the terms of which the absolute ownership of, or title to said assets is qualified or limited in any way, then the terms and conditions of said agreement by which the absolute ownership of, or title to said assets is qualified or limited, as well as the amount and character of the assets subject thereto shall be fully stated. Said statement shall list all current liabilities, that is, all liabilities which will mature and become due within one year from the date of such application, and shall list separately from such current liabilities, all other liabilities, contingent or otherwise, showing the amount of those which are secured by mortgage or otherwise, the assets of the issuer which are subject to such mortgage, and the dates of maturity of any such mortgage indebtedness. Such application shall also include a detailed profit and loss statement, prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and procedures and generally accepted accounting principles, which shall cover the last three (3) years' operations of the issuer, if such issuer has been in operation for three (3) years, but if not, said profit and loss statement shall cover the time that said issuer has been operating. If said issuer has not been operating, but is taking over a concern of any kind which has been previously operating, then a financial and profit and loss statement showing the operations of the concern thus taken over for a period of the last three (3) years next preceding the taking over of said concern shall be included in said statement; said profit and loss statement shall clearly reflect the amount of net profit or net loss incurred during each of the years shown. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 12a.

² This article.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

D. TERMINATION OF FISCAL YEAR; CERTIFICATION OF STATEMENTS.

D. If the fiscal year of the issuer terminated on a date more than 90 days prior to the date of the filing, then the financial statements required in Subsections A and B of this Section 7, which must be as of a date not more than 90 days prior to the date of filing, need not be certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant if there are filed in addition thereto financial statements containing the information required by the applicable subdivision which are certified by an independent certified public or independent public accountant as of the end of the preceding fiscal year of the issuer. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Effect of 1963 amendment of this article on all suits, actions, proceedings, rights, liabilities and causes of action pending or accruing before the effective date of the amendatory act, see note under art. 581—5.

Art. 581—9. Protection to Purchasers of Securities

B. The total expenses for marketing securities, including all commissions for the sale of such securities, and all other incidental selling expenses, shall not in the aggregate exceed twenty per cent (20%) of the price at which the stock or other securities of any proposed or existing company are to be sold, or offered for sale, to the public of this State; and this amount may be limited by the Commissioner to a less percentage which is in his opinion fair, just and equitable under the facts of the particular case. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 8.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 581—13. Method of Registration Required of Each Dealer and Each Agent or Salesman of Each Dealer

A. A dealer to be registered must submit a sworn application therefor to the Commissioner, which shall be in such form as the Commissioner may determine and which shall state:

- (1) The principal place of business of the applicant wherever situated;
- (2) The location of the principal place of business and all branch offices in this state, if any;
- (3) The name or style of doing business and the address of the dealer;
- (4) The names, residences and the business addresses of all persons interested in the business as principal, officer, director or managing agent, specified as to each his capacity and title; and
- (5) The general plan and character of business of such applicant and the length of time during and the places at which the dealer has been engaged in the business.

B. Such application shall also contain such additional information as to applicant's previous history, record, associations and present financial condition as may be required by the Commissioner, or as is necessary to enable the Commissioner to determine whether the sale of any securities proposed to be issued or dealt in by such applicant would result in fraud.

C. Each application shall be accompanied by certificates or other evidences satisfactory to the Commissioner establishing the good reputation of the applicant, his directors, officers, copartners or principals.

D. The Commissioner shall require as a condition of registration for all registrations granted after the effective date of this Subsection D that the applicant (and, in the case of a corporation or partnership, the officers, directors or partners to be licensed by the applicant) pass successfully a written examination to determine the applicant's qualifications and competency to engage in the business of dealing in and selling securities as a dealer or as a salesman, or rendering services as an investment adviser. This condition may be waived as to any applicant or class of applicants by action of the State Securities Board.

E. If the applicant is a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or territory or government or shall have its principal place of business therein, it shall accompany the application with a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto, certified by the proper officer of such state or government or of the corporation, and its regulations and bylaws.

F. If a limited partnership, either a copy of its Articles of Copartnership or a verified statement of the plan of doing business.

G. If an unincorporated association or organization under the laws of any other state, territory or government, or having its principal place of business therein, a copy of its Articles of Association, Trust Agreement or other form of organization.

H. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to prepare a proper form to be used by the applicant under the terms of this Section, and the Commissioner shall furnish copies thereof to all persons desiring to make application to be registered as a dealer. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 575, ch. 269, § 13; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 9.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Effect of 1963 amendment of this article on all suits, actions, proceedings, rights, liabilities and causes of action pending or accruing before the effective date of the amendatory act, see note under art. 581—5.

Art. 581—14. Bases for Denial, Suspension or Revocation of Registration as Dealer or Agent or Salesman

G. Has not complied with a condition imposed by the Commissioner under Section 13—D. Provided, however, that this Subsection G shall not apply to any person or company registered as a dealer or salesman on the effective date of this Subsection G. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 10.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Effect of 1963 amendment of this article on all suits, actions, proceedings, rights, liabilities and causes of action pending or accruing before the effective date of the amendatory act, see note under art. 581—5.

Art. 581—29. Penal Provisions

G. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 11.

Effect of 1963 amendment of this article on all suits, actions, proceedings, rights, liabilities and causes of action pending or accruing before the effective date of the amendatory act, see note under art. 581—5.

Art. 581—33. Civil LibertiesA. Any person who

(1) Offers or sells a security in violation of Sections 7, 9¹ (or any requirement of the Commissioner thereunder), 12, 23B or any order under 23A of this Act,² or

(2) Offers or sells a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act)³ by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading (when the person buying the security does not know of the untruth or omission, and who in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the untruth or omission) is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at six per cent (6%) per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less (a) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it and (b) interest at six per cent (6%) per year on such value from the date of disposition. Nothing herein shall prevent the award of punitive or exemplary damages in an amount not to exceed twice the actual damages, as found by the jury, when such false representation or omission is proven to be willfully made.

B. Every cause of action under this Act⁴ survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

C. No person may sue under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33⁵ more than three (3) years after the contract of sale. No person may sue under said Subsection A(1) if the buyer received a written offer accompanied by reasonable financial information before suit and at a time when he owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at six per cent (6%) per year from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security, and he failed to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt; or if the buyer received such an offer in the amount specified above less the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it, and less interest at six per cent (6%) per year on such value from date of disposition, before suit and at a time when he did not own the security, unless he rejected the offer in writing within thirty (30) days of its receipt. In connection with any such offer, the seller shall deposit funds in escrow in a state or national bank doing business in the State of Texas, or receive an unqualified commitment from such bank to furnish funds, sufficient to provide for the refund on all securities covered by the offer. The notice accompanying such offer shall state (1) the name of such bank where the refund may be obtained upon surrender of the security, or if the buyer has disposed of such security upon satisfactory proof of such disposition and of the value received therefor, and (2) that buyer, upon receipt of the refund, may not sue to recover the consideration paid plus interest or for damages under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33, and (3) that the buyer, in the event of failure to accept the offer within thirty (30) days of its receipt, may not sue to recover the consideration paid plus interest or for damages under Subsection A(1) of this Section 33. No person may sue under Subsection A(2) more than three (3) years after the contract of sale or more than three (3) years after the buyer in the exercise of ordinary care should have discovered that such sale was made in violation of said Subsection A(2). Nothing in this Subsection C shall affect or restrict the periods of limitation or other rights applicable to causes of action based on fraud brought pursuant to Article 4004 of the Revised Civil Statutes.

D. No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this Act or any rule or order or requirement hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract.

E. Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this Act or any rule or order or requirement hereunder is void.

F. The rights and remedies provided by this Act are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist at law or in equity. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 473, ch. 170, § 12.

CHAPTER FOUR—PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS DIVISION

Art. 678e. Protection and policing of state buildings and grounds [New].

Art. 678e. Protection and policing of state buildings and grounds

Trespass or damage to capitol, governor's mansion, state office buildings and grounds; state cemetery; board of control warehouse and storage area

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to trespass upon the grass plots or flowerbeds, or to damage or deface any of the buildings, or cut down, deface, mutilate or otherwise injure any of the statues, monuments, memorials, trees, shrubs, grasses or flowers on the grounds or commit any other trespass upon any property of the state, real or personal, located on the grounds of the State Capitol or other property owned by the State of Texas bounded by Eleventh Street, Nineteenth Street, San Jacinto Street and Colorado Street in the City of Austin; or on the grounds of the Governor's Mansion bounded by Tenth Street, Eleventh Street, Colorado Street and Lavaca Street in the City of Austin; or on the State Cemetery grounds bounded by Seventh Street, Comal Street, Eleventh Street and Navasota Street in the City of Austin; or on the Board of Control warehouse and storage area bounded by First Street, Trinity Street, Waller Creek, and the alley in Block No. 183 in the City of Austin. The performance of construction, landscaping, and gardening work authorized by the Legislature, the Board of Control, or the State Building Commission shall not be construed to be prohibited under the provisions of this Act.

Parking on state property

Sec. 2. Except on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays it shall be unlawful for any person, other than state officials, state employees, visitors, and persons having lawful business in the buildings, to park upon and within property owned by the State of Texas within the bounds set forth in Section 1, between the hours of 7:00 AM and 6:00 PM, whenever the buildings are open for business.

Parking facilities for legislators

Sec. 3. When the Legislature is in session members of the Legislature shall each be assigned, in a manner agreeable to the members of the respective bodies, a reserved parking space on the Capitol driveways for his unrestricted use during the time the Legislature is in session, either regular or any called session thereof. The use of any space assigned to any member of the Legislature for his unrestricted use during the time the Legislature is in session by an unauthorized person or his vehicle, or by the person or properly identified vehicle of a state employee not a member of the Legislature, shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable as hereinafter provided for.

Regulation and control of parking and traffic; marking and designation of parking spaces; assignment of officer

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for anyone to park any vehicle except in the spaces and manner now marked and designated or that may be hereafter marked and designated by the State Board of Control, or to block or impede traffic through the driveways upon any property owned by the State of Texas within the bounds set forth in Section 1. The State Board of Control is hereby authorized to request the State Highway Department to assist it in the marking and/or designation of such parking spaces as the Board of Control shall deem necessary and to maintain the painting of lines, curb markings and furnish such directional or informational signs as the Board of Control shall deem necessary. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall provide advice and assistance to the Board of Control when requested and shall at all times have at least one commissioned officer assigned to duty in the Capitol area.

Speed limits

Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful to operate a motor vehicle upon any property owned by the State of Texas within the bounds set forth in Section 1 at a speed in excess of fifteen (15) miles per hour. All laws regulating traffic upon highways and streets shall apply to the operation of motor vehicles within the prescribed areas, except as modified hereby.

General and criminal laws

Sec. 6. All of the general and criminal laws of the state are declared to be in full force and effect within the areas regulated by this Act.

Watchmen; designation as peace officers; powers and duties; bond

Sec. 7. The State Board of Control is authorized to employ watchmen for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and may commission such watchmen as it deems necessary as peace officers only after such watchmen have been approved for such duty by the Director of the Department of Public Safety, and when so commissioned said officers are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities of peace officers while on the areas regulated by this Act or in fresh pursuit of those violating the law in such areas; provided, that such watchmen assigned to such duties and so commissioned shall take and file the oath required of peace officers and shall execute and file with the State Board of Control a good and sufficient bond in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to the Governor of this state and his successors in office with two or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned that he will fairly and faithfully perform all of the duties as may be required of him by law, and that he will fairly and impartially enforce the law of this state and that he will pay over any and all monies, or turn over any and all property, to the proper person legally entitled to the same, that may come into his possession by virtue of such office. Said bond shall not be void for the first recovery but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this Act for any person or persons to impersonate any of said officers.

Firearms

Sec. 7a. Such officers shall not have the authority to carry firearms.

Enforcement of criminal laws; arrest

Sec. 8. In addition to the enforcement of this Act by the watchmen mentioned above, all commissioned officers of the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Sheriff and Sheriff's Deputies of Travis County, and police officers of the City of Austin, are authorized and empowered to enforce the criminal laws of this state and the provisions of this Act within the areas regulated herein, and all of said officers are vested with authority to pursue and arrest any person for any offense when said person is found in such areas or is fleeing therefrom.

Violations; punishment

Sec. 9. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200). The penalties for violation of any of the other criminal laws of the state shall be as now provided by law.

Traffic tickets and summons

Sec. 10. In connection with traffic and parking violations only, the officers authorized to enforce the provisions of this Act, shall have the authority to issue and use traffic tickets and summons of the type now used by the City of Austin and/or the Texas Highway Patrol with such changes as are necessitated thereby to be prepared and furnished by the State Board of Control. Upon the issuance of any such traffic ticket or summons the same procedures shall be followed as now prevail in connection with the use of parking and traffic violation tickets by the City of Austin and the Texas Highway Patrol. Nothing herein shall restrict the application and use of regular arrest warrants.

Enforcement; rules and regulations; signs

Sec. 11. The primary responsibility for enforcing the provisions of this Act shall be with the State Board of Control, which shall have authority to promulgate rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Act or other provisions of law as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. Whenever the Board shall have promulgated such a rule or regulation and has posted signs in any of the regulated areas giving notice thereof, it shall be unlawful for any person to violate any of the provisions of such signs and shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this Act.

Automobile identification insignia

Sec. 12. Provision is hereby made for the issuance and required use of suitable automobile identification insignia, to be issued upon proper certification to the Board of Control by the Secretary of State of the names of members of the Legislature, the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and other elected state officials, to be affixed to the inside of the windshield of the automobile of the state official and in the approximate bottom or top center of said windshield immediately back of the rear view mirror to provide immediate recognition of the owner of the vehicle as an elected state official. Provision is also made hereby for the certification by the administrative heads of the respective state agencies located in Austin of the names of board and commission members, and state employees entitled to receive and use an "official" or an "employee" vehicle identification insignia to be affixed to the windshield of a vehicle in the same manner as described above. It is further provided hereby that such vehicle identification insignia shall be of different color or a combination of colors to identify each of the following: (a) Elected state officials, (b) administrative heads of state agencies and members of boards and commissions and (c) regular state employees, all of whom shall be privileged to use and park upon state driveways in the areas hereinabove designated without penalty except for violation of existing law as hereinbefore provided and rules and regulations promulgated by the Board of Control. Each vehicle identification insignia shall be serially numbered; a record of such serially numbered insignia issued by the Board of Control shall be maintained. Insignia color or colors shall be changed effective January first of each calendar year; insignia shall be valid from January first to December thirty-first of each year.

Each administrative head of any state agency located in Austin shall be responsible to the Board of Control for notification to the board of the termination of any state employee to whom vehicle identification insignia has been issued. Upon receipt of such certification of the termination of employment by a state agency of an employee, then and thereafter such person or former employee who shall continue to falsely use any vehicle identification device, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided for in Section 9 of this Act.

Jurisdiction of municipal court and justice of the peace

Sec. 13. The judge of the municipal court and/or any justice of the peace in Austin are each hereby separately vested with all jurisdiction necessary to hear, try and determine criminal cases involving violations hereof where punishment does not exceed a fine of Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Permission to use grounds

Sec. 14. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge the authority of the State Board of Control to grant permission to use the Capitol grounds and any grounds adjacent to any state building, for such use as may be provided by preexisting law.

Sec. 15. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 178, ch. 102.

CHAPTER FOUR A—STATE BUILDING COMMISSION [NEW]Art. 678m. Building Commission*Title of realty acquired by Commission for sites and buildings thereon; transfer of management of buildings to Board of Control

Sec. 7. The Commission shall obtain title for the state and retain control of the real property acquired for sites and of the buildings located thereon until final construction is completed and the buildings are occupied by the state agencies to be housed therein, at which time the management and control of said buildings including the inventory values of the sites and the buildings located thereon, shall be transferred to the Board of Control. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the initial occupants shall be those state agencies agreed upon by the Commission and the Board of Control. This Section, as amended, shall apply to all new state buildings constructed heretofore or that may be constructed hereafter in Austin, by the State Building Commission. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1185, ch. 470, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Monuments and memorials; erection and maintenance

Sec. 15. Monuments or memorials for the Texas heroes of the Confederate States of America and the Texas War for Independence, or to commemorate any other event or person of historical significance to Texans and the State of Texas may be erected on land owned or acquired by the state or, if suitable contracts can be made for permanent preservation of such monuments or memorials, on private property or on land owned by the federal government or by other states. The locating and marking of graves of such Texans is hereby authorized. The Commission is further authorized to maintain and shall be responsible for the continuing maintenance of the monuments and memorials erected by the State of Texas to commemorate the Centenary of Texas Independence. Before erection of any new monument or memorial the Commission shall obtain the approval of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee as to the form, dimensions, substance of and inscriptions or illustrations upon such monuments or memorials. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 520, ch. 194, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acquisition of land with historic or prehistoric sites and features

Sec. 16A. The Commission is hereby authorized to acquire by gift, devise, purchase, or by its general power of eminent domain set out in Section 6 above, any lands on which are situated historic buildings, sites, or landmarks of state-wide historical significance associated with historic events or personalities, or prehistoric ruins, burial grounds, archaeological or vertebrate paleontological sites, sites including fossilized footprints, inscriptions made by human agency, or any other archaeological, paleontological, or historical feature, within the limits of the State of Texas. The right of eminent domain conferred above as relating to historical sites, buildings, and structures shall not be exercised except upon a proper showing that it is necessary to prevent destruction or deterioration of the historical site, building or structure. The Commission is hereby authorized to request from the Texas State Historical Survey Committee a certification or authentication of the worthiness of preservation of the features listed above. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 520, ch. 194, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 520, ch. 194, § 3 repealed all conflicting laws to the extent of such conflict.

- (1) "State Board" means the State Board of Public Welfare.
- (2) "State Department" means the State Department of Public Welfare.
- (3) "Commissioner of Public Welfare" means Commissioner of the State Department of Public Welfare.
- (4) "Public Welfare" means and includes all forms of public assistance and specific services provided for in this Act.
- (5) "Old Age Assistance" means money payments to needy aged individuals.
- (6) "Aid and Services to Needy Families with Children" means money payments and services with respect to needy families with a dependent child or children.
- (7) "Aid to the Blind" means money payments to blind individuals who are needy.
- (8) "Child Welfare Services" means services for children provided for in this Act.
- (9) "Applicant" means an individual who has applied for assistance under this Act.
- (10) "Recipient" means an individual who is receiving assistance under the provisions of this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 83, ch. 53, § 1.

Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Duties and functions of State Department

Sec. 4.

(7) Establish and provide such method of local administration as is deemed advisable, and provide such personnel as may be found necessary for carrying out in an economical way the administration of this Act. To serve in an advisory capacity to such local administrative units as may be established, there may be also established local advisory boards of public welfare, which boards shall be of such size, membership, and experience as may be determined by the Commissioner of the Department of Public Welfare to be essential for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act not in conflict with or duplication of other laws on this subject; As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 700, ch. 257, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Aid and services to needy families with children

Sec. 17. Aid to Families with Dependent Children shall be given under the provisions of this Act with respect to any dependent child. "Dependent Child" is any needy child:

- (1) Who is a citizen of the United States; and
- (2) Who has resided in this State for a period of at least one (1) year immediately preceding the date of application for assistance; or was born within the State within one (1) year immediately preceding the date of application and whose mother or other relative with whom the child is living has resided in the State for a period of at least one (1) year immediately preceding the birth of such child; and
- (3) Who is under the age of sixteen (16) years; and
- (4) Who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of a parent; and
- (5) Who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, or niece, in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their own home; and
- (6) Who has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. In determining need, the State Department of Public Welfare shall take into consideration any other income and resources of any child or relative claiming Aid to Families with Dependent Children, as well as any expenses reasonably attributable to the earning of any such income; except that, in making such determination, the State Department may, subject to limitations prescribed by the Department, permit all or any portion of the earned or other income to be set aside for the future identifiable needs of the dependent child. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 2. Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Dependent child; definition

Sec. 17-A. The term "dependent child" shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 17 of this Act, also include a child:

- (1) Who would meet the requirements of such Section 17 except for his removal from the home of a relative as specified in said Section, as a result of a judicial determination to the effect that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of such child; and
- (2) Whose placement and care are the responsibility of the State Department of Public Welfare or local Child Welfare Unit or some other public agency with whom the State Department of Public Welfare has made an agreement for the care and supervision of such child, and in compliance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare for carrying out the provisions of this Act and for whose placement and care the State Department of Public Welfare is responsible, and who has been placed in a foster family home or child-caring institution as a result of such determination, and who received Aid to Families with Dependent Children in or for the month in which the court proceedings were initiated. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 2.

Needy family with dependent children; amount of assistance

Sec. 18. The amount of assistance which shall be given under the provisions of this Act with respect to any needy family with dependent children shall be determined by the State Department through its district or county agencies in the district or county in which the needy family with dependent children resides with due consideration to the income and other resources of such family in compliance with Sub-section (6) of Section 17 of this Act and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Department. The amount of assistance given shall provide such needy family with dependent children with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health, within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of Texas as are now provided or as may hereafter be provided. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 3.

Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Program for welfare and related services

Sec. 18-A. The State Department of Public Welfare shall provide for the development and application of a program for such welfare and related services for each child who receives Aid to Families with Dependent Children as may be necessary in the light of the particular home conditions and other needs of such child, and provide for co-ordination of such Programs with any other services provided for children in the State, and particularly with the Child Welfare Services provided by the Department, with a view of making available welfare and related services which will best promote the welfare of such child and his family and which will help to maintain and strengthen family life by helping such parents or relatives to attain or retain their capabilities for maximum self-support and personal independence consistent with the maintenance of continued parental care and protection, and in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations prescribed by the State Department of Public Welfare in cooperation with other public and private welfare agencies for the care and protection of children. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 3.

Support from parent of child living outside home

Sec. 18-B. In considering the resources and income available to families with dependent children, the State Department of Public Welfare shall explore with the parent or other relative with whom the child is living the possibility of obtaining support and/or services on behalf of such child from the parent of such child who is living outside the home, and shall, in all cases where it seems appropriate and feasible to the Department, require the parent or other relative with whom the child is living to take whatever action is necessary to obtain maximum support which has been ordered pursuant to a court order for the support of said child, and shall consider such support payments wherever available in determining the needs and resources of the family with dependent children. The Department shall also provide for prompt notice to appropriate law enforcement officials of the furnishing of Aid to Families with Dependent Children in respect to a child who has been deserted or abandoned by a parent. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 3.

Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Assistance to needy family with dependent children living with relatives

Sec. 19. When the investigation discloses that a family with children in whose behalf application for assistance has been made is a needy family with dependent children as defined in this Act, and that such needy dependent child meets the other provisions of this Act and that such child is living, or will live, with one or more of the relatives prescribed in this Act, assistance and/or services may be allowed for the support of such needy family with dependent children. It is expressly provided that the Department shall:

(1) Formulate policies for studying and improving the home conditions and specific needs of the child,

(2) Make plans for services for the protection of children especially in relation to specific needs of children such as health and educational opportunities. The State Department shall require that each dependent child between the ages of fourteen (14) and sixteen (16) years to whose family or relatives or others assistance or services are allowed for the support of such dependent child shall remain enrolled in the regular term of school in the community in which the child resides, unless the State Department finds that good cause exists for the nonattendance of the child at school. Failure to comply with this requirement shall, under applicable rules and regulations of the State Department, constitute good cause for a termination of such assistance or services,

(3) Develop a mutual plan of co-ordination between the Aid to Needy Families with Dependent Children and the Child Welfare Services Programs in order to carry out its responsibilities for the protection and care of children as provided in this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 4.

Counseling and guidance services

Sec. 19-A. Whenever the State Department of Public Welfare has reason to believe that any payments of Aid to Families with Dependent Children made with respect to a child are not being or may not be used in the best interest of the child, the State Department of Public Welfare may provide for counseling and guidance services with respect to the use of such payments and the management of other funds by the relative receiving such payments as is deemed advisable in order to assure use of the payments in the best interest of the child, and may provide for advising the relative that continued failure to so use such payments will result in substitution therefor of protective payments. If the State Department of Public Welfare determines that protective payments are required in order to safeguard the best interest of the child, payments to a substitute payee may be made on a temporary basis in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare. If the situation in the home which made the protective payments necessary does not improve and it is determined that the relative with whom the children are living is unable or does not have the capacity to use the funds for the best interest of the children, then the Department may arrange with the family for other plans for the care of the children, such as removal of the children to the home of other relatives; the appointment of a guardian or legal representative of such relative with whom the child is living, and/or the imposition of criminal or civil penalties authorized under State Law if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such relative is not using or has not used for the benefit of the child any such payments made for that purpose, or the referral to a court of competent jurisdiction for removal of the child and placement in a foster home. The State Department of Public Welfare is further authorized to make payments on behalf of dependent children residing in foster family homes or child-caring institutions in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 4.

Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Recipient moving out of state; payments to vendors of medical assistance

Sec. 41. Any person who is receiving assistance under the provisions of this Act and who moves out of and does not reside in the state shall, by virtue of that fact, be deemed ineligible to receive assistance in this state except that temporary absence from the state for such periods of time, and for such reasons as the State Department shall approve, shall not be deemed to interrupt the residence of the recipient.

Any person who is receiving Public Assistance as the term is defined in Senate Bill No. 79, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, and being codified in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes as Article 695j, shall be eligible for Medical Assistance as the term is defined in Senate Bill No. 79, so long as such recipient continues to be eligible to receive Old Age Assistance; and payments to vendors of Medical Assistance on behalf of such recipients, while temporarily visiting outside of the state, may be made on behalf of such recipients on a temporary basis for such periods of time and in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare so long as said person remains eligible to receive Old Age Assistance from this state. As amended Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 205, ch. 80, § 1.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 19, 1962.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 84, ch. 53, § 5, repealed conflicting laws and parts of laws. Section 5A thereof provided: "On and after the effective date of this Act, wherever the reference is made in the laws of this State to 'Aid to Dependent Children,' the title of such Aid shall be changed to hereafter be known as 'Aid and Services to Needy Families with Children.' "

Art. 695c—1. Finding deserting fathers

Section 1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Deserting father" means a father who is divorced from, legally separated from or continually absent from his family and who neglects, or refuses to provide for the support of his children to the best of his ability.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Public Welfare.

(c) "Deserted child" means the child of a deserting father.

Sec. 2. The Department is hereby charged with the responsibility for finding a deserting father of any family applying for aid to dependent children, as provided for in the "Public Welfare Act of 1941," as heretofore or hereafter amended.

Sec. 3. The Department shall negotiate an agreement with the Federal Social Security Administration in accordance with State's Letter No. 198 so that location information can be obtained concerning any deserting father who leaves Texas and goes to another state.

Sec. 4. The mother or guardian of a deserted child shall supply the Department details concerning the deserting father such as complete name, known aliases or nicknames, date and place of birth, Social Security number, and such other information as shall be deemed necessary or advantageous in locating such father. The mother or guardian shall supply the Department any information she receives as to the whereabouts of the deserting father during the search for said father and shall initiate, with the assistance of the Department if necessary, any court action that is required to compel child support. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 690, ch. 253.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 695g. Federal old age and survivors insurance coverage for county and municipal employees

Definitions

Section 1. The following definitions of words and terms shall apply as used in this Act:

(a) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act,¹ would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that Act.

(b) The term "employment" means any service performed by an employee in the employ of a county or municipality or other political subdivision of the state except (1) service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this Act would constitute "employment" as defined in the Social Security Act; or (2) service which under the Social Security Act may not be included in an agreement between the State and the Federal Security Administrator entered into under this Act; or (3) service in any policeman's position, which is subject to an existing Retirement System at the time the agreement is undertaken, in incorporated cities having a population of 250,000 or more according to the most recent decennial Federal Census prior to the date of said agreement. As amended Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1254, ch. 502, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1170, ch. 456, § 1.

725c. Validation of proceedings in connection with bonds for courthouse and jail buildings [New].

Art. 718. [610] [877] County issues authorized

After having been authorized as provided in Chapter One of this title, the Commissioners Court of a county may lawfully issue the bonds of said county for the following purposes:

1. To erect the county courthouse and jail, or either;
2. To purchase suitable sites within the county and construct buildings thereon to provide homes or schools for dependent and delinquent boys and girls or for either;
3. To establish county poor houses, farms, and homes for the needy or indigent in the county;
4. To purchase and construct bridges for public purposes within the county or across a stream that constitutes a boundary line of the county; or
5. To improve and maintain the public roads in the county.

When the Commissioners Court shall deem it advisable to issue bonds for both the purchase or construction of bridges and improvement and maintenance of the public roads, both questions may be submitted and voted on as one proposition. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 329, ch. 124, § 1.

Counties of less than 20,000, joint financing and construction of jails with cities, see art. 5115a.

Art. 725c. Validation of proceedings in connection with bonds for courthouse and jail buildings

Section 1. All proceedings in connection with any county bonds heretofore favorably voted by a majority of the participating resident qualified electors of the county who owned taxable property and who had duly rendered the same for taxation on the tax rolls of such county, for the purpose of erecting, repairing and equipping courthouse and jail buildings and county branch office buildings, are hereby in all things validated, regardless of whether or not any such bonds so voted were submitted in only one proposition and regardless of the language appearing on the ballot concerning any proposition so submitted. Said bonds may be issued and delivered by the Commissioners Court for the purpose or purposes so voted, may mature serially or otherwise and may contain such option or options of redemption or no option of redemption, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court of the county. The issuance of such bonds and the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall otherwise be in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and when so issued shall constitute valid and enforceable obligations of the issuer in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such proceedings the validity of which has been or is being questioned in litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 15, ch. 5.

Emergency. Effective Jan. 30, 1962.

CHAPTER FOUR—VIADUCTS, BRIDGES, ETC.

Art. 795a. Bond issue to refund outstanding causeway revenue bonds [New].

Art. 795a. Bond issue to refund outstanding causeway revenue bonds

Authority to issue bonds; ad valorem taxes

Section 1. That the Commissioners Court of any county in the State of Texas which has heretofore or shall hereafter issue bonds, to construct, acquire, improve, operate or maintain a causeway, and the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof are payable from revenues derived from the operation of such causeway, is hereby authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of refunding such outstanding revenue bonds and to levy and collect ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such refunding bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof.

Aggregate principal amount

Sec. 2. That the aggregate principal amount of bonds issued from time to time pursuant to this Act and at any time outstanding, shall not exceed a principal amount which will permit the interest on and the principal of such bonds to be paid from a tax levied within the eighty cent (80¢) limitation provided by Article 8, Section 9 of the Texas Constitution, and provided that the Commissioners Court shall not authorize the issuance of bonds under authority of Section 1 hereof unless authorized at an election at which only the qualified voters who reside in the county and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be allowed to vote, and unless the majority of the votes cast thereat are in favor of issuing the bonds. Said election shall be conducted in accordance with the terms of Title 22 of Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Detail of bonds; manner of sale; redemption; exchange;
use of accumulated monies

Sec. 3. That the Commissioners Court shall have full discretion in fixing the details of the bonds and in determining the manner of sale thereof, providing that the bonds shall not mature later than forty (40) years after their date, and no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per cent (6%) per annum, computed with relationship to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. The bonds may be redeemable prior to maturity in such manner and at such prices as may be determined by the Commissioners Court prior to the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued hereunder shall and are hereby declared to have all of the qualifications and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instrument Law of Texas. Provision may be made for registration of such bonds as to principal only. The bonds issued hereunder may be exchanged for the revenue bonds being refunded or the proceeds of the bonds issued hereunder may be used to pay the principal amount of the bonds being refunded and any premium required by the terms thereof to be payable on redemption prior to maturity. Any monies accumulated in the funds established by the resolution or order authorizing the issuance of the bonds to be refunded may be used by the Commissioners Court, upon cancellation of such bonds to be refunded, to pay accrued interest on and the principal of any such bonds to be refunded, to pay any premium required to be paid thereon in event of redemption prior to maturity, to pay into the road and bridge fund of the county, or may be used for any other lawful purpose.

Taxes to pay interest; sinking fund for redemption of bonds

Sec. 4. That any county issuing bonds pursuant to this Act shall continue to levy ad valorem taxes to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof even though the facilities constructed with the proceeds of the bonds to be refunded by the bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall become a part of the State Highway System.

Refunds; terms and conditions

Sec. 5. Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded by the Commissioners Court upon such terms and conditions, including interest rates and maturity, as may be determined by the Commissioners Court, provided that such terms and conditions shall not be inconsistent with the application of the constitutional provision to which reference is herein made. Any such bonds may be so refunded by issuance of refunding bonds, either to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded, or to be sold, with the proceeds thereof to be used for the redemption and cancellation of the bonds being refunded.

Legal and authorized investments

Sec. 6. All bonds, whether original or refunding, heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant to this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and all other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and all said bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their par value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Approval of attorney general; registration

Sec. 7. Prior to the delivery thereof to the purchasers, all bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and the records related to the issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his examination, and if he finds they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution and this Act, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and upon such approval and registration they shall be uncontestable. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 441, ch. 156.

Causeway corporations, see art. 1473.

Art.

835o. Home rule cities; street and drainage improvements; fire stations; validation of bonds [New].

Art. 823. May issue bonds

Park facilities, construction in cities over 650,000 population, see art. 6081j.

Art. 835o. Home rule cities; street and drainage improvements; fire stations; validation of bonds

Section 1. All bonds heretofore authorized by any Home Rule City in the State of Texas, for the purpose of providing street and drainage improvements, or for the purpose of constructing new fire stations, and any and all proceedings pertaining to the authorization and issuance thereof, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of Charter or statutory authority of such City, or the governing body thereof to authorize and issue such bonds, and notwithstanding the fact that the election might not have been ordered and held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the Charter or Statutes, and the issuance, sale and delivery of such bonds are hereby authorized and approved irrespective of the fact that any such City may be engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such City to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack in such suit or litigation; and such bonds, when approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and sold and delivered, in accordance with law, shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations, and the bonds shall be incontestable.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 2. This Act shall apply only to such bonds as were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the voting qualified property taxpaying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such proceedings or bonds issued or to be issued, the validity of which is contested or under attack in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective, if such suit or litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the proceedings or bonds, except insofar as such proceedings or bonds might be affected by any such City being engaged in any suit or litigation questioning the power of such City, or the governing body thereof, to annex territory wherein the validity of its Home Rule Charter and the authority of the governing body to so function under such Home Rule Charter may be contested or under attack.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be strictly construed to achieve the purposes hereof, and no action by any City hereunder shall be validated by this Act except for the specific and limited purposes enumerated herein. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 59, ch. 21, §§ 1-4.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 7, 1962.

Art. 851—C. Registration and protection of trademarks and service marks

Definitions

Section 1. For the purposes of this Act, unless otherwise required by the context:

(a) "Mark" includes any trademark or service mark whether registered or not. "Trademark" includes any word, name, symbol, or device or any combination thereof adopted and used by a person to identify his goods and distinguish them from those manufactured or sold by others in this state. "Service mark" means a mark used in the sale or advertising of services to identify the services of one person and distinguish them from the services of others and includes without limitation the marks, names, symbols, titles, designations, slogans, character names, and distinctive features of radio or other advertising used in this state.

(b) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association, union or other organization.

(c) "Applicant" embraces the person filing an application for registration of a mark under this Act or under Acts in force at the time this Act went into effect and includes his legal representatives, successors, assigns and predecessors in title to the mark sought to be registered by said person.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(d) "Registrant" embraces the person to whom a registration has been issued under this Act or under Acts in force at the time this Act went into effect and includes his legal representatives, successors, assigns, and predecessors in title to the registration.

(e) A mark shall be deemed to be used in this state (1) on goods when it is placed in any manner on the goods or their containers or the displays associated therewith or on the tags or labels affixed thereto and the goods are sold, displayed for sale, or otherwise publicly distributed within this state, and (2) on services when it is used or displayed in the sale or advertising of services and the services are rendered in this state.

(f) "Trade name" includes individual names and surnames, firm names, and lawfully adopted names and titles used by persons to identify their business, vocations, or occupations.

Marks registrable; exceptions

Sec. 2. A mark by which the goods or services of any applicant for registration may be distinguished from the goods or services of others shall be registrable unless it:

(a) consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive or scandalous matter; or

(b) consists of or comprises matter which may disparage or falsely suggest a connection with persons, living or dead, institutions, beliefs, or national symbols, or bring them into contempt, or disrepute; or

(c) consists of or comprises the flag or coat of arms or other insignia of the United States, or of any state or municipality, or of any foreign nation, or any simulation thereof; or

(d) consists of or comprises the name, signature or portrait of any living individual, except with his written consent; or

(e) consists of a mark which, (1) when applied to the goods or services of the applicant, is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (2) when applied to the goods or services of the applicant is primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or (3) is primarily merely a surname; provided, however, that nothing in this subsection (e) shall prevent the registration of a mark used in this state by the applicant which has become distinctive of the applicant's goods or services. The Secretary of State may accept as evidence that the mark has become distinctive, as applied to the applicant's goods or services, proof of substantially exclusive and continuous use thereof as a mark by the applicant in this state for the five (5) years next preceding the date of the filing of the application for registration; or

(f) consists of or comprises a mark which so resembles a mark registered in this state by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when applied to or used in connection with the goods or services of the applicant to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive.

Requirements for application for registration; contents; fee

Sec. 3. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Act any person who adopts and uses a mark in this state may file in the office of the Secretary of State, on a form to be furnished by the Secretary of State, an application for registration of that mark, setting forth, but not limited to, the following:

(a) The name and business address of the person applying for such registration; and if a corporation, the state of incorporation;

(b) An appointment of the Secretary of State as agent for service of process in any action relating only to the registration which may be issued, if the applicant be, or shall become, a nonresident individual, partnership, or association, or foreign corporation not licensed to do business in this state, or cannot be found in this state;

(c) The goods or services in connection with which the mark is being used, and the mode or manner in which the mark is being used in connection with such goods or services, and the class in which such goods or services are believed to belong;

(d) The date when applicant first used the mark in this state and the date when applicant first used the mark anywhere;

(e) A statement that the applicant believes himself to be the owner of the mark and that no other person to the best of his knowledge and belief has the right in this state to use such mark either in the identical form thereof, or in such near resemblance thereto, as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of such person, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

The application shall be signed and verified by the applicant or by an agent of the applicant.

The application shall be accompanied by a specimen or facsimile of such mark as actually used.

The application for registration shall be accompanied by a filing fee of Ten Dollars ($10) payable to the Secretary of State.

Delivery to secretary of state; duties of secretary of state;
certificates of registration

Sec. 4. Duplicate originals of the application including the specimen or facsimile shall be delivered to the Secretary of State as a part of the filing thereof. If the application conforms to law the Secretary of State shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each such duplicate original the word "Filed" and the month, day, and the year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of registration evidencing registration on said date of filing, to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(4) Deliver said certificate of registration together with the affixed duplicate original of the application to the applicant or his representative.

A certificate of registration issued by the Secretary of State under the provisions of this Act, or a copy thereof duly certified by the Secretary of State, shall be admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of (1) the validity of the registration, (2) registrant's ownership of the mark, and (3) registrant's exclusive right to use the mark throughout the State of Texas in commerce in connection with the goods or services specified in the certificate, subject to any conditions and limitations stated therein.

Constructive notice

Sec. 5. Registration of a mark under this Act shall be constructive notice throughout the State of Texas of the registrant's claim of ownership thereof throughout Texas.

Judicial review

Sec. 6. All final decisions of the Secretary of State hereunder shall be deemed to be administrative decisions and subject to judicial review in the State District Court of Travis County. In the trial of all appeals from such administrative decisions prosecuted in the courts of this state pursuant to the provisions of this Act, such trials shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from justice of the peace courts to county courts. When such an appeal is filed and the court thereby acquires jurisdiction, all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect, and the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstance shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this Act. The Legislature hereby specifically declares that the provisions of this Section shall not be severable from the balance of this Act, and further specifically declares that this Act would not have been passed without the inclusion of this Section. If this Section, or any part thereof, is for any reason ever held by any court to be invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative in any way, such holding shall apply to this entire Act, and in such event this entire Act shall be null, void and of no force and effect.

Term of registration of mark; renewal; notice of necessity of renewal

Sec. 7. Registration of a mark hereunder shall be effective for a term of ten (10) years from the date of registration, and, upon application filed within six (6) months prior to the expiration of such term, on a form to be furnished by the Secretary of State, the registration may be renewed for a like term. Said application shall be accompanied by an affidavit by the registrant stating that the mark is still in use in this state or showing that any non-use in this state is due to special circumstances which excuse such non-use and is not due to any intention to abandon the mark in this state. A renewal fee of Ten Dollars ($10), payable to the Secretary of State, shall accompany the application for renewal of the registration.

A registration may be renewed for successive periods of ten (10) years in like manner.

Any registration in force on the date on which this Act shall become effective shall expire ten (10) years from the date of the registration thereof or two (2) years after the effective date of this Act, whichever is later, and may be re-registered by filing an original application with the Secretary of State as aforementioned on a form furnished by him and by paying the aforementioned original application filing fee therefor within six (6) months prior to the expiration of the registration.

The Secretary of State shall notify registrants of marks under this and all previous Acts of the necessity of renewal or re-registration by writing to the last known address of the registrants within the period beginning twelve (12) months and ending six (6) months next preceding the expiration of the registration. Failure of the Secretary of State to so notify registrants and failure of any registrant to receive any such notice shall not extend the term of any such registration or excuse failure to renew or re-register.

Assignment of mark; recordation; fee; submission of duplicate copy

Sec. 8. Any mark and its registration hereunder shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the mark is used, or with that part of the good will of the business connected with the use of and symbolized by the mark. Assignment shall be by instruments in writing duly executed and may be recorded with the Secretary of State upon the payment of a fee of Three Dollars ($3) payable to the Secretary of State who, upon recording of the assignment, shall issue in the name of the assignee a new certificate for the remainder of the term of the registration or of the last renewal thereof. An assignment of any registration under this Act shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser for valuable consideration without notice unless it is recorded with the Secretary of State within three (3) months after the date thereof or prior to such subsequent purchase.

A duplicate copy (which may be either a duplicate original or a clear and readable positive photostatic copy of the original on durable paper) of any assignment to be recorded, shall be submitted to the Secretary of State together with an original thereof. If the assignment recordation fee has been paid, then the Secretary of State shall:

- (1) Endorse on each of such original and duplicate the words "Filed for record in the office of the Secretary of State, State of Texas," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof;
- (2) File the duplicate of said assignment in his office; and
- (3) Return the original so endorsed to the assignee or his representatives.

Record of marks registered or renewed

Sec. 9. The Secretary of State shall keep for public examination a record of all marks registered or renewed under this Act and other records of all instruments recorded in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.

Cancellation of registration of mark

Sec. 10. The Secretary of State shall cancel from the register:

- (1) After two years from the effective date of this Act, all registrations under prior Acts which are more than ten (10) years old and not re-registered in accordance with this Act;
- (2) Any registration concerning which the Secretary of State shall receive a voluntary request for cancellation thereof from the owner of the registration as evidenced by the registration and any assignment thereof recorded in the office of the Secretary of State;
- (3) All registrations granted under this Act and not renewed in accordance with the provisions hereof;
- (4) Any registration concerning which a district court or court appellate thereto shall render a judgment from which no appeal has or can be taken, finding:
 - (a) that the registered mark has been abandoned;
 - (b) that the registrant is not the owner of the mark;
 - (c) that the registration was granted contrary to the provisions of this Act;
 - (d) that the registration was obtained fraudulently;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(e) that the registered mark has become incapable of serving as a mark;

(5) Any registration, the cancellation of which has been ordered on any ground by a judgment of a district court or courts appellate thereto, from which no appeal has or can be taken.

Action to cancel registration of mark

Sec. 11. Any person who believes he is or will be damaged by the registration of a mark under this Act may bring an action to cancel such registration. Such action may be brought in any district court of the State of Texas having venue thereof:

(1) When the agent appointed to receive process is the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall forward notice of such action by registered mail to the registrant at his last address of record.

(2) Notice of any such action shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court in which the action is brought to the Secretary of State who shall place such notice in the file of such registration with proper notations and endorsements.

(3) The losing party, in a case wherein it is found that he should have known his position was without merit, may in the discretion of the court have taxed against him as part of the costs, the reasonable attorneys' fees of the prevailing party.

(4) The clerk of the court decreeing the cancellation or making of any of the findings specified in Section 10(4) hereof shall, when such decree becomes final, transmit a certified copy of the judgment to the Secretary of State.

Classification of goods and services

Sec. 12. The following general classes of goods and services are established for convenience of administration of this Act but not to limit or extend the applicant's or registrant's rights. A single application for registration of a mark may include any or all goods or services upon which the mark is actually being used and which are comprised in a single class. In no event shall a single application include goods or services upon which the mark is being used and which fall within different classes. The Secretary of State is authorized to amend the classification of goods and services to conform with the classification established and as may be amended by the U. S. Patent Office.

Obtaining registration by false or fraudulent statements; civil action

Sec. 13. Any person who shall for himself, or on behalf of any other person, procure the filing of any application or the registration of any mark in the office of the Secretary of State under the provisions hereof, by knowingly making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, orally or in writing, or by any other fraudulent means, shall be liable, in a civil action brought in any district court having venue by any person injured thereby, to pay any damages sustained by such injured person in consequence of the use of such mark, and the costs of such action, including attorney's fees, and the court shall order cancellation of the registration of such mark.

Preservation of common law rights; livestock brands or marks

Sec. 14. Nothing herein shall adversely affect common law rights acquired in a mark prior to registration thereof hereunder. However, during the effective registration hereunder of a mark, no common law rights may be acquired as against the registrant thereof, unless said registrant shall have abandoned the mark, and nothing in this Act shall apply to the registration or use of livestock brands or marks.

Wrongful acts against owner of registered mark; immunity of advertising media

Sec. 15. Subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof, any person shall be liable in a civil action by the owner of a registered mark for any or all of the remedies provided in Section 16 hereof, if such person:

(a) without the consent of the registrant, uses anywhere in the State of Texas, any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this Act, in connection with the sale, offering for sale or advertising of any goods or services in connection with which such use is likely to deceive or to cause confusion or mistakes as to the source or origin of such goods or services;

(b) without the consent of registrant, reproduces, counterfeits, copies or colorably imitates any such registered mark and applies such reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, or advertisements, intended to be used upon or in conjunction with the sale or other distribution in this state of such goods or services. Provided, however, that no person engaged in business as the owner or operator of a radio or television station or as the owner or publisher of a newspaper, magazine, telephone or other directory or publication shall be liable hereunder for, or subject to, any of the remedies provided in Section 16 hereof for the use of any mark furnished to such person by one of its advertisers or customers.

Remedies for wrongful acts

Sec. 16. A registrant under this Act may proceed by suit in any District Court having venue to enjoin any act for which liability may be imposed under Section 15 hereof, and any such District Court shall grant injunctions to restrain such acts, and may require the defendant to pay to such registrant all damages suffered by reason of such acts from and after the date two years prior to the date of filing of the suit; any such court may also order that any reproductions, counterfeits, copies or colorable imitations described in Section 15 hereof, in the possession or under the control of any defendant in such suit, be delivered to any officer of the court, or to the complainant, to be destroyed; provided, however, that the owner of any infringed mark may not recover damages from an infringer for infringements occurring during a period of time when the infringer did not have actual knowledge of the owner's mark.

Sec. 17. [Amended Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 1058]

Sec. 18. [Repealed and enacted a new art. 843]

Effect on pending litigation; repealer

Sec. 19. This Act shall be in force and take effect upon its passage, but shall not affect any suit, proceeding or appeal then pending. Subject to the terms of Section 10 hereof, Articles 844 through 851—B inclusive of the Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925, and Articles 1061 through 1062, inclusive, and Article 1066 of the Penal Code of Texas, Revised 1925, and parts of any other Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed on the effective date of this Act. Provided that as to any suit, proceeding or appeal, and for that purpose only, pending at the time this Act takes effect such repeal or substitution shall be deemed not to be effective until final determination of said pending suit, proceeding or appeal. § 4.

Form

Sec. 1.02. This Act has been organized and divided in the following manner:

- (1) The Act is divided into Chapters, containing groups of related Articles. Chapters are numbered consecutively with cardinal numbers.
- (2) Chapters are divided into Sections, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.
- (3) Sections are divided into Subsections. The Subsections within each Section are numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals enclosed in parenthesis.

Definitions

Sec. 1.03. As used in this Act the following terms, unless otherwise clearly indicated by the context, have the meanings specified below:

- (1) "Association" shall mean a savings and loan association subject to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) "Savings and Loan Association" shall mean an association whose primary purpose is to promote thrift and home financing and whose principal activity is the lending to its members of money accumulated in savings accounts of its members on the security of first liens on homes and other improved real estate.
- (3) "Loss Reserves" shall mean the aggregate amount of the reserves allocated by an association for the sole purpose of absorbing losses.
- (4) "Savings Liability" shall mean the aggregate amount of the withdrawal value of the savings accounts of the members of an association at any particular time as shown by the books of the association.

(5) "Savings Account" shall mean that part of the savings liability of an association which is credited to a member by reason of the placement of funds in the association.

(6) "Withdrawal Value of a Savings Account" shall mean the credit balance of a savings account at any particular time as shown by the books of an association.

(7) "The Commissioner" shall mean the Savings and Loan Commissioner appointed under the provisions of House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ as the same may be hereafter amended from time to time.

(8) "Surplus" shall mean the aggregate amount of the undistributed earnings of an association held as undivided profits or unallocated reserves for general corporate purposes and any paid-in surplus held by an association.

(9) "Federal Association" shall mean a savings and loan association incorporated pursuant to the Home Owner's Loan Act of 1933 as now or hereafter amended,² whose principal business office is located within the territorial limits of this State.

² 12 U.S.C.A. § 1461 et seq.

(10) "Member" shall mean a person holding a savings account in an association, or owning one or more shares of its Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, or borrowing from or assuming or obligated upon a loan in which an association has an interest, or owning property which secures a loan in which an association has an interest.

(11) "Dividends on Saving Accounts" shall mean that part of the net income of an association which is declared payable on savings accounts from time to time by the Board of Directors, and is the cost of savings money to the association.

Federal savings and loan association, definition, see art. 342—102.

Savings and loan commissioner, powers and duties, see art. 342—205.

Effect of headings, etc.

Sec. 1.04. The division of this Act into Chapters and Sections and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER TWO. FORMATION OF ASSOCIATIONS

Application for charter

Sec. 2.01. Application for a charter for a savings and loan association may be made by five (5) or more citizens of this State (hereinafter referred to as incorporators) by tendering to the Commissioner along with the proper filing fee, an application consisting of the following:

(1) Two (2) copies of Articles of incorporation for the proposed association stating (i) the name of the association; (ii) the site of the principal office and (iii) the names and addresses of the initial directors.

(2) A statement as to (i) the amount, if any, of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock which has been subscribed and paid for at the time of filing, (ii) the names and addresses of such subscribers and the amount subscribed by each, (iii) the amount of savings liability, if any, with which the association will commence business, (iv) the amount of paid-in surplus or expense fund with which the association will commence business.

(3) Two (2) copies of the bylaws under which the association proposes to operate.

(4) Statements, exhibits, maps and other data sufficiently detailed and comprehensive as to enable the Commissioner to pass upon the matters set forth in Section 2.08(2), (3) and (4) of this Act and such other information in regard to the proposed association and its operation as may be required by duly promulgated rules and regulations of the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas.

The Articles of incorporation and all statements of fact tendered to the Commissioner in connection with an application for charter shall be subscribed and sworn to under the sanction of an oath, or such affirmation as is by law equivalent to an oath, made before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.02. The charter of an association may provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock. No other form or type of stock or shares shall be issued. Such Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, when issued, may not be retired or withdrawn except as hereinafter provided, until after all liabilities of the association shall have been satisfied in full, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts. Such stock must be fully paid for in cash in advance of issuance and the association may not make any loans against the shares of such stock. Shares of such stock may have a par value of not less than One Dollar ($1) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) each. An association authorized to issue such stock must have at all times issued and outstanding an amount thereof equal in par value to Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or two and one half per cent (2½%) of its gross assets whichever is greater but no association shall be required to have more than Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) of the par value of such stock outstanding. Associations whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation may retire in whole or in part any such stock heretofore issued when such associations are authorized to do so by a majority vote at any annual meeting of its members, or any special meeting of members called for such purpose; provided, that the basis of such retirement shall have been first approved by the Commissioner and consent to such retirement upon the part of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation has been filed in writing with the Commissioner.

Banks, reserves, see art. 342—606.

Stock requirements for proposed Permanent Reserve Fund Stock associations

Sec. 2.03. Incorporators of proposed associations with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, as a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter shall be required to have subscribed and paid for in cash to the credit of the proposed association an aggregate amount of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as the Commissioner shall specify within the limits set for such stock in the preceding Section. Such stock shall be issued within thirty (30) days from the date of incorporation.

Paid-in surplus requirements for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock associations

Sec. 2.04. As a prerequisite to approval of any application for a proposed association with authority to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the Commissioner may require in addition to the amount paid in for such stock a paid-in surplus up to but not in excess of the aggregate amount of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock required under the preceding Section.

Such paid-in surplus may be used in lieu of earnings to pay organization and operating expenses, dividends on savings accounts and to meet any loss reserve requirements. If the application should not be approved or if the proposed association does not proceed to do business, the stock subscriptions for Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and paid-in surplus shall be returned pro-rata to the subscribers, less any lawful expenditures.

Banks, capital and surplus requirements, see art. 342—303.

Savings account requirements for proposed associations without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.05. As a prerequisite to the approval of an application for a charter of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock the incorporators must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner subscribed and paid-in savings accounts in the following aggregate amounts in relation to the population of the community in which the home office of the association is to be located: (a) in communities having not more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000); (b) in communities having more than ten thousand (10,000) but less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, the minimum sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000); (c) in communities having one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants, the minimum sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000); provided, that the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require a larger amount to be paid in. The population of the community shall be determined by the Commissioner based upon the latest Federal census.

Expense fund requirements for proposed association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 2.06. In addition to the savings account subscriptions required by the preceding Section the incorporators of an association without Permanent Reserve Fund Stock must show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that an expense fund has been subscribed and paid into the credit of the proposed association equal to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the minimum specified amount of required savings accounts set out in Section 2.05, from which expense fund the expense of organizing the association and its operating expenses in addition to such dividends as may be declared and paid or credited to its savings account holders may be paid until such time as its earnings are sufficient to pay same. The amounts so contributed to the expense fund shall not constitute a liability of the association except as hereinafter provided. Such contributions may be repaid pro-rata to the contributors from the net earnings of the association after provision for required loss reserve allocations and payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts. In case of the liquidation of an association before contributions to the expense fund have been repaid, any contributions to the expense fund remaining unexpended, after the payment of expenses of liquidation, all creditors, and the withdrawal value of all savings accounts shall be paid to the contributors pro-rata. The books of the association shall reflect such expense fund. Contributors to the expense fund shall be paid dividends on the amounts paid in by them and for such purpose such contributions shall in all respects be considered as savings accounts of the association.

Hearings on charter applications

Sec. 2.07. When a proper application for a charter has been filed, the Commissioner shall cause public notice of such application to be given and give any interested party an opportunity to appear, present evidence and be heard for or against such application.

Approval of application for charter

Sec. 2.08. The Commissioner shall not approve any charter application unless he shall have affirmatively found from the data furnished with the application, the evidence adduced at such hearing and his official records that:

(1) the prerequisites, where applicable, set forth in Sections 2.02, 2.03, 2.04, 2.05, and 2.06 have been complied with and that the Articles of incorporation comply with all other provisions of this Act;

(2) the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in the Articles of incorporation are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed association will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this Act and that the proposed association will have qualified full-time management;

(3) there is a public need for the proposed association and the volume of business in the community in which the proposed association will conduct its business is such as to indicate profitable operation;

(4) the operation of the proposed association will not unduly harm any existing association.

If the Commissioner so finds, he shall state his findings in writing and issue under his official seal a certificate of incorporation and deliver a copy of the approved Articles of incorporation and bylaws to the incorporators and retain a copy thereof as a permanent file of his office, whereupon the proposed association shall be a corporate body with perpetual existence unless terminated by law and may exercise the powers of a savings and loan association as herein set forth.

Refusal of charter application

Sec. 2.09. If the Commissioner is unable to make the findings as required by the preceding Section, he shall endorse upon each copy of the proposed Articles of incorporation the word "refused" with the date of such endorsement and attach thereto a written statement of his grounds for such refusal. One copy of the proposed Articles and attached grounds of refusal shall be promptly mailed to the incorporators by certified mail.

Forfeiture of charter for failure to commence business

Sec. 2.10. Any association whose charter has been approved under this Act shall commence business within six (6) months after the date of such approval. If an association has not commenced business within such time, the incorporators may request a hearing before the Commissioner; and if good cause is shown for such failure, the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of the time for commencing business to give such association an opportunity to overcome the cause for the delay in commencing business. Failure to commence business as herein required shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of the association's charter at the suit of the Attorney General upon request of the Commissioner brought in the County where the association proposes to locate its principal office.

Amendment of charter and bylaws

Sec. 2.11. Any association may, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of its members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, amend its charter or bylaws in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; provided, that before such amendments become effective they must be filed with and approved by the Commissioner.

Banks, amendment of articles of association, see art. 342—312.

Corporate name; exclusive use by associations

Sec. 2.12. The name of every association shall include either the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association." These words shall be preceded by an appropriate descriptive word or words approved by the Commissioner. An ordinal number may not be used as a single descriptive word preceding the words "Savings Association," or "Savings and Loan Association," unless such words are followed by the name of the town, city or county in which the association has its home office. No certificate of incorporation of a proposed association having the same name as any other association authorized to do business in this State under this Act or a name so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive shall be issued by the Commissioner, except to an association formed by the reincorporation, reorganization, or consolidation of other associations, or upon the sale of the property or franchise of an association. No person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation, either domestic or foreign, unless authorized to do business in this State under the provisions of this Act shall do business under any name or title which indicates or reasonably implies that the business is the character or kind of business carried on or transacted by an association or which is calculated to lead any person to believe that the business is that of an association. Upon application by the Commissioner or any association, a court of competent jurisdiction may issue an injunction to restrain any such entity from violating or continuing to violate any of the foregoing provisions of this Section.

Change of office or name

Sec. 2.13. No association shall, without the prior approval of the Commissioner (i) establish any office other than the principal office stated in its articles of incorporation, (ii) move any office of the association from its immediate vicinity or (iii) change its name. When his approval is applied for, the Commissioner shall give any person who might be affected an opportunity to be heard on the action proposed to be taken for which approval is sought.

Preference to local control

Sec. 2.14. In any instance where there is a conflict between an application for the approval of a charter for a new association and an application for the establishment of an additional office by an existing association both seeking to locate in the same community and the principal office of the existing association is located in a different county than such community, the Commissioner may give additional weight to the application having the greater degree of control vested in or held by residents of the particular community.

CHAPTER THREE. DIRECTORS, OFFICERS & MEMBERSBoard of directors

Sec. 3.01. The business of the association shall be directed by a board of directors of not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-one (21) elected by a majority vote at each annual meeting of the members; provided, that associations authorized to issue Permanent Reserve Fund Stock by their bylaws may provide in such bylaws that all or at least a majority of the board of directors shall be elected from among the holders of such stock. The number of directors shall be fixed from time to time within the limits above prescribed by resolution adopted at any annual meeting of members, or any special meeting called for such purpose.

Banks, directors, see art. 342—404 et seq.

Organization meeting

Sec. 3.02. Within thirty (30) days after the corporate existence of an association shall begin, the initial board of directors shall hold an organization meeting and, pursuant to the provisions of this Act and the bylaws, shall elect officers and take such other action as is appropriate in connection with beginning the transaction of business by the association. The Commissioner upon good cause shown may extend by order the time within which the organization meeting shall be held.

Qualification of directors

Sec. 3.03. The bylaws of an association may prescribe other qualifications for directors, but no person shall be eligible to election as a director unless he is the owner in good faith and his own right on the books of the association either in the form of a savings account or Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or a combination of both having a value on such books of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and which shall not be reduced by withdrawal or pledge for a loan by the association, so long as such person remains a director. Any director, who after his election as such, ceases to be the owner in his own right of the necessary qualifying interest shall cease to be a director; provided, that no action of the board of directors shall be invalidated through the participation of such director in such action; provided, further, that if a director becomes ineligible under the terms of this Section by reason of the exercise by the association of the right of redemption of savings accounts provided for in Section 6.16, he shall remain validly in office until the expiration of his term or until he otherwise becomes ineligible, whichever may occur first. Any vacancy among directors may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, by electing a director to serve until the next annual meeting of members. In the event of a vacancy on the board of directors from any cause, the remaining directors shall have full power and authority to continue direction of the association until such vacancy is filled.

Officers

Sec. 3.04. The officers of an association shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and such other officers as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such officers shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors. The president shall be a member of the board of directors.

Indemnity bonds of directors, officers and employees

Sec. 3.05. Every association shall maintain on file with the Commissioner an effective blanket indemnity bond with an adequate corporate surety protecting the association from loss by or through any fraud, dishonesty, forgery or alteration, larceny, theft, embezzlement, robbery, burglary, holdup, wrongful or unlawful abstraction, misappropriation, or any other dishonest or criminal action or omission by any officer or employee of such association and any director of such association when performing the duty of an officer or employee. Associations which employ collection agents, who for any reason are not covered by a bond as hereinabove required, shall provide for the bonding of each such agent in an amount equal to at least twice the average monthly collection of such agent. Such agents shall be required to make settlement with the association at least monthly. No bond coverage will be required of any agent which is a bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The amounts and form of such bonds and sufficiency of the surety thereon shall be approved by the board of directors and the Commissioner. All such bonds shall provide that a cancellation thereof either by the surety or the insured shall not become effective unless and until thirty (30) days' notice in writing first shall have been given to the Commissioner, unless he shall have approved such cancellation earlier.

Meetings of members; voting rights

Sec. 3.06. The annual meeting of the members of each association shall be held each year at the time fixed in the bylaws of the association. Special meetings may be called as provided in the bylaws. The members who shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the members shall be those who are members of record at the end of the calendar month next preceding the date of the meeting, except those who have ceased to be members. The bylaws may provide the basis for computing the number of votes which a member shall be entitled to cast. In the absence of any bylaw provision to the contrary, in the determination of all questions requiring action by the members, each member shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote by virtue of his membership, plus an additional vote for each share or fraction thereof of the Permanent Reserve Fund Stock of the association, if any, owned by such member, and an additional vote for each One Hundred Dollars ($100) or fraction thereof of the withdrawal value of savings accounts, if any, held by such member. A loan or a savings account shall create a single membership for voting purposes even though more than one person is obligated on such loan or has an interest in such savings account. Voting may be in person or by proxy. Every proxy shall be in writing and signed by the member or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact and, when filed with the secretary, shall, unless otherwise specified in the proxy, continue in force from year to year until a revocation in writing is duly delivered to the secretary or until superseded by subsequent proxies. The bylaws of each association shall specify the quorum requirements and other voting requirements for conducting business at membership meetings.

Access to books and records

Sec. 3.07. Every member shall have the right to inspect such books and records of an association as pertain to his loan, Permanent Reserve Fund Stock or savings account. Otherwise, the right of inspection and examination of the books and records shall be limited to the Commissioner or his duly authorized representatives as provided in this Act, to persons duly authorized to act for the association and to any Federal instrumentality or agency authorized to inspect or examine the books and records of an association whose savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The books and records pertaining to the accounts and loans of members shall be kept confidential by the Commissioner, his examiners and representatives, except where disclosure thereof shall be compelled by a court of competent jurisdiction, and no member or other person shall have access to the books and records or shall be furnished or shall possess a partial or complete list of the members except upon express action and authority of the board of directors. The books, records and files of an association shall not be admissible as evidence in any proceeding concerning the validity of any tax assessment or the collection of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest except where (i) the owner of an account is a proper party to the proceeding in which event the books, files and records pertaining to the account of such party shall be admissible or (ii) the association itself is a proper party to the proceeding in which event any book, file or record material to the proceeding shall be admissible.

CHAPTER FOUR. CORPORATE POWERS OF ASSOCIATIONS

General corporate powers

Sec. 4.01. Every association incorporated pursuant to or operating under the provisions of this Act shall have all the powers enumerated, authorized, and permitted by this Act and such other rights, privileges, and powers as may be incidental to or reasonably necessary for the accomplishment of the objects and purposes of the association.

Power to borrow

Sec. 4.02. No association shall have power to borrow more than an aggregate amount equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of its savings on the date of borrowing, unless such loan in excess of such amount be first approved in writing by the Commissioner, or unless the association is a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank in which event the association shall have power to secure advances in such amounts and upon such terms as may be prescribed by such Federal Home Loan Bank from time to time.

Insurance of savings accounts

Sec. 4.03. Every association shall have the power and right to obtain and maintain insurance of its savings accounts by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. No association or corporation or foreign association or any other person shall advertise or represent or offer to accept any savings accounts in this State as insured or guaranteed accounts or as the savings accounts of an insured or guaranteed institution unless the same are insured by either the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Fiscal agent

Sec. 4.04. Any association shall have power to act as fiscal agent of the United States, and, when so designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, it shall perform under such regulations as he may require, and shall have power to act as agent for any instrumentality thereof, and as agent of this State or any governmental subdivision or instrumentality thereof.

Power to act under Self-Employed Retirement Act of 1962

Sec. 4.05. Any association and any Federal association (insofar as its charter and applicable Federal rules and regulations permit) may exercise all powers necessary to qualify as a trustee or custodian under the Federal Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act of 1962¹ or any amendments thereto and may invest any funds held in such capacities in the savings accounts of the institution if the trust or custodial retirement plan does not prohibit such investment.

CHAPTER FIVE. LOANS, INVESTMENTS, OWNERSHIP OF REAL PROPERTY

Original real estate loans

Sec. 5.01. Every association may make real estate loans to members secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting a first and prior lien on improved real estate and may make additional real estate loans secured by liens subsequent to its own first lien upon the same property. Additional security may also be taken by the association in connection with any such loan if deemed necessary and proper.

Condominium regime, loans on individual apartments, see art. 1301a, § 10.

Power to deal in real estate loans

Sec. 5.02. Every association may purchase real estate loans upon security of the same character against which such association may make an original loan and also may lend money on the security of such real estate loans.

Participation in real estate loans with others

Sec. 5.03. Subject to the requirements of any rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof, every association may participate with other lenders in real estate loans of any type that such association could originate; may sell without recourse any real estate loan it holds or any participating interest therein; and may service any real estate loans sold by it.

Condominium regime, loans on individual apartments, see art. 1301a, § 10.

Loans shall conform to rules and regulations of the Commissioner and Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission

Sec. 5.04. The Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ as the same may be amended shall, from time to time, promulgate such rules and regulations in respect to loans by associations operating under this law as may be reasonably necessary to assure that such loans are in keeping with sound lending practices and promote the purposes of this Act; provided that such rules and regulations shall not prohibit an association from making any loan or investment that a Federal association could make under applicable Federal regulations.

Requirements in regard to lending transactions

Sec. 5.05. In no event shall an association make a loan, purchase or sell a note or lien or enter into any participation transaction authorized in Sections 5.01, 5.02, and 5.03 in violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 and no association shall:

(1) Make a loan on real estate, on which is located or on which from the proceeds of the loan will be located a home or homes or combination of home and business property, that exceeds eighty per cent (80%) of the appraised valuation of such real estate plus the value of any savings account in the association or any real estate loan pledged as additional collateral to secure such loan. For the purpose of this paragraph a home shall mean a dwelling for not more than four (4) families.

(2) Make a loan on real estate other than the type described in (1) above that exceeds sixty-five per cent (65%) of the appraised valuation of such real estate plus the value of any additional collateral of the type described in (1) above pledged to secure such loan.

(3) Make a loan on real estate for a term in excess of twenty-five (25) years.

(4) Make a real estate loan to an officer or director of the association unless such loan be first approved unanimously by its board of directors and such approval recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board at which such loan was approved.

(5) Make a real estate loan or loans to any one borrower in the aggregate in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) or the sum of its loss reserves, surplus and Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, if any, or within such limits as may be fixed by appropriate rule and regulation promulgated under Section 5.04 hereof, whichever is the greater amount.

(6) Make a real estate loan unless an appraisal by an appraiser or committee of appraisers appointed by the board of directors first be made and filed in writing with the association as a part of its permanent files; reappraisals may be required by the Commissioner on real estate securing loans which are delinquent more than twelve (12) months at the expense of the association.

(7) Make a real estate loan which is not secured by a first and prior lien upon the property described in the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating or constituting such lien, unless every prior lien thereon is owned by such association.

(8) Make a real estate loan unless the association is furnished with either a satisfactory abstract of title or a policy of title insurance issued by a title company authorized to insure titles in this State showing that the lien securing such loan meets the requirements of the preceding Subsection (7).

(9) Make a real estate loan unless the insurable improvements thereon are insured against loss by a fire and extended coverage policy or its equivalent issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this State.

(10) Sell or transfer a prior lien held by the association while retaining a junior lien on the same security to secure an unsatisfied obligation due the association unless such junior lien or liens were created in connection with a loan made under Sections 5.08 and 5.10 of this Act.

(11) Fail to promptly record in the proper county records every mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument creating, constituting or transferring any lien securing in whole or in part any real estate loan or the association's interest therein.

Banks, real estate loans, see art. 342—504.

Advances to pay taxes, etc., on security

Sec. 5.06. Associations may pay taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other similar charges for the protection of their interests in properties securing their real estate loans, which such advances may be carried on their books as an asset of the association and for which they may charge and collect interest, or such advances may be added to the unpaid balance of the loan as of the first day of the month in which such advances are made. All such advances shall constitute a valid lien against the real estate securing the loan for which they were made. Associations may require borrowers to pay monthly in advance, in addition to interest or interest and principal, the equivalent of one-twelfth (1/12) of the estimated annual taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges upon the real estate securing any loan, or any of such charges, so as to enable the association to pay same as they become due from the funds so received. The amount of such monthly charges may be increased or decreased as is necessary for the payment of same. Associations may carry such funds in trust in an account or may credit the same to the indebtedness and advance the money for taxes, insurance or other charges as they come due. Every association shall keep a record of the status of taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, and other charges on all real estate securing its loans and on all real and personal property owned by it.

Expenses, fees and charges for real estate loans

Sec. 5.07. Every association may require borrowing members to pay all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the making, closing, disbursing, extending, readjusting or renewing of real estate loans, which such charges may be collected by the association from the borrower and retained by it or paid to any persons, including any director, officer, or employee of the association rendering services in connection therewith, or paid directly by the borrower. In addition, associations may charge premiums for making such loans as well as penalties for prepayments or late payments; provided, that unless agreed in writing to the contrary, any prepayment of principal shall be applied on the final installment of the note or other obligation until fully paid, and thereafter on the installments in the inverse order of their maturity. The expenses, fees and charges authorized herein shall be in addition to interest authorized by law, and shall not be deemed to be a part of the interest collected or agreed to be paid on such loans within the meaning of any law of this State which limits the rate of interest which may be exacted in any transaction. No director, officer or employee of an association shall receive any fee or other compensation of any kind in connection with procuring any loan for an association, except for services actually rendered as above provided. A loan settlement statement shall be furnished by or on behalf of the association to each borrower upon the closing of every real estate loan, indicating in detail the expenses, fees and charges such borrower has paid or obligated himself to pay to the association or to any other person in connection with such loan. A copy of such statement shall be retained in the records of the association.

Insured and guaranteed loans

Sec. 5.08. Any association may make, without regard to any loan limitations or restrictions otherwise imposed by this Act, any loan, secured or unsecured, which is insured or guaranteed in any manner and in any amount by the United States or any instrumentality thereof.

Loans on security of savings accounts

Sec. 5.09. Any association may make loans on the sole security value of the accounts owned or otherwise pledged for or by the borrower. No such loan shall be made when an association has applications for withdrawal which have been on file more than sixty (60) days and not reached for payment.

Property improvement loans and other loans to members

Sec. 5.10. Any association may make property improvement loans to home owners and other property owners for maintenance, repair, modernization, improvement and equipment of their properties, and may make other loans to members, on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by rules and regulations adopted under Section 5.04 hereof and which shall not be subject to the requirements of Section 5.05 of this Act.

Investment in securities

Sec. 5.11. Every association shall have power to invest in obligations of, or guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the United States or this State; in stock of a Federal Home Loan Bank of which it is eligible to be a member, and in any obligations or consolidated obligations of any Federal Home Loan Bank or Banks; in stock or obligations of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of a national mortgage association or any successor or successors thereto; in demand, time, or savings deposits with any bank or trust company the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; in stock or obligations of any corporation or agency of the United States or this State, or in deposits therewith to the extent that such corporation or agency assists in furthering or facilitating the association's purposes or power; in savings accounts of any association operating under the provisions of this Act and of any Federal association; in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are a general obligation of any city, town, village, county, school district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of this State; and in such other securities or obligations which the Commissioner may approve and place on a published list. An association investing in securities which are listed by the Commissioner shall not be required to dispose of such securities if at a later time the Commissioner shall remove same from list. No security owned by an association shall be carried on its books at more than the actual cost thereof unless a different treatment is permitted by the Commissioner in writing.

Acquisition of real property

Sec. 5.12. An association may own during the period of its corporate existence real property upon which any facility used in connection with the operation of such association is located. Every other parcel of real estate acquired by such association in the course of business shall be disposed of within five (5) years from the date acquired unless the Commissioner shall have extended the time in which such disposition shall be made. Any of such real property may be sold, conveyed, leased, improved, repaired, mortgaged or exchanged for other real estate when such is authorized by the board of directors.

Limitation on investment in office buildings

Sec. 5.13. An association may not invest more in office buildings than an amount equal to the aggregate dollar value of its loss reserves and surplus plus the par value of any outstanding Permanent Reserve Fund Stock as reflected by its books at the time of such investment unless the investment of a greater amount is authorized by the Commissioner in writing.

Valuation of real property on the books of an association

Sec. 5.14. No association shall carry any real estate on its books at a sum in excess of the total amount invested by such association on account of such real estate, including advances, costs and improvements, but excluding accrued but uncollected interest unless the Commissioner has specifically approved in writing a higher valuation. Any association selling real estate under a contract of sale may carry the amount due the association under the terms of such contract as an asset upon its books; provided, that at no time shall the contract be considered as having an asset value greater in amount than the sales price agreed upon in the contract, or greater in amount than the value at which such property so sold was permitted to be carried upon the books of the association.

Appraisals of real estate owned

Sec. 5.15. Every association shall appraise every parcel of real estate at the time of acquisition thereof and upon completion of any permanent improvements thereto. The report of such appraisal shall be in writing and kept in the records of the association.

Enlargement of powers

Sec. 5.16. Any provisions of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, any association may make any loan or investment which such association could make were it incorporated and operating as a Federal association domiciled in this State.

CHAPTER SIX. SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

No limitation on savings accounts

Sec. 6.01. There shall be no limit on the number and value of savings accounts an association may accept unless limits are fixed by its board of directors.

Who may open a savings account

Sec. 6.02. Investments in savings accounts may be made only with cash and may be made by any person in his own right or in a trust or other fiduciary capacity and by any partnership, association, corporation, political subdivision, public and governmental unit or entity.

Savings contracts

Sec. 6.03. Each holder of a savings account shall execute a savings contract setting forth any special terms and provisions applicable to such account and the conditions upon which withdrawals may be made not inconsistent with provisions of this Act. Such savings contract shall be held by the association as part of its records pertaining to such account. The savings contract in respect to savings accounts of political subdivisions and public and governmental units or entities shall provide that the holder of any such account shall not become a member of the association.

Evidence of ownership of an account

Sec. 6.04. As evidence of each savings account the association shall issue to the holder of such account either an account book or certificate.

Transfer of savings accounts

Sec. 6.05. Savings accounts shall be transferable only on the books of the association upon presentation of evidence of transfer satisfactory to the association accompanied by proper application for transfer by the transferee who shall accept such account subject to the terms and conditions of the savings contract, the bylaws of the association and the provisions of its charter. The association may treat the holder of record of a savings account as the owner thereof for all purposes without being affected by any notice to the contrary unless the association has acknowledged in writing that a pledge of such savings account has been made.

Lost or destroyed account books or certificates

Sec. 6.06. A new account book or certificate may be issued in the name of the holder of record at any time when requested by such holder or his legal representative upon proof satisfactory to the association that the original book or certificate has been lost or destroyed. The new account book or certificate shall expressly state that it is issued in lieu of the one lost or destroyed and the association shall in no way be liable thereafter on account of the original account book or certificate. The association may if it desires require indemnification against any loss that might result from the issuance of the new account book or certificate.

Savings accounts of married women and minors

Sec. 6.07. Any association operating under this law and any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts from any married woman or minor as the sole and absolute owner of such savings account, and receive payments thereon by or for such owner, and pay withdrawals, accept pledges to the association, and act in any other manner with respect to such accounts on the order of such married woman or minor. Any payment or delivery of rights to a married woman or to any minor, or a receipt or acquittance signed by a married woman or by a minor who holds a savings account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such institution for any payment so made or delivery of rights to such married woman or minor. In the case of a minor, the receipt, acquittance, pledge or other action required by the institution to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon such minor with like effect as if he were of full age and legal capacity; provided, if any parent or guardian of such minor should not desire the minor to have authority to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer or make withdrawals from his savings account, such fact may be made known to the association in writing by such parent or guardian, in which event the right of the minor to pledge, hypothecate, control, transfer and make withdrawals from the account during the minority of such minor shall not be exercised by him except with the joinder of such parent or guardian. In the event of the death of such minor, the receipt or acquittance of either parent or guardian of such minor shall be valid and sufficient discharge of such institution for any sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

Savings accounts in two or more names

Sec. 6.08. When a savings account is opened in any association operating under this law or Federal Savings and Loan Association doing business in this State in the names of two or more persons, whether minor or adult, in such form that the moneys in the account are payable to either of the survivor or survivors, then the moneys in such account may be paid to or on the order of any one of such persons during their lifetimes or to or on the order of any one of the survivors of them after the death of any one or more of them, and such institution shall have no further liability for the amounts so paid. The savings contract may provide that the signatures of more than one of such persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them may be required on any check, receipt or withdrawal order, in which case the institution shall pay the moneys in the account only in accordance with such instructions; provided, that any one of the parties to such an account may give written notice to the institution not to permit withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the savings contract, in which event an institution may refuse, without liability, to honor any check, receipt or withdrawal request on the account pending determination of the rights of the parties thereto.

Joint accounts by husband and wife

Sec. 6.09. A husband and wife shall have full power to enter into a savings contract involving a savings account consisting of funds which are community property of their marriage so as to create a joint tenancy with right of survivorship as to such account and any future additions or dividends made or credited thereto and, to the extent necessary to accomplish such result in law, such contract shall constitute a partition of such community property or reciprocal gifts from the respective spouses, if the same is in writing and subscribed to by such husband and wife even though not acknowledged by either of them.

Banks, joint deposits—minors and married women, see art. 342—710.

Pledge to association of joint savings accounts

Sec. 6.10. The pledge or hypothecation to any association or Federal association of all or part of a savings account issued in the names of two (2) or more persons signed by any person or persons upon whose signature or signatures withdrawals may be made from the account shall, unless the terms of the savings account provide specifically to the contrary, be a valid pledge and transfer to the institution of that part of the account pledged or hypothecated, and shall not operate to sever or terminate the joint and survivorship ownership of all or any part of the account.

Savings accounts of fiduciaries

Sec. 6.11. Any association operating under this law or any Federal savings and loan association doing business in this State may accept savings accounts in the name of any administrator, executor, custodian, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary for a named beneficiary or beneficiaries, and any such fiduciary shall have power to vote as a member as if the membership were held absolutely, to open and make additions to, and to withdraw from any such account in whole or in part. Except when otherwise provided by law, the payment to any such fiduciary or a receipt or acquittance signed by any such fiduciary to whom any payment is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of an institution for the payment so made. Whenever a person holding an account in a fiduciary capacity dies and no written notice or order of the probate court of the revocation or termination of the fiduciary relationship shall have been given to the institution and the institution has no written notice or order of the probate court of any other disposition of the beneficial estate, the withdrawal value of such account, and dividends thereon, or other rights relating thereto may, at the option of the institution, be paid or delivered, in whole or in part, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and such institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Trust accounts where trust instrument not disclosed

Sec. 6.12. Whenever an account shall be opened by any person, describing himself in opening such account as a trustee for another and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than such description shall have been given in writing to such institution, withdrawals from such account may be made on the signature of the person so described as trustee, and in the event of the death of such person, the withdrawal value of such account, or any part thereof, together with dividends thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the account was thus stated to have been opened, and the institution shall have no further liability therefor.

Powers of attorney on savings accounts

Sec. 6.13. Any association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney-in-fact authorized in writing to manage or to make withdrawals either in whole or in part from the savings account of a member until it receives written notice or is on actual notice of the revocation of his authority. For the purposes of this Section, written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of such member shall constitute written notice of revocation of the authority of his attorney.

Savings accounts as legal investments

Sec. 6.14. Administrators, executors, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries of every kind and nature; counties, cities, towns and all other political subdivisions or instrumentalities of this State; insurance companies doing business in this State; business and nonprofit corporations; charitable or educational corporations or associations; banks, credit unions and all other financial institutions are hereby specifically authorized and empowered to invest funds held by them in savings accounts of any association operating under this law or any Federal association. Any such investments made by insurance companies shall be eligible for tax reducing purposes under Article 7064 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and any such investment by a school district of any of its funds in such savings accounts which are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation shall for all purposes be considered as meeting the requirements of Section 1, Acts 1953, Fifty-third Legislature, Regular Session, page 464, Chapter 150, as amended (Article 2786d, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), and Article 2832, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. If upon the effective date of this Act the shares and share accounts of associations operating under Article 881a of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, are legal investments for any particular business, organization, corporation, fiduciary or political subdivision, the savings accounts of associations subject to terms of this Act shall be deemed to be legal investments to the same extent as such shares and share accounts.

Withdrawals from savings accounts

Sec. 6.15. Any savings account holder may at any time present a written application for withdrawal of all or any part of his savings account except to the extent the same may be pledged to the association or to another person on the books of the association. The association may pay in full each and every withdrawal request as presented and without requiring that written application therefor be made or the association may elect to number, date and file in the order of actual receipt every withdrawal application and to pay such requests out of its net receipts. Not more than one half of the net receipts of the association in any month shall be applied to the payment of withdrawal applications unless the board of directors specifically authorizes the use of a greater portion of such receipts for such purpose. By the term "Net receipts" is meant the cash receipts of the association as loan repayments, interest and investments in savings accounts less disbursements for all expenses necessary and incidental to the operation of the association in carrying on its business. Whenever the net receipts so made applicable to withdrawal applications on file for a particular month are not sufficient to pay such applications in full, the applications on file shall be paid out of such net receipts on a pro-rata basis or, with the approval of the Commissioner, the board of directors may fix maximum amounts to be paid upon any one application during any one month and payments shall be made pro-rata out of such net receipts to all applications on file subject to such maximum payment limitation. No association can obligate itself to pay withdrawals on any plan other than that set forth above. While an application for withdrawal by a member remains in effect and unpaid, no withdrawal applications subsequently filed by the same member shall be paid and no loan shall be made secured by transfer or pledge of the account. A member filing a withdrawal application shall not become a creditor of the association by reason of such filing. Full payment may be made at any time to members whose entire interest in the association amounts to One Hundred Dollars ($100) or less. The Commissioner with the approval of the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission and the Governor of Texas may invoke a uniform limitation on the amounts withdrawable from savings accounts of associations subject to this Act during any period when such limitation is necessary in the public interest. The membership of a savings account holder who has filed an application for withdrawal shall remain unimpaired so long as any withdrawal value remains to his credit on the books of the association. An application for withdrawal may be cancelled in whole or in part at any time by a member.

Banks, limitation upon withdrawals, see art. 342-608.

Redemption of savings accounts

Sec. 6.16. At any time funds are on hand for the purpose an association shall have the right to redeem by lot or otherwise, as the board of directors may determine, all or any part of any of its savings accounts on a dividend date by giving thirty (30) days' notice by certified mail addressed to each affected account holder at his last address as recorded on the books of the association. No association shall redeem any of its savings accounts when the association is subject to receivership action under Section 8.16 hereof or when it has applications for withdrawal which have been on file for more than thirty (30) days and have not been reached for payment. The redemption price of savings accounts redeemed shall be the withdrawal value thereof. If the aforesaid notice of redemption shall have been duly given, and if on or before the redemption date the funds necessary for such redemption shall have been set aside so as to be and continue to be available therefor, dividends upon the accounts called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the dividend date specified as the redemption date, and all rights with respect to such accounts shall forthwith, after such redemption date, terminate, except only the right of the account holder of record to receive the redemption price.

Lien on savings accounts

Sec. 6.17. Every association operating under this law or any Federal association doing business in this State shall have a lien, without further agreement or pledge, upon all savings accounts owned by any member to whom or on whose behalf the association has made an advance of money by loan or otherwise and upon the default in the repayment or satisfaction thereof, the association may, without notice to or consent of the member, cancel on its books all or any part of the savings accounts owned by such member and apply the value of such accounts in payment on account of such obligation. An association may by written instrument waive its lien in whole or in part on any savings accounts. Any association may take the pledge of savings accounts of the association owned by a member other than the borrower as additional security for any loan secured by an account or by an account and real estate, or as additional security for any real estate loan.

Method of paying dividends on savings accounts

Sec. 6.18. Dividends shall be credited to savings accounts on the books of the association unless a savings account holder shall have requested and the association shall have agreed to pay dividends on such savings account in cash. Dividends payable in cash may be paid by check or bank draft.

CHAPTER SEVEN. COMPUTATION OF EARNINGS, TRANSFERS TO LOSS RESERVES, DIVIDENDS, SURPLUS

Computation of net income

Sec. 7.01. Each association shall close its books on the last business day of June and December of each year, and at such other times as its bylaws may provide, for the purpose of determining the gross income of the association for the period since the date of the last such closing of its books and from which shall be deducted the expenses of operating the association for such period, the balance remaining being the net income for the period.

Transfers to loss reserves

Sec. 7.02. If, at the date of any closing of its books, the loss reserves of an association equal an aggregate amount of less than five per cent (5%) of its savings liability, then an amount equal to at least five per cent (5%) of its net income, or so much thereof as may be necessary to increase its loss reserves to the above required amount, shall be transferred from the net income of the association to its loss reserves. In the event that any credit to the loss reserves of an association is made following the effective date of this Act in excess of the minimum five per cent (5%) requirement the dollar amount of such excess may be carried over as a credit toward the minimum requirement for any subsequent accounting period.

Dividends on savings accounts

Sec. 7.03. After providing for payment of the expenses of operation of the association and for the required minimum transfer to its loss reserves, the board of directors of the association may declare dividends on savings accounts. Dividends, when declared, shall be computed and paid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may from time to time be authorized by rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission of Texas. An association shall not be required to pay or credit a dividend of less than One Dollar ($1) on any account or any dividend on short-term accounts where the savings contract provides for closing the account within one (1) year and waives dividend participation.

Dividends on Permanent Reserve Fund Stock

Sec. 7.04. The balance of net income of the association, if any, may be credited to a surplus account, from which the board of directors of any association whose bylaws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock, and which has such stock outstanding, may, at their discretion, and at such times as they may determine, declare and pay dividends in cash or additional stock to the holders of record of such stock outstanding at the date such dividends are declared.

Use of surplus accounts and expense fund contributions

Sec. 7.05. Any association at any closing date may use all or any part of any surplus accounts, whether earned or paid-in, or any expense fund contributions on its books at such time to meet all or any part of the expenses of operating the association for the period just closed, required transfers to loss reserves, or the payment or credit of dividends declared on savings accounts.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION, BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING PRACTICES, STATEMENTS, REPORTS, AUDITS, EXAMINATIONS, VIOLATIONS, RECEIVERSHIPSupervision and regulation

Sec. 8.01. All associations subject to this Act shall be supervised and regulated and the provisions of this Act shall be enforced by the Savings and Loan Department of Texas and the Savings and Loan Commissioner, acting pursuant to the authority hereby delegated and the authority delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Regular Session of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, 1961.¹

Books and records

Sec. 8.02. Every association shall keep at its home office correct and complete books of account and minutes of the meetings of members and directors. Complete records of all business transacted at the home office shall be maintained at the home office. Records of business transacted at any branch or agency office may be kept at such branch or agency office; provided, that control records of all business transacted at any branch or agency office shall be kept at the home office.

Accounting practices

Sec. 8.03. Every association shall use such forms and observe such accounting principles and practices as the Commissioner may require from time to time.

Misdescription of assets

Sec. 8.04. No association by any system of account or any device of bookkeeping shall, either directly or indirectly, knowingly enter any of its assets upon its books in the name of any other person, partnership, association or corporation or under any title or designation that is not truly descriptive of such assets.

Charging off or setting up reserves against bad assets

Sec. 8.05. The Commissioner, after a determination of value, may order that assets in the aggregate, to the extent that such assets have depreciated in value, be charged off, or that a special reserve or reserves equal to such depreciation in value be set up by transfers from surplus.

Maintenance of membership records

Sec. 8.06. Every association shall maintain membership records, which shall show the name and address of the member, the status of the member as a savings account holder, a stockholder or an obligor, and the date of membership thereof.

Reproduction and destruction of records

Sec. 8.07. Any association may cause any or all records kept by such association to be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic, or microfilming process which correctly and permanently copies, reproduces or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film or other durable material, and such association may thereafter dispose of the original record. Any such copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. A facsimile, exemplification or certified copy shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification or certified copy of the original record.

Financial statement

Sec. 8.08. Every association shall prepare and publish annually in the month of January of each year in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the home office of such association is located, a statement of its financial condition in the form prescribed or approved by the Commissioner as of the last business day of December of the preceding year.

Annual reports, other reports

Sec. 8.09. On or before the last day of February in each year, every association shall make an annual written report to the Commissioner, upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner, of its affairs and operations, which shall include a complete statement of its financial condition, including a statement of income and expense since its last previous similar report, for the twelve (12) months ending on the last business day of December of the previous year. Every such report shall be signed by the president, vice president or secretary. Every association shall also make such other reports as the Commissioner may from time to time require, which reports shall be in such form and filed on such dates as he may prescribe and shall, if required by him, be signed in the same manner as the annual report.

Annual audit and examination

Sec. 8.10. The Commissioner shall, at least once each year, without previous notice, examine or cause an examination to be made into the affairs of every association subject to this Act. If an association is not audited at least once each year in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner, the examination of such association shall include an audit. Upon completion of any audit, two (2) copies of same, signed and certified by the auditor making such audit, shall be promptly filed with the Commissioner. The Commissioner, any deputy commissioner, or his examiners or auditors shall have free access to all books and records of an association which relate to its business and books and records kept by any officer, agent or employee relating to or upon which any record of its business is kept; and may summon witnesses and administer oaths or affirmations in examination of the directors, officers, agents, or employees of any such association, or any other person in relation to its affairs, transactions and condition, and may require and compel the production of records, books, papers, contracts or other documents by court order, if not voluntarily produced.

Joint examinations

Sec. 8.11. The Commissioner may examine or cause to be examined any association in conjunction with an examination by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, a Federal Home Loan Bank or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, and shall accept any audit made by or accepted by any of said agencies during the course of any examination of an association.

Extra or additional examinations

Sec. 8.12. Whenever, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the condition of any association renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra or additional examination or audit or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, the Commissioner shall cause such work to be done, and such association shall be charged with the cost of same. A full and complete copy of the report of all examinations and audits shall be promptly furnished to the association examined or audited. Every report of examination or audit shall be presented to the board of directors at their next regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for such purpose, and noted in the minutes thereof.

Commissioner shall order discontinuance of violations

Sec. 8.13. If the Commissioner, as a result of any examination or from any report made to him shall find that any association or any director, officer or employee of any association is violating the provisions of the charter or bylaws of the association, or the laws of this State, or the laws of the United States, or any lawful rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, he shall deliver a formal written order to the board of directors of the association in which the facts known to the Commissioner are set forth, demanding the discontinuance of such violation and conformance with all requirements of law. The association affected by such order may within ten (10) days after the same has been delivered to the association request a public hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, at which hearing any pertinent evidence relating to said order or the facts stated therein may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented and any matters of record in his office, shall either continue such order in effect, modify the same or set it aside.

Commissioner may remove directors, officers and employees participating in violations

Sec. 8.14. The Commissioner may require that any director, officer or employee of an association, who has participated in a violation as described in Section 8.13, be removed from the association if the action of the person or persons concerned was knowingly and willfully taken. Prior to entering an order of removal, the Commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the acts and conduct to which he objects to the board of directors of the association and the person or persons concerned and of his intention to enter a removal order. If a hearing on the matter is requested within ten (10) days after such delivery, the Commissioner shall hold a public hearing at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in such statement may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at such hearing, may proceed to enter an order for the immediate removal of the director, officer or employee affected, a reprimand of the individuals and association concerned or a dismissal of the entire matter. If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the Commissioner may proceed to enter an order of removal on the basis of the facts set forth in his original statement.

When order may be reviewed

Sec. 8.15. If a hearing has been held in regard to an order made under Sections 8.13 or 8.14 hereof and such order is continued either in its original form or a modified form, the same shall be final and reviewable when the Commissioner makes and enters in the record his decision after such hearing. If no hearing is requested on such an order the order shall be final and reviewable after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the date such order is entered by the Commissioner.

Receivership

Sec. 8.16. If, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the public interest requires it, he may apply to a district court of the county in which the home office of any association is located for the appointment of a receiver for such association. Such court shall appoint a receiver as applied for if it finds either (i) that such association's assets in the aggregate do not have a fair value equal to the total liabilities of the association to its creditors and to all holders of savings accounts or (ii) that the association is in violation of any final and binding order of the Commissioner and that such alleged violations cannot be otherwise corrected. All proceedings in regard to such applications shall be governed by the laws of this State applicable to receiverships generally. The Commissioner, or his deputy or a Savings and Loan Examiner may be appointed by the court as a receiver. The receiver, upon appointment by the court, shall immediately take charge of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the court, and proceed to conduct the business of the association or to take such steps as may be necessary to conserve the assets and protect the rights of the creditors of the association and its members as may be ordered by the court. The official who is appointed receiver shall receive no additional compensation for such service. If the association is an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, said corporation shall be tendered appointment as receiver or co-receiver. If it accepts such appointment, it may, nevertheless, make loans on the security of or purchase at public or private sale any part or all of the assets of the association of which it is receiver or co-receiver, provided such loan or purchase is approved by such court. The directors, officers and attorneys of an association in office at the time of the initiation of any proceeding under this Section are expressly authorized to contest any such proceedings and shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees by the association or from its assets, the amount of which shall be fixed by the court.

Communications from Commissioner

Sec. 8.17. Every approval or rejection by the Commissioner given pursuant to the provisions of this Act and every communication having the effect of an order or instruction to any association shall be sent by certified mail to the association affected thereby, addressed to the president thereof at the home office of the association, and shall be presented to the board of directors of such association at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose and noted in the minutes of such meeting.

CHAPTER NINE. FOREIGN ASSOCIATIONS

Limitation on right to do business as a savings and loan association

Sec. 9.01. From and after the effective date of this Act no person, firm, company, association, fiduciary, partnership or corporation by whatever name called shall do business as a savings and loan association within this State or maintain any office in this State for the purpose of doing such business except:

(1) associations organized under the laws of this State and subject to this Act;

(2) Federal associations as herein defined;

(3) savings and loan associations organized under the laws of another state of the United States which have held on the effective date of this Act certificates of authority issued pursuant to Section 61 of Senate Bill No. 111, Acts, 1929, Forty-first Legislature, Second Called Session, page 100, Chapter 61,¹ for not less than ten (10) consecutive years and have actually done business in this State continuously for such period; and

(4) to the extent any activity does not constitute transacting business in this State under Article 8.01B of the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Renewal of outstanding certificates

Sec. 9.02. Any savings and loan association organized under the laws of another state of the United States holding a certificate of authority to do business in this State on the effective date of this Act may renew such certificate from year to year thereafter by the payment of an annual renewal fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or Twenty Dollars ($20) for each million dollars or major fraction thereof of the total assets of such association, whichever is the greater, and by fulfilling all the prerequisites required by law at the time it secured its last renewal certificate prior to the effective date of this Act. Such association shall pay the same annual fees in lieu of examination charges paid by domestic associations under Section 11.06 of this Act, together with all traveling expenses of such examination; provided that if such examination fee is inadequate to defray all expenses of such examination, then such association shall pay the additional cost thereof. Examinations shall not be made more than once each year.

