Art. 5915. Insulating live wires.—In all mines where electricity is or hereafter shall be used as a part of the system, power or means of mining and procuring the coal or other mineral from any of said mines, the owners or operators of every such mine shall cause all wires conducting electricity in and about said mine to be carefully and thoroughly insulated or protected in a safe manner, so that the person or animal coming in contact therewith shall not be injured thereby. All wires as aforesaid shall either be thoroughly insulated or placed where persons employed in and about the mines cannot come in contact therewith, or shall be covered, protected or shielded in a safe manner, so as to prevent any injuries or accidents therefrom to those in or about the mines. It shall not be necessary to insulate or cover trolley wires, but they shall all be hung and kept not less than five feet and six inches above the rail, and shall be securely fastened, and not permitted to sag less than said height, where there is sufficient height in existing entries to permit this; but where sufficient height is not available in existing entries, then the trolley wires shall be placed to one side of the entry, six inches outside the rail; and in all such cases the trolley wire shall be placed on the side of the entry opposite from the working rooms, except where there are rooms on both sides of the entry, in which event the trolley wires may be placed over the opening of said rooms, said trolley wires to be safely shielded. Where it is impracticable in existing entries to place trolley wires six inches outside the rail, or five feet and six inches high, and where separate travel way is not provided, then the trolley wire shall be safely shielded. This article shall not apply to entries that are not used as travel ways for workmen or work animals, nor to mines in operation on January 1, 1902, and prior thereto, and which have developed until there is at least two thousand feet distance from the shaft to the face of the coal being operated, except as to extensions of trolley wires made in such mines. [Acts 1911, p. 196.]

Art. 5916. Duty of inspector.—The State Mining Inspector shall see that the provisions of this title are complied with and shall report all violations hereof to the State Mining Board and to the proper district or county attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5917. Map of mine.—Every operator of a coal mine in this State shall make a map of the underground workings of every mine in his charge. Said map shall be drawn on a scale of one inch to one hundred feet, and shall indicate the surface land lines as well as the rooms, entries or openings under ground. It shall be brought up to date at least once each month, covering operations for the preceding month. The original of said map shall be on file at the office of the operator at or near said mine. Said map shall be extended or brought up to date at any time requested by the State Mine Inspector, at least every three months. If, for any reason, a mine should be closed, then a final map shall be made and filed; but maps existing may be continued on the same scale as begun, if not smaller than one-half inch to one hundred feet. [Id.]

Art. 5918. Animals in mines.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation or receiver, owning, operating or managing any mine in this State to permit any work animal under his control to remain in any mine longer than ten consecutive hours, or to feed or permit to be fed any work animal in said mine, or to store or keep any feed for such animals in said mine. Each person, company, corporation or receiver who shall in any manner violate any provision of this article shall for each offense committed forfeit and pay to the State a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and the district or county attorney shall institute suit in the name of the State for the recovery of same. [Acts 1911, p. 205.]

Art. 5919. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply when the stables in which work animals are kept are equipped with fireproof doors at each opening, with doorframes of concrete, stone or brick, laid in mortar, and which door is kept closed during working hours, and where not more than twenty-four hours' supply of grass, cane, hay or other like inflammable feed, except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats, is taken down in any mine in any one day, and where no such feed, except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats, is taken down in the mine until after the regular day shift is out of the mine, and where no open light is taken into any underground stable in any mine. [Id.]

Art. 5920. Bath facilities.—The operator, owner, lessee or superintendent of every coal mine in this State employing ten or more men shall provide a suitable building convenient to the principal entrance of such mine, for the use of persons employed in and about said mine, for the purpose of washing themselves and changing their clothing when entering or leaving the mine. Such building shall be provided with proper light and heat, with a supply of hot and cold water and shower baths, and with properly constructed individual lockers for the use of such employees. The employees shall furnish their own towels, soap and locks for their lockers, and shall exercise control over and be responsible for all property by them left in such house. The baths and lockers for negroes shall be separate from those for whites, but may be in the same building. No operator, owner, lessee or superintendent or company, its officers or agents, maintaining such a bath house at his or its mine as required herein shall be liable for the loss or destruction of any property left at or in said house. The Commissioner of Labor Statistics of the State of Texas shall enforce the provisions of this article. [Acts 1915, p. 100.]

MINORS—REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES OF

5921. Requisites of removal.
5922. Petition and hearing.
5923. Citation and procedure.

Article 5921. [5947-5949] Requisites of removal.—Minors above the age of nineteen years, where it shall appear to their material advantage, may have their disabilities of minority removed, and be thereafter held, for all legal purposes, of full age, except as to the right to vote. [Acts 1881, p. 16; G. L., vol. 9, p. 108.]

Art. 5922. [5947] [3499] Petition and hearing.—The petition for such removal shall state the grounds relied on, whether the parents of the minor are living or dead, and the name and residence of each living parent. Such petition shall be sworn to by a person cognizant of the facts, and shall be filed in the district court of the county where the minor resides, and a hearing had on any day of any term of said court, or during a vacation of said court. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 102, ch. 71, § 1.]

Art. 5923. [5948-50] Citation and procedure.—A copy of the petition shall be served upon the father of the minor, if living within the State. If the father be dead, or living without the State, then such service shall be had upon the county judge of the county in which the petition was filed, in which event the trial court shall appoint a special guardian, who shall in connection with the county judge, represent the true interests of the minor in aiding or resisting his application. The judge shall make an allowance to such guardian, which shall be paid out of the estate of such minor, and shall, if the petition be granted, order a certified copy of the decree to be recorded in the deed records of the county where the estate of the minor is situated, the fee for recording to be paid out of the estate of the minor. If the court grants such petition the decree shall specifically adjudge the minor of full age for all legal purposes except as to the right to vote. [Id.]

1. Assumed name.
2. Change of name.

CHAPTER ONE

ASSUMED NAME

Art.

5924. Business under assumed name.
5925. Change of ownership.
5926. Index of certificate.
5927. Exceptions.

Article 5924. Business under assumed name.—No person shall conduct or transact business in this State under any assumed name or under any designation, name, style, corporate or otherwise other than the real name of each individual conducting or transacting such business, unless such person shall file in the office of the county clerk of the counties in which such person conducts, or transacts or intends to conduct or transact such business, a certificate setting forth the name under which such business is, or is to be, conducted or transacted, and the true full name or names of each person conducting or transacting the same, with the post-office address of each. Said certificate shall be executed and duly acknowledged by the persons so conducting or intending to conduct said business in the manner provided for acknowledgment of conveyance of real estate. [Acts 1921, p. 142.]

Art. 5925. Change of ownership.—Whenever there is a change in ownership of any business operated under any such assumed name each person disposing of his interest therein or withdrawing therefrom shall file with the county clerk of each county in which such business is being conducted and has a place of business, a certificate setting forth the fact of such withdrawal from or disposition of interest in such business, which certificate shall be executed and duly acknowledged as directed in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 5926. Index of certificate.—Each county clerk shall keep an alphabetical index of all persons filing certificates provided for herein, and for indexing and filing each certificate shall receive a fee of one dollar. A copy of such certificate duly certified to by the county clerk in whose office the same was filed shall be presumptive evidence in all courts in this State of the facts therein contained. [Id.]

Art. 5927. Exceptions.—The three preceding articles shall not apply to any domestic or foreign corporation lawfully doing business in this State. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO

CHANGE OF NAME

Art.

5928. Application.
5929. Changing minor's name.
5930. Not to injure third persons.
5931. In divorce suits.

Article 5928. [5951] [377] [336] Application.—Whoever desires to change either his Christian or surname, or both, and to adopt another name instead, shall file his application in the district court of the county of his residence, setting forth the causes for such desire. The judge of said court, if in his opinion it is for the interest or benefit of the applicant to so change his name shall decree that the adopted name of the party shall be substituted for the original name. [Act Feb. 5, 1856; G. L. vol. 4, p. 260.]

Art. 5929. [5952] [378] [337] Changing minor's name.—Whenever it shall be to the interest of any minor to change his name, the guardian or next friend of said minor shall file his application in the district court of the county of said minor's residence, alleging the reason for the change and giving the full name which the minor wishes to adopt. The judge of said court, if the facts alleged and proven satisfy him that such change will be for the benefit and interest of the minor shall grant authority to change his original name and adopt another. [Id.]

Art. 5930. [5953] [379] [338] Not to injure third persons.—Whenever any person shall change his original name and adopt another, it shall not operate to release him from any responsibility which he may have incurred by the original name nor defeat or destroy any rights or property or action which the person had or held in his original name. [Id.]

Art. 5931. [5954] [380] [339] In divorce suits.—On the final disposition of a divorce suit, the court, may in its discretion, enter a decree changing the name of either party specially praying for such change. [Id.]

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL

Article 5932. Form and interpretation.—Sec.

1. An instrument to be negotiable must conform to the following requirements:

1. It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer;
2. It must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money;
3. Must be payable on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time;
4. Must be payable to order or to bearer; and
5. Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

Sec. 2. The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of this Act, although it is to be paid:

1. With interest; or
2. By stated installments; or
3. By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment or of interest, the whole shall become due; or
4. With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or
5. With costs of collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.

Sec. 3. An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this Act, though coupled with:

1. An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or
2. A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the instrument; but an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

Sec. 4. An instrument is payable at a determinable future time, within the meaning of this Act, which is expressed to be payable:

1. At a fixed period after date or sight; or
2. On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or
3. On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event, which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be uncertain.

An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.

Sec. 5. An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:

1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
2. Authorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantages or protection of the obligor; or
4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

Nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

Sec. 6. The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that:

1. It is not dated; or
2. Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given therefor; or
3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or

4. Bears a seal; or

5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.

Nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.

Sec. 7. An instrument is payable on demand:

1. Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or

2. In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted, or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting, or indorsing it, payable on demand.

Sec. 8. The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of:

1. A payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee; or
2. The drawer or maker; or
3. The drawee; or
4. Two or more payees jointly; or
5. One or some of several payees; or
6. The holder of an office for the time being.

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

Sec. 9. The instrument is payable to bearer:

1. When it is expressed to be so payable; or

2. When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or

3. When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or nonexisting person, and such fact was known to the person making it so payable; or

4. When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or

5. When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

Sec. 10. The instrument need not follow the language of this Act, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements hereof.

Sec. 11. Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is prima facie evidence of the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance, or indorsement as the case may be.

Sec. 12. The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is ante-dated or post-dated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

Sec. 13. Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him, the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

Sec. 14. Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

Sec. 15. Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

Sec. 16. Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery, in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional, or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him is conclusively presumed. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

Sec. 17. Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, reference may be had to the figures to fix the amount;

2. Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof;

3. Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued;

4. Where there is a conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail;

5. Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or note, the holder may treat it as either at his election;

6. Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign he is to be deemed an indorser;

7. Where an instrument containing the words "I promise to pay" is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.

Sec. 18. No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. One who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

Sec. 19. The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose; and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.

Sec. 20. Where the instrument contains or a person adds to his signature words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity, he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character, without disclosing his principal, does not exempt him from personal liability.

Sec. 21. A signature by "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

Sec. 22. The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.

Sec. 23. When a signature is forced or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be, it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto, can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party, against whom it is sought to enforce such right, is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority. [Acts 1919, p. 190.]

Art. 5933. Consideration.—Sec. 24. Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable consideration; and every person whose signature appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

Sec. 25. Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing debt constitutes value; and is deemed such whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.

Sec. 26. Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who became such prior to that time.

Sec. 27. Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for value to the extent of his lien.

Sec. 28. Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against any person not a holder in due course; and partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto, whether the failure is an ascertained and liquidated amount or otherwise.

Sec. 29. An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser, without receiving value therefor, and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such a person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, notwithstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument knew him to be only an accommodation party. [Id.]

Art. 5934. Negotiation.—Sec. 30. An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof. If payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder completed by delivery.

Sec. 31. The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.

Sec. 32. The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An indorsement which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.

Sec. 33. An indorsement may be either special or in blank; and it may also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.

Sec. 34. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom, or to whose order, the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument. An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer, and may be negotiated by delivery.

Sec. 35. The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

Sec. 36. An indorsement is restrictive, which either:

1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or

3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some other person.

The mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.

Sec. 37. A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right:

1. To receive payment of the instrument;
2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

All subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.

Sec. 38. A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

Sec. 39. Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition, and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated, will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

Sec. 40. Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially, it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery, but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

Sec. 41. Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse, unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

Sec. 42. Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person as "Cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer; and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation, or the indorsement of the officer.

Sec. 43. Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled [misspelled], he may indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he thinks fit, his proper signature.

Sec. 44. Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

Sec. 45. Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected before the instrument was overdue.

Sec. 46. Except where the contrary appears, every indorsement is presumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instrument is dated.

Sec. 47. An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or otherwise.

Sec. 48. The holder may at any time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

Sec. 49. Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee such title as the transferor had therein, and the transferee acquires, in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the transferor. But for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in due course, the negotiation takes effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Sec. 50. Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party, such party may, subject to the provisions of this Act, reissue and further negotiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally liable. [Id.]

Art. 5935. Rights of the holder.—Sec. 51. The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name and payment to him in due course discharges the instrument.

Sec. 52. A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument under the following conditions:

1. That it is complete and regular upon its face;
2. That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was the fact;
3. That he took it in good faith and for value;

4. That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.

Sec. 53. Where an instrument payable on demand is negotiated an unreasonable length of time after its issue, the holder is not deemed a holder in due course.

Sec. 54. Where the transferee receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has paid the full amount agreed to be paid therefor, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount theretofore paid by him.

Sec. 55. The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of this Act when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.

Sec. 56. To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

Sec. 57. A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon.

Sec. 58. In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were non-negotiable. But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument, has all the rights of such former holder in respect of all parties prior to the latter.

Sec. 59. Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as holder in due course. But the last-mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title. [Id.]

Art. 5936. Liabilities of parties.—Sec. 60. The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor, and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

Sec. 61. The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to endorse; and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negating or limiting his own liability to the holder.

Sec. 62. The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance; and admits:

1. The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and
2. The existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

Sec. 63. A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor, is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

Sec. 64. Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery he is liable as indorser, in accordance with the following rules:

1. If the instrument is payable to the order of a third, person, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.

2. If the instrument is payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.

3. If he signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

Sec. 65. Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement, warrants:

1. That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be;

2. That he has a good title to it;

3. That all prior parties had capacity to contract;

4. That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.

When the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.

The provisions of subdivision three of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporation securities, other than bills and notes.

Sec. 66. Every indorser who indorses without qualification warrants to all subsequent holders in due course:

1. The matters and things mentioned in subdivision one, two and three of the next preceding section; and

2. That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting.

In addition, he engages that on due presentment, it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

Sec. 67. Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument negotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indorser.

Sec. 68. As respects one another, indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which they indorse; but evidence is admissible to show that as between or among themselves they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees or joint indorseees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally.

Sec. 69. Where a broker or other agent negotiates an instrument without indorsement he incurs all the liabilities prescribed by section sixty-five of this Act, unless he discloses the name of his principal, and the fact that he is acting only as agent. [Id.]

Art. 5937. Presentment for payment.—Sec. 70. Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument; but if the instrument is, by its terms, payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay it there at maturity, such ability and willingness are equivalent to a tender of payment upon his part. Except as herein otherwise provided, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 71. Where the instrument is not payable on demand, presentment must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on demand, presentment must be made within a reasonable time after its issue, except that in the case of a bill of exchange, presentment for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable time after the last negotiation thereof.

Sec. 72. Presentment for payment, to be sufficient, must be made:

1. By the holder, or by some person authorized to receive payment on his behalf;

2. At a reasonable hour on a business day;

3. At a proper place as herein defined;

4. To the person primarily liable on the instrument or if he is absent or inaccessible, to any person found at the place where the presentment is made.

Sec. 73. Presentment for payment is made at the proper place:

1. Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument and it is there presented;

2. Where no place of payment is specified, but the address of the person to make payment is given in the instrument and it is there presented;

3. Where no place of payment is specified and no address is given and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business or residence of the person to make payment;

4. In any other case if presented to the person to make payment wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known place of business or residence.

Sec. 74. The instrument must be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded, and when it is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it.

Sec. 75. Where the instrument is payable at a bank, presentment for payment must be made during banking hours, unless the person to make payment has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, in which case presentment at any hour before the bank is closed on that day is sufficient.

Sec. 76. Where a person primarily liable on the instrument is dead, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment must be made to his personal representative if such there be, and if, with the exercise of reasonable diligence, he can be found.

Sec. 77. Where the persons primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment may be made to any one of them even though there has been a dissolution of the firm.

Sec. 78. Where there are several persons, not partners, primarily liable on the instrument, and no place of payment is specified, presentment must be made to them all.

Sec. 79. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge the drawer where he has no right to expect or require the drawee or acceptor to pay the instrument.

Sec. 80. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge an indorser where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation and he has no reason to expect that the instrument will be paid if presented.

Sec. 81. Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 82. Presentment for payment is dispensed with:

1. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment as required by this Act cannot be made;

2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person;

3. By waiver of presentment, express or implied.

Sec. 83. The instrument is dishonored by non-payment when:

1. It is duly presented for payment and payment is refused or cannot be obtained; or

2. Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdue and unpaid.

Sec. 84. Subject to the provisions of this Act, when the instrument is dishonored by non-payment, an immediate right of recourse to all parties secondarily liable thereon accrues to the holder.

Sec. 85. Every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday, or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day. Instruments falling due (or becoming payable) on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment before twelve o'clock noon on Saturday when that entire day is not a holiday.

Sec. 86. Where the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date, after sight, or after the happening of a specified event, the time of payment is determined by excluding the day from which the time is to begin to run, and by including the date of payment.

Sec. 87. Where the instrument is made payable at a bank it is equivalent to an order to the bank to pay the same for the account of the principal debtor thereon.

Sec. 88. Payment is made in due course when it is made at or after the maturity of the instrument to the holder thereof in good faith and without notice that his title is defective. [Id.]

Art. 5938. Notice of dishonor.—Sec. 89. Except as herein otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment, notice of dishonor must be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any drawer or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged.

Sec. 90. The notice may be given by or on behalf of the holder, or by or on behalf of any party to the instrument who might be compelled to pay it to the holder, and who upon taking it up would have a right to reimbursement from the party to whom the notice is given.

Sec. 91. Notice of dishonor may be given by an agent either in his own name or in the name of any party entitled to give notice, whether that party be his principal or not.

Sec. 92. Where notice is given by or on behalf of the holder it enures for the benefit of all subsequent holders and all prior parties who have a right of recourse against the party to whom it is given.

Sec. 93. Where notice is given by or on behalf of a party entitled to give notice, it enures for the benefit of the holder and all parties subsequent to the party to whom notice is given.

Sec. 94. Where the instrument has been dishonored in the hands of an agent, he may either himself give notice to the parties liable thereon, or he may give notice to his principal. If he give notice to his principal, he must do so within the same time as if he were the holder, and the principal upon the receipt of such notice himself the same time for giving notice as if the agent had been an independent holder.

Sec. 95. A written notice need not be signed, and an insufficient written notice may be supplemented and validated by verbal communication. A misdescription of the instrument does not vitiate the notice unless the party to whom the notice is given is in fact misled [misled] thereby.

Sec. 96. The notice may be in writing or merely oral and may be given in any terms which sufficiently identify the instrument, and indicate, that it has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. It may in all cases be given by delivering it personally or through the mails.

Sec. 97. Notice of dishonor may be given either to the party himself or to his agent in that behalf.

Sec. 98. When any party is dead, and his death is known to the party giving notice, the notice must be given to a personal representative, if there be one, and if with reasonable diligence he can be found. If there be no personal representative, notice may be sent to the last residence or last place of business of the deceased.

Sec. 99. Where the parties to be notified are partners, notice to any one partner is notice to the firm even though there has been a dissolution.

Sec. 100. Notice to joint parties who are not partners must be given to each of them, unless one of them has authority to receive such notice for the others.

Sec. 101. Where a party has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, notice may be given either to the party himself or to his trustee or assignee.

Sec. 102. Notice may be given as soon as the instrument is dishonored; and unless delay is excused as hereinafter provided, must be given within the time fixed by this Act.

Sec. 103. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same place, notice must be given within the following times:

1. If given at the place of business of the person to receive notice, it must be given before the close of business hours on the day following.
2. If given at his residence, it must be given before the usual hours of rest on the day following.
3. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to reach him in usual course on the day following.

Sec. 104. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in different places, the notice must be given within the following times:

1. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if there be no mail at a convenient hour on that day, by the next mail thereafter.

2. If given otherwise than through the post office, then within the time that notice would have been received in due course of mail, if it had been deposited in the post office within the time specified in the last subdivision.

Sec. 105. Where notice of dishonor is duly addressed and deposited in the post office, the sender is deemed to have given due notice, notwithstanding any miscarriage in the mails.

Sec. 106. Notice is deemed to have been deposited in the post office when deposited in any branch post office or in any letter box under the control of the post-office department.

Sec. 107. Where a party receives notice of dishonor, he has, after the receipt of such notice, the same time for giving notice to antecedent parties that the holder has after the dishonor.

Sec. 108. Where a party has added an address to his signature, notice of dishonor must be sent to that address; but if he has not given such address, then the notice must be sent as follows:

1. Either to the post office nearest to his place of residence, or to the post office where he is accustomed to receive his letters or

2. If he live in one place, and have his place of business in another, notice may be sent to either place; or

3. If he is sojourning in another place, notice may be sent to the place where he is so sojourning.

Where the notice is actually received by the party within the time specified in this Act, it will be sufficient, though not sent in accordance with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 109. Notice of dishonor may be waived, either before the time of giving notice has arrived, or after the omission to give due notice, and the waiver may be express or implied.

Sec. 110. Where the waiver is embodied in the instrument itself, it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser, it binds him only.

Sec. 111. A waiver of protest, whether in the case of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument is deemed to be a waiver not only of a formal protest, but also of presentment and notice of dishonor.

Sec. 112. Notice of dishonor is dispensed with when, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, it can not be given to or does not reach the parties sought to be charged.

Sec. 113. Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, notice must be given with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 114. Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawer and drawee are the same person;

2. When the drawee is a fictitious person or person not having capacity to contract;

3. When the drawer is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;

4. Where the drawer has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will honor the instrument;

5. Where the drawer has countermanded payment.

Sec. 115. Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract, and the indorser was aware of the fact at the time he indorsed the instrument;

2. Where the indorser is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;

3. Where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation.

Sec. 116. Where due notice of dishonor by non-acceptance has been given, notice of a subsequent dishonor by non-payment is not necessary, unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.

Sec. 117. An omission to give notice of dishonor by non-acceptance does not prejudice the rights of a holder in due course subsequent to the omission.

Sec. 118. Where any negotiable instrument has been dishonored it may be protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, as the case may be; but protest is not required except in the case of foreign bills of exchange. [Id.]

Art. 5939. Discharge of negotiable instruments.—Sec. 119. A negotiable instrument is discharged:

1. By payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal debtor;

2. By payment in due course by the party accommodated, where the instrument is made or accepted for accommodation;

3. By the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder;

4. By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for the payment of money;

5. When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instrument at or after maturity in his own right.

Sec. 120. A person secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged:

1. By any act which discharges the instrument;

2. By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the holder;

3. By the discharge of a prior party;

4. By a valid tender of payment made by a prior party;

5. By a release of the principal debtor, unless the holder's right of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly reserved;

6. By any agreement binding upon the holder to extend the time of payment, or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the instrument, unless made with the assent of the party secondarily liable, or unless the right of recourse against such party is expressly reserved.

Sec. 121. Where the instrument is paid by a party secondarily liable thereon, it is not discharged; but the party so paying it is remitted to his former rights as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out his own and all subsequent indorsements, and again negotiate the instrument, except:

1. Where it is payable to the order of a third person, and has been paid by the drawer; and

2. Where it was made or accepted for accommodation, and has been paid by the party accommodated.

Sec. 122. The holder may expressly renounce his rights against any party to the instrument, before, at or after its maturity. An absolute and unconditional renunciation of his rights against the principal debtor made at or after the maturity of the instrument discharges the instrument. But a renunciation does not affect the rights of a holder in due course without notice. A renunciation must be in writing, unless the instrument is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon.

Sec. 123. A cancellation made unintentionally, or under mistake or without the authority of the holder, is inoperative; but where an instrument or any signature thereon appears to have been cancelled the burden of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation was made unintentionally, or under a mistake without authority.

Sec. 124. Where a negotiable instrument is materially altered without the assent of all parties liable thereon, it is avoided, except as against a party who has himself made, authorized or assented to the alteration, and subsequent indorsers.

When an instrument has been materially altered and is in the hands of a holder in due course, not a party to the alteration, he may enforce payment thereof according to its original tenor.

Sec. 125. Any alteration which changes:

1. The date;

2. The sum payable, either for principal or interest;

3. The time or place of payment;

4. The number or the relations of the parties;

5. The medium of currency in which payment is to be made;

Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payment is specified, or any other change or addition which alters the effect of the instrument in any respect, is a material alteration. [Id.]

BILLS OF EXCHANGE

Art. 5940. Form and interpretation.—Sec. 126. A bill of exchange is an unconditional order in writing addressed by one person to another, signed by the person giving it, requiring the person to whom it is addressed to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time a sum certain in money to order or to bearer.

Sec. 127. A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the funds in the hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and the drawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts the same.

Sec. 128. A bill may be addressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether they are partners or not; but not to two or more drawees in the alternative or in succession.

Sec. 129. An inland bill of exchange is a bill which is, or on its face purports to be, both drawn and payable within this State. Any other bill is a foreign bill. Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill, the holder may treat it as an inland bill.

Sec. 130. Where in a bill drawer and drawee are the same person, or where the drawee is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract, the holder may treat the instrument, at his option, either as a bill of exchange or a promissory note.

Sec. 131. The drawer of a bill and any indorser may insert thereon the name of a person to whom the holder may resort in case of need, that is to say in case the bill is dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. Such person is called the referee in case of need. It is in the option of the holder to resort to the referee in case of need or not as he may see fit. [Id.]

Art. 5941. Acceptance.—Sec. 132. The acceptance of a bill is the signification by the drawee of his assent to the order of the drawer. The acceptance must be in writing and signed by the drawee. It must not express that the drawee will perform his promise by any other means than the payment of money.

Sec. 133. The holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may require that the acceptance be written on the bill and, if such request is refused, may treat the bill as dishonored.

Sec. 134. Where an acceptance is written on a paper other than the bill itself, it does not bind the acceptor except in favor of a person to whom it is shown and who, on the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Sec. 135. An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before it is drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person who upon the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Sec. 136. The drawee is allowed twenty-four hours after presentment, in which to decide whether or not he will accept the bill; but the acceptance if given, dates as of the day of presentation.

Sec. 137. Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance destroys the same, or refuses within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the bill accepted or non-accepted to the holder, he will be deemed to have accepted the same.

Sec. 138. A bill may be accepted before it has been signed by the drawee, or while otherwise incomplete, or when it is overdue, or after it has been dishonored by a previous refusal to accept, or by non-payment. But when a bill payable after sight is dishonored by non-acceptance and the drawee subsequently accepts it, the holder in the absence of any different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as of the date of the first presentment.

Sec. 139. An acceptance is either general or qualified. A general acceptance assents without qualification to the order of the drawer. A qualified acceptance in express terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn.

Sec. 140. An acceptance to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance, unless it expressly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not elsewhere.

Sec. 141. An acceptance is qualified, which is:

1. Conditional, that is to say, which makes payment by the acceptor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated;
2. Partial, that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the amount for which the bill is drawn;
3. Local, that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular place;
4. Qualified as to time;
5. The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees, but not of all.

Sec. 142. The holder may refuse to take a qualified acceptance, and if he does not obtain an unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dishonored by non-acceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken the drawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill, unless they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to take a qualified acceptance, or subsequently assent thereto. When the drawer or an indorser receives notice of a qualified acceptance, he must, within a reasonable time, express his dissent to the holder, or he will be deemed to have assented thereto. [Id.]

Art. 5942. Presentment for acceptance.—Sec. 143. Presentment for acceptance must be made:

1. Where the bill is payable after sight, or in any other case, where presentment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the maturity of the instrument; or
 2. Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented for acceptance; or
 3. Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee.
- In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary in order to render any party to the bill liable.

Sec. 144. Except as herein otherwise provided, the holder of a bill which is required by the next preceding section to be presented for acceptance must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it within a reasonable time. If he fails to do so, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged.

Sec. 145. Presentment for acceptance must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable hour, on a business day and before the bill is overdue, to the drawee or some person authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on his behalf, and:

1. Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees who are not partners, presentment must be made to them all, unless one has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which case presentment may be made to him only.
2. Where the drawee is dead, presentment may be made to his personal representative.
3. Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, presentment may be made to him or to his trustee or assignee.

Sec. 146. A bill may be presented for acceptance on any day on which negotiable instruments may be presented for payment under the provisions of sections seventy-two and eighty-five of this Act. When Saturday is not otherwise a holiday, presentment for acceptance may be made before twelve o'clock, noon, on that day.

Sec. 147. Where the holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of business or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment on the day that it falls due, the delay caused by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment is excused and does not discharge the drawers and indorsers.

Sec. 148. Presentment for acceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonored by non-acceptance, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is dead, or has absconded, or is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract by bill.
2. Where, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, presentment cannot be made.
3. Where, although presentment has been irregular, acceptance has been refused on some other ground.

Sec. 149. A bill is dishonored by non-acceptance:

1. When it is duly presented for acceptance and such an acceptance as is prescribed by this Act is refused or cannot be obtained; or
2. When presentment for acceptance is excused and the bill is not accepted.

Sec. 150. Where a bill is duly presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the prescribed time, the person presenting it must treat the bill as dishonored by non-acceptance or he loses the right of recourse against the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 151. When a bill is dishonored by non-acceptance, an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers accrues to the holder and no presentment for payment is necessary. [Id.]

Art. 5943. Protest.—Sec. 152. Where a foreign bill appearing on its face to be such is dishonored by non-acceptance, it must be duly protested for non-acceptance, and where such a bill which has not previously been dishonored by non-acceptance is dishonored by non-payment, it must be duly protested for non-payment. If it is not so protested, the drawer and indorsers are discharged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a foreign bill, protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary.

Sec. 153. The protest must be annexed to the bill, or must contain a copy thereof and must be under the hand and seal of the notary making it, and must specify:

1. The time and place of presentment;
2. The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof;
3. The cause or reason for protesting the bill;
4. The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

Sec. 154. Protest may be made by:

1. A notary public; or
2. By any respectable resident of the place where the bill is dishonored, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses.

Sec. 155. When a bill is protested, such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor, unless delay is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly noted, the protest may be subsequently extended as of the date of the noting.

Sec. 156. A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business, or residence of some person other than the drawee, has been dishonored by non-acceptance, it must be protested for non-payment at the place where it is expressed to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to, or demand on, the drawee is necessary.

Sec. 157. A bill which has been protested for non-acceptance may be subsequently protested for non-payment.

Sec. 158. Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, before the bill matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better security against the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 159. Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, the bill must be noted or protested with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 160. When a bill is lost or destroyed or is wrongly detained from the person entitled to hold it, protest may be made on a copy or written particulars thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5944. Acceptance for honor.—Sec. 161. Where a bill of exchange has been protested for dishonor by non-acceptance or protested for better security, and is not overdue, any person not being a party already liable thereon, may, with the consent of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor of any party liable thereon, or for the honor of the person for whose account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for the part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn; and where there has been an acceptance for honor for one party, there may be a further acceptance by a different person for the honor of another party.

Sec. 162. An acceptance for honor supra protest must be in writing, and indicate that it is an acceptance for honor, and must be signed by the acceptor for honor.

Sec. 163. Where an acceptance for honor does not expressly state for whose honor it is made, it is deemed to be an acceptance for the honor of the drawer.

Sec. 164. The acceptor for honor is liable to the holder and to all parties to the bill subsequent to the party for whose honor he has accepted.

Sec. 165. The acceptor for honor, by such acceptance engages that he will on due presentation pay the bill according to the terms of his acceptance, provided it shall not have been paid by the drawee, and provided also, that it shall have been duly presented for payment and protested for non-payment and notice of dishonor given him.

Sec. 166. Where a bill payable after sight is accepted for honor, its maturity is calculated from the date of the noting for non-acceptance and not from the date of the acceptance for honor.

Sec. 167. Where a dishonored bill has been accepted for honor supra protest or contains a reference in case of need, it must be protested for non-payment before it is presented for payment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need.

Sec. 168. Presentment for payment to the acceptor for honor must be made as follows:

1. If it is to be presented in the place where the protest for non-payment was made, it must be presented not later than the day following its maturity.

2. If it is to be presented in some other place than the place where it was protested, then it must be forwarded within the time specified in section one hundred and four.

Sec. 169. The provisions of section eight-one apply where there is delay in making presentment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need.

Sec. 170. When the bill is dishonored by the acceptor for honor it must be protested for non-payment by him. [Id.]

Art. 5945. Payment for honor.—Sec. 171. Where a bill has been protested for non-payment, any person may intervene and pay it supra protest for the honor of any person liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose account it was drawn.

Sec. 172. The payment for honor supra protest in order to operate as such and not as a mere voluntary payment must be attested by a notarial act of honor which may be appended to the protest or form an extension to it.

Sec. 173. The notarial act of honor must be founded on a declaration made by the payer for honor or by his agent in that behalf declaring his intention to pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays.

Sec. 174. Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor of different parties, the person whose payment will discharge most parties to the bill is to be given the preference.

Sec. 175. Where a bill has been paid for honor, all parties subsequent to the party for whose honor it is paid are discharged, but the payer for honor is subrogated for, and succeeds to, both the rights and duties of the holder as regards the party for whose honor he pays and all parties liable to the latter.

Sec. 176. Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment supra protest, he loses his right of recourse against any party who would have been discharged by such payment.

Sec. 177. The payer for honor, on paying to the holder the amount of the bill and the notarial expenses incidental to its dishonor, is entitled to receive both the bill itself and the protest. [Id.]

Art. 5946. Bills in a set.—Sec. 178. Where a bill is drawn in a set, each part of the set being numbered and containing a reference to the other parts, the whole of the parts constitutes one bill.

Sec. 179. Where two or more parts of a set are negotiated to different holders in due course, the holder whose title first accrues is as between such holders the true owner of the bill. But nothing in this section affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or pays the part first presented to him.

Sec. 180. Where the holder of a set indorses two or more parts to different persons he is liable on every such part, and every indorser subsequent to him is liable on the part he has himself indorsed, as if such parts were separate bills.

Sec. 181. The acceptance may be written on any part and it must be written on one part only. If the drawee accepts more than one part, and such accepted parts are negotiated to different holders in due course, he is liable on every such part as if it were a separate bill.

Sec. 182. When the acceptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requiring the part bearing his acceptance to be delivered up to him, and that part at maturity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course, he is liable to the holder thereon.

Sec. 183. Except as herein otherwise provided where any one part of a bill drawn in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole bill is discharged. [Id.]

PROMISSORY NOTES AND CHECKS

Art. 5947. Promissory notes and checks.—Sec. 184. A negotiable promissory note within the meaning of this Act is an unconditional promise in writing made by one person to another signed by the maker engaging to pay on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time, a sum certain in money to order or to bearer. Where a note is drawn to the maker's own order, it is not complete until indorsed by him.

Sec. 185. A check is a bill of exchange drawn on a bank payable on demand. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this act applicable to a bill of exchange payable on demand apply to a check.

Sec. 186. A check must be presented for payment within a reasonable time after its issue or the drawer will be discharged from liability thereon to the extent of the loss caused by the delay.

Sec. 187. Where a check is certified by the bank on which it is drawn, the certification is equivalent to an acceptance.

Sec. 188. Where the holder of a check procures it to be accepted or certified the drawer and all indorsers are discharged from liability thereon.

Sec. 189. A check of itself does not operate as an assignment of any part of the funds to the credit of the drawer with the bank, and the bank is not liable to the holder, unless and until it accepts or certifies the check.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 5948. General provisions.—Sec. 190. This act may be cited as the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Sec. 191. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Acceptance" means an acceptance completed by delivery or notification.

"Action" includes counter-claim and set-off.

"Bank" includes any person or association of persons carrying on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

"Bearer" means the person in possession of a bill or note which is payable to bearer.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

"Bill" means bill of exchange, and "note" means negotiable promissory note.

"Delivery" means transfer of possession, actual or constructive, from one person to another.

"Holder" means the payee or indorsee of a bill or note, who is in possession of it, or the bearer thereof.

"Indorsement" means an indorsement completed by delivery.

"Instrument" means negotiable instrument.

"Issue" means the first delivery of the instrument, complete in form, to a person who takes it as a holder.

"Person" includes a body of persons, whether incorporated or not.

"Value" means valuable consideration.

"Written" includes printed, and "Writing" includes print.

Sec. 192. The person "primarily" liable on an instrument is the person who by the terms of the instrument is absolutely required to pay the same. All other parties are "secondarily" liable.

Sec. 193. In determining what is a "reasonable time" or an "unreasonable time," regard is to be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or business (if any) with respect to such instruments, and the facts of the particular case.

Sec. 194. Where the day, or the last day, for doing an act herein required or permitted to be done falls on Sunday or on a holiday, the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day.

Sec. 195. The provisions of this Act do not apply to negotiable instruments made and delivered prior to the taking effect hereof.

Sec. 196. In any case not provided for in this Act the rules of law and equity including the law merchant shall govern. [Id.]

NOTARIES PUBLIC

Art.

- 5949. Governor shall appoint.
- 5950. List furnished county clerk.
- 5951. To qualify.
- 5952. Clerk to notify Secretary of State.
- 5953. Bond and oath.
- 5954. Authority of notary.
- 5955. Notaries' records.
- 5956. Copies of records.
- 5957. Removal.
- 5958. Office to become vacant.
- 5959. Effect of vacancy.
- 5960. Seal.

Article 5949. [6002] [3503] Governor shall appoint.—The Governor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Senate, a convenient number of notaries public for each organized county, and not to exceed six notaries public for each unorganized county in this State, who shall hold their office for two years from the first day of June after their appointment at a regular session of the Legislature. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, may also appoint additional notaries public at a regular session of the Legislature, who shall hold their office until the first day of June next succeeding their appointment, or at any special session of the Legislature, who shall hold their office until the first of June succeeding the next regular session of the Legislature after their appointment. [Acts 1881, p. 94; Acts 1885, p. 17; G. L., vol. 9, pp. 186, 637; Acts 1903, p. 158; Act 1st C. S. 1913, p. 2; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 14, ch. 9, § 1.]

Art. 5950. [6014] [3515] List furnished county clerk.—The Secretary of State shall furnish each county clerk a printed list of all notaries public so appointed and qualified; and said clerk shall preserve said list for public inspection and post a copy thereof on the courthouse door. [Acts 1881, p. 84, sec. 12; G. L., vol. 9, p. 186.]

Art. 5951. [6015] [3516] To qualify.—When a notary is appointed, the Secretary of State shall forward the commission to the county clerk of the county where the party resides. Said clerk shall immediately notify said party to appear before him within ten days, pay for his commission, and qualify according to law. If said party be absent from the county, or sick at the time of the reception of said commission by the clerk, he shall have ten days from his return to said county in which to appear and qualify. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5952. [6016] [3517] Clerk to notify Secretary of State.—The clerk receiving the commission shall indorse thereon the day on which notice was given, and, if the party pay the State fee for commission and qualify according to law, the said clerk shall notify the Secretary of State of his qualification, giving date of same, and remit the fee to said officer. If the party fails to qualify and pay the fee within the limited time, the appointment shall be void, and the clerk shall certify on the back of the commission that the party has failed to qualify, and return it to the Secretary of State. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 5953. [6003] [3504] Bond and oath.—Any person appointed a notary public, before entering his official duties, shall execute a bond for one thousand dollars, to be approved by the county clerk of his county, payable to the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, with the certificate of the officer administering the same; said bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk, and deposited in said office, and shall not be void on the first recovery, and may be sued on in the name of the party injured from time to time until the whole amount thereof has been recovered. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5954. [6008-6010-6012] Authority of notary.—Notaries Public shall have the same authority to take acknowledgments or proofs of written instruments, protest[s] instruments permitted by law to be protested, administer oaths, and take depositions; as is now or may hereafter be conferred by law upon county clerks. [Acts 1881, p. 94; G. L. vol. 9, p. 186.]

Art. 5955. [6011] [3512] Notaries' records.—Each notary public shall keep a well bound book, in which shall be entered the date of all instruments acknowledged before him, the date of such acknowledgments, the name of the grantor or maker, the place of his residence or alleged residence, whether personally known or introduced, and, if introduced, the name and residence or alleged residence of the party introducing him; if the instrument be proved by a witness, the residence of such witness, whether such witness is personally known to him or introduced; if introduced, the name and residence of the party introducing him; the name and residence of the grantee; if land is conveyed or charged by such instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be kept, and the county where the land is situated. The book herein required to be kept, and the statements herein required to be entered shall be an original public record, open to inspection by any citizen at all reasonable times. Each notary public shall give a certified copy of any record in his office to any person applying therefor on payment of all fees thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5956. [6013] [3514] Copies of records.—Copies of all records, declarations, protests, and other official acts of notaries public may be certified by the county clerk with whom they are deposited, and shall have the same authority as if certified by the notary by whom they were originally made. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5957. [6004] [3505] Removal.—Any notary public who shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of duty or malfeasance in office may be removed from office in the manner provided by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5958. [6005] [3506] Office to become vacant.—Whenever any notary public shall remove permanently from the county for which he was appointed, or an ex officio notary public from his precinct, his office shall thereupon be deemed vacant. [Id.]

Art. 5959. [6007-6009] Effect of vacancy.—Whenever the office of notary public shall be vacated by resignation, removal or death, the county clerk of the county where said notary resides shall obtain and deposit in his office the record books and all public papers belonging in the office of said notary. The seal of any notary vacating his office may be sold by the owner thereof to any qualified notary public in the county. [Id.]

Art. 5960. [6006] [3507] Seal.—Each notary public shall provide a seal of office, whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points, and the words, "Notary Public, County of _____, Texas," around the margin (the blank to be filled with the name of the county for which the officer is appointed), and he shall authenticate all his official acts therewith. [Id. sec. 5; Acts 1889, p. 121; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1149.]

Article 5961. [6017] [3518] By impeachment.—The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Comptroller, Commissioner of Insurance, Banking Commissioner, Judges of the Supreme Court, of the Court of Criminal Appeals, of the Courts of Civil Appeals, of the district courts, of the criminal district courts, and all other State officers and heads of State departments or institutions of any kind, and all members, regents, trustees, commissioners having control or management of any State institution or enterprise, shall be removed from office or position by impeachment in the manner provided in the Constitution and in this title, the remedy by impeachment as herein provided for being cumulative of all other remedies with respect to the impeachment or removal of public officers. [Const. art. 15, secs. 1, 2; Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 102.]

Art. 5962. Impeachment.—The power of impeachment shall be vested in the House of Representatives. If the House shall be in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature when it is desired to present articles of impeachment, or to make any investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment, it may proceed without further call or action at its pleasure and may continue to meet and proceed for such purposes until such time as the matters under consideration, pertaining to impeachments, may be disposed of. If the House shall be in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature, at the time it undertakes any investigation pertaining to impeachments, and the legislative session shall expire by limitation, or it shall in conjunction with the Senate, decide to adjourn in so far as legislative matters are concerned, before said investigation has been completed and before such impeachment matters have been finally disposed of, it may continue such investigation through committees, or by itself, and may continue in session for such purposes, or may adjourn the House to such time as it may desire for reconvention for the final disposition of such matters, and, in the meantime, it may continue such investigations through committees or agents. The members of such committees and the members of the House and Senate, when either shall be sitting for impeachment purposes, and when not in session for legislative purposes, shall receive the per diem fixed for members of the Legislature during legislative sessions or out of the contingent funds of the respective Houses, and the agents of the House or Senate or of such committees shall be paid as may be provided in the resolutions providing therefor, out of said contingent funds.

If the House be not in session when the cause for impeachment may arise or be discovered, or when it is desired to institute any investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment, the House may be convened for the purpose of impeachment in the following manner:

1. By proclamation of the Governor; or
2. By proclamation of the Speaker of the House, which proclamation shall be made only when petitioned in writing by not less than fifty members of the House; or
3. By proclamation in writing signed by a majority of the members of the House.

Such proclamation shall be published in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation, and a copy thereof shall be furnished in person or by registered mail to each member of the House who may be within the State and accessible, by the Speaker of the House, or under his direction, or, in case the same is issued under the authority of subparagraph 3, as above, by the members signing the same or some one or more of them designated by such signers for such purpose. Such proclamation shall in general terms, state the cause for which it is proposed to convene the House, and shall fix the time for the convention thereof. Two-thirds of the members of the House, upon such convention, shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members. The House, when so convened, may proceed in the manner, and shall have all the powers, pertaining to impeachments and investigations with respect thereto given it by the Constitution and by the terms of this law. The members of the House when so convened, shall receive the same mileage and per diem pay as is provided for members of the Legislature when in legislative session, and the members of the committees of the House, when so convened and serving upon such committees when the House itself is not in session, shall receive the said per diem pay, to be paid out of the appropriations then existing, or which thereafter may be made, for the per diem pay of members of the Legislature, and the agents of the House so convened or of such committees acting when the House itself is not in session shall receive such pay as may be provided for in the resolutions of such House out of the appropriations then existing, or thereafter to be made, to defray the contingent expenses of the House or to pay the mileage and per diem of members.

The House, at any time when considering impeachment matters or making investigations pertaining thereto, shall have the power itself, or through committees, to send for persons and papers and to compel the giving of testimony, and to punish for contempt, to the same extent as the district courts of the State.

Any committee of the House, acting under the terms of this law, shall have and exercise all the powers which may be conferred upon it by the House. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 5963. Trial by Senate.—All officers, agents or employes against whom articles of impeachment may be preferred by said House shall be tried by the Senate sitting as a court of impeachment in the manner provided by Article XV of the Constitution of Texas.

If the Senate be in session, at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment are preferred against any officer, agent or employee by the House, it shall receive such articles from the House and as soon as practicable, organize a court of impeachment and dispose of such matters. If the session in which such articles are preferred and presented shall, for legislative purposes expire by limitation, or by adjournment in so far as legislative purposes are concerned, before the matters presented by such articles shall have finally been disposed of by the Senate, the Senate shall continue in session, for such purpose, so long as may be necessary to dispose of such matters, or may adjourn to some day certain, when it shall reconvene for the purpose of disposing of such matters and thereupon such matters shall be considered and disposed of as expeditiously as possible.

If the Senate be not in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment may be preferred by the House, the House shall cause a certified copy of such articles of impeachment to be delivered, by personal agent or registered mail, to the Governor and each member of the Senate who may be within the State and accessible, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Lieutenant Governor and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Thereupon the Senate shall be convened for the purpose of considering and disposing of such articles of impeachment in the following manner:

1. By proclamation of the Governor; or if the Governor shall fail to issue such proclamation within ten days after such articles of impeachment are preferred by the House then,

2. By proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor; or if the Lieutenant Governor shall fail to issue such proclamation within fifteen days from the date upon which articles of impeachment were preferred by the House then,

3. By proclamation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate; or, if the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall fail to issue such proclamation within twenty days from the date upon which such articles of impeachment were preferred [preferred] by the House then,

4. By proclamation in writing signed by a majority of the members of the Senate.

Such proclamation, in either case, shall be in writing, shall state in general terms the purpose for which the Senate is to be convened, shall fix the date for the convening thereof for such purposes, which shall not be later than twenty days from the issuance of the proclamation, and shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State as a public record. Such proclamation, in either case, shall be published in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation, and a copy thereof shall be sent by registered mail to each member of the Senate by, or under the direction of the author or authors thereof. Upon the day fixed for the convening of the Senate for such purposes it shall be the duty of each member of the Senate to be in attendance thereupon, and upon such date the Senate shall convene. Two-thirds of the members of the Senate, upon such convention, shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members, and the Senate at such a session may compel the attendance of any absent member whether a quorum is present or not.

The Senate so convened shall continue in session until such matters are finally disposed of, or it may from time to time, adjourn to a day certain when the consideration of such matters shall be resumed and disposed of.

The Senate, at any time, shall have and exercise all the powers itself, or through committees or agents, which is or may be conferred upon it by law as in other cases when it is in session. It may send for persons, papers, records, books, etc., and compel the giving of testimony, and punish for contempt to the same extent as the district courts.

Members of the Senate when so convened, and the Lieutenant Governor when acting, shall receive the same mileage and per diem as is provided for members of the Legislature; the same, together with the pay of all agents, appointees, employees and other expenses incident to such impeachment trial, shall be paid from such appropriations as have been or shall be made for the contingent expenses of the Legislature or for the mileage and per diem of members. [Id.]

Arts. 5963a–5963c. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg, p. 360, ch. 242, § 1.]

Art. 5964. [6018–19–20–21] Removed by address.—The judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals, Courts of Civil Appeals, district courts and criminal district courts, the Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Insurance, and Banking Commissioner shall be removed from office by the Governor on the address of two-thirds of each house of the Legislature, for wilful neglect of duty, incompetency, habitual drunkenness, oppression in office, breach of trust, or other reasonable cause which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment. The cause for such removal shall be stated at length in such address, and entered on the journals of each house. The officer so intended to be removed shall have notice of the cause assigned for his removal, and shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defense before any vote for such address shall be heard. The vote in all such cases shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals of each house respectively. [Acts 1876, p. 226; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1062.]

Art. 5965. [6022–3] Judges removed by Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court may remove any judge of the district court or of any criminal district court who is incompetent to discharge the duties of his office, or who shall be guilty of partiality or oppression, or other official misconduct, or whose habits and conduct are such as to render him unfit to hold such office, or who shall negligently fail to perform his duties as judge, or who shall fail to execute in a reasonable measure the business of his court. [Const. art. 15, sec. 6.]

Art. 5966. [6024–5–6] Jurisdiction of Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine the cases aforesaid when presented in writing, upon the oaths taken before some judge of a court of record, of not less than ten lawyers practicing in the courts held by such judge, and licensed to practice in the Courts of Civil Appeals. Such presentment shall be founded either upon the knowledge of the person making it, or upon the written oaths of credible witnesses as to facts. The Supreme Court may issue all needful process, and prescribe all needful rules to give effect to the preceding article. Such cases shall have precedence and be tried as soon as practicable.

Art. 5967. [6027] [3528] State officers appointed by Governor.—All State officers appointed by the Governor, or elected by the Legislature, where the mode of their removal is not otherwise provided by law, may be removed by him for good and sufficient cause, to be spread on the records of his office, and to be reported by him to the next session of the Legislature thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 5968. [6028] [3529] Convictions work removal.—All convictions by a petit jury of any county officers for any felony, or for any misdemeanor involving official misconduct, shall work an immediate removal from office of the officer so convicted. Each such judgment of conviction shall embody within it an order removing such officer. [Id.]

Art. 5969. [6029] [3530] Appeal supersedes order of removal.—When an appeal is taken from such judgment by the officer removed, such appeal shall have the effect of superseding such judgment, unless the court rendering such judgment shall deem it to the public interest to suspend such officer from the office pending such appeal; and in that case the court shall proceed as in other cases of the suspension of officers from office as provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 5970. [6030] By district judge.—All district and county attorneys, county judges, commissioners, clerks of the district and county courts and single clerks in counties where one clerk discharges the duties of district and county clerk, county treasurer, sheriff, county surveyor, assessor, collector, constable, cattle and hide inspector, justice of the peace and all county officers now or hereafter existing by authority either of the Constitution or laws, may be removed from office by the judge of the district court for incompetency, official misconduct or becoming intoxicated by drinking intoxicating liquor, as a beverage, whether on duty or not; provided such officer shall not be removed for becoming intoxicated when it appears upon the trial of such officer that such intoxication was produced by drinking intoxicating liquors upon the direction and prescription of a duly licensed practicing physician of this State. [Acts 1923, p. 235.]

Art. 5971. [6031] [3532] [3391] Cause to be in writing.—In every case of removal from office for the causes named in the preceding article, the cause or causes thereof shall be set forth in writing, and the truth of said cause or causes be found by a jury. [Const. art. 5, sec. 24.]

Art. 5972. [6032] [3533] [3392] "Incompetency."—By "incompetency" as used herein is meant gross ignorance of official duties, or gross carelessness in the discharge of them; or an officer may be found to be incompetent when, by reason of some serious physical or mental defect, not existing at the time of his election, he has become unfit or unable to discharge promptly and properly the duties of his office. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5973. [6033] [3534] [3393] "Official misconduct."—By "official misconduct," as used herein with reference to county officers, is meant any unlawful behavior in relation to the duties of his office, wilful in its character, of any officer intrusted in any manner with the administration of justice, or the execution of the laws; and includes any wilful or corrupt failure, refusal or neglect of an officer to perform any duty enjoined on him by law. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5974. [6034] [3535] [3394] Articles apply to cities.—The two preceding articles shall apply also to mayors and aldermen. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5975. [6040] [3541] [3400] Failure to give bond.—All county officers who are required to give official bonds, who shall fail to execute their bonds within the time prescribed by law, or who, when required in accordance with law to give a new bond or additional bond or security, and shall fail to do so, may also be removed from office for such failure by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner hereinafter provided for bringing such matters before the court. [Id.]

Art. 5976. [6041] [3542] [3401] Proceedings.—The proceedings for the removal of said officers may be commenced, either in term time or vacation, by first filing a petition in the district court of the county where the officer resided; by a citizen of the State who has resided for six months in the said county where he proposes to file such petition, and who is not himself at the time under indictment in said county. [Id.]

Art. 5977. [6042] [3543] [3402] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall be addressed to the district judge of the court in which it is filed, and shall set forth in plain and intelligible words the cause or causes alleged as the grounds of removal, giving in each instance, with as much certainty as the nature of the case will admit of, the time and place of the occurrence of the alleged acts; the petition shall in every instance be sworn to at or before the filing of the same by at least one of the parties filing the same, and the proceedings shall be conducted in the name of "The State of Texas," upon the relation of the person filing the same. [Id.]

Art. 5978. [6043] [3544] [3403] General issue submitted.—In these cases, the judge shall not submit special issues to the jury, but shall, under a proper charge applicable to the facts of the case, instruct the jury to find from the evidence whether the cause or causes of removal set forth in the petition are true in point of fact or not; and, when there are more than one distinct cause of removal alleged, the jury shall by their verdict say which cause they find sustained by the evidence before them, and which are not sustained. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5979. [6044-5-6-52] Citation.—After such petition is filed, the person or persons so filing the same shall make a written application to the district judge for an order for a citation and a certified copy of the said petition to be served on the officer against whom the petition is filed, requiring him at a certain day named, which day shall be fixed by the judge, to appear and answer to the said petition; and until such order is granted and entered upon the minutes of the court (if application is made during term time) no action whatever shall be had thereon; and, if the judge shall refuse to issue the order so applied for, then the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the relator, and no appeal or writ of error shall be allowed from such action of the judge. If the application for said citation is made to the judge in vacation, he shall indorse his action, whatever it may be, on such petition, and shall order it spread on the minutes of the court at the next ensuing term. Upon the order being granted during term time, also spread upon the minutes, the clerk shall issue the citation, accompanied with a certified copy of the petition. The clerk may demand of the relator security for costs as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 5980. [6047] [3548] [3407] Time to answer.—In no case whatever shall the period fixed by the judge in his order in which the officer is to answer, be less than five days from the date of such service, to be computed as time is computed in other suits. [Id.]

Art. 5981. [6048] [3549] [3408] How trial conducted.—The trial and all the proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted as far as it is possible in accordance with the rules and practice of the court in other civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 5982. [6049] [3550] [3409] How suspended.—At any time after the issuance of the order for the citation, as herein provided, the district judge may, if he sees fit, suspend temporarily from office, the officer against whom the petition is filed, and appoint for the time being some other person to discharge the duties of the office; but in no case shall such suspension take place until after the person so appointed shall execute a bond in such sum as the judge may name, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, and on such conditions as the judge may see fit to impose, to pay the person so suspended from office all damages and costs that he may sustain by reason of such suspension from office, in case it should appear that the cause or causes of removal are insufficient or untrue. [Id.]

Art. 5983. [6050-51] Appeal or writ of error.—An appeal or writ of error to the Court of Civil Appeals may be sued out by either party from the final judgment in these cases as in other civil cases. If the party has not been temporarily suspended from office, no other bond when an appeal is taken or writ of error sued out by him, shall be necessary than a bond for all the costs that have or may accrue in the district and Courts of Civil Appeals. [Id.]

Art. 5984. [6053] [3554] Against district attorneys.—Proceedings under this title may be commenced against any district attorney either in the county of his residence or the county where the alleged cause of removal occurred, if in a county of his judicial district. [Id.]

Art. 5985. [6054] [3555] Criminal district attorney.—Under the name of "district attorney," as used in this chapter, is included any criminal district attorney and the judge of each criminal district court shall have the same power as to his removal and proceed in the same manner as the district judges of the State have in reference to all county officers. [Id.]

Art. 5986. [6055] [3556] [3415] Not retroactive.—No officer shall be prosecuted or removed from office for any act he may have committed prior to his election to office. [Id.]

Art. 5987. [6056-7] Precedence on appeal.—In these cases, an appeal may be taken or writ of error be made returnable to the Court of Civil Appeals, and such cause shall have precedence of the ordinary business of the court and be decided with all convenient dispatch. When so decided, unless the judgment be for some cause set aside or suspended, the mandate of the court shall issue within five days after the judgment of the court is rendered. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5988. [6058-9] Notary public.—Any notary public indicted for and convicted of any wilful neglect of duty or official misconduct shall be removed from office. The order for his removal shall in each instance be embodied in the judgment of the court. [Acts 1876, p. 29.]

Art. 5989. [6060] [3561] [3420] Public weigher.—Any public weigher who is incompetent or shall be guilty of official misconduct shall be removed by the Governor, who shall keep a record of such removal, and report the same with his reasons therefor to the next legislature. [Acts 1875, p. 162; G. L. vol. 8, p. 534; Acts 1919, p. 126.]

Art. 5990. [6063-4] District clerk removed.—The clerk of the district court may also be removed by information or by indictment and conviction by a petit jury. When so removed, the order for his removal shall be embodied in the judgment of conviction. [Const. art. 5, sec. 9; R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5991. [6065] [3566] [3425] Mayor and aldermen.—The mayor and aldermen of any incorporated town or city may be removed from office for official misconduct, wilful violation of any ordinance of such town or city, habitual drunkenness, incompetency, or for such other cause as may be prescribed by the ordinances of such town or city. [Acts 1875, p. 63, G. L. vol. 8, p. 435.]

Art. 5992. [6066-7] Alderman.—When written sworn complaint charging any alderman with any act or omission which may be cause for his removal shall be presented to the mayor, he shall file the same and cause the alderman so charged to be served with a copy of such complaint, and shall set a day for the trial of the case, and notify the alderman so charged and the other aldermen of such town or city to appear on such day. The mayor and aldermen of such town or city, except the aldermen against whom complaint is made, shall constitute a court to try and determine the case. [Id.; sec. 2.]

Art. 5993. [6068-9] Against mayor.—When any such complaint is made against the mayor of any incorporated town or city it shall be presented to an alderman of such town or city who shall file the same, and cause such mayor to be served with a copy thereof, and shall set a day for a trial of the case, and notify the mayor and other aldermen to appear on such day. A majority of the aldermen shall constitute a court to try and determine the complaint against the mayor, and they shall select one of their number to preside during such trial. [Id.]

Art. 5994. [6070-1-2] Procedure.—The rules governing other proceedings and trials in the courts of justices of the peace shall govern. If two-thirds of the members of the court present upon the trial of the case, find the defendant guilty of the charges contained in the complaint, and find that such charges are sufficient cause for removal from office, the presiding officer of the court shall enter judgment, removing such mayor or aldermen from office and declaring such office vacant. If the defendant be found not guilty, judgment shall be entered accordingly. Any municipal officer so removed shall not be eligible to re-election to the same office for two years from the date of such removal. [Id.]

Art. 5995. [6073] [3574] Not to apply to all cities.—The provisions of this title as to municipal officers shall not apply to any town or city except such as are incorporated under the general laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5996. [6074-75] Nepotism.—Whoever violates any provision of the Penal Code relating to nepotism and the inhibited acts connected therewith shall be removed from his office, clerkship, employment or duty, as therein mentioned. Such removal from office shall be made in conformity to the provisions of the Constitution of this State concerning removal from office in all cases to which they may be applicable. All other removals from office under the provisions of this law shall be by quo warranto proceedings. All removals from any such position, clerkship, employment or duty aforesaid shall be summarily made, forthwith, by the appointing power in the particular instance, whenever the judgment of conviction in a criminal prosecution in the particular case shall become final; provided, that, if such removal be not so made within thirty days after such judgment of conviction shall become final, the person holding such position, clerkship or employment, or performing such duty, may be removed therefrom as herein provided with reference to removal from office. [Acts 1909, p. 85.]

Art. 5997. [6076-77] Suits by Attorney General.—All quo warranto proceedings mentioned shall be instituted by the Attorney General in any district court of Travis County or in the district court of the county in which the defendant resides; the district or county attorney of the county in which such suit may be filed shall assist the Attorney General therein whenever he shall so direct. [Id.]

OFFICIAL BONDS

Art.
5998.	Sureties.
5999.	Depository of bonds.
6000.	Bond to be recorded.
6001.	Sureties relieved.
6002.	Requiring new bond.
6003.	Suit on bond.

Article 5998. Sureties.—The official bond of each officer shall be executed by him with two or more good and sufficient sureties or a solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State.

Art. 5999. Depository of bonds.—The bond of each officer who is required by law to give an official bond payable to the Governor or to the State shall be deposited with the Comptroller by the officer who approves the same, except that of the Comptroller which shall be deposited with the Secretary of State.

Art. 6000. [6078] [3575] [3434] Bond to be recorded.—All official bonds of county officers that are required by law to be approved by the commissioners court, and which have been so approved, shall be made payable to the county judge and safely kept and recorded by the county clerk in a book kept for that purpose.

Art. 6001. [6079-80-81-82] Sureties relieved.—Any surety on any official bond of any county officer may apply to the commissioners court to be relieved from his bond, and the county clerk shall thereupon issue a notice to said officer, with a copy of the application, which shall be served upon said officer by the sheriff or any constable of the county, and said officer so notified shall upon such service cease to exercise the functions of his office, except to preserve any records or property in his charge, and in case of a sheriff or constable, to keep prisoners, preserve the peace and execute warrants of arrest, and his office shall become vacant unless he give a new bond within twenty days from the time of receiving such notice. If a new bond is given and approved, the former sureties shall be discharged from any liability for the misconduct of the principal after the approval of the new bond. [Acts 1876, p. 132; G. L. vol. 8, p. 963.]

Art. 6002. [6083-4-5] Requiring new bond.—When the commissioners court becomes satisfied that the bond of any county officer which has been approved by said court is from any cause insufficient, they shall require a new bond or additional security to be given. Said court shall cause said officer to be cited to appear at a term of their court not less than five days after service, and shall take such action as they deem best for the public interest, and their decision shall be final and no appeal shall lie therefrom. [Acts 1876, p. 54; G. L. vol. 8, p. 890.]

Art. 6003. Suit on bond.—No official bond shall be void upon first recovery but may be sued upon in separate actions until exhausted.

Article 6004. [7847] Casing.—The owner or operator of any well being drilled for oil or gas shall, before drilling into the oil or gas bearing rock, incase such well with good and sufficient wrought iron or steel casing, in such manner as shall exclude all surface or fresh water from the lower part of such well from penetrating the oil or gas bearing rock. Should any well be drilled through the first into a lower oil or gas bearing rock, the same shall be cased in such manner as will exclude all fresh water above the last oil or gas bearing rock penetrated. [Acts 1899, p. 68.]

Art. 6005. [7848] Abandoned wells.—The owner or operator of any such well, when about to abandon or cease operating the same and before drawing the casing therefrom, shall securely fill such well with rock, sediment, or with mortar, composed of two parts sand and, one part cement or other suitable material, to the depth of two hundred feet above the top of the first oil or gas bearing rock, and also in such manner as shall prevent the gas and oil from escaping therefrom. If the owner or operator of any such well shall fail to or shall inefficiently comply with the provisions of this article, then the owner of the land upon which the well is situated shall forthwith comply therewith. If all the persons hereinbefore named shall fail to or inefficiently fill such well in the manner hereinbefore described, then it shall be lawful for any person, after written demand therefor to any of said persons, to enter the premises where such well is situated, take possession thereof and fully comply with the provisions of this article. The reasonable cost and expenses thereof shall forthwith be paid by the owner or operator of the well, and on his default by the owner of the land. The amount of such reasonable cost and expense shall forthwith be a lien upon the fixtures and machinery and leasehold interest of the owner and operator of said well, as upon the title and interest of the land owner in the land upon which said well is situated, and may be recovered and enforced against said owner or operator, in the order named, in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 6006. [7850] Illumination.—No person, co-partnership or corporation shall use natural gas for illuminating purposes by what are known as flame lights. Nothing herein shall prohibit the use of "Jumbo" burners or any other burners consuming no more gas than such "Jumbo" burners, but the person, co-partnership, or corporation, consuming such gas and using such burners in the open air, shall inclose the same in glass globes or lamps; and any one using such gas in the open air, or in or around derricks, shall turn off said gas not later than eight o'clock in the morning of each day such lights are burning or used, and shall not turn on or relight the same between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m. [Id.]

Art. 6007. [7851] Penalties.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action in the name of the State of Texas, in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of the State of Texas, without security or liability of cost. [Id.]

Art. 6008. [7849] Gas to be confined.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation in possession, either as owner, lessee, agent or manager, of any well producing natural gas, in order to prevent the said gas from wasting by escape, shall within ten days after penetrating the gas bearing rock in any well, shut in and confine the gas in said well until and during such time as the gas therein shall be utilized for light or fuel or power; provided, that this shall not apply to any well that is operated for oil. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty of not less than three hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action in the name of the State of Texas, in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted. Each day such violation continues shall be a separate offense. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of this State without security or liability of cost. [Acts 1899, p. 68; Acts 1913, p. 212.]

Art. 6009. [7849-7851] Disposition of penalty.—The amount of any penalty recovered under any preceding article of this title when collected shall be paid, one-half into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought, and one-half to said person at whose instance such suit shall be brought. [Id.]

Art. 6010. [7852] Water in wells.—If any person or persons in this State, in boring any well or wells, for oil or gas, shall pierce any cap-rock or other geological formation in such manner as to cause a flow of salt water or fresh water injurious to any oil well already bored, or to any oil or gas deposits, and which shall or may probably result in the injury of such oil or gas field, or to such gas or oil wells already bored, such person or persons shall, if the flow of water cannot be cased off, immediately abandon all work upon such well and plug and fill the same in such manner and with such materials as will stop the flow of said water; and it shall be unlawful for any well owner, or person boring any such well, to remove the casing from the well drilled until the flow of water shall be stopped, either by casing off or plugging such well. The provisions of this article shall only apply where such cap rock or other formation is pierced at a depth below the horizon at which oil or gas has already been discovered. [Acts 1905, p. 228.]

Art. 6011. [7854] Suits and penalties.—Any person or persons, co-partnership, corporation or association of persons, violating any provision of the preceding article, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action brought in the name of the State of Texas in the county in which the act complained of shall have been committed or omitted. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of this State without security or liability for costs. The amount of said penalty when collected shall be paid into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought. Such suit may be brought at the instance of either the district attorney or the county attorney of the county in which the act was committed or omitted. [Id.]

Art. 6012. May plug or shut in.—If the owner of any such well shall neglect or refuse to cause said well to be plugged, or shut in, as herein provided, for a period of twenty days after a written notice to do so, which notice may be served personally upon such owner, or may be posted at a conspicuous place at or near the well, it shall be lawful for the owner or operator of any adjacent or neighboring lands to enter upon the premises where said well is situated and cause the same to be plugged if it be an abandoned well, or shut in if not abandoned, pursuant to the provisions hereof. The reasonable cost and expense incurred in so doing shall be paid by the owner of said well, and may be recovered as debts of like amount are by law recoverable. [Acts 1913, p. 212.]

Art. 6013. Petition to restrain waste.—In addition to the penalties provided in this title, it shall be the duty of any district judge, whether in term time or vacation, to hear and determine any petition which may be filed to restrain the waste of natural gas in the violation of this law, and to issue such mandatory or restraining orders as may in his judgment be necessary. Such petition may be filed by any citizen of this State, and the same need allege no further financial interest than the petitioner possesses in common with all citizens of the State in the natural resources thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6014. "Waste."—Natural gas and crude oil or petroleum shall not be produced in this State in such manner and under such conditions as to constitute waste. The term "waste" in addition to its ordinary meaning shall include: (a) escape of natural gas in commercial quantities into the open air from a stratum recognized as a natural gas stratum; but this is not intended to have application to gas pockets in high points in strata recognized as oil strata; (b) drowning with water of a gas stratum capable of producing gas in commercial quantities; (c) underground waste; (d) the permitting of any natural gas well to wastefully burn; (e) the wasteful utilization of such gas; (f) burning flambeau lights except when casing head gas is used in same; provided not more than four may be used in or near the derrick of a drilling well; and (g) the burning of gas for illuminating purposes between eight o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m.

unless the use is regulated by meter. [Acts 1919, p. 285.]

Art. 6015. Prevention of waste.—All operators, contractors, or drillers, pipe line companies, or gas distributing companies, drilling for or producing crude oil or natural gas or piping oil or gas for any purpose shall use every possible precaution in accordance with the most approved methods to stop and prevent waste of oil and gas or both, in drilling and producing operations, storage or in piping or distributing, and shall not wastefully utilize oil or gas, or allow same to leak or escape from natural reservoirs, wells, tanks, containers or pipes. [Id.]

Art. 6016. Confining gas in wells.—Whenever natural gas in such quantities, in a gas bearing stratum known to contain natural gas in such quantities, is encountered in any well drilled for oil or gas in this State, such gas shall be confined to its original stratum until such time as the same can be produced and utilized without waste and all such strata shall be adequately protected from infiltrating waters. [Id.]

Art. 6017. Penalty.—Any person, firm, corporation or any officer, agent or employee thereof directly or indirectly violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars to be recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas by any district or county attorney on the direction of the Railroad Commission. Every day that such violation continues shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6018. Pipe line carriers.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited partnership, joint stock association or association of any kind whatever;

1. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line within the State of Texas for the transportation of crude petroleum to or for the public for hire, or engaged in the business of transporting crude petroleum by pipe line; or

2. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line for the transportation of crude petroleum, to or for the public for hire, and which said pipe line is constructed or maintained upon, over or under any public road or highway, or in favor of whom the right of eminent domain exists; or

3. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line or pipe lines for transportation to or for the public for hire, of crude petroleum, and which said pipe line or pipe lines is or may be constructed, operated or maintained across, upon, along, over or under the right of way of any railroad, corporation or other common carrier required by law to transport crude petroleum as a common carrier; or

4. Owning, operating or managing or participating in ownership, operation or management, under lease, contract of purchase, agreement to buy or sell, or other agreement or arrangement of any kind whatsoever, any pipe line or pipe lines, or part of any pipe line, for the transportation from any oil field or place of production within this State to any distributing, refining or marketing center or reshipping point thereof, within this State, of crude petroleum bought of others;

Is hereby declared to be a common carrier and subject to the provisions of this law. The provisions of this law shall not apply to those pipe lines which are limited in their use to the wells, stations, plants and refineries of the owner and which are not a part of the pipe line transportation system of any common carrier as above defined; nor shall such provisions apply to any property of such a common carrier which is not a part of or necessarily incident to its pipe line transportation system. [Acts 1917, p. 48.]

Art. 6019. Control of.—It is declared that the operation of common carrier pipe lines is a business in which the public is interested, and is subject to regulation by law. The business of purchasing, or of purchasing and selling crude petroleum, using in connection with such business a pipe line of the class subject to this law to transport the crude petroleum so bought or sold, shall not be conducted, unless such pipe line so used is a common carrier within the purview of this law, and subject to the jurisdiction herein conferred upon the Railroad Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6020. Powers of carrier.—The right to lay, maintain and operate pipe lines, together with telegraph and telephone lines incidental to and designed for use only in connection with the operation of such pipe lines along, across or under any public stream or highway in this State, is hereby conferred upon all said common carrier pipe lines. Any person, firm, limited partnership, joint stock association, or corporation may acquire such right by filing with said Commission a written acceptance of the provisions of this law expressly agreeing that in consideration of the rights so acquiring it shall be and become a common carrier pipe line, subject to the duties and obligations conferred or imposed by this law.

Art. 6021. Injury to roads, etc.—The right to run pipe lines, telegraph and telephone lines along, across or over any public road or highway can only be exercised upon condition that the traffic thereon be not interfered with, and that such road or highway be promptly restored to its former condition of usefulness, and the restoration thereof to be subject also to the supervision of the commissioners court or other proper local authority. In the exercise of the privileges herein conferred, such pipe lines shall compensate the county or road district, respectively, for any damage done to such public road. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant any pipe line company the right to use any public street or alley of any incorporated or unincorporated city or town, except by express permission from the governing body thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6022. Eminent domain.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited partnership, joint stock association, or association of any kind whatsoever owning, operating or managing any pipe line, or any part of any pipe line within this State for the transportation of crude petroleum that is declared by this title to be a common carrier, shall have the right and power of eminent domain in the exercise of which he, it or they may enter upon and condemn the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation necessary for the construction, maintenance or operation of his, its or their common carrier pipe line; and shall have the right to lay his, its or their pipes or pipe lines under any railroad, railroad right of way, street railroad, canal or stream in this State; and along and under any street or alley in any incorporated city or town in this State with the consent and under the direction of the governing body of such city or town; and across and under any public road, provided that no pipes or pipe lines shall be laid parallel with and on any public highway closer than fifteen feet from the improved section thereof except with the approval and under the direction of the commissioners court of the county in which such public highway is located; and such other rights in the matter of laying pipes and pipe lines as are conferred by Article 1497, subject to the conditions, limitations and restrictions therein stated. [Acts 1919, p. 273.]

Art. 6023. Jurisdiction.—Power and authority are hereby conferred upon the Railroad Commission of Texas, over all common carrier pipe lines conveying oil or gas in Texas, and over all oil and gas wells in Texas, and over all persons, associations or corporations owning or operating pipe lines in Texas, and over all persons, associations and corporations owning or engaged in drilling or operating oil or gas wells in Texas; and all such persons, associations and corporations and their pipe lines, oil and gas wells are subject to the jurisdiction conferred by law upon the Commission, and the Commission is authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules and regulations for the government and regulation of such persons, associations and corporations and their operations, and the Attorney General shall enforce the provisions of this title by injunction or other adequate remedy and as otherwise provided by law. The word "Commission," as used in this title, shall mean the Railroad Commission of Texas. The word "Commissioner" shall mean any member of the Railroad Commission.

Art. 6024. Powers.—In all matters pertaining to the discharge of its duties and the enforcement of its powers and authority as provided by the terms of this title, the Commission shall institute suits, hear and determine complaints, require the attendance of witnesses, pay their expenses out of the fund herein created, and sue out such writs and process as may be necessary for the enforcement of its orders, and punish for contempt or disobedience of its orders as the district court may do.

Art. 6025. Attendance of witnesses.—If any witness fails or refuses to obey a subpoena from the Commission, or a Commissioner, the Commission or Commissioner may issue an attachment for such witness as in civil cases, and compel him to attend before the Commission or any Commissioner thereof, and give his testimony upon such matter as may be lawfully required of him, and to bring with him and produce on examination such records, books, vouchers, memoranda, true copies thereof, prints and such other matter as may be required, if any, in such subpoena.

Art. 6026. Criminating testimony.—If a witness fails or refuses to attend on being summoned, or to answer any question propounded to him, or to produce any record or data required to be produced by such subpoena, the claim that any such testimony may tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse such witness from testifying or producing such records and data, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding.

Art. 6027. Witness fees.—Each witness who shall appear before the Commission or a Commissioner at a place outside the county of his residence shall receive for his attendance three dollars per day and three cents per mile traveled by the nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said Commission or Commissioner, which shall be ordered paid, upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness and approved by the Commission or chairman thereof, provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in any public utility involved in or concerning which, in any way, the investigation or hearing on account of which he is summoned, shall relate, or who is in anywise interested in any stock, bond, mortgages, security or earnings of any such utility, or who shall be the agent, attorney or employee of such utility, or any officer thereof, when summoned at the instance of such utility. No witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may have traveled on such free transportation.

Art. 6028. Officer's fees.—The sheriff or constable executing any process issued by the Commission or any Commissioner thereof under the provisions of this title shall receive such compensation as the Commission may allow.

Art. 6029. Rules and regulations.—The Commission shall make and enforce rules and regulations for the conservation of oil and gas:

1. To prevent the waste of oil and gas in drilling and producing operations and in the storage, piping and distribution thereof.
2. To require dry or abandoned wells to be plugged in such way as to confine oil, gas and water in the strata in which they are found and to prevent them from escaping into other strata.
3. For the drilling of wells and preserving a record thereof.
4. To require such wells to be drilled in such manner as to prevent injury to the adjoining property.
5. To prevent oil and gas and water from escaping from the strata in which they are found into other strata.
6. To establish rules and regulations for shooting wells and for separating oil from gas.
7. To require records to be kept and reports made by oil and gas drillers, operators and pipe line companies and by its inspectors.

8. It shall do all things necessary for the conservation of oil and gas whether here especially enumerated or not, and shall establish such other rules and regulations as will be necessary to carry into effect this law and to conserve the oil and gas resources of the State. [Acts 1919, p. 285.]

Art. 6030. Supervisor and employees.—The Commission shall employ a pipe line expert who shall be the supervisor for the Commission in enforcing its rules and regulations. The Commission may appoint such deputy supervisors as may be necessary and may increase the salary of the supervisor to a sum not exceeding $5,000.00 per annum and may fix the salaries of the deputies at not exceeding $3,600.00 per annum, and shall employ such other assistants as may be necessary.

Art. 6031. Duties of supervisor.—The supervisor and his deputies shall supervise the plugging of all abandoned wells and the shooting of wells and conform to the rules and regulations of the Commission, dealing with the production and conservation of oil and gas. The supervisor shall gather information, and assist the Commission in the performance of its duties under this title. [Id.]

Art. 6032. Tax.—There is hereby levied a tax of one-twentieth of one per cent of the market value of crude petroleum produced within this State, which shall be in addition to and collected in the same manner as the present gross receipts production tax on crude petroleum. Producers of crude petroleum are hereby required to make reports of production in the same manner and under the same penalties as for the gross production tax. The tax thus collected shall be paid into the State Treasury as other revenue, and shall be paid out on warrants as other State funds. Any yearly excess of the tax over and above the requirements of the Commission shall become a part of the general revenue of the State and any deficiency shall be made up out of the general revenue of the State.

Art. 6033. Certificate of compliance.—Owners or operators of gas wells shall, before connecting with any oil or gas pipe lines, secure from the Commission a certificate showing compliance with the oil and gas conservation laws of the State and conservation orders of the Commission. Pipe line companies shall not connect with oil or gas wells until the owners or operators thereof shall furnish certificates from the Commission that the conservation laws of the State have been complied with, provided this law shall not prevent a temporary connection with any well or wells in order to take care of production and prevent waste until opportunity shall have been given the owner or operator of said well to secure certificate showing compliance with the conservation laws of the State. [Acts 1919, p. 285.]

Art. 6034. Books and records.—All owners and operators of oil and gas wells shall keep books, showing accurately the amount of stock sold and unsold and amount of promotion money paid, amount of oil and gas produced and disposed of, with the price for which the same was sold, together with the receipts from the sale or transfer of leases or other property, and the disbursements made in connection with or for the benefit of such business; which books shall be kept open for the inspection of the Commission or any accredited representative thereof, and of any stockholder or shareholder or royalty owner in said business, and shall report such information to the Commission for its information when required by the Commission to do so. [Acts 1919, p. 287; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 79.]

Art. 6035. Report to Commission.—Any person, firm, partnership, joint stock association, corporation or other organization, domestic or foreign, operating wholly or partially within this State, acting as principal or agent for another, for the purpose of drilling, owning or operating any oil or gas well, or owning or controlling leases of oil and mineral rights or the transportation of oil or gas by pipe line, shall immediately file with the Commission the name of the company or organization, giving the name and post-office address of the organization, the plan under which it was organized, and the names and post-office addresses of the trustee or trustees thereof, and the names and post-office addresses of the officers and directors. [Id.]

Art. 6036. Penalty.—Any person, firm, corporation or any officer, agent or employé thereof directly or indirectly violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars to be recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas by any district or county attorney on the direction of the Commission. Every day that such violation continues shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6037. Rates and charges.—The Commission shall establish and enforce rates of charges and regulations for gathering, transporting, loading and delivering crude petroleum by such common carriers in this State, and for the use of storage facilities necessarily incident to such transportation, and prescribe and enforce rules and regulations for the government and control of such common carriers in respect to their pipe lines and receiving, transferring and loading facilities, and it shall also exercise such power upon petition by any person showing a substantial interest in the subject. [Acts 1917, p. 48.]

Art. 6038. Hearing, notice.—No order establishing or prescribing rates, rules and regulations shall be made except after hearing and at least ten days and not more than thirty days notice to the person, firm, corporation, partnership, joint stock association, or association, owning or controlling and operating the pipe line or pipe lines affected. [Id.]

Art. 6039. Reimbursement, when.—If any rate shall be filed by a pipe line and complaint against same or petition to reduce same shall be filed by a shipper, and such complaint be sustained, in whole or in part, all shippers who shall have paid the rates so filed by the pipe line shall have the right to reparation or reimbursement of all excess in transportation charges so paid over and above the proper rate as finally determined on all shipments made after the date of the filing of such complaint. [Id.]

Art. 6040. Exchange of facilities.—Every common carrier as above defined shall exchange crude petroleum tonnage with each like common carrier and the Commission is authorized to require such connections and facilities for the interchange of such tonnage to be made at every locality reached by both pipe lines whenever a necessity therefor exists and subject to such rates and regulations as may be made by the Commission; and any such common carrier under like rules and regulations shall be required to install and maintain facilities for the receipt and delivery of crude petroleum of patrons at all points on such pipe line. [Id.]

Art. 6041. Grades of oil carried.—No carrier shall be required to receive or transport any crude petroleum except such as may be marketable under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commission, and the Commission shall make rules for the ascertainment of the amount of water and other foreign matter in oil tendered for transportation, and for deduction therefor and for the amount of deduction to be made for temperature, leakage and evaporation. [Id.]

Art. 6042. Powers not limited.—Particular powers herein granted to the Commission shall not be construed to limit the general powers conferred by law, and until set aside or vacated by some order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, all orders of the Commission as to any matter within its jurisdiction shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of their validity. [Id.]

Art. 6043. Publication of tariffs.—Such common carriers of crude petroleum shall make and publish their tariffs under such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe, and the Commission shall require them to make reports, and may investigate their books and records kept in connection with such business. [Id.]

Art. 6044. Monthly reports.—The Commission shall require of such common carrier pipe lines duly verified monthly reports of the total quantities of crude petroleum owned by such pipe lines and of that held by them in storage for others, as also of their unfilled storage capacity, but no publicity shall be given by the Commission as to stock of crude petroleum on hand of any particular pipe line; but the Commission in its discretion may make public the aggregate amounts held by all pipe lines making such reports, and of their aggregate storage capacity. [Id.]

Art. 6045. Discrimination prohibited.—No such common carrier in its operations as such shall discriminate between or against shippers in regard to facilities furnished or service rendered or rates charged under the same or similar circumstances in the transportation of crude petroleum; nor shall there be any discrimination in the transportation of crude petroleum produced or purchased by itself directly or indirectly. In this connection the pipe line shall be considered as a shipper of the crude petroleum produced or purchased by itself directly or indirectly and handled through its facilities. No such carrier in such operations shall directly or indirectly charge, demand, collect or receive from any one a greater or less compensation for any service rendered than from another for a like and contemporaneous service; provided, this shall not limit the right of the Commission to prescribe rates and regulations different from or to some places from other rates or regulations for transportation from or to other places, as it may determine; nor shall any carrier be guilty of discrimination when obeying any order of the Commission. When there shall be offered for transportation more crude petroleum than can be immediately transported, the same shall be equitably apportioned. The Commission may make and enforce general or specific regulations in this regard. No such common carrier shall at any time be required to receive for shipment from any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, exceeding three thousand barrels of petroleum in any one day. [Id.]

Art. 6046. Rules for prevention of waste.—The Commission, when necessary, shall make and enforce rules and regulations either general in their nature or applicable to particular oil fields for the prevention of actual waste of oil or operations in the field dangerous to life or property. [Id.]

Art. 6047. Penalty.—Any common carrier as herein defined who shall violate any provision of this law, or who shall fail to perform any duty herein imposed, or any valid order of the Commission when not stayed or suspended by order of court, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, recoverable in the name of the State. Such penalty may also be recovered by and for the use of any person, corporation or association of persons against whom there shall have been an unlawful discrimination as herein defined; such suit to be brought in the name of and for the use of the party aggrieved. [Id.]

Art. 6048. Transportation of crude petroleum.—Subject to the provisions of the law and the rules or regulations which may be prescribed by the Commission, every such common carrier shall receive and transport crude petroleum delivered to it for transportation and shall so receive and transport same and perform its other duties with respect thereto without discrimination. [Id.]

Art. 6049. Salary of expert and other expenses.—The salary of the expert for the Commission and all other employees shall be paid out of the fund created under Article 6032, by monthly warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the State Treasurer. All other expenses incurred in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this subdivision shall be paid out of the same fund by like warrants issued upon duly verified statements of the persons entitled, with the approval of the chairman.

NATURAL GAS

Art. 6050. Classification.—The term "gas utility" and "public utility" or "utility," as used in this subdivision, means and includes persons, companies and private corporations, their lessees, trustees, and receivers, owning, managing, operating, leasing or controlling within this State any wells, pipe lines, plant, property, equipment, facility, franchise, license, or permit for either one or more of the following kinds of business:

1. Producing or obtaining, transporting, conveying, distributing or delivering natural gas: (a) for public use or service for compensation; (b) for sale to municipalities or persons or companies, in those cases referred to in paragraph 3 hereof, engaged in distributing or selling natural gas to the public; (c) for sale or delivery of natural gas to any person or firm or corporation operating under franchise or a contract with any municipality or other legal subdivision of this State; or, (d) for sale or delivery of natural gas to the public for domestic or other use.

2. Owning or operating or managing a pipe line for the transportation or carriage of natural gas, whether for public hire or not, if any part of the right of way for said line has been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired by the exercise of the right of eminent domain; or if said line or any part thereof is laid upon, over or under any public road or highway of this State, or street or alley of any municipality, or the right of way of any railroad or other public utility; including also any natural gas utility authorized by law to exercise the right of eminent domain.

3. Producing or purchasing natural gas and transporting or causing the same to be transported by pipe lines to or near the limits of any municipality in which said gas is received and distributed or sold to the public by another public utility or by said municipality, in all cases where such business is in fact the only or practically exclusive agency of supply of natural gas to such utility or municipality, is hereby declared to be virtual monopoly and a business and calling affected with a public interest, and the said business and property employed therein within this State shall be subject to the provisions of this law and to the jurisdiction and regulation of the Commission as a gas utility.

Every such gas utility is hereby declared to be affected with a public interest and subject to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the Commission as provided herein. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 18.]

Art. 6051. May enjoin gas pipe line.—The operation of gas pipe lines for buying, selling, transporting, producing or otherwise dealing in natural gas is a business which in its nature and according to the established method of conducting the business is a monopoly and shall not be conducted unless such gas pipe line so used in connection with such business be subject to the jurisdiction herein conferred upon the Commission. The Attorney General shall enforce this provision by injunction or other remedy. [Id.]

Art. 6052. Utility office.—Every gas utility as defined herein shall have an office in one of the counties of this State in which its property or some part thereof is located and shall keep in said office all books, accounts, papers, records, vouchers and receipts which the Commission shall require. No books, accounts, papers, records, receipts, vouchers or other data required by the Commission to be so kept shall be at any time removed from this State except upon such conditions as the Commission may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 6053. Regulation of utilities.—The Commission after due notice shall fix and establish and enforce the adequate and reasonable price of gas and fair and reasonable rates of charges and regulations for transporting, producing, distributing, buying, selling and delivering gas by such pipe lines in this State; and shall establish fair and equitable rules and regulations for the full control and supervision of said gas pipe lines and all their holdings pertaining to the gas business in all their relations to the public, as the Commission may from time to time deem proper; and establish a fair and equitable division of the proceeds of the sale of gas between the companies transporting or producing the gas and the companies distributing or selling it; and prescribe and enforce rules and regulations for the government and control of such pipe lines in respect to their gas pipe lines and producing, receiving, transporting and distributing facilities; and regulate and apportion the supply of gas between towns, cities, and corporations, and when the supply of gas controlled by any gas pipe line shall be inadequate, the Commission shall prescribe fair and reasonable rules and regulations requiring such gas pipe lines to augment their supply of gas, when in the judgment of the Commission it is practicable to do so; and it shall exercise its power, whether upon its own motion or upon petition by any person, corporation, municipal corporation, county, or commissioner's precinct showing a substantial interest in the subject, or upon petition of the Attorney General, or of any county or district attorney in any county wherein such business or any part thereof may be carried on. [Id.]

Art. 6054. Orders, etc., reviewed.—All orders and agreements of any company or corporation, or any person or persons controlling such pipe lines establishing and prescribing prices, rates, rules and regulations and conditions of service, shall be subject to review, revision and regulation by the Commission on hearing after notice as provided for herein to the person, firm, corporation, partnership or joint stock association owning or controlling or operating the gas pipe line affected. [Id.]

Art. 6055. To refund excess charges.—If any rate or charge for gas or for service or for meter rental or any other purpose pertaining to the operation of said business shall be made or promulgated by any person, firm or corporation owning or operating any gas pipe line, or in the event of an inadequate supply of gas or inadequate service in any respect, and complaint against same shall be filed by any person authorized by the preceding article to file such petition and such complaint is sustained in whole or in part, all persons and customers of said gas pipe line shall have the right to reparation or reimbursement of all excess in charges so paid over and above the proper rate or charge as finally determined by the Commission from and after the date of the filing of such complaint. [Id.]

Art. 6056. Operator's reports.—The Commission may require of all persons or corporations operating, owning or controlling such gas pipe lines sworn reports of the total quantities of gas distributed by such pipe lines and of that held by them in storage, and also of their source of supply, the number of wells from which they draw their supply, the amount of pressure maintained, and the amount and character and description of the equipment employed, and such other matters pertaining to the business as the Commission may deem pertinent. [Id.]

Art. 6057. Discrimination.—No such pipe line public utility shall discriminate in favor of or against any person, place or corporation, either in apportioning the supply of natural gas or in its charges therefor; nor shall any such utility directly or indirectly charge, demand, collect or receive from any one a greater or less compensation for any service rendered than from another for a like and contemporaneous service; provided this shall not limit the right of the Commission to prescribe different rates and regulations for the use of natural gas for manufacturing and similar purposes, or to prescribe rates and regulations for service from or to other or different places, as it may determine. [Id.]

Art. 6058. Appeal from city control.—When a city government has ordered any existing rate reduced, the gas utility affected by such order may appeal to the Commission by filing with it on such terms and conditions as the Commission may direct, a petition and bond to review the decision, regulation, ordinance, or order of the city, town or municipality. Upon such appeal being taken the Commission shall set a hearing and may make such order or decision in regard to the matter involved therein as it may deem just and reasonable. The Commission shall hear such appeal de novo. Whenever any local distributing company or concern, whose rates have been fixed by any municipal government, desires a change of any of its rates, rentals or charges, it shall make its application to the municipal government where such utility is located and such municipal government shall determine said application within sixty days after presentation unless the determination thereof may be longer deferred by agreement. If the municipal government should reject such application or fail or refuse to act on it within said sixty days, then the utility may appeal to the Commission as herein provided. But said Commission shall determine the matters involved in any such appeal within sixty days after the filing by such utility of such appeal with said Commission or such further time as such utility shall in writing agree to, but the rates fixed by such municipal government shall remain in full force and effect until ordered changed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6059. Appeal from orders.—If any gas utility or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied utility or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause of objection thereto in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County against the Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may have the right of appeal; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to the appellate court, and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all causes of a different character therein pending. If the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. In all trials under this article the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id.]

Art. 6060. Utility tax.—Every gas utility subject to the provisions of this subdivision on or before the first day of January and quarterly thereafter, shall file with the Commission a statement, duly verified as true and correct by the president, treasurer or general manager if a company or corporation, or by the owner or one of them if an individual or co-partnership, showing the gross receipts of such utility for the quarter next preceding or for such portion of said quarterly period as such utility may have been conducting any business, and at such time shall pay into the State Treasury at Austin a sum equal to one-fourth of one per cent of the gross income received from all business done by it within this State during said quarter. [Id.]

Art. 6061. Report to Governor.—The Commission shall on December 1st of each year make a full detailed report to the Governor, who shall transmit the same to the next succeeding session of the Legislature, showing:

1. The proceedings of said Commission to such time with respect to the gas utilities defined herein.
2. The receipts of gross income taxes from all sources, indicating the sources.
3. The expenditures made under and in accordance with this subdivision, the nature of such expenditures, including in addition to other items of expenditures, the names, titles, nature of employment, salaries of and payments made to all persons employed for any purpose under the terms of this subdivision with statement of traveling and other expenses incurred by each of said persons and approved by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6062. Penalties.—Any public utility as herein defined violating any provision of this subdivision or failing to perform any duty herein imposed or to comply with any valid order of the Commission when not stayed or suspended by order of the court, shall be subject to a penalty payable to the State of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, each violation to constitute a separate offense, and each day that such failure continues shall constitute a separate offense. An additional penalty of a like amount together with reasonable attorney's fees may also be recoverable by and for the use of any person, corporation or association of persons against whom there shall have been unlawful discrimination as herein defined; such suit to be brought in the name of and for the use of the party aggrieved. [Id.]

Art. 6063. Receiver.—Whenever any person, firm or corporation, owning, operating or controlling such gas pipe line shall violate any provision hereof or any rule or regulation of the Commission, the Commission shall, whenever in its judgment the public interests require it, apply to any court of this State having jurisdiction for a receivership of such concern guilty of such violation. Such receiver shall control and manage the property of such gas pipe line under the direction of the court as provided by law in receivership matters. The grounds for appointment of receiver provided for in this article shall be in addition to other grounds provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6064. Duties of pipe line expert.—The supervisor shall likewise assist the Commission in the performance of its duties under this subdivision under the direction of the Commission, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 6065. Employees of Commission.—The Commission may employ and appoint, from time to time, such experts, assistants, accountants, engineers, clerks and other persons as it deems necessary to enable it at all times to inspect and audit all records or receipts, disbursements, vouchers, prices, pay rolls, time cards, books and official records, to inspect all property and records of the utilities subject to the provisions hereof, and to perform such other services as may be directed by the Commission or under its authority. Such persons and employees of the Commission shall be paid for the service rendered such sums as the Commission may fix. The number of employees and appointees employed or appointed under this subdivision and the sums of money paid to them for their services shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Control, and no employment or appointment hereunder shall be valid without such approval. [Id.]

Art. 6066. Expenditures limited.—The salary and expense of the expert and his assistants, and the salaries, wages, fees and expenses of every other person employed or appointed by the Commission under the provisions of this subdivision, and all other expenses, costs, and charges, including witness fees and mileage, incurred by or under authority of the Commission or a Commissioner, in administering and enforcing the provisions of this subdivision or in exercising any power and authority hereunder shall be paid out of the gas utilities fund provided for by Article 6060, by the State Treasurer on the warrants of the Comptroller of Public Accounts on order or voucher approved by the Commission or the chairman thereof. If the amount or total of such gross receipts charge collected shall not be sufficient, during any quarterly period, to pay such salaries, costs, charges, fees and expenses, then the deficit shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of the general revenue not otherwise appropriated. Any surplus remaining in the gas utilities fund, after paying all such salaries, costs, fees and charges after deducting such amounts as may be contracted to be paid and incurred and such as may be reasonably estimated by the Commission for its use, shall be paid over to the general revenue fund at the end of such quarterly period. The expenses authorized in this article shall never exceed in any one calendar year the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

1. STATE PARKS BOARD

Article 6067. Creating Board.—There is hereby created a State Parks Board of five members to be appointed by the Governor, whose terms shall be six years from date of appointment, but in appointing the first board he shall appoint one member for two years, two for four years and two for six years. They shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling expenses and hotel bills out of State funds, except where localities pay such expenses. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 58.]

Art. 6068. To solicit park sites.—The said Board shall solicit donations to the State of tracts of land, large or small, to be used by the State for the purpose of public parks, and said board is hereby authorized to accept in behalf of the State the title to any such tract or tracts of land, subject to the approval of the Legislature. [Id.]

Art. 6069. Duty of Board.—Said Board shall make investigations of any tract or tracts of land, of any size whatsoever, in the State with a view of determining whether the same is suitable for public park purposes, and, the terms on which it can be acquired; and shall report the result of their investigations, together with their recommendations and findings to each regular session of the Legislature, for such action as the Legislature may take. The purpose of this law being to initiate a movement looking to the establishment eventually of a system of State Parks for the benefit of the people, secured either by donation or purchase, or established on any land owned by the State available for such purpose. The said Board is especially directed to inspect the Davis Mountains in Jeff Davis County, to determine the feasibility of same as a park that might be made a National Park. If said Board should conclude that the Davis Mountains area is feasible as a great park, they are hereby authorized to outline the said park; take options or easements and outline a policy to finance the said Davis Mountains area as a park. Any options, easements or tentative deals that are made in regard to said Davis Mountains Park shall be subject to the action of the Legislature and shall not be binding on the State until the Legislature shall approve of the action of said Parks Board. [Id.]

Art. 6070. Traveling expenses.—Any locality desiring to do so may pay the expenses of said Board on any trip to such locality to inspect land and investigate in such locality in order to ascertain whether there is a suitable site there for a State Park; but if the expenses of the Board are so paid, no money shall be paid out of the State Treasury for traveling expenses or hotel bills of said board for such trip. [Id.]

2. SAN JACINTO STATE PARK

Art. 6071. [6395] Establishing State Park.—The lands owned and acquired by the State, called the San Jacinto battlefield, shall be known and styled, "The San Jacinto State Park," and, with the exception, reservations and limitations herein mentioned, the said San Jacinto State Park shall be under the care and direction of the State Board of Control. Said Board and the commissioners shall jointly endeavor to improve, preserve and protect the lands and property within and connected with said San Jacinto State Park. [Acts 1907, p. 104.]

Art. 6072. [6396] Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint three resident citizens of the State, who shall be known as "San Jacinto State Park Commissioners," who shall serve without compensation and whose duties shall be to advise with and assist the Board of Control in the improvement, care and preservation of the lands now owned and hereafter acquired by the State, known as the San Jacinto battlefield. One or more of said commissioners may, in the discretion of the Governor, be selected from the patriotic organization known as San Jacinto Chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, or from any kindred organization. [Id., Sec. 6.]

Art. 6073. [6397] Duties of the commissioners.—It shall be the duty of said commissioners, acting with the advice and consent of the Board of Control, to cause to be erected upon a site by them selected a keeper's cottage and other necessary buildings; to arrange for or employ a keeper who shall reside upon the grounds and who shall be clothed with all the powers and authority of a peace officer of the county for the purposes of caring for and protecting the property of the State; to provide the necessary teams, implements and other utensils for the use of such keeper and other employes in the work of beautifying, improving and protecting said grounds; to cause to be erected around, about and upon said grounds such fences as shall, in the judgment of the commissioners and the Board, serve the best interests of the State in the care and protection of its property; to provide for and outline a plan, diagram and design of the work to be done from time to time, copies of which shall be kept in the office of the Board for reference, and to do any and all things necessary to be done, with the intent and purpose of beautifying, improving and protecting the State's interest therein. [Id., Sec. 7.]

3. GONZALES STATE PARK

Art. 6074. Establishing park.—The State accepts title to the ground tendered by the City of Gonzales, and dedicates it as a public State park in commemoration of the historic events that have occurred at Gonzales, and agrees to beautify and protect the same; which said ground shall be under the care and direction of the State Board of Control, and shall be styled "Gonzales State Park." [Acts 1913, p. 242.]

Art. 6075. Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint three resident citizens of the State, who shall be known as "Gonzales State Park Commissioners," who shall advise with and assist the Board of Control in the improvement, care and preservation of the said land. One or more of said commissioners may, in the discretion of the Governor, be selected from the patriotic organization known as Gonzales Chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, or from any kindred organization. Said commissioner shall serve without compensation. [Id.]

4. WASHINGTON STATE PARK

Art. 6076. Washington State Park.—The lands situated in Washington County and which were acquired by the State and on which the first capitol of Texas stood, shall be known as "The Washington State Park." [Acts 1923, p. 123.]

Art. 6077. Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint for a term of two years five resident citizens of this State, who shall constitute "The Washington State Park Commission." The duties of said commissioners, acting with the advice and consent of the Board of Control, shall be the same as that provided by law for the San Jacinto State Park, as far as applicable. [Id.]

5. COUNTY PARKS

Art. 6078. Tax for parks.—Each commissioners court is authorized to levy and collect a tax not to exceed five cents on each $100 of assessed valuation of the county for the purchase and improvement of lands for use as county parks which shall consist of not more than one hundred acres, and shall not exceed more than four in any one county. No such tax shall be levied and collected until the proposition is submitted to and ratified by the property tax-paying voters of the county at a general or special election called for that purpose, provided, a two-thirds majority of the property taxpaying voters of such county, at an election held for such purpose shall determine in favor of said tax. If said court desires to establish two or more of such county parks they shall locate them in widely separated portions of the county. Said court shall have full power and control over any and all such parks and may levy and collect an annual tax sufficient in their judgment to properly maintain such parks and build and construct pavilions and such other buildings as they may deem necessary, lay out and open driveways and walks, pave the same or any part thereof, set out trees and shrubbery, construct ditches or lakes, and make such other improvements as they may deem proper. Such parks shall remain open for the free use of the public under such reasonable rules and regulations as said court may prescribe. [Acts 1915, p. 102.]

Art. 6079. Privileges and concessions.—No person, firm or association of persons shall have the right to offer for sale or barter, exhibit anything or conduct any place of amusement where a fee is charged within said parks without first obtaining the consent of the commissioners court or its duly authorized agent, paying for such privilege or concession the sum agreed upon with said court or its duly authorized agent. All revenue from the sale of such privileges or concessions shall go into a fund for the maintenance of said parks. [Id.]

6. CITY PARKS

Art. 6080. City parks.—The governing body of any incorporated city may purchase, improve and maintain land for use as city parks. Such parks shall not exceed two in number for each two thousand inhabitants. If such body establishes more than one of such parks, it shall locate them in widely separated parts of the city. Such body is authorized to levy and collect a tax not to exceed five cents on each one hundred dollars of its assessed valuation for the purchase and improvement of lands for use as such parks, and may levy and collect a like annual tax to properly maintain such parks. Said body shall have full power and authority over all such parks, and may build and construct such building as they may deem necessary, lay out and open driveways and walks, pave any part thereof, construct ditches or lakes, set out trees and shrubs, and make such other improvements as they may deem proper. Such parks shall remain open for the free use of the public under such reasonable rules as said body may prescribe. [Acts 1917, p. 149.]

Art. 6081. Concessions in city park.—No person, firm or association of persons shall have the right to offer for sale or barter, exhibit anything or conduct any place of amusement where a fee is charged within said parks without first obtaining the consent of the governing body, or its authorized agent, paying for such privilege or concession the sum agreed upon with said body or its agent. All revenue from the sale of such rights, privileges or concessions shall go into a fund for the maintenance of said parks. [Id.]

1. PARTITION OF REAL ESTATE

Article 6082. [6096] [3606] Joint owner may compel.—Any joint owner or claimant of any real estate or of any interest therein or of any mineral, coal, petroleum, or gas lands, whether held in fee or by lease or otherwise, may compel a partition thereof between the other joint owners or claimants thereof in the manner provided in this chapter. [Acts 1917, p. 295.]

Art. 6083. [6097] [3607] [3466] Petition.—Such joint owner or claimant may file his petition in the district court of the county in which the real estate, or any part thereof, sought to be partitioned, is situated, which petition shall state:

1. The names and residence, if known, of each of the other joint owners, or joint claimants, of such property.
2. The share or interest which the plaintiff and the other joint owners, or joint claimants, of same own or claim so far as known to the plaintiff.
3. The land sought to be partitioned shall be so described as that the same may be distinguished from any other and the estimated value thereof stated.

Art. 6084. [6098] [3608] [3467] Citation and service.—Upon the filing of a petition for partition, the clerk shall issue citation for each of the joint owners, or joint claimants, named therein, as in other cases, and such citations shall be served in the manner and for the time provided for the service of citations in other cases.

Art. 6085. [6099] [3609] Where defendant is unknown.—If the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, at the commencement of any suit, or during the progress thereof, for the partition of land, shall make affidavit that an undivided portion of the land described in the plaintiff's petition in said suit is owned by some person unknown to affiant, the clerk of the court shall issue a citation to the proper officer, which shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the suit, and a description of the interest of the unknown owner or owners, commanding such officer to summon such unknown owner or owners by making publication of the citation in some newspaper in the county where the writ issued, if there be a newspaper published in said county, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, for four successive weeks previous to the return day of such process. When such notice is given, and no appearance is entered within the time prescribed for pleading, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend in behalf of such owner or owners, and proceed as in other causes where service is made by publication. It shall be the special duty of the court in all such cases to see that its decree protects the rights of the unknown parties thereto. The judge of the court shall fix the fee of the attorney so appointed, which shall be entered and collected as costs against said unknown owner or owners. [Acts 1879, p. 46; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1346.]

Art. 6086. [6100] [3610] [3468] Court shall determine, what.—Upon the hearing of the cause, the court shall determine the share or interest of each of the joint owners or claimants in the real estate sought to be divided, and all questions of law or equity affecting the title to such land which may arise.

Art. 6087. [6101] [3611] [3469] Appointment of commissioners.—The court shall determine before entering the decree of partition whether the property, or any part thereof, is susceptible of partition; and, if the court determines that the whole, or any part of such property is susceptible of partition, then the court for that part of such property held to be susceptible of partition shall enter a decree directing the partition of such real estate, describing the same, to be made in accordance with the respective shares or interests of each of the parties entitled thereto, specifying in such decree the share or interest of each party, and shall appoint three or more competent and disinterested persons as commissioners to make such partition in accordance with such decree and the law, a majority of which commissioners may act. [Acts 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6088. [6102] [3612] [3470] Writ of partition.—The clerk shall issue a writ of partition, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding such sheriff or constable to notify each of the commissioners of their appointment as such, and shall accompany such writ with a certified copy of the decree of the court directing the partition. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6089. [6103] [3613] [3471] Service of writ of partition.—The writ of partition shall be served by reading the same to each of the persons named therein as commissioners, and by delivering to any one of them the accompanying certified copy of the decree of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6090. [6104] [3614] [3472] May appoint surveyor.—The court may, should it be deemed necessary, appoint a surveyor to assist the commissioners in making the partition, in which case the writ of partition shall name such surveyor, and shall be served upon him by reading the same to him. [Id.]

Art. 6091. [6105] [3615] [3473] Return of writ.—A writ of partition, unless otherwise directed by the court, shall be made returnable to the first day of the next term of the court from whence the same issues; and the officer serving it shall indorse thereon the time and manner of such service. [Id.]

Art. 6092. [6106] [3616] [3474] Shall proceed to partition.—The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed to partition the real estate described in the decree of the court, in accordance with the directions contained in such decree and with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6093. [6107] [3617] [3475] May cause survey.—If the commissioners deem it necessary, they may cause to be surveyed the real estate to be partitioned into several tracts or parcels. [Id.]

Art. 6094. [6108–9] Shall divide real estate.—The commissioners shall divide the real estate to be partitioned into as many shares as there are persons entitled thereto, as determined by the court, each share to contain one or more tracts or parcels,

as the commissioners may think proper, having due regard in the division to the situation, quantity and advantages of each share, so that the shares may be equal in value, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the respective interests of the parties entitled. The commissioners shall then proceed by lot to set apart to each of the parties entitled one of said shares, as determined by the decrees of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6095. [6110] [3620] [3478] Report of commissioners.—When the commissioners have completed the partition, they shall report the same in writing and under oath to the court, which report shall show:

1. The property divided, describing the same.
2. The several tracts or parcels into which the same was divided by them, describing each particularly.
3. The number of shares and the land which constitutes each share, and the estimated value of each share.
4. The allotment of each share.
5. The report shall be accompanied by such field-notes and maps as may be necessary to make the same intelligible. [Id.]

Art. 6096. [6111] [3621] [3479] Property incapable of division.—Should the court be of the opinion that a fair and equitable division of the real estate, or any part thereof, can not be made, it shall order a sale of so much as is incapable of partition, which sale shall be for cash, or upon such other terms as the court may direct, and shall be made as under execution, or by private sale through a receiver, if the court so order, and the proceeds thereof shall be returned into court and be partitioned among the persons entitled thereto, according to their respective interests. [Acts 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6097. [6112] [3622] [3480] Objections to report.—Either party to the suit may file objections to any report of the commissioners in partition, and in such case a trial of the issues thereon shall be had as in other cases. If the report be found to be erroneous in any material respect, or unequal and unjust, the same shall be rejected, and other commissioners shall be appointed by the court, and the same proceedings had as in the first instance. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6098. [6113] [3623] [3481] Partition not prejudicial.—When a partition is made between a joint owner who holds an estate for a term of years or for life with others who hold equal or greater estates, such partition shall not be prejudicial to those entitled to the reversion or remainder of such estates. [Id.]

Art. 6099. [6114] [3624] [3482] Each party shall hold in severalty.—When any partition is made, each party to whom a share has been allotted shall hold the same in severalty under the same conditions and covenants that it was held before such partition was made. No warranty, lease or right whatsoever shall be impaired or affected by such partition. [Id.]

Art. 6100. [6115] [3625] [3483] Decree shall vest title.—The decree of the court confirming the report of the commissioners in partition, when a partition has been made shall vest the title in each party to whom a share has been allotted, to such share as against the other parties to such partition suit, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, as fully and effectually as the deed of such parties could vest the same, and shall have the same force and effect as a full warranty deed of conveyance from such other parties and each of them. [Id.]

2. PARTITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Art. 6101. [6116] [3626] [3484] Part owners may compel partition.—Part owners of personal property may be compelled to make partition between them in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts Dec. 24, 1851, p. 20; G. L. vol. 3, p. 89S.]

Art. 6102. [6117] [3627] [3485] Suit begun in what court.—Suit for partition shall be commenced in the court having jurisdiction of the value of such property, in the same manner as other civil suits are commenced, and the several owners or claimants of such property shall be cited as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6103. [6118] [3628] [3486] Value ascertained.—The separate value of each article of such personal property, and the allotment in kind to which each owner is entitled, shall be ascertained by the court, with or without a jury. [Id.]

Art. 6104. [6119] [3629] [3487] Decree of court executed.—When partition in kind of personal property is ordered by the judgment of the court, a writ shall be issued in accordance with such judgment, commanding the sheriff or constable of the county where the property may be to put the parties forthwith in possession of the property allotted to each respectively. [Id.]

Art. 6105. [6120-21] Property sold.—When personal property will not admit of a fair and equitable partition, the court shall ascertain the proportion to which each owner thereof is entitled, and order the property to be sold, and execution shall be issued to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the property may be, describing such property and commanding such officer to sell the same as in other cases of execution, and pay over the proceeds of sale to the parties entitled thereto, in the proportion ascertained by the judgment of the court. [Id.]

3. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 6106. [6122] [3632] [3490] Construction of title.—No provision of this title shall affect the mode of proceeding prescribed by law for the partition of estates of decedents among the heirs and legatees, nor preclude partition in any other manner authorized by the rules of equity; which rules shall govern in proceedings under this title in all things not provided for in this title. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6107. [6123] [3633] [3491] Pleading and practice.—The same rules of pleading, practice and evidence which govern in other civil causes shall govern in suits for partition, when not in conflict with any provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 6108. [6124] [3634] [3492] Pay of commissioners.—The commissioners in partition and the surveyor, if any has been appointed, shall receive for their services three dollars each per day for each day they are engaged in making and returning such partition, to be taxed and collected as other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 6109. [6125] [3635] [3493] Costs.—The court shall adjudge the costs in a partition suit to be paid by each party to whom a share has been allotted in proportion to the value of such share. [Id.]

 6126. Powers of special partner.
 6127. Partners to account.
 6128. Assignments by partnership.
 6129. Assignments contemplating insolvency.
 6130. Concurrence by special partner.
 6131. Partnership creditors preferred.
 6132. Dissolution before time agreed on.

Article 6110. [6126] [3583] Limited partnerships authorized.—Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or other business, except banking or insurance, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities herein prescribed. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 279; P. D. 4717 et seq.; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1535.]

Art. 6111. [6127] [3584] General and special partners.—Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called the general partners, and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners now are by law; and of one or more persons who shall contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners, and who shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by him or them to the capital. [Id.]

Art. 6112. [6128] [3585] General partners only to act.—The general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership and to bind the same. [Id.]

Art. 6113. [6129] [3586] Formation of such partnerships.—The persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain:

1. The name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted.
2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.
3. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their respective places of residence.
4. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.
5. The period at which the partnership is to commence, and the period at which it is to terminate. [Id.]

Art. 6114. [6130] [3587] Certificate to be acknowledged.—The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same, before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments for record, and such acknowledgment shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgment of the conveyances of land. [Id.]

Art. 6115. [6131] [3588] Filing and recording certificate.—The certificate so acknowledged and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal place of business of the partnership shall be situated, and shall also be recorded by him at large in a book to be kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. If the partnership shall have places of business situated in different counties, the certificate and acknowledgment thereof shall be filed and recorded in like manner in the office of the county clerk of every such county. [Id.]

Art. 6116. [6132] [3589] Affidavit of general partner.—At the time of filing the original certificate with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as before directed, an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners, to the common stock, have been actually and in good faith paid in cash. [Id.]

Art. 6117. [6133] [3590] Prerequisites indispensable.—No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed and recorded, nor until an affidavit shall have been filed as above directed; and, if any false statement be made in such certificate or affidavit, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners. [Id.]

Art. 6118. [6134] [3591] Terms to be published.—The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership when registered for at least six weeks immediately after such registry, in such newspapers as shall be designated by the clerk in whose office such registry shall be made; and if such publication be not made the partnership shall be deemed general. [Id.]

Art. 6119. [6135] [3592] Publisher's affidavit.—An affidavit of the publication of such notice by the publisher of the newspapers in which the same shall be published may be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be evidence of the facts therein contained. [Id.]

Art. 6120. [6136] [3593] Renewal of partnership.—Every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice given in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued shall be deemed a general partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6121. [6137] [3594] Certain alterations a dissolution.—Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership according to the provisions of the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 6122. [6138] [3595] Firm name.—The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a firm in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, without the addition of the word "company," or any other general term; and if the name of any special partner be used in such firm, with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. [Id.]

Art. 6123. [6139] [3596] Suits by and against.—Suits in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners, in the same manner as if there were no special partners. [Id.]

Art. 6124. [6140] [3597] Capital of special partner.—No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the character of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if, after the payment of such interest, any profits shall remain to be divided he may also receive his portion of such profits. [Id.]

Art. 6125. [6141] [3598] Reduction of special partner's capital.—If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the capital, with interest. [Id.]

Art. 6126. [6142] [3599] Powers of special partner.—A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management. [Id.]

Art. 6127. [6143] [3600] Partners to account.—The general partners shall be liable to account to each other, and to the special partners, for the management of the concern both in law and equity, as other partners are by law. [Id.]

Art. 6128. [6144] [3601] Assignments by partnership.—Every sale, assignment or transfer of

any property or effects of the partnership made by such partnership when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of insolvency of any partner, with the intent of giving a preference to any creditor of such partnership, or insolvent partner, over other creditors of such partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partnership under the like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6129. [6145] [3602] Assignments contemplating insolvency.—Every such sale, assignment, or transfer of any of the property or effects of a general or special partner made by such general or special partner when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of the insolvency of the partnership with the intent of giving to any creditor of his own, or of the partnership, a preference over the creditors of the partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partner under like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of the partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6130. [6146] [3603] Concurrence by special partner.—Every special partner who shall violate any provision of the two preceding articles, and who shall concur in or assent to any such violation of the partnership by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner. [Id.]

Art. 6131. [6147] [3604] Partnership creditors preferred.—In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as creditor until the claims of all other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied. [Id.]

Art. 6132. [6148] [3605] Dissolution before time agreed on.—No dissolution of such partnerships by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded and published once in each week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in each of the counties where the partnership may have a place of business, if there be such papers, and if there be no newspapers published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the nearest county where there is one. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO

UNINCORPORATED JOINT STOCK COMPANIES

- Art.
6133. Suit in company name.
6134. Service of citation.
6135. Judgment.
6136. Joint liability.
6137. Individual liability.
6138. This chapter cumulative.

Article 6133. [6149] Suit in company name.—Any unincorporated joint stock company or association, whether foreign or domestic, doing business in this State, may sue or be sued in any court of this State having jurisdiction of the subject matter in its company or distinguishing name; and it shall not be necessary to make the individual stockholders or members thereof parties to the suit. [Acts 1907, p. 240.]

Art. 6134. [6150] Service of citation.—In suits against such companies or associations, service of citation may be had on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such unincorporated companies. [Id.]

Art. 6135. [6151] Judgment.—In suits by or against such unincorporated companies, whatever judgment shall be rendered shall be as conclusive on the individual stockholders and members thereof as if they were individually parties to such suits. [Id.]

Art. 6136. [6152] Joint liability.—Where suit shall be brought against such company or association, and the only service had shall be upon the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such company or association, and judgment shall be rendered against the defendant company, such judgment shall be binding on the joint property of all the stockholders or members thereof, and may be enforced by execution against the joint property; but such judgment shall not be binding on the individual property of the stockholders or members, nor authorize execution against it. [Id.]

Art. 6137. [6153] Individual liability.—In a suit against such company or association, in addition to service on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such companies or association, service of citation may also be had on any and all of the stockholders or members of such companies or associations; and, in the event judgment shall be against such unincorporated company or association, it shall be equally binding upon the individual property of the stockholders or members so served, and executions may issue against the property of the individual stockholders or members, as well as against the joint property; but executions shall not issue against the individual property of the stockholders or members until execution against the joint property has been returned without satisfaction. [Id.]

Art. 6138. [6154] This chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall not affect nor impair the right allowed unincorporated joint stock companies and associations to sue in the individual names of the stockholders or members, nor the right of any person to sue the individual stockholders or members; but the provisions of this chapter shall be construed as cumulative merely of other remedies now existing under the law. [Id.]

6145. Texas Historical Board.

Article 6139. Protecting the flag.—Whoever shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place or cause to be placed, any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag of the United States of America or State flag of this State, or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag upon which, after this law takes effect shall have been printed, painted or otherwise placed, or to which shall be attached, appended, affixed or annexed any word, figure, mark, picture, design or drawing, or any advertisement of any nature, or who shall, after this law takes effect, expose to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale, or to give away, or for use for any purpose, any article or substance being an article of merchandise, or receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which, after this law takes effect, shall have been printed, painted, attached or otherwise placed, a representation of any such flag to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed, or who shall publicly mutilate, deface, defy, or defile, trample upon or cast contempt, either by words or act, upon such flag, shall forfeit a penalty of fifty dollars for each such offense. Such penalty shall be recovered with costs in a civil suit brought by and in the name of any citizen of this State. Such penalty when collected, less the reasonable cost and expense of suit and recovery, to be certified by the county attorney of the county in which the offense is committed, shall be paid into the State Treasury. Two or more penalties may be sued for and recovered in the same suit. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 81.]

Art. 6140. Definition.—The word "flag," as used in this title, shall include any flag, standard, color, ensign or any picture or representation of either made of any substance or represented on any substance, and of any size, evidently purporting to be, either of, said flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States of America, or a picture or representation, of either upon which shall be shown the colors, the stars and stripes in any number of either, or by which the person seeing the same without deliberation may believe the same to represent the flag, colors, standard or ensign of the United States of America, [Id.]

Art. 6141. Prima facie evidence.—The possession by one, other than a public officer, as such, of any such flag on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time, by this title, or of any article or substance or thing on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time by this title, shall be presumptive evidence that the same is in violation of this law. [Id.]

Art. 6142. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to any act permitted by the statutes of the United States, or by the United States Army and Navy regulations, nor to any newspaper, periodical, book, pamphlet, circular, certificate, diploma, warrant or commission of appointment to office, ornamental picture, article of jewelry, or stationery for use in correspondence, on any of which shall be printed, painted, or placed said flag, disconnected from any advertisement. [Id.]

Art. 6143. State tree.—The Pecan Tree shall be the State tree of Texas and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Control and the State Parks Board to give due consideration to the Pecan Tree when planning beautification of State Parks or other public property belonging to the State. [Acts 1919, p. 155; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 234, ch. 161, § 1.]

Art. 6144. Home Guard.—Whenever a state of war shall exist between the United States and another nation there may be organized and maintained without expense to this State, with the consent and under the direction of the county judge of any county, a Home Guard composed of adult citizens of the United States and of such county. Such Guard shall be organized to conform as nearly as practicable to the organization of military units, and shall at all times be subject to call to duty and to orders of the sheriff of such county. Each Guard shall be authorized to carry on and about his person pistols and other weapons as may be necessary when called to actual duty by the sheriff. Counties, cities and towns may through their lawful governing bodies appropriate from their public treasuries moneys to provide arms and ammunition for such Guard under such rules as they may prescribe, and those receiving arms from the county shall return all guns and ammunition to the county judge when not on duty. Such Guard may engage in drill at such time and place as the community officers may prescribe, and may be uniformed so as not to conflict with Section 125, Act of Congress, approved June 3, 1916. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 79.]

Art. 6145. Texas Historical Board.—The Governor shall appoint five patriotic citizens of this State, to serve without compensation, who shall constitute the Texas Historical Board. Two of the members of said Board shall serve for a period of two years and three shall serve for four years from the date of their qualification by taking the official oath. The Governor shall, at the time of making the appointments, designate which members shall serve for two years and which shall serve for four years. The Board shall select one member as chairman and another as secretary and may adopt such rules and regulations for its control and guidance as may be necessary to carry out the purposes for which it was created, and shall hold such meetings at such times and places as may be designated by it. Said Board shall gather data relating to the history of Texas from the earliest time to the present and submit to the Legislature at each regular session, for such action as it may deem necessary, such data and such recommendations as it may see fit looking to the preservation of historic relics, and marking of historic spots, the purchase of historic grounds and the erection of fitting monuments in memory of the heroes and the heroic achievements that consecrated, sanctified, and made immortal the glorious and resplendent pages of Texas history. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 62.]

PASSENGER ELEVATORS

Art.

6145a. Safety Devices.

6145b. Approval of Industrial Board.

Article 6145a. Safety Devices.—It shall be unlawful, after the 1st day of January, 1926, to operate passenger elevators for the carriage of passengers in any building within this State, until the same shall be equipped with a device that will prevent moving said elevator when the gate or door thereto is open; provided, however, that the installation of any such device, the design of which shall have been approved either by the United States Bureau of Standards, or by the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Texas, shall be prima facie evidence of a compliance with this act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 29, p. 147, § 1.]

Art. 6145b. Approval of Industrial Board.—It is hereby made the duty of the Industrial Accident Board to inspect and approve or disapprove the model, drawing, or design of any such devices as may be submitted to it in Austin, Texas, and to charge therefor a fee of $10.00. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 29, p. 147, § 2.]

6165a. Loan brokers and regulations.

Article 6146. [6155] [3636] [3494] Pawnbroker.—A pawnbroker is one who pursues the business of lending money upon interest and receiving upon deposit any personal property as security for the payment of such loan and interest.

Art. 6147. [6156-7] Bond.—No person shall pursue the business of a pawnbroker without first having given bond, with at least two good sureties in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, and approved by and filed with the county clerk of the county in which such person proposes to pursue said business, conditioned that he will faithfully comply with each requirement of the law governing such business. A new bond shall be given in the same manner as the first every twelve months during the continuance of such business. Such bond shall be recorded and safely kept in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such pawnbroker pursues such business, the recording fee to be paid by such pawnbroker. [Acts 1874, p. 153; G. L. vol. 8, p. 155.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 6148. [6158] [3639] [3497] Register.—Each pawnbroker shall keep a well bound book, to be kept open for inspection in which he shall register all his transactions as a broker at the time the same occurs. Such register shall show—

1. An accurate description of the article pawned.
2. From whom received.
3. The time and the amount for which the article is pawned; its probable value and the rate of interest agreed upon.
4. The final disposition made of such property, and if sold to whom sold and the amount for which each article was sold. [Id.]

Art. 6149. [6159] [3640] [3498] Pawn ticket.—The broker shall give to the party pledging a ticket corresponding to the entry on the book of registry. [Id.]

Art. 6150. [6160] [3641] [3499] Failure to redeem.—If any article deposited with such broker as a pawn shall not be redeemed at or before the time agreed upon, the broker shall sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at his usual place of business, after giving at least five days' notice of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6151. [6161] [3642] [3500] How notice given.—Such notice of sale shall be given by posting or [of] written or printed advertisements at not less than three public places in the county where such sale is to take place, one of which places shall be the courthouse of such county. [Id.]

Art. 6152. [6162] [3643] [3501] Advertisement.—Such advertisements of sale shall state the time and place of such sale, and shall contain a full description of each article to be sold, and the name of the person depositing the same, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale takes place. [Id.]

Art. 6153. [6163] [3644] [3502] Hours of sale.—All sales made by a pawnbroker shall be made between the hours of ten o'clock A. M. and four o'clock P. M., and no sales shall be made upon Sunday or upon a legal holiday. [Id.]

Art. 6154. [6164] [3645] [3503] Report of sales.—When a sale has been made the pawnbroker shall, within five days thereafter, file with the county clerk of the county where such sale was made, a report in writing and under oath, showing—

1. The time and place of such sale.
2. The notice given thereof.
3. A full description of the property sold and by whom deposited.
4. By whom purchased and the amount for which each article was sold.
5. The amount due the broker, principal, interest and expenses upon each article sold.
6. The amount of surplus of the proceeds of sale of each article, if any, after deducting the amount due the broker of principal, interest and expenses. [Id.]

Art. 6155. [6165] [3646] [3504] Expenses.—The expenses shall be such expenses as have been agreed upon by the parties to the contract, or if there be no agreement in regard thereto, then the reasonable expenses of the sale only, such as reasonable auctioneer's commissions, shall be allowed and deducted. [Id.]

Art. 6156. [6166] [3647] [3505] Owner entitled to surplus.—The owner or depositor of the property so sold shall be entitled upon demand to receive from such broker the surplus of the proceeds of such sale at any time within thirty days after such sale, and if no demand therefor be made within thirty days after such sale such surplus shall become the property of the county where such sale was made. [Id.]

Art. 6157. [6167] [3648] [3506] Payment to county treasurer.—Should there be any surplus of the proceeds of any sale made by a broker, he shall, at the expiration of thirty days from the day of such sale, pay such surplus to the county treasurer of the county where such sale was made, or he shall file with such county treasurer the receipt of the owner or depositor of the property sold, for such surplus, at the expiration of said thirty days. [Id.]

Art. 6158. [6168] [3649] [3507] Suit for surplus.—Suit may be brought upon the bond of the pawnbroker by the county, or by any party entitled to the surplus of any sale made by him, and upon recovery judgment shall be rendered against such pawnbroker and the sureties upon his bond for the amount of such surplus, together with ten per cent. per month on such amount for each month or fraction of a month that such surplus has been illegally withheld by such pawnbroker. [Id.]

Art. 6159. [6169] [3650] [3508] Suit upon bond.—Any person injured by the failure of a pawnbroker to comply faithfully with his contract, or with any requirement of law governing the business of pawnbrokerage, may sue upon the bond of such pawnbroker and recover such damages as he may prove himself entitled to, not to exceed the penalty of such bond. [Id.]

Art. 6160. [6170] [3651] [3509] May sue officer.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any provision of the law governing pawnbrokerage, shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such failure, refusal or neglect. [Id.]

Art. 6161. [6171] [3652] [3510] Common law shall govern.—The rules of the common law shall govern the civil liability of pawnbrokers, except when inconsistent with any statute. [Id.]

2. LOAN BROKERS

Arts. 6162–6165. [Amended.]

Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 30, ch. 17, § 1, amends articles 6162–6165 to read as provided in sections 2–8 without further specifying the particular articles. See article 6165a.

Art. 6165a. Loan brokers and regulations.—

Sec. 2. A loan broker is a person, firm, or corporation who pursues the business of lending money, purchasing salaries and taking for security for the payment of such loan and interest thereon an assignment of wages or assignment of wages with Power of Attorney to collect the same or other order for unpaid chattel mortgage or bill of sale upon household or kitchen furniture.

Sec. 3. That all loan brokers now doing business in this State within thirty (30) days after this Act [Art. 6165a; P. C., art. 1129a] takes effect, and such as may hereafter engage in business in this State, shall file an affidavit in the office of the County Clerk, of the County in which such loan broker is located or doing business, giving the true and correct name or names of the owner or owners of said business and name and designate some person or persons in each county or counties who is an agent, the residence of said owners, and the name or names of any and all persons in the county who are agents of the said loanbroker, upon whom service may be had or notice given in the event of any suit filed against such loan broker.

Sec. 4. That such loan brokers now doing business in this State or hereafter doing business in this State, shall, before beginning business in this State, execute and deliver a good and sufficient bond in the sum of One Thousand Dollars to such County Judge in the County in which said loan broker is located and doing business, to be approved by such Judge and payable to the said County Judge and his successors in office, conditioned that such loan broker shall comply with this Act and that all persons doing business with such loan broker who may be injured or damaged thereby may sue upon the said bond and recover for such injury or damage together with a reasonable attorney's fees to be allowed by the Court not to exceed the sum of Fifty Dollars, and also may sue in their own name and recover from said loan broker upon any and all usurious interest collected in double the amount now provided by law. Such persons may sue and recover upon said bond from time to time until the full amount is exhausted, and when said bond is exhausted said loan broker shall be required by the County Judge to execute a new bond as above provided.

Sec. 5. All contracts for usurious or unlawful interest collected or received are declared to be contrary to public policy of this State, and all of such interest collected and contracted to be collected therefor shall be void; that each and every loan broker shall keep a well bound book in which he shall register all of his transactions with other persons as such loan broker at the time the same occur, which shall be at all times kept open for inspection, and such broker shall give to the borrower, or to all persons doing business with such broker, a ticket showing a true and correct statement of the amount of actual cash received by such borrower or person and the true and correct amount paid back by the borrower or person to such broker, giving correct dates of each and every payment or credit thereon, and said tickets shall correspond correctly with all of the entries on said register. Said register shall fully describe and show all of the articles of property securing the loan, if the same be secured by chattel mortgage or bill of sale on household or kitchen furniture, or if by a sale of wages or salary, or by an assignment of wages or salary, or assignment of wages or salary with a Power of Attorney to collect same, or of any other order for unpaid wages or salary given as security, giving the name of the person receiving the money, and the person by whom such person is employed or by whom it is expected he or she shall be employed or earn the wages or salary; said ticket shall further show the full amount of money actually received by the person and the full and total amount that is to be received back by such loan broker in full payment, and the full and correct rate of interest or discount agreed upon.

Sec. 6. Such bond when so approved by the County Judge shall be filed, together with the said affidavit, in the County Clerk's office in the County in which said loan broker is located and doing business, and the said bond shall be recorded at length by the County Clerk in a well bound book kept for that purpose. That each assignment of wages or contract providing for the purchase of wages, mortgages, Power of Attorney to collect or other transfer of the salary or wages of a married man and each bill of sale or chattel mortgage upon household or kitchen furniture of a married man shall be void unless the same be made and given with the consent of the wife, and such consent shall be evidenced by the wife joining in the assignment, mortgage, Power of Attorney to collect, or other transfer of salary or wages and the signing of her name thereto and by her separate acknowledgment thereon, taken and certified to by a proper officer, substantially in the mode provided for the acknowledgment of a wife in the conveyance of a homestead. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 30, ch. 17.]

Section 7 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 30, ch. 17, provides that if any part of the Acts is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder, repeals all conflicting laws, and expressly repeals Rev. Crim. St. 1925, articles 1127, 1128, 1129. Section 8 being a penal provision is published as Penal Code, article 1129a.

1. PRISON COMMISSION

Article 6166. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, c. 212, § 1.]

Article 6166a. Prison system.—It shall be the policy of this State, in the operation and management of the Prison System, to so manage and conduct the same in that manner as will be consistent with the operation of a modern prison system, and with the view of making the System self-sustaining; and that those convicted of violating the law and sentenced to a term in the State Penitentiary shall have humane treatment, and be given opportunity, encouragement and training in the matter of reformation. All prisoners shall be worked within the prison walls and upon farms owned or leased by the State; and in no event shall the labor of a prisoner be sold to any contractor or lessee to work on farms, or elsewhere, nor shall any prisoner be worked on any farm or otherwise, upon shares, except such farm be owned or leased by the State of Texas. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 2.]

Art. 6166b. Texas prison board.—There is hereby created the Texas Prison Board, which shall be composed of nine members to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, such appointments shall be made bi-annually, or on or before February 15. Each member of said Board shall be a State officer within the meaning of the Constitution, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take the constitutional oath of office. The term of office of each member shall be six year [years], except that in making the first appointments the Governor shall appoint three members for a term of two years each, three members for terms of four years each, and three members for terms of six years each, so that the terms of three members shall expire every two years. Vacancies occurring in the Board shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 3.]

Art. 6166c. Pay of members.—The members of the Texas Prison Board shall draw no salaries, but each member of the Board shall be entitled to a per diem of ten dollars per day and actual and necessary expenses when engaged in the discharge of his official duties. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 4.]

Art. 6166d. Meetings.—The Texas Prison Board shall hold a regular meeting on the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year for the transaction of any and all official business. Special meetings of said Board may be called by the Chairman, and upon the petition of five members special meetings of said Board shall be called. Each member of the Board shall be given notice of special meetings and of the purpose thereof, and unless such notice has been given no official business shall be transacted at any special meeting. Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 5.]

Art. 6166e. Organization.—The Board shall organize by the election of a Chairman and a Vice-chairman from among its members, and shall provide for the appointment of such committees as may be expedient to the accomplishment of the duties of said Board. The Board shall have authority to employ such clerical assistance as may be necessary for the discharge of its duties. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 6.]

Art. 6166f. Removal or suspension of members.—If any member of the Board shall be guilty of malfeasance, misfeasance or non-feasance in office, or shall become incapable or unfit to discharge his official duties or shall willfully fail, refuse or neglect the discharge of the duties of his office, such member may be removed from office in either of the following ways:

(1) By the Governor in the manner provided by law.

(2) By suit brought by the Attorney General in the name of the State on his own motion or at the direction of the Governor on the relation of the Governor; in the District Court of Travis County or in the District Court of the county of residence of such member. The Attorney General shall bring such suit when directed by the Governor to do so, provided the Governor accompanies such direction with charges and evidence showing that the member is subject to removal as provided herein. Upon the application of the Attorney General in the name of the State of Texas, the District Judge before whom such suit is pending may immediately suspend the member from office, and such order of suspension shall be effective until set aside by the Court on motion. Such motion, when filed, shall have preference over all other causes pending in such Court. If the judgment of the Court be one of removal from office, the member shall be forthwith suspended from office pending any appeal of the case. When the member is so suspended, the District Judge at the time of making such order of suspension, shall appoint for the duration of such suspension some other qualified person to perform the duties of the suspended member, and such appointee shall receive the same compensation as a member of the Board. The suit shall be a civil action, to be tried as other civil cases, with the right of appeal and review as in other cases. The Court shall have authority to issue all necessary writs to enforce its judgment or order of suspension and to protect its jurisdiction over each case. Such suit shall have precedence over all other cases in the trial and appellate courts. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 7.]

Art. 6166g. Control of prison system.—The Texas Prison Board, together with the manager hereinafter provided for, shall be vested with the exclusive management and control of the Prison System, and all properties belonging thereto, subject only to the limitations of this Act [Arts. 6166a-6166z7], and shall be responsible for the management of the affairs of the Prison System and for the proper care, treatment, feeding, clothing and management of the prisoners confined therein. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 8.]

Art. 6166h. Manager's reports.—The Texas Prison Board shall cause the manager hereinafter provided for to make full and complete reports to each regular meeting of said Board of the fiscal affairs of said Prison System and of the general conditions with relation thereto. On the first day of January of each year, said Board shall cause a full and complete inventory of all property of every description belonging to the Prison System to be made, and there shall be set opposite each item the book and actual market value of same. Said inventory shall further include a statement of the fiscal affairs of said System as of the first day of January; and a sufficient number of copies of such inventory and report shall be printed to give general publicity thereto. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 9.]

Art. 6166i. Suits by board.—The Texas Prison Board is authorized to bring and maintain suits for the collection and enforcement of all demands and debts owing to the prison system. The venue of such suits shall be in Travis County, and such suits shall be instituted and prosecuted by the Attorney General. No bond for costs, appeal bond, supersedeas bond, writ of error bond, or other security shall at any time be required of the Texas Prison Board in any civil suit of any kind brought by or against it or them in its or their official capacity as such Board or members thereon, except such suits as may be brought against it or them by the State of Texas. Nothing in this section shall authorize any civil suit of any kind whatsoever to be brought or prosecuted against said Board or any member thereof as such, except by way of offset or counter claim to an action originally brought by said Board. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 10.]

Art. 6166j. Manager's authority and pay.—The Texas Prison Board shall employ a general manager of the prison system, who shall possess qualifications and training which suit him to manage the affairs of a modern penal institution, and it shall be his duty to carry out the policies of the Texas Prison Board. The Board shall manage and control the prison system through the manager selected by it. In addition to his salary, which salary shall not exceed Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars per annum, said manager shall be furnished with a dwelling house by the State and all necessary traveling expenses when traveling on business for the prison system. The Board shall delegate to such manager authority to manage the affairs of the prison system, subject to its control and supervision. The duty of such manager shall extend to the employment and discharge, with the approval of the Board, of such persons as may be necessary for the efficient conduct of the prison system. The manager, with the consent of the Texas Prison Board, shall have power to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations governing the humane treatment, training and discipline of prisoners, and to make provision for the separation and classification of prisoners according to sex, color, age, health, corrigibility, and character of offense upon which the conviction of the prisoner was secured. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 11.]

Art. 6166k. Manager's removal.—The Texas Prison Board shall have the power at any time to remove the manager for inefficiency, improper conduct, or for any other cause or reason after due notice to him of their intention, and an opportunity given to said manager to be heard. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 12.]

Art. 6166l. Manager's accounts.—The manager shall keep, or cause to be kept, correct and accurate accounts of each and every financial transaction of the Prison System, including all receipts and disbursements of every character. He shall receive and receipt for all money paid to him from every source whatsoever, and shall sign all warrants authorizing any disbursement of any sum or sums on account of the prison system, and no money shall be paid out on any account of the prison system except on a warrant signed by him and countersigned by the auditor of the prison system. He shall keep full and correct accounts with each industry, department and farm of the prison system, and with all persons, firms, or corporations having financial transactions with the prison system. He shall have power to require all necessary reports from any department, officers or employees of the prison system at stated intervals. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 13.]

Art. 6166m. Remittances to State Treasurer.—On Monday of each week, the manager shall remit to the State Treasury all moneys received by him during the preceding week and belonging to the prison system. Such funds when received shall be deposited by the State Treasurer upon the warrant of the Comptroller to the credit of the general revenue fund. The manager shall be furnished with a receipt for such money, and a duplicate of such receipt shall be sent to the chairman of the Texas Prison Board, and another duplicate to the State Prison auditor. All bills and accounts of said prison system shall be paid from appropriations made by the Legislature from the general revenue fund of the State, upon sworn accounts and warrants drawn by the State Comptroller on the State Treasurer in the same manner as provided by general law. Each account shall be approved by the manager and audited by the auditor of the prison system. The Comptroller shall have authority to issue warrants, and the Treasurer to pay the same, upon accounts approved by the manager and audited by the auditor, where the amount of such account does not exceed $5,000.00; and where the amount of the account is in excess of $5,000.00, before the Comptroller shall issue a warrant for the same or the Treasurer pay such warrant, such account shall be approved for payment by the chairman of the Prison Board. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 14.]

Art. 6166n. Competitive bids for contracts.—All contracts for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment and sustenance for the prison system shall be upon competitive bids, except as hereinafter provided. Where the amount to be expended is in excess of the sum of $2,000.00 the purchase shall be made upon sealed competitive bids received by the manager after ten days advertisement in some paper or papers of general circulation in this State. Where the amount of the purchase is less than $2,000.00 the manager shall, before letting any contract for such purchase, ask and receive not less than three sealed competitive bids for such contract. In cases of emergency where the contemplated expenditure does not exceed $500.00, the purchase may be made without for competitive bids. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 15.]

Art. 6166o. Sale of prison products.—The Board shall have power to authorize the manager to sell and dispose of all products of all farms and industries connected with the prison system and all personal and moveable property, at such prices and on such terms and render such rules as it may deem best and adopt; and it may lease any real estate for agricultural or grazing purposes or lease other fixed property and appurtenances belonging thereto upon such terms as it may deem advantageous to the interests of the prison system. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 16.]

Art. 6166p. Bonds of manager and others.—The Texas Prison Board shall require the manager to execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of $50,000.00, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and the accurate accounting for all moneys and property coming into his hands; and it may require of other officers, employees and agents of the prison system a good and sufficient bond in such sum as it may determine upon, payable to the State of Texas upon like condition. Such bonds shall be approved by the Texas Prison Board and filed with the Comptroller, and shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business under the laws of this State, and the premium on any such bond shall be paid by the State out of the support and maintenance fund of the prison system. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 17.]

Art. 6166q. Auditor appointed and duties.—On the taking effect of this Act and biennially thereafter, there shall be appointed by the Attorney General, Treasurer and Comptroller, a permanent auditor for the prison system, who shall hold his office for a term of two years, subject to discharge at any time as herein provided. It shall be the duty of such auditor to audit all accounts, vouchers, payrolls and all other business transactions of the prison system, and to check all property, material and supplies received and disposed of by or within the prison system, and he shall make full report to the Governor on the first day of each month. Such auditor shall be subject to discharge at any time by the appointing board, consisting of the Attorney General, Treasurer and Comptroller, for incompetency, neglect, failure or refusal to discharge the duties of his office, or for any wrongful conduct that in the judgment of such appointing board renders him unfit for such service. During the term of his service, such auditor shall be paid a salary not to exceed Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars per month, and all actual and necessary traveling expenses, to be paid at the end of each month out of funds appropriated for the maintenance and support of the prison system. Such auditor shall have free access to all books and records of whatsoever nature belonging to the prison system; and he shall give bond in the sum of $10,000.00, to be payable, conditioned, executed and approved in like manner as the bond of the manager herein provided for. It shall be the duty of such auditor to audit all vouchers and accounts for payment out of appropriations made for the support of the prison system. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 18.]

Art. 6166r. Transportation of prisoners.—The manager shall make suitable provision and regulations for the safe and speedy transportation of prisoners from counties where sentenced to the State penitentiary by the sheriffs of such respective counties if such sheriffs are willing to perform such services as cheaply as said commission can have it done otherwise. Said transportation shall be on State account and in no instance shall the prisoners be carried direct from the county jails to the State farm, but shall first be carried to the receiving station as designated by the Prison Board where the character of labor which each prisoner may reasonably perform shall be determined. Upon the arrival of each prisoner at such receiving station, the manager shall cause a statement to be made by the prisoner, giving a brief history of his life, and showing where he has resided, the names and post-office addresses of his immediate relatives, and such other facts as will tend to show his past habits and character; and the manager shall, by correspondence, or otherwise verify or disprove such statements, if practicable, and shall preserve the record and information so obtained for future reference. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 19.]

Art. 6166s. Manager and members of board to administer oaths.—The manager and each member of the Prison Board, in the discharge of their duties, are authorized to administer oaths, to summon and examine witnesses, and take such other steps as may be necessary to ascertain the truth of any matter about which they may have the right to inquire. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 20.]

Art. 6166t. Food for prisoners.—The manager shall see that all State prisoners are fed good and wholesome food, properly prepared under wholesome, sanitary conditions, and in sufficient quantity, and reasonable variety, and he shall hold under officers performing this work strictly to account for any failure to carry out his [this] provision. That the food may be properly prepared, he shall provide for the training of prisoners as cooks. Prisoners shall not be allowed spirituous, vinous nor malt liquors, except from the prescription of a physician. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 21.]

Art. 6166u. Separation of female prisoners.—All female prisoners shall be kept separate and apart from the male prisoners. Where practicable, the manager shall keep the female prisoners upon a separate farm, or at a separate prison from the male prisoners, and shall provide reasonable rules and regulations for the government of same. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 22.]

Art. 6166v. Commutation for good conduct.—In order to encourage prison discipline, a distinction may be made in the treatment of prisoners so as to extend to all such as are orderly, industrious and obedient, comforts and privileges according to their deserts. The reward to be bestowed on prisoners for good conduct shall consist of such relaxation of strict prison rules and extension of social privileges as may be consistent with proper discipline, commutation of time for good conduct shall be granted by the manager, and the following deduction shall be made from the term or terms of sentences when no charge[s] of misconduct has been sustained against a prisoner, viz.: Two days per month off of the first year's sentence; three days per month off of the second year of sentence; four days per month off of the third year of sentence; five days per month off of the fourth year of sentence; six days per month off of the fifth year of sentence; seven days per month off of the sixth year of sentence; eight days per month off of the seventh year of sentence; nine days per month off of the eighth year of sentence; ten days per month off of the ninth year of sentence; fifteen days per month off of the tenth year, and all succeeding years of sentence. A prisoner under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence. For each sustained charge of misconduct in violation of any rule known to the prisoner in any year of the term each commutation allowed for one month of such year may be forfeited, for any sustained charge of escape or attempt to escape, mutinous conduct or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of the prisoner up to that day shall be forfeited unless in case of escape, the prisoner voluntarily returns without expense to the State, such forfeiture may be set aside by the manager. For extra meritorious conduct on the part of any prisoner, he shall be recommended to the favorable consideration of the Governor for increased commutation or pardon, and in case of any prisoner who shall have escaped and been captured, part or all of his good time thereby forfeited may be restored by the manager, if in his judgment his subsequent conduct entitles him thereto. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 23.]

Art. 6166w. Clothing.—Suitable clothing of substantial material, uniform make and reasonable fit, and such footwear as will be substantial and comfortable, shall be furnished the prisoners, and no prisoner shall be allowed to wear other clothing than that furnished by the prison authorities, except in case of extra meritorious conduct only. The manager may allow the prisoners to wear citizens underwear. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 24.]

Art. 6166x. Labor of prisoners.—Prisoners shall be kept at work under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the manager with the Board's approval; provided, that no prisoner shall be required to work more than ten hours per day, except in case of extreme and unavoidable emergency, which time shall include the time spent in going to and returning from their work, but not to include the intermission for dinner, which shall not be less than one hour. And in cases of such extreme and unavoidable emergency said prisoners shall receive a deduction of time equal to double the hours so worked from the term or terms of sentence. In going to and returning from work, prisoners shall not be required to travel faster than a walk. No greater amount of labor shall be required of any prisoner than his physical health and strength will reasonably permit, nor shall any prisoner be placed at such labor as the prison physician may pronounce him unable to perform. No prisoner upon his admission to the prison shall be assigned to any labor until first having been examined by the prison physician. Any officer or employee violating any provision of this Section shall be dismissed from the service. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 25.]

Art. 6166y. Prisoners' money.—Prisoners when received into the penitentiary shall be carefully searched. If money be found on the person of the prisoner, or received by him at any time, it shall be taken in charge by the manager, and placed to the prisoner's credit, and expended for the prisoner's benefit on his written order, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law or the rules. Any officer or employee having charge of the prisoner's money who misappropriates the same, or any part thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term of not more than five years. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 26.]

Art. 6166z. Reports of death.—The manager or other person in charge of prisoners, upon the death of any prisoner under their care and control, shall at once notify the nearest justice of the peace of the county in which said prisoner died, of the death of said prisoner, and it shall be the duty of said justice of the peace, when so notified of the death of such prisoner, to go in person, and make a personal examination of the body of such prisoner, and inquire into the cause of the death of such prisoner, and said justice of the peace shall reduce to writing the evidence taken during such inquest, and shall furnish a copy of the same to the manager, and a copy of the same to the district judge of the county in which said prisoner died, and the copy so furnished to said district judge shall be turned over by the district judge to the succeeding grand jury, and the said judge shall charge the grand jury, if there should be any suspicion of wrongdoing shown by the inquest papers, to thoroughly investigate the cause of such death. Any officer or employee of the prison system having charge of any prisoner at the time of the death of such prisoner, who shall fail to immediately notify a justice of the peace of the death of such prisoner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, and by confinement in the county jail, not less than sixty days, nor more than one year, provided, that the justice of the peace making such examination shall be paid a fee as is now provided by law for holding inquests, said fee to be on sworn account therefor, and approved by the manager. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 27.]

Art. 6166z1. Discharge.—When a prisoner is entitled to a discharge from the prison, he or she shall be furnished with a written or printed discharge from the manager, with seal affixed, signed by the manager, giving prisoner's name, date of sentence, from what county sentenced, amount of commutation received, if any, the trade he has learned, if any, his proficiency in same, and such other description as may be practicable. Such discharged person shall be furnished with a decent outfit of citizen's clothing of good quality and fit, two suits of underwear, fifty dollars in money in addition to any money held to his or her credit, provided that if the actual time served exceed ten years, the sum of money shall be seventy-five dollars, and if the actual time served exceed twenty years, the sum of money shall be one hundred dollars. As far as may be practicable the Prison Board may authorize the creation of a bureau for the purpose of placing discharged prisoners in connection with employment, provided such will not be an extra expense to the prison system. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 28.]

Art. 6166z2. Visitors admitted.—The Governor, and all other members of the Executive and Judicial Departments of the State and members of the Legislature shall be admitted into the prisons, camps and other places where prisoners are kept or worked, at all proper hours, for the purpose of observing the conduct thereof, and may hold conversation with the convicts apart from all prison officers. Other persons may visit the penitentiary under such rules and regulations as may be established. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 29.]

Art. 6166z3. Rewards on escape.—The manager, with the Board's approval, may offer such reward for the apprehension of an escaped prisoner, as may be fixed by the manager and to be paid as directed by the manager. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 30.]

Art. 6166z4. Guards and other officers.—Any sergeant, guard or other officer or employee of the prison system of this State, who shall inflict any punishment upon a prisoner not authorized by the rules of the prison system, shall be guilty of an assault, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as prescribed by law, and it shall be the duty of the manager to make complaint before the proper officer of any county in which such assault was committed upon such prisoner. Provided, that in all cases where any person is charged by complaint or indictment with an offense against a prisoner, prisoners and ex-prisoners shall be permitted to testify. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 31.]

Art. 6166z5. Gambling forbidden.—No gambling shall be permitted at any prison, farm or camp where prisoners are kept or worked. Any officer or employee engaging in or knowingly permitting gambling at any such prison, farm or camp shall be immediately dismissed from the service. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 32.]

Art. 6166z6. Seal of board.—The prison Board shall provide a seal whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points and the words, "Prison Board of Texas," around the margin, which seal shall be used to attest all official acts. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 33.]

Art. 6166z7. Board of prison commissioners abolished.—If any section or provision of this Act [Arts. 6166a-6166z7] shall contravene the terms of the Constitution of this State, or be otherwise held invalid for any reason, the same shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Act. The Board of Prison Commissioners is abolished and all power, authority, duties and functions of the Board of Prison Commissioners of this State under other laws of this State and not repealed by this Act and not in conflict herewith, shall hereafter vest in and be performed by the Texas Prison Board created by this Act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 34.]

Art. 6166z8. Sale of prison made goods.—Sec. 1. No sale of prison made goods in intra state commerce in this State shall ever be valid, and no action shall be brought in this State to enforce the collection or payment of any money or other thing of value pursuant to any such sale, unless at the time of such sale there is attached to the container or package thereof and upon each and every individual garment or article of such goods so sold, a plain and distinct label printed in the English language, containing the printed words "PRISON MADE MERCHANDISE," which printed words shall be printed in type not less than one-fourth of an inch in height and shall be plainly legible.

Sec. 2. The words "PRISON MADE GOODS" as used in this Act mean any goods, wares, merchandise or articles manufactured, produced or made, in whole or in part, in any penitentiary or reformatory or penal institution or by any convicts or prisoners or persons serving sentences in a reformatory or penal institution of any kind. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 370, ch. 251.]

2. REGULATIONS AND DISCIPLINE

Arts. 6181-6202. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 298, ch. 212, § 1.]