Contracts deemed made in this state

Sec. 9.03. Any contract made by any foreign association with any citizen of this State shall be deemed and considered a Texas contract and shall be construed by all the courts of this State according to the laws of this State.

Rights, privileges and obligations of foreign associations with certificates of authority

Sec. 9.04. Any foreign association operating under a certificate of authority as herein provided, during the time such certificate is in force, shall have all of the rights and privileges of associations created under this Act and its savings accounts shall be eligible for investment to the same extent as that of a domestic association; likewise, all provisions of this Act and all rules and regulations made pursuant thereto shall be applicable to such foreign associations.

Power of Commissioner to revoke certificate

Sec. 9.05. The Commissioner may issue discontinuance orders against a foreign association in the same manner as against domestic associations as set forth in Section 8.13 hereof, and upon the failure or refusal of a foreign association to comply with a final order of the Commissioner he shall revoke the certificate of authority held by such association and it will be unlawful thereafter for any agent of such association to transact any business in this State, except to receive payments to apply on loan contracts then in effect, and to pay withdrawal requests.

Federal savings and loan associations

Sec. 9.06. Federal associations are not foreign corporations or associations. Unless Federal laws or regulations provide otherwise, Federal associations and the members thereof shall possess all of the rights, powers, privileges, benefits, immunities and exemptions that are herein provided or that may hereafter be provided by the laws of this State for associations subject to this Act or the members thereof. This provision is additional and supplemental to any provision which, by specific reference, is applicable to Federal associations and the members thereof.

CHAPTER TEN. CONVERSION, REORGANIZATION, MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION, VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Conversion into Federal associations

Sec. 10.01. Any association subject to this Act may convert itself into a Federal association in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as now or hereafter amended,¹ upon a majority vote of the members at any annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. A copy of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of the members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner within ten (10) days after the date of such meeting. A sworn copy of the proceedings of such meeting, when so filed, shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. Within three (3) months after the date of such meeting, the association shall take such action in the manner prescribed and authorized by the laws of the United States as shall make it a Federal association. There shall be filed with the Commissioner a copy of the charter issued to such Federal association by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. No failure to file any such instruments with the Commissioner shall affect the validity of such conversion. Upon the grant of any association of a charter by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the association receiving such charter shall cease to be an association incorporated under this Act and shall no longer be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner. Upon the conversion of any association into a Federal association, the corporate existence of such association shall not terminate, but such Federal association shall be deemed to be a continuation of the entity of the association so converted and all property of the converted association, including its rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal, or mixed, and things in action, and every right, privilege, interest, and asset of any conceivable value or benefit then existing, or pertaining to it, or which would inure to it, shall immediately by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer and without any further act or deed remain and be vested in and continue and be the property of such Federal association into which the state association has converted itself, and such Federal association shall have, hold and enjoy the same in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the same was possessed, held, and enjoyed by the converting association, and such Federal association as of the time of the taking effect of such conversion shall continue to have and succeed to all the rights, obligations, and relations of the converting association. All pending actions and other judicial proceedings to which the converting state association is a party shall not be deemed to have abated or to have discontinued by reason of such conversion, but may be prosecuted to final judgment, order, or decree in the same manner as if such conversion into Federal association had not been made and such Federal association resulting from such conversion may continue such action in its corporate name as a Federal association, and any judgment, order, or decree may be rendered for or against it which might have been rendered for or against the converting state association theretofore involved in such judicial proceedings. Any association or corporation, which has heretofore converted itself into a Federal association under the provisions of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 and has received a charter from the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, shall hereafter be recognized as a Federal association, and its Federal charter shall be given full credence by the courts of this State to the same extent as if such conversion had taken place under the provisions of this Section; provided, however, that there shall have been compliance with the foregoing requirements with respect to the filing with the Commissioner of a copy of the Federal charter or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal association. All such conversions are hereby ratified and confirmed, and all the obligations of such an association which has so converted shall continue as valid and subsisting obligations of such Federal association, and the title to all of the property of such an association shall be deemed to have continued and vested, as of the date of issuance of such Federal charter, in such Federal association as fully and completely as if such conversion had taken place since the enactment of this Act pursuant to this Section.

Conversion into state chartered association

Sec. 10.02. Any Federal association may convert itself into an association under this Act upon a majority vote of the members of such Federal association cast at an annual meeting or any special meeting called to consider such action. Copies of the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting of members, verified by affidavit of the secretary or an assistant secretary, shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner and mailed to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Washington, D.C., within ten (10) days after such meeting. Such verified copies of the proceedings of the meeting when so filed shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and action of such meeting. At the meeting at which conversion is voted upon, the members shall also vote upon the directors who shall be the directors of the state-chartered association after conversion takes effect. Such directors then shall execute two (2) copies of the application for certificate of incorporation provided in this Act. The Commissioner shall, upon receipt of such application, cause the association to be examined and if he finds that it is in sound condition, approve the conversion and insert in the certificate of incorporation, at the end of the paragraph preceding the testimonium clause, the following: "This association is incorporated by conversion from a Federal savings and loan association." Each of the directors chosen for the association shall sign and acknowledge the application for certificate of incorporation as subscribers thereto and the proposed bylaws as incorporators of the association. The provisions of this Act shall, so far as applicable, apply to such conversion. The state-chartered association shall be a continuation of the corporate entity of the converting Federal association and continue to have all of its property and rights.

Reorganization, merger and consolidation

Sec. 10.03. Pursuant to a plan adopted by the board of directors and approved by the Commissioner as equitable to the members of the association and as not impairing the usefulness and success of other properly conducted associations in the same vicinity, an association shall have power to reorganize or to merge or consolidate with another association or Federal association within its vicinity; provided, that the plan of such reorganization, merger or consolidation shall be approved by a majority of the total vote the members are entitled to cast. Approval may be voted at either an annual meeting or at a special meeting called to consider such action. In all cases the corporate continuity of the resulting corporation shall possess the same incidents as that of an association which has converted in accordance with this Act.

Voluntary liquidation

Sec. 10.04. At any annual meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, any association may by majority vote of its members resolve to liquidate and dissolve the association; provided, that before such resolution shall take effect, a copy thereof certified to by the president and the secretary of the association, together with an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities sworn to by a majority of its board of directors, shall be filed with and approved by the Commissioner. When the Commissioner shall have approved such resolution it shall thereafter be unlawful for such association to accept any additional savings accounts or additions to savings accounts or to make any additional loans, but all its income and receipts in excess of actual expenses of liquidation of the association shall be applied to the discharge of its liabilities. The board of directors of the association, under the supervision of the Commissioner and in accordance with a plan of liquidation approved by him, shall thereupon proceed to liquidate the affairs of the association and reduce the assets thereof to cash for the purpose of paying, satisfying and discharging all existing liabilities and obligations of the association, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, the balance remaining, if any there be, to be distributed pro-rata among the savings account members of record on the date of adoption by the association of the resolution to liquidate; provided, however, that if the association be one whose bylaws provide for the issuance of Permanent Reserve Fund Stock and such association has issued and has outstanding such stock, then any such balance remaining after all liabilities and obligations have been fully paid and satisfied, including the withdrawal value of all savings accounts, shall be distributed among the holders of such stock in proportion to their stockholding. All expenses incurred by the Commissioner or any of his representatives during the course of any such liquidation shall be paid from the assets of the association. Upon completion of liquidation, the board of directors shall file with the Commissioner a final report and accounting of such liquidation. The approval of such report by the Commissioner shall operate as a complete and final discharge of the board of directors and each member in connection with the liquidation of such association.

Banks, liquidation, see art. 342—801 et seq.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from securities laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings associations, the officers, employees or agents, savings accounts and the permanent reserve stock thereof, and the sale, issuance or offering of savings accounts and permanent reserve fund stock of any association or Federal savings and loan association are hereby exempted from all provisions of law of this State, other than this Act, which provide for supervision, registration or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance or offering of securities, and the sale, issuance or offering of any such accounts or stock shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official, other than the Commissioner, authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance or offering of securities.

Acknowledgments by members and employees

Sec. 11.02. No public officer qualified to take acknowledgments or proofs of written instruments shall be disqualified from taking the acknowledgments or proofs of any instrument in writing in which an association or Federal association is interested by reason of his membership in or stockholding in or employment by such an institution so interested, and any such acknowledgments or proofs heretofore taken are hereby validated.

Closing places of business

Sec. 11.03. All associations and Federal savings and loan associations operating in this State are hereby authorized and permitted to close their respective places of business at any time the board of directors of such institution shall so determine.

Right to act to avoid loss

Sec. 11.04. Nothing in this Act or the statute law of this State shall be construed as denying to an association the right to invest its funds, operate a business, manage or deal in property, or take any other action over whatever period of time may reasonably be necessary to avoid loss on a loan or investment theretofore made or an obligation created in good faith.

Fees

Sec. 11.05. The amount of the fees to be charged by the Commissioner for supervision and examination of associations, filing of applications and other documents and for other services performed by the Commissioner and his office and the time and manner of payment thereof shall be fixed by rule and regulation adopted by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission, acting pursuant to the rule-making power delegated by House Bill No. 91, Chapter 198, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961.¹ All fees collected by the Commissioner shall be retained by him and expended only for the expenses of the Savings and Loan Department.

All associations authorized to conduct a savings and loan business shall conform to this Act

Sec. 11.06. Any association or corporation authorized to conduct a building and loan association, savings and loan association, building society or other similar business under prior law by whatever name known which has substantially the same purpose as a savings and loan association as defined by this Act shall, at the time this Act becomes effective, be subject to the provisions of this Act and shall thereafter be deemed to exist by virtue of this Act. The name, rights, powers, privileges, and immunities of each such association or corporation shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited and determined by the provisions of this Act to the same extent and effect as if such corporation had been incorporated pursuant hereto, and the Articles of association, certificate of incorporation, or charter, however entitled, bylaws and constitutions, or other rules of every such corporation heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered and amended to conform to the provisions of this Act, with or without the issuance or approval by the Commissioner of conformed copies of such documents, and the same are declared void to the extent that the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; except that (i) the obligations of any such existing corporation, whether between such corporation and its members, or any of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the members of such corporation, or between such corporation and any other person or persons, existing at the time this Act takes effect shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of this Act and (ii) no association shall be required to change its name, and, with such exceptions, every such corporation shall possess the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and shall be subject to the duties, liabilities, disabilities and restrictions conferred and imposed by this Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its certificate of incorporation, bylaws, constitution, or rules. All obligations of any such corporation heretofore contracted shall be enforceable by it and in its name, and demands, claims, and rights of action against any such corporation may be enforced against it as fully and completely as they might have been enforced heretofore.

Outstanding shares, stock, share accounts and investment certificates (except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) to be considered as savings accounts

Sec. 11.07. From and after the effective date of this Act any shares, stock, share accounts and investment certificates (except Permanent Reserve Fund Stock) which an association subject to this Act has issued and which is then outstanding shall be considered as savings accounts as defined in this Act and the holders thereof shall have all of the rights and privileges appertaining to the holder of savings accounts under this Act as well as any valid contractual or other legal rights in respect thereto preserved by Section 11.06 of this Act; except that any such outstanding shares or share accounts which are not entitled to dividends shall not by virtue of any provision of this Act become so entitled.

Associations prohibited from issuing any stock or shares not authorized by this Act

Sec. 11.08. No association subject to this Act shall, after the effective date of this Act, issue any form of stock, share, account or investment certificate except as permitted by this Act for associations formed under its terms.

Ad valorem taxation of the property of an association

Sec. 11.09. Each association subject to this Act and all Federal associations domiciled in this State shall render for ad valorem taxation all of its real estate as other real estate is rendered. The personal property of each such association shall be valued as other personal property is valued for assessment in this State, and shall be rendered by such association to the appropriate assessing unit or units in the following manner:

(1) its furniture, fixtures, equipment and automobiles shall be rendered where such property is located in the same manner as other similar property;

(2) the remainder of the personal property of such association shall be rendered as a whole in the city and county where its principal office is located at the value remaining after deducting from the total value of such association's entire assets the following:

- (a) all debts of every kind and character owed by such association;
- (b) all tax free securities owned by such association;
- (c) the loss reserves and surplus of the association;
- (d) the savings liability of the association;
- (e) the assessed value of its furniture, fixtures and real estate.

Initiation of rule-making by associations

Sec. 11.10. When as many as twenty per cent (20%) of the associations subject to this Act petition the Commissioner in writing requesting the promulgation, amendment or repeal of a rule or regulation the Commissioner shall initiate rule-making proceedings under Section (e) of Article 5, Sub-Chapter II, Chapter 97, Acts of the Forty-eighth Legislature, as amended by House Bill No. 91, Acts 1961, Fifty-seventh Legislature, Chapter 198.¹

Hearing procedure

Sec. 11.11. (1) Notice of any hearing held pursuant to orders issued under Sections 8.13 and 8.14 shall be given to all parties affected by such orders. Notice of all other hearings held under any provision of this Act shall be given to all associations and Federal associations in the county where the subject matter of the hearing is or will be situated.

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded any interested party to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved in any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(3) Upon the written request of any interested party the Commissioner shall keep a formal record of the proceedings of any hearing held under any provision of this Act.

(4) A decision or order adverse to a party who has appeared and participated in a hearing shall be in writing and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated, on all issues material to the decision reached. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings.

(5) A decision or order entered after hearing shall be final and appealable fifteen (15) days after the day the same is entered unless a motion for rehearing is filed by a party within such time and if the motion for rehearing is overruled such decision or order shall be final and appealable from and after the date the order overruling such motion is entered.

(6) Parties to a hearing shall be promptly notified either personally or by mail of any decision, order or other action taken in respect to the subject matter of the hearing.

Judicial review

Sec. 11.12. Any party with an interest in the subject matter thereof who is dissatisfied with any act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner taken or made, or with any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission in connection with the administration of this Act, may secure judicial review thereof in the following manner:

(1) Venue.

(a) Proceedings for review of a removal order entered pursuant to Section 8.14 of this Act, may be instituted by filing a petition as in civil actions generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, either in a district court of Travis County, or in the district court of the county in which any person affected by such order resides or of the county in which the principal office of the association affected by such order is located.

(b) Proceedings for review of other acts, orders, rulings or decisions of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner and the Building and Loan Section of the Finance Commission may be instituted by filing a petition as in a civil action generally against the Commissioner, as defendant, in a district court of Travis County and not elsewhere.

(2) Time for Filing. Any petition for judicial review must be filed within thirty (30) days after the action, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner is final or the rule or regulation complained of is promulgated.

(3) Stay of Enforcement. The filing of a petition for review shall not itself stay the effect of the act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of, but the Commissioner or the reviewing court may order a stay upon appropriate terms and if a stay is so granted no supersedeas bond shall be required.

(4) Service of Process. The petition for review shall be served on the Commissioner and upon all parties of record in any hearing before the Commissioner in respect to the matter for which review is sought or upon the Commissioner alone if the matter for which review is sought is a rule or regulation promulgated in connection with the administration of this Act. After service of such petition upon the Commissioner and within the time permitted for filing an answer, the Commissioner shall certify to the District Court in which such petition is filed the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers. The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the Commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the cost in the case, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of said cause.

(5) Trial.

(a) The review of an order issued under Section 8.14 of this Act shall be tried in the same manner as civil actions generally and the complaining party shall be entitled to a jury. The trial shall be governed by the rules of civil procedure and all fact issues material to the validity of such order shall be determined de novo on the preponderance of the evidence and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply. Any relevant and competent evidence shall be admissible for or against the order.

(b) The review of any other act, order, ruling or decision of the Commissioner or of any rule or regulation shall be tried by the court without a jury in the same manner as civil actions generally and all fact issues material to the validity of the Act, order, ruling, decision or rule or regulation complained of shall be redetermined in such trial on the preponderance of the competent evidence, but no evidence shall be admissible which was not adduced at the hearing on the matter before the Commissioner or officially noticed in the record of such hearing.

(6) Burden of Proof and Judgment. The burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. The reviewing court may affirm the action complained of or remand the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings.

(7) Appeals. Appeals from any final judgment may be taken by either party in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond shall be required of the Commissioner.

Slander

Sec. 11.13. Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate or transmit to another, or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any association subject to this Act or any Federal association in this State, with intent to injure any such financial institution, or who shall counsel, aid, procure or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) or by imprisonment in the State penitentiary for a period not exceeding two (2) years or both by such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for embezzlement, etc.

Sec. 11.14. Every officer, director, member of any committee, clerk or agent of any association subject to this Act or any Federal association in this State who embezzles, abstracts or misapplies any of the moneys, funds or credits of such association, who issues or puts into circulation any warrant or other orders without proper authority, who issues, assigns, transfers, cancels or delivers up any note, bond, draft, mortgage, judgment, decree or any other written instrument belonging to such association, who certifies to or makes a false entry in any book, report or statement of or to such association, with intent in either case to deceive, injure or defraud such association, or any member thereof, or for the purpose of inducing any person to become a member thereof, or to deceive anyone appointed to examine the affairs of such association shall be deemed guilty of a felony and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than ten (10) years. Whoever, with intent to deceive, injure or defraud aids or abets any officer, member of any committee or other person in committing any of the prohibited acts enumerated herein shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than ten (10) years.

Penalty for declaring greater dividends than earned

Sec. 11.15. Any member of the board of directors of an association subject to this Act who knowingly votes to declare or, being secretary or manager thereof, who wilfully declares or advises the board of directors thereof to declare a greater dividend than has actually been earned, or has been previously accumulated as surplus by such association, shall personally refund same and be liable to the corporation therefor jointly and severally.

Penalty for failing to comply with law

Sec. 11.16. Any association violating the provisions of this law or failing to comply with the provisions of this law or any valid rules or regulations made thereunder may be required by the Commissioner to pay from Five Dollars ($5) per day to Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day to the Commissioner for each day it so fails after lawful notice of the delinquency by the Commissioner. The Attorney General is authorized to file suit for the collection of such penalty upon certification by the Commissioner of the failure or refusal of such association to remit the penalty assessed by him.

Penalty for suppressing evidence

Sec. 11.17. Every officer, director, employee or agent of any association subject to this Act who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or suppressing any evidence against himself or against any other person, abstracts, removes, mutilates, destroys or secretes any paper, book or record of any association or of the Commissioner, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction therefor, shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years.

Disclosure of examiners—penalty

Sec. 11.18. The Commissioner and any examiner, inspector, deputy, assistant or clerk, appointed or acting under the provisions of this Act, failing to keep secret any facts or information regarding an association obtained in the course of an examination or by reason of his official position, except when the public duty of such officer required him to report upon or take official action regarding the affairs of the association so examined, or who wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of such association, shall be removed from his position or office and shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Reports of examinations made to the Commissioner shall be regarded as confidential and not for public record or inspection, except that for good reason same may be made public by the Commissioner, but copies thereof may, upon request of the association, be furnished to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and/or to the Federal Home Loan Bank for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act.¹ Nothing herein shall prevent the proper exchange of information relating to associations and the business thereof with the representatives of savings and loan departments of other states, but in no case shall the private business or affairs of any individual association be disclosed. Any official violating any provision of this Section, in addition to the penalties herein provided, shall be liable, with his bondsmen, to the person or corporation injured by the disclosure of such secrets. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to any facts or information or to any reports of investigations obtained or made by the Commissioner or his staff in connection with any applications for a charter under this Act or in connection with any hearing held by the Commissioner under this Act and any such facts, information or reports may be included in the record of the appropriate hearing. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 269, ch. 113, § 1.

Effective January 1, 1964.

Sections 2 to 5 of Laws 1963, 58th Leg., p. 269, ch. 113, read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Repeal of Conflicting Laws.

"(a) In connection with the general purpose of this Act the following Statutes and Acts, together with all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed:

"(1) Articles 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881 of Title 24, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas;¹⁹ Articles 1134, 1135, 1136, Penal Code of Texas, and all amendments to said Articles.²⁰

"(2) Acts 1929, Forty-first Legislature, Second Called Session, page 100, Chapter 61, as amended Acts 1930, Forty-first Legislature, Fifth Called Session, page 193, Chapter 51; Acts 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 53, Chapter 36; Acts 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 320, Chapter 191; Acts 1931, Forty-second Legislature, page 331, Chapter 198; Acts 1932, Forty-second Legislature, Third Called Session, page 34, Chapter 18; Acts 1932, Forty-second Legislature, Third Called Session, page 32, Chapter 17; Acts 1935, Forty-fourth Legislature, page 159, Chapter 68; Acts 1939, Forty-sixth Legislature, Title: Building and Loan Associations, page 74, Chapter 1, page 76, Chapter 2, page 87, Chapter 3; Acts 1941, Forty-seventh Legislature, page 346, Chapter 188; Acts 1943, Forty-eighth Legislature, page 482, Chapter 323; Acts 1945, Forty-ninth Legislature, page 28, Chapter 18; Acts 1947, Fiftieth Legislature, page 348, Chapter 196; Acts 1947, Fiftieth Legislature, page 488, Chapter 285; Acts 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 486, Chapter 263; Acts 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 696, Chapter 363; Acts 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 966, Chapter 534; Acts 1951, Fifty-second Legislature, page 204, Chapter 119; Acts

"(3) Acts 1949, Fifty-first Legislature, page 601, Chapter 319 (Article 881b, Vernon's Civil Statutes of Texas).

"(b) The repeal of a prior act by this Act shall not impair or otherwise affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such act prior to the repeal thereof.

"Sec. 3. Severability. If any part, Section, Subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word contained in this Act shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

"Sec. 4. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 1964.

"Sec. 5. Emergency. The fact that the present laws relating to savings and loan associations are in many respects inadequate, containing in many instances overlapping, ambiguous, inconsistent and obsolete provisions and seriously impairing the efficient operation of such associations and their ability to serve the public needs in home financing creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity, demanding that the Constitutional Rule requiring all bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended and such Rule is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect and be in full force from and after the date specified in Section 4 hereof and it is so enacted."

Sale of checks, exemption of savings and loan association from license, see art. 489d, § 4.

TITLE 25—CARRIERS

Art. 911b. Motor carriers and regulation by Railroad Commission—
Definitions

Definitions

Section 1.

(j) The term transporting property for compensation or hire shall include the furnishing during the same period of time of equipment and drivers to persons, firms, copartnerships, associations or joint-stock associations other than common carriers, contract carriers, or specialized motor carriers for use in their carrier operations, whether the equipment and drivers are furnished by the same or separate person, firm, copartnership, association or joint-stock association, and their lessees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever owning, controlling, managing, operating or causing to be operated any motor-propelled vehicle. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1316, ch. 502, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Hire transportation of oil field equipment

Sec. 1c. The terms "Motor Carrier" and "Specialized Motor Carrier," as used in Section 1 of this Act, shall apply to and include all for hire transportation of oil field equipment, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 1 of this Act, over the public highways of this State outside the corporate limits of cities or towns, irrespective of whether in the course of such transportation a highway between two (2) or more incorporated cities, towns or villages is traversed.

The provisions of this Section 1c shall not apply to or include vehicles used exclusively in the stringing of pipe for pipelines, nor shall this Section 1c apply to or include the transportation of water, drilling mud, petroleum and petroleum products in bulk, in tank trucks, when such substances are used in connection with the servicing of oil and gas wells, unless in the course of such transportation a highway between two (2) or more incorporated cities, towns or villages is traversed.

Nothing in this Section 1c shall in anywise repeal, alter, amend or affect any of the provisions of Chapter 290, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-seventh Legislature (being Sections 1a and 1b of this Act and now codified as Sections 1a and 1b of Article 911b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 929, ch. 359, § 1.

Wrecker type vehicles

Sec. 1¼. The term "Specialized Motor Carrier" and "Specialized Equipment" shall not include wrecker type vehicles used incidental to or as an adjunct to the carrying on of the primary business of buying, selling, exchanging, repairing, storing, servicing or wrecking motor vehicles. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 28, ch. 21, § 1.

Effective 90 days after date of adjournment.

Effective 90 days after May, 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1955 repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws to the extent of such conflict. Section 3 provided that partial invalidity should not affect the remaining portions of the Act.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1957 repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws to extent of such conflict. Section 3 was a severability clause.

Abolition of motor carrier fund and creation of railroad commission operating fund, see art. 6519b.

Abolition of motor carrier fund and creation of railroad commission operating fund, see art. 6519b.

TITLE 26—CEMETERIES

Art. 912a—3. Receipt and disbursement of filing fees, examination fees, penalties and revenues

At the time of the filing of the statement of its perpetual care fund each cemetery filing same which serves a city the population of which is twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants or less according to the last preceding Federal Census shall pay to the Banking Commissioner of Texas each year a filing fee of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00), and each cemetery filing same which serves a city the population of which is greater than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census shall pay to the Banking Commissioner of Texas each year a filing fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). Filing fees, examination fees, penalties and other revenues collected under this Act shall be received and disbursed by the Banking Department of Texas as provided by and in accordance with Article 12 of Chapter I, the Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended, in the administration and enforcement of the laws relating to the operation of perpetual care cemeteries and to the creation, investment, and expenditure of cemetery perpetual care funds and for investigations either on its own initiative or on complaints made by others with reference to the operation of perpetual care cemeteries and the creation, investment, and expenditure of cemetery perpetual care funds; provided, that a reasonable part of the amount transferred each year of the biennium by the Banking Department to the General Revenue Fund, to cover the cost of governmental service rendered by other departments, may be made up from fees, penalties and other revenues collected under the provision of this Act. As amended Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 574, ch. 190, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1298, ch. 495, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1298, ch. 495, which amended articles 912a—3, 912a—5, 912a—15 and 912a—31, provided in section 5 of the act that nothing in the act should be construed to relieve any cemetery association from any obligation imposed on it under the laws of Texas to deposit in its perpetual care fund any amount with respect to a sale by it of burial space prior to July 1, 1963, nor to relieve any cemetery association from any obligation imposed on it under the laws of Texas to pay to the Banking Commissioner part or all of the cost of any examination made prior to Aug. 23, 1963, the effective date of the act.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1955 was a severability clause.

Prepaid funeral services or merchandise, see art. 548b.

Art. 912a—5. Authority to corporations

Corporations may hereafter be formed only under this Act for the purpose of establishing, managing, maintaining, improving, and/or operating public or private cemeteries and conducting any one or more or all of the businesses of a public or private cemetery, including the selling of lots or parts of lots for burial purposes. Such corporations shall be formed either as non-profit corporations organized by cemetery lot owners, or in the manner as now provided under Section A or Section B, Article 1396—3.01, Texas Non-Profit Corporations Act, or as private corporations to be operated for profit, but not as both. The charter of each such corporation hereafter formed shall specifically state whether such corporation is to be a non-profit corporation, or whether such corporation is to be a private corporation to be operated for profit. The charter of each such corporation shall also specifically state whether the same is to operate a perpetual care or a non-perpetual care cemetery.

Corporations heretofore formed to maintain and operate cemeteries under statutory authority other than this Act, shall hereafter be governed by and shall be under the provisions of this Act, except where and only to the extent the charter or articles of incorporation of such associations or corporations conflict with this Act. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any corporation, copartnership, firm, trust, association, or individual to engage in or transact any of the businesses of a cemetery within this state except by means of a corporation duly organized for such purposes; provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any corporation heretofore chartered by the State of Texas to operate a cemetery, which under its charter, bylaws, or its dedication has heretofore provided for the creation of a perpetual care fund, and is maintaining the same in accordance with its trust agreement and the provision of this Act, and any such corporation may continue to operate a perpetual care cemetery in the same manner as if it had been incorporated under this Section without the necessity of amending its corporate charter, and provided further that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any family, fraternal, or community cemetery not exceeding ten (10) acres in area, or any association of cemetery lot owners not operated for profit, or any religious corporation, church, religious society, denomination, corporation solely administering the temporalities of any religious denomination, society or church, now existing or hereafter organized, or any public cemetery belonging to the state, or any county, city or town within the state. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1298, ch. 495, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Obligation of cemetery associations to deposit in perpetual care funds amounts with respect to sales of burial space prior to July 1, 1963, and to pay banking commissioner costs of examinations made prior to August 23, 1963, see note under article 912a—3.

Art. 912a—15. Establishment and maintenance of perpetual care

Every cemetery association which has established and is now maintaining, operating or conducting a perpetual care cemetery and every association which shall hereafter establish, maintain, operate or conduct a perpetual care cemetery within this state, pursuant to this Act,¹ shall establish with a trust company or a bank with trust powers, no two (2) of the directors of which shall be directors of the cemetery association for the benefit of which such fund is established, an endowment fund of which the income only can be used for the general perpetual care of its cemetery and to place its cemetery under perpetual care; provided, however, that if there is no such trust company or bank with trust powers, qualified and willing to accept such trust funds at the regular fees established by the Texas Trust Act,² located within the county within which such cemetery association is located, then and only then, such endowment fund may be established with a Board of Trustees composed of three (3) or more persons, no two (2) of the trustees of which shall be directors of such cemetery association. The principal of such fund for perpetual care shall never be voluntarily reduced, but shall remain inviolable and shall forever be maintained separate and distinct by the trustee or trustees from all other funds. Any such trustee or trustees and the perpetual care trust operated by them shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the Texas Trust Act. The principal of such fund shall be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested as required by law for the investment of such funds, and the net income arising therefrom shall be used solely for the general care and maintenance of the property entitled to perpetual care in the cemetery for which the fund is established, and shall be applied in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be for the best interest of the cemetery for which such fund is established, but shall never be used for improvement or embellishment of unsold property to be offered for sale. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to generally care for and maintain that portion of the cemetery entitled to perpetual care, as hereinbefore provided, any five (5) or more lot owners in said cemetery whose lots are entitled to perpetual care shall have the right by suit for mandatory injunction or for a Receiver to take charge of and expend said net income, filed in the District Court of the county in which the cemetery is located, to compel the expenditure either by the Board of Directors or by such Receiver of the net income from the perpetual care fund for the purpose hereinabove set forth.

If a cemetery association is operating a cemetery without provision for perpetual care, and if it is authorized by law and wishes to operate said cemetery as a perpetual care cemetery, it shall so notify the Banking Commission of the State of Texas and shall, in accordance with the foregoing provisions hereof, establish a perpetual care fund equal to the amount which would have theretofore have been paid into such a fund, in accordance with provisions of this Act, if such cemetery had been operated as a perpetual care cemetery from and after the date of the first sale of burial space therein, or the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act,³ whichever is the greater. If the amount of the perpetual care fund so established is the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, such cemetery association or corporation shall be entitled to a credit against amounts hereafter required by the provisions of this Act to be paid by it unto such perpetual care fund equal to the excess of the amount of such perpetual care fund, as originally established by it, over what would have been the amount thereof if its amount had been determined without regard to Section 29 of this Act.

In establishing its perpetual care trust fund the association may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance and embellishment of its cemetery.

A cemetery association which has established a perpetual care fund may also take, receive, and hold therefor and as a part thereof or as an incident thereto any property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given or otherwise contributed to it therefor.

The perpetual care trust fund authorized by this Section and all sums paid therein or contributed thereto are, and each thereof is hereby, expressly permitted and shall be and be deemed to be for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such perpetual care shall be deemed to be a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person or persons contributing thereto to the persons interred and to be interred in the cemetery and likewise a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming places of disorder, reproach, and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. No payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for such general perpetual care shall be or be deemed to be invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating said trust, nor shall said fund or any contribution thereto be or be deemed to be invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to such amount as may have been stipulated in any contract under which perpetual care property was sold prior to March 15, 1934, plus a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until such fund reaches a minimum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), after which each such cemetery shall deposit an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until September 3, 1945. Each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after September 3, 1945, until July 1, 1963. A minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property and a minimum of Five Dollars ($5.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between March 15, 1934, and July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. From and after July 1, 1963, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of fifty cents (50¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after said date. A minimum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. Such minimum requirements shall apply to all property in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been sold and paid for, whether used for interment purposes or not.

After July 1, 1963, each agreement for the sale of burial space in a perpetual care cemetery shall set out separately the part of the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser which is to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. If the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser is payable in installments, all amounts paid thereon shall be applied, first, to the part thereof not required to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund, to the extent thereof, and the remainder shall, when received by the seller, be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. Any funds required to be deposited in its perpetual care trust fund by a seller of burial space shall be so deposited not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar month during which they are received. If the seller shall fail to so deposit such funds within the time required hereunder, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a penalty the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day for the period of such failure, and, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner of the refusal of the seller to pay to the Banking Commissioner such penalty, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover said penalty and for costs and such other relief by the state as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary. No cemetery shall hereafter operate as a perpetual care, permanent maintenance, or free care cemetery until the provisions hereof are complied with.

The amount to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund shall be separately shown on the original purchase agreement and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the purchaser. In the sale of burial space, no commission shall be paid a broker or salesman on the amount to be deposited in the fund.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of the State of Texas or any provision in a trust agreement executed for the purpose of providing perpetual care for a cemetery, such trust agreement may, by agreement entered into between the cemetery association and the trustee or trustees acting under such trust agreement, be amended so as to include any provision which is not inconsistent with any provision in this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1298, ch. 495, § 3.

Art. 966d—1. Validation of incorporation; incorrect description; excessive area; elections

Section 1. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village, incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as he finds such boundaries to exist at the time of entering such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 2. Any city, town or village declared to be incorporated by an order as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act is hereby validated and declared to be a duly incorporated city with the boundaries as defined in such order, and the act of the governing body thereof in accepting the provisions of Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes, as amended, relating to cities and towns is hereby validated and the officials named in such order are hereby declared to have been the mayor, aldermen and city secretary of such city at the time of the entry of said order, and all elections held for the election of city officials are hereby validated and ratified.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not apply to any municipality which is now involved in litigation in any district court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, in which litigation the validity of the organization, incorporation or creation of such municipality is attacked. Provided further, that this Act shall not apply to any municipality which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 151, ch. 51, §§ 1-3.

Art. 970a. Municipal Annexation ActShort title

Section 1. This Act is known and may be cited as the "Municipal Annexation Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Article, the following words shall have the meanings ascribed to them:

A. "City" or "Cities" means any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

B. "Voters" means those persons qualified to vote under the laws of the State of Texas.

C. "Written consent" means consent expressed by an ordinance or resolution.

Establishing extraterritorial jurisdiction

Sec. 3. A. In order to promote and protect the general health, safety, and welfare of persons residing within and adjacent to the cities of this State, the Legislature of the State of Texas declares it to be the policy of the State of Texas that the unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, which is contiguous to the corporate limits of any city, to the extent described herein, shall comprise and be known as the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the various population classes of cities in the State and shall be as follows:

(1) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile of the corporate limits of such city.

(2) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more inhabitants, but less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within one (1) mile of the corporate limits of such city.

(3) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of twenty-five thousand (25,000) or more inhabitants, but less than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within two (2) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

(4) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of fifty thousand (50,000) or more inhabitants, but less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within three and one half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

(5) The extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants shall consist of all the contiguous unincorporated area, not a part of any other city, within five (5) miles of the corporate limits of such city.

B. In the event that on the effective date of this Act the area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city overlaps an area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of one or more other cities, such overlapped area may be apportioned by mutual agreement of the governing bodies of the cities concerned. Such agreement shall be in writing and shall be approved by an ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing bodies.

At any time after one hundred and eighty (180) days from the effective date of this Act, any city having an extraterritorial claim to such overlapping area shall have authority to file a plaintiff's petition in the district court of a judicial district, within which is located the largest city having an extraterritorial claim to such overlapped area, naming as parties defendant all cities having a claim to such overlapped area and praying that such overlapped area, to which it has mutual claim, be apportioned among the cities concerned. In effecting such apportionment, the district court shall consider the population densities and patterns of growth, transportation, topography, and land utilization in the cities concerned and in the overlapped area. The territory so apportioned to a city shall be contiguous to the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city. In the event the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city is totally overlapped, the territory so apportioned to such city shall be contiguous to the corporate boundaries of such city. Such territory so apportioned shall be in a substantially compact shape. Such overlapped area shall be apportioned among such cities in the same ratio (to one decimal) as the respective populations of the cities concerned bear to one another, but in such apportionment no city shall receive less than one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of such overlapping area. Provided, however, that any apportionment made under the provisions of this Subsection shall give consideration to existing property lines, and no tract of land or adjoining tracts of land, under one ownership upon the effective date of this Act and not exceeding one hundred and sixty (160) acres in size shall be apportioned so as to be within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of more than one city unless the landowner consents in writing to such apportionment.

C. When a city annexes additional territory, the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city shall expand in conformity with such annexation and shall comprise an area around the new corporate limits of the city consistent with Subsection A of this Section. In addition, the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the city may be extended beyond the distance limitations imposed by Subsection A of this Section to include therein any territory contiguous to the otherwise existing extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city, provided the owner or owners of such contiguous territory request such expansion. However, in no event shall the expansion of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city, through annexation, or upon request, or because of increase in population of the city, conflict with the existing extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city. The extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city shall not be reduced without the written consent of the governing body of such city, except in cases of judicial apportionment of overlapping extraterritorial jurisdictions.

D. No city shall impose any tax in the area under the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city, by reason of including such area within such extraterritorial jurisdiction.

Extension of subdivision ordinance within the extraterritorial jurisdiction

Sec. 4. The governing body of any city may extend by ordinance to all of the area under its extraterritorial jurisdiction the application of such city's ordinance establishing rules and regulations governing plats and the subdivision of land; provided, that any violation of any provision of any such ordinance outside the corporate limits of the city, but within such city's extraterritorial jurisdiction, shall not constitute a misdemeanor under such ordinance nor shall any fine provided for in such ordinance be applicable to a violation within such extraterritorial jurisdiction. However, any city which extends the application of its ordinance establishing rules and regulations governing plats and the subdivision of land to the area under its extraterritorial jurisdiction shall have the right to institute an action in the district court to enjoin the violation of any provision of such ordinance in such extraterritorial jurisdiction, and the district court shall have the power to grant any or all types of injunctive relief in such cases.

Industrial districts

Sec. 5. The governing body of any city shall have the right, power, and authority to designate any part of the area located in its extraterritorial jurisdiction as an industrial district, as the term is customarily used, and to treat with such area from time to time as such governing body may deem to be in the best interest of the city. Included in such rights and powers of the governing body of any city is the permissive right and power to enter into contracts or agreements with the owner or owners of land in such industrial district to guarantee the continuation of the extraterritorial status of such district, and its immunity from annexation by the city for a period of time not to exceed seven (7) years, and upon such other terms and considerations as the parties might deem appropriate. Such contracts or agreements shall be evidenced in writing and may be renewed or extended for successive periods not to exceed seven (7) years each by such governing body and the owner or owners of land in such industrial district. Existing contracts or agreements of such nature, recognized in or evidenced by an ordinance or resolution of the governing body of the contracting town or city, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date they were made, for the extent of their term or for seven (7) years from the date made, whichever is shorter.

Notice and hearing—annexation proceedings

Sec. 6. Before any city may institute annexation proceedings, the governing body of such city shall provide an opportunity for all interested persons to be heard at a public hearing to be held not more than twenty (20) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to institution of such proceedings. Notice of such hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the city and in the territory proposed to be annexed. The notice shall be published at least once in such newspaper not more than twenty (20) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to the hearing. Annexation of territory by a city shall be brought to completion within ninety (90) days of the date on which the governing body of such city institutes annexation proceedings or be null and void. Provided, however, any period of time during which a city is restrained or enjoined from annexing any such territory by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not be computed in such ninety (90) day limitation period.

Limitation on annexations

Sec. 7. A. A city may annex territory only within the confines of its extraterritorial jurisdiction; provided, however, that such limitation shall not apply to the annexation of property owned by the city annexing the same.

B. A city may annex in any one calendar year only territory equivalent in size to ten per cent (10%) of the total corporate area of such city as of the first day of that calendar year. In computing the total amount of territory which may be annexed in any one (1) calendar year, there shall be excluded from such ten per cent (10%) the following: (1) territory caused to be annexed by a request of a majority of the qualified resident voters in the territory and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in the territory, (2) territory annexed which is owned by the city, the county, the State, or the Federal Government which is used for a public purpose, (3) territory annexed at the request of a majority of the voters residing in such territory, and (4) territory annexed at the request of the owner or owners thereof.

C. In the event a city fails in any calendar year or years to annex the total amount of territory which it is authorized to annex in such calendar year or years, such unused allocation may be carried over and used in subsequent calendar years. A city, utilizing the power granted under this Subsection, may not annex in any one calendar year an amount of territory in excess of thirty per cent (30%) of its total area as of the first day of the calendar year.

D. All annexation proceedings by cities which are pending on or instituted after March 15, 1963, shall be subject to the limitations as to size and extent of area imposed by this Act and shall be brought to completion within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act or be null and void. Provided, however, any period of time during which a city is enjoined or restrained from completing such annexation proceedings by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not be computed in such ninety (90) day limitation period.

E. No annexation shall change or have any effect on switching limits of railroads or any rates thereof.

Limitations on creation of political subdivisions within the extraterritorial jurisdiction

Sec. 8. A. No city may be incorporated within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of the governing body of such city. Should such governing body refuse to grant permission for the incorporation of such proposed city, a majority of the resident voters, if any, in the territory of such proposed city and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed city may petition the governing body of such city and request annexation by such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to annex the area of such proposed city within six (6) months from the date of receipt of such petition, proof of such failure or refusal shall constitute authorization for the incorporation of such proposed city insofar as the purposes of this Subsection are concerned. Written consent or authorization for the incorporation of a proposed city, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for such proposed city as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of a proposed city which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

B. No political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services may be created within the area of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of any city without the written consent of such city. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to grant permission for the creation of such proposed political subdivision within sixty (60) days after receipt of a written request for same, a majority of the qualified resident voters in the territory of such proposed political subdivision and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision may petition the governing body of such city and request such city to make available to such territory the water or sanitary sewer service contemplated by the proposed political subdivision. Should the governing body of the city and a majority of the qualified resident voters and the owner or owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such proposed political subdivision fail to execute a mutually agreeable contract providing for the water or sanitary sewer service requested within six (6) months after receipt of such petition, such failure shall constitute authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned. Authorization for the creation of the proposed political subdivision, insofar as the provisions of this Subsection are concerned, shall mean only authorization to initiate proceedings to create such political subdivision as otherwise provided by law. The provisions of this Subsection shall apply only to the area of such proposed political subdivision which lies within the extraterritorial jurisdiction of such city.

This Subsection shall not apply to any such proposed political subdivision where a valid petition seeking its creation has been filed with the county clerk or other legally designated authority prior to the effective date of this Act.

C. If authorization to initiate incorporation proceedings for a proposed city is obtained under the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, such incorporation must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such incorporation must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such incorporation proceedings or to finally complete the incorporation of such proposed city within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization. If authorization to initiate proceedings to create a proposed political subdivision having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial purposes or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services is obtained under the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, such proceedings seeking the creation of such a political subdivision must be initiated within six (6) months of the date of such authorization and such proposed political subdivision must be finally completed within eighteen (18) months of the date of such authorization. Failure either to initiate such proceedings seeking the creation of such political subdivision or to finally complete the creation of such proposed political subdivision within such allotted periods of time shall terminate such authorization.

Petition for annexation or services

Sec. 9. The petition for annexation provided for in Subsection A of Section 8 of this Article and the petition requesting the availability of services provided for in Subsection B of Section 8 of this Article shall be made by the voters and landowners signing and presenting to the city secretary or clerk a written petition requesting annexation or requesting such services. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the official copy of the current poll list or an official copy of the current list of exempt voters and each voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and serial number that appear on his or her poll tax receipt, exemption certificate, or such other voter registration certificate that may be provided for by law. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the territory. The petition shall describe the territory to be annexed or the territory to which such services are requested to be made available and have attached to it a plat of the territory. Prior to circulating the petition for annexation or such services among the voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for ten (10) days a copy of the petition in three (3) public places in the territory and by publishing it for one (1) issue in a newspaper of general circulation serving the territory at least fifteen (15) days prior to the circulation of the petition. Proof of posting and publication of the notice shall be made by attaching to the petition presented to the city secretary or clerk: (1) the sworn affidavit of any voter who signed the petition, stating the places where and the dates when the petition was posted; and (2) the sworn affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper setting forth the name of the newspaper and the issue and date when the notice was published; (3) in addition, there shall be attached to the petition the sworn affidavit of three (3) or more voters signing the petition, if there be that many, stating the total number of voters residing in the territory and the approximate total acreage within the territory.

Disannexation

Sec. 10. A. From and after the effective date of this Act, any city annexing a particular area shall within three (3) years of the effective date of such annexation provide or cause to be provided such area with governmental and proprietary services, the standard and scope of which are substantially equivalent to the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services furnished by such city in other areas of such city which have characteristics of topography, patterns of land utilization, and population density similar to that of the particular area annexed. In the event a city fails or refuses to provide or cause to be provided such services within the time specified herein, a majority of the qualified voters residing within such particular annexed area and the owners of fifty per cent (50%) or more of the land in such particular annexed area, which area must adjoin the outer boundaries of the city, may petition the governing body of such city to disannex such particular annexed area. Should the governing body of such city fail or refuse to disannex such particular annexed area within ninety (90) days after receipt of a valid petition, any one or more of the signers of such petition may, within sixty (60) days of the date of such failure or refusal, file in a district court of the district in which such city is located an action requesting that the particular annexed area be disannexed. Upon the filing of an answer in such cause by the governing body of such city, and upon application of either party, the case shall be advanced and heard without further delay, all in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Upon hearing of the case, if the district court finds that a valid petition was filed with the city, that the particular annexed area is otherwise eligible for disannexation under the provisions of this Section, and that the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services provided or caused to be provided to such particular annexed area are not substantially equivalent to the standard and scope of governmental and proprietary services provided or caused to be provided other areas of such city having characteristics of topography, patterns of land utilization and population density similar to that of the particular annexed area, it shall enter an order disannexing such particular annexed area. Provided, however, that the right of disannexation provided for in this Section shall not be available to any particular annexed area which was lawfully within the city limits of a city at the time of the approval or sale of any general obligation bonds of the city if proceeds therefrom have been expended for capital improvements to serve such particular annexed area, so long as any such bonds are outstanding.

B. When any such area is disannexed under the provisions of this Section, it shall not again be annexed within one (1) year of such disannexation, and, if it is again annexed within three (3) years of disannexation, the period for affording such services as are required by this Section shall be one (1) year from reannexation rather than three (3) years as in other cases.

C. The request and petition for disannexation provided for in Subsection A of this Section of this Act shall be made by the qualified voters and landowners signing and presenting to the city secretary a written petition requesting disannexation. The signatures to the petition need not be appended to one paper, but each signer shall sign his or her name in ink or indelible pencil, and each signer signing the petition as a qualified voter shall sign his or her name as it appears on the official copy of the current poll list or an official copy of the current list of exempt voters and each qualified voter shall note on such petition his or her residence address and the precinct number and serial number that appear on his or her poll tax receipt, exemption certificate, or such other voter registration certificate that may be provided for by law. Each landowner signing the petition shall note thereon opposite his or her name the approximate total acreage he or she owns within the particular annexed area. The petition shall describe the particular annexed area to be disannexed and have attached to it a plat of the particular annexed area. Prior to circulating the petition for disannexation among the qualified voters and landowners, notice of the petition shall be given by means of posting for ten (10) days a copy of the petition in three (3) public places in the particular annexed area and by publishing it for one (1) issue in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation serving the particular annexed area at least fifteen (15) days prior to the circulation of the petition. Proof of posting and publication of the notice shall be made by attaching to the petition presented to the city secretary: (1) the sworn affidavit of any qualified voter who signed the petition stating the places where and the dates when the petition was posted, and (2) the sworn affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper or newspapers setting forth the name of the newspaper or newspapers and the issue and date in which the notice was published. In addition, there shall be attached to the petition the sworn affidavit of three (3) or more qualified voters signing the petition, if there be that many, stating the total number of qualified voters residing in the particular annexed area and the approximate total acreage within such particular annexed area. Home rule cities, exchange of territory with other cities, see art. 1175, subd. 2.

Art. 974d—10. Validation of incorporation; elections; governmental proceedings; adoption of home rule charter; exceptions; cities, towns or villages

Section 1. The incorporation proceedings of any city, town or village in this state heretofore incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the General Laws of Texas, whether under the Aldermanic form of government or the Commission form of government, and which have functioned as incorporated cities and towns since the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such incorporation or attempted incorporation and the incorporation of any such city, town or village shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings or other incorporation proceedings may have not been in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. In each instance where an election has been held for the purpose of incorporating a city, town or village, and the territory to be contained in such city, town or village was inadequately or incorrectly described in connection with such election proceedings, or such territory contained a greater area than was permitted by law, and where, thereafter, the county judge of the county in which such city, town or village is situated entered an order declaring the inhabitants of such city, town or village incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and fixing and declaring the boundaries thereof, as such boundaries were originally intended, together with territory annexed prior to any such order, and finding and declaring the names of the officials of any such city, such order by the county judge is hereby in all things validated, ratified and approved, and such city, town, or village shall be known by the name specified in such order.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body of any such city, town or village and all offices thereof since their incorporation or attempted incorporation are hereby in all respects validated as of the respective date of such proceedings. Any election held in such city, town or village resulting favorably to the issuance of bonds is hereby validated, and the governing body thereof is authorized to proceed with the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 4. The proceedings for the adoption and adopting or attempting to adopt a Home Rule Charter for any and each city or town in this state where any legal step required to make such adoption effective has been omitted or was done in an irregular manner and where a majority of the qualified voters of said city voting at said election voted in favor of the adoption of any and each such charter are in all things validated, ratified and confirmed, and such charter shall constitute the Home Rule Charter of said city and each such city under the Constitution and laws of this state. All elections held under the provisions of said charter for the purpose of electing members of the governing body of each such city and the assumption of office by such elected members are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 5. This Act shall not apply to any city, town or village which is now or was heretofore involved in litigation questioning in any District Court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, the validity or legality of the charter, organization, incorporation, boundaries, extension of boundaries, or creation of such city, town or village. Nor shall this Act validate any act or proceedings of any city, town or village which upon the effective date of this Act is the subject of litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction. This Act shall neither validate any act or proceedings of any city, town, or village done subsequent to October 1, 1962, nor shall the Act operate to affect any ordinance or ordinances annexing territory that have been passed on first or subsequent readings by a city, town or village prior to the passage of this Act. This Act shall not apply to any such extensions, acts or proceedings of any city, town or village if such extensions, acts or proceedings have been later rescinded.

Art. 1027c—1. Validation of ad valorem tax levies in incorporated cities and towns; exceptions

Section 1. All levies for ad valorem taxes heretofore made by the governing bodies of any incorporated city or town in this State incorporated under the General Laws of this State (commonly referred to as General Law Cities), which are unenforceable because such levies were made and adopted by resolution, motion or other informal action instead of having been made by ordinance, or which are unenforceable because of the failure of the governing bodies of such incorporated cities or towns to appoint the proper statutory Board of Equalization, as required by the laws of this State, or where the governing bodies of such incorporated cities or towns have acted as a Board of Equalization in the fixing of the valuation of taxable property for ad valorem taxes within such incorporated city or town and which levies are otherwise legally enforceable, are hereby validated and the same are hereby declared enforceable the same as though they had been made and adopted originally by ordinance duly passed and/or as heard before a properly and legally appointed Board of Equalization. Provided this Act shall not validate any taxes levied for street paving, sidewalk, curb and gutter work, or similar work, and no liens shall attach to any real property by virtue of such levy. CHAPTER NINE—STREET IMPROVEMENTS

Art. 1093. [1013] Notice of hearing

No assessments of any part of the cost of such improvement shall be made against any property abutting thereon or its owner, until a full and fair hearing shall first have been given to the owners of such property, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof given to said owners, their agents, or attorneys. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city, town or village where such tax is sought to be levied, if there be such a paper there; if not, then in the nearest to said city, town or village, or general circulation in the county in which said city is located; and, in addition, if the owner of such abutting property is a railway or street railway, written notice of the assessment and hearing thereon shall be served by either delivering in person to the local agent or by depositing the same in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and such written notice, if required, shall be mailed or delivered, and the first publication shall be made, at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. The governing body may provide for additional notice cumulative of that notice specified above. Id.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 346, ch. 130, § 1.

Art. 1098. Notice, etc.

No such assessment or reassessment shall be made without at least ten (10) days written notice and an opportunity to be heard on such question of special benefits given to the owner or owners of such abutting property. Such notice may be served either personally or by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said city or town; and, when any such abutting property is owned by a railway or street railway, notice shall be made both by such publication and by delivery of written notice, either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll, and the governing body of any such city or town shall have power, not inconsistent herewith, to provide for all procedure, rules, and regulations necessary or proper for such notice and hearing and to levy, assess, and collect such assessment or reassessment. Id.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 348, ch. 132, § 1.

Art. 1105b. Street improvements and assessments in cities having more than 1000 inhabitantsNotice and hearing; contents of notice

Sec. 9. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any abutting property or its owners, nor against any railway, street railway or interurban, or owner, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any abutting property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property, and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three (3) times in some newspaper published in the city where such special assessment tax is to be imposed, if there be such a paper; if not, then the nearest to such city of general circulation in the county in which such city is located; and, if such abutting property is owned by a railway or street railway, additional written notice of the assessment and the hearing thereon shall be delivered either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; such additional written notice, if required, shall be mailed or delivered, and the first publication shall be made at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. If all such notices shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notices relate, shall state the highway, highways, portion or portions thereof to be improved, shall state the es-estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against the owner or owners of abutting property and such property on each highway or portion with reference to which hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held, and shall state the estimated total cost of the improvements on each such highway, portion or portions thereof, and if the improvements are to be constructed in any part of the area between and under rails and tracks, double tracks, turnouts, and switches, and two (2) feet on each side thereof of any railway, street railway or interurban, shall also state the amount proposed to be assessed therefor, and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such abutting property, or any interest therein, and upon all owning or claiming such railway, street railway, or interurban, or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning any such abutting property, or any interest therein, and all owning any such railway, street railway, or interurban, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the abutting property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any errors, inaccuracies, irregularities, and invalidities, and to supply any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, or any railway, street railway, or interurban assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction, within fifteen (15) days from the time such assessment is levied, and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity, and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvement for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not mailed or delivered as required and was not published or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 140, ch. 83, § 1.

by granted the power separately or jointly, in combination with any one or more such cities or towns, to receive and acquire through gift or dedication, by purchase without condemnation or by condemnation, any property in this state located inside or outside the corporate limits of any such city or town for the purpose of building and acquiring water purification and treatment facilities, reservoirs, pipelines, and water transporting facilities of every kind deemed necessary for providing such cities or towns separately or jointly with a supply of fresh water for municipal, domestic and industrial purposes, and to build, construct or otherwise acquire any and all such facilities. The procedure to be followed in condemnation proceedings hereunder and authorized herein shall be in accordance with the provisions of state law with reference to eminent domain including particularly the provisions of Title 52 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Acquisition and construction of improvements and facilities

Sec. 2. Such cities and towns are hereby empowered separately or jointly to maintain, improve and operate all properties acquired and constructed hereunder and all improvements thereon and to sell or lease all or any part of such property and improvements and shall have full and ample power to separately or jointly manage, control and operate properties so owned jointly by two or more such cities and towns by entering into contract with each other on terms mutually agreeable.

Negotiable bonds or warrants; taxes for interest and sinking fund

Sec. 3. The governing body of any city which may provide water treatment facilities under the provisions of this Act may for such purpose issue negotiable bonds or warrants of such city and levy taxes to provide the interest and sinking fund therefor in the manner provided by law for the issuance of tax supported bonds and warrants of such cities and towns, or may issue bonds supported by the revenues of any one or all of its utilities in the manner provided in Article 1111 et seq., Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Improvement, maintenance and operation of facilities; charges; contracts for services; rules and regulations

Sec. 4. Any city or town acquiring property and facilities separately or cities and towns acquiring property and facilities jointly under this Act are authorized and empowered to improve, maintain, operate and conduct same for the authorized purposes and to make and provide all necessary or useful improvements and facilities and to fix and make such reasonable charges for the use thereof as the governing body or governing bodies, by mutual agreement may determine. Any such city or town acting separately and any such cities and towns acting jointly may contract with any other city or town for supplying the latter with services to be afforded by the improvements and facilities acquired and constructed hereunder and such cities and towns are granted all necessary powers and authority to make and enforce rules and regulations pertaining to the use of improvements and facilities as the interested governing bodies may, by ordinance, determine.

Approval of contract for water treatment

Sec. 5. No election shall be required of any city or town for approval of any contract pertaining to water treatment under this Act but any such contract may be entered into without the necessity of an election.

Taxes for operation and maintenance of improvements and facilities

Sec. 6. In addition to any taxes which may be levied by any city or town for the interest and sinking fund of any bonds issued hereunder any city or town acquiring improvements and facilities either separately or jointly pursuant to this Act are authorized and empowered to levy and collect taxes for the purpose of improving, operating and maintaining any such improvements and facilities; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing any city or town to exceed the limits of taxation placed upon it by the Constitution and Laws of this state or by their home rule charter.

Validation of water treatment contracts

Sec. 7. All acts and proceedings of the governing bodies of cities and towns, eligible under the provisions of this Act, heretofore accomplished in the authorization and execution of water treatment contracts as herein contemplated as well as the terms and provisions of said water treatment contracts themselves are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and validated and declared to be valid in all respects as of the respective dates thereof with the parties thereto bound accordingly until the terms and provisions of said contracts are lawfully changed by mutual consent of the parties thereto.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 8. This Act is cumulative of all other laws and city charter provisions relating to the same subject and shall take precedence over any city charter provision in conflict but only to the extent of such conflict. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 48, ch. 18, §§ 1-8.

Art. 1110c. Improvements to water and sewer systems

Constructing, extending, enlarging or reconstructing systems

Section 1. Cities, towns and villages as hereinafter defined shall have power under this Act to improve any water works system or sanitary sewer system within their limits by constructing, extending, enlarging or reconstructing such water or sanitary sewer systems, which power shall include that of making any one or more of the kinds or classes of improvements herein named or any combination thereof or parts thereof.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(A) "City" shall mean any incorporated city, town or village, including home rule cities, which has all or a major portion of its territory in a county which, at the time any action is taken under the powers herein granted, has a population in excess of 700,000 according to the preceding Federal Census.

(B) "Improvements to the Sewer System" shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, and all appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto necessary for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal from the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, laterals and extensions, and appliances and necessary adjuncts thereto shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing sanitary sewer system operated by the city.

(C) "Improvements to the Water System" shall mean the laying of a water main or mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions and any and all other appurtenances necessary and required for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the area in which such improvements are constructed hereunder, but shall not include such off-site mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes or extensions, and other appurtenances as shall be necessary to connect such improvements to the existing water system operated by the city.

(D) "Cost of Improvement" with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(E) "Construction of Improvement" when used herein shall mean the construction of improvements to the water or sewer system, either or both, as same are herein defined.

(F) "Improvements" when used alone herein shall mean improvements to the sewer or water system, either or both, as herein defined.

(G) "Governing Body" shall mean the city, town or village council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the city.

(H) "Benefited Property" shall mean any lot or tract within the subdivided or platted property to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

Necessity of improvements; determination and order

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have power to determine the necessity for, and to order, the construction of improvements within said city and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments as hereinafter provided.

Ordinance or resolution; costs; assessments against benefited property

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of such improvements, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefor be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The cost of improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of the cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any improvements are actually constructed, either before or after receipt of bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, but before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an estimate of the cost of such improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the costs of such improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof.

Tax or assessment against railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of the improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Amount of assessment against benefited property; payment and default; liens; certificates of special assessment; contents

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess nine-tenths of the estimated cost of improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed eight per cent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at the date upon which said lien is fixed and becomes effective, whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or re-assessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or re-assessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except state, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of assessments; front foot plan

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of benefited property and the owners thereof in accordance with the front foot plan or rule, provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality, it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made under such front foot plan or rule, each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed according to the number of lineal feet of each such parcel abutting upon a public street irrespective of the location of improvements constructed hereunder relative to such parcel so long as such improvements provide water and sewer service, either or both, to the parcel to be assessed; provided, however, that corner lots shall be assessed only for the shorter side of same abutting upon a public street.

Notice of improvement, assessment and lien

Sec. 8. Whenever the governing body of any city shall, pursuant to this Act, determine it to be necessary that any sewer or water system be improved in any manner, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the cost of such improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property benefited thereby, there may be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated a notice signed in the name of such city, by its clerk, secretary or mayor or other officer performing the duties of such. Such notice shall meet all requirements of the act when it shows substantially that the governing body of such city has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such system be improved and shall describe the location and limits between which same is to be or has been improved or shall otherwise identify or designate such system and shall state that a portion of the cost of such improvement is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon property benefited thereby, and shall describe such property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements.

Contents of notice; filing

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same in the records of mortgages or deeds of trust and shall index same in the name of the city and in the name of other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which the notice relates.

Effective date of lien

Sec. 10. In all instances coming within the purview of this Act the lien of any assessment or re-assessment upon the property assessed or re-assessed shall take effect and be in force at and from the filing of the notice herein provided for and not before.

Exemptions; personal liability for assessments; enforcement of liability

Sec. 11. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of the assessment made against such property or an amount equal to that amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt, shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Hearing on assessment; notice; contents contesting assessment; appeal; defenses

Sec. 12. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property of its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by writing mailed to the address of the owner of such property or the person who last paid taxes on such property as determined from the tax rolls of the city, such written notice to be mailed at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, and by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper of general circulation in the city where such special assessment tax is to be imposed, the first publication to be at least ten days before the date of the hearing. Proof of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates, shall state the water or sanitary sewer system, portion or portions thereof to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per front foot proposed to be assessed against benefited property or the owners thereof and describe the property benefited by each system or portion, with reference to which hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held, and shall state the estimated total cost of the improvements on each such system, portion or portions thereof, and shall state the time and the place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction or¹ such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements for which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within fifteen days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes or abandonment in plans, methods or contracts

Sec. 13. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by two-thirds vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been ordered or held then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into, and in case of abandonment of any particular improvement an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied therefor, and all other proceedings relating thereto.

Assessment against parcels owned by same person

Sec. 14. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Exercise of powers

Sec. 15. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid or unenforceable assessments; correction of irregularities; re-assessments

Sec. 16. In case any assessment shall for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and correct any mistake or irregularity in connection therewith, and at any time to make and levy re-assessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of re-assessments shall have the same force as provided for recitals in certificates relating to original assessments.

Right of appeal from re-assessment

Sec. 17. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such re-assessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within fifteen days from the date of hearing relative to such re-assessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such re-assessment.

Assessments in conjunction with street improvements; joint proceeding; single assessment certificate

Sec. 18. Should any city so desire, it may make the improvements and assessments provided for hereunder in conjunction with street improvements and assessments provided for in Article 1105b, V.A.T.C.S. by one joint proceeding and only one hearing shall be necessary, and in such event the procedure herein provided shall govern. A single assessment certificate may be issued against any tract or parcel of benefited property and the owners thereof in evidence of the total assessment made for all or any improvements, including street improvements made in a joint proceeding as provided in the preceding sentence, made under this Act, provided that the amount assessed for each class of said improvements is shown separately and distinctly in the ordinance by which any assessment is made hereunder.

Subdivided or platted property

Sec. 19. No assessment or other charge permitted by this Act shall be made for the construction of improvements to any water or sewer system against any property or the owners thereof unless such property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted for a period of at least ten years next preceding the effective date of this Act. For purposes of determining property or areas to which this Act shall apply, "Subdivided or platted property" shall mean such property as has been duly platted under the terms of Article 974—A, V.A.T.C.S. or any property which has been subdivided or platted by map or plat filed for record in the office of any county clerk, by the terms of which map or plat there has been made any dedication of the property to the public use for a street or alley right-of-way or for public utility easements.

Duty to furnish water or sewer service

Sec. 19—A. It is the intention of the Legislature, due to the emergency nature of this Act, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to effect any change in any way in the law of this state, whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both.

Certificates as legal and authorized investments

Sec. 20. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act, including certificates issued in joint proceedings as hereinabove set out, shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the state or its agencies.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 21. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

Home rule cities; plans and specifications for improvements; payment of contractor; reimbursement; assessments

Sec. 22. A home rule city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to adopt plans and specifications for improvements in accordance with the provisions hereof and shall have the power to pay to the contractor, the successful bidder, that part of the cost that may be assessed against the owners and their benefited property in cash and the city may reimburse itself for the amount by levying an assessment against benefited property and the owners thereof, after hearing and notice, as in this Act provided, up to the amount of the enhancement in value represented by the benefits and permitted by this Statute, and issue assignable certificates in favor of such city for the assessment. The certificates shall be enforceable in the same manner as herein provided. The city shall likewise have the power to do the improvement or improvements by its own forces if the work can be done more expeditiously and economically.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 23. Should any Section, provision, word, phrase, or clause of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance be held invalid, unconstitutional or ineffective, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. 2. ENCUMBERED CITY SYSTEMArt. 1118n—10. Refunding outstanding waterworks and sewer revenue bonds; additional refunding bonds*Eligible city

Section 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city which has outstanding bonds secured by a pledge of net revenue of its sanitary sewer system and other bonds secured by a lien on its waterworks system and the revenues therefrom, and does not have the right to issue additional equal lien bonds payable from its waterworks revenues. As used herein "Eligible City" means a city to which this Act is applicable.

Refunding bonds secured by pledge of revenues; issuance; interest; deposits in state treasury

Sec. 2. An Eligible City is authorized to issue bonds, without the necessity of an election, for the purpose of refunding outstanding waterworks revenue bonds and sewer revenue bonds into an issue of refunding bonds which will be secured by and payable from a pledge of revenues of both the waterworks system and the sewer system. Such refunding bonds shall bear a rate of interest specified by the governing body of the City, but not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years. All or any part of such refunding bonds may, in lieu of being exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for outstanding bonds, be sold for cash, in which event, there shall be deposited with the State Treasurer an amount of money sufficient to pay the unexchanged portion thereof plus interest to maturity on bonds which are not optional for redemption prior to maturity, and to the option date on bonds which are optional. There shall also be deposited with the State Treasurer the additional amount required by Chapter 541, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature as amended. The State Treasurer shall hold and disburse such funds as provided in Chapter 541 except that he is not required to transmit money to the Trustee or the bank of payment until one business day before each interest payment date on the bonds being refunded.

Elections authorizing bond issue

Sec. 3. If, prior to such refunding, an Eligible City has had elections authorizing the issuance of bonds to be secured by a pledge of waterworks revenues and other bonds secured by sewer revenues, or either, such bonds may, after the issuance of such refunding bonds, be issued and secured by a pledge of net revenues of both the waterworks system and sewer system without the necessity of an additional election.

Additional revenue bonds; ordinances; junior lien bonds

Sec. 4. An Eligible City may issue additional revenue bonds which will be on a parity with previously issued and outstanding revenue bonds at any time under the conditions specified in the ordinance or ordinances which authorized the issuance of the then outstanding bonds. Articles 1111 to 1118, both inclusive, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, shall be applicable to bonds issued under this law, except as otherwise provided herein. An Eligible City may issue junior lien bonds unless prohibited by the ordinance authorizing outstanding bonds.

Approval of bonds by attorney general; incontestability

Sec. 5. All bonds issued under this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for his approval, and when approved by him, shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and thereafter such bonds shall be incontestable. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 321, ch. 119.

Municipal bonds, see art. 823 et seq.

Additional revenue bonds, issuance without election, see art. 1118t.

Refunding outstanding revenue bonds issued for certain utilities, see art. 1185.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN—HOME RULEArt. 1174a. Validating charter or charter amendments

That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city or ¹ more than five thousand inhabitants in this State, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-Third Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, relating to home rule, as well as all amendments and proceedings had under the same and all bonds issued under any amendment where the said bonds have been approved by the Attorney General and registered with the Comptroller, are hereby fully validated, ratified and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as if adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the Thirty-Third Legislature, and the General Laws of Texas relating thereto, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 187, ch. 50, § 1; Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 324, ch. 149, § 1.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN—CONDEMNATION FOR HIGHWAYS

Art. 1211. Notice of assessment

No assessment shall be made against owners of property benefited, or their property, until after a reasonable opportunity to be heard shall have been given them, lienholders, and others interested, before such governing body, or the commission hereafter referred to, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof published three (3) times prior to said hearing in some newspaper of general circulation in the city; and, if the owner is a railway or street railway, by additional written notice delivered either in person to its local agent, or by depositing said written notice in the city post office, postage paid, and properly addressed to the offices of the railway or street railway at the address as it appears on the last approved city tax roll; and the written notice, if required, to be mailed or delivered, and the first publication to be made not less than ten (10) days prior to said hearing, and the names of owners, lienholders, and others interested need not be specifically set out in said notice, but the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be assessed shall be briefly described in said notice, either by lot and block, number, front feet, or by any other description reasonably identifying the same, or by reference to any plat, report or record filed in connection with said proceedings. The governing body or commission shall have the power to give other and additional notice, but said published notice, together with said written notice, if required, shall be sufficient. Id.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 347, ch. 131, § 1.

CHAPTER TWENTY—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1268b. Lease of city-owned swimming pools.

Art. 1269j-5.1 Airport revenue bonds; cities with population of 800,000 or more.

Art. 1268b. Lease of city-owned swimming pools

Section 1. The governing body of any incorporated city or town (including home rule cities) is hereby authorized to lease any city-owned swimming pool, to be operated by the lessee as a public swimming pool under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such governing body and such lessee. Any such lease shall be authorized by ordinance or resolution adopted by such governing body, and the lease agreement shall be executed on behalf of the city or town, by the mayor and the city secretary or clerk, and the seal of the city shall be impressed thereon. Such lease may cover any period of time not to exceed fifty (50) years. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1169, ch. 455.

Additional revenue bonds for swimming pools, see art. 1118u.

Validation of bonds for swimming pools, see art. 1114d.

Power of cities to purchase and encumber swimming pools, see art. 1015c.

Art. 1269h. Airports, maintenance and operation

Airstrips, use of county equipment, machinery and employees of counties of 17,650 to 17,700 for construction and maintenance, see Art. 1581d—1.

Art. 1269j—4. Auditoriums, exhibition halls and similar buildings; cities over 125,000 population

Park facilities, construction in cities over 650,000 population, see art. 6081j.

Art. 1269j—5.1 Airport revenue bonds; cities with population of 800,000 or more

Section 1. This Act shall be applicable to all incorporated cities, including Home Rule Cities, having a population of eight hundred thousand (800,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of establishing, improving, enlarging, extending or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor, said bonds to be issued in the manner provided and as authorized by Chapter 43, Acts of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1954, as presently or hereafter amended,¹ the bonds issued hereunder to be payable from all or any designated part or parts of the revenues of said airport or airports (including the revenues from any airport or airports then existing or to be thereafter acquired, either or both) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds; and, except as the same may be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of said Chapter 43, as presently or hereafter amended, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (the provisions of this Act to govern and take precedence in the event of any inconsistency or conflict). Without in any way limiting the generality of "establishing, improving, enlarging, extending, or repairing (any or all) the airport or airports of such city, including the acquisition of land therefor," as used above, it is expressly provided that the same shall include, among other things, buildings, improvements, landing fields, and such other facilities and services that the city deems to be necessary, desirable, or convenient to the efficient operation and maintenance of its airport or airports. With respect to the pledge of revenues and income of said airport or airports to the payment of the operation and maintenance expenses and principal of and interest on such bonds, as provided by said Chapter 43, such city shall be authorized to levy and pledge to the payment of such operation and maintenance expenses, either as a supplement to the pledge of revenues for such purpose or in lieu thereof, a continuing, annual ad valorem tax at a rate or rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) sufficient for such purposes, all as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Act; provided, that such tax or taxes shall be within the Constitutional or Charter limit for the cities covered by this Act; and provided further, that no part of any moneys raised by such tax or taxes shall ever be used for the payment of the interest on or principal of any bonds issued hereunder. The proceeds of any such tax or taxes thus pledged shall be utilized annually to the extent required by, or provided in, the ordinance or operation and maintenance of such airport or airports, and such city in its discretion may covenant in such ordinance or ordinances that certain costs of operating and maintaining such airport or airports, as may be enumerated therein, or all of such costs, will be paid by the city from the proceeds of such tax.

(b) In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provision for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

(c) From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale, and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit (either or both). Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, in the reserve fund or funds, and in the other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

(d) All bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the city and countersigned by the City Secretary (or City Clerk), and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds to be signed by the facsimile signatures of said Mayor and City Secretary (or City Clerk), either or both, and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be a facsimile seal of the seal of the city; and provided further, that the interest coupons attached to said bonds may also be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be callable prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud.

(e) Any city covered by this Act shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund revenue bonds (either original bonds or refunding bonds) theretofore issued by such city under Chapter 43, supra, or under said Chapter 43 and this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. The provisions of Sections 2(a) and 2(b) of this Act shall apply with equal force to refunding bonds issued hereunder.

(f) All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 50, ch. 19, §§ 1, 2.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO—CIVIL SERVICE

Art. 1269m. Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service in cities over 10,000

Promotions; filling vacancies

Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

D. All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which has been made available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction and upon the applicant's efficiency. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading. The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each applicant shall be computed by adding such applicant's points for seniority and his credit based on the average of his last two (2) semi-annual efficiency reports to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examinations shall be based upon a maximum grade of seventy (70) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each applicant's answers to such questions. Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine his examination and his answers thereto together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfied shall, within five (5) days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act. No person shall be eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the day of such promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years service in the Department immediately preceding the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months, shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period being considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques. No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire or Police Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who has not been a bona fide fire fighter in a Fire Department or a bona fide law enforcement officer for five (5) years in the State of Texas. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 150, ch. 91, § 1.

Section 14. Subsection D was amended in 1963 so as to provide that a person recalled to active military duty may consider time so spent as being duty in the department concerned insofar as meeting the requirement of two years service in the department immediately preceding the day of promotional examination, and to provide that if absence for such military duty exceeds twelve months, then to be eligible to participate in a promotional examination upon returning from such service, an individual must serve the department a period of 90 days to give him opportunity to be brought up to date on equipment and techniques.

Denial of right to work because of age, see art. 6252-14.

Art. 1287—3. Regulation of vegetable producers, handlers and dealers

Definitions

Section 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas. The Commissioner is authorized to utilize all employees of the Department of Agriculture in the enforcement of this Act.

(b) "Vegetables" shall include agricultural commodities and mean any and all of the following enumerated commodities: asparagus, beans (string, wax or green), beets (bunched or topped), broccoli (Italian sprouting), cabbage (for sauerkraut), cantaloupes, carrots (bunched or clipped), cauliflower, celery (rough), corn (green), cucumbers (slicing), dewberries and blackberries, eggplant, endive, or escarole or chicory, garlic, kale, lettuce, melons, (honey ball and honey dew), mustard greens, okra, onions, parsley, peaches, pears, peas (fresh), peppers (sweet), potatoes, potatoes (sweet), radishes, romaine, shallots, spinach, strawberries, tomatoes (fresh), turnips (bunched or topped), or rutabagas, turnip greens and watermelons.

(c) "Person" means any individual, partnership, group of persons, corporation or business unit handling vegetables.

(d) "Handle" means buying or offering to buy, selling or offering to sell, or shipping for the purpose of selling, whether as owner, agent, or otherwise, any vegetables purchased within the State of Texas. Persons buying or shipping vegetables for canning, processing or handling are defined as handlers.

(e) "Dealer" means any person who handles vegetables.

(f) "Buying agent" means any person authorized by any licensed dealer to act for him in the handling of vegetables.

(g) "Transporting agent" means any person authorized by any dealer to act for said dealer in the transporting of vegetables.

(h) "Warehouseman" means any person who receives and stores vegetables for compensation.

(i) "Packer" means any person who prepares and/or packs vegetables for barter, sale, exchange or shipment.

(j) "Commission merchant" shall include "contract dealer" and means any person who purchases vegetables on credit, or who takes vegetables into his possession for consignment or handling on behalf of the producer or owner, or in any manner which does not require nor result in the payment to the producer, seller or consignor of the full purchase price in current money of the United States at the time of delivery to such commission merchant or when title passes from such producer, seller or consignor to such commission merchant.

(k) "Producer" means any person engaged in the business of growing or producing any vegetables.

License

Sec. 2. No person shall engage in the business of a dealer in vegetables unless such person shall first have procured a license in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Application for license; contents

Sec. 3. Any person desiring to engage in business as a dealer in vegetables within the State shall, prior to engaging in such business, file with the Commissioner an application for, and receive a license. Such application shall be made under oath and the Commissioner shall provide forms for such applications.

(a) Such application shall set forth the following specific information:

(1) The full name of the applicant and whether the applicant is an individual, partnership, corporation, exchange or association of persons; the full name and the address of the principal business office of the applicant and the address of the principal business office of applicant within the State of Texas; in the event that the applicant be a foreign corporation, the application shall name the state in which such corporation was chartered.

(2) Foreign corporations filing applications for license under this Act shall indicate clearly in such application the name and the address of an agent for service within this State upon whom service of legal process may be had in any suit brought against said corporate applicant within the State of Texas.

(3) How long the applicant has been engaged in business in the State of Texas.

(b) In addition the applicant shall answer the following questions which shall be made a part of the application:

(1) Have you heretofore been licensed in the State of Texas as a dealer in vegetables?

(2) If you have answered that you have been so licensed, has any license so granted you within the State of Texas ever been suspended or revoked, or both?

(3) If you have answered that a license so issued you within the State of Texas has been suspended or revoked, or both, you will state when, where and give a short statement of the reason for such suspension or revocation, or both.

Fee; issuance or refusal of license; hearing; appeal

Sec. 4. All applications for license under this Act shall be accompanied by tender of payment in full of such fee as is required for the license. On receipt of such application and the required fee, the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee shall immediately issue such license, provided that no license shall be issued when the application indicates that such person has had a similar license suspended or revoked, or both, until the Commissioner is furnished with satisfactory proof that the applicant is, on the date of the filing of such application, qualified to receive the license applied for. The issuance of license to persons who have suffered prior suspension or revocation of license in this State shall be discretionary with the Commissioner. In the exercise of such discretion, the Commissioner is authorized to take into consideration the facts and circumstances pertaining to the prior suspension or revocation, the financial condition of the applicant, as of the date of this application, and the obligations due and owing by the applicant to growers and producers of vegetables.

"Obligation" means any judgment of any court in this State or certified claim outstanding against the applicant as of the date of the application under consideration. Prior to refusal of license by the Commissioner, any applicant for license shall be entitled to an open hearing on the facts pertaining to such application, said hearing to be conducted by the Commissioner, or his duly licensed agent. If after such hearing the Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, refuses the license applied for, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days from and after the denial of such license by the Commissioner and not thereafter, file his appeal from the order of the Commissioner denying such license, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State. If the Commissioner shall determine that the license applied for shall not be granted, the Commissioner shall deduct from the license fee tendered with such application, the sum of Five Dollars ($5), such sum to be retained by the Commissioner to defray costs and expenses incident to the filing and examination of said application and shall return the balance of the license fee so tendered with such application to the applicant.

Fee schedule

Sec. 5. The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same:

- (a) For license as a "dealer" or "handler" of vegetables the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).
- (b) For license as a "commission merchant" and/or "contract dealer" Twenty-five Dollars ($25).
- (c) For a license as a "buying agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).
- (d) For a license as a "transporting agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

Surety bond of commission merchants; form

Sec. 6. All commission merchants shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a good and sufficient surety bond, payable to the Governor of the State of Texas and his successors in office, for the following amounts, based upon the amount of vegetables purchased by said

“commission merchant” which the “commission merchant” intends to handle during the current or next ensuing shipping season:

$ 5,000	Up to $25,000 of purchases
$10,000	Between $25,000 and $100,000, inclusive of purchases
$25,000	Over $100,000 of purchases.

The bond furnished shall be in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe and shall be conditioned upon faithful compliance with the terms and provisions of this Act and upon the faithful performance of the conditions and terms of all contracts made by said “commission merchants” pertaining to the handling of vegetables under this Act. A cause of action may be maintained upon said bond by any person with whom said applicant deals in purchasing, handling, selling and accounting for sales of vegetables as provided in this Act; the aggregate accumulated liability under such bond shall not exceed the face amount thereof, and each such bond shall continue in full force and effect until notice of termination thereof is given by registered mail to the Commissioner. Such fact shall be set forth in the face of said bond, but such notice shall not affect the liability which may have accrued thereon prior to termination. No license shall be issued to any “commission merchant” prior to the delivery to the Commissioner and the approval by him of the bond required under the provision of this Section.

Cancellation of license; complaint; hearing and determination

Sec. 7. Any license issued under the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit: (a) any party aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violations of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violations complained of.

(b) The Commissioner shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; and notify the person complained of, furnishing him with a copy of such complaint, by registered mail to the last known address of such person.

(c) The Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments, or writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand.

(d) Upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of.

Notice of cancellation; appeal

Sec. 8. Any licensee, whose license is so cancelled by an order of the Commissioner, shall be notified in writing by registered mail of the cancellation of said license and it shall be unlawful and a violation of this Act for any licensee or buying or transporting agent to operate from and after said notification of cancellation, provided that said licensee or buying or transporting agent whose license has been so cancelled, shall have the right to appeal from the order of the Commissioner canceling said license, to any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, provided that such appeal shall be filed in said court within ten (10) days from and after receipt by licensee of notice of said cancellation, and provided further that the effect of said appeal by said licensee or licensee's agent shall not act to supersede the order of cancellation issued by the Commissioner, pursuant to final determination of the question of cancellation by said court.

Appeal from Commissioner's ruling

Sec. 9. Any applicant for license whose application is rejected or any dealer who has been licensed hereunder and whose license is subsequently cancelled, may have an appeal from the Commissioner's ruling to any court of competent jurisdiction.

Contracts of purchase; payment to seller; demand for purchase price

Sec. 10. Any dealer who shall cause a producer or seller or owner, or agent of producer, seller or owner, to part with the control or possession of all or any part of his vegetables, and who agrees by his contract of purchase to pay the purchase price upon demand following delivery, shall immediately make payment thereafter to such owner or seller. Demand for the purchase price may be made upon dealer in writing, and the mailing of a registered letter making such demand addressed to said dealer at his business address, shall be prima facie evidence that demand was made upon the mailing of said letter.

Agreement to part with control or possession of vegetables and to waive right to demand purchase price

Sec. 11. When a dealer causes a producer, seller or owner, or agent of producer, seller or owner, to part with the control or possession of all or any portion of his vegetables by means of any agreement under which the producer, seller or owner or agent of producer, seller or owner, has waived the right to demand the purchase price, as and when he parts with said control or possession of vegetables, such agreement for the handling, purchase or sale of vegetables by the dealer and the producer, seller or owner, shall be evidenced in writing in duplicate and shall set out in full the details of such transactions. In the event the agreement does not specify the time and manner of settlement, then the dealer shall settle therefor within thirty (30) days from the delivery of the vegetables into the dealer's control, and the dealer shall then directly account to and pay over to the said producer the full amount called for by the agreement.

Expiration and renewal of license; identification cards; contents; return

Sec. 12. (a) Any license issued hereunder will authorize the licensee and none other, to engage in the business as a dealer for one year from date of issuance, at which time said license shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expired by its own terms, may be renewed upon payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of "buying agent" and "transporting agent" identification cards may be issued and credited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued.

(b) Such cards shall bear the name of the licensee, dealer, and the number of his license, also the name of the dealer's agent, and shall state thereon that said licensed dealer, as the principal, has authorized the agent named on the card, the holder thereof, to act for and on behalf of said principal, either as "buying agent" or as "transporting agent" as above defined. "Buying agent" identification cards shall be of a different color from "transporting agent" cards. Such identification cards shall be at all times carried upon the persons of such agents who shall, upon demand, display such cards to the Commissioner or his agents or representatives, or to any person with whom said agent may be transacting business under this Act.

(c) If and when the holder of any identification card ceases to be the agent of the dealer by whom he was employed, it shall be the duty of said agent to return immediately such agent's card to the Commissioner for cancellation, and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Written statement from seller; contents; records

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any dealer, packer, processor or warehouseman to purchase or receive or handle any vegetables without requiring the person from whom such vegetables are purchased or received, to furnish a statement in writing of (a) the owner of such vegetables, (b) the grower of such vegetables, (c) the approximate location of the land where such vegetables were grown, (d) the date such vegetables were gathered, and (e) by whose authority such vegetables were gathered. Such records shall be kept in a permanent book or folder and shall be available to inspection by any interested party.

Investigation of violations; hearings; orders

Sec. 14. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner shall, either upon his own initiative or upon the receipt of a properly verified complaint, to investigate all alleged violations of this Act and for the purpose of making such investigation, he shall have, at all times, free and unimpeded access to all books, records, buildings, yards, warehouses, storage, and transportation and other facilities or places in which any vegetables are kept, stored, handled, processed or transported, and in furtherance of such investigation either the Commissioner in person or through his authorized representatives, may examine any portion of the ledger, books, accounts, memorandum, documents, scales, measures and other matters, objects or persons pertinent to such alleged violation under investigation. The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearing as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the nearest city or town in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Consignment or commission basis; record; contents

Sec. 15. Where any vegetables are handled by any dealer upon a consignment or commission basis, unless otherwise agreed in written contract between the dealer and owner, the dealer shall, upon demand of the seller, or owner, his agent or representative, furnish said owner or seller, his agent or representative, a complete and accurate record showing, among other things, the date of sale, to whom sold, the grade and selling price of said vegetables, together with itemized statement showing what expenses of any kind or character incurred in the sale or handling of said vegetables including the commission, if any, to the dealer, and the failure or refusal of such dealer to furnish such information within ten (10) days after such demand by owner or seller, his agent or representative, shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Contracts guaranteeing producer minimum price; commission or service charges

Sec. 16. If a dealer handles vegetables guaranteeing a producer or owner a minimum price, but at the same time handles the vegetables for the account of the producer or owner, said dealer shall include in his contract with the producer or owner, the maximum amount which he shall charge for commission or service, or both, in connection with said vegetables so handled.

Consignments without price guarantee; settlement on basis of grade and quality; inspection

Sec. 17. All vegetables except those obtained and handled by dealers solely on a consignment basis without any price guarantee shall be settled for by every dealer on the basis of the grade and quality which is referred to in the contract pursuant to which the dealer obtained possession or control of such vegetables, unless such vegetables have been inspected by a State or Federal inspector in the State of Texas and found to be of a different grade or quality than that referred to in said contract, in which event same shall be settled for on the basis of the grade and quality determined by such inspector. But nothing herein shall prevent the parties in lieu of such inspection, from agreeing in writing only that the grade or quality of any of such vegetables was different from that referred to in the contract. Failure of the dealer to settle with a producer or seller on grade and quality in the manner herein provided shall constitute a violation of this Act and be punishable as hereinafter provided, and in addition, shall be cause for revocation of license.

Venue

Sec. 18. The venue of any and all criminal acts and civil suits instituted under the provisions of this Act shall be in the county where the violation occurred or where the vegetables were received by the dealer, packer or warehouseman.

Offenses and violations; fines

Sec. 19. From and after the effective date of this Act any person who shall:

(a) Act as a dealer or handler, or both, without first obtaining a license to act as such dealer or handler, or both;

(b) Act or assume to act as a transporting agent or buying agent, without first obtaining from the Commissioner a license or a buying agent's or transporting agent's card as by the terms and provisions of this Act required, shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and each day upon which any dealer, handler, buying agent, or transporting agent, shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(1) Any buying or transporting agent who ceases to be employed by, or the agent of the dealer or handler to whom such buying agent's or transporting agents' cards were issued and who fails and refuses on the termination of such employment to turn over to the Commissioner of Agriculture the buying or transporting agent's cards issued to such persons shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

(2) Any person who shall act or assume to act as a commission merchant without first filing with the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas the bond as required by this Act, and obtaining a license to act as such commission merchant shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and each day upon which such person shall act or assume to act as such commission merchant shall constitute a separate offense.

(3) Any licensee or any transporting agent or buying agent of any licensee under this Act who shall violate any of the terms and provisions of this Act shall be fined not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Cash dealers; license

Sec. 20. Any person who purchases vegetables only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, and pays therefor prior to or at the time of delivery or taking possession of such vegetables so purchased, in current money of the United States, shall be exempt from giving the bond provided for in this Act and such person shall indicate on his application for license that he desires to operate as a cash buyer, buying only from dealers duly qualified as such under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Section and thereupon such person shall be entitled to a license as a cash dealer, purchasing only from dealers duly qualified under this Act, upon the payment by such applicant of the license fee as required under this Act. Such dealer shall be subject to all the pertinent provisions of this Act. Any violation of this Section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and be punishable, as provided in Section 19 of this Act.

Any producer handling or dealing in his own products exclusively, shall be licensed, upon application, by the Commissioner of Agriculture without charge and without being required to give bond.

Citrus fruit dealers; license and surety bond

Sec. 21. Any person who comes within any of the classifications set out in House Bill No. 99, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature, or any amendments thereto,¹ wherein a surety bond of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is required of him, that classification shall be permitted to have one Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) surety bond to be worded as to guarantee faithful performance of all of the provisions of both House Bill No. 99, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature, as amended, and this Act, and such bond to be in such form as the Commissioner of Agriculture may prescribe, and any person who elects to have one surety bond of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) to guarantee faithful performance under both of said Acts shall be liable for only one license fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25), and his license shall reflect the fact that he is licensed thereby to handle both citrus fruits and vegetables.

Art. 1291a. Abolition of rule in Shelley's case, rule forbidding remainder to grantor's heirs, and doctrine of worthier title

The rules of the common law known as The Rule in Shelley's Case, the Rule Forbidding a Remainder to the Grantor's Heirs, and The Doctrine of Worthier Title are hereby declared to be no longer operative in this State. If, in any deed, will, or other conveyance of real or personal property in this State, an interest is limited, mediately or immediately, to any particular person or persons, or to any such class as the heirs, heirs of the body, issue, or next of kin of the conveyor or of any person to whom a particular interest in the same property is limited, such conveyance shall be given effect according to the intention of the conveyor. No person's claim of right to take or share in such interest as a conveyee shall be affected by such person's status as heir or next of kin of the conveyor. No person shall be denied the right to take or share in such interest as a conveyance merely by reason of the fact that such person is not identified or described in the conveyance otherwise than as a member of a class of persons, howsoever the class may be designated. Subject to the principle that within the limits prescribed by law the intention of the conveyor shall be controlling, the members of any such class of persons as those heretofore mentioned and their participation in the interest limited to the class shall be ascertained in the light of the statutes of this State governing descent and distribution. Art. 1301a. Condominium Act

Title

Section 1. This Act shall be known as the "Condominium Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in the Act unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Property" means and includes the land whether leasehold or in fee simple and the building, all improvements and structures thereon and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto.

(b) "Building" includes the principal structure or structures erected or to be erected upon the land described in the declaration provided for in Section 7 which determines the use to be made of the improved land whether or not such improvement is composed of one (1) or more separate buildings containing one (1) or more floors or stories.

(c) "Condominium Project" means a real estate condominium project; a plan or project whereby four (4) or more apartments, rooms, office spaces, or other units in existing or proposed buildings or structures are offered or proposed to be offered for sale.

(d) "Condominium" means the separate ownership of single units or apartments in a multiple unit structure or structures with common elements.

(e) "Apartment" means an enclosed space consisting of one (1) or more rooms occupying all or part of a floor in a building of one (1) or more floors or stories regardless of whether it be designed for residence, for office, for the operation of any industry business, or for any other type of independent use, provided it has a direct exit to a thoroughfare or to a given common space leading to a thoroughfare.

(f) "Developer" means a person who undertakes to develop a real estate condominium project.

(g) "Master deed" or "Master lease" or "Declaration" means the deed, lease or declaration establishing the property as a condominium regime.

(h) "Co-owner" means a person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trust or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, who owns an apartment or apartments within the condominium project.

(i) "Council of co-owners" means all the co-owners as defined in subsection (h) of this section.

(j) "Majority of co-owners" means the apartment owners with fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the votes weighed so as to coincide with percentages or fractions assigned in the declaration.

(k) "Person" means an individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trust or other legal entity or any combination thereof.

(l) "General common elements" means and includes:

(1) The land, whether leased or in fee simple, on which the building stands;

(2) The foundations, bearing walls and columns, roofs, halls, lobbies, stairways, and entrances and exits or communication ways;

(3) The basements, flat roofs, yard, and gardens, except as otherwise provided or stipulated;

(4) The premises for the lodging of janitors or persons in charge of the building, except as otherwise provided or stipulated;

(5) The compartments or installation of central services such as power, light, gas, cold and hot water, refrigeration, central air condition and central heating, reservoirs, water tanks and pumps, swimming pools, and the like;

(6) The elevators and shafts, garbage incinerators and, in general all devices or installations existing for common use; and

(7) All other elements of the building desirable or rationally of common use or necessary to the existence, upkeep and safety of the condominium regime, and any other elements described in the declaration filed pursuant to Section 7.

(m) "Limited common elements" means and includes those common elements which are agreed upon by all of the co-owners to be reserved for the use of a certain number of apartments to the exclusion of the other apartments, such as special corridors, stairways and elevators, sanitary services common to the apartments of a particular floor, and the like.

(n) "To record" means to record in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the property is situated in accordance with the provisions of Title 115, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(o) All pronouns used herein include the singular or plural numbers, as the case may be.

Condominium regime; declaration

Sec. 3. When a developer, the sole owner, or the co-owners of a building or buildings or proposed building or buildings expressly declares, through the recordation of a master deed, lease, or declaration, which shall set forth the particulars enumerated by Section 7 their desire to submit their property to the regime established by this Act, there shall be thereby established a condominium regime.

Conveyance and encumbrance of individual apartment

Sec. 4. Once the property is submitted to the condominium regime, an apartment in the project may be individually conveyed and encumbered and may be the subject of ownership, possession or sale and of all types of judicial acts, as if it were entirely independent of the other apartments in the project of which they form a part, and the corresponding individual titles and interests shall be recordable.

Joint or common ownership of apartment

Sec. 5. Any apartment may be jointly or commonly owned by more than one person.

Exclusive ownership of apartment; share in common elements of property

Sec. 6. An apartment owner shall have an exclusive ownership to his apartment and shall have a common right to a share, with other co-owners, in the common elements of the property. Each co-owner may use the elements held in common in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended, as shown on the plat or expressed in the declaration or the by-laws, without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other co-owners.

Condominium records; contents of declaration; recordation of instruments

Sec. 7. (A). Every County Clerk shall provide a suitable well-bound book, to be called "Condominium Records" in which will be recorded Master deeds, Master leases, or Declarations.

(B) The declaration provided for in Section 3 shall contain:

(1) The legal description of the land, which description shall be depicted by a plat showing the land involved and the location of each building or proposed building to be located thereon. Each building to be denoted by Letter, viz: A, B, C, etc.

(2) The general description and the number of each apartment, expressing its square footage, location and any other data necessary for its identification, which information will be depicted by a plat of such floor of each building showing also the letter of the building, the number of the floor and the number of the apartment.

(3) The general description of each garage, carport, or any other area to be subject to individual ownership and exclusive control; which information will be depicted by a plat showing such garage, carport, or other area appropriately lettered or numbered.

(4) The description of the general common elements less paragraph (1) above.

(5) The description of the limited common elements.

(6) The fractional or percentage interest which each apartment bears to the entire condominium regime, the sum of which shall be one (1) if expressed in fractions and one hundred (100) if expressed in percentages.

(7) Any further provisions, matters, or covenants desired.

(C) The County Clerk shall record such plats and instruments without the necessity of prior approval by any other authority of whatsoever character.

Common elements; partition or division; mortgages

Sec. 8. The common elements, both general and limited, shall remain undivided and shall not be the object of an action for partition or division of the co-ownership so long as suitable for a condominium regime, and, in any event, all mortgages must be paid prior to the bringing of an action for partition or the consent of all mortgagees must be obtained. Any covenant to the contrary shall be void.