Art. 6203. [6086-7-8] Board of Pardons.—The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint two qualified voters of this State, to be known as the Board of Pardon Advisers, who shall perform such duties as he may direct, and as herein provided, consistent with the Constitution, in disposing of the applications for pardon. When an application for pardon is referred to it by the Governor, the secretary or clerk of said Board shall immediately, by registered mail, notify the prosecuting officer, or officers, and the sheriff of the County in which the applicant was convicted, or in which the alleged crime was committed, or both, of the filing of such application, and that they, or either of them, or any interested party, may, within thirty days from the receipt of such notice, present in person or in writing to said Board their objection to the granting of such pardon. Said Board shall be given a room in the Capitol, properly furnished with necessary furniture and file cases, and provided with such stationary [stationery] and other appliances as may be necessary for the speedy and proper dispatch of the business for which it is organized. It shall make a thorough examination of each application that the Governor may refer to it and report in writing its recommendation thereon to him. Said Board shall spend such time each year as may be necessary in personally looking into the conditions of such convicts as it may desire, or as may be designated by the Governor, giving special attention to the cases of those of long service who may be so designated and who have no means for getting a proper petition before the Governor, to the end that the Board may have before it such data as will enable it to judge the condition of such convict and correctly to inform the Governor in reference thereto. All applications for pardon shall be taken up, considered and acted upon by said Board in the regular order of reference by the Governor, except when it appears to the members of said Board that there is extraordinary emergency in any case, in which event, the same may, with the consent of the Governor, be considered out of the regular order or [of] its reference. Said Board shall keep a record in which shall be entered every case sent it by the Governor, giving the docket number of the convict, his name, age, when and where convicted, his offense, his sentence, when received from the Governor, when notice of the application was given, the action taken by the Board on the application, and the date of said action. [Acts 1905, p. 68; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 25; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 217, ch. 147, § 1.]

1. STATE AND COUNTY PENSIONS

Article 6204. [6267] Tax.—There shall be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time that other taxes are levied and collected for the year 1925, and annually thereafter, an ad valorem tax of seven cents on the one hundred dollars valuation thereof on all property owned in the State on the first day of January of the year 1925, and of every year thereafter and on all property sent out of the State prior to the first day of January of any of said years, for the purpose of evading the payment of taxes thereon, and afterwards returned to the State, except so much thereof as may be exempted by the Constitution and laws of this State or of the United States which valuation shall be made in the manner prescribed by law for the assessment, levy and collection of other State and county taxes, which said tax so levied and collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the State of Texas, in the same manner as other State taxes, and shall constitute a special fund for the payment of pensions provided for in Section 51 of Article 3 of the State Constitution, in the manner and under the rules and regulations prescribed herein and prescribed in existing law not repealed hereby and as may be hereafter prescribed by law. Which said fund is hereby expressly appropriated by the Legislature of the State of Texas for the purpose herein stated. This Act shall not affect or release the liability of any person for taxes, penalties, interest or costs accruing under prior laws or the right to collect or enforce collection thereof by suit or otherwise. [Acts 1925, p. 222.] [39th Leg., ch. 69, § 1.]

Art. 6205. [6267a] To whom granted.—Out of the fund to be created under the provisions of Article 6207 as amended there shall be paid an annual pension of twenty-five dollars per month, the same to be paid quarterly on the first day of September, December, March, and June of each year to every indigent or disabled Confederate soldier or sailor who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1910, and to their widows, in indigent circumstances and who have been bona fide residents of this State since January 1, 1910, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors prior to January 1, 1910, and to indigent and disabled soldiers who under the Special Laws of the State of Texas during the war between the states served in organizations for the protection of the frontier against Indian raiders or Mexican marauders and to indigent or disabled soldiers of the militia of the State of Texas who were in active service during the war between the states and to the widows of such soldiers who are in indigent circumstances and who were married to such soldiers prior to January 1, 1910, provided that the word "widow" as used in this article shall not apply to women born since the year 1861, and all soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors eligible under the above conditions shall be entitled to be placed upon the pension rolls and participate in the distribution of the pension fund of this State under any existing law or laws hereafter passed by the Legislature; and the fact of remarriage since the death of the soldier or sailor shall not bar his surviving widow from receiving a pension hereunder if she be now a widow and in indigent circumstances, if she shall have been the wife of such soldier or sailor at the time of his death and left by him as his widow; and provided that in the event such fund provided for in Article 6204 shall prove insufficient to pay in full said pension there shall not thereby be created a deficiency outstanding as a valid claim against the State of Texas, and each pensioner shall receive, except as herein or in other law or laws otherwise provided for, his or her pro rata according to the amount of such fund collected for the year. [Id. p. 222.]

Articles 6206 and 6207 embraced in previous articles.

Art. 6208. [6268] Application requirements.—Persons entitled to a pension under this title shall make application for same in writing and under oath to the county judge of his or her county. Such application shall state the name, age, residence of the applicant, and occupation, if any, his or her physical condition, and every fact necessary to entitle the applicant to the pension. If the applicant is such a soldier or sailor as is prescribed herein, he shall state in his application the company and regiment in which he was enlisted; if he served in an organization for the protection of the frontier against Indian raids or Mexican marauders, he shall name and identify such organization; if he were an officer commissioned by the President of the Confederate States or by the Governor, or other proper authority of this State, in the army, navy, militia or frontier organization, he shall state the date of his commission and his rank therein; and if detailed directly under the provisions of the conscript law for duty in the armories or shops of the Confederate Government or for any other labor necessary for the maintenance of the army in the field, or if he served in the Confederate Navy, he shall state the time of service in each case. Each applicant shall state in his application what property and income he possesses, and furnish the testimony of at least two credible witnesses who personally know that he enlisted in the service and performed the duties as claimed by him. If he cannot secure the testimony of two witnesses, he may furnish documents or other evidence of his service. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, p. 413.]

Art. 6209. [6268] Proof, how made.—Proof shall be made under oath and in writing before the county judge of the county where the applicant resides. Should the applicant or witnesses, because of circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, be unable to appear before the county judge, then such proof may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths. When the proof is made before any other officer, the county judge shall certify that the applicant and witnesses are of trustworthy character and entitled to credit and that the officer before whom the proof is made is duly qualified and authorized by law to administer oaths and take affidavits; he shall also certify to the citizenship of the applicant, and that the applicant has been a bona fide resident of the county for a period of six months next before the date of said application. The officer taking the proof shall administer the oath to each applicant and witness before they sign the affidavit. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6210. [6268] Out of county.—If it is necessary for the applicant to go outside of the county and State for proof to establish his application, such proof may be submitted in the form of affidavits and accompanied by certificates from the county judge of the county where made, that the witnesses are of trustworthy character and entitled to credit. [Id.]

Art. 6211. [6268-69] Widow's application.—No widow shall be entitled to a pension should her husband, if living, be for any reason debarred. If the applicant is the widow of a soldier or sailor, who, if living would be entitled to a pension, she shall make oath that she is in fact the widow of such soldier or sailor and, as near as possible, state the facts showing her to be entitled to receive a pension under the provisions of this title in the same manner as required of a soldier or sailor. In case such widow cannot make such proof, she may comply with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 6212. [6270] Proof by affidavit.—The widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, entitled to a pension may make affidavit to the county judge:

1. That she is in fact the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor.
2. That her said husband rendered valuable service to the Confederacy, as such, that he did not desert, and was either killed or died, or was honorably discharged from the army.
3. That she has made diligent search for information as to the number of regiment and company in which her deceased husband served, and has been unable to secure the same.

The affidavit shall be filed with the county clerk, and the county judge may take such other evidence as he may deem necessary; and, if in his judgment he finds that she is the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, that all witnesses to the said fact are dead, or their whereabouts unknown to said widow and are unascertainable, he may upon his own motion, recommend to the Comptroller the grant of a pension to such widow; and, if he is satisfied that she is entitled to a pension under the provisions of this title he may grant it. [Id.]

Art. 6213. [6271] Soldier must have served honorably.—Every Confederate soldier applying for a pension under this title shall have served honorably from the date of his enlistment until the close of the war, or until he was discharged or paroled in some military organization regularly mustered into the army or navy of the Confederate States until the surrender. The county judge shall reduce the evidence of witnesses examined by him to writing at the expense of the applicant at the rate of five cents per hundred words. The applicant may have such evidence written by his attorney, or such person as may be employed to secure the pension; and the county judge shall certify to the written statement of the evidence when taken before him. The application, affidavit and certified statement of the evidence shall be forwarded to the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 6214. [6272] What constitutes indigency.—To constitute indigency within the meaning of this Title, neither the applicant nor his wife, if married, nor both together, nor the widow, if the applicant be a widow, shall own property, real or personal, exceeding in value One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, exclusive of homestead, and if its assessed value be not in excess of Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars and exclusive of household goods and wearing apparel; and such applicant shall not have an income, annuity, or emoluments of office or wages for services in excess of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars per year, nor the aid of a pension from another state of the United States. Only the indigent, under the foregoing definition, shall be entitled to a pension under this title. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, p. 412; Acts 1923, p. 202; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 146, ch. 95, § 1.]

Art. 6215. [6273] Payments; affidavit; warrant.—The payment of such pension shall begin on the first day of March and September of each year, payable at the end of each quarter and on and after the first of each quarter. The pensioner shall make affidavit, or, in case of old age, infirmities, or physical disabilities, preventing him or her from appearing before some one authorized to administer oaths, make statement in writing as to his or her claim or rights, in the presence of two credible witnesses who are in no wise related to the applicant, stating the county of his or her residence, postoffice address, and that he or she is the identical person to whom a pension has been granted under this law, and that the conditions which existed at the time of making his or her application and on which the pension was originally granted, still exist, which affidavit shall be supported by the affidavit of some other credible person to the same fact, and shall be filed with the Comptroller who shall draw his warrant to the amount of such pension on the Treasurer, to be paid out of money in the Treasury appropriated to this purpose. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1915, p. 158.]

Art. 6216. Proof in case of disability.—If the pensioner, on account of old age, infirmity, or physical disability, shall make a statement in writing in the presence of two credible witnesses, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be sufficient for one of such witnesses, in whose presence the statement was made, to make affidavit stating that said statement was made and signed in his or her presence and that the statements contained therein are within the knowledge of affiant, true and correct, and when such affidavit has been made by such proven person and approved by the Comptroller, he shall draw his warrant for the amount of such pension in the same manner as if the oath had been made by the pensioner. [Id.]

Art. 6217. [6274] Pensions denied to whom.—No application shall be allowed, nor shall any aid be given or pension paid, to any soldier or sailor, or the widow of any soldier or sailor under the provisions of this title, where any such soldier or sailor deserted his command or voluntarily abandoned his post of duty, or the said service during the said war, nor shall any application be allowed, nor any aid given, nor any pension paid, to any widow of a soldier or sailor who has been divorced from such soldier or sailor, nor to any widow who voluntarily without cause abandoned such soldier or sailor, being her husband, and continued to live separately from him up to the time of his death, nor to a soldier or sailor who served as a substitute for another, nor to the widow of a substitute. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6218. [6276] Fees limited.—No person shall receive a greater fee than five dollars to secure a pension for another, and any contract for a larger sum shall be unlawful. [Id.]

Art. 6219. [6277] Fees of county judge.—A county judge shall be allowed a fee of two dollars for hearing an application and taking proof therein, said fee to be paid by the applicant, and before hearing of application is had thereon; and all fees received by such county judge shall be reported as other fees of office and be otherwise controlled by the law regulating the fee of county judges. Said fee of two dollars shall be the only fee allowed to the county judge for all the work performed by him in securing a pension. [Id.]

Art. 6220. [6278] Persons not entitled to.—No person shall, while confined in any asylum of this State, at the expense of the State, or while confined in the State penitentiary, receive a pension, and any person having been granted a pension who shall afterwards be confined in an asylum of this State, at the expense of the State, or who shall be confined in the State penitentiary shall, while an inmate of such asylum or penitentiary, forfeit his pension, and no pensioner who leaves this State for a period of over six months shall draw a pension while so absent; provided, that any person who has been granted a pension under this law, and who is thereafter admitted as an inmate of the Confederate Home or is thereafter admitted as an inmate of the Confederate Women's [Woman's] Home of this State, shall thereafter be entitled to receive pension payments of the amount of one-half of the pension that such person would be entitled to receive if not an inmate of such Home. [Acts 1921, p. 144.]

Art. 6221. [6279] Appropriation, how allotted.—On the first day of September and on the first day of March of each year, the Comptroller shall first allot to each blind, maimed, and totally disabled soldier or sailor or the blind and totally disabled widow of a soldier or sailor the sum of eight and one-third dollars per month for each year, and the remainder of said appropriation shall be equally prorated among the pensioners who are in indigent circumstances only, and whose claim to pensions have been established and filed; and the Comptroller shall issue his warrants for the amounts due said pensioners in the manner provided by law at the end of each quarter. All such pensions shall begin on the first day of the quarter next succeeding the filing and establishment of such application. After the apportionment is made, the Comptroller may fill any vacancies created by death or other causes, at any time between the first day of March and the first day of September each year. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, pp. 387-411.]

Art. 6222. [6280] Perpetuation of evidence.—Any Confederate veteran, soldier, or sailor, who may be entitled to a pension under the pension laws of Texas, who may be desirous of establishing such right by the evidence of any person who may be cognizant of such facts as would prove and establish such right, may cause such person to go before the county judge, or any notary public of the county of his residence of such person, and make affidavit to such fact. [Acts 1909, p. 215.]

Art. 6223. [6281] Statement filed.—Such affidavit shall be filed with the Secretary of State, and by him recorded in a book to be kept for such purpose, a properly certified copy of which shall be admitted and used in evidence at any future time, to prove and establish the right of the soldier or sailor in whose behalf, or at whose instance, the same may have been made to such pensioner as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6224. [6282] Widow may establish identity.—The widow of any soldier or sailor who may be entitled to a pension as such, under the laws of this State, shall be entitled to establish her identity and right to such pension in the same way and manner as herein provided for soldiers and sailors. [Id.]

Art. 6225. [6283] Examination of record.—The Comptroller shall examine and pass on all pension claims, keep a correct record of all approved claims, with the name, disability, service, residence and amount paid, and furnish the county judge with suitable blanks for use of claimants. He shall make a written report to the Governor on the first day of September of each year, showing the number of pensioners, the number of claims allowed for the past year, and the amounts paid, together with such other information as the Governor may ask. All records, books, claims or other matters pertaining to pensions shall be kept open to inspection and under the charge and direction of the Governor, and all rulings made by the Comptroller shall be subject to revision and change by the Governor. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6226. [6284] Shall strike from roll.—When it comes to the knowledge of the Comptroller that any person has been granted a pension through fraud or perjury, or that any one on the pension roll has acquired property or annuity, emolument or favor of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased pensioner had such conditions existed at the date of said application, he shall strike the name of such person from the pension roll. [Id.]

Art. 6227. Mortuary warrant.—Whenever any pensioner who has been regularly placed upon the pension rolls under the provisions of law relating thereto, shall die and proof thereof shall be made to the Comptroller within forty days from the date of such death, by the affidavit of the doctor who attended the pensioner during the last illness, or the undertaker who conducted the funeral, or made arrangements therefor, the Comptroller shall issue a mortuary warrant for an amount not exceeding sixty-five dollars, payable out of the pension fund, in favor of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased pensioner, or in favor of the person or persons owning the accounts (proof of the existence and justice of such accounts to be made to said Comptroller under oath and in such form as he may require) for the purpose of paying the funeral expenses of the deceased pensioner. In such cases where a warrant for the pension for the quarter during which the pensioner died has been issued, the same shall be returned to the Comptroller, who shall mark the same "canceled" and file it before the mortuary warrant herein provided for shall issue. Where such warrant for the pension has not been issued, the same shall not be issued, but the mortuary warrant herein provided for shall take the place thereof. [Acts 1923, p. 26.]

Art. 6228. Mothers' pension.—Any widow who has been a bona fide resident of this State for five years, and who is the mother of a child or children under the age of sixteen years, and who is unable to support them and to maintain her home, may present a sworn petition for assistance to the commissioners court of the county wherein she has resided for the preceding two years. Such petition shall show:

1. Her name, the date of the death of her husband, the names of her children, their sex, the dates and places of their birth and the time and place of her marriage.

2. Her residence and the length of time that she has been a resident of this State, the length of time she has lived at said residence and the address of her place of abode for the previous five years, and the date as near as possible, when she moved in and when she left said place of residence.

3. All the property belonging to her and to each of her children, including any future or contingent interest which she or any of them may have.

4. The efforts made by her to support her children.

5. The name, relationship and addresses of all her husband's relatives that may be known.

A copy of said petition and a notice of the time and place it will be presented to said court must be served on or mailed to the county judge of said county at least five days before the time the court shall be requested in said petition to meet and consider the same. When service is complete, said court shall examine under oath all who desire to be heard, and may, in its discretion, issue subpoenas for witnesses; or the court may refer said matter to a commissioner to be appointed by it to hear said witnesses. Said commissioner shall make a report to the court setting forth the facts as proven before him. If the court concludes that unless relief is granted the mother will be unable to properly support and educate her children and that they may become a public charge, it may make an order directing a payment to her, monthly, out of the county funds for the support of said children, twelve dollars for one such child; eighteen dollars for two children; and four dollars additional for each other child. Said allowance shall be discontinued as to any said child who reaches the age of sixteen. Said court shall have the right to refuse any application for allowance under this article, and its action in so doing shall be final. Said court shall see that any widow receiving any such allowance is properly caring for her children, and that they are sufficiently clothed and fed. When it is found that she is not properly caring for her children or that she is an improper guardian for such children, or when the court shall find that she no longer needs such relief, it shall thereupon revoke at any time with or without notice, any order made pursuant to this article. [Acts 1917, p. 313.]

2. CITY PENSIONS

Art. 6229. Board of trustees.—In all incorporated cities and towns having a population of over ten thousand according to the preceding Federal census, having a fully or partially paid fire department or police department, the mayor, two aldermen or commissioners, two citizens of said city or town to be designated by the mayor, the chief of police, the chief of the fire department and their successors, shall constitute a board of trustees of the Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operator's Pension Fund, to provide for the disbursement of the same and to designate the beneficiaries thereof. The board shall be known as the Board of Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operator's Pension Fund, Trustees of, Texas. The board shall hold its office until the next general election in such city for municipal officers. Said board shall organize by choosing one member as chairman and by appointing a secretary. Such board shall have charge of and administer said fund and shall order payments therefrom in pursuance of the provisions of this law. It shall report annually to the governing body of such city or town the condition of the said fund and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same with a complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund and the amounts paid them. [Acts 1919, p. 10.]

Art. 6230. Membership in.—Each fully paid fireman, policeman and fire alarm operator and other persons herein designated as members of either of said departments, in the employment of such city or town, who desires himself or his beneficiaries, to participate in said fund, shall file a written statement with the city clerk of his desire to participate in said fund, and authorize said city or town to deduct one per cent of his wages each month to form a part of the fund known as the Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operators' Pension Fund. [Id.]

Art. 6231. Payments to fund.—There shall be deducted for such fund from the wages of each fireman, policeman and fire alarm operator, and other persons herein designated as members of either of said departments, one per cent of the wages earned by such employes when they have filed application therefor. Any donations made to such fund and rewards received by any member of either of said departments, and all funds received from any source for such fund shall be deposited in like manner to the credit of such fund. [Id.]

Art. 6232. Conduct of meetings.—The board shall hold regular monthly meetings and other meetings upon call of its chairman. It shall issue orders signed by the president or chairman and secretary to the persons entitled thereto, of the amount of money ordered paid to such persons from such fund by said board which order shall state for what purpose such payment is to be made; it shall keep a record of its proceedings, which record shall be a public record; it shall at each monthly meeting send to the city treasurer a written list of persons entitled to payment from the fund, stating the amount of such payment, and for what granted, which list shall be certified to and signed by the president or chairman and secretary of such board, attested under oath. The treasurer shall enter a copy of said list upon the book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be known as the Record Fireman, Policeman and firm [Fire] Alarm Operator's Pension Fund Board of, Texas, and the said board shall direct payment of the amounts named therein to the persons entitled thereto out of said fund. No money of said fund shall be disbursed for any purpose without a vote of a majority of the board, which shall be a no and yes vote entered upon the proceedings of the board. [Id.]

Art. 6233. Custody of fund.—The treasurer of said city or town shall be ex-officio treasurer of said fund. All money for said fund shall be paid over to and received by the treasurer for the use of said fund, and the duties thus imposed upon such treasurer shall be additional duties for which he shall be liable under his oath and bond as such city or town treasurer, but he shall receive no compensation therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6234. Who may share in fund.—Any person who at the establishment of said fund, or thereafter shall have been duly appointed and enrolled in the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any such city or town, to which application is made for participation in said fund by such person and who has filed his written application within thirty days after the organization of such board, or who shall file his application within thirty days after becoming a member of either of such departments and who shall have allowed said deductions from his salary, as well as the beneficiaries hereinafter named, shall be entitled to participate in said fund. [Id.]

Art. 6235. Retirement pensions.—Whenever any member of said departments who shall have contributed a portion of his salary, as provided herein, shall have served twenty years or more in either of said departments, he may be entitled to be retired from said service upon application, and shall, if the board approves, be entitled to be paid from such funds a monthly pension of one-half of the salary received by him at the time of his retirement. [Id.]

Art. 6236. Disability pensions.—Whenever any member of the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any such city or town, and who is a contributor to said fund as provided, shall become so permanently disabled through injury received, or disease contracted, in the line of duty, as to incapacitate him for the performance of duty, or shall for any cause, through no fault of his own, become so permanently disabled as to incapacitate him for the performance of duty, and shall make written application therefor approved by a majority of the board, he shall be retired from service and be entitled to receive from said fund one-half of the monthly wages received by him as a member of either of said departments, at the time he became so disabled, to be paid in regular monthly installments. [Id.]

Art. 6237. Death benefits, widow, etc.—In case of the death before or after retirement of any member of the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any city or town, resulting from disease contracted, or injury received while in the line of duty, or from any other cause through no fault of his own, and who at the time of his death or retirement was a contributor to said fund, leaving a widow or child or children under sixteen years of age.

the widow shall be entitled to receive from said fund an amount not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly wages received by such member immediately preceding his death, and the children of said deceased under sixteen years of age shall receive in the aggregate one-fourth of such monthly wages to be equally divided between them. When any child shall reach sixteen years of age, then such child shall no longer participate in the division of said wages of said deceased, but the same shall be paid to his remaining children, if any, under sixteen years of age, in equal parts, until they respectively become sixteen years of age. In no case shall the amount paid to any one family exceed the amount of one-half the wages earned by the deceased immediately prior to the time of his death. Upon the remarriage of any widow or the marriage of any child granted such pension, such pension shall cease. No widow or child of any such member resulting from any marriage contract subsequent to the date of retirement of said member, shall be entitled to a pension under this law. [Id.]

Art. 6238. Death benefits, father, etc.—If any member of the fire department, police department, or fire alarm operator's department dies from injuries received or disease contracted while in the line of duty, or from any cause through no fault of his own, who was a contributor to said fund and entitled to participate in said fund himself, leaves no wife or child, but who shall leave surviving him a dependent father, mother, brother or sister, wholly dependent upon said person for support, such dependent father, mother, sister and brother shall be entitled to receive in the aggregate one-half of the wages earned by said deceased immediately prior to his death, to be equally divided between those who are wholly dependent on said deceased, so long as they are wholly dependent. The board shall have authority to determine the facts as to the dependency of said parties and each of them, and as to how long the same exists, and may at any time upon the request of any contributor to such fund, reopen any award made to any of said parties and discontinue such pension as to all or any of them as it may deem proper, and the findings of said board in regard to such matter and as to all pensions granted under this law shall be final upon all parties seeking a pension as a dependent of said deceased, or otherwise, until such award of the trustees shall have been set aside or revoked. [Id.]

Art. 6239. Investigations.—The board shall consider all cases for the retirement and pension of the members of the fire, police and fire alarm operator's department rendered necessary or expedient under the provisions of this law, and all applications for pensions by widows and children and of dependent relatives, and the said trustees shall give written notice to persons asking a pension to appear before said board and offer such sworn evidence as he or they may desire. Any person who is a member of either of said departments and who is a contributor to said fund may appear either in person or by attorney and contest the application for participation in said fund by any person claiming to be entitled to participate therein, and may offer testimony in support of such contest. The president or chairman of said board shall have authority to issue process for witnesses and administer oaths to said witnesses and to examine any witness as to any matter affecting retirement or a pension under the provisions of this law. Such process for witness shall be served by any member of the police, fire and fire alarm operator's department and upon the failure of any witness to attend and testify, he or she may be compelled to attend and testify, as in any judicial proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 6240. Medical examination.—Said board may cause any person receiving any pension under the provisions of this law, who has served less than twenty years, to appear and undergo a medical examination, as a result of which the board shall determine whether the relief in said case shall be continued, increased, decreased or discontinued. If any person receiving relief under the provisions of this law, after due notice, fails to appear and undergo such examination, the board may reduce or entirely discontinue such relief. [Id.]

Art. 6241. Who are members.—All fire, police and fire alarm operators and superintendents in the employ of any such city or town, who have filed their application for participation in said fund, and have contributed a portion of their salary, as provided for other members of such departments, are hereby declared to be members of the fire, police, and fire alarm operator's department of such city or town, and they and their beneficiaries shall have the same rights and privileges as are herein granted to other members of such departments of such cities. [Id.]

Art. 6242. Use of public funds.—No funds shall be paid out of the public treasury of any such incorporated city or town, in carrying out any of the provisions of this law, except on a majority vote of the voters of such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 6243. Awards exempt.—No amount awarded to any person under the provisions of this law shall be liable for the debts of any such person; shall not be assignable and shall be exempt from garnishment or other legal process. [Id.]

PRINCIPAL AND SURETY

Art.

- 6244. May require suit brought.
- 6245. Discharged by failure to sue.
- 6246. May have question of suretyship tried.
- 6247. Levy first on property of principal.
- 6248. Rights of surety.
- 6249. Execution against a co-surety.
- 6250. Officer has same rights as surety.
- 6251. Surety not to be sued alone.
- 6252. Who is surety.

Article 6244. [6329] [3811] May require suit brought.—Any person bound as surety upon any contract for the payment of money or the performance of any act, when the right of action has accrued, may require by written notice, the creditor or obligee forthwith to institute suit upon such contract. [Acts 1858, p. 112; P. D. 4783; G. L. vol. 4, p. 984.]

Art. 6245. [6330] [3812] Discharged by failure to sue.—If the creditor or obligee, not being under legal disability, shall fail to bring his suit to the first term of the court thereafter, or to the second term showing good cause for the delay and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety giving such notice shall be discharged from all liability thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6246. [6331] [3813] May have question of suretyship tried.—When any suit is brought against two or more defendants upon any contract, any one or more of the defendants being surety for the other, the surety may cause the question of suretyship to be tried and determined upon the issue made for the parties defendant at the trial of the cause, or at any time before or after the trial or at a subsequent term. Such proceedings shall not delay the suit of the plaintiff. [Id.]

Art. 6247. [6332] [3814] Levy first on property of principal.—If the finding of such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff before he levies on the property of the surety to first levy the execution upon the property of the principal situate in the county in which the judgment was rendered, if so much property of the principal can be found as will in the opinion of the sheriff be sufficient to make the amount of the execution; otherwise the levy shall be made on so much property of the principal as may be found, if any, and upon so much of the property of the surety as may be necessary to make the amount of the execution; and the clerk shall make a memorandum of such order on the execution. [Id.]

Art. 6248. [6333] [3815] Rights of surety.—When any person, being surety in any undertaking whatever, shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, the said judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of such surety, and shall be considered as assigned to such surety, together with all the rights of the creditor thereunder to the extent of such payment with the interest thereon; and such surety shall be entitled to have execution thereon in the name of the creditor for the use of such surety against the principal debtor for the full amount of such payment, interest and costs, which execution shall be issued upon the application of such surety to the clerk, or court, as the case may be, and shall be levied, collected and returned as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6249. [6334] [3816] Execution against a co-surety.—If there be more than one surety and one or more of them has failed to pay his proportionate part of the judgment, execution may issue, as provided in the preceding article, against the principal for the use of the surety who has paid more than his proportionate part for the whole amount paid by him and interest thereon, and also against his co-sureties, for their proportionate part of the excess so paid by him and interest thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6250. [6335] [3817] Officer has same rights as surety.—If an officer shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over any money collected, or for wasting property levied on, such officer shall be entitled to have execution therefor against the principal defendant in such judgment as provided in the case of a surety. [Id.]

Art. 6251. [6336] [3818] Surety not to be sued alone.—No surety shall be sued, unless his principal is joined with him, or unless a judgment has previously been rendered against his principal, except in the cases otherwise provided for in the laws relating to parties to suits. [Id.]

Art. 6252. [6337] [3819] Who is surety.—The remedy provided for sureties by this title extends to endorsers, guarantors, drawers of bills which have been accepted, and every other suretyship, whether created by express contract, or by operation of law. [Id.]

QUO WARRANTO

Art.

- 6253. Quo Warranto, when.
- 6254. Joinder of parties.
- 6255. Citation to issue.
- 6256. Proceedings as in civil cases.
- 6257. Judgment of court.
- 6258. Remedy cumulative.

Article 6253. [6398] [4343] Quo Warranto, when.—If any person shall usurp, intrude into or unlawfully hold or execute, or is now intruded into, or now unlawfully holds or executes, any office or franchise, or any office in any corporation created by the authority of this State, or any public officer shall have done or suffered any act which by law works a forfeiture of his office, or any association of persons shall act within this State as a corporation without being legally incorporated, or any corporation does or omits any act which amounts to a surrender or a forfeiture of its rights and privileges as such, or exercises power not conferred by law; or if any railroad company doing business in this State shall charge an extortionate rate for the transportation of any freight or passengers, or refuse to draw or carry the cars of any other railroad company over its lines as required by the laws of this State, the Attorney General, or district or county attorney of the proper county or district, either of his own accord or at the instance of any individual relator, may present a petition to the district court of the proper county, or any judge thereof in vacation, for leave to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto in the name of the State of Texas. If such court or judge is satisfied that there is probable ground for the proceeding, he shall grant such leave and order the information to be filed and process to issue. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 43; G. L. vol. 9, p. 75.]

Art. 6254. [6399] [4344] Joinder of parties.—When it appears to the court or judge that the several rights of divers parties to the same office or franchise may properly be determined on one information, the court or judge may give leave to join all such persons in the same information in order to try their respective rights to such office or franchise. [Id.]

Art. 6255. [6400] [4345] Citation to issue.—When such information is filed, the clerk shall issue citation as in civil suits, commanding the defendant to appear at the return term of said court to answer the relator in an information in the nature of a quo warranto. If the information is filed in vacation, the citation shall be returnable on the first day of the next succeeding term; if in term time, it may be made returnable on any day of the same term, not less than five days after the date of the writ, as shall be directed by the court. [Id.]

Art. 6256. [6401] [4346] Proceedings as in civil cases.—Every person or corporation who shall be cited as hereinbefore provided shall be entitled to all the rights in the trial and investigation of the matters alleged against him, as in cases of trial of civil cases in this state. Either party may prosecute an appeal or writ of error from any judgment rendered, as in other civil cases and the appellate court shall give preference to such case, and hear and determine the same as early as practicable. [Id. sec. 4, Acts 1921, p. 220.]

Art. 6257. [6402] [4347] Judgment of court.—If any person or corporation against whom any such proceeding is filed shall be adjudged guilty as charged, the court shall give judgment of ouster against such person or corporation from the office or franchise, and may fine such person or corporation for usurping, intruding into or unlawfully holding and executing such office or franchise and shall give judgment in favor of the relator for costs of the prosecution. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 43; G. L. vol. 9, p. 75.]

Art. 6258. [6403] [4348] Remedy cumulative.—The remedy and mode of procedure hereby prescribed shall be construed to be cumulative of any now existing. [Id.]

Article 6259. [6405] [4350] [4099] Incorporation.—Any number of persons, not less than ten, being subscribers to the stock of any contemplated railroad, may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating such railroad by complying with the requirements of this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6260. [6406] Who may build.—No corporation, except one chartered under the laws of Texas, shall be authorized or permitted to construct, build, operate, acquire, own or maintain any railroads within State. [Acts 1903, p. 90.]

Art. 6261. [6407] [4351] [4100] Stock, subscription and payment.—No railroad corporation shall be formed until stock to the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of the road intended to be built shall be in good faith subscribed, and five per cent of the amount subscribed paid to the directors of such proposed company. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6262. [6408] [4352] [4101] Articles of incorporation.—The persons proposing to form a railroad corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain:

1. The name of the proposed corporation.
2. The places from and to which it is intended to construct the proposed railroad, and the intermediate counties through which it is proposed to construct the same. Local suburban railways may be constructed for any distance less than ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town, in addition to such mileage as they may have within the same; and in such case the general direction shall be given from the beginning point.
3. The place at which shall be established and maintained the principal business office of the proposed corporation.
4. The time of the commencement and the period of the continuation of the proposed corporation.
5. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation.
6. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation.
7. The names of the members of the first board of directors, and in what officers or persons the government of the proposed corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested.
8. The number and amount of shares in the capital stock of the proposed corporation. [Acts 1889, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1045.]

Art. 6263. [6409] [4353] [4102] Shall be submitted to Attorney General.—The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the Attorney General, and, if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and not in conflict with the laws of the United States, or of this State, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6264. [6410] [4354] [4103] Shall be filed.—When said articles have been so examined and certified, the same shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, accompanied by an affidavit signed and sworn to by at least three of the directors named in such articles, which affidavit shall state that the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of such proposed road has been in good faith subscribed, and that five per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the Secretary of State shall cause such articles, together with said affidavit, to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles and return the same to such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6265. [6411] [4355] [4104] Beginning of existence.—The existence of such corporation shall date from the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State and the certificate of the Secretary of State under the seal of the State, shall be evidence of such filing. [Id.]

Art. 6266. [6412] [4356] [4105] May proceed to act.—When the articles of incorporation have been so filed and recorded, the persons named as incorporators therein shall thereupon become a body corporate, and authorized to carry into effect the objects of such articles, in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 6267. [6413] [4357] [4106] Period of existence.—No railroad corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time for periods not longer than fifty years. [Id.]

Art. 6268. [6414] [4358] [4107] Manner of renewing.—The manner of renewing a railroad corporation which has expired by lapse of time shall be as follows:

1. By a resolution in writing adopted by a majority of three-fourths of the stockholders of the company at a regular meeting of the stockholders, specifying the period of time for which the corporation is renewed.

2. Those desiring a renewal of the corporation shall purchase the stock of those opposed thereto at its current value.

3. The resolution, when adopted, shall be certified to by the president of the company; and he shall state in his certificate thereto that it was adopted by a majority vote of three-fourths of all the stockholders of said company at a regular meeting of such stockholders, and that the stockholders desiring such renewal have purchased the stock of those who oppose such renewal, and such certificate shall be attested by the secretary of the company under the seal of the company.

4. Said resolution and certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and the renewal of said corporation shall date from said filing. [Id.]

Art. 6269. [6415] [4359] Sale or conveyance under special law.—Whenever a line of railway or any railway properties within this State are by special law authorized to be sold and conveyed, the persons contemplating the purchase thereof may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating such railway by complying, as far as applicable with the requirements of this chapter. In the formation of such corporation, the requirements of Article 6261 and so much of Article 6264 as relates to the affidavit may be dispensed with, and words applicable to the case of a purchaser may be used and substituted when necessary or proper, in the articles of incorporation or elsewhere, in lieu of words applicable to the building or construction of a railway. When such corporation has been formed it shall have the power to purchase, acquire, own, maintain and operate such railway and the properties pertaining thereto, and all other rights, powers and privileges given by the laws of this State to railway companies. Any proposed extension or branch lines may be provided for and included in the original articles of incorporation, or the same may, by amendment thereto at any time thereafter, be projected and provided for by such company. [Acts 1891, p. 128; G. L. vol. 10, p. 130.]

Art. 6270. [6416] [4360] Shall take subject to lien.—Any company organized under the preceding article shall take the property so purchased subject to all incumbrances, judgments, claims, suits, claims for damages and for right of way against the old company and subject to all debts and claims for damages accruing against any receiver who may have been appointed for the old company to the same extent that such property would have been liable in the hands of the railroad company from which it was purchased; and such new company may be made a party to every suit pending against the company from which it is purchased, or which may be pending against any receiver of such company, to enforce any right against such new company; and the new company may be sued to enforce any such rights, without joining the old company, or the receiver; and, in case any judgment has been rendered against the old company, or against a receiver for such company, and for which the property is liable, execution may be issued on such judgment against such property in the possession of the new company without any suit therefor. When a corporation is formed under the provisions of the preceding article, service of process may be had upon any agent of such corporation in any county where suit may be pending. Such service shall bind each railroad operated or owned under such charter, in the same manner as if it were one railroad. [Id.]

Art. 6271. [6417-18-19] [4108] May amend articles, etc.—Any railroad corporation may amend or change its articles or act of incorporation in the manner following:

1. Such amendment or change shall be in writing and signed by the president and board of directors of the corporation and attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation.

2. It shall be submitted to the Attorney General as in the case of original articles of incorporation and examined and certified by him in the same manner.

3. It shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

4. In the case of a corporation created by a special act of the legislature, the said amendment or change, together with the original charter and such amendments and changes as have been made by special act of the legislature, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

5. Such amendment or change shall be in force from the date of the filing of the same in the office of the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6272. [6420] [4364] [4111] When shall not amend.—Where, by the special act or articles [of] incorporating any railroad company, any privileges, rights or benefits are conferred upon said corporation, such as it could not claim, exercise or receive under this title or the general laws, then the said corporation shall not be permitted so to amend or change its charter or articles of incorporation as to relieve it from any of the requirements of such special act or acts conferring said privileges, rights or benefits. [Id.]

Art. 6273. [6421] [4365] May project, etc., by amendment.—Any railroad company may, by its original articles of incorporation or by its amendments to its charter, project and provide for the location, construction, owning and operating of branch lines from any point on its main line, or from points on its branch line, constructed or projected to other points making an angle of at least twenty-five degrees in the general course from the main line, if the branch commence from the same, or from the branch line, if, it commences at a point on the same; provided, that the same may commence at the terminus of a branch line and continue in its general course; and, may by amendment to its charter, provide for the continuation in its general course of the main line. [Id. Acts 1901, p. 258.]

Art. 6274. [6422] [4366] [4114] Branch line requirements.—Any such corporation making such amendment to its charter shall complete and put in good running order at least ten miles of its said branch line in said amendment proposed within one year from the filing of such amendment, and an additional extent of at least twenty miles each succeeding year until the entire extent of the projected branch line is completed. [Id.]

PUBLIC OFFICES AND BOOKS

- Art.
6275. To keep offices in Texas.
6276. Where no contract.
6277. Shops, etc.
6278. Officers to keep offices in Texas.
6279. Forfeiture.
6280. To do repair work in Texas.

Art.

6281. Books.
 6282. President shall report.
 6283. Books open to inspection.
 6284. Penalty for failure.
 6285. Duties of Attorney General.
 6286. Change of general offices prohibited.
 6287. Domicile of the corporation.

Article 6275. [6423] [4367] To keep offices in Texas.—Every railroad company chartered by this State, or owning or operating any line of railway within this State, shall keep and maintain permanently its general offices within this State at the place named in its charter for the location of its general offices. If no certain place is named in its charter where its general offices shall be located and maintained, then said railroad company shall keep and maintain its general offices at such place within this State where it contracts or agrees to locate its general office for a valuable consideration. [Acts 1889, p. 130; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1158.]

Art. 6276. [6423] [4367] Where no contract.—If said railroad company has not contracted or agreed for a valuable consideration to maintain its general offices at any certain place within this State, then such general offices shall be located and maintained at such place on its line in this State as said railroad company may designate to be on its line of railway. [Id.]

Art. 6277. [6423] [4367] Shops, etc.—Such railroads shall keep and maintain their machine shops and roundhouses, or either, at such place or places as they may have contracted to keep them for a valuable consideration received; and if said general offices and shops and roundhouses, or either are located on the line of railroad in a county which has aided such railroad by an issue of bonds in consideration of such location being made, then said location shall not be changed; and this shall apply as well to a railroad that may have been consolidated with another as to those which have maintained their original organization. [Id.]

Art. 6278. [6424] [4368] Officers to keep offices in Texas.—Railroad companies shall keep and maintain at the place within this State where its general offices are located the office of its president, or vice-president, secretary, treasurer, local treasurer, auditor, general freight agent, traffic manager, general manager, general superintendent, general passenger and ticket agent, chief engineer, superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, master of transportation, fuel agent, general claim agent; and each one of its general offices shall be so kept and maintained by whatever name it is known, and the persons who perform the duties of said general offices, by whatever name known, shall keep and maintain their offices at the place where said general offices are required to be located and maintained; and the persons holding said general offices shall reside at the place and keep and maintain their offices at the place where said general offices are required by law to be kept and maintained. If the duties of any of the above named offices are performed by any person, but his position is called by a different name, said railroad company shall maintain said offices at the place where its general Texas offices are kept and maintained, as required by this chapter. The name of the general offices shall not be understood to allow the railroad company to have any of the offices usually known as general offices at any other place than the one at which it is required to keep its general offices; and each railroad is hereby required to have and maintain its general offices at the place named herein. Where the principal shops of a company are situated on its line in the State, at a place other than where its general offices are located, the superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, either or both, may have his office and residence at such place where such principal shops are located; provided, that the Railroad Commission of Texas, where it is made to appear that any officer, other than the general officers of any company, can more conveniently perform his duties by residing at some place on the line in Texas other than the place where the general offices are situated, may by an order entered on its record, authorize any such officer to so reside and keep his office at such place. [Id. Acts 1899, p. 177.]

Art. 6279. [6425] [4369] Forfeiture.—Each railroad company chartered by this State, or owning, operating, or controlling any line of railroad within this State, which shall violate any provision of this chapter shall forfeit the charter by which it operates its railroad in Texas to the State of Texas. The Attorney General shall, upon the application of an interested party, or on his own motion, proceed at once against every offending railroad company owning, operating or controlling any line of railway within this State and violating any provision of this law, by quo warranto to forfeit the charter of such railroad company. In addition to forfeiting the charter to that part of the railroad situated within this State, such offending railroad company shall be subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars for each day it violates any provision of this chapter; such penalty to be recovered by suit in the name of the State of Texas to be filed by the Attorney General. Any money recovered from any railroad company under the provisions of this law shall be paid into the State Treasury and become a part of the available public free school fund. A judgment of the court forfeiting the charter of a railroad company shall allow six months from the date of the judgment within which to comply with this law, and if it shall comply within said time no forfeiture shall occur; but if it fails to so comply, then the judgment shall be final.

Art. 6280 [6426 to 6428] To do repair work in Texas.—All railroad corporations operating in, and having their repair shops within this State, are required to repair, renovate or rebuild in this State all defective or broken cars, coaches, locomotives, or other equipment owned or leased by said corporation in this State, when such rolling stock is within this State, and shall be prohibited from sending or removing any such rolling stock out of this State to be repaired, renovated or rebuilt, when the same is in a defective or broken condition, and within this State, when such railway shall have, or be under obligation to have, proper facilities in this State to do such work. This article does not apply to companies having less than sixty continuous miles of railroad in operation in this State, nor in case of strike, fire or other unforeseen casualties and emergencies; and is not to be construed to require a violation of the Federal safety appliance law; and no railway shall be required to haul such disabled equipment a greater distance for repairs at a point within this State than would be necessary to reach their repair shops in another State. [Acts 1909, p. 73.]

Art. 6281. [6429] [4370] Books.—The principal business of said corporation shall be conducted, and stock transferred and claims for damages settled and adjusted at the public or general offices of said railroad companies in Texas, established as provided for in this chapter, by duly authorized officers and agents of said corporations. At said offices there shall be kept for the inspection of stockholders of such corporation, books in which shall be recorded:

1. The amount of capital stock subscribed.
2. The names of the owners of the stock and the amounts owned by them respectively.
3. The amount of stock paid and by whom.
4. The transfer of stock with the date of the transfer.
5. The amount of its assets and liabilities.
6. The names and places of residence of each of its officers. [Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6282. [6430] [4371] President shall report.—The president or superintendent of every railroad company doing business in this State shall report annually under oath to the Comptroller or Governor the true status of said railroad and such other matters and things as may be inquired about by said Comptroller or Governor. [Id. Const. art. 10, sec. 3.]

Art. 6283. [6431-2] Books open to inspection.—The books of such corporation kept at its public office shall at all reasonable business hours be open to the inspection of each stockholder, and to any officer or agent of the State whose duty it may be to inspect such books. The legislature may by committee or otherwise, examine the books of any railroad corporation at such times and as often as may be by said legislature be deemed necessary. [Id.]

Art. 6284. [6433] [4374] Penalty for failure.—If said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with any provision of the three preceding articles, it shall be liable to pay to the State of Texas, the sum of one thousand dollars for each month that said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply therewith, said sum to be recovered by the State. An honest mistake in the entries in its books shall not subject a railroad company to such penalties. [Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6285. [6434] [4375] Duties of Attorney General.—The Attorney General shall bring suit against said corporation, and prosecute it to judgment for any violation of any provision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6286. [6435] [4376] Change of general offices prohibited.—No railroad company shall change the location of its general offices, machine shops or roundhouses, save with the consent and approval of the Railroad Commission of Texas, and this shall apply also to receivers and to purchasers of the franchises and properties of railroad companies and to new corporations formed by such purchasers or their assigns. The Commission shall not consent to, or approve of, any removal or change of location in conflict with the restrictions of the first article of this chapter. No consent or approval of the Commission shall be required before the return of general offices, machine shops or roundhouses to previous locations when ordered or required under judgments in suits now pending in trial or appellate courts. [Acts 1915, p. 35.]

Art. 6287. [6437] [4378] [4120] Domicile of the corporation.—The public office of a railroad corporation shall be considered the domicile of such corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986.]

CHAPTER THREE

OFFICERS AND BY-LAWS

Art.

- 6288. Board of directors.
- 6289. Election of directors.
- 6290. Other officers elected.
- 6291. False dividend.
- 6292. False representation.
- 6293. By-laws.

Article 6288. [6338-39-45] Board of directors.—All the corporate powers of every railroad corporation shall be vested in and be exercised by the legally constituted board of directors. Every such corporation shall have a board of directors of not less than seven nor more than nine persons, each of whom shall be a stockholder in said corporation. A majority of said directors shall be resident citizens of this State, and shall so remain resident citizens during their continuance as such directors. [Acts 1876, p. 144; G. L. vol. 8, p. 980.]

Art. 6289. [6440-41-42-43-44] Election of directors.—These rules shall govern the election of the board of directors:

1. It shall require a majority in value of the stock of such corporation to elect any member of such board.
2. Such board shall be elected by the stockholders of the corporation at their regular annual meeting in each year, in the manner prescribed by this title and the by-laws of such corporation, and shall hold their office until their successors are elected.

3. In all such elections, each stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy for the number of shares of stock owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate such shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he may see fit. Such directors shall not be elected in any other manner.

4. The by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe the manner and time of electing directors, and the mode of filling a vacancy in such office. Such provisions in such by-laws shall not be changed except at a regular annual meeting of the stockholders, and by a majority in value of the stockholders of such corporation.

5. If an election of directors shall not be made on the day designated by said by-laws for such purpose, the stockholders shall meet and hold an election for directors in such manner as said by-laws shall provide. [Id.]

Art. 6290. [6446-47] Other officers elected.—There shall be a president of the corporation who shall be chosen from and by the board of directors, and such other officers as said by-laws may designate, who may be appointed or elected, and who shall perform such duties and be required to give such security for the faithful performance thereof as required by said by-laws. It shall require a majority of the directors to appoint or elect any officer of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6291. [6448] [4389] [4133] False dividend.—If the directors of any railroad company shall declare and pay any dividend when the company is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall jointly and severally be liable for all debts of the company then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted so long as they shall respectively continue in office. If any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making such dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall within thirty days thereafter, or after their return if absent, file a certificate of their absence or objection in writing with the clerk of the company and with the clerk of the county in which the principal office of said company is located, they shall be exempt from said liability. [Acts 1853, p. 55; G. L. vol. 3, p. 1339; P. D. 4886.]

Art. 6292. [6449] [4390] [4134] False representation.—If any certificate or report made, or public notice given, by the officers of any such company, in pursuance of the provisions of this title, shall be false in any material representation, all officers who signed the same shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company contracted while they are officers or stockholders thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6293. [6450-52] By-laws.—Every railroad corporation shall have the power to make such by-laws as it may think proper for the government of such company, the same not being inconsistent with the charter of such company or the laws. In the enactment of a by-law, the stockholders of the corporation shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by them, and a stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy. No by-laws shall be enacted, altered, amended, added to, repealed or suspended, except at a regular annual meeting of the stockholders and by a majority vote of two-thirds in value of all the stock of the corporation. [Acts 1857, p. 25; G. L. vol. 4, p. 897; P. D. 4911.]

CHAPTER FOUR

STOCK AND STOCKHOLDERS

Art.

- 6294. Railroad stock is personal estate.
- 6295. Directors may require payment.
- 6296. Sale of unpaid stock.
- 6297. Books accessible.
- 6298. Use of corporate funds.
- 6299. Liability of stockholders.

Art.

6300. Who are not liable.
 6301. Increasing capital stock.
 6302. Decrease of capital stock.
 6303. Statement to stockholders.
 6304. Loans and interest.
 6305. Removal of officers.
 6306. Issuance of stock.
 6307. Fictitious dividends void.
 6308. Penalty.

Article 6294. [6453] [4394] [4138] Railroad stock is personal estate.—The stock of a railroad corporation shall be deemed personal estate, and transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation; but no such transfer shall be valid until the same shall have been made on the stock and transfer books of the company; nor shall any share be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been paid. [Acts 1876, p. 145; G. L. vol. 8, p. 981.]

Art. 6295. [6454] [4395] [4139] Directors may require payment.—The directors of such corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner and in such installments as the directors may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 6296. [6455] [4396] [4140] Sale of unpaid stock.—If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment as required by a resolution or order of the board of directors, the said board shall be authorized to advertise said stock for sale by publication once a week for thirty days in some newspaper published on the line of said road, if there be one, and, if not, in some newspaper published in the State having a general circulation in the State; which notice shall name the stock to be sold and the time and place of such sale; and all stocks so sold shall be sold at the public office or place of business of such company, and between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. and to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of such sale to be credited to the delinquent stockholder. [Id.]

Art. 6297. [6456] [4397] [4141] Books accessible.—All stockholders shall at all reasonable hours have access to and may examine all books, records and papers of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6298. [6457] [4398] [4142] Use of corporate funds.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad corporation to use any of the funds thereof in the purchase of its own stock, or that of any other corporation, or to loan any of its funds to any director or other officer thereof, or to permit them or any of them, to use the same for other than the legitimate purposes of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6299. [6458] [4399] [4143] Liability of stockholders.—Each stockholder of a railroad corporation shall be held individually liable to the creditors of such corporation to an amount not exceeding the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for all debts and liabilities of such corporation until the whole amount of the capital stock of such corporation so held by him shall have been paid. [Id.]

Art. 6300. [6459] [4400] [4144] Who are not liable.—No person holding stock in any railroad corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stockholder of such corporation; but the estate or person owning such stock, shall be considered as holding the same and liable as a stockholder accordingly. [Id.]

Art. 6301. [6460 to 6464] Increasing capital stock.—If the capital stock of a railroad corporation shall be found insufficient for constructing and operating its road, such corporation may increase its capital stock from time to time, subject to the following conditions:

1. Such increase shall be sanctioned by a vote in person or by written proxy of two-thirds in amount of all the stock of such corporation at a meeting of such stockholders called by the directors of the corporation for such purpose.

2. Written notice of such meeting shall be given to each stockholder, served personally or by depositing same in a post office directed to his post-office address, postage prepaid; and also by advertising the same in some newspaper published in each county through or into which the said road shall run, or be intended to run, if any is published therein. Such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting, the object thereof, and the amount to which it is proposed to increase such capital stock, and shall be served or published at least sixty days prior to the day appointed for such meeting.

3. The stock may be increased to any amount required for the purposes mentioned in this article, not exceeding the amount mentioned in the notice so given.

4. Every order or resolution increasing such stock shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and such increase shall not take effect until such order or resolution has been so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6302. Decrease of capital stock.—A railroad corporation may, in the same manner prescribed in this chapter for an increase of capital stock, decrease its capital stock in any amount which shall not reduce the same to less than one thousand dollars for every mile of its road as planned and described in its charter. But no such decrease shall prejudice the rights of any creditor of such corporation in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against the company or any stockholder or director thereof. If such decrease relates to or affects any part of the stock that has actually been subscribed or issued, then such decrease shall not become effective until full proof is made by affidavit of the directors to the Secretary of State of the financial condition of such corporation, giving therein all its assets and liabilities, with names and post-office addresses of all creditors and amount due each, and where the proposed decrease affects any part of the subscribed or issued stock as aforesaid the Secretary of State may require as a condition precedent to the filing of such certificate of decrease that the debts of the corporation be paid or reduced. [Acts 1915, p. 262.]

Art. 6303. [6465-6] Statement to stockholders.—At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders, the president and directors shall exhibit a full, distinct and accurate statement of the affairs of the corporation to the stockholders. Such president and directors shall furnish similar statements at any special meeting of stockholders when they may require the same. [Acts 1876, p. 145; G. L. vol. 8, p. 981.]

Art. 6304. [6467] [4408] [4152] Loans and interest.—At any regular annual meeting of stockholders, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, the stockholders may, by a majority in value of all the stock of such corporation, determine the amount of loans which may be negotiated by such company for the construction of its railway and its equipment, and fix the rate of interest which may be paid, and provide for the security of such loans. [Id.]

Art. 6305. [6468] [4409] [4153] Removal of officers.—The stockholders may, by a two-thirds vote in value of all the stock, at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, remove the president or any director or other officer of such corporation, and elect others instead in accordance with the by-laws of such corporation and this title. [Id.]

Art. 6306. [6469] [4410] [4154] Issuance of stock.—No railroad corporation shall issue any stock except for money, labor or property actually received and applied to the purpose for which such corporation was organized; nor shall it issue any shares of stock in said company except at its par value and to actual subscribers who pay or become liable to pay the par value thereof. [Id. P. D. 4921.]

Art. 6307. [6470] [4411] [4155] Fictitious dividends void.—All fictitious dividends and other fictitious increase of the capital stock or indebtedness of any such corporation shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6308. [6471] [4412] [4156] Penalty.—Every officer or director of a railroad company, who shall violate or consent to the violation of either of the two preceding articles, shall become personally liable to the stockholders and creditors of such company for the full par value of such illegal stock, or for the full amount of such fictitious dividends, increase of stock, or indebtedness. [P. D. 4921.]

CHAPTER FIVE

MEETING OF DIRECTORS AND STOCKHOLDERS

Art.

- 6309. Annual meeting of directors.
- 6310. Annual meeting of stockholders.
- 6311. Joint meetings.
- 6312. Quorum.
- 6313. Special meetings.
- 6314. Proxy dated.
- 6315. What stock shall not vote.

Article 6309. [6472] [4413] [4157] Annual meeting of directors.—The directors of every railroad company shall hold one meeting annually at their office in this State, public notice of which shall be given at least thirty days before said meeting, said notice to be published in some daily newspaper published in this State. [Const. art. 10, sec. 3; Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6310. [6473] [4414] [4158] Annual meeting of stockholders.—The stockholders of every railroad corporation shall hold at least one meeting annually at the public office or place of business of such corporation in this State; and the board of directors shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of such meeting for thirty days previously thereto as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1876, p. 144; G. L. vol. 8, p. 980.]

Art. 6311. [6474] [4415] [4159] Joint meetings.—Said annual meeting of the board of directors and of the stockholders may be called to meet and may be held at the same time and place, in which case one notice shall answer the purpose of both meetings; provided, it be so stated in such notice. [Id.]

Art. 6312. [6475] [4416] [4160] Quorum.—A majority of the directors of any railroad corporation shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and a majority in value of two-thirds of all the stock owned by such corporation shall constitute a quorum of the stockholders to transact business. [Id.]

Art. 6313. [6476-7-8] Special meetings.—A special meeting of the stockholders may be called at any time during the interval between the regular annual meetings of such stockholders by the directors, or by the stockholders owning not less than one-fourth of all the stock of such company. Notice of the time and place of such meetings shall be given for at least thirty days prior to the time fixed for such meeting, in the same manner as is required in the case of a regular annual meeting; and such notice shall specify the purpose or purposes for which the said special meeting is called; and no other business shall be transacted at such special meeting, except that specified in such notice. If at any such special meeting so called a majority, in value, of the stockholders, equal to two-thirds of the stock of such corporation shall not be represented in person or by proxy, such meeting shall be adjourned from day to day, not exceeding three days without transaction of any business; and if within said three days two-thirds in value of such stock shall not be represented at such meeting, then the meeting shall be adjourned and another meeting called, and notice thereof given as heretofore provided. [Id.]

Art. 6314. [6479] [4420] [4164] Proxy dated.—Every proxy from a stockholder shall be dated within six months previous to the meeting of the stockholders at which it is proposed to vote by virtue thereof, and if not dated within such time, shall not be voted. [P. D. 4908.]

Art. 6315. [6480] [4421] [4165] What stock shall not vote.—Stock issued within thirty days before any stockholders meeting shall not entitle the holder to vote thereat except at the first stockholders meeting under their articles or act of incorporation for organization; nor shall any stock be voted upon except in proportion to the amount paid thereon, or secured to be paid by good security in addition to the subscription and stock.

CHAPTER SIX

RIGHT OF WAY

Art.

- 6316. Right to construct.
- 6316a. Right to construct spur tracks.
- 6317. Right of way over public lands.
- 6318. Lineal survey.
- 6319. Width of road.
- 6320. Streams of water.
- 6321. Crossings.
- 6322. Where made.
- 6323. Thirty days for completion.
- 6324. Distance from place.
- 6325. Failure, etc.
- 6326. Intersections.
- 6327. Crossings of public roads.
- 6328. Culverts or sluices.
- 6329. Navigable waters.
- 6330. Streets, etc.
- 6331. Other cases.
- 6332. May cross other railways.
- 6333. Intersections.
- 6334. May take material.
- 6335. Value and damages to be paid.
- 6336. When corporation and owner disagree.
- 6337. Entry only for survey.
- 6338. Practice in case specified.
- 6339. Right of way construed.
- 6340. Right of way reserved.

Article 6316. [6481] [4422] [4166] Right to construct.—Any railroad corporation shall have the right to construct and operate a railroad between any points within this State, and to connect at the State line with railroads of other States. [Const. art. 10, sec. 1.]

Art. 6316a. Right to construct spur tracks.—Every railroad company owning, leasing or operating a line of railroad in this State shall have authority and power to construct and operate spur or industrial tracks designed to reach or serve industries or industrial enterprises, such as mills, mines, rock quarries, rock deposits, gravel pits, gravel deposits, smelters, warehouses and other manufacturing or industrial enterprises, over which regular scheduled passenger or freight service will not be performed and for transportation over which only a switching charge, if any, will be made, together with all necessary side tracks and subsidiary or accessory spur tracks, and shall have power and authority under the General Laws of this State relating to railroads to condemn property for rights of way for any and all such tracks hereby authorized. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 73, p. 230, § 1.]

Art. 6317. [6482] [4423] [4167] Right of way over public lands.—Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any lands belonging to this State, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land.

Art. 6318. [6483] [4424] [4168] Lineal survey.—Every railroad corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed railway to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purpose may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damages that may be occasioned thereby. [Acts 1876, p. 147; G. L. vol. 8, p. 983.]

Art. 6319. [6484] [4425] [4169] Width of road.—Such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its railway, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing the railway, making compensation as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6320. [6485] [4426] [4170] Streams of water.—Such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across, along, or upon any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank, road, turnpike, or canal when the route of said railway shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal thus intersected or touched, to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossing in repair.

Art. 6321. [6486-87] Crossings.—All railway corporations in this State, which have or may fence their right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through their fence and over their roadbed along their right of way every one and one-half miles thereof. If such fence shall divide any inclosure, at least one opening shall be made in said fence within such inclosure. Such crossings shall not be less than thirty feet in width, and shall be made and kept in such condition as to admit of the free and easy passage of vehicles and domesticated animals. [Acts 1887, p. 39; G. L. vol. 9, p. 837.]

Art. 6322. [6488-89] Where made.—Such crossings shall be made at such times and places as may be demanded by any two or more citizens of the State who either live or own land within five miles of the place where such crossings may be demanded. Such demand shall be made in writing, of the nearest local agent of such railway company to the place where such crossing or crossings are demanded, and shall state when and where such crossing is desired. [Id.]

Art. 6323. [6490] [4431] Thirty days for completion.—No railway company shall be required to complete such crossing as may be demanded under this chapter in a shorter time than thirty days from the day on which such demand is first made, nor shall they be required to make any crossings where they have already left such crossings, in each one and one-half miles of their road, except inside of inclosures, as provided in Article 6321. [Id.]

Art. 6324. [6491] [4432] Distance from place.—Any railway company, upon such demand, shall be deemed to have complied therewith upon making such crossings within four hundred yards of the place where they are demanded, within the time herein allowed. [Id.]

Art. 6325. [6492] [4433] Failure, etc.—Whenever any railroad company shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this chapter, after demand is made in accordance therewith, such railway company shall pay to each person who made such demand the sum of five hundred dollars for each month they shall so fail or refuse to comply with such demand, the same to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 6326. [6493] [4434] Intersections.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the law requiring railroad companies to provide proper crossings at intersection of all roads and streets. [Id.]

Art. 6327. [367-6494] Crossings of public roads.—Every railroad company in this State shall place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way, over or across which any public county road may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public, and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed by the overseer of such public road, it shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars for each week such railroad company may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article. Such penalty shall go to the road and bridge fund of the county in which the suit is brought; and the county attorney, upon the making of an affidavit of the facts by any person, shall at once institute against the company violating any provision of this article suit in the proper court to recover such penalty or penalties, and his wilful failure or refusal to do so shall be sufficient cause for his removal from office, unless it is evident that such suit could not have been maintained. The proceedings under this article shall be conducted in the same manner as civil suits. The county attorney attending to such suits shall be entitled to a fee in each case of ten dollars, to be taxed as costs; provided, that when two or more penalties are sought to be recovered in the same suit, but one such fee shall be allowed. Such suits shall be conducted in the name of the county, and if the county be cast in the suit no costs shall be charged against it. [Acts 1885, p. 45; G. L. vol. 9, p. 665.]

Art. 6328. [6495] [4436] [4171] Culverts or sluices.—In no case shall any railroad company construct a roadbed without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary draining thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 147; G. L. vol. 8, p. 983.]

Art. 6329. [6496] [4437] [4172] Navigable waters.—This chapter shall not be construed to authorize the erection of any bridge or any other obstruction across or over any stream or water navigable by steamboats or sail vessels at the place where any bridge or other obstruction may be proposed to be placed so as to prevent the navigation of such stream or water. [Id.]

Art. 6330. [6497] [4438] [4173] Streets, etc.—This chapter shall not be construed to authorize the construction of any railroad upon or across any street, alley, square or highway of any incorporated city or town without assent of the governing body of said city or town. [Id.]

Art. 6331. [6498] [4439] [4174] Other cases.—In case of the construction of any railway along the highways, plank roads, turnpikes, or canals, such railroad corporation shall either first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having control or jurisdiction of the same or condemn the same under the provisions of law. [Id.]

Art. 6332. [6499] [4440] [4175] May cross other railways.—Such corporation shall have the right to cross, intersect, join and unite its railway with any other railway before constructed at any point on its route and upon the grounds of such other railway corporation, with the necessary turnouts, sidings and switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its connection. [Id.]

Art. 6333. [6500-1] Intersections.—Every corporation whose railway is or shall be intersected by any new railway shall unite with the corporation owning such railway in forming intersections and connections and grant to such new railway facilities therefor. If the corporations cannot agree upon the amount of compensation for any such crossings, intersection or connection, or the points and manner of the same, their differences shall be adjusted in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6334. [6502] [4443] [4178] May take material.—Any railroad corporation may enter upon and take from any land adjacent to its road, earth, gravel, stone or other materials, except fuel and wood, necessary for the construction of its railway, paying, if the owner of such land and the corporation can agree thereto, the value of such material taken and the amount of damages occasioned to any such land or appurtenances, and, if such owner and corporation cannot agree, then the value of such material and the damages occasioned to such real estate may be ascertained, determined and paid in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6335. [6503] [4444] [4179] Value and damages to be paid.—The value of such material and the damages to such real estate shall in all cases be ascertained, determined and paid before such corporation can enter upon and take such material. [Id.]

Art. 6336. [6504] [4445] [4180] When corporation and owner disagree.—If any railroad corporation shall at any time be unable to agree with the owner for the purchase of any real estate, or material thereon, required for the purpose of its incorporation or the transaction of its business, for its depots, station buildings, machine and repair shops, for the construction of reservoirs for the water supply, or for the right of way, or for a new or additional right of way, for change, or relocation or road bed, to shorten the line, or any part thereof, or to reduce its grades, or any of them, or for double tracking its railroad or constructing and operating its tracks, which is hereby authorized and permitted, or for any other lawful purpose connected with or necessary to the building, operating or running its road, such corporation may acquire such property by condemnation thereof. The limitation in width prescribed by Article 6319 shall not apply to real estate or any interest therein, required for the purposes herein mentioned, other than right of way, and shall not apply to right of way when necessary for double tracking or constructing or adding additional railroad tracks, and real estate, or any interest therein, to be acquired for such other purposes, or any of them, need not adjoin or abut on the right [of] way, and no change of the line through any city or town, or which shall result in the abandonment of any station or depot, shall be made, except upon written order of the Railroad Commission of Texas, authorizing such change. No railroad corporation shall have the right under this law to condemn any land for the purposes mentioned in this article situated more than two miles from the right of way of such railroad corporation. [Id. Acts 1901, p. 46; Acts 1919, p. 280.]

Art. 6337. [6505] [4446] [4181] Entry only for survey.—No railroad company shall enter upon, except for a lineal survey, any real estate whatever, the same being private property, for the purpose of taking and condemning the same, or any material thereon, for any purpose whatever, until the said company shall agree with and pay the owner thereof all damages that may be caused to the lands and property of said owner by the condemnation of said real estate and property, and by the construction of such road. [P. D. 4922.]

Art. 6338. [6531] [4472] Practice in case specified.—When any railroad company is sued for any property occupied by it for railroad purposes, or for damages thereto, the court in which such suit is pending may determine all matters in dispute between the parties, including the condemnation of the property, upon petition or cross bill, asking such remedy by defendant, but the plea for condemnation shall be an admission of the plaintiff's title to such property. [Acts 1889, p. 18; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1046.]

Art. 6339. [6532] [4473] [4206] Right of way construed.—The right of way secured by condemnation to any railway company in this State shall not be construed to include the fee simple estate in lands, either public or private, nor shall the same be lost by forfeiture or expiration of the charter, but shall remain subject to an extension of the charter or the grant of a new charter over the same way without a new condemnation. [Acts 1861, p. 12; G. L. vol. 5, p. 348.]

Art. 6340. [6533] [4474] [4207] Right of way reserved.—The right of way is hereby reserved to any railroad company incorporated by the laws of this State, to the extent of one hundred feet on each side of said road, or roads that cross over or extend through any lands granted, or that may be granted to any railroad company by the Legislature, with the right to take from the lands so granted such stone, timber and earth as such road may need in the construction of its line of road.

CHAPTER SEVEN

OTHER RIGHTS OF RAILROAD CORPORATIONS

- Art.
6341. Some rights.
6342. Shall alienate lands, etc.
6343. Apply to all companies.
6344. Right to erect buildings, etc.
6345. Right to borrow money, issue bonds, etc.
6346. Mortgage by resolution.
6347. May pay bonds with stock.
6348. Terminus on coast destroyed.

- Art.
6349. Abandonment, change, or relocation of line.
6350. Change in city.
6351. Eminent domain.
6352. Certain changes validated.
6353. Hearing of application.

Article 6341. [6535-6-7-8-41-43] Some rights.—Railroad corporations shall have the following other rights:

1. To have succession, and in their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded.

2. To have and use a seal, which it may alter at pleasure.

3. To receive and convey persons and property on its railway by the power and force of steam, or by any mechanical power.

4. To regulate the time and manner in which passengers and property shall be transported, and the compensation to be paid therefor, subject to the provisions of law.

5. Of eminent domain for the purposes prescribed in this title.

6. To purchase, hold and use all such real estate and other property as may be necessary for the construction and use of its railway, stations and other accommodations necessary to accomplish the objects of its incorporation, and to convey the same when no longer required for the use of such railway.

7. To take, hold and use such voluntary grants of real estate and other property as shall be made to it in aid of the construction and use of its railway, and to convey the same when no longer required for the uses of such railway, in any manner not incompatible with the terms of the original grant. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6342. [6539] [4480] Shall alienate lands, etc.—All lands acquired by railroad companies under the provisions of this chapter, or any general laws, shall be alienated by said companies, one-half in six years and one-half in twelve years, from the issuance of patents to the same, and all lands so acquired by railroad companies, and not alienated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the State and become a part of the public domain and liable to location and survey as other unappropriated lands. All lands purchased by or donated to a railroad corporation, except such as are used for depot purposes, reservation for the establishment of machine shops, turnouts and switches, shall be alienated and disposed of by said company in the same manner and time as is required when lands have been received from the State. [Id.]

Art. 6343. [6540] [4481] [4214] Apply to all companies.—The two preceding articles shall apply to such corporations as are prohibited by their acts of incorporation from purchasing or receiving donations of land, as well as those corporations that are not so prohibited. [Id.]

Art. 6344. [6542] [4483] [4216] Right to erect buildings, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to erect and maintain all necessary and convenient buildings and stations, fixtures and machinery for the accommodation and use of passengers, freights and business interests, or which may be necessary for the construction or operation of its railway; but no railway company shall have the power, either by its own employes or other persons, to construct any buildings along the line of their railroad to be occupied by their employes or others except at their respective depot stations and section houses, and at such places shall construct only such buildings as may be necessary for the transaction of their legitimate business operations, and for shelter of their employes, nor shall they use, occupy or cultivate any part of the right of way over which their respective roads may pass, with the exception aforesaid, for any other purpose than the construction and keeping in repair their respective railways. [Id.]

Art. 6345. [6544] [4486] [4219] Right to borrow money, issue bonds, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right, from time to time, to borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing, improving or operating its railway, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchise to secure the payment of any debt contracted by such corporation for the purposes aforesaid, subject, however, to other provisions of law. [Id.]

Art. 6346. [6645-6] Mortgage by resolution.—No mortgage by such corporation shall be valid, unless authorized by a resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the stock of such company, after notice in the manner provided in this title for increasing the capital stock of such corporation. When any such resolution has been so adopted it shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and no such resolution shall take effect until so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6347. [6547] [4489] [4222] May pay bonds with stock.—The directors shall be empowered, in pursuance of any such resolution, to confer on any holder of any bond for money so borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal of such bond into the stock of such corporation at any time not exceeding ten years after the date of such bond, under such regulations as the by-laws of such corporation may provide. [Id.]

Art. 6348. [6548] [4490] Terminus on coast destroyed.—Any railway company in this State having a terminus on the coast, the said terminus being a county site, and the same having been destroyed by storms and cyclones, and when said county site has been removed back from the coast near the line of said railway, it shall be lawful for said railway to remove and take up its track from its original terminus on the coast to a point opposite or near said new county site; provided, said railway company make its terminus at and build its road to said new county site. [Acts 1887, p. 6; G. L. vol. 9, p. 804.]

Art. 6349. Abandonment, change, or relocation of line.—When any railroad in this State whether incorporated under State or Federal charter desires to abandon, change or relocate any portion of its line of railroad within this State adjacent to but not within an incorporated city of fifty thousand or more inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census, it shall present a petition therefor to the Railroad Commission of Texas showing that portion of its line sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned and the situation of the new relocated line, with the reasons justifying the same; thereupon said Commission shall set down said application for hearing and give public notice thereof of not less than ten days in the locality where such change is desired by publishing notice in a newspaper of general circulation published nearest thereto, setting out substantially what such contemplated change may be; and if after such hearing said Commission shall be of the opinion that it is to the public interest to permit such change, relocation or abandonment of said line, it shall enter its order approving same and thereupon said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall be empowered to make such change, relocation or abandonment; provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize said Commission to permit any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to abandon such substantial part of its line as shall amount to impairment of its charter contract or deprive any city or town of railroad facilities. Provided, said Commission shall not exercise the power herein granted unless and until said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have obtained the permission of the commissioners court of the county for such change, relocation or abandonment, which permission shall be evidenced by the duly authenticated order of such court which shall accompany the petition of such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to said Commission. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 45.]

Art. 6350. Change in city.—When any railroad corporation or receiver of any railroad in the State desires to change, relocate or abandon any part of its line within any city containing fifty thousand or more inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal census, it shall present its petition therefor to the governing body of such city, said petition to be also supported by the names of not less than five hundred resident citizens who shall be property owners in said city, showing the reasons therefor, the part of the line sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned, and the new location or arrangements proposed for operation; whereupon such governing body if of the opinion that the same is for the public interest, shall enter its order permitting such change, relocation or abandonment of said line. Thereupon the said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall present its petition to the Railroad Commission of Texas praying for authority to make such change, relocation or abandonment, with a description of that portion of its lines; providing that no change shall be made that will seriously affect the charter obligations of any railroad company sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned, together with a description of the changed or relocated line, or arrangement for the new operation, which petition shall be accompanied by the order of the governing legislative authority of the city as aforesaid approving same; whereupon said Commission shall set down such application for public hearing upon not less than ten days' notice, and if upon such hearing said Commission shall be of the opinion that the public interest will be conserved by the granting of such petition, it shall enter its order to that effect and thereupon such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have full power to make such change, relocation or abandonment of its line. No application to alter, change or relocate railway tracks, as contemplated by this article, shall be acted upon by the governing body of such city until thirty days after the petition of citizens provided for herein shall have been filed with said body and publication thereof has been made for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the limits of said city, prior to action had thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6351. Eminent domain.—When any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have been empowered under the provisions of this law to change, relocate or abandon its line of railroad in this State, it shall have full power to acquire by condemnation or otherwise all lands for right of way, depot grounds, shops, roundhouses, water supply sites, sidings, switches, spurs or any other lawful purposes connected with or necessary to the building, operating or running of its road as changed, relocated or abandoned; provided, however, that all property so acquired is hereby declared to be for and is charged with public use so far as the same may be necessary. [Id.]

Art. 6352. Certain changes validated.—All changes, relocations and abandonments of parts of their lines by railroad corporations or receivers of any railroad in or adjacent to any city having a population according to the preceding Federal census of fifty thousand inhabitants or over, heretofore made with the permission of the Railroad Commission of Texas or authorized by its written order, are hereby validated and made legal as fully as if made hereunder, and such permission or written order of the said Commission, given prior hereto, shall be full power and authority to a railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to make such change, relocation or abandonment of parts of its line; providing that this law shall not affect any right or rights for damages that any person, firm or corporation may have, or may have had or shall have for damages caused by any such removal, change or abandonment. [Id.]

Art. 6353. Hearing of application.—Whenever the governing body of any city containing fifty thousand inhabitants or more shall present to the Railroad Commission of this State its application for any change or relocation of any tracks of any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad in such way as to better serve the public interest, said Commission shall set down such application for a hearing after giving ten days notice to such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad, whose tracks are sought to be changed or relocated and after such a hearing may make its order directing such change or relocation if in the opinion of said Commission such change or re-location would be to the best interest of all parties concerned. No application to alter, change or relocate railway tracks, as contemplated by this article shall be determined upon by said governing body until thirty days after publication of the proposed change or re-location of said railway tracks shall have been made in the official newspaper of said city. Article 6354. [6549] [4491] [4223] Road to pass through county seat.—No railroad hereafter constructed in this State shall pass within a distance of three miles of any county seat without passing through the same and establishing and maintaining a depot therein, unless prevented by natural obstacles, such as streams, hills or mountains; provided, such town or its citizens shall grant the right of way through its limits and sufficient ground for ordinary depot purposes. [Const. art. 10, sec. 9.]

Art. 6355. [6550] [4492] [4224] Shall survey twenty-five miles.—Every railroad company organized under this title shall make an actual survey of its route or line for a distance of twenty-five miles on its projected route, and shall designate the depot grounds along said first twenty-five miles before the roadbed is begun. No railroad company shall change its route or depot grounds after the same have been so designated. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6356. [6551] [4493] [4225] Subsequent mileage.—Every such corporation shall, on completion of the first twenty-five miles of its roadbed, make a survey of the next twenty-five miles, and of each subsequent twenty-five miles as the preceding twenty-five miles shall be completed, and every subsequent twenty-five miles shall be controlled by the provisions applicable to the first twenty-five miles of the road. [Id.]

Art. 6357. [6552] [4494] [4226] Train regulations.—Every such corporation shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such passengers and property, as shall, within a reasonable time previous thereto, offer or be offered for transportation at the place of starting and at junctions of other roads and at sidings and stopping places established for or receiving and discharging way passengers and freight and shall take, transport and discharge such passengers and property at, from and to such places, on the due payment of the tolls, freight or fare legally authorized therefor. Failure on the part of railroad companies to comply with the requirements of this article shall be deemed an abuse of their rights and privileges and such abuse shall at once be corrected and regulated by the Railroad Commission. No railroad corporation nor any manager or receiver of any railroad shall ever abandon operation of its trains over said railroad or any part thereof, and if any railroad corporation, manager or receiver has or may hereafter abandon operation of its trains over its said railroad, or part thereof, the Railroad Commission of Texas shall at once issue its order directing said railroad corporation, manager or receiver to at once resume operation of its trains over said road or part thereof, in accordance with the orders, rules and regulations of the said Commission. [P. D. 4893; Acts 1st C. S. 1903, p. 21; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 189.]

Art. 6358. [6552] [4494] [4226] Action on abandonment.—If any railroad corporation, manager or receiver shall attempt to abandon any railroad, or part thereof, by failing to operate its trains or to resume operation of its trains over its said road, or part thereof, if the operation of trains has been abandoned, the Railroad Commission shall report the same to the Attorney General who shall at once file a suit in behalf of the State against said railroad corporation, manager or receiver in any district court of Travis County, or of any county through which said railroad may pass, for the purpose of determining whether or not said railroad corporation, manager or receiver has failed or refused to carry out the purpose of this law, and if the court shall determine that said corporation, manager or receiver has so failed or refused, said court shall appoint a receiver for the purpose of operating said railroad and carrying out the purposes of this law. The said receiver shall have no connection directly or indirectly with said railroad corporation, manager or receiver prior to the time of his appointment, but shall be a good business man well qualified to perform the duties of said receiver.

Said receiver shall collect freight and passenger rates as prescribed by said Commission and shall do and perform any and all things necessary in the operation of said trains over said road and shall report to the said court at such times as the decree of the court may prescribe, all his acts as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 6359. Effect of preceding articles.—This law shall be considered cumulative of all laws of this State now in force on this subject when not in conflict herewith, but when in conflict herewith, this law shall control; but the provisions hereof shall not apply to railroads to which the right of eminent domain is not granted under the laws of this State. [Id.]

ration or their agents so to take and transport any passengers or property, or to deliver the same, or either of them, at the regularly appointed time, such corporation shall pay to the party aggrieved all damages which shall be sustained thereby, with costs of suit; and in case of the transportation of property shall in addition pay to such party special damages at the rate of five per cent per month upon the value of the same at the time of shipment, for the negligent detention thereof beyond the time reasonably necessary for its transportation. In suits against such corporation under this law, the burden of proof shall be on such corporation to show that the delay was not negligent. [Acts 1887, p. 116; G. L. vol. 9, p. 914.]

Art. 6361. [6555] Double-decked cars for animals.—All railroad companies operating any railroad, or any part thereof, within this State, are required to provide cars with double decks for the shipment of sheep, goats, hogs and calves; the said cars must be in every way as large as those now in use upon the respective roads of this State; the distance between the floor and the second deck shall be the same as the distance between the second deck and the roof; the floor of the second deck shall be so constructed as to protect the animals beneath; and said cars must be furnished by the railroad company to any person who shall offer to ship at one time, hogs, sheep, goats or calves, in carload lots. [Acts 1887, p. 57; Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 483; G. L. vol. 9, p. 855.]

Art. 6362. [6556] Rates of freight; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company to charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, goats, hogs or calves than is charged for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses the same distance, and in the same direction; and any railroad company that shall fail or refuse to furnish double-decked cars of the dimensions prescribed in the preceding article to any person who may wish to ship as much as a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, or shall charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats or calves, than for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses for the same distance and in the same direction, shall be liable to pay to the owner or shipper of said sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages; provided, that if any railroad companies shall transport sheep, hogs, goats, and calves, on single-decked cars at one-half the price per carload charged for shipping horses, or other cattle, then the penalties prescribed in this article for failure to provide double-decked cars shall be inoperative. [Id.]

Art. 6363. [6557] Overcharge.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, in this State, its officers, agents or employes, to charge and collect or to endeavor to charge and collect from the owner, agent or consignee of any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, a greater sum for transporting said freight, goods, wares and merchandise than is specified in the bill of lading. [Acts 1899, p. 70.]

Art. 6364. [6558] Delivery on payment of charges.—Any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes, having possession of any goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, shall deliver the same to the owner, his agent or consignee, upon payment of the freight charges, as shown by the bill of lading. [Id.]

Art. 6365. [6559] Refusal to deliver freight.—If any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes shall refuse to deliver to the owner, agent or consignee, any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, upon the payment, or tender of payment, of the freight charges due as shown by the bill of lading, the said railroad company shall be liable in damages to the owner of said freight, goods, wares and merchandise, to an amount equal to the amount of freight charges, for every day said freight, goods, wares and merchandise is held after payment, or tender of payment, of the charges due as shown by the bill of lading. [Id.]

Art. 6366. Confiscating or converting freight.—No railroad company or receiver thereof, in this State shall confiscate, or otherwise convert to its own use, any carload shipment or substantial portion of any such carload shipment of any article or commodity of freight traffic received by it, or them, for transportation and delivery, without the express consent of the owner or consignee thereof, and the acts of the agents, officers and employes of such carrier or receiver within the apparent scope of their duties or authority with respect to such conversion or confiscation shall be deemed to be the acts of such railway company, receiver or other carrier. The provisions of this article shall not apply to conversion of freight where the same has been damaged or intermingled with other freight in wrecks, nor to refused or unclaimed freight, the delivery of which the railroad is unable to effect. [Acts 1917, p. 386.]

Art. 6367. Penalty.—In addition to all other remedies or penalties that may be provided by law therefor, the violation of any provision of the preceding article shall subject the railway company, or receiver or other common carrier so offending to a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars in favor of the State of Texas, and a further penalty of twice the amount of the purchase price of the converted shipment in favor of the owner or consignee thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6368. [6560-1] Badge.—Every conductor, baggage master, engineer, brakeman or other servant of such railroad corporation employed in a passenger train, or at its stations for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office and the initial letters or the style of the corporation by which he is employed. No conductor or collector without such badge shall demand or be entitled to receive from any passenger any fare, toll ticket, or exercise any power of his office, and no other of the said officers or servants, without such badge, shall have any authority to meddle or interfere with the passengers, their baggage or property.

Art. 6369. [6562] [4505] [4230] Baggage.—A check shall be affixed to every package or parcel of baggage when taken for transportation by the agent or servant of such corporation, and a duplicate thereof given to the passenger or person delivering the same on his behalf; and, if such check be refused on demand, the corporation shall pay to such passenger the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt; and further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger; and, if such passenger shall have paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the train.

Art. 6370. [6563] [4506] [4231] Signs at cross-roads.—Such corporation shall erect at all points where its road shall cross any first or second class public road, at a sufficient elevation from such public road to admit of the free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railroad and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for the cars; and any company neglecting or refusing to erect such signs shall be liable in damages for all injuries occurring to persons or property from such neglect or refusal. [P. D. 4890.]

Art. 6371. [6564] [4507] [4232] Bell and whistle.—A bell of at least thirty pounds weight and a steam whistle shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and the whistle shall be blown and the bell rung at a distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, and such bell shall be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such public road, or stopped; and each locomotive engine approaching a place where two lines of railway cross each other shall, before reaching such railway crossing be brought to a full stop; and the corporation operating such railway shall be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of any such neglect. The full stop at such crossings may be discontinued when the railroads crossing each other shall put into full operation at such crossing an interlocking switch and signal apparatus and shall keep a flagman in attendance at such crossing. [Acts 1883, p. 28; G. L. vol. 9, p. 334; Acts 1893, p. 87; G. L. vol. 10, p. 517.]

Art. 6372. [6565-6] Headlights.—Every railroad corporation or receiver or lessee thereof, operating any line of railroad in this State, shall equip all locomotive engines used in the transportation of trains over said railroad with electric or other headlights of not less than fifteen hundred candle power, measured without the aid of a reflector. This article shall not apply to locomotive engines regularly used in the switching of cars or trains. Any railroad company or the receiver or lessee thereof doing business in the State of Texas, which shall violate any provision of this article, shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such suit may be brought in the name of the State in Travis County or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General, or by the county or district attorney in any county in or through which such line of railroad may be operated; and such suit shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1907, p. 54.]

Art. 6373. [6567] Switch lights.—Every railway corporation operating any line of railway in this State shall place and maintain good and sufficient switch lights on all their main line switches connected with the main line, and keep the same lighted from sunset until sunrise. This article shall not apply to railways which have all their locomotives equipped with electric headlights, nor on railroad lines or divisions on which no trains are regularly run or operated at night. [Acts 1905, p. 77.]

Art. 6374. [6568] Derailing switches on sidings.—Every railroad corporation operating any line of railway in Texas shall place and maintain good and safe derailing switches on all of their sidings connecting with the main line of such railway and upon which siding cars are left standing. No derailing switches shall be required where the siding connects with the main line on an upgrade in the direction of the main line of one half of one per cent or over, nor on inside tracks at terminal points where regular switching crews are employed. [Id.]

Art. 6375. [6569] Penalty.—Any railway corporation which shall wilfully violate any provision of the two preceding articles shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suits therefor be brought by the Attorney General, or under his direction, in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county through which such railway may run or be operated, and such suits shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1905, p. 77.]

Art. 6376. Using tracks to make or repair cars.—No firm, corporation or receiver operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in repairing or manufacturing cars within this State, shall use any tracks not equipped with derailing devices upon which to repair or manufacture cars; such derailing devices to be provided with private locks, to be kept locked at all times when tracks are in use. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit temporary repairs to cars on tracks other than where cars are regularly repaired or manufactured. Any firm, corporation or receiver operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in repairing or manufacturing cars in this State, who shall violate this law shall forfeit and pay a penalty to the State of Texas of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day such violation shall exist shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1913, p. 334.]

Art. 6377. [6570] [4508] [4233] Forming passenger trains.—In forming a passenger train, baggage or freight, or merchandise, or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of passenger cars; and if they or any of them shall be so placed and any accident happen to life or limb, the officer or agent who so directed or knowingly suffered such arrangement and the conductor and engineer of the train shall each be held guilty of intentionally causing the injury, and be punished accordingly. [P. D. 4896.]

Art. 6378. [6571] [4517] [4234] Brakes and brakemen.—Every such company shall have a good and sufficient brake upon the hindmost car on all trains transporting passengers and merchandise, and also keep stationed there at all times a trusty and faithful brakeman, under a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State. [P. D. 4907.]

Art. 6379. Air brake inspection.—The air brakes and air brake attachment on each train in this State must be inspected by a competent inspector before such train leaves its division terminal. This article shall not apply to tram roads engaged in hauling logs to saw mills, nor to railroads under forty miles in length. Any corporation or receiver who operates or causes to be operated any such train without such inspection shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit. Each operation of any such train without such inspection first having been so made shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1911, p. 106.]

Art. 6380. [6572 to 76] Full crew.—No railroad company or receiver of any railroad company doing business in this State shall run over its road, or part of its road, outside of the yard limits:

1. Any passenger train with less than a full passenger crew consisting of four persons: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and one brakeman.

2. Any freight train, gravel train or construction train with less than a full crew consisting of five persons: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and two brakemen.

3. Any light engine without a full train crew consisting of three persons: one engineer, one fireman and one conductor.

4. The provisions of this article shall not apply to nor include any railroad company or receiver thereof, of any line of railroad in this State, less than twenty miles in length; and nothing in subdivisions one and two hereof shall apply in case of disability of one or more of any train crew while out on the road between division terminals, or to switching crews in charge of yard engines, or which may be required to push trains out of the yard limits.

Any such company or receiver which shall violate any provision of this article shall be liable to this State for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Suit for such penalty shall be brought in Travis County or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General, or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any county in or through which such railroad may be operated. Such suits shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1909, p. 179.]

Art. 6381. [6577 to 6580] Ash pans.—No common carrier engaged in moving commerce in this State by railroad shall use in moving such commerce in this State any locomotive not equipped with an ash pan which can be dumped or emptied and cleaned without the necessity of any employé going under such locomotive. This article shall not apply to any locomotive upon which an ash pan is not necessary by reason of the use of oil, electricity or other such agency in such locomotive. Any such common carrier which shall violate the provisions of this article shall be liable to this State for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of this State in Travis County or in any county into or through which such carrier may be operating a line of railroad. Such suit may be brought by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any such county. The same compensation shall be allowed the attorney bringing such suit as provided in Article 6477. "Common carrier" as used in this article shall include the receiver or other person or corporation charged with the duty of managing and operating the business of a common carrier. [Acts 1909, p. 67.]

Art. 6382. [6709] Brakes.—No railroad engaged in intrastate commerce within this State shall use on its lines in moving intrastate traffic within said State any locomotive engine not equipped with a power driving wheel brake and appliances for operating the train brake system, or run any train in such traffic that has not sufficient number of cars in it so equipped with power or train brakes that the engineer on the locomotive drawing such train can control its speed without requiring brakemen to use the common hand brake for that purpose, nor run any train in such traffic that has not all of the power or train brakes in it used and operated by such engineer, nor run any train in such traffic that has not at least seventy-five per centum of the cars in it equipped with power or train brakes; and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect the objects of this and the five succeeding articles, the Commission may from time to time, after full hearing by public order, increase the minimum percentage of cars in any train which shall be equipped with power or train brakes; and after such minimum percentage has been so increased, it shall be unlawful for any common carrier to run any train in such traffic which does not comply with such increased minimum percentage. [Acts 1909, p. 64.]

Art. 6383. [6710] Improved couplers.—No common carrier engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall haul or permit to be hauled or used on its line of railroad within this State, any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle employed in moving intrastate traffic within this State which is not equipped with couplers, coupling automatically by impact and which can be coupled and uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the ends of locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles. [Id.]

Art. 6384. [6711] Drawbar of engine.—No common carrier engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall use in moving intrastate traffic within this State any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle, any drawbar of which, when measured perpendicularly from the level of the tops of the track rails upon which such locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle is standing to the center of such draw bar more than thirty-four and one-half inches in height. [Id.]

Art. 6385. [6712] May refuse rolling stock.—When any person, firm, company, corporation or receiver engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall have equipped a sufficient number of its locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles so as to comply with the provisions of this title, it may lawfully refuse to receive from connecting lines of road or shippers, any locomotives, tenders, cars, or similar vehicles not equipped with such power or train brakes as will work and readily interchange with the brakes in use on its own locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles as required by law.

Art. 6386. [6713] Rolling stock.—No common carrier, engaged in commerce as aforesaid, shall use in moving intrastate traffic within this State any locomotive, tender, cars, or similar vehicle which is not provided with sufficient and secure grab irons, hand holds and foot stirrups. [Id.]

Art. 6387. [6714] Penalty.—Every such common carrier, whether a co-partnership, a corporation, a receiver or an individual or association of individuals, violating any of the provisions of the five preceding articles shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the County or district attorney in the county in which the suit is brought, and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the State, and the fees and compensation so allowed shall not be accounted for under the general fee law.

Art. 6388. [6646] No risk assumed.—Any employé of any common carrier engaged in any intrastate commerce, as provided in the six preceding articles who may be injured or killed shall not be held to have assumed the risk of his employment, or to have been guilty of contributory negligence, if the violation by such common carrier of any provision of said articles contributed to the injury or death of such employé. [Id.]

Art. 6389. [6581-2-3] Provision for employés.—Every person, corporation, or receiver, engaged in constructing or repairing railroad cars, trucks or other railroad equipment, shall erect and maintain a building or shed at every station or other point where as many a [as] five men are regularly employed on such repair work, the building or shed to cover a sufficient portion of its track so as to provide that all men regularly employed in the construction and repair of cars, trucks, or other railroad equipment shall be sheltered and protected from inclement weather. The provisions of this article shall not apply at points where less than five men are regularly employed in the repair service, nor at division terminals, nor other points where it is necessary to make light repairs only on cars, nor to cars loaded with time or perishable freight, nor to cars when trains are being held for the movement of said cars. Any person, corporation or receiver who shall violate any provisions of this article shall pay to the State a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. Each ten days of such failure or refusal to so comply shall be considered a separate infraction authorizing the recovery of a separate penalty. Suit for recovery of penalty hereunder shall be brought by the Attorney General or by the county or district attorney of the county in which suit is brought, and the county or district attorney, as the case may be, shall receive a fee of ten per cent upon each penalty recovered and collected by him, and said fee shall be over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 123.]

Art. 6390. [6584] Sixteen hours.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, operating any line of railroad in whole or in part in this State, or any officer or agent of such railroad company or receiver to require or permit any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours; and whenever any such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours, he shall be relieved and shall not be required or permitted again to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty; and no such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty. [Acts 1909, p. 180.]

Art. 6391. [6585] Penalties.—Any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad, operating a line of railroad in whole or in part in this State, or any officer or agent of such railroad or receiver who shall violate any provision of the preceding article shall be liable to a penalty to the State of not to exceed five hundred dollars for each violation. Suit for such penalty shall be brought in the name of the State in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such railroad may run, and may be brought either by the Attorney General, or under his direction, or by the county attorney or district attorney of any county or judicial district into or through which such railroad may pass, and such attorney bringing any such suit shall be entitled to one-third of any penalty recovered therein. In all prosecutions under this and the preceding article against any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, such company or receiver shall be deemed to have had knowledge of all acts of all of its officers and agents. The provisions of this and the preceding article shall not apply in any case of casualty or unavoidable accident, or the Act of God; nor where the delay was the result of a cause not known to the carrier or its officer or agent in charge of any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman at the time such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman left a terminal, and which act could not have been foreseen; nor to crews of wrecking or relief trains. [Id.]

Art. 6392. [6588] [4518] [4235] Carrying mail.—Every such corporation shall, when applied to by the Postmaster General, convey the mail of the United States on its road or roads; and in case such corporation shall not agree as to the rate of transportation therefor, and as to the time, rate of speed, manner and condition of conveying the same, the Governor shall appoint three commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after fifteen days written notice to the corporation of the time and place of meeting, shall determine and fix the prices, terms and conditions aforesaid; but such price shall not be less for conveying such mails in the regular passenger trains than the amount which such corporation would receive as freight on a like weight of merchandise transported in their merchandise trains and fair compensation for the post-office car; and if the Postmaster General shall require the mail to be carried at other hours, or at a higher speed than the passenger train be run at, the corporation shall furnish an extra train for the mail, and be allowed an extra compensation for the expenses and wear and tear thereof and for the service, to be fixed as aforesaid. [P. D. 4903.]

Art. 6393. [6589] [4519] [4236] Freight depots.—Railroad companies shall erect at each depot, station, or place established by such company for the reception and delivery of freight, suitable buildings or inclosures to protect produce, goods, wares, and merchandise and freight of every description from damage by exposure to weather, stock or otherwise; in default of which such railroad company shall be liable to the owner of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise for the amount of damages or loss sustained by reason of such improper exposure, together with all costs and expenses of recovering the same, including necessary attorneys' fees. [P. D. 4925.]

Art. 6394. [6590] [4520] [4237] Storage.—Railroad companies shall in no case be allowed to charge storage upon freight received by them for delivery, unless the owner or consignee thereof neglect to remove it from the depot of the company within three days after notice of its reception; which notice may be given by posting the same on the depot door; and, after the expiration of such time, the company may remove and store said freight at the expense of the owner or consignee, and said freight shall be held liable for the freight and charges due thereon. [P. D. 4923.]

Art. 6395. [6591] [4521] [4238] Passenger depots.—Every railroad company doing business in this State shall keep its depots or passenger houses in this State lighted and warmed, and opened to the ingress and egress of all passengers who are entitled to go therein, for a time not less than one hour before the arrival and after the departure of all trains carrying passengers on such railroad; and every such railroad company, for each failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this article shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas, the sum of fifty dollars, and shall be liable to the party injured for all damages by reason of such failure. [Acts 1891, p. 29; Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 483, No. 89; G. L. vol. 10, p. 31.]

Art. 6396. [6592] Water closets.—All railroad and railway corporations operating a line of railway in this State for the transportation of passengers thereon are required to construct and maintain, and keep in a reasonably clean and sanitary condition, suitable and separate water closets or privies for both male and female persons at each passenger station on its line of railway, either within its passenger depot or in connection therewith, or within a reasonable and convenient distance therefrom, at such station for the accommodation of its passengers who are received and discharged from its cars thereat, and of its patrons and employes who have business with such railroads and corporations at such stations. [Acts 1905, p. 324; Acts 1909, p. 175.]

Art. 6397. [6593] Separate closets.—They shall keep said water closets and depot grounds adjacent thereto well lighted at such hours in the night time as its passengers and patrons at such stations may have occasion to be at the same, either for the purpose of taking passage on its trains, or waiting for the arrival thereof, or after leaving the same for at least thirty minutes before the schedule time for the arrival of its train and after the arrival thereof at said station. [Id.]

Art. 6398. [6594] Penalties.—Any railroad or railway corporation which fails, neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of the two preceding articles shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas the sum of fifty dollars for each week it so fails and neglects. The county attorney of the county in which such station is located, and in case there is no such county attorney, then the attorney of the district including said county, shall, upon credible information furnished him, institute suits in the name of the State of Texas against such defaulting railroad or railway corporation for the recovery of said penalties; and, in case of said recovery, the said attorney shall be entitled to one-fourth the amount thereof as commission for his said services, and the remainder thereof shall be paid into the road and bridge fund of said county. The State shall in no event be liable for any costs in such suit. [Id.]

Art. 6399. [6595] [4522] [4239] Switch cars.—When a company constructs a switch on its road for the accommodation of freighters, they shall be bound to furnish a sufficient number of cars for the transportation of freight therefrom when requested to do so, and in default shall be subject to the same penalties as in other cases of neglect of the like character.

Art. 6400. [6596 to 6600] Cattle-guards.—Every railroad company whose railroad passes through a field or inclosure, shall place a good and sufficient cattle-guard or stop at the points of entering such field or inclosure, and keep them in good repair. If such field or inclosure shall be enlarged or extended, or the owner of any land over which a railway runs shall clear and open a field so as to embrace the track of a railway, such railroad company shall place good and sufficient cattle-guards or stops at the margins of such extended inclosures or fields or such new fields and keep the same in repair. Such cattle-guards or stops shall be so constructed and kept in repair as to protect such fields and inclosures from the depredations of stock of every description. If such company fails to construct and keep in repair such cattle-guards and stops, the owner of such inclosure or field may have such cattle-guards and stops placed at the proper places and kept in repair, and may recover the costs thereof from such railroad company, unless it be shown that said enlargement or extension was made capriciously and with intent to annoy and molest such company. If any company neglects to construct the proper cattle-guards and stops and keep the same in repair as required in this article, such company shall be liable to the party injured by such neglect for all damages that may result from such neglect, to be recovered by suit. [Acts 1860, p. 64; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1426; P. D. 4925.]

Art. 6401. [6601-2] Johnson grass and thistle.—If any railroad or railway company or corporation doing business in this State shall permit any

Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon any right of way owned, leased or controlled by it, any person owning, leasing or controlling land contiguous to said right of way shall recover twenty-five dollars by suit from such company or corporation, and any additional sum as he may have been damaged by reason of said grass or said thistle being permitted to so mature or go to seed; provided that any person owning or controlling land contiguous to said right of way who permits any said grass or thistle to mature or go to seed upon said land shall have no right to such recovery. [Acts 1901, p. 283.]

Art. 6402. [6603] [4528] [4245] Killing stock.—Each railroad company shall be liable to the owner for the value of all stock killed or injured by the locomotives and cars of such railroad company in running over their respective railways. Such liability shall also exist in counties and subdivisions of counties which adopt the stock law prohibiting the running at large of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle. If said company fence its road it shall only be liable for injury resulting from a want of ordinary care. [Acts 1905, p. 226; P. D. 4926.]

Art. 6403. Report of animals killed.—Whenever an animal is killed or found dead upon the railroad or right of way of any railroad company in this State, the section foreman of the railroad where said animal is killed or found dead, shall make a description of such animal, stating its kind, the marks and brands, color and apparent age, and any other description that may serve to identify said animal, which description must be made before said animal is buried or otherwise disposed of, and shall send same to the county clerk of the county in which said animal is found or killed within ten days from the date of finding or killing, which description shall be by said county clerk filed and kept of record in his office without exacting any fees from said section foreman for filing same. A certified copy of said report so filed may be introduced in evidence in any case wherein the killing, death or value of said animal is in question. [Acts 1915, p. 126.]

Art. 6404. [6604-5-6] Consolidation of railroad corporations.—“Railroad corporation,” or “other corporation,” as used in this article shall mean any corporation, company, person or association of persons, who own or control, manage or operate any line of railroad in this State. No railroad corporation or other corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any railroad corporation, shall consolidate the stocks, property, works or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the stocks, property, works or franchises of any railroad corporation owning or having under its control or management a competing or parallel line; nor shall any officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of such railroad corporation act or become an officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of any other corporation in leasing or purchasing any parallel or competing line. No railroad company organized under the laws of this State shall consolidate, by private or judicial sale or otherwise, with any railroad company organized under the laws of any other State, or of the United States. [Acts 1887, p. 137; G. L. vol. 9, p. 935; Const. art. 10, sec. 6.]

Art. 6405. [6607] [4532] [4248] Map and profile of road.—Every such corporation shall, within a reasonable time after their road shall be located, cause to be made:

1. A map and profile thereof, and of the land taken or obtained for the use thereof, and file the same in the office of the Railroad Commission. Every such map shall be drawn on a scale and on paper to be designated by the Railroad Commission and certified and signed by the president of the corporation.

2. A certificate specifying the line upon which it is proposed to construct the railroad and the grades and curves, certified and signed and filed as aforesaid.

3. Any railroad company failing or refusing to comply with any provision of this article shall forfeit to the State of Texas any sum not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; and each day such railroad company fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1893, p. 169; G. L. vol. 10, p. 599.]

Art. 6406. [6675] [4579] Contract of connecting lines.—Any two connecting railroads may enter into a contract whereby any part or all the passengers, freight or cars, empty or loaded, hauled or transported by one and destined to points on or beyond the line of the other, shall be delivered to, received and transported by the other, which contract, however, shall be submitted to the Commission for examination and approval, and when so approved shall be binding, but if said contract be not approved by the Commission, the same shall be void. Any connecting line delivering freight to the owner or consignee of such freight may be sued by the owner thereof in the county where the freight is delivered for any damage that may be done to such freight in its transportation. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6407. [6608] [4535] [4251] Freight and passengers from connecting lines.—All railway companies doing business in this State shall be and they are hereby required to receive from all railway companies with which they may connect at the State line of this State, or at any place within this State, or at any or all places where they may cross the line of any other railway doing business, or operating a line of railway in this State, all freights and passengers coming to it from such connecting line, and destined to points on its line, or to points beyond its line or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the next connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against the line from which such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such line for like or similar service against any other railway in or out of this State with which it does business; provided, however, that the words “without delay or discrimination,” as used herein, are hereby declared to mean that the freight received for transportation as herein required shall be shipped in the order in which it is received, giving preference in all cases to live stock and other perishable freight in the order received; and the charges for the business required by this article to be interchanged shall be no greater pro rata per cent per mile for freight, and no greater rate per mile for passengers and baggage, than is charged to any other line for transporting like freight and passengers and baggage, or than it accepts for itself when transported wholly on its own line, no matter on what part the line or in what direction the transporting is done. [Acts 1887, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 908.]

Art. 6408. [6609] [4536] [4252] What are connecting lines.—Whenever any two or more railroads doing business in this State shall connect with each other by crossing each other's tracks or otherwise so as to form a continuous or connected line from one point in the State to another point in this State, such lines so crossing are hereby declared to be connecting lines; and when such connecting lines receive from any other railway or transportation line passengers or freight for transportation over the combined line at a rate or division agreed upon between themselves and such other railway or transportation line from which the business is received as aforesaid, then, in every such case, it shall be the duty of such connecting railways forming such through line, and of either or both of them, to receive from every other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them may connect by crossing of track or otherwise, all passengers or freight that may be destined to points on either of the lines making up such combined line, and transport the same to the point of destination, if on such combined lines, or either of them, or to the next connection or crossing in the direction of the destination of such freight or passengers, without delay or discrimination, and at no greater rate than is paid, and on the same conditions as is or shall be required by such combined line for like or similar services from any other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them shall interchange business. [Id.]

Art. 6409. [6610] [4537] [4253] Terms, etc.—Every railroad, or person, or corporation, operating a railway for the carriage of freight and passengers in this State shall receive freight, passengers and baggage for transportation to or into this State, or through any part thereof, from every other connecting railway, upon the same terms and conditions as to the division of charges for carrying or transporting the same upon a mileage, or any other basis, and upon terms and conditions as to bills of lading, way bills, tickets, coupon tickets and baggage checks, that any such person or corporation, or transportation line may receive or contract to receive from any other person or corporation engaged in like business in this State; and, where railroads within this State receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be the first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another; and in case of failure to do so they shall be liable for all loss occurring while the goods remain, and for all damage occasioned or in anywise resulting from delay; provided that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of bill of lading, and as having ended upon the arrival of freight at point of destination, and written notices served upon the consignee that it is ready for delivery upon payment of freight and charges. If the consignee of the goods fails to receive them promptly after such notice is served, the liability of the railroads thereafter shall be the same as that of warehousemen. [Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6410. [6611] Water craft freight.—Each railway company doing business in this State shall be required to receive from all steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, at their usual places for receiving such freights at the several ports on the coast of Texas, and on the inland waterways in this State, all freights and passengers coming to it from such steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, and destined to points on its line or to points beyond its line, or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against such steamship line, steamboat owner or company, or the owner of any other water craft or other vessels from whom such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such railway company for like or similar service with any other person, steamboat company, steamship company or owners, or any other water craft or vessel, with which it does business at such points or stations as aforesaid. [Acts 1899, p. 101.]

Art. 6411. [6612-13] Penalty.—If any railroad company doing business in this State shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any steamship line or company or with any steamboat line or company, or any other watercraft or vessel on the same terms and conditions, or for the same compensation or pro rata that it interchanges business with any other steamship line or company, steamboat line or company, or any other water craft or vessel, it shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this chapter; and shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, to be collected in the manner and in the courts as prescribed for the collection of other penalties in Article 6477, and in addition thereto shall forfeit and pay to the corporation, person or persons aggrieved thereby, the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each act of discrimination or violation of this law which may be recovered in the name of the corporation, person or persons so suing. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any damages by an aggrieved person, firm, or corporation accruing by reason of the violation of this article. This and the preceding article shall not have the effect to relieve or waive any right of action by the State, or any other person, firm or corporation for any right, penalty or forfeiture which has arisen, or may arise, under any law of this State. All penalties accruing under said articles shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Id.]

Art. 6412. [6414] [4538] [4254] Trustee for connecting lines.—Every railway which may interchange business with any other connecting railway under the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise, is hereby declared to be a trustee for such connecting railway to the extent of all sums of money received by it for the joint business interchanged between them, and which may properly belong to such other railway. Such sums of money shall be due and payable from one connecting line to the other once every ninety days; and each connecting railway shall have a lien upon the property and franchises of the connecting railways to the extent of the balance due each quarter, which lien shall be superior to all other liens upon said property and franchises, save and except laborers liens as already provided by law, and may be enforced in any court of this State having jurisdiction by law of the subject matter and the parties. [Acts 1887, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 908.]

Art. 6413. [6615] [4539] [4255] Refusal to interchange.—If any railway company doing business in this State shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any other railway company, or shall fail or refuse to interchange business on the same terms or for the same pro rata that it interchanges business with any other railway company in this State, or shall fail or refuse to honor or receive the tickets, coupon tickets, way bills or baggage checks of any connecting railway upon the same terms and conditions that it receives or honors the tickets, coupon tickets, way bills, or baggage checks of any other railway company, or shall violate in any manner any other provision of this and the three preceding articles, such railway company shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this title, and shall forfeit and pay to the person or corporation aggrieved thereby the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each act of discrimination or violation of this law, which may be recovered in the name of the person or corporation so suing. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any other damages by any aggrieved person, firm or corporation, occurring by reason of the violation of this or the three preceding articles. [Acts 1887, p. 112; G. L. vol. 9, p. 910.]

Art. 6414. [6616-17] Service for express business.—Every railroad company operating a railroad within this State shall furnish reasonable and equal facilities and accommodations, and upon reasonable and equal rates, to all corporations and persons engaged in the express business, for the transportation of themselves, agents, servants, merchandise and other property, and for the use of their cars, depots, buildings and grounds and for exchanges at points of junction with other roads. Any railroad company which shall fail to comply with the provisions hereof shall be liable to the aggrieved party, in an action for damages; and such railway company, in addition to liability to said action for damages, shall be subject to a writ of mandamus, to be issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel compliance with the provisions of this article. The said writ of mandamus shall issue at the instance of any party or corporation aggrieved by a violation hereof, and any violation of said writ shall be punishable as a contempt. [Id.]

Art. 6415. [6637-38] Ticket agent.—Each railroad company doing business in this State, or the receiver of any such railroad company, through their duly authorized officers, shall provide each agent who may be authorized to sell tickets, or other evidences, entitling the holder to travel upon any such railroad, with a certificate setting forth the authority of such agent to make such sale. Such certificate shall be duly attested by the corporate seal of such railroad company, or the signature of the receiver, if any there be, of such railroad company, or by the signature of the officer whose name is signed upon the tickets or coupons which such agent may be authorized to sell. Each such ticket agent shall keep said certificate posted in a conspicuous place in his office, and upon demand shall exhibit it to any person desiring to purchase a ticket, or to any officer of the law. [Acts 1893, p. 97; Acts 1903, p. 162; G. L. vol. 10, p. 527.]

Art. 6416. [6618] [4542] Passenger fare.—The passenger fare upon all railroads in this State shall be three cents per mile, with an allowance of baggage to each passenger not to exceed one hundred pounds in weight; provided, however, that, where the fare is paid to the conductor, the rate shall be four cents per mile, except from stations where no tickets are sold, and that the minimum charges in no case shall be less than twenty-five cents; and provided, further that when the passenger fare does not end in five or naught, the nearest sum so ending shall be the fare; provided, that in no case shall children under ten years of age be charged a higher rate of fare than two cents per mile. Railroads shall be required to keep their ticket offices open for half an hour prior to the departure of trains, and upon failure to do so they shall not charge more than three cents per mile. [Acts 1883, p. 70; G. L. vol. 9, p. 376.]

Art. 6417. [6746 to 6753] Separate coaches.—1. Every railway company, street car company, and interurban railway company, lessee, manager, or receiver thereof, doing business in this State as a common carrier of passengers for hire, shall provide separate coaches or compartments, as hereinafter provided, for the accommodation of white and negro passengers, which separate coaches or compartments shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience.

2. "Negro" defined.—The term "negro" as used herein, includes every person of African descent as defined by the statutes of this State.

3. "Separate coach" defined.—Each compartment of a railroad coach divided by good and substantial wooden partitions with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this law, and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart; and each compartment of a street car or interurban car divided by a board or marker placed in a conspicuous place, bearing appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart, shall be sufficient as a separate compartment within the meaning of this law.

4. Penalty.—Any railway company, street car company, or interurban railroad company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, which shall fail to provide its cars bearing passengers with separate coaches or compartments, as above provided for, shall be liable for each failure to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State; and each trip run with such train or street car or interurban car without such separate coach or compartment shall be deemed a separate offense.

5. Exceptions.—This article shall not apply to any excursion train or street car or interurban car as such for the benefit of either race, nor to such freight trains as carry passengers in cabooses, nor be so construed as to prevent railroad companies from hauling sleeping cars, dining or cafe cars or chair cars attached to their trains to be used exclusively by either race, separately but not jointly, or to prevent nurses from traveling in any coach or compartment with their employer, or employes upon the train or cars in the discharge of their duty.

6. Law to be posted.—Every railroad company carrying passengers in this State shall keep this law posted in a conspicuous place in each passenger depot and each passenger coach provided in this law.

7. Duty of conductor.—Conductors of passenger trains, street cars, or interurban lines provided with separate coaches shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach or compartment in which they are not entitled to ride under the provisions of this law, and the conductor in charge of the train or street car or interurban car shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to remove from a coach or street car, or interurban car, any passenger not entitled to ride therein under the provisions of this law. [Acts 1891, p. 44; Acts 1907, p. 58; G. L. vol. 10, p. 46.]

Art. 6418. [6633-4] Failure to build and equip.—If any railroad corporation organized under this title shall not within two years after its articles of association shall be filed and recorded as provided in this title, begin the construction of its road, and construct, equip and put in good running order at least ten miles of its proposed road, and, if any such railroad corporation, after the first two years, shall fail to construct, equip and put into good running order at least twenty additional miles of its road each and every succeeding year until the entire completion of its line, such corporation shall, in either of such cases, forfeit its corporate existence, and its powers shall cease as far as relates to that portion of said road then unfinished, and shall be incapable of resumption by any subsequent act of incorporation. The provisions of this article shall not apply to or in any manner affect railway companies incorporated for the construction and operation of urban, suburban and belt railroads for a distance of less than ten miles, as provided in Chapter 1 of this title; provided, that all such companies shall, within twelve months from the date of their charter, complete a portion of their road and commence and continue the running of the cars thereon. This article shall apply as well to branch lines as to main lines of railroads. [Acts 1876, pp. 143, 149, G. L. vol. 8, pp. 979, 985; Acts 1879, S. S. p. 47; G. L. vol. 9, p. 79; Acts 1889, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1045.]

Art. 6418a. Relief to railway corporations failing to construct roads.—Sec. 1. That the time in which any railway corporation chartered under the laws of the State of Texas since the first day of January, 1892, or the charter of which has been amended since that date, is required to begin construction of its road and construct, equip and put the same in good running order as required by Article 6418 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, be and the same hereby is, as to any unfinished portion of such road, extended two years from the taking effect of this Act; and any railroad company having been chartered since January first, 1892, or the charter to which has been amended since said date, which shall have forfeited its corporate existence, or any of its rights and powers, or is about to do so, by reason of the failure to comply with said Article 6418, or any part of said Article, shall have restored and preserved to it, its corporate existence and it shall have and enjoy all the corporate franchises, property rights and powers held or acquired by it previous to any cause of forfeiture as aforesaid; provided that no railway company which shall be revived or the time extended by virtue of this Act, shall claim or exercise any franchise not allowed, granted or permitted to other railway corporations under the law as now in force in this State.

Sec. 2. Any railway corporation chartered since the first day of January, A. D., 1892, and which by its original charter or by amendment thereto, filed since said first day of January, A. D., 1892, has further provided for the locating, constructing, maintaining, owning and operating of any extension or branch line or lines of railway and which has failed or is about to fail to complete the same, or any part thereof, within the time required by law, shall, upon payment of all its franchise tax, be and is hereby restored to and granted all and singular the rights, privileges and franchises acquired by its original charter, or by such amendment to its articles of incorporation, as if the same was filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State on the day of and taking effect of this Act, and such corporation shall, upon payment of its franchise tax, be and is hereby authorized to project, complete, construct, own and operate any such extension and branch line or lines of railway under and as provided for in its charter or in any amendment to its articles of incorporation; provided, that such extension and branch line of railway shall be by such corporation completed and put in good running order at the rate of at least ten miles in two years from the taking effect of this Act, and twenty additional miles for each and every year thereafter, until all the branch line or lines of extension as provided for are completed; provided that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any railroad company which has been chartered by the State of Texas for a period of ten years or more, and which has twenty miles or less of railroad to build in order to comply with its original charter, or any amendment thereto. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 357, ch. 240.]

Art. 6419. [6636] [4560] [4280] Neglect to make annual report.—Any railroad corporation which shall neglect to make the annual report required by this title to the Comptroller or Governor and which has been notified by the Comptroller or Governor of such failure and shall still neglect to make such report within three months after such notice shall forfeit its charter.

Article 6420. [6619] [4543] [4259] Subject to execution.—The rolling stock and all other movable property belonging to any railroad company or corporation shall be considered personal property. Its real and personal property or any part thereof shall be liable to execution and sale in the same manner as the property of individuals, and no such property shall be exempt from execution and sale. [Const. art. 10, sec. 4.]

Art. 6421. [6624] [4549] [4260] Roads sold for debts.—In case of the sale of the property and franchises of a railroad company, whether by virtue of an execution, order of sale, deed of trust, or any other power, or by a receiver acting under judgment heretofore or to be hereafter rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, and associates, if any, shall acquire full title to such property and franchises, with full power to maintain and operate the railroad and other property incident to it, under the restrictions imposed by law; provided, that said purchaser or purchasers, and associates, if any, shall not be deemed to be the owners of the charter of the railroad company and corporations under the same, nor vested with the powers, rights, privileges and benefits of such charter ownership as if they were the original corporators of said company, unless the purchaser or purchasers, and associates, if any, shall agree to take and hold said property and franchises charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and for personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company, and by any receiver thereof, and for loss of and damage to property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company and by any receiver thereof, and for the current expenses of such operation, including labor, supplies and repairs; provided that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of said property and franchises or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed or when the sale was made, in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within the two years; such agreement to be evidenced by a written instrument signed and acknowledged by said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Such charter, together with the powers, rights and privileges and benefits thereof, shall pass to said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, subject to the provisions and limitations imposed and to be imposed by law. The amount of stock and bonds which may be held against said property and franchises, after the sale thereof, as well as the manner of issuance of such stock and bonds shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas at its discretion save that the total incumbrance secured by the lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by Article 6521. [Acts 1910, 4th C. S. p. 120.]

Art. 6422. [6625] [4550] New corporation, how formed.—In case of a sale of the property and franchises of a railroad company within this State the purchaser or purchasers thereof and associates, if any, may form a corporation under the first chapter of this title, for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating the road so purchased; as if such road were the road intended to be constructed by the corporation; and, when such charter has been filed, the new corporation shall have the powers and privileges then conferred by the laws of this State upon chartered railroads, including the power to construct and extend. The property and franchises so purchased shall be charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold out company and by any receiver thereof and for loss of and damage to the property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold out company and by any receiver thereof and for the current expenses of such operation including labor, supplies and repairs, provided that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of such property and franchises, or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed, or when the sale was made; in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within two years; and provided, that by such purchase and organization no right shall be acquired in conflict with the present Constitution and laws, in any respect, nor shall the main track of any railroad once constructed and operated be abandoned or moved. The amount of stock and bonds which may be issued by said new corporation, as well as the manner of their issuance, shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas at its discretion, save that the total encumbrance secured by lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by Article 6521 of the Revised Statutes of Texas. This and the preceding article shall not be construed to in anywise repeal or impair the provisions of Chapter 12 of this Title except in so far as the same may be changed thereby. [Acts 1889, p. 19; Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 120; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1047.]

Art. 6423. [6626] [4551] Jurisdiction.—No railway company availing itself of any of the privileges herein provided shall claim to be under the jurisdiction of the Federal courts by reason thereof; and any railway company which may avail itself of the said privileges which shall claim to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal courts in pursuance of this article shall ipso facto forfeit its reorganization and be remanded to the same condition as it was prior to said reorganization. [Id.]

Art. 6424. [6627] [4552] [4261] Sale under deed of trust.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights and privileges of any railroad company is made by virtue of any deed of trust or power, the same shall be made at the time and place mentioned in the deed of trust or power and in accordance with the provisions of the same as to notice, and in other respects; and if the same be not specified, such sale shall be made as hereinafter provided for sales under execution or order of sale. [P. D. 4913; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 73, ch. 48, § 1.]

Art. 6425. [6628] [4553] [4262] Judgment, execution, etc.—Whenever judgment is rendered against any railroad company, execution shall issue thereon and be levied and collected as in other civil causes, except that when the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of said railroad company is levied upon, the levy and sale must take place in the county where the principal office of such company is situated, and the entire roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of such company shall be levied upon and sold. The provisions of this article shall be observed so far as they are applicable in all cases where, by any decree of a competent court, a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of any railroad company is directed to be made. [P. D. 4914.]

Art. 6426. [6629] [4554] [4263] Unpaid stock subscriptions.—The sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights, as herein provided, shall not be held to pass or convey to the purchaser any right or claim to recover from the former stockholders of said company any sums which may remain due upon their subscriptions of stock, but the said stockholders shall continue liable to pay the same in discharge and liquidation of the debts due by the sold out company, as hereinafter provided. [P. D. 4915.]

Art. 6427. [6630] [4555] [4264] Old directors to be trustees.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges is made as hereinbefore provided (unless other persons shall be appointed by the Legislature or by some court of competent authority), the directors or managers of the sold out company at the time of the sale, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be trustees of the creditors and stockholders of the sold out company, and shall have full power to settle the affairs of the sold out company, collect and pay outstanding debts, and divide among the stockholders the money and other property that shall remain after the payment of the debts and other necessary expenses; and the persons so constituted trustees shall have authority to sue by the name of the trustees of such sold out company, and may be sued as such, and shall be jointly and severally responsible to all creditors and stockholders of such company, to the extent of its property and effects that shall come to their hands. [P. D. 4916.]

Art. 6428. [6631] [4556] [4265] Suits not to abate.—No suit pending for or against any railroad company at the time that the sale may be made of its roadbed, track, franchise and chartered privileges shall abate, but the same shall be continued in the name of the trustees of the sold out company. [Id.]

Art. 6429. [6632] [4557] [4266] Law not to apply to State loans, etc.—The provisions of this law shall not apply to any debt, execution or deed of trust held by the State against any railroad company because of any loan made by the State to any company under the provisions of the Act to provide for the investment of the special school fund, or any other law which authorizes the loan of money to railroad companies, nor shall any creditor of any railroad company be allowed to make the State a party to any suit brought for the enforcement of any debt, mortgage or deed of trust or lien on any railroad, or permitted to require the State to foreclose any lien which it may have had upon any road, but the lien of the State and its right to enforce the same shall continue as if this law had never been passed, and as if no sale had been made under the provisions of the same. [P. D. 4917.]

Art. 6430. [6620-1-2] Reducing wages.—All persons in the employment of such railway company shall receive thirty full days notice from said company immediately prior to the day upon which a reduction is to take effect before their wages shall be reduced. In all cases of reduction the employé shall be entitled to receive from such company wages at his contract price for the full term of thirty days after such notice is given. Said notice may be given by posting written or printed handbills, specifying the parties whose wages are to be reduced and the amount of such reduction, in at least three conspicuous places in or about each shop, section house, station, depot, train or other place where said employés are at work; provided, such employé shall, within fifteen days from the date of such notice, inform such railway company, by posting like notices as given by such railway company, whether or not he will accept such reduction; and, if no such information is given such company by such employé, then such employé shall forfeit his right to such notice and such reduction shall take effect from the date of such notice, instead of at the expiration of thirty days. Any railway company violating or evading any provision of this article shall pay to each employé affected thereby one month's extra wages. [Acts 1887, p. 20; G. L. vol. 9, p. 818.]

Art. 6431. [6623] [4547] Discharged employé.—When a railroad company shall discharge an employé, or when the time of service of such employé shall expire, or when a railroad company shall be due and owing an employé, such railroad company, upon discharge, or upon the termination of the term of such service, or upon maturity of said indebtedness, shall, within fifteen days after the demand therefor upon the nearest station agent of said railroad company, pay to such employé the full amount due and owing him. If said railroad company fails or refuses to pay such employé, then it shall be liable to pay to such employé twenty per cent on the amount due him, as damages, in addition to the amount so due, in no case the damages to be less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1887, p. 72; G. L. vol. 9, p. 870.]

Art.

6440. Contributory negligence.
6441. Assumed risk.
6442. Contract changing liability void.
6443. Articles of this chapter construed.

Article 6432. [6640] Injury to fellow servant.—Every person, receiver, or corporation operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this State, shall be liable for all damages sustained by any servant or employé thereof while engaged in the work of operating the cars, locomotives or trains of such person, receiver, or corporation, by reason of the negligence of any other servant or employé of such person, receiver or corporation, and the fact that such servants or employés were fellow-servants with each other shall not impair or destroy such liability. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 14; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1454.]

Art. 6433. [6641] Who are vice-principals.—All persons engaged in the service of any person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this State, who are intrusted by such person, receiver, or corporation with the authority of superintendence, control or command of the other servants or employés of such person, receiver, or corporation, with the authority to direct any other employé in the performance of any duty of such employé, are vice-principals of such person, receiver, or corporation, and are not fellow-servants with their co-employés. [Id.]

Art. 6434. [6642] "Fellow-servants."—All persons who are engaged in the common service of such person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, and who while so employed are in the same grade of employment and are doing the same character of work or service, and are working together at the same time and place, and at the same piece of work and to a common purpose, are fellow-servants with each other. Employés who do not come within the provisions of this article shall not be considered fellow-servants. [Id.]

Art. 6435. [6643] Contract limiting liability void.—No contract made between the employer and employé based upon the contingency of death or injury of the employé and limiting the liability of the employer under the preceding articles of this chapter, or fixing damages to be recovered, shall be valid or binding. [Id.]

Art. 6436. [6644] Contributory negligence.—Nothing in the preceding articles of this chapter shall be held to impair or diminish the defense of contributory negligence when the injury of the servant or employé is caused proximately by his own contributory negligence, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Art. 6437. [6645] Assumed risk.—The plea of assumed risk shall not be available as a bar to recovery of damages in any suit brought in any court of this State against any corporation, receiver or other person, operating any railroad, interurban railway or street railway in this State for the recovery of damages for the death or personal injury of any employé or servant caused by the wrong or negligence of such person, corporation or receiver; it being contemplated that while the employé does assume the ordinary risk incident to his employment he does not assume the risk resulting from any negligence on the part of his employer, though known to him.

Where, however, in any such suit, it is alleged and proven that such deceased or injured employé was chargeable with negligence in continuing in the service of any such corporation, receiver or person above named in view of the risk, dangers and hazards of which he knew or must necessarily have known, in the ordinary performance of his duties, such fact shall not operate to defeat recovery, but the same shall be treated and considered as constituting contributory negligence, and if proximately causing or contributing to cause the death or injury in question, it shall have the effect of diminishing the amount of damages recoverable by such employé, or his heirs or representatives in case of the employé's death, only in proportion to the amount of negligence so attributable to such employé. [Acts 1905, p. 386; Acts 1921, p. 195.]

Art. 6438. [6647] Double header trains.—Employés of railway companies employed by said companies in the operation of trains within this State, propelled by two or more engines, shall not be held to assume the risk, if any there be, incident to their employment; provided, they be injured while engaged in the operation of such trains and that such injury was occasioned by reason of the operation of two or more engines on such train instead of one. [Acts 1900, S. S. p. 15.]

Art. 6439. [6648] Liable for injury or death of employé.—Every corporation, receiver, or other person, operating any railroad in this State, shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is employed by such carrier operating such railroad, or in case of death of such employé, to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow and children, or husband and children, and mother and father of the deceased, and, if none, then of the next kin dependent upon such employé for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents, or employés of such carrier; or by reason of any defect or insufficiency due to its negligence, in its cars, engines, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, wharves, or other equipment. The amount recovered shall not be liable for debts of deceased and shall be divided among the persons entitled to the benefit of the action or such of them as shall be alive, in such shares as the jury, or court trying the case without a jury, shall deem proper. In case of the death of such employé, the action may be brought without administration by all the parties entitled thereto, or by any one or more of them, for the benefit of all, and, if all parties be not before the court, the action may proceed for the benefit of such of said parties as are before the court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 279.]

Art. 6440. [6649] Contributory negligence.—In all actions brought against any such common carrier or railroad under or by virtue of any provision of the foregoing article and the three succeeding articles to recover damages for personal injuries to an employé, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employé may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employé; provided, that no such employé who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violations by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employés contributed to the injury or death of such employé. [Id.]

Art. 6441. [6650] Assumed risk.—In any action brought against any common carrier under or by virtue of any provision of the two preceding articles to recover damages for injuries to or the death of any of its employés, such employé shall not be held to have assumed the risks of his employment in any case where the violation by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employés contributed to the injury or death of such employé. [Id.]

Art. 6442. [6651] Contract changing liability void.—Any contract, rule, regulation or device whatsoever, the purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any common carrier to exempt itself from any liability created by the three preceding articles shall to that extent be void; provided, that, in any action brought against any such common carrier by virtue of said articles, such common carrier may set off therein any sum it has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief benefit or indemnity that may have been paid to the injured employé, or the person entitled thereto, on account of the injury or death for which said action was brought. [Id.]

Art. 6443. [6652] Articles of this chapter construed.—Nothing in the provisions of the four preceding articles shall be held to limit the duty or liability of common carriers, or to impair the rights of employes, under other articles of these Statutes, but, in case of conflict, these articles shall prevail; and nothing in said articles shall affect the right of action under any law of this State. [Id.]

Article 6444. Terms defined.—The term "Commission" as used in this title means the Railroad Commission of Texas, and the term "Commissioners" means the members of the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Art. 6445. Power and authority.—Power and authority are hereby conferred upon the Railroad Commission of Texas over all railroads, and suburban, belt and terminal railroads, and over all public wharves, docks, piers, elevators, warehouses, sheds, tracks and other property used in connection therewith in this State, and over all persons, associations and corporations, private or municipal, owning or operating such railroad, wharf, dock, pier, elevator, warehouse, shed, track or other property to fix, and it is hereby made the duty of the said Commission to adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations, to govern and regulate such railroads, persons, associations and corporations, and to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination in the rates, charges and tolls of such railroads, persons, associations and corporations, and to fix division of rates, charges and regulations between railroads and other utilities and common carriers where a division is proper and correct, and to prevent any and all other abuses in the conduct of their business and to do and perform such other duties and details in connection therewith as may be provided by law. [Acts 1891, p. 55; Acts 1911, p. 157; G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6446. Power to enforce rules, etc.—The Railroad Commission of Texas is hereby vested with full power and authority to do and perform each act and duty authorized, directed or imposed upon it by the provisions of this title, and all railroads, persons, corporations, and associations subject to the control of the Commission shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with the rules, orders, directions or requirements of said Commission as severally provided in this title. [Id.]

Art. 6447. [6653] [4561] The Commission.—Election.—The Railroad Commission of Texas shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be elected biennially at each general election for a term of six years.

Qualifications.—The members shall be resident citizens of this State, and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws, and not less than twenty-five years of age. No member shall be directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of any railroad, and should a member voluntarily become so interested his office shall become vacant; or should he become so interested otherwise than voluntarily, he shall within a reasonable time divest himself of such interest; failing to do this, his office shall become vacant.

Shall hold no other office, etc.—No railroad commissioner shall hold any other office of any character, while such commissioner, nor engage in any occupation or business inconsistent with his duties as such commissioner.

Oath, etc.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each commissioner shall take and subscribe to the official oath and shall in addition thereto, swear that he is not directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, nor in the bonds, stock, mortgages, securities, contracts or earnings of any railroad, and that he will to the best of his ability faithfully and justly execute and enforce the provisions of this title, and all laws of this State concerning railroads, which oath shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Organization.—The commissioners shall elect one of their number chairman. They may make all rules necessary for their government and proceedings. They may appoint a secretary at a salary not exceeding $2,000.00 per annum, and not more than two clerks at salaries not exceeding $1,500.00 per annum each, and such other experts as may be necessary. They shall be known collectively as the "Railroad Commission of Texas," and shall have a seal, a star of five points with the words "Railroad Commission of Texas" engraved thereon. They shall be furnished with an office at the Capitol, and with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies and all necessary expenses, to be paid for on the order of the Governor.

Secretary's duties.—The secretary shall keep full and correct minutes of all the transactions and proceedings of the Commission, and perform such duties as the Commission may require of him.

Expenses.—The Commissioners and their employes shall receive from the State their actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on the business of the Commission, which shall include the cost only of transportation while traveling on business for the Commission, upon an itemized statement thereof, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense, and approved by the Commission.

Sessions.—The Commission may hold its sessions at any place in this State when deemed necessary. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6447a. Salary of secretary.—That the salary of the Secretary of the Railroad Commission of Texas shall be such sum as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature from time to time. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 209, ch. 140, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 209, ch. 140, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 6448. [6654] [4562] Duties.—The Commission shall:

1. Adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations, to govern and regulate freight and passenger traffic, to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination and extortion in rates of freight and passenger traffic on the different railroads in this State.

2. Fairly and justly classify and subdivide all freight and property of whatsoever character that may be transported over the railroads of this State into such general and special classes or subdivisions as may be found necessary and expedient.

3. Fix to each class or subdivision of freight a reasonable rate for each railroad subject to this title for the transportation of each of said classes and subdivisions. Such classifications shall apply to and be the same for all railroads subject to the provisions of this chapter. It may fix different rates for different railroads and for different lines under the same management, or for different parts of the same lines if found necessary to do justice, and may make rates for express companies different from the rates fixed by railroads.

4. Fix and establish for all or any connecting lines of railroads of this State reasonable joint rates of freight charges for the various classes of freight and cars that may pass over two or more such lines of such railroads.

5. When two or more connecting railroads shall fail to agree upon a fair and just division of the charges arising from the transportation of freights, passengers or cars over their lines, fix the pro rata part of the charges to be received by each connecting line.

6. From time to time, alter, change, amend or abolish any classification or rate established by it when deemed necessary. Such amended, altered or new classification or rates shall be put into effect in the same manner as the originals.

7. Adopt and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper to hear and determine complaints against the classifications or the rates, the rules, regulations and the determinations of the Commission.

8. Make reasonable and just rates of charges for each railroad subject hereto for the use or transportation of loaded or empty cars on its road and may establish for each railroad or for all railroads alike, reasonable rates for the storing and handling of freight and for the use of cars not unloaded after forty-eight hours' notice to the consignee, not to include Sundays and legal holidays.

9. Make and establish reasonable rates for the transportation of passengers over each railroad subject hereto, which rates shall not exceed the rates fixed by law. The Commission shall have power to prescribe reasonable rates, tolls or charges for all other services performed by any railroad subject hereto.

10. Require each railway subject to this title to provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at its several stations for the accommodation of passengers; and to keep them well-lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public; and keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for the receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freight handled by such roads and such railway, and to obey the requirements of the Commission in respect thereto.

11. See that all laws of this State concerning railroads are enforced and that violations thereof are promptly prosecuted and penalties due the State therefor are recovered and collected; and report all such violations with the facts in its possession to the Attorney General or other officer charged with the enforcement of the law. It shall investigate all complaints against all railroad companies. Suits between the State and a railroad shall have precedence in the courts. [Acts 1891, p. 55.]

Art. 6449. [6655] [4563] Notice.—Before any rates shall be established, the Commission shall give each railroad company to be affected thereby ten days' notice of the time and place when and where the rates shall be fixed; and said railroad company shall be entitled to be heard at such time and place; and it shall have process to enforce the attendance of its witnesses, which shall be served as in civil cases.

Art. 6450. [6655] [4563] Rules for hearing, etc.—The Commission may adopt rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of railroad companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, orders, charges, and other acts required of it under this law; and no person shall be denied admission at such investigation.

Art. 6451. May administer oaths, etc.—Each Commissioner, for the purposes mentioned in this chapter, shall have power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents and testimony, and to punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district court.

Art. 6452. [6656] [4564] Rates conclusive.—In all actions between private parties and railway companies brought under this law, the rates, charges, orders, rules, regulations and classifications prescribed by the Commission before the institution of such action shall be held conclusive, and deemed and accepted to be reasonable, fair, and just, and in such respects shall not be controverted therein until finally found otherwise in a direct action brought for the purpose in the manner prescribed by the two succeeding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6453. [6657] Appeal.—If any railroad company or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rate, rule, charge, classification, or order, or to either or all of them, in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, against said Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court at either of its terms; and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said Appellate Court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that, if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. Provided further that no preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the opposite party and that no temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice to the opposite party unless it shall clearly appear from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified petition that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before notice can be served and a hearing had thereon. Every such temporary restraining order shall be enforced with the date and hour of issuance, shall be forthwith filed in the clerk's office and entered of record, shall define the injury and state why it is irreparably [irreparable] and why the order was granted without notice, and shall by its terms expire within such time after entry, not to exceed ten days, as the court or judge may fix, unless within the time so fixed the order is extended for a like period for good cause shown, and the reasons for such extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice in the contingency specified, the matter of the issuance of a preliminary injunction shall be set down for a hearing at the earliest possible time and shall take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the same comes up for hearing the party obtaining the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction, and if he does not do so the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. Upon two days' notice to the party obtaining such temporary restraining order the opposite party may appear and move the dissolution or modification of the order, and in that event the court or judge shall proceed to hear and determine the motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice may require. [Acts 1925, p. 668.] [39th Leg., ch. 201, § 1.]

Art. 6454. [6658] [4566] Burden of proof.—The burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff to show the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id.]

Art. 6455. [6659] [4567] Schedule of rates.—The Commission shall, when the classifications and schedule of rates herein provided are prepared and adopted, furnish each railroad affected thereby which is subject to the provisions of this title with a complete schedule in suitable form, showing the classification of freight made by it and the rates fixed to be charged by such road for the transportation of each class of freight, and shall cause a certified copy of such classification and schedule of rates to be delivered to each of said railroads at its principal office in Texas, or to any agent of said company in this State; which schedule, rules, and regulations shall take effect at the date fixed by the Commission, not less than twenty days after the date of service. [Id.]

Art. 6456. [6659] [4567] Schedule to be printed and posted.—Each of said railroad companies shall cause said schedule to be printed in type of a size not less than pica, and shall have the same posted up in a conspicuous place at each of its depots, so as to be inspected by the public. [Id.]

Art. 6457. [6659] [4567] May abolish or alter regulations.—The Commission may at any time abolish, alter, or in any manner amend any such regulations; and in that event certified copies of the schedules, rules or regulations, showing the changes therein, shall be delivered to each road affected as herein specified. In all cases where the rates shall not have been fixed by the Commission, no changes shall be made, except after ten days' notice to and with the consent of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6458. [6660-1-2] Emergency freight rates.—The Commission may prevent interstate rate wars and injury to the business or interests of the people or railroads of the State, or in case of any other emergency, to be judged of by the Commission, it shall temporarily alter, amend or suspend any existing freight rates, tariffs, schedules, orders and circulars on any railroad or part of railroad in this State, and fix freight rates where none exist. Said rates so made, shall take effect at such time and remain in force for such length of time as the Commission may prescribe. [Acts 1899, p. 311; Acts 1897, p. 51; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1105.]

Art. 6459. [6663] Temporary tariffs.—The Commission shall have power to make temporary freight and passenger tariffs, to take effect at such times as said Commission shall fix whenever an emergency arises, the sufficiency of which shall be judged of by said Commission. In order that justice may be done or injury prevented any person, place or locality, said Commission shall have the power at once to suspend temporarily any existing freight or passenger tariffs, rules and regulations for temporary use, to have immediate effect where none exists. [Acts 1907, p. 220.]

Art. 6460. [6664] [4568] Complainants.—Any person, firm, corporation, or association, body politic, or municipal organization, complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any railroad subject hereto, in violation of any law of this State, or any provision of this title, for which penalty is provided, may apply to the Commission under such rules as the Commission may prescribe. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6461. [6664] [4568] Procedure.—If there shall appear to the Commission any reasonable grounds for investigating such complaint; (1) it shall give at least five days' notice to such railroad of such charge and complaint, and call upon such road to answer the same at a time and place to be specified by the Commission. (2) It shall investigate and determine such complaint under such rules and modes of procedure as it may adopt. (3) If the Commission finds that there has been a violation, it shall determine if the same was wilful. (4) If it finds that such violation was not wilful, it may call upon said road to satisfy the damage done to the complainant thereby, stating the amount of such damage, and to pay the cost of such investigation; and if the said railroad shall do so within the time specified by the Commission there shall be no prosecution by the State. (5) If said railroad shall not pay said damage and cost within the time specified by said Commission or if the Commission finds such violation was wilful, it shall institute proceedings to recover the penalty for such violation and the cost of the investigation. [Id.]

Art. 6462. [6664] [4568] Complaints, how framed.—All such complaints shall be made in the name of the State of Texas upon the relation of such complainant. All evidence taken before said Commission in the investigation of any such complaint, when reduced to writing and signed and sworn to by the witnesses, may be used by either party, the State, complainant, or by the railroad company, in any proceeding against such railroad involving the same subject matter. [Id.]

Art. 6463. [6664] [4568] Testimony taken.—The Commissioners may require the testimony taken before them to be reduced to writing when they deem necessary, or when requested to do so by either party to such proceedings; and a certified copy, under the hand and seal of said Commission, shall be admissible in evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such railroad, involving the same subject matter and between the same parties. No provisions of this and the three preceding articles shall abridge nor affect the rights of any person to sue for any penalty that may be due him under the provisions of this title, or any other law of the State. [Id.]

Art. 6464. [6665] [4569] May inspect books, etc.—The Commissioners or either of them, or such persons as they may authorize in writing under the hand and seal of the Commission, shall have the right at any time to inspect the books and papers of any railroad company and to examine under oath any officer, agent or employé of such railroad in relation to the business and affairs of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6465. [6665] [4569] Penalty.—If any railroad shall refuse to permit such examination of its books and papers, such railroad company shall, for each offense, pay to the State of Texas not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars for each day it shall so fail or refuse. [Id.]

Art. 6466. [6666] [4570] Shall ascertain cost of railway, etc.—The Commission shall ascertain as nearly as practicable:

1. The amount of money expended in construction and equipment per mile of every railway in Texas;
2. The amount of money expended to procure the right of way, and the amount of money it would require to reconstruct the roadbed, track, depots, and equipment, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the railroad.

3. The outstanding bonds, debentures and indebtedness, and the amount respectively thereof; when issued, and the rate of interest; when due, for what purpose issued, how used, to whom issued, to whom sold, and the price in cash, property or labor, if any, received therefor.

4. Disposition of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, and the amount purporting to be due thereon.

5. The floating indebtedness of the company, to whom due and his address, and the credits due on it.

6. The property on hand belonging to the railroad company.

7. The judicial or other sales of said road, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid and in what manner paid therefor.

8. The amounts paid for salaries to the officers of the railroad and the wages paid its employes.

For the purposes in this article named, the Commission may employ sworn experts to inspect and assist them when needed, and from time to time, as the information required by this article is obtained, it shall communicate the same to the Attorney General by report, and file a duplicate thereof with the Comptroller for public use. Said information shall be printed from time to time in the annual report of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6467. [6667] [4571] Blanks for information.—The Commission shall as often as necessary furnish each railroad company suitable blanks with questions formed so as to elicit all information concerning such railroads. Any railroad company receiving such blanks shall cause them to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and if they are unable to answer any question therein propounded, they shall give satisfactory reason for their failure; and the answers duly sworn to by the proper officer of the company, shall be returned to the Commission within thirty days from the receipt thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6468. [6667] [4571] Refusal to answer.—If any officer or employe of a railroad shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks as above required, or fail or refuse to answer any questions therein propounded, or shall give a false answer to any such questions where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or shall evade the answer to any such questions, a penalty of five hundred dollars shall be recovered from the company by the State when it appears that such persons acted in obedience to its direction, permission or request in his failure, evasion or refusal. Said Commission shall have the power to prescribe a system of book-keeping to be observed by each railroad subject hereto, under the penalties prescribed in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6469. [6667] [4571] Annual reports.—The Commission shall make and submit to the Governor annual reports containing a full and complete account of the transactions of their office, together with the information gathered by such Commission as herein required, and such other facts, suggestions and recommendations as it may deem necessary, which report shall be published as the reports of heads of departments.

Art. 6470. [6667] [4571] Through freights.—The Commission shall investigate all through freight rates on railroads in Texas; and when same are, in the opinion of the Commission, excessive or levied or laid in violation of the interstate commerce law, or the rules and regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the officials of the railroads shall be notified of the facts and requested to reduce them or make the proper corrections, as the case may be. When the rates are not changed and the proper corrections are not made according to the request of the Commission, it shall notify the Interstate Commerce Commission and apply to it for relief. [Id.]

Art. 6471. [6668] [4572] Witnesses.—In any examination or investigation provided in this chapter, the Commission is authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses, and may issue subpoenas for witnesses by such rules as they may prescribe, and such process shall be served by the officer to whom it may be directed. Each witness who shall appear before the Commission by order of the Commission, at a place outside the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance one dollar per day and three cents per mile traveled by the nearest practical route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of the Commission, which shall be paid by the Comptroller upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by the witness, and approved by the Commission. No witness shall be entitled to fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in a railroad, or who is in anywise interested in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of such road, or was an officer, agent or employe of such road when summoned at the instance of such railroad. No witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may travel on such free transportation. The Commission may issue an attachment as in civil cases, for a witness who fails or refuses to obey a subpoena, and compel him to attend before the Commission and give his testimony upon such matter as shall be lawfully required by them. If a witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail or refuse to attend or to answer any question propounded to him, and which he would be required to answer if in court, the Commission may fine and imprison such witness for contempt, in the same manner that a judge of the district court might do under similar circumstances. The claim that any such testimony might tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse a witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 6472. [6668] Depositions.—The Commission may in its discretion issue proper process and take written or oral depositions instead of compelling personal attendance of witnesses. The fees of an officer executing any process issued under the provisions of this title shall be such as the Commission may allow, not to exceed fees as prescribed by law for similar services. [Id.]

Art. 6473. [6669] [4573] Extortion.—If any railroad company, subject to the provisions of this title, or its agent or officer, shall charge, collect, demand, or receive a greater rate, charge or compensation than that fixed and established by the Commission for the transportation of freight, passengers or cars, or for the use of any car on the line of its railroad, or any line operated by it, or for receiving, forwarding, handling or storing any such freight or cars, or for any other service performed or to be performed by it, such railroad company and its agent and officer shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a sum not less than one hundred nor more than five thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 6474. [6670] [4574] "Unjust discrimination."—Unjust discrimination is hereby prohibited and the following acts or either of them shall constitute unjust discrimination.

1. If any railroad subject hereto, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device, shall charge, demand, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service, or shall give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, firm or corporation, or locality, or to subject any particular description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice, delay or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

2. If any railroad company shall fail or refuse, under regulations prescribed by the Commission to receive and transport without delay or discrimination the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line of railroad, and every railroad which shall, under such regulations as the Commission may prescribe, fail or refuse to transport and deliver without delay or discrimination any passengers, tonnage or cars, loaded or empty, destined to any point on or over the line of any connecting line of railroad; provided perishable freights of all kinds and live stock shall have precedence of shipment.

3. If any railroad company shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of like kind of property or passengers for the shorter line than for a longer distance over the same line; provided, that upon application to the Commission any railroad may in special cases, to prevent manifest injury, be authorized by the Commission to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for transporting persons and property, and the Commission shall, from time to time, prescribe the extent to which such designated railroad may be relieved from the operation of this provision. No injustice shall be imposed upon any citizen at intermediate points. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the commission from making what are known as "group rates" on any line or lines of railroad in this State.

4. Penalty.—Any railroad company guilty of unjust discrimination as hereinbefore defined shall for each offense pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

5. Exceptions.—Nothing herein shall prevent the carriage, storage or handling of freight free or at reduced rates, or to prevent railroads from giving free transportation or reduced transportation under such circumstances and to such persons as the law of this State may permit or allow. [Id.]

Art. 6475. [6671] [4575] Damages; penalty.—If any railroad subject to this title shall do, cause or permit to be done any matter [,] act or thing prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing herein required to be done by it, such railroad shall be liable to the person or persons, firm or corporation injured thereby for the damages sustained in consequence of such violation; and in case said railroad company shall be guilty of extortion or discrimination as by this chapter defined, then in addition to such damages such railroad shall pay to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars. Such road may plead and prove as a defense to the action for said penalty that such overcharge was unintentionally and innocently made through a mistake of fact. A recovery as herein provided shall in no manner affect a recovery by the State of a penalty provided for such violations. [Id.]

Art. 6476. [6672] [4576] Penalty not otherwise provided.—If any railway company doing business in this State shall violate any provision of this title, or shall do any act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided by law or shall fail, neglect or refuse to obey any lawful requirement, order, judgment or decree made by the Commission, for every such act of violation it shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars. [Id.; Acts 1901, p. 265.]

Art. 6477. [6673] [4577] Suits for penalty.—All of the penalties herein provided, except as provided in Article 6475, recoverable by the State shall be recovered and suits thereon shall be brought by the Attorney General or under his direction in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such railroad may run; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee to be paid by the State of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected. In all suits arising under this chapter, the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the State under this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury; provided suits brought under Title 66 for recovery of penalties, may be brought in any county:

1. Where an act violative of any provision thereof is committed.

2. Where such company or receiver has an agent or representative.

3. Where the principal office of such company is situated, or such receiver or receivers, or either, reside. One-half of all moneys collected under the provisions of said title, less the commission and expenses allowed by law, shall be paid into the State Treasury; the remainder thereof shall be paid into the treasury of the county where such suit or suits may be maintained and constitute a part of the jury fund of such county. [Acts 1891, p. 55, G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6478. [6674] [4578] Evidence.—Upon application of any person, the Commission shall furnish certified copies of any classification, rates, rules, regulations, or orders, and such certified copies, or printed copies published by authority of the Commission shall be admissible in evidence in any suit and sufficient to establish the fact that any charge, rate, rule, order, or classification therein contained and which may be an issue in the trial, is the official act of the Commission. A substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter shall be sufficient to give effect to all the classifications, rates, charges, rules, regulations, requirements and orders made and established by the Commission, and none of them shall be declared inoperative for any omission of a technical matter in the performance of such act. [Id.]

Art. 6479. [6676] Definitions.—The terms, "road," "railroad," "railroad companies," and "railroad corporations," as used herein, shall be taken to mean and embrace all corporations, companies, individuals and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, that may now or hereafter own, operate, manage or control any railroad, or part of a railroad, in this State, and all such corporations; companies and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, as shall do the business of common carriers on any railroad in this State.

1. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed to apply to and affect only the transportation of passengers, freight and cars between points within this State; and this chapter shall not apply to street railways nor suburban or belt lines of railways in or near cities and towns, but shall apply to the transportation of passengers and freight by electric or gasoline motor cars over steam railroads subject to this Act.

2. It shall be the duty of the Commissioners to see that, upon every railroad branch of same, carrying passengers for hire in this State, shall be run at least one train a day, Sundays excepted, upon which passengers shall be hauled, and the Commissioners shall have no power to relax this provision; provided, however, the Commission may, in its discretion, relax such requirement as to any railroad in this State less than fifty miles in length and the gross annual passenger revenues of which are less than $3,600.00; and said Commission shall further regulate passenger train service to stop for a time sufficient to receive and let off passengers at such stations as may be designated by the Commissioner; provided that four trains each way, carrying passengers for hire, if so many are run daily, Sundays excepted, be required to stop as aforesaid at all county seat stations; and if such railroad or branch of same shall operate a gasoline or electric motor car over its line carrying passengers for hire in this State, such motor car shall be deemed a train within the meaning of this Article and shall be subject to and included within the requirements that at least [one train] be run every day, Sundays excepted, and the requirement made by the Commissions as to stopping for a time sufficient to receive and let off passengers at designated stations. [Acts 1925, p. 365.] [39th Leg., ch. 154, § 1; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 283, ch. 198, § 1.]

Art. 6480. [6677] [4581] Law cumulative.—Any provision of this title which may be inconsistent or in conflict with Title 66 shall be void and inoperative, but to that extent only. The provisions of any foregoing article of this title shall not have the effect to release or waive any right of action by the State, or any person, for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen or may hereafter arise under any law of this State; and all penalties accruing under this title shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6481. [6678-79] Railroad to furnish cars.—When any person, firm or corporation, desiring to ship any freight of any kind shall make written application to any superintendent, agent, or other person in charge of transportation, to any railway company, receiver or trustee operating a line of railway at the point the cars are desired upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railroad company, receiver, trustee, or other person in charge thereof, to supply the number of cars so required, at the point indicated in the application, within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed six days from the receipt of such application, and shall supply such cars to the persons so applying therefor, in the order in which such applications are made, without giving preference to any person. If the application be for twelve cars or less the same, shall be furnished in three days; and provided further, that, if the application be for fifty cars or more, the railway company may have ten full days in which to supply the cars. Said application for cars shall state the number of cars desired, the place at which they are desired, and the time they are desired. The place designated shall be at some station or switch on the railroad. [Acts 1887, p. 133; Acts 1899, p. 67; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 23.]

Art. 6482. [6680] [4499] Penalty.—A railway company failing to furnish cars applied for under the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit to the party or parties so applying for them the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car failed to be furnished, and all actual damages that such applicant may sustain. [Id.]

Art. 6483. [6681] [4500] Deposit.—Such applicant shall deposit with such agent, superintendent or other person one-fourth of the amount of freight charges for the use of such cars, and shall load said cars within forty-eight hours after they have been duly delivered; and upon failure to do so, he shall forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars for each car not used. Where applications are made on several days, all of which are filed upon the same day, the applicant shall have forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the first application, and the next forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the next application, and so on; Sundays shall not be included in computing the time. The penalty prescribed shall not accrue to any car or lot of cars applied for any one day, until the period within which they may be loaded has expired. If the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him, and shall notify said company or its agent, he shall forfeit and pay to the said railroad company, in addition to the penalty herein prescribed, the actual damages that such company may sustain by the failure to use said cars. [Id.]

Art. 6484. [6682] [4501] To deliver loaded cars.—When cars have been supplied and loaded, the railway company shall deliver them to the consignee within a reasonable time; and the consignee shall unload the same within forty-eight hours after delivery and notice, Sundays excepted, or forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car not so unloaded. [Acts 1887, p. 133; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 23; G. L. vol. 9, p. 931.]

Art. 6485. [6683] [4502] Proof necessary.—Parties bringing suit against a railroad company under the provisions of this law shall show that such cars if furnished, would have been loaded within the time specified by this law. The provisions of this law shall not apply in cases of strikes or public calamity. [Id.]

Art. 6486. Not to affect demurrage regulations.—The provisions of this law shall not forfeit or annul the demurrage regulations provided by the Commission, and all penalties accruing to the carrier hereunder shall be cumulative of and additional to all demurrage charges prescribed by said Commission. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 24.]

Art. 6487. [6684] Duty to furnish cars.—Each railroad company incorporated under the laws of this State and doing business in this State, under the limitations and regulations prescribed by the Commission, shall equip and provide sufficient motive power and rolling stock to handle all passenger and freight traffic expeditiously and without delay. [Acts 1907, p. 297.]

Art. 6488. [6685] Commission to require mortgage.—The Commission shall require each railroad corporation chartered under the laws of this State, holding itself out as a common carrier, to provide and equip itself with sufficient motive power and rolling stock, or other equipment necessary, to handle all passenger and freight traffic, expeditiously and without delay, and it is vested with full power to require of such common carriers the purchase of such rolling stock and motive power as will properly equip such common carrier, and facilitate the movement of all traffic, passenger and freight, and that will supply transportation accommodations which it offers to perform as an inducement to the public to travel or ship via the lines of such railroad company, or common carrier. The Commission is authorized and empowered to approve liens or mortgages that may be given by such railroad companies and common carriers to secure the purchase or lease price of any equipment or motive power which may be deemed by the Commission necessary for the proper discharge of its duty as a common carrier. If in the judgment of the Commission any railroad company in this State which now has an excessive issue of bonds and stocks outstanding, has not sufficient passenger and freight equipment and motive power to handle the passenger and freight business of such common carrier and railroad company, the Commission after not less than five days' notice and hearing shall issue an order requiring the purchase of such rolling stock as in the judgment and discretion of the Commission may be deemed necessary for the prompt, expeditious and comfortable transportation of freight and passengers over the line of such railroad company and common carrier; and in such case, the Commission is authorized to approve contracts or liens for the purpose of securing the purchase or lease price of such rolling stock, motive power and equipment. [Id.]

Art. 6489. [6686] Penalty.—Any railroad company or common carrier failing to comply with any provision of the two preceding articles, or to obey the orders of the Railroad Commission, made in pursuance of any provision thereof, shall be deemed guilty of an abuse of their rights and privileges, and shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars payable to the State of Texas. Each day that such railroad company or common carrier neglects, fails or refuses to comply with such orders shall constitute a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6490. [6687] Facilities, interchange cars, etc.—Every railroad company operating a line of railroad within this State shall provide sufficient tracks, switches, sidings, yards, depots, motive power, cars and all other needful facilities and appliances, for receiving and delivering freight, to enable it with reasonable dispatch to perform all of its duties as to all traffic which with ordinary foresight and diligence could be anticipated, as a common carrier; and furnish all necessary and suitable cars and vehicles of transportation for all freight offered or tendered to it for shipment within a reasonable time after demand therefor made by a shipper; and supply within a reasonable time, at its station or stations, spurs, sidings, switches, or other places, at which it receives freight for transportation, and from which such shipper gives notice to such railway company that he desires to ship such freight at the time designated by the shipper, where it is within reasonable time, sufficient suitable cars within which to load the same; and as to all services to be performed within the limits of the State, as to such freight and cars shall transport same within a reasonable time to destination, when destined to a point upon the line of such railway receiving such freight, and, if destined to a point beyond the line of such railroad, then transport and deliver within a reasonable time such freight in such loaded car or cars to the connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such shipment is made, for the purpose of transportation by such connecting carrier on to the destination of such freight, or for delivery by it to the connecting line or lines forming any part of the route over which same is to be transported to its ultimate destination; and each connecting line of railroad engaged in such transportation, as to all such service to be performed, as to all such freight and cars in which the same is carried within this State, shall receive and transport within a reasonable time such loaded car or cars tendered to it, if in suitable condition for movement, and deliver the same at destination thereof, if destined to a point upon its line of railroad, and, if destined to a point beyond its line of railroad, then to its connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such car or cars are to be transported, subject to the same duties and obligations as if such freight had originated upon such line of railroad. Where such freight forms less than a carload, or where it may be necessary to unload the same because of any accident or injury thereto, or to the car in which the same is being transported, or where such freight is unloaded at the request of the shipper en route, or where by reason of any accident or unavoidable cause, or in order to comply with any law or regulation provided by law, such freight is unloaded, or it is reasonably necessary to do so, or where it is for any other reason necessary to unload such freight in order to forward, or before it can be forwarded, in any such cases, where suitable cars may be supplied, and when the freight is carried wholly within this State, the Commission shall make all needful rules and regulations for unloading cars at junction points, or otherwise forwarding cars, furnishing cars for forwarding or reloading and the exchange of cars and forwarding of such freight in the same or other cars. Whenever by reason of any accidental or unavoidable cause which cannot be provided against by the use of reasonable foresight or diligence, such railroad company fails to so furnish cars and shall use reasonable diligence to do so promptly after the happening of such accidental or unavoidable cause, it shall not, on account of such failure, be liable to the penalties of attorney's fees or as otherwise herein prescribed. But nothing in this article shall in any way affect the right or remedy of any shipper or other person as same may exist at common law or under any statute to recover on account of the failure, delay, or refusal to furnish cars for transportation of any freight, or other failure to perform any other legal duty, nor to in any wise exempt any such railroad company from any provision of the statutes of this State, or other duties imposed by law. [Acts 1907, p. 343.]

points, the loaded and empty cars used in or for transportation of freight carried upon such lines of railroad forming any part of the route over which said freight is carried or to be carried; and a railroad company forming any part of the through or joint route over which any freight is carried or to be carried, or having or participating in the joint rates on which such freight is carried or to be carried, on demand of any such connecting line delivering to it any such loaded car or cars of freight at junction points within this State shall furnish to such delivery line within a reasonable time after such loaded cars are so received, at such junction point in this State, as many cars suitable for the carriage or transportation of similar freight as may be so delivered to it loaded, by such connecting line; and upon the demand of the owner thereof, or the railroad company entitled thereto, or to the use thereof, every such railroad company so receiving the cars of another shall return the same at the place where they were received, or at such place as may be by said railroads agreed upon, within a reasonable time after demand thereof; and as to cars exchanged in transporting freight wholly within this State within the time and according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6492. [6689] Commission to make rules.—As to all freight carried wholly within this State and the cars used therefor, the Commission shall make and establish all needful rules and regulations, general and special, which may be different according to the circumstances and conditions to different railroads and localities and for different kinds and classes of freight and cars, providing for the time, place and manner of demanding cars for or giving notice of shipment of such freight and the time, place, manner and order in which the same shall be furnished to shippers for the purpose of shipping freight between points in this State; and prescribe rules and regulations for the furnishing, exchanging and interchanging of cars, loaded and empty, by railroad companies as between each other; the time, place, terms and conditions upon which such cars shall be furnished and such interchange shall be made, and in the absence of an agreement of such railroad companies, the reasonable compensation to be paid by each railroad company for the use, loss, injury or destruction of the cars of another railroad company in the transportation of such freight; the time within which, and the manner by which railroad companies shall give notice or make demand upon each other for cars to be furnished by one railroad company in exchange for loaded cars, or to have its cars returned, the reasonable free time to be allowed the shippers for the loading of such car or cars without incurring liability for demurrage; the free time which shall be allowed to the shipper or consignee in which to unload such freight without incurring any liability for demurrage; a schedule of reasonable demurrage charges, reciprocal or otherwise, for the use of cars, irrespective of damages or penalties herein provided, which may be different for different railroads and different traffic and localities, to be paid by shippers for the detention or use of cars either in loading or unloading, or by the railroads for failing in a reasonable time to furnish cars, or to make delivery of loaded cars, subject to the penalties and damages herein provided, and the rules and regulations with respect thereto. Said Commission, whenever it may deem same necessary in order to secure the prompt transportation of freight and preservation of the property, shall be authorized to prescribe the minimum speed at which freight shall be moved when being transported between points within this State, including the time for transfer and delivery as between connecting railroads. Every such railway company shall conform to each rule, regulation and order of the Commission made in accordance with the two preceding and three succeeding articles; and failure to observe the rules and regulations of the Commission, or to comply with the provisions of this law, as to freight carried wholly within this State, shall be deemed an abuse subject to correction by the Commission, and shall subject such railroad company to the penalties hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 6493. [6690] Liable for damages, when.—Every railroad company which shall fail to furnish cars as provided herein for the shipment of freight within a reasonable time, or in case of the shipment of freight between points within this State, within the time prescribed by the Commission, or shall fail to receive and forward any loaded car or cars or to exchange cars as provided herein, shall be liable to the shipper or other person injured or damaged thereby for all such injury or damages as may result to such shipper, and all special damages of which such railroad company had notice at the time of the shipment, or which shall occur after written notice thereof, and shall be liable in addition thereto for an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for the recovery of such damage. If any railroad company in this State shall fail or refuse to furnish within a reasonable time after demand therefor, any car or cars for the shipment of live stock, green fruit, vegetables or other perishable freight, such railroad company shall be liable to the shipper for the damage caused thereby, and a reasonable attorney's fee in case of suit to recover the same. Any railroad company which shall fail to furnish or exchange cars as required by the provisions of this law, or by the rules and regulations of the Commission as provided for herein, shall be liable to the railroad company injured thereby for all such damages as may result to it, and in addition thereto an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for the recovery of any damage. Every railroad company using cars of another railroad company, or which have been delivered to it by such railroad company, shall be liable to pay to the party entitled thereto the value of the reasonable use and hire thereof, and for injury or damage thereto, or destruction thereof, while in its possession or under its control, for the amount of such injury; and, in case of cars in the shipment of freight between points wholly within this State, the amount for the use or hire thereof may be prescribed by the Commission, unless the owners of such cars and such railroad companies agree upon such compensation. Where any such railroad company, or owner of any such car or cars, shall be dissatisfied with the amount fixed by the Commission for such use, hire, loss or destruction, or damage to such car, or where the railroad company liable therefor shall fail to pay for the same, the Commission or person entitled thereto, or which is liable for the use, hire, loss, injury or destruction of such cars, shall be entitled to establish the reasonable value thereof by suit. [Id.]

Art. 6494. [6690] Not to furnish cars, when.—No railroad company shall be compelled to furnish its own cars to any other railroad company which is involved, except upon reasonable security furnished to it to protect it from loss of or damages to or destruction of such cars and compensation for the use thereof, and in no event shall any railroad company be required to furnish any cars to any connecting line, except to exchange for other cars reasonably suitable for the transportation of freight. [Id.]

Art. 6495. [6691] Other penalty.—A railroad company which shall willfully, by its gross negligence, or by the gross negligence of its agents having charge and management of the matter of furnishing cars, fail or refuse to furnish or exchange cars as herein provided for, or to transport or deliver the same within the time prescribed by the Commission, as to freight carried between points wholly within this State, or if not so prescribed, then within a reasonable time, shall in addition to the other liabilities herein provided for, forfeit to the State of Texas, for each of such violations, not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense; and each day of such failure or neglect as to each car which it, by such willful or gross negligence, shall fail or refuse to furnish or exchange shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6496. "Shipper."—By the term "shipper" as herein used, is meant any person, firm or corporation tendering freight for shipment, and any consignor or consignee of any bill of lading, or other person, firm or corporation having the right of consignor or consignee. [Id.]

Art. 6497. [6692] "Reasonable time."—It shall be deemed prima facie a reasonable time within which to order cars that any shipper shall give written notice thereof to the station agent at the place of shipment, or in his absence, to the nearest station agent of the railroad company to which such application is made, three days before such shipment of five cars or less, and five days for less than ten or more than five cars, and eight days for ten cars or more. The railroad companies shall furnish their station agents with printed blanks upon which shippers make application for their cars. Nothing in this and the five preceding articles shall be construed to exempt any railroad company from the obligation to furnish cars for shipment without such written notice, but it shall only be subject to the penalties of this law for failure to furnish cars to shippers where notice thereof shall be given in writing, or in case of shipment of freight wholly between points in this State, then in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6498. [6693] Suitable depots.—Each railroad company in this State shall provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at their several stations for the accommodation of passengers, and keep said depot buildings well lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public. They shall keep and maintain separate apartments in such depot buildings for the use of white passengers, and keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freight handled by such roads, and the Commission shall require railroad companies to comply fully with the provisions of this law under such regulations as said Commission may deem reasonable. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 401.]

Art. 6499. [6695] Union depots.—Where two or more railroad companies reach the same city or town in this State, if the Commission shall deem it practicable for such railroad companies to use a joint or union passenger depot or to join in the construction and use of a passenger depot, then it shall give notice to such railroad companies and after investigation and public hearing, may require the construction and maintenance of such union passenger depot by such railroad companies, if it appears to the Commission that the construction and maintenance of such union passenger depot are just and reasonable to the railroad companies involved, and demanded by the public interest. The Commission may specify the requirements of such union depot as to kind and character and may apportion the cost of construction and maintaining the same to each railroad company where the companies cannot agree. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 399.]

Art. 6500. [6696] Penalty for failure.—Failure upon the part of any railroad company to observe and obey the orders of the Railroad Commission, issued in compliance with the two preceding articles shall subject such railroad company to the fines and penalties prescribed by law for failure to obey the lawful requirements, order, judgments and decrees made by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6501. [6697 to 6700] Right to lease another road.—A railroad whose total mileage in this State does not exceed thirty miles in length, which connects at or near the State line with any other railroad, may be leased by the company owning such other railroad, subject to the following provisions:

1. Such lease shall be made on such terms and for such time, not exceeding ten years, as may be approved by the Commission. At any time before or after its expiration the lease may be renewed or another executed subject to the provisions and limitations of this title.

2. During the term of such lease the lessor company shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and shall be liable for any and all things occurring on or in connection with such road. The lease shall not operate to exempt or release either the lessor or lessee company from any liability that would otherwise exist against it.

3. The lessee company shall be exempted from the laws of this State requiring general offices to be maintained and general officers to reside in this State, except as required by provisions of the Constitution of this State and by the orders of the Commission.

4. In a suit against the lessor company the officers and agents of the lessee company shall be the officers and agents of the lessor company for the purpose of serving process.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to any railroad whose total mileage in this State may exceed thirty miles in length, although the part of its line connecting at or near the State line does not exceed thirty miles in length. [Acts 1899, p. 73.]

Art. 6502. [6701 to 6705] Railroad crossings.—Any company, corporation or receiver or person operating any railroad in this State shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penal sum of five hundred dollars per week for each week of refusal or neglect to comply with any order made by the Commission in pursuance of the following provisions of this article:

1. When necessary for the track of one railroad company to cross the track of another, the Commission shall ascertain and define by its decree the mode of such crossings which will occasion the least probable injury upon the rights of the company owning the road to be crossed; and, if the Commission decides that it is reasonably practicable to avoid a grade crossing, said Commission shall by its order prevent the same.

2. Where the tracks of two or more railways cross each other at a common grade in this State, such railroad companies shall protect such crossing by interlocking or other safety devices and regulations to be designated by the Commission, to prevent trains colliding at such crossings.

3. When a railway company seeks to cross, at grades with its track or tracks, the track or tracks of another railroad, the one seeking to cross at grade shall be compelled to interlock, or protect such crossings by safety devices to be designated by the Commission, and to pay all cost of appliances together with the expense of putting them in. This law shall not apply to crossings of side tracks.

4. When interlocking or other safety devices are constructed and maintained in good order to the satisfaction of the Commission, the engines and trains of such railroads may pass over such crossings, without stopping. [Acts 1901, p. 255.]

Art. 6503. [6706] Double-header trains.—Where an unreasonable degree of hazards results to its employes, it is hereby declared to be an abuse of its franchise and privileges for any railroad company, or receiver, operating a line of railroad in this State to run or operate more than one working locomotive at the same time in propelling or moving any one train of cars, except in moving trains up steep grades, or where a locomotive propelling the train becomes temporarily disabled after leaving the terminal; the Railroad Commission shall investigate such abuses and see that the same are corrected, regulated or prohibited as hereinafter provided. [Acts S. S. 1900, p. 15.]

Art. 6504. [6707] Use regulated by Commission.—Should the Commission decide to regulate or forbid the practice of using more than one working locomotive at the same time in the operation of any train on any railroad, or part of railroad, within this State, then it shall make and record an order fully setting forth its decision and clearly designating the railroad, or part of railroad, on which such practice is forbidden or regulated and how regulated. Notice of such order shall be served upon said railroad affected by it. Said notice shall contain in full a copy of said order, and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the general offices of such railroad are located; and a copy of the same shall be delivered by the officer executing the same to any general officer of said railroad in this State residing in said county. Said officer executing said writ shall make his return on the original, and deliver the same with his return forthwith to the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6505. [6708] Penalty.—Any railroad corporation which shall at any time after ten days after service of such notice violate the order of the Commission, shall be liable to the State for a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 6506. Maintenance; powers of Commission.—The Commission shall see that each railroad corporation owning or operating a line of railroad in this State shall maintain its roadbed and track in such condition as to enable it to perform all of its duties as a common carrier with reasonable safety to persons and property carried by it and its employes and with reasonable dispatch. The Commission is vested with full power to require any railroad company to purchase or secure for installation in its roadbed or track all ties, rails, ballast and other material and equipment as may, in the judgment of the Commission, be necessary for the proper maintenance of the whole or any designated portion of such track and roadbed so as to put the same in safe condition and enable such railroad to adequately perform its duties to the public and to transport freight and passengers with safety and dispatch. [Acts 1915, p. 201.]

Art. 6507. Penalty for failure to comply.—When the Commission has made such order as authorized by the preceding article, each railroad company subject thereto shall promptly comply with the terms thereof, and for failure or refusal to do so, such company or its receiver shall become liable to the State of Texas, for a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. In addition to such penalties, any court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Attorney General shall issue writs of mandamus and mandatory injunctions and other proper writs to compel the compliance with such orders. [Id.]

Art. 6508. Improvement bonds.—When the Commission shall make an order as authorized by the provisions hereof for the improvement of any line of railway, it may in its discretion at the same time make an order permitting said railroad corporation to issue bond sufficient to raise the money necessary to make such improvements; and authorize such railroad corporation to secure the same by proper mortgage upon its property, and designate such bonds and mortgages as "Improvement Bonds and Mortgages;" provided, the entire amount of bonds of said railroad company shall not exceed the assets of the said company. The Commission shall also see that the funds arising from the sale of such bonds are applied to the making of the improvements ordered by it to be made, and shall regulate the same in the proper manner and any sale of such "Improvement Bonds and Mortgages" at less than par value thereof, must in order to be valid, be approved by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6509. [6715] Sidings, etc.—All railroads in Texas shall build sidings and spur tracks sufficient to handle the business tendered such railroads, when so ordered by the Commission. [Acts 1903, p. 93.]

Art. 6510. [6716] To enforce compliance.—Power is conferred on the Railroad Commission to require compliance by railroad companies with the provisions of the preceding article, under such regulations as said Commission may deem reasonable; and all railroad companies shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with the requirements of the Commission as provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 6511. Switch connections.—Any railroad company or receiver upon application of a shipper tendering traffic for transportation sufficient to justify it, shall construct, maintain and operate upon reasonable terms, a switch connection with any private sidetrack or spur track constructed by such shipper, to connect with its railroad where such connection is reasonably practicable and can be put in with safety and will furnish sufficient business to justify the construction and maintenance of the same; and shall furnish cars for the movement of such traffic to the best of its ability and without discrimination in favor of or against such shipper. [Acts 1915, p. 66.]

Art. 6512. Application.—If any railroad company or its receiver shall fail to install and operate any such switch connection, on application therefor by any shipper, such shipper may make application to the Commission, and it shall enter such orders as may be necessary governing the construction, maintenance and operation of said switch connection, if reasonably practicable and safe and will furnish sufficient business to justify the construction and maintenance of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6513. To fix rates, prevent discrimination, etc.—The Commission shall fix just and reasonable rates to be charged by railroad companies or their receivers for traffic moved and handled over private sidetracks or spur tracks extending to private industries, and it shall adopt such rates, rules, and regulations as will prevent any discrimination in the operation of such tracks or the handling of such traffic. Whenever any railway company or receiver thereof shall operate any private sidetrack or spur track without charge, the Commission shall have authority to compel the operation without charge of any private sidetrack or spurtrack similarly situated. [Id.]

Art. 6514. To regulate private sidetracks, etc.—The Commission shall prescribe reasonable rates, rules and regulations for the operation of all private sidetracks or spur tracks constructed either by the railroad companies themselves or by individuals or corporate interests, or jointly by such railroads and individuals or corporations, when such private sidetracks or spur tracks are operated by railroad companies or the receivers thereof; and shall have power and authority to order and compel the operation of said private sidetracks or spur tracks whenever the railway company or receiver thereof is operating other private side tracks or spur tracks similarly situated, to prevent discrimination therein. [Id.]

Art. 6515. No discrimination.—Whenever any railroad company shall construct or maintain or contribute to the construction or maintenance of any private sidetrack or spur track to any private industry, the Commission shall order such railway company or receiver to construct or maintain or contribute to the construction or maintenance of a sidetrack or spur track to any private industry similarly situated on the same terms and conditions. [Id.]

Art. 6516. Failure to comply.—Should any railroad company or receiver thereof fail to obey the orders of the Commission issued in compliance with the five preceding articles, such failure shall subject such railroad company to a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 6517. Action for damages.—Any person injured by a violation of the terms of the six preceding articles shall have the right to bring suit for his actual damages and for the enforcement of his rights thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 6518. Re-arrangement.—The Commission shall investigate proposed or existing arrangement of railroad tracks, switches and depot buildings at railroad stations to determine whether or not proposed or existing arrangements of such tracks, switches and depot buildings are or may be dangerous to the public and to determine whether or, not the public interest demands a re-arrangement or relocation of such tracks, switches and depot buildings to be made, and to determine whether or not such re-arrangement or relocation can be made upon terms and conditions reasonable and just to the person, firm, corporation or receiver owning or operating such tracks, switches and depot buildings, and the Commission may if the question can, under the facts, be resolved affirmatively, thereupon give notice to such persons, firm, corporation or receiver, and after public hearing and investigation, may require the person, firm, corporation or receiver, owning or operating such tracks, switches and depot buildings at such points to arrange, or re-arrange, or re-locate the same in accordance with the specifications made by the Commission. No such arrangement, re-arrangement, or relocation, shall be authorized or required within the limits of any incorporated city or town without the express consent of the governing body of such city or town. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 196.]

Art. 6519. Suits for penalties.—All penalties and forfeitures provided for by this chapter for a violation of any provision hereof by railway companies recoverable by and payable to the State or any municipal subdivision thereof shall be determined by a direct suit in a proper court instituted by or under the direction of the Attorney General in Travis County or in any county into or through which the line of the offending railway company may run. The attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collect[ed] to be paid by the State; and the fees so allowed shall be over and above the fees allowed such attorney under the provisions of law. In all suits arising under this chapter, the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the State under this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury.

CHAPTER TWELVE

ISSUANCE OF STOCKS AND BONDS

Art.

- 6520. Regulating stocks, bonds, etc.
- 6521. Incumbrance above value of road.
- 6522. To ascertain values, etc.
- 6523. Effect of sale of road.
- 6524. Purchasers may issue bonds, etc.
- 6525. Authority to issue bonds.
- 6526. Certificates of stock.
- 6527. Prerequisites.
- 6528. Registering bonds.
- 6529. Forfeiture of charter.
- 6530. Certificates, bonds, etc., void.
- 6531. False statement.
- 6532. State not liable.
- 6533. Construction of branch lines.
- 6534. May issue for double tracks.

Article 6520. [6717] Regulating stocks, bonds, etc.—Among other things, the power and authority of issuing or executing bonds, or other evidences of debt, and all kinds of stocks and shares thereof, and the executions of liens and mortgages by railroad corporations in this State are special privileges and franchises, the right of supervision, regulation, restriction and control of which has always been, is now, and shall continue to be vested in the State government, to be exercised according to the provisions of this and other laws. [Acts 1893, p. 56; G. L. vol. 10, p. 486.]

Art. 6521. [6718] Incumbrance above value of road.—No bonds or other indebtedness shall be increased or issued or executed by any authority whatsoever, and secured by any lien or mortgage on any railroad or part of railroad, or the franchises or property appurtenant or belonging thereto, over the reasonable value of said railroad property; provided, that in case of emergency, on conclusive proof shown by the company to the Commission that public interests or the preservation of the property demand it, the Commission may permit said bonds, together with the stock in the aggregate, to be executed to an amount not more than fifty per cent over the value of said property. [Id.]

Art. 6522. [6719] To ascertain values, etc.—The Commission shall ascertain, and in writing report to the Secretary of State, the value of each railroad in this State, including all its franchises, appurtenances and property. After it shall have prepared said report the Commission shall give the company interested ten days notice in writing by registered letter to the president, treasurer or receiver of said railroad, to the effect that said report is ready to be made, and that if it has any objections thereto it must file them in writing within forty days after said service, or the same will be so deposited with the Secretary of State as correct. If the company files with said Commission any objections to said report, the Commission shall duly investigate and pass on same, and if it concludes that its report of value is too low or too high, then it shall make the necessary correction before filing it. If no objections are filed within the time permitted, or being filed and on examination found without merit, the Commission shall forthwith file its said report in the office of the Secretary of State, where it shall remain as a public record, as a limitation for the issuance of indebtedness under the limitations prescribed in this title. To promote public interests and protect private rights, the Commission, after due notice under the rule herein prescribed, may correct its report of the value of any railroad at any time it may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 6523. [6720] Effect of sale of road.—Every judicial or other sale of any railroad in this State which shall have the effect to discharge the property so sold from liability in the hands of purchasers for claims for damages, unsecured debts, or junior mortgages against such railroad company so sold, shall have the effect to annul and cancel all claims of every stockholder therein to any share in the stock of such railroad; and it shall not be lawful for said purchasers, or for any railroad company to operate said railroad, to issue any stock in lieu of the old stock or to allow any compensation therefor in any manner whatever, nor shall all or any part of the debt to satisfy which such sale is made be continued or held as a claim or lien on said property. [Id.]

Art. 6524. [6721] Purchasers may issue bonds, etc.—The purchaser of said property who procures it clear of incumbrance, or any company organized by his consent to operate said railroad under and in pursuance of the laws of this State, may issue stock and bonds in the proportion that he may deem advisable, subject to the rules and limitations prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 6525. [6722] Authority to issue bonds.—Should any company or corporation authorized to construct, own or operate a railroad in this State desire to issue bonds or other indebtedness, to be secured by lien or other mortgage on its franchises and property in advance of the completion of the said railroad, it shall make application to and first procure the consent of the Commission thereto. In said application, it shall exhibit to the Commission its contract with the construction company, if it have any, the profile of its completed road or part of road, the evidence of its right of way, depot grounds, terminal facilities, the extent and value of work done or in the process of completion, the amount of property received, the amount of stock subscribed and the amount paid in, and all other necessary facts showing the value of the franchise and property proposed as security for said contemplated debts. If on investigation, the Commission is satisfied that the company is acting in good faith, and that its contract with the construction company is reasonable and fair to the public, then it shall authorize the execution of said indebtedness and a lien to the extent necessary for the demands of the work, at no time to be fifty per cent over the value of the whole property and franchises. In executing said bonds, the company shall comply with Article 6526, and have them registered as required in Article 6527. [Id.]

Art. 6526. [6723] Certificates of stock.—Each railroad company now existing, or which shall hereafter be organized, or which shall be re-organized under the laws of this State, or which shall increase its stock under the laws of this State, shall issue certificates to the subscribers to its said stock under the following regulations: A majority of the board of directors shall meet in person in this State, at the principal office of such company, and shall cause to be made a list of the subscribers to such stock, showing the number of shares subscribed by each, the amount of stock represented by each share and the amount actually paid, labor done or property received on each share of stock, and shall cause to be affixed to each name on said list a number, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any certificate previously issued. The president of the board, or presiding officer of the meeting at which the issuing of such certificates of stock is authorized, shall make a certificate signed by him in person to said statement to the effect that the same is correct, and that the amount of money paid, labor done and property received as stated is correct. Such statement shall thereupon be entered at large upon the minutes, and, after having the seal of the company affixed thereto, shall be attested by the secretary of the company, and deposited with the Commission, and by it filed and preserved in its office. The secretary of the company shall then be authorized to make out and deliver to each stockholder in said list a certificate corresponding with said statement in number, name, number of shares, amount of stock represented by each share, and the amount of money or its equivalent paid upon each share; which certificate shall be signed by the president of the said railroad company, attested by the secretary, with the seal of said company affixed. No railroad company shall increase its stock unless all existing shares of stock shall have been paid in full, or all unpaid shares of such stock have been sold out as forfeited under the law. When the certificates to be issued are for increase of stock, the statement herein required to be made by the board of directors shall state that all existing shares of stock have been paid in full, or that all shares not paid in full have been sold out or forfeited under the law. In no event shall the stock exceed the value of the railway property, and the correct aggregate amount of stock so issued by each railway company shall be certified to and registered in the office of the Secretary of State by or at the instance of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6527. [6724] Prerequisites.—When any railroad company in this State desires to make, issue, and sell any bonds or evidences of debt, which are to become a lien on its property, it shall comply with the laws of this State regulating the same, and in addition thereto shall have said bonds prepared, signed by the president of the company, and attested by the secretary, with the seal of the company attached thereto. Each bond shall be numbered, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any preceding bond issued by it, and continue consecutively until all are numbered. The bonds shall be dated, made payable at a time not exceeding thirty years from date and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. Said bonds, when thus prepared, shall be presented to the Commission, with a written statement, signed and sworn to by the president of said company, showing the amount of the stock of said company and the amount of outstanding bonds, if any, of said company. If said bonds are such as are permitted under this law, and the Commission shall be so satisfied, it shall approve said bonds, and shall issue to the Secretary of State a direction to register said bonds, specifying the numbers, dates, and amounts thereof. Said Commission shall keep in its office a correct record of the bonds so approved by it, giving the name of the company, the numbers, dates of execution and maturity of the bonds, the amount and rate of interest of each, and the date of approval. This provision shall not apply to receiver's certificates where the amount does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 6528. [6725] Registering bonds.—When such bonds shall be presented to the Secretary of State with said direction to register, he shall register said bonds by entering a description thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall show the date, number, amount, when due, the rate of interest on each bond, and also the date when the same is registered. The Secretary of State shall indorse on each bond, under the seal of his office and his official signature, together with the date thereof, as follows: "This bond is registered under the direction of the Railroad Commission of Texas." No bond or other evidence of debt, hereafter issued by or under the authority of any person, firm, corporation, court, or railroad company, whereby a lien is created on its franchise or property situated in this State, shall be valid or have any force until the same has been registered as required herein. [Id.]

Art. 6529. [6726] Forfeiture of charter.—If any railroad company owning or operating a railroad in this State shall issue or consent or cause to be issued any bonds or other evidences of debt to be or become a lien on its railroad property so owned or operated, or shall issue any stock not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, such action shall work a forfeiture of its charter. [Id.]

Art. 6530. [6727] Certificates, bonds, etc., void.—Every certificate of stock in any railroad company, and every bond and other evidence of debt operating as a lien upon the property of such railroad company, which shall be made, issued or sold without first complying with the provisions of this chapter shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6531. [6728] False statement.—Each railroad director, president, secretary or other official, who shall knowingly make any false statement upon which to secure the registration of any bond or other evidence of debt as aforesaid, or who shall by false statement knowingly made procure of the Commission direction to the Secretary of State to register the same, and which shall be by the Secretary of State registered, or shall with the knowledge of such fraud negotiate, or cause to be negotiated, any such bond or other security issued in violation of this chapter, shall be liable to any creditor of such company for the full amount of damages sustained by such wrongful conduct. [Id.]

Art. 6532. [6729] State not liable.—Nothing in this law, and no act done or performed under or in connection with it shall be construed to make the State of Texas liable to pay or guarantee, in any manner whatsoever, any obligation, debt or claim executed or assumed under or by virtue of its provisions. [Id.]

Art. 6533. [6730] Construction of branch lines.—Any corporation incorporated for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating a railroad under the laws of this State, which has outstanding stocks and also outstanding bonds secured by a mortgage lien upon its property, or by any other character of lien, may amend its charter in the manner provided in this title, and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, and may provide by such amendment for the making of any extension or extensions, or branch line or lines that it may desire to construct, and may issue stocks and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable value of such extension or extensions, or such branch line or lines, and such terminal properties as it may acquire, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The Commission is hereby empowered to authorize the execution and issuance of such stocks and bonds, or bonds, and in determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, said Commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock or indebtedness, or bonds previously issued and secured by a lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed; provided, that any existing mortgages or liens upon the property of such corporation constructed or owned prior to the time of making such amendment of its charter and to the construction of such extension or extensions, or branch line or lines, or to the acquiring of such terminal properties, shall not attach to or become a lien upon the extension or extensions, branch line or lines, or terminal properties constructed or acquired under such amended charter. This article shall not be so construed as to in any wise repeal or impair any other provision of this chapter or of the existing laws of this State except in so far as the same may be changed by the provisions of this article. [Acts 1901, p. 257.]

Art. 6534. [6732] May issue for double tracks.—Any railroad company chartered under the laws of this State, whenever the Commission shall find it advisable to authorize it to do so, may construct, own and operate an additional line of road upon its right of way, together with all necessary sidings, switches and turnouts, and may issue stock and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable cost of such improvements, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and the Commission may authorize the execution and issuance of such stock and bonds, or bonds. In determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, or bonds, the Commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock, indebtedness or bonds previously issued and secured by lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed. [Acts 1903, p. 131.]

Article 6535. [6733] Eminent domain.—All corporations chartered for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, maintaining and operating lines of electric railway between any cities and towns in this State for the transportation of freight or passengers, or both, shall have the right of eminent domain with all the rights and powers as fully as are conferred by law upon steam railroad corporations, and shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation whomsoever for the purpose of acquiring rights of way upon which to construct and operate their lines of railways and sites for depots and power plants. [Acts 1907, p. 23.]

Art. 6536. [6734] Right of way.—Such corporation shall have the right and power to lay out rights of way for their railways not to exceed two hundred feet in width, and to construct their railways and appurtenances thereon, and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of their said railways, and to cut down any standing trees or remove any other structure that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing such railway, compensation being made therefor in accordance with law. Such corporation may have such examination and survey of their proposed railways made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purposes may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation subject to responsibility for all damages that may be occasioned thereby. [Id.]

Art. 6537. [6735] Streams, streets, etc.—They may construct their railways along, across and over any stream of water, water course, bay, navigable water, arm of the sea, street, highway, steam railway, plank road, turnpike or canal which the route of such railway shall touch, and erect and operate bridges, trams, trestles, or causeways over, along or across any such stream, water course, navigable water, bay, arm of the sea, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal. Such bridge or other structure shall be so erected as to not unnecessarily or unreasonably prevent the navigation of such stream, water course, bay, arm of the sea or navigable water and nothing herein shall authorize the construction of any such railway upon or across any street, alley, square or property of any incorporated city or town without the assent of said corporation of said city or town, and before constructing an electric railway along and upon highways, plank roads, turnpikes or canals, such interurban electric railway company shall first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having the jurisdiction of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6538. [6737] Rights over other electric railway tracks, etc.—The right of condemnation herein given to interurban electric railway companies shall include the power and authority to condemn for their use and benefit, easements and rights of way to operate interurban cars along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company owning, controlling or operating such track or tracks upon any public street or alley in any town or city of this State for the purpose hereinafter mentioned, subject to the consent, authority and control of the governing body of such town or city. [Id.]

Art. 6539. [6738] Proceedings to condemn.—Any interurban electric railway company, seeking to avail itself of the benefits of this chapter shall have the right to condemn an easement along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company for the purpose only of securing an entrance into and an outlet from a town or city upon a route to be designated by the governing body of the city or town. In any proceeding to condemn an easement or right of way for the purposes above mentioned, the court, or the jury trying the case shall define and fix the terms and conditions upon which such easement or right of way shall be used. The court rendering such judgment shall be authorized upon a subsequent application or applications by either of the parties to the original proceedings, or any one claiming through or under them, to review and reform the terms and conditions of such grant and the provisions of such judgment, and the hearing upon such application shall be in the nature of a retrial of said cause with respect to the terms and conditions upon which said easement shall be used; but the court shall not have power upon any such rehearing to declare such easement forfeited or to impair the exercise thereof, and no application for a rehearing shall be made until two years after the final judgment on the last preceding application. [Id.]

Art. 6540. [6739] "Interurban railway company."—An interurban electric railway company, within the meaning of this chapter, is a corporation chartered under the laws of this State for the purpose of conducting and operating an electric railway between two cities or between two incorporated towns or between one city and one incorporated town in this State; and the rights secured under this chapter by any interurban company shall be inoperative and void if the road to be constructed under the charter of said company is not fully constructed from a city or incorporated town to some other city or incorporated town within twelve months from the date of the final judgment awarding to said company said easements and right of way. Any interurban company availing itself of the privileges conferred in this chapter is hereby prohibited from receiving for transportation at any point on that portion of the track or tracks so condemned, without the consent of the company over whose track or tracks the easement is condemned, any freight or passengers destined to a point or points between the termini of the track or tracks so condemned; and a wilful violation by the company of the provisions of this article shall operate to forfeit such easements or rights of way. [Id.]

Art. 6541. [6740] To sell light and power.—Interurban electric railway companies shall also have the right to produce, supply and sell electric light and power to the public and to municipalities. [Id.]

Art. 6541a. Extension of lines to supply light and power.—Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this state authorized to construct, acquire and operate electric or other lines of railway within and between any cities or towns in Texas and to acquire, hold and operate other public utilities in and adjacent to the cities or towns within or through which such company operates, may extend its electric light, power and gas lines, or either of them, for the purpose of supplying light, power and gas, or either of them, to the public residing beyond the territory adjacent to the cities or towns within or through which it operates, and for the purpose of so extending any such electric light, power and gas lines, any such corporation shall have all the rights and powers of extension now or hereafter possessed and enjoyed by public service corporations engaged in supplying and selling electric light, power and gas, or either of them as provided by law; and the powers herein granted shall not repeal either expressly or impliedly any of the anti-trust laws of the State of Texas. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 152, ch. 101, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 152, ch. 101, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 6542. [6741] Provisions cumulative.—No provision in this chapter shall be construed to have the effect to confer the power of eminent domain, or any power herein conferred, except that conferred in the preceding article, upon any interurban railroad or interurban railroad company, or upon any person, firm, association, or corporation or to add to the powers already possessed by any such railroad or railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation so as to enable or authorize it to condemn any land or ground occupied by any portion of its line or track, already constructed March 5, 1907, or to condemn any land or ground for the purpose of changing the location of any track or line already constructed at said date. Nothing in this article shall be construed to take from any interurban railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation, any power of eminent domain already possessed by it. [Acts 1907, p. 23.]

Art. 6543. Merger.—Any corporation organized under the laws of this State authorized to construct, acquire and operate electric or other interurban lines of railway in this State, commonly known as interurban railways, may acquire, lease or purchase the physical properties, rights and franchise of any other railway corporation having and possessing like power, or may lease or purchase physical properties, rights and franchises of any suburban or street railway corporation, the lines of whose railway are to be operated in connection with the lines of the interurban railway, and may sell or dispose of the physical properties, rights and franchise by such corporation or person owning the same, to such corporation, acquiring, leasing or purchasing same hereunder. Such acquisition or purchase may be made upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the respective boards of directors and authorized or approved by a majority of the stockholders of such corporations, respectively. Corporations owning and operating said street car railways before making sale of its properties hereunder, shall obtain the consent of the governing body of the city where such street car line may be located; and, in cities and towns operating under any charter which provides for the right of qualified voters to vote on the granting or amending of franchise to street railways or interurban railways, this right shall still exist. Any corporation authorized to construct, acquire and operate electric or other interurban lines of railway in this State, commonly known as interurban railways, shall also have the power to make and enter into trackage or lease contract with any corporation owning and operating street railways, so as to procure continuous passage into or through such city or town; provided, the governing body of the city or town shall consent thereto; in such case, the owner of such street railways is also authorized to enter into such trackage or lease contract. No corporation named in this article shall ever be permitted to acquire, own, control or operate any parallel or competing interurban line. No such corporation shall be permitted to purchase, lease, acquire, own or control, directly or indirectly, the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights or the physical properties or any part thereof, of any other corporation, if the same will violate any provision of the law commonly known as the anti-trust law. [Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 31.]

Art. 6544. [6742-45] Street railway fares.—All persons or corporations owning or operating street railways in or upon the public streets of any town or city of not less than forty thousand inhabitants are required:

1. To carry children of the age of twelve years or less for one-half the fare regularly collected for the transportation of adults. This law shall not apply to street cars carrying children or students to and from schools, colleges or other institutions of learning situated at a distance of one mile or more beyond the limits of the incorporated city or town from which said cars run.

2. To sell or provide for the sale of tickets in lots of twenty, each good for one trip over the line or lines owned or operated by such person or corporation, for one-half of the regular fare collected for the transportation of adults, to students not more than seventeen years of age in actual attendance upon any academic, public or private school of grades not higher than the grades of the public high schools situated within or adjacent to the town or city in which such railway is located. Such tickets are required to be sold only upon the presentation by the student desiring to purchase them of the written certificate of the principal of the school which he attends showing that he is not more than seventeen years old, is in regular attendance upon such school and is within the grades herein provided. Such tickets are not required to be sold to such students and shall not be used except during the months when such school is in actual session and such students shall be transported at half fare only when they present such tickets.

3. To transport free of charge children of the age of five years or less when attended by a passenger of above said age.

4. To accord to all passengers referred to in this article the same rights as to the use of transfers issued by their own or other lines as are or may be accorded to passengers paying full fare. [Acts 1903, p. 132.]

Art. 6545. Street and suburban railways.—All street and suburban railways engaged in the transportation of freight within and near cities and towns, shall be subject to the control of the Railroad Commission: No street railway company shall be exempt from payment of assessments that may be legally levied or charged against it for street improvements. Any corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under the general laws of this State, and which owns or operates with electric power any street or suburban railway or belt line of railways within and near cities and towns for the transportation of freight and passengers within Texas shall be authorized to supply and sell electric light and power to the public or municipalities, and to acquire or otherwise provide the necessary appliances therefore [therefor], and may, by proceeding in the manner provided by law, amend its articles of incorporation so as to expressly include such authority. When the Railroad Commission shall decide that any corporation created under chapter one of this title for the purpose of operating a local suburban railway not exceeding ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town in addition to such mileage as it may have within the same, is not for any reason subject to the control of said Commission in reference to the issuance of stocks and bonds or either under the provisions of Chapter 50, Acts 1893, after such decision of the Commission, said corporation shall have the right to issue its stocks and bonds or either and also to increase its stocks and bonds or either without the control of the Commission and without complying with the Act aforesaid in reference thereto, and when so issued said stocks and bonds shall in all respects be valid and binding. [Acts 1897, p. 189; Acts 1903, pp. 29, 62; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1243.]

Art. 6546. Freight interurbans.—All electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol or naphtha interurban or motor railways incorporated as such, which shall engage in transporting freight, shall be subject to the control of the Railroad Commission. No such corporation shall ever be exempt from the payment of assessments that may be legally levied or assessed against it for street improvements. Such interurban railways shall have the same right of eminent domain as are now given by law to steam railroads, and may exercise such right for the purpose of acquiring right of way upon which to construct their railway lines, and sites for depots and power plants, and shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as are now granted by law to interurban electric railway companies. Any such interurban company shall have the right and authority to acquire, hold and operate other public utilities in and adjacent to the cities or towns within or through which said company operates. No property upon which is located a cemetery shall ever be condemned by any such interurban railway, unless it shall affirmatively be shown, and so found by the court trying such condemnation suit, that it is necessary to take such property, and no other route is possible or practicable. [Id. Acts 1903, p. 204; Acts 1897, p. 188; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 396; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1242; Acts 1917, p. 390.]

Art. 6547. Plants and buildings.—Any corporation heretofore organized under any law of this State, and which now or may hereafter operate a line of electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol, or naphtha motor railway, within and between any cities or towns in Texas, is authorized to own and operate union depots and office buildings, and to acquire, hold and operate electric light and power plants in and adjacent to cities or towns within or through which said company operates. Such existing corporation, or one heretofore organized under subdivision 68 of Article 1302, may, by proceeding in the manner provided by law, amend its charter so as to expressly include any or all powers herein authorized. [Id.]

Art. 6548. Jitney lines.—Any corporation operating a street or suburban railway or interurban railway, and carrying passengers for hire, is hereby authorized to maintain and operate motor trucks or jitney lines in connection with their said business for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire on the public roads, streets, squares, alleys and highways within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town under such regulations as may be prescribed by any such city or town, and on the public roads and highways within five miles of the corporate limits of any such incorporated city or town, under such regulations as the commissioners court of such county may prescribe. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 97.]

Art. 6549. Terminal railways.—Terminal railways shall have all the rights and powers conferred by law upon railroads by Chapters 6 and 7 of this title, and when such railway is adjacent to any inland navigable stream or water body, it shall have the right and power to construct, erect, operate and maintain all necessary and convenient facilities to accommodate and expeditiously handle the exchange of freight and passenger traffic with all steamship and other vessels and water craft using such waterways; and shall have the right to issue bonds in excess of its authorized capital stock under the direction of the Railroad Commission of Texas, in accordance with the stock and bond law regulating the issuance of stocks and bonds by railroads. Said commission shall fix the values of the property, rights and franchises of such railway company; and its stocks and bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by said Commission in which jurisdiction over the issuance of the bonds herein authorized is hereby vested. No such terminal company shall have the right to charge any railroad company, steamship, vessel or water craft for terminal facilities a greater amount than may be from time to time designated and established by said Commission, which shall have authority to establish and prescribe such rates and rules for the operation of all such terminal companies as will prevent discrimination by them against any common carrier with respect to either charge or service. The provisions of Articles 6452, 6453 and 6454, shall apply to any and all orders, rulings, judgments and decrees of said Commission made, entered or held under the provisions of this law in respect to such terminal railway companies. [Acts 1897, p. 188; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1242; Acts 1905, p. 211; Acts 1907, p. 300; Acts 1917, p. 134.]

Art. 6550. Road to mines, etc.—Corporations created to build, maintain and operate a line of railroads to mines, gins, quarries, manufacturing plants, and mills, shall have the right to condemn land necessary for the right of way for such road from and between such mines, gin, quarry, manufacturing plant or mill and the nearest line of railroad, provided, that no such corporation shall have said right of eminent domain until it shall declare itself a public highway and common carrier, thus placing said road under the control of the Railroad Commission. [Acts 1897, p. 192; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1246.]

Art. 6550a. Title to steel rails of Texas State Railroad.—That title to all steel rail now upon the road bed of the Texas State Railroad, and allotted to the State of Texas by the United States under an Act of Congress from the surplus materials in the possession of the United States at the conclusion of the late war with the German Imperial Government, be and title to said rails is hereby vested in the State of Texas exclusively for the benefit of said Texas State Railroad, subject, however, to all the provisions of the aforesaid Act of Congress. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 169, p. 384, § 1.]

Art. 6550b. Same—purchaser of.—If hereafter the said Texas State Railroad shall be sold or otherwise disposed of under authority of law any conveyance or assignment lawfully executed pursuant to said sale shall vest title to said rail absolutely in the purchaser or grantee thereunder to the exclusion of each and every agency of the Government of the State of Texas and the United States. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 169, p. 384, § 2.]

Art. 6550a1. Aerial or tramways to mines.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited partnership, joint stock association or other association of any kind whatsoever, owning, constructing, operating or managing any aerial or other kind of tramway within this State between a mine, smelter or railway or either, may hold and acquire by purchase or condemnation rights-of-way, but in the exercise of such right shall be deemed to be a common carrier, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and control of the Railroad Commission, and shall have the right and power of eminent domain in the exercise of which he, it or they may enter upon and condemn land, rights-of-way, easement and property of any person or corporation necessary for the construction, maintenance or operation of his, its, or their aerial or other kind of tramway; such right of eminent domain for acquiring rights-of-way provided for herein, shall be exercised in the manner prescribed by law for condemning the land and acquiring of rights-of-way by railroad companies. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 379, ch. 256, § 1.]

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

UNION DEPOT CORPORATIONS

- Art.
6551. Union depots.
6552. Finances.
6553. Interest in railways.
6554. Condemnation.

Article 6551. [1243-4] Union depots.—Corporations formed for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating union passenger depots in any city or town in which any two or more railroad companies own or operate a railroad, shall have power and authority to acquire, own or lease, maintain and operate railroad tracks in any city or town for the purpose of enabling railroad companies to run their trains to and from the union depot; such tracks not to extend to a greater distance than three miles from such union depot. Such corporations may also add additional stories to their depot buildings and rent the same for offices or other purposes; and may also provide on their property buildings for express purposes, and rent the same to express companies. The Railroad Commission of Texas shall have the same supervision and control over said railroads and tariff rates and depots that it has over any other lines of railroad and depot buildings in Texas. [Acts 1895, p. 187; Acts 1897, p. 42; G. L. vol. 10, pp. 917, 1096.]

Art. 6552. [1245] Finances.—The provisions of Chapter 12 of this title shall govern and control the issuance of stock and bonds of such corporations as far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6553. [1246] Interest in railways.—Railway companies existing under the laws of Texas, whether under general or special law, and railway companies incorporated under any general or special law of the United States, are authorized and empowered to subscribe to the stock, and purchase and own stock and bonds of any depot company formed under the authority of this law. [Id.]

Art. 6554. [1247-8] Condemnation.—Corporations created for the purposes contemplated herein may secure by condemnation such land or real estate as may be necessary for the business and purposes of such corporation, including all lands necessary for depot buildings, passenger sheds, yards or tracks requisite to the convenient use of the depot. Such corporations, by such condemnation, may acquire the fee simple title. After the award by the commissioners, and pending further litigation, the corporation may enter upon and take possession of the land sought to be condemned, by complying with the terms and conditions of any general laws of this State authorizing any corporation having the right to condemn to so enter upon and take possession of such land or real estate. [Acts 1899, p. 49.]

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

VIADUCTS.

- Art.
6555. Certain cities may contract.
6556. May close streets.
6557. May issue bonds.
6558. Condemnation.
6559. May enforce contracts.
6559a. Height of bridges or viaducts.
6559b. Structures near tracks.
6559c. Roof projections over tracks.
6559d. Not applicable when.
6559e. Penalty recoverable by Attorney General.
6559f. Regulation by Commission.

Article 6555. Certain cities may contract.—All cities acting under special charters granted by the legislature are hereby granted all necessary rights and powers to carry out and comply with existing contracts or to hereafter make contracts with railway companies owning or operating tracks in such cities, to erect and complete by such railway companies, all necessary viaducts, the construction and completion of which shall be at the expense of such railway companies, according to plans and specifications agreed upon between such companies and such cities. [Acts 1911, p. 235.]

Art. 6556. May close streets.—All such cities are hereby given authority to abolish and close such portions of any highway, street or alley crossed by railroad tracks, as such cities have or may agree to close and abolish, in consideration of procuring the erection and completion of any viaduct by any railway company or companies. [Id.]

Art. 6557. May issue bonds.—Such cities are hereby given full power and authority to issue improvement bonds to be designated "viaduct bonds" to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to pay for the right of way for a viaduct, over such property or

[as] may not be owned by such cities or by any of the railway companies affected, and to pay such damages, if any, which may be sustained by abutting property owners. The question of issuance of said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the property tax paying voters, and shall be carried by a majority vote of said voters, such election being called as is provided for on other questions in the charters of cities desiring an election on said bonds. In addition, such cities are hereby given authority to give railroad companies the use of any portion of its streets, highways and alleys as may be necessary for a right of way for viaducts. [Id.]

Art. 6558. Condemnation.—All such cities are hereby given the right of eminent domain and the power and authority to condemn all land necessary for right of way purposes for viaducts and approaches to same forming a necessary part of such viaduct. [Id.]

Art. 6559. May enforce contracts.—All such cities are hereby given the right and power to compel the construction and completion of such viaducts as railway companies have by contract agreed with any such city to construct and complete or which any railway company or companies may hereafter agree to construct and complete, by mandamus proceedings in the district court of the county where such viaduct or viaducts are to be completed or through any other lawful means. [Id.]

Art. 6559a. Height of bridges or viaducts.—All bridges, viaducts, overheadways, foot bridges, wires or other structures hereafter built over the tracks of a railway, or over the tracks of railroads, by the State, or by a county, municipality, a railroad company or other corporation, firm, partnership, or natural person, shall be placed not less than twenty-two (22) feet in the clear from the top of the rails of such track or tracks to such structure or wire, or to the bottom of the lowest sill, girder or crossbeam, the lowest downward projection on the bridge, viaduct, overheadway, or foot bridge or other structure. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 32, § 1.]

Art. 6559b. Structures near tracks.—All loading platforms and all houses and structures, and all fences, and all lumber, wood and other materials hereafter built, placed or stored along the railroads of this State, either on or near the right of way of the main lines or on or near any spur, switch or siding of any such railroad, shall be so built, constructed, or placed that there shall be not less than eight and one-half (8½) feet space from the center of such main line, spur, switch or siding to the nearest edge of the platform, or to the wall of the building, or to the lumber, wood, or other material. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 32, § 2.]

Art. 6559c. Roof projections over tracks.—All roof projections hereafter constructed from any loading platform along any railroad main track, or spur, switch, or siding track shall be not less than twenty-two (22) feet above the rails of such track, and the other edge of said roof projection shall be not less than eight and one-half (8½) feet horizontally from the center of said track. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 32, § 3.]

Art. 6559d. Not applicable when.—The provisions of this Act shall not apply to nor prevent the building, placing, constructing or completing of structures or other things enumerated in Sections One, Two and Three, when same are being built, placed, or are in the courses of construction at the time this Act takes effect, or if material has been purchased for such placing, building, or construction at the time this Act takes effect, pursuant to prior contracts or plans. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 33, § 3a.]

Art. 6559e. Penalty recoverable by Attorney General.—If any railway company or other corporation, firm, partnership, or person shall hereafter erect any structure or wire in violation of any provision of this Act, or shall hereafter in any manner violate any provision of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General immediately to file a suit in court of competent jurisdiction, to collect a penalty, which is hereby prescribed of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars for each violation of this Act; and the Attorney General may, in his discretion, sue in one proceeding for all violations of this Act by any one railway company or other corporation, firm, partnership or person. Provided further, that the said penalty shall accrue for each day such structure, wire, lumber, wood or other material is permitted to remain in violation of this Act, and each day same is permitted to remain, constitutes a separate violation of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 33, § 4.]

Art. 6559f. Regulation by Commission.—It is hereby made the duty of the Railroad Commission to promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with this Act. It is further provided that upon application regularly made and filed, and after notice to the Attorney General, the Railroad Commission may, for good cause shown, permit any railway company or other corporation, firm, partnership, or person, or any county or municipality to deviate from the terms of this Act in accordance with an order of the Commission made and entered; and in such event the corporation, firm, partnership, or person acting in accordance with the order of the Railroad Commission so made shall not be deemed to have violated this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 11, p. 33, § 5.]

RANGERS—STATE

Art.
6560.	Organization.
6561.	Companies.
6562.	Compensation.
6563.	Quartermaster.
6564.	Governor in command.
6565.	Term of service.
6566.	Purchase of supplies.
6567.	Equipment.
6568.	Arms and equipment.
6569.	Subsistence and quarters.
6570.	Powers of peace officers.
6571.	Arrests.
6572.	Regulations.
6573.	Qualifications of members.

Article 6560. [6754] Organization.—The ranger force authorized to be organized by the Governor is for the purpose of protecting the frontier against marauding or thieving parties, and for the suppression of lawlessness and crime throughout the State, and to aid in the enforcement of the laws of the State. [Acts 1901, p. 41; Acts 1919, p. 263.]

Art. 6561. [6755] Companies.—The Ranger force shall consist of not to exceed one headquarters company and four companies of mounted men, except in cases of emergency, when the Governor shall have authority to increase the force to meet extraordinary conditions.

The headquarters company shall consist of one captain, who shall be designated the senior captain of the force, one sergeant, and not to exceed four privates.

Each separate mounted company shall consist of not to exceed one captain, one sergeant and fifteen privates. The captains and the quartermaster shall be appointed by the Governor and shall be removed at his pleasure; unless so removed by the Governor they shall serve for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

The enlisted men and non-commissioned officers of each company shall be appointed by the Governor, acting by and through the Adjutant General who shall pass upon the qualifications of such men, and so far as practicable shall make such appointment upon the recommendation of the captain, under whom such men are to serve. The enlisted men and non-commissioned officers shall serve for two years, unless sooner removed by the Governor or the Adjutant General for cause. [Id.]

Art. 6562. [6756] Compensation.—The pay of officers and men shall be: Captains $150.00 each per month; sergeants $100.00 each per month; and privates $90.00 each per month, except as herein otherwise provided. The payment shall be made monthly at such times and in such manner as the Adjutant General may prescribe. The officers and enlisted men on the ranger force shall receive in addition to their regular salary an increase of five per cent after the first two years of continuous service and five per cent for each additional year not to exceed in all twenty per cent of their salary as above provided. For the violation or breach of such rules and regulations for the governing of the ranger force as may be prescribed by the Adjutant General and approved by the Governor, officers and enlisted men shall forfeit their right to participate in the increase or longevity pay, or any portion thereof provided for herein. [Acts 1901, p. 41; Acts 1917, 1st C. S. p. 57; Acts 1919, p. 263.]

Art. 6563. [6757] Quartermaster.—The Governor shall appoint a quartermaster for the ranger force who shall discharge the duties of a quartermaster, commissary and paymaster, and shall have the rank and pay of a captain. [Id.]

Art. 6564. [6758] Governor in command.—This force shall always be under the command of the Governor; to be operated under his direction in such manner, in such detachments, and in such localities as the Governor may direct, acting by and through the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 6565. [6759] Term of service.—The Governor is authorized to keep this force, or so much thereof as he may deem necessary in the field as long as in his judgment there may be necessity for such a force; and men who may be enlisted in such service shall do so for such term not to exceed two years subject to disbandment in whole or in part at any time and reassemblage or reorganization of the whole force, or such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary by order of the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 6566. [6760] Purchase of supplies.—The quartermaster, when directed by the Adjutant General shall purchase all supplies for the ranger force, and shall make a certificate on the voucher of the party or parties from whom the supplies are purchased to the fact that the account is correct and just, and the articles purchased were at the lowest market prices. [Id.]

Art. 6567. [6761] Equipment.—Each officer, non-commissioned officer and private of said force shall furnish himself with a suitable horse, horse equipment, clothing, etc. If his horse is killed in action it shall be paid for by the State at a fair market value at the time when killed. [Id.]

Art. 6568. [6762] Arms and equipment.—The State shall furnish each member of said force with one improved carbine and pistol at cost, the price of which shall be deducted from the first money due such officer or man, and shall furnish said force with rations of subsistence, camp equipage and ammunition for the officers and men, and also forage for horses. [Id.]

Art. 6569. [6763] Subsistence and quarters.—In addition to the pay allowed to each officer and man of this force, they shall be allowed not to exceed $30.00 per month for subsistence when at their station, and when on duty outside of his district each member of said force shall be allowed his actual necessary expenses for subsistence and quarters, to be paid on a sworn account showing the actual amount expended, not to exceed $3.00 per day. In addition thereto, each member shall be allowed his actual railroad expenses when traveling under orders. When any company of said force furnishes motor transportation without expense to the State, they shall be allowed $50.00 per month per company for repairs and upkeep for said motor vehicle. [Id.]

Art. 6570. [6764] Powers of peace officers.—The officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of this force shall be clothed with all the powers of peace officers, and shall aid the regular civil authorities in the execution of the laws. They shall have authority to make arrests, and to execute process in criminal cases, and in such cases shall be governed by the laws regulating and defining the powers and duties of sheriffs when in discharge of similar duties; except that they shall have the power and shall be authorized to make arrests and to execute all process in criminal cases in any county in the State. They shall, before entering on the discharge of these duties, take an oath that each of them will faithfully perform his duties in accordance with law. To arrest and bring to justice men who have banded together to prevent the execution of the laws or to commit robbery or other felonies, the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of said force may accept the services of such citizens as shall volunteer to aid them; but while so engaged such citizens shall not receive pay from the State for such services. [Id.]

Art. 6571. [6765] Arrests.—When said force, or any member or members thereof, shall arrest any person charged with a criminal offense, they shall forthwith convey said person to the county where he or they so stand charged, and shall deliver him or them to the proper officer, taking his receipt therefor. All necessary expenses thus incurred shall be paid by the State. [Id.]

Art. 6572. [6766] Regulations.—The Governor and Adjutant General shall cause to be made such regulations for the government and control of the organization herein provided for, for the enlistment and employment of non-commissioned officers and privates as they may deem necessary so that the force so provided for shall be as effective as possible. When any complaint is made to the Adjutant General charging any ranger with misconduct or violation of the law, the Adjutant General will have the right to institute proceedings before any magistrate in the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed. Upon application of the Adjutant General said magistrate shall issue process for witnesses to appear and testify under oath, which testimony shall be reduced to writing by a stenographer and transmitted by the court to the Adjutant General, who shall take such action as the facts warrant. The cost of such proceedings including fee of $3.00 of the magistrate and fifteen cents for each one hundred words of testimony so taken and transcribed shall be paid by the Comptroller upon approval by the Adjutant General out of funds appropriated for enforcement of law. Any citizen who knows of any such misconduct or violation of the law on the part of any member of the ranger force shall at once notify the Adjutant General in writing of misconduct, and the Adjutant General shall at once conduct such examination and take such action thereon as the facts make necessary and without delay submit all of such evidence and his actions thereon to the Governor for his approval or disapproval. [Id.]

Art. 6573. Qualifications of members.—No person shall be appointed to the ranger force who is not a citizen of the United States and of Texas, and preference shall always be given to discharged soldiers holding certificates of honorable discharge from the United States Army. All officers and men selected shall be sober men of good moral character and sound judgment, shall furnish satisfactory evidence thereof, and shall conform to such qualifications as the Governor shall prescribe for appointment. All applications for appointment to the ranger force shall be made to the Governor, who shall pass upon the qualifications of each applicant. [Acts 1919, p. 263.]

1. RECORDS

Article 6574. [6767-8] [4585] [4281] Old records transcribed.—When any of the records or indexes of a county become defaced, worn or in a condition endangering their preservation in a safe and legible form, the commissioners court of such county shall procure necessary, well bound books and require the officer having the custody thereof, to transcribe such records into such new books so as to perfectly conform to the original record as indexed. The designation of such new records, whether by letter or number, shall not be changed from the original. Such transcribed records shall be carefully compared with the originals by the officer who transcribes them, assisted by a sworn deputy. [Acts 1876, p. 84; G. L. vol. 8, p. 920.]

Art. 6574a. Old probate records.—The commissioners' court of any county in this State may require the county clerk to record in a well bound book any old probate records or papers that are unrecorded when in the opinion of the commissioners' court such recording is necessary. The commissioners' court shall fix the compensation of the county clerk before the work is done at any amount not to exceed fifteen (15c) cents per one hundred words for recording such records or papers, to be paid out of the General fund of the county. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 162, p. 373, § 1.]

Art. 6575. [6769] [4587] [4283] Correctness certified to.—When such records have been correctly transcribed, the officer with his deputies who transcribed and verified them, shall officially certify at the conclusion of the record to the correctness of the same with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page, stating the number of pages contained in the book from one to the highest number. [Id.]

Art. 6576. [6771] [4589] [4285] Records of county surveyor.—Where the records of the county surveyor's office have been so transcribed, the surveyor shall certify the correctness of such transcribed records and make affidavit thereto before the county clerk of his county who shall impress thereon the seal of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 6577. [6770] [4588] [4284] Original books preserved.—The original books transcribed according to the provisions of this title shall be carefully kept and preserved by such clerk, as other archives of his office. [Id.]

Art. 6578. [6772-3-4] Records of new county transcribed.—The commissioners court of a county which has been created, either in whole or in part from the territory of another county or counties, or to which may have been added since its creation, the territory of another county or counties, shall require the county clerk to transcribe from the record of said other county or counties in substantial well bound record books to be furnished him by the commissioners court, each deed mortgage, conveyance, incumbrance and muniment of title affecting or in anywise relating to all lands and real property embraced in the territory so acquired from such other county or counties, which deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title appear of record in the county or counties from which said territory may have been taken. When the territory acquired was from more than one county, then the clerk shall use a separate book for each county, and such records shall be indexed and arranged as is provided by law. Said records shall be legibly transcribed, and when so transcribed shall be carefully compared with the original record by the said clerk or his deputies who transcribed them. When said record or records have been correctly transcribed, the county clerk and his deputies who transcribed and verified them, shall certify the correctness of such records under their official oath of office at the conclusion thereof with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page. [Acts 1879, p. 105; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1405.]

Art. 6579. [6775] [4593] Pay for making transcript.—The county clerk or person making such transcript shall receive not exceeding fifteen cents per hundred words for transcribing, comparing and verifying said records, the amount to be fixed by the commissioners court in the order directing the transcribing of such records; said compensation to be paid out of the county treasury upon warrant issued under the order of the commissioners court of the newly created county. [Acts 1917, p. 88.]

Art. 6580. [6776] [4593] Translation.—Any commissioners court may require the county clerk of its county to have translated into English all or any part of the archives and records of their offices which are in Spanish and which relate to titles to land, and copy said translations in a well bound book or books, but they shall not contract to pay more than fifteen cents per hundred words for both the translation and recording. [Acts 1893, p. 168; G. L. vol. 10, p. 598.]

Art. 6581. [6777] [4593] Effect of such translations.—When such Spanish archives and records are translated and recorded, said records in English shall have the same force and effect as if the archives and instruments were originally made and recorded in the English language, and certified copies may be used as evidence and otherwise, for like purposes and with like effect as the originals are and certified copies of records of the originals can now be used; and said record books hereinbefore provided for shall be permanent archives and records of the county clerk's office of the counties when so translated and recorded. [Id.]

2. LOST RECORDS, ETC.

Art. 6582. [6778] [4594] [4286] Lost records supplied by proof.—All deeds, bonds, bills of sale, mortgages, deeds of trust, powers of attorney and conveyances which are required or permitted by law to be acknowledged or recorded, and which have been so acknowledged or recorded, which have been lost or destroyed, and all judgments of courts of record in this State, where the record of the court containing such judgment has been lost, destroyed or carried away, may be supplied by parol proof of the contents thereof; which proof shall be taken in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts 1876, p. 45; G. L. vol. 8, p. 881.]

Art. 6583. [6779] [4595] [4287] Proceedings to establish lost records.—Any person having any interest in any such deed, instrument in writing, or any judgment, or order or decree in the district court, the record or entry of which has been lost, destroyed, or carried away, may, in addition to any mode provided by law for establishing the existence and contents of such record, file with the district clerk of the county where such loss or destruction took place, his written application setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought; whereupon such clerk shall issue a citation to the grantor in such deed, or to the party or parties interested in such instrument, or to the party or parties who were or may be interested adversely to the applicant at the time of the rendition of any such judgment, or the heirs and legal representatives of such parties to appear at a term of the district court to be designated in said citation, and contest the right of the applicant to have such deed, writing, or judgment substituted and recorded. Service shall be as provided for process in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6584. [6780] [4596] [4288] Judgment.—On hearing said application, if the court shall be satisfied from the evidence of the previous existence of such deed, instrument, order or decree, and of the loss, destruction or carrying away of the same, as alleged by the applicant, and the contents thereof, an order shall be entered on the minutes of the district court to that effect, which order shall contain a description of the lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record, and the contents thereof, and a certified copy of such order may be recorded in the records of the proper county. [Id.]

Art. 6585. [6781] [4597] [4289] Proceedings in the county court.—Whenever any judgment, order or decree duly entered in the county court of any county has been or may be lost, destroyed or carried away, any person interested therein may file his written application with the clerk of the county court to which the original record belonged, setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought, when the same proceedings shall be had and the court shall enter a like judgment as provided in the two preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6586. [6782] [4598] [4290] Effect of judgment.—Whenever such judgment, order or decree rendered in the district or county court shall be duly entered, it shall stand in the place of and have the same force and effect as the original of said lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record; and when duly recorded may be used as evidence in any court of this State with like effect as the original thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6587. [6783] [4599] [4291] Certified copies may be recorded.—All certified copies from the records of such county, where the records have been lost, destroyed or carried away, and all certified copies from the records of the county or counties from which said county was created, may be recorded in such county; provided, the loss of the original shall first be established. [Acts 1876, p. 45; G. L. vol. 8, p. 881.]

Art. 6588. [6784] [4600] [4292] Originals recorded again.—When any original paper mentioned in the first article of this subdivision may have been saved or preserved from loss, the record of said originals having been lost, destroyed or carried away, the same may be recorded again, and this last registration shall have force and effect from the filing for original registration; provided, said originals are recorded within four years next after such loss, destruction or removal of the records. [Id.; Acts 1879, p. 35; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1335.]

Art. 6589. [6785] [4601] [4293] Force of substituted judgment.—Judgments, orders and decrees, when substituted as hereinbefore provided, shall carry all the rights thereunder in every respect as the originals, especially preserving the liens from the date of the originals, and giving the parties the right to issue executions under the substituted judgments as under the originals. [Id.]

Art. 6590. Copies of records.—All transcribed records and all translations of Spanish archives, and all judgments supplying lost records or other instruments in writing, and all re-recorded deeds or other instruments in writing required by law to be recorded, when made and recorded in accordance with the provisions of this title and certified copies of such instruments shall have the same force and effect as the original record thereof.

Article 6602. [6797-8-9] [4613-14-15] [4305-6-7] Before whom acknowledgments made.—The acknowledgment or proof of an instrument of writing for record may be made within this State before:

1. A clerk of the district court.
2. A judge or clerk of the county court.
3. A notary public.

Without the State, but within the United States or their territories before:

1. A clerk of some court of record having a seal.
2. A commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of the State.
3. A notary public.

Without the United States before:

1. A minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States, resident and accredited in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.
2. A consul-general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States, resident in the country where proof or acknowledgment is made.

3. A notary public. [Acts 1871, p. 77; P. D. 7418; G. L. vol. 6, p. 979.]

Art. 6603. [6800] [4616] [4308] Acknowledgment, how made.—The acknowledgment of an instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by the grantor or person who executed the same appearing before some officer authorized to take such acknowledgment, and stating that he had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein stated; and the officer taking such acknowledgment shall make a certificate thereof; sign and seal the same with his seal of office. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5007; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6604. [6801] [4617] [4309] Party must be known or proven.—No acknowledgment of any instrument of writing shall be taken unless the officer taking it knows or has satisfactory evidence on the oath or affirmation of a credible witness, which shall be noted in his certificate, that the person making such acknowledgment is the individual who executed and is described in the instrument. [Id.]

Art. 6605. [6802] [4618] [4310] Acknowledgment of married woman.—No acknowledgment of a married woman to any conveyance or other instrument purporting to be executed by her shall be taken, unless she has had the same shown to her, and then and there fully explained by the officer taking the acknowledgment on an examination privily and apart from her husband; nor shall he certify to the same, unless she thereupon acknowledges to such officer that the same is her act and deed, that she has willingly signed the same, and that she wishes not to retract it. [Acts 1846, p. 156; P. D. 1003; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1462.]

Art. 6606. [6803] [4619] [4311] Certificate of officer.—An officer taking the acknowledgment of a deed, or other instrument of writing, must place thereon his official certificate, signed by him and given under his seal of office, substantially in form as hereinafter prescribed.

Art. 6607. [6804] [4620] [4312] Form of certificate.—The form of an ordinary certificate of acknowledgment must be substantially as follows:

"The State of _____,
 "County of _____,
 "Before me _____ (here insert the name and character of the officer) on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument and acknowledged to me that he executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed.

(Seal) "Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D., _____."

Art. 6608. [6805] [4621] [4313] Form by a married woman.—The certificate of acknowledgment of a married woman must be substantially in the following form:

"The State of _____,
 "County of _____,
 "Before me, _____ (here insert the name and character of officer) on this day personally appeared _____, wife of _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and having been examined by me privily and apart from her husband, and having the same fully explained to her, she, the said _____, acknowledged such instrument to be her act and deed, and declared that she had willingly signed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed, and that she did not wish to retract it.

(Seal) "Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D., _____."

Art. 6609. [6806] [4622] [4314] Proof by witness.—The proof of any instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by one or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before some officer authorized to take such proof, and stating on oath that he or they saw the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing subscribe the same or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his or their presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein stated; and that he or they had signed the same as witnesses at the request of the grantor or person who executed such instrument; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his official seal. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5008; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6610. [6807] [4623] [4315] Witness must be personally known.—The proof by a subscribing witness must be by some one personally known to the officer taking the proof to be the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a witness, or must be proved to be such by the oath of a credible witness, which fact shall be noted in the certificate. [Id.]

Art. 6611. [6808] [4624] [4316] Form of certificate.—The certificate of the officer, where the execution of the instrument is proved by a witness, must be substantially in the following form:

"The State of _____,
"County of _____.

"Before me, _____ (here insert the name and character of the officer), on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____), to be the person whose name is subscribed as a witness to the foregoing instrument of writing, and after being duly sworn by me stated on oath that he saw _____, the grantor or person who executed the foregoing instrument, subscribe the same (or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed), and that he had signed the same as a witness at the request of the grantor (or person who executed the same.)

(Seal) "Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D., _____."

Art. 6612. [6809] [4625] [4317] Handwriting may be proved, when.—The execution of an instrument may be established for record by proof of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one of the subscribing witnesses in the following cases:

1. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are dead.
2. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are non-residents of this State.
3. When the place of their residence is unknown to the party desiring the proof, and cannot be ascertained.
4. When the subscribing witnesses have been convicted of felony, or have become of unsound mind, or have otherwise become incompetent to testify.
5. When all the subscribing witnesses to an instrument are dead or are non-residents of this State, or when their residence is unknown, or when they are incompetent to testify, and the grantor in such instrument refuses to acknowledge the execution of the same for record.

Art. 6613. [6810] [4626] [4218] Evidence must prove what.—The evidence taken under the preceding article must satisfactorily prove to the officer the following facts:

1. The existence of one or more of the conditions mentioned therein; and,
2. That the witness testifying knew the person whose name purports to be subscribed to the instrument as a party, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
3. That the witness testifying personally knew the person who subscribed the instrument as a witness, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
4. The place of residence of the witness testifying.

Bracketed reference to Revised Civil Statutes 1879, should be to art. 4318, instead of art. 4218.

Art. 6614. [6811] [4319] [4319] When grantor made his mark.—When the grantor or person who executed the instrument signed the same by making his mark, and when also any one or more of the conditions mentioned in Article 6612 exists, the execution of any such instrument may be established by proof of the handwriting of two subscribing witnesses and of the place of residence of such witnesses testifying. [Acts 1863, p. 26; G. L. vol. 5, p. 614; P. D. 5009.]

Art. 6615. [6812] [4628] [4320] Proofs how made and certified.—The proof mentioned in the three preceding articles must be made by the deposition or affidavit of two or more disinterested persons in writing; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, and sign and seal the same with his official seal; which proofs and certificates shall be attached to such instrument. [Id.]

Art. 6616. [6813] [4629] [4321] Officers' authority.—Officers authorized to take the proof of instruments of writing under the provisions of this chapter are also authorized in such proceedings:

1. To administer oaths or affirmations.
2. To employ and swear interpreters.
3. To issue subpoenas.
4. To punish for contempt as hereinafter provided.

Art. 6617. [6814] [4630] [4322] Subpoena to witness.—Upon the sworn application of any person interested in the proof of any instrument required or permitted by law to be recorded, stating that any witness to the instrument refuses to appear and testify touching the execution thereof, and that such instrument cannot be proved without his evidence, any officer authorized to take the proof of said instrument shall issue a subpoena requiring such witness to appear and testify before such officer touching the execution of such instrument. [Acts 1860, p. 75; P. D. 5020; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1437.]

Art. 6618. [6815] [4631] [4323] May compel attendance of witness.—When a witness shall fail to obey a subpoena, said officer shall have the same power to enforce his attendance and to compel his answers as a judge of the district court has to compel the attendance and answers of witnesses; but no attachment shall issue unless the same compensation is made or tendered to each witness as is allowed to witnesses in other cases; and no witness shall be required to go beyond the limits of the county of his residence, unless he shall, for the time being, be found in the county where the execution of such instrument is sought to be proved for registration.

Art. 6619. [6816] [4632] [4324] Record of acknowledgment.—All officers authorized or permitted by law to take the acknowledgment or proof of any deed, bond, mortgage, bill of sale or any other written instrument required or permitted by law to be placed on record shall procure a well bound book, in which they shall enter and record a short statement of each acknowledgment or proof taken by them, which statement shall be by them signed officially. [Acts 1874, p. 155; P. D. 7418b; G. L. vol. 8, p. 157.]

Art. 6620. [6817] [4633] [4325] Contents of statement.—Such statement shall recite the true date on which such acknowledgment or proof was taken, the name of the grantor and grantee of such instrument, its date, if proved by a subscribing witness, the name of the witness, the known or alleged residence of the witness and whether personally known or unknown to the officer; if personally unknown, this fact shall be stated, and by whom such person was introduced to such officer, if by any one, and the known or alleged residence of such person. [Id.]

Art. 6621. [6818] [4634] [4326] Shall further recite.—Such statement shall also recite, if the instrument is acknowledged by the grantor, his true place of residence, if known to the officer; if unknown, his alleged residence, and whether such grantor is personally known to the officer; if personally unknown, by whom such grantor was introduced, if by any one, and his place of residence. If land is conveyed or charged by the instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be mentioned, and the county where the same is situated. [Id.]

Art. 6622. [6819] [4635] [4327] The book a public record.—The book herein required to be procured and kept, and the statements herein required to be recorded in the same shall be an original public record, and shall be delivered to his successor, and the same shall be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen at all reasonable times. [Id.]

Art. 6623. [6820] [4636] [4328] Action for damages.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any provision of this chapter shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, before any court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such neglect, failure or refusal. [Id.]

Article 6624. [6821] [4637] [4329] Patents and grants.—Letters patent from the State of Texas, or any grant from the government, executed and authenticated pursuant to existing law, may be recorded, without further acknowledgment or proof.

Art. 6625. [6822] [4638] [4330] Copies of archives.—Copies of all deeds, transfers, or any other written evidence of title to land, which have been filed in the general land office, in accordance with law, or copies when the originals remain in the public archives, and were executed in conformity with the laws existing at their dates, duly certified by the officers having lawful custody thereof, shall be admitted to record in the county where such land lies. [Acts 1839, p. 52; G. L. vol. 2, p. 52.]

Art. 6626. [6823] [4639] [4331] What may be recorded.—The following instruments of writing, which shall have been acknowledged or proved according to law, are authorized to be recorded, viz., all deeds, mortgages, conveyances, deeds of trust, bonds for title, covenants, defeasances or other instruments of writing concerning any lands or tenements, or goods and chattels, or movable property of any description. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5004; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6627. [6824] [4640] [4332] When sales, etc., to be void unless registered.—All bargains, sales and other conveyances whatever, of any land, tenements and hereditaments, whether they may be made for passing any estate of freehold of inheritance or for a term of years; and deeds of settlement upon marriage, whether land, money or other personal thing; and all deeds of trust and mortgages shall be void as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, unless they shall be acknowledged or proved and filed with the clerk, to be recorded as required by law; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to all subsequent purchasers, with notice thereof or without valuable consideration, shall be valid and binding. [Acts 1840, p. 154; P. D. 4988; G. L. vol. 2, p. 328.]

been deposited in the general land office subsequently to the time when the land embraced by such titles had been located or surveyed, by virtue of valid land warrants or certificates, shall not be received as evidence of superior title to the land against any such location or survey, unless such elder title had been duly recorded in the office of the county clerk where the land may have been situated prior to the location and survey, or unless the party having such location or survey made had actual notice of the existence of such elder title before he made such location or survey. [Acts 1866, p. 32; P. D. 5825; G. L. vol. 5, p. 950.]

Art. 6629. [6826] English language used.—No deed, conveyance or other instrument, whether relating to real or personal property, if in any other than the English language, shall be admitted to record; provided, that all such instruments executed prior to the twenty-second day of August, 1897, may be filed and recorded if accompanied by a correct translation thereof, the accuracy of which is sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. Such translations shall be recorded with the original, and if correct shall operate as constructive notice from and after the date of its filing, if the original be authenticated in the manner required by law. [Acts 1897, p. 11; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1065.]

Art. 6630. [6827] [4641] [4333] Deeds, etc., recorded.—All deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, or other written contracts relating to real estate, which are authorized to be recorded, shall be recorded in the county where such real estate, or a part thereof, is situated; provided, that all such instruments, when relating to real estate situated in an unorganized county, shall be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, in a well bound book, or books, to be kept for that purpose, separately from the records of the county to which it is attached and from other unorganized counties; and the clerk or other officer having the custody of such books, when such unorganized county shall be organized, or has been detached therefrom and attached to another county for judicial purposes, shall deliver such book or books, without charge, to the proper officer of such newly organized county, or of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes when demanded by him; and, where such records have been heretofore kept in separate books, they shall also be delivered in like manner as above, and in each case the same shall become archives of the county to which it is so delivered. Where such records have not heretofore been kept separately, upon the organization or attachment of such unorganized county to another organized county, a certified transcript from the records of such instruments so recorded shall be obtained by such new clerk or officer; and when so made the same shall in like manner become archives of such newly organized county, or county to which such unorganized county may be attached, as the case may be. [Acts 1887, p. 94; G. L. vol. 9, p. 892.]

Art. 6631. [6828] [4642] [4334] Deed, etc., valid against subsequent creditors.—Every conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage or certified copies of any such original conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage copied from the deed or mortgage records of any county in the State where the same has been regularly recorded, although the land may not have been situated in the county where such instrument was recorded, and which shall have been acknowledged, proved or certified according to law, may be recorded in the county where the land lies; and when delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded shall take effect and be valid as to all subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to all creditors from the time when such instrument shall have been so acknowledged, proved or certified and delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only. All certified copies filed and recorded under the provisions of this article shall take effect and be in force from the time such certified copy was filed for record. Nothing herein shall be construed to validate an in-

Art. 6632. [6829] [4643] [4335] Marriage contract.—No covenant or agreement made in consideration of marriage shall be valid against a purchaser for a valuable consideration, or any creditor not having notice thereof, unless such covenant or agreement shall be duly acknowledged or proved and recorded in manner and form as provided by law for deeds and other conveyances. [Acts 1887, p. 94; P. D. 4987; G. L. vol. 9, p. 892.]

Art. 6633. [6830] [4644] [4336] Recorder shall record, etc.—Each county clerk shall record in books to be provided for that purpose all marriage contracts and powers of attorney, and all official bonds required to be recorded in his office, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office, which shall be proved and acknowledged according to law and delivered to him for record. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5005; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6634. [6831] [4645] [4337] Copies from land office.—County clerks shall record all copies of titles recorded in the general land office presented for record; provided, such copies are attested with the seal of the general land office. [Id.]

Art. 6635. [6832] [4646] [4338] Judgments recorded.—County clerks shall record all judgments and abstracts of judgments rendered by any court of this State presented to him for record when attested under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court where such judgment was obtained. [Id.]

Art. 6636. [6833] [4647] Transfers of judgment.—The sale of a judgment, or any part thereof, of any court of record, or the sale of any cause of action, or interest therein, after suit has been filed thereon, shall be evidenced by a written transfer; which, when acknowledged in the manner and form required by law for the acknowledgment of deeds, may be filed with the papers of such suit, and when thus filed the clerk shall make a minute of said transfer on the margin of the minute book of the court where such judgment of said court is recorded; or if judgment be not rendered when transfer is filed, the clerk shall make a minute of such transfer on the court trial docket where the suit is entered, giving briefly the substance thereof; for which service he shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying therefor; and this article shall apply to any and all judgments, suits, claims and causes of action, whether assignable in law and equity or not. When said transfer is duly acknowledged, filed and noted as aforesaid, the same shall be full notice and valid and binding upon all persons subsequently dealing with reference to said cause of action or judgment, whether they have actual knowledge of such transfer or not. [Acts 1889, p. 103; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1131.]

Art. 6637. [6834] [4648] Judgment in justice courts.—Whenever land is sold under execution or order of sale issuing out of a justice court, upon the application of any party interested in said land, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace having the custody of the execution and judgment upon which said execution issued to make from said records a complete transcript of said judgment and the execution issued thereon and levied on land, together with the levy and return of the officer executing the same thereon indorsed, and to certify to the correctness thereof officially; then said transcript shall be admitted to record in the county where the land is situated in the same manner in which deeds are recorded and with like effect; said transcript or certified copy thereof, under the hand and seal of the county clerk of the county where said transcript has been recorded, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner and with like effect that the original judgment and execution with indorsements thereon would have if offered. [Acts 1889, p. 133; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1161.]

Art. 6638. [6835] [4649] Partition to be recorded.—Every partition of land made under an order or decree of a court, and every judgment or decree by which the title to land is recovered shall be duly recorded in the office of the county clerk in which such land may lie; and until so recorded, such partition, judgment or decree shall not be received in evidence in support of any right claimed by virtue thereof. [Acts 1860, p. 75; P. D. 5023; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1437.]

Art. 6639. [6836] [4650] [4340] Decree may be abbreviated.—It shall not be necessary to record the proceedings or the decree rendered in such cases in full; but a brief statement by the clerk of the court in which the same is made, under his hand and seal, setting forth the case in which the partition or decree was made, and the date thereof, and the names of the parties in the suit for partition, and the particular land or lot lying in the county in which the record is made and the name of the party to whom the same is decreed, shall be a sufficient record of such partition, judgment or decree. [Id.]

Art. 6640. [6837] Suit for land; notice to be filed.—During the pendency of any suit or action, involving the title to real estate, or seeking to establish any interest or right therein, or to enforce any lien, charge or encumbrance against the same, any party seeking affirmative relief therein, may file a notice of the pendency of such suit with the county clerk of each county where such real estate, or any part thereof, is situated. Such notice shall be signed by the party filing the same, his agent or attorney, setting forth the number and style of the cause, the court in which pending, the names of the party thereto, the kind of suit and description of the land affected. [Acts 1905, p. 316.]

Art. 6641. [6838] Record of, how made.—The county clerk shall record such notice in a well-bound book, to be styled, "Lis Pendens Record," and at the same time index the same, both direct and reverse, under the names of each and all parties to the suit. For which the clerk shall be allowed a fee of fifteen cents per hundred words recorded, not to be less than fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 6642. [6839] Transfers without notice, valid.—The pendency of such suit or action shall not prevent effective transfers or encumbrances of such real estate to a third party for a valuable consideration and without other notice, actual or constructive, by a party to the suit as against a subsequent decree for the adverse party unless such notice shall have been properly filed under the name of the party attempting to transfer or encumber in the county or counties in which said land is situated. [Id.]

Art. 6643. [6840] Effect of notice.—All such notices of pendency shall be notice to all the world of their contents and that the suit or suits mentioned therein are pending, and such notices shall operate as soon as filed with the county clerk for record, as provided in this Chapter whether service has been had on the parties to said suit or not. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 83, ch. 59, § 1.]

Art. 6643a. In lieu of lis pendens.—In any suit or action of which a notice of pendency thereof has been filed, and in which it shall appear to the court, upon motion made by any party to the suit or other person having an interest in the property affected by the action or in the result of such suit or action, that adequate relief can be secured to the party plaintiff or defendant seeking such affirmative relief therein, by the deposit of money, or in the discretion of the court, by the giving of an undertaking, the court may, at any stage of the proceeding, upon notice to all of the parties to the suit or action to be affected thereby, direct, by order made either in term time or in vacation, that the notice of the pendency thereof be cancelled upon the payment into court of the amount of the judgment sought to be recovered in such action, and such sum in addition thereto as the court may deem sufficient to cover interest likely to accrue during the pendency of the action, and costs.

In lieu thereof, the court may, in its discretion, order that an undertaking be given in a sum double the amount of the judgments sought to be recovered, with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, conditioned that the party or person applying therefor will pay the judgment or judgments sought to be enforced against said property, with interest and costs, in the event that a final judgment shall be entered in favor of the party to such suit filing such notice to the effect that such real estate was, at the time of the filing of such notice of pendency of action, legally and equitably therewith charged. A copy of such undertaking with notice of the filing of same shall be served upon the attorney for the party filing such notice of pendency of suit not less than two days prior to the submission of the same to the court for its approval. Upon the approval of such undertaking by the court, the court may direct that the notice of pendency of action or suit be cancelled of record in the manner above provided. [Acts 1925, p. 353.] [39th Leg. ch. 145, § 1.]

Art. 6644. Federal Lien Record.—The county clerk of each county is authorized to, and shall either file, or file and record, as is or may be provided by the laws of the United States, every notice, abstract or statement of any lien or claim, or release or discharge thereof, in favor of the United States or of any department or bureau thereof, when any such notice, abstract or statement prepared in conformity to the laws of the United States, is presented to him for filing or filing and recording. The county clerk shall number such notices, abstracts or statements, in the order in which they are filed, and if they are required to be recorded, he shall record them in a well bound book to be styled, "Federal Lien Record," and in either case he shall index them alphabetically under the names of the persons named therein or affected thereby, such index to be kept in a well bound book styled, "Index to Federal Liens," and for the performance of these services he shall not charge a fee, but shall be compensated by the county, as provided for in Article 3931. His failure to file, record or index properly any such notice, abstract or statement as herein required, or to be compensated therefor, shall not affect the validity or legality of any such lien or claim, or release or discharge thereof. [Acts 1923, p. 18.]

Art. 6645. [6841] [4651] [4341] Titles to chattels, where recorded.—Every deed, mortgage, or other writing, respecting the title of personal property hereafter executed, which by law ought to be recorded, shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court of that county in which the property shall remain; and if afterwards the person claiming title under such deed, mortgage, or other writing, shall permit any other person in whose possession such property may be to remove with the same, or any party thereof, out of the county in which the same shall be recorded, and shall not, within four months after such removal cause the same to be recorded in the county to which such property shall be removed, such deed, mortgage, or other writing for so long as it shall not be recorded in such last mentioned county, and for so much of the property aforesaid as shall have been removed, shall be void as to all creditors and purchasers thereof for valuable consideration without notice: [Acts 1897, p. 209; Acts 1840, p. 156; P. D. 4993; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1263; G. L. vol. 2, p. 330.]

Art. 6646. [6842] [4652] [4342] Record of a grant, etc.—The record of any grant, deed or instrument of writing authorized or required to be recorded, which shall have been duly proven or acknowledged for record and duly recorded in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such grant, deed or instrument.

CHAPTER FOUR

SEPARATE PROPERTY OF MARRIED WOMEN

- Art.
6647. Property of married women.
6648. May present and prove schedule.
6649. Acquisition after marriage.
6650. Where registration made.
6651. Subsequent creditors, etc.

'28 TEX. CIV. ST.—51

Article 6647. [6844] [4654] [4344] Property of married women.—All property, real and personal, which may be owned or claimed at the time of marriage by any woman, or which she may acquire after marriage by gift, devise or descent, shall be registered as herein directed. [Acts 1846, p. 153; P. D. 4995; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1459.]

Art. 6648. [6845] [4655] May present and prove schedule.—A married woman may prepare a schedule of all the real and personal property which she owned at the time of her marriage and make her statement under oath before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments that the property described in the schedule is her separate property; and upon such statement being made, such officer shall annex a certificate of the fact under his hand and seal of office; which certificate shall be sufficient evidence for the recorder of any county to record the same. [Id.]

Art. 6649. [6846] [4656] [4346] Acquisition after marriage.—A married woman upon coming into possession of any property, real or personal, to which she had claim at the time of her marriage, or which she may afterward acquire by gift, devise or descent, may have a schedule of the same recorded in the same manner as prescribed in the foregoing article. [Id.]

Art. 6650. [6847] [4657] Where registration made.—The registration of the wife's separate property herein provided for, if real estate, shall be made in the county or counties in which the same, or a part thereof, is situated; if personal property, in the county or counties where the same remains; and in case such personal property be removed out of the county, the registration must also be made in the county in which the property is removed within four months after such removal. [Id.]

Art. 6651. [6848] [4659] [4349] Subsequent creditors, etc.—The registration of a schedule of a wife's separate property, made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be conclusive as against all subsequent creditors of and purchasers from her husband. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- Art.
6652. Penalty for failing to record.
6653. Conveyances governed by then existing law.
6654. Prior records; evidence.
6655. May correct imperfect certificate.
6656. Judgment of proof of instrument.
6657. Effect of judgment.
6658. Land in Archer County.
6659. Record of certain titles confirmed.
6660. Shall be evidence, when.
6661. Old registration operative.
6662. Attachments recorded.

Article 6652. [6849] [4660] [4350] Penalty for failing to record.—If any county clerk to whom any instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, and proved or acknowledged according to law, has been delivered for record, shall neglect or refuse to make an entry thereof, or give receipt therefor, as required by law, or shall neglect or refuse to record such instrument of writing within a reasonable time after receiving the same, or shall record any instrument of writing affecting the same property, or any part thereof, before another first deposited in his office and entitled to be recorded, or shall record any such instrument incorrectly, or shall neglect or refuse to provide and keep in his office such indexes as required by law, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered on motion in the district court, one-half to the use of the county, and the other half to the use of the person who shall sue for the same, such clerk having three days' notice of such motion, and shall also be liable to the party for all damages he may have sustained thereby, to be recovered by suit on his official bond against such clerk and his sureties. [Acts 1846, p. 236; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6653. [6850] [4661] [4351] Conveyances governed by then existing law.—The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form or record of any conveyance or other instrument heretofore made, executed, acknowledged, proved or recorded, shall not be affected by anything contained in this title, but shall depend for its validity and legality upon the laws in force when the act was performed [performed].

Art. 6654. [6851] [4664] [4352] Prior records; evidence.—All conveyances of real property heretofore made and acknowledged or proved, according to the laws in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence, and may be recorded in the same manner and with the like effect as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of this title.

Art. 6655. [6852] [4663] [4353] May correct imperfect certificate.—When the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of any instrument in writing may be properly made, but defectively certified, any party interested may have an action in the district court to obtain a judgment correcting the certificate.

Art. 6656. [6853] [4664] [4354] Judgment of proof of instrument.—Any person interested under any instrument in writing entitled to be proved for record may institute an action in the district court against the proper parties to obtain a judgment proving such instrument.

Art. 6657. [6854] [4665] [4355] Effect of judgment.—A certified copy of the judgment in a proceeding instituted under either of the two preceding articles, showing the proof of the instrument, and attached thereto, shall entitle such instrument to record with like effect as if acknowledged.

Art. 6658. [3702] Land in Archer County.—Certified copies of deeds, mortgages, trust deeds, and all other instruments in any manner affecting titles to lands in Archer County which were recorded in Jack County from August 10, 1866 to August 10, 1870, made under the hand and seal of the County Clerk of Shackelford County, shall be admitted in evidence in all suits where secondary evidence is admissible. [Acts 1897, p. 143.]

Art. 6659. [6855] [4666] [4356] Record of certain titles confirmed.—Any grant, deed, or other instrument of writing, for the conveyance of real estate or personal property, or both, or for the settlement thereof in marriage, or separate property, or conveyance of the same in mortgage, or trust to uses, or on conditions, as well as any and every other deed or instrument required or permitted by law to be registered, and which shall have been prior to the ninth day of February, 1860, registered or recorded, shall be held to have been lawfully registered, with the full effect and consequences of existing laws; provided, the same shall have been acknowledged by the grantor or grantors before any chief justice, or associate justice, or clerk of the county court, or notary public in any county within the late Republic or the now State of Texas, or judge of the department of Brazos, or any primary judge, or judge of the first instance in 1835 or 1836, or proven before any such officer by one or more of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and certified by such officer, whether such acknowledgment or proof shall have been made before any such officer of the county where such instrument should have been recorded or not. [Acts 1860, p. 75; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1437; P. D. 5021.]

Art. 6660. [6856] [4667] [4357] Shall be evidence, when.—All such instruments which shall have been acknowledged or proven before any officer named in the preceding article, and which shall have been afterward recorded in the proper county, or certified copies thereof, shall be evidence in the courts, as full and sufficient as if such acknowledgment had been taken or proof made in accordance with existing laws;

but this article and the article preceding shall not be construed so as to affect or bind, in any manner, any person or party with constructive notice of the existence of any deed or other instrument, except after the ninth day of February, 1860, and in the future. [Id.]

Art. 6661. [6857] [4668] [4358] Old registration operative.—Where an instrument in writing has been duly registered in the proper county, and any property conveyed or incumbered by such instrument shall fall within another county subsequently created, the prior registration shall not be deemed to be thereby invalidated or in any manner affected, but shall still continue to be equivalent to an actual notice of its contents to all persons whomsoever; and it shall be the duty of the county court of the new county (and at the expense thereof) to cause a transcript of the record of all such instruments to be made and duly certified and deposited in the recorder's office of said new county, for public inspection, and indexes of the same to be made. [Id.]

Art. 6662. [6858] [4669] Attachments recorded.—Whenever an attachment is levied upon real estate, the officer levying the writ shall immediately file with the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate so levied upon is situated, a copy of the writ, together with a copy of so much of his return as relates to the land in said county. Said clerk shall enter in a book, to be kept for that purpose, the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in attachment, the amount of the debt and the return of the officer in full. Should the writ of attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated, the court in which the attachment suit is pending shall cause a certified copy of said order to be sent to the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate levied upon is situated. The clerk shall, upon the receipt of the same, enter in the book aforesaid the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and record the order of the court in full. If the real estate levied upon is situated in any county other than the one in which the suit is pending, then, in case of failure to make the record aforesaid, the attachment lien shall not be valid against subsequent purchasers for value and without notice and subsequent lienholders in good faith. Each county clerk shall keep a well bound book for the record of the matters aforesaid, and shall keep a direct and reverse index thereto in which shall be entered the names of all the plaintiffs and defendants in the various attachments recorded by him; and the order of the court aforesaid shall be indexed in the same manner. [Acts 1889, p. 80, G. L. vol. 9, p. 1108.]

1. STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Article 6663. Department.—The administrative control of the State Highway Department, hereinafter called the Department, shall be vested in the State Highway Commission, hereinafter called the Commission, and the State Highway Engineer. Said Department shall have its office at Austin where all its records shall be kept. [Acts 1917, p. 416.]

Art. 6664. Commission.—The Commission shall consist of three citizens of the State. With the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall biennially appoint one member to serve for a term of six years, the classification to continue as constituted by law. The Governor shall designate one such member as chairman. Each member shall execute a bond payable to the State in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. The premium on such bonds shall be paid out of the State Highway Fund. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 325.]

Art. 6665. Organization.—The Commission shall hold regular meetings once each month. They shall attend the same and such special or called meetings as they may provide by rule or the chairman may call. They shall formulate plans and policies for the location, construction and maintenance of a comprehensive system of State highways and public roads. They shall biennially submit a report of their work to the Governor and the legislature, with their recommendations and those of the State Highway Engineer. A quarterly statement containing an itemized list of all moneys received and from what source and of all money paid out and for what purpose shall be prepared and filed in the records of the Department and a copy sent to the Governor. These records shall be open to public inspection. [Id.]

Art. 6666. Rules.—The Commission shall establish and make public proclamation of all rules and regulations for the conduct of the work of the Department as may be deemed necessary, not inconsistent with the provisions of law. They shall maintain a record of all proceedings and official orders and keep on file copies of all road plans, specifications and estimates prepared by the Department or under its direction. [Acts 1917, p. 416.]

Art. 6667. To aid road officials.—The Department shall collect information and compile statistics relative to the mileage, character and condition of the public roads in the different counties, and the cost of construction of the different classes of roads in the various counties. It shall investigate and determine the methods of road construction best adapted to the different sections of the State, and shall establish standards for the construction and maintenance of highways, bridges and ferries, giving due regard to all natural conditions and to the character and adaptability of road building material in the different counties. The Department may, at all reasonable times, be consulted by county and city officials for any information or assistance it can render with reference to the highways within such counties or cities, and it shall supply such information when called for by city or county officials; and it may in turn call upon all such officials for any information necessary for the performance of its duties hereunder. Upon request of the commissioners court of any county, the Department shall consider and advise concerning general plans and specifications for all road construction to be undertaken from the proceeds of the sale of bonds or other legal obligations issued by a county, or by any subdivision or defined district of a county; and such information and advice shall be so obtained before any of the proceeds from such bond issues are expended by or under the direction of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6668. Qualifications of engineers.—The Department shall adopt such rules as are found necessary to determine the fitness of engineers making application for highway construction work. Upon the formal application of any county or organized road district thereof, or of any municipality, the Commission may recommend for appointment a competent civil engineer, and graduate of some first class school of civil engineering, skilled in the knowledge of highway construction and maintenance. [Id.]

Art. 6669. Engineer.—The Commission shall elect a State Highway Engineer who shall be a competent civil engineer and graduate of some first class school of civil engineering, experienced and skilled in highway construction and maintenance, who shall hold his position until removed by the Commission. He shall first execute a bond payable to the State in such sum as the Commission may deem necessary, to be approved by the Commission, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. He shall act with the Commission in an advisory capacity, without vote, and shall quarterly, annually and biennially submit to it detailed reports of the progress of public road construction and statement of expenditures. He shall be allowed all actual traveling and other expenses therefor, under the direction of the Department, while absent from Austin in the performance of duty under the direction of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6669a. Auditors, accountants and inspectors.—The Highway Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to employ a Chief Auditor of Accounts and Expenditures, three Engineer Accountants or Inspectors, and two Equipment Inspectors, fix their compensation and pay the same out of the State Highway Fund. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 214, ch. 143, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 214, ch. 143, provides that the authority granted and employments thereunder shall expire on the taking effect of the appropriation for the Highway Department for the fiscal years 1928 and 1929.

Art. 6670. State road map.—The Highway Engineer shall cause to be made and kept in form convenient for examination in the office of the Department, a complete road map of the State as represented in the road construction of the various counties, and such map shall be regularly revised as construction proceeds in the different counties. He shall also prepare, under the direction and with the approval of the Commission, a comprehensive plan providing a system of State highways. [Acts 1917, p. 416.]

Art. 6671. Laboratories.—The laboratories maintained at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and at the University of Texas shall be at the disposal and direction of the Highway Engineer for the purpose of testing and analyzing road and bridge material, and those in charge of said laboratories shall co-operate with and assist said Engineer to that end. [Id.]

Art. 6672. Federal aid.—Any funds for public road construction in this State appropriated by the Federal Government shall be expended by and under the supervision of the Department only upon a part of the system of State Highways. [Id.]

Art. 6673. Control of highways.—The Commission is authorized to take over and maintain the various State Highways in Texas, and the counties through which said highways pass shall be free from any cost, expense or supervision of such highways. The Commission shall use the automobile registration fees in the State Highway Fund for the maintenance of such highways, and shall divert the same to no other use unless the Commission shall be without sufficient funds from other sources to meet Federal aid to roads in Texas, and in such case the Commission is authorized by resolution to transfer a sufficient amount from such fund to match said Federal aid. [Acts 1923, p. 161; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 71.]

Art. 6674. Operating expenses.—The legislature shall make appropriations for the maintenance and running expenses of the Department, fix the compensation of the Highway Engineer and all other employes of the Department, and determine the number of such employes; and shall fix the compensation of the members of the Commission at not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars per annum. The Board of Control shall make contracts for equipment and supplies (including seals and number plates) required by law in the administration of the registration of licensed vehicles, and in the operation of said Department. All money herein authorized to be appropriated for the operation of the Department and the purchase of equipment shall be paid from the State Highway Fund, and the remainder of said fund shall be expended by the Commission for the furtherance of public road construction and the establishment of a system of State highways as herein provided. [Acts 1921, p. 102; Acts 1923, p. 325.]

1A. CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE OF STATE HIGHWAYS

Art. 6674a. Definition of terms.—The term "highway" as used in this Act shall include any public road or thoroughfare or section thereof and any bridge, culvert or other necessary structure appertaining thereto. The term "improvement" shall include construction, reconstruction or maintenance, or partial construction, reconstruction or maintenance and the making of all necessary plans and surveys preliminary thereto. The term "Commission" refers to the State Highway Commission and the term "Department" refers to the State Highway Department. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 456, § 1.]

Art. 6674b. Highway system.—All highways in this State included in the plan providing a system of State Highways as prepared by the State Highway Engineer in accordance with Section 11 of Chapter 190 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature are hereby designated as the "State Highway System." [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 456, § 2.]

Art. 6674c. County aid.—The commissioners' court of each county in the State is hereby authorized to aid the construction and maintenance of any section or sections of a macadamized, graveled or paved road or turnpike in said county constituting a part of the State Highway System and to enter into contracts or agreements with the State Highway Department for that purpose. Any moneys in the available road fund of the county or any political subdivision or defined district thereof may be appropriated for the purpose of granting such aid, hereinafter designated as "county aid." [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 456, § 3.]

Art. 6674d. Federal aid.—All further improvement of said State Highway System with Federal aid shall be made under the exclusive and direct control of the State Highway Department and with appropriations made by the Legislature out of the State Highway Fund. The further improvement of said system without Federal aid may be made by the State Highway Department either with or without county aid. Surveys, plans, specifications and estimates for all further improvement of said system with Federal aid or with Federal and State aid shall be made and prepared by the State Highway Department. No further improvement of said system shall be made under the direct control of the commissioners' court of any county unless and until the plans and specifications for said improvement have been approved by the State Highway Engineer.

Nothing in this section or this Act shall be construed as prohibiting the granting of State aid under the provisions of Chapter 190, General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature and subsequent amendments thereto, nor shall anything in this Act prevent the completion of any highway improvement project already begun or the carrying out of any contract for such improvement. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 456, § 4.]

Art. 6674e. Appropriations from Highway Fund.—All moneys now or hereafter deposited in the State Treasury to credit of the "State Highway Fund", including all Federal aid moneys deposited to the credit of said fund under the terms of the Federal Highway Act and all county aid moneys deposited to the credit of said fund under the terms of this Act shall be subject to appropriation for the specific purpose of the improvement of said system of State Highways by the State Highway Department. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 457, § 5.]

Art. 6674f. Reimbursement of Highway Fund.—The total cost of all improvement of State Highways made with county aid shall be paid out of the State Highway Fund. The county or road district in which any such improvement is made shall reimburse said fund in such amounts, and in such proportion of the total cost of improvement, as may be agreed upon between the State Highway Department, and the commissioners' court of the county. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 457, § 6.]

Art. 6674g. County warrants for construction.—Said county aid shall be paid to the State Highway Department for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the State Highway Fund in partial payments as the improvement progresses. It shall be paid by warrants issued by the county clerk and countersigned by the county judge and approved by the commissioners' court upon accounts of the State Highway Department certified by the State Highway Engineer. Said accounts rendered by the State Highway Department shall be based on certified accounts of contractors, laborers and material-men previously paid by the department, copies of which accounts shall be filed in the county with the accounts rendered by the department; the purpose of issuing said county warrants being to reimburse or partially reimburse the State Highway Fund for moneys paid out of same in improving the section or sections of highway for which county aid has been granted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 457, § 7.]

Art. 6674h. Competitive bids.—All contracts proposed to be made by the State Highway Department for the improvement of any highway constituting a part of the State Highway System or for materials to be used in the construction or maintenance thereof shall be submitted to competitive bids. Notice of the time when and place where such contracts will be let and bids opened shall be published in some newspaper published in the county where the improvement is to be done once a week for at least two weeks prior to the time set for letting said contract and in two other newspapers that the department may designate. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 457, § 8.]

Art. 6674i. Opening and rejecting bids.—The State Highway Department shall have the right to reject any and all such bids. All such bids shall be sealed, and filed with the State Highway Engineer, at Austin, Texas, and shall be opened at a public hearing of the State Highway Commission. All bidders may attend and all bids to be opened in their presence. Copies of all such bids shall be filed with the county in which the work is to be performed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 9.]

Art. 6674j. Contractor's bond.—The successful bidder or bidders shall enter into written contracts with said department, and shall give bond in such amounts as is now provided by law, conditioned for the faithful compliance with his bid and performance of the contract and payable to the State Highway Department for the use and benefit of the State Highway Fund. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 10.]

Art. 6674k. Form of contract.—The State Highway Commission shall prescribe the form of such contracts and may include therein such matters as they may deem advantageous to the State. Such forms shall be uniform, as near as may be. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 11.]

Art. 6674l. Signing contracts.—Every such contract for highway improvement under the provisions of this Act shall be made in the name of the State of Texas, signed by the State Highway Engineer, approved by at least two members of the State Highway Commission and signed by the contracting party, and no such contract shall be entered into which will create a liability on the part of the State in excess of funds available for expenditure under the terms of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 12.]

Art. 6674m. Partial payments.—Said contracts may provide for partial payments to an amount not exceeding (90%) of the value of the work done. Ten per centum of the contract price shall be retained until the entire work has been completed and accepted, and final payment shall not be made until it is shown that all sums of money due for any labor, materials, or equipment furnished for the purpose of such improvements made under any such contract have been paid. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 13.]

Art. 6674n. Condemnation of right of way, and materials.—Whenever, in the judgment of the State Highway Commission, the use of any timber, earth, stone, gravel, or other material, convenient to any road being constructed or maintained under the provisions of this Act will facilitate such construction or maintenance or whenever in the judgment of said commission it is necessary or expedient to construct or reconstruct any such road over a new or wider right of way, the State Highway Commission shall have the right to use any such materials most convenient to such roads and to acquire such land or lands for the public use and benefit as may be necessary for the new or wider right of way. In such cases the owner of such materials or land shall be paid therefor out of the State Highway Fund. Provided, that should the owner of such land or materials and the State Highway Commission fail to agree upon the amount to be paid therefor, then the Attorney General at the request of the State Highway Commission shall proceed to condemn the same for and on behalf of the State of Texas in the same manner as near as may be that commissioners' courts of certain counties may condemn materials under the provisions of Articles 6894 and 6895, Title 119, Revised Statutes, 1911, such condemnation proceedings to be held in the county in which such material or land so to be condemned may be situated. The highway commission's portion of the expense of such proceedings shall be paid out of the State Highway Fund. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 186, p. 458, § 14.]

2. REGULATION OF VEHICLES

Art. 6675. Registration.—Every owner of a motor vehicle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer, or motorcycle used on the public highways of this State, and each chauffeur, shall annually file in the office of the county tax collector of the county in which he resides or in which the vehicle to be registered is being operated, an application for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him, or for a chauffeur's license. The county tax collector shall not issue a license to any person until such application has been filled out in full and signed by the applicant, and until the requisite fee for the number of unexpired quarters for the calendar year is paid. [Acts 1917, p. 423; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 158; Acts 1919, p. 174; Acts 1921, p. 253; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 166; Acts 1923, p. 155.]

Art. 6676. Vehicles exempt.—Road rollers and other road building equipment owned and operated by municipalities, counties or subdivisions of counties; street sprinklers, fire engines or apparatus, patrol wagons, ambulances owned by municipalities or counties; and motor vehicles owned and operated under the direction of and exclusively in the official service of the United States Government, State of Texas, or any county or city thereof, shall not be required to pay the fees herein required for motor vehicles, but application shall be made for and a registration number and distinguishing seal secured for such motor vehicles. [Acts 1917, p. 423.]

Art. 6677. Registration dates.—The registration for all vehicles and chauffeurs hereunder shall begin with the first day of January and end with the 31st day of December of each year. All applications for such registration filed during the first quarter ending March 31st shall be accompanied by the annual fee; all applications except for chauffeur's license, filed during each succeeding quarter shall be accompanied by three-fourths, one-half and one-fourth, respectively, of the annual fee. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 160.]

Art. 6678. Fees: passenger vehicles.—The annual registration fee of a motorcycle shall be five dollars. The annual fee for registration of a passenger motor vehicle shall be based upon the weight of the vehicle and upon the N. A. C. horsepower rating, as follows:

Weight of vehicle in pounds.	Fee per 100 lbs. or fraction thereof.	Fee per horsepower.
Class 1 1000-2000.....	$.40	$.17½
Class 2 2001-3500.....	.50	.17½
Class 3 3501-4500.....	.60	.17½
Class 4 4501 and up.....	.75	.17½

The minimum fee, based on horsepower, shall be four dollars for a full year. [Id.]

Art. 6679. Fees: trucks.—For each motor vehicle designed or used for the transportation of property, the annual license fee shall be based upon the gross weight of the vehicle including the body, plus its net carrying capacity, the tire equipment and the N. A. C. horsepower rating as follows:

Gross weight in lbs.	Fee per 100 lbs. or fraction thereof of the carrying capacity, plus the weight of the vehicle:		Fee per horsepower.
	If equipped with pneumatic tires.	If equipped with solid rubber tires.
Class 1 1000-6000....	$.30	$.40	$.17½
Class 2 6001-8000....	.40	.50	.17½
Class 3 8001-10,000...	.50	.60	.17½
Class 4 10,001-12,000..	.60	.80	.17½
Class 5 12,001-14,000..	.80	1.00	.17½
Class 6 14,001-16,000..	1.20	1.50	.17½
Class 7 16,001-22,000..	1.60	2.00	.17½
Class 8 22,001 and up	4.00	5.00	.17½

[Id.]

Art. 6680. Fees: trailers.—For each trailer or semi-trailer, drawn or designed to be drawn by a commercial motor vehicle, or tractor, the annual license fee shall be based upon the tire equipment and gross weight of vehicle and capacity of load, as follows:

Gross weight in lbs.	Fees per 100 lbs. or fraction thereof:
	If equipped with pneumatic tires.	If equipped with solid rubber tires.	If equipped with steel tires.
Class 1 1000-6000.....	$.30	$.40	$1.00
Class 2 6001-8000.....	.40	.50	1.25
Class 3 8001-10,000.....	.50	.60	1.50
Class 4 10,001-12,000....	.60	.80	2.00
Class 5 12,001-14,000....	.80	1.00	2.50
Class 6 14,001-16,000....	1.20	1.50	3.00
Class 7 16,001-20,000....	1.60	2.00	4.00
Class 8 20,001 and up...	4.00	5.00	6.00

Art. 6681. Fees: tractors.—The word “tractor” as used in this title shall mean any self-propelled vehicle designed or used as a traveling power plant or for drawing other vehicles, but having no provision for carrying loads on its own structure. For each tractor used upon the highways of this State the annual license fee shall be based upon the weight of the tractor as follows:

1,000- 4,000 lbs	$.25 per cwt.
4,001- 6,000 lbs50 per cwt.
6,001- 8,000 lbs60 per cwt.
8,001-10,000 lbs75 per cwt.
10,001-16,000 lbs	1.00 per cwt.
16,001-20,000 lbs	2.00 per cwt.

Art. 6682. Basis of power fees.—For all purposes of this law, the horsepower of any motor vehicle, except electric or steam driven vehicles, shall be determined by the formula commonly known as the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce Formula, being as follows: Square the diameter of the bore of the cylinder in inches, multiply by the number of cylinders, and divide by two and one-half. The horsepower of any steam driven vehicle shall be computed by the system of horsepower rating adopted by the United States Government. For vehicles propelled by electricity the rating shall be the normal horsepower designated by the manufacturer of the electric motor or motors used therein. [Id.]

Art. 6683. Basis of weight fees.—In the computation of the fees for all passenger motor vehicles and tractors the actual weight shall be the weight of the vehicles in pounds, fully provisioned and equipped for use on the highways. For commercial motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers, the gross weight shall be determined by adding the actual weight of vehicles, including body, to the carrying capacity of the vehicle. The Department shall compile and furnish to the tax collectors a schedule of weights of the various makes and models of motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers, to be ascertained from the actual weighing of the vehicles fully provisioned with water, oil and fuel and equipped with the manufacturer’s standard equipment, or from certified statements of the manufacturers of the various vehicles or vehicle bodies. No applicant shall be permitted to register any such vehicle upon a declared weight less than that shown for the vehicle to be registered in said schedule. [Id.]

Art. 6684. Disputed classifications.—The Department shall have authority in disputed cases to determine the classification in which any vehicle belongs and the amount of fee which shall be paid therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6685. Transfer fees.—When any person, other than a dealer, sells a vehicle subject to registration hereunder, he shall indorse upon his certificate of registration a written transfer of the same. The purchaser of such motor vehicle shall pay to the county tax collector of the county of his residence a transfer fee of one dollar, with his full name and address, and he shall then be regarded as the owner thereof and amenable to the provisions of this law. [Acts 1917, p. 423.]

Art. 6686. Dealer’s license.—(a) Any manufacturer of or dealer in motor vehicles in this State may, instead of registering each vehicle he may wish to show or demonstrate on the public highways, apply for registration and secure a general distinguishing number which may be attached to any motor vehicle or motorcycle which he sends temporarily upon the road. The annual fee for such dealer’s registration of a general distinguishing number shall be $15.00, and additional number plates bearing said number desired by any dealer shall be assigned and registered for a fee of $5.00 each. A dealer within the meaning of this Article means any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of selling automobiles who runs them upon the public highways or streets for demonstration for the purpose of sale; and this Act shall not be construed as permitting the use of a dealer’s license or number plate on any vehicle owned or used by such a dealer for any other purpose than demonstration for the purpose of sale. Every dealer in making application for a dealer’s license shall apply for same in writing on a form prescribed and provided by the State Highway Commission. The application shall state that the applicant is a dealer within the meaning of this Act, and if he holds a contract with an automobile manufacturer or distributor for the distribution or sale of motor vehicles or motorcycles he shall so state in the application, giving make of vehicle he handles and name of such manufacturer or distributor. The facts stated in such application shall be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths. No dealer’s license or number plates shall be issued until this article is complied with.

(b) Each dealer holding a dealer’s license may issue temporary card-board numbers using such dealer’s number thereon, which may be used by any person or dealer purchasing a vehicle from such dealer until such purchaser has time to register the same at the tax collector’s office in the county of the residence of such purchaser.

(c) (Manufacturer to give notice of sale or transfer.)—Every manufacturer or dealer, upon transferring a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer, whether by sale, lease or otherwise, to any person other than a manufacturer or dealer, shall immediately give written notice of such transfer to the department upon the official form provided by the department. Every such notice shall contain the date of such transfer, names and addresses of the transferer and transferee and such description of the vehicle as may be called for in such official form.

(d) All registration fees shall be paid in the county in which the owner lives at the time of registration of said motor vehicle. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 296, ch. 211, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 296, ch. 211, provides that it shall be cumulative of all laws on the subject and shall not repeal any laws except those conflicting therewith.

Art. 6687. Chauffeur’s license.—A “chauffeur” is one whose business or occupation is operating a motor vehicle for compensation, wages or hire. Each chauffeur shall pay an annual fee of three dollars for the whole or part of any year he is so engaged. The Department shall prescribe the form of application for chauffeur’s license, and shall require the same to be sworn to by the applicant, indorsed and vouched for by two reputable citizens of the place where the applicant lives or resides when making application, setting forth that they have known or been acquainted with the applicant for a period of not less than sixty days prior thereto, and that he is trustworthy, sober and competent to operate motor vehicles upon the highways of this State. No license shall be issued to an applicant unless he is over eighteen years old. He shall be issued a certificate and a metal badge with a distinguishing number, free of charge. Said badge shall at all times be prominently displayed on his clothing while engaged as a chauffeur, and shall be valid only during the term of his license. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6688. Number plates and seals.—A pair of license number plates, each bearing the same number, shall be issued for every motor vehicle registered. One of such plates shall have permanently printed on it the word "Front" and the other the word "Rear," and the plate marked "Front" shall be securely attached to the front and the one marked "Rear" shall be securely attached to the rear of such vehicle; and both such plates shall remain so attached so long as the vehicle is used on the public highways or streets of this State, or until registered under a new number after a renumbering is ordered by the Highway Commission. Such number plates shall be exhibited without obstruction so that the same are visible from the front and rear of the vehicle, respectively; Provided that the applicant for registration of motor vehicle shall state under oath the kind of motor vehicle the applicant wishes to register and that said number plates will not be used on any car other than the one stated in the application. The State Highway Commission shall prescribe the form, size and number of all number plates. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 146; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 296, ch. 211, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 296, ch. 211, provides that it shall be cumulative of all laws on the subject and shall not repeal any laws excepting those conflicting therewith.

Art. 6689. Replacement license.—If a license number plate, seal or chauffeur's badge is lost or destroyed, the owner of a registered vehicle, or a chauffeur, may obtain from the Department through the county tax collector a replacement number plate, seal or badge by filing with said collector an affidavit showing the fact, and by paying one dollar for each replacement number, seal or badge. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6690. License receipt.—Upon filing an application for license the applicant shall pay said collector the amount of the license fee required by law, and said collector shall issue a receipt therefor showing the name of the holder, the make of his car, the model and the number of the engine of same, or the number of the chauffeur's badge and his name. Such receipt shall be a protection to the holder against prosecution under any provision of the Highway Law regulating the registration of motor vehicles until the receipt by him of the number plates and seals, or badge and certificate. Such receipts shall be issued in triplicate, one to be delivered to the licensee, one forwarded to the Department by the collector, and one retained by him. Said receipts shall be numbered consecutively for each county. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161.]

Art. 6691. Apportionment of funds.—On Monday of each week, each County Tax Collector shall deposit in the County Depository of his County to the credit of the road and bridge fund of that County an amount equal to Seventeen and one-half cents (17½) per horse power of every vehicle registered in such County, together with Thirty per cent (30%) of all weight fees collected by such tax collector, by virtue of Articles 6678, 6679, 6680, and 6681 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; provided, however, that no tax collector of any one County shall deposit in the County Depository of his County exceeding in any one calendar year Fifty Thousand Dollars, ($50,000.00) of such weight fees. The amount so deposited in the County Depository hereunder to be deducted from the gross registration fees collected during the preceding week, and the balance shall be transmitted to the Highway Department. None of said moneys so placed to the credit of the Road and Bridge Fund shall be used to pay the salary or compensation of any County Judge or County Commissioner, but all said moneys shall be used for the construction and maintenance of lateral roads in such county under the supervision of the County Engineer, if there be one, and if there is no such engineer then the County Commissioners' Court shall have authority to command the services of the Division Engineer of the State Highway Department for the purpose of supervising the construction and surveying of lateral roads in their respective counties. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 156; Acts 1927, 40th Leg. p. 235, ch. 162, § 1.]

Art. 6692. Duty of tax collector.—Said tax collector shall forward to the Department the copies of receipts issued to applicants for license, together with the State's part of the remittances therefor. He shall keep a record of all transfers and report same weekly to the Department. Tax collectors in counties having five thousand or more motor vehicles shall receive for such services a two per cent commission on all amounts so collected; and collectors in counties having less than five thousand motor vehicles shall receive a four per cent commission on all money so collected. Such compensation shall be used exclusively to pay salaries of deputies or other employes appointed in accordance with law, and any fees so collected remaining after paying such salaries shall be accounted for as fees of office as provided by law. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 81.]

Art. 6693. Registration supplies.—Upon receipt of such receipts and remittances, the Department shall assign registration numbers to the persons whose names appear thereon, and shall at once forward, charges prepaid, to the collector the required number plates, seals or badges and certificates corresponding thereto, which shall be delivered by the collector, without expense to him or to the county, to those entitled thereto upon application therefor by the owners. The Secretary of the Department shall on or before January first of each year forward to each county tax collector, carrying charges prepaid, registration blanks and receipts, and a number of seals corresponding to the number of motor vehicle and motorcycle registrations in their respective counties for the previous year, which shall be delivered by said collector to the registrants upon the payment of the license fee for the ensuing year. The number of seals so sent out shall be charged to the respective collectors in a book kept for that purpose by the Department, and upon receipt of notification by the said collector, together with the remittance therefor, he shall be credited with the seals so distributed. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161.]

Art. 6694. State Highway Fund.—All funds coming into the hands of the Commission derived from the registration fees or other sources provided for in this subdivision, as collected, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of a special fund designated as "The State Highway Fund," and shall be paid only on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon vouchers drawn by the chairman of the Commission and approved by one other member thereof, such vouchers to be accompanied by itemized sworn statements of the expenditures. [Acts 1917, p. 424.]

Art. 6695. Misrepresenting weight.—If any person shall operate, or permit to be operated, any motor vehicle licensed under this law of a greater weight than stated in his declaration or application, he shall be liable to pay the tax collector of any county through or into which he shall operate, or cause to be operated, such vehicle, the full license fee provided for the class to which such motor vehicle properly belongs. [Acts 1923, p. 156.]

Art. 6696. Unsafe vehicle.—If the Department shall determine at any time that a motor vehicle is unsafe or improperly equipped, or otherwise unfit to be operated upon the public highways, it may refuse to register such vehicle, and may for a like reason revoke any registration already issued. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6697. Delinquent registration.—The registration fee required to be paid upon a motor vehicle shall become delinquent when the owner of any such vehicle operates or permits the same to be operated upon the public highways without first having applied for registration and paid the registration fee therefor. In addition to all other penalties, if at the expiration of thirty days after any registration fee becomes delinquent such fee has not been paid and registration applied for, a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the fee shall be added thereto, and both shall be a lien upon such vehicle. The Department shall collect said fee and penalty by foreclosure upon and by sale of such vehicle in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property by the county tax collector for collection of taxes due on personal property. [Id.]

Art. 6698. Municipal regulation.—The certificate of registration and numbering for purposes of identification, and the fees herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other similar registrations heretofore required by any county, municipality or other political subdivision of this State, and no such registration fees or other like burdens shall be required of any owner of any motor vehicle or motorcycle by any county, municipality or other sub-division of the State. This provision shall not affect the right of incorporated cities and towns to license and regulate the use of motor vehicles for hire in such corporation. Nothing herein shall in anywise authorize or empower any county or incorporated city or town in this State to levy and collect any occupation tax or license fees on motorcycles, motor vehicles or motor trucks. [Id.]

Art. 6699. County traffic officers.—The commissioners' court of each county, acting in conjunction with the sheriff, may employ not more than two regular deputies, nor more than two additional deputies for special emergency to aid said regular deputies, to be known as county traffic officers to enforce the highway laws of this State regulating the use of the public highways by motor vehicles. Said deputies shall be, whenever practicable, motorcycle riders, and shall be assigned to work under the direction of the sheriff. They shall give bond and take the oath of office as other deputies. They may be dismissed from service on request of the sheriff whenever approved by the commissioners court, or by said court on its own initiative, whenever their services are no longer needed or have not been satisfactory. The commissioners court shall fix their compensation prior to their selection, and may provide at the expense of the county, necessary equipment for said officers. The pay of said deputies shall not be included in the settlements of the sheriff in accounting for the fees of office. For the purposes of this law, the commissioners courts of counties whose funds from the motor registration fees provided herein amount to thirty thousand dollars or over, may use not exceeding five per cent of said funds; and not to exceed seven and one-half per cent of such funds in counties receiving a lesser amount from such registration. Said deputies shall at all times co-operate with the police department of each city or town within the county, in the enforcement of said traffic laws therein and in all other parts of the county. [Acts 1919, p. 228.]

Art. 6699a. Salaries of deputies.—Deputies shall be paid a salary out of the general county fund not to exceed one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars per month, the salary to be fixed by the commissioners' court, and in addition thereto the commissioners' court is hereby authorized to provide at the expense of the county such necessary uniforms, caps and badges, such badges to be not less than two inches by three inches in dimensions, and other necessary equipment, to include a motorcycle and its maintenance, as is necessary for them to discharge their duties. The salaries paid to said deputies acting as such highway officer shall be paid direct to said deputies by the commissioners' court, and such salaries shall be independent of any salary or fee paid to the sheriff and all of his deputies not so acting as highway officers, and the sheriff shall not be required to account for the salaries provided for herein as fees of office or as salary to the sheriff or his other deputies. Such deputies as are provided for herein shall be appointed by the commissioners' court and be deputized by either the sheriff or any constable of the county in which they are appointed, and no other officers shall make arrests in this State for violation of laws relating to highways now in effect in this State. Such deputies as provided for herein shall at all times when in the performance of their duties wear a full uniform with a cap and badge, the badge to be displayed on the outside of the uniform in a conspicuous place. Such officers shall remain in and upon the highway, and at all times patrol the same while in the performance of their duties, only leaving the highway to pursue any offender whom such officers were unable to apprehend upon the highway itself. No arrest by any such officer shall be binding or valid upon the person apprehended if the officer making such arrest was in hiding or if he set a trap to apprehend persons traveling upon the highway. No fees or charges whatever shall be made for the service of such officers provided for herein, nor shall any fee for the arrests made by such officers be charged and taxed as costs or paid to such officers in any case in which such officers shall make an arrest. Such officers shall perform all their duties and make arrests for violation of any law of this State appertaining to the control and regulation of vehicles operating in and upon any highway, street, or alley of this State. The district engineer in whose district the county in which such officers operate shall advise with such officers as to the enforcement of the various State laws pertaining to control and regulation of traffic upon the highways, and in case such officers shall not perform their duties in enforcing such laws, the district engineer may complain to the commissioners' court, and upon the filing of such complaint in writing duly signed by the district engineer, the commissioners' court shall summons before them for a hearing the officer or officers so complained of, and if such hearing develops that such officer or officers are not performing their duties as required of them, then such officer or officers shall immediately be discharged from all of their duties and powers as herein provided for, and other officers shall forthwith be appointed. Should any portion or section of this article be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other portion of this article, and all other portions not held invalid or unconstitutional shall remain in full force and effect. [Acts 1925, p. 202.] [39th Leg., ch. 58, § 1.]

Art. 6700. Disposition of fines.—Fines collected for violations of any highway law as set forth in Chapter 1 of Title 13 of the Penal Code, shall be used by the municipality or the counties in which the same are assessed and to which the same are payable, in the construction and maintenance of roads, bridges and culverts therein, and for the enforcement of the traffic laws regulating the use of the public highways by motor vehicles and motorcycles, and to help defray the expense of county traffic officers. [Acts 1917, p. 484; Acts 1919, pp. 228, 310.]

Art. 6701. Width of wheels.—No person, firm, association or corporation shall sell or offer for sale in this State any wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than two thousand pounds and not exceeding four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than three inches in width; or any such wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than four inches in width. This article shall apply to all persons, firms, associations or corporations engaged in the sale of road vehicles, either at wholesale or retail, but shall not apply to individuals selling or offering for sale road vehicles purchased for their individual use. Any firm, association or corporation violating the terms of this article shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, to be collected for the benefit of the county in which such violation may occur. [Acts 1917, p. 139; Acts 1919, p. 284; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 61.]

[Additional legislation, Acts 1925, pp. 135-145.]

Section 1. Wherever used in this Act the following terms shall have the meaning ascribed to each as follows:

(a) "Motor Vehicle" shall include all vehicles propelled otherwise than by muscular power, except motorcycles and vehicles that run exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(b) "Tractor" shall include any motor vehicle used as a traveling power plant or for drawing other vehicles, but having no provisions for carrying loads independently, other than the operator of such tractor.

(c) "Trailer" shall include any vehicle without motive power constructed for carrying passengers or property wholly on its own structure and for being drawn by a self-propelled vehicle, except those running exclusively on tracks or rails.

(d) "Semi-trailer" shall include a vehicle designed and constructed for use in conjunction with a self-propelled vehicle so that some of the weight of its load rests upon and is carried by the towing vehicle, but not including those running exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(e) "Motorcycle" shall include any motor vehicle constructed to travel on not more than three wheels in contact with the ground or public highway, but not those that run exclusively on rails or tracks.

(f) "Bicycle" shall include any vehicle propelled by human power while the person or persons furnishing the power ride such vehicle, except those running exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(g) "Public Highway" shall include any road, street, way, thoroughfare or bridge in this State not privately owned or controlled, for the use of vehicles, over which the State has legislative jurisdiction under its police power.

(h) "Night-time" shall mean the time between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise.

(i) "Person" shall include, wherever applicable, a person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or other concern by whatever name known or howsoever organized or created.

(j) "Headlighting Device" or "Device," when used in the provisions relative to lights on motor vehicles, tractors, or motorcycles, shall include the integral and complete headlamp or a device intended to modify in any manner the beam of the ordinary type of headlighting equipment.

(k) "Ordinary Type of Headlighting Equipment" shall mean a headlamp composed of a lamp housing, plain parabolic reflector, plain glass front or bare reflector, and a clear-glass incandescent lamp or bulb.

(l) "Lens" shall include any headlight lens, cover-glass or front-glass other than a plain glass front.

(m) "Reflector" shall include any reflector other than a plain parabolic reflector.

(n) "Headlight Control Device" shall have the same meaning as that assigned to "Headlighting Device" and "Device."

(o) "Spotlight" shall mean any light or lamp, the direction of the beam from which is controllable from the front seat of a motor vehicle or from the seat or side-car of a motorcycle.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer or bicycle upon any public highway in this State during the night-time if such motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer or bicycle be not equipped with lights complying with the following requirements applicable to any such vehicle.

(a) Every motor vehicle and tractor shall, during the night-time, have two lighted headlamps of approximately equal candle-power attached to the front end thereof, one of said headlamps shall be located to the right of the car axis and the other to the left of said axis. Every motorcycle shall, during the night-time, have one lighted headlamp attached to the front thereof. Each of said headlights of motor vehicles, tractors, and motorcycles shall be visible from the front of the vehicle.

(b) Every motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, or semi-trailer shall, during the night-time, have attached one lighted lamp displaying a red or yellow light visible from the rear of such vehicle; provided, that when more than one of such vehicles are operated while fastened together, one behind the other, only the last of such vehicles toward the rear shall be required to carry such a tail light. Such rear tail light on all such vehicles mentioned in this subdivision shall be so arranged and constructed as to illuminate during the night-time the number plate showing the registration number of the vehicle so that the number plate shall be visible from the rear of such vehicle. Where the construction or use of a motor truck makes it necessary to separate the tail light and the number plate for the purpose of protecting either or both, it shall not be necessary for the tail light to be so placed as to illuminate the number plate.

(c) Every bicycle shall, during the night-time, have attached to it in front a lighted lamp which shall be visible from the front of such bicycle, or a reflex mirror, and attached to it in the rear a reflex mirror or a lighted lamp exhibiting a red or yellow light which shall be visible from the rear of such bicycle.

Sec. 3. No headlight shall be used upon any motor vehicle, tractor or motorcycle operated upon the public highways of this State unless such headlight is equipped with a lens, reflector or headlight control device which has been approved by the State Highway Commission in accordance with the provision of this Act, and which is adjusted as prescribed in the certificate of approval. Before any lens, reflector, or headlight control device intended to enable a headlight to comply with the provisions of this Act shall be used upon any motor vehicle, tractor or motorcycle, such lens, reflector, or headlight control device shall be submitted by the State Highway Commission to be tested by a testing agency as hereinafter specified, and a certificate of approval issued by the State Highway Commission to the manufacturer of such lens, reflector or headlight control device or his agent within this State.

Sec. 4. The University of Texas is hereby designated as the official testing agency for the State of Texas, said tests to be carried on under the supervision of the Experiment Station of said institution. In the event that said institution is unable to carry on the tests herein prescribed, the State Highway Commission shall have the authority to designate a new testing agency. Said testing agency, in either case, shall carry on the tests in laboratories equipped to carry on photometric tests according to the best practice, recognized as such by the National Bureau of Standards and other states requiring tests similar to those required herein.

Sec. 5. Any person, firm or corporation may submit to the State Highway Commission a lens, reflector or headlight control device intended to make a headlight comply with the provisions of this Act, and make application that the same be tested as to conformity with the requirements of this Act. Upon such application being made, the State Highway Commission shall, upon notice to the applicant, submit such lens, reflector or headlight control device to the testing agency as herein designated with the request that such device be tested as to conformity with the requirements of this Act. Each such applicant shall, upon the filing of his application, pay to the State Highway Commission a fee of fifty dollars. All such fees shall be paid by the State Highway Commission into the State Treasury, and they shall be deposited in a fund to be known as the Highway Light Test Fund, and the State Treasurer shall keep such fund separate. The moneys in such fund, or so much of them as may be necessary, shall be used to meet the expense of the tests as herein provided, and for such use they are hereby appropriated, and the balance thereof, if any, shall be paid into the State Highway Fund. Moneys in the Highway Light Test Fund shall be spent under the direction of the State Highway Commission, and may be spent only to defray the expenses of testing by the testing agency herein provided for.

Sec. 6. The testing agency shall conduct an exact scientific test of every device submitted to it as herein provided, and shall report thereon to the State Highway Commission its findings and instructions as to the candlepower lamp or bulb and any particular adjustment to be used with such device.

The sample submitted to the testing agency shall be representative of the device as manufactured and as marketed. They shall be accompanied by printed instructions for their use as issued by the manufacturer of the device. The samples submitted shall include as much of the accessory equipment peculiar to the device (except batteries) as is necessary to operate the device in its normal manner.

In the case of devices to be used in connection with standard parabolic reflectors, the reflectors used in making the laboratory tests shall be of standard high grade manufacture of 1.25 inch focal length, with clean and highly polished surfaces and as nearly truly paraboloidal in form as possible, and as approved for this purpose by the National Bureau of Standards.

The incandescent lamps used in connection with the laboratory tests shall be of standard manufacture and as approved for this purpose by the National Bureau of Standards. In case of devices involving the use of special incandescent lamps, such lamps, together with any necessary accessories, shall be submitted.

Each device submitted must bear a distinctive designation prominently and permanently indicating the name and type of the device. Special incandescent lamps submitted in connection with devices shall bear the manufacturer's normal clear-bulb rating.

The testing agency shall adjust the device in accordance with the printed instructions issued by the manufacturer, which instructions must be adequate for practical purposes. An exact description of the adjustments made for test shall be given in the report.

Sec. 7. The following designations of the focal adjustments of the incandescent lamp in the parabolic reflector are hereby adopted:

Principal Focus. The beam, with bare reflector, or plain front glass, is nearly parallel and of the smallest possible diameter.

Rear Focus. The beam, with bare reflector or plain front glass, diverges as much as possible without having a dark center.

Front Focus. The beam, with bare reflector or plain front glass, converges and crosses near the lamp, and then diverges as much as possible without having a dark center.

Special Focus. A special focal adjustment shall be allowed only when it can be clearly defined and described.

Sec. 8. (a) The testing agency shall make the following photometric tests:

Tests of devices used in pairs. A pair of testing reflectors, mounted similarly to the headlamps on a motor vehicle, shall be set up in a dark room at a distance of not less than sixty feet nor more than one hundred feet from a vertical white screen. If a testing distance of one hundred feet is taken, the reflectors shall be set twenty-eight inches apart from center to center, and if a shorter testing distance is taken, the distance between reflectors shall be proportionately reduced. The axis of the lamps shall be parallel and horizontal, or tilted in a vertical plane in accordance with manufacturer's adjustment. The intensity of the combined light shall then be measured with each pair of samples in turn, with the reflectors fitted with a pair of incandescent lamps of the gas-filled type, six to eight volts, 21 spherical candlepower rating. The lamps shall be such as will give their rated candlepower when operated at their rated efficiency. They shall be operated at their rated candlepower.

Measurements shall be made at the following points at the surface of the screen:

A. In the median vertical plane parallel to the lamp axis, on a level with the lamps.

B. In the median plane one degree of arc below the level of the lamps.

C. In the median plane of one degree of arc above the level of the lamps.

D. Four degrees of arc to the left of the median plane and one degree of arc above the level of the lamps.

QL and QR. Three degrees of arc below the level of the lamps and six degrees of arc to the left and to the right, respectively, of the median plane.

(b) All pairs of samples tested under the conditions prescribed above shall conform to the following specifications for observed apparent candlepower:

Point A. Not less than 1,800 candlepower nor more than 6,000 candlepower.

Point B. Not less than 7,200 candlepower, and there shall not be less than 7,200 candlepower at any point on the horizontal line through B, one degree to the left and to the right of B.

Point C. Not over 2,400 candlepower, and not less than 800 candlepower.

Point D. Not over 800 candlepower.

Points PL and PR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 5,000 candlepower.

Points QL and QR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, but less than 2,000 candlepower.

Sec. 9. Test of devices used singly. Where a device is to be used singly, only one reflector shall be used, and the specifications for the observed candlepower for the test stations in 8 (a) shall be as follows:

Point A. Not less than 1,800 candlepower.

Point B. Not less than 3,600 candlepower, and there shall not be less than 3,600 candlepower at any point [point] on the horizontal line through B, one degree to the left and to the right of B.

Point C. Not more than 2,400 candlepower.

Point D. Not more than 800 candlepower.

Points PL and PR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 2,500 candlepower.

Points QL and QR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 1,000 candlepower.

Sec. 10. The testing agency shall recommend to the State Highway Commission that any device submitted be not given a certificate of approval, even though it passes the photometric tests herein prescribed, if such device has one of the following defects:

Unnecessary loss of light due to absorption or diffusion.

Abnormal or unduly complicated adjustment.

Unstable or bad mechanical construction.

Unduly bright or dark areas or excessive contrast in the illuminated field.

Irregular or badly defined cut-off line.

Sec. 11. In the case that the design or construction of any device is changed in any way which alters the characteristics by which it is ordinarily identified, a new name or type designation must be given, and the device may then be submitted for approval on the same basis as a new device.

Any alteration in the design of any approved device which does not affect its distinctive appearance, but which is made for the purpose of improving its performance or to correct for alterations made in the standard of construction of incandescent lamps or reflectors, may be allowed under the original approval of such device, provided that due notice of such alteration is given to the State Highway Commission and verification tests made to the satisfaction of the commission that the device as altered complies with the specifications herein given.

Sec. 12. As a safeguard against deviations in the design and construction of an approved device from that on which approval was originally based, the State Highway Commission shall have the right to submit from time to time samples of the approved devices to the testing agency for a verification of their performance or to require the submission at suitable intervals of certified copies of reports of such verification tests, satisfactory to the testing agency, made by a person or an organization fulfilling the requirements of a testing authority. In case copies of verification tests are not submitted as required, or in case the verification test shows failure of any device to conform to the specification herein prescribed, the State Highway Commission may suspend or withdraw approval of such device.

Sec. 13. Whenever the State Highway Commission shall receive from the testing agency a report that a particular device has been tested and found to comply with the provisions of this Act, together with instructions as to the candlepower lamp or bulb and any particular adjustments to be used in connection with such device, the commission shall issue to the applicant a certificate of approval, together with a copy of the instructions of the testing agency relative to the use of such device. The State Highway Commission may refuse approval to any device which in its opinion will be, in actual use, unsafe or impractical due to any one or more of the defects detailed in Section 10 of this Act, but upon any such refusal must furnish the applicant a detailed statement setting forth the reason for such refusal.

Upon receipt of said certificate of approval, the applicant may stamp on or attach to, or cause to be stamped on or attached to, all devices identical in design and construction with the device for which the certificate of approval was issued, the following words: "Approved by the Texas State Highway Commission." Should any person stamp upon or attach to or cause to be stamped upon or attached to any such device or equipment the words: "Approved by the Texas State Highway Commission," or any words meaning that such device has been approved by the Texas State Highway Commission when such device or equipment has not been approved by the State Highway Commission, or should any person knowingly sell or offer for sale in this State any device or equipment so marked which has not been approved by the State Highway Commission, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be confined to the county jail for not less than one year, and not more than two years, or by a fine of not less than $100.00 and not more than $1,000.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment; or should any corporation cause or knowingly permit such offense to be committed, the offending corporation shall forfeit to the State of Texas as a penalty the sum of one thousand dollars, and the Attorney General shall sue or cause such corporation to be sued in the district court of Travis County for such penalty.

Sec. 14. Each and every county commissioners' court in this State shall, under the technical supervision of the State Highway Commission, establish and maintain county test stations in the various counties for the purpose of testing and adjusting the headlights on motor vehicles and motorcycles. Said county test stations shall test and adjust the headlights of motor vehicles and motorcycles for proper tilt, proper focal adjustment, and general efficient operation. Proper tilt, proper focal adjustment, and general efficient operation, shall mean the tilt, focal adjustment, and proper mechanical condition as prescribed for the various devices by the State Highway Commission upon the recommendation of the testing agency heretofore referred to. The establishment of county test stations shall mean the designation of any place which shall comply with the requirements for a test station as determined by the State Highway Commission. The number and location of county test stations shall be determined by the county commissioners' court in accordance with the number and geographical distribution of motor vehicles and motorcycles in the county.

Sec. 15. The county commissioners' court shall require the county test stations to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for the test and adjustment of headlights of each motor vehicle and motorcycle. Said court shall require the issuance by the county test stations of a certificate of test and adjustment which shall show the make of the motor vehicle or motorcycle, the registration number, the date of the adjustment, and the official designation of the station making the test. Said certificate shall bear the signature of the person in charge of the test station, and shall be kept by the owner of the motor vehicle or motorcycle for which the certificate was issued until replaced by the certificate for the next year, or by a certificate issued at a later date in the same year. These certificates shall be issued to the county commissioners' court upon requisition to the State Highway Commission, and the county commissioners' court shall issue them to the various test stations. A duplicate of each certificate issued by each county test station shall be forwarded at the end of each month to the county commissioners' court together with as much of the total fee charged for such test as the court may require. The portion of the total fee, if any, to be allowed the county test station for making the test and adjustment for such motor vehicle and motorcycle shall be determined by the county commissioners' court before the designation of any county test station under this Act, but may be changed at any future time as necessity may require.

Sec. 16. Before any county tax collector shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a motor vehicle or motorcycle as now provided by law, he shall require the presentation of a certificate showing that the headlights of such motor vehicle or motorcycle have been tested and adjusted at some one of the county test stations referred to, and that said test and adjustment have been made within the thirty-day period preceding the date of application for registration.

Sec. 17. The expense of the administration of this Act in the various counties shall be paid out of the fees received from the county test stations. At the end of each year any moneys so received and not expended as herein provided shall be paid into the road and bridge fund of the county.

Sec. 18. Upon designation of a county test station, the county commissioners' courts shall appoint the party or one of the parties making the request for designation, or some person satisfactory to both the court and the party or parties requesting the designation, as the official representative of the county. This representative shall sign each certificate issued by the county test station, and he shall be responsible to the county commissioners' court for the proper conducting of the county test station. If the county commissioners' court finds that the business of any county test station is being badly or poorly conducted, it shall be the duty of the court to revoke the designation of said test station. Before the final designation of a county test station by the county commissioners' court, said court shall require of the person who is to be the official representative, as above provided for, such bond and in such amount as the court may deem necessary for the proper safeguard of the funds to be handled.

Sec. 19. County test stations shall re-test and re-adjust the headlights of any motor vehicle without charge upon the presentation by the owner of said motor vehicle or motorcycle of a certificate of test adjustment issued for the current year. No such re-test and re-adjustment shall be made during the period from December 1 of any year to February 1 of the following year, unless so ordered by an officer who has arrested a person for a violation of the provisions of this Act, and who is acting under the provisions of Section 25 hereof.

Sec. 20. The State Highway Commission shall have published and sent to each county commissioners' court in this State a sufficient number of lists of devices approved for use, as hereinbefore provided. These lists shall be distributed by the county commissioners' court to the various county test stations and to individuals upon request. This list of approved devices shall show the required tilt of the headlamp, the candlepower limit of the lamp or bulb to be used with the device, and any other special adjustment required by the State Highway Commission in order to make the device, whole headlamp or portion thereof, comply with the requirements of this Act.

Sec. 21. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association to sell or offer for sale any lens, reflector, or headlight control device which has not been approved by the State Highway Commission as herein provided.

Sec. 22. It shall be unlawful for any operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle to use a spotlight when a motor vehicle or motorcycle, approaching from the front, is in sight. Upon sight of a motor vehicle or motorcycle approaching from the front, it shall be the duty of the operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle upon which a spotlight is being used to immediately extinguish said spotlight, and it shall not be turned on until the approaching motor vehicle or motorcycle has passed. In case the headlights of a motor vehicle or headlight of a motorcycle should fail to function, and the operator of said motor vehicle or motorcycle is without sufficient driving light, the use of a spotlight shall be permissible at all times, but when so used the beam from said spotlight shall be so directed that it strikes the road not more than fifty feet ahead of the motor vehicle or motorcycle upon which it is being used. The provisions of this section prohibiting the use of spotlights under certain conditions shall not apply to police or fire department vehicles.

Sec. 23. Any motor vehicle, tractor, or motorcycle equipped with acetylene headlamps shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Act, concerning headlights, anything to the contrary notwithstanding, if such vehicle has two acetylene headlamps attached to the front portion thereof, of approximately equal candlepower, which shall be lighted during the time specified in Section 2 of this Act, and are fitted with plain glass fronts, bright six-inch spherical mirrors, and standard acetylene five-eighths foot burners.

Sec. 24. Upon the day this Act becomes effective the State Highway Commission may begin to receive applications for the approval of lenses, reflectors or headlight control devices as herein provided, and the commission shall immediately begin submitting the various devices to the testing agency as provided in this Act. Action shall be taken on all applications as soon as the report of the testing agency is received.

No person shall be arrested and prosecuted under this Act until after September 1, 1925, by which time the State Highway Commission shall have distributed, as provided in Section 20, copies of its list of devices which have been approved for use. This list of approved devices may be supplemented from time to time as applications are received and approved by the State Highway Commission.

Sec. 25. Each headlamp of motor vehicles, tractors or motorcycles, including the lens, reflector, or headlight control device used in connection therewith, shall be kept in adjustment according to the certificates of approval of said lens, reflector or headlight control device issued by the State Highway Commission. Any person operating a motor vehicle, or motorcycle which is equipped with a lens, reflector or headlight control device which is approved for use by the State Highway Commission, and who shall be arrested upon a charge that such headlamps or headlamp is equipped with a lamp or bulb not approved for use with such lens, reflector or headlight control device by the State Highway Commission, or that such headlamps or headlamp is not focused or adjusted as directed by the State Highway Commission in its certificate of approval of the lens, reflector or headlight control device, used therewith, shall be immediately released from custody by the officer making the arrest, and said person shall have seventy-two hours in which to have his headlamps or headlamp tested and adjusted or retested and re-adjusted by some one of the county test stations and for this purpose the officer making the arrest shall issue to the person arrested a permit to have the lights of said automobile or motorcycle retested and re-adjusted at any one of the county test stations without charge to the party arrested. The officer making the arrest shall instruct the person so arrested to appear before the justice of the peace or other authority designated by the officer within the seventy-two hour period immediately following the arrest, and, if said person presents to the justice of the peace or other authority designated by the officer making the arrest, a certificate of test and adjustment or re-test and re-adjustment issued by a county test station within the seventy-two hour period immediately following his arrest, the charge shall be dropped and the person arrested released.

Sec. 26. If any section, provision or part of this Act should be held invalid for any reason, it is the legislative intent that the remainder of the Act shall remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 27. If any person violates any provision of this Act, except any provision setting forth a specific penalty, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for the first offense, and not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars for the second or any subsequent offense after the first.

Sec. 28. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Article 6702. [6859] [4670] "Public roads."—All public roads and highways not discontinued that have heretofore been laid out and established agreeably to law are hereby declared to be public roads. [Acts 1876, p. 64; G. L. vol. 8, p. 905.]

Art. 6703. [6860-1-2-76-6902] Commissioners courts: powers.—The commissioners court shall order the laying out and opening of public roads when necessary, and discontinue or alter any road whenever it shall be deemed expedient. No public roads shall be altered or changed except to shorten the distance from end to end, unless the court upon a full investigation of the proposed change finds that the public interest will be better served by making the change; and said change shall be by unanimous consent of all the commissioners elected. No part of a public road shall be discontinued until a new road is first built connecting the parts not discontinued; and no entire first or second class road shall be discontinued except upon vacation or non-use for a period of three years. Said court shall assume and have control of the streets and alleys in all cities and incorporated towns in Texas which have no defacto [de facto] municipal government in the active discharge of their official duties. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L., vol. 9, p. 556; Acts 1885, p. 25; G. L., vol. 9, p. 645; Acts 1889, p. 21; G. L., vol. 9, p. 1049.]

Art. 6704. [6871-2-3-4] Classes of roads.—The Commissioners Courts shall classify all public roads in their counties as follows:

1. First-class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than forty feet nor more than eighty feet wide; all stumps over six inches in diameter shall be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off, and all stumps six inches in diameter and under cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least sixteen feet wide. No first or second class road shall be reduced to a lower class.

2. Second class roads shall conform to the requirements of first class roads except that they shall be not less than forty feet wide.

3. Third class roads shall not be less than twenty feet wide and the causeways not less than twelve feet wide; otherwise they shall conform to the requirements of first-class roads. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 20; G. L., vol. 9, p. 553; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 256, ch. 178, § 1.]

Art. 6705. [6875-6-85] Petition.—The commissioners court shall in no instance grant an order on an application for any new road, or to discontinue an original one, or to alter or change the course of a public road, unless the applicants have given at least twenty days notice by written advertisement of their intended application, posted up at the court house door of the county and at two other public places in the vicinity of the route of such road. All such applications shall be by petition to the commissioners court, signed by at least eight freeholders in the precinct in which such road is desired to be made or discontinued, specifying in such petition the beginning and termination of such road, provided an application to alter or change a road need not be signed by more than one freeholder of the precinct. [Id.]