Deed to apartment; contents and interpretation

Sec. 9. The deed to each apartment shall describe the apartment in accordance with the plat and the fractional or percentage therein conveyed and the plats provided in Section 7 shall be included by reference. The deeds shall also express all encumbrances against the property conveyed. An individual apartment shall not be conveyed separate from the undivided interest in the common elements and visa versa, and any conveyance of an individual apartment shall be deemed to convey also the undivided interest of the owner in the common elements, both general and limited, appertaining to said apartment without specifically or particularly referring to the same. The boundaries of the apartment granted shall be and are the interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors, ceilings and the exterior surfaces of balconies and terraces; and the unit includes both the portions of the building so described and the airspace so encompassed, excepting common elements. In interpreting deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust and other instruments, the existing physical boundaries of the apartment or of an apartment reconstructed in substantial accordance with the original plans thereof shall be conclusively presumed to be its boundaries regardless of settling, rising, or lateral movement of the building and regardless of variances between boundaries shown on the plat and those of the building.

Loans as eligible investments for lending institutions

Sec. 10. Loans on the individual apartments and the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto are hereby declared to be eligible investments for all banks, savings and loan or building and loan associations, trust companies, life insurance companies and all other lending institutions which will include also administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, which are now or may be hereafter authorized to make real estate loans. For the purpose of such investments, an apartment and the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto shall be deemed a single unit as if it were entirely independent of the other units in the project of which it forms a part. In determining eligibility the existence of any prior lien for taxes, assessments (including but not limited to those for administration, maintenance and repairs) or other similar charges not yet delinquent shall not be considered in determining whether a mortgage or deed of trust upon such security is a first lien. This section shall not change any provision of law, which would otherwise be applicable, specifying limitation on mortgage investments based upon a special fraction or percentage of the value of the mortgaged property.

Regrouping and merger of estates

Sec. 11. All of the co-owners or the sole owner of a building constituted into a condominium regime may waive this regime and request the County Clerk to regroup or merge the records of the filial estates with the principal property, provided, that the filial estates are unencumbered, or, if encumbered, that the creditors in whose behalf the encumbrances are recorded agree to accept as security the undivided portions of the property owned by the debtors. The undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common elements.

Reconstitution of property into condominium regime

Sec. 12. The merger provided for in Section 11 shall in no way bar the subsequent constitution of the property into another condominium regime whenever so desired and upon observance of the provisions of this Act.

Administration of project; bylaws; council of co-owners

Sec. 13. The administration of every building or buildings constituted into a condominium regime shall be governed by the by-laws approved and adopted by the sole owner or owners or the council of co-owners. The by-laws may be amended from time to time by the council.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Board of administrators; account of receipts and expenditures; examination; audit

Sec. 14. The administrator, or board of administration, or the person appointed by the by-laws of the regime shall keep or cause to be kept a book with a detailed account of the receipts and expenditures affecting the building and its administration and specifying the maintenance and repair expenses of the common elements and any other expenses incurred by or in behalf of the regime. Both the book and vouchers accrediting the entries made thereon shall be available for examination by all the co-owners at convenient hours on working days that shall be set and announced for general knowledge. All books and records shall be kept in accordance with good accounting procedures and be audited at least once a year by an auditor outside of the organization.

Pro-rata contributions of co-owners toward expenses

Sec. 15. All co-owners are bound to contribute pro-rata toward the expense of administration and of maintenance and repairs of the general common elements, and, in the proper case, of the limited common elements of the building, and toward any other expenses lawfully agreed upon by the council of co-owners. No owner shall be exempt from contributing toward such expenses by waiver of the use of enjoyment of the common elements, either general or limited, or by abandonment of the apartment belonging to him.

Actions on behalf of two or more apartment owners

Sec. 16. Without limiting the rights of any apartment owner, action may be brought by the administrator or other person designated by the by-laws or council of co-owners, in either case in the discretion of the council of co-owners, on behalf of two (2) or more of the apartment owners, as their respective interests may appear, with respect to any cause of action relating to the common elements of more than one (1) apartment.

Home exemptions from property taxes

Sec. 17. The laws relating to home exemptions from property taxes shall be applicable to the individual apartments, which shall be entitled to home exemptions in those cases where the owner of a single family dwelling would qualify.

Payment of assessments or charges upon sale or conveyance of apartment; preferences

Sec. 18. Upon the sale or conveyance of an apartment, all unpaid assessments against a co-owner for his pro-rata share in the expenses to which Section 15 refers shall first be paid out of the sale price or by the purchaser in preference over any other assessments or charges of whatever nature except the following:

(a) Assessments, liens, and charges in favor of the state and any political subdivision thereof for taxes past due and unpaid on the apartment; and

(b) Amounts due under mortgage instruments duly recorded.

Insurance

Sec. 19. The co-owners may, upon resolution of a majority, or if required or provided for in the declaration or the by-laws, insure the building and the owners thereof against risks of whatsoever character without prejudice to the right of each co-owner to insure his apartment on his own account and for his own benefit. Such insurance may be written in the name of the council of co-owners, or any person designated in the by-laws or declaration, as trustee for each apartment owner and each apartment owner's mortgagee, if any. Each co-owner and his mortgagee, if any, shall be a beneficiary, even though not named, in the percentages or fractions established in the declaration.

Application of insurance proceeds to reconstruction of building

Sec. 20. In case of fire or any other disaster, the insurance indemnity shall, except as provided in the next succeeding paragraph of this section, be applied to reconstruct the building.

Reconstruction shall not be compulsory where it comprises the whole or more than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the building as determined by the council of co-owners. In such case, and unless otherwise unanimously agreed upon by the co-owners, the indemnity shall be delivered pro-rata to the co-owners or their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, entitled to it in accordance with the percentages or fractions set forth in the declaration.

Should it be proper to proceed with the reconstruction, the provisions for such eventuality made in the by-laws shall be observed, or in lieu thereof, the decision of the council of co-owners shall prevail.

Building costs in excess of insurance proceeds

Sec. 21. Where the insurance indemnity is insufficient to cover the cost of reconstruction and reconstruction is required by Section 20, the building costs in excess of the insurance proceeds shall be paid by all the co-owners directly affected by the damage, in proportion to the percentages or fractions assigned to their respective apartments, or as may be provided by said by-laws; and if any one or more of those composing the minority shall refuse to make such payments the majority may proceed with the reconstruction at the expense of all the co-owners benefited thereby, upon proper resolution setting forth the circumstances of the case and the cost of the work.

The provisions of this section may be changed by unanimous resolution of the parties concerned, adopted subsequent to the date on which the fire or other disaster occurs.

Taxes, assessments and charges; valuation of apartments;
delinquent taxes

Sec. 22. Taxes, assessments and other charges of this state, or of any political subdivision, or of any special improvement district, or any other taxing or assessing authority shall be assessed against and collected on each individual apartment, which shall include the garage and its percentage or fractional common elements, each of which shall be carried on the tax books as a separate and distinct entity for that purpose, and not on the building or property as a whole. The valuation of the general and limited common elements shall be assessed separately to each owner in accordance with the fraction or percentage of each owner. There shall be no forfeiture or sale of the building or property as a whole for delinquent taxes, assessments or charges. All assessments, suits and sales shall be of individual apartments, including its garage and its percentage or fractional common elements.

Planning and zoning commissions; supplemental rules and regulations

Sec. 23. Whenever they deem it proper, the planning and zoning commission of any county or municipality may adopt supplemental rules and regulations governing a condominium regime established under this Act in order to implement this program; however, local zoning ordinances shall be construed to treat like structures, lots, or parcels in like manner regardless of whether the ownership thereof is divided by sale of condominiums rather than by lease of apartments, offices, stores or industry business.

Conflicting laws

Sec. 24. Whenever the application of the provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance conflict with the application of other statutory provisions, the provisions or applications of this Act shall prevail for the effective carrying out of the purposes of this Act.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 25. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word of this Act is held to be unconstitutional, the remaining portion of the same, nevertheless shall be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that the Act would have been enacted without such unconstitutional portion. A. No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation:

(1) Shall contain the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated," or "limited," or shall contain an abbreviation of one (1) of such words, or such corporation shall, for use in this state, add at the end of its name one (1) of such words or an abbreviation thereof.

(2) Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved or registered in the manner provided in this Act; provided that a name may be similar if written consent is obtained from the existing corporation having the name deemed to be similar or the person, or corporation, for whom the name deemed to be similar is reserved or registered in the office of the Secretary of State. In the event that such consent is not given, a certificate of authority shall be issued as provided in this Act to any foreign corporation having a name the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved or registered in accordance with this Act, provided such foreign corporation files an assumed name certificate, setting forth a different name, with the Secretary of State and with county clerks as provided by Article 5924, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and provided further, that no such foreign corporation shall transact or conduct any business in this state except under such assumed name. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 423, ch. 206, § 4; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1310, ch. 500, § 1.

Emergency. Effective June 11, 1963.

Business under assumed name, see Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 5924.

Foreign insurance corporations, see V.A. T.S. Insurance Code, art. 21.43.

TITLE 32—CORPORATIONS

CHAPTER ONE—TEXAS MISCELLANEOUS CORPORATION LAWS ACT

Art.
1302—2.06. Consideration of indebtedness; liability for indebtedness of parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation [New]

Art. 1302—2.06. Consideration for indebtedness; liability for indebtedness of parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation

A. No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall create any indebtedness whatever except for money paid, labor done, which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received, reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, subject to the provisions of Section B below. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for any such indebtedness shall be conclusive. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1184, ch. 469, § 2.

B. (1) Notwithstanding Section A of this Article, any corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall be authorized by express written contract or agreement, to become liable upon, to guarantee, to mortgage, pledge or make itself or its assets responsible for the lawful indebtedness of any subsidiary, parent or affiliated corporation of the corporation acting hereunder, as those terms are defined in this Section B, when such action is approved by the Board of Directors of the acting Corporation.

(2) A "subsidiary corporation" solely for the purpose of this Section B, shall mean a corporation, 100% of the outstanding stock of which, at the time of such action, is owned by the corporation acting hereunder.

(3) A "parent corporation," solely for the purpose of this Section B, shall mean a corporation which owns 100% of the outstanding stock, at the time of such action, of the corporation acting hereunder.

(4) An "affiliated corporation," solely for the purpose of this Section B, shall mean a corporation, 100% of the outstanding stock of which, at the time of such action, is owned by the parent corporation of the corporation acting hereunder.

(5) If, as a result of any action authorized under subsection (1) above, any corporation shall actually pay any indebtedness of any parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation, or any of its assets shall be taken or sold upon execution or other judicial process or foreclosure and the proceeds thereof applied upon indebtedness of a parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation, then in any such event the corporation acting hereunder shall have a cause of action against such parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation for the amount of the indebtedness of said parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation so paid by the corporation acting hereunder or paid out of proceeds of its assets so taken or sold, less credit for any proper offsets to which the parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation is entitled as against the corporation acting hereunder.

(6) Nothing in this Section B is intended or shall be construed to limit or deny to any corporation, domestic or foreign, the right or power to do or perform any action which it is or may be empowered or authorized to do or perform under any other laws of the State of Texas now in force or hereafter enacted. Added 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1184, ch. 469, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 1302—3.02. Educational Corporations

State institutions of higher learning operating atomic energy reactors, liability insurance, see art. 4590g.

Art. 1302—5.04. Authority to Disclose

Banks, disclosure as to amount deposited to third parties, see art. 342—709.

Art. 1302—6.04. Corporation not forbidden to treat registered holder as owner; rights of survivorship

A. Nothing in this part shall be construed as forbidding a corporation;

(1) To recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares.

B. Whenever shares are registered on the books of a corporation in the names of two or more persons as joint owners with the right of survivorship, upon the death of any such joint owner, the surviving joint owner or owners shall have the power to transfer full legal and equitable title to such shares to any person, firm or corporation and may receive any dividends declared upon said shares as if such surviving joint owner or owners were the absolute owners of such shares prior to such time as the corporation receives actual written notice that parties other than such surviving joint owner or owners claim an interest in such shares or dividends, and the corporation permitting such transfer by and paying such dividends to such surviving joint owner or owners prior to the receipt of such written notice from other parties claiming an interest in such shares or dividends shall be discharged from all liability for the transfer or payment so made; provided, however, that the discharge of such corporation from liability and the transfer of full legal and equitable title of the shares shall in no way affect, reduce or limit any cause of action existing in favor of any owner of an interest in such shares or dividends against such surviving joint owner or owners. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1162, ch. 451, § 1.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Distribution to shareholders of cash or property held in suspense, escrow or trust by business organizations or associations, see art. 1358a.

CHAPTER THREE—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art.

1358a. Distribution to shareholders of cash or property held in suspense, escrow or trust [New].

Art. 1348. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1184, ch. 469, § 1. Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment

See, now, art. 1302—2.06.

Art. 1358a. Distribution to shareholders of cash or property held in suspense, escrow or trust [New]

Section 1. This Section shall apply to all distributions of cash or property, tangible or intangible, made or payable, by any corporation, joint stock company or business trust having transferable shares or certificates of beneficial interest, organized under the laws of this state or substantially all of whose capital or assets consisted of property located in this state at the time of organization, to persons registered on its books as the owners of shares or certificates, whether in liquidation or from earnings, profits, assets or capital, and including all such distributions heretofore payable which were not paid to the person registered as the owner of the shares or interest on the records of such organization at the time such distributions were payable, or to the heirs, successors or assigns of such person, but which are now being held in suspense by such organization or which were paid or delivered by it into an escrow account or to a trustee or custodian. All such distributions or the avails thereof shall, subject to the provisions of this Section, be payable by such organization, escrow agent, trustee or custodian to such registered person, his heirs, successors or assigns, from and after the effective date of this Act. The person in whose name such shares or certificates are or were registered on the records of any such organization at the time such distributions are or were payable shall be presumed to be or to have been the owner of the shares or certificates so registered in his name at that time, and this presumption shall be rebuttable only by proof of an actual transfer having been made by such registered owner prior to that time to some known and identifiable person or persons. No such organization nor its trustees, officers, directors, or agents shall be under any liability whatever for making such distributions to a person in whose name shares or certificates were registered on its records at the time such distribution was payable to such person, or to the heirs, successors or assigns of such person, even though such person, or his heirs, successors or assigns, may not have a certificate for shares or of beneficial interest in his or their possession, unless, prior to the date any such distribution is or was payable, written notice shall have been given to such organization by a third party that he is the true beneficial owner of the shares or interest registered on its books in the name of another, and such person shall, thereafter, supply such organization with satisfactory proof of his ownership or, in the absence of such proof, shall thereafter establish by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that he is the unregistered owner of such shares or interest entitled to receive such distribution thereon.

Any claim that may be asserted under the provisions hereof by any person, other than the person in whose name the transferable shares or interest were registered on the records of such organization at the time such distribution was payable, for any such distribution on shares of or beneficial interest in such organization shall not be enforceable against such organization, its trustees, officers, directors, or agents, or against the person, his heirs, successors or assigns, in whose name the shares or interest were registered and to whom distribution was made, except by a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction commenced within four years from the time that such distribution was originally payable by such organization establishing by a final judgment that the claimant was entitled to receive such distribution, provided that as to any aforesaid cause of action heretofore accrued, the limitation period applicable thereto shall be either one year from the effective date of this Act or four years from the time such distribution was originally payable, whichever is longer. CHAPTER TEN—PUBLIC UTILITIES

Art. 1440. Deposit for installing service

Every person, firm, company, corporation, receiver or trustee engaged in the furnishing of water, light, gas or telephone service which requires the payment on the part of the user of such service a deposit of money as a condition precedent to furnishing the same, shall pay six per cent (6%) interest per annum on such deposit to the one making same, or to his heirs or assigns, from the time of such deposit, the same to be paid annually on demand or sooner if such service be discontinued. When such service is discontinued, such deposit, together with any unpaid interest thereon, or such part of such deposit and unpaid interest, not consumed in bills due for such service, shall be returned to such depositor, his heirs or legal representatives. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 50, ch. 32, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN—MISCELLANEOUS

Art.
1528d. Automobile Club Services Act
[New].

Art. 1528d. Automobile Club Services Act

Short title

Section 1. This Act shall be known and cited as the Automobile Club Services Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) "Automobile Club" shall mean any person who in consideration of dues, assessments, or periodic payments of money, promises its members or subscribers to assist them in matters relating to travel and the operation, use or maintenance of a motor vehicle in the supplying of services which by way of illustration and not by way of limitation may include such services as community traffic safety service, travel and touring service, theft or reward service, map service, towing service, emergency road service, bail bond service and legal fee reimbursement service in the defense of traffic offenses, and the purchase of accidental injury and death benefits insurance coverage from a duly authorized insurance company.

(b) "Person" shall mean any person, firm, partnership, corporation or association which conducts an Automobile Club Service business in this State.

Certificate of authority required

Sec. 3. From and after the effective date of this Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of an Automobile Club as herein defined, without having first met the requirements and obtained a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State as hereinafter provided for. The Secretary of State shall promulgate, prescribe and furnish such forms as may be necessary for any applicant to meet the requirements of this Act and shall furnish such forms, upon request, to those applicants requesting such forms; provided, however, nothing herein shall relieve any Automobile Club from the obligation to furnish services under such contracts or membership agreements that have been entered into prior to the effective date of this Act.

Application for certificate of authority and deposit of security

Sec. 4. The application for a certificate of authority as an Automobile Club to be filed with the Secretary of State shall be in such form and detail as the Secretary of State may require and shall be executed under oath by such Club's president or other principal officer and there shall be filed with the application the following:

(a) If such Club is a corporation, a certificate from the Secretary of State that it has complied with the corporation laws of this State.

(b) If not incorporated, a list of all persons owning an interest in the Automobile Club, the officers thereof and the parties to any operating agreement or management agreement affecting the Automobile Club together with a copy of any such agreement.

(c) The first year's annual license fee in the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100) shall accompany such application.

(d) Proof of security having been deposited with the State or pledged by the Club in such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe in any of the following ways: The sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in cash or Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in securities approved by the Secretary of State or in lieu thereof, a bond in such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe in the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) to the State of Texas and executed by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the State of Texas and conditioned upon the faithful performance in the selling or rendering of Automobile Club service and payment of any fines or penalties levied against it for failure to comply with the provisions of this Act; provided however, that the aggregate liability of the surety for all breaches of the conditions of the bond and for the payment of all fines and penalties shall, in no event, exceed the amount of said bond.

Upon filing of the application, certificates or security as above provided for, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State within fifteen (15) days thereafter to issue or deny a certificate of authority to said Automobile Club. Failure of the Secretary of State to issue such certificate within said fifteen (15) day period shall entitle the applicant to a refund of all moneys and security deposited with the application.

The deposit herein provided for shall thereafter be maintained so long as said Club shall have outstanding any liability or obligation in this State. Upon proper showing, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, that the Club has ceased to do business and that all liabilities and obligations of the Club have been satisfied, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to return the security to the Club or to deliver the security in accordance with any order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Certificate of authority—annual renewal required

Sec. 5. Every certificate of authority issued hereunder shall expire annually on August 31, of each year unless sooner revoked or suspended as hereinafter provided and application for renewal of such certificate of authority shall be filed upon such forms as are provided by the Secretary of State and shall contain such information as the Secretary of State may prescribe. The annual license fee for renewal of such certificate of authority shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100).

Registration of salesmen or agents

Sec. 6. Each and every Automobile Club operating in this State pursuant to a certificate of authority issued hereunder shall within thirty (30) days of the date of employment, file with the Secretary of State a notice of appointment of salesmen or agents by an Automobile Club to sell memberships in the Automobile Club to the public. This notification shall be upon such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe and shall contain the name, address, age, sex and social security number of such salesman or agent, and also contain proof satisfactory to the Secretary of State that such applicant is of good moral character. Upon termination of any salesman's or agent's employment by an Automobile Club, such Automobile Club shall within thirty (30) days thereafter notify the Secretary of State of such termination. The registration fee for salesmen or agents of Automobile Clubs shall be Three Dollars ($3) annually and shall be renewed each twelve (12) months after its issuance.

Revocation or suspension of certificate

Sec. 7. If the Secretary of State at any time for good cause shown, and after public hearing, shall determine that an Automobile Club has violated a provision of this Act, that it is not operating an Automobile Club as defined herein, that it is insolvent, that its assets are less than its liabilities, that it refuses to submit to an examination by the Secretary of State, that it is transacting business fraudulently, or that any owner, officer or operating manager is not of good moral character, he shall thereupon revoke or suspend its certificate of authority and shall give notice thereof to the public in such manner as he shall deem proper; provided however, that any person aggrieved by any decision of the Secretary of State shall have the right to appeal such decision to the District Court in the county of the aggrieved person's residence within sixty (60) days after the date of notice by registered mail of such decision but not thereafter.

Advertising limitation—exemptions

Sec. 8. (a) Automobile Clubs operating hereunder shall make no reference to their certificate of authority or approval from the Secretary of State in any advertising, circular, contract or membership card nor shall such Automobile Clubs advertise or describe their services in such a manner as would lead the public to believe such services include automobile insurance.

(b) All Automobile Clubs operating pursuant to a certificate of authority issued hereunder shall be exempt from the operation of all insurance laws of this State, except that accidental injury and death benefits furnished members of such Automobile Clubs shall be covered under a group policy issued to the Automobile Club for the benefit of its members and such policy shall be issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this State. Any such group policy issued to the Automobile Club shall be evidenced to the membership of said Club by a certificate of participation in said group policy that shall state on the face of said certificate in at least fourteen-point black bold-face type that the certificate is only a "certificate of participation in an accidental injury and death group policy and is not automobile liability insurance coverage."

Members to be furnished description of services

Sec. 9. Every Automobile Club operating under the provisions of this Act shall furnish to its members a service contract or membership card together with the following information:

(a) The exact name of the Automobile Club.

(b) The exact location of the Automobile Club's home office, and of its usual place of business in this State, giving street, number and city.

(c) A description of the services or benefits to which the member is entitled.

(d) The completed application and the description of services shall constitute the service contract.

Secretary of State to be furnished service contract

Sec. 10. Every Automobile Club operating under the provisions of this Act shall furnish to the Secretary of State a certified copy of the service contract and if said Club provides participation in a group accidental injury or death policy, then a copy of the certificate of participation furnished the member shall be filed with the certified copy of the service contract together with the following information:

(a) The exact name of the Automobile Club.

(b) The exact location of the Automobile Club's home office, and of its usual place of business in this State, giving street, number and city.

(c) Any change, addition or supplement to the service contract, change of office location or change of name shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Fees

Sec. 11. All fees collected hereunder by the Secretary of State shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Solicitation for unauthorized Automobile Clubs prohibited

Sec. 12. No person shall solicit, or aid in the solicitation of, another person to purchase a service contract or membership issued by an Automobile Club not holding a valid certificate of authority under the terms of this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 13. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months.

Severability clause

Sec. 14. If any word, phrase, sentence or provision of this Act is determined to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this Act and they shall be given effect without the invalid provision, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Effective date

Sec. 15. This Act shall become effective from and after September 1, 1963. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 678, ch. 250.

Effective Sept. 1, 1963.

Motor vehicle or automobile insurance, see V.A.T.S. Insurance Code, art. 5.01 et seq.

CHAPTER THREE—CORPORATE RIGHTS AND POWERS

Art.
 1581d—1. Airstrips; counties of 17,650 to 17,700 [New].

Art. 1581d—1. Airstrips; counties of 17,650 to 17,700

Section 1. This Act shall apply in any county having a population of not less than seventeen thousand, six hundred and fifty (17,650) nor more than seventeen thousand, seven hundred (17,700) according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act, the term "airstrip" means any area of land or water used, or intended for use, for the landing and take-off of aircraft, and any appurtenant area used, or intended for use, for airport buildings, or other airport facilities, or rights-of-way.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court, in any county to which this Act applies, may authorize the use of equipment, machinery, and employees of the county to construct, establish, and maintain any public airstrip in such county. The cost of the use of equipment, machinery, and employees of the county as herein authorized shall be financed out of appropriate county funds. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 823, ch. 313.

CHAPTER FIVE—COUNTY SEATS

Art. 1605a. Branch office buildings in counties having city of 20,000 outside county seat

Sec. 2. Said office building and/or jail may be provided for, maintained and repaired by the issuance of bonds as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, and all amendments thereto, or to provide, maintain, and repair the same through the issuance of evidences of indebtedness in the same manner as courthouses and jails at the county seats, and the taxes may be levied therefor in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as for courthouses and jails at the county seat; provided, however, that no such office building and/or jail shall cost more than Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000). As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 12, ch. 10, § 1.

Emergency. Effective March 7, 1963.

TITLE 34—COUNTY FINANCES

Art. 1650. [1464-5-6] Organization

The county auditor of any county of this state may, at any time, with the consent of the district judge or district judges having jurisdiction as hereinafter provided, appoint a first assistant and other assistants who shall be authorized to discharge such duties as may be assigned to them by the county auditor and provided for by law. In counties where only one assistant is appointed, such assistant shall be authorized to act for the county auditor during his absence or unavoidable detention with respect to such duties as are required by law of the county auditor. In counties in which more than one assistant shall be appointed, the county auditor may designate the assistant who shall be authorized to act for him during his absence or unavoidable detention. All of said assistants shall take the usual oath of office for faithful performance of duty and may be required to give such bond as the county auditor may determine, which bond shall be paid for by the county and shall run in favor of the county and of the county auditor as their interest may appear.

The county auditor shall prepare a list of the number of deputies sought to be appointed, their duties, qualifications and experience, and the salaries to be paid each, and shall certify the list to the district judge, or in the event of more than one district judge in the county, to the district judges, and the district judge or the district judges shall then carefully consider the application for the appointment of said assistants and may make all necessary inquiries concerning the qualifications of the persons named, the positions sought to be filled and the reasonableness of the salaries requested, and if, after such consideration, the district judge, or in the event of more than one district judge, a majority of the district judges shall approve the appointments sought to be made or any number thereof, he or they shall prepare a list of the appointees so approved and the salaries to be paid each and certify said list to the Commissioners Court of said county. The Commissioners Court shall thereupon order the amount paid from the general fund of said county upon the performance of the services; and said court shall appropriate adequate funds for the purpose; provided that the total number of assistants allowed to any county under this Article shall not exceed two (2) assistants in counties having less than fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants, one (1) assistant in counties having not less than fifty-three thousand, nine hundred and thirty-six (53,936), and not more than fifty-four thousand (54,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, four (4) assistants in counties having between fifty thousand (50,000) and one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants, six (6) assistants in counties having between one hundred thousand (100,000) and one hundred and forty thousand (140,000) inhabitants, ten (10) assistants in counties having between one hundred and forty thousand (140,000) and two hundred and seventy-five thousand (275,000) inhabitants, and fifteen (15) assistants in counties having more than two hundred and seventy-five thousand (275,000) inhabitants, in each instance according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census, exclusive in each instance of the first assistant, and such temporary assistants as may be needed in cases of bona fide emergencies, the number of such temporary assistants, their salaries and the duration of employment to be recommended by the county auditor but to be determined by the district judge or by a majority of the district judges as the occasion may require, provided in counties having three hundred and thirty thousand (330,000) inhabitants or more according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census in like manner the judges of the district courts may authorize the appointment of additional regular assistants when in their judgment a necessity exists therefor. The county auditor shall have the right to discontinue the services of any assistant employed in accordance with the provisions of this Article, but no assistant shall be employed except in the manner herein provided. The district judge or district judges giving consent to the auditor to appoint an assistant or assistants shall annually have the right to withdraw such consent, and change the number of assistants permitted.

The county auditor shall be authorized to provide himself with all necessary ledgers, books, records, blanks, stationery, equipment, telephone and postage at the county's expense, but all purchases thereof shall be made in the manner provided for by law. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1148, ch. 445, § 1.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Audit of records of funds handled by departments of education in counties of 1,200,000 or more, see art. 2919g-1.

Art. 1659. [1480] Bids for material

Supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the Commissioners Court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. The county auditor shall advertise for a period of two (2) weeks in at least one daily newspaper, published and circulated in the county, for such supplies and material according to specifications, giving in detail what is needed. Such advertisements shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give the time and place for receiving such bids. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by any one desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the county auditor to the county judge and to the Commissioners Court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the said judge or county commissioners, the auditor shall reject said bids and readvertise for new bids. In cases of emergency, purchases not in excess of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) may be made upon requisition to be approved by the Commissioners Court without advertising for competitive bids. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 115, ch. 66, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

TITLE 35—COUNTY LIBRARIES

Art. 1689. Funds for library

All funds of the county free library shall be in the custody of the county treasurer, or other county official, who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to the county treasurer. They shall constitute a separate fund to be known as the county free library fund, and shall not be used except for library purposes. The Commissioners Court may contract with privately-owned libraries which serve areas within the county not adequately served by the county free library to provide county free library services in such areas, and may require by such contract that such library submit to such reasonable regulation as is required of governmental libraries. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg. p. 750, ch. 284, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

TITLE 37—COURT—SUPREME

CHAPTER THREE—TERMS AND JURISDICTION

Art. 1738. [1587] Transfer of causes

The Supreme Court may, at any time, order cases transferred from one Court of Civil Appeals to another, when, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, there is good cause for such transfer. And the Courts of Civil Appeals to which such cases shall be transferred shall have jurisdiction over all such cases so transferred, without regard to the District in which the cases were originally tried and returnable upon appeal. Provided that the Justices of the Court to which such cases are transferred shall, after due notice to the parties or their counsel, hear oral argument on such cases at the place from which the cases have been originally transferred. Provided further, that there shall be but one sitting for oral argument at the place from which cases are transferred for each equalization, and all cases so transferred at any one equalization must be orally argued at such sitting, or at the regular place of sitting of the Court to which said cases are transferred. All opinions, orders and decisions in such transferred cases shall be delivered, entered and rendered at the place where the Court to which such cases are transferred regularly sits as the law provides. The actual and necessary travelling and living expenses of the Justices of said Courts in hearing oral arguments at the place from which such cases are transferred shall be borne by the state, and for payment thereof the Legislature shall make appropriation. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 10, ch. 8, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

TITLE 40—COURTS—DISTRICT

CHAPTER TWO—DISTRICT CLERK

Art. 1903. 1703, 1096 Joint clerk; separation of county and district clerk offices; election

In counties having a population of less than eight thousand (8,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, there shall be elected a single clerk who shall perform the duties of the district clerk and the county clerk, unless a majority of the qualified voters of the county who participate in a special election, called by the Commissioners Court for that purpose, vote to keep the offices of county and district clerk separate. The Commissioners Court may submit to the qualified voters of such counties, at an election held at least thirty (30) days before any regular primary election immediately preceding the expiration of the constitutional term of office of said clerk, the question of whether the offices of district and county clerk shall be separate or joint. The same question may again be submitted immediately prior to the expiration of each subsequent constitutional term of office of the separate clerk. Notice of such special election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least twenty (20) days prior to such election. No special election as provided herein shall prevent any county clerk, district clerk or joint clerk from serving the full term of office to which he was elected. As amended Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 159, ch. 54, § 1.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 16, 1962.

ACTS CREATING COUNTY COURTS AT LAW AND SIMILAR COURTS, AND AFFECTING PARTICULAR COUNTY COURTS, AND DECISIONS THEREUNDER

DALLAS COUNTY AT LAW NOS. 3 AND 4

Art. 1970—31.1. County Courts of Dallas County at Law Nos. 3 and 4

Section 1. There are hereby created two (2) County Courts to be held in Dallas County, Texas, to be known as and designated as "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3" and "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4," and the seal of said Courts shall be the same as provided by law for County Courts except the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3" and "County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4."

Sec. 2. The Courts hereby created shall have exclusive, concurrent civil jurisdiction of all cases, original and appellate, over which by the laws of the State of Texas the existing County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 have original and appellate jurisdiction; in addition thereto, it is hereby specifically provided that the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3, and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall have concurrent and coextensive and equal jurisdiction over all civil, administrative and ministerial acts and over the filing and disposition of all proceedings in eminent domain matters; provided that the Judge of any County Court at Law of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of any other County Court at Law of Dallas County when such Judge is unavailable for the performing of any of the administrative acts in connection with eminent domain proceedings, but the performing of the same shall not transfer the cause or proceedings from the Court for which the act was performed; provided all civil cases appealed from the several Justice Courts of Dallas County shall be by the County Clerk filed in the several County Courts of Dallas County at Law consecutively as said appealed cases are received by said Clerk from the several Justices of the Peace in said County, except in cases wherein the Judge of either of said County Courts at Law has granted a writ of certiorari, in which case the same shall be docketed in the Court so granting said writ and shall not be transferred from said Court.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be known and designated as the "C" Court and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be known and designated as the "D" Court. The County Clerk shall number consecutively all cases filed in the County Courts of Dallas County at Law affixing immediately following the number of all cases the letter A, B, C or D, according to which County Court at Law of Dallas County said case is assigned, and each case so filed shall be filed in rotation in each of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law with the letter designation being used to denote the Court in which the case is filed. The Judge of either of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law shall have the power to transfer to any of the other of said Courts any case pending upon the docket of said Court except where a writ of certiorari has been granted; provided that such cases so transferred shall be for the purpose of equalizing the dockets of each of said County Courts of Dallas County at Law and each of the Judges of said Courts shall together at least once a year, transfer cases from one to the other in order to equalize said dockets.

Sec. 4. All of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law and the respective Judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs and processes necessary to the enforcement of their jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. The terms of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4 shall be held six (6) times each year on the first Monday in February, April, June, August, October and December, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of.

Sec. 6. The Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4, shall be a licensed attorney in this State and informed in the laws of the State, who shall have resided in and actively engaged in the practice of law in Dallas County for a period of not less than four (4) years prior to the general election, and such Judge shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall be duly qualified. The Judges of said Courts shall receive the same salary now provided by law or hereafter provided by law to be paid to the Judges of other County Courts of Dallas County at Law. As soon as possible after the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Dallas County shall appoint a Judge to each of said Courts to function on the same date, who shall hold office until January 1st following the next general election or until his successor shall be duly qualified. The successor shall hold office for a period of four (4) years.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Judges of the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 to immediately transfer from their dockets one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the civil cases pending upon said dockets to the Courts hereby created, which shall be done by beginning with the oldest case pending upon the docket of said Courts and transferring every second case without reference to whether any particular case be pending upon the jury or nonjury docket of said Courts.

Sec. 8. In case of disqualification, an overcrowded docket, sickness or absence from the County of any of the Judges of the County Courts of Dallas County at Law Number 1, Number 2, Number 3 or Number 4, any other Judge of said Courts may exchange benches with said Judge, and when so exchanging benches with any of the other Judges of the County Courts at Law shall have all of the power and jurisdiction of the Court and Judge for whom he is sitting while so exchanging benches, and may sign orders, judgments and decrees or other process of any kind as "Judge Presiding" when acting for such disqualified or absent Judge upon request, or in an emergency without request, or for any other good cause shown. This shall be in addition to the provisions hereinabove made for performing administrative matters for each other.

Sec. 9. Except as herein otherwise provided, all laws applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2 shall be applicable to County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 3 and County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 4. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 720, ch. 263.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

DALLAS COUNTY PROBATE COURT NO. 2

Art. 1970—31b. Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County

Section 1. There is hereby created a County Court to be held in and for Dallas County to be called the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County.

Sec. 2. Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall have the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court within the limits of Dallas County concurrent with the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Dallas County and of the County Court of Dallas County in such matters and proceedings. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and administrative, settle accounts of executor, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, lunacy proceedings and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court under the jurisdiction of the County Judge and of the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and by order entered on the minutes of the County Court of Dallas County and of the Probate Court of Dallas County such number of such proceedings and matters then pending in the Probate Court of Dallas County and in the County Court of Dallas County as will equalize the number of such cases pending on the dockets of each of said three (3) Courts, and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of said Probate Court of Dallas County and said County Court of Dallas County in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County as though originally issued therefrom. All such new matters and proceedings filed on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Dallas County irrespective of the Courts or Judge to which the matter or proceeding is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk in rotation in said respective Courts in the order in which the same are deposited with him for filing.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Dallas County shall retain as heretofore the powers and jurisdiction of said Court existing at the time of the passage of this Act and shall exercise its own powers and jurisdiction as a Probate Court with respect to all matters and proceedings of such nature other than those provided hereinabove to be transferred to and filed in the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The County Judge of Dallas County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Dallas County and all ex officio duties of the County Judge of Dallas County as they now exist shall be exercised by the County Judge of Dallas County except insofar as the same shall have been committed heretofore to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County, or as the same shall by this Act expressly be committed to the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as in anywise impairing or affecting the jurisdiction of the County Court of Dallas County, the Probate Court of Dallas County, the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 1 or the County Court of Dallas County at Law Number 2, or any other County Court of Dallas County at Law heretofore or hereafter created.

Sec. 5. There shall be two (2) terms of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County in each year and the first term shall be known as the January-June term, which shall begin on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July, and the second of such terms shall be known as the July-December term and shall begin on the first Monday in July and continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January. The initial term of said Court shall begin on the first Monday after the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 6. There shall be elected in said County by the qualified voters thereof at the general election for a term of two (2) years and until his successor shall have been duly qualified, a Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County who shall be well-informed on the laws of the State and shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) consecutive years prior to his election. A Judge of said Court shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County as soon as may be possible after the passage of this Act, who shall hold office from the date of his appointment until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the laws relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County by appointment of a Judge of said Court who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, the County Judge of Dallas County shall sit and act as Judge of said Court and may hear and determine either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said Court any matter or proceeding there pending and may enter such orders in such matters or proceedings as the Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County and the Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may sit for the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County on any matters or proceedings pending in either of said Courts. In the case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the County Judge of Dallas County, the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County and the Judge of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County, a special Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County may be appointed or elected as provided by the General Laws relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof.

Sec. 11. The County Clerk of Dallas County shall be the Clerk of Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. The seal of such Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County." The Sheriff of Dallas County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 12. The Judge of the Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County shall collect the same fees as are now or hereafter established by law relating to County Judges as to matters within the jurisdiction of said Court, all of which shall be paid by him into the County Treasury as collected and from after the date of his qualification as Judge of said Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County he shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by order of the Commissioners Court of Dallas County which shall be the same salary as that paid to the Judge of the Probate Court of Dallas County.

Sec. 13. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. All other laws applicable to the Probate Court of Dallas County shall be applicable to Probate Court Number 2 of Dallas County. As to all other laws and parts of laws this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 13a. Regardless of any provisions of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the provisions of this Act shall not become effective until January 1, 1965. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 723, ch. 265.

Effective Jan. 1, 1965.

TARRANT COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT NO. 3

Art. 1970—62c. County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County

Section 1. There is hereby created a county court to be held in and for Tarrant County, Texas, to be called the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have, and same is hereby vested with, the sole jurisdiction within said County of all appeals from criminal convictions had under the laws of the State of Texas and the municipal ordinances of the municipalities located in Tarrant County, Texas, in Justice Courts, Corporation Courts and other municipal Courts in said County, and the said County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have, and same is hereby vested with, concurrent jurisdiction within said County of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, that are now vested in the county courts having jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases under the Constitution and laws of Texas, except as provided in Section 4 of this Act.

Sec. 3. On the first day of the initial term of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, there shall be transferred to the docket of said Court, under the direction of the judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the Judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and by order entered on the minutes of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, all of such appeals from convictions had under the laws of the State of Texas and the municipal ordinances of the municipalities located in Tarrant County, Texas, in Justice Courts, Corporation Courts and other municipal Courts in said County, now pending in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas; and all writs and processes theretofore issued by or out of the said Courts in such matters or proceedings shall be returnable to the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, as though originally issued therefrom. All such new appeals from convictions had under the laws of the State of Texas and ordinances of the municipalities located in Tarrant County, Texas, in Justice Courts, Corporation Courts and other municipal Courts in said County, filed on said day or thereafter filed with the County Clerk of Tarrant County, irrespective of the Court or judge to which said appeal is addressed, shall be filed by said Clerk in the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 4. The County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall retain, as heretofore, its jurisdiction as a juvenile court and its general jurisdiction as a probate court. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and habitual drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians, and transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of the estates of deceased persons and the apprenticing of minors as provided by law. The county judge of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be judge of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of said County Court except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and except such as have heretofore been conferred upon the judge of the County Court at Law of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 5. The County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and grant injunctions for the enforcement of the penal laws in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court or any court or tribunal inferior to said Court, and shall also have power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by the General Law governing County Courts throughout the State.

Sec. 6. The terms of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the County Courts. The terms of said County Criminal Court No. 3 shall be held not less than four (4) times each year, and the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall fix the time at which said Court shall hold its terms until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 7. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, in accordance with the law, a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 hereby created, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall have duly qualified. At the next General Election there shall be elected a judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 who shall hold office for the unexpired term. The judges of said Court elected at the General Election in 1966 and thereafter shall hold office for four (4) years and until their successors shall have duly qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for judge of said Court unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a Court in said State for four (4) years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the County of Tarrant for two (2) years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 8. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 9. A special judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to County Courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 10. The County Clerk of Tarrant County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas. The seal of said Court shall be the same as provided for County Courts except that the seal shall contain the words "The County Criminal Court No. 3, Tarrant County, Texas." The sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said Court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 11. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said Court shall receive a salary of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) per annum, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners Court; such judge shall not engage in the practice of law while in office.

Sec. 12. The judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 13. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the Court, jury and parties, the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the Court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court; the provisions of the General Laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to, apply in all its provisions insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and he shall also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided that the official shorthand reporter of said Court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the judge demands it, but where the testimony is taken by said reporter, a fee of Three Dollars ($3) shall be taken by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3), when collected, shall be paid into the County Treasury of Tarrant County, Texas.

Sec. 14. As soon as may be after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the clerk of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, may transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, hereby created, any of the criminal cases then pending in the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and thereafter the judge of either of said Courts may, in his discretion, transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his Court to the other Courts by an order or orders entered in the minutes of his Court, and the judge of the Court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally instituted in said Court.

Sec. 15. The judge of the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, and the judge of the County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County, Texas, may, in their discretion, exchange benches and sit and hear cases in the Court in which the case or proceeding is then pending, and try or otherwise dispose of same.

Sec. 16. The County Criminal Court of Tarrant County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, Texas, shall hereafter be referred to and known as the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County, and the County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County, respectively and all references in this Act or existing laws to the County Criminal Court of Tarrant County or the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County shall, hereafter, refer to the County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County and County Criminal Court No. 2 of Tarrant County respectively.

Sec. 17. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. As to all other laws and parts of laws, this Act shall be cumulative.

Sec. 18. If any Section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word contained in this Act shall be held unconstitutional by the Courts of this State, the invalidity of such portion of the Act shall not be construed to affect any other part of the Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 682, ch. 251.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

HARRIS COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT AT LAW NO. 4

Art. 1970—110c.1. County Criminal Court at Law No. 4

Section 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now or may be vested in county courts having jurisdiction in criminal actions and proceedings under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all appeals in criminal cases from justice courts and corporation courts within Harris County, and the Judges of said Court shall have the same powers, rights, and privileges as to criminal matters as are or may be vested in the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided that said Court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters which are now vested exclusively in the County Court of Harris County, or in the Judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The Judge of the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 shall be elected at the General Election by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State for not less than five (5) years; and he shall be compensated as provided by law, and shall be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court in equal monthly installments; but such Judge shall not collect any fee from the county for disposing of any criminal case, as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas. Said Court or the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction. When this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Harris County shall appoint a Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and shall serve until the next General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the Judge of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding General Election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. The Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such Court, who shall be well skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the Law relating to "Official Court Reporters" shall and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation as applicable to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Harris County, Texas, paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of the District Courts of Harris County is paid.

Sec. 5. The District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, shall act as and be the clerk of said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas. The District Clerk shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 6. The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said Court when required by the Judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said Court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts.

Sec. 7. The seal of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 8. A special Judge of said Court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by law relating to county courts and judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The terms of the Court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February, and April of each year. The sessions of said Court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County.

Sec. 10. When this Act becomes effective, the District Clerk of Harris County, Texas, in order to provide a docket for this Court, shall file the first one hundred (100) cases to be filed, in the said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and beginning with the 101st case to be filed, such case shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 1, and the 102nd case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 2, and the 103rd case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 and the 104th case to be filed shall be filed in County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and so on in rotation so thereafter of every four (4) cases filed, each of the Courts, County Criminal Court at Law No. 1, County Criminal Court at Law No. 2, County Criminal Court at Law No. 3, and County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 shall each receive one (1) case: further, immediately on the effective date of this Act every case having numbers ending with 0 and every case having numbers ending with 5 pending on the dockets of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County shall be at once transferred to and docketed in the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, by the District Clerk and jurisdiction of such cases so transferred is hereby conferred upon the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, may exchange benches with the Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, in the same manner that the Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, are authorized to exchange benches under the provisions of Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 144, Chapter 16¹ and Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 143, Chapter 24,² Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, 1929. The Judges of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas, may transfer criminal causes between said courts by entry of an order on the docket of the Court from which the cause is transferred, provided that no cause shall be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which transferred.

Sec. 12. The practice in said County Criminal Court at Law No. 4, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts.

Sec. 13. All process issued out of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, and the County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County, Texas, prior to the time when the clerks thereof shall transfer cases from the dockets of said Courts, as provided in Section 10 of this Act, in cases transferred as therein provided, shall be returned to and filed in the Court hereby created, and shall be equally as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such process had been issued out of the County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County, Texas. Likewise, in cases transferred to any one of the County Criminal Courts at Law by order of the Judge of one of said Courts as provided in Section 11 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the Court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the Court to which such transfer may be made. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 155, ch. 95.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

JEFFERSON COUNTY AT LAW

Art. 1970—113. Jurisdiction of other courts

The County Court of Jefferson County shall retain, as heretofore, general jurisdiction of the probate court, and all jurisdiction conferred by law now over probate matters, and the judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law may act for the judge of the county court in any juvenile, lunacy or probate matter, and also may perform for the county judge any and all ministerial acts required by the laws of this state of the county judge, and any and all acts thus performed by the judge of the County Court at Law while acting for the county court shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such proceedings or matters, the same as if performed by the county judge, provided that the powers thus given the judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall extend to and include all powers of the county judge except his powers and duties in connection with the transaction of the business of the county as presiding officer of the Commissioners Court, and the County Court of Jefferson County as now and heretofore existing shall have all the jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law by this Act, but the county court as now existing shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The county judge of Jefferson County shall be judge of the county court for the county, and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by said judge of the County Court of Jefferson County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act be committed to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to require that the County Judge of Jefferson County shall be an attorney. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 472, ch. 169, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 1970—122. Salary of judge; assessment and collection of fees

The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall receive a salary of not more than Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($16,500) per annum, which shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments out of the County Treasury of Jefferson County as fixed and ordered by the Commissioners Court of said county. The judge of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed by law relating to county judges fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and paid into the county treasury on collection and no part of which shall be paid to said judge, who shall instead draw a salary as herein provided. mentis, and common drunkards; grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, and to hear and determine all matters affecting juvenile offenders as now provided by law and to hear and determine all matters affecting minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters relating to or arising out of the granting or revoking of liquor licenses, and all matters appertaining thereto, and to apprentice minors. The County Judge of Bexar County shall be the Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, and shall be the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court; all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by the said Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, or otherwise by law, have been committed to the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas. The County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judge thereof shall have and retain the same jurisdiction, powers, duties, fees and perquisites of office as are conferred on said County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, at and before the passage and taking effect of this Act, and this Act shall in no wise affect the said County Court or the Judge thereof except as provided herein.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act, all actions, cases, matters or proceedings of eminent domain arising under Title 52, Articles 3264 to 3271, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, or under the provisions of House Bill No. 77, Chapter 423, pages 1128 to 1130, inclusive, Acts, 1955, Regular Session, now codified as Article 6674-n of Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas or otherwise, as well as all proceedings instituted under the provisions of the Acts, 1957, Fifty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 243, pages 505, et seq., now codified as Article 5547-1, et seq., Title 92, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and known and cited as the Texas Mental Health Code, and all amendments thereto, shall be filed and docketed in the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same circumstances and conditions as now obtain for the filing of such actions, proceedings and matters of a civil nature or character in the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, or with the County Judge, and all such actions, cases, matters or proceedings shall be docketed in the order in which filed in said Court, or in such other manner as may be determined by the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. From and after the passage and taking effect of this Act all other civil actions, matters and proceedings over which the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, is granted jurisdiction by this Act may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner and under the same conditions, circumstances and instances as now obtain for the filing of civil actions, matters and proceedings in the County Court at Law No. 1, the County Court at Law No. 2, and the County Court at Law No. 3, all of Bexar County, Texas, and all such actions, matters and proceedings shall be docketed in the order in the Court in which filed, or in such manner as may be determined by a majority of the Judges of the said County Courts at Law, the Judge of the said County Civil Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. It is the intention of this Act that the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference and priority to the trial of all eminent domain or condemnation actions, cases, matters and proceedings and to proceedings instituted under the provisions of the Texas Mental Health Code, and the Judge of said Court is hereby so enjoined.

Sec. 5. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall not have, nor exercise, jurisdiction over any criminal action, proceeding or matter as the same is now, or may hereafter be, vested in the County Courts and/or County Courts at Law of this State having jurisdiction in criminal actions, proceedings and matters under the Constitution and Laws of Texas, and said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have no appellate jurisdiction of appeals in criminal cases or matters from the Justice Courts of Bexar County, Texas, nor from the Corporation Courts of the several incorporated cities and/or towns within said County, and the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall have no powers, duties or responsibilities as to criminal proceedings or matters such as are now, or may hereafter be, vested in the Judges of the County Courts and/or County Courts at Law of this State, having criminal jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall hold six (6) terms of Court each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business of said Court shall have been disposed of; provided, however, that no term of Court shall continue beyond the date fixed for the commencement of its new term, except upon an order entered on its minutes during the term extending the term for any particular causes therein specified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of Bexar County for a term of four (4) years and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall be a duly licensed and practicing member of the Bar of this State; he shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, but no bond shall be required of such Judge. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall receive and shall be paid the same salary as is now, or as may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the Judges of the several County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in equal monthly installments out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn on the County Treasurer of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County.

Sec. 8. Upon the effective date of this Act, the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, shall appoint a Judge of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until January 1st following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be filled by appointment made by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, and the Judge so appointed shall serve until January 1st following the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 9. The Clerk of the said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall keep a separate docket for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, the same as is now or may be provided by law for keeping of dockets for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; he shall tax the Official Court Reporter's fee as costs in civil actions in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in like manner as said fee is taxed in civil cases in the district courts of this State. The Judges of the County Courts at Law, the County Judge, the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and each of them may with the consent of the Judge of the court to which transfer is made, transfer civil actions, matters and proceedings from his respective court to any one of the other courts by the entry of an order to the effect upon docket of such court, provided both courts have concurrent civil jurisdiction of any such civil actions, matters and proceedings; and the Judge of the court to which any such civil action, matter or proceeding shall have been transferred shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said matter or matters and render and enter the necessary and proper orders, decrees and judgments therein in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such case, action, matter or proceeding had been originally filed in said court to which transferred. Provided, however, that no cause, action, matter, case or proceeding shall be transferred without the consent of the judge of the court to which transferred.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and the County Judge of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may, at any time, exchange benches with each other, and may at any time, sit and act for each other in any civil case, proceeding or matter now, or hereafter, pending in any of said County Courts of Bexar County, Texas; and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and/or by the County Judge of Bexar County Court, and/or by either of the Judges of County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such cases, proceedings and matters.

Sec. 11. In case of the absence, disqualification or incapacity of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, the County Judge of Bexar County, or any of the Judges of the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, may sit and act as Judge of said Court and may determine, either in his own courtroom or in the courtroom of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, any matters or proceedings there pending, and may enter any orders in such matters and proceedings as the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, might enter if personally presiding therein.

Sec. 12. A Special Judge may be appointed or elected for the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in the same manner as may now or hereafter be provided by the General Laws of this State relating to the appointment and election of a Special Judge, or Judges, of the several District and County Courts and County Courts at Law of this State; and every such Special Judge thus appointed or elected for said Court shall receive for the services he may actually perform as such Special Judge the same amount of pay which the regular Judge of said Court would be entitled to receive for such services; and said amount to be paid to such Special Judge shall be paid out of the General Fund of Bexar County, Texas, by warrants drawn upon the County Treasury of said County upon orders of the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas; but no part of the amount paid to any Special Judge shall be deducted from or paid out of the salary of the regular Judge of said County Civil Court at Law.

Sec. 13. The practice in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as prescribed by law relating to County Courts and County Courts at Law. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from judgments and orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and from judgments and orders of the Judge thereof in civil cases, and in the same manner as now is, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law relating to appeals and writs of error from judgments and orders of the County Courts and County Courts at Law throughout this State, and the respective judges thereof, in similar cases, and appeals may also be taken from interlocutory orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, appointing a receiver, and also from orders of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver; provided, however, that the procedure and manner in which such appeals from interlocutory orders are taken shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from similar orders of the District Courts throughout this State.

Sec. 14. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, may appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the Court, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Court and all of the provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended and all other provisions of the law relating to "official court reporters" shall, and the same are hereby made to apply in all its provisions, insofar as they are applicable, to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and such official shorthand reporter shall be entitled to the same compensation paid to official shorthand reporters in the District Courts of Bexar County, Texas, and paid in the same manner that compensation of official shorthand reporters of said District Courts of Bexar County is paid.

Sec. 15. The Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, upon proper certification of the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, because of conflicting duties, or absence or inability to act, or upon the failure or refusal of such County Judge to act for any reason or cause, shall also be authorized and empowered to act for and in the place and stead of said County Judge in any probate proceeding or matter, and may also perform for the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, any and all other ministerial acts required by the laws of this State of said County Judge of Bexar County, Texas, and upon any such certification, the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall give preference and priority to all such actions, matters and proceedings so certified, and any and all such acts thus performed by the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be valid and binding upon all parties to such actions, matters and proceedings the same as if performed by the County Judge of Bexar County, Texas. Notwithstanding the additional powers and duties thus conferred upon the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, by the provisions of this paragraph, no additional compensation or salary shall be paid to such Judge, but the compensation or salary of such Judge shall be and remain the same as now, or as may be hereafter, fixed by law.

Sec. 16. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to his duties as they are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law. The County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient and necessary, appoint a deputy for said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court, and such appointment must be confirmed in writing by the Judge of said Court before the same becomes effective. Said deputy so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of Texas, and the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, shall have the power and authority to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount as he may prescribe and such bond shall be conditioned as prescribed by law. Said deputy shall act in the name of his principal and he may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by said County Clerk of Bexar County in person; and it shall be the duty of said deputy to attend all sessions of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and to perform such services in and for said Court as are usually performed by the County Clerk and his deputies in and for the several County Courts of this State, and said deputy shall also perform any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall, in all cases, that may be filed in said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or that may be transferred to said Court from the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, tax and assess and collect the same fees and costs, and in the same manner as now provided by law for the County Courts of this State, and all such fees and costs, when collected by said County Clerk and his deputies, as well as any and all other sums of money received by them in their official capacity, shall be deposited in such fund, or paid to the proper person or persons entitled to the same and in the manner as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy so appointed shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification, as herein provided, continue as such deputy at the pleasure of the Judge of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, not further desire the services of such deputy, the County Clerk of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the manner as hereinbefore provided, and all vacancies, however created, shall be filled by appointment made in like manner. The salary of the deputy appointed for said Court shall be fixed and determined by the Judge of said Court, but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to, or that may in the future be paid to, the deputies for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas, said annual salary to be paid to such deputy in equal monthly installments in the manner provided by law out of such fund of Bexar County, Texas, as may be provided for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the County Clerk. Provided, however, that before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the County Clerk of Bexar County, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive said salary and such salary of said deputy shall be paid to him only upon certification so filed by said Judge. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers that have heretofore been and are now being exercised by the County Clerk of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly set out.

Sec. 17. The Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall, by and through a deputy to be appointed as hereinafter provided, attend all sessions of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and said Sheriff shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be necessary and convenient, appoint one deputy for said Court, provided, however, that the person so appointed must be acceptable to the Judge of said Court and said appointment of said deputy must be approved and confirmed in writing by said Judge before the same becomes effective.

The deputy so appointed shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath of office prescribed by law and the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, shall be authorized and empowered to require said deputy to furnish bond in such amount as he may determine, the same to be conditioned and payable as may be prescribed by law. Said deputy shall do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, in person, and such deputy shall, from and after his appointment, confirmation and qualification as hereinabove provided, continue as such at the pleasure of the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, and should said Judge, for any reason whatsoever, no longer desire the services of said deputy, the Sheriff of Bexar County shall, upon request of such Judge, appoint another deputy for said Court, such appointment, however, to be made in the same manner as hereinabove prescribed. It shall be the duty of such deputy to attend all sessions of said Court and also to perform and render such services in and for said Court, and for the Judge thereof, as are usually and generally performed and rendered by Sheriffs and their deputies in and about the several District and County Courts of this State, including the serving of any and all process, subpoenas, warrants and writs of any and all kinds, nature or character, in civil matters and proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said deputy to also perform and render any and all other services that may, from time to time, be assigned to him by the Judge of said Court. Said deputy shall have, possess and enjoy the same rights, powers, authority and privileges that the Sheriffs and their deputies throughout this State now, or may hereafter, have, possess and enjoy; and said deputy is authorized to act for the deputy Sheriff of the County Court of Bexar County, Texas, and each such deputy shall be authorized and empowered to act for each other, and it shall be the duty of such deputies to act for one another when required to do so by either of the Judges of said Courts, or by the Sheriff, but the deputy thus acting for the other shall not be entitled to receive, nor shall he be paid, any additional compensation. The Sheriff of Bexar County shall, in the event of a vacancy, caused for any reason whatsoever, immediately appoint another deputy for such Court, such appointment, however, to be subject to the written approval and confirmation of the Judge of said Court. The salary of the deputy Sheriff appointed for said Court shall be determined and fixed by the Judge of said Court but shall not exceed the salary now being paid to the deputy Sheriffs for the County Courts at Law of Bexar County, Texas; said annual salary shall be paid to such deputy in equal monthly installments out of such funds of Bexar County as is provided by law for the payment of the salaries of the several deputies of the Sheriff of Bexar County, and payment to be made in the manner prescribed by law. Provided, however, that before such monthly salary is paid to said deputy, the Judge of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall cause to be filed with the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, or with the proper officer of said County, a written statement, signed by said Judge, certifying that said deputy has performed and rendered the services required of him and that he is entitled to receive his salary. And provided, further, that nothing contained in this Section of this Act is intended to change or alter the duties and powers of the Sheriff of Bexar County, Texas, except as herein specifically and expressly provided.

Sec. 18. The County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, or the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, of mandamus and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 19. The seal of the County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, shall be the same as that prescribed by law for County Courts except that such seal shall contain the words "County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed.

Sec. 20. For the purpose of disposing of the business of said County Civil Court at Law of Bexar County, Texas, there shall be appointed by the Criminal District Attorney of Bexar County, Texas, in addition to the assistants now provided by law, one assistant for the purpose of conducting the duties of his office in said Court. Said assistant shall be paid a salary to be set by the said Criminal District Attorney and approved by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County, Texas, the same to be paid in equal monthly installments by said County upon warrants drawn against the General Fund of Bexar County by orders of the Commissioners Court. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 302, ch. 114.

TRAVIS COUNTY COURT AT LAW NO. 1

Art. 1970—324. County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County

Section 1. That there is hereby created a Court to be held in Austin, Travis County, Texas, to be called the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, in lieu of the present County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of the State, the County Court of said County would have jurisdiction except as provided in Section 3 of this Act; and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas. The jurisdiction of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, and of the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge or in the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas; and such County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, shall exercise and have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court or County Judge or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, as to all matters of eminent domain and as to all such probate matters as may be assigned to it by the County Judge of Travis County as hereinafter provided; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or of the County Judge of Travis County as the presiding officer of such Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain, as heretofore, jurisdiction in matters of eminent domain and the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and such jurisdiction now conferred by law over probate and eminent domain matters; but such jurisdiction shall hereafter be concurrent as herein provided; but the County Court of said County as now existing shall have no jurisdiction over other matters civil or criminal. The County Judge of Travis County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said County, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Travis County, except insofar as the same shall by this Act or otherwise be committed exclusively to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 4. The County Judge of Travis County, in his discretion, may from time to time, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the County Court of Travis County transfer to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, any such probate matter or proceeding then pending in the County Court of Travis County and all processes extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, having jurisdiction thereof, now or hereafter created, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created. The County Court of Travis County shall have and retain concurrently with the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County and any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court and the jurisdiction now conferred or which may be conferred by law over probate matters.

Sec. 5. The terms of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall be held in the Courthouse of Travis County as follows, to wit: Beginning on the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September, and November in each year, and each term of said Court shall continue in session for eight (8) weeks. The practice in said Court, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to County Courts, except as herein expressly provided.

Sec. 6. The present Judge of the County Court at Law of Travis County, Texas, shall serve as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, until the next General Election, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. At each General Election, a Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County Texas, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Travis County. Such Judge must be a qualified voter in said County, must be a regularly licensed attorney at law in this State, and must be a resident of Travis County, Texas, who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for a period of not less than four (4) years next preceding such General Election. Such Judge shall hold his office for two (2) years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 7. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Sec. 8. A Special Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to County Courts and to the Judges thereof, who shall receive the same compensation per day for each day he so actually serves as the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas, to be paid out of the General Funds of the County by the Commissioners Court.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 9. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court of Travis County, Texas, shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, Texas.

Sec. 10. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a Special Judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County is disqualified.

Sec. 11. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any County Judge or Judge of any County Court at Law may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. When either party to a civil case pending in the County Court or County Court at Law No. 1, or any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, applies therefor, the Judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than Ten Dollars ($10) per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases, the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the Court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said Court, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in District Court and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil cases tried in said Courts.

Sec. 13. The County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and the Judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said Court, or of any other Court in said County of concurrent or inferior jurisdiction to said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County.

Sec. 14. All cases appealed from the justice courts and other inferior courts in Travis County, Texas, shall be made direct to the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, or to any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created.

Sec. 15. The County Clerk of Travis County, Texas, shall be the Clerk of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County. The seal of said Court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County." The Sheriff of Travis County shall in person or by deputy attend the said Court when required by the Judge thereof. The County Attorney of Travis County shall represent the State in all prosecutions pending in said County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County, and he shall be entitled to the same fee as now prescribed by law for such prosecution in the County Courts.

Sec. 16. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Travis County for the drawing, selection, and service of jurors shall be exercised by said County Court at Law No. 1 or by any other numbered County Court at Law of Travis County, now or hereafter created, but juries summoned for either or any of said Courts may by order of the Judge of the Court in which they are summoned be transferred to any of the other Courts for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the Court to which they may be thus transferred.

Sec. 17. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall receive the same salary as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the County Attorney of Travis County, to be paid out of the County Treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the County Judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the Clerk of the Court and shall be paid into the County Treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said Judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section. As amended Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 117, ch. 41, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 123, ch. 72, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. 147th Judicial District Court of Travis County, see Vernon's Ann.C.C.P. art. 52—61a.

TITUS COUNTY COURT

Art. 1970—330. Titus County Court; jurisdiction diminished; district court's jurisdiction; prosecutor in misdemeanor cases Section 1. The County Court of Titus County shall retain and continue to have and exercise the general jurisdiction of probate courts, and all other jurisdiction now or hereafter conferred by the Constitution and laws of this State, except as is hereinafter provided, and shall retain all jurisdiction and power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction, and to punish contempts; but said County Court shall have no civil jurisdiction and no criminal jurisdiction except jurisdiction to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases, and except as to final judgments referred to in Section 2, hereof, and shall have no general jurisdiction in trial of all matters of eminent domain on appeal from the awards of commissioners. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 158, ch. 96, § 1.

Emergency. Effective April 30, 1963.

Sec. 2. The district court having jurisdiction in Titus County shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all matters and cases of a civil nature and in all matters of a criminal nature, except as to such jurisdiction that the County Court has to receive and enter pleas of guilty in misdemeanor cases as is provided in Section 1 hereof, whether the same be of original jurisdiction or of appellate jurisdiction, and shall have the general jurisdiction in trial of all matters of eminent domain on appeal from the awards of commissioners, over which by the General Laws of the State of Texas now existing and hereinafter enacted the County Court of said County would have had jurisdiction and all pending civil and criminal cases and eminent domain appeals from the awards of commissioners, be and the same are, hereby transferred to the district court having jurisdiction in Titus County, Texas, and all writs and process heretofore issued by or out of said County Court in all pending civil or criminal cases or eminent domain appeals from the awards of commissioners be, and the same are hereby, made returnable to the district court sitting in Titus County, Texas. However, there shall not be transferred to said district court jurisdiction over any judgments, either in civil, criminal or eminent domain cases, rendered prior to the time this Act takes effect and which have become final, but as to such judgments the said County Court shall retain jurisdiction for the enforcement thereof by all appropriate process. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 158, ch. 96, § 2.

Emergency. Effective April 30, 1963.

LUBBOCK COUNTY

Art. 1970—340. County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County

Sec. 1a. The name and designation of the court created by this Act is hereby changed to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County" and wherever the name "County Court at Law of Lubbock County" shall appear in this Act it shall be deemed to refer to the "County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County." Added Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 169, ch. 62, § 1.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 16, 1962.

GALVESTON COUNTY COURT NO. 2

Art. 1970—342. County Court No. 2 of Galveston County

Section 1. The Probate Court of Galveston County provided by Section 1, Chapter 187, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, shall hereafter be known as the "County Court No. 2 of Galveston County." The court shall have, in addition to its present jurisdiction, civil and criminal jurisdiction as provided by the Constitution and General Laws for county courts and as provided herein.

Sec. 2. The county clerk of Galveston County shall be the clerk of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County. The court shall have a seal consisting of a star of five (5) points with the words "County Court No. 2, Galveston County, Texas" engraved thereon. The sheriff of Galveston County may appoint a deputy to attend the court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 3. All cases over which County Court No. 2 has jurisdiction may be instituted in or transferred to the County Court No. 2. The county judge and the district judges of Galveston County may transfer to County Court No. 2 all cases pending in their respective courts of which the court has jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases, with the consent of the Judge of the County Court No. 2.

All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 is given jurisdiction may be transferred by the Judge thereof to the county or district courts having jurisdiction under the laws of this state, with the consent of the judge of the court concerned. All cases and matters over which the County Court No. 2 and the County Court of Galveston County have concurrent jurisdiction and over which the district courts also have jurisdiction may be transferred to one of the district courts of Galveston County with the consent of the judge thereof.

Provided that the Judge of the County Court and the Judge of County Court No. 2 shall have authority to transfer any case pending for trial from the docket of such court to the docket of such other court, and during the absence, illness, or inability of either judge to preside in his own court the judge of the other court shall be and is hereby authorized to act for such judge absent for any of the above reasons in the trial or other disposition of cases on the docket of such other court.

All writs or process issued by a court prior to the time any case is transferred shall be returned and filed in the court to which the case is transferred and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred case as though such writ or process had been issued out of the court to which transferred, and all waivers of process and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Sec. 4. In the event of a vacancy in this office the Governor shall appoint some suitable person who is a resident citizen of Galveston County as Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County as herein constituted, who shall hold such office until the next general election after his appointment, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, and all vacancies in said office shall also be filled by appointment by the Governor until the next applicable general election thereafter. At the first general election in said county and at each applicable general election thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters a Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided that no person shall be eligible for Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County by election, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state; who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state or a judge of a court in this state for at least four (4) years next preceding his election, and who shall have resided in the County of Galveston for two (2) years next preceding his election.

Sec. 5. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 6. A special judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 7. The terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom shall be, as prescribed by law relating to county courts. The County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall hold at least four (4) terms for both civil and criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. After having fixed the times and number of terms of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County, the Commissioners Court shall not change the same until the expiration of one (1) year. Until otherwise provided by the Commissioners Court, the term of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County shall be held on the first Monday in March, June, September and December.

Sec. 8. Both the said County Court of Galveston County, and the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County or either of the judges thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, certiorari,^{50a} supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said courts; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are, or may be provided by the General Laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said courts or of any court or tribunal inferior to said courts.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County a yearly salary of not more than Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000) as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. This salary shall be paid out of the general fund of the county in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

Sec. 10. The Judge of the County Court No. 2 of Galveston County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state. Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 521, ch. 187, as amended Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 148, ch. 50, § 2.

Emergency. Effective Sept. 1, 1962.

Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 621, ch. 291, §§ 1-3, amending this article, was repealed by Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 148, ch. 50, § 1, effective Sept. 1, 1962.

1961, and any provisions of Chapter 187, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, which may be in conflict with the provisions contained herein.

Sections 3 and 4 of the amendatory Act of 1962 provided:

"Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be, and the same are hereby repealed, including but not limited to Senate Bill No. 162, Chapter 291, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session,

"Sec. 4. It is further enacted that if any of the provisions of this Act shall be held void or in conflict with any provisions of the Constitution of this state the fact that such provisions may be held void shall in no wise affect any other provisions of this Act."

SMITH COUNTY

Art. 1970—348. County Court at Law of Smith County

Section 1. There is hereby created a court to be held in Tyler, Smith County, Texas, which shall be known as the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 2. The County Court at Law of Smith County shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Smith County, in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the General Laws of this state, county courts have jurisdiction, except as provided in Section 6 of this Act; but this provision shall not affect jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Smith County, Texas, as the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain, which are now within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge of Smith County.

With the consent of the other, the judge of either of such courts shall have the power to transfer to the other court any case over which the courts have concurrent jurisdiction pending upon the docket of his court except in cases where the writ of certiorari has been granted.

Sec. 3. The County Court of Smith County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and to apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the Judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are or may be provided by General Law governing county courts throughout the state. The County Judge of Smith County shall be the judge of the County Court of Smith County. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the Judge of the County Court of Smith County except insofar as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County.

Sec. 4. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be as prescribed by the laws relating to the county courts. The terms of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be held as now established for the terms of the County Court of Smith County and the same may be changed in accordance with the laws governing the change in the terms of the County Court of Smith County.

Sec. 5. At the next general election after the effective date of this Act there shall be elected a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County who shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the State Bar of Texas for not less than five (5) years, well-informed in the laws of the state, who shall have resided in and been actively engaged in the practice of law in Smith County, Texas, for a period of not less than two (2) years prior to such general election, and who shall hold his office for the unexpired term. At the general election in November, 1966, he shall be elected to hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. When this Act becomes effective, the Commissioners Court of Smith County, Texas, shall appoint a judge of said court at law of Smith County, who shall have the qualifications herein prescribed and who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of said County Court at Law of Smith County shall in like manner, as hereinabove provided, be filled by said Commissioners Court of Smith County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The Criminal District Attorney of Smith County shall represent the state in all prosecutions in the County Court at Law of Smith County, as provided by law for such prosecutions in county courts, and shall be entitled to the same fees as now prescribed by law for such prosecutions in the county courts.

Sec. 7. As soon as this Act becomes effective the Commissioners Court of Smith County shall appoint a Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County, who shall hold his office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said court.

Sec. 8. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any county judge may be removed under the laws of this state.

Sec. 9. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

Sec. 10. A special judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judge thereof. He shall receive the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30) per day for each day he so actually serves, to be paid out of the general fund of the county by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 11. In the case of the disqualification of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County to try any case pending in his court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County is disqualified. In case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw the same compensation as that provided in Section 10 of this Act.

Sec. 12. The County Court at Law of Smith County, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of jurisdiction of the court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court in said county of inferior jurisdiction to the county court at law.

Sec. 13. The County Clerk of Smith County shall be the clerk of the County Court at Law of Smith County, and the seal of the court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law of Smith County."

Sec. 14. The Sheriff of Smith County shall in person or by deputy attend the County Court at Law of Smith County when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Smith County and the judge thereof, for the drawing, selection and service of jurors and talesmen shall also be exercised by the County Court at Law of Smith County and the judge thereof; but jurors and talesmen summoned for either of said courts may by order of the judge of the court in which they are summoned be transferred to the other court for service therein and may be used therein as if summoned for the court to which they may be thus transferred. Upon concurrence of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County and the Judge of the County Court of Smith County jurors may be summoned for service in both courts and shall be used interchangeably in both such courts. All summons for petit jurors for all civil and criminal cases under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made and the persons constituting such jury panels shall be required to appear and serve at the ensuing term of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts as jurors shall be as valid as if they had been selected as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn.

Sec. 16. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, and when so filled the judge shall hold office until the next general election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 17. From and after the passage of this Act the Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall receive the same salary as is now prescribed or may be established by law for the Criminal District Attorney of Smith County, to be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the Commissioners Court, and said salary shall be paid monthly in equal installments. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County shall assess the same fees as are now prescribed or may be established by law, relating to the county judge's fees, all of which shall be collected by the clerk of the court and shall be paid into the county treasury on collection, no part of which shall be paid to the said judge, but he shall draw the salary as above specified in this Section.

Sec. 18. The Judge of the County Court at Law of Smith County may appoint an official shorthand reporter for such court who shall be well-skilled in his profession and shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. Such reporter shall take the oath required of official court reporters and shall receive a salary as set by the Commissioners Court of Smith County to be paid out of the County Treasury of Smith County, as other county officials are paid, in equal monthly installments. All other provisions of Chapter 13, Title 42, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, and all other provisions of the law relating to official court reporters shall be and are hereby made to apply in all its provisions in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed and in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Sec. 19. The laws of the State of Texas, the rules of procedure and the rules of evidence shall be applicable to and control trials and proceedings in the County Court at Law of Smith County, and shall be applicable to and govern the proceedings in and appeals to and appeals from the County Court at Law of Smith County. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 627, ch. 232.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER SEVEN—THE JURY1. JURIES IN CERTAIN COUNTIES

Art.

2103b. Use of jury wheel in counties of 29,000 or more [New].

1. JURIES IN CERTAIN COUNTIES

Art. 2094. 5151 Selecting names for wheel

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county having a population of at least forty-six thousand (46,000), or having therein a city containing a population of at least eighteen thousand (18,000), or having a population of at least twenty thousand (20,000) and having therein a city containing a population of at least thirteen thousand (13,000), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and in each county having two (2) or more district courts holding sessions therein, regardless of population, except as hereinafter provided, the tax collector or one of his deputies, together with the sheriff or one of his deputies, and the county clerk or one of his deputies, and the district clerk or one of his deputies, shall meet at the courthouse of their county and select from the list of qualified jurors of such county as shown by the tax lists in the tax assessor's office for the current year, the jurors for service in the district and county courts of such county for the ensuing year, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any county having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, when such county is a part of two (2) or more judicial districts, which judicial districts embrace more than two (2) counties. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any county having a population of at least twenty thousand (20,000) and having therein a city containing a population of at least thirteen thousand (13,000), which is not otherwise within the scope of this Act, unless such county is within a judicial district common to one or more other counties, all of which employ the jury wheel system. As amended Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 89, ch. 43, § 1; Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 868, ch. 467, § 1; Acts 1950, 51st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 47, ch. 6, § 1; Acts

Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in each county having a population of at least forty-six thousand (46,000), or having therein a city containing a population of at least eighteen thousand (18,000), or having a population of at least sixteen thousand, seven hundred (16,700) and having therein a city containing a population of at least eight thousand (8,000) but not more than eight thousand, five hundred (8,500), as shown by the last preceding Federal Census, and in each county having two (2) or more district courts holding sessions therein, regardless of population, except as hereinafter provided, the tax collector or one of his deputies, together with the sheriff or one of his deputies, and the county clerk or one of his deputies, and the district clerk or one of his deputies, shall meet at the courthouse of their county and select from the list of qualified jurors of such county as shown by the tax lists in the tax assessor's office for the current year, the jurors for service in the district and county courts of such county for the ensuing year, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any county having a population of less than eighteen thousand, five hundred (18,500) inhabitants, according to the last preceding Federal Census, when such county is a part of two (2) or more judicial districts, which judicial districts embrace more than two (2) counties. As amended Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 89, ch. 43, § 1; Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 868, ch. 467, § 1; Acts 1950, 51st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 47, ch. 6, § 1; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 327, ch. 147, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1357, ch. 515, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2095. 5152—3 Cards put in wheel; typists and expenses

Said officers shall write the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law, residing in their respective counties, on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected, except that in counties having a population of one hundred and forty thousand (140,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court shall provide out of the jury fund a sum sufficient for the employment of typists and payment of other expenses. The typists, under the direction, control and supervision of the District Clerk, shall type the names and addresses of qualified jurors upon the cards as herein described. The expenses so incurred shall be authorized, reported, paid and accounted for under the same laws, rules and regulations as govern the payment of other expenses of the office of the District Clerk in such counties, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a jury wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Commissioners Court of the county. Said wheel shall be constructed of any durable material and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle; and may be equipped with a motor capable of revolving said wheel in such a manner as to thoroughly mix said cards; and shall be kept locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel, and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the sheriff and the other by the district clerk. The sheriff and the clerk shall not open such wheel, nor permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said sheriff and clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place, where the same cannot be tampered with. As amended Acts 1929, 41st Leg., p. 263, ch. 116, § 1; Acts 1949, 51st Leg., p. 720, ch. 383, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 27, ch. 17, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 110, ch. 61, § 1.

Emergency. Effective April 23, 1963.

Art. 2103b. Use of jury wheel in counties of 29,000 or more Section 1. In any county not presently required to use the jury wheel system and having a population of twenty-nine thousand (29,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court upon determining that the level and distribution of the population of the county is such that the use of a jury wheel would facilitate the administration of justice may, thereafter, adopt the use of the jury wheel for the selection of jurors for service in the district and county courts.

Sec. 2. Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in such counties, the tax collector or one of his deputies, together with the sheriff or one of his deputies, and the county clerk or one of his deputies, shall meet at the court house of their county and select from the list of qualified jurors of such county as shown by the tax list in the tax assessor's office for the current year, the jurors for service in the district and county courts of such county for the ensuing year in the manner provided by the General Law; provided, however, that when the list of jurors drawn from the wheel is exhausted and additional jurors are needed, the court may direct the sheriff to summon such talesmen as may be deemed necessary. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 973, ch. 395.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

2. RECEIVERS

Appointment of receiver for licensee violating provisions of the Texas Regulatory Loan Act, see art. 6165b, § 12(g).

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

Art. 2326j—1. Appointment and compensation of reporters in 10th, 56th and 122nd judicial districts

The Judges of the Tenth, Fifty-Sixth, and One Hundred Twenty-Second Judicial Districts of Texas, composed of the County of Galveston, shall each appoint an official shorthand reporter for his respective Judicial District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this state; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Each of said official shorthand reporters shall receive a salary of not less than Sixty-six Hundred Dollars ($6600.00) per annum, nor more than Ninety-six Hundred Dollars ($9600.00) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judges of the Tenth, Fifty-Sixth, and One Hundred Twenty-Second Judicial Districts composed of Galveston County, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees which shall not be more than thirty cents (30¢) per one hundred (100) words. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judges of said respective Judicial Districts shall be paid monthly out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the County Commissioners Court. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporters as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judges of said Judicial Districts and not otherwise; and the transcript fees shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise. Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 820, ch. 350, § 1, as amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 169, ch. 12, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 499, ch. 184, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2326j—7. Appointment and compensation of reporter in 100th judicial district

Section 1. The Judge of the 100th Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall, or the Judge of the Judicial District of which the Counties of Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall are a part thereof, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this State; who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Six Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($6,600) per annum, nor more than Nine Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($9,600) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 100th Judicial District composed of the Counties of Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall, or by the District Judge of which the Counties of Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall are a part thereof, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective Counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each County in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Six Dollars ($6) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed four cents (4¢) a mile when traveling by railway or bus lines, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid after the completion of each term of Court by the respective Counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each County paying the expenses incidental to its own regular or special term of Court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the County, out of the General Fund of the County upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the Judge, provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter more than One Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($1,250) in any one year under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise. Section 1. The Judge of the 31st Judicial District of Texas, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, or the Judge of the Judicial District of which the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts are a part thereof, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter for such District in the manner now provided for District Courts in this State who shall have the same qualifications and whose duties shall in every respect be the same as now provided by law. Said official shorthand reporter shall receive a salary of not less than Fifty-five Hundred Dollars ($5,500) per annum, nor more than Eighty-five Hundred Dollars ($8,500) per annum, said salary to be fixed and determined by the District Judge of the 31st Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts, or by the District Judge of which the Counties of Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill, Lipscomb and Roberts are a part thereof, and said salary shall be in addition to transcript fees, fees for statements of fact and all other fees as now provided by law. Said salary when so fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District shall be paid monthly, out of the General Fund, or the Jury Fund, or out of any fund available for the purpose as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts, by the respective counties of the Judicial District in accordance with the proportion fixed, made and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District as to the amount to be paid monthly by each county in the Judicial District.

Sec. 2. Said reporter shall, in addition, receive allowances for his actual and necessary traveling and hotel expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of his duties, not to exceed Six Dollars ($6) per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed four cents (4¢) a mile when traveling by railway or bus lines, and not to exceed ten cents (10¢) a mile when traveling by private conveyance in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling the nearest practical route. Such expenses shall be paid after the completion of each term of court by the respective counties of the Judicial District for which they are incurred, each county paying the expense incidental to its own regular or special term of court, and said expenses shall be paid to the official shorthand reporter by the Commissioners Court of the county, out of the General Fund of the county upon the sworn statement of the reporter approved by the Judge, provided there shall not be paid to any such official shorthand reporter more than Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750) in any one year under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage of this Act all provisions relating to official shorthand reporters and their duties in District Courts shall in all respects govern except that the salary of the official shorthand reporter as provided for in this Act shall be fixed and determined by the District Judge of said Judicial District and not otherwise; and the transcript fees and allowances for traveling and hotel expenses shall be as provided for in this Act, and not otherwise. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 726, ch. 266.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2338—11a. Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 for Harris County

Creation of courts

Section 1. There is hereby created an additional Court of Domestic Relations to be known as Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 in and for Harris County, Texas.

Judges: juvenile board

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be a legally licensed attorney at law in the State. No person shall be elected or appointed Judge of said Court who has not been a practicing attorney of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a District Judge of Harris County. His salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of Harris County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Harris County, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Harris County, the County Judge of Harris County, and the Judges of the several Courts of Domestic Relations for Harris County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 as a Juvenile Court of Harris County. Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations shall continue to receive such compensation for their services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from County funds as they are entitled to receive under General or Special Law.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. Said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts and Courts of Domestic Relations situated in said County of all cases involving adoptions, removal of disability of minority and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, Reciprocal Support Act, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District, Domestic Relations or County Courts under the juvenile and child-welfare laws of this State; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearings, and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody or support; and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the District, Domestic Relations or County Courts; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent and neglected children or delinquent children as provided by law. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said Court.

Transfer of cases and papers

Sec. 4. The Court of Harris County, the County Courts at Law of Harris County, and the District Courts of Harris County may transfer to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 any and all cases, in their respective courts in Harris County, Texas, which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and process in transferred cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District, Domestic Relations, or County Court prior to the time any case is transferred by any of said courts to the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be returned and filed in said Domestic Relations Court and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of record; place of sitting; seal; dockets and records; clerks

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat in Harris County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Harris County shall serve as the Clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform generally all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations No. 4, Harris County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Term of office of the judges; appointment and elections; removal; vacancies; cooperation by juvenile board; disqualification, etc.; special judges

Sec. 7. The term of office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 shall be for a period of four (4) years, the first full term of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 to commence on January 1, 1964. Immediately upon passage of this Act, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person as Judge of said Court, such Judge to hold office until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, such Judge shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the election of District Judges. He shall be subject to removal of office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the removal of County Officers. Vacancies in such office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give council and advice to said Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 when deemed necessary or when sought by him; and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court. In the event of disqualification of such Judge to try a particular case, or because of the illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board shall select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof.

Boards and officers, duties of

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constable of Harris County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court; and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same service and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court reporter, bailiff

Sec. 9. The Judge of the Court created herein shall have authority to appoint a court reporter, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporter of District Courts in Harris County and whose salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Harris County. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Harris County to serve in the Court created herein as in other courts of the County.

Custody of children; investigation

Sec. 10. In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties to such suit have a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, and in any other case involving the custody of any such child, the said Court or Judge thereof, in its or his discretion, may require any such juvenile officer or investigator to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of such child or children, and to make report thereof to such Court, and, if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such examination.

Writs and orders; contempt

Sec. 11. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have the power, as in District Courts, to punish for contempt.

Terms of court

Sec. 12. The first term of such Court created herein shall begin when the Judge of such Court is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its terms shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 13. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the First Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Procedure

Sec. 14. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provision of this Act and the laws and rule pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

District attorney to prosecute or defend

Sec. 15. The District Attorney of Harris County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested.

Transfer of cases between courts

Sec. 16. All cases, complaints and other matters over which the said Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; but said Court, and the Judge therein, may transfer any such cases or matters to the County, Domestic Relations or District Court having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State, with the consent of the Judge of said Court, to be tried in such Court to which such transfer is made.

Exchange and transfer of cases

Sec. 16A. The Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations of Harris County, and the judges of the other courts of Domestic Relations of Harris County may, in their discretion, exchange benches or courts from time to time, and may transfer cases and other proceedings from one court to another, and any or either of said judges of said courts of Domestic Relations of Harris County may, in his own courtroom, try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of such other Courts of Domestic Relations without having the case transferred, or may sit in any other of such Courts and hear and determine any case there pending, and every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the Court in which the case is pending and at the time the judgment or order is rendered, and two or more of such Judges of such Court of Domestic Relations may try different cases in the same Court at the same time, and each may occupy his own courtroom or the courtroom of any other such Court. The Judge of any or either of such Courts may issue restraining orders and injunctions, or other orders and processes returnable to any other such Judge of such Court and any such Judge may transfer any case or proceeding pending in his Court to any other of said Courts, and the Judge of any such Court to which a case or proceeding is transferred shall receive and try the same, and in turn shall have power, in his discretion, to transfer any such case to any other of said Courts, and any other such Judge may in his courtroom try any case pending in any other of such Courts. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 778, ch. 299.

jury matters which said court may have jurisdiction over, provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the court of jurisdiction to try non-jury cases and hear and determine motions, arguments and such other non-jury civil matters at the county seat at Beaumont, Texas.

(c) The District Clerk of Jefferson County or his deputy shall wait upon the said court when sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and shall be permitted to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records, and papers to Port Arthur, Texas, while the court is in session there, and likewise to transfer all necessary books, minutes, records and papers from Port Arthur, Texas, to Beaumont, Texas, at the end of each session in Port Arthur, Texas.

(d) The Sheriff of Jefferson County or his deputy shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

(e) The official court reporter of said court shall be in attendance upon the court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, and perform such duties as he may be directed to perform, either as required by law or under the order of the court.

(f) The Commissioners Court of Jefferson County, Texas, is hereby authorized to provide suitable quarters for said court while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, which said quarters shall be located within the sub-court-house in Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas.

(g) Any Judge of any District Court of Jefferson County, Texas, may hear and determine cases, motions and arguments that are filed in the Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas, without the necessity of a formal transfer of the Judge to the said Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, Texas. As amended Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 42, ch. 14, § 1.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 1, 1962.

Section 2 of the amendatory Act of 1962 provided: "All decrees, orders or judgments entered by the Court of Domestic Relations for Jefferson County, while sitting at Port Arthur, Texas, in any suit, action or other proceeding over which the court had jurisdiction, are hereby validated and made of binding force and effect."

Art. 2338—15. Court of Domestic Relations for Tarrant County

Creation of court

Section 1. There is hereby created a Court of Domestic Relations in and for Tarrant County, Texas.

Qualifications of judge; juvenile board

Sec. 2. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations hereby established shall be at least twenty-five (25) years of age and licensed to practice law in this state, who has been a practicing attorney or a judge of a court for four (4) years and a resident of Tarrant County for two (2) years next before his election or appointment. He shall reside in Tarrant County during his term of office. He shall be paid a salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid by the County of Tarrant and State of Texas to any one judge of a District Court of Tarrant County, Texas. His salary shall be paid out of the General Fund of Tarrant County in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. He shall be a member of the Juvenile Board of Tarrant County, which shall hereafter be composed of the Judges of the several District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County, the County Judge of Tarrant County, and the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations for Tarrant County, which Juvenile Board shall be authorized to designate the Court of Domestic Relations as the Juvenile Court of Tarrant County; Judges of the District Courts and Criminal District Courts of Tarrant County shall continue to receive such compensation for all judicial and administrative services required of them including the services as members of the Juvenile Board and otherwise from county funds as they are now entitled to receive or may hereafter be authorized to receive under General or Special Law.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 3. Said Court of Domestic Relations shall have jurisdiction within the limits of Tarrant County concurrent with the Civil District Courts sitting in said county of all cases involving adoptions, birth records, removal of disability of minority, and coverture, change of name of persons, delinquent child proceedings, neglected or dependent child proceedings, and all jurisdiction, powers and authority now or hereafter placed in the District Courts under the juvenile and child-welfare laws of this state; and of all divorce and marriage annulment cases, including the adjustment of property rights and custody, visitation and support of minor children involved therein, alimony pending final hearing and any and every other matter incident to divorce or annulment proceedings as well as independent actions involving child custody, visitation, support, or reciprocal support cases, contempt actions arising out of failure to pay child support and all other cases involving justiciable controversies and differences between spouses, or between parents, or between them, or one of them, and their minor children, which are now, or may hereafter be, within the jurisdiction of the Civil District Courts of Tarrant County; and all cases in which children are alleged or charged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent children as provided by law. All cases enumerated or included above may be instituted in or transferred to said Court.

Transfer of cases and papers from district courts

Sec. 4. The District Courts of Tarrant County may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations any and all cases, in their respective courts of which cases said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers, reports, records, and certified copies of all orders theretofore entered in said cases.

Writs and process in transferred cases

Sec. 5. All writs and process issued by or out of a District Court prior to the time any case is transferred by said Court to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Court of record; place of sitting; seal; dockets and records; clerks

Sec. 6. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall be a court of record, shall sit and hold court at the county seat of Tarrant County, shall have a seal and maintain all necessary dockets, records and minutes therein. The District Clerk of Tarrant County shall serve as the Clerk of said Court. He shall keep a fair record of all acts done and proceedings had in said Court and shall perform all such duties as are required generally of District Clerks insofar as the same may be applicable in this Court. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five points with the words "Court of Domestic Relations, Tarrant County, Texas" engraved thereon.

Election of judge; term of office; removal; vacancies

Sec. 7. At the next general election following the effective date of this Act there shall be elected the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Tarrant County. The term of office shall be for a period of four (4) years. The first term shall commence on January 1, 1963. Thereafter, the Judge shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and Laws of the state for the election of District Judges. He shall be subject to removal from office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and Laws of this state for removal of District Judges. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by appointment by the Governor.

Cooperation by juvenile board; schedule of business

Sec. 8. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court and shall prepare a schedule setting forth the order of business for the Court of Domestic Relations. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hear all cases and other matters to be tried and determined by him at such times and in accordance with the schedule prepared by the Juvenile Board. Such schedule outlining the order of business to be followed by the Court of Domestic Relations shall be subject to change by the Juvenile Board at such times as the business of the Courts may require.

Transfer of cases to district or criminal district court

Sec. 9. All cases, applications, complaints, and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; said Court and the judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court or Criminal District Court of Tarrant County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the judge of such Court, and the judge of such District Court or Criminal District Court may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any judge of a District Court or Criminal District Court of Tarrant County may in his discretion preside as judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the judge of such District Courts or Criminal District Courts has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as presiding judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations, and such judge of a District Court or Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, may sit in his own courtroom, the Juvenile Courtroom, the courtroom of any other district court within the county, or the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine any case, complaint, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations, and such judge of a District Court or Criminal District Court may at his discretion transfer any such case, complaint, or other matter over which his court has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas from the Court of Domestic Relations to his own court for trial and disposition. In the event of disqualification of the judge of the Court of Domestic Relations to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the presiding judge of the Eighth Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a judge to handle the business of said court pursuant to the provisions of Article 200a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and said judge so selected by the board or assigned by the presiding judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the payment of district judges assigned to sit for other district judges. The judge of such Court of Domestic Relations may, in any case, matter or proceeding pending in any District Court of Tarrant County, or which case, matter or proceeding said Court of Domestic Relations would have potential jurisdiction, in the courtroom of such Court of Domestic Relations, or in the Juvenile Courtroom, or in the courtroom of any District Court of Tarrant County, sit and hear and determine any such case, matter or proceeding pending therein, and enter any order or judgment, or do any other thing, which the judge of such District Court would have authority under law to do. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 152, ch. 92, § 1.

Boards and officers; duties

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and Sheriff and Constables of Tarrant County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Court reporter; bailiff

Sec. 11. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a court reporter, who shall receive the same compensation as provided by law for court reporters of District Courts in Tarrant County and whose salary shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County. A bailiff shall be designated by the Sheriff of Tarrant County to serve the Court as in other courts of the county.

Custody of children; investigations

Sec. 12. In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties to such suit have a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, and in any other cases involving the custody of any child or children, the said Court or Judge thereof, in its or his discretion, may require such juvenile officer or investigator to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of the child or children and of the disposition that should be made of such child or children, and to make report thereof to the Court, and if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such investigation.

Writs and orders; contempt

Sec. 13. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of court

Sec. 14. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its term shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 15. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Second Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and procedure

Sec. 16. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 16, ch. 6.

Emergency. Effective Jan. 30, 1962.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Juvenile board; establishment; composition; juvenile officer; powers and duties

Sec. 8. (a) There is hereby established a County Juvenile Board in and for the County of Galveston, to be known as the Galveston County Juvenile Board, which Board shall be composed of the County Judge, the Judge of County Court No. 2, the Judges of the several District Courts in and for Galveston County, and eight (8) citizen members, four (4) to be appointed by the Commissioners Court of Galveston County; one (1) to be appointed by the Galveston City Council; and ¹ (1) to be appointed by the City Commission of Texas City; one (1) to be appointed by the City Council of Lamarque; and one (1) to be appointed by the City Council of Hitchcock. The Judge of the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court shall serve as chairman of the Juvenile Board. Citizen members of the Board shall serve for terms of two (2) years.

(b) The members of the Galveston County Juvenile Board shall receive no compensation for their services on said Board.

(c) The Judge of the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court of Galveston County may appoint discreet persons of good moral character to serve as Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers for Galveston County. The Board shall fix the salaries of and allowances for the said Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers and employ a clerk for said office, and the Commissioners Court shall provide the necessary funds for the payment of such salaries and expenses as may be necessary. All claims for expenses of the Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers shall be certified by the Chairman of the Board to the said County Commissioners Court as being necessary in the performance of the duty of such officer. The appointment of said Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk of said county, and such officers shall take the oath to perform their duties and file such oaths in the office of the County Clerk of said county. The Judge of the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court of Galveston County may remove the Juvenile Officer or an Assistant Juvenile Officer at any time.

(d) The said Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers shall have the authority, powers and duties authorized and required by Article 5142 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and any amendments thereto.

(e) The Commissioners Court of Galveston County shall furnish automobiles for the official use of said Juvenile Officer and Assistant Juvenile Officers, and provide for the expense of operating the same, as recommended by the Board.

¹ So in enrolled bill.

Co-operation by juvenile board

Sec. 9. The Juvenile Board and its members shall give counsel and advice to the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations when deemed necessary or when sought by him, and shall cooperate with him in the administration of the affairs of said Court.

Transfer of cases to district court

Sec. 10. All cases, applications, complaints and all other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court; said Court and the Judge thereof may transfer any such cases, complaints, or other matters to any District Court of Galveston County having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of the State of Texas, with the consent of the Judge of such Court, and the Judge of such District Court may try all such cases, complaints, or other matters which may be so transferred. Any Judge of a District Court of Galveston County may in his discretion preside as Judge of the Juvenile Court and of the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine all such cases, complaints, or other matters over which the Judge of such District Courts has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas, with the same authority to act as Presiding Judge over all such cases, complaints, or other matters for all purposes, and to the same extent as the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations, and such Judge of a District Court of Galveston County, Texas, may sit in his own court room, the Juvenile Court Room, the court room of any other District Court within the county, or the Court of Domestic Relations and hear and determine any case, complaint, or matter pending in the Court of Domestic Relations, and such Judge of a District Court may at his discretion transfer any such case, complaint, or other matter over which his Court has jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Texas from the Court of Domestic Relations to his own court for trial and disposition. In the event of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations to try a particular case or because of illness, inability, failure or refusal of said Judge to hold court at any time, the Juvenile Board may select a Special Judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof, or said Juvenile Board may request the Presiding Judge of their Administrative Judicial District of Texas to assign a Judge to handle the business of said Court pursuant to the provisions of Article 200a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and said Judge so selected by the Board or assigned by the Presiding Judge shall be paid for his services in the same manner as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this state for the payment of District Judges assigned to sit for other District Judges.

Boards and officers; duties

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents, and employees of the Probation Department, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer and sheriff and constables of Galveston County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court, and all sheriffs and constables within the State of Texas shall render the same services and perform the same duties with reference to process and writs from said Court of Domestic Relations as is required of them by law with reference to process and writs from District Courts.

Custody of children; investigations

Sec. 13. In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the parties to such suit have a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, and in any other cases involving the custody of any child or children, the said Court or Judge thereof, in its or his discretion, may require such juvenile officer or investigator to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of the child or children and of the disposition that should be made of such child or children, and to make report thereof to the Court, and, if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such investigation.

Writs and orders; contempt

Sec. 14. The said Court and the Judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus and mandamus, injunctions, temporary injunctions, restraining orders, orders of sale, execution, writs of possession and restitution, and any and all other writs as now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this state by District Courts, when necessary or proper in cases or matters in which said Court of Domestic Relations has jurisdiction, and also shall have power to punish for contempt.

Terms of court

Sec. 15. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified, and remain in session until the first day of the following September; and its term shall thereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Appeals

Sec. 16. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the First Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts and in all criminal cases appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Practice and procedure

Sec. 17. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

District attorney to prosecute or defend

Sec. 18. The District Attorney of Galveston County shall prosecute or defend all cases involving children alleged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent, or in which the Probation Officer, Child Welfare Board, County Welfare Board, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer or any other welfare agency is interested.

of the State of Texas for at least five (5) years immediately prior to his appointment or election. The person elected such Judge shall hold the office for four (4) years, and until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Appointment of judge; term of office; subsequent elections

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall appoint the Judge of the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations who shall hold the office until the next General Election and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations for Taylor County shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the election of Judges for County Domestic Relations Courts.

The Commissioners Court of Taylor County shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of said Court.

Salary of judge; bond; oath

Sec. 5. The Judge of the said Court of Domestic Relations shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County out of the General Fund of Taylor County an annual salary which shall be equal to the total salary paid to a District Judge of Taylor County. Said salary shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments. Said Judge of said Court shall not engage in the private practice of the law during his term of office. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County shall execute a bond and take an oath of office as required by law relating to County Judges.

Transfer of cases, writs and process

Sec. 6. (a) When said Court of Domestic Relations is organized and the Judge thereof shall qualify, the County Judge of Taylor County, the Judge of the County Court at Law of Taylor County, and the Judges of the 42nd Judicial District and of the 104th Judicial District may transfer to said Court of Domestic Relations all cases which then may be pending in their respective Courts in Taylor County, of which said Court of Domestic Relations is hereby given jurisdiction, including all filed papers and certified copies of all orders entered by them and all cases pending in the County Court at Law of Taylor County concerning juvenile delinquents, on the effective date of this Act, along with all the books and records thereof, shall be transferred to the said Court of Domestic Relations.

(b) All writs and process issued by or out of a District or County Court or County Court at Law prior to the time any case is transferred by any one of said Courts to the Court of Domestic Relations shall be returned and filed in the Court of Domestic Relations and shall be as valid and binding upon the parties to such transferred cases as though such writ or process had been issued out of the Court of Domestic Relations, and all waivers of process, and other instruments executed prior to the transfer of any case shall also be as valid and binding as though executed after such transfer.

Transfers to other courts

Sec. 7. All cases and other matters over which the Court of Domestic Relations is herein given jurisdiction may be transferred to or instituted in said Court, but the Judge of said Court may transfer any such cases or matters to the County or District Court having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of this State, to be tried in such Court to which such transfer is made, with the permission and consent of the Judge thereof.

Place of holding court; dockets and minutes; clerks

Sec. 8. The said Court of Domestic Relations shall sit and hold court in Taylor County, and shall maintain all necessary dockets and minutes therein.

The Sheriff of Taylor County shall perform all duties in the Court of Domestic Relations provided by law for such officer to perform in the District and County Courts, including bailiffs to attend the Court. The District Clerk of Taylor County shall be the Clerk of the Court of Domestic Relations and shall keep a fair record of all acts done, all necessary dockets and minutes thereof, and proceedings had, in said Court, and perform generally all such duties as are now or as may be hereafter imposed upon District or County Clerks relative to District or County Courts insofar as applicable to the Court of Domestic Relations. The seal of said Court shall have a star of five points with the words "Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations," engraved thereon.

Boards and officers, duties

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of all officers, agents and employees of the Child Welfare Department, County Welfare Office, County Health Officer, County Juvenile Officer, Sheriff and Constables within Taylor County to furnish to said Court such services in the line of their respective duties as shall be required by said Court.

Injunctions and writs; contempts

Sec. 10. The Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations herein created shall have power to issue injunctions, temporary injunctions and restraining orders and such other writs as are now or hereafter may be issued under the laws of this State by the County and District Courts when necessary in cases or matters in which said Court has jurisdiction, and also power to punish for contempt.

Terms of court

Sec. 11. The first term of such Court of Domestic Relations shall begin when the Judge thereof is duly selected and qualified and remain in session until the first day of the following September and its terms shall hereafter begin on the first day of September of each year and remain in session continuously to and including the thirty-first day of August of the next year.

Disqualification of judge; special judge; compensation

Sec. 12. In the case of disqualification of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County to try any case pending in his Court, the parties or their attorneys may agree on the selection of a special judge to try such case or cases where the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County is disqualified. In the case of the selection of such special judge by agreement of the parties or their attorneys, such special judge shall draw Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day compensation for each day he shall actually serve, to be paid out of the General Fund of the County by the Commissioners Court.

Vacancies in office

Sec. 13. Any vacancy in the office of the Judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Taylor County shall be filled by the Commissioners

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Court of Taylor County and when so filled, the Judge shall hold office until the next General Election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Appeals

Sec. 14. Appeals in all civil cases from judgments and orders of said Court shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals of the 11th Supreme Judicial District as now or hereafter provided for appeals from District and County Courts, and in all criminal cases, appeals shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals sitting in Austin, Travis County, Texas.

Practice and procedure

Sec. 15. The practice and procedure, rules of evidence, selection of juries, issuance of process and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings in said Court shall be governed by provisions of this Act and the laws and rules pertaining to District Courts; provided that juries shall be composed of twelve (12) members.

County and district attorney; representation of state

Sec. 16. The County Attorney or any District Attorney of Taylor County shall represent the State in all proceedings in the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations.

Suits involving custody of children; investigations

Sec. 17. In all suits for divorce where it appears from the petition or otherwise that the party to such has a child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, and in any other case involving the custody of any such child or children, the said Court or Judge thereof in its or his discretion may require any such Juvenile Officer, Investigator or Child Welfare Unit to make a thorough and complete investigation as to the necessities, environment and surroundings of the child or children and to make reports thereof to the Court, and if desired by the Court, to produce such evidence on any hearing in such case as may have been developed in connection with such examination or investigation.

Court reporter; interpreter; investigator

Sec. 18. The Judge of the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations shall have authority to appoint a court reporter in such cases as may be required by law and in such other cases as he shall deem it necessary to record and preserve the testimony. Such court reporter shall be paid such salary out of the General Fund of the County as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court. The Judge shall also have the power and authority to appoint a court interpreter in such cases as may be necessary who shall be paid such fees and compensation out of the General Fund of the County, for such service as may be fixed by the Judge, and approved by the Commissioners Court. The Judge of said Court shall employ an investigator for the Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations, who shall also serve as secretary to the Judge of said Court and which said investigator shall have and is hereby invested with all of the general authority of any peace officer of Taylor County, Texas, with full power and authority to make arrests, serve any process, the same as any peace officer, and said investigator shall be furnished all necessary transportation in the discharge of the duties as such investigator. Said investigator shall be paid a salary fixed by the Commissioners Court, and said salary and such transportation costs shall be paid by the Commissioners Court of Taylor County, Texas, out of the General Fund of Taylor County, Texas.

Removal of judge

Sec. 19. The Judge of said Court of Domestic Relations shall be subject to removal from the office for the same reasons and in the same manner as is provided by the Constitution and laws of this State for the removal of County Officers.

Repealer

Sec. 20. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict, but otherwise this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws.

Activation and operation of court

Sec. 21. The Commissioners Court of Taylor County, Texas, may immediately after the effective date of this Act, make said Taylor County Court of Domestic Relations activated and operational or as soon thereafter as is practical. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 64, ch. 44.

Emergency. Effective April 4, 1963.

2. POWERS AND DUTIES

Art. 2351. 2241, 1537, 1514 Certain powers specified

Airstrips, use of county equipment, machinery and employees of counties of 17,650 to 17,700 for construction and maintenance, see art. 1581d—1.

Art. 2368a—9. Validation of contracts, scrip and time warrants; refunding bonds; acts and proceedings; exceptions; elections for city officials

Section 1. In every instance since the approval by the Governor of Texas on May 15, 1961, of Chapter 126, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1961,¹ where the Commissioners Court of a county or the governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town in this State has entered into contracts for the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, or professional or personal services and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants and the proceedings adopted by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the Commissioners Court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal service rendered to the county, city or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any contract, scrip warrant or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a Commissioners Court or governing body of a city (including Home-Rule cities) or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city (including Home-Rule cities) or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved and confirmed. Such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the Commissioners Court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify or confirm any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted or issued by any county with a population in excess of three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any proceedings, governmental Acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in this Act, or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Sec. 4. All actions heretofore taken by the Commissioners Court of any county in ordering the holding of an election for the selection of a mayor and aldermen of a city, town or village heretofore incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas, and all orders of such court in canvassing the returns and declaring the results of such elections are hereby in all things ratified and confirmed, and the persons so declared or found to have been elected by the said Court as the result of such election, and their successors in office, shall be and are hereby recognized as the governing body of such city, town or village irrespective of whether such municipal corporation was originally established or incorporated under the aldermanic or commission form of government. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 959, ch. 384.

Emergency. Effective June 5, 1963.

Art. 2370c. Counties of over 900,000; county workhouses and farms

Bond issue; tax levy; election; notice; execution, approval and registration of bonds

Section 1. The Commissioners Court of any county in this State having a population in excess of nine hundred thousand (900,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census is hereby authorized from time to time to issue the negotiable bonds of said county and levy taxes in payment thereof for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and equipping county workhouses and county farms to be used for the confinement of prisoners of the county or for the purpose of utilizing the labor of such prisoners (either or both), including the acquisition or purchase of sites therefor. Such taxes shall be from the Constitutional Permanent Improvement Fund. Such bonds shall be issued and taxes in payment thereof shall be levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, governing the issuance of bonds by cities, towns, and/or counties in this State, except as may be otherwise provided in this Act. Any and all bonds authorized to be issued by this Act may be submitted at the bond election in a single proposition. Notice of a bond election shall be given by publication of a notice containing a substantial copy of the election order on the same day in each of two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, the first of which publications shall be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the election. No other notice of election shall be necessary. No bonds authorized by this Act (except refunding bonds) shall be issued unless more than a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of said county who own taxable property within said county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at the election, have voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and such bonds may or may not contain option of prior redemption provisions as may be determined by the Commissioners Courts. Such bonds shall be executed in the manner as may be provided in the order authorizing their issuance. All such bonds (including refunding bonds), after the same have been approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, shall be incontestable.

Refunding bonds

Sec. 2. The Commissioners Court of any such county shall have the right at all times to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds (including the refunding of refunding bonds) issued under the provisions of this Act, subject to the General Laws applicable to the issuance of refunding bonds by counties and without the necessity of an election or of any notice or of any right to referendum vote. The provisions of Section 1 hereof relating to maturities of original bonds and their execution shall apply to refunding bonds issued hereunder.

Validation of election proceedings

Sec. 3. Any and all bonds heretofore authorized for the purposes mentioned in Section 1 hereof by a majority of the duly qualified resident electors of the county who owned taxable property within such county and who had duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election called and held for such purpose, and the election proceedings relating to such bonds, are hereby in all things validated; and the Commissioners Court may issue any such bonds in the manner herein provided. It is expressly provided, however, that the validation provisions of this Section 3 shall not apply to litigation pending upon the effective date of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 548, ch. 204.

Emergency. Effective May 21, 1963.

TITLE 45—COURTS—JUSTICE

CHAPTER SEVEN—SMALL CLAIMS COURT [NEW]

Art. 2460a. Creation; jurisdiction; procedure

Jurisdiction

Sec. 2. The Small Claims Court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Justice of the Peace Court in all actions for the recovery of money by any person, association of persons, corporation or by any attorney for such parties, or other legal entity only where the amount involved, exclusive of costs, does not exceed the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150), except that when the claim is for wages or salary earned, or for work or labor performed under any contract of employment, the jurisdictional amount, exclusive of costs, shall not exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Provided, however, that no action may be brought in the Small Claims Court by any assignee of such action or upon any assigned claim or by any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged, either primarily or secondarily, in the business of lending money at interest, nor by any collection agency or collection agent. Provided, further, however, that nothing in this Act shall prevent the bringing of any action by a legal heir or heirs on any account or claim otherwise within the jurisdiction of these Courts. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 938, ch. 368, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Filing fee; process

Sec. 5. Upon the filing of the said affidavit and the payment of a Three Dollar ($3) filing fee, the Judge shall issue process in the same manner as any other case in Justice Court, service being by citation served by an officer of the State duly authorized to serve other citations. Service of citation may be made in any manner authorized for service of citation in a district or county court or justice court.

The Three Dollar ($3) filing fee provided for in this Section, the Three Dollar ($3) jury fee provided for in Section 11 of this Act and the Two Dollar ($2) citation fee provided in Section 5a shall constitute the only fees or costs authorized to be charged in the Small Claims Court; provided, however, such fees shall constitute only the Court costs accruing up to and including entry of judgment in the Small Claims Court and do not affect any fee or Court cost accruing in any Court after the entry of said judgment and do not apply to any proceeding or execution after entry of judgment in said Court. As amended Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 571, ch. 187, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 938, ch. 368, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Fee for service of citation

Sec. 5a. A fee of Two Dollars ($2) shall be charged for the service of citation provided for in Section 5 and shall be accountable as a fee of office by the officer serving citation. Added Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 571, ch. 187, § 2, as amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 938, ch. 368, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

TITLE 46—CREDIT ORGANIZATIONS

Art.
2484c. Slander or libel of credit unions;
penalty [New].

1. RURAL CREDIT UNIONS

Art. 2461. Credit union defined

Exemption of persons doing business as usual credit union from provisions of the Texas Regulatory Loan Act, see art. 6165b, § 6.

Art. 2462. Loans and investments

Deposits; borrowing money

Section 1. A credit union may receive the savings of its members in payment for shares or as deposits. It may borrow money in any amount not to exceed fifty per cent (50%) of its capital and surplus, as that term is herein defined.

Lending money to members

Sec. 2. A credit union may lend money to its members within the limits and subject to the restrictions provided by law.

Classification of loans

Sec. 3. Loans made by credit unions are hereby placed in a class separate and distinct from all other loans.

Interest defined

Sec. 4. "Interest" as pertaining to all loans made by credit unions is hereby defined as the compensation allowed by law or fixed by the parties to a contract or collected for the use or forbearance or detention of money.

Maximum interest rate on loans

Sec. 5. The maximum rate of interest on loans made by credit unions shall be one per cent (1%) per month on the unpaid balance.

Other charges on loans

Sec. 6. On loans made by credit unions, no credit union shall charge the borrower anything of value in connection or association with a loan, other than repayment of the unpaid principal balance and interest.

Investments in federal, state and municipal obligations

Sec. 7. In the direction of the board of directors, a credit union may invest its surplus and accumulated funds in the obligations of the United States of America, of the State of Texas, or any political subdivision thereof, provided such subdivision has not, within the preceding five (5) years defaulted in the payment of any principal or interest on the obligations or class of obligations in which such investment is made.

Investments in shares of savings and loan associations; loans to other credit unions

Sec. 8. A credit union may also invest such surplus and accumulated funds in shares of stock, insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, which are issued by a building and loan association or savings and loan association, domiciled in the state; and it may make loans to other state and federal credit unions domiciled in this state, provided that such loans to other credit unions shall never aggregate more than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the capital and surplus of such credit union making such loans. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 1.

Art. 2465. Supervision; examination; examiners; fees; expenses; independent examinations; and surety bonds

Books and records; examination and examiners

Section 1. Such credit union shall maintain such books and records as the Banking Commissioner may deem necessary. The Banking Commissioner shall cause each credit union to be examined at least once yearly, such examination to be made by:

a. One or more credit union examiners who shall be appointed by the Banking Commissioner and who shall receive, in addition to the salary fixed and determined by the Finance Commission, all necessary traveling expenses, a sworn itemized account of which shall be rendered monthly by each examiner and approved by the Commissioner; or

b. The Deputy Banking Commissioner, departmental examiner, any bank examiner, assistant bank examiner, loan and brokerage supervisor, loan and brokerage examiner or credit union supervisor.

Examination fee

Sec. 2. Each credit union examined shall pay to the Banking Commissioner an examination fee fixed by the Banking Commissioner not to exceed Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) per day per person engaged in each examination or a total fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per each One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) of assets or fraction thereof as reflected by the examination, whichever is lower, with a minimum of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

Supervision fee

Sec. 3. Not later than January 31 of each calendar year, each credit union with assets of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) or more shall pay to the Banking Commissioner, for the preceding calendar year, a supervision fee in accordance with the graduated scale indicated below, based upon its assets as of December 31 of each preceding year.

TOTAL ASSETS	SUPERVISION FEE
$50,000.00 to $100,000.00	$ 15.00
$100,000.00 to $500,000.00	$ 25.00
$500,000.00 to $1,000,000.00	$ 50.00
$1,000,000.00 to $5,000,000.00	$100.00
$5,000,000.00 to $10,000,000.00	$200.00
$10,000,000.00 to $15,000,000.00	$400.00
$15,000,000.00 and over	$500.00

Retention of fees, penalties or revenues

Sec. 4. All fees, penalties or revenues collected by the Banking Commissioner shall be retained by the Department of Banking and shall be expended only for the expense of said Department.

Employment of public accountant

Sec. 5. The Banking Commissioner may in his discretion require any credit union to employ at its expense a certified public accountant or a public accountant licensed by the State of Texas, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, to conduct an independent examination of the books, records and affairs of the credit union.

Surety bonds; form and amount

Sec. 6. The Banking Commissioner is authorized, empowered, and directed to require that every person appointed or elected by any credit union to any position requiring the receipt, payment, or custody of money or other personal property owned by a credit union, or in its custody or control as collateral or otherwise, give bond in a corporate surety company holding a license or permit to do business in the State of Texas in accordance with the Insurance Code of Texas. Any such bond or bonds shall be in a form approved by the Banking Commissioner with a view to providing surety coverage to the credit union with reference to loss by reason of acts of fraud or dishonesty including forgery, theft, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction, or misapplication on the part of the person, directly or through connivance with others, and such other surety coverages as the Banking Commissioner may determine to be reasonably appropriate. Any such bond or bonds shall be in such an amount in relation to the money or other personal property involved or in relation to the assets of the credit union as the Banking Commissioner may from time to time prescribe by regulation for the purpose of requiring reasonable coverage. In lieu of individual bonds the Banking Commissioner may approve the use of a form of blanket bond which covers all of the officers and employees of a credit union whose duties include the receipt, payment or custody of money or other personal property for or in behalf of the credit union. The Banking Commissioner may also approve the use of a form of excess coverage bond whereby a credit union may obtain an amount of coverage in excess of the basic surety coverage. The Banking Commissioner may prescribe regulations to fulfill the requirements of this paragraph. As amended Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 233, ch. 139, § 5; Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 477, ch. 166, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 808, ch. 365, § 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 70, ch. 42, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 2.

Art. 2466. By-laws

The bylaws of the credit union shall prescribe:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is formed.
3. The conditions of association, residence or occupation which qualify persons for membership.
4. The par value of shares of capital stock.
5. The conditions on which shares may be paid in, transferred and withdrawn.
6. The conditions on which deposits may be received and withdrawn.
7. The method of receipting for money paid on account of shares or deposited.
8. The number of directors and number of members of the credit committee.
9. The duties of the several officers.

10. The fines, if any, which may be charged for failure to meet obligations of the association punctually.

11. The date of the annual meeting of members.

12. The manner in which the member shall be notified of meetings.

13. The number of members which shall be a quorum at meetings.

14. Such other regulations as may seem necessary. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2469. Board of directors; officersElection of Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee

Section 1. At the annual meeting the members shall elect a board of directors of not less than five (5) members and a supervisory committee of three (3) members. No member of the board of directors or credit committee shall be a member of the supervisory committee.

Election of officers

Sec. 2. At their first meeting the board of directors shall elect from their number a president, vice-president, secretary and a treasurer, who shall be the executive officers of the association.

Terms of officers and directors

Sec. 3. All members of the board of directors as well as the officers they elect, shall be sworn, and shall hold their several offices until others are elected and qualified in their stead.

Record of qualifications

Sec. 4. A record of every such qualification shall be filed and preserved with the records of the association. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 4.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2470. Duties and responsibilities of directorsGeneral

Section 1. The board of directors shall have the general management of the affairs, funds and records of the association, and shall meet as often as may be necessary.

Special

Sec. 2. It shall be their special duty:

a. To act upon all applications for membership either directly or through a membership officer, appointed by the board from among the members of the credit unions, who may be authorized to approve applications for membership under such conditions as the board may prescribe. The membership officer, if appointed, shall submit to the board at least once each month a list of approved or pending applications for membership received since the previous board meeting, together with such other related information as the bylaws or the board may require. No person holding the office of treasurer, assistant treasurer or loan officer shall be eligible for the office of membership officer.

b. To act upon the expulsion of members.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

c. To fix the amount of surety bond which shall be required of each officer having custody of the funds, in compliance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Banking Commissioner.

d. To determine the rate of interest on loans.

e. To fill vacancies in the board of directors or in the credit committee of the association until the election and qualification of officers to fill said vacancies.

f. To determine the maximum number of shares which may be held by any one (1) member.

g. To determine the maximum amount which may be lent to any one (1) member.

h. To declare dividends or to make recommendations to the meetings of the members relative to the amount of dividends to be declared.

i. To make recommendations to meetings of the members relative to the amount of entrance fee, amendments to the bylaws and any other matters which in their opinion the members should decide. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 70, ch. 42, § 2; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 4.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2480. Audit

Immediately before a meeting of the directors called to declare a dividend or to recommend the declaration of a dividend, the supervisory committee shall make a thorough audit of the receipts, disbursements, income, assets and liabilities of the association for the fiscal year, and shall make a full report thereon to the directors. Said report shall be read at the annual meeting and shall be filed and preserved with the records of the association. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 5.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2482. Dividends

Section 1. A dividend may be paid from income which has been actually collected from the time the credit union began business to the close of the fiscal year next preceding such payment, after deduction of all expenses and the statutory guaranty fund to the close of said fiscal year.

Sec. 2. Before any such dividend may be paid, it shall first be declared by the board of directors, if the bylaws so provide, or at the annual meeting.

Sec. 3. Such dividend shall be paid on all fully paid shares outstanding at the close of the fiscal year, but shares which become fully paid during the year shall be entitled only to a proportional part of said dividend calculated from the first day of the month following such payment in full, except that dividend credit for a month may be accrued on shares which are or become fully paid up during the first ten (10) days of that month.

Sec. 4. Dividends due to a member shall be paid to him in cash or credited to the account of partly paid shares for which he has subscribed. Dividends shall not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum. Formerly art. 2481. Reassigned and codified as art. 2482 and amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 679, ch. 285, § 2; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 70, ch. 42, § 4; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 6.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2483. Dissolution, Conversion and Liquidation

Section 1. At any meeting specially called to consider the subject, the members upon the unanimous recommendation of the board of directors may vote to dissolve the association by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the members present at such meeting. A committee of three (3) shall thereupon be elected to liquidate the assets of the association; and each share of the capital stock, according to the amount paid in thereon, shall be entitled to its proportion of the proceeds after all debts of the association have been paid. In case of liquidation the Department of Banking shall be immediately notified and the liquidation proceedings shall be under the supervision of the Banking Commissioner.

Sec. 2. Any credit union now organized or that may be hereafter organized under the laws of the State of Texas may convert to a federal credit union by reorganizing under the provisions of the Federal Credit Union Act;¹ provided such conversion has been affirmatively approved by a vote of at least two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the members of such credit union present and voting at a special meeting called by the directors to consider the subject of conversion; and provided further, that the state credit union shall not cease to be a state credit union, subject to the supervision of the Banking Commissioner until (1) the Commissioner has been given written notice of the intention to convert for at least thirty (30) days; and (2) the credit union has filed with the Commissioner a transcript of the conversion proceedings sworn to by a majority of the qualified directors of the credit union; and (3) such credit union has received a charter to do business as a federal credit union.

Sec. 3. Any federal credit union chartered and operating under the Federal Credit Union Act, otherwise eligible to become a state credit union, may convert into a state credit union in accordance with federal laws, rules and regulations, and subject to examination and approval by the Banking Commissioner of the State of Texas.

Sec. 4. (A) The Banking Commissioner may prescribe rules and regulations for the merger, consolidation and dissolution of credit unions.

(B) (1) Whenever the Banking Commissioner, through examination finds that the interests of depositors and creditors of a state credit union are seriously jeopardized through its insolvency or imminent insolvency and that it is to the best interest of such depositors and creditors that the credit union be closed and its assets liquidated, he may close and liquidate the credit union, unless its board of directors close the credit union and place it in his hands for liquidation. Further, if the Banking Commissioner, through examination, finds that the capital of a state credit union is seriously impaired, or that it is conducting its affairs in an unsafe, unauthorized or unlawful manner, or that it refuses to submit to examination, or is hindering examination, he shall call together the directors of such credit union and lay before them the facts and require such credit union to make good the matter or matters complained of. If the board of directors of such credit union fails or refuses to file with the Banking Commissioner, within ninety (90) days from the date of the Banking Commissioner's official notice, satisfactory evidence that the matter or matters complained of have been cured to the satisfaction of the Banking

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Commissioner, then in such event the Banking Commissioner shall certify such facts to the State Banking Board, whereupon the State Banking Board shall notify such directors of a hearing to be held in Austin, Texas, not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days from the date such notice is mailed. Said directors may appear at such hearing and be heard and after said hearing said State Banking Board may order such credit union closed and its affairs liquidated, or said State Banking Board may enter such other order as said State Banking Board may deem appropriate.

(2) At any time within five (5) days after the Banking Commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions of this Article such credit union acting through its directors, may sue in the district court of the credit union's domicile to enjoin the Commissioner from liquidating the credit union, and the court, or the judge thereof if in vacation, may, without notice or hearing, restrain the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the Commissioner to hold the assets of such credit union in his possession pending final disposition of such suit. The Commissioner shall thereupon refrain from liquidating such assets, provided, however, the Commissioner may with approval of the district judge, take such action as may be necessary or proper to prevent loss or depreciation in the value of the assets. The court shall, as soon as possible, hear the suit upon its merits and shall enter a judgment either enjoining the Commissioner from liquidating the assets of the credit union, or refusing to issue such an injunction. Appeal shall lie from such judgment as in other civil cases, but the Commissioner, irrespective of the character of judgment entered by the trial court or any supersedeas bond filed, shall retain possession of the assets of such credit union pending final disposition on appeal.

(3) The Banking Commissioner, through such persons as he shall designate, may examine any credit union in voluntary liquidation and, upon his findings that such voluntary liquidation is not being conducted in an orderly manner or to the best interest of its creditors and members, may terminate such voluntary liquidation and place such credit union in involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent therefor.

(4) Liquidating agents shall have power and authority, subject to the control and supervision of the Banking Commissioner and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner may prescribe:

(a) to receive and take possession of the books, records, assets and property of every description of the credit union in liquidation, to sell, enforce collection of, and liquidate all such assets and property, to compound all bad or doubtful debts, and to sue in his own name or in the name of the credit union in liquidation, and defend such actions as may be brought against him as liquidating agent or against the credit union;

(b) to receive, examine, and pass upon all claims against the credit union in liquidation, including claims of members on shares;

(c) to make distribution and payment to creditors and members as their interest may appear; and

(d) to execute such documents and papers and to do such other acts and things which he may deem necessary or desirable to discharge his duties hereunder.

(5) Subject to the control and supervision of the Commissioner and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner may prescribe, the liquidating agent of a credit union in involuntary liquidation shall:

(a) cause notice to be given to creditors and members to present their claims and make legal proof thereof, which notice shall be published once a week in each of three (3) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the credit union in liquidation maintained an office or branch for the transaction of business on the date it ceased unrestricted operations; except that whenever the aggregate book value of the assets and property of the credit union in involuntary liquidation is less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), unless the Commissioner shall find that its books and records do not contain a true and accurate record of its liabilities, he shall declare the credit union in liquidation to be a "no publication" liquidation, and publication notice to creditors and members shall not be required in such case;

(b) from time to time make a ratable dividend on all such claims as may have been proved to his satisfaction or adjusted in a court of competent jurisdiction and, after the assets of such credit union have been liquidated, make further dividends on all claims previously proved or adjusted, and he may accept in lieu of a formal proof of claim on behalf of any creditor or member the statement of any amount due to such creditor as shown on the books and records of the credit union; but all claims not filed before payment of the final dividend shall be barred and claims rejected or disallowed by the liquidating agent shall be likewise barred unless suit be instituted thereon within three (3) months after notice of rejection or disallowance; and

(c) In a "no publication" liquidation, determine from all sources available to him, and within the limits of available funds of the credit union, the amounts due to creditors and members, and after sixty (60) days shall have elapsed from the date of his appointment distribute the funds of the credit union to creditors and members ratably and as their interest may appear.

(6) Upon certification by the liquidating agent in the case of an involuntary liquidation, and upon such proof as shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner in the case of a voluntary liquidation, that distribution has been made and that liquidation has been completed, as provided herein, the Commissioner shall cancel the charter of such credit union; but the corporate existence of the credit union shall continue for a period of three (3) years from the date of such cancellation of its charter, during which period the liquidating agent, or his duly appointed successor, or such persons as the Commissioner shall designate, may act on behalf of the credit union for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and it may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(7) The liquidating agent, in his individual capacity, or for his personal benefit, shall not acquire any of the assets of a credit union in liquidation, shall not purchase any loans and, except for the compensation he shall receive as set forth in his contract of employment as liquidating agent, he shall not obtain from his activity as liquidating agent any compensation or profit for himself or any member of his family or any person associated with him in any business enterprise except the credit union involved. Any person who shall participate in a violation of this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by confinement in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and

Art. 2484a. "Capital and surplus," defined

The term "capital and surplus" as used in this Act shall mean the aggregate of the paid-up shares of the members, plus accumulated undivided earnings of the credit union, less any and all outstanding obligations and liabilities of the credit union other than borrowings. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 8.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2484b. Advisory Commission

Creation; membership; powers and duties

Sec. 1. For the purpose of assisting in the organization and development of credit unions and to advise the Banking Commissioner in the performance of his duties under this title, there shall be an advisory commission consisting of five (5) members which shall have such powers and perform such duties as are prescribed by law.

Appointment of members

Sec. 2. Members of the advisory commission shall be appointed by the Governor from a list submitted by credit unions operating in this state.

Experience of members

Sec. 3. All members of the advisory commission shall have at least five (5) years experience in the operation of a credit union.

Terms of members

Sec. 4. Members of the advisory commission shall serve for terms of three (3) years, each term so arranged that no three (3) terms expire during the same year. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner of original appointments by the Governor.

Meetings

Sec. 5. The advisory commission shall meet at least twice annually. Special meetings may be called either by the chairman of the advisory commission or the Banking Commissioner.

Reimbursement for expenses

Sec. 6. Each member of the advisory commission shall be reimbursed for all expenses incidental to travel, board and lodging incurred by him in connection with the performance of his official duties at any regular or special meeting of the commission, but no salary shall be paid to the members of the advisory commission.

Chairman; election

Sec. 7. The chairman of the advisory commission shall be elected annually by the members thereof.

Advising banking commissioner

Sec. 8. The Banking Commissioner shall confer with the said advisory commission from time to time relative to policies and problems affecting credit unions, and advisory commission shall advise with the Banking Commissioner in improving the condition and service of credit unions. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 9.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2484c. Slander or libel of credit unions; penalty

Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate, or transmit to another or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any credit union in the state, with intent to injure any such credit union; or who shall counsel, aid, procure, or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit, or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or confined in the state penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 577, ch. 209, § 10.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

TITLE 47—DEPOSITORIESCHAPTER ONE—STATE DEPOSITORIES*Art. 2525. 2417 Depository Board

The State Treasurer, as secretary, together with one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years and the Banking Commissioner, shall constitute the State Depository Board. Said Board shall have the right and the power to make and enforce such rules and regulations governing the establishment and conduct of State Depositories and the handling of funds therein as the public interest may require, not inconsistent with the provisions of the laws governing such depositories, which rules and regulations shall be in writing and entered upon the minutes of the Board. Said Board shall have the power to determine and designate the amount of state funds deposited by them in State Depositories that shall be "demand deposits" and what amount shall be "time deposits," and may contract with said depositories in regard to the payment of interest on "time or demand deposits" not to exceed such rate as may be lawful under any Act of Congress and such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The term "demand deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit which is payable on demand, and the term "time deposits," as used herein, shall mean any deposit with reference to which there is in force a contract that neither the whole nor any part of such deposit may be withdrawn by check or otherwise prior to the expiration of the period of notice which must be given in writing in advance of withdrawals. Whenever the word "treasurer" is used in the statutes it shall mean the State Treasurer, and the word "Board" shall mean the State Depository Board. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1138, ch. 442, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Control and lease of lands for oil, gas and other mineral developments

Sec. 10. The Board of Regents of the University of Houston is hereby authorized and empowered to lease for oil, gas, sulphur, ore and other mineral development all lands under its exclusive control or any part thereof now controlled or owned or that may be hereafter acquired for the use of the University of Houston. Said Board of Regents is authorized and empowered to make and enter into pooling agreements, division orders, or other contracts necessary in the management and development of its said lands. All leases made or sold hereunder and all pooling agreements, division orders or other contracts entered into hereunder shall be made, sold or entered into on such terms as the Board deems in the best interest of the University of Houston. Provided, however, that no lease shall be sold for less than the royalty and rental terms demanded at that time by the General Land Office in the sale of oil, gas and other mineral leases of the public lands of the State of Texas. All moneys received under and by virtue of said leases or other contracts in the management and development of its said lands except such moneys as may, from time to time, be encumbered or pledged to the payment of revenue bonds or notes under the provisions of Section 11 of Chapter 370, Acts of the Fifty-seventh Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1961, as now or hereafter amended (compiled as Article 2615g, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as now or hereafter amended), shall be deposited to the credit of a Special Fund created by said Board in such depository as may be designated by such Board, and moneys deposited in such Special Fund shall be accorded the same protection by the pledging of assets of the depository as is now required or may hereafter be required by law for the protection of public funds. Moneys so deposited may be used or expended by the said Board for administration of said University, payment of principal and interest on any revenue bonds or notes issued by said Board, and any other use or purpose which in the judgment of said Board may be for the good of said University. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 854, ch. 326, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Eminent domain

Sec. 10a. The Board of Regents is hereby vested with the power of eminent domain to acquire for the use of the University of Houston such lands as may be necessary and proper for carrying out its purposes as a State-owned and operated institution of higher education, provided however, the power of eminent domain granted herein shall be restricted to the boundaries of Harris County and any County whose boundaries are contiguous to Harris County. Said Board of Regents shall not be required to deposit a bond or the amount equal to the award of the Commissioners as provided in Section 2 of Article 3268, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. Borrowing funds for construction and equipment of buildings, assessing and pledging fees

Sec. 11. The Board of Regents of the University of Houston is hereby authorized and empowered without cost to the State of Texas to construct or otherwise acquire, improve, enlarge, repair, and equip (including the acquisition of necessary sites), through funds or loans obtained from the United States of America, or any other source, public or private, and accept title thereto, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed by said Board, including, but not limited to, classroom buildings, dormitories, kitchens and dining halls, hospitals, libraries, student activity buildings, gymnasias, athletic buildings and stadia, and such other buildings and facilities as may be needed for the good of the University of Houston and the moral welfare and social conduct of its students, when the total cost, type and plans and specifications of such construction, acquisition, improvements, enlargements, repairs, and equipment have been approved by the Board.

Provided further, that the Board of Regents is authorized, and shall have the duty, to fix fees and charges against the students for the use of said buildings and facilities so long as any loans issued or incurred hereunder remain outstanding, and to pledge the revenues from such fees and charges for the payment of the interest on and principal of said loans, including the establishment and maintenance of reserves as may be provided in the proceedings authorizing such loans; and the Board may also pledge the unused or unpledged revenues from other revenue-producing buildings, structures, facilities and properties (including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, revenues and income derived from ownership of interests in oil, gas, and other minerals) to the payment of loans issued or incurred hereunder.

The loans obtained under the provisions of this Section may be evidenced by negotiable revenue bonds or notes of the Board of Regents, maturing serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, which bonds or notes shall be sold at not less than their par value plus accrued interest from date to delivery. All such revenue bonds and notes and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Texas and this Section and that they will be binding and special obligations of the Board of Regents, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas; and after such approval and registration, they shall be incontestable.

The Board of Regents may issue negotiable revenue refunding bonds or notes to refund or refinance any outstanding revenue bonds, notes, or other forms of indebtedness (including the refunding of any revenue indebtedness outstanding as of the effective date of this Act and including the refunding of revenue refunding bonds or notes), and the revenue refunding bonds or notes issued hereunder shall be issued upon the simultaneous cancellation of the underlying indebtedness being refunded or refinanced thereby. All provisions of this Section relating to original bonds, insofar as such provisions may be made applicable, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds or notes. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 854, ch. 326, § 4.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER 3A.—PAN AMERICAN COLLEGE

Art.
2619a. Pan American College

Art. 2619a. Pan American College

Creation of the College

Section 1. There is hereby established in Hidalgo County, Texas, a coeducational institution of higher learning, which shall be known as Pan American College, to be conducted, operated and maintained under a Board of Regents as herein provided.

Organization and control

Sec. 2. The organization and control of such College shall be vested in a Board of nine (9) Regents, who shall be appointed by the Governor of Texas with the advice and consent of the Senate. The term of office of each Regent shall be six (6) years, provided that in making the first appointment the Governor shall appoint three (3) members for six (6) years, three (3) members for four (4) years and three (3) members for two (2) years. Any vacancy that occurs on the Board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the Governor.

Each member of the Board shall take the Constitutional oath of office. Each member of the Board of Regents shall be a citizen of the State of Texas. The said Board of Regents shall meet for the first time, after the passage of this Act, at the time and place designated by the Governor, as soon after their appointment as possible. They shall organize by electing one (1) of the members Chairman, and by electing such other officers as they deem necessary. They shall enact bylaws, rules and regulations as may be necessary for the successful management and government of the College. They shall select a President for the College as soon as possible after the organization of the Board of Regents. The President shall be executive officer for the Board of Regents and shall work under its direction. He shall recommend the plan of organization of said College and shall be responsible to said Board for the general management and success of said College.

Full, accurate and complete minutes of the Board of Regents shall be kept or maintained, which shall be open to inspection by the public at the College during regular business hours. Certified copies of any minutes shall be furnished on payment of such fee as may be assessed by the Board, not to exceed Twenty-five Cents (25¢) per one hundred (100) words or fractional part thereof. The Board shall adopt such rules or regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary for the successful management and operation of the College.

General business powers of Board

Sec. 3. The Board of Regents has the power to sue and be sued in the name of Pan American College. Venue shall be in either Hidalgo County or Travis County. The College shall be impleaded by service of citation on the President and legislative consent to such suits is herewith granted.

All contracts of the College shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Regents. All contracts, bonds and notes heretofore entered into or issued by or in behalf of Pan American College are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated for and on behalf of the College hereby created. But as to such bonds and notes, such ratification, confirmation and validation shall apply subject to the provisions of and only to the extent provided in Section 14 hereof.

Reimbursement of Regents

Sec. 4. Members of the Board of Regents shall serve without pay, but shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses incurred in attending the work of the Board, subject to the approval of the Chairman.

Meetings of the Board of Regents

Sec. 5. The Board of Regents shall hold a regular meeting at the campus of Pan American College during the month of April, annually, and at such times and places as shall be scheduled by it, or as the Chairman shall call from time to time.

Reports by Board of Regents

Sec. 6. The Board of Regents shall report to the Governor, annually, to each Regular Session of the Legislature, at the beginning thereof, and to the Texas Commission on Higher Education, annually, the condition of the College, setting forth, in detail, the receipts and disbursements, the number of teachers and salary of each member of the faculty, the number of employees and each salary received and general statement of duties performed, the number of students, classified by grades and departments, an itemized statement of all the expenses incurred for each year, together with a summary of the proceedings of the Board and of the faculty.

Regents may appoint and remove officers

Sec. 7. The Board of Regents shall have power to appoint and to remove the President, any faculty member, or other officer or employee of the College when in its judgment, the interest of the College shall require it, and it shall fix the respective salaries and duties of such officers and employees.

Establishment and operation of the College

Sec. 8. This Act shall become effective September 1, 1963. Prior to September 1, 1963, the Regents provided for in this Act shall be appointed. During the period from September 1, 1963, to August 31, 1965, they shall blend their organization with the organization of the Board of Regents of Pan American Regional College District of Hidalgo County, Texas, said latter Board of Regents to continue to be selected and serve until August 31, 1965, as provided in Section 2815t, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas. There shall be for the period from September 1, 1963, to August 31, 1965, one integrated Board of Regents composed of the nine (9) members appointed by the Governor and the members of the Pan American Regional College District, which shall be jointly organized as one Board of Regents, and shall operate Pan American Regional College District from September 1, 1963, to August 31, 1965, as provided in Section 2815t, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas and shall plan in accordance with this Act to begin operation of Pan American College September 1, 1965.

Interim finances

Sec. 9. For the period from September 1, 1963, to August 31, 1965, Pan American Regional College District shall be financed as is now provided by Acts 1951, 52nd Legislature, Chapter 272, as amended (Article 2815t, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended). During such period the Board of Regents shall be fully empowered to issue bonds pursuant to the authority granted in Article 2815t.

During this operational period the integrated Board of Regents shall arrange for the transfer of properties as hereinafter provided and shall plan the financing of Pan American College provided that failure to effect a transfer of properties and otherwise provide for the College as herein described by September 1, 1965, shall in no way impair but shall leave intact Pan American Regional College District with all laws now thereto pertaining, and provided further, that all interim expenses of the Board of Regents shall be paid by Pan American Regional College District.

The work of the College, courses and degrees

Sec. 10. Pan American College is empowered to offer work and confer degrees which will be recognized as first-class college work, said courses and work to be developed and offered when in the judgment of the Board of Regents and the educational welfare of the area served by the College justifies such courses and work; provided, however, that the role and scope of Pan American College, including its authorized departments and offerings of degree and certificate programs at the effective date of this Act, shall be subject to the determination and approval of the Texas Commission on Higher Education.

Additional courses and programs

Sec. 11. No new department, degree program, or certificate program shall be added by Pan American College after the effective date of this Act, except by specific prior approval by the Texas Commission on Higher Education.

Tuition or registration fees

Sec. 12. The Board of Regents shall cause to be collected from students registering in the College, tuition or registration fees at rates set in Section 1 of Chapter 196, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1933, as such Act was last amended by Chapter 435, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, and the provisions of that Act as amended in 1957 shall apply to Pan American College unless in conflict with this Act.

Transfer of property

Sec. 13. Pan American Regional College District, acting by and through its Board of Regents, has agreed to donate to the Board of Regents of the College herein created all of the assets, real, personal, tangible and intangible, held in its name, whether of record or not; on or before the first day of September, 1965; provided, however, that such transfer must be accomplished prior to the assumption of full financial support, control and management of the College herein created by the State of Texas, together with all of the indebtedness against it on that date still outstanding to the extent set forth in this Act, and from such date Pan American College, created by this Act, shall hold title to all properties so conveyed and shall commence operations of such properties for the use and benefit of the State of Texas

General and special obligation debts of Pan American Regional College District

Sec. 14. The General and Special Obligations of Pan American Regional College District are as follows:

(1) Special Obligation Debt.

(a) Building Revenue Bonds: The remaining unpaid balance of a bond issue originally issued in the aggregate principal amounts of $584,000.00 entitled Board of Regents of Pan American Regional College District Building Revenue Bonds, Series 1960. Such bonds are secured by pledge of a building use fee charged all students enrolled in Pan American College for the use of the buildings of the General Academic Building System. The Board of Regents of the college herein created, will be charged with the duty of fixing such fee to be sufficient to provide at all times monies sufficient for paying of the principal of and the interest on the bonds and all other payments, charges, and deposits required in connection with the bonds. Said bonds shall remain a charge against all students enrolled in the college for the use of such buildings; and this Act shall not be construed to place any further or additional obligations on the Pan American College created by this Act.

(b) The remaining unpaid balance of a bond issue originally issued in the aggregate principal amount of $216,000.00 entitled Board of Regents of Pan American Regional College District Auxiliary Enterprise System Revenue Bonds, Series 1960, and the remaining unpaid balance of a bond issue originally issued in the aggregate principal amount of $396,000.00, entitled Board of Regents of Pan American Regional College District Auxiliary Enterprise System Revenue Bonds, Series 1962. The payment of such issues is secured by pledge of the net revenue derived from the operation of an auxiliary enterprise system (which presently consists of a Student Union Building, including a bookstore, game room, dining hall and snack bar, and two dormitories for sixty (60) students, and one (1) supervisor, each), and the revenue derived from a student union building fee levied against all enrolled students. The Board of Regents of Pan American College created by this Act is charged with setting such fee to be sufficient, together with other pledged revenue, to meet all debt service, and reserve requirements. Such bonds are secured at the present time only by liens on such revenues and it is hereby enacted that they shall never become general obligations of the Pan American College created by this Act, but shall remain a charge upon the net revenue derived from the operation of an auxiliary enterprise system and the revenue derived from the student union building fee levied against all enrolled students.

(2) General Obligation Debt.

The remaining unpaid balance of Edinburg Junior College District School Bonds, Series 1948, which is a limited tax bond, originally in the principal sum of $600,000.00, and which was assumed in 1952 by Pan American Regional College District. Such bond was assumed under Section 15, Article 2815t, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and secured by tax revenue up to but not exceeding Fifty Cents (50¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) of assessed valuation of taxable property located in the Pan American Regional College District, which is co-terminus with Hidalgo County, Texas, and such bonds shall remain a general obligation of Pan American Regional College District. It is hereby enacted that such obligation shall never become a general obligation of Pan American College created by this Act, but shall remain an obligation of Pan American Regional College District. From and after such date as the Board of Regents of Pan American Regional College District shall be dissolved the Commissioners Court of Hidalgo County, Texas, shall have the duty and power to set the tax rate necessary to service such bonds, and the tax assessor and collector of said county shall assess and collect the taxes of said college district on the taxable property in the territory of said district located in the County of Hidalgo, as defined under Section 12 and Section 15 of Article 2815t of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, for the purposes of servicing and retirement of said bonds. That such tax collector shall collect the college district taxes at the same time that he collects the state and county taxes, and all taxes collected for the Pan American Regional College District shall be accounted for and paid over to the Treasurer of Hidalgo County, Texas. The County Treasurer shall maintain and hold the interest and sinking fund for such bonds and the County shall service the bonds in accordance with the bond indenture of said bonds. The tax assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation for his services in assessing and collecting such taxes as provided by law for like services rendered for junior college districts. Provided, however, that the total annual tax levied for the retirement of such bonds shall not exceed a rate of Fifty Cents (50¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) of assessed evaluation of taxable property located in the Regional College District of Hidalgo County, Texas.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 15. The Board of Regents is authorized to accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the College to be held in trust and administered by said Board for such purposes and under such directions, limitations and provisions as may be declared in writing in the donation, gift, or endowment, not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas or with the objectives and proper management of said College.

Borrowing funds for construction and equipment of buildings, assessing and pledging fees

Sec. 16. The Board of Regents of Pan American College is hereby authorized and empowered without cost to the State of Texas to construct or otherwise acquire, and equip (including the acquisition of necessary sites), through funds or loans obtained from the United States of America, or any agency thereof, or any other source, public or private, and accept title thereto, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed by said Board, including, but not limited to, classroom buildings, dormitories, kitchens and dining halls, hospitals, libraries, student activity buildings, gymnasias, athletic buildings and stadia, and such other buildings and facilities as may be needed for the good of Pan American College and the moral welfare and social conduct of its students, when the total cost, type of construction, capacity of the buildings or facilities, plans and specifications have been approved by the Board.

Provided further, that the Board is authorized to fix fees and charges against students for the use of said buildings and facilities so long as any indebtedness issued hereunder remains outstanding, and to pledge the revenues from such fees and charges for the payment of the interest on and principal of said indebtedness, including the establishment and maintenance of reserves as may be provided in the proceedings relating to such indebtedness.

The loans obtained under the provisions of this Section may be evidenced by negotiable revenue bonds or notes of the Board of Regents. Such revenue bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates, and shall be sold at not less than their par value plus accrued interest from date to delivery. They shall be payable solely from the revenues of said buildings and facilities, including the fees and charges against students for the use of such buildings and facilities, and the Board may also pledge the unused or unpledged revenues from other revenue-producing buildings, structures, and facilities to the payment of the bonds and notes issued under this Section. In the resolution authorizing the issuance of any revenue bonds or notes and in the proceedings relating thereto, the Board of Regents may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund, reserve fund or funds, and any other funds provided for therein, and may make such covenants with respect to the bonds or notes and the pledged revenues and the operation, maintenance, and upkeep of such buildings and facilities as it may deem appropriate. Said resolution and other proceedings may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or notes payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds or notes to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds or notes then being issued, subject to the conditions as are set forth in said resolution or other proceedings. Such resolution and other proceedings may contain such other provisions and covenants, as the Board of Regents shall determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of the State of Texas or by this Act.

Bonds or notes issued under this Section shall not constitute an indebtedness of the State of Texas or a charge against funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

The Board of Regents may issue revenue refunding bonds or notes to refund or refinance any outstanding revenue bonds, notes, or other forms of indebtedness (including the refunding of any revenue indebtedness outstanding as of the effective date of this Act and including the refunding of revenue refunding bonds or notes), and the revenue refunding bonds or notes issued hereunder shall be issued upon the simultaneous cancellation of the underlying indebtedness being refunded or refinanced thereby. All provisions of this Section relating to original bonds, insofar as such provisions may be made applicable, shall apply to such revenue refunding bonds or notes.

The Board of Regents is hereby granted all the powers conferred by Sections 4 to 8(a), both inclusive, of Chapter 368, Acts of the 54th Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 2909c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended); provided, that in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of said Sections 4 to 8(a), both inclusive, and the provisions of this Section, the provisions of this Section shall govern and prevail.

Prior to the delivery thereof, all revenue bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination and if he finds that they have been authorized to be issued in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Texas and this Act, and that they will be binding and special obligations of the Board of Regents, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and after such approval and registration they shall be incontestable.

All revenue bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this Section (whether original bonds or notes or refunding bonds or notes) shall be, and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the State of Texas, and all such bonds and notes shall be, and are hereby declared to be, legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Management of dormitories and other facilities

Sec. 17. The Board of Regents is authorized to fix fees, rentals and charges for the use of the dormitories, auditoriums, dining halls, buildings and all other facilities of Pan American College, and shall make rules and regulations to assure the maximum occupancy and use thereof. The charges made and fees fixed against students and others using any such facilities shall be in amounts deemed by the Board to be reasonable, taking into consideration the cost of providing such facilities and services, the use to be made thereof, and the advantages to be derived therefrom.

Contracts for military training

Sec. 18. The Board of Regents is empowered to contract with the Department of Defense of the United States of America to establish and maintain courses of military training as a part of its curriculum, with the work of students enrolling in such courses being credited toward degree requirements under such regulations as the Board of Regents may prescribe. Included within its power to contract is the power to lease armory lands and buildings from and to the United States of America, and to acquire such equipment and material as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of such courses, and to enter into insurance contracts for the protection of the Federal Government's rights in and to such properties.

No student of the College shall ever be required to take any portion of such military training as a condition for entrance into the College or for graduation therefrom.

Applicability of General Laws

Sec. 19. From and after the operative date of this Act, the Pan American College herein created shall be subject to the obligations and entitled to the benefits of all General Laws of Texas applicable to other state institutions of higher learning, except where such General Laws are in conflict with this Act, and in such instances of conflict this Act shall prevail only to the extent of such conflict. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 421, ch. 146.

Effective Sept. 1, 1963.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 421, ch. 146, § 20 repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 2647d. West Texas State University; name

Section 1. The name of the coeducational institution of higher learning at Canyon, Texas, now known as West Texas State College, shall hereafter be known as "West Texas State University"; and said West Texas State University as newly named shall remain under the jurisdiction of the Board of Regents, Texas State Teachers Colleges.

Sec. 2. Wherever the name West Texas State College, or West Texas State Teachers College, or any reference to either, appear in any Acts of any Legislature of this State, such name and such reference shall hereafter mean and apply to West Texas State University, in order to conform to the new name of said University as provided in Section 1 hereof.

Sec. 3. All legislative Acts and appropriations heretofore passed either in or by reference to West Texas State College or to West Texas State Teachers College or to West Texas State University are in all things ratified and confirmed in behalf of West Texas State University. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 60, ch. 40, §§ 1-3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2647d—1. Killgore Research Center at West Texas State College Gifts and donations; location of research center

Section 1. The Board of Regents of the State Teachers Colleges is hereby authorized to accept gifts and donations of money and other personal property from The Killgore Foundation and from any other private organization or individual, to establish, construct, maintain and operate a regional research center to be known as the Killgore Research Center, on any land held by the Board of Regents for the use of West Texas State College.

Transfer of money; disbursements

Sec. 2. All money so received shall be transferred as soon as available to the West Texas State College Foundation or to any other fund or foundation chosen by agreement between the donors and the administration of West Texas State College. The disbursement of all such money shall be under the supervision of the Business Manager of West Texas State College, subject to accounting procedures approved by the State Auditor.

Maintenance and administration

Sec. 3. The maintenance and administration of the research center shall be the responsibility of the State of Texas acting through the administration of West Texas State College, with the advice and assistance of an advisory council on research selected by the administration and the donors.

Permanent research program

Sec. 4. In order to provide for a permanent research program, the administration of the college may:

(1) Establish formalized working relationships with established research programs, similar to the relationship already developed between West Texas State College and The University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute;

(2) Integrate the research program now developing in the Graduate School of West Texas State College with the research program to be established at the research center;

(3) Employ Project Directors who are recognized researchers and who have had experience in applying for and using research grants from governmental agencies and private foundations;

(4) Assign a person from the administrative staff of the college as administrator of the research center;

(5) Perform any other acts and make any agreements which will implement and further the research programs of the research center and of the college, consistent with the purposes of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 504, ch. 189.

Emergency. Effective May 18, 1963.

Change of name of West Texas State College to West Texas State University, see art. 2647d. University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, see arts. 2603f, 2603f-1.

5. ANGELO STATE COLLEGE

Art. 2654.2. Angelo State College

Creation of college; organization, control and management

Section 1. There is hereby created and established in the City of San Angelo, Tom Green County, Texas, a coeducational institution of higher learning for the youth of the state, which shall be known as Angelo State College. The organization, control and management of said Angelo State College shall be vested in the Board of Regents of the State Teachers Colleges.

Board of regents; appointment of officers and employees; salaries

Sec. 2. The Board of Regents shall have the power to appoint and to remove the President, any faculty member, or other officer or employee of the College, when, in its judgment, the interests of the College shall require the appointment or removal thereof, and it shall fix the respective salaries and duties of such officers, all faculty members and all employees by written order incorporated into the minutes of the Board.

Courses of study; degrees; fees

Sec. 3. Angelo State College shall offer courses of higher learning in the arts and sciences, in business administration and teacher training, establishing a standard four-year course for said College. Such courses of study shall be offered as are found in the senior colleges of the state in similar fields as the Board of Regents may, in writing, order; provided, however, that the role and scope of Angelo State College, including its authorized departments and offerings of degree and certificate programs at the effective date of this Act, shall be subject to the determination and approval of the Texas Commission on Higher Education; and provided further, that any bachelor's degree shall be based on four (4) years of college work, and any higher degree may be offered, with appropriate courses, only on the recommendation of the Board of Regents with the written approval of the Texas Commission on Higher Education, specifying such courses, and financed by public funds, when it is determined that the educational welfare of the people served by the College, and the best interests of the state, demand such advanced courses and degrees; and provided further, that all work done and all courses, certificates and diplomas awarded to students shall conform to standard college requirements of The University of Texas for any degrees awarded. Short courses, terminal courses and special courses of practical value to the people may be given, from time to time, by Angelo State College as the Board of Regents shall order and direct in writing; provided, however, that fees equal to those customarily charged for similar courses in other state colleges shall be levied for such courses. Additional courses of study to be offered at the third and fourth year levels shall be submitted to and approved, in writing, by the Texas Commission on Higher Education, or its successors, before being offered at Angelo State College, and no credits shall be awarded in any course or courses of study not so approved.

Assets of Junior college district of Tom Green County

Sec. 4. The Junior College District of Tom Green County, Texas, acting by and through its Board of Trustees, has agreed to transfer, give and donate to the Board of Regents, and its successors, of the College herein created, all of the assets, real, personal, tangible and intangible, held in its name, whether of record or not, on the first day of September, 1965, and the Board of Regents is hereby authorized to acquire, by gift, the aforesaid corporeal properties and facilities, of the Junior College District of Tom Green County, Texas, as it now exists, provided, that said corporeal properties and facilities of the aforesaid Junior College District of Tom Green County shall be delivered to the Board of Regents, or to its successors, free and clear of any indebtedness or indebtednesses, encumbrance or encumbrances of any kind or character and of whatsoever nature.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 5. The Board of Regents, or its successors, of the College created herein, is authorized to accept donations, gifts and endowments for the College, to be held in trust and administered by said Board of Regents for such purposes and under such directions, limitations and provisions as may be declared in writing in the donation, gift or endowment, not inconsistent with the laws of this state or with the objectives and proper management of said College.

Management and control of lands; conveyances and leases

Sec. 6. The Board of Regents or its successors is hereby vested with the sole and exclusive management and control of all the lands, including lands with oil and gas and other minerals, owned by the Junior College District of Tom Green County, Texas. The Board of Regents or its successors is authorized and empowered to sell, lease, explore and develop such lands, to make and enter into unitization agreements, execute division orders or other contracts necessary in the management and development of said lands, all on such terms and conditions as the Board of Regents deems in the best interests of the College; provided, however, that no lease shall be sold for less than the royalty and rental terms demanded at that time by the General Land Office of the State of Texas in the sale of oil, gas and other mineral leases of the public lands of the State of Texas.

All monies received under such conditions shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a special fund which in the judgment of said Board of Regents may be invested and which principal and income may be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the administration of said College.

Fees, rentals and charges

Sec. 7. The Board of Regents is authorized and shall prescribe the fees, rentals and charges for the use of dormitories, auditoriums, dining halls, buildings and all other facilities of Angelo State College, and shall make rules and regulations to assure the maximum occupancy and optimum use thereof. The charges made and fees fixed against students and all others using any such facilities shall be in amounts deemed by the Board of Regents to be reasonable, taking into consideration the cost of providing such facilities and services, the use to be made thereof and the advantages or benefits to be derived therefrom. Any and all fees that may be derived therefrom shall be reported to the Board of Regents as may be required by it, including a brief statement of the use made of such facilities and of the persons, firm, organization or association that used such facilities to be included in each report.

Obligations and benefits of general laws

Sec. 8. From and after the operative date of this Act, Angelo State College herein created shall be subject to the obligations and entitled to the benefits of all General Laws of Texas applicable to all other state institutions of higher learning, except where such General Laws are in conflict with this Act, and in such instances of conflict this Act shall prevail only to the extent of such conflict.

Military training

Sec. 9. The Board of Regents, subject to the approval of the Texas Commission on Higher Education, is empowered to contact¹ upon terms and conditions mutually agreed upon with the Department of Defense of the United States of America to establish and maintain courses of military training as a part of its curriculum, with the work of students enrolling in such courses being credited toward degree requirements under such regulations as the Board of Regents may prescribe, provided, however, that no student of the College shall ever be required to take any portion of such military training as a condition for entrance into the College or for graduation therefrom. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 468, ch. 167.

CHAPTER NINE A—TUITION AND CONTROL OF FUNDS OF STATE INSTITUTIONS

Art. 2654a. Tuition in state educational institutions

Sec. 2. In addition to tuition fees authorized by law, any such educational institution shall make and collect a laboratory charge in an amount sufficient to cover in general the cost of laboratory materials and supplies used by a student; provided, however, that such charge shall be not less than Two Dollars ($2) nor more than Eight Dollars ($8) for any one semester or summer term from any student in any one laboratory course. It is further provided that any such educational institution may also collect a reasonable deposit not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10), from each student to insure said institution against losses, damages, and breakage in libraries and laboratories, said deposits to be returned upon withdrawal or graduation of a student less such loss, damage, or breakage as may have been done by each individual student who has put up such a deposit; except, however, that the Medical and Dental units of The University of Texas System shall collect a breakage or loss deposit no greater than Thirty Dollars ($30). As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 99, ch. 12, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 118, ch. 69, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Change of name of West Texas State College to West Texas State University, see art. 2647d.

Art. 2654e. Exemption from tuition fees of students from other nations of American continents; limitation on number

The governing boards of the several institutions of collegiate rank, supported in whole or in part by public funds appropriated from the State Treasury, are hereby authorized and directed to annually exempt from the payment of tuition fees one hundred (100) native-born students from the other nations of the American continents. Five (5) students from each nation shall be exempt as provided herein, unless any nation fails to have five (5) students available and qualified for exemption in which case more than five (5) students from any other nation of the American continent may be exempt, subject to the limitation that no more than one hundred (100) students from all such nations shall be exempt each year, except that no student from Cuba shall be permitted to participate.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Every applicant claiming the benefit authorized herein shall furnish satisfactory evidence, certified by the proper authority of his native country, that he is a bona fide citizen and resident of the country which certifies his application, and that he is scholastically qualified for admission. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with representatives of the governing boards of the State institutions of higher learning, shall formulate and prescribe a plan for the admission and distribution of all applicants desiring to qualify under the provisions of this Act.

No student shall be allowed to take advantage of this Act who is not a native-born citizen of the country certifying his qualifications for receiving the privileges authorized by this Act and who has not lived in one of the nations of the American continents for a period of at least five (5) years. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 544, ch. 201, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1963 repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 2654—3a. Sale or exchange of obligations held for permanent school fund

Section 1. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized to sell or exchange any United States Treasury bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness or other securities issued by the United States Treasury, and is hereby authorized to sell any municipal bonds issued by any county, city, precinct, district or any other political subdivision at any time held by the State Treasurer for the account of the Permanent School Fund; provided, however, that such obligations shall not be sold for a price less than the book value of such obligations; provided further, that United States government obligations shall not be exchanged for other obligations having a par value less than the par value of the obligations to be exchanged. For purposes of this Section, book value shall mean the actual amount of money the Permanent School Fund has invested in such obligations at the time of such sale or exchange. In making each and all of such sales said Board of Education shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital. As amended Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 28, ch. 11, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1180, ch. 466, § 1.

Art. 2675k. Rehabilitation districts for handicapped persons

Definitions

Section 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Handicapped person" means a physically handicapped person or a mentally retarded person, not including blind, whose educational or vocational opportunities are limited as the result of physical or mental limitations.

(b) "Physically handicapped person" means any person six (6) years of age or over, of reasonably normal educable mentality, whose body functions or members are so impaired that they cannot be safely or adequately educated or trained for gainful employment in regular classes of normal persons or without special training and special services not usually available in public schools or without training cannot enjoy independent living.

(c) "Mentally retarded person" means any person six (6) years of age or older, who, because of retarded intellectual development cannot be educated safely and adequately in the public schools with normal children or in readily accessible training institutions in the home environs of such person, but who may be expected to benefit from special education or training facilities designed to make him economically useful and socially adjusted.

(d) "District" (unless otherwise indicated by the context) means any Rehabilitation District created under this Act.

(e) "Trainee" means any handicapped person who is or has been enrolled in a District.

(f) "Board of Directors" means Board of Directors of any District.

(g) "Independent living" shall mean any degree of improvement achieved by a handicapped person whether by freedom from institutional or attendental care or reduction of such care.

Training of handicapped persons

Sec. 2. Rehabilitation Districts may be created to provide education, training, special services, and guidance to handicapped persons peculiar to their condition and needs, to develop their full capacity for usefulness to themselves and society, and to prevent them from becoming or remaining, in whole or in part, dependent on public or private charity.

Authority to provide group residence centers

Sec. 3. Each District may, by itself, or in conjunction with service clubs, women's clubs, or other organizations interested in serving the disabled, cities or counties, or any organization or person deemed equipped by the Board of Directors, provide for group residence rehabilitation centers within the Rehabilitation District. Such group residence centers shall be used as living units, with or without board, for those students or trainees of the Rehabilitation District, who have become gainfully employable and/or employed, and who, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, would benefit from group living while adjusting to work and to general society.

Employment of trainees

Sec. 4. Rehabilitation Districts shall cooperate with the Texas Employment Commission and the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the Texas Education Agency in finding employment for those of its trainees who have become employable.

Additional powers

Sec. 5. All powers relating to the acquisition of land, the construction or acquisition of facilities except the issuance of bonds, and to taxation, vested by law in independent school districts, shall be applicable to any Rehabilitation District, subject to a tax limitation of five cents (5¢) on each One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation.

Entrance requirements

Sec. 6. Any handicapped person six (6) years of age or older not subject to the exceptions in the Subsections of this Section may be admitted into a District for education and training.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(a) No handicapped person shall be admitted into a Rehabilitation District whose parent or guardian, or who himself, if without a parent or guardian, has not lived within the District at least one year next before application for admission, unless full remuneration be received from his home county, family or other sources.

(b) No handicapped person in attendance at a regular public school, between the ages of six (6) and seventeen (17) shall be admitted to a Rehabilitation District without having been referred or assigned to it by the independent school district in which he resides, or by the county school superintendent. If a handicapped person applying to a Rehabilitation District for admission, is over sixteen (16) years of age or under eighteen (18) years of age, and is in attendance at a regular public school, he shall not be admitted to the Rehabilitation District for education and training without having been referred to it for that purpose by the county superintendent, if such public school be situated without an independent school district, or by an independent school district if such public school is within such independent school district.

(c) No handicapped person shall be admitted into a District for education or training as such, without application having been made therefor to it and until he has been found acceptable for education and training by the Entrance Committee of the District which shall set admission standards, such standards having been approved by the Board of Directors. The finding of the Entrance Committee to be created by the Board of Directors, as to the eligibility or ineligibility of an applicant shall be final except that appeal may be made therefrom to the Board of Directors according to an appellate procedure prescribed by the Board of Directors. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final and nonappealable.

(d) To provide for the continuation of an educational program for handicapped persons between the ages of six (6) and seventeen (17) inclusive, the training facility operated by and within the District shall be assigned special education teachers (units) through the public school district in which said training facility is located; the basis for establishing, operating, and the formula to be used for determining allocation of each type of special education unit shall be the same as required by the Texas Education Agency of any school district.

(e) All handicapped persons of scholastic age enrolled and in training in a District shall be credited to the regular school district from which they were referred to said District or in which they resided at the time they entered for training at said District, and such District shall be entitled to receive all State aid and benefits for each referred trainee that said regular school districts from which said trainees were so referred to said District or in which they so resided at the time of their enrollment at the District would have been entitled based on the attendance of said trainees within said scholastic ages.

Board of Directors

Sec. 7. (a) Composition. The Board of Directors of a District shall be composed of one (1) Director from each county commissioner's precinct located in the District, and one (1) Director at large for each county, and, in addition, one (1) Director at large for each fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants, or major fraction of such number of inhabitants, in each county in the special school district.

(b) Initial Selection. Within thirty (30) days after the election creating the District:

(1) Each county commissioner from each precinct in the District must recommend to the county judge of his county, one (1) Director, and the county judge must appoint the recommended person Director; and

(2) The county judge must appoint the Directors at large authorized for each county by Subsection (a) of this Section.

(c) Term of Office for Initial Directors.

(1) The four (4) Directors selected from the commissioners' precincts of each county must determine by lot, in a manner to be prescribed by the Board of Directors, which two (2) shall hold office for a long term and which two (2) for a short term.

(2) If there is more than one (1) Director at large from any county, half of them must serve a long term and half a short term, as also determined by lot. If there is an odd number of Directors at large from any county, the majority of them must serve for the long term and the minority of them for the short term. If there is only one (1) Director at large from any county, he shall serve a short term.

(3) The term of office for those Directors serving a short term runs until the first Saturday in April of the second calendar year after the calendar year in which they were appointed. The term of office for those Directors serving a long term runs until the first Saturday in April of the fourth calendar year after the calendar year in which they were appointed. The term of office for an initial Director from an annexed county must be shortened one (1) year, if necessary to make elections to his office coincide with the elections for Directors in the other counties in the District.

(4) The determinations by lot in Subsection (c) (1) and (2) of this Section must be accomplished at the first meeting of the Initial Board of Directors of the first meeting after an annexation, or as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(5) The Board of Directors must cause a permanent record to be made and preserved of the terms of office of each appointed Director determined by lot as herein provided.

(d) Subsequent Selection of Directors.

(1) At the expiration of the term of office of each Director from a commissioner's precinct, his successor must be elected at an election held in that commissioner's precinct at the same time, and by the same election officers as provided for the election of the county school trustees of that county, except that the names of the candidates for the Board of Directors shall appear on a ballot in every voting precinct in the commissioner's precinct in which the candidate is running, provided that all such elections must be called by the Board of Directors, who must give public notice of elections in advance thereof, in a manner to be determined by the Board of Directors, to call the attention of the voting public thereto. The forms of ballots to be used, conformable to General Law, may also be determined by the Board of Directors, and, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, the same ballot for the election of county trustees may be used for the election of Directors. If there is no election for county trustees on the first Saturday in April when the election of Directors of a District is to be held the election shall nevertheless be called and held for District Directors from commissioners' precincts whose terms expire on said date. The Commissioners Court of each county in which any election of Directors is held must receive and canvass the returns thereof, and declare the results thereof, at the same time and in the same manner as provided by law in the case of the election of county school trustees, and must forthwith certify the results thereof, at the same time and in the same manner as provided by law in the case of the election of county school trustees, and must forthwith certify the results of the election to the Board of Directors. The District must pay its pro rata part of the expenses of the election of its Directors to the Commissioners Court of the county affected.

(2) At the expiration of the term of office of each Director at large, the county judge of the county from which the Director was appointed must appoint his successor.

(3) Vacancies in the offices of Directors must be filled by appointment by the original appointing powers that appointed the initial Directors for the unexpired term.

(e) Term of Office for Elected Directors. The terms of office of all Directors after those initially appointed shall be for four (4) years.

(f) Oath of Office. Every Director and every officer, whether appointed or elected, must, before assuming the duties of his office, qualify by taking the official oath prescribed for State officers.

(g) Officers.

(1) At the first meeting of the Initial Board of Directors, it must select from among its members, a president and a vice president, and must also select a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be Directors. The secretary and treasurer shall have and perform duties and powers as are usually incident to their offices, in the case of private corporation, and such other duties and powers as may be provided by the Board of Directors. The secretary and treasurer may be the same person.

(2) The treasurer must execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety or sureties, in an amount to be determined by the Board of Directors, payable to the president of the Board of Directors, or his successors in office conditioned that the treasurer will faithfully perform the duties of his office, and faithfully account for all sums of money or other property belonging to the District coming into his hands as treasurer. The amount of the bond may, at any time, be increased or decreased by the Board of Directors, according as they may deem necessary for the protection of the property and funds of the District for which the treasurer is accountable. The premiums, if any, for such bond or bonds shall be payable out of funds of the District.

(3) At the first meeting following each election or appointment of Directors, the president and vice president's terms of office shall end, and the Board of Directors must again select a president and vice president.

(4) The secretary and the treasurer shall hold office at the will and pleasure of the Board of Directors.

(5) The Board of Directors may appoint assistant secretaries as it may deem necessary for the proper conduct of the duties of that office.

(h) Compensation. The Board of Directors may authorize the payment of actual expenses of Directors (including travel expenses) incurred by Directors in attending regular or special meetings, or otherwise rendering services for the District on the authority and at the direction of the Board of Directors. The treasurer and secretary, and any assistant secretaries shall receive such compensation, if any, as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

(i) Powers of the Board of Directors. In addition to other powers granted herein, the Board of Directors is empowered and required to:

(1) Govern the District;

(2) Fix such fees and tuition rates as are deemed necessary to supplement other sources of funds for maintaining and operating the District in carrying out its functions, with authority, however, to reduce fees and tuition, or waive them altogether, in cases where the parents or guardians of trainees are able to pay a portion only or none of such tuition or fees, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, or in the judgment of an agency created by the Board of Directors to determine such matters;

(3) Levy taxes and make such distribution of such taxes as it may deem necessary for providing needed housing and facilities, and for the support of the Rehabilitation program, except that the total annual tax for all District purposes shall not exceed the rate of five cents (5¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of taxable property located in such District;

(4) In behalf of the District, accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the District, to be taken in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes, and under such directions, limitations, and provisions, if any, as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with the proper management and objects of the Rehabilitation District;

(5) Conduct the business affairs of the District with the same powers and duties provided by law for the Board of Trustees of independent school districts;

(6) Adopt an official seal and name for the Rehabilitation District;

(7) Plan the residential program and the curriculum of the District, or have them planned under its direction; but in any event, plans must be approved by the Board of Directors, and also by the State Commission of Education and by the Executive Director of the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools;

(8) Make reasonable limitation on the duration of residence and attendance by trainees, according to standards adopted by it, and

(9) Itself, or through an agency established by it for attending to such matters, terminate the training of any trainee who proves to be unadaptable to the training program of the District, or who is so disturbing in conduct to the other trainees as to be detrimental to the District. The exercise of the termination power is unreviewable.

(j) Meetings. The first meeting of the Initial Board of Directors shall be within twenty-one (21) days of the time the Directors are appointed, at a time and place appointed by the county judge of the county of the District containing the greatest population according to the most recent officially proclaimed Federal Census. Thereafter, meetings must be held at such times as may be provided in the rules and bylaws of the Board of Directors. Special meetings may be called by the president, or by any five (5) members of the Board.

(k) Rules of Procedure; Quorum. The Board of Directors may adopt its own rules of procedure, but a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum, and a majority of those in attendance may transact any business.

(l) Regular Office. The Board of Directors must select and maintain within the District a regular office for its meetings and for the transaction of business, at such place within the District as it may determine.

Procedure for establishment of Rehabilitation District

Sec. 8. A Rehabilitation District may be established by voters of a county, or a combination of contiguous counties, containing taxable property, the total assessed valuation of which must be not less than Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000), according to the most recent tax rolls of the county or combination of counties making up the proposed District, in the following manner:

(a) Petition. A petition signed by a number of qualified property tax-paying voters in each county in the proposed Rehabilitation District equal to not less than one per cent (1%) of the total number of votes cast for Governor in such county at the most recent election for Governor held therein, must be filed with the Commissioners Courts of the respective counties. The signatures on the petition must be segregated according to the counties in which the signers reside, under appropriate headings indicating the county of residence. If there is more than one (1) county in the proposed District, the petition must be in two (2) or more parts, one (1) part for each county to be included in the District. The name of the proposed District must be set forth in the petition, and must include the words, "Rehabilitation District for Handicapped Persons." The petition must be dated, and must pray for an election, to be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the date of the petition, to determine whether or not there shall be created a Rehabilitation District for handicapped persons, with power to levy taxes to acquire or construct residence centers and such other facilities, if any, as the Board of Directors may deem necessary or proper for the training and guidance of handicapped trainees and to maintain and operate said District.

(b) Election. Promptly on receipt of a petition, each Commissioners Court must order an election to be held in his county on the date prayed for in the petition. The order must designate polling places, appoint election officers, provide supplies for the election, and set forth the name of the proposed Rehabilitation District as specified in the petition. The election precincts must conform to the regular election precincts of each county. Each Commissioners Court must cause notice of election to be published once each week for two (2) alternate weeks in one (1) or more newspapers having general circulation in its county, the first publication to be at least twenty-one (21) days before the election, and must cause notice to be posted in a public place in each commissioner's precinct, and at the court house door of its county. If a regular session of a Commissioners Court receiving a petition is not to be held in time to order the election and give notice of it, the county judge of that county must, upon the petition being called to his attention, timely call a special session of the Commissioners Court for this purpose. Except as herein provided, the election in each county shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of the State.

(c) Proposition to be Voted Upon. The proposition to be submitted at the election in each county, and to be printed on the ballots, must be:

"FOR the creation of the Rehabilitation District for handicapped persons, with power to levy taxes for residence centers and such other facilities, if any, as the Board of Directors may deem necessary or proper for the training and guidance of such persons and for maintenance and operation of said District.

"AGAINST the creation of the Rehabilitation District for handicapped persons, with power to levy taxes for residence centers and such other facilities, if any, as the Board of Directors may deem necessary or proper for the training and guidance of such persons and for maintenance and operation of said District."

(d) Voters. Only qualified voters who reside and own taxable property in the county in which they offer to vote and who have duly rendered their property for taxation are eligible to vote.

(e) Results of Election. Within ten (10) days after the election, each Commissioners Court must make a canvass of the returns and declare the results of the election. If a majority of those voting in the election in each county vote for the proposition, the establishment of a Rehabilitation District is thereby effected. If the proposition fails to carry in any county, the formation of the Rehabilitation District in counties in which it passed is not affected, unless the counties in which it passed are not contiguous, or do not have a total assessed valuation of property of Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) according to their most recent tax rolls, in which case no Rehabilitation District can be established.

(f) If the election does not create a Rehabilitation District, no subsequent election for the creation of a Rehabilitation District may be had in the affected counties within one (1) year of the date of the election.

(g) Annexation of New Counties. Any county or combination of counties, contiguous to an existing Rehabilitation District may be annexed to it and become a part of it by following the procedures in and meeting the requirements of Subsections (a), (b), and (d) of this Section, with the following exceptions:

(1) The petition in Subsection (a) of this Section must be signed by a number of qualified property taxpaying voters in each county in which annexation is desired equal to one per cent (1%) of the number of votes cast for Governor in such county at the most recent general election for Governor held therein. The petition must contain the name of the District to which annexation is desired, and must pray for an election to determine whether or not the county shall be annexed to the Rehabilitation District.

(2) Proposition to be Voted Upon. The proposition to be voted upon in an election held under this Subsection, and to be printed on the ballots, must be:

"FOR annexation to (here insert the name of the Rehabilitation District)."

"AGAINST annexation to (here insert the name of the Rehabilitation District)."

(3) The Commissioners Court election order in Subsection (b) of this Section, must set forth the name of the Rehabilitation District to which annexation is proposed; and

(4) Within ten (10) days after the election, the Commissioners Court of each county in which there was an election, must canvass the returns and declare the results of the election in that county, and shall forthwith certify the results of such election to the Board of Directors of such existing District. In each county, if any, in which a majority of those voting at the election vote for the proposition, the annexation of such county to said Rehabilitation District shall be thereby effected.

(5) The provisions of this Act prescribing the qualifications of electors to vote in elections to create such Rehabilitation Districts shall apply to elections for the annexation of counties to such Rehabilitation Districts; and all of the provisions of this Act relating to the number and classes of Directors of said Rehabilitation District in each county; the manner of their initial and subsequent selection; the manner of determining the initial terms of office, and fixing the regular terms of office of Directors, as herein set forth concerning the original District, shall be applicable to each annexed county.

Tax collection

Sec. 9. The tax assessors and collectors of each county in a Rehabilitation District must assess and collect taxes on taxable property in the county on levies made and rates fixed by the Board of Directors of that District, not exceeding the rate of five cents (5¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of valuation. The valuations assessed on property for State and County taxes must be used as the valuations for District taxes. Each tax collector must collect District taxes at the same time that he collects State and County taxes. All taxes collected for a Rehabilitation District must be accounted for and paid over to the treasurer of that District, and the tax collector must receive the same compensation for assessing and collecting Rehabilitation District taxes as is provided by law for like services rendered for junior college districts.

Suits

Sec. 10. A Rehabilitation District may sue and be sued in its name. In any suit against such District, process may be served on the president or vice president.

Severability clause

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act is held unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not operate to defeat the whole Act, but all other parts shall stand and remain in full force. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 186, ch. 106.

Art. 2676a. Election of county board of school trustees in counties of 75,000 to 80,000

Section 1. From and after the effective date of this Act in any county in this State having a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) and not more than eighty thousand (80,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, the general management and control of the public free schools and high schools in each county unless otherwise provided by law shall be vested in five (5) county school trustees elected from the county, one of whom shall be elected from the county at large by the qualified voters of the county and one from each commissioners precinct by the qualified voters of each commissioners precinct, who shall hold office for a term of two (2) years. The time for such election shall be the first Saturday in April of each year; the order for the election of county school trustees to be made by the county judge at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of said election, and which order shall designate as voting places or places at which votes are cast for the district trustees of said common and independent school districts, respectively. The election officers appointed to hold the election for district trustees in each of said school districts, respectively, shall hold this election for county school trustees.

Sec. 2. It shall be no valid objection that the voters of a commissioners precinct are required by the operation of this Act to cast their ballots at a polling place outside the commissioners precinct of their residence.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of each county within the scope of Section 1 shall appoint county school trustees to serve until the first regularly scheduled election as provided herein.

Sec. 4. All five (5) county school trustees shall be elected at the first regularly scheduled election. Two (2) of the trustees elected at this election shall serve initial terms of one (1) year. Two (2) or three (3) county school trustees shall thereafter be elected, alternately, at each subsequent election. The county school trustees shall draw lots to determine which two (2) shall serve initial terms of one (1) year.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 5. All vacancies occurring between elections shall be filled by appointment of the remaining trustees.

Sec. 6. The county judge of each such county shall continue to perform, without additional compensation, duties formerly constituting the role of the county superintendent. The Commissioners Court shall provide funds for secretarial and stenographic assistance to the county judge in performing these duties.

Sec. 7. The county school trustees shall not detach territory from any independent school district in such county and annex such territory to another independent school district without the prior consent of the school trustees of the district from which such territory is being detached as well as the prior consent of the school trustees of the district to which such detached territory is to be annexed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1348, ch. 511.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1348, ch. 511, § 8, repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws to extent of conflict.

Art. 2681a. County Industrial Training School Districts

Establishment and location; purpose

Section 1. A district to be known as the "_____ County Industrial Training School District" may be established and located in any county of this State so as to provide vocational training for residents and nonresidents of such county.

Petition and election; trustees

Sec. 2. (a) Upon a petition signed by five per cent (5%) of the resident qualified taxpaying voters in any such county, the Commissioners Court shall call and cause to be held an election within thirty (30) days after said petition has been duly presented for the purpose of electing three (3) members of the board of trustees of such County Industrial Training School District. The three (3) trustees elected shall then appoint four (4) certain persons, one each from the following classes:

(1) a member of the city council of any incorporated city or town located within the county,

(2) a member of the governing body of any other school district in the county,

(3) a juvenile judge for that county,

(4) the County Judge or a member of the Commissioners Court.

(b) These appointive trustees shall be full voting members of the board of trustees; except as herein provided.

(c) All members of such board shall be residents of the county wherein the "_____ County Industrial Training School District" is established.

(d) The first trustees elected for such District shall by lots divide themselves into three (3) classes: Class One (1), consisting of one member, who shall serve for two (2) years; Class Two (2), consisting of one member, who shall serve for four (4) years; and Class Three (3), consisting of one member, who shall serve for six (6) years. Each trustee elected thereafter shall be elected for a term of six (6) years.

(e) The appointive trustees for such District shall serve terms of two (2) years.

(f) Any vacancy occurring on the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by an appointee decided upon by at least two (2) of the elected trustees.

Powers and duties

Sec. 3. In the management and control of the District, the board of trustees is authorized to exercise the following powers and duties:

(1) The board of trustees shall select a chairman of the board and define his duties, and shall have the power to remove him when in its judgment the interest of the District shall require it.

(2) The board of trustees shall appoint other officers of the District, the teaching staff, and other employees, and fix their respective salaries, and shall have the power to remove them when in its judgment the interest of the District shall require it.

(3) The board of trustees shall arrange for and operate whatever facilities they deem necessary for the establishment of any vocational school within said District.

(4) The board of trustees shall enact such bylaws, rules, and regulations as may be necessary for the successful management and government of any vocational school within said District.

(5) The board of trustees shall determine what departments of instruction shall be maintained and what subjects of study shall be pursued in the various departments.

(6) The board of trustees shall have the authority to make proper arrangements by contract with other educational institutions, private individuals, corporate institutions, or the State, for the use of facilities and for the services of qualified personnel; and to make such other arrangements as it deems necessary for the proper training and education of students in the District.

(7) The board of trustees shall have general supervision and control of all expenditures of the District.

(8) The board of trustees shall determine the qualifications for admission of students to any school established by the District.

(9) The board of trustees is authorized and empowered to determine the tuition and/or fees, if any, charged students attending any vocational training school established in the District.

(10) The board of trustees is authorized and empowered to grant diplomas for successful completion of any type of vocational training taught.

(11) The board of trustees is authorized to accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the District to be held in trust and administered by the board for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be declared in writing in the donation, gift, or endowment, not inconsistent with the objectives and proper management of said District.

(12) The board of trustees may issue revenue bonds (new or refunding) and notes for the purposes of acquiring, constructing, improving and/or equipping buildings, structures, additions to buildings or structures, and other types of permanent improvements not inconsistent with this Act. In addition, the board may fix, charge, collect and pledge to the payment of the principal and interest on any such bonds or notes reasonable use fees from the students for the use of any type of building, structure, facility, or property. The laws governing the issuance of bonds (new or refunding) shall be governed by the laws applicable to school districts located in such counties.

(13) The District is hereby authorized and empowered to levy, assess, and have collected through the county tax office, the rate of tax as set by the board and confirmed by a favoring majority vote of the resident qualified taxpaying voters of such county in an election, except that such rate shall not exceed that provided by law relating to school districts located in such counties upon such property values as established for county purposes, and the election shall be held in compliance with provisions governing such elections.

Compensation

Sec. 4. The board of trustees shall serve without compensation.

Bonds and revenues

Sec. 5. Every such District shall be operated on its bond and/or note revenues, tax revenues, tuition, if any, gifts, donations, and endowments, and shall never become a charge against the State, or require appropriations therefrom.

Counties with vocational or technical high schools

Sec. 5(a). No Industrial Training School District may be established within any county, within which county any school district has established or is in the process of establishing a vocational or technical high school.

Abolition of districts

Sec. 6. Any such District may be abolished in the manner herein provided:

(1) A petition requesting the abolition of the District, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the qualified voters residing in the District shall be presented to the County Judge of the county in which the District is located.

(2) Upon receipt of such a petition, the County Judge shall:

(a) Issue an order designating the time and place within the district and county of his court at which there shall be held an election to determine whether the District shall be abolished.

(b) Appoint to preside an officer who shall select two (2) judges and two (2) clerks to assist in holding the election.

(c) Cause notice of the election to be given by posting advertisements for at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the election at three (3) public places within such county.

(3) Except as herein provided the election shall be held in the manner prescribed by law for holding general elections.

(a) All persons who are legally qualified taxpaying voters of the State and of the county in which the District is situated and who have resided within the county for at least six (6) months next preceding shall be entitled to vote.

(b) The officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the County Judge within ten (10) days after the election is held.

(4) If a majority of the voters, voting at the election, shall vote to abolish the District, the County Judge shall declare the District abolished and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the Commissioners Court, and from the date of such order, the District shall cease to exist.

(5) Upon abolishment of such District, the Commissioners Court shall manage, control, and dispose of all property belonging to the abolished District, and all taxes from outstanding bonds or other indebtedness, if any, against the property of the abolished District shall remain in full force and effect and shall be levied and collected by the proper officers of the county until the entire indebtedness is fully paid. The Commissioners Court shall have the power to do any and all things necessary for the payment of such bonds or other indebtedness, if any, which the District, or the trustees thereof, could have done had such District not been abolished.

(6) Any creditor of the abolished District may, within sixty (60) days after the District has been abolished, and not thereafter, bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction, to assert any claim against such District. The Commissioners Court shall institute and defend suits in the name of the abolished District, and may make such settlement of any such litigation as it deems advisable. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1353, ch. 514.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

2. SUPERINTENDENT

Art. 2688g. Counties of 600,000 with 4 or more school districts; election; abolition of office; transfer of duties

(a) The electorate of any county in this State having a population of not less than six hundred thousand (600,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, and wherein there are four (4) or more common school districts, shall, at the next General Election following the passage of this Act, determine by majority vote whether the office of county superintendent shall be abolished in said county. At such election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the abolishment of the office of county superintendent."

"AGAINST the abolishment of the office of county superintendent."

(b) Where the majority of the qualified electors approve the abolition of the office of county superintendent in such counties, the duties of such abolished office as may still be required by law shall vest in the county judge in ex officio capacity upon the expiration of the current term of the office of county superintendent. In addition to all other compensation the county judge in such ex officio capacity shall receive a salary to be determined by the county board of school trustees. This additional compensation shall not exceed the maximum amount provided by Article 3888, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 47, ch. 17, § 1.

Effective 90 days after Feb. 1, 1962, date of adjournment.

Art. 2688h. Counties of 75,000 to 125,000 and 135,000 to 200,000 population; board of county school trustees and county superintendent; abolition of offices; transfer of duties

Section 1. (a) From and after the effective date of this Act the office of the county board of school trustees and the office of county superintendent shall cease to exist in any county in this State having a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) and not more than one hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census which has not more than one (1) common school district and whose county ad valorem evaluation is in excess of One Hundred Forty Million Dollars ($140,000,000); provided, however, that the county superintendents in such counties who have been heretofore elected or appointed to the office of county superintendent shall serve until the expiration of the term for which they were elected or appointed. The duties now performed by the board of school trustees and county superintendents in such counties shall be performed by the county judges of such counties; provided further, that said county judges shall not be entitled to nor receive any additional compensation as a result of these additional duties.

(b) From and after the effective date of this Act the office of the county board of school trustees and the office of county superintendent shall cease to exist in any county in this state having a population of not less than one hundred thirty-five thousand (135,000) and not more than two hundred thousand (200,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census which has no common school district and whose county ad valorem evaluation is in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($250,000,000); provided, however, that the county superintendents in such counties who have been heretofore elected or appointed to the office of county superintendent shall serve until the expiration of the term for which they were elected or appointed. The duties now performed by the board of school trustees and county superintendents in such counties shall be performed by the county judges of such counties; provided further, that said county judges may receive additional compensation as a result of these additional duties from county funds, but in any event not to exceed Two Thousand Six Hundred Fifty Dollars ($2,650) per annum. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 170, ch. 63, § 1.

Effective 90 days after Feb. 1, 1962 date of adjournment.

Art. 2688i. Counties of 300,000 to 350,000; county superintendents and county school boards; abolition of offices; transfer of duties

Section 1. From and after the effective date of this Act the duties now performed by county superintendents and county school boards in all counties in this State having a population of not less than three hundred thousand (300,000) nor more than three hundred and fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall be performed by the county judges of such counties, and the offices of county superintendent and county school board, as such, shall cease to exist.

Sec. 2. In counties coming under the provisions of this Act, the county judges shall receive and retain for their services in performing the duties of county superintendents of public instruction and county school boards, in addition to all other compensation provided by law, an amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per year as total compensation for salary, office and travel expense. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 3, ch. 3.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 13, 1963.

Art. 2688j. Counties of 16,820 to 16,920; abolition of office; transfer of duties

(a) Subject to the limitations stated in Paragraph (b) the office of county superintendent in all counties of this state having a population of not less than sixteen thousand, eight hundred and twenty (16,-

820) and not more than sixteen thousand, nine hundred and twenty (16,920) according to the last preceding Federal Census, is abolished and the duties of such office shall be performed by the county judge as ex officio county superintendent. The county judge may be compensated for performing such duties in an amount not to exceed Six Hundred Dollars ($600) per annum as determined by the County Board of School Trustees and such board may provide for an assistant to the ex officio county superintendent at a yearly salary not to exceed Three Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($3,720); such position not to extend beyond August 31, 1966. Such additional compensation, if any, paid the ex officio county superintendent or the salary paid the assistant herein authorized shall be paid out of the State Available School Fund.

(b) The county superintendents holding office in such counties as of the effective date of this Act shall serve until the expiration of the term for which they were elected. However, if a vacancy should occur before the expiration of such term, the office of county superintendent shall cease to exist and the duties of such office shall thereafter be performed as provided for in Paragraph (a) above. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 589, ch. 212, § 1.

Emergency. Effective May 24, 1963.

Art. 2688k. Counties of 16,000 or more; ex officio school superintendent and county board of education; abolition of offices; transfer of duties

Section 1. In all counties in this state having a population of sixteen thousand (16,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having no Common School District and only one Independent School District, the offices of the Ex Officio School Superintendent and County Board of Education is hereby abolished, effective as of the expiration of the current term of the incumbent Ex Officio School Superintendent.

Sec. 2. All duties and functions, except as hereafter provided, that are now required by law of the office of Ex Officio County School Superintendent, shall be performed by the Superintendent of the Independent School District, and all the duties that may now be required by law of the County Board of Education shall be performed by the elected Board of Trustees of such Independent School District, except that the County Judge shall, without pay from the State of Texas, continue to approve or disapprove application for school transfers to other schools outside of the county. The Commissioners Court shall hereafter receive, hear and pass upon all petitions for the calling of elections for the creation, change or abolishment of County School Districts and all authorized appeals from the Independent School Board of Trustees shall be made directly to the State Board of Education or to the courts as provided by law.

Sec. 3. All School Records of the original Independent and/or Common School District, shall be transferred to the control and custody of the Independent School District Office, save and except the original financial records which shall be retained by the County Treasurer, and thereafter the County Judge shall be required to make no records or reports but said reports shall be made by the Superintendent of such Independent School District; that as soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, all remaining state funds in the hands of the County Board of Education shall be transferred by the County Treasurer and the County Judge to the County Independent School District's Administration Account. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1150, ch. 446.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

($1,000) or more. All contracts proposed to be made by any Texas public school board for the construction, maintenance, repair or renovation of any building or for materials used in said construction, maintenance, repair or renovation, shall be submitted to competitive bidding when said contracts involve One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or more. Nothing in this Act shall apply to fees received for professional services rendered, including but not limited to architects fees, attorney's fees, and fees for fiscal agents. Notice of the time when and place where such contracts will be let and bids opened shall be published in the county where the purchasing school is located once a week for at least two (2) weeks prior to the time set for letting said contract and in two (2) other newspapers that the school board may designate. Provided, however, that on contracts involving less than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) such advertising may be limited to two (2) successive issues of any newspaper published in the county in which the school is located, and if there is no newspaper in the county in which the school is located, then said advertising shall be for publication in some newspaper in some county nearest the county seat of the county in which the school is located. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 953, ch. 378, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2756b. Independent school districts on military reservations

Abolishment of districts created hereunder and of authority granted hereunder, see art. 2756c.