Art. 6706. [6877-9] Preliminary survey.—All roads ordered to be made shall be laid out by a jury of freeholders in the county, to be appointed by the commissioners court. Said jury shall consist of five persons, a majority of whom may proceed, with or without the county surveyor, as ordered by the commissioners court, to lay out, survey and describe such road to the greatest advantage to the public, and so that the same can be traced with certainty. They shall make written report of their proceedings to the next term of said court, and the field notes of such survey or description of the road shall be included therein, and, if adopted, shall be recorded in the minutes of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6707. [6886-7-8] Notice of appointment.—When juries of view are appointed, the clerk of the court shall make out and deliver to the sheriff duplicate copies of the order appointing them within ten days after such appointment was made, indorsing on such copies the date of such order. The sheriff shall serve the same upon each juror in person, or by leaving one of said copies at his usual place of abode. The sheriff shall make such service within twenty days after he receives said copies, and shall make his return to the clerk on the duplicate copies, stating the date and manner of service, or the cause of his failure to make the same. Any juror of view, summoned as such, who fails or refuses to perform the service required of him by law as such juror, shall forfeit and pay for every such failure the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by judgment on motion of the district or county attorney, in the name of the county. [Id.]

Art. 6708. [6878] [4689] Oath of jury.—Said jurors shall first take the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will lay out the road now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed from the commissioners court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my skill and knowledge. So help me God." [Id.]

Art. 6709. [6880] [4691] Notice to owner.—Said jury shall issue a written notice of the time when they will proceed to lay out such road, or when they will assess the damages incidental to the opening of the same. Such notice shall be served upon each land owner, his agent or attorney, through whose land said road may run, at least five days before the day named therein. If such owner is a non-resident of the county the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and the road may be established after four weeks publication, the cost of publishing to be paid as directed by the judgment of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6710. [6881-2-3-4] Damages to land.—Any such owner may, at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, but not in any event thereafter, present to the jury a written statement of the damages claimed by him, incidental to the opening of such road, and thereupon the jury shall proceed to assess the damages, returning their assessment and the claimant's statement with their report. If the commissioners court approves the report and orders such road to be opened, they shall consider the assessment and damages by the jury and the claimant's statement thereof, and allow to such owner just damages and adequate compensation for the land taken. When same are paid or secured by special deposit with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner and after notice of such payment or deposit to the owner, and if no objection is made to the jury's report, said court may proceed to have such road opened, if deemed of sufficient importance. Said owner may appeal from such assessment as in cases of appeal from judgment of justice courts, but such appeal shall not prevent the road from being opened, but shall be only to fix the amount of damages. [Id.]

Art. 6711. [6889-6900] Neighborhood roads.—Any lines between different persons or owners of lands, any section line, or any direct line through an inclosure containing twelve hundred and eighty acres of land or more may be declared public highways upon the following conditions:

1. Ten freeholders, or one or more persons living within an inclosure, who desire a nearer, better or more practicable road to their church, county seat, mill, timber or water, may make sworn application to the commissioners court for an order establishing such road, designating the lines sought to be opened and the names and residences of the persons or owners to be affected by such proposed road, and stating the facts which show a necessity for such road.

2. Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue a notice reciting the substance thereof directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon such land owners, naming them, to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners court and show cause why said lines should not be declared public highways. Said notice shall be served in the manner and for the length of time provided for the service of citations in civil actions in justice courts, and shall be returned in like manner as such citation.

3. At a regular term of the court, after due service of such notice, if the commissioners court deems said road of sufficient public importance, it may issue an order declaring the lines designated in the application to be public highways, and direct the same to [be] opened by the owners thereof and left open for a space of fifteen feet on each side of said line, but the marked trees and other objects used to designate said lines, and the corners of surveys, shall not be removed or defaced. Notice of such order shall be immediately served upon such owners, and return made thereon, as before provided.

4. The damages to such land owners shall be assessed by a jury of freeholders, as for other public roads, and all costs attending the proceedings in opening neighborhood roads, if the application is granted shall be paid by the county.

5. The commissioners court shall not be required to keep any such road worked by the road hands as in the case of other public roads. [Id.]

Art. 6712. [6899] [4710] Gates.—The owners of land across which a third class or neighborhood road may be run, when the right of way therefor has been acquired without cost to the county, may erect gates across said road when necessary, said gates to be not less than ten feet wide and free of obstructions at the top. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 23; G. L., vol. 9, p. 555.]

Art. 6713. [6901] [4712] Road supervisors.—Except when road commissioners are employed, the county commissioners shall be supervisors of public roads in their respective counties, and each commissioner shall supervise the public roads within his commissioners precinct once each month. He shall also make a sworn report to each regular term of the commissioners court held in his county during the year, showing:

1. The condition of all roads and parts of roads in his precinct.

2. The condition of all culverts and bridges.

3. The amount of money remaining in the hands of overseers subject to be expended upon the roads within his precinct.

4. The number of mile posts and finger boards defaced and torn down.

5. What, if any, new roads of any kind should be opened in his precinct, and what, if any, bridges, culverts, or other improvements are necessary to place the roads in his precinct in good condition and the probable cost of such improvements; also the name of every overseer who has failed to work on the road, or in any way neglected to perform his duty.

Said report shall be spread upon the minutes of the court, to be considered in improving public roads and determining the amount of taxes levied therefor. [Id.; Acts 1913, p. 255.]

Art. 6714. [6903] [4714] Reports.—Said supervisor's report shall be submitted together with all contracts made by said court since its last report for any work on any road, to the grand jury, at the first term of the district court thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 6715. [6904] [4715] Across public lands.—No public road shall be opened across lands owned and used or for actual use by the State, educational, eleemosynary, or other public State institutions for public purposes and not subject to sale under the general laws of the State, without the consent of the trustees of said institution and the approval of the Governor. The roads heretofore opened across such lands may be closed by the authorities in charge of any such lands whenever they deem it necessary to protect the interests of the State, upon repayment to the county where the land is situated with eight per cent interest, the amount actually paid out by said county for the condemnation of said lands as shown by the records of the commissioners court.

Art. 6716. Damage to roads.—The county commissioner of any precinct, or county road superintendent of any county, or road supervisor, whose road is affected, may forbid the use of highways or parts thereof when from wet weather or recent construction or repairs they cannot be safely used without probable serious damages to same, or when the bridge or culverts on same are unsafe, under the following rules:

1. Such officer shall post notices on such highways, stating the maximum load permitted and the time such use is prohibited, and same shall be posted upon the highway in such places as will enable the drivers to make detours to avoid the restricted highways or portions thereof.

2. If the owner or operator of any such vehicle feels himself aggrieved by such action, he may complain in writing to the county judge of such county, setting forth the nature of his grievance. When such complaint is filed, the judge shall set the same down for a day certain not more than three days later, and shall give written notice to such official of the day and purpose of such hearing. The judge shall hear testimony offered by the parties thereto, and upon conclusion thereof, shall render judgment sustaining, revoking or modifying such order or notice, and such judgment shall be final as to the issues raised.

3. The owners, operators, drivers or movers of any vehicle, object or contrivance over a public highway or bridge shall be jointly and severally responsible for all damages which said highway or bridge may sustain as the result of negligent driving, operating or moving of such vehicle, or as a result of operating same at a time forbidden by said road officials. The amount of such damages may be recovered in any action at law by the county judge for the use of the county, and such recovery shall go to the benefit of the damaged road. The county attorney shall represent the county in such suit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 133; Acts 1923, p. 160.]

1. OVERSEERS AND HANDS

Article 6717. [6905] [4716] Road precincts.—The commissioners courts of the several counties shall lay off their respective counties into convenient road precincts and shall number each precinct; and in the order establishing the same shall specify as definitely as practicable the boundaries thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 63; G. L. vol. 8, p. 899.]

Art. 6718. [6906-7] Road force.—At the first regular term of said court in each year, or, if not done then, at any subsequent regular or called term, said court shall appoint an overseer for each road precinct, and designate all the hands liable to work on public roads and apportion them to the several overseers. Hands shall as nearly as practicable be apportioned to work on the road precincts nearest to their place of abode. The supervisor of public roads shall at any time apportion any hands in his precinct who from any cause may not have been apportioned as otherwise provided in this subdivision. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L. vol. 9, p. 556.]

Art. 6719. [6909-10-11-17] Appointment of overseer.—All orders appointing overseers shall embrace the designation of hands liable to work under such overseer, as far as known, and shall specify the boundaries of such overseer's road precinct as laid off by the court. The clerk of said court shall make out duplicate copies of all orders appointing overseers, inserting thereon the duties required of overseers in regard to their non-acceptance of such appointment, and deliver the same to the sheriff of the county within ten days after any such order is made, indorsing on such copies the date of the orders of appointment. The sheriff shall, within twenty days after receipt of such copies, deliver to or leave at the usual place of abode of such overseer, one of such copies, and return duplicate of such copy to the clerk of the county court, indorsing thereon the date and manner of service, or the cause of his failure to serve the same. [Id.]

Art. 6720. [6908-12] Term of service.—The term of service of a road overseer shall be from the time of the service of the order of appointment until the first regular term of the commissioners court in the succeeding year, and during such time he shall be exempt from jury service. If any road overseer dies, removes or is unable to act, the county judge, immediately upon information of the fact, shall appoint an overseer to fill such vacancy, and notify him of his appointment. [Id.]

Art. 6721. [6913-14-15-16] Persons exempt from serving.—No person shall be compelled to serve as an overseer who is lawfully exempt from road duty, nor shall any one be compelled to serve as overseer more than one year in every three successive years. Such person shall notify the clerk of his non-acceptance within ten days after notice of his appointment, and the clerk shall forthwith report the same to the county judge, who shall immediately appoint another overseer for said road precinct. If such exempt person fails to so notify the clerk, it shall be considered an acceptance of the appointment, and he shall not be permitted thereafter to plead his exemption from road duty as a defense against any neglect or failure to perform any of the duties of such overseer. [Id.]

Art. 6722. [6918] [4729] List of overseers.—Each county clerk shall post up in the court house on the first day of each term of the district court held in his county, a list of the names and road precincts of all overseers in the county. [Id.]

Art. 6723. [6919-26] Road duty.—All male persons between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years shall be liable to work on, repair and clean out the public roads under the provisions of this title, subject to the following conditions:

1. Ministers in the active discharge of their duties, invalids, members of volunteer fire companies in the active discharge of their duties, and persons who have not been residing in the county in which they are summoned to work for fifteen days immediately preceding such summons, shall be exempt.

2. Any person so liable who has been summoned to do such duty may furnish an able bodied substitute to work in his place. The overseer shall not accept such substitute if he is incapable of performing a reasonable amount of work.

3. Any person so liable, by paying to his road overseer before the day appointed to work, one dollar for each day he is summoned to work, shall be exempt for each day paid for.

4. Each person summoned to work on a road shall take with him an axe, hoe, pick, spade or such tool as the overseer directs, or if he has no such tool then such other suitable tool as he may have.

5. Each road hand shall perform his duties as such in accordance with the directions of his overseer. No person shall be compelled to do such work more than five days of eight hours efficient service each in each year. [Acts 1876, p. 63; G. L. vol. 8, p. 899; Acts 1883, p. 22; G. L. vol. 9, p. 329; Acts 1895, p. 160; G. L. vol. 10, p. 890.]

Art. 6724. [6927-8-9] Call for hands.—Each overseer shall cause the roads through his precinct to be worked twice in each year; and he may call out all or some of the hands at any time he deems it necessary, or when ordered by the commissioners court or other competent authority. If any hand has not been [been] apportioned by the commissioners court, the overseer nearest such person's residence shall summon such hand. [Acts 1876, p. 66; G. L. vol. 8, p. 902; Acts 1889, p. 21; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1049.]

Art. 6725. [6930-31-32] Summons.—Each overseer shall give three days previous notice, by summons in person or in writing, to each person within his road precinct liable to road duty, of the time and place such person is required to appear to work on the road, and the number of days such person shall be required to work. A written summons may be served by leaving the same at the usual place of abode of the person summoned, with some person residing at such place who is not less than ten years of age, or by posting it on the door of such abode. The overseer may appoint some one to summon the hands and such person shall be exempt from road duty as many days as he was actually so engaged. [Acts 1889, p. 21.]

Art. 6726. [6933-45] Complaints against hands.—Within ten days after he has had his road worked, the overseer shall file with the county attorney or the justice of the peace a sworn complaint against each person so summoned who has failed to work and who is not entitled to exemption from road duty. Overseers shall dismiss from the road any hand who fails to do efficient work, or who hinders other hands from doing their work properly, or dismiss any hand who may be intoxicated, or who shall refuse to obey any reasonable order of the overseers; and the overseer shall also file complaints against such hands. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L. vol. 9, p. 556.]

Art. 6727. [7013] [4791] Bridges.—Overseers of roads shall cause bridges to be erected across all such water courses and other places as may appear to them to be necessary and expedient; and should there be a water course or other place that requires a bridge, dividing any two road precincts, the overseer of each of such precincts, together with their hands, shall meet at the same time and place to construct such bridge, and the overseer chosen by a majority of the hands present shall superintend the building of such bridge until finished. [Acts 1876, p. 67; G. L. vol. 8, p. 903.]

Art. 6728. [6934] [4744] Road material.—If an overseer deems it expedient to make causeways and build bridges, or to gravel any public road, the timber, gravel, earth, stone or other necessary material most convenient therefor may be used. In such case the owner of such material shall be paid out of the county treasury a fair compensation for the same, to be determined by the commissioners court upon the application of such owner. [Acts 1876, p. 66; G. L. vol. 8, p. 902; Acts 1897, p. 84; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1138.]

Art. 6729. Condemnation of road material.—The commissioners court may use either timber, earth, stone, gravel, or other necessary material most convenient therefor to build, repair, or maintain any public road or any part of any public road in the county without regard to the location or extent thereof or the funds from which such repair or maintenance is paid. In such case the owner of any such material shall be paid a fair and just compensation therefor as may be agreed upon by the owner or his agent and the commissioners court. Should the owner and the commissioners court fail to agree upon the compensation to be paid for the material required, then the county, upon the order of said court, shall proceed to condemn the same. If such material is needed for the general system of county highways, then payment shall be made from the road and bridge fund of the county, or from the proceeds of any county issue of bonds. If such material is to be used for the benefit of any defined district or political subdivision of the county, then the cost of such material shall be paid from funds of such defined district or subdivision arising through sale of bonds or the collection of special taxes. The commissioners appointed to condemn the property shall receive two dollars for each day they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties, to be paid out of the same fund from which payment is made for materials on the order of the commissioners court. Compensation awarded by said commissioners for material shall be paid to the owner or deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner, and when so paid or deposited the county shall have the right to enter upon and use said material. If the owner or the county is not satisfied with the compensation awarded, he or said county may appeal therefrom as in condemnation cases; provided, the commissioners appointed to condemn such road material shall, after due hearing, fix a fair and reasonable value for such material; and if it has a market value, then such market value shall be determined and the market value fixed thereon as compensation to the owners, or if the material has no market value, then its value shall be fixed at such sum as the evidence shows the material to be reasonably worth for the purpose for which it was used. The value may be fixed either as a whole or in quantities, by the yard for earth, for sand, or broken stone, or by the perch for stone, and per tree, or per post, or per foot where trees are suitable for lumber or for timbers in such quantities as may be needed upon estimates secured by the commissioners court. [Acts 1901, p. 277; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 44; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 46.]

Art. 6730. [6935] [4745] Drains.—The earth necessary to construct a causeway shall be taken from both sides, so as to make a drain on each side thereof. Whenever it is necessary to drain the water from any public road, the overseer shall cut a ditch for that purpose, having due regard for the natural water flow, and with as little injury as possible to the adjacent land owners. In such cases the commissioners court shall cause the damages to such premises to be assessed and paid out of the general revenues of the county, and in case of disagreement the same may be settled by suit as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6731. [6936] [4746] Wagons and scrapers.—When it may be necessary to use a wagon for any purpose in working a road, or a plow or a scraper, the overseer may exchange the labor of any hand for the use of wagons, plows or scrapers, and the necessary teams to operate the same, at reasonable rates, to be employed as aforesaid. [Acts 1876, p. 67; G. L. vol. 8, p. 903.]

Art. 6732. [6937-40] Mile posts and signs.—Each overseer shall measure such parts of such roads in his precinct as are in continuation, and set up posts of stone or good lasting timber at the end of each mile leading from the courthouse or some other noted place, and mark on said posts in legible and enduring figures the distance in miles to said courthouse or other noted place. He shall place conspicuously and permanently at the intersection of all first and second class public roads in his precincts, index or sign boards, with directions plainly marked thereon, stating the most noted place to which each of said roads leads. The commissioners court may enter into contracts with persons, firms or corporations to mark or designate road intersections as herein provided for, by the use of advertising schemes and devices, and the correct marking of road intersections by such devices shall be deemed a compliance with this law, provided such sign boards are properly maintained. When a mile post or index board is removed or defaced by any means whatever, the overseer shall cause the same to be replaced immediately by another marked as the original one. The overseer may exchange the labor of any hand for the marking of index boards or mile posts. [Id. Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 57; Acts 1923, p. 59.]

Art. 6733. [6941] [4751] Expenditures.—Each overseer shall impartially apply all money coming into his hands as such to the improvement of roads, by repairing or building bridges, hiring hands or teams to work on the road, or in such other manner as he may deem best. He shall pay to the commissioners court any such funds remaining in his hands, when he makes his report thereto. [Act 1876, p. 68.]

Art. 6734. [6942] [4752] Report to commissioners court.—Each overseer shall make written sworn report to the commissioners court at the first regular term thereof in each year, giving the number of hands and their names in his precinct liable to work on the roads; the number of days he has caused his road to be worked; the condition of such road; the amount of funds received by him for his road, from whom received, and for what purpose, and to whom and for what purpose said funds have been paid out, and the amount of such funds in his hands. [Id.]

Art. 6735. [6943] [4753] Pay of overseers.—Overseers shall retain out of money that may come into their hands as such ten per cent thereof as compensation for their services.

Art. 6736. [6944] [4754] Road and bridge funds.—All moneys appropriated by law, or by order of the commissioners court, for working public roads or building bridges, shall be expended under the order of the commissioners court, except when otherwise herein provided, and said court shall from time to time make the necessary orders for utilizing such money and for utilizing convict labor for such purposes. [Const. art. 16, sec. 24.]

2. ROAD COMMISSIONERS

Art. 6737. [6946] [4756] Employment.—Each commissioners court may employ not exceeding four road commissioners, who shall be resident citizens of the district for which they are employed, and when more than one is employed, the district that each road commissioner is to control shall be defined and fixed by the court. Such road commissioners shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon by the court, not to exceed two dollars per day for the time actually engaged. Each road commissioner shall first execute a bond, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. [Acts 1889, p. 134; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1162.]

Art. 6738. [6947] [4757] Powers and duties.—A road commissioner shall have control over all overseers, hands, tools, machinery and teams to be used upon the roads in his district; and may require overseers to order out hands in any number he may designate for the purpose of opening, working or repairing roads or building or repairing bridges or culverts in his district. He shall see that all roads and bridges in his district are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction and control of the commissioners court, inaugurate a system of grading and draining public roads in his district, and see that such system is carried out by the overseers and hands under his control, and shall obey all orders of the commissioners court; and he shall be responsible for the safe-keeping and liable for the loss or destruction of all machinery, tools or teams placed under his control, unless such loss is without his fault, and when he shall be discharged he shall deliver them to the person designated by the court. [Id.]

Art. 6739. [6948] [4758] Expenditures.—He shall expend such money as may be placed in his hands by the commissioners court under its direction in the most economical and advantageous manner on the public roads, bridges and culverts of his district; and all his acts shall be subject to the control, supervision, orders and approval of the commissioners court. He shall work the convicts and such other labor as may be furnished him by the commissioners court. When he has funds in his hands to expend for labor on the roads, and when it shall be necessary for any overseer in his district to work more than five days during any one year upon the public roads, he may employ such overseer to continue his duties as such for such length of time as may be necessary, and pay him for such services not more than one dollar and fifty cents per day for the time actually employed after the five days; provided, that the hands shall not be required to work when there shall be on hand, after building and repairing bridges, a sufficient road fund to provide for the necessary work on the roads. Said road commissioner shall report to the commissioners court at each regular term under oath showing an itemized account of all money he has received to be expended on roads and bridges and what disposition he has made of the money, and showing the condition of all roads, bridges and culverts in his district, and such other facts as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports and at such time as the court may desire. [Id.]

Art. 6740. [6949] [4759] Expenditure of road fund.—The commissioners court shall see that the road and bridge fund of their county is judiciously and equitably expended on the roads and bridges of their county, and, as nearly as the condition and necessity of the roads will permit, it shall be expended in each county commissioners precinct in proportion to the amount collected in such precinct. Money used in building permanent roads shall first be used only on first or second-class roads, and on those which shall have the right of way furnished free of cost to make as straight a road as is practicable and having the greatest bonus offered by the citizens of money, labor or other property. [Id.]

Art. 6741. [6950] [4760] Powers of court.—The commissioners court may make and enforce all reasonable and necessary rules and orders for the working and repairing of public roads, and to utilize the labor to be used and money expended thereon, not in conflict with the laws of this State. Said court may purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools or teams, and hire such labor as may be needed in addition to the labor required of citizens to build or repair the roads. [Id.]

Art. 6742. [6951] [4761] Donations.—Commissioners court or road commissioners may accept donations of money, lands, labor of men, teams or tools, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building roads in their counties, and may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road for the purpose of draining his land, and require the person draining his land to do such work under the direction of the road commissioner. [Id.]

3. ROAD SUPERINTENDENTS

Art. 6743. [6953-4-6] Appointment.—The commissioners court of any county subject to this law may appoint a competent person as road superintendent for such county, or one such superintendent in each commissioners precinct, as it shall determine by an order made at a regular term thereof. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of such court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance with the provisions of this subdivision shall be sufficient. Every road superintendent shall be a qualified voter in the county or precinct for which he is appointed, and shall hold his office for two years or until removed by the commissioners court for good cause. No county shall be under the operation of this law whose commissioners court does not appoint a road superintendent or superintendents. [Acts 1891, p. 149; G. L. vol. 10, p. 151.]

Art. 6744. [6955] [4765] Oath and bond.—Each road superintendent shall within twenty days after his appointment take and subscribe the oath required by the Constitution, and give bond payable to and to be approved by the county judge in such sum as the commissioners court may fix, conditioned that he will faithfully perform all the duties required of him by law or the commissioners court, and that he will pay out and disburse the funds subject to his control as the law provides or said court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6745. [6957] [4767] Salary.—Each road superintendent shall receive such salary as the commissioners court may fix, to be paid on the order of said court at stated intervals. In counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants the county superintendent's salary shall never exceed one thousand dollars per annum, and in counties of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants it shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The salary of precinct superintendents in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and in counties of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, it shall never exceed four hundred dollars per annum. Said court may suspend the salary of any superintendent whose continued services are not needed. [Id.]

Art. 6746. [6958] [4768] Powers.—Subject to the orders of said court, each superintendent shall have general supervision over all public roads of his county or precinct, and shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making, changing, working and repairing of roads, and the building of bridges except where otherwise contracted and over all county convicts worked on such roads, but this shall not prevent the commissioners court from employing a person to watch and manage such convicts and direct the work to be done by them. Said road superintendent shall take charge of and be responsible for the safe-keeping of all tools, machinery, implements and teams placed under his control by the commissioners court and execute his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the county clerk. He shall be liable for the loss, injury or destruction of any such tools, teams, implements or machinery unless such loss occurred without his fault, and for the wrongful or improper expenditure of any road funds coming into his hands. On leaving office, he shall deliver all such money and property to such person as the commissioners court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6747. [6959] [4769] Duties.—Each superintendent shall see that all roads and bridges in his county or precinct are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction of the commissioners court, inaugurate and carry out a system of working, grading and draining the public roads in his county or precinct. He shall act as supervisor of the roads in his county or precinct, and perform all the duties of supervisor devolving on the county commissioners in counties not adopting this law, and he shall do and perform such other service as said court may require. [Id.]

Art. 6748. [6960] [4770] Road districts.—When said court so directs, each superintendent shall divide his county or precinct into road districts of convenient size, to be approved by said court, and define the boundaries thereof and designate the same by number. Such boundaries shall be recorded in the road minutes of the commissioners court. He shall ascertain the names of all persons subject to road duty in each district and keep a record thereof and report the same to the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6749. [6961] [4771] Road hands.—Each superintendent shall call out all persons liable to work on the public roads at any time and in such numbers as he deems necessary, under the provisions of subdivision 1 of this chapter. No person shall be compelled to work outside of his road district. He may contract with any such person to discharge his road duty by the use of a double team, but he shall not allow more than two dollars a day for any team, nor more than three dollars for any hand and double team. [Id.]

Art. 6750. [6962-71] Accounts and reports.—Each superintendent shall make a sworn report to said court at each regular term thereof showing an itemized account of all money belonging to the road fund he has received, from whom received, and what disposition he has made of the same, the condition of all roads and bridges in the county or precinct, and such other matters as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports at such times as such court may require. Within ten days after collection of any money on account of the road or bridge fund he shall pay the same over to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, and shall keep an accurate account thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6751. [6963] [4773] Powers of court.—The commissioners court of any such county is authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools, implements, teams and labor required to grade, drain, or repair the roads of such county, and said court is authorized and empowered to make all reasonable and necessary rules, orders and regulations not in conflict with law for laying out, working and otherwise improving the public roads, and to utilize the labor and money expended thereon, and to enforce the same. [Id.]

Art. 6752. [6964-5] Extra road force.—Each road superintendent shall employ a sufficient force to enable him to do the necessary work in his county or precinct, as the case may be, having due regard for the condition of the county road and bridge fund and the quality and durability of the work to be done, and shall buy or hire such tools, teams, implements and machinery as the commissioners court may direct, and he shall work such roads in such manner as the commissioners court may direct, and such work shall at all times be subject to the general supervision of the commissioners court. He shall make the best contract possible for such labor or machinery, and in payment therefor he shall issue to the person entitled thereto his certificate showing the amount due, the purpose for which it was given, and upon approval by the commissioners court, a warrant shall issue therefor to the holder thereof on the county treasurer, to be paid by him out of the proper fund as other warrants. All such certificates shall be dated, numbered and signed by the road superintendent, and he and his sureties on his official bond shall be liable for all loss or damages caused by the wrongful issue of any such certificate or any extravagance in the amount thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6753. [6966] [4776] Contracts for road work.—The commissioners court may, when deemed best, construct, grade, gravel or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract, and advertise for bids, and may reject any bid. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall enter into bond with good and sufficient sureties payable to and to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as said court may determine, conditioned for the faithful compliance with such contract. At the time of making such contract said court shall direct the county treasurer to pass the amount of money stipulated in such contract to a particular fund and to keep a separate account thereof, and the same shall be used for no other purpose and can only be paid out on the order of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6754. [6968] [4778] Donations.—The commissioners court may accept donations of money, land, teams, tools, or labor, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building or keeping up roads in the county, and said court or any road superintendent, with the concurrence of the commissioners, may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road, the same to be done under the direction of the road superintendent or such other person as said court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6755. [6969] [4779] Overseers.—The commissioners court may retain the system of working hands under road overseers as provided by general laws, and place such overseers under control of a superintendent, under such lawful regulations as said court may prescribe, or may work with the overseers without any superintendent, as may be deemed best. [Id.]

Art. 6756. [6970] [4780] Road duty: exemptions.—The commissioners court of any county in which a special tax for the maintenance of the public roads is levied and collected, as provided in Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution, shall not be compelled to require persons subject to road duty to work on the roads, but in such counties the roads shall be worked wholly by taxation, or by taxation in connection with road service, as such court may deem best. [Id.]

Art. 6757. [6972] [4782] Injuring property.—Any person who shall knowingly or wilfully destroy, injure or misplace any bridge, culvert, drain, sewer, ditch, signboard or mile post or anything of like character, placed upon any road for the benefit of the same, shall be liable to the county and any person injured for all damages caused thereby. [Id.]

Art. 6758. [6973] [4783] Delinquent poll tax payers.—The superintendent shall obtain from the tax collector as soon after the first day of January of each year as practicable and before the first day of May thereafter, a full list of the delinquent poll tax payers of such county for the previous year, and those appearing on said list who are such delinquent poll tax payers shall be subject to road duty for three days during such year in addition to the five days required by law. All the provisions of law governing persons liable to road duty shall apply to persons subject to such duty hereunder. Any such person summoned to road work may satisfy such summons and be relieved from such duty by paying to the road superintendent three dollars, one-third of which shall go to the free school fund, and the balance to the road and bridge fund. [Id.]

Art. 6759. [6974] [4784] Definitions.—As used in this subdivision, "road" includes roadbed, ditches, drains, bridges, culverts, and every part of such road, and "work" and "working" includes the opening and laying out of new roads, widening, constructing, draining, repairing, and everything else that may be done in and about any road. [Id.]

Art. 6760. [6975] [4785] Law cumulative.—This law shall be cumulative of all other general laws on the subject of roads and bridges not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein such general laws shall apply; but in case of conflict with other general laws the provisions of this chapter shall govern. [Id.]

Art. 6761. [6976] Counties exempt.—The counties of Angelina, Aransas, Blanco, Bowie, Calhoun, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Comal, Dallas, Delta, DeWitt, Fayette, Franklin, Galveston, Gillespie, Grayson, Gregg, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hill, Hopkins, Houston, Jack, Jackson, Jasper, Lamar, Lavaca, Limestone, McLennan, Mllam, Montgomery, Morris, Nacogdoches, Newton, Panola, Parker, Rains, Red River, Refugio, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Tarrant, Titus, Travis, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Victoria, Washington, and Wood are exempted from the provisions of this subdivision; provided that the commissioners court of Dallas and Collin counties may accept and adopt the provisions of this law in lieu of the special acts for Dallas, Collin, Grayson and other counties, if in their judgment, its provisions are better suited to Dallas and Collin counties than the said special laws. [Acts 1911, p. 234.]

4. OPTIONAL ROAD LAW

Art. 6762. [6977] Ex-officio commissioners.—In all counties of this State, as shown by the preceding Federal census to contain as many as forty thousand inhabitants, the members of the commissioners court shall be ex-officio road commissioners of their respective precincts; and under the direction of the commissioners court shall have charge of the teams, tools and machinery belonging to the county and placed in their hands by said court. They shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making or changing of roads and the building of bridges under rules adopted by said court. Each commissioner shall first execute a bond of one thousand dollars payable to and to be approved by the county judge for the use and benefit of the road and bridge fund, conditioned that he will perform all the duties required of him by law, or by the commissioners court, and that he will account for all money or other property belonging to the county that may come into his possession. [Acts 1901, p. 277.]

Art. 6763. [6978] Powers.—The commissioners court shall adopt such system for working, laying out, draining and repairing the public roads as they deem best, and from time to time said court may change their plan or system of working. Said court may purchase such teams, tools and machinery as may be necessary for the working of public roads; and construct, grade, or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract in the manner provided in the preceding subdivision of this chapter. Said court may employ any hands and teams on the public roads under such regulations and for such prices as they may deem best. [Id.]

Art. 6764. [6979] County convicts.—The commissioners court may provide the necessary houses, prisons, clothing, bedding, food, medicine, medical attention and superintendents and guards for the safe and humane keeping of county convicts. Said court may provide such reasonable regulations and punishment as may be necessary to require such convicts to perform good work, and may provide a reward not to exceed ten dollars, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund, for the recapture and delivery of any escaped convict to be paid to any person other than the guard or person in charge of such convict at the time of his escape. [Id.]

Art. 6765. [6980] Overseers.—Each commissioner shall have control of all road overseers in his precinct, and shall deliver to each of them such teams, tools and machinery necessary in working the roads therein as have been supplied to him by the commissioners court, taking a receipt therefor, specifying each item and giving its value, which receipt shall be a full answer for the liability of the road commissioner, and shall fix the liability of the road overseer. The commissioner or overseer who shall have been entrusted with any teams, tools or machinery belonging to the county, shall be liable for all damages that may occur to the same while in his possession caused by his negligence or want of due care of same. When the overseer has finished work on his road, he shall return to said road commissioner all teams, tools and machinery received from him and take up the receipt given therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6766. [6981] To direct work.—Each county commissioner, when acting as road commissioner, shall inform himself of the condition of the public roads in his precinct, and shall determine what character of work shall be done on said roads, and shall direct the manner of grading, draining or otherwise improving the same, which directions shall be followed and obeyed by all road overseers of his precinct. [Id.]

Art. 6767. [6982] Road hands.—The road commissioner may require each road overseer in his precinct to call out the hands in such numbers as may be sufficient to perform the work. All road hands in a particular road precinct shall as far as practicable be worked a uniform time. Each road overseer shall have full control of all road hands in his precinct. The overseer may, when he deems it expedient or when directed to do so by the road commissioner, and at the time of notifying any hand to work upon the road, also summon such hand as may be the owner of a team suitable for road work, to bring such team with him to be used in working upon the public roads during such time as the hand may be notified to work upon the public roads. Any hand for so doing shall be credited with and allowed two and one-half days upon his time for which he is liable for road duty for each day he may work in connection with and while furnishing such team, and one and one-half days for his team without such hand. [Id.]

Art. 6768. [6983] Road duty: exemptions.—A person liable for road duty who shall, on or before the first day of February of any year, pay the county treasurer the sum of three dollars, shall be exempt from road duty for such year beginning on the first day of February. The county treasurer shall receive and receipt for all money so paid him and place the same to the credit of the road and bridge fund, and he shall keep a separate account for each precinct from which it was received. The county treasurer shall, on the third day of February, or as soon thereafter as practicable, furnish to each road commissioner a list of all persons in their respective precincts that have paid said sums. [Id.]

Art. 6769. [6988] Law cumulative.—The provisions of this subdivision shall be cumulative of all general laws on the subject of roads, when not in conflict therewith, but in case of such conflict this law shall control. This law shall not be in operation in any county unless the commissioners court thereof in their judgment may deem it advisable, and then only by an order of said court when all the members are present, made at some regular term thereof, accepting the provisions hereof. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of said court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance of the provisions hereof shall be sufficient. [Id.]

Art. 6770. [6989] Certain counties excepted.—The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the counties of Fannin, Lamar, Grayson, Collin, Dallas, and Bell. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 222, ch. 150, § 1.]

5. DRAINAGE

Art. 6771. [6990] Powers.—For the purpose of this subdivision all public roads and highways that have been or may be laid out and established agreeably to law, and all roads and highways that have been opened to and used by the public for a period of ten years prior to March 25, 1897, and which have not been discontinued or closed to the use of the public agreeably to law, are hereby declared to be public roads.

The commissioners court at any regular session thereof may cause to be constructed and maintained, as hereinafter provided, ditches, drains and water courses, hereinafter called ditches on and within the exterior lines of all public roads situated within the county sufficient in capacity to carry off and into the natural waterways of the county, all surface water reasonably adjacent and liable to collect in said ditch from natural causes, or by means of the construction of private lateral ditches as hereinafter provided, for, and shall also have power to construct, in connection with such ditch any side, lateral, spur or branch ditch or water course necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of this law. No ditch shall be constructed along any public road unless at the same time an outlet is constructed to a natural waterway, sufficient in capacity to carry off all water that may collect therein. [Acts 1897, p. 66; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1120.]

Art. 6772. [6991] Culverts.—No road overseer, or any court, shall, on petition or otherwise, have the power to change the natural course of any branch, creek or stream, but such volume of water shall always enter and cross said road at its natural crossing; and overseers shall always, in draining their roads, provide a culvert sufficiently broad and tall to permit said stream to flow at high tide, from its intersection with said road, across its natural outflow at the opposite natural channel. [Id.]

Art. 6773. [6992] Petition.—A petition shall first be filed with the county clerk, signed by at least one hundred tax payers and voters of said county, setting forth the necessity and availability for such drainage system, and the number of miles of public roads within such county, as accurately as the same may be known, and as near as practicable the width and depth required for the ditches to be constructed along the first class roads of the county. Said petition shall also separately state the name and location of each natural waterway of such county crossed by each of the first class public roads of said county, and the distance of said natural waterways one from the other along said road. Said petition shall also state the names and residences, if known, of the owners of the lands adjacent to each of said first class public roads, and within one mile thereof, and, if unknown, shall so state. [Id.]

Art. 6774. [6993] Notice of hearing.—Upon the filing of said petition, the clerk shall issue five notices in writing, containing a brief statement of the contents of said petition, commanding all persons interested to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners court and contest the same. One of said notices shall be posted at the courthouse door of such county, and one each at four other public places in such county, no two of which shall be in the same town or city, for twenty days prior to the first day of the next regular term of the commissioners court after the issuance thereof. Said notices shall be posted by the sheriff of the county, who shall make due returns to the clerk of said court of such notices, on or before the said first day of the term; and for such services the sheriff shall receive three dollars, and the clerk one dollar and fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 6775. [6994-7000] Hearing.—At the time specified, said court shall hear and determine the petition in connection with all protests, remonstrances or objections thereto; and, if they find that the adoption of the drainage system provided for herein is necessary, advisable or for the public benefit, or for the best interest of the county, the court shall so order, and the order shall be entered at length upon the minutes of the court and become a part of the record thereof, and the same shall recite the time, character and manner of service of notice. If it appears therefrom that notice has been given as provided for herein, the said order shall be final. If said court refuses to adopt said drainage system, no other application therefor shall be heard for one year thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 6776. [6995] Survey.—At the same or any succeeding term of said court after the entry of such order, said court shall employ a competent surveyor, who shall be an engineer, to run a line of levels along the public roads of the county, and to measure the same from the beginning to the terminus of said road, and to measure the distance of each waterway crossed by said roads from the beginning point. Said survey and the drainage system shall be first applied to the first class roads of such county, and thereafter to roads of the second and third class. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit said court from constructing one or more ditches at the same time, as the financial condition of the county will permit. [Id.]

Art. 6777. [6996] Survey: report.—The surveyor shall, as soon as practicable after his employment, proceed to make such survey and system of levels, and shall cause stakes or monuments to be placed along said line at intervals of one hundred feet, with such intermediate stakes as may be necessary, numbered progressively, and shall establish permanent bench marks along said lines at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary, and shall establish by stake or monument of a different character and appearance from all other stakes or monuments, the highest point upon said road between each of the natural waterways crossed by the road; and said surveyor shall also measure and establish by suitable marks, the frontage of each tract of land abutting on said road; and if there be a natural waterway adjacent to the line of said road and ditch and the same is necessary to be utilized as an outlet for the water at any point on said ditch, the surveyor shall measure the distance to same, and run the line of levels thereto, at the nearest practicable point on said road and ditch. He shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch or ditches, together with the position of stakes or monuments with numbers corresponding with those on the ground, and the position of bench marks, with their elevations referred to an assumed or previously determined datum. Said map shall also show the lines and boundaries of adjacent land, and the courses and distances of any adjacent watercourse, together with a profile of the line of the ditch which shall show the assumed datum and the grade line of the bottom of the same, and the elevation of each stake, monument, or other important feature along the line, such as top of banks, and bottom of all ditches or watercourses, and surface of water, top of rail and bottom of tie, foot of embankment, and bottom of borrow pits of all railroads. Said map, or the explanation accompanying same, shall in tabular form give the depth of cut, width at bottom and width at top, at the source, outlet, and at each one hundred-foot stake or monument to said ditch; and shall show the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch between each natural waterway into which the water is to be conveyed, and an estimate of the cost of each portion of the said ditch or ditches lying between natural waterways crossed by said road, together with an estimate of total cost of the whole work. He shall also prepare detailed specifications for the execution of such project. Whenever in his opinion it may be advantageous to run said ditch underground through drainage tiles, he shall so state in said report, map and specifications, together with the statement of the locality of said underground ditch, and length thereof, and the dimensions or character of tiling or other material required therefor. As soon as completed, he shall file said survey, report, map, explanation and estimate with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 6778. [6997] Jury of view.—At any regular or called session of the commissioners court after the filing of said report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate, the court shall appoint a jury of five freeholders of the county who shall meet at a time and place to be specified by the said court in the order appointing them. The county clerk shall thereupon issue to said viewers a certified copy of the petition and order of the court, together with the original report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate of the surveyor; and, if said jury of viewers shall fail or refuse from any cause to perform the duties required under such appointment, or if their report, from any cause, should not be adopted, the court may at any succeeding term appoint another jury of viewers, whose appointment and duties shall be the same as required in the first instance. Said jury shall proceed at the time and place so specified, after giving notice to each abutting land owner, and owner of land within one mile of said ditch, as hereinafter provided, and after viewing the line of the proposed ditch and after hearing all protests, claims and remonstrances offered, they shall take the several partial estimates, and the surveyor's estimate of the total cost of the work as a basis, and shall have lines run parallel to the lines of said ditch at a distance of one mile on either side thereof, and shall set apart and apportion to each parcel of land abutting on said road and ditch, or within said parallel lines, and to each person, firm or corporation owning the same, its proportionate share of the one-half of the total cost of said ditch, taking into consideration the relative amount of benefit derived by said land from the construction thereof. They shall assess the amount of damages or compensation due to each land owner through whose land any spur, branch or lateral ditch, is or may be constructed under the order of appointment. Before such ditch is opened said sum shall be paid on the order of the commissioners court out of the county treasury from the fund set aside for the construction of said ditch. Said jury shall make a sworn report to the commissioners court as soon as practicable after their meeting, signed by at least three of said jury, and shall return with their report an accurate and full description of each tract of land assessed by them, with the number of acres and the name of the owners thereof, and the amount assessed against each tract and the owner thereof. The jury shall also return with their report the map, profile, explanation and estimates of the surveyor, together with a copy of the specifications; and the same shall be filed with the clerk, and shall become a public record and be preserved as such. The court shall act upon said report at the next regular or

called term, and approve or reject the same; provided that the court may appoint separate juries of view for each road and ditch to be constructed, if deemed desirable or advantageous to the public. [Id.]

Art. 6779. [6998] Oath of viewers.—Said jury shall first take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I am not directly interested in the construction of the proposed ditch, either as the owner or otherwise, of adjacent land lying within one mile thereof, and that I am not of kin to any person who is so interested. I further swear that I have no bias or prejudice toward any person directly interested in said ditch, and that I will assess the amount of expense due on and by all adjacent lands lying within one mile of said ditch, according to law, without fear, favor, hatred or hope of reward, to the best of my knowledge and ability. So help me God." [Id.]

Art. 6780. [6999] Notice of assessments.—The said jury shall issue a written notice to the land owner of each abutting tract along said ditch, and to each land owner, any part of whose land lies within one mile of the line of said ditch, or to his agent or attorney, of the time and place when they will assess the one-half of the expense incidental to the construction of the ditch or ditches specified in the order of appointment; which notice shall be served at least five days before the day named therein, by any person competent to testify; and a duplicate of said notice, together with the returns of said service, shall be returned and filed with the report of the jury of viewers. If such owner is a non-resident of the county, and has no resident, agent or attorney therein, the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants in actions in the district court; and said notices shall be complete after four weeks publication thereof prior to the date named for the meeting of the jury of view, and at any time thereafter the jury of viewers may proceed to assess the proportionate part of such expense against said non-resident land owner, and the land owned by him subject thereto. The cost of such publication shall be paid by the county, on an order of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6781. [7001] Claims.—Any person whose land may be affected by such ditch may appear before said viewers and freely express his opinion on all matters pertaining to the assessment of expense against him. The owner of any such lands may at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a written statement of any objections to, or dissatisfaction therewith, and any claim for damages which he may have sustained by reason of making said ditch or drain; and a failure to so make such objection or claim for damages or compensation shall be deemed a waiver of all claim or right thereto. All such claims or objections shall be returned to the commissioners court in connection with the report of the viewers. Any adjacent land owner may appear before and be heard by the commissioners court on his protest or remonstrance or claim against the action of said jury. [Id.]

Art. 6782. [7002] Appeals.—Any person, firm or corporation, aggrieved by any such assessments, may appeal from the final order of the commissioners court approving the report of said jury to any proper court within the county by giving notice of appeal in open court and having the same entered as a part of the judgment of the court, and by filing within ten days thereafter, a transcript of the proceeding had in the commissioners court, with the justice or clerk of the court to which appeal is taken, together with an appeal bond, with at least two good sureties, to be approved by such clerk or justice, in double the amount of the probable costs to accrue, conditioned that the appellant will prosecute his appeal to effect, and pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court. Appeals from an assessment of expense shall be heard upon this issue: whether the assessments made against the appellant for the construction of such ditch are in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom. Appeals from an assessment of compensation shall be heard upon this issue: whether the assessment of compensation made by the jury is adequate to the injury occasioned and to the value of the land. [Id.]

Art. 6783. [7003] Trial on appeal.—In the trial of all such appealed cases the burden of proof shall rest upon the appellant; and the court or jury trying the cause shall state the correct amount of expense chargeable to appellant, or the correct amount of compensation due to appellant as found by them, and the same shall be entered as the judgment of the court thereon, and from such judgment no further appeal shall be allowed to either party. If the verdict of the jury shall find the appellant chargeable with a less amount of expense, or that the appellant is entitled to a greater amount of compensation as damages, than was found by the jury of viewers, the costs shall be adjudged against the county; otherwise the same shall be adjudged against the appellant. Within five days after the entry of such judgment, the clerk or justice shall issue and return to the commissioners court a certified copy of such judgment, to be filed with the papers pertaining to such ditch, and the same shall be entered by the commissioners court as the judgment of said court, and thereafter the appellant shall be held for, or claim, the amount specified in said judgment. [Id.]

Art. 6784. [7004] Appropriation: construction.—The commissioners court of such county may, at the next term thereof, after the filing of the report of the jury of viewers and the entry of the order approving the same, if the report be approved, make an order setting aside such portion of the road and bridge fund, and such portion of the special road and bridge fund as may be necessary for the construction of the ditch described in the report of the jury of viewers, and shall also enter an order to the overseers of the road adjoining said ditch or to the supervisors of the road, or to the road commissioner, commanding him to construct such ditch in accordance with the specifications of the surveyor, which shall be turned over to him for his information, and that the earth taken therefrom shall be used in making a raised road adjoining said ditch. The court shall further order that all the road hands apportioned to said road, and that any teams, tools or materials, belonging to the county, and necessary to the execution of such work, be apportioned to said overseer, supervisor or commissioner, for the completion thereof; and shall authorize such overseer, supervisor or commissioner to employ such additional labor and teams, and to purchase tools and implements as may be necessary, to be paid for out of the road and bridge fund set aside therefor, on the order of the commissioners court, and said order shall also show the amount of compensation to be allowed to said overseer, supervisor, or road commissioner for his services. [Id.]

Art. 6785. [7005] Special overseer.—The commissioners court may employ some suitable and competent person, other than the overseer, road commissioner or supervisor, if to the best interest of the county, and such person shall have the same powers, duties and responsibilities as provided for overseers, road commissioners, and supervisors in the preceding article, and the court shall enter an order showing the amount of compensation to be paid him for his services. [Id.]

Art. 6786. [7006] List of assessments.—At the same or at any succeeding term after the entry of such order for the construction of the ditches and roadway, the commissioners court shall make and enter upon the minutes of the court a list showing the names of the owners, amounts due, the tract of land, original grantees, number of acres covered by each assessment of expense, as made and reported by the jury of viewers and approved by the court; and the county clerk shall issue a certificate against each person on said list showing the amount of each assessment and for what ditch or road the same was issued; and the tract of land on which said amount was assessed. Such certificate shall be signed by the county judge in open court, and attested under the hand and seal of the county clerk, which fact shall be noted upon the minutes of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6787. [7007-8-9] Assessments: collection.—All assessments, sums, and charges by said viewers, or order of court, assessed against any land and the owner thereof, shall be a lien thereon, unless prohibited by the Constitution of this State. The county judge shall deliver the certificate to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the papers and archives concerning such ditch; and the county treasurer shall collect the sums due on such certificates, and deposit the amount so collected to the credit of the road and bridge fund. If any person against whom any such certificate may be issued fails or refuses to pay the same to the county treasurer on demand therefor, such treasurer shall turn same over to the county attorney, who shall at once file suit thereon, and have the lien on said land foreclosed, or for a personal judgment as may be lawful. [Id.]

Art. 6788. [7010] Compensation.—The jury of viewers shall each receive three dollars per day for their services for each day so actually engaged; and said surveyor shall receive such sum as the commissioners court may allow. [Id.]

Art. 6789. [7011] Private ditch.—Any owner of lands or tracts of land abutting on said road or ditch, or the owner of any tract of land lying wholly or partially within one mile of such road or ditch, may construct at his own cost lateral drainage ditches and connect the same with such main ditch or ditches as shall be constructed under the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

SPECIAL ROAD TAX

Art.

- 6790. Election.
- 6791. Election, conduct of.
- 6792. Result of election.
- 6793. No bonds to issue.

Article 6790. [7042] Election.—The commissioners court shall order an election upon presentation to it at any regular session of a petition signed by two hundred qualified voters and property tax payers of the county, or a petition of fifty persons so qualified in any political subdivision or defined district of the county, requesting said court to order an election to determine whether said court shall levy upon the property within said territory a road tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, under the provisions of the amendment of 1889 to the Constitution of the State of Texas, adopted in 1890. Said court may act on such petition without notice, and may make an order for such election, fixing the amount to be levied, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, the election to take place at any time thereafter, not less than twenty nor more than ninety days from the date of making the order therefor. Upon a petition signed by a majority of the qualified tax paying voters of any portion of any county or of any political subdivision of any county, to said court requesting that such portion of said county or political subdivision shall be created as a defined district, the said court shall declare such territory a defined district and spread the order for same upon the minutes of said court; provided the petition aforesaid shall define by metes and bounds the territory desired to be so incorporated in such defined district. [Acts 1891, p. 51; G. L. vol. 10, p. 53; Acts 1913, p. 30.]

Art. 6791. [7043-4] Election, conduct of.—No formal notice need be given of such election, but the county judge shall issue his election proclamation; and the fact that such election is to be held shall be published in the newspapers of the county or political subdivision or defined district as fully as practicable. Tickets for the election shall be printed by the county and sent to each voting precinct by the county judge before the election opens, and as long before such time as practicable. The tickets printed and to be voted shall have written or printed on them the words: "For the Tax" and "Against the Tax," and those who favor the tax shall vote the ticket "For the Tax," and those who oppose the tax shall vote the ticket "Against the Tax." The expenses of the election shall be paid for by the county. An election ordered within ninety days of a general election shall be held on the day of the general election, and as elections on other questions are held, but otherwise the commissioners court shall order a special election which shall be conducted as other elections. The officers to conduct the same shall be appointed as in other cases. Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the county or political subdivision or defined district shall be permitted to vote at such election.

Art. 6792. [7045] Result of election.—If at any such election a majority of the qualified voters voting thereat shall vote for such tax, it shall not be necessary to make further proclamation of that fact than to count the votes, as in other cases, and officially announce the result, and the commissioners court shall thereby be authorized and required to levy a road tax in the same manner that other taxes are levied in the amount specified in said order for such election, never to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. Such levy shall be made at the same time other county taxes are levied, if such election is held in time therefor, but otherwise it may be made at any time before the rolls are made out. If at the election, the proposition for said tax shall carry, no petition for its repeal shall be granted in less than two years. But if it fail to carry, another petition may be granted in one year, but not sooner; and the order granting the second or any subsequent petition may fix a greater or less rate of levy, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, and if no greater rate is levied for any one year the commissioners court may lower the rate for the next year without a petition therefor. An election to repeal the levy may be ordered and held as in other cases, but there must be satisfactory proof presented to said commissioners court that there is great dissatisfaction with such tax and that it is probable that a majority of the citizens of the county or political subdivision or defined district who are authorized to vote for said tax would vote for the repeal of the law, and unless such proof be made the petition to repeal shall be denied. [Id.]

Art. 6793. [7046] No bonds to issue.—No bonds shall ever be issued under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

1. BRIDGES

Article 6794. [7014] [4792] Commissioners court: powers.—The commissioners court shall have full power and authority to cause all necessary bridges to be built and kept in repair in their respective counties, and to make necessary appropriations of money of the counties therefor. [Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. vol. 8, p. 888.]

Art. 6795. [7015-16] Toll bridges.—When it is inexpedient for the road force to build bridges over large creeks or water courses, the commissioners court may contract with a proper person to build a toll bridge, for which the court shall lay the toll to be levied on all persons, cattle, horses, vehicles, etc., passing over the same, to be granted to the contractor for such a number of years as said court may think proper, not to exceed ten years; and the builder and his successors shall keep the bridge in constant repair during the term of the contract, and in default thereof shall forfeit all right and claim to the toll of such bridges. Before granting a license to any person to build a toll bridge, the commissioners' court shall take bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that the contractor shall build and keep in constant repair the bridges so contemplated for the term of years agreed upon. If any person shall sustain damages in consequence of the owner or keeper of any toll bridge not having complied with the conditions of his bond, the person so damaged may bring an action of debt against the owner or keeper of such toll bridge on his or their bond, in the county in which such license was granted, and recover judgment for the damages so sustained. [Acts 1836, p. 162; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1222.]

Art. 6796. [7017] [4795] Boundary bridge.—Whenever any stream constitutes either in whole or in part the boundary line between two or more counties, or when two or more counties are jointly interested in the construction of a bridge, whether over a stream or elsewhere, it shall be lawful for the counties so divided or interested to jointly erect bridges over such stream or over any other stream, upon such equitable terms as the commissioners court of each county interested may agree upon. [Acts 1871, p. 42; G. L. vol. 7, p. 44; P. D. 5883; Acts 1923, p. 273.]

Art. 6797. [7018] [4796] Tolls assessed to pay bonds.—Whenever any county bonds are issued to build bridges, the commissioners court may assess and collect tolls on said bridges sufficient to pay the interest on bonds so issued; and, if thought proper, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity, all of which shall be done under such rules as said court may prescribe. [Acts 1871, p. 42; P. D. 5884; G. L. vol. 7, p. 44.]

Art. 6797a. Interstate bridges.—Sec. 1. The State Highway Department of the State of Texas is hereby authorized and empowered to make an allotment of aid from any moneys available and to expend funds of said department to acquire, construct and maintain any bridge across or spanning any stream or portion of any stream constituting a boundary between the State of Texas and any other State in an amount not to exceed one half of the amount necessary to acquire, construct or maintain any such bridge, subject to the provisions hereof.

Sec. 2. That the provisions of this Act shall not apply in any instance wherein any such State adjoining the State of Texas has not enacted a statute making provisions for the requirement, construction and maintenance of such bridge as between such State and the State of Texas and for the use of such bridge by the public without charge, nor where such bridge does not connect designated highways of the respective State and the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. That the State Highway Department of this State is authorized and empowered by the authority of the Governor to enter into negotiations with, and consummate contracts and agreements with such departments of adjoining States, and with the departments of our National Government, to carry out the purpose of this Act, and in all instances to look to the purpose of furnishing to the traveling public substantial bridges across our State boundaries for its use, without charge.

Sec. 4. That it is the purpose and intent of this Act to furnish to the traveling public, bridges across our State Boundary for its use without charge, and to elicit the co-operation of each State adjoining the State of Texas, in enacting a similar statute to this Act and to assent to the provisions of an Act of the Sixty-Fourth Congress of the United States, approved July 11, 1916, and being "An Act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in the construction of rural post roads, and for other purposes"; and to ask an Act of the Congress of the United States whereby bridges spanning streams which are boundaries between the States and connecting designated highways of such States, may be condemned for public use and travel without charge and to provide the manner of such condemnation and to provide for and make appropriations for acquiring, constructing and the maintenance of such bridges. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 252, ch. 175.]

2. FERRIES

Art. 6798. [7021] [4797] Right to maintain.—Every person owning the land fronting upon any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, shall be entitled to the privilege of keeping a public ferry over or across the same. If he owns the lands on both sides or banks he shall be entitled to the sole and exclusive right of ferriage at such place; if he owns the lands on one side only, he shall have the privilege of a public ferry from his own shore, with the privilege of landing his boat and passengers on the opposite shore, with the consent of the owner of the land on said shore. If such consent cannot be obtained, he may apply to the commissioners court for the establishment of a public road from said opposite shore; and said court shall act on such applications as in other cases. [Acts 1850, p. 67; G. L. vol. 3, p. 505; P. D. 3841.]

Art. 6799. [7022-24-29-39] License.—No person shall keep any such ferry for hire without first procuring a license from the commissioners court of the county in which such ferry is situated. If the applicant for such license shows that he is the lawful owner of such land as the ferry is sought to be established on, and satisfies the court that the public convenience will be promoted thereby, such court shall grant such license for one year from the date thereof, when the applicant makes bond and produces his receipt from the county treasurer for the payment of the annual license tax, which said court is authorized to assess and collect from each such ferryman, not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum. Such license shall be renewed annually. [Id.]

Art. 6800. [7028-37] Bond.—The owner of each ferry shall annually enter into bond payable to and to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as the commissioners court shall direct, not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned that such owner will at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and will also keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank, and that said ferry shall be well attended at all times, and that he will comply with the laws relating to or governing ferries. Any person injured by breach of such bond may sue thereon in his own name. Such bond may be sued on until the whole penalty is recovered. [Acts 1850, p. 67; G. L. vol. 3, p. 506; P. D. 3846, 3847.]

Art. 6801. [7025-6-30] Rates of ferriage.—When a commissioners court shall establish a ferry, they shall state in their record the rate of toll or ferriage which may be demanded for ferrying such property as is usually transported by ferries; and may, at their first term in each year, and shall at any other term, upon the petition of twenty respectable citizens of the county, revise, and, if deemed expedient, change the rates of toll or ferriage at all ferries in their county. The county clerk shall record all rates of ferriage and changes therein and deliver copies thereof, under his hand and official seal, to the owners of ferries affected. No change of rate shall take effect until the expiration of thirty days from the day on which said change may be made. [Acts 1854, p. 5, G. L. vol. 3, p. 1449.]

Art. 6802. [7041] [4817] Swimming cattle.—The commissioners court shall not authorize a charge of more than one cent per head on cattle or horses swimming rivers at licensed ferries, including the use of pens and boats necessary for the control of such stock. [Acts 1862, p. 31; G. L. vol. 5, p. 475.]

Art. 6803. [7031] [4807] To post rates.—Every owner of a ferry license shall keep a list of the rates of toll or ferriage established for his ferry posted up at either the ferry or ferry house, for the inspection of all persons. If any such owner shall fail or neglect to do so, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of four dollars for every such neglect, which may be recovered before any justice of the peace of the county on the complaint of any person, one-half of said amount to go to the county and the other half to the prosecutor. Every week that he shall so fail or neglect shall be deemed a separate offense for which he shall be liable as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 6804. [7034] [4810] Excessive rates.—If any licensed ferryman shall charge and receive from any person a higher rate of toll or ferriage than has been established for his ferry by the commissioners court, he shall forfeit and pay to such person five dollars for every such offense, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is established, with costs of suit. [Id.]

Art. 6805. [7033] [4809] Duties of ferryman.—Every licensed ferryman shall at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and shall keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair, and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank; and shall give ready and due attendance on all passengers, horses, wagons, and other property. [Id.]

Art. 6806. [7032] [4808] Delays.—If any person licensed to keep a ferry shall, on being tendered his lawful fees, refuse or neglect without a reasonable cause, to cross any person or property usually transported by such ferry, he shall, for every delay of thirty minutes, forfeit and pay to the person injured the sum of two dollars, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is situated, with costs of suit. [Id.]

Art. 6807. [7027] [4803] Refusal to operate.—Where any owner of a ferry shall refuse to keep up the same at the rates allowed by the commissioners court, said court may issue a license to any one who will do so. In such case the party receiving such license shall be bound to take the ferry boat in use at said ferry, if desired by the owner, at such valuation as two respectable citizens of the vicinity, one to be chosen by each party, shall place upon it. [Id.]

Art. 6808. [7036] [4812] Recovery from sureties.—In all cases where a recovery shall be had against the ferryman for violation of this law, if after judgment, execution shall be returned that no estate of such ferryman can be found whereon to levy and make the money demanded in such execution, the justice to whom such execution is so returned shall cite the sureties of such ferryman to appear and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for the amount of the execution that is not satisfied, and unless such cause is

Art. 6809. [7038] [4814] Temporary license.—One wishing to establish a public ferry between the regular terms of the commissioners court may obtain a temporary license for such ferry from the county judge, which shall authorize him to keep such ferry until the next regular term of the commissioners court for the county, and to charge and receive for such time such rates of toll or ferriage as are charged at other ferries on the same water course, stream, lake or bay. [Id.]

Art. 6810. [7040] [4816] County boundary stream.—If the banks of any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay lie in different counties, the application for a license to operate a ferry between such banks shall be made to the commissioners court of the county wherein the applicant resides or has his ferry house, and upon the granting of such license by the said court, the person so licensed shall have the right to own and operate a ferry upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as are provided by this subdivision for the owners or keepers of ferries operated exclusively in one county, and no county tax shall be assessed and collected upon a ferry by any other commissioners court than the one granting the license therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6811. [7023] [4799] State boundary stream.—When a water course, navigable stream, lake or bay forms a part of the boundary line of this State, if any tax or charge shall be assessed or collected by any such adjoining State for the privilege of a ferry landing on the shore or bank of such State from this State, then the same tax or charge may be assessed and collected by the commissioners court for the like privilege of landing on the bank or shore of this State. [Id.]

Art. 6812. [7035] [4811] Unlicensed ferry.—If any person shall keep any ferry over any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, for which he shall charge any person any money or other valuable thing, without complying with the provisions of this subdivision in relation to paying the tax, obtaining license and entering into bond, he shall forfeit and pay to every other person having a licensed ferry on the same water course, stream, lake or bay in the same county five dollars for every person so ferried, and the same sum for every wagon or other article so transported which may be subject to a separate charge, to be sued for and recovered before any justice of the peace of the county, with costs of suit; and shall forfeit and pay a like sum in like manner to the county, which may be sued for and recovered in like manner by the county treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 6813a. Members of Railroad Commission.—That from and after the passage of this Act the salary of the members of the Railroad Commission of Texas, in addition to the salary at present fixed by law, shall be two thousand ($2000.00) Dollars each per annum, one thousand ($1000.00) Dollars each per annum payable out of the fund created under Article 6032 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, and one thousand ($1000.00) Dollars each per annum payable out of the fund created under Article 6060 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas. This sum shall be paid in monthly installments, as other state salaries are paid, and shall be appropriated by the Legislature, as provided by law. The sum of Three Thousand Six Hundred ($3600.00) Dollars is hereby appropriated proportionately out of the two respective funds to cover the increase in salary for the remainder of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1927. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 416, ch. 277, § 1.]

Art. 6814. [5243] Bureau of Labor Statistics.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall receive a salary of $3,000.00 per annum; and he shall be allowed a secretary at a salary of $1,800.00 per annum; an assistant secretary and stenographer at a salary of $1,500.00 per annum; a chief deputy at a salary of $2,000.00 per annum; six deputies at a salary of $1,800.00 each per annum; a chief of the Woman's Division at a salary of $2,000.00 per annum; and two women inspectors at a salary of $1,800.00 each per annum. [Acts 1919, p. 164.]

Art. 6815. Eleemosynary institutions.—The superintendents of the Blind Institute, the Deaf and Dumb Institute, the Epileptic Colony, State Lunatic Asylum, Southwestern Insane Asylum, North Texas Hospital for the Insane, Northwest Texas Insane Asylum; Hospital for Negro Insane, Colony for the Feeble Minded, State Juvenile Training School, State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, and the Head Physician of the State Pasteur Institute shall each receive an annual salary of $2,500.00; the superintendents of the Confederate Home, the Confederate Woman's Home, Girls Training School, and the State Orphans' Home shall each receive an annual salary of $2,000.00; the superintendent of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute for Colored Youths shall receive an annual salary of $1,800.00; and each of said superintendents or physicians shall receive provisions not exceeding in value $500.00 per year, and fuel, lights, water, laundry and housing for himself and immediate family. The secretary to the Superintendent of the Confederate Home shall receive an annual salary of $720.00. The storekeepers and accountants of the various eleemosynary institutions shall receive an annual salary to be fixed in the general appropriation bills from year to year, not to exceed $1,200.00. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 241; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 61.]

Art. 6816. Perquisites.—The Governor shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture. The Attorney General shall receive such fees as may be prescribed by law, not to exceed $2,000.00 annually. The Commissioner of Insurance shall receive an annual salary of $500.00 for his services to the State Insurance Commission. Said Commissioner shall receive $50.00 per annum for services as a member of the State Insurance Commission for services as to workmens' compensation insurance, and each of the other members of said Commission shall receive $100.00 per annum for such services.

Art. 6817. [7055] Lieutenant Governor.—The Lieutenant Governor shall, while he acts as president of the Senate, receive for his services the same compensation and mileage allowed to members of the Senate, and no more; and when acting as Governor, the same compensation which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office, and no more. [Const. art. 4, sec. 17; Acts 1907, p. 10.]

Art. 6818. [7056] Legislators.—Members of the Legislature shall receive as compensation for their services and attendance upon any session of the Legislature, five dollars per day for the first sixty days of each session, and after that, the sum of two dollars per day for the remainder of the session. They shall receive as mileage for attendance upon any regular or called session of the Legislature five dollars of [for] every twenty-five miles in going to and returning from Austin, to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel by land, regardless of railways or water routes. The Comptroller shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat, by which such mileage shall be computed and paid, the calculation to be based in each instance upon the distance to the county seat of the county in which such member resides. No member shall be entitled to mileage for any extra session of the Legislature that may be called within one day after the adjournment of any regular or called session. [Const. art. 3, sec. 24; Acts 1907, p. 10.]

Art. 6819. Reporter's salary.—That on and after the passage of this Act, the Reporter of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas shall receive as compensation for his services, the sum of Four Thousand Dollars per annum. [As amended Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 207, ch. 138, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 207, ch. 138, makes an appropriation for such increase compensation to the end of the present fiscal year.

Art. 6819a. Salaries of judges.—That from and after the passage of this Act, Judges of the Supreme Court and the Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals of this State shall each be paid an annual salary of $8,000.00 payable in equal monthly installments; that the Judges of the Commission of Appeals, and of the Commission in aid of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Judges of the several courts of Civil Appeals of this State shall each be paid an annual salary of $7,000.00, payable in equal monthly installments; and that the Judges of the District Courts of this State shall each be paid an annual salary of $5,000.00 payable in equal monthly installments. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 411, ch. 273, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 411, ch. 273, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 6820. Judicial district expenses.—All district judges and district attorneys when engaged in the discharge of their official duties in any county in this State other than the county of their residence, shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of such duties, not to exceed four dollars per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed four cents a mile when traveling by railroad, and not to exceed twenty cents a mile when traveling by private conveyance, in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling by the nearest practical route. Such officers shall also receive the actual and necessary postage, telegraph and telephone expenses incurred by them in the actual discharge of their duties. Such expenses shall be paid by the State upon the sworn and itemized account of each district judge or attorney entitled thereto, showing such expenses. In districts containing more than one county, such expenses shall never exceed in any one year $100.00 for each county in the district; provided that no district judge or attorney shall receive more than $600.00 in any one year under the provisions of this article. The account for said services shall be recorded in the official minutes of the district court of the county in which such judge or attorney resides, respectively. [Acts 1923, p. 50.]

Art. 6821. [7061-65] Special judges.—The salaries of special judges commissioned by the Governor in obedience to Section 11, Article 5, of the Constitution, or elected by the practicing lawyers or agreed upon by the parties as provided by law, shall be determined and paid as follows:

1. Each special judge shall receive the same pay as district judges for every day that he may be occupied in performing the duties of judge, and those commissioned by the Governor shall also receive the same pay as district judges for every day they may be necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the place where they may be required to hold court.

2. The amount of such salary shall be ascertained by dividing the salary allowed a district judge by three hundred and sixty-five, and then multiplying the quotient by the number of days actually served by the special judge.

3. A judge so commissioned shall, in order to obtain his salary, present his sworn account to the Comptroller, showing the number of days necessarily occupied in going to and returning from such place, accompanied by evidence that he was duly commissioned. Such account shall be certified to be correct by the judge of the district, or by the clerk of the court in which the services were performed.

4. A judge so elected or agreed upon shall be paid for his services on presentation to the Comptroller of the certificate of the clerk of the court in which such services were performed, showing the record of such election or appointment and services, and accompanied by the sworn account of such judge showing the number of days actually served by him as such special judge. [Acts 1876, p. 140.]

Art. 6822. Salaries of employes.—Any deputy, assistant clerk or any employe authorized by the laws of this State to be appointed by the head of any department of the State Government, shall, when his salary is not fixed or provided for by law, receive such salary as the Legislature shall from time to time appropriate.

Art. 6823. Traveling expenses.—The traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the various officers, assistants, deputies, clerks and other employes in the various departments of the State Government, in the active discharge of their duties shall be such as are specifically fixed and appropriated by the Legislature in the general appropriation bills providing for the expenses of the State Government from year to year. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 241.]

Art. 6824. [7086] [4853] Change in salary.—The salaries of officers shall not be increased nor diminished during the term of office of the officers entitled thereto.

Art. 6825. Salary of women.—All women performing public service for this State shall be paid the same compensation for their service as is paid to men performing the same kind, grade and quantity of service, and there shall be no distinction in compensation on account of sex. [Acts 1919, p. 145.]

Art. 6826. [7087] [4854] How paid.—Annual salaries provided for in this title shall be paid monthly on warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the Treasurer.

Art. 6827. [7088] [4858] Evidence of qualification.—Upon demand of any citizen of this State, the Comptroller, Treasurer, commissioners courts, county treasurers and all other officers of this State or of any municipal division thereof, who are authorized or required by law to audit, pay or order to be paid, claims due from the State, or any county or municipal division thereof, to any person as salary, fees, compensation, perquisites or emoluments for official services rendered by such person as an officer thereof, before auditing, paying or ordering payment of such claim, shall require such claimant to produce the certificate of his election or appointment to such office directed by the laws of this State to be issued to such officer, or if his claim be founded upon the judgment or decree of a court of this State authorized by law to hear and determine the claims of persons to office, then a copy of the record of such judgment or decree certified under the hand and seal of the legal custodian of such record to be a true copy thereof. [Acts 1881, p. 7; G. L. vol. 9, p. 99.]

Art. 6828. [7089-90] Unauthorized officers.—It shall be unlawful for any officer or court of this State, or of any municipal division thereof, to allow, audit, pay or order to be paid, the claim of any person for salary, compensation, fees, perquisites, emoluments or services, as an officer of the State or of any municipal division thereof, except to such person as has been duly elected such officer by the qualified voters of this State, and whose election has been ascertained and certified or declared in the manner required by law, or who has been appointed such officer by the lawful appointing power under the Constitution and laws of this State, or who has been adjudged entitled thereto by a State court of competent jurisdiction, and has qualified as such officer in accordance with law. Any person not so elected, appointed and qualified shall not be entitled to receive pay for services as such officer, or to exercise the powers or jurisdiction of such officer. The official acts of any person claiming a right to exercise such power or jurisdiction contrary to the provisions of this law shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6829. [7091] Other salaries.—The enumeration of various officers and their salaries in this title shall not operate to repeal or affect provisions of law found elsewhere in the statutes, or in any appropriation bill permitting or authorizing the existence, or prescribing the compensation of other officers.

And said commissioners' courts and municipal authorities shall also have power and are hereby authorized to levy taxes not to exceed in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars of taxable values of said county or city for the payment of said indebtedness, provided that when the taxes are levied as herein provided for, will not pay off said indebtedness within five years, then the payment of said indebtedness shall be provided for by the issuance of bonds as hereinafter provided.

Art. 6831. [5586] May use streets and alleys.—Said county commissioners' court, and municipal authorities, shall have the power to impose such additional uses and burdens upon all streets, alleys, public highways and other public grounds as they may deem necessary for the location, erection, construction and maintenance of seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to license, regulate or grant such additional uses of said seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways or drainways as will not impair their efficiency.

Art. 6832. [5587] Eminent domain.—Said counties and cities shall have the power to take and appropriate such land and other property as may be deemed necessary for the establishment, location, construction and maintenance of said seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to define the area of land needed, and to acquire, take, hold and enjoy the same for the purposes aforesaid, and to that end shall have the right to exercise the right of eminent domain and to condemn lands for the uses and purposes aforesaid, in the manner and under the conditions provided by law in case of railroad corporations; provided, nevertheless, that said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall be empowered to take the fee simple estate to the land condemned or acquired hereunder, whenever deemed necessary for the purposes of this Act; and, provided, further, that before exercising the power of eminent domain hereunder said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall, by order, ordinance, or resolution duly entered on the minutes of the county commissioners' court, of the city council, define and describe lands needed, and determine whether an easement or fee simple estate in said land shall be taken. [Acts 1925, p. 270; 39th Leg., ch. 96, § 1.]

Art. 6833. [5588] Bonds: election.—Before issuing said bonds the commissioners court or governing body shall prescribe the amount to be issued, the rate of interest thereon, and provide for an election to vote for or against the proposed taxation.

Art. 6834. [5589] Election: Board of Inquiry.—For the purpose of ascertaining whether two-thirds of the tax-payers of said county or city have voted in favor of the proposed taxation, the county judge, the county assessor and the county collector, or three members of their own body selected by the governing body, as the case may be, are hereby constituted and appointed a Board of Inquiry. Whenever an election is ordered hereunder, said Board shall make out from the latest completed assessment rolls of said county, or city, a list of all taxpayers of said county or city, who are qualified voters and taxpayers entitled to vote hereunder; and from the date of the notice of said election until five days before the day thereof, said Board shall sit daily for the purpose of making additions to and corrections of said list. All tax payers who are qualified voters shall, during said period, have the right to apply to said Board and to have their names entered on said list. During the period of five days before said election, said Board shall make out under certificate and file with the county or city clerk as the case may be, a complete alphabetical list of all tax payers who are qualified voters at said election, and shall furnish printed copies of said list to the officers at each poll at said election. Said printed list furnished by said Board, and the returns and poll lists of said election, shall be returned to the county, or city clerk as the case may be. The ballots at said election shall contain the words, in substance, "In favor of the proposed tax," or "Against the proposed tax." Said election may be held on thirty days notice thereof at any time fixed by the commissioners court, or governing body. The proposition to levy a tax hereunder may be renewed until the power to tax hereunder shall have been exhausted. [Acts 1st C. S. 1901, p. 23.]

Art. 6835. [5590] Result of election.—The commissioners court or governing body as soon as practicable after said election shall meet and canvass the returns thereof, and with the aid of the returns and lists herein provided for, together with such other evidence as may be required, ascertain and record in its minutes, the total number of taxpayers of said county or city who were qualified voters on the day of said election, the number of said taxpayers voting in favor of and the number voting against the proposed taxation. If two-thirds of the taxpayers of said county or city, who are qualified voters therein, shall have voted in favor of the proposed tax, the said county or city shall thereupon have power to issue its bonds for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters. [Id.]

Art. 6836. [5591] Sinking fund.—Whenever bonds are issued under this title, the commissioners court, or governing body, shall annually levy, assess and collect, in the mode prescribed by law for other county or municipal taxes, a tax on the real estate and personal or mixed property in said county or city, sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund of not less than two per cent of the principal of all of said bonds. All taxes collected by virtue hereof shall be held in trust by said county, or city, as a special and inviolable fund for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds; provided, that any surplus above the amount required to meet the annual interest may be invested for the benefit of the sinking fund in the bonds issued hereunder, or in the bonds of the State of Texas, or of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 6837. [5592] Cession of State lands.—The right to the use and control for the purposes prescribed by this title, of so much of the land and sea bottom below high tide as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners court or governing body, is hereby ceded by the State of Texas to counties and cities availing themselves of the provisions herein. [Id.]

Art. 6838. [5593] Custodians of funds.—All funds, revenues and moneys derived from the sale of the bonds herein authorized and from the sale or rent of reclaimed or other lands acquired under this title and from additional uses of said works as herein authorized, shall be deposited with the county or city treasurer, as the case may be, and shall be held in trust exclusively for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters, including the purchase of the right of way therefor. All moneys derived from the assessment and levy of taxes as aforesaid are declared to be a trust fund for the payment of interest and principal of bonds to be issued under this title. [Id.]

Art. 6839. [5594] General laws to govern.—All bonds issued hereunder shall be issued under and subject to the provisions of the laws regulating bonds issued by cities and counties, in so far as said laws do not conflict with the provisions of this title. The provisions of this title shall apply to all cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, whether incorporated by general or special laws. [Id.]

Article 6840. [7094] [4864] [4489] When to be issued.—Judges and clerks of the district and county courts, and justices of the peace shall, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit, before final judgment, have power to issue writs of sequestration, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. When a married woman sues for divorce, and makes oath that she fears her husband will waste her separate property, or their common property, or the fruits or revenues produced by either, or that he will sell or otherwise dispose of the same so as to defraud her of her just rights, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

2. When a person sues for the title or possession of any personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

3. When a person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien upon personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy, or remove the same out of the county during the pendency of the suit.

4. When any person sues for the title or possession of real property, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of his possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the fruits or revenue produced by the same.

5. When any person sues for the title or possession of any property from which he has been ejected by force or violence, and makes oath of such fact.

6. When any person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien on real estate, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of such possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the timber, rents, fruits or revenue thereof.

7. When any person sues to try the title to any real property, or to remove cloud upon the title to such real property, or to foreclose a lien upon any such real property, or for a partition of real property and makes oath that the defendant or either of them in the event there be more than one defendant, is a non-resident of this State. [Acts 1866, p. 120; Acts 1887, p. 30; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1038; vol. 9, p. 828.]

Art. 6841. [7095] [4865] [4490] Applicant's affidavit.—No sequestration shall issue in any cause until the party applying therefor shall file an affidavit in writing stating:

1. That he is the owner of the property sued for, or some interest therein, specifying such interest, and is entitled to the possession thereof; or,

2. If the suit be to foreclose a mortgage or enforce a lien upon the property, the fact of the existence of such mortgage or lien, and that the same is just and unsatisfied, and the amount of the same still unsatisfied, and the date when due.

3. The property to be sequestered shall be described with such certainty that it may be identified and distinguished from property of a like kind, giving the value of each article of the property and the county in which the same is situated.

4. It shall set forth one or more of the causes named in the preceding article entitling him to the writ. [Acts 1848, p. 88; G. L. vol. 3, p. 88.]

Art. 6842. [7096] [4866] [4491] Petition.—If the suit be in the district or county court, no writ of sequestration shall issue, unless a petition shall have been first filed therein, as in other suits in said courts. [Acts 1866, p. 120; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1038.]

Art. 6843. [7097] [4867] [4492] Applicant's bond.—No writ of sequestration shall issue until the party applying therefor has filed with the officer authorized to issue such writ a bond payable to the defendant for a sum not less than double the value of the property to be sequestered as stated in his affidavit, with two or more good sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the payment of all damages and costs in such suit in case it shall be decided that such sequestration was wrongfully issued. [Acts 1848, p. 89; G. L. vol. 3, p. 89.]

Art. 6844. [7098] [4868] [4493] On claim not due.—When any person has a mortgage or lien upon personal property of any description, and makes affidavit and gives bond as required by law, the writ of sequestration may issue, although the right of action upon such mortgage or lien has not accrued. The same proceeding shall be had thereon as in other cases of sequestration, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until such right shall have accrued. [Id.]

Art. 6845. [7099] [4869] [4494] Requisites of writ.—The writ of sequestration shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county wherein the property is alleged to be situated, which allegation may be made either in the original or in a supplemental affidavit. It shall command the sheriff or any constable to take into his possession the property, describing the same as it is described in the affidavit, if to be found in the county, and keep the same subject to the future order of the judge, court or justice of the peace who issued the writ, unless the same is replevied according to law. [Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 121; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1039.]

Art. 6846. [7100] [4870] [4495] Duty of officer.—The officer executing a writ of sequestration, while he retains custody of the property sequestered, shall take care of and manage the same in a prudent manner, and if he confides the same to the custody of other persons he shall be responsible for their acts in regard thereto, and shall be responsible to the party injured for any neglect or mismanagement by himself, or by those to whom he has confided the custody or management of the property. [Id.]

Art. 6847. [7101] [4871] [4496] Compensation of officer.—The officer retaining custody of property by virtue of a writ of sequestration shall be entitled to receive a just compensation and all reasonable charges therefor, to be determined by the judge or justice from whose court the writ issued, to be taxed in the bill of costs against the party cast in the suit, and collected in the same manner as the other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 6848. [7102] [4872] [4497] Officer expending money.—If the officer be compelled to expend any sum in the security, management or care of the property, he may retain possession of said property until said money be refunded by the party offering to replevy said property, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 6849. [7103] [4873] [4498] Defendant may replevy.—When property has been sequestered, the defendant shall have the right to retain possession of the same by delivering to the officer executing the writ, his bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, in an amount not less than double the value of the property to be replevied. [Act Feb. 8, 1860, p. 70; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1432.]

Art. 6850. [7104] [4874] [4499] Bond for personal property.—If the property to be replevied be personal property, the condition of the bond shall be that the defendant will not remove the same out of the county, or that he will not waste, illtreat, injure, destroy or sell or dispose of the same, according to the plaintiff's affidavit, and that he will have such property, with the value of the fruits, hire or revenue thereof, forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, or that he will pay the value thereof and of the fruits, hire or revenue of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 6851. [7105] [4875] [4500] Bond for real estate.—If the property be real estate, the condition of such bond shall be that the defendant will not injure the property, and that he will pay the value of the rents of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 6852. [7106] [4876] [4501] Return of bond.—The bond provided for in the three preceding articles shall be returned with the writ to the court from whence the writ issued. In case the suit is decided against the defendant, final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied, and the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof as the case may be; and the value of the property replevied shall be proven either as of the time of the execution of the replevy bond or as of the time of the trial, as the plaintiff may elect. [Id. Acts 1923, p. 28.]

Art. 6853. [7107] [4877] [4502] Defendant may discharge judgment.—Within ten days after the rendition of the judgment provided for in the preceding article, the defendant may deliver to the sheriff or constable of the court in which such judgment is rendered, the property or any part thereof, which the defendant has bound himself to have forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, and which property has not been injured or damaged since the replevy. Such officer shall receipt the defendant therefor, and shall immediately deliver such property to the plaintiff. Upon filing such receipt with the papers in the cause, the defendant shall be credited by the clerk or justice of the peace upon such judgment with the value of the property so returned.

Art. 6854. [7108] [4878] [4503] When property has been injured.—If the property tendered back by the defendant has been injured or damaged while in his possession under such bond, the sheriff or constable to whom the same is tendered shall not receive the same, unless the defendant at the same time tenders the reasonable amount of such injury or damage, to be judged of by such officer.

Art. 6855. [7109] [4879] [4504] Execution.—If the property be not returned and received, as provided in the two preceding articles, execution shall issue upon said judgment for the amount due thereon, as in other cases.

Art. 6856. [7110] [4880] [4505] Plaintiff may replevy.—When the defendant fails to replevy the property within ten days after the levy of the writ, if such defendant, his agent or attorney is present in the county, or within twenty days if absent from the county at the time of such levy, the officer having the property in possession shall deliver the same to the plaintiff upon his giving bond payable to the defendant in a sum of money not less than double the value of such property, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the forthcoming of such property, together with the fruits, hire, revenue and rent of the same, to abide the decision of the court. [Acts 1866, p. 122; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1040.]

Art. 6857. [7111] [4881] [4506] When bond forfeited.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned with the writ, and in case the suit is decided against the plaintiff, final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally for the value of the property replevied, and for the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof as the case may be; and the value of the property replevied shall be proven either as of the time of the execution of the replevy bond or as of the time of the trial, as the defendant may elect. The same rules which govern the discharge or enforcement of a judgment against the obligors in the defendant's replevy bond shall be applicable to and govern in case of a judgment against the obligors in the plaintiff's replevy bond. [Acts 1923, p. 28.]

Art. 6858. [7112] [4882] [4507] Defendant need not account for hire, etc.—In suits for the enforcement of a mortgage or lien upon property, the defendant, should he replevy the property, shall not be required to account for the fruits, hire, revenue or rent of the same, but this exemption shall not apply to the plaintiff in case he shall replevy the property.

Art. 6859. [7113] [4883] [4508] Perishable goods.—If after the expiration of ten days from the levy of a writ of sequestration the defendant has failed to replevy the same, if the plaintiff or defendant shall make affidavit in writing that the property levied upon, or any portion thereof, is likely to be wasted or destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, and if the officer having possession of such property shall certify to the truth of such affidavit, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace to whose court the writ is returnable, upon the presentation of such affidavit and certificate, either in term time or vacation, to order the sale of said property or so much thereof as is likely to be so wasted, destroyed or depreciated in value by keeping, but either party may replevy the property at any time before such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6860. [7114] [4884] [4509] Order of sale for.—The judge or justice granting the order provided for in the preceding article shall issue an order directed to the officer having such property in possession, commanding such officer to sell such property in the same manner as under execution. [Id.]

Art. 6861. [7115] [4885] [4510] Return of order.—The officer making such sale shall, within five days thereafter, return the order of sale to the court from whence the same issued, with his proceedings thereon, and shall, at the time of making such return, pay over to the clerk or justice of the peace the proceeds of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6862. [7116] [4886] [4511] Sale on debt not due.—If the suit in which the sequestration issued be for a debt or demand not yet due, and the property sequestered be likely to be wasted, destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, the judge or justice of the peace shall, under the regulations hereinbefore provided, order the same to be sold, giving credit on such sale until such debt or demand shall become due. [Acts 1848, p. 88; G. L. vol. 3, p. 88.]

Art. 6863. [7117] [4887] [4512] Purchaser's bond.—In the case of a sale as provided for in the preceding article, the purchaser of the property shall execute his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer making the sale, and payable to such officer, in a sum not less than double the amount of the purchase money, conditioned that such purchaser shall pay such purchase money at the expiration of the time given. [Id.]

Art. 6864. [7118] [4888] [4513] Return of bond.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned by the officer taking the same to the clerk or justice of the peace from whose court the order of sale issued, with such order, and shall be filed among the papers in the cause; and, in case the purchaser does not pay the purchase money at the expiration of the time given, judgment shall be rendered against all the obligors in such bond for the amount of such purchase money, interest thereon and all costs incurred in the enforcement and collection of the same; and execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff in the suit, as in other cases, and the money when collected shall be paid to the clerk or justice of the peace to abide the final decision of the cause. [Id.]

6888. Failure to pay.

1. SHERIFFS

Article 6865. [7119] [4890] Election and term.—The qualified voters of each county at each general election shall elect one sheriff for a term of two years. [Const. art. 5, sec. 23; Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5108; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1571.]

Art. 6866. [7121-2] Oath and bond.—Every person elected to the office of sheriff shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by such court, not less than five thousand nor more than thirty thousand dollars payable to the Governor and his successors in office, conditioned that he will account for and pay over to the persons authorized by law to receive the same, all fines, forfeitures and penalties that he may collect for the use of the State or any county, and that he will well and truly execute and make due return of all process and precepts to him lawfully directed, and pay over all sums of money collected by him by virtue of any such process or precepts, to the persons to whom the same are due, or their lawful attorney, and that he will faithfully perform all such duties as may be required of him by law, and further conditioned that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and said sheriff shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same. When any person elected or appointed sheriff, in accordance with this article, shall have given bond and taken the official oath, he may enter at once upon the discharge of his duties, and his acts shall be as valid in law before receiving his commission as afterward. [Acts 1846, p. 265; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1571; Acts 1923, p. 23.]

Art. 6867. [7123] [4894] Neglect to qualify.—When any person elected sheriff shall neglect, refuse or fail from any cause whatever to give bond and take the official oath within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant. [Acts 1885, p. 89; G. L. vol. 9, p. 709.]

Art. 6868. [7124] [4895] Failure to give new bond.—Whenever any of the sureties of a sheriff shall die, remove permanently from the State, become insolvent, or be released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners court shall deem the sheriff's bond insufficient, said court shall cite said sheriff to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation and give a new bond with good and sufficient security; and, if such sheriff shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond on or before the designated time he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts 1836, p. 178; P. D. 5110; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1239.]

Art. 6869. [7125] [4896] May appoint deputies, etc.—Sheriffs shall have the power, by writing, to appoint one or more deputies for their respective counties, to continue in office during the pleasure of the sheriff, who shall have power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of their principals; and every person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the official oath, which shall be indorsed on his appointment, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; and such appointment and oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk and deposited in said office. The number of deputies appointed by the sheriff of any one county shall be limited to not exceeding three in the justice precinct in which is located the county site of such county, and one in each justice precinct, and a list of these appointments shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the clerk's office. An indictment for a felony of any deputy sheriff appointed shall operate a revocation of his appointment as such deputy sheriff. [Acts 1889, p. 23; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1051.]

Art. 6870. [7126] [4897] Responsible for their acts.—Sheriffs shall be responsible for the official acts of their deputies, and they shall have power to require from their deputies bond and security; and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and sureties as any person can have against a sheriff and his sureties. [Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5113, G. L. vol. 2, p. 1571.]

Art. 6871. [7127] [4898] May employ guards.—Whenever in any county it may become necessary to employ guards for the safe keeping of prisoners and the security of jails, the sheriff may, with the approval of the commissioners court, or in case of emergency, with the approval of the county judge, employ such number of guards as may be necessary; and his account therefor, duly itemized and sworn to, shall be allowed by said court and paid out of the county treasury. [Id.]

Art. 6872. [6393] [3835] Control of courthouse.—Sheriffs shall have charge and control of the courthouses of their respective counties, subject to such regulations as the commissioners court may prescribe; and the official bonds shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this article.

Art. 6873. [7130] [4901] Shall execute process.—Each sheriff shall execute all process and precepts directed to him by legal authority, and make return thereof to the proper court, on or before the day to which the same is returnable; and any sheriff who shall fail so to do, or who shall make a false return on any process or precept shall, for every such offense, be liable to be fined by the court to which such process is returnable, as for a contempt, not exceeding one hundred dollars at the discretion of the court, which fine shall go to the county treasury; and such sheriff shall also be liable to the party injured for all damages he may sustain. [Id. P. D. 5115.]

Art. 6874. [7131] [4902] Legislative process.—Sheriffs are required also to execute all subpoenas and other process issued by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or the President of the Senate, or chairman of a committee of either house of the Legislature, to them directed, under like pains and penalties as are incurred by failure to execute process issued by a court; and for such services they shall receive the fees prescribed by law for similar services in the courts, to be paid on the certificate of the authority issuing such process. [Acts 1873, p. 19; P. D. 7102a et seq. G. L. vol. 7, p. 471.]

Art. 6875. [7134] [4905] Shall indorse all process.—Every sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable shall indorse on all process and precepts coming to their hands the day and hour on which they received them, the manner in which they executed them, and state at what time and place the process was served as well as the distance actually traveled in serving such process, and shall sign their returns officially. [Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5121; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1571; Acts 1903, p. 81.]

Art. 6876. [7135] [4906] May summon posse comitatus.—Whenever a sheriff or any of his deputies shall meet with resistance in the execution of any legal process, they shall call to their aid the power of the county; and any person who shall neglect or refuse to aid and assist any sheriff or deputy in the execution of any legal process when summoned so to do shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered on motion of such sheriff or his deputy and proof of such neglect or refusal before the court from which such process issued, three days' notice of such motion being given to the party accused, and in addition thereto may be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 10; P. D. 5117.]

Art. 6877. [7136] [4907] Unfinished business.—When any sheriff or any constable shall from any cause vacate his office, all unfinished business whatsoever in his hands shall be transferred to his successor, and be completed by him in the same manner as if commenced by himself. [Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5122; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1571.]

2. CONSTABLES

Art. 6878. [7137] [4908] Election.—The qualified voters of each justice precinct at each general election shall elect a constable for such precinct for a term of two years. [Acts 1885, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 637; Acts 1897, p. 194; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1248.]

Art. 6879. [7138] Appointment of deputies.—When in any such justice precinct there may be a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint no more than two deputies who shall qualify as required of deputy sheriffs; and provided, that, when in any such justice precinct there may be a city of forty thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint five deputies and no more, who shall qualify as required of deputies; provided, such constable shall first make written application to the commissioners court of his county, showing the necessity therefor, giving the name of each proposed appointee, for the approval and confirmation of said court. In justice precincts which do not contain a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, said constable may appoint no more than one deputy who shall qualify in such manner as is required by law. [Id. Acts 1921, p. 131; Acts 1923, p. 348.]

Art. 6880. [7139] [4909] Unorganized counties.—The commissioners courts of the several counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have power to appoint a constable for each unorganized county attached to said counties for judicial purposes, in accordance with the laws governing such appointments in organized counties. [Acts 1879, p. 89; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1389.]

Art. 6881. [7141] [4911] Bond and oath.—Each person who may be elected to the office of constable shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, for such sum as said court may direct, not less than five hundred nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties required of him by law; and shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same. [Acts 1846, p. 261; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1567.]

Art. 6882. [7142] [4912] De facto constable.—Whenever any person is elected or appointed to the office of constable and has given bond and taken said oath, he may enter at once upon the duties of the office, and his acts shall be as valid in law as if he had been duly commissioned.

Art. 6883. [7143] [4913] Neglect to qualify.—Whenever any person elected constable shall neglect or refuse to give bond and take the official oath within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant. [Id.]

Art. 6884. [7144] [4914] Failure to give new bond.—Whenever any of the sureties of a constable shall die, remove permanently from the State or become insolvent, or are released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners court shall deem the bond of any constable to be insufficient, said court shall cite said constable to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond, with good and sufficient security. If such constable shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond at the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id. sec. 3; P. D. 982.]

Art. 6885. [7145] [4915] Duties in general.—Each constable shall execute and return according to law all process, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, attend upon all justice courts held in his precinct and perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law. [Id. P. D. 987.]

Art. 6886. [7146] [4916] May summon posse.—When any constable shall meet with resistance in the execution of any lawful process, or in the arrest of offenders, he may call to his aid any citizen of the county who may be convenient; and any person who shall fail or refuse to obey such call may be fined as for a contempt by any justice of the peace, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, on motion of such constable, three days' notice thereof having been given to the party accused. [Id. P. D. 986.]

Art. 6887. [7147] [4917] Failure to execute or return process.—If any constable shall fail or refuse to execute and return, according to law, any process, warrant, or precept to him lawfully directed and delivered, he shall be fined for a contempt, on motion of the party injured, before the court from which such process, warrant or precept issued, not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, with costs; which fine shall be for the benefit of the party injured. Said constable shall have ten days' notice of such motion. [Id. P. D. 990.]

Art. 6888. [7148] [4918] Failure to pay.— If any constable shall receive from any person any bonds, bills, notes or accounts for collection, and shall give his receipt therefor, in his official capacity, and shall fail to pay to such person, on demand, any amount he may have collected on the same, such constable and his sureties shall be responsible on his official bond for all such amounts as he may have collected on such bonds, bills, notes or accounts not paid over. [Id. P. D. 991.]

Art. 6889. [7149] [4919] Jurisdiction.— Every constable may execute any process, civil or criminal, throughout his county and elsewhere, as may be provided for in the Code of Criminal Procedure, or other law. [Id. sec. 14; P. D. 993.]

Art. 6892. [7153] [4923] Owner may use county brand.—The owners of all horses and cattle, in addition to their private brand, may place said county brand upon the neck of all horses and cattle owned by them. [Id.]

Art. 6893. [7154] [4924] Stock removed from county.—Whenever any horses or cattle branded with the county brand are removed to another county, the owners of such stock may counterbrand with said county brand, and a bar under said county brand shall be used and known as the "County brand," and when so counterbranded the brand of the county in which said stock may be newly located may be placed on said stock. [Id.]

Art. 6894. [7155] [4925] To furnish lists.—The Secretary of State shall furnish a printed list of the county brands to the county clerks of this State, who shall securely post the same in their office. [Id.]

Art. 6895. [7156] [4926] Brands of minors.—Minors owning cattle or hogs, separate from that of the father or guardian, may have a brand and mark, which shall be recorded. The father or guardian shall be responsible for the proper use of such mark and brand of any such minor. [Acts 1848, p. 156; P. D. 4660; G. L. vol. 3, p. 156.]

Art. 6896. [7157] [4927] When branded.—Cattle shall be marked with the ear mark or branded with the brand of the owner on or before they are twelve months old; hogs, sheep, and goats shall be marked with the ear mark of the owner on or before they are six months old. [Id. P. D. 4656.]

Art. 6897. [7158] [4928] Disputes settled.—If any dispute shall arise about any ear mark or brand, it shall be decided by reference to the book of marks and brands kept by the county clerk, and the ear mark and brand of the oldest date shall have the preference. [Id. P. D. 4657.]

Art. 6898. [7159] [4929] Marks and brands recorded.—The clerks of the county courts in their respective counties shall keep a well bound book, in which they shall record the marks and brands of each individual who may apply to them for that purpose, noting in every instance the date on which the brand or mark is recorded. [Id. P. D. 4658.]

Art. 6899. [7160] [4930] Unrecorded brands as evidence.—No brands, except such as are recorded as provided in this chapter, shall be recognized in law as any evidence of the ownership of the cattle, horses, or mules, upon which the same may be used; provided, that this shall not apply in criminal cases. [Acts 1848, p. 156; P. D. 4659; G. L. vol. 3, p. 156; Acts 1913, p. 129.]

CHAPTER TWO

PROTECTION OF LIVE STOCK

- Art. 6900. Glanders.
- 6901. Report as to disease.
- 6902. Condemned animals killed.

'28 TEX. CIV. ST.—53

Article 6900. [7161] [4931] Glanders.—If it comes to the knowledge of any county judge, by affidavit of any credible citizen of his county, stating that affiant has reason to believe and does believe that glanders or farcy exists among any horses, mules, jacks or jennets in said county, naming owner or owners of such animal or animals so infected, if known, if unknown, so stating, such county judge, upon the filing of said affidavit, shall immediately appoint three disinterested and intelligent citizens of said county, who shall carefully and minutely examine said animal or animals so reported to be diseased with glanders or farcy; said three citizens, before entering upon the duties required of them by this chapter, shall take an oath that they will discharge their duties as prescribed by this chapter in a fair and impartial manner. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 11; G. L. vol. 10, p. 375.]

Art. 6901. [7162] [4932] Report as to disease.—If, after carefully and minutely examining each animal so reported to be affected with glanders or farcy, said three citizens shall be of the opinion that said animal is diseased with glanders or farcy, they shall condemn the same; and appraise each animal so condemned, at their just and full value at the time of such examination and condemnation, forthwith reporting their action in writing to the county judge, stating the number of animals condemned, the owner of same if known, and if unknown so stating it, with the appraised value of same. If the said citizens have any reasonable doubt as to the diseased animals being affected with glanders or farcy, before condemning as above provided for, they shall require the owner or owners to have said diseased animals separated from contact with all other animals subject to contagion, for a reasonable time. When they are fully satisfied that the disease is glanders or farcy, then they shall proceed to condemn and destroy said animals as provided for in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6902. [7163-4] Condemned animals killed.—The county judge upon the receipt of said report shall issue his order to the sheriff or any constable of his county commanding him to seize said diseased animals and take same to some secluded place and kill them and bury or burn the carcass. After said animals are killed, the owner thereof may present his claim to the commissioners court of the county where the same were killed, for the value, if any, of each animal at the time the same was killed. The amount of such claim, or so much thereof as may be allowed by said court, shall be paid out of the general revenue of the county, as other claims against such county. The sheriff or constable killing, burying or burning said animal or animals shall be paid by the county such sum as the commissioners court thereof may determine the service worth. [Acts 1899, p. 303.]

CHAPTER THREE

SLAUGHTER AND SHIPMENT

- Art. 6903. Bill of sale.
- 6904. Butchers to report.
- 6905. Recorded before driving.
- 6906. Sworn descriptive lists.
- 6907. Register of cattle.
- 6908. Bond of butcher.
- 6909. Inspector's record.
- 6910. Counties exempt.

Article 6903. [7170-1-2] Bill of sale.—Upon the sale or transfer of any horse, mare, mule, gelding, colt, jack, jennet, cow, calf, ox, or beef steer by any person in this State, the actual delivery of such animals shall be accompanied by a written transfer to the purchaser from the vendor, or party selling, giving the number, marks and brands of each animal sold and delivered. Upon the trial of the right of property in any such animal, the possession of such animal without said written transfer shall be prima facie illegal. Persons may dispose of stock animals of any said kind as they run in the range, by the sale and delivery of the brands and marks; and in every such sale the purchaser, in order to acquire title thereto, shall have his conveyance or bill of sale of such stock, recorded in the county clerk's office, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and such sale or transfer shall be noted on the record of original marks and brands in the name of the vendee or purchaser. [Acts 1866, p. 223; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1141.]

Art. 6904. [7173] [4943] Butchers to report.—Each person in this State engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market shall make a regular sworn report to each regular meeting of the commissioners court of the county, giving the number, color, age, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered by him since the last term of said court, to be filed with and kept on file by the county clerk. Each said report shall be accompanied by the bill of sale or written conveyance to the butcher for every animal that he has purchased for slaughter. If any of the animals slaughtered have been raised by himself it shall be so stated in the report. Said report so made to said court may in the discretion of said clerk be destroyed after a period of five years. [Acts 1907, p. 239.]

Art. 6905. [7175] [4944] Recorded before driving.—Any person who shall purchase animals of any class named in Article 6903, for the purpose of driving to market out of the county where purchased, or out of the State, shall, before moving the animals out of the county where purchased, deposit with the county clerk for record, a bill of sale and correct list of the number, marks, brands and kind of animals, signed and acknowledged by each vendor, which, together with the address of the vendee, shall be recorded in the book kept by the clerk for that purpose, and with his certificate of record under seal shall be returned to the purchaser upon payment of the recording fees. [Acts 1866, p. 223; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1141.]

Art. 6906. [7176] [4945] Sworn descriptive lists.—Persons intending to drive their own stock raised by themselves to market out of the county where raised, or out of the State, shall, before so driving, deposit with the county clerk for record a correct list of such animals, with a particular description of their marks and brands, verified by their own affidavit; which list said clerk shall record and certify and return to the owner. [Id.]

Art. 6907. [7177-8] Register of cattle.—The commanders or agents of all vessels and the agents of all railroads on which cattle are exported from the State, and the proprietors or agents of all establishments for the slaughter of cattle within the State, shall keep a register of all cattle shipped or slaughtered, with the marks, brands and general description of such animals, and the names of the persons shipping or selling the same, the dates of their shipments or purchase, and the county from which they were driven. Such register on the first day of each month shall be deposited with the county clerk of the county where the cattle were shipped or slaughtered. Said clerk shall at once copy the same in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose, and return the original to the party depositing it. [Acts 1850, p. 27; G. L. vol. 3, p. 809; P. D. 460.]

Art. 6908. [7179] [4948] Bond of butcher.—Every person, before he shall set up and carry on the trade or occupation of a butcher or slaughterer of cattle in this State, shall file a bond to be approved by the county judge of the county in which he desires to carry on the business, in a sum not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, conditioned that he shall keep a true and faithful record in a book kept for that purpose of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, with a description of the animal including marks, brands, age, color, weight, and from whom purchased and the date thereof; that he will have the hide and ear of such animal inspected by the inspector, or some magistrate of the county, within twenty days after it is slaughtered, and that he will not purchase any cattle that has been slaughtered by another unless the hide and ears of such slaughtered animal accompany said animal offered for sale, and that he will not purchase any animal that has been slaughtered by another when the ear marks, or brands on the hide accompanying such animal, when offered for sale, have been changed, mutilated or destroyed. Any butcher or slaughterer of cattle who shall violate any condition of said bond may be sued upon his bond at the instance of the county or district attorney of the county where such bond is given. All sums recovered by suits upon said bonds shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the available school fund of such county. [Acts 1893, p. 38; G. L. vol. 10, p. 468.]

Art. 6909. [7183] [4952] Inspector's record.—The inspector or magistrate shall keep a record of the marks, brands, color and general description of such hides, and for whom inspected, with the date of inspection, and return a copy of the same to the county clerk of the county in which it was inspected within thirty days after said inspection. Said inspector or magistrate shall be entitled to receive ten cents for each hide so inspected, to be paid by the party having the hide inspected. [Id.]

Art. 6910. [7184] [4953] Counties exempt.—The provisions of the two preceding articles shall not apply to the following counties: Anderson, Angelina, Austin, Bandera, Bastrop, Bell, Bexar, Blanco, Bowie, Brazos, Burleson, Caldwell, Calhoun, Camp, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Clay, Collin, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Dallas, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Ellis, Falls, Fannin, Fayette, Franklin, Freestone, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gonzales, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hays, Henderson, Hill, Hopkins, Houston, Hunt, Jasper, Johnson, Karnes, Kaufman, Kendall, Kerr, Kimball, Lamar, Lavaca, Lee, Leon, Liberty, Limestone, Llano, Madison, Marion, Mason, McLennan, Milam, Montgomery, Morris, Nacogdoches, Navarro, Newton, Palo Pinto, Panola, Polk, Rains, Robertson, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, Shelby, Smith, Sutton, Tarrant, Titus, Travis, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Walker, Waller, Washington, Williamson, Wood. [Acts 1917, p. 358.]

CHAPTER FOUR

ESTRAYS

- Art.
- 6911. Who may take up.
 - 6912. Appraisalment and bond.
 - 6913. Proof of ownership.
 - 6914. No pay for takers-up.
 - 6915. Commissioner to return.
 - 6916. Advertisement.
 - 6917. Property in estrays.
 - 6918. Sale day.
 - 6919. Other estrays.
 - 6920. Returns of sales.
 - 6921. Taker-up liable.
 - 6922. Taker-up may use.
 - 6923. If stray dies.
 - 6924. Proceeds of sale.
 - 6925. If taker-up refuses to deliver.
 - 6926. Owner may reclaim money.
 - 6927. Notice of estray.

Article 6911. [7185-90] Who may take up.—When any stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet, or work ox shall be found on the land of any citizen or his lessee for one year or more, such citizen or his lessee may forthwith advertise the same, describing the animal's color and specifying the marks and brands, if any, also giving the age and flesh marks of every kind, at three public places in the county in which he resides, one of which notices shall be at the courthouse door, for at least twenty days, and shall also deliver to the county clerk a copy of said notice which shall be by him securely posted up in his office; after the expiration of which time, if no owner apply, the taker-up of said animal or animals shall appear before some justice of the peace in said county and stray the same. No animal so taken up shall be used for any purpose until the party shall have given bond as required by the succeeding article. [Acts 1866, p. 54; G. L. vol. 5, p. 972.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 6912. [7186-92-93] Appraisal and bond.—Any citizen so entitled to estray any animal shall make affidavit before said justice of the peace that the animal which he proposes to estray was taken upon his plantation, or on his lands adjoining the same; that the marks and brands thereof have not been altered or disfigured since the same was taken up; that notice has been given as the law requires, and that no owner has been found; whereupon the said justice shall file said affidavit and shall cause to appear before him, by summons or otherwise, two disinterested householders of his county, who are in no way related to the person estraying, commanding them, after being sworn, to value and appraise the same and certify under oath attested by said justice the valuation, together with a particular description of the animal, including height, marks, brands, color and age. Said justice shall thereupon require of the taker-up a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in double the value of such animal or animals, payable to the county judge of the county, conditioned that the taker-up shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, which bond, affidavit and appraisal shall be sent by such justice to the county clerk within twenty days thereafter, for which said justice shall receive the same fees that are allowed for similar services by law. Said clerk shall record said papers so sent to him in a separate book to be kept for that purpose, for which he shall be entitled to collect the same fees allowed by law for similar services to be paid in all cases by the taker-up. When two or more animals are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be included in the same entry, and said justice and said clerk shall receive no more fees including posting and advertising, than for one such animal. [Id.]

Art. 6913. [7187-8] Proof of ownership.—At any time within twelve months, and before the sale of any estrays, it shall be lawful for the owner of any such estray to prove his property by the affidavit of any respectable witness, which shall specify a particular description of the animal claimed, including the kind, marks, brands, height, color and age of the same. This affidavit shall be delivered to the taker-up and by him filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, and on the delivery of such affidavit and the payment of all costs incurred in posting such estray to the taker-up, such owner shall be entitled to demand and receive the animal. When the respectability of said witness is not known to the officer administering the oath, the party claiming the estray shall produce satisfactory evidence of the respectability of such witness, certified to by a notary public, county clerk or county judge of the county in which such witness resides. [Id. P. D. 6812.]

Art. 6914. [7189] [4958] No pay for taker-up.—If the owner of any animal which has been so duly estrayed, be a resident citizen of the county in which it has been estrayed, and shall have had his mark and brand recorded in said county, and the animal so estrayed shall be in the mark and brand of the owner at the time it was taken up, then and in that case the taker-up shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for expense incurred in estraying said animal. [Id.]

Art. 6915. [7191] [4960] Commissioner to return.—If any estrays of any kind shall be found running at large and not estrayed, and the owner of the same be unknown, any county commissioner shall return the same, with a full description thereof, to the county clerk of his county, who shall advertise the same as specified in this chapter. If such animal shall not be proven away by the owner within the time allowed by law the commissioner returning the same, or his successor in office, shall proceed to sell such animals and report the sale thereof to said county clerk, and after paying the clerk's fee and retaining twenty per cent of the proceeds of such sale, he shall pay the remaining sum into the county treasury. [Id. P. D. 6813.]

Art. 6916. [7194] [4963] Advertisement.—The county clerk shall cause a statement of the appraisal and a description of the animals so estrayed to be advertised at least three times in some newspaper published in the county where such animal was estrayed, if there be one; and if none, then the clerk shall cause the same to be advertised in the newspaper nearest to the county, and also by posting up notices at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door thereof. The printer of such notice shall furnish the said clerk with a copy of the paper containing said notice. For such publication the printer shall be entitled to receive two dollars from the party estraying the same. Said clerk shall file and preserve said copy in his office. [Id.]

Art. 6917. [7195-6] Property in estrays.—The property of every stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox taken up as aforesaid and not proven away within twelve months after such appraisal shall be deemed vested in the county wherein such stray or estrays may have been posted, and the taker-up shall immediately thereafter proceed to sell the same for cash to the highest bidder at the courthouse door of the county, after giving notice of the same as required in the case of sheriff's sale. Within ten days after such sale, he shall, after deducting the expenses incurred in estraying said animals, pay into the county treasury seventy-five per cent of the proceeds of the same, and retain the other twenty-five per cent for his own use. Whenever a sale of an estray shall be made according to the provisions of this article, the taker-up shall make a return of such sale, duly sworn to by him, to the county clerk of the county in which the sale was made, who shall file the same in his office. [Id.]

Art. 6918. [7197] [4966] Sale day.—All sales of estrays, horses, mares, fillies, geldings, colts, mules, jacks, jennets, or work oxen shall be made on the first Monday in the month, and between the hours of one and three o'clock p. m. of said day. [Id.]

Art. 6919. [7198-9] Other estrays.—Any citizen taking up any stray hogs, sheep, goats or cattle, other than work oxen, shall proceed in the same manner as is required in the case of horses, etc., except advertising in a newspaper; and any person estraying the same, at the expiration of six months from the day of appraisal, shall proceed to give notice as in the case of sheriff's or constable's sales, and sell such estrays where they were taken up; provided, there be not less than three adult bidders in attendance at said sale, beside the family of the taker-up. No animal enumerated in this article except work oxen, shall be subject to be estrayed, unless the same shall have been known to the taker-up as being an estray for at least four months previous to the time of estraying the same. [Id. Acts 1899, p. 234.]

Art. 6920. [7200] [4969] Returns of sales.—In making the returns of sales under this chapter, when the sale has been made at the residence of the taker-up or other place than at the courthouse door of the county, the taker-up shall, in all cases, give the names of at least three of the bidders who were present at said sale, who were not members of his family. [Acts 1866, p. 54; P. D. 6817; G. L. vol. 5, p. 972.]

Art. 6921. [7201] [4970] Taker-up liable.—If any person estraying an animal enumerated in this chapter shall send or take away the same out of the county in which the same was taken up and estrayed, or sell or otherwise dispose of the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon their bond in an action for damages in favor of the party injured. [Id. P. D. 6818.]

Art. 6922. [7202] [4971] Taker-up may use.—The taker-up of an estray may use the same in moderation, after having executed bond as provided in this chapter, but should he abuse or injure the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his bond in damages for such abuse or injury, and may be sued therefor by the owner for his own use, or by the county judge for the use of the county.

Art. 6923. [7203] [4972] If estray dies.—Whenever an estray animal shall be found dead, or shall escape, the taker-up shall without delay, make a written sworn report thereof to the county clerk; which report shall be recorded by said clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose. Any person who shall make a false report shall be liable on his bond, together with his sureties, for the value of the animal or animals estrayed. [Id. P. D. 6819.]

Art. 6924. [7204] [4973] Proceeds of sale.—All moneys arising from the sales of estrays, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall be by him applied exclusively to the jury fund of the county. [Id. P. D. 6820.]

Art. 6925. [7205] [4974] If taker-up refuse to deliver.—If any person having in charge an estray shall refuse to deliver the same to the owner thereof, on his complying with the provisions of this chapter, such owner shall be entitled to action therefor, with damages. [Id. P. D. 6821.]

Art. 6926. [7206] [4975] Owner may reclaim money.—At any time within twelve months after the sale of any estray made under the provisions of this chapter, the owner of such estray may apply to the county treasurer of the county in which such estray has been sold, and upon proof of such ownership shall be entitled to receive from said treasurer the amount deposited on account of such sale, after paying such costs as may be necessary to establish his right thereto. [Id. P. D. 6822.]

Art. 6927. [7207-8] Notice of estray.—Whenever any person shall stray any animal on which any county brand may be found, the county clerk of the county in which said estray may be shall immediately send a notice containing a full description of said animal, together with the marks and brands, to the county clerk of the county to which the county brand may belong; and the county clerk of said county shall record said notice in a book kept for that purpose, and post the same on the courthouse door; and shall ascertain from his record of brands to whom said animal may belong, and notify said owner by letter or otherwise. For such services he shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner; and the county clerk furnishing the notice shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner. Any county clerk who shall fail to send a notice as required by this article, shall become liable to the original owner of said estray in an amount equal to the value of said estray. [Acts 1883, p. 78; G. L. vol. 9, p. 384.]

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 6928. General provisions.—The following rules shall govern any election held under any provision of this chapter for either of the purposes named in this chapter:

1. If the election be for a subdivision of the county, the county judge, at the time he issues the order for such election, shall appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks.

2. Said election shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts if the election is ordered for the whole county; but if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened.

3. Only persons who are freeholders and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws shall vote at said election.

4. On or before the tenth day after any said election, the persons holding such election shall make due returns to the county judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against the proposition or propositions submitted at said election. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986; Acts 1919, p. 149.]

Art. 6929. Combined elections.—When an election is called for any county or subdivision thereof for the purpose of voting upon the question of the adoption of the stock law or any part thereof, under the provisions of this chapter, if such county or subdivision has not already in operation the stock law or any part thereof under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be lawful to submit at the same time and at the same election the question of the limited period of free range for hogs, as provided for in this chapter, but said proposition must be submitted and voted upon as a separate proposition, and the votes cast therein, and the returns thereof, and the judge's proclamation thereon, must be separate and distinct from that of the stock law proposition voted on at such election. [Acts 1919, p. 149.]

2. STOCK LAW ELECTIONS

Art. 6930. [7209] [4978] To order election.—Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of a county, the commissioners court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision, on some day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs, sheep or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision. [Const. art. 16, sec. 23; Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986; Acts 1909, p. 164.]

Art. 6931. [7210-7234] Territory between subdivisions.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted a stock law, or when there is territory adjoining a subdivision which has adopted a stock law, and in such territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on a petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. If there be less than twenty freeholders in such intervening or adjoining territory, then on the petition of a majority of the owners of the land to the commissioners court, the said commissioners court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision; in cases where there are no freeholders on such intervening or adjoining territory, then on the petition of the owner or owners of the land to the commissioners court, the said court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision; and any person or persons who own lands adjoining any other lands which have been added to territory in which a stock law prevails, shall have the same right, and, on petition of the owner or owners of such lands to the said court, the said court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision. [Acts 1899, p. 80; Acts 1907, p. 150; Acts 1915, p. 206.]

Art. 6932. [7211] [4980] Requisites of petition.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the preceding articles which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county or subdivision. If the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6933. [7212] [4981] Election ordered.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court, at its next regular term thereafter, shall order an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order. [Id.]

Art. 6934. [7213-14] Order and notice.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notice thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county; but if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6935. [7218] [4987] Manner of voting.—All votes at any such election shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing such animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the stock law."

Art. 6936. [7220] [4989] Returns of election.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the commissioners court of the county in the same manner as provided for all general elections in this State. [Acts 2nd G. S. 1919, p. 150.]

Art. 6937. [7221] [4990] Proclamation of result.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within the limits designated any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6938. [7222-23] Stock impounded.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated land of any person, other than the owner of such stock, without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this subdivision have become operative in the manner provided in the preceding articles, the owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound said stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him. No animals shall be impounded unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or shall be found roaming about the residence, lots, or cultivated land of another; and whenever any stock is impounded notice thereof shall at once be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Acts 1887, p. 56; G. L. vol. 9, p. 854.]

Art. 6939. [7224-5] Fees and damages.—Any owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of inclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: Ten cents per day per head for hogs, ten cents per day per head for goats, and five cents per day per head for sheep. The damages done by such stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall upon the application of the taker-up of the stock be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. Where said justice shall fail or refuse to make such appointment, or where the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this law has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due to the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees, in writing, and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders, to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with said justice, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days' notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision, and one at the door of the courthouse of the county; and provided, further, that nothing in this law shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken for the payment of the same under the provisions of this law. After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in this article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale as in constable's sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like services in civil cases. [Acts 1895, p. 84; G. L. vol. 10, p. 814.]

Art. 6940. [7226] [4995] Stock sold.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, the taker-up may make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to affiant, which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice, to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such assessment, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case where the owner is known; and, if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the county clerk, and pay the same over to the county treasurer, to be received and disbursed by him, as in case of sales of estrays; or the taker-up may at his option, after the expiration of five days, stray such stock, according to the laws regulating estrays in this State. [Id.]

Art. 6941. [7228] [4997] Subsequent elections.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this law for any county or subdivision, and the proposition for a stock and fence law, as herein provided, is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter. But the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county; nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6942. [7227-29-31] Lawful fence.—Should any stock not permitted to run at large enter any inclosure of any owner or lessee of land, entitled to the benefit of this law, without his consent, it shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of said inclosure to impound said stock; and it shall be the duty of the owner or lessee of said land to give notice immediately to the owner of said stock of their impounding and detention; and the owner of said stock shall be entitled to the possession of his stock on payment of expenses incurred in impounding and keeping said stock; provided, that in such county or subdivision said owners or lessees shall not be required to fence against the stock not permitted to run at large; and any fence in said county or subdivision which is sufficient to keep out ordinary stock permitted to run at large under this chapter shall be deemed a lawful fence. Three barbed wires with posts not more than thirty feet apart, and one or more stays between them or pickets four feet high and not more than six inches apart, shall constitute a lawful fence. If boards or rails are used, then three boards to be not less than five inches wide and one thick, or four rails shall constitute a lawful fence; provided, that all fencing built under the provision of this chapter shall be four feet high. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the freeholders of any county or subdivision of a county where the stock law prevails from deciding by a majority vote whether or not three barbed wires without a board shall constitute a lawful fence in such county or subdivision thereof; the election for such purpose to be conducted in the same manner and under the same rules as elections provided for in this chapter governing the passage of the stock law. [Id. Acts 1879, p. 66; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1366; Acts 1901, p. 290.]

Art. 6943. [7230] [4999] Stock not to be injured.—If any person whose fence is insufficient under this law shall, with guns, dogs or otherwise maim, wound or kill any cattle, or any horse, mule, jack or jennet, or procure the same to be done, such person or persons so offending shall give full satisfaction to the party injured for all damages by such person or persons sustained, to be recovered as in other suits for damages; provided, that this article shall not be so construed as to authorize any person in any event to maim, kill or wound any horse, mule, jack, jennet or cattle belonging to another. When a trespass has been committed by any cattle or horses on the cleared or cultivated land of any person who has complied with the provisions of this chapter, in the erection of a lawful fence, such person may complain thereof to the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such trespass shall have been committed; and such justice is hereby authorized and required to cause two disinterested and impartial freeholders to be summoned, who shall on oath view and examine whether such complaint be sufficient or not, and what damages have been sustained by said trespass, and certify the same in writing; and, if it shall so appear that said fence be sufficient, then the owner of such cattle or horses shall make just satisfaction for the trespass to the party injured, to be recovered before any tribunal having proper jurisdiction. In case of a second trespass by the same cattle or horses, the owner or lessee of the premises upon which the trespass is committed may, if he deem it necessary for the protection and preservation of his premises or growing crops thereon, cause said stock to be penned and turned over to the sheriff or constable, and held responsible to the person damaged for all damages caused by said stock and all costs thereof. It shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of such inclosures as are contemplated in this law to charge twenty-five cents per day per head for impounding such stock as referred to in this law. [Id.]

Art. 6944. [7232] No election within two years.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county or subdivision, no election under the preceding articles shall be held within the same prescribed limits in less than two years after an election under this law has been held therein; but at the expiration of that time the commissioners court of each county in the State, whenever petitioned to do so by a majority of the freeholders, who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, or by a majority of the freeholders who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of the subdivision of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, shall order another election to be held by the freeholders who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of such county, or subdivision, to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county or subdivision, which election shall be ordered, held, notice thereof given, the votes returned and counted in all respects as provided by this law for a first election. [Acts 1899, p. 51.]

Art. 6945. [7233] Proclamation issued.—If, in a county or subdivision which has formerly adopted the stock law, a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "Against the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of one hundred and eighty days from its issuance it shall be lawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation; if a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," he shall so state in his proclamation, and the operation of the law shall be in no way affected by such election. [Id.]

Art. 6946. Elections validated.—All elections held in any county in this State for the purpose of determining whether or not hogs, sheep, or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision as provided in this chapter, wherein the petition was filed, orders of the election made by the commissioners court, notice thereof given, such election held and a majority of the freeholders voting at such election, voted in favor of the same, and such election may have been invalidated by the failure of some ministerial officer to perform the duties required of him, the same is hereby in all things validated, and shall be by each court of this State held to be valid elections just the same as if the officers charged with the duty of opening, tabulating and counting the votes, had complied with the law, as provided in this chapter. [Acts 2d C. S. 1919, p. 150.]

3. FREE RANGE ELECTIONS

Art. 6947. Limited free range.—Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of any county, which county or subdivision has heretofore adopted, or may hereafter adopt, the hog law under the provisions of this chapter the commissioners court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision on some day named in the order for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs shall have a free range in said county or subdivision from the fifteenth day of November to the fifteenth day of February, of each year. Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the hog law, and in such intervening territory there is less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory, and the election shall be held for the purpose named herein. If the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated in the same manner as when originally established. [Acts 1919, p. 149.]

Art. 6948. Order by Court.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court, at a regular or special meeting thereof, shall order an election to be held throughout the county or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6949. Order by judge.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notices thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; if no newspaper be published in the county then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if such election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall have the limited period of free range.
3. The time in which said animals are to have the limited period of free range.
4. The territorial limits to be affected.
5. The day of election.
6. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6950. Ballots.—All votes at an election held under the provisions of this Act, shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to permit hogs to have a limited period of free range in hog law counties or districts as designated in the order, shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the limited period of free range for hogs," and those against the limited period of free range for hogs shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the limited period of free range for hogs." [Id.]

Art. 6951. Returns.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or two respectable freeholders of the county. [Id.]

Art. 6952. Declaration of result.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the limited period of free range for hogs," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of ten days from its issuance, it shall be lawful to permit hogs to run at large within the limits designated for the period of time between the fifteenth day of November of each year and the fifteenth day of the following February of each year, both days inclusive. [Id.]

Art. 6953. Second election.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this law for any county or subdivision, no other election for such purpose shall be held within such county or subdivision for the space of two years, but the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county, nor shall the defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter, for the entire county. If, in a county or subdivision which has formerly adopted the limited period of free range for hogs, as provided for under the terms of this law, a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "Against the limited period of free range for hogs," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of ten days from its issuance, it shall be unlawful to permit hogs to run at large within the limits designated; if a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be, "For the limited period of free range for hogs," he shall so state in his proclamation, and the operation of the law shall in no way be affected by such election. [Id.]

The title of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 363, ch. 245, purports to include Jim Wells, Leon, Polk and Refugio counties omitted in the enumeration.

Art. 6955. Exceptions.—The provisions of the preceding article shall not apply to Wharton County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivision thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to Jefferson County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivision thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to Hudspeth County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivisions thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided. [Acts 1925, p. 277.] [39th Leg., ch. 101, § 1.]

Art. 6956. [7237] Intervening territory.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the stock law, and in such intervening territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6957. [7238] Requisites of petition.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the first article of this chapter, which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county, or subdivision, as the case may be; and, if the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Id.]

Art. 6958. [7239] Order of court.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court at the next regular term thereafter shall pass an order directing an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6959. [7240-1] Order by judge.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notices thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one, if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. Said order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6960. [7242 to 7246] Election.—The following rules shall govern any election held under any provision of this chapter:

1. If the election be for a subdivision of the county the county judge, at the time he issues the order for such election shall appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks.

2. Said election shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts if the election is ordered for the whole county; but if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened.

3. Only persons who are freeholders and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws shall vote at said election.

4. All votes at any election, in pursuance of this chapter, shall be by ballot, and voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the stock law."

5. On or before the tenth day after any such election, the persons holding such election shall make due returns to the county judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against said proposition submitted at said election. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6961. [7247] Effect of election.—The returns shall be opened tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or of two respectable freeholders of the county, and an order showing the result shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court in the said county. The order showing the result of said election this [thus] determined, certified and recorded, shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law have been complied with in presenting the petition, the action of the court thereon ordering the election, the giving of notice and holding said election, and in counting and returning the votes and declaring the result thereof, and, if said election be then declared to be in favor of the stock law, then after thirty days from said date, it shall be prima facie evidence that the proclamation required by law has been made and published as required by law. [Acts 1907, p. 124.]

Art. 6962. [7248] Proclamation.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result, which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and, after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance, it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6963. [7236] Election to repeal law.—Upon the written petition of two hundred freeholders of any of the above named counties, or upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any subdivision of the above named counties, if the law be in force in that subdivision only, the commissioners court shall be authorized and required to order an election on the date therein named to determine whether or not said law be repealed; provided, such petition be signed by at least twenty-four freeholders from each justice precinct in such county. But if this law becomes operative over any of the above named counties, as prescribed, it can in no case be repealed by any subdivision, except by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the freeholders of such counties, at an election held in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 121.]

Art. 6964. [7255] Second election.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this chapter for any county or subdivision, and the proposition of a stock law as herein provided is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter; but the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county, nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6965. Duty of officers.—It shall be the duty of any sheriff or constable of any county, or subdivision thereof, within this State, where the provisions of this chapter are or may hereafter become operative, to seize any stock which may become known to him to be running at large on any outside premises where the provisions of the stock law are in force, and impound the same in some place provided for that purpose, and immediately notify the owner thereof, if such owner is known to such officer, who may redeem the same on the payment of an impounding fee of one dollar per head, and an additional fee of twenty-five cents per day per head for each day such stock is so kept. [Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6966. [7249] May impound.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated lands of any person other than the owner of such stock without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this chapter have become operative in the manner provided in this chapter, the owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound such stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him; provided that no animals shall be impounded except as provided in the preceding article, unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or be found roaming about the residence, lots or cultivated land of another, and, whenever any stock is impounded, notice thereof shall be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Acts 1899, p. 220; Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6967. [7251] Fees for impounding.—Any owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of inclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: twenty-five cents per day per head for horses and mules, fifteen cents per day per head for cattle, and ten cents per day per head for jacks and jennets. The damages done by such stock, if any, and the fees due to the taker-up of such stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall, upon the application of the taker-up of the stock, be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. When such justice shall fail or refuse to make appointments, or when the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this chapter has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees in writing and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with the justice of the peace, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown, then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision and one at the courthouse door of the county. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce, by suit, any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken up for the payment of the same under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1899, p. 220, sec. 16.]

Art. 6968. [7252] Sale of impounded stock.—After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in the preceding article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale, as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like service in civil cases. [Acts 1899, p. 220, sec. 17.]

Art. 6969. Sale if not redeemed.—When any stock shall have been impounded as provided in the third preceding article, and after five days' notice has been given to the owner of such stock, such officer shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale, as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like service in civil cases. [Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6970. [7253] Unknown owners.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, such officer or other person taking up any such stock shall make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to the affiant; which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such affidavit, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case when the owner is known; and if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the clerk of the county court and pay the same over to the county treasurer to be received by him and placed to the credit of the road and bridge fund of the county. [Acts 1899, p. 220; Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6971. [7254] Lawful fence.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county, or subdivision, any fence within such county or subdivision shall be deemed a lawful fence if it be sufficient to keep out the classes of stock not affected by the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1899, p. 220, sec. 19.]

Article 6972. [7256 to 7259] Inspector.—Each organized county, not expressly excepted herein, shall constitute an inspection district for the inspection of hides and animals; and at each general election an officer to be styled, "Inspector of hides and animals" shall be elected by the qualified voters of such county, and in each unorganized county the Governor shall appoint such inspector. The word, "inspector," as used in this title, shall mean the inspector of hides and animals. Such inspectors shall hold their office for the term of two years. Until any vacancy in such office is filled by appointment, the sheriff of the county shall discharge the duties of the office. [Acts 1876, pp. 217-295; Acts 1879, p. 89; G. L. vol. 8, pp. 1053-1131-1389.]

Art. 6973. [7260] [5006] Bond.—Each person elected to the office of inspector, before entering on the duties of his office, shall enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county constituting his district, payable to the county judge, in a sum to be fixed by said court, not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform the duties of his office. A sheriff acting temporarily as inspector, pending a vacancy in such office, shall not be required to give additional bond but his official bond as sheriff shall extend to and include the faithful and proper performance of his duties as inspector ad interim. [Acts 1876, p. 295; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1131.]

Art. 6974. [7262] [5008] Seal of office.—Each commissioners court shall furnish to the inspector for such county a seal of office, having upon it the words, "Inspector of hides and animals, _____ county, Texas" (the blank to be filled with the name of the county), and each inspector and his deputy shall certify their official acts with the impress of such seal. The inspector upon retiring from office shall deliver such seal, together with the books, papers and records of his office to his successor. [Id.]

Art. 6975. [7263-4] Deputies.—Every inspector shall have power to appoint in writing and under his seal as many deputies as shall be necessary to perform the duties imposed on them by this chapter. The inspector shall require bond and security of their deputies for the faithful performance of their duties; and the said deputies shall take and subscribe the official oath. The inspectors shall be responsible to any person injured thereby for the official acts of each of their deputies and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and their sureties as any person can have against the inspectors and their sureties. [Id.]

Art. 6976. [7265] [5011] Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the words "deputy inspector" shall mean the "deputy inspector of hides and animals," and the words "county," "district," or "inspection district," shall include each organized county in this State not herein excepted, together with any unorganized county that may be attached for judicial purposes to any such county. [Id.]

Art. 6977. [7266] [5012] Take acknowledgments.—Every inspector shall have authority to authenticate bills of sale of animals, and give certificates of acknowledgment of the same under his hand and seal, and shall be allowed to collect fifty cents for every acknowledgment so taken. [Id. p. 302.]

Art. 6978. [7267-8] Inspections and record.—The inspector, in person or by deputy, shall faithfully examine and inspect all hides or animals known or reported to him as sold, or as leaving or going out of the county for sale or shipment, and all animals driven or sold in his district for slaughter, packeries or butcheries; and shall keep a record, in a well bound book, in which he shall record a correct statement of the number, ages, marks and brands of all animals inspected by him, and the number, mark and brand of all hides inspected by him, and whether the same are dry or green, and the name or names of the vendor and of the purchaser thereof. He shall return a certified copy of all entries made in such record during each month to the county clerk on the last day of each month, which report shall be filed among the records of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 6979. [7629] [5015] Exemption from inspection.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to include sheep, goats, swine, or hides of either, nor to involve the re-inspection of salted hides in packeries or other slaughter houses taken from animals previously inspected and returned as provided in the preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6980. [7270] [5016] Shall not certify.—No inspector shall grant any certificate of inspection of any unbranded hides or animals, or of hides or animals upon which the marks and brands cannot be ascertained, and he shall prevent the same from being taken or shipped out of the county, unless they are identified by proof or by a duly acknowledged bill of sale signed by the owner of such hides or animals. [Id.]

Art. 6981. [7271-2] Seizure.—Every inspector may seize and sequester all unmarked or unbranded calves or yearlings, and all calves or yearlings freshly marked or branded, and on which the fresh marks or brands are unhealed, which are about to be slaughtered, or driven or shipped out of the county, unless such animals are accompanied by the mother thereof, or are identified by the presentation of a bill of sale from the person proven to be the owner thereof, signed by him or his legally authorized agent, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this State. Every inspector may seize and sequester all unbranded animals or hides, and animals and hides upon which the mark or brand cannot be ascertained, which are about to be taken or shipped out of the county, or which animals are to be slaughtered, unless such animals or hides are identified as provided in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6982. [7273] [5019] Procedure as to seizure.—When an inspector has seized any hides or animals as provided for in the preceding article, he shall report the fact to some judge of the district or county court, or justice of the peace, according as the value of the property seized may come within the jurisdiction of either of said courts; and said judge or justice shall issue or cause to be issued a citation addressed, "To all whom it may concern," setting forth a seizure of said property with a description of the same, commanding them to appear at a day named in said citation to show cause why said property should not be forfeited to the county wherein the same was seized, and sold for the benefit of said county. Said citation shall be directed to the sheriff or to any constable of said county, who shall cause certified copies of the same to be posted in three public places in said county for a period of ten days before the day mentioned in said citation. Upon the proof of the posting of said citation, said judge or justice issuing said citation shall proceed to condemn the property mentioned in said citation, unless satisfactory proof shall be made of the ownership of said property, or other sufficient cause be shown why the same should not be condemned. In case of condemnation he shall order the same to be sold by the inspector at public auction to the highest bidder. The inspector shall be entitled to retain one-fourth of the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting therefrom all expenses connected therewith, and he shall immediately pay the remaining three-fourths thereof into the county treasury; and all sums so paid in shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of such county. [Id.]

Art. 6983. [7274] [5020] Bill of sale taken.—Each person who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for sale or shipment out of any county, or who shall buy or drive the same for slaughter, shall, at the time of purchasing and before driving the same, procure a written bill of sale from the owner or owners thereof, or from his or their legally authorized agent. Said bill of sale shall be properly signed and acknowledged. Such bill of sale shall distinctly enumerate the number, kind and age of animals sold, together with all marks and brands discernible thereon; and said animals before leaving the county in which they have been gathered shall be inspected by the inspector of such county or his deputy. [Id.]

Art. 6984. [7275] [5021] In sale of hides.—The purchaser of any hides of cattle at the time of purchasing same shall obtain from the owner thereof, or from his legally authorized agent, a written bill of sale duly acknowledged, which shall recite in full the marks and brands of each hide, the weight thereof, and whether the same is dry or green. [Id.]

Art. 6985. [7276-7] Certificate of inspection.—Whenever an inspector shall have inspected any animal or animals, as herein provided, he shall, on the presentation of a written bill of sale or power of attorney from the owner or owners of such animal or animals, or his or their agent duly authorized in writing, duly signed and acknowledged, and on payment to said inspector of his legal fees, deliver to the purchaser of the animals mentioned in such bill of sale or power of attorney, or his agent, a certificate setting forth that he has carefully examined and inspected such animal or animals, and that said purchaser has in all respects complied with the law, which certificate shall not be complete until the same and the bill of sale herein provided for shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county, and be certified to by said clerk under his hand and seal. Such certificate shall be then delivered to the purchaser and shall protect him from the payment of inspection fees in any other district for the animals therein described, except from the county from which the same may be exported; provided that any person driving cattle in his own mark and brand shall be entitled to the certificate of inspection provided for herein, on payment of fees to the inspector, and on presentation to the inspector of the certificate of the county clerk of the county where such mark and brand is recorded, to the effect that the mark and brand named therein is duly recorded in his office as the mark and brand of the person so driving such cattle. [Id. Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 484.]

Art. 6986. [7278] Road brand.—Any person who shall drive any cattle to market beyond the limits of this State shall, before removing such cattle from the county where same are gathered, place upon each animal so to be driven a large and plain road brand, composed of any device he may choose, which shall be branded on the left side of the back behind the shoulder; and each person using or causing to be used any road brand shall place the same on record as in the case of other brands, in the county from which the animals are to be driven, and before their removal from such county. [Id.]

Art. 6987. [7279] Export to Mexico.—Any person may drive or ship any animals to Mexico from any point on the coast of Texas, or may drive or ship them across the Rio Grande River at any point where a custom house of the United States is located, but not from any other point; and he shall cause all such animals to be inspected by the inspector of the district in which the point of shipment or place at which they are to be driven across said river is situated before shipment from the State or passage across said river of said animals. [Id.]

Art. 6988. [7280-1] Herds in transit.—Whenever a drove of cattle may be passing through any county, the inspector, if called upon to do so by any person, shall stop and inspect said drove without any unnecessary detention of the same; and he shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in the inspection of such cattle as are prescribed above. If any cattle be found in said drove not included in the certificate of the inspector of the county in which the drove may have been gathered, the fees of the inspector shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said cattle; but if no cattle shall be found in said drove except those covered by the inspector's certificate, then the inspector's fee shall be paid by the person at whose instance said drove was inspected. [Id.]

Art. 6989. [7282] Hides from Mexico.—The hides of all cattle imported into this State from Mexico shall be inspected by the inspector of any county or district into which the same may be imported. If the importer of said hides fails or refuses to place such hides in a position where the same may be inspected by said inspector, or if said hides are found by said inspector to be folded or booked in such a manner as that the same may not be inspected without injury to said hides, said inspector shall take possession of such hides and have the same treated in such manner as will enable him to unfold the same without injury thereto. Such inspector shall not be held liable for any damage which may accrue to such hides by reason of the treatment thereof for the purpose of enabling him to inspect the same, and such treatment as may be necessary to enable the inspector to unfold and inspect such hides shall be wholly at the risk of the importer or person in whose possession such hides may be found. In addition to the inspection fees allowed such inspector for the inspection of said hides, there shall be paid by the importer or the person in whose possession said hides may be found after importation, all expenses incurred by said inspector in the treatment of said hides, for the purpose of enabling him to inspect the same as herein provided, such expenses to include drayage and freight charges and all expenses for handling and treatment of said hides. If the importer or the person in whose possession said hides may be found after importation, fails or refuses to pay said expenses for retreatment, or if he fails or refuses to pay the inspection fees as required by law, the inspector may retain possession of said hides and sell a sufficient number thereof, after three days public notice, to the highest and best bidder, to pay said inspection fees and all necessary expenses in connection therewith. [Acts 1876, p. 295; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1131; Acts 1917, p. 325.]

Art. 6990. [7283] Animals imported.—Horses, mules and cattle imported from Mexico into this State shall be inspected in accordance with the provisions of Article 6978, and with like authority to retain and sell as provided in the preceding article for a failure to pay the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 6991. [7284-5] Notify if stolen.—If an inspector finds among hides or animals imported from Mexico any hides or animals which from the brand or from other evidence, he has reason to believe have been stolen from the lawful owner, he shall separate said hides or animals from others undergoing inspection and take possession of the same and notify any person he believes to be interested therein to come forward and institute suit for the recovery of the same. If no person appears to claim said hides or animals, the inspector shall within twenty-four hours, make oath before the district judge, the county judge, or any justice of the peace of the county, according to the value of the property involved, that he has reason to believe that said hides or animals have been stolen; whereupon said judge or justice shall issue a citation directing the importer or party claiming the same to appear before him at his office within a time specified, not to exceed twenty-four hours, to show cause why said property should not be condemned. [Id.]

Art. 6992. [7286] [5024] Importer to recover.—If said importer or claimant makes proof that he is the lawful owner of said hides or animals by showing a bill of sale from the owner of same, or his legally authorized agent, and by showing complete chain of transfer of title from the original owner of the brand to himself, or his firm, such judge or justice shall direct the same to be delivered to said importer or claimant upon his paying the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 6993. [7287-8] [5025] Hides or animals sold.—If the importer or claimant of said hides or animals fail to establish his claim as the lawful owner of the same, or to any number of hides or animals so seized, the district judge, county judge or justice shall direct that said property be sold at public auction by the inspector, after a notice of ten days, published in a newspaper, should there be one published in said county, or if no newspaper be published in the county, then by written notice, posted at the courthouse door and two or more other places in said county, and the said hides shall be sold to the highest and best bidder. The inspector shall retain twenty-five per cent of the purchase money, after having deducted and paid all necessary expenses incurred by reason of said sale, and he shall deposit the remainder of said purchase money with the county treasurer, and take his receipt therefor. Said treasurer shall place one-half of said sum of money to the credit of the school fund and the other half to the credit of the jury fund of said county. [Id.]

Art. 6994. [7289] [5027] Property delivered to owner.—If any person appears and claims any hides or animals imported from Mexico at any time before the same shall have been sold as above directed, and should said claim be established before such judge or justice of the peace of said county, such property shall be delivered to the claimant, and all costs accruing therein shall be paid by the importer; provided that at any time before proceedings shall have been commenced as above directed the importer may be permitted to pay the lawful owner, his agent or attorney, for any hides or animals imported by him from Mexico and presented in any county of this State for inspection, and upon such payment and the fees for inspection such hides or animals shall be released. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 325.]

Art. 6995. [7291] [5029] Brand recorded once.—In all cases where application for registration of any mark or brand shall be made, the county clerk shall receive and record the same, unless an examination of the recorded list of marks and brands shows that a similar mark and brand is already upon record in such county, in which event he shall refuse to register or give any certificate for the same; provided, that if such applicant shall have previously had such mark and brand recorded in some other county, and shall have a certificate from the clerk thereof, stating that such brand and mark had been recorded in said county at some time anterior to the time of the registration of the similar mark and brand in the county in which the applicant may desire to have his brand recorded, then said brand and mark shall be recorded; and the clerk shall make a minute on the record setting forth said facts. [Id.]

Art. 6996. [7292] [5030] In county of range.—All marks and brands of cattle shall be recorded in the county or counties in which they usually range. When cattle are gathered near the county line, the bills of sale of the same shall be recorded in both counties. When any stock or cattle is sold, the fact shall be noted on the record opposite or near the record of its mark or brand, giving the name of the vendor and vendee and date of sale, and this shall be done as often as there is a sale. The inspector shall procure certified copies of the marks and brands of this county for himself and his deputies, and monthly have added thereto the marks and brands that may be recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6997. [7293] [5031] Only one to be used.—No person owning and claiming stock shall, in originally marking and branding animals, make use of more than one mark and brand. Any person may own and possess animals in many marks and brands, the same having been acquired by him by purchase; and written bills of sale, properly acknowledged from the previous owner or owners shall be sufficient evidence of such purchase, but the increase of such animals, or of any animal counterbranded by such person from other stocks of cattle owned by him, shall be branded or counterbranded by one and the same brand; and when marked by such person shall be marked in one and the same mark. [Id.]

Art. 6998. [7294] [5032] Counterbranding.—In all cases where the counterbranding of any cattle shall be deemed necessary or expedient, the person so counterbranding shall counterbrand the existing brand of the animal by which the owner thereof is then known, or by which it is then claimed and owned, by branding below the said brand its facsimile, that is, similar letters, characters or numbers, as the case may be; and he shall also place on said animals the brand of the then owner thereof; but no person shall change or alter the ear marks of any animal, but in counterbranding shall leave the ears bearing the same mark or marks as before counterbranding. [Id.]

Art. 6999. [7295] [5033] Authority to gather, etc.—Any person having marks and brands recorded in the office of the county clerk may file with the inspector a list of his recorded marks and brands, certified by the clerk under his seal, to which certified lists shall be attached the names of any person or persons whom the owner of said stock may wish to authorize to gather, drive or otherwise handle his stock. The filing of said list with the inspector shall be deemed sufficient authority to the person or persons named in such list to gather, drive or otherwise handle any animals of the marks and brands therein described. [Id.]

Art. 7000. [7296-7] Inspections personal.—In making inspections, the inspector shall not trust to the statement or representations of any persons, but he shall in person carefully inspect and examine each animal or hide separately so as to identify the marks and brands, and in case of animals, the ages and sexes. He shall also carefully examine the bills of sale and lists of brands and marks for the cattle inspected by him; and, if satisfied that the person claiming the cattle inspected has correct bills of sale or chain of transfer in writing from the record owner, or is the owner himself in whole or part of the mark and brand of each animal in his drove or herd which should be inspected, and that he has none other in said herd or under his control to be carried with it, he will then, and not until then, make out a certificate, which he shall first enter in his record, under his hand and seal containing the number of cattle in each mark and brand, with their respective ages and sexes, thus inspected, and that they appear to be the property of the person for whom they were inspected, naming him, as appears by bills of sale from recorded owner of the marks and brands on the cattle inspected by him, or the owner of the brand and mark himself, and that he has none other in his herd or under his control that should be inspected; and that he intends to drive or ship them, naming the place in the State for sale or slaughter; or if out of the State, he shall then name the place on the border of the State through which it is proposed to drive or ship such stock. [Id.]

Art. 7001. [7298] [5036] Inspection before export.—Whenever any person shall be about to drive or ship any stock out of the State, if the inspector shall believe or is informed by any credible person that said person has other stock in his herd than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly attested by proper bill of sale, the inspector at said point of shipment or border county where said person leaves the State, shall be authorized to inspect said stock in the same manner as in the original inspection; and, if any stock is found in said herd other than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly and properly authenticated by bill of sale, the fees of said inspection shall be paid as provided in Article 6988, provided that said inspector shall in no case be authorized to receive or demand more than three cents per head for each head of cattle inspected; but if not, then said fees shall be paid by the person at whose instance said inspection was made; and if said inspection is made by the inspector at his own instance, and no stock is found in said herd, except those properly accounted for under the provisions of this article, then said inspector shall receive no fees for said inspection. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 19; G. L. vol. 9, p. 51.]

Art. 7002. [7300] [5038] Seizure of other cattle.—If the inspector at the point of destination shall find upon inspection that the owner of the herd or person in charge has in his herd other cattle besides those inspected originally in the county from which said herd was driven, he shall seize said cattle and take them into possession, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as are prescribed in Article 6981. If the person in charge of any such cattle refuses to deliver the same into the possession of the inspector, such inspector may obtain a writ of sequestration from any justice of the peace, county judge or district judge, according as the value of such cattle may come within the jurisdiction of either. Such writ may be obtained upon the affidavit of the inspector, stating that he believes such cattle have been unlawfully acquired, shall issue without bond, and be forthwith executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county; and thereupon said proceedings shall be had before the officer issuing the writ, either in term time or in vacation. [Acts 1876, p. 302; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1138.]

Art. 7003. [7302-3] Proceeds into treasury.—The net proceeds of the sale of cattle condemned under the preceding article, save one-fourth of such proceeds retained by the inspector for his compensation, shall be paid into the county treasury, subject to the claim of the true owner of such cattle. If no claim be set up and established thereto within one year from the date of its deposit, such proceeds shall pass into the general fund of the county, and all claims thereto shall thereafter be barred. At the time such proceeds are originally deposited in the county treasury the inspector shall accompany such deposit with a certified statement, under his hand and seal, of the number of cattle sold, the mark and brand of each animal, with the amount for which sold. [Id.]

Art. 7004. [7304] [5042] Change of destination.—If the owner of the inspected herd desires to sell, slaughter or ship the cattle, or any of them, at any place other than the destination named in the original certificate of inspection, he may do so by first having his herd inspected at the point of destination therein named and a new certificate of inspection issued to him at that point, naming the new point of destination or shipment; and upon his arrival at such new point of destination, like proceedings shall be had in the way of inspection, comparison and return of the certificate of inspection, as are prescribed for the original point of destination. [Id.]

Art. 7005. [7305] [5043] Counties exempt.—The counties of Anderson, Angelina, Aransas, Archer, Armstrong, Atascosa, Austin, Bandera, Bastrop, Baylor, Bee, Bell, Bexar, Borden, Bowie, Bosque, Brazoria, Brazos, Brewster, Brown, Burleson, Burnett, Caldwell, Callahan, Calhoun, Cameron, Camp, Carson, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Childress, Clay, Cochran, Coke, Collin, Collingsworth, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Cottle, Crockett, Crosby, Dallam, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Dickens, Donley, Duval, Eastland, Ellis, El Paso, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Fayette, Floyd, Foard, Fort Bend, Franklin, Freestone, Frio, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gonzales, Gray, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hall, Hamilton, Hardeman, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hartley, Hays, Hemphill, Henderson, Hidalgo, Hill, Hockley, Hood, Hopkins, Houston, Howard, Hunt, Irion, Jackson, Jack, Jasper, Jeff Davis, Jefferson, Johnson, Karnes, Kaufman, Kendall, Knox, Kinney, Lamar, Lamb, Lampasas, Lavaca, Leon, Liberty, Limestone, Lipscomb, Live Oak, Llano, Loving, Lubbock, Lynn, Madison, Marion, Mason, Maverick, Medina, McLennan, Midland, Milam, Mills, Mitchell, Montague, Montgomery, Morris, Motley, Nacagdoches, Navarro, Newton, Oldham, Orange, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Pecos, Polk, Presidio, Raines, Reagan, Red River, Refugio, Robertson, Rockwall, Rusk, Reeves, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, San Patricio, Schleicher, Shelby, Smith, Shackelford, Somerville, Starr, Scurry, Stephens, Sterling, Tarrant, Terrell, Terry, Throckmorton, Titus, Tom Green, Trinity, Tyler, Uvalde, Upshur, Upton, Val Verde, Van Zandt, Victoria, Walker, Ward, Washington, Wharton, Wheeler, Williamson, Wilson, Wise, Winkler, and Young are hereby exempted from the provisions of this chapter, and from all laws regulating the inspection of hides and animals. [Acts 1921, pp. 43-83; Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 266, ch. 92, § 1; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 156, ch. 105, § 1.]

Art. 7006. [7306] Local option election.—Whenever twenty-five of the qualified voters of each justice precinct in any county, or a majority thereof, shall petition the commissioners court for an election to determine whether such county shall have a hide and animal inspector, said court shall, either at a general or special term, order such election to be held after thirty days notice having been given by posting such notice in each of such justice precincts and by publishing same in some newspaper published in said county, if there be one so published. The clerk of said court shall prepare said notices and the sheriff shall post same and make and file with said clerk return of such posting showing time and place thereof. [Acts 1909, p. 127.]

Art. 7007. [7307 to 7311] Result.—At the time of ordering said election said court shall appoint two judges, designating one of such as presiding judge, and two clerks, who shall hold said election in the same manner as general elections are held. All qualified voters shall be entitled to vote. The ballots shall have written or printed on same "For inspector," or "Against inspector." The presiding judge shall deliver or cause to be delivered one copy of the result of said election, to the county clerk within five days after said election, and retain one copy himself. Within five days after such delivery of such returns to said clerk, the commissioners court shall count the votes and declare the results and enter the same on the election record. The county shall pay the expenses of holding such election. No election shall be held oftener than every two years under this law. If at such election a majority of the votes cast be "For inspector," then the persons holding such offices shall retain same to the next general election until his successor is elected and qualifies. In counties having no inspector, the commissioners court shall appoint one to serve until the next general election. [Id.]

Art. 7008. Fees of inspector.—Each inspector or deputy inspector provided for in this chapter, shall be entitled to receive ten cents for each hide or animal inspected, but if more than fifty hides or animals are inspected in the same lot, then ten cents each for the first fifty, and three cents each for all above that number. [Acts 1909, p. 127.]

Article 7009. [7312-13] Commission.—The Governor with the consent of the Senate shall biennially appoint for a term of two years a Live Stock Sanitary Commission of the State of Texas, composed of three members. Each commissioner shall give a bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of ten thousand dollars to be approved by the Comptroller. Each Commissioner shall be a bona fide resident of and a practical live stock raiser in the community from which he may be appointed, and shall have been actively engaged in said business for at least five years next preceding the date of his appointment. One of said Commissioners shall be appointed from the West, one from the South, and one from the Eastern portion of Texas. The word "Commission" as used in this chapter shall mean the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of the State of Texas. [Acts 1893, p. 70.]

Art. 7010. Repealing clause.—The following Acts be, and same are hereby, repealed, viz: Chapter LX of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XII of the General Laws of the First Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter IV of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XLIV of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XXVII of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XXXVIII of the General Laws of the Third Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter X of the General Laws of the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature.

Art. 7011. Tick defined.—The word "tick," as used in this Act, is defined to mean the fever-carrying tick (Magararopic Annulatus) and no other species of ticks; and the word "cattle," as used in this Act is defined to include horses, mules and asses.