Art. 2756c. Abolition of school districts; authority to annex territory of military reservations

Sec. 3. Any authority heretofore vested in the State Board of Education under Senate Bill No. 274, Acts of 44th Legislature, Regular Session, as construed by the Texas Supreme Court in Central Education Agency v. Independent School District of the City of El Paso, No. A-3666, to annex or attach the territory of a military reservation to another school district is hereby abolished. Provided, however, any territory of a military reservation which is subject to the same post or base command as is that of a military reservation used for the purpose of housing dependents of military and civilian personnel and which wholly contains an independent school district whether or not such reservations are contiguous may be annexed to that independent school district by the State Board of Education pursuant to a petition by that post or base commander. Provided further, however, that whenever any territory of a military reservation shall have been annexed by the State Board of Education to an independent school district of the same post or base command pursuant to the authority and provisions hereof, and thereafter the said territory shall cease to be used for the purpose of housing dependents of military and civilian personnel, the State Board of Education, upon the petition of the post or base command, or upon the petition of a majority of the trustees of the school district from which said territory was originally detached, shall have the authority to detach said territory from the military reservation constituting an independent school district and annex same to the school district from which it was originally detached thereby restoring said territory to its original status. Any territory of a military reservation heretofore attached, annexed or included in another school district by order of the State Board of Education and now recognized and treated by that school district as a part of its school district territory is hereby vali-

Art. 2756d. Appointment of tax assessor-collector and board of equalization in certain common school districts

Section 1. In all common school districts in this State having a scholastic population, according to the last preceding scholastic census, of seventy (70) or more but less than one hundred forty-nine (149) and an assessed valuation of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000) or more but less than One Million, Eight Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($1,825,000) and located in a county having a total population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, and in all common school districts in this State having an assessed valuation of Seven Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($740,000) or more, but less than One Million, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000) and located in a county having a population of more than seven thousand, three hundred and ten (7,310) but less than seven thousand, nine hundred and twenty (7,920) according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Board of Trustees shall be authorized, by a majority vote of the qualified property tax-paying voters in the district, at a regular election in the district or at a special election called for that purpose, to appoint a tax assessor-collector and a board of equalization for the district.

Sec. 2. The Board of Trustees of each such district may appoint such person as they deem qualified to be assessor-collector of taxes, who shall assess the taxable property within the limits of the district within the time and manner provided by existing laws, insofar as they are applicable, and collect such tax. He shall receive such compensation for his services as the Board of Trustees may allow. Such assessor-collector shall give bond, to be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount to be determined by the Board of Trustees which will in the opinion of such board be sufficient to adequately protect the funds of the school district. Such bond shall be payable to the president of the Board of Trustees of the district, approved by the board, and conditioned on such assessor-collector's depositing in the county depository to the credit of such common school district all funds coming into his hands by virtue of his office, and shall also be conditioned on the faithful discharge of his duties. In all matters regarding the assessment and collection of taxes by common school districts adopting the provisions of this Act, the laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes in independent school districts shall govern insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. The board of equalization of such common school districts shall be composed of three (3) members appointed by the Board of Trustees. It shall be composed of legally qualified property tax-paying voters residing in said district and shall have the same power and authority and be subject to the same restrictions that now govern such boards in independent school districts. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 974, ch. 397.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2766c. Change of boundaries; independent districts in counties of 36,799 to 38,500 having 500 scholastics

Section 1. In all counties in this state having a population of not less than 36,799 and not more than 38,500, according to the last preceding Federal Census, the territory of any independent school district therein having a scholastic population of more than 500 shall not be changed without the consent of its Board of Trustees. Such consent shall be evidenced by an appropriate resolution of the Board of Trustees of such district properly certified by its secretary, and filed with the County Clerk of the county in which such school district is situated. Such resolution shall be recorded in the "Record of School Districts," or in the Deed Records of said county, as may be appropriate. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 53, ch. 35.

Emergency. Effective March 30, 1963.

Art. 2767. Abolishing districts

Abolition of junior college districts, see art. 2815q—1.

Art. 2767h. Validation of independent districts having less than 200 scholastics

Section 1. That all independent school districts created under the provisions of Article 2757, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended, having less than two hundred (200) scholastics as shown by the last preceding scholastic census roll approved in the State Department of Education, and located in counties having two or more artificial lakes constructed by the United States of America, under the direction of the United States Army Corps of Engineers, are hereby in all things validated in all respects as though they had been legally and duly established in the first instance, and the boundary lines of all such independent school districts are likewise validated.

Sec. 2. On and after the effective date of this Act, no changes of boundaries of such districts shall be made or effected by order of the county board of school trustees, unless and until the petition or proposal or order seeking to make such change has previously been approved by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees of such respective independent school district.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not validate any independent school districts now involved in litigation questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 767, ch. 294.

Emergency. Effective May 30, 1963.

3. INDEPENDENT DISTRICTS IN CITIES

Art. 2775. 2886 Election

Voting places for elections held by independent districts which are located in counties of more than 1,000,000 people and which have average daily attendance of more than 2,000 pupils, see art. 2815a—1.

Art. 2775a. Election of trustees in counties of 800,000 population

Election of trustees of independent districts in certain counties of 1,200,000 or more population, see art. 2815g—1c.

Art. 2775a—1. Election of trustees by separate positions in independent districts of 1,000 or more scholastics

Section 1. In all independent school districts, whether created under the General Laws or by Special Act of the Legislature, having one thousand (1,000) or more scholastics according to the last scholastic census, in which the candidates for school trustee are not voted on and elected by separate positions under some other applicable statute, the Board of Trustees of any such independent school district may, by appropriate action taken at least sixty (60) days prior to the first election of school trustees after the effective date of this Act, order that all candidates for school trustee be voted upon and elected separately for positions on the Board of Trustees and all candidates shall be designated on the official ballots according to the number of the position to which they seek election. At least sixty (60) days prior to the first election which is governed by this Act in each district now or hereafter coming within its provisions, the Board of Trustees shall number the positions in the order in which the terms of office expire, the expiring terms which are to be filled at the first election to be numbered Position No. 1, Position No. 2, and so on, and the next succeeding terms expiring to take the next larger numbers, until all of the positions have been numbered. Thereafter, any candidate offering himself for a position as trustee of such district in any election shall indicate the number of the position for which he desires to run, and his application for a place on the ballot shall disclose the position number for which he is a candidate or the name of the incumbent member holding the position for which he desires to run. The names of the candidates for each position shall be arranged by lot by the Board of Trustees of the district. Once the Board of Trustees of an independent school district shall have adopted the foregoing procedure for elections, said Board of Trustees or their successors may not rescind the action which adopted the foregoing procedure. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 719, ch. 262, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2775a—3. Election of trustees by separate positions in districts within counties of 7,750 to 7,800 and 13,400 to 13,600 population

Section 1. This Act shall apply to all independent school districts which are situated in counties having a population of more than seven thousand seven hundred fifty (7,750) but less than seven thousand eight hundred (7,800), according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having a district valuation of not less than Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000), according to the last preceding valuation and to all independent school districts which are situated in counties having a population of more than thirteen thousand four hundred (13,400) but less than thirteen thousand six hundred (13,600) according to the last preceding Federal Census, and having a district valuation of not less than One Hundred Thirty Million Dollars ($130,000,000).

Sec. 2. In all independent school districts falling within the provisions of Section 1 in which the candidates for school trustee are not voted on and elected by separate positions under some other applicable Statute, the Board of Trustees of any such independent school district may, by appropriate action, taken at least sixty (60) days prior to the first election of school trustees after the effective date of this Act, order that all candidates for school trustee be voted upon and elected separately for positions on the Board of Trustees and all candidates shall be designated on the official ballots according to the number of the position to which they seek election. At least sixty (60) days prior to the first election which is governed by this Act in each district now or hereafter coming within its provisions, the Board of Trustees shall number the positions in the order in which the terms of office expire, the expiring terms which are to be filled at the first election to be numbered Position No. 1, Position No. 2, and so on, and the next succeeding terms expiring to take the next larger numbers, until all of the positions have been numbered. Thereafter, any candidate offering himself for a position as trustee of such district in any election shall indicate the number of the position for which he desires to run, and his application for a place on the ballot shall disclose the position number for which he is a candidate or the name of the incumbent member holding the position for which he desires to run. The names of the candidates for each position shall be arranged by lot by the Board of Trustees of the district. Once the Board of Trustees of an independent school district shall have adopted the foregoing procedure for elections, said Board of Trustees or their successors may not rescind the action which adopted the foregoing procedure.

Sec. 3. This Act shall not repeal or affect any other Statute providing for the election of school trustees by position number. All other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 630, ch. 233.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2775a—4. Election of trustees by separate positions in districts within counties of 8,500 to 9,000 population

In all independent school districts in counties having a population of not less than eight thousand, five hundred (8,500) nor more than nine thousand (9,000) according to the last preceding Federal Census, whether created under the General Laws or by Special Act of the Legislature, in which the candidates for school trustee are not voted on and elected by separate positions, the Board of Trustees of any such independent school district may, by appropriate action taken at least sixty (60) days prior to the first election of school trustees after the effective date of this Act, order that all candidates for school trustee be voted upon and elected separately for positions on the Board of Trustees and all candidates shall be designated on the official ballots according to the number of the position to which they seek election. At least sixty (60) days prior to the first election which is governed by this Act in each district now or hereafter coming within its provisions, the Board of Trustees shall number the positions in the order in which the terms of office expire, the expiring terms which are to be filled at the first election to be numbered Position No. 1, Position No. 2, and so on, and the next succeeding terms expiring to take the next larger numbers, until all of the positions have been numbered. Thereafter, any candidate offering himself for a position as trustee of such district in any election shall indicate the number of the position for which he desires to run, and his application for a place on the ballot shall disclose the position number for which he is a candidate or the name of the incumbent member holding the position for which he desires to run. The names of the candidates for each position shall be arranged by lot by the Board of Trustees of the district. Once the Board of Trustees of an independent school district shall have adopted the foregoing procedure for elections, said Board of Trustees or their successors may not rescind the action which adopted the foregoing procedure. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1006, ch. 413, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2775b. Election of trustees in counties of 110,000 to 800,000; terms; vacancies

Election of trustees of independent districts in certain counties of 1,200,000 or more population, see art. 2815g-1c.

Art. 2775e. Election of trustees in certain counties of 75,000 to 80,000; terms

In all counties with a population of not less than seventy-five thousand (75,000) and not more than eighty thousand (80,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, where two Independent School Districts of more than five hundred (500) scholastics have been consolidated, the seven (7) member Board of Trustees of said consolidated district as provided by law shall be elected by position.

Candidates for Positions 1, 3, and 5 shall be residents of an area of which was at the time of consolidation, a part of the larger district and candidates for Positions 2 and 4 shall be residents of an area which was at the time of consolidation a part of the smaller district. Candidates for Positions 6 and 7 may live in any area of the consolidated district.

Terms of office for Positions 1 and 2 of said Board shall apply to those trustees elected in 1961, and their successors in office, terms of office for Positions 3 and 4 would apply to those trustees elected in 1962, and their successors in office and terms of office for Positions 5, 6, and 7 would apply to those trustees elected in 1963, and their successors in office.

The Board of Trustees of such consolidated district, shall at the next meeting after the effective date of this Act, designate in the minutes of said meeting the names of Board members who then fill each of said Positions.

Nothing herein contained is to conflict with the powers, duties, terms of office and responsibilities of trustees of Independent School Districts. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 61, ch. 23, § 1.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 9, 1962.

Purposes; issuance; payment

Section 1. Any school district in the State of Texas in need of funds to repair or renovate school buildings; purchase school buildings and school equipment; to equip school properties with necessary heating, water, sanitation, lunchroom and electric facilities; or is in need of funds with which to employ an individual firm or corporation deemed to have special skill and experience to compile taxation data for use by its board of equalization; and said school district is financially unable out of available funds to make such repairs, renovations of school buildings, purchase school buildings, purchase school equipment, to equip school properties with necessary heating, water, sanitation, lunchroom or electric facilities or is unable to pay such individual or corporation for the performance of the professional duties hereinabove mentioned, may, subject to the provisions hereof, issue interest-bearing time warrants, in amounts sufficient to make such purchase and improvements, to pay all or part of the compensation of such individual, firm or corporation to compile such data, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. Such warrants shall mature in serial installments of not more than five (5) years from their date of issue, and to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. Such warrants shall upon maturity be payable out of any available funds of such school district in the order of their maturity dates. Any such interest-bearing time warrants so issued may be issued and sold by such district for not less than their face value, and the proceeds thereof used to provide funds required for the purpose for which they are issued. Such warrants shall be entitled to first and prior payment out of any available funds of such district as they become due. Included in such purposes is the payment of any amounts owed by said school districts, which indebtedness was incurred in carrying out any of such purposes. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 957, ch. 382, § 1.

5. ADDITIONS AND CONSOLIDATIONSArt. 2806. Election to consolidate

Voting places for elections held by independent districts which are located in counties of more than 1,000,000 people and which have average daily attendance of more than 2,000 pupils, see art. 2815a—1.

Art. 2815—4. Incentive aid payments to independent school districts created through consolidation

Section 1. From the effective date of this Act independent school districts hereafter created through consolidation may qualify for Incentive Aid Payments by the State of Texas; provided, however, no school district may receive such payments for a period of more than ten (10) years. Such Incentive Aid Payments shall be made only upon application to the Texas Education Agency and in compliance with the terms and conditions contained in this Act.

A. The amount of Incentive Aid Payments shall not exceed the difference between the sum of the Foundation Program Payments which would have been paid to the several districts included in the newly organized district had there been no consolidation, and the amount of Foundation Program Assistance for which the new district qualifies.

B. The new district created through consolidation shall contain not fewer than seven hundred and fifty (750) children in average daily attendance or a majority of the children in average daily attendance in the county containing the majority of the land area involved in the reorganization.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

C. The Incentive Aid Payments shall be used exclusively to retire the existing bonded indebtedness of the school districts which have been consolidated, or shall be applied to the cost of constructing new buildings required by the reorganized district.

D. The Incentive Aid Payments shall be reduced in direct proportion to any reduction in the annual average daily attendance of the reorganized school district for the preceding year.

"Consolidation" for purposes of this Act, shall mean and have application to creation of new districts by election under school district consolidation laws and/or by enlargement of existing districts by annexation thereto of entire contiguous district or districts, other than dormant districts, under annexation laws, and where the district consolidated by election or enlarged by annexation under such laws results as an independent school district.

Sec. 2. As a condition precedent to receiving Incentive Aid Payments (a) the geographical limits of the proposed consolidated district shall be submitted to the Texas Education Agency for approval and the geographical limits so approved shall be set forth in the petition for any consolidation election; and (b) the consolidation of the school districts shall result in the formation of an independent school district.

Sec. 2a. The cost of Incentive Aid Payments hereby authorized shall be paid from the Foundation School Fund. Such costs shall be considered and included by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee in estimating the funds needed for purposes of the Foundation School program and such Incentive Aid Payments. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 931, ch. 361.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 931, ch. 361, § 3 provided: "All laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby expressly repealed to the extent of such conflict only, but this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws or parts of laws not directly in conflict herewith."

6. DISTRICTS IN LARGE COUNTIES

Art. 2815a—1. Voting places for elections held by independent districts in counties of more than 1,000,000

In all counties in this State which have a population of more than one million (1,000,000) people, according to the last preceding Federal Census, every election held for any purpose by an independent school district which has an average daily attendance of more than two thousand (2,000) pupils, but less than two thousand, five hundred (2,500) pupils, according to the last preceding scholastic census, and which has two (2) or more county voting precincts within its boundaries, shall be held in each of the voting precincts at the places used in the General Elections of this State. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 490, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Title of Act:

An Act providing for the voting places for all elections held by certain independent school districts in certain counties in this State; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 490.

Art. 2815g—1c. Election of trustees of independent districts in counties with population of more than 1,200,000 and fewer than 175,000 scholastics; date

Section 1. This Act shall apply to all independent school districts, whether created by General Law or special Act, in counties having a population of more than one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, except those independent districts having a scholastic population of one hundred seventy-five thousand (175,000), according to the last preceding scholastic census, and which were created by special Act of the Legislature and which operate under the provisions of that Act; provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to any district unless and until the board of trustees thereof adopts by majority vote an order or resolution adopting the provisions thereof. The board of trustees of said independent districts may adopt an order or resolution adopting all or any one or more of the provisions hereof, then thereafter for a period of three (3) successive years all trustee elections in such district shall be held and governed by the terms and provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. Hereafter, the trustees of any independent school district coming within the purview of Section 1 hereof may order by official resolution the election for the purpose of electing school trustees held on any one of the following dates: the first Saturday in April or the first Saturday in October. The board of trustees shall adopt and make public the resolution setting the date of the election at least sixty (60) days prior to said election. Except for the special provisions contained here, the General Laws applying to such elections shall govern.

Sec. 3. After the effective date of this Act the board of trustees of any independent school district coming within the purview of Section 1 hereof may adopt an order or resolution providing for the election of trustees by majority vote in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The order or resolution providing for the election of trustees by majority vote shall be adopted and made public at least sixty (60) days prior to the election date.

(2) The results of the first election shall be canvassed by the board of trustees within five (5) days after the election. In the event no candidate in a position received a majority of the votes cast therein the board of trustees shall order a special election to be held not less than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of the first election and shall cause the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes in any position in which no candidate received a majority to be placed on the ballot as candidates for that position. Said election shall be held and conducted in the manner prescribed by law for regular trustee elections.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws, general and special, relating to the subject matter hereof. In all matters not covered by the terms hereof, the provisions of the existing laws shall govern. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 196, ch. 74, §§ 1-4.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 16, 1962.

Election of trustees in counties of 110,000 to 300,000, see art. 2775b.

Trustees in districts of 30,220 or more scholastics, election date, see art. 2774d.

Art. 2815g—56. Validation of districts; resolutions; orders and ordinances for divorcement or separation from municipal control; bonds; boundaries

Section 1. All school districts of every kind and type whatsoever, including all types of junior and regional college districts, which have been recognized by either State or county authorities as school districts, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally created, established, and/or organized in the first instance, regardless of the actual manner in which they were attempted to be created, established, and/or organized; and the boundary lines and names of all such school districts are likewise validated. All resolutions, orders, ordinances, and other acts or attempted acts of all county boards of school trustees and county boards of education, Commissioners Courts, and county judges, in changing or attempting to change the boundaries of any school district of any kind or type whatsoever, including all types of junior and regional college districts, whether by rearrangement of boundaries or correction of boundary lines, by subdividing or detachment, by annexation or consolidation of all or part of one or more such school districts to or with all or part of one or more other such school districts, by grouping of such school districts, or otherwise, or in creating or attempting to create any such school district, or in abolishing or attempting to abolish any such school district, or in converting or attempting to convert any such school district into any other type of school district, are hereby validated in all respects, and all such boundary changes, creations, abolitions, and annexations, or attempts thereat, shall be valid as though they had been duly and legally accomplished in the first instance.

Sec. 2. All resolutions, orders, ordinances, and other acts or attempted acts of all governing bodies of all municipalities and of all governing bodies of all municipally controlled or assumed school districts and extended municipal school districts, in separating or divorcing or attempting to separate or divorce such schools or school districts from municipal control, jurisdiction, or authority, and/or of the governing bodies of all municipalities in annexing or attempting to annex any territory to any such municipally controlled, assumed, or extended school districts, are hereby validated in all respects, and all such separations or divorcements and annexations, or attempts thereat, shall be valid as though they had been duly and legally accomplished in the first instance.

Sec. 3. All bonds, including both tax and revenue bonds, and including voted or authorized but undelivered bonds as well as outstanding bonds, and all voted bond taxes and voted maintenance taxes, of and in all school districts of every kind and type whatsoever, including all types of junior and regional college districts, and all bond, maintenance tax, and bond assumption elections heretofore held in all such school districts, together with all proceedings, resolutions, orders, ordinances, and other acts or attempted acts of the governing bodies or bond-issuing authorities of all such school districts, pertaining to, or attempting to issue or authorize, any such bonds, bond taxes, maintenance taxes, and bond assumptions, be and are hereby validated in all respects, and all such bonds, bond taxes, maintenance taxes, and bond assumptions shall be valid as though they had been duly and legally issued, authorized, or accomplished in the first instance.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as validating any boundary change made or attempted to be made by any ex parte order, resolution, or other act of the board of trustees of any school district, and this Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to proceedings pending before the County Boards of Trustees, the State Commissioner of Education, or the State Board of Education on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such proceedings are ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to any district which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction in this State or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 23, ch. 9.

Emergency. Effective Jan. 30, 1962.

Art. 2815g—57. Validation of districts; acts of trustees; additions of territory; elections; bonds; boundaries; taxes; exceptions

Section 1. All school districts, including any independent school district controlled by a municipality and including common school districts, independent school districts, junior college districts, regional college districts, consolidated common school districts, consolidated independent school districts, rural high school districts, all county line school districts, including county line common school districts, county line independent school districts, county line rural high school districts, county line consolidated common school districts, county line consolidated independent school districts, and all other school districts, groups or annexations of whole districts, or parts of districts, whether established, organized, and/or created by vote of the people residing in such districts, or proposed districts, or by action of the governing body of any such municipalities, or by action of the county school boards, or by action of the county judge, or by action of the Commissioners Courts, and whether created by General or Special Law in this State, and heretofore recognized by either State or county authorities as school districts, are hereby validated in all respects as though they had been duly and legally established in the first instance, and further providing that whenever a vacancy occurs on the board of trustees of a rural high school established under the provisions of Articles 2922a, 2922c, and 2922f of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the county board of trustees.

All acts of the county boards of trustees of any and all counties in rearranging, consolidating, grouping, annexing, changing, detaching and attaching of territory, or subdividing any and all such school districts, or increasing or decreasing the area thereof, or abolishing school districts in any school district of any kind, or in creating new districts out of parts of existing districts or otherwise, and all acts of the governing bodies of any such municipalities in annexing territories to such municipally controlled school districts, are hereby in all things validated.

All acts and orders of the county boards of school trustees of any and all counties in rearranging, annexing, detaching or attaching of territory, increasing or decreasing the area, or changing the boundaries of any and all junior college districts, are hereby in all things validated.

All acts and orders of the county boards of school trustees of any and all counties in adding territory to any junior college district, are hereby in all things validated. All elections for bonds, the levy and collection of taxes, and/or debt assumption ordered by the governing body of such junior college district and held over the entire enlarged or extended area, in which election a majority of the qualified voters owning taxable property within such junior college district as enlarged or extended and having duly rendered the same for taxation, are hereby in all things validated; and said governing body is hereby authorized to issue such bonds and levy such taxes, and the indebtedness so assumed is hereby declared to be the indebtedness of such enlarged junior college district.

All consolidations, or attempts at consolidation, of school districts after an election was held and a majority of the legally qualified voters in each such district voting in such election voted in favor of such consolidations, are hereby in all things validated and declared to be duly and legally consolidated or established as though they had been so consolidated or established in the first instance, and shall include, among others, such attempted consolidations where the election proceedings called for the consolidation of one or more common school districts and/or one or more independent school districts with an independent school district, but did not provide for the consolidation of each such common school district and/or independent school district with each other such district.

All acts of the county judges, and/or the Commissioners Courts, and/or the county boards of school trustees in converting or changing one type of school district into another type of school district, are hereby in all things validated, and all elections called by such officers for such conversion or change, in which election a majority of the qualified voters voting therein voted in favor thereof, are hereby in all things validated, and all such converted or changed school districts are hereby in all things validated as though they had been legally established in the first instance.

All acts of the governing bodies of municipalities and/or of the boards of trustees of municipally controlled or assumed school districts and/or cities and towns constituting separate and independent school districts and/or extended municipal school districts, in ordering elections for the separation or divorcement of such schools and/or districts from municipal control, jurisdiction or authority, in which elections a majority of the qualified voters voting therein voted in favor of such separation or divorcement, are hereby in all things validated, and the school districts formed by such separation or divorcement are hereby in all things validated, and the organization and acts of the boards of trustees of any and all such districts are hereby in all things validated.

The boundary lines of any and all such school districts are hereby in all things validated. The names of any and all such school districts are hereby in all things validated.

All acts of the boards of trustees in such school districts or the governing bodies of such municipalities or the county judges or the Commissioners Courts ordering an election or elections, declaring the results of such elections, levying, attempting or purporting to levy taxes for and on behalf of such school districts, and all bonds issued and now outstanding, and all bonds heretofore voted but not issued, and all tax elections, bond elections, and bond assumption elections following such consolidation, annexation, grouping, attachment or detachment, conversion, change, etc., are hereby in all things validated. The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act of the officers of any county or school district or municipality in the creation of any district was omitted, shall in nowise invalidate such district; and the fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act was omitted by the board of trustees of any such district or the county judge or the Commissioners Court or the governing body of any such municipality in ordering an election or elections, or in declaring the results thereof, or in levying the taxes for such districts, or in the issuance of the bonds of any such district, shall in nowise invalidate any of such proceedings or any bonds so voted or issued by such district. All revenue bonds issued and outstanding, and all revenue bonds authorized but not yet issued for and on behalf of school districts and all proceedings relating thereto are hereby in all things validated. All acts of the boards of trustees of school districts or the governing bodies of municipalities or the county judges or the Commissioners Courts in entering into leases of real estate or other property to such school districts and all such leases are hereby in all things validated; and all tax or revenue bonds issued or authorized to be issued to construct, erect, or purchase improvements for such school districts on such leased real estate are hereby in all things validated.

Sec. 2. All school districts mentioned in this Act are hereby authorized and empowered to levy, assess, and collect the same rate of tax, or not to exceed the rate of tax as heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act of the district or by any election of the taxpaying voters of said districts or by any Act whether General or Special, by the Legislature, or as is now being levied, assessed, and collected therein and heretofore authorized or attempted to be authorized by any act or acts of said districts, or by any Act, whether General or Special, of the Legislature.

Sec. 3. Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, this Act shall not be construed as validating any boundary change made or attempted to be made by any ex parte order, resolution or act of the Board of Trustees of any school district.

Sec. 4. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to proceedings pending before the County Boards of School Trustees, the State Commissioner of Education, or the State Board of Education on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such proceedings are ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to any district which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction in this State or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 836, ch. 318.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

7. JUNIOR COLLEGES

Art. 2815h—11. Validation of acts relating to bonds, bond elections and bond taxes

Section 1. All of the acts of all Junior College Districts heretofore created and recognized as an existing Junior College District by the State Board of Education or by the Texas Education Agency and any Junior College or Junior College District to which the Legislature of the State of Texas has heretofore appropriated funds in ordering an election or elections, declaring the results of elections, levying or attempting or purporting to levy taxes for and on behalf of such District and all bonds issued and now outstanding and all bonds heretofore voted but not issued and all tax elections, bond elections and bond-assumption elections are hereby in all things validated and all acts of such Junior College Districts relating to the ordering of such election, notice of the same, manner of holding the same, absentee voting, the making of returns thereof and declaring the results thereof are hereby validated.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 2. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to proceedings pending before the County Boards of Trustees, the State Commissioner of Education, or the State Board of Education on the effective date hereof questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated if such proceedings are ultimately determined against the validity of the same. Nor shall this Act apply to any district which has heretofore been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state or which may have been established and which was later returned to its original status. Acts 1962, 57th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 147, ch. 48, §§ 1, 2.

Emergency. Effective Feb. 16, 1962.

Art. 2815j—2. Appropriations to supplement local funds; regulation and allocation; eligibility

Sec. 4a. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 431, ch. 149, § 1. Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2815o. Boards of Regents of junior colleges

Change of terms of office of members of boards of regents, see art. 2815o—1b.

Art. 2815o—1b. Terms of office of boards of regents

Six-year terms

Section 1. From and after the effective date of this Act, the terms of office of members of the Boards of Regents of all Junior College Districts presently operating under Chapter 146, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature, 1949 (compiled as Article 2815o, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall be six (6) years.

Expiration of terms; elections

Sec. 2. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, such board members shall determine by lot the terms to be served. The three (3) board members having the shortest remaining term unexpired at the effective date of this Act shall serve until the first Saturday in April of the next even-numbered year, at which time three (3) board members shall be elected for a term of six (6) years. Three (3) shall be so chosen from those having the longest remaining term unexpired at the effective date of this Act, and those three (3) shall serve until the first Saturday in April of the next even-numbered calendar year and for four (4) years thereafter when three (3) shall be elected to serve for a term of six (6) years. The remaining three (3) shall serve until the first Saturday in April of the next even-numbered calendar year and for two (2) years thereafter, when three (3) shall be elected for a term of six (6) years. Thereafter, on the first Saturday in April of each even-numbered calendar year three (3) board members shall be elected to serve for a term of six (6) years. All elections held under the provisions of this Act shall be held the first Saturday in April of even-numbered calendar years, the first such election to be held on the first Saturday in April, 1964.

Vacancies

Sec. 3. The members of the board remaining after a vacancy occurs shall fill the same for the unexpired term.

Conduct of elections

Sec. 4. Except as modified by this Act, all such elections in such Junior College Districts shall be held in the manner and in conformity with the provisions of law now applicable; provided, however, that this Act shall not become effective as to Cisco Junior College until January 1, 1964.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 5. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all general laws on the subject not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein, such general laws shall apply, but in case of conflict the provisions of this Act shall control and be effective. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 21, ch. 15.

Emergency. Effective Jan. 1, 1964.

Art. 2815p-1. Disannexation of overlapped territory

Section 1. All junior college districts whose boundaries have or may hereafter become established so that they include territory which prior to such establishment lay, and shall continue to lie, within the boundaries of another junior college district shall have the power to disannex such overlapped territory.

Upon certification by the governing board of such a junior college district to the county board of school trustees of the county in which its college is located that such an overlapping condition exists, the county board may by resolution disannex the overlapped territory from the district, describing such territory by metes and bounds. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1180, ch. 465.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Title of Act:

An Act authorizing all junior college districts which may overlap preexisting boundaries of other junior college districts to disannex the overlapped territory; providing the method of such disannexation; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1180, ch. 465.

Art. 2815q-1. Abolition of junior college districts

Section 1. The term "Applicable District," as used in this Act, shall mean any Junior College District which has conveyed all, or substantially all, of its property and assets to a State supported senior college or university located in such Junior College District, and which Junior College District has no outstanding bonded indebtedness.

Sec. 2. All Applicable Districts and their governing boards are hereby abolished and shall cease to exist and function; provided, however, that all delinquent and uncollected taxes in said Applicable Districts shall not hereby be discharged, but shall be and remain fully due, payable and collectible. Immediately upon the effective date of this Act, the persons formerly acting as the governing board and officers of each Applicable District shall turn over all remaining property and assets of said Applicable District, including all tax collections on hand, directly to the State supported senior college or university located therein. After the effective date of this Act, the governing board of the Independent School District in which any such State supported senior college or university is located shall, for and on behalf of any such Applicable District, cause, through its tax collector and other officers, all delinquent and uncollected taxes of any such Applicable District to be collected in accordance with the General Laws applicable to Independent School Districts. All of said taxes, as collected, shall be turned over to any such State supported senior col-

Art. 2815r. Dormitories, libraries, cottages or stadiums; museums and other buildings

Authority to erect and equip dormitories, libraries, cottages or stadiums; bonds or notes

Section 1. The Boards of Trustees or Boards of Regents of the several public junior colleges are hereby authorized and empowered to erect and equip, and to contract with any person, firm, or corporation, for the erection, completion and equipping of dormitories, libraries, cottages or stadiums, to be erected either on the campus or real estate then owned by said colleges, or on other real estate purchased or leased for the purpose, and the said Boards of Trustees, or Boards of Regents, are hereby expressly authorized to purchase, or lease, additional real estate for such purposes, provided said institutions have sufficient surplus from local funds, but not exceeding twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total for any fiscal year, to pay cash for any purchase of land; or the purchase of land is made from funds derived from the sale of revenue bonds or notes. The bonds or notes authorized herein are to be paid solely from the revenues of the dormitories, libraries, cottages and stadiums, and shall never be charged against the State nor any appropriation made by the State, nor shall any portion of said appropriation ever be used for the payment of said notes or bonds; nor shall any local or institutional funds in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total for any calendar year ever be used for the payment of said notes or bonds. It being the intention of the Legislature to authorize the payment of said notes and bonds solely from revenues derived from the improvements authorized herein and an emergency to be supplemented from local funds not exceeding twenty-five per cent (25%) for any fiscal year. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1271, ch. 486, § 1.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Joint construction of museums, library and other buildings; lease contracts for use of buildings

Sec. 2. (a) The Boards aforesaid are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into contracts with municipalities or school districts for the joint construction of museums, library buildings, or such other buildings as may be deemed necessary.

(b) The Boards aforesaid are further authorized and empowered to enter into lease contracts with municipalities within the boundaries of their district, for the use, by either, of all or any part of library buildings, or such other buildings as may be deemed necessary. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1271, ch. 486, § 2.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Obligations; pledge of revenues

Sec. 3. In payment for the erection, completion and equipping of such dormitories, libraries, cottages and stadiums, and the purchase of the necessary sites thereto, the Boards aforesaid are further authorized and empowered to issue their obligations in such sum or sums and upon such terms and conditions as to said directors may seem advisable, and as security for the payment thereof, to pledge the net rents, fees, revenues and incomes from the improvements to be erected hereunder. Any bonds or notes issued hereunder shall bear interest at the rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum and shall finally mature not more than forty (40) years from date. As amended Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 565, ch. 329, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1271, ch. 486, § 4.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Rates, fees and charges

Sec. 5. The Boards aforesaid are hereby authorized and directed to establish and maintain such schedule of rates, lease rentals, fees and charges for the use of the facilities afforded by its dormitories, libraries, cottages and stadiums, and the revenue from the athletic fields and stadiums, which rates, rentals, fees and charges shall be in an amount at least sufficient to pay the operating and maintenance charges thereof and to pay the principal and interest representing the indebtedness against said revenues, rents, fees and incomes. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1271, ch. 486, § 4.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

Indebtedness not to be incurred

Sec. 6. In payment for the erection, completion and equipping of such dormitories, libraries, cottages and stadiums, and the purchase of the necessary sites thereto, the Boards aforesaid shall not in any manner nor to any extent incur indebtedness against themselves or the State of Texas, and the obligation or obligations authorized by this Act shall never be a personal obligation of the colleges above named, or the State of Texas; but such obligations shall be discharged solely from the revenues herein authorized to be pledged for the purpose. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1271, ch. 486, § 5.

Emergency. Effective June 10, 1963.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN—SCHOOL FUNDS

Art.
2827c. Borrowing money for current maintenance expenses [New].

Art. 2827c. Borrowing money for current maintenance expenses

Section 1. Independent or consolidated school districts are hereby authorized to borrow money for the purpose of paying maintenance expenses and to evidence such loans with negotiable notes; provided that at no time shall said loans exceed seventy-five per cent (75%) of the previous years' income. Such notes shall be payable only from current maintenance taxes levied at or before the time of making such loans and from delinquent maintenance taxes. The term "maintenance expenses" or "maintenance expenditures" as used in this Act means any lawful expenditure of the school district other than payment of principal of and interest on bonds.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Sec. 2. Such notes may be issued only after a budget has been adopted for the current school year and the maintenance expenditures stated therein do not exceed the maintenance tax levied for the current year, plus the delinquent maintenance taxes expected by the board of trustees to be collected during the then current school year. A budget, within the meaning of this Act, may be amended or a new budget may be adopted at any time before the issuance of such notes.

Sec. 3. Such notes shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of trustees, signed by the president or vice president and attested by the secretary of said board. The notes shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum.

Sec. 4. Any such note may contain a certification that it is issued pursuant to and in compliance with this Act, and pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the board of trustees, and such certification shall constitute sufficient evidence that said note is a valid and binding obligation of the district.

Sec. 4A. Section 1. In any counties having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, the county auditor is hereby authorized and required to audit all books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records relating to all funds handled by the county department of education. The results of such audit shall be made public by the county auditor.

Sec. 2. The county auditor of any county to which this Act applies shall, as soon as practicable, audit all such books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of the county department of education from the effective date of this Act back to the last preceding audit made of such books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records by a county auditor of said county. The county auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the county department of education for all expenses incurred in performing the first audit. Thereafter, the county auditor shall audit such books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of the county department of education as often as is necessary to keep himself informed of the condition thereof, but in no case shall the interval between such audits exceed one (1) year.

Sec. 3. The county auditor of any county to which this Act applies shall set up such methods and procedures as are necessary to conduct audits effectively. The county department of education shall comply with such methods and procedures for facilitating audits as determined by the county auditor.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed as precluding other government agencies or independent auditors from auditing certain funds handled by county departments of education, in counties to which this Act applies, in addition to the audit by county auditors as provided for herein. CHAPTER NINETEEN A--RURAL HIGH SCHOOLS

Art. 2922l(3.1). Division of districts comprising ten original school districts into five areas [New].

Art. 2922l(3.1). Division of districts comprising ten original school districts into five areas

Section 1. This Act shall apply only to rural high school districts and consolidated independent school districts composed of the territory formerly comprising ten (10) original school districts, one of which shall have been an independent district, each original school district having a scholastic population of less than two hundred (200), in counties with a total population of not less than forty thousand two hundred (40,200) and not more than forty-one thousand two hundred (41,200) according to the last preceding Federal Census.

It is immaterial whether such rural high school district or consolidated independent school district shall have been established, or shall be established, by consolidation, or by annexation, or by grouping the original school districts.

Sec. 2. In all rural high school and independent school districts to which this Act is applicable a Board of seven (7) trustees shall be elected by the voters of the district at large, and two (2) of such trustees shall be elected from the territory formerly comprising the one independent school district containing less than two hundred (200) scholastic population, and the other five (5) trustees shall be elected from the territory formerly comprising the common school districts having fewer than two hundred (200) scholastic population.

Sec. 3. In all districts to which this Act is applicable it shall be the duties of the Board of County School Trustees of the county in which each school district is situated to divide the territory of such rural high school district or consolidated independent school district, exclusive of the territory formerly comprising the one independent school district having less than two hundred (200) scholastic population, into five (5) areas, and to define such areas; and one trustee shall be elected from each of such areas so established and defined by the County Board; but it is expressly provided that each of such trustees is to be elected by the voters at large of the rural high school district or the consolidated independent school district, as the case may be.

Sec. 4. The Board of seven (7) trustees serving such district at the time this Act becomes a law shall serve until the expiration of current terms of office for which elected. Thereafter, trustees shall be elected from the defined areas for a term of three (3) years as provided by law. Terms of office for trustees in Positions Six and Seven of said district shall apply to those trustees elected in 1963, and their successors in office; terms of office for trustees in Positions Three, Four and Five shall apply to those trustees elected in 1964, and their successors in office; and terms of office for those trustees in Positions One and Two shall apply to those trustees elected in 1965, and their successors in office.

Sec. 5. When such rural high school districts and consolidated independent school districts to which this Act is applicable have been in existence for two (2) years or longer, and additional territory is then added to such districts by annexation, the provisions of this Act shall continue to apply to such districts, although they may then contain territory originally comprising more than ten (10) original school districts; provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the Board of County School Trustees to divide the territory of such districts as provided for in Section 3 of this Act and to include the territory added by annexation within one or more of the five (5) areas provided for in Section 3. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 9, ch. 7.

Emergency. Effective March 7, 1963.

Art. 2922—1b. Re-employment of retired teachers

Re-employment of retired auxiliary school employees, see art. 2922—1e.

Art. 2922—1d. Elective method of calculating the standard annuity allowable under the Teacher Retirement Act

Method of calculation; "Best-ten-years-average compensation" defined

Section 1. Elective Method of Calculating the Standard Annuity Allowable Under the Teacher Retirement Act.

Subsection 1. In lieu of a standard annuity calculated in the manner prescribed by Subsection 22, Section 1 of the Teacher Retirement Act (Chapter 470, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature as amended by Chapter 530, Acts, Regular Session, Fifty-fourth Legislature),¹ any member or his beneficiary may elect to have the "standard annuity" receivable from the Teacher Retirement System of Texas calculated and determined upon the basis of the "best-ten-years-average compensation" of the member as that term is hereinbelow defined; and as to a person so electing, the "standard annuity" shall be an annuity payable in equal monthly installments aggregating in twelve (12) months the following sum:

- (a) One per cent (1%) for each year of prior service credit multiplied by the member's "best-ten-years-average compensation"; plus
- (b) One and one half per cent (1½%) for each year of membership former service and for each year of current membership service, multiplied by the member's "best-ten-years-average compensation."

Subsection 2. The term "best-ten-years-average compensation" shall mean the average annual compensation received by the member as a teacher or as an auxiliary employee during the ten (10) years of creditable service (whether or not consecutive) in which the member earned the highest compensation. Compensation in excess of Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400) in any year shall be excluded in calculating the "best-ten-years-average compensation" of the member.

Minimum standard service retirement benefits

Sec. 2. A teacher member who has retired or who hereafter retires from service after attaining sixty (60) years of age and after having completed twenty-five (25) or more years of creditable service shall at all events be entitled to receive the equivalent of a standard service retirement benefit aggregating in twelve (12) months the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50) multiplied by each year of prior service credit, membership former service credit, and current service credit to which such member is entitled; provided, however, that no standard service benefit shall be increased by reason of the provisions of this Section to an amount exceeding the sum of One Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800) per year.

Definition of terms

Sec. 3. Apart from the term "standard annuity," any term defined by Chapter 470, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature as heretofore amended, shall, when used in this Act, have the same meaning, unless the context plainly indicates otherwise.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to and cumulative of the rights granted to members and beneficiaries of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas under Chapter 470, Acts, Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature (as heretofore amended) and other prior and existing laws, and shall in no event be so construed as to reduce any benefit heretofore allowed or any benefit allowable under other provisions of existing laws; provided, however, that if the minimum service retirement benefit of any retired teacher with twenty-five (25) or more years of creditable service is less than the minimum prescribed in Section 2 of this Act, such benefits shall be increased from and after the end of the month in which this Act becomes effective to the minimum prescribed for equivalent service in Section 2 hereof. Section 1 of this Act shall apply to annuities becoming effective on and after the effective date of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 43, ch. 29.

Art. 2922—1e. Re-employment of retired auxiliary school employees

Section 1. Any auxiliary employee retired from service under the Teacher Retirement System of Texas and receiving benefits under the System may be employed, on a part-time, day-to-day basis only, as an auxiliary substitute in the public schools or in fully or partly State-supported institutions of higher education for a period not to exceed eighty (80) days in a single school year without affecting existing benefits under the Retirement System, including the right to receive retirement allowance. Any such person who reports for duty as a substitute auxiliary school employee during any day and works any portion of the day shall be considered to have worked one day. The substitute employment does not entitle the person to additional creditable service under the Retirement System.

Sec. 2. Any retired person who exceeds eighty (80) days of substitute work, or who is again employed in any position in the public schools of Texas, shall, except as provided in Section 1 above, forfeit all retirement benefits for any month in which such employment occurs. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 506, ch. 190.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Re-employment of retired teachers, see art. 2922—1b.

Art. 2922—1f. Death of member during absence from service; exemptions from taxes or process; survivor benefits

Section 1. If a member of the Teacher Retirement System shall die during an absence from service, during a period when the member was eligible for retirement, or would have reached a retirement status within a period of five (5) years of his last covered employment, there shall be payable to his designated beneficiary the same benefits payable upon the death of a member in active service.

Sec. 2. Exemptions from execution. The right of a person to an annuity or a retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, annuity, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 290, Acts, Fifty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, Chapter 530, as amended,¹ and the moneys in the various funds created by that Act, are hereby exempt from any State or municipal tax, and exempt from levy and sale, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as provided in that Act.

Sec. 3. The beneficiaries of all retired members who are receiving retirement annuities from the Teacher Retirement System of Texas shall be entitled to the same survivor benefits as provided by the terms of Senate Bill No. 290, Acts, Fifty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, for the beneficiaries of members with a year of creditable service after the effective date of that Act. This Section will apply to the beneficiaries of all retired members who die after the effective date of this Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1259, ch. 483.

Art. 2922—13. Units

Professional units

Section 1.

(4) Exceptional Children Teacher Units. Exceptional children teacher units, special or convalescent, for each school district, separate for whites and separate for negroes, shall be allotted as follows:

a. It is the purpose of this allotment of exceptional children teacher units to provide competent educational services for the exceptional children in Texas who are over six (6) and not over twenty-one (21) years old at the beginning of the scholastic year, for whom the regular school facilities are inadequate or are not available.

In interpreting and carrying out the provisions of this Act, the words "exceptional children" wherever used, will be construed to mean physically handicapped children and mentally retarded children; the words "physically handicapped children" wherever used, will be construed to include any child of educable mind whose body functions or members are so impaired that he cannot be safely or adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools, without the provision of special services; and the words "mentally retarded children" wherever used, will be construed to include any child whose mental condition is such that he cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools, without the provision of special services. The term 'special services' may be

a. It is the purpose of this allotment of exceptional children teacher units to provide competent educational services for the exceptional children in Texas between and including the ages of six (6) and twenty-one (21) for whom the regular school facilities are inadequate or are not available.

In interpreting and carrying out the provisions of this Act, the words "exceptional children," wherever used, will be construed to mean physically handicapped children, mentally retarded children and emotionally disturbed children. The words "physically handicapped children," wherever used, will be construed to include any child of educable mind whose body functions or members are so impaired that he cannot be safely or adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools, without the provision of special services; the words "mentally retarded children," wherever used, will be construed to include any child whose mental condition is such that he cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools, without the provision of special services; and the words "emotionally disturbed children," wherever used, will be construed to include any child whose emotional condition is medically determined and psychologically determined to be such that he cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools, without the provision of special services. The term "special services" may be interpreted to mean transportation; special teaching in the public school curriculum; corrective teaching, such as lip reading, speech correction, sight conservation, and corrective health habits; and the provision of special seats, books and teaching supplies, and equipment required for the instruction of exceptional children. Provided, no child shall receive special services permitted by law as an emotionally disturbed child without the consent of his parent or guardian, and provided that said child is seventeen (17) years of age or under. Provided further, that the State-wide total of all classroom teacher units allocated for emotionally disturbed children under this Article in each year beginning September 1, 1963, shall be limited to six (6) classroom teacher units per year. It is the intent of the Legislature that these six (6) classroom teacher units per year be allocated as a pilot study only, to ascertain the most practical and effective means of educating emotionally disturbed children. As amended Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 323, ch. 197, § 1; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1160, ch. 386, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1186, ch. 471, § 1.

Art. 2922—14b. Salary for principal in independent district without four-year accredited high school

In an independent school district in which no four (4) year accredited high school operates but with an average daily attendance in excess of five hundred (500) students, for the preceding school year, the full-time principal who must perform the same duties as those assigned to a superintendent of schools shall be paid on the same monthly basis as prescribed in the Foundation Program Act for a full-time principal, but he shall receive the monthly salary multiplied by twelve (12). Provided further, that in such districts in addition to the full-time principal there shall be allotted two (2) part-time principals who shall be paid on the same basis as that provided for part-time principals in the Foundation Program Act. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1346, ch. 509, § 1.

Title of Act:

An Act prescribing allotment of principal units, in certain types of school districts,

Art. 2922—16. Finances

Local funds to be charged to each district

Sec. 5. The State Commissioner of Education shall determine the amount of local funds to be charged to each school district and used therein toward the support of the Foundation School Program, which amount shall be calculated as follows:

Divide the State and county assessed valuation of all property in the county subject to school district taxation for the next preceding school year into the State and county assessed valuation of the district for the next preceding school year, finding the district's percentage of the county valuation. Multiply the district's percentage of the county valuation by the amount of funds assigned to all of the districts in the county. The product shall be the amount of local funds that the district shall be assigned to raise toward the financing of its foundation school program.

Provided, however, that in any district containing State University-owned land, State-owned prison land, Federal-owned forestry land, Federal-owned military reservations or Federal-owned Indian reservations, the amount assigned to such school district shall be reduced in the proportion that the area included in the above-named classification bears to the total area of the district. Provided further, that no local fund assignment shall be charged to the Boys Ranch Independent School District in Oldham County, Texas, the Bexar County School for Boys Independent School District in Bexar County, Texas, and the Bexar County School for Girls Independent School District in Bexar County, Texas.

Provided that if the revenue that would be derived from the legal maximum local maintenance school tax is less than the amount that is assigned to a school district according to the economic index, and if such property valuation is not less than said property is valued for State and county purposes such lesser amount shall be the amount assigned to be raised by such school district.

Provided further, that if a school district is unable or for any reason failed to collect local maintenance school funds equal to the amount assigned to it as determined by this Act, such failure will not make the district ineligible for full State per capita apportionment and full Foundation School Fund grants, but the amount as determined by this Act shall be charged against the district as budgetary receipts whether such amount is collected or not.

Provided that the amount of local funds assigned to a contract district, as provided for in Article III of this Act,¹ shall be assigned to the receiving district and all local taxes, except those required for the interest and sinking fund, shall be credited as collected to the receiving school district.

If a district other than such a contract district has no school, the amount of local funds assigned to such district shall be assigned for the current year to the receiving district in which such children attend school and the local tax funds collected shall be transferred to such receiving district; provided that if pupils from such a district attend schools in more than one receiving district, such local fund assignment and local tax funds shall be divided for the current year between such receiving districts proportionately according to the number of transfers to each receiving district.

If any school district which has a budgetary income, as provided in Article VI, Section 1, Subsections a and b,² in excess of the amount needed to operate a Minimum Foundation School Program as provided herein and transfers pupils to another district, such sending district shall pay a proportionate part of such excess based upon the ratio of the number transferred to the number of enumerated scholastics, to the district or districts to which such pupils are transferred, and such amount shall be charged to the receiving school.

The sum of the amounts assigned to the several portions of a county-line school district shall be the amount assigned to be raised by such district toward the financing of its Foundation School Program.

The county tax assessor-collector in each county, in addition to his other duties prescribed by law, shall certify to the State Commissioner of Education in Austin, Texas, not later than December 1st of each year, the following information:

(1) The assessed valuation, on a State and county valuation basis, of all property subject to school district taxation in each school district or portion of school district in such county, and the total assessed valuation of all property subject to the school district taxation in the county;

(2) The total area of each school district; and

(3) The area within each school district comprised of State University-owned land, State-owned prison land, Federal-owned forestry land, Federal-owned military reservations, and Federal-owned Indian reservations.

Should any county tax assessor-collector fail to submit such certificates to the State Commissioner of Education as provided for herein, the State Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby directed to submit such information, estimating when necessary. As soon after the receipt of such certificates as practicable, and prior to the time that the respective tax rates for the school districts of the county have been set, the State Commissioner of Education shall notify each school district as to the amount of local funds that such district is assigned to raise for the succeeding school year.

If there has been a marked increase or decrease in the assessed valuation of a school district within a county, and if the county school board certifies that the use of the county and school district valuations for the preceding year in determining local fund assignments to the school dis-districts in the county would be inequitable, and recommends a different distribution of the county total than that made by the State Commissioner of Education, such recommendations, subject to the approval of said Commissioner, shall become and be the lawful fund assignments to such districts.

Provided further, that any local maintenance funds in excess of the amount assigned to a district as determined by this Section may be expended for any lawful school purpose or it may be carried over as a balance into the next school year. As amended Acts 1954, 53rd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 13, ch. 5, § 4; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 503, ch. 1, § 4; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1365, ch. 520, § 1.

Chapter 335, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949, as amended, and any balances remaining in the Foundation School Fund at the end of each fiscal year to pay the state's part of the Foundation School Program as provided for in Chapter 334, Acts of the 51st Legislature, 1949, as last amended by this Act."

Allocation of revenue derived from gross receipts taxes to foundation school fund, see art. 7083a, § 2(4-a).

ELECTION CODE

CHAPTER ONE—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art.

1.01a. Definitions [New].

Art. 1.01a. Definitions

(a) As used in this Code, the term “qualified voter” or “qualified elector” means a person who meets all qualifications and requirements for voting as prescribed in Section 34¹ of this Code, including payment of the poll tax or procurement of a certificate of exemption where required by the provisions of this Code.

(b) As used in this Code, the terms “watcher,” “poll watcher,” and “supervisor” are synonymous. Wherever the term “supervisor” is used, it shall be construed to mean a watcher appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

(c) The United States decennial census of date immediately preceding the action in question shall be the basis for determining population under any provision of this Code. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 1a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Qualifications and appointment of poll watchers, see arts. 3.03, 3.05.

Qualifications and requirements for voting, see art. 5.02.

Art. 1.03. Blanks furnished

At least thirty days before each general election, the Secretary of State shall prescribe forms of all blanks necessary under this Code and shall furnish same to each county clerk. The Secretary of State shall at the same time certify to each county clerk a list of all the candidates who have been nominated for state and district offices and all other candidates whose names have been certified to the Secretary of State to be placed on the general election ballot. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 1.05. Ineligibility

5. Ineligibility

No person shall be eligible to be a candidate for, or to be elected or appointed to, any public office in this state unless he shall be eligible to hold such office under the Constitution and laws of this state, and unless he is a citizen of the United States and shall have resided in this state for a period of twelve months next preceding the date of any primary, general or special election at which he offers himself as a candidate or next preceding the date of his appointment, as the case may be, and for any office which is less than state-wide, shall have resided for six months next preceding such election in the district, county, precinct, municipality or other political subdivision for which the office is to be filled; provided, however, that the foregoing residence requirements shall not apply to any office for which the Constitution or statutes of the United States or of this state prescribe residence qualifications in conflict herewith, and in case of conflict the provisions of such other laws shall control. No ineligible candidate shall ever have his name placed upon the ballot at any primary, general or special election; and no ineligible candidate shall ever be voted upon nor have votes counted for him at any such primary, general or special election. No person who advocates the overthrow by force or violence or change by unconstitutional means of the present constitutional form of government of the United States or of this state, shall be eligible to have his name printed on any official ballot in any general, special or primary election in this state. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 4.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 1.08. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, §§ 5, 121(a).

Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment

See, now, Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 17.

CHAPTER TWO—TIME AND PLACE

Art. 2.01. Time and Place

A general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1964, and every two years thereafter, at such places as may be prescribed by law after notice as prescribed by law. Special elections shall be held at such times and places as may be fixed by law providing therefor. In all elections, general, special, or primary, the polls shall be open from seven o'clock a. m. to seven o'clock p. m.; provided, however, that in any county having a population of less than one hundred thousand, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour later at eight o'clock a. m. on order of the commissioners court of such county duly entered in the minutes thereof; and provided, further, that in any county having a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour earlier at six o'clock a. m. on order of the commissioners court of such county entered in the minutes thereof. The foregoing authority of the commissioners court shall extend to all elections held within the county, by whatever authority the election may be ordered, but the court may exercise this authority with respect to such elections as it deems necessary or desirable without advancing or retarding the opening hour for other elections, subject to the requirement that the court's order must apply uniformly to comparable types of elections held on the same day; and the order shall specify the elections to which it applies. The election shall be held for one day only.

All persons who are within the polling place and all persons who are waiting to enter the polling place at seven o'clock p. m. shall be allowed an opportunity to present themselves for voting in the same manner as if they had appeared and offered themselves for voting during regular voting hours. The presiding judge shall take necessary precautions to prevent voting by any person not present and waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls. If feasible, all persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls shall be required to enter the polling place, and the door to the polling place shall be closed and locked, and each such person shall remain inside the polling place until he has voted.

If such procedure is not feasible, numbered identification cards or tokens shall be distributed to identify those persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 125, ch. 68, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 6.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2.02. Formation of election precincts; consolidation for certain elections

Unless a specific statute provides otherwise, the following rules shall govern the establishment of election precincts and the designation of polling places for the conduct of the various kinds of elections held within this state.

(a) County-wide elections held at the expense of the county. In general elections for state and county officers, special elections called by the Governor (including both county-wide elections and elections to fill vacancies in offices elected by districts which are less than county-wide), and all other county-wide elections held at the expense of the county, the election precincts shall be the regular election precincts established by the commissioners court pursuant to Section 12 of this Code.¹

(b) Municipal elections. The governing body of each incorporated city or town shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places for elections held by such city or town, in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 of this Code.²

(c) Elections held by other political subdivisions. In elections held by other political subdivisions (including but not limited to school districts, junior college districts, districts created pursuant to Article III, Section 52 or Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, and other similar districts), the governing body of the political subdivision shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places for elections held by such subdivision.

(d) Elections held by the county, which affect another political subdivision. In any election called by the commissioners court or the county judge in connection with or relating to the creation, organization, reorganization, functioning or existence of a municipality or of a political subdivision described in Paragraph (c) of this section, the authority calling the election shall designate the election precincts and the polling place in each precinct for such election.

(e) Other elections held by the county. In any other special election called by the commissioners court or the county judge which is ordered for only part of the county, the authority calling the election shall designate the election precincts and the polling place in each precinct for such election.

(f) Primary elections. In all primary elections held by political parties for nominating candidates to be voted on at general and special elections held at the expense of the county, the election precincts shall be the county election precincts established by the commissioners court pursuant to Section 12 of this Code.

(g) In any election for nomination or election of an officer or officers, at which there is no office to be voted on by the voters of only one county or a part of one county, the authority holding the election may combine any two or more regular election precincts into consolidated precincts for such election if it appears that the voters included within a consolidated precinct can be adequately and conveniently served at one polling place.

(h) All election precincts, by whatever authority established, shall be described by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines, and shall be designated by name or number. There shall be one polling place, and no more, for each election precinct, and the notice of the election shall state the location of the polling place in each precinct. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 7.

² Article 2.05.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2.04. County election precincts formed by commissioners court

Each county shall be divided into convenient election precincts by the commissioners court of the county, each of which precincts shall be differently numbered and described by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines by an order entered upon the minutes of the court. At any July or August term, the court may make such changes in the election precincts as they deem proper, by such order entered upon the minutes of the court. When such an order is entered, they shall immediately thereafter publish in some newspaper in the county for three consecutive weeks a notice of the entry of such order, giving a brief description in general terms of the changes made, without the necessity of including in such notice the field notes or other detailed description of the precinct boundaries. If there be no newspaper in the county, then a copy of such order shall be posted in some public place in each election precinct in the county which is affected by the order.

No election precinct shall be formed out of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts, nor out of the parts of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts. No election precinct shall have resident therein more than two thousand voters as ascertained by the current certified lists of qualified voters; provided, however, that in precincts in which voting machines have been adopted for use, the maximum number of voters shall be three thousand.

In cities and towns having ten thousand or more inhabitants, each ward shall constitute an election precinct unless there shall reside in said ward more than two thousand qualified voters. In such cities and towns, no precinct shall be made out of parts of two wards, and no precinct shall include territory outside the corporate limits of the city or town.

In cities, towns and villages of less than ten thousand inhabitants, the justice precincts and commissioners precincts in which the city, town, or village is situated may be divided into election precincts without regard to the wards or the corporate limits of the city, town or village.

Changes in election precincts shall not become operative in the holding of elections until February first of the following year. The commissioners court shall cause to be made out and delivered to the county tax collector before the first day of each September a certified copy of such last order for the year following. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 2.05. Election precincts for municipal elections

The election precincts for municipal elections and the location of the polling place in each precinct shall be designated by the governing body of the municipality. The governing body may combine two or more county election precincts into one municipal precinct, but shall not include parts of one county precinct in more than one municipal precinct. The certified list of qualified voters for all county election precincts in which voters reside who are to vote at a polling place designated by the governing body shall be used at such polling place. In all cities and towns in which the number of voters at the last general municipal election does not exceed four hundred in number, only one polling place shall be opened at any municipal election; and all officers of such cities and towns to be elected shall be voted for at such polling place. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 7.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER THREE—OFFICERS OF ELECTIONArt. 3.01. Appointment of election officers

(a) For county elections. The commissioners court at its February term shall appoint from among the citizens of each election precinct one qualified voter as presiding judge of elections held at the expense of the county in that precinct and one qualified voter as alternate presiding judge, each of whom shall continue to act until his successor is appointed. Whenever a vacancy arises in either of such offices, the commissioners court may fill the vacancy at any regular or special term of court. All orders appointing judges and alternates shall be entered of record. Each presiding judge shall appoint two qualified voters, who are residents of the precinct, to serve as election clerks, and shall appoint for each election as many additional clerks as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election, not to exceed the maximum number authorized by the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed for each precinct, and may fix different maximums depending on the type of election. The clerks shall be selected from different political parties, when practicable.

(b) For municipal elections. Unless a different method is prescribed by the city charter, the mayor, or if he fails to do so, then the governing body of the municipality, shall appoint for each municipal election precinct a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for elections held by such municipality and shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed to serve in each precinct, which shall be not less than two; and the presiding judge for each precinct shall appoint two clerks, and as many additional clerks within the authorized limit as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election, who shall be selected from different political parties when practicable.

(c) For elections held by other political subdivisions. In any election held by a political subdivision other than a city or a county, the statutes pertaining to the particular type of election shall govern the appointment of election officers if such statutes provide for their appointment. In the absence of such provisions, the governing body of the subdivision shall appoint a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for each election precinct of the subdivision and shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed to serve in each precinct, which shall be not less than two; and the presiding judge for each precinct shall appoint two clerks and as many additional clerks within the authorized limit as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election.

(d) For primary elections. The primary elections of a political party shall be conducted in each precinct by a presiding judge, to be appointed by the chairman of the county executive committee of the party, with the assistance and approval of a majority of the members of the county executive committee. The presiding judge shall select two clerks to assist in conducting the election; and additional clerks may be appointed under such rules as may be made by the county executive committee. An alternate presiding judge shall be appointed for each precinct in like manner as the presiding judge.

(e) Alternate judge to preside. Whenever the regularly appointed presiding judge is unable to serve at an election, the alternate presiding judge shall serve as the presiding judge for that election. In any election conducted by the regularly appointed presiding judge, he shall appoint the alternate presiding judge as one of the clerks to serve at such election. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 8.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date where voting machines are used, see art. of adjournment. 7.14, § 24.

Appointment and compensation of election officers and watchers for precincts Watchers, appointment, see art. 3.05.

Art. 3.02. Duties and working hours of clerks

In all elections, general, special, or primary, the presiding judge shall be in charge of the management of the polling place and the conduct of the election. He shall designate the working hours and assign the duties to be performed by the clerks. Clerks may be assigned to work for different lengths of time and to begin work at different hours during the day while the polls are open or during the time necessary for counting the ballots after the polls are closed. Clerks who begin work at any time before closing of the polls shall remain on duty without leaving the polling place while the polls are open, except for such periods of absence for meals and other necessary reasons as may be permitted by the presiding judge.

One or more clerks shall be assigned to assist in checking the names of voters on the list of qualified voters, keeping the poll list, and performing such other duties as are necessary in receiving the voters and supervising the deposit of the voted ballots. At every election there shall be kept a poll list in the number of copies required by law, consisting of one original and carbon copies thereof, on which an election officer shall enter the name of each voter at the time he votes.

In elections where paper ballots are used, the ballots shall be counted by one or more sets of counting officers, each set to consist of one judge or clerk who shall read the ballots, and one or more clerks who shall enter the votes on tally lists prepared for the election. As a safeguard in the accuracy of the tallying, the votes shall be entered on three original tally lists, and during the progress of the counting the lists shall be compared and errors and discrepancies shall be corrected, and at the close of the counting the tally clerks shall certify officially to the correctness of the lists.

The clerks may be assigned to perform such other duties as the presiding judge shall direct. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 8.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 3.03. Qualifications of judges, clerks and watchers

All judges and clerks of any general, special, or primary election shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve. In any general, special, or primary election all watchers shall be qualified voters of the county if the election is county-wide, and shall be qualified voters of the city or other political subdivision in which the election is held if less than county-wide, but it shall not be necessary that they reside within the election precinct in which they are named to serve.

No person shall serve as a judge or a clerk in any election, general, special, or primary, who is employed by any candidate for a lucrative office, whose name appears on the ballot in that election, or who is related to such candidate within the third degree either by affinity or consanguinity.

No watcher shall be an employee or employer of any election judge or clerk in the election precinct in which he is named to serve, or related to any such official within the third degree either by affinity or consanguinity. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 9.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. Poll watchers, definition, see art. 1.01a.

Art. 3.04. Disqualifications

No one who holds an office of profit or trust under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state, or within thirty days after resigning or being dismissed from any such office, except a notary public, or who is a candidate for public office, or who is not a qualified voter, shall act as judge, clerk, or watcher of any election, general, special, or primary. The offices referred to in the preceding sentence do not include offices of a political party, and no one shall be disqualified to act as judge, clerk, or watcher at an election by reason of his holding or being a candidate for the office of county chairman or precinct chairman or other office of a political party.

No one shall act as chairman or as member of any district, county, or city executive committee of a political party who is not a qualified voter, or who is a candidate for public office, or who holds any office of profit or trust, either under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 9.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 3.05. Appointment of watchers

(a) By political parties. The chairman of the county executive committee for each political party that has a nominee or nominees on the official ballot at any general or special election, or, if the chairman failed to act, any three members of such committee, may appoint one watcher for each election precinct by delivering to the watcher, prior to the day of the election, a written certificate of his appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall bear the signature of the chairman or committee members making the appointment together with the signature of the appointee.

(b) By candidates. Any five or one-fifth of the candidates, whichever is less, whose names appear on the official ballot of any general, special, or primary election may appoint two watchers for each election precinct in which the names of such candidates appear on the ballot, by delivering to each such watcher appointed by them, prior to the day of the election, a certificate of his appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall be signed personally by the candidates making the appointment and shall also bear the signature of the appointee. The assistant campaign manager of any candidate for state or district office, designated in accordance with Section 238 of this Code,¹ may act on behalf of the candidate he represents in the appointment of watchers in the county for which he has been named assistant campaign manager, and certificates executed by him shall bear his signature as agent for the candidate, in lieu of the candidate's signature.

(c) By voters. In any general, special, or primary election, the qualified voters in an election precinct may appoint two watchers for that precinct on behalf of any announced candidate who does not appoint or join in the appointment of a watcher or watchers for such precinct under the provisions of Paragraph (b) of this section, by delivering to each watcher appointed by them, prior to the day of the election, a certificate of appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed, the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve, and the name of the candidate on whose behalf the appointment is made. The certificate shall be signed by fifty qualified voters or five per cent of the qualified voters of the precinct as determined by the number of voters appearing on the list of qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number, and shall also bear the signature of the appointee; and the candidate, or his assistant campaign manager for the county in which the precinct is located if he be a candidate for a state or district office, shall endorse thereon a signed statement that the appointment is made with his consent. To every voter who signs such certificate shall be administered an oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to or made a part of the certificate, that the signer is a qualified voter at the election and in the precinct for which the appointment is made. One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 10.

Election officers, appointment, see art. 3.01.

Appointment of watchers to observe conduct of absentee voting in county clerk's office, see art. 5.05, subd. 3.

Art. 3.06. Watchers at elections on questions or propositions

Whenever any question or proposition is to be voted on at any election in this state, voters favoring the proposition may procure the appointment of two watchers, and voters opposing the proposition may procure the appointment of two watchers, for each election precinct in which the proposition is to be voted on, by complying with the procedure set forth in this section. A petition signed by fifty qualified voters or five per cent of the qualified voters of the precinct as determined by the number of voters appearing on the list of qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number, shall state whether the signers favor or oppose adoption of the proposition, and shall state the name and address of the person or persons whom they wish to be appointed. To every voter who signs the petition shall be administered an oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to or made a part of the petition, that the signer is a qualified voter at the election and in the precinct for which the appointment is requested. One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered.

In state-wide elections, and in all elections ordered by the commissioners court or the county judge, the petition shall be presented to the county judge. In municipal elections, it shall be presented to the mayor, and in all other elections it shall be presented to the presiding officer of the board or body ordering the election. The petition shall be presented to the proper officer not later than the third day prior to election day. If the officer to whom the petition is presented finds that it complies with the foregoing requirements, that the signers of the petition are good-faith representatives of the side of the issue which they purport to represent, and that the person or persons whose appointment is requested are qualified to serve as watchers, he shall issue a certificate of appointment to each of the persons whose appointment is requested, setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall bear the signature of the appointing officer together with the signature of the appointee.

Not more than two watchers representing the same side of a question or proposition shall be appointed in a precinct. If more than one petition is filed by voters representing the same side of the issue, preference shall be given in accordance with the order of filing.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to referendum propositions submitted at party primary elections. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 10.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Appointment of watchers to observe conduct of absentee voting in county clerk's office, see art. 5.05, subd. 3.

Art. 3.07. Service, duties, and privileges of watchers

Each watcher shall be present at the polling place on election day when the polls are opened, and shall remain on duty without leaving the polling place until the polls are closed, except for such periods of absence for meals or other necessary reasons as may be permitted by the presiding judge. If the presiding judge permits the clerks to leave the polling place for meals or other necessary reasons during the time the polls are open, he must accord the same privilege to watchers. A watcher who leaves the polling place without proper authorization while the polls are open shall not be permitted to resume service. A watcher who leaves the polling place after the polls are closed shall be permitted to resume his service at any time thereafter until the election officers have completed their duties.

On election day, the watcher shall present his certificate of appointment to the presiding judge of the precinct where he is to serve, and the presiding judge shall require the watcher to countersign the certificate to make certain he is the identical person referred to in the certificate. The presiding judge shall preserve the certificate and deliver it with other records of the election to the officer who has custody of the voted ballots, to be preserved by him for the length of time provided by law for preservation of the voted ballots.

Before commencing his service, each watcher shall take an oath, to be administered by the presiding judge, that he will mention and note any errors he may see in testing the voters, or counting the votes, or making out the returns, that he will well and truly discharge his duties as watcher impartially, and will report in writing all violations of the law and unrectified irregularities that he may observe to the authority which canvasses the returns of the election, and, if he deems it desirable, to the next grand jury.

Each watcher appointed in accordance with this Code shall be permitted to sit conveniently near the judges or clerks so that he can observe the conduct of the election, including but not limited to the reading of the ballots, the tallying and counting of the votes, the making out of the returns, the locking of the ballot boxes, their custody and safe return. He shall also be permitted to be present when assistance is given by any election judge in the marking of the ballot of any voter not able to mark his own ballot, to see that the ballot is marked in accordance with the wishes of the voter, but he must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law. He shall not be permitted to enter into any conversation with the judges or clerks regarding the election while it is progressing, except to call the attention of the judges or clerks to any irregularity or violation of the law that he may observe. The watcher shall call the attention of officers holding the election to any fraud, irregularity or mistake, illegal voting attempted, or other failure to comply with the laws governing such election at the time it occurs, if practicable, and if he has knowledge thereof at the time, and such complaint shall be reduced to writing and a copy delivered to the Election Judge.

No watcher shall give any advice of any kind to any voter, or hold any conversation or discussion with any voter, or communicate with or signal to any voter in any manner, or interfere with any voter in any manner whatsoever.

In addition to the foregoing duties and privileges, each watcher serving at an election where voting machines are used shall also have the duties and privileges of watchers as set forth in Section 79 of this Code.

Watchers appointed to observe absentee voting may be appointed in the same manner as watchers appointed to serve at regular polling places, and may serve at such hours as they desire.

The authority holding the election shall not pay for the services of watchers, but they may be paid by the interest they represent. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 10.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Appointment of watchers to observe conduct of absentee voting in county clerk's office, see art. 5.05, subd. 3.

Art. 3.08. Pay of judges and clerks

In all elections, general, special, or primary, by whatever authority conducted, the rate of pay for judges and clerks of the election shall be determined by the appropriate authority, but shall not exceed one dollar per hour for each judge or clerk. In precincts where voting machines are used, no judge or clerk shall be paid for any period of time in excess of two hours after voting has been concluded. The judge who delivers the returns of election may be paid an amount not to exceed two dollars for that service; provided, also, he shall make returns of ballots, ballot boxes, and election supplies not used when he makes returns of the election.

In elections held at the expense of a county, the rate of pay shall be determined by the commissioners court of the county where such services are rendered. In elections held at the expense of a city, school district, or other political subdivision, the governing body of the city, district or political subdivision shall determine the rate. In primary elections, the rate shall be determined by the county executive committee of the party conducting the primary election.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V. T. A. S.

The compensation of judges and clerks of general and special elections shall be paid by the authority responsible for the expenses of the election, upon presentation of claims for such services approved in the manner required for other claims against its funds.

The provisions of this section shall control over all other statutes relating to pay of election judges and clerks in any type of election whatsoever, and all other statutes are hereby repealed to the extent of any conflict with this section. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 11.

5.02a. Voting for federal offices [New].

Art. 5.01. Classes of persons not qualified to vote

The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote in this state:

1. Persons under twenty-one years of age.
2. Idiots and lunatics.
3. All paupers supported by the county.
4. All persons convicted of any felony except those restored to full citizenship and right of suffrage or pardoned. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 12.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Qualified voter, definition, see art. 1.01a.

Art. 5.02. Qualification and requirements for voting

Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this state one year next preceding an election, and the last six months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector, provided that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of this state shall have paid said tax before offering to vote and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election, and any voter who is exempt from paying a poll tax must procure a certificate showing his or her exemption, as required by this Code. If such voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt or certificate of exemption, he or she shall be entitled to vote upon making and leaving with the judge of the election an affidavit that such tax was paid or such certificate was obtained in the manner and during the time allowed by law preceding such election at which he or she offers to vote, and that such receipt or certificate has been lost, misplaced, or left at home.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any member of the Armed Forces of the United States or component branches thereof who is on active duty in the military service of the United States may vote only in the county in which he or she resided at the time of entering such service so long as he or she is a member of the Armed Forces. This restriction applies only to members of the Armed Forces who are on active duty, and the phrase "time of entering such service" means the time of commencing the current active duty. A re-enlistment after a temporary separation from service upon termination of a prior enlistment shall not be construed to be the commencement of a new period of service, and in such case the county in which the person resided at the time of commencing active service under the prior enlistment shall be construed to be the county of residence at the time of entering service.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all elections, including general, special, and primary elections; provided that a city poll tax shall not be required to vote in any election in this state except in city elections. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 13.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Amendment of this article by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 1 was conditioned upon the adoption of amendment to Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 4, proposed by S.J.R. No. 1, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1797, held at election on Nov. 9, 1963. The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore Acts 1963, 58th Leg. p. 1103, ch. 430, § 1 did not become effective or operative as a law.

Qualified voter, definition, see art. 1.01a.

Art. 5.02a. Voting for federal offices

Subdivision 1. Qualification and requirements for voting for federal offices. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Code or of the Constitution of this state, the payment of the poll tax shall not be required as a condition for voting for United States Senator, for United States Representative (including Congressman-at-Large), or for President and Vice-President or electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, in any general, special, or primary election. To be eligible to vote for such offices, a person must be a qualified elector under the Constitution and laws of this state in all other respects. If he is not subject to payment of the poll tax, he must have obtained an exemption certificate in accordance with the provisions of this Code if he is required to hold an exemption certificate as a condition for voting generally. If he is subject to payment of the poll tax, he must have paid the tax and obtained a receipt therefor prior to the first day of February preceding the election; or he must have obtained a poll tax receipt without payment of the tax, in the manner and within the time provided in Subdivision 2 of this section.

Subdivision 2. Issuance of poll tax receipts without payment of the tax. A person who is subject to payment of the poll tax and who is in other respects a qualified elector may apply to the tax collector of the county of his residence at any time between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of January following for issuance of a poll tax receipt without payment of the tax, to be used to identify him in voting for offices enumerated in Subdivision 1 of this section during the voting year beginning on the first day of February thereafter; provided, however, that a receipt to identify the voter at elections held during the voting year in which this section takes effect may be obtained at any time within the period of thirty days after the effective date, but must have been obtained at least four days before any election at which he offers to vote; and if this section takes effect during the month of January, a receipt to identify the voter at elections held during the ensuing voting year may be obtained at any time within the period of thirty days after its effective date. The applicant shall furnish to the tax collector all the information necessary to enable the tax collector to fill out the blanks in the poll tax receipt, and the tax collector shall issue the receipt as in cases where the poll tax is paid, except that he shall place the following notation on the face of the original and duplicate receipt: "Poll tax not paid." The application may be made in either of the manners authorized in Section 43 of this Code,¹ and all laws pertaining to issuance of poll tax receipts shall apply to issuance of receipts without payment of the tax insofar as they can be made applicable, except as otherwise provided in this section. At the time the tax collector makes up the lists of qualified voters, he shall make up separate lists of those persons to whom poll tax receipts have been issued without payment of the tax and shall furnish the lists to the election boards at the same time that he furnishes other lists.

Subdivision 3. Voting on receipts issued without payment of the tax. A person subject to payment of the poll tax who has obtained a receipt without payment of the tax shall not be eligible to vote at any election or on any office or proposition except at elections for the offices enumerated in Subdivision 1 of this section. When such persons offer to vote, the election officers shall enter their names of a separate poll list and shall furnish them with a ballot containing only the offices and candidates on which they are entitled to vote. When other offices or propositions are to be voted on at the same election, the election officers may provide separate ballots listing only the federal offices to be voted on, or may use the regular ballots prepared for the election, from which all other offices and propositions have been stricken. When the ballot is to be cast on a voting machine, all other offices and propositions shall be locked out before the voter enters the machine. The returns of the election shall show, separate from other voters, the number of persons voting on poll tax receipts issued without payment of the tax. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 34a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 7.

Effective on date of publication of the certifying statement of Administrator of General Services that amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 29 of the 87th Congress of the United States has become part of the Constitution of the United States prior to adoption of proposed amendment of the Texas Constitution. See, note, post.

The title to Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 7, which added this article to the Election Code, provided:

"This section of this Act shall become effective and operative as a law only upon the condition that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 29 of the 87th Congress of the United States becomes a part of the Constitution of the United States prior to an amendment of the Constitution of the State of Texas abolishing payment of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting, in which event this section shall take effect on the date of publication of the certifying statement of the Administrator of General Services that the amendment had become valid as a part of the Constitution of the United States. If such amendment to the Constitution of the United States is not adopted, or is adopted after the amendment of the Constitution of Texas as aforesaid, this section shall not become effective or operative in whole or in part. The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore section 1-5 of the Act did not become effective or operative as laws.

Art. 5.05. Absentee voting

Subdivision 1. Who may vote absentee. Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place in the election precinct of his residence on the day of the election, may nevertheless cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting.

Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods: (1) voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, and (2) voting by mail. All voters coming within the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office if they are able to make such appearance within the period for absentee voting. The following persons, and no other, may vote by mail:

(i) Qualified voters who because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing it to him, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The voter shall state in his application the address to which the ballot is to be mailed to him, which must be either his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living. If the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any address other than one of the foregoing, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(ii) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he expects to be absent from the county of his residence on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him. Applications made under this paragraph may be mailed either from within or without the county of the voter's residence, but in every case the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk is postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iii) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expect to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he is absent from the county at the time of making the application and expects to be absent on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The clerk shall not mail a ballot to any such voter unless the envelope in which the application received is postmarked from a point outside the county, and the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the envelope in which the application is received and the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk are each postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail shall state the applicant's permanent address and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed to the applicant, and shall also state the address to which his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate is to be mailed back to him. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 1a. Elections to which applicable; officer to conduct absentee voting. The provisions of this section shall apply to all elections, general, special, or primary. In general and special elections held at the expense of the county, and in primary elections held by political parties for nominating candidates to be voted on at general and special elections held at the expense of the county, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the county clerk. In municipal elections, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the city secretary or city clerk.

In elections held by school districts, conservation districts, and other defined districts and political subdivisions authorized to hold elections in this state, the absentee voting shall be conducted by a clerk for absentee voting, to be appointed by the governing board of this subdivision, which may also appoint such number of deputy clerks as it deems necessary to assist in the conduct of the absentee voting. Each clerk and deputy clerk shall be a qualified voter in the subdivision. Persons in the employment of the board shall be eligible for appointment, if otherwise qualified. The board shall designate the place at which the absentee voting shall be conducted, which shall be at the office of the board or at some other public place within the boundaries of the subdivision. The board shall designate the hours during which the clerk shall keep the office open, which for the purposes of this section shall constitute the clerk's regular working hours, and shall require that the office remain open for at least eight hours on each day for absentee voting which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or an official state holiday. The place and hours for absentee voting shall be stated in the order calling the election and in the election notice. The compensation of the clerk and deputy clerks shall be fixed by the board and shall be paid out of the same fund that other expenses of the election are paid. Employees of the board who are designated as clerks or deputy clerks for absentee voting may be required to perform these duties without additional compensation.

In every election, the absentee voting shall be conducted under the same rules and in the same manner provided in this section for absentee voting conducted by the county clerk, and all references to the county clerk shall be deemed to mean the appropriate officer for conducting the absentee voting in that election unless the context clearly requires a different construction. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 2. Application for ballot. A voter desiring to vote absentee shall make written application for an official ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence, which application shall be signed by the voter, or by a witness at the direction of the voter in case of the latter's inability to make such application because of physical disability. The application shall state the ground on which the applicant is entitled to vote absentee, and in case of an application to be voted by mail, it shall also state the additional information required by Subdivision 1 of this section. In case of an application to vote absentee by personal appearance, except where the voted ballot is to be placed in a carrier envelope, the application shall contain or have attached thereto an affidavit signed by the applicant, in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. ____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the ____ day of _____, 19____, and that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of the election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, or expected absence from county).

(Signature of voter)

By:

(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

The application shall be accompanied by the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate of the voter, or in lieu thereof, his affidavit in writing that same has been lost or mislaid or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place on election day, a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability shall accompany the application, which certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of _____, and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

Witness my hand at _____, Texas, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(Signature of practitioner)

Expected or likely confinement for childbirth on election day shall be sufficient to entitle a voter to vote absentee on the ground of sickness or physical disability, and a physician executing a certificate for a pregnant woman may state in the certificate that because of pregnancy and possible delivery she will be or may be unable to appear at the polling place on election day.

Any person who requests a physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner to execute a certificate for another person without having been directed by such other person to do so, and any physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner who knowingly executes a certificate except upon the request of the voter named therein or upon the request of someone at the voter's direction, or who knowingly delivers a certificate except by delivering it to the voter in person or by mailing it to the voter at his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living, or who knowingly falsifies a certificate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 2a. Absentee voting by members of the Armed Forces, etc. Notwithstanding any provision of Subdivision 1 or Subdivision 2 of this section, any qualified voter within any of the following categories shall be entitled to vote absentee by mail upon making application by mail for an absentee ballot on an official Federal Post Card Application for Absentee Ballot, and no further statement of his eligibility to vote absentee by mail shall be required of him, provided the application is mailed from outside the county and the ballot is to be mailed to an official address outside the county:

(1) Members of the Armed Forces of the United States and their spouses and dependents residing with or accompanying them.

(2) Members of the Merchant Marine of the United States and their spouses and dependents residing with or accompanying them.

(3) Members of religious or welfare organizations assisting servicemen and their spouses and dependents residing with or accompanying them.

(4) Civilians employed by the United States Government outside the territorial limits of the United States, and their spouses and dependents residing with or accompanying them.

The foregoing provisions shall not be construed as preventing the clerk from accepting a Federal Post Card Application for Absentee Ballot from any other person who is permitted by Federal law to use such application form, but unless the applicant comes within the foregoing provisions he shall furnish the information required by Subdivision 2 of this section in addition to the information regularly supplied on the Federal Post Card Application and shall be subject to all of the provisions of Subdivision 1 of this section pertaining to absentee voting by mail.

A poll tax receipt or exemption certificate accompanying a Federal Post Card Application shall be mailed back to the voter at the official address to which the ballot was mailed, unless the voter requests the clerk to mail it to some other address. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 3. Period for voting by personal appearance. The period for absentee voting by personal appearance shall begin on the twentieth day and shall continue through the fourth day preceding the date of the election; provided, however, that when the twentieth day falls on a day which is not a regular working day for the clerk's office, the absentee voting by personal appearance shall begin on the next succeeding regular working day. The clerk shall not permit anyone to vote absentee by personal appearance on any day which is not a regular working day for the clerk's office or at any time when his office is not open to the public.

At any time within the period for absentee voting, a voter who is eligible to vote absentee may do so by making his personal appearance before the county clerk of the county of his residence at the office of the clerk and delivering to such clerk his application aforesaid.

Watchers, as provided for in Sections 19, 20, and 21 of this Code,¹ may be appointed to observe the conduct of absentee voting in the clerk's office. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 3a. Voting by personal appearance in county-wide elections. In a county-wide election, or in an election less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee voting by personal appearance shall be conducted on a voting machine or that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, if the clerk is satisfied as to the right of the applicant to vote, the clerk shall place a notation on the list of qualified voters showing that the particular person has voted absentee and shall enter the voter's name on a poll list of absentee voters. He shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that the voter has voted absentee in the election, shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall return the receipt or certificate to the voter. The application shall be preserved in the clerk's office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots.

In the conduct of absentee voting under this subdivision, the clerk shall possess the same power as a presiding judge with respect to examination and acceptance of a voter. If the right of an applicant to vote is challenged, the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this Code¹ shall be followed.

Where paper ballots are used for absentee voting, after a voter has been accepted, the clerk shall furnish the voter with an official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election. The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark his ballot and detach and sign the ballot stub, and shall deposit the ballot in a ballot box and the stub in a stub box in the manner provided in Section 97 of this Code. The ballots shall be deposited in a ballot box locked with two locks, the keys of one of which shall be kept during the period for absentee voting by the sheriff and the keys of the other by the county clerk. The stubs shall be deposited in a stub box prepared in accordance with Section 97 of this Code.²

Where a voting machine is used for absentee voting by personal appearance, after a voter has been accepted, he shall then be permitted to cast his ballot on the voting machine. Returns of absentee votes cast on a voting machine shall be made under the appropriate provision of Section 79 of this Code.³ Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 3b. Voting by personal appearance in elections less than county-wide. In an election less than county-wide in which absentee paper ballots are to be sent to the regular polling places for counting, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, the clerk shall thereupon furnish to the voter the following absentee voting supplies:

(1) One official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election.

(2) One ballot envelope, which shall be a plain envelope, without any markings except the words "Ballot Envelope" printed on the face thereof, followed by the instructions contained in this subdivision and Subdivision 4 for marking the ballot, for placing it in the carrier envelope, and for returning a ballot to be voted by mail, together with a statement of the deadline for placing the ballot in the mail and for delivery to the clerk's office in that election.

(3) One carrier envelope, upon the face of which there shall appear the words "Carrier Envelope for Absentee Ballot" and the name, official title, and post office address of the county clerk, and upon the other side a printed affidavit in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. _____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the _____ day of _____, 19____; that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of such election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, or expected absence from county); that the enclosed ballot expresses my wishes, independent of any dictation or undue persuasion of any person; and that I did not use any memorandum or device to aid me in the marking of said ballot.

(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark the ballot in the presence of the clerk, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign and swear to the affidavit on the carrier envelope, and deliver the carrier envelope to the clerk, who shall certify to the affidavit. The clerk shall, when requested, also take any other affidavits for a voter which are required by this Code, for which service no fee shall be charged. The clerk shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that he has voted absentee in the election, shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall return the receipt or certificate to the voter. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 4. Voting by mail. The period for absentee voting by mail shall begin on the twentieth day preceding the date of the election. An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail must be received in the clerk's office not later than the close of business on the fourth day preceding election day. In county-wide elections and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, the marked ballot must be mailed back to the clerk in an envelope postmarked not later than midnight of the day preceding election day, and must be received in the clerk's office before one o'clock p.m. on election day. In all other elections which are less than county-wide, the marked ballot must be mailed back to the clerk in an envelope postmarked not later than midnight of the third day preceding election day and must be received in the clerk's office before ten o'clock a.m. on the second day preceding election day. The ballot may be marked by the voter at any time after he receives it and prior to the deadline for placing the marked ballot in the mail.

On the twentieth day preceding election day, or as soon thereafter as possible, the clerk shall mail an official ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope, as described in Subdivision 3b of this section, to each voter who has theretofore made application for a ballot in compliance with this section. On applications which are received between the twentieth day and the fourth day preceding election day, the clerk shall forthwith mail the absentee voting supplies to the voter.

The voter shall mark the ballot before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot, and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign and swear to the affidavit on the carrier envelope, which shall be certified by the notary public or other officer before whom the ballot is marked. The carrier envelope shall then be mailed, postage prepaid, to the county clerk.

As soon as practicable after receipt of the carrier envelope containing the marked ballot, the clerk shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that he has voted absentee in the election (or that the ballot was received after the deadline for returning ballots, in the case of late ballots), shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall mail the receipt or certificate to the voter at the address given in the application for returning the receipt or certificate to the voter, or if no such address is given, to the voter's permanent address. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 5. Delivery of ballots to election judges; late ballots. Upon receipt of a ballot sealed in a carrier envelope, including those ballots which have been marked in the clerk's office and those which have been returned by mail, the clerk shall keep the same unopened and shall deliver it to the proper canvassing board or election judge as hereinafter provided. Prior to delivering the carrier envelope the clerk shall enclose the same together with the voter's application and accompanying papers, including the envelope in which any application by mail was received, in a larger jacket envelope.

Ballots not received back by the clerk before the deadline for returning ballots as stated in Subdivision 4 shall not be delivered to the judges and shall not be voted. The unopened carrier envelopes containing late ballots and the corresponding applications shall remain in the custody of the clerk for the period during which a contest of the election may be filed, and shall then be destroyed if no contest arose. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 6. Counting of ballots in county-wide elections. In all county-wide elections, and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of qualified voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than one o'clock p. m. If delivered before one o'clock p. m., the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, at one o'clock p. m., all ballots received by mail before one o'clock p. m. of the day of the election which have not previously been delivered to the board. This special canvassing board shall open the jacket envelopes, announce the voter's name and ascertain in each case if he is qualified to vote at that election and if he has complied with all applicable provisions of this section to entitle his ballot to be cast. The board shall compare the signatures on the application and upon the affidavit on the carrier envelope, and in case the board finds that the signatures correspond, that the application and the affidavit are duly executed, that the voter is a qualified elector, and that he has voted in a manner authorized in this section, they shall enter his name on the official poll list (on which voters voting by mail shall be listed separately from those who have voted by personal appearance) and shall open the carrier envelope so as not to deface the affidavit thereon, and shall place the sealed ballot envelope in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The carrier envelope, application and accompanying papers shall be replaced in the jacket envelope and returned to the county clerk at the same time the voted ballots are returned, and shall be preserved for the length of time provided by law for the preservation of the voted ballots.

If the ballot be challenged by an election officer, watcher, or other person, the grounds of challenge shall be heard and decided according to law, including the consideration of any affidavits submitted in support of or against such challenge. If the ballot be not admitted, there shall be endorsed on the face of the carrier envelope and the jacket envelope the word "rejected." The carrier envelopes containing rejected ballots shall be enclosed, securely sealed, in an envelope on which the words "rejected absentee ballots" have been written, together with a statement of the nature and date of the election, signed by the presiding judge, and shall be returned and preserved in the same manner as provided for return and preservation of official ballots voted at the election. The corresponding jacket envelopes containing the applications and accompanying papers shall also be returned to the clerk, and preserved for the length of time provided by law for preservation of the voted ballots.

At such time as the presiding judge shall direct, the election officers whose duty it is to count the ballots shall open the absentee ballot box, remove the ballots from the sealed ballot envelopes, and proceed to count and make out returns of all ballots cast absentee, including the ballots voted by personal appearance, in the same way as is done at a regular polling place. The ballot envelopes for the ballots voted by mail may be discarded or destroyed.

The special canvassing board, watchers, and all others connected with the conduct of absentee voting shall be subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this Code¹ with respect to revealing information as to the results of the election.

The special canvassing board shall possess the same qualifications, be subject to the same laws and penalties, and be paid the same wage as regular election judges; provided, however, that each member may be paid an amount not to exceed ten dollars if the time spent by the board in performing its duties is less than ten hours. Watchers may be appointed as for regular polling places. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 100, ch. 49, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 7. Counting of ballots in elections less than county-wide. In all elections which are less than county-wide, the authority holding the election may provide, by proper resolution, that the absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, in which event the procedure set out in Subdivision 6 of this section shall be followed. If the authority holding the election does not so provide, the clerk shall keep the carrier envelopes received by him until the second day prior to the election and shall then mail or deliver them as provided in Subdivision 8 of this section, and the ballots shall be counted as provided in Subdivision 9. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 8. Delivery of ballots in elections less than county-wide. Upon the second day prior to the election, the clerk shall enclose each carrier envelope received by him before ten o'clock a. m. of that day, together with the voter's application and accompanying papers, in a larger jacket envelope, which shall be securely sealed and endorsed with the name and official title of such clerk, and the words "This envelope contains an absentee ballot and must be opened only at the polls on election day," and the clerk shall forthwith mail same, or deliver it in person, to the presiding judge of the election in the precinct of the voter's residence. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 14.

Subdivision 14. Branch offices for absentee voting by personal appearance. In any town, other than the county seat, which has a population of four thousand or more inhabitants, according to the last federal census, upon authorization of the commissioners court the county clerk may appoint a deputy clerk in such town for conducting absentee voting by personal appearance, and any voter eligible to vote absentee by personal appearance in the main office of the clerk may vote in the branch office. The deputy clerk shall transmit to the clerk at the close of each day of absentee voting the names of all persons who have voted absentee in the branch office on that day, together with other necessary information as provided in Subdivision 11, for inclusion on the list of absentee voters posted in the clerk's office. During the period for absentee voting by personal appearance the applications and ballots of persons who have voted absentee may be retained in the branch office or may be delivered to the main office from time to time, but all applications and ballots shall be delivered to the main office not later than one o'clock p. m. on the third day prior to election day. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the voting in the branch office shall be subject to the same regulations as the voting in the main office. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 15.

Subdivision 15. Assistance to voter; use of English language. If a voter is unable to sign his name because of illiteracy, any signature of the voter required by this section shall be made by the voter's affixing his mark, attested by two witnesses, but no voter shall be entitled to any assistance in the marking of his ballot on the ground of illiteracy.

No assistance shall be given a voter in marking his absentee ballot except where the voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity, such as renders him physically unable to write or to see. If the voter is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by the clerk, notary public, or other officer before whom the ballot is marked, or by some other person, acting as the witness to assist the voter in event of physical disability, but the person assisting the voter shall not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote, and shall confine his assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming the candidates and the political parties to which they belong, and he shall prepare the ballot as the voter himself shall direct. Where any assistance is rendered in marking an absentee ballot other than as allowed in this subdivision, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be void for all purposes.

In absentee voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the clerk in some other language, and if the clerk is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the county. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the clerk: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by the clerk and each question, answer, or statement addressed to the clerk by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by the clerk, any watcher present shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in some other language. Added Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 2 as amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 16.

Subdivision 16. Period for absentee voting in second primary. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this section, absentee voting in each second (runoff) primary election held under the provisions of Section 181 of this Code¹ shall begin on the tenth day preceding the date of the election. In all other respects the procedure for absentee voting in the second primary shall be the same as in other elections. Added Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 1055, ch. 483, § 2 as amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 17.

Subdivision 18. Electioneering near absentee voting place. During the hours that the clerk's office is open while absentee voting is in progress, the clerk shall prevent electioneering within the room or designated place where the absentee voting is being conducted and in any corridor of the same building, within thirty feet of the entrance to such room or place. During the period for absentee voting, he shall keep posted at the entrance to such room or place a sign on which shall be printed in large letters the words, "Place for Absentee Voting," and he shall keep posted in each corridor at a distance of thirty feet from the entrance a distance marker on which shall be printed in large letters the words, "Distance marker for absentee voting. No electioneering between this point and the entrance to the place for absentee voting." Any person who electioneers within the room or place for absentee voting or in any corridor within thirty feet of the entrance, during the period for absentee voting and while the clerk's

The "residence" of a single man is where he usually sleeps at night; that of a married man is where his wife resides, or if he be permanently separated from his wife, his residence is where he usually sleeps at night; provided, that the residence of one who is an inmate or officer of a public asylum or eleemosynary institute, or who is an officer or employee in one of the departments of the government of this state, or of the United States, or who is a student of a school, college, or university, shall be construed to be where his home was before he became such inmate, officer, employee or student, unless he has become a bona fide resident in the place where he is employed as such officer or employee or is such student or inmate. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 19.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 5.09. Liability to pay poll tax

There shall be levied and collected from every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years on the first day of January of each year and resident within this state on that date, an annual state poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents, one dollar of which shall be for the benefit of the free schools and fifty cents for general revenue purposes; provided, however, that the fifty-cent portion of the tax for general revenue purposes shall not be levied and collected from persons insane or blind, those who have lost a hand or foot, those permanently disabled, and disabled veterans of foreign wars where such disability is forty per cent or more, or from members of the active militia of this state who are exempt therefrom under the provisions of Articles 5840 and 5841 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. On poll tax receipts issued to persons exempt from the fifty-cent portion of the tax, the tax collector shall make the notation, "Partial exemption, _____," stating the ground therefor, and such person shall not be issued or be required to obtain any other evidence of the exemption. The tax shall be paid at any time between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of January following, both dates inclusive, and shall be paid in the county in which the taxpayer resides at the time of payment; and the person, when he pays it, shall be entitled to his poll tax receipt, even if his other taxes are unpaid. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 171, ch. 97, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 20.