Art. 7012. Prevention.—It is hereby made the duty of the commission provided for in Article 7312, Revised Civil Statutes, to protect the domestic animals of the State from all malignant, contagious or infectious diseases, whether said diseases exist in Texas or elsewhere; and, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, said commission, for said purposes, is hereby authorized and empowered to establish, maintain and enforce such protective measures and quarantine lines and sanitary rules and regulations as may be necessary whenever it shall determine upon proper inspection that such diseases exist. It shall also be the duty of said commission to co-operate with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and officers of other States, and with the United States Secretary of Agriculture in establishing such interstate quarantine lines, rules and regulations, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, as shall best protect the livestock industry of this State against the fever-carrying tick (Magararopic Annulatus) and other malignant, contagious, infectious or other communicable diseases of livestock. It shall be the duty of said commission to quarantine any district, county, or part of county or premises within this State when it shall determine, upon proper inspection, the fact that cattle, sheep, or other livestock in such district, county or part of county or premises are infected with any malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable disease, or with the agency of transmission of such disease, and to give written or printed notice of such quarantine to the proper officers of railroad and express companies doing business in or through such quarantine district, county, or part of county within this State, and to publish notices of the establishment of such quarantine in such newspapers in the quarantined district, county, or part of county as the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may select, or to give notice in such other ways as it deems necessary and adequate for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a quarantine service, and no railroad or express company shall receive for transportation, or transport from any quarantined district, county, or part of county within this State into any other district, county, or part of county within this State any cattle, sheep, or other livestock except as hereinafter provided for; nor shall any person, company or corporation deliver for transportation to any railroad or express company any cattle, sheep or other livestock from a quarantined area except as hereafter provided; nor shall any person, company or corporation drive on foot, or cause to be driven on foot, or transport in private conveyance, or cause to be transported in private conveyance, or drive, or permit to be driven or permit to go, whether driven or not, from a quarantined district, county, or part of county or premises in this State any cattle, sheep or other livestock except as hereinafter provided. It is hereby made the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas to make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the inspection, disinfection, certification, treatment, and handling and method and manner of delivery and shipment of cattle and other livestock from and into a quarantined district, county, or part of county or premises and into any other district, county, or part of county or premises in this State, and said Commission shall make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the movement and shipment of cattle and other livestock from or into a quarantined district, county or part of county or premises into any district, county, part of county or premises in this State, and said rules and regulations shall permit cattle to be shipped from all quarantine areas to State markets, without other condition, for immediate slaughter on being cleaned of ticks under official inspection, and shall permit cattle to be shipped from quarantined areas into non-tick infested areas otherwise than for immediate slaughter upon such cattle being dipped until they are cleaned of ticks and inspected by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and it is hereby made the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to promptly furnish official inspection of all cattle tendered for shipment from quarantined areas upon application to it for such inspection by the owner or caretaker of such cattle. It is hereby made the duty of Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas to give notice of all of its rules and regulations by proclamation issued by the Governor of Texas and to furnish to any owner of live stock who applies therefor a printed copy of all such rules and regulations. The said Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas is hereby empowered to employ a State veterinarian and assistant State veterinarian in times of emergency, and inspectors or other persons as it may deem necessary for the performance of the duties imposed upon said commission and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, the State veterinarian, assistant State veterinarians and inspectors acting under authority or direction of the commission are hereby empowered and it is made their duty at their discretion to enter upon the premises of any person or persons, company, or corporation within this State for the purpose of inspecting, quarantining or disinfecting premises or livestock thereon.

Art. 7013. Sale of biological products.—It is hereby provided that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall have the power to control the sale and distribution of all veterinary biological products within this State, and it is hereby made its duty, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, to destroy and eradicate the fever-carrying tick; also to eradicate and eliminate the scabies, sheep scab, hog cholera, glanders, and all other malignant, contagious, infectious and other communicable disease of livestock. For this purpose it is empowered and directed to establish special quarantine districts where such disease or infections of such diseases are known to exist, and notice of the establishment of such special quarantine districts shall be given as provided in Article 7314, Revised Civil Statutes, and in Section 3 of this Act. Said commission shall have the power to quarantine premises or pastures located in said special quarantine districts and the domestic livestock thereon situated in such quarantined districts or elsewhere when such pasture or quarantined premises or livestock located thereon are infected with or have been exposed to malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable disease or infection thereof; and no livestock shall be moved to or from such special quarantined district or from any pastures or premises located in such special quarantined district in a manner, method or condition other than those prescribed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and by this Act. It shall be the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to prescribe methods for dipping livestock or otherwise treating or disinfecting said premises and the livestock thereon, as in their opinion are necessary and adequate for the eradication of the disease or the infection of the disease for which they are quarantined.

Art. 7014. Duties of commissioners' court.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court to co-operate with and assist the Live Stock Sanitary Commission in protecting the livestock for their respective counties from all malignant, contagious and infectious or communicable diseases, whether such diseases exist within or outside of the county, and otherwise to protect the livestock interests of their counties. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court in these counties which adopt compulsory tick eradication work under the local option provisions of this Act to co-operate with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and the officers working under the authority or direction of said commission in the suppression and eradication of ticks and all malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable diseases of livestock; provided when it becomes necessary to disinfect any premises, county or subdivision of the county infected with anthrax, hog cholera, glanders, foot and mouth disease, bovine tuberculosis, or contagious abortion, under orders of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, the county judge of the county where said premises are located shall have such disinfection done at the expense of the county and according to the rules and regulations of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and said commissioners' courts are hereby authorized and empowered and directed to appropriate moneys out of the general fund of their counties, to incur indebtedness by the issuance of warrants, and to levy a tax to pay the interests thereon and provide a sinking fund for the payment thereof, for the purpose of purchasing, constructing or leasing necessary public dipping vats within their counties. Said warrants shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum and shall run not exceeding twenty years from the date hereof.

Art. 7014a. Owner vaccinating own hogs.—No law of this State shall prevent any person from vaccinating, inoculating, or treating his own hogs or for any person employed as County Demonstration Agent from vaccinating, inoculating or treating any hogs in the county where he is employed with hog cholera virus or serum or other remedy; or dogs with any serum or virus that will prevent rabies, and any law in conflict with this Act is hereby repealed. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 217, ch. 146, § 1.]

Art. 7015. Quarantine.—It shall be the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, whenever they have reason to believe or shall receive notice that any malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable diseases exist among any domestic animals in the State, to immediately investigate, and if such disease is found to exist, or if they have reason to believe such disease exists, to immediately quarantine such animals and premises and land upon which they are located. If glanders or anthrax is found, the State veterinarian or assistant State veterinarian shall make a thorough investigation and shall notify the county judge of the county wherein such animals are located of the number and description of the animals so infected.

Art. 7016. Appraisers to be appointed.—It shall be the duty of the county judge of any county in the State, whenever any horse, mule or ass within their counties is found infected with glanders and have been quarantined by order of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, to appoint three disinterested parties who shall act as appraisers and fix the value of such animals at their actual value at the time of such appraisal, and make a sworn written report of said appraisal to the county judge, whereupon the commissioners' court shall pass upon such written report, and pay to the owner of the animals their appraised value. The county judge, on receipt of a report of the appraisers, as provided for in this article, shall issue an order to the sheriff, deputy sheriff, or any constable of the county, commanding him to seize said diseased animal or animals, and take same to some secluded place and kill them and burn their carcass or carcasses, and said appraisers and officers shall be paid for their services as provided for in Article 7320, Revised Civil Statutes.

Art. 7017. To be burned or buried.—It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation of this State to burn to ashes or bury at a depth of not less than two and one-half feet and to cover with quick lime the carcass or carcasses of any domestic animal or animals dying from any infectious, contagious or communicable disease of any malignant character that may be found upon their premises within twenty-four hours after the death of such animal or animals.

Art. 7018. Election to be ordered.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts of every county in Texas where systematic tick eradication work is not being conducted at the State expense, whenever they deem it expedient, or when petitioned to do so by seventy-five resident land owners and qualified voters in the county, to order an election for the purpose of determining whether the county shall take up and prosecute the work of tick eradication in said county. Said election shall be ordered and held not less than sixty days after the filing of the petition. At said election the ballots shall have printed upon them "For tick eradication in _____ County," and "Against tick eradication in _____ County." The officers of said election shall hold said election and make return thereof as provided by law in cases of other elections, as nearly as may be. Said returns shall be made to the county judge of the county. The commissioners' court shall meet and canvass said returns as soon as practicable after such election, and if they find that a majority of all the votes cast were in favor of tick eradication, under the direction of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, they shall so certify to said commission and cause publication of the result of said election to be made in a newspaper published in said county, which publication shall be certified to by the county judge of said county, and said certificate shall be filed with the county clerk of said county, which said certificate shall be admissible in evidence in any court of this State. The county judge of the county shall immediately so notify the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and upon receipt of such notice from the county judge of the county so holding the election, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall cause to be issued a supplemental proclamation signed by the Governor of Texas, and the citizens of said county in co-operation with and under the directions of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall begin work of tick eradication within thirty days of the issuance of said supplemental proclamation. Should the commissioners' court find that a majority of the votes cast were against tick eradication, then the county judge shall so notify the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7019. County Inspectors.—The commissioners' court of every county within this State where tick eradication is carried on under the provisions of this Act may nominate for appointments by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission the number of county inspectors found by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to be necessary to carry on the work of active tick eradication in such county, and when so nominated said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall appoint them. In the event of the failure or refusal of the commissioners' court to nominate said county inspectors the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to appoint the number of county inspectors deemed by them to be necessary. Said county inspectors shall be residents of said county, shall work under the direction and orders of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and shall be subject to discharge by said Commission, and shall be paid their salaries out of the State Treasury of Texas, their compensation to be fixed by said Commission.

In the event the commissioners' court should nominate any persons who are thereafter appointed such county inspectors and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission find or conclude that the commissioners' court of said county are trying to retard tick eradication or that they are nominating men who are incompetent or negligent in the performance of their duty, then in that event said Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to ignore in the future nominations or recommendations by said commissioners'[s] court of county inspectors. In any event, county inspectors must be residents of the county in which they are appointed to work.

Art. 7020. Inspector and clerk.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby empowered to appoint a chief inspector, chief clerk, and such supervising inspectors as they deem necessary to carry on active, systematic tick eradication, and they are authorized and empowered to employ such clerical help as may be deemed necessary to maintain their office, and to appoint a chief veterinarian and such assistant veterinarians as they may deem necessary.

Art. 7021. Scabies.—Whenever, any district, county or part of county shall be quarantined by order of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission on account of scabies or scab in sheep, every individual premises and the lands of every individual, firm or corporation within such quarantined area shall be quarantined separately, and no cattle or other livestock shall be shipped, driven, drifted, or permitted to be shipped, driven or drifted from any premises where located when such quarantine is declared, without a written permit from an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas.

Art. 7022. Order to dip.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, is hereby authorized and empowered to direct in writing any person or persons, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for any cattle which are subject to be dipped under the provisions of this Act in the prosecution of the systematic tick eradication work, to dip said cattle under the supervision of an authorized inspector of such Commission in an arsenical solution of a strength not less than seven and one-half pounds, and not more than eight and one-half pounds, of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the said solution for the purpose of destroying, eradicating and removing said fever-carrying tick or exposure, subject to the provisions of this Act. Said dippings shall be administered at regular intervals, but the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall not require the dipping of cattle at more frequent intervals than every fourteen days.

Art. 7023. Instructions.—The written direction issued by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, requiring the dipping of cattle, as provided for in this Act, shall be dated, showing the date of its issuance, the name of the person, company or corporations to whom the said directions are given, the approximate location of the premises on which the said livestock are located; the name of the county in which said premises are located, and it shall state in clear and intelligible language that the said cattle, which the said person is therein directed to dip, have the fever-carrying tick upon them, or that they are exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or are on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist, or that they have sometime during the nine months next preceding the date of the issuance of said written direction hereinbefore provided been exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or been on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist; and it shall direct the said person, company or corporation to dip the said livestock under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, in an arsenical solution of a strength of not less than seven and one-half pounds, nor more than eight and one-half pounds of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the dipping solution in which the said livestock are to be dipped, and it shall designate the place, date and time that said dipping is to be done, and it shall be signed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its chairman.

Art. 7024. Dipping directions to be delivered.—The said dipping direction, provided for in this Act, shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation owning[,] controlling or caring for said cattle required to be dipped at least fourteen full days before the date and time said dipping is to be administered. The person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for said cattle required to be dipped under the provisions of this Act may file with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, a written affidavit at any time within five days after receiving said written direction and not later, denying that said cattle are subject to being dipped under the provisions of law, or that for good and sufficient reason set out in said affidavit the said person, company or corporation is entitled to have said dipping direction rescinded, or to have said dipping postponed, and requesting that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, withhold the enforcement or [of] said dipping direction and grant him or them a hearing on said matter, or make necessary investigation to determine the correctness of the statement contained in said affidavit. Upon the receipt of said affidavit, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, shall within five days after receipt of such affidavit grant said affiant a hearing in the office of the chairman of said commission if the affiant so desires it, and give such affiant notice of such hearing, by telegram or registered mail, and which hearing shall be set not less than four days after the service of such notice and the commission shall consider such ex parte affidavits as such owner or caretaker may file with the commission in said hearing, and the commission and its chairman shall make such investigations in person or through its authorized representatives, in reference to such statement as the commission, or chairman thereof, deem necessary, and if such statements are found to be correct, the dipping direction shall be rescinded by the commission or its chairman; otherwise, the dipping direction shall be enforced on the day and at the time specified in said written direction. The commission, or its chairman, after having granted such hearing, or made investigation, shall notify the person, company or corporation in writing of its findings, which notice shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation at least four full days before the day and time he or they are required to dip said cattle by virtue of such written direction. Any person, company or corporation who has been directed to dip the cattle as hereinbefore provided for who shall be dissatisfied with the findings of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, he or they may apply to a court of proper venue and jurisdiction for injunctive or other relief, which application for injunction upon proper allegations and verification shall be granted and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall not enforce the dipping order until the final disposition of such suit.

Art. 7025. Presence of fever tick to be ascertained, how.—The ascertaining of the presence of the fever-carrying tick on any premise, place or livestock, or the ascertaining of exposure of premises, places or livestock to the said fever-carrying tick, shall be done by authorized representative or inspectors of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or by the commissioners.

Art. 7026. Commission may adopt rules.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to make, adopt and promulgate rules and regulations in conformity with this Act for the carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Act.

Art. 7027. Quarantine.—Whenever the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall have determined the fact that cattle, or other livestock, are infected with or exposed to splenic tick fever, bovine tuberculosis, anthrax, glanders, contagious abortion, hemorrhagic [hemorrhagic] septicaemia, scabies, hog cholera, Malta fever, or other similar or dissimilar contagious, infectious or communicable disease, or to the agency of transmission thereof [thereof], recognized by the veterinary science as being contagious, infectious or communicable, the said commission shall designate the district, county, or part of county or premises necessary to be quarantined, and notice of such quarantine shall be issued by the said commission, or chairman thereof, as provided herein. Publication of such quarantine orders may be made in any newspaper within such area, or if no newspaper is published in such area, then the nearest newspaper thereto. In lieu of such publication the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may give notice of such quarantine by posting a copy of such quarantine notice at the county courthouse door of the county in which said quarantine is to be effective.

A written notice of such quarantine delivered to the owner or caretaker of livestock to be quarantined shall be sufficient notice of such quarantine, in lieu of notices above provided. The owner and caretaker of milch cows or dairy cows shall not be required to dip such cattle unless upon examination by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission such cattle or a part of them are found to have the fever-carrying tick upon them, or are exposed to said fever-carrying tick, and if the said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall so find, then said quarantine shall be effective as to the premises of such owner and said person shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act, provided the term milch or dairy cows shall include only such cattle as are actually used for domestic or dairy purposes and does not include stocker or breeding cattle for other purposes.

Art. 7028. Shipment by carriers.—Any railway company, or receiver or receivers of any railway company or other common carrier, who shall receive for shipment or who shall haul or transport into any county in this State any cattle, horses, mules or asses, in violation of any quarantine established by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, or who shall receive for shipment, or who shall transport from any county in this State that is under quarantine to any other county in this State any cattle that have not been certified to by a regular inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this Act, and in any suit brought in a court of competent jurisdiction by the district or county attorney, either in the county where such shipment was received by said railroad company, receiver, or other common carrier, or in the county to which or through which said shipment may be moved, such county attorney or district attorney is hereby authorized to recover, for the benefit of the State, penalties against said railway company of not more than fifty dollars per head for such cattle so received, hauled or transported.

Art. 7029. Shipping from quarantine district.—The owner, caretaker or person in charge of any cattle located in any quarantine county, district, area, premises or land, may move said cattle to shipping pens, and may ship same to market for the purpose of immediate slaughter upon one dipping, provided that in the driving or otherwise moving said cattle to the shipping pens, they shall not be moved or transported over or into any land or premises belonging to another that has been declared clean of the fever tick by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or over or into any land or premises upon which systematic tick eradication is being carried on by Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry.

Art. 7030. Moving from quarantine district.—Any owner or person in charge of any cattle located in quarantined counties in this State may move or ship said cattle to any other quarantined county in this State upon one dipping under official inspection of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry and so certified as having been inspected by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission or said Bureau of Animal Industry, provided the county to which said cattle are shipped is not engaged in systematic tick eradication, and provided further that in moving said cattle to the shipping pens in the county from which they are shipped and in moving cattle from the shipping pens in the county to which they are shipped they do not go into, through or over any clean land or premises, and provided further that said cattle shall not be unloaded en route in clean pens and shall not be unloaded at the point of destination in any clean pens. Said cattle shall be shipped within forty-eight hours from the time they are dipped. Said cattle shall be dipped in a solution of not less than $8\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and not more than $9\frac{1}{8}$ pounds of arsenic to each 500 gallons of water. Cattle may be driven from one quarantined county to another quarantined county, and when so driven pass through quarantined territory in which no systematic tick eradication is being carried on, and do not pass through or along side of any clean territory, said cattle may be driven without dipping.

Art. 7031. Boundary of districts.—Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall make out and certify to the Governor of Texas, a list of all counties and portions of counties in Texas which have tick infested territory, land or premises that lie west of the following line, beginning at the mouth of the Brazos River thence with said river to the northwest corner of Robertson County, and a list of all counties lying north or west of the hereinafter described line; commencing at the northwest corner of Robertson County on said Brazos River; thence in an easterly direction with the north lines of Robertson and Leon Counties to the northeast corner of Leon County in the west line of Anderson; thence in a southerly direction, following west line of Anderson County to the southwest corner of said county and the northwest corner of Houston County, thence in an easterly direction with the dividing line between said counties of Anderson and Houston, to the southeast corner of Anderson County; thence in a northerly direction, following the east line of Anderson County, to the northwest corner of Cherokee County, same being the southwest corner of Smith County; thence in an easterly direction, following the north line of Cherokee County to the northeast corner of same, being the southeast corner of said Smith County in the west line of Rusk County; thence with the west line of Rusk County, in a northerly direction, to the northwest corner [corner] of same, said point being the southwest corner of Gregg County; thence in an easterly direction following the north line of Rusk County to where the same intersects the south line of Harrison County; thence with the south line of Harrison County and the north line of Panola County; thence with the south line of Harrison County to the southeast corner of said Harrison County on the Louisiana State line.

Art. 7032. May designate counties.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall designate from time to time, the counties and portion of counties in said area west of said Brazos River and north and west of a line running from the northwest corner of said Robertson County to the southeast corner of Harrison County as set out above in which systematic tick eradication work will be commenced, and the Governor shall thereupon issue his proclamation requiring systematic tick eradication work to begin and be prosecuted in said counties and portions of counties so designated by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and thereafter, from time to time, said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall make out a list of additional counties or portions of counties in which they will carry on systematic tick eradication, if any, and thereupon the Governor shall issue his proclamation requiring systematic tick eradication work to begin in said counties or portions of counties so designated by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. The expense of said work to be borne as follows:

Art. 7033. Salaries and expenses.—The salaries of all supervising inspectors and such county inspectors as the Live Stock [Stock] Sanitary Commission may deem necessary, shall be borne by the State of Texas, and the expense of purchasing the necessary dip shall also be borne by the State of Texas. The expense of buying or leasing and maintaining the necessary dipping vats shall be borne by the respective counties in said territory, and said counties shall also bear the expense of constructing and maintaining such necessary pens and other facilities incident to the proper dipping of livestock; and said work of tick eradication in said counties and portions of counties shall be prosecuted until the fever ticks therein are destroyed and said territory is released from quarantine by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7034. Certify to Governor.—Immediately after this Act becomes effective the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall make out, and certify to the Governor of Texas, a list of all counties and portions of counties in Texas which have tick infested territory, land or premises, whereupon the Governor shall issue his proclamation declaring a quarantine in all of said counties or portions of counties so designated by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and no cattle shall be moved from any quarantined area, land or premises within said quarantined counties or parts of counties except as is provided for in this Act, or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7035. State to bear expenses of dipping.—In all counties in this State, east of the Brazos River and south of said line running from the northwest corner of Robertson County to the southeast corner of Harrison County, who shall, at an election held for that purpose under the provisions of this Act, declare in favor of tick eradication, the expense of supervising inspectors and county inspectors, as well as the purchase of all necessary dip to carry on the work of tick eradication, shall be borne by the State of Texas, and the buying or leasing and maintaining the necessary dipping vats, shall be borne by the respective counties, the said counties shall also bear the expense of constructing and maintaining such necessary pens and other facilities incident to the proper dipping of livestock.

Art. 7036. Expense by owner.—In all counties and parts of counties in this State in which tick eradication work is being prosecuted under the provisions of this Act, or by virtue of any local option election, it shall be the duty of the owner, owners, or caretakers of such cattle or other livestock within such territory, to gather same, at his or their own expense, and drive, or cause them to be driven, to the dipping vat, and to dip same for the purpose of eradicating said fever ticks.

Art. 7037. Definition of premises.—Premises, as referred to in this Act, is hereby defined as being any lot, block, tract, subdivision, subdivisions, surveys, grants, part or parts thereof, of any kind situated within this State.

Art. 7038. Carrying arms.—No inspector provided for in this Act shall be permitted to carry on or about his person, saddle or in his saddle bags, or automobiles any pistol, dirk, dagger, slung shot, sword, cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, bowie knife, or any other knife manufactured or sold for the purposes of offense or defense.

Art. 7039. Carrying arms.—In case any inspector secures appointment as deputy sheriff or deputy constable, or any other office that will permit him to carry arms, he shall be at once discharged by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and in case they refuse to discharge such inspector, the county judge of the county where such inspector is employed shall discharge him.

Art. 7040. Clean land, etc., defined.—By the term clean land, clean premises, clean area, clean pens and non-tick infested area, is meant those areas, premises, pens or land that have been declared free of the fever-carrying tick by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. [Acts 1925, p. 310.]

CHAPTER ONE

LEVY OF TAXES AND OCCUPATION TAXES

Art.

7041. Board constituted.
7042. Certificate to Comptroller.
7043. Ascertaining tax rate.
7044. Certify rate to tax assessor.
7045. County rate.
7046. Poll tax.
7047. Occupation taxes.
7048. County ad valorem, etc.
7049. Taxes payable in what.
7050. Books of collector.
7051. Collector furnished books, etc.
7052. Pay in advance.
7053. Tax receipts furnished.
7054. Account of occupation tax receipts.
7055. Transfer of license.
7056. Purchaser of unexpired license.
7057. Revenue duties.

Article 7041. [7349] Board constituted.—The Governor, Comptroller and State Treasurer are constituted a board to calculate the ad valorem tax to be levied and collected each year for State and public free school purposes. [Acts 1907, p. 464.]

Art. 7042. [7350] Certificate to Comptroller.—Each tax assessor shall make a statement to the Comptroller on or before July 15th of each year showing as nearly as can be ascertained from his inventories or assessments the total amount of property in each county subject to taxation; provided, that the tax for State and public free school purposes shall not be calculated and carried out upon said rolls. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 371.]

Art. 7043. [7351] Ascertaining tax rate.—Within five days after the Comptroller has received such certified statements from every assessor within this State, said board shall meet for the purpose of calculating the ad valorem rate for taxes to be collected for the State and public free school purposes. In calculating said rates the board shall calculate the same by the following rules and upon the following basis; they shall find by adding together all the property subject to taxation in all the counties as shown by the certified statements returned by the assessors, the total valuation of all property within this State subject to ad valorem taxes. They shall find by adding together the sums appropriated by the Legislature, which will or which may become due by the State during the following fiscal year, the total sum which will or which may become due by the State, during the following fiscal year. They shall find, by adding all sums paid into the State treasury as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than as ad valorem taxes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the preceding calendar year, the total sum paid into the State treasury from said sources during said time. They shall find by subtracting from the total sum which will or which may become due by the State during the succeeding fiscal year the total sum which was paid into the State treasury as taxes for State purposes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the preceding calendar year, the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes. They shall add to such remainder twenty per cent of said remainder. They shall divide the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes added to twenty per cent of such total sum by the quotient of the total valuation of all property within this State divided by one hundred. The quotient shall be the number of cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to be collected for the current year for State purposes; provided, that said quotient shall not be run to more than three decimals. The rate for State purposes shall never exceed the rate fixed by law on the one hundred dollars valuation of property. In calculating the rate to be collected for public free school purposes, said board shall take into consideration the number of children in the State within the scholastic age, to be determined from the most recent official school census; and shall fix a rate that will yield and produce for such fiscal year four dollars per capita for all the children within the scholastic age, as shown by said scholastic census; provided, the rate so fixed for any year shall never exceed the rate fixed by law. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 464.]

Art. 7044. [7352] Certify rate to tax assessor.—The Comptroller shall certify to the tax assessor of each county through registered letter, the rate of taxes for State purposes and for public free school purposes for the current year, and shall also publish immediately such rate for thirty days in some newspaper published in the State and having a general circulation therein; and as soon as such tax assessor has received notice of such rate he shall calculate the taxes due the State for State purposes, and also the taxes due for public free school purposes, on all taxable property within his county as set out in the preceding article, and shall carry the same out upon the copies of the tax rolls of the county to be delivered to the tax collector and to the county clerk, and to be returned to the Comptroller. After he has so completed the said copies of the tax rolls, he shall return to the Comptroller a copy of the same. [Id.]

Art. 7045. [7353] County rate.—The Commissioners courts of the several counties, all the members thereof being present, at either a regular or special session, may at any time after the tax assessors of their respective counties have forwarded to the Comptroller the said certificate and prior to the time when the tax collector of such county shall have begun to make out his receipts, calculate the rate and adjust the taxes levied in their respective counties for general purposes to the taxable values shown by the assessment rolls. [Id.]

Art. 7046. [7354] [5048] Poll tax.—There shall be levied and collected from every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, resident within this State on the first day of January of each year (Indians not taxed, and persons insane, blind, deaf or dumb, or those who have lost one hand or foot, or are permanently disabled, excepted), an annual poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents, one dollar for the benefit of the free schools, and fifty cents for general revenue purposes. Said tax shall be collected and accounted for by the tax collector each year and appropriated as herein required. No county shall levy more than twenty-five cents poll tax for county purposes. The poll tax due from citizens of unorganized counties shall be paid in the county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 11.]

Art. 7047. [7355] [5049] Occupation taxes.—There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm, company or association of persons, pursuing any of the occupations named in the following numbered subdivisions of this article, an annual occupation tax, which shall be paid annually in advance except where herein otherwise provided, on every such occupation or separate establishment, as follows: [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

1. Itinerant merchants.—From every merchant who may remove from place to place and offer for sale "bankrupt stocks" of goods, or advertising "fire sales" or "water and fire damaged stocks for sale," for a limited period of time, there shall be collected one hundred dollars per month for the first month, or less than a month, for each place where such business is located; and for each additional month that such sales are continued at any given place, said merchant shall pay an additional sum of twenty dollars. Where they remain for six months or more in any place, in addition to the one hundred dollars charged for the first month, they shall pay an additional sum of ten dollars per month. [Id.]

2. Traveling vendors of patent medicines.—From every traveling person selling patent or other medicines, fifty dollars, and no traveling person shall so sell until said tax is so paid. This tax shall not apply to commercial travelers, drummers, or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade for merchants engaged in the sale of drugs or medicines by wholesale. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49; Acts 1917, p. 335.]

3. Itinerant physicians, etc.—From every itinerant physician, surgeon, oculist or medical or other specialist of any kind, traveling from place to place in the practice of his profession, except dentists practicing from place to place in the county of their residence, an annual tax of fifty dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 57.]

4. Peddlers.—From every foot-peddler, five dollars in each county in which he peddles; from every peddler with one horse or one pair of oxen, seven dollars and fifty cents in the county in which he peddles; from every peddler with two horses or two pair oxen, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued; from every peddler with sail or other boat in streams, along coasts or bays of this State, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to include traveling vendors of literature or traveling vendors of poultry, vegetables, fruits or other country produce exclusively, or fruit trees exclusively. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

5. Clock peddlers.—From every person or firm who peddles out clocks, agricultural implements, cooking stoves or ranges, wagons, buggies, carriages, surreys, and other similar vehicles, washing machines and churns, an annual tax of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid in each county in which said occupation is pursued; provided, that a merchant shall not be required to pay this special tax for selling the articles named in this subdivision when sold in his place of business. [Id.]

6. Auctioneers.—From every auctioneer, ten dollars. [Id.]

7. Selling on commission.—From every person, firm, or association of persons selling on commission, ten dollars. [Id.]

8. Brokers.—From every person, firm or association of person[s] selling on commission, if in a city of more than ten thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; if in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars. This article is intended to cover every person, firm or association of persons selling on samples only, and who do not carry any stock or merchandise or anything else on hand. This tax shall not apply to commercial travelers or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade from merchants. [Id.]

9. Ship brokers and agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of ship brokers or ship agents, ten dollars. [Id.]

10. Insurance adjusters and general agents.—For each person acting as a general adjuster of losses, or agents of fire and marine insurance companies, who may transact any business as such in this State, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars. By "general agent" as used in this law, is meant any person or firm, representative of any insurance company in this State, or who may exercise a general supervision over the business of such insurance company in this State, or over the local agency thereof in this State, or any subdivision thereof. [Id.]

11. Lightning rod agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons, dealing in lightning rods, an annual tax of thirty-six dollars to the State and eighteen dollars as a county tax to the county in which such business is carried on; and from every person canvassing for the sale of lightning rods, an annual tax of one hundred dollars to the State and fifty dollars as county tax, in each county in which such canvassing is done. [Id.]

12. Cotton brokers and commission merchants.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of cotton broker, cotton factor, or commission merchant in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or over, thirty-five dollars; and in all cities and towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of eighteen dollars. A "commission merchant," in the meaning of this article, is every person, firm or association of persons, receiving country produce, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, grain, corn, hay, lumber, shingles, wood, coal, goods, wares and merchandise, or anything else for sale, to be accounted for to the owner when sold, and charging a commission therefor. [Id.]

13. Pawnbrokers.—From every pawnbroker, an annual tax of one hundred and fifty dollars. [Id.]

14. Loan brokers.—From loan brokers, as that term is defined by the laws of this State, an annual tax of one hundred and fifty dollars for each place of business. [Acts 1915, p. 50.]

15. Money lenders.—From every person, firm or association of persons loaning money as agent or agents for any corporation, firm or association, either in this State or out of it, an annual occupation tax of one hundred and fifty dollars for the State, for the principal office, and a county tax of fifteen dollars from each agent for each county in which he may do business, and no additional occupation tax shall be levied by any county, city or town in this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

16. From each person, party, partnership or corporation engaged in the business of inquiring into and reporting upon the credit or standing of persons engaged in business in this State, or acting as agent or business manager in this State for any such person, party, partnership, joint stock association, or corporation, three hundred dollars. The payment of this tax, evidenced by the receipt of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall exempt the party paying the same from the payment of this tax in any other county, or to any city or town; and payment of such tax shall not be required of any sub-agent or correspondent of the party or company carrying on such business in this State.

17. Gas companies.—From each gas company, manufacturing gas in towns and cities of ten thousand or more inhabitants, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Id.]

18. Electric light companies.—From each electric light company operating an electric light plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand and more than six hundred inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 27.]

19. Waterworks companies.—From each water works company operating a water works plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand and more than six hundred inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Id.]

20. Ice dealers.—From each person or corporation who are wholesale dealers, selling imported or home-made ice to the trade to be sold again, in cities and towns of twenty thousand inhabitants or more, fifty dollars; in cities and towns of less than twenty thousand or more than ten thousand inhabitants, thirty dollars; in cities and towns of less than ten thousand and more than five thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars; in cities and towns of less than five thousand inhabitants ten dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

21. Street car companies.—From every street car company in this State, two dollars per mile on each mile of track owned by said company or corporation. [Id.]

22. Theaters.—From the owner, proprietor or operator of every regularly established and recognized opera house, theater, airdome, and other established [established] place where moving picture or other entertainments or exhibitions are given for private profit, in cities, towns and villages having the following populations, respectively:

Population.	Annual Tax.

30,000 to 40,000.....	60.00
40,000 or more.....	75.00

In each case the population shall be determined by the preceding Federal census. Counties, incorporated cities, towns and villages shall each have the power and authority to collect one-half the amount of such State occupation tax. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 162.]

23. Panorama or view shows.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every panorama or view show, used for profit, exhibiting in a wagon, room, tent or elsewhere, an annual occupation tax of ten dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars per annum. A panorama or view show is a show exhibiting pictures, statuary or other works of art which are to be viewed through stereoscopic or magnifying lenses. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

24. Circus.—From every circus or wild west show wherein among other acts, broncho-busting, rough riding, equestrian or acrobatic feats are performed or exhibited for which pay for admission is demanded or received, for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of seventy-five cents or over is charged, two hundred and twenty-five dollars; for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of any sum from fifty cents to seventy-five cents is charged, two hundred dollars; for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of fifty cents or less is charged, one hundred and fifty dollars; provided, that the amount of fee charged for reserved seats shall be considered as a part of such admission fee; provided that where there is a combination of circus and menageries, wild west and menagerie or circus or wild west and other exhibitions, the highest tax fixed by this act for any division or department of the combination shall be collected. Every show or exhibition which advertises itself as a circus, wild west show or menagerie or combination of any of them, shall be held to be such for the purposes of the levy and collection of occupation taxes provided for herein. [Acts 1911, p. 142.]

25. Menagerie, museum, carnival.—From every menagerie, wax works, side shows or exhibition, whether connected with a circus or not, where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every performance or exhibition in which fees for admission are received; provided that from any museum, menagerie or zoological exhibition, or a combination thereof, operated and maintained in any city or town and open for admission all day continuously, in which a charge for admission is demanded or received, an annual tax of fifty dollars. Provided that where any carnival, or carnivals, shows, amusements or entertainments are held, under the auspices, direction or control of any chamber of commerce of any city or other similar organization, for not longer during any one year of a period or periods aggregating thirty days, it shall not be necessary for such carnivals, shows or entertainments to pay any tax to the State, city or county during the operation of said show by said chamber of commerce or other similar organization, but there shall be assessed against said chamber of commerce or other similar organization, as the case may be, a State tax of one hundred dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 209.]

26. Waxworks, etc.—From every menagerie, waxworks or exhibition of any kind where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every day on which fees for such admission are received; provided that exhibitions by associations organized for promotion of art, science, charity or benevolence, shall be exempt from taxation; and persons who form a museum composed entirely of the products of Texas shall have the right to exhibit the same for a fee without paying any occupation tax. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

27. Acrobatic performances.—From every exhibition where acrobatic feats are performed and an admission fee charged for profit, not connected with the circus or theatre, ten dollars for each performance. [Id.]

28. Slight of hand performances.—From every slight of hand performance or exhibition of legerdemain, not connected with the theater or circus, twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

29. Medicine shows, etc.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every show or company of persons giving exhibitions of music, songs, recitations, slight of hand, gymnastic, dancing or other kinds of performances in a tent, house or elsewhere, which said exhibitions are used for profit by sale of medicines, electric belts or other articles of value, whether charge is made only for seats or not, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars and fifty cents for every such performance or exhibition; provided, this tax shall not be assessed when these performances are given inside the grounds of any State or county fair during the time that said State or county fair is giving its annual exhibition. [Id.]

30. Concerts, etc.—For every concert where a fee for admission is demanded or received, two dollars; provided, that entertainments when given by the citizens for charitable purposes, or for the support or aid of literary or cemetery associations are exempt. [Id.]

31. Phonographs, etc.—From each owner or manager of every coin operated phonograph, electrical piano, electric battery, graphophone [graphophone], weighing machine or other machines or instruments where a fee is charged, where such fee is five cents or more, an annual tax of five dollars. From each owner or manager of every such machine as mentioned or referred to herein where the fee charged is a penny, an annual occupation tax of one dollar, provided when an electric battery is used by a regularly authorized physician on a patient, no tax shall be charged. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 44.]

32. Ball parks.—From every manager of a base ball park in a city or town containing five thousand or more inhabitants, where an admission fee is charged, twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

33. Race tracks.—From every owner or manager of every race track, one mile or more in length, used for profit, one hundred dollars; from each owner or manager of every race track, one-half mile or less in length, fifty dollars per annum; provided, this shall not apply to race tracks owned by private individuals and used only for training purposes, or in connection with agricultural fairs and expositions. [Id.]

34. Skating rinks.—From each and every owner or keeper of any skating rink used for profit, twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

35. Shooting gallery.—From every person or firm keeping a shooting gallery at which a fee is paid or demanded, an annual tax of thirty dollars in each county. [Id.]

36. Nine and ten pin alleys.—From every nine or ten pin or other alley used or operated for profit by whatever name called, constructed or operated upon the principal [principle] of a bowling alley upon which pins, pegs, balls, rings, hoops or other devices are used, without regard to the number of tracks or alleys in the same building or place, or whether the balls or other devices are rolled or used by hand or otherwise, one hundred dollars. Any alley used in connection with any drug store, or place where tobacco in any form is sold, or upon which money or other things of value are paid or charged for the privilege of playing shall be regarded as used and operated for profit. [Acts 1917, p. 385.]

37. Hobby horses, etc.—From all persons keeping or using for profit any hobby horse, flying-jenny, or device of that character, with or without name, fifteen dollars for each county wherein the same are kept or used. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

38. Tax on dealers in cannon crackers, etc.—From every person, firm or corporation engaged in the occupation of selling cannon crackers, or toy pistols used for shooting or exploding cartridges, within this State, an annual tax of five hundred dollars, and counties and incorporated cities or towns in which such business is located shall have the power to levy a tax of one-half the above amount as now provided by law in addition to the above tax, and such person, firm or corporation so selling such cannon crackers shall be required to pay an additional tax in the above amount and take out an additional license for each separate establishment or place in which such cannon crackers shall be sold. By the term "cannon cracker" is meant any fire cracker or other combustible package more than two inches in length, and more than one inch in circumference commonly sold and exploded for purposes of amusement. Nothing herein shall be so construed [construed] as to prohibit the sale of, or to place a tax on, the sale of cartridges, combustible packages or explosives commonly used for firearms or artillery, mining, excavating earth or stone, scientific purposes or for any public or private work. [Acts 1909, p. 174.]

39. Cigarette dealers.—From all dealers in cigarettes in this State, ten dollars, a cigarette being the same as defined by the laws of the United States government; provided, that this tax shall be in addition to any other tax levied under the law. Each dealer shall be required to procure an annual license from the county clerk of the county where he proposes to sell cigarettes, which shall be granted for no shorter or longer term than one year. The license shall describe the house and locality where the dealer proposes to sell cigarettes. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

Art. 7048. [7357] [5050] County ad valorem, etc.—Each commissioners court shall have power to levy, for county revenue purposes, a tax of one-fourth of one per cent, and, for roads and bridges, fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property subject to a State tax by the provisions of this title; and, for the payment of debts incurred prior to September 1883, and for the erection of public buildings and other permanent improvements they shall have power to levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year, and for the improvement of public roads, under the restrictions provided by law for the levy of a road tax, a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and shall have power to levy a special tax for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection within each school district of school buildings therein in counties not exempt from the district school system; provided, that two-thirds of the qualified property tax paying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, and shall have the right to levy one-half of the occupation tax levied by the State upon all occupations not herein otherwise specially exempted; provided any one wishing to pursue any of the vocations named in this chapter, upon which any county occupation tax may be levied, may do so by paying the same quarterly. The receipt of the proper officer under seal shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such taxes as are herein named. The provisions of this law shall not be deemed to affect the provisions of any law specially authorizing any commissioners court to levy a different rate of tax. No person shall be allowed license for keeping any nine or ten pin alley, or anything of the kind used for profit, for a period of less than twelve months. The governing body of any incorporated town or city shall in no case levy a greater tax on any occupation than that authorized by this chapter to be levied by the commissioners court. In all cases where any dealer in merchandise, wares or goods of any kind, subject to ad valorem or occupation taxes, or both, under the provisions of this law, who shall after the rendition of said merchandise, wares or goods for taxation, or after becoming liable for any occupation tax, become bankrupt or make assignment of said merchandise, wares or goods, then the tax collector shall at once demand of the receiver or assignee of said dealer payment of the amount due for said taxes by said dealer; and in case of failure of said receiver or assignee to at once pay the amount of said taxes, the said collector shall levy upon, seize and sell from the said merchandise, wares or goods, enough to satisfy the amount of said taxes, and said taxes, until paid, shall constitute a prior lien on said merchandise, goods and wares in default of said taxes. [Acts 1885, p. 105; G. L. vol. 9, p. 725; Acts 1891, p. 51.]

Art. 7049. [7358] [5051] Taxes payable in what.—The taxes levied by this chapter are payable in currency or coin of the United States; provided, that persons holding scrip issued to them for services rendered the county may pay their county ad valorem taxes in such scrip[t]. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 38.]

Art. 7050. [7359] [5052] Books of collector.—The tax collector shall keep a book of such size and character as may be necessary, in which shall be entered quarterly, at the following dates, to-wit: January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, and October 1st, or within ten days thereafter, in which to require the returns to be made under the provisions of this chapter, the several amounts as shown by such returns for which and upon which any person, firm or association of persons is or may be liable to a tax upon occupations under this chapter; and within fifteen days from the time of receiving and making up the several amounts and the sums due upon such amounts as occupation tax, the collector shall forward to the Comptroller a transcript or duplicate of the return and the amount as shown by his record, this transcript and record from which it is taken to show the amount of such quarterly returns and the tax due thereon from every person, firm or association of persons liable to such tax. Nothing contained in this article is intended to affect the liability which, in the absence of this statute, would be incurred under any special enactment of this State. [Acts 1879, p. 143; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1443.]

Art. 7051. [7360] Collector furnished books, etc.—The Comptroller shall furnish tax collectors the necessary books and blanks required to be used by such collectors under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7052. [7361] [5054] Pay in advance.—The payment of the specific tax herein provided for shall be required by the tax collector to be made before any person, firm or association of persons shall be allowed to engage in any occupation requiring a license under any provision of this law, this payment to be made for a period not less than three months. All arrearages of taxes that may be due by reason of any such business having been carried on shall be a lien upon all the stock and fixtures owned or used in making a part of any business or vocation liable to such tax under the provisions of this chapter, and which lien shall authorize the collector to sell, after due notice, so much of the stock or other personal property of any person, firm or association of persons owing taxes under the provisions of this chapter, as will satisfy such claim, together with the cost of such proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 7053. [7362] [5055] Tax receipts furnished.—The Comptroller shall cause occupation tax receipts for each occupation to be printed with his signature, for all occupations, payable to the collectors, annual receipts for those that are paid annually, and quarterly receipts for all that can be paid quarterly; such receipts shall state the name of the occupation and the amount of the tax, and have blanks for the year, month and name of licensee, and also have a blank space for the signature of the collector; these receipts shall each have a stub attached, stating briefly the substance of the attached receipt, and shall be bound in books; and he shall forward to each collector a proper number of said receipts, and charge him with the amount represented therein, and cause him to account therefor. The collector whenever collecting any occupation tax, shall fill the blanks in the receipt and stub by writing thereon the time for which he collects and the name of the licensee, and shall sign the receipt and stub officially. No person shall pursue any occupation, unless he has a receipt signed as herein provided by the Comptroller and collector; and every person, firm or corporation keeping an office or having a local place of business shall keep posted up in a conspicuous place his or their said license. [Id.]

Art. 7054. [7363] Account of occupation tax receipts.—When the Comptroller furnishes collectors with blank occupation tax receipts, he shall furnish the commissioners courts with the numbers and value of the receipts furnished to their respective collectors; and such courts shall charge their respective collectors with the number and such proportion of the value of the receipts so furnished as shall apply to the county tax, when such collectors shall make their settlements with the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall furnish the commissioners court with the numbers and value of the receipts returned, and with the amount of the occupation taxes collected by their respective collectors. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

Art. 7055. [7364] [5056] Transfer of license.—Any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons, who shall be the legal owners or holders of any unexpired occupation license issued in accordance with the laws of this State, may transfer the same on the books of the officer by whom the same was issued. [Acts 1885, p. 27; G. L. vol. 9, p. 647.]

Art. 7056. [7365] [5057] Purchaser of unexpired license.—The assignee or purchaser of such unexpired occupation license shall be authorized to pursue such occupation under such unexpired license for and during the unexpired term thereof, provided that such assignee or purchaser shall, before following such occupation, comply in all other respects with the requirements of the law provided for in the original applications for such licenses. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to authorize two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons to follow the same occupation under one license at the same time. Whenever any person, firm, corporation or association of persons following an occupation license shall be closed out by legal process, the occupation license shall be deemed an asset of said person, firm, corporation or association of persons, and sold as other property belonging to said person, firm, corporation, or association; and the purchaser thereof shall have the right to pursue the occupation named in said license, or transfer it to any other person; provided, such occupation license shall under no circumstances be transferred more than one time. [Id.]

Art. 7057. [7366-67-68] Revenue duties.—The Governor may, whenever in his judgment the public service demands it, direct the Comptroller to investigate books and accounts of the assessing and collecting officers of this State, and all officers and persons disbursing, receiving or having in their possession public funds, and to make such other investigations and perform such other duties in the interest of the public revenues as the Governor may direct. Whenever any such investigation is ordered by the Governor, the Comptroller shall report to him in writing the results thereof, and point out the particulars, if any, wherein the revenue laws have been violated or their enforcement neglected, together with the names of those delinquent therein. Whereupon the Governor shall institute civil and criminal proceedings through the Attorney General in the name of the State against such delinquent parties who are reported by the Comptroller to be delinquent. The Comptroller shall have power at any time to examine and check up all and any expenditures of money appropriated for any of the State institutions or for any other purpose or for improvements made by the State on State property or money received and disbursed by any board authorized by law to receive and disburse any State money. The Comptroller shall also have power and authority, and it is hereby made his duty, to fully investigate any State institution when so directed by the Governor or required by information coming to his own knowledge. He shall investigate the manner of conducting the same and the policy pursued by those in charge thereof, and the conduct or efficiency of any person employed therein by the State. He shall examine into and report upon the character and manner as well as the amount of expenditures thereof, and investigate and ascertain all sums of money due the State from any source whatever, the ascertainment and collection of which does not devolve upon other officers of this State under existing law; and he shall report all such facts to the Governor. When the Comptroller, acting under the direction of the Governor, calls on any person connected with the public service to inspect his accounts, records or books, said person so called upon shall submit to said agent all books, records and accounts so called for without delay.

The Comptroller shall receive his actual traveling expenses, which shall be paid on the approval of the same by the Governor; provided he shall not be allowed traveling expenses for any service connected with the examination and investigation of the accounts of any institution in Travis County. Article 7058. [7369] Express companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association doing an express business, by railroad or water, in this State shall on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from charges and freights within this State paid to or collected by such individual, company, corporation or association on account of money, goods, merchandise or other character of freight carried within this State during the twelve months next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations or associations at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the year beginning on said date equal to two and one-half per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7059. [7370] Telegraph companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, controlling or managing any telegraph lines in this State, or owning, operating, controlling or managing what is known as wireless telegraph stations, for the transmission of messages or aerograms and charging for the transmission of such messages or aerograms, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual, or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such companies, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this State during the preceding quarter, in the payment of telegraphic or aerographic charges, including the amount received on full rate messages and aerograms and half rate messages and aerograms, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within the State during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two and three-fourths per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7060. [7371] Gas, electric light, power or waterworks.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating or managing or controlling any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks, or water and light plant, within this State and charging for gas, electric lights, electric power or water, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association showing the gross amount received from the business done within this State in the payment of charges for gas, electric lights, electric power and water for the quarter next preceding. Said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report for any town or city of ten thousand inhabitants and less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-fourth of one per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report; and for any town or city of twenty-five thousand inhabitants or more, the said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. Nothing herein shall apply to any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks or water and light plant within this State owned by any city or town. [Id.]

Art. 7061. [7372] Collecting or commercial agency.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating, managing or controlling any collecting agency, commercial agency or commercial reporting credit agency within this State, and charging for collections made, or business done, or reports made, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing from business done within this State the gross amount received in the payment of charges for collections made and business done and reports made during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations or associations at the time of making said report shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7062. [7373] Car companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, residing without this State, or incorporated under the laws of any other State or territory, or nation, and owning stock cars, refrigerator and fruit cars of any kind, tank cars of any kind, coal cars of any kind, furniture cars or common box cars and flat cars, and leasing, renting or charging mileage for the use of such cars within the State of Texas, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, and report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from such rentals, or mileage, or from other sources of revenue received from business done within this State, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies and corporations, and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to three per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7063. [7375] Sleeping, palace or dining car companies.—Every sleeping car company, palace car company, or dining car company doing business in this State, and each individual, company, corporation or association leasing or renting, owning, controlling or managing any palace cars, dining cars, or sleeping cars within this State for the use of the public, for which any fare is charged, shall, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation, or association, showing the amount of gross receipts earned from any and all sources whatever within this State, except from receipts derived from buffet service, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to five per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. The tax herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other taxes now levied upon sleeping car, palace car or dining car companies, except the tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars of capital stock of such car companies as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7064. [7376] Insurance companies.—Every insurance company transacting the business of fire, marine, marine inland, accident, credit, title, live stock, fidelity, guaranty, surety, casualty, or any other kind or character of insurance business other than the business of life insurance, within this State and other than fraternal benefit associations, at the time of filing its annual statement, shall report to the Commissioner of Insurance the gross amount of premiums received in the State upon property, and from persons residing in this State during the preceding year, and each of such companies shall pay an annual tax upon such gross premium receipts as follows: shall pay a tax of two and six-tenths per cent, provided, that any company doing two or more kinds of insurance business herein referred to, shall pay the tax herein levied upon its gross premiums received from each of said kinds of business; and the gross premium receipts where referred to in this law are understood to be the premium receipts reported to the Commissioner of Insurance by the insurance companies upon the sworn statement of two principal officers of such companies, less return premiums paid policy holders, and the premiums paid for re-insurance in companies authorized to do business in this State. Upon receipt by him of sworn statements, showing the gross premium receipts by such companies, the Commissioner shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by each company, which tax shall be paid to the State Treasurer on or before the first of March following, and the receipt of the Treasurer shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes. No such insurance company shall receive a permit to do business in this State until such taxes are paid. If any such insurance company shall have as much as one-fourth of its entire assets, as shown by said sworn statement, invested in any or all of the following securities: real estate in this State, bonds of this State or of any county, incorporated city or town of this State, or other property in this State in which by law such companies may invest their funds, then the annual tax of any such companies shall be one per cent of its said gross premium receipts; and if any such company shall invest as aforesaid as much as one-half of its assets, then the annual tax of such company shall be one-half of one per cent of its gross premium receipts, as above defined. No occupation tax shall be levied on insurance companies herein subjected to a gross premium receipt tax by any county, city or town. All mutual fraternal benevolent associations, now or hereafter doing business in this State under the lodge system and on the assessment plan, whether organized under the laws of this State or a foreign State or country, are exempt from the provisions of this article. The taxes aforesaid shall constitute all taxes and license fees collectible under the laws of this State against any such insurance companies, and no other occupation or other taxes shall be levied on or collected from any insurance company by any county, city or town, but this law shall not be construed to prohibit the levy and collection of State, county and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such companies. Purely co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property, and not for profit, shall be exempt from the provisions of this law. [Id. Acts 1911, p. 216.]

Art. 7065. [7377] Tax on gasoline.—Every person selling at wholesale in intrastate commerce in this State any gasoline shall pay to the State of Texas an occupation tax equal to three cents per gallon so sold by such person. Such tax shall be due and payable at the office of the Comptroller at Austin on the 25th day of each month, based on such sales made during the calendar month next preceding. Every such person so selling gasoline shall, on or before the 25th day of each month make and deliver to the Comptroller a report sworn to as correct by such person before an officer authorized to administer oaths in this State (or, if other than an individual, so sworn to by its president, secretary, treasurer, or other duly authorized officer, or by its representative in charge of such intrastate sales of such gasoline), on such forms as said Comptroller shall prescribe, of the total number of gallons of gasoline sold at wholesale in intrastate commerce in this State by such person during the next preceding calendar month. The term "selling at wholesale" or "sold at wholesale" or "sales at wholesale" as used in this law shall include:

1. Any and all sales of gasoline in any quantity whatsoever in intrastate commerce in this State to the retailer to be sold by such retailer to the consumer in any quantity whatsoever.

2. Any and all sales to consumer in intrastate commerce in this State of gasoline refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared in this State where such sales are made by the person so refining, compounding, manufacturing, blending or preparing same whether such sales are made in such person's own name or in the name of other [others] or in the name of a representative, agent or employee of such person.

3. Any and all sales in any quantity whatsoever to the consumer [consumer] in intrastate commerce in this State of gasoline brought into the State from outside the State, except that gasoline which is sold in intrastate commerce to the retailer for sale to the consumer, the selling of which latter mentioned is covered by subdivision 1 hereof.

Failure of the Comptroller to furnish any person affected by this law with a form for any report required to be made by such person shall not relieve such person of liability for penalties for failure to comply with this law as to any such report. Every person required to pay said tax shall keep a complete record of all sales at wholesale made upon which the occupation tax herein levied is measured or computed, which record shall be in a permanently bound book or books (not loose leaf) and shall show the date of each such sale; the amount of same; to whom (except as to sales to the consumer) each such sale was made; from what place such gasoline was shipped and the name of the place of delivery of same. All of which records shall be open at all times to official inspection and examination of the Comptroller, or the Attorney General, or any authorized employé or representative of such Comptroller or Attorney General. Any such person failing to keep such record or records as herein required shall forfeit to the State as a penalty an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars; and for each day such person so fails to keep such record or records a separate penalty shall accrue. Any person required to pay an occupation tax by this law failing to pay such tax on or before the date same is due and payable, shall pay to the State as a penalty an additional ten per cent of the amount of the tax due on said date and such tax and penalty shall draw interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from due date until paid.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Any person required to make any report under this law failing to make the same in the manner or within the time prescribed by this law shall forfeit to the State a penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars. Such penalty shall draw eight per cent interest from due date until paid. The occupation taxes herein levied shall be placed in the State Treasury by the Comptroller as provided in this law immediately upon the collection of same. One-fourth of such occupation tax shall go to the available free school fund and three-fourths of same shall be placed to the credit of the State highway fund for the construction and the construction and maintenance of the public highways of the State constituting a part of the State system of public highways as designated by the State Highway Commission, and said funds shall be set aside in a separate fund from the general revenue fund for the two purposes herein mentioned, and shall be subject to disbursement in accordance with the statute controlling the distribution of such available school fund and State highway fund, respectively. The Attorney General shall bring suit in behalf of the State in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County to recover the amount of taxes, penalties and interest past due and payable by any person affected by this law. The word "gasoline" as used in this law means gasoline or gasoline substitute refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared in whole or in part from any derivative fraction or product of petroleum or natural gas; and shall also include what is commercially known as gasoline so refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared. The word "person" as used in this law shall include persons, firms, partnerships, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, common law trusts, those operating under a declaration of trust, or other concern by whatsoever name known or howsoever organized, formed or created. It is the purpose and intent of this law to levy an occupation tax that will not operate to burden the industry with the tax every time any particular gasoline is sold, but to place the tax on only one transaction as to any particular gasoline, to the end that the tax will bear equally and uniformly on the gasoline industry. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 158; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 142, ch. 93, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 142, ch. 93, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws, and provides that on and after September 1, 1928, the gasoline tax shall be two cents per gallon instead of three cents per gallon.

Art. 7066. Tax on sulphur.—Each person who owns, controls, manages, leases or operates any sulphur mine or mines, wells or shafts, or who produces sulphur by any method, system, or manner, within this State shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, sworn to by such person before an officer authorized to administer oaths in this State, or if such person be other than an individual, so sworn to by its president, secretary or other duly authorized officer, on such forms as said Comptroller shall prescribe, showing the total amount of sulphur produced during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof, which shall include any bonus or premiums paid or promised during said quarter, and at the time of making said report shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date on [an] amount equal to two per cent of the total amount of sulphur produced by such person in this State during said quarter at the average market value thereof, including any bonus or premiums paid as shown by said report. If for any reason the Comptroller is not satisfied with any report so received, he may require additional or supplemental reports containing information and data upon such matters as he may need or deem necessary to ascertain the true and correct amount of all taxes due from such person or concern, which additional or supplemental reports shall be made under oath as above provided. Should any person subject to the occupation tax herein levied begin business after the beginning of a quarter, the amount of tax which such person or concern shall pay for the first quarter immediately succeeding the quarter in which the business was begun shall be ascertained by taking the total value of the sulphur produced within the last quarter, dividing the same by the number of days such person or concern was engaged in the business during said preceding quarter, and multiplying the quotient by 90, taking two per cent of the product. Each person subject to the payment of the occupation tax levied and required to be paid by this law shall cause to be made and to be kept and preserved, a full and complete record of all sulphur produced in this State during the time so engaged in its production, all of which record shall be open at all times to official inspection and examination of the Comptroller or the Attorney General, or any employé or representatives of such Comptroller or Attorney General. Any person failing to keep such record or records as herein required shall forfeit to the State of Texas as a penalty any sum not less than five hundred nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the State of Texas, and each ten days of failure to keep such records shall constitute a separate offense and subject the offender to additional penalties. Any person subject to the payment of said tax on sulphur failing to pay the tax levied in this article within thirty days after same is due and payable, shall pay to the State as a penalty an additional amount equal to ten per cent of the taxes due and such tax and penalty shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the due date until paid. The Attorney General or any district or county attorney at the direction of the Attorney General, shall bring suit in behalf of the State to recover the amount of taxes, penalties and interest past due and payable by any person affected by this law. The word "person" as used in this law shall include persons, firms, partnerships, companies, corporations, associations, common law trusts, those operating under a declaration of trust, or other concern by whatever name known or howsoever organized, formed or created. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 176.]

Art. 7067. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 431, ch. 286, § 1]

Art. 7067a. Franchise tax of interurban and electric railway companies.—In lieu of the tax imposed upon such individual, company, corporation, or association as provided in Article 7067 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, the said individual, company, corporation, or association shall be required to pay the franchise tax now imposed in Chapter 3, of Title 122, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, or which may hereafter be imposed by law. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 431, ch. 286, § 2.]

Section 1 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 431, ch. 286, repeals art. 7067, Rev. Civ. St. 1925.

Art. 7068. [7380] Dealers in pistols.—Each individual, company, corporation or association created by the laws of this or any other State, who shall engage in his own name or in the name of others, or in the names of its representatives or agents in this State, in the business of a wholesale or retail dealer of pistols, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of said company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount collected and uncollected from any and all sales made within this State of all such firearms during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to fifty per cent of said gross receipts from sales of all firearms as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7069. [7381] Text book publishers.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this State, or of any other state or nation, engaged in publishing, printing and selling such text books as are used, or will be used, in the schools of this State, or owning, controlling or managing any such business, within the State or out of it, and having State agencies within this State for the purpose of selling any such books, to be used in any of the schools of this State, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, or of the person owning, controlling or managing any such business, showing the gross amount received from such business done within this State from any and all sources during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; provided that after September 1, 1929, no further tax shall be assessed under the provisions of this article, but all taxes accruing under the provisions hereof prior to said date shall nevertheless be paid. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any corporation organized by the students and faculty of any State supported institution of learning and which has no capital stock and pays no dividends and is organized for the purpose of supplying books and other school supplies to the students of such institution and whose assets on the dissolution of the corporation pass to the governing board of the institution as a trust fund to be used for the benefit of the institution. [Id. Acts 1923, p. 352.]

Art. 7070. [7382] Telephone companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, managing or controlling any telephone line or lines or any telephones within this State, and charging for the use of the same, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this State during the preceding quarter in the payment of charges for the use of its line or lines, telephone and telephones, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within this State during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax, for the quarter beginning on said date, equal to one and one-half per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7071. [7383] Gross production tax on oil.—1. Each person owning, controlling, managing, operating or leasing in this State any oil well, or any person who produces in any other manner any oil by taking it from the earth in this State, shall make quarterly on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of such person or if the producer is other than a natural person, under oath of the president, treasurer, superintendent or person in charge of such production, showing the total amount of oil produced by such person from each well, or otherwise, during the quarter next preceding and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Each such person on said first days of January, April, July, and October shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two per cent of the value of the total amount of oil produced in this State by such person during the quarter next preceding such first days of January, April, July and October at the average market value thereof.

2. Each person mentioned and included in subdivision 1 of this article shall make, keep and preserve a full and complete record of all such oil produced in this State during the time so engaged in its production, and said record shall be open at all times to the inspection of all tax officers of this State. Any person failing to comply with this requirement shall be subject to a penalty not less than five hundred and not more than fifteen hundred dollars payable to the State of Texas, and such penalty shall accrue for each ten days of failure to comply with this subdivision of said article and such penalty shall accrue for failure to comply with this subdivision with reference to each separate oil well.

3. In each report required to be made by this article such person making the same shall show in detail the disposition made of any such oil, if disposed of, and if not, shall show where it is stored. Said report shall show to whom any such oil was sold or delivered, the date of sale and delivery, the amount delivered to each, and shall show the name and location of the person, refinery, pipe line, establishment, plant, factory, railroad, institution or place to which or to whom delivery was made.

4. The word "person" as used in this article shall include any person, firm, concern, receiver, receivers, trustee, executor, administrator, agent, institution, association, partnership, company corporations, and persons acting under declarations of trust as well as the trustees acting under such declarations of trust.

5. The market value of oil as that term is used herein shall be the actual market value of the same, and among other things proper to be considered any bonus or premium paid or which the oil will reasonably bring shall not be excluded in arriving at the market value.

6. Any person failing to make proper and accurate report for thirty days from the date when said report is required herein to be made shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of the tax due for the quarter for which said report is required by law to be made.

7. Any person failing to pay any tax provided for herein within thirty days from the date when said tax is required herein to be paid shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent upon the amount of such tax and six per cent interest upon the amount of such tax and penalty from date when due and payable until paid.

8. The word "oil" as used in this law means petroleum oil, mineral oil, or other oil taken from the earth.

9. For the occupation tax, penalties and interest herein provided for, the State shall have a lien on any leasehold interest, ownership of the oil rights or interest owned by the person owing any tax herein provided for. [Acts 1907, p. 479; Acts 1919, p. 128; Acts 1923, 2nd C. S., p. 98.]

Art. 7072. [7384] Terminal companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State or territory, or of the United States, or any foreign country, which owns, controls, manages or leases any terminal companies, or any railroad doing a terminal business within this State, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever within this State, during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of the State of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7073. [7385] Tax paid when business is begun after beginning of quarter.—If any individual, company, corporation, firm, or association, in this chapter mentioned, shall begin and engage in any business for which there is an occupation tax herein imposed, on or after the beginning day of the quarter for which said tax is imposed, then, and in all such cases, the amount of such tax for said beginning quarter shall be and is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty dollars, payable to the State Treasurer in advance; but for the next succeeding quarter, and all other succeeding quarters, the tax shall be determined by reports to the Comptroller of the business for the preceding quarter, or part thereof, as herein otherwise in this chapter provided; and reports and payments of such tax shall be made subject to all other provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7074. [7386] Penalty for failure to report.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to make report for thirty days from the date when said report is required by this chapter to be made, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7075. [7387] Penalty for failure to pay tax.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to pay any tax for thirty days from the date when said tax is required by this chapter to be paid, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent upon the amount of such tax. [Id.]

Art. 7076. [7388] Penalties recovered by suit.—The penalties provided for by this chapter shall be recovered by the Attorney General in a suit brought by him in the name of the State of Texas; and venue and jurisdiction of such suit is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis County. [Id.]

Art. 7077. [7389] Permit not granted until tax paid.—No individual, company, corporation or association, failing to pay all taxes imposed by this chapter, shall receive a permit to do business in this State, or continue to do business in the State; until the tax hereby imposed is paid. The receipt of the State Treasurer shall be evidence of the payment of such tax. [Id.]

Art. 7078. [7390] Tax in addition to all other taxes.—Except as herein stated, all taxes levied by this chapter shall be in addition to all other taxes now levied by law; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing any county or city to levy an occupation tax on the occupation and business taxed by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7079. [7391] Additional reports.—If for any reason, the Comptroller is not satisfied with any report from any such person, company, corporation, co-partnership or association, he may require additional or supplemental reports containing information and data upon such matters as he may need or deem necessary to ascertain the true and correct amount of all taxes due by any such person, firm or corporation. Every statement or report required by this chapter shall have affixed thereto the affidavit of the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer of the person, corporation, co-partnership or association, or one of the persons or members of the partnership making the same, to the effect that the statement is true. The Comptroller shall prepare blanks to be used in making the reports required by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7080. Permit.—Every person, company, firm, partnership, corporation, or unincorporated company or association, engaged in any business within this State, upon which the laws of this State require the payment of a tax on gross receipts, shall be required to have a permit to transact such business, to be issued by the Secretary of State, which permit shall be and remain posted, subject to the view of the public at the principal office of such person to whom the same is issued. The permit shall be issued in such form as the Attorney General may prescribe, shall show the name of the person or concern to whom issued, the business to be transacted, and that the holder thereof has complied with this law. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 177.]

Art. 7081. Issuance of permit.—Permits to transact business shall be issued by the Secretary of State upon applications made upon form prescribed by the Secretary of State, which application shall show, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, the facts required to be shown in the permit; and shall show that the applicant has paid the gross receipts taxes prescribed by law, or that if the applicant is the vendee of a going business that his vendor has paid all his gross receipts taxes due, or to become due; such taxes are to be shown to be paid for the current quarter, or such other period of time as said taxes may be paid. The Secretary of State shall make such investigation as necessary to determine that such taxes have been paid and shall then issue a permit to transact business, authorizing the party to whom issued to transact business until the 31st day of December of the current year, after which date new permits for each year must be obtained, as in the first instance. When a permit has been issued as herein provided, the Secretary of State shall immediately certify such fact to the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7082. Suspension of permit.—Within thirty days after gross receipts taxes may become due by any one transacting or authorized to transact business hereunder, if such tax remains unpaid, the Comptroller shall certify such fact to the Secretary of State, whose duty it shall be to notify the delinquent tax payer that his name has been certified to the Secretary of State as a delinquent and that unless the tax is paid to the Comptroller within ten days from the date of such notice the permit to transact business of the delinquent will be suspended by the Secretary of State. The notice herein provided for shall be given by the Secretary of State, mailing to the delinquent at his last known address a printed or written notice, and the mailing of such notice shall be a sufficient compliance of this law. If the tax, with accrued penalties, is not paid within fifteen days after the mailing of the notice, the Secretary of State shall note on his records that the permit to transact business of the delinquent has been suspended, giving the date upon which such action was taken by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall then immediately certify such suspension to the Comptroller and to the Attorney General. After the permit to transact business has been suspended it shall be unlawful for the delinquent to continue to transact business, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to cause to be published in some daily or weekly paper, published in the county of the delinquent's place of business, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in some daily newspaper of State-wide circulation, notice that the delinquent's permit to transact business has been suspended. [Id.]

Art. 7083. Penalties.—Any person, company, firm, partnership, corporation, unincorporated company or association, transacting business in this State upon which a gross receipts tax is required by law to be paid, without having first obtained a permit to do so, or transacting such business after its permit so to do has been suspended, as provided by this law, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 daily for each day's business which is transacted in violation of this law. The Attorney General shall bring suits for all penalties authorized by this law, and the courts of Travis County shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all violations of this law. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

FRANCHISE TAX

Art.

- 7084. Paid by domestic corporation.
- 7084a. Closed state bank.
- 7085. Paid by foreign corporation.
- 7086. Only part of tax to be paid.
- 7087. Affidavits required.
- 7088. Reports filed.
- 7089. Report of corporation.
- 7090. Supplemental tax.
- 7091. Failure to pay tax.
- 7092. Notice of forfeiture.

Art.

7093. Foreign corporations may withdraw.
 7094. Corporations exempt.
 7095. Attorney General to bring suit.
 7096. Forfeiture of charter.
 7097. Corporations in process of liquidation.

Article 7084. [7393] Paid by domestic corporation.—Except as herein provided, each private domestic corporation heretofore or that may hereafter be chartered under the laws of this State, shall on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the Secretary of State a franchise tax for the year following, which shall be computed as follows, viz: fifty cents on each one thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the authorized capital stock of such corporation unless the total amount of the capital stock of such corporation actually paid in, plus its surplus and undivided profits, shall exceed its authorized capital stock; and in that event the franchise tax of such corporation for the year following shall be fifty cents on each one thousand dollars of capital stock of such corporation actually paid in, plus its surplus and undivided profits; provided, that such franchise tax shall not in any case be less than ten dollars. Where the authorized capital exceeds one million dollars, such franchise tax shall be fifty cents for each one thousand dollars up to and including one million dollars, and for each additional one thousand dollars in excess of one million dollars, it shall be twenty-five cents. Where a domestic corporation does business outside of the State, the franchise tax of such corporation shall be computed upon that proportion of the authorized capital stock plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, as the total gross receipts of such corporation from its business done in Texas bears to the total gross receipts of the corporation from all sources. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503; Acts 1919, p. 100.]

Art. 7084a. Closed state bank.—Hereafter no franchise tax shall be assessed against a State Bank after it has closed its doors and has gone into the hands of the Banking Commissioner for liquidation according to law, nor shall any such corporation be liable for any franchise tax while in the hands of the Commissioner for liquidation. The failure of the Commissioner to pay franchise taxes for any bank in his hands for liquidation shall not operate to revoke or forfeit the charter of such corporation.

Provided, that after such liquidation should there be any funds left that would go to the stockholders, then all past due franchise taxes shall be paid before distributing such funds, if any, to outstanding stockholders.

Provided further, that the Banking Commissioner of Texas shall not be required to file with the Secretary of State any reports for the purpose of assessing franchise taxes, as provided in Article 7088, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 294, ch. 208, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 294, ch. 208, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 7085. [7394] Paid by foreign corporations.—Except as herein provided, each foreign corporation authorized, or that may hereafter be authorized, to do business in this State, shall, on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the Secretary of State a franchise tax for the year following which shall be computed as follows: the authorized capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, the total gross receipts of such corporation from all its business and the total gross receipts from all of its business done in Texas for the calendar year immediately preceding shall be ascertained by the Secretary of State from sworn reports of the officers of such corporation or by such other method as may satisfy the Secretary of State, and the capital stock of such corporation upon which the franchise tax herein provided is based shall be that proportion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, as the gross receipts from the Texas business of such corporation done within this State bears to the total gross receipts of such corporation from its entire business and the capital stock assignable to the Texas business and upon which the fees herein-after provided shall be calculated and based being thus ascertained, the franchise tax which is hereby provided shall be computed as follows: one dollar on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof up to and including one hundred thousand dollars; fifty cents on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred thousand dollars up to and including one million dollars and twenty-five cents on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one million dollars; provided that the minimum franchise tax to be paid by any foreign corporation shall be twenty-five dollars; provided, however, that where such corporation has a surplus or undivided profits the same shall be added to the entire capital stock of such corporation and shall be taken and computed as a part thereof in determining the amount of such entire capital stock. Where a foreign corporation applying for a permit has theretofore done no business in Texas, the franchise tax herein provided shall not be payable until the end of one year from the date of such permit at which time the franchise tax shall be computed upon that proportion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation ascertained as above required as the gross receipts from its Texas business bears to the gross receipts of the corporation from its entire business done for the same period; and the second payment of such franchise tax shall be made for the period intervening between the date of such first payment and the first day of May following, the proportion of authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, upon which the same shall be computed to be the same proportion that the gross receipts from the Texas business for such period bears to the gross receipts of the corporation from its entire business for the same period, and that thereafter such franchise tax shall be payable annually on the first day of May for the year succeeding computed upon that portion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation which the gross receipts for the Texas business of such corporation bears to its entire gross receipts for the calendar year preceding as hereinabove provided. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503; Acts 1917, p. 168; Acts 1919, p. 75.]

Art. 7086. [7395] Only part of tax to be paid.—Whenever a private domestic corporation is chartered in this State, and whenever a foreign corporation is authorized to do business in this State, such corporation shall be required to pay in advance to the Secretary of State, as its franchise tax from that time down to and including the thirtieth day of April next following, only such proportionate part of its annual franchise tax, as hereinabove prescribed, as the period of time between the date of filing of its articles of incorporation or the issuance of its permit to do business, as the case may be, and on the first day of May following, bears to a calendar year. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7087. [7396] Affidavits required.—To determine the amount of the first franchise tax payment required by this chapter of any domestic corporation which may be hereafter chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter apply for a permit to do business within this State, and also to determine the correctness of any report which is provided for in this chapter, the Secretary of State may, whenever he deems it necessary or proper to protect the interests of the State, require any one or more of the officers of such corporations to make and file in the office of the Secretary of State an affidavit setting forth fully the facts concerning the amount of the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such domestic or foreign corporation; and until the Secretary of State shall be fully satisfied as to the amount of such surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, he shall not file the articles of incorporation of such proposed domestic corporation, or issue such permit, or accept such franchise tax. [Id.]

Art. 7088. [7397] Reports filed.—For the purpose of ascertaining and determining the amount of any annual franchise tax prescribed by this chapter, excepting only the first tax to be paid by any domestic corporation which may hereafter be chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter be authorized to do business in this State, the president, vice-president, general manager, secretary, treasurer and superintendent of each domestic or foreign corporation embraced within the provisions of this chapter, shall annually and between the first and tenth days of March, and also whenever called upon by the Secretary of State to do so, report to the Secretary of State, in writing, and under oath as required by the preceding article, the total amounts of the capital stock issued and outstanding, and the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such corporation on the first day of March next preceding; and the Secretary of State may ascertain such facts from other sources; and, if true aggregate of such amounts shall exceed the authorized capital stock of such corporation as disclosed by its then current original or amended articles of incorporation, the amount of its annual franchise tax for the year beginning the first day of May next thereafter shall be thereon collected and paid; otherwise, its annual franchise tax shall be calculated and paid upon the amount of its authorized capital stock as shown by its aforesaid original or amended articles of incorporation. The making and filing by any one of such officers of such corporation of the record required by this article shall relieve the other officers of such corporation from the duty of making any report required by this article, except such report or reports as the Secretary of State may require. [Id.]

Art. 7089. Report of corporation.—Except as herein provided, all corporations that are now required by law to pay an annual franchise tax, shall, between January 1st, and March 15th, of each year, be required to make a sworn report to the Secretary of State, on blanks furnished by him, showing the condition of such corporation on the 31st day of December preceding. The Secretary of State may, for good cause shown by any corporation, extend such time to any date up to the first day of May. Said report shall be signed officially and shall give the authorized capital stock of the corporation, the capital stock actually paid in, its surplus and undivided profits, if any, the name and address of each officer and director of the corporation, the amount of mortgages, bonded or other indebtedness of such corporation, and the amount of the last annual, semi-annual or quarterly dividend provided, that domestic corporations having a permit or permits to do business outside the State, shall include in such report the gross receipts of such corporation from all sources and the gross receipts of the corporation from its business done in Texas, for the calendar year preceding [preceding]; provided, that foreign corporations shall include in such report, the total gross receipts of the corporation from all sources and the gross receipts of the corporation in Texas for the calendar year preceding. Where a foreign corporation has not theretofore done business in this State and is granted a permit to do business in Texas, it shall file its first report to the Secretary of State at the end of one year from the date of such permit. Any corporation which shall fail or refuse to make said report shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of franchise tax due by such corporation payable to the Secretary of State, together with its franchise tax. Said reports shall be deemed to be privileged and not for the inspection of the general public but one interested in the subject matter of any report may secure a copy of same upon valid request in writing made to the Secretary of State. The following officers of each corporation shall be deemed competent to make said report; the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer or general manager. [Acts 1913, p. 327; Acts 1919, p. 82; Acts 1921, p. 173.]

Art. 7090. [7398] Supplemental tax.—In the event of increase in the authorized capital stock of any domestic or foreign corporation, it shall also pay in advance a supplemental franchise tax thereon for the remainder of the year down to and including the thirtieth day of April next thereafter, the amount of which shall be determined as is provided in the third article of this chapter in case of the first franchise tax payment to be made by a domestic corporation which may be hereafter authorized to do business within this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7091. [7399] Failure to pay tax.—Any corporation, either domestic or foreign, which shall fail to pay any franchise tax provided for in this chapter when the same shall become due and payable under the provisions of this chapter, shall thereupon become liable to a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount of such franchise tax due by such corporation. If the amount of such tax and penalty be not paid in full on or before the first day of July thereafter, such corporation shall for such default forfeit its right to do business in this State; which forfeiture shall be consummated [consummated] without judicial ascertainment by the Secretary of State entering upon the margin of the record kept in his office relating to such corporation, the words, "right to do business forfeited," and the date of such forfeiture. Any corporation whose right to do business shall be thus forfeited shall be denied the right to sue or defend in any court of this State, except in a suit to forfeit the charter of such corporation. In any suit against such corporation on a cause of action arising before such forfeiture, no affirmative relief shall be granted to such corporation, unless its right to do business in this State shall be revived as provided in this chapter. Each director and officer of any corporation whose right to do business within this State shall be so forfeited shall, as to any and all debts of such corporation which may be created or incurred, with his knowledge, approval and consent, within this State, after such forfeiture by any such directors or officers, and before the revival of the right of such corporation to do business, be deemed and held liable thereon in the same manner and to the same extent as if such directors and officers of such corporation were partners. [Id.]

Art. 7092. [7400] Notice of forfeiture.—The Secretary of State, shall during the month of May of each year, notify each domestic and foreign corporation which may be or become subject to a franchise tax under any law of this State, which has failed to pay such franchise tax on or before the first day of May, that unless such overdue tax together with said penalty thereon shall be paid on or before the first day of July next following, the right of such corporation to do business in this State will be forfeited without judicial ascertainment. Such notice may be either written or printed and shall be verified by the seal of the office of the Secretary of State, and shall be addressed to such corporation and mailed to the post office named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to any other known place of business of such corporation. A record of the date of mailing such notice shall be kept by the Secretary of State. Such notice and record thereof shall constitute legal and sufficient notice thereof for all the purposes of this chapter. Any corporation whose right to do business may have been forfeited, as provided in this chapter, shall be relieved from such forfeiture by paying to the Secretary of State any time within six months after such forfeiture the full amount of the franchise tax and penalty due by it, together with an additional amount of five per cent of such tax for each month, or fractional part of a month, which shall elapse after such forfeiture; provided, that such amount shall in no case be less than five dollars. When such tax and all penalties shall be fully paid to the Secretary of State, he shall revive the right of the corporation to do business within this State by cancelling the words, "right to do business forfeited," upon his record and endorsing thereon the word, "revived," and the date of such revival. If any domestic corporation whose right to do business within this State shall hereafter be forfeited under the provisions of this chapter shall fail to pay the Secretary of State, on or before the first day of January next following the revival, the amounts necessary to entitle it to have its right to do business revived under the provisions of this chapter, such failure shall constitute sufficient ground for the forfeiture, by judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, of the charter of such domestic corporation. [Id.]

Art. 7093. [7401] Foreign corporations may withdraw.—Should any foreign corporation which has or may obtain a permit to do business within this State desire at any time to withdraw from doing business in this State, it may surrender such permit to the Secretary of State, who shall mark or stamp such permit "surrendered," dating and signing same officially, and shall endorse upon the record of such permit in his office the word, "surrendered," and the date thereof; and thereafter such corporation may, by complying with the provisions of this chapter, secure a new permit to do business in this State without having made any further payment of the franchise tax under such old permit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7094. [7403] Corporations exempt.—The franchise tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to any insurance company, surety, guaranty or fidelity company, or any transportation company, or any sleeping, palace car and dining car company which is now required to pay an annual tax measured by their gross receipts, or to corporations having no capital stock and organized for the exclusive purpose of promoting the public interest of any city or town, or to corporations organized for the purpose of religious worship, or for providing places of burial not for private profit, or corporations organized for the purpose of holding agricultural fairs and encouraging agricultural pursuits, or for strictly educational purposes, or for purely public charity. [Id.]

Art. 7095. [7404] Attorney General to bring suit.—The Attorney General shall bring suit therefor against any such corporation which may be or become subject to or liable for any franchise tax or penalty under this law; and, in case there may now be or shall hereafter exist valid grounds for the forfeiture of the charter of any domestic private corporation, or failure to pay any franchise tax or franchise taxes or penalty or penalties to which it may have become or shall hereafter be or become subject or liable under this or former law, he shall bring suit for a forfeiture of such charter; and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter by civil suits, venue is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis county, concurrently with the courts of the county in which the principal office of such corporation may be located as shown by its articles or amended articles of incorporation. Such courts shall also have authority to restrain and enjoin a violation of any provision of this chapter. In any case in which any court having jurisdiction thereof shall make and enter judgment forfeiting the charter of any such corporation, the court may appoint a receiver thereof and may administer such receivership under the laws regulating receiverships. [Id.]

Art. 7096. [7405] Forfeiture of charter.—Upon the rendition by the district court of any judgment of forfeiture under the provisions of this chapter, the clerk of that court shall forthwith mail to the Secretary of State a certified copy of such judgment; and, upon receipt thereof, he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the words, "Judgment of forfeiture," and the date of such judgment. In the event of an appeal from such judgment by writ of error or otherwise, the clerk of the court from which such appeal is taken shall forthwith certify to the Secretary of State the fact that such appeal has been perfected, and he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the word, "appealed," and the date upon which such appeal was perfected. When final disposition of such appeal shall be made, the clerk of the court making such disposition thereof shall forthwith certify such disposition and the date thereof to the Secretary of State, who shall briefly note same upon the record of such charter in his office and the date of such final disposition.

Art. 7097. [7606] Corporations in process of liquidations.—If a corporation is actually in process of liquidation, such corporation shall only be required to pay a franchise tax calculated upon the difference between the amount of stock actually issued and the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid upon such stock; provided, that the president and secretary of such corporation shall make affidavit as to the total amount of capital stock issued and as to the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid and that such corporation is in an actual bona fide state of liquidation. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR INTANGIBLE TAX BOARD

Art.

Article 7098. [7407] State Tax Board.—The State tax board shall be composed of the Comptroller, the Secretary of State, and a third member to be known as Tax Commissioner of the State of Texas. Except as herein otherwise provided, such tax commissioner shall be appointed by the Governor in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section twelve of article four of the Constitution and shall hold his office for two years. A record of the proceedings of said board shall be kept at the State Capitol, and shall be open to the inspection of the public. [Acts 1905, p. 35; Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 469.]

Art. 7099. [7408] Bond of Commissioner.—Before he enters upon his official duties, the tax commissioner shall execute a bond payable to the State of Texas at Austin, in Travis County, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties as such tax commissioner, and shall take and subscribe the official oath. [Id.]

Art. 7100. [7409] Secretary.—Said board may employ for not more than four months in each year a secretary, who shall be an expert stenographer, and who shall receive one hundred dollars a month for his services as secretary and stenographer. [Id.]

Art. 7101. [7410] Duties of Board.—It shall be the duty of said tax board:

1. To make such rules and regulations as said board shall deem proper with respect to its own meetings and procedure, and to effectually carry out the purposes for which said board is constituted.
2. To examine all books, papers and accounts and to interrogate under oath, or otherwise, any and all persons whom said board, or any member thereof, may desire to examine for the purpose of obtaining or acquiring any information that may in any way aid in securing a compliance with any tax law or revenue law of this State by any and all persons, companies, corporations or associations liable to taxation or to pay any license fee under any law of this State, which is now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted.

3. To make diligent investigation and inquiry concerning the revenue laws and systems of other states and countries, so far as the same are made known by published reports, or statistics, or can be ascertained by correspondence with officers thereof; and, with the aid of information thus or otherwise obtained together with [with] experience and observation of the operation of the laws of this State, to recommend to the legislature at each regular session thereof, such amendments, changes or modifications of the laws of this State, and such additional laws as may to said board, or any member thereof, seem necessary or proper to remedy injustice or irregularity in taxation, and to facilitate the assessment of taxes and collection of public revenues.

4. To report to the legislature, at each regular session thereof, the whole amount of State revenues collected in this State for all purposes, and the sources thereof, the amount of such revenues which may be lost to the State through failure to make collection and the cause of such losses, a summary of the proceedings of said board since the date of its last report, and such other matters concerning the public revenues as said board, or any member thereof may deem to be of public interest. [Id.]

Art. 7102. [7411] Visits.—Said Tax Board, or any member thereof, or the Comptroller under the direction of said board, or of the Governor, shall, at least once in each year, visit such counties of the State as said board or the Governor may direct, for the purpose of investigating into and aiding in the enforcement of all revenue laws of this State, and especially those concerning the rendition, assessment and collection of taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7103. [7412] Powers of board.—Each member of said board shall have power to administer oaths and to subpoena and examine witnesses, and to issue subpoenas duces tecum, and shall have access to and power to order the production before such board, or any member thereof, of any and all books, documents and papers which may be in the possession or under the control of any person, company, corporation or receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or bailee, whenever such board, or any member thereof, may consider same necessary or proper in the prosecution of any inquiry under or in the execution of any provision of this chapter and all such process shall be served under the provisions of law governing the service of process in civil cases, in so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 7104. [7413] Failure to obey subpoena.—Any person who shall disobey any such subpoena, or subpoena duces tecum, issued by any member of said board, or any such order of said board, or who shall fail or refuse to attend as by such subpoena directed, or to testify when so required to do so by any member of said board, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and may be punished therefor by said board under the provisions of laws applicable to the district courts in such cases. [Id.]

Art. 7105. [7414] Tax on intangible assets.—Each incorporated railroad company, ferry company, bridge company, turn-pike or toll company, doing business wholly or in part within this State, whether incorporated under the laws of this State, or of any other state, territory, or foreign country, and every other individual, company, corporation or association doing business of the same character in this State, in addition to the ad valorem taxes on intangible properties which are or may be imposed upon them, respectively, by law, shall pay an annual tax to the State, beginning with the first day of January of each year, on their intangible assets and property, and local taxes thereon to the counties in which its business is carried on; which additional tax shall be assessed and levied upon such intangible assets and property in the manner provided in this chapter.

The county or counties in which such taxes are to be paid, and the manner of apportionment of the same, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7106. [7415] Statement required.—Between the second day of January and the first day of March of each year, every individual, company, corporation and association embraced within the provisions of the next preceding article of this chapter, or coming within its scope and intent, shall make out and deliver into the possession of said tax commissioner a statement containing the information required of it by this chapter, which statement shall be duly verified by the affidavit of the individual, or one of the officers of the company, corporation or association in whose behalf it is made, or by the receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7107. [7416] Contents of statement.—Each such statement shall show the following items and particulars as the same stood on the first day of January next preceding, to-wit:

1. The name of the individual, company, corporation, or association making such statement, and the character of its business.

2. If incorporated, the authority by which it was incorporated and the purposes of its incorporation as expressed in its original or amended articles of incorporation or articles of association.

3. The locality of its principal office and the amount and kind of business done by it in this State and the total gross receipts derived from its business within this State, including a due proportion of its interstate business, if it has done any business of that character.

4. Its total authorized capital stock and the number of shares thereof, which have been issued and are outstanding, and the par face value of each such share, and the amount of the capital actually employed in the aforesaid business within the State.

5. The market value of said shares of stock, or, if they have no market value, the actual value thereof.

6. The assessed value and also the true value of all the tangible property owned by such individual, company, corporation or association in each county in this State and the total assessed value and also the true value thereof.

7. The assessed value and also the true value of the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association, outside of this State, and not specifically used in the business of such individual, company, corporation or association, same to be given by states, and the total assessed value and also the true value of the same.

8. A statement of each and every existing lien, mortgage or other charge upon the whole, or any part, of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association, and of the property thereby charged or encumbered, and of the amount of unpaid debt secured by each such mortgage, lien or charge and of the interest charged thereon, and to what extent such interest has been paid, and of the true and fair market value of every such debt.

9. A statement of the gross receipts and net income and earnings for the next preceding twelve months, including therein all interest on investments, and all rents, fruits, revenues and receipts from every source whatsoever, and a statement of the income used for repairs, and of the amounts used for betterments, and the amount used for extensions within that period of time.

10. Every such railroad company shall also show in each statement made by it:

11. The total length of all lines of said company, whether within or without this State.

12. The total length of such lines as are within the State.

13. The length of its lines in each of the counties in this State into which its lines extend. [Id.]

Art. 7108. [7417] Additional statements.—The tax commissioner shall receive all tax statements rendered to him under the provisions of this chapter, and shall indorse upon each the date of receipt thereof, signing such indorsement officially. Said board shall examine all such statements as soon as may be practicable; and, if said board shall deem any of them insufficient, or shall believe other or further information necessary or proper, said board shall at once demand of such individual, company or corporation, or association, such additional statements and such further information as it may think proper. [Id.]

Art. 7109. [7418] Statements placed before board.—On the first Monday after the first day of March of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, said tax commissioner shall place before said board all such statements, facts and information as may have come into its possession or knowledge under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7110. [7419] Passing upon statement.—Said board shall thereupon carefully examine and consider the said statements, facts and information; and, if they deem it advisable to do so, shall hear evidence, and shall require such individual, company, corporation or association to make such additional reports, if any, as such board may deem proper, and shall otherwise secure further additional information so far as may be in its power, to show the true value of the properties aforesaid, and the true value of that portion of every such property which is situated within the State and within the respective counties thereof, sufficient to enable said board to make the preliminary estimate herein provided for; and, for that purpose as well as for the purpose of carrying into effect any provision of this chapter, said board, and each member thereof, may require and compel, any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, and the officers and agents thereof, and such receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, assignees and bailees, to appear before such board at a time or times to be designated by said board, with any and all such books, papers, documents and information as said board may require, and to submit themselves to examination by said board. Upon consideration of such statements and information and such additional evidence, books, papers, documents and information, if any, said board shall make in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, a preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment of the true value of the intangible property within this State, of each of said individuals, companies, corporations, or associations, and shall, on or before the thirty-first day of May of each year, by registered mail, notify each and every such individual, company, corporation or association, receiver or assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding such property for the benefit of creditors, of such preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment, and the amounts thereof; and all such individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons shall have fifteen days from the time of mailing such notice by registered mail to appear before such board, at Austin, on a date to be fixed by such notice, and request of such board a change or changes in such valuation and apportionment, or cancellation of such valuation and apportionment; and said individuals, companies, corporations, association[s], receivers, assignees, trustees, and other persons may appear before such board, in person or by attorney, or in person and by attorney, and introduce evidence. Said board may, upon its own motion, or upon the written request of any interested party, and each member of said board, may summon, swear and examine witnesses under the same rules which govern the summoning, swearing and examination of witnesses in the district courts of this State; and, such board shall have the same jurisdiction, authority and power, under the same penalties, to require the production and to secure the examination of any and all books, documents and papers of such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons as is now or may hereafter be conferred by the laws of this State upon the Railroad Commission of Texas. Upon or after such hearing, said board may change such valuation and apportionment, or either, or cancel such valuation and apportionment, as said board may deem just and proper in the premises. [Id.]

Art. 7111. [7420] Other duties regarding statement.—In so far as the other evidence and information adduced before said board does not make it appear to the members of said board to be improper or unjust to do so, said board shall, in fixing the true value of the entire property of such individual, company, corporation or association embraced within the provisions of this chapter, take as a basis therefor the aggregate market or true value of all its shares of stock, adding thereto the aggregate market or true value of all indebtedness secured by any mortgage, lien or other charge upon its property or assets, and the sum so produced shall be deemed and treated as the true value of said entire property. And where the individual, company, corporation or association does business and has property, both within this State and outside of it, in ascertaining the true value of its property within this State, said board shall next ascertain from said statements, reports and evidence, if any, or otherwise, the true value, in the locality where the same is situated, of each such several pieces of real estate situated outside of this State, and of its other properties, if any, outside thereof, and not specifically used in the business of said individual, company, corporation or association, and the aggregate of said value shall be deducted from the gross value of the property as above ascertained; and the result of the said deduction and the sum or value thereby obtained shall be deemed and treated as the true value of all property of such individual, company, corporation or association in actual use in its business. Said board shall then fix the true value of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, using as a basis and being guided so far as it shall not believe it unjust to do so, by the proportion which it finds to exist between the total lines or total receipts within this State and outside of it, and lines controlled or operated, or the receipts obtained, entirely within this State, so that there shall be apportioned to this State, as the true value of the property within its borders of each individual, company, corporation and association doing business within and outside of its limits, such proportion of the true value of all the property of such individual, company, corporation or association which is specifically used in its business, as is borne by its total lines or total receipts within this State when compared with the total lines or total receipts both inside and outside of the State of Texas. From the entire value of the property within this State, when ascertained as directed by this chapter, said board shall deduct the true value of all the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, as so ascertained by said board, and the residue and remainder of value shall be by said board fixed, determined and declared as the true value of the intangible properties owned and held by such individual, company, corporation or association within this State. Said board shall apportion the sum of the said total taxable values within this State to the counties in which such individual, company, corporation or association does business, in proportion to the amount of business done in and the receipts derived from each such company, except that, in case of a railroad company, the apportionment to each county shall be in proportion to the line or lines of such individual, company, corporation or association therein. In apportioning the value of the aforesaid properties, said board shall consider all evidence which may be put before it and all material facts at its command; and, if it shall believe that some method of calculation other than that specifically prescribed in this chapter is necessary in order to produce just and lawful results, said board shall follow that method of calculation which it believes best calculated, under all circumstances, to bring about a just, fair, equitable and lawful valuation and apportionment of such property. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 7112. [7421] Capital, how ascertained.—Whenever any person, or association of persons, not being a corporation, nor having a capital stock, shall engage in this State in any character of business embraced within the provisions of the eighth article of this chapter, then the capital and property, or the certificate or other evidences of the rights or interests of such person or association of persons engaged in such business, shall be deemed and treated as the capital stock of such person, or association of persons, for the purpose of taxation, and for all other purposes, under this chapter, and shall be estimated and valued; and the intangible property of such person or association of persons, when ascertained, shall be apportioned, distributed, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this chapter, in like manner as if such person or association of persons were a corporation; and each such person and association of persons, shall, annually, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter, make the statements and reports and furnish and supply the information required by this law of the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations, and shall be subject in like manner as the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations to all the terms and provisions of this chapter, including penalties. [Id.]

Art. 7113. [7422] Board to certify to assessor.—Thereafter, and not later than the twentieth day of June of each year, said board shall make, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, a final valuation and apportionment of the intangible assets aforesaid, of each and every such individual, company, corporation and association, and shall, as soon after such twentieth day of June as practicable, certify to the tax assessor of each county to which any portion of such intangible assets of any such individual, company, corporation or association is found by said board to be apportionable for taxation and so apportioned, the amount thereof as fixed, determined and declared by said board, and thereunto apportioned by said board, together with the name and place of residence or place of business of the owner or owners of the property embraced in such valuation and apportionment; provided, that such final valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets, properly apportionable and apportioned by such board to any unorganized county shall be by said board so certified to the tax assessor of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. The tax assessor of such county, upon receiving such certificate or certificates of said board, shall place, set down and list, upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller for such purpose, upon the tax rolls of his county, and of each unorganized county which is attached to his county for judicial purposes, as the case may be, any and all such intangible assets, at the value so fixed, determined, declared and certified by said board. Such county tax assessor shall extend and prorate upon said rolls the State and county taxes upon all such intangible assets in the same manner as taxes upon other property are extended and prorated. Said assessment, valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets so fixed, determined, declared and certified by such board shall not be subject to review, modification or change by the tax assessor of such county, nor by the board of equalization of such county; and the State and county taxes thereon shall be collected by the tax collector of such county and accounted for by him in the same manner and under the same penalties as taxes upon other property. All State and county ad valorem taxes upon all intangible property in this State belonging to any individual, company, corporation or association embraced by this chapter, shall be assessed under its provisions and not otherwise; but ad valorem taxes upon all other property of any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations shall be assessed as is or as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7114. [7424] Failure to make statement.—Any individual, company, corporation or association, embraced within the provisions of this chapter, which shall fail to make any return, statement and report provided for by this chapter, within fifteen days after the day on which it is required by this chapter to be made, or to make any additional report or statement, or to furnish any additional information which may be required by said board, or any member thereof, under the provisions of this chapter, within fifteen days after the mailing of a registered notice or demand therefor in writing, signed by any member of said board and addressed to such individual, company or corporation or association, at its proper post-office address or principal place of business, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas not more than five thousand dollars, which amount may be recovered by suit which may be brought therefor in behalf of the State by the Attorney General; and venue of such suits is hereby fixed within the county of Travis. [Id.]

Art. 7115. [7425] Receivers and trustees in bankruptcy to report.—If the property of any such individual, company, corporation or association shall be in the hands of any receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding under any court, or for the benefit of any creditor or creditors, then the statements, reports, information, books, and papers aforesaid shall be furnished by such receiver, assignee, trustee or other person, by some officer or agent acting under him, in the same manner and to the same extent as is hereinbefore provided in cases where an individual, company or association is in possession; and as to such receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy or other person, officer, or agent, all of the provisions of this chapter, in so far as they are applicable, shall apply and govern. [Id.]

Art. 7116. [7426] Relieved of other taxes.—Whenever any individual, company, corporation or association, embraced within the eighth article of this chapter, shall pay in full, and within the year for which same may be assessed, all its State and county taxes for that year upon all its intangible properties as determined, fixed and assessed under the provisions of this chapter, such individual, company, corporation or association shall thereby be relieved from liability for and from payment of any and all occupation taxes measured by gross receipts for or accruing during that year under any law of this State; but no such individual, company, corporation or association shall be entitled to any such exemption, except for the year for which it shall, before same shall become delinquent, pay all its aforesaid intangible State and county taxes for that year. [Id.]

Art. 7118. Class A—Wife and children.—If passing to or for the use of husband or wife, or any direct lineal descendant or ascendant of the decedent, or to legally adopted child or children, or to the husband of a daughter or the wife of a son, the tax shall be one per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; two per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; three per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of two hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding one million dollars; and six per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7119. Class B—Domestic bequest.—If passing to or for the use of the United States, to be used in this State, the tax shall be one per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; two per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; three per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of two hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and six per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 87, ch. 62, § 1.]

Art. 7120. Class C—Brother or sister.—If passing to or for [for] the use of a brother or sister or a direct lineal descendant of a brother or sister, of the decedent, the tax shall be three per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; eight per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; nine per cent on any value in excess of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and ten per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7121. Class D—Uncle or aunt.—If passing to or for the use of an uncle or aunt, or a direct lineal descendant of an uncle or aunt of the decedent, the tax shall be four per cent on any value in excess of one thousand dollars and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; ten per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; twelve per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and fifteen per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7122. Class E—Foreign bequest.—If passing to or for the use of any other person within or without this State or to any religious, educational or charitable organization or institution located without the State of Texas, or to any religious, educational or charitable organization or institution located in the State of Texas or to the United States, and the bequest, devise or gift is to be used without this State, or to any other corporation or association not included in any of the classes mentioned in the preceding portions of the original act known as Chapter 29 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the 38th Legislature, the tax shall be five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars, and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; eight per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, ten per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, twelve per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; fifteen per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and twenty per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 87, ch. 62, § 2.]

Section 3 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 87, ch. 62, repeals all conflicting laws or parts of laws.

Art. 7123. Divided estate.—If the property passing as aforesaid shall be divided into two or more estates, as an estate for years or for life and a remainder, the tax shall be levied on each estate or interest separately, according to the value of the same at the death of the decedent. The value of estates for years, estates for life, remainders and annuities, shall be determined by the "Actuaries Combined Experience Tables," at four per cent compound interest. [Id.]

Art. 7124. Bequest to trustee.—If a testator bequeaths or devises to his executor or trustee property in lieu of commission, the value of such property in excess of reasonable compensation, as determined by the county judge and the Comptroller, shall be subject to taxation under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7125. Deductions.—The only deductions permissible under this law are the debts due by the estate, funeral expenses, expenses incident to last illness of deceased, and all Federal, State and county and municipal taxes due at the time of the death of decedent. A full statement of the facts authorizing deductions must be made in duplicate under oath by the executor, administrator or trustee, and one copy filed with the county clerk, and the other with the Comptroller, before any deductions will be allowed. [Id.]

Art. 7126. Preliminary report.—Every executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, and every other person coming into possession of any portion of such estate where there is no administration of such estate, shall file a preliminary report within one month after coming into possession of any such property, giving the date of the death of such decedent, the approximate value and character of his estate and the persons entitled to receive same. Such report shall be in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the Comptroller, and the other with the county clerk of the county wherein such decedent resided at the time of his death or wherein the principal part of his estate is located. The county clerk

shall immediately notify the county judge of the filing of such report. [Id.]

Art. 7127. Inventory.—Within six months after the executor, administrator or trustee or other person comes into full possession of such estate, he shall make report in duplicate and shall file the same in the manner provided in the preceding article. Said report must be made under oath and recorded as a permanent record in the Probate Court of the county wherein filed, and must give the following information:

(1) A list of all real estate located in Texas, including improvements thereon, and the true and full value of such real estate and all improvements thereon at the date of the death of decedent;

(2) A complete list of all live stock showing the location, kind and value thereof;

(3) All moneys on hand or in the bank, regardless of location, whether in this State or outside of Texas[;]

(4) All notes, bonds, certificates, mortgages, stocks and other securities or evidences of indebtedness due the estate, showing the name and residence of those owing the estate, and the kind of bonds owned, the kind of notes, mortgages and stocks and other securities, and the name of the corporation, association or company in which stock or any interest is owned;

(5) The name and address of all persons entitled to such property and the value of such property to each beneficiary. [Id.]

Art. 7128. If administration unnecessary.—If for any reason the administration of the estate of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, shall not be necessary in this State except to carry out the provisions of this law, it shall be in the discretion of the county judge and Comptroller to dispense with the appointment of an administrator, upon filing with each of them a satisfactory inventory of the taxable property by the trustee or owner. Upon the filing of such inventory, the appraisal and other proceedings required by this chapter shall be had as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7129. Securities of non-resident.—In case of the death of a non-resident of Texas, owning no property in this State except stocks or bonds in a domestic corporation or association, and such fact is shown to the satisfaction of the Comptroller, such officer shall value said property. The administrator, executor or trustee may pay said tax when notified of the amount by the Comptroller, direct to such officer at Austin. The Comptroller shall then issue and deliver proper receipt therefor to the State Treasurer who shall keep a record of such payment and forward receipts to the trustee. [Id.]

Art. 7130. Appraisal.—The judge of the county court having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent shall appoint two competent disinterested persons, to be approved by the Comptroller, as appraisers to fix the value of the property of such decedent subject to taxation hereunder; or upon agreement of the parties interested to dispense with the appointment of appraisers, the county judge and Comptroller shall appraise the property and make and file a report of such appraisal. The appraisers, being first sworn, shall forthwith give notice to all persons known to have any claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the executor, administrator or trustee, of the time and place when they will appraise the same. At such time and place, said appraisers shall appraise such property at its actual market value if it has a market value, and in case it has none, then its real value at the time of the death of the decedent, and shall thereupon make a report thereof in writing to said county judge and Comptroller, who shall file and keep such report. If the same decedent shall leave property taxable hereunder to more than one person, said appraisal and report shall be made for the property of each of such persons. Each appraiser shall be paid, on the certificate of the county judge, five dollars for each day employed in such appraisal, together with his actual necessary expenses incurred therein. [Id.]

Art. 7131. Fixing tax.—Immediately after the filing of the appraisal report, or as soon thereafter as practical, the county judge shall calculate and determine the tax due on such property, according to the value thereof as shown in such appraisal, and shall furnish a statement of the same to the Comptroller for verification. If the Comptroller finds the tax to be correct, he shall so advise the county judge, whereupon it shall immediately become the duty of the county judge to certify such amount to the collector of taxes, to the executor, administrator or trustee, and to the person to whom or for whose use, the property passes, and said tax shall be a lien upon such property from the death of the decedent until paid. [Id.]

Art. 7132. Payment of tax.—All taxes received under this law by any executor, administrator or trustee, shall be paid by him to the tax collector of the county whose county court has jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent. Upon such payment, the collector shall make duplicate receipts thereof and shall deliver one to the party making payment, the other he shall send to the Comptroller, who shall charge the collector with the amount thereof and shall countersign and affix his seal to such receipt and transmit same to the party making payment. [Id.]

Art. 7133. Lien.—A lien shall exist on all property subject to taxation under this law to secure the payment of all taxes, penalties and costs provided for in this chapter. All persons acquiring any portion of said property shall be charged with notice of the existence of all such unpaid taxes, penalties and costs, and of the lien securing their payment, which may be enforced in any suit brought for the collection of said taxes, penalties and costs. [Id.]

Art. 7134. Foreclosure.—If the amount of tax due hereunder, as shown by such assessment furnished by the county judge and Comptroller, is not paid within three months from the date of said assessment, same shall draw two percent interest per month until paid, beginning with the date of notice of such assessment, and shall be added to said tax and collected as a penalty. If said tax and penalty are not paid within nine months from the date of such assessment, the Comptroller shall so advise the county attorney, or if there is no county attorney then the district attorney, who must immediately file suit in the district court to foreclose the tax lien, as other tax liens are foreclosed. [Id.]

Art. 7135. Final accounts.—No final account of any executor, administrator or trustee shall be allowed by the county judge unless such account shows and said judge finds that all taxes imposed under this law on any property or interest passing through his hands as such have been paid. Neither shall the county judge close any estate, or permit the delivery of any property to the legatee or heir without first ascertaining whether or not a tax is due under this chapter, and if no tax is due such fact must be shown by an instrument in writing filed with the final papers closing said estate. [Id.]

Art. 7136. Delivery of securities.—No notes, bonds, certificates, mortgages, stocks, securities or other evidences of indebtedness due the estate of deceased persons and subject to taxation hereunder, shall be transferred or delivered to any legatee or heir until the Comptroller issues a notice to the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate, or to their bondsmen, stating that all the inheritance taxes due this State have been paid. Such notice shall be authority for any administrator, executor or trustee to deliver such property to the proper legatees or heirs. [Id.]

Art. 7137. Delivery before payment.—Should any domestic corporation or association transfer to any legatee or heir, or should an administrator, executor or trustee deliver to any legatee or heir, the stocks or bonds of any domestic corporation or association, or deliver any other property, before the inheritance tax thereon due this State is paid, the corporation or association, or the administrator, executor, trustee and their bondsmen, shall be liable for said tax and penalty and all cost of collection. [Id.]

Art. 7138. Offsets after distribution.—Whenever any debts shall be proved against the estate of the decedent after the distribution of the property on which the tax has been paid and a refund is made by the distributee, due proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee if still in his hands, or by the Comptroller upon warrant on the State Treasurer, if said tax has been paid. [Id.]

Art. 7139. False report.—If any person charged with the duty of filing a report hereunder shall knowingly make a false report, he shall be liable for a penalty of not exceeding one thousand dollars, which shall be collected by the county attorney, or district attorney where there is no county attorney, in the name of this State by suit in the county in which the administration is pending. Twenty per cent of such penalty shall be retained by the attorney prosecuting such suit as attorney's fees, and the remainder shall be distributed as the taxes collected under this law are distributed. [Id.]

Art. 7140. Duty of attorneys.—It shall be the duty of the county attorney, or district attorney where there is no county attorney, of each county in this State to carefully investigate and keep informed concerning the estates subject to the payment of taxes and to see that proper reports are filed as required in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7141. Attorney's fees.—For the services performed under the provisions of this chapter, the county attorney and the county judge shall each be allowed two per cent of the taxes collected not to exceed thirty dollars in any one estate. If suit be brought, the county or district attorney prosecuting same shall receive as compensation therefor five per cent on the amount of the taxes payable hereunder not to exceed in any one case the sum of one hundred dollars, which fee shall be added and collected from said estate in addition to the taxes and penalties herein provided for, and such compensation shall be in addition to all other fees and compensation provided by this law. The aggregate of fees received under this law shall not exceed in any one year two thousand dollars, and any fees earned in addition to said sum shall be considered a portion of the tax and penalties collected, and be distributed in the same manner. [Id.]

Art. 7142. Tax collector's fees.—The collector of taxes of each county shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the State Treasurer all taxes received by him under this law before the first day of the month, deducting therefrom all lawful disbursements made by him under this law, and also his compensation at the rate of one per cent of all taxes collected hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 7143. Disposition of tax.—All moneys received by the State Treasurer under this chapter shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. [Id.]

Art. 7144. Comptroller to furnish forms.—The Comptroller shall prescribe and furnish all forms necessary in making the reports and collecting the tax provided for by this law. [Id.]

Article 7145. [7503] [5061] All property taxed.—All property, real, personal or mixed, except such as may be hereinafter expressly exempted, is subject to taxation, and the same shall be rendered and listed as herein prescribed. [Acts 1876, p. 275; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1111.]

Art. 7146. [7504] [5062] "Real property."—Real property for the purpose of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether laid out in town lots or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, or other fixtures of whatsoever kind thereon, and all the rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and fossils in and under the same. [Id.]

Art. 7147. [7505] [5063] "Personal property."—Personal property, for the purposes of taxation, shall be construed to include all goods, chattels and effects, and all moneys, credits, bonds and other evidences of debt owned by citizens of this State, whether the same be in or out of the State; all ships, boats and vessels belonging to inhabitants of this State, if registered in this State, whether at home or abroad, and all capital invested therein; all moneys at interest, either within or without the State, due the person, to be taxed over and above what he pays interest for, and all other debts due such person over and above his indebtedness; all public stock and securities; all stock in turn-pikes, railroads, canals and other corporations (except national banks) out of the State, owned by inhabitants of this State; all personal estate of moneyed corporations, whether the owners thereof reside in or out of this State, and the income of any annuity, unless the capital of such annuity be taxed within this State; all shares in any bank organized or that may be organized under the laws of the United States; all improvements made by persons upon lands held by them, the title to which is still vested in the State of Texas, or in any railroad company, or which have been exempted from taxation for the benefit of any railroad company, or any other corporation whose property is not subject to the same mode and rule of taxation as other property. [Acts 1879, p. 39; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1339.]

Art. 7148. Assessment of merchandise.—Any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation, doing business in this State, and carrying and possessing any stock of goods of whatsoever nature, shall upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such stock of goods is located, furnish said tax assessor with a verified copy of the last inventory of said stock of goods, together with the inventory value thereof.

The affidavit to the inventory shall state that said inventory includes every article in the stock carried by such person, co-partnership, association, or corporation and that no part of such stock is owned, operated or controlled by any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation other than the person furnishing such inventory.

Any persons, co-partnerships, associations or corporations who have space leased in which merchandise or any character of business is or was operated on January 1st so making such inventory, shall further state, if such is the case, what persons, associations, co-partnerships or corporations own or control any part of the stock of goods offered for sale and their residence in conjunction with the stock of goods owned by the person, co-partnership, association, or corporation rendering such inventory and not contained in such inventory.

Any person or agent or representative of such co-partnership, association, or corporation who shall fail to furnish such inventory and information as set forth above upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such property is located, shall be subject to all the penalties now existing against any person for making a false rendition of property for the purpose of taxation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 172.]

Art. 7149. [7506] [5064] Definition of terms.—The term, "money," or "moneys," wherever used in this title shall, besides money or moneys, include every deposit which any person owning the same or holding in trust and residing in this State, is entitled to withdraw in money on demand.

"Credits."—The term, "credits," wherever used in this title, shall be held to mean and include every claim and demand for money or other valuable thing, and every annuity or sum of money receivable at stated periods, due or to become due, and all claims and demands secured by deed or mortgage, due or to become due.

"Tract or lot."—The term, "tract or lot," and "piece or parcel," of real property, and "piece and parcel" of land, wherever used in this title, shall each be held to mean any quantity of land in possession of, owned by or recorded as the property of the same claimant, person, company or corporation.

"Town or district."—The words, "town or district," wherever used shall be held to mean village, city, ward or precinct, as the case may be.

"Value."—The term, "true and full value," wherever used shall be held to mean the fair market value, in cash, at the place where the property to which the term is applied shall be at the time of assessment, being the price which could be obtained therefor at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale.

"Person."—The term, "person," shall be construed to include firm, company or corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 273; G. L. vol. 8, p. 111.]

Art. 7150. [7507] [5065] Exemption from taxation.—The following property shall be exempt from taxation, to-wit:

1. Schools and churches.—Public school houses and houses used exclusively for public worship, the books and furniture therein and the grounds attached to such buildings necessary for the proper occupancy, use and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit. All public colleges, public academies, all buildings connected with the same, and all the lands immediately connected with public institutions of learning, and all endowment funds of institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit, and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been or shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages; provided, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer; and all such buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes. This provision shall not extend to leasehold estate of real property held under authority of any college or university of learning. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

2. Christian Associations.—Young Mens' Christian Association Buildings, and Young Womens' Christian Association Buildings, used exclusively for the purpose of furthering religious work, and acting under the approval and co-operation of the State and International Young Mens' Christian Association committees and the Young Womens' Christian Association committees, the books and furniture contained in such buildings, and the grounds attached thereto necessary for the proper occupancy of such buildings, use and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit other than for the purpose of maintaining the buildings and Association, and all endowment funds of the above mentioned religious institutions not used with a view to profit, but for the purpose of maintaining the Association and buildings in doing religious work. [Acts 1913, p. 153.]

3. Cemeteries.—All lands used exclusively for graveyards or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company or corporation with a view to profit, or for the purpose of speculating in the sale thereof. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

4. Public property.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to this State, or any political subdivision thereof, or the United States, except that in each county in this State, where the State of Texas has or may acquire and own land for the purpose of establishing thereon State farms and employing thereon convict labor on State account, the penitentiary board or board of penitentiary commissioners, or other officers of the penitentiary having the management of the same, shall render said land for taxes to the tax assessor of said county; and the taxes on same shall be assessed and collected in the manner required by law for the assessment and collection of other taxes; provided, that said taxes shall be assessed and collected for county purposes only; and said county taxes shall be paid annually out of the revenue derived from such State farms respectively by the officer having the management thereof, and same shall be charged to the expense account of operating such farm. No debt shall be created against the general revenue of the State in case of the failure to pay said taxes out of the revenue of any such farm. In arriving at the amount to be paid in taxes to the counties the value of the land only shall be considered and not the value of the buildings and other improvements owned by the State and situated on said land. [Id. Acts 1910, S. S. p. 122.]

5. County buildings.—All buildings belonging to counties for holding courts, for jails, or for county officers, with the land belonging to and on which such buildings are erected. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

6. Poor-houses.—All lands, houses and other buildings belonging to any county, precinct or town, used exclusively for the support or accommodation of the poor. [Id.]

7. Public charities.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the lands belonging to and occupied by such institutions not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit, unless such rents and profits and all moneys and credits are appropriated by such institutions solely to sustain such institutions and for the benefit of the sick and disabled members and their families and the burial of the same, or for the maintenance of persons when unable to provide for themselves, whether such persons are members of such institutions or not. An institution of purely public charity under this article is one which dispenses its aid to its members and others in sickness or distress, or at death, without regard to poverty or riches of the recipient, also when the funds, property and assets of such institutions are placed and bound by its laws to relieve, aid and administer in any way to the relief of its members when in want, sickness and distress, and provide homes for its helpless and dependent members and to educate and maintain the orphans of its deceased members or other persons. [Id.]

8. Public libraries.—All public libraries and personal property belonging to the same. [Id.]

9. Market houses, etc.—All market houses, public squares, or other public grounds, town or precinct houses or halls used exclusively for public purposes, and all works, machinery or fixtures belonging to any town used for conveying water to such town. [Id.]

10. Fire engines.—All fire engines and other implements owned by towns and cities used for the extinguishment of fires, with the buildings used exclusively for the safekeeping thereof. [Id.]

11. Furniture.—All household and kitchen furniture not exceeding at their true and full value two hundred and fifty dollars to each family, in which may be included one sewing machine. [Id.]

12. Pensions.—All annual pensions granted by the State or the United States. [Id.]

13. Buffalo and catalo.—All buffalo and all catalo now in captivity in this State, by whomsoever owned, where such animals are kept and used for experimental purposes in crossing same with cattle for the purpose of producing a better strain of beef animals, or where such animals are kept in parks to preserve the species, and not for profit. [Acts 1917, p. 384.]

14. Art Galleries, etc.—All property belonging to Art Leagues and Societies of Fine Arts, whether incorporated or not, which are devoted wholly and without charge to the promotion of education and learning, including Art Galleries and exhibits therein contained, the land upon which the same are situated, which is devoted exclusively to such purposes, and also all land, money, pictures and other works of art and all other personal property which may be necessary and in actual use for the purpose of carrying out said educational feature. [Acts 1921, p. 97.]

15. Property of Boy Scouts.—Hereafter the property of the organization known as the Boy Scouts of America or any local organization affiliated with such organization, shall be exempt from taxation in this State. [Acts 1925, p. 255.] [39th Leg., ch. 85, § 1.]

Sec. 1-a. All of the lands, buildings, personal property and the endowment funds used exclusively by any persons or association of persons for the maintenance and operation of demonstration farms for the purpose of teaching and demonstrating modern and scientific methods of farming to farmers and others, without charge, and not operated or used with a view to profit, and when any of the income, over and above an amount sufficient to maintain and operate the same, is used and bound for the use of other institutions of public charity. [Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 19, ch. 12, § 1.]

1a. Provided that any territory that has been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, by the State of Texas as a part of any State prison farm or property, shall not hereafter be exempt from the payment of its pro rata part of any bond tax of a public school district of which the said territory was a part at the time outstanding bonds of the said district were issued; and the pro rata part of the said bond tax that shall be paid by said territory shall be the proportionate part that the assessed valuation of such territory was of the total assessed valuation of the school district for the year in which the territory was, or may be, acquired by the State. Provided, also, that the said bond tax shall be paid by the governing board of management of the State prison system out of any funds appropriated therefor by the Legislature. It is hereby specifically provided that the said bond tax shall be paid for each year that has elapsed since any such territory of a school district was acquired by the State for and as a part of the said prison system. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 224, ch. 81, § 1.]

Art. 7150a. County school land not exempt.—Any county in this State owning any land mentioned and referred to in Section 6a of Article VII of the Constitution of Texas adopted by the people as an amendment to the Constitution under S. J. R. No. 10 of the Regular Session of the 39th Legislature, is hereby authorized to pay taxes duly and lawfully levied on the same out of the County's revenue derived from such land. In the event any County has no such revenue, such taxes shall be paid out of the general fund of the County, and if any County has sufficient of such revenue to pay only a portion of such taxes the remainder shall be paid out of the general fund of the County. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 20, ch. 10, § 1.]

Art. 7151. [7508] [5066] When to be rendered.—All property shall be listed for taxation between January 1 and April 30 of each year, when required by the assessor, with reference to the quantity held or owned on the first day of January in the year for which the property is required to be listed or rendered. Any property purchased or acquired on the first day of January shall be listed by or for the person purchasing or acquiring it. If any property has, by reason of any special law, contract or fact, been exempt or has been claimed to be exempted from taxation for any period or limit of time, and such period of exemption shall expire between January 1, and December 31 of any year, said property shall be assessed and listed for taxes as other property; but the taxes assessed against said property shall be for only the pro rata of taxes for the portion of such year remaining. [Acts 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7152. [7509] [5067] How rendered.—All property shall be listed or rendered in the manner following:

1. By the owner.—Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this State, shall list all of his real estate, moneys, credits, bonds or stock of joint stock or other companies (when the property of such company is not assessed in this State), moneys loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other property.

2. As agent.—He shall also list all lands or other real estate, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation whatsoever, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or drafts and credits due from or owing by any person, body corporate or politic.

3. Minor.—The property of a minor child shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. Wife.—The property of a wife, by her husband, if of sound mind; if not, by herself.

5. Idiot.—The property of an idiot or lunatic, by the person having charge of such property.

6. Cestui que trust.—The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee of the estate; of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

7. Receivers.—The property of corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers.

8. Corporations.—The property of a body politic or corporate, by the president or proper agent or officer thereof.

9. Copartnership.—The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

10. Manufactories.—The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent, in the name of his principal, as real, personal and merchandise.

11. Nurseries.—The stock of nurseries, growing and otherwise, in the hands of nurserymen shall be listed and assessed as merchandise. [Id.]

Art. 7153. [7510] [5068] Where rendered.—All property, real and personal, except such as is required to be listed and assessed otherwise, shall be listed and assessed in the county where it is situated; and all personal property, subject to taxation and temporarily removed from the State or county, shall be listed and assessed in the county of the residence of the owner thereof, or in the county where the principal office of such owner is situated. [Acts 1897, p. 203; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1257.]

Art. 7154. [7511] [5069] Rendered in but one county.—Lands lying on county boundaries, which have not been accurately and legally surveyed, determined or fixed, shall not be assessed or taxed in more than one county. [Acts 1879, p. 153; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1453.]

Art. 7155. [7512] [5070] Livestock.—All persons, companies and corporations owning pastures in this State which lie on county boundaries shall be required to list for assessment, all livestock of every kind owned by them in said pastures in the several counties in which such pastures are situated, listing in each county such portion of said stock as the land in such county is of the whole pasture. All persons, companies and corporations owning any kind of livestock in pasture not their own shall list said livestock in the several counties in which such pastures are situated in the same manner; and in both cases the tax upon such livestock shall be paid to the tax collector of the several counties in which such livestock is listed and assessed. [Acts 1889, p. 29; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1057.]

Art. 7156. [7513] [5071] Taxes not to be paid twice.—Any lands which may have been assessed in any county according to the abstract of land titles, and the taxes paid thereon according to law, shall not be afterwards subject to the payment of taxes for the same period in a different county, although a subsequent survey and determination of the county boundaries may show said lands to be in a different county from that in which they were originally assessed; and any sales of such lands for alleged delinquency shall be illegal and void. [Acts 1879, p. 153; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1453.]

Art. 7157. [7514] [5072] Vessels.—All persons, companies and corporations in this State owning steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats and other water craft shall be required to list the same for assessment and taxation in the county in which the same may be enrolled, registered or licensed, or kept when not enrolled, registered or licensed. [Acts 1876, p. 277; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1113.]

Art. 7158. Deposits with State.—All securities of every kind and character, and all moneys, required or permitted by law to be deposited by any person, firm residing in this State, or corporation organized under the laws of Texas, with the State Treasurer, or other State officer or department, shall be taxed in the county in which the person owning same resides, or where such firm has its place of business, or at the domicile of such corporation, and at no other place. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 69.]

Art. 7159. [7515] [5073] Railroads, telegraphs, etc.—All railroad, telegraph, plank road and turnpike companies shall list all of their real and personal property, giving the number of miles of roadbed and line in the county where such roadbed and line is situated at the full and true value, except when such company may own personal property or real estate in an unorganized county or district, then they shall list such property to the Comptroller. [Acts 1876, p. 277; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1113.]

Art. 7160. [7516] [5074] Listing for others.—Persons required to list property on behalf of others shall list it in the same manner in which they are required to list their own, but they shall list it separately from their own, specifying in each case the name of the person, estate, company or corporation to whom it belongs. [Id.]

Art. 7161. [7517] [5075] Sworn list.—Each person required by law to list property shall make and sign a statement, verified by his oath, as required by law, of all property, both real and personal, in his possession, or under his control, and which he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof, or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor. [Id.]

Art. 7162. [7518] [5076] Requisites.—Such statement shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, and a description sufficient for the identification of any real estate belonging to such owner.
2. The number of acres.
3. The value of the land.
4. The number of the lot or lots.
5. The number of the block.
6. The value of town lots.
7. The name of the city or town.
8. The number of miles of railroad in the county.
9. The value of railroads and appurtenances.
10. Number of miles of telegraph in the county.

11. Value of telegraph and appurtenances in the county.

12. Number and amount of land certificates and value thereof.

13. Number of horses and mules and the value thereof.

14. Number of cattle and the value thereof.

15. Number of jacks and jennets and value thereof.

16. Number of sheep and value thereof.

17. Number of goats and value thereof.

18. Number of hogs and dogs and value thereof.

19. Number of carriages, buggies, wagons, automobiles, bicycles, motorcycles, or other vehicles of whatsoever kind and the value of each one thereof.

20. Number of sewing machines and knitting machines and value thereof.

21. Number of clocks and watches and value thereof.

22. Number of organs, melodeons, piano fortes, and all other musical instruments of whatsoever kind and value thereof.

23. The value of household and kitchen furniture over and above the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars.

24. Office furniture and the value thereof.

25. The value of gold and silver plate.

26. The value of diamonds and jewelry.

27. Every annuity or royalty, the description and value thereof.

28. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats, barges or other water craft, and the value thereof.

29. The value of goods, wares and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant (in hand on the first day of January of each year.)

30. Value of materials and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.

31. Value of manufacturers' tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.

32. Number of steam engines, including boilers, and the value thereof.

33. Amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

34. Amount of credits of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

35. Money on hand or on deposit, in or out of the State, with banks, trust companies, corporations, firms or individuals, and subject to order, check or draft, including certificates of deposit.

36. Amount of credits other than of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

37. Amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States Bonds.

38. Amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this State.

39. Value of all property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.

40. Value of stock and furniture of hotels and eating houses.

41. Value of every billiard, pigeon hole, bagatelle or other similar tables, together with the number thereof.

42. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.

43. Value of all other property not enumerated above. [Acts 1876, p. 278; Acts 1905, p. 357; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1114.]

Art. 7163. [7519] [5077] Certain credits and stocks not to be listed.—No person shall be required to list or render a greater portion of his credits than he believes will be received or can be collected, or to include in his statement as a part of his personal property which is required to be listed any share or portion of the capital stock or property of any company or corporation which is required to list or return its capital and property for taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7164. [7520] [5078] Rendition of real estate.—Persons listing or rendering real estate shall make a statement, duly signed and under oath, which shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, abstract number, number of survey, the number of the certificate, the name of the original grantee, the number of acres, and the true and full value thereof.

2. The number of the lot and block and the true and full value thereof, together with the name of the town or city.

3. When the name of the original grantee, or abstract number, or number of certificate, or number of survey is unknown, say "unknown," and give such description so that land or lot can be identified and the true and full value thereof can be determined. [Id.]

Art. 7165. [7521] [5079] Assessment of personal property of bank, etc.—Every bank, whether of issue or deposit, banker, broker, dealer in exchange, or stock jobber, shall at the time fixed by this chapter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the assessor of taxes a sworn statement showing:

1. If a national bank, the president or some other officer of such bank shall furnish to the assessor of the county in which such bank is located a list of the names of all the shareholders of the stock, together with the number and amount of the shares of each stockholder of stock in said bank; and the shareholders of the stock in national banks shall render to the tax assessor of the county in which said bank is located the number of their shares and the true and full value thereof. All shares of stocks in national banks not rendered to the assessor of taxes in the county where such bank is located within the time prescribed by law for listing property for taxes shall be assessed by the assessor against the owner or owners thereof as unrendered property is assessed; but the tax roll shall show the name of the owner or owners thereof as per statement furnished by the president or other officers of said bank.

2. National banks shall render all other bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stock or stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets, together with all other personal property belonging or pertaining to said bank, except such personal property as is specially exempted from taxation by the laws of the United States.

3. National banks shall be required to render all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered; and all the personal property of said national banks herein taxed shall be valued as other personal property is valued.

4. All other banks, bankers, brokers, or dealers in exchange, or stock jobbers shall render their list in the following manner:

(1) The amount of money on hand or in transit or in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others subject to draft, whether the same be in or out of the State.

(2) The amount of bills receivable, discounted or purchased and other credits due or to become due, including accounts receivable, interest accrued but not due, and interest due and unpaid.

(3) From the aggregate amount of the items named in the first and second of the last two subdivisions shall be deducted the amount of money on deposit.

(4) The amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets.

(5) All other property belonging or appertaining to said bank or business, including both personal property and real estate, shall be listed as other personal property and real estate. [Acts 1895, p. 37; G. L. vol. 10, p. 767.]

Art. 7166. [7522] [5080] Assessment of real estate by banks.—Every banking corporation, State or national, doing business in this State shall, in the city or town in which it is located, render its real estate to the tax assessor at the time and in the manner required of individuals. At the time of making such rendition the president or some other officer of said bank shall file with said assessor a sworn statement showing the number and amount of the shares of said bank, the name and residence of each shareholder, and the number and amount of shares owned by him. Every shareholder of said bank shall, in the city or town where said bank is located, render at their actual value to the tax assessor all shares owned by him in such bank; and in case of his failure so to do, the assessor shall assess such unrendered shares as other unrendered property. Each share in such bank shall be taxed only for the difference between its actual cash value and the proportionate amount per share at which its real estate is assessed. The taxes due upon the shares of banking corporations shall be a lien thereon, and no banking corporation shall pay any dividend to any shareholder who is in default in the payment of taxes due on his shares; nor shall any banking corporation permit the transfer upon its books of any share, the owner of which is in default in the payment of his taxes upon the same. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to tax national or State banks, or the shareholders thereof, at a greater rate than is assessed against other moneyed capital in the hands of individuals. [Acts 1885, p. 106; G. L. vol. 9, p. 726.]

Art. 7167. [7523] [5081] Deductions.—No person, company or corporation shall be entitled to any deduction on account of any bond, note or obligation of any kind given to any mutual insurance company, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any religious, literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on [on] account of any subscription to or installment payable on the capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated. [Acts 1876, p. 280; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1116.]

Art. 7168. [7524] [5082] Assessment by railroads.—Every railroad corporation in this State shall deliver a sworn statement, on or before the thirtieth day of April of each year, to the assessor of each county and incorporated city or town, into or through which any part of their road may run or in which they own or are in possession of real estate, a classified list of all real estate owned by or in possession of said company in said county, town or city, specifying:

1. The whole number of acres of land, lot or lots, exclusive of their right of way and depot grounds, owned, possessed or appropriated for their use, with a valuation affixed to the same.

2. The whole length of the railroad and the value thereof per mile, which valuation shall include right of way, roadbed, superstructure, depots and grounds upon which said depots are situated, and all shops and fixtures of every kind used in operating said road.

3. All personal property of whatsoever kind or character, except the rolling stock belonging to the company or in their possession in each respective county, listing and describing the said personal property in the same manner as is now required of citizens of this State. [Acts 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7169. [7525] [5083] Railroads to return sworn statements.—Every railroad corporation in this State shall deliver a sworn statement on or before the first day of April of each year, to the assessor of the county in which its principal office is situated, setting forth the true and full value of the rolling stock of said railroad, together with the names of all the counties through which it runs, and the number of miles of roadbed in each of said counties; and said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which its principal office is situated for review, on the first Monday in June in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable; and such board shall certify such final valuation when made without delay to the Comptroller, who shall proceed at once to apportion the amount of such valuation among the said counties in proportion to the distance such roads shall run through any such county, and shall certify such apportionment to the assessors of such counties, and the same shall constitute part of the tax assets of such counties; and the assessor of each of said counties shall list and enter the same upon the rolls for taxation as other personal property situated in said county. And said railroad corporation shall also report in a separate sworn statement all rolling stock operated by it, under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract, which it does not render for taxation, giving the true and full value of such rolling stock and the amount paid or promised to be paid for rental, hire, lease or use under other form of contract, together with the name of person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock, and together with the post-office address of such person or firm, or if it be a corporation or association, then the city, county and State of its principal office; and if from said statement it appears that said rolling stock belongs to any person residing in this State, or to any firm doing business in this State, or to any corporation or association organized under the laws of this State, then said statement shall be certified by the tax assessor to whom it is made to the tax assessor of the county in which such person lives, or such firm does business, or such corporation or association has its principal office; and said statement shall be, by the tax assessor to whom it is certified, submitted to the board of equalization of the county for review, and the same shall be equalized by the board of equalization of such county, and certified to the Comptroller, and apportioned by the Comptroller in the same manner as other rolling stock is certified and apportioned under the preceding provisions of this article; and, if it appears from said statement that the person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock is a non-resident of this State, then said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which the principal office of the railroad company using the same under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract is situated, which statement shall be reviewed by said board of equalization, and said property assessed against the owner, and certified to the Comptroller, and the valuation apportioned against said owner by the Comptroller, in the same manner as rolling stock belonging to the railroad corporation furnishing the list. [Acts 1885, p. 30; Acts 1907, p. 192; G. L. vol. 9, p. 650.]

Art. 7170. [7526] [5084] Corporate property.—All property of private corporations, except in cases where some other provision is made by law, shall be assessed in the name of the corporation; and in collecting the taxes on the same all the personal property of such corporation shall be liable to be seized whenever the same may be found in the county, and sold in the same manner as the property of individuals may be sold for taxes. All statements and lists made by corporations that are required to be sworn to shall be verified by the affidavit and signature of the secretary of said corporation, and, if they have no secretary, the officer who discharges the duties of secretary of said corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 280; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1116.]

Art. 7171. [7527] [5085] Assessments in owner's name.—All real property subject to taxation shall be assessed to the owners thereof in the manner herein provided; but no assessment of real property shall be considered illegal by reason of the same not being listed or assessed in the name of the owner or owners thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7172. [7528] [5086] Lien for taxes.—All taxes upon real property shall be a lien upon such property until the same shall have been paid. And should the assessor fail to assess any real estate for any one or more years, the lien shall be good for every year that he should fail to assess for; and he may, in listing property for taxes any year thereafter, assess all the back taxes due thereon, according to the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7173. [7529] [5087] Leasehold interests in public lands.—Property held under a lease for a term of three years or more, or held under a contract for the purchase thereof, belonging to this State, or that is exempt by law from taxation in the hands of the owner thereof, shall be considered for all the purposes of taxation, as the property of the person so holding the same, except as otherwise specially provided by law. Timber held by persons or corporations, heretofore or hereafter purchased from the State under the various laws for that purpose, shall likewise be subject to assessment for taxes, and the value thereof for taxation shall be ascertained as the value of other property is ascertained. And should the owner of such timber fail or refuse to pay the taxes assessed against it, the same shall be sold for the taxes thereon, as provided in this title for the sale of personal property for taxes, provided that the same can be found by the collector; but, if the timber can not be found, then the collector shall collect the taxes due as the taxes on other personal property are collected; provided; further, that the Land Commissioner shall furnish by the first of January each year to the various commissioners courts and the tax assessors of this State a full and complete list of all timber sold by the State belonging to the school funds, giving the number of acres, price and to whom sold, in the respective counties where the timber so sold is situated. In case of the sale of such timber for taxes as herein provided, the purchaser shall take and hold the same under the same terms and conditions as the original purchaser thereof from the State. [Acts 1905, p. 72.]

Art. 7174. [7530] [5088] Valuation of property for taxation.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing or un-gathered thereon.

In determining the true and full value of real and personal property the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such price as such property, including a mine, or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family, or any other person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money or property of any kind, shall be valued at the full value of the same so payable. If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money. [Id.]

Art. 7175. [7531] Currency and coin.—Circulating notes of national banking associations and United States legal tender notes and other notes and certificates of the United States, payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency, and gold, silver and other coin, shall be hereafter subject to taxation as money on hand or on deposit, under the laws of this State. [Acts 1895, p. 49; G. L. vol. 10, p. 49.]

Art. 7176. [7532] Assessed as money on hand.—The assessor of taxes shall assess the same in the same manner as money on hand or on deposit or other personal property, as provided for in the general assessment laws of this State. [Id.]

Article 7177. [7533] [5089] Election and term.—The qualified electors of each county at each general election shall elect an assessor of taxes for a term of two years. [Acts 1876, p. 265; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1101.]

Art. 7178. [7535] [5091] Oath and bond.—Every assessor of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, payable to the Governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to one-fourth the amount of the State tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all the duties of said office; and said bond and his official oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the Comptroller, to be deposited in his office. [Id.]

Art. 7179. [7537] [5093] New bond.—Assessors of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond and additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners court, it may be advisable. If any assessor of taxes fails to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners court of his county, and be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id.]

Art. 7180. [7538] [5094] Bond for county taxes.—The assessor of taxes shall give a like bond with like conditions to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than one-fourth of the amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed five thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and the assessor of taxes may be removed from office for a failure to furnish a new bond or additional security in the manner prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 7181. [7539] [5095] May appoint deputies.—Each assessor of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the assessment of taxes, and may require such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the assessor of taxes shall in all cases be liable and accountable for the proceedings and misconduct of his deputies. [Id.]

Art. 7182. [7540] [5096] Authority of deputies.—The deputies appointed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall do and perform all the duties imposed and required by law of assessors of taxes; and all acts of such deputies done in conformity with law shall be as binding and valid as if done by the assessor of taxes in person. [Id.]

Art. 7183. [7541-7567] May administer oaths.—Assessors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full, complete and correct assessment of all taxable property situated in their respective counties. [Id. Acts 1895, p. 103; G. L., vol. 10, p. 33.]

Art. 7184. [7542] [5098] The oath.—The assessor of taxes shall also require each person rendering a list of taxable property to him for taxation, under the assessment laws, to subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, which shall be written or printed at the bottom of each inventory, to-wit: "I, _____ (filling the blank with the name of the person subscribing) do solemnly swear or affirm that the above inventory rendered by me contains a full, true and complete list of all taxable property owned or held by me in my own name (or for others, as the case may be, naming the person or firm for whom he rendered the list) in this county, subject to taxation in this county and personal property not in this county subject to taxation in this county by the laws of this State, on the first day of January, A. D. 19— (filling the blank with the year), and that I have true answers made to all questions propounded to me touching the same. So help me God." [Id. Acts 1897, p. 204.]

Art. 7185. [7543] [5099] Where oath may be made.—The owner or agent who is required under the laws of this State to render any property for taxation may render the same in the county where the same is situated by listing the same and making oath thereto, as required in this title, before any officer authorized to administer oaths in this State, or any officer out of this State that is authorized by law to take acknowledgments of instruments for record in this State, and may forward the same to the assessor of the county by mail or otherwise, and the assessor shall enter the said property on his tax rolls. If the assessor is satisfied with the valuation as rendered in said list, he shall so enter the same; if he is not satisfied with the valuation, he shall refer the same to the board of equalization of the county for their action, and shall immediately notify the person from whom he received said list that he has referred said valuation to the board of equalization. [Acts 1876, p. 267; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1102.]

Art. 7186. [7544] [5100] Failure to administer or attest oath, etc.—The assessor of taxes, for every failure or neglect to administer the oath or affirmation prescribed in the second preceding article to each person rendering a list of taxable property

Art. 7196. [7554] [5110] How filled by assessor.—The blanks to be filled by the assessor with the abstract number, name of party to whom the certificate was issued, the number, class and character of the certificate, the name of the party to whom the patent issued, number of volume of patent, the month, day and year it was issued, and the number of acres each survey contains; which whole survey shall stand as a debit against the assessor. [Id.]

Art. 7197. [7555] [5111] Blocks and lots in cities.—Each assessor shall be required to make an abstract of all the blocks or subdivisions of each of the cities or towns or villages of his county, in a book or books of at least four hundred and eighty pages each, to be furnished him by the commissioners court of his county for that purpose, with an index book to the same, which said book or books shall have a blank space for a diagram or plot of each block or subdivision, giving the number of the lots as per form following:

Block No. Assessor's Abstract of City Lots in County, City of Value $

		No. Lot
		Owner's Name
		Year
Value
No. Lot
Owner's Name
Year

And the said assessor shall draw a plot of each block in the blank space left for that purpose, giving the number of each lot. And the whole of said block or subdivision shall be a debit against the assessor. [Id.]

Art. 7198. [7556] [5112] Assessing.—Each assessor, when he shall have made the assessment of his county for each year, shall, on the first day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, carry from each person's assessment the number of acres and its value on each survey of lands, lots or blocks to that particular survey, lot or block found on the abstract books provided in Articles 7196, 7197 and 7205; and all the parts of each survey or block placed on said abstract books shall be a credit to the assessor on that particular survey. Said assessor shall deduct the total number of acres rendered on each survey or block from the total number of acres of the whole survey or block as is shown by said abstract; and, if any part is left unrendered, then he shall assess the same to the owner or owners thereof, if known, and, if unknown, then to "unknown owners," and the value thereof shall be affixed by him, sanctioned by the board of equalization; provided, that the owner or owners of any survey and grant of land may show that the survey and grant in which they are interested does not contain the full complement of acres, showing how many acres are in fact embraced within the calls of the particular survey and grant. [Id.]

Art. 7199. [7557] [5113] To be kept in office.—The assessor's abstracts shall be kept in his office at the county seat of his county, as records of his office, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. The index book shall show the original grantee, the number of acres, the abstract number, and the volume and page in which each survey is placed. [Id.]

Art. 7200. [7558] [5114] Lands not on abstract.—Should there be any survey of lands, lots or blocks not on the abstract book or books which are by law subject to taxation, the assessor shall enter such lands, lots or blocks on the assessment list as though the same appeared on said abstract books. [Id.]

Art. 7201. [7559] [5115] Certificate from board.—Each assessor of taxes shall procure from the board of equalization of his county a certificate that all the surveys and parts of surveys of lands in his county, and all the lots and blocks of the cities and towns of his county, are rendered for taxation; which certificate shall be forwarded to the Comptroller before he shall issue to said assessor a draft on the tax collector of his county. The same rule shall apply to the commissioners court before they issue drafts on the county treasurer for his pay for assessing the county taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7202. [7560] [5116] Substitute employed.—The board of equalization or the commissioners court shall, if the assessor fails to perform the duties required by this chapter within a reasonable time, employ some other competent person to have the requirements of this law carried out, and the compensation therefor shall be deducted from the assessor's pay for that year. [Id.]

Art. 7203. [7561] [5117] Unorganized counties.—The Comptroller shall be required to have this law carried out in the unorganized counties of this State, where lands are located. [Id.]

Art. 7204. [7562] [5118] Manner and form of assessing.—The manner and form for assessing property for taxation shall be substantially as follows, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner.
2. Abstract number.
3. From whom and how acquired.
4. The name of the original grantee.
5. The number of acres.
6. The value of the land.
7. The number of the lot or lots.
8. The number of the block.
9. The value of town lots.
10. The name of the city or town.
11. Number of miles of railroad in the county.
12. The value of railroads and appurtenances, including the proportionate amount of rolling stock to the county after the assessment of such rolling stock and its apportionment among the several counties by the Comptroller as hereinafter provided.
13. Number of miles of telegraph in the county.
14. Value of telegraph and appurtenances in the county.
15. Number of horses and mules and value thereof.
16. Number of cattle and value thereof.
17. Number of jacks and jennets, and value thereof.
18. Number of sheep and value thereof.
19. Number of goats and value thereof.
20. Number of hogs and value thereof.
21. Number of carriages, bicycles or tricycles, buggies or wagons of whatsoever kind and value thereof.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

22. Number of sewing machines and knitting machines and the value thereof.

23. Number of clocks and watches and the value thereof.

24. Number of organs, melodeons, pianos, and all other musical instruments of whatsoever kind and value thereof.

25. The value of household and kitchen furniture over and above the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars.

26. Office furniture and the value thereof.

27. The value of gold and silver plate.

28. The value of diamonds and jewelry.

29. Every annuity or royalty, the description and value thereof.

30. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharves, boats, barges, or other water craft, and the value thereof.

31. The value of goods and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant in hand on the first day of January of each year.

32. The value of material and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.

33. The value of manufactures, tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.

34. Number of steam engines and boilers and value thereof.

35. The amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker, stock jobber or any other person.

36. The amount of solvent credits of bank, banker, broker, stock jobber or any other person.

37. The amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States bonds.

38. The amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this State.

39. The value of property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.

40. The value of stock and furniture of hotels and eating houses.

41. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.

42. The value of all other property not enumerated as above. [Acts 1876, p. 268; Acts 1895, p. 38; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1104.]

Art. 7205. [7563] [5119] Assessment of property not rendered.—If the assessor of taxes discovers any real property in his county subject to taxation which has not been listed to him, he shall list and assess such property in the manner following, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner; if unknown, say "unknown."

2. Abstract number and number of certificate.

3. Number of the survey.

4. Name of the original grantee.

5. Number of acres.

6. The true and full value thereof.

7. The number of lot or lots.

8. The number of the block.

9. The true and full value thereof.

10. The name of the city or town, and give such other description of the lot or lots or parcels of land as may be necessary to better describe the same; and such assessment shall be as valid as if rendered by the owner thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 269; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1105.]

Art. 7206. [7564] [5120] Boards of equalization.—Each commissioners court shall convene and sit as a board of equalization on the second Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable before the first day of June, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessors of their counties for inspection, correction or equalization and approval.

1. They shall cause the assessor to bring before them at such meeting all said assessment lists, books, etc., for inspection, and see that every person has rendered his property at a fair market value, and shall have power to send for persons, books and papers, to swear and qualify persons, to ascertain the value of such property, and to lower or raise the value on the same.

2. They shall have power to correct errors in assessments.

3. They shall equalize improved lands in three classes, first-class to embrace the better quality of land and improvements, the second-class to embrace the second quality of lands and improvements, and the third-class to embrace lands of but small value or inferior improvements. The unimproved lands shall embrace first, second and third class, and all other property made as nearly uniform as possible.

4. After they have inspected and equalized as nearly as possible, they shall approve said lists or books and return same to the assessors for making up the general rolls, when said board shall meet again and approve the same if same be found correct.

5. Whenever said board shall find it their duty to raise the assessment of any person's property, they shall order the county clerk to give the person who rendered the same written notice that they desire to raise the value of same. They shall cause the county clerk to give ten days written notice before their meeting by publication in some newspaper, but, if none is published in the county, then by posting a written or printed notice in each justice's precinct, one of which must be at the court house door.

6. The assessors of taxes shall furnish said board on the first Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refuse to swear or to qualify or to have signed the oath required by law, together with the assessment of said person's property made by him through other information; and said board shall examine, equalize and correct assessments so made by the assessor, and when so revised, equalized and corrected, the same shall be approved. [Acts 1879, p. 44; Acts 1909, p. 373; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1344.]

Art. 7207. [7565] Assessment of real property for previous years.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any real property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation for any year since 1870, he shall list and assess the same for each year for which it has not been assessed, in the manner prescribed in the preceding article; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof; but no such real property shall be assessed by the assessor unless he has ascertained by the certificate of the Comptroller the fact that the records of his office do not show that the property has been rendered or assessed for the year in which he assesses it. [Acts 1888, p. 4; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1002.]

Art. 7208. [7566] [5121] Back taxes on personal property.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any property, or outside of his county but belonging to a resident of the county, any personal property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation every year for two years past, he shall list and assess the same for each year thus omitted which it has belonged to said resident, in the manner prescribed for assessing other property; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L. vol. 9, p. 925.]

Art. 7209. [7567] Supplemental roll.—Collectors of taxes of counties, cities and towns, when any taxpayer applies to them to ascertain the amount of his taxes, and the collector finds that his name or his property does not appear on the tax roll, shall assess said taxpayer then and there, collect the taxes and enter the same upon a supplemental tax roll to be made by him. He shall make out, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller, three copies of such supplemental roll, one copy to be delivered to the Comptroller, one to be delivered to the county clerk, and one to be filed in the collector's office. Said supplemental tax roll shall be made out and delivered to the commissioners court with all other papers pertaining to the final settlement of said tax collector.

and the same shall be examined and approved by the commissioners court, in like manner as upon the tax roll of the tax assessor. The oath shall be the same as is administered by tax assessors under existing law. The tax collector shall receive the following compensation for his services on all assessments made by him under this Act, to-wit: For assessing the State and county taxes, four cents for each one hundred dollars of property so assessed, and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll; which fee shall be paid in the same way as the tax assessor's fee in Article 3937. [Acts 1895, p. 103; G. L. vol. 10, p. 833.]

Art. 7210. [7568] [5122] Assessor to follow instructions.—Tax assessors in the execution of their duties shall use the forms and follow the instructions which the Comptroller shall from time to time prescribe, and furnished to them by the county judge in pursuance of law. [Acts 1876, p. 265; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1101.]

Art. 7211. [7569] [5123] Equalization of assessments.—Hereafter when any person, firm or corporation renders his, their or its property in this State for taxation to any tax assessor, and makes oath as to the kind, character, quality and quantity of such property, and the said officer accepting said rendition from such person, firm or corporation of such property is satisfied that it is correctly and properly valued according to the reasonable cash market value of such property on the market at the time of its rendition, he shall list the same accordingly; but, if the assessor is satisfied that the value is below the reasonable cash market value of such property, he shall at once place on said rendition opposite each piece of property so rendered an amount equal to the reasonable cash market value of such property at the time of its rendition, and if such property shall be found to have no market value by such officer, then at such sum as said officer shall deem the real or intrinsic value of the property; and if the person listing such property or the owner thereof is not satisfied with the value placed on the property by the assessor, he shall so notify the assessor, and if desiring so to do make oath before the assessor that the valuation so fixed by said officer on said property is excessive; such officer to furnish such rendition, together with his valuation thereon and the oath of such person, firm or officer of any corporation, if any such oath has been made, to the commissioners' court of the county in which said rendition was made, which court shall hear evidence and determine the true value of such property on January First, 19— (here give year for which assessment is made) as is herein provided; such officer or court shall take into consideration what said property could have been sold for any time within six months next before the first day of January of the year for which the property [property] is rendered. [Acts 1925, pp. 48 and 382.] [39th Leg., ch. 20, § 2, and ch. 167, § 2.]

Art. 7212. [7570] [5124] Boards may equalize.—The boards of equalization shall have power, and it is made their official duty, to supervise the assessment of their respective counties, and, if satisfied that the valuation of any property is not in accordance with the laws of the State, to increase or diminish the same and to affix a proper valuation thereto, as provided for in the preceding article; and, when any assessor in this State shall have furnished said court with the rendition as provided for in the preceding article, it shall be the duty of such court to call before it such persons as in its judgment may know the market value or true value of such property, as the case may be, by proper process, who shall testify under oath the character, quality and quantity of such property, as well as the value thereof. Said court, after hearing the evidence, shall fix the value of such property in accordance with the evidence so introduced and as provided for in the preceding article; and their action in such case or cases shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7213. [7571] Neglect of duty by assessor.—If any tax assessor in this State shall fail, refuse or neglect to place upon any rendition as provided in Article 7211 of this chapter, the true value or market value in accordance with the method of fixing such value as provided for herein, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to return to the commissioners court such rendition, together with the oath of the owner or person listing such property for taxes when such oath has been made, as provided for in this chapter, or if the assessor accepts the rendition from any person rendering property for taxation without reading to such person the oath and having it signed and sworn to as provided by law, such failure, refusal or neglect shall be deemed malfeasance on the part of such officer, and shall be cause for his removal from office. [Acts 1907, p. 459.]

Art. 7214. [7572] Oath of assessor.—Every tax assessor and deputy tax assessor in this State, in addition to the oath prescribed by the Constitution of this State, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor, as the case may be) in and for _____ County, Texas, do solemnly swear that I will personally view and inspect all the real estate and improvements thereon subject to taxation, lying in said county; that may be rendered to me for taxation by any corporation or individual, or by their agent or representative, as fully as may be practicable, and that I will, as fully as is practicable, view and inspect all other taxable property in said county rendered to me as aforesaid; that I will to the best of my ability make a true estimate of the cash value, the market value of such property, if such property has a market value, and if it has no market value, then the real value of all such property, both real and personal, on the first day of January next preceding; and that I will make up and attach to each assessment sheet made up and sworn to by the said property owners, their agents or representatives, a true assessment and valuation of said property, together with a memoranda of all facts which I may learn bearing upon the value of said taxable property, and that I will make all possible inquiry relative to the true value of such property; and that I will attach said memoranda and statement of facts that I may ascertain as aforesaid to the said assessment sheets of the respective property owners. That I have read and understand the several provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully do and perform every duty required of me as tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor), by the Constitution and laws of this State. So help me God." This oath shall be administered by the county clerk and shall be in duplicate; the original shall be by the clerk filed and recorded in the records of the county, and the duplicate shall be retained by the assessor, or the deputy, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 7215. [7573] Oath of board.—When a commissioners court convenes as a board of equalization, before considering the subject of equalization of property values for the purposes of taxation, each member of the court, including the county judge, shall take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, a member of the board of equalization of _____ County, for the year A. D. _____, hereby solemnly swear that, in the performance of my duties as a member of such board for said year, I will not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of said county for said year at any sum which I believe to be less than its true market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as a member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed for said year at less than its true market value, or real value, raised on the tax rolls to what I believe to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value, and if not, then to its real value; and that I will faithfully endeavor to have the assessed valuation of all property subject to taxation within said county stand upon the tax rolls of said county for said year at its true cash market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value.

I further solemnly swear that I have read and understand the provisions contained in the Constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me under the Constitution and laws of this State. So help me God." Said oath shall be filed and recorded in the commissioners court record as a part of the proceedings of that term of court. [Id.]

Art. 7216. [7574] Neglect of duty cause for removal.—If, in passing upon the value of any property by a commissioners court sitting as a board of equalization in this State, the court shall fix a value upon any property for the purpose of taxation and a minority of said court do not concur in the judgment of the court, the clerk shall record in the minutes of the court the names of the members, including the county judge, who do not concur in fixing such values (if the county judge shall cast the deciding vote in such matter); and, if any tax assessor or member of any commissioners court shall knowingly fail or refuse to fix the value of property rendered for taxes in compliance with this chapter, and all other laws of this State, such failure, neglect or refusal shall constitute malfeasance in office on the part of such assessor or member or members of said court, and such failure, neglect or refusal shall be cause for his or their removal from office. Whenever the fact is brought to the knowledge of the Attorney General that any tax assessor, deputy tax assessor, county judge, or member of the commissioners court, has failed, refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this chapter, he shall at once file suit for the removal from office of such officer thus offending. Such proceedings for the removal of such officer or officers herein provided for shall be brought in the district court of the county of such officer's residence; and such suit shall be brought by or under the direction of the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 7217. [7575] [5125] To furnish list of delinquents.—The assessor of taxes shall furnish the board of equalization on the first Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refused to swear or qualify or to sign the oath as prescribed in this title; also a list of the names of those persons who refused to render a list of taxable property as required by this title. Should any person so failing or refusing to take the oath prescribed, or to render a list of their property, or to subscribe to the oath, as required by the provisions of this title, fail to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to the board of equalization within one month from the date of the filing of said list by the assessor, as required by this article, the board of equalization shall return a list of all persons who have failed to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to render, qualify or subscribe to the oath to the assessor of taxes, who shall present the said list to the next grand jury of his county. [Acts 1876, p. 270; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1106.]