Art. 5.10. Poll tax exemption

Every person who is a qualified voter otherwise and who is exempt from paying a poll tax shall be entitled to vote without being required to pay a poll tax if he has obtained his certificate of exemption from the county tax collector of the county in which he resided at the time of issuance of the certificate, when same is required by the provisions of this Code. If after issuance of the certificate the voter removes to some other county, he shall be entitled to vote, if otherwise qualified, upon compliance with Section 47 of this Code.¹

The date which determines a person's liability to, or exemption from, payment of the poll tax is the first day of January of the year for which the tax is levied. The tax payable during the period beginning on the first day of October in each year is the tax levied for that year, against persons who were residents of the state and were between twenty-one and sixty years of age on the first day of January of that year. If a resident became sixty years of age after that date, he is nevertheless liable for the tax and must pay it within the time prescribed in the preceding section in order to be qualified to vote at elections held during the year beginning on February 1 following the period for payment of the tax. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 23.

Art. 5.11. Mode of paying poll tax

The poll tax must be paid by the taxpayer in person or by a remittance of the amount of the tax through the United States mail to the county tax collector, accompanying the remittance with a statement in writing, signed by the taxpayer, showing all the information necessary to enable the tax collector to fill out the blank form of the poll tax receipt. When payment is made by mail, the tax collector shall mail the receipt to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's permanent address, or, if requested to do so by the taxpayer in writing, the tax collector shall mail the receipt to the taxpayer at such other address as the taxpayer directs, or shall hold the receipt to be delivered to the taxpayer in person. The husband or wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a taxpayer may pay the tax for the taxpayer in either of the modes herein authorized, and may sign for the taxpayer when payment is by mail, and may receive the poll tax receipt issued to the taxpayer. Except as herein permitted, it shall be unlawful for any person to pay the poll tax of another or to act as agent for another in the payment of the tax. It shall be unlawful for the tax collector

Art. 5.14. Form of poll tax receipt; alien poll tax receipts; correction of errors on poll tax receipts and exemption certificates

Each poll tax receipt and its duplicate shall show the name of the person to whom it was issued, the payment of the tax, the age, sex, race, and occupation of the taxpayer, the length of time the taxpayer has resided in the state, whether the taxpayer is a citizen of the United States and, if so, whether a native-born or a naturalized citizen, and the state or country where the taxpayer was born, the length of time the taxpayer has resided in the county, and if a resident of an incorporated city or town, the length of time the taxpayer has resided therein, the voting precinct in which the taxpayer lives, the taxpayer's post-office address, or if living in an incorporated city or town, the taxpayer's street address by name and number, if numbered, and the ward number in such city or town; and a blank space for political party affiliation of the taxpayer, to be completed as provided in Section 179a of this Code.¹ The poll tax receipts shall be numbered consecutively in each book provided for in this Code.

The poll tax receipt shall be in substantially the following form or in other suitable form reflecting all the information required by this section:

Poll Tax Receipt No. _____
State of Texas
County of _____

Received of _____ on the _____ day of _____ 19____, the sum of $_____ in payment of poll tax for the year 19____. The said taxpayer says that he (she) is _____ years old, that his (her) race is _____, that he (she) is a native-born (naturalized) citizen of the United States, and was born in _____ (name of state if native-born, and of country if foreign-born), that he (she) has resided in Texas _____ years and in _____ County _____ years, that he (she) is by occupation _____, that his (her) post-office address is _____, and (if residing in a city or town) his (her) street and number is _____, in Ward No. _____, that he (she) resides in Voting Precinct No. _____. Party affiliation: _____

All of which I certify:

(Signed) _____
Tax Collector, _____ County, Texas

(Seal)

If it appears from the information above required that the taxpayer is an alien, he shall be given a receipt from a book specially prepared for alien taxpayers, which book is provided for in Section 50 of this Code.² If, after issuance of an alien poll tax receipt upon timely payment of the tax, the taxpayer becomes a naturalized citizen of the United States before expiration of the voting year next following its issuance, upon presentation by the taxpayer of his certificate of naturalization or other satisfactory evidence of his naturalization to the tax collector, the tax collector shall issue to him a poll tax receipt in regular form, containing the same information which appears on the alien poll tax receipt issued to him, and the tax collector shall place on the substituted receipt the following notation: "Naturalized on _____ (date). Substitute for Alien Poll Tax Receipt No. _____, issued on _____ (date of issuing substitute)." The tax collector shall also make the following notation on the taxpayer's duplicate alien receipt on file in his office: "Naturalized on _____ (date). Regular Poll Tax Receipt No. _____ issued on _____ (date)." The tax collector shall place on the list of qualified voters or on the supplemental list, if the original list has already been prepared, the names of former alien taxpayers to whom substitute receipts have been issued. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be lawful for the tax collector to issue substitute receipts as herein authorized after January 31st, and the holder, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to vote thereon.

Where a taxpayer has paid the tax and supplied to the tax collector the necessary information for filling out the receipt before the first day of February, but the tax collector has failed to issue a receipt therefor prior to that date because of lack of time or for any other reason, the tax collector shall thereafter issue a receipt as of the date on which payment was received. Except as herein provided, all tax receipts issued for any year after January 31st shall be stamped on the face thereof: "Holder not entitled to vote," and the names of the holders of such poll tax receipts shall not be included in the list of qualified voters.

When after issuance of a poll tax receipt or an exemption certificate, it is discovered that an error has been made in filling out the blanks on the receipt or certificate through mistake of the tax collector or through innocent mistake of the holder in supplying the information, the holder may present the receipt or certificate to the tax collector for correction and the tax collector shall correct the information on the original receipt or certificate and on the duplicate on file in his office. If the error has been in the voting precinct of the holder's residence and the regular list of qualified voters has already been prepared, upon correction of the error the tax collector shall place the holder's name on the supplemental list of qualified voters for the precinct in which he resides. No person shall be entitled to vote in a voting precinct of which he is not a resident. If an error in the voting precinct has not been corrected on the receipt or certificate at the time the holder offers to vote at an election, he may vote in the precinct of his residence, if otherwise qualified, by making and leaving with the presiding judge of the election an affidavit that he is a bona fide resident of that precinct and qualified to vote at that election, and that the error on the receipt or certificate was not caused by an intentional misrepresentation on his part; provided, however, that if the election judge is not satisfied as to his right to vote, his vote shall not be accepted unless he also complies with the provisions of Section 91 of this Code.³

The tax collector shall not re-issue a poll tax receipt or an exemption certificate to replace a receipt or certificate that has been lost or misplaced, or for any other reason, and a voter whose receipt or certificate has been lost or misplaced, when offering to vote, shall be required to make an affidavit of such fact as provided elsewhere in this Code. Art. 5.15. Removal to another county or election precinct

If a citizen, after receiving his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption, removes to another county or to another election precinct in the same county, he may vote in the precinct of his new residence by presenting to the judge of election his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption or his affidavit of its loss, stating in such affidavit where he paid the tax or received the certificate, and by making oath that he is the identical person described in such poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption, and that he then resides in the precinct where he offers to vote and has resided for the last six months in the district or county in which he offers to vote and twelve months in the state. But no such person shall be permitted to vote in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or more unless he complies with the following procedure: not less than four days prior to any election at which he wishes to vote, he shall present his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption to the tax collector of the county of his residence, or shall make affidavit of its loss, stating in such affidavit where he paid the tax or received the certificate, and shall on oath state in which election precinct he then resides and that he has resided in the state for the last twelve months and in the district or county for the last six months. The tax collector shall thereupon add his name to the list of qualified voters of the precinct of his new residence, and unless such voter has complied with this procedure and his name appears on the certified list of voters of the precinct of his new residence, he shall not vote. If the voter has resided in a district for six months but less than six months in the county, the tax collector shall note on the list of qualified voters the date on which the voter moved into the county. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 27.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Repeal of this article by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 4 was conditioned upon adoption of amendment to Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 4, proposed by S.J.R. No. 1, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1797, voted on at election held on Nov. 9, 1963. The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 4 did not become effective or operative as a law.

Enactment of an article 5.15a by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 2 was conditioned upon the adoption of amendment to Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 4, proposed by S.J.R. No. 1, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1797, voted on at election held Nov. 9, 1963. The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore article 5.15a did not become effective or operative as a law.

Poll tax exemption, see art. 5.10.

Art. 5.16. Exemption certificates based on overage

As a condition to voting, any person who is exempt from the payment of a poll tax by reason of the fact that he was over sixty years of age on the first day of January preceding its levy, and who resides in a city of ten thousand or more inhabitants, must annually obtain from the tax collector of the county of his residence, between the first day of October and the 31st day of January, a certificate showing his exemption from the payment of the tax. If he is otherwise qualified to vote, such certificate shall entitle him to vote at elections held within one year after the 31st day of January following its issuance, and no such exempt person shall be permitted to vote unless he has obtained a certificate entitling him to vote during such year. If a person who is exempt on the ground of overage does not reside in a city of ten thousand or more inhabitants during the regular period for issuance of exemption certificates, but thereafter moves to such a city, he must obtain an exemption certificate not less than four days before any election at which he wishes to vote. Where a certificate is issued to a person who will not have fulfilled the residence requirements for voting in the county of issuance by the date on which the certificate would otherwise entitle him to vote, the tax collector shall place on the face of the certificate the notation, "Holder not entitled to vote before _____," inserting the date on which the applicant will have fulfilled the residence requirements, and shall also place the notation alongside the certificate holder's name on the list of qualified voters.

Such exempt person shall furnish to the tax collector the information necessary to fill out the blank form of the exemption certificate. The exemption certificate shall show the name of the person to whom it is issued, his age, sex, race, and occupation, whether a native-born or a naturalized citizen of the United States, the state or country where he was born, the length of time he has resided in this state, the length of time he has resided in the county, and if a resident of an incorporated city or town, the length of time he has resided in such city, the voting precinct in which he lives, his post-office address, and if living in an incorporated city or town, his street address by name and number, if numbered, and the ward number in such city or town, and the ground upon which he claims exemption from the payment of a poll tax; and a blank space for political party affiliation, to be completed as provided in Section 179a of this Code.¹

No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the issuance of certificates of exemption. Certificates for each county shall be numbered consecutively, beginning at Number One.

Exemption certificates shall be in substantially the following form or in other suitable form reflecting all the information required by this Code:

CERTIFICATE OF EXEMPTION FROM THE PAYMENT OF POLL TAX

Exemption Certificate No. _____

The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore article 5.21a did not become effective or operative as a law.

Art. 5.22. List of qualified voters

Before the first day of April of each year, the county tax collector shall prepare separate certified lists of citizens in each election precinct of the county who have paid their poll tax or received their certificates of exemption, the names being arranged in alphabetical order and to each name its appropriate number as shown by the duplicate retained in his office, with a description of the voter as to his residence, length of his residence in the state, county and city, his age, sex, race, occupation, and post-office address. The tax collector shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county during the voting year for which the lists are prepared, one set of such lists for all precincts in the county if any election held by such authority is county-wide, and one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the political subdivision in which the election is to be held if less than county-wide. The tax collector shall also furnish to each such authority, not less than four days prior to each election held by it, supplemental certified lists in the form herein prescribed of all voters who have removed to each precinct from another county or election precinct and have complied with the provisions for having their name placed on the list of qualified voters for such precinct, or who have received their exemption certificates since preparation of the original lists, and all other voters whose names should be placed on such supplemental lists for any other reason provided for in this Code. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies.

The tax collector shall furnish without charge to each clerk having the duty of conducting absentee voting in any election the appropriate lists for use in the conduct of absentee voting for the election.

At the time the tax collector makes up his list of voters as herein provided, he shall at the same time and in the same manner make up a separate list of alien poll tax payers and shall mark at the top of said list the words "Alien Poll Tax Payers," and such list shall be delivered at the same time and in the same manner and to the same officials as hereinabove provided for the lists of qualified voters in the county.

No charge shall be made for lists furnished for use in elections held at the expense of the county or any city or other political subdivision. For each set of original and supplemental lists which the tax collector is required to furnish to the executive committee of a political party for use in its primary elections, the tax collector shall be permitted to charge not more than five dollars, to be paid by the party or the chairman so ordering the lists, which charge shall be in full for both the original lists and the supplemental lists. The tax collector shall also furnish to the county executive committee of each political party, for any year in which such party is holding precinct conventions, one set of the original and supplemental lists for use in qualifying persons to participate in such conventions, for which the tax collector shall be permitted to charge not more than five dollars. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 29.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Enactment of an article 5.24a by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1103, ch. 430, § 3 was conditioned upon adoption of amendment to Const. art. 6, §§ 2, 4, proposed by S.J.R. No. 1, Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1797, voted on at election held Nov. 9, 1963. The proposed constitutional amendment was rejected by the voters and therefore article 5.24a did not become effective or operative as a law.

CHAPTER SIX—OFFICIAL BALLOT

Art.	Art.
6.01a Use of nicknames and titles [New].	6.05c Order of names of candidates [New].
6.05a Ballots for elections involving precinct offices [New].	6.05d Election for unexpired term [New].
6.05b Order of party columns on the ballot [New].	6.05e Correction of errors on ballot; use of pasters [New].

Art. 6.01a. Use of nicknames and titles

Subject to the prohibitions of this section, the name of each candidate on any general, special, or primary election ballot shall be printed on the ballot in the form designated by the candidate. In lieu of his full legal name, the candidate may use in combination with his surname any of his given names or initials or contraction of such names by which he is commonly known, and as a part of his name he may use a bona fide nickname of one unhyphenated word of not more than ten letters, by which he is commonly known and has been so known for at least two years preceding the election. No nickname shall be placed on the ballot unless it meets the foregoing requirements, and in no event shall there be placed on the ballot any nickname indicating any political, economic, social, or religious view or affiliation. The suffix "Sr.," "Jr.," "2nd," or a word or abbreviation of similar import may be used as part of the candidate's name.

A married woman or widow may use in combination with her surname the given name or initials of her husband or deceased husband with the prefix "Mrs." In the event two or more candidates for the same office have the same or similar surnames, each such candidate may have printed after his name a descriptive statement, not to exceed four words, which will distinguish him from the other. The descriptive words must refer to his place of residence or to his present or former profession, occupation or position (which may be by title or other method); and no other kind of descriptive matter shall be used. Except as herein permitted, no title or other designation of status, office, position, or attainment shall be affixed to any candidate's name. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 57a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 31.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.02. Loyalty affidavits

(a) No person shall be permitted to have his name appear upon the official ballot as a candidate or nominee for any public office, as hereinafter stated, at any general, special, or primary election in this state, unless and until he shall have filed a loyalty affidavit as required by this section. The provisions of this section shall apply to candidates for all elective state, district, county, and precinct offices, including the offices of United States Senator and United States Representative, and to all elective offices of cities, school districts, conservation districts, and other political subdivisions of the state, except candidates for President or Vice-President of the United States and presidential elector candidates.

(b) A candidate whose name is to appear on the ballot in any general primary (first primary) election shall file the affidavit with the chairman of the executive committee with whom the request to have his name placed on the ballot is filed, or if filed with more than one, with each chairman. The affidavit must be filed before the deadline for filing applications for that election. Before the name of a write-in candidate in a first primary election is ordered placed on the ballot for a second or runoff primary election or is certified to be placed on the ballot for a general or special election as the party nominee, he shall file the affidavit with the chairman of the state executive committee in the case of a district or state-wide office and with the chairman of the county executive committee in the case of a county or precinct office. A candidate nominated by a party convention or a party executive committee shall file the affidavit with the committee chairman who certifies his nomination, and the affidavit must be filed before his name is certified. An independent or nonpartisan candidate shall file the affidavit with the officer with whom his petition or application for a place on the ballot is filed, and the affidavit must be filed before the deadline for filing applications for a place on the ballot at that election.

(c) The affidavit shall be in the following form:

I _____, of the County of _____, State of Texas, being a candidate for the office of _____ do solemnly swear that I believe in and approve of our present representative form of government, and, if elected, I will support and defend our present representative form of government and will resist any effort or movement from any source which seeks to subvert or destroy the same or any part thereof, and I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and of the State of Texas.

(Signature of candidate)

Sworn to and subscribed before me at _____, this _____ day of _____, A.D. _____.

(Signature of officer administering oath)

(Title of officer administering oath)

(d) The name of no candidate or nominee of any political party whose principles include any thought or purpose of setting aside representative form of government and substituting therefor any other form of government shall be permitted on the official ballot. It is specifically provided that no candidate or nominee of the Communist Party or the Fascist Party or the Nazi Party shall ever be allowed a place on the official ballot at any election in this state.

(e) The certification of a candidate as the nominee of a political party shall be sufficient evidence of the filing of the affidavit with the proper party chairman to permit the officer to whom the certification is made to place the candidate's name on the general or special election ballot, and it shall not be necessary for the candidate to file an affidavit with any other officer in connection with his candidacy, nor shall it be necessary for the certificate to state that the affidavit has been filed.

(f) If any officer with whom the loyalty affidavit as prescribed herein is required to be filed, fails or refuses to require the affidavit before ordering or certifying the candidate's name for a place on the ballot, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 32.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.04. Death or declination; placing name of substitute nominee on ballot

If a nominee dies or declines his nomination, and the vacancy so created shall have been filled, and such facts shall have been duly certified in accordance with the provisions of this Code, the officer to whom certification of the substitute nomination is made shall promptly notify the official board created by this law to furnish election supplies that such vacancy has occurred and the name of the new nominee shall then be printed upon the official ballot, if the ballots are not already printed. If such declination or death occurs after the ballots are printed, or due notice of the name of the new nominee is received after such printing, the official board charged with the duty of furnishing election supplies shall prepare as many pasters bearing the name of the new nominee as there are official ballots, which shall be pasted over the name of the former nominee on the official ballot before the presiding judge of the precinct indorses his name on the ballot for identification, or before opening of the polls where the voting is by use of a voting machine. In place of the pasters the official board may have the ballots reprinted, blotting out the name and printing above it the name of the new nominee, thus:

A. T. Jones

~~John Doe.~~

As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 33.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. Correction of errors on ballot, see art. 6.05e.

Art. 6.05a. Ballots for elections involving precinct offices

For any election, general or primary, at which the office of county commissioner, justice of the peace, constable, or precinct chairman of a political party is to be voted on, different ballots shall be prepared for the various precincts involved in the election, to differ with respect to the precinct offices to be voted on. The election officers for each election precinct shall be furnished official ballots listing the precinct offices and candidates which are to be voted on by the voters in the particular election precinct, and no other precinct offices shall be listed thereon, so that no voter shall receive a ballot listing any precinct office on which he is not entitled to vote. In furnishing ballots to absentee voters, the county clerk shall furnish the voter with the ballot prepared for use in the election precinct in which he resides. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 61a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 34.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.05b. Order of party columns on the ballot

In any election held at the expense of the county, in which party columns appear on the official ballot, the columns shall be arranged in the following order, beginning on the left-hand side of the ballot: (1) columns of parties with state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election, arranged in the order of the number of votes cast for each party's candidate for Governor at the preceding general election, with the party whose candidate for Governor received the highest vote being placed in the first column; (2) columns of parties without state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election; (3) a column for independent candidates; (4) a column for write-in candidates. If there is no independent or non-partisan candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, the column for independent candidates shall be omitted.

Where voting machines are used in the election and the columns on the ballot are arranged horizontally, the columns shall appear on the ballot in the order herein provided, beginning at the top of the ballot instead of on the left-hand side. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 61b added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 35.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.05c. Order of names of candidates

In any general or special election in which the names of more than one candidate for the same office are to be printed on the ballot in an independent or nonpartisan column or are to be printed on the ballot without party designation, the order in which the names of such candidates are to be printed on the ballot shall be determined by a drawing, to be conducted by the county clerk in elections held at the expense of the county, by the city secretary in city elections, and by the officer with whom the applications for a place on the ballot were filed in elections held by other political subdivisions. The officer conducting the drawing shall post a notice in his office, at least three days prior to the date on which the drawing is to be held, of the time and place of the drawing, and shall also give personal notice to any candidate who makes written request for such notice and furnishes to the officer a self-addressed, stamped envelope; and each candidate involved in the drawing or a representative designated by him shall have a right to be present and observe the drawing. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 61c added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 36.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.05d. Election for unexpired term

Whenever, in any general election or in any primary election for making nominations for a general election, an election is to be held for an unexpired term in an office, the words "unexpired term" shall be printed after the office title on the official ballot. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 61d added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 37.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.05e. Correction of errors on ballot; use of pasters

If an error is made in printing the name of a candidate on the ballot, it may be corrected by use of a printed sticker or paster, which shall be printed on the same kind of paper and in the same style of type as used on the ballot. Any other error may be corrected in like manner if it can be done without disturbing the regularity of the ballot form. No sticker or paster shall be used on a ballot except as authorized in this section or in Section 60 of this Code, and if otherwise used the names pasted shall not be counted. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 6.05e, added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 38.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 6.06. How to mark ballot

In all elections, general, special, or primary, the voter shall mark out the names of all candidates he does not wish to vote for. When party columns appear on a ballot, a voter desiring to vote a straight ticket may do so by running a line with a pencil or pen through all other tickets on the official ballot, making a distinct marked line through all tickets not intended to be voted; and when he desires to vote a mixed ticket, he shall do so by running a line through the names of such candidates as he desires to vote against. If the name of the person for whom the voter wishes to vote is not printed on the ballot, the voter shall mark through the names which appear on the ballot in that race and shall write in the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote, in the write-in column under the appropriate office title in elections where party columns appear on the ballot, and in an appropriate space under the title of the office in other elections; provided, however, that a voter shall not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any runoff election for nominating candidates or electing officers, and a space for write-in votes shall not be provided on the ballot for such elections. A voter also shall not be entitled to vote for a candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any other type of election where the law expressly prohibits votes for write-in candidates.

Where propositions are to be voted on, the voter shall mark out the statement for the proposition or the statement against the proposition, so that the one remaining shall indicate the way he wishes to vote.

The failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions or failure to vote a full ballot shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted on all races and propositions wherein the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 802, ch. 338, § 2; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 39.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER SEVEN—ARRANGEMENT AND EXPENSES OF ELECTIONArt. 7.01. Voting booths

False statements to procure poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, see Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 200a.

Art. 7.06. Ballot boxes

All ballot boxes shall be securely made of metal or wood, provided with a top, hinges, lock and key, and an opening shall be made at the top of each just large enough to receive a ballot when polled. Whenever the ballots shall have been counted at any election, general, special or primary, the counted ballots shall be locked in one of the ballot boxes of suitable size and delivered to the proper official and the key or keys to the said lock shall be delivered to the proper official to be kept for at least thirty days unless sooner needed for recount or contest as provided by law. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 40.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 7.10. Collector's fee for poll taxes

The tax collector shall be paid fifteen cents for each poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption issued by him, to be paid pro-rata by the state and county in proportion to the amount of the poll tax received by the state and the amount of the fee received by the county for collecting the poll tax, and the amount paid to the tax collector shall include compensation for all duties performed by him under the provisions of this Code. Provided, however, that where county tax collectors are compensated on a salary basis the money paid by the state and county for receipts and certificates issued by him shall be deposited in the officers salary fund of the county. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 22.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. Levy and collection of poll tax, see V. A.T.S. Tax-Gen. art. 2.01.

Art. 7.14. Providing for voting machines

Sec. 2. Setting out requirements of voting machines. A voting machine approved by the Secretary of State must be so constructed as to provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be legally placed on an official ballot at any election in this state. It must also permit a voter in a general election to vote for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate¹ by any party but whose name is legally on the ballot as an independent candidate, and must permit voting in absolute secrecy. It also must be so constructed that a voter cannot vote for a candidate or on a proposition for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote. It also must be so constructed as to prevent voting for more than one person for the same office and at the same time preventing his voting for the same person twice. It must be provided with a lock or locks, by the use of which immediately after the polls are closed or the operation of such machine for such election or primary election is completed, any movement of the voting or registering mechanism is absolutely prevented. The machine shall be equipped with one or more protective counters. The machine may be equipped with a device which prints a copy or copies of the numbers registered on the counters, as registered before the polls open and after the polls close. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 41.

¹ So in enrolled bill.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 3. Adoption by commissioners court. The commissioners court of any county in the state may adopt for use in elections in at least three of the larger election precincts in voting strength in the county, any kind of voting machine approved by the Secretary of State, and may adopt such voting machine at any time for use in such additional election precincts in the county as it may deem advisable. The court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting voting machines, and may discontinue use of voting machines altogether, but use of voting machines shall be retained in at least three of the larger election precincts if retained for use in any part of the county.

Voting machines shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in all precincts in which they have been adopted by the commissioners court. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting in such precincts for the particular election shall be by use of voting machines or paper ballots, and may provide for use of either voting machines or paper ballots in any or all of the precincts for which voting machines have been adopted. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities or other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the political party in primary elections. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 41.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 5. Providing voting machines. The commissioners court of a county which had adopted voting machines for that county or any portion thereof, shall as soon as practicable, and in no case later than six months after adoption thereof, provide for each election precinct designated one or more approved voting machines in completed working order, and shall thereafter preserve and keep them in repair. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 42.

Effective 90 days after date of adjournment.

Sec. 7. Absentee voting. In any election in which voting machines are to be used in all or part of the election precincts, the authority charged with holding the election shall within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not voting machines shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance at such election. If it be determined by such authority that voting machines shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, a voting machine or machines shall be placed in the office of the clerk who is to conduct the absentee voting for the election, as provided in Section 37 of this Code,¹ with the ballot of the election thereon as regulated by law, and those entitled under the law to vote absentee by personal appearance at the clerk's office shall cast their votes on such machine or machines as the case may be, under the laws applicable to absentee voting, and the clerk shall enter on a poll list the name of each such voter at the time he votes. The clerk shall seal the machine or machines at the close of each day's voting in the presence of authorized watchers, if any, and such seal shall be broken by the clerk in the presence of such authorized watchers, if any, the following morning when voting begins. When absentee voting by personal appearance is legally concluded at the election, the clerk shall lock and seal such machine or machines in the manner prescribed for election precincts, to be kept intact until the day of the election. Before seven o'clock p. m. on the day of the election, the machine or machines shall be opened and the vote canvassed, in the manner provided for regular polling places, by the clerk who conducted the absentee voting and two other officers as follows: if an election held by the county, by the county judge and the sheriff; if a city election, by the mayor and one other member of the city governing body, to be designated by the governing body; if an election held by some other political subdivision, by the presiding officer and one other member of the governing body of the subdivision, to be designated by the governing body; and if a primary election, by the chairman and secretary of the executive committee of the political party holding the election; provided, however, that where the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted by a special canvassing board as hereinafter authorized, the special canvassing board shall canvass the absentee votes cast on voting machines. After the canvass has been made, the machine or machines shall be locked and sealed and shall remain locked against voting for the same period as required for other machines used in the election. The results of such canvass shall be returned by sealing and delivering, same to the proper authority as provided by law and such results shall be tabulated and canvassed in the same manner and together with the tabulation and canvassing of the returns for other election precincts. The results of such absentee votes shall not be announced or made public until after seven o'clock p. m. of the day of the election, when such results shall be announced and made public together with the general results of the election by proclamation of same as provided by law.

In all elections, absentee voting by mail shall be conducted by use of paper ballots, and the authority holding the election shall provide official paper ballots for the casting of absentee ballots by mail as prescribed and provided by the general laws applicable to absentee voting. Should the authority determine by such resolution as above provided that paper ballots are to be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, a sufficient supply of paper ballots shall be provided for absentee voting by personal appearance as well as by mail. The absentee voting by use of paper ballots shall be conducted as prescribed by the general laws applicable to absentee voting, except as otherwise provided herein. If the authority holding the election determines that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as hereinafter authorized, the ballots shall be counted and returns made in the manner prescribed. If the ballots are not to be counted by a special canvassing board, they shall be sent to the precinct polling places for counting. On the second day prior to the election, the clerk shall mail or deliver to the presiding judge in the precinct of the voter's residence each absentee ballot which has been lawfully returned to him, in the manner provided in Subdivision 8 of Section 37 of this Code.² In county-wide elections, the authority holding the election shall be responsible for delivering to the precinct polling places the absentee ballots voted by mail which are received by the clerk between the second day prior to the election and one o'clock p. m. on election day. On election day, the precinct election officers shall test and qualify the absentee ballots in the manner provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this Code,³ and the name of each elector whose absentee ballot is accepted shall be entered on the regular poll list with the words "absentee voter" set down opposite the voter's name.

In election precincts where paper ballots are used, the ballot stubs for the accepted ballots shall be placed in the regular stub box prepared for the precinct, and the ballot envelopes shall be placed in a box for absentee ballots. Between the hours of 2:00 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. on the day of the election, the ballot envelopes shall be opened and the ballots shall be counted and tallied in the same manner as other ballots cast at the election and shall then be placed in ballot box No. 3 for counted ballots.

In election precincts where voting machines are used, the stubs shall be placed in a stub box prepared for absentee ballots for that precinct, and the ballot envelopes shall be placed in a box for absentee ballots. Between the hours of 2:00 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. on the day of the election, the ballot envelopes shall be opened and, under the supervision of the presiding officer and in the presence of two clerks and of the watchers, if any, the ballots shall be registered on the voting machine the same as if the absent voter had been present and voted in person, and the voted paper ballots shall then be placed in a ballot box which shall be locked and returned to the officer having custody of the voted ballots for that election.

All rejected absentee ballots and the applications and accompanying papers on all absentee ballots shall be handled and returned in the manner provided by general law for absentee voting. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 43.

Sec. 7a. Special canvassing board. In all elections in which voting machines are used for voting at regular polling places, both county-wide and less than county-wide, the authority charged with holding the election may in its discretion determine by proper resolution to have absentee paper ballots counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this Code.¹ The special canvassing board shall count the absentee paper ballots and make return thereof in the same way as prescribed for county-wide elections in Sections 37 and 38 of this Code, and all laws applicable to absentee voting in county-wide elections, including the period for absentee voting by mail, shall apply. The board shall be appointed and compensated as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37. If absentee voting by personal appearance has been conducted by use of voting machines, the special canvassing board shall also canvass and record the votes cast on the voting machine or machines and make return thereof. Added Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 798, ch. 333, § 1 as amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 44.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 8. Form of ballots on voting machines. All ballots shall be printed in black ink on white clear material, of such size as will fit in the ballot frame, and in as plain, clear type as the space will reasonably permit. In all elections, general, special, or primary, a designating letter and number may be affixed to the name of each candidate. In general elections, the party name may be affixed to the name of each candidate, and the names of all candidates of one political party shall be so arranged that a voter may be able to cast his ballot for such candidates as he may desire or to cast one ballot for all the candidates of that political party. In primary elections, however, the ballot shall be so arranged and the lever so locked as to prevent the voting of straight tickets. Should there be so many candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election as to exceed the capacity of one machine, more than one machine shall be provided for each polling place, but in all cases where more than one machine is necessary to list the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on one machine. In lieu of using an additional machine for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be placed in a separate column headed "Uncontested Races," with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one at which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word "Independent" if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate's name; and all such uncontested races shall be voted on as a block, and the requirement of this section that the ballot in general elections be so arranged that the voter may be able to vote a straight ticket for all candidates of one political party shall not apply to candidates appearing in the uncontested column.

If the authorities charged with holding the election determine, in their discretion, that more than one voting machine is necessary to accommodate the number of voters voting in an election precinct, then as many voting machines shall be used for each precinct as such authorities deem necessary, and the same form of ballot containing the names of all candidates and/or propositions arranged in the same manner shall be provided for each machine. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 45.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 8a. Color of Ink for Ballots on Voting Machines in Large Counties. In counties having a population in excess of one million (1,000,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, the ballots may be printed in one or more colors of ink; however, the names of all the candidates for any one office shall be printed in the same color. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1371, ch. 523, § 8a.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 10. Preparation of voting machines. It shall be the duty of the appropriate officer of the authority holding the election (the county clerk in elections held at the expense of the county, the city secretary in city elections, the presiding officer of the governing body of the political subdivision in elections held by other political subdivisions, and the chairman of the county executive committee in primary elections) to cause the proper ballot labels to be placed on voting machines, to cause the machines to be placed in proper order for voting, and to examine all voting machines in the presence of authorized watchers for any interested persons, before they are sent out to the polling places, to see that all the registering counters are set at zero (000), to lock, in the presence of authorized watchers, all voting machines so that the counting machinery cannot be operated and to seal each one with a numbered seal. A list of the numbered seals and the number on the protective counters, together with the number of the precinct to which each machine was sent, shall be kept as a record open to any citizen, in the records of the officer making the examination, for the length of time required by law for preservation of the returns of the election. Such inspection and sealing of voting machines shall begin within five days before the day of the election at which such machines are to be used, and shall continue until all such machines are sealed. When all machines are locked and sealed, the key to each machine shall be placed in an envelope and sealed, the signature of the inspecting officer and the signatures of two watchers of opposed interest, if there be such, placed across the seal, and on the envelope shall be written the number then on the protective counter and the number of the seal of the voting machine, such envelope to be delivered to the presiding judge of each precinct.

It shall be the duty of the sheriff in an election held at the expense of the county, the duty of the mayor in a city election, the duty of the presiding officer of the governing body of the political subdivision in an election held by any other political subdivision, and the duty of the county chairman in a primary election, to have a voting machine or machines delivered to each of the polling places where voting machines are to be used, at least one hour before the time set for the opening of the polls in such voting precinct. After the machine has been delivered, the same authority shall cause the machine to be set up in the proper manner and shall cause protection to be given so that the machine shall be free from molestation and injury. The same authority shall cause to be delivered with each machine an auxiliary light where necessary, properly prepared to be lighted in emergency, so arranged that the light will illuminate the face of the machine sufficiently that a voter may be able to read all the names on the machine, and suitable for officers in examining counters. The protective hood and screen of the machine shall be examined to see that they properly conceal all the actions of the voter while the voter is operating the machine. All poll lists and necessary supplies shall be delivered to the presiding judge at the same time the key or keys to the machine are delivered. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 46.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 12. Preliminaries of opening the polls. The key or keys to the voting machine or machines shall be delivered to the presiding judge of each precinct at least thirty minutes before time for the opening of the polls, the seal of the envelope containing the same to be unbroken, and the seal shall be broken by the presiding judge only in the presence of at least two authorized watchers for opposing interest (if there be such), and shall only be broken after comparison shows that the number written on the envelope and the number shown on the protective counter are identical. If these numbers are found not to be the same, the seal shall not be broken until the officer who prepared the machine or his representative shall arrive and deliver the correct keys or until another and properly sealed machine is delivered. If the numbers written on the envelope and the numbers on the seal of the machine are not identical, then the envelope shall not be opened and the same procedure as above set out shall govern. But if the numbers written on the envelope and the respective numbers on the seal and on the protective counter are found to be the same, the presiding judge shall open the doors concealing the counters, and before the polls are declared open, the election officers and each authorized watcher for any person interested shall carefully examine each counter and see that it registers zero (000). All of those last enumerated then shall examine the ballots and satisfy themselves they are in their proper places on the machine. If the machine is equipped with a device which produces a printed record of the register shown on the counters, the presiding judge shall verify that the printed form is correctly made up and shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine, and all the persons authorized to be in the polls shall satisfy themselves that the printed record is correct. The election officers shall cause to be conspicuously placed the sample ballots and model for the guidance of the voters. All the persons authorized to be in the polls shall satisfy themselves that the voting machine is properly placed, being at least three feet from any wall or partition or any other obstruction, and that the face of the machine is turned toward where the election officers and the public may obtain a clear and unobstructed view of the same at all times, except when the curtain on the machine is closed for the casting of the ballot. The election officers and at least two watchers of opposing interest (if there be such) shall then sign a certificate setting out that the keys were delivered intact, that the numbers on the protective counter and the seal correspond with those on the envelope, that all the counters were set at zero (000) and that the ballot labels were in their proper places. If any counter shall be found not to register zero (000), the presiding judge shall write out a statement to that effect and keep the same prominently posted throughout the day showing the number that counter was found to register, and in filling out the statement of canvass he shall subtract such number from the number found to register on that counter when the polls close. The machine shall then be opened for voting. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 47.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 13. Conduct of the voting. The presiding judge shall be in general charge of the poll and shall see that a clerk of the election properly checks off the name of each voter from the list of qualified voters and enters his name on the poll list before the voter casts his ballot, and stamps or writes "voted" with a rubber stamp or with pen and ink, together with the date of the particular election, on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate. It shall further be the duty of one of the clerks to see that the voting machine is not tampered with and to attend the machine at all times. He shall inspect the ballot labels after each voter leaves the machine to see that none has been tampered with and to see that the machine has not been injured. He shall see that the coverings of the counter compartments of the machine are never unlocked nor opened so the counters are exposed during voting except for good and sufficient reasons, a statement of which shall be made and signed by all election officers and watchers in the polling place and attached to the returns. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 48.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 17. Unofficial ballot; repair and substitution of machines. If the official ballots for any precinct where voting machines are to be used are not delivered at the time required, or if after delivery they are lost, destroyed or stolen, the authority charged with the duty of furnishing the ballots for the election or the presiding judge of that precinct shall cause other ballots to be prepared, printed or written, as nearly in the form of the official ballots as practicable, and shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used in the same manner, as near as may be, as the official ballots. Such ballots shall be known as unofficial ballots, and a certificate setting out the circumstances of the use shall be made out by the presiding judge and signed by such officer together with every person legally serving in such poll, such certificate to be attached to the canvass from the precinct. Should any voting machine become out of order while being used, it shall, if possible, be repaired or another machine substituted in its place as promptly as possible, and the Commissioners Court of any county in which voting machines have been adopted either in whole or in part, for use in elections, is authorized and empowered to appropriate funds for servicing, repairing or substituting any such voting machines, on a per diem or on such other basis as to said court may appear just and proper. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 49.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 18. Making out the returns and proclamation of the result. Prior to the day of the election, the authority charged with furnishing the supplies for the election shall cause to be prepared the necessary blanks for the statement of canvass mentioned herein, which shall be delivered to the presiding judge with other supplies for the election. The statement of canvass shall be of a form to be approved by the Secretary of State and shall conform with the type of voting machine to be used, and the designating number and letter of each candidate or proposition shall be printed next to the candidate's name or the proposition on the statement of canvass.

As soon as the polls are closed, the election officers shall immediately lock the machine against voting. They then shall sign a certificate stating that the machine was locked and sealed, giving the exact time, and giving the number of voters shown on the public counters, which shall be the total number of votes cast on such machine in that precinct, the number on the seal, and the number registered on the protective counter. (This also shall be the procedure at the close of absentee voting when the machines are used for absentee voting prior to election day.) They then shall open the counting compartment in the presence of the watchers, giving full view of all the counter numbers. The presiding judge shall, under the scrutiny of the watchers, in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machines read and announce in distinct tones the designating number and letter on each counter for each candidate's name, and the result as shown by the counter numbers, and shall then read the votes recorded for each office on the irregular ballots. He shall also in the same manner announce the result on each proposition voted on. The vote as registered shall be entered on the statements of canvass in ink by two clerks and verified by the three election officers and by two watchers of opposing interest (if there be such), the entries to be made in the same order on the space which has the same designating number and letter, after which the figures shall again be verified by being called off in the same manner from the counters of the machines by watchers of opposed interest (if there be such). The returns of the canvass as required by law shall then be filled out and verified, and shall show the number of votes cast for each candidate and the number of votes cast for and against any proposition submitted, and shall be signed by the three election officers and at least two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be). The counter compartments of the voting machine shall remain open throughout the time of the making of all statements and certificates and the official returns and until they have been fully verified, and during such time any candidate or his representative or any representative of any newspaper or press association shall be admitted. The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be deliberately announced in a distinct voice by the presiding judge, who shall read the names of each candidate, with the designating number and letter of his counter, and the vote registered on such counter, and also the vote cast for or against any proposition submitted. During such proclamation ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully entitled to be in the polling place to compare the results announced with the counter dials of the machine, and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made, after which the doors of the voting machine shall be locked and sealed with the seal provided, so sealing the operating lever of the machine that operation of the voting and counting mechanism will be prevented.

If the machine is provided with a device which produces a printed record of the numbers registered on the counters, the procedure outlined herein shall be followed in lieu of the procedure set out above for preparation of the statements of canvass. After preparation of the certificate giving the number of voters shown on the public counters and the other information as provided for in the preceding paragraph, the presiding judge, in the presence of at least two clerks and two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) and of any other person lawfully present who wishes to observe, shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine. The election officers shall then open the counter compartments and shall compare the printed record with the counters, verifying that the printed record correctly shows the designating number and letter on each counter and the result as shown by the counter numbers. Ample opportunity shall be given to all persons lawfully entitled to be present at the polling place to examine the printed record and compare it with the machine. The printed record shall then be signed by the presiding judge and two clerks and by two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be), certifying that the printed record was obtained from the machine designated thereon and that the printed record was compared with the machine and correctly records the results as shown on the counter dials, and the certified printed record shall constitute the official statement of canvass for that machine. The returns of the canvass shall then be filled out, verified, and signed as provided in the preceding paragraph.

After the making out of the returns has been completed, the presiding judge shall immediately deliver the statement of canvass and the returns to the proper authorities as provided by law. Irregular ballots, properly sealed and signed, shall be delivered to the officer designated by law as the custodian of voted paper ballots, and shall be preserved in the same manner and for the same length of time as provided by law for other ballots. The presiding judge shall deliver to the county clerk the keys of the voting machine enclosed in a sealed envelope, across the seal of which shall be written his own name together with that of at least two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) or of two other election officers, and on this envelope shall be recorded the date of the election, the number of the precinct, the number of the seal with which the machine was sealed, the number of the public counter and the number of the protective counter. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 50.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 19. Canvass of the returns; recheck and comparison. The returns shall be canvassed in the same manner as returns from precincts where paper ballots are used; provided, however, that at the time of the making of the official canvass, where voting machines are used in an election, at the written request of any candidate whose name appears on the ballot or on the written petition of twenty-five voters of the county, city or other subdivision for which the election was held, the authority charged with the duty of canvassing the returns shall make, in the presence of a district judge and the county judge of the county in which the election was held, a recheck and comparison of the results shown on the official returns then in process of being canvassed, with the results appearing and registered on the counter dials of each voting machine used in the election for which a request for a recheck has been made. To enable the canvassing authority to make such recheck and comparison, it shall be authorized and empowered to break the seals on each such voting machine. At the conclusion of the recheck and comparison, the voting machine shall again be sealed up, the necessary corrections, if any, shall be made on the returns, and the result of the election shall be declared as shown by the recheck and comparison of the returns of election with counter dials of the voting machines. If voting machines were used which produced a printed record of the votes cast on such machine, candidates and voters shall have the right under the procedure heretofore detailed to have such printed record compared with the counters on the machine from which such printed record was obtained. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 51.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 20. Preservation of Ballots and Records of Voting Machines.

The voting machine shall remain locked against voting for a period of ten days from the day of the election, provided that where a second election occurs within such ten-day period, then the voting machine shall remain locked against voting until the returns of the election are officially canvassed or until the expiration of five days from the day of the election, whichever is the later to occur, and then shall have the seal broken only on the order of a district judge having jurisdiction in that county, such order to be entered on the minutes of the district court of that county, and if in the opinion of such district judge, contest is likely to develop, shall remain locked for such time as the district judge may direct; provided, however, such time shall not be for a period of time that will interfere with or prohibit the use of such machines in a subsequent election. On the order of any court of competent jurisdiction, the seal may be broken for the purpose of proper investigation, and when such investigation is completed, the machine shall again be sealed and across the envelope containing the keys shall be written the signature of the person or persons having broken same. As amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 88, ch. 51, § 3; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 52.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 22. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a). Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 24. Appointment and compensation of election officers; watchers. The appointment and compensation of the presiding judges and clerks for precincts where voting machines are used shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 15 and 22 of this Code,¹ and their service and duties shall be governed by the general provisions of this Code, except as otherwise provided herein.

The general provisions of this Code, as supplemented herein, shall govern the qualifications, appointment, and service of watchers for precincts where voting machines are used. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 53.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 25. Definitions. The list of candidates and offices and/or propositions to be voted on, used or to be used on the front of the voting machine, shall be deemed official ballots for the purpose of precincts using voting machines.

The word "ballot" as used herein means that portion of the cardboard or other material within the ballot frames containing the names of the candidates and the offices, or the statements of propositions to be voted on, except when referring to irregular or unofficial ballots and except where such word is used in connection with the casting of a vote by a voter, in which event the word "ballot" is defined as the casting of a secret vote.

The terms "protective numbering counter" and "protective counter" mean a separate counter built into the machine which cannot be reset and which records the total number of movements of the operating lever.

The terms "public numbering counter"¹ and "public counter" mean a device in full view of the election officers except while the voter is voting, which records the number of the voter's vote and is cumulative of the num-

CHAPTER EIGHT—CONDUCTING ELECTIONS AND RETURNS THEREOF

Art.
8.13a Use of English language; interpreter [New].

Art.
8.29a Returns of other elections [New].
8.29b Copies of returns, poll lists, and tally lists; distribution [New].

Art. 8.01. Officers of election sworn

Before opening the polls, the presiding judge of election and each of the other judges (if any) and clerks who are present at the opening of the polls shall repeat in an audible voice: "I solemnly swear that I will not in any manner request or seek to persuade or induce any voter to vote for or against any candidate or candidates, or for or against any proposition to be voted on; and that I will faithfully perform this day my duty as officer of the election, and guard as far as I am able, the purity of the ballot box, so help me God." Each clerk who commences his service at any time thereafter shall also repeat the oath before performing any of his duties as an election officer. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 55.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.02. Preliminary arrangements

The presiding judge, the assistant or associate judges, if any, the clerks who are assigned to duty at the opening of the polls, and watchers, if any, shall meet at the polling place at least half an hour before the time for opening the polls, and shall proceed to arrange the guard rail, the space within the guard rail, the voting booths, if any, and the furniture for the orderly and legal conduct of the election. The election officers shall then examine the ballot boxes and the blank official ballots to see that they are properly printed and numbered, removing any unnumbered or otherwise defectively printed ballots, and shall deposit such ballots as are found to be defective in printing in ballot box No. 4 for defective, mutilated, and unused ballots. They shall examine the sample ballots, instruction cards, distance markers, tally sheets, return sheets, certified list of voters, rubber stamps and all things required for the election. The package of official ballots shall remain in the custody of the presiding judge and shall not be opened until the morning of the election and at the polling place. The presiding judge shall cause to be placed, at the distance of one hundred feet from the entrance of the room at which the election is held, visible distance markers in each direction of approaches to the polls, on each of which shall be printed in large letters the words: "Distance marker. No electioneering or loitering between this point and the entrance to the polls." The election officers shall examine the ballot boxes and then relock them, after all present can see that they are empty. The ballot clerks with official ballots, the presiding officer of the election, the poll clerk, the election supplies and the certified lists of qualified voters for the precinct, and the watchers, if any, shall be as conveniently near each other as practicable within the polling place. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 56.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.09. Vote challenged

When a person offering to vote at any general, special, or primary election shall be objected to by an election judge or clerk, a poll watcher, or any other person, the presiding judge shall examine him upon oath touching the points of such objection, and if such person establishes his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, he shall be permitted to vote, and the word "sworn" shall be written upon the poll list opposite the name of the voter. If upon his own oath the person fails to establish his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, his vote shall not be accepted unless in addition to his own oath he submits proof by the oath of one well-known resident of the precinct that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such precinct. When such proof is submitted, his vote shall be accepted, and the word "challenged" and the name and address of the person testifying under oath as to the voter's qualifications shall be written on the poll list opposite the name of the voter. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 57.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.10. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a).

Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment

See, now, art. 8.09.

Art. 8.11. Delivery of ballot

After all defectively printed ballots have been removed, the presiding judge shall cause his signature to be placed on the back of each ballot to be used at the election. The ballots may be signed by the presiding judge in his own handwriting, or they may be stamped with a facsimile of his signature by the presiding judge or by another election officer under his direction. Where a stamp is used, the presiding judge shall take the necessary precaution to see that the stamp is properly safeguarded at all times so that no unauthorized use may be made of it.

After the signature of the presiding judge is placed on the back of the ballots, one of the election officers shall thoroughly disarrange and mix the ballots so that they no longer are in consecutive numbered sequence or in any sequence of arithmetic or geometric progression, and then place the ballots face down in a stack or stacks from which each voter shall be allowed to take his own ballot without the number being known to or written down in any manner by an election officer.

When the election judge is satisfied as to the right of the citizen to vote, a judge or clerk shall place a notation on the list of qualified voters showing that the particular person has voted, shall stamp in legible characters the poll tax receipt or the certificate of exemption with the words "Voted on — day of —, 19—," or write the same words in ink and then return the receipt or certificate to the voter and shall enter the voter's name on the poll list, and shall at the same time allow the voter to select his official ballot as above set out. The voter shall then immediately retire to a voting booth or a place prepared for voting by the election officers, and there prepare his ballot in the manner provided by law. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 58.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.13 Aid to voter

Not more than one person at the same time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment, voting booth or place prepared for a voter, nor shall any assistance be given a voter in preparing his ballot, except when a voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity, such as renders him physically unable to write or to see, in which case two officers of such election shall assist him, they having first sworn that they will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how such voter shall vote; that they will confine their assistance to answering his questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and that they will prepare his ballot as such voter himself shall direct. If the election is a general election, the election officers who assist such voters shall be of different political parties, if there be such officers present. One or more watchers may be present when the assistance herein permitted is being given, but each watcher must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law.

"Instead of being assisted by two election officers as hereinabove provided, a voter who is entitled to assistance may select any qualified voter residing in the precinct to assist him, and no other person shall be permitted to be present while the ballot is being prepared. Before assisting the voter, the person selected shall take the following oath, which shall be administered by one of the election officers: "I solemnly swear that I will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote; I will confine my assistance to answering his questions, to stating propositions to be voted on and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and I will prepare his ballot as the voter himself shall direct."

Where any assistance is rendered in preparing a ballot other than as herein allowed, the ballot shall not be counted, but shall be void for all purposes. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 338, ch. 153, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 59.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.13a. Use of English language; interpreter

No election judge or clerk shall use any language other than the English language in performing any duty as such judge or clerk of the election, except that it shall be permissible for him to use some other language when examining, aiding, or giving instructions to a voter who does not understand the English language. Any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the election officer in some other language, and if the election officer is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the precinct. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the presiding judge: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by any election officer and each question, answer, or statement addressed to any election officer by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by an election officer, any election officer or any watcher shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in another language. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 95a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 60.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.15. Stub Box

Subdivision 1. Preparation of stub box. In every general, special, or primary election, the authority charged with the duty of furnishing supplies for the election shall cause to be prepared for each polling place a stub box, as other boxes of the election, except that the opening thereof shall not exceed one-sixteenth of an inch in width and two and one-fourth inches in length. The stub box shall be submitted to the district clerk of the county, who shall seal it by placing a short ribbon through the hasp on the box and securing the ends of the ribbon with two gummed seals, which shall be sealed together by affixing thereto the seal of the court, so as to make it impossible to open the box without breaking the seal. The district clerk further shall prepare in triplicate a certificate showing the number of the box, the date of the election, and the nature of the election. He shall then place one copy of the certificate in the box before sealing it, shall attach one copy to the outside of the box, and shall retain one copy in his files. The stub box shall be delivered to the election judge at the same time the regular ballot boxes are distributed, and the election judge shall return the box to the district clerk at the time he delivers the regular ballot boxes to the designated place.

Subdivision 2. Custody of stub box. Upon the return of the stub box, the district clerk shall keep the box secure, as other papers of the district court, and shall allow no one to open the box except by order of the district court, upon the trial of an election contest involving the contents of the box or in connection with a criminal investigation. The box shall be treated as other papers of the district court with the exception that it shall not be opened except by order of the court, and the court further shall have the power to punish anyone found guilty of violating the provisions of this subdivision as contempt of court. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of the election within sixty days after the day of the election, the district clerk shall deliver the ballot box to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand the box. If no contest or criminal investigation arose out of the election within sixty days after the day of the election, the contents of the box shall be destroyed by fire under the direction of the district judge and in the presence of the county judge and district clerk; provided, that the district judge upon his own motion or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of the contents of the box for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court.

Subdivision 3. Depositing ballots. When a voter who is voting in person shall have prepared his ballot, he shall immediately detach therefrom the perforated stub and affix his signature to the back of the same and deposit it in the stub box before depositing his ballot and without disclosing to anyone the number of his stub. Should the voter be unable to sign his name, he shall place the stub face down so as not to expose the number of his stub and he shall sign the same with an 'X' with the election judge placing the voter's name in the election judge's own handwriting, and the voter shall then drop the stub in the stub box before the voter deposits his ballot. The voter shall then fold the ballot so as to conceal the printing thereon, and so as to expose the signature of the presiding judge on the back of the ballot, then deposit the ballot in the proper ballot box. If a voter signs the stub but fails to detach it before depositing the ballot in the ballot box, the counting officer shall detach the stub and deposit it in the stub box without examining the ballot, and the ballot shall be counted. If a ballot with an unsigned, undetached stub is deposited in the ballot box, the ballot with stub attached shall be placed in ballot No. 3 for voted ballots but shall not be counted. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 61.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. Voting by personal appearance in county-wide elections, see art. 5.05, subd. 3a.

Art. 8.18. Defective, mutilated, and unused ballots in box No. 4

In any general, special, or primary election, there shall be deposited in ballot box No. 4, in addition to ballots defectively printed, all defaced and mutilated ballots, and, when the polls are closed, all the ballots that have not been voted. The term "defaced and mutilated ballot" as used in this article means a ballot which has been returned by the voter as provided in Section 98 of this Code.¹ It does not include any ballot which a voter has deposited in the ballot box containing ballots to be counted, and the election officers shall place in ballot box No. 3 with other voted ballots any ballot which has been voted but which they refuse to count by reason of its being marked in an unintelligible manner or for any other reason. Ballot box No. 4 shall be locked and shall be delivered to the county judge or other officer receiving the returns for use in the official canvass, at the same time that the returns are delivered, with a statement which shall be placed therein, signed by the presiding judge, of the number of ballots received by him, the number of mutilated or defaced ballots that the box contains, and also the number of ballots not given to voters, as well as those defectively printed, so that, after adding such numbers, all ballots delivered to the election officers may be accounted for. When the returns of votes cast are canvassed by the Commissioners Court or other authority as provided for by law, such ballot box shall be opened, the ballots counted, and a record made of what they found the contents to be. The box shall then be relocked and delivered to the county clerk or other officer having custody of the voted ballots, and shall be preserved by him until expiration of the period for contesting the election. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 62.

¹ Article 8.16.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.19. Deposit and count

At the expiration of one hour after voting has begun, the receiving officers shall deliver ballot box No. 1 to the counting officers, who shall at once deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall again be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and, until the ballots in box No. 1 have been counted, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. Ballot box No. 1 shall, upon its receipt by the counting officers, be immediately opened and the ballots taken out by one of them, who shall read and distinctly announce while the ballot remains in his hand; the name of each candidate voted for thereon, which shall be noted on the tally sheet. The ballot shall then be placed in box No. 3, which shall remain locked and in view until the counting is finished, when the box shall be returned, locked and sealed, to the county clerk or other officer as provided by law. Ballot boxes No. 1 and No. 2 shall be used by the receiving officers and the counting officers alternately, as above provided, as often as the counting officers have counted and exhausted the ballots in either box. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 63.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.22. Death of candidate before election

If a nominee dies or declines the nomination before the election, and no one is nominated to take his place, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and return made thereof; and, if he shall have received a plurality of the votes cast for the office, the vacancy shall be filled as in case of a vacancy occurring after the election.

If a candidate in the first primary dies after the deadline for filing, his name shall be printed on the first primary ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and returned for him. If such a deceased candidate receives a majority of the votes, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this Code,¹ to be printed on the general election ballot. If such a deceased candidate is one of the two highest candidates in that race in the first primary and if no one has a majority vote, the two living candidates with the highest votes shall be certified to have their names printed on the second primary ballot. If a candidate whose name is to appear on the second primary ballot dies between the dates of the first and second primaries, his name shall be printed on the second primary ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and returned for him; and if such a deceased candidate receives a majority of the votes in the second primary, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify his name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this Code, to be printed on the general election ballot. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 64.

Declination or death of nominee, see art. 13.56.

Art. 8.23. Revealing information before polls are closed

It shall not be unlawful for any presiding judge of an election to reveal at any time the number of votes that have been cast up to that time, but it shall be unlawful for any judge, clerk, watcher, or any other person connected with the holding of an election, before the hour for closing the polls, to reveal any information as to the names of persons who have or have not voted at the election, or as to the votes that have been received for or against any proposition or candidate, or as to the candidate who is leading or trailing in the tabulation of the votes. Anyone who is convicted of violating this section shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 65.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Absentee voting, special canvassing board and watchers revealing information as to results of election, see art. 5.05, subd. 6.

Sec. 5. Repealed. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a).
Eff. 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

See, now, art. 7.14, § 7.

Art. 8.29. Returns of elections held by the county

When the ballots have all been counted, the presiding judge of the election in person shall make out returns of the same certified to be correct and signed by him officially, showing: (1) the total number of votes polled at such polling place, and (2) the total number of votes polled for each candidate and/or the number polled for or against any proposition voted on. One of the returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be sealed up in an envelope and delivered by the presiding judge to the county judge of the county for use in the official canvass of the result. Another of said returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be delivered to the county clerk of the county to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election. Another of said returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots; and the other of said returns, together with a poll list, shall be retained by the presiding judge of the election for sixty days from the day of the election. In case of vacancy in the office of county judge, or the absence, failure or inability of that officer to act, the election returns for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the county clerk of the county, who shall safely keep the same in his office, and he, or the county judge, shall deliver the same to the Commissioners Court on the day appointed by law to open and canvass the returns of the election. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 66.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1964, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.29a. Returns of other elections

When some other statute regulating the conduct of a specific type of election provides the procedure for making returns of the election, for canvass of the returns, or for custody and disposition of the voted ballots, those provisions shall govern such matters in the conduct of the election. In the absence of such other law, the provisions of this Code applicable to elections held by the county, as modified by this section, shall govern such matters for all elections held by cities, school districts, and other political subdivisions of this state, insofar as these provisions can be made applicable, and references in this Code to the county judge, commissioners court, and the county clerk shall be deemed to mean the appropriate officer or board, as herein provided, for the type of election involved.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns of all elections held at the expense of the county shall be canvassed by the Commissioners Court, and the copy of the precinct returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the county judge. The county clerk shall have custody of the voted ballots; the copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the county clerk; and the keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the sheriff.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns for all municipal elections shall be canvassed by the city governing body and the copy of the precinct returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the mayor. The city secretary or clerk shall have custody of the voted ballots; the copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the city secretary or clerk; and the keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the city marshal or chief police officer. If the city has no city marshal or chief police officer, or if such office is vacant, the keys shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which the city is located, and if located in more than one county, to the sheriff of the county in which the office of the mayor is maintained.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns of all elections held by school districts, conservation districts, and other political subdivisions shall be canvassed by the governing board of the subdivision holding the election, and the copy of the returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the governing board. The governing board shall make proper provision for custody, storage, and safekeeping of the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots, which shall be delivered to the presiding officer or to such other person as the governing board shall direct. The copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the governing board. The keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the constable of the justice precinct in which the office of the governing board of the subdivision is maintained. If the office of constable is vacant, the keys shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which the office of the governing board of the subdivision is maintained. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 111a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 67.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.29b. Copies of returns, poll lists, and tally lists; distribution

(a) In precincts using paper ballots. In all general, special, and primary elections, the number of copies of the returns, poll list, and tally list required for each precinct in which paper ballots are used shall be as follows: four copies of the returns, four copies of the poll list, and three copies of the tally list. These records shall be distributed as follows:

(1) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the authority which canvasses the returns (the county judge in elections held by the county; the mayor in city elections; the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions; and the chairman of the county executive committee in county primary elections) and shall be preserved by the canvassing authority for sixty days from the day of the election.

(2) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the proper officer (the county clerk in elections held by the county and in county primary elections; the city secretary or clerk in municipal elections; and the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions), to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election.

(3) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots.

(4) The presiding judge shall retain in his custody one copy of the returns and one copy of the poll list of the election, and shall keep the same for sixty days after the day of the election, subject to the inspection of anyone interested in such election.

(b) In precincts using voting machines. In all general, special, and primary elections, there shall be made out, for each precinct in which voting machines are used, three copies of the poll list and three copies of the returns. These records shall be distributed and preserved as provided in Paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of Subdivision (a) of this section, and shall be subject to the provisions of Subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Destruction of records. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of an election within sixty days after the day of the election any officer having custody of records of the election shall deliver such records to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand them. If no contest or criminal investigation arose within sixty days after the day of the election, the records referred to in Paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of Subdivision (a) of this section may be destroyed after the expiration of the sixty-day period; provided, however, that no record shall be destroyed until all laws providing for recordation of any information contained therein have been complied with; and provided further, that the district judge, upon his own motion, or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of any election record for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court. The records referred to in Paragraph (3) of Subdivision (a) of this section, which are placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots, shall be destroyed at the same time that the voted ballots are destroyed, as provided elsewhere in this Code. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 111b added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 68.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1962, date of adjournment. Returns and canvass, see art. 13.24.

Art. 8.30. Time for report by election judges

The presiding judges in the several precincts in this state, in general and special elections, shall deliver the written returns of the election to the county judge of their respective counties immediately after all votes have been counted and tabulated, and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls. Within forty-eight hours after the returns have been canvassed by the commissioners court, as provided by law, the county judges shall forward by mail to the Secretary of State complete returns of the general and special elections in their respective counties. If a county judge fails or neglects to make such report the county clerk is hereby authorized to forward by mail to the Secretary of State complete returns of the general and special elections in their respective counties and if both the county judge and the county clerk neglect or fail to make such report, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to request by mail, telephone or telegraph that the report be forwarded to him immediately. In case no report is had from such county within ten days from the day of the election, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to send a special messenger to such county to obtain from the proper officers a complete return of such election, and the expense of such messenger shall be paid from the general fund of such county. This section shall in no wise be construed as repealing Section 122 of this Code.¹ As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 69.

Art. 8.31. Return of election supplies

The presiding judge shall deliver the certified lists of qualified voters and all stationery, rubber stamps, blank forms, and other election supplies not used, to the county clerk at the same time that he delivers the returns of the election, and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls. He shall provide for the safe storage of the voting booths in some place and notify the county clerk. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 70.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 8.32. Ballots and copy of returns delivered to county clerk

Immediately after the counting of the ballots is completed, the presiding judge shall place all the ballots voted, together with one copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list, into a wooden or metallic box, and shall securely fasten the box with nails, screws, or locks, and he shall immediately, and in no case later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls, deliver the box to the county clerk of his county. He shall deliver the key or keys to the sheriff, who shall keep the same for thirty days. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to keep the box securely, and it shall be unlawful for the county clerk or anyone else to burn or otherwise destroy these ballots and records, or permit it to be done, except where provided for by the law; and anyone violating this provision of this section upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars. Also, the presiding judge shall deliver a copy of the returns, together with a copy of the poll list and tally list, to the county clerk at the same time that he delivers the ballot box, and the clerk shall immediately announce the returns of the election in the precinct reporting, and shall post the returns on a bulletin board within his office. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of the election within sixty days after the day of the election, the county clerk shall deliver the ballot box to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand such box. If no contest or criminal investigation arose out of the election within sixty days after the day of such election, the clerk shall destroy the contents of the ballot box by burning same; provided, that the district judge, upon his own motion or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of the contents of the ballot box for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court. CHAPTER NINE—CONTESTING ELECTIONS

Altering or destroying ballots, see Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 244.

Art. 9.29. For Presidential electors

Any person intending to contest the election of any or all of the persons duly declared elected as electors of president and vice-president, shall within ten (10) days from the said fourth Monday in November, file with the Secretary of State a written statement of the ground on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest, and shall within such time, notify the contestee thereof in writing, and deliver to him, his agent or attorney, a copy of said statement. The contestee shall, within eight (8) days after receiving such notice, file with the Secretary of State his reply thereto in writing. The contest shall, as soon thereafter as possible, be tried and determined by the State Board of Canvassers, consisting of the Governor, one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, and Secretary of State, or any two (2) of them; and their decision shall be rendered at least two (2) days before the time fixed by law for the meetings of the electors. Such decision, in which two (2) at least of such Board shall join, shall be final, and certificates of election, in accordance therewith shall at once be issued by the Secretary of State to the proper parties. Where not otherwise herein provided, the provisions of law relating to contests for the validity of an election for members of the Legislature shall apply to such contests for presidential electors. CHAPTER ELEVEN—PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Art.

11.01a. Parties entitled to nominate presidential elector candidates [New].

Art. 11.01a. Parties entitled to nominate presidential elector candidates

Any political party may nominate candidates for presidential electors and have the names of its candidates for President and Vice-President printed on the ballot if the party shall have qualified in the manner hereinafter set forth:

(1) Such party must hold a state convention at the time and under conditions prescribed by Section 235 of this Code,¹ composed of delegates from county conventions held in accordance with law.

(2) It shall not be necessary that county conventions whose delegates comprise the state convention be held in all counties of the state, but such conventions must be held in not less than twenty counties comprising in the aggregate not less than twenty per cent of the population of the state.

(3) The chairman of the state executive committee of the party shall certify under oath to the Secretary of State that the conditions of this section have been complied with. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 170a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 75.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 11.02. Effect of votes for candidates of political parties

A vote for the candidates of any political party for both President and Vice-President of the United States shall be conclusively deemed to be a vote for candidates for the same party for presidential electors, and shall be so counted and recorded for such electors as the state shall be empowered to elect. No vote shall be counted unless the voter has cast his vote for both the candidate for President and the candidate for Vice-President of the same political party. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 76.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 11.04. Certification of candidates

The names of the candidates for President and Vice-President and for presidential electors, respectively, of a political party as defined in the law shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the chairman and secretary of the state committee of the party at least thirty-five days prior to the election. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 77.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER TWELVE—UNITED STATES SENATORS

Art. 12.02. Vacancy in office of United States Senator or Congressman-at-Large

3. If a vacancy occurs in the office of a United States Senator or a Congressman-at-Large during the year in which a general election is held in this state and prior to the tenth day of March of said year, the Governor shall, within five days after the vacancy occurs, issue writs of election directing that the nomination and election of a United States Senator or of a Congressman-at-Large to fill such vacancy shall be accomplished in the manner provided by law for the nomination and election of the Governor; provided that when a vacancy in either or both of said offices is to be filled in this manner, a candidate for nomination by any political party holding a primary election in that year shall have until the first day of April of the election year to make application to have his name placed on the official ballot to be used in the primary election held by said political party for choosing its nominee for said office to run in the general election. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 78.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

4. If such vacancy occurs in either or both of the aforesaid offices during a year in which no general election is to be held or after the ninth day of March of a general election year, the vacancy shall be filled at a special election or special elections, the first of which shall be called by writ of election, issued by the Governor within five days after the vacancy occurs, directing that a special election be held throughout the state on a specified day, which shall be not less than sixty days nor more than ninety days after the date of the writ, for the purpose of electing a United States Senator or a Congressman-at-Large to fill the existing vacancy and to serve for the unexpired term of the then vacant office. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 78.

Art. 13.07a. Deposit to accompany application for place on ballot

Every candidate subject to assessment by the county executive committee under Section 186 or Section 186a of this Code¹ for a portion of the expenses of holding the primary elections, except candidates for the Legislature and for the State Board of Education, shall pay to the county chairman, at the time of filing his application for a place on the ballot, a deposit of fifty dollars. In case of district offices in districts of more than one county, the candidate shall pay a deposit of fifty dollars to each county chairman with whom his application is filed. A candidate for the Legislature shall pay to the county chairman, at the time of filing his application, a deposit in the amount of the maximum amount which he may be assessed in that county, or the amount of the filing fee in that county in cases where a fixed fee is prescribed. A candidate for the State Board of Education shall pay to each county chairman, at the time of filing his application, the quotient obtained upon dividing fifty dollars by the number of counties in the district in which he is a candidate.

After the county executive committee makes the assessments, it shall refund to each candidate within thirty days thereafter the amount of the payment in excess of the assessment against the candidate, if the deposit exceeds the assessment. If the deposit does not exceed the assessment, the balance due on the assessment shall be paid as provided in Section 186.

The deposit herein required shall become a part of the primary fund and shall not be refundable for any reason, except to the extent that it exceeds the assessment against the candidate or represents a surplus in the primary fund after all expenses of the primary elections have been paid. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 185a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 80.

Art. 13.08. Expenses of primary

Prior to the assessment of the candidates, the county committee shall carefully estimate the cost of printing the official ballots, renting polling places where same may be found necessary, providing and distributing all necessary poll books, blank stationery and voting booths required, compensation of election officers and clerks, and all other necessary expenses of holding the general primary and second primary in such county and on the second Monday in February preceding each primary, shall apportion such cost in such manner as in their judgment is just and equitable among the various candidates for nomination for district, county, and precinct offices only as herein defined, except the offices of Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals and member of the State Board of Education. Where a district office, except for members of the Legislature, members of the State Board of Education, and Justices of the Court of Civil Appeals, covers more than one county, the assessment of such candidate by the county shall be not more than a sum which is the quotient of the amount which he would be assessed if he represented only one county determined by the formula used to assess county candidates, when divided by the number of counties in his district. In making the assessment upon any candidate the committee shall give due consideration to the importance, emolument, and term of office for which the nomination is to be made. The committee shall by resolution direct the chairman to mail immediately to each person against whom an assessment is made a statement of the amount of such expenses apportioned to him, with the request that he pay to the county chairman, on or before the Saturday before the third Monday in February thereafter, the difference between the amount of the assessment and the amount of the deposit which accompanied his application; and no person's name shall be placed on the ballot unless he pays the assessment within the prescribed time. A candidate filing subsequently shall not be required to accompany his application with the deposit provided for in Section 185a of this Code,¹ but shall pay the full amount assessed against him by the county executive committee within one week from the date on which his application is filed; provided, however, that where a fixed filing fee is required for any office included in this section, the amount of the fee must accompany the application. It shall be sufficient to meet the requirements of this law to mail by registered or certified letter to the chairman before the deadline herein provided, as shown by the postmark on the letter, a money order, a certified check, or a good personal check; but it shall not be sufficient to make the payment by any other type of mail unless it is delivered before the deadline.

A candidate for the State Board of Education shall pay a filing fee of fifty dollars, which shall be prorated equally among the counties comprising the district in which he is a candidate, and the prorated amount shall be paid to each county chairman at the time the candidate files his application for a place on the ballot. As amended Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1131, ch. 424, § 1; Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1295, ch. 513, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 2; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 81.

Art. 13.08a. Assessment of candidates in counties having certain populations

Candidates for any precinct, county or district office in counties which have a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, except candidates for the State Legislature and the State Board of Education, shall not be assessed a sum in excess of ten per cent of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of two-year terms, and fifteen per cent of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of four-year terms, to have their names placed on the ballot in any primary election. Candidates for the State Board of Education shall pay the filing fee prescribed by Section 186 of this Code.¹

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election. A candidate for nomination for State Senator shall pay the full amount of one thousand dollars as filing fee for office of State Senator to have his name placed upon the ballot in a primary election at the time he files his application for a place on the ballot. The payment must accompany the application and must be in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check or certified check. The application and payment must be delivered to the proper party chairman or secretary by the deadline for making application for a place on the ballot, and it shall not be sufficient for the application and payment to have been mailed before the deadline unless they are actually delivered by the deadline. After the county executive committee makes the assessments as provided in Section 186 of this Code, it shall refund to each candidate within thirty days thereafter the amount of the payment in excess of the assessment against the candidate.

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of six hundred thousand to one million, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator or State Representative to pay the amount of three hundred dollars to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election.

"In any state representative district consisting of eight and not more than nine counties, the chairmen of the county executive committees shall require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount of twenty-five dollars for each of the counties in said representative district, to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election. Art. 13.08a. Assessment of candidates in counties having certain populations

Candidates for any precinct, county or district office and the office of Congress in counties which have a population of one million (1,000,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, except candidates for the State Legislature and State Board of Education, shall not be assessed a sum in excess of ten per cent (10%) of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of two-year terms, and fifteen per cent (15%) of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of four-year terms, to have their names placed on the ballot in any primary election. Candidates for the State Board of Education shall not be assessed a sum in excess of the amount stated in Section 186 of this Code.¹

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of one million (1,000,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election. A candidate for nomination for State Senator shall pay the full amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) as filing fee for office of State Senator to have his name placed upon the ballot in a primary election at the time he files his application for a place on the ballot. The payment must accompany the application and must be in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check or certified check. The application and payment must be delivered to the proper party chairman or secretary by the deadline for making application for a place on the ballot, and it shall not be sufficient for the application and payment to have been mailed before the deadline unless they are actually delivered by the deadline. After the county executive committee makes the assessments as provided in Section 186 of this Code, it shall refund to each candidate within thirty (30) days thereafter the amount of the payment in excess of the assessment against the candidate.

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee, in any county which has a population of nine hundred thousand (900,000) to one million (1,000,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator or State Representative to pay the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election.

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of six hundred and fifty thousand (650,000) to nine hundred thousand (900,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator or State Representative to pay the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election; and such payment must accompany the application and must be in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check or certified check which shall in no event be refunded except in case of the death of the applicant before the primary election.

In any State Representative District consisting of eight (8) and not more than nine (9) counties, the chairmen of the county executive committees shall require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each of the counties in said Representative District, to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election. Art. 13.08b. Refund upon death or withdrawal of candidate

The state executive committee shall not refund any filing fee paid to it. If a candidate who is subject to assessment by the county executive committee dies or withdraws before the first primary, the county executive committee within its discretion may refund the amount of the assessment paid by the candidate, or any part thereof, which is in excess of the deposit which accompanied the candidate's application. Fixed filing fees paid to the county executive committee shall not be refunded, and the deposits of candidates shall be refunded only as provided in Section 185a of this Code.¹ If a candidate subject to assessment dies after the deadline for filing but before the assessments are made, no assessment shall be made against him and his name shall nevertheless be printed on the ballot as provided in Section 104 of this Code.² However, the committee shall determine the amount which would have been assessed against him, and if the amount of the deposit made by the candidate exceeds that amount, the committee shall refund the difference to his estate. If a candidate withdraws before the assessments are made, the committee shall determine the amount which would have been assessed against him if he had remained a candidate, and if the amount of the deposit made by the candidate exceeds that amount, the committee shall refund the difference to him. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 186b added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 83.

Art. 13.08c. Fees and assessments of writ-in candidates

If a write-in candidate in the first primary receives a majority of the votes in that primary or is one of the two highest candidates in a race in which no candidate received a majority of the votes, his name shall not be certified to be placed on the general election ballot as the party's nominee, or be placed on the second primary ballot, as the case may be, unless and until he pays to the chairman of the appropriate executive committee or committees the amount of the filing fee, if an office for which a fixed fee is prescribed, or the amount of the assessment against other candidates for the office, if an office subject to assessment by the county executive committee, or if no candidate's name was on the first primary ballot, the amount which would have been assessed under the formula used by the county executive committee for determining the amount of assessments. The fee or assessment shall be paid to the chairman or chairmen to whom it would have been paid if his name had appeared on the first primary ballot. If he is to be a candidate in the second primary, he must pay the fee or assessment within three days after the official canvass of the returns of the first primary by the committee which certifies his name for a place on the second primary ballot. If nominated in the first primary, he must pay the fee or assessment within ten days after the official canvass. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 186c added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 84.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.09. Balloting at primaries; when write-in votes not permitted

The vote at all primary elections shall be by official ballot, which shall have a detachable stub as described in Section 61 of this Code.¹ The name of the party shall be printed at the head of the ballot, and under such head shall be printed the names of all candidates, those for each nomination being arranged in the order determined by the county executive committee as herein provided for, beneath the title of the office for which the nomination is sought. On the general primary ballot, an appropriate space for a write-in candidate shall be provided under the title of each office. If for any office, other than the party office of county chairman or precinct chairman, there is no candidate whose name is to be printed on the general primary ballot, the title of the office shall not be printed on the ballot and no write-in vote for such office shall be counted. If no candidate's name is to be printed on the ballot for the office of county chairman or precinct chairman, the title of the office shall nevertheless be printed on the ballot and an appropriate space for a write-in candidate shall be provided under the title of the office. The ballot shall also contain the instruction note prescribed in Section 61 of this Code.

The official ballot shall be printed in black ink upon white paper. Alongside or beneath the name of each candidate for a state or district office there shall be printed the county of his residence. The ballot shall be printed by the county committee in each county, which shall furnish to the presiding judge of the general primary for each voting precinct at least as many of such official ballots plus ten per cent as there are poll taxes paid for such precinct, as shown by the tax collector's list.

Where two or more candidates are to be nominated for the same office, to be voted for by the qualified voters of the same district, county, or justice precinct, such candidates shall be voted for and nominations made separately, and all such nominations shall be separately designated on the official ballots by numbering the same "Place No. 1," "Place No. 2," etc. Each candidate for such nominations shall designate in the announcement of his candidacy, and in his request to have his name placed on the official ballot, the number of the nomination for which he desires to become a candidate, and the names of all candidates so requesting shall have their names printed beneath the title of the office and the number so designated. Each voter shall vote for only one candidate for each nomination. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 802, ch. 338, § 3; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 85.

Art. 13.11a. Ineligibility to become opposing candidate

Any person who has participated as a voter or as a candidate in either the first primary election or the runoff primary election of a political party shall be ineligible to have his name printed on the ballot at the succeeding general or special election as an independent candidate for any office for which a nomination was made by such party at either such primary election, and shall be ineligible to have his name printed on the ballot as the nominee of any other party for any office to be voted on at the general or special election. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 189a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 86.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.12. Application for place on ballot

The application to have the name of any person affiliating with any party placed on the official ballot for a general primary as a candidate for the nomination of such party for any office for which a nomination may be made at such primary shall be governed by the following:

1. Such application shall be in writing, indicating the office for which nomination is sought and whether for a full term or for an unexpired term, signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring such nomination, or by twenty-five qualified voters. It shall state the occupation, county of residence, and post-office address of such person, and if made by him shall also state his age. If the application is made by qualified voters, there shall be endorsed on the application or filed in a separate instrument, before the deadline for filing applications, a statement signed by the candidate showing his consent to such candidacy.

2. The application shall be filed with the state chairman in the case of state-wide offices, with the county chairman of each county composing the district in the case of district offices in districts consisting of more than one county, and with the county chairman of the particular county in the case of county and precinct offices and district offices in districts consisting of only one county or part of one county; provided, however, that applications of candidates for Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals shall be filed with the state chairman. The application shall be filed not later than the first Monday in February preceding such primary; provided, however, that in the event there is no candidate for the nomination of any office due to the death of the one who had filed, applications may be filed not later than the first Monday in March preceding the primary. An application shall be considered filed if sent to the proper chairman at his post-office address by registered or certified mail from any point in this state before the filing deadline, as shown by the postmark. Any application not received by the chairman before the deadline does not comply with this law unless it has been mailed by registered or certified mail as herein provided, and it shall not be sufficient to send the application by any other type of mail unless it is delivered before the deadline.

3. Within three days after the first Monday in February, the state chairman shall file with the Secretary of State, and each county chairman shall file with the county clerk of his county, a list of the names of all candidates, arranged by office for which nomination is sought, whose applications were filed before the deadline. In like manner each chairman shall file, within three days after the first Monday in March, a supplemental list of any candidates whose applications were timely received after the original list was prepared.

4. On the second Monday in March preceding each general primary, the state committee shall meet at some place to be designated by its chairman, who shall not less than three days prior to such meeting notify by mail all members of the committee and all persons whose names have been requested to be placed upon the official ballot of such designation. Such committee at this meeting by resolution shall direct their chairman to certify to each county chairman the names and county of residence of such candidates as shown by the applications received by him. Copies of such certificates shall be immediately furnished to each newspaper in the state desiring to publish same, and one copy shall at once be mailed to the chairman of the executive committee of each county.

5. The terms of this law shall apply to the county chairman and precinct committeemen, and the names of such candidates shall not be printed on the primary ballot unless such application shall have been filed as provided herein. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, Filing application for nomination by convention, see art. 13.47a.

Art. 13.12a. Nomination and election to fill unexpired term

(1) Offices to which applicable; occurrence of vacancy. The provisions of this section shall govern nomination for and election to unexpired terms which are to be filled by election at the general election, in state, district, county and precinct offices having regular full terms of four or six years, where the vacancy occurs in an even-numbered year in which an election is not being held for the succeeding full term. It does not apply to offices, vacancies in which are to be filled by special election, nor does it apply to the office of United States Senator, which is governed by Section 177 of this Code.¹ For the purpose of this section, where the incumbent of an office has submitted a resignation to become effective at a future date, the vacancy shall not be deemed to have occurred until the effective date of the resignation.

(2) Nominations by parties holding primary elections. For any party holding primary elections for nominating candidates for the ensuing general election, nominations for unexpired terms shall be made in accordance with the following provisions.

(i) If the vacancy occurs more than five days prior to the regular deadline for filing an application for a place on the general primary ballot, as provided in Section 190 of this Code,² nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election in the same manner and under the same rules applicable to nominations for full terms.

(ii) If the vacancy occurs on or after the fifth day preceding the regular filing deadline and more than thirty days before the day of the general primary election, nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election, and candidates shall have until the end of the twenty-fifth day preceding the day of the general primary in which to file applications for a place on the primary ballot. The application must be received and filed in the office of the proper chairman before the deadline, and applications mailed but not actually received before the deadline shall not be accepted for filing. Except as otherwise provided herein, the application shall conform to the requirements of Section 190 of this Code. A candidate for an office for which a fixed filing fee is prescribed by this Code shall pay the fee within three days after he files his application for a place on the ballot; provided, however, that in every case the payment must be received by the chairman before the deadline for filing applications under this paragraph. A candidate for an office which is subject to assessment by the county executive committee shall accompany his application with the deposit required by Section 185a of this Code.³ The county executive committee shall fix the amount of the assessment and the county chairman shall mail to each candidate a statement of the amount assessed against him, and the candidate shall pay the balance of the assessment within five days after the date on which the statement is mailed. Immediately following the deadline for filing applications, the state chairman shall certify to the county chairman the names of candidates, if any, who have filed applications with him and have paid their filing fee in accordance with this paragraph. Whenever the name of more than one candidate for the same office is to be placed on the ballot pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the county chairman shall call a meeting of the primary committee, in time to allow printing of the ballots before commencement of absentee voting in the general primary, and the primary committee shall determine by lot, in open meeting, the order in which the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot. If there is not more than one candidate for the same office, the county chairman shall be authorized to make any necessary changes in the ballot as previously made up by the primary committee.

(iii) If the vacancy occurs on or after the thirtieth day preceding the day of the general primary and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the state executive committee in the case of state offices, the appropriate district executive committee in the case of district offices, and the county executive committee in the case of county and precinct offices, shall have the power to name a nominee for such office, and a nomination shall not be made by any other method; provided, however, that in any case where a district committee empowered to name a nominee is unable to agree upon a candidate due to a tie vote and fails to do so, the state executive committee of that political party may name a candidate for such office and certify the name of the nominee to the proper officer.

(3) Nominations by parties not holding primary elections. For any party which is authorized to make nominations by party conventions, as provided in this Code, a nomination for the unexpired term shall be made at the appropriate party convention having power to make nominations for the particular office if the vacancy occurs more than two days prior to the date on which the convention is held. If the vacancy occurs on or after the second day preceding the convention and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the appropriate executive committee of the party shall have the power to name a nominee, and a nomination shall not be made by any other method.

(4) Nominations by executive committees. If the vacancy occurs more than forty days before the day of the general election, the nomination must be made and certified to the proper officer not later than thirty-five days before the day of the general election, except that where a district committee has been unable to agree upon a nominee for a district office due to a tie vote, a nomination by the state executive committee shall be made and certified not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. For subsequent vacancies, the nomination shall be made and certified not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. Nominations for state offices and for district offices (including districts composed of only one county or part of one county) shall be certified to the Secretary of State, and nominations for county and precinct offices shall be certified to the county clerk. The certificate of nomination shall be signed and acknowledged by the chairman of the committee making the nomination, and shall set forth the name of the nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how the nomination was made.

(5) Independent and nonpartisan candidates. If the vacancy occurs on or before the date of the second primary election, applications of independent or nonpartisan candidates must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 227 of this Code,⁴ not later than thirty days after the second primary election day. If the vacancy occurs after the second primary election day, and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, independent or nonpartisan candidates may file applications in the manner provided in Section 227, except that the application shall be filed not later than thirty-five days before the day of the general election if the vacancy occurred more than forty days before the day of the general election, and for subsequent vacancies, the application shall be filed not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. No person shall sign an application prior to the occurrence of the vacancy, and any signature before that time shall be void.

(6) Write-in candidates. If the vacancy occurs more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the title of the office shall be printed on the ballot for the general election regardless of whether any nominations have been made for the unexpired term, and each voter may write in the name of the candidate of his choice.

(7) When election not to be held. If a vacancy occurs within twenty days before the day of the general election, no one shall be elected to the unexpired term at that election, and the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall continue to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until a successor has been elected and has qualified. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 190a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 88.

Art. 13.15. Filing fees for certain offices

Candidates for United States Senator and all those who are candidates for state offices to be voted upon by the qualified voters of the whole state shall pay to the chairman of the state executive committee one thousand dollars. Candidates for Congressman-at-large or for Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals shall pay to the chairman of the state executive committee five per cent of one year's salary. A candidate who is required to pay a filing fee as herein provided shall not be required to pay any other sum to any other person or committee to have his name placed on the ballot as such candidate. Payment of the fee herein required must be made within three days after the candidate files his application for a place on the ballot, and the name of no person who is required to pay a filing fee to the chairman of the state executive committee shall be placed on the ballot unless he has paid the fee in accordance with these provisions. It shall be sufficient to meet the requirement of these provisions to mail a money order, a certified check, or a good personal check to the chairman of the state executive committee by registered or certified letter within the time herein stated, as shown by the postmark on the letter, but it shall not be sufficient to make the payment by any other type of mail unless it is delivered within the prescribed time. As amended Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p.

1295, ch. 513, § 2; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 976, ch. 424, § 2; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 89.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.18. County executive committees

There shall be for each political party required by law to hold primary elections for nomination of its candidates, a county executive committee in each county, to be composed of a county chairman and one member from each election precinct in such county. Each committeeman shall be chairman of his election precinct. The county chairman and the committeemen shall be elected by majority vote at the primary elections every two years, the county chairman by the qualified voters of the whole county, and the precinct chairman by the qualified voters of their respective election precincts. If in any race no candidate receives a majority of the votes at the general primary, a runoff election for the office shall be held at the second primary election. The county chairman and the precinct chairmen shall assume the duties of their respective offices on Saturday following the runoff primary immediately after the committee has declared the results of the runoff primary election. The list of precinct chairmen and the county chairman so elected shall be certified by the chairman of the county committee to the county clerk, along with the nominees of the party.

No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at meetings of the county executive committee. Any vacancy in the office of county chairman or precinct chairman shall be filled by a majority vote of the committee. Each precinct chairman shall be a resident of the precinct which he represents, and the office shall become vacant if he changes his residence to a place outside the precinct. Where the boundaries of election precincts are changed by the commissioners court, existing precincts altered, new precincts formed, or former precincts abolished, if only one previously elected or appointed precinct chairman resides within a precinct as so changed, he shall continue in office as chairman of that precinct until his successor is elected and assumes office. If more than one precinct chairman resides within a precinct as so changed, or if none resides therein, the office shall become vacant and the vacancy shall be filled as other vacancies. Changes in precinct boundaries made by the commissioners court shall not become effective to alter or affect the membership of the county executive committee until the first day of February following the entry of the order making the change.

The county executive committee may name a secretary, who may be either a member of the committee or such other person as the committee may select, and the secretary is hereby authorized to receive applications for a place on the primary ballot and when so received the application shall be officially filed. The combined compensation allowed the secretary and the chairman for their services shall in no case exceed five per cent of the amount actually spent for necessary expenses in holding the primary election for that year, exclusive of the compensation allowed to the chairman and secretary.

The funds received by the county executive committee from fees and assessments paid by candidates shall constitute the primary fund, and any surplus remaining in the fund after payment of the necessary expenses for holding the primary elections for that year shall be distributed pro-rata to the candidates not later than the first day of November of the year in which the primaries were held. The county chairman shall make or have made a detailed financial report or audit of all moneys received, expended, and on hand, and such audit or financial statement shall be sworn to by the county chairman as to its accuracy and shall be filed with the county clerk not later than the first day of November of that year. Such audit or financial statement shall be open to public inspection. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 90.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

County and precinct conventions, see art. 13, 34.

Art. 13.18a. District executive committees

For a district composed of more than one county, the county chairman of each county within the district shall be ex officio a member of the district executive committee for each such district of which his county is a part, and the district committee thus formed shall elect its own chairman. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a district office or in the nomination for a district office and the district committee is empowered to name a nominee or a substitute nominee, or whenever for any other reason it becomes necessary for the district committee to meet and organize, the chairman of the state executive committee shall call a meeting of the district committee by giving notice to each member of the time and place where such meeting will be held and of the purpose of the meeting. The state chairman shall designate one member as temporary chairman, who shall call the meeting to order and preside until the committee elects its own chairman. The chairman elected by the committee shall continue to act as chairman during the remainder of that term of office, and shall call any subsequent meetings of the committee which are held during that time.

For a district composed of only one county or part of one county, the county executive committee shall constitute the district executive committee for that district, and the county chairman shall be chairman of the district executive committee. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 196a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 91.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.21. Lists of voters

The county tax collector shall deliver to the chairman of the county executive committee of each political party, for its use in primary elections, original and supplemental lists of the qualified voters of each precinct in the county, and such chairman shall place the same for reference in the hands of the election officers of each election precinct before the polls are open. No primary election shall be legal unless such lists are obtained and used for reference during the election. Opposite the name of every voter on said list shall be stamped or written with pen and ink, when his vote is cast, the words "primary-voted," with the date of such primary under the same. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 30.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.23. Ballots delivered to county clerk

Immediately after the counting of the ballots is completed, and not later than twenty-four hours after closing of the polls, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall make returns to the county clerk of the ballot box containing ballots voted, in the manner prescribed in Section 114 of this Code; ¹ and all other provisions of Section 114 shall also apply to primary elections. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 92.

Art. 13.24. Returns and canvass

Immediately upon completion of counting of the ballots, which must be completed in time for delivery of the returns not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall notify the chairman of the county executive committee either personally or by telephone of the results. He shall immediately thereafter make out returns of the same in the manner prescribed in Section 111 of this Code¹ and shall immediately, and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls, make the proper distribution of the returns and other records of the election as provided in Section 111b of this Code.²

Upon receiving returns from each election precinct in the county, the chairman of the county executive committee shall order the members of the county executive committee to convene at the county seat of the county on the following Tuesday succeeding the day of such primary election, and the returns shall be opened by the committee in executive session and shall be canvassed by them. The results recording the state of the polls in each precinct shall be entered in the book provided for in Section 116 of this Code by the county clerk, and the chairman of the county executive committee shall furnish to the county clerk the necessary information for compliance with this provision. Upon relation of the county chairman, the county attorney shall immediately institute mandamus proceedings in the proper court to compel delinquent returning officers to make proper returns as required by law, and it shall be the duty of the county chairman and county clerk to notify the county attorney of the delinquency. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 221, ch. 130, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 6; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 93.

Art. 13.25. Canvass by committee

At the meeting of the county executive committee provided for in the preceding section, returns from the election precincts of the county shall be canvassed by the committee in accordance with the provisions of this section. Such canvass shall include an actual checking and comparison of the poll lists with the tally lists and return sheets, and a mere tabulation of votes as shown by the return sheets shall not be deemed a compliance with this provision. All discovered errors in the returns shall be corrected before the results of the election are certified, and upon the sworn statement of any candidate filed with the committee within seven days after the date of canvass, setting out any alleged error in the primary election returns as certified by the chairman of the committee, the committee shall be reconvened for the investigation and consideration of such alleged error, which provision is hereby declared to be mandatory and may be enforced by writ of mandamus. When the votes have been canvassed in accordance with the foregoing provisions and the result thereof declared by the committee, the chairman of the committee shall make a list of the candidates for county and precinct offices who received the necessary vote to nominate and shall certify the same and deliver it to the county clerk of the county. At the meeting of the committee after the general primary, in case no candidate received a majority of the votes the county executive committee shall determine the two candidates who received the highest number of votes cast for all candidates for the particular office and order their names printed on the ballot for the second primary. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 94.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.26a. Withdrawal of candidate in second primary

Any candidate whose name is to appear on a second primary ballot may withdraw as a candidate by filing with the chairman of the state executive committee in the case of a state or district office, and with the chairman of the county executive committee in the case of a county or precinct office, not later than twenty days prior to the day of the election, a signed request, duly acknowledged by him, that his name not be printed on the ballot at such election. The name of the withdrawing candidate shall not be printed on the ballot and no votes shall be cast or counted for him, and only the name of the other of the two highest candidates shall be printed on the ballot. Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 204a added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 95.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.27. Canvass by state executive committee

The chairman of the executive committee for each county shall immediately prepare, within twenty-four hours after the vote in the primary election has been canvassed by the county executive committee as provided in Section 202 of this Code,¹ a tabulated statement of the votes cast in his county for each candidate for each nomination for a state, district, county or precinct office, and of those cast for county chairman and precinct chairmen, and mail such statement as to a state or district office, in a sealed envelope by registered or certified letter to the chairman of the state executive committee, who shall present the same to the state executive committee as herein provided.

On the second Tuesday following the day of the general primary in May, the state executive committee shall meet at a place selected at the meeting held on the second Monday in March preceding, and shall open and canvass the returns of the election as to candidates for state and district offices, as certified by the various county chairmen, and shall prepare a tabulated statement showing the number of votes received by each such candidate in each county, which statement shall be approved by the state committee and certified by its chairman. In the event any candidate for a district office received in the general primary the necessary vote to nominate, within twenty days after the canvass the chairman of the state executive committee shall certify the name of such candidate to the Secretary of State, to be printed upon the official ballot for the general election as a candidate of the party for the office to which he was nominated. If such returns show that for any state or district office no candidate received a majority of all the votes cast for all candidates for such office, the committee shall prepare a list of the two candidates receiving the highest vote for each office for which no candidate received a majority and shall certify same to the county chairmen of the several counties to be placed upon the official ballot as candidates for office at the second primary election to be held on the first Saturday in June thereafter.

On the third Saturday in June of each election year, the state executive committee shall meet at a place selected at the meeting held on the second Tuesday following the day of the general primary, and shall open and canvass the returns of the second primary election as to candidates for state and district offices as certified by the various county chairmen to the state chairman, and shall prepare a tabulated statement showing the number of votes received by each such candidate in each county, which statement shall be approved by the state committee and certified by its chairman. Within twenty days thereafter, the chairman of the state executive committee shall certify to the Secretary of State, the names of the district candidates receiving the highest vote, to be placed on the general election ballot.

Within twenty days after the date of each canvass, the chairman of the state executive committee shall forward a copy of the tabulated statement prepared by the committee to the Secretary of State, who shall file such statement in the records of his office. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 7; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 96.

Art. 13.33. Referendum on platform demands

No political party in this state which is required to nominate its candidates by primary election shall, in convention assembled, place in the platform or resolutions of the party any demand for specific legislation on any subject, unless the demand for such specific legislation shall have been submitted to a direct vote at the general primary election of such party next preceding the state convention and shall have been endorsed by a majority of all the votes cast in such primary election. The state executive committee may submit, at the general primary election, any demand for specific legislation on any subject, or any other matter, which may be proposed for inclusion in the platform or resolutions of the party, and upon petition of five per cent of the voters of the party, as shown by the total number of votes cast for Governor at the last preceding general primary, the state executive committee shall submit any such question or questions to the voters at the next general primary. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 97.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.34. County and Precinct Conventions

(a) On the first Saturday after the general primary election day in each election year, there shall be held in each county a county convention of each party to be composed of one delegate from each election precinct in such county for each twenty-five votes, or major fraction thereof, cast for the party's candidate for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding general election, which delegate or delegates shall be elected by the qualified members of the party in each precinct at precinct conventions to be held on the general primary election day. In case at the preceding general election there were cast for such candidate for Governor less than twenty-five votes in any precinct, then all such precincts shall elect one delegate. Where the boundaries of an election precinct have been changed or a new precinct formed since the last general election, the county executive committee shall allocate to each such precinct the number of delegates to be elected in that precinct, and may use any fair and reasonable method for making the allocation.