Art. 7218. [7576] [5126] To submit lists to board.—The assessor of taxes shall submit all the lists of property rendered to him prior to the first Monday in June to the board of equalization of his county on the first Monday in June or as soon thereafter as practicable, for their inspection, approval, correction or equalization. After said board shall have returned the corrected and approved lists of taxable property, the assessor of taxes shall proceed to assess all the unrendered property of his county as provided for in this title, and shall proceed to make out and prepare his roles [rolls] or books of all the real and personal property listed to him, in the form and manner prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7219. [7577] [5127] Shall make out rolls in triplicate.—As soon as the board of equalization shall have examined, corrected and approved the assessor's list, the assessor of taxes shall prepare and make out a roll or book, as may be required by the Comptroller, from the list so corrected and approved, and three exact copies of the same, the original to be furnished to the collector of taxes, the second to the Comptroller, and the third to be filed in the county clerk's office for the inspection of the public. He shall also prepare a roll or book, and two exact copies thereof, to be distributed, the first to the collector of taxes, the second to the Comptroller, the third to be filed in the county clerk's office, of all the real and personal property which has not been listed to him. [Id.]

Art. 7220. [7578] [5128] Also rolls of unrendered property.—The assessor of taxes shall, after his list of unrendered real and personal property shall have been examined, corrected and approved by the board of equalization as provided by law, prepare and make out his rolls or books of all unrendered real and personal property listed by him in the manner and form prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7221. [7579] [5129] And add up columns.—The assessor of taxes shall add up and note the aggregate of each column on his roll or book, and he shall also make in each book or roll, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and he shall add up and set down under the respective headings the total of the several columns. [Id.]

Art. 7222. [7580] [5130] Return and oath.—The assessor of taxes shall, on or before the first day of August of each year for which the assessment is made, return his rolls or assessment books of the taxable property rendered to him or listed by him for that year, after they have been made in accordance with the provisions of this title, to the county board of equalization, verified by his affidavit, substantially on the following form:

The State of Texas, — County.

I, —, assessor of — county, do solemnly swear that the rolls (or books) to which this is attached contain a correct and full list of the real and personal property subject to taxation in — county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; that I have sworn every person listing property to me in the county, or caused the same to be done in manner and form as provided by law, and that the assessed value set down in the proper column opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property is the true and correct valuation thereof as ascertained by law, and the footings of the several columns in said books and the tabular statement returned is correct, as I verily believe. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 204; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1258.]

Art. 7223. [7581] [5131] Lists, etc., filed.—The assessor of taxes shall at the same time deliver to the board of equalization all the lists, statements of all property which shall have been made out or received by him, and arranged in alphabetical order, together with the roll withdrawn to aid him in the past assessment. The lists and statements shall be filed in the county clerk's office, and remain there for the inspection of the public. [Acts 1876, p. 271; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1107.]

Art. 7224. [7582] [5132] Rolls, how distributed.—After the board of equalization shall have examined the rolls or assessment books and made all corrections, if any be necessary, the assessor shall send one copy of each to the Comptroller, one copy of each to the collector of his county, and he shall file the other copies in the county clerk's office until the next assessment, when the assessor shall have the right to withdraw them and use as provided in this title. [Id.]

Art. 7225. [7586] [5136] Penalties for neglect of duty.—Should any assessor of taxes fail or neglect to make out and return his rolls or books to the commissioners court in the time and manner provided for in this chapter, it shall be competent for the commissioners court to deduct from his compensation such amount as they may deem proper and right for such neglect or failure; and, should his rolls or books, when presented for approval to the commissioners court, prove to be imperfect or erroneous, the court shall have the same corrected or perfected; either by the assessor or some other person than the assessor of taxes. Such person so employed by the commissioners shall be entitled to such part of the commissions to which such assessor is entitled as the court may allow; and said court shall so certify to the Comptroller, who shall pay such person in the same manner as the assessor of taxes is paid; and the amount so paid shall be deducted by the Comptroller from the commissions of the assessor of taxes, whose duty it was to have performed such work. [Id. Acts 1879, p. 44; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1344.]

Art. 7226. [7587] [5137] Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties, etc.—Lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and lands lying in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be assessed by the Comptroller in accordance with such regulations as he may adopt and establish for that purpose. [Const. art. 8, sec. 12.]

Art. 7227. Canceling subdivisions.—Any person, firm, association or corporation owning lands in this State, which lands have been subdivided into lots and blocks or small subdivisions, may make application to the commissioners court of the county wherein any such lands are located, for permission to cancel all or any portion of such subdivision or subdivisions, so as to throw the said lands back into acreage tracts as it existed before such subdivisions were made. When such application is made by the owner or owners of such land, and it is shown that a cancellation of such subdivisions, or portion thereof, will not interfere with the established rights of any purchaser owning any portion of such subdivisions, or if it be shown that said person or persons agreed to such cancellation, said commissioners court shall enter an order, which order canceling said subdivision shall be spread upon the minutes of such court, authorizing such owner or owners of such lands to cancel the same by written instrument describing such subdivisions, or portions thereof, so cancelled as designated by said court. When such cancellation is filed and recorded in the deed records of such county, the tax assessor of such county shall assess such property as though it had never been subdivided. When such application is so filed, said court shall cause notice to be given of such application by publishing such application in some newspaper, published in the English language, in such county for at least three weeks prior to action thereon by said court, and action shall be taken on such petition or petitions at a regular term of said court. Such notice, in addition to said publication, shall command any person interested in such lands to appear at the time specified in such notice to protest if desired against such action. If such lands are delinquent for taxes for any preceding year, or years, and such application is granted as hereinbefore provided, the owner or owners of said land shall be permitted to pay such delinquent taxes upon an acreage basis, the same as if said lands had not been subdivided, and for the purpose of assessing lands for such preceding years the county assessor of taxes shall back assess such lands upon an acreage basis. This law shall not apply to any lands or lots included in an incorporated city or town. [Acts 1919, p. 160.]

Art. 7228. [7588] [5138] Lands in unorganized counties.—All lands and other property situated in the unorganized counties of this State, owned by residents of such unorganized counties, shall be assessed by the assessor of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and the taxes collected by the collector of such organized county; and the same remedies for the enforcement of the assessment and collection of such taxes shall apply as the law directs for the assessment and collection of the taxes on property situated in organized counties of this State. [Acts 1879, p. 141; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1441.]

Art. 7229. [7589-90] Duties of Comptroller.—The Comptroller is authorized, empowered and required to assess and collect the State and county taxes on all lands which are situated in unorganized counties and owned by non-residents thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided. The Comptroller may at any time prior to the return of the assessment rolls to his office of the organized county to which such unorganized county or counties are attached for judicial purposes, receive the assessment of and collect the taxes on any lands situated in such unorganized county or counties which are owned by non-residents thereof. [Id. Acts 1987, p. 43; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7230. [7591-2] List of unrendered lands.—As soon as the tax rolls of the organized county to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have been received by the Comptroller, he shall, by comparing the lands rendered to the assessor of the organized county by the residents of such unorganized county or counties with those previously rendered to him by non-residents, make out a list of all unrendered lands situated in such unorganized county, and place such value upon the lands thus found to be unrendered as he may deem just and fair. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the Comptroller from receiving the assessment and taxes due at any time prior to the completion of the unrendered list of such unorganized county. After the completion of the unrendered list provided for in this chapter, the owner or owners must pay according to the value and assessment made thereon by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7231. [7593] [5143] May appeal from assessment.—Assessment of lands rendered to the Comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall be made by the party rendering the same under oath as to their value; but if the Comptroller thinks the valuation too low he shall object; and if the Comptroller and the party rendering the land cannot agree, then the Comptroller shall assess the same at such value as he may think it is worth; and, if the party rendering feels that the assessment is too high, he may appeal to the board of equalization, which for such purposes shall consist of the Governor, Attorney General and the Secretary of State, and their decision shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7232. [7594] [5144] May levy upon and sell, when.—Three months after the completion of the unrendered list of each unorganized county, respectively, the Comptroller shall proceed to levy upon and advertise all lands in such counties upon which the taxes are due and unpaid, giving notice of the amount due upon each separate tract of land, and giving such description of the land upon which taxes are due and unpaid as he may be in possession of; such notice to be given by publication in some weekly newspaper published in the State for four consecutive weeks; said notice to state that on a certain day therein named the Comptroller will proceed to sell the land therein described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the State and county taxes due, and the cost of advertising the same. [Id.]

Art. 7233. [7595] [5145] Sale.—The sale shall commence on the day named in said notice, and may continue from day to day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) until completed; such sale shall be had in front of the Comptroller's office, in the city of Austin, between the hours of eight o'clock A. M. and four o'clock P. M. of each day. [Id.]

Art. 7234. [7596] [5146] May be bought by State.—Should there be no purchaser of said lands, then the Comptroller shall bid in the same for the State for the taxes due thereon and the costs of sale, and make a deed to the State to the same, including in one deed all lands bid in. [Id.]

Art. 7235. [7597] [5147] Redemption.—Should the lands bid in by the Comptroller for the State not be redeemed by the owner thereof or his agent within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which the said land was sold, then the said lands thus sold and un-redeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund. [Id.]

Art. 7236. [7598] [5148] Tax deed.—The Comptroller shall give to the purchaser of any lands, the sale of which is provided for in this chapter, a deed to the same, giving in such deed such description of the land as may be necessary to identify the same, or such description as he may be in possession of. [Id.]

Art. 7237. [7600] [5150] Deed shall vest title.—The deed given to the purchaser or purchasers by the Comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall vest a good and sufficient fee simple title in the purchaser or purchasers, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud; provided, the former owner or owners thereof do not redeem the same within two years from the date of the deed, either by paying to the purchaser or purchasers double the amount for which said land was sold, or by making a tender of the same to him or his agent, or by depositing with the Comptroller before the expiration of the two years double the amount for which such land was sold, to be paid by the Comptroller, when called upon, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7238. [7601] [5151] County taxes paid, where.—All county taxes collected under the provisions of Article 7235 shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7239. [7602] [5152] Comptroller to keep taxes.—All county taxes, other than taxes to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, due unorganized counties, collected by the Comptroller, shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the total sum to the credit of the county shall reach the sum of five thousand dollars. Then he shall upon the demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, when the same shall have organized, paid said sum, or whatever amount is held to the credit of said county, over to said treasurer. And all county taxes collected by the Comptroller after the amount to the credit of such unorganized county shall reach the amount of five thousand dollars shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 43; G. L., vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7240. [7603] [5152a] Payment by Comptroller.—Where the amount to the credit of any unorganized county now exceeds five thousand dollars, the Comptroller shall keep said sum to be paid to the treasurer of such unorganized county when the same shall organize; and all county taxes, other than taxes collected to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, hereafter collected by the Comptroller in such counties, shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes. [Acts 1897, p. 43; G. L., vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7241. [7604] [5153] Special deposit made by Comptroller.—All moneys received by the Comptroller on deposit for the redemption of land sold and bought by individuals shall be by him deposited in the State Treasury as a special deposit, subject to the order of the party to whom the conditional deed to such land was given. So also shall all county taxes collected by the Comptroller under the provisions of this law be deposited in the State Treasury as a special fund, subject to the order of the Comptroller, to be paid to the county treasurers as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7242. [7722-26] In new counties.—When any county is created or organized, those in charge of the assessor's roll embracing the new county shall allow the person appointed by the commissioners court for such purpose access to the rolls to make the transcripts herein provided for. Such appointee shall make from such rolls two transcripts of the unpaid assessments, both on person and property, in that portion of the new county formerly embraced within the unorganized county or the territory from which the new county was created, and shall receive such pay for his services as he may agree on with said court. The proper collector shall examine and verify said transcripts and attest their correctness over his official signature, and shall receive therefor twenty dollars from the new county, to be paid on the order of its commissioners court. Said collector shall also have the commissioners court of his county approve said transcripts, and shall deliver one of them to the collector of the new county, and forward the other to the Comptroller. On receipt of same the Comptroller shall be authorized to give proper credit to the collector of the old county and to charge the same to the collector of the new county. The collector of the new county shall receive the same compensation, and shall have the same authority to collect and enforce the collection of the taxes found to be due by such transcripts as is enjoyed by the collectors of other counties. [Acts 1885, p. 107; G. L., vol. 9, p. 727.]

Art. 7243. Assessment of property stored.—Any person, co-partnership, association or corporation doing business in this State as a warehouseman or operating or controlling a warehouse or place of storage, shall, upon demand of the tax assessor of the county in which said business is operated or in which property is so stored, on January 1st of each year, furnish to the said tax assessor, a list of the property so stored in such warehouse or place of storage, together with a list of the owners of such property and their residence. The term "place of storage" as used herein shall also include all cold storage or refrigeration plants wherein goods of any nature are stored. Any person or agent or representative of such co-partnership, association, or corporation who shall fail to furnish such list and information as set forth above upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such property is located, shall be subject to all the penalties now existing against any person for making a false rendition of property for the purpose of taxation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 165.]

Art. 7244. [4825] Mutual life insurance companies.—For the purpose of State, county and city taxation, the amount of the reserve and contingency reserve of all mutual life insurance companies shall be treated as debts due by them to their policyholders, and the total value of their property for such purposes shall be ascertained by deducting from the total amount of their gross assets the amount of such reserves and contingency reserves. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 292; Acts 1921, p. 153.]

Article 7245. [7605] [5154] [4729] Election and term.—In each county having ten thousand inhabitants, to be determined by the preceding Federal census, there shall be elected at the regular biennial election a collector of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years. [Const., art. 8, sec. 16; Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L., vol. 8, p. 259.]

Art. 7246. [7607] [5156] [4731] Sheriff a collector.—In each county having less than ten thousand inhabitants, the sheriff of such county shall be the collector of taxes, and shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges, be subject to all the requirements and restrictions, and perform all the duties imposed by law upon collectors; and he shall also give the same bonds required of a collector of taxes elected. [Const., art. 8, sec. 16; Id.]

Art. 7247. [7608] [5157] [4732] Bond for State taxes.—Each collector of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond based upon unincumbered real estate of the sureties, subject to execution, payable to the Governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to forty per cent of the whole amount of the State tax of the county as shown by the last preceding assessment, provided said bond shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, which shall be further subject to the approval of the Comptroller, and his official oath together with said bonds shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the Comptroller to be deposited in his office. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as collector of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed. [Acts 1876, p. 259; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 1917, p. 353; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7248. [7609] [5158] [4733] New bond.—The tax collector may be required to furnish a new bond or additional security whenever in the opinion of the commissioners court or the Comptroller, it may be advisable. Should any tax collector fail to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7249. [7610] [5159] [4734] Bond for county taxes.—Collectors of taxes shall give a like bond, with like conditions to the county judge of their respective counties and their successors in office in a sum not less than forty per cent of the whole amount of the county tax, as shown by the last preceding assessment, provided said bond shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and for failure to give such new bond or additional security, the collector of taxes may be removed from office in the manner prescribed by law. If said bonds required are executed by a satisfactory surety company or companies or by any private party or parties as surety or sureties thereon in counties with a total taxable valuation of thirty million dollars or more, the county of which the principal in said bond or bonds is tax collector shall pay a reasonable amount as premium on said bond or bonds, which amount shall be paid out of the general revenue of the county upon presentation of the bill therefor to the commissioners court of the county properly authenticated as required by law in other claims against the county. If there be any controversy as to the reasonableness of the amount claimed, as such premium, such controversy may be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1876, p. 260; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 1917, p. 354; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1096.]

Art. 7250. Depository shall pay treasurer.—Except as to compensation due such tax collector as shown by his approved reports, tax money deposited in county depositories shall be paid by such depositories only to treasurers entitled to receive the same, on checks drawn by such tax collector in favor of such treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 7251. [7611] [5160] [4735] All bonds to be first approved.—No collector shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office until all of the bonds required of him by law for the collection of any taxes, State, county or special, shall have been given and approved.

Art. 7252. [7612] [5161] [4736] Deputies.—Each tax collector may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the collection of taxes, and may take such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the collectors in all cases shall be allowable and accountable for his proceedings and misconduct in office. [Acts 1876, p. 260; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1096.]

Art. 7253. [7613] [5162] [4737] Rolls to be a warrant.—When any tax collector shall have received the assessment rolls or books of the county, he shall receipt to the commissioners court for the same; and said rolls or books shall be full and sufficient authority for said collector to receive and collect the taxes therein levied. [Id.]

Art. 7254. [7614] [5163] [4738] Collector for all taxes.—The tax collector shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes assessed upon the tax list in his county, whether assessed for the State or county, school, poor house or other purposes; and he shall proceed to collect the same according to law, and place the same when collected to the proper fund, and pay the same over to the proper authorities, as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 7255. [7615] [5164] [4739] Collections, when to begin.—Each tax collector shall begin the collection of taxes annually on the first day of October, or so soon thereafter as he may be able to obtain the proper assessment rolls, books or data upon which to proceed with the business; and he shall post up notices—not less than three—at public places in each voting or justice precinct in his county, at least twenty days previous to the day said taxpayers are required to meet him for the purpose of paying their taxes, stating in said notice the times and places the same are required to be paid; and said collector or his deputy shall attend at such times and places for the purposes aforesaid, and shall remain at each place at least two days. If the collector from any cause shall fail to meet the taxpayers at the time and place specified in the first notice, he shall in like manner give a second notice. [Id.]

Art. 7256. [7616] [5165] [4740] Office at county seat.—Each tax collector shall keep his office at the county seat of his county; and it shall be the duty of every person who has failed to attend and to pay his taxes at the times and places in his precinct named by the collector, as provided in the preceding article, to call at the office of the collector and pay the same before the last day of December of the same year for which the assessment is made. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L., vol. 9, p. 925.]

Art. 7257. [7617] [5166] [4741] Tax receipt.—The tax collector or his deputy, whenever any tax is paid, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of State, county and district taxes, and the year or years for which such tax was assessed; said receipt shall also show the number of acres of land in each separate tract, number, abstract and name of original grantee and any city or town lot and name of city or town, and total value of all property assessed. Said receipt shall have a duplicate to be retained by the collector. The collector shall provide himself with a seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points, surrounded by the words "Collector of Taxes, ——— county" (the blank to be filled with the name of the county), and shall impress said seal on each receipt and duplicate given by him for taxes collected on real estate; and said receipt having the seal attached shall be admissible to record in the county in which the property is situated in the same manner as deeds duly authenticated, and when so recorded shall be full and complete notice to all persons of the payment of said tax. The collector, when any taxes are paid, shall insert in the margin of the tax rolls the words and figures as follows: "Taxes paid ——— day of ———," No. of receipt ——— (dates to be filled and receipt number to be given) and signed by the collector; and such entry shall be notice to all the world of the payment of such tax, and such entries may be used in evidence on issues involving the payment of same. [Acts 1876, p. 261; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1097; Acts 1921, p. 136.]

Art. 7258. Recording tax receipts.—Every receipt for the payment of taxes on property, real, personal or mixed, hereafter paid, as well as those heretofore paid, collected by State, county or municipal officers, may be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property is situated. On presentation of a tax receipt to the county clerk he shall immediately file the same in the same manner of filing a deed to land, and enter and record such receipt in full in a record book kept by him for the purpose of recording tax receipts, to be called "Tax Receipt Record," and shall have the name and number written thereon, and such record shall be notice to all the world of the payment of such tax, and certified copies thereof may be used in evidence on issues involving the same under like rules admitting certified copies of deeds in evidence. [Acts 1915, p. 137.]

Art. 7259. Record books furnished.—Each commissioners court shall furnish the county clerk tax receipt record books which may be made in form as books for recording deeds or in form with printed blanks conforming to the form of the tax receipts as provided by law for tax collectors, or in any form suitable to the purposes of this law, in the discretion of said court, with the name "Tax Receipt Record" indorsed on the same, with successive numbers on each separate volume, and said clerk shall properly index said record alphabetically in the name of the holder of the tax receipt. [Id.]

Art. 7260. [7618] [5167] [4742] Monthly reports.—1. At the end of each month the tax collector shall, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller, make an itemized report under oath to the Comptroller, showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all State taxes collected, provided that said itemized reports for the months of December and January of each year may not be made for twenty-five days after the end of such months if same cannot be completed by the end of such respective months.

2. He shall present such report, together with the tax receipt stubs to the county clerk, who shall within two days compare said report with said stubs, and if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates and amounts, he shall certify to its correctness, for which examination and certificate said clerk shall be paid by the commissioners court twenty-five cents for each certificate and twenty-five cents for each two hundred taxpayers on said report.

3. The tax collector shall then immediately forward his reports so certified to the Comptroller, and shall pay over to the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him for the State during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected, and to enable him to do so, he may, at his own risk, send the same to the State Treasurer at the least cost to the State, on which he shall be allowed credit by the Comptroller upon filing receipt showing actual amount of exchange paid. The tax collector may, in making remittances of funds to the State Treasurer or any other State officer, board, commission or employé of the State, make the same by sending cash or a check on the county depository, if the funds are in the county depository, or if the same, in due course, are required to be in such depository. No State or county funds shall be used to pay exchange on, or expense of transmitting or collecting money by, any check or exchange or draft which may be used to make any such remittances. If such funds are sent in cash, by registered letter, by post-office money order, express money order or by bank draft or bank check or depository check, in such event the liability of the persons sending the same shall not cease until the same money is actually received by the State Treasurer or the duly authorized State depository or other authorized officer in due course of business. The State Treasurer, whenever he may receive a remittance from a tax collector, shall promptly pay the money so remitted to the State Treasury, on the deposit warrant of the Comptroller, and the money when so deposited shall be a credit to the said tax collector.

4. The tax collector shall pay over to the State Treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the State, and finally adjust and settle his account with the Comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year, and to enable him to do so, the commissioners court shall convene on or before the third Monday in April for the purpose of examining and approving his final settlement papers.

5. The allowance to a tax collector of credit for the unpaid taxes shown on his delinquent and insolvent lists prepared under Articles 7263 and 7336 shall not absolve any taxpayer or property appearing upon either of said lists from liability for and payment of such taxes, nor absolve the tax collector from the duty of collecting same, and the provisions of Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274, and 7336 pertaining to the levy upon and seizure and sale by the tax collector of personal property to enforce the payment of taxes shall be applicable to the enforced collection of such taxes. As such taxes are collected, the tax collector shall issue special tax receipts therefor to be furnished by the Comptroller, which blank receipts shall be numbered and charged to the tax collector, who shall account for same at his next annual settlement in the same manner as occupation tax receipts. The tax collector shall make in triplicate itemized monthly reports of all such collections, using blanks for that purpose furnished by the Comptroller. One of said triplicates shall be retained by the tax collector as a record of his office, one shall be filed with and preserved by the county clerk as a record of his office, and one shall be sent to the Comptroller and preserved as a record of his office. There shall be entered upon or attached to each copy of said reports the affidavit of the tax collector that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources authorized and provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property for the collection of all unpaid taxes shown upon the delinquent and insolvent lists of his county, and that he does not know of any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes remain unpaid that he is authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof.

6. The Comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by the collectors of taxes, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations as he may deem necessary in regard thereto. He shall enforce a strict observance of each provision of these articles.

7. The Comptroller shall notify the district attorney of the district or the county attorney of the county in which the collector resides, and the sureties on the bond of the collector, of any failure to comply with any provision of this article. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L., vol. 10, p. 520; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, pp. 157 and 188.]

Art. 7261. [7619] [5168] [4743] Duties of clerk and collector—1. The tax collector shall at the end of each month make like reports to the commissioners court of all the collections made for the county, conforming as far as applicable and in like manner to the requirements as to the collection and report of taxes collected for the State. The county clerk shall likewise, within two days after the presentation of said report by the collector, examine said report and stubs, and certify to their correctness as regards names, dates and amounts; for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the collector fifty cents each month, which amount shall be allowed to the collector by the commissioners court.

2. The clerk shall file said report intended for the commissioners court, together with the tax receipt stubs, in his office for the next regular meeting of the commissioners court.

3. The tax collector shall immediately pay over to the county treasurer all taxes collected for the county during said month, after reserving his commissions for collecting the same, and take receipts therefor, and file with the county clerk.

4. At the next regular meeting of the commissioners court, the tax collector shall appear before said court and make a summarized statement, showing the disposition of all moneys, both of the State and county, collected by him during the previous three months. Said statement must show that all taxes due the State have been promptly remitted to the State Treasury at the end of each month, and all taxes due the county have been paid over promptly to the county treasurer and shall file proper vouchers and receipts showing same.

5. The commissioners court shall examine such statement and vouchers, together with an itemized report and tax receipt stubs filed each month, and shall compare the same with the tax rolls and tax receipt stubs. If found correct in every particular, and if the tax collector has properly accounted for all taxes collected, as provided above, the commissioners court shall enter an order approving said report, and the order approving same shall be recorded in the minutes.

6. The tax collector shall finally adjust and settle his account with the commissioners court for the county taxes collected, at the same time and in the same manner as is provided in the foregoing article in his settlement with the State. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L. vol. 10, p. 520.]

Art. 7262. [7620] [5169] Report not approved, unless—If any tax collector shall have failed at the end of each month, or within three days thereof, to promptly remit to the State Treasurer the amount due by him to the State, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, the commissioners court, at the next regular meeting, shall ascertain the facts; and if the tax collector fails or refuses to pay or remit the same and file proper vouchers therefor, as provided in the foregoing article, the commissioners court shall not approve his reports and accounts, but shall ascertain the amounts due by him, both to the State and county, and enter an order requiring him to pay the same to the proper treasurers, as is provided in Articles 7294 and 7295, and notify such collector, as is provided for in Article 7296 under penalty for failure to do so. Whenever the tax collector shall fail or refuse to remit to the State Treasurer the amounts due the State, when requested, the Comptroller shall notify him. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L. vol. 10, p. 520.]

Art. 7263. [7621] [5170] [4744] List of delinquents and insolvents.—The tax collector shall make out on forms to be furnished for that purpose by the Comptroller, between April first and the fifteenth of each year, list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, the caption of which shall be, the "list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers." In this list he shall give the name of the person, firm, company, or corporation from whom the taxes are due, in separate columns; and he shall post one copy of these delinquent or insolvent lists at the courthouse door of the county, and one list at the courthouse door, or where court is usually held, in each justice precinct in his county; and the tax collector, upon the certificate of the commissioners court that the persons appearing on the insolvent or delinquent lists have no property out of which to make the taxes assessed against them, or that they have moved out of the county, and that no property can be found in the county belonging to such persons, out of which to make the taxes due, shall be entitled to a credit on final settlement of his accounts for the amounts due by the persons, firms, companies, or corporations certified to by the commissioners court, as above provided for. [Id.]

Art. 7264. [7622] [5171] [4745] To collect delinquent list.—The allowance of an insolvent list to the collector in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes; but the collector shall use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due on the insolvent list after it is allowed, and report and pay over to the proper officers all amounts collected on the same. [Id.]

Art. 7265. [7623] [5172] Non-residents.—Non-residents of counties, owing State or county taxes, are hereby authorized to pay the same to the Comptroller; provided, that all taxes due by said non-residents shall be paid at the Comptroller's office on or before the first day of January next after the assessment of such taxes. The tax collectors shall be entitled to the commissions on all moneys paid by non-residents to the Comptroller, due their counties respectively. [Acts 1879, p. 41; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1341.]

Art. 7266. [7624] [5173] [4746] Forced collections to begin.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law, until the first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll of the county to the Comptroller, the tax collector shall, by virtue of his tax roll, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with all costs accruing thereon; provided, there shall be no levy on property when the owner thereof has the right to pay at the Comptroller's office, until a list of the persons who have paid their taxes at said office has been furnished the tax collector by the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall forward said list of paid taxes on or before the first day of February of each year; and the tax collector shall, immediately on receipt of said list from the Comptroller, levy on and sell the property of such non-residents as have not paid their taxes, in accordance with the law regulating the sale of property for taxes. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L. vol. 9, p. 128.]

Art. 7267. [7625] [5174] [4747] Personal property pointed out.—If any person shall point out to the tax collector sufficient personal property belonging to him to pay all taxes assessed against him before the first day of January of any year, the collector shall immediately levy upon and sell such property so pointed out, in accordance with the laws regulating tax sales of a similar class of property. [Id.]

Art. 7268. [7626] [5175] [4748] Property about to be removed.—If it comes to the knowledge of the tax collector that any personal property assessed for taxes on the rolls is about to be removed from the county, and the owner of such property has not other property in the county sufficient to satisfy all assessments against him, the collector shall immediately levy upon a sufficiency of such property to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the law regulating sales of personal property for taxes unless the owner of such property shall give bond, with sufficient security payable to and to be approved by the collector, and conditioned for the payment of the taxes due on such property, on or before the first day of January next succeeding. [Id.]

Art. 7269. [7627] Tax lien superior.—In all cases where a taxpayer makes an assignment of his property for the payment of his debts, or where his property is levied upon by creditors, by writs of attachments or otherwise, or where the estate of a decedent is or becomes insolvent, and the taxes assessed against such person or property, or against any of his estate remain unpaid in part or in whole, the amount of such unpaid taxes shall be a first lien upon all such property; provided, that when taxes are due by an estate of a deceased person, the lien herein provided for shall be subject to the allowances to widows and minors, funeral expenses, and expenses of last sickness. Such unpaid taxes shall be paid by the assignee, when said property has been seized by the sheriff, out of the proceeds of sale in case such property has been seized under attachment or other writ, and by the administrator or other legal representative of decedents; and, if said taxes shall not be paid, all said property may be levied on by the tax collector and sold for such taxes in whomsoever's hands it may be found.

Art. 7270. [7628] Execution in other counties.—Whenever it shall appear to any tax collector that any person who is delinquent in the payment of his or her taxes has no property in his county out of which said amount of taxes can be collected, such collector shall make out from the assessment list a true and complete list or schedule of the taxes due by said delinquent, which shall be certified to under the official seal and signature of said collector, and forward the same to the tax collector of any county or counties where he shall have reason to believe said delinquent has property of any description, and if said property is in any of the unorganized counties of this State, then to the collector of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes; and, when received by said collector, he shall at once proceed to the collection of said tax by seizure and sale in the same manner as if said taxes were originally assessed and due in his said county, and shall report to the collector from whom said list was received the taxes so collected by him. [Acts 1905, p. 317.]

Art. 7271. [7629] Credit for delinquent taxes.—The provisions of this chapter pertaining to the duty of tax collectors in the matter of the collection of delinquent and insolvent taxes shall apply as well to taxes owing by persons who own real property as to those who do not own real property, and no tax collector in this State shall be entitled to or be allowed either by the county or by the Comptroller credit as approved by Article 7263 for any taxes reported or returned as either delinquent or insolvent under Article 7263 or 7336 until he makes affidavit entered upon or attached to both his lists of insolvent tax payers prepared under said Article 7263 and his lists of delinquent lands prepared under Article 7336, that said lists are true and correct and that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources to collect such taxes as authorized and required by Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274, and 7336, and does not know of, and has made diligent inquiry and has been unable to learn of, any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes are shown on said lists to be unpaid that he was authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof, nor until the commissioners court of his county, after full consideration and investigation, has entered upon or attached to both the insolvent lists and lists of delinquent lands the certificate required by said Article 7263, and no compensation that at the time, or at any time thereafter, may be due or owing to the tax collector, either by the State or county, shall be retained by or paid to the tax collector until he has made the affidavits as provided by this article. Nothing in this article is intended or shall be construed as requiring any tax collector to levy upon and sell real property for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes. [Id. Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 168.]

Art. 7272. [7630] [5176] All property liable for taxes.—All real and personal property held or owned by any person in this State shall be liable for all State and county taxes due by the owner thereof including taxes on real estate, personal property, and poll tax; and the tax collector shall levy on any personal or real property to be found in his county to satisfy all delinquent taxes, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [Acts 1879, p. 46; G. L. vol. 8, p. 138.]

Art. 7273. [7631] [5177] [4749] Sales of personal property.—In making sales of personal property for taxes, the collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale, together with a brief description of the property levied on and to be sold, for at least ten days previous to the day of sale, by advertisements in writing to be posted at the courthouse door, and at two other public places in the county; and such sale shall take place at the courthouse door of the county in which the assessment is made, by public auction. [Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7274. [7632] [5178] [4750] If property is insufficient.—If personal property levied upon prove insufficient to satisfy the taxes and penalties due and costs accrued thereon, the collector shall levy upon and sell so much other personal taxable property belonging to the person as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes, penalties and costs in the same manner as an original levy and sale, and, in all cases of sales for taxes, if there be an excess remaining in the hands of the collector, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs, the same shall be paid over to the original owner by the collector, or deposited in the hands of the county treasurer subject to the order of such owner. [Id.]

Art. 7275. [7633] [5179] [4751] Sales of real property.—If the delinquent is not possessed of a sufficiency of personal property in the county subject to seizure and sale to satisfy all taxes due by him, the tax collector shall seize so much of the real estate of such delinquent, situated in the county, as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and sell the same in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 7276. [7634] [5180] [4752] Advertisement of real property for sale.—In making sales of real property for taxes, the collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one; and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation not exceeding twenty-five cents for each tract or parcel of land so advertised to be taxed as other costs of sale against such land. The cost of advertising in a newspaper shall be deducted from the fee allowed the collector for advertising. The Comptroller shall allow the collector twenty-five cents per tract for each tract of land bid off by the State. If there be no newspaper published in the county, or, there being a newspaper published in the county and the publisher thereof refuses to publish the advertisement at the price herein fixed, then the advertisement shall be made by posting the same for thirty days previous to the day of sale, at the courthouse door and three other public places in the county where the land or lots are situated, giving in said advertisement such description as is given to the same on the tax rolls in his hands, stating the name of the owner if known, and if unknown say "unknown," together with the time, place, and terms of sale; said sale to be for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry at the courthouse door, and between legal hours, on the first Tuesday of the month. [Acts 1881, p. 12; G. L. vol. 9, p. 252.]

Art. 7277. [7635] [5181] List posted.—Prior to the sale of any real property for taxes in any county in this State, the tax collector shall advertise the same by posting a list of the names of the delinquents for thirty days as follows: one copy at the courthouse door of the county, and a copy at two other public places in the county where the lands or lots are situated. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 46; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1346.]

Art. 7278. [7636] [5182] [4753] Sale continued.—As far as may be practicable, all the lands and town lots levied upon for taxes shall be advertised in one notice and be sold on the same day; and such sales may be continued from day to day until concluded; but at the close of each day's sale the tax collector shall make proclamation of such continuance on the following day. No sale shall be considered complete until the payment of the purchase money; and, if the same is not made before the completion of the tax sales, the collector shall re-sell the property, and continue such sale until the same is complete. [Acts 1876, p. 262; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1098.]

Art. 7279. [7637] [5183] [4754] Homesteads liable.—No real estate set apart, used or designated as a homestead shall be sold for taxes other than the taxes due on such homestead. [Id.]

Art. 7280. [7638] [5184] [4755] Sales of land.—The tax collector, in making sales for taxes due upon real estate, shall sell at auction, at the time and place appointed, so much of said real estate as may be necessary to pay the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and shall offer said real estate to the bidder, who will pay the taxes and penalties due, and costs of sale and execution of deed, for the least amount of said real estate, who shall be deemed the highest bidder. Should a less amount of said real estate than the whole tract or parcel of said real estate levied upon be sold for the taxes and penalties due and all costs of sale and execution and deed, the collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser begin at some corner of said tract or parcel of land or town lot and designate the same in a square as near as practicable. [Id.]

Art. 7281. [7639] [5185] [4756] Tax deed.—The tax collector shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, upon the payment of the amount for which the estate was sold, and the cost and penalties, a deed for the real estate sold, which deed shall vest a good and perfect title to said land in the purchaser, if not redeemed in two years, as provided by law, which deed shall state the cause of sale, the amount sold, the price for which the real estate was sold, the name of the person, firm, company or corporation on whom the demand for taxes was made, provided the name is known, and if unknown say "unknown," the same description of the land as is given in the tax rolls, and such other description as may be practicable for better identification; and when real estate has been sold, he shall convey, subject to the right of redemption provided for in Article 7283, all the right and interest which the former owner had therein at the time when the assessment was made. [Const., art. 8, sec. 13; Id.]

Art. 7282. [7640] [5186] [4757] Sales reported.—When the collector shall have made sale of any real estate under this chapter, he shall make immediate return of said sale to the commissioners court, stating in said return the land sold, the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown, state the fact, the time of sale, the amount for which said sale was made, together with the name of the purchaser, which return shall be entered of record on the minute books of said court. [Id.]

Art. 7283. [7641] [5187] [4758] Redemption.—The owner of real estate sold for the payment of taxes, or his heirs or assigns or legal representatives, may, within two years from the date of sale redeem the estate sold by paying or tendering to the purchaser, his heirs or legal representatives, double the amount of money paid for the land. [Id.]

Art. 7284. [7643] [5188] Redemption from private purchasers.—Any person having the right to redeem any land sold at a tax sale may do so by payment, within the time prescribed by law, to the tax collector of the county in which the said land was sold, of the amount which the law requires to be paid; provided, that the owner of said land, or his agent, shall first have made affidavit that he has made diligent search in the county where said land is situated for the purchaser thereof at the tax sale, and has failed to find him, or that the purchaser at such tax sale is not a resident of the county in which the land is situated, or that he and the purchaser cannot agree on the amount of redemption money. In such cases only shall the owner or agent be authorized to redeem the same by the payment to the collector of taxes. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 29; G. L. vol. 9, p. 61.]

Art. 7284a. Redemption from district tax sales.—Whenever land is sold under a decree and judgment of Court for taxes levied by or for any district organized under the laws of the State of Texas with authority to levy and collect taxes, the owner of such property, or any one having an interest therein, shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years from the date of such sale upon payment of double the amount paid by the purchaser at such sale; provided, that the purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and his assigns, shall not be entitled to the possession of the property sold for taxes until the expiration of two years from the date of such sale. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 25, ch. 20, § 1; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 195, ch. 69, § 1.]

Art. 7284b. Redemption from state or county tax sales.—Whenever land is sold under a decree and judgment of court for taxes levied by or for the State, or by or for any County within the State, the owner of such property, or any one having an interest therein, shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years from the date of such sale upon payment of double the amount paid by the purchaser at such sale; provided that the purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and his assigns, shall not be entitled to the possession of the property sold for taxes until the expiration of two years from the date of such sale. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 195, ch. 70, § 1.]

Art. 7285. [7644] [5189] Receipt of collector, notice when.—Each tax collector to whom payment is made under the provisions of this chapter shall give a receipt therefor, signed by him officially in the presence of two witnesses; which receipt when duly recorded, shall be notice to all persons that the land therein described has been redeemed; and said collector shall on demand pay over to the purchaser at said tax sale the money thus received by him. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 29; G. L. vol. 9, p. 61.]

Art. 7286. [7645-46] Relief, when.—Any person whose land has been rendered for taxation, whether the same was rendered in the name of the original grantee or not, and has also been placed upon the un-rendered rolls for the same year, shall be entitled to relief upon complying with the requirements herein indicated. If any such lands shall have been sold for the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls, and bought by the State, the owner thereof, his agent or attorney, shall present to the tax collector of the county in which the land is situated an affidavit to the effect that the same land has been rendered for taxation, and placed upon the regular assessment rolls for the year mentioned. Said affidavit shall contain an accurate description of the land and be accompanied with the certificate of the assessor that the same is true and correct; and the tax collector shall thereupon present such person with a written statement, officially signed, that the said tax has been cancelled, and make a note of the same upon the unrendered rolls; provided, the provisions of this article shall apply to all such lands at any time after the collector shall receive the rolls until the same shall have gone into the hands of a private purchaser; and if the owner shall have paid the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls at any time previous, he shall be entitled to the warrant of the Comptroller for the amount so paid in the same manner as is provided in Article 7287 of this chapter, in cases of redemption from individual purchasers. The tax collector shall make no charge whatever for the duties herein mentioned. [Acts 1881, p. 107; G. L. vol. 9, p. 199.]

Art. 7287. [7647] [5192] Certificate of redemption.—When the owner of such lands shall have redeemed the same from a private purchaser, the tax collector shall furnish him a certificate to that effect; and upon presentation of said certificate to the Comptroller, the Comptroller shall issue to him a warrant upon the State Treasury for the amount of such tax. This warrant shall be receivable for all taxes to the State. For issuing the certificate provided for in this article, the tax collector shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents to be paid by the applicant. [Id.]

Art 7288. [7648] [5193] [4759] Lands to be bid in for State.—Should the tax collector fail to make sale of any real estate for want of a purchaser, he shall bid the same off for the State for the taxes and penalties due, and all costs accruing thereon, and execute a deed to the State; and one deed shall include all tracts of land bid off to the State at such tax sale, and make due return thereof, under such forms and directions as the Comptroller may furnish and direct. After sale and purchase by the State of any real estate, it shall not be lawful for said collector to levy upon or advertise or sell the same for any remaining or accrued taxes due thereon until the same shall have been redeemed by the owner or is sold by the State. Said collector shall, on final settlement of his accounts with the commissioners court and the Comptroller, be entitled to a credit for the amount of taxes due the State and county, respectively, for which the lands and lots were bid off to the State. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 36; G. L. vol. 9, p. 68.]

Art. 7289. [7649] [5194] May redeem.—The owner of any lands that may have been conveyed to the State under the provisions of the foregoing article, or his agent, desiring to redeem the same, may do so by depositing with the collector of the county in which the lands were sold double the amount of the purchase money and all accrued taxes thereon, within two years from the date of the deed to the State; and such collector shall execute a receipt to such owner, or agents, giving therein the amount of money received, and a description of the land so as to identify the same, and sign and seal the same officially; and, upon presentation of such receipt to the Comptroller, he shall execute to the owner a relinquishment under his signature and seal of office, which may be admitted to record in like manner with other conveyances of land. [Id.]

Art. 7290. [7650] [5195] If not redeemed.—In case said land shall not have been redeemed as provided in Article 7289, then the same may be sold as provided in Article 7288. [Id.]

Art. 7291. [7651] [5196] May redeem by paying costs.—The owner of real estate which has been bought in by the State for taxes, or his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the Comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon with costs of advertisement; and if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that any land has been sold to the State for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been cancelled; which certificate shall release the interest of the State and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Id.]

Art. 7292. [7652] [5197] Board of inquiry.—Each commissioners court shall, at the regular terms of said courts sit as a court of inquiry in cases where land has been erroneously rendered for taxes; and any land owner whose land has been or may be sold to the State for taxes may appear before said court in person or by proxy and show to the satisfaction of a majority of said court that the taxes for which his lands have been sold have been paid, although the same was rendered in an incorrect abstract number or survey or original grantee; thereupon said court shall issue to said land owner a certificate setting forth fully said facts, which certificate shall be signed officially by the county judge of said county; and, upon presentation of said certificate to the Comptroller, he shall execute and deliver to said land owner a valid deed relinquishing all the right, title and interest the State may have acquired in and to said land by reason of such tax sale. [Acts 1889, p. 31; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1058.]

Art. 7293. [7657] [5209] [4769] Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties.—The taxes upon lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and upon lands situated in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be paid and collected at the office of the Comptroller, under such regulations as he may adopt for that purpose. [Const., art. 8, sec. 12.]

Art. 7294. [7658] [5210] Payment of State moneys.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to the State, and pay the same over to the State Treasurer whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the Comptroller; provided that tax collectors shall have thirty days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 5; G. L. vol. 9, p. 37.]

Art. 7295. [7659] [5211] Payment of other money.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to their respective counties, cities or towns, and pay the same over to the respective county treasurers or city treasurers whenever and as often as they may be directed to do so by the respective county judges, or county commissioners courts or mayor or board of aldermen; provided that tax collectors shall have ten days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Id.]

Art. 7296. [7660] [5212] Notification to pay.—The notification and direction provided for in the two preceding articles may be verbal, written or by telegram; and if written or by telegram, proof of the deposit in the post office or telegraph office of such notification and direction, with postage or charges duly prepaid and correctly addressed, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such notification and direction having been given, and of the time when the same was given. [Id.]

Art. 7297. [7661] [5212a] Duty to sue.—The district or county attorney of the respective counties of this State, by order of the commissioners court, shall institute suit in the name of the State for recovery of all money due the State and county as taxes due and unpaid on unrendered personal property; and in all suits where judgments are obtained under this law, the person owning the property on which there are taxes due the State and county shall be liable for all costs. The State and county shall be exempt from liability for any costs growing out of such action. All suits brought under this article for the recovery of taxes due on personal property shall be brought against the person or persons who owned the property at the time such property should have been listed or assessed for taxation. No suit shall be brought until after demand is made by the collector for taxes due, and no suit shall be brought for an amount less than twenty-five dollars. Such suits may be brought for all taxes so due and unpaid for which such delinquent tax payer may be in arrears for and since the year 1886.

Art. 7298. [7662] Limitation not available.—No delinquent tax payer shall have the right to plead in any court or in any manner rely upon any statute of limitation by way of defense against the payment of any taxes due from him or her either to the State, or any county, city or town. [Acts 1st C. S. 1895, p. 6; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1052.]

Art. 7300. [7664] [5214] Annual list.—On the first day of July of each year, the Comptroller shall cause to be prepared a list of all unrendered lands in each county subject to taxation and not assessed, in which shall be specified the name of the original grantee, the abstract number, the number of acres, the year for which such lands were unrendered, and the rate of State and county taxes for such year. [Id.]

Art. 7301. [7665] [5215] List forwarded.—Upon completion of such lists, the Comptroller shall forward the same to the board of equalization of the respective counties, with the verification that the said list is a true and correct statement of all the unrendered land and real estate in _____ county for the year _____, as shown by the records of his office. [Id.]

Art. 7302. [7666] [5216] Board to value such lands.—Upon receipt of such list or lists by the board of equalization of such county, they shall value each tract of land or parcel of real estate so mentioned and described in the said lists at their true and full value, as near as can be ascertained, for the year it was omitted to have been rendered. [Id.]

Art. 7303. [7667] [5217] Making of rolls.—When the board of equalization completes the valuation, they shall cause to be made out three separate rolls, in such manner as the Comptroller may prescribe; they shall place one in the hands of the tax collector, forward one to the Comptroller, and file one in the office of the county clerk for the inspection of the public. [Id.]

Art. 7304. [7668] [5218] Collector to give notice.—Upon receipt of the rolls by the tax collector, he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in his county, and, if no paper is published in his county, by posting printed circulars in not less than eight public places in his county, for four consecutive weeks, that the rolls for the collection of taxes on unrendered land and real estate have been placed in his hands, and that unless the taxes are paid within sixty days after the date of said notice he will proceed to collect the same as provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7305. [7669] [5219] Collections enforced.—After the expiration of said sixty days, if the taxes on any such lands are not paid, the tax collector shall proceed to enforce the collection of said taxes in the mode provided in this title for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes; and he shall be entitled to the same fees and penalties as are allowed him for the collection of other delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7306. [7670] [5220] List of lands sold to State.—The Comptroller on or before the first day of each year, shall make out and forward to the tax collector of each county a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the State for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale by payment or tender of payment to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the State, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7307. [7671] [5221] Sale.—Each tax collector, within ninety days after receipt of said list, shall call to his aid the county surveyor of his county, and, as near as may be, ascertain if any lands contained in said list do not in fact exist in said county, or are embraced in other surveys conflicting therewith, and upon which the taxes have been paid; and, after deducting the same from said list, he shall proceed to sell each tract of land therein described, whether belonging to residents or nonresidents, for the payment of such sums of money as may be designated on said list as due thereon, together with all costs that may accrue in advertising and selling the same as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 7308. [7672] [5222] Advertisement and redemption.—The tax collector shall, prior to the sale of any real estate that has been previously bid off to the State at tax sales, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same, advertise the real estate to be sold in some newspaper published in the county for six successive weeks, if there be such newspaper published therein, otherwise he shall post advertisements of said sale at the courthouse door and at one public place in each justice's precinct of his county for at least six weeks, giving in said advertisement, whether published or posted, such description of the lands to be sold as shall be given on the Comptroller's list, and stating the time, place and terms of sale, which shall be between legal hours on the first Tuesday of some specified month at the court house door at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash; provided, that no real estate shall in any case be sold for less than the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon, together with all costs of advertisements and sale. The former owner of any such real estate, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the Comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon.

with costs of advertisement. If it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that any land has been sold to the State for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under the seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been canceled, which certificate shall release the interest of the State, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Acts 1884, S. S. p. 31; Id. G. L. vol. 9, p. 563.]

Art. 7309. [7673] [5223] Land sold, how.—At the time and place appointed for said sale, the tax collector shall offer for sale each separate parcel of the real estate advertised, and shall sell the same to the bidder who will offer the largest amount of money therefor. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7310. [7674] [5224] Sale may be continued.—If the sale of the real estate advertised as provided herein shall not be completed on the day it is commenced, said sale may be continued for ten consecutive days, from day to day, by announcement of the tax collector to that effect; and the said collector may, if there be on any day a less number than three bidders present, adjourn said sale to the first Tuesday in the following month. [Id.]

Art. 7311. [7675] [5225] Deed executed.—When a sale has been made of any real estate as herein provided, the tax collector, upon payment of the amount bid for the same, shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for such real estate, specifying in said deed the cause and date of sale, the number of acres sold if the same can be ascertained, the name of the person, firm, corporation or company in whose name the land was assessed, and all such descriptive information as may be necessary to identify the property conveyed; provided, that the purchaser may, after payment, as described in this article, ask a delay of sixty days within which to have said real estate surveyed by the county surveyor, said survey to be made at the expense of the purchaser, and, upon a certificate from the collector directed to the surveyor, that the person named in the certificate has purchased and paid for the same, not to exceed one dollar for each survey, to be paid for out of the sale of such survey. [Id.]

Art. 7312. [7676] [5226] Execution of deed.—When a survey has been made, as provided in the preceding article, and a copy of the field notes, certified to as true and correct by the county surveyor, filed with the tax collector, the said collector shall thereupon make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to said real estate, which deed shall, in addition to the requisite hereinabove named, contain the field notes certified by the county surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 7313. [7677] [5227] Effect of deed.—Deeds made, executed and delivered by tax collectors under the authority of this chapter shall be held to vest a good and perfect title to the real estate therein described in the purchaser, and may be impeached only for fraud; provided, that the former owner shall have two years from the date of said deed to redeem the same by paying to the purchaser double the amount paid for said land by the purchaser at such sale, together with all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser, with eight per cent interest on the amount of such subsequent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7314. [7678] [5228] Report of sales.—Within thirty days after sales made under the provisions of this chapter, the tax collector shall make a report to the commissioners court of his county, and also to the Comptroller, giving in said reports such description of the real estate sold as is given in the Comptroller's list, and stating the amounts due the State, county and collector respectively, and the amount for which said land was sold, and the name of the party to whom each tract was sold. [Id.]

Art. 7315. [7679] [5229] Proceeds of sale.—Tax collectors shall, within sixty days after payments for real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter, after deducting from the proceeds of sale all costs due to them or their predecessors in said office, pay into the county treasury of the county in which said real estate is situated the amount of taxes shown by the Comptroller's list to be due to said county, and the balance of said proceeds shall be paid by him into the State Treasury within the said sixty days, in such manner as may be directed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7316. [7680] [5230] Collections applied.—Taxes collected by the State or county, by sales made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be placed to the credit of the different funds for which originally assessed under the direction respectively of the Comptroller and the commissioners court of the county in which the sale is made; the balance of the proceeds, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs accrued, shall, under the direction of the Comptroller, be placed in the State Treasury, subject to be reclaimed by the owner of the land on proof as required in case of escheated estates. [Acts 1884, S. S. p. 31; G. L. vol. 9, p. 563.]

Art. 7317. [7681] [5231] Costs deducted.—The tax collector shall be entitled to deduct and retain out of the proceeds of sale of each separate parcel of real estate sold, as hereinbefore provided:

1. Such amount as may be designated in the Comptroller's list as costs due thereon to the collector.

2. If the advertisement of sale is published in a newspaper, such a proportion of the actual amount paid for advertising as the number of acres in such separate parcel sold bears to the whole number of acres advertised; or, if the advertisements are posted, the sum of one dollar.

3. Two dollars for every deed made, executed, and delivered under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7318. [7682] [5232] Unsold land reported.—If, after the expiration of ninety days after the receipt by the tax collector of the Comptroller's list, any real estate described in said list shall remain unsold, the said collector shall make separate reports of such fact to the commissioners court of his county and the Comptroller respectively; and the said parcels of real estate shall be embraced in the next list furnished by the Comptroller to the tax collector. [Id.]

Article 7319. [7683] "Real property."—For the purpose of taxation, real property shall include all lands within this State, and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appertaining thereto, except such as are expressly exempted by law. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. vol. 10, pp. 780-1186.]

Art. 7320. [7684] A lien on land.—All lands or lots which have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, for taxes due thereon since the first day of January, 1885, or which may hereafter be returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and said taxes shall remain a lien upon the said land, although the owner be unknown, or though it be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner; and though the ownership be changed, the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year. [Acts 1897, p. 132.]

Art. 7321. [7685] Listed by tax collector.—The commissioners court of each county shall cause to be prepared by the tax collector, at the expense of the county (the compensation for making out the delinquent tax record to be fixed by the commissioners court) a list of all lands, lots or parts of lots sold to the State for taxes since the first day of January, 1885, and which have not been redeemed in their respective counties and unorganized counties attached thereto, and have such lists recorded in books to be called the "Delinquent Tax Record," showing when the lands or lots were reported delinquent or sold to the State for taxes, also the name of the owner at the time of such sale or delinquency, if known, the number of acres, the amount of taxes due when first sold, and the amount of all taxes assessed against the owner thereof and returned delinquent for each year as shown by the records of the tax collector's office; and, in making up the list or lists contemplated by this chapter, corrections and omissions in the description of any real estate embraced in such list or lists shall be made, so that when the corrections are made and the omissions supplied, the description will be such as is given in the abstracts of all the titled and patented lands in the State of Texas, or such as may be furnished by the Land Commissioner, and it shall be required, in bulk assessments, to apportion to each tract or lot of land separately, its pro rata share of the entire tax, penalty and cost. The list for each county, when certified to by the county judge, and the assessment rolls and books on file in the tax collector's office, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers charged with any duty thereunder, as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying of all taxes therein mentioned, and reporting as delinquent or sold to the State any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in case the description of the property in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to properly identify the same, and of which property there is sufficient description in the inventories in the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. This delinquent tax record for each county shall be delivered to and preserved by the county clerk in his office; and the commissioners court shall cause a duplicate of same to be sent to the Comptroller; provided, where the records are incomplete in any county, the Comptroller shall furnish such county with a certified copy of the delinquent list for any year or years. [Id.]

Art. 7322. [7686] Delinquent tax record.—On receipt of such delinquent tax record the county clerk of each of the counties of this State, respectively, shall certify the same to the commissioners court for examination and correction, and he shall thereafter cause the same to be recorded in a book labeled the "Delinquent Tax Record of ——— County." The delinquent tax record shall be arranged numerically as to abstract numbers, and shall be accompanied by an index showing the names of delinquents in alphabetical order. [Id.]

Art. 7323. [7687] Delinquent tax list published.—Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any county in this State the commissioners court may, in their discretion, cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county once each week for three consecutive weeks, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such list may be published in a newspaper outside the county to be designated by the commissioners court, by contract duly entered into, and a publisher's fee of twenty-five cents shall be taxed against each such tract or parcel of land so advertised, which fee, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury; and the commissioners court of said county shall not allow for said publication a greater amount than twenty-five cents for each tract of land so advertised and such publication and any other publication in a newspaper provided for in this chapter may be proved by affidavit of the printer of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication, specifying the times when and the paper in which publication was made. All corrections made in said record under this article shall be noted in the minutes of the commissioners court, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the Comptroller, who shall note the same upon his delinquent tax record. If such delinquent tax record be not published correctly, in accordance with the copy furnished such newspaper, then no compensation shall be allowed for such publication, but failure to so publish such list shall be no defense to a suit for taxes due. [Id. Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 33.]

Art. 7324. Notice to owners of delinquency.—During the months of April and May each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable the collector of taxes in each county of this State shall mail to the address of each record owner of any lands or lots situated in the county a notice showing the amount of taxes delinquent or past due and unpaid against all such lands and lots as shown by the delinquent tax record of the county on file in the office of the tax collector, a duplicate of which shall also have been filed in the office of the Comptroller of the State and approved by such officer, but failure to send or receive such notice shall be no defense to a suit brought for taxes. Such notice shall also contain a brief description of the lands and lots appearing delinquent and the various sums or amounts due against such lands and lots for each year they appear to be delinquent, according to such records, and it shall also recite that unless the owner of such lots or land described therein shall pay to the tax collector the amount of taxes, interest, penalties, and costs set forth in such notice within thirty days from the date of notice, that the county or district attorney will institute suits for the collection of such moneys and for the foreclosure of the constitutional lien against such lands and lots. Each tax collector, as soon after mailing such notice as practicable, shall furnish to the county or district attorney duplicates of all such notices mailed to the tax payers in accordance with the provisions of this law, and also, lists of lands and lots located in the county appearing on the delinquent tax records in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owners," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector is unable by the use of diligence to discover or ascertain, against which taxes are delinquent, past due, and unpaid, and such lists or statements shall show the amount of State and county taxes delinquent, past due, and unpaid against each such tract or lot of land for each year they appear to be delinquent according to the delinquent tax records of the county, and shall likewise contain a brief description of all such lands and lots. The tax collector shall furnish on demand of any person, firm or corporation like statements with reference to any particular lot or tract of land for whatever purpose desired, which shall be in all instances certified by him with the seal of his office attached. Whenever any person, or persons, firm or corporation shall pay to the tax collector all the taxes, interest, penalties and costs shown by the delinquent tax records of the county to be due and unpaid against any tract, lot or parcel of land for all the years for which taxes may be shown to be due and unpaid, prior to the institution of suit for the collection thereof, the tax collector shall issue to such person or persons, firm or corporation, a receipt covering such payment as is now required by law. [Acts 1915, p. 250; Acts 2nd. C. S. 1919, p. 184; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 32.]

Art. 7325. Notice, how made up.—In making up the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article, each tax collector shall rely upon the delinquent tax records compiled as required by law, approved by the commissioners court, and a duplicate of which has been filed in the office of the Comptroller, and which has or may be approved by the Comptroller. The tax collector, whenever there shall be one year or more of back taxes that have not been included in such delinquent tax records, shall prepare or cause to be prepared a supplement to such records which shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the county clerk and one copy thereof to be furnished to the Comptroller subject to his approval; and whenever said supplement shall have been approved by the commissioners court and by the Comptroller, the tax collector shall rely thereon for the data covering delinquent taxes for said years in making out the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article. Said tax collector, in making up said delinquent tax record and supplement, shall examine the records of the district court and county clerk's office of his county, and no tract of land shall be shown delinquent on any delinquent tax record for any year where the records of the district court or the county clerk's office show that the taxes for said year have been paid. It shall be the duty of each tax assessor to enter the post-office address of each and every tax-payer after his name on the tax rolls, and the Comptroller shall provide a column for the entry of such addresses on the sheets furnished the assessors for making up the tax rolls. [Acts 1915, p. 250; Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 33.]

Art. 7326. [7688] Suits to foreclose tax lien.—Whenever any taxes on real estate have become delinquent it shall be the duty of the county attorney upon the expiration of the thirty days notice provided for in the two preceding articles or as soon thereafter as practicable, to file suit in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of the county where such real estate is situated, for the total amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs that have remained unpaid for all years since the thirty-first day of December, 1908, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for the trial thereof at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the payment of the several amounts so specified therein and shown to be due and unpaid by the delinquent tax records of said county; and also that such land be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief as the State may be entitled to under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes as provided in this law shall include all lands in the county where the suit is brought, owned by the same person on which delinquent taxes are due, and shall take precedence over all other suits pending in said district court. If through mistake, oversight or otherwise any tax due on any land owned by the defendant is omitted from such suit, such omission shall not be any defense against the collection of the tax due and sued for. All delinquent tax records of said county in any county where such suit is brought shall be prima facie evidence of the true and correct amount of taxes and costs due by the defendant or defendants in such suit, and the same or certified copies thereof shall be admissible in the trial of such suit as evidence thereof. Such suit shall be brought as an ordinary foreclosure for debt, with averments as to the existence of a lien upon such land for such taxes, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the foreclosure of the said lien and sale of said lands as under ordinary execution. The county attorney, or the attorney employed by the commissioners court, shall sign such petition as attorney for plaintiff. The county tax collector and county tax assessor shall furnish all affidavits, certified copies of the records of their respective offices and such other evidence as may be in their possession by virtue of such office as may be applied for by the proper attorney prosecuting such suit, and shall be allowed a fee of fifty cents for each certified copy furnished upon such application. If the amount of taxes delinquent is not more than five dollars the commissioners court may have such suit for five dollars or less instituted or not as said court may deem to be for the best interests of the county. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 34; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 184.]

Art. 7327. Unknown owner.—In respect to lands and lots appearing on lists furnished by the tax collector to the county or district attorney in accordance with the provisions of this law, as lands and lots located in the county which appear on the delinquent tax record in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owner," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector has been unable, by due diligence to discover or ascertain, the county attorney or in the counties having no county attorney, the district attorney, immediately after the lists of such lands have been furnished him by the collector shall proceed to collect all taxes, penalty, interest and costs then due against the same in the manner prescribed in this chapter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 166.]

Art. 7328. [7689] Proceedings in tax suits.—The proper persons, including all record lien holders, shall be made parties defendant in such suit, and shall be served with process and other proceedings had therein as provided by law in ordinary foreclosure suits in the district courts of this state; and in case of foreclosure an order of sale shall issue and the land sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed, a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in smaller tracts than the whole, together with the description of such smaller tracts, then such officer shall sell the lands in such subdivisions as defendant may request, and in such case shall sell only as many subdivisions, as near as may be, as are necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalty and costs and after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalty and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff to the clerk of the court out of which said execution or other final process issued to be retained by him subject to the order of the court for a period of two years, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time the court may order the same to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed; provided, any one claiming the same shall make proof of his claim to the satisfaction of the State Treasurer within three years after the sale of said land or lots, after which the same shall be governed by the law regulating escheat. If there shall be no bidder for such land the county attorney, sheriff or other officer selling the same, shall bid said property off to the State for the amount of all taxes, penalty, interest and costs adjudged against such property, and the district clerk shall immediately make report of such sale in duplicate, one to the Comptroller and one to the Commissioners' Court, on blanks to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller. Where the property is bid off to the State, the sheriff shall make and execute a deed to the State, using forms to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller, showing in each case, the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs for which sold, and the clerk's fees for recording deeds. He shall cause such deeds to be recorded in the record of deeds by the county clerk in his county, and when so recorded, shall forward the same to the Comptroller. The county clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for recording each such deed to the State, to be taxed as other costs. When land thus sold to the State shall be redeemed the tax collector shall make the proper distribution of the moneys received by him in such redemption, paying to each officer the amount of costs found to be due, and to the State and county the taxes, interest and penalty found to be due each respectively. If any of the land thus sold to the State is not redeemed within the time prescribed by this law, the sheriff shall sell the same at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the principal entrance to the court house in the county wherein the land lies, after giving notice of sale in the manner now prescribed for sale of real estate under execution, provided when notice is given by posting notices, one of the said notices shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the land to be sold. Said notice shall contain a legal description of the land to be sold; the date of its purchase by the State, the price for which the land was sold to the State; that it will be sold at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, date and place of sale. All sales contemplated herein shall be made in the manner prescribed for the sale of real estate under execution, and the sheriff is hereby authorized, and it is hereby made his duty to reject any and all bids for said land when in his judgment the amount bid is insufficient or inadequate, and in event said bid or bids are rejected the land shall be re-advertised and offered for sale as provided for herein, but the acceptance by the sheriff of the bid shall be conclusive and binding on the question of the sufficiency of the bid, and no action shall be sustained in any court of this State to set aside said sale on grounds of the insufficiency of the amount bid and accepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the State, acting through the county attorney of the county wherein the land lies, or its Attorney General, from instituting an action to set aside the said sale on the grounds of fraud or collusion between the officer making the sale and the purchaser. The sheriff shall send the amount received from such sale to the State Treasurer after deducting the amount of the county taxes, interest and penalty of the county tax which he shall pay to the county treasurer. The sheriff, in behalf of the State, shall execute a deed conveying title to said property when sold and paid for. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 35; Acts 3rd C. S., [1923] p. 181; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 260, ch. 99, § 1.]

Art. 7329. Defense to tax suits.—There shall be no defense to a suit for collection of delinquent taxes, as provided for in this chapter except:

1. That the defendant was not the owner of the land at the time the suit was filed.
2. That the taxes sued for have been paid, or
3. That the taxes sued for are in excess of the limit allowed by law, but this defense shall apply only to such excess. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 36.]

Art. 7330. Sheriff to execute deeds.—In all cases in which lands have been sold, or may be sold, for default in the payment of taxes, the sheriff selling the same, or any of his successors in office, shall make a deed or deeds to the purchaser or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this State to vest good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud. [Acts 1895, p. 50; G. L., vol. 10, p. 780; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L., vol. 10, p. 1186.]

Art. 7331. [7691] Fees of tax collector.—For preparing the annual delinquent list of assessments charged to the tax collector upon the tax roll, but which have not been collected at the time of his annual settlement with the State and county, separating the property previously sold to the State from that reported sold as delinquent for preceding years and for prorating the State taxes into State revenue, State school and State pension, calculating the penalty, extending it and adding it in with other taxes, balancing the delinquent lists and certifying it to the commissioners court and the Comptroller, the tax collector shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for each correct assessment of land to be sold, said fee to be taxed as costs against the delinquent. Provided, that in no case shall the State or county be liable for said fee which shall be additional and cumulative of all other fees now allowed by law and shall not be accounted for under the fee bill as fees of office. For checking up and taking off delinquency, separating and assorting various tracts or each assessment, prorating the taxes thereon, arranging the items by abstract numbers or lot and block numbers, and compiling the delinquent tax record herein required to be compiled whenever there shall be as many as two years of back taxes that have not been included in the delinquent record, the tax collector shall be paid out of the general fund of the county, five cents for each written line of the original of such delinquent record, not to exceed twenty-five cents for any one tract or abstract rendered, returned delinquent and owned by one taxpayer; such fee to be taxed as costs, and to be paid back into the general fund of the county when collected. For issuing notices to taxpayers, furnishing copies to the county, district or delinquent tax attorneys, issuing statements in regard to particular tracts of land required by this law, preparing and issuing cancellations, calculating and preparing redemption certificates, and receipts, reporting and crediting redemptions, posting Comptroller redemption numbers on the delinquent record, mailing certificates of redemption to taxpayers after approval by the Comptroller, the tax collector shall receive five per cent of all delinquent taxes collected by him, which, together with five cents per line compensation for compiling the delinquent record as above provided shall be accounted for as fees of office, and shall not be retained by such tax collectors so as to increase the maximum compensation now allowed by law for such respective office. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 182.]

Art. 7332. [7691] Other fees.—The county attorney or district attorney shall represent the State and county in all suits against delinquent taxpayers that are provided for in this law, and all sums collected shall be paid immediately to the county collectors. In all cases the compensation for said attorney shall be five dollars for the first tract in one suit, and one dollar for each additional tract involved in the same suit; provided, that those county attorneys who have or may institute said suits shall be entitled to an equal division with their successors in office of the fees allowed herein on all suits instituted by them where the judgment has not been obtained prior to the vacation of their office. The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for selling and making deed thereto to each purchaser of land that he sells under judgment for taxes; and for executing citation he shall receive the same fees allowed by law for similar services in tax suits. The district clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar and fifty cents in each case to be taxed as costs of suit. The county clerk, for making out and recording the data [date] of each delinquent assessment and for certifying same in the minutes of the commissioners court and for all other services rendered in such suits shall receive the sum of one dollar. Where such suits are brought against delinquents to recover taxes due by them to the State and county, and the said delinquent pays the amount of tax, interest, penalties, and all accrued costs to the county collector during the pendency of such suit, then the county attorney shall receive as compensation therefor two dollars for the first tract and one dollar for each additional tract embraced in said suit; and the district clerk shall receive only one dollar in each case; but these fees shall be paid in lieu of the fees provided for officers where such suits are brought as herein provided. All fees provided for the officers herein mentioned shall be in addition to fees allowed by law to such officers, and shall not be accounted for by said officers as "fees of office." [Id.]

Art. 7333. [7691] Fees taxed as costs.—In each case such fees shall be taxed as costs against the land to be sold under judgment for taxes, and paid out of the proceeds of sale of same after the taxes, penalty and interest due thereon are paid, and in no case shall the State or county be liable therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7334. [7691] "Tract."—The term "tract" shall mean all lands or lots in any survey, addition or subdivision or part thereof owned by the party being sued for delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7335. [7691] Contract with attorney.—Whenever the commissioners court of any county after thirty days written notice to the county attorney or district attorney to file delinquent tax suits and his failure to do so, shall deem it necessary or expedient, said court may contract with any competent attorney to enforce or assist in the enforcement of the collection of any delinquent State and county taxes for a per cent on the taxes, penalty and interest actually collected, and said court is further authorized to pay for an abstract of property assessed or unknown and unrendered from the taxes, interest and penalty to be collected on such lands, but all such payment and expenses shall be contingent upon the collection of such taxes, penalty and interest. It shall be the duty of the county attorney, or of the district attorney, where there is no county attorney, to actively assist any person with whom such contract is made, by filing and pushing to a speedy conclusion all suits for collection of delinquent taxes, under any contract made as herein above specified; provided that where any district or county attorney shall fail or refuse to file and prosecute such suits in good faith, he shall not be entitled to any fees therefrom, but such fees shall nevertheless be collected as a part of the costs of suit and applied on the payment of the compensation allowed the attorney prosecuting the suit, and the attorney with whom such contract has been made is hereby fully empowered and authorized to proceed in such suits without the joinder and assistance of said county or district attorneys. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 37; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 182.]

Art. 7336. [7692] Penalty.—If any person fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law until after the thirty-first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment rolls of the county to the Comptroller, a penalty of ten per cent on the entire amount of such taxes shall accrue, which penalty, when collected, shall be paid proportionately to the State and county; and the collector of taxes shall by virtue of his tax rolls seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with the penalty above provided, interests and all costs accruing thereon. If no personal property be found for seizure and sale as above provided, the collector shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year for which the State and county taxes for the preceding year remain unpaid, make up a list of the lands and lots on which the taxes for such preceding years are delinquent, charging against the same all taxes and penalties assessed against the owner thereof. Said list shall be made in triplicate and shall be presented to the commissioners court for examination and correction of any errors that may appear, and when so examined and corrected by the commissioners court, such lists in triplicate shall be approved by said court, and one copy thereof shall be filed with the county clerk, and one copy retained and preserved by the collector and one copy forwarded to the Comptroller with his annual settlement reports. Such lists as furnished by the tax collector and corrected by the commissioners court, and the rolls or books on file in the collector's office, or either said list or assessment rolls or books, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers of courts charged with any duty thereunder as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying all taxes therein mentioned and reporting as delinquent any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in cases in which the description of the real estate in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to identify the same, and of which property there is a sufficient description in the inventories of the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. [Acts 1895, p. 50; G. L. vol. 10, p. 780; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1186; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 39.]

Art. 7337. [7693] Cities may avail.—Any incorporated city or town or school district shall have the right to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes due it under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1186.]

Art. 7338. [7694] Exemptions from this chapter.—Real estate which may have been rendered for taxes and paid under erroneous description given in assessment rolls, or lands that may have been duly assessed and taxes paid on one assessment, or lands which may have been assessed and taxes paid thereon in a county other than the one in which they are located, or lands which may have been sold to the State and upon which taxes have been paid and through error not credited in the assessment rolls, shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of this chapter. When called upon, the Land Commissioner shall furnish the county judge of any county compiling its own delinquent tax record with such information as may enable him to determine the validity or locality of such surveys and grants as have not been shown by the printed abstracts of the Land Office. [Id.]

Art. 7339. [7695] May redeem before sale.—Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State for taxes due thereon, or any one having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon since January first, 1885, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and all costs and the penalty of ten per cent. [Id.]

Art. 7340. [7696-97] May redeem from State.—Where lands or lots shall hereafter be sold to the State or to any city or town for taxes under decree of court in any suit or suits brought for the collection of taxes thereon or by a collector of taxes, or otherwise, the owner or any one having an interest in such lands or lots shall have the right at any time within two years from the date of sale to redeem the same upon payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs and penalties required by law, and also payment of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs on or against said land or lots at the time of the redemption. [Acts 1897, p. 132, sec. 14; Acts 1905, p. 323; Acts 1907, p. 282; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 400; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 25; Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 58; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 155; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 103.]

Rev. Civ. St. 1911, art. 7696, which is continued in force by decision in Rose v. Turner (Com. App.) 7 S.W.(2d) 70, read as follows: "Where lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, the owner, or anyone having an interest therein, shall have the right to redeem said land, or his interest therein, within two years from the date of said sale upon the payment of double the amount paid for the land."

Art. 7341. [7701] Evidence of title to redeem land.—In all cases where lands in this State have been or may be sold for taxes, and the owner of the land, at the time of such sale, shall desire to redeem the same, under the provisions of the Constitution, or of laws enacted on that subject, it shall be sufficient to entitle such owner to redeem from the purchaser or purchasers thereof for him to have had a paper title to such land, or to have been in possession of such land in person or by tenant, at the time of the institution of the suit under which sale was made, or when such sale was made; and the existence of such facts and conditions shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of ownership to entitle the party so claiming ownership to the right to redeem such land; and he shall not be required to deraign title from the sovereignty, or shall any hiatus or defect in his chain of title defeat the offered redemption. Nothing herein shall be held to limit the right of one offering to redeem to prove ownership otherwise than herein provided, nor prevent any one having the superior title from redeeming such land within two years from the date of the tax sale by paying to the person who has previously redeemed such lands the amounts provided by law. [Acts 1905, p. 118.]

Art. 7342. [7698] Unknown or non-resident.—Whenever the owner or owners of any lands or lots that have been or may be returned delinquent or reported sold to the State for the taxes due thereon for any year or number of years, are non-residents of the State, or the name of the owner or owners of said lands or lots be unknown, then, upon affidavit of the attorney for the State setting out that the owner or owners are non-residents, or that the owner or owners are unknown to the attorney for the State and after inquiry cannot be ascertained, said parties shall be cited and made parties defendant by notice in the name of the State and county, directed to "all persons owning or having or claiming any interest in the following described land delinquent to the State of Texas and county of _____, for taxes, to-wit: (here set out description of the land as contained on the assessment roll and such further description obtainable in the petition)," and further stating "which said land is delinquent for taxes for the following amounts, $_____ for States taxes, and $_____ for county taxes and you are hereby notified that suit has been brought by the State for the collection of said taxes, and you are commanded to appear and defend such suit at the _____ term of the district court of _____ County, and State of Texas, and show cause why judgment shall not be rendered condemning said land (or lot), and ordering sale and foreclosure thereof for said taxes and costs of suit," which notice shall be signed by the clerk and shall be published in some newspaper published in said county one time a week for three consecutive weeks. If there is no newspaper published in the county, then notice may be given by publication in a paper in an adjoining county. A maximum fee of two and one-half cents per line (seven words to count a line) for each insertion may be taxed for publishing said citation. If the publication of such citation cannot be had for such fee, then publication of the citation herein provided may be made by posting a copy at three different places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door. It shall be lawful in all cases to set forth in the petition the names of all parties interested as far as ascertained, and make them parties, and also to join and make defendants all persons having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in the land described in the petition. Such suit, after such publication, shall be proceeded with as in other cases; and whether any party or parties make defense or not on the trial of said case, the State and county shall be entitled to prove the amount of taxes due, and shall have a decree for the sale of said land or lot as in those cases where defendant owners have been personally served and defend suit. A sale of said land or lot shall be had and be as binding as where defendants are personally served with process. In all suits for taxes due, the defendant shall be entitled to credits he can show due him for any year or number of years for which he may be able to produce receipts or other positive proof showing the payment of such taxes. [Acts 1897, p. 138; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1192.]

Art. 7343. [7699] Similar proceedings by cities and independent school districts.—In any incorporated city or town in which any tracts, lots, outlots or blocks of land, situated within the corporate limits of said city or town have been returned delinquent, or reported sold to said city or town for the taxes due thereon, the governing body may prepare or cause to be prepared lists of delinquents in the same manner as provided in this chapter, and such lists shall be certified to as correct by the mayor of said city or town, if any, and if said city or town has no mayor, by the presiding officer of the governing body. After said lists have been properly certified to, the governing body of the city may cause lists of delinquents to be published in a newspaper as provided for State and county delinquent taxes in this law. When twenty days from the date of last publication of said list or lists of delinquents has elapsed, the governing body of the city or town may direct the city attorney to file suits for collection of said taxes, or said governing body may employ some other attorney of the county to file suits and the city attorney or other attorney filing said suits shall be entitled to the same fees as allowed the county attorney or district attorney in suits for collection of State and county taxes, to be taxed as costs in the suit. Independent school districts may collect their delinquent taxes as above provided for cities and towns, the school board performing the duties above described for the governing body of cities, and the president of the school board performing the duties above prescribed for the mayor or other presiding officer. The school board may, when the delinquent tax lists and records are properly prepared and ready for suits to be filed, instruct the county attorney to file said suits. If the school board instructs the county attorney to file said suits and he fails or refuses to do so within sixty days the school board may employ some other attorney of the county to file suit. The county attorney, or other attorney, filing tax suits for independent school districts, shall be entitled to the same fees as provided by law in suits for State and county taxes. No other county officer shall receive any fees unless services are actually performed, and in that event he shall only receive such fees as are now allowed him by law for similar services in civil suits. The employment of an attorney to file suit for taxes for cities, towns or independent school districts shall authorize said attorney to file said suits, swear to the petitions and perform such other acts as are necessary in the collection of said taxes.

All laws of this State for the purpose of collecting delinquent State and county taxes are by this law made available for, and when invoked shall be applied to, the collection of delinquent taxes of cities and towns and independent school districts in so far as such laws are applicable. [Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 48; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 39.]

Art. 7344. [7700] Land platted and numbered.—In counties in which the subdivisions of surveys are not regularly numbered, and in cities or towns in which the blocks or subdivisions are not numbered, or are so irregularly numbered as to make it difficult or impossible for the assessor to list the same, the commissioners court of such counties may have all the blocks and subdivisions of surveys platted and numbered so as to identify each lot or tract, and furnish the assessor with maps showing such numbering; and an assessment of any property by such numbering on said maps shall be sufficient description thereof for all purposes. Such maps or a certified copy of same or any part thereof, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts. The cost of making said survey and plats shall be defrayed by the county in which said property is situated, and of which said commissioners court ordered the said surveys and plat made and the cost of any map of a town or city shall be paid by such city or town when ordered by the town or city. [Acts 1897, p. 139; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1193.]

Art. 7345. Separate payments.—When two or more lots or blocks or tracts of land are rendered in the same rendition with separate valuations, and the taxes due thereon become delinquent the tax collectors shall, when tendered, accept payment of the taxes due on each lot or block or tract of land having such separate valuation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 185.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN IN CERTAIN CASES

- Art.
7346. Property omitted from rolls.
7347. Property listed assessed.
7348. List to operate a lien.
7349. To be advertised.
7350. Assessments reduced.
7351. Bulk assessments validated.
7352. Delinquent tax record published.
7353. Property listed by Comptroller.
7354. List to be posted.
7355. Unrendered lands assessed.
7356. Duty of commissioners' court.
7357. Supplemental tax rolls.
7358. Fees of assessor.
7359. City may use county officers.

Article 7346. [7702] Property omitted from rolls.—Whenever any commissioners court shall discover through notice from the tax collector or otherwise that any real property has been omitted from the tax rolls for any year or years since 1884, or shall find that any previous assessments on any real property for the years mentioned are invalid, or have been declared invalid for any reason by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes on said properties, they may, at any meeting of the court, order a list of such properties to be made in triplicate and fix a compensation therefor; the said list to show a complete description of such properties and for what years such properties were omitted from the tax rolls, or for what years the assessments are found to be invalid and should be canceled and re-assessed, or to have been declared invalid and thereby canceled by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes. No re-assessment of any property shall be held against any innocent purchaser of the same if the tax records of any county fail to show any assessment (for any year so re-assessed) by which said property can be identified and that the taxes are unpaid. The above exception, with the same limitation, shall also apply as to all past judgments of district courts canceling invalid assessments. [Acts 1905, p. 318.]

Art. 7347. [7703] Property listed assessed.—When said list has been so made up the commissioners court may, at any meeting, order a cancellation of such properties in said list that are shown to have been previously assessed, but which assessments are found to be invalid and have not been canceled by any former order of the commissioners court, or by decree of any district court; and shall then refer such list of properties to be assessed or re-assessed to the tax assessor who shall proceed at once to make an assessment of all said properties, from the data given by said list (the certificate of the Comptroller as to assessments or re-assessments made by the tax assessor shall not be necessary a required under Article 7207, but he shall furnish all blank forms needed, that uniformity may be had in all counties), and when completed shall submit the same to the commissioners court, who shall pass upon the valuations fixed by him; and, when approved as to the values, shall cause the taxes to be computed and extended at the tax rate in effect for each separate year mentioned in said list; and, in addition thereto, shall cause to be added a penalty equal in amount to what would be six per cent interest to the date of making said list from the date such properties would have been delinquent had same been properly rendered by the owner thereof at the time and for the years stated in said list; provided, that the certificate of any tax collector given during his term of office that all taxes have been paid to the date of such certificate on any certain piece of property, which is fully described in such certificate, or if the tax rolls of any county fail to show any assessments against such property sufficient to identify it, and that the same was unpaid at the dates such rolls may have been examined to ascertain the condition of any property as to taxes unpaid, this shall be a bar to any re-assessment of such property under this law for any years prior to the date of such certificate, or such examinations; provided, that the property referred to, when re-assessed, shall be held by an innocent purchaser, who has relied upon the correctness of such certificate, or the tax rolls heretofore referred to. [Id.]

Art. 7348. [7704] List to operate a lien.—The said list, when complete in all respects, and filed with the tax collector, shall constitute a valid lien against all the properties mentioned in said list for the full amount of taxes, penalties, officers costs, advertising and six per cent interest from the date of said list to the date of the payment of the full sum due on each separate piece of property. A copy of said list and all cancellation orders shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and a copy filed with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 7349. [7705] To be advertised.—The commissioners court shall proceed to have such list of properties advertised in the manner provided in Article 7323 after which, suit may be filed in the same manner as provided by law for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7350. [7706] Assessments reduced.—In all cases of delinquent taxes of unrendered and unknown property, where there appears to be an assessment of the same at a valuation excessive and unreasonable, the commissioners court shall be authorized to correct or reduce such values on the request of the tax collector with a full statement of the facts in each case; which statement and the action had thereon and the name of each commissioner voting for or against [against] the reduction in valuation asked for shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and a certified copy of the action had thereon shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and, when the values are so corrected or reduced, payment of taxes shall be accepted in accordance with such reduction, to which shall be added interest, penalty, advertising and costs as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7351. [7708] Bulk assessments validated.—In all suits to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, where the assessment of any property for any year is invalidated by reason of the failure of the assessor to comply with the provisions of law for the description of any lot, block or tract of land, or to give a separate value on each lot, block or tract of land, known as "bulk assessments" or to enter upon the lists (similar to that used for the listing of rendered property, to be signed by the owner) all items of property assessed to unknown owners, all such assessments are hereby validated and given the same force and effect as if the descriptions, the separate valuations and the listing were in all respects strictly in compliance with law; provided, as to description, that the descriptions given are sufficient to identify the property, as to separate values, that the valuations and the taxes shown upon the tax rolls (in what are called "bulk assessments") can be fairly prorated to each separate lot, block or tract of land; and, as to listing, that the valuation given on the tax rolls upon properties assessed as unknown are found to have been entered upon the assessor's block book as the original assessment, instead of listing as in rendered assessments, and then entering upon the tax rolls. [Id.]

Art. 7352. [7709] Delinquent tax record published.—The various counties which have not heretofore made and published a delinquent tax record, under provisions of chapter 103, acts of the regular session of the twenty-fifth legislature, are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to make and publish the same to date hereof, and, when so done, it shall have the same force and effect as if made and published under that Act; and any county which has heretofore made a delinquent tax record for any number of years is hereby authorized and empowered to re-compile the same to date hereof, and may compile each year thereafter under the provisions of said act. [Id.]

Art. 7353. [7710] Property listed by Comptroller.—Whenever it shall appear to the Comptroller from an inspection of the tax rolls of any county or otherwise, that any lands in such county subject to taxation have not been assessed for taxation for any year since and including the year 1900, he shall make a list of such lands and send the same to the tax assessor of such county by registered letter, accompanying such list with instructions to such tax assessor to assess such lands for taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed as shown by said list. [Acts 1905, p. 321.]

Art. 7354. [7711] List to be posted.—Upon receipt of such list, the tax assessor shall immediately post a copy of such notice and list at the court house door of his county, noting upon such copy the date of such posting; and the owners of the lands embraced in such list shall have the right, at any time within twenty days of such posting, to render the same to the tax assessor for the taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed for taxes, or for any of such years as shown by such notice, in the same manner as is provided for the rendition of other property for taxes under the provisions of the general laws for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7355. [7712] Unrendered lands assessed.—Should any of the said lands remain unrendered by the owners or owner thereof, under the provisions of the preceding article for any of the years for which the same have not been assessed according to said notice and lists, for twenty days after the date of the posting of such notice, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor, immediately upon expiration of such time, to assess for taxes at their true value such lands so remaining unrendered and unassessed for each of the years since and including the year 1900, and including the year such lists are made up by the Comptroller, listing the same in the name of unknown owners, and charging up to said lands the taxes. State and county, for which they are liable for each of such years, valuing such lands at their true and full value as provided in Article 7174. If any of said lands are lands purchased from the State as belonging to the school fund, the University, or any of the asylums of the State, and held under such contract of purchase upon which a part of the purchase money is still due, such lands being unpatented, no deduction shall be made in the value of said lands for, or on account of, such unpaid purchase money, but they shall be valued at their full and true value as though paid out and patented. [Id.]

Art. 7356. [7713] Duty of commissioners court.—The tax assessor shall make up lists showing such assessments, and deliver the same to the county judge, who shall at once, unless a regular session is held within ten days thereafter, call a meeting of the commissioners court in special session, as a board of equalization for the purpose of passing upon said assessment lists in the manner provided in case of regular assessments in so far as the provisions of the statute with regard thereto are applicable. The commissioners court without delay shall act upon said supplemented assessment lists, as to the value of the property embraced, and, when said values have been equalized as required by law, approve [approve] the same, and approve the rolls made up by the tax assessor in accordance therewith; provided, that the commissioners court shall have no authority to alter said assessment lists, or in any way interfere with such assessments, except as to the values of property embraced therein, in equalizing the same as provided by law, and to strike therefrom any lands that have been already assessed for taxes at their true market value for the years for which they are assessed on said supplemental rolls and such taxes paid. [Id.]

Art. 7357. [7714] Supplemental tax rolls.—After such supplemental assessment lists have been passed upon by the board of equalization as herein provided, supplemental tax rolls shall be prepared by the tax assessor and approved by the commissioners court as is required by law in case of the regular assessment for taxes; and thereafter the taxes due according to such supplemental rolls shall be collected as in case of other taxes, and, if not paid, such proceedings shall be had for their collection as in case of other taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7358. [7715] Fees of assessor.—For making the supplemental assessments provided herein, the tax assessor shall be entitled to the same fees to be paid in the same manner as is provided by law in case of regular assessments. [Id.]

Art. 7359. City may use county officers.—Any incorporated city, town or village in this State is hereby authorized by ordinance to authorize the county tax assessor and county tax collector of the county in which said city, town or village is situated, to act as tax assessor and tax collector respectively for said city, town or village. The property in said city, town or village utilizing such county assessor and collector shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and State purposes. When an ordinance is so passed making available their services, said assessor shall assess the taxes for said city, town or village and perform the duties of tax assessor for said city, town or village according to the ordinances of said city, town or village and according to law; and said collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for said city, town or village and turn over as soon as collected to the city depository of said city or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or money so collected, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said city, town or village according to the ordinances thereof and according to law, deducting from the taxes so collected his fees provided for herein; and they shall respectively receive for such services one per cent of the taxes so collected. [Acts 1921, p. 128.]

TIMBER

Art.
7360. Log brands.
7361. To be recorded.
7362. Written report to be filed.
7363. Evidence of ownership.

Article 7360. [7727] [5244] Log brands.—Whoever engages in floating or rafting timber upon the waters of any river or creek of this State shall have a log brand with which to brand every log or stick that he may float or haul and put into the waters for sale or market, the same to be distinctly branded. [Acts 1879, p. 81, sec. 1; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1381.]

Art. 7361. [7728] [5245] To be recorded.—He shall have said brand recorded in every county in which he cuts any of said timber, and in the county where he proposes to sell or market said timber, by the county clerk, in a book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose, for which said clerk shall receive a fee the same as is by law allowed for recording stock brands. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7362. [7729] [5246] Written report to be filed.—Any person who floats any logs or timber in this State shall, on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of September, and on the first day of January of each year, or within fifteen days of said dates, make a written report under oath showing the number of logs cut or floated during the next preceding three months, the survey or surveys of land from which they were cut or carried, and the number cut from each and a description of the brand placed thereon, and shall file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the timber was cut; and such clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and index it, and receive therefor the sum of fifty cents from the party presenting the same. This law shall not apply to pickets, posts, rails or firewood. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7363. [7730] [5247] Evidence of ownership.—A certificate under the hand of the county clerk, containing a description of a log brand and the name of the owner thereof, with a transfer on the back of it signed and acknowledged by such owner, or proved as other instruments for record, shall be prima facie evidence that the person to whom transfer is made owns the logs described thereon. [Id. sec. 4.]

1. THE PLEADINGS AND PRACTICE

Article 7364. [7731] [5248] [4784] Method of trying titles.—All fictitious proceedings in the action of ejectment are abolished. The method of trying titles to lands, tenements or other real property shall be by action of trespass to try title. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; G. L. vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7365. [7732] [5249] [4785] Rules in other cases observed.—The trial shall be conducted according to the rules of pleading, practice and evidence in other cases in the district court, and conformably to the principles of trial by ejectment, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. [Id.]

Art. 7366. [7733] [5250] [4786] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall state:

1. The real names of the plaintiff and defendant and their residence, if known.
2. It shall describe the premises by metes and bounds, or with sufficient certainty to identify the same, so that from such description possession thereof may be delivered, and state the county or counties in which the same are situated.
3. The interest which the plaintiff claims in the premises, whether it be a fee simple or other estate; and, if he claims an undivided interest, he shall state the same and the amount thereof.
4. That he was in possession of the premises or entitled to such possession.
5. That the defendant afterward unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed him of such premises, stating the date, and withholds from him the possession thereof.
6. If rents and profits or damages are claimed, such facts as show the plaintiff to be entitled thereto and the amount thereof.
7. It shall conclude with a prayer for the relief sought. [Id. P. D. 5292.]

Art. 7367. [7734] [5251] [4787] Indorsement on petition.—The plaintiff shall indorse on his petition that the action is brought as well to try title as for damages. [Id. P. D. 5294.]

Art. 7368. [7735] [5252] [4788] Warrantor, etc., may be made a party.—When a party is sued for lands, the real owner or warrantor may make himself, or may be made, a party defendant in the suit, and shall be entitled to make such defense as if he had been the original defendant in the action.

Art. 7369. [7736] [5253] [4789] Landlord may become defendant.—When such action shall be commenced against a tenant in possession, the landlord may enter himself as the defendant, or he may be made a party on motion of such tenant; and he shall be entitled to make the same defense as if the suit had been originally commenced against him. [Id. P. D. 5296.]

Art. 7370. [7737] [5254] [4790] The possessor shall be defendant.—The defendant in the action shall be the person in possession if the premises are occupied, or some person claiming title thereto in case they are unoccupied.

Art. 7371. [7738] [5255] May join as defendants, whom.—The plaintiff may join as a defendant with the person in possession, any other person who, as landlord, remainderman, reversioner or otherwise, may claim title to the premises, or any part thereof, adversely to the plaintiff.

Art. 7372. [7739] [5256] May file plea of "not guilty" only.—The defendant in such action may file only the plea of "not guilty," which shall state in substance that he is not guilty of the injury complained of in the petition filed by the plaintiff against him, except that if he claims an allowance for improvements, he shall state the facts entitling him to the same. [Acts 1844, p. 70; P. D. 5307; G. L. vol. 2, p. 982.]

Art. 7373. [7740] [5257] Proof under such plea.—Under such plea of "not guilty" the defendant may give in evidence any lawful defense to the action except the defense of limitation, which shall be specially pleaded. [Id.]

Art. 7374. [7741] [5258] Answer taken as admitting possession.—Such plea or any other answer to the merits shall be an admission by the defendant, for the purpose of that action, that he was in possession of the premises sued for, or that he claimed title thereto at the time of commencing the action, unless he states distinctly in his answer the extent of his possession or claim, in which case it shall be an admission to such extent only. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5297; G. L. vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7375. [7742] [5259] What is sufficient title.—All certificates for head-right, land scrip, bounty warrant, or any other evidence of right to land recognized by the laws of this State, which have been located and surveyed, shall be deemed and held as sufficient title to authorize the maintenance of the action of trespass to try title.

Art. 7376. [7743] [5260] May demand abstract of title.—After answer filed, either party may, by notice in writing, duly served on the opposite party or his attorney of record, not less than ten days before the trial of the cause, demand an abstract in writing of the claim or title to the premises in question upon which he relies.

Art. 7377. [7744] [5261] Time to file abstract.—Such abstract of title shall be filed with the papers of the cause within twenty days after the service of the notice, or within such further time as the court on good cause shown may grant; and, in default thereof, no evidence of the claim or title of such opposite party shall be given on trial.

Art. 7378. [7745] [5262] Abstract shall state what.—The abstract mentioned in the two preceding articles shall state:

1. The nature of each document or written instrument intended to be used as evidence and its date; or
2. If a contract or conveyance, its date, the parties thereto and the date of the proof of acknowledgment, and before what officer the same was made; and,
3. Where recorded, stating the book and page of the record.
4. If not recorded in the county when the trial is had, copies of such instrument, with the names of the subscribing witnesses, shall be included.

If such unrecorded instrument be lost or destroyed, it shall be sufficient to state the nature of such instrument and its loss or destruction.

Art. 7379. [7746] [5263] Amended abstract.—The court may allow either party to file an amended abstract of title, under the same rules, which authorize the amendment of pleadings so far as they are applicable; but in all cases the documentary evidence of title shall at the trial be confined to the matters contained in the abstract of title.

Art. 7380. [7747] [5264] Surveyor appointed, etc.—The judge of the court may, either in term time or in vacation, at his own discretion, or on motion of either party to the action, appoint a surveyor, who shall survey the premises in controversy pursuant to the order of the court, and report his action under oath to such court. If said report be not rejected for good cause shown, the same shall be admitted as evidence on the trial. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5294; G. L. vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7381. [7748] [5265] Survey unnecessary when.—Where there is no dispute as to the lines or boundaries of the land in controversy, or where the defendant admits that he is in possession of the lands or tenements included in the plaintiff's claim or title, an order of survey shall be unnecessary. [Id. P. D. 5308.]

Art. 7382. [7749] [5266] Common source of title.—It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to deraign title beyond a common source. Proof of a common source may be made by the plaintiff by certified copies of the deeds showing a chain of title to the defendant emanating from and under such common source. Before any such certified copies shall be read in evidence, they shall be filed with the papers of the suit three days before the trial, and the adverse party served with notice of such filing as in other cases. Such certified copies shall not be evidence of title in the defendant unless offered in evidence by him. The plaintiff may make any legal objection to such certified copies, or the originals thereof, when introduced by the defendant. [Acts 1871, S. S. p. 3; P. D. 6829; G. L. vol. 7, p. 5.]

Art. 7383. [7750] [5267] Judgment by default.—If the defendant, who has been personally served with citation according to law, fails to appear and answer by himself or attorney within the time prescribed by law for other actions in the district court, the proper judgment by default may be entered against him and in favor of the plaintiff for the title to the premises, or the possession thereof, or for both, according to the petition, and for all costs, without any proof of title by the plaintiff.

Art. 7384. [7751] [5268] Proof ex parte.—If the defendant has been cited only by publication, and fails to appear and answer by himself, or by attorney of his own selection, or if any defendant, having answered, fails to appear by himself or attorney when the case is called for trial on its merits, the plaintiff shall make such proof as will entitle him prima facie to recover, whereupon the proper judgment shall be entered.

Art. 7385. [7752] [5269] When defendant claims part only.—Where the defendant claims part of the premises only, the answer shall be equivalent to a disclaimer of the balance.

Art. 7386. [7753] [5270] When plaintiff proves part.—Where the defendant claims the whole premises, and the plaintiff shows himself entitled to recover part, the plaintiff shall recover such part and costs.

Art. 7387. [7754] [5271] May recover a part.—When there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, any one or more of the plaintiffs may recover against one or more of the defendants the premises, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or damages, according to the rights of the parties.

Art. 7388. [7755] [5272] The judgment.—Upon the finding of the jury, or of the court where the case is tried by the court, in favor of the plaintiff for the whole or any part of the premises in controversy, the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the title or possession, or both, as the case may be, of such premises, describing them, and where he recovers the possession, that he have his writ of possession.

Art. 7389. [7756] [5273] Damages.—Where it is alleged and proved that one of the parties is in possession of the premises, the court or jury, if they find for the adverse party, shall assess the damages for the use and occupation of the premises. If special injury to the property be alleged and proved, the damages for such injury shall also be assessed, and the proper judgment shall be entered therefor, on which execution may issue; but damages shall not be assessed under this article for use and occupation or for injuries done over two years prior to the commencement of the suit. [Acts 1871, S. S., p. 3; G. L. vol. 7, p. 5.]

Art. 7390. [7757] [5274] Claim for improvements.—When the defendant or person in possession has claimed an allowance for improvements in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding subdivision, the claim for use and occupation and damages mentioned in the preceding article shall be considered and acted on in connection with such claim by the defendant or person in possession.

Art. 7391. [7758] [5275] Final judgment conclusive.—Any final judgment rendered in any action for the recovery of real estate shall be conclusive as to the title or right of possession established in such action upon the party against whom it is recovered, and upon all persons claiming from, through or under such party, by title arising after the commencement of such action.

Art. 7392. [7759] [5276] Former laws shall govern, when.—Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to alter, impair or take away the rights of parties, as arising under the laws in force before the introduction of the common law, but the same shall be decided by the principles of the law under which the same accrued, or by which the same were regulated or in any manner affected. [Acts 1871, S. S. p. 3; G. L. vol. 7, p. 5.]

2. CLAIM FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Art. 7393. [7760] [5277] Claim of improvements.—The defendant in any action of trespass to try title may allege in his pleadings that he and those under whom he claims have had adverse possession in good faith of the premises in controversy for at least one year next before the commencement of such suit, and that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements on the lands sued for during the time they have had such possession, stating the improvements and their value respectively, and stating also the grounds of such claim. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; G. L. vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7394. [7761] [5278] Issue as to.—Where the defendant has filed his claim for an allowance for improvements in accordance with the preceding article, if the court or jury find that he is not the rightful owner of the premises sued for, but that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements thereon, being possessors thereof in good faith, the court or jury shall at the same time estimate from the testimony:

1. The value at the time of trial of such improvements as were so made before the filing of the suit not exceeding the amount to which the value of the premises is actually increased thereby.

2. The value of the use and occupation of the premises during the time the defendant was in possession thereof (exclusive of the improvements thereon made by himself or those under whom he claims), and also, if authorized by the pleadings, the damages for waste or other injury to the premises committed by him, not computing such annual value for a longer time than two years before suit, nor damages for waste or injury done before said two years.

3. The value of the premises recovered without the improvements made as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 7395. [7762] [5279] Rents and profits as offset.—If the sum estimated for the improvements exceeds the damages estimated against the defendant and the value of the use and occupation as aforesaid, there shall then be estimated against him, if authorized by the testimony, the value of the use and occupation and the damages for injury done by him or those under whom he claims, for any time before the said two years, so far as may be necessary to balance the claim for improvements, but no further; and he shall not be liable for the excess, if any, beyond the value of the improvements.

Art. 7396. [7763] [5280] Judgment for excess.—If it shall appear from the finding of the court or jury under the two preceding articles that the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages exceed the estimated value of the improvements, judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff for the excess and costs in addition to a judgment for the premises; but should the estimated value of the improvements exceed the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages, judgment shall be entered for the defendant for the excess.

Art. 7397. [7764] [5281] Writ of possession.—In any action of trespass to try title, when the lands or tenements have been adjudged to the plaintiff, and the estimated value of the improvements in excess of the value of the use and occupation and damages has been adjudged to the defendant, no writ of possession shall be issued for the term of one year after the date of the judgment, unless the plaintiff shall pay to the clerk of the court for the defendant the amount of such judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5301; G. L. vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7398. [7765] [5282] Failure of plaintiff to pay.—If the plaintiff shall neglect for the term of one year to pay the amount of said judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon as directed in the preceding article, and the defendant shall within six months after the expiration of said year, pay to the clerk of the court for the plaintiff the value of the lands or tenements, without regard to the improvements as estimated by the court or jury, then the plaintiff shall be forever barred of his writ of possession, and from ever having or maintaining any action whatever against the defendant, his heirs or assigns, for the lands or tenements recovered by such suit.

Art. 7399. [7766] [5283] Defendant failing to pay.—If the defendant or his legal representatives shall not, within six months aforesaid, pay to the clerk for the plaintiff the estimated value of the lands or tenements, as directed in the preceding article, then the plaintiff may sue out his writ of possession as in ordinary cases.

Art. 7400. [7767] [5284] Judgment.—The judgment shall recite the estimated value of the premises without the improvements, and shall also include the conditions, stipulations and directions contained in the three preceding articles, so far as applicable to the case before the court.

Art. 7401. [7768] [5285] Duty of the clerk.—If payment is made to the clerk of the court by the plaintiff or defendant, as provided in the preceding articles, such clerk shall enter a memorandum of such payment, with the date thereof, on the page of the record on which the judgment was entered; and he shall, on demand, pay the money to the party entitled, taking his receipt therefor, dated and signed on the page of the record aforesaid.

TITLE 125

TRIAL OF RIGHT OF PROPERTY

- Art.
7402. Claimant must make affidavit.
7403. Bond.
7404. Condition of bond.
7405. Property delivered to claimant.
7406. Return of oath and bond.
7407. Out-county levy.
7408. Return of original writ.
7409. Jurisdiction.
7410. Docketing cause.
7411. Issue to be made up.
7412. Requisites of issue.
7413. Judgment by default.
7414. Judgment of nonsuit.
7415. Proceedings.
7416. Burden of proof.
7417. Damages.
7418. If value of property exceeds judgment.
7419. Copy of writ evidence.
7420. Failure to establish title.
7421. Execution shall issue.
7422. Time of execution.
7423. Return of property by claimant.
7424. Claim is a release of damages.
7425. Levy on other property.

Article 7402. [7769] [5286] [4822] Claimant must make affidavit.—Whenever a writ of execution, sequestration, attachment or other like writ is levied upon personal property, and such property, or any part thereof, shall be claimed by any person who is not a party to such writ, such person or his agent or attorney may make affidavit that such claim is made in good faith, and present such affidavit to the officer who made such levy. [Acts 1848, p. 140; P. D. 5310; G. L. vol. 3, p. 140.]

Art. 7403. [7770] [5287] [4823] Bond.—He shall also execute and deliver to the officer who made such levy, his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, payable to the plaintiff in such writ, for an amount equal to double the value of the property so claimed, to be assessed by such officer. When more than one writ has been levied, the bond may be made payable to all the plaintiffs in the several writs levied. Said bond shall inure to the benefit of all the plaintiffs in the several writs according to their respective priorities in time of levy. Upon the approval of such bond and delivery of the property to the claimant, the same shall be deemed in custodia legis, and shall not be taken out of his possession by any other like writ or writs; but said writs may be levied on the same by giving notice to the claimant; and in such cases the claimant's bond shall also inure to the benefit of the several plaintiffs in such writs according to their respective priorities. [Acts 1887, p. 104; G. L. vol. 9, p. 902.]

Art. 7404. [7771] [5288] [4824] Condition of bond.—The bond shall be conditioned that the party making such claim in case he fails to establish his right to such property, shall return the same to the officer making the levy, or his successor, in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase and fruits thereof from the date of said bond, or, in case he fails so to return said property and pay for the use of the same, that he shall pay the plaintiff the value of said property, with legal interest thereon from the date of the bond, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

Art. 7405. [7772] [5289] [4825] Property delivered to claimant.—The officer receiving such oath and bond shall deliver the property so claimed to the person so claiming it. [Id.]

Art. 7406. [7773] [5290] [4826] Return of oath and bond.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall duly make the oath and give the bond, if the writ under which the levy was made was issued by a justice of the peace or a court of the county where such levy was made, the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on the writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, and by whom; and shall also indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath to the proper court having jurisdiction to try such claim. [Id.]

Art. 7407. [7776] [5293] [4829] Out-county levy.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond as provided for herein, if the writ under which such levy was made was issued by a justice of the peace or a court of another county than that in which such levy was made, then the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath with a copy of the writ, to the justice or court of the county in which such levy was made having jurisdiction according to the value of the property as assessed by said officer.

Art. 7408. [7777] [5294] [4830] Return of original writ.—The officer taking such bond shall also indorse on the original writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, the names of the sureties and to what justice or court the bond has been returned; and he shall forthwith return such original writ to the tribunal from which it issued.

Art. 7409. [7778] [5295] [4831] Jurisdiction.—Cases arising under this chapter shall be tried in courts having jurisdiction of the amount involved. [Const. art. 5, secs. 8, 16, 19.]

Art. 7410. [7779] [5296] [4832] Docketing cause.—Whenever any oath and bond for the trial of the right of property shall be returned, the clerk of the court, or such justice of the peace, shall docket the same in the name of the plaintiff in the writ as the plaintiff, and the claimant of the property as defendant. [Acts 1848, p. 140; P. D. 5312; G. L. vol. 3, p. 140.]

Art. 7411. [7780] [5297] [4833] Issue to be made up.—At the first term of the court thereafter, if both parties appear, the court or justice shall direct a written issue to be made up between the parties and tried as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7412. [7781] [5298] [4834] Requisites of issue.—Said issue shall consist of a brief statement of the authority and right by which the plaintiff seeks to subject the property levied on to his execution, and of the nature of the claim of the defendant thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7413. [7782] [5299] [4835] Judgment by default.—If the plaintiff appears and the defendant fails to appear or neglects or refuses to join issue under the direction of the court or justice within the time prescribed for pleading, the plaintiff shall have judgment by default. [Id.]

Art. 7414. [7783] [5300] [4836] Judgment of non-suit.—If the plaintiff does not appear at the first term, the case shall be continued to the next term, when, if he appears, the like proceedings may be had as at the first term; but if he does not then appear on or before the appearance day of the third term, he shall be non-suited. [Id.]

Art. 7415. [7784] [5301] [4837] Proceedings.—The proceedings and practice on the trial shall be as nearly as may be the same as in other cases before such court or justice.

Art. 7416. [7785-7786] Burden of proof.—If the property was taken from the possession of the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. If it was taken from the possession of the defendant in such writ, or any other person than the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the claimant. [Id.]

Art. 7417. [7787] [5304] [4840] Damages.—In all trials of the right of property under the provisions of this title, if the claimant shall fail to establish his right to the property, the court or justice trying the same shall give judgment against all the obligors in the claimant's bond for ten per cent damages on the value of the property. [P. D. 5314.]

Art. 7418. [7788] [5305] [4841] If value of property exceeds judgment.—When such value is greater than the amount claimed under the writ, by virtue of which such property was levied upon, the damages shall be on the amount claimed under said writ. [Id.]

Art. 7419. [7789] [5306] [4842] Copy of writ evidence.—In all trials of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, in any county other than that in which the writ issued under which the levy was made, the copy of the writ herein required to be returned by the officer making the levy shall be received in evidence in like manner as the original could be.

Art. 7420. [7790] [5307] [4843] Failure to establish title.—Where any claimant of property shall fail to establish his right thereto judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, with legal interest thereon from the date of such bond. Such judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the writ, or of the several plaintiffs, if more than one, and shall fix the amount of each plaintiff's claim. [Acts 1887, p. 104; G. L. vol. 9, p. 902.]

Art. 7421. [7791] [5308] Execution shall issue.—If such judgment should not be satisfied by a return of the property, then execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff for the amount of his claim, or of all the plaintiffs for the sum of their several claims, provided the amount of such judgment exceeds such claim or sum. In such cases the excess of such judgment shall inure to the benefit of any person who shall show superior right or title to the property claimed as against the claimant; but if such judgment be for a less amount than the sum of the several plaintiffs' claims, then the respective rights and priorities of the several plaintiffs shall be fixed and adjusted in the judgment. [Id.]

Art. 7422. [7792] [5309] [4844] Time of execution.—No execution shall issue for ten days on such judgment.

Art. 7423. [7793] [5310] [4845] Return of property by claimant.—If, within ten days from the rendition of said judgment, the claimant shall return such property in as good condition as he received it, and pay for the use of the same together with the damages and costs, such delivery and payment shall operate as a satisfaction of such judgment.

Art. 7424. [7794] [5311] [4846] Claim is a release of damages.—A claim made to property, under the provisions of this chapter, shall operate as a release of all damages by the claimant against the officer who levied upon said property.

Art. 7425. [7795] [5312] [4847] Levy on other property.—Proceedings for the trial of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, shall in no case prevent the plaintiff in the writ from having a levy made upon any other property of the defendant. [P. D. 5318.]

TRUSTEES

Art.

7425a. Conveyance by trustees.

7425b. Payment of money to trustees.

Article 7425a. Conveyance by trustees.—Where a trust is created, but is not contained or declared in the conveyance to the trustee, or when a conveyance or transfer is made to a trustee without disclosing the names of the beneficiary, or beneficiaries, the trustee shall be held to have the power to convey or transfer or encumber the title and whenever he shall execute and deliver a conveyance or transfer or encumbrance of such property, as trustee, such conveyance or transfer or encumbrance shall not thereafter be questioned by any one claiming as a beneficiary under such trust or by any one claiming by, through, or under an undisclosed beneficiary, provided that none of the trust property in the hands of said trustee shall be liable for personal obligations of said trustee. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 120, p. 305, § 1.]

Art. 7425b. Payment of money to trustees.—Whenever one shall actually and in good faith pay a sum of money to a trustee, which the trustee is authorized to receive, he shall not be responsible for the proper application of the money, according to the trust; and any right or title derived from the trustee in consideration of such payment shall not be impeached or called in question in consequence of a misapplication by the trustee of the money so paid. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 120, p. 305, § 2.]

1. DEFINITIONS, FORFEITURES AND OTHER PROVISIONS

Article 7426. [7796] "Trusts."—A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, or either two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create, or which may tend to create, or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce or aids to commerce or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or to create or carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of any business authorized or permitted by laws of this State.

2. To fix, maintain, increase or reduce the price of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the cost of insurance, or of the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

3. To prevent or lessen competition in the manufacture, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the business of insurance, or to prevent or lessen competition in aids to commerce, or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

4. To fix or maintain any standard or figure whereby the price of any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce, or the cost of transportation, or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, shall be in any manner affected, controlled or established.

5. To make, enter into, maintain, execute or carry out any contract, obligation or agreement by which the parties thereto bind, or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of, transport or to prepare for market or transportation any article or commodity, or to make any contract of insurance at a price below a common standard or figure or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article or commodity or charge for transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation at a fixed or graded figure, or by which they shall in any manner affect or maintain the price of any commodity or article or the cost of transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation between them or themselves and others, to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or business of transportation or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or unite any interest they may have in connection with the sale or purchase of any article or commodity, or charge for transportation or insurance or charge for the preparation of any product for market or transportation whereby its price or such charge might be in any manner affected.

6. To regulate, fix or limit the output of any article or commodity which may be manufactured, mined, produced or sold, or the amount of insurance which may be undertaken, or the amount of work that may be done in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

7. To abstain from engaging in or continuing business, or from the purchase or sale of merchandise, produce or commodities partially or entirely within the State of Texas, or any portion thereof. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7427. [7797] "Monopoly" defined.—A monopoly is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations when effected in either of the following methods:

1. When the direction of the affairs of two or more corporations is in any manner brought under the same management or control for the purpose of producing, or where such common management or control tends to create a trust as defined in the first article of this chapter.

2. Where any corporation acquires the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights, or the physical properties or any part thereof, of any other corporation or corporations, for the purpose of preventing or lessening, or where the effect of such acquisition tends to affect or lessen competition, whether such acquisition is accomplished directly or through the instrumentality of trustees or otherwise. [Id.]

Art. 7428. [7798] Conspiracies against trade.—Either or any of the following acts shall constitute a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

1. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, who are engaged in buying or selling any article of merchandise, produce or any commodity enter into an agreement or understanding to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, any article of merchandise, produce or commodity.

2. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, shall agree to boycott or threaten to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons for buying from or selling to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons. [Id.]

Art. 7429. [7799] Acts illegal.—Any and all trusts, monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade, as herein defined, are prohibited and declared to be illegal. [Id.]

Art. 7429a. Endless chain schemes or plans.—Sec. 1. That for the purpose of this Act the term "Endless Chain" shall be construed to mean and include any plan or scheme wherein any person, firm or corporation, sells, transfers, assigns, or issues to any person any right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract, or other token, and wherein the purchaser, transferee or assignee thereof or the person to whom the same is issued undertakes or is required or is permitted to undertake for himself, or as the agent, representative, or attorney of any person, firm or corporation, to sell, transfer, assign, or issue to another any right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract or other token which may under certain conditions entitle the purchaser or recipient thereof to any right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract, or other token and wherein the purchasers, transferees or assignees thereof from the original purchasers, assignees, or transferees, or from subsequent purchasers, assignees, or transferees, are also given as a consideration for their entry into or participation in such plan or scheme and their purchase or receipt of such right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract or other token, the right, privilege or obligation of making further sales, assignments, or transfers of any right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract or other token.

Each person, firm or corporation carrying on and conducting any system of merchandising by means of an endless chain, as herein defined, as a principal, shall be known for the purpose of this Act as a dealer.

Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the sale, transfer, issuing or assignment of any right, property, ticket, coupon, certificate, contract, or other token in connection with any system of merchandising by means of an endless chain, as herein defined, otherwise than as a principal, shall be known for the purposes of this Act as an agent.

Sec. 2. That it shall be unlawful for any dealer, or agent to operate, conduct or carry on, or to cause to be operated, conducted, or carried on in the State of Texas any system of merchandising by means of an endless chain, as herein defined, without having first obtained from the county tax collector of the county in which such business is to be conducted a license authorizing said dealer or agent to engage in such business.

Sec. 3. That it shall be unlawful for any agent, as defined by this Act, to sell or offer for sale or to solicit or canvass in connection with any endless chain, without having first applied to and obtained from the county tax collector of the county in which he proposes to engage in the endless chain business, a license authorizing him to pursue such business.

Sec. 4. That each dealer or agent, as herein defined, shall pay in advance to the county tax collector of the county in which he proposes to engage in the endless chain business, an annual occupation tax of $25.00, and it shall be unlawful for said dealer or agent to engage in such business prior to paying said tax. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 324, ch. 220.]

Art. 7430. [7800] Charters forfeited.—The charter of any corporation chartered under the laws of this State, adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this subdivision may be forfeited at the request of the Attorney General, if in the judgment of the court before whom the litigation is pending, the public interest requires it, provided, the forfeiture of the charter shall be in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7431. [7801] Quo warranto proceedings.—For a violation of any provision of this subdivision or any anti-trust laws of this State, by any corporation, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, when in his judgment the public interest requires it, upon his motion and without leave or order of any judge or court, to institute suit, or quo-warranto proceedings in Travis County, or at the county seat of any county in the State which the Attorney General may select, for the forfeiture of its charter rights and privileges, and the dissolution of its corporate existence, and for such purpose venue is hereby given to each district court in the State of Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1909, p. 251; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7432. [7802] Successors are prohibited from doing business.—When a corporation organized under the laws of this State shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of this subdivision and its charter and franchise has been forfeited, no other corporation to which the defaulting corporation may have transferred its properties and business, or which has assumed the payment of its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7433. [7803] Foreign corporations.—When any foreign corporation is adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this subdivision or any anti-trust law of this State, the Attorney General may bring suit in the district court of Travis County for the purpose of enjoining and forever prohibiting such corporation from doing business in this State, and if in the judgment of the court the public interest requires it, the injunction shall be granted, provided the denial of the right to do business in this State to any foreign corporation adjudged guilty of violating the anti-trust laws shall be in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7434. [7804] Quo-warranto proceedings.—The laws governing quo-warranto, shall, except in so far as they conflict herewith, govern and control the proceedings when instituted to forfeit any charter under this title. [Id.]

Art. 7435. [7805] Rights of convicted foreign corporations.—When any foreign corporation has been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this subdivision and its right to do business in this State has been forfeited, as provided in the second preceding article, then, before such corporation or any other corporation to which such corporation may have transferred its properties and business or which has assumed its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas, it shall be required to go into the court where the original judgment of forfeiture was entered and show that it has fully obeyed the decree of court forfeiting its charter and has satisfied in full all fines and penalties assessed against it. It shall further show that it has so organized or reorganized its affairs and business that if permitted to do business in Texas, it can and will do so without violating any law of this State; and particularly that it has no connection with any person, firm, or corporation engaged in violating the laws against trusts and monopolies, and is not itself so engaged. No such action shall be instituted within five years from the date of such original conviction. Any corporation which shall be convicted a second time of a violation of any provision of this title shall be forever barred from instituting any such action hereunder. Whereupon and after a hearing had, after the notice to the Attorney General herein provided, the court may modify or reform such judgment so as to permit such corporation to incorporate, or secure a permit and do business in Texas, and such modified or reformed judgment shall be by the clerk of said court certified to the Secretary of State for action by him in conformity therewith. Nothing in this article shall in any manner affect any judgment hereafter rendered by any court against any corporation, its agent, or employes or successors.

Notice of filing of such proceeding and the taking of evidence shall be served upon the Attorney General whose duty it shall be to represent the State in such proceeding. The court may require the production of all books and records and may appoint a commission to take testimony, either within or without the State. The expense of the entire proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees, the amount of which to be determined by the judge trying the case, and the same to be paid to the attorney representing the State, and same to be delivered by such attorney to the State Treasurer and by him deposited to the account of the general revenue fund of the State. The court, after modifying or reforming the judgment, as provided herein, shall retain jurisdiction of the case and at any time thereafter shall, upon showing that said corporation is violating the laws against trusts or monopolies, or has connection with any person, firm, or corporation engaged in violation of the laws against trusts or monopolies, set aside any order or judgment entered, in which event all proceedings based thereon, including all transfers of any and all properties shall be nullified, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, for good cause, to enter proceedings to set aside and nullify the modified judgment of the court and its proceedings, as herein provided. If the Court shall, after the hearing provided for, refuse to modify or reform such judgment, no permit shall be issued by the Secretary of State to such corporation or to any other corporation to which its properties or business have been transferred or which has assumed the payment of its obligations. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1917, p. 63; Acts 1919, p. 48.]

Art. 7436. [7806] Penalties; venue; fees.—Each firm, person, corporation or association of persons, who shall in any manner violate any provision of this subdivision shall, for each day that such violation shall be committed or continued, forfeit and pay a sum of not less than fifty nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of any county in the State of Texas, and venue is hereby given to such district courts. When any such suit shall have been filed in any county and jurisdiction thereof acquired, it shall not be transferred to any other county, except upon change of venue allowed by the court. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General or the district or county attorney under the direction of the Attorney General, to prosecute for the recovery of the same. The fees of the district or county attorney for representing the State in all anti-trust proceedings, or for the collection of penalties for the violation of the anti-trust laws of this State, shall be ten per cent of the amount collected up to and including the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and five per cent of all sums in excess of the first fifty thousand dollars, to be retained by him when collected, and all such fees which he may collect shall be over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill. The provisions of this subdivision as to fees allowed the prosecuting attorney shall not apply to any case in which judgment has heretofore been rendered in any court nor to any monies to be hereafter collected upon such judgment heretofore rendered in any court, whether such judgment or judgments are pending upon appeal or otherwise. The district or county attorney who joins in the institution or prosecution of any suit for the recovery of penalties for a violation of any of the anti-trust laws of this State, who shall, previous to the collection of such penalties, cease to hold office, shall be entitled to an equal division with his successor of the fee collected in said cause. In case of the employment of special counsel by any such district or county attorney, the contract so made shall be binding upon such prosecuting officer making such contract and thereafter retiring from office. In case any suit is compromised before any final judgment in the trial court is had, then the fees herein provided for shall be reduced one-half. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1909, p. 281.]

Art. 7437. [7807] All agreements in violation of, void.—Any contract or agreement in violation of any provision of this subdivision shall be absolutely void and not enforceable either in law or equity. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7438. [7808] Actions to have precedence.—All actions authorized and brought under this subdivision on motion of the attorney for the State, shall have precedence of all other business, civil or criminal, except criminal cases where the defendants are in jail. [Id.]

2. EVIDENCE IN TRUST CASES

Art. 7439. [7810] Evidence preliminary to prosecutions.—Upon the application of the Attorney General, or of any of his assistants, or of any district or county attorney, acting under the direction of the Attorney General made to any county judge or any justice of the peace in this State, stating that he has reason to believe that a witness who is to be found in the county in which such county judge or justice of the peace is an officer, knows of a violation of any provision of the preceding subdivision, it shall be the duty of such county judge or justice to have summoned as in criminal cases and to have examined such witness in relation to violations of any provision of said subdivision. The said witness shall be duly sworn; and the county judge, or justice of the peace, shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, and such sworn statement shall be delivered to the attorney upon whose application the witness was summoned. Should the witness summoned as aforesaid fail to appear or to make sworn statements of the facts within his knowledge or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in jail until he shall make a full statement of all the facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. [Acts 1907, p. 221.]

Art. 7440. [7811] Testimony; books and papers.—Whenever any suit shall be instituted, or is pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State by the Attorney General, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction against any corporation, individual, association of individuals, joint stock association or co-partnership, under any law of this State, against trusts, monopolies or conspiracies in restraint of trade, or under any laws of this State regulating or controlling corporations, domestic or foreign, the Attorney General, district or county attorney, as the case may be, may, in addition to the means provided by law, examine and procure the testimony or evidence of witnesses and have books, papers and documents produced as evidence in the manner herein provided. [Acts 1907, p. 16.]

Art. 7441. [7812] Evidence, how taken.—Whenever any action is commenced or is pending as contemplated in the preceding article, by the Attorney General, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction, and said officer representing the State, either upon the trial of the case, or in preparation for the trial thereof, desires to take the testimony of any officer, director, agent or employé of any foreign or domestic corporation or joint stock association proceeded against, or in case of any co-partnership, any member thereof, or in case of any individual or individuals, either of them, and the person or persons whose testimony is desired resides either within or without said State, the said officer shall file in said court where the action is brought, either in term time or in vacation, or with any special commissioner who may be appointed by the court to take testimony, as provided for in this law, a written statement setting forth the name and residence of each person whose testimony he desires to take, and in a general way shall designate any books, papers or documents he desires produced, and the time when and the place where either within or without this State, he desires such person to appear, and testify or to produce books, papers and documents, if any are desired. Thereupon the judge of said court, or the commissioner, before whom said testimony is being or shall be taken, shall immediately issue written notice, directed to the attorney or attorneys of record in said cause, or the agent, officer, or employé of any corporation or joint stock association, or directed to the attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership, individual or individuals, or to any member of such co-partnership or to any individual or individuals who are defendant or defendants in said action, notifying said attorney or attorneys of record, or officer, agent or employé, aforesaid, or member or members of any co-partnership, or individual, that the testimony of each person named in said notice is desired, and requiring said attorney or attorneys of record, or such officer, agent or employé aforesaid, or member of such co-partnership, or any individual to whom said notice is delivered, or upon whom the same is served, to notify and have said witness or witnesses, whose testimony or evidence it is desired to take, at the time and place named in said notice, before the court or special commissioner named, then and there to testify, and then and there to have and produce such books, papers and documents as are called for, and for any of the purposes herein provided. The court or the commissioner may continue the taking of such evidence from day to day, or adjourn from day to day at the same place until the same has been concluded. [Id.]

Art. 7442. [7813] Judgment on failure to produce books, papers, etc.—Whenever any officer, director, agent or employé of any foreign or domestic corporation, or joint stock association, authorized to do business in this State, or any member of any co-partnership or any individual, against whom suit has been filed, or is pending, as provided for in this title, or the attorney or attorneys of record of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual shall be notified in accordance with the provisions of this title that any of the books, papers or documents belonging to such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual, are wanted before the court, or special commissioner as provided in this title, it shall be the duty of such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, as the case may be, to produce and present, or cause to be produced and presented, as required in said notice, all such books, papers and documents belonging to any such defendant, or under such defendant's control, as may be specified in said notice, in court or before said special commissioner, at the time and place so specified. In the event of the failure or refusal of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual, to comply with any of the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the officer representing the State, to strike out all the pleadings, answers, motions, reply or demurrer theretofore or thereafter filed in such case by such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual and render judgment by default against any such defendant. [Id.]

Art. 7443. [7814] Notice to attorneys on failure to produce.—Whenever any attorney or attorneys of record, or any agent, officer or employé of any corporation or joint stock association, proceeded against as herein provided, shall be notified that any officer, director, agent or employé of any such corporation or joint stock association is wanted before said court, or any special commissioner, as provided herein, to give his testimony or to produce any such books, papers or documents of said corporation or joint stock association, as the case may be, or if any attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership or individual shall be notified that any member or members of said co-partnership or any individual who are defendants in any such action are desired as witnesses, or to produce books, papers or documents before any court, or before any special commissioner appointed to take testimony in said proceeding, it shall be the duty of such attorney or attorneys of record, or any such officer, director, agent or employé to immediately notify any such person of the time and place where he shall attend and give his testimony, or produce any such books, papers or documents, if any are desired. If any person whose testimony is desired, as herein provided, shall fail to appear, or appearing shall refuse to testify, or shall fail to produce whatever books, papers, or documents he or they may be ordered to produce, as before provided, then it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the Attorney General, district or county attorney, on proof of such refusal, failure or dereliction, to strike out the answer, motion, reply, demurrer or other pleading theretofore or thereafter filed in such action, by said delinquent defendant, who has himself, or being a corporation or joint stock association, whose officer, agent, director, or employé, as herein provided, has refused or failed to attend and testify, or to produce all books, papers or documents demanded, which were in the custody or subject to the control of such witness or witnesses, or corporation or joint stock association. Said court shall, in the event of any such refusal or failure, proceed to render judgment by default against any such defendant; provided, that if any such defendant shall file a written sworn denial, in said court, setting forth that such failure or refusal did not arise by reason of any fault or procurement of defendant, the court shall hear evidence upon that issue; and if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that any witness who failed to attend did not do so at the instance or procurement of said defendant, or that the books, papers or documents demanded were not in its possession or control and could not be produced, and that such defendant had complied with all the provisions of this title within such defendant's power to perform, then in that event the answer, motion, reply, demurrer or other pleadings shall not be stricken out or judgment by default taken because of the failure of the witness to attend, who could not be so procured, or because of the failure to produce the books, papers or documents not in the possession or under the control of such defendant; but the court shall have the power to enter such further orders in respect to the matter in controversy as it may deem necessary for the proper administration of justice. In any proceeding had before a special commissioner, as herein provided, the certificate of the special commissioner showing the failure or refusal of any such witness or witnesses to appear and testify, or to produce any books, papers or documents desired, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of such failure, refusal or dereliction on the part of any such defendant, when same is filed in court. Any witness attending any proceeding herein provided for in compliance with any notice or subpoena issued by authority of this law shall receive as compensation one dollar per day for each day of his attendance and four cents per mile traveled, computed upon the shortest practical route. Any claim for fees and mileage shall be filed with the court, or special commissioner, and sworn to by said witness and shall be taxed up as costs, and collected as other costs in civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 7444. [7815] Special commission to take testimony.—The court or presiding judge thereof, in which any proceeding as herein provided is pending, in term time or in vacation, upon application therefor made by the Attorney General, or district or county attorney acting under his direction, shall appoint some well qualified disinterested person as special commissioners to take testimony in any such case, at any point either within or without the State, as designated in such application; or where requested by either party to said cause of action, upon the issues joined in said cause. Such special commissioner shall have full power and authority to issue notices provided for in the third preceding article and to issue subpoenas for witnesses, compelling the attendance of such witnesses, the production of books, papers or documents, to issue attachments, to punish for contempt to the same extent as provided by law for said court, to administer oaths to witnesses, to have all witnesses examined orally, which testimony shall be reduced to writing, and may be taken down by a competent stenographer and transcribed, and shall be signed and sworn to by said witness. The person appointed as special commissioner in any case shall qualify by taking the Constitutional oath of office, and shall, with all convenient speed, certify and return the testimony taken by him to the court appointing him. Said commissioner shall note all objections to the testimony and shall not exclude any testimony. All questions as to the materiality or admissibility of same shall be reserved for the court trying the case. Such testimony so taken may be read in evidence upon the trial of the suit in which same was taken, subject to any legal objections which might be made to same. The compensation of such commissioner shall be his actual expenses in traveling and such fees as are allowed a notary public in taking depositions, to be taxed up as costs and collected as in civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 7445. [7816] Notice to witnesses.—When any notice is issued and served, as provided for in this subdivision, ten full days exclusive of the day of service shall elapse before any witness so requested shall be compelled to appear and testify, or produce any books, papers or documents called for. If the taking of testimony shall not be concluded on the date named in said notice, each witness shall remain in attendance from day to day until same is completed or said witness is finally discharged by the court, or commissioner, as the case may be. Service of said notice and the return thereon may be made by any sheriff or constable of this State, or by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact, and shall be made by delivery to each person or attorney to be served a true copy of such notice. Return of such service shall be indorsed on or attached to the original notice; it shall state when the same was served and the manner of service and upon whom served, and shall be signed. If served by a person other than an officer, it shall be sworn to by the party making the service before some officer authorized by law to take affidavits. [Id.]

Art. 7446. [7810-17] Witnesses exempt from prosecution.—Any person who shall testify before any county judge or justice of the peace as provided for in this title, or any witness for the State who shall testify or produce any books, papers or documents in any proceeding or examination under the provisions of this title, shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing, concerning which he truthfully testifies or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise. [Acts 1907, pp. 16, 221.]

Art. 7447. [7818] Provisions cumulative.—The provisions of this subdivision shall be cumulative of all laws of this State, and shall not be construed as repealing any other law relating to the taking of testimony or evidence; but shall be construed as providing an additional means of securing evidence for the enforcement of the laws, as herein provided. [Acts 1907, p. 16.]

Article 7448. Board of examiners.—There shall be a board known as the "State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners," to consist of seven qualified veterinarians who shall have resided and practiced veterinary medicine and surgery in this State under a diploma from a legal reputable college of veterinary medicine for more than five years prior to their appointment. The Governor shall biennially appoint said board within ninety days after his inauguration from a list of eligible practitioners of veterinary medicine furnished by the secretary of the State Veterinary Medical Association. A stockholder or a member of the faculty or board of trustees of any veterinary college shall not be eligible for appointment. The term of office of its members shall be two years. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws in harmony with the provisions of this title, for its own government and proceedings for the examination of applicants for the practice of veterinary medicine and veterinary surgery. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 143.]

Art. 7449. Meetings.—At the first meeting of said Board after each biennial appointment the Board shall elect a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice each year at such time and places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants for examination. Special meetings may be held upon a call of four members. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 7450. Record of proceedings.—The board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing the name, age and place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in study in medical school, and the year and school from which degrees were granted; or where the applicant qualifies as having been engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in Texas prior to 1911, the same shall show the age, name and place and duration and residence, and the number of years engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in Texas. Said record shall show whether applicants were rejected on examination or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall transmit an official copy of said register to the Secretary of State for permanent record, certified copies from which with hand and seal of the secretary of said board or the Secretary of State shall be admitted in evidence in all courts. [Id.]

Art. 7451. Practicing without registering.—No person shall practice veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery in any of its branches, including veterinary dentistry, within the limits of this State, unless and until such person shall have complied with the provisions of this title, and it shall further be unlawful for any person to so practice who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resided, his authority for so practicing, as herein prescribed, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth and name of school of veterinary medicine from which he graduated. [Id.]

Art. 7452. Exceptions.—Nothing in this title shall prohibit any person, who has heretofore registered as a veterinary surgeon in the county of his residence according to the provisions of Chapter 76 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-second Legislature who had previous to the year 1911 practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery as his principal occupation for five years in the State of Texas prior to the year 1911, from practicing in the county of his residence only by securing a license from the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners by filing satisfactory evidence of his former compliance with the requirements of said Act of the Thirty-second Legislature, together with an affidavit that he has practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery continuously for five years prior to 1911, in which affidavit he shall state the place where he has so practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery together with his place of residence during said period. Upon the face of such license shall be printed the words "non-graduate." It shall be unlawful for any person to register under the five year practicing clause of this article, but the object of this provision is to permit persons who have heretofore lawfully registered to continue practicing under the five year clause. The fact of such oath shall be endorsed upon the certificate or license as the case may be, but if such person shall remove from such county of residence, he shall comply with all the requirements of this law before he shall be allowed to practice. Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to apply to commission or contract veterinarians in the employ of the United States or the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture in the performance of their duties as such, but shall not engage in private practice, nor to legally qualified veterinarians of other States called in consultation but who do not open offices in this State nor to prohibit the sale by licensed druggists of remedies which they recommend for the cure of diseases of animals. [Id.]

Art. 7453. Register.—Each district clerk shall keep a book of suitable size to be known as the "Veterinary Medical Register" and record therein the name and record of each veterinary practitioner who presents a certificate from the State Board of Veterinary Examiners. The clerk shall receive the sum of one dollar from each person so registered, which shall be his full compensation for all duties required under this title. When any person registered in said book shall die, remove from the county or have his license revoked, it shall be the duty of said clerk to make note of the facts thereof at the bottom of the page containing the record of such person as closing the record. On the first day of January of each year said clerk shall on request of the board, certify to the office of said board a correct list of the veterinarians then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. A copy from said register pertaining to any person, certified by said clerk under the seal of said court, on a certificate issued by said officer certifying that any person named therein has or has not registered in said office as required by this title shall be admitted as evidence in all trial courts. [Id.]

Art. 7454. Reciprocity.—The board may at its discretion arrange for reciprocity in license with the authorities of other States and territories having requirements equal to those established by this law. License may be granted applicants for license under such reciprocity upon payment of twenty dollars.

Art. 7455. Applications for examination.—Each applicant to practice veterinary medicine in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of this title, must successfully pass an examination before the board of veterinary medical examiners. Applicants to be eligible for examination must present satisfactory evidence to the board that they are over twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of bona fide reputable veterinary medical schools. A bona fide veterinary medical school shall be one whose requirements for a degree and whose equipment is such as is at present required for recognition by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture, or the American Veterinary Medical Association. Application for examination must be made in writing under affidavit to the secretary of the board, accompanied by the sum of fifteen dollars. Such applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. In case any applicant because of failure to pass examination be refused a license, such person may be permitted to take a second examination without additional fee. [Id.]

Art. 7456. Compensation.—The fund realized from the aforesaid fees shall be applied first to the payment of the necessary expenses of the board; any remaining funds shall be applied by order of the board to compensating members of the board at ten dollars per day. It shall be unlawful for the board or any member thereof in any manner or for any purpose to charge or obligate the State for the payment of any money and the members of said board shall look alone to the revenue derived from the operation of this title for compensation and for the expenses of conducting said board. [Id.]

Art. 7457. Examinations.—All examinations shall be conducted in writing in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial [impartial]. The applicants to be known by numbers without names or other methods of identification on examination papers by which members of the board may be able to identify such papers until after the applicants have been granted licenses or rejected. Examinations shall be conducted on the scientific branches of veterinary medicine only, and shall include veterinary anatomy, veterinary pathology, chemistry, veterinary obstetrics, veterinary materia medica, veterinary sanitary science, veterinary practice, and veterinary jurisprudence, and veterinary physiology and bacteriology. Upon satisfactory examination under the rules of the board, applicants shall be granted license to practice veterinary medicine. All questions and answers with grades attached shall be preserved for one year and any person rejected shall be entitled to examine his said answers and the grades attached thereto. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions in each of the above branches. All certificates shall be signed by a majority of said board and attested [attested] by its seal. [Id.]

Art. 7458. Revocation of license.—The right to practice veterinary medicine in this State may be revoked by any court of competent jurisdiction upon proof of the violation of the law in any regard thereto or for any cause for which the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners is authorized by law to refuse to admit to its examinations as hereinafter provided. The several district and county attorneys of this State shall file and prosecute appropriate proceedings in the name of the State for violations thereof on request of any member of said Board. [Id.]

Art. 7459. Qualifications.—The State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners may refuse to admit to its examinations or to issue the certificate provided for by this law for any of the following causes: The presentation to the Board of any license, certificate or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination; conviction of crime of the grade of felony, or one which involves moral turpitude; other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public; or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction calculated to endanger the lives of patients. Any applicant who may be refused admittance to examination before said board shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court in the county in which some member of the board resides. [Id.]

Art. 7460. Who are veterinarians.—Any person shall be deemed as practicing veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery or dentistry who professes publicly to be a veterinary physician, surgeon, or dentist, or who appends to his name any initials or title implying qualifications to practice veterinary medicine or who shall treat, operate or prescribe for any physical ailment or deformity of any domestic animal for which he shall receive compensation, either direct or indirect, or any county demonstration or farm demonstration agent while in the employment of any county, State or Federal government on a salary for treating or attempting to treat any animal for any disease, ailment or deformity. Nothing in this law shall apply to persons not so employed, gratuitously treating animals. The operation known as "Dehorning," "Castrating," or spaying shall not be construed as the practice of veterinary medicine or surgery nor the vaccination of cattle for blackleg as the practice of veterinary medicine. [Id.]

Art. 7461. Certificates and licenses.—On or before March 1st each year, each practicing veterinary physician in the State shall file with the secretary of the board of veterinary examiners his application for renewal of his license to practice. Said application shall be made on forms to be furnished by the board on which shall appear the name, age, and residence of the applicant, and whether practicing under a license issued by the board after examination or whether under the provisions of Chapter 76, Acts 1911, as to the practice of veterinary medicine for five years prior to 1911. All such applications shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar. If any person practicing veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery shall fail for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed veterinarians, and before he may again practice veterinary medicine he shall be required [required] to take the examination before the board, unless he has been prevented from applying for renewal for good cause, of which the board shall be the judge of the sufficiency thereof. Each license issued under this title shall expire on the 1st day of March of each year, and may be renewed by complying with the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7462. Definitions.—The terms veterinarians, veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery, veterinary physician and veterinary dentist as used in this title shall be construed as synonymous. [Id.]

Art. 7463. Permanent license.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as requiring veterinarians or veterinary surgeons who have successfully passed examination and who have been granted certificate of permanent license by said board, to again submit themselves to examination. Such certificate of permanent license is valid to all intents and purposes, subject to each provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7464. License to be recorded.—Any person receiving a certificate of license from the Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall forthwith have it recorded in the office of the District Clerk of the county in which he makes his residence, and shall display it in his regular place of business. The date of recording shall be recorded thereon, and until the license is recorded the holder shall not exercise any of its rights or privileges therein conferred. Such license shall become invalid if it is not recorded within ninety days from its date of issuance. The district clerk shall be paid his fee for recording such certificate by the holder thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7465. To record license on removal.—Any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed examination and who has been granted license by said board to practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in this State, and has recorded his license as provided for in this title, may go from one county to another county in this State on professional business and may practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in any county in this State to which he may go, without recording or registering said license in any county to which he may go or in which he may practice. Any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed the said examination and duly recorded his license, and who removes his residence from the county in which his license is recorded, shall again record his license in the county to which he removes his residence, in the same manner as the same was recorded in the county from which he removed his residence. Such veterinarian or veterinary surgeon shall have no authority to practice in any county to which he removes his residence until he has so recorded said license. [Id.]

1. PUBLIC RIGHTS

Article 7466. [4991] [3115] Public rights.

—The conservation and development of all of the natural resources of this State, including the control, storing, preservation and distribution of its storm and flood waters, the waters of its rivers and streams for irrigation, power and all other useful purposes; the reclamation and irrigation of its arid, semi-arid and other lands needing irrigation; the reclamation and drainage of its overflowed lands, and other lands needing drainage; the conservation and development of its forest, water and hydro-electric power; the navigation of its inland and coastal waters, and the preservation and conservation of all such natural resources of the State are each and all hereby declared public rights and duties. [Acts 1895, p. 21; G. L. vol. 10, p. 751; Acts 1913, p. 358; Acts 1917, p. 211; Acts 1921, p. 233.]

Art. 7466a. Rio Grande Agreement.—The Governor of this State shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate appoint some qualified person a commissioner to represent the State of Texas in conference with commissioners duly appointed to represent the states of New Mexico and Colorado, and a representative of the Government of the United States, to negotiate an agreement respecting the use, control and disposition of the waters of the Rio Grande and its tributaries above Fort Quitman, Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 117, p. 301, § 1.]

Art. 7466b. Authority of Commissioner.—The commissioner appointed to represent the State of Texas shall have authority to meet and confer with the other members of the commission, at such points within the State of Texas or elsewhere as they may see fit, and the compensation and expenses of such commissioner shall be paid out of the appropriation herein made. Such commissioner is authorized to make the necessary investigation and procure the necessary data for the proper performance, of his duties, and may, with the approval of the Governor, employ such clerical, legal, engineering and other assistance as may be necessary in the performance of his duties. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 117, p. 301, § 2.]

Art. 7466c. Necessity of ratification.—Any agreement which may be entered into between the commissioner on behalf of the State of Texas and the commissioners on behalf of the other states and the representative of the United States, shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the Governor of this State, but such agreement shall have no binding effect upon the State of Texas or any of its legal representatives until the same shall have been ratified by the Legislature of this State and approved by the Governor, nor unless ratified by the Legislatures of New Mexico and Colorado and consented to by the Congress of the United States. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 117, p. 301, § 3.]

Art. 7466d. Appropriation and expenditures.—There is hereby appropriated, out of any moneys in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifteen [thousand] ($15,000.00) dollars, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act. The compensation of the commissioner hereby authorized to be appointed shall be fixed by the Governor to be paid out of the appropriation herein made. All other expenditures authorized herein shall be made on sworn accounts, approved by said commissioner, and all payments authorized hereunder shall be paid out of the State Treasury on warrants drawn by the Comptroller, as under general laws. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 117, p. 302, § 4.]

PECOS RIVER COMPACT

Whereas, by authority of Chapter 133 of the General Laws of the State of Texas, passed [by] the Thirty-eighth Legislature at the Regular Session thereof, the Honorable R. E. Thomason was appointed by the Governor of the State of Texas to represent the State of Texas in a conference with representatives of the United States, and of the State of New Mexico, with a view to negotiating an agreement concerning the storage, division and use of the waters of the Pecos River in New Mexico and Texas; and

Whereas, the said commissioner in conference with the Honorable C. T. Pease representing the United States, and the Honorable Richard H. Hanna, representing the State of New Mexico, agreed upon and signed a compact with reference thereto and transmitted the same to the Governor of Texas; and

Whereas, the Governor of Texas has submitted said compact to the Legislature for appropriate action, which compact is in words and figures substantially as follows, to-wit:

PECOS RIVER COMPACT

The State of Texas and the State of New Mexico having resolved to enter into a compact, under the Acts of their respective Legislatures, have, through their Governors, appointed as their commissioner: R. E. Thomason for the State of Texas and Richard H. Hanna for the State of New Mexico, who, after negotiations participated in by C. T. Pease, appointed by Secretary of the Interior of the United States, as a representative of the Bureau of Reclamation, have agreed upon the following article:

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Article I.

Present rights to the beneficial use of the water of the Pecos River and its tributaries are unimpaired by this compact, the major purposes of which are to provide for the equitable division and apportionment of the unappropriated and flood waters of the Pecos River system; to promote interstate comity; to remove causes of present and future controversies and to secure the expeditious agriculture development of the Pecos River Basin by the conservation and economical distribution of the waters therein.

Article II.

In this compact

a. The State of New Mexico and the State of Texas are designated respectively as "New Mexico" and "Texas" and these terms include the citizens and corporations of each State.

b. The term "Pecos River System" means the Pecos River and all of its tributaries, including springs and swamps, from its sources in New Mexico to the Kansas City, Mexico and Oriental Railroad as now constructed between the towns of Alpine and Sherwood in Texas.

c. The term "Pecos River Basin" means all the drainage area of the Pecos River System.

d. The term "Upper Basin" means that part of the Pecos River basin above and north from a due east and west line crossing the Pecos River on the boundary between townships six (6) and seven (7) north, range twenty-two (22) east of the New Mexico principal meridian.

e. The term "Middle Basin" means that part of the Pecos River Basin below and south from a prolongation of the boundary line between townships [six] (6) and seven (7) north, range twenty-two (22) east of the New Mexico principal meridian to the Texas-New Mexico State Line.

f. The term "Lower Basin" means that part of the Pecos River Basin within the State of Texas lying above and northwest of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad.

g. The term "domestic use" shall include the use of water for household, stock, municipal, milling, industrial railroad and other like purposes.

h. The term "Carlsbad Project" means certain tracts of land in townships [townships] twenty (20), twenty-one (21), twenty-two (22), twenty-three (23), twenty-four (24), twenty-five (25), and twenty-six (26), south, ranges twenty-six (26), twenty-seven (27), twenty-eight (28) and twenty-nine (29) east of the New Mexico principal meridian, and all reservoirs, dams, canals, drains and other works, constructed or that may hereafter be constructed by the United States for the reclamation, use and benefit thereof.

Article III.

The right to appropriate and use for irrigation and domestic purposes the natural flow of the Pecos River system in the Upper Basin shall not be limited or abridged by this compact, but no permit or permits for the construction of any additional storage reservoir or reservoirs, or for the enlargement of any existing reservoir, within the Upper Basin, having an aggregate capacity or capacities of more than ten thousand (10,000) acre feet, shall be granted by the State of New Mexico prior to the first day of January, 1940.

Article IV.

Within the Middle Basin New Mexico shall have in perpetuity indefeasible rights in the waters of the Pecos River system to divert and use from either or both natural flow or storage reservoirs, constructed or to be constructed, sufficient water, whenever available, for all domestic purposes and the irrigation of seventy-six thousand (76,000) acres of land.

Article V.

Texas shall at all times, subject to the provisions of Articles III, IV, and IX of this compact, have the right:

1. To divert all of the natural flow of the Pecos River system in the Lower Basin for domestic and agricultural purposes.

2. To build, maintain and operate a storage reservoir or reservoirs at or below what is commonly known as the Red Bluff Reservoir site, in Eddy County, New Mexico, for the use and benefit of forty thousand (40,000) acres of land in Loving, Reeves, Ward, Crane and Pecos Counties, Texas, and to store any surplus waters to which Texas may be entitled, and to acquire by purchase, prescription or the exercise of eminent domain, such rights of way, easements, or lands as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of said reservoir: Provided, that said reservoir shall be constructed and in operation on or before the first day of January, 1940, and provided further, that the construction, maintenance and operation of said reservoir shall not vest in Texas any prior, preferred or superior servitude upon or claim or right to the waters of the Pecos River in New Mexico.

Article VI.

All surplus water flowing in the Pecos River within the Middle or Lower Basins, over and above that required for domestic use, the adequate and proper irrigation of seventy-six thousand (76,000) acres of land in the Middle Basin and forty thousand (40,000) acres of land in the Lower Basin, shall be divided equally between the signatory States. All permits issued by either New Mexico or Texas, prior to January 1, 1940, for the use of the surplus waters shall specifically state that the rights granted by said permits are and shall be subservient to prior rights for seventy-six thousand (76,000) acres of land in the Middle Basin and forty thousand (40,000) acres of land in the Lower Basin.

Article VII.

1. Texas and New Mexico, at their joint expense, shall maintain a stream gaging station upon the Pecos River at or near Malaga, Eddy County, New Mexico, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of surplus water flowing in said river. The location of said gaging station may, by mutual consent, be changed from year to year as conditions of the river may require.

2. The State engineer of New Mexico and the Board of Water Engineers for Texas, shall make provisions for the co-operative gaging of and the details of operating said station and for the exchange and publication of records and data relative to the discharge of the river at said station.

Article VIII.

The use of any impounded water of the Pecos River system for the generation of electrical power shall be subservient to the use and consumption of such water for agricultural and domestic purposes and shall not interfere with or prevent the use for such dominant purposes.

Article IX.

Notwithstanding any limitations or restrictions, either expressed or implied, in this compact upon the area to be irrigated in the Middle Basin, New Mexico, shall have the right on and after January 1, 1940, to extend and increase the irrigated area within the Middle Basin, over and above seventy-six thousand (76,000) acres, one-fifth ($\frac{1}{5}$) of an acre;

1. For each and every acre foot that the aggregate effective storage capacity of all reservoirs, now or hereafter constructed for the use of the Lower Basin shall be less than two hundred and fifty thousand (250,000) acre feet;

2. For each and every acre foot of the original capacity or capacities, of any and all, reservoirs, constructed for the use and benefit of the Lower Basin that have been or may be abandoned or unused for a period of five (5) years, or longer.

Article X.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed as affecting the rights of the United States of America in the waters of the Pecos River system or in the Carlsbad project.

Article XI.

It shall be the duty of the State engineer of New Mexico and the Board of Water Engineers for Texas, to supervise the carrying out of the provisions of this compact, within their respective States, and they may, from time to time, formulate rules and regulations for that purpose, which, when promulgated by them, shall be binding until amended or until terminated.

Article XII.

Whenever any official of either State is designated to perform any duty under this compact, such designation shall include the State official or officials upon whom the duties now performed by such designated official or officials may hereafter devolve.

Article XIII.

Should any claim or controversy arise between the signatory States:

- a. with respect to the waters of the Pecos River system not covered by the terms of this contract;
- b. over the meaning or performance of any of the terms of this compact;
- c. as to the allocation of the burdens incident to the performance of any article of this compact; or
- d. as to the construction, maintenance or operation of storage works within New Mexico for the use and benefit of Texas; the Governors of the signatory States, upon the request of either one of them, shall forthwith appoint commissioners with power to consider and adjust such claim or controversy, subject to ratification by the Legislature of New Mexico and Texas.

Article XIV.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to affect the right either State or the United States from instituting or maintaining any action or proceeding, legal or equitable, for the protection of any right under this compact or the enforcement of any of its provisions.

Article XV.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to affect the right to appropriate, under the laws and regulations of New Mexico and Texas, any waters that if unappropriated and unused would not contribute to the flow of the Pecos River.

Article XVI.

This compact may be modified or terminated at any time by mutual consent of the signatory States. In the event of such termination, the rights established under it shall continue unimpaired.

Article XVII.

This compact shall become binding and operative when approved by the Legislatures of each of the signatory States and consented to by the Congress of the United States. Notice of approval by the Legislatures shall be given by the Governor of each State to the Governor of the other State and to the President of the United States, and the President of the United States is requested to give notice to the signatory States of consent by the Congress of the United States.

In witness whereof, the commissioners have signed this compact in triplicate originals, one of which shall be deposited with the Department of the Interior of the United States and one with the Governor of each of the signatory States. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 693, S. J. R. No. 20.]

2. BOARD OF WATER ENGINEERS

Art. 7467. Property of the State.—The waters of the ordinary flow and underflow and tides of every flowing river or natural stream, of all lakes, bays or arms of the Gulf of Mexico, and the storm, flood or rain waters of every river or natural stream, canyon, ravine, depression or watershed, within the State of Texas, are hereby declared to be the property of the State, and the right to the use thereof may be acquired by appropriation in the manner and for the uses and purposes hereinafter provided, and may be taken or diverted from its natural channel for any of the purposes expressed in this chapter. When an application is made for appropriation of such water for mining purposes, the owner of the land through which the water flows and which is to be appropriated shall have the prior right to appropriate same, and shall be permitted to exercise such right, although such owner may not have made application prior to such application by another, and such owner shall have only ten days after notice of application to appropriate such water in which to exercise his prior right to appropriate, which he shall do by written application filed with the Board of Water Engineers within such time. [Acts 1921, p. 233, sec. 2.]

Art. 7467a. River beds and channels in cities and towns.—The State of Texas hereby relinquishes, quit claims and grants unto all incorporated cities and towns that have a population of forty thousand inhabitants, or more, according to the 1920 census, all of the beds and channels, and also all of the abandoned beds and channels, of all rivers, streams and other channels that are now or that may hereafter be within the present or future corporate limits of such cities or towns, in so far as the beds and channels, and such abandoned channels, of such rivers, streams and other channels may be owned or claimed as the property of said State. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 155, p. 366, § 1.]

Art. 7468. How stored and purpose of.—The waters described in the preceding article may be held or stored by dams, in lakes or reservoirs, or diverted by means of canals, ditches, intakes, pumping plants, or other[s] works, constructed by any person, corporation, association of persons, or irrigation district created under the statutes, for the purpose of irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, the construction and operation of waterworks for cities, and towns, or for stock raising, the waters of any arm or inlet of the Gulf of Mexico, or of any salt water bay, may be changed from salt to sweet or fresh water, and held or stored by dams, dikes, or other structure, and taken or diverted for any of the purposes expressed in this chapter. [Acts 1921, p. 234, sec. 3.]