(b) The county convention shall elect one delegate for each three hundred votes, or major fraction thereof, cast for the party's candidate for Governor in such county at the last preceding general election. The delegates so elected shall be delegates for all state conventions held throughout the remainder of the year and such of them as may attend such state conventions shall cast the votes for their respective counties in such conventions.

(c) The qualified members of the party in each election precinct of the county shall assemble on the date named and shall be called to order by the precinct chairman, or in his absence by any qualified member of the party presiding within the precinct. Before transacting any business, the precinct chairman shall cause to be made a list of all qualified members of the party present. The name of no person shall be entered upon the list nor shall he be permitted to vote, be present at, or participate in the business of the convention until it is made to appear that he is a qualified voter in the precinct, from a certified list of the qualified voters, the same as is required in conducting a general election, and that he has qualified as a member of the party as provided in Section 179a of this Code.¹ The precinct convention shall elect from among those present and qualified a permanent chairman and such other officers as may be necessary to conduct its business. The chairman of the convention shall possess all the power and authority that is given to election judges by the provisions of this Code. After the convention is organized it shall elect its delegates to the county convention and transact such other business as may properly come before it. The officers of the precinct convention shall keep a written record of its proceedings, including a list of delegates elected to the county convention, which shall constitute the returns from the convention. The record, and a copy thereof, shall be signed officially, sealed up and safely transmitted by the permanent chairman of the precinct convention within three days after the precinct convention to the county clerk of the county, who shall affix his file mark thereto and who shall promptly deliver the original copy of such return to the chairman of the county executive committee, and the return filed with the county clerk shall be open to public inspection during the regular office hours.

(d) The chairman of the county executive committee shall deliver the list of delegates named by the precinct conventions in the county to the county convention, and these lists shall constitute the temporary roll of those selected as delegates to the county convention and only delegates on such temporary roll shall be permitted to vote in the temporary organization of the county convention. No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at the county convention. The county convention shall elect a permanent chairman and such other officers as may be necessary to conduct its business. Immediately upon the adjournment of each such county convention the permanent chairman thereof shall make out a certified list of the delegates chosen, together with a copy of all resolutions adopted by the county convention, and shall sign the same, the permanent secretary of such convention attesting his signature, and within five days after the county convention shall forward such certified list, resolutions and copies of each thereof by sealed registered or certified letter to the Secretary of State in Austin, Texas, who shall affix his file mark thereon and who shall deliver the originals thereof to the chairman of the state executive committee, prior to any state convention. The state chairman shall call a meeting of the state executive committee, which shall, at the meeting, prepare a complete list of the delegates elected to the state conventions from each county as certified by the Secretary of State. The chairman shall then present the certified list to any state convention, at any time prior to its beginning, and such lists shall constitute the temporary roll of those selected as delegates to such conventions, and only delegates on such temporary roll shall be permitted to vote in the temporary organization of any such state convention. No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at a state convention from more than one county.

(e) The county executive committee in its meeting on the third Monday in March preceding the general primary, provided for in Section 195 of this Code, or, upon its failure to act, the county chairman, shall determine the hour and place at which the precinct conventions shall be held on primary election day. The time for convening of the precinct convention in each precinct must be set between the hours of two o'clock p. m. and nine o'clock p. m. The county chairman shall then be required to post a copy of this order on a bulletin board at the county courthouse and file a copy of the same in the office of the county clerk, where it shall be open to public inspection. This notice shall be posted and filed by the county chairman at least ten days prior to the holding of the precinct conventions. Also at this meeting the county executive committee, or, upon its failure to act, the county chairman, shall decide the hour and place at which the county convention shall be held on the first Saturday after primary election day, and the county chairman shall post this order on the bulletin board at the county courthouse and also file a copy of this notice with the county clerk, at least ten days prior to the date of the county convention. Should the county chairman fail to post such orders and file such notices, then any member of the county executive committee may post such orders and file such notices and such shall constitute the orders and notices required herein. Should more than one member of the county executive committee post such orders and file such notices, then the first posting and filing in point of time shall prevail.

(f) Representatives of newspapers, wire news services, and radio and television stations shall have the right to attend the precinct conventions, the county conventions, and the state conventions for the purpose of reporting the proceedings thereof.

(g) All nominees for the State Legislature or the United States Congress and all State Representatives, State Senators and members of Congress shall be entitled to admission to the state conventions of their party, but unless elected as a delegate they shall not be entitled to vote or otherwise participate in the affairs of the convention.

(h) No person shall be ineligible to serve as a delegate to any county, state or national convention of any political party by reason of his holding any public office. As amended Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 430, ch. 206, § 1; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 8; Acts 1962, 57th 3rd C.S., Leg., p. 157, ch. 53, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 98.

Art. 13.38. State convention

The state convention to announce a platform of principles and to announce nominations for Governor and other state offices, held by a political party making nominations by primary election, shall meet on the third Tuesday in September of each even-numbered year at such place as may be determined by the state executive committee as provided in Section 213 of this Code,¹ and shall remain in session from day to day until all nominations are announced and the work of the convention is finished. The convention shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman of the state executive committee, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, and sixty-two members thereof, two from each senatorial district of the state, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, the members of the committee to be those who shall be recommended by the delegates representing the counties composing the senatorial districts respectively, each county voting its convention strength, each of whom shall hold office until his successor is elected; and, in case of a vacancy, a majority of the members of the committee shall fill the vacancy by electing some eligible person thereto, but such person shall be of the same sex as the vacating member and from the same senatorial district.

At any meeting of the state executive committee a person cannot hold a proxy or participate in such meeting unless he is a resident of the same senatorial district as the member giving the proxy, and no person shall be permitted to hold or vote more than one proxy. Any political party whose nominee for Governor in the last preceding general election received less than two hundred thousand votes, or any new party, or any previously existing party which did not have a nominee for Governor in the last preceding general election, may nominate candidates for the general election:

(1) by primary elections held in accordance with the rules provided in this Code for the primary elections of parties whose candidate for Governor received two hundred thousand or more votes at the last general election; or

(2) by nominating such candidates for the general election in conventions as provided in Sections 224 and 225 of this Code;¹ provided, however, that if the convention system be used, then the party must comply with the following qualifications for nomination:

(a) Such party must hold a state convention at the time and under conditions prescribed by law, composed of delegates from county conventions held in accordance with the law.

(b) It shall not be necessary that county conventions whose delegates comprise the state convention be held in all counties of the state, but such conventions must be held in not less than twenty counties comprising in the aggregate not less than twenty per cent of the population of the state.

(c) The chairman of the state executive committee of the party shall certify under oath to the Secretary of State that the conditions of this section have been complied with. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 11; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 102.

Art. 13.47. Conventions of parties not holding primaries

Political parties which are not required by law to make nominations by primary election may make nominations by conventions as provided herein.

Nominations for state-wide offices shall be made at a state convention, which shall be held on the Monday preceding the last Tuesday in May of the election year, and which shall be composed of delegates selected in the various counties at county conventions held on the second Saturday in May. The county conventions shall be composed of delegates from the general election precincts in such counties elected therein at precinct conventions, held in such precincts on the first Saturday in May.

Nominations for district offices of districts composed of more than one county shall be made at district conventions held on the Saturday preceding the last Tuesday in May of the election year, composed of delegates elected thereto from the counties composing the district, at the county conventions held on the second Saturday in May.

Nominations for county and precinct offices and for district offices of districts composed of only one county or part of one county shall be made at the county conventions held on the second Saturday in May. As amended Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 13; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 102.

Art. 13.48. Nominations certified

Nominations so made by a state convention shall be certified by the chairman of the state executive committee of such party to the Secretary of State. Nominations made by a district convention shall be certified by the chairman of the district executive committee to the Secretary of State. Nominations made by a county convention for county and precinct offices shall be certified by the chairman of the county executive committee to the county clerk, and nominations for district offices shall be certified by said chairman to the Secretary of State. Nominations by party conventions must be certified to the proper officer within twenty days after the date of the convention at which the nomination was made. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 103.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.50. Non-partisan and independent candidates

The name of a nonpartisan or independent candidate may be printed on the official ballot in the column for independent candidates, after a written application signed by qualified voters addressed to the proper officer, as herein provided, and delivered to him within thirty days after the second primary election day, as follows:

If for an office to be voted for throughout the state, the application shall be signed by one per cent of the entire vote of the state cast for Governor at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of more than one county, the application shall be signed by three per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of only one county or part of one county, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a county office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such county at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

If for a precinct office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the number of signatures required on an application for any district, county, or precinct office need not exceed five hundred.

No application shall contain the name of more than one candidate. No person shall sign the application of more than one candidate for the same office; and if any person signs the application of more than one candidate for the same office, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. No person shall sign such application unless he is a qualified voter, and no person who has voted at either the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party shall sign an application in favor of anyone for an office for which a nomination was made at either such primary election.

The application shall contain the following information with respect to each person signing it: his address and the number of his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate and the county of issuance; or if he is exempt from payment of a poll tax and not required to obtain an exemption certificate, the application shall so state.

Any person signing the application of an independent candidate may withdraw and annul his signature by delivering to the candidate and to the officer with whom the application is filed (or is to be filed, if not then filed), his written request, signed and duly acknowledged by him, that his signature be cancelled and annulled. The request must be delivered before the application is acted on, and not later than the day preceding the last day for filing the application. Upon such withdrawal, the person shall be free to sign the application of another candidate for the same office. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 104.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment. Filing affidavit of intent to run, see art. 13.47a.

Nomination and election to fill unexpired term, independent and nonpartisan candidates, see art. 13.12a(5).

Art. 13.51. Oath to application

To every citizen who signs such application, there shall be administered the following oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to such application: "I know the contents of the foregoing application; I have not participated in the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party which has nominated, at either such election, a candidate for the office for which I desire _____ (here insert the name of the candidate) to be a candidate; I am a qualified voter at the next general election under the Constitution and laws in force and have signed the above application of my own free will." One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 104.

¹ Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.52. Consent to run

Upon receipt of an application which conforms to the above requirements, the Secretary of State shall issue his instruction to the county clerks of the state or of the district, as the case may require, and the county judge shall issue his instruction to the county clerk of the county, directing that the name of the candidate in whose favor the application is made shall be printed on the official ballot in the independent column under the title of the office for which he is a candidate; provided, that any candidate who is required by Section 224a of this Code¹ to file a statement of intent to become an independent candidate must have filed such statement in compliance with the provisions of that section, and any candidate not required to file such statement must file with the Secretary of State or the county judge, as the case may be, his written consent to become a candidate, within thirty days after the second primary election day. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 104.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 13.53. Independent candidates at city or town election

Independent candidates for office at a city or town election may have their names printed upon the official ballot on application signed by qualified voters addressed to the mayor, such application being in the same form and subject to the same requirements herein prescribed for application to be made to the Secretary of State or the county judge; provided, that in city elections it shall be necessary that the application be signed by qualified voters equaling five per cent of the entire vote cast for mayor at the last municipal election, or by twenty-five qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number; and the application and the candidate's written¹ consent must be filed at least thirty days prior to the election day. Provided further, that if the office is one to which two or more persons are to be elected, the application may be for as many candidates as there are persons to be elected to that office, and a voter may sign applications of candidates for that office in the number that is to be elected; but if he signs the applications of more than the number to be elected, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. And provided further, in elections for a city or town office, it shall not be necessary that independent candidates be nominated, but anyone otherwise qualified may have his name printed upon the official ballot for a particular office by filing his sworn application with the mayor at least thirty days prior to the election day and by paying such filing fees as may be required by statute or by charter provision. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 104.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date Filing affidavit of intent to run, see art. of adjournment. 13.47a.

Art. 13.56. Declination or death of nominee; filling vacancy in nomination

(a) A nominee of a political party may decline and annul his nomination by delivering to the officer with whom the certificate of his nomination is filed and to the chairman of the executive committee having the power to fill a vacancy in such nomination, not later than twenty days before the day of the election, a declaration in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments.

(b) Upon declination of a nomination, or in case of death of a nominee not later than twenty days before the day of the election, the executive committee of the party for the state, district, or county, as the office to be nominated may require, may nominate a candidate to supply the vacancy. A certificate of such nomination, signed and duly acknowledged by the chairman of the executive committee, must be filed with the officer with whom the certificate of the original nomination was filed not later than twenty days before election day, which certificate shall set forth the name of the original nominee, the cause of the vacancy, the name of the new nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how he was nominated. The officer with whom the substitute nomination is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the name of the new nominee to be placed on the ballot.

(c) In any case where a district committee is empowered to name a nominee and is unable to agree upon a candidate due to a tie vote and fails to do so prior to twenty days before the election, the state executive committee may name a candidate for such office and certify the name to the proper officer to have the name printed on the official ballot for the general election; provided, however, that the certification must be filed not later than twenty days before election day.

(d) An independent candidate may withdraw his candidacy and cause his name to be kept off the ballot by delivering to the officer with whom the application requesting his name to be placed on the ballot was filed, not later than twenty days before election day, a declaration in writing, signed and duly acknowledged by him, whereupon the officer with whom the declaration is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the candidate's name to be removed from the ballot.

(e) If a party nominee dies or declines the nomination and no one is nominated to fill the vacancy, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this Code ¹ shall be followed.

(f) If an independent candidate dies more than five days before the deadline for filing by independent candidates in that race, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies after that date, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this Code shall be followed. As amended Acts 1963, 56th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 105.

(f) Such statement shall be accompanied by the following affidavit of the candidate:

"I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement, filed herewith, is in all things true and correct, and fully shows all gifts and loans of money or other things of value received by me, my campaign manager, or my assistant campaign managers not previously reported in a sworn statement heretofore filed, and all persons making such gifts and loans; and such statement fully shows all previously unreported gifts, loans, and payments made and all debts incurred by me, my campaign manager, or assistant campaign managers or by any other person with my knowledge and consent, in behalf of my candidacy for the nomination for (or election to) the office of _____ before the _____ election (nature of the election to be supplied in the blank) on the date of _____, and that I have neither directly nor indirectly arranged or assented to, encouraged or connived at receiving, borrowing, giving, or lending any money or any thing of value other than as shown in said statement, and that I have not, so far as I know, violated any provision of the laws of Texas governing elections in letter or in spirit." Such statement and oath shall be filed by each candidate for a county office with the county clerk of the county, for a district or state office with the Secretary of State, for a municipal office with the city secretary or city clerk of the municipality, and for an office of a political subdivision with the secretary of the governing board of the political subdivision. A statement shall be considered filed if sent to the proper officer at his post-office address by registered or certified mail from any point in this state before the filing deadline, as shown by the postmark on the letter. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 107.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 14.10. Political advertising

(a) Anything published in a newspaper, magazine or journal, or any pamphlet, handbill or other printed matter, or anything broadcast over a radio or television station or displayed on a billboard, in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for any public office or office of a political party, or in favor of or in opposition to the success of any public officer, or in favor of or in opposition to any political party, or in favor of or in opposition to any proposition submitted to a vote of the people, in consideration of the receipt or promise of money or other thing of value, shall for the purposes of this section be considered as political advertising. All advertisements of marked ballots, advising or suggesting how voters should mark their ballots, shall be included in the meaning of political advertising.

(b) No political advertising shall be accepted for printing, publication, or broadcasting unless a copy of the matter to be printed, published, or broadcast, signed by the individual contracting therefor and showing his full address, is deposited with the printer, publisher or broadcaster accepting the advertising (herein called the "advertising medium"). The advertising medium shall preserve the signed copy for a period of six months after the date of the election to which such advertising relates, and shall permit any interested person to inspect the signed copy at any time during business hours. Such advertising shall be labeled as political advertising in the advertisement as printed, published or broadcast. Any advertising medium or any officer or agent thereof who violates any provision of this paragraph shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

(c) Any advertising medium or any officer or agent thereof who willfully demands or receives for any political advertising any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due for such service at the regular advertising rates of such medium, or any person who pays or offers to pay for such service any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due at regular advertising rates, or any person who pays or offers to pay any money or other thing of value for the publication or broadcasting of political advertising except as advertising matter, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

(d) Either party to a violation of this section may be compelled to testify regarding thereto, but shall not be punished for any act regarding which he may have been required to testify. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 109.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 14.12. Partial unconstitutionality and repeals

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, which clarified and revised the laws relating to general, special and primary elections, and which became effective August 23, 1963, provided in § 122:

"Sec. 122. Nonapplicability to elections ordered before effective date.

"This Act shall not apply to any election which was ordered before the date on which the Act takes effect, and all such elections shall be conducted in accordance with the laws in force immediately prior to the effective date of the Act."

Contracts for medical care and treatment, see art. 3174b—5.

Art. 3174b—4. Outpatient clinics; mental hospital; community hospital for research and education in mental illness

Statement of Purposes and Public Policies

Section 1. It is the sense of the Legislature that the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools be authorized to establish such outpatient clinics for treating the mentally ill as such Board deems necessary and as funds for their operation are made available; and that a total mental health program be established in a given area of this State which shall consist of the following: (1) An area or community hospital of approximately sixty (60) beds to be used for treating the mentally ill and for research, training, and education in treating mental illness and an outpatient clinic which may be operated in conjunction with the community hospital; the outpatient clinics to be authorized and the community hospital and clinic to be provided for in this Act; and (2) A separate larger mental hospital of approximately five hundred (500) beds.

Authorization for Outpatient Clinics

Sec. 2. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools is authorized to establish outpatient clinics for treatment of the mentally ill in such locations as deemed necessary by said Board and as money for their operation shall be made available. The Board shall acquire facilities, provide a staff, make rules and regulations, and make contracts with persons, corporations, and agencies of local, State, and Federal governments as shall be necessary for the establishment and operation of said clinics.

Establishment of Community or Research Hospital

Sec. 3. There shall be constructed, established, and maintained an area or community hospital of approximately sixty (60) beds to be used in treating the mentally ill and for research, training, and education in mental illness and an outpatient clinic which may be operated in conjunction with the community hospital. Such hospital and clinic shall be located within a city where a recognized medical center is located and operating. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall designate the city and select a site or sites therein for the location of said community hospital and outpatient clinic. Such site or sites shall be accessible and convenient to the local medical center and shall contain sufficient land served by adequate utilities to meet the requirements of said hospital and outpatient clinic. Said Board shall take title to the land or lands so selected by them in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said hospital and clinic; provided, that the Attorney General's Department shall first approve the title to the land or lands so selected by the Board.

Location and Construction of Mental Hospital

Sec. 4. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall select the site for said mental hospital, and the Board, in selecting such site, shall make such selection with a view to its accessibility and convenience to the greatest number of inhabitants and available medical facilities, and the same shall contain sufficient land and have utilities readily available. Said Board shall take title to the land so selected by them in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said hospital; provided, however, that the Attorney General's Department shall first approve the title to the land so selected by the Board. There shall be constructed upon said grounds so selected permanent, suitable, substantial, and fireproof buildings sufficient in all respects to be used for the treatment of the mentally ill; said buildings are to be provided with modern improvements for furnishing water, heat, ventilation, and sewage.

Preparation of Plans

Sec. 5. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall proceed, within the limits of legislative appropriation of funds, to prepare plans and specifications for said buildings; and said Board is authorized to make contracts with such persons, corporations, or agencies of State, local, and Federal governments, and to accept gifts or grants of land as said Board deems proper and necessary to effect the purposes of this Act within the limits of appropriations authorized therefor.

Personnel; Patients

Sec. 6. Upon the completion of the buildings and facilities for either or both of said research hospital or the larger separate mental hospital, the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall appoint such personnel as are necessary to operate and maintain such hospital and clinic and to adequately treat such patients as are admitted, within the limits of legislative appropriations. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall admit patients to the area or community hospital and shall provide for their care and maintenance under the same applicable laws, rules and regulations as govern the admission and care of mentally ill persons provided for in the General Laws of the State of Texas governing institutions for the care of the mentally ill. The outpatient clinic shall be operated under such rules and regulations as the Board may promulgate.

The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools is hereby authorized, in its discretion, to operate and maintain such hospital and clinic as a part of such other hospital as may be constructed or operated by the Board.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Appropriation

Sec. 7. There is hereby appropriated to the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools such Federal funds as the United States Government may grant for the construction of such buildings, and such other funds as may be given or granted by any State agency, foundation, estate, or individual, and said Board is authorized and directed to obtain and expend such funds as may become available for the programs and facilities authorized by this Act.

Contracts

Sec. 8. In carrying out the research authorized by this Act, the Board may contract with any public or private agency as it deems necessary for such purposes; provided, however, the Board shall not be authorized to make a contract which will expire later than August 31, 1966. Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1280, ch. 427, as amended Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 626, ch. 293, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 336, ch. 128, § 1.

Board for Lease of Eleemosynary and State Memorial Lands

Section 1. A Board is hereby created to consist of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, and the chairman of the Board of Control, who shall perform the duties hereinafter indicated; the Board shall be known as the "Board for Lease of Eleemosynary and State Memorial Lands." The term "Board" wherever it appears hereafter in this Act shall mean the Board for Lease of Eleemosynary and State Memorial Park Lands. This Board shall keep a complete record in writing of all its proceedings. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1138, ch. 442, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1138, ch. 442, which amended various articles of the Civil Statutes, Penal Code and Election Code by removing the Attorney General as member of various state boards, agencies and commissions, and which provided for the appointment of citizen members thereon to replace the Attorney General, provided in section 18: "The citizen members replacing the Attorney General on the Boards and Commissions amended by this Act shall be reimbursed for their actual meals, lodging and incidental expenses when performing their duties as members of their respective Boards at all official meetings of the Board on the same basis as is provided for members of the Legislature serving on Boards, Councils, Committees or Commissions, provided, however, that the travel expenses herein provided shall not be paid but for fifteen (15) meetings of such Boards per year.

Each member shall make out under oath an itemized statement of the number of days engaged in attending official meetings of the Board and the amount of expenses when presenting same for payment."

Construction, establishment and maintenance; location

Section 1. There shall be constructed, established, and maintained an additional school for the diagnosis, special training, education, supervision, treatment, care and control of mentally retarded persons of this state. Its name shall be the "Corpus Christi State School," and it shall be located on land previously offered to the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools for this purpose, which land is generally described as follows:

Beginning at the northwest corner of Block 4 of the Airport Park Addition to the City of Corpus Christi as shown by map or plat of record in Vol. 8, Page 26, Map Records of Nueces County, Texas;

Thence in a southerly direction with the west boundary line of said Block 4, Airport Park Addition to the southwest corner of said Airport Park Addition;

Thence in a southeasterly direction with the south boundary line of said Airport Park Addition and continuing with the south boundary line of Block 5 of the Harlem Park Addition as recorded in Vol. 9, Page 57, Map Records of Nueces County, Texas, to a point in the northwest right-of-way line of Greenwood Drive;

Thence in a southwesterly direction with the northwest right-of-way line of Greenwood Drive to a point in the north right-of-way line of Horne Road;

Thence in a northwesterly direction with the proposed north right-of-way line of Horne Road to a point 42 feet east of the southeast corner of Lot 1 of the Gugenheim and Cohn Farm Lots;

Thence in a northerly direction with the east boundary line of the existing north-south runway of the former Cliff Maus Airport and its northerly extension to a point in the southeast right-of-way line of Old Brownsville Road;

Thence in a northeastly and easterly direction with the southeast right-of-way line of Old Brownsville Road to the place of beginning.

Save and except from above-described area the following tracts:

Tract 1. An approximately one-acre tract of land at the intersection of Greenwood Drive and Horne Road occupied by City of Corpus Christi Fire Station No. 10.

Tract 2. An approximately five-acre tract of land located on Horne Road approximately 1,000 feet northwesterly of Greenwood Drive and occupied by a Texas National Guard Armory.

Tract 3. An approximately one-fourth acre tract of land located on Greenwood Drive adjacent to the most southerly corner of the Harlem Park Addition and occupied by a City of Corpus Christi gas regulator station.

Tract 4. An easement for an existing 9' x 5' reinforced concrete box storm sewer extending in an east-west direction across the above-described property approximately 1,600 feet north of Horne Road and known as the "Blake Interceptor."

The Board shall take title to the above-described land in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said school; provided, however, that the Attorney General's Department shall first approve title to the land.

Buildings; plans and specifications

Sec. 2. There shall be constructed upon said grounds permanent, suitable, substantial, and fireproof buildings sufficient in all respects to care for mentally retarded persons; said buildings are to be provided with modern improvements for furnishing water, heat, ventilation and sewage, within the limits of legislative appropriations.

The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall proceed to prepare plans and specifications for said buildings; and immediately after this Act becomes effective and title to the above-described land shall have been approved by the Attorney General as being vested in the State of Texas, and upon the availability of sufficient appropriations, the Board shall contract for the erection of the necessary buildings for the proper operation of said school, as provided by law; and said Board shall have the power and authority to do and perform all things necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Personnel; admission and care of mentally retarded persons

Sec. 3. Upon the completion of the buildings and facilities, the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall appoint such personnel as are necessary to operate and maintain such school and to adequately treat such persons as are admitted, within the limits of legislative appropriations. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall admit persons and shall provide for their care and maintenance under the same laws, rules and regulations as govern the admission and care of mentally retarded persons provided for in the General Laws of the State of Texas governing institutions for the care of the mentally retarded.

Corpus Christi State School Independent School District

Sec. 4. Effective with the date persons are admitted to the Corpus Christi State School, such school shall become and is hereby created the Corpus Christi State School Independent School District. The territorial limits of the Independent School District created shall be co-extensive with the territorial boundaries of the Corpus Christi State School. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall be ex officio trustees of the district so created. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 182, ch. 103.

Establishment

Section 1. There shall be constructed, established, and maintained an additional school for the diagnosis, special training, education, supervision, treatment, care or control of mentally retarded persons of this state. It shall be known as the State School; that after the said State School has been located, then the name of the city near which it is located shall be added before the words "State School" which shall be its name. The school shall be located at some point west of the one hundredth meridian, or within any county through which the one hundredth meridian passes.

The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall select and acquire by gift or purchase, within the limits of legislative appropriations, a site for said school, and the Board, in selecting such site, shall make such selection with a view to its accessibility and convenience to the greatest number of inhabitants, and the same shall contain sufficient land and have utilities readily available. Said Board shall take title to the land so selected by them in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said school; provided, however, that the Attorney General's Department shall first approve the title to the land so selected by the Board.

Buildings

Sec. 2. There shall be constructed upon said grounds so selected permanent, suitable, substantial, and fireproof buildings sufficient in all respects to care for mentally retarded persons; said buildings are to be provided with modern improvements for furnishing water, heat, ventilation and sewage, within the limits of legislative appropriations.

The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall proceed to prepare plans and specifications for said buildings; and immediately after this Act becomes effective and title to the land designated as the site for said school shall have been approved by the Attorney General as being vested in the State of Texas, and upon the availability of sufficient appropriations, the Board shall contract for the erection of the necessary buildings for the proper operation of said school, as provided by law; and said Board shall have the power and authority to do and perform all things necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Personnel; patients

Sec. 3. Upon the completion of the buildings and facilities, the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall appoint such personnel as are necessary to operate and maintain such school and to adequately treat such persons as are admitted, within the limits of legislative appropriations. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools shall admit persons and shall provide for their care and maintenance under the same laws, rules and regulations as govern the admission and care of mentally retarded persons provided for in the General Laws of the State of Texas governing institutions for the care of the mentally retarded. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 607, ch. 220.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 3886h. Compensation of district attorney and assistants in 34th District

Section 1. The District Attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District of this State shall be paid a salary in an amount not to exceed Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000) per year. The First Assistant District Attorney of said Thirty-fourth Judicial District shall receive a salary not to exceed Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000) per year; and the other Assistant District Attorneys and Investigators in said District shall receive salaries not to exceed Eight Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($8,500) a year.

Art. 3899b. Offices, office supplies, furniture and automobiles; aid for district attorneys

Sec. 1a. In addition to the expenditures authorized in Section 1, in all counties having a population in excess of one million and two hundred thousand (1,200,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, the Commissioners Court may, in its discretion, at the expense of the county, furnish Justices of the Peace such courtrooms, offices and office furniture as may be necessary for the performance of their duties, and furnish Constables such offices and office furniture as may be necessary for the performance of their duties. Provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed so as to modify the provisions of Article 2379 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 742, ch. 278, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Sec. 3. In addition to the expenditures authorized in the preceding paragraphs, Numbers 1 and 2 of said Article 3899b, in all counties having a population in excess of three hundred and fifty-five thousand (355,000) inhabitants according to the preceding or any future Federal Census, the Commissioners Court of the county of the Tax Assessor and Tax Collector's residence may, upon the written and sworn application of such officer, stating the necessity therefor, allow one or more automobiles to be used by the Tax Assessor and Collector or his deputies in the discharge of official business, which, if purchased by the county shall be bought in the manner prescribed by law for the purchase of supplies and paid for out of the General Fund of the county. All expenses incurred in the operation, repair, and maintenance of such automobile or automobiles purchased by the county shall be incurred and paid in the manner provided by subdivision 1 of Section 19 of Acts 1935, Forty-fourth Legislature, Second Called Session, Chapter 465.¹ The Commissioners Court may, in lieu of the purchase of automobiles for the use of the Assessor and Col-

CHAPTER THREE—MARL, SAND AND SHELL

Art. 4053. Permit to use marl, etc.

Application; terms and conditions of permit

Section 1. Anyone desiring to purchase any of the marl and sand of commercial value and any of the gravel, shells or mudshell included within the provisions of this Chapter, or otherwise operate in any of the waters or upon any island, reef, bar, lake, bay, river, creek or bayou included in this Chapter, shall first make written application therefor to the Parks and Wildlife Commission, designating the limits of the territory in which such person desires to operate. If the Parks and Wildlife Commission finds that the taking, carrying away or disturbing of the marl, gravel, sand, shells or mudshell in the designated territory would not damage or injuriously affect any oysters, oyster beds, fish inhabiting waters thereof or adjacent thereto or that such operation would not damage or injuriously affect any island, reef, bar, channel, river, creek or bayou used for frequent or occasional navigation, or change or otherwise injuriously affect any current that would affect navigation, it may issue a permit to such person after such applicant shall have complied with all requirements prescribed by said Parks and Wildlife Commission. The permit shall authorize the applicant to take, carry away or otherwise operate within the limits of such territory as may be designated therein, and for such substance or purpose only as may be named in the permit and upon the terms and conditions of the permit. No permit shall be assignable, and a failure or refusal of the holder to comply with the terms and conditions of such permit shall operate as an immediate termination and revocation of all rights conferred therein or claimed thereunder. No special privilege or exclusive right shall be granted to any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise, to take or carry away any of such products from any territory or to otherwise operate in or upon any island, reef, bay, lake, river, creek, or bayou included in this Chapter.

Consideration of injurious effects and industrial requirements

Sec. 2. In determining whether or not such permit should be issued, the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall take into consideration any injurious effect which might occur to any oysters, oyster beds, fish inhabiting waters thereof or adjacent thereto, as well as the requirements of industry for such marl, sand, gravel, shells or mudshell and the relative value thereof to the State of Texas for commercial use.

Denial of application for permit; findings of fact

Sec. 3. In any order of the Commission issued denying an application for a permit, the Commission shall set forth full and complete findings of fact pointing out in detail the basis of its action.

Removal and replanting of oysters and oyster beds

Sec. 4. In carrying out its duties under the provisions of this Act, the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall be authorized, after due notice and hearing, to remove oysters or oyster beds and replant the same on other natural or artificially constructed reefs; provided, that before any action is taken pursuant to this Section, there shall be a finding by the Commission that such removal and replanting will be of benefit to the growth and propagation or betterment of oysters or oyster beds or fishing conditions and provided further that any such removal and replanting shall be done at the expense of the applicant for permit and not the State of Texas.

Rights of state oil and gas lessees

Sec. 5. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require any lessee of an oil and gas lease, which has heretofore or may hereafter be executed by the State, to obtain a permit from the Parks and Wildlife Commission to exercise the rights granted said lessee under said lease and the provisions of the applicable laws of the State of Texas. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 674, ch. 248, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

CHAPTER FIVE—TEXAS SHRIMP CONSERVATION ACT [NEW]

Art.

4075b. Texas Shrimp Conservation Act.

Art. 4075b. Texas Shrimp Conservation ActShort title; public policy

Section 1. This Act shall be known as the "Texas Shrimp Conservation Act" and it is hereby declared by the Legislature of the State of Texas to be the public policy of this State that the shrimp resources of the State of Texas be conserved and protected from depletion and waste in order that the people of Texas and their posterity may enjoy the most reasonable and equitable privileges in the ownership and taking of such shrimp resources, and that the shrimp industry of Texas be protected from unlawful encroachment and be promoted and fostered consistent with the general good of the people of this State and to those ends, and in the interest of achieving fair, impartial, and uniform law enforcement, it is further declared by the Legislature of Texas to be the public policy of this State that any and all laws, acts, bills, rules, regulations, proclamations or orders relating to shrimp or the shrimp industry shall be carried out under this Act, any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Research and studies; statistical information; reports; findings

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Game and Fish Commission to conduct, or cause to be conducted through any other agency that said Commission may designate, continuous research, investigations and studies of the supply, economic value, environment and breeding habits of the different species of shrimp and other factors affecting their increase or decrease, particularly with reference to the use of trawls, nets or other devices for the taking of shrimp, and with reference to industrial and other pollution of waters naturally frequented by shrimp, and to any and all other factors that enter into a reduction or increase in the supply of the shrimp resources of Texas. The Commission is hereby directed to gather statistical information on the marketing and processing, and on the harvesting, and catching, of shrimp landed at points in the State of Texas. The information shall set forth the quantity, in number of pounds, of shrimp landed at points in Texas, the waters from which taken, and the names of the various species. The Game and Fish Commission shall prepare forms for reports which shall be furnished to those persons licensed under this Act to unload shrimp within Texas who shall make monthly reports to the Commission on said forms, not later than the tenth day of each month. Pursuant to and based upon such studies and reports, said Commission shall enter its findings of fact with respect thereto in the permanent records of said Commission, which records shall be kept current and up-to-date as nearly as practicable and such findings of facts shall be published in the form of a report and presented to the Governor and each Member of the Legislature prior to each Regular Session of the Legislature.

Definitions

Sec. 3. The following words, terms, and phrases used in this Act are hereby defined as follows:

(a) "Coastal Waters," as that term is used herein, means all of the salt waters of the State of Texas, including that portion of the Gulf of Mexico within the jurisdiction of this State, and for the purposes of this Act, said coastal waters of Texas are divided into two (2) classes, namely, the "Inside Waters" and the "Outside Waters." The term "Outside Waters," as that term is used herein, shall mean the salt waters of this State contiguous to, and seaward from, the shore line of the State of Texas along the Gulf of Mexico as such shore line is projected and extended in a continuous and unbroken line, following the contours and meanders of such shore line, across bays, inlets, passes, rivers, streams and other bodies of water; the same being that portion of the Gulf of Mexico extending from such shore line seaward and within the jurisdiction of the State of Texas. The term "Inside Waters," as that term is used herein, shall mean all bays, inlets, outlets, passes, rivers, streams and other bodies of water landward from such shore line and contiguous to, or connected with, but not a part of, the Gulf of Mexico and within which the tide regularly rises and falls and in which salt-water shrimp are found or into which salt-water shrimp migrate.

(b) "Major Bays," as used herein, means the deeper, major bay areas of the inside waters, and for the purposes of this Act shall include Sabine Lake, Trinity Bay, Galveston Bay, East Galveston Bay, West Galveston Bay, Matagorda Bay including Keller's Bay and East Matagorda Bay, Tres Palacios Bay, Espiritu Santo Bay, Lavaca Bay from the present causeway seaward, San Antonio Bay, Ayres Bay, Aransas Bay, Mesquite Bay, and Corpus Christi Bay, all exclusive of tributary bays, bayous and inlets.

(c) "Commission," as used herein, means the Game and Fish Commission of the State of Texas.

(d) "Person," as used herein, means any person, firm, partnership, company, corporation, co-operative, association, or any legal entity whatsoever.

(e) "Possess" in its different tenses, as used herein, includes the act of having in possession or control, keeping, detaining, restraining or holding, as owner, or under a fishing ley, or as agent, bailee, or custodian of another; and whenever possession, sale, purchase, unloading or other handling of shrimp is prohibited, reference is made and intended, and shall apply, equally to such shrimp coming from without the State as to that taken within the State unless otherwise specifically provided.

(f) A "Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat," as that term is used herein, is any boat or vessel which is required to be numbered or registered by and under the laws of the United States of America or of the State of Texas, and which is used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp and other edible aquatic products from the outside waters of the State of Texas for pay, or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange, or which is used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp and other edible aquatic products from salt waters outside of the State of Texas for pay or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange, and unloading same at a port or other point in Texas without having been previously unloaded in some other state or foreign country.

(g) A "Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat," as that term is used herein, is any boat or vessel which is required to be numbered or registered by and under the laws of the United States of America or the State of Texas, and which is used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp and other edible aquatic products from the inside waters of the State of Texas for pay, or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange.

(h) A "Commercial Bait Shrimp Boat," as used herein, means any boat or vessel which is required to be numbered or registered by and under the laws of the United States of America or of the State of Texas, and which is used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp for use as bait and other edible aquatic products from the inside waters of Texas for pay, or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange.

(i) A "Shrimp House Operator," as used herein, means any person other than one who has purchased a license as a 'Wholesale Fish Dealer' as that term is defined by Section 1(b) of Chapter 29, Forty-third Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1933,¹ who operates a shrimp house, plant or other establishment for compensation or profit for the purpose of unloading and handling from commercial gulf shrimp boats or commercial bay shrimp boats, fresh shrimp and other edible aquatic products caught or taken from the coastal waters of this State, or from salt waters outside of this State and brought into this State without having been previously unloaded in some other state or foreign country.

(j) A "Bait-Shrimp Dealer," as used herein, is any person other than one who has purchased a license as a "Wholesale Fish Dealer," as that term is defined by Section 1(b) of Chapter 29, Forty-third Legislature of Texas, First Called Session, 1933, who operates an established place of business in any coastal county of this State for compensation or profit for the purpose of handling shrimp caught or taken for use as bait from the inside waters of this State.

(k) An "Individual Bait-Shrimp Trawl," as used herein means any trawl, net or rig used for the purpose of taking or catching, or attempting to take or catch, shrimp for one's own personal use.

(l) The term "at any time," as used herein, means at any time of year, including both daytime and nighttime, and on any occasion.

Limits for inside and outside waters

Sec. 4. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person (except for catching bait shrimp or except as otherwise herein specifically provided) to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, at any time, in either the inside waters or in the outside waters of this State, any amount of shrimp which shall average in count of individual specimens more than sixty-five (65) headless fresh shrimp to the pound, or which shall average in count of individual specimens more than thirty-nine (39) heads-on fresh shrimp to the pound, or for any person (except for catching bait shrimp or except as otherwise specifically provided herein), at any time, to possess in the State of Texas, or have on board any boat or vessel within the coastal waters of this State, or to buy, sell, unload, transport or handle in any way, in the State of Texas, any amount of headless fresh shrimp which shall average in count of individual specimens more than sixty-five (65)

headless fresh shrimp to the pound, or which shall average in count of individual specimens more than thirty-nine (39) heads-on fresh shrimp to the pound, regardless of whether or not such small fresh shrimp of said count shall have been caught or taken in the coastal waters of the State of Texas or in waters outside of the State of Texas.

(b) The "count" of shrimp, as provided for herein, shall be taken in the presence of any person possessing said shrimp either as owner, employee, agent, bailee, or other custodian, by an officer, agent, deputy or warden of the Game and Fish Commission who shall select from the entire quantity of shrimp being sampled a minimum of not less than three (3) representative samples for each one thousand (1,000) pounds, or fraction thereof, of either headless or heads-on shrimp, but in any event not less than three (3) samples for the entire quantity of shrimp being sampled; each sample shall consist of a sufficient number of specimens to weigh out five (5) pounds after having been allowed to drain for three (3) minutes, or more; after said sample shall have been weighed and determined to weigh five (5) pounds, the number of specimens in said five (5) pound sample shall be counted, and the count thus obtained shall then be divided by five (5) in order to ascertain the count per pound of such five (5) pound sample; after counts shall have been thus made of all samples taken of such entire quantity of shrimp, the average count per pound of each sample taken shall be totaled and the final average count per pound of the entire quantity of shrimp being sampled shall be determined by dividing that total by the number of samples counted; and such average count per pound so determined shall constitute prima facie evidence of the average count per pound of said shrimp in the entire cargo or quantity of shrimp sampled. Headless and heads-on shrimp shall always be sampled, weighed and counted separately.

(c) In the event shrimp, which when caught and landed were of legal size according to the count as herein provided, are thereafter graded for size for the purpose of packaging, processing or other lawful purpose, and the smaller shrimp making up the average count of such entire lot as herein provided are graded out into a separate lot or lots, and such smaller shrimp thus segregated from such entire lot are above the average count as herein provided, the possession, purchase, sale, unloading, transportation or handling of such particular smaller graded shrimp shall not be unlawful.

Commercial bay shrimp boat license; procedures and regulations

Sec. 5. (a) It shall be unlawful for any commercial bay shrimp boat to be used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp and other edible aquatic products from the inside waters of Texas, without the owner thereof having first procured a license, to be known as a Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License, from the Commission privileging such boat to be so used within the inside waters of Texas. The fee for a Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License shall be Thirty Dollars ($30) and such License shall be issued for a period of one (1) year and shall expire March 1st of the year following the date of issuance, and shall be secured from and issued by the Commission only during the months of January and February of each year; the License shall include the right to use and operate within the inside waters of this State all shrimp trawls and fishing gear, except fish seines or nets, with which said boat is equipped, the use of which is not otherwise prohibited by law; and said boat shall not be required to also have a 'Commercial Fishing Boat License,' as provided by Section 3 of Chapter 68 of the Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1949, or other Statutes of this

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

State; ¹ but the captain and each paid member of the crew of said boat shall be required to have a Commercial Fisherman's License issued by the Commission, and said boat shall be required to be licensed as a commercial gulf shrimp boat in order to operate within the outside waters of this State; the Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License shall be a metal or plastic sign or emblem, of prescribed and uniform character and of a different color or design for each year, at least thirty-two (32) square inches in size, of a distinguishable character, color and design different from the emblem required of a commercial bait-shrimp boat or of a commercial gulf shrimp boat, issued by the Commission, and shall be prominently displayed on the bow, outside of the wheelhouse, or at other designated point on the outside of said boat as specified by said Commission and on each side of said boat, evidencing the payment of such boat License.

(b) Such Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License shall be issued by the Commission only to a person who, at the time he applies for such license, shall make a sworn affidavit that he will maintain adequate facilities to conduct such business and that he intends to derive the major portion of his livelihood from commercial shrimp fishery.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any commercial bait-shrimp boat to be used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp for use as bait only and other edible aquatic products from the inside waters of Texas, without the owner thereof having first procured a license, to be known as a Commercial Bait-Shrimp Boat License, from the Commission privileging such boat to be so used within the inside waters of Texas. The fee for a Commercial Bait-Shrimp Boat License shall be Thirty Dollars ($30) and such License shall expire August 31st following the date of issuance; the License shall include the right to use and operate within the inside waters of this State all shrimp trawls and fishing gear, except fish seines or nets, with which said boat is equipped, the use of which is not otherwise prohibited by law; and said boat shall not be required to also have a "Commercial Fishing Boat License" as provided by Section 3 of Chapter 68 of the Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1949, or other Statutes of this State; but the captain and each paid member of the crew of said boat shall be required to have a Commercial Fisherman's License issued by the Commission, and said boat shall be required to be licensed as a commercial gulf shrimp boat in order to operate within the outside waters of this State. The Commercial Bait-Shrimp Boat License shall be a metal or plastic sign or emblem, of prescribed and uniform character and of a different color or design for each year, at least thirty-two (32) square inches in size, of a distinguishable character, color and design different from the emblem of a commercial bay shrimp boat or of a commercial gulf shrimp boat, issued by the Commission, and shall be prominently displayed on the bow, outside of the wheelhouse, or at other designated point on the outside of said boat as specified by said Commission and on each side of said boat evidencing the payment of such boat License.

(d) Such License for a commercial bay shrimp boat or for a commercial bait-shrimp boat shall be issued by the Commission only upon presentation to the Commission by the boat owner of the boat's United States Bureau of Customs official document or the Texas certificate of number for a motor boat, and the name of the boat and the number appearing on said official document or Texas certificate of number shall be placed by the Commission on the certificate of the license issued by the Commission. Such License shall not be transferable except that it may be transferred, upon application by the owner to the Commission, from a boat that has been destroyed or lost to a boat acquired by the owner thereof as a replacement. Not more than one Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License and not more than one Commercial Bait-Shrimp Boat License shall be issued per licensing year for each boat.

(e) A Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License may be issued by the Commission in some month other than January or February, in the event, and only in the event, the applicant therefor has acquired, subsequent to the last day of February of the year for which license is sought, title to a shrimp boat, either by purchase or by having a new boat constructed, and makes affidavit of such fact and also makes further affidavit that prior to said last day of February applicant had not entered into an agreement to acquire such boat.

Taking of shrimp in inside waters

Sec. 6. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, shrimp of any size or species within the inside waters of the State of Texas, except as hereinafter specifically provided.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, shrimp of any size or species within the natural or man-made passes leading from the inside waters to the outside waters of this State.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person (except for catching bait-shrimp as otherwise provided herein) to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, in the inside waters of this State, shrimp of any size or species, or to use or operate any net or trawl in the inside waters of this State for the purpose of taking or catching, or attempting to take or catch, shrimp, except during the period beginning thirty (30) minutes before sunrise and ending thirty (30) minutes after sunset.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to head any shrimp aboard a boat or vessel within the inside waters of this State, or to dump or deposit any shrimp heads in the inside waters of this State except in artificial passes, canals or basins.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any person to have on board a boat in the inside waters of Texas for use on said inside waters more than one set of trawl doors (or other spreading device) and more than one set of try-net doors, except during the period from August 15th to December 15th, both dates inclusive.

(f) It shall be lawful for any bona fide licensed commercial bay shrimp boat operator to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, shrimp of lawful size of any species within the major bays, as herein defined, during the period from August 15th to December 15th of each year, both dates inclusive (said period being designated as the 'open season' for any such commercial bay shrimp boat operators), provided, however:

1. During the open season for shrimping in the major bays of this State as herein provided, it shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, shrimp of any size or species in said major bays of this State with more than one (1) net, except a try net as hereinafter provided, or with a net of a size exceeding sixty-five (65) feet in width as measured along the corkline from board to board or between the extremes of any other spreading device.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to use, or to have in his possession, within the inside waters of this State, or on board any boat or vessel within such inside waters, any try net or test net exceeding twelve (12) feet in width as measured along the corkline from board to board; and it shall be unlawful for any person (except for catching bait-shrimp or except as otherwise herein provided) to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, any shrimp within the inside waters of this State with, or to have in possession in the State of Texas, or on board any boat or vessel within the coastal waters of this State, for use in said inside waters, any trawl and bag (other than a try net or test net) of a mesh size such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said trawl or bag is less than eight and three-quarters ($8\frac{3}{4}$) inches in length after said trawl or bag has been placed in use. Such measurement shall be made in the section of said trawl which is normally under tension when in use.

(g) It shall be lawful for any bona fide commercial bay shrimp boat operator to take or catch, or to attempt to take or catch, shrimp of any size or species during the period from May 15th to July 15th, both dates inclusive, within the major bays of the inside waters of this State; provided, however:

1. It shall be unlawful for any bona fide commercial bay shrimp boat operator during said period from May 15th to July 15th to take or catch more than three hundred (300) pounds of shrimp per boat per calendar day, or to have in his possession or on board any boat on the inside waters of this State, or to unload or attempt to unload at any point in the State of Texas, more than three hundred (300) pounds of shrimp. Such shrimp shall be in their natural state with heads attached.

2. It shall be unlawful for any bona fide commercial bay shrimp boat operator during said period from May 15th to July 15th to use in said major bays of the inside waters of this State for the purpose of taking or catching, or attempting to take or catch, shrimp more than one (1) net at a time (except for a try net), or to use any net exceeding twenty-five (25) feet in width as measured along the corkline from board to board or between the extremes of any other spreading device, or to use any net or bag of a mesh size such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said net or bag is less than six and one half ($6\frac{1}{2}$) inches in length after such net or bag has been placed in use.

(h) It shall be lawful for any bona fide licensed commercial bait-shrimp boat operator to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, within the inside waters of this State, shrimp of any size or species, for use as bait only; provided, however:

1. It shall be unlawful for any such commercial bait-shrimp boat operator to take or catch more than one hundred and fifty (150) pounds of shrimp per boat per calendar day, or to have in his possession or on board any boat, or to unload or attempt to unload at any point in Texas, more than one hundred and fifty (150) pounds of shrimp. Such shrimp shall be in their natural state with heads attached.

2. It shall be unlawful for any bona fide licensed commercial bait-shrimp boat to use in the inside waters of this State, at any time, for the purpose of taking or catching, or attempting to take or catch, shrimp for bait, more than one (1) net at a time (except that one try net not exceeding five (5) feet in width as measured along the corkline from board to board may be also used) or to use any net exceeding in width twenty-five (25) feet as measured along the corkline from board to board or between the extremes of any other spreading device, or to use any net or bag of a mesh size such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said net or bag is less than six and one half (6½) inches in length after said net has been placed in use.

3. It shall be unlawful for any bona fide commercial bait-shrimp boat operator to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, shrimp for use as bait between sunset and sunrise except during the period beginning December 16th of each year and ending August 14th of the following year, both dates inclusive. Provided, however, that bait shrimp may be taken at any time of the day or night in the waters of the Laguna Madre.

4. It shall be unlawful for any bona fide commercial bait-shrimp boat operator, at any time, to sell or unload any shrimp caught under the provisions of this Act to any person except to a bona fide bait-shrimp dealer, as that term is herein defined, or except to a sports fisherman while operating a boat or vessel on the inside waters.

Commercial gulf shrimp boat license; fee; display; taking of shrimp in outside waters

Sec. 7. (a) It shall be unlawful for any commercial gulf shrimp boat to be used for the purpose of taking or catching, or assisting in taking or catching, shrimp and other edible aquatic products from the outside waters of Texas, or for any such boat which has on board fresh shrimp or other edible aquatic products caught or taken from the outside waters of this State, or from salt waters outside of this State without having been previously unloaded in some other state or foreign country, to unload, or to be permitted to unload, said shrimp and other edible aquatic products at any port or other point in Texas, without the owner thereof having first procured a license, to be known as a Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat License, from the Commission privileging such boat to be so used or to so unload its cargo. The fee for a Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat License shall be Thirty Dollars ($30) and such license shall expire August 31st following the date of issuance, and said Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat License shall include the right to use and operate all shrimp trawls and fishing gear, except fish seines or nets, with which said boat is equipped, the use of which is not otherwise prohibited by law, and said boat shall not be required to also have a 'Commercial Fishing Boat License' as provided for by Section 3 of Chapter 68 of the Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1949,¹ or other Statutes of this State, but the captain and each paid member of the crew of said boat shall be required to have a commercial fisherman's license issued by the Commission. A metal or plastic plate or emblem of a prescribed and uniform character and of a different color or design for each year, at least thirty-two (32) square inches in size, issued by the Commission, shall be prominently displayed on the bow, outside of the wheelhouse, or at other designated point on the outside of said boat specified by the said Commission and on each side of said boat, evidencing the payment of such boat license.

(b) Such Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat License shall be issued by the Commission only upon presentation to the Commission by the boat owner of the boat's United States Bureau of Customs official document or the Texas Certificate of number for a motor boat, and the name of the boat and the number appearing on said official document or Texas Certificate of number shall be placed by the Commission on the certificate of the Commercial Gulf Shrimp Boat License issued by the Commission. Such License shall not be transferable except that it may be transferred, upon application by the owner to the Commission, from a boat that has been destroyed or lost to a boat acquired by the owner thereof as a replacement. Not more than one (1) Commerical Gulf Shrimp Boat License shall be issued per licensing year for each boat.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, any shrimp, regardless of size or species, in any of the outside waters of the State of Texas from June 1st to July 15th, both dates inclusive, of each year; provided, however, that, based upon sound biological data, the Game and Fish Commission of Texas may, and it is hereby empowered to, change the opening and closing dates of said forty-five-day period so as to provide for an earlier period beginning not to exceed fifteen (15) days prior to June 1st or for a later period ending not to exceed fifteen (15) days after July 15th, provided further that said closed season shall always be for a period of forty-five (45) days. It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to possess in the State of Texas, or to have on board any boat or vessel within the coastal waters of this State, or to buy, sell, unload, transport or handle in any way, in the State of Texas, any such shrimp caught in any of the outside waters of this State during such closed season for said outside waters. Provided, however, it shall be lawful during said forty-five-day closed season for any bona fide commercial gulf shrimp boat operator to take or catch white shrimp in the outside waters of this State not exceeding a depth of four (4) fathoms; provided, however, it shall be unlawful to use more than one (1) net at a time and such trawl shall not exceed twenty-five (25) feet in width as measured along the corkline, from board to board (or any other spreading device).

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, shrimp of any size or species, in the outside waters extending from the coast line of Texas up to and including seven (7) fathoms in depth during the period beginning thirty (30) minutes after sunset and ending thirty (30) minutes before sunrise.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, shrimp in the outside waters extending from the coast line of Texas up to and including seven (7) fathoms in depth during the period beginning December 16 of each year and ending on February 1 of the following year, both dates inclusive.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any person at any time to catch or take any shrimp within the outside waters of this State with, or to have in possession in the State of Texas or on board any boat or vessel within the coastal waters of this State, any trawl for use in said outside waters, other than a try net or test net of a mesh size such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said trawl is less than eight and three quarters ($8\frac{3}{4}$) inches in length after such trawl has been placed in use. Such measurement shall be made in the section of said trawl which is normally under tension when in use. Any try net or test net used shall not exceed twelve (12) feet as measured from board to board, or between the extremes of any other spreading device.

(g) The foregoing Sections 4, 7(e) and 7(f) of this Act shall not apply to the taking or catching of seabobs; provided, however, it shall be unlawful for any commercial gulf shrimp boat operator at any time to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, seabobs in the outside waters with more than one trawl at a time and such trawl shall not exceed twenty-five (25) feet in width as measured along the corkline from board to board (or any other spreading device), and the mesh size of said trawl shall be such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said trawl shall be not less than six and one half ($6\frac{1}{2}$) inches in length after such trawl has been placed in use. Provided, further, that it shall be unlawful for any person taking or catching seabobs under this provision to take or catch, or have on board a vessel, any other species of shrimp which shall exceed ten per cent (10%), in weight or numbers, of the entire catch.

¹Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 934b-2.

Possession of salt water shrimp after end of season;
use of nonconforming trawls

Sec. 8. (a) Salt-water shrimp in their fresh state, legally taken in either the inside waters or in the outside waters of this State during the open season thereof, may be had in possession for a period of five (5) days after the end of such open season, but not thereafter except by a bona fide licensed bait dealer or sports fisherman as otherwise provided herein.

(b) All legal trawls in use or on hand at the time of the final passage of this Act which do not conform to the specifications of this Act may nevertheless be used, subject to the other specifications of this Act, not later than May 1, A.D. 1964, and not thereafter, but whenever a trawl which was in use or on hand at the final passage of this Act is replaced it shall be replaced with a trawl conforming to all of the specifications of this Act.

Shrimp house operator's license; fee

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful for any shrimp house operator to unload or handle from any commercial gulf shrimp boat or commercial bay shrimp boat fresh shrimp or other edible aquatic products caught or taken from the coastal waters of this State, or from salt waters outside of this State and brought into this State without having been previously unloaded in some other state or foreign country, without the owner thereof having first procured a license, to be known as a Shrimp House Operator's License, from the Commission privileging such shrimp house operator to so unload or handle such fresh shrimp. The fee for a Shrimp House Operator's License shall be Fifty Dollars ($50), and said License shall expire August 31 following the date of issuance.

Bait-shrimp dealer's license; fee; sale of fish bait

Sec. 10. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of a bait-shrimp dealer, as that term is herein defined, without having first procured from the Commission a Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License for each bait stand or place of business maintained by such person. The fee for each such Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License shall be Thirty Dollars ($30) and said License shall expire August 31 following the date of issuance. The Commission shall issue such a Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License only after said Commission has determined as far as practicable that the applicant for such Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License is a bona fide bait-shrimp dealer as that term is now or hereafter defined by law, and no Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License shall be held by any person who also holds a Shrimp House Operator's License.

(b) Such Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License shall include the right to sell, purchase and handle minnows, fish and other forms of aquatic life for the purpose of sale or resale for fish bait purposes, within the coastal counties of this State. The license for a bait dealer as provided for by Acts of 1933, First Called Session, Forty-third Legislature, Chapter 29, Section 2, and as provided for by Acts of 1933, First Called Session, Forty-third Legislature, Chapter 29, Section 3, as last amended by Acts of 1935, Forty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 345, and Acts of 1945, Forty-ninth Legislature, Chapter 209,¹ shall continue in full force and effect as to all counties except the coastal counties of this State and as to any bait dealer in said coastal counties who do not sell or offer for sale or handle shrimp for sale or resale for bait purposes, provided, that any grocery stores in said coastal counties which do not unload or purchase shrimp directly from commercial bait-shrimp boats shall not be required to hold a Bait-Shrimp Dealer's License.

Use of cast nets, dip nets, bait traps or minnow seines; individual bait-shrimp trawl license; fee

Sec. 11. (a) It shall be lawful for any person to take or catch, or attempt to take or catch, in the coastal waters of this State, shrimp for use as bait, by the use of any "individual bait-shrimp trawl" as defined herein, a cast net, dip net, bait trap or minnow seine not larger than twenty (20) feet in length manually operated on foot only without the use of any mechanical means or devices.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession or on board any boat or vessel in the coastal waters of this State any individual bait-shrimp trawl without the owner thereof having first procured a license, to be known as an "Individual Bait-Shrimp Trawl License" from the Commission privileging such trawl to be used within the coastal waters of this State; and the fee for such License shall be Three Dollars ($3) and said License shall expire on August 31 following the date of its issuance.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to use, or to have within his possession or on board any boat or vessel in the coastal waters of this State any individual bait-shrimp trawl having a mesh size such that the distance between the two (2) most widely separated knots in any consecutive series of five (5) stretched meshes of said trawl is less than eight and three-quarters ($8\frac{3}{4}$) inches in length after said trawl has been placed in use and the distance between the doors or boards or other spreading devices shall not exceed twenty (20) feet, with doors or boards not to exceed dimensions of fifteen (15) inches by thirty (30) inches each, or a total of four hundred and fifty (450) square inches each, and it shall be unlawful to have in possession or to use more than one (1) such individual bait-shrimp trawl per boat.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person taking or catching, or attempting to take or catch, shrimp for his own use under the provisions of this Act by means of an individual bait-shrimp trawl to have within his possession or on board any boat or vessel within the coastal waters of this State more than two (2) quarts of shrimp per person, or more than four (4) quarts per boat to be used for bait purposes only; provided, however, any person may take or catch shrimp for his own personal use in an amount not to exceed one hundred (100) pounds of shrimp (in their natural state with heads attached) per day but only during the open season of the inside waters from August 15 to December 15 and of the outside waters of this State, each respectively, and an amount not to exceed fifteen (15) pounds of shrimp (in their natural state with heads attached) per day during the period May 15 to July 15, both dates inclusive, in the major bays of the inside waters only, by means of said individual bait-shrimp trawl or of said cast net, dip net, bait trap or minnow seine. Provided, further, that it shall be unlawful for any person to buy, sell, offer for sale or handle in any way for profit any shrimp so caught.

(e) It shall be lawful for any person to possess and use, until August 31, 1963, any duly tagged and licensed 'sports bait-shrimp trawl' as defined, and meeting the size and dimensions as specified, in House Bill

No. 12, Chapter 187, Acts of the Fifty-sixth Legislature of Texas, 1959,¹ known as the Texas Shrimp Conservation Act.

Transporting trawls and spreading devices in coastal waters of Orange and Jefferson counties

Sec. 11A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, it shall be lawful to possess or have on board any boat in the coastal waters of Orange or Jefferson County any trawl and the spreading device therefor which may be lawfully used in the coastal waters of another state, provided (1) that such trawl and equipment are immediately en route to or from a home port or destination on land, (2) that such trawl and equipment have been used during open season on shrimp in such state, and (3) that such trawl and equipment are not used or intended for use in the coastal waters of this State in violation of this Act. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1008, ch. 415, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Use of commercial bay-bait shrimp boat license; license fees as privilege tax; remission of moneys; use

Sec. 12. (a) Any valid "Commercial Bay-Bait Shrimp Boat License," as provided for in House Bill No. 12, Chapter 187, Acts of the Fifty-sixth Legislature of Texas, 1959,¹ which has been issued by the Commission during the months of January and February, 1963, may be used by the holder thereof in lieu of a Commercial Bay Shrimp Boat License or of a Commercial Bait-Shrimp Boat License until the first day of March A.D. 1964.

(b) The license fees provided for herein are hereby expressly declared to be a privilege tax for the privilege of taking or catching, attempting to take or catch, buying, selling, unloading, transporting or handling, in any manner, any shrimp within the jurisdiction of this State.

All moneys received from the sale of licenses provided for herein and all moneys received from penalties assessed for violation of this Act, after deduction of fees as allowed by law, shall be remitted to the Game and Fish Commission at Austin not later than the tenth day of the month following the date of collection, and shall be deposited by said Commission in the State Treasury to the credit of the Special Game and Fish Fund. The proceeds of such licenses shall be used by the Game and Fish Commission to enforce the provisions of this Act and the laws of this State relating to shrimping, salt-water fishing, oystering, and other commercial edible aquatic life.

Violations and penalties

Sec. 13. (a) Any person who shall violate any provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be, for the first offense, fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200); and, for the second offense, shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or be sentenced to serve not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days in the county jail or shall be punished by both such fine and imprisonment; and, for the third and all subsequent offenses, shall be fined not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) nor more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) and shall be confined in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(b) Whenever a vessel is involved in the violation of any provision of this Act, without in anywise detracting from or mitigating against the presumption of innocence, the captain of said vessel may be considered primarily responsible for such violation, and each member of the crew may also be held responsible therefor, but the punishment for such violation shall be assessed only against the captain and crew members, or one or more of them, actually found to be guilty thereof. The owner of said vessel shall not be guilty of such violation unless it be also charged and proved that such owner knowingly directed, authorized, permitted, agreed to, or aided or acquiesced in such violation.

(c) Each day on which a violation occurs shall be considered, and is hereby expressly defined, declared and made a separate, distinct and new offense.

(d) Upon conviction, for the third and all subsequent offenses, of violating any provision of this Act, any and all licenses under which the operations involved in the violation are being conducted, issued by the Commission, shall automatically be cancelled, and such licenses shall not thereafter be renewed or reissued for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of conviction.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate in any manner upon any of the coastal waters of this State without having first secured the proper and appropriate license required by this Act and any person failing or refusing to secure such license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as for a violation of any other provision of this Act.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any person whose license has been cancelled as herein provided to do business without a new license or to possess another license for the prohibited period and any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be punished by a fine of not less than Two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) and shall be confined in the county jail for not less than six (6) months nor more than one (1) year.

(g) Any shrimp house operator, wholesale fish dealer, retail fish dealer, wholesale truck dealer, retail truck dealer or other person holding a license issued by the Commission who knowingly unloads, buys, or handles in any way any shrimp from an unlicensed commercial gulf shrimp boat, or unlicensed commercial bay shrimp boat, or who knowingly unloads, buys or handles in any way any shrimp of a prohibited size, or shrimp which has been caught in either the inside or outside waters of this State during the closed season of such waters, or bait shrimp in violation of any provision of this Act, or any bait shrimp dealer who knowingly unloads, buys or handles in any way from an unlicensed commercial bait-shrimp boat any bait shrimp shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall suffer the same penalties of fine, or imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment, and automatic cancellation of license, as provided by this Act for the violation of other provisions of this Act.

(h) For the purposes of this Act the words 'second offense' and the words 'third and subsequent offenses' shall be construed to mean offenses for which convictions have been obtained within three (3) years prior to the date of the offense charged.

Deputies and wardens; patrol vessels or aircraft

Sec. 14. An adequate number of deputies and wardens and of patrol vessels or aircraft shall be employed by the Commission in the coastal counties and coastal waters of this State in enforcing the provisions of this Act and the laws of this State relating to shrimp, salt-water fishing, oysters, and other commercial edible aquatic life. Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 407, ch. 187, as amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 895, ch. 340, § 1.

Emergency. Effective May 31, 1963.

Savings Provision

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 757, ch. 287, which is incorporated in the Penal Code in a note under article 978j, and which, inter alia, prohibits the taking of fish, aquatic life or marine animals from the waters within Cameron, Jim Wells, Hidalgo and Starr Counties, including the waters and abutting waters of Laguna Madre, but excluding the waters of the Gulf of Mexico, provides in section 15 that the Act shall not suspend or otherwise affect the Texas Shrimp Conservation Act, insofar as it relates to shrimping activities in outside waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1963 repealed all conflicting general and special laws and parts thereof to the extent of the conflict.

Section 1. Any person, hospital, sanitorium, nursing or rest home, medical society, cancer registry, or other organization may provide information, interviews, reports, statements, memoranda, or other data relating to the condition and treatment of any person to the State Department of Health, medical organizations, hospitals and hospital committees, to be used in the course of any study for the purpose of reducing morbidity or mortality, and no liability of any kind or character for damages or other relief shall arise or be enforced against any person or organization by reason of having provided such information or material, or by reason of having released or published the findings and conclusions of such groups to advance medical research and medical education, or by reason of having released or published generally a summary of such studies.

Sec. 2. The State Department of Health, medical organizations, hospitals and hospital committees shall use or publish said material only for the purpose of advancing medical research or medical education in the interest of reducing morbidity or mortality, except that a summary of such studies may be released by any such group for general publication. In all events the identity of any person whose condition or treatment has been studied shall be confidential and shall not be revealed under any circumstances. All information, interviews, reports, statements, memoranda, or other data furnished by reason of this Act and any findings or conclusions resulting from such studies are declared to be privileged. 4476—5. Texas Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act [New].

Art. 4476—5. Texas Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act

Federal prosecutions as bar to state prosecutions; abatement of proceedings

Sec. 22A. (a) Prosecution had or pending by the Federal Government, or any of its agents, involving the first processing of agricultural products, against any person subject to federal jurisdiction in such matters, for criminal or civil penalties, shall constitute complete defense against prosecution by the State of Texas, or any of its agencies, against such person for violation of any provision of this Act involving substantially the same facts and same subject matter as involved in such federal proceedings, regardless of similarity or dissimilarity as between the sanctions and penalties of the federal and state statutes or regulations, and regardless of the result of such federal prosecution or procedure.

(b) Proceedings pending or in active preparation through which the Federal Government seeks confiscation, destruction, decontamination, condemnation, or mutation of agricultural products subject to such federal controls or procedures and subject to controls established in this Act, upon appropriate pleading will serve as abatement of any proceedings or cause of action for the same purpose involving the same person, or persons, and the same subject matter that may be brought by the State of Texas, or any of its agencies, through court or administrative proceedings.

(c) Compliance in good faith by any person subject to federal jurisdiction in such matters, with orders, directives or judgments issued or secured by or at the instance of the Federal Drug Administration, or any other federal agency, in respect to the acquirement, use, or operation of any product, process, plant, device, or machinery, used or useful in the first processing of agricultural products, shall constitute a bar to any criminal, civil, or administrative procedure brought by or at the instance of the Commissioner of Health, or other state agency, under or by virtue of provisions of this Act, to the extent that such state procedure may duplicate, overlap, or conflict with such federal orders, directives, or judgment.

(d) The provisions of this Section shall apply only to the business activity of cotton seed crushing and processing and to only those persons who are engaged in interstate commerce and subject to both federal and state inspection. Provided further, that the provisions of this Section shall apply only to situations where there is a conflict in the federal and state laws. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1176, ch. 461, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Registration statement of wholesalers and distributors; contents; fees; revocation or suspension of registration

Sec. 23. 1. No person shall hereinafter engage or continue to engage in the wholesale drug business in this State without first filing a registration statement with the Commissioner of Health. For the purposes of this Act, the words "wholesale drug business" shall be defined as meaning persons engaged in the business of wholesale distribution of drugs and medicines bearing the legend: "Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription."

2. The registration statement, which shall be signed and verified, shall be made on such forms as shall be furnished by the Commissioner of Health and shall provide the following information:

(a) The name under which the business is conducted.

(b) The address of each place of business in the State being registered.

(c) If proprietorship, the name and resident address of the proprietor; if a partnership, the names and resident addresses of all partners; if a corporation, the date and place of incorporation; or if any other type of association, then the names and addresses of the principals of such association.

(d) The names and resident addresses of those individuals in actual administrative capacity which, in the case of proprietorship, shall be the managing proprietor; partnership, the managing partner; corporation, the officers and directors; or those in a managerial capacity in any other type of association.

(e) For each place of business in the State, the resident address of the individuals in charge thereof.

3. The registration statement shall be filed within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this Act or prior to commencing business as a wholesale drug company and annually thereafter on or before the first day of September in each calendar year.

4. The initial and annual fee for registration which shall accompany the registration statement shall be Ten Dollars ($10) for a single place of business and Five Dollars ($5) for each additional place of business listed thereon.

5. In the event the location of a registered place of business shall be changed, the registrant shall notify the Commissioner of Health, in writing, of the address of such new location and the name and resident address of the individual in charge thereof. The fee to accompany such notification shall be Five Dollars ($5) unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Health that the change of location is of a temporary nature due to fire, flood or other disaster.

6. The Commissioner of Health may, after notice and hearing, cancel, revoke or suspend the registration of any wholesale drug company for any of the following reasons:

(a) If the registrant has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude, or if the registrant be an association, partnership or corporation, that the managing officer has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude;

(b) That the registrant has been convicted in either a State or Federal court for the illegal use, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors, narcotic drugs, barbiturates, amphetamines, desoxyephedrine, their compounds or derivatives, or any other habit-forming drugs, or if the registrant be an association, partnership, or corporation, that the managing officer has been convicted in either State or Federal court of the illegal use, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors, narcotic drugs, barbiturates, amphetamines, desoxyephedrine, their compounds or derivatives, or any other dangerous or habit-forming drugs;

(c) That the registrant has sold counterfeit drugs and medicines, or has sold without prescription drugs and medicines bearing the legend: 'Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription' to persons other than those entitled to possession of them under Section 5, Article 725b, Vernon's Penal Code of the State of Texas.

7. Any registrant whose registration has been cancelled, revoked or suspended by the Commissioner of Health pursuant to the preceding Section shall have the right to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction in his county of residence. Such appeal shall be de novo as appeals from justice courts to county courts, and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply.

8. Any person who engages or continues to engage in the wholesale drug business without having first complied with requirements of this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

9. Any person engaged in the wholesale drug business who has in his possession drugs and medicines bearing the legend: "Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription" who has not complied with the requirements of this Section by being registered with the Commissioner of Health shall be fined an amount not exceeding Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) or confined in jail for a period of not less than thirty (30) days nor more than two (2) years or by both such fine and imprisonment. For any second or subsequent violation of this Section, any person so violating the same shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two (2) years nor more than ten (10) years; provided that upon any second or subsequent conviction the benefits of the suspended sentence law shall not be available to a defendant convicted for such a violation of the provisions of this Section; provided further that any person convicted of any second or subsequent violation of this Section shall be entitled to the benefits of probation under the Adult Probation and Parole Law, as provided therein.

10. The fees provided for in Subsections 4 and 5 shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the Food and Drug Registration Fee General Revenue account and shall be available for carrying out the provisions of this Act. Added Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1260, ch. 484.

Art. 4494n. County hospital districts; counties of 190,000 and Galveston County

Cumulative powers

Sec. 5b. The Board of Managers, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, shall have the power:

(a) To construct, condemn and purchase, purchase and acquire, lease, add to, maintain, operate, develop and regulate, sell, exchange and convey any and all lands, property, property rights, equipment, hospital facilities and systems for the maintenance of hospitals, buildings, structures, and any and all other facilities and services the hospital district may require or may have available to sell, lease or exchange;

(b) To further effectuate such powers, the Board of Managers, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, may cooperate and contract with the United States government, the State of Texas, any municipality or other hospital district, or any department of those governing bodies, or with any privately owned or operated hospital, corporate or otherwise, which privately owned or operated hospital is situated in the hospital district; provided, in the opinion of the Board of Managers and of the Commissioners Court, such a contract is deemed expedient and advantageous to the hospital district under existing circumstances, and be for such fair and reasonable compensation and on such other terms and for such length of time as may be deemed to further and assist the hospital district in performing its duty to provide medical and hospital care to needy inhabitants of the county.

(c) This amendment to Chapter 266, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, as amended (Article 4494—n, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes as amended), shall be considered and construed as more specifically expressing certain existing powers and cumulatively granting certain other powers to hospital districts created or which may be created under such Act. Art. 4494q—4. Hospital districts in Ochiltree, Hansford and Castro Counties

Purpose

Section 1. Upon the adoption of Article IX, Section 11, as a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 22 of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, this Act shall be operative so as to authorize the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of three (3) hospital districts within the State of Texas, each district to have boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of one of the following counties, to wit: Ochiltree, Hansford, and Castro; each of which districts shall have the powers and responsibilities provided by the aforesaid constitutional provision. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 484, ch. 173, § 1.

Emergency. Effective May 18, 1963.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 484, ch. 173, § 2, provided: "The organization and creation of Hospital Districts created or voted to be created by authority of Chapter 103, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961, and heretofore established or attempted to be established by the Commissioners Court of the county to which said law applies are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed in all respects to the same extent and to like effect as if duly and legally established in the first instance. All acts of the Commissioners Court of the counties of such districts in ordering an election or elections, submitting to a vote of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters who had duly rendered their property for taxation, the proposition of whether or not a hospital district with boundaries coexistent with the limits of the county should be created and established with authority to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation; and providing for the assumption by such district of all outstanding bonds heretofore issued by such county, and by any city in said city for hospital purposes, are hereby validated and confirmed. Such election or elections and all acts of the Commissioners Court in such counties in declaring the results thereof are hereof ratified, validated and confirmed. The fact that by inadvertence or oversight any act was omitted by the Commissioners Court or any official of any such county in ordering an election or elections or in giving sufficient statutory notice thereof or in declaring the results thereof shall in no wise invalidate any of such proceedings or the creation of the hospital district sought to be created by such proceedings, provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 2 shall not apply to validate any hospital district which on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation in any district court of this state, the Court of Civil Appeals, or the Supreme Court of Texas, at the effective date of this Act, in which litigation the validity of the organization or creation of such hospital district is attacked, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the organization or creation of the hospital district."

Amendment of Const. art. 9, § 9, proposed by S.J.R. No. 22, 57th Leg., 1961, was adopted at the general election Nov. 6, 1962.

Art. 4494q—5. Wichita County Hospital District

Creation of District

Sec. 3. Wichita County is hereby given authority to create a hospital district to be known as Wichita County Hospital District with boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Wichita County, and said District, if established, shall be for the purpose of operating the hospital facilities now known as the Wichita General Hospital, and such additional facilities as may be provided in the future, and to set up a procedure to furnish medical and hospital care to indigent persons residing in said Hospital District, provided that the District shall not be established unless and until an election is duly held in Wichita County for such purpose upon the following conditions:

The County Judge of Wichita County shall order an election held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days after a petition signed by a minimum of five hundred (500) resident qualified tax-paying voters of Wichita County is presented to the said County Judge requesting such election. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of the District the proposition for the creation of the Hospital District, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters participating in said election voting in favor of the proposition shall be necessary. The ballots at such election shall have printed thereon the following:

" FOR the creation of a Wichita County Hospital District and authorizing the levy of a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of taxable property in the District and for the assumption by the Hospital District of outstanding bonds theretofore issued by the County of Wichita and the City of Wichita Falls, Texas, for hospital purposes."

" AGAINST the creation of a Wichita County Hospital District and authorizing the levy of a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of taxable property in the District and for the assumption by the Hospital District of outstanding bonds theretofore issued by the County of Wichita and the City of Wichita Falls, Texas, for hospital purposes."

The petition which is presented to the County Judge requesting such election shall specify the tax rate to be inserted in the propositions printed on the ballot, but in no case shall same exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) per one hundred dollar valuation.

The maximum rate of tax may be changed at subsequent elections so long as obligations are not impaired, provided said maximum rate shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) per one hundred dollar valuation. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 491, § 1.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Management of the District

Sec. 4. In the event such election results favorably to the creation of the Hospital District, it shall be governed by a Board of Directors of the Wichita County Hospital District. The Board shall consist of seven (7) members who shall serve without pay. Each Director must be a resident of the District and must own land subject to taxation within the District and must be at the time of such election or appointment more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Said Board shall be selected in the following manner:

(a) In the first even-numbered calendar year after the creation of the District, there shall be elected one Director from each County Commissioners Precinct in Wichita County, which places shall carry the same number as the Precinct, and three (3) Directors from the District at large, which positions shall be designated as Place 5, Place 6 and Place 7. Only qualified electors residing in each County Commissioners Precinct shall be eligible to vote for the Director to be elected from that Precinct. All qualified electors residing in the County shall be eligible to vote for the three (3) Directors to be elected from Place 5, Place 6 and Place 7. The term of office of each Director shall be two (2) years, beginning on the first day of January following his election.

(b) Members of the existing Board of Directors of the Wichita General Hospital shall serve as interim directors until the first election shall be had and shall establish the procedure for filing for said Board. The date of the first election shall be the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the first even-numbered calendar year after the creation of the District, and succeeding elections shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each even-numbered calendar year thereafter. After said election, the elected Board of Directors shall have authority to set the procedure of said subsequent elections. Provided, however, that unless the first election called for by the provision hereof will occur within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the creation of such District, then in such event the interim directors shall call a special election for the election of a Board of Directors to serve until the first day of January following the election of a Board of Directors at the next regular election provided herein. Such special election shall be set not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the creation of such District.

(c) All vacancies in the Board of Directors of said District shall be filled through appointment by the remaining Board members for the unexpired term in the position vacated.

(d) At the first regular meeting following each election, the Board of Directors shall select one of its members as president and one of its members as secretary of said District. The Board of Directors shall have the power to establish rules of procedure for its meetings.

(e) At all meetings of said Board of Directors, at least four (4) Directors shall constitute a quorum. Any act by said Board of Directors shall require the affirmative vote of at least four (4) of the members of said Board. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 491, § 2.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Assumption of City and County Assets and Indebtedness

Sec. 5. All lands, buildings and equipment that at the time of creation of the District were owned jointly by the City of Wichita Falls and the County of Wichita, and which were acquired for the purpose of providing hospital service or care for indigent patients of Wichita County shall become the property of the Wichita County Hospital District, and the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wichita Falls shall provide by ordinance and the Commissioners Court of Wichita County shall provide by order that all property so owned shall be conveyed to the Wichita County Hospital District in consideration of the Hospital District assuming all debts and obligations arising from the acquisition, construction and operation of the Wichita General Hospital or other existing hospital facilities. The Hospital District, through its Board of Directors, shall by resolution accept said properties and shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations, including bonds and warrants, of such County and City.

All lands, buildings and equipment comprising what is known as the Wichita County Farm shall not be included among the properties which are so acquired by the Hospital District under this Section. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 491, § 3.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Issuance of Bonds; Levy of Tax

Sec. 6. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District shall have the power and authority to issue and sell its bonds in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of improvements and initially equipping the same for the hospital or hospital system, as such system may be defined by the Board, and for any or all of such purposes; and at the time of issuance of any such bonds a tax shall be levied by the Board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest on and principal of such bonds as same mature, provided said tax, together with any other taxes levied for said District, shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one (1) year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and in its behalf by the President of the Board and attested by the Secretary and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for approval and registration of bonds issued by counties. After approval of any such bonds by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller, said bonds shall be incontestable. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District, except refunding bonds, until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters residing in such Hospital District who own taxable property situated therein which has been duly rendered for taxation, voting at an election called and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended. Such election shall be called by the Board of Directors except as otherwise provided herein and shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of Texas pertaining to such elections. The Hospital District shall make provision for the payment of all costs of such elections.

In the manner hereinabove provided, the bonds of such District may, without the necessity of an election, be issued for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bonded indebtedness theretofore assumed or issued by such Hospital District. Such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or may be exchanged in whole or in part for not less than a like amount of said outstanding bonds and unpaid interest matured thereon; provided the interest cost on such refunding bonds, computed in accordance with recognized standard bond interest costs tables, shall not exceed the interest cost so computed upon the bonds to be refunded. In the foregoing computations, any premiums required to be paid upon the bonds to be refunded as a condition to payment in advance of their stated maturity dates shall be taken into account and added to the net interest cost to the Hospital District of the refunding bonds.

If the County of Wichita and/or the City of Wichita Falls has voted bonds to provide hospital facilities, but such bonds have not been sold at the date of the creation of the Hospital District, the authority for such bonds shall be canceled, and they shall not be sold.

The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority and it shall be its duty to levy taxes on all property, subject to taxation within the District, and said levy shall be made at the same time taxes are levied for County purposes. The Board of Directors shall use the assessed values of Wichita County, and shall have the authority to contract with the Commissioners Court of Wichita County for the assessment and collection of taxes, and to pay for such services, not to exceed one and one half per cent (1½%) of all taxes assessed and collected by Wichita County for the benefit of Wichita County Hospital District. Taxes may be levied for the following purposes: (1) pay the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may have been assumed by the District or which may be issued by the District for hospital purposes, (2) to provide for the operation and maintenance of the hospital or hospital system, (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary land therefor by purchase, lease or eminent domain.

The Board of Directors shall have the authority to levy the tax in the year in which the said District is established for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the District and to pay the amounts due on any assumed indebtedness. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1276, ch. 491, § 4.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 4494q—6. Hospital district in Brazoria County

Conditional Enactment

This article, which authorized the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County to establish certain hospital districts, was enacted by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 1157, ch. 524, subject to adoption of an amendment of Const. art. 9, § 10(a), proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 70, 57th Legislature (Laws 1961, p. 1318).

The proposed constitutional amendment was submitted to the voters at the general election on November 6, 1962, but was not adopted. Accordingly, article 4494q—6 did not become operative and the text is omitted.

Art. 4494q—6a. West Columbia—Brazoria and Damon Hospital District

Creation of district; boundaries

Section 1. In accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, Constitution of the State of Texas, this Act shall be operative so as to authorize the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of a hospital district within the State of Texas, to be known as the West Columbia-Brazoria and Damon Hospital District. The District shall have the rights, powers and duties as are herein prescribed. The boundaries of the District shall be coterminous with the Damon Independent School District and the West Columbia-Brazoria Independent School District except the following described property which formerly comprised the "old Brazoria School District" prior to February 28, 1959, to wit:

Purpose of district; election; ballots

Sec. 2. The Hospital District herein authorized to be created, shall provide for the establishment of a hospital system to furnish medical and hospital care to persons residing in said Hospital District by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements; and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. Such Hospital District shall not be created nor shall such tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such taxes are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting in an election called for such purpose. Such election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court of Brazoria County upon its own motion or upon a petition of one hundred (100) resident qualified property taxpaying electors, residing within the boundaries of the proposed Hospital District, to be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the time said election is ordered by the Commissioners Court.

The order calling the election shall specify the time and place or places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. At such election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors the proposition of whether or not West Columbia-Brazoria and Damon Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting in said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the creation of a Hospital District; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, and using Brazoria County, Texas, values and the Brazoria County, Texas, tax roll"; and

"AGAINST the creation of a Hospital District; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, and using Brazoria County, Texas, values and the Brazoria County, Texas, tax roll."

Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in West Columbia-Brazoria and Damon Hospital District once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election.

The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose.

Board of directors; officers

Sec. 3. Within ten (10) days after such election is held the Commissioners Court in such County shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and if a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors voting at said election voted in favor of the proposition, the Court shall so find and declare the Hospital District established and created and appoint five (5) persons as Directors of the Hospital District to serve until the first

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Saturday in April following the creation and establishment of the District at which time five (5) Directors shall be elected. The three (3) Directors receiving the highest vote at such first election shall serve for two (2) years, the other two (2) Directors shall serve for one year. Thereafter, all Directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the Board of Directors of said Hospital District unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the Board of Directors shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the District for safekeeping.

The Board of Directors shall organize by electing one of their number as president and one of their number as secretary. Any three (3) members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of three (3) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District. All vacancies in the office of Director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the Board of Directors. In the event the number of Directors shall be reduced to less than three (3) for any reason, the remaining Directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a district court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the District, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining Directors.

A regular election of Directors shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County one time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for Director shall file a petition, signed by not less than twenty-five (25) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the Board of Directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election.

Management and control of district

Sec. 4. The management and control of each Hospital District created pursuant to the provisions of this Act is hereby vested in the Board of Directors of the District who shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties upon the approval of such expenses by the entire Board of Directors.

Levy and collection of taxes

Sec. 5. Upon the creation of such Hospital District, the Board of Directors shall have the power and authority and it shall be their duty to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the District at the same time taxes are levied for county purposes, using the county values and the county tax roll, a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of: (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may be issued by the Hospital District for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the Hospital District and hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

Not later than October 1 of each year, the Board of Directors shall levy the tax on all taxable property within the District which is subject to taxation and shall immediately certify such tax rate to the tax assessor and collector of the County in which the District is located. The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the County on the county tax values, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes. The assessor and collector of taxes shall charge and deduct from payments to the Hospital District the fees for assessing and collecting the tax at the rate of not exceeding one per cent (1%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the Board of Directors but in no event in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for any one fiscal year. Such fees shall be deposited in the County's general fund, and shall be reported as fees of office of the tax assessor and collector.

Interest and penalties on taxes paid to the Hospital District shall be the same as for county taxes. The residue of tax collections, after deduction of discounts and fees for assessing and collecting, shall be deposited in the District depository; and such funds shall be withdrawn only as provided herein. All other income of the Hospital District shall be deposited in like manner with the District depository.

The Board of Directors shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District.

Authorization of bonds

Sec. 6. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to issue and sell as the obligations of such Hospital District, and in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District, bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospital purposes and for any or all of such purposes; provided, that a sufficient tax shall be levied to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest and principal as same matures providing said tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) in any one year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and on its behalf by the president of the Board of Directors, and countersigned by the secretary of the Board, and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval thereof by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and the registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for such approval and registration of bonds of counties of this State. Upon the approval of such bonds by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller the same shall be incontestable for any cause. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District (except refunding bonds) until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying electors, residing in such Hospital District, voting at an election called and held for such purpose. Such election may be called by the Board of Directors on its own motion, and the order calling said election shall specify the date of the election, the place or places where the election shall be held, the presiding officers thereof, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, maximum interest rate (not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum) and the maximum maturity date of such bonds (not to exceed forty (40) years from their date of issuance). Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election in a newspaper of general circulation in such county once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the date of election, the date of the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for the election. The cost of such election shall be paid by the Hospital District.

The bonds of the District may be made optional for redemption prior to their maturity date at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

The District may without an election issue the bonds to refund and pay off any validly issued and outstanding bonds heretofore issued by the District, provided any such refund bonds shall bear interest at the same rate or at a lesser rate than the bonds being refunded unless it be shown mathematically that a savings will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Purchases and expenditures; books and records; rules and regulations

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors of such District shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures by and for such Hospital District, and also shall prescribe all accounting and control procedures; the method of purchasing necessary supplies, materials and equipment; and shall have the power to adopt a seal for such District; and may employ a general manager, attorney, bookkeeper, architect, and any other employees deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the Hospital District.

All books, records, accounts, notices and minutes and all other matters of the District and the operation of its facilities shall, except as herein provided, be maintained at the office of the District and there be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

The Board of Directors is specifically empowered to adopt rules and regulations governing the operation of such District and its facilities which rules and regulations shall supplement but shall not contravene any of the provisions of this Act. Such rules and regulations may, upon approval of the Board of Directors, be published in booklet or pamphlet form at the expense of the District and may be made available to any taxpayer upon request.

Fiscal years; audit; annual budget

Sec. 8. The fiscal year of the Hospital District authorized to be established by the provisions hereof shall commence on October 1 of each year and end on the 30th day of September of the following year. The District Directors shall cause an annual independent audit to be made of the books and records of the District, such audit to be made covering such fiscal year, and the same shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and at the office of the District not later than December 31st of each year.

The Board of Directors shall each year cause a budget to be prepared showing the proposed expenditures and disbursements and the estimated receipts and collections for the following fiscal year and shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget after publication of a notice of hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the County at least once not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing. Any person who is a taxpayer of the District shall have the right to appear at the time and place designated in the notice and be heard with reference to any item shown in the proposed budget. The proposed budget shall also show the amount of taxes required to be levied and collected during such fiscal year and upon final approval of the budget, the Board of Directors shall levy such tax as may be required and certify the tax rate for such year to the county tax assessor and collector as provided in Section 5 hereof, and it shall be the duty of the said tax assessor and collector to assess and collect such tax.

Eminent domain

Sec. 9. A Hospital District organized in pursuance of this Act shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of the said District, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, powers, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided that the said District shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by paragraph No. 2 in Article 3268, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the said District, the District shall not be required to pay in advance or to give bond or other security for costs in the trial court, nor to give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas on any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any Court of Civil Appeals, or to the Supreme Court.

District depository

Sec. 10. Within thirty (30) days after appointment and qualification of the Board of Directors of a Hospital District, the said Directors shall by resolution designate a bank or banks within the County in which the District is located as the District's depository or treasurer and all funds of the District shall be secured in the manner now provided for the security of county funds. The depository shall serve for a period of two (2) years until a successor has been named.

Inspection of district

Sec. 11. The Hospital District established or maintained under provisions of this Act shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health or any State Board of Charities (or Public Welfare) that may hereafter be created, and resident officers shall admit such representatives into all Hospital District facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers and accounts pertaining to the Hospital District.

District alone to incur indebtedness for hospital purposes

Sec. 12. Except as herein provided, Brazoria County, or any city or town within the Hospital District, shall not levy any tax against any property within the Hospital District for hospital purposes; and such Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the furnishing of medical and hospital care for the needy and indigent persons residing in said Hospital District from the date that taxes are collected for the Hospital District.

Patients; inquiry as to ability to pay; liability of relative

Sec. 13. Whenever a patient residing in the Hospital District has been admitted to the facilities of the Hospital District, the Directors shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If they find that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the treasurer of the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The District shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the agent designated by the District to handle such affairs finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the person designated as aforesaid, the District's Directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which appeal shall lie to the District Court by either party to the dispute.

Donations

Sec. 14. Said Board of Directors of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of said Hospital District to accept donations, gifts and endowments for the Hospital District to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objects of Hospital District.

Bonds eligible for investment and to secure deposits

Sec. 15. All bonds issued by or assumed by the Districts authorized to be established and created under the provisions of this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Suits

Sec. 16. The Hospital District created under the provisions of this Act shall be and is declared to be a political subdivision of the State of Texas, and as a governmental agency may sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such District.

Violation of constitutions; alternative procedures; partial invalidity

Sec. 17. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such Constitutions, the District shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such Constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the authorization for the creation of the District or the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have created the District and enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

Publication of notice

Sec. 18. Proof of publication of the constitutional notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of local and special laws and is hereby found and declared to be proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Art. 4494q—7. Hopkins County Hospital District

Amendment of Const. art. 9, § 9, proposed by S.J.R. No. 22, 57th Leg., 1961, was adopted at the general election Nov. 6, 1962.

Art. 4494q—8. Stonewall County Hospital District

Creation of district

Section 1. In accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, Constitution of the State of Texas, this Act shall be operative so as to authorize the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of a hospital district within the State of Texas, this district to have boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Stonewall County, Texas, to be known as Stonewall County Hospital District. This District shall have the rights, powers, and duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

Hospital system; tax; rate; election; petition and order; ballots

Sec. 2. The Hospital District herein authorized to be created, shall provide for the establishment of a hospital system to furnish medical and hospital care to persons residing in said Hospital District by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements; and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. Such Hospital District shall not be created nor shall such tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such taxes are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting in an election called for such purpose. Such election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court of Stonewall County upon its own motion or upon a petition of one hundred (100) resident qualified property taxpaying electors, residing within the boundaries of the proposed Hospital District, to be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the time said election is ordered by the Commissioners Court.

The order calling the election shall specify the time and place or places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding Judge for each voting place. At such election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors the proposition of whether or not Stonewall County Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting in said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

“FOR the creation of a hospital district; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation, and using Stonewall County, Texas, values and the Stonewall County, Texas, tax roll; and

“AGAINST the creation of a hospital district; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation, and using Stonewall County, Texas, values and the Stonewall County, Texas, tax roll.”

Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in Stonewall County Hospital District once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election.

The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose.

Canvass of returns; directors of district; appointment; terms of office; bond; officers

Sec. 3. Within ten (10) days after such election is held the Commissioners Court in such County shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and if a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors voting at said election voted in favor of the proposition, the Court shall so find and declare the Hospital District established and created and appoint five (5) persons as directors of the Hospital District to serve until the first Saturday in April following the creation and establishment of the District at which time five (5) directors shall be elected. The three (3) directors receiving the highest vote at such first election shall serve for two (2) years, the other two (2) directors shall serve for one year. Thereafter, all directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the board of directors of said Hospital District unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the board of directors shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the District for safekeeping.

The board of directors shall organize by electing one (1) of their number as president and one (1) of their number as secretary. Any three (3) members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of three (3) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District. All vacancies in the office of director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the board of directors. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than three (3) for any reason, the remaining directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a district court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the District, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining directors.

A regular election of directors shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for director shall file a petition, signed by not less than twenty-five (25) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the board of directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election.

Management and control of district

Sec. 4. The management and control of each Hospital District created pursuant to the provisions of this Act is hereby vested in the board of directors of the District who shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties upon the approval of such expenses by the entire board of directors.

Tax levy

Sec. 5. Upon the creation of such Hospital District, the board of directors shall have the power and authority and it shall be their duty to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the District at the same time taxes are levied for County purposes, using the County values and the County tax roll, a tax of not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of: (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may be issued by the Hospital District for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the Hospital District and hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

Not later than October 1st of each year, the board of directors shall levy the tax on all taxable property within the District which is subject to taxation and shall immediately certify such tax rate to the tax assessor and collector of the county in which the District is located. The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the county on the county tax values, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes. The assessor and collector of taxes shall charge and deduct from payments to the Hospital District the fees for assessing and collecting the tax at the rate of not exceeding one per cent (1%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the board of directors but in no event in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for any one (1) fiscal year. Such fees shall be deposited in the county's general fund, and shall be reported as fees of office of the tax assessor and collector. Interest and penalties on taxes paid to the Hospital District shall be the same as in the case of county taxes. Discounts shall be the same as for county taxes. The residue of tax collections, after deduction of discounts and fees for assessing and collecting, shall be deposited in the District depository; and such funds shall be withdrawn only as provided herein. All other income of the Hospital District shall be deposited in like manner with the District depository.

The board of directors shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District.

Issuance of bonds

Sec. 6. The board of directors shall have the power and authority to issue and sell as the obligations of such Hospital District, and in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District, bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospital purposes and for any or all of such purposes; provided, that a sufficient tax shall be levied to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest and principal as same matures providing said tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) in any one (1) year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and on its behalf by the president of the board of directors, and countersigned by the secretary of the board of directors, and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval thereof by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and the registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for such approval and registration of bonds of counties of this State. Upon the approval of such bonds by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller the same shall be incontestable for any cause. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District (except refunding bonds) until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying electors, residing in such Hospital District, voting at an election called and held for such purpose. Such election may be called by the board of directors on its own motion, and the order calling said election shall specify the date of the election, the place or places where the election shall be held, the presiding officers thereof, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, maximum interest rate (not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum) and the maximum maturity date of such bonds (not to exceed forty (40) years from their date of issuance). Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election in a newspaper of general circulation in such County once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the date of election, the date of the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for the election. The cost of such election shall be paid by the Hospital District.