Art. 7469. Vested private rights.—Nothing in this chapter shall prejudice vested private rights. [Id., p. 234, sec. 3.]

Art. 7470. Appropriation of water.—The appropriation of water must be for irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, the construction and operation of waterworks for cities and towns, or for stock raising.

Art. 7470a. Appropriation for Public Parks, etc.—The waters of the State may be appropriated as provided by law in addition to the purposes and uses now provided by law, for the following purposes: Public parks, game preserves, recreation and pleasure resorts, power and water supply for industrial purposes and plants and for domestic use. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 341, § 1.]

Art. 7471. Subordinate irrigation.—So far as practicable and within the limits of the public welfare, the Board of Water Engineers, shall subordinate the appropriation of water for power to the appropriation of water for irrigation. [Acts 1917, p. 212, sec. 4.]

Art. 7472. Between appropriators.—As between appropriators, the first in time is the first in right. [Id., sec. 5.]

Art. 7473. Appropriators defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, an appropriator is any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, who has heretofore made beneficial use of any water, in a lawful manner, under the provisions of any Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, prior to the passage of Chapter 171 of the General

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Laws of the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, and who has filed with the State Board of Water Engineers a record of his appropriation, as required by said Act of the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, or who has heretofore or may hereafter make beneficial use of any water within the limitations of a permit lawfully issued by the Board of Water Engineers, and no appropriation of any water shall be considered as having been perfected, unless such water has been beneficially used for one or more of the purposes named in this chapter, and for the purpose or purposes stated in the original declaration of intention to appropriate such water, or stated in the permit issued by the Board of Water Engineers. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7474. Forfeiture of rights.—Neither the foregoing article, nor any other provision of this chapter, shall be construed as intended to impair or to work or authorize the forfeiture of, or shall impair or work or authorize the forfeiture of, any rights heretofore or hereafter acquired, by any declaration of appropriation or by permit when the appropriator has begun, or begins, the work and development contemplated by his declaration of appropriation, within the time provided in the law under which the same was or is made and has prosecuted and continues to prosecute the same with all reasonable diligence toward completion; but if any appropriator under this chapter, or other law of this State, has failed or fails to begin the work and development contemplated by his declaration of appropriation within the time provided in the law under which the same was or is made, or has failed or fails, to prosecute the same with all reasonable diligence toward completion, his right to so much water as has not been applied, or is not applied to beneficial use, as defined in this chapter, shall be considered as, and shall be, forfeited, and such water shall be subject to new appropriation under this chapter; provided, that no such rights shall be declared forfeited until the person or persons who are the owners of the land and whose rights are claimed to have been forfeited, shall first be given due notice and hearing, as required in Article 7519 of this chapter; and, provided further, that if a permit for the use of such water has been issued, or is issued, under this Act, or under the Act approved April the 9th, 1913, such water shall not be subject to new appropriation until the permit is cancelled by the Board in whole, or in part, in accordance with the provisions of Article 7519 of this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7475. Water divisions.—The State shall be, and is hereby, divided into three water divisions, as follows:

All that portion of the State of Texas lying north of the thirtieth parallel, north latitude, and west of the one hundredth meridian, west longitude, shall constitute water division No. 1.

All that portion of the State of Texas lying east of the ninety-seventh meridian, west longitude, and south of the thirtieth parallel north latitude, together with all that portion lying north of the thirtieth parallel north latitude and east of the one hundredth meridian west longitude, shall constitute water division No. 2.

All that portion of the State of Texas not embraced in water division No. 1 or water division No. 2, as heretofore defined, shall constitute water division No. 3. [Id. p. 213, sec. 8.]

Art. 7476. Beneficial use defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, beneficial use shall be held to mean the use of such a quantity of water, when reasonable intelligence and reasonable diligence are exercised in its application for a lawful purpose, as is economically necessary for that purpose. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7477. Board continued in office.—The Board of Water Engineers, created and constituted by the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, Chapter 171, General Laws, approved April 9, 1913, is hereby continued, and the members constituting such board shall continue in office for the respective terms for which they were appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7478. Board appointment of.—Said board shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be appointed from each of the respective water divisions described in Article 7475. The members [members] of such board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice [advice] and consent of the Senate, and shall each hold office for a term of six years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. [Id.]

Art. 7479. Qualification.—No person shall be appointed a member of the Board who has not such technical knowledge and such practical experience and skill as shall fit him for the duties of the office. [Id.]

Art. 7480. Bond.—Each member of such Board shall enter into bond, to be approved by the Governor, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with not less than two personal sureties, or with one surety or guaranty company authorized to do business in this State, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and for the delivery to his successor, or other officer appointed by the Governor to receive same, all moneys, books, and other property belonging to the State then in his hands, or under his control, or with which he may be legally chargeable as a member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 7481. Governor may remove.—The Governor shall have power to remove, at any time, for cause, any member of the State Board of Water Engineers, after such member shall have been given a full, free and public hearing by the Governor. The Governor [Governor] shall fill all vacancies by appointment, with the advice and consent of the Senate. [Id.]

Art. 7482. Salary.—Each member of such Board shall receive a salary of thirty-six hundred dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments, upon the presentation of salary vouchers, approved by the Board. [Id. p. 214, sec. 11.]

Art. 7483. Meet at Austin.—The members appointed shall meet at Austin and organize and elect one of their number chairman of said Board. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7484. Majority constitute quorum.—A majority of said Board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. [Id.]

Art. 7485. Board appoint secretary.—Said Board shall appoint a secretary, who shall be thoroughly conversant with irrigation law, at a salary of not more than two thousand dollars per annum, and who shall execute a bond in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, to be approved by the Board, payable to the Board of Water Engineers. [Id.]

Art. 7486. Board appoint employees.—The Board may appoint such experts and employees as may be necessary to perform any duty that may be required of them by this chapter, and fix their compensation. [Id.]

Art. 7487. Duty of secretary.—The secretary shall keep full and accurate minutes of all transactions and proceedings of said Board, and perform such duties as may be required by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 7488. Power of Board.—The Board shall have power to make all needful rules for its government and proceedings; and shall have a seal, the form of which it shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 7489. Office furnished.—The Board shall be furnished with an office at Austin, with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies, etc., at the expense of the State, to be paid for on the order of the board. [Id.]

Art. 7490. Traveling expenses.—The members, secretary, experts and employees of the Board shall be entitled to receive from the State their necessary traveling expenses while traveling on the business of the board, upon an itemized statement, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense and approved by the Board. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7491. Board hold sessions, where.—The Board may hold sessions at any place in this State, when deemed necessary to facilitate the discharge of its duties. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7492. Application in writing.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who shall, after this Act shall take effect, desire to acquire the right to appropriate, for the purposes stated in this chapter, unappropriated water of the State, shall, before commencing the construction, enlargement or extension of any dam, lake, reservoirs of [or] other storage work, or any ditch, canal, intake, headgate, pumping plant of other distributing work, or performing any work in connection with the storage, taking or diversion of water, make an application in writing to the Board for a permit to make such appropriation, storage or diversion. [Id., part sec. 15.]

Art. 7493. Description of.—Such application shall be in writing and sworn to; shall set forth the name and post-office address of the applicant; the source of water supply; the nature and purposes of the proposed use; the location and description of the proposed dam, lake, reservoir, headgate, intake, pumping plant, ditch, canal or other work; the time within which it is proposed to begin construction, and the time required for the application of the water to the proposed use; and, if such proposed use is for irrigation, a description of the lands proposed to be irrigated, and, as near as may be, the total acreage thereof. [Id., part sec. 15.]

Art. 7494. Map to be furnished.—Such application shall be accompanied by a map or plat drawn on tracing linen, on a scale not less than one inch equals two thousand feet, showing substantially the location and extent of the proposed work; the location of the headgate, intake, pumping plant or point of diversion by course and distance from permanent natural objects or land marks; the location of the main ditch or canal and of the laterals or branches thereof; the course of the river, stream or other source of water supply; the position and area of all lakes, reservoirs or basins intended to be used or created, and the water line thereof, the intersection with all other ditches, canals, laterals, lakes or reservoirs the proposed work will touch or intersect, or with which connection will be made; and shall represent in ink of different color from that used to represent the proposed works, the location of all ditches, canals, laterals, reservoirs, lakes, dams, or other work of like character then existing on the ground, with a designation of the name of the owner thereof. Such map or plat shall contain the name of the proposed work or enterprise; the name or names of the applicants, and a certificate of the surveyor, giving the date of his survey, his name and post-office address, and also the date of the application which it accompanies. [Id., part sec. 15.]

Art. 7495. Permit for alteration, etc.—Nothing in this Act shall be held or construed to require the filing of an application or procuring of any permit for the alteration, enlargement, extension or addition to any canal, ditch or other work that does not contemplate, or will not result in, an increased appropriation, or the use of a larger volume of water, but before making any such alteration, enlargement, extension or addition, the person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district desiring to make same, shall file with the Board of Water Engineers a detailed statement and plan, for the information of the board, of the work proposed to be done. [Id., part sec. 15.]

Art. 7496. Priority of date.—Any person or association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who desires to investigate the feasibility of any project having for its object the creation of a reservoir for the impounding of flood waters in quantities greater than five thousand acre-feet, and which, if constructed, will probably result in the use of five thousand acre-feet per annum, or more, and who has an organized engineering force adequate to expeditiously proceed with such investigation, shall, upon the presentation of such facts, duly verified, to the Board of Water Engineers, describing the locality of such proposed reservoir, have priority date from the time of the filing of such presentation, should a permit be granted thereafter, for the purposes described in such presentation; provided, however, that nothing in this article or in this chapter shall affect or restrict the right of any person or persons, owning lands in this State, to construct on his own property any dam or reservoir which would impound or contain less than five hundred acre-feet of water. [Id., p. 215, sec. 16.]

Section 16 cited above was amended by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 341, § 2, which is art. 7496a of these statutes.

Art. 7496a. Presentation.—Any person who desires to investigate the feasibility of any water appropriation or use of water in quantities greater than twenty thousand-acre feet storage or fifty second feet diversion, or for generation of two thousand hydro-electric horsepower and who has an organized engineering force adequate to expeditiously proceed with such investigation, shall, upon the filing of an application therefor presenting such facts duly verified to the board, have priority date from the time of filing such application should a permit thereafter be granted thereon. Such application, in addition to the requirements above stated, shall describe the contemplated project, its location and purpose, the quantity of water to be applied for by measure if known, and if not by statement as near as possible of the quantity of water necessary to the contemplated use.

Before such presentation is filed same shall be presented to said board for examination.

Such presentation shall not be filed unless first approved by the board as to extent and purpose, and the board may require, in addition to the requirements above specified, additional information to be submitted under oath in order to determine if same is filed in good faith for the purposes stated.

A presentation is confined to a stated purpose and area and one reservoir or diversion site, and cannot be so filed as to cover more than a reasonable area.

The presentation when approved and filed by the board and to the extent approved by the board shall be in effect for a period of six months from the date it is so filed by the board.

If the person filing a presentation shall, during such period, have begun work and shall have prosecuted same with reasonable diligence, but requires more time than the six months period to complete same, then application may be made before the expiration of said period to the board for an extension of time thereon. Such application for the extension of time shall contain a statement of the work done and the reasons why more time is required therefor. The board shall consider same together with any opposition thereto filed, and may grant one or more extensions of time, provided the total time granted under a presentation shall not exceed a term of three years from the date same is first filed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 341, § 2.]

Art. 7497. Fee.—Upon the filing of such presentation, a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars shall be paid to the Board for the use of the State, as provided for other fees collected under this Act; no part of which shall be returned, except as hereinafter provided. The fee shall be held by the Board for a period of twelve months from the date of its receipt, unless disposed of as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1917, p. 215, sec. 17.]

Art. 7498. File application for.—Any person or association of persons, corporation, water improvement, or irrigation district, who has complied with the provisions of Articles 7496 and 7497, and who shall, within twelve months from the date of such presentation, file an application for a permit to store and use any of the flood waters of this State, in volumes of five thousand acre-feet, or more, for the objects and purposes, and at the locality set out in the presentation described in Articles 7496 and 7497, shall when paying the fees described in Article 7532, be credited with the two hundred and fifty dollars paid in accordance with the provisions of Article 7497. [Id., p. 216, sec. 18.]

Art. 7499. May return fee.—If within twelve months after the filing of the presentation of facts described in Article 7496, such relator shall elect not to apply for a permit, and shall file the results of his or its investigation in intelligible form, with the Board, the Board may, at its option, return, all or any part of said two hundred and fifty dollars, if in its judgment such information will be of equivalent value to the State. [Id., sec. 19.]

Art. 7499a. Presentation extended.—In the event a presentation is extended by order of the board so that same expires more than one year after the date upon which same is filed, the fee of $250.00 deposited with the State Board of Water Engineers shall be held by the board and disposed of as provided by law upon the expiration of the period to which same may be extended. All rights pertaining to a presentation shall cease and be of no further effect at the end of the term thereof, unless a permit is granted in pursuance thereof as provided by law. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 342, § 3.]

Art. 7500. Board requirements.—If the proposed taking or diversion of water for irrigation is of greater volume than nine cubic feet per second of time, the Board may require the following, in addition:

A continuous longitudinal profile; cross sections of the proposed channel; and the detail plans and specifications of any structural work of whatever character entering into the proposed project, on such scales and with such definition as the board may deem necessary or expedient.

The Board may also require the filing of a copy of the engineer's field notes of any survey of such lake or reservoir, and all plans and specifications, where the project calls for a dam over six feet in height, either for the purpose of diversion or storage; and no work on such project shall proceed until approval of such plans is obtained.

The Board may, in case the applicant is an incorporated company, require the filing of a certified copy of the applicant's articles of incorporation, together with a statement of the names and addresses of its directors and officers; and the amount of its authorized and of its paid up capital stock.

If the applicant be other than an incorporated company, the board may require the filing of a sworn statement, showing the names and addresses of the person or persons interested in same and the extent of such interest and of the financial condition of each such person. [Acts 1917, p. 216, sec. 20.]

Art. 7500a. Permit unnecessary.—Any one may construct on his own property a dam and reservoir to impound or contain not to exceed two hundred and fifty-acre feet of water without the necessity of securing a permit therefor. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 344, § 5.]

Art. 7501. Fees paid.—Every such application shall be accompanied by the fees hereinafter provided, and shall not be filed or considered until such fees are paid. [Acts 1917, p. 216, sec. 20.]

Art. 7502. Drainage.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Board, the successful efficient operation of any existing or proposed irrigation system will, or may, be adversely affected by lack of adequate facilities incident to the work proposed to be done by the applicant or applicants for a permit to appropriate public waters, the said applicant or applicants shall submit drainage plans adequate, in the opinion of the board, to guard against any present or future injury which the proposed works may entail. [Id., sec. 21.]

Art. 7503. May reject application.—Upon the filing of such application, accompanied by the data and fees hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the Board to make a preliminary examination thereof and, if it appear that there is no unappropriated water in the source of supply, or that, for other reasons, the proposed appropriation shall not be allowed, the Board may thereupon reject such application; in which case, if the applicant shall elect not to proceed further, the Board may return to such applicant any part of the fees accompanying such application. [Id., p. 217, sec. 22.]

Art. 7504. Decision of Board.—The Board shall determine whether the application, maps, plats, contours, plans, profiles and statements accompanying same are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and with the regulations of the Board, and may require the amendment therefore [thereof]. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7505. Where recorded.—All applications filed with the Board shall be recorded in a well bound book kept for that purpose in the office of said Board, and shall be indexed alphabetically in the name of the applicant, of the stream or source from which such appropriation is sought to be made, and the county in which appropriation is sought to be made. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 7506. Board to reject applications.—It shall be the duty of the Board to reject all applications and refuse to issue the permit asked for if there is no unappropriated water in the source of supply; or if the proposed use conflicts with existing water rights, or is detrimental to the public welfare. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 7507. Board to approve applications.—It shall be the duty of the Board to approve all applications and issue the permit asked for if such application is made in proper form in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of said Board; and is accompanied by the fees required in this chapter; and if the proposed appropriation contemplates the application of water to any of the uses and purposes provided for in this chapter, and does not impair existing water rights, or vested riparian rights and is not detrimental to the public welfare. [Id.]

Art. 7508. Conditions of application.—Before the Board shall approve any such application and issue any such permit, notice of such application shall be given substantially in the following manner:

Such notice shall be in writing; shall state the name of the applicant and his residence; the date of the filing of the application in the office of the Board; the purpose and extent of the proposed appropriation of water; the source of supply; the place at which the water is to be stored, or to be taken or diverted from the source of supply; together with such additional information as the board may deem necessary. If the proposed use is for irrigation, such notice shall contain a general description of the location and the area of the land to be irrigated. Such notice shall also state the time and place when and where such application will be heard by the Board. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 7509. Publication of.—Such notice shall be published once in each week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date stated in such notice for the hearing of such application in some newspaper having a general circulation in that section of the State in which the source of water is located. In addition to such publication, a copy of such notice shall be transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, addressed to each claimant or appropriator of water from such source of water supply, the record of whose claim or appropriation has been filed in the office of the Board. Such notice shall be mailed not less than twenty days before the date set for the hearing.

Art. 7510. Hearing of application.—At the time and place stated in the notice, the Board shall sit to hear such application. Any person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district may appear, in person or by attorney, and enter appearance in writing in said matter and present objection to the issuance of permit. The Board may receive evidence, orally or by affidavit, in support of or in opposition to the issuance of such permit; and may also hear arguments. It shall have power to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place, and after full hearing to render decision in writing approving or rejecting such application. Such application may be approved or rejected in whole or in part. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Board from rejecting any application in whole without the issuance of the notice herein required. [Id. p. 218, sec. 27.]

Art. 7511. Cost of publication.—The cost of publication of the notice herein required and the postage for mailing thereof shall, in each case be paid by the applicant. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 7512. Attorney General shall represent board.—In all litigation to which the Board may be a party, the Attorney General shall represent the Board. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 7513. Duty of clerk.—When any court of record in this State shall render any judgment, order or decree, affecting in any manner the title to any water right, claim, appropriation or irrigation works, or any matter over which the Board of Water Engineers is given supervision under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to forthwith transmit to the office of the Board a certified copy of such judgment, order or decree. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 7514. Authority to inspect.—The Board, or any one employed by the Board for that purpose, shall have at all times authority to inspect any impounding, diversion or distribution works during construction, to determine whether or not they are being constructed in a safe and approved manner, and in accordance with the order of the Board theretofore issued. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 7515. Contents of permit.—Every permit issued by the Board, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be in writing, attested by the seal of said Board and shall contain substantially the following: The name of the applicant to whom issued; the date of the issuance thereof; the date of the filing of the original application therefor in the office of the Board; the use or purpose for which the appropriation of water is to be made; the amount or volume of water authorized to be appropriated; a general description of the source of supply from which the appropriation is proposed to be made; and, if such appropriation is for irrigation, a description and statement of the approximate area of the lands to be irrigated; together with such other data and information as the Board may prescribe. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 7516. Transmitted to county clerk.—Upon the issuance of such permit, same shall be transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, to the county clerk of the county in which the appropriation is to be made. [Id.]

Art. 7517. Recording fee.—Upon receipt of a recording fee of one dollar, to be paid by the applicant, such clerk shall file and record the same in a well bound book provided and kept for that purpose only, and to index the same alphabetically under the name of the applicant and of the stream or source of water supply, and, thereupon, to deliver such permit, upon demand, to the applicant. [Id.]

Art. 7518. Constructive notice.—Such permit, when thus filed in the office of the county clerk, shall be constructive notice of the filing of the application with the Board; of the issuance of the permit; and of all the rights arising thereunder. [Id.]

water thereunder shall begin actual construction of the proposed ditch, canal, dam, lake, reservoir, or other work, and shall prosecute the work thereon diligently and continuously to completion; provided, that the Board may, by an order entered of record, extend the time for beginning the actual construction of such work for a period not to exceed twelve months from the date of issuance of such permit; and, further provided, that if any applicant shall fail to comply with the requirements of this article, he, they or it, shall thereby forfeit all rights under such permit. If any applicant to whom a permit is issued, or one owning prior appropriation, shall, after beginning the actual construction work, as provided in this article, fail to thereafter prosecute the same diligently and continuously to completion the Board may, after thirty days notice to the applicant or owner of such appropriation, and giving him an opportunity to be heard, by an order entered of record, revoke and cancel such permit or appropriation in whole or in part. Any party affected by such order shall have the right of appeal to the district court, as in this chapter provided. A certified copy of such order shall be forthwith transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, to the clerk of the county in which such permit is recorded and which order shall be recorded by said county clerk. [Id. p. 219, sec. 33.]

Art. 7520. Conviction.—Any person, association or [of] persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employee or representative of any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, who shall wilfully take, divert or appropriate any of the water of this State, or the use of such water, for any purpose, without first complying with all the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and each day that such taking, diversion or appropriation of water shall continue shall constitute a separate offense, and the possession of such water, except when the right to its use is acquired in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be prima facie proof of the guilt of the person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation district, or the agent, officer, employees or representatives of any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 7521. Liable.—In addition to the punishment prescribed in the last preceding article, any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employee or representative of any such persons, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who shall wilfully take, divert or appropriate water of the State, or the use of such water, without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars per day for each and every day that such taking, diversion, appropriation, or use may be made. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 7522. Suit.—The State may recover such penalties by suit brought for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 7523. Date.—When any permit is issued under the provisions of this chapter, the priority of the appropriation of water, or the claimant's right to the use of such water, shall date from the date of the filing of the original application in the office of the Board. [Id. p. 220, sec. 36.]

Art. 7524. Measurements and calculations.—It shall be the duty of the Board to make or cause to be made measurements and calculations of the flow of streams from which water may be appropriated, as provided in this chapter, commencing such work in those streams most used for irrigation or other beneficial uses; to collect data and make surveys; to determine the most suitable location for constructing works to utilize the waters of the State; to ascertain the location and area of the lands best suited for irrigation; to examine and survey reservoir sites; and wherever practicable, to make estimates of the cost of proposed irrigation works, and the improvements of reservoir sites. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 7525. Board conversant.—It shall be the duty of the board to make itself conversant with the water courses of the State and of the needs of the State concerning irrigation matters, and the storage and conservation of the waters of the State for other purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7526. Biennial reports of board.—The Board shall make biennial reports in writing to the Governor, in which shall be included the data and information collected by the Board, and in which shall be included such suggestions as to the amendment of existing laws and the enactment of new laws as the information and experience of the Board may suggest. [Id.]

Art. 7527. Proper records.—The board shall keep in its office full and proper records of its work, observations and calculations, all of which shall be the property of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7528. Quantity of water.—It shall be the duty of the Board to ascertain the quantity of water, and to determine the proper quantities required for irrigation and other lawful uses in the several sections of the State, in order to secure the highest beneficial use of such water, such work to be first conducted in those sections where, in the judgment of the Board, the greatest necessity exists. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 7529. Board to condemn.—Full authority is lodged with the Board, on its own initiative, to condemn existing works, the existence or operation of which may, in the judgment of the Board, become a public menace or dangerous to life and property; provided that, in all cases of proposed condemnation, the party or parties at interest shall be notified of such contemplated action, and may appear at a time stated and be heard. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 7530. Right of appeal.—In such cases the party or parties whose works may be condemned, shall have the right of appeal from the decision of the Board, as provided herein in all other cases of appeal. [Id.]

Art. 7531. Board to enforce rules, etc.—The Board may adopt, promulgate and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper for the discharge of the duties incumbent upon it under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 7532. Board to charge and collect fees.—The Board shall charge and collect, for the benefit of the State, the following fees:

For filing each and every application for any purpose, a fee of seven and one-half dollars; and, in addition thereto;

For filing each and every application for storage water, except surface waters, a fee of five dollars, provided that if the application shall contemplate and propose the storage of water in excess of five acre-feet, and [an] additional fee of twenty-five cents shall be charged for each additional acre-foot in excess of five, up to and including one hundred acre-feet; for each additional one hundred acre-feet, or fraction thereof in excess of one hundred, and [an] additional fee of ten dollars, up to and including one thousand [thousand] acre-feet; and for each additional thousand acre-feet, above one thousand, and [an] additional fee of twenty-five dollars; provided that no fee, based on storage, shall be charged for any proposed or contemplated storage of less than five acre-feet.

For filing each application contemplating and proposing the taking or diversion of water for the purpose of irrigation, ten cents for each and every acre proposed to be irrigated.

For filing each application proposed and contemplating the use of water for the purpose of developing hydraulic power, a fee of two cents for each foot of head for each cubic foot of water per second it is proposed to use.

For filing each application contemplating and proposing the taking, diversion, or use of flowing water for any other purpose than storage, irrigation of land, or the development of hydraulic power, as hereinbefore provided, five cents for each acre-foot of water consumed per annum.

Provided, that, in estimating the aforesaid additional fees on a proposed appropriation contemplating the use of water or [for] two or more of the aforesaid purposes, the fees charged shall be cumulative, and a charge made for each use, based on the quantity proposed for each separate use.

For the filing of each and every exhibit, map, affidavit, or other paper authorized to be filed in the office of the Board of Water Engineers, a filing fee of twenty-five cents.

For recording each and every paper authorized or required to be recorded in the records of the office of the Board, a fee of one dollar, and, in addition thereto, a fee of fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words, in excess of two hundred.

For making and certifying each and every copy of an instrument or paper authorized to be certified under the seal of the board a fee of one dollar, and in addition thereto, a fee of fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words, including the certificate.

For making and certifying copies of any map or blue print thereof, a fee of one dollar, and, in addition thereto, a fee of seventy-five cents for each hour or fraction thereof necessarily employed by the draughtsman in making such copy.

For filing each application for an extension of time within which to begin actual construction or to complete work, a fee equal to one-half of the original application fees in such case; provided that, if it be simultaneously sought to extend both the time for the beginning and completion of any work theretofore authorized, but one fee shall be charged; and, in addition thereto, the usual fees for filing and recording such applications. [Id. p. 221, sec. 41.]

Section 41, cited above, was amended by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 342, § 4, which is art. 7532a of these statutes.

Art. 7532a. Board to charge and collect fees.—The board shall charge and collect for the benefit of the State the fees hereinafter provided, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to make a record thereof at the time same become due, and to render an account thereof to the party charged therewith, said fees being as follows:

For filing each presentation a fee of $25.00.

For filing each application for a permit a fee of $25.00 and cost of publishing notice and mailing notices.

For filing each petition for formation of a district a fee of $25.00.

For filing each application for approval of a bond issue a fee of $25.00.

For filing each application for adjusting or fixing rates a fee of $25.00.

For filing each application for extension of time under any provision of the law a fee of $10.00.

Fees hereinabove provided cover the filing of each and all papers and records filed at one time as part of such transaction.

For filing each paper or instrument, exhibit or map, affidavit or anything else authorized or provided by law to be filed, or which is filed, a filing fee of $1.00.

For recording each and every instrument or anything authorized or required to be recorded, or which is recorded in the office of the Board a fee of $1.00, and in addition thereto a fee at the rate of fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words.

For making and certifying each and every copy of an instrument or paper under the hand of the secretary, or the seal of the Board a fee of $1.00, and in addition thereto a fee at the rate of fifteen cents per hundred words including the certificate.

For making and certifying copies of any map, blue print, tracing, drawing, picture, profile or other record which is not in the class of a written instrument a fee of $1.00, and in addition thereto a fee at the rate of seventy-five cents for each hour necessarily employed by the draftsman in making such copy, or in the event such copy is made by blue print or other similar process by a State agency without special charge therefor, a fee of $1.00 for each print.

In addition to the fees herein otherwise provided there shall be paid to the Board for the benefit of the State the following fees upon each application for a permit to acquire a water right:

For the use of water for irrigation, ten cents per acre for each acre to be irrigated.

For the use of water for hydraulic power twenty-five cents for each theoretical horsepower.

For use of water for steam or gas power plant, cooling, condensing or steam purposes twenty-five cents for each indicated horsepower.

For other uses not specifically named herein twenty-five cents per acre foot based on estimated annual consumption.

For the use of water for parks, pleasure resorts, game preserves, twenty cents per acre foot of storage, based on the holding capacity of reservoir.

The maximum fees for any use of water under a permit shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars and for each additional use under the same permit for which such maximum fee is paid the fee shall not exceed two hundred dollars in addition to said sum of one thousand five hundred dollars.

The fees paid upon application for a permit other than the filing fees herein provided shall be held by the Board until said application is passed upon, and if same is not granted such fees shall be returned to the applicant therefor, provided if such application is thereafter granted by judgment of a court then said fee shall be paid before such permit shall be effective. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 342, § 4.]

Art. 7533. Fees and charges deposited.—The fees and charges collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be immediately deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue and full and detailed verified monthly and annual reports of all such receipts, as well as of the expenditures of the said Board, shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts. [Acts 1917, p. 221, sec. 41.]

Art. 7534. Fee limit.—That the fees to be paid for filing in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers of applications for permits for the storage, diversion and use of water shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars for any one such application, permit or project. In case of all such applications and permits heretofore filed and granted, on which partial payment of fees have been made, as provided by law, the balance to be paid thereon shall be the difference between the amount paid and the said maximum sum of fifteen hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 281, sec. 1.]

Art. 7535. Excess fees paid, how.—The fees provided by law to be paid to the State Board of Water Engineers upon applications for permits for the storage, diversion and use of water for any and all statutory purposes when such fees exceed one thousand dollars shall be paid as follows:

One-tenth shall be paid when the application is filed.

One-tenth shall be paid within thirty days after notice is mailed the applicant that the permit is granted. The balance shall be paid before the use of water is commenced under the permit; and a failure to so pay same shall annul such permit. [Acts 3rd C. S., 1920, p. 57, sec. 2.]

Art. 7536. State board to fix time.—Whenever the State Board of Water Engineers shall grant a permit for the use of water, which use contemplates the construction of a storage reservoir, they shall fix the time actual construction work shall be commenced thereon, not to exceed two years from the granting of such permit. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7537. Time limit.—Such time limit may be extended by order of said board upon payment of such fees as the Board may fix, not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. [Id.]

3. REGULATION OF USE

Art. 7538. Measurement of flowing water.—A cubic foot of water per second of time shall be the standard unit for the measurement of flowing water for the purpose of distributing water for beneficial uses. [Acts 1917, p. 222, sec. 42.]

Art. 7539. Standard unit.—The Standard unit for volume of static water shall be the acre-foot. [Id.]

Art. 7540. Quantity of water.—A cubic foot per second of time is the quantity of water that will pass through an area of one square foot in one second, when flowing at an average velocity of one foot per second. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art 7541. Acre foot defined.—An acre foot is the quantity of water required to cover one acre one foot deep. [Id.]

Art. 7542. Water right defined.—A water right is the right to use the water of the State when such use has been acquired by the application for water under the statutes of this State and for the purposes stated in this chapter. Such use shall be the basis, the measure and the limit to the right to use water of the State at all times, not to exceed[ing] in any case the limit of volume to which the user is entitled and the volume which is necessarily required and can be beneficially used for irrigation or other authorized uses. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 7543. Use of water limited.—Rights to the use of water acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall be limited and restricted to so much thereof as may be necessarily required when beneficially used for the purposes stated in this chapter, irrespective of the capacity of the ditch or other works, and all the water not so applied shall not be considered as appropriated. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 7544. Appropriation forfeited.—Any appropriation or use of water heretofore made under any statute of this State, or hereafter made under the provisions of this chapter, which shall be wilfully abandoned during any three successive years, shall be forfeited and the water formerly so used or appropriated shall be again subject to appropriation for the purposes stated in this Act. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 7545. Right to appropriate, when.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who may have heretofore constructed, or who may hereafter construct, any dam or dams across any river, or other stream, for the purpose of storing water for any of the purposes set forth in Article 7468 of this chapter, shall have the right to appropriate the ordinary flow, underflow, or the storm flood or rain waters of such stream, in amounts and quantities equal to the holding capacity of such dam or dams, by making application as provided in Articles 7493 and 7494 of this chapter, and such application shall have priority over all other applications; and, provided, that any such person, association of persons, corporations or irrigation district thus impounding water in any river, channel, lake or reservoir and appropriating the same shall have the right to collect from any riparian owner who shall divert such impounded water from said reservoir by pumping or otherwise a reasonable sum for the water so diverted, such sum to be determined by the Board of Water Engineers, based upon the benefits accruing to such riparian owner by reason of the construction of such dam, lake, or reservoir and the impounding of such waters therein, provided the owner of such dam, lake or reservoir and the owner of riparian rights using such water cannot agree upon the price to be paid therefor. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 7546. Authority of corporations.—All such corporations, whether chartered under the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 73, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1911, or under the general corporation laws of the State of Texas, shall have full power and authority to make contracts for the sale of permanent water rights, to any person, corporation, association of persons, or irrigation district, and to have the same secured by a lien on the lands, or otherwise, and to lease, rent or otherwise dispose of the water controlled by such corporation, for such price as may be agreed upon, and in addition to the lien on the crops hereinafter provided for, such lease or rental contract may be secured by lien on land or otherwise; provided, that such water may be sold, leased, rented or otherwise disposed of to any such person, corporation, association of persons or irrigation district, or to the water tenants thereof, who have heretofore appropriated and complied with the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 73, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1911, regardless of whether or not the water is furnished to lands adjacent or contiguous to the canals of such corporation, association of persons or irrigation district so furnishing water; provided further that any person, corporation, association of persons or irrigation district, shall be under no obligation during the period that water is so taken and utilized, to operate its or their pumping plant, headgate, or intake and failure to so operate its pumping plant, headgate, or intake during such period, shall not be deemed an abandonment or waiver, of his, their or its rights in such pumping plant, headgate, intake and source of supply.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect or alter the existing relative rights of priority of the various appropriators whose supply is derived from the same source. [Id. p. 223, sec. 48.]

Art. 7547. Who may enter into contract.—Any person [,] association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district having in possession and control storm, flood or rain waters conserved or stored, under the provisions of this chapter, may enter into contract to supply same to any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, having the right to acquire such use; provided that the price and terms of such contract shall be just and reasonable and without discrimination and subject to the same revision and control as hereinafter provided for other water rates and charges. If any person shall use such stored or conserved water without first entering into contract with the party having stored or conserved the same, such user shall pay for the use thereof such charge or rental as the Board shall find to be just and reasonable, and subject to revision by the court, as herein provided for other water rates and charges. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 7548. When lawful to use banks and beds.—For the purpose of conveying and delivering storm, flood or rain water from the place of storage to the place of use, as provided in the preceding article, it shall be lawful for any person, association of persons, corporation[s], water improvement or irrigation district, to use the banks and beds of any flowing natural stream within this State, under and in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Water Engineers, and such board shall prescribe rules and regulations for such purpose. No person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who has not acquired the right to the use of such conserved or stored waters, as provided in the last preceding article, shall take, use or divert same. [Id. p. 224, sec. 50.]

Art. 7549. Wilful interference with the passage of.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or the agent, officer, employee or representative of any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who shall wilfully interfere with the passage of, or take, divert or appropriate such conserved or stored water during the passage and delivery thereof, as provided in the last two preceding articles, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each and every day that such taking, diversion or appropriation may be made shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 7550. Duty of district court.—It shall be the duty of the district court, or the judge thereof, of any judicial district in or through which the conserved or stored waters described in the last three preceding articles may pass, at the suit of any party having an interest therein upon it being made to appear that any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employee, or representative thereof, is interfering with, or threatening or about to interfere with the passage, or is taking, diverting, appropriating, or threatening, or about to take, divert, or appropriate, any conserved or stored waters, in violation of the provisions of the last three preceding articles, to issue such writ or writs of injunction, mandamus, or other process, as may be proper or necessary to prevent such wrongful acts. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 7551. To construct gates.—Persons, associations of persons, corporations or districts, operating under the statutes of Texas relating to irrigation, are hereby authorized (subject to the conditions and regulations which may be required or prescribed by the authorities of the United States Government in respect to navigation), to construct such gates or breakwaters, dams or dikes, with gates, as may be required in any waters wholly in the State of Texas where gulf tides ebb and flow, to prevent the pollution of the fresh water of any stream, river or bayou, through ebb and flow of salt tides from the Gulf of Mexico and to conserve such fresh water in a condition fit for irrigation; provided that such work shall, in every case, be done so as not to obstruct navigation by any vessels operated on such waterway, and provided that, in every case where gates are required, to avoid obstruction of navigation, such persons, association, corporation or district responsible for the construction, shall at all times keep a competent person at such gates to operate same when required for purposes of navigation; provided further that such dam, dike or breakwater hereby authorized shall not be placed at any point in such waters, except where the gulf tides ebb and flow, and not so as to obstruct the flow of fresh water to any appropriator or riparian owner below, on the same stream. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 64, sec. 1.]

Art. 7552. Purpose of corporations.—Corporations may be formed and chartered, under the provisions of this chapter, and of the general corporation laws of the State of Texas, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, laterals, dams, reservoirs, lakes and wells, and of conserving, storing, conducting and transferring water to all persons entitled to the use of the same for irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, to cities and towns for waterworks, and for stock raising. [Acts 1917, p. 224, sec. 53.]

Art. 7553. Authority of corporations.—All such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts for the sale of permanent water rights, and to have the same secured by liens on the land, or otherwise, and to lease, rent, or otherwise dispose of the water controlled by such corporation, for such time as may be agreed upon and, in addition to the lien on the crops hereinafter provided for, the lease or rental contract may be secured by a lien on the land, or otherwise.

Provided, any contract for the sale of water rights shall be voidable, unless the seller thereof has complied with the provisions of the statute relating to certified filings, or shall have obtained a permit from the Board of Water Engineers for the purposes and uses proposed to be made by the buyer of such water rights it is proposed to deliver. [Id. part sec. 54.]

Art. 7554. Deemed guilty, when.—Any person, association of persons or corporation who sells or offers for sale any permanent water right, without having complied with the provisions of the statute relating to certified filings, or without having obtained a permit from the Board of Water Engineers for the uses and purposes purporting to be conveyed by such permanent water right, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in the county jail for any period of time not to exceed one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. part sec. 54.]

Art. 7555. Possessory right.—All persons who own or hold a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any dam, reservoir, canal, ditch, flume or lateral, constructed and maintained under the provisions of this chapter, and who shall have secured a right to the use of water in said canal, ditch, flume, lateral, reservoir, dam or lake, shall be entitled to be supplied from such canal, ditch, flume, lateral, dam, reservoir or lake with water for irrigation of such land, and for mining, milling, manufacturing, development of power, and stockraising, in accordance with the terms of his or their contract. [Id. sec. 55.]

Art. 7556. Failure to agree upon price.—If the person, association of persons, or corporation owning or controlling such water, and the person who owns or holds a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any canal, ditch, flume or lateral, lake or reservoir, constructed or maintained under the provisions of this chapter, fail to agree upon a price for a permanent water right, or for the use or rental of the necessary water to irrigate the land of such person, or for mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, or stock raising, such person, association of persons, or corporation shall, nevertheless, if he, they or it, have or control any water not contracted to others, furnish the necessary water to such person to irrigate his lands or for mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power or stock raising, at such prices as shall be reasonable and just, and without discrimination. [Id. sec. 56.]

Art. 7557. Division in case of shortage.—In case of shortage of water from drouth, accident or other cause, all waters to be distributed shall be divided among all customers pro rata, according to the amount he or they may be entitled to, to the end that all shall suffer alike, and preference be given none. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 7558. Prior vested right.—Nothing in the preceding article contained shall be held to preclude any such person, association of persons, or corporation owning or controlling such water from supplying the same to any person having a prior vested right thereto under the laws of this State. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 7559. Permanent water right defined.—The permanent water right shall be an easement to the land and pass with the title thereto; the owner thereof shall be entitled to the use of the water upon the terms provided in his or their contract, with such person, association of persons or corporation, or, in case no contract is entered into, then at just and reasonable prices and without discrimination. Any instrument of writing conveying a permanent water right shall be admitted to record in the same manner as other instruments relating to the conveyance of land. [Id. p. 226, sec. 58.]

Art. 7560. Board to make preliminary investigation.—If any person entitled to receive or use water from any canal, ditch, flume, lateral, dam, reservoir or lake, or from any conserved or stored supply, shall present to the board his petition in writing, showing that the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, owning or controlling such water, has a supply of water not contracted to others and available for his use, and fails or refuses to supply such water to him, or that the price or rental demanded therefor is not reasonable and just, or is discriminatory; or that the complainant is entitled to receive or use such water, and is willing and able to pay a just and reasonable price therefor, and shall accompany such petition with a deposit of twenty-five dollars, it shall be the duty of the Board to make a preliminary investigation of such complaint and determine whether there is probable ground therefor. If said Board shall determine that no probable ground exists for such complaint, same shall be dismissed, and the deposit may, at the discretion of the Board, be returned to the complainant or paid into the State Treasury. [Id. sec. 59.]

Art. 7561. Board to set date.—If the Board shall determine that probable grounds exist for such complaint, it shall enter an order setting said matter for hearing at a time and place to be named therein. The Board may, in its discretion, require the complainant to make an additional deposit, or to enter into bond in an amount fixed by the Board, conditioned for the payment of all costs of such proceeding, and which bond shall be approved by the Board. Thereupon, it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Board to transmit a certified copy of the petition of complainant and of the order setting same for hearing, by registered mail, addressed to the party or parties against whom such complaint is made, and which notice shall be deposited in the mails at least twenty days before the date set for such hearing. [Id. sec. 60.]

Art. 7562. Board to hear evidence.—At the time and place stated in such order the Board shall sit to hear such complaint. It may hear evidence orally or by affidavit in support of or against such complaint, and may hear arguments, and shall have power to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place, and, upon completion thereof, shall render decision in writing. [Id. sec. 61.]

Art. 7563. Board to fix rates.—The said Board shall have power and authority, and it shall be its duty to fix reasonable rates for the furnishing of water for the purposes or any purpose mentioned in this chapter. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 129, sec. 61-A.]

Art. 7564. Appeal from decision.—Appeal from such decision of the Board may be taken within the time and in the manner as herein provided for other appeals from the decision of such Board. The decision may be suspended by filing of a supersedeas bond, in the same manner as now provided in other civil cases; provided, that the Board shall fix the amount of the bond necessary to stay the execution of any such order. [Acts 1917, p. 226, sec. 62.]

Art. 7565. Witnesses expenses paid.—In any examination, investigation or proceeding authorized before the Board of Water Engineers, such board shall have power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, under such rules as the board may prescribe. Each witness who shall appear before the board by order of the board, at a place outside of the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance, one dollar per day and three cents per mile traveled by nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said board which shall be ordered paid by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness and approved by the chairman of the board; provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly interested in such proceeding. [Id. p. 227, sec. 63.]

Art. 7566. Board to adjourn hearing.—In any examination or hearing held before the Board of Water Engineers, the board shall have authority to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place. Each member of such board and the secretary thereof shall be authorized to administer oaths. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 7567. May appeal to appellate court, when.—If any person, firm, association or persons, or corporations engaged in furnishing water, or other persons at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, charge, order or act of regulation adopted by the board, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rule, rate, charge or order, or to either or all of them, in a district court of Travis County, against said board as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Any party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court at any term thereof; said action so appealed shall have precedence in said Appellate Court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 129, sec. 64-a.]

Art. 7568. Proof rests upon plaintiff.—In all trials under the foregoing article the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, acts, orders, or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id., sec. 64-B.]

Art. 7569. Board to furnish certified copies, when.—Upon application of any person, the board shall furnish certified copies of any order or decision of record of such board, or of any paper, map or other document filed in the office of such board, and such certified copies, under the hand of the secretary and seal of the board, shall be admissible in evidence in any court, in the same manner and with like effect that the original would be entitled to. [Acts 1917, p. 227, sec. 65.]

Art. 7570. Rules and regulations made and published.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district, conserving or supplying water for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter; shall make and publish reasonable rules and regulations relating to the method and manner of supply, use and distribution of water, and prescribing the time and manner of making application for the use of water and payment therefor. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 7571. Conveyance recorded.—Every conveyance of a ditch, canal, or reservoir, or other irrigation work, or any interest therein, shall hereafter be executed and acknowledged in the same manner as the conveyance of real estate, and recorded in the deed records of the county or counties in which such ditch, canal, or reservoir is situated, and any such conveyance which shall not be made in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, shall be null and void, as against subsequent purchasers thereof in good faith and for valuable consideration. [Id. sec. 67.]

Art. 7572. Corporations to store salt water, when.—That in the mode provided in Chapter 2 of Title 25 of the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1911 corporations may be created for the purpose of gathering, storing and impounding water containing salt or other substances produced in the drilling and operation of oil and other wells, and to prevent the flow thereof into streams at times when the latter may be used for irrigation. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 122, sec. 1.]

Art. 7573. Rights of corporations.—Such corporations, in addition to the general powers conferred by such title upon private corporations, may acquire, own, and operate ditches, canals, pipe lines, levees, reservoirs, and their appliances appropriate for the gathering, impounding or storage of such water, and for the protection of such reservoirs from inflow or damage by surface waters; with further power to condemn lands and rights necessary therefor under like procedure as is provided in condemnation by railroads; and also to cross with their ditches, canals and pipe lines under any highways, canals, pipe lines, railroads, and tram or logging roads; conditioned that the use thereof be not impaired longer than essential to the making of such crossings; provided that, no right is conferred to pass through any cemetery or under any residence, schoolhouse or other public building nor to cross any street or alley of any incorporated city or town without the consent of the authorities thereof. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7574. Corporations to serve producers.—In the localities in which they operate and to the extent of the facilities provided, such corporations shall serve all producers of such waters in the gathering, impounding, and storage of such waters in proportion to the needs of such producers, at fair and reasonable charges, and without discrimination between such producers under like conditions. Corporations interested in the proper disposition of such waters may subscribe for, own, and vote stock in the corporations which may be created hereunder. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7575. Use of water not entitled to.—Any person who shall wilfully open, close, change or interfere with any headgate or water box without lawful authority or who shall wilfully use water or conduct water in and through his ditch or upon his land, to which water he is not entitled, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months; provided, that the possession or use of water to which the person using or possessing same shall not be lawfully entitled shall be prima facie proof of the guilt of the person so using or in possession of same. [Acts 1917, p. 227, sec. 68.]

Art. 7576. Destruction of and punishment for.—Any person who shall wilfully cut, dig, break down, destroy, or injure, or open any gate, bank, embankment, or side of any ditch, canal, reservoir, flume, tunnel or feeder or pump or machinery, building, structure, or other work, which is the property of another, or in which another owns an interest, or which is in the lawful possession or use of another or others, and which is used for the purpose of irrigation or milling or mining, or manufacturing, or for the development of power, or for domestic purposes, or for stockraising, with intent maliciously to injure any person, association, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or for the gain of any person, association, water improvement or corporation, so cutting, digging, breaking, injuring or opening any such work hereinbefore in this article named or with the intent of taking or stealing or causing to run out or waste out of any such ditch, canal, or reservoir, feeder or flume, any water for his own profit, benefit or advantage, or to the injury of any person, association or corporation lawfully entitled to the use of such water or the use or management of such ditch, canal, tunnel, reservoir, feeder, flume, maching [machine] structure or other irrigation work, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, and may be punished by imprisonment in jail not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. p. 288, sec. 69.]

Art. 7577. Punishment for pollution.—Any person who shall deposit in any canal, lateral, reservoir or lake, used for any purpose enumerated in this Act, the carcass of any dead animal, tin cans, discarded buckets or pails, garbage, ashes, baling or barbed wire, earth, offal or refuse of any character, or any other article or articles which might pollute the water or obstruct the flow in any such canal or other similar structure, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for a term not exceeding six months, or be both so fined and imprisoned. [Id. sec. 70.]

Art. 7578. Failure to pay for proportionate share of work.—In all cases where irrigation ditches are owned or used by two or more persons, or by mutual or co-operative companies or corporations, and one or more of such persons, or shareholders, shall fail or neglect to do or to pay for his proportionate share of the work necessary for the proper maintenance and operation of such ditch, the owners or shareholders, desiring the performance of such work as is reasonably necessary to maintain and operate the ditch, may, after having given ten days' written notice to such joint owner, or owners, or shareholders who have failed to pay for or refused to perform their proportionate share of work necessary for the operation and maintenance of said ditch, proceed themselves to do such work, or cause same to be done, and may recover therefor from such person so failing to perform or pay for his share of such work, in any court having jurisdiction over the amount, the reasonable expense or value of such work or labor so performed. [Id. sec. 71.]

Art. 7579. Surplus water.—All surplus water taken or diverted from any running stream and not used by the appropriator or disposed of to consumers for the purposes stated in this chapter shall be conducted back to the stream from which taken or diverted, wherever such water may be returned by gravity flow, whenever reasonably practicable. [Id. p. 229, sec. 72.]

Art. 7580. Examination and survey.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall have power to cause an examination and survey for its proposed work to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous reservoir sites and rights of way for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter, and for such purposes shall have the right to enter upon the lands or waters of any person. [Id. part sec. 73.]

Art. 7581. Employee of board may enter upon lands of any person, when.—Any member or employee of the board shall have authority to enter upon the lands of any person and any or all waterways, either natural or artificial, for the purpose of making any investigation that would, in the judgment of the board assist in the discharge of its duties. [Id. part sec. 73.]

Art. 7582. Right of way granted to whom.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district formed for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter are hereby granted the right of way, not to exceed one hundred feet in width, and the necessary area for any dam and reservoir site over all public free school, university and asylum lands of this State, with the use of the rock, gravel and timber on such reservoir site and right of way for construction purposes, after paying such compensation as the board of engineers may determine, and may acquire such reservoir site and rights of way over private lands by contract. [Id. sec. 75.]

Art. 7583. Additional right of way obtained.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation or water improvement district, or any city or town, may also obtain the right of way over private lands and also the lands for pumping plants, intakes, headgates and storage reservoirs, by condemnation, by causing the damages for any private property appropriated by any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district or city or town, to be assessed and paid for as provided by the statutes of this State, and as provided in Title 52 of this Act relating to "Eminent Domain," provided, however, that when the power granted by this section is sought to be exercised by any person or association of persons, but not including corporation districts, cities or towns, he or they shall first make application to the Board of Water Engineers for such condemnation and said Board shall make due investigation and if it deems advisable shall give notice to the party owning the land sought to be condemned, and after hearing, may institute such condemnation proceedings in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said person or persons and all others similarly situated, the costs of said suit and condemnation to be paid by the person or persons at whose instance the same is instituted in proportion to the benefits received by each as fixed by said board and to be paid before use is made of such condemned rights or property; and thereafter all persons seeking to take the benefits of such condemnation proceedings shall make application therefor to the Board of Water Engineers and if such application is granted shall pay fees and charges as may be fixed by the board. [Id. sec. 75.]

Art. 7584. Who shall not have the right or power to acquire.—No corporation, person, association of persons, city, town, municipality, or other public corporation, shall have the right or power to acquire by right of eminent domain or condemnation, any riparian right, or rights, water rights or right, dam or dams, or water supply, or any land or lands on, under or adjacent to any stream or streams in the State of Texas, when held, owned or claimed by any corporation, person, or association of persons for the purpose of constructing or erecting any dam, lock, reservoir, power plant, canal, tail-race or channel for the purpose of using the waters of said stream or any part thereof, for developing, using or furnishing power, on any streams, or stream, the waters of which are actually being used, in whole or in part, for such uses or purposes; provided that this Act shall not apply to cities or towns having a population of 25,000 or over according to the last United States census. All parts of any law or laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [Acts 1923, p. 324, sec. 1.]

Art. 7585. Roads and highways.—All persons, associations of persons, corporations, and water improvement or irrigation districts shall have the right to run along or across all roads and highways necessary in the construction of their work, and shall at all such crossings construct and maintain necessary bridges, culverts, or siphons, and shall not impair the uses of such road or highways; provided, that if any public road or highway or public bridge shall be upon the ground necessary for the dam site, reservoir, or lake, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to change said road and to remove such bridge that the same may not interfere with the construction of the proposed dam, reservoir, or lake; provided, further, that the expense of making such change shall be paid by the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district desiring to construct such dam, lake or reservoir. [Acts 1917, p. 230, sec. 76.]

Art. 7586. Who has power to construct ditch.—Such person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district shall have power to construct its ditch or canal across, along or upon, any stream of water. [Id. sec. 77.]

Art. 7587. When necessary to irrigate or reclaim lands.—When, in the examination of any such irrigation or reclamation project, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, known as the Reclamation Act, approved June 17, 1902, it shall be found advisable or necessary to irrigate or reclaim lands within the limits of the State, the Secretary of the Department of the Interior is authorized to make all necessary examinations and surveys for, and to locate and construct irrigation or reclamation works within this State, and to perform any and all acts necessary to carry into effect the provisions, limitations, charges, terms and conditions of said Reclamation Act. [Id. sec. 78.]

Art. 7588. Provisions and amendments.—The provisions of this chapter shall in all things apply to the construction, maintenance and operation of any irrigation works in this State, constructed under what is known as the Federal Reclamation Act, approved June 17, 1902, and the amendments thereto, in so far as the provisions of this chapter are not inconsistent with said Act of Congress, or the amendments thereto, of [or] the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Department of the Interior in conformity to such Reclamation Act and the amendments thereto. [Id. sec. 79.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 7589. Unlawful to divert water.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district to take or divert any of the water of the ordinary flow, underflow, or storm flow of any stream, water course, or watershed, in this State into any other natural stream, water course or watershed, to the prejudice of any person or property situated within the watershed from which such water is proposed to be taken or diverted. [Id. sec. 80.]

Art. 7589a. Diversion or impounding of surface waters.—That it shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm or private corporation to divert the natural flow of the surface waters in this State or to permit a diversion thereof caused by him to continue after the passage of this Act or to impound such waters, or to permit the impounding thereof caused by him to continue after the passage of this Act, in such a manner as to damage the property of another, by the overflow of said water so diverted or impounded, and that in all such cases the injured party shall have remedies, both at law and in equity, including damages occasioned thereby, provided that the passage of this Act shall in no way affect the construction and maintenance of levees and other improvements for the purpose of controlling floods, overflows and freshets in rivers, creeks and streams, nor the construction of canals for conveying waters for irrigation or other purposes; and provided further that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to authorize or give authority to persons or private corporations owning or constructing canals for irrigation or other purposes to construct or maintain any canal, lateral canal or ditch in such manner as to obstruct any river, creek, bayou, gully, slough, ditch or other well defined natural drainage. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 80, ch. 56, § 1.]

Art. 7590. Application for permit.—Before any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall take any water from any natural stream, water course, or watershed in this State into any other watershed, such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall make application to the Board of Water Engineers for a permit so to take or divert such waters, and no such permit shall be issued by the Board until after full hearing before said Board as to the rights to be affected thereby, and such hearing shall be held and notice thereof given at such time and such place, in such mode and manner as the Board may prescribe; and from any decision of the Board an appeal may be taken to the district court of the county in which such diversion is proposed to be made, in the mode and manner prescribed in this chapter for other appeals from the decision of the Board. [Acts 1917, p. 230, sec. 81.]

Art. 7591. Penalty to divert waters from natural streams, etc.—If any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or the agent, attorney, employee, or representative of any such person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, shall take or divert any waters from the natural streams, water courses or watershed into any other watershed, contrary to the provision of the last two preceding articles he, it, or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail, for any term not exceeding six months, and each day that such taking or diversion shall continue shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. p. 231, sec. 82.]

Art. 7592. Acquired title.—Whenever any appropriator of water from any stream or other source of water supply located in whole or in part within this State, shall have obtained from the Board of Water Engineers a permit for the use of water, and shall have made use of the water under the terms of such permit; or whenever any such appropriator of water shall have filed an appropriation in accordance with the laws of this State in force at the time of such filing, and shall have filed with the Board of Water Engineers a certified record of such appropriation, as required by Chapter 171 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, and shall have made use of the water, under the terms of such filing or permit for a period of three years after this Act shall take effect, he shall be deemed to have acquired a title to such appropriation by limitation, as against any and all other claimants of water from the same stream, or other source of water supply, and as against any and all riparian owners upon said stream or other source of water supply. [Id. sec. 83.]

Art. 7593. Failure to fence.—Unless the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district owning or controlling any ditch, canal, reservoir, dam or lake, shall keep the same securely fenced, no cause of action shall accrue in their favor against owners of live stock for any trespass thereon. [Id. sec. 84.]

Art. 7594. Power to acquire lands by voluntary donation.—Any corporation organized under the provision of the General Laws of this State, or the provisions of this chapter for any of the purposes stated in this chapter, shall have the power to acquire lands by voluntary donation or purchase in payment of stock or bonds or water rights; and to hold, improve, subdivide and dispose of all such lands and other property; and to borrow money for the construction, maintenance and operation of its canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells and other property and franchises, to the extent of the value thereof, to secure the payment of any debts contracted for same; provided, no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and all fictitious increases in stock or indebtedness shall be void; provided further, all lands acquired by such corporation, except such as are used for the construction, maintenance or operation of such canals, ditches, laterals, feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells, and other necessary works, shall be alienated within fifteen years from the date of acquiring said land or be subject to judicial forfeiture. [Id. sec. 85.]

Art. 7595. Corporation may elect directors.—Any corporation under the provisions of the General Laws of this State, or the provisions of this chapter, for any of the purposes stated in this chapter, may elect directors or trustees to hold office for a period of three years, and may provide for the election of one-third in number thereof each year. [Id. p. 232, sec. 86.]

Art. 7596. Preference lien.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who has heretofore constructed, or may hereafter construct any ditch, canal, dam, lake or reservoir for the purpose of irrigation, and who shall lease, rent, furnish or supply water to any person, association of persons, water improvement district or corporation, for the purpose of irrigation, shall, irrespective of contract, have a preference lien superior to every other lien upon the crop or crops raised upon the land thus irrigated;

Provided, however, that when any such irrigation, conservation or reclamation district shall obtain a water supply under contract with the United States, the Board of Directors of such district may, by resolution duly entered upon the minutes of the board, and with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, waive such preference lien, in whole or in part. [Id. sec. 87; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 141, ch. 91, § 1.]

Art. 7597. Enforcement of lien.—For the enforcement of the lien provided for in the preceding article, every such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall be entitled to all the rights and remedies prescribed by Title 84, Articles 5222 to 5239, inclusive, of this Act for the enforcement of the lien as between landlord and tenant. [Id. sec. 89.]

This article is from section 88 of Acts 1917, 35th Leg., ch. 88, p. 232, instead of section 89 as shown above.

Art. 7598. Johnson grass or Russian thistle.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district owning, leasing or operating any ditch or canal or reservoir, or cultivating any lands abutting upon any reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, wasteway or lateral to permit Johnson grass or Russian thistle to go to seed upon such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way or lateral within ten feet of the high water line of any such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way, or lateral, where the same crosses or lies upon land in the ownership or control of any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, and anyone violating the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both so fined and imprisoned. [Id. sec. 89.]

Art. 7599. Counties exempt.—The preceding article shall not apply to Tom Green, Sterling, Irion, Schleicher, McCullough, Brewster, Menard, Maverick, Kinney, Val Verde and San Saba counties. [Id. sec. 89.]

Art. 7600. Artesian well defined.—An artesian well is defined, for the purposes of this chapter to be an artificial well in which, if properly cased, the waters will rise by natural pressure above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground. [Id. sec. 90.]

Art. 7601. When artesian well declared a public nuisance.—Any artesian well which is not tightly cased, capped and furnished with such mechanical appliances as will readily and effectively arrest and prevent the flow from such well, either over the surface of the ground about the well, or wasting from the well through the strata through which it passes, is hereby declared a public nuisance and subject to be abated as such, upon the order of the board. [Id. sec. 91.]

Art. 7602. Waste defined.—Waste is defined for the purposes of this Act, in relation to artesian wells to be the causing, suffering or permitting the waters of an artesian well to run into any river, creek or other natural water course or drain, superficial or underground channel, bayou, or into any sewer, street, road, highway, or upon the land of any other person than that of the owner of such well, or upon the public lands or to run or percolate through the strata above that in which the water is found, unless it be used for the purposes and in the manner in which it may be lawfully used on the premises of the owner of such well. [Id. p. 233, sec. 92.]

Art. 7603. Proper irrigation of trees, etc.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to prevent the use of such water, if suitable, for proper irrigation of trees standing along or upon any street, road or highway, or for ornamental ponds or fountains, or the propagation of fish, or for the purposes authorized by this chapter. [Id. p. 233, sec. 92.]

Art. 7604. Well properly cased.—Whenever any person desires to drill a well upon his own land for domestic purposes or use for stock raising purposes or use that comes within the definition of artesian well, as defined in this chapter he shall have the right to do so without subjecting himself to the provisions of this chapter, provided that said well shall be properly and securely cased, and whenever water is reached containing mineral or other substances injurious to vegetation or agriculture it shall be the duty of the owner of said well to securely cap same or to control its flow so as not to injure the land of any other person, or to fill it up so as to prevent the water of said well to rise above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground. [Id. sec. 93.]

Art. 7605. Accurate record kept.—Any person boring or causing to be bored any artesian well shall keep a complete and accurate record of the depth and thickness and character of the different strata penetrated, and when such well is completed shall transmit by registered mail to the Board of Water Engineers a copy of such record. [Id. sec. 94.]

Art. 7606. Excessive or wasteful use of water wilfully permitted.—Any person, association of persons or the agent of any corporation owning or acquiring any possessory right to lands contiguous to any canal or irrigation system and who acquires the right to the use of water from such canal or irrigation system, by contract as in this chapter provided, who wilfully permits the excessive or wasteful use of water by any of the agents, servants or employees of said parties, or who wilfully permits water to be wasted and not applied to a beneficial purpose, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in Article 7613 and such use or waste of water shall be declared a public nuisance and abated as such by the Board of Water Engineers: said Board of Water Engineers being empowered to direct the canal company or irrigation system to close the water gates of said persons and to keep them closed until such time as such unlawful use of water shall be corrected and the determination of this question shall be controlled entirely by the Board of Water Engineers or its agents, servants, and employees. [Id. sec. 94.]

Art. 7607. Works declared public nuisance.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who owns or operates any works which make use of water for any of the purposes named in this chapter, and who permits unreasonable loss of water in the operation of such works, through the faulty design or negligent operation of such works, shall be deemed guilty of waste, and such works or any part thereof may be declared a public nuisance and abated as such by the Board of Water Engineers. [Id. p. 234, sec. 96.]

Art. 7608. Penalty for use of works declared public nuisance.—Any person or the agent of any person, or the agent of any association or corporation who shall operate or attempt to operate any works, or shall use any water under contract, with any canal or irrigation system, that has been previously declared to be a public nuisance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not more than one thousand dollars or be confined in the county jail for a period of not to exceed one year or both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. sec. 97.]

Art. 7609. Suit instituted, where.—In any and all civil suits instituted by or under the direction of the Board of Water Engineers, suit may be prosecuted and instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county or in any of the counties where the land lies. [Id. sec. 98.]

Art. 7610. Action may be brought before any district court.—Action may be brought before any district court of this State having jurisdiction over the irrigation district in question by any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who may be injured by waste as herein defined for the determination of questions arising under Articles 7607 and 7608. [Id. sec. 99.]

Art. 7611. Detailed record.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation or water improvement district who owns and operates any system of works used for the irrigation of land, or for any of the purposes named in the law, shall keep such detailed record of daily operations as may be necessary to determine the quantity of water taken or diverted each calendar year. If the use is for irrigation, there shall also be kept a record of the number of acres irrigated, as near as may be, without making actual surveys for the purpose, and the character of crop or crops grown, and the yield per acre. [Id. part sec. 100.]

Art. 7612. Information required.—On or before the first day of March of each year, every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who, during any part of the preceding calendar year, owned or operated any of the works described in this chapter, shall furnish, under oath, to the Board of Water Engineers, upon blanks to be furnished by the Board, the information required or [to] be kept for such preceding year, or part thereof, together with such other available information as the Board may require, covering the uses made of water for any of the purposes named in the law. [Id. part sec. 100.]

Art. 7612a. Penalty for failure to file report.

—Any one who shall under the provisions of the law be required to file annual reports as provided by Section 100 of Chapter 88 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and who shall fail or refuse to so file same as therein provided shall be liable to a penalty of $25.00 and a further penalty of $1.00 per day for each day he so fails to file same after the expiration of the day provided by law upon which same shall be filed, and the State may recover such a penalty by suit therefor, provided, however, the maximum penalty for failure to file any one such annual report shall not exceed the sum of $150.00. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 136, p. 344, § 6.]

Art. 7613. Penalty for permitting waste.

—Whoever wilfully causes or knowingly permits waste, as defined in this chapter, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in jail not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1917, p. 234, sec. 101.]

Art. 7614. Sworn statement.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, or water improvement or irrigation district, owning or operating any artesian well, as defined for the purposes of this chapter, at the time of its taking effect shall, within one year thereafter, transmit to the Board of Water Engineers a sworn statement showing the result of such test, together with a declaration of the use or uses to which the newly developed supply will be devoted, and the contemplated extent of such use. [Id. p. 235, sec. 102.]

Art. 7615. Detailed statement furnished.—On or before the first day of March of each year, every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who, during any part of the preceding calendar year, owned or operated any artesian well for any purpose other than that of domestic use, shall furnish, under oath, to the Board of Water Engineers, upon blanks to be furnished by the Board, a detailed statement showing the quantity of water which has been derived from such well, and the character of use to which same has been applied, together with the change in level of water table of said well, and if used in irrigation, the acreage and yield of each crop, together with such additional data as the Board may require. [Id. sec. 103.]

Art. 7616. Oil wells exempt.—Nothing in the preceding articles, relating to artesian wells, shall be construed to apply to any oil well and the status of such oil wells shall be unaffected by this chapter. [Id. sec. 104.]

Art. 7617. Abandoned oil wells.—Abandoned oil wells shall be safeguarded as required in Article 7601. [Id. sec. 104.]

Art. 7618. Boundaries.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all streams or other[s] sources of water supply lying upon or forming a part of the boundaries of this State. [Id. p. 243, sec. 135.]

Art. 7619. Not to recognize any riparian right.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed as a recognition of any riparian right in the owner of any lands the title to which shall have passed out of the State of Texas subsequent to the first day of July, A. D. 1895. [Id. sec. 136.]

Art. 7620. Not to alter any vested right of property.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be held or construed to alter, affect, impair, increase, destroy, validate or invalidate any existing or vested right of property existing at the date when this Act shall go into effect. [Id. sec. 137.]

Art. 7621. Held unconstitutional.—If any article or provision of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not be held to invalidate any other provision of this Act. [Id. sec. 138.]

Article 7622. Water improvement districts established.—The county commissioners' court of any county in this State at any regular or called session thereof may establish one or more water improvement districts in their respective counties, or parts of such districts therein, in the manner hereinafter provided. Such districts may or may not include within their boundaries villages, towns, cities, and municipal corporations, or any part thereof, but no land shall be at the same time included within the boundaries of more than one water improvement district created under this chapter. Such districts when so established may make improvements or may purchase improvements already existing, or may purchase improvements and make additions thereto, and may issue bonds in payment therefor, as herein provided. Such districts being authorized to provide for the irrigation of the land included therein, and when operating under Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, furnish water for domestic, power and commercial purposes. Such districts may be formed for co-operation with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Laws for the purpose of the construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, necessary to maintain the irrigability of the land for the purchase, extension[,] operation or maintenance of constructed works or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 65, part sec. 1.]

Art. 7622a. Including lands within existing district.—Whenever a water improvement district, shall be organized under the provisions of this Chapter, for co-operation with the United States, under the Federal Reclamation Laws, for the purpose of the construction of irrigation works or the obtaining of a water supply therefrom, it shall be lawful to include within such water improvement district lands at the same time included within the boundaries of an existing water improvement district or other district organized for irrigation purposes, as well as lands not embraced within any such district; and when lands are embraced within two districts, as authorized by this Article, such fact shall not change, impair or limit the rights, obligations or liabilities of such lands in or to either district, but the contract with the United States may reserve to the United States a prior lien upon crops grown upon said land with water furnished in whole or in part by the United States.

Provided, further, that the lands embraced within such district need not be contiguous. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 366, ch. 247, § 1.]

Art. 7623. Petition signed by majority—notice.—The petition herein provided for to be presented to the county commissioners' court shall be signed by a majority in number of the holders of title to the lands situated within the proposed district and representing a majority in value of the lands therein as indicated by the county tax rolls; provided, however, that such petition shall be sufficient if same is signed by fifty holders of title or evidence of title to the land situated within the proposed district, in the event that the number of such land owners should be greater than fifty in number. Upon presentation to the commissioners' court either at a regular or special session, of a petition as herein provided praying for the establishment of a water improvement district, setting for [forth] the boundaries thereof and designating a name for the district, the commissioners' court shall set the same for hearing at some regular or special session to be held not less than fifteen days nor more than forty days from the presentation of said petition. The clerk of said court shall issue a notice of the said hearing, giving the date and place of hearing, and a copy of the order of the court setting same for hearing. Said notice shall be directed to the sheriff of the county requiring him to serve the notice in the manner provided by law. Said notice shall be sufficient if it contains the matter herein provided, and all persons interested shall take notice of the boundaries of said district as set out in the petition and may inspect same by examining the same in the office of the clerk of said court. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 65, part sec. 1.]

Art. 7624. Posting and publishing notice.—The sheriff shall execute said notice by posting true copies thereof in three public places within said proposed district and one at the courthouse door of the county, or on the bulletin board used for public notices at the county courthouse. Said notices shall be posted for ten full days prior to the date of said hearing. Said notices shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, if a newspaper is published therein, one time and at least five days prior to such hearing. The sheriff shall make due return of a true copy of said notice, showing the time when and the places where such notice was posted and published. The said return to be delivered to the clerk of the commissioners' court, and to be recorded in the minutes of said court. [Id. part sec. 1.]

Art. 7625. Duties imposed upon clerk and sheriff.—The duties herein imposed upon the clerk and sheriff may be performed by them acting by themselves or their deputies as provided by law for other similar duties. When conditions may make desirable, the petition herein provided for may be signed and presented to the court in several copies. When such petition is so presented in more than one copy the clerk shall file all such copies and shall make a true copy thereof, including a list of all those who have signed the several copies, and certify thereto and file same. Such certified copy shall be considered the petition in all other proceedings provided for by this chapter.

Water improvement districts to be organized as provided herein are defined districts under the authority granted by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State. [Id. part sec. 1.]

Art. 7625a. Districts in two or more counties; establishment.—When any district proposed to be established embraces lands located in two or more counties, the owners of title, or evidence of title of a majority of the acreage of the proposed district, or fifty property tax paying voters of the territory proposed to be embraced within a district may petition the State Board of Water Engineers for a hearing to determine the advisability of the creation of such district, and for an order of election creating such district, and for the election of five directors of the proposed district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 676, § 2.]

Art. 7625b. Notice of hearing.—Upon the filing of such petition, the Board of Water Engineers shall set the same down for a hearing at a date not less than fifteen or more than thirty days from the date of the filing of such petition, and shall cause notice to be given to the commissioners' court of each county in which lands are located proposed to be embraced in the district, and stating the date and place of hearing, and upon receipt of such notice by the commissioners' courts from the State Board of Water Engineers, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the said commissioners' courts to post a notice at the court house door of the date and place of hearing. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 676, § 2.]

Art. 7625c. Hearing.—At such hearing on said petition to the Board of Water Engineers, any person whose land would be affected by the organization of such district may appear before the Board of Water Engineers and protest against or contend for the creation of the proposed district, and may offer competent testimony to show that the said district would or would not serve a beneficial purpose, and that the organization of such district would or would not be practicable or capable of accomplishing the purpose intended by its organization.

If, upon hearing of such petition, it shall appear to the Board of Water Engineers that the proposed plan of water conservation, irrigation and use presented in the petition praying for the organization of the district, is practicable and would present a public utility, then the said Board of Water Engineers shall so find and enter such finding in the records of the Board, and shall transmit a certified copy of such findings to the commissioners' court in each county in which lands proposed to be embraced within said district are situated, and naming a date on which an election shall be held in the territory to be comprised within the district to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be created in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and for the election of a board of five directors of such district. But should the Board of Water Engineers, upon such hearing, determine that said proposed district is not practicable, and will not serve a beneficial purpose, and that it would not be possible to accomplish through its organization the purposes proposed, then it shall so find and enter its findings of record, and the petition shall be thereupon dismissed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 676, § 2.]

Art. 7625d. Notice of election.—Upon the receipt of a certified copy of the findings of the Board of Water Engineers authorizing an election to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be formed, the commissioners' court of each county and part of county which is embraced within the proposed district, shall give notice of an election to be held on the date named in the finding and order of the Board of Water Engineers, which notice shall be posted as provided in this Act for other elections for not less than fifteen, nor more than thirty days before the date fixed for the election. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 677, § 2.]

Art. 7625e. Election.—At the said election there shall be submitted for the decision of the voters the question whether or not the proposed district shall be created, and for the election of five directors for the district. Persons desiring to vote for the creating of such district and for the election of five directors for such district, shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For the District" and those desiring to vote against the creation of the district shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "Against the District," and those desiring to vote for the issuance of notes shall have written or printed on their ballots "For the Issuance of Notes" and those desiring to vote against the issuance of notes shall have written or printed on their ballots "Against the Issuance of Notes." At such election the names of the directors may be written or printed upon said ballot, or a separate ballot may be used for such purpose. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 677, § 2.]

Art. 7626. Creation of district contested.—Upon the day set by said county commissioners' court for the hearing of said petition, any person whose lands are included in and would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before said court and contest the creation of such district, or contend for the creation thereof, and may offer testimony to show that such district is or is not necessary and would or would not be of public utility, and that the creation of such district would or would not be feasible or practicable. Said county commissioners shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such district and all matters pertaining to the same, except as is hereinafter provided, and may adjourn the hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day and all judgments rendered by said court in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1917, p. 174, sec. 2.]

Art. 7627. Petition feasible—recorded.—If, at the hearing of such petition, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the organization of such district and the construction or purchase, or the construction and purchase of the proposed irrigation system, or that co-operation with the United States as in Article 7622 provided, is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed and would be a public benefit and a benefit to the lands included in the district then the court shall so find, and cause its findings to be entered of record; but if the court should find that the irrigation of lands in such district is not feasible and practicable and that it would not be a public benefit or is not needed or would not be a public utility, then the court may enter such findings of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7628. Appeal to district court.—If at the hearing provided for in Article 7627 of this Act, the court shall enter an order granting or refusing the petition for the organization of said district at the cost of the petitioners, then in that event the petitioners, or any one or more of them, or any one owning land in such district, may appeal from said order to the district court; provided, however, any such appeal shall only be taken in the event notice thereof is filed with said county commissioners' court at the time of said hearing, and that same is perfected by filing with the clerk of said court an appeal bond in a sum of not less than $2,000.00 or more than $5,000.00 to be fixed by said county commissioners' court, payable to the county judge for the benefit of adverse parties, at the time notice of appeal is given and said bond shall be filed with the clerk of said court within ten days thereafter. In the event of such appeal said cause shall be tried under the rules prescribed for practice in the district court, and to be de novo, and the clerk of the commissioners' court shall transfer to the clerk of the district court within ten days from the date of filing of an appeal bond such judgment and all records filed with the county commissioners' court, and it shall be unnecessary to file any other additional pleadings in said cause. The final judgment on appeal shall be certified to the commissioners' court for their action within ten days after same has become final. [Acts 1921, p. 19, sec. 4.]

Art. 7629. Election held within proposed district, when.—After hearing of the petition as provided for in Articles 7626 and 7627 of this Act, if the commissioners' court shall find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of a district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition the county commissioners' court shall order an election to be held within said proposed district at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions: "For the Water Improvement District." "Against the Water Improvement District." "For the Issuance of Notes of said District." "Against the Issuance of Notes of Said District." "For the purpose of paying the cost of organizing, surveying, maps and plats, and all other indebtedness prior to the issuance of bond [bonds] and the election of five directors as is hereinafter provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 26, sec. 5.]

Art. 7630. Time—where notices posted.—After ordering of the election as provided in the preceding article, notices of such election shall be given, stating the time and place of holding the election, and showing the boundaries of said proposed district, and such notices shall also show the presiding officer or officers appointed for the holding of said election. Such notices shall be posted in four places in such proposed district, and one shall be posted at the courthouse door of the county in which such proposed district is situated, such posting to be for twenty days previous to the date of the election and shall contain the proposition to be voted upon and names of offices to be filled at such election. [Acts 1917, p. 175, sec. 6.]

Art. 7631. Who may vote.—The manner of conducting elections herein provided for shall be governed by the general election laws of the State except as herein otherwise provided. At such election none but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters under the laws of the State shall be entitled to vote. The county commissioners' court shall at the time of ordering said first election, by an order entered of record, create said proposed district, or the part thereof within said county, into one or more election precincts and shall name a polling place in each voting precinct, and shall appoint two judges and two clerks for each polling place, one of the judges to be designate [designated] as presiding judge. If any said officer so elected fail to serve, his place shall be filled in the manner provided by the general election laws. The court shall order printed one and one-half times as many ballots for said election as there are estimated to be qualified voters within such district. Said ballots for said election shall have printed thereon substantially the following: "For Water Improvement District," "Against Water Improvement District," "For Issuance of Notes of Said District," "Against Issuance of Notes of Said District," and said ballot shall contain five blank lines upon which to write names of persons voted for, for the office of director with a heading, "For Directors, Five to be Elected." No other matter shall be placed on the ballot except the heading "Official Ballot." [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 26, sec. 7.]

Art. 7632. Election precincts.—The election precincts herein provided to be created shall be and continue the election precincts of said district until changed by an order of the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 7633. Duty of tax collector.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county before a water improvement district is formed, and of the tax collector of the district after its organization, to make a certified list of the property taxpayers of said district or part thereof in the county, and to furnish same to the officers of the election of each polling place, and before any person is entitled to vote at any election under this Act his name must appear in said certified list of property taxpayers; provided, however, that a qualified voter who is a property taxpayer in said district or proposed district, and whose name[s] does not appear upon said list, shall be entitled to vote if he shall first take the following oath, to be administered by an election judge and which judges of the election are authorized to administer: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter under the laws of the State of Texas, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of _____ (inserting the name of the district) and I did not acquire such property prior to this election for the purpose of voting, but I am a bona fide property taxpayer. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 67, sec. 8.]

Art. 7634. Court declare result of election.—The officers of the election shall make returns for each polling place in the same manner as provided by law for general elections, and the county commissioners' court shall canvass said returns in the manner provided by law. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the organization of said district, then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the establishment of said district and shall enter same in the minutes of said court. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the issuance of notes of said district then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the issuance of said notes, and it shall be the duty of the board of directors, when qualified, to issue notes of said district, in a sum not to exceed fifteen per cent of the proposed cost of improvements to be made in said district, for the purpose of creating a fund to pay the costs of the organization of the district and the cost of all surveys, investigations, engineering, issuance of bonds, making and filing of maps and reports, all legal expenses connected therewith, and all other costs and expenses authorized or made necessary by the provisions of this chapter; and to sell said notes, or to exchange the same in payment for such costs and expenses, said notes to be secured by the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes as hereinafter provided for the assessment, levy and collection of taxes for the payment of the bonds of said district; provided, however, that all notes issued under the provisions of this article, shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged out of the proceeds of the bonds when issued and sold, if bonds of said district are not voted at the election held for that purpose, then and in that event the notes so issued shall continue in force and effect and shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged by the assessment, levy and collection of taxes to pay note issues. The court shall also canvass the votes for directors and declare the election of the five persons receiving the highest number of votes for said office; provided that should it be found that two or more persons had received the same number of votes so as to make it a tie for the office between them, then the said court shall elect one of said persons to fill such position. In the event said district is composed of territory lying in two or more counties the said returns shall be canvassed and the result declared as hereinafter provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 27, sec. 9.]

See art. 7634a for amendment of 1925.

Art. 7634a. Court to canvass returns and declare result.—The officers of the election shall make returns for each polling place in the same manner as provided by law for general elections, and the county commissioners' court shall canvass said returns in the manner provided by law. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the organization of said district, then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the establishment of said district and shall enter same in the minutes of said court. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the issuance of notes of said district, then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the issuance of said notes, and it shall be the duty of the board of directors, when qualified to issue notes of the said district, in a sum not to exceed four per cent of the proposed cost of improvement to be made in said district, for the purpose of creating a fund to pay the cost of the organization of the district and the cost of all surveys, investigations, engineering, issuance of bonds, making and filing of maps and reports, all legal expenses connected therewith, and all other costs and expenses authorized or made necessary by the provisions of this chapter; and to sell said notes, or to exchange the same in payment of such costs and expenses. Said notes to be secured by the assessment, levy and collection of taxes as hereinafter provided for the assessment, levy and collection of taxes for the payment of the bonds of said district, provided, however, that all notes issued under the provisions of this article shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged out of the proceeds of the bonds when issued and sold. If bonds of said district are not voted at the election held for that purpose, then and in that event, the notes so issued shall continue in force and effect and shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged by the assessment, levy and collection of taxes to pay note issues. The court shall also canvass the votes for directors and declare the election of the five persons receiving the highest number of votes for said office; provided, that should it be found that two or more persons had received the same number of votes so as to make it a tie for the office between them, the [then] the said court shall elect one of said persons to fill such position. In the event said district is composed of territory lying in two or more counties the said returns shall be canvassed and the result declared as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 675, § 1.]

Art. 7635. Result entered in minutes.—If the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of the district, the county commissioners' court shall make and enter in the minutes of said court an order setting forth facts substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and others praying for the establishment of a water improvement district, as in said petition described and named _____ be it known that an election was called for that purpose in said district and held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, and a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereat voted in favor of the creation of said district. Now, therefore, it is declared that said district has been legally established under the name of _____, with the following metes and bonds [bounds]: (Here copy description of boundaries.)

When a district is created including territory in two or more counties the officer charged with the duty of declaring result of said election shall use substantially the same form. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 68, sec. 10.]

Art. 7636. Bear name of county.—All districts lying wholly in one county shall include in its name the name of the county in which it is located as a part of its name, and shall be numbered consecutively as created and established. A district lying partly in two or more counties may include the names of said counties in its name or may adopt any appropriate name. [Id.]

Art. 7637. Numbers of districts.—The numbers of districts created hereafter shall not conflict with the numbers of irrigation or water improvement districts heretofore created, but shall be consecutively continued, and when a district lying in two or more counties has adopted a number as part of its name such number shall not be the same as that of any other district in either of said counties, and the numbers of districts created in either of said counties shall not conflict therewith. [Id.]

Art. 7638. Certified copies recorded.—After the making and entering by the commissioners' court of the order establishing such districts as herein provided, or an order changing the name of a district, the said court shall cause to be made a certified copy of such order, which shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such district is situated, and shall cause same to be duly recorded in the deed records of said county and properly indexed in the same manner provided for the recording and indexing of deeds, and such recordation shall have the same effect, in so far as notice is concerned, as is provided for the record of deeds, and all costs in connection with the making and recording of such copies shall be paid by the districts. [Acts 1917, p. 176, sec. 11.]

Art. 7639. Directors shall each make bond.—Within ten days after the making and entry of the order of the commissioners' court declaring the result of the election and the establishment of the district as hereinbefore provided, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, the directors elected at such election shall each make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars each, payable to such district conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, to be approved by the commissioners' court. Provided, however, that after the organization of such district, all bonds required to be given by any director, officer or employee of such district shall be approved by the directors of such district, and said directors shall take the oath of office prescribed by statute for the commissioners' court, except that the name of the district shall be substituted for the name of the county in said oath of office; and the bond and oath herein provided for shall be filed with the county clerk of the county within which said district is situated and be by him recorded in the official bond record for said county, and after its record, said bond shall be delivered by the county clerk to the depository selected by such district under the provisions of this Act, and shall be by it safely kept and preserved as a part of the records of said district. [Id. p. 177, sec. 12.]

Art. 7640. Organization of directors.—The directors of such district shall organize by electing one of their number as president and one as secretary. The directors may elect a president pro tem, and a secretary pro tem, to act in the absence or inability of the president or secretary. Any three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district except the letting of constructing [construction] contracts and drawing of warrants on the depository, which shall require the concurrence of four of such directors; provided, however, warrants to pay the current expenses, salaries, and labor and material accounts, may be drawn by an officer, or employee, designated by standing order of the directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 68, sec. 13.]

Art. 7641. Who eligible for director.—No person shall be elected a director of any district created under this Act unless he is a resident of the State of Texas and owns land subject to taxation within said district, and, who, at the time of such election, shall be more than twenty-one years of age. [Acts 1917, p. 177, sec. 14.]

Art. 7642. Qualifications of tax assessor and collector.—The office of tax assessor and collector is one office to be filled by one person. The tax assessor and collector shall be appointed by the directors or if the directors so order may be elected by an election held for that purpose. He shall qualify by making and entering into a good and sufficient bond, signed also by at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board of directors, in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as tax assessor and collector and for the paying over to the depository all funds or sums of money or other thing of value, coming into his hands as such collector. The directors may require additional bonds or bond in larger amount or additional security at any time that same may be advisable in their judgment. The assessor and collector shall be a resident of the district, or any town within the general boundaries of the district, and shall be a qualified voter in the county of his residence. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 69, sec. 15.]

Art. 7643. Salary of tax assessor and collector.—The compensation to be paid the tax assessor and collector, or deputy tax assessor and collector shall be fixed by the board of directors, but shall not exceed $3,000.00 per year. One or more deputies may be appointed by the board of directors to assist the tax assessor and collector for such time not to exceed one year as may be ordered by the board. Such deputies shall perform such duties as the board may order and may be discharged at any time by the board. The amount of bond given by such deputies shall be determined at the time of their appointment or as occasion may require. The board of directors may require the tax assessor and collector to perform other duties than those herein fixed and may fix his additional compensation, if any, therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7644. Additional bond required.—In case any district organized hereunder is appointed fiscal agent of the United States, or by the United States is authorized to make collections of money for and in behalf of the United States in connection with any Federal reclamation project, such assessor and collector and each director, shall execute a further additional bond in such sum as the Secretary of the Interior may require, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his respective office and the faithful discharge by the district of its duties as fiscal or other agent of the United States under such appointment or authorization; such additional bonds to be approved, recorded and filed as herein provided for other official bonds, and any such additional bonds may be sued on by the United States or by any person injured by the failure of such officer or the district, to fully, promptly and completely perform their respective duties. [Id.]

Art. 7645. Survey of boundaries.—It shall be the duty of the directors, immediately after they qualify as such, to cause an actual survey of the boundaries of such district to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for the establishment of such district, or to adopt in whole or in part such boundaries where already established, and to have said boundary marked by suitable monuments. [Acts 1917, p. 178, sec. 16.]

Art. 7646. Petition to exclude lands.—The owner or owners of the fee of any land constituting a portion of any district may file with the board of directors of such district a petition praying that certain lands owned by them be excluded from and taken out of said district. The petition shall describe the lands which the petitioners desire to have excluded by metes and bounds and such petition must be acknowledged in the same manner and form as is required by law for the conveyance of real estate. Such petition may be filed at any time prior to the issuance of bonds by such district. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 69, sec. 17.]

Art. 7647. Notice of hearing.—Upon the filing of a petition for the exclusion of any lands from said district with the board of directors, they shall immediately set said petition down for hearing for a day certain, not to exceed twenty days, however, from the date of the filing thereof, and shall cause notice of such hearing to be given by the posting of written or printed notices of the time and place of such hearing at three public places within said district. Such notice shall contain a copy of the petition for exclusion, and shall be posted for at least eight days prior to such hearing. [Acts 1917, p. 178, sec. 18.]

Art. 7648. Decision after hearing.—The board of directors, at any time and place designated in such notice, or at such time and place as such hearing may from time to time be adjourned to, shall proceed to hear the petition and all objections thereto, and shall determine whether or not said lands, or any portion thereof, shall remain as a portion of said district or be excluded therefrom; and if upon such hearing the directors shall determine that the land desired to be withdrawn or any portion thereof is not susceptible to irrigation by gravity from the system to be provided, or for other reasons should be allowed to be withdrawn, then such lands shall be excluded by granting such petition in whole or in part, and such excluded lands and the owners thereof thereby waive all right to be served with water from such irrigation system or by said district. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, sec. 19.]

Art. 7649. Petition filed.—The owner or owners of the fee to lands contiguous to any district created under this Act may file with the board of directors of said district a petition in writing, praying that such land be included in such district. The petition shall describe the tract or body of land owned by the petitioners by metes and bounds and upon the filing of such petition with the board of directors, said board of directors shall cause an accurate survey of the said tract of land to be made and the boundaries thereof marked upon the ground, and said tract of land may be admitted as a part of the district; provided it can be irrigated without prejudice to the rights of any of the lands originally contained therein to be first furnished with an adequate supply of water, and when said lands are so admitted they shall immediately become subject to their proportionate share of any taxation or bonded indebtedness that may have been created against said district and subject to such reasonable charge against such lands for the purpose of defraying its part of the expenses of maintenance, operation or other necessary expenses previously made as may be determined by the board of directors. [Acts 1917, p. 179, sec. 20.]

Art. 7650. Application recorded.—If the lands described in said petition are admitted as a part of the district, the application for such admission shall be signed and acknowledged as provided for deeds, and shall be recorded in the deed records of the county in which such district is situated, together with the order of the directors endorsed thereon. [Id.]

Art. 7651. Consent necessary.—No land shall be added to any irrigation district with which contract with the United States shall have been made without the written consent of the Secretary of the Interior. [Id.]

Art. 7652. Directors to control district.—The board of directors herein provided for shall have control over and management of all the affairs of such district, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall employ all necessary employees for the proper handling and operating of such districts, and especially may employ a general manager, an assessor and collector, attorneys, a bookkeeper, an engineer, water master and such other assistants and such other laborers as may be required, and they may also buy all necessary work animals, motors, pumps, engines, boilers, machinery and supplies as may be required in the erection, operation and repair of the improvements of the districts; a director may be employed as general manager, and at such compensation as may be fixed by the other four directors and when so employed he shall also perform the duties of a director, but he shall not receive the compensation in this Act provided to be paid to directors. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 7653. Contract with United States.—The board of directors, on behalf of said district, may enter into any obligation or contract with the United States for the construction, operation and maintenance of the necessary work for the delivery and distribution of water therefrom, or for the drainage of district lands or for the assumption of indebtedness to the United States for district lands, or for the temporary rental of water from the United States for district lands or a part thereof, under the provisions of the Federal Reclamation Act, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, and the rules and regulations established thereunder; or the board may contract with the United States for a water supply under any Act of Congress providing for or permitting such contract, and in case contract has been or hereafter may be made with the United States as herein provided, bonds of the district may be deposited with the United States at ninety (90) per cent of their par value, to the amount to be paid by the district to the United States under any such contract, the interest on said bonds to be provided for by assessment and levy as in the case of other bonds of the district, and regularly paid to the United States to be applied as provided in such contracts, and if bonds of the district are not so deposited it shall be the duty of the board of directors to include as part of any levy or assessment now provided for by law, an amount sufficient to meet each year all payments accruing under the term of any such contract; and the board may accept on behalf of the district appointment of the district as fiscal agent of the United States in connection with any Federal reclamation project, whereupon the district shall be authorized to so act, and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to such action, and the said board shall have full power to do any and all things required by the Federal statutes now or hereafter enacted in connection therewith and all things required by the rules and regulations now or that may hereafter be established by any department of the Federal Government in regard thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7654. Directors prohibited—interest.—No director of any such district, engineer or employees thereof shall be, directly or indirectly, interested either for themselves or as agents for any one else in any contract for the purchase or construction of any work by said district, and if any such person shall, directly or indirectly, become interested in any such contract he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in any sum not to exceed one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or by confinement in the county jail not less than six months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. p. 180, sec. 22.]

Art. 7655. Districts sued.—All districts established under the provisions of this Act may sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial knowledge and notice of the establishment of such district and the boundaries thereof, and such districts shall contract and be contracted within the name of such districts. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, sec. 23.]

Art. 7656. Districts empowered.—Districts created under the provisions of this Act are hereby empowered to own and construct reservoirs, dams, wells, canals, etc., and to acquire the necessary rights of way for and buy or construct all reservoirs, dams, wells, canals, laterals, sites for pumping plants and all other improvements required for the irrigation of the lands in such district by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation, and they may acquire the title to any and all lands necessary or incident to the successful operation thereof, in addition to any of the above, in the manner provided, including the authority by purchase or condemnation, to acquire rights of way for the enlargement, extension or improvement of any existing canals, or ditches for the purpose of raising such canals and ditches jointly with the owners thereof. [Id. p. 227, sec. 24.]

Art. 7657. Property conveyed to United States.—Any property acquired may be conveyed to the United States in so far as the same shall be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States for the benefit of the district under any contract that may be entered into thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 7658. Assessor and collector to make assessment.—Immediately upon the qualification of the assessor and collector, as hereinbefore provided, he shall enter upon the discharge of his duties, and shall at once proceed to make an assessment of all the taxable property, both real, personal and mixed, in his said district; and such assessment shall be made annually thereafter. [Acts 1917, p. 181, sec. 25.]

Art. 7659. Contents of assessment.—Said assessment shall be made upon blanks to be provided by the directors for such district. Said assessment shall consist of a full statement of all property owned by the party rendering same in said district and subject to taxation therein, and shall state the full value thereof. There shall be attached to each such assessment an affidavit made by the owner or his agent rendering said property for taxation to the effect that said assessment or rendition contains a true and complete statement of all property owned by the party for whom said rendition is made in said district and subject to State and county taxation therein; and in addition to all such assessments or renditions made by the owner or agents of such property, the tax assessor shall make out similar lists of all property not rendered for taxation in such districts that is subject to State and county taxation therein. [Id.]

Art. 7660. Rendition of taxable property.—Each and every person, partnership or corporation owning taxable property in such district shall render same for taxation to the assessor when called upon so to do, and if not called upon by the assessor, the owner shall on or before June 1 of each year nevertheless render for taxation all property owned by him in the district subject to taxation. And all laws and penal statutes of this State providing for securing the rendition of property for State and county taxes, and providing penalties for the failure to render such properties shall apply to all persons, partnerships or corporations owning or holding property in any such district. The tax assessors shall have authority to administer oaths to fully carry out the provisions of this section. [Id.]

Art. 7661. Board of Equalization.—The directors for such district created under the provisions of this Act shall, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and annually thereafter, appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter and resident property owner of said district, who shall be styled "The Board of Equalization," and at the same meeting the same board of directors shall fix the time for the meeting of such Board of Equalization for the first year; and said Board of Equalization shall convene at the time fixed by the directors to receive all assessment lists or books of the assessor for said district for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal and approval, and at all meetings of said Board the secretary of the board of directors shall act as secretary thereof and keep a permanent record of all the proceedings of said Board of Equalization. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 7662. Oath.—Before entering upon the duties as such Board of Equalization, each of the members thereof shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will, to the best of my ability, make a full and complete examination, correction, equalization and appraisal of all property contained within said district, as shown by the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district, and add thereto all property not included therein of which I have knowledge," and said oath shall be spread upon the minutes to be kept by the secretary of the Board. [Id. p. 182, sec. 27.]

Art. 7663. Board to examine assessment lists.—The Board of Equalization herein provided for shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time fixed for the convening of said Board, all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district for their examination, that they may see that each and every person has rendered his property at its full value; and said Board shall have power to send for persons and papers to swear and qualify persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property, and if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and if too low they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said Board shall have power to correct any and all errors that may appear on the assessors lists or books, and shall have further authority to add any and all property to said lists of inventories that may have been omitted therefrom. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 7664. May file complaint.—The Board of Equalization shall equalize, as near as possible the value of all property situated within said district, having reference to the location of said property and the improvements thereon situated. Any person may file with the said Board at any time before the final action of said board, a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said Board shall hear said complaint, and said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses examined to sustain said complaint as to the assessment of said property, or as to a failure to render any property owned by any person, partnership or corporation situated within said district subject to taxation which has not been properly assessed. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 7665. Certified list furnished.—The assessor for such district, at the same time that he delivers to said Board his lists and books, shall also furnish to said Board a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse or swear to or to sign, the oath or affirmation as required by this law, together with the list of the property of such persons situated within said district who have failed or refused to list their property, as made by him through other information, and said Board shall examine the list and appraise the property so listed by the assessor. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 7666. Board to adjourn—serve notice.—In all cases where the Board of Equalization shall find it their duty to raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor or to add property omitted therefrom, they shall, after having fully examined such lists or books, and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said Board to give a written notice to the owner of such property, or to the person rendering same, of the time to which said Board may have adjourned, and that such owner or person may at that time appear and show cause why the value of such property should not be raised, which notices may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in any post office within the county. [Id. p. 183, sec. 31.]

Art. 7667. Board to lower property value.—The Board of Equalization shall meet at the time specified in said order of adjournment and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised; and if said Board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value; and said Board of Equalization, after they have finally examined and equalized the value of all the property on the assessors lists or books or that may have been placed thereon by said Board of Equalization, shall approve said lists or books and return them, together with the lists of unrendered property to the assessor that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by this Act; and when said general rolls are so made [up] the Board shall immediately reconvene to examine said rolls and approve the same if found correct; and the action of the Board at the meeting last provided for in this article shall be final and shall not be subject to revision by said Board or by any other tribunal thereafter. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 7668. Compensation.—The members of the Board of Equalization and the secretary while acting as secretary of said Board, shall receive such compensation for their services as may be fixed by the board of directors of the district, not to exceed, however, the sum of six dollars per day for the time actually engaged in the discharge of such duties. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, sec. 33.]

Art. 7669. Permanent record.—After the return to the assessor and collector of the assessment lists and books duly approved by the Board of Equalization, as hereinbefore provided for, the said assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all taxable property situated in said district upon duplicate rolls and after the approval of said rolls by the Board of Equalization, he shall retain one of same in his office and shall deliver the other copy to the directors of said district, to be kept by them as a permanent record in their office, and all lists and books of said assessor shall be caused to be substantially bound and by him kept as a permanent record of his office, and be delivered, together with all other[s] records of his office, to his successor, upon his election and qualification, or, in case of a vacancy in such office to the directors for said district. [Acts 1917, p. 183, sec. 34.]

Art. 7670. Assessors report.—The assessor and collector shall collect all taxes due to said district, and shall, at the expiration of each week, pay over to the depository selected by said district all moneys by him collected, and shall report to the directors for such district on the fourth Saturday in every month all moneys so collected by him and paid over to the depository as hereinbefore provided, and shall perform all such other duties, and in such manner and according to such rules and regulations as the board of directors may prescribe and for the convenience of the persons, firms or corporations owning such tax, shall keep and maintain an office with the board of directors for such district, where all such taxes may be paid. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 7671. Credit.—The assessor and collector shall be charged by the directors for such district, upon a permanent finance ledger to be kept for said purpose by said district, with the total assessment as shown by the assessment rolls; and proper credit shall be given to the assessor and collector for all sums of money paid over to the depository, as shown by his monthly reports as hereinbefore provided for, and upon the final annual settlement, the said assessor and collector shall make up a full complete report of all taxes that have not been collected, which said report shall be audited by said board of directors, and proper credits given therefor, and such annual settlements shall be made on the first Monday in September of each year. [Id. p. 184, sec. 36.]

Art. 7672. Assessment date.—The assessment provided for in this Act shall be made upon all property subject to taxation in said district on the first day of January of each year, and such assessment shall be completed and the lists and books ready to deliver on or before the first day of June of each year. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 7673. Board convene annually.—The Board of Equalization, after the first year, shall convene annually on the first Monday in June of each year to receive all of the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal and approval, and for the addition thereto of any property found to be unrendered in said district and shall complete and deliver said lists and rolls to the assessor and collector by the third Monday in July of said year, and the said assessment rolls shall be completed by the assessor and approved by the Board of Equalization, and returned to said assessor and collector by the first Monday in October of each year after the first assessment as hereinbefore provided. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 7674. Taxes due—payable.—All taxes provided for by this Act shall become due and payable on the first day of November of each year and shall be paid on or before the 31st day of January thereafter. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 7675. Taxes remain lien.—All lands and other property which have been returned delinquent, during the existence of such district, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and said taxes shall be and remain a lien upon said land, and upon all other property against which same were assessed, although the owner be unknown or though such land be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner, and though the ownership be changed the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year or years, provided the record owner of such land or lands at the date of filing such suit be made a party to such suit and be properly cited, and such districts shall have authority to file suits for the collection of taxes due upon land and also personal property or property of any character. No law providing for a period of limitation on debt or actions shall apply to such taxes, accruing after the formation of such district. [Acts 1st C. S., 1921, p. 149, sec. 40.]

Art. 7675a. Assessment lien; not barred by limitation.—All assessments made by the directors of a water improvement district as provided by law for the maintenance and operation thereof, shall be and constitute a lien against the land on which such assessments are made and remain a lien thereon until same are paid and satisfied, and no law providing for a period of limitation against actions for debt shall apply thereof [thereto]. Same shall not be barred by limitation. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 362, § 4.]

Art. 7676. District no right to become party.—No district created or existing or to be created under the provisions of this chapter shall have the right to become a party to or purchase, or hold under or assign or seek to enforce or receive the fruits or benefits from any contract between any land owner and private canal company or corporation made prior to the formation of such district, but all rights and privileges owned or possessed by such district are those arising or inherent in such district by virtue of this chapter. The statutes of limitation of two years as well as the provisions hereof may be pleaded in bar of all actions for the recovery of water rents or other assessments accruing on land in such district prior to the formation of such district and cannot acquire or enforce any lien against such land fixed by any contract existing prior to the formation of such district and cannot prosecute or cause to be prosecuted for it any suit or cause of action or claim of any character for its use for the recovery of any such water taxes or assessments accruing prior to the formation of such district and cannot foreclose any lien on such lands by reason of such unpaid water assessments and taxes accruing prior to the formation of such district and cannot avail itself of any rights under any private contracts made with reference to said lands prior to the formation of such districts, and cannot be held liable for the breach of any such contract. [Acts 1st C. S., 1921, p. 150, sec. 40a.]

Art. 7677. Delinquent tax record.—It shall be the duty of the directors for such district to cause to be prepared by the tax collector, or at the expense of such district a list of all lands upon which the taxes remain unpaid on the 31st of January of each year, and such list of lands shall be known as a delinquent tax roll, and such delinquent tax roll shall be delivered to the secretary of such district to be by him safely kept as a part of the record of his office. Such delinquent record shall carry a sufficient description to properly identify the land shown to be delinquent therein. Such description may be made by reference to lot or block number. [Acts 1917, p. 184, sec. 41.]

Art. 7678. How recorded.—Upon receipt of such delinquent tax roll by the directors of said district, the said directors shall cause said record to be recorded in a book which shall be labeled "The Delinquent Tax Record of _____ County, Water Improvement District No. _____," and shall be accompanied by an index showing the name of delinquents in alphabetical order.

Art. 7679. Publication of delinquent tax record.—Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any such district, it shall be the duty of the directors thereof to cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county in which said district is situated for three consecutive weeks, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such lists may be published in a newspaper outside of the county to be designated by such directors by a contract entered into, and a publisher's fee of not to exceed twenty-five ($.25) cents for each tract of land so advertised and said publication, and any other publication, in a newspaper provided for in this Act may be proven by the affidavit of the proprietor of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication specifying the time when and the paper in which the publication was made.

Art. 7680. Attorney to bring suit.—Twenty days after the publication of such notice or as soon thereafter as practicable, the directors for such water improvements or irrigation shall employ an attorney to bring suit in the name of the district in the district court of said county for the purpose of collecting all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs due upon said land. Said petition shall describe all lands upon which taxes and penalties shall remain unpaid and the total amount of taxes and penalties due thereon with interest computed to the time fixed for the sale of said land at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum, and shall pray for a judgment for said amount, and for the fixing, establishing and foreclosing of the lien existing against such land; that said lands be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief to which such district may be entitled under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes as provided in this Act shall take precedence and have priority over all other suits pending in the district court.

Art. 7681. Parties defendants.—The proper persons shall be made parties defendants in all such suits and shall be served with process and other proceedings due therein as provided by law for suits of like character in the district court of this State, and in case of foreclosure, order of sale shall issue thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the sheriff or other officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in less tracts than the whole, together with a description of such subdivision as the defendant may request, provided same are reasonable, and in such case, shall sell only as many subdivisions as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalties and cost, and after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale to the defendant or his attorneys of record. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 7682. Deed to purchaser.—In all cases in which lands may be sold for default in the payment of taxes under the preceding section, it shall be lawful for the sheriff or other officers selling the same or any of his successors in office, to make a deed or deeds to the purchaser, or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this State to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof subject to be impeached only for actual fraud. [Id. p. 186, sec. 46.]

Art. 7683. Attorneys compensation.—The attorneys representing such district in all suits against delinquent taxpayers that are provided for in this Act shall receive for such service such compensation to be paid out of delinquent taxes collected, as may be allowed by the directors for such district; provided, however, that in no event shall said fee exceed fifteen (15%) per cent of the amount of taxes so collected. The sheriffs, district clerks and other officers, executing any writ or performing any service in the foreclosure of delinquent taxes on any lands situated in such district shall receive the same fees for such services as is provided by statute as fees for like services performed in connection with the discharge of the duty of their respective offices. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 7683a. Attorney's fees added to taxes; publication not necessary.—When a water improvement district shall employ an attorney to collect delinquent taxes, the fees of said attorney as fixed under the provisions of Section 47, Acts of 1917, by the board of directors shall be added to such taxes to the extent of not to exceed 10% of the amount of such delinquent taxes as collection fees and may be recovered in the judgment rendered in any such tax suit. The publication of the delinquent tax rolls shall not be a prerequisite to the filing of tax suits by a district and such suits may be filed without the publication thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 362, § 2.]

Art. 7684. Interest on delinquent taxes.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by this Act until after the 31st day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll for said district, a penalty of ten (10%) per cent on the entire amount of such tax shall accrue which penalty when collected shall be paid over to such district. Such delinquent taxes shall bear interest from August 1st after due at the rate of six per cent per annum. And the collector of taxes shall, by virtue of his tax roll seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property as shall be sufficient to make the amount of such taxes together with the penalty above provided, interest thereon at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum and all costs accruing thereon. If no personal property be found for seizure and sale as above provided, the collector shall make up and file with the secretary of the district the delinquent tax list hereinbefore provided for, charging against same all taxes, penalties and interest assessed against same and the owner thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 186, sec. 48.]

Art. 7685. Delinquent taxpayer [may] redeem lands, how.—Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or anyone having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this Act by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon with interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent and all costs and the penalty of ten (10%) per cent as provided in this Act. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 7686. Duty of engineer.—After the establishment of any such district and after the qualification of the board of directors, and after the return of the list of assessments of the taxable property situated in such district, the board of directors for such district may appoint an engineer, whose duty it shall be to make a complete survey of the lands contained in said district, and to make a map and profile of the several canals, laterals, reservoirs, dams, and pumping sites in such district and connected therewith, which shall also show any part of said canals, laterals, reservoirs and dams or pumping sites extending beyond the limits of such district, which said map shall show the name and number of each survey and shall also show the area in number of acres contained in such district. Provided, however, that such engineer may adopt any and all surveys heretofore made by any person, firm or corporation who have applied for or appropriated any water for irrigation under the general laws of this State; and provided further, that said engineer may adopt all surveys for canals, laterals, reservoirs, dams or pumping sites shown on said maps or plats, or may adopt other maps, plats and surveys of the correctness of which he may be satisfied. [Id. p. 187, sec. 50.]

Art. 7687. Map.—The maps hereinbefore provided for shall show the relation that each canal and lateral bears to each tract of land through which it passes and the shapes into which it divides each tract, and how much and what part of each tract can be irrigated therefrom, and where the canal or lateral cuts off any less than twenty acres of land from any tract, the map shall show the number of acres in the whole tract, showing the shape of such small tract and its relation to the canal or lateral. And such profile map shall also show in detail the number of cubic yards necessary to be moved or excavated in order to make such reservoir, canal or lateral, and shall show in detail the specification for all other works necessary to the construction of all improvements proposed to be made in such district, and gives the estimated cost of each and when said map, profile, specifications and estimates shall have been completed by the engineer as herein provided, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the secretary of said board. Provided, however, that where said district contains any pumping plants, canals, dams, ditches or reservoirs heretofore created, and which is contemplated to be purchased or acquired by said district, then such map or plat and estimates as hereinbefore provided for shall show such improvements and the price or probable price at which the same may be acquired, and where additional improvements of canals, ditches, laterals, reservoirs or pumping plants are to be constructed, such report shall contain the detailed information with reference to such additional improvements as is provided for in this article. Provided, further, that none of the maps and data prescribed by this and the preceding article except such as are required for use in the making of assessments and levies for district purposes shall be required where contract is entered into with the United States under Federal laws. [Id. sec. 51.]

Art. 7688. Election.—After the establishment of any such district and the qualification of the directors thereof, and after the making and filing of such maps, profiles, specifications and estimate as provided for in the preceding article and after the making and return of the assessment roll by the assessor and collector for said district, as provided for in this Act, the board of directors may order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time at which election there shall be submitted the proposition and none other: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax and payment therefor." "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax and payment therefor." In the event that contract is proposed to be made with the United States under the Federal reclamation laws, the question which shall be submitted to the voters at such election shall be: "For contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor," and "Against contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor." [Id. p. 188, sec. 52.]

Art. 7689. Notices posted, where.—Notice of such election stating the maximum amount of bonds to be issued, which amount shall not exceed the engineers [engineer's] estimate, together with the amount of incidental expenses, organization expenses, and the cost of additional work which it may become necessary to add to the engineer's estimate by any change or modification made by the directors of the district in the proposed work; also stating the proposed maximum interest rate thereon, and the proposed maximum maturity date of said bonds; also stating the time and place or places of holding the election shall be given by the secretary of the board of directors, as ordered by the directors, by posting notices thereof in four public places in such district and one at the courthouse door of the county or counties in which said district is situated. Such notice shall be posted for at least twenty days prior to the date of the election. Said notice shall also be published in the manner prescribed in Section 43, Chapter 87, Acts Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, sec. 53.]

Art. 7690. Contents of notice.—The said notice shall contain substantially the proposition to be voted on as herein provided; provided, however, the bonds so voted upon may be issued to mature in serial form at any date not to exceed the maximum date stated in the notice and may be issued at any rate of interest not to exceed the rate of interest stated in such notice. Said notice shall also contain a summary of the engineer's estimate of the cost of construction of the proposed improvements, and estimate of cost of purchase of any existing improvements to be purchased, together with additions thereto as herein provided. If, however, contract with the United States is proposed for election, the notice shall state the maximum amount of money payable for construction purposes, exclusive of penalties and interest. [Id.]

Art. 7691. Polls and Ballots.—The manner of conducting all elections herein provided for shall be governed by the election laws of the State of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of said district shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the director for such district at such election. The directors for such district shall name a polling place for such election in each voting precinct or part of the voting precinct embraced in said district, and shall also select and appoint two judges, one [of] whom shall be the presiding judge, and two clerks, for each voting precinct designated in said order; and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots for said election as there are qualified resident tax-paying voters within such district, as shown by the tax rolls of said county. Said ballot shall have written or printed thereon these words, and no others: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor," and "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." If it is proposed that contract be entered into with the United States the ballot shall contain the following words, and no others: "For contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor," and "Against contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor." [Acts 1917, p. 188, sec. 54.]

Art. 7692. Oath.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is hereby authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, Water Improvement District No. _____, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of said district, and that I have not voted before at this election." [Id., p. 189, sec. 55.]

Art. 7693. Returns—result.—Immediately after the election the presiding judge at each polling place shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided by law in general elections, such return to be made to the secretary of such district, who shall keep same in a safe place, and deliver them together with the returns from the several polling places to the directors of such district, who shall at a regular session or a special session called for that purpose, canvass said returns and declare the results thereof. In a district operating under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution a majority vote is required in favor of the issuance of bonds and in other districts a two-thirds majority is required. If said canvass of said returns shows said bond issue to have been adopted or said election to have been in favor of making contract with the United States, as the case may be, and the levy of tax, then said directors shall declare the result of said election—to be in favor of the issuance of the bonds, or in favor of the making of contract with the United States, and the levy of tax and payment therefor, and shall cause the same to be entered in their minutes. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 71, sec. 56.]

Art. 7694. Directors enter record.—After the canvass of the vote and declaring the result as provided for in the preceding section, the directors for said district shall make and enter an order directing the issuance of bonds, or authorizing the execution of contract with the United States for such district, as the case may be, sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements, together with all necessary incidental expense connected therewith, not to exceed the amount specified in the order for the election and the notice of election. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 27, sec. 57.]

Art. 7695. Bonds to include interest.—Provided, however, that bonds may be issued when so authorized by a majority of the voters of said district so as to include a sum sufficient to pay the first three years' interest accrued on the bond issue authorized and no taxes shall be levied against the property situated in said district for said period of three years, when this power is exercised, except in an amount sufficient to pay off, satisfy and discharge the notes provided for in Article 7634 of this Act. [Id.]

Art. 7696. Limitation of indebtedness.—In districts organized under the authority of Article 52 of Section 3 of the Constitution the amount of such bonds, or the amount of contract indebtedness with the United States, shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the actual assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the assessment thereof, for the purpose of determining the value thereof, or at the last annual assessment as provided for in this chapter. This limitation of indebtedness of one-fourth of the assessed value shall not apply to districts, organized under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 7697. Modifications.—Provided, however, that if after an election has been held for the issuance of bonds or for contract with the United States, and the tax authorized and levied, and bonds have been authorized to be issued, or have been issued as provided for in this chapter, or contract with the United States authorized or executed, as the case may be, the directors for said district shall consider it necessary to make any modifications in said district, or in any of the improvements thereof, or shall determine to purchase or construct any further or additional improvements therein and issue additional bonds upon the report of the engineers, or shall determine to make supplemental contract with the United States, or upon its own motion may find it necessary to make said additional improvements, or purchase additional property in order to carry out the purpose for which said district was organized, or to best serve the interest of said district, said findings shall be entered of record, and notice of an election for the issuance of said bonds, or for the authorization of contract with the United States shall be given and such election held within such times, and the returns of such election made as hereinbefore provided for in cases of original election, and the result thereof determined in the same manner. [Id.]

Art. 7698. Bond issuance—requirements.—If the result of such election be declared to be in favor of the issuance of such bonds or the making of such contract with the United States, said directors may order such bonds to be issued, or may negotiate and execute supplemental contract with the United States as in the manner provided in this chapter. And provided, that if a contract is made with the United States as in Article 7653 hereof provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with said contract, bonds need not be issued, or if required to raise funds in addition to the amount of such contract, said bonds shall be issued only in the amount needed in addition thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7699. Bonds to repair damage.—Provided, further, that whenever such a district shall have constructed or purchased improvements and same shall be damaged so that it may be necessary to raise funds to repair such damage, such district may either issue bonds to secure such funds or may issue its notes to run not to exceed twenty years, and to bear interest at not to exceed six per cent per annum. Before such notes are issued, the board of directors shall order an election and give notice thereof as required in bond issues, stating the purpose for which they are to be issued, the time they are to run, and the rate of interest they are to bear, and the time and place of said election. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon, "For Issuance of Notes," and "Against Issuance of Notes." The election shall be held and returns made and canvassed as provided for bond elections. If two-thirds majority of those voting at such election voted in favor of the issuance of such notes, the board of directors may issue same and sell same for the benefit of said district. Such notes shall not be issued in an amount of more than thirty thousand ($30,000.00) dollars. At the time such notes are issued or sold the board of directors shall levy a tax for the purpose of paying the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund sufficient to pay such interest and to pay said notes within the time of their maturity. Said notes may be issued in serial form to mature in installments as determined by the directors. [Id.]

Art. 7700. Denomination of bonds.—The bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the president and attested by the secretary, with the seal of said district affixed thereto, and such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each, and such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six (6%) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds shall by their terms provide the time, place or places, manner and conditions of their payment, and the interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the directors for such district, and none of such bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 190, sec. 58.]

Art. 7701. Preferred lien.—Provided, that the lien for the payments due the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompany [accompanying] which bonds have not been deposited with the United States, shall be a preferred lien to that of any issue of bonds or any series of any issue subsequent to the date of such contract. [Id.]

Art. 7702. Suit not permitted, when.—No suit shall be permitted to be brought in any court of this State contesting or enjoining the validity of the formation of any district created under the provisions of this chapter, or any bonds issued hereunder, or contesting the validity of contract with the United States or of the authorization thereof by the district except in the name of the State of Texas, by the Attorney General, upon his own motion, or upon the motion of any party affected thereby upon good cause shown, except as herein provided. [Id. sec. 59.]

Art. 7703. Determine validity.—Any such district in this State desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, bring an action in the district court in any county of the judicial district in which said district, or any part thereof, may be situated or in the district court of Travis County, to determine the validity of any such bonds, or such district contracting with the United States in accordance with this chapter, shall, if requested by the Secretary of the Interior, bring an action in said court to determine the validity of said contract. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of a general notice thereof once each week for at least two consecutive weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is situated, and if no paper is published in the county then same shall be published in a paper in the nearest county thereto where a paper is published. Notice shall also be served upon the Attorney General of the State of Texas of the pendency of said action in the same manner as in civil suits. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 72, sec. 60.]

Art. 7704. Attorney General may waive service.—The Attorney General may waive service in such suits when furnished a full transcript of the proceedings had in the formation of such district and in connection with the issuance of said bonds, or in connection with the authorization of said contract with the United States and a copy of the contract. [Id.]

Art. 7705. Attorney General to tender issue.—It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to make a careful examination of all such proceedings and require such further evidence and make such further investigation as may seem to him advisable. He shall then file an answer tendering the issue as to whether such bonds are legal and binding obligations upon such district, or, as the case may be, as to whether such contract with the United States is legal and binding upon the district. The issue thus made shall be tried and determined by the court and judgment entered upon such finding. Upon the trial of such cause the court may permit any person having an interest in the issues to be determined to intervene and participate in the trial of the issues made. All suits brought under the provisions of this chapter shall have preference over all other actions in order that a speedy determination as to the matters involved may be reached. [Acts 1917, p. 191, sec. 61.]

Art. 7706. Judgment rendered.—Upon the trial of the issues made under the preceding article, if the judgment of the court shall be adverse to the district, then such judgment may be by said district accepted, and the error pointed out in such proceedings may be corrected in the manner designated or directed by said court, and when so corrected, the judgment of the district court shall be rendered showing that said corrections had been made, and that the bonds issued thereunder, or the said contract with the United States, are binding obligations upon said district. And thereafter the judgment, when so finally made and entered, shall be received as res adjudicata in all cases arising in connection of said bonds or any interest due thereon, or in connection with the collection of moneys required by contract with the United States, and as to all matters pertaining to the organization and validity of said district, or pertaining to the validity of the bonds or of the said contract with the United States. [Id. sec. 62.]

Art. 7707. Certified copy.—After the making and entry of the judgment of the district court, as hereinbefore provided, the clerk of said court shall make a certified copy of such decree, which shall be a part of the orders and decree connected with such election, and said court decree shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and to be by him recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and said certified copy or a duly certified copy of said record made by the Comptroller shall be received in evidence in all litigation thereafter rising which may affect the validity of such bonds or of such contract with the United States, and shall be conclusive evidence of such validity. [Id. p. 192, sec. 63.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 7708. Comptroller to register bonds.—Upon the presentation of said bonds, together with a certified copy of the decree of the district court, as provided for in the preceding article, the Comptroller shall register said bonds, together with a certified copy of the judgment, as herein provided for, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and shall attach to each of said bonds a certificate of the fact that the decree of the district court as required by this chapter has been filed with him in his office; such certificate to be signed by him officially, and the seal of his office attached thereto. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 7709. Book provided.—The county commissioners court in the county in which such district may be situated, in whole or in part, shall provide a well bound book in which a list of said bonds shall be kept by the county clerk, showing their numbers, amount, rate of interest, date of issue, when due, where payable, and said book shall be a public record. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 73, sec. 65.]

Art. 7710. Salable bonds.—After the issuance of said bonds, and after the registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for the State of Texas, as provided by this chapter, the board of directors for such district shall offer for sale, and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best possible price, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than ninety per cent of their face value. When said bonds are sold, all money received therefrom shall immediately be paid over by the board of directors to the depository for said district, provided, however, that the board of directors may exchange bonds for property to be acquired by purchase under contract or in the payment of contract price for work to be done for the use and benefit of said district. [Acts 1921, p. 19, sec. 66.]

Art. 7711. Purpose of construction and maintenance fund.—All expenses, debts and obligations necessarily incurred in the creation and establishment and maintenance of any district organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such district, which fund shall consist of all moneys received by said district from the sale of the bonds of such district, or as hereinafter provided, or if contract is proposed to be made with the United States for the construction of the irrigation system, said expenses, debts and obligations may be paid out of the maintenance and operating fund. [Acts 1917, p. 192, sec. 67.]

Art. 7712. Directors levy tax.—Whenever such bonds shall have been voted, the directors for such district shall levy a tax upon all property within such district sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds together with an additional amount to be placed in the sinking fund, sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity, and said directors for such district shall annually levy or cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within said district sufficient in amount to pay for the expenses for assessing and collecting such taxes. Whenever contract shall be made with the United States, taxes shall similarly be levied sufficient in amount to meet all installments, as they become payable, and interest, if any, and the directors shall cause due levy annually to be made until all such contracts and obligations shall have been discharged. Such bonds may be issued in serial form, or payable in installments, as determined by said directors, and such tax levy shall be sufficient if it provides an amount sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to meet the proportional amount of the principal of the next maturing series of said bonds, and the expenses of assessing and collecting such taxes for such year. [Id., p. 193, sec. 68.]

Art. 7713. "Interest and Sinking Fund."—There is hereby created what shall be termed the "Interest and Sinking Fund" for such district, and all taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter for such fund, shall be credited to such fund, and shall never be paid out, except for the purpose of satisfying and discharging the interest on said bonds, or for the payment of such bonds, and to defray the expense of assessing and collecting such tax, and for the payment of principal and interest due or to become due to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States, as in Article 7653 hereof provided, such fund shall be paid out upon order of the directors of such district upon warrants drawn therefor, as hereinbefore provided, and at the time of such payment the depository for such district shall receive and cancel any interest coupon so paid or any bond so paid, and when any such interest coupon or bond has been paid, it shall be delivered to the directors and be cancelled and destroyed. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 73, sec. 69.]

Art. 7714. "Maintenance and Operating Fund."—There shall also be created a fund to be known as "Maintenance and Operating Fund," and such fund shall consist of all moneys collected by assessment or otherwise for the maintenance and operation of the properties owned or acquired by such district, or for temporary rental due to the United States, and, except the expenses of assessing and collecting taxes for interest and sinking fund, which shall be paid as provided in the next preceding article, out of said maintenance and operating fund shall set aside the amortization and emergency fund, hereinafter provided for, and shall be paid all expense of operation of every kind, and any balance due on construction, or for extensions or improvements, not otherwise provided for, such debts to be paid upon warrants executed as otherwise provided herein. [Acts 1923, p. 378, sec. 70.]

Art. 7715. Engineer make inspection and valuation.—As soon after the passage of this Act as practicable and before fixing the next annual assessment for maintenance and operation, the board of directors of each such district shall cause to be made by a competent engineer an inspection and valuation of all the physical properties of such district, subject to decay or obsolescens[c]e, or to loss, injury or damage by any sudden, accidental or unusual cause whatsoever, and based upon such inspection and valuation said engineer shall determine, as nearly as may be, such a sum, to be annually set aside, as will be sufficient to pay for replacement of each item of such physical property at the end of its economical life, or for the restoration or replacement of any such physical property upon the happening of such loss, injury or damage thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7716. "Amortization and Emergency Fund."—Out of the maintenance and operation fund, as the same shall be collected, such board of directors shall set aside such portion thereof as shall be necessary to make each year the amount of the annual sum determined as above provided, to be known as the "Amortization and Emergency Fund" and no part of such fund shall be expended except to replace such amortized property or to restore or replace such lost, injured, or damaged property. Any part of the Amortization or Emergency Fund not necessarily expended for the purposes above provided, may be invested in bonds or interest bearing securities of the United States. Provided, that any such board of directors may or may not, in the discretion of such Board, establish such Amortization and Emergency Fund, but after such fund has been established for any such district as above provided, the same shall thereafter be kept up and maintained. [Id.]

Art. 7717. Term of office.—The terms of office of all officers elected for such district shall be for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers elected at the first election held under the provisions of this chapter shall hold office only until the next regular election to be held in said district for the election of such officers. [Acts 1917, p. 194, sec. 71.]

Art. 7718. Directors elected or appointed.—There shall be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1924, and every two years thereafter, a general election, at which time there shall be elected five directors for such district, who shall be the elective officers for such district. Provided, that in all such districts containing not to exceed twelve thousand acres, in which sixty per cent or more of the lands in such district are owned by persons who do not reside in the district, the directors shall be appointed by the county commissioners' court of the county in which the district is situated. The term of office for such directors shall be two years and they shall be so appointed at the same time fixed for the election of directors in other districts and if for any reason the county commissioners' court is not in session at that time the said court shall convene and appoint said directors as soon thereafter as possible. The owners of the lands in such district may file with the county commissioners' court petitions expressing their choice of persons to be selected as directors, and if the owners of sixty per cent of such land, and if sixty per cent of such landowners, agree upon the persons to be appointed, the persons so agreed upon, if qualified, shall be appointed. Otherwise the said court shall appoint suitable qualified persons as such directors. [Acts 1923, ch. 58, sec. 72.]

See art. 7718a for amendment of 1925.

Art. 7718a. Directors elected or appointed.—There shall be held a general election in all water improvement districts on the second Tuesday in January, 1926, and every two years thereafter, at which time there shall be elected five directors for each district.

In all such districts hereafter organized, containing not to exceed 12,000 acres of land, in which 60% or more of the lands are owned by persons who do not reside in the district, the petition for organization of such district may provide that the directors of such district shall be appointed by the county commissioners' court of the county in which such district is situated. In all such districts in which the petition so provides the directors shall be appointed by the county commissioners' court and no election for directors shall be held therein. They shall be so appointed at the time fixed for the election of directors in other districts and if, for any reason, said court is not in session at that time, as soon thereafter as possible. The owners of the lands in such district may file with the court petitions expressing their choice of persons to be selected as directors, and if the owners of 60% of such lands agree upon the persons to be appointed the court shall be governed thereby, otherwise said court shall appoint suitable, qualified persons as directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 362, § 3.]

Art. 7719. Directors receive and canvass election returns.—All elections held in water improvement districts shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this State, except as herein otherwise provided; provided, however, that the board of directors shall appoint all necessary officers to hold such elections, and shall name the polling places in said district, and shall receive and canvass the election returns and do and perform all other duties necessary to the holding of said election and canvassing the returns thereof and declaring the result thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 194, sec. 73.]

Art. 7720. Employment time limited.—All other persons employed or representing said district shall be employed by the board of directors for such time and under such terms and conditions as said board of directors shall deem best for the interest of said district; provided, however, that no contract shall ever be made with any person or employee for a longer period of time, at any one time, than one year, and the salaries of all such employees, or the compensation to be received by them, shall be fixed by the board of directors at the time of the employment. [Id. sec. 74.]

Art. 7721. Vacancies filled, how.—All vacancies in the office of director for such district shall be filled by the board of directors by appointment, and the director so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election, and until his successor has been elected and qualified. Provided, however, that where the number of directors shall have been reduced by death or resignation or from other cause to less than three, then such vacancies shall be filled by a special election to be ordered, by the president of said board of directors, or by any two members of said board, said election to be ordered and held after the giving of notice for the election of said officers as provided for the holding of general elections; and further provided, that if said president or two of the directors shall fail or refuse to order such election, then said election may be ordered by the district judge of any judicial district in which said district may be situated upon a petition signed by any five parties interested in the election of said directors, whether said interested parties be taxpayers or bond holders; and when so ordered, notice shall be given of said election, and such election held in the manner provided for the holding of general elections, but under the order of said court, and the directors elected at such election shall hold their office until the next general election, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. In the event that less than a quorum exists to approve bonds of such elected directors, then such bonds shall be approved by the county commissioners' court of the county in which such directors reside. [Id., sec. 75.]

Art. 7722. Directors compensation.—The directors provided for by this chapter shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five dollars per day for each and every day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such directors, and said directors shall file with the secretary for such district a statement verified by their affidavit of the number of days actually taken by them in the service of said district, said statement to be filed on the last Saturday in each month, or as nearly thereafter as practicable, and before a warrant shall issue for the payment of such services. [Id., p. 195, sec. 76.]

Art. 7723. Right of eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through all lands, private and public, except as hereinafter indicated, necessary for making reservoirs, canals, laterals, and for pumping sites, drainage ditches, levees and all other improvements necessary and proper for such districts, and the authority hereby conferred shall authorize and empower such districts to condemn all lands, private and public, for the purposes herein indicated beyond the boundary of such districts and in any county within the State of Texas; the right of eminent domain shall not extend to land used for cemetery purposes, nor to property owned by any person, association of persons, corporation or water improvement district, and used for the purpose of supplying water under the laws of this State and necessary for the making of reservoirs, canals, laterals, pumping sites, levee and drainage ditches, or other appurtenant work by such owner. All such condemnation proceedings shall be under the direction of the directors and in the name of the irrigation or water improvement district, and the assessing of damages and all procedure with reference to condemnation, appeal and payment shall be in conformity with the statutes of the State and as provided in Title 52 of this Act relating to "Eminent Domain," and all such compensation and damages adjudicated in such condemnation proceedings shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of said district. [Id., sec. 77.]

Art. 7724. Defined districts.—In all cases where [where] districts have been heretofore established or wherein proceedings are now pending to establish same, and a hearing has heretofore been had upon a petition to establish such districts, and action thereon has been taken by the commissioners' court, or where a public hearing is now pending upon such petition, and the notices thereof and therefor have been given as provided for by Chapter 172, of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature, such notices are hereby deemed and declared to be and to have been due and regular notices of such publication under the full meaning, intents and purposes of this chapter, and all such districts so established are hereby declared to be duly and regularly established and are hereby declared to be defined districts, or territory within the meaning of the Constitution, and all acts or things done by said districts under the provisions of said Chapter 172 of the Thirty-third Legislature are hereby validated and declared to be the regular and binding act of such district. [Id., sec. 78.]

Art. 7725. District dissolved, when.—In the event that any district established under the provisions of Chapter 172 of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature shall not within two years after the taking effect of this Act, or that any district which may hereafter be established under the provisions of this chapter shall not within two years after the conclusion of the organization of such district begin to acquire the necessary canals, ditches, flumes, laterals, reservoirs, sites, dam sites, pumping plants or other things necessary to the successful operation of such a district, or shall not diligently pursue the purposes for which said district was created, then and in that event, such district may be dissolved without the necessity of taking any action in connection therewith, and any party having interest herein, or to whom any debt may be due and owing by said district, may collect such debt in the same manner provided by law for the collection of any debt due by any person, association of persons or corporation, and such debt shall be a lien upon the property of such district when established by any court of competent jurisdiction, and the judgment of said court shall provide for the payment of such debt and judgment in the same manner as judgments for debt against cities or towns that have been dissolved may be enforced; and provided further, that any district heretofore organized, or hereafter organized, under the provisions of this chapter, may voluntarily dissolve by the same vote and in the same manner herein provided for the organization of districts, such election to be held in the manner herein provided for the holding of elections in such districts, but provided further, that no dissolution shall be had until all debts and obligations have been fully paid and discharged. Any such district may also voluntarily abolish its corporate existence in the same manner as provided by law for the dissolution of drainage districts, as set forth in Chapter 28 of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature, First Called Session, and each and all of the provisions of said Act shall apply to and control the abolition of said districts and the legal consequence thereof. [Id., p. 195, sec. 79.]

Art. 7726. Advice of State Board of Water Engineers.—When any district proposed to be established embraces lands located in two or more counties the owners of title, or evidence of title of a majority of the acreage of the proposed district, or fifty property tax paying voters of the territory proposed to be embraced within a district may petition the State Board of Water Engineers for a hearing to determine the advisability of the creation of such district, and for an order of election creating such district, and for the election of five directors of the proposed district. Upon the filing of such petition the Board of Water Engineers shall set the same down for a hearing at a date not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the filing of such petition, and shall cause notice to be given to the commissioners' courts of each county in which lands are located proposed to be embraced in the district, and stating the date and place of the hearing, and upon receipt of such notice by the commissioners' courts from the State Board of Water Engineers it shall be the duty of the clerk of the said commissioners' courts to post a notice at the courthouse door of the date and place of hearing. At such hearing on said petition to the Board of Water Engineers any person whose land would be affected by the organization of such district may appear before the Board of Water Engineers and protest against or contend for the creation of the proposed district, and may offer competent testimony to show that the said district would or would not serve a beneficial purpose, and that the organization of such district would or would not be practicable or capable of accomplishing the purposes intended by its organization. [Acts 1921, p. 20, sec. 80.]

Art. 7727. To grant petition.—If upon hearing of such petition it shall appear to the Board of Water Engineers that the proposed plan of water conservation, irrigation and use presented in the petition praying for the organization of the district, is practicable and would present a public utility, then the said Board of Water Engineers shall so find and enter such finding in the records of the Board, and shall transmit a certified copy of such finding to the commissioners' court in each county in which lands proposed to be embraced within said district are situated, and naming a date on which an election shall be held in the territory to be comprised within the district to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be created in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and for the election of a board of five directors of such district. But should the Board of Water Engineers upon such hearing determine that said proposed district is not practicable, and will not serve a beneficial purpose, and that it would not be possible to accomplish through its organization the purposes proposed, then it shall so find and enter its findings of record, and the petition shall be thereupon dismissed. Provided, that the boundary lines of the proposed district may be so changed in the course of such hearing as to meet objections urged to the practicability and feasibility of the district, in accordance with the findings of the Board of Water Engineers, if such changes will result in bringing the proposed district within the provisions of the statute, and will make such district serve a beneficial purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7728. Commissioners' court give notice.—Upon the receipt of a certified copy of the findings of the Board of Water Engineers authorizing an election to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be formed, the commissioners' court of each county and part of county which is embraced within the proposed district shall give notice of an election to be held on the date named in the finding and order of the Board of Water Engineers, which notice shall be posted as provided in this chapter for other elections for not less than fifteen, nor more than thirty days before the date fixed for the election. [Id.]

Art. 7729. Purpose of election.—At the said election there shall be submitted for the decision of the voters the question whether or not the proposed district shall be created, and for the election of five directors for the district. Persons desiring to vote for the creation of such district and for the election of five directors for such district shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For the District," and those desiring to vote against the creation of the district shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against the District." At such election the names of the directors may be written or printed upon said ballot, or a separate ballot may be used for such purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7730. Canvassing returns.—In certifying the result of its findings upon the petition for an election to create a district, and for the election of the board of directors, the Board of Water Engineers shall designate the county judge in one of the counties in the proposed district as a canvassing board to receive and canvass and declare the result of the election for the creation of the proposed district.

When the election for the creation of the district has been held the officers named by the commissioners' court of the different counties to hold the elections in the proposed district shall make returns of the election to the commissioners' court of their respective counties and return all ballot boxes to the clerk of the commissioners' court of the county, and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county in the proposed district upon receiving returns of the election to canvass the same and certify the result of the election in the county to the county judge of that county named by the Board of Water Engineers as the canvassing board in the election for the creation of the district, and for the election of the board of directors. Upon receipt of the returns of the election in the different counties of the district the county judge designated to canvass the vote shall canvass such vote and certify the result to each county in the proposed district. If a majority of the votes cast in the district are in favor of the creation of the district, this finding shall be entered of record in the permanent records of the commissioners' court in each county embraced in whole or in part in the proposed district, and the county judge of the county canvassing the vote of the district shall certify the result to the five persons receiving the highest number of votes for directors, and issue to them a certificate of election, and the said directors shall after having been notified proceed with the organization of the district as provided in this chapter. [Id. p. 21, sec. 81.]

Art. 7731. Districts governmental agencies.—The board of directors, as soon as they shall have qualified, shall proceed to the selection of all administrative officers and necessary employees for the direction of the affairs of the district in the manner provided in this chapter for districts lying wholly in one county, except as may be specifically provided in these Articles 7726 to 7731, inclusive. The board of directors elected for such district shall qualify and meet as hereinabove provided, and shall have charge of the affairs of the district in the same manner as herein provided for districts lying wholly within one county. All such districts shall be governmental agencies, and body politic and corporate, and be governed by and exercise all the rights, privileges and powers provided by law as pertaining to districts lying within one county, and as embodied in the provisions of this chapter. [Id. p. 22, sec. 82.]

Art. 7732. Conditions of additional territory.—Whenever any water improvement district has been formed under this chapter, or under the provisions of Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, lying wholly within one county, and it is to the advantage of such district and of land owners lying in the adjoining county or counties to have such adjoining lands added to or included in such established district then the same may be so included in or added to the territory already included in such established district in the following manner: The owners of the fee shall make application to the directors of the established district to which they desire to be annexed, which application shall be in writing and shall describe the lands covered by the application by metes and bounds and same shall be acknowledged in the same manner and form as now required for the acknowledgment of deeds, and if said land is a homestead or the separate property of a married woman it shall be acknowledged by both husband and wife. [Acts 1917, p. 198, sec. 83.]

Section 83, cited above, was amended by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 362, § 5, which is art. 7737a of these statutes.

Art. 7733. Petition heard and election thereof.—The directors of the district shall set said petition or application down for hearing on some certain date and shall give notice of such hearing in the same manner as provided in Articles 7623 and 7624 of this chapter, and shall consider same in the same manner as provided for the consideration of petitions by the county commissioners' court as set out and provided in Articles 7626 and 7627 of this chapter, and in the event that they shall find and determine that it is for the advantage of such established district and for advantage of the lands sought to be added thereto, to so include said lands in said district, then they shall so find and enter said findings of record in the minutes of said directors and they shall thereupon order an election to be held in said established district to determine whether or not said additional territory shall be permitted to be added thereto, which election shall be held after thirty days notice, which notice shall be given by posting copies of such notice in five public places in said district for at least twenty days next preceding the day of election, and if there be a newspaper published in said district, by publishing such notice for at least once a week for three weeks next preceding the day of said election. [Id.]

See note to article 7732.

Art. 7734. Question submitted.—The said notice shall be given by the directors which said directors shall furnish all necessary supplies for said election and shall appoint two judges and two clerks for all polling places in said district to conduct said election and make return thereof, which officers shall take the oath of office prescribed by the general election laws of the State, and they shall make returns of said election to the directors of the district, but in all other things said election shall be held in conformity with the general election laws of the State. At such election there shall be submitted the question, and none other, "Shall the proposed territory be added to the district?" and there shall follow said sentence the word "Yes" and just below it the word "No." [Id.]

See note to article 7732.

Art. 7735. Two-thirds majority required.—If two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers of said district vote "yes," then the said territory may be added and become a part of said district in the same manner as if originally incorporated therein and subject to all laws governing said district; provided, that the directors of said district may require the owners of said lands to pay into the interest and sinking fund of said district their proper pro rata part of charges theretofore made against the lands in said district to pay interest and sinking fund upon bonds of said district. [Id.]

See note to article 7732.

Art. 7736. Extra election held.—If the application or petition for the addition of lands to the districts as herein provided for shall cover a number of different tracts of land, or if there be included in the territory so described in said application or petition property taxpayers other than those signing and acknowledging such application, or if there be included in such territory as many as ten property taxpaying voters, then at the same time the election above provided for is held in said established district, there shall also be held and conducted under the same rules and regulations as above provided for elections within such established territory, an election in such territory that is proposed to be added, except that the notice of election shall include a full description by metes and bounds of the territory included within such proposed addition. The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon, "For Addition to Irrigation District," and "Against Addition to Irrigation District," but shall not contain any other matter whatever. In the event that two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpaying voters voting thereon at said election vote in favor of the addition of such territory, then same may be added to such irrigation district by a proper order of the directors entered upon the minutes of such established district, said order to be made within twenty days after the holding of such election, and said territory so added shall thereafter be and become an integral part of said district subject to all laws governing said district as completely and as fully as if same had been included in the district in its original formation; provided, however, that no water shall be furnished for the irrigation of land included within said district until the owners and holders thereof shall have fully paid the charges fixed against each such land by the directors as a condition to their admission into the district as provided for in this Act. [Id.]

See note to article 7732.

Art. 7737. Voters have right to participate.—Such additions to such district shall not in any manner affect the officers, employes and affairs of such district, but the voters of such added territory shall have a right to participate in all matters of the district considered or voted upon thereafter, and in case contract has been made with the United States as aforesaid, the Secretary of the Interior may assent to such change. [Id.]

See note to article 7732.

Art. 7737a. Addition of lands in adjoining county.—Lands laying [lying] in an adjoining county may be added to an established water improvement district in another county in the same manner as if said lands were in the same county in which such district is situated. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 362, § 5.]

Art. 7737b. Liability of lands added to district.—When land is added to an established water improvement district and such district is organized, or is operating, as such district under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, such land may be added to such district upon the agreement, contained in the order of the board of directors admitting such lands to the district, that same shall be taxed upon the assessment of benefit plan of taxation instead of upon the plan of the general ad valorem tax, and such agreement may provide that such lands shall be so taxed upon a uniform acreage basis or upon the plan of a definite annual payment. In such event the amount of the debts to be paid by such lands and the amount to be paid as an annual tax thereon for the purpose of paying such debts shall be fixed by the order of the board of directors admitting such lands to the district, and same shall become a lien on said lands in the same manner and to the same extent as if said land had been a part of said district at the time such indebtedness was incurred or authorized by an election held for that purpose. Such added land shall be a part of said district and shall be liable for debts thereafter incurred in the same way as other lands in said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 361, § 1.]

Art. 7738. Penalty for prohibiting officers to enter land.—The directors of any district and the engineer and employees thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district, for the purpose of examining same, locating reservoirs, canals, dams, pumping plants, and all other improvements, to make maps and profiles thereof; and are hereby authorized to go upon the lands beyond the boundaries of such districts in any county for the purposes stated, and for any other purposes necessarily connected therewith, whether herein enumerated or not. And any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any such officers or employees from entering any lands for such purposes shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer or employee from entering upon any lands. [Acts 1917, p. 199, sec. 84.]

Art. 7739. Contracts made by directors.—Contracts for making and constructing reservoirs, dams, canals, laterals, pumping plants, check gates, sluice gates, and all improvements whatsoever of said district shall be made by the directors, to the lowest responsible bidder, after giving notice by advertising same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the State of Texas, and in one newspaper published in the county, if there be one in the county, and one newspaper in such district, if there be one in the irrigation district, which notice shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks; and also by posting notices for at least twenty days in five public places in the district, and one at the courthouse door of the county or counties in which such district is situated; provided that the provisions of this article shall not apply in case of any contract between the district and the United States. [Id. p. 200, sec. 85.]

Art. 7740. Copy of engineer's report furnished bidder.—Any person, corporation or firm, desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised as provided for herein, shall upon application to the directors be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report, and profile, showing the work to be done, provided the directors may charge therefor the actual cost of having such report and profile made and furnished. All bids or offers to do any such work shall be in writing, and sealed and delivered to the president or secretary of the board of directors, together with a certified check for at least two per cent of the total amount bid, which said amount shall be forfeited to the district in the event the bidder refused to enter into a proper contract for his bid as accepted. Any or all bids may be rejected in the judgment of the directors. All bids shall be opened at the same time. [Id. sec. 86.]

Art. 7741. Copy of contract recorded.—All contracts made by the districts shall be in conformity with and subject to the provision of this chapter, and the provisions of this chapter shall be a part of all contracts in so far as applicable to either the contractor or the district, and the provisions of this chapter shall govern whenever the contract is in conflict herewith. The contract shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors and directors, and a copy of same so executed shall be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which said district is situated, which said copy so filed with said county clerk shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and be subject to public inspection. [Id. sec. 87.]

Art. 7742. Give bond.—The person, firm or corporation to whom such contract is let shall give bond payable to the district in such amount as the directors may determine, not to exceed the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and that in default thereof they will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Such bond shall be approved by the directors, and shall be deposited with the depository of the district, a true copy thereof being retained in the office of such directors. [Id. sec. 88.]

Art. 7743. Specifications included.—All such contracts shall contain a full statement of the specifications for all work included in the contract, and all such work shall be done in accordance with the specifications under the supervisions of the directors and the district engineer. [Id. sec. 89.]

Art. 7744. Full and detailed reports given.—As the work progresses the engineer of such district will make full reports to the directors, showing in detail whether the contract is being complied with or not in the construction, and when the work is completed the engineer shall make a detailed report of same to the directors, showing whether or not the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been so complied with. The directors, however, will not be bound by such report, but may in addition thereto fully investigate such work and determine whether or not such contract has been complied with. [Id.]

Art. 7745. Bridges and culverts.—The district is hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any railroad track and roadway of such railway to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, lateral, or ditch necessary to be constructed as a part of the improvements of such district. Such bridges or culverts shall be paid for by the district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by such district directors by delivering a written notice to any legal agent, division superintendent or roadmaster of such railway, and the railway company shall be allowed thirty days to build such bridges or culverts at their own expense, if they should desire to do so, and according to their own plans; provided such canal, culvert or ditch shall be constructed of sufficient size not to interfere with the free and unobstructed flow of water passing through the canal or ditch, and shall be placed at such points as are designated by the district engineer, or directors. [Id.]

Art. 7746. Bridges and culverts required.—Such districts are hereby authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, laterals and ditches made and constructed by such district, whenever the same crosses a county or public road, and shall pay for the same out of the funds of such district. [Id. p. 2091, sec. 90.]

Art. 7747. Disbursement of remaining funds.—After the full and final completion of all the improvements of such district as herein provided for, and after the payment of all the expense incurred under the provisions of this chapter, the directors are authorized to use the remaining funds of the district for the best interest of such district in the preservation, upkeep and repair of the works of such district. [Id. sec. 91.]

Art. 7748. Directors to inspect—draw warrant.—The directors shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, at all times during the progress of the work being done under any contract, to inspect the same; and upon the completion of any contract in accordance with its terms, they shall draw a warrant on the depository of the district for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee; and if the directors shall deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise a contract to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, and such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty-five (85) per cent of the amount of work done, the said amount of work completed to be shown by certified report of the engineer of the district. [Id. sec. 92.]

Art. 7749. Semi-annual report.—The directors shall make a semi-annual report on the first days of July and January of each year, showing in detail the kind, character, and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same, the amount of each warrant drawn, and to whom paid, and for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this chapter, and each report shall be verified by them, a copy of which shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which such district is situated, and shall be open to public inspection. [Id. sec. 93.]

Art. 7750. Supply water for annual rental.—When a district acquires an established irrigation system which has supplied water to lot owners in a city, town or village, and such city, town or village is not included in such district, such district shall continue to supply water to such lot owners for a reasonable annual rental. [Id. p. 202, sec. 94.]

Art. 7751. Statement furnished.—Every person desiring to receive water during the course of the year, or at any time during the year, shall furnish to the secretary of the board of directors a statement in writing of the acreage intended by him to be put under irrigation, and for which water is to be used, and as near as may be, a statement of the several crops to be planted with the acreage of each, and shall at the same time pay such proportion of the water charge or assessment therefor as may be prescribed by the board of directors. If such statement should not be furnished or such payment should not be made before the date for fixing the assessments, there shall be no obligation upon the district to furnish such water to such person for that year. [Acts 1923, p. 379, sec. 95.]

Art. 7752. Expense estimated.—The board of directors, on or as soon as practicable after a date in each year to be fixed by a standing order of the board, shall carefully estimate the expense to be incurred during the course of the next succeeding twelve months for the maintenance and operation of the irrigation system. A proportionate part of the amount so estimated, not less than one-third, nor more than two-thirds, to be determined from year to year, by the board of directors, shall be paid by assessment against all irrigable lands within the district, pro rata per acre; that is to say, against all lands to which the district is in condition to furnish water by its then system of canals and laterals, or through extension thereto of then existing laterals, but without reference as to whether such land is to be actually irrigated or not; and the remainder of the amount so estimated shall be paid by the persons taking water or applying for water as aforesaid. This remaining amount shall be equitably prorated, as nearly as may be, among the applicants for water, and in prorating same, the board of directors may take into consideration the acreage to be planted by each applicant for water, the crop to be grown by him, and the amount of water per acre to be used by him; provided, however, that each water user shall pay the same price per acre for use of water upon the same class of crops. All assessments shall be paid in installments and at times to be fixed by the order of the board of directors, but if the crop for which such water was furnished shall be harvested prior to time fixed for the payment of any installment, the entire unpaid assessment shall at once become due and shall be paid within ten days after the harvesting of such crop and before the removal of same from the county or counties in which grown. The board of directors shall have power and authority from time to time to adopt, alter and rescind rules, regulations, standing orders and temporary orders, not in conflict with this chapter, governing the methods, ways, terms and conditions of water service, applications for water, assessments for maintenance and operation and the payment and the enforcement of payment of such assessments, and the furnishing of water to persons who have not applied for same before the date of assessment, and to persons who desire to take water for irrigation in excess of their original applications, or for use on other lands than those covered by such applications. The board of directors may, at their discretion, require every person desiring water during the course of the year to enter into a contract with the district, which contract shall indicate the acreage to be watered, the crops to be planted, and the amount to become due, and the terms of payment; and it may be further required that the water taker shall execute a negotiable note or notes for such amounts, or for parts thereof. The making of such contracts shall not constitute a waiver of the lien given by this chapter upon the crops of the water taker for the service furnished to him. If the water taker shall water more land than is called for in his contract he shall pay for the additional service rendered as and at the time hereinbefore indicated. To secure money for operating and maintenance expense of the district, the board of directors shall have authority to borrow money with interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum, and may hypothecate any of its notes or contracts with water takers or accounts against them. The district shall have a first lien, superior to all other liens, upon all crops of whatever kind grown upon each tract of land in the district, to secure the payment of the assessments herein provided for, and all such assessments shall bear interest from the time due and payable at the rate of ten per cent per annum. Provided, however, that when such district obtains a water supply under contract with the United States, the board of directors of such district may, by resolution entered upon the minutes of the board and with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior, waive in whole or in part, such lien. And if suit should be filed therefor, or the same should be collected by any legal proceeding, an additional amount of ten per cent on unpaid principal and interest shall be added to the same as collection or attorney's fees, which collection fees, as well as principal and interest of such assessments, shall stand secured by the lien aforesaid. Suits for delinquent water assessments may be brought either in the county in which the irrigation district is situated or in the county in which the defendant resides. All land owners shall be personally liable for all assessments herein provided for, and if they shall fail or refuse to pay same when due the water supply shall be cut off and no water shall be furnished to the land until all back dues are fully paid. This provision with respect to cutting off water shall bind all parties, persons and corporations owning or thereafter acquiring any interest in said lands. The directors of all districts shall within ten days after any assessment is due, post at a public place in said district a list of all delinquents and shall thereafter keep posted a correct list of all such delinquents; provided, however, that if the parties owing such assessments shall have executed notes and contracts as hereinbefore provided, they shall not be placed upon such delinquent list until after the maturity of such notes and contracts. In the event that contract shall be made with the United States, the remedies in this section hereinbefore provided in favor of the district shall apply with regard to the operation and maintenance and rental charges which may become due to the United States. Provided, however, that the Federal Reclamation Laws, and in particular, The Reclamation Extension Act approved August 13, 1914, and any Acts amendatory thereof, shall be applicable. Moreover, all water, the right to the use of which is acquired by the district under contract with the United States, shall be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the Acts of Congress, and rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior, and the provisions of such contract in relation thereto. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 138, ch. 90, § 1.]

Art. 7753. Public notice of assessments given.—In the event the assessments made as provided for in the preceding article should be more than sufficient to meet the necessary obligations of the district, the balance shall be carried over to the next season; and in the event the assessments made are not sufficient to meet the necessary expenses of such district the balance unpaid shall be assessed, as pro rata, in accordance with the assessments previously made for the then current year, and shall be paid under the same conditions and penalties within thirty days from the time such assessment is made. Public notice of all such assessments shall be given by posting printed notices thereof in at least three public places in the district, and printed notices shall be mailed to each land owner; provided, however, each land owner shall furnish to the board of directors his correct post-office address. Such notice shall be given by posting and mailing such notice five days before the assessment is due, and in the event of special assessments such notice shall be given within ten days after such assessments are levied. [Acts 1917, p. 204, sec. 96.]

Art. 7754. Plans include, what.—Included in the plans of any such district may be the necessary drainage ditches, or other facilities for drainage, and necessary levees for the protection of land under the system; and every such district may purchase the system or any part of any system belonging to a drainage district. The purchase, however, shall provide for the payment of the debts of the drainage district, or the assumption of such debts, and the amount of such debts paid or assumed is to be considered in determining the bond issuing capacity of the district. [Id. sec. 97.]

Art. 7755. Assessments collected, how.—All assessments for operation and maintenance expenses made under the provisions of this chapter shall be collected under the direction of the directors, by the assessor and collector of taxes, or other person designated by them, which said officer shall give bond in such sum as they may direct conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and accounting for all money collected. He shall keep a true account of all money collected, and deposit the same as collected in the district depository, and shall file with the secretary of the directors a true statement of all money collected once each week. The collectors shall use duplicate receipt books, and shall give a true receipt for each collection made, retaining in such book a true copy thereof, which shall be preserved as a record of the district. [Id. sec. 98.]

Art. 7756. True accounts kept where.—The directors of such district shall keep a true account of all their meetings and proceedings, and shall preserve all contracts, records and notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatsoever kind, in a fireproof vault or safe, and the same shall be the property of the district and shall be delivered to their successors in office. [Id. sec. 99.]