The bonds of the District may be made optional for redemption prior to their maturity date at the discretion of the board of directors.

The District may without an election issue the bonds to refund and pay off any validly issued and outstanding bonds heretofore issued by the District, provided any such refund bonds shall bear interest at the same rate or at a lesser rate than the bonds being refunded unless it be shown mathematically that a savings will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Purchases and expenditures; books and records; rules and regulations

Sec. 7. The board of directors of such District shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures by and for such Hospital District, and also shall prescribe all accounting and control procedures; the method of purchasing necessary supplies, materials and equipment; and shall have the power to adopt a seal for such District; and may employ a general manager, attorney, bookkeeper, architect, and any other employees deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the Hospital District.

All books, records, accounts, notices and minutes and all other matters of the District and the operation of its facilities shall, except as herein provided, be maintained at the office of the District and there be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

The board of directors is specifically empowered to adopt rules and regulations governing the operation of such District and its facilities which rules and regulations shall supplement but shall not contravene any of the provisions of this Act. Such rules and regulations may, upon approval of the board of directors, be published in booklet or pamphlet form at the expense of the District and may be made available to any taxpayer upon request.

Fiscal affairs

Sec. 8. The fiscal year of the Hospital District authorized to be established by the provisions hereof shall commence on October 1st of each year and end on the 30th day of September of the following year. The district directors shall cause an annual independent audit to be made of the books and records of the District, such audit to be made covering such fiscal year, and the same shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and at the office of the District not later than December 31st of each year.

The board of directors shall each year cause a budget to be prepared showing the proposed expenditures and disbursements and the estimated receipts and collections for the following fiscal year and shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget after publication of a notice of hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the County at least once not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing. Any person who is a taxpayer of the District shall have the right to appear at the time and place designated in the notice and be heard with reference to any item shown in the proposed budget. The proposed budget shall also show the amount of taxes required to be levied and collected during such fiscal year and upon final approval of the budget, the board of directors shall levy such tax as may be required and certify the tax rate for such year to the county tax assessor and collector as provided in Section 5 hereof, and it shall be the duty of the said tax assessor and collector to assess and collect such tax.

Eminent domain

Sec. 9. A Hospital District organized in pursuance of this Act shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of the said District, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, power, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided that the said District shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by Paragraph No. 2 in Article 3268, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the said District, the District shall not be required to pay in advance or to give bond or other security for costs in the trial court, nor to give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas on any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any Court of Civil Appeals, or to the Supreme Court.

Designation of depository

Sec. 10. Within thirty (30) days after appointment and qualification of the board of directors of a Hospital District, the said directors shall by resolution designate a bank or banks within the county in which the District is located as the District's depository or treasurer and all funds of the District shall be secured in the manner now provided for the security of county funds. The depository shall serve for a period of two (2) years until a successor has been named.

Inspection of district

Sec. 11. The Hospital District established or maintained under provisions of this Act shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health or any State Board of Charities (or Public Welfare) that may hereafter be created, and resident officers shall admit such representatives into all Hospital District facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers and accounts pertaining to the Hospital District.

Limitation on power of county, cities and towns

Sec. 12. Except as herein provided, Stonewall County, or any city or town within the Hospital District, shall not levy any tax against any property within the Hospital District for hospital purposes; and such Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the furnishing of medical and hospital care for the needy and indigent persons residing in said Hospital District from the date that taxes are collected for the Hospital District.

Patients; inquiry as to ability to pay; liability of relatives

Sec. 13. Whenever a patient residing in the Hospital District has been admitted to the facilities of the Hospital District, the directors shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If they find that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the treasurer of the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The District shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the agent designated by the District to handle such affairs finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the person designated as aforesaid, the District's directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which appeal shall lie to the District Court by either party to the dispute.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 14. Said board of directors of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of said Hospital District to accept donations, gifts and endowments for the Hospital District to be held in trust and administered by the board of directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objects of Hospital District.

Legal investments

Sec. 15. All bonds issued by or assumed by the District authorized to be established and created under the provisions of this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Suits

Sec. 16. The Hospital District created under the provisions of this Act shall be and is declared to be a political subdivision of the State of Texas, and as a governmental agency may sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such District.

Severability clause

Sec. 17. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such Constitutions, the District shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such Constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the authorization for the creation of the District or the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have created the District and enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

Proof of publication of notice

Sec. 18. Proof of publication of the Constitutional Notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of Local and Special Laws and is hereby found and declared to be proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 89, ch. 54.

Emergency. Filed without the Governor's signature April 8, 1963.

Art. 4494q—9. Jasper Hospital District

Creation of district; hospital site; bonds; tax levy

Section 1. Pursuant to the provisions of this Act and Section 9 of Article IX, Constitution of the State of Texas, there may be created a hospital district, the boundaries of which district shall be coterminous with the boundaries describing commissioners precinct number one and commissioners precinct number two of Jasper County. The hospital district shall be known as the Jasper Hospital District, and shall hereinafter be referred to as "District." The District shall have the power to issue bonds for the purpose of purchasing a site for and the construction and initial equipping of a hospital system, and the operation and maintenance thereof, or for purchasing, leasing, or acquiring, equipping, maintaining, and operating a hospital system, and further the power to levy a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar property valuation therein for the purpose of paying the principal and interest on such bonds and for maintaining and operating a hospital or hospital system.

Election; petition and order; notice; ballots; contents; results

Sec. 2. (a) Upon the petitions of twenty-five (25) resident qualified taxpaying voters of commissioners precinct number one and commissioners precinct number two, a total of fifty (50) qualified taxpaying voters of the proposed District, the Commissioners Court of Jasper County shall order an election to be held within the proposed District to approve the creation of the District and to elect the first board of directors thereof. The Commissioners Court shall order such election within ten (10) days of the receipt of petitions and the election shall be held within said precincts within thirty (30) days after it is ordered.

(b) Upon and after ordering of the election aforesaid, any resident of the District twenty-one (21) years of age or over and who owns land in the District subject to taxation, and is otherwise qualified, may file application with the Commissioners Court of Jasper County, Texas, to have his or her name placed on the ballot for election to the board of directors of said District. Such applications shall be received by said court up to ten (10) days preceding the date of the election.

(c) At the election there shall be submitted to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters within the boundaries of the precincts who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the tax rolls of said precincts, the proposition of whether or not the District shall be created within said boundaries; and a majority of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters voting at said election who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the rolls of said precincts voting in favor of the proposition shall be necessary to create the District.

The ballots shall have printed thereon:

“FOR the creation of a Hospital District and the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation.”

“AGAINST the creation of a Hospital District and the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation.”

There shall also be submitted to the resident qualified voters at such election a separate ballot containing the names of all of the qualified persons who shall file applications to have their names placed on the ballot for election to the board of directors. Each voter shall vote for nine (9) persons. The nine (9) persons receiving the highest number of votes shall constitute the first board of directors of said District. The five (5) receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for terms of two (2) years, and the four (4) receiving the next highest number of votes shall serve for terms of one (1) year.

Notice of such election stating the time of election, and the polling place and proposition and matters to be voted on shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Jasper County, Texas, once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first notice not being more than twenty (20) days prior to the date of election.

(d) The results of said election shall be filed in the county clerk's office of Jasper County, Texas, within ten (10) days thereafter. And if the majority of the resident property taxpaying voters voting at said election who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the tax rolls of said District vote for the creation of the District, then within ten (10) days of the filing of said results the Commissioners Court shall order the District created and shall at such time declare those persons elected as directors to be the board of directors of the District and such board of directors shall manage and operate the business of the District and shall serve as directors until their respective successors are elected and qualified. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 198, ch. 109, § 1.

Emergency. Effective May 1, 1963.

Management and control of district

Sec. 3. The board of directors of the District shall elect a president and secretary from the members to serve until the next succeeding directors' election; the board of directors shall have the full management and control of all business of the District, including but not limited to the power and authority to negotiate and contract with any person or body, public or private, to purchase or lease land, to construct and equip a hospital system, and to operate and maintain the hospital, and to negotiate and contract with other political subdivisions of the State or private individuals, associations or corporations for such purposes.

Bonds; election; notice; returns and results; certification of validity and registration of bonds

Sec. 4. (a) After creation of the District and the qualification of the board of directors, the board shall order an election to be held within the District at a time not less than twenty (20) days nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of the order for such election at which time the qualified resident property taxpaying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the tax rolls of the precincts composing the District shall vote to determine if bonds of the District shall be sold to purchase, construct, acquire, repair, or renovate improvements and initially equip same for a hospital system and to operate and maintain same or to pay for the construction of the hospital system or the initial equipping of the hospital system and to operate and maintain same and to authorize the levy of a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of property therein for the purpose of paying the principal and interest on such bonds and for maintaining and operating the system. At such election the proposition to be voted on shall set forth the purpose of the bonds, the amount of bonds to be issued and the voters shall vote for the issuance of bonds for said purpose and levy of taxes in payment thereof, or against the issuance of bonds for said purpose and levy of taxes in payment thereof.

(b) Notice of such election, stating the time of the election, the polling place, the amount of bonds as determined by the board to be necessary to be issued, the proposition to be voted on and the estimated cost shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Jasper County, Texas, once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first notice not being more than twenty (20) days prior to the date of election.

(c) The board of directors shall name the polling places in the District and shall appoint two (2) judges, one of whom shall be presiding judge, and two (2) clerks for each voting place designated by them. The board of directors shall provide the necessary ballots for said election, which shall be printed.

(d) Immediately after the election the presiding judges shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officials. The return shall be made to the board of directors who shall at a regular or special session canvass said vote, and if a majority of the votes favor the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes, the board of directors shall so declare and enter the results in their minutes.

(e) After declaring the result of said election, the board of directors shall make and enter an order in their minutes directing the issuance of bonds for the District sufficient in amount to pay for the proposed project with all necessary, actual and incidental expenses connected therewith not to exceed the amount specified in the order and voted at the election. All bonds issued by the District shall be signed and executed by the president of the board and the secretary.

(f) Before such bonds are offered for sale, there shall be forwarded to the Attorney General a certified copy of all proceedings had in the organization of the District, and with reference to issuance of the bonds in connection with the bonds themselves, and such other information respecting same as he may require. The Attorney General shall carefully examine the bonds in connection with the record and Constitution and laws of the State governing the issuance of such bonds; and if the examination shows that such bonds are issued in conformity thereto, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon the District, he shall so officially certify.

(g) When the bonds are approved, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose and the certificate of the Attorney General as to their validity shall be preserved of record; whereupon such bonds shall be held prima facie valid in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity may be brought into question. In every suit to enforce collection of such bonds and interest thereon, the only available defense against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud.

Sale of bonds; redemption; bond record book; refunding bonds

Sec. 5. (a) After the bonds have been registered, the directors shall sell same on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their face value and accrued interest; and shall promptly pay over to the District depository the proceeds of such sale to be placed to the credit of the District.

(b) At the time of the payment of interest or for redemption of District bonds, the depository shall receive and cancel any interest coupons so paid or any bonds so discharged and when such interest coupon or bond shall be turned over to the board of directors the account of such depository shall be credited with the amount thereof, and such bond or coupon shall be canceled and destroyed.

(c) When bonds have been issued, the board of directors shall procure and deliver to the county treasurer a well-bound book in which a list shall be kept of all bonds with their manner of payment, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, and the tax levy to pay interest on and redeem such bonds; and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested, either as taxpayers or bond holders. Upon the payment of any bond, the treasurer shall make an entry thereof in said book; and he shall receive for such services the same fees allowed by law to the county clerk for recording deeds.

(d) The District when it has issued bonds, may, by consent of the holders thereof, refund any bonds heretofore issued by issuing new coupon bonds for that purpose. Refunding bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than the bonds in lieu of which they are issued. Interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to the bonds, and may be payable annually or semi-annually, within the discretion of its board of directors; refunding bonds shall be payable serially, or otherwise, not exceeding forty (40) years from the date thereof, and shall be issued in denomination of One Hundred Dollars ($100), or some multiple thereof; and a sufficient tax levy to meet the payment of the principal and interest of said refunding bonds shall be made before the delivery thereof, providing the refunding of any bonds shall not affect any taxes already due.

The refunding bonds hereby authorized shall be issued in the manner provided by law for the issuance of refunding bonds by counties and cities. Any sum to the credit of any sinking fund account on hand shall first be deducted in ascertaining the amount of refunding bonds to be issued, and such money shall in every case be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds. No refunding bonds shall be issued and delivered until approved by the Attorney General, and registered by the State Comptroller; provided, however, that the Comptroller shall not register such refunding bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which such refunding bonds are issued are presented to him for cancellation; and after the registration of the new bonds the Comptroller shall cancel the old bonds and interest coupons and deliver such new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, further, that the old bonds may be presented for cancellation, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as is herein provided.

Contracts; competitive bidding; notice; bond of contractor

Sec. 6. (a) Contracts for the making and construction of all improvements contemplated in this Act, and all necessary work in connection therewith, when the cost price exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, furnishing satisfactory evidence of possessing equipment and facilities essential to the proper performance of such contract; after giving notice by advertising the same in one (1) or more newspapers of general circulation in this State, once a week for four (4) weeks, and by posting a notice for at least ten (10) days at the courthouse door. Such contract shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and directors, and a copy so executed filed with the depository subject to inspection of all interested parties.

(b) The person, firm, corporation or association to which such contract is let shall give surety bond to the District in accordance with the provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and amendments thereto.

(c) All contracts shall be fulfilled in accordance with the specifications and under the supervision of the board of directors and district agents.

Election expenses

Sec. 7. If said bonds and levying of taxes are approved by the voters, all expenses incident to calling and holding all elections shall be paid out of any District funds except interest and sinking funds for bonds.

Eminent domain

Sec. 8. The District shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real, personal or mixed or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of the District necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, powers, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided, that the District shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by Paragraph No. 2 in Article 3268, Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the District, the District shall not be required to pay in advance or to give bond or other security for costs in trial court nor to give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas bond on any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any Court of Civil Appeals or the Supreme Court.

Selection of depository

Sec. 9. Within thirty (30) days after the election of the board of directors of the District created under this Act, the board shall select a depository for the District in the manner provided by law for the selection of county depositories; and such depository shall be the depository of such District for a period of two (2) years thereafter until its successor is selected and qualified.

Inspection of district

Sec. 10. The District established or maintained under provisions of this Act shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health or any State Board of Charities (or Public Welfare) that may hereafter be created, and of the Commissioners Court of the County, and resident officers shall admit such representatives into all District facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers, and accounts pertaining to the District.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 11. The board of directors may on behalf of the District accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the District, to be held in trust by the board of directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objects of the District.

Eligibility of voters

Sec. 12. To be eligible to vote in any election to be held by this District to issue bonds or levy taxes a person must be a resident property taxpayer in the District who has duly rendered his property for taxation upon the tax rolls of the precincts composing the District. Every person who offers to vote in any such election held under the provisions of this Act shall take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer same:

I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of Jasper County and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the District who has duly rendered my property for taxation upon the tax rolls of either county commissioners precinct number one or two of Jasper County, Texas. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 198, ch. 109, § 2.

Directors; qualifications; election; terms of office; vacancies; officers; meetings; records; bond

Sec. 13. (a) No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the board of directors of the District unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age.

(b) There shall be held a general election in the District on the first Saturday in April, 1964, at which four (4) directors shall be elected for terms of two (2) years, and a general election shall be held on the first Saturday in April, 1965, at which election five (5) directors shall be elected for terms of two (2) years, and thereafter four (4) directors shall be elected in each even-numbered year and five (5) directors in each odd-numbered year.

(c) All vacancies in the office of director and other offices shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors for the unexpired term. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than six (6) then the remaining director or directors shall call a special election to fill said vacancies, and if they shall fail to do so within fifteen (15) days after such vacancies occur the County Judge of Jasper County, Texas, upon petition of any voter or creditor thereof shall order the holding of such election, fixing the date thereof, and order the publication of notice thereof by any county sheriff and name the officers to hold such election. In any such election held by order of the county judge the returns of an election shall be made to and filed in the office of the clerk of the court and he shall declare the result thereof. The officers elected shall furnish bond and qualify in the manner provided herein with reference to directors first appointed for said District upon its organization.

(d) The board of directors shall organize following each election of directors by electing one of their number as president and one of their number as secretary. Any five (5) members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of five (5) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District.

(e) The board of directors shall meet at least monthly and shall hold such special meetings as they deem necessary and any taxpayer or resident or interested party may attend such meetings, but shall not participate in same without consent of the board of directors and may present in an orderly manner to said board of directors such matters as they desire.

(f) The board of directors shall keep a true account of all their meetings and proceedings and shall preserve all contracts, records of notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts and all accounts and records of whatever kind in a safe place and shall be delivered to their successors in office.

(g) All vouchers for the payment of any funds of the District shall be signed by at least two (2) members of the board of directors.

(h) The board of directors shall have kept a complete book of accounts for the District, and shall on June 1st of each year select a competent auditor who shall examine the accounts, books and reports of the depository, the assessor and collector and board of directors, and make full report thereon, a copy of which shall be filed with the depository, and a copy with the board of directors, and one with the county clerk. Such reports shall state for what purposes the money from each fund has been expended.

(i) The board of directors shall employ all necessary employees for the proper handling and operation of the District and especially may employ a general manager, or administrator, attorney, bookkeeper and architect.

(j) The board of directors may purchase all necessary supplies, materials and office equipment to meet the needs of the District.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

(k) Before entering upon his duties each member of the board of directors shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office without favor or partiality. The oath of the members of the board of directors originally elected shall be filed with the county clerk of Jasper County, Texas. All members of the board of directors subsequently elected shall, prior to entering upon their duties, file said oath with the secretary of the District.

(1) Each member of the board of directors shall give a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to the District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties.

(m) Members of the board of directors may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as the laws of the State of Texas provide for the removal of county officials.

(n) The members of the board of directors shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder. As amended Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 198, ch. 109, § 3.

Suits; powers of district

Sec. 14. (a) The District when created shall be a governmental agency, body politic and corporate and through its board of directors, sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such District and all courts of the State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of the District and said District shall contract and be contracted with in the name of such District.

(b) The District shall have full right and authority to contract for the purchase of land, for the hospital system, the construction of said hospital and the initial equipping of the hospital system and shall have such powers of government and with authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the purposes for which it was created, as may be conferred by this Act or any other law in this State to the benefit of which it may be entitled. No enumeration of specific powers herein shall be held a limitation upon the general powers conferred by the Act, unless distinctly so expressed.

Assessment and collection of taxes; delinquent taxes

Sec. 15. (a) The County of Jasper by its county tax assessor and collector shall assess and collect all taxes of the District in the manner in which it assesses and collects the taxes of Jasper County and turn over said taxes to the Jasper County Treasurer who shall deposit same to the credit of the District at its designated depository.

(b) The county tax assessor and collector shall receive one per cent (1%) of the total taxes shown on the completed roll for assessing such taxes and one per cent (1%) for collecting same; provided, however, that the compensation for the collection of delinquent taxes shall be five per cent (5%) of the amount collected.

(c) All taxes which have not been paid on the last day of January shall become delinquent on the first day of February each year and same shall be and remain a lien upon the property for which same were assessed although the owner be unknown or same be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner thereof or though the ownership be changed. All such property may be sold under a judgment of a court for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs assessed against same at any time after such taxes become delinquent. The District shall have authority to file suits for the collection of taxes against any and all property assessed for taxes and if the owner be unknown such suit may be filed against an unknown owner and the property sold under the judgment of the court. Taxes are not barred by any law of limitation and no law providing for a period of limitation as to debts or actions shall apply to such taxes.

Merger with county-wide hospital district

Sec. 16. In the event there is ever created a District for the County of Jasper or a hospital district created for the balance of the County not including the boundaries of this District, then the board of directors of this District may, at its discretion, determine to merge with said county-wide hospital district or the district covering the balance of the County; provided, (1) that the District would assume all outstanding indebtednesses of this District; and (2) that the merger of districts be approved by the majority of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters voting at an election who have duly rendered their property for taxation upon the rolls of the precincts composing this District. Notice of such election would be given in the same manner as herein provided for the calling of elections for the election of the members of the board of directors.

Severability clause

Sec. 17. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 96, ch. 56.

Emergency. Effective April 12, 1963.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 178, ch. 109, § 4 provided: "All proceedings heretofore had and taken under the provisions of the original House Bill No. 377 as heretofore enacted by the 58th Legislature at its Regular Session in 1963, by the Commissioners Court of Jasper County, petitioners for any election called thereunder, the notices of election, the conduct of any election and everything pertaining thereto, are hereby in all things ratified, validated and confirmed."

Title of Act:

An Act relating to the creation, administration and financing of a hospital district whose boundaries are coterminous with the boundaries of county commissioners precincts numbered one and two of Jasper County; providing for severability; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 96, ch. 56.

Art. 4494q—10. Tyler County Hospital District

Creation of district

Section 1. In accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, Constitution of the State of Texas, this Act shall be operative so as to authorize the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of a Hospital District within the State of Texas, to be known as Tyler County Hospital District, and the boundaries of said District shall be coextensive with the boundaries of Tyler County (hereinafter referred to as the "County"), and said District shall have the powers and responsibilities provided by the aforesaid Constitutional provision.

Election; ballots

Sec. 2. That said District hereby provided for shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for the needy residing within the District; provided, however, that such Hospital District shall not be created unless and until an election is duly held in the County for such purpose, which said election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court upon its own motion or upon a petition of fifty (50)

resident qualified property taxpaying voters, to be held not less than thirty (30) days from the time said election is ordered by the Commissioners Court. At such election, there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters the proposition of whether or not a Hospital District shall be created in the County; and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors participating in said election voting in favor of the proposition shall be necessary. The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon:

“FOR the creation of a Hospital District; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation; and providing for the assumption by such District of all outstanding bonds heretofore issued by Tyler County for hospital purposes”; and

“AGAINST the creation of a Hospital District; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation; and providing for the assumption by such District of all outstanding bonds heretofore issued by Tyler County for hospital purposes.”

Levy and collection of tax

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court of the County shall have the power and authority, and it shall be its duty, to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation, for the benefit of the District at the same time taxes are levied for county purposes, using the county values and the county tax roll, a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may have been assumed or which may be issued by the Hospital District for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital or hospital system; and (3) when requested by the Board of Hospital Managers of the Hospital District and approved by the Commissioners Court, for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to Hospital District taxation by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes for the County on the county tax values, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes. The Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall charge and deduct from payments to the Hospital District the fees for assessing and collecting the tax at the rate of not exceeding two per cent (2%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the Commissioners Court. Such fees shall be deposited in the County's General Fund, and shall be reported as fees of office of the Tax Assessor and Collector. Interest and penalties on taxes paid to the Hospital District shall be the same as in the case of county taxes. Discounts shall be the same as for county taxes. The residue of tax collections, after deduction of discounts and fees for assessing and collecting, shall be deposited in the District depository; and such funds shall be withdrawn only as provided herein. All other income of the Hospital District shall be deposited in like manner with the District depository. Warrants against the Hospital District funds shall not require the signature of the County Clerk.

The Commissioners Court shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District, and to pay assumed bonds.

Issuance of bonds

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court shall have the power and authority to issue and sell as the obligations of such Hospital District, bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes and for any or all of such purposes; provided, that a sufficient tax shall be levied to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest and principal as same matures provided said tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) in any one year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and on its behalf by the County Judge of the County, and countersigned by the County Clerk, and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval thereof by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and the registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for such approval and registration of bonds of such County; and the approval of such bonds by the Attorney General shall have the same force and effect as is by law given to his approval of bonds of the County. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District (except refunding bonds) until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters residing in such Hospital District voting at an election called and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to county bonds. Such election may be called by the Commissioners Court on its own motion, or shall be called by it after request therefor by the Board of Hospital Managers of the District; and the same persons shall be responsible for the conduct of such election and arrangement of all details thereof as the persons charged therewith in connection with other county-wide elections. The cost of any such election shall be a charge upon the Hospital District and its funds; and the Hospital District shall make provision for the payment thereof before the Commissioners Court shall be required to order such an election.

In the manner hereinabove provided, the bonds of such Hospital District may, without the necessity of any election therefor, be issued for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bonded indebtedness theretofore assumed by the Hospital District and any bonds theretofore issued by the Hospital District; such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or may be exchanged in whole or in part for not less than a like amount of said outstanding bonds and interest matured thereon, but unpaid; provided the average interest cost per annum on the refunding bonds, computed in accordance with the recognized standard bond interest cost tables, shall not exceed the average interest cost per annum so computed upon the bonds to be discharged out of the proceeds of the refunding bonds, unless the total interest cost on the refunding bonds, computed to their respective maturity dates, is less than the total interest cost so computed on the bonds to be discharged out of such proceeds. In the foregoing computations, any premium or premiums required to be paid upon the bonds to be refunded as a condition to payment in advance of their stated maturity dates shall be taken into account as an addition to the net interest cost to the Hospital District of the refunding bonds.

Assumption of assets and indebtedness

Sec. 5. Any lands, buildings or equipment that may be owned by the County, and by which medical services or hospital care, including geriatric care, are furnished to the indigent or needy persons of the County, shall become the property of the Hospital District; and title thereto shall vest in the Hospital District; and any funds of the County which are the proceeds of any bonds assumed by the Hospital District, as hereby provided, shall become the funds of the Hospital District; and title thereto shall vest in the Hospital District; and there shall vest in the Hospital District and become the funds of the Hospital District the unspent portions of any funds theretofore set up or appropriated by budget or otherwise by the County for the support and maintenance of the hospital facilities for the year within which the Hospital District comes into existence, thereby providing such Hospital District with funds with which to maintain and operate such facilities for the remainder of such year. All obligations under contract legally incurred by the County for the building of, or the support and maintenance of, hospital facilities, prior to the creation of the said District but outstanding at the time of the creation of the District, shall be assumed and discharged by it without prejudice to the rights of third parties, provided that the management and control of the property and affairs of the present hospital system shall continue in the Board of Managers of the present hospital system until appointment and organization of the Board of Hospital Managers of the Hospital District, at which time the Board of Managers of the present hospital system shall turn over all records, property and affairs of said hospital system to the Board of Hospital Managers of the Hospital District.

Any outstanding bonded indebtedness incurred by the County in the acquisition of such lands, buildings and equipment, or in the construction and equipping of such hospital facilities, together with any other outstanding bonds issued by the County for hospital purposes, and the proceeds of which are in whole or in part still unspent, shall be assumed by the Hospital District and become the obligation of the Hospital District; and the County shall be by the Hospital District relieved of any further liability for the payment thereof, or for providing interest and sinking fund requirements thereon; provided that nothing herein contained shall limit or affect any of the rights of any of the holders of such bonds against the payment of the principal or interest on any of such bonds in accordance with their respective terms.

The Commissioners Court, as soon the Hospital District is created and authorized at the election hereinabove provided, and there have been appointed and qualified the Board of Hospital Managers hereinafter provided for, shall execute and deliver to the Hospital District, to wit: to its said Board of Hospital Managers, an instrument in writing conveying to said Hospital District the hospital property, including lands, buildings and equipment; and shall transfer to said Hospital District the funds hereinabove provided to become vested in the Hospital District, upon being furnished the certificate of the Chairman of the Board to the fact that a depository for the District's funds has been selected and has qualified; which funds shall, in the hands of the Hospital District and of its Board of Hospital Managers, be used for all or any of the same purposes as, and for no other purposes than, the purposes for which the County could lawfully have used the same had they remained the property and funds of such County.

Board of Hospital Manager; appointment and term; vacancies; powers and duties; administrator; employees; meetings

Sec. 6. The Commissioners Court shall appoint a Board of Hospital Managers, consisting of six (6) members, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, with overlapping terms if desired, and with initial appointments to terms of office arranged accordingly, and provided that the County Judge of the County shall be an ex officio member of said Board of Hospital Managers. Failure of any member of the Board of Hospital Managers to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board shall cause a vacancy in his office, unless such absence is excused by formal action of the Board. The Board of Hospital Managers shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as determined by the Board of Hospital Managers. The duties of the Board of Hospital Managers shall be to manage, control and administer the hospital or hospital system of the Hospital District. The Board of Hospital Managers shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of the hospital or hospital system.

The Board shall appoint a general manager, to be known as the Administrator of the Hospital District. The Administrator shall hold office for a term not exceeding two (2) years and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board. The Administrator shall be subject to removal at any time by the Board. The Administrator shall, before entering into the discharge of his duties, execute a bond payable to the District, in the amount of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), conditioned that he shall well and faithfully perform the duties required of him, and containing such other conditions as the Board may require. The Administrator shall perform all duties which may be required of him by the Board, and shall supervise all of the work and activities of the District, and have general direction of the affairs of the District, within such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board. He shall be a person qualified by training and experience for the position of Administrator.

The Board of Hospital Managers shall have the authority to employ such employees of every kind and character as may be deemed advisable for the efficient operation of the hospital or hospital system; provided that no contract or term of employment shall exceed the period of two (2) years.

The Board of Hospital Managers, with the approval of the Commissioners Court, shall be authorized to contract with any county for care and treatment of the county's sick, diseased and injured persons, and with the State and agencies of the Federal Government for the care and treatment of such persons for whom the State and such agencies of the Federal Government are responsible. Further, under the same conditions, the Board of Hospital Managers may enter into such contracts with the State and Federal Government as may be necessary to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of its employees.

The Board of Hospital Managers may in addition to retirement programs authorized by this Act establish such other retirement program for the benefit of its employees as it deems necessary and advisable.

A majority of the Board of Hospital Managers present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. From among its members, the Board shall choose a Chairman, who shall preside; or in his absence a Chairman pro tem shall preside; and the Administrator or any member of the Board may be appointed Secretary. The Board shall require the Secretary to keep suitable records of all proceedings of each meeting of the Board. Such records shall be read and signed after each meeting by the Chairman or the member presiding, and attested by the Secretary. The Board shall have a seal, on which shall be engraved the name of the Hospital District; and said seal shall be kept by the Secretary and used in authentication of all acts of the Board.

Purchases and expenditures; books and records; audit

Sec. 7. The Board of Hospital Managers shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures by and for such Hospital District, and also shall be authorized to prescribe all accounting and control procedures. The Board shall cause an annual audit to be made of the books and records of the District as soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal year, such audit to cover such fiscal year, and to be made by an independent public accountant. The Hospital District shall pay all salaries and expenses necessarily incurred by the Board or any of its officers and agents in performing any duties which may be prescribed or required under this Section. It shall be the duty of any officer, employee or agent of the Board to perform and carry out any function or service prescribed by the Board hereunder.

Assistant to administrator

Sec. 8. In the event of incapacity, absence or inability of the Administrator to discharge any of the duties required of him, the Board may designate an assistant to the Administrator to discharge any duties or functions required of the Administrator. Such assistant or other persons shall give bond and have such limitations upon his authority as may be fixed by the order of the Board.

Annual report of administrator; budget

Sec. 9. Once each year, as soon as practicable after the close of the fiscal year, the Administrator of the Hospital District shall report to the Board of Hospital Managers and the Commissioners Court, a full sworn statement of all moneys and choses in action received by such Administrator and how disbursed or otherwise disposed of. Such report shall show in detail the operations of the District for the year. Under the direction of the Board of Hospital Managers, he shall prepare an annual budget which shall be approved by the Board of Hospital Managers.

Eminent domain

Sec. 10. The Hospital District organized in pursuance of this Act shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of the said District, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, powers, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided that the said District shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by Paragraph numbered 2 in Article 3268, Vernon's Civil Statutes, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the said District, the District shall not be required to pay in advance or give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas or any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any Court of Civil Appeals, or to the Supreme Court.

Selection of depository

Sec. 11. Within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the Board of Hospital Managers of the District and each two (2) years thereafter the said Board shall select a depository for such District which shall be one or the same depository theretofore selected by the County, such depository shall secure all funds of the District in the manner now provided for the security of county funds.

Inspection of district

Sec. 12. The Hospital District established or maintained under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health and of the Commissioners Court of the County, and resident officers shall admit such representatives into all Hospital District facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers, and accounts pertaining to the Hospital District.

Legal counsel

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the County Attorney, District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney, as the case may be, charged with the duty of representing the County in civil matters, to represent the Hospital District in all legal matters; provided, however, that the Board of Hospital Managers shall be authorized at its discretion to employ additional legal counsel when the Board deems advisable.

The Hospital District shall contribute sufficient funds to the General Fund of the County for the account of the budget of the County Attorney, District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney, as the case may be, to pay all additional salaries and expenses incurred by such officer in performing the duties required of him by the District.

Limiting powers of county and cities

Sec. 14. Neither the County nor any city therein shall, after the Hospital District has been organized in pursuance of this Act, levy any tax for hospital purposes; and such Hospital District shall be deemed to have assumed full responsibility for the furnishing of medical and hospital care for the needy and indigent persons residing in said Hospital District from the date that taxes are collected for the Hospital District.

That portion of delinquent taxes owed the County on levies for present county hospital system shall continue to be paid to the Hospital District by the County as collected, and applied by the Hospital District to the purposes for which such taxes originally were levied.

Patients; inquiry as to ability to pay; liability of relatives

Sec. 15. Whenever a patient has been admitted to the facilities of the Hospital District from the County, the Administrator shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the Hospital District for the care of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The Administrator shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the Administrator finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the Administrator, the County Court shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which appeal shall lie to the District Court by either party to the dispute.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 16. The Board of Hospital Managers of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of said Hospital District to accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the Hospital District, to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Hospital Managers for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objects of the Hospital District.

Legal and authorized investments

Sec. 17. All bonds (including refunding bonds) issued by or assumed by the District authorized to be established and created under the provisions of this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, fiduciaries, building and loan associations, insurance companies, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Public notice

Sec. 18. The Legislature hereby finds affirmatively that thirty (30) days' public notice was duly given in accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, of the intention to apply to this Legislature to enact a law providing for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of the Hospital District herein provided for.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 19. If any word, phrase, sentence, Section, portion or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act, and the application of such word, phrase, sentence, Section, portion or provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. In the event any of the provisions hereof shall be in conflict with any other law of this State, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 201, ch. 110.

Emergency. Effective May 1, 1963.

It is determined and found by the Legislature that the boundaries and field notes of said District form a closure, and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, or validity of the District or the right of the District to issue bonds or refunding bonds, and the right to assess, levy and collect taxes, or in any other manner affect the legality or operation of the District.

Purposes of District

Sec. 2. The District herein authorized to be created shall provide for the establishment of hospital or hospital system within its boundaries by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such district shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. There being no hospital, hospital system or hospital facilities of any nature presently owned by Crosby County or any city or town in the boundaries hereinabove set forth, so provisions are made herein for the transfer of properties or equipment or the assumption of outstanding indebtedness heretofore incurred for hospital purposes.

Creation of District

Sec. 3. The District shall not be created nor shall any tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such tax are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by a majority of the temporary or provisional directors of the District and shall be held not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty-five (35) days from the time such election is ordered. The order calling the election shall specify the time and places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the proposed District, once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the election. The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors of said proposed District the proposition of whether or not Mid-Crosby County Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds, and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR THE CREATION OF MID-CROSBY COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT, THE LEVY OF A TAX NOT TO EXCEED SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS (75¢) ON THE ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100) VALUATION";

and

"AGAINST THE CREATION OF MID-CROSBY COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT, THE LEVY OF A TAX NOT TO EXCEED SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS (75¢) ON THE ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100) VALUATION."

Directors; Election; Terms of Office; Vacancies; Officers

Sec. 4. Upon the effective date of this Act, the following named persons shall be and constitute the temporary or provisional Directors of said District:

Robert H. Hinton
 Tim D. Lyle
 Claude Adams
 K. G. Howard

Charles B. Gray
 Vance Cypert
 Marvin L. Tomme
 W. P. McKee

and each of said directors shall subscribe to the Constitutional oath of office within sixty (60) days of the effective date of this Act. Should any of the named directors refuse to act or for any reason fail to qualify as herein required, the County Judge of Crosby County shall fill such vacancy. The terms of office of the first four (4) named directors shall expire on the first Tuesday in April, 1964, and the terms of the last four (4) named directors shall expire on the first Tuesday in April, 1965. A regular election for directors shall be held on the first Tuesday in April in each year beginning 1964, and four (4) directors shall be elected at that time and in each succeeding year. The regular election for directors shall be ordered by the Board and such order shall state the time, place, and purpose of the election and the Board shall appoint the presiding judge who shall appoint an assistant judge and such clerks as may be required, and such election shall be ordered at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of which the election is to be held. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for director shall file a petition, signed by not less than ten (10) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the Board of Directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election. Notice of such election shall be published one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the district at least five (5) days before the election. All vacancies in office (other than for the failure of an original director herein appointed to qualify) shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors and such appointees shall hold office for the unexpired term for which they were appointed.

No director shall be entitled to compensation, but shall be entitled to receive his actual expenses incurred in attending to the District's business, provided such expenses are approved by the remainder of the Board. Any person who is a resident property owning taxpaying voters¹ of the district shall be eligible to hold office as directors¹ of the District. The Board of Directors shall elect from its number a president, vice-president, secretary and such other officers as in the judgment of the Board are necessary. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the District and shall have the same right to vote as any other director. The vice-president shall perform all duties and exercise all powers conferred by this Act upon the president when the president is absent or fails and declines to act.

The directors named herein and their successors in office shall hold office as provisional or temporary directors until such time as the creation of the District has been approved at an election as herein provided. At such time as the creation of the District is so approved and the returns of the election officially canvassed, the persons acting as provisional or temporary directors shall become permanent directors whose terms shall expire as hereinabove provided. Each permanent director, and their successors in office, shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the district for safe-keeping.

Powers of Directors

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall manage, control and administer the hospitals and hospital system of the District. The District through its Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of the District. The Board of Directors shall appoint a qualified person to be known as the administrator or manager of the Hospital District and may in its discretion appoint an assistant to the administrator or manager. Such administrator or manager, and assistant administrator or assistant manager, if any, shall serve at the will of the Board and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board. The administrator or manager shall, upon assuming his duties, execute a bond payable to the Hospital District in an amount to be set by the Board of Directors, in no event less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), conditioned that he shall perform the duties required of him and containing such other conditions as the Board may require. The administrator or manager shall supervise all the work and activities of the District and shall have general direction of the affairs of the District subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to employ such doctors, technicians, nurses and other employees of every kind and character as may be deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the District or may provide that the administrator or manager shall have the authority to employ such persons. Such Board shall be authorized to contract with any county or incorporated municipality located outside the District for the care and treatment of the sick, diseased or injured persons of any such county or municipality and shall have the authority to contract with the State of Texas and agencies of the federal government, for treatment of sick, diseased or injured persons for whom the State of Texas or the federal government are responsible. The Board of Directors is also authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with the State of Texas or the federal government as may be required to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of the District's employees.

Fiscal Year—Audit—Accounting

Sec. 6. The District shall be operated on a fiscal year commencing on October 1 of each year and ending on September 30 of the succeeding year and it shall cause an audit to be made of the financial condition of said District which shall at all times be open to inspection at the principal office of the District. In addition the administrator or manager shall prepare an annual budget for approval by the Board of Directors of said District. As soon as practical after the close of each fiscal year the administrator or manager shall prepare for the Board a full sworn statement of all moneys belonging to the District and a full account of the disbursements of same.

Authorization of Bonds and Levy of Tax

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District shall have the power and authority to issue and sell its bonds in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospitals and the hospital system, as determined by the Board, and for any or all of such purposes. At the time of the issuance of any such bonds a tax shall be levied by the Board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund and to pay the interest on and principal of said bonds as same mature, providing such tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one year. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, but shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and in its behalf by the president of the Board and attested by the secretary as provided by Article 717j—1, V.A.T.C.S. and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for approval and registration of bonds issued by counties. After approval of any such bonds by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller, said bonds shall be incontestable. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District except refunding bonds, until authorized by a majority of the qualified property tax-paying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by the Board of Directors and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and except as therein otherwise provided, shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of Texas pertaining to elections. The District shall make provisions for defraying the costs of all elections called and held under the provisions of this Act. The election order shall specify the date of the election, the amount of bonds to be authorized, the maximum maturity thereof, the maximum rate of interest they are to bear, the place or places where the election shall be held and the presiding officers thereof.

The bonds of the District may be issued for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bond or other refundable indebtedness issued by the District. Such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness, or may be exchanged in whole or in part for not less than a like principal amount of such outstanding bonds or refundable indebtedness; provided that if such refunding bonds are to be exchanged for a like amount of said outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness the interest thereon computed in accordance with recognized standard bond interest cost tables, shall not exceed the average interest cost per annum so computed upon the bonds or other indebtedness to be refunded; and provided further, that if such refunding bonds are to be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness same shall be issued and payments made in the manner specified by Article 717k, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Bonds Exempt From Taxation

Sec. 8. In carrying out the purposes of this Act the District will be performing an essential public function and any bonds issued by it and their transfer and the issuance therefrom, including any profits made in the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.

Purchases and Expenditures

Sec. 9. The Board of Directors of such District shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures, by and for such Hospital District, and also shall be authorized to prescribe all accounting and control procedures and to make such rules and regulations as may be required to carry out the provisions of this Act.

District Depository

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors of the District shall name one or more banks within the District to serve as depository for the funds of the District. All such funds shall, as derived and collected, be immediately deposited with such depository bank or banks except that sufficient funds shall be remitted to the bank or banks for the payment of principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the District in time that such money may be received by said bank or banks of payment on or prior to the date of maturity of such principal and interest so to be paid. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for security of county funds. Membership on the Board of Directors of an officer or director of a bank shall not disqualify such bank from being designated as depository.

Bonds Eligible for Investment and to Secure Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds of the District shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments of banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and sinking funds of cities, towns, village,¹ counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies, including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of public funds of the State of Texas and public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

¹ So in enrolled bill.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 12. The District created hereunder shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind and character in fee simple, or any lesser interest therein, within the boundaries of the District, necessary or convenient to the powers, rights and privileges conferred by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation.

Levy, Assessment and Collection of Taxes

Sec. 13. District taxes shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as provided by law with relation to county taxes upon all taxable property within said District, subject to District taxation. The Tax Assessor and/or Collector of Crosby County shall be charged and required to accomplish the assessment and collection of all taxes levied by and on behalf of the District and to promptly pay over the same to the District Depository. For his services the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall be allowed such compensation as may be provided for by contract with the District but not to exceed the amount allowed for assessment and collection of county taxes. The bond of the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall stand as security for the proper performance of his duties as Assessor-Collector of the District, or, if in the judgment of the District Board of Directors, it is necessary that additional bond payable to the District may be required. In all matters pertaining to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes for the District, the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall be authorized to act in all respects according to the laws of the State of Texas relating to state and county taxes.

Patients; Inquiry as to the Ability to Pay; Liability of Relative

Sec. 14. Whenever a patient residing within the District has been admitted to the facilities thereof, the administrator or manager, shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances and those of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are able to pay for his care and treatment, in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The administrator or manager shall have power and authority to collect such sums from the estate of the patient or his relatives legally liable for his support in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses in the last illness of a deceased person. If the administrator or manager finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District as to the amount of the inability to pay. Should there be any dispute as to the ability to pay or doubt in the mind of the administrator or manager, the Board of Directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order or orders as may be proper.

Donations

Sec. 15. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of such District to accept donations, gifts and endowments to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with proper management and object of the Hospital District.

Annual Budget

Sec. 16. The Board of Directors of said Hospital District shall cause to be prepared an annual budget based upon the fiscal year of the Hospital District in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 hereof and prior to September 1 of each year shall give notice of the public hearing on the proposed budget. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District one time at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing.

District Alone to Incur Indebtedness for Hospital Purposes

Sec. 17. After creation of Mid-Crosby County Hospital District as herein provided no other municipality or political subdivision therein shall thereafter issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness or levy taxes for hospital purposes for medical treatment of indigent persons and the said Mid-Crosby County Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the operation of all hospital facilities for the furnishing of medical and hospital care of indigent persons within its boundaries.

State Not to be Obligated

Sec. 18. The support and maintenance of the Mid-Crosby County Hospital District shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such District.

Severability Clause

Sec. 19. If any of the provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Publication of Notice

Sec. 20. Proof of Publication of the notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of local and special laws and such notice is hereby found and declared proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 337, ch. 129.

Emergency. Effective May 9, 1963.

Art. 4494q—12. Archer County Hospital District

Purposes of act

Section 1. This Act is enacted pursuant to the authority granted by Article IX, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas in order to provide a more efficient and economical method for administering the Archer County Hospital, and to provide a more efficient method for caring for the indigent patients of Archer County.

Authority to create district; boundaries; purpose

Sec. 2. Archer County may create a hospital district, subject to the provisions of Section 3(a), to be known as "Archer County Hospital District" with boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Archer County, Texas. The purpose of the District shall be to operate the hospital facilities now known as the Archer County Hospital, and such additional facilities as may be provided in the future, and to promulgate procedures to furnish medical and hospital care to indigent persons residing within Archer County.

Election; petition; ballots

Sec. 3. (a) Archer County Hospital District shall not be created until an election is held in the County for the purpose of complying with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

(b) The election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court or upon a petition of one hundred (100) resident qualified property taxpaying electors, to be held not less than thirty (30) days from the time the election is ordered by the Commissioners Court. At the election the resident qualified taxpaying voters of the County shall have submitted to them the proposition for the creation of the Hospital District, and a majority of such electors participating in the election voting in favor of the proposition shall be necessary for the District to be created. The ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the creation of a Archer County Hospital District and authorizing the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property in the District and the assumption by the District of outstanding bonds issued by Archer County, Texas, for hospital purposes."

"AGAINST the creation of a Archer County Hospital District and authorizing the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property in the District and the assumption by the District of outstanding bonds issued by Archer County, Texas, for hospital purposes."

Canvass of returns; board of directors; terms; vacancies; officers

Sec. 4. (a) Within ten (10) days after the election the Commissioners Court of Archer County shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and if a majority of the resident qualified property taxpaying electors voting at the election voted in favor of the proposition, the Court shall so find and declare the District created.

(b) Archer County Hospital District shall be governed by a Board of Directors. The Board shall consist of six (6) members who shall serve without pay, but may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of official duties upon approval by the entire Board of Directors.

Each director shall be a resident of the District, own land subject to taxation within the District, and at the time of election or appointment be more than twenty-one (21) years of age.

(c) Members of the existing Board of the Archer County Hospital shall serve as interim directors until the first election and establish procedure for filing for the Board of Directors. The first election shall be held within one (1) year from the date of the creation of the District. After the first election, the elected Board of Directors shall have authority to set the date and procedures of subsequent elections.

(d) The three (3) directors receiving the highest vote at the first election shall serve for two (2) years, the other three (3) directors shall serve for one (1) year. Thereafter all directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified.

(e) All vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled through appointment by the remaining board members for the unexpired term in the position vacated.

(f) At the first regular meeting following each election, the Board of Directors shall select one (1) of its members as president, and one (1) as secretary. The Board of Directors shall establish rules of procedure for its meetings.

Assumption of debts and obligations

Sec. 5. All lands, building equipment and other items owned by Archer County Hospital shall become the property of Archer County Hospital District upon the creation of the District. The Commissioners Court shall provide by order that all property so owned shall be conveyed to Archer County Hospital District in consideration of the District assuming all debts and obligations arising from the acquisition, construction, and operation of Archer County Hospital. The District, through its Board of Directors, shall by resolution accept said properties and shall assume all such liabilities and obligations of Archer County Hospital.

Tax; levy and collection

Sec. 6. (a) Upon the creation of Archer County Hospital District, the Board of Directors shall levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the District at the same time taxes are levied for county purposes, using the county values and the county tax roll, a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of: (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which are assumed or which may be issued by the Hospital District for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital or hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

(b) Not later than October 1 of each year, the Board of Directors shall levy the tax on all taxable property within the District which is subject to taxation and immediately certify such tax rate to the tax assessor and collector of Archer County. It shall be collected on all property subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the County on the county tax values, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes. The assessor and collector of taxes shall charge and deduct from payments to the Hospital District the fees for assessing and collecting the tax at the rate not exceeding one per cent (1%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the Board of Directors but in no event in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for any one fiscal year. The fees shall be deposited in the County's general fund, and shall be reported as fees of office of the tax assessor and collector. Interest and penalties on taxes paid to the Hospital District shall be the same as in the case of county taxes. Discounts shall be the same as for county taxes. The residue of tax collections after deduction of discounts and fees for assessing and collecting shall be deposited in the district depository; and such funds shall be withdrawn only as provided herein. All other income of the Hospital District shall be deposited in like manner with the district depository.

(c) The Board of Directors shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District, and to pay assumed obligations.

Bonds

Sec. 7. (a) The Board of Directors of the District may issue and sell bonds in the name of the District and upon the faith and credit of the District to purchase, construct, acquire, repair or renovate improvements and for initially equipping the hospital or hospital system as such system may be defined by the Board, and for all other purposes.

(b) At the time such bonds are issued a tax shall be levied by the Board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest and principal as they mature. Such a tax, together with all other taxes levied by the District shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the District and on its behalf by the president of the Board of Directors and countersigned by the secretary of the Board of Directors, and subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval thereof by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and the registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for such approval and registration of bonds of such county. Upon the approval of the bonds by the Attorney General of Texas the same shall be incontestable for any cause. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District (except refunding bonds) until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying electors, residing in such Hospital District, voting at an election called and held for such purpose. Such election may be called by the Board of Directors of its own motion, shall specify the place or places where the election shall be held, the presiding officers thereof, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, maximum interest rate (not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum) and the maximum maturity date of such bonds (not to exceed forty (40) years from their date of issuance). Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election in a newspaper of general circulation in such county once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the date of election, the date of the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for the election. The costs of the election shall be paid by the Hospital District.

(c) Bonds for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bonded indebtedness theretofore assumed or issued by the District may be issued without the necessity of an election. Such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or may be exchanged in whole or part for not less than a like amount of said outstanding bonds and unpaid interest matured thereon; provided the interest cost on such refunding bonds, computed in accordance with recognized standard bond interest costs tables, shall not exceed the interest cost so computed upon the bonds to be refunded. In the foregoing computations, any premiums required to be paid upon the bonds to be refunded as a condition to payment in advance of their stated maturity dates shall be taken into account and added to the net interest cost to the Hospital District of the refunding bonds.

Rules and regulations; administrator; employees

Sec. 8. (a) The Board of Directors shall manage, control and administer the hospital or hospital system of the Hospital District. The District, through its Board of Directors, shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of said District.

(b) The Board of Directors shall appoint a qualified person to be known as the administrator of the Hospital District and may in its discretion appoint an assistant to the administrator. The administrator and assistant administrator, if any, shall serve at the will of the Board and shall receive such compensation as they may fix. The administrator and assistant administrator shall, before assuming their duties, execute a bond payable to the Hospital District in an amount to be set by the Board of Directors, in no event less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) conditioned that they shall faithfully perform the duties required of them and containing such other conditions as the Board may require. The administrator shall supervise all the work and activities of the District and have general direction of the affairs of the District, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board.

(c) The Board of Directors shall have the authority to employ such doctors, technicians, nurses and other employees of every kind and character as may be deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the District or may provide that the administrator shall have the authority to employ any of such personnel. The Board of Directors shall be authorized to contract with any county or incorporated municipality, other than those located within Archer County, for the care and treatment of the sick, diseased or injured persons of such County or city, and shall have the authority to contract with the State of Texas and agencies of the Federal Government for treatment of sick, diseased or injured persons for whom the State of Texas or the Federal Government are responsible. The Board of Directors is also authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with the State of Texas or the Federal Government as may be required to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of the District's employees.

Purchases and expenditures

Sec. 9. The Board of Directors shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures; however, no contract for an amount exceeding Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) shall be made without first receiving competitive bids for the same in the manner required and provided for by Article 2368a of Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas, known as the "Bond and Warrant Law."

Receipts and disbursements; budget

Sec. 10. (a) The Board of Directors shall establish a fiscal year for the District, and as soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal year the administrator shall prepare for the Board a full sworn statement of all moneys and choses in action received by said District and a full account of the disbursements of the same.

(b) Each year the Board shall cause a budget to be prepared showing proposed expenditures and disbursements and estimated receipts and collections for the following fiscal year. A public hearing on the proposed budget shall be held. Notice of the public hearing shall be given in a newspaper of general circulation in the County not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing.

Eminent domain

Sec. 11. Archer County Hospital District shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real and personal or mixed, or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of said District, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, powers, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided that the said District shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by paragraph 2 of Article 3268, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the District, the District shall not be required to pay in advance or to give bond or other security for costs in the trial court, nor to give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas on any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any court of civil appeals or to the Supreme Court.

Depository

Sec. 12. Within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the Board of Directors, the Board shall select a depository for the District in the manner provided by law for the selection of county depositories, and such depository shall be the depository of such District for a period of two (2) years thereafter and until its successor is selected and qualified.

Inspection of district

Sec. 13. Archer County Hospital District shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the Texas State Department of Health or the Texas Department of Public Welfare, and the Board of Directors shall admit such representatives into all Hospital District facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers, and accounts pertaining to the Hospital District.

Legal counsel

Sec. 14. The County Attorney of Archer County shall represent the District; however, the Board of Directors is authorized to employ additional counsel as needed.

Limiting powers of county and cities

Sec. 15. (a) After the creation of Archer County Hospital District, Archer County or other political subdivision shall not have the power to levy or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within Archer County. Archer County Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the operation of Archer County Hospital and the furnishing of medical and hospital care for indigent persons residing in the District from the date of its formation.

(b) That portion of delinquent taxes levied by Archer County or other political subdivision, for hospital purposes, shall be paid as collected to the District and applied by the District to the purposes for which the taxes originally were levied.

Patients; inquiry as to ability to pay; liability of relatives

Sec. 16. Whenever a patient who resides within the District has been admitted to the facilities of the Hospital District, the administrator shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances and those of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are able to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the treasurer of the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The administrator shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient or his relatives legally liable for his support in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the administrator finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District as to the amount of inability to pay. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay or doubt in the mind of the administrator, the Board of Directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 17. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District is authorized, on behalf of the District, to accept donations, gifts, and endowments for the Hospital District, to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objectives of the District. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 349, ch. 133.

Effective 90 days after May 24, 1963, date of adjournment.

Art. 4494q—13. Sweeny Hospital DistrictPurpose of act

Section 1. In accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 9, Constitution of the State of Texas, this Act shall be operative so as to authorize the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of a hospital district within the State of Texas, to be known as the Sweeny Hospital District with boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of the Sweeny Independent School District.

Duties of district; election; ballots

Sec. 2. The hospital district herein authorized to be created, shall provide for the establishment of a hospital system to furnish medical and hospital care to persons residing in said hospital district by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair, or renovation of buildings and improvements; and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such district shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. Such hospital district shall not be created nor shall such tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such taxes are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the district voting in an election called for such purpose. Such election may be initiated by election judges, who shall be O. K. Hitchcock, Earl Wells, Bobby W. Brown, George Sparkman and Roy Walby upon their own motion or upon a petition of one hundred (100) resident qualified property taxpaying electors, residing within the boundaries of the proposed hospital district, to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the time said election is ordered by the election judges.

The order calling the election shall specify the time and place or places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. At such election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors the proposition of whether or not Sweeny Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the district voting in said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the creation of the Sweeny Hospital District; providing for the levy of annual taxes not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District."

"AGAINST the creation of the Sweeny Hospital District; providing for the levy of annual taxes not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District."

Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in Sweeny Hospital District once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election.

The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose.

Canvass of returns; board of directors; terms of office; bond; officers

Sec. 3. Within ten (10) days after such election is held the election judges shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and if a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors voting at said election voted in favor of the proposition, they shall so find and declare the hospital district established and created and O. K. Hitchcock, Earl Wells, Bobby W. Brown, George Sparkman and Roy Walby shall be the directors of the district to serve until the first Saturday in April following the creation and establishment of the district at which time five (5) directors shall be elected. The three (3) directors receiving the highest vote at such first election shall serve for two (2) years, the other two (2) directors shall serve for one (1) year. Thereafter, all directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the board of directors of said hospital district unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the board of directors shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said district conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the district for safe-keeping.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

The board of directors shall organize by electing one (1) of their number as president and one (1) of their number as secretary. Any three (3) members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of three (3) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district. All vacancies in the office of director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the board of directors. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than three (3) for any reason, the remaining directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a district court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the district, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining directors.

A regular election of directors shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for director shall file a petition, signed by not less than twenty-five (25) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the board of directors of the district. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election.

Management and control of district

Sec. 4. The management and control of each hospital district created pursuant to the provisions of this Act is hereby vested in the board of directors of the district who shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties upon the approval of such expenses by the entire board of directors.

Taxes; levy and collection

Sec. 5. Upon the creation of such hospital district, the board of directors shall have the power and authority and it shall be their duty to levy on all property subject to hospital district taxation for the benefit of the district at the same time taxes are levied for county purposes, using the county values and the county tax roll, a tax of not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within the hospital district, for the purpose of: (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may be issued by the hospital district for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital district and hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

Not later than October 1st of each year, the board of directors shall levy the tax on all taxable property within the district which is subject to taxation and shall immediately certify such tax rate to the tax assessor and collector of the county in which the district is located. The tax so levied shall be collected on all property subject to hospital district taxation by the assessor and collector of taxes for the county on the county tax values, and in the same manner and under the same conditions as county taxes. The assessor and collector of taxes shall charge and deduct from payments to the hospital district the fees for assessing and collecting the tax at the rate of not exceeding one percent (1%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the board of directors but in no event in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for any one (1) fiscal year. Such fees shall be deposited in the county's general fund, and shall be reported as fees of office of the tax assessor and collector. Interest and penalties on taxes paid to the hospital district shall be the same as for county taxes. The residue of tax collections, after deduction of discounts and fees for assessing and collecting, shall be deposited in the district depository; and such funds shall be withdrawn only as provided herein. All other income of the hospital district shall be deposited in like manner with the district depository.

The board of directors shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said hospital district is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the hospital district.

Bonds

Sec. 6. The board of directors shall have the power and authority to issue and sell as the obligations of such hospital district, and in the name and upon the faith and credit of such hospital district, bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospital purposes and for any or all of such purposes; provided, that a sufficient tax shall be levied to create an interest and sinking fund to pay the interest and principal as same matures providing said tax together with any other taxes levied for said district shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) in any one (1) year. Such bonds shall be executed in the name of the hospital district and on its behalf by the president of the board of directors, and countersigned by the secretary of the board of directors, and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of approval thereof by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and the registration thereof by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for such approval and registration of bonds of counties of this state. Upon the approval of such bonds by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller the same shall be incontestable for any cause. No bonds shall be issued by such hospital district (except refunding bonds) until authorized by a majority vote of the legally qualified property taxpaying electors, residing in such hospital district, voting at an election called and held for such purpose. Such election may be called by the board of directors on its own motion, and the order calling said election shall specify the date of the election, the place or places where the election shall be held, the presiding officers thereof, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, maximum interest rate (not to exceed six percent (6%) per annum) and the maximum maturity date of such bonds (not to exceed forty (40) years from their date of issuance). Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the order calling the election in a newspaper of general circulation in such county once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the date of election, the date of the first publication being at least fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for the election. The cost of such election shall be paid by the hospital district.

The bonds of the district may be made optional for redemption prior to their maturity date at the discretion of the board of directors.

The district may without an election issue the bonds to refund and pay off any validly issued and outstanding bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by the district, provided any such refund bonds shall bear interest at the same rate or at a lesser rate than the bonds being refunded unless it be shown mathematically that a savings will result in the total amount of interest to be paid.

Bond election

Sec. 6a. At the option of the election judges named in Section 2 of this Act, said election judges may order an election for the issuance of bonds to be held on the same day as the election called for in said Section 2. Such election may be called by a separate election order, or as a part of the order calling the election called for in said Section 2. The provisions of Section 6 of this Act shall apply to such election, with the exception that such election shall be ordered by the election judges and the returns of said election shall be canvassed by said election judges. If the bonds are authorized at said election, then they shall be issued by the board of directors (assuming, of course, that the proposition called for in Section 2 is favored by a majority vote). With the exception of bonds authorized by this Section 6a, all bond elections shall be ordered and the returns thereof shall be canvassed by the board of directors.

Purchases and expenditures

Sec. 7. The board of directors of such district shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures by and for such hospital district, and also shall prescribe all accounting and control procedures; the method of purchasing necessary supplies, materials and equipment; and shall have the power to adopt a seal for such district; and may employ a general manager, attorney, bookkeeper, architect, and any other employees deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the hospital district.

All books, records, accounts, notices and minutes and all other matters of the district and the operation of its facilities shall, except as herein provided, be maintained at the office of the district and there be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

The board of directors is specifically empowered to adopt rules and regulations governing the operation of such district and its facilities which rules and regulations shall supplement but shall not contravene any of the provisions of this Act. Such rules and regulations may, upon approval of the board of directors, be published in booklet or pamphlet form at the expense of the district and may be made available to any taxpayer upon request.

Fiscal affairs; books and records; budget

Sec. 8. The fiscal year of the hospital district authorized to be established by the provisions hereof shall commence on October 1st of each year and end on the 30th day of September of the following year. The district directors shall cause an annual independent audit to be made of the books and records of the district, such audit to be made covering such fiscal year, and the same shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas and at the office of the district not later than December 31st of each year.

The board of directors shall each year cause a budget to be prepared showing the proposed expenditures and disbursements and the estimated receipts and collections for the following fiscal year and shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget after publication of a notice of hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least once not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing. Any person who is a taxpayer of the district shall have the right to appear at the time and place designated in the notice and be heard with reference to any item shown in the proposed budget. The proposed budget shall also show the amount of taxes required to be levied and collected during such fiscal year and upon final approval of the budget, the board of directors shall levy such tax as may be required and certify the tax rate for such year to the county tax assessor and collector as provided in Section 5 hereof, and it shall be the duty of the said tax assessor and collector to assess and collect such tax.

Eminent domain

Sec. 9. A hospital district organized in pursuance of this Act shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind or character, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, including outright ownership of such property in fee simple absolute, within the boundaries of the said district, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the rights, power, privileges and functions conferred upon it by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation; provided that the said district shall not be required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court of the sum required by Paragraph No. 2 in Article 3268, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, 1925, or to make the bond required therein. In condemnation proceedings being prosecuted by the said district, the district shall not be required to pay in advance or to give bond or other security for costs in the trial court, nor to give any bond otherwise required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a temporary injunction relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor to give bond for costs or for supersedeas on any appeal or writ of error proceeding to any Court of Civil Appeals, or to the Supreme Court.

Depository

Sec. 10. Within thirty (30) days after appointment and qualification of the board of directors of a hospital district, the said directors shall by resolution designate a bank or banks within the county in which the district is located as the district's depository or treasurer and all funds of the district shall be secured in the manner now provided for the security of county funds. The depository shall serve for a period of two (2) years until a successor has been named.

Inspection of district

Sec. 11. The hospital district established or maintained under provisions of this Act shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health or any State Board of Charities (or Public Welfare) that may hereafter be created, and resident officers shall admit such representatives into all hospital district facilities and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers and accounts pertaining to the hospital district.

Limiting powers of county and cities

Sec. 12. Except as herein provided, Brazoria County, or any city or town within the hospital district, shall not levy any tax against any property within the hospital district for hospital purposes; and such hospital district shall assume full responsibility for the furnishing of medical and hospital care for the needy and indigent persons residing in said hospital district from the date that taxes are collected for the hospital district.

Patients; inquiry as to ability to pay; liability of relatives

Sec. 13. Whenever a patient residing in the hospital district has been admitted to the facilities of the hospital district, the directors shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If they find that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the treasurer of the hospital district for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The district shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the agent designated by the district to handle such affairs finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the hospital district. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the person designated as aforesaid, the district's directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which appeal shall lie to the district court by either party to the dispute.

Donations, gifts and endowments

Sec. 14. Said board of directors of the hospital district is authorized on behalf of said hospital district to accept donations, gifts and endowments for the hospital district to be held in trust and administered by the board of directors for such purposes and under such direction, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by donor, not inconsistent with proper management and objects of the hospital district.

Legal and authorized investments

Sec. 15. All bonds issued by or assumed by the districts authorized to be established and created under the provisions of this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Suits

Sec. 16. The hospital district created under the provisions of this Act shall be and is declared to be a political subdivision of the State of Texas, and as a governmental agency may sue and be sued in any and all courts of this state in the name of such district.

Severability clause

Sec. 17. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitutions, and all acts done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the district shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the authorization for the creation of the district or the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have created the district and enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

Publication of notice

Sec. 18. Proof of publication of the constitutional notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of local and special laws and is hereby found and declared to be proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 361, ch. 135.

Emergency. Effective May 10, 1963.

Art. 4494q—14. Caprock Hospital District

Constitutional authority

Section 1. Pursuant to authority granted by the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, Caprock Hospital District is hereby authorized to be created and as created shall have boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Commissioners Precincts 1, 3 and 4 of Floyd County, as constituted on January 1, 1963, and no territory may be annexed or added to the District. The District shall possess such rights, powers and duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

Purposes of District

Sec. 2. The District herein authorized to be created shall provide for the establishment of hospital or hospital system within its boundaries by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such district shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. There being no hospital, hospital system or hospital facilities of any nature presently owned by Floyd County or any city or town in the boundaries hereinabove set forth, no provisions are made herein for the transfer of properties or equipment or the assumption of outstanding indebtedness heretofore incurred for hospital purposes.

Creation of District

Sec. 3. The District shall not be created nor shall any tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such tax are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by the Commissioners Court of Floyd County upon presentation of a petition therefor signed by at least fifty (50) qualified property taxpaying electors of the proposed District. Such election shall be held not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty-five (35) days from the time such election is ordered by the Commissioners Court. The order calling the election shall specify the time and places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in said District once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election. The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors of said District the proposition of whether or not the Caprock Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR THE CREATION OF CAPROCK HOSPITAL DISTRICT; PROVIDING FOR THE LEVY OF A TAX NOT TO EXCEED SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS (75¢) ON THE ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100) VALUATION";

and

"AGAINST THE CREATION OF CAPROCK HOSPITAL DISTRICT; PROVIDING FOR THE LEVY OF A TAX NOT TO EXCEED SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS (75¢) ON THE ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100) VALUATION."

Selection of Directors; tax roll; procedure for tax levy

Sec. 4. Within ten (10) days after such election is held the Commissioners Court in such county shall convene and canvass the returns of the election, and if a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors voting at said election voted in favor of the proposition, the court shall so find and declare the Hospital District established and created and appoint five (5) persons as directors of the Hospital District to serve until the first Saturday in April following the creation and establishment of the District, at which time five (5) directors shall be elected. The three (3) directors receiving the highest vote at such first election shall serve for two (2) years; the other two (2) directors shall serve for one (1) year. Thereafter, all directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the Board of Directors of said Hospital District unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the Board of Directors shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the District for safekeeping.

The Board of Directors shall organize by electing one (1) of their number as president and one (1) of their number as secretary. Any three (3) members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of three (3) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District. All vacancies in the office of director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the Board of Directors. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than three (3) for any reason, the remaining directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a district court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the District, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining directors.

A regular election of directors shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for director shall file a petition, signed by not less than twenty-five (25) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the Board of Directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of the election.

Upon the creation of such Hospital District, the Board of Directors shall have the power and authority and it shall be their duty to levy on all property subject to Hospital District taxation for the benefit of the District at the same time taxes are levied for county purposes, using the county values and the county tax roll, a tax of not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within the Hospital District, for the purpose of: (1) paying the interest on and creating a sinking fund for bonds which may be issued by the Hospital District, for hospital purposes as herein provided; (2) providing for the operation and maintenance of the Hospital District and hospital system; and (3) for the purpose of making further improvements and additions to the hospital system, and for the acquisition of necessary sites therefor, by purchase, lease or condemnation.

Powers of Directors

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall manage, control and administer the hospitals and hospital system of the District. The District through its Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of the District. The Board of Directors shall appoint a qualified person to be known as the Administrator or Manager of the Hospital District and may in its discretion appoint an Assistant to the Administrator or Manager. Such Administrator or Manager, and Assistant Administrator or Assistant Manager, if any, shall serve at the will of the Board and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board. The Administrator or Manager shall, upon assuming his duties, execute a bond payable to the Hospital District in an amount to be set by the Board of Directors, in no event less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), conditioned that he shall perform the duties required of him and containing such other conditions as the Board may require. The Administrator or Manager shall supervise all the work and activities of the District subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to employ such technicians, nurses and other employees of every kind and character as may be deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the District or may provide that the Administrator or Manager shall have the authority to employ such persons. Such Board shall be authorized to contract with any county or incorporated municipality located outside the District for the care and treatment of the sick, diseased or injured persons of any such county or municipality and shall have the authority to contract with the State of Texas and agencies of the Federal Government for treatment of sick, diseased or injured persons for whom the State of Texas or the Federal Government are responsible. The Board of Directors is also authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with the State of Texas or the Federal Government as may be required to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of the District's employees.

Fiscal year—audit—accounting

Sec. 6. The District shall be operated on a fiscal year commencing on October 1st of each year and ending on September 30th of the succeeding year and it shall cause an audit to be made of the financial condition of said District which shall at all times be open to inspection at the principal office of the District. In addition, the Administrator or Manager shall prepare an annual budget for approval by the Board of Directors of said District. As soon as practical after the close of each fiscal year, the Administrator or Manager shall prepare for the Board a full sworn statement of all moneys belonging to the District and a full account of the disbursements of same.

Authorization of bonds and levy of tax

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District shall have the power and authority to issue and sell its bonds in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospitals and the hospital system, as determined by the Board, and for any or all of such purposes. At the time of the issuance of any such bonds, a tax shall be levied by the Board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund and to pay the interest on and principal of said bonds as same mature, providing such tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed Seventy Five Cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one (1) year. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, but shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and in its behalf by the President of the Board and attested by the Secretary as provided by Article 717j-1, V.A.T.C.S., and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for approval and registration of bonds issued by counties. After approval of any such bonds by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller, said bonds shall be incontestable. No bond shall be issued by such Hospital District except refunding bonds, until authorized by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by the Board of Directors and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and except as therein otherwise provided, shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of Texas pertaining to elections. The District shall make provisions for defraying the costs of all elections called and held under the provisions of this Act. The election order shall specify the date of the election, the amount of bonds to be authorized, the maximum maturity thereof, the maximum rate of interest they are to bear, the place or places where the election shall be held and the presiding officers thereof.

The bonds of the District may be issued for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bond or other refundable indebtedness issued by the District. Such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness, or may be exchanged in whole or in part for not less than a like principal amount of such outstanding bonds or refundable indebtedness; provided that if such refunding bonds are to be exchanged for a like amount of said outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness, the interest thereon computed in accordance with recognized standard bond interest cost tables shall not exceed the average interest cost per annum so computed upon the bonds or other indebtedness to be refunded; and provided further, that if such refunding bonds are to be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness same shall be issued and payments made in the manner specified by Article 717k, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Bonds exempt from taxation

Sec. 8. In carrying out the purposes of this Act the District will be performing an essential public function and any bonds issued by it and their transfer and the issuance therefrom, including any profits made in the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.

Purchases and expenditures

Sec. 9. The Board of Directors of such District shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures, by and for such Hospital District, and also shall be authorized to prescribe all accounting and control procedures and to make such rules and regulations as may be required to carry out the provisions of this Act.

District depository

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors of the District shall name one (1) or more banks within the District to serve as depository for the funds of the District. All such funds shall, as derived and collected, be immediately deposited with such depository bank or banks except that sufficient funds shall be remitted to the bank or banks for the payment of principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the District in time that such money may be received by said bank or banks of payment on or prior to the date of maturity of such principal and interest so to be paid. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for security of county funds. Membership on the Board of Directors of an officer or director of a bank shall not disqualify such bank from being designated as depository.

Bonds eligible for investment and to secure deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds of the District shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments of banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies, including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of public funds of the State of Texas and public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Eminent domain

Sec. 12. The District created hereunder shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind and character in fee simple, or any lesser interest therein, within the boundaries of the District, necessary or convenient to the powers, rights and privileges conferred by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation.

Levy, assessment and collection of taxes

Sec. 13. District taxes shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as provided by law with relation to county taxes. The Tax Assessor and/or Collector of Floyd County shall be charged and required to accomplish the assessment and collection of all taxes levied by and on behalf of the District and to promptly pay over the same to the District depository, and shall charge such compensation therefor as may be provided for by contract with the District but not to exceed the amount allowed for assessment and collection of county taxes. All such fees shall be deposited in the county's general fund and shall be reported as fees of office of the Tax Assessor-Collector. The bond of the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall stand as security for the proper performance of his duties as Assessor-Collector of the District, or, if in the judgment of the District Board of Directors, it is necessary that additional bond payable to the District may be required. In all matters pertaining to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes for the District, the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall be authorized to act in all respects according to the laws of the State of Texas relating to state and county taxes.

The Board of Directors shall have the authority to levy the tax aforesaid for the entire year in which the said Hospital District is established, for the purpose of securing funds to initiate the operation of the Hospital District.

Patients; inquiry as to the ability to pay; liability of relative

Sec. 14. Whenever a patient residing within the District has been admitted to the facilities thereof, the Administrator or Manager shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances and those of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are able to pay for his care and treatment, in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The Administrator or Manager shall have power and authority to collect such sums from the estate of the patient or his relatives legally liable for his support in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses in the last illness of a deceased person. If the Administrator or Manager finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District as to the amount of the inability to pay. Should there be any dispute as to the ability to pay or doubt in the mind of the Administrator or Manager, the Board of Directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order or orders as may be proper.

Donations

Sec. 15. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of such District to accept donations, gifts and endowments to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with proper management and object of the Hospital District.

Annual budget

Sec. 16. The Board of Directors of said Hospital District shall cause to be prepared an annual budget based upon the fiscal year of the Hospital District in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 hereof and prior to September 1st of each year shall give notice of the public hearing on the proposed budget. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing.

District alone to incur indebtedness for hospital purposes

Sec. 17. After creation of Caprock Hospital District as herein provided, no other municipality or political subdivision therein shall thereafter issue bonds or other evidence of indebtedness or levy taxes for hospital purposes for medical treatment of indigent persons and the said Caprock Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the operation of all hospital facilities for the furnishing of medical and hospital care of indigent persons within its boundaries.

State not to be obligated

Sec. 18. The support and maintenance of the Caprock Hospital District shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such District.

Severability clause

Sec. 19. If any of the provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Publication of notice

Sec. 20. Proof of publication of the notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of local and special laws and such notice is hereby found and declared proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 642, ch. 238.

Emergency. Effective May 30, 1963.

Art. 4494q—15. North Wheeler County Hospital District

Constitutional authority

Section 1. Pursuant to authority granted by the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, North Wheeler County Hospital District is hereby authorized to be created and as created shall have boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Commissioners' Precincts 1 and 2 of Wheeler County, as constituted on January 1, 1963, and possess such rights, powers and duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

Purposes of District

Sec. 2. The District herein authorized to be created shall provide for the establishment of a hospital or hospital system within said District by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants. There being no hospital, hospital system or hospital facilities of any nature presently owned by Wheeler County or any city or town therein no provisions are made herein for the transfer of properties or equipment or the assumption of any outstanding indebtedness incurred by them for hospital purposes such as is permitted by the aforementioned constitutional provision in the case of existing county, city or town hospitals, hospital systems or hospital facilities.

Creation of District

Sec. 3. The District shall not be created nor shall any tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such tax are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County upon its own motion and shall be called by said Commissioners Court upon presentation of a petition therefor signed by at least fifty (50) qualified property taxpaying electors of the District. Such election shall be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days from the time such election is ordered by the Commissioners Court. The order calling the election shall specify the time and places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in said District, once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election. The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors of said District the proposition of whether or not North Wheeler County Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds, and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the creation of a hospital district; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, and using Wheeler County, Texas, values and the Wheeler County, Texas, tax roll.", and

"AGAINST the creation of a hospital district; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, and using Wheeler County, Texas, values and the Wheeler County, Texas, tax roll."

District management

Sec. 4. Within ten (10) days after such election is held the Commissioners Court of said County shall convene and canvass the returns thereof and in the event such election results favorably to the proposition specified in Section 3 hereof, such District shall be governed by a Board of Directors to consist of five (5) members, who shall serve without pay. Each such Director must at the time of his election or appointment hereunder, be a resident of the District, own property subject to taxation therein and be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Not less than fifteen (15) nor more than twenty-five (25) days after the District is declared established and created the Commissioners Court shall call an election for the five (5) Directors who will serve as the District's first Board of Directors, this election to be held on a date not more than thirty (30) days after the day of the passage of the Commissioners Court order calling same but on such date as will permit publication of an election notice in a newspaper of general circulation in Wheeler County one (1) time not less than ten (10) days prior to such election date. Any candidate desiring to be voted upon as a first Director shall, no later than three (3) days prior to the day of passage of the Commissioners Court order calling the election, present a petition to that Court signed by such candidate and not less than five (5) qualified voters residing in the candidate's voting precinct, requesting that his name be placed upon the official ballot. For the purpose of electing Directors, the Hospital District shall be divided into five (5) voting precincts which shall be made up of the parts of the following school districts which lie within the Hospital District, using school district boundaries as of January 1, 1963, as follows: Allison, Kelton, Briscoe, Wheeler plus any part of Sections 14 and 15 of Block 27, H & G.N. Survey that are within the boundaries of the Hospital District, and Mobeetie plus any part of Sections 69 and 70 of Block 24 of H and G.N. Survey that are within the boundaries of the Hospital District. Any territory within the Hospital District, but not within one of the five (5) school districts, shall be added to the nearest Hospital District voting precinct by the action of the Board of Directors of the Hospital District. Each voting precinct of the Hospital District shall be represented by one (1) Director who must reside within the voting precinct. The regular term of each Director shall be for two (2) years but after the first called election, the Directors by lot shall select three (3) Directors for two (2) year terms, and two (2) Directors for one (1) year terms. The first year terms shall be ended on the date of the first annual election as hereinafter provided. No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the Board of Directors of said Hospital District unless he is a resident of the voting precinct thereof and owns property subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the Board of Directors shall qualify by executing the constitutional oath of office and shall execute a good and sufficient commercial bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the District for safekeeping. The cost of this bond shall be an expense of the Hospital District.

The Board of Directors shall organize by electing one (1) of their number as president, and one (1) as vice president and one (1) as secretary. Any three (3) members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of three (3) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District. All vacancies in the office of Director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the Board of Directors. In the event the number of Directors shall be reduced to less than three (3) for any reason, the remaining Directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a District Court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the District, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining Directors.

A regular election of Directors shall be held on the same day that the election of trustees of public schools is held each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for Director shall file a petition, signed by not less than five (5) qualified voters residing in the candidate's voting precinct asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the Board of Directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election. All qualified electors residing within the District shall be eligible to vote for Directors; provided, however, that such eligible elector can vote only to select a Director from the Hospital District voting precinct of the residence of such elector.

Powers of Directors

Sec. 5. The Board of Directors shall manage, control and administer the hospitals and hospital system of the District. The District through its Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of the District. The Board of Directors shall appoint a qualified person to be known as the Administrator or Manager of the Hospital District and may in its discretion appoint an Assistant to the Administrator or Manager. Such Administrator or Manager, and Assistant Administrator or Assistant Manager, if any, shall serve at the will of the Board and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board. The Administrator or Manager shall, upon assuming his duties, execute a bond payable to the Hospital District in an amount to be set by the Board of Directors, in no event less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), conditioned that he shall perform the duties required of him and containing such other conditions as the Board may require. The Administrator or Manager shall supervise all the work and activities of the District and shall have general direction of the affairs of the District subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Board. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to employ such doctors, technicians, nurses and other employees of every kind and character as may be deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the District or may provide that the Administrator or Manager shall have the authority to employ such persons. Such Board shall be authorized to contract with any county or incorporated municipality located outside Wheeler County for the care and treatment of the sick, diseased or injured persons of any such county or municipality and shall have the authority to contract with the State of Texas and agencies of the Federal Government, for treatment of sick, diseased or injured persons for whom the State of Texas or the Federal Government are responsible. The Board of Directors is also authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with the State of Texas or the Federal Government as may be required to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of the District's employees.

Fiscal year—audit—accounting

Sec. 6. The District shall be operated on a fiscal year commencing on October 1st of each year and ending on September 30th of the succeeding year and it shall cause an audit to be made of the financial condition of said District which shall at all times be open to inspection at the principal office of the District. In addition the Administrator or Manager shall prepare an annual budget for approval by the Board of Directors of said District. As soon as practical after the close of each fiscal year the Administrator or Manager shall prepare for the Board a full sworn statement of all moneys belonging to the District and a full account of the disbursements of same.

Authorization of bonds and levy of tax

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District shall have the power and authority to issue and sell its bonds in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospitals and the hospital system, as determined by the Board, and for any or all of such purposes. The first issue of bonds of the District shall not exceed a maximum interest rate of six per cent (6%) per annum. At the time of the issuance of any such bonds a tax shall be levied by the Board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund and to pay the interest on and principal of said bonds as same mature, providing such tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed seventy-five cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one year. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, but shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and in its behalf by the President of the Board and attested by the Secretary as provided by Article 717j—1, Vernon's Civil Statutes, and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for approval and registration of bonds issued by counties. After approval of any such bonds by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller, said bonds shall be incontestable. No bond shall be issued by such Hospital District except refunding bonds, until authorized by a majority of the qualified electors of the District who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by the Board of Directors and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and except as therein otherwise provided, shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of Texas pertaining to elections. The District shall make provisions for defraying the costs of all elections called and held under the provisions of this Act. The bond election order shall specify the date of the election, the amount of bonds to be authorized, the maximum maturity thereof, the maximum rate of interest they are to bear, the place or places where the election shall be held and the presiding officers thereof.

The bonds of the District may be issued for the purpose of refunding and paying off any bonds theretofore issued by such District. Such refunding bonds may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of outstanding bonds, or may be exchanged in whole or in part for not less than a like principal amount of such outstanding bonds provided that if refunding bonds are to be exchanged for a like amount of said outstanding bonds, such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate than borne by the bonds refunded, unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid on said refunding bonds; and provided further that if such refunding bonds are to be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of any such outstanding bonds or other refundable indebtedness same shall be issued and payments made in the manner specified by Article 717k, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended.

Bonds exempt from taxation

Sec. 8. In carrying out the purposes of this Act the District will be performing an essential public function and any bonds issued by it and their transfer and the issuance therefrom, including any profits made in the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State or any municipality or political subdivision thereof.

Purchases and expenditures

Sec. 9. The Board of Directors of such District shall have the power to prescribe the method and manner of making purchases and expenditures, by and for such Hospital District, and also shall be authorized to prescribe all accounting and control procedures and to make such rules and regulations as may be required to carry out the provisions of this Act.

District depository

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors of the District shall name one or more banks within Wheeler County to serve as depository for the funds of the District. All such funds shall, as derived and collected, be immediately deposited with such depository bank or banks except that sufficient funds shall be remitted to the bank or banks for the payment of principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the District or other obligations assumed by it and in time that such money may be received by said bank or banks of payment on or prior to the date of maturity of such principal and interest so to be paid. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for security of county funds. Membership on the Board of Directors of an officer or director of a bank shall not disqualify such bank from being designated as depository.

Bonds eligible for investment and to secure deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds of the District shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments of banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies, including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of public funds of the State of Texas and public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Eminent domain

Sec. 12. North Wheeler County Hospital District created hereunder shall have the right and power of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation any and all property of any kind and character in fee simple, or any lesser interest therein, within the boundaries of the District, necessary or convenient to the powers, rights and privileges conferred by this Act, in the manner provided by General Law with respect to condemnation.

Levy, assessment and collection of taxes

Sec. 13. The District shall use Wheeler County, Texas, tax values and Wheeler County, Texas, tax rolls. District taxes shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as provided by law with relation to County taxes. The Tax Assessor and/or Collector of Wheeler County shall be charged and required to accomplish the assessment and collection of all taxes levied by and on behalf of the District and to promptly pay over the same to the District Depository. For his services the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall be allowed such compensation as may be provided for by contract with the District but not to exceed the amount allowed for assessment and collection of County taxes. Provided further that the amount allowed for collection shall not exceed one per cent (1%) of the amounts collected as may be determined by the Board of Directors but in no event in excess of Two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) for any one (1) fiscal year. The bond of the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall stand as security for the proper performance of his duties as Assessor-Collector of the District, or, if in the judgment of the District Board of Directors, it is necessary that additional bond payable to the District may be required. In all matters pertaining to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes for the District, the County Tax Assessor-Collector shall be authorized to act in all respects according to the laws of the State of Texas relating to State and County taxes.

Patients: inquiry as to the ability to pay: liability of relative

Sec. 14. Whenever a patient residing within the District has been admitted to the facilities thereof, the Administrator or Manager, shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances and those of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are able to pay for his care and treatment, in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives, to pay to the Hospital District for the support of such patient a specified sum per week in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The Administrator or Manager shall have power and authority to collect such sums from the estate of the patient or his relatives legally liable for his support in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses in the last illness of a deceased person. If the Administrator or Manager finds that such patient or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, same shall become a charge upon the Hospital District as to the amount of the inability to pay. Should there be any dispute as to the ability to pay or doubt in the mind of the Administrator or Manager, the Board of Directors shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order or orders as may be proper.

Donations

Sec. 15. The Board of Directors of the Hospital District is authorized on behalf of such District to accept donations, gifts and endowments to be held in trust and administered by the Board of Directors for such purposes and under such directions, limitations, and provisions as may be prescribed in writing by the donor, not inconsistent with proper management and object of the Hospital District.

Annual budget

Sec. 16. The Board of Directors of said Hospital District shall cause to be prepared an annual budget based upon the fiscal year of the Hospital District in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 hereof and prior to September 1st of each year shall give notice of the public hearing on the proposed budget. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing.

District alone to incur indebtedness for hospital purposes

Sec. 17. After creation of North Wheeler County Hospital District, neither Wheeler County or no other municipality or political subdivision shall thereafter issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness or levy taxes for hospital purposes for medical treatment of indigent persons within said District and the said North Wheeler County Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for the operation of all hospital facilities for the furnishing of medical and hospital care of indigent persons.

State not to be obligated

Sec. 18. The support and maintenance of the North Wheeler County Hospital District shall never become a charge against or obligation of the

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such District.

Severability clause

Sec. 19. If any of the provisions of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Publication of notice

Sec. 20. Proof of Publication of the notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of local and special laws and such notice is hereby found and declared proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirement. Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 703, ch. 260.

Emergency. Effective May 30, 1963.

Art. 4494q—16. South Wheeler County Hospital District

Constitutional authority

Section 1. Pursuant to authority granted by the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, South Wheeler County Hospital District is hereby authorized to be created and as created shall have boundaries coextensive with the boundaries of Commissioners Precincts 3 and 4 of Wheeler County, as constituted on January 1, 1963, and possess such rights, powers and duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

Purposes of District

Sec. 2. The District herein authorized to be created shall take over and there shall be transferred to it the title to all lands, buildings, improvements and equipment in anywise pertaining to hospitals owned by any city or town thereof and thereafter it shall provide for the establishment of a hospital system by the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and equipment and the equipping of same and the administration thereof for hospital purposes. Such District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and shall assume the outstanding indebtedness which shall have been incurred by any city or town therein for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the District.

Creation of District

Sec. 3. The District shall not be created nor shall any tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such tax are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election may be initiated by the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County upon its own motion and shall be called by said Commissioners Court upon presentation of a petition therefor signed by at least fifty (50) qualified property taxpaying electors of the District. Such election shall be held not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty-five (35) days from the time such election is ordered by the Commissioners Court. The order calling the election shall specify the time and places of holding same, the form of ballot and the presiding judge for each voting place. Notice of election shall be given by publishing a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in said District once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date established for the election. The failure of any such election shall not operate to prohibit the calling and holding of subsequent elections for the same purpose. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified property taxpaying electors of said District the proposition of whether or not South Wheeler County Hospital District shall be created with authority to levy annual taxes at a rate not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such District for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the District's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, and a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at said election in favor of the proposition shall be sufficient for its adoption. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the creation of South Wheeler County Hospital District, the levy of a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation and the assumption by such District of all outstanding bonds and indebtedness heretofore issued and incurred by any city or town in said District for hospital purposes"; and

"AGAINST the creation of South Wheeler County Hospital District, the levy of a tax not to exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, and the assumption by such District of all outstanding bonds and indebtedness heretofore issued and incurred by any city or town in said District for hospital purposes."

District management

Sec. 4. Within ten (10) days after such election is held, the Commissioners Court in such county shall convene and canvass the returns thereof, and in the event such election results favorably to the proposition specified in Section 3 hereof, the Court shall so find and declare the Hospital District established and created, and appoint seven (7) persons as directors of the Hospital District to serve until the first Saturday in April following the creation and establishment of the District at which time seven (7) directors shall be elected. Two (2) directors shall be residents of Commissioners Court Precinct 3 who shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Precinct; two (2) directors shall be residents of Commissioners Court Precinct 4 who shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Precinct; three (3) directors shall be residents of either Commissioners Court Precincts 3 or 4 and shall be elected by the voters of both Precincts. After the first election the directors representing each Precinct shall have a one (1) year term. The other three (3) directors representing both Precincts shall have two (2) year terms. Thereafter, all directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until their successor has been duly elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed or elected as a member of the board of directors of said Hospital District unless he is a resident thereof and owns property subject to taxation therein and unless at the time of such election or appointment he shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age. Each member of the board of directors shall qualify by executing the Constitutional Oath of Office and shall execute a good and sufficient bond for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) payable to said District conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the District for safekeeping.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

The board of directors shall organize by electing one (1) of their number as president and one (1) as vice president and one (1) as secretary. Any four (4) members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and a concurrence of four (4) shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the District. All vacancies in the office of director shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the remainder of the board of directors. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than four (4) for any reason, the remaining directors shall immediately call a special election to fill said vacancies, and upon failure to do so a district court may, upon application of any voter or taxpayer of the District, issue a mandate requiring that such election be ordered by the remaining directors.

A regular election of directors shall be held on the first Saturday in April of each year and notice of such election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county one (1) time at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election. Any person desiring his name to be printed on the ballot as a candidate for director shall file a petition, signed by not less than ten (10) qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot, with the secretary of the board of directors of the District. Such petition shall be filed with such secretary at least twenty-five (25) days prior to the date of election.

Powers of directors

Sec. 5. The board of directors shall manage, control and administer the hospitals and hospital system of the District. The District through its board of directors shall have the power and authority to sue and be sued and to promulgate rules and regulations for the operation of the District. The board of directors shall appoint a qualified person to be known as the administrator or manager of the Hospital District and may in its discretion appoint an assistant to the administrator or manager. Such administrator or manager, and assistant administrator or assistant manager, if any, shall serve at the will of the board and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the board. The administrator or manager shall, upon assuming his duties, execute a bond payable to the Hospital District in an amount to be set by the board of directors, in no event less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), conditioned that he shall perform the duties required of him and containing such other conditions as the board may require. The administrator or manager shall supervise all the work and activities of the District and shall have general direction of the affairs of the District subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the board. The board of directors shall have the authority to employ such doctors, technicians, nurses and other employees of every kind and character as may be deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the District or may provide that the administrator or manager shall have the authority to employ such persons. Such board shall be authorized to contract with any county or incorporated municipality located outside the District for the care and treatment of the sick, diseased or injured persons of any such county or municipality and shall have the authority to contract with the State of Texas and agencies of the Federal Government, for treatment of sick, diseased or injured persons for whom the State of Texas or the Federal Government are responsible. The board of directors is also authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with the State of Texas or the Federal Government as may be required to establish or continue a retirement program for the benefit of the District's employees.

Fiscal year—audit—accounting

Sec. 6. The District shall be operated on a fiscal year commencing on October 1st of each year and ending on September 30th of the succeeding year and it shall cause an audit to be made of the financial condition of said District which shall at all times be open to inspection at the principal office of the District. In addition the administrator or manager shall prepare an annual budget for approval by the board of directors of said District. As soon as practical after the close of each fiscal year the administrator or manager shall prepare for the board a full sworn statement of all moneys belonging to the District and a full account of the disbursements of same.

Transfer of hospital facilities and assumption of indebtedness and assets

Sec. 7. All lands, buildings and equipment that at the time of the creation of the District are owned by any city or town therein and which were acquired by them for the purpose of providing hospital service or care for patients of such city shall become the property of South Wheeler County Hospital District and the governing body of any such city or town shall provide by order that all property so owned shall be conveyed to the South Wheeler County Hospital District in consideration of the Hospital District assuming all debts and obligations arising from the acquisition, construction and operation of such city or town hospital facilities. The Hospital District through its board of directors shall by resolution, accept said properties and shall assume all the liabilities, and obligations, including bonds and warrants incurred by such city or town for such hospital purposes.

District shall have charge of all hospital funds

Sec. 8. Any funds remaining in the hands of any city or town therein, as the proceeds of bonds assumed by the District, as herein provided, shall forthwith be transferred to and become the funds of the Hospital District and title thereto shall vest in such District. There shall also vest in said District and become the funds thereof the unspent portion of any other funds theretofore set up or appropriated by budget or otherwise by any city or town thereof for the support and maintenance of hospital facilities for the year within which the Hospital District is created, thereby providing such Hospital District with funds with which to maintain and operate such facilities for the remainder of such year. Any uncollected or delinquent taxes levied for hospital purposes by any city or town thereof, as collected, shall be paid to the District and applied by it to the purposes for which such taxes originally were levied. Any and all obligations under contracts legally incurred by any city or town therein for the building or the support and maintenance of hospital facilities prior to the creation of said District but outstanding at the time of its creation shall be assumed and discharged by such District without prejudice to the rights of third parties. It is provided that the management and control of the property and affairs of any hospital system or systems owned and operated by any city or town thereof shall continue in the existing board of managers until appointment and organization of the board of directors of the Hospital District, at which time the board of managers of the present hospital or hospital system shall turn over all records, property and affairs of said hospital system to the board of directors of the District and shall cease to exist as a board of managers of the existing hospital system.

The governing body of any city therein owning the hospital or hospital system, as the case may be, as soon as the Hospital District is created and authorized at the election hereinabove provided, and there have been appointed and qualified the board of hospital directors above provided for, shall execute and deliver to the Hospital District, to wit: to its board of directors an instrument in writing conveying to said Hospital District the hospital properties including management, buildings and equipment, and shall transfer to said Hospital District the funds hereinabove provided to be vested in the Hospital District. Such funds, in the hands of the Hospital District and its board of directors shall be used for all or any of the same purposes and for no other purposes than, the purposes for which the county or city transferring such funds could lawfully have used the same had they remained the property and funds of such county or city.

Authorization of bonds and levy of tax

Sec. 9. The board of directors of the Hospital District shall have the power and authority to issue and sell its bonds in the name and upon the faith and credit of such Hospital District for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping the same for hospitals and the hospital system, as determined by the board, and for any or all of such purposes. At the time of the issuance of any such bonds a tax shall be levied by the board sufficient to create an interest and sinking fund and to pay the interest on and principal of said bonds as same mature, providing such tax together with any other taxes levied for said District shall not exceed Seventy-five Cents (75¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of taxable property in any one (1) year. Such bonds shall be issued under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, but shall be executed in the name of the Hospital District and in its behalf by the president of the board and attested by the secretary and shall be subject to the same requirements in the matter of the approval by the Attorney General of Texas and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas as are by law provided for approval and registration of bonds issued by counties. After approval of any such bonds by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller, said bonds shall be incontestable. No bonds shall be issued by such Hospital District except refunding bonds, until authorized by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election shall be called by the board of directors and held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, and except as therein otherwise provided, shall be conducted in accordance with the General Laws of Texas pertaining to elections. The District shall make provisions for defraying the costs of all elections called and held under the provisions of this Act. The election order shall specify the date of the election, the amount of bonds to be authorized, the maximum maturity thereof, the maximum rate of interest they are to bear, the place or places where the election shall be held and the presiding officers thereof.