Art. 7757. Depository selected.—The directors for such district shall select a depository for such district under the same provisions as are now or may hereafter be provided for the selection of the depository for the counties in this State. The duties of such depositories shall be the same as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for county depositories. However, in the selection of depositories the directors of such district shall act in the same capacity and perform the same duties as is incumbent upon the county judge and members of the county commissioners' court in the selection of the county depository; provided, however, that in the event the highest and best bidder for the handling of such funds as the depository of such district should be a bank in which members of such board should be a stockholder or director, that then in that event such bank may be selected as such depository by the other directors being a majority of said board, and the bond given by such depository may be approved by them, but in such event before said order so selecting said such depository or approving such bonds shall be effective, the same shall be filed with and approved by the county judge of the county in which such district is situated, and such approval by such county judge shall make such action final, but in the event the county judge of said county shall, for any reason, fail to approve said selection or to approve said bond, then said bank shall not be selected, but new bids shall be called for, and some other bank be selected. [Acts 1921, p. 22, sec. 100.]

Art. 7758. Monthly report.—The district depository shall make a report of all moneys received, and all of moneys paid out, at the end of each month, and file such reports with such vouchers among the records of said district in its own vault, and shall furnish a true copy thereof to the directors, and shall, when called upon, allow same to be inspected by any taxpayer or resident of such district. Such records shall be preserved as the property of such district and shall be delivered to the successor of such depository. [Acts 1917, p. 205, sec. 101.]

Art. 7759. Regular office maintained.—The directors of each district shall have and maintain a regular office suitable for conducting the affairs of such district, within such district, or within a town situated within the general boundary lines of such district, and not removed therefrom. And such directors shall hold regular meetings at said office on the first Monday in February, May, August and November of each year, at ten o'clock a. m., and shall hold such other regular special meetings as they may see fit. And any such resident taxpayer or interested party may attend any such meeting of such directors, but shall not participate in any such meetings without the consent of the directors and shall have no authority to vote upon any matter considered by such directors, but may present such matters as they desire to such directors in an orderly manner. [Id. sec. 102.]

Art. 7760. Surety company bond.—All officers and employees of any district who may be required to give bond or security, may furnish bonds of surety companies subject to the approval of the directors; provided, however, whenever such surety company bond is furnished by any officer or employee, the surety company furnishing same shall file for record in the office of the county clerk of the county where such district is situated a duly executed power of attorney, showing the authority of the person signing such bond for said company, to so sign same, and said power of attorney shall be duly executed by the officers of said company, and have attached the company seal; and such power of attorney shall remain on file in said office. All such official bonds shall be preserved by it as the property of said district. [Id. sec. 103.]

Art. 7761. Directors select auditor—report made.—All meetings of the directors shall be held at the regular office of the district. All vouchers issued for the payment of any funds of the district shall be signed by at least four directors, except as provided in Article 7640, and shall refer to the book and page of the minutes allowing such account. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book containing a duplicate which shall be preserved. The directors shall have kept a complete book of accounts for such district, and shall on September first of each year select a competent auditor who shall examine the accounts, books and reports of the depository, the assessor and collector and the directors, and make a full report thereon, a copy of which shall be filed with the depository and a copy with the directors and one with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such district is situated. Such report shall be filed by November 1st of each year. [Id. sec. 104.]

Art. 7761a. Adoption of Calendar year as fiscal year; report.—Any water improvement district may by order of the board of directors entered of record, adopt the calendar year as their fiscal year, and in such event the report of the board of directors shall be for the calendar year and be filed within thirty days after the end of each year; also in such event the annual audit shall be for the calendar year and the auditor shall be appointed by January 15th following the end of the year and shall make his report for the preceding calendar year. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 152, p. 363, § 6.]

Art. 7762. Unearned portion of taxes.—Where a district organized under prior Acts has issued bonds and levied taxes to provide the interest and sinking fund thereon and said bonds or a portion thereof have not been sold at such time, the directors of such district may return all unearned portion of said taxes, if collected, and may cancel all unearned portion of said taxes not collected and all penalty, interest and costs thereon. At the time of the sale of such bonds, however, a sufficient tax shall be levied to provide all interest and charges thereon. [Acts 1917, p. 206, sec. 105.]

Art. 7763. Joint ownership contract.—Two or more districts may jointly own and construct irrigation works and reservoirs under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract. Any such contract shall not be binding until same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of each such district. An election shall be held in each such district upon the same day to determine whether such contract shall be adopted. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy shall be filed in the office of each district fifteen days prior to such election and be subject to public inspection, and one true copy of same shall be furnished each voter calling at such office for same at any time within fifteen days prior to such election. When improvements are constructed by two or more districts, bids may be jointly called for and may be opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and such districts shall approve the letting of the contract, and the contractor's bond, and may meet for that purpose at a place outside of their district, or at any office established for such joint project and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted, all bids, bonds, contracts, etc., of said joint project may be in the names of said joint project districts, such districts being empowered and authorized to do all acts by joint action that one district may do. The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed for such joint enterprise whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract.

The terms and conditions of such joint ownership contract shall not conflict with the provisions of the law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation of same. Such contracts may be amended in the same manner. [Id. sec. 106.]

Art. 7764. Districts validly created.—The Act of the Twenty-ninth Legislature, being Chapter 50 of the Acts of 1905, and the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, being Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, and Chapter 138 of the Acts of 1915, are hereby repealed. All districts heretofore organized under the terms and in accordance with the provisions of said Acts, are hereby expressly declared to be validly created, organized, described and defined with boundaries as prescribed by the order of the commissioners' court organizing the same, or as the same have since been changed by the board of directors thereof in the manner provided by said Acts. Such districts, however, shall hereafter be governed by the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that the duly constituted and qualified officers of such districts shall continue to perform the duties of such offices until the next general election held under the provisions of this chapter.

All bonds issued by such district, which have been declared valid by a judgment of the district court, shall be and be held to be valid and binding obligations of such district and not subject to attack, except for actual fraud. Any such district may change its name to the name herein provided for such districts by filing a declaration to that effect with the commissioners' court of the county or counties in which it is situated, and which said declaration shall be in the form of a deed of conveyance and duly acknowledged by the president and secretary of the district, and shall embody and set forth a copy of the minutes of said board of directors, and show the resolution adopted for the change of such name, and when such instrument shall have been so recorded, the name of such district shall hereby be changed.

All districts in the process of organization under existing laws repealed by this Act, are hereby declared to be valid districts and entitled to proceed in accordance with the provisions of said Act so repealed until the date upon which this Act shall take effect after which, said districts shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter, and said districts shall change their name to conform to the provisions of this chapter by filing a declaration as above provided, in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which they are situated; and if they have not proceeded to the point of election of directors, they shall change such name by making application to the county commissioners' court having jurisdiction thereof, which said court shall change said name upon all orders thereafter issued relating to said district. [Id. sec. 107.]

Art. 7765. District necessities authorized.—All districts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have full authority, acting by and through its board of directors, to construct all works and improvements necessary for the irrigation of lands in said districts, and to supply, deliver and sell water for domestic, power, and commercial purposes when operating under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution; and to fully carry out the purposes of its organization and the conservation and use of water for the several purposes authorized by the Constitution and the laws of this State, and to acquire the right to the use of water in the manner provided by law, and the directors of such districts, subject only to the provisions hereof, shall have full authority to manage such districts and the business of such districts for the purpose of carrying out the intention and purposes of the organization. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 74, sec. 108.]

Art. 7766. Land become part of district—originally included.—Where a district is organized embracing land irrigated by an established irrigation system and lands entitled to be served by an established irrigation system are not included in such district, in the manner provided by law, and when so admitted to or included in such district the said land shall become part of said district as if originally included therein and shall be entitled to water service upon an equal basis with the lands originally included in said district. [Acts 1917, p. 207, sec. 109.]

Art. 7767. Water rights transferred.—Where there is included in a district lands having a water right from a source of supply acquired by such district but which lands it is difficult or impracticable to irrigate, the said district may allow such water rights to be transferred to other lands adjacent to said district and may admit such lands to said district upon an equal basis as to water service with the lands originally included in such district. [Id. sec. 110.]

Art. 7768. Lands relieved of assessment, when.—Whenever any district organized or hereafter organized has failed or neglected to furnish water sufficient to irrigate any land within such district within two years from its organization, then such lands shall be relieved of any and all assessments and charges except taxes until such district shall construct the necessary canals and furnish the necessary water to enable the owner of said land to irrigate all of said land on demand therefor. [Id. p. 208, sec. 111.]

Art. 7769. Conditions of tax levied.—The tax as levied in connection with the original issuance of bonds shall remain in force from year to year as the levy for that purpose, until a new levy shall be made. The board of directors may, from time to time, increase or diminish such tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable values of the property subject to taxation by the district and the amount to be collected, and in such manner as to raise an amount sufficient to pay the annual interest and sinking fund on said bonds then outstanding. [Id. sec. 112.]

Art. 7770. Sinking funds invested.—The board of directors are authorized and empowered, whenever they may deem it advisable, to invest any sinking funds of the district, acquired for the redemption and payment of any of its outstanding bonds, in bonds of the United States, of the State of Texas, of any county of the State of Texas, any irrigation or water improvement bonds or of any incorporated city or town, or of any independent school district, or of any other school district in the State of Texas authorized to issue bonds; provided that no bonds shall be so purchased that according to their terms mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Id. sec. 113.]

Art. 7771. County clerk's fees.—The county clerk shall receive for his services in registering said bonds the sum of ten cents for each bond so registered; for entering a payment of any bond, the sum of ten cents; for recording of instruments of the district required to be recorded, and for which no fees are hereinbefore fixed, he shall receive the same fees as provided by law for recording deeds. [Id. sec. 114.]

Art. 7772. Manager employed.—The board of directors may employ a manager, who shall have general charge and management of the water distribution system of the district, subject to the general rules and regulations made by the board of directors, and who shall have power to appoint and discharge all other employees except the president and the secretary of the board and the assessor and collector, to purchase and contract for all supplies necessary for the water distribution system, after the board has authorized such purchases, to collect all assessments for operation and maintenance, and to execute on behalf of the district all water contracts and other contracts that are not required by the law to be executed by the board or by the president and secretary for the board, and who shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be provided by the board of directors. Unless such manager is appointed, all persons employed by or representing the district shall be employed by the board of directors. No contract shall ever be made with any manager or other person or employée, whether employed by the board of directors or by the manager, for a longer period of time than one year, and the salaries of all employees, or the compensation to be received by them, shall be fixed at the time of their employment. [Id. sec. 115.]

Art. 7773. Bonds exchanged.—Where bonds have been issued, or may be hereafter issued, by a district organized under and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or where bonds have been issued by any district organized under the Act of the Twenty-ninth Legislature, being Chapter 50 of the Acts of 1905, or the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, being Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, in accordance with the provisions of said Acts respectively, new bonds bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued in lieu thereof. Such new bonds may be exchanged for old bonds, provided the old bonds are taken in exchange at their face value or at a discount, or they may be sold and the net proceeds applied to the purchase of the old bonds redeemed at par or at a discount. The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall not register said new bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which they are issued are presented to him for cancellation or until a valid contract has been entered into and a copy thereof filed with the Comptroller for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds. After registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall keep the same in his possession until the old bonds are surrendered to him and cancelled by him, whereupon he shall deliver the new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, that the old bonds may be so presented for payment, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as herein provided.

If the new bonds are in the same amounts and have the same dates of maturity as the old bonds intended to be replaced thereby, they may be authorized by resolution of the board of directors and issued without submitting the question of their issuance to the vote of the property taxpayers, who are qualified voters in the district, and they shall be registered by the Comptroller in the manner hereinbefore provided, and upon the filing with him a copy of the resolution of the board of directors providing for the cancellation of said old bonds and the issuance of the new bonds in place thereof; and when said old bonds shall have been cancelled and the new bonds registered by the Comptroller, such new bonds shall be the valid and binding obligations of the district, without further proceedings in regard thereto; and the same are hereby declared to have and are hereby given, the same force, effect and validity as the original issue of bonds that they have replaced.

Any such district is authorized to issue new or re-funding bonds in lieu of bonds heretofore or hereafter issued as aforesaid, in such amount, of such denominations, bearing such rates of interest and periods of maturity as may be provided by resolution of the board of directors thereof, within the limits prescribed in this chapter in the case of an original issuance of bonds, whenever the board of directors may deem such action advisable, but if such new or refunding bonds are in greater amount, bear a greater rate of interest or have longer periods of maturity, or in any other respect create a greater burden on the district than the old bonds then outstanding, the issuance of such new or refunding bonds shall be submitted to the vote of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of the district, and all provisions of this chapter governing the election and the issuance, approval, validation, registration, and sale of bonds in the case of an original issue of bonds shall apply to and govern such new or refunding bonds. All such bonds shall be registered and delivered only in the manner provided in this section. [Id. p. 209, sec. 116.]

Art. 7774. Application for water improvement district.—Should any parties in any unorganized county wish to organize a water improvement district, under the provisions of this chapter, such parties shall have the right to do so by applying to the commissioners' court of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and such commissioners' court is hereby authorized to perform for said unorganized county all things which in this chapter is required of commissioners' court of organized counties. [Id. p. 210, sec. 117.]

Art. 7775. Vote separately canvassed, when.—Whenever a district proposed to be organized as herein provided contains within its boundaries as proposed and described in the petition for organization, a town, city or municipal corporation, or part thereof, when the county commissioners' court calling the election to determine said question as herein provided shall constitute said territory within said town, city or municipal corporation, a separate election precinct, with one or more polling places, and the vote received for and against the proposition within said town, city or municipal corporation shall be separately canvassed by the court to determine whether or not a majority of those voting at said election within said town, city or municipal corporation voted for or against said proposition. If a majority of those voting at said election within such town, city or municipal corporation vote against the formation of such district the same shall not be formed including such town, city or municipal corporation, but if the majority of the votes therein is in favor of the formation of such district then such vote shall be canvassed with the votes of the balance of said entire district to determine the result of said election. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 75, sec. 118a.]

Art. 7775a. Vote separately canvassed, when.—No town, city or municipal corporation shall be included within any district organized hereunder, unless the proposition for the organization thereof shall have been adopted by a majority vote of the voters therein participating in such election. Any such municipal corporation included within a district shall be a separate voting district and the ballots cast therein shall be counted and canvassed to show the result of such election therein. No district hereafter organized embracing a town, city or municipal corporation shall include lands outside of such municipal corporation, unless the election held therein to confirm and ratify the formation of such district shall be adopted thereby independent of the vote in such municipal corporation. No district, the major portion of which is in one county, shall be organized to include lands in another county unless election held therein to confirm and ratify the formation of such district shall be adopted by the vote of those voting in such portion of such county, independent of the vote of the portion thereof in such other county or counties. In the event any portion of a district, under the provisions of this section, shall vote against the formation of a district and the balance of such district shall vote for the formation thereof, such proposition shall be adopted and such district be confirmed and ratified with the exception of the territory so voting against same, which is thereby automatically excluded therefrom and from all debts and obligations thereafter incurred, provided, however, if as many as ten per cent of the voters of such district so organized shall file with the board of directors a petition asking for a new election on such issue, such new election shall be ordered and held for the remaining portion of such district, or such district organization may be dissolved by order of the Board of Directors and a new district formed. All lands and property included in such original district shall be subject to the payment of taxes for the payment of all debts and obligations incurred while it was a part thereof, including organization expenses. The petition asking for a new election herein provided for shall be filed within thirty days after the date upon which the result of such election is canvassed and declared by the directors and not thereafter. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 205, p. 677, § 3.]

Art. 7775b. Lands within city or town discontinued as part of district.—Sec. 1. Whenever there exists within the limits of any Water Improvement District, organized and operating under Title 128, Chapter 2, of the Revised Statutes of 1925, any lands lying within or adjoining the territorial limits of an incorporated city or town, which was not included in such district at time of the organization of such district, and which lands have been subdivided into town lots and blocks with streets or other thoroughfares dedicated to the use of the public, and of which a map and such dedication has been duly filed for record with the County Clerk of the County in which said lands are situated, the Board of Directors of such Water Improvement District may by resolution duly passed, discontinue said territory as a part of said District; and when said resolution has been duly passed, it shall be entered by the Secretary of the District in the minutes of the Board of Directors of said District, and from and after said entry, said territory shall cease to be a part of said district, and the said territory so excluded, shall no longer be entitled to be served with water from such irrigation system, or by said District.

Sec. 2. The owner or owners of the fee of any such lands containing not less than ten acres, and constituting a portion of any Water Improvement District, may file with the Board of Directors of said District, a petition praying that such lands owned by them be excluded from said District. The petition shall describe the lands which the petitioners desire to have excluded by metes and bounds. When such petition has been filed with the Secretary of said District, the Board of Directors of said District shall order an election to be held at a convenient place or places within said District within thirty days thereafter; and if a majority of the qualified voters living in said District, and voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said District, the Board of Directors shall declare such territory no longer a part of said District, and there shall be entered upon the minutes of the Board of Directors, an order to that effect; and from and after such entry said territory shall cease to be a part of said District, and such excluded lands shall no longer be entitled to be served with water from such irrigation system or by said District.

Sec. 3. Whenever any territory shall be excluded from a Water Improvement District as provided herein, either by Section 1 or Section 2 of this Act, and said Water Improvement District shall, at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawn territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness; but it shall be the duty of said District to continue to levy taxes each year on the property in such territory at the same rate as is levied upon other property of such District, until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said District at the time of withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the owner of any lands in said territory from paying in full, at any time, his pro rata share of the indebtedness, both principal and interest, of said District. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 318, ch. 216.]

Art. 7776. Fixing maintenance charges.—The maintenance charges may be fixed as provided in Article 7752 of this chapter, or same may be determined upon the basis of the quantity of water used, and if based upon the use of water a fixed charge may be made on all lands or water connections entitled to receive and use water, and an additional charge may be made, or a graduated scale adopted, for the use of water in excess of that covered by the minimum charge. The district may install proper measuring devices. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 75, sec. 119.]

Art. 7777. Charging cities and towns.—Where a district includes a city or town, or contracts with a city or town to supply it water, the charge for the use and delivery of such water, and the time and manner of payment therefor shall be determined by the board of directors and be specified in a standing order of said board. [Id. sec. 120.]

Art. 7778. Consolidation of districts.—Any two or more irrigation districts, or water improvement districts, governed by the provisions of this chapter and amendments thereof, may be consolidated into one district in the following manner: The terms and conditions upon which such consolidation is to be effected [effected] shall be agreed upon by the board of directors of each district, and then the question shall be submitted to a vote in each district after giving notice thereof for at least twenty days in the manner provided by law for other elections. The election shall be held in such districts on the same day. The consolidation to be effected only in the event same is adopted by each and all such districts. When two or more districts are consolidated their obligations shall not be impaired but shall be protected and paid by taxes levied upon the property in the district creating said debt or by assessments in the same manner and extent as if said consolidation had not been effected. After consolidation such taxes shall be assessed and collected by the officers of the consolidated district and in the event they should fail or refuse to so assess and collect same, for such purpose, in due order and time, then same may be assessed and collected, and paid on such obligations, by a receiver appointed by and acting under the orders of a district court, in a proper suit which may be brought by a creditor or by five or more taxpayers of such district. When two or more districts are consolidated into one district, same shall be governed as and be one district, except that the debts of each district, created prior to such consolidation, shall be paid as herein provided; provided, however, such consolidated district may contribute to such payments upon the terms stated in the consolidated agreement. When two or more districts are consolidated the officers of said respective districts shall continue to act jointly as the officers of said district, and to wind up, the affairs of their respective districts as effected by said consolidation, for a period of ninety days after the date of the election, and they may continue to so act until the next general election if so provided by the consolidation agreement, or the consolidation agreement may provide who shall constitute the first board of directors to serve until the next general election if the officers then serving agree to resign. Said new officers shall within the period of ninety days after the election qualify as such officers of the consolidated district and assume such office at the expiration of said period. All bonds of such officers will be approved by the then existing boards of directors. [Id. sec. 121.]

Art. 7779. Benefit plan of taxation.—In the event that any irrigation or water improvement district, other than those operating under contract with the United States, have been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district so as to come within the terms of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and shall adopt or have adopted the assessment of benefit plan of taxation instead of the ad valorem plan of taxation then and in that event the fixing and assessing of property values on which taxes shall be levied and collected shall be made in the manner provided by Articles 7782 to 7787 inclusive, provided any such district may at the same election at which the adoption of said plan of taxation is voted upon, or at any other time before the issuance of bonds, vote upon the proposition of whether said benefits shall be fixed as an equal sum upon each acre of land that is irrigated or to be irrigated by gravity flow from the canal system of the district. In which event the amount of benefit per acre shall be voted upon as applied to all lands in the district that can be irrigated by gravity flow from the irrigation system to be constructed or purchased and also the benefit to lands in the district that can not be so irrigated.

When such questions are desired to be so submitted and an election held to determine same the board of directors of the district shall submit same and order such election in the same manner as provided by law for other elections in such districts. The ballots for such elections shall have printed thereon the following propositions: "For uniform assessment of benefits of $. per acre upon all irrigable lands in the district, and the assessment of $. per acre upon all non-irrigable lands in the district." "Against uniform assessment of benefits." Said blank spaces in said propositions shall be filled in with amounts as determined by said board of directors to be voted upon. Said amount of charge per acre to be found by dividing the number of acres of such lands into the amount of indebtedness to be incurred by the district in providing for the irrigation of same.

In the event the owners of lands classed as non-irrigable object to the amount of charges fixed against them by said order of the board of directors calling such election or as a result of said election they may have their said non-irrigable lands taken out of said district by filing application therefor as provided by law within ten days after such election is held.

If a majority of those voting on such proposition at such election vote in favor thereof same shall be adopted.

In the event the plan of uniform acreage valuation for taxation is adopted as herein provided the said valuation shall be applied to all such lands and it shall not be necessary for the assessor, or the board of equalization to annually fix the value thereof or equalize such values, except as herein provided, nor for the board of directors of the district to appoint a commission to ascertain or fix the value of the improvement to particular lands as in other cases provided. The board of equalization will examine the renditions and tax rolls to ascertain that all property subject to the tax is placed on such tax rolls under its proper classification and add any property thereto that may be left off such tax rolls or that may not have been rendered for taxation, and examine, correct, and certify to said tax rolls. Any property owner may protest the classification of his land as not being proper and the board of equalization shall fully consider any such protest, hear evidence, and enter their findings thereon in their minutes, in the same manner provided for protests in the case of the fixing of valuations upon property as provided by law.

The rate of taxation, the collection of taxes, assessment of property, rendering of property for taxation shall be made as now provided by law with reference to ad valorem taxes, except that any such lands shall be rendered or taxed and in rendering same the value thereof shall not be stated and it shall not be necessary that the party rendering same shall make affidavit to the value thereof nor that the value thereof be stated by the tax assessor, but same shall be rendered as subject to irrigation or not subject to irrigation.

In the event lands classed as non-irrigable are thereafter irrigated by said district the owner thereof prior to receiving water for irrigation shall pay to said district an amount equal to the entire amount that would have been charged to same if same had been originally classed as irrigable. [Acts 1921, p. 17; Acts 1923, p. 279, sec. 122.]

Art. 7780. Locating offices.—Whenever a district is formed in such manner that the towns within or adjoining the territory included in the district are left out of said district, then in that event the directors for said district may establish the office in said district as provided by law, or may establish the office of said district within any town adjoining, or close to said district within the same county or counties, which may be best suited as a location for the transaction of the business of said district, provided, however, such office shall not be removed from the proximity of said district, but shall be so located as to be accessible to the residents of said district. [Id. p. 23, sec. 123.]

Art. 7781. Collecting under benefit plan.—In the event that any irrigation or water improvement district, other than those operating under contract with the United States, have been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district, and shall adopt the assessment for benefit plan of taxation instead of the ad valorem system of taxation, as authorized by the provisions of Chapter 12 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, or under the provisions of this Act, then in that event the levy, assessment, equalization of property values, and collection of taxes shall be made in the manner provided by Sections 125 to 130 inclusive of this Act. [Id. sec. 124.]

Art. 7782. Commissioners of appraisement.—As soon as practicable, after the approval of the report of the engineer, and the adoption of the plan of improvements to be constructed, the board of directors shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall be known as commissioners of appraisement, but who shall be freeholders, but not owners of land within the district for which they are to act. [Id. sec. 125.]

Art. 7783. Time and place of meeting.—The secretary of the board of directors immediately following the appointment of the commissioners of appraisement shall in writing notify each of his appointment, and in the notice designate a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to meet at the time and place specified or as soon thereafter as possible when they shall each take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge their duty as such commissioner, and make true report of the work done by them, and at such meeting the commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice-chairman, and the secretary of the board of directors, or in his absence such person as the board of directors may appoint, shall be secretary of said commissioners during their continuance in office and shall furnish to them such information and such assistance as may be within his power and necessary to the performance of their duties. [Id. sec. 126.]

Art. 7784. To make report—compensation.—Within thirty days after qualifying and organizing as above directed, the commissioners of appraisement shall begin their duties, and they may at any time call upon the attorney of the district for legal advice and information relative to such duties, and may, if necessary, require the presence of the district engineer, or one of his assistants, at such times and for so long as may be necessary to the proper performance of their duties. Such commissioners shall proceed to view the lands within such district as will be affected by the plan of reclamation for such district as carried out, and all public roads, railroads, rights of way and other property or improvements located within such district, and shall assess the amounts of benefits and all damages, if any, that will accrue to any tract of land or other property within such district or to any public highway, railroad and other rights of way, roadways or other property from carrying out and putting into effect the improvements to be constructed by such district. The board shall prepare a report of their finding which shall show the owner of each piece of property examined, and on or concerning which any assessment is made, together with such description of said property as may identify the same, with the amount of damages and all benefits assessed for and on account of, or against the same, which said report shall be signed by at least a majority of the said commissioners and filed with the secretary of the board of directors of the district, and which report shall also show the number of days each commissioner has been employed and the actual expenses incurred by each during his service as commissioner, and each shall be paid by the district not to exceed $10.00 per day for his services, and all necessary expenses in addition thereto upon the approval of his account for such per diem and expenses by the board of directors. Said commissioners shall in their said report fix a time and place when and where they will hear objections thereto, and such date shall be not less than twenty days from the filing of such report. [Id. sec. 127.]

Art. 7785. Notice of hearing.—When the report of the commissioners shall have been filed with the secretary of the board of directors, he shall forthwith give notice by publication in a newspaper published in each county wherein any portion of the district is located, for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed for such hearing, of the time and place of such hearing, and he shall also mail a written notice to each person whose property will be in any wise affected by the carrying out of the plan of reclamation and improvement if his post office is known, stating the time and place of such meeting, which notice shall state in substance that the report of the commissioners to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land and other property by reason of the plan of reclamation and improvement for the district in question has been filed in his office, and that all persons interested may examine the same and make objections thereto in whole or in part, and that the commissioners will meet on the day and at the place named for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to such report, and the secretary upon the day of the hearing shall file in his office the original notice with his affidavit thereto, showing the manner of publication and the names of all persons to whom notices have been mailed, and that post offices of those to be effected [affected] to whom notices were not mailed were unknown to him, and could not be ascertained by reasonable diligence, and copies of such notice and affidavit shall be filed, one with the commissioners of appraisement and one with the clerk of the county commissioners' court. [Id. p. 24, sec. 128.]

Art. 7786. Issuance of decrees.—At or before the hearing, upon the report of the commissioners of appraisement, any owner of land or other property affected by such report, or the plan of reclamation and improvements may file exceptions to any or all parts of such report, and said commissioners at the time and place specified in the notice shall proceed to hear and base opinion on such objections, and where such objections are sustained, in whole or in part, may make such changes and modifications from time to time as may be necessary to confirm the report of their findings. When the commissioners shall have finally acted they shall make decrees confirming such report in so far as it is confirmed, and approving and confirming the same as modified or changed in so far as it may be modified or changed. The commissioners shall have power to adjudge and apportion costs incurred upon the hearing in such manner as may be deemed equitable. The findings of the commissioners as to benefits and damages to lands, railroads and other property within the district shall be final and conclusive. The final decree and judgment of the commissioners shall be entered of record in the minutes of the board of directors and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the lands within such district are located, as a permanent record of such county, and such filings shall be notice to all persons of the contents and purpose of such decree. [Id. sec. 129.]

Art. 7787. Benefit basis of taxation.—After the action of the commissioners of appraisement as aforesaid, their final findings, judgment and decree, until lawfully changed or modified, shall form the basis of taxation within and for the district for which they shall have acted, for all purposes for which taxes may be levied by, for or on behalf of such district and all taxes shall be apportioned and levied on each tract of land, railroad and other real property in the district, in proportion to the net benefits to the property named in such final judgment or decree as shown thereby. In all matters before the commissioners of appraisement, parties interested may not only appear in person or by attorney, but they shall be entitled to process for witnesses to be issued by the chairman of the commissioners of appraisement on demand, and such commissioners shall have the same power as a court of record to enforce the attendance of witnesses. [Id. p. 25, sec. 130.]

Art. 7788. Equitable basis instead of ad valorem.—Any water improvement district organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and Chapter 25, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Thirty-fifth Legislature, as well as any water improvement district which may have been created prior to the adoption of such constitutional amendment, and which shall have availed itself or may hereafter avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, may at the time of its creation, or at any time thereafter before such district shall have issued bonds, submit to the qualified electors of such district the question whether the taxes to be levied therein, or any part thereof, shall be levied, assessed and collected upon an "equitable" basis in proportion to benefits to be conferred by the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the work and improvements to be created thereby, or whether such taxation or any portion thereof shall be levied upon an ad valorem basis. Such question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such district at any time and in any manner that the governing body of such water improvement district may select, and the ballots to be used shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis," and "Against the levy of taxes on a benefit basis instead of on an ad valorem basis." And such election shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 87 of the General Laws of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereof so far as applicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the levy and collection of the taxes, or any part thereof, upon an equitable basis in proportion to benefits instead of upon an ad valorem basis, then taxes shall be so levied and collected. [Id. sec. 131.]

Art. 7789. When contract with United States.

—In the event an irrigation or water improvement district shall have heretofore been operated or shall hereafter be operated under contract with the United States and such district shall have adopted or may adopt the plan of the levy and collection of taxes on a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis, then the directors of such district shall at some convenient time thereafter, and from time to time as may be necessary, sit as a board to apportion and assess the benefits conferred upon any and all property situated within such water improvement district and shall cause a record to be made, showing the amount and value of the benefits computed to accrue to all of the property situated within such district and subject to taxation, and the amount of taxes upon such basis to be levied against and collected from such property; provided, that no taxes so assessed or adjudged against such property shall be in excess of the benefit accruing and to accrue to such property from the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the improvements to be acquired or constructed thereby. After such record shall have been made up, the board shall cause notice to be mailed to each property owner whose name appears upon such record, showing the amount of taxes to be levied against such property, and fixing a date and place at which such owner may appear and contest the correctness and equitableness of such tax. And after such hearing such board of directors or other governing body shall determine the inequitableness of the tax and sustain, reduce, or increase the same, as in their judgment shall be just and equitable; and the decision of this board shall be final. All of the provisions of Chapter 87, General Laws, Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereto, not inconsistent herewith, shall apply to the levy, assessment and collection of the taxes herein provided for. [Id. p. 26, sec. 132.]

Art. 7790. Sale of water power privileges.—

Any irrigation or water improvement district may contract for the sale of water power privileges whenever it may be possible for power to be generated by the use of the water flowing from its reservoir, or in its canal system, provided, however, any such contract for the sale of water power privileges shall be subject to the obligation of the district to protect the lands embraced therein in an adequate supply of water for irrigation for which the district was organized, or for supplying water for municipal purposes in those districts supplying water for municipal purposes. [Id. sec. 133.]

Art. 7791. Adopt rate of commissioners' court.

—Irrigation and water improvement districts operating under the provisions of laws of this State, and assessing taxes on the ad valorem basis, may, if they find it to their advantage, adopt the assessment and equalization of values of the property authorized therein for taxation as made and equalized by the county officers and the county commissioners' court and base the levy and collection of taxes on such assessment and equalization, and they shall also have authority to secure from the county tax assessor a list of tax renditions as made to him covering the property within said district, and adopt same for the use and benefit of said district by causing the tax assessor and collector of the district to compile same as the tax roll of the district instead of making independent assessment thereof. In the event that the district tax assessor and collector and district directors should for any reason fail or refuse to properly assess, equalize tax values, and prepare a tax roll for said district, as provided by law, then in that event the taxes levied at the time of issuance of bonds or other valid obligations of said district shall be collected by the county tax collector by entering on his rolls the said tax as against all property situated within such district for the year or years which the said district officers may have so failed to perform their said duties. If the tax levy is not sufficient because of decreased valuations same shall be increased by order of the commissioners' court.

The fund so collected by such county tax collector shall be deposited in the county depository as a special fund to be devoted to the payment of interest and sinking fund on such bonds or other obligations, and such fund shall be paid thereon upon order of the county commissioners' court. In the event any such county tax collector should fail or refuse to perform such duties then the holders of such securities, bonds or obligations, or any one or more of them, may compel him to do so by mandamus proceeding in the court of proper jurisdiction. The county tax collector shall be allowed, in addition to all other compensation now provided by law, reasonable fees for the performance of such duty, to be fixed by the county commissioners' court, not to exceed, however, the rate of compensation fixed by law for the performance of like duties in the collection of county funds. Whenever such district officers shall fail to perform and discharge their duty, in the assessment and valuation of the property and collection of taxes, as hereinabove provided, then any bond holder or other person interested in said district and the payment of their obligations may request the county commissioners' court to enter an order authorizing the county tax collector to perform the duties herein provided, and the county commissioners' court shall investigate said matter, and if they find said conditions to exist shall enter an order directing the county tax collector to proceed as herein provided, and no county tax collector shall undertake the collection of such taxes until so ordered by the county commissioners' court. The provisions of this section are not intended to allow anyone to interfere with the duties of the district officers so long as they are in the active discharge of their duties, but such powers shall be exercised in the event such district officers shall not perform their duties or in the event of a vacancy in said offices.

In the event of any dispute arising as to whether or not said officers are so performing their duties, said matter may be determined by an action against said officers in the district court in the nature of a mandamus suit or in injunction proceedings restraining such officers from interfering with the collection of such taxes and the payment of said obligations by said county tax collector, and said county commissioners' court. Any such action of the district court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals and a judgment of the Court of Civil Appeals shall be final. In the event any such district embraces territory in two or more counties, the duties herein provided for the county tax collector and county commissioners' court shall be performed by such officers as to all such property lying within the county. [Id. sec. 134.]

Art. 7792. Selling surplus water.—Any irrigation or water improvement district may sell any surplus water they may have or have conserved to lands in the same vicinity for the purpose of irrigation, domestic, or commercial uses. [Id. p. 28, sec. 135.]

Art. 7793. Sale and lease of electrical energy.—Any water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district operating under contract with the United States, may provide for the purchase, acquisition, construction, operation, lease or control of plants for the generation, distribution, sale and lease of electrical energy, including the sale to municipalities, corporations, firms or individuals of electrical power, generated within or without said district, or the sale or lease of power privileges incident to or forming a part of the reservoirs, canals or other works owned, constructed or operated by or for such district, and for the purpose of obtaining funds with which to construct or acquire the power plants, transmission lines and other works necessary or useful for the development, transmission, distribution, sale or lease of such power, may borrow money in the name of such district, and issue bonds therefor, which bonds shall be secured by a lien upon the water power or energy and power privileges incident to such irrigation and drainage project, and also by a lien upon the power plant, transmission lines, and all of the physical properties necessary for, or used in the creation, transmission, distribution and market of such power or energy, but such bonds shall not be a lien upon the lands or other property owned by individual irrigators or water users under such project. Such bonds may be issued in the manner and subject to all of the regulations, terms, conditions and provisions of other bonds authorized to be issued under the terms of Chapter S7 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and of the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, except as in this section otherwise provided. The board of directors of any such district shall estimate and determine the amount of money necessary to be raised, or the amount of indebtedness necessary to be assumed for such purpose or purposes, and may include in such amount a sum sufficient to pay the first four years' interest on such indebtedness. [Acts 1921, p. 183, sec. 1.]

This article and art. 7794, were expressly repealed by Acts 1925, 30th Leg., ch. 123, p. 325, § 4, which read as follows: "That Chapter 94 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature be and the same is hereby repealed."

Art. 7794. Co-operating with districts of other states.—Whenever any water improvement or conservation and reclamation district in this State, operating under contract with the United States, shall obtain water from the same source from which water is obtained by any such district or similar district or districts, organized for irrigation or drainage purposes, under the laws of any other State, the water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district organized under the laws of this State shall be, and it is hereby authorized to jointly own, acquire, construct and operate irrigation works, reservoirs and drainage works, in co-operation with such district or districts obtaining water from the same source of supply, which may be located within another State, under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract, and the provisions of the preceding section, relating to the development, transmission, distribution, sale and lease of electrical power and energy, in the manner in said section provided shall be applicable to any such district in this section referred to. Any such contract shall not be binding until the same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the legally qualified voters of such district, situated within this State. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy thereof shall be filed in the office of such district in Texas fifteen (15) days prior to such election, and shall be subject to public inspection.

Whenever works or improvements are to be constructed or acquired, bids may be jointly called for and may be opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and the officers of such district in Texas may execute such contract, and may hold meetings to consider the execution thereof, and the approval of the contractor's bond, and all matters pertaining to or incident to such contract, at any office established for such joint project, and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted.

The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed for such joint enterprise, whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract. The terms and conditions of such joint ownership or construction contracts shall not conflict with the provisions of the law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, except as herein provided, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation, and such contracts may be amended from time to time in the same manner. The provisions of this and the next preceding article shall apply only to districts operating under contract with the United States. [Id. sec. 2.]

See note to art. 7793.

Art. 7794a. Acquisition of plants; sale and lease of electrical energy.—Any water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district operating under contract with the United States, or any department thereof, may provide for the purchase, acquisition, construction, operation, lease or control of plants for the generation, distribution, sale and lease of electrical energy, including the sale to municipalities, corporations, firms or individuals of electrical power, generated within or without said district, or the sale, or lease of power privileges incident to or forming a part of the reservoirs, canals or other works owned, constructed or operated by or for such district, and for the purpose of obtaining funds with which to construct or acquire the power plants, transmission lines and other works necessary or useful for the development, transmission, distribution, sale or lease of such power, may borrow money in the name of such district, and issue bonds therefor or enter into contract with the United States for the repayment thereof. Such bonds may be issued in the manner and subject to all of the regulations, terms, conditions and provisions of other bonds authorized to be issued under the terms of Chapter S7 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and of the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto. The board of directors of any such district shall estimate and determine the amount of money necessary to be raised, or the amount of indebtedness necessary to be assumed for such purpose or purposes, and may include in such amount a sum sufficient to pay the first four years' interest on such indebtedness. [Acts 1925, 30th Leg., ch. 123, p. 324, § 1.]

Art. 7794b. Coöperating with districts of other states.—Whenever any water improvement or conservation and reclamation district in this State, operating under contract with the United States, shall obtain water from the same source from which water is obtained by any such district or similar district or districts, organized for irrigation or drainage purposes, under the laws of any other State, the water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district organized under the laws of this State shall be, and it is hereby authorized to jointly own, acquire, construct and operate irrigation works, reservoirs and drainage works, in cooperation with such district or districts obtaining water from the same source of supply, which may be located within another State, under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract, and the provisions of the preceding section, relating to the development, transmission, distribution, sale and lease of electrical power and energy, in the manner in said section provided, shall be applicable to any such district in this section referred to. Any such contract shall not be binding until the same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the legally qualified voters of such district, situated within this State. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy thereof shall be filed in the office of such district in Texas fifteen (15) days prior to such election, and shall be subject to public inspection.

Whenever works or improvements are to be constructed or acquired, bids may be jointly called for and may be opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and the officers of such district in Texas may execute such contract, and may hold meetings to consider the execution thereof, and the approval of the contractor's bond, and all matters pertaining to or incident to such contract, at any office established for such joint project, and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted.

The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed for such joint enterprise, whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract. The terms and conditions of such joint ownership or construction contracts shall not conflict with the provisions of the law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, except as herein provided, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation, and such contracts may be amended from time to time, in the same manner. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 123, p. 325, § 2.]

Art. 7794c. Application.—The provisions of this Act shall apply only to districts operating under contract with the United States, or any department thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 123, p. 325, § 3.]

Art. 7795. Limiting power to incur debt.—The board of directors of any water improvement district which has been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district under the provisions of Section 59, of Article 16, of the Constitution, may, for the benefit of the purchasers or holders of bonds to be issued, limit the power of the district to incur debt and issue bonds in the manner and to the extent hereinafter mentioned. Said board may adopt a resolution declaring that during a period not exceeding ten years, the district shall not issue bonds in excess of twenty-five per cent of the assessed value of the taxable real property of the district according to the last assessment for district purposes, and shall give notices of the adoption of such resolution by publication once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the district, stating that such resolution shall take effect unless a petition signed by ten per cent of the qualified property tax paying electors of the district shall be presented against the proposed limitation within thirty days after the date of the first publication of such notice. If such petition or remonstrance be filed within said period, said limitation shall not take effect unless it be approved at a general or special election held in the district in the same manner as other general or special elections are held. The ballot on the question at such election shall be in substantially the following form: "For limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property," and "Against limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property." If such limitation shall be approved or if during said period no petition or remonstrance shall be filed, the district shall not issue bonds under any statute or constitutional provision during said term in excess of the amount so limited, except to complete works for constructing which bonds may be issued within said limitation, and shall only issue bonds exceeding said limitation for completing such works after the State Board of Water Engineers shall have approved the plans and specifications of the original and uncompleted works, together with the estimates of the cost thereof. If such plans and specifications and estimate be approved by said State Board of Water Engineers, notice of intention to issue said bonds to complete said works shall be given by publication once a week for three weeks, stating the amount of the proposed issue of bonds and the time when a hearing will be had, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of the first publication. Any property taxpayer, bondholder or other creditor or person interested may appear and shall be heard. If the determination be in favor of the issuance of additional bonds to the amount stated in the notice, the question of issuing such bonds shall be submitted to the property taxing voters at an election held in the form and manner prescribed by law. [Acts 1st. C. S., 1921, sec. 139.]

Art. 7796. Previous bond validated.—All proceedings heretofore had and taken to organize a water improvement district under the Act to which this is an amendment, or to determine the manner in which taxes or assessments shall be levied and collected, or to bring any district organized hereunder under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas, or to authorize the issuance of bonds of any district organized under the Act to which this is an amendment, whether such district shall or shall not have come under said Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, shall be and are hereby in all respects ratified, validated, approved and confirmed, and such bonds may be issued and sold in the form and manner and at the price and under the conditions prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 139.]

Art. 7797. May sue to protect bonds.—All water improvements districts and irrigation districts heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of the State being dependent upon their water rights and water supply to perform their public duties and to protect their bonds and other indebtedness created under the provisions of the law and to maintain their taxable values and assessable values, shall have full authority to maintain any action or suit for such purposes. [Id. p. 150, sec. 140.]

Art. 7798. May sue to protect bonds.—The board of directors are hereby empowered to institute and maintain any suit or suits to protect the water supply of said district and to prevent any unlawful or unwarranted interference with or diversion of such water supply. All water improvement districts and irrigation districts shall have full power and right to protect their water supply and all other rights and property and by proper suit to prevent any taking or interference with such water supply, of whatever nature or however acquired, necessary to the uses of such district or for the irrigation of the lands situated therein. [Id. sec. 141.]

Art. 7799. Board of Water Engineers to investigate.—The State Board of Water Engineers shall be and is constituted a commission to investigate and report upon the organization and feasibility of all water improvement districts which shall issue bonds under the provisions of the law of this State. All such districts desiring to issue bonds for any purposes shall submit in writing to said board an application for investigation, together with a copy of the engineer's report, and a copy of all data, profiles, maps, plans and specifications prepared in connection therewith. Said Board of Water Engineers shall examine same and shall visit the project and carefully inspect the same and may call for and shall be supplied with additional data and information requisite to a reasonable and careful investigation of the project and proposed improvements. They shall file in their office in writing their suggestions for changes and improvements, and furnish a copy thereof to the board of directors of the district. If said board shall finally approve or refuse to approve such project or the issuance of bonds for any improvement, they shall make a full written report thereon, file same in their office, and furnish a copy of same to the board of directors of said district. [Id. sec. 142.]

Art. 7800. Conveying interests.—Any water improvement district organized under the laws of the State of Texas, which shall have filed an application for a permit to construct a reservoir and to appropriate the waters of a stream or watershed for irrigation or other purposes and for which a permit shall have been granted by the State Board of Water Engineers and a permit issued therefor, said district may convey to another water improvement district an interest in said reservoir and water rights evidenced by its application and permit granted by the State Board of Water Engineers. Said conveyance shall convey all such rights covered by its terms; provided, however, same shall be filed for record and be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which said property is situated and shall then be filed for record in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers. Said transfer when so filed shall be and operate as a conveyance of all rights granted to the district to which said permit was issued in so far as it covers same, not to exceed, however, the rights granted by the permit issued therefor by the State Board of Water Engineers. From and after the date said transfer is filed in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers all rights conveyed thereby shall be vested in the district to which same is transferred as fully and to the same extent as if a permit had been issued for same by said State Board of Water Engineers. [Acts 1923, p. 282, sec. 1.]

Art. 7801. Excluding land from district.—All water improvement districts which have been organized and in which it may be thereafter determined that some of the lands included within the boundaries of such district can not be irrigated by gravity flow from the irrigation system as constructed may eliminate and take said land out of said district at any time prior to the issuance of bonds or other fixed obligations by said district in the following manner. The board of directors of such district shall make an order specifying such lands and the owners thereof and declaring same to be so situated that they will not be irrigated by gravity flow from the canals constructed or to be constructed, and enter such order on the minutes of said board. Within ten days after said order is so made and entered notice thereof shall be given by publishing a true copy of same in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which said lands are situated once a week for two weeks. If no protest is filed to such action with said board of directors within fifteen days after the final publication of said notice, said order shall become final as to all lands included in said order the owners of which have not filed a protest. In the event any owner of said lands or any part thereof shall file a protest with said board of directors contesting said action and asking that said lands be not taken out of said district then as to same order shall be annulled and said lands or parts thereof described in said protest shall remain in said district. In the event any lands are so excluded from a district that it may thereafter be desired to have again included in said district same may be so included upon application of the owner thereof in the manner provided by law for adding lands to an established district. [Acts 1923, ch. 135, p. 278, sec. 1.]

Art. 7802. Districts heretofore organized may take advantage.—Any water improvement district, drainage district, or levee improvement district, heretofore organized or hereafter organized or hereafter to be organized, under the laws of this State, as defined districts, under Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, may avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and thereby become a conservation and reclamation district, without change of name. [Acts 1923, p. 282, sec. 2.]

Art. 7803. May incur indebtedness.—Any conservation or reclamation district hereafter organized under this Act, and any water improvement district, drainage district or levee improvement district which may be constituted a conservation and reclamation district under this Act, may incur indebtedness and levy taxes to fully carry out each and all of the purposes of its organization, and for the payment of its obligations and the maintenance and operation of said district. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7804. Limitations removed.—All limitations of indebtedness authorized to be incurred and taxes to be levied, imposed by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, and any and all laws under which any such district has been or may be organized, are removed as to all districts which may become conservation and reclamation districts under the terms of this Act. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7805. To change districts heretofore organized.—Any water improvement district, or irrigation district heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of this State, may become and be made a conservation and reclamation district, as herein provided, in the following manner: When a petition signed by twenty per cent of the owners of land in such district, praying therefor, is presented to the directors, they shall order an election to be held to determine such issue, such election to be conducted as provided for general elections in such districts. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "For Conservation and Reclamation." The directors shall canvass the returns and declare the result of such election, and have recorded in the deed records of the county or counties in which such district is situated a full copy of the order declaring the result of such election; and when such order is in favor of so making such district a conservation and reclamation district, it shall become such district without change of name or impairment of its obligations, upon the result of such election being declared and recorded as herein provided. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7806. Governed by regulations of water improvement districts.—Any conservation and reclamation district organized for the purpose for which water improvement districts and irrigation districts have heretofore been organized, or any water improvement district or irrigation district becoming a conservation and reclamation district under the terms hereof, shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of law applying to water improvement districts, except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 37, sec. 6.]

Art. 7807. May choose benefit or ad valorem basis.—Any water improvement district organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and Chapter 25, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Thirty-fifth Legislature, as well as any water improvement district which may have been created prior to the adoption of such constitutional amendment, and which shall have availed itself, or may hereafter avail itself, of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, may, at the time of its creation, or at any time thereafter before such district shall have issued bonds, submit to the qualified electors of such district the question whether the taxes to be levied therein, or any part thereof, shall be levied, assessed and collected upon an "equitable" basis in proportion to benefits to be conferred by the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the work and improvements to be created thereby, or whether such taxation of [or] any portion thereof shall be levied upon an ad valorem basis. Such question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such district at any time and in any manner that the governing body of such water improvement district may elect, and the ballots to be used shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis." and, "Against the levy of taxes on a benefit basis instead of on an ad valorem basis." And such election shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 87 of the General Laws of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, so far as applicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the levy and collection of the taxes, or any part thereof, upon an equitable basis in proportion to benefits, instead of upon an ad valorem basis, then the directors of such district shall at some convenient time thereafter, and from time to time as may be necessary, sit as a board to apportion and assess the benefits conferred upon any and all property situated within such water improvement district, and shall cause a record to be made, showing the amount and value of the benefits computed to accrue to all of the property situated within such district and subject to taxation, and the amount of taxes upon such basis to be levied against and collected from such [basis to be levied against and collected from such] property; provided, that no taxes so assessed or adjudged against such property shall be in excess of the benefit accruing and to accrue to such property from the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the improvements to be acquired or constructed thereby. After such record shall have been made up, the board shall cause notice to be mailed to each property owner whose name appears upon such record, showing the amount of taxes to be levied against such property, and fixing a date and place at which such owner may appear and contest the correctness and equitableness of such tax. And after such hearing such board of directors of [or] other governing body shall determine the equitableness of the tax and sustain, reduce, or increase the same, as in their judgment shall be just and equitable; and the decision of such board shall be final. All of the provisions of Chapter 87, General Laws, Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereto, not inconsistent herewith shall apply to the levy, assessments and collection of the taxes herein provided for. [Id. sec. 5a.]

1. ESTABLISHMENT.

Article 7808. May establish.—One or more water control and preservation districts may be established in the several counties, or a part of any county, or in two or more adjacent counties, or in parts of two or more adjacent counties, or in one county and part of an adjacent county or counties, in the manner provided in this chapter. Said districts may or may not include within their boundaries villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any part thereof, but no land shall be at the same time included within more than one such district. All such districts are defined districts within the meaning of Section 52, Article 3 of the State Constitution. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 74.]

Art. 7809. Purposes.—Said districts, when established, shall be for the purpose of the control and preservation of the purity of the waters of any rivers, creeks, bayous, lakes, canals, streams or other waters of any kind and character situated or flowing, in whole or in part, through the said district, or any part thereof, by the prevention of the inflow of salt water or other deleterious substances, or by the changing of said waters from salt to fresh water, and the impounding of fresh water for such purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7810. Powers.—Such districts, when established, shall have full power to erect, construct, maintain, repair and reconstruct dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates, or any other character of improvement or construction necessary to the accomplishment of any such purpose, and to make such construction without the boundaries of the district, where same may be deemed necessary to the preservation, or the improvement of the purity and irrigable quality of such waters; and may issue bonds in payment therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7811. Petition.—Upon the presentation to the commissioners court of a petition signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers of any proposed district praying for the establishment thereof within the county, and setting forth the boundaries, and accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and praying for the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax in payment thereof, and designating a name for such district which shall include the name of the county; and accompanied by the affidavit of the petitioners stating that they are resident property taxpayers of such county; the court shall set the same down for a hearing at a regular or called session, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 7812. Contingent deposit.—The petition shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash which shall be deposited with the clerk of the commissioners court of the county in which the largest portion of the proposed district is situated. If the result of the original election is in favor of the establishment of the district, the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney; otherwise the clerk shall pay the same out upon the vouchers signed by the county judge of such county, for all expenses and costs pertaining to the proposed district up to and including said election, and shall return the balance to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 7813. Notice of hearing.—The court shall, when setting a date for the hearing, order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting, or causing to be posted, not less than twenty days prior to the hearing; a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon, one at the courthouse door and four others within the limits of the proposed district. Said clerk shall receive one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. [Id.]

Art. 7814. Hearing.—Any person who may be affected thereby may appear before said court and contest the creation of said district, or contend for its creation, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of said district to show that the proposed improvements would or would not be of any public utility, and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. [Id.]

Art. 7815. Hearing: authority of court.—Unless otherwise provided, the commissioners court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation and establishment of any district, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of any organized district, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments, decrees or orders rendered or entered by said court in relation thereto shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7816. Findings.—If at said hearing it appears to the court that the organization of such district and the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, and that it would be a public benefit or public utility, then it shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement and for all expenses incident thereto and the expenses necessarily incurred in connection with the creation and establishment of the district, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear. If the court finds that such organization and improvement is not feasible or practicable, or that it would not be a public benefit or utility, then it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. In either case, the court shall enter its findings in the records of the court. [Id.]

Art. 7817. May renew petition.—The order dismissing said petition or any appeal therefrom shall not prevent the presentation at any subsequent time of a similar petition with changed boundaries, but the presentation of a similar petition with identical boundaries shall not be permitted until the expiration of six months after such dismissal. [Id.]

Art. 7818. Appeal.—Any petitioner or taxpayer in such district may appeal from the findings of said court to the district court of said county. Such appeal shall be perfected within five days after the rendition of the order appealed from, in the following manner: notice of appeal shall be given and entered of record on the minutes of said court, at the time of the entry of said order by announcement of same before said court, or by giving written notice within two days after the entry of such order by a simple statement that the undersigned gives notice of appeal from the order entered on the date stated, and by filing such written notice with the county clerk; and by filing an appeal bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties for one hundred dollars, payable to the county judge and approved by the county clerk, and conditioned upon the due prosecution of the appeal and payment of all costs incident thereto. Unless appeal is so perfected, such order shall be final and conclusive. [Id.]

Art. 7819. Appeal: proceedings.—Within five days from the filing of the appeal bond, the county clerk shall transfer to the district clerk all records filed with the commissioners court pertaining to the establishment of said district, and it shall not be necessary to file additional pleadings in said court. The court shall set the matter down for hearing de novo, giving it precedence over all other cases, and the matters shall be tried and determined by the court. The judgment of the district court shall be final and conclusive, and shall be certified to the commissioners court for its further action. [Id.]

Art. 7820. Election order.—If the petition is granted, the commissioners court shall order an election to be held in such district at the earliest legal time, to determine whether or not such district shall be created and whether or not a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to redeem said bonds at maturity. Said order shall specify the amount of bonds to be issued, the length of time said bonds shall run, and the rate of interest they shall bear, as determined by the court. [Id.]

Art. 7821. Notice of election.—Notice of such election stating the time and place of holding the same shall be given by the county clerk by posting or causing to be posted notices thereof in four public places in such district and one at the courthouse door, for thirty days prior to the election. Said notice shall also contain the proposition to be voted on and the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued and the amount of such bonds, and shall contain a copy of the election order. [Id.]

Art. 7822. Ballot.—The commissioners court shall provide twice as many ballots as there are qualified resident property tax paying voters within such district. Said ballots shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 7823. Election: conduct of.—None but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of said proposed district shall be entitled to vote at such election. The commissioners court shall create and define, by an order of the court, the voting precincts in the proposed district, and shall name convenient polling places therein, and shall appoint the judges and other necessary election officers. [Id.]

Art. 7824. List of voters.—The tax collector of the county wherein such district is situated, prior to the election, shall make a certified list of the property taxpayers of said district and furnish to the presiding judge of each precinct a list of such voters in such precinct. No person whose name does not appear in said list shall vote at any election under this chapter, except as provided in the two succeeding articles. [Id.]

Art. 7825. Voter's oath.—Any person who acquired property in said district after the first day of January of the preceding year may vote in said election upon taking the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed district, that I was not subject to pay property tax in said district for the preceding year and have not voted before at this election." [Id.]

Art. 7826. Taxpayer's oath.—Any person whose name was erroneously omitted from said list of voters

may vote at said election upon taking the oath as prescribed in the preceding article except that in lieu of the clause "that I was not subject to pay property tax in said district for the preceding year," there shall be substituted "that I was subject to and did pay property tax in said district for the preceding year." [Id.]

Art. 7827. Results of election.—Said court shall canvass the vote, and if two-thirds of such votes are in favor of the proposition submitted, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said district, and shall enter same in their minutes as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 7828. Declaration of result.—Said order of the court shall be as follows: "Commissioners court of _____ County, Texas, _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ in the matter of petition of _____ and _____ others, praying for the establishment of a Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition fully described and designated by the name of _____ Water Control and Preservation District _____. Be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said District, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said District be and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Water Control and Preservation District _____, and that the bonds of said District in an amount not exceeding _____ dollars be issued by the Directors of said District, and that said Board of Directors levy a tax of _____ cents on the hundred dollars of valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary, upon all property within said district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purpose, same shall be increased by said Directors until same is sufficient. The metes and bounds of said District being as follows, to-wit: (giving the metes and bounds.)" [Id.]

Art. 7829. Board of directors.—At the same meeting when said order is made, or at a called meeting within five days thereafter, the court shall appoint a board of directors consisting of three members, all of whom shall be freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county embraced in whole or in part within the district, and more than twenty-one years of age. Each shall receive three dollars per day for each day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such; and shall hold office for two years, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of said court. Upon the expiration of their terms of office, the court shall appoint their successors by majority vote. Should any vacancy occur in said board, the same shall be filled in like manner by said court. [Id.]

Art. 7830. Combined district.—Where a proposed district lies partly within two or more counties, the petition for the establishment of said district shall be presented to the commissioners court of each county. Each such court shall give all necessary notice as provided for a single district in one county, but stating that same is a part of such entire district, and shall order an election, appoint all necessary officers, furnish all supplies, canvass the returns and declare the result of such election, all as provided for a single district. The presiding officer of each court shall then certify and report the result of said election to the county judge of the county in which the largest portion of such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7831. Combined district: declaration.—Said county judge shall canvass said vote and declare the result thereof, and if two-thirds of such votes favor the creation of said district, he shall declare the result and make the same order as provided herein for a single district. Copies of such order shall be filed with the county clerk of each county and shall be held to be a proclamation of the result of said election. [Id.]

Art. 7832. Combined district: hearing.—The commissioners court of each county shall hear and determine the matters relating to the establishment of said district in their county, in the same manner as provided for a single district, and appeals may be taken therefrom to the district court of any county in which any part of said district is situated, in the manner provided herein for a single district. [Id.]

Art. 7833. Combined district: directors.—A board of five directors shall be elected at the same election held for the establishment of such district, and the ballot therefor may have printed thereon the names of such candidates, or the voter may write upon his ballot the names of the persons voted for as directors; and the five persons receiving the highest number of votes so cast shall be the directors of said district, and shall hold office until the next regular election. In case of vacancy in said board, or if the number of directors is reduced by any cause to less than three, said vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as provided by law in such cases for directors of water improvement districts under Chapter 2 of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7834. Combined district: election.—On the second Tuesday of January after the establishment of such district, and biennially thereafter, an election for such directors shall be held in each such county in accordance with the election laws of this State and the provisions of this chapter for elections for establishing a district. Said directors shall hold office for two years. The directors shall give notice of the election, appoint election officers, receive and canvass the election returns and perform all other duties necessary for holding said elections. [Id.]

Art. 7835. Director's bond and oath.—Within ten days after their appointment or election, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the directors shall each make a good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars payable to their district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county in which the director resides, and such bond and a copy of the order approving same shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the largest part of the district is situated. Such clerk shall record and index the same in the deed records in the manner provided for recording and indexing deeds. Each director shall take the official oath before the county clerk of the county in which the director resides. All bonds and oaths shall be delivered by said clerks to the district depository and be by it safely kept and preserved for the district. [Id.]

Art. 7836. County officers: compensation.—Unless otherwise provided, the duties and powers herein conferred upon the county judges and members of the commissioners court, and other officers are made a part of the regular duties of said officials, which they shall render and perform without additional compensation, and the county clerk shall receive the same compensation for his services hereunder as provided for similar services under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

2. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Art. 7837. Organization of board.—As soon as possible after their qualification, the directors shall organize by electing one of their number president and one as district secretary. When the board consists of three members, any two directors shall be a quorum; and when it consists of five members, any three directors shall be a quorum. [Id.]

Art. 7838. Meetings.—During the progress of the construction of any improvement under contract, the directors shall maintain a regular office within such district, and may in their discretion when deemed necessary, maintain a regular office in the district during any other time. The directors shall hold an annual meeting on the first day of December at ten o'clock A. M. and may provide for meetings at stated intervals by resolution duly passed, and the president or any two directors may call special meetings at any time that may be deemed proper or necessary. [Id.]

Art. 7839. Powers.—The directors shall have control over the management of all district affairs, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall employ all necessary employes for the proper conduct and operation of such district, including engineers, bookkeepers and such other assistants and such laborers as may be required, at such compensation as they may determine, and may require bonds of any employes in any amount they may determine. They may employ attorneys to represent such district in the preparation of any contract or the conduct of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the directors, on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them. [Id.]

Art. 7840. Powers: limitation.—Where the district lies wholly in one county, the directors shall not, after the completion of the improvements, employ any attorneys as legal advisers of the district or an engineer for such district, or any other employes, except with the concurrence and consent of the commissioners court of such county; and the compensation paid by any such attorney, engineer, or employe so employed shall be fixed by the directors subject to the approval of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 7841. Further powers.—The directors may employ a general manager to have general charge of the work, paying such compensation as may be agreed upon by the directors. A director may be appointed as general manager at such compensation as may be fixed by the other directors, and when so employed he shall also perform the duties of a director, but shall not receive the compensation to be paid to the directors. The directors may also buy all necessary work animals, machinery and supplies and material of all description as may be required in the construction, operation or repairing of the improvements of the district, and may do and perform all things necessary and proper in carrying out the purposes of said district. [Id.]

Art. 7842. Official bonds.—All district officers and employes who may be required to give bond or security may furnish bonds of surety companies, subject to the approval of the directors. All such bonds shall be preserved by the directors as the property of said district. After the organization of a district, all bonds required of any district officer or employe shall be approved by the directors. [Id.]

Art. 7843. District records.—The directors, through the secretary, shall keep a true account of all matters and proceedings of the board, and shall preserve all contracts, records and notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatsoever kind, and the same shall be the property of the district and shall be delivered to their successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 7844. Disbursements.—All payments of any district funds shall be by voucher upon the district depository, and all such vouchers shall be signed by the president or any two directors. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book containing a duplicate, which shall be preserved. [Id.]

Art. 7845. District depository.—The directors shall select a depository for such district in the same manner as now provided by law for the selection of county depositories, and such depository shall be regulated by the same laws as those governing county depositories. In such selection, the directors shall perform the same duties as are incumbent upon the county judge and members of the commissioners court in the selection of county depositories. Such depository shall make and file reports and preserve the district records as required of depositories under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

Art. 7846. Audit and report.—The directors shall annually require an audit to be made of the district records and accounts, at the time and in the manner provided for audits of Water Improvement Districts under Chapter 2 of this title, and on the first of January of each year they shall make and file a report of the condition of the district affairs and other data required of directors of Water Improvement Districts. [Id.]

3. POWERS OF DISTRICT

Art. 7847. Status of district.—Any district may by and through its directors sue and be sued in the name of such district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts; and said districts shall contract and be contracted with in the name of such districts. They shall have a circular seal containing a five pointed star in the center surrounded by the name of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7848. Suits affecting district.—No suit shall be brought in any Court of this State contesting the validity or enjoining the formation of any district, or any bonds issued hereunder, or in anywise affecting the establishment of the district, or issuance of bonds by such district, except in the name of this State by the Attorney General, upon his own motion or upon the motion of any party affected thereby, upon good cause shown. [Id.]

Art. 7849. Property rights.—The directors are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind or character whatsoever for all necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, within or without the boundaries of the district; and any property acquired may be conveyed to the United States in so far as the same shall be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States under any contract that may be entered into between the district and the United States. [Id.]

Art. 7850. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all districts for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through all lands, private and public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for making and maintaining dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates and all other improvements necessary and proper for such construction. Such right shall extend to any county in this State. All such condemnation proceedings shall be under the direction of the directors and in the name of the district; and all compensation and damages adjudicated in such proceedings shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund." [Id.]

Art. 7851. District engineer.—The directors shall have authority to employ a competent engineer whose term of office shall be at the will of the directors. He shall make all necessary surveys, examinations, investigations, maps, plans, and drawings with reference to the proposed improvements. He shall make an estimate of the cost of such improvements, shall supervise the work thereon, and perform all such duties as may be required of him by the directors. If any proposed improvement or construction work necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes authorized in this chapter requires the permission or consent of the Federal Government or any department or officer thereof, the directors shall have authority to obtain such consent, and in lieu of or in addition to the employment of the district engineer, they shall have power to adopt any survey of any waters theretofore made by the United States, and to arrange for surveys, examination and investigation of the proposed improvements, and supervision of such work by the United States or the proper department or officer thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7852. Federal co-operation.—The directors shall have full power to co-operate and act with the United States or any officer or department thereof, in any matter pertaining or relating to the construction and maintenance of any improvement, whether by survey, work or expenditure of money made or to be made, either by the directors or by Federal authority, or both. Such directors shall have authority to agree and consent to the United States entering upon and taking the management and control of said work of construction, repair or reconstruction and maintenance, in so far as it may be necessary or permissible under the laws of the United States and the regulations and orders of any department thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7853. Construction contracts.—If the district improvements are not carried out by the United States, the contracts for such improvements shall be let by the directors to the lowest and best responsible bidder. If more than one improvement is to be made, the contract may be let separately for each, or one contract for all such improvements. These rules shall govern the letting of such contracts: 1. Bids shall be called for by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in Texas, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days at the courthouse door of the counties in the district and four other notices in each county. 2. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to bid on the construction of any work so advertised, upon application to the district secretary, shall be supplied with the surveys and plans for said work. All bids shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the president or district secretary, together with a certified check for two per cent of the total amount bid. Such deposit shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract and make the necessary bond, if his bid is accepted or returned to the bidder if his bid is rejected. Any bid may be rejected at the discretion of the directors. 3. Each contractor shall give bond payable to the district in such amount as may be determined by the directors, not to exceed the contract price, and not less than fifty per cent thereof, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and that in default thereof, he will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof; and such other conditions as may be required by law of contractors for public work. Said bond shall be approved by the directors. 4. All contracts shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and president of the directors and attested by the district secretary. A copy of same shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which the largest portion of such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7854. Supervision of work.—All work contracted for, unless done under Federal supervision, shall be done under the supervision of the district engineer. When the work is completed according to the contract, he shall make a detailed report of same to the directors, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not, in what particular it has not been so complied with. The directors shall not be bound by such report, but may in addition thereto fully investigate such work and determine whether or not such contract has been complied with; and while such work is in progress, they shall inspect the same. [Id.]

Art. 7855. Contract: payment.—Upon completion of any contract, the directors shall draw a voucher on the district depository for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee. Said voucher shall be paid out of the Construction and Maintenance Fund. If the directors deem it advisable, they may contract for the work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, and the amount of work completed shall be shown by a certificate of the engineer. [Id.]

Art. 7856. Maintenance of district.—After the full and final completion of all improvements of the district, and after payment of all expenses incurred under this chapter, the directors are authorized to use the funds remaining in the Construction and Maintenance Fund for the best interest of such district in the preservation, upkeep, repair and reconstruction of the works of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7857. Joint project.—Two or more districts may by contract join in the construction of any improvement and enter upon any work authorized hereunder, as a joint project, when in the judgment of the directors of each district, such improvement, work or construction will be advantageous to the respective districts. Such contract shall stipulate the pro rata amount to be paid by each district for such project to provide for its maintenance, repair and reconstruction, and shall be executed by the directors. Such project may be undertaken regardless of the location of the proposed work. Such contract may be enforced and specific performance compelled by any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 7858. Joint action.—When improvements are constructed by two or more districts, bids may be jointly called for and opened and considered at the designated office of either district, and the directors of such districts shall approve the letting of the contract and contractor's bond, and may meet and transact all business for that or any other purpose concerning such project at a place outside the district, or at any office established for such joint project. All bids, bonds, contracts, etc., of said project shall be in the name of said districts, which are empowered to do all acts by joint action that one district may do, the action of each district being determined by its directors. A general manager, who may be a director of either district, may be employed for such project, whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract. [Id.]

4. BONDS

Art. 7859. Issuance of bonds.—Immediately after their organization, the directors shall enter an order directing the issuance of bonds for such district within the limits authorized by the election held therefor, sufficient to cover the cost of the proposed improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto, and the expenses necessarily incurred in connection with the creation and establishment of the district; and they shall levy a tax upon all property subject to taxation in the district, sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds, with an amount to be placed in the sinking fund sufficient to redeem said bonds at maturity, and such levy shall remain as a levy for such purpose until a new levy is made. [Id.]

Art. 7860. Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued under this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title governing the issuance, denomination, rate of interest, maturity dates, manner of payment, proceedings to test validity, and registration by the Comptroller, of bonds of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7861. Bonds: limit of issue.—Said bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district as made by the last annual assessment thereof for State and county taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7862. Bonds: record.—The directors shall provide a well bound book in which a record shall be kept by the clerk of the county in which the largest portion of said district is situated, of all bonds issued with their numbers, amounts, rate of interest, date of issue, when due, where payable, the annual rate of tax levy made each year to provide for interest and sinking fund, and of each payment made thereon. The district secretary shall furnish said clerk a certified copy of all orders made in connection with the issuance and levy and assessment of taxes for the payment of interest and creating a sinking fund. Said record shall be at all times open to the inspection of all parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers or bondholders. [Id.]

Art. 7863. Change in plans.—If after an election has been held for the issuance of bonds, the directors shall consider it necessary to make any modification or change in any proposed improvements, they shall, with the concurrence of all the directors, be authorized to make such change. [Id.]

Art. 7864. Additional bonds.—If the directors shall determine to make additional improvements, works or construction in order to carry out the purposes for which said district was organized, or to reconstruct any improvements theretofore made, and the amount derived from the bonds issued or authorized is not sufficient, a resolution to that effect shall be duly entered upon the minutes of the board, and a certified copy thereof presented to each commissioners court in the district. [Id.]

Art. 7865. Resolution.—Said resolution shall set forth the proposed work, the amount of bonds to be issued to pay for same, their rate of interest and maturity dates, and shall embody therein a request to the commissioners court or courts to order an election in such counties to vote on such propositions and whether or not a tax shall be levied to provide for the interest and sinking fund for such bonds at a day specified in the resolution. [Id.]

Art. 7866. Additional bonds: requisites.—The commissioners court must, on receipt of such resolution, order an election on the day specified therein. Notice of such election shall be given, returns made, result declared, orders entered, tax levied, certified, assessed and collected, and all other matters applicable shall be performed in the same manner as herein provided in case of elections for original bonds. All provisions as to the issuance, approval, validation, registration, recordation and sale of original bonds shall be applicable to such additional bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7867. Additional bonds: ballot.—The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon the words and none other: "For the issuance of additional Water Control and Preservation Bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of additional Water Control and Preservation Bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 7868. Bonds: sale.—After registration of said bonds by the Comptroller, the directors shall sell the same on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their face value and the accrued interest thereon; or they may exchange bonds in payment of the contract price for work to be done for the use and benefit of said district. All moneys received from the sale of bonds shall be forthwith paid to the district depository. [Id.]

Art. 7869. Construction and maintenance fund.—There is hereby created a "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such district, which shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatsoever source, except the tax collections applied to the interest and sinking fund on bonds. All expenses of any kind prior to and after the filing of the original petition necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any district, and improvements, repairs, cost of maintenance, salaries of all officers and employes, and all expenditures for any purposes of the district shall be paid out of such fund. [Id.]

5. TAXES

Art. 7870. Tax levy.—The directors shall annually levy and cause to be assessed taxes upon all property within said district sufficient to pay the expenses of assessing and collecting same, and a tax sufficient for the expenses incident to the maintenance of the district. The directors may from time to time increase or diminish any tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable value of the property subject to taxation, and shall certify the levy of all such taxes to the commissioners court of each county in the district. [Id.]

Art. 7871. Assessment of taxes.—When the levy of taxes is so certified, each such court shall order the county tax assessor to assess all property in the county subject to such tax, and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said court for such purpose and charged to the district. Said assessor shall return said books when he returns the other books or rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval, and if said courts shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve same. In all matters pertaining to such assessment, the tax assessor and board of equalization of the county shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for assessing and equalizing property for State and county taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7872. County tax assessor.—Each county tax assessor shall receive for said service such compensation, not to exceed the amount allowed by law for like services, as the directors of the district shall determine proper. Should any tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with such orders of the commissioners court, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the court, and be removed from office as provided by law for the removal of county officers. Upon failure to so order such assessor, the commissioners court shall be subject to mandamus by any court of competent jurisdiction on a petition in the name of the district, and the order of court upon such hearing may require the assessor to perform the duty without the intervention of an order of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 7873. County tax collector.—The county tax collector in each county wherein any part of the district may be situated shall be charged by the commissioners court of such county with the assessment rolls of the district, or that part of the district situated within the county, and he shall collect said taxes within his said county. In so doing, he shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of this State for the collection of State and county taxes, and suits may be brought for the collection of said taxes and the enforcement of the tax liens created by this chapter. His compensation shall be determined in the same manner as for the county assessor. [Id.]

Art. 7874. Collector: bond.—The commissioners court shall require the tax collector of their respective counties to give an additional bond or security in such sum as they may deem proper and safe to secure the collection of said taxes, payable to the district and conditioned as provided by law for tax collector's bonds. Should any tax collector fail or refuse to give such bond or security when requested by said court, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, or fail or refuse to collect the taxes so levied, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners court and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 7875. Taxes: payment.—All taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter shall be a lien upon the property upon which said taxes are assessed, and said taxes shall mature and be paid at the time provided by the laws of this State for the payment of State and county taxes, and all penalties provided by law for the non-payment of said taxes shall apply to all taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7876. Delinquent taxes.—Said collector shall make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which said tax has not been paid, and return same to the commissioners court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such property; and all the provisions of law with reference to delinquent State and county taxes, the collection thereof by suit or otherwise and the redemption of same from such sale, shall apply. Such suits shall be in the name of said district and brought and prosecuted by the same officers as provided for State and county taxes, who shall receive the same fees for such services as provided for like proceedings for State and county taxes. The directors may purchase such delinquent property for the benefit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7877. Maintenance tax.—The directors shall have authority as occasion may require, in their discretion, to levy a tax on all property within such district in an amount sufficient to pay for the proper maintenance, operation and repair of any dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates or any other improvement constructed by said district, and all the provisions of the preceding articles for the levy and collection of taxes shall apply. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 7878. Tax money: disposition.—The tax collector shall pay all moneys collected by him for said district to the district depository monthly, and as often as directed so to do by the directors, as now prescribed by law for the payment by tax collectors to county and city treasurers. [Id.]

Art. 7879. Interest and sinking fund.—There is hereby created an "Interest and Sinking Fund" for such district, and all taxes collected under this chapter for the payment of bonds and interest thereon shall be credited to such fund and shall never be paid out except for the purpose of satisfying and discharging the interest on said bonds, or for the payment, cancellation and surrender of said bonds. At the time of such payment, the depository shall receive and cancel any interest coupon so paid or any bond so satisfied or discharged, and when such coupon or bond shall be turned over to the directors, the account of such depository shall be credited with the amount thereof, and such coupon or bond shall be cancelled and destroyed. [Id.]

Art. 7880. May invest sinking fund.—The directors are empowered, whenever they deem it advisable, to invest any sinking fund of the district in bonds of the United States, of this State, of any county of Texas, any irrigation or water improvement or navigation bonds, or bonds of any school district in Texas authorized to issue bonds. No bonds shall be so purchased whose terms provide for their maturity at a date subsequent to the time of the maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Id.]

Art. 7880—1. May be organized; petition.—Water control and improvement districts may be organized in the State of Texas within the terms and provisions of Section 52 of Article 3 of the State Constitution, and within the terms and provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution. Petition for organization of such districts shall state the section and article under which same are to be organized, and such districts shall be organized and operated under the conditions, provisions, authority and restrictions therein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 86, § 1.]

Art. 7880—2. Purposes.—Water control and improvement districts may be organized under the provisions of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution for the purposes therein provided as follows:

(a) The improvement of rivers, creeks, and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof or of irrigation thereof, or in aid of such purposes.

(b) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purpose of irrigation, drainage, or navigation, or in aid thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 87, § 2.]

Art. 7880—3. Same.—Water control and improvement districts may be organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution for any one or more of the purpose[s] therein provided as follows:

“Including the control, storing, preservation and distribution of its waters and flood waters, the waters of its rivers and streams, for irrigation, power and all other useful purposes, the reclamation and irrigation of its arid, semi-arid and other lands needing irrigation, the reclamation and drainage of its overflowed lands and other lands needing drainage; the conservation and development of its forests, water and hydro-electric power, the navigation of its coastal and inland waters, and the preservation and conservation of all such natural resources of the State,” and such districts when organized shall have power to control any shortage or harmful excess of waters by any mechanical means. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 87, § 3; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 1.]

Section 26 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 7880—4. Area included.—Such districts may include the area of any county or counties, or any portion thereof, including towns, villages, or municipal corporations. Such districts may include any county and number of counties, or any political subdivision of the State, and defined district or parts of any or all counties in the State of Texas; and the land composing said districts need not be in one body, but may consist of separate bodies of land separated by land not embraced in the district; provided, however, that each segregated area must cast a majority vote in favor of the creation of the district before such segregated area can be included in the district.

Provided that no district provided for in this Act [Arts. 7880—1 to 7880—147] shall embrace territory situated in more than one county except by a majority vote of the property tax paying voters residing within the territory in each county sought to be embraced within said District. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 87, § 4; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 2.]

Art. 7880—4a. Preference in use of water.—Districts organized under the provisions of this Act [Arts. 7880—1 to 7880—147] may in the discretion of their directors award use of waters of the district in the following order of preference and superiority, viz.:

- 1st. Domestic and municipal use;
- 2nd. Industrial use, other than the development of hydro-electric power;
- 3rd. Irrigation;
- 4th. Development of hydro-electric power;
- 5th. Pleasure and recreation.

Where the welfare of the district may require, the directors of such district may withdraw water from an inferior use and appropriate such water to a superior use, as hereinabove given discretionary preference. Whenever such diversion or withdrawal will affect a vested right, such withdrawal or diversion must be after condemnation proceedings as provided for in Section 126 of this Act [Art. 7880—126]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 3.]

Art. 7880—5. Bonds; limitations of indebtedness.—Water control and improvement districts organized under Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution may issue bonds or otherwise lend their credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property value of such district, or territory, except that the total indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by the provisions of the Constitution, and levy and collect taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 87, § 5.]

Art. 7880—6. Tax levy and sinking fund.—Water control and improvement districts organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution may incur all such indebtedness as may be necessary to provide all improvements, and the maintenance thereof, requisite to the achievement of the purposes for which it was authorized to be created, and all such indebtedness may be evidenced by bonds to be issued as prescribed by law, and such districts are authorized to levy and collect all such taxes, equitably distributed, as may be necessary for the payment of the interest and the creation of a sinking fund for the payment thereof, and also for the maintenance of such districts and improvements, and such taxes shall be a lien upon the property assessed for the payment thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 87, § 6.]

Art. 7880—7. Powers.—All districts organized under the provisions hereof shall have and may exercise such functions, powers, authority, rights and duties as may be incident to or necessary to their organization and operation, including the investigation, construction, maintenance and operation of all necessary improvements and plants, the acquisition of water rights and all other properties, lands, tenements, and rights incident to the purposes of its organization, subject only to the restrictions provided by law. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 7.]

Art. 7880—8. Bonds; vote required.—In all districts organized under the provisions of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, bonds shall be issued only upon a vote of a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 8.]

Art. 7880—9. Same.—In all districts organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, no bonds shall be issued or any indebtedness incurred unless such proposition shall first be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such district and the proposition be adopted by not less than a majority of such qualified persons voting thereon. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 9.]

Art. 7880—10. Petition.—Petition for the organization of a water control and improvement district shall be signed by a majority in number of the holders of title to the lands therein, and the owners of a majority in value of the lands therein, as shown by the county tax rolls, provided, if the number of such land owners therein is more than fifty, such petition shall be sufficient if same is signed by fifty land owners. Such petition may be signed and filed in two or more copies. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 10.]

Art. 7880—11. Contents of petition.—The petition shall designate the name of the district, the area and boundaries thereof, the provision of the Constitution under which same is to be organized, the purpose or purposes of same. Said petition shall state the general nature of the work to be done, the necessity thereof, the feasibility thereof, with reasonable detail and definiteness in order that the court or board passing on same may understand therefrom the purpose, utility, feasibility and need or necessity therefor. The petition shall state the estimated cost of the project as then estimated by those filing such petition from such information as they may have at that time. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 11.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 7880—12. Filing of petition.—Said petition shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is situated. If land in more than one county is included, copies of the petition certified by such clerk shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of each county in which a portion thereof lies. Said petition shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose in the office of the county clerk. When more than one petition or copy is filed and same are identical except as to the signature thereon, one copy shall be recorded and all signatures of such copies shall be included. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 88, § 12.]

Art. 7880—13. Formation of district.—When the land to be included in a district lies within one county, the formation thereof shall be considered and ordered by the county commissioners' court, and when the land in such a district is in two or more counties the formation thereof shall be considered and ordered by the State Board of Water Engineers. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 13.]

Art. 7880—14. Date of hearing.—When a petition is filed for the organization of a district within one county the county judge shall make an order setting the date of hearing thereof by the county commissioners' court, and shall endorse same on said petition or on a paper attached thereto. The county clerk shall thereupon issue a notice of such hearing. Said petition may be considered at a regular or special session of said court. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 14.]

Art. 7880—15. Notice of hearing.—The notice of hearing of a petition for the formation of a district shall contain a statement of the nature and purpose thereof, the date and time and place of hearing. The notice shall be prepared with one original and three copies. The county clerk will retain one copy in his files and deliver the original and two copies to the county sheriff. The sheriff shall post one copy at the court house door fifteen days prior to the date of hearing and shall publish one copy in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication thereof to be made at least twenty days prior to the date of hearing. He shall make due return of service thereof with copy and affidavit of publication attached on the original prior to date of hearing. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 15.]

Art. 7880—16. Designation of districts.—All districts organized under the provisions hereof shall be known and designated as Water Control Improvement Districts. Such districts lying in one county shall be named: _____ County Water Control and Improvement District, Number _____, filling in name of county and proper consecutive number. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 16.]

Art. 7880—17. Contest of creation.—Upon the day set for hearing upon a petition for the organization of a district by the county commissioners' court, or by the State Board of Water Engineers, any person whose land is included in or would be affected by the creation of such district may appear and contest the creation thereof and may offer testimony to show that such district is or is not necessary, would or would not be a public utility, and would or would not be feasible or practicable. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 17.]

Art. 7880—18. Jurisdiction; hearing.—The county commissioners' court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear, consider and determine all such petitions for organization in one county, and all orders made by said court therein shall be final, provided that if the court shall grant or refuse such petition any party thereto may file an appeal therefrom to the district court by filing with the clerk of the commissioners' court notice thereof within ten days after the making of a final order. The clerk of the commissioners' court shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court to which such appeal is taken as set out in the notice of appeal, a certified copy and transcript of all the papers, records and files pertaining to said cause. Said cause shall be tried as other civil cases in the district court, the trial being de novo except that it shall not be necessary to file any other or additional pleadings therein. All parties thereto shall take notice of said appeal by virtue of the notice of appeal filed as herein provided without the issuance of citation or notice thereof. Said cause shall be advanced and be tried by the district court as soon after being filed as possible. The final judgment on appeal shall be certified by the clerk of said court, to the commissioners' court for further action as ordered therein. All original papers and files therein which were sent to the district court by the clerk of the commissioners' court shall be returned. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 89, § 18.]

Art. 7880—19. Granting or refusing petition.—If it shall appear on hearing by the commissioners' court that the organization of a district as prayed for is feasible and practicable, that it would be a benefit to the land to be included therein, and be a public benefit, or utility, the commissioners' court shall so find and grant the petition. If the court should find that such proposed district is not feasible or practicable, would not be a public benefit or utility, or would not be a benefit to the land to be included therein, or is not needed, the court shall refuse to grant the petition. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 90, § 19; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 4.]

Art. 7880—20. Appointment of directors.—When the commissioners' court shall grant a petition for organization of a district it shall appoint five directors who shall serve until their successors are elected or appointed in accordance with law. Such directors shall within fifteen days thereafter file their official bonds in the office of the county clerk who shall present same to the county judge for approval. The county judge shall pass upon such bonds and approve same if proper and sufficient, or disapprove same and endorse his action thereon and return same to the county clerk. If approved, said bonds shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the county clerk. If such bond is not approved a new bond may be furnished in ten days thereafter. If any director so appointed fails to qualify, the commissioners' court shall appoint other persons in place of those failing to qualify. Each of said directors shall take the oath of office as herein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 90, § 20.]

Art. 7880—21. State Board of Water Engineers; jurisdiction.—The State Board of Water Engineers shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all petitions for organization of a district which included land in two or more counties and all orders made therein shall be final unless set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction in the manner and within the time herein provided. Said board shall consider such petitions in the same manner and purpose herein provided for consideration of petitions by the commissioners' court for formation of districts in one county. If said board shall grant or refuse to grant a petition, any party thereto may file suit in the district court of any county in which a portion of such district is situated to set aside such order and have said petition retried therein. Any party filing such suit in the district court shall do so by filing in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers notice thereof in writing within fifteen days after the entry of the order of the board therein. The secretary of the Board of Water Engineers shall make a certified transcript of all the papers and records of said matter in his office and file same in the office of the clerk of the district court designated in said notice. The party applying therefor shall pay the actual cost of making such transcript provided whenever practical the original papers shall be sent to the district court instead of copies thereof. All parties thereto shall take notice of the filing of such suit by virtue of such notice so filed and it shall not be necessary to issue citation or other notice thereof. The final judgment of the court shall be certified by the clerk thereof to the State Board of Water Engineers for further action as therein ordered. All original papers and files sent to the court by the State Board of Water Engineers shall be returned. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 90, § 21.]

Art. 7880—22. Directors; bond.—If at the hearing of a petition the State Board of Water Engineers shall grant the petition they shall appoint five directors who shall serve until their successors are elected or appointed. A certified copy of the order granting the petition and naming the directors shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of each county in which a portion of the district lies. The directors therein named shall within fifteen days file their official bonds in the office of the county clerk of the county of their residences and same shall be presented to the county judge for approval. The county judge will act upon same in the manner herein provided for districts in one county. If any such director fails to qualify the commissioners' court of the county in which he lives shall appoint some qualified person in his place. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 91, § 22.]

Art. 7880—23. Election; ballot.—Whenever a district shall have been organized by the granting of a petition therefor by the commissioners' court or by the State Board of Water Engineers, and the directors shall have qualified by giving bond and taking the oath of office, the directors shall meet, elect a president, vice-president and secretary and enter upon the discharge of their duties.

Before such district shall incur any indebtedness other than for its operation and the holding of an election, and in any event within thirty days after the date of their first meeting they shall make and publish an order calling an election within and for such district for the purpose of confirming the organization of the district by a vote of the qualified resident property taxpaying voters. The ballots for such election shall contain the proposition: "For confirmation of district" and "Against district."

The election shall be held as herein provided for other elections. At the same time and the same election the proposition for issuance of preliminary bonds may be submitted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 91, § 23.]

Art. 7880—24. Confirmation of organization.—If the majority of those voting at such election vote in favor of the confirmation of the district the same is thereby finally confirmed and ratified. If a majority of those voting at such election vote against the district, same shall have no further authority except that any debts incurred shall be paid and the organization shall be maintained until all such debts are paid.

Whenever such an election shall be found to be in favor of the confirmation of the district and the result thereof be declared the board of directors shall make and enter in their minutes an order substantially as follows:

An election having been held in _____ district on the _____ day of _____ for the purpose of voting upon the confirmation of the organization resulted in a vote of _____ votes for confirmation and _____ votes against the district, the result being declared in favor of the organization. Said _____ district is therefore declared to have been legally organized with the following boundaries:—(Set out boundaries).

Said order shall be signed by said directors or a majority of them and acknowledged by the president and be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which same is situated and shall be recorded in the deed records. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 91, § 24.]

Art. 7880—25. Ballots; director's bond.—As to all districts organized by order of the State Board of Water Engineers there shall also be submitted at said first election the question of the election of five directors of such district. There shall be placed on the ballots the names of the five directors appointed and a blank space shall be left to write in the names of other persons. If the directors appointed are elected the ones so elected shall be confirmed thereby without the necessity of furnishing new bonds, but shall be continued in office. In the event any of the directors first appointed are not elected at such election the person or persons elected in their places shall furnish bond and same shall be approved in the same manner as herein provided for directors first appointed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 92, § 25.]

Art. 7880—26. Conduct of election.—All elections held by a district shall be ordered, held and conducted in accordance with the laws of this State for the holding of general elections for State and county officers, except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 92, § 26.]

Art. 7880—27. Polling places; judges; clerks.—The directors shall name the polling places and if more than one is required divide the district into election precincts. Same may be changed from time to time as required. The directors shall provide for the holding of all elections and giving of notice thereof and appoint the officers to hold same. The officers shall consist of one presiding judge, one assistant judge and two clerks. More clerks may be appointed when necessary. Officers shall be appointed for such election when it is ordered. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 92, § 27.]

Art. 7880—28. Notice of election.—Notice of all elections shall be given by order of the board of directors. The notice shall state the purpose of the election, the propositions and officers to be voted upon, the polling places, the names of the officers of election. The notice shall be signed by the president and secretary and shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is located, or if none is published in said counties in the nearest county thereto. The first publication shall be at least twenty one days prior to the election and not more than thirty-five days prior thereto. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 92, § 28.]

Art. 7880—29. Declaring result of election.—The officers holding the election shall make and deliver the returns thereof in triplicate, one being retained by the presiding judge, one delivered to the president of the district and one delivered to the secretary. The ballot boxes and other election records and supplies shall be delivered to the secretary at the office of the district and be preserved as provided by law in said office. All boxes containing ballots voted or mutilated shall be preserved for one year subject to the orders of any court in which a contest thereof may be filed. The officers of election at the time of making and sealing such election returns shall give to the newspapers or others calling for same the result of such election in their voting box. The directors shall meet and canvass the returns of an election at any time not less than five full days thereafter nor more than seven days thereafter, provided if same cannot be canvassed within seven days same shall be done as soon thereafter as possible. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 93, § 29.]

Art. 7880—30. Voter's oath.—When any person appears at the polls to vote who is not known to the election officers to be a qualified voter and a property tax payer, or when his vote is challenged, he shall be required to subscribe and swear to an oath as follows: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter and a property tax payer in the district. I did not acquire property prior to this election for the purpose of voting, but am a bona fide property tax payer in the district." Such oath shall be required only in elections in which the voter is required to be a property tax payer. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 93, § 30.]

Art. 7880—31. Preliminary bonds.—The directors of the district shall have full authority to make investigations and plans necessary to the operation of the district and the construction of plans and improvements. They may employ engineers, attorneys, bond experts, and other agents and employees required to aid them in the performance of such duties. The district may issue bonds to be known and designated as preliminary bonds, for the purpose of creating a fund to pay the costs of organization of the district and of making surveys, investigations, attorneys fees, engineering work, cost of issuance of bonds, and all other costs and expenses incident to the organization of the district and its operation in investigating and determining upon plans for its plant and improvements and the expense of issuing and selling bonds to provide for such permanent improvements.

The directors shall make an estimate of such expenses and state in the notice of election the amount of same. Said proposition of the issuance of such bonds shall be submitted to an election and shall be adopted. Those voting at such election shall be qualified electors and property tax payers. Such preliminary bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum and shall be due and payable not to exceed ten years from their date. While said bonds shall be known and designated on the records as preliminary bonds it shall not be necessary to so designate same on the bonds. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 93, § 31.]

Art. 7880—32. Provision for payment.—Said bond election may be held at the same time as the election held for the conformation of the district, or at such time thereafter as the directors shall provide. When such bonds have been authorized by an election the directors may make an order for the issuance thereof in an amount not to exceed the amount stated in the notice of election. Said bonds may be made payable serially or upon amortization at any time within ten years from their date. At the time such bonds are issued a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest thereon and provide for the payment of the principal thereof as same mature and to pay the cost of assessing and collecting such taxes.

If such tax levied is based upon the assessed value obtained from the county tax rolls, or the tax rolls of such district for the preceding year and new tax rolls be approved before the time for collection of taxes, the board of directors is authorized to change the tax rate so made at the time of the issuance of said bonds, provided that the new tax rate shall be sufficient when applied to the new assessed value to raise the same amount of money as the rate levied at the time when the bonds were issued would have raised upon the valuation taken into consideration in fixing such rate. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 94, § 32; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 5.]

Art. 7880—33. Levy of taxes.—The directors may appoint a tax assessor and collector for the district in the manner herein provided and cause taxes to be levied, assessed and collected as herein provided. Provided, however, the directors of a district upon the making of a tax levy for the purpose of paying the charges on such preliminary bonds, or any tax levy made under the provisions of law by a district, may file a certificate of such tax levy in the office of the county tax assessor and the county tax collector of the county or counties in which said district is situated. In which event the said tax assessor shall enter same upon the tax rolls of the county as against all property thereon within such district in the same manner as other tax levies, or make a special list thereof and attach same to said tax rolls before same are delivered to the tax collector or thereafter. The county tax collector shall collect said taxes in the same manner as other county taxes. The county tax assessor and county tax collector shall be paid for such service a reasonable compensation to be agreed upon which shall not be subject to the fee bill, but shall be in addition to all other fees and compensation provided by law. The tax collector shall keep a true and complete record of all such taxes collected and uncollected and of all receipts for taxes issued by him. He shall pay to the district depository all sums collected by him for the district on or before the end of each month and shall furnish the secretary of the district an itemized statement thereof. A finance ledger shall be kept by the district in which shall be charged against said tax collector the full amount of the tax rolls, and credit shall be given for all collections with the name of the party paying same.

Such taxes shall be collected and handled by such county officers in accordance with the provisions of law for the collection of State and county taxes, except as herein otherwise provided.

In the event taxes are collected for a district in the manner provided in this section then the provisions of law providing for the assessment and collection of taxes by a district through its own officers shall not apply thereto. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 94, § 33.]

Art. 7880—34. Records of bonds.—Whenever a district shall issue bonds other than preliminary bonds, before same are sold a record showing all proceedings of the organization of the district and of the issuance of bonds shall be filed in the office of the Attorney General of the State and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to examine same and give his opinion thereon. Said record may be so presented to the Attorney General before such bonds are printed and executed after the record providing for the issuance of same is completed. When such record is approved said bonds shall be issued or duly executed and shall be submitted to the Attorney General for approval. If he shall find that same have been issued in accordance with the provisions of law and that such bonds are valid, binding obligations upon the district he shall so officially certify and execute a certificate thereof which shall be filed in the office of the State Comptroller and be recorded in a record kept for that purpose. Such bonds after being approved and registered shall be held in any suit or proceeding in which their validity may be questioned to be valid, binding obligations of such district, provided, however, that any party interested therein may file a suit thereon at any time prior to the registration of same by the State Comptroller, but not thereafter. Said bonds shall not be so registered in the office of the State Comptroller until twenty days after the date of the election authorizing the issuance thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 95, § 34.]

Art. 7880—35. District depository.—Prior to the sale of any bonds the directors of the district shall select and name a depository for the district as herein provided and the proceeds of such bonds shall be paid into the depository and disbursed as herein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 95, § 35.]

Art. 7880—36. Qualifications and powers of directors.—Each district shall have five directors. Each director shall be twenty-one years or more of age, be a resident citizen of the State and own land subject to taxation in the district. The five directors shall compose the board of directors of the district and be the managing officers in charge of all the business and affairs of the district, make all contracts pertaining thereto. They shall employ all employees necessary for the proper handling of such business and the operation of the district, its plant and improvements. They may employ a general manager, attorneys, bookkeepers, engineers and laborers. They may purchase all necessary work animals, motors, automobiles, machinery, materials and supplies, required in the erection, repair or maintenance of the plant and improvements of the district. A director may be employed as general manager and at such compensation as may be fixed by the four other directors, and when so employed he shall continue to perform the duties of a director. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 95, § 36.]

Art. 7880—37. Election of directors.—There shall be held a general election in said water control and improvement district on the second Tuesday in January next after the said district is formed at which time five directors for each district shall be elected. The three directors receiving the highest vote shall serve for two years. The other two directors shall serve for one year. At the second annual election two directors shall be elected to serve two years. At the third annual election three directors shall be elected to serve two years, and thereafter there shall be an annual election of two directors in one year and three directors in the next year in continuing sequence. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 95, ch. 25, § 37; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 6.]

Art. 7880—38. Vacancies.—All vacancies in the office of director and other officers shall be filled by appointment by the board of directors for the unexpired term. In the event the number of directors shall be reduced to less than three then the remaining director or directors shall call a special election to fill said vacancies, and if they shall fail to do so within fifteen days after such vacancies occur the judge of any district court within the jurisdiction of which any part of such district may be situated, upon petition of any voter or creditor thereof may order the holding of such election, fixing the date thereof, and order the publication of notice thereof by any county sheriff and name the officers to hold such election. In any such election held by order of a district judge the returns of an election shall be made to and filed in the office of the clerk of the court and he shall declare the result thereof. The officers elected shall furnish bond and qualify in the manner provided herein with reference to directors first appointed for a district upon its organization. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 96, § 38.]

Art. 7880—39. Directors; bond; oath.—The directors of a district shall each make and furnish a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties as such directors. They shall each take and subscribe an oath of office with conditions therein as provided by law for members of the county commissioners' court. After the organization of a district as herein provided and the qualification of the first board of directors all such bonds required to be given by a director or other officer of a district shall be approved by the director of the district. All such bonds shall be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the director lives and shall then be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safe keeping in the depository of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 96, § 39.]

Art. 7880—40. Officers and employees; bond.—The directors of a district shall require all officers and employees who shall be charged with the collection or paying or handling of any funds of the district under their orders to furnish good and sufficient bonds payable to the district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties and accounting for all funds and property of the district coming into their hands in a sufficient sum to safeguard the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 96, § 40.]

Art. 7880—41. Directors; quorum; warrants. The directors of a district shall organize by electing one of their members president, one vice president and one secretary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district except the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants on the depository paying therefor, which shall require the concurrence and signature of four directors. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on their minutes, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 96, § 41.]

Art. 7880—42. Organization of directors.—The president shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall be the chief executive officer of the district. The vice president shall act as president in case of the absence or disability of the president. The secretary shall act as secretary of the board of directors and shall be charged with the duty of seeing that all records and books of the district are properly kept. In the case of the absence or inability of the secretary to act, a secretary pro tem shall be selected by the directors. The directors shall hold regular meetings at the office of the district on the first Monday in February, May, August and November of each year at 10 o'clock a. m., and may hold meetings at such other times as the business of the district may require. Any person owning taxable property in the district may attend any meeting of the directors and may present such matters as they desire to such directors in an orderly manner. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg. ch. 25, p. 97, § 42.]

Art. 7880—43. Fees of directors.—The directors shall receive as fees of office the sum of not to exceed Ten Dollars per day for each day of service necessary to discharge of their duties. They shall file with the secretary a verified statement showing the actual number of days of service each month on the last day of the month, or as soon thereafter as possible and before a warrant shall be issued therefor. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 97, § 43.]

Art. 7880—44. Minutes; office.—The directors shall keep a true and full account of all their meetings and proceedings and preserve their minutes, contracts, records, notices, accounts, receipts, and records of all kinds in a fireproof vault or safe. The same shall be the property of the district and subject to public inspection. A regular office shall be established and maintained for conduct of the district business within the district, provided that when a district is organized in such a manner that the towns within or adjoining the territory included therein are left out of the district, the district office may be located in such adjoining town which is best suited for the transaction of the business. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 97, § 44.]

Art. 7880—45. Auditor's report.—A complete book of accounts shall be kept. During the first week of each year a competent auditor shall be employed who shall examine the account books and records of the district, of the depository and of the tax assessor and collector and make a report thereon. Said report shall be in triplicate, one copy being filed in the office of the district, one with the depository of the district, and one copy in the office of the auditor, all of which shall be open to public inspection. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 97, § 45.]

Art. 7880—46. General manager.—The directors may employ a general manager for the district and may give him full authority in the management and operation of the district affairs, (subject only to the orders of the board of directors). The term of office and compensation to be paid such manager and all employees shall be by the board of directors and all employees may be removed by the board. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 46.]

Art. 7880—47. Officers and employees; bonds.—All bonds required to be given by officers and employees of the district may be signed by individual sureties or by surety companies authorized to do business in the State. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 47.]

Art. 7880—48. Powers of district.—All districts shall have full power and authority to construct all plants, works, and improvements necessary to the purpose for which it is organized and incident thereto. Water control and improvement districts may construct all works and improvements necessary for the prevention of floods, the irrigation of land in such districts, for drainage of lands and construction of levees to protect same from overflow, to alter land elevations where correction is needed, and to supply water for municipal uses, domestic uses, power and commercial purposes, and all other beneficial uses or controls. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 98, ch. 25, § 48; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 7.]

Art. 7880—49. Entry on lands.—The directors, employees and engineers of a district shall have authority to go upon any lands for the purpose of making surveys for reservoirs, canals, rights of way, dams, or other contemplated improvements and to attend to any business of the district, whether such lands are situated in the district or outside of such district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 49.]

Art. 7880—50. Liability on contracts of acquired irrigation system.—When a district acquires an established irrigation system which has contracted to supply water to others and the holders of such contracts or the lands entitled to service of water thereon are not within such district, such contracts and duties shall be carried out by the district in the same manner and to the same extent that any other purchaser of such system would be bound thereby. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 50.]

Art. 7880—51. Right to sue or be sued.—All districts can sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of the district. All courts shall take judicial knowledge and notice of the establishment of a district and the boundaries thereof. Such districts shall contract and be contracted with in the name of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 51.]

Art. 7880—52. District engineer.—The directors may employ a competent civil engineer who shall be an officer of the district to be known as "District Engineer". It shall be his duty to make a thorough study and investigation of all plans of the district and to make and file in the office of the district a report upon all plans for construction of plants and improvements. Each district shall provide and keep in its office a book to be known as the "Engineer's Record" in which shall be recorded all reports and recommendations made by the engineer and same shall be open to public inspection. No contract involving the expenditure of more than twenty thousand dollars shall be made by a district unless such district shall have a district engineer who has made a proper study and report thereon. The term of service of such engineer shall be fixed by the board of directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 98, § 52.]

Art. 7880—53. Contract with United States.—Any district authorized under Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution, with the object, among other things, of irrigating arid land, is hereby empowered through its board of directors to contract with the United States of America for the purpose of providing for the investigation, construction, extension and operation and maintenance of any Federal reclamation project of benefit to the district and authorized under the National Reclamation Act of June 17, 1902 (Thirty-second United States Statutes at Large, page 388), and acts now and hereafter amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, and all herein styled the National Reclamation Law, and the securing of a district water supply therefrom, and to pay to the United States the agreed cost thereof in the form of construction charges, operation and maintenance charges, and water rental charges, as shown by such contract and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the National Reclamation Law, and the regulations now and hereafter promulgated thereunder. The construction charges may include the cost of drainage and flood control works necessary to control floods or to maintain the irrigability of district land, and the cost of incidental electric power and municipal water service made feasible through the water supply of the reclamation project. Every such contract involving the payment of construction charges to the United States shall be voted upon by the electors of the district as in the case of an issue of district bonds, and the provisions of this Act relating to the election upon, approval and validation of such bonds shall be followed so far as applicable, including the prosecution of an action in court to determine the validity of the contract. The notice of election shall state the maximum amount, exclusive of operation and maintenance charges, water rental charges, interest and penalties, payable by the district to the United States under the contract and the ballot shall contain the following words; and no others: "For contract with the United States of America and levy of taxes and payment therefor," and "Against contract with the United States of America and levy of taxes and payment therefor." Any such district may convey real property to the United States in connection with the construction or operation and maintenance of Federal reclamation works used or to be used for the benefit of the district. Where a contract is made under this section, between a district and the United States, providing for use by the district of Federal Reclamation works, the district need not prepare or file any engineering data respecting the construction of such works. Until all moneys receivable by the United States from any such district under any such contract shall have been fully paid, the boundaries of such district shall not be altered without the consent of the United States. Any such district contracting with the United States under this section shall annually levy taxes sufficient in amount to provide payment of all installments of charges as required by the contract and the district may, under authority of a vote of the district electors as provided in this Act, apportion benefits and levy and collect taxes on a benefit basis instead of on an ad valorem basis, and may when provided by contract make payment of construction charges on the basis of the average gross annual acre income of the lands of the district or designated divisions or subdivisions thereof, as such annual gross acre income is determined by the Secretary of the Interior. The annual levies of assessments shall be sufficient to collect the amount of money required to meet all the district's obligations in full when due notwithstanding any delinquency in payment of assessments by any tract of land. If collections in any year prove insufficient to meet the obligations of the district, the levy shall be increased the following year to a sufficient extent to cover the deficit. The annual levies for payment of construction charges shall continue to be made each year against each tract of land in the district until the full amount apportioned against the same has been paid notwithstanding that such construction charges apportioned against other tracts of land in the district may sooner or later be paid out. The lien against district lands on account of any such contract with the United States shall be superior and dominant to the lien on account of any district bonds approved subsequent to date of such contract. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 99, § 53; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 8.]

Art. 7880—54. Tax assessor and collector.—The office of tax assessor and collector is one office to be filled by one person. He shall be appointed by the board of directors, or if the directors so order may be elected. He shall give good and sufficient bond with at least two sufficient sureties or a surety company, to be approved by the directors, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as tax assessor and collector and for the paying over to the depository all funds or other things of value coming into his hands as such officer. The directors may require additional bonds or a bond in larger amount or additional security at any time that same may be advisable in their judgment. The tax assessor and collector shall be a resident of the district and shall be a qualified voter. One or more deputies may be appointed by the directors to assist the tax assessor and collector for such time, not to exceed one year, as may be ordered by the directors, and such assistants may be required to furnish bonds with similar conditions to that required of the tax assessor and collector. The compensation to be paid to the tax assessor and collector and any deputy shall be fixed by the directors. The board of directors may require the tax assessor and collector to perform other duties than those herein fixed. In case any district is appointed fiscal agent of the United States, or by the United States is authorized to make collections of money for and on behalf of the United States in connection with any Federal Reclamation project, such tax assessor and collector and each director and officer of the district shall execute a further additional bond in such sum as the Secretary of the Interior may require, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his respective office and the faithful discharge by the district of its duties as fiscal or other agent of the United States under such appointment or authorization. Such additional bonds to be approved, recorded and filed as herein provided for other official bonds. Any such additional bonds may be sued on by the United States or any person injured by the failure of such officer, or the district to fully, promptly and completely perform their respective duties. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 100, § 54.]

Art. 7880—55. Property subject to taxation.—The tax assessor and collector shall make an assessment of all the taxable property in his district. The property subject to taxation in a district shall be determined by and governed by the laws of this State providing for taxation for State and county purposes, and all such laws of the State shall apply thereto except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 101, § 55.]

Art. 7880—56. Rendition of taxable property.—The tax assessor and collector shall compile a record of all tax payers and those subject to payment of taxes in the district, and of all taxable property and the name and postoffice address of the owner thereof. He shall on or before the first day of April each year furnish each tax payer and each owner of taxable property in the district a blank form for the rendition of property for taxation. Same may be delivered or deposited in the mails addressed to such owner. It shall be the duty of the owner of any and all property subject to taxation in the district to file in the office of the tax assessor and collector a full, accurate and complete statement made under oath of all property owned by him, her, it or them, subject to taxation therein. Said statement or rendition shall be filed on or before the last day of March of each year and shall state the true value of all property listed and owned by the party rendering same subject to taxation in the district. In rendering land improvements and all other character of physical, real and personal property such statement shall show both the market value and the real value thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 101, § 56.]

Art. 7880—57. Taxpayer's oath.—Anyone, any corporation, any organization, partnership, association, joint stock company, or property owner of any description who shall refuse to make or file as herein provided a true, full and complete statement and rendition under oath of all property owned subject to taxation in the district, shall thereby be precluded from making any objection, protest, or contest against the assessment made against him, her, it, or them for taxes by the district. Such statement or rendition shall have thereon, or attached thereto, an oath substantially as follows:

"I, _____, upon my oath state that the foregoing statement and rendition is a true, full and complete statement of all property owned by me or for whom this rendition is made, or by whom this rendition is made, subject to taxation within _____ district. I have correctly stated the description, location and value thereof and of each item thereof."

Same shall be signed and oath made before any officer authorized by the laws of this State to take oaths and acknowledgments. Such officer shall place thereon his official certificate, in substance as follows:

"Subscribed and sworn to by _____ before me this the _____ day of _____, _____" and attach thereto his official seal and signature.

Such statement may be filed by any authorized agent of the owner of any such property, provided such agent shall state therein that he makes and files same as such agent. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 101, § 57.]

Art. 7880—58. Verification by tax assessor and collector.—The tax assessor and collector shall check, investigate and verify each such rendition of property and note thereon in writing his report thereof. He shall add in such report any property omitted therefrom and make statement of his estimate of the value of all property not rendered at its full value or if same is rendered at more than its full value. He shall make and file a rendition of all property in the district which is not rendered for taxation. Such rendition by such officer to be made and filed on or before the first day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The provisions hereof that the tax assessor and collector shall furnish a form for such renditions to be made by property owners shall not excuse anyone failing to receive same from the duty of making and filing same, but any property owner failing to receive same shall call at the office for same. In making rendition of all property not rendered the tax assessor and collector shall include all property of every description which is not rendered by the owner thereof, or by his agent for him, and if the owner thereof is unknown, shall list same as owned by an "unknown owner" and said property shall be taxed and taxes collected thereon even though the owner be unknown or be assessed against one not the owner thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 102, § 58.]

Art. 7880—59. False oaths.—The tax assessor and collector shall have authority to administer oaths to fully carry out his duties and the assessment of property for taxation. All laws and penal statutes of this State providing the rendition of property for State and county purposes and providing penalties for making false oaths and providing penalties for failing to render such property shall apply to the rendition of property for taxation in a district except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 102, § 59.]

Art. 7880—60. Date of rendition.—If upon the organization of a district it shall become necessary to have the property therein rendered for taxation at a later date in the year than herein provided for the regular assessment thereof, then the directors of such district shall fix and determine the time when such renditions shall be made and the time within which the other necessary things herein provided to be done in connection therewith shall be done. After said first year, however, said assessments shall be made as herein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 102, § 60.]

Art. 7880—61. Board of equalization.—The directors for such district created under the provisions of this Act, shall at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and annually thereafter, appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter and resident property owner of said district, who shall be styled the "Board of Equalization," and at the same meeting the board of directors shall fix the time for the meeting of such board of equalization for the first year; and said board of equalization shall convene at the time fixed by the directors to receive all assessment lists or books of the assessor for such district for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal and approval, and at all meetings of said board the secretary of the board of directors shall act as secretary thereof and keep a permanent record of all the proceedings of the board of equalization. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 102, § 61.]

Art. 7880—62. Oath of board.—Before entering upon the duties as such board of equalization, each of the members thereof shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I _____ do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will to the best of my ability, make a full and complete examination, correction, equalization and appraisal of all property contained within said district as shown by the assessment lists or books of the assessor for said district and add thereto all property not included therein of which I have knowledge," and said oath shall be spread upon the minutes to be kept by the secretary of said board. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 103, § 62.]

Art. 7880—63. Board to convene.—The Board of Equalization, after the first year, shall convene on the first Monday in June of each year and shall complete their work by the first day of September, or as soon thereafter as possible. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 103, § 63.]

Art. 7880—64. Board to examine assessment lists.—The board of equalization herein provided for shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time fixed for the conveying of said board, all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district for their examination, that they may see that each and every person has rendered his property at its full value; and said board shall have power to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths to persons who testify before the board, to ascertain the value of all property subject to taxation. They may lower the valuation of all property rendered or raise the valuation thereof. The board shall have power to correct any and all errors of assessments and renditions and to cause all property not rendered to be placed on the tax rolls.

The board of equalization shall equalize as near as possible the value of all property rendered for taxation and fix the value thereof for taxation. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 103, § 64.]

Art. 7880—65. May file complaint.—Any person may file with the board of equalization a complaint as to the rendition and assessment of his own property, or any other property, and the board shall hear and consider all such complaints. Anyone may file with the board suggestions of property being omitted from the tax rolls and the board shall add to the rolls any property subject to taxation omitted from same. The tax assessor and collector shall file with the board a list of all persons who fail or refuse to render their property. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 103, § 65.]

Art. 7880—66. Notice of hearing.—When said board shall have passed upon such renditions they shall fix a date for hearing protests from those whose renditions have been raised. The secretary shall give notice in writing to all whose assessments have been raised, of the time and place of such hearing by depositing same with postage paid in the mails addressed to such party if his address is known. Failure to give such notice shall not relieve the owner of any such property of his duty to take notice of the meeting of the board of equalization and to appear at such meeting. Said notice shall be mailed at least ten days prior to such meeting. The board of equalization, at said meeting, shall hear and consider all complaints and protests and reconsider the valuation of all property the valuation of which has theretofore been raised by them and finally fix the valuation of all property. When the tax assessor and collector has made out his tax rolls, the board of equalization shall meet and consider same and make all necessary corrections therein and endorse their approval thereon. The action of the board of equalization at said last meeting approving said rolls shall be final and shall not be subject to revision by said board or in any other tribunal thereafter. The compensation of the members of the board shall be fixed by the directors of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 103, § 66.]

Art. 7880—67. Duplicate tax rolls.—The tax assessor and collector shall prepare the tax rolls in duplicate, one copy of which he shall retain in his office and one copy shall be filed in the district office. The minutes of the board of equalization, all renditions, protests and other papers filed in connection with the rendition of property and the preparation of the tax rolls shall be preserved as official records in the office of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 67.]

Art. 7880—68. Books of account; audit.—The directors of a district shall provide a permanent finance ledger in which the tax assessor and collector shall be charged with the total assessment of property as shown by the tax rolls. Credit shall be entered thereon of all collections paid to the depository. Said finance ledger and the books and accounts of the tax assessor and collector shall be audited by the board of directors semi-annually on January 1st and July 1st of each year and at such other times as the board may order. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 68.]

Art. 7880—69. When taxes due—payable.—All taxes shall become due and payable on the first day of October of each year and shall be paid on or before the 31st day of January thereafter. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 69.]

Art. 7880—70. Delinquent taxes; collection; sale of property; limitation.—All taxes which have not been paid on the last day of January shall become delinquent on the first day of February each year and same shall be and remain a lien upon the property for which same were assessed although the owner be unknown or same be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner thereof or though the ownership be changed. All such property may be sold under a judgment of a court for all taxes, interest penalty and costs assessed against same at any time after such taxes become delinquent. The district shall have authority to file suits for the collection of taxes against any and all property assessed for taxes and if the owner be unknown such suit may be filed against an unknown owner and the property sold under the judgment of the court. Taxes are not barred by any law of limitation and no law providing for a period of limitation as to debts or actions shall apply to such taxes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 70.]

Art. 7880—71. Penalty; interest.—All taxes becoming delinquent shall have added thereto a penalty of ten per cent of the amount thereof, which charge shall accrue at the time same became delinquent. All such delinquent taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date upon which they became delinquent. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 71.]

Art. 7880—72. Publication of delinquent tax roll.—The tax assessor and collector shall on or before the first of April each year prepare a delinquent tax roll, showing all charges upon the tax rolls which have not been paid and file same with the directors of said district. The directors shall publish said delinquent tax list showing name of owner, description of the property, and total amount due, in a newspaper published in the county where said district or any part thereof is situated. Said notice shall be published once a week for two weeks. If no newspaper is published in the county said notice may be published in a newspaper outside of the county. There shall be paid to the newspaper for publishing such notice a reasonable fee fixed by agreement, not to exceed, however, twenty cents for each rendition or each tract of land, allowing not to exceed three lines single column thereto. The publisher of such notice shall file in the office of the district a copy of each issue of the paper containing said notice with affidavit of publication attached thereto. The notice herein provided for to be made by publication is intended to be for the information of all taxpayers and shall not be, or be held to be, a requisite to the filing of any suit for the collection of taxes and such suits may be filed without publishing such notice. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 104, § 72.]

Art. 7880—73. Attorney to bring suit.—The directors shall on or before the first day of April each year employ an attorney to file suits for the collection of all delinquent taxes. Said attorney shall be entitled to a fee of ten per cent upon the amount of all delinquent taxes collected or paid after suit is filed and same shall be charged as costs of court and judgment recovered therefor together with said taxes and as part of same. Such suits shall be filed and tried as other civil suits. When the owner of the property against which the taxes are assessed is unknown, the suit may be filed as against an unknown owner and citation be published as provided by law with reference to State and county taxes. All tax suits shall be for the collection of the amount due and foreclosure of the lien on the property against which same are assessed and said property shall be sold under order of sale. All costs of suits shall be taxed therein. In the event more property is covered by such lien as fixed by the judgment than necessary to be sold to secure the amount due, same may be divided and sold in parcels as may be necessary to collect the amount due. The officer executing any such order of sale shall make deeds to the purchaser thereof which shall be held to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser subject to be impeached only for fraud. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 105, § 73.]

Art. 7880—74. Redemption of delinquent property.—Any person may redeem any property delinquent for taxes at any time prior to the date of sale of same under a judgment by paying the taxes and all penalties, interest, attorney's fees and court costs accrued thereon. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 105, § 74.]

Art. 7880—75. Land added to district.—Land may be added to a district and become a part thereof upon petition of the owner thereof in the following manner: The owner of the land shall file with the board of directors a petition praying that the lands described be added to and become a part of the established district. Said petition shall describe the land by metes and bounds and be signed and executed in the same manner provided by law for the conveyance of real estate. Such petition shall be heard and considered by the directors and may be granted and said land added to the district if same is considered to be to the advantage of the district and if the water supply, canals, etc. are sufficient to supply the same without injury to the lands of the district. Any such petition which may be granted adding lands to a district shall be filed for record and be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such land is situated. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 105, § 75.]

Art. 7880—76. Lands excluded from district.—Whenever a district shall have been organized and the directors shall find that land has been included within the boundaries of the district that should not have been included therein for the reason that same cannot be practicably and economically supplied with water from, or protected from flood by, the plant and improvements to be constructed by the district, or for other good reasons, and such facts are ascertained and determined before bonds, other than preliminary bonds, are issued, the directors may make an order entered on their minutes excluding such lands from the district and their finding shall be final and not subject to judicial review save and only upon the ground of fraud discovered after the entry of the order of exclusion. Notice thereof shall be given by publication of notice once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which such district is situated, or by notice in person or by registered mail, and the published notice shall be sufficient if directed to the owner or owners of the land and all others in any wise interested, without naming such owners. The owners of any such land may file protest thereto at any time within 30 days after the first publication of notice or receipt of notice, if delivered in person or by registered mail, and in the event of such protest such lands shall not be excluded therefrom unless it appears that water service, flood protection, or drainage cannot practicably and economically be rendered. In the event no protest thereto is filed, such order excluding such lands shall become and be effective 30 days from the date of the publication of the first notice, or the delivery of the notice in person or by mail, whereupon said order excluding such lands shall be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such lands are located. When land is eliminated from the district under the provisions hereof after preliminary bonds have been issued, such eliminated lands shall, nevertheless, be liable for the necessary taxes, until same shall have been fully paid off and discharged. Provided, nevertheless, in the event that the preliminary bonds of said district, if any, are thereafter retired by other bond issues of the district, then there shall be no further liability on the part of the lands eliminated in accordance with the provisions hereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 106, ch. 25, § 76; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 9.]

Art. 7880—76a. Elimination of cities from districts.—Whenever a city, town, village, or municipal corporation shall have been included within any district heretofore or hereafter organized under the provisions of Chapter 25, Acts of the 39th Legislature, and amendments thereof, and if before bonds, other than preliminary bonds, are issued, it shall be found by the directors of such district upon investigation that such city, town, village, or municipal corporation will not be sufficiently benefited or cannot practicably and economically be served with water or protected from flood by the construction of the improvements contemplated by the district, the directors of such district may, after notice as herein provided, hold a public hearing on the question of whether or not such city, town, village, or municipal corporation shall be eliminated from such district. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of such public hearing shall be given by publication of notice once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is situated. At the time and place set forth in such notice, the board of directors of the district shall hear the evidence of any and all interested parties upon the matter of the proposed elimination of such city, town, village, or municipal corporation. Should the board of directors, upon hearing evidence, be convinced that it is for the best interest of such city, town, village, or municipal corporation and, or, of the district, that such city, town, village, or municipal corporation be eliminated from the district, then the board of directors shall pass an order eliminating same, and their findings shall be final and not subject to judicial review, save upon the ground of fraud discovered after entry of the order of exclusion. A copy of such order duly signed and acknowledged by the president of the board of directors and attested by the secretary shall be thereupon filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties wherein such city, town, village, or municipal corporation is situated. Upon the entry of such order of elimination and the filing of same for record in the office of the county clerk, such order shall become effective and such eliminated city, town, village, or municipal corporation shall thereafter be relieved of any and all liability thereafter incurred by said district. Provided, nevertheless, that all property situated within such eliminated city, town, village, or municipal corporation shall be subject to the payment of any and all necessary taxes to pay off and discharge the interest on and principal of preliminary bonds of the district theretofore issued, if any, and the cost of collecting taxes therefor. In the event that the preliminary bonds of said district, if any, are thereafter retired by other bond issues of the district, then there shall be no further liability on the part of the property situated within said excluded city, town, village, or municipal corporation for the payment of such preliminary bonds. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 10.]

Art. 7880—77. Transfer of water rights to other lands.—When there is included in a district lands having a water right from a source of supply acquired by such district, but which lands it is difficult or impracticable to irrigate, the said district may allow such water rights to be transferred to other lands adjacent to the district and may admit such other lands to the district upon an equal basis as to water service with the lands from which said water was transferred. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 106, § 77.]

Art. 7880—78. Construction of plant and improvements.—Whenever a district shall have been organized and shall have adopted plans for the construction of a plant and improvements to carry out the purpose of its organization, it may issue bonds for the purpose of constructing same and paying all costs and charges incident thereto, including the cost of property deemed necessary therefor and the retirement of any and all preliminary bonds theretofore issued, if any. Before an election is held to authorize the issuance of bonds, there shall be filed in the office of the district, an engineer's report covering the plan and improvements to be constructed, together with maps,

plats, profiles, and data fully showing and explaining same, and same shall be open to inspection by the public. The said engineer's report shall contain a detailed estimate of the cost of such improvements including the cost of purchase of any property to be purchased, and shall also contain an estimate of the time required to complete said improvements, so that service therefrom can be commenced. The directors shall consider and approve such report and may make changes therein and note same of record in their minutes. After such report shall have been filed and approved, with changes, if any, the board of directors may order an election to be held in the district for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of such bonds. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 106, ch. 25, § 78; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 11.]

Art. 7880—79. Plants and improvements; bonds.—Such bonds may be issued so as to include and cover the cost of organization of the district, incidental expenses, the cost of investigation and making plans, engineer's work and other incidental expenses, including cost of retirement of preliminary bonds of the district, if any, theretofore issued, cost of issuing and selling bonds, estimated discount on the bonds and cost of operation of the district for the period stated in the engineer's report, as estimated to be required for the construction of the plant and improvements to be constructed up to the time same shall be completed and service therefrom commenced, and as part of such costs there may be included in such bond issue a sum sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds during such period so stated in the engineer's report and not to exceed three years from the time such bonds are sold. An estimate shall be made by the board of directors in its order for the election of the total amount required to cover said items and such bonds may also be issued so as to include and cover any additional cost or expense which it may become necessary to add to the engineer's estimate by any change or modification made by the district in the proposed work, and in its order for the election the board of directors shall make an estimate covering any such additional cost or expense on account of any change or modification made by them in the proposed work. The maximum amount of bonds to be issued shall not exceed the amount of said engineer's estimate, together with the amounts of the estimate so made by the board of directors in its order. Such order shall state the proposed maximum interest rate on said bonds and the maximum maturity date of said bonds, and shall state the time and place or places of holding the election and the names of the officers of election. The bonds so voted upon may be issued to mature at the end of a term of years, or to mature in serial form at any date, not to exceed the maximum maturity date stated in the order for the election and may be issued at any rate of interest, not to exceed the rate of interest stated in such order, and in no event to exceed 6 per cent per annum. The proposition to be voted upon shall be that of the issuance of the total amount of bonds covered by the amount of the estimate made in the engineer's report and the estimates which may be made by the Board of Directors, as hereinbefore provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 106, ch. 25, § 79; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 12.]

Art. 7880—80. Notice of bond election.—Notice of election, stating the maximum amount of bonds to be issued and the proposed maximum interest rate thereon and the maximum maturity date of said bonds and the time and place or places of holding the election, shall be given under the hand of the president and secretary of the Board of Directors, by publication of such notice once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper having general circulation in the county or counties in which said district, or any part thereof, is located, the first of which publication shall be at least twenty-eight days before the date of such election. Such notice shall contain substantially the proposition to be voted upon and shall contain a summary of the engineer's estimate of the cost of the proposed improvements, as shown by his report provided for in Section 78 [Art. 7880—78], and shall also contain a statement showing any estimate or estimates made by the Board of Directors in its order for the election covering sums to be included in the proposed bond issue. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 106, ch. 25, § 80; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 13.]

Art. 7880—81. Propositions submitted.—The propositions submitted at such election shall be as follows: "For the issue of bonds and levy of taxes in payment therefor" and "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." In the event that contract is proposed to be made with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Laws, the question which shall be submitted to the voters at such election shall be "For contract with the United States and levy of tax in payment therefor" and "Against contract with the United States and levy of tax in payment therefor." [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 106, § 81.]

Art. 7880—82. Contract with United States.—If contract with the United States is proposed for election the notice of election shall state the maximum amount of money payable for construction purposes, exclusive of penalties and interest. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 108, § 82.]

Art. 7880—83. Manner of election; record.—The order of the board of directors ordering such election shall be recorded upon their minutes. A copy of the notice of election together with a copy of said notice as published and the publisher's affidavit of publication attached thereto shall be filed in the office of the district. The said election shall be held and conducted and returns made in accordance with the provisions of law for holding elections in such districts as herein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 108, § 83.]

Art. 7880—84. Vote required.—In all such districts organized in accordance with the provisions of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, the vote required upon an election for issuance of bonds shall be a two-thirds majority of those voting at such election. In all other districts herein provided for the vote required for the adoption of the issuance of such bonds shall be a majority of those participating in such election. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 108, § 84.]

Art. 7880—85. Limitation of indebtedness; form of ballot; additional bonds.—The board of directors of any district which has been or shall be organized under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, may, for the benefit of the purchasers, or holders, of bonds to be issued or sold, limit the power of the district to incur debt or issue bonds in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided. Said board may adopt a resolution declaring that during a period of not exceeding fifteen years the district shall not issue bonds in excess of twenty-five per cent of the assessed value of the taxable real property of the district according to the last assessment for district purposes, or not in excess of a fixed sum, or only for certain named purposes, and shall give notice of the adoption of such resolution by publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the district, stating that such resolutions shall take effect unless a petition signed by twenty per cent of the qualified tax paying electors of the district shall be presented against the proposed limitation within twenty days after the date of the first publication of such notice. If such petition or remonstrance be filed within said period, such limitation shall not take effect unless it is approved at an election held in the district. The ballot on the question at such election shall be substantially in the following form: "For limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to _____," and "Against limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to _____." The blank space therein shall be properly filled in to show the purpose of the election.

If such limitation shall be approved, or if during said period no petition or remonstrance shall be filed the district shall not issue bonds under any statute or constitutional provision during said term in excess of the amount so limited, except for the necessary repair of or to complete works for construction of which bonds may be issued within each limitation, and shall only issue bonds exceeding such limitation for said purpose after the State Board of Water Engineers shall have approved same, and the plans and specifications for same, with the estimate of the cost thereof. If such plans and specifications and estimate be approved by said State Board of Water Engineers, notice of intention to issue such bonds, stating the purpose thereof, shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the district, stating the amount of the proposed issue of bonds and the time a hearing will be had, which time shall not be less than thirty days from the first publication. Any tax payer, bondholder, or other person interested may appear and shall be heard.

Said hearing to be held by the board of directors of the district. If the determination be in favor of the issuance of such additional bonds for the amount and for the purpose stated in the notice, the question of issuing such bonds shall be submitted to the property tax paying voters at an election held in the form and manner provided by law. Only resident voters who are property tax payers shall vote at such election as provided by the provisions of the Constitution. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 108, § 85; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 14.]

Art. 7880—86. Issuance of bonds: requirements.—The bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the president and attested by the secretary, with the seal of the district affixed thereto, and said bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, and such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually. Such bonds shall by their terms provide the time, place or places, manner and condition of their payment and the interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the directors of said district, and none of such bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date thereof, provided that the lien for the payments due the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompanying which bonds have not been deposited with the United States, shall be preferred lien to that of any issue of bonds or any series of any issue subsequent to the date of such contract. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 109, § 86; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 15.]

Art. 7880—87. Limitation of indebtedness.—After the canvass of the vote and declaring the result, as provided for, the directors shall make and enter an order directing the issuance of bonds or authorizing the execution of a contract with the United States for such district, as the case may be, sufficient in amount to pay for such improvements, together with all necessary incidental expense connected therewith not to exceed the amount specified in the order for the election and the notice of election. In districts organized under the authority of Article 3, Section 52 of the Constitution the amount of such bonds, or the amount of contract indebtedness with the United States shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the actual assessed value of the real property of such district as shown by the assessment thereof made for the purpose of determining the value thereof, or at the last annual assessment as provided for in this Act. This limitation of indebtedness of one-fourth of the assessed value shall not apply to districts organized under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 109, § 87.]

Art. 7880—88. Additional bonds; supplemental contract with United States.—If, after an election has been held for the issuance of bonds or for contract with the United States, and the tax authorized and levied, and bonds have been authorized to be issued or have been issued as provided for in this Act, or contract with the United States authorized or executed, as the case may be, the directors of said district shall consider it necessary to make any modifications in said district, or in any of the improvements thereof, or shall determine to purchase or construct any further or additional improvements therein and issue additional bonds upon the report of the engineer, or shall determine to make supplemental contract with the United States, or upon its own motion may find it necessary to make additional improvements, or purchase additional property in order to carry out the purpose for which the district was organized, or to best serve the interests of said district, said finding shall be entered of record and notice of an election for the issuance of said bonds, or for authorization of contract with the United States, shall be given, and such election held within such times, and the returns of such election made as hereinbefore provided for in case of original election, and the result thereof determined in the same manner. If the result of such election be declared to be in favor of the issuance of such bonds or the making of such contract with the United States, said directors may order such bonds to be issued, or may negotiate and execute supplemental contract with the United States as in the manner provided in this Act. And provided that if a contract is made with the United States as herein provided and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with said contract, bonds need not be issued, or if required to raise funds in addition to the amount of such contract, said bonds shall be issued only in the amount needed in addition thereto. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 110, § 88.]

Art. 7880—89. Damages to improvements; bonds; notice.—Whenever such district shall have constructed or purchased improvements and same may be damaged so that it may be necessary to raise funds to repair such damage, said district may either issue bonds to secure such funds or may issue its notes to run not to exceed twenty years, and to bear interest at not to exceed six per cent per annum. Before such notes are issued the board of directors shall order an election and give notice thereof as required in bond issues stating the purpose for which they are to be issued, the time they are to run, and the rate of interest they are to bear, and the time and the place of said election. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon, "For issuance of notes" and "Against Issuance of notes." The election shall be held and returns made and canvassed as provided for bond elections. If a majority of those voting at such election voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds or notes, the board of directors may issue and sell same for the benefit of said district. At the time such bonds or notes are issued or sold the board of directors shall levy a tax for the purpose of paying the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund to pay such interest and to pay such bonds or notes within the time of their maturity. Said notes shall be issued in serial form to mature in installments as determined by the directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 110, § 89; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 16.]

Art. 7880—90. Bonds; payment; form.—Whenever such bonds have been voted, the directors for such district shall levy a tax upon all property within such district sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds together with an additional amount to be placed in the sinking fund, sufficient to redeem and discharge such bonds at their maturity, and said directors of such district shall annually levy or cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within said district in an amount sufficient to pay for the expense of assessing and collecting said taxes. Whenever contract shall be made with the United States, taxes shall similarly be levied sufficient in amount to meet all installments as they become payable, and interest if any, and the directors shall cause due levy annually to be made until all such contracts and obligations shall have been discharged. Such bonds may be issued in serial form, or payable in installments, as determined by said directors, and such tax levy shall be sufficient if it provides an amount sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to meet the proportionate amount of the principal of the next maturing series of such bonds and the expenses of assessing and collecting such taxes for such year. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 114, § 90.]

Art. 7880—91. Tax levy; investment of sinking fund.—The tax levy made in connection with the issuance of any bonds shall remain in force from year to year as the levy for the purpose to be collected, until a new levy shall be made. The board of directors may from time to time increase or diminish such tax, so as to adjust the same for the taxable values of the property subject to taxation by the district and the amount required to be collected, and shall in every such levy raise thereby an amount sufficient to pay the annual interest and sinking fund on all bonds then outstanding.

The board of directors may invest any portion of the sinking fund of the district set aside for the redemption of its outstanding bonds in bonds of the United States, of the State of Texas, or of any county or city within the State, of any irrigation or water improvement district, school district, or other tax bonds issued under the laws of the State of Texas such funds may be so invested when the bonds to be paid thereby do not mature within three years from the time of making such investment and when same is necessary to preserve the best interests of said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 111, § 91.]

Art. 7880—92. Refunding bonds.—Any district governed by this Act which has heretofore been organized under the laws of this State and any district hereafter organized under the provisions hereof, may refund any bonds issued by issuing new bonds for that purpose, provided the said old bonds are taken in exchange at their face value or less, or in event such new bonds can be sold at a premium and the old bonds retired thereby without loss to the district.

The Comptroller shall not register such new bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which they are issued, are presented to him for cancellation, or until a valid contract has been entered into and a copy thereof filed with the Comptroller providing for the purchase of such old bonds or exchange thereof. The Comptroller shall keep said new bonds until the old ones are presented to him for exchange or payment. In case same are presented for payment, the district shall pay same before such new bonds are registered. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 112, § 92.]

Art. 7880—93. Limitation of indebtedness.—No district shall issue bonds or create indebtedness in an amount more than that authorized by the provision of the Constitution of the State of Texas, authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the creation of such indebtedness. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 112, § 93.]

Art. 7880—94. Interest and sinking fund.—There is hereby created what shall be termed the "Interest and Sinking Fund" for such district, and all taxes collected under the provisions of this Act, for such fund, shall be credited to such fund, and shall never be paid out except for the purpose of satisfying and discharging the interest on said bonds, the payment of such bonds, and to defray the expenses of assessing and collecting such tax, and for the payment of principal and interest due the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as herein provided; such fund shall be paid out upon the order of the board of directors of such district upon warrants drawn therefor, as herein provided, and at the time of such payment the depository for such district shall receive and cancel any interest coupon as paid or any bond as paid, and when any such interest coupon or bond has been paid it shall be delivered to the directors and be cancelled and destroyed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 112, § 94.]

Art. 7880—95. Suit to validate bonds.—Whenever any district shall have issued bonds including preliminary bonds as herein provided and may desire to validate same by suit as hereinafter provided, such suit may be filed for the validation or the organization of such district and of such bonds and after the rendition of a final judgment therein said bonds or contract shall be incontestable and no suit shall be brought in any court of this State contesting or enjoining the validity of the formation of any such district or any bonds issued thereby or contesting or enjoining the validity of any contract with the United States or of authorization thereof by the district, except in the name of the State of Texas, by the Attorney General upon his own motion or upon the motion of any party affected thereby upon good cause shown. No such suit shall be filed or prosecuted by the Attorney General unless based upon allegations of fraud disclosed or found after the rendition of a final judgment in such validation suit. If such validation suit is filed it shall not be necessary to have said bonds approved by the Attorney General as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 112, § 95; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 17.]

Art. 7880—96. Jurisdiction; notice.—Such validation suit shall be brought by the district in the district court in any county in which said district or any part thereof is located, or in any county of the judicial district in which such district is located, or in the district court of Travis County. Such suit shall be to determine the validity of the organization of such district and determine the validity of such bonds; or such district contracting with the United States shall, if requested by the Secretary of the Interior, bring such an action to determine the validity of such contract. Such suits shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem and jurisdiction of all parties thereto and interested therein shall be had by publication of a general notice thereof once each week for at least two consecutive weeks prior to the term of court to which same is returnable. Said notice shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which such district is situated, and if no paper is published in such county or counties, then same shall be published in a newspaper of the nearest county thereto where a paper is published. Notice shall also be served upon the Attorney General of the State of Texas of the pendency of such suit in the same manner as civil suits. The Attorney General may waive service in such suits when furnished a full transcript of the proceedings had in the formation of such district; and in connection with the issuance of such bonds; in connection with the authorization of a contract with the United States and a copy of the contract. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 113, § 96.]

Art. 7880—97. Examination by Attorney General; intervention.—It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to make an examination of all such proceedings and require such further evidence and make such further examination as may seem advisable to him. He shall then file an answer tendering the issue as whether such proceedings are valid and such bonds are legal and binding obligations upon such district, or as the case may be, as to whether such contract with the United States is legal and binding upon the districts. Any person interested therein may intervene in said cause or file answer therein. The issue thus made shall be tried and determined by the court and judgment be entered upon such finding. If such bonds shall have been approved by the Attorney General and have been registered before such suit is filed then the filing of such suit cancels prior registration. All suits brought under the provisions of this Act shall have preference over all other actions in order that a speedy determination thereof may be had. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 113, § 97.]

Art. 7880—98. Judgment res adjudicata.—Upon the trial with the issues made in accordance with the preceding section of this Act, if the judgment of the court shall be adverse to the district upon any issue, then such judgment may be by said district excepting and the error pointed out in such proceedings may be corrected, the judge in the manner directed by the court and when so corrected, the judgment of the court shall be rendered showing that such corrections have been made, and that the bonds issued thereunder, or the contract with the United States are binding obligations upon such district. And thereafter the judgment si [as] finally made and entered shall be received as res adjudicata in all cases thereafter arising in connection with the collection of said bonds, or any interest due thereon, or of any taxes levied by the district to pay the charges thereon, or in connection with the collection of moneys required by a contract with the United States, and as to all matters pertaining to the organization and validity of said district or pertaining to the validity of such bonds, or of a contract with the United States. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 113, § 98.]

Art. 7880—99. Certified copy of decree conclusive evidence.—After the making and entry of the judgment of the district court as herein provided the clerk of said court shall make a certified copy of such decree which shall be filed in the office of the State Comptroller and be by him recorded in a book kept for that purpose. Said certified copy, or a certified copy of said record thereof, made and kept by the Comptroller, shall be received in evidence in any suit thereafter arising which may affect the validity of the organization of such district, or the validity of such bonds, or of such contract with the United States, and shall be conclusive evidence of such validity. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 114, § 99.]

Art. 7880—100. Registration of bonds; certificate.—Upon the presentation of said bonds together with certified copy of the decree of the district court, the Comptroller shall register such bonds in a book kept in his office for that purpose, and shall attach to each of said bonds a certificate of the fact that the decree of the district court as required by this Act has been filed and recorded in his office. Said certificate shall be signed officially and the seal of his office attached thereto. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 114, § 100.]

Art. 7880—101. Sale of bonds.—After the issuance of such bonds as herein provided the directors of a district shall sell same on the best terms and for the best possible price, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than ninety per cent of their face value. When said bonds are sold the proceeds thereof shall be paid over by the directors to the depository for said district. The district may exchange bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done for the use and benefit of said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 114, § 101.]

Art. 7880—102. "Construction Fund."—The proceeds of any such bonds sold and deposited in the depository shall be credited to the special fund designated "Construction Fund." All expenses, debts and obligations necessarily incurred in the creation and establishment and maintenance of any district may be paid out of the construction fund and all cost of purchase of property and construction contracts may be paid from said fund including all purchases for which same were issued. If same are issued in accordance with a contract made or to be made with the United States as herein provided all debts and obligations may be paid therefrom under the terms of such contract, or incident thereto. After the payment of all obligations for which such bonds were issued to pay any balance remaining therein may be transferred to the maintenance fund. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 114, § 102.]

Art. 7880—103. "Maintenance Fund."—Such district shall have a fund to be known as the "Maintenance Fund" into which shall be paid all funds collected by assessment or otherwise for the maintenance, repair and operation of the properties and plant of the district, or for temporary annual rental due to the United States. Out of said fund shall be paid all expenses of maintenance, repair and operation of the district, except the expenses of assessing and collecting taxes for the interest and sinking fund may be paid out of that fund. Out of said fund may be paid all expenses not herein otherwise provided for. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 115, § 103.]

Art. 7880—104. "Amortization and Emergency Fund."—All such funds heretofore created and existing under the laws of this State shall be preserved and used as herein provided. The board of directors of each district shall cause to be made by a competent engineer an inspection and valuation of all the physical properties of such district, subject to decay or obsolescence [obsolescence], injury or damage by any sudden, accidental or unusual cause whatsoever, and based upon inspection and valuation said engineer shall determine, as nearly as may be, a sum to be annually set aside as will be sufficient to pay for replacement of each item of such physical property at the end of its economical life, or for the restoration or replacement of any such physical property upon the happening of such loss, injury or damage thereto. Out of the maintenance and operation fund, as the same shall be collected, such board of directors shall set aside such portion thereof as shall be necessary to make each year the amount of the annual sum determined as above provided to be known as the "Amortization and Emergency Fund", and no part of such fund shall be expended except to replace such amortization property, or to replace or restore such lost, injured or damaged property. Any part of the amortization and emergency fund not necessarily expended for the purposes above provided, may be invested in bonds or interest bearing securities of the United States. Provided, that any such board of directors may or may not in the discretion of such board, establish such amortization and emergency fund, but after each fund has been established for any such district as above provided, the same shall thereafter be kept up and maintained. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 115, § 104.]

Art. 7880—105. District funds; how handled.—All district funds shall be handled by and under the orders of the board of directors upon warrants drawn therefor. At the time of the payment of interest coupon or of any bonds the directors shall receive and cancel same and make a record thereof which same shall be destroyed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 115, § 105.]

Art. 7880—106. Charges for water furnished.—All such districts shall have authority to make, establish and collect maintenance and operation charges for the service they render which may be determined and fixed upon the basis of the quantity of water furnished or appropriate measure of the service rendered, and if based upon a use of water a fixed charge may be made as a minimum charge on all lands, water connections or other service entitled to receive and use same, and an additional charge may be made for the use of water in excess of that covered by the minimum charge. The district may install proper measuring devices or require that same be installed. Where a district includes a city or town or contracts with a city or town to supply it water, the charge for the use and delivery of such water and the time and manner of payment shall be determined by the board of directors or be fixed by contract made by the directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 115, § 106.]

Art. 7880—107. Taxation to maintain proper service.—All such districts shall have authority to levy and collect taxes to secure funds to maintain, repair and operate all plants, properties and improvements of the district and to give and maintain proper service for the purposes of its organization. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 116, § 107.]

Art. 7880—108. Power to refuse service.—Every such district shall have the power and authority to refuse service of water to anyone therein or entitled thereto who shall refuse to pay the charges and assessments therefor or who shall fail or refuse to pay any taxes levied against his property after six months from date same become delinquent. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 116, § 108.]

Art. 7880—109. Statement by person desiring service.—Every person desiring to receive water during the course of the year, or at any time during the year, shall furnish to the secretary of the board of directors a statement in writing of the acreage intended by him to be put under irrigation, and for which water is to be used, and as near as may be a statement of the several crops to be planted with the acreage of each, and shall at the same time pay such proportion of the water charge or assessment therefor as may be prescribed by the board of directors. If such statement should not be furnished, or such payment should not be made before the date for fixing the assessments, there shall be no obligation upon the district to furnish such water to such person for that year. The board of directors, on or as soon as practicable after a date in each year to be fixed by a standing order of the board, shall carefully estimate the expense to be incurred during the course of the next twelve months for the maintenance and operation of the irrigation system. A proportionate part of the amount so estimated, not less than one-third, nor more than two-thirds, to be determined from year to year by the board of directors, shall be paid by assessment against all irrigable lands within the district, pro rata per acre; that is to say, against all lands to which the district is in condition to furnish water by its then systems of canals and laterals, or through extensions thereto of then existing laterals, but without reference as to whether such land is to be actually irrigated or not, and the remainder of the amount so estimated shall be paid by the persons taking water or applying for water as aforesaid. This remaining amount shall be equitably prorated among the applicants for water, and in prorating same the board of directors may take into consideration the acreage to be planted by each applicant for water, the crop to be grown by him and the amount of water per acre to be used by him, provided, however, that each water user shall pay the same price per acre for use of water upon the same class of crops. All assessments shall be paid in installments and at times to be fixed by order of the board of directors, but if the crop for which such water was furnished shall be harvested prior to the time fixed for the payment of any installment, the entire unpaid assessment shall at once become due and shall be paid within ten days after the harvesting of such crop and before removal of same from the county or counties in which grown. The board of directors shall have power and authority from time to time to adopt, alter and rescind rules, regulations, standing orders and temporary orders, not in conflict with this Act, governing the methods, ways, terms and conditions of water service, applications for water, assessment for maintenance and operation and payment and enforcement of payment of such assessments, and the furnishing of water to persons who have not applied for same before the date of assessment, and to persons who desire to take water for irrigation in excess of their original applications or for use on lands other than those covered by such applications. The board of directors may, at their discretion, require every person desiring water during the course of the year to enter into a contract with the district, which contract shall indicate the acreage to be watered, the crops to be planted, and the amount to become due and the terms of payment; and it may be further required that the water taker shall execute a negotiable note or notes for such amounts, or for parts thereof. The making of such contracts shall not constitute a waiver of the lien given by this Act upon the crops of the water taker for the service furnished to him. If the water taker shall water more land than is called for in his contract he shall pay for such additional service rendered as and at the times hereinbefore indicated. To secure money for operating and maintenance expense of the district the board of directors shall have authority to borrow money with interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum, and may hypothecate any of the notes or contracts with water takers or accounts against them. The district shall have a first lien, superior to all other liens, upon all crops of whatsoever kind grown upon each tract of land in the district, to secure the payment of the assessment herein provided for, and all such assessments shall bear interest from the time due and payable at the rate of ten per cent per annum. And if suit should be filed therefor, or the same should be collected by any legal proceeding, an additional amount of ten per cent on unpaid principal and interest shall be added to the same as collection or attorney's fees, as well as principal and interest of such assessments shall stand secured by the lien as aforesaid. Suits for delinquent water assessments may be brought either in the county in which the irrigation district is situated or in the county in which the defendant resides. All land owners shall be personally liable for all assessments herein provided for, and if they shall fail or refuse to pay same when due the water supply shall be cut off and no water shall be furnished to the land until all back dues are fully paid. This provision with respect to cutting off water shall bind all parties, persons and corporations owning or thereafter acquiring any interest in said lands. The directors of all districts shall within ten days after any assessment is due, post at a public place in said district a list of all delinquents and shall thereafter keep posted a correct list of all such delinquents; provided however, that if the parties owing such assessments shall have executed notes and contracts as hereinbefore provided, they shall not be placed upon such delinquent list until after the maturity of such notes and contract. In the event that contract shall be made with the United States, the remedies in this section hereinbefore provided in favor of the district shall apply with regard to the operation and maintenance and rental charges which may become due the United States. Provided, however, that the Federal Reclamation Laws, and in particular, the Reclamation Extension Act approved August 13, 1914, and any acts amendatory thereof shall be applicable. Moreover, all water, the right to the use of which is acquired by the district under contract with the United States, shall be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the Acts of Congress, and rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior, and the provisions of such contract in relation thereto, and it is so enacted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 116, § 109.]

Art. 7880—110. Surplus or deficiency; notice of assessment.—In the event the assessment made as provided for in the preceding section should be more than sufficient to meet the necessary obligations of the district, the balance shall be carried over to the next season; and in the events the assessments are not sufficient to meet the expenses the balance unpaid shall be assessed pro rata, in accordance with the assessments previously made for the then current year, and shall be paid under the same conditions and penalties within thirty days from the time such assessment is made. Public notice of all such assessments shall be given by posting printed notice thereof in at least three public places in the district, and printed notice shall be mailed to each land owner, provided, however, that each land owner shall furnish to the board of directors his correct postoffice address. Such notice shall be given by posting and mailing such notice five days before the assessment is due, and in the event of special assessments such notice shall be given within ten days after such assessments are levied. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 118, § 110.]

Art. 7880—111. Collection of assessments.—All assessments for maintenance and operation expenses under the provisions of this Act shall be collected under the direction of the directors by the assessor and collector of taxes, or other person designated by them, which said officer shall give such bond as they may direct conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and accounting for all money collected. He shall keep a true account of all money collected and deposit the same as collected in the dis-district depository and shall file with the secretary of the directors a true statement of all money collected once each week. The collector shall use duplicate receipt books and shall give a true receipt for each collection made, retaining in such books true copy thereof, which shall be preserved as a record of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 118, § 111.]

Art. 7880—112. Unorganized county.—Districts may be organized in an unorganized county by the commissioners' court of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 119, § 112.]

Art. 7880—113. Depository; bond; report.—The directors of every district shall select a depository for such district in accordance with the provisions of law for the selection of depositories for counties in this State, and the duties of such depository and the bonds and securities to be given thereby shall be the same as provided by law for county depositories, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. In the selection of a depository the directors of such district shall perform all duties provided by such law to be performed by the county officers in the selection of depositories, acceptance and approval of bonds, and all other acts. All depositories so selected shall furnish good and sufficient bond to fully protect the district and guarantee the safe-keeping of such funds and accounting for same as provided by law. Which bonds shall be approved by the directors. All such bonds shall be recorded in a record kept in the district office for that purpose and preserved in a fire-proof vault or safe.

All funds of the district of any and all kinds shall be deposited in the depository and paid out as herein provided. All said funds shall be paid into the proper account and kept separately, same being: interest and sinking fund account, construction account, and maintenance account. No funds shall be paid from the interest, and sinking fund account except to pay interest and principal on bonded indebtedness and the expense of assessing and collecting taxes therefor.

The district depository shall make a report of all moneys received, and of all moneys paid out at the end of each month and file such reports with such vouchers with the records of said district in its own vault, and shall furnish a true copy thereof to be inspected by any tax payer of said district, and shall be delivered to the successor of such depository. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 119, § 113.]

Art. 7880—114. District director interested in depository.—In the event the highest and best bidder as district depository should be a bank in which any member of the board of directors should be a stockholder or director, such bank may be selected as such depository if such interested director shall not vote upon the selection of same and the bonds given by the depository may be approved by the other directors. In such event, however, before such bank is selected as such depository or such bonds shall become effective the same shall be presented to the county judge of the county in which such district is situated and be approved by him, but in the event the county judge of said county shall for any reason fail to approve the selection of such bank as depository or fail to approve such bond, then new bids shall be called for and some other bank be selected. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 119, § 114.]

Art. 7880—115. Municipal corporation within district.—No town, city or municipal corporation shall be included within any district organized hereunder unless the proposition for the organization thereof shall have been adopted by a majority vote of the voters therein participated [participating] in such election. Any such municipal corporation included within a district shall be a separate voting district and the ballots cast therein shall be counted and canvassed to show the result of such election therein. No district hereafter organized embracing a town, city or municipal corporation shall include lands outside of such municipal corporation unless the election held therein to confirm and ratify the formation of such district shall be adopted thereby independent of the vote in such municipal corporation.

No district, the major portion of which is in one county shall be organized to include lands in another county unless the election held therein to confirm and ratify the formation of such district shall be adopted by the vote of those voting such portion of such county, independent of the vote of the portion thereof in such other county or counties.

In the event any portion of a district, under the provisions of this section shall vote against the formation of a district and the balance of such district shall vote for the formation thereof such proposition shall be adopted and such district be confirmed and ratified with the exception of the territory so voting against same, which is thereby automatically excluded therefrom and from all debts and obligations thereafter incurred, provided, however, if as many as ten per cent of the voters of such district so organized shall file with the board of directors a petition asking for a new election on such issue, such new election shall be ordered and held for the remaining portion of such district, or such district organization may be dissolved by order of the board of directors and a new district be formed. All lands and property included in such original district shall be subject to the payment of taxes for the payment of all debts and obligations incurred while it was a part thereof including organization expenses. The petition asking for a new election herein provided for shall be filed within thirty days after the date upon which the result of such election is canvassed and declared by the directors and not thereafter. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 119, § 115.]

Art. 7880—116. Letting contracts.—The provisions of law providing for the letting of contracts, furnishing of bonds and other procedure for the letting of contracts for construction work shall apply to all such work involving the expenditure of twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars or more, but shall not be a restriction upon the authority of the directors to operate and maintain said district or let contracts for less than twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars for repairs and improvements. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 120, § 116.]
